

Office of Representative Adrian Tam

April 2022

Aloha neighbors,

First quarter of 2022 has been very productive for our office and we are grateful for all the constituents who contact our office voicing your concerns. One particular issue of note is public safety/crime. Following a number of high profile cases around the district, I met with the Honolulu Prosecutor's Office to relay the many concerns that you have brought to my attention over the past couple of weeks. Prosecutor Alm understands your concerns and continues to work with the community to ensure that these issues are addressed. We are working on initiatives to address and prevent crime in our district.

Our office continues to work with the Honolulu Police Department to ramp up our neighborhood citizen's patrol and increased presence in the community. I continue to believe that a strong relationship between our community and law enforcement is key to solving these issues that we deeply about.

I deeply appreciate connecting with all of you in our neighborhood and at the Hawaii State Capitol. I hope to see you all soon.

Mahalo nui loa,

Adrian Tam

TAKE DOWN TOBACCO DAY

On March 14, I joined many of my fellow legislators at a rally organized by the Coalition for a Tobacco-Free Hawaii Youth Council. The Take Down Tobacco National Day of Action is a national day of activism that seeks to empower youth across the country.

KOLOWALU PARK CROSSWALK TO BE REPAINTED!

Mahalo to all of you who have written, called, or emailed our office or the DoT and HCDA about the dangerous (lack of) a crosswalk between Queen and Waimanu Streets in Kakaako. Finally the crosswalk will be repainted, and a pedestrian refuge center will also be installed, allowing for safer access to those who need to cross the street.

Our district is fortunate to have a hidden gem, the Waikiki Community Center located on Paoakalani Ave.

I am proud to support this wonderful organization, founded in 1978 with the goal of supporting the well-being of our community.

Check out their website and sign up for activities at www.waikikicommunitycenter.org. This month, classes and new activities such as a Poke Making, Hula with Nalani Keale, Beginning Tahitian language with Nalini Gauthier, Senior Moves with Trish, Rummikub, Scrabble, Social Painting, Line Dancing and more.

The Emergency Food pantry will also be re-opening on April 26. Mahalo to all of those who support this amazing community resource.
