Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2166, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I looked through this bill and actually, the intent of this bill is a very good one. We're trying to make sure that medical services get to the child that doesn't have a parent, say a street child or a runaway. However, I do have some concerns about this bill.

"Basically in that attempt though, what I think is it also takes away my right to parent. And the reason why I say that is because this bill and some of the language I get from it, that if you're 14 or older, that you should have the opportunity to seek medical services or parental pregnancy counseling, those type of things. And I think that should be okay, but however, if my child is having a difficulty and maybe has done something and now my child is pregnant at the age of 14, I want to be able to guide and talk and speak through this in a loving way. Whatever decision comes up with that, whatever decision or the outcome is a decision that I think that my parenting should be involved with.

"And what this does is it basically tells doctors and everybody else that if a child comes to you and basically says, 'I don't have a parent,' that, that is reason enough for them to clear out all of the records from ever getting back to the parent to know what had happened with them medically. And at the age of 14, that's really young to be able to not be without parental guidance when you have parents that love and care for you and want to help you through what might be a medically difficult time or emotionally difficult time.

"Mr. Speaker, it's just difficult enough to parent nowadays. I just hope that maybe there's another solution to getting at this problem. Thank you."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure. And this is a follow up of a program and a bill that was introduced some 15 years ago. Primarily it was for the Waikiki Youth Outreach Program. And I think as many of us know, many of the young people who are in Waikiki, as the previous speaker mentioned, are runaways, people who are basically disconnected from their families and their parents. And I think for those of you who are familiar also with the foster care system, many of these kids are those who have abandoned the foster care system or who have left foster care and do not care to return.

"I understand the concerns by the previous speaker, having three daughters myself. I know the ideal situation is to have your children come to you with these problems. But I think we have to look at the intent of this measure. The intent is to provide healthcare to those who would not ordinarily seek it, or who may be discouraged if they have to go out and get their parental approval because that's one of the reasons why they're on their own because they are disconnected from their parents.

"And I think if we want to look at preventing the spread of disease, especially sexually transmitted diseases, we need to look at how we can intervene in these cases and we need to encourage young people to access healthcare, especially those who are at risk. And the kids that we're talking about are very high risk. Not only for sexually transmitted diseases, but other health problems as well. So I hope everyone will look at the intent and not try to apply this to every child because it doesn't. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In strong support. Just to clarify that when we met with the Waikiki Health Center and the proponents of this measure, we specially asked about situations where a minor would come in and we specifically asked them if they would just take the minor's word for it. In the bill it specifically says the consent, there has to be some due diligence where as if the practitioner reasonably believes, and not just take their word for it, reasonably believes that the minor is not under care, supervision, or custody. That's kind of a high standard. It's not as if anybody who comes in and says that, 'I need medical care,' and they're just going to believe the child. Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. The bill really first of all, focuses on all health issues and an unbelievable percentage, a great, great percentage will be basic health issues that the minors wouldn't otherwise access. To focus on family planning or abortion, really is I think a fringe perspective on the bill. But what I want to tell you is what really happens in the clinical setting. When a minor comes in, the doctors, the nurses, the front desk, and the case managers go to great lengths to find support and to actually get consent under any circumstance for anyone. Particular these most vulnerable people.

"Because the goal is to get them healthcare, but to also get them support so the actual actions of the providers in the healthcare setting are to get as much support for those minors. The goal will never be to isolate them and quickly do a procedure or quickly get care without other backup. It will be to encourage the parents or the extended families, or the friends, to help that child. So really this would be to get more healthcare for people in the most safe of ways. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to add a new perspective coming from the medical community. I rise in strong support. As the my colleague from Salt Lake is painting a picture of a 14 year old walking in and saying that she's emancipated or she doesn't have any parents.

"I would like to say that we, in the medical community, are very, very conservative people who don't take those things very lightly, when somebody walks in an emergency room or a clinic and claims that they are. I'm sure that if this bill passes, the medical community will react to it. That they will establish policies and procedures to address this type of concern. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My hope is that this is exactly what it does. That it gets to the street person or the street minor. Being that I have heard from a nurse, and a doctor, and a lawyer and being that this is saying that it's reasonable and the doctors would be conservative in their estimate, I'm going to change my vote from opposition to with reservations. However, Mr. Speaker, I really am concerned about the right of the parent in this and when if this comes out and I hear differently, I might change back to a no vote. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2166, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MINORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Moses voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1564-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2188, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2188, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A COMMISSION ON FATHERHOOD," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1565-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2492, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2492, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OFFENSES AGAINST PROPERTY RIGHTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1566-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. This measure is relating to health and what it's supposed to do is protect the public health and welfare by prohibiting smoking in public places and places of employment.

"However, it exempts State correctional facilities so that indicates to me that we don't care as much about prisoners or our correctional officers, or any other people that are working in our prisons or correctional facilities.

"It also makes the definition of an enclosed or partially enclosed areas to specify that the areas must be closed in by at least two walls. I'm still trying to figure out what a structure with only two walls would look like. So I think that there are problems there.

"But bigger than that, we keep talking about second-hand smoke and yet we all know it's unpleasant, it's noxious, people don't like the smell, but there is no case of a documented death due to second-hand smoke. And yet we devote all this time to second-hand smoke. If we want to get rid of smoking, let's ban cigarettes. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Thank you. I echo the concerns of the previous speaker. The definition of enclosed or partially enclosed areas, it seems to leave a lot of openings for interpretation. And I heard from several employees and several bar owners that if they have smoking in their bar, they have a 35% rule which allows them to I guess gain 35% of their revenues from food, but if they go over that then they cannot have smoking. I think that this smoking ban is more for a restaurant that focuses on food. I think that there's places that smokers like to go and they should be allowed to have that freedom, and as long as there are places for people to eat that's not infused with smoke. I just have some reservations with this bill and I believe that it needs a little bit more work. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. In fact, I rise in the strongest support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, we were elected to protect the people of Hawaii. We were elected to make sure that their health was preserved. This bill will preserve the health of the people of Hawaii.

"A statement was made that second-hand smoke doesn't kill. That is a patently false and reckless statement. Forgive me Mr. Speaker, if I've spoken out of turn. Second-hand smoke does kill. It kills waitresses. It kills children when their parents smoke. And children that don't have a choice to get away from second-hand smoke. We're here to protect the children. We're here to protect the workers. We're here to protect to all of the people of the State of Hawaii, Mr. Speaker.

"When we talk about rights, the rights of someone in a restaurant. They have the right to eat at home. They have the right to go to another place. They have the right to wait to smoke because the real rights lie in the people that are sitting next to them, who are going to inhale smoke, who may have asthma, and have a devastating effect from that smoke, who may have early lung cancer that gets progressed, who have chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

"If we're going to look out for the rights of people, let's look out for all of the people of Hawaii. People can choose to smoke, but they shouldn't choose to smoke next to me if I have lung disease. I think that is far afield of what my right should be.

"We have the opportunity to keep thousands of people from dying over in the future years in the State of Hawaii. I think we should all take it and vote complete unanimously on this measure to ban second-hand smoke in public places."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. It's really great that we're having this debate on the Floor today. And I really appreciate the words of the previous speaker because I believe this is truly what a lot of people believe what he has said. But I want to talk about the other side of the story and that is where I believe this bill has gone way too far.

"What it's done now is, what we're talking about is now we're going to start fining people. So we're turning them into, you could say, criminals because they will get fined now. They will get ticketed by the police if this bill goes forward. And I want to point out some of the ... It's saying here that you cannot smoke in a shopping mall. It says you cannot smoke at a sports arena or at the airport, or stadiums, all these places where the public goes. There's nothing in this bill that says that they will have places to accommodate smokers. It's as if the smokers are these really bad people and we're going to punish them. I have a real problem with the way that this has been drafted and the message that's being sent.

"It's going to be really interesting with all our families and our visitors from the mainland around the world that come here and now we're going to have our police officers walking down the street, ticketing them? , I understand the people that write and why they feel so strongly about it, but I also believe that we're now going to turn people into criminals. People that are going to get fined for what they do and I just think that's wrong.

"And I really can't wait until someday that at the federal level, at the State level, we talk about what has been added into cigarettes and go after the tobacco companies for the things they add to tobacco. Tobacco's been around forever. People have been smoking tobacco forever and to now, somehow now say it's like totally banned, wrong, I think we're going down the wrong path. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I wasn't intending to speak but in listening to the Representative from Kona, I was reminded of the observation that the English philosopher, John Locke, once said. He said, 'Your right to swing your fist ends where my nose begins.' I think that applies to this issue as well. You have the right smoke, but you don't have the right to make others breathe in that smoke. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, some of you can look back to 1984 when the elevators were full of smoke, restaurants were full of smoke, and theaters were full of smoke. And on the Big Island when I was on the Hawaii County Council, we passed the first comprehensive smoking ban throughout the County of Hawaii, which was vetoed by then Mayor Carpenter because of the concerns of having people arrested and so on and so forth. The Council overrode his veto and we have been since 1985, I think it's when we passed it, there have been no problems at all with any of the concerns that people might be arrested for smoking. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. This is a great day for Hawaii. In 1994 when I was coming to this Body to educate you as a member of the Department of Health, Tobacco Prevention Education Project Staff, we looked at Senate Bill 256. In fact that was the last time that I think this Body and also the Senate had an opportunity to vote on tobacco smoking in the work place. A smoking in the work place bill.

"That particular bill didn't pass the good sense test. In fact the governor, Governor Waihee at the time fortunately vetoed it. Twelve years later, we're here today and I can tell you that this bill will do wonders for not only our State, but it'll also encourage other states throughout the nation to do what we're going to be doing today.

"I think if you take a look at the description of this bill, it says it all. It establishes a consistent level of basic protection statewide. As you know Mr. Speaker, the Honolulu City Council and the City and County of Honolulu, as well as the other counties throughout our State, have done quite well in enforcing and setting ordinances for their respective counties. However, the county council cannot set policy for State jurisdictions. And that was our biggest problem in our State because we had effective workplace smoking bans in a number of our counties and yet we did not have anything to address smoking in our workplaces, in our State workplaces except for a Governor's message or Governor's policy, which was set forth by Governor Cayetano a few years ago.

"So I think this bill needs to be supported. We need to encourage the Senate to accept this draft, I think this is a wonderful day as I said before. And those of you, those of our colleagues who don't agree with this bill, I think you should just take a look at what's being done statewide and what our counties have already done because basically what this does is just codifies what the counties have already done. And I think we put everybody on a level playing field.

"And I just wanted to say one another thing in regards to what the Representative from Makakilo said and that is, I trust the experts. And the experts like the good doctor from Kona have said, we are losing 3,000 people nationally each and every day because of tobacco. And I think that says it all. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, second-hand smoke almost killed my son and I don't want to see anyone else have to go through those kinds of trauma. I think this bill is very important. Dave grew up here. He never smoked, and what affected him was the pervasive second-hand smoke that was in the community and everywhere, even in the schools with the teachers smoking at that period of time. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak with some reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, before I go on, I want to incorporate the words of the Representative from Kohala and Kona and I believe that there is a lot of truth that was stated in those remarks. I'm opposed to smoking per se, but I believe this bill has gone a little too far.

"Mr. Speaker and Members, if we're going to look at deaths from second-hand smoke, let's look at deaths from obesity, from too much carbs. Let's look at deaths from all these other cancer inducing food items that we have around and let's fine them too. A person is 20% more overweight, let's fine that person because he is going to be an additional cost to the State of Hawaii and to the nation in providing for the maintenance and the care of the patient. I mean, when will all this end, Mr. Speaker?

"We continue to be a big brother to every problem that we have. We think that we can resolve every situation. As was mentioned before, people have been smoking from time in memorial. Maybe it's not the cigarette per se, but what's in the cigarette that causes this cancer in the lungs because for some nations in Europe and in Asia, the incidence of lung cancer is very low. And they smoke a lot more than we do, so there must be something more to cigarette smoking. But to give into and get this fear of smoking that you're going to fine somebody, we will make it very difficult even for businesses and hotels to continue in business where they will prohibit any smoking areas or limit the smoking areas even more so. It makes it very difficult. This is a very imposing bill. While I support the non-smokers, this bill has gone a little too far, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Souki be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to speak in strong support. I was going to insert my comments into the Journal, but I just realized, and I'm hoping that we can get an agreement on this measure, that this may be our last chance to speak on it.

"I just want to say that, I think for some people this bill goes too far, but for me it doesn't go far enough. And for those who think that we should outright ban cigarettes, I think that's probably the most sensible thing to do. But given what we have today, this is the probably the most progressive, most sweeping public health measure that we have for your Health Committee, Mr. Speaker.

"And I think you know that smoking or controlling smoking has been a top priority for me as your Chair and for the Health Committee for the past several years and I really want to acknowledge publicly the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawaii and organizations like the American Heart Association of Hawaii for their consistent advocacy for the health of the people. This is one measure and one strategy that we can adopt that will improve the health of many people, especially our children.

"And I just want to respond to the concerns about our prisons and public safety. That was actually a request from the Public Safety Department to be exempted because they have people who are institutionalized and have to be in secure situations. But I had a chance to ask even our Hawaii State Hospital if they wanted similar exemptions, but they said no. They were more concerned about the health of their patients and so I hope everyone shares this concern. Not only for themselves, but for the rest of our citizens. So I urge everyone to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support and I'd like to submit some written comments. I'd also like to say that in my opinion that this is probably the most important bill we'll pass this year. And for those of you who don't think second-hand smoke affects other people in a bad way, cancer occurs in a lot of people and many of the cancers that you think are not affected by smoke are things like cervical cancer, cancer of the bladder, cancer in areas of the body that you don't even think are connected to the lungs. So I think it's very important that we don't impose our habits upon other people.

"When I was growing up, my father was a really heavy smoker. My mother never touched a cigarette, but when she died this summer, she basically died of emphysema. She was old but she probably would have lived a few more years without that emphysema. So I think that there's no doubt that if we can get rid of second-hand smoke, that we will decrease the incidence of things like heart disease, emphysema, maybe even bladder cancer, maybe even cervical cancer. So I'd also like to include the remarks of the Representative from Kona because I think his remarks were very germane to this bill. Thank you very much."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"This bill will protect Hawaii residents and visitors from secondhand smoke in public spaces and places of employment. As a member of the Board of the American Cancer Society in Hawaii, I would like to briefly refer Members to the ACS' position paper on the secondhand smoke topic.

Each year in the United States, secondhand smoke is responsible for:

An estimated 35,000 to 40,000 deaths from heart disease in people who are not current smokers;

About 3,000 lung cancer deaths in nonsmoking adults;

Other respiratory problems in nonsmokers, including coughing, phlegm, chest discomfort, and reduced lung function;

150,000 to 300,000 lower respiratory tract infection in children which result in 7,500 to 15,000 hospitalizations; and

Increases in the number and severity of asthma attacks in about 200,000 to 1 million asthmatic children.

"The bill had almost unanimous support before the Health Committee, as most reasonable people agree that secondhand smoke is a public health menace. This is a Women's Caucus bill and I urge my colleagues to support it for the myriad of health benefits that will result. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again I want to remind the Body I'm rising with reservations. I'm pointing out some problems with the bill as it moves along. I believe also that it must be noted that people died of cancer and emphysema and all those things before smoking, without smoking, and in places where there isn't smoking. It's not the sole cause of any of those diseases. In fact, it may not be the cause of those diseases. Some people get those diseases anyway. And what I had stated about no cases of death, that's true. As far as I know, there are no documented cases where the cause of death is listed as second-hand smoking. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very briefly, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. The Coalition for Tobacco Free Hawaii is one of my clients, but I do corporate work for them and nothing related to this bill whatsoever," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Evans and Nakasone voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1567-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2485, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2485, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm voting against this measure and I wanted to explain why. Thank you and Mr. Speaker, in the interest of saving time, these remarks also will be relevant to another measure that we'll be considering later, Senate Bill 2954. Thank you.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be quoting from the Earthjustice testimony before the Committee on Finance. Earthjustice states in part that this bill and the other bill I mentioned, 'provides funding support for former-plantation ditch systems, diverting water from public streams. This substantial mobilization of State resources to support these systems is premature,' according to Earthjustice, 'and unwarranted, particularly since the State still has not fulfilled its primary obligation under the constitutional public trust doctrine, to protect and restore stream flows.' Based upon Earthjustice's extensive background with the Waiahole case, it emphasizes the negative ramification of these bills on the public interest.

"Mr. Speaker, Earthjustice comments that 'Hawaii's history tells us the irrigation systems these bills seek to support, were originally built by plantation interests who assumed that water was their property and ignored the impacts of diversion on public streams, on local farmers, and communities.' But with a landmark ruling of the Hawaii Supreme Court, our Court made it clear that water is a public trust resource and that the State has a responsibility as a trustee to protect and restore public streams being diverted by the plantation ditch system.

"Now these bills propose to establish extensive funding mechanisms to improve the plantation ditches and continue their diversion of stream flows. Particularly given the lack of proper instream flow standards, Earthjustice believes this proposal is premature and places an inappropriate emphasis on diverting, rather than protecting public streams. Earthjustice concludes, 'In short, these bills promote a backward, "fund first, plan later" approach to funding agricultural improvements.' They conclude, 'As the Waiahole case vividly demonstrates, such an approach will lead to waste, ad hoc planning, arbitrary decision making, and protracted litigation.' Thank you Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2485, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 9:20 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills, passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2065, SD 2, HD 1	S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3078, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. Senate Bill 3078, HD 1, authorizes the LRB to conduct a study identifying the elements that should be included in Hawaii's agribusiness plan to assist the Agribusiness Development Corporation.

"In Committee, the Department of Agriculture, and the Agribusiness Development Corporation did not offer testimony in support of this bill. They only offered comments on the need for Hawaii's agricultural community to collectively provide input and develop a strategic plan for Hawaii's agriculture, and they suggested using the Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation's 2004 strategic plan as a starting point for discussion.

"Also HARC, the Hawaii Agriculture Research Corporation, they did not support this measure and they did not see the need for yet another study to be conducted. The cost to gather complete information and develop each part of the proposed plan would be significant. Additionally, adequate resources would need to be provided to ADC to complete the Agribusiness Development Plan. For these reasons, I cannot support the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3078, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Stevens and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1571-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2708, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2708, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCHOOL FACILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Stevens and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you on 1573, Mr. Speaker. I rise to express some reservations on this particular measure. Good public education requires a lot of money so we should not skimp on our children. However, neither should we spend money willy-nilly. We should spend it wisely.

"I understand there is $508 million in the Department of Education construction pipeline now. That is over half a billion dollars. It is moving slowly, sluggishly. The DOE can't spend it as fast as we can appropriate it. Yes, I favor more money for R&M, repair and maintenance. I support more resources for school CIP. I am happy this bill appropriates dollars and the amount is unspecified for DOE operations. I'm glad we're giving UH more construction money through this measure. And it's about time we formally recognize the virtues of Certificates of Participations, COP, for new school construction.

"Regarding COPs, I do think however, that we should have the Department of Budget and Finance control the amount of financial obligations owed by the State. If B&F doesn't control debt, then it could adversely affect the credit rating of the State. And how in the heck does the Governor draw up a financial plan without control over these expenditures.

"But back to the amounts in the bill. The appropriations are staggering. $100 million for repair and maintenance, when the pipeline is practically plugged. Another $50 million for unspecified CIP. Yes, the need is there, but is there not a need to fund schools determined to be under-funded by the new weighted school formula. I say, spend the money a little more judiciously, where it is needed and where it can be used right away. Don't park it where it cannot be used, where it will sit idle. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I would like to also express my reservations on this bill for the similar concerns as the previous speaker. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of the measure, particularly in support of that portion that adopts the language and the concept of the bill that the Chair of Education and I introduced either last Session or the year before. Mr. Speaker, this is allowing the Department of Education to proceed with public-private partnerships and to build new schools. Actually to demolish those that are not worth repairing, build a new school structure, and then lease back the school from the private developer and ultimately own this school at the end of that period of time.

"Mr. Speaker, this is the idea that has been used by the military as it's renovating the military housing. It's a very successful approach and I was glad to see this bill adopt that procedure and I look forward to it being successful. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Reservations. I'm just very concerned about the blanket approach to incurring debt without going through Budget and Finance and how it makes it impossible for the State to make a 6-year financial plan."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill has many good things in it, but as the good Representative from Makakilo stated, that one provision where the DOE can go ahead and borrow money and put the State into debt, I think is a very dangerous provision. So I have reservations."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I do support of course, money that goes to R&M and CIP. One of the things that I have reservations about is basically how we fix and how we build schools in regards to priorities. And I mentioned this before, in regards to what are our priorities here at the Legislature, versus the priorities of the schools, or the priorities of the DOE and before we go into investing more money, I really do think that the priorities, either of the DOE or of the school, should come first before our own priorities in regards to building schools or repairing them."

"Also there are other pieces to this puzzle that I'm a little bit unclear on how they work together so my reservations will be on the overall big picture as well."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Stevens and Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3101, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Stevens and Stonebraker being excused.

S.B. No. 2708, SD 2, HD 1

At 9:29 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:37 o'clock a.m. with Vice Speaker Takai presiding.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1575-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3195, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3195, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I've talked about this throughout the Session. Basically, the appropriations and the way we appropriate money and what we're supposed to do with the weighted student formula, or what we're trying to accomplish through the weighted student formula. And I was really happy to see that there was $20 million in appropriation. But the main thing about the $20 million is we want to be able to see that $20 million go down to the school level and make sure there are no strings attached."

"Whenever we put money in or, whenever we appropriate money to either the DOE or to the schools and programs and line items and all of that stuff, it's just like a puppet on a string. We have the power and we're kind of like telling them, 'Okay, this is what you got to do. Move your right hand. Move your left hand.' when really the whole part of weighted student formula is to allow the schools to be able to choose what are their priorities and make sure that those priorities, first and foremost are funded before some of the other things."

"Now just last week we saw in the gallery a whole bunch of red jackets, and that was a program called, they changed their name one time and anyway, I went to the their dinner last week. SkillsUSA. And I went to that program and I saw the glow in the kid's eyes as they were competing, they were so excited. There were schools from Kapolei and Mililani. And Radford actually had all these national place winners."

"I was so proud of the fact that Radford had such a great history in this program. Well what was one of the hardest things that I have ever had to do in regards to people lobbying and coming to the Capitol, because they came to my office and they said, 'Please, you just cut my program.' And I said, 'No, we didn't cut your program. I want you to know what we're doing here is we're trying to get it so that you can have your program and so can another school have the programs that they really want.' And we can't do this if we continue to go around this line of line item budgeting and categorical funds and all of these appropriations that basically say, 'You need to spend your money in this way.' The $20 million along with all the rest of the appropriations and operational appropriations should be going down to the school level with no strings attached."

"Now I realize that the history of the relationship between the Department of Education and the Legislature and all of this kind of stuff, that there needs to be improvement on the trust going both ways. And those are the kinds of things that we can do, the things that we can do to improve these relationships is to basically say, 'Hey, this is the direction that we're going on.' When it gets down to the school level that we can explain to them that this is the way that we're going to appropriate money. We want to be able to let go of the strings. We want to be able to cut the strings so that you have flexibility, but these things all need to work in concert with each other."

"There's some significant things that'll be coming up in regards to the Committee on Weights and hopefully seeing some of those changes being made. But in the meanwhile, if we continue to send this message that we're not fully behind the weighted student formula, it's choking off the kinds of things that you can do at the school level. I said that in what we're doing, we're protecting the centralized system at the expense of the counselors and librarians and teachers at the school level. And I really want to make sure that people understand this so that we can move towards more flexible spending at the school level. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will vote for this measure, but express some reservations. This bill will apply a small cold compress of cash on the huge wound caused by the application of the new weighted school formula. But it is an insufficient remedy to ease the pain of large budget cuts. What will be the final amount? I hope more than $23 million when we really need much more.

"With a $600 million surplus, I do not understand why so many schools must suffer. It is death to school excellence, not by a thousand cuts, but by large slashes in the body corporate. If weighted school formula is allowed to progress, it will eventually damage the vital organs.

"Under the weighted school formula, some schools suffer cuts. Others will pick up money. Why can we not apply some money from the large general fund surplus or money from the overfunded and slow moving Facilities Funds to help our underfunded schools. Why throw it at racetracks, tax credits, special funds? Why park it in all sorts of corners? Why put it into a high tech investment fund that may reach $400 million in 4 years? Parents do not understand this and I do not understand this. We should use our taxpayer's precious money to fund the schools deemed under-funded. Too many of our so-called over-funded neighborhood schools will lose programs and personnel. This is not the way to educational excellence. It is, 'robbing Peter to pay Paul' and it is criminal.

"The formula must go back to the Board of Education drawing boards for revision. Allowances must be made for small schools. Schools need their librarians, but we can make some adjustments with this bill during this Session before we adjourn sine die. There is time colleagues, to properly fund education. Let's put our surplus to good use. Doctors are told do no harm. I say, legislators, do no harm to the schools in your district. Help the underfunded schools. Budget cuts in times of plenty are not acceptable. Mahalo."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Frankly Mr. Speaker, I'm very please to hear the previous speaker assert that we need more dollars into the Education budget. I fully support that. As you know Mr. Speaker, the Executive budget didn't allocate a single penny more to be given to the weighted student formula. The House budget allocates an additional $20 million more. My understanding is the Senate budget allocates even more.

"If you want to fund the schools adequately, we can take the dollar amount given by the study that was done by the Department of Education two years ago. That came up to $278 million. I will more than welcome next year, a bill from the other side appropriating those kinds of dollars to show that we are serious.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, under the current weighted student formula, it is true, 140 schools of the 283 schools, supposedly lost dollars. There are 140 schools with 140 different stories of why this is so. Let me give you one example.

"Take Hahaione Elementary School in Aiea, and take Kalihi Kai Elementary School in, of course Kalihi. Hahaione Elementary School has seven times fewer children who do not speak English as their first language, and seven times fewer children who come from disadvantaged backgrounds. In other words they do not qualify for reduced lunch as compared to Kalihi Kai. In other words, Kalihi Kai conversely has seven times more of these types of students. Under the previous funding formula, Hahaione Elementary School received $300 more per student than Kalihi Kai. Well, the previous speaker might say, 'Well, that's just the way it is.'

"The fact of the matter is Mr. Speaker, the dollars under the weighted student formula are going to the schools on the basis of the kinds of students they have. Did that result in some schools losing dollars? Absolutely, but the way to look at in another light is to say, perhaps now is the time that schools like Kalihi Kai, and Farrington High School, and Waipahu High School, and Nanaikapono Elementary School, and so on, receive the dollars they should have been getting all these years on the basis of the kinds of students that they had.

"Is it enough? The answer is no, because again we are not increasing the base budget of the Department by $278 million, and I do not see us doing that this Session. But the fact remains that under the current weighted student formula, did it at least address the reality that some schools in the past did not get the kind of resources that they should have been getting? I think the answer is, yes.

"Thirdly, Mr. Speaker, under the current Committee on Weights, as you know Act 51 required that the Committee on Weights meets on an annual basis to tweak and amend and modify the formula, and then propose that to the Board for their approval. The current Committee on Weights is meeting, and I can assure the Members of this Body that they are certainly looking at an amount faced by the small schools.

"Mr. Speaker, let's not fool ourselves. The weighted student formula was never meant to reward or punish small schools, medium schools, or big schools. It was never meant to address whether school is a Blue Ribbon School or is currently in restructuring. All it really did was to take an inadequate amount of dollars and reallocate those dollars in a way that made sense and that is transparent. Do not foist upon the weighted student formula something that it was never meant to be. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill. Thank you. I come from a different perspective, from the school level, as well as a community organizer. And one of the challenges we had in our Committee was to look at the intention of Act 51 as it was meant to not only bring parity to the schools, but also reinvent education means to do it a different way. So this bill enables schools to mitigate the pain that change incurs.

"This change, as I am finding working with my complex schools in East Honolulu, is that the schools are compelled to work with their communities, their students, their businesses, their parents, teachers, even students, to reassess what's happening in the classrooms. And if I understand the intent of Act 51, because I wasn't here when it was created. The intent is actually to view schooling differently so that achievement occurs and that we focus on the children. We focus on what's right for their young people and their students, and not how to keep a system the way the system wants to be. As a former classroom teacher, the easiest thing for me to do is to take material that was handed down to me, or take what I do every year and do the same thing with the students that I have this year.

"The challenge of these schools, that they're trying to face now is to really address the question, number one, who are the students that we're having in our classroom? Because with district exceptions as schools begin to change their populations, the challenge becomes to really identify who are the young people in our classrooms.

"The second thing that happens is that this bill eases the pain as the conversations are occurring within the schools, as well as within the complexes, as to what ways can we best meet the needs of these specific children. Not, how can we help each of us stay the same.

And yes, it will create the conversation of whether librarians are necessary. But the bigger conversation is what do librarians do for instance, that is so critical in the classroom that they can be retained.

"One of the other things that I think that this bill does is it creates and compels us to have the dialogue in every school community which is as an educator, very welcomed. It is painful. And my colleagues and I have talked extensively as to how do we bring a sense of this dialogue. And on that note I'll end by saying that I commend our Committee for wrestling with this, and hope that all the schools will look at this as an opportunity to continue improving student achievement in the classroom. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Unfortunately, I must speak with reservation on this measure. I believe that the current appropriation of $20 million or so, which might be used for the weighted formula shows that there is some problems with the weighted formula, and there's some pain. And the question is: was the pain necessary, and is the pain necessary? And this is one of the reasons that I am voting with reservation.

"I believe that there will be other ways to resolve the method rather than to take away. And it's in good faith. I know the Chairman acted in good faith, and the Committee acted in good faith. But I believe in the future we need to resolve this problem that we have among the schools, this receive and take away.

"When a school is getting $32 million, and the other school loses $32 million, that's a takeaway. And you know that there's going to be pain involved. Mr. Speaker, with this, I hope that in future that there will be some major reservations to this. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just rising in support. Thank you. I realize that this is not a perfect mechanism and I think there are some concerns, but I wanted to note my support for some of the items that this bill does fund. I think that they are needed improvements to the educational system. So I'm in support of specifically Section 6 and Section 7 of the bill, and would like to ask for additional written comments to be inserted in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. I have concerns regarding the ambiguity of appropriations in the bill. While this issue is particularly problematic, I do support sections of the bill, which relate to appropriations that are an asset and compulsory in our education system.

"This bill appropriates $2,400,00 to provide $200 debit cards to each of twelve thousand teachers to purchase classroom supplies, along with $1,193,663 for English as a second language services, including instruction, transitional bilingual support, and multicultural education services."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of SB 2774, SD 2, HD 1. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of SB 2774, SD 2, HD 1, will support some of the significant adverse affects due to the recent announcement of pending closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce. Currently, many employees, retirees, and their families live in plantation homes owned by the company at the Kunia and Poamoho camps. With the closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce, many of these families face the possibility of losing their homes.

"SB 2774, SD 2, HD 1, will allow the above-mentioned parties to conduct joint efforts to assess and take action on housing issues and other concerns in this closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce.

"This measure would allow for establishment of supportive services such as low interest loan or grant programs for the acquisition, rehabilitation, or reconstruction of homes in the Kunia and Poamoho camps for the pineapple workers or retirees displaced by this recent closure.

