RELATING TO BROTHER JOSEPH DUTTON DAY.

Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Poepoe, and Members of the Committee, thank you for the opportunity to testify on H.B. 458, H.D. 1.

The Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS) supports this bill and wishes to add the following comments for consideration:

1. The interest in the history of Kalaupapa has seen a strong resurgence after generations of disinterest and neglect. Not only are those souls who were exiled to the peninsula to live out the remainder of their lives worth remembering, but so too are those courageous volunteers who risked their own lives in order to bring comfort and care to the population of Kalaupapa. The efforts of these caregivers to bring a sense of humanity back to the residents of Kalaupapa should be honored and brought back from obscurity

2. Recognition of the efforts of Brother Dutton will provide a unique opportunity for the People of Hawai'i to reflect upon their history, while also increasing awareness and educational opportunities about those who lived at Kalaupapa for both the People of Hawai'i and those visiting our islands.
3. As the Keepers of Public Memory, the State Archives has a rich collection of over one hundred pages of correspondence, photographs, newspaper clippings, and personal journal entries from Brother Dutton. To assist in the education and dissemination regarding the efforts and accomplishments of Brother Dutton, the Public Archives is willing to digitize and place these letters online in order to make them freely, openly accessible from anywhere in the world.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit testimony on this matter

In Strong Support of HB 458

First of all, find enclosed a copy of the legislative resolution No. 7 of 1929 that is referenced in the bill.

I would also like to submit additional information on Brother Joseph Dutton which is not reflected in the bill:

- In 2015 the Catholic Diocese of Honolulu took the first official step in a long and complex road to the canonization of Joseph Dutton. Last year the diocese forwarded their findings to the Pope in the Vatican and is awaiting their decision to award Joseph Dutton sainthood.
- Joseph Dutton completes the trifacta along with St. Damien and St. Marianne Cope assuming the duties of administrative assistant at Kalaupapa after St. Damien's passing and overseeing the Baldwin Home for men while St. Marianne cared for the Bishop home for women.
- April 27th has double significance as it is not only his birthday, but also the day he was received into the Catholic Church, baptized and changed his name to Joseph, beginning his new life.
- Joseph Dutton is buried next to St. Damien at St. Philomena Church, Kalawao.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY
THE JOSEPH DUTTON GUILD TO THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY & HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

FEB. 21, 2025, 12:00 P.M. CONFERENCE ROOM 325, STATE CAPITOL

H.B. 458. HD1, RELATING TO BROTHER JOSEPH DUTTON DAY.

Chair TArnas, Vice Chair Poepoe, and Members of the Committee, thank you for the opportunity to testify on H.B. 458 H.D.1. I am Patrick Boland, representing the Joseph Dutton Guild. The Guild promotes dissemination of Dutton's story and supports his Sainthood Cause.

The Guild supports this bill. The merits of the bill are expressed very well in Section 1 of the bill itself. We note that the bill includes a reference to a 1929 resolution of the Territorial House in acknowledgement and appreciation of Dutton's service. This bill is a logical extension of that legislative precedent.

During the Civil War, Dutton served honorably in the Union Army from 1861 to 1865. After the war he spent more than a year supervising the exhumation of about 6,000 soldiers from battlefield graves for transfer to national cemeteries. He called it "gruesome work." In addition to coping with these traumatic situations he suffered a disastrously failed marriage, alcoholism and other problems. This led to what he later called his "degenerate decade."

Vowing to reform his life, he learned about the work of Father Damien at the Kalaupapa Settlement and in 1886 came to Kalaupapa to dedicate the rest of his life in service to the patients. He remained there, in service, for 44 years. For the first 17 years his primary work was sore-dressing, at which he was an unsurpassed expert. Eventually he assumed management of the Baldwin Home for Boys, which by 1926 had cared for 1,376 boys and men. He maintained this life of service for 44 years, never leaving Kalaupapa, until his health failed at the age of 87 and he was removed to St. Francis Hospital in Honolulu, where he died in 1931.

This extraordinary life of service and dedication deserves the recognition proposed in this bill.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this matter.

Testimony on HB 458 HD1

Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Poepoe and members of the Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs. Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this bill. I strongly support this bill.

My name is Brenda R. Duarte a descendant of previous residents of Kalaupapa and patients Frank and Mary Duarte, Richard and Gloria Marks, Eddie Marks and Winifred (Marks) Harada.

I also serve on The Joseph Dutton Guild seeking toward the beatification and canonization of Joseph Dutton. I am aware of the impact the lives of Fr. Damien, Mother Marianne and Joseph Dutton had on many of the afflicted and medical personnel of Kalaupapa.

Joseph Dutton served in the Union Army for the entire Civil War. After the war he spent more than a year in the psychologically difficult work of disinterring about 6000 hastily buried Union soldiers for reburial in national cemeteries. His life was further marred by a failed marriage, alcoholism and other problems which led to what he called his “degenerate decade.”

He vowed to reform, and after hearing about Father Damien he went to Kalaupapa to give the rest of his life in service to the patients. He spent the last 44 years of his life in that service. His story is part of the story of my ancestors’ legacy. I believe this life of service deserves the recognition provided by this bill.

I would like to note that in 1929 the Territorial House passed a resolution acknowledging Dutton’s work.

I highly recommend the passage of this bill making April 27th annually Brother Joseph Dutton Day.

Sincerely,
Brenda R. Duarte
