INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 1) and concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 1 and 2) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 1, relating to certain House Leadership positions and the House committee structure, was jointly offered by Representatives Souki and Young.

On motion by Representative Okamura, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.R. No. 1 was adopted.

H.C.R. No. 1, relating to the dates of the mandatory recess for the Regular Session of 1994, determined to be the 24th, 25th, and 28th days of February and the 1st and 2nd days of March, 1994; and the dates of the recesses, other than the dates of the mandatory recess, for the Regular Session of 1994, determined to be the 25th and 31st days of January, the 7th, 9th, and 21st days of March, and the 11th day of April, 1994, pursuant to Article III, Section 10 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, was jointly offered by Representatives Souki and Young.

On motion by Representative Okamura, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.C.R. No. 1 was adopted.

H.C.R. No. 2, requesting the Governor to address the Legislature assembled in joint session on Monday, January 24, 1994, at 10:00 a.m. in the Mabel Smythe Auditorium, was jointly offered by Representatives Souki, Apo, Ihara, Okamura, Ward, Thielen and Young.

On motion by Representative Okamura, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.C.R. No. 2 was adopted.

At this time, the Chair delivered his Opening Day remarks, as follows:

"Distinguished guests and colleagues of the State House ... aloha, and welcome.

"First, on behalf of the House of Representatives, I wish to express condolences to our colleagues in Southern California, and to the people there who are suffering from Monday's tragic earthquake.

"We in Hawaii, especially the courageous people of Kauai, know how vulnerable we can be to the forces of nature.

"We offer our hopes and prayers for a rapid recovery and the strength to overcome the pain and the loss from this disaster.

"I also, on behalf of the House, would like to extend our deepest condolences to Governor Waihee and his family for the loss of his dear mother.

"I also would like to take this opportunity to thank you, the members of the House, for your efforts during the past year. We accomplished much in 1993 for the people of Hawaii. Maybe it took us a little longer than we hoped, but the results speak for themselves. I am grateful for the hard work and the dedicated service you have contributed.

"Last year, I spoke of common sense. This year, we not only need common sense, we need to face facts.

"We need to face the fact that our economy remains in trouble. That education is at a turning point. That too many people feel unsafe in their homes and in their neighborhoods.

"And we must face the fact that the public is frustrated with government, and blames us for much of what is wrong these days.

"Those are the facts -- plain and simple. They require us to act decisively, responsibly, and honestly. This session, we must do ... we will do ... the right thing for the people of the State of Hawaii.

"First, we have to face the fact that our economy is still hurting. A doctor would say the prognosis is better, but there are still plenty of symptoms of the economic flu. The last thing this patient needs is more stress on the system.

"Members, any kind of tax increase would be the wrong medicine at the wrong time. So this session, there will be no new tax increase ... that would interfere with our economic recovery. And that's a fact.

"Members, I challenge all of us in government, in business, and in the community to work with our existing resources to provide the services we need and the support that's required.

"Tourism needs our support because it drives our economy. To succeed, tourism in Hawaii must remain unique.

"Michael White, our new representative from West Maui, knows this well. Last year, I described his success in making Hawaiian culture and values a focus for visitors.

"His presence in this body today reminds us of the challenge which government and the visitor industry now face in making tourism a 'keeper of Hawaii's culture.'

"We will also be keeping a close eye on the development of the convention center to ensure it meets the standards we set last session. Our convention center will be world-class and reflect a Hawaiian sense of place.

"Small business serves the visitor industry and at the same time holds the key to economic diversification. Yet today, small business is fragmenting, suffering under burdens originally designed to regulate big business. Reform is in order.

"We will work to eliminate overregulation of small business. There are too many hidden costs. For example, the Chamber of Commerce proposes that we lift mandates which burden businesses that subcontract ... I agree.

"Business, big and small, agrees we must resolve the crisis in workers compensation. I challenge the private sector to lead the reform.

"You want answers? Thumb through the yellow pages and see how many medical practitioners are advertising for worker comp claimants. That's not drumming up business; that's drumming down business. Insurance companies must be more vigilant about the claims they are passing through. My advice: Police yourselves or Big Brother will do it for you.

"Members, public education is at a turning point. We mandated school reform in 1989. What we need now are real breakthroughs.

"Breakthroughs at the centralized level mean forever changing the way the Board of Education, the Legislature and the Governor do business. Right now we're very good at putting money where it's not really needed. No wonder we don't get the results we want!

"Remember what the basic premise of school reform is. Performance standards are set centrally. Then each school, with help from its community, has the freedom to take action to achieve those standards.

"The key to good centralized decision-making and to smart funding are the performance standards.

"The draft report of the Commission on Performance Standards is the centralized breakthrough we need. I call upon everyone with an interest to come to the table and quickly finalize these standards.

"I ask the very able Education Committee Chair, David Ige, to hold hearings on this item and others which will set targets for schools, reward school and community initiative, clarify accountability and put the student first.

"When Ma'ili Elementary, one of the 160 schools which have committed to School/Community-Based Management, established a four-day school week, it was a breakthrough. People criticized, as they will when a community tries something new.

"Today, Ma'ili's problem of teacher turnover is a memory ... discipline problems have gone from twenty a day to three a day.

"Parent participation is way up ... test scores are higher ... and the school is anticipating a private partnership which will give it a $500,000 endowment.

"I'm not saying Ma'ili's answer is every school's answer. I'm saying when the old way doesn't work, change it. Break through! Make a real difference.

"It's time we face the fact that today more and more of us feel unsafe in our homes. Crime affects all of us, both victims and bystanders.

"Criminals must know that in Hawaii, crime means doing time, that they will face swift, sure and stiff punishment. The Loa sentence sends that kind of tough message, and I applaud it.

"We must also face the fact that the traditional remedies for crime -- more police, more prison space -- aren't the whole answer. Each of us has to take responsibility ... to know where our kids are, who their friends are, who our neighbors are.

"We are also concerned with public dissatisfaction, distrust and frustration with government.

"Last year we made a good start in reforming our own House. This year, we must focus on broader reform and actions to improve government efficiency.

"I ask all of us to place on the agenda:

- * Tough fiscal policies to eliminate unnecessary government jobs. People want a leaner State government.
- * Reaffirmation of the Code of Ethics for elected officials. Our ethical performance is a cornerstone of the public trust.
- * Institute badly needed tort reform. The State's deep pockets hold taxpayers' dollars. Let's end profiteering at public expense.
- * And we must have campaign spending reform, to bring more people and voices and interests into the political process.

"Finally, the most important fact we all have to face is that these days government cannot solve all our problems, or right everything that's wrong.

"There are too many demands and too few resources.

"That's why I issue the ultimate challenge -- to every person, business, organization, and agency. Join with government in partnership for our future. It's your responsibility, too. Take it. Meet your challenges as citizens.

"That's the challenge of this session, of this year, of this decade. Meeting it is the only way we'll be able to make Hawaii all that we want it to be.

"My good friends ... Mahalo, thank you, and aloha."

The Chair then recognized Representative Okamura, Majority Leader, who responded:

"Mr. Speaker, on behalf of your Majority members, I rise to echo the challenge you set forth. This session, we must face facts. And the first fact that we must face is the need to get down to business, to get to work on the priorities that we have set.

"Today, there will be no Opening Day parties, no first-day festivities. For right now, there's little reason to celebrate.

"Ask the Waikiki hotel worker who needs two jobs to make ends meet, and now only has one. Ask the recent UH graduate who has been looking for work in her field, and still has found none. Ask the small business owner faced with mountains of paperwork and miles of red tape. They'll tell you it's no time to party, that it's time to get to work.

"So that's what we shall do ... get on with the public's business. We will fulfill our responsibilities to the people of Hawaii and, at the same time, call upon the people to fulfill their obligation to each other. The time for placing blame and pointing fingers is over. Too much is at stake.

"All of us must take responsibility -- government, business and labor, individuals and groups, across ethnic and social lines -- to join in a partnership to put our State back on firm footing. To create jobs and make our schools work. To revitalize tourism in a way that preserves the integrity of our islands and our culture. To provide the security and the safety and the peace of mind that we all seek. And to work together, consult one another, participate in the process, and respect diverse views.

"And, Mr. Speaker, we call upon the public to exercise its power this session by taking advantage of all that has been done to invite them into the legislative process. From expanded cable television coverage of our sessions and committee hearings through 'Olelo, to the access computer system and other public access vehicles, it has never been easier for the public to participate.

"Just as all of us in the House recognize our responsibility to serve the public, so must the public recognize its responsibility to actively participate in the workings of its government.

"So, Mr. Speaker, all of us have much to do. Let's put personal agendas, political considerations, and narrow interests aside. Let us instead look deeply into our hearts and find the ways to achieve our greater collective visions ... one that brings peace, harmony, aloha and stability to these precious and wonderful islands we call home.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm pleased to report that your Majority members are ready to go to work.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then recognized Representative Ward, Minority Leader, who responded:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"Colleagues, special guests, and on behalf of the Minority, I stand in response.

"Our Hawaii is arguably the best place to live in the world. We have the best environment and the best people, and we have the best climate for anything, including the best politics, but we haven't reached there yet. There is a price for paradise, and we perhaps lived off of our good looks for far too long, and now we're in trouble.

"Mr. Speaker, you said we're in trouble. We're in trouble with our educational system, we're in trouble with our economy, and we're in trouble primarily with the people who are out there who sent us here today, and that's the biggest trouble of all.

"Mr. Speaker, I think the reason we have a crisis and we're in trouble is not just because we're not facing the facts ... it's because we don't have a vision. We don't have a vision of who we are as the leaders, and where we want to take the State. And I want to speak to that for a second.

"This crisis of confidence is because we have no vision greater than the ambitions of us as individuals in this room. Hawaii used to have a vision of itself -- of what it could be, of who it was, and what it meant to the world -- as the world watched us in a microcosm of peoples and cultures. But, Mr. Speaker, that vision has died because of self-interest. Self-interest has taken the place of ideas and hopes, and there goes our future.

"We have turned President John F. Kennedy's motto of 'Ask not what your country can do for you,' and we here today ... ask not what you can do for Hawaii, but ask what Hawaii can do for you, particularly ask what Hawaii and your friends in government can do for you. And I say nothing new that Dooley and Lind have not told us everyday in the newspapers.

"Now the public is telling us, Mr. Speaker, what we speak today. They may not even believe us because they don't believe in us. I think President Nixon showed us there has to be a moral equivalent in the leadership; otherwise, people will not believe what the government is saying.

"The problem is that without a vision to keep us on course, absolute power tends to numb our ethical concerns, and too many of us in charge in this State have become dull ourselves to the reforms that are needed because we've become too identified with party, with individual loyalties, and not wed to the goals and aspirations that make us a greater people and a greater State. Hawaii has a great destiny and they have started on that destiny, but we have stalled. And the sad truth is that the vision of Hawaii's leaders has died, and we are now in the midst of that vacuum.

"Alice in Wonderland reminded us ... if we don't know where we are going, any road will get us there. And I think the people of Hawaii want to know where they are going. They want to know what our priorities are, they want to know why we're spending their money, they want to know where we are taking them.

"Mr. Speaker, we must endeavor, as the leaders of this State, to create a new vision, to rechart our course, to recast the priorities of this State in spending and on all issues. Let us, for example, put our priorities on more school books, not on more stadiums. Let us put our priorities on more classrooms, not on more people movers and bullet trains at the airport.

"And, Mr. Speaker, lead us as our leader, not into the temptation to put one more dollar into the renovation of the Capitol, nor allow one more non-bid contract to feed the self-interests of those who are now at the trough. Mr. Speaker, let us not again also tell Hawaii's parents that we really care about public education or, as you call it, we are going to give you a really big breakthrough and then deliver nothing.

"Mr. Speaker, we want to make sure that we've got our priorities straight, that we mean what we say, and what we say is common sense, is actually delivered as common sense in its presence. The visions of the past have died. We don't want to resurrect some of the misplaced priorities and misguided directions that we've gone in.

"Mr. Speaker, let your Minority face the facts. The elephants again will be led by the donkeys in this session. But your four elephants and the public, however, this time are saying ... give us your priorities, tell us what's important in this State, because the where it's going to take is in the future, not just what suits some people and some self-interests for the present.

"Mr. Speaker, we ask you to do this in a way that's true to the words you spoke today, but sincere for the long run and not just the window dressing which people will tend to forget.

"And I challenge you, Mr. Speaker, on this ... put term limits on all of us to really show the people that you're sincere about what's going to happen when we speak about ethics in government and reform. I also challenge this body to take away the biggest conflict of interest in this State, and that is when the Lt. Governor is seated next year, that he/she will not be the one who oversees the election.

"lastly, Mr. Speaker, I challenge the Governor of this State to give education his all before he leaves office and does everything he can to fulfill his promise that we will have education second to none.

"Mr. Speaker, your Republicans believe it is time we fully fund our public schools while, at the same time, we restructure the governance process. House Republicans also believe we must change our economic orientation, and start mapping out a long-range twenty-year plan into the future. We are of the opinion that revitalization of our State is vitally linked to Mom and Pop entrepreneurialship, to small businesses, and going back to our roots in Asia when the economies are growing leaps and bounds at eighteen and fourteen percent a year. Their future and our future, Mr. Speaker, is in that direction.

"With your permission, Mr. Speaker, because of the time that I was allotted, I wish that my remaining remarks be put into the Journal."

The Chair, noting that there were no objections, "so ordered."

"However, I have a conclusion.

"I've said all of this to say this one thing. Mr. Speaker, we must reawaken the vision of the destiny of our people, we must reawaken the vision of the destiny of our islands. Show the people where we are going to take them. Let them know where we're going so when we do something, they will know our priorities. Our destiny is indeed a great one, and may God grant you, Mr. Speaker, and all of us, the 20/20 vision to see that in this session and enact it.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Further remarks of Representative Ward are hereby inserted:

"1994 not only marks the beginning of a new year, and a new legislative session, but also the beginning of a new Hawaii. The House Republican Legislative Package puts forth this new vision for Hawaii's future. It is bold, pragmatic, and most of all, based upon solid lessons from the past which show us what we can and cannot do to make Hawaii the best place to live in the world.

"Our package is entitled, 'A New Hawaii - For ALL The Things We Can Be,' because Hawaii has yet to realize its full potential as a State -- economically, socially, and especially politically. As a community, we have made great gains in some of these areas in the past, but we have also taken steps backward that we want to avoid in the future.

"House Republicans want to harness all of the potential of Hawaii to make this State the best place in the world. Hawaii already represents the best of what Tokyo, Taipei, Seoul, Manila, San Francisco, New York, and Polynesia have to offer, but we still have a long way to go to translate the achievements of our fine people into an equally fine government and robust economy.

"The platform of our package is that Hawaii's people deserve the best. House Republicans believe Hawaii's people deserve a better economy, a better educational system, a safer and cleaner environment, and public officials who are more honest, ethical and have the best interests of the State, rather than themselves, in mind. These four areas are the focus of our legislative package to make Hawaii all it can be.

"House Republicans intend to revolutionize the economy of Hawaii by a policy of 'Looking East,' i.e., we are proposing legislation to orient the State closer to the economies of Asia where the future growth of the world economy lies. From a cultural point of view, getting closer to Asia means, for many of us, drawing from the strengths of our roots. But from an economic point of view, it means preparing our visitor industry and its physical and cultural plant for the arrival of new visitors from Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Singapore, Manila, Malaysia, and eventually Indonesia, mainland China, and even India. This is the long range vision of House Republicans for Hawaii's economy.

"While our economy will always remain the primary engine of our great State's development into the future, what drives our economy is our educational system. It is now time to admit that we will never have improvement in one without improvement in the other. House Republicans believe that it is ultimately the development of Hawaii's human resources that will make the difference in Hawaii's place in the world. Hawaii's educational problems have been studied and discussed to death. Now is the time to act. House Republicans are proposing that the State boldly put its money where its mouth is and fund education with a full 30 percent of the State's budget. A 30 percent allocation accompanied by stringent accountability and management changes will assure our people the quality education they deserve, and the certainty that their children will be partakers in the future economic successes of this State.

"A revitalized economy and educational excellence can only take place within a preserved and protected Hawaiian environment that is unique to the world. House Republicans will introduce legislation to preserve Hawaii's environment by creating a fully developed (not just on paper) Department of Environmental Protection with cabinet level standing in the Executive Branch of government. We will assure the quality environment that Hawaii's people deserve by calling for introduction and passage of select legislation in the 1994 session. It is time for this State to graduate from rhetoric to reality in protecting its natural assets, and stop speculating on them.

"Lastly, the House Republican Legislative Package calls upon every public official to maintain the highest level of ethical behavior to serve the people of Hawaii openly, honestly, and with the utmost integrity. The package introduces legislation that will curb campaign and election abuses, as well as proposes measures that will ensure the highest integrity for civil servants. Hawaii's people deserve honest government and honest officials, and the House Republican Legislative Package sets the stage for quality reform.

"Detailed summaries of these bills are attached for those interested in more specificity. But equally important to these proposals is the unequivocally solid commitment by each member of the House Republican Caucus to support, and encourage others to support, the bills and resolutions included in the 1994 House Republican Legislative Package.

"We pledge to the people of Hawaii, with the same courage and resolve that our indigenous and immigrant ancestors pledged with their life, property and sacred honor, to make a better life for their families. We also pledge, with energy, new ideas and integrity to make a better government for the people of this State so that Hawaii will become all that it can. That is, to create The New Hawaii - For All the Things It Can Be!"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

At this time, Representative Amaral was permitted a late introduction, and she introduced members of the Women's Coalition to the members of the House and audience.

Representative Marumoto then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, you may have noticed that the State flag was at half-mast yesterday. It flew in honor of Dorothy Devereux, a former member of this House of Representatives, who passed away on January 15th.

"Dorothy Louise Devereux devoted her life to helping our community. Long before most lawmakers realized the importance of clean air, or equal access to buildings for disabled persons, Dorothy was an activist for these causes. Dorothy was a lady who made things happen, whose vision and hard work founded the Hawaii Society for Crippled Children and Adults, whose commitment made her a life member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board. She was past president of the State PTA, 1955 Mother of the Year, co-founder of the Sultan School for the Handicapped, and she was also the driving force behind the establishment of the Rehab Center of the Pacific. Dorothy Devereux was also a champion for education during her years in the Territorial and State Legislatures, when she served as a Republican from 1958 through 1972.

"Dorothy was an early role model for me (and a dear friend also) and for many women, and an inspiration to all.

"I know this body would join us in conveying its deepest sorrow in her passing to her family and to her friends.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chumbley: "Since you announced in your opening remarks, I would like to remind the members that tomorrow, we are having a Education hearing on the Commission on Performance Standards, at 2:00 o'clock p.m. in Room 1008."

Representative Say: "Your Committee on Finance will be having an informational briefing on the Auditor's report on the Office of Hawaiian Affairs this afternoon at 1:30."

Representative Nekoba was permitted a late introduction and he introduced a group of Kailua Intermediate School students.

ADJOURNMENT

At 10:59 o'clock a.m., on motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m. tomorrow, Thursday, January 20, 1994.

SECOND DAY

Thursday, January 20, 1994

The House of Representatives of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, convened at 11:35 o'clock a.m., with the Speaker presiding.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION
(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

The following resolution (H.R. No. 5) was read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 5, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING MARLENE HIRATA FOR BEING SELECTED THE 1993 STATE TEACHER OF THE YEAR," was offered by Representative Duldulao.

On motion by Representative Duldulao, seconded by Representative Takumi and carried, H.R. No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Duldulao then rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"During these times when we hear much criticism about our public school programs, it is indeed refreshing and encouraging to know that we still have teachers who are committed to providing our children with the best education possible. Today, we honor such a teacher who was selected the best in 1993 amongst many who, I am sure, are equally dedicated.

"A teacher with over 25 years of service, Marlene Hirata has dedicated her working life to ensuring that the children placed under her charge receive the best education possible. Born and raised in Waipahu, Marlene is the daughter of the late 'Major' Okada who also contributed so much to the Waipahu community.

"Marlene, who is presently assigned to Pohakea Elementary School at Ewa Beach, has never been satisfied with mediocrity and consistently strives for higher standards for herself and her students. This is readily recognized in the way that her students react to her teaching and by the high level of their achievements. She is one who recognizes each child as an individual, one with different strengths and weaknesses. She is especially known for her gentleness and sensitivity, and above all, for the caring and love which she consistently demonstrates in her daily duties. She is an authority in her profession and has the sixth sense of being able to reach each child on a personal basis, bringing out the best in each one.

"Marlene's knowledge and compassionate nature has evoked great respect and affection from her children. She has not only been highly successful in motivating her students to learning, but has also been instrumental in making them better citizens. Her professional abilities and achievements have also gained her high respect and admiration of her associates and all others who know her.

"Mr. Speaker, I take great pride and pleasure in introducing to this distinguished body the 1993 State Teacher of the Year, Mrs. Marlene Hirata, a truly outstanding representative of Hawaii's teachers to whom we owe so much."

Representative Duldulao then asked the honoree to stand to be recognized.

Accompanying Marlene on the House floor were Richard Hirata, her husband; Carol Hirata, her sister-in-law; Richard Okada, her brother; and Naoto Hirata, her brother-in-law, who all rose to be recognized.

Representative Duldulao then presented Marlene with a ginger lei, and Representative Takumi presented the honoree with a Certificate of Recognition. Representatives Isbell, Chun and Kawakami presented the others with floral leis.

At 11:47 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:00 o'clock noon.

Representative Ward: "Just a reminder that some people were aware that today is Small Business Day at the Capitol, and this little badge is in recognition of the 29,000 businesses that are Hawaii's lifeline. Unfortunately, some had not come because of the rain but some were able to meet the representatives. INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION (FLOOR PRESENTATION)

The following resolution (H.R. No. 12) was read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 12, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND HONORING BRUCE I. YAMASHITA FOR HIS COURAGE AND COMMITMENT IN PRESERVING AND SAFEGUARDING CIVIL RIGHTS FOR ALL AMERICANS," was offered by Representative Okamura.

On motion by Representative Okamura, seconded by Representative Ihara and carried, H.R. No. 12 was unanimously adopted.

At this time, Representative Okamura rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, fellow colleagues, and guests, we are very honored today to have in our midst a man of great integrity, pride and vision who has made history, both locally and nationally.

"Bruce Yamashita has made headlines across the nation for his civil rights case against the United States Marine

COMMITTEE REASSIGNMENTS

| 2161 | Jointly to the Committees on Consumer Protection and Commerce and Judiciary |

Corps. He displayed great courage and determination in seeking redress for the discrimination that he encountered and serves as a role model for other minorities in our community who are afraid to speak out for what is right.

"This is not the first situation where Bruce Yamashita has taken a stand and fought for what he believed in. At the very young age of 22, he was one of the youngest delegates to the 1978 constitutional convention and what he lacked in years, he more than made up for with his intelligence and leadership skills.

"As a delegate, I recall Bruce pushing for a floor amendment to improve the judicial selection process. And as you know, fellow colleagues, getting a floor amendment passed even here in this Legislature is a very difficult thing to do, and this was, at the time, a very unpopular issue and Bruce received strong opposition from the majority of the delegates, including myself. But despite the resistance, he persevered and convinced the delegates to support his call, and the amendment passed. His accomplishments at the con-con are certainly reflective of his success in his case against the U.S. Marine Corps, and I am confident that he will enjoy success in all of his future endeavors.

"Mr. Speaker and fellow colleagues, it gives me great pleasure to introduce to you and this august body a man who has made tremendous personal sacrifice in seeking truth, honesty, and justice for all people. I present to all of you Mr. Bruce Yamashita."

The honoree, Mr. Bruce Yamashita, rose to be recognized.

Representative Hiraki then rose and stated:

"I would also like to extend my congratulations to my law school classmate, Bruce Yamashita.

"In our constitutional law class, one of the first lessons that we did learn was that the Constitution and the Bill of Rights are just words on paper. It takes vigilance, persistence and hard work to give life to these words.

"But, Bruce, thanks to your efforts, you have helped to ensure that others will never face the same indignity that you experienced, and we are all very proud of you."

Representative Marumoto then rose and stated:

"First, Bruce is not only a great American, but he is a person who really reveres and appreciates his roots. After con-con, he spent quite a while in Japan, living there and working there. As a sansei (third generation Japanese) who is not proficient in Japanese, I really admire someone, especially who is younger, who has mastered the oral and written intricacies of the language. So I really admire Bruce, and I commend him today for his perseverance.

"Thank you."

Representative Nekoba then rose and stated:

"This morning before session, Representative Ward came up to me and said that I had to speak today and if I didn't speak today, I would be in very big trouble. He also reminded me earlier of something that I did last session when I spoke about the members of the 442nd and 100th battalions being heroes of mine, and today, I can stand in front of this body and to that I can add one more very distinguished member to my list, and that is Mr. Bruce Yamashita. He fought a long, hard and tough battle, and he fought much of it alone. And he fought it without weapons and with the strongest armor that he could muster and that no one had any defense against -- his pride in his country, himself, and his heritage.

"I am very proud to be a member of the Honolulu Chapter of the JAACL which helped Bruce with his case, and I will say to you now what I said to the men of the 442nd and the 100th battalions last year ... you make me very proud to be Japanese American.

"Congratulations on your victory and gumbatte for your future actions toward the resolution of your case.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pepper then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, those who fight for their rights fight not only for their rights, but for the rights of all of us. Rights are a fragile thing which needs constantly to be reaffirmed and protected.

"I thank Mr. Yamashita for what he has done for me and for all of us.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"I would be amiss, as a veteran, not to speak, plus Representative Nekoba said if I didn't speak, I would be ...

At this point, the Chair interrupted and remarked:

"Anyone who has served in the military knows what a totalitarian system it is and how difficult it is to buck the system. It is almost impossible to buck it, but then to buck it and win takes guts, bravery, and the intestinal fortitude that I would submit, Mr. Yamashita, none of us really have the wherewithal to go that far. You should be commended. You are a national treasure, and a symbol of the victory of all of us in Hawaii.

"You are now a Captain ... is that correct? And may you return to us a General.

"Thank you."

Representative Shon then rose and stated:

"As one of those who had the enjoyment of serving in the now famous 1978 con-con, I just want to share that many of us learned many things from that as I am sure you did, too, and we learned it from a wide variety of people and a wide variety of ways.

"Certainly one lesson I've learned, and that is that regardless of whether or not you were part of a majority or minority, or old or young, that the force of argument, the force of words, the force of reason coupled with tenacity, often can win the day. If not on that day, a later day. And as I observed many of my colleagues, I noticed especially Bruce's combination of those qualities.

"And so in some small way, I hope I've learned. For those of you who are tired of my talking, you can blame him because he taught me that to articulate again and again one's ideal and to be tenacious about it is one of the better qualities of our democracy. He does embody that. He has won through the force of his reason and the force of the quality of his cause, and I think that is an inspiration for all of us to always remember, that it's not just counting votes ... it's counting minds and consciences, too. For that lesson, Bruce, thank you very much."

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"Earlier in the invocation, we heard from the Reverend Julia McKenna-Dubin that we're all one family, and truly Bruce is an esteemed family member. Born in Hawaii, he grew up in St. Louis. At University High School, he was their Student Body President and captain of their football team. He is a graduate of the University of Hawaii and Georgetown University Law School and, as Representative Okamura mentioned, a delegate to the 1978 constitutional convention. All of this and he was disenrolled for unsatisfactory leadership three days before his projected graduation from the Marine Corps Officer Candidate Training School.

"Well, the Asian Pacific Islander National Caucus of Legislators was very honored to have Bruce speak during its organizational meetings at the National Conference of State Legislatures this past July in San Diego. And the first official action taken by the caucus was to write a letter on behalf of Bruce to President Clinton.

"Bruce's fight shows the nation that institutional racism and discrimination still exist. But now begins real reform in the Marines and other branches of the Armed Forces. The Marine Corps has finally faced the presence of racial and gender inequality and explicitly now prohibits the type of harassment and discrimination faced by Bruce. His fight has benefited men and women of all races and ethnic backgrounds.

"Mr. Speaker, this third generation American of Japanese ancestry was told ... 'We don't want your kind around here. Go back to your own country.' No single day passed when he wasn't the subject or the butt of racial taunts and ethnic jokes.

