Yamada, a total of fifty-one.

At 10:35 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair, to allow the members of the House and their guests to enjoy the entertainment of Eddie Kamae and the Sons of Hawaii.

Upon reconvening at 10:50 o'clock a.m., the Chair delivered the following address:

"Governor Ariyoshi, Mrs. Ariyoshi, Lt. Governor King, U.S. Senator Sparky Matsunaga, U.S. Congressman 'Brother' Danny Akaka, Mayor Tavares, Mayor Matayoshi, Mayor Malapit, and fellow colleagues, friends, of course, loved ones -- aloha, aloha mai.

Almost half a century ago, the 32nd President of the United States asserted his conviction that 'the only thing to fear is fear itself.' Obviously, time has proven Franklin Delano Roosevelt correct in his belief.

There and then, and here and now, his words have meaning. Back then, it calmed a frightened and bewildered nation. Now, beset with the problems of a weakened economy, rising unemployment and a fear of crime, I believe people may again feel bewildered, frustrated and a little afraid. Then and now, people look to leaders they can trust -- those who create a feeling of confidence and who provide hope, hope for all.

As representatives of our State, our responsibility to the people is very clear. Let us honestly assess the conditions facing our State and tell the people the truth, which isn't always quick or easy to determine and many a time, it can be painful or unpopular to declare.

It is time to face the facts and talk sense to the people of Hawaii. During this time of uncertainty, we need to respond to public concern but not react to public prejudice.

We need to control those unjustifiable emotions which provide us into seeking popular, over-simplified solutions which do not solve problems -- and may even make them worse.

Let's be honest about our role and responsibility in this process. We cannot always respond to public anger and frustration by passing laws that reflect heat but shed no light.

We do not believe the Legislature is here simply to determine what is popular and get it enacted into law.

We do not believe we can make legislative decisions, particularly the hard ones, just by reading public opinion polls; and we do not believe that we should pass legislation just to appear to be doing something. Not all problems can or should be solved legislatively.

The Legislature is a deliberative body. We listen to people, consider the facts and try to make the best decisions possible.

With the convening of this Legislature, it's time to deliberate on key issues and problems and, of course, to take action. But always we must consider that actions have consequences.

I said earlier that it's time to face the facts and speak frankly about the social and economic problems which require our immediate attention.

In some areas, the truth is that not all the facts are in. We have not yet received complete information on the impact of federal budget cuts on our State and local programs. From agriculture to health, education and welfare, federal action will affect our State, but to what extent is not certain.

Other fiscal problems create paradoxes such as a State surplus of revenues and constitutional limits set on spending these revenues.

The slump in our economy with increasing unemployment rates and decreasing strength of our two major industries -- tourism and sugar -- is having a residual impact on the State. We are facing some real challenges and perhaps changes to our economic base.

We are prepared, nonetheless, to meet these challenges -- to assist our independent cane growers; to strengthen our sugar research and development to eradicate cane diseases and maximize our sugar cane yields; and, of course, to promote our visitor industry.

It is worth noting that some of the problems facing our major industries are due to events occurring in the world market and at the Federal government level. This is certainly true of sugar and, of course, our visitor industry.

Hotel occupancy is down; world competition is up; and, if our country's recession continues, it could create a tourist desert out of our tropical oasis. We do not intend to allow this to happen. We are prepared to direct additional resources to attract many more visitors from outside the continental United States, with particular emphasis directed to our Asian and Pacific neighbors. Through existing government and private programs and agencies, the mechanisms to solve these problems are in place and we are prepared to use them.

And, all the while, we must balance these large scale concerns with smaller, but equally important and more localized problems such as the needs of retired elderly on fixed incomes; spiraling health care costs; emergency medical services; continuing educational needs of our younger people; and maintenance and provision of a fair justice system for all.

In planning for the near future, we must also consider our distant future, so that what we do now will provide long-range direction for our State. Future issues will be easier to resolve when guidelines contained in the State's twelve functional plans are agreed upon and set in place.

While our legislative process may not always seem clear to people, and the issues and problems are often complex, I believe in this system and I believe in the people of Hawaii. Our people are sensitive and wise. After all, there is an element to solving these problems which is more important than all others, and that is, the support and trust of our people.

Confidence and courage -- and a cool head -- these are the essentials of success. People must have faith and must not be taken in by innuendos, rumors and foundless emotional appeals.

In closing, as I did in opening my remarks today, I would like to express the thoughts of a great leader -- a true son of Hawaii, the late Governor John A. Burns, in his first message to the State Legislature:

'We must look at programs of action which will enable the people of Hawaii to look to the future with hope and confidence. We recognize that differences, as may exist amongst us will be, in the main, differences in method, direction and pace -- but not in basic purpose. We are, all of us, of one mind in our determination to move Hawaii forward. Our basic objective is to provide for our people, opportunities for the fullest possible development of their talents, skills and capabilities.'

To all of you, Hawaii, such is the goal. It should be yours, no less than ours. Together, and I really mean together, we cannot fail.

Mahalo."

Representative Kamali'i, on behalf of the minority, then stated:

"Mr. Speaker, fellow members of the House of Representatives, honored guests -- aloha kakahiaka -- and a special thank you to you, family and friends, who have come to join us today.