"I grew up in the Mill Camp of the Waialua Sugar Plantation in the 1950s and '60s. Plantation camps were once a way of life that so many of Hawaii's rich cultural traditions were preserved, shared and then passed on through the generations. There was a sense of kinship, love, trust, gratitude, ethnic tolerance and pride shared among those who lived with in the camps. These are the values that make Hawaii a truly great State, and they were forged in the sugar and pineapple plantation camps. It is ironic that as we celebrate the 100th year anniversary of the Filipino immigration to Hawaii, we say goodbye to the plantation era that promised them a good life so many years ago. For me, the loss of the way of life is as important as the end of an industry.

"We now have a serious obligation to help the workers transition to another life. We also have a responsibility to remember the plantation camps with gratitude for the values they instilled to generations of Hawaii's people.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill. Malama pono."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no on this matter. Conceptually, it is a very good concept to have some type of standardization of forms, but this is another one of our famous unfunded mandates. We are asking the Department of Labor to develop standardization of forms for providers, employers, employees, but we have no mechanisms of funding for this.

"We're at the age and stage of our lives where we should be looking very seriously at electronic medical records, and we're doing it in the private community, but the step child, workers' comp does not seem to be getting any of this attention.

"I see in some past testimony that the Department of Labor has asked and begged for at least a $5 million funding appropriation so as to initiate and install electronic records at DCD. This is the least we can do if we're going to be mandating, standardization.

"The work comp system is already overwhelmed with the hassle factor. There's a friction between employers, employees, the Department, providers, because it's so difficult to communicate, which then again drags things out so then we have problems with employees not getting prompt, efficient care.

"I need to vote no with a resounding message that if we can find it in our hearts in Finance to get some type of funding specifically for DCD to achieve this, I will be back at the end of the Session with a resounding yes, and I will even offer to assist everyone in getting this done. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3090, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STANDARDIZED FORMS FOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Harbin voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm in favor of this measure and I would like to express some reservations. The film industry is one that Hawaii wants to promote. It's a clean industry and provides good paying jobs and highlights our beautiful scenery and usually wonderful weather.

"We should provide tax credits and promote a film and video curriculum at our universities. State and county governments should expedite permits and locations for this favored industry.

"But I do have reservations on the bill before us and it has to do with the title, Digital Medium. Digital technology is involved not just in film production, but is used in TV commercials, DVDs, videos and musical productions. And although the language of this bill speaks of film production, the application of the tax benefits provided herein may inadvertently extend to all types of digital medium. And while we specify an $8 million per project cap on each production, we do not know how many projects DBEDT film office would authorize. There could be several qualified productions going on at one time, so perhaps we need an annual dollar cap for this tax break.

"I ask the Conferees on this measure to tighten up the language so as to help the film industry, and only that industry. That's the intent of this bill. It should be written to attract new film ventures to Hawaii and not necessarily help those who are already here. This is a worthy measure, Mr. Speaker, and one on which we should focus our attention. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2570, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DIGITAL MEDIA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2898, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, my apologies on Standing Committee Report 1590, S.B. No. 2898. I would like to ask for a ruling on potential conflict of interest. Similar to the other times this bill has come before us and I had been excused, these are one of my clients and I advise them on procurement," and the Chair ruled "you are excused."

Representative Kawakami rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 2898, SD2, HD2, Relating to Procurement. This measure seeks to raise the current procurement threshold for small purchases from $25,000 to $50,000. In addition, this measure will establish the Chief Executive Officer of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation as the Chief Procurement Officer.

"This measure is particularly beneficial to the Neighbor Island hospitals that are often hampered by the current threshold of $25,000 enacted in 1993. The west end Kauai Veterans' Memorial Hospital has had great difficulty in terms of procurement under the current threshold, by raising the level of small purchases to $50,000, Hawaii Health Systems Corporation will be able to operate more efficiently and have greater autonomy to meet the needs of their clients expeditiously.

"Not only will this measure benefit Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, but the Judiciary, Senate, House, Office of Hawaiian Affairs, University of Hawaii, and the Department of Education as well by affording each department with a deeper threshold of purchasing powers.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2898, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Herkes voting no, and Representatives B. Oshiro and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3059, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, there's been some debate on whether or not we should have a mandatory curriculum, statewide curriculum, or what we have here, which is an optional or recommended model curriculum. I just wanted to explain why I am in favor of the model curriculum instead of the mandatory curriculum.

"Basically when the State came up with its standards, it told all the schools that they needed to come up with their curriculum. So some schools went out and they actually put together their own curriculum. Other schools went out and bought curriculum. And so right now if we were to do a one-size-fits-all type of mandate on a statewide curriculum, it would really be basically, a message to the different schools that what they went through in creating this curriculum to meet the standards, that it would be like a basically waste of their time. And I know that they put in a lot of time and energy.

"So by making this optional, it allows these schools that may feel like, well maybe we could improve upon our curriculum, we can take a look at this model curriculum in ways that we can improve our curriculum. They can also adopt it if they think that theirs doesn't meet the standards, but it gives them this option.

"Now through this, one thing that I did learn is that this allows, this gives them guidance on what to teach, but doesn't necessarily tell them how to teach. And that was one of the big issues for the teachers. Another big issue for the teachers that I spoke with is that they spent so much time, for those who have chosen to do their own curriculum. They spent so much time and energy on this, that something like this in combination with the implementation of the standards would have been helpful back then. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. I feel somewhat the opposite of our Minority Leader. I think what we really need in our school system is a mandatory curriculum.

"The way things are now, if the students transfers from one public school to another, because of the great differences in curriculum, they might find themselves either way ahead or way behind because they may be on a totally different study cluster because the schools are not working in coordination with each other. There was an editorial in the Advertiser just a few days ago that was in support of a mandatory curriculum. I just feel that this bill, making it voluntary, doesn't move us any closer to an improved educational system. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3059, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1592-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Thank you. This bill allows DHHL, the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, to take control of the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust Fund and invest those funds in investment vehicles of its choosing in search of higher yields. This is contrary to common financial practices, which promote fiscally conservative policies when handling trust funds, promoting a long-term safety of the trust over chasing higher yields.

"When handling trust funds it's common for banks and other fiduciaries to invest only in government bonds or related high-quality instruments that have lesser yields, but the highest degree of safety.

"My concern with this bill Mr. Speaker, is that there's a simple principle here. Higher yields mean higher risks, and when handling the core trust funds which DHHL holds on behalf of its beneficiaries, the pursuit of safety and security is not a vice.

"Exemptions from standards and statutory provisions for the handling and investment of public funds should only be granted on the basis of compelling reasons because those standard provisions have repeatedly proved necessary to prevent common errors and breaches of trust. There's no persuasive case that I can see from testimony, and even from the needs of DHHL at the moment, for exempting them.

"So I rise in opposition, and I also urge my colleagues to look more closely at this particular Department because at the moment, what I'm finding is that they, although on surface they are looking as if they fulfilling their fiduciary responsibilities to their beneficiaries, in reality I think there's a lot more going on. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1593-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3146, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3146, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to disclose a potential conflict on Standing Committee Report 1593-06. My wife serves on the board of Queen's Hospital, and I think they may be one of the beneficiaries," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3146, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1594-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3205, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3205, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HUMAN SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 10:07 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills, passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1294, SD 2, HD 1	S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 2150, SD 1, HD 1	S.B. No. 3146, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 2898, SD 2, HD 2	S.B. No. 3205, SD 2, HD 1

S.B. No. 3059, SD 2, HD 1

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1595-06) recommending that S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Thank you. This bill appropriates funds to support deregulation of genetically modified papayas so that they can enter the Japanese market, and further for the development and implementation of a marketing plan to promote genetically modified crops.

"The danger is that this bill commits the State to a position that runs contrary to public opinion in much of the world, and runs the danger of associating Hawaii in the minds of international consumers with what they view as potentially unwanted genetically modified crops.

"We're far from a consensus on this issue of consuming genetically modified crops, and this measure puts the State in front despite the lack of a consensus. In our Committee, we passed a measure that was actually pretty revolutionary, I guess looking at the history, to explore this further and to ask the companies that are doing these kind of experimental and non-experimental products to be more transparent.

"So my concern is that the very real risk associated with being wrong if we are certain that genetic modifications are healthy, then we can certainly wait on this kind of measure. I would hate us to be on the forefront of being looked at as a GMO state. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Morita rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in opposition to this measure and I also would like to adopt the words from the Representative from Aina Haina as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"I rise in opposition to this measure whether real or perceived, there is a real distaste for GMO crops worldwide. Right here in Hawaii there's a growing excitement over Whole Foods coming to Honolulu, but you can be sure that they won't be selling Rainbow papayas there.

"Where there is no consumer demand or support for GMO crops, the only way the US can export its GMO crops to other countries is to strong-arm these countries through trade agreements. So why are we appropriating funds to promote a GMO crop in markets that do not support GMO foods. It's a bad investment."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Berg and Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. If it were not for the research that was done to cure the problem of Ringspot Virus, we would have probably no papayas on the market. This took many years to take care of that problem. The University was right out front trying to solve the problem. Today the papaya industry is struggling to get anywhere near where they were about 15 years ago.

"Personally, I can't tell the difference between a Rainbow papaya and a Kapoho Solo papaya. I think the papayas are a very good grade. The Japanese tourists who come here enjoy them. I think that we should be supporting our diversified ag industry. And papayas have gotten a bad rap because of this almost near hysteria about genetically modified foods. This is a small thing we can do to support diversified ag, which we do a lot of talking about here on this floor, that we want to support them. And so I'm disappointed at all this testimony against this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Morita and Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. I think that we need to protect our agricultural industry. We have been known to be the exporters of papaya. And a lot of the farmers, my family farmers on the Big Island rely on papaya for their livelihood. I think this is a measure to protect our small-time farmers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support. This is one of the primary agricultural products of my district in Puna. And a few years ago the whole papaya crop was destroyed, the Kapoho papayas, because of the virus. And only because of the engineering that was done by the head at Cornell University, who is now the head of the Pacific Basin Agricultural Facility in Hilo, the papaya industry was revived. And this is one of the very few profitable areas in my area that can support our economy and I don't think this will hurt anybody who is against genetically modified papayas because this has been tested. I eat it myself all the time, and I hope all of you will live to my age. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. I was representing Puna when the Ringspot hit, and I understand the value of what happened to saving the papaya crop, but my concern is the potential impact on Kona coffee. Thank you."

Representative Abinsay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just very briefly in support. And if I can just mention what are the intents of these GMOs. The Committee Report, it ensures the development and implementation of a marketing plan to promote transgenic and non-transgenic Hawaiian papaya in Japan, and in future markets including China and the European Union. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, and just a short comment. Today, the industry that almost got wiped out, the Kapoho papaya, is fully thriving and that is being exported to Japan right now through the heat treatment process. The most popular papaya being consumed in our tourist resort areas is the Rainbow papaya. There is no evidence that the genetically modified Rainbow papaya cannot coexist with the ordinary Rainbow papaya. And I strongly support this measure. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Berg, Carroll, Morita, Schatz, Shimabukuro, Takumi and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1596-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2949, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2949, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am rising in support, but just with a couple of reservations. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the Ombudsman already has the authority to do what this bill asks him to do. I think that there could be a very practical solution. And the practical solution would be that the Department would put into every contract between an out-of-state facility that the Ombudsman would have the authority to investigate such issues and it could just be handled that way. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I heard this measure both in Public Safety and in Finance Committee. I'm rising with reservations. Thank you. The purpose of the bill is to provide the Office of the Ombudsman the authority to investigate out-of-state private or federal correctional facilities that have contracts with the Department of Public Safety to house Hawaii inmates. That's fine.

"But it goes on in the bill, it says the Ombudsman shall investigate any incident or death or riot occurred or person committed to the custody of the Director of Public Safety, including a person held at a out-of-state facility, sustaining serious bodily injury as a result of actions taken by an employee of the Department of Public Safety and an employee of an out-of-state facility or another person held in custody.

"The Ombudsman, first of all, does have the authority already, to respond to any cases brought before him, whether it be by family member or the inmates themselves. And they can investigate their complaints and they do, do that they say, and they refer them to the Attorney General or to the Department of Public Safety. Or they say the can refer them out. I'm not quite sure what that means.

"The Ombudsman doesn't believe that they should handle death or riot cases because of possible legal actions. They say it could jeopardize the case. So I think the measure does need some fixing as it goes along. And in fact, your Committee on Finance stated that they noted several amendments were offered by the Ombudsman to better clarify the intent of the measure and the role of the Ombudsman, but they didn't want to take action because it's out of the purview of that Committee. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in strong support of this measure. The genesis of this bill was the death of an inmate, Sarah Ah Mau, from Hauula, who died in Kentucky. I'd like to see this bill go forward, but as was stated in Committee, the Ombudsman would need sufficient funding if he's going to have this kind of additional duty. We're actually adding the administrative acts of out-of-state facilities to his jurisdiction and this would require additional funds. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2949, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Nishimoto and Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2838, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE COMPREHENSIVE SCHOOL ALIENATION PROGRAM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Nishimoto and Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. The Chair then announced:

"Members, I'd just like to remind you that we're on Third Reading, however, this discussion that we've been having is good. But if we continue to discuss some of these bills at length we're going to be here till close to 12 midnight. So if I can encourage us, as much as possible, to insert written comments into the Journal. As much as possible. I'm not saying that we can't speak either in favor or against, but as much as possible, written comments please."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for that, except that I feel that the discussion, the debate is very important. I wouldn't have been alerted to the issue that was brought up on Standing Committee Report 1595 have we not had this kind of debate. And so I hope that Members will not hold back when they have important things to say. I hope that they will speak up. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 10:21 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills, passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1	S.B. No. 2838, SD 2, HD 2

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. The purpose of this bill is to appropriate funds to conduct a study on the feasibility of constructing a wastewater treatment facility for the Kapoho Vacationland estates and farm lots, and public restrooms at the Wai O Pae Marine Life conservation district on the island of Hawaii.

"I realize Mr. Speaker, that this is very, very far from my district, but in light of the recent events of wastewater spillage in Waikiki, I believe that this is clearly a timely example of a prevention being very, very important and much more effective than the cure of what we're experiencing down in Waikiki. So I'm in strong support of this. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2480, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WASTEWATER MANAGEMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On 1606, Relating to Agriculture, irrigation repair and maintenance. I'm voting against this Mr. Speaker, and I would like to reference my earlier remarks on Senate Bill 2485 and Earthjustice's remarks," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 2954, SD2, HD2, Relating to Agriculture, which establishes a tax credit for matching funds provided by landowners who receive funding from a proposed irrigation repair and maintenance special fund. The Department of Taxation was concerned about requiring the Department to pass any personal tax information from recipients of the credit to the BOA because of current confidentiality laws. The Department of Budget and Finance also does not support the creation of any special fund that does not meet statutory requirements, stating that there should be a distinguishable nexus between the benefits and charges of the fund, and that the special fund should be appropriately financed and financially self-sustaining. The Tax Foundation also raised the point that with the tax credit and matching funds, the State would ultimately be footing the bill for 100% of the cost for improvement."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Abinsay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Very briefly Mr. Speaker, this is just a follow up of what we addressed last Session as far as identifying IAL, important agricultural lands. I think we are just being proactive here to make sure that we have recognition of the importance of agricultural lands, we also recognize the importance of the availability of water, and this is going to address that. Thank you very much."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I just want to note that the original amount requested in the measure was $11.866 million. So it's a lot of money and it's going to be general fund money going into the account. And once we have the account, it's a special fund, and you know I do not favor special funds. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2954, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2246, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE I OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII RELATING TO SEXUAL ASSAULT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

S.B. No. 2246, SD 1, HD 2, passed Third Reading in the following form:

S.B. No. 2246, SD 1, HD 2

A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE I OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII RELATING TO SEXUAL ASSAULT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to propose an amendment to article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to provide that the legislature may define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age and what constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction.

Under current Hawaii law, it is difficult to prosecute those who repeatedly sexually assault a child, because of the difficulty young children have in remembering the individual dates on which they were sexually assaulted. This amendment would allow the legislature to enact a law that would permit juries to convict a person of the continuous sexual assault of a minor younger than fourteen years of age, if each member of the jury was convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant had sexually assaulted the child the required number of times (such as three), even if there were not unanimity as to the individual assaults. This would make it easier to prosecute those who repeatedly sexually assault a child.

The legislature passed such a law in 1997, but that law was invalidated by the Hawaii supreme court. An amendment similar to this amendment was proposed to the voters in 2004 and the amendment was invalidated by the Hawaii supreme court.

SECTION 2. Article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"SEXUAL ASSAULT CRIMES AGAINST MINORS

Section . In continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age, the legislature may define:

1. What behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct; and

2. What constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction."

SECTION 3. The question to be printed on the ballot shall be as follows:

"Shall the Constitution of the State of Hawaii be amended to provide that in continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age, the legislature may define:

(1) What behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct; and

(2) What constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction?"

SECTION 4. New constitutional material is underscored.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall take effect on July 1, 2020, and upon compliance with article XVII, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1610-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2980, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2980, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On 1610, Relating to Education, I'm in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, just a few words to say that this bill will appropriate funds to increase the number of public high schools who will participate in the Construction Academy training program from 8 public high schools to all public high schools. The Academy training program allows high school students to enroll into a pre-apprenticeship program, which will enable them to enter at the higher skill levels.

"So it's an important bill to all of you because of the great role the construction industry that is going to be playing in our State. So I ask you all to support such a great measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in strong support of SB2980, SD2, HD 1.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of SB 2980, SD2, HD1 will assist in providing educational career opportunities, for high school students. By appropriating funds to high schools specifically for the purpose of increasing the number of public high schools participating in the Construction Academy training program, it will encourage collaboration with colleges, and trade schools in supporting the construction industry.

"This measure will assist in providing individuals with a head start on a two-year, post-secondary degree, while allowing students to enter a post-secondary apprenticeship program at a more qualified skill level.

"The passage of SB2980, SD2, HD1, will allow the State to create an invaluable awareness among individuals who may not know such career options exists. Through a pre-apprenticeship program, trade organizations can be assured that this program will bolster the idea that becoming a plumber, carpenter, or electrician can provide a successful, satisfying, and lucrative career. It will assist in expanding the Construction Academy program and the apprenticeship-training program, which in turn, will assist in sustaining the current construction boom and recent shortage of qualified workers in the trades.

"I believe that we have a responsibility to support SB2980, SD2, HD1, as it will help provide our State in building a sustainable, economical future. Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on SB 2980, SD2, HD1. Malama Pono."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure which appropriates funds to expand existing construction academy programs from 8 schools to 26 public high schools, and expand apprenticeship-training programs at Honolulu Community College, Hawaii Community College, Maui Community College, and Kauai Community College.

"This initiative would help our State in providing the necessary workforce that is so desperately needed in the growing technology industry and would provide a statewide public policy initiative that benefits the State's entire economy. This bill provides for a more comprehensive and coordinated way for high school students to earn academic credits needed for graduation while gaining first hand information, and experiences about various career fields. The Construction Academy would be in partnership with the University of Hawaii and business and labor communities. We believe that support for the expansion of programs such as the construction academy is critical to the continued growth and diversification of Hawaii's economy and to the personal and professional development of our young people.

"I share the sentiments of the Hawaii Business Roundtable which said in testimony: "One of the sad ironies of our current economic situation is that while Hawaii's rate of unemployment has steadily declined over the past decade, we have been forced to import workers into our state in order to fill high paying jobs in industries such as healthcare, education, and construction"."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2980, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1611-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3009, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3009, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. Thank you. The purpose of this bill is to ensure that a fair and equitable civil service system is used for a majority of employees in public service and conforms to the intent and purpose of Act 253, better known as the Civil Service Reform Act.

"I'm rising in opposition because several departments had strong concerns about this measure. The Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs said that since DCCA needs to compete with the private industry, this bill takes away from DCCA's ability to hire outside Chapter 76 and removes the Director's authority to hire a number of positions that are critical to the needs of the Department on a temporary or exempt basis.

"The Public Utilities Commission had similar concerns. Department of Land and Natural Resources also testified they had several positions that required exempt hiring because there are no comparable civil service positions in State government that would meet the needs of the Department. And the Department of Human Resources Development also testified they needed more time to work with the affected departments to identify the additional positions that should be replaced with civil service positions. So for those reasons, I'm rising in opposition. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. This is an attempt to try to deal with a problem that's been ongoing for many years, dealing with exempt employees. We have about 2,500 exempt employees in State government and over the past 6 years, 250 have been converted to civil service. Not exactly a good track record even though there's been attempt after attempt to encourage the Executive Branch to move forward with doing this.

"We have examples, for example, at DLNR, the Office of Historic Preservation, every member of that Office is an exempt employee. And some of them have been exempt for 15 years. If that's not a civil service position, I don't know what is. An effort has to be made to try to address this problem.

"The legislation that's moving forward is a good attempt to do that. We've heard the concerns from various agencies and we have tried to address them by providing exemptions within their departments to the conversion plan. It's an ongoing effort. I think it's a good compromise. And we are working with DHRD and the various agencies to try to address their limited concerns on some of these positions. So I hope that everyone will support this legislation. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Stevens be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3009, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL SERVICE EXEMPT EMPLOYEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1612-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3077, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3077, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but I do have some reservations about this. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm going to ask that my remarks be placed into the Journal. They specifically relate to my concern that this will slow down the process. I think that we could end up losing some transfers of land or acquisitions where we won't be able to move quickly enough. We're only in session for less than six months a year. I'm thinking particularly of the Waimea Valley acquisition and if that consultation could not occur quickly enough, we might have lost that opportunity. Thank you."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this measure.

"I have concerns that Senate Bill 3077's provision requiring DLNR to consult with the Senate President and the House Speaker will hamper their timely response to conservation opportunities where immediate action is necessary.

"As we all remember, in the Waimea Valley acquisition, grassroots organizations, the City and County of Honolulu, OHA, DLNR and the military worked as a collective to preserve this historic valley for future generations. By not having to consult with the Legislature's leaders, DLNR quickly responded to the situation, dedicated funds and joined the consortium in successfully acquiring Waimea Valley.

"Considering our short legislative Session, requiring DLNR's consultation with the President and the Speaker when preparing a resource land acquisition plan or making recommendations to the BLNR, will delay future conservation projects. Why should we risk future opportunities to save Hawaii's endangered natural treasures?

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have similar reservations and I just ask that I can insert some remarks in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am rising with reservations on SB 3077, SD2. By forcing both the BLNR/DLNR to consult with the House Speaker and the Senate President before they take action on any land transactions can only slow down an already slow process. The BLNR only meets twice a month as it is. Having to consult with the legislative leaders will make for a delayed process.

"DLNR's land division is leasing property throughout the year. Will they have easy access to the legislative leaders so they can proceed? How disruptive will these consultative meetings be for both the Department and the legislative leaders? If the Legislature is worried about sales of State land, then limit this bill to sales only. This bill as written is far too broad and will only serve to aggravate and discourage the hard working people at both the DLNR and the BLNR. By bringing the legislative leadership into all decisions about land acquisition, we could be drawing out the acquisition process, possibly creating a situation where we lose the opportunity to purchase because another buyer is able to act more quickly, or the seller changes his mind. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Just briefly again, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I just want to say that this measure starts a very bad precedent. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly, the bill only calls for a consultation with the Senate President and the Speaker of the House because ultimately, if we are going to be moving forward with our Legacy Lands Act, that was passed last year, as a legislative initiative, I think the Legislature should have a role in determining what lands are going to be purchased. And if ultimately that purchase and use of the Legacy Lands Fund will require legislative approval, I don't see any reason why the Legislature should not be involved, at least in the consultation process. There's no approval process here. There's nothing requiring that the Legislature actually have a vote. All it does is mere notice and consultation. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. The proposed bill requires the Board of Land and Natural Resources and Department of Land and Natural Resources to confer with the House Speaker and Senate President relating to land acquisition planning, exercise of eminent domain, acquisitions of purchases or gifting of land, and the selling, leasing or conveying of land.

"While this measure opens the avenues of communication and consultation between State departments and the Legislative body, my concerns are in the legislative disapproval which could create problems because landowners would be reluctant to purchase land if the legislature could come in and void agreements. Introducing an element of uncertainty of a legislative approval or a disapproval process could possibly hinder and complicate the overall process."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3077, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSERVATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Marumoto, Moses and Stevens voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1613-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2385, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2385, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to talk about a few parts of the bill, with reservations. Some of these comments I made before and they still haven't been fixed so I'm going to point them out.

"On page 7 of the bill, you're talking about photo red light imaging detector systems. This measure by the way is the photo red light at intersections, which is good. That's good. The problem is how we go about it. So it talks about the detector system and then on page 8 it says, 'no summons or citation pursuant to the photo red light imaging detector system program should be issued unless it contains a clear, unobstructed, photographic, digital or other visual image of the driver of the motor vehicle.' Okay.

"Then it goes on the page to talk about summons or citations. And when we come over to page 9, it says, 'the registered owner shall be determined by the identification of the vehicles' registration plates.' So on one case it says the photo of the driver and in another place it talks about the registration plates. So it's inconsistent internally, and it's been inconsistent internally when it was the House bill, and now as the Senate Bill. And unless we get that fixed, the measure is not going to be upheld in court. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2385, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on 1619. This is relating to housing. It's the Housing Omnibus Bill. And the 5% of the State low-income public housing units put aside for grandparents who are the primary caregivers for one or more of their grandchildren violates Chapter 515 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"The Attorney General is concerned that if the grants were made pursuant to Chapter 42F of the HRS, the requirements of Chapter 42F must still be satisfied before funds can be appropriated. Basically it says, a grant must be appropriated to a specific recipient tied to a program.

"Additionally, section 10 states that the remaining fiscal year '07, undistributed grant funds be transferred to public housing. However, funds will lapse on June 30, 2007, and there will be no money on that date to appropriate. The conveyance tax would be deposited into the Rental Housing Trust Fund. This type of funding is unreliable and could hamper the fund in the future.

"Finally the bill mandates that Hawaiian Housing Finance and Development Administration exercise its powers of eminent domain on the Kulana Nani property with an agreement to acquire properties not leased by June 30, 2007. This amendment of the bill hurts the land owned by Kamehameha Schools because perspective buyers now know that Kamehameha Schools must rush to complete a deal before eminent domain proceedings occur."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Arakaki, Kawakami, Schatz, Stonebraker and Takumi being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 965, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am rising in support of SB 965 SD2 HD1. This bill is absolutely essential if we want to crack down on large and small ice dealers. The electronic surveillance law presently on the books is useless. It has only been used a few times. We have one of the worst ice problems in the country, and because of that, the federal government established a High Intensity Drug Trafficking office here about four years ago. That office, in coordination with HPD, Narcotics Division, has been responsible for some very large drug busts over the last three years. The Feds have very sophisticated electronic surveillance systems and they gather a lot of hard evidence on our local ice dealers in the process of getting self-incriminating recordings on the big fish they are investigating. Unfortunately, with our present law, State prosecutors can not use any of the recordings gathered by the HIDTA office because our local courts would rule it inadmissible because our law does not allow for electronic surveillance without a prior judicial hearing. This bill will change our law to conform to the federal law. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to strongly support passage of SB 965, S.D. 2, Relating to Electronic Surveillance.

"Law enforcement agencies in Hawaii have had their hands tied with the current restrictive language in Chapter 803, Part IV, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which covers electronic eavesdropping. Electronic technology has been evolving rapidly and will continue to advance.

"This bill is supported by all law enforcement agencies in Hawaii including federal agencies; the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA). This bill will bring Hawaii law closer to conformance to federal laws, as well as the laws of the other states. Attorney General Mark Bennett has indicated in his testimony that Hawaii's existing wiretap law was found by the attorneys of several other states to unnecessarily impede law enforcement while imperiling the safety of the law abiding citizens.

"Because of Hawaii's current restrictive law, evidence which has been obtained through federal warrants may not be admissible in state courts. This has been a significant problem as federal agencies such as DEA work to assist local law enforcement in battling the major methamphetamine problem.

"It was recently reported in the Honolulu Advertiser that a massive two year FBI investigation produced indictments charging more than 35 persons with felony gambling, cockfighting, extortion and drug offenses. This investigation started when an informant identified the home of an FBI secretary as a "drug stash" house. Fortunately this became a federal investigation where wire taps were used to identify at least five HPD officers, an Aloha Stadium security official as well as the Honolulu Liquor Commission investigator supervisor. Without the benefit of wiretaps, most, if not all, of these alleged felons would not have been caught and indicted.

"There are adequate provisions included in the law to protect the law abiding citizen from unwarranted electronic surveillance. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 965, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Evans voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 439, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADMINISTRATIVE FINES UNDER THE STATE ETHICS CODE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1623-06) recommending that S.B. No. 613, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1625-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2887, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2887, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 2887, HD1. This measure will provide greatly needed vocational education teachers in Hawaii's schools. Currently, there is a severe shortage of teachers in career pathway courses. Also, many highly qualified individuals with real-world experience who wish to teach are being turned away due to existing teacher licensing practices. In 2004 alone, there were forty thousand public school students enrolled in vocational education classes in Hawaii. We cannot abandon these students.

"Granted, we cannot simply allow anyone to teach in our schools, but by directing the Hawaii Teachers Standards Board to create alternative standards for vocational educators, we will ensure the future of vocational education in Hawaii's public schools. Passage of this measure will greatly aid our keiki in the job market of tomorrow. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Stand. Com. Report 1625-06, SB 2887, S.D. 1, H.D. 1.

"Mr. Speaker, as a former Vocational Education teacher and the former President of the Hawaii Vocational Association and Hawaii Industrial Arts Association, I understand the plight vocational education in the secondary schools have in recruiting qualified teachers. This measure would help to mitigate the shortage of vocational education teachers by permitting the Department of Education to develop criteria allowing more individuals with trade or industry experience to teach in a vocational, technical, or career pathway education. Additionally, this measure will authorize the Superintendent of Education to issue teaching permits to highly qualified individuals with pertinent trade or industry experience. These individuals will not, I state will not, be issued teaching certificates.

"Mr. Speaker, in the future these individuals should be certified upon completion of their probationary period and recommendation from their principal.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a measure that will help the Vocational Education programs in the secondary schools in the State of Hawaii and I ask all my colleagues to support this measure."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 2887. In order to give Hawaii's children more opportunities we need to address the increasing shortage of vocational education teachers and create alternative criteria to allow greater numbers of prospective and qualified vocational, technical, and career pathway teachers with trade or industry experience to teach in classrooms. The Department of Education has been unable to hire and adequately train classroom teachers within the Career and Technical Education pathway. There should be other measures of qualifications so these teachers can become available and guide students into careers needed to support industries in Hawaii. If we don't change this current problem, there will be long-term consequences and opportunities for teachers and children will be lost.

"Children need a variety of learning experiences and pathways to choose from. Giving Hawaii's children more options in specialty areas such as carpentry, landscaping, plumbing, and engineering can produce more successful pathways for different individuals. I think it's important for students to take a career core class that introduces them to particular career pathways and provides them guidance on what courses they can take that will pertain to their interest in their future career. Let's support SB 2887 for the sake of Hawaii's youth. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2887, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2948, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kanoho rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support with brief comments. Thank you very much. This bill represents a good faith effort on the part of the Legislature and the Administration to fulfill its trust responsibilities as mandated by the Admissions Act of State Constitution and our statutes. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2948, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC LAND TRUST," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1628-06) recommending that S.B. No. 1223, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1223, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I appreciate you going back to this to this measure. I rise in opposition. The purpose of this very short measure was to increase the return of bounced check fee that's charged to consumers. And the current fee is set, Mr. Speaker, at $20 and the testifiers wanted it increased to $30.