"Mr. Speaker, on the floor of this House during the next coming months, we will honor many people who have served Hawaii. I cannot imagine that there will be someone who honors us so greatly as Bruce Yamashita who honors the past of our grandparents, our great-grandparents who came to Hawaii, their dreams, and also honors the future for, as a third generation American of Japanese ancestry, he has also made it easier for the fourth generation, the fifth generation and the other generations to come, and I thank you very much."

At this time, cigar flower leis were presented to the honoree by Representatives Kawakami, Marumoto and Young, while Representative Alcon presented Mr. Yamashita with a Certificate of Recognition.

At 12:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The Houe of Representatives reconvened at 12:26 o'clock p.m.

(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

The following resolution (H.R. No. 16) was read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 16, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING ROSE NAKAMURA," was jointly offered by Representatives Ward and Say.

On motion by Representative Ward, seconded by Representative Chun and carried, H.R. No. 16 was adopted.

Representative Ward rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"In November of 1993, Mrs. Rose Nakamura stood side-by-side with Rosalyn Carter, the former First Lady and wife of President Jimmy Carter, and she was being awarded the prestigious 'Rosalyn Carter Care Giving Award' which recognizes leadership, something that we're all interested in, but also innovation and leadership in caregiving, something that is new and on the horizon for our State and for our people.

"Project Dana, which means selfless giving, struck a national chord because of its outreach. You know, a lot of us are talking about the family HOPE program. This is already the personification of it by 400 volunteers going out to care for the elderly, the sick, the handicapped, shopping for them, getting medicine for them ... Rose, do you do dishes for them also? ... all things that are needed to make the old and the handicapped and those with less opportunity to get out of their homes, available.

"We are proud of this program. We are proud in the way that this has become a national example of what caregiving can be.

"Mr. Speaker, if I may divert, on a personal note, this is really a role reversal for me today. I am used to Mrs. Nakamura giving me certificates because she was the program officer at the East-West Center who took care of my wife and myself, along with a thousand or so, over the years at the East-West Center, of which the Vice Speaker's husband was the chancellor at the time, when her selfless giving helped what otherwise at that time ... my hair being down to my shoulders ... and, Mr. Speaker, probably having a different political persuasion at that time, she kept us in order. She kept all of the East-West Center students in order, and again using the principle of selfless giving.

"It is indeed an honor, Rose, to change and reverse our roles today because, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, today we honor not only the program of Project Dana ... we also honor a character that all of us aspire to -- to be more selfless, to be more giving. And Rose, we want to be more like you. We honor you today.

"Please rise to be recognized."

The honoree, Mrs. Rose Nakamura, then rose to be recognized.

Accompanying Mrs. Nakamura on the House floor were Dr. Shimeji Kanazawa, the founder of Project Dana, "the founder who had the idea in 1990 that this would be something that could get off the ground"; Mr. Makoto Kunimune, Mrs. Martha Samson and Dr. Mary Bitterman, coordinators and directors, all of whom rose to be recognized.

Representative Ward then asked Ms. Kelly Kanetani and Mr. Minoru Kanda, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"As Representative Ward mentioned, my husband, Dr. Everett Kleinjans, was the former President of the East-West Center and some of it during the years when Rose Nakamura was there. And when I told him that she was going to be honored on the floor of the House, he said to please express to the representatives that she was very kind and very caring, and made quite a difference in the lives of thousands of East-West students when they came to the East-West Center. I know Representative Ward and his wife was one of them, and he wanted me to be sure to let everyone know that she had carried that on. He is very proud of her, and we are too.

"Congratulations!

"Thank you."

Representative Hirono then rose and stated:

"Our honoree this morning, and the guests that came with her, really exemplify the kind of selfless giving that so many members of our community give to those who need our help. I know that Rose's guests, in their own right, are very well known in this community for having spent so many hours ... Mary Bitterman, we all know her; Shimeji Kanazawa; Makoto, a very well-known business person in the Moiliili community ... all of you, in your own right, have given tremendously of yourselves. We thank you for that.

"I would also like to mention ... I was reading some of the data on Project Dana which many of us are familiar with because the Legislature had appropriated funds over the years for this project, and I think when you first wanted to start it, Shim, you came to us and we were very supportive. But this entire project requires volunteers who have given in excess of 35,000 hours a year to do this. So there are many, many hundreds of volunteers out there who are not able to be here to whom we would like to express our thanks.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Okamura then rose and stated:

"On behalf of all of the Big Island delegation, I would like to extend our commendation.

"Rose Nakamura is a fellow Hiloan, and I had the distinct pleasure of growing up with her kids and knowing the family very well. I am not surprised that she has won this great honor. Growing up, we knew Rose Nakamura as a woman of class, one of the few people that I knew who always spoke perfect English, and at the University of Hawaii I also had the pleasure of taking a course from her, and all of the boys signed up for her class because she was a very good-looking lady.

"Our congratulations to you."

At this time, Representative Ward presented Mrs. Rose Nakamura with a Certificate of Recognition and Representative Okamura presented her with an orchid lei. Floral leis were presented to the other guests by Representatives Hirono, Santiago, Takumi and Yonamine.

At 12:17 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:59 o'clock p.m.

At 9:41 o'clock a.m., the House of Representatives stood in recess, subject to the call of the Chair, to meet in Joint Session with the Senate, in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution No. 1, to receive the Governor's State-of-the-State address.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate was called to order at 10:13 o'clock a.m. by the Honorable Joseph Souki, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

At this time, the Speaker welcomed and introduced the following distinguished guests to the members of the Seventeenth Legislature:

Mrs. Lynne Waihee, the First Lady of the State of Hawaii.

Floral leis were presented to Mrs. Waihee by Representative Ihara and Senator Matsunaga.

Lt. Governor Benjamin J. Cayetano

Floral leis were presented to Lt. Governor Cayetano by Representative Ishii-Morikami and Senator Ann Kobayashi.

The Honorable Ronald Moon, Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court;

Admiral Robert Kelly, Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Pacific Fleet;

The Honorable Frank F. Fasi, Mayor, City and County of Honolulu;

The Honorable Stephen Yamashiro, Mayor, County of Hawaii;

Major General Marvin Hopgood, representing Admiral Charles Larson, Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Pacific Command;

Rear Admiral Howard Gehring, District Commander, 14th Coast Guard District; and Former Speaker of the House of Representatives, Daniel J. Kihano.

The Speaker then appointed Representatives Young, Okamura and Ward, and Senators Solomon, Chang and George to escort the Honorable John Waihee, Governor of the State of Hawaii, to the rostrum.

Representative Kawakami and Senator Fernandes-Salling presented Governor Waihee with a maile and ilima leis on behalf of the House of Representatives and Senate, respectively.

The Speaker then presented to the members of the Seventeenth Legislature and guests, the Honorable John Waihee, stating:

"Members of the Seventeenth Legislature, ladies and gentlemen, will you all please rise and join me in extending our warmest aloha and welcome to the Governor of the State of Hawaii, the Honorable John Waihee."

The Governor addressed the Joint Session, as follows:

"Thank you.

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, members of the Seventeenth Legislature, honored guests, ladies and gentlemen:

"Before I begin my formal remarks, I would like to take advantage of this time to do two things:

"First of all, to notice that even at my last State-of-the-State, the Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu would attempt to mar my entrance ... welcome, Mr. Mayor.

"I would also like to express my deepest appreciation to all of you who have offered your prayers to my family upon the passing of my mother. Many of us, myself included, have a tendency to use words too often lightly or casually in our daily conversations so that when you really want to express something that you feel deeply about or passionately for, you find yourself struggling in a sea of cliché. I find myself in that very position this morning as I try to express to you how much your warm support has meant. I only know that your thoughts of concern kept translating into one word -- Aloha. My family and I would like to extend to you that same Aloha. Thank you very much.

"It has been seven years since my first State-of-the-State -- seven years of dramatic changes for the world, for the nation, and for our State.

"We came in as an activist administration, and we have been innovative and non-traditional in our efforts to achieve results.

"Over the last seven years, I have used the State-of-the-State to outline our hopes and our dreams.

"They have been bold forums upon which we have presented programs to not only address today's needs, but also our needs for the twenty-first century.

"You responded and together, we have made significant accomplishments.

"But, my friends, we have unfinished business. It exists because you and I have always looked beyond the horizon of this administration's eight-year tenure.

"The challenge before us is to position this State for that final leap that will take us into the next millennium.

"To reinvent government, to invest our resources wisely, and to commit ourselves to the goals and dreams of our citizens.

"Since coming to office, this administration has constantly looked for ways of making government more efficient, accountable, and responsive to the needs of our people. In short, we've sought to reinvent government.

"Last year, you asked us to intensify our reinvention efforts. Consequently, we formed a 'redesign team' chaired by my Administrative Director, Joshua Aagsalud, which responded to your request with a report of how we might be able to do even more.

"While the buzz word may be new, the concept is not. Reinvention centers around an essential willingness to change.

"With the impact of the recession, the after effects of Hurricane Iniki, and the restructuring of our sugar industry, that willingness to change is even more imperative.

"As Speaker Souki noted in his Opening Day remarks, 'The prognosis is better, but there are still plenty of symptoms of the economic flu.'

"And if there is anything that will immediately force someone to look at new ways of doing things, it is not having enough money to get things done the old way.

"That's one compelling reason to reinvent government. Making it more accountable and more responsive are two others.

"The first and most important area that requires a willingness to change relates to restoring the public's trust.

"I was reminded recently that the public's trust is not a given, it is earned, and that past accomplishments are a foundation, and not a shrine.

"In spite of our pride in public service, there is discontent, distrust and dismay over where we find ourselves.

"I know it, and I am very troubled by it too.

"It seems to me that part of what we are going through as a State and as a government is akin to middle-age crisis. And yes, there are some worn out paths and tired feet.

"The question of whether our hearts are as tired as our feet. The answer is no.

"I stand here today to rededicate both myself and the people who work for me to the same activist spirit where I began in 1986.

"If together we can open up public records and tackle reforms in one of the most entrenched instruments of government -- our procurement system -- then we can tackle other areas as well.

"On a number of occasions, I have talked about leveling the playing field by restricting all political contributions and instituting public financing of state political campaigns.

"No one has taken me up on the challenge. I can understand why. This is a painful area where tinkering around the edges is a lot more comfortable than a major overhaul.

"I know this as much as anyone. When I began my career, I was an outsider. As Governor, I find myself the ultimate insider. Having come all this way, I believe now what I believed then, and that is the only way to fix the system is to turn it upside down.

"Until we remove the suspicion that campaign contributions and government actions are somehow linked, it will be very difficult to restore public trust.

"I believe we need two things:

"First, to sever both the real and perceived links between the candidate and the contributor, and

"Second, to rebuild broader based participation in the electoral process.

"To achieve these goals, I propose we institute mandatory public financing of campaigns. I suggest we begin in the next electoral cycle, not the upcoming, the next electoral cycle, with the races for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Mayors of the four counties.

"To facilitate this, we recommend dropping the limit on individual contributions from two thousand dollars to two hundred, and establishing qualifying contribution thresholds.

"I know that one of the criticisms of public financing is the use of taxpayers' dollars. We can partially address that by allowing for private contributions into the public fund, in addition to the taxpayers' checkoff.

"Also, to address the growing concern of the influence of lobbyists, I propose tougher rules for lobbyist registration by the Ethics Commission.

"If we are truly interested in restoring public trust in government, then now is the time to move boldly.

"The second area for reinvention relates to how we educate our children, how we allocate and spend our resources, and how we measure the performance of our schools.

"As President Mizuguchi noted in his Opening Day remarks, the most striking example of the reinvention process in government in Hawaii is the reform going on within our schools.

"We've shifted responsibility and resources down to the schools, where it counts, through school-community based management.

"Project Ke Au Hou will further collapse the education bureaucracy so that all levels of the system are oriented to the schools.

"We are reviewing new performance standards to make our goal of creating a 'results-driven' system meaningful. You cannot be results driven if you don't have standards to measure those results.

"These are revolutionary changes, but what is missing is accountability in governance.

"That responsibility is currently diluted among the Legislature, the Board of Education, the Superintendent, and the Governor. It is a situation that leaves the accountability picture muddled.

"We've talked about clearing up governance of our education system for seven years now. It's time to fish or cut bait.

"Personally, I have always preferred an appointed Board of Education because it clearly makes the Governor accountable.

"But, apparently, that opinion may be shared only by myself and a few newspaper editorial writers.

"Therefore, I propose that we go the other direction and have a truly independent Board of Education, with the ability to raise its own revenues for its own programs.

"In order to do this, we need to know how much we spend on education.

"Right now, the DOE's operating budget is about $687-million. But when you include the capital improvement and maintenance costs, personnel, and some pretty significant employee benefits costs, the real price of education is about one-billion dollars. That's 33 percent of our total general fund revenues.

"My friends, that's a level of funding that is almost twice as large as the City and County of Honolulu's budget. When you are that large, perhaps you ought to be independent -- subject, of course, to laws of general application.

"So, I am submitting a constitutional amendment to allow the voters to create an independent Board of Education, and transfer the personal income tax -- which makes up about 33 percent of our general funds -- to the Board of Education.

"If passed by the voters, an education restructuring commission would have two years to flesh out the many details associated with such a significant change.

"In short, if public education is the responsibility of the Board of Education, let them be clearly responsible.

"The issue, after all, is accountability.

"A word about the role that technology plays in education and educational reform. Computer literacy is no longer a luxury. It's a requirement.

"High tech enhances teaching and learning, from electronic highways that bring together far-flung teachers and students to tracking students performance.

"Computers and information systems are so important that Superintendent Toguchi calls it one of the three pillars of education reform -- reform on a scale that would not have been possible without the tools that high technology has provided us.

"I call on the Board of Education and my colleagues here in the Legislature to strongly support technology in our schools.

"We all want the best school facilities possible for our children. That's why we created the 'Super Fund' for school facilities, providing our schools each year with $90-million.

"So why do we still hear of students in makeshift classrooms? Obviously, because our educational needs are so large and we need more money. But there is another reason as well.

"We are not spending all the money we have.

"In fact the DOE spends less than $55-million each year for facilities and currently has over $200-million in authorized but unspent funds.

"There is no need, or should be no need, for any child in this State to make do in sub-standard or makeshift classrooms, and certainly not while we are accumulating millions of dollars specifically for those needs.

"DAGS, Budget and Finance and the DOE are working right now, with a little encouragement, to reduce the bottlenecks and drastically cut that processing time for school facilities. By the next fiscal year, the DOE will be able to use all of its annual super fund allocation to build and upgrade school facilities.

"Back in 1986, we agreed the University of Hawaii should be more autonomous, and gave the Board of Regents flexibility to allocate funds among programs. I now propose we make that flexibility permanent.

"I also propose that we increase that flexibility by lump-sum budgeting and allow the University to carry over five percent of appropriations beyond the fiscal year.

"It is also time to allow the University to handle all of their own personnel matters.

"By the way, I was very pleased that the Board of Regents selected Kapolei as the site for the West Oahu campus. I think, like you, it's the appropriate choice and I ask for your support on that endeavor.

"Hawaii's health care system is the envy of the nation, and the credit should be rightly shared by Hawaii's leaders, past and present, in both the legislative and executive branches, as well as the private sector.

"It has been a partnership effort of the highest quality. Yet it is still not the seamless health care delivery system we all desire.

"Consequently, we have continued to put the way we deliver health care services under the microscope of reinvention.

"As a result, we created Project Quest, which will overhaul our medicaid system by consolidating three programs into one and privatizing it.

"Quest has already been approved by the Federal government and is nearly ready for implementation. The last step is to transfer the State health insurance program from the Department of Health to the Department of Human Services. I ask for your support in implementing Project Quest.

"While we are working to contain costs in public health care programs, we also need to help the private sector do the same.

"The creation of a health alliance would do just that. A health alliance -- composed of government, businesses and individuals -- could:

- * Form a pool for negotiating strength with insurance companies and help control costs;
- * Ensure a broader range of health care choices;
- * Provide consumer information on health care quality and costs; and, at some future date,
- * Coordinate long-term care financing, and consolidate workers' compensation, no-fault auto, and health care coverage.

"The fourth area of reinvention relates to the stewardship of our resources. It includes reforming our land-use law, fundamentally changing how we perceive and support agriculture, and consolidating our environmental and conservation activities throughout the State.

"Session after session, you and I have had to deal with the 'tension' between the State and counties on who is responsible for land-use decisions. Under the current system, the task is duplicated.

"I believe the State should move away from parcel-by-parcel decision-making, leaving that to the counties. The more appropriate role for us is to refocus on the development of an overall land-use plan.

"The legislation we are submitting will eliminate that duplication.

"We need the same kind of shift in our approach to agriculture.

"Times are changing. The plantation lifestyle I grew up in is quickly disappearing, and it is a painful transition. Obviously, we need to help our affected communities in any way we can. But that transition also has the seeds of opportunity.

"Large tracts of prime ag lands -- with water, roads and other infrastructure -- are becoming available. New farmers -- small agribusiness -- can and will want to use this land, but they need our support.

"And we can help in two ways:

- * By strengthening the role of the Department of Agriculture and consolidating resources; and
- * By creating an agribusiness development authority to assist and promote the development of new agricultural enterprises -- as we do for high technology ventures.

"Such an authority would bring together the elements of land, infrastructure and marketing ... in short, the same things we do to attract new business to Hawaii.

"Our farmers deserve the same break.

"In this light, the proposed land exchange between the Galbraith Trust and the State makes sense. The exchange gives us the opportunity to preserve ag land, protect historic sites, and facilitate housing where it ought to be -- in the city of Kapolei.

"In the past, when we sought to protect and conserve natural areas, we appropriated funds. How do we continue our efforts in tighter economic times?

"By shifting from traditional solutions to more creative methods.

"For example, I proposed, four years ago, the creation of a seven-mile shoreline park from Mahaiula to Kua Bay in North Kona.

"The last parcel we need to complete that park is Makalawena. We are now negotiating a lease, which will place the land immediately in the public domain, then, later when funds become available and if we choose, we can buy it.

"You decided last year that Olomana's pristine east face needs to be protected, and I propose that we accomplish that through a land exchange.

"On Maui at Makena Beach, we are forming a partnership with the Federal government, Maui County, and a private landowner to acquire additional lands to expand the existing Makena Bay State Park at no cost to the State.

"Just as we change the way we manage our lands and agricultural resources, we also need to change the way in which we protect our environmental resources.

"Therefore, I am proposing that we establish a new Department of Environment.

"The increasing environmental emphasis and mandates at the federal level, as well as our efforts to make government more responsive, make it an ideal time to begin that process.

"By taking these actions to reinvent government, we put ourselves in a position to continue to invest wisely in our future.

"As we move to streamline government and re-identify priorities, we will find a much stronger justification for the areas where government can and should be the primary provider of services -- those areas where compassion, not profit, is the bottom line.

"In these tough economic times, we need to also avoid the temptation of being 'penny wise and pound foolish.' Sound and timely investments in our people, housing, economy, and transportation system will more than pay for themselves.

"Our investments for the future should also include correcting past wrongs, such as making our trust with native Hawaiians whole again.

"Investment in housing has been one of our highest priorities. When I first took office, our goal was to provide 64,000 affordable homes by the year 2000.

"Between 1988 and 1992, the State, with your help and with our many programs and with private developers, have built more than 21,000 affordable and market-priced homes, with the current supply of affordable housing at a thirty-year high.

"Kapolei, one of our three master-planned communities, is proving to be one of our best investments in the future. It was planned to provide us with five thousand homes by the year 2000. We all know that is not fast enough.

"Consequently, I am requesting in our budget:

- * Three million dollars for our nationally recognized Healthy Start Program to cover an additional 1,200 families;
- * Three million dollars for adolescents in need of inpatient mental health care;
- * Three million dollars for school-based, early-intervention mental health services to reach about 4,800 children and adolescents with severe emotional disturbances; and
- * 4.8-million dollars to continue the family preservation program.

"We also want to expand Hawaii's jobs program -- now at capacity with about 3,000 welfare recipients -- to help another 1,500 return to the world of work.

"I have requested 900,000 dollars, to be matched with federal funds to get this 'investment' in our families up and running.

"Universal early childhood education by the year 2000 was one of our goals when we first entered office. Today, 40 percent of the 83,000 children under five in Hawaii now receive education and care outside the home. We know we need to reach more.

"How do we do it? We do it by combining resources, an effort started by the Hawaii Business Roundtable, private agencies, and the State.

"An interim committee, which I am establishing, will take us another step closer to our goal. With leadership from this committee, we hope to leverage private sector efforts in early education by providing standards and a more comprehensive support framework.

"Long-term care for Hawaii's elders becomes even more important as long-term care costs continue to rise. As I've noted in the past, these costs are often as hard on the families of the elderly, as on the elders themselves.

"If we don't take action now, our projected long-term care costs will grow by more than two billion dollars by the year 2020.

"I am proposing the adoption of our Family Hope Program which will establish a long-term care plan and long-care trust fund.

"Our approach will tie it to elements of President Clinton's national health care reform, with our own health alliance providing a future home for this program.

"One of our success stories in assisting our families has been our partnership with private social service agencies.

"To strengthen these partnerships, I am proposing multi-year contracts in the purchase of health and human services. This simple change will result in more attention to services, and less to administrative paperwork. Our families will be the winners.

"We have also got to continue to strongly invest in our economy, especially in these tough economic times.

"The engine that drives our economy is tourism. We've taken aggressive steps to get tourism back on track.

"After years of debate, this past summer we made the tough decision on selecting a convention center site to help us capture new market segments. Before this year is over, we will have selected a contractor and will be on our way in developing a world-class convention center. Thank you for your support on this issue.

"Over the past seven years, you and I have significantly increased the promotion dollars for tourism. In fact, last year, we increased funds for tourism promotion by 9.5 million dollars.

"We must continue to promote Hawaii. But, in these tough times, we need to do it more effectively.

"In the past year, we've joined forces with the private sector, pooling resources to get a bigger bang for our buck. We did it with our 'Focus on Hawaii' and 'Aloha on Tour' campaigns.

"I believe that we need and can build on that private/public partnership.

"I ask you to support a new ten-million dollar campaign, specifically for our key markets in North America, Asia and Europe, to help kick start the industry.

"The State would provide five million dollars for tourism marketing, which the industry would match on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

"Investing in our future also means providing more opportunities for new industries.

"In the past, we've encouraged investments in high tech, alternative energy, film, sports, and other areas as a way of diversifying our economy.

"To capitalize on Hawaii's profile as a leader in health care, I am suggesting that we invest a modest amount to establish a temporary commission to create a strategic plan for the development of a 'wellness industry.'

"And what better place for this industry than in Kakaako.

"There, our waterfront park, the redevelopment of Aloha Tower, and the creation of more than 800 rental housing units have brought families back to Kakaako -- making it a center for people once more.

"With your help, we can also make it a center for the wellness industry in Hawaii.

"For this to happen, we need the proper infrastructure to support such activity. That's why I am requesting 13 million dollars for infrastructure improvements.

"Reinvesting in our future also means making sure that the backbone of our economy, small business, is afforded the greatest opportunity to succeed. Small businesses are hurting in these tough times.

"One of the major costs of doing business is workers compensation. We need to deal with this issue.

"No one is arguing that a worker who is injured should be denied timely medical care and benefits. Yet, we have to look more closely at the system when it appears that costs are skyrocketing.

"Medical costs have risen from 46 million dollars in 1985 to 116 million dollars in 1992.

"In addition, the system has evolved from a simple administrative process to a cumbersome one. Today, workers' compensation is bogged down in mountains of paper. It is a process, by the way, made even more costly when lawyers get involved in this complex mess ... with all due respect to my colleagues.

"We must bring 'prudent administration' back into the system, by simplifying the process, minimizing delays, and closely monitoring medical costs. The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is developing administrative procedures and will be submitting legislation to you for your consideration.

"However, we cannot do it alone. We stand ready to work with you, business, labor and the insurance industry to resolve this very important issue. It had to happen sooner or later.

"Mass transit. When we first proposed some form of mass transit four years ago, our streets on Oahu were already in gridlock. Today, it is worse and we still have not come to grips with the problem.

"I know it is a tough issue, but sooner or later, we have got to face up to the reality that we need a mass transit system on Oahu -- one that eventually connects the University of Hawaii's Manoa campus with the proposed West Oahu campus at Kapolei, with feeder routes to Waikiki and Mililani.

"We have the ability to plan for this system by using existing federal funds. And it would be very easy for me to propose just that and stop right here.

"But I would be remiss if I didn't bring to your attention that our 600 million dollar federal authorization hangs in the balance. This Spring, Congress will decide on whether to keep the authorization for Hawaii or re-program the money for other cities.

"With due deference to the Speaker, whose opinion I highly respect, unfortunately, this is a touchy issue where the discussion of taxes cannot be avoided.

"If we don't make a decision on mass transit this year, we will not only lose the authorization, but we will have to go back to the end of the line.

"As you know, we tried this before as a partnership between the State, the City, and the Federal government. It didn't work. Therefore, I am proposing that the partnership be redefined between the State and the Federal government.

"This time, it will take more than a promise. It will take much more than a promise to secure federal dollars and a favorable matching formula. Dedicated local financing is an absolute requirement. Therefore, I am compelled to ask you to consider the authorization for a half percent excise tax -- a tax that won't kick in unless we receive fifty percent federal funding.

"I believe that mass transit is an idea whose time has not yet passed.

"Investing in our future also means passing laws that ensure our sense of community and individual safety.

"As a community, we need to feel secure and safe on our streets and in our homes. Because we are an island state, we have a golden opportunity to control the spread of handguns in Hawaii. The law enforcement coalition and Senator Graulty have advocated it, and I believe that we should support such a move.

"Honolulu is not yet in a situation that many cities on the mainland find themselves. Let's not allow it to happen here. We owe it to ourselves and to our children to have the courage to keep Hawaii safe and gun-free.

"It would be impossible for me to conclude a State-of-the-State without addressing Hawaiian issues. This imperative has much less to do with who I am than who we -- Hawaiians and non-Hawaiians alike -- are.

"We are an island community who count Hawaiians one in five among us. More than numbers, it is clear that the future of all of our peoples are intertwined.

"Our collective future depends on the justice, persistence, and creativity which we apply to long-standing and difficult issues.

"In 1993, sovereignty was front and center in a year of recognition and reflection.

"1994 brings the necessity of action. Clearly, there are few today, in my mind, who truly doubt that sovereignty will happen. It is a matter of how, when, and in what form.

"The Hawaiian Sovereignty Advisory Commission has been working on a process for Hawaiians to make those determinations, and they deserve our continued support.

"As you know, the State cannot confer sovereignty. That is the kuleana of the Federal government, with many steps yet to be taken.

"However, there is progress to report. In particular, thanks are due to our congressional delegation for the long overdue formal apology of the United States to native Hawaiians. And yes, Aunty Frenchy, Kaho'olawe will be returned this year.

"Now is the time to press even harder on the federal front. At long last, talks have begun with the Department of Interior on land claims, political status, and trust responsibility.

"Meanwhile, back at home, we must continue to clean up and uphold our own trust responsibilities.

"Nowhere is that need more evident than with Hawaiian Home Lands.

"The 1921 act of Congress created a Hawaiian Home Lands trust of 203,500 acres. It also created a deceptively simple term -- 'more or less.'

"The impact of those three words was best described by a young Hawaiian on the waiting list, Randall Lindsey, testifying before Senator Inouye's committee.

"He told the Senator how the 1921 act said four thousand acres, more or less, were set aside as available lands in Waimanalo.

"Yet, less than 2,000 acres can be accounted for. The same discrepancies were to be found throughout the act, wherever the words 'more or less' were used. Mr. Lindsey asked the panel, 'What happened to those lands?'

"Yes, Mr. Lindsey, what happened to those lands, to over 16,000 acres of those lands?

"The task force I established in 1991 to resolve the hundreds of Hawaiian Home Land claims has made tremendous progress.

"But remaining issues will not be as easily resolved as the 9.7 million dollars in past due rent paid last year with your support.

"Now is the time to move boldly and restore the trust while we still have the will and the means.