During the next several months, the people of Hawaii will watch and listen to what we do in the 1982 legislature. Unlike past years, this session and our responses to the aspirations and expectations of our citizens will be especially critical. Each of us live our life with a balancing of the real and sometimes harsh world around us and a place of personal refuge where we visit our dream and the future. I have always hoped that the middle ground between these two places where we can meet as a community to travel that distance between what is and what could be with possible and could become a reality for the future.

I have just had the privilege of completing a statewide series of public hearings for the Native Hawaiian Study Commission. Unlike any legislative tour I have ever been a part of, these hearings were an open-end invitation to simply come and voice your needs and concerns as they were felt by all of the citizens and how they were experienced. I have come away from those hearings with a profound plea to this body, this House of Representatives, to use our legislative recess in February to conduct an even more intensive round of such hearings. I believe that it was very irresponsible of this body not to hold such hearings or forums during the legislative interim.

It takes a great deal of arrogance for so-called representatives to presume knowing the public mind without knowing the public voice, of having heard the public voice. Instead, we feel that we have fulfilled our responsibilities in this regard by having people come to us and to make them respond to our ideas and opinions. The people of this State know what the problems are and their recommendations are far more creative and encompassing than most of the legislation which I have seen introduced here.

There is a great uneasiness in Hawaii, a sense of loss, which may be a consequence of the past but which is known as an ongoing process of the present which will only worsen in time. Population pressures, over-development, the erosion of our agricultural lands and the deterioration of our natural environment have occurred so dramatically that

I heard what I can only call a fear of losing Hawaii's soul. Too many of our people no longer feel at home in the islands. Worse, there is a genuine, and I think accurate, sense that we are depleting our land and water resources and denying ourselves any choices for the future because of our inability to devise an effective state plan or to implement functional plans that can be used for something more than a political brochure. Look at what happened with the Oahu Development Plan. The public interest was overridden by special interest because the State has not done its job.

Now we are faced with the phasing out of sugar and the option of H-Power in Waipahu, and some similar proposals in Puna. Can options which were rejected by these communities only months ago now be viewed as overwhelmingly supported by the same areas? I don't recall any public hearings on these reversals -- only the statements of a few key figures -- key political figures who may be making their decisions based on the 1982 elections rather than what is in the public interest or what will be appropriate in ten or twenty years. It reminds me of the Kohala Task Force.

It's not just being a Republican which makes me look twice at a community proposal which is promoted by major political partisan figures. I only hope that the Leeward and Big Island people insist on being consulted and don't leave their future and dreams entirely in the hands of party politics.

This same kind of political manipulation has already begun to blur public perceptions about the programs and projects which will be decided by the Governor's supplementary budget. It will be all too easy and irresponsible for the Legislature to avoid the difficult and necessary choices of priority and need by sitting on the sidelines and blaming reduced or eliminated programs on Reaganomics. The budgetary imperatives of a nation with a trillion dollar deficit are very different from that of a State with a $160 million surplus. If there are those who are truly in need and are denied by this State, then it will be our choice. Yes, our choice, not an act of Congress, and that act of free and well considered choices which is ultimately all that we have to make our dreams a reality and whatever failure we may suffer must also be understood and made acceptable only if we can truly, if we all can truly say, we have tried, and to that effort, I pledge myself and this Republican caucus.

Mahalo and thank you."

Representative Yamada was recognized by the Chair, and on behalf of the Majority caucus, stated:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and honored guests, Mr. Speaker, your analyses of the major issues confronting us exemplifies your leadership. We, the members of the Democratic majority, recognize that leadership and are prepared to expend the time and effort to deliberate and implement sound legislation.

Mr. Speaker, as said prior to this, it is easy to say that lot of the problems that are before us is the result of Reaganomics. Mr. Speaker, if lot of the problems that are in front of us is not the result of Reagan's economic policies, that statement, that apologetic statement, would not have been said.

Mr. Speaker, may I quote from your address today which I feel is true for all the constituents in our State. You stated: 'I believe people may again feel bewildered, frustrated and a little afraid. Then and now, people look to leaders they can trust -- those who create a feeling of confidence and who provide hope. . . .'

Mr. Speaker, state leadership is important now more than ever. Mr. Speaker, your Democratic majority, with your leadership, intends to provide what people in this State are looking forward to.

Thank you."

At 11:27 o'clock a.m., on motion by Representative Stanley, seconded by Representative Rohlfing and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned to 9:45 o'clock a.m. on Monday, January 25, 1982.

FOURTH DAY

Monday, January 25, 1982

The House of Representatives of the Eleventh Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1982, convened at 9:40 o'clock a.m., with the Speaker presiding.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Mrs. Susan Hedlund representing Christian Science Society, Wahiawa.

At 9:48 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Upon reconvening at 10:07 o'clock a.m., the House of Representatives met in joint session with the Senate, pursuant to House Concurrent Resolution No. 1, to receive the Governor's address. (Gov. Msg. No. 1)

At this time, the Chair introduced to the members of the Eleventh Legislature the following guests:

"At this time, before receiving the Governor's message, I would like to recognize some of our honored guests this morning. Starting off with, of course, the First Lady of this great State of ours, Mrs. Jean Ariyoshi and her family.

"Our Lt. Governor, Jean King.

"Our Chief Justice, William Richardson.

"Mrs. Armenia Adames de White, honorary Consul General of Panama and Dean of the Consular Corps of Hawaii.

"Consul General Chong Hoon Kim from Korea.

"Consul General Hideo Tanaka representing Consul General Enomoto.