"In the Finance Committee, we heard some testimony from the Office of Consumer Protection and they found that similar fees in other states do range from $10 to $30, while local financial institutions charge about $20. At this time, the Department was not aware of any cost analysis justifying an increase in the fee. And during previous hearings on this matter, no statistical justifications from the industry were provided.

"As we heard in the Finance Committee, only general statements were provided regarding the increased expenses of the industry that goes out and collects these bounced checks or tries to collect payment for them.

"If the proponents really believed that fee is justified, they really should come up, Mr. Speaker, with some information validating their position. I believe that we need to take into account, how the consumers will react if all, of a sudden a bounced check fee goes from $20 up to $30 and they see that on their statements. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure as well. It is interesting that in Committee, there were no bankers in there. These were all collection agencies. And through the questioning by various members on the Finance Committee, it became pretty clear that the collection people, the bulk of them I mean, collecting bad debts, where they're keeping usually about 50% of what they collect and that can add up to a lot of money.

"The banks are not complaining about the $20 fee. They are normally taking it from their customers when they pass bad checks or people have a cover check agreement with the bank, where they still pay a fee. This fee was raised about six years ago. This could hit a lot of young people who are just getting out on their own, who maybe aren't as careful as they could be. They're busy balancing college and jobs. They go to the ATM machine and the bank says they got plenty of money, they don't think about the checks that are out.

"I don't think this is something we should do in a big hurry. I would have liked to have seen a more balance representation of people that would be affected by this, rather than just one industry. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I was just hearing some of the debate just a little while ago with the two previous speakers, I was thinking to myself, who does this really affect? And the pictures that come in my mind are those who live from paycheck to paycheck. Every other week, every month. Trying to make ends meet and then you come up with maybe one day when a paycheck comes in late.

"Or you're trying to juggle your money around and between paychecks. Now this is a long time ago that I use to do this, a really long time ago. However, I can still feel the pain of what it's like to juggle paychecks. And what happens when say you are sending out your bills because you want to make sure that you're paying your bills on time and some people actually, I think they call it 'check surfing', where they wait for their check to come in. Well they don't wait for the check to come in, but they know that their paycheck is coming in and so they send out some checks so it's not late and they basically are looking for those couple of days. So say if they're short, sometimes these checks all come in on one day. So you have maybe one, two, three, four, five checks. At $20 apiece currently, that could take you out of a budget if you're working from month to month.

"Now I believe in personal responsibility and you shouldn't be doing stuff like surfing checks and all those other things, but many of our people in Hawaii do it because it they have to. We live in a society where we have a high cost of living, and we also have basically one of the highest tax and even tax for our poor, so I'm just thinking that this not a very good idea. This isn't an issue, from what the previous speaker said, it's not an issue with the banks. So my real concern is, who will this affect? And a 50% increase is quite a large increase and if I'm not mistaken it's blank at this point so it could be even higher than that. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I would like to request that the words of the Representative from Waikiki be inserted in the Journal as my own. She does make a lot of good sense. She actually convinced me," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1223, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Ching, Finnegan, Halford, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Sonson, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1629-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. This is a very historic bill that will enable Hawaii to have a diversified economy by supporting Hawaii-based businesses in the fields of technology, life sciences, and renewable energy. Currently, Hawaii is in the beginning stages of establishing a strong knowledge-based industry. Unlike other areas of the United States and world, Hawaii-based businesses in these fields lack the amount of capital investments needed to move them from product development to commercial success.

"This measure will play a huge role in solidifying a new economy in Hawaii based on technology, life sciences, and renewable energy by establishing $100,000,000 Hawaii innovations partnership special fund for the fiscal year 2006-2007 to invest in these entrepreneurial ventures through grants and capital investments. Thereafter, from 2007 to 2011, there will be an annual appropriation of one-half of one percent of the general revenues of the State into this fund. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to enter a no vote on this measure. While I am sure it was with well intentions that this bill be gutted, I'd like to bring to the attention of this floor that this particular bill, Senate Bill 2546, originally came over to us as a bill to establish a taskforce to study the feasibility of establishing a Hawaii Construction Authority.

"Somehow in the process of our House process, it has now become a Hawaii innovations partnership corporation bill with some, I think very good language because I truly support the life sciences and technology and advanced technology.

"However, as I have made comments on this floor time and time again, process is one of the things that drives discontent. We have discontent coming, bubbling all the way up through our grassroots communities. We have discontent on the floor. And I have discontent within myself.

"I'd like to refer to Mason's section 402 that says that amendments must be generic or germane ..."

The Chair interjected, stating:

"Representative, you're out of order. Our discussion right now is on House Draft 2 of Senate Bill 2546. Please keep your discussions germane to that House Draft."

Representative Harbin continued, stating:

"Then germane I think is the key word here, Mr. Speaker, and with that being said, that we agree that there must be germaneness, I will let that particular issue pass.

"However, I would like to also bring to the attention of this Body that this particular measure may be constitutionally unfit. In Taomae v. Lingle, which I think we are all aware that our Hawaii Supreme Court was very clear on constitutional amendments. However, it has also said in that same Supreme Court decision, and I have a letter from the Attorney General that says that a bill cannot become a bill or a law unless it passes three Readings on different days in two houses.

"This bill is a 'gut and replace'. That's not germane. Different subject matter is destined for untimely death unless we get it heard in Senate. These are the 'gut and replace' issues that we must stop because it is going to kill good ideas such as this. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I think also as the previous speaker said, there are some very good ideas here. I support the industries that would be helped by this and it will establish the Hawaii Innovations Partnership Corporation.

"The thing is it appropriates a $100 million out of general revenues. $100 million into the Innovations Partnership Special Fund and 0.5% of general revenues for the next five fiscal years. I have these following concerns.

"One is the size of the appropriation. And again $100 million. Investing it and helping Hawaii's high tech and life sciences industry is certainly important. Appropriating $100 million now while there is so many other pressing needs seems a bit much. There are other things that need our attention that should be prioritized above this idea. Why not $50 million? Why not $25 million? Why not just get it started? Get a seed started?

"It not only puts $100 million general revenue, it also appropriates that half percent of the general revenues for the next five years in the special fund. Again a lot of money in binding future Legislatures. Not only is it a large appropriation, it is a percentage amount, not a specific dollar amount.

"B&F testified that this is impossible to implement because it is impossible to determine the exact amount of the appropriations until after the close of the fiscal year. A specific dollar amount should be identified, and again recommend that it be a smaller amount. This is for partnerships. Let the venture capitalists out there put in some too. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This particular bill, it's actually a good idea, but as I look at it as a whole, I have to go in opposition. This bill appropriates $100 million and perhaps in excess or, I guess there's different numbers. In excess of $200 million, or possibly $400 million, or $600 million, or depending upon future numbers, but by the end of the five years.

"What is the State's guarantee that these local companies and enterprises that this bill seeks to aid will actually remain in Hawaii? If the intent of this bill is to provide financing and further investments in Hawaii's companies, in an effort to allow them to remain in this State and contribute jobs and tax revenues. What guarantee does the State have that once these companies, quote unquote, make it, so to speak, that they in fact will remain in Hawaii and contribute jobs and revenues? When a company succeeds and they no longer needs Hawaii's help, what would stop this company from moving to a more business-friendly state.

"If I'm not mistaken, Mr. Speaker, I think this has happened when we were using incentives from the Act 221 tax credits. And I'm just thinking in regards to prioritizing, then maybe we should be making or helping the business climate improve, so that these funds and these companies will remain in Hawaii once we invested over whatever, the hundreds of millions of dollars in this bill.

"Mr. Speaker, I was wondering if it was okay for us to just maybe learn some lessons from Act 221 and be able to speak on that?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"Can that be inserted in the Journal?"

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Okay, then just let me go ahead and talk about one of the issues with the Act. I'll talk just a little, a little bit. Act 221. Basically one of the problems that they're facing and we have responded by creating this SPIF fund. I think it's called the State Private Investment Fund, but my understanding is that we haven't funded that yet. And before we go on to a new idea, maybe we should complete that idea and fund what they need to be funded at this point and time, which is in the later stages of business development. And follow through with one of the ideas before we go into a brand new or another area.

"Mr. Speaker, in regards to Act 221, one of the other things is just knowing that we need to plan better, and we need to assess a little bit better. This is a big amount of money. And one thing that happened with Act 221 is Guy Kawasaki, a co-founder of Apple, once commented that in order for Hawaii to have a self-sustaining tech industry, Hawaii needed to improve its public education system and its business climate. This grant is meant to jump-start a new economy in Hawaii by taking a strong step forward in supporting the development of advanced technology, life sciences, and renewable energy, but do we have what it takes to sustain this effort? Where is the clear and coordinated long range plan so we can explain how we will be equipped with a work force of well-educated workers in these fields, and how will we improve our business climate in order to keep these businesses here for the long term?

"Mr. Speaker, basically all I want to know is before we commit to this huge amount of money, that we know that this will benefit Hawaii's people, long term. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill proposes the creation of a brand new entity that would more than likely duplicate functions and responsibilities already performed by other agencies like HSDC and HTDC. I think that we should look back at some of the problems we had with Act 221, the tax credit for high tech. There was a lack of transparency and I'm concerned about that same problem with this bill.

"I'm also concerned about the use of general funds to make these loans to these attractive looking companies that are up and coming. Whenever the State gets into the business of lending money, I think back at the fishing vessel loans that DBEDT got into and the fact that there are so many loans still on the books, bad debts that they haven't been able to collect, and that's been probably over a 15- or 16-year period. And I think there are companies that are in the business of lending money, venture capitalists. So those are some of the problems I have with this bill as it's presently written."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I really support this because I think we've heard a lot of rhetoric throughout the years about our need to diversify our economy and it's time that we start putting our money where our mouth is.

"Because really when we take a look at the recent poll that came out in the Star-Bulletin today, for the first time in 2005, a majority of the people feel that this island is being run for tourists at the expense of local people.

"And while we do need to support our tourism industry, as one of our prime drivers in this economy, what we also need to realize is that we need to diversify. Because we cannot be too dependent on one industry especially in today's society when that can be subjected to something as extreme as a terrorist attack as we saw with 9/11, when our tourism industry completely fell apart.

"With the upcoming negotiations that are going to happen in June, there's also that potential that our tourism industry could once again fall. And I think it's really important for us to start looking at where we are going to diversify and this is an excellent place to start. To make sure that the people that want to stay here, the people that have the intellectual capacity to make sure that our kids stay here, that there's future jobs here, that we really make sure that this happens. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition, just this one comment. That's something that I definitely agree with, with the previous speaker, that we do need to diversify our economy. However, in regards to some of our top jobs here in Hawaii, we still are looking on the mainland to bring people in to fill those jobs. And so all I'm asking for is a plan and a better idea of how we can see these moneys help Hawaii in our diversification of our economy, but also what is the follow through so that it would be most effective. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker, I just have to say my piece on this. $100 million is a lot of money. I stand with reservations. $100 million is a lot of money and you have listened to me repeatedly in this Chamber. I keep talking about infrastructure that we need in Ewa Beach. I would rather see that money, that $100 million, allocated to my district so we can have transportation.

"We suffer gridlock everyday and I would like to remain consistent. I know that I'm in opposition of the $50 million in tax credit. I stand in opposition of this $100 million, because I think that we need to allocate it the people on the Leeward side. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Harbin and Meyer voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1630-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2909, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2909, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. This measure is relating to permit approval. And it gives is the counties the option to opt out of automatic permit approvals. We've heard some good comments here. It said that requesting and allowing the counties to opt-out of a process has resulted in improving government accountability. Focus shouldn't be on eliminating the time requirement, but having reviewing agencies become more proactive in planning the processing of permits. And what it does again Members, is if the counties don't act in time, the builders, the developers, whoever it is, will get automatic approval to move forward. Whether it's building a new dam, reservoir, subdivision, whatever it is, it'll be automatic approval. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2909, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PERMIT APPROVALS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Marumoto, Meyer and Pine voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1631-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3021, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3021, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with a strong no on this measure. This is unprecedented or maybe it is preceded. I just was not around when the precedent was set. But the precedent of regulating something that is not mandated is rather interesting to me, considering two bills earlier we were discussing and talking about how great this new economic development will be as it was talked about in Stand. Com. 1629.

"Bills like these, measures like these, that seem to have been around for four years and don't seem to die a natural death, they just keep seeming to come back and come back and come back. These are the types of things that make a $100 million dollar worth of investments useless because this is an anti-business bill.

"What we are trying to do here is completely 'saddle strap' businesses because they cherish their employees and are concerned for their employee's health, provide them unmandated sick leave. Now we're going to regulate their sick leave through legislation and say, you must do X, Y, Z. And in sitting in these hearings it seems to be that this has been an ongoing issue because of one problem with one large employer in the State of Hawaii with their union. But now this bill is going to impact every business, whether you are a 'mom and pop', or you are a multinational, global business.

"Mr. Speaker, we have got to stop this stuff. We got to stop mandating and regulating businesses. If we want that economic development, we need to become business friendly and we need to understand the trials and tribulations of business. I had asked that we at least experiment and make this law only impact businesses of a 100 or more employees, and that wasn't even given any attention. So let's let this bill die its timely death and let it not come back again. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Thank you. Looking at the Committee Report and the number of testimony there were that opposed this measure, I would hope that in Conference we get to iron out whatever details were offensive and that might provide a fair and balanced approach to this whole issue. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. As you know, this Legislature has attempted to address this issue in the past and we continue to address to this day. We have worked hard both labor and management to try to craft legislation that would be acceptable to both sides. And I have to thank everyone who's been involved, including the Minority Leader, who has met with this group to try to come up with a proposal because I think she understands what the problem is.

"And the problem Mr. Speaker is simply this. Companies have a sick leave policy. They provide their employees a certain amount of sick leave. Then they have an absentee policy. So you're a legitimately sick employee who is out of the office because you're sick, and you get written up for being absent.

"Now what employer will want to actually do that? There are few that do, and unfortunately it's those kinds of actions that require legislation to address the problem. I can't see how anyone wouldn't want to try to resolve it. This legislation that we're looking at today is not perfect, but I think it's a step in the right direction. I think the Finance Committee is trying to get to some middle ground, and we're looking at that middle ground right now.

"And as we move into Conference, the discussion can go on. And I welcome working with all parties, all stakeholders, including the Minority Leader, to come up with something that doesn't penalize legitimately sick people, many of them, working mothers, for being out of work and still being written for being absent. And while they may not be terminated, they may look at their promotion opportunities being limited because of their file being papered. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Yes, I am the Minority Leader so I will speak to what I understand this bill to do. I'm rising with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do know that there needs to be work on this bill and that trying to get at the problem of the conflict that there is an absentee policy and a sick leave policy is a difficult one.

"I know that there's been many drafts to see whether or not we could actually address the problem. And for me, I think one of the issues that I have, because I came very close to voting against this bill just a couple minutes ago. But I decided to change my mind because just within me, deep within me, there's a little bit of sense of unfairness if you have a conflicting policy of benefits that talk about having large sick leave, but then when you legitimately use them, that you get dinged for an absentee policy.

"So I hope that we can get to that problem. If we cannot get down to that problem and it continues to still have some issues, I will be voting no in the future. However, just to make known that I think that the amendment, that it not be considered that we carve out basically small businesses, I think that would be a very good amendment. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm just going to comment my reservations on this bill. This bill is going to go to Conference and frankly, I'm okay with this discussion so I'm willing to let it go on. However, if this were the final version, I would vote no.

"Mr. Speaker, I don't see this so much as an anti-business bill, but it is. I see it more as an anti-worker bill because Mr. Speaker, the sick leave is provided voluntarily. These companies are providing, coming up with sick leave, providing sick leave for their workers. Not because they're required to but because they see that it's useful for workers usually.

"The more that we do to constrict or hamper the ability of business to provide sick leave, the less sick leave they're going to ultimately provide. And while this may not affect sick leave policy within a business's current budget, I think we will find that in their next year's and following year's budgets, the more we constrain them, the less sick leave they will provide their workers. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. You already heard that it could have unintended consequences. Some employers might just decide they're not going to give sick leave anymore and they could do that. But it's also an unwarranted intrusion into the operations of businesses and management's right to provide and administrate a nongovernmental mandated benefit.

"It might place every employee who took sick leave in a protected class which would incur far less complaints of alleged unlawful practice. It's unnecessary as the State and federal laws on disability, discrimination, and family leave already extend protection to individuals whose absence from work is legitimate or are not covered by sick leave as under the Family Medical Leave Act, and American with Disabilities Act, and the Hawaiian Employment Practices Act. And for public employees, the measure deals with the subject that is related to collective bargaining and therefore should not be legislated."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. This measure prohibits employers from discharging, withholding pay, or disciplining employees who use accrued sick leave, unless the employer finds employee's use of sick leave was not legitimate or violated sick leave policy, or if the employer's actions are in accordance with provisions of the attendance policy.

"This measure helps to address a situation where employers might treat abusers of sick policies and legitimately ill individuals in the same manner, having legitimately ill workers disciplined by employers for utilizing available sick leave benefits.

"However, I am concerned about the possible unintended consequences in mandating employer actions regarding sick leave policies, and the potential of this measure to add cost to business, eventually hurting employers as well as the employees' and economy as a whole."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. This bill is a tax increase on the citizens of Hawaii. I'm disappointed that this bill appropriates no money toward educating our youth about smoking. It doesn't raise money for any smoking prevention program.

"Hawaii tax rates on these products are already among the highest in the nation. Even though the Attorney General has the authority and stopgaps are in place to stop black marketeering, with the immensity of the Internet, total stoppage of a black market created by this large tax increase is unrealistic.

"This tax is not a reliable funding mechanism. The UH School of Medicine, the Emergency Medical Services Special Fund, the Trauma Care Fund, and Department of Health, who this bill will benefit will not have a regular flow of money year to year from this tax and will not be able to correctly budget this appropriation because it will fluctuate each fiscal year.

"If this Body is really concerned about the people's health and not about funding special projects through this tax increase, we should look at banning tobacco in its entirety from Hawaii, not by raising taxes on an addictive product that we know many people will buy even if the prices rise."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am voting with a strong no. A tax increase, is a tax increase, is a tax increase. We have got to stop raising taxes. The gross excise tax is one of the most permeating taxes we have in the State of Hawaii with its pyramiding effect and impact. And to take a tax increase on the lives of people that smoke cigarettes, I think is dreadful. It's a terrible, terrible policy.

"We attempt to sugarcoat this horrible tax on this horrible product, cigarettes, by saying that we're going to take all this wonderful tax money and we're going to spend it on research. We're going to spend it on EMS services. We're going to spend it on trauma care, as if this is a really good excuse to encourage more cigarette smoking so that we can make more money.

"This is just not a good public policy and I am embarrassed that we would even put the two things together, research and trying to save lives, as we take money from those that we allow to kill themselves. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations. The original version of the bill had the Cancer Center as one of the recipients of the revenues generated by the tax and I would just like to see that in Conference Committee, the Cancer Center be included just because for me, in order to vote for a tax increase, I really do need to see a nexus of what it's going to be used for. And I believe that having the Cancer Center as a recipient is a makes it a little more palatable for me. Thank you.

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in strong support of this measure. I would consider this the second silver bullet of our double-barreled approach to address smoking. I'm not ashamed that we can tax people that not only put themselves at risk, but put others at risk too with their smoking.

"I think the really great thing about this increase in taxes is it affects young people because young people are the most price sensitive in terms of these increases. I think all of us would agree that one of the best strategies we can employ is to keep young people from starting smoking because when they do start, when they become addicted, many times it becomes a life long habit that's difficult to break.

"And so this measure does serve several purposes. I know we can argue about what the purpose of the tax should be. This is one of the few times that we are able to earmark funds from the tobacco tax for specific purposes. But I think if you look at what the purpose is that are being proposed, including the proposal in the original measure, it all has to do with healthcare and improving healthcare, improving research. And I don't think anybody can argue that the people that do smoke place a large burden on the resources of our healthcare system whether it's directly or indirectly. So I don't think there's any shame about sort of having, sort of like a 'sin tax' for their not being willingly to give up a habit that is costing our healthcare system a lot of money.

"So I hope people can see that. I hope they can see through the smoke and see the real issue that's at hand. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with some reservations and they stand for my disappointment also that cancer research has been deleted in this draft. I would also like to ask for additional written comments be entered," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support, but with reservations.

"This measure would significantly increase taxes on tobacco products as a means to discourage the initiation and continuation of tobacco use and allocates an unspecified amount of revenues to the John A. Burns School of Medicine, Emergency Medical Services statewide Trauma Care Resources and Community health centers statewide. My hopes are that the allocation to the Cancer Research Center will be reinvested however, as I believe that this is the most appropriate and effective use of this revenue.

"My reservations rest with the concern that black markets on cigarettes not be increased as a result of this measure."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know I was dedicated, at least I was going to pass out a bill increasing the cigarette tax for the Cancer Center because there was an internal struggle. Raising taxes or missing out on the opportunity of coordinated cancer care and developing and building the Cancer Research Center, and the Cancer Research Center won out in the previous bill. I was prepared to vote with reservations in passing that tax increase.

"However, in this form, I cannot. The Cancer Center is ... Well basically, I'm looking at some of these other things and these all should be, with our surplus, should be funded by the general fund. These are our obligations that this State should be funding, and so I cannot support it in this form. But if it should come back with the Cancer Center in it, it's very possible that I will pass that out."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly in support. There's a definite nexus between tobacco use and our healthcare crisis in our State. Resources will only go into healthcare. They'll make it to research, they'll make it to a cancer facility. I think we can all be proud of that. And I like to say that I'm happy to see that we did have bipartisan support. The Governor and the Surgeon General of the United States came and testified on behalf of this bill, in support."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in opposition with very short comments. Just the fact that we in Hawaii, we're the only state with the gross excise tax which is very regressive, and the people in the lowest income bracket get hit the worst. I think we were number two in the nation for taxing the poorest amongst us at the highest level. And a lot of people in the lower income bracket also enjoy smoking. This is a large increase going from 9 cents, to 11 cents, to 13 cents per cigarette, on top of a 40% excise tax on cigarettes in general. This hits these people in a very big way. A tax is a tax, and I just can't support this."

Representative Arakaki rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If you can indulge me. One thing that I forgot to mention is that one of the proposals that the House inserted was to fund the Medical School debt service. One of the reasons we're doing that is because they're currently using the Tobacco Settlement funds to cover the debt service, and we felt that by returning the funding for tobacco cessation and prevention to the Tobacco Settlement Fund, it will be better used for that purpose.

"Again Mr. Speaker, I want to thank those passionate advocates, and I know they're up in the gallery, from the Tobacco Free Coalition and the American Heart Association, and also the American Cancer Society, for their steadfast support of these measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Evans, Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer, Moses and Pine voting no, and with Representatives Stonebraker and Yamashita being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1637-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2162, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2162, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this measure. As I understand it, a foster child would, if they had an auto accident, their damages would be paid by the State. But it would appear to me that if foster parents had a car, or two or three, and allow the foster child to drive the car, then the child would be covered by the parent's insurance. So I would assume that this would apply when the foster child has his or her own car. And it would occur to me that if they have enough money to purchase a car, then they should have enough money to purchase their own insurance.

"I object to this because if the State pays any damages, it's paid by all policyholders, and that's why our auto insurance gets expensive from time to time. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is to help foster children successfully transition out of foster care into independent living. Sadly for many foster children, the difficulty in obtaining parental consent on an application for an instructional permit or license proves to be an insurmountable barrier, and one that most of us could not imagine.

"I do hear the objections about some about the provisions regarding the car insurance. Let me point out that the bill does say that the natural parent should be responsible for providing the insurance on the car, and there are provisions where if they cannot afford to pay that, the State should cover it. I must remind you that we're talking about minor foster children who are wards of the State.

"The other thing about this bill is that it does also allow foster board payments to be paid directly to a former foster child. Mr. Speaker, these are things that the Hawaii Youth Services Network, which consists of many foster children have testified in strong support of consistently throughout this Session. I think it's really critical that we as legislators listen to the voices of the foster youth in passing this important bill. I also have additional written comments in support," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of a bill which will allows foster children to apply for a driver's license.

"The purpose of the bill is to help foster children successfully transition out of foster care and into independent living. Sadly, for many foster children, the difficulty in obtaining parental consent on a driver's instruction permit or license proves to be an insurmountable barrier - one that most of us could not imagine having to contend with. As stated in the Committee Report of the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce, "this bill is consistent with the State's responsibility to provide the best possible care of its foster children."

"Some may object to the bill on the grounds that driving a motor vehicle is privilege, not a right, and therefore the State has no obligation to provide the means or facilitate the process for a foster child to apply for a license. I would submit that in our present-day economy, the ability to drive is not a luxury. It is often a necessity for certain types of employment. One of the keys for young people to transition out of foster care and take their place in the community as productive citizens is to find a job. A driver's license may very well make a difference in enabling that youngster to secure meaningful employment.

"Others may object that the bill requires a foster child's natural parents to pay for the child's car insurance, with such a requirement not only being burdensome but also coercive. I must note that the bill does establish provisions for payment if the natural parents are unable to pay, and does not apply in circumstances where the foster parents are cooperative with the drivers' license process and willing to cover car insurance costs. Further, the bill is only intended to apply to minor foster children, who, I must emphasize, are wards of the State. I would also add, that foster children are no different from other teenagers when they reach legal driving age. Since it is the rare young person who is able to afford his or her own insurance, it is the parent who assumes that responsibility - hopefully, with the son or daughter contributing at least some share when possible.

"Another benefit of this bill is to allow foster board payments to be paid directly to a former foster child. This is a good bill, Mr. Speaker, which is strongly supported by the Hawaii Youth Services Network and many others. It will help deserving young people to join their peers in enjoying the privilege of driving - an accepted part of "coming of age" in our society."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There's a part in this bill that repeals the medical and social records requirement to be given to the foster parents, and I wondering if there's an unintended consequence with that, if I read the bill correctly.

"Basically, my husband and I have been thinking for a long time and contemplating whether or not to become foster parents. We don't necessarily want to have any more biological children, or at least I'm not willing to have more biological children. But if given the chance, I would love to foster parent some children.

"And when I take a look at this, I'm looking at my own family. I have young kids, and many of the foster kids have challenges and some of them are at-risk. Now in order for me to know and make good choices for what's good for my family, I will have to take into consideration the time constraints that I have with this job and other things in order to make a good decision about foster parenting. And this is one of the things that would help me make that good decision, and if I don't have, if I'm not given those type of records to help me understand what kind of commitment that I'm making for a foster child, then I just may turn around and just say, 'Well you know what? Then I won't do it.'

"And I'm not sure as to the reasoning for taking this out in this particular bill, but I'm very concerned that is would an unintended consequence that would shrink the pool of foster parents willing to open up their homes to foster children. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I have reservations about SB 2162 HD1, Mr. Speaker. I am not against foster children getting drivers licenses, but I believe the foster parents should be included in that decision. They may not want the foster child driving their car, and they should not be forced into a situation where the foster child gets the director of DHS to sign an application for an instruction permit, and then hound the foster parents to teach them how to drive.

"An even more troubling part of this bill is section 6. This section amends present law by removing foster parents as a party to whom the DHS should disclose the foster child's medical records and relevant social history within thirty days of foster placement. I believe foster parents have a right to know of any problems or potential problems they may face with bringing a child into their home. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2162, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOSTER CHILDREN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Evans, Finnegan, Marumoto and Moses voting no, and with Representatives Stonebraker and Yamashita being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1638-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2323, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2323, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FEDERAL REVENUE MAXIMIZATION IN THE JUDICIARY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Stonebraker and Yamashita being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1639-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3011, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3011, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations on this measure. Thank you. The term, 'first consideration' is still not defined in either of the language of the bill, nor in current law. The lack of a definition I believe, may cause ambiguity as to how to implement this law. I believe that this may open up the State to lawsuits by the employees that are passed over for selection for open civil service positions. So I hope that during Conference Committee that somehow, the parties can come up with a real clear definition of what this 'first consideration' would mean. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Just very briefly, I want to say that the measure violates the merit principle, which we fought so hard to do here in the Legislature. We passed laws on that. We have waived the taking of examinations, so let's just give them the position because they're there. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am rising in opposition to SB 3011, SD1, HD1, Mr. Speaker. I believe it is a way of rewarding mediocrity and making our civil service sub-par. The incentive to really excel in employment is diminished by the knowledge that you will be considered first if another position opens up. It is foolhardy to give a job to someone on the basis that they are already in the system, when there are those on the outside who are possibly more qualified and able. I am consoled by the fact that this bill violates the Merit Principle of the State Constitution and is unnecessary because of the internal recruitment systems that are already in place. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Brief comments in support, Mr. Speaker. At the time of the Civil Service Reform Act passage, there was commitment made by the Administration that they would work on rules to implement the Civil Service Reform, and ensure a policy that would remain in place. That is something that everyone uses, whether it's private sector or public sector, and it's looking within first to hire, and it is part of the policy of civil service.

"You want to develop a civil service group of professionals who feel that they should be trained and promoted where necessary. Under the passage of their reform bill, there was a commitment that they would implement these rules. It has never taken place. But we have determined through hearings that in fact DHRD has that policy in place at the current time, and they have to clarify it. They committed that they're going to be working on the policy, updating it, and making sure that you look within first before you look outside, and that if there is someone who applies for a job, and they're not going to be considered any further, then they be told upfront so they don't sit around for four or five or six months while they look outside.

"This is the first step in that direction. It's good policy, and it's something that we should support. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3011, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL SERVICE LAW," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Stonebraker and Yamashita being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1640-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2004, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2004, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this measure. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in the interest of time I would ask that the brief testimony from a Kaneohe resident in opposition to this measure be placed in to the Journal. The name of the individual is Lee Williams," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"And he does speak Mr. Speaker, about how he's a third generation Kaneohe resident and how he and his family, as well as many other families on the Windward side have used this sandbar respectfully and for recreational purposes.

"He also speaks a bit about how this is really the only beach-going possibility for people on Kaneohe Bay because the Bay itself doesn't have beaches like Kailua beach has. He and large numbers of Windward residents who signed the petition against this measure, opposed this bill moving forward. Thank you."

Representative Thielen submitted the following testimony:

"TESTIMONY IN OPPOSITION OF SB 2004
BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON WATER, LAND AND AGRICULTURE

February, 27, 2006

2:45 p.m., Conference Room 212

Committee Chair Russell Kokubun, Vice-Chair Gary Hooser, and Members of the Senate Committee on Water, Land and Agriculture:

Good afternoon. My name is Lee Williams. I am a long-time Kaneohe Bay resident. My two children are third generation Kaneohe residents. Their grandparents have resided in Kaneohe since the 1960's. They are longtime members of Windward's fishing and boating community.