"Therefore, I have asked the Board of Land and Natural Resources to turn over this year 16,518 acres of State lands to Hawaiian Homes.

"We will continue our obligation, obviously, to resolve specific claims. And as they are resolved, credits will be made against the lands that we have already transferred. But we will not wait on the attorneys to keep discussing and discussing and discussing and discussing the issues.

"By the way, my instructions are to turn over good lands for homes, farm lots, and income generation.

"If the land is there, then people must be put on the land. We have been playing catch-up with over 115 million dollars of roads, sewers and other infrastructure needs in the last six years alone.

"We will continue this commitment, but it is clearly not enough.

"It is time to 'shift' from the mindset of dependency and involve the beneficiaries to a greater extent in the control over the pace and settlement of the land. That is the powerful message behind three new programs launched by the Hawaiian Homes Commission.

"This shift begins with sharing development responsibilities with the beneficiaries in a program that gleans the best of the acceleration program while learning from its shortcomings.

* Kuleana Hou, starts with three projects at Kawaihae, Lalamilo, and Kahikinui for a total of 1,162 undeveloped homesteading lots;

* Laulima, a twenty-three lot beneficiary developed residential project at Papakolea; and

* Kupuna elderly rentals.

"I urge you to support the 3.5 million dollars to begin these projects, not only for the homesteading opportunities they will provide, but as an important step in the process of self-determination as well.

"Finally, if you will allow me a few moments on a more personal note.

"All of our plans are of no value unless they are anchored with a commitment to fulfilling the hopes and dreams of our people.

"As I mentioned at the start of this address, this will be the last time I stand before a joint session of this Legislature as your Governor.

"Together, we have moved aggressively on a number of fronts.

"It is a fact, however, that our greatest achievements have happened when we have all been able to work together -- when we have placed all of our energies in the same direction.

"If we continue to work together as we have in the past, by the year 2000, I believe:

* We will have an economy which withstood hard times and grew evenly and diversely to meet the needs of our people.

* We will have revitalized our schools, empowered our communities, and readied our children for the challenge of any day.

* We will have opened up lands statewide for housing and provided more than 64,000 affordable homes.

* We will have created a support system for our families who need a helping hand that moves them toward financial independence rather than trapping them in programs of social dependence.

* We will have provided a seamless system of health care for all of our citizens under a strong supportive alliance involving both the private and public sectors.

* We will have respected and supported the rights of native Hawaiians and all of our people, striving for tolerance -- unique, special and ours. The best way to correct yesterday's wrong is to make tomorrow right.

* And, we will have saved forever priceless lands, an inheritance for all generations.

"The last seven years, to say the least, have been a journey of exhilarating highs as well as lows. If you are driven to doing the best job possible, if you feel as strongly about our islands and our people as I do, you cannot help but respond to this job intensely.

"I regret neither the highs nor the lows. They have given me the opportunity to learn and grow and contribute something to the home that nurtures and sustains me.

"In addition, you cannot become Governor of Hawaii and represent our people without having the experience intimately change who you are.

"My affection and appreciation for the richness of our history, our cultures and our people have increased many fold. And I wish I could thank individually all who have been responsible for that gift.

"I would like to thank all of you for your counsel and your insights. If, at times, we have differed on the means, we have always shared a common purpose and goals.

"I always knew, down deep, what was in your hearts. And I hope you always knew what was in mine -- Hawaii. Hawaii. Hawaii.

"And while my administration will end this year, the business of government is never finished. As indicated by our ambitious list of legislative proposals, we have no intention of turning off the lights any sooner than twelve noon on December 5, 1994, unless, of course, you want to amend the State Constitution and extend my stay. Don't worry, that reform is not on the agenda.

"I pledge, as resolutely as day one, to work with you for the benefit of this extraordinary place and all who call it home.

"For that is what is in our hearts.

"Thank you and Aloha."

Senate President Mizuguchi then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor, for a sterling review of the State of the State.

"The agenda you propose is ambitious and thought-provoking. We, the Legislature, will give it our serious consideration. Many issues will come before this session requiring the full resolve of your administration and the Legislature. I am confident that we will emerge from this session with a legislative product we can be proud of.

"There being no further business, I declare this Joint Session of the Hawaii State Legislature adjourned."

At 11:11 o'clock a.m., the President declared the Joint Session adjourned.

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:00 o'clock midnight, the House of Representatives adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m. tomorrow, Friday, January 28, 1994.

SEVENTH DAY

Friday, January 28, 1994

The House of Representatives of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, convened at 11:44 o'clock a.m., with the Speaker presiding.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Father Robert Mackey of Chaminade University, after which the Roll was called showing all members present with the exception of Representatives Apo, Hagino, Menor, Shon and White, who were excused.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the House of Representatives of the Sixth Day.

On motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, reading of the Journal was dispensed with and the Journal of the Sixth Day was approved.

At this time, the following introductions were made to the members of the House:

Representative Alcon introduced his parents, Eugenio and Flora Alcon, from Long Beach, California.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION (FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 20, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING HEIDE K. WILSON, RECIPIENT OF THE AIR FORCE JUNIOR ROTC 'SILVER MEDAL OF VALOR', FOR HER UNSELFISH ACTIONS IN SAVING A FELLOW CADET FROM SERIOUS INJURY," was jointly offered by Representatives Suzuki and Pepper and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Suzuki, seconded by Representative Pepper and carried, H.R. No. 20 was adopted.

At this time, Representative Suzuki rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, today we are recognizing Air Force Junior ROTC Cadet Heide Wilson, a tenth grader attending Moanalua High School. She was awarded the 'Silver Medal of Valor' from the United States Air Force. This outstanding effort by Heide reflects credit upon herself, her family, Moanalua High School and our 921st Air Force Junior ROTC program.

"Moanalua High School's Junior AFROTC program has its participants pursue a demanding curriculum of aerospace and physical sciences, and it helps these students develop citizenship, responsibility and patriotism. Heide's participation in the Junior AFROTC program is an illustration of her drive and determination to succeed.

"Moanalua's program is one of the many programs available to its students in the spirit of the SCBM program. Moanalua is the only high school in active implementation of SCBM and is recognized as THE SCBM pioneer at the high school level. Thus, it is obvious, through our young people like Heide, that every effort should be made to encourage and nurture Moanalua's programs.

"Again, Cadet Heide Wilson, on behalf of myself, the House of Representatives, and the State of Hawaii, I want to congratulate you for your accomplishments, and I know that you will remain true to your Air Force motto: KULIA IKA NU-U -- Aim High -- which means strive for the summit and aim high!

"Thank you."

Representative Suzuki then asked Air Force Junior ROTC Cadet Heide Wilson to stand to be recognized.

Accompanying the honoree on the House floor were Armond Wilson, her father; Jackie Heupel, Principal of Moanalua High School; Lt. Colonel Sidney Sider; Master Staff Sgt. Stan Fernandez; and Mr. Darrel Galera, Vice Principal.

Representative Suzuki then presented Cadet Heide Wilson with a Certificate of Recognition and a ginger lei while Representatives Chun, Hirono, Marumoto and Pepper presented the others with floral leis.

Representative Nekoba then rose and stated:

"I would just like to send my own congratulations to Heide, and also mention that it's nice to see my former principal, Mrs. Heupel, here. So I would just like to mention that, and it's nice to see that she's having as positive an influence on other students as she did on me in high school.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pepper then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, today we honor Heide, her program, and her school, and it is appropriate that we do so. But I wanted to also take this opportunity to mention that I think, by reflection, we honor the vast majority of children of her age who, in fact, are responsible, dignified citizens and who, unfortunately, we lose sight of because of the publicity which is given to those small minority of youngsters of her age who get into trouble one way or the other. And I just want to call attention to the fact that the vast majority of these youngsters are growing and living appropriately into fine young citizens.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 11:58 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Upon reconvening at 12:06 o'clock p.m., Representative Beirne was permitted a late introduction and she introduced the following residents from the Ahupua'a of Kahana Valley, Oahu: Kupuna Lydia Dela Cerna, Aunty Rena Kapapa, Kupuna Adella Johnson, Pualoke Dela Cerna, John Kapapa, Thorin Evans, Tim Evans, Lisa Kamakaala and her children, Norman Shapiro, Ben Shafer, Sunny Alonso, Beatrice Soga, Vernon Soga, and Pua Martinez.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering a bill on Third Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar.

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 2280, HD 1:

Representative Say moved that H.B. No. 2280, HD 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Kawakami.

Representative Thielen rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak on behalf of the Minority Caucus against this measure, against House Bill 2280, the legislative budget, and the Caucus is going unanimously against this bill because we do not believe that we should increase our budget in this time of austerity. We believe that when other departments and people throughout our State are being asked to cut back on spending that we should set the example.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2280, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE LEGISLATIVE AUDITOR, THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, AND THE OMBUDSMAN," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Marumoto, Santiago, Tanimoto, Thielen and Ward voting no, and Representatives Apo, Hagino, Menor, Shon and White being excused.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

Representative Tom, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 11-94) recommending that H.B. No. 2312 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Tom moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2312 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Menor.

Representative Shon rose to speak against the motion, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill raises a number of serious questions, and the reason why I am speaking on Second Reading is to raise them so that we can best contemplate our votes on Third Reading.

"Number one. I think it is important to acknowledge that our current law does not require any religious endorsement of a marriage. It is a totally secular instrument. Couples are not asked what their affiliation may be; they are not asked about their intentions to have children; they are not asked if they have a disability which would prevent them from having children; they are not asked many questions which the State has virtually no interest in. It is a secular instrument, and many of the arguments on this issue are not secular.

"Number two. If we choose, through the Committee Report and the Preamble to link marriage with procreation, a number of interesting issues come to mind. What of seniors who would marry but are beyond childbearing age? What of the disabled? What of the sterile? What if one partner is HIV positive, meaning that regular intercourse which could result in pregnancy would put a partner at risk? What of those who just don't want children? What of those instances where marriages are performed between a prison inmate and a counselor on the outside?

"We must ask all of these circumstances as to whether or not when our Attorney General goes to the Supreme Court and says ... here is the purpose of our marriage in our State -- procreation. Whether or not that court should agree with the Attorney General is, in fact, quite apart from the intentions of the Committee if, in fact, these kinds of commonly-known marriages would be prohibited. And make no mistake about it ... the purposes included in this bill will be argued as the purposes of marriage for everyone.

"Third. On the spiritual side and theological, I suppose, it is interesting that very few churches assert that marriage is primarily a sexual union. And while sex may be involved, they emphasize the spiritual commitment of two souls.

"Today, in the Catholic church, we no longer say that a priest performs a marriage but that he presides over it and witnesses it. It is the couple, through their vows before God, that creates the marriage. It is not the priest.

"I wonder what the implications would be when a spiritual union sanctioned by a church comes up against a procreation-oriented State license and certificate. Could some church weddings go unrecognized by the State, and would this not put us in the position of taking sides in recognizing certain religions over others? As to whether or not our secular law implies a certain spirituality, one can only reflect that you can be married by an Elvis impersonator in Las Vegas and every state in the union will recognize it. This is hardly anything spiritual or solemn about our secular certificate of marriage. You can also be married by a judge, a boat captain, and who knows what. Clearly, our secular law has never required or implied a spiritual dynamic to the ceremony. Where confusion lies is the State's recognition of religious ceremonies which is proper, but the State recognition is not the same as the State adopting the same criteria. It is obvious that we live in a very complex legal and financial environment today, and a commitment between any two consenting adults is no longer simply a commitment to love and cherish one another.

"Anyone who has ever tried to go through a divorce will understand this very explicitly. Insurance, health, retirement benefits, all kinds of financial legal rights, are carried with the universally accepted marriage certificate.

"This is why it has become a matter of civil rights. If our involvement in marriage is truly secular. . .

At this point, the Chair interrupted and advised Representative Shon that he has gone beyond his five minutes, whereupon Representative Hagino rose and yielded his five minutes.

Representative Shon thanked the Chair and continued his remarks, stating:

"This is why it is a matter of civil rights and if it is truly secular, which we all seem to be asserting, then it is only fair that we should seriously question the attempt to limit the application of this secular instrument which is recognized in many states for financial and legal complexities that bind two individuals together. It is nearly impossible to put into writing all the implications, all the references, to marriage that are in all the other states and our State. And it puts a person who is poor at a disadvantage because if they were to try to put it in legal writing, they would have to pay an attorney. They would have to pay an attorney for something that everybody else gets for free by virtue of a marriage certificate.

"Hawaii's commitment to privacy would seem to be at odds with an attempt to intrude on the intentions of marriage, as well as to limit the instrument of secular marriage to traditional procreating couples.

"Today, one must ask the question ... who is harmed? Who is actually harmed by permitting same sex marriages? Certainly not churches because churches already tolerate civil ceremonies by others which they do not sanction. The Catholic church today does not recognize marriages by divorcees. Many churches do not recognize many civil marriages. On the other hand, who is harmed by actively prohibiting same sex unions? Obviously, same sex couples are definitely harmed. The weight is perceived, possibly imagined harm versus real harm. There is nothing to force any church to sanction any union it does not approve of.

"I was once a history student and I would just like to close with a couple of observations from what I have studied and my personal circumstances. A hundred years ago, it was thought immoral and certainly against community standards for a person of African heritage to have the same rights as a person of European heritage. The Bible was often quoted by many a church and many an advocate of the theory that there are those among us who should not be considered equal. No doubt a majority of voters -- a majority of voters -- a hundred years ago held that view, that we should discriminate. Justice

Tanny and his Dred Scott decision clarified the law ... yes, this class of people does not have the same rights.

"A hundred years ago, it was thought immoral for a woman to work, to leave the home, to vote. They were wrong then even though the Bible was cited, and a majority of voters disapproved of equal rights for women.

"A hundred years ago, it was thought immoral for a European to marry a person of African or Asian descent ... a lot sooner than that actually. The mixing of races was against God's will, it was said. The Bible was quoted. A majority of voters strongly disapproved of interracial marriages. Children of such marriages were considered half-breeds, treated as third-class citizens.

"Mr. Speaker, if the community standards of the past were upheld, I would not have been able to marry my wife who is of Asian/American ancestry. Certainly my church, the Catholic church, would not have easily endorsed the mix marriage to a non-Catholic. My wife would not be able to work or to vote, and our son would be thought inferior. And what would be the basis of such absurd discrimination, Mr. Speaker? The very same basis for this bill. Some religious groups do not approve. A majority do not feel comfortable with people they fear or misunderstand. Is this the way to make public policy? Are we really willing to step back into our darker history?

"Today, we recognize that the laws against women, against mixed, racial and religious marriages, that these were perversions. These were based on our human weaknesses, our fears, our inability to tolerate people not like us. I choose to live in Hawaii, Mr. Speaker, because it is generally a more tolerant place. . .

At this point, the Chair interrupted and advised Representative Shon that his five minutes have passed, whereupon Representative Thielen rose and yielded her five minutes.

Representative Shon thanked the Chair and continued, stating:

"Usually, we are more enlightened than the United States Marine Corps in dealing with personal differences -- usually. I choose to live here because my son will not be considered inferior. I choose to live here because our government usually has always led the way in showing others that they can live together as neighbors and with equal rights.

"But today I fear we will, as a body, endorse a policy that is based on intolerance. I consider this bill to be philosophically a threat to the peace and tranquility of the Aloha State which has always prided itself on being among the first to tolerate, to liberate, to respect those who are different from the majority. It seems some may have forgotten their minority roots. Tolerance is not defined as accepting people just like me. Tolerance is accepting people not like us or you or me -- it's accepting people we don't understand, accepting people we might not even like. That is what tolerance is about and that is the key to community peace and harmony.

"Before casting your votes on Second Reading today or later on Third Reading, I ask each of you to search your minds and your hearts. Think of the times, perhaps you or someone you love has been the target of prejudice by well meaning people who held distorted views of an entire group of people they did not understand. Think of the real reason you want to restrict the use of a completely secular state certificate. Think of tolerance, think of civil rights, think of the meaning of Aloha.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose to speak in favor of the motion, stating:

"I think what we heard is an eloquent speech. However, taking some of the premises of the speech, I find the necessity to say that this is not a breeding bill, it's not a procreation bill, it's not a bill that says much about reproduction so much as filling in the gap when the State Supreme Court said there was nothing to say what the marriage law was in the State of Hawaii. The Supreme Court said that we have not defined what marriage is, and I believe it is on page 4 of the bill, line 2, where it says, 'Marriage is defined as that which is between a man and a woman.' The bill simply defines the definition of what marriage is which was a void.

"Mr. Speaker, the bill then is a definitional bill. It's no more or no less than that, and it's always what's been on the books but there was a puka there, and it's always been on the hearts and minds of the people of Hawaii but they always assumed that it was there and this bill simply puts there what was always there, and it is now being voted on to be there again.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Amaral then rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"Many of us who sat through the hearing yesterday are rather weary today and so if I'm not my most articulate today, I beg your indulgence, Mr. Speaker.

"In the consideration of the measure that we had before us, I think what was quite clear was an attempt, through legislation, to clarify a state's compelling interest in the issue of marriage. And in my understanding of the purpose section, we have articulated the compelling interest in marriage to be the issue of procreation and the producing of offspring. That is not a side issue.

"I think my colleague rightfully points out that the actual change is to identify that marriage involves a male and a female and that on the face of it is simply all that this measure does but, I think, in looking at the policy, that we members are, in fact, creating. In articulating the desire for procreation in marriage, we have clearly set up barriers to groups of people who cannot procreate. That is why members bring the issue of civil rights to us today on the floor, and surely, in later discussions. That is why I think we as policymakers are so troubled by this measure that is ahead for our decisions, and that's why we ask some of you that are thinking about what your future votes will be when this measure comes up for Third Reading, to examine closely this bill and set aside whatever fears or moral dilemmas you may have with respect to affairs between individuals, and instead use your mind and use your commitment to Hawaii's Constitution to see what is our responsibility as lawmakers.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tom then rose "just to make a very brief comment on this bill."

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to say this ... that the members of the Judiciary Committee spent many, many, many hours, not just yesterday -- yesterday's nine-hour marathon was just a part of the many months that we have gone statewide on this issue. And I want to thank the members for that. I think the vote last night reflects what came of this bill and how members felt. I want to make it real clear now to the members since one of the speakers talks about food for thought. Yes, this is food for thought.

"This bill, I can assure you, is not a procreation bill. . . please. I've heard a lot of smoke screen, I've heard a lot of critics talk, and I'm shocked because many of them are lawyers who are saying this. This is not a procreation bill. This bill never said that you have to be able to make children in order to get married. Our court, along with all the other courts, said marriage is a fundamental right, and we acknowledge that. In 1984, we took away the impotency law in Hawaii. We acknowledge that. We've never said that. We've had a marriage law for years like the other 49 states and nowhere in any of these states have we ever tried to take away peoples' rights, of the elderly, or people who don't intend to have children, or the handicapped -- none of these stuff is part of this bill.

"This bill is merely to clarify why, if at all, the State is involved in issuing marriage licenses to opposite sex couples and to clarify, when the Supreme Court in Lewin looked at it, they were wrong in their reasoning in determining and defining why we issue marriage licenses in the State of Hawaii. It does not apply to same sex couples. A brother cannot marry a brother. A father cannot marry a brother. There is no danger in terms of the biological possibility of having a child which has nothing to do with procreation.

"Let's get that straight. Let's read the Committee Report, let's read what we came up with. This Committee was bold enough to come out with a recommendation early in the game so that everyone would know where we stand. This is merely a definitional bill to clear up any misconception of what the State's ideal of why we issue marriage licenses. It is not a benefits bill. It was never intended to be a benefits bill.

"Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I just want to make it clear today, very briefly, and please, members, if you have any questions, come see me. I'm tired of people making this out to be a make-baby bill. It is not a procreation bill, it has never been a procreation bill. I want that stated because the media doesn't state that, and we've been saying it and telling you that it is merely a definitional clarification bill that we've had all these years. We've never put anything in the law that isn't now in our marriage laws.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chun then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm speaking in opposition to the bill, basically to make two comments.

"We were tasked with the job of identifying a compelling State interest. I feel that the definition of marriage, if anything, should be based on the ability to make a commitment to each other, and if we are looking at the children's interest from the appearance of being able to procreate ... if there is children that enter the world through this marriage, that it should be based more on the ability of parents to take care and nurture their children.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2312, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Amaral, Bainum, Chun, Hagino, Hirono, Isbell, Pepper, Shon, Takumi, Tam and Young voting no.

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 2312:

Representative Tom moved that H.B. No. 2312, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Menor.

Representative Tom then rose to speak in support of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, first I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every member of the Judiciary Committee of the House for devoting much of their time and energy, travelling from island to island, to conduct public hearings on the issue of life and same-sex marriage.

"We received over three thousand written and oral testimonies which in itself demonstrates that the critics who say that the issue is unworthy of legislative concern are badly mistaken. The issue was not raised by the Legislature but arose from a decision by several members of the Hawaii Supreme Court, a decision which, if ignored by this body, will make Hawaii the first jurisdiction in the world to license marriages between people of the same sex. I ask my fellow legislators ... is it responsible for us, the ones entrusted by our fellow citizens to make the laws which govern their lives, to pretend that policy decisions of this magnitude are not proper subjects for discussion?

"I knew in my heart that as Judiciary Chairman, I had to live up to the responsibilities of my office. The decision to press forward and examine the matter began one of the most difficult periods in my life. I do not doubt that for the members of my Committee, the last six months have been filled with the same sense of responsibility, and now burdens each member of this House.

"This bill is not a benefits bill. It poses no bar for anyone or any couple to petition the Supreme Court or this body for access to some or all of the benefits associated with licensed marriage. All it does is clarify -- to clarify why the State issues marriage licenses to opposite-sex couples and not to same-sex couples.

"The bill does not denigrate anyone's lifestyle, or dictate to anyone how to live their lives or who to love.

The decision we reached to pass this bill out of the Judiciary Committee was fully researched, discussed, reviewed, commented upon, and publicly debated. To have this bill described in this chamber yesterday as threatening opposite sex couples with the denial of a marriage license if they are seniors, disabled, sterile, or don't want children, is disgraceful and an insult to the intelligence of every member of this body. As both the bill itself and the Committee Report make clear, well established constitutional principles make that impossible. If such a charge were true, all of the other forty-nine states would be having those problems as they ground their marriage laws upon the same principles expressed in the purpose clause of this bill.

"Make no mistake about it. A vote against this measure is a vote in favor of issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples. If that is your intention, then your 'no' vote is a legitimate expression of your belief that the public policy of this State should be changed. Don't attempt to disguise your 'no' vote, or attempt to have others join you in voting no, by hiding behind the false allegation that this bill threatens the marriage license or reproductive rights of any male/female couples. There is nothing in this bill which changes in any way the application of our marriage licensing laws.

"I believe that if same-sex marriage licenses are to be issued, that policy decision properly belongs to us in the Legislature as the representatives of our citizens. I cannot stand idly by and allow our Judiciary -- our Supreme Court -- to decide an issue of such importance based upon an incorrect interpretation of our past actions.

"Mr. Speaker, it would be a tragic mistake for constitutional issues to be decided by our Supreme Court upon the mistaken belief that this Legislature has abandoned the fundamental principles underlying the marriage licensing laws. I don't believe we repudiated those principles in 1984, and I know that the citizens of our State don't want us to abandon them now.

"It is for these reasons, Mr. Speaker, that I support and I urge my colleagues to vote up on House Bill 2312.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Nekoba then rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"Colleagues, I stand before you today, an individual in turmoil. Over the last few weeks, I have seen this issue escalate, and arguments grow so heated, that I wondered whether it was ever going to end. Well, it has. Today, we are faced with the challenge of deciding for a group of people whether or not they will be able to, in the eyes of the law, be married. Many arguments have been made both to support and oppose same-sex marriages, most of them involving civil rights or equal treatment statements. But I ask you ... does the State truly belong in an argument like this? If we are truly to be a state for and by the people, we must be able to recognize that people should be allowed to be together and receive certain rights, regardless of sexual orientation, race, or religion. I suggest that we recognize the commitment of two people to each other, and let the respective groups decide what to call it.

"This, Mr. Speaker, is why I must vote no on this House Bill 2312. I am here to do the best job for the people of my district, which is to uphold the Constitution, and do what I feel is right. This, Mr. Speaker, has been a test. A test of my belief in myself and my own personal principles. I vote no not because I am for or against same-sex marriages, but because I don't believe that this is an issue for us to legislate. I do, however, believe that everyone has the right to find the person they want to spend the rest of their life with, be able to call it whatever they want, and have the union recognized by the State so that they may receive the rights they deserve for being so united.

"Someone once said ... 'America didn't create human rights -- human rights created America.' When our forefathers wrote the Constitution and created the United States, it was to be a voice for their ability to have individual rights. As a descendant of immigrants, I have found it hard to exclude one group from the same rights I receive because of their sexual orientation.

"In Hawaii, we are known for many things, and one of them is the abundance of our rainbows. In my mind, the rainbows represent all that we find beautiful in Hawaii, a mixture of different colors that come together to form something wonderful. In Hawaii, we have more rainbows than anywhere else, and it is fitting, because in Hawaii we also have more types and groups of people than anywhere else, mainly because we have the patience and the goodwill to see that, like a rainbow, all of the colors that make it up are essential and that losing one, or making one less important than the other, makes the rainbow less attractive.

"In closing, I would like to reiterate my point that my vote today is not one to allow or prevent same-sex marriages, but to express my deep concern for the rights of an individual, and for their right to be one of the colors that make up the rainbow that we call Hawaii. Colleagues, we must remember that we have been elected to uphold the rights of individuals, not restrict them.

"John F. Kennedy once said in his speech on the centennial of the emancipation proclamation ... 'In giving rights to others which belong to them, we give rights to ourselves and to our country.' Today, I can with my vote uphold the true spirit of these words.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen then rose and stated:

"After a great deal of soul searching, a great deal of study, a great deal of examination of the issues on all sides, I am rising to speak against the bill, Mr. Speaker.

"I voted 'with reservations' in the committee hearing because even though the chairman said that we had had a great deal of material in response to this issue, in response to the hearing on the bill, there was no practical or physical way that we could really go through that material in a thoughtful manner while listening to the people. So it took a day to sit there and go through the various issues.

"Mr. Speaker, it's a very difficult situation and I deeply resent the chairman's claim that anyone that votes against this bill is voting in favor of same-sex marriages. That is not the case. I am standing here today, Mr. Speaker, to vote in favor of equal rights, equal benefits, for everyone.

"Hawaii has been at the forefront of freedom and equality for all, Mr. Speaker, and I find, frankly, that this bill is offensive and against the way that Hawaii has always operated. If we were to just paraphrase what's going on here today back to a time when interracial marriages were forbidden in certain areas, the words would be the same but the topic would be different. If we were also to go back to a period of time in the early 1900's when women were fighting for the vote and, Mr. Speaker, I may say that maybe there are some of you here that would wish that we had never gotten the vote, but we did. If we were to go back to that period of time, maybe some of the arguments would be similar.

"What we're talking about is civil rights for people, and we cannot come down against civil rights for people. We, as a body, cannot do that. That's basically what this is. I know that it has offensive language in the beginning that says 'propagation of future generations is a vital state concern.' Frankly, that's none of our business. Whether or not people are marrying to be together, to be partners -- whatever reason they're choosing, is frankly none of our business.

"I am reminded, Mr. Speaker, of a case we learned in law school, and the language on page 1, lines 13 through 16, bring this to mind: 'Those couples whose genetic makeup suggests the possibility of offspring,' and you think of people in their 80's and 90's who are choosing to become partners to live together. It reminds me of a case we had in law school where a will was struck down, because the court decided that a woman in her 80's had the possibility of producing offspring. We called it the case of the 'fertile octogenarian.'

"We're talking about the same kind of absurdity. I understand sometimes the court can be absurd. I would hope this body would not be.

"I just frankly, Mr. Speaker, cannot support legislation that discriminates, and that's what this legislation does. And to our chairman, I say, I am not voting in favor of same-sex marriages -- I am voting in favor of equality and fairness to all of our people.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hagino then rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"It was only two weeks ago that this body honored Bruce Yamashita for his courageous fight against racial discrimination in the Marine Corps. Let me relate that ceremony to this bill today.