"Consul Polly S. Cancio, representing Consul General Alconcel, and the other members of the Consul Corps."

The Chair then appointed Senators Kuroda and Soares, and Representatives Stanley, Hashimoto, Waihee and Ikeda to escort the Honorable George R. Ariyoshi, Governor of the State of Hawaii, to the rostrum.

Representative Stanley presented Governor Ariyoshi with a white carnation lei on behalf of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Speaker presented to the members of the Eleventh Legislature, the Honorable George R. Ariyoshi, stating:

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Madam Lt. Governor, Chief Justice, members of the Consular Corps, members of the Eleventh Legislature, Mayors of the Counties, ladies and gentlemen:

"Aloha, and today is Chinese New Year, and I would appropriately like to extend my greetings to you: Kung Hee Fat Choy.

"I appreciate this opportunity to address the Legislature, and the citizens of our State. I want to review some of the progress we have made, working together, in the past, for that allows us to take better aim at the future.

"I must concede that my tendency as an individual, and this was true long before I became Governor, is to focus on what needs to be done next, rather than to dwell on the past.

"But, sometimes, a look at the past, as it relates to the present, and to the future, is important and essential.

"I propose to offer here today a straightforward review of what we have done in the past, and a guide to the things that we still must do.

"Let us begin by taking a moment to view this handsome room in which we have come together.

"It is so familiar to me, and to you in the Legislature, and to the members of the media, that it is easy to lose sight of its significance. But there is no other legislative hall in the world quite like it.

"Architecturally, this room, and this entire capitol building, is a tribute to the history, the culture, and the natural beauty of Hawaii. This building probably would not be standing on this spot if an Englishman named James Cook had not landed on Kauai a little more than 200 years ago. When Captain Cook and his men came ashore on these Islands, the written history of Hawaii began.

"That history often has borne testimony to bitterness and anger. And, as we have heard from the eloquent testimony presented recently at public hearings held throughout our State, we still are dealing with the impact of Cook's landing. But, despite past and present difficulties and inequities, it is important for all of us to remember that Hawaii began in generosity.

"First, there was the generosity of the land, sharing its bounty with the ancient settlers who first arrived upon its shores.

"Then, there was the generosity of the early Hawaiians in welcoming the first foreigners who came from across the Eastern Pacific and who were later followed by other immigrants from across the Western Pacific.

"These islands were shared. And when we talk of regaining and redeeming those values that we prize in these Islands, certainly generosity must stand at the head of the list. For, without a sense of generosity, there can be no community, there can be no civilization.

"Rooted here as we are, living here as we do, we cannot afford to represent a superficial public-relations example of racial and religious harmony. Rather, we must enhance our understanding of the equality and the dignity of all men and women.

"Although my remarks today will be essentially affirmative and forward-looking, we must acknowledge at the outset that the problems that now plague our number one agricultural industry, sugar, obviously are going to have an impact on the lives of all of us.

"This past year has been a difficult year for sugar. This has led some to predict the demise of sugar in Hawaii.

"I do not share this pessimistic

"At the same time, I am not minimizing the seriousness of the situation which has led to the announced closing of one plantation, and possibly could lead to more, with all the human heartaches and dislocations this involves.

"Since Congress decided to eliminate the Sugar Act more than eight years ago, our industry has been on a roller coaster ride, rising to the heights, and plunging to the depths. Unfortunately, we are in an economic valley at the moment.

"But, I am determined to offer whatever State assistance can be mounted, working in concert with the sugar industry itself.

"I am convinced that even with the lack of understanding of this very essential industry at the national level, we will prevail.

"This period is a real challenge, and a new crisis in an industry that already has known too many challenges and crises. But the fact is that the industry has survived, and I am convinced that it will continue to survive, and to prosper, if all of us exert our best efforts and our most creative thinking.

"While unemployment of 5.3 per cent in Hawaii looks good against the 8.9 per cent national rate, any further decline in sugar can have a negative impact on our citizens and we must watch this very carefully.

"Now, permit me to report on the principal things we have accomplished during the past year.

"Shortly, my office will release a year-end report. It will contain a more detailed list of what your government has achieved. I know every citizen will have the opportunity to read it. I believe our work, along with the work of the Legislature, has been constructive and impressive. And, to be honest about it, I hope our citizens will come to the same conclusion.

"Each thing that has been accomplished, it seems, leads to new challenges, to new things that must be accomplished tomorrow, but that is how progress is achieved.

"The serious public official knows that this work must be approached with a sense of steadiness and a sense of continuity. Though conflicts are inevitable, and sometimes useful, the conscientious public official does not cultivate conflict or chaos. For he or she knows that what we do today does, indeed, set the tone for tomorrow.

"I've been in office for some time now, long enough to get a feeling for what's called 'the sweep of history', and I can tell you that nothing we have done gives me a better sense of solid achievement than the Hawaii State Plan, which is now the law of the land. Although it is not yet fully implemented, its presence is reassuring to me.

"I see the State Plan primarily as a great gift to our children. Our State is the first and only State in the Union to legislatively adopt a "blueprint for the future," and that is because our own experience has given us a view of how fragile these beautiful Islands really are.

"When I returned home from law school in 1952, I came home to a plantation economy, the basic old historic Hawaiian economy. And one of the things most clear to me as I began to build a career as a lawyer in Honolulu was that if the economy had a wider base, we would all be the better off.

