SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE TO RECEIVE UPDATES FROM ATTORNEY GENERAL ON TRUMP ADMINISTRATION LAWSUITS

HONOLULU – The Hawai'i State Senate Committee on Judiciary, chaired by Senator Karl Rhoads (Senate District 13 – Dowsett Highlands, Pu'unui, Nu'uauu, Pacific Heights, Pauoa, Punchbowl, Pālama, Liliha, Iwilei, Chinatown, and Downtown) will be holding an informational briefing to receive an update from the Department of the Attorney General about litigation where the State of Hawai'i is the lead plaintiff or part of a coalition of plaintiffs that have filed a lawsuit against the President and his administration.

"The Committee wants to get a status update of the State of Hawai'i's numerous lawsuits filed against the Trump Administration," said Senator Rhoads. "The Trump Administration has taken many actions of questionable legality, many of which negatively affect Hawai'i residents."

Lawsuits in a variety of areas are currently pending, ranging from challenges to funding cuts for keiki in our schools, to reductions in funding for medical research, to efforts to end birthright citizenship. In a majority of cases that have been ruled on to date, the courts have found in Hawai'i's favor.

"Hawai'i and other states with Democratic attorneys general have made a successful effort in protecting federal funding and the rights of the people of Hawai'i by securing injunctions against arbitrary and illegal actions," said Attorney General Anne Lopez. "The people of Hawai'i rightfully expect that the federal administration will act lawfully, and my department will work to protect the interests of Hawai'i residents."