"All the members of this House were no doubt proud of this man who stood up to the discrimination, hatred, bitterness and scorn. At some point in the ceremony, many of us probably wondered whether we could have mustered up the courage that Bruce Yamashita displayed in his fight with and triumph over racial discrimination in the Marine Corps. We might have asked ... would I have been able to assume the mantle of a hero and champion against injustice? There probably was no answer that day.

"It is important that you know that you cannot choose the time and place to become a hero or a champion against a system of injustice. If we could, we would be Gods and not mortal humans. I met Bruce Yamashita many years ago. He was a happy-go-lucky college student. If he had told me then that he would become a fighter against racial discrimination, I would have laughed, and Bruce would have laughed along with me. That would have been unthinkable. Well the time came, the place was designated, and Bruce Yamashita rose up to meet that challenge.

"So, two weeks ago this body honored Bruce Yamashita for his struggle against discrimination. Today we are poised to pass a bill that does dishonor to his example and his struggle. There are some who will protest my characterization of what will happen or what may happen today.

"One proponent of this bill states that some of us in the opposition, who happened to be lawyers, have misinterpreted the bill. We were chastised for that.

"Let me respond in this fashion. Each of the Supreme Court Justices that determined the Dred Scott case which upheld slavery in America, no doubt was a finer lawyer than I have been or could ever hope to become. The Supreme Court that decided Plessy versus Ferguson which upheld the concept of separate but equal systems of life in America was composed of finer legal minds than this lawyer who stands before you. But both courts were wrong. And for two reasons: One, they lacked the concept of simple justice. Two, they lacked that simple courage in the face of discrimination and prejudice. Forty years ago -- forty years ago this year -- a different Supreme Court facing the courageous spirit and relentless legal arguments of Thurgood Marshall decided Brown versus the Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas. Forty years ago, this year, legal and institutionalized racial discrimination came to an end in America.

"The proponents of this bill will no doubt argue that I do not understand this bill before us. Again, let me respond in this fashion. I fully understand the motivation behind this bill. That motivation comes from fear, it comes from ignorance, and worst of all it stems from intolerance. There may be angry cries that I am wrong.

"Bruce Yamashita credited one organization in standing with him in his fight against discrimination. He praised the moral, financial and political support of the Honolulu Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League. It is this same organization that is one of the leaders in the coalition that opposes this bill. There is no doubt in my mind and in the minds of many in the JACL that the fight against discrimination in the Yamashita experience continues today on the floor of this House. And so my colleagues, it is now the time to find within ourselves that sense of simple justice and simple courage that Bruce Yamashita found in the Marine Corps training camp.

"I believe that most of us on this floor are either opposed to this bill or are troubled by this bill. Yet only a few have spoken out. The rest have remained silent.

"Some may want to continue to remain silent today, because we do not want to become involved. It does not concern us. Such a response is one of silence in the face of discrimination and intolerance. Let me make it clear that this bill is a product of intolerance. Some will rely on other defenses for our inaction. You will say ... I will have to support the chairman. Others will say ... I will have to support the leadership. You know that doesn't work. Those explanations have the same hollow ring to a prior defense that 'I was only following orders.'

There is still another defense. Some will find comfort in thinking that this bill will not affect Dan Foley's lawsuit. Let me say this. We cannot hide behind the courage of someone else when it is our time. We cannot point to a Foley or a Yamashita as an example. It is our turn now.

"After the Supreme Court had rendered its decision in Brown versus the Board of Education, a victory party was being held. The lawyer that had opposed Thurgood Marshall gave him a call on the telephone. The lawyer said that he must be grateful and thankful for the court's decision. Thurgood Marshall said, 'Why should I be grateful and thankful for simple justice that is due all Americans.'

"Today, we can give substance to that sense of simple justice by finding in ourselves the simple courage to vote down this bill. Today, we can honor, truly honor that struggle of Bruce Yamashita by likewise speaking out against the discriminating force that charges this bill. Today, in the fortieth anniversary of Thurgood Marshall's historic victory in Brown versus the Board of Education, we, too, can stand up to the intolerance that is the driving and, divisive, force behind this bill.

"I ask all of you to vote down this bill.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, let me begin by asking the fundamental question of ... why are we here discussing marriage? Why are we talking about marriage? Who in this body introduced this bill?

"The last speaker asked ... 'What's the motivation behind this bill?' and looking for sinister reasons.

"Mr. Speaker, the fact of the matter is that bills this controversial usually take three to four years to even get to the floor. So let's face the facts. This bill came from the top down. This bill was dropped on us by the Supreme Court, ladies and gentlemen. This is not something that your constituents have been lobbying for or somebody was sitting in the corner saying ... now, how can we get sex and definitions of marriages clarified? The Supreme Court did this. Total quality management starts from the bottom and that's what we are as legislators -- representing the people -- from the bottom and the policy level, not the top and the jurisdictional level of which we are today. Let us remember the premise of why we are standing up and talking about something very simple -- marriage.

"What has come from the top through our justices is called 'judicial activism' by which we have today a bill that then attempts to not come out of the present, but to give us a question as to our past or an attempt to reinterpret our past, and we are on the defensive to do that.

"With all due respect to Justices Levinson, Moon and Burns, and the others have said ... you and me, that is the Legislature, has never made it clear what we have meant by marriage in the past and who it was intended for. There's a puka there. We've got to clarify it. Have we been confused with our past? This bill says it has not been the case. It's a clarification, not to rewrite history, but to affirm the history what has always been on the books, and always has been on the hearts and minds of the people of Hawaii. We are not reinterpreting history -- we are merely clarifying where the puka of history existed of which in the minds of the justices have been absent. In this clarification, Mr. Speaker, we affirm our past and the marriage laws that have always been taking place between a man and a woman, and we affirm that the marriage of the opposite sex is, in effect, a man and a woman.

"In summary, Mr. Speaker, this bill comes to us almost like your signature lot. Always you put underneath, 'By request.' This bill comes to us by request from the Supreme Court to either confirm or deny that what we had in our minds when the marriage statutes were left with a big puka when it was put on the books years ago. It makes it very clear now what it was that we had intended and what it now sets straight for the future. For those of us who would deny that that is the way we were in our historical, anthropological, or sociological past, or that the majority of our people still are, we have merely a different interpretation of history.

"But for now, Mr. Speaker, let us pass this bill and clarify our past. And for those of you who would want to change it, I say ... let's leave the future for the future. If we want to make marriage for same-sex couples, all you've got to do is put in an amendment next year or the next year. If you want to do what you're saying, all you've got to do is amend this bill. That's what social policy is. That's what grassroots from the bottom up is all about.

"But my point is, Mr. Speaker, let's leave the future to the future lawmakers and maybe this body next year, but let's leave it in here and not the Supreme Court people up there.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Amaral then rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I agree with the last speaker in that this bill does, in fact, come from on high. I am afraid, however, he didn't identify the correct highness and source of this bill.

"This bill comes from the Executive Department. It comes from the Attorney General's Office. It comes from an inability to present a proper argument before the Supreme Court. It comes from on high because it comes from a past history of this body -- a past history that has refused to be bullied, that has, in fact, asserted that people have certain privacy protections, that there are certain issues that we should not be making decisions upon, that there are certain protections that should go out to vulnerable people whether or not our constituents accept and understand, whether or not the majority approves. This body, prior to our arrival, took some very courageous positions with respect to vulnerable people and said that they deserved protection.

"This bill comes to us from on high, surely. It comes from on high for those people that were here in these seats prior to our arrival, and I will say it quite frankly to all of you, dear members, that when I first arrived in this place, my first thought was ... I don't belong here. My first thought was ... I am not worthy. I don't know how to do this work and quite rapidly, too rapidly, I decided that I knew a whole lot, and I will tell you quite frankly here today that I know nothing, that I tremble at the history that has been left before us and living up to that mark. I know that it takes a great deal of courage to stand at the lines of our predecessors, the line that has been drawn, but there I stand clearly in opposition to this measure.

"Some will say to you, dear friends, that when you vote against this bill, clearly, you're voting in favor of the fags. Clearly, your constituents are going to hold it against you. They're going to come after you and say you're a gay lover, maybe you love niggers, too -- who knows? I know that people look at me and say, Amaral's queer. Everybody knows that -- short hair, strong, independent -- gotta be queer. I am not gay, but I will tell you that I will stand till my dying day to speak for those who do not have a voice on this floor, and if that makes you label me, then I accept your labels.

"I will say to you that a vote today is not a vote for fags. The vote against this measure is to protect those people who are counting on you for protection, given the history of law -- the history of law against discrimination.

"I will ask you to please read the purpose clause. No matter what anyone says to you, even though we have not changed the law, the purpose clause says the state policy for marriage is for the purpose of procreation. That is our official policy that they will then take and march off to the Supreme Court and lay in front of the desks of those honorable people. I say to you that those of you who believe that even though it doesn't change statutes, that this has no meaning, to please look at the language of the law. When we passed the land reform act and talked about oligopoly, when we talked about control of the land in our purpose clause, when Supreme Courts use that language to say ... this is the legislative intent -- that's how important this language is to all of us.

"We are saying to the people ... this is the compelling interest of the State -- propagation. And I ask you to think that when you set as policy the issue of propagation, to please think that for all the benefits that accrue to the children of opposite-sex partners, that none of those benefits now will be available to the children of same-sex partners. That's how limiting your decision is. That's the policy we'll make today.

"I ask you to think instead of thinking with minds of fear, instead of looking towards the election ahead, to think as policymakers, to use some wisdom, and to harken back to that day you entered these hallowed halls and felt the responsibility of office before you. Vote with wisdom, my friends.

"Thank you."

Representative Apo then rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I hadn't planned on making any remarks but several colleagues and some constituents have asked that I explain my 'yes' vote.

"Mr. Speaker, you know, the issue of civil rights, human rights, has been an evolutionary process. Particularly, it has to do with constitutional law, and it has taken decades to come to where we are in this country and in this State, and the specifics of civil rights have not evolved over a short period of time. In fact, it has taken many years. I believe Hawaii is clearly on record as being one of the most liberal, if not the most liberal, close to the top, and I stand proud that we have a record of being very generous, real liberal, when it comes to discrimination laws and civil rights laws.

"With respect to our attitude towards gays, I recall several years ago, huge battles on this floor out of which emerged a law that prevented discrimination against gays in the work place. So the history is clear that institutionally over time, both the Senate and the House and the Executive Branch, have always supported and tried to be fair.

"I think there's a dynamic at work here where the Supreme Court has essentially compressed the time frame on the issue of same-gender marriages. And so, here we are. No action is action if we pass this bill. Of course, we're saying 'no' and that in fact clarifying the law that it was never intended, in terms of the discrimination laws, to approve same-gender marriages. If we do not act, that is also an affirmative action. We're saying 'yes,' so here we are and everyone of us has his own reason, some on moral grounds, to vote up or down.

"What concerns me, Mr. Speaker, is that I think that we do have a responsibility when we are looking at making a historical, landmark decision that will send ripples across this country and across our own constituency here, a responsibility to allow for extended public debate on the issue, to allow for time to pass, to look at such things as the public will and the community standard, and if we are to push that public will against the grain, that we need to give it some time. And it is unfortunate, as Representative Ward has stated, that the Supreme Court has compressed the time frame.

"So in casting my vote, Mr. Speaker, I am saying to myself that I have to go one way or the other and I am going to go with, I believe, the prevailing public will -- that the law never intended to provide, under the discrimination laws, for same gender marriages. And I am going with what I believe to be the community standard. However, I would support a future effort and, in fact, I suggest that if this body and this State wish to establish as policy that same-gender marriages ought to be allowed, that it should be an affirmative action, that we should bring forth legislation and propose that action, and that it should not occur because of a loophole in the Constitution. If we did not do that, Mr. Speaker, I think we would be failing as policymakers to act responsibly.

"Mahalo."

Representative Shon then rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"Yesterday, Mr. Speaker, I outlined at length the many reasons and arguments why I believe this is a flawed and improper bill before us.

"Today, I have heard some of the most eloquent statements of my values, of my beliefs, to which I cannot even hope to add. I am truly moved by the ability of some of my colleagues to articulate the importance of taking a stand for what is right for every citizen.

"I would like to note that in the last several weeks, I have attempted to conduct polls in my district. They're still coming in, but by a two to one margin, even those who express a great uneasiness about same-sex marriage, by a two to one margin, people are telling me ... this is not the role of the State to tell anyone why they should be married, and especially, it is absolutely absurd that we should declare that the compelling State interest for even having a marriage statute is because we think marriage is just for having children. These are folks who are very traditional. These are folks who are very religious. I challenge the notion that when people are shown the actual language of this attempt, that when people examine the issue in terms of civil rights, that they are not tolerant.

"I would simply like to close by reading a list of those coalition members that some feel are out of step. But when you hear this list, you will know that these are the leaders in our community who have continually shown leadership, continuously helped us do the right thing ... the Japanese American Citizens League, Honolulu Chapter; the Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation; the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association; the Hawaii Women's Political Caucus; the American Association of University Women; the Afro/American Lawyers Association; the Hawaii Green Party (Oahu); Planned Parenthood of Hawaii; Na Noio No Na Kanaka; the National Abortion and Reproductive Rights Action League; the National Employment Lawyers Association; the American Civil Liberties Union of Hawaii; the Alliance for Equal Rights; the People With Aids Coalition; the American Friends Service Committee; the Church of the Crossroads Social Action Committee; the Family Peace Center; the Hawaii Equal Rights Marriage Project; the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission; the Metropolitan Community Church; the Rainbow Coalition; the University of Hawaii Ethnic Studies Program; the University of Hawaii Women's Center.

"These are only some of those leaders in our community who believe that this bill should be rejected. I invite all of you to join these well-respected leaders in rejecting this bill."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I am voting for House Bill 2312 with reservations.

"House Bill 2312 states that the government recognizes marriage between a man and a woman. I support that.

"The bill does not recognize a marriage between two persons of the same sex.

"Marriage is not an institution created by the State. Marriage is a union between two persons who have made a commitment to each other. Marriage began in prehistoric times on such a basis. Such a union was solidly grounded in economics. There was a clear division of economic functions. The man was the hunter and the farmer. The woman was the cook, nurse, and manager of the house. Today, those roles can be reversed.

"Customary or tribal law and the growth of religion contributed to the institution of marriage. The final recognition came from the State which conferred political, economic and civil benefits ranging from tax deductions to suffrage for women. Yet the principle of mutual commitment by two persons has endured, and the State does continue to recognize common-law marriages.

"The State's interest in marriage is not procreation or the biological possibility of procreation because that has been demonstrated by two women recently. The interest of the State in marriage lies in protecting and promoting the health and welfare of a man and a woman and their children. Stability of personal relations is a State interest. It is far better for the State that children be born in wedlock and nurtured in a family in a stable and long-lasting family situation.

"The State assists by providing economic and health and other benefits. It is time for the State to take the same attitude for the health and welfare of those of the same sex.

"House Bill 3647 proposes a partnership law to that end. A partnership is not marriage in the eyes of the law, but it provides for equal treatment of everyone.

"I urge the Judiciary Committee to hear House Bill 3647 and pass it out.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tajiri then rose to speak in support of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, it's with a little bit of humor that I sit back here and wonder what the heck we're doing here. We're trying to redefine a word that universally has a definition. I asked the staff to run upstairs and find for me some dictionary, and I have here in my hand Webster's Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary, Copyright 1972.

"Let me quote from Webster's Dictionary. The definition of marriage is 'the mutual relation of husband and wife; the institution whereby men and women are joined in a special kind of social and legal dependence for the purpose of founding and maintaining a family.'

"This bill just merely, I guess, underscores that basic meaning. Anything else, reading into this bill, in my understanding is just reading into it. I look at it as perhaps. . . you know, if you look at the State emblem and there might be some people who say, 'Well, I don't like the color black because it's kind of morbid,' but instead of changing the color, we change the definition of the color black. And so we legally change it . . . black means red. And that's basically, when you think about it, what we're doing here. The whole world looks at Webster's and its definition, and it says, 'man and woman.' I don't think we need a definition of what is man and what is woman. And I find it very, very interesting that we sit here debating all this whole thing.

"And as I said in caucus, Mr. Speaker, this cannot be a civil rights issue. It cannot be, because if it is, why are we still having it on our books? And we're not even considering the laws on incest. We govern that. There are statutes governing that. But why should the State preclude a brother and a sister from entering into matrimony -- a wedding or marriage. Why is that? Why is it also that we have in our statutes laws governing polygamy and bigamy?

"If we're to be consistent, perhaps we should erase all of those laws -- all of them -- because they impinge on somebody else's freedom of choice. I don't believe that this is a matter dealing with those kinds of arguments that have been brought up before us.

"It's a very simple issue. What is the definition of marriage? And I suggested that we should maintain what the whole world, I guess historically, has maintained the definition of marriage to be.

"And with that, Mr. Speaker, I ask all of my colleagues to support the passage of this bill.

"Thank you."

Representative Chun then rose and requested that Representative Nekoba's comments be inserted into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only)

"First of all, I also would like to point out a few things. Couples of the opposite sex and the same sex are presently getting married in Hawaii with the help of ministers, whether we acknowledge that or not. Over fifty percent of our marriages among heterosexual couples end in divorce.

"As Chair of the Committee on Human Services, I see and hear on a daily basis statistics that reflect an escalating number of children being abused. The majority of these children are offsprings of heterosexual married couples.

"I think the Chair of Judiciary did a very good job in researching the history of why the State got involved in licensing marriage. The compelling reason was the welfare of the children. If, in fact, we as a state choose to stay in the business of licensing marriage, and the compelling reason for our involvement continues to be the welfare of children, we cannot give licenses lightly to people. If that is truly why we are in the business of licensing marriage, I would think marriage for most couples is because they love each other, not because they want to have children.

"I think this discussion is a good indication that our times are changing, and I am glad that this discussion is taking place. I think it's healthy. I think it makes us think about whether or not government should be involved in licensing marriage.

"I agree with Representative Lee that it is in the best interest of the State to foster stable families, and marriage is part of that. I think we should also look at families that are out of wedlock because they are just as important, and we need to support them in the same way that we do heterosexual marriages right now. And in the same light, someone today brought out that homosexual couples have children. Their interests need to be protected too.

"I speak, not in favor of this bill, but I am glad for the discussion, and I thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2312, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading by a vote of 34 ayes to 17 noes, with Representatives Amaral, Bainum, Chun, Hagino, Hiraki, Hirono, Isbell, Nekoba, Pepper, Santiago, Shon, Takamine, Takumi, Tam, Taniguchi, Thielen and Young voting no.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION

H.R. No. 30, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING AND COMMENDING JOAN LANDERS AND PUHIPAU CO-PRODUCERS OF THE 'ACT OF WAR: THE OVERTHROW OF THE HAWAIIAN NATION'," was jointly offered by Representatives Amaral and Apo and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Amaral, seconded by Representative Apo and carried, H.R. No. 30 was adopted.

Representative Amaral then rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is my distinct pleasure to be able to recognize today Ms. Joan Lander and Puhipau, co-producers of Act of War: the Overthrow of the Hawaiian Nation. This film is a historical presentation of the events surrounding the overthrow of Queen Lili'uokalani in 1893, the centennial of which we just commemorated last year when the film was made. As an aside, Act of War is not a title someone just made up. It is an exact quote from the remarkable speech made to the U.S. Congress by President Grover Cleveland in 1893 as he described the events of the overthrow.

"As you have heard in this resolution, this is the team of Na Maka O Ka'Aina and together they have produced over fifty films related to Hawaii and the Pacific on a variety of subjects. Their productions have been screened in film festivals in the United States, Australia, Brazil, New Zealand, Japan and Canada and aired on Hawaii's public and commercial television, the Public Broadcasting Service, the Deep Dish satellite network, and regularly on community cable TV.

"Mr. Speaker, Act of War received a Golden Eagle recognition plaque at Alberta, Canada. At the East Bay Video Festival in Berkeley, it won Best of Festival and Best Documentary awards. In the Yamagata, Japan International Documentary Festival, it received special recognition as a First Nations Film. At the Aotearoa Film Festival of New Zealand, it again won special recognition and a statuette.

"In the Hawaii International Film Festival, it was nominated for best documentary, and Ms. Lander and Puhipau were both nominated as best of Hawaii's filmmakers. The film was produced with major funding from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting through the Independent Television Service.

"I only found out about the Berlin Film Festival on Friday, so their appearance here today was on very short notice. I appreciate the cooperation of the Majority Floor Leader, House Majority staff, and yourself, to expedite the presentation arrangements for Ms. Lander and Puhipau because they leave for Germany tomorrow. They can now fly off with the best wishes for a safe and successful journey from the House of Representatives of the State of Hawaii.

"I should note also that as an aside, Joan and Puhipau have made a presentation to the House members, through our Speaker, three copies of the film, Act of War, so that we may all avail ourselves of this wonderful film, as well as three annotated scripts for our reference, and a list of the other films they produced.

"It is indeed an honor now to present to my colleagues, first, Puhipau, keiki o ka aina."

The honoree, Puhipau, rose to be recognized.

"Also to recognize Ms. Joan Lander, keiki o ka aina, pili pono."

The honoree, Ms. Joan Lander, rose to be recognized.

Representative Apo then rose and stated:

"I just wanted to extend my warm aloha and personal congratulations to my good friend, Puhipau.

"Puhipau first came to my attention as one of the center of activity in the Sand Island eviction. He has been, over the years, a very committed, dedicated person for self determination for native Hawaiians. He has laid his body on the line on many, many occasions. I think it is just wonderful that he's found a terrific niche in which to productively participate in the discussion, and I think the work that both he and Ms. Lander do, particularly having to do with native Hawaiians in documenting and providing information through video format which reaches a very, very wide audience, I can't think of a more important function that's needed in terms of trying to further the cause of native Hawaiians.

"I congratulate both of you and tell you that it's really appreciated by Hawaiians as well as all the people of Hawaii.

"Mahalo."

Representative Beirne then rose and stated:

"Puhipau and Joan Lander have been responsible for many videos that I have been able to share in my studies in urban and regional planning at the University of Hawaii-Manoa. And through their expertise in filmmaking and videomaking, I was able to share their products of expansion on those things that are happening in our native Hawaiian communities.

"I want to take this time to congratulate you. I was not prepared for you but you know that my aloha will stand as I speak to this issue this morning that your work and what you do is very much appreciated by all native Hawaiians, and should be of all the citizens of this State. It's important ... we need to do it in order to help educate those people out there as well as native Hawaiians on the issue of self-determination and native Hawaiian sovereignty. It's not something that we just dreamt of -- it's something that actually happened to the people here. We all need to touch bases on this.

"I congratulate you in your work, and I pray that whatever you do that you will find great joy, that what you do will be to everyone's benefit in the State of Hawaii.

"Mahalo."

Representative Tam then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker and fellow colleagues, I am very surprised to acknowledge, in terms of two great friends, and I know my aide and Joan. . . even Joan was my neighbor in Puunui. We had spent many hours talking about Hawaiian culture and its history. I have learned a lot from Puhipau and also from Joan.

"I wish to give my appreciation on behalf of myself and the State of Hawaii. And it's good seeing you after five years.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, Representative Apo presented Ms. Lander with an orchid lei and a Certificate of Recognition while Representative Amaral presented Puhipau with a cigar flower lei.

At 12:29 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:35 o'clock p.m.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Taniguchi, for the Committee on Intergovernmental Relations and International Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 36-94) recommending that H.B. No. 3048, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Shon rose to speak against the motion, stating:

"I am hoping that this does not come before us again and that is why I speak today. I have not, in my ten years here, voted for an increase in the excise tax, and I think it is significant to note two things.

"Number one, that the county mayors did not come out in force; in fact, they were completely absent. The City and County representative who was not even in charge of taxes -- he was a deputy -- could not tell us how much they thought if this would generate any revenues. Testimony was very sparse, and it seems to me that if we were to take a step to seriously consider alternative resources for the counties, that this would be a much more inclusive, comprehensive and professional analysis of this kind of a measure.

"For that reason and other reasons, I think many of us have a real problem with even considering this bill. We know that the county councils did not take up our offer to them to raise the excise tax earlier with respect to rapid transit. There is no evidence that the county policymakers have changed their collective view on this.

"My final note on this is that it is, I think, interesting that only a minority of the members of the Committee did approve this bill. I think this bill should die on arrival in Finance.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in joining my colleague on the same side as he has just spoken in opposition to a bill that I am surprised even reached here because it's new taxes, Mr. Speaker. I don't think this is the time to raise taxes or be given even the opportunity to do that, and I would end by quoting yourself, Mr. Speaker. In your Opening Day message, you gave the message very clearly to us. You said: 'Read my lips -- no new taxes.'

"Thank you."

Representative Thielen then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand also in strong opposition to any increase in taxes and would ask the Clerk to cast a 'no' vote for me. We should not allow the general excise tax to be increased.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Thielen rose to cast her "no" vote, saying:

"I don't believe that the government should get into an area of building slaughterhouses. I think that the private sector is fully capable of building those facilities.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 424, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," was recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

Representative Cachola, for the Committee on Tourism, presented the following Standing Committee Reports with their recommendations:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 44-94, recommending that H.B. No. 2411, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance;

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 45-94, recommending that H.B. No. 2333, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance;

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 46-94 recommending that H.B. No. 2405, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance;

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 50-94 recommending that H.B. No. 2414, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance;

Representative Cachola moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted and H.B. Nos. 2411, HD 1; 2333, HD 1; 2405, HD 1; 2406, HD 1; 2407, HD 1; 2413, HD 1; and 2414, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Shon.

Representative Thielen rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to take a firm stand against spending taxpayers' money on different promotional activities. We have adequate sponsors out there in the State, in the nation, in the world, that would be glad to put in money to support these different promotional activities.

"So I am saying no to putting taxpayers' money into the Honolulu Marathon; no to putting money into the Aloha Festivals; no to putting taxpayers' money into the Ironman Triathlon; no to putting money into the Hawaii Pro Bowl; no to putting money into the Hawaii Film Festival; and no for making an appropriation to Destination Hilo.

"I think the message should go out loud and clear, Mr. Speaker, that we will put money where it belongs ... that's to education first, and human services -- not to these other promotional activities. Let the sponsors come forward and sponsor those.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shon then rose and stated:

"I would like to register one reservation, and that has to do with the Ironman Triathlon.

"The title of the bill is correct but in the Committee Report and the bill itself, it refers to the sponsor -- the current sponsor -- of the Ironman Triathlon. If the sponsor should change, I think it should be our policy that if we are going to provide funds, it is for an event -- not an event sponsored by a particular sponsor. In this case, Bud Light.

"I would also add and hope that in the future, the 'Health State' would be seeking sponsors in a more wholesome context for our international events.

"Thank you."

Representative Isbell then rose on a point of order and stated:

"The point is that there was an error in the last person's mentioning of a sponsor. It's not Bud Light -- it is now Gatorade."

Representative Shon, in rebuttal, stated:

"The bill does say 'Bud Light.' That's what's written so it is a further error and another reason why we shouldn't sponsor this. . .

At this point, the Chair interrupted and stated:

"Representative, this is going to be referred to the Committee on Finance. I am sure the able chairman will look at that consideration."

Representative Bainum then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, in regards to House Bill 2333, House Draft 1, which would extend the Convention Center Authority, I know we approved the convention center site and we're working on it.

"My comments relate only that this might have been a bill that we could have put some language that would make sure that community concerns are addressed as the convention center is being planned.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the following actions taken:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 44-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2411, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR PROMOTION OF THE HONOLULU MARATHON," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 45-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2333, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVENTION CENTER AUTHORITY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 46-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2405, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE ALOHA FESTIVALS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 47-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2406, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE IRONMAN TRIATHLON," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 48-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2407, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE HAWAII PRO BOWL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 49-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2413, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE HAWAII FILM FESTIVAL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 50-94 was adopted and H.B. No. 2414, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR DESTINATION HILO," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Representative Cachola, for the Committee on Tourism, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 51-94) recommending that H.B. No. 2332 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Cachola moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2332 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Shon.