"Along with many citizens, I was a strong proponent of the diversification and growth of Hawaii's economic base. And, though that growth has been useful and necessary in the 60's and early 70's, after a decade of uncontrolled growth, we saw that it could not continue indefinitely along these avenues. We were losing our balance. We were losing our way.

"When my administration proposed the State Plan concept four years ago, it was a revolutionary idea to many. And yet, I think we all came to understand that adopting it was a necessity if we were to avoid a thousand more complex problems a decade from now. We came to understand that the government of Hawaii was going to have to deal with the future of Hawaii. As I have said before, it was necessary for us to become the masters of our destiny, rather than the unwilling victims of circumstance. And so, today, we have our skeleton State Plan. But there is still more work for tomorrow. I have here in my hand, a copy of each of the twelve Functional Plans, and I strongly urge you to adopt them in the coming session.

"Let me read their titles, so everyone can appreciate their scope and how they affect our lives: 'State Agricultural Plan', 'State Housing Plan', 'State Water Resources Development Plan', 'State Tourism Plan', 'State Energy Plan', 'State Transportation Plan', 'State Historic Preservation Plan', 'State Recreation Plan', 'State Health Plan', 'State Education Plan', 'State Conservation Lands Plan', and 'State Higher Education Plan'.

"Yes, we need these Functional Plans to flesh out the State Plan, to make it really work.

"The people themselves have spoken, in a 1981 survey, about our future path. They supported substantially, 93 per cent, in fact, the concept of the State having a major role in planning for the future. And they also support the concept of having the State and the counties come together to share that planning role.

"I urge all of our citizens to become as familiar with the State Plan, and the Functional Plans, as we are here in the capitol building. This booklet, 'Where Does Hawaii Go From Here?' tells part of the story, and the rest of it can be found by reading the Functional Plans.

"Now, if you can't find the time to read all of them, then at least read the ones that directly affect your life. If you are working on the land or with the land, read the 'Agricultural Plan'.

"If you're working in the visitor industry, read the 'Tourism Plan'.

"If you think a highway should be widened, read the 'Transportation Plan'.

"The fact is that these plans are going to have a powerful impact on your personal future. You owe it to yourself, and to your family, to find out what is going on, and also to register an approval or complaint.

"Hawaii is small enough, and personal enough, so that you can actually get in touch with the people who represent you, including me.

"We may not agree on everything, but an informed and concerned public is one of the best allies that a Legislature, and a Governor, can have.

"I fully recognize that possibly every legislator has certain reservations about certain plans, but given these reservations, let us find out what they are right here on the floor of the House, or across the rotunda in the Senate Chambers. Let us grapple with the problems and the details. Let us grasp the nettles, whatever they may be. Let us make changes if we see they are needed. But let us, also, adopt Functional Plans this session which will bring life to the State Plan, and start the movement of Hawaii into an orderly, and planned future.

"The Administration awaits your favorable votes on the twelve plans, but in the meantime, we are moving ahead in a qualified way to implement that which can be implemented.

"Thus, the renovation and restoration of Aloha Tower, along with the development of an office building, shops, public areas, and a downtown hotel, all of it now supported by your authorization of the sale of $33 million in revenue bonds, will become a reality.

"The bill sent to you last year which establishes a method of state control over the allocation of our precious water is within the boundaries and the spirit of the 'State Water Resources Functional Plan'.

"Our achievement in bringing in Hawaii's first geothermal generator plant on the Big Island last July also is within the spirit of the 'State Energy Plan'.

"And, perhaps nowhere is the spirit of the 'State Plan' more clearly revealed than in our approach to the development of agricultural park land. This has been going on for seven years now. The State develops the land, nearly 1,000 acres by now, and then leases it to people who know how to work it.

"Yes, the various Functional Plans already are enjoying this Administration's support. And I do hope that the Legislature will act now so that our complete planning process will be implemented. At that time, this gift to our children will become more secure and meaningful.

"I turn now from a matter of pride to a matter of considerable concern.

"I am referring to crime in this State. Crime is perceived by the people, and by this Administration, as possibly the most dangerous and vexing problem we face.

"An obvious solution to most crime is to build a better society, one in which everyone shares more equally in the abundance of the economy and the good things of life.

"That is an ideal, but until this utopia is reached, we must combat crime, which I have called a cancer growing in our society, with all the means, and the energy, and the intelligence, that society can muster.

"We must discourage potential crime by taking a powerful and consistent stand against existing crime.

"To protect ourselves, we must become in some ways as tough as the criminal.

"During 1981, I convened four Governor's Conferences on Crime. Four times, we brought together all of the public officials with major responsibility for Hawaii's criminal justice system.

"This never had happened before. Much was accomplished in these meetings.

"They were long and exhausting. But they provided a forum in which a dialogue that never before had existed was made possible.

"Many frustrations were relieved.

"Many cooperative efforts were initiated.

"Many innovative actions evolved.

"And importantly, proposed legislation emerged which is designed to strike at the heart of some of our crime problems.

"This portfolio of anti-crime measures is now being drafted, and will soon be on your desks for consideration.

"I am going to speak in some detail about this package which is designed to help us in our fight against crime.

"It is important, I feel, that our citizens know exactly what we have in mind. And it is also important that the criminal knows what we have in mind. With your help and with your votes, we can turn this proposed anti-crime package into law.

"If it becomes law, we will be able to train more people to help with the serious business of protecting witnesses, of keeping witnesses secure and safe in order that their testimony can be effectively used in court.

