Aloha Neighbors,

We are currently halfway through the 2023 legislative session. Bills introduced in the House and Senate are currently going for third reading in their respective chamber and will soon crossover for the process to start all over again.

I am focused on the State providing more affordable housing, more transparency regarding the Red Hill water crisis, and ensuring our children are getting a quality education. I have spent the last few weeks visiting our local schools and speaking with our principals to see how we can best assist them. I appreciate all the comments and thoughts that have been shared on some of the bills. I will continue to serve our district as best as I can. Please share any thoughts you may have as we continue through this legislative session. You can reach me through email repaiu@capitol.hawaii.gov or by phone at (808) 586-9470.

Sincerely,

Our Neighborhood Educators

Red Hill Elementary School

Principal Komarey Moss joined the Red Hill Elementary family in 2019 and successfully led her faculty and staff through difficult times such as the Covid 19 pandemic and the Red Hill water crisis. It was moving to hear her story of advocacy for her students and community. The school went above and beyond to secure transportation and other services, such as laundry, for the families who were torn from their homes during the Red Hill water crisis.

Red Hill Elementary has a unique location situated in a residential area in the Moanalua Valley. The school's population is approximately 70% military, which means their student body is constantly changing and diverse. She led us on a tour of the campus and showed us the sites for improvement. Constuction is already ongoing to bring the students a new play court.

Aiea Intermediate School

Pictured to the left is Jess Lobo Atnip, Representative Aiu, and Kelli. Ching at Aiea Intermediate School. Teachers at Aiea Intermediate are not just supporters of their students but also advocates. Jess stresses the growing English Language Learner (ELL) population in Hawai'i and urges for more resources to enhance their learning experience.