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak briefly in support with one reservation on this bill.

"This bill adds a marketing clause to the convention center's mandate, and that's probably one of the most important clauses of the whole act, Mr. Speaker. But I am appalled to have learned that the convention center will not be taking bookings until after the contractor has been chosen.

"Mr. Speaker, this is bureaucratic nonsense. We need to be booking that and getting our money's worth out of that as soon as possible. We need to do bookings now. We need to be more entrepreneurial and not bureaucratic.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2332, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TOURISM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Cachola, for the Committee on Tourism, presented the following Standing Committee Reports with their recommendations:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 52-94 recommending that H.B. No. 2408, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance;

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 53-94 recommending that H.B. No. 2409, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance; and

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 54-94 recommending that H.B. No. 2410, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Cachola moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted and H.B. Nos. 2408, HD 1; 2409, HD 1; and 2410, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Shon.

Representative Thielen then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I again am speaking against the same kinds of measures that are providing promotional funding, and that is specifically House Bill No. 2408, HD 1. I say 'no' to the Department of Business and Economic Development providing them money for the Aloha Bowl; and then 2410, HD 1, 'no' to the Great Aloha Run; and then 2409, HD 1, 'no' to the Hula Bowl.

"Mr. Speaker, frankly, if the Department of Business and Economic Development is spending any money, they should spend it to help small business in our State -- not to do promotional activities that other sponsors could do. Not on taxpayers' money.

"Thank you."

Representative Cachola then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak on all the bills that were passed in the Tourism Committee.

"I would just like to point out that on House Bill 2332, relating to the Convention Center Authority, what the bill does is just to pinpoint responsibility as to who is going to do the marketing plan. In all other jurisdictions with Convention Center Authority, the designation of marketing plans and the promotion of the convention center rests with the Convention Center Authority. So it has nothing to do with bookings and all that. It just pinpoints responsibility to the Convention Center Authority.

"When it comes to all of these sporting events, if you want money for education, human services, and health programs, this is the best way to generate funds ... it's clean. We've got a lot of money out of the Pro Bowl.

"I support these bills in order that we will have a lot more revenues to fund all needed programs.

"Thank you."

"Representative Ward, in response, stated:

"Mr. Speaker, the projected revenues of the convention center are one million dollars a day. If we are going to wait a whole year before we start booking that, I think that's penny-wise and pound-foolish. Why can we not book now when we are giving the authority of when it's supposed to be finished? Why can we not be booking now for that particular thing? Why do we have to wait? That's the whole point of it. It's revenues that we're going to lose. . .

The Chair interrupted at this point and stated:

"Thank you, Representative. Before this debate goes any further, I wish to advise the Representative that you are a member of the Finance Committee and you will have ample opportunity to make the respective amendment if you wish."

Representative Cachola then rose and stated:

"I honor your request, Mr. Speaker. I'll just talk to the Representative from Hawaii Kai and let him understand that when it comes to marketing, we cannot book any convention center at this point in time because we are still in the process of RFP -- request for proposal -- and the bidding, and we haven't determined yet when the construction is going to start. If we are going to book now when we don't know the completion date of the convention center, we might end up falling face down.

"For that reason, Mr. Speaker, I think the Representative from Hawaii Kai is stating facts that make the Convention Center Authority not responsible in terms of marketing Hawaii."

Representative Apo then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I can't let the remarks pass that were rather disparaging about the State's involvement in promoting events like the Honolulu Marathon, the Ironman Triathlon, the Hawaii Pro Bowl, the Hawaii Film Festival, particularly in the context of helping small business.

"Mr. Speaker, most of the small businesses depend on tourism, and it seems to me for the few dollars that we would engage in further promoting these major events, I think we all understand the value of network television for the Honolulu Marathon, the Pro Bowl particularly, that I think it is money well spent.

"What we're talking about here is marketing -- marketing Hawaii, marketing tourism -- so that the dollars that come in support small business. So however indirect that may be, I think it's about time, as a matter of fact, that we spend some marketing dollars on items other than selling hotel rooms, which I have no problem with. But we need to present Hawaii as more than just palm trees and beaches. I think promoting items like the Hawaii Film Festival, lends us a little touch of class. It shows that we offer more than just lying in the sun with suntan oil.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the following actions taken:

(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 31, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII COMMITTEE FOR THE PRESERVATION AND STUDY OF HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE, ART AND CULTURE ON THEIR 35TH ANNIVERSARY," was jointly offered by Representatives Ihara, Lee and Apo and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Lee and carried, H.R. No. 31 was adopted.

Representative Ihara rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the honorees today are members of a little-known Committee for the Preservation and Study of Hawaiian Language, Art and Culture. While the last Hawaii Territorial Legislature established the committee and placed it administratively with the University of Hawaii with its first house at the Bishop Museum in the 1970's, it was moved over to the University of Hawaii-Manoa campus.

"I should note that the committee was involved in the now successful effort in the usage of the glottal stop and macron in Hawaiian language, and bringing long-neglected classics of 19th century Hawaiian literature out from storage and available to today's citizens of Hawaii, and I would like to thank the committee and the members for their good work."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"It is my honor and pleasure to say a few words on behalf of the resolution which honors the Committee for the Preservation and Study of Hawaiian Language, Art and Culture.

"My father came to Hawaii in 1897 to work at Mary Ward's plantation in Kahana. There he met many a young Hawaiian woman that he could have married. If he had done so, I would have said the following words in Hawaiian: 'MAKEMAKE WAU E KAMA'LILIO, MA KA 'OLELO HAWAII'I. 'A'OLE HIKI! KA LA MAI IA'U. POHO.' And it was many years later that I found out that 'poho' was not a Chinese word. It was a Hawaiian word.

"So it's all poho, but we have the committee to thank for the continued study and preservation of the Hawaiian language, art and culture. And as a non-Hawaiian in blood but a Hawaiian at heart, I am so happy to see all you here, and especially for Edith McKenzie who gave me a thirty-second lesson in Hawaiian.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Apo then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank Representative Lee for his remarks. Somehow though, when he speaks Hawaiian, it still sounds Chinese. Just kidding.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm really stoked this morning, and I really want to thank Representative Ihara and Representative Lee for turning me on to the fact that this committee existed, and I'm really chagrined after being in this body twelve years that I never knew such a project was around. I guess they've been working rather quietly.

"And I have remarks, Mr. Speaker. I never have a chance to talk about this subject so if you bear with me for a couple of minutes.

"You know, Mr. Speaker, the problem with native cultures whose foundation lies in all traditions is that when measured by Western academic and intellectual standards, they are assigned little value and subsequently the intellectual and academic achievements of an entire culture goes largely unappreciated by the West, and more sadly, unnoticed, because they are not published.

"I can't think of a more important thrust for Hawaiian culture than to have a rich and brilliant history of achievement and thought. It takes its rightful place in the world of academia and becomes self-validated by the very people whose ancestors created the history and who, in fact, have made tremendous contributions to the heritage of all mankind and who should take their rightful place in the world of intellectualism and academically acknowledge it.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer two examples. The two most distinguishing characteristics, in my opinion, that separate Hawaiians, Polynesians in general, from the rest of mankind is one, Kumulipo, which is essentially the story of creation which not surprisingly, I guess, parallels Darwin's theory of evolution. It is basically the story of evolution as Darwin laid out. What's notable is that this story of creation predated Darwin and, in fact, was passed on through all traditions of the Hawaiian people for several centuries.

"The second project is one which we are all aware of, and that is the Hokulea. Pre-Hokulea, the Thor theory which was the prevailing theory, that the islands of Polynesia and of Micronesia were settled by accidental drift. Basically said, that Polynesians and Micronesians did not have intellectual capability to deliberately voyage, to set out across millions of square miles of ocean and deliberately hit their target, and that a system of planned and systematic exploration such as that is going on with our space effort today, was beyond the intellectual capacity of these ancient people. It was particularly amazing because the thing that the Micronesians and Polynesians did not have were two natural resources that were available to the West, and that is the absence of metal and the absence of clay. And to be able to design, and to float, and to create a seaworthy vessel without those two properties was truly an amazing feat. The notion that without using instruments, people could, in fact, devise a system of navigation that was systematic, that was accurate, relying on memorizing the movement of over 160 stars as they set and as they fall and which positions change every day, to be able to correct for drift in the absence of a keel which in a western boat allows you to steer a straight course, and the absence of a jib which allows you to sail into the wind, and to think that hundreds of years before the Vikings even ventured to leave for the sight of land, all of Polynesia had been settled, and Polynesian voyaging had died out.

"These two things stand in my mind, and I am sure others, as intellectual achievements that relatively go unnoticed, maybe except in Hawaii.

"So the work that these people do, I think as far as Hawaiians are concerned, must be at the forefront of our Hawaiian renaissance, that we should take our rightful place in the academic community and assign the proper value as we value other cultural achievements that come out of our institutions of higher learning.

"So I say to you ... Mahalo. I'm glad you're around and if we can be of help, please call on us.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kanoho then rose and stated:

"I just want to add my congratulations and my thanks to our honorees, and especially to recognize one honoree that I do know -- Nalani Olds -- because we worked at Hawaiian Telephone Company just a few short years ago. We all know that Nalani has one of the most outstanding voices in Hawaii today, and I had the privilege of singing with her before a public audience in a duet, and that was one of the most sterling moments of my life.

"Thank you."

Representative Beirne then rose and stated:

"It is certainly a pleasure to be part of this legislative body to take this time today to recognize those of you that have come before us in the preservation of the Hawaiian language and culture -- Ha'aheo wau. Makemake wau e ho'omau ma ka 'olelo Hawai'i.

"It is very, very important that our colleagues know the significance of this perpetuation of language, culture and the arts.

"It is indeed again a pleasure to receive you all and wish you well in trying to continue the work that is before you.

"Mahalo."

Representative Ihara then introduced the honorees and asked them to stand to be recognized, as follows: Elaine Rogers Jordain, Chair of the Committee and archaeologist with the Department of Land and Natural Resources; Barbara Smith, professor emeritus, ethnomusicology, at the University of Hawaii, and a member of the committee for 35 years; Paul Nohea Lucas, an attorney with the Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation; Aunty Edith McKenzie, professional genealogist, and professor of fine language and culture at the Honolulu Community College; and Nalani Olds, professional performing artist of Hawaiian music and culture.

Representative Ihara then asked Mr. Henry Iwasa, the Executive Secretary of the committee, who was seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Ihara, Kanoho, Beirne, Arakaki and Apo while Representative Lee presented the honorees with a Certificate of Recognition.

At 12:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:49 o'clock p.m.

Representative Chun moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 3455 pass Second Reading and be referred jointly to the Committees on Consumer Protection and Commerce and Judiciary, seconded by Representative Arakaki.

Representative Shon then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, some brief remarks in favor of the motion, specifically in terms of House Bill 3455.

"I would just like to begin by praising the Chair of Human Services for all her long, good work during the interim, as well as all those folks who did participate in some very vigorous and enlightening discussions on a terribly complex issue such as long-term care.

"I must say, though, that this is an Administration bill and while the leadership is for long-term care and the Administration is still vigorously in support of a full program, I am very disappointed that the Administration, as a whole, has offered this complete retrenchment from a significant commitment to long-term care.

"This bill offers no money, even for an interim committee that's supposed to do rules. It offers no money at all as a commitment to our seniors to deal with this issue. I am puzzled that it is the judgment of this body that this bill does not relate to health or to finance and is not reviewed by either of those committees.

"One of the troubling aspects of this is that if we should, as a body, decide to put more financial meat in the proposal, we cannot do so unless something comes over from the Senate because this bill will not go to Finance. It does involve the establishment of a fund.

"In past experience, Mr. Speaker, everything that even smells of money went to Finance, and certainly this does relate to health which I believe is the more proper committee than even our fine Committees on Judiciary and Consumer Protection.

"So I wholly endorse the efforts that have gone on to examine this issue. I am dismayed at the Administration's backing off of the issue, and I would suggest that we more carefully examine the areas of jurisdiction for a bill like this.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chun then rose to a point of clarification and stated:

"I believe that this bill has a triple referral so the Consumer Protection and Commerce Committee and Judiciary will have to hear this before February 18th and thereafter the Finance Committee will review it.

"And just for the members' information, House Bill 31 is still alive, and in the wisdom of the Finance Committee they will be able to compare the two.

"Thank you."

ORDER OF THE DAY

(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 34, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING ELSIE S. KAWAONAHELEOPA'I'I DURANTE, ELIZABETH NALANI MERSBERG ELLIS, EDWARD KAIPONOHEA HALE, ROWENA KANAUKAPU KEAKA, AND DAVID KAHELEMAUNA ROY, JR., FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE HAWAIIAN COMMUNITY," was jointly offered by Representatives Beirne and Amaral and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Beirne, seconded by Representative Amaral and carried, H.R. No. 34 was adopted.

Representative Beirne rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, colleagues and honorees -- Aloha No Kakou.

"I would like to extend a warm aloha to all of these outstanding Hawaiian educators who have contributed so much of their time to perpetuate our Hawaiian cultural identity. As a native Hawaiian, it gives me a great sense of pride to honor and recognize each one of these Hawaiian educators.

"At this time, Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize Mrs. Elsie S. Kawaonahaleopa'i'i Durante who resides in the beautiful Windward District of Oahu."

(Mrs. Elsie Durante rose to be recognized.)

"Mrs. Durante, better known as Kawao has been actively involved and committed in the development of the Hawaiian Studies curriculum. During the early years of the Hawaiian Studies Program in the Windward District, Kawao was the sole organizer who conducted all workshops for the District Kupuna.

"Since 1983, Kawao has offered her expertise as a 'Program Specialist' in native plants at the Kamehameha Schools Explorations Program. She has also conducted workshops on native plants at the Friends of He'eia State Park, Ho'omaluhia Park, Ulupo Heiau and the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station. Kawao is also a prime supporter of the King Intermediate School's 'Ahupua'a Project.

"Kawao has indeed demonstrated her continued commitment to education and is actively involved in over sixteen different organizations. Kawao is also very talented ... her fingers work well on the ukulele. She's very instrumental in bringing other Polynesian groups here to the island of Hawaii and share with them and exchange the Hawaiian talent as well as receive talent shared by other Polynesians.

"I congratulate Kawao on her contributions to the Hawaiian community and for touching the lives of many individuals.

"E HOLOMUA 'OE ME KA ALAKA'I A KE AKUA.

"Mahalo Nui, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Amaral then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I also need to add a few words, in particular for a person that I care very deeply for. It's an honor to be able to recognize a Kupuna that I have held very dear ever since I first met her as a member of the Hawaiian Civic Club many, many years ago. Elizabeth Nalani Ellis epitomizes, for me, the beauty, strength, the intelligence and wisdom of the very finest of Hawaiian womanhood -- Aloha."

(Elizabeth Nalani Ellis then rose to be recognized.)

"Elizabeth serves as a role model for all of us who follow in her footsteps, Mr. Speaker, and to know Kupuna Ellis is to understand why Hawaiian women are willing and determined leaders. We have a culture that historically shares its leadership between men and women, and we have our Kupuna to reinforce that culture.

"When we were here in the Legislature and trying to define the word 'aloha,' I found that I had some difficulty trying to comprehend the words that were written on the paper and couldn't figure out why it was so difficult. Eventually, I guess, it came upon me that perhaps it's because I know my Kupuna and because of them, have a sense of what aloha means in a deep and profound way.

"We are very privileged to have before us today a woman that is 'Aloha' and so much more. And to Elizabeth, we thank you for being who you are. Our lives are greatly enriched because of what you share so generously with us.

"To our dear Betty in the audience, I want to also say 'mahalo' for carrying on in your mother's finest tradition as well.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Isbell then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, it's a privilege for me to rise and laud the achievements of David Kahelemauna Roy. I'm sorry he's not here. . . but thank you for being here to represent him. I do want to say a few words.

"David has been a dear friend of ours for at least thirty years or more, and I have had the pleasure of seeing him work within the community and accomplish many things, including the restoration of the Ahu'ena Heiau, not once, but twice. And the Kamakahonu area is so very important to all of us over there, and he has become a historian in his own right and is a leader among the Hawaiian people.

"He has also been very instrumental with the Kaloko Honokohau where the harbor is but where the historic federal park is with the Department of Interior. For some of you who may not know, there is a family -- the Paiohana -- which has been living there for generations, and they have been told they are going to be thrown out. Basically what they are saying is that they've lived there forever, and Mr. Roy was one of the original people on the study that said that the Kaloko Honokohau historical site was meant to be a living cultural park and as such should have people living in it. So there is a great deal of contention going on right now, but I do want to say that David is very much a leader of the Hawaiian people and is far ahead of his time.

"I am very happy to acknowledge you as his stand-in, and you are a great looking guy.

"Thank you."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"It's a great pleasure and honor to join my colleagues in acknowledging the contributions of the five Hawaiian educators and activists in our community.

"As I read over their accomplishments, I was particularly struck by Rowena Kanaukapu Keaka because she taught for twenty years in schools like Kahuku, Shafter, Royal and Ala Wai. In other words, she brought her knowledge, her contributions to all of us -- of all the different peoples that we have in Hawaii -- and she worked for twenty years in these elementary schools. After that, she started a very innovative program for the Department of Education -- the Artmobile, the 'Ho'onani' -- and from there on, she touched the lives of more than 25,000 young people with the art and treasures, not only of Hawaiians, but also of all the other people that populate our islands.

"For that, I would like to add my personal congratulations and appreciation for her contributions as well as the contributions of all our honorees today. Thank you ever so much for having such fruitful and productive lives that help all of us to really appreciate what Hawaii is all about.

"Thank you."

Representative Apo then rose to say "a few words of acknowledgement for Kaipo Hale."

"Mr. Speaker, Kaipo is dedicated to furthering the education of native Hawaiians through his numerous in-service training workshops on learning styles which address how students learn and can be better taught. He seeks to instill pride and self-esteem by being a role model through the Hawaiian values he practices. He always portrays the pride and aloha he has for being Hawaiian, and he instills in young people that same wonderful feeling. A workshop with Kaipo is a funshop in which you cannot help but feel better by the end of the session. Even non-Hawaiians will end up feeling better about themselves. This, too, is important as the non-Hawaiian has a better understanding of things Hawaiian and Hawaiians themselves. People who have known Kaipo have seen him grow from a shy man from Pauoa to an enterprising, confident man of the world who unselfishly shares with young Hawaiians.

"Kaipo also shares his aloha and knowledge with many organizations in the community which include the Hawaii Ecumenical Choral Ahahui Olelo Hawaii; Punana Leo Honolulu; Hale Kuamoo; Hale Kakoo; HUGS; the Friends of Iolani Palace; Hawaii Historic Society; Halau Na Kamaki; Hawaii Youth Opera Chorus; the Kawaihau Ministry of Music; Life Foundation; Hui Hanai; Bishop Museum; Junie Roa Productions; Ka Leo O Hawaii; Hawaii's Children's Museum; and the Hawaii Nature Center, just to name a few."

Representative Apo then asked all of the honorees to stand to be recognized.

Representative Kanohe then rose and stated:

"I just want to add my thanks to our honorees for all their good work and congratulations on this well-deserved recognition.

"Yesterday, we honored Nalani Olds as one of the outstanding voices in Hawaii, and today we are equally proud to have Kaipo Hale as truly one of the 'golden' voices in Hawaii. Too bad that he isn't singing today.

"But I also want to say that the words expressed by Representative Amaral are true. I've known Mrs. Ellis since moving from Kauai to Honolulu more than fifty years ago -- about fifty-five years ago -- and she has our admiration. Not only has she promoted Hawaiian culture, but she is a very staunch and devout Christian, and we all admired her and respected her for her Christian beliefs and her Christian manner.

"Thank you very much."

Certificates of Recognition and floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Beirne, Amaral, Isbell, Apo, Okamura, Kanohe, Lee and Santiago.

At 12:35 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:32 o'clock p.m.

"I wanted to alert members. What this will do is increase public access via television and other methods for the public at large showing our legislative actions in the State Capitol.

"My concern is this was not put in the Administration's budget. So what it means is we once again are going to be impacting human services, education, and other matters when we use money for this purpose. It goes back to the matter of priorities. I think we all need to take a hard look at this as it goes before Finance, and it has a dollar figure attached to it.

"Is our first priority for this type of equipment in our schools, or is our first priority for this type of equipment in the Capitol? We need to ask ourselves some hard questions on that.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Madam Speaker, I would join my colleague in supporting this bill with a brief reservation in that it is a motherhood and apple pie public access. The reason why we want this bill so importantly is so people can find and see all the things that we're doing.

"However, my reservation is that this becomes a window of opportunity for renovation of the Capitol escalation and if that happens, Madam Chair, this will be a window by which those in the Administration may take advantage of, and I believe the reservation, as I speak, is to send out a message that this is a renovation of the Capitol bill, but it is to say ... let us stick to the public access issues and not use it as a window of opportunity beyond that.

"Thank you, Madam Chair."

"This being Drug-Free Hawaii Month, I just couldn't help but comment, and I am really proud that our Higher Education Committee made a substantive change in this bill during deliberations. I just want to mention it because maybe this bill will not survive in its current form, but I think what the Committee did was express a very clear message that when it comes to advertising, especially at the University of Hawaii sports functions, we do not want any advertising on alcohol and tobacco. The feeling is that, you know, given the problems we have in our communities and also at the University with alcohol abuse, we thought it was important not to send double messages, and so we inserted into the bill this prohibition.

"I think there were some concerns that this would take away a lot of the revenues that support these sports programs, but I think if we really believe that the prevention of abuse of alcohol and substance abuse is important, then we are going to have to make some of those sacrifices.

"So I just wanted to point that out to the members, and commend the Chair for allowing this to be included into the bill.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in favor of the measure, with reservations, stating:

"This bill pertains to a Wellness Commission and I think this particular bill is well and good, but I just wanted to express some reservations that I have.

"First of all, in developing this plan, I wanted to make sure that this commission did look at whatever impact it may have on our long-term care system which is already overburdened and we did not want to further tax our facility. I am hoping that this commission, when formed, will take a look at that aspect. This is a health commission but it is not in the Health Committee ... it is coming out of Economic Development at this time because it is perceived as something to attract visitors and people to our shores to take advantage of our wellness industries here which should be developed and will provide more jobs for people in Hawaii.

"There was another aspect which is not really in this bill but sort of related to it. This Wellness Commission is simply a planning commission but on the other hand, the Governor, in his State-of-the-State address, did mention that we will establish a wellness institute in Kakaako. Of course, Kakaako may be the best place to put this. It is very convenient to many people who live in Honolulu. But on the other hand, I think wellness can also extend to other areas such as Maui, the Big Island, and Kapolei, and I think we shouldn't just hold this wellness industry in the Kakaako area.

"One ramification of it being in Kakaako is that it will be under the control of the Hawaii Community Development Authority -- HCDA -- which controls Kakaako. This would seem to me to limit that concept to this geographic area and, in fact, HCDA has told us that they already are planning to put out a request for expressions of interest which will then lead perhaps to request for a proposal -- RFP's -- to build a health facility in that area.

I just wanted to express my reservations about this being limited to one area and to the fact that we should look at it for the rest of the State if it is indeed determined to be beneficial to our economic development in Hawaii and fits in with what our long-term growths are in Hawaii.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Stegmaier then rose and stated:

"Madam Speaker, just to add other comments about the bill that the representative was just talking about -- House Bill 3481.

"The bill does go on to the Health Committee next and then on to Finance thereafter so that we will get a scrutiny of the bill from the perspective of economic development as well as health and financial implications.

"Secondly, just to let the members know, there's a growing interest, as you are aware, in preventative health, in nutrition concerns, and in Oriental and native Hawaiian health therapies, and that would be the focus to look to see how we might be able to apply the expertise that we have in Hawaii and provide that kind of balance for the Western medical treatment in one location or several different locations to be available, not only to tourists, but to our people in Hawaii.

"I believe the Committee felt very strongly that there was a need to pursue an investigation of the economic potential, and we feel at this time that it warrants further consideration.

"Thank you."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS
(FLOOR PRESENTATIONS)

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 40 and 41) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 40, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING LEADERS IN LITERACY," was offered by Representative Lee.

On motion by Representative Lee, seconded by Representative Chumbley and carried, H.R. No. 40 was adopted.

Representative Lee rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am very pleased to sponsor the resolution honoring the leaders in literacy. We have in Hawaii a real collaborative effort between national leaders and local leaders, and here before us are both the national and the local leaders as well as the contributions which the private enterprise has made towards our program in literacy in Hawaii.

"We honor them because they have worked so hard, and two of them have come a long way from the mainland. Our First Lady has spearheaded the effort, and we also have to thank Pizza Hut for taking a real direct interest in making Hawaii a literate state.

"It gives me great pleasure to echo again the sentiments of the resolution, but I think it's only the personalities which speak loudly what they are, what they have done, and what they mean for the State of Hawaii and all our children and all the adults who are yet to learn how to read."

Representative Lee then introduced the following honorees who were seated on the Chamber floor:

Mrs. Lynne Waihee, First Lady of the State of Hawaii. "She is not only our First Lady of the State, but she is also our First Lady in literacy. The effort in the Governor's Council for Literacy owes much to her leadership, inspiration, and to her commitment and drive," and asked Mrs. Lynne Waihee to stand to be recognized.

"We also honor today and have with us a nationally recognized author of literacy and a real contributor to the program, Read to Me. He has come to Hawaii many times. He has seen that we could really accept and really work on what he has proposed in his writings. We are very pleased to greet today, Mr. Jim Trelease, and asked Mr. Trelease to stand to be recognized.

"Another long, established friend of Hawaii is Mrs. Sharon Darling. She is the President of the National Center for Family Literacy in Louisville, Kentucky, which has been recognized two years ago by people such as Mrs. Bush for her work in literacy throughout the United States. She has really started out in Kentucky in a small way, and has branched out and has become a national leader in literacy. We are very pleased to see her again in Hawaii," and asked Mrs. Sharon Darling to stand to be recognized.

"And we also have before us a real sophisticated marketing effort which recognizes good things in the community. The community contributions are also good for business, and Pizza Hut has operated on that premise with its program throughout the State of Hawaii, and we would like to recognize the man who thought about it, the man who put it into practice, the man who wants all of us to read, and also eat pizza," and asked Mr. Frank Haas to stand to be recognized.

"The program in literacy started out small in Hawaii and has grown and is now established and has found a new home -- a home which is proper for literacy and not only for children but also for adults, and we have before us the person who is really going to make it work, not only to learn how to read, but to read books," and asked Mr. Bart Kane, State Librarian, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Lee then asked Mr. Henry Katsuda, President of Pizza Hut, and Mr. Phillip Kinnicut, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

At this time, Representatives Young, D. Ige, Marumoto, Thielen and Tam presented the honorees with Certificates of Recognition and floral leis.

H.R. No. 41, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING CENTRAL PACIFIC BANK FOR 40 YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS AND COMMUNITY SERVICE," was jointly offered by Representatives Yonamine and Stegmaier.

On motion by Representative Yonamine, seconded by Representative Stegmaier and carried, H.R. No. 41 was adopted.

At this time, Representative Yonamine rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the birth, the growth, and the future of Central Pacific Bank is the story of America.

"It is a fascinating story, whose main chapters are yet to come. The Founding Fathers of Central Pacific Bank had a dream and a mission. They took the risk in a still developing modern economy, worked hard, gained the people's trust and confidence, took their rightful place in the corporate world, and now, through its successes, put their energies and resources back into the community for the greater good.

"We can remind ourselves of the Greek proverb, 'Fire is the test of gold. Adversity, of strong men.'

"The atmosphere after World War II among Japanese American families was one of adversity and hardship. I grew up in that era and I remember, having been born and raised in the plantation camp, that a great majority of people were poor and struggling. Our territory was in a flux. People were in transition from the rural to the city. Our economy was yet to move from an agrarian to the modern. Our opportunities for a better life were yet to be realized.