"If it becomes law, we will make bail a better tool of law enforcement by having the penalty for bail-jumping be the same as the penalty for the crime originally charged against the defendant.

"And the whole idea of bail will be redefined so that the amount of bail and the appropriateness of bail will help insure public safety.

"Our conferences came to important conclusions in the areas of criminal insanity and the claims of insanity. Under the proposed legislative package, the burden of proving insanity shifts to the defendant. We will also shift to the defendant the burden of proof of safety to the community after a person is acquitted by reason of insanity. And, if adopted, the statute will allow a new verdict, 'Guilty, but mentally ill'.

"Whenever the condition of the human mind has to be defined by law, we move into an area where it is difficult to find agreement, and impossible to find perfection. But the conferences agreed in principle that these proposed moves would limit the present abuse of the insanity defense, and therefore, would improve public safety.

"Our four conferences also focused on the importation, sale, and use of illegal drugs. Under proposed legislation, the government would be able to confiscate the implements of marijuana cultivation, as well as the property on which it is being grown. And since marijuana is illegally grown on public land, a further penalty would be a mandatory jail term for the cultivation of it.

"Finally, a new law would state that the use of a firearm in the commission of a felony would carry a mandatory prison term.

"Obviously, decisions affecting human lives, and freedoms, and safety, must be made very carefully, and I fully expect the anti-crime package we submit to the Legislature to receive considerable scrutiny and examination. This is as it should be. But at the same time, I feel it is essential, and imperative, that we act now to protect the vast majority of our citizens from the minority that would do it harm and injury.

"We are continuing to make progress in other areas in our fight against crime.

"In the past two years, the State Government, with your help, has provided the counties $1.5 million to support the Career Criminal Program. 250 criminals have been convicted as a result. These are people who were making a career out of crime.

"Then, too, there is the community restitution program on the Neighbor Islands.

"Under this plan, a judge can sentence a non-dangerous criminal to community service instead of a term in jail, probation, or a fine.

"Last year alone, 800 offenders did 38,000 hours of public work.

"And I should note too that by placing a larger number of officers on duty in our parks and mountain areas, we have made these areas safer for everybody.

"Let me assure you that we are determined to protect the community. Let me assure you that we are determined that our society will not be in permanent bondage to anybody.

"It is heartening that what is considered to be 'serious crime', decreased in Hawaii by eleven per cent in the first nine months of last year. However, none of us should take pride in this decline.

"Every crime is an insult to another human being. It does damage. It injures them economically, Oftentimes, it hurts them physically, and, sometimes, it kills them.

"Crime, and the roots of crime, cannot be tolerated, and this Administration is determined to attack this disease in our society with all possible means.

"At this point, I would like to say a word about the judicial and correctional systems.

"There is a perception that in Hawaii, we are soft on criminals, that the Judiciary is soft and that the Parole Board is soft. But, the fact is, the system has responded to the need to get tougher.

"Hence, we find the courts sentencing more people to prison and the Parole Board letting fewer people out of prison.

"As a result, the prison population has gone from 216 to 709 from 1975 to 1981, more than a threefold increase. The average length of imprisonment has doubled, from 25 months to fifty months, longer than anywhere else in the United States.

"So, while none of us takes pleasure in confining people, the figures indicate genuine effort to offer protection to our society.

"For most citizens in most states, the subject of taxes is, like the subject of crime, difficult and distasteful. But, here in Hawaii, I am happy to say that our tax record is superior. Since I have been Governor, there has been no increase in income or excise tax rates, and there has been a General Fund surplus every year. The treasury of Hawaii is one of the few in our nation that today has a surplus.

"We have a surplus because revenues generally have held up to expectations, but, also, because we have been prudent.

"We have a surplus because often I have had to say 'No' to certain projects or operations, instead of 'Yes'.

"These are not easy personal experiences for me, and, certainly not beneficial political episodes. But they were necessary ones if we were to maintain the monetary integrity and stability of this State, and if we were to be faithful to all of our people.

"At this time, I take pride in the fact that all of us have provided outstanding governmental services to our people while maintaining a strong financial foundation for this State.

"From time to time, you, in the Legislature, and I have disagreed on what is the right amount to spend. There have been times when I have not felt it was prudent to spend the entire amount you have authorized. But we have worked out the differences. And, so, while most States are having great financial problems, we have a surplus of more than $231 million, as of June, 1981.

"In the last session, the Legislature granted a $100 tax rebate to every resident of Hawaii. For an average family of four, that is $400.

"Because of the financial stability of this State, I am submitting legislation this session that would eliminate the four per cent tax on prescription drugs.

"At the same time, I am proposing that we give a permanent annual $50 tax credit-rebate to every resident of Hawaii.

"I realize there is a considerable movement, and even a great emotional appeal, for the removal of the four per cent excise tax on food, as well as prescription drugs.

"My position is, and remains, that removing the excise tax on food does not benefit our permanent residents as much, or as directly, as does the tax rebate.

"Many visitors come to Hawaii and stay a number of months. Many of them live in apartment units with cooking facilities, and they shop in our food stores.

"Since these visitors, welcome as they are, pay no income taxes to the State of Hawaii, which provide them with many of the services they utilize, the removal of the four per cent excise tax on food would provide them with a 'free-ride' in Hawaii.

