HOUSE DISTRICT 44 NEWSLETTER

Greetings and Aloha, District 44!

As we enter the final weeks of the legislative session, the pace is fast, the stakes are high, and the responsibility to deliver for our community has never been greater. I'm proud to share that 11 of my House bills are now advancing to conference committee—where House and Senate leaders come together to negotiate the final versions before they can head to the Governor's desk.

Each bill represents a conversation we've had, a challenge we've faced together, or a solution we've worked hard to shape—covering issues from public safety and consumer protection to infrastructure and government accountability.

This month, I'm also celebrating the recent homestead awards by the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL)—a reminder of what's possible when we invest in our people and honor the promises made to our beneficiaries. I remain committed to fighting for continued and consistent funding for DHHL so that more families can experience the security, dignity, and future that homesteads represent.

I'll keep pushing forward in every room, in every negotiation, and through every amendment—grounded in the needs of our community and the values we share. Mahalo for your continued support—it's a privilege to serve you.

Mahalo nui loa,

COMMUNITY UPDATES

Spring Tutoring Program at the Nānākuli Public Library

This program is designed to provide individualized support for students in Grades 3-8 who need extra help in Math or Reading. Additionally, while the tutoring sessions are underway, we also have an Enrichment Hour for Keiki, featuring storytime, LEGOs, crafts, and more to keep younger siblings engaged.