"It is difficult to imagine it now, but at that time, it was hard to even get a loan. Most Japanese American families did not have adequate income to qualify at existing banks. A group of young Nisei Japanese -- many of whom have risked their lives during the war in the battlefields of Europe -- recognized their people's financial needs. After overcoming tremendous obstacles, they finally succeeded in opening the first branch of Central Pacific Bank. Throughout the past forty years, the bank has grown, not only in asset size, but in the number of employees and branches. What has not changed, however, is its continuing commitment to the community. For Central Pacific Bank, 'putting you first' is not just a slogan, it is a precept by which it abides.

"Central Pacific Bank's history reflects the growth of Hawaii since statehood. From its humble beginnings in 1954, it now stands as a testament to what the American work ethic, determination and sacrifice can accomplish in America, no matter what race, color or creed one belongs to.

"The vision of these young Japanese-American men to share in Hawaii's economic growth and prosperity is no different from the vision of other ethnic groups hoping to find their rightful place in the rainbow spectrum of our island State. These men did not allow adversity and hard times to dampen their enthusiasm in the American system, the American way. In today's tough times, neither should be."

Representative Stegmaier then rose and stated:

"I would like to add my congratulations to the honorees today.

"To Mr. Takahashi and the original group of founders, your tenacity and single-minded dedication in forming the Central Pacific Bank are an inspiration to us all. With the bombing of Pearl Harbor, all three banks which Americans of Japanese ancestry had relied upon were either shut down or liquidated.

"As Representative Yonamine pointed out, young World War II veterans returning home from the war and starting families had difficulty getting loans. It is difficult for someone like me, from a different time and a different ethnic background, to understand the almost unbearable experience that must have been faced by these young heroes of Japanese ancestry in being denied such basic family needs as a mortgage loan. Nevertheless, employing that 'Go For Broke' leadership that had served them so well in their battle against Naziism and racial prejudice, people like Sakae Takahashi, Daniel Inouye and others went about overcoming yet another obstacle in their fight for equal treatment, organizing Issei and Nisei, pooling their resources and relying on the goodwill and funds of members of other ethnic groups -- John A. Burns among them -- to serve the commercial and personal needs of the AJA community.

"On this 40th Anniversary, I want to express my appreciation for the example set by the founders of Central Pacific Bank and for the fine leaders and employees of the bank who have followed in their footsteps.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hirono then rose and stated:

"I would like to welcome all of our honorees, and in particular I would like to add just a few words regarding Sakae Takahashi and the vision and commitment that he had upon returning as a World War II veteran.

"Sakae Takahashi, as very few people here may not know, served many years as a legislator in the State Senate. It is often said that politicians, or perhaps Democratic politicians, don't make good business people, but Sakae Takahashi certainly gives a lie to that, and Mr. Takahashi ... welcome, and this State owes a great deal of gratitude to you and your friends and fellow veterans for being among the true giants of modern Hawaii. And, of course, my congratulations to Mr. Sato and Mr. Saito for leading the bank on to greater commitments and greater success.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Alcon then rose and stated:

"I don't think anybody knows that the former Sakae Takahashi served during the late 1960's, and it was during that time that we started using the State Capitol. Let me just inform the rest of the members, Mr. Speaker, that Senator Takahashi is the father of removing the 'stop the clock.'

"Thank you."

Representative Yonamine then introduced the honorees who were seated on the Chamber floor, as follows: Mr. Yoshiharu Sato, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer; Mr. Joichi Saito, President and Chief Operations Officer; Mr. Sakae Takahashi, Senior Advisor, Chairman Emeritus and Consultant, and a person who paved the way for all of us for future generations; Mr. Naoki Shibuya, Executive Vice President for Retail Banking; and Mr. Wayne Kiriara, Senior Vice President for Marketing.

At this time, Representative Yonamine presented Mr. Sato with a Certificate of Recognition, and floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Hirono, Chun, Kawakami, Young and Ishii-Morikami.

At 12:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:50 o'clock p.m.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Kanoho, for the Committee on Legislative Management, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 147-94) recommending that H.B. No. 2172, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Kanoho moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2172 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Say.

Representative Thielen then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the Clerk to cast a 'no' vote for me on this bill, and I would like to explain why.

"My concern is that if we are called into a Special Session and are able to address any bill that was left over from the Regular Session, what could happen, I believe, is that a bill that might have gone through to a Conference Committee but had been stalled in that Conference Committee might then be able to go directly to the floor for final vote. At that point, none of the community or the citizens at large would have the opportunity to give input on that. It could be like a fast moving torpedo and go right through. I don't think that's good public policy.

"I think the best thing we can do is to provide the forum for full public debate, and if we are going to deal in a Special Session on a special item, then everyone should have notice. If all of a sudden some of those others that have not quite made it through the process are able to go right to the floor and be catapulted into a final vote, then that's not in the best public interest.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2172, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE III, SECTION 15, OF THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION, TO ALLOW THE CONSIDERATION OF PENDING BILLS AT A SPECIAL SESSION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representative Thielen voting no.

No. 2962, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PARAPROFESSIONAL EMPLOYEES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Labor and Public Employment.

Representative D. Ige, for the Committee on Education, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 151-94) recommending that H.B. No. 2992, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative D. Ige moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2992, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Chumbley.

Representative Shon rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"I am very sympathetic with the efforts of the Committee and the Chair to deal with the classroom shortage. We had actually two bills in the Education Committee that were proposing constitutional amendments, one of which would have dealt with the allocation of a percentage of the budget for education which would have been related to operating expenses, meaning it would be applied directly to classroom teaching. This one applies to CIP.

"As was pointed out in our discussion, we haven't really done a great deal to reduce the cost of building our classrooms and so it seems to me that this one-half percent is inappropriate until we have developed a very vigorous package to reduce the actual cost of classrooms.

"Secondly, I think that the message I am getting from the public very strongly is that they are very, very interested in reallocating more money to the classroom, and so I would have opted for classroom money reallocation rather than increasing the excise tax without that very vigorous package of bringing down the cost of construction.

"For that reason, I would like to ask the Clerk to cast a 'no' vote.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose to speak in favor of the bill, with reservations, stating:

"In the Governor's State-of-the-State message, he said that there were $200-million waiting to be used for physical facilities, but yet we still have students having their classes in bathrooms. I think there's something wrong with the state of management when, in fact, we want to raise more money which in effect we have money which is not being fully utilized. So I would just bring that to your attention.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto then rose to speak in favor of the bill, with reservations, stating:

"I am also concerned about the $200-million stuck in the pipeline and would like to see that freed up before we embark upon this new concept. I'm not quite sure whether all this money would be applied to education or whether the education budget might be reduced by this amount, but I feel like if it did go into an educational fund, at least we could keep an eye on it.

"I don't know how much money this would raise and whether we could really deal with all of it at one time. I think the one-half percent, when we were discussing the rail transit bill, amounted to a minimum of $120-million a year. This may be even more money coming in if the economy picks up. I don't quite understand what this covers and perhaps the introducer could edify us all what is generally covered by the one-half percent tax, whether it is extended to other transactions. I gave it a cursory look over, whether it extends it to new areas such as written contracts. I haven't seen that language before. I am not a lawyer, nor a tax expert, and I don't know what type of contracts. I don't think it deals with real property contracts, but I think the chapter deals with tangible personal property, and I don't know the scope of that term, whether it covers insurance contracts, or what other type of contracts it does cover.

"Lastly, I'm very skeptical of a temporary tax. I rarely have seen us do away with a tax once it's been instituted, and I think I would rather see us dedicate thirty percent of our total general fund expenditures to education, and I think I might look more favorably upon a surcharge if indeed we did promise Education that they would be getting a fixed percentage of our budget for education.

"These are my reservations and I hope we could find out more about this bill as it proceeds through the House.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative D. Ige then rose to offer some comments in support of the bill, stating:

"As all of you know, the Department, with our blessing, has contracted for a complete review of the construction program at the DOE. They are currently in the process of working, and we hope to get an interim report in the month of March.

"For the members' information, it was just an idea. There is a deadline involved and we are just moving it along. We should get a broader review of the different options and how we might be able to improve the existing system. So, at this point, it's just trying to keep the concept alive through the deadline.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2992, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives M. Ige and Shon voting no.

Representative Arakaki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2799, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Labor and Public Employment, seconded by Representative Apo.

Representative Amaral then rose and stated:

"Before these bills proceed on to the second committees referred, I simply want to note my disagreement with House Bill 2799 and House Bill 2674.

"In particular, I think, Mr. Speaker, what troubles me in House Bill 2799 which relates to the salaries of the OHA trustees is that the salaries are shared 50/50 with the ceded land share as well as with State money. And it seems to me that that concept basically undermines the fiduciary responsibility of the trustees to their beneficiaries. I think it has the potential of dividing the loyalties of the trustees between those of their beneficiaries and possibly those of the State.

"Finally, I believe it may have the potential of compromising the principles of self-determination. Given that thought, I ask that that be kept in mind as this bill winds its way through the process.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2799, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Labor and Public Employment, with Representative Amaral voting no.

Representative Taniguchi moved that the joint report of the Committees be adopted and H.B. No. 172, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred jointly to the Committees on Consumer Protection and Commerce and Judiciary, seconded by Representative Oshiro.

Representative Thielen then rose to speak in strong support of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have checked out the cost of implementing this databank with some computer experts, specifically one company which develops custom client server computer applications for organizations such as Blue Cross/Blue Shield, GTE, and Sprint worldwide. The databank can be done for one hundred thousand dollars or less, and that's really important because this is not a big ticket item. We will more than recoup that initial expense once we are able to crack down on motorists who are driving without no-fault insurance.

"The databank could be installed on a Client Server Novell 3.11 network of 486 PC's with a 5GB SQL database. Tied into the network, Mr. Speaker, would be a communications server with one B1 telephone line for insurance carriers to communicate into nightly. If required, of course, additional lines could be added on a rotary system.

"Inputs for the insurance carriers should be allowable on diskette or via communications software at a State of Hawaii specified frequency (daily or weekly). Insurance companies can be given specifications for file formats for in-house development, or the State's developer could sell an appropriate module to each insurance company.

"The motor vehicle records can be downloaded nightly and processed into the insurance records. This can be done with Attachmate or any similar 3270 emulation software. The system should track violations based on user specified rules, produce reports and a distributable CD-ROM for police, neighbor islands, or other agency lookups and upload file records to the master State system.

"In other words, Mr. Speaker, the whole thing can be done in a computer databank. We will then be able to track all motorists who obtain no-fault insurance for purposes of getting their new registration and then cancel those no-fault insurance policies right after they're issued their decals. We will be able to identify the drivers, crack down on that twenty percent of the motorists in our State that are not complying with our insurance requirement law. I think, Mr. Speaker, this $100,000 will be well spent.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the joint report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS
(FLOOR PRESENTATIONS)

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 45 and 46) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 45, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING THE WINNERS AND SPONSORS OF THE 1994 DRUG FREE HAWAII POSTER AND MURAL CONTEST," was jointly offered by Representatives Arakaki, Duldulao, D. Ige, Chun, Pepper, Chumbley, Amaral, Kawakami, Lee, Morihara, Nakasone, Oshiro, Peters, Stegmaier, Tajiri and Tam.

On motion by Representative Arakaki, seconded by Representative Duldulao and carried, H.R. No. 45 was adopted.

Representative Arakaki rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, we've got to find a way to ease the pain. There are far too many of our youths who turn to drugs and alcohol to help ease the pain, and the consequences are costly and leaves too many without hope. Drugs and alcohol terminate too many dreams. There must be a way to ease the pain.

"Too many of our young people try to medicate their pain with drugs and alcohol -- the pain of living with a dysfunctional family, the pain of living in poverty, the pain of living with abuse and neglect, the pain of low self-esteem and low expectations. The pain of living in despair, without hope, without dreams. But we all pay the price for our young people who choose drugs and alcohol to ease their pain.

"Some people may wonder why I feel so passionate about this issue. Maybe it's because I've seen too many young lives destroyed, and too many futures hopelessly lost. Maybe it's because in my eight years as a legislator, I've seen programs and agencies continue to beg and plead our Health and Human Services Committees for more funds to meet the growing needs of young people who need treatment and rehabilitation. The problem goes far beyond the user and abuser because, left untreated, they are our future criminals, our future spouse abusers, the future child abusers, the future welfare recipient, the future homeless. I can go on and on. I think you get the message.

"And how do we respond?"

"We are forced to build more prison cells, more shelters for abused women and children, more shelters for the homeless. We are forced to expend funds for substance abusing mothers and their drug-exposed babies. We are forced to fund treatment for substance abusing criminals, and young people who abuse drugs and alcohol are burdensome on our health and social services, and create problems in our schools as well. You can ask Dr. Lewin and Dr. Aizawa how much of a problem they create.

"According to a report commissioned by the National Association of State Boards of Education and the American Medical Association, they found that:

- * Thirty-nine percent of high school seniors reported that they had gotten drunk in the previous two weeks;
- * Here in Hawaii, we have about 92,000 students who use drugs and alcohol;
- * Alcohol-related accidents are the leading cause of death among teenagers;
- * The suicide rate for adolescents has doubled since 1968. Ten percent of teenage boys and 18 percent of teenage girls have, at one time during their young lives, attempted suicide;
- * Homicide is the leading cause of death among the 15-19 year old minority youths; and
- * Drug abuse, HIV, and AIDS infections have grown alarmingly in our young adults.

"I guess many people wonder why this is happening. Well, the dilemma for many of our families in Hawaii now and for the future is having to choose between caring for their family members or economic survival. A well-known author and child advocate, Sylvia Hewitt, calls it the twin deficits -- not enough time and not enough resources.

"So then, how do we ease the pain of our young people? We as individuals, as families, as a community, must recognize the pain and find more avenues to allow kids to express their anger and frustration. They need to be able to tell someone how much they hurt. We need to find ways that will encourage kids to support each other, to talk to each other, and to serve as an ohana for those kids who have no one to turn to. Most of all, we need to be consistent in our messages. We glamorize alcohol abuse, especially for athletes. They need alcohol to have fun. We need to be consistent that it is not acceptable and what it can lead to.

"So in our little way, Mr. Speaker, whether our members realize it or not, we are part of this project, and this is the second year we are co-sponsors of this project to allow students to express how they feel about the dangers of substance abuse and alcohol abuse. It is based on the theory that a picture is worth a thousand words. It is also based on the belief that students can reach other students the best.

"I must thank Representative Duldulao who has co-chaired it with me for the last two years. She has been a real hustler as far as obtaining all the funds, soliciting the funds, which are the cash awards for the winners. And even though we can honor a few with these awards, I just want to say that the ones who do participate, I think, all benefit.

"This year we had 787 students across the State who did participate in this project. So I think all of us can be proud that we are sending the message, and for them it is important that legislators speak up and say how we feel, and that's why they are here today in great numbers because they want to hear what we have to say."

Representative Bainum then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, some think that Waikiki consists of only hotels and retirees without families, without children. Not so, Mr. Speaker.

"Though our schools may be few in number, they are high in quality, and we're happy and honored to have one of those fine students honored today for Third Place in this contest -- Clifford Blackmon -- and we congratulate him."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"Representative Arakaki is quite right that youths represent our future, and I endorse heartily what he has said.

"From my point of view, I think it is incumbent upon each of us to recognize those students who have made this project so successful. In my case, we find again that Mililani-uka School is represented by another winner -- Sarah Fritz -- and I would like to congratulate her as well as all her fellow students throughout the State who participated and who won prizes in this contest.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Arakaki then introduced Deborah Loscalzo, an eight grade student at Nanakuli Intermediate School, who was seated on the House floor and "who is representing all the award winners."

Representative Arakaki then asked the award winners who were seated in the gallery to stand to be recognized, as follows: Kristi Kusunoki, fifth grader, Kahului Elementary School (Maui); Karen Cabias, fifth grader, Waipahu Elementary School; Clifford Blackmon, fourth grader, Waikiki Elementary School; Haylin Dennison, fifth grader, Red Hill Elementary School; Kristen Nelson, fifth grader, Red Hill Elementary School; Kekoa Michelman, fifth grader, Kaneohe Elementary School; Kahala Neil, eighth grader, Kapaa Intermediate School (Kauai); Sarah Fritz, sixth grader, Mililani-uka Elementary School, accompanied by her teacher; Jordan Higa, sixth grader, Maemae Elementary School, accompanied by his counselor; Lindsay Schrack, seventh grader, Holy Trinity School, accompanied by her mother; Cam Wright, Kaiser High School; Gilbert Saoit, tenth grader, Farrington High School; Davian DeWitt, senior, Kalani High School, accompanied by her father; and Star Greenwood, tenth grader, Kaiser High School.

Representative Arakaki then asked the co-sponsors of the project, who were seated on the House floor, to stand to be recognized, as follows: Mr. Jack Lewin, Director, Department of Health; Dr. Herman Aizawa, Acting Superintendent, Department of Education; Miss Sandy Lacar, Executive Director, Drug Free Hawaii Coalition; and Mr. Wally Miura of Wally's Flooring, representing all "our generous sponsors."

Certificates of Recognition and floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Duldulao, Ihara, Chun, Young, Apo, Lee, Pepper, Nakasone, Stegmaier, Lee, Menor, Tam and Ward.

H.R. No. 46, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION COMMENDING MORIYOSHI 'DUKE' SAITO AND KOKI ANDO FOR THEIR SUPPORT IN THE 1994 CUP NOODLES HAWAIIAN LADIES LPGA OPEN," was jointly offered by Representatives Hirono and Isbell.

On motion by Representative Hirono, seconded by Representative Isbell and carried, H.R. No. 46 was adopted.

Representative Hirono proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Visiting us today after having called on the Governor and the Lt. Governor are the Presidents of the two companies which are the co-sponsors of the Hawaiian Ladies Open golf tournament at Ko Olina this week.

"The first gentleman is a prime mover behind this LPGA event, and that is Mr. Moriyoshi 'Duke' Saito. I never did ask Mr. Saito how he got the name Duke but I think I'll get to that this morning. He is the President of the Mainichi Broadcasting System, and first brought the tournament to Hawaii eight years ago. In that first year, the tournament was won by the University of Hawaii golfer, Cindy Rarick.

"Now in its eighth year, the tournament brings to Hawaii 132 professional women athletes from the U.S.A. and the West, 12 Japanese pros and their entire entourage that includes the media, et cetera, so all told, some 500-plus people have come together for this event -- thanks to Mr. Saito and the Mainichi Broadcasting System.

"The tournament is going to be viewed by millions of people in Japan and can you imagine the sight that they will behold as they are shivering in the freezing weather in Japan. Mr. Saito, our tourist industry certainly thanks you for this publicity for our State.

"Finally, as we recognize Mr. Saito and MBS today, we also congratulate him for his success in finding a suitable-named sponsor so that this tournament can continue.

"In 1987, Representative Isbell and I had the privilege of meeting Mr. Saito in Osaka and today, it is my pleasure to welcome Mr. Saito this morning."

Mr. Moriyoshi 'Duke' Saito then rose to be recognized.

"Seated with Mr. Saito from MBS is Mr. Yoichi Akasaka," and asked Mr. Akasaka to stand to be recognized.

"The next gentleman I am introducing this morning is the President of the named-sponsor company to which I referred. Mr. Koki Ando is President of the Nissin Food Products Company which has very graciously agreed to sponsor this tournament. Of course, the Nissin Company is the company that makes Cup of Noodles, a product that all of us are familiar with and I think that we probably have spent many a long evening in session and those of us who were in school, you know, with our little Cup of Noodles and believe me, it's a product that we all are very grateful to the company for developing back in 1971.

"Mr. Ando became director of Nissin Foods USA soon after graduating from Keio University in 1971 and assumed the presidency of the parent company from his father in 1985. Hawaii is very fortunate that Mr. Ando's experience in the U.S. made him an amenable sponsor for the Ladies Open this year.

"Please join me in welcoming Mr. Koki Ando."

Mr. Koki Ando then rose to be recognized.

Representative Hirono then asked Mr. David Crum, interpreter for Mr. Ando, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Hirono then asked Mr. Joe Kuroda, "our Goodwill Ambassador to Japan," who was seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Certificates of Recognition and floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Isbell, Hirono, Chun, Amaral and Marumoto.

At 11:41 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:47 o'clock a.m.

"Specifically, Mr. Speaker, I think it is very unwise for us to even flirt with this this year and keep it sort of alive as one more vehicle. It is clear that the public is not anxious to vote on whether or not we want to make the Board appointed. It is only some policymakers that are anxious to do it. In fact, the public may well resent us putting something like this on the ballot and see it as frivolous, and suppose overwhelmingly that the public does support an elected Board of Education.

"I think it is very clear that the message we are getting is the public wants a more independent Board, not a less independent Board, a Board that is freer, or as free at least as this one is from politics as usual. An appointed Board certainly would be less free and less independent.

"For this reason, I think we should think twice about ever bringing this bill out on the floor again this year.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

He was a great schoolteacher prior to becoming a legislator, so he is very interested in issues of education, especially those in the area of the gifted and talented. He also currently is Chair of the Committee on Road Safety and had a nice conversation with our Transportation Chair, Representative Oshiro. He said in Australia, it's a little different there. Their committees are not legislative -- they're more investigative. So he's had an interesting time investigating road safety in Australia. He also said that oratory skills are very necessary in Australia, especially if you're a member of the opposition party which he was at one particular time, and I think our members here would agree. At one time he even spoke for two hours and forty-five minutes on the topic of education."

Representative Isbell rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this is a problem which has finally come to the Legislature because it wasn't being resolved by the other sectors.

"We did a field trip, as you know, a site inspection of the Panaewa homes last week. We had an open meeting with the people, and what we discovered from the site inspection is that the termites are really secondary -- not the big problem.

"The biggest problem was the workmanship and construction of the homes. The homes are built and were built in such a manner that I don't believe anybody in here would have accepted that as a livable home. The roof's ceiling -- the rooftop -- is actually made of Butler building sidings. Now, how many of you have ever seen a rooftop made of sidings? It's got these little screws in it that are about this long (six inches), and there's a whole row of them, and they're rusting. If there's a good wind that comes along, you know that whole thing is going to go, plus they are starting to leak already. And you can imagine, in Hilo, they didn't even put rain gutters on the roof. The roof was made without any trusses, and there's open holes where you can see right up through because they didn't put a closing of the gap which keeps the bugs out which, even on a corrugated iron roof, if you will notice, there's a stopgap measure that's put in.

"The very foundation upon which these homes are built, Mr. Speaker, were built floating. They are built above the ground. Instead of digging down which is the law, the code, which I don't know how they got through with all this, they are normally built down in the ground and then you pour cement over that with rivet, screening and other requirements. This was built like a box which was set on the top of the ground and they just brought in the cement, poured it down, and as the ground settled, these homes are put on top of it. The very foundations are starting to crack, and they're 'floating.' And they also put sidewalks up to them, trying to meet them because this is a foot off the ground now. The sidewalk is slanted and they don't meet because they're starting to settle. So now you've got a tripping spot -- inches to inches developing between the sidewalk and the house.

"We walked into one home and the individual showed us the cupboards. As he opened it, the door fell off. Now this is a home that doesn't show any termites and yet they are in there as well. He said the workmanship in the cupboards is so cheap anyway that it probably would have fallen off.

"The refrigerators were supposed to be up to par. These are over $70,000 homes on a one dollar lease, so we're not talking about the land being involved -- just the home. The refrigerators were replaced with a very cheap brand, and we went into a home that had never been used and the freezer door and the refrigerator would barely open. The seals on most refrigerators that have been used do not seal anymore, so I mean it was like a toy refrigerator/freezer.

"Mr. Speaker, what this bill does is it tries to help these people out by giving them the money; frankly, first of all, to demolish the homes and start over again. You cannot repair a house that is irreparable. But the biggest damage of all, Mr. Speaker, is the irreparable harm that was done to the residents.

"I ask that everyone vote aye."

Representative Arakaki then rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for allowing us -- both your Housing and Hawaiian Affairs Committees -- to visit Panaewa. We visited about a half dozen houses in the Panaewa residential lot, Units 3 and 4, and we also sat through about five hours of personal testimonies from the residents and supporters of Panaewa, and I can tell you what we saw and what we heard is a real travesty. It's a real insult to the Hawaiian people that this is allowed to happen to them.

"Like Representative Isbell said, it's not only the damage that was done to the homes by the termites and the poor workmanship, I think the damage that was done to the spirit of this community is probably the worst thing that ever happened, and most of these people were first-time homeowners. If any of you are first-time homeowners, you can imagine the excitement of moving into a new home with your family and sharing the excitement of living in a new area in a new home. And all of these things came crashing down within a few months and within a couple of years.

"It wouldn't be too bad if this thing happened because of mistakes. It seems like a lot of these things happened because of fear and intimidation that was created. A lot of them were forced to accept these homes. They were forced to sign off on so-called punch lists even though they had noted all these defects. And, you know, a lot of the things that we saw really borders on the criminal. I really hope we do something to remedy this.

"There is an appropriation in the budget that was sent down by the Governor, but I think the reason why Representative Isbell and I feel so compelled to speak on this bill during Second Reading is because we really need to emphasize that what's in this bill is in response to what we saw and what we heard from the residents. I think this is where we, as legislators, have to make a difference. You know, we can just accept the money and give them the money, but that's only half the story. We have to sort of patch up lives that were broken, and this is what this bill attempts to do.

"There may be some minor concerns in this bill, but I hope as it goes on to Finance Committee that they really take a hard look at it, and maybe the Chair would also consider looking at what we saw because I think if the members of the Finance Committee could see and could hear from these people, they would feel the same way that we do, and they would give this bill a lot more consideration.

"With that, Mr. Speaker, I hope everyone votes in strong support of this bill."

Representative Amaral then rose to speak in support of the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that in the acceptance to become a state, we in Hawaii accepted to take on the responsibilities of the federal obligation to native Hawaiians. Therefore, the Hawaiian Home Lands became part of the state government, understanding full well that the obligation to native Hawaiians is carried out by virtue of a trust. So the State accepts part of that responsibility to the trust relationship between the native Hawaiians and Hawaiian Home Lands. The purpose of the Hawaiian Home Trust is to rehabilitate Hawaiians, I am told, by placing them on the land. There is a part of that obligation that was not met when Hawaiians were placed in substandard housing.

"I commend the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs in trying now to rectify that existing problem. I understand also that all we're intending to do here is to provide the beneficiaries with the housing they thought they were getting in the beginning and, certainly, not in any way intending to obviate or relieve the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands of their responsibility to the beneficiaries. In that spirit, I support this measure and the work of the two committees.

"Thank you."

Representative Beirne then rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"I had the opportunity of going with the Housing Committee and the Hawaiian Affairs Committee, and what I saw that was done there was really a deplorable situation.

"Mr. Speaker, we learn from our mistakes. Let this problem that has happened be something that each and everyone of us will not forget. It's obvious it has happened to native Hawaiians, and in so doing they will become examples to others out there in the community where housing is being dealt with. They will be able to share, counsel, talk with others on the different kinds of materials that will be used the next time around.

"This bill will give them that opportunity to do so. This bill will help them to have an option now, to go ahead and go into a self-help housing project instead of trusting a developer to do it. They will learn from this, and they will be able to help others.

"Mr. Speaker, I think that this is a very good bill. It's a good effort on behalf of the Chairs of the Housing and Hawaiian Affairs Committees. By the same token, Mr. Speaker, I would just like to share one thought.

"Before the State of Hawaii took on the responsibility in 1959, there still needs to be a correction done on the congressional level that changes some statutes, or some of the terms dealing with native Hawaiians, so that federal funds may be drawn down to put into the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to take care of other problems that will be coming down. . .

At this point, the Chair interrupted and stated:

"Representative Beirne, I would remind you that it is not germane to this bill."

Representative Beirne thanked the Chair and continued, saying:

"I would just like to leave this with my colleagues so that when it goes to Third Reading, they can also support House Bill No. 3333.

"Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the joint report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 3333, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PANAWEA RESIDENTIAL LOTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Ward rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak against this bill, not against judges, but against the fiscal policy that's behind it.

"This bill, in conjunction with another bill, gives judges a double bite at the apple this year, Mr. Speaker. Another bill has raised their salaries by 3-1/2 percent. This bill increases their retirement.

"I think, in terms of the hard times that we have and the fiscal prioritization that we need, this bill is too elitist, has a double whammy, and it's untimely, and I think that should be registered as when the money gets tight ... well, where did the money go? Here's one of the ways that it gets fettered away.