Currently, there is no Kaneohe beach area available for our Windward families to enjoy. Kaneohe Beach Park is a muddy mudflat and not a beach. Rarely, do Windward residents frequent Kaneohe Beach Park because it lacks a shoreline beach and blue shores as other beach park areas throughout this State. However, nestled within Kaneohe bay at low tide is one of Hawaii's hidden natural treasures, it is the Tahiti-like sandbar where Windward families, including my family, consistently enjoy, respect and love. Windward families sunbathe, relax barbeque, play volleyball and Frisbee, bring their pets, water ski and water skurf, and pull their keiki in inner tubes from the back of their boats, all at the Sand bar. It is the most perfect family spot in Kaneohe. Now, all of this is at risk because of this Bill.

Senate Bill 2004 was drafted to eliminate those rare occasions when there has been some misbehavior on the Sandbar.

Senate Bill 2004 is unnecessary to regulate certain activities on the Sand bar. The rational basis for this Bill is to curtail "drinking, littering, and fights." However, existing laws are already in place that regulate public drunkenness, drinking and boating, littering, public defecation and fighting, making this Bill totally redundant and unnecessary.

To reiterate Charles Memminger from his Star Bulletin column on February 9, 2006, "We can't stop rare incidents of bad behavior at island natural attractions simply by making them kapu or turning them into monuments."

"Kaneohe Bay is one of the few places where recreational boaters who do not want to risk the dangers of the open ocean, can cruise swim, picnic and spend the night on their boats in safety. You'd be hard-pressed to find a group of people who care more for the ocean, reefs and beaches than the recreational boaters, paddlers and fishing enthusiasts of Kaneohe Bay."

"Most regular users of Kaneohe Bay, including those who visit Ahu o Laka, see themselves as stewards of the bay and either report misuse to authorities or intervene personally to stop offending activity."

The Sandbar is Kaneohe's only traditional beach and the boating and fishing community respects its significance and beauty. To limit its use as a result of the lack of sanitation facilities, would be a grave governmental disservice to the Windward community, which is a beach going community that lacks a viable traditional beach park.

PLEASE DO NOT PASS SENATE BILL 2004. HUNDREDS OF WINDWARD RESIDENTS OPPOSE THIS BILL AS DEPICTED IN THE PETITION. IT IS IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE PEOPLE TO TABLE THIS BILL AS UNNECESSARY AND REDUNDANT.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Lee Williams
Lee Williams"

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I remain in opposition to this bill. While it has been changed somewhat from how it was originally introduced, the recreational boaters are still very concerned about the bill in its present form. This bill would create a monument, Ahu o Laka, out of the sandbar at Kaneohe Bay.

"The introducer of this bill in the Senate has also introduced a Resolution, and it's my hope that he would move that Resolution because there are many conflicting stories about the importance of that sandbar. It goes by a number of names with different significance.

"The Resolution that was introduced took that into account and it would have created a taskforce and had people come to the table to try to create some kind of agreement on what reason and why, and what name it should be, and that is why I hope that instrument would move forward. That's why I'm against moving this forward at this time.

"I think that if you're going to establish a monument, you have to be really clear about your intentions. I think most of us are familiar with heiau that are magnificent, like the Mookini Heiau. Iolani Palace is a monument. Mauna Ala in Nuuanu is a monument. If we were to make Ahu o Laka, which even the name, there is no agreement on the name. A monument. This would be very unusual. There is nothing there. It's underwater, in every 24-hour period.

"Sandbars by their very nature are moving and changing. Many people not aware of it, but during the second World War, the Navy dredged deepwater channels right down the middle of Kaneohe Bay, which changed the pattern of currents and helped to move away some of the sand that previously had stood higher.

"There also was a gentleman who owned Coconut Island, which is now owned by the State of Hawaii. And he sent people to take barges of sand and dredged, transfer it from the sandbar to Coconut Island. All this has changed the geology and the geography of the sandbar, so I would ask rather than we speed ahead with this, that those Representatives, especially those that represent Windward area, they should have heard from a number of their constituents to vote no on this bill at this time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with a no. I heard this bill when it was in Water, Land, Ocean, and since then it absolutely amazes me how many friends, cousins, uncles ... I have even been hamai-ed by people that I thought I knew, and I didn't know they used this sandbar or this location.

"You have to remember, we are an island state, and we, I believe, we are all everything that we have is a monument. But we also have people that use the monument of their family gatherings, their togetherness, to join and enjoy each other at certain of these locations.

"This is one of them, and the calls and the pleas that I have received is, let's not proceed hastily with establishing this in such a manner that it becomes unusable or unattainable for people who use it for bonding, family bonding. So I ask that on this bill, we vote no. But those of you that are maybe not sure about voting, that we encourage that the great, infamous hole of Conference Committee, that this somehow gets lost there. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This measure is for neurotrauma, where it says, Relating to Neurotrauma. And its talking about the Neurotrauma Special Fund and from what I understand the Neurotrauma Special Fund only gets about $400,000 a year into it. And what the measure says is it's going to be used in part for direct services that assist individuals in neurotrauma injuries. It doesn't really explain what those direct services might be, and I'm concerned that the measure again relies on this special fund, which is only $400,000 per year funding source. Maybe we need to get some federal match also, but that still doesn't seem like a lot of money. Just want to point that out. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2727, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NEUROTRAUMA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations. Mr. Speaker, my reservations pertain to the issue that this essentially exempts the capital gains for people selling their property. I understand the predicament that the lessors and the lessees are in, in trying to encourage the landowner to sell their fee.

"My concern again, is with the tax exemption, especially since my understanding of this bill is this generally not for residential property, but investment property. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2076, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEASEHOLD CONVERSION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2959, SD 3, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations. While establishing a rapid response development and training program to facilitate these displaced workers' return to the labor market is a worthwhile investment, the bill comes severely flawed, and that is the program should be established within the Department of Labor rather than the Community College system, as the Department is a more appropriate facility for training those who are currently unemployable. The Community College system should not be shouldering the responsibility of securing transportation and childcare services for program participants.

"To saddle the Community Colleges with the burden of providing these costly service exceeds the outer bounds of reason, fairness, and cost efficiency. I urge my colleagues to look at this measure and try to figure out why we are putting all these programs and these buildings on the Community Colleges, which are there to teach, rather than relying on the Department of Labor to do their job as it is already mandated. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. And the reservations that I have Mr. Speaker, have to do with basically federal funds needing to go through the DLIR, and not being able to go through the Community Colleges. I'm not exactly sure how that works, but that would cause me to have some reservations. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this bill. As originally introduced, it took all the programs out of the Department of Labor and move them into the Community Colleges. The Department uses special funds for these retraining programs. It's not clear that this money could be used at the Community College level.

"This bill talks about a rapid response development and training program. We have the lowest unemployment in the nation. It's sort of perplexing to me that we have this great move to get people retrained and moving. We have industries that we've identified like the construction industry, that we need to train people in a fast way. And there are other bills that are handling that, so I'm a little confused on why we are transferring programs that have been in the Department of Labor over to the Community Colleges."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I'd just like to state that there are two main reasons why we need to do this. One is that the Community Colleges are integrated throughout our State and actually a part of our community. Unfortunately, the Department of Labor is an isolated office that cannot and does not have the outreach that the Community Colleges do.

"And why this is so important is that when you look at the studies that are being conducted by the Department of Business and Economic Development, what they estimate is through the year 2012, they estimate that there is actually going to be a huge shortage of workers in our labor marketplace because what we have is the baby-boomers retiring. So they estimate there are about 21,000 jobs that will be available every year through the retirement system, as well as new businesses opening up. But there are only about 9,000 people that are going to be entering the labor market through graduation.

"That leaves us with an estimated 12,000 jobs that we don't know how this need is going to be met. That's why it's so important for there to be training, so people can fulfill these jobs, and so that we can bring new people into the marketplace. Because without that, and with, as the Minority Floor Leader said, unemployment at the lowest rate, where everybody who can work pretty much, is working. Where are we going to get these people? We need to have a responsive plan that will address this, because this workplace shortage will be hitting us very soon, and we need to have a plan. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"A couple more brief comments in support, Mr. Speaker, talking about why we need a rapid response team approach here. You look at what's happening at the Naniloa Hotel in Hilo, or Del Monte out in the Ewa Plain, and you're talking about workers that do need to be retrained to be integrated into the workforce.

"We're talking about hotel workers in Hilo who don't have a lot of other choices to work in resorts other than driving for two hours to Kona. If they're going to have gainful employment, the rapid response team will help them through the Community College in Hilo, and help them train to find other jobs.

"The Del Monte workers. These are hard-working people that do an excellent job in the agricultural field. There is not a growth in these jobs on Oahu. There may be a demand over in Kapalaia in Maui or something, but if they're going to have gainful employment, they need help.

"So even though we're at very low unemployment, there are pockets throughout our State that do suffer the impacts when industries are shut down, or a certain business is sold. This would help address that problem.

"In addition Mr. Speaker, as stated by the Majority Floor Leader, it's best done through the Community College. The Department of Labor could not do this type of training. It's basically working with kids coming out of high school, getting them to understand basic things like math and reading, so they can get into programs where they won't drop out, so that they will go on to high-paying jobs, pay their taxes, educate their kids, and help the economy overall.

"So I'm kind of surprised that there would be any opposition or any with reservations votes. In fact, Mr. Speaker, this is an investment. This is a commitment to our future, to all of our futures. And I think everyone would want to get behind this kind of legislation. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. One of the speakers previously said that we would be saddling the Community College with this obligation. The University of Hawaii and the Community College asked us to help in this. They asked us to fund this, and we're responding to their request. It was approved by the Board of Regents, and I was happy to support this because it will provide better paying jobs. It will allow people to better their quality of life, and any measure that does that, I'd be happy to support. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm remaining with reservations. I just want to point out that the measure also requires things such as transportation and babysitting. I just don't think those are things that the Community College should be saddled with. I understand the Department of Labor can help in those matters, but not the Community Colleges.

"They're there to produce classrooms and teachers and instructors to train people for those new fields that they're trying to go into, or give them basic job skills if they came out of other jobs where they didn't need those skills. But not to babysit, and not to provide transportation and get them to the school. There are other methods and there's other things in place already to do that. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The bill on page 5 says, 'Priority will be given to growth industries including, but not limited to, electronics, software, instrumentation, biotechnology, renewable energy, telecommunications, computers, mariculture, aquaculture, tropical agriculture, Hawaiian natural products, and space applications including astronomical research.' Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising for the second time. There's one problem you could run into by having these retraining programs at the Community College. I'm thinking of some of the employees at Naniloa. If they have not graduated from high school, they would not be able to go to the Community College until they get their GED. Whereas, if they were going to go to a training program put on by the Department of Labor, that would not be a requirement."

Representative Meyer later rose stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted to change my vote on Stand. Com. Report 1651 from a no vote, to support with reservations."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Okay, you'll be able to do during our roll call."

Representative Meyer: "Well I wanted to get ahead of the roll call vote because we were moving along so quickly."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2959, SD 3, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR," passed

Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1652-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am voting with a no. It's very hard to stand and speak against an injured worker, especially an injured worker that is injured through no fault of their own. In fact I now have a stepson that is an injured worker, and it's very difficult for me to help him through the system knowing that there are so many pitfalls and stumbles that make it so difficult for our employees to make it through the system.

"However, what this bill attempts to do, is to, I think, create a very bad situation and make it even worse. We already have the highest, most expensive workers' comp system in the nation, and it continues to be broken. The problem that I have with my stepson is that when he moved to one of the Neighbor Islands, he was unable to find a work comp physician to pick up his case. So after three months of knocking on doors, he's unable to get a physician, and he got an automatic termination because after three months without a physician working on you, you're terminated.

"So I was able to intercede and get him to a physician so that we were able to get the physician's report and he came back on with his TTD benefits. But to codify this as a right so that an employee then is more encouraged to just sit back and not do anything until the system, which as we all know is broken, could take six months to get him to a hearing to say, 'Oh yes, you are not entitled to those rights.' Off he goes and who is left holding the bag of that six months of waiting? It would be the employer.

"Their experience rating will go up even though it was no fault of their own. Their premiums will go up even though it was no fault of their own. It is our fault. It is our fault because we continue to pressure a system that is broken. And I know it's like rubbing salt in the wound, but I think we could have made a very small step to perhaps maybe resolving this type of an issue last Session when we unilaterally just brushed aside these guidelines that we were talking about, that we had public hearings on, because that could have taken care of this problem because that employee then would have continual care under the guidelines.

"So as it is right now, we cannot support this. I cannot support this bill. And when I asked the question of what if this employee if found to not be covered under this temporary disability, well what happens? Oh well, we'll just see if the employee can pay it back. C'mon. We have to get real. That's not going to happen. And why would we want to pressure someone with this type of pressure? An individual who the system couldn't help?

"They were saying, someone said to me, I think it was our Chair of Labor, 'Well, we'll just figure out some way to get credit back to the businesses.' It is not the way to deal with this. The way to deal with this is to fix this problem. Not continue to make it more expensive and more difficult to do business in the State of Hawaii, which all those technology companies that we're encouraging to open up businesses in Hawaii, you too are going to fall into this trap. You too are going to be priced right out of the market because of these types of craziness. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am strongly opposed to this bill, Mr. Speaker, not only because there is no need for it as the current system does not appear to be broken, but also because of the incredible cost that will be incurred if this bill passes. There are no safeguards to prevent this new system from being abused. How do we know our insurance companies will not be paying for a previously injured worker to take a few more days off to go to the beach? Or visit relatives? Or merely stay home and do nothing as the money continues to come in? If passed, this bill will increase the cost of workers' compensation insurance. The cost is already prohibitive and businesses keep asking the Legislature to reform workers' compensation laws to bring down the cost. Instead we are entertaining bills that go the other way. Everyone will end up paying for the cost of those who stay home from work, legitimately or not, because businesses will have to raise their prices to cover the added costs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of this bill. This proposed bill though well intended adds considerable cost to the workers' compensation system, creates a disincentive for an employee to return to work, and removes disability determination out of the hands of the healthcare profession where it rightly belongs."

"This measure will also prevent an employer from asking for termination of TTD benefits. Additionally, this situation is already addressed by current law, which enables an employee to continue to receive TTD benefits if there is no work to which the employee can return. To be clear and consistent, this bill should include language that makes it clear that continued TTD benefits will be available only if the injured employee's inability to return to work is due to the decision of his or her employer. Otherwise, the bill will not only increase the cost of providing workers' compensation benefits, but it may encourage employees to stay out of work until TTD benefits are terminated."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTINUED TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFITS TO INJURED EMPLOYEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1653-06) recommending that S.B. No. 1593, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1593, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kanoho rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in very strong support with brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this bill would ensure the retention of affordable housing so sorely needed in our State. The units might otherwise be sold, and our leadership needs to be complemented for this stroke of brilliance in the establishment of community development district. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I will be voting no on this measure for many, many reasons. First of all, we have spent this entire Session scolding, threatening, asking for changes in the HCDA. To now take the HCDA and throw another district at them and say, 'Here, go fix this.' I do not believe is the right thing to do."

"First of all, the HCDA is not an affordable housing building organization. The HCDA is in fact a redevelopment agency. To take them now and put them into the Kalihi, Liliha-Palama district and say to go fix this affordable housing is not what we should be doing. That's my first piece of my no vote. I have two more."

"My second piece of my no vote is the way this whole process was done. This bill came over as a Senate Bill, and what that Senate Bill did was it allowed counties to recommend rural district amendments and to form an advisory group to redefine rural districts. And we, in our infamous wisdom, took that bill and did our infamous 'gut and replace.'"

The Chair addressed Representative Harbin, stating:

"Representative, let's focus on ..."

Representative Harbin: "I'm sorry. I am speaking to the bill. The bill as it stands is an illegal measure."

Vice Speaker Takai: "You need to speak on the bill as currently in front of us. That is House Draft 2."

Representative Harbin: "That is exactly what I'm speaking to, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this bill has not reached its constitutional test of a bill. It fails under Section 402 of Mason's Rules because it is not germane to the original subject matter, which is exactly what it is that I'm trying to share with my fellow Members. It is not germane."

Vice Speaker Takai: "Representative, I'd like you to stick to House Draft 2. Thank you."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you. I will now go to my third reason for voting no. In Taomae v. Lingle, in the Hawaii Supreme Court Decision, it says ..."

Vice Speaker Takai: "Representative, you brought this up for a previous measure."

Representative Harbin: "And I'm going to bring it up again because we need to, we need to realize that it is the process that is going to get us into trouble with what could be very, very necessary amendments from this House because of the fact that we are not following our own constitutional amendment. It says in Article III, Section 14, that no law shall be passed by bill and it shall not become law unless it passes three readings in each House on separate days."

Vice Speaker Takai: "Representative, I'm going to call you out of order at this point."

Representative Harbin: "Mr. Speaker, this bill will not do what it is intended. HCDA is an economic development agency. Within their rules there are provisions for certain portions of affordable housing when there is an affordable housing measure."

"When I went to the hearing, I was handed this document that gave me a factsheet on Kukui Gardens. This is what we were voting on, without any pre-information. And what is the Kukui Gardens? 22 parcels of lands. A number of residents estimated 2,500. Many immigrants from China and Korea. Rents, $444 for 1 bedroom; $818 for a 4-bedroom unit."

"Mr. Speaker, affordable housing right now, it's our people that are in crises. All of our people. We have people that are on the streets that could not even get into this Kukui Gardens. We need to look at what we are doing. We need to not give false hope to these 2,500 people of which 15 were brought down here to testify, pleading for their homes. This was not a fair bill. This is not a legal bill. And there's got to be a better way to do this, but this is not the right way. Thank you."

At 12:02 o'clock p.m., Representative Arakaki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:05 o'clock p.m.

Representative Arakaki rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also stand in support and request to submit written comments. And just to comment that this gives us a chance to have some discussion, some alternatives and choices. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this measure which would as stated in section 1: Require the office of planning to work with the counties to recommend rural district amendments, convene an advisory group for redefining rural districts, allow counties one opportunity to reclassify areas of land into rural land use districts, appropriate money to accomplish the purposes of this act.

"It is our duty to preserve the unique qualities our historic communities offer. We, as State must cherish and preserve our archaeological, cultural, and historic identity, while allowing for revitalization of our community's needs and input.

"It creates the Liliha-Palama community development district within the administration of the Hawaii Community Development Authority. While there may be concerns about the HCDA, in the best interest of our community, we must keep our options open for our community's benefit, while we seek the community's input."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition. I think the comments made by the Representative from Downtown Honolulu, that the process was very, very unusual, and the bill that has come out, having HCDA in charge of redoing Liliha-Palama. It is amazing because we have seem to have such a schizophrenic relationship with HCDA. It's almost laughable that we would now say, 'You've done such a great job, we want to hand over to you Liliha-Palama.' I think this bill has a long way to go and I can't support it."

Representative Kanoho rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just for the clarification, the HCDA in the administration of its duties and in exercising of its power is responsible for 40% affordable units in the Kakaako district. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support of the measure, but I do have some considerations. Yes, reservations. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this schizophrenic attitude toward HCDA, I think is a apt way to describe this. In certain measures, we're really gutting their authority, saying they have to come and ask us for permission to do everything.

"I think there's a better way to preserve the Kukui Gardens as low rental or affordable, actually low rental housing. I think that's a very noble cause, but it actually will take money. We can't say that we're going to take those and keep them in low income housing unless we put funds forward to do it.

"I think this HCDA thing really complicates the issue and we can't say to them on one hand, now you're going to be in total control, but over here in Kakaako, we're carving out areas where we're saying the City is going to take it over from you, and with what you have left to do, you have to come to us to ask permission for everything.

"So I think this is not well thought out. There's still a little bit of time to improve things and I think we need to focus on what we want to do and that is to preserve the housing so those people aren't added to the list of those who don't have a roof over their heads. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly, in opposition. Thank you. In the Finance Committee, we didn't hear any testimony from the City and County. Nor did we hear very much from the public, from the Liliha-Palama area. And the public that did testify, they were more from the Kakaako side and I believe that they were reacting to what's going on in Kakaako. So I'm in opposition to this bill, but only because I believe that it needs a little more public input because an area is carved out and turned into another development district. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Just very briefly, I'm rising in opposition. It's been mentioned before. I just want to make it clear to this Body. In the Kakaako measure we took a portion of the HCDA development away and we're saying, 'Let's give it to the City.' The City didn't want it, and I can understand why, because you know that's just more expense. But here, we're going to take a piece of the City and give it to HCDA, and I'm sure the City will be very happy. But isn't it ironic? Taking it away in one place and giving it in another place. Either we trust HCDA or we don't. Please, let's get it straight."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1593, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer, Moses and Stevens voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 12:13 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills, passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2727, SD 1, HD 2	S.B. No. 2959, SD 3, HD 1
S.B. No. 3270, SD 2, HD 1	S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 2076, SD 2, HD 2	S.B. No. 1593, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 3215, SD 1, HD 2

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Before moving on, I'd just like to encourage Members to give our Majority Floor Leader and Minority Floor Leader your pink slips and green slips so we can avoid this situation in the future."

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1654-06) recommending that S.B. No. 475, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 475, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I, along with a consortium of social service providers known as the Welfare and Employment Rights Coalition (WERC), strongly support this Women's Caucus measure and have urged its passage for the past several years.

"Simply put, welfare recipients have not received an adjustment to their assistance amount since 1993. This bill would finally correct this injustice, and raise the Standard of Need to the current Federal Poverty Level.

"At long last, this year the Department of Human Services joined the call to finally increase the Standard of Need, and supported this measure. According to DHS' cost analysis submitted to the Finance Committee, the cost of this measure is a mere $5 to $13 million in general funds per year. The variation in cost is due to the bill's granting of latitude to DHS in adjusting the percentage, from 50 to 62.5 percent, of the Federal Poverty Level, in determining the assistance amount.

"Please note that DHS, the Attorney General, and social service providers collaborated on a proposed House Draft 2 of the measure. These groups obtained the House Human Services Committee Chair's prior concurrence to this proposed House Draft 2, and the Committee Report notes that the draft is "worthy of examination and consideration as this measure progresses through the legislative process."

The proposed House Draft 2 does the following:

- 1) Calculates the standard of assistance at 62.5% of the current Federal Poverty Level;
- 2) Includes General Assistance and the Aged, Blind, and Disabled payments;
- 3) Increases DHS' Fiscal Year 2007 budget by $27 million ($14.3 million in Federal funds, and $12.9 million in General Funds); and
- 4) Most importantly, will increase payments to indigent families, the elderly, and disabled by approximately $200 per month

"Please note that for Fiscal Year 2008, DHS is estimating a cost savings of $8.6 million under the Proposed House Draft 2.

"One final very important note is that this bill will provide much needed relief to elderly and disabled Medicaid recipients on the "Cost Share" or "Spend Down" program, by decreasing their monthly co-payment by up to $200 per month.

"I urge my colleagues to support this long awaited measure."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 475. This bill's purpose is to find ways to improve public assistance recipients with adequate income. We cannot continue to ignore the economic reality and needs of these impoverished families and that's what we do when we base the assistance on 1993 poverty levels.

"We know that even individuals that have a regular income struggle with everyday costs of living in Hawaii. We should not keep the current system's amount of cash assistance because it is an unrealistic amount. The current amount of cash assistance is insubstantial to maintain rent in this State, much less food, water, clothing and school supplies. This bill would change the basis of the calculation to a more current level.

"We need to help the families of Hawaii who are struggling with the standards of living and help minimize the many negative effects of poverty. Let's keep our Legislature honorable and raise the standard of need for households, particularly for the sake and well being of Hawaii's children.

"By increasing the level and other measures, like DHS's First-Work Program, we can give people a hand up instead of a hand out. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is another tax increase and I'm voting no. Thank you. This is going to hit the poor and larger families the most. This is increasing the bottle bill container size to 68 ounces. It's also going to increase, we're going to have an increase of a half a cent on this deposit fee, if you call it that. It's a tax.

"I know half a cent, because the number of the returned containers is so high, so we're going to be paying 6 and a half cents for each 5 cents we get back. And as I said with the larger size containers, which is what you buy in the 'big box' stores, you're going to hit the poor and larger families the most. Those who are in the most need of tax relief, we're going to tax the most. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 3181, SD2, HD1, with reservations. While I do support Hawaii's beverage container recycling program, there are serious flaws within SB3181 that need to be addressed.

"When the original bottle bill was passed in 2002, a one cent deposit beverage container fee was put in place so long as the number of bottles redeemed stayed under 70 per cent. As the current percentage of recycled bottles hovers near that mark, passage of SB3181 will push the percentage of recycled bottles beyond 70 per cent. Currently, Hawaii's consumers are paying five refundable cents plus the one non-refundable cent per beverage container. Passage of SB3181 will increase the nonrefundable deposit beverage container fee. Although it is environmentally friendly to recycle more beverage containers, the administrative fee that is already being shouldered by Hawaii's consumers will have to be increased to support the increased recycling infrastructure.

"In addition, SB3181 places an undue burden on beverage container vendors, by mandating that vendors not within two miles of an independent redemption center operate a redemption center of their own for at least 30 hours per week.

"Although Hawaii's beverage container recycling program is important in protecting our State's environment, Senate Bill 3181, SD2, HD1 has a number of flaws that must be resolved before becoming law. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. We must make sure that any amendments to our bottle bill will streamline the redemption process and provide residents with convenient recycling where they shop, when they shop.

"This measure increases the volume limit of beverages from 64 to 68 fluid ounces, and may help the redemption process. However, we must be careful not to adversely affect the ability to service customers promptly. Restrictions such as the mandate require to hand count containers may penalize hard-working business owners."

Representative Karamatsu rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2133, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of Standing Committee Report 1669 and the underlying bill. Mr. Speaker, this bill is premature. There's a taskforce meeting regularly that is dealing with Universal Healthcare, and the taskforce will have its recommendation when it reports in June of this year.

"I also oppose this bill because Universal Healthcare, simply doesn't work. Here are some examples. Canada has a national doctor shortage. In Ontario, there are 1.4 million people without the services of a family doctor and the reduced availability of many desirable drugs has lead many Canadians to head to the United States to buy drugs that they can't get at home.

"Canada, the country where a dog can get hip replacement in under a week, but humans must sometimes wait for two to three years. Its publicly financed health insurance system is gradually breaking down. Private clinics are opening around the country by an estimated one per week. Some cancer patients are waiting months for diagnostic tests and treatment. The average wait times between referral by a family doctor and treatment range from five and a half weeks for oncology, to 40 weeks for orthopedic surgery.

"In 1998 there were more than 1.3 million British patients on waiting list for medical care. There are cases of people waiting four months to receive an operation for colon cancer, and in some cases, drugs may be cheaper under universal healthcare, but when a government buys drugs, it must also ration them. With no private sector alternatives, there is no private sector alternatives, patients have no choice, but to accept what their government, not what their doctors decide is best.

"History has shown that any single-payer initiative requires much more money than advocates claim. This will lead to higher taxes and the rationing of healthcare with the government determining which medical treatments that will or will not be covered. Almost every European country with a national healthcare system has introduced market-oriented reforms and turned to the private sector to reduce the cost of care and availability and effectiveness of treatments. For example, Finland in 1991 encouraged competition among providers, called for improving accounting systems and allow patients greater choice in selecting providers. Results were felt almost immediately. Hospital productivity rose by an average of 16% between 1991 and 1993. New market and product procurement cut cost anywhere from 10% for any amount of services, to 40% for medical laboratories and radiography.

"I'm mostly disappointed that this bill was gutted from its original version, and versions from three separate bills were combined into this bill. I want to make sure that the public knows I'm not opposed to a suicide prevention program, or keeping our mothers safe from mercury containing vaccines, but I cannot vote for a bill that promoted Universal Healthcare because it is not effective for the people of Hawaii, and I don't want anybody to wait four months for a surgery for something as life threatening as cancer, which has occurred in countries where Universal Healthcare exists."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no for this measure for I believe, three reasons. One, this particular bill is very contrary to Section 402 where the amendments must be germane to the original bill, which came over from the Senate. Just so that the public is aware, the original bill was a very important bill, that provided that placenta must be released by a hospital to the women from which it originated. And we, in the House have gutted it and replaced it with three separate issues, three of which have absolutely no common denominators.

"I believe this bill is contrary to our Hawaii State Constitution in that it cannot pass constitutional muster because of the fact that these particular measures have not been heard by the Senate, therefore I will be voting no. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition. I just wanted to point out to the Members that I'm very pleased to see that when we vote on resolutions later in the agenda, that we do have one requesting the Department of Health to establish and operate a statewide suicide early intervention and prevention program, and so I'm really pleased. I'd like to see us move that forward. I too was a little concerned about putting three different ideas in one bill.

"And regarding the Hawaii Health Authority, that would have been more palatable to me if it had really expanded it to looking at the Certificate of Need, and maybe removing the Certificate of Need to promote better healthcare in Hawaii.

"Also looking at what happened in Massachusetts this last week, to where that State is now mandating everyone, everyone has health insurance. And the State will subsidize those that can't afford it and that is their way to try to get Universal Healthcare, so I know it's a problem. I know we need to address it, but this was too narrow so I'm voting no. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Moses and Evans be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Colleagues, I'm not asking you to support this bill today. I am supporting it, and this is why. This bill creates a Hawaii Health Authority, the piece I'm talking about. Right now, you need to know that there's a war going on. It's a war in the United States between people who have insurance and the ability to get it.

"Every year things get worse in the United States, every single year. Millions, and millions, and millions of people become uninsured in America to the point where it's 45 million people in our country. A country where freedom is important, and where we believe we have three of the most important ideas to export to the rest of the world. Meanwhile we're failing our people, particularly people without means.

"The reason it's important to create a Hawaii Health Authority or to have the taskforce this past year, or to have new proposals coming forward into the future, is because we really have to be ready for change. In Hawaii, things are pretty extraordinary. Uninsured rates are somewhere between 9% and 12%. We're going to insure every kid. We have a lot of things going for us. The Prepaid Healthcare Act gives us a lot of protection, but what happens when our population has more uninsured? When it goes from 10%, 120,000 people, to 15%, or 20%, and we didn't have plans in place to deal with it.

"We're doing a lot of great things. We're doing a good job with health centers which deal with this issue, the uninsured. We're doing a very good job with our safety net. But hyperbole the likes of which I've heard before, saying that we're going to become Canada, and we're going to replace the hips of dogs before people, doesn't help matters. Forgive me for being so direct, but we're talking about human lives and care, so we have to have plans.

"That's why I started and I'll finish with this point. You don't have to support Hawaii Health Authority. You don't even have to support Universal Healthcare, but what you do have to support is solutions. So if we vote down solution after solution, if we don't let certain plans like ... And unfortunately, it's okay. We don't do the map maybe, the workforce map for healthcare. There are a lot of things that we don't have to do today. But please don't come back to the people when things are worse when people are sicker and take credit for doing good things on healthcare.

"We have to rise to the occasion and in Hawaii, we have an opportunity to really show the rest of the country that we can do it. Because our predecessors did great things with the Prepaid Healthcare Act and built these health centers and have some good hospitals for us, we can achieve great things in healthcare. But we also could fail and go the way of the mainland and watch our uninsured rates rise higher and higher. So please, in these coming months and years, be very focused on our ability to take care of people, and let's not get into hyperbolic rhetoric about other systems. We in Hawaii can lead the way. Thank you colleagues."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I'm going to be a little stronger, emphasizing how important this measure is. First of all, the original bill is still alive in the form of the House Bill which is going to come back for Conference. But it's really important that we consider this measure whether we adopt it in the end or not. We need to have this discussion.