"A permanent tax credit-rebate for each resident of Hawaii, man, woman and child, would offset the taxes paid on food. The average expenditure on food is $1,300 a year. Four per cent of that comes out to approximately $50, and that is how we arrived at this figure. Importantly, it will only go to the residents of Hawaii.

"It would be the cheapest and most efficient way of providing this relief.

"While we are talking taxes and finance, I would like to point out to the Legislature, and our people, a substantial problem we are now facing. It is having a severe impact on us.

"I have supported, to a point, the Reagan Administration's efforts to cut down on government spending and, also, reducing a huge, and sometimes, unwieldy federal bureaucracy.

"Without question, many of us have felt that the federal government in some areas had gotten 'out-of-hand'; that there were too many programs, too many regulations, and too much paper work.

"That is agreed. But I have become increasingly concerned with the Reagan Administration's efforts to 'unload' critical programs to the States, without providing a transition period, without providing sufficient resources, and without allowing the states the needed flexibility to decide.

"Even with the most stringent management, there is no way that a state government can compensate, in some instances, for a twenty-five per cent budget reduction simply through savings in 'overhead'.

"I know that many people in our community have begun to feel the jolt of what some knowledgeable

Washington observers have called a revolutionary shift in the direction of the federal government. Clear and definitive information about the specifics of these changes, particularly regarding reductions in the federal budget, have been extremely slow in coming.

"As we enter the second quarter of the federal fiscal year, we still do not have all of the exact numbers on monies available to finance federally-mandated programs.

"Distressing as this lack of information is, even more distressing is that the States now are being asked, in certain areas, to return to the first fiscal quarter and cut some more. This is like asking a citizen to spend less of what has already been spent at already reduced levels.

"This is an extremely unsettled, and unsettling, period. It is most important that all of us, here in Hawaii, work together to establish, and refine, our priorities.

"There will be great demands for the State Government to pick up the programs which have been affected by federal budget cuts. While we may look at selective programs, the State cannot make up for all of those cuts.

"Turning to something more affirmative, permit me to speak with pride on what is happening in this state in the field of energy.

"Scientists from all over the world are coming here to learn how we are lessening our dependence on oil.

"At the beginning of the energy crunch, more than half a decade ago, Hawaii was the state most dependent on oil, but we have moved away faster from this dependency than any other state.

"Last July, a geothermal generating plant on the Big Island started up.

"This project not only will be a functioning source of energy, but also will provide essential information for similar projects on all Islands.

"A huge experimental windmill has been built on Oahu.

"Because of its success, a private firm has plans to build twenty wind-mills that will provide eighty megawatts of electricity, which is nearly nine per cent of Oahu's present electricity needs.

"The burning of bagasse for energy is also being conducted on a commercial scale.

"One of my jobs when I was Lt. Governor was to work with the sugar companies to meet the EPA restrictions on dumping bagasse into the ocean where it was a pollutant. Now, this former pollutant has been turned into power, providing about one half of the electricity used on Hawaii and Kauai, and about one third on the Island of Maui.

"One of the most remarkable experiments and achievements and one that possibly has attracted the most attention because of its newness is our State's development of OTEC generators, which use the difference in temperature between the cold waters of the deep ocean and the warm surface waters to power electric generators. OTEC refers to Ocean Thermal Energy Conversion.

"When I hear experts from the Mainland talking about things such as coal gasification, and when I hear that there are three-hundred years of coal beneath the Western States, and when I hear how difficult it will be to get to that coal without destroying the land itself, my response is that here in Hawaii we are developing practical new energy resources that will last forever.

"From the wind, from the sun, from the ocean.

"Without question, Hawaii is the leader of our nation, and possibly the world, in the essential search for alternative energy resources. I am convinced, too, that Hawaii will become the first electrically self-sufficient State in our country.

"We have made great strides here, and we have achieved much. In recognition of this, our State will host an international energy conference in August.

"There is a definite element of hope and imagination in what we have accomplished here that I find inspiring. So let us continue to add hope and imagination to the values that we want to retain in Hawaii. There surely is nothing new about them. All the people who came to Hawaii carried in their vessels a cargo of hope. And only people of imagination could have built what we all have worked together to build here in Hawaii.

"Other pioneering efforts in this State have taken aquaculture from the experimental to the commercial, and have produced, with State encouragement and support, a new industry which produces prawns, and marine shrimp, and oysters.

"The enhancement of our third largest export industry, the Hawaii garment industry, through marketing agreements with the Hawaii Fashion Guild, and through the training of people to work in the industry, has resulted in a physical, and profitable, extension of Hawaii throughout the world.

"The Hawaiian International Fashions Trade Show last September created $2.5 million in sales.

"Hawaii has been successfully promoted as a site for motion pictures, television shows, and commercials.

"The $4.5 million public-and-private sector program, called HAWAII/82, is our most powerful effort so far to promote our number one source of income - tourism.

"Arrangements with producer-associations to promote and market a wide range of agricultural products has resulted in significantly increased sales. These include papaya, guava, taro, anthurium, protea, dendrobiums, coffee, and of course, the goods grown and manufactured in the State.

"Hawaii has become one of the best, and most flexible, Foreign Trade Zones in the United States a zone that received a Presidential award for excellence.

"A substantial expansion of senior citizen centers and lunch sites has been accomplished. Also, the remarkable Senior Companion Program, in which our seniors become volunteers to help the needy and disable have been expanded.

