Are you interested in listing your home or other significant property on the Hawai'i Register or National Register of Historic Places?

Interested in the financial incentives and economic benefits of a historic designation?

Want to learn how county commissions and state boards are involved in the nomination process?

The Register of Historic Places Workshop will cover:

- Benefits and Responsibilities of Designation
- Evaluating Eligibility for the Register
- Completing the Nomination Form
- Roles of Historic Preservation Commissions, State Review Board, State Historic Preservation Division, and National Park Service in the Nomination Process

The 3-hour workshops feature instructors from Historic Hawai'i Foundation, preservation architectural firms and the State Historic Preservation Division and provide attendees with a chance to learn the basic process to complete a nomination to the State & National Register of Historic Places.

Free and open to the public.