"Thank you."

Representative Alcon then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, for fear that I might make the media because of error and omission, I would like to declare some conflict of interest.

"Mr. Speaker, I'll just make a blanket conflict of interest announcement on all ERS measures."

At 1:03 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Upon reconvening at 1:04 o'clock p.m., Representative Alcon apologized to the Chair, saying:

"I know that I have already declared my conflict of interest in my Ethics Commission report.

"Thank you."

Representative Shon rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend the Chair of the Health Committee and all the members who voted unanimously to forward this bill in the process.

"I think it's important to note, in this early stage of consideration of this bill, that this and others that relate to who provides health care and at what cost and appropriate care, that these are all moving Hawaii in the direction out of the provincial forest and into the wider world of health care reform, and a greater sensitivity to the consumer, and a greater sensitivity to the collaborative relationship all the health care professions share in our health care world. It is not appropriate, in my view, to debate such a bill with distorted newspaper ads, claiming optometrists and nurses want to do surgery and not providing objective evidence. You know, this bill relates to similar services that are conducted by optometrists in over thirty states ... I think it's thirty-seven states now. One would imagine that if a professional group had serious problems about the quality of care, that we would have on our desks, stacked very high, study after study showing us, demonstrating objectively that this would endanger someone's health.

"But you know, Mr. Speaker, in all the years I have been involved with this issue and others relating to nurses, I have yet to receive one objective study showing that impinges on health, but I have received a lot of objective information showing that the cost of health care and appropriate care is very much related to those states who have the courage to say to all the professions ... work together, stop debating each other in misleading newspaper ads, work together. When you come before the Legislature, present objective evidence. Don't just yell at us with theoretical scare tactics. This issue and other issues are issues for the consumer and they deserve reasoned, objective discourse and debate. A lot of the opposition, I must say, for these kinds of bills is not in that context. I urge all of you to insist that those who are for or against such bills present objective evidence and not just repeat the mantra ... if you want to do what we do, go to medical school. That is not the issue.

"This bill is a good bill, I believe, as are the other bills that relate to nurses. Please let us not be intimidated by outrageous newspaper ads that do not do credit to the overwhelming members of the profession that do not support that kind of rhetoric.

"For this reason, I would enthusiastically endorse this bill.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, may I make a fiscal footnote regarding H.B. 2562 which increases our taxes, and quoting Mr. Speaker, when you said, 'No new taxes.'

"I think speaking against this bill would be consistent with that, and particularly since it's going to be a hit on the airlines when we're hurting with tourism. Is this going to be where we want to put the burden of the tax increase while some of those who are on the fence are deciding whether they are going to stay in Hawaii or not? I think it would be fiscally prudent not to increase the particular tax on crude oil.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bainum then rose to speak in support of the bill, stating:

"A careful reading of this bill will note that this does not include an amount that would increase taxes. It merely has a blank line that will pass this measure along to the Finance Committee to give maximum flexibility to the Finance Committee on how best to fund environmental programs. Thank you."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION
(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 54, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION COMMENDING STEPHEN SANAE KANDA FOR HIS CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE COMMUNITY AND HAWAII'S PUBLIC EDUCATION SYSTEM," was jointly offered by Representatives Alcon, Arakaki and Taniguchi and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Alcon, seconded by Representative Arakaki and carried, H.R. No. 54 was adopted.

Representative Alcon rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the resolution speaks for itself in that Mr. Kanda had dedicated his life to serving the community, especially for the underprivileged.

"I have known Mr. Kanda since 1961, and he has always been my model ... he and a fellow educator by the name of Mr. Toma Tasaki. He has worked in the Kalihi area, and let me just say, Mr. Speaker, that he walked the Kalihi area selling huli-huli chicken tickets, and also helping the businesses in the area.

"We have read in the paper several years ago that he had an unfortunate accident on the golf course which landed him in the hospital, but let me just say, Mr. Speaker, that he has no hate in his heart because when he came out from the hospital, he had dedicated himself to tutoring those people and he still continues to do it.

"You know, I am the oldest in the House in age, Mr. Speaker, and I hope I live to be as old as Mr. Kanda -- 90 years young."

Representative Alcon then introduced Mr. Stephen Sanae Kanda and asked him to stand to be recognized.

Accompanying Mr. Kanda on the House floor were Mr. Nick Carr, President of Kalakaua Lions; Mr. Sterling Johnson, Director of Kalakaua Lions; Mr. Don Yamato, Secretary of Kalakaua Lions; and Mr. Toma Tasaki, a member of Kalakaua Lions.

Representative Arakaki then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker and members, it was about thirty years ago, this was a fresh face and fifty pounds lighter when I was at Farrington High School. After hearing all the things about Farrington High School, there's a lot of fear and apprehension when you're starting off attending that school. But thankfully, we had a principal who was very caring, who was always able to reach out to his students and he never failed, you know, even if he didn't know you by name -- but he did know most of the students by name -- and there were over three thousand students at that time. He would stop and say 'hello' if you're walking down the hallway.

"I guess the thing that impressed me the most was our motto at Farrington High School as Governors was ... 'Anxious to learn and go forth to serve.' I think people like Mr. Kanda, they really exemplify that motto. They really believe that those of us who matriculate at Farrington High School should be prepared with an education that would allow us to serve our community, and it was that kind of inspiration, Mr. Speaker, that I think led me to where I am today.

"And, people like Mr. Kanda and Mr. Tasaki, they represent, I guess, the old style of community activism. There wasn't a whole lot of hype or fanfare. They just went out. They found out where the needs were, and they rolled up their sleeves and they got the work done. And that's the kind of things that we need to, I think, get back to in our community -- get back to the grassroots, get back to dealing with people one on one -- because that's the kind of approach that has worked in Kalihi, and that's why the Kalakaua Lions Club has been so successful.

"I'm really proud to be part of that Lions Club, along with people like Representative Cachola, Senator Dennis Nakasato, and Governor Waihee. And these gentlemen have served as advisors to me and also a real inspiration, not only to myself, but to many young people and young adults in the community, so I really want to salute Mr. Kanda for all that he represents, and to the Kalakaua Lions Club for the good work that they do.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola then rose and stated:

"First, let me extend our warmest aloha and congratulations to Mr. Kanda, and also to welcome all the members of the Kalakaua Lions Club of which Representative Arakaki and I are members.

"When I saw them this morning, I thought they were here for two things: One, to remind Representative Arakaki and I to attend meetings; and second, to collect payments for the huli-huli chicken. But, you know, they are here because we are honoring a 'legend,' and that is Mr. Stephen Sanae Kanda.

"When I came here in 1971, I was a first generation immigrant. Well, the first person that I had met and known was Mr. Kanda. At that time, I was told that he has done a lot of good things for the community, and I was recruited as one of the members of the Kalakaua Lions Club. I don't have any regrets at all in joining them because what they are doing is for the best interest of the community -- helping out the poor and the needy.

"As I said, we are honoring a 'legend.' I hope, Mr. Kanda, that your next ninety years will be as good, if not better, than the first one, and may God bless you.

"Aloha."

Representative Taniguchi then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, all the accolades that Mr. Kanda is getting today are true and are deserving. Mr. Kanda is a constituent of mine, and he is an exemplary member of our community. I just would be remiss if I did not stand up and extend my greetings to Mr. Kanda also.

"Thank you."

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, my memories go back fifty years when I was a Lion Cub. My father was a charter member of the Wahiawa Lions Club -- Paul Young -- and I spent many hours making laulau at that time. It wasn't huli-huli chicken -- it was laulau. We had the best laulau in town and selling them with the Lions Club members and collecting glasses. I think it eventually led to my working at the School for the Blind in Maryland for many years as head of the Speech and Hearing Department, and then at the Department of Education here as State Specialist for the deaf and the blind in the State of Hawaii.

"So I know the good work that the Kalakaua Lions Club does, and I also know the good work that Stephen Kanda does, and I congratulate him very much.

"Thank you."

Representative Yonamine then rose and stated:

"I would be remiss if I didn't say anything about this distinguished person. He is really and truly the 'Godfather' of Kalihi/Palama because, like the resolution and your previous speakers have said, he had a hand in just about everything in Kalihi, whether it was with service organizations, and he is a life member of Kalakaua Lions and the Lions International which is a very, very, rare achievement. It only goes to very few people who are universally respected for their lifelong support of the Lions Club and their activities.

"The other thing, too, was that he had a hand in the Kalihi/Palama Community Council and other social service agencies when I first got to know him, and he was instrumental in making sure that when I got back to Kalihi/Palama after years on the mainland, that I had a firsthand knowledge of what has happened in the Kalihi/Palama community. There's more than a building named after him because I think his name and his memories are etched in the hearts of many, many people he had any contact with.

"I think, too, that anytime a person can be a role model, he truly is a 'Godfather' because many, many people in the Department of Education who became distinguished administrators and teachers were influenced and directed and recruited, literally, by Mr. Kanda, and also by Mr. Toma Tasaki. So he has done more than being a role model. He has done everything for Kalihi/Palama, and today is just a rare and great occasion that we have to honor him.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Alcon then asked the members of the Kalakaua Lions Club, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

At this time, Representative Cachola presented Mr. Kanda with a Certificate of Recognition, and Representatives Isbell, Duldulao, Beirne, Kawakami and Chun presented floral leis to the honorees.

At 12:32 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:49 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ihara moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 2930, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Thielen.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in favor of the bill with serious reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would ask the members to turn to page 10, lines 15 through 20, of their bill. What this is going to do is enable the Department of Public Health to actually look at commercial cooking operations and decide whether or not they should be modified or some sorts of odor control be placed upon those operations.

"The concern I have is that in a lot of our areas on this island and on the neighbor islands, we have Mom and Pop cooking operations intermingled maybe with some apartment dwellings and other residential areas. We don't want to impact upon a traditional way of life in our islands merely because a Korean restaurant or an Italian restaurant happens to have its cooking odors wafting out onto the sidewalk and into the neighborhood.

"It's something that I would hope, as this measure goes through, that everyone will consider it carefully because we would not want to shut down or create a financial hardship for those Mom and Pop operations such that they would be unable to continue.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Thank you."

"The bill allows the Chief Elections Officer, not the Lieutenant Governor, to contract with non-profit organizations in order to the elections which is fine and good. It gives the non-profits a chance to raise funds, a chance to run the polls -- it gets the job done.

"Mr. Speaker, the unfortunate thing is that our community, through a lack of interest, hasn't been able to provide enough volunteers to work the polls, so I think this bill is good in that it goes for those non-profits, whether it's the Rotary or the Lions as we had here earlier, to do fundraising to make money.

"However, one of the reasons why I think people don't come to the polls to volunteer is what's on page 3 of the bill, Mr. Speaker. Page 3 of the bill prescribes that the precinct officer in charge of the elections has to be of the same party as the Governor.

"Mr. Speaker, that's kind of the 'old boy' way, the 'old boy' network, and my reason for standing, Mr. Speaker, is to encourage the next committee, the Finance Committee, to pass the bill but to amend it so when we want volunteers to come out, it doesn't have to follow the party of the Governor and it's pure. Let's run the elections, let's get on with counting the votes and not counting the party allegiance.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Where this bill came from I am not sure, but if it is what I suspect it may be regarding who's going to be on the top floor in 1994, Mr. Speaker, I would beg to differ with your author that changing the Constitution for political purposes in anticipation of the election is not the contemplation of the peoples' good. If I am wrong, I'm wrong, but if I'm right, I don't think this bill is in proper order.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2387, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION
(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 55, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND HONORING CHARLES T. TOGUCHI UPON HIS RETIREMENT AS HAWAII'S SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT," was jointly offered by Representatives Tam, D. Ige, Amaral, Arakaki, Hirono, Kawakami, Lee, Nekoba, Okamura, Santiago, Say, Shon and Tom, and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Tam, seconded by Representative D. Ige and carried, H.R. No. 55 was adopted.

Representative Tam rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, today we are honored to have before us an outstanding individual, public servant, and a friend. That person is none other than Mr. Charles Toguchi, as stated in the resolution before us.

"The resolution honors Charles, if I may call him that being a personal friend, for his outstanding service as Superintendent of the Department of Education. I wish to honor Charles, not only as the retiring Superintendent, but mention about his character as an individual and a former State Representative and State Senator.

"Charles is a man of highly respectable character, a great communicator, a true public servant who works seven days a week, and a man of principle. I personally know that he works seven days a week because I've seen him at functions and he lets people call him up at ten o'clock at night also.

"I first experienced working with Charles upon becoming a State Representative in 1982. Charles helped me pass the legislation of six days' public hearing notice by government agencies in the Senate. Charles, I have personally thanked you before, but please allow me to thank you publicly. The six days' notice legislation is very important to the citizens of the State of Hawaii.

"Charles' highlight of his public service so far is his eight years as the Superintendent of the Department of Education. As the former chairperson of the Education Committee, I had the delightful pleasure of working with my good friend during the majority of his years as Superintendent, and the introduction and structure of reform in education from 1987 to 1992.

"The many accomplishments of educational reforms were stated in the resolution, but if I may, the two most outstanding reforms are (1) lump-sum budgeting; and (2) the ten days' budget restriction notice ordered to the Governor. That means that before he can restrict any money on education, he must give ten days' notice to the public so they can respond. Both occurred initially in 1992.

"Although Charles is retiring from the position as Superintendent of the Department of Education, I personally do not see him retiring permanently from public service. Charles is so public-service oriented that it is in his blood.

"In closing, on behalf of the House of Representatives, I wish to thank Charles Toguchi for his devotion and accomplishments as a State Representative, State Senator, and Superintendent of the Department of Education.

"Please thank your wife who is unable to be here today for letting us use your knowledge, endless energy and time.

"This man here before us has many talents and I know personally because he helped me build my stonewall which is over twenty feet long -- actually a tile wall. We spent many countless hours doing it over the weekends and when we could after work, and I appreciate that very much. It's a strong wall -- it's still standing. I know that you had to put up with some complaints ... your wife complained that you didn't put the caps on your wall and now you have the time to do so. But remember, we expect you to be here in public service continuously through the rest of your life because we know that you're so devoted that you will not give up."

Representative Tam then asked the honoree, Mr. Charles Toguchi, to stand to be recognized.

Accompanying the honoree on the House floor were his daughter, Jody, and Dr. Herman Aizawa, Acting Superintendent of Education, who then rose to be recognized.

Representative Tam then asked Mrs. Asato, his mother-in-law; other family members, friends, and members of his staff, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Representative D. Ige then rose and stated:

"I have often said that the Superintendent's job is probably the most difficult job in the State. You know, Charlie has at least 90 bosses. He has to respond to 76 legislators, and I am certain that everybody on this floor has had occasion to call Charlie on one issue or another. He responds to 13 Board members who can dismiss him at their pleasure, and he responds to the Governor. I've always said that you have to be slightly crazy to try and take this job. The Superintendents that served before him served for various terms but all of them were relatively short and it is imperative, as we restructure and improve the public school system, that there be some stability in that position.

"Charlie, as testament to his abilities, has served as the longest school superintendent since statehood and I think that, in and of itself, says a lot for him. I think the most fundamental achievement that Charlie will take with him is that, clearly there have been detractors, but I think all of us can agree that the public school system that he leaves today is tremendously improved than the public school system that he entered and took charge of. From my personal perspective, I wish that he would have stayed on for another six months so that we could survive the session. But I do congratulate him and thank him for all his countless efforts on behalf of the children of Hawaii.

"Thank you."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"I would like to echo the words of the two previous speakers in acknowledging the sterling contributions of Charles Toguchi.

"I simply want to say that it was a great honor and pleasure to have known him, to have worked with him, and to acknowledge that he survived all those seven years because he is a gentleman and a real scholar.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shon then rose and stated:

"In 1977 and 1978, I had the great honor to work for Charlie when he was first elected as his clerk of the new Committee on Ocean and Marine Resources, and I can tell you that he left quite an imprint on the House at that time for tenacity, for his willingness to fight for the committee, to fight for justice in many, many aspects. That was the years of great controversy over Waiahole/Waikane, and it took a lot of guts and a lot of communication skills to survive those years, to stick up for the residents, and to defend many of the environmental principles and life-style principles that were so important and so much on the line at that time.

"I remember those early years for his courage, his honesty, his tenacity, and his deep commitment to people in all aspects of their lives, and I regard it as a terrific point on my resume to say that I once worked for Charles Toguchi.

"Congratulations, Charlie."

Representative Tom then rose and stated:

"I would really be remiss if I didn't say a few words on our honoree. After all, Charlie and I live in the same district and I just want to say ... Charlie, when you retire from being Superintendent, go find another job. Don't pick on me -- okay, Charlie?"

"You know, when I moved to Kaneohe in the '70s, you know, I was an aspiring lawyer, and I wanted to be a politician and I said, 'I'll go into politics in 1980,' and I looked at this name, 'Toguchi.' I never heard of that guy ... who's that guy? That's how much I was in tune with politics and so I ran against Charlie. I figured I'm going to win because nobody heard of Charles Toguchi -- right? Not only did I get my okole whipped ... I still hurt when I sit down. The pain never seems to go away, Charlie.

"I also recall how compassionate he was. During the first election, you know, I can't go sign-waving by myself because all the cars would pass. I'd stand for four hours every day, waving to things I don't even see. But you know that Charlie, he'd wave near me. I didn't like that, Charlie, but that's okay, I didn't look at you. What happened one day ... I get all these senior citizens because the young guys work so I had to take these older guys with me. One day it poured, and old Charlie was so nice ... he gave us his umbrella so we wouldn't get wet. I was really happy, Charlie, but my senior citizen friends went to vote for you because of that. I'm really upset!

"Now, I just want to say, Charles, you became Superintendent at a very, very pivotal period. Everyone talked about it but, you know, who can last longer than you? And reform? Charlie used to tell me about all this school reform and bringing it down to the levels of the school and the teachers and the students. All these were dreams and, you know, Charlie made these dreams reality, and that's why I wrote the song, 'Children Like Me.' He was the big influence. He inspired me to write. He doesn't know that, but he inspired me to write that because he had a plan and this plan was collaborative, and that is what 'Children Like Me' is about. And you know what? Charlie believes in children. That's why I wrote 'Children Like Me.' But the truth of the matter is ... the reason the song really took fruition is because his wife liked it. So, I don't know ... I think his wife is very smart. Charlie ain't got no musical talent or rhythm, you know.

"Charlie, when we're in Kaneohe and you retire, let's get together, let's have coffee. But please, Charlie, do something else ... don't run against me -- okay? I don't want my okole to hurt even more than it hurts right now.

"Aloha, Charlie, and thank you so much for all you've done."

Representative Stegmaier then rose and stated:

"As a member of the House Education Committee for six years now, I was hoping that the disparaging remark made by a member of the Board of Education would actually raise Mr. Toguchi's gander sufficiently to keep him on the job just to continue to prove that Board member wrong. Unfortunately, my hopes were dashed.

"I think that Charles Toguchi was the longest serving Superintendent of the education system in Hawaii because he was the best. Charlie was the best for two reasons: He saw the vision and pursued it with vigor and with great personal sacrifice, and he saw the need to be collaborative.

"Charlie, you saw that for the reforms to be successful, everyone had to be included in the decision-making process. And because of your painstaking leadership style, you have laid a foundation for which future generations for a long time will be indebted.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Nekoba then rose and stated:

"I think I'm the only member of the House who was actually in school when Superintendent Toguchi came in, so I can literally attest to the changes that he has made in the Department of Education, just on the strength of that. I can also say that. . . I'm sorry, I didn't mean to make you feel so old, but I'm the same age as your daughter so it shouldn't make you feel too bad.

"One thing that I am kind of upset about is the fact that I only got to work with you for a year and a half and that's because knowing you for as long as I have known you, and the way my father has talked about you over the years, it's been nice to see that all the things that he said about you were right ... that you talk the talk but you walk the walk, that you stick to your guns, that you believe in what you believe, and you fight for it to the very end. And those are things that when I first decided to run, my father actually told me ... 'When you run, you gotta run like Charlie. You gotta be as dedicated to what you do as he is, and you gotta run like hell, and you gotta wave at people, and you gotta shake as many hands and do those kinds of things because if you run from your heart and do it that way, nobody can doubt the work that you do.' And, I've never doubted you for a second, and thank you very much for the years that you put in, and I hope to see you around more often.

"Thank you."

Representative Beirne then rose and stated:

"Charles Toguchi ... he's not a newcomer to being acknowledged for his many accomplishments in his political and educational endeavors. While my colleague, Representative Tom, may live in the same district, the Windward side of the island, I was Charles Toguchi's neighbor for fourteen years. As you can see, my whole family has supported Mr. Toguchi in all the years that he served in the House and even in the Senate. As a matter of fact, we used to go out there at three/four o'clock in the morning just to make sure that we have reserved that little spot that we needed right there by Ahuimanu School. It was through Charles Toguchi that set a fire in me to come out and try to be a grassroots politician, so to say, so that I could also be a voice for my people. Yes, Charles Toguchi served at a time when there was Wiahole/Waikane controversies going on and very deep-rooted concerns in our Windward district. There was also a lot of concerns in the district that I am representing at this time, especially Kahana.

"When Charles finally said that he was leaving the Senate, having won the second term in the Senate, I personally called him and expressed how concerned I was for him leaving and accepting the Superintendent's position. But, as you can see, he served well, he served many years. He said to me back then ... 'You know, Lani, you gotta be crazy to take this position.' He wasn't really crazy -- he just really wanted to dig in and help with those concerns in the educational process as he did both in the House and the Senate.

"Charles is not only politically and educationally motivated, he also has been there as a voice for our people -- all peoples. And that's why he was so much loved in our Windward district, and also being a neighbor to me and having the best mother-in-law ... Grandma, aloha. Whenever I wanted to check on my children because they weren't answering the telephone, that's my Grandma also. She took care of my concerns, so Mahalo, Grandma.

"And Jody, you've grown to be such a beautiful young lady. I know that with the background and the upbringing that you have with your Mama and your father, that you will do many good things also for the citizens of Hawaii.

"Charles Toguchi, we love you. You have never missed any one of our family luaus, and we enjoy you for who you are, and what you do for us in Hawaii.

"Mahalo."

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"I was with the Department of Education for twelve years and during that term, Charlie was the fourth superintendent that I served under for my last four years that I was there before I came here to this body, and he did have an open door policy but also an open ear policy, and was very kind to listen to many of my concerns. I was the Sex Equity Specialist for the last five years when I was there, and talked to him on many occasions about sexual harassment and about equal educational opportunities for girls and boys in the public school system. But an inside story about the Department of Education, when I first came in 1978, was that changing the Department of Education was likened to pushing an elephant uphill in the rain, and no pun intended to my partisan friends there.

"But Charlie, I think when he came, made a difference in that he saw the task ahead of him and instead of taking that route, he decided to bore a tunnel through the hill, and I think because of the foundation that he laid, we can now see light at the end of the tunnel, and I thank him very much for that."

Representative Kawakami then rose and stated:

"I would like to say that, Representative Nekoba, I was also in school then when Charlie came on but in a different capacity -- not as a student.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I want to say that I had the great opportunity of working with Superintendent Toguchi for three months. He had appointed me as a Deputy Superintendent for Kauai schools, and I certainly felt it was a privilege, having worked my way up the ranks as a teacher, principal, and being in the District Office. It was a challenge for me and I'm sorry I left you after three months, Charlie, but here I am, and I am enjoying it.

"But I do want to tell you, Charlie ... I thank you, and in the thirty years that I had been in education, it moved at a snail's pace, and certainly, you have done much to move education.

"Thank you and enjoy your retirement.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Say then rose and stated:

"On behalf, Charlie, of the Class of 1976 -- Representative Kats Yamada, Representative Meyer Ueoka from Maui, Representative Richard Caldito from Maui, Representative Bob Dods from Hawaii Kai, Representative Clifford Uwaine, Representative Tony Narvaes, Representative Ted Mina, the deceased Representative Charles Campbell, and our 'chicken man' Representative Yoshiro Nakamura, we want to convey our very best on your retirement.

"I realize that this retirement is a new beginning for you, maybe spending time with your wife, Elaine, who has dedicated her life for the betterment and fulfillment of your dreams. Jody and your son ... I wish them the very best also.

"Last but not least, Charlie, I know you're not going to retire but continue on in public service in another capacity.

"Thank you."

At this time, Representative D. Ige presented Mr. Charles Toguchi with a Certificate of Recognition while Representative Amaral presented the honoree with a red carnation lei. Floral leis were presented to Jody and Dr. Aizawa by Representatives Hiraki and Young, respectively.

At 12:46 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:20 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ihara moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 3450, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Thielen.

Representative Thielen rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"This bill is a very major departure from what has been occurring. House Bill 3450 will authorize the Hawaii Community Development Authority (HCDA) to assess private property owners in Kakaako for public facility improvements that generally benefit their properties. It's a major departure, Mr. Speaker, from the current procedure. Up until now, HCDA has been limited in its assessments and only could assess property owners whose parcels are specifically benefitted by a public improvement facility.

"I was really surprised, Mr. Speaker, at not having any testimony in our committee from landowners, those small landowners in Kakaako, or from the tenants who actually have the assessments passed through to them.

"So I asked HCDA's Executive Director, Mr. Scarfone ... 'Did you provide any public notice to those landowners or to those tenants in Kakaako that they were now going to be subject to an assessment for any of those public facility improvements in the Kakaako district?' And he said ... 'No, I didn't.' So, it's a really bad move of government not to give that advance notice so we would be able to get the input from those tenants and landowners.

"Here is the example of the potential consequences. If a major landowner in that area such as Bishop Estate wants to pursue major public facility improvements that increase the value of Bishop Estate property, HCDA, while imposing a substantial share of the assessment on the Bishop Estate, can now also assess all the other small landowners because they will be deemed to generally benefit from the improvements in the district.

"The point about the Kakaako district is that Kakaako is going to have some major public facility improvements so it's going to benefit everyone throughout the whole State -- everyone, throughout the whole State. But those Kakaako small businesses and small landowners are going to have to shoulder the assessment burden. Kakaako, as we all know, is a district that's devoted to intensive public facility improvements. This is very different from your general run-of-the-mill assessment that the counties impose when they're putting in a sewer or doing other small improvements in a district.

"Many of the lease agreements in Kakaako are net, net, net lease agreements. This is another blow to small business, Mr. Speaker, because on those net, net, net lease agreements, these assessments now go zooming right straight through and are assessed upon that small business, the lessee, in Kakaako.

"I think that we ought to look at this very long and carefully to decide whether or not we want to take this step. Many of those small businesses are struggling just to hold on in the Kakaako district, and this could be their death knell.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, one of the biggest disappointments I suffered last year was the inability of the community to reach consensus on the proper approach to resolve the crisis in our family courts. Each week, fifty accused family abusers ask for jury trials, knowing that this simple request would set them free to abuse again with neither correction or consequences. This scandal, Mr. Speaker, has gone on long enough and the members of the Judiciary Committee were united in their determination to address this issue with the help and support, and I must give her a lot of credit, Representative Amaral. We were committed with the Committee in ending this cycle of violence that so many families face, and we were able to fashion a bill which would separate the offense into two levels so that justice can once again assert itself in our courtrooms.

"We've modeled the bill on the current harassment laws so that its effectiveness will be assured. At least, defendants in these types of criminal trials would no longer be able to play with the system, laughing at our laws, and deciding that family feud is a crime with no punishment. This bill will force lesser offenders to face the court in a bench trial, a much speedier procedure, and assure the court will be able to swiftly try the more serious offenders before a jury.

"We need to address this problem, Mr. Speaker, for violence, uncorrected, will surely escalate into tragedy. For these reasons, I urge my colleagues to follow the lead of the Judiciary Committee and to vote up on this bill.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Representative Ward rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, today is Liberation Day for all of those who lived in vertical lifestyles versus horizontal lifestyles. Today, the Supreme Court ruled 3 to 2 that those who live vertical are equal to those who live horizontally. It is now by law that lease to fee is a mandatory conversion process so the option is there, and I thank all of you who have fought on that side of the issue, or whichever side you were on ... now those who live in the air are the same as those of us who live on the ground.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 1:34 o'clock p.m., the House of Representatives stood in recess until 8:30 o'clock p.m. tonight.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION
(FLOOR PRESENTATION)

H.R. No. 56, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND CONGRATULATING RAECHEL ELIZABETH KULA, HAWAII'S 1994 JUNIOR MISS," was offered by Representative Ward and was read by the Clerk.

