HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA TO STOP PERSECUTION BASED ON RELIGION AND FOR THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
TO HOLD THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATING THE RIGHT OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM.

1           WHEREAS, since 1999, the United States Department of State
2 has labeled China as a country of particular concern regarding 3 religious freedom; and
4

5           WHEREAS, in December 2023, the Biden Administration
6 reported the People's Republic of China as one of the countries
7 of particular concern regarding religious freedom; and 8

9           WHEREAS, in February 2024, the United States Congress
10 introduced a resolution to recognize religious freedom as a
11 fundamental right and expressed concern over continuing threats
12 to religious freedom around the world; and 13

14           WHEREAS, the People's Republic of China has the highest 15 population of religious prisoners in the world, many of whom 16 face high levels of persecution, and are pressured to adhere to 17 Chinese Communist Party ideology; and 18

19           WHEREAS, certain religious and spiritual groups have been 20 banned by the People's Republic of China, claiming that these 21 religious groups will use religion as camouflage, spread 22 superstitious ideas, deceive members, and endanger society; and 23

24           WHEREAS, religious minorities have been subject to torture,
25 mass arbitrary detention, forced disappearances, mass
26 surveillance, cultural and religious persecution, separation of 27 families, forced labor, sexual violence, and violations of 28 reproductive rights; and 29

30           WHEREAS, regulations on religious belief implemented by the 31 Chinese government only recognize five religions: Buddhism,

1 Catholicism, Daoism, Islam, and Protestantism, but religious
2 measures in the People's Republic of China's Constitution create
3 undefined and broad religious regulations that do not guarantee
4 the right to practice or worship; and

5
6 WHEREAS, as reported in a United States Congress Senate
7 Resolution the People's Republic of China has harassed,
8 intimidated, imprisoned, and committed acts of violence against 9 minorities based on religion which include but are not limited
10 to: Uyghur Muslims, Christians, Tibetan Buddhists, and Falun 11 Gong practitioners; and

12
13 WHEREAS, the Human Rights Watch expressed concern over new 14 regulations, worried that religious practitioners are expected
15 to conform with ideologies of the Chinese Communist Party or 16 risk imprisonment; and

17
18 WHEREAS, as reported by Human Rights Watch and the United 19 Nations, the People's Republic of China has committed crimes
20 against humanity for systematic abuse against Uyghurs and other 21 Turkic Muslims in Xinjiang; and

22
23 WHEREAS, in 2014, the People's Republic of China launched a
24 movement titled Strike Hard Campaign Against Violent Terrorism
25 that resulted in extreme religious regulations over Xinjiang and 26 implemented punishments for religious online activities
27 involving owning digital copies of the Quran; and

28
29 WHEREAS, as further reported by Human Rights Watch in 30 February 2024, the People's Republic of China implemented
31 regulations to tighten control over religious practices to 32 sinicize (modify by or adjust to Chinese influence) religions as 33 a new government priority under President Xi Jinping; now, 34 therefore,

35
36 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 37 Thirty-second Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular 38 Session of 2024, the Senate concurring, that the government of 39 the People's Republic of China is urged to stop the persecution 40 of religious minorities; and

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if this practice is still 2 state-sanctioned and continues, the United States Department of 3 State is urged to express and promote concern over the 4 violations of the People's Republic of China on religious 5 minorities subject to persecution and deprivation of religious 6 freedom; and

7
8 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the United States Department of 9 State is urged to hold the People's Republic of China
10 accountable for violating rights to religious freedom; and

11
12 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 13 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Majority Leader of