"And I would have to say, as policymakers, we need to be a little more visionary. We need to stop putting our heads in the sand. Just look at what's happening here in Hawaii. The cost of healthcare is going up. The cost of reimbursements are going down. Our elderly population is increasing all the time. And with the chance of more federal assistance coming to Hawaii, or to any other state, it lessens with every year.

"We're heading for that perfect storm, and if we don't do anything to prepare or to address these issues, then who do we have to blame? Or are we just going to throw our hands up and say, 'Well, what can we do about it? It's just like the weather.' Well with healthcare, we can do something about it because the data shows, the preliminary report from Lewin shows, that we spend more than enough to care for every citizen, to provide for quality healthcare to every citizen in this State. But it's a matter of putting together resources. It's a matter of people sacrificing. Not just people, but programs and agencies.

"Everybody has to give up a little bit to make this thing work, and that's what the Health Authority is for. It's not for us to figure out what kind of system we want. We're asking the Authority, we're giving them the responsibility to figure out, according to what's already reported and what is going to be reported through the research, because there is a potential, Mr. Speaker, of saving over $700 million according to the preliminary report, if we adopt, for example, expansion of our EUTF Health Benefit program.

"The potential is there. And of course like I said, some people are going to have to give up a piece of their pie perhaps, to make it work. But it can work, and I believe Hawaii is a perfect place to make it work, because as the Vice Chair mentioned, we have all these things in place already.

"So Mr. Speaker, I hope we can be bold. I hope we can be visionary. And I hope we can set an example for the rest of the country on what a healthcare system should be like if we're going to meet the healthcare needs of our citizens. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this bill. As the speaker from Downtown Honolulu said, this bill as its been amended, has three very separate and distinct parts to it. The part on setting up a way to be vigilant for teenage ... I can't think of the word right now. Suicides. I think has real merit.

"I don't see why we're rushing in to creating this Authority. There is a taskforce that's been meeting regularly, dealing with Universal Healthcare and the taskforce is yet to come out with its final report. That would come out June of this year. Then with the contents of that report, then I think we should start deciding what the next move is. Instead we're doing this with the cart before the horse. We're moving this ahead without the benefit of that report.

"Another part of this bill with a mercury substance that's used as a preservative in vaccines, and pretty much wanting pharmaceuticals not to use this substance anymore. It's used routinely in multi-doses of vaccines. We have another bill before us today that will be appropriating millions of dollars to the Department of Health so that we can stockpile vaccines for maybe perhaps, the avian flu. We know that this mercury substance works. We don't have another product that works like it does, and this bill would work against that. So for those reason, I'm voting no on this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2133, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1670-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2364, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2364, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At 2:20 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:23 o'clock p.m.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. We have moved along so quickly, we passed over a bill that I wanted to just make a few brief remarks on. Thank you very much. This is Stand. Comm. Report 1670. This is a bill relating to alcohol and substance abuse.

"This is, I think a very good bill. It will help in our fight over our serious drug abuse problems. Has two parts actually. The bill will establish an affirmative requirement that all health insurers provide coverage for an insured's injury that results from the insured's intoxication or being under the influence of any narcotic. Under current Hawaii law, healthcare providers are hesitant to link alcohol or substance abuse to an injury for fear of non-reimbursement of services rendered. The change in the bill will eliminate that fear and hesitancy.

"The second part of the bill is really the important part. It will create a pilot program to be conducted in hospital emergency rooms. Everyday our emergency medical doctors and nurses see people who are addicted to alcohol and narcotic type drugs, such as ice or cocaine, come in with injuries. This new program would have somebody in the emergency room who is being treated for an injury, who will after the person has received the medical care he needs, will sit down with the person who is obviously either on drugs, on alcohol, or has serious problems with drugs, and conduct a briefing to ask them about their situation. And for many persons, this is perhaps the first time a trained, interested person has inquired as to their problems. Do they have a problem with alcohol? Do they think they have a problem? Are they addicted to some kind of a drug?

"This trained person will also suggest intervention like a referral or recommend treatment. This program is known as SBRT and capitalizes on what trained people call a 'teachable moment,' a time of vulnerability, when an addicted individual would be more open to intervention and dialogue.

"Programs like this have been going on in San Diego for about 10 years with very good results, and I think this is something that is going to make a difference in our communities. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this bill, as it will allow individuals in Hawaii access to needed medical services, regardless of intoxication from alcohol or narcotics.

"This measure will prohibit medical health insurers from excluding coverage from injuries sustained by insured persons as a result of intoxication from alcohol and narcotics, and appropriates funds to establish a screening, briefing, intervention, referral, and treatment pilot program at the locations in the State of Hawaii. This is a tool in the important fight against drugs and crime."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with reservations. Regarding the program they call SBRT, and intervention in an emergency room. I have some real strong concerns about money being spent on this. I really believe that when people have problems with substance abuse or with drinking that, when they ask for help, I believe it's there. And if someone goes into an emergency room and it's because of an accident and they have a high alcohol blood level in their blood, then I'm assuming by this bill that the medical doctors there will then reveal this information to someone who is ... what? Sitting around 24 hours a day just waiting for someone to come in? What are we going to do with these people in the meantime?"

"So here you have the program, or you have a psychologist, a social worker. We're not sure who it's going to be. Sitting around, waiting for this 'teachable moment', and then a person who comes in, their blood's been tested, now someone walks up to them and say, 'Guess what? That person is legally drunk,' or 'They're on substance abuse.' So now you go and intervene, even though the person hasn't asked for it. You're going to go and intervene and make a difference.

"And I believe we should be spending our money on the kids in the middle school that have substance abuse and alcohol abuse, and maybe even smoking cigarettes problems. I do not think this is a good use of money. I said it in the Finance Committee. I do not think we should be promoting this at this time. I do believe that there are doctors, there are pastors, there are all kinds of wonderful people that are in hospitals that can give them access to people that are going to help them if they decide that they, their life is unmanageable. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"This measure will remove an archaic and harmful provision of Hawaii's insurance law. The bill will mandate that treatment for injuries suffered by insured individuals resulting from substance abuse will be covered. This provision, coupled with the appropriation in the bill, will make it more likely for healthcare professionals to seize upon a 'teachable moment' when a substance abuser has injured himself or herself. Presently, health care workers are tempted to overlook any suspicion or evidence of substance abuse because to make note of it would deny the patient the needed care for his or her injuries.

"With this amendment to the law, injured patients who may have substance abuse issues will be promptly referred to other medical professionals for evaluation and treatment. The sooner substance abusers can get treated; the sooner they may recover. Nobody benefits under the existing regime of denial. The increase in insurance premiums resulting from this change, if any, will be worthwhile.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2364, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ALCOHOL AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1671-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2917, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2917, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. Originally, Senate Bill 2917 removed the sunset date for the Hawaii insurance premium rate oversight, but the current version falls short of this because it extends rate oversight only until a specified date, currently 2010. I know that is just a defective date, it can change, and that's the reason I would support this measure at all because at least it does push the date out in the future.

"The rate oversight should be made permanent because it will take a long-term commitment to encourage competition to come into Hawaii's market. Also HMSA is projecting that rates will double in 10 years. In this environment, it's essential that excessive profits be removed from rates. The Legislature should decide once and for all whether it wishes to have rate oversight and not continue to defer the decision.

"Another thing it does is it changes rate oversight in two negative ways. First, it exempts from rate oversight, vision and dental rates, which are now currently under review. And second, it only requires only a methodology filing rather than a full week filing which could leave the Insurance Commissioner without a solid basis for evaluating whether rates are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

"It makes confidential, only the information containing a rate filing, making it inaccessible to the public and destroying the transparency of rate oversight. It makes the period for filing 30 days with a possible 30-day extension to ensure the proper rate filing. It's currently 90 days.

"It requires the Commissioner to disclose the specific basis for disapproval thereby making it easier for the health plan to contest the Commissioner's decision. It requires the Commissioner to set an interim rate that is halfway between the requested rate and the disapproved rate. This creates an incentive for the health plan to set rates high and simply take the median rate, thereby bypassing the process.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, with all these, I still support it because at least it pushes the date forward. I hope we can fix this bill in Conference Committee and return it to its original intent and that was to delete the sunset date on the Insurance Commissioner's oversight of health insurance premium rates. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with a no. I know this is quite contradictory from where I basically have been advocating and standing for many, many years starting in 2002 when the original bill passed. I know compromise, and give and take, is what this Legislature is all about, but sometimes in life where you have to draw the line and you say, 'I will not give.'

"I have received so many phone calls from business owners that say, 'Give it up. They're going to get what they want down there,' because of things like this. How can the business community and the employees that they insure, healthcare insure, through the Prepaid Healthcare Act that they accept as a way of life in Hawaii. How can we sit here and bargain away the ability to have an independent third party looking at the rates that they are charged for their health insurance for their employees. This is probably the first time I'm actually going to incorporate the words of a fellow legislator because I usually like mine better, but I would like to incorporate the words of the Representative who spoke prior to me because that is exactly what is going on.

"We keep saying the Insurance Commissioner wants these changes. The Insurance Commissioner I talked to doesn't want these changes. He wants the law to stay as it is. We want the law to stay as it is. Actually we could make it stronger, we could make it tougher. The rate regulation as it stands right now does not allow the Insurance Commissioner to take into the account the half billion dollars worth of reserves that our friends at HMSA hold on with such strength. They cannot take into account the income that they continue to receive every year, investing off of our premium dollars while they continue to lower the reimbursement to the providers.

"I'm drawing the line. Leave it as it is. These amendments are unacceptable. You're violating, you're taking away, and they're going even as far as to say, 'We're going to take away what transparency we have.' That's what this place is about, transparency. How can we have Universal Healthcare as we talked about in the earlier bill if we can't even control the monopoly we have now? My vote is no, but please, please, for the sake of the people of Hawaii, the employees of Hawaii, pass the rate regulation out. Leave it as is. Get rid of the sunset. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2917, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE RATE REGULATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Harbin voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1673-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2571, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. S.B. No. 3273, SD 2, HD 2	S.B. No. 2917, HD 3
S.B. No. 2133, SD 2, HD 2	S.B. No. 2571, HD 1
S.B. No. 2364, SD 2, HD 3

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1674-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2572, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2572, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1675-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2334, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2334, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION FOR THE HAWAII YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1676-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2688, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2688, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support with reservations. My reservations are in the date that this goes into effect. This is putting a new Authority in charge of the Youth Correctional Facility. There's a memorandum of agreement that the Attorney General has entered into with the US Department of Justice, and it addresses the concerns raised by the DOJ findings letter of August 4, 2005.

"In the MOA, the State agreed to make substantive, remedial changes over a three-year period to resolve the DOJ's concerns over conditions at HYCF. The MOA reflects the current statutory relationship between HYCF and OYS, the Office of Youth Services.

"With the Office of Youth Services overseeing the youth facility, it will assume certain supervisory responsibilities remain for OYS. It does not contemplate this diversion of responsibility between the HYCF and the OYS, and it does not include the concept of a commission that will oversee the two separate administration offices. So at least we have to make sure that no changes occur before 2099, I believe, otherwise we're going to find ourselves with a problem with the US federal government. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2688, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1677-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support and I have some comments. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I think Members here are aware that no other state relies so heavily on oil as we do in Hawaii. We stand alone in the nation on our staggering 77% usage of fossil fuels for energy production. We know as an isolated land mass, that places us in an extremely dangerous position, leaves us vulnerable to international politics, fluctuating supply, and escalating prices. But we have a current policy, Mr. Speaker, that this bill is at least touching upon that could change this whole direction.

"We have a current policy, which is the fuel adjustment clause or the Energy Costs Adjustment Clause, the ECAC. And the ECAC continues to allow the utilities to make us totally dependent on fossil fuel. The ECAC permits energy utilities, such as Hawaiian Electric and its subsidiaries, to avoid any financial risk resulting from fluctuating oil prices because the utilities simply pass on those prices and risks to the consumers.

"I'm not sure if everyone in this Chamber knows that. When the price of oil goes up, so does your utility bill. The utility doesn't share any of the risk or the cost for that. So it's very critical that the Public Utilities Commission significantly adjust the ECAC because by doing so it will force Hawaiian Electric and its subsidiaries to move toward non-fossil fuel energy.

"Director Liu in his testimony before this Senate showed the ECAC's harsh impact on the consumers, stating that it accounted for 33% of Oahu's, and 50% of Maui's residential electricity cost in February 2006. This means that Maui residents could have cut in half their electric bills if Hawaiian Electric were forced to assume the cost of fossil fuel and were forced to really pursue renewable energy projects. HECO's ECAC charge to the consumer increased by 81%, and I believe that was in 2005 according to Director Liu.

"Well, you might what did the other states do. There are 32 states in the nation that have a form of an ECAC. The next highest to Hawaii in oil dependency is Florida and instead of 77%, Florida is simply at a 17% dependency on fossil fuel. So of course their consumers in Florida don't get hit as hard as our consumers in Hawaii with this continual increase in the cost of fossil fuel.

"The bill on page 16, does address the ECAC and turns it over to the Public Utilities Commission to examine the functioning of the ECAC to determine whether the clause operates in a manner that is fair to rate payers and whether the ECAC should be modified to encourage greater use of renewable energy by the utility.

"My concern about the bill is that we're not taking as bold a leadership step as we should. Mr. Speaker, a couple of years ago after a number of years of trying to do this, we put in a mandate that by the year 2020, utilities would derive 20% of their power from renewable energy sources. That was visionary. That was a positive statement. In this one, it's not as I guess, not as much of a leadership statement as I would like it to be. Not as much of a leadership policy statement. We could have said, 'Okay, Florida's at 17%. Hawaiian Electric you're sort of futzing around and not really doing much with renewable energy.'"

Representative Stevens rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. 'Hawaiian Electric you're futzing, f-u-t-z-i-n-g, futzing around and not doing what you really should be doing with renewable energy.' But we're going to the say to PUC, 'Okay, go look at it.'

"I would rather say, 'Okay, Hawaiian Electric. Florida only depends upon fossil fuel for 17% of its power. You're depending on 77%. We're going to set, not a goal, but a mandate that you move away from passing through that. You can only be allowed to pass through 50% of the fossil fuel cost to the consumer by the year 2010.' In 2012, we drop it more, drop it more and drop it more until finally Mr. Speaker, Hawaiian Electric should not be able to pass through any of those costs.

"These are the only things that are going to bring Hawaiian Electric to the bargaining table. That's the only way that they're going to really go out and either cooperate, partner with, or stop preventing competitors from coming into this State when those competitors have viable renewable energy projects that they want to install.

"Mr. Speaker, I spent three years getting through a simple bill to have Hawaiian Electric disclose on their utility bills the percentage of fossil fuel they were using to supply consumers with power. Hawaiian Electric fought that for three years. That's the mentality of that corporation. They're after profits for their shareholders and the rest of it, whatever. So of course it's in their shareholders' best interest for them to say, 'Gee, oil is going up. Too bad, the consumers pay. We're not changing. We can rely upon fossil fuel,' as William Bonnet said to me a number of years ago, 'We can rely on fossil fuel for 300 years.'

"That's the mentality we're dealing with it. And so we need to have a much more of a policy statement. We need to say, yes, we'll turn it over to PUC, but we need to set not just goals, but mandated levels of where the Hawaiian Electric can no longer ultimately pass through increases in fossil fuel to our consumers.

"On Maui, the ratepayers will be very happy because they're subsidizing Hawaiian Electric with 50% of their utility bills. And on Oahu, I think we'll be pretty happy too because you and the rest of us that live on Oahu are paying like about 33% because of Hawaiian Electric's insistence on staying, you call it, 'in the La Brea Tar Pits' with our feet sinking in fossil fuel and not being visionary and moving ahead aggressively. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in favor of the bill with some reservations. The former speaker's remarks, the speaker from Kailua, is sort of Pollyanna. I used to work for an electric company, I wish to disclose that, many years ago. A little story on that. I tried to form a union and after I failed, I was asked to leave. So it goes quite a way back.

"And after that Mr. Speaker, I want to just give some incidental stories to let you see where I'm going. I got into the anti-poverty program where I was very active in building solar water heaters, insulation, and windmills. Some of the first in Maui County at least. And also, every time Maui Electric requested a rate increase, we intervened. I had many interventions asking them to show exactly every cent and every cost that they have to justify the rate increase.

"So where I'm getting to here is that, when you look at trying to stop the pass on of the cost of the oil to the consumers, in effect, if it's going to result in a loss for the company, they're going to make it up in a case for increasing rates. You can be assured that they're going back to the Public Utility Commission to request that they have a rate increase so that they can continue to have the margin that is allowed by the Public Utility Commission. So in effect, it will result, it will have the opposite result, we would have an increasing rate rather than what you're have right now.

"Also, in the area of alternate energy, speaking about Maui, since you spoke about Maui and you're so concerned about me and Maui, I'm very happy about that. Mr. Speaker, I have a lot of favor from this woman, I think. This Legislator. Maui at one time had four plantations. Now we're down to two. Well in fact one, only HC&S. The only one that's been producing. We don't have to the bagasse now that we had some years ago to provide for the alternate fuel. They have that much less. Pineapples is not that much that we have. There's only one pineapple company so you cannot use the refuse for that.

"We don't have any water dams. Some years ago we attempted to dam an area and everybody got up and tried to save the environment, which is good. But what resulted is you have that much less alternate fuel. Alternate energy going into it. We have now, driving on Maui, going up to Lahaina, you have a whole slew of windmills. Huge windmills and that will provide some alternate energy that will be sold to Maui Electric Company."

Representative Tanaka rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Souki continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, to the Representative from Lahaina. But I'm trying to say that it's good to talk about alternate energy. We should set goals, but it should be realistic goals. You look at the capability that we have here and how much we can raise. In the meantime, we need to keep the electric company solvent so they can continue to generate enough electricity so we will not have brownouts and blackouts throughout the State. But Mr. Speaker, I believe that when we go out and explain and tally up the bills, we need to be realistic as we set these goals. Thank you very much."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I'm a longtime advocate of renewable energy. What bothers me is the comparison of the State of Hawaii to other states in the nation and the percentage of oil consumption. For a number of reasons, I think that is somewhat deceptive. We can't transport energy between state lines.

"Take for example the Tennessee Valley Authority. The huge hydroelectric capability of being able to transport that power to many other states. Natural gas, coal, all of those things that we don't have access to.

"I took the hit in 1988 when I was in the Senate and we permitted geothermal. We thought that the world was going to come to an end. Now it's readily acceptable.

"Mr. Speaker, we have enough geothermal energy on the Big Island to supply most of the electricity needs of the State, but they're trying to transport that energy between islands. It is almost impossible to get that approval. I know when it first came up, there was a cry loud enough to lift the roof of this Chamber.

"I mean Mr. Speaker, if we want to look far enough ahead into the future, when Buzz Aldrin spoke to us in the year 2000, I asked him, why we went to the moon? And he said well one of the reasons is that we found enough energy on the moon to supply all the energy needs of this earth. He explained to me how it was and how to get it here. Don't ask me to try and explain it because I don't have a clue, but we need to be looking far enough ahead, utilizing all of the geothermal and all of the alternative energy that we have in this State to solve the problem."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. With all due respect to the first two speakers, just listening to them, I've gotten confused over this bill, which I helped write. I think right now, we're at a critical point. We can write all the policies that we want to promote renewable energy, but where we have a huge barrier is on the regulation side and this is what this bill tries to accomplish. How to deal with a rate structure that helps to promote renewable energy and help to stabilize energy cost in this State.

"This measure was done in close consultation with all parties in trying to move this State forward in getting the most reasonable, predictable cost for energy as we transition into different technologies to improve our electricity delivery and usage. And so with this bill, I hope the Members can understand, it address a very critical issue on rate structure, and rate structure that promotes renewable energy and energy efficiency. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to clarify for the Members that when the Representative from Maui was talking about a relationship with me or whatever, he was being facetious. We do have our differences. He knows what they are. I know what they are. And occasionally, it's very rare, but twice this Session we have agreed on certain measures and I think those were related to HCDA. But I didn't want the Journal to be misread by anyone because of his comments. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in support. It's a good bill."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Now I want to point out, this is having to do with disaster preparedness. And right now the funding comes from the interest from the Hurricane Relief Fund and as long it doesn't touch the corpus, I am in support. I just want to point out that I do have a little bit of problem and that's because it's another special fund, but at least we're not touching the corpus. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISASTER PREPAREDNESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1680-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3114, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3114, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 3114, SD2, HD2. By supporting the community work day program with funds from the State, we will help beautify Hawaii. With an economy focused on tourism, the community work day program litter clean up efforts are invaluable to our island State. With our current economic prosperity, we have the assets to aid essential programs such as the community work day program. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3114, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE COMMUNITY WORK DAY PROGRAM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sonson and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1681-06) recommending that S.B. No. 3186, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3186, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to once again cast my no vote. I think since I'm one of the newcomers here, perhaps maybe I might explain a little, why I have such a strong feeling about a no vote.

"We're dealing with an industry that is a global industry and is bigger than probably the United States itself. We are one of the first states to start moving forward or did move forward with some type of a control to understand how it is that the oil industry charges for a very important commodity to the people of Hawaii.

"I think we were there, but because of incidences that were beyond our control, which almost everything in Hawaii is beyond our control, I'm so afraid that this particular Chamber is fearful and is running and hiding from trying to be strong policymakers.

"What this measure does, it doesn't put the gas cap or controls into a hold pattern. It literally repeals it. What we're doing is we're attempting also in this bill to establish some mode of transparency. And I think being that we're a state that seems to be driven by monopolies and oligopolies, this is probably, it's something that we've learned to live with but, now it's having such an impact on our lifestyle, the way we live, and I think that the way that our future children are going to live.

"But what we're trying to do with this bill is we're running and hiding and we're saying, 'Hey, you're bigger than us. You know more than us, so we're going to trust you. We're going to put our future and the future of our children in your hands, oil industry. We're going to assume you're going to give us the information so that we can make good policy decisions.' Well they haven't in the past, they will not in the future, and we're jeopardizing the lives of our people.

"Back in the 1990s, I had the fortune of being the President of the Hawaii Automotive Repair and Gas Dealers' Association for many years. And during that time was when we saw the huge merger between Shell and Texaco. And what I did as the President was I stood up, and we, the Association, worked with the Texaco dealers, which were by the way our local small businesses, as they were going to be literally pushed out of business because of this merger, and Texaco would leave the State, thereby leaving us in the hands of Equilon. I had the fortunate, and maybe misfortune because now that I have information that was at my disposal at that time, because I understand how the cash flow works in these oil companies. And probably I will go to jail if I were to share that information with you all, and I saw it. I know the kinds of profits that they take home. And when I say home, home is not here. Home is in Texas. They take it away from us.

"This measure was the first time for us to bring them into some type of control. We had a hard time doing it through antitrust lawsuits. We worked, the Association worked with the Attorney General back in the 80s and 90s as we tried to understand and get them to stop ripping our people off. But guess what we did not under the antitrust laws, we were not able to prove to the court what it is that antitrust laws required.

"So we again walked away with no answers. But the one answer that we got through those antitrust lawsuits, and this is as I get ready to use up the last of my eight minutes here, is the one thing that I learned from that antitrust lawsuit and the one thing that I learned watching what these Texaco dealers went through, and looking at the data that I was given the ability to look at is, as one federal judge said, 'They lie.' They lie folks and guess what? This bill is going to give them the ability to keep on lying to us. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with strong support for the bill. Mr. Speaker, in the past nine months, I think the consumers of this State have experimented with the gas cap and we have all seen the extreme volatility that's resulted. And we still remain the highest price for gas in the country.

"Having said that, I have to say that this Legislature from before I joined it, before others joined it, have struggled with how to address this very real problem in a serious way to help all the consumers of our State, and it came up with a gas cap, as a first step, a bold step to see what they could do. And it's important to remember Mr. Speaker, what one of my favorite Presidents, Franklin Roosevelt said a long time ago. He said, 'The country needs and demands bold persistent experimentation. It is common sense to take a method and try it. If it fails, admit it frankly and try another, but above all, try something.'

"Mr. Speaker, I think it's in this spirit that this Legislature adopted the gas cap. It's a bold initiative. It's hard to be constructive. It's easy to tear down. We've seen it time and time again by people and it takes a belief in the future to step forward.

"Now this Body, Mr. Speaker, I think is stepping forward with another proposal, thanks to the Chair of Environmental Protection and Energy and others, to see if there isn't something better that we can do. In the meantime suspend the gas cap so there's a package of bills. Some of them are combined in the bill that we're looking at today and others are moving. We've heard speeches from both sides of the aisles on those bills. Brought together, I think it's going to result in more meaningful, real improvement.

"We've been decisive this year, Mr. Speaker, in addressing this issue. We've taken a wide-angle view, a long-term view, in addressing the problems that Hawaii's petroleum industry has created in our State. And I think it's a constructive and meaningful approach that we've taken, no matter what people may say in the other Body or out there in the community including from some of our former governors, Mr. Speaker.

"I'm hoping that our colleagues in the Senate will be prepared to take the steps that are necessary to bring about real improvement. Not playing it cute. Not trying to think someone is going to miss it and that we're going to remain with the gas cap in place. But true improvement, because in the end Mr. Speaker, if we don't reduce our dependence on fossil fuel, we're just pushing our State into a looming crisis. And I think this Body with you at the lead, are pushing a new way to approach our problem with dependence on fossil fuel. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have some reservations, in support with reservation. My reservations are that this does not, right now, repeal the gas cap. It merely suspends it. And I hope it stays suspended, and it doesn't repeal until 2011. I'd just like to see it repealed right now. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations. My reservations have been articulated by the Representative from Makakilo. But the Representative from Manoa talked about bold steps to do something to help the consumers.

"I hardly say that the gas cap was a bold step. We sort of put it out there and didn't even make it happen for three years. Just had it hanging over the heads of the oil industry and used it as we might, those that wanted to bludgeon people that didn't support it over the head, saying they were in the pocket of big oil. But we created the gas cap and then we hung it over the heads of the oil industry, and then we had it finally come into effect in August of '05. And we have seen what it did.

"And now what again has been stated as another bold move, we're talking about suspending it maybe. I mean from the conversation in the other Chamber, their bill is quite different, where they would have some kind of temporary suspension and any time the price went above a certain benchmark, we'd bring back the gas cap. So I mean I don't think anything about this is bold.

"There was a People's Pulse magazine sent around to all of us on the question about the gas cap was put before average citizens. And close to 70% of the people said get rid of the gas cap. Bold action would be doing just that and that's not what we're doing here today. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, but I would like to adopt the words of my colleague from the Windward side and just add one sentence from the DBEDT report, that their analysis reveals that the gasoline price cap cost consumers as much $54.9 million between September 1st through January 2006. It's a lot of money our consumers have had to pay for a faulty system. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in favor with some minor reservations. One of course, I would prefer that we would have a repeal outright, rather than the current measure that's before us. But being what it is, I think we need to move on.

"Also Mr. Speaker, I will want to include the remarks of the Representative of Manoa as my own. I want to add one caveat to all of this. I'm certainly hoping that the Chair of CPC in the Senate does not accept the House position. If they do, it means that we will continue with the gas cap until 2020. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I adopt the words of the Representative from Kailua and Kaneohe, and Hauula and I will forego my written comments," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3186, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Harbin voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1682-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2190, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2190, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no on this measure. I'd like to maybe perhaps explain a little bit about what's going on with this bill because I know quite a few people are quite confused about this bill because it does seem like the semblance of a gift or a relief to businesses. But I think if we look at the bill in its form that is before us today, it's a rather spooky relief.

"First of all, the bill provides that the rollback for businesses on the unemployment insurance will be for just a year. The second piece also says that we are going to raise the amount of benefits and I believe it's an 18% increase. I think what we need to take a look at is unemployment insurance is a temporary assistance for workers who are in between jobs, that have lost their job and are looking for another job. It is not an economic relief package. It is not meant to give workers the ability to go out and plunge money into the economy for revival should there be a turnaround in the economy, contrary to the belief of some of us.

"The problem is we're going to rollback the amount businesses per year, and which by the way the Fund right now is standing at $558 million. We take in approximately a $138 million per year, and right now we are only paying out something like $89 million a year. With this additional increase in benefits, my math is pretty bad, but it looks to me like the increase in benefits are going to go up $15 million. But the problem is benefits. These benefits are a permanent benefit. You cannot go back to an employee, and I would never do this to an employee, and say, 'Oh, what I gave you by the way, I change my mind. I'm taking it back.' So it's going to be a permanent increase, but we're only going to do the rollback of pay in only for a year. So the amount going out is going to increase and it's never going to go down, but after a year, we need to pay back into Fund.

"I really question whether or not that is a benefit for the business community. I think perhaps maybe if we could do it two or three years and then take a look at it. That might be, maybe a little bit more agreeable.

"And I think one of the worst parts of this particular bill is the definition of 'willful and wanton behavior'. It really scares me because I think the debate has been going on for years that we abhor violence in the workplace. That is unacceptable behavior. However, this bill sends a different message. It says, 'Hey, if you believe in violence in the workplace, and you try to strangle one of your fellow employees or maybe even the owner, given the right reasons, then you can still collect unemployment insurance because that is not willful or wanton.'

"Now there are so many different messages in this measure, that what started out as potentially a real benefit for businesses, I think has turned out to be a real insult, a real insult, and I hope that those small businesses that happen to have the time to be listening to us today, that you call us and say it's better that maybe perhaps we leave this alone until we really give it some real thought. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker. Because I support the purpose of this measure as it was introduced, I am in support of moving this bill along. However, because I have grave concerns with which the bill has been amended, I have strong reservations that I hope will be addressed as the bill goes into Conference.

"First, let me be clear that I support the portion of the bill that reduces assessments to employers. The Unemployment Insurance Fund is at an all-time high and has a healthy reserve. Balancing that against our State's rate of unemployment being the lowest in the nation, I feel that some reprieve to employers and businesses is justified. The bill would provide an estimated savings to businesses of $55 million.

"However, I am opposed to the remainder of the bill that increases unemployment benefits. Hawaii's unemployment insurance ("UI") is already one of the most generous in the nation, in terms of amount, duration and conditions under which employees are eligible. There has been absolutely no showing that these changes are needed to help those who are unable to find employment or accomplish the purposes of the UI Fund. Secondly, the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations estimates that this would raise costs of UI by about 18%. This undermines any of the initial intent of the bill to provide savings to employers.

"Most disconcerting, are the changes to the law requiring an employer to show "willful and wanton" misconduct in the denial of UI benefits. Again, there has been no showing that the current system is unfair. Rather, this standard will only invite more abuse and litigation to contest that perceived abuse.

"In the end, I was torn as to whether to vote for this bill. However, I decided to support the bill with reservations to allow discussion to continue. I believe that through the process, when all of the evidence is considered, the objectionable parts of the measure will be removed, and we will be able to come out with a good and beneficial piece of legislation. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of Senate Bill 2190, SD1, HD2. This bill has serious flaws, and will be harmful to both employers and the unemployed in Hawaii. Passage of SB 2190 would discourage those receiving unemployment benefits to find new work by extending those benefits from 26 weeks to 30 weeks. Perhaps under certain circumstances, such as a mass layoff, unemployment benefits could be lengthened through special legislation that has been done in the past, however giving all unemployed an extra month of benefits will most likely delay their return to the workforce.