"A continuous upgrading of the facilities of our schools and our university has represented a high priority. Almost $200 million has been spent for public school improvements, and $170 million for new classrooms and laboratories and student housing at the University's campuses. Ours is a State that has in the past, and continues to provide strong support for education.

"Nearly $30 million has been spent to improve community drinking water systems, and $8 million to take hazardous asbestos out of our schools.

"An accelerated parks program has led to the creation of thirteen new State parks.

"In the field of health, major additions and improvements have been made to the Hilo, Kona, Maui Memorial, Kauai Veterans, and the Samuel Mahelona Hospitals, and to three new regional health centers on Oahu. Organized ambulance services have been extended to all Islands in a statewide Emergency Medical Services Program.

"Persistent prosecution of fraud and other abuses in welfare and health services, and in unemployment insurance benefits, have saved many taxpayer dollars.

"The Career Kokua program at many schools in our State has provided top job opportunity information for students.

"Airports, highways, and harbors, our economic lifelines, are the focus of constant improvement which will continue.

"The development of 5,600 new housing units for low and moderate income families, and the remarkably successful HULA MAE lower interest mortgage program, have provided a margin of relief in the exceedingly difficult real estate market.

"The construction of 1,300 new homes for qualified Hawaiians on Hawaiian Homestead land, represents more housing in the past six years than in the previous thirty years.

"Our precious past has not been neglected either. The restoration of the birthplace of Kamehameha the First, the acquisition of Kamao Point for future restoration, and the historical site restoration now going on at Iolani Palace and Iolani Barracks, just a few hundred feet from where we meet this morning. These projects prove that this State, and our people, have more than an historic concern for the Hawaiian past. We have an affection for it, too.

"Finally, let me turn from these very specific accomplishments to something that I see as a great future opportunity for us all. These Islands are the pivotal point in the Pacific, and the Pacific Basin, today, increasingly is a principal trading area of the United States. Based on recent trends, the projected trade increases for the future are dramatic and impressive.

"The Pacific Basin also is a vast treasure house of natural resources, particularly in ocean mining and in fisheries. In the near future, this area, with two-thirds of the world's population, is going to explode with economic activity.

"There is a spirit of independence, of hope, and of zest, that pervades this vast basin today. It is an exciting time. And it is a time of great opportunity for us.

"Our membership in the Pacific Basin Development Council and our membership in the Pacific Island Conference, are substantial first steps. But in the time ahead, we can use our financial base, our educational base, our information base, our research and technical facilities, our market opportunities, and our understanding of the various cultures, to take the lead in dealing with the Pacific Ocean Area. We have much to offer the people of the Pacific. And, they, in turn and in many way, can enrich our lives.

"We are the logical Americans to carry this great work forward. The opportunity is so vast that it is sometimes diffused and difficult to see. But only as we see it can we grasp it. And only as we grasp it can we truly lead. This is our chance, and it would be a terrible mistake to let it pass by through the lack of vision. As with our concern and approach to energy, let us once again exercise our hope and our imagination in this very vital area.

"In closing, let me say a few words of thanks. A person does not run for election alone, and after he is elected, he does not govern alone. And, so to you members of the State Senate and House, let me thank you for your work and your help, not only in the past year but in the earlier years, too.

"We have argued, to be sure, but that is what the process is all about. I want the people to know that this dedicated group of individuals who make up the Legislature, my political allies, and possibly my political adversaries, are a precious asset to the people of the State.

"And my appreciation goes to another group, the mayors of our State. It is essential for the State Administration to establish a viable working relationship with the Mayors and the Councils of our Counties for it is the responsibility of all government, at all levels, to serve the people.

"And I cannot fail to express my appreciation to those who represent us in Congress, and who represent our link to the rest of our Nation, and to the world.

"In my 1977 State of the State address, I said these words:

"I think we share a common dream for Hawaii, a dream of programmed expansion and a better life for all.

"To do this, we must be the masters of our fate. Then, we can forge ahead, with the confidence of success that is so essential to achieving the dream all of us have for our beloved Hawaii.

"We have moved this State forward on the guidelines of the goodness of man and through opportunities and justice for all.

"We have made many decisions, most of them right, I feel; some of them wrong. We have not eliminated our problems and probably never will. There always will be problems to tax our courage and our determination to move this State forward along prudent paths, to reject the simple and expedient solution, in favor of what will be best for our people in the years to come.

"We have come so far, my friends, in such a short time that sometimes we lose sight of our progress and tend too much to dwell on our problems. Problems we have. Of that, there can be no doubt.

"But none of them are unsolvable. Working together, we will arrive at the solutions. Of that, I have no doubt.

"These words were valid in 1977, and they are valid in 1982.

"We have made considerable progress in achieving, and articulating our destiny, and I am confident we will continue to do so.

"There is no question that geographically we are islands in a vast ocean, but we are not, cannot be, and should not be, islands either socially, economically, or culturally.

"From this relatively insignificant land mass in the middle of the Pacific, a giant culture has emerged.

"It is a culture, and a way of life that pays tribute to the essential dignity of all people, regardless of ethnic origins, and economic circumstances.

"This is our heritage, and this is our unique offering to the world.

"Carl Sandburg, one of America's foremost authors and philosophers, once wrote that the story of America was the story of people arriving. If there is verity to these words, Hawaii is its affirmation.

"Our society, truly, is composed of 'people arriving', whether it be the first Polynesians braving the uncharted areas and seas in outrigger canoes, or the latest immigrants arriving on a 747.