On motion by Representative Ward, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, H.R. No. 56 was adopted.

Representative Ward rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, today we acknowledge brains and beauty, primarily brains, because of what the program is but even though, they are equally lovely. I have the honor, Mr. Speaker, of being in the district by which these three have lived and now dwell in.

"Not everybody knows about the Junior Miss Program and how it came about. It's thirty-five years ago that it began, and it stresses academic achievement. That is why I mentioned the brains part of what we're talking about today. It stresses the well-roundedness in communication skills, in scholastic achievement, fitness, even presence, Mr. Speaker, which all of us are still trying to develop, composure, creativity, and each of them have a performing art. Each is accomplished in their own way.

"However, we are most honored, and I will speak to, first, Rachel Kula who happens to live on Kii Street, just down the street from where I live in Hahaione Valley in Hawaii Kai. She is this year's Hawaii Junior Miss. Please welcome Miss Kula."

Rachel Kula, Hawaii's 1994 Junior Miss then rose to be recognized.

"And I might note to Representative Lee that she is going into the Foreign Service. She will be a diplomat, and I am sure Representative Lee will have plenty of advice for this young lady."

Representative Ward then asked Ms. Hyun Jong Lee, first runner-up, to stand to be recognized, saying:

"She is also at Sacred Hearts and she is one of the $2,500 scholarship winners, and she plans a career in music, so those who sing -- Representative Isbell and Representative Kanoho -- I am sure you will give your best professional advice to her."

"The third, which is the second runner-up, is Nicole Furuta," and asked Nicole to stand to be recognized, saying:

"Nicole is a senior at Iolani High School and recipient of a $2,500 scholarship, and this is for all of us who run for office this November. She is tops in her personal skills, that which we all ascribe to and desire to be, and her ability to assist and enrich the lives of others is an incalculable value as all of the three. Thank you very much, Nicole.

"Lastly, the founder ... the one who thirty-five years ago put the idea together. You're not the founder according to the Sergeant-at-Arms ... you must be the founder. You are the Executive Director -- Miss Corliss Chang," and asked Ms. Chang to stand to be recognized.

Representative Stegmaier then rose and stated:

"I just wanted to congratulate Raechel Kula, someone whom I've known for many years now from when she was quite small, for her great accomplishments along the way and now setting up a great future for herself.

"I wanted to congratulate Steve and Debbie Kula for creating the kind of family life that allowed Raechel to grow and to develop in such an admirable way.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"I certainly would like to add a few words for our young ladies and for the scholarship which we honor today. It's really refreshing that we are placing priorities where it should be -- that is on scholarships and on education.

"Above all, I certainly wish Miss Raechel Kula all my very best in her endeavors to join the U.S. Foreign Service. I could not think of a career more fitting for a bright young person like her.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a concluding remark, and that is the charge to you three ladies to know that this is not the end but the beginning. And this is a significant message to you that says that you have everything to go to the top, and we wish that you do the same as if a person becomes a Colonel. It says you have General material. You can become a General, and I think your winning is the symbolic gesture that says all three of you got it ... you can go to the top, and we certainly wish that you can.

"Thank you."

At this time, Representatives Ward, Stegmaier and Marumoto presented the honorees with Certificates of Recognition while Representatives Nekoba, Pepper and Santiago presented them with floral leis.

At 12:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:35 o'clock p.m.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Say, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 529-94) recommending that H.B. No. 3550 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Ihara moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 3550 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Thielen.

Representative Shon rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, there has been a lot of debate over this issue over the last couple of years but the facts have not changed. After the Exxon/Valdez disaster, Congress passed the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 that requires the owners and operators of a tank vessel or facility, including the two off-shore facilities operated by VHP and Chevron, to ensure that they have 'private personnel and equipment necessary to remove to the maximum extent practicable the worst case discharge and to mitigate or prevent a substantial threat.'

"In other words, Mr. Speaker, the federal law requires the purchase of oil spill equipment by the oil industry. And, Mr. Speaker, Coast Guard officials last week said they see no realistic alternatives to a Hawaii-based operation. 'Honolulu is really the only game in town, in terms of a location for adequate response for the Hawaiian Islands. It's the only reasonable base from which to operate.'

"In response to the Act, Mr. Speaker, which requires them to be here with or without a tax giveaway, the Marine Response Corporation was formed. It is guided by its own Board of Directors but its dues are paid by the oil industry.

"Two years ago, they lobbied to get tax benefits amounting to seven or eight hundred thousand dollars. We gave it to them. We didn't have to. That was the same year we took away and restricted funds from Human Services. Now they're back again. They want retroactively to get another tax break for more equipment which they have to buy by federal law and locate in Honolulu.

"Mr. Speaker, I just don't understand our continuing appetite to give away tax credits and tax benefits when we don't have to. This is a case where we absolutely do not have to, and I hope that we'll all look at this before it hits us on Third Reading.

"Thank you."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand briefly to speak in favor of the motion by asking this question ... Does anyone wonder why Hawaii is considered an anti-business state? Does anyone ever wonder why we look at business and we say, 'You guys are dirty, you're taking our money, you're ripping off our people?'

"Well, just cite the record of what we've just heard today. That's why we're an anti-business state. That's why we've got a perspective that we don't want people to make it in the private sector. We want to make sure they pay more than their fair share.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee then rose to speak in favor of the bill, stating:

"Just to clarify the previous speaker's comments.

"This bill, by our action today, negates entirely the impression that Hawaii is an anti-business state. We are in favor of making it easier and much more convenient for people to do business here, including cleaning up oil spills.

"Therefore, this is a pro-business bill and the House will vote for it. That is my answer to the distinguished gentleman from the East side of Honolulu.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

SENATE COMMUNICATION

Sen. Com. No. 22, transmitting Senate Bill No. 2167, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PLANNING," which passed Third Reading in the Senate on February 22, 1994, was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

On motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, S.B. No. 2167, SD 1, passed First Reading by title and further action was deferred.

At this time, the following introductions were made to the members of the House:

Representative Beirne introduced her "shadows" from Kahuku High School (A.P. Government Class) as follows: Laura Walker, Sarah Grandy, Charmine Wells and Jeremiah Moeai.

Representative Young, on behalf of Representatives Shon, Santiago and herself, introduced a group of 20 high school students from Cheju Province, "which is on the Southern tip of Korea. Cheju is often known as the 'Hawaii of Korea.' I was fortunate to be there in October to visit. They have beautiful beaches and the climate much like Hawaii, but as the Governor of Cheju told me, what is different from Hawaii is that they have four seasons. They actually have snow there during the winter so, in a way, they say they go beyond what Hawaii has because they offer the four seasons. The 20 students are here as part of the Department of Education Cultural Exchange Program, and they are hoping to send 20 students from Hawaii to Cheju next year perhaps."

They were accompanied by their teachers, Mr. Moon Chul Choa of the Cheju Provincial Office of Education, and Mr. Chang Keun Ko, an English teacher from Pyoseon Commercial High School; and Joanne Swearingen and Eric Chang from the Department of Education.

Representative Say, on behalf of Representatives Ihara, Marumoto, Hagino and himself, introduced 45 students from Aliiolani Elementary School. They were accompanied by their teachers and chaperones -- Ms.

Lois Yanagisawa, Mr. Tony Pablo, Mr. Kawasaki and Mrs. Blanche Arakaki.

ORDER OF THE DAY

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS (FLOOR PRESENTATION)

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 58 and 59) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 58, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND HONORING THE COALITION OF CONCERNED PARENTS FOR EDUCATION REFORM FOR ITS CONTRIBUTIONS TO IMPROVING PUBLIC EDUCATION IN HAWAII," was offered by Representative Thielen.

On motion by Representative Thielen, seconded by Representative D. Ige and carried, H.R. No. 58 was adopted.

Representative Thielen rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"The Coalition of Concerned Parents for Education Reform is a Windward community organization of parents and educational activists doing grassroots work to improve Hawaii's public schools.

"Mr. Speaker, these parents are making the difference on the Windward side. They're educating themselves, they're educating the community, they're networking with policymakers and educators, and involving students in the democratic process. And they are doing an outstanding job, Mr. Speaker.

"I think all of our honorees can be especially proud of the fact that the Coalition of Concerned Parents for Education Reform is known for being very informed on educational issues. These parents are committed to realizing excellence in education. They're willing to work hard, and they say again, and again, and again, that education must be this State's top priority.

"The Coalition certainly does its homework when it comes to keeping informed on issues and getting people together to promote positive change in our schools. They held a public forum which a number of us present here today in the Legislature attended. The questions for which they asked us to prepare answers in advance were very difficult. They made us go back and do our homework. I know that doing homework on education and participating in that forum really helped all of us move ahead in our focus on placing education first.

"By definition, a coalition is 'many,' and all deserve our praise, but I want to formally recognize and applaud one of the primary founders of the Coalition of Concerned Parents for Education Reform -- Cynthia Smoot, whom I first met going door to door, walking in my district. We stopped to talk about how to be effective, how to make a difference, and she picked up the ball and really ran with it."

Representative Thielen then asked the following honorees to stand to be recognized:

Cynthia Smoot, "businesswoman, secretary, record keeper, for the Coalition."

Chip Ellis, "a certified public accountant with BHP Petroleum, who is the legal eagle of the organization. Chip was instrumental in getting SCBM going at Benjamin Parker Elementary School."

Brooke Gram, "also a business person. She heads a market research company and coordinates public relations for the Coalition. I think all of us will remember the famous Pink Balloon Day on Opening Day in front of the Capitol, and Brooke is responsible for that organization."

Anne Marie Duca. Anne Marie is Vice Principal of Benjamin Parker Elementary School, and provides the administrative link between the Coalition and Windward schools. She is a very strong supporter of SCBM."

Mary Weir. "Mary is one of the most important of the Coalition members because she is the all-around community volunteer and organizer. Mary was named Volunteer of the Year for the Windward side, and was the 'Saving Grace' for the technology program at Kailua Intermediate School. If not for her efforts, the program would still be without computers today."

"To our honorees, I would like to say ... you are doing an outstanding job, and I thank you very much."

Representative Nekoba then rose and stated:

"As one of the members of that panel, I can vouch for the fact that we had very tough questions, and they all looked across at me and started smiling when we started talking about that. I just wanted to stand because some of the people are people in my district.

"Thank you very much for being such concerned parents for starting this Coalition, and for continuing to make sure that we, along with other parents, and also the students and the teachers, stay concerned about education and try to do our very best to make education the number one priority of the State.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I would just join in commending this group that is concerned with such matters of substance and importance. And, Mr. Speaker, there is a structural correlation between concerned parents and student performance all the time. If the parents are concerned, the students do terrific. So I commend you for what you are doing and in terms of how you are doing it as a coalition.

"I think that's the best of what democracy stands for, and I think what you're doing is the best until we get an issue in referendum against some of you in here who can really get education moving more.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"I would also like to join in the congratulations for this group. They've certainly proven that you can make a difference, and it's really wonderful to see the parents out there with the children, joining us in our effort to make education number one.

"Thank you for all your hard work."

Representative Tam then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I would like to offer my congratulations to our honorees. Last year and the year before, I had the pleasure of working with them ... a very fine group of parents, dedicated towards education. I enjoyed working with you at Maemae School on a demonstration.

"Thank you."

At this time, Representative Thielen asked Cindy Stokes, Frances Reinholt, Lisa Malano and baby, and Mary Ellen Turner and baby, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Thielen then presented a Certificate of Recognition and a floral lei to Cynthia Smoot, and floral leis were presented to the others by Representatives Amaral, D. Ige, Chumbley and Tanimoto.

H.R. No. 59, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND CONGRATULATING THE WAIKIKI ROUGHWATER SWIM ON ITS 25TH ANNIVERSARY," was jointly offered by Representatives Ihara and Bainum.

On motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Bainum and carried, H.R. No. 59 was adopted.

Representative Ihara rose and proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as the resolution noted, the Waikiki Roughwater Swim held its first competition twenty-five years ago with fifty swimmers, and has become the largest roughwater swim in the world. Thus, it is fitting that we honor the organizers of this annual event.

"The Waikiki Roughwater Swim Committee not only provides the residents of our State with a healthy activity in our ocean waters, but manages to attract swimmers from many other countries. The Committee has helped to focus worldwide attention on Hawaii's beautiful waters, and the opportunity to visit and enjoy them although it's not as well-known as the Honolulu Marathon yet.

"The Committee sponsors free clinics before this year's Labor Day 25th Annual Roughwater Swim, and I am sure you will be most welcome to participate.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bainum then rose and stated:

"Not only the residents of Waikiki, but our entire State benefits from this roughwater swim. The health of our residents also is enhanced. If you can swim as far as this roughwater swim course stretches, then you are in pretty good shape. I certainly have friends who have completed this swim, and they have been very proud of themselves, and they should be proud.

"The health of our economy is also benefited by this event.

"No event of this size and this complexity is going to take place without the hard work of a committee of folks that we have visiting with us today. You are to be congratulated on behalf of this State.

"Thank you."

Representative Ihara then asked the following honorees, who were seated on the House floor, to stand to be recognized: Mr. Jim Anderson, President of the Waikiki Roughwater Swim Committee, Dennis Blake, active member of the Committee; Kaia Hedlund, Secretary; and Steve Rudolph, Treasurer.

Representative Ihara then asked Mr. Andrew Ezer, Publicity Director, who was seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Ihara presented Mr. Anderson with a Certificate of Recognition and orchid leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Hirono, Bainum, Isbell and Young.

Senate Bill No. 256 was re-referred jointly to the Committees on Health and Labor and Public Employment, then to the Committee on Judiciary, then to the Committee on Finance.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS (FLOOR PRESENTATIONS)

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 95 to 97) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 95, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CELEBRATING MARCH AS WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH," was jointly offered by Representatives Young, Amaral, Kawakami, Ishii-Morikami, Beirne, Chun, Marumoto, Hirono, Thielen, Isbell and Duldulao.

On motion by Representative Young, seconded by Representative Amaral and carried, H.R. No. 95 was adopted.

Representative Young then proceeded to introduce the honorees, stating:

"As the women in the audience know because of the very generous gift from Representative Suzuki, today is Girls' Day in the Japanese culture. It is also an appropriate time to celebrate March as Women's History Month.

"About ten years ago, when we were lobbying in Congress for Women's History Month to be expanded from a week to a month, some members of Congress argued, 'Why do you need a whole month? There aren't that many women who have made history.' And technically they were right. The role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the body of American history.

"Twenty years ago, a study was made of three thousand children's stories. There were five boy-centered story for every two girl-centered story, three adult male characters for every one adult female character, and six times as many biographies of males than females. Minorities were virtually absent or portrayed in derogatory ways. Most of you did grow up not learning about women's contributions in history.

"But in the last ten years women's organizations, like those we're honoring today, have brought front and center the fact that American women of every race, class and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement, not only to secure their own right of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor union movement, and today's civil rights movement.

"Organizations like the three that we're honoring today are models of many other similar organizations throughout the United States who are setting social policy for the 21st century, and building a community of equals. Their work, their services, their presence provide the support, the inspiration, and yes, even the courage, for many women to achieve their own goals and take their rightful place in our history books.

"Dr. Meda Chesney-Ling, Director of the Women's Studies Program at the University of Hawaii-Manoa, is out of State today, and she herself is a woman who is internationally recognized for her work as a criminologist. But representing the program at the University of Hawaii Women's Study Program which, by the way, members, we funded twenty years ago and it has really made a difference for women at the University of Hawaii.

"Representing the program today is Dr. Ruth Dawson."

Dr. Ruth Dawson then rose to be recognized.

"From the Women's Center at the University of Hawaii, Manoa, is their Director Hediana Utarti," and asked Hediana Utarti to stand to be recognized.

"Representing the Women's Center at the University of Hawaii, Hilo, is Cathleen Heydorn," and asked Cathleen to stand to be recognized. "Cathleen actually symbolizes the future for women. She volunteers at the Center, is the recipient of the University of Hawaii-Hilo's Barbara Alice Mower Scholarship, is majoring in International Political Science, and is an intern in Representative Isbell's Office. She is helping to establish a women's study major at the University of Hawaii, Hilo."

"The next honoree graduated from Punahou and the University of Hawaii. I remember her as one of those young women you just knew were going to be successful.

"Frances joined the Air Force at Hickam Air Force Base in 1953 and received her officer's commission from Lackland Air Force Base the next year. She then attended almost every military school available. In her early years in the military, she served in England and Scotland, being responsible for the operation of tower and ground controlled approach of the aircrafts. She then joined the Air Force Reserve and continued to distinguish herself in her military career. In the interim, she received her Juris Doctor degree from George Washington National Law Center. Her military decorations and awards are numerous and include the Meritorious Service Medal, and the Air Force Commendation Medal. Today, in the community, Frances is the Chief Planner and Executive Assistant to the Director, Department of General Planning, City and County of Honolulu. She is a member of the Daughters of Hawaii, Director of the Bishop Museum, Director of the Girl Scout Council and numerous other organizations. But her name will go down in history as Hawaii's first woman General.

"Members, please congratulate General Frances Mossman," and the honoree rose to be recognized.

"When the word got out that we would be honoring Agnes Conrad today, one of the staff members said, you mean, 'THE ARCHIVIST.'"

"Agnes Conrad is really 'the archivist'. She came to Hawaii in 1950 to work at the University of Hawaii Library. She soon became interested in Hawaii's history and became territorial Archivist in 1955, and then served as the State Archivist until her retirement in 1982. Since then Agnes has served as a trustee and volunteer for several historical organizations, particularly the Foundation for Hawaii Women's History. She has been declared a Living Treasure by the Honpa Hongwanji Mission, a Distinguished Librarian by the Hawaii Library Association, a Fellow by the Society of American Archivists, and given the Preservation Award by the Historic Hawaii Foundation. She has but one desire -- to live long enough to see the phrase, 'men and women' become 'women and men' at least fifty percent of the time.

"Today, we are pleased to bestow the honorary title of State Archivist Emeritus to Agnes Conrad," and asked the honoree to stand to be recognized.

Representative Thielen then rose and stated:

"I know that the women and men on the floor of the House certainly applaud all of you. I would like to say 'Thank You.' I think back twenty years ago, when I was one of a group -- a very small group -- of students and professors that struggled to create the Women's Study Program at the University of Hawaii. We came to the Capitol, the real Capitol, and lobbied to get funding for the Women's Study Program. I still remember one of the kindly senior male Senators looking at all of us and saying ... 'Oh, you girls are so nice. We'll help you out in this one.'"

"Well, that was at least the start. We got the $50,000 appropriation, and we moved ahead to show what women in today's world can do and actually have been doing without real recognition for generations.

"Thank you all for being here."

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"I am very pleased that Representative Young, the Vice Speaker of our House, has introduced this resolution. I think it's about time that we learn more about the contributions which everyone makes to the history of the country and the state, and especially women whose roles have been overlooked for so many years.

"It is really a pleasure to be introduced to all the fine accomplishments by all of you, and I would like to see more of it in the future.

"Congratulations, and please come back again."

Representative Young then rose and stated:

"I would like to add a comment before we proceed.

"Right here in the chambers, sitting beside you, are women making history. They may not even know it and you may not even know it. But the numbers of women legislators in the nation are still few, compared to men. Hawaii ranks 17th in the nation.

"For instance, Representative Mazie Hirono is probably the first, 1st generation Japanese woman to be elected as a State legislator. Representative Suzie Chun, at present, is the only Chinese woman legislator in the United States. Representative Barbara Marumoto, last year, was awarded the Outstanding Republican Woman in the Nation, and the kudos go on. I ask now that the men sitting next to the women of the House honor them with a lei, please."

Certificates of Recognition and floral leis were then presented to the honorees by Representatives Isbell, Chun, Duldulao, Amaral, Kawakami, Beirne, Marumoto, Hirono and Thielen.

H.R. No. 96, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING DR. CLARENCE Y.L. CHINN, AS HAWAII'S '1993 MODEL CHINESE FATHER OF THE YEAR'," was offered by Representative Tam.

On motion by Representative Tam, seconded by Representative D. Ige and carried, H.R. No. 96 was adopted.

Representative Tam proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"It's a great honor today to introduce the Chinese Father of the Year, Dr. Clarence Chinn. Dr. Chinn represents, as you would say in Chinese -- respect the elders.

"Every year, for a number of years -- too many years to remember -- the United Chinese Society has recognized the Chinese Father of the Year, symbolizing in terms of respect for our elders."

Representative Tam then asked Dr. Clarence Chinn, Chinese Father of the Year, to stand to be recognized. Accompanying Dr. Chinn on the House floor was his wife, Mrs. Chinn, who also rose to be recognized.

Representative Tam then asked Dr. Chinn's son, Major Clarence Chinn; his daughter, Lianne Char; and Mrs. Kurokawa, his mother-in-law, who were seated in the gallery, to stand to be recognized.

Representative Lee then rose and stated:

"As a person of Chinese descent, I am very, very pleased to see the honor which Representative Tam has brought to the House by presenting Hawaii's 1993 Model Chinese Father of the Year, as well as the Model Chinese Mother of the Year. My only regret is that my parents could not see where I am today, but you being here honoring the memory of my parents, I am very pleased to be able to serve, not only the Chinese, but the people of Hawaii.

"It's always a pleasure to have this body recognize all the different people that make up this wonderful state, the glorious mosaic which we call Hawaii and its Rainbow Coalition, and not only the Chinese today, but also the women who have made history in Hawaii and, hopefully, in the nation as well.

"So, thank you for this wonderful opportunity to recognize the contributions of so many people, and today, of two distinct groups of people.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

H.R. No. 97, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING MRS. MO CHING LUM CHANG AS HAWAII'S '1993 MODEL CHINESE MOTHER OF THE YEAR'," was offered by Representative Tam.

On motion by Representative Tam, seconded by Representative Suzuki and carried, H.R. No. 97 was adopted.

Representative Tam then rose and proceeded to introduce the honoree, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and fellow colleagues, we are honored today to have a representative of the 1993 Model Chinese Mother of the Year. Unfortunately, our Mother of the Year is not here. She has some difficulty in walking, I understand, being of the age, but she is quite active in the Chinese community which, in our Chinese society truly respects, just as we respected the Chinese Father of the Year for his involvement within the Chinese community.

"If I may add also, the United Chinese Society has been around for many years -- too many years for me to remember and count. Having been a past trustee of the United Chinese Society, it is a very honorable association which is an umbrella organization of over 100 Chinese societies here in the State of Hawaii. It is very pleasing to note that the United Chinese Society every year honors a Chinese Mother of the Year and a Chinese Father of the Year, in due respect to our elders, which is part of our culture and heritage."

Representative Tam then introduced Mr. Wah Tuck Chang, representing his mother; and Mr. Wallace Ching, President of the United Chinese Society, "a very good friend of mine, and I remember the days when I was a trustee and he was a trustee at that time. He was a man of great honor, not only in the Chinese community, but also in the field of business. His father, Clarence Ching, as you may recall, was one of the main developers here in the State of Hawaii -- Loyalty Enterprises."

At this time, Representatives Marumoto and Hirono presented the Certificates of Recognition to Dr. Chinn and Mr. Chang, respectively, while floral leis were presented to the honorees by Representatives Beirne, Hiraki, D. Ige and Tam.

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:10 o'clock p.m.

It takes a million dollars to put this into the publisher's hands and then the free stuff comes back to us versus if we just gave it to the publisher, we'd free up a million dollars which I know a lot of us talked about school books, we've talked about other areas, and it's been where it's not been heeded. So, Mr. Speaker, please register a 'no' vote for me.

Representative Thielen rose to speak against the bill, stating:

"What this bill would do, Mr. Speaker, is it will change, by law, the requirements that you have to have a super majority if you're going to change your corporate structure. The problem with this is that certain shareholders would have purchased shares in a corporation based upon the understanding that the corporate structure or the assets of the corporation could not be sold and the structure could not be changed without a super majority vote.

"In 1987, we have changed that by law that says ... anyone that incorporates from 1987 forward only will require majority vote of shareholders. There is a procedure in the law that says for those corporations incorporated before 1987, if they get the super majority vote of their shareholders, they, too, then, from thence forward, can require action only by a majority vote.

"What we're doing is stepping into the shareholders' position and saying ... we are legislating that those who had relied upon a super majority vote no longer will have that security and anything can be done, including the sale of corporate assets by merely a majority vote.

"I think that's the wrong way to go. I think we should leave this up to the shareholder vote, and so I would suggest that the members look at this and reach their decision. You'll note that there were a substantial number of 'no' votes and one 'with reservations,' so it is a measure which has caused some trouble to some of our members already.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ihara moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and H.B. No. 3610, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Thielen.

Representative Thielen rose and stated:

"I'm standing to speak in support of House Bill 3610, but I would like to give this caution publicly.

"The bill, as originally worded, was rather scary in that it would have allowed the Department of Accounting and General Services to really control activities in public buildings and in public places. We were very concerned in the Judiciary Committee about the broad language, and I would like to point out that we want to make it absolutely clear to DAGS that the passage of this bill in no way is intended to permit DAGS to adopt rules which would impinge upon the rights of our citizens to petition the government for the redress of grievances, to engage in free expression of speech, or to exercise any other right guaranteed by the State Constitution or the United States Constitution.

"The concern was that in trying to be over zealous in controlling public places, DAGS could go too far under its rule-making authority, and at one point the bill even would have allowed DAGS to provide that disobedience of DAGS rules would result in a misdemeanor. So we've taken those punitive sections out of the bill, but we still need to be sure that DAGS does not overextend its authority.

"The concern is, Mr. Speaker, when there are demonstrations of protest, those should be able to take place in public arenas without people being afraid that their exercise of their freedoms to protest would be impinged by a rule-making body such as the Department of Accounting and General Services.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3610, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTING AND GENERAL SERVICES," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Hagino rose to speak in favor of the bill, with some reservations, stating:

"It appears that we're going to institutionalize the commissions with fancy phrases such as 'reinventing government' and whatever is the vogue phrase -- 'the new paradigms' -- or whatever. If we are serious about improving the efficiency of government, it appears to me that we already have a mechanism in the Constitution which is the right of the people, if they so desire, to vote for a constitutional convention every ten years or so, and that really is a binding mechanism by which government may be organized or reorganized and made more efficient.

"I would say that what we should do is to put on the ballot the issue of whether there should be another constitutional convention and have that constitutional convention, if so convened as desired by the people, deal with these issues such as how to institutionalize efficiency in government. That is the better means by which to do these kinds of changes rather than constituting a commission which the past legislative bodies have ignored, and in future legislative bodies will probably continue to ignore, but they cannot ignore the constitutional amendments and the constitutional conventions that are indeed held, and this is the better mechanism, Mr. Speaker."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Kawakami rose and requested waiver of the 48-hour hearing notice requirement to hear House Bills 3093, HD 2; 3325, HD 1; 3465, HD 1; 3466, HD 1; 2241, HD 1; and 3365, HD 2, at 3:30 p.m. today in Conference Room 908, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Okamura: "There will be a Majority caucus to discuss Third Reading bills tomorrow at 2:30 p.m."

Representative Ward then rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, today is a significant day in the history of tourism in that the President of the United States has invoked 301 which says ... if the nation punitively restricts our products into their nation, we can increase punitively their products into ours. Therefore, some of us are going to put together a resolution to ask President Clinton, as the trade war begins between Japan and the U.S., that the first to be punished is going to be Hawaii if Japanese tourists are so inclined to visit here, Mr. Speaker. So I would encourage, if that resolution comes around, that everybody join in moderating, if you will, what looks to be a possibility of escalation of a real serious trade war.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, Representative Marumoto rose and extended birthday greetings to Bitsy Kelley of the Speaker's Office.

At 1:33 o'clock p.m., on motion by Representative Ihara, seconded by Representative Thielen and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 3:00 o'clock p.m. tomorrow, Friday, March 4, 1994.