"In addition, lowering the ceiling for employer payments into the unemployment fund will be harmful to employers over the long term. Reducing the contribution cap to seven thousand will provide $55 million in relief in the short term, but will cost employers $59 million the very next fiscal year with the schedule adjustment mechanism currently in place. Instead, the payment ceiling should be lowered more moderately; to between $14 and $17 thousand, which both aid employers and avoid a severe fiscal backlash. Aiding employers and the unemployed is very important, however SB 2190 does neither. We must rethink existing unemployment mechanisms to ensure that the unemployment fund continues to receive adequate finances and employers are not overly taxed. Doing so will ensure that workers will have something to fall back on in times of economic hardship, employers will not be over burdened, and that the fund balance will remain both fair and reasonable. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition. I would ask that the words of the Representative from Downtown Honolulu be inserted in the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"I also want to just make the point that the money that goes into this Fund comes from the employers only. It's not a withholding tax. The employees don't put any of their money in it and it's important to note that it's not a social program. And what we've done here, we started with a good bill, trying to give businesses a break and now we turned it on its head. We're just going to give the businesses a break for one year, and we made these permanent increases in benefits to unemployed employees. And that wasn't the purpose of the bill at all. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting no at this time because I really support the rollback of the taxable wage base to $7,000. But one year is not enough. It should be three years or five years. We must find a way to reduce the $500 million Fund because it doesn't do us any good just sitting there. If it was a five-year rollback, then I might consider voting differently. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition to this bill. This measure considerably increases unemployment compensation. Hawaii's unemployment rate, currently the lowest in the nation, has had the net effect of driving wages to an all-time high."

"In its current form, this bill would greatly expand the amounts employers pay. According to the National Federation of Independent Businesses, this measure, "though labeled as "Unemployment Insurance", the collection of unemployment insurance premiums is effectively a tax, paid by employers to the Unemployment trust fund and used to pay unemployment benefits."

"Also, there are concerns about the raising of the standard for denial of benefits to misconduct."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. With reservations. I just wanted to point out that while this unemployment tax or unemployment fee might be considered paid only by business, it isn't a withheld item from payroll. Nevertheless, these kinds of costs do affect the amount that employees are paid."

"In the private sector, whether union or nonunion, responsible employers are looking at the total cost of having an employee or having their employees. Anytime we ratchet up the cost whether by this method or workers' compensation rates being too high, that adds to the total compensation and reduces the amount that the employer could pay the employees."

"So indirectly, if you think it through in its composite, these kinds of raising the cost of keeping employees actually diminishes the amount the employees earn. So having said that, I am in favor of workers' compensation and I am in favor that we have those costs, but I'm pointing out that if the cost go up, especially if it's unnecessarily going up then the employees are actually hurt by that. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'll just make two other quick points. This measure also increase to 80% the cap on maximum weekly benefit amounts. And it increases the annual maximum benefits on an eligible individual from 26 times to 30 times the eligible individual's weekly benefit amount. These are other costs in addition, which as the previous speaker mentioned, we end up paying for them. Thank you."

Representative Takamine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, maybe at the outset let me just kind of outline what the bill does because basically Senate Bill 2190, SD 1, HD 2, provides for tax relief, unemployment insurance tax relief to the employers in the State of Hawaii. And what the bill does is it provides for, as indicated by a number of speakers, one year of relief."

"What wasn't said is the value of that relief, Mr. Speaker, because the value of that relief turns out to be $55 million. And $55 million, Mr. Speaker, turns out to be the largest such tax relief we provided to the employers under the Unemployment Insurance Law in the history of our State."

"Essentially the other part is the package of benefit improvements, and as indicated by earlier speakers, it provides for a package of improvements that would amount to about 18% in terms of payout to the unemployed employees."

"Let me cover the one-year period first because a number of speakers had hit upon that. In the history of our State, we provided this kind of tax relief on four occasions in the past two decades. In 1998, we provided one-year relief to the employers amounting to about $40 million. In 1991, we provided for one year of relief to the employers, again amounting to $40 million. And in 2001, and this is in the post-9/11 experience that we went all went through, we provided the employers with one year of relief for $40 million. The fourth time, Mr. Speaker, was in 1992 when we actually provided a package of relief to the employers valued at $50 million for one year. And so on each occasion that the Legislature has provided such relief, it has been for one year even though the debate at the time was, as indicated today, we should provide for a multiyear tax relief package that the Fund can withstand such a hit and therefore it would be fair to provide that."

"But Mr. Speaker, I would submit to you that there was a reason that each Legislature provided for one year of tax relief. And essentially that's because we cannot predict the future. We don't know what's around the corner. Whether or not there's a 9/11, heaven forbid, or a hotel strike, or any other of these things, we don't know. Yet, we do know that if we provide for one year of tax relief, there'll be the next Session to consider based on the experience that has occurred whether there's adequate capacity to provide for additional relief. And actually history shows that we did that in 1991 and 1992."

"But let me talk about the other part where there's been references to providing one year of relief to the employers. That seems to be temporary, yet the improvement of benefits seems to be permanent, so how is that a balance? And let me begin Mr. Speaker, by at least indicating or briefly covering what's in the bill currently because as earlier speakers have indicated, one of the changes is to take the maximum number of weeks that an unemployed employee can receive unemployment insurance. Currently it's 26 weeks. This bill will increase it by four weeks."

"Actually post-9/11, we as a Legislature, if you recall, because of the staggering unemployment that occurred because tourism was hit and hit hard. When all the flights were cancelled and all of that, there was an immediate and direct impact on our economy. We knew that by providing relief to the unemployed, they would at least have resources to take care of food, shelter, essentials. And that's what they did because by spending that money it helped to turn things around faster rather than on a more-lengthy basis. And therefore, even though the average claim in the State of Hawaii, the average claim, unemployment insurance claim last about 14 weeks. This would provide an additional four weeks primarily ..."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takamine continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. Primarily for those who are structurally impacted in terms of unemployment. For example, the Del Monte workers. Those who have lost their jobs and would need training, that would of course, take a longer period of time and at least they might experience the benefit of four more weeks of unemployment insurance payments.

"The second change is a change to the cap. Currently no matter how much you are paid, your unemployment insurance benefit amount is determined on the amount of pay you receive. Today employees receive about 60% of what they make. But at a certain level the higher paid employees are subject to a cap so that even though their 60% of what they make would be more, they're stopped by the cap amount. Currently in 2006, because the average weekly wage is $654, that cap is about $459. So therefore anyone who makes about $18.48 an hour, anyone above that is affected by the cap and would not receive the 60% of what they make.

"The proposal in the bill would be to increase 70% of the average weekly wage to 80% of the State's average weekly wage and potentially add up to about $65 more per payment for those employees who make over $18.48, yet who make less than $21.12 because once you're at that level you'd be subject to the 80% cap and you could not receive more than that even though 60% what you made amounted a higher amount.

"And the final provision in the bill provides for what we have referred to as the offset, for those employees who are forced to work more than one job. Where they get laid off from, they're entitled to unemployment insurance. However, if they're working part-time and make some payments off of their other job, anything more than $50 of that is deducted from their unemployment insurance and therefore under certain circumstance could be a deterrent, with this incentive at least.

"This is the package of benefits that collectively the Department of Labor says would amount to 18% increase in the payouts. But let me point to what history has taught us because in 1992, we made some fundamental changes to the unemployment insurance law. And at that time we recognized that, we're just part of a federal system because we need to comply with the federal unemployment insurance law. If we don't, there's some significant penalties. And the whole idea was after going through the Depression and all of that, government in its wisdom saw that there is a need. That given our economic system that goes through cycles, when we go through a downturn, we need help to turn that around and the sooner the better.

"Also that is not the time to hit employers with any kind of additional financial burden. And therefore based on the concept that during the good times you put away so that during the downturn, during the bad times you can pull from that to inject more cash flow into the economy. That would help shorten the time it takes to come out of that economic slump or depression.

"Therefore based on that premise, the State Legislature, in its wisdom in 1992, put into place a new system, a self-adjusting system where you have schedules A through H, that would adjust sooner and provide during the good times for that reserve to be used during the bad times."

Representative Caldwell rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takamine continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. I'll try to finish up and wrap up, Mr. Speaker. In 1992, what we did was, we attempted to put into place, balance. What we did was we provided for a $50 million economic relief package for the employers, but we also packaged that with a number of benefit improvements.

"Number one, what we did was adequacy. How much do you need to keep in the fund to be able to last through the bad times? Until 1992, it was one year of benefits at the high unemployment insurance rate and the amount that we needed so you could accomplish that.

"In 1992, we increased that by 50%, we said look at the high unemployment insurance rate, 18 months ability to make payments to the unemployed would be what adequacy would be. That was put into the law. We also changed the benefit amount. For each person until then, they received about 50% of their wages, actual wages. In 1992, we changed that to about 61% of their wage amount, the amount of wages that they received. And therefore for all claimants there was an improvement.

"Also the cap at that time was 66 and 2/3% of the State average weekly wage. That's when we moved it up to 70%. So we increased the cap at that time. And also the offset, the offset was $2, not the $50 that is currently there, and at that time we changed the $2 to $50.

"Granted this was a larger package of benefit improvement but that was the package that was passed in 1992. And I guess my point, Mr. Speaker, is that, the bill before you would provide the largest tax relief package in the history of our State. $55 million, even more than the $50 million that we put into place in 1992.

"In 1992, the improvement package was probably larger than what is in Senate Bill 2190. However, history tells us that when the Legislature did that, it set the stage, well first of all there was no catastrophes to their system. What in fact we have is the ability, the capacity, Mr. Speaker, to go through a 9/11 experience. To live through that, come out okay with the adjustments that were made and to be in a position four years later to give to the employers the largest tax relief package ever in the State of Hawaii.

"I think it says something how the unemployment insurance system is working. Therefore, the 1992 package was only one year of tax relief and the benefit improvements were permanent. In light of that, I would urge positive consideration of the measure before us. Thank you."

"Representative Halford rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations as I was before. I'd like to point out that, what is characterized as the largest tax relief in the history of the State is simply a rebate of over-collections. What this is being referred to as tax relief, is just returning to the employers what was an apparently, at least in retrospect, an over-collection and apparently we do that from time to time.

"Further, I'd like to point out that this was mentioned as a one year phenomenon has occurred from time to time. But the other benefits that are being mentioned here are an increase in benefits to those who are unemployed. It's a definitive increase in unemployment benefits. This is costing in the long run, this is going to cost more while those who are on unemployment will in fact benefit, get higher benefits. The impact of this tax as a cost of employees, impacts all employees. So it's important when we deliberate on making these increases to understand that while we're giving benefits, higher benefits to those who actually do become unemployed, this is actually reducing the payrolls of all of those who do work and do not go on unemployment. It's a tradeoff. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm a little puzzled. I guess I don't have all the history and background in regards to the unemployment tax, but I am a little puzzled when we call this tax relief. Mainly because in tax relief, if I pay taxes and I get relief, it comes back to me. Well what I'm seeing in this is sort of like tax relief because the people who are paying the tax will get some relief, but in the meanwhile more relief or more money would be going towards expanding the benefits.

"So it's kind of like if I were to pay insurance for someone else because I needed to or wanted to, and then when they say, 'Okay, well know what? You overpaid or we're going to give you a rebate,' they're going to give it to that person instead of giving it to me, the person who has paid. And that's what you're doing, I think, when you take a look at giving the one-year versus, in perpetuity for the rest of the benefits.

"And the other thing that's a little puzzling to me is that in the statement where we're saying well we don't know what's going to happen in the future and that's why we're giving one year of relief, or giving one year of lowering the tax wage base, then I would say, how do you explain in perpetuity giving the increase in benefits because we don't know what's going to happen later on in the future. And that maybe both should be done for a year only.

"Then the other thing Mr. Speaker, is just investing in businesses, we're talking about reinvesting in the economy should we have a slump. Well by giving some of these premiums back to businesses, we're actually investing in those businesses so that they can make it through an economic slump. That's how I see some of this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in very strong support of this measure. And I would like to thank the Chair of the Finance Committee for standing up and explaining this measure. I am in support of increasing the benefits for the unemployed because I was unemployed when I left active duty with the Army and the amount I was getting and I was getting the pay of a Captain when I left Army. It was just like leaving steak and going back to bread and water after I left the Army. It gave me six months of unemployment. I did choose to. There's really no way that I could survive with that amount.

"So I'm in full support of that measure. And furthermore, this benefits both the unemployed and the employers. So we're going both ways with this. And the other thing is that it's written conservatively enough that it's only good for one year. And we'll be here next year, Mr. Speaker. And if it needs to be extended, I would support it again if the economy allows for it. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I again have to emphasize my no vote and I just need to get the last word in here on this particular issue. The reason is, is those of you that don't know me back in the 90s when we were going through this, what I think we're now calling a recession in Hawaii. The business community was here begging for relief from this very same issue and we were told, 'Go away, go back home, and continue to work because this is a bad economy and we cannot, we cannot not take from you.'

"So now we have a good economy and we are saying, 'Oh, this is the time that we need to take from you.' We need to figure this out. If we support our business community and support future economic growth as in sustainability, then we need to pay attention and we need to send a resounding message that we're done overburdening our small businesses. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Brief comments, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to point out Mr. Speaker, that according to the Department of Labor, if the Fund balance continues on the course that it currently is set to eclipse $523 million at the end of this fiscal year, that businesses will get an added benefit besides the $55 million tax break. They will in fact be paying less because the UI Fund is set to move from the index C assessment to the index B assessment, Mr. Speaker. And that's a significant affect on the Fund balance. And what that means Mr. Speaker, is that they're actually paying rates similar to what they paid in 1992-94, and that will also mean significant savings for the businesses. So I think that this is a balance approach. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Just one short remark. I think something that's maybe not evident to everybody in this Chamber is that, whereas the largest majority of states on the mainland charge the UI Insurance on the first $7,000 of an employee's wage, Hawaii has a moving target. They do it by some kind of a formula. Right now it's set at about the first $32,000 worth of payroll payment. So we are collecting, and yes the Majority Leader's right, when we're at these different levels, we pay a lower percentage of that first $32,000. But the bill before us gives the businesses a break because it drops it to what the majority of the other states have and the businesses will only pay the insurance on the first $7,000. So this still is a very unfair bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2190, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 31 ayes to 19 noes, with Representatives Berg, Carroll, Ching, Chong, Finnegan, Harbin, Ito, Kahikina, Karamatsu, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Nakasone, Pine, Shimabukuro, Tanaka, Thielen, Yamane and Yamashita voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1683-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Thank you. I request that we just look at it a little bit further. This bill exempts agencies specifically named from State procurement laws. My concern about this is that it appears to ignore the fact that current procurement laws were drafted to face situations involving serious breaches of public trust.

"We currently have control over procurement for a reason. It's cumbersome, perhaps. It's inconvenient, as time consuming as they may appear. But it's much easier I think and often more tempting to streamline purchasing in ways that lend themselves to fraud and abuse.

"I would not want to subject these corporations and entities to that sort of questioning. I think what we would rather do is have the procurement laws looking at more sufficient mechanisms for moving more quickly when circumstances justify needed action, but keeping the process always transparent. The public really wants, requests, and deserves transparency when we're working with public funds. So I stand in opposition."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to SB 2997 SD1 HD1, which exempts legislative agencies, the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation, the High Technology Development Corporation and NELHA from the Public Procurement Code. The State Procurement Code's source selection methods provide for invitations for bids, requests for proposals, professional services, small purchase, sole source, and emergency purchases for almost all of the procurement requirements covered. Even when none of the Code's methods are practicable, the Code allows for specific exemptions. Exemptions may be specified by law, by rules that the Procurement Policy Board may issue, or by determinations that the Chief Procurement officer makes in writing. Given this flexibility for reasonable, specific exemptions, there is no need for blanket exemptions from the code for any of the agencies seeking them in this bill. DAGS testified that the specific agencies requesting exemption do not possess unique requirements that would necessitate exemption from the Code.

"There is also no need for exempting the services of contractors under the contract with a legislative agency for the purpose of preparing a study or report for submission to the legislature. DAGS has contracted for such studies pursuant to the code and been able to fulfill the legislative intent in a timely manner. It was the Legislature's intent for the Procurement Code to be the single source of public procurement policy. It provides for transparency and fairness in the procurement process, fosters effective broad-based competition, and increases public confidence in public procurement. The code safeguards against negative public opinion of government procurement procedures and protects against any public perceptions of governmental waste, fraud, or abuse. Changing the law to create these blanket exemptions is not a good idea. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Harbin rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I think with the recent change in this measure, it only exempts persons or entities doing business with the Legislature. So it is reports for the Legislature to contractors under contract with a legislative agency. I don't get it. Are we just exempting ourselves now? Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer and Moses voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to be rising with a no on this measure. And I'd like to offer my apologies to those that are impacted by this particular issue from the island of Kauai. However, I must once again raise the issue of our process of gut and paste, which we've been looking at Mason's section 402, in which the amendments must be germane. And these amendments are not germane. And I would also like to raise the issue that this measure may be unconstitutional as it will not pass the constitutional muster of three hearings on three separate days in both Chambers. Thank you."

S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1	S.B. No. 2913, SD 1, HD 1

Representative Chang moved that notwithstanding the report of the Committee, that S.B. No. 1734, SD 2, HD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in light of the unresolved issues concerning this measure among the racing community, I move to recommit S.B. No. 1734, SD 2, HD 1."

Representative Kanoho seconded the motion.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1734, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

S.B. No. 2155, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 2155, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to be voting no on this measure and I'd like to just give a few remarks. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, Lake Wilson and Wahiawa Dam are part of the land that is involved in this. I believe that whatever we would do, we would need to demand that the present landowners bring the land into conformance with health, safety, and environmental requirements before there's any purchase of that land. Otherwise we are buying a big liability. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to declare a potential conflict. My wife is Vice Chair at Bank of Hawaii. They manage the Galbraith Trust. In addition, several of my law partners are beneficiaries of the Galbraith Trust," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have reservations on this measure. I was not able to get an adequate explanation why general fund cash would be used for the purchase of this property rather than CIP bond funds. Nor did I get a good description of what U.S. Treasury zero coupon bonds are. I have no idea. And also, I'm unsure as to the exact amount that we are appropriating. So I will reserve my vote until the final hour, but at this time I will vote with reservations."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also have some reservations. In talking with the farming community, I know whereas government buying land will ensure that it's kept in the public trust and in the public intention. My concerns are with ADC taking on new responsibilities. There are some questions that need to be clarified. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to the bill. I think that I did ask the Majority Leader what the property was appraised at. What kind of a price tag are we looking at? He said somewhere between $40 and $60 million. I just really question whether that's a good investment. We have so many other needs for the money. And as the Representative from Waialae said that we're talking general funds at this point in time. I think there's a lot of liability involved with this property with Lake Wilson and the dam. You remember when we had all those plants growing there and fish dying. And that was a very expensive proposition. Things like that can happen. So I think there's a lot of maintenance involved in this purchase and we should think very carefully before we jump into it. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2155, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Thielen voting no, and Representative Stonebraker being excused.

S.B. No. 2259, SD 1, HD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, S.B. No. 2259, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INFORMATION CHARGING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

S.B. No. 1317, SD 1, HD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, S.B. No. 1317, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COURT APPOINTED COUNSEL," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 3:44 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills, passed Third Reading:

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just some reservations. I'm not sure about how to express outrage. But I would like to point out that the Education and Workforce Chairman Boehner said that most of the savings in the bill comes from administrative cost and subsidies to lenders, not from students. And so the students do fine under this proposal. The lenders out there, they're bleeding. The Committee had said that the measure would reduce insurance rates given to lenders to help protect them from defaulted loans and increased lender fees. It also aims to lower collection costs, encourage lenders to be more efficient in collecting on loans. Thank you."

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, briefly in support. This is a little difficult, but apparently second-hand smoke doesn't cause cancer. There's no global warming. And Pell Grant cuts are not actually hurting students, they're hurting the lenders. It's just difficult for me to sort of grasp what's going on, on the House floor here.

"Let me be clear, there was $17 billion worth of Pell Grant cuts. And just as an example, a friend of mine comes in to my other office, and says, 'You know my interest rate from my student loan for my son, it went up from 3.5% to 6.25%.' So I don't see how that hurts a lender. I see how that hurts an individual person, a middle class person trying to put their student, their son, through college. I am outraged. I know exactly how to express it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 217, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING OUTRAGE AT RECENT CONGRESSIONAL CUTS TO STUDENT LOAN PROGRAMS," was adopted, with Representatives Hale, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused; and

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to rise in favor of Stand. Com. Report 1737 and 1738. I simply bring this up because many of the younger Members of this House may not recall the historic pineapple-shaped water tank, which stood as a landmark next to the Dole Cannery in Iwilei. It was taken down in 1993 and one of these days it would be nice to see it go back up again or another one just like it against the Honolulu skyline. I believe it should stand as a tribute to the many workers who toiled in the fields, and those who worked in the Cannery, and the many students who spent summers there making money. One of these days we'll see it up again. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of 1746 and 1747. Thank you. These Resolutions encourage the Legislature, the Administration, the University of Hawaii, and the Congressional delegation to work towards promoting the Aerospace Industry in Hawaii.

"I got involved with this as a ship agent when the company called Sea Launch was asking to bring their launch pad out to Hawaii just for refueling and reprovisioning. They would then take the ships and the rockets and launch down in the South Pacific around Christmas Island. Then later, right before the deadline for Resolutions, DBEDT had asked to introduce this Resolution. Along the same lines, there's a lot of opportunities for the astronauts, remote sensing equipment to be tested in various places throughout the island. UH-Hilo I believe is going to be their central location. I really would like to encourage my colleagues to support this. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the reports of the Committees be adopted, and that H.R. No. 108, HD 1, and H.C.R. No. 145, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to both measures. Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues, why are we here making laws, if in the future somebody would just say, 'Well, let's just forgive everybody who broke them.' It's the same thing we're asking for here. We're asking to legalize illegal immigrants. The words don't even make sense. So we're saying that anytime we pass a law, somebody can come along and say, 'Well, let's just forgive everybody who broke them. We didn't really mean it.'

"My grandparents came over here legally. They immigrated to the United States. It was long and hard. My wife and her family immigrated legally. It was long and it's hard, but they did it legally. They abided by the law.

"And there's a second portion of these measures, Mr. Speaker, that asks the federal and State Departments of Health to provide medical services to this population, that's the illegal immigrant population, in medical emergencies. I believe that's already done, Mr. Speaker. I don't know of anybody that's turned away, if they go into an emergency room. They're not asked first, where's your green card or where's your driver's license, etc. They're treated first. There may be a problem later when somebody tries to bill them and if the hospitals can't collect, they don't collect. And we know that. But they are treated medically first.

"So I think there's no need for this. In fact, I think it's a devastating bill, again for the State of Hawaii to say, we will take you, no matter if you obey the law or not. We can make it easier. We can say, 'Okay, let's urge them to review the visa process.' I'd go along with that. But let's not say if they come, make it legal, even though they broke the law getting here. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in opposition to both measures, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"A concern in this time of the terrorist threat is that it is reported that terrorists are able to get lost in the mass of humanity that streams across the northern and southern borders of the mainland United States. These persons who would gain legal status would be able to move about the country more freely.

"These Resolutions also seeks to provide illegal immigrants emergency medical care, but it is my understanding that any person requiring emergency medical treatment cannot have treatment denied whether they can pay or not no matter what their status might be. Some believe that cultural and language barriers keep illegal immigrants from seeking available emergency treatment.

"The unfairness issue is unsettling to me. Those who come illegally are rewarded, while many other families continue to wait for years for their kin to get the thumbs up.

"Mr. Speaker, I urge you not to adopt House Resolution No. 108, HD 1, and House Concurrent Resolution 145, HD 1."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of these measures. Almost all of us in this room came through this process. We are, we came in as immigrants, and these Resolutions are asking that the people who are considered illegal right now, that there should be a review process, an exclusion review process, and that we don't criminalize these so-called illegal immigrants.

"I believe that criminalizing them is a move defined to criminalize poverty. A lot of people that come into this country as immigrants because they're fleeing away from poverty. And like our forefathers, they came in for the reason to this country. And this country has become great, the way it is now because we all came as immigrants and we made this nation great.

"To reverse our process, Mr. Speaker, is to reverse our history. A lot of people come to this country because this is the land of liberty and there's hope for that future. We must all work together as citizens, children of God, to make brothers and sisters be as great as we are. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Just in opposition, Mr. Speaker. I do appreciate the words of the previous speaker because my family are also immigrants from many different countries. On the Filipino side, they worked on the plantation, but they all came here and they signed documents that made it legal. If we start changing the rules, and I understand this is a national debate and it pits immigrants against non-immigrants, but I think there needs to be some kind of a rule when you come to our country. I'd like to know who's coming, you know to my State. You know, are there people who've been criminalized in other states? Or are they just people who want to be American? And I think we need to have some kind of a process."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to these measures. I think there's been a lot of conversation on the problem with illegal immigrants in the last few months with Congress looking at various bills to try to come to some kind of resolution. I think it would be better if we had a Resolution that talked about looking at how the immigration laws could be changed to make it easier, not quite as arduous for people to become legal immigrants. And I think that's part of the problem. But as the Representative from Makakilo said, we cannot just with the stroke of a pen say the illegal are now legal.

"In this Resolution, we thought there is a clause that talks about political asylum, and I think here in Hawaii we do have a fairly large number of immigrants who are here because of political asylum, but that's a process and they are welcomed in because of that reason.

"I think some of the problems immigrants get into is because they don't do things in a timely manner. I don't think anybody wants to lock anybody up, but we cannot close our eyes to the fact that we have a very large problem in America. America has always had its arms wide open and welcomes people, but with the problems with terrorism, we have the huge border in Canada and the porous border in the south. Just making the illegal legal is not the way to handle this problem. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with no position, I'll say. I'm in support with some reservations. The issue is a national debate of course. What shall we do with the immigrants that came here that did not undergo the rigorous process of first applying for visas to come in? They are here nevertheless and there's a lot of them.

"America's hands, American's arms are wide open, as one previous speakers says is true, when we need them. Sometimes it's very convenient to have an illegal alien working in our farms, working in our homes as housekeepers, because indeed Mr. Speaker, it's cheaper. And we who consume these products that are manufactured, gathered, harvested, by illegal aliens benefit from this. As a society we must admit that we do in some way, indirectly are affected and benefit from the labors of illegal immigrants.

"But still, there are some who would say, 'Why won't they come in legally through the process?' These people asking these questions are obviously people that were born here and never been through the process. It is so hard to get into the United States today. If you are married to a national or a foreigner, it is hard and difficult to ensure that are able to come here.

"A personal experience is my marrying a national from Panama. My wife had to return home for two years before she was able to return here. It is even more difficult for some today.

"The issue also includes the problem that we have which is a term we say, 'national security'. Why are we proposing, why are laws being proposed today on a national level to legalize those that illegally here in the name of national security. It is obvious to some speakers and I point to the fact that they are here, we don't know who are, they could be very dangerous to us. Therefore this reasoning that says we should do it for our own sake, for national security, makes sense.

"We should have these illegal immigrants come out of the dungeons, come out of the closet, come out to the areas where they are being abused and mistreated. Bring them out into the open, into the public and you know give them a chance to tell us who they are. Give them a chance to be helped medically, and also legally, and also benefiting us at the same time. If we know who they are. We can check where they are from. We can check who they are associated with. We can ensure that we know where to find them in case there are any problems.

"Mr. Speaker, we probably should not solve this with this Resolution. We cannot allow the results of the second portion of it, which is requesting that federal and State Departments of Health provide medical services to this population in medical emergencies. Yes indeed they are being provided for in our emergency rooms. That is very difficult for our emergency rooms in hospitals, and it's very difficult for a health system. We cannot absorb the cost of these illegal immigrants. But if the federal and State departments were to allow them to obtain benefits, I tell you Mr. Speaker, we'll help the health centers that are currently treating them for free.

"So these are Resolutions. They have the force of only what ... I guess there is a force. Not the force of law, but it does has some force. It shows that the Legislature is concerned about this issue and through these Resolutions, we'll hope to solve those two things that are being presented in these Resolutions which is to, one, to try to find a resolution to try to legalize those illegal immigrants who are already here; and two, to see whether or not it is feasible for the federal and State government to legalize the medical services that are being given to these illegal immigrants. Before I close, Mr. Speaker, I just thought of one more point. Let me just reserve that for another time. Thank you very much."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to respond to some remarks that we're trying to change laws. If they read the Resolution, basically what we're doing is, in the debate, and I believe we have a right to engage in this debate, it's actually Congress and the President looking at ways to make those who are illegal legal, because we want legal citizens. That's the goal. But if you look at the body of the Resolution, the Be it resolved purpose, we're asking that in their debate, we look at those who are being considered, the so-called undocumented aliens or illegal immigrants who are asking for compassion and understanding, that we don't split up families, that we provide health care.

"At the core of this argument is that we don't want to end up throwing people in jail, or you know sending them back to where they came from, not necessarily. But obviously it's a very sticky problem. But I think we as a State, as policymakers, we have a right, especially through Resolutions to express our feelings on this issue. And I believe we also has a right as a state that has a history of many immigrants coming to our State, to express our desire to see that this issue be handled with care and compassion. So that's basically what its asking for."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in opposition to both measures, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to these Resolutions. These Resolutions seek to legalize the status of illegal immigrants and requests the Federal and State Departments of Health to provide medical services to this population in medical emergencies. First, this measure invalidates our policy on immigration and is not fair to those who undertake the arduous process of obtaining citizenship. Our efforts to provide regularized avenues for obtaining citizenship for immigrants to our country are emblematic of the strength of our country's rule of law. Secondly, immigrants already have access to medical services in the State of Hawaii."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of both measures, stating:

"I stand in strong support, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose in support of both measures and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of the measure. It's ironic that a previous speaker spoke about how we in the U.S. have always welcomed immigrants with "open arms." This is historical amnesia at best, and totally false at worst. Mr. Speaker, while on the East Coast it was the Statue of Liberty that proclaimed, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free," on the West Coast it was cries of the "Yellow Peril." This led to the first anti-immigration law, the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882, which barred immigration from China. Later, the 1908 Gentlemen's Agreement had the same effect for Japanese immigration and then in 1934, the Tydings-McDuffie Act limited immigration from the Philippines to fifty people a year. The effect of these racist laws was to doom thousands of immigrant workers to lives of solitude with little opportunity to establish families.

"Furthermore, granting legal status to undocumented immigrants is nothing new. In 1986, the Simpson-Rodino bill known as the Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA) passed that enabled thousands of migrant farm workers to establish legal status in this country.

"The current bipartisan effort in the Congress to address immigration is something we should support. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committees were adopted and H.R. No. 108, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO LEGALIZE ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS AND REQUESTING THE FEDERAL AND STATE DEPARTMENTS OF HEALTH TO PROVIDE MEDICAL SERVICES TO THIS POPULATION IN MEDICAL EMERGENCIES," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Stonebraker voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused; and Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 36, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"The bedbug problem in Hawaii is limited, but may be growing. With simple precautions and public education, Hawaii should be able to prevent any widespread bedbug infestations.