"Ours, very definitely, is a story of 'people arriving', and of a people achieving success, and respect, and dignity.

"We hold in our hands the instruments to further mold, and shape, and refine our society. I ask God's blessing that we may use them wisely.

"Mahalo and Aloha."

Senate President Wong then rose and stated:

"Governor Ariyoshi, thank you very much for sharing with the Legislature your aspirations and dreams for a better Hawaii. I can assure you that, in the coming weeks, we, in the Legislature will consider carefully the specific legislative proposals submitted by your Administration. I hope we can work together cooperatively to carry out the aspirations and dreams that you and we share together.

"If there be no further discussion of the members in this joint session, I hereby declare this Joint Session adjourned."

At 10:50 o'clock a.m., the joint session with the Senate adjourned and the House stood in recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Upon reconvening at 11:15 o'clock a.m., the Roll was called showing all members present with the exception of Representatives Levin and Rohlfing who were excused.

By unanimous consent, reading of the Journal was deferred.

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Stanley, seconded by Representative Rohlfing and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering bills on Third Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3-82 on H.B. No. 698, HD 1, on Third Reading:

Representative Kunimura moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 698, HD 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Kiyabu.

Representative Kamalii then rose on a point of information and asked:

"Mr. Speaker, on House Bill 699, House Draft 1, is this retroactive for these employees attempting to go on the civil service?"

Representative Kunimura then rose on a point or order and stated:

"The matter before this House at this time, Mr. Speaker, I believe, is 698, House Draft 1."

The Chair then asked:

"Representative Kamalii, are you referring to House Bill No. 698 or 699?"

Representative Kamalii answered:

"698, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kunimura then stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I quite don't understand that query. If the good Representative from Waikiki will restate her question, I will be most happy to try and answer."

Representative Kamalii replied:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, the bills grant civil service status to five employees occupying positions in the Department of Agriculture and my question is: In waiving the requirements of examination to the civil service, is this retroactive since the beginning of the commission?"

Representative Kunimura answered:

"Mr. Speaker. . .retroactive, I don't understand, but this bill is attempting to make those who have been working since 1975, 1979, 1980, 1981 and 1982 -- there are five individuals and the last one that came aboard is January 18th, 1982, but some of them have been on board for quite a while and it attempts to make these people civil service. They have come aboard, Mr. Speaker, through the regular channel of examination and eligibility list and they meet, I believe, not only the minimum requirement, but also some of them have quite a bit of experience already gained in the position."

The Chair asked:

"Does that answer your question, Representative Kamalii?"

Representative Kamalii answered in the negative and said, "It still confuses me even more. You are saying that they have taken the civil service examination already so what's the use of the bill?"

Representative Kunimura answered:

"Mr. Speaker, when this particular branch was established by the Legislature, these employees. . .the positions were temporary in nature but they were to enjoy all the benefits and requirements under Chapter 76 and 77 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes and, therefore, they could not come aboard as contract employees. They are civil service employees without civil service status and we've had turnovers as soon as they gain enough experience since they do not enjoy tenure. That is the only thing we are trying to establish here for them that they have left for other employment that had better security."

Representative Kamali'i then said:

"Mr. Speaker, if you would like to call a recess so that I can clarify this even more; otherwise, I will continue to pursue this because in the bill itself, 'Section 2, Act 218, Session Laws of Hawaii 1973, part III, section 8, shall be granted civil service status, as of the effective date of this Act, without the necessity of examination, and shall be accorded all of the rights, benefits. . . .'"

If what you said. . . ."

At this point, the Chair interrupted and stated:

"Representative Kamali'i, to facilitate matters, at this time, the Chair will call a short recess for that purpose."

At 11:50 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Upon reconvening at 11:58 o'clock a.m., the Chair directed the Clerk to note the presence of Representative Kihano.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 698, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE", having been read throughout, passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes, with Representatives Albano, Kobayashi, Lacy, Levin, Nakasato, Segawa and Yamada being excused.

The Chair directed the Clerk to note that H.B. No. 698 had passed Third Reading at 11:59 o'clock a.m.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 4-82 on H.B. No. 699, HD 1 on Third Reading:

On motion by Representative Kunimura, seconded by Representative Kiyabu and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 699, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE", having been read throughout, passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Liu voting no, and Representatives Albano, Kobayashi, Lacy, Levin, Nakasato, Segawa and Yamada being excused.

The Chair directed the Clerk to note that H.B. No. 699 had passed Third Reading at 12:01 o'clock p.m.

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 1489, HD 1:

Representative Blair moved that H.B. No. 1489, HD 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Hirono.

Representative Blair then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, just a brief word. This is a very long, complex bill, and I know that that always elicits a certain amount of concern.

I would like to point out that we received testimonies from our own Regulatory Agency that the updating of the mortality tables and the other changes reflected in this bill were estimated by the Chief Actuary of the California Insurance Department to probably result in a 15 percent reduction in gross premium rate, so this is very much a benefit to the consumers, and I hope you will all support the bill.

Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1489, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE", having been read throughout, passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Toguchi being excused.

And I believe that's the truth here that what we do here will be forgotten, but what Mr. Otsuka will be doing, and have done in the past, will be remembered for many, many years, and for that, Mr. Speaker, I cannot add any more to what have been related in the resolution, and I request that all members vote with a resounding 'aye' on this resolution."