"The negative consequences of allowing the problem to go unaddressed could have significant effects on tourism. Bedbugs do not discriminate between residents and visitors. The same thing that makes Hawaii attractive to tourists – our climate and warm-hearted residents – are the same features that make us especially susceptible to bedbug infestation.

"Let's not let bedbugs become the next coqui frog. Let's address this problem while it is still small and manageable. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 113, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO CONVENE A TASK FORCE TO EVALUATE AND RECOMMEND POSSIBLE PROCEDURAL, STATUTORY, AND PUBLIC POLICY CHANGES TO MINIMIZE THE CENSUS AT HAWAII STATE HOSPITAL AND PROMOTE COMMUNITY-BASED HEALTH SERVICES FOR FORENSIC PATIENTS," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representatives Kanoho, Kahikina and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Economic Development & Business Concerns presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1757-06) recommending that H.R. No. 238, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.R. On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 304, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE COUNTIES TO REQUIRE ALL NEW RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENTS BE EQUIPPED WITH WATER CONSERVATION DEVICES," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representatives Kanoho and Morita, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1759-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 192, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 192, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak strongly against this Resolution. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, if we pass this Resolution, I have no doubt that attorney Bill McCorriston and his client Pflueger will be celebrating with champagne tonight because we will have knocked out the most effective, the most aggressive attorney to pursue this matter.

"Mr. Speaker, there's been some allegations that because Attorney General Mark Bennett was a former partner with Bill McCorriston, Attorney General Mark Bennett cannot be impartial. Well, I think the lawyers in this Chamber know that that is not the case. They know that that former partnership does not mean that Attorney General Bennett would not pursue this case vigorously.

"He brought, Attorney General Bennett, brought up felony criminal charges against Pflueger. Over the Attorney General's objections, the judge let Pflueger plead no contest. Then Pflueger wanted to enter into a plea agreement, and the Attorney General Mark Bennett filed new charges pursuant to the plea agreement. And as a result, Mr. Speaker, Pflueger pled guilty to ten felonies and now has a criminal record for the rest of his life.

"He was sentenced to pay a $500,000 fine, the largest environmental criminal crime assessed by State Court and collected in Hawaii's history. That's not the action of a man, of an attorney, that was ineffective or trying to change the case to protect Pflueger. That's the action of a brilliant, dedicated Attorney General who is probably the smartest Attorney General we have ever had the privilege to have serve this State of Hawaii.

"I'll tell you how attorney Bill McCorriston is looking at it. He's trying to influence people to say, 'Hey yeah, there's an appearance of an apparent conflict of interest.' And attorney Bill McCorriston, Pflueger's attorney goes on that, 'many people have expressed the opinion that Attorney General Bennett's interest is to blame everything on Mr. Pflueger and get the state off the hook,' McCorriston said. This is quoted from an Advertiser article in today's paper. And then he goes on about, 'the concentrated effort to establish a problem with the outflow unfortunately tends to reinforce that view. Whether the outflow had any substantive part in the dam's failure is a matter under study,' says McCorriston.

"Well, darn right it's under study. And darn right we want the best person representing the State in this matter. And darn right if Pflueger is responsible, Attorney General Bennett will go after him tooth and nail.

"I find that this is the most ... It started out as a questionable Resolution. I can't even understand how we would want to muzzle the person who will do the best job for this State, Mr. Speaker. Because without Bennett there, we run a risk of someone not having all of the tools at the Attorney General's grasp by nature of his office. We also run the very serious risk of the State being the only person left holding the bag, because McCorriston who wants to get rid of Attorney General Bennett because it's in McCorriston's best interest, it's in Pflueger's best interest. If McCorriston can get his client off, guess who pays? You, me, our constituents, all the taxpayers in the State. So why are we trying to go with less than the best in this case?

"I just can't understand it, Mr. Speaker. It is such a bad step that were this to go through, and were we to knock out the best Attorney General ..."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. Were we to go forward and knock out the very best in this case, Attorney General Bennett, then it is going to be very, very costly for this State if McCorriston gets Pflueger off the hook. Attorney General Bennett has already shown how aggressively he has pursued things in the past.

"$500,000 was paid to this State by Pflueger due to the actions of Attorney General Bennett. Why? I just ask the Members here, why? Why on earth don't we want the best going forward on this? And why? Why on earth do we want to risk the taxpayer's money? Because someone's going to be left holding the bag when Pflueger gets off. So I guess I would say to my Members here that if you go ahead and pass this tonight, listen for the champagne corks because Pflueger and McCorriston are sure going to be popping those corks and celebrating for getting Bennett out of the case.

"The other thing I have a concern about, this House Concurrent Resolution goes over to the Senate. Senator Colleen Hanabusa is representing Pflueger on a civil action against the Department of Land and Natural Resources that has just been filed. That's very questionable too. So on both sides, we would have people that want to get rid of the very best. The most brilliant mind, the most aggressive attorney, the one who has already shown that he can bring Pflueger to justice and make him pay. I would hope that others would join with me in voting down this Resolution. Thank you.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this Concurrent Resolution. It's really unfortunate, but the best has a cloud over it that needs to be resolved. In light of the many calls for an outside, independent investigation of the Kaloko Reservoir Dam breach, I would like to explain my position on this resolution to the Members of this Body.

"This Resolution requests the Attorney General to appoint an independent special deputy attorney within the Department of the Attorney General. This does not satisfy my constituents who want a 3rd party, outside, independent investigation.

"However this is a decision I cannot make alone for my constituents, as many reputations are at stake and the integrity of the Department of the Attorney General and its ability to carry out its constitutional and statutory mandates in this investigation are at issue.

"This Resolution is not a finished product as what we are attempting to accomplish and are directing to the Attorney General is not clear. This Resolution should be viewed as a vehicle for continued discussion and debate on how to proceed with the investigation. Again, what is at stake is the integrity of the Department of the Attorney General to do its job, as well as the future dependability and reliability of all governmental operations to serve our people and natural resources, not only on Kauai, but throughout this State.

"Secondly, let me explain why there are so many people in my district calling for an independent investigation, and why there is so much distrust in government. Many, myself included, do not view the dam breach as an isolated incident. For many, many years, illegal grading and grubbing, major land and water alteration activities were happening within the vicinity of Kaloko Reservoir and the nearby properties under the control of one person. People in my community questioned all this unpermitted activity with no response from the County of Kauai or the State. Although in some cases, after the fact permits were given by the County of Kauai.

"On November 22nd, 2001, due to illegal grading, a major landslide occurred covering an adjacent landowner's property in mud. The person who caused the mudslide proceeded with heavy equipment to push dirt and debris into Pilaa Stream, which empties into Pilaa Bay, with sedimentation smothering the coral reef in the bay.

"Despite all the photographic, physical, and eyewitness evidence of Clean Water Act violations, the County and State did not investigate this incident immediately. Only when a citizen suit was filed in federal court by two Kauai community groups, did the County and State become involved.

"The result of this one mudslide was four separate legal actions. A federal lawsuit which resulted in an EPA consent decree finalized last month, a county criminal case which resulted in the DAG plea, a Department of Land and Natural Resources administrative fine, which is being appealed, and a State criminal case which resulted in a ten count guilty plea and half a million dollars in fine.

"However the State criminal case is another area of great concern to my constituents because the guilty plea was totally unrelated and did not include the critical November 22nd, 2001 mudslide, which triggered the catastrophic damage to Pilaa Bay.

"I understand the Attorney General's role as a prosecutor in this case to have wide discretion in how to handle the resolution of this criminal case. I understand that a guilty plea may sound more appealing than a no contest plea, but the no contest plea was broader in scope and included the catastrophic event of November 22nd, 2001. However from the perception of my community ..."

Representative Luke rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. However from the perception of my community, justice was not served in this criminal case and the integrity of the Department of the Attorney General is at question in what some described as a 'sweetheart deal'. With this perception from community, how, with the same players involved, both prosecution side and defense side, can justice be carried out in the investigation of the Kaloko Reservoir Dam Breach?

"There is no doubt that many emotions and motives, some pure, some impure, are driving both the pros and cons of an independent investigation of the Kaloko Reservoir Dam Breach. I hope that this Body will continue to ask the tough questions, evaluate whether the perceptions of my community can be overcome with fair and logical explanations by the Attorney General, and that by the close of the 2006 Legislative Session, this Body can get a clear, unambiguous request to the Attorney General on how to proceed with the thorough investigation of the Kaloko Dam breach to bring resolution and closure to this tragic event. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in support. I'll be very brief because the Chair of the Energy Committee was very articulate in her reasoning. I think the main point that I want to make here is that there a couple of reasons why people want an independent investigation.

"One, is this question about the Attorney General having worked for or with Bill McCorriston. I don't consider that to be a central question. I don't think that that's a good reason to ask for an independent investigation. I'm just one person, but that's not my concern. And I don't have any question as to how vigorously this Attorney General would pursue this case. But there's another question and it has to do with the inherent potential conflict of interest which would occur if the Attorney General's office pursues this as a prosecutor and eventually finds, may find, culpability on the part of State employees, either appointed or civil servants.

"So the Attorney General's office would then be in the untenable position of representing both the prosecution and the defense. So if, as the Representative from Kailua said, the Attorney General vigorously pursues this case and finds, let's say a private landowner culpable, but also maybe an employee of the State or an appointee of the State culpable, then the Attorney General would as a supervisor of this case and as a supervisor of the AG's office have to say, 'Okay on the one hand I'm the prosecutor and I'm coming after this State employee, but on the other hand Deputy Attorney General so and so please go and provide an adequate defense to this employee which

I'm going to go after.' If this were a private law firm, they would say, 'You know, we have to farm this out. We have a conflict here.'

"And it's not ... Let me be clear. There are two kinds of conflicts of interest. One, is where something inappropriate is coming up. And the other is where you just have a conflict and you can't fairly represent both sides of a question. And the second one is the one I'm trying to articulate here. I know from my interactions with the Attorney General, he seems personally aggrieved, and I am sorry about that because I very much respect him as an individual, and as an attorney, and as an Attorney General.

"But I'm talking about process here. And the idea that anybody, any law firm or any agency could represent both sides of a case is tough for me to swallow. And that's why I think that as we move forward we're going to have to get our minds around that particular problem before the people of Kauai and elsewhere feel that this is being done properly. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I'm one of those attorneys that I guess the Representative from Kailua is talking about, saying that we would all agree. I would have to say that I disagree with her position. And I want to make it clear in disagreeing that this is not about Mark Bennett. It's not about his character or his quality as a lawyer. He's an excellent lawyer, although I have to say that some of the partners in my firm have gone head to head with him and won when he was in the private sector. There are other excellent lawyers out in our community that would be able to take on this case and do a very good job representing the people of Hawaii, and particularly the people in Kilauea.

"So we're not talking about Mark Bennett here. What we are talking about Mr. Speaker, is doing the right thing, and showing the people of our State that there is no appearance of impropriety.

"Our Governor did a great thing after the breaking of the dam, the Kaloko Dam. She flew there, met with the people along with the Representative from Kilauea who spoke so eloquently, and I like to incorporate her words as if they were my own. And she reached out and it gave the people hope. But then this issue occurred, that probably most people in our State didn't realize. That you did have an Attorney General who was one of the close partners, one of the law partners with the man who is representing the landowner where the dam is located.

"And the smell test, the feel test. It just didn't feel right. Then additional facts came out that the Sierra Club had reported a flash flood that damaged property before the breaking of the dam. And that it was reported to the Department of Health and to the Department of Land and Natural Resources and that some action and an investigation was taken, but there was no complete follow through. And after the burst of the dam they were told to stop talking, which doesn't again feel right, smell right.

"And it would be my hope, I was hoping that our Governor would step up to the plate and say, 'You know you're right. It doesn't smell right. It doesn't look right. And this is not about the integrity of Mark Bennett. This is not about the impartiality of Mark Bennett. But I believe for the people of our State that we should have an independent third party, Deputy AG appointed from outside the of the AG's Department. Pick one of the other great lawyers in our community. I think everyone in this room could probably name two or three off the top of their head that could represent this State vigorously.

"I don't think you can predict that Pflueger is going to be drinking champagne at some point down the road if Mark Bennett didn't proceed. In fact, I think if you pick a person like Rick Fried, he'd be very worried. And there are many others you could pick, Mr. Speaker.

"So this is not about that, but it is about impropriety, looking balanced, looking fair, and I think the people of Kilauea deserve that at this point. That they don't have to question whether the best job is going to be done. And anything that we can do to ensure them that that will happen is what we should do, and this Resolution takes us in that direction. Thank you very, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I heard a lot about will the best job be done. Well it sounds like we're worried that he's doing such a good job that he's going to take Pflueger to task, and I thought that's what we wanted. So I just remain in opposition."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting no this Resolution. I believe it impugns the integrity of the Attorney General. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on this measure. The qualifications of the Attorney General, Mr. Mark Bennett, are of the highest caliber; therefore, questioning the Department's ability, under his leadership, to undertake a thorough investigation into the collapse is misguided. I have the fullest confidence in the Department to conduct an investigation into the causes of the Kaloko Reservoir Dam collapse and to bring the individuals and entities responsible to swift and appropriate justice. Unfortunately, this Resolution appears to question the ability of the Department of the Attorney General to perform one of its primary mandates, which is to investigate all alleged violations of the law and which is, at this point, unwarranted.

"However, some residents of the affected area have voiced concerns that the Department of the Attorney General, as an entity of the State, may appear partial in investigating the Kaloko Reservoir Dam collapse. While I have the highest confidence in the ability of the Department and its leadership, I feel that we must address the concerns of residents."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please enter my yes vote. A very strong yes, in support."

"Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to point out to the Body that Resolutions on page 11 and basically to the end, from SCR 1771 to 1802, we passed these out of the Finance Committee, decision making only, with no testimony at all delivered in Finance Committee. So it was very, very difficult. There were a few of these that we individually had heard in prior Committees. I believed that I heard three of them in prior Committees. But we did not have the, if you want to call it the, luxury of hearing the testimony in Finance Committee. And I understand the Senate does it all the time, but this isn't the Senate. And it is something that we don't normally do in this Body. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to, I'd like to speak in support of this measure with a couple reservations. Mr. Speaker, this is requesting the Auditor to audit the methods and procedures employed by the Governor in soliciting private sector funds to support or defray the costs of trade missions.

"Mr. Speaker, I see this as potentially useful because the trade missions were so successful that the people of Hawaii benefited so much by this. And the Administration really went within the law, but outside the box of our thinking, and accomplished a tremendous thing with these trade missions. I think it's good that this Legislature would learn how that was done, and how we might cooperate with them more in the future for further, better success.

"With my reservations, Mr. Speaker, a couple things. One is that the Auditor did not testify. It's common for her to show up at our hearings. Not to speak in favor or against, but to be there to comment and did not occur and I believe it should have occurred.

"Further in the language of the resolution it asks that the Auditor is requested to audit the appropriateness, and I don't know if there is such a thing as an audit of appropriateness. I think the language is weakened in that respect."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, just in opposition with short comments. Thank you. The only that puzzles me in this particular measure is that, I believe in the budget, I'm not sure if it was the House's doing or the Senate's doing, but we actually take out the government money for these government trade missions and say that the State can raise the funds for the trade missions. So I think that's kind of like speaking out of two sides of our mouth. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I hope this HCR does pass out of the Senate and does compel the Auditor to audit the methods and procedures applied by the Governor through her Director at DBEDT.

"What we found at the hearing, Mr. Speaker, was nothing less than astounding and amazing. He basically stood for the proposition that as long as you make a buck, you can bend the rules, you can break the rules and the ends justify the means.

"So when I hear previous speakers talk about this trip being so successful because it raked in millions and millions of bucks, that may be true Mr. Speaker. But what's even more alarming and troubling for me is that this was at the expense of public integrity, of public honesty, of public trust.

"Mr. Speaker, government access and services should not be subject to sale by any governor, any administration, any department, any trade mission. Making money at the expense of the State's standing in the community ..."

Representative Halford rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. He is not characterizing the issue here."

The Chair responded:

"He is addressing the issue at this point and time. And that's why this particular Resolution is before this Body. Representative Marcus Oshiro, please proceed."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"I'll end with this, Mr. Speaker. Government access should not be for sale and should not be condoned. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, having had the pleasure of going on the trip to China with the Governor, I could see where those donations from companies were of great value. The entire traveling group from the Polynesian Cultural Center traveled with us and entertained in numerous venues, and those folks could not have afforded to come. This was the kind of thing that the money was used to defray cost.

"The performances there in China would have made everyone proud. Everyone in this Chamber. You know I was proud to be a part of it and just to see how well everybody performed, but it takes money to do that. These young people had to stay in hotels, they needed airfare. There was a group from Waianae High School that through their class on video, taping the 'Olelo program. They were just troopers, but they all had to get airfare and food and places to stay. These were the kinds of things that these additional donations were used for, and it made for a very impressive showing from the State of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly, I just want to I think elaborate a little bit on what the Majority Leader explained. I think it really does have to do with fairness and integrity. That's the underlying purposes of the procurement code.

"The procurement code is all about government services being available for everyone. We want to make sure it's an even playing field so that it's open competition, open bidding. So that the process is open so that anybody who wants to avail themselves of government services and those benefits can utilize and participate in the system.

"The problem here is that DBEDT basically circumvented the procurement code. They went about, found the people they liked, and basically gave them the services. They did that through this partnership with a nonprofit corporation. And let me explain that they asked for an exemption from the procurement code from the State Procurement Office. The State Procurement Office said, 'No. You need to follow the procurement code.' What did they do? They then went and partnered with the nonprofit and let the nonprofit enter into the agreement with the chosen vendors.

"That to me is a circumvention of the procurement code. It excludes people who want to participate in government services and those benefits. And as creative and as wonderful as we may think these partnerships with private businesses may be, ultimately government needs to be held to a higher standard, and we need to make sure that we do it in a way which is not only fair, but which complies with the law and specifically Chapter 103D. Thank you."

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in support. First of all, audits are helpful. I think we need to remember that most private sector companies get audited. Most public agencies get audited. And so if we want to improve the way that government works, we should be auditing ourselves regularly. We should be auditing the Executive Branch.

"Second of all, these trade missions. I don't think there's any disagreement in these Chambers that these trade missions are tremendously useful for Hawaii's economy, and that they should continue. And in my view, they should continue on the basis of a public-private partnership. There should be some private funding in the mix.

"But my eyebrows rose was when I found out that there were solicitation letters coming from high government officials in Hawaii saying essentially this: Here's how much access you get to the Chinese Government for this price. Here's how much access to the Chinese Government you get for this price. And to me that's pretty extraordinary to explicitly offer access to other governments through our government for a certain dollar amount. That is excluding other people from the process.

"So I think as the Director of DBEDT and others work on these trade missions and we try to have more of them, and plenty of private sector dollars in the mix, I think what would make sense is for the Auditor to look at this and try to figure out what is our public policy in this area. Do we want to fully, as the Minority Leader suggested, do we want this to be fully government funded? Do we want a private sector mix? If so, how do we solicit those contributions? And are we allowed to offer anything in exchange? Those are very legitimate questions that an audit can help us to clarify so we can come into the next Session and either give guidance, or actually write a statute that governs how trade missions are to occur.

"So I just don't see, there's a lot of protesting too much here. That anything that seems to indicate that the Executive Branch did something that wasn't precisely perfect, is somehow viewed through a partisan lens.

"We are the Legislative Branch, and we are exercising our oversight responsibility over the Executive Branch. And if we thought something was not quite appropriate and is worth reviewing and seeing how we can do it better the next time, it shouldn't be viewed as an attack. It should be viewed as exercising our constitutional responsibility. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, short comments in opposition. There's just two points. The Legislature is a part of the government, but we do two things. We pass a bill that says we are going to exempt ourselves from this procurement, and we also pass a bill, I mean and we in law that we exempt ourselves from the 'sunshine law'. And there's two things that we're talking about right here and arguing about open government, but we're done that and we're a part of government as well. So you know, I just think let's take a look, and take a look in the mirror before we start-pointing fingers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some reservations. I see nothing wrong with doing an audit. I think everything should be transparent and above board. I guess my concern is number one, is that I'm hoping that taking these kinds of actions will not have a chilling effect on trade and international relationships, because I think especially being in the middle of the Pacific, we should encourage both the Administration and ourselves to do, to maintain contact and open doors."

"I also think that there should be a definition of what a trade mission is, because I know they are also looking at the mission that we went to the Philippines for, which I didn't consider a trade mission, but more of a goodwill mission. But I know they're looking at what happens in those cases as well. I can tell you from experience that there are things that we're guided by, restricted by, especially in terms of entertainment and food that we can't expect the State to pay for. I think it would be unrealistic to expect our host country that we're visiting to pay for either. So I think there has to be a mechanism where moneys can be raised, and has to be through the private sector so that we can be good visitors and at least cover the cost of our share of the food and entertainment. So maybe these things need to be looked at by a taskforce and some rules devised. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and I want to ask if the remarks of the Representative from Kalihi be entered as my own. You know I think when we as a legislators look towards the overall good of our State, our citizens, I know that we often try to pass legislation that furthers, encourages, the relationship with our State, our country, to other countries. Myself having been an English as a Second Language teacher, spending a decade of that, I truly value this."

"I wish actually that I could have participated in these missions. I was not able to as I have now a two year-old, but I'm wondering what is this effect in the big picture going to do for the future. If I were a company, I'm not, but if I were a company, and I'm going to be audited now. I'm all for open government also, but you're asking to audit me. I think most companies if I take a poll, they kind of consider that negative, you know. So it adds to the negativity."

"And secondly, I mean it costs every time you do something. It's costs, it's effort. So when we weigh this, you know I start to wonder. I can't help but think this is a little bit of, you know a little bit of harassment. So I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. First if I could get your permission to insert the words of the Majority Leader as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted to just mention three things. First of all, when we were in the Committee hearing for Legislative Management Committee, the Director of DBEDT suggested and said on numerous occasions that a delegate that paid $500 for this trip got the same treatment as a sponsor that paid $50,000. As the Representative from Makiki has already stated, there are documents that show otherwise. And I think that to suggest that a person paying $500 get the same access as the sponsors, the gold level sponsors that were paying up to $50,000, and to tell us that when his own documents and people have verified that that in fact is not true, is concerning."

"In fact, Mr. Speaker, I'd say that the 'pay to play' scheme or system in Hawaii is alive and well. It is true, because based on just that: You pay $50,000, you get invited to these meetings. You pay $500, you can join everybody else. That to me suggests there's something wrong with this picture."

"The other thing, Mr. Speaker, is we received a letter from a nonprofit who did the State's bidding, and the nonprofit acknowledged that they paid the bills as recommended by the Administration, by the Director, and by his people. That to me just suggests that the nonprofit was utilized as the Majority Floor Leader already said, as just a conduit, and as a way to bypass procurement. Because the fact is that all of the expenses for this particular trip were paid for by the nonprofit, but they were directed by the State and that to me is something that this audit should and must take a look at. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 1:25 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:31 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 38, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO AUDIT THE METHODS AND PROCEDURES EMPLOYED BY THE GOVERNOR IN SOLICITING PRIVATE SECTOR SPONSORSHIPS AND CONTRIBUTIONS, IN CASH OR IN-KIND, TO SUPPORT OR DEFRAY THE COSTS OF OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT FUNCTIONS, INCLUDING TRADE MISSIONS," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens, Stonebraker and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1774-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 42, HD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 42, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A SUNRISE REVIEW OF THE REGULATION OF MIXED MARTIAL ARTS," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 59 and H.C.R. No. 77, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to these measures. If I may, I like to take us down a little path of history. Back in the 30s, 40s, and part of the 50s, the people of Hawaii of which I was one, were nothing but chattel to the Big 5. Fortunately in the late 50s we had an evolution called, A Voice of the People. We actually were able to bring unionization to our employees. In fact, I was one of those employees that worked under the pineapple symbol in Iwilei, so I know what it was like back in those days.

"However, like anything else in life, the pendulum swings. And I'm voting no on this particular measure because I think the pendulum has swung way too far. And when I look at these particular Resolutions, I wonder why are we, as a legislative body, attempting now to legislate and unionize through legislation.

"The people of the Tribune Herald obviously have made their choice. They have a union. We have no business sticking our nose into their business. And if they feel that their union is not properly representing them then, then go move to get rid of them and get another union that will take care of them.

"So let us not unionize through legislation. And I hope that other people will vote no and that business can get on. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too toiled at the cannery at Iwilei, but I never felt like a chattel. I got a lot of pineapple rash, and I got up very early. So I'm rising in opposition and with the exception of the chattel comment, I would like the words of the Representative from Downtown Honolulu to be enter into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating

"Thank you a no vote and I just want to mention that I really, what I have deep concerns with is when we start to poke our nose into these sort of things. I have to agree that, that's the whole point of negotiations, right?"

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in opposition. It appears that the union workers have more access to government here at the Legislature than through the people who actually run the paper, and that's why they're getting this measure through. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In support with brief comments. I also never worked under the pineapple water tank, but I did work at Puna Sugar for a couple of summers in the sabadon gang, and I have to say thank God there was a union representing those sugar workers, ILWU. They made a huge difference in terms of working conditions for the people that work in incredibly hard jobs.

"On this particular Resolution, Mr. Speaker, they talk about history. We have seen now since 1996, how this company that came in and bought the Hawaii Tribune Herald has treated their workers and has consistently worked to break the union there and has mistreated many, many dedicated people at that newspaper. This Resolution is just asking that they reconsider how they approach this and be fair. The National Labor Relations Board just ruled against the newspaper and found gross abuse and mistreatment by one of the workers. So I think this is the proper thing to do and I hope that everyone votes for these Resolutions. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Just in support with one sentence. Who could be against having a fair and equitable contract? This is looking at both sides Mr. Speaker. For both sides. A fair and equitable contract. It doesn't say fair and equitable contract for the workers. So I think that it is proper for this House to support this, and hopefully those who are in a position to this will take a look at this as something good. Not as bad."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to clarify again. In opposition. As legislators, we want to make sure that because this is a law, or in this case a resolution, the beginning of perhaps law. We're setting precedent here all the time. And so at what point do we stop getting into other people and their business? I mean, I'm sure everyone's for fairness, and in that case, in very fact, who else could be not in support, dilutes the resolution, making it ... You know. I don't think its worthy of the Body. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee was adopted and H.R. No. 59, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION SUPPORTING A FAIR AND EQUITABLE CONTRACT FOR UNION WORKERS AT THE HAWAII TRIBUNE-HERALD," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer, Moses and Stonebraker voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 77, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION SUPPORTING A FAIR AND EQUITABLE CONTRACT FOR UNION WORKERS AT THE HAWAII TRIBUNE-HERALD," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer, Moses and Stonebraker voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1777-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 80, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 80, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO ADOPT CHANGES TO THE MEDICARE PART D PROGRAM," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 65 and H.C.R. No. 87, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have some reservations on this. This is seatbelts for school buses. Everybody would like seatbelts for their kids. It's mandated in cars. We think it's a good idea, but we heard testimony after testimony. We heard it again in the Transportation Committee that seat belts don't work in buses because they injure children.

"The way that buses are designed, if you have the seat belts on and the bus goes over on its side, or goes over on the roof, the children are hanging there and they sustain more injuries from the seat belt than they do from the bus because the bus is constructed so that it isn't crushed. So when the experts, including the federal government say that the buses are not designed for seat belts, what are we trying to put seat belts in buses for? Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of both measures stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, although we have heard from some people that seat belts are not advisable, there are other groups that feel that seat belts are really necessary. For example, the American Academy of Pediatrics. So I think this study is really necessary because I think there are conflicting opinions and the bottom line is the safety of our children. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 65, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING A STUDY TO SHOW THE COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH, AND THE ADVISABILITY OF MANDATING THE USE OF SEAT BELTS FOR MINORS IN EVERY SCHOOL BUS," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 87, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING A STUDY TO SHOW THE COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH, AND THE ADVISABILITY OF MANDATING THE USE OF SEAT BELTS FOR MINORS IN EVERY SCHOOL BUS," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1780-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 97, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 97, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, just with reservations, Mr. Speaker. As the speaker from Liliha said a little while ago, that all these audits do cost money. I'm sure that the State Historic Preservation Division would welcome an audit, but they just had one. So hopefully, maybe the Senate can look into that and make sure that we're not auditing an audit that has already been done. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on this measure. This bill requests a management audit of the State Historic Preservation Division of the Department of Land and Natural Resources.

"The Department of Land and Natural Resources is an extensive department with a tremendous responsibility and commitment to the citizens of Hawaii which serves the public in a substantial and obligatory manner. Audits often serve the public by monitoring efficiency, however my reservations are based on the idea that the State Historic Preservation Division is already currently undergoing an audit by a certified public accounting firm as ordered by the National Park Service, and will cover 10 of the points listed in the concurrent resolution. In light of the current audit, this measure may be unnecessary".

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 97, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A MANAGEMENT AUDIT OF THE STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1781-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 105, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 105, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION TO ENTER INTO A LEASE/PURCHASE AGREEMENT FOR A PARKING STRUCTURE FOR MAUI MEMORIAL MEDICAL CENTER IN WAILUKU, MAUI TO BE FUNDED BY THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF PARTICIPATION," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1782-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 128, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 128, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING A FINANCIAL AND MANAGEMENT AUDIT OF THE WARRANTS SECTION OF THE SHERIFF DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1783-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 141, HD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 141, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO WORK WITH THE SAMUEL MILLS DAMON ESTATE TRUSTEES, MOANALUA GARDENS FOUNDATION, THE TRUST FOR PUBLIC LANDS, THE NATURE CONSERVANCY, AND OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS TO CONSIDER PURCHASING THE MOANALUA GARDENS," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1784-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 146, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 146, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of House Concurrent Resolution 146.

"The Turtle Bay expansion project has divided the North Shore community into two camps, for and against the proposed development of five new hotels, built over a long-term period, based on a City special management area granted 20 years ago. Both sides claim that the quality of life for the North Shore residents will be harmed if the opposing side gets its way.

"House Concurrent Resolution 146 asks for a rigorous reexamination of the Turtle Bay expansion project by the City and County of Honolulu Council. In 20 years time, conditions of the North Shore and the island of Oahu have changed. If we are truly to do what's best for the people of the North Shore, the development should go through a process that meets the standards of today and the needs of tomorrow, not those set in 1986.

"What have been the significant changes? For one thing, traffic on the North Shore has increased dramatically over the years, particularly along Kamehameha Highway, due to the tremendous popularity of the surf meets, people flocking annually in awe of the high surf, and the enjoyment of the world renowned beaches by both locals and visitors.

"Over the past 20 years, the developments of Ko'Olina and Kapolei have put a significant strain on the infrastructure and resources of West Oahu. In addition to traffic, this includes health care services, landfill capacity, water and affordable housing. Can a third major development be supported on Oahu?

"The environment impact statement (EIS) completed in 1985 failed to address the impact of the project on customary and traditional practices of native Hawaiians. The EIS did identify known prehistoric settlements in the development area, and the development plan calls for the disinterment of any burial remains found during the project construction. By today's standards, this does not adequately or fully take into account the environmental impact of the development on native Hawaiian culture.

"The Department of Health's administrative rules require that if the timing of a project has been significantly changed, the environmental impact statement must be supplemented. Due to the size and scope of the developer's plans, we propose that the City should follow through on this, as well as require the developer, Kuilima Resort Company to do more.

"HCR 146 calls for not only the reexamination of the special management area permit, including the supplemental environmental impact statement, but recommends that the City also review the Land Use Commission's action to reclassify this area from the agricultural to the urban district in order to facilitate the project, and the Unilateral Agreement filed with the Bureau of Conveyances that requires certain conditions.

"While unusual, there is legal precedent in the City to take this route. The Hawaii Supreme Court affirmed an issuing agency's right to review, revoke or modify special management area use permits in Morgan v. Planning Department County of Kauai, 104 Ha. 174, 86p.3d982(2004).

"Change, especially on something as permanent as land development, is always hard on a community. As I talk to the people of the North Shore, both for and against the Turtle Bay Expansion, there is mistrust and divisiveness growing to a harmful degree. People expect you to take a side in what has become a bitter battle, and that will only result in one side winning and one side losing.

"We have a better chance of getting on both sides winning if we can focus on areas where there may be common ground – good jobs with decent pay for residents in the community, affordable housing for some employees, cultural sensitivity, beach access and support for local fishing, surfing and family gatherings, preserving the sense of Hawaiian country.

"I don't believe anyone expects the North Shore to stay in a time warp, so if we are to move forward with some sort of development, let it be one in which the people's best interest drive the nature, size and scope of the project. That includes holding government accountable for thoroughly examining the environmental, economic, social and cultural impact that this community will be forced to live with for generations to come.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill. Malama Pono."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HCR 146. The Turtle Bay expansion is of particular concern to my constituency. They will likely be impacted by the increase in traffic on the Windward side that a large resort development will bring. Years have passed since this project was originally approved, and things have changed since then. What was a controversial agreement back in 1986 is even more controversial today because of changes in our laws and increases in population that have taken place over the past 20 years. Most of the residents living out in the country are there because they didn't want to deal with the hustle and bustle of city life. There is a fear that with the influx of possibly 4,000-plus new tourists to the area, the quiet country ambience will disappear. This Resolution asks City officials to take a new look at the project since so much time has passed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 146, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CALLING FOR THE RIGOROUS REEXAMINATION OF THE DEVELOPMENT EXPANSION PLAN AT TURTLE BAY RESORT DUE TO THE PASSAGE OF TIME AND CHANGED CONDITIONS OF THE NORTH SHORE AND THE ISLAND OF OAHU," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1785-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 148, HD 1, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 148, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I think it's well intended, but with reservations. They know what they can do. And if we want to implement rent control so we can do that ourselves. If this Body really wants rent control, then let's debate it right here and create our own law. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Halford be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"I'm sorry. Can you change my with reservations vote to a no vote?" and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"A no vote for me. If we don't address the underlying problem of the cost of housing, all the rental cap is going to do is dry up any rental housing at all."

Representative Sonson rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

[Note: The main motion that Standing Committee Report Nos. 1725-06 through 1804-06 be adopted and that House Resolutions and House Concurrent Resolutions as may be amended be adopted, was later amended to delete Standing Committee Report No. 1785-06.]

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1789-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 194, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1790-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 205, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 205, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"For Stand. Com. 1790, with reservations and just short comments. We do need to do something with the stadium and any delay could very well make it more expensive. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 205, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO REVIEW PROPOSED PLANS AND EXISTING AND ANTICIPATED APPROPRIATION REQUESTS OF THE STADIUM AUTHORITY AND THE GOVERNOR FOR THE REPAIR, RENOVATION, REFURBISHMENT, OR REPLACEMENT OF THE ALOHA STADIUM," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

No. 223, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT AN AUDIT TO DETERMINE WHETHER FUNDS ALLOCATED FROM THE HAWAII TOBACCO SETTLEMENT SPECIAL FUND TO THE UNIVERSITY REVENUE-UNDERTAKINGS FUND HAVE BEEN APPROPRIATELY EXPENDED," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 193 and H.C.R. No. 253, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I'm casting a no vote please on Standing Committee 1792 and 1793. These are requesting the Auditor to conduct a study of the shoreline set back reference line. Mr. Speaker, my reasons for opposing this are the same as those expressed by the environmental groups who are also in opposition to this measure. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to these two Resolutions. I'm really sorry that I wasn't in the Water and Land Use hearing when they heard these two Resolutions, otherwise I would have urged the Committee not to move these Resolutions forward. They're both badly written measures that set back long-standing public policy on shorelines. It basically allows, or is asking the Auditor to find that the vegetation line becomes the demarcation for establishing shoreline, and that's not what our law says right now.

"So I urge this Body to defeat these Resolutions because again, the Whereas clauses do not support long-standing public policy and Supreme Court decisions that define this public policy. Thank you."

At 1:43 o'clock p.m., Representative Kanoho requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:58 o'clock p.m.

Oshiro and carried, with Representative Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Marcus Oshiro, would like to state for the Members of the House that these three matters would be taken up at the end of the calendar?"

Representative M. Oshiro rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, for the Body's information, these three measures will be taken up after the main motion, which is through page 18."

Representative Takamine, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1794-06) recommending that H.C.R. No. 257, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 257, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 316, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to vote against Standing Committee Report 1804. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, if I understand this, it is requesting the Attorney General to analyze our existing law to find a way to make the State Department of Taxation collect the new surcharge, the GET surcharge. And then once they collect that, to fund the County's mass transportation, the mass transit project. If I'm reading that correctly Mr. Speaker, and I oppose that. I believe that others will explain more thoroughly why this is not a good idea, particularly those that sit on the Transportation Committee. I believe a commitment was made that this would be the County's responsibility and now this measure is backtracking on that. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. I was a citizen participant when we passed this infamous tax increase. Supposedly to empower and enable our City and County of Honolulu to tax citizens of Oahu for mass transit. And they were in the belief of homerule and were to take care of this themselves. To now suddenly say that we need to hand carry them through and collect the tax for them, and I think I saw a Resolution that came from the City Council that says, 'Oh now, with a new system in place, we'll be able to collect even more revenues for this.' I'm going to call it, as a former citizen participant, a 'boondoggle.'"

"So if they're going to be self-reliant, homerule, then let them collect their own tax and they should figure it out themselves. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I do believe in homerule. I do believe that mass transit is something we need to do. However, as we discussed here at length last year on the Floor, I could not vote for the tax, for us to collect it, and therefore, I voted no. Because I believed we would end up collecting it despite all the promises we got that we would not collect it. And here we are basically the next step after this, after we find there's no impediments or we find a workaround, is to say we'll go ahead and collect it. We're going to end up collecting the County's tax and that is not homerule, and it is a tax increase."

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. I think as I said before on this Floor that the Governor was actually considering vetoing that bill, increasing the excise tax from 4% to 4.5%. I think it was only because of a promise from yourself and the President of the Senate that the State would not have to collect it. So here we are with this Resolution making it pretty clear that what the Majority, apparently in this Chamber, wants to do. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I just wanted to actually clarify a statement made by the previous speakers, and that has to do with this alleged promise that was made by the leadership of the House and Senate. I actually have seen the letter that was signed by yourself and by the Senate President.

"There's no such promise that we would be taking, or giving the tax administration back to the counties. It merely stated that bills would be introduced and we would look at the idea, and we did. That's all that was promised – that bills would be introduced.

"There was no commitment because as I think you have always done, you never commit this entire Body to one necessary position. You let the legislative process work as it should and therefore, you promised to introduce a bill and let the process take it where it went. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations and just a quick comment. My concern, and really why I won't vote on this measure is that, if I am a business owner and I have to pay a tax bill, if we decide to have the counties collect the tax, the business would be getting two bills for a general excise tax. Although I don't like the fact that the tax would be increased, putting myself in the place of business owners, I would rather see one tax bill than two that I would have to pay. So I'll just vote with reservations. Thank you very much."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. You know, I agree with the previous speaker. In fact, I think the concerns raised by the people that don't support this Resolution, I believe stems from the fact that they may not support the rail system or the tax. But that debate passed last year.

"What's in front of us is, how do we implement the tax increase? I think it just makes good sense for us to allow our State Department of Taxation to collect it. Like the good Representative from Waikiki already said, if I was a business owner, I would appreciate it. I would appreciate receiving one tax bill or reporting one time to one entity, instead of reporting to two separate governments at two separate levels. It just doesn't make sense and I think what we're asking here makes a lot of sense.

"And I think if we were to propose what the Governor had asked you to propose to us, and if we would be considering it on the Floor today, I think the people that oppose mass transit or the tax, would stand up and say this doesn't make sense because we have the City government collecting a tax, and State government collecting a tax. So I think this proposal passes the 'makes sense' test. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, still in opposition, but I did have a comment to make. If I'm not mistaken, some of the negotiations and some of the talk was that there was an ability here, there was an opportunity to actually hire, another firm to collect the tax on behalf of the State and the County. So you could actually pay it to one central area and it could be distributed to the State and the County. I'm not sure of the details of it all, but there's ways. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just rise in support. I have written comments to submit to the Journal, but I just wanted to say, I was looking back at an article that was written on the tenth of April in the Honolulu Advertiser. In it, it stated that the State Tax Director estimated last year, that the State's cost of collecting the taxes would amount to 13.6 million over the first 4 years. The City however estimated duplicating the State system would cost $52 million over the same period, so it's just common sense. It would not make sense to support a duplicate system that would cost more. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"The purpose of this Resolution is to request information from the Attorney General regarding the collection of the mass transit GET surcharge that will begin in Honolulu County on January 1, 2007. Specifically, this Resolution requests the AG to report on the impediments, if any, that could arise when the State Department of Taxation begins to administer the collection of this tax surcharge.

"The Attorney General testified that he saw no impediments to collecting this surcharge and because Act 247 of 2005 expressly authorized DOTAX to administer and collect the County surcharge, there would be no legal obstacles.

"The Attorney General's input is sought because DOTAX has apparently been advised not to respond to inquiries on this issue and did not appear at the hearing, nor submit testimony. The AG's input is necessary because any contracts related to the tax must be reviewed by his office.

"Time is of the essence, Mr. Speaker, since the Session is drawing to a close, and any adjustments need to be made this year to make sure the State is ready and poised to deal with whatever hurdles are discovered prior to January 1, 2007. For that reason, the Resolution seeks a report to the Legislature to be delivered as soon as possible. I would urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 316, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO ANALYZE EXISTING LAW TO IDENTIFY ANY IMPEDIMENT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION'S IMPLEMENTING THE COLLECTION OF THE COUNTY SURCHARGE BY JANUARY 1, 2007 AND REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION TO ESTABLISH A PLAN TO IMPLEMENT THE ADMINISTRATION AND COLLECTION OF A COUNTY SURCHARGE ON THE STATE GENERAL EXCISE TAX TO FUND COUNTY MASS TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS ON JANUARY 1, 2007," was adopted, with Representatives Finnegan, Halford, Harbin, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stonebraker and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1785-06, that H.C.R. No. 148, HD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 148, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE COUNTIES TO STUDY AND TO CONSIDER IMPLEMENTING RENT CONTROL ORDINANCES AUTHORIZED UNDER STATE LAW," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1792-06, that H.R. No. 193, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 193, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF THE SHORELINE SETBACK REFERENCE LINE," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1793-06, that H.C.R. No. 253, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

No. 253, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF THE SHORELINE SETBACK REFERENCE LINE," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Carroll, Marumoto, Nakasone and Takamine being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Karamatsu: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank all the participants who helped in the first collection drive for the Sex Abuse Treatment Center, which was held yesterday in Room 423. Items such as mugs, stuffed animals, clothes, and books will help comfort survivors of sexual assault. I also would like to thank our partners, honorary co-chair Brittany Perrineau and actor Daniel Dae Kim from Lost, and also the assistance from staff from the Sex Abuse Treatment Center along with other supporters and volunteers from our offices in the Capitol.

"In total, we transferred over 30 boxes of clothes for adults and children, stuff animals, reading materials and mugs, and we collected about $130 in cash and checks for the Center. In addition, we had 20 bags that won't be used by the Sex Abuse Treatment Center, but it has already been delivered to Goodwill.

"I would like to thank Nancy Nishimura, Shawn Nakama from the Capitol and my friend, Stacey Hayashii and also my staff, Chelsea Akimoto, Kerri Richardson, Melissa Miranda-Johnson and Baron Gushiken for all their hard work. Thank you for everyone's participation."

Representative Green: "Thank you Mr. Speaker, just real briefly. Your Hawaii Healthcare Task Force and the Governor's Task Force will be meeting today from 4:00 to 600 at the Medical School to discuss the Lewin Report further, and to advise them on adjustments that might suit Hawaii best. So if my colleagues would like to send staff or come themselves, the input would be welcomed."

Representative Halford: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's my hope that in the future that this Body will have comprehensive discussions, formally and informally, on the issue of 'pay to play.' And not just on the narrow issue that was brought up in an earlier Resolution, but comprehensively, regarding partisan 'pay to play', Political Action Committee 'pay to play', etc. I don't think I have the whole list in my mind or in front of me. But I think that's a useful subject. It affects the people of Hawaii directly. And hopefully we would formally consider those issues in the future. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Halford, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no. (Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker were excused.)

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I vehemently disagree."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Without the 24-hour notice, a no vote."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"For the same reason, a no vote."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am disagreeing with this motion because I think that we should have had at least 24 hours. I do think that there's a perception ..."

The Chair interjected, stating:

"The Chair will not allow you to make references to this 24-hour issue. It was before you from last week Thursday. It was a public record, and it has met the 48-hour requirement for Final Reading decision on this particular matter. Thank you."

"Is there anyone else with a no vote on the motion to reconsider, and agree to the Senate Amendments?"

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Halford, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no. (Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker were excused.)

FINAL READING

H.B. No. 1, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Representative Finnegan, this is the fourth motion, and now we are making the motion to pass Final Reading."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Correct. And are we going bill by bill at this point in time? Mr. Speaker, I just want to say that I'm in support, but with reservations because I haven't been able to take a look at the differences in the different bills because of the lack of notice to take a look at it. In the previous times, Mr. Speaker, you've been really good at giving us a 24-hours notice."

"We did hear this, about some of these, well this particular bill, at approximately at 10:00 or 10:15 this morning, and we tried to do the best checks that we could, or I could. And so Mr. Speaker, I will be voting with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the objections to doing this procedure today is that we didn't have enough notice."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Halford, the measure before you is Relating to Higher Education, which is the codification of the present statutes that are presently on the books. Please proceed if you want to speak about this particular bill."

Representative Halford continued, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, as a point of order, during the recesses we discussed that we will be going through four motions, and the fourth motion was debatable and so we're patiently waiting for this fourth motion."

Speaker Say: "Yes, debatable on the substance of the matter, which is Relating to Higher Education."

Representative Halford: "So the issue that it's customary to have 24-hour notice is not debatable at any point today?"

Speaker Say: "At this point, it is not before this House."

Representative Halford: "Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, briefly in support. I'd just like to thank the Chairman of the Higher Education Committee, the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and the Chairman of the Finance Committee for supporting this measure. This measure took much work, in fact it took almost two years of work and I wanted to thank all of them, as well as all the other people that participated in this effort. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHER EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 173, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 173, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the bill. Mr. Speaker, this is an example of why we needed the 24-hour notice, so the people that were waiting for Conference Committee to be able to weigh in, to explain why this bill should not go any further. They have now not had that opportunity. They expected that, as did we, that these measures would go to Conference Committee and everyone would be able to confer with those that are very interested in this measure."

Representative Souki rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. She is not speaking to the merits or demerits of the measure."

Representative Thielen: "But the measure is ... For the Speaker Emeritus' information, the measure has many demerits."

Representative Souki: "The speaker from Kailua is being facetious and you should call her out of order."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Thielen, you may proceed, but please contain your comments to the current draft, which is the Senate draft."

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this is an important bill because it is going to narrow the number of people that would be able to be appointed to this important office. The 24-hour notice is important because then ..."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, you are out of order because the Senate Draft is a draft that came from the Senate. It was approved by the Senate and sent back. The Chairs of the respective Committees have agreed that the Senate Draft amendments are proper at this point and time. If you are objecting to this particular measure, state your objections on the Senate Draft that is before this Body."

Representative Thielen: "I am objecting, but I'm also objecting to the fact that those who wanted to weigh in during Conference Committee now are prohibited from doing so, or weigh in with a 24-hour notice where they would have the opportunity to contact people."

"I think the bill should not go further. I'm very uncomfortable for other reasons, which I have stated on the Floor in this House. I think it is extremely uncomfortable to me. And Mr. Speaker, before we vote I would ask for a recess because I would like to talk to a colleague about a potential conflict. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We did discuss this measure on the Floor here several times. No, I am in opposition. And I'll just start in here. In the past 38 years, the 100th, 442nd Infantry was mobilized twice for combat in Vietnam and Iraq. There were two engagements and 11 soldiers paid the ultimate sacrifice for serving their country. We will honor their families on this Floor tomorrow."

"We had many great leaders come out of the 100th and 442nd. Senator Dan Inouye, the late Senator Spark Matsunaga, Major General Bob Lee, and First Lieutenant Nainoa Hoe, to name just a few."

"Mr. Speaker, the current language in the State Constitution and Hawaii Revised Statutes is sufficient. We should not change legislation that reduces the pool of qualified candidates for this very important position. We would be going against the national trend where most states are conducting nationwide searches to fill the position of Adjutant General. The state of Rhode Island is a recent example."

"Since 1968, the 100th Battalion, 442nd from Army Reserves has served under their command and control of the 29th Brigade of the Hawaii National Guard. They joined the 29th for combat in Vietnam and most recently in Iraq. Excuse me, Mr. Speaker, do we mean to tell the citizen soldiers of the famed 100th Battalion that it is okay to go to war with the Hawaii Army National Guard, but you cannot serve at the highest levels in the Hawaii National Guard?"

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly oppose House Bill 173, SD 1, for the following reasons. This bill does not serve the interest of Hawaii or the members of the Hawaii National Guard. The commander of military organizations is a technically complex and demanding job, one which has a dramatic and immediate effect on the safety, health, welfare of the officers and men."

"As such, it is vital that the leader of the National Guard be chosen from among the best, the best trained, most experienced, and most skilled available. To restrict the choice of the Adjutant to a small group of officers no matter how the group was selected, deprives the Governor of the ability to choose from among the very best. The consequences to our sons and daughters will be very bad. Bad for their safety, bad for their morale, and bad for the Hawaii National Guard, its officers, and its men and women. I urge you to pay heed to the testimony of the present Adjutant General and vote against this bill."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. I called the Army and National Guard, and Air National Guard and I asked them how many general officers they have. They have nine and that includes General Lee and his Adjutant."

"So basically we would limit the pool, subtracting them. This bill would limit the pool of officers to seven because I doubt very seriously that they would drop below a General officer rank to a 06 rank to select our National Guard leader."

"So I just would see that out of the seven officers, the Governor would only have to choose from them. And what if none of them have the specialty required at the time? What if it was a logistics officer that was needed? Or what if there was an officer needed with combat experience and none of these seven have this experience in their background? So for those reasons, I really don't think the pool of officer should be limited. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Moses and Stevens be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in opposition. And I agree with the speaker from Kapolei that we are reducing our pool of qualified applicants and we can't afford to do it. Additional written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of this bill. This measure prohibits a person from being eligible to serve as Adjutant General unless the person has had at least 5 years of service as a commissioned officer in Hawaii National Guard.

"First, the current language in the State Constitution and Hawaii Revised Statutes is sufficient. We should not pass legislation that would reduce the pool of qualified candidates for this very important position. We would be going against the national trend where more states are conducting nationwide searches to fill the position of Adjutant General. The State of Rhode Island is a recent example.

"Second, with our troops answering our nation's call in the global war on terror, our national guard leadership has done a lot to show that our soldiers and airmen are equal to the active and reserve forces in our country.

"Third, I feel that the State of Hawaii needs to have the very best military leader for the position of Adjutant General. We should not limit the field of play."

Representative Finnegan rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Moses, Stevens and Thielen be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a ruling on a potential conflict. I currently serve in the Hawaii Army National Guard as a Captain," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 173, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE NATIONAL GUARD," passed Final Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Halford, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 877, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 877, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRIME," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1155, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1155, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to vote with reservations please. Mr. Speaker, the House hasn't seen this bill since last year. It actually went through a Committee on the Senate side, and now has been on the House side to be approved with the Senate amendments. And Mr. Speaker, not having seen this for the last year and having about two hours notice, I really disagree with the history, or not the history, but I don't think I can make a proper judgment on whether or not this bill is good or bad. Mr. Speaker, I will be voting with reservations because I have faith that this bill is a good bill, although with the lack of time to review it, I'll be voting with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in favor of the bill, but I want to express my reservations that this is a surprise to a lot of people that this is coming aboard today for our consideration today. A lot of people thought this bill was dead, people in the community. And if we had had a day's notice as is customary for doing yellow Action Sheets, the community could have given input. Perhaps a lot of other Members of this Body are surprised too.

"And as the previous speaker said, I have not had the chance to review this bill. I haven't looked at it for a long, long time. So if I had had a chance to discern I might vote otherwise. But I am voting in favor. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This bill had a full hearing in CPC. And the amendments that the Senate made were very, very minor and only technical in nature. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with some pretty serious reservations. When we voted on Third Reading in the House, I voted no. I notice that our Republican counterparts in the Senate did not vote no. Because of the short notice we had today, I did put in a call to the Hawaii Medical Association to see how they feel about this and was unable to get in touch with somebody who could give me an answer. So for those reasons, I have strong reservations."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly, when this bill returned back to us on April 11th of this year, I think we've already had six days in which to review it. And as the Chair of CPC has already said, the amendments were technical in nature. And I really sometimes just don't understand why people need to rely on others in order to have an opinion on a bill. When a bill comes back to us, I think it's our job and our duty to read these bills, understand these bills and their substance, and not necessarily rely on interested parties to determine how we should be voting. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just would like to remind the Majority Floor Leader that we had 263 bills come over from the Senate. We also were working on assigning people to Conference Committees. I would really salute whoever read through every single one of those bills that came over from the Senate. I think that's kind of unreasonable.

"We were working to get people on to the Conference Committees. We have disagreed to all the bills that came over. I voted no on this bill twice, but it certainly wasn't one that stood out for me when we were assigning people to the Conference Committees because we looked at people who have served on the subject matter Committees. So still, I think the speeded up time here doesn't serve anyone well. And for those reasons, I have strong reservations."

Representative Halford rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Still in support. In regards to the Majority Floor Leader's remark, I must admit that most of the bills that I vote on, I decide my vote based on input from lots of people and don't just quickly have a decision made up in my mind. So I do collaborate with others, and frankly, on most of these issues that come before us."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In rebuttal to the Majority Floor Leader's comments, that's what our whole process is. Our process is we take these bills, we go into Committee, and we ask for testimony from interested parties. That's what we do, Mr. Speaker. To say that we don't listen to them, or we'd like to check with people to see how they feel with the latest version of the bill, I don't think it would be a good idea to not check with different people or different interested parties. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Still in support, after those three somewhat attacks on my speech, I just wanted to clarify. I never said we don't have to collaborate. I never said that we need not seek input. All I said is people need to study the bills on their own. There's 200 bills, I don't see why people can't read them on their own. And during six days, six days, they can go get those opinions and solicit whatever is necessary. I never said that's not part of the legislative process. We do seek input from the public. That is important and that is crucial, but there is no need for us to delay when we have only 60 legislative days in which to take action. We have a short schedule and we need to move things forward."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to know if he is speaking to the bill."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Thielen, he is responding to the comments made by your colleagues on the other side. So may we proceed on?"

Representative Thielen continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, may I also note my reservations. The concern I have is this is a bill that does relate to healthcare. And it is very important to reach out and, not seek the advice from an attorney, but seek the advice from the medical profession."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Thielen, you are out of order."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Pardon me, I am saying I believe that that is important for us to do when we are considering our final vote on a measure relating to healthcare. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just with reservations and slight rebuttal. Even the most minor of revisions can be important to constituencies and I think that's why we're elected. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Yes, we had 263 bills to look at, and we had I think it was Good Friday or something like that, and Easter Sunday. And we only had what? These crossed over Thursday, and today is the first working day. And just this morning, we find out which bills are going to be heard instead of going to Conference. So I commend my colleague if he sat up all weekend and read all the bills he knew were going to be heard today because we sure didn't, because we weren't notified till this morning."

"I still have reservations with this bill. It allows injections and I think that should be done by a medical doctor or at least a trained nurse. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1155, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATUROPATHY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

The Chair stated:

"Members, let's proceed on. Before we proceed on, Members of this House, there shall not be any further discussion on the procedure or process that is taking place. At this point it's just 'nitpicking' against the Majority and the Minority."

"If you're going to go with reservations, state your reservations. If you're going to vote no on the Senate Draft, vote no on the Senate Draft. But before this Body, you had the opportunity to look at all of these measures. So there shall not be any further debate on the process of 24-hours, 48-hours notice, whatsoever. You had it six days ago and it's your responsibility to digest all of these bills as it comes up."

H.B. No. 1233, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1233, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In opposition, please. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill in particular, I did vote with reservations, I believe before it crossed over to the Senate. Now the Senate has added the amendment that actually put it back to the version before it went to Judiciary, which adds in the language of gender expression."

"Gender expression is really difficult. We may not see how it would affect life as we know it right now, but years down the line I can see people using this new language to allow people who maybe express themselves, who maybe are male, and express themselves to be female, but not knowing what that expression might be, and be able to enter into say like the Hawaiian Water Park's dressing room or showers on the female side."

"Mr. Speaker, I voted for the previous language, but I can't vote for this one. It's very loose. We don't know how to interpret it and I am strongly against this. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, it has been said that living in America is an "advanced citizenship" and that if we truly wish to be free, we must be willing to understand and respect the differences between us and our fellow man, however small or great those differences may be. This measure seeks to ensure nondiscrimination in accommodations for individuals, irrespective of their sexual orientation or "perceived gender."

"Mr. Speaker, I want to clarify that as a legislator, it is not my place to pass judgment on individuals for their personal preference or personal habits. Nevertheless, I believe that this measure might be more effective if it had a provision which specifically amended Section 489-4 to read:

"The provision of separate facilities or schedules for female[and for], male, or transgender persons perceiving themselves to be either female or male patrons does not constitute a discriminatory practice when such separate facilities or schedules for female[and for], male, or transgender persons perceiving themselves to be either female or male patrons are bona fide requirements to protect personal rights of privacy."

"Mr. Speaker, measures such as these must be considered very carefully as they touch upon issues which are often very complex and have implications which may result in significant cost for businesses and could potentially change the structure of our society. As such, I hope that my fellow colleagues will keep this in mind as this measure is sent to the Governor for ratification.

"I thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this opportunity to speak on this measure."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. I do not know what the unintended consequences of this law would be. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition. I just see all kinds of problems related to this bill. I really feel for small businesses that you know have sometimes everybody working close together and you have someone that is expressing themselves in a way that seems contrary to who they are. What would you as the boss do? Someone says that this person comes into the bathroom when they're there, and they are very sure that they are not a woman.

"We pass a law like this, I think that a lot of businesses would be up against it. We're opening it up for suits for all kind of situations. It's not clear as the bill is stated here. And how is the general public going to interpret it. I just don't think this is a good piece of legislation, and it would be nice if some of the other Members who are still on the fence would actually vote no. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just wanted to clarify that in the current laws, Section 489-4, there's already an exemption for facilities like bathrooms and changing rooms to protect personal rights of privacy.

"And I just wanted to let the Members know that this is similar to the law that we passed last year, the Housing Bill. And the Housing Bill also had sexual discrimination, gender identity and expression. And this bill really is trying to codify what the federal courts and State courts have found all along. And they have specifically found that sexual discrimination includes gender identity and expression. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I don't know what the current statutes that the Judiciary Chair is quoting from might mean to a lawyer, but what this bill means to me is when I'm at the beach with my children and I ask the Members to put themselves in the same place. And your child comes screaming out of the shower room and says, 'Daddy, there's a whatever.' If it's a little girl and she says, 'Daddy there's a man in there,' or if it's a little boy and comes out screaming, 'There's a women in there.' What are you going to do? Because I mean, if that's the gender identity of this person, I mean after all they can go anywhere they want. But that doesn't help the children does it? Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1233, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL RIGHTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Kahikina, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Stevens voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1833, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 1833, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREWORKS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1899, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker. I would like to speak in favor of this measure.

"This measure is going to prevent some serious injuries among young moped riders by requiring those under 18 to wear a safety helmet. Mopeds are licensed like bicycles, and we require young bicyclists to wear helmets. The same logic applies to mopeds. I only wish that the title of this bill would allow for mandating the use of helmets for all motorcycle and moped operators. Traumatic head injuries are dramatically reduced by the use of safety helmets, and crashes that would almost certainly be fatalities for operators without helmets become survivable when wearing a helmet.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. This bill requires the use of safety helmets for moped riders under the age of 18 when driving on a highway, street, or any other public property.

"Moped safety is an important issue that deserves more attention from this Legislature. This Session, I introduced measures to address various aspects important to moped safety. We, as a community, need to combat the rise in fatalities related to moped use. Head injuries sustained as a result of moped use inflict a heavy toll on our families and our society, emotionally, medically, and financially, resulting in higher healthcare costs for un-helmeted accident victims, particularly those who suffer traumatic head injuries. Additionally, taxpayer money is used for programs supporting un-helmeted accident survivors, such as the Neurotrauma Special Fund and Advisory Board. The un-helmeted moped riders' irresponsible behavior exhausts taxpayers that already carry the burden of various other expenditures.

"It is important that we protect our children through appropriate moped safety measures and this bill increases the survival rate and reduces the risk of head injuries for moped accident victims. We need to protect our youth by mandating the use of helmets when operating mopeds."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE USE OF SAFETY HELMETS BY MINORS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

At 1:44 o'clock p.m., Representative M. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:45 o'clock p.m.

H.B. No. 1947, S.D. 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 1947, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIABILITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1982, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1982, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative B. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"For twenty-two years now, Hawaii's residents have been proud to call the little, eccentric, pug-nosed fish with the ridiculously long name our State fish. It has proudly represented our great State along with the kukui, our State tree; the yellow hibiscus, our State flower; the nene, our State bird; and the humpback whale, our State mammal. It is only fitting that we allow the humuhumunukunuaopua to take its rightful place as State fish, and allow it the permanence it deserves.

"When Joel and Dane Itomura came to me with the question, 'Why isn't the humumu our State fish anymore?', I thought they were joking. But they weren't, and it was their aspiration to see that their favorite fish be reinstated. These two little boys did their research, wrote testimony, and even came to the Capitol to testify before the Committee on Judiciary. Their resolve and commitment to this piece of legislation has been wonderful, and I hope that my fellow Members of the House of Representatives will join me in supporting this important bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1982, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE FISH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1983, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 1983, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 1984, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1984, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. This bill calls for the expungement of criminal records for those convicted of drug offenses, or at least for the application of expungement. I'm just curious as to why this specific date is chosen. Is there any statute of limitation imposed? Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just wanted to clarify that this bill does not directly expunge records. What this does is it establishes a review committee to look at certain expungement proceedings. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Just briefly, to clarify that the comments made by the Representative from Kapolei relate to HB 2780 and not this bill."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"I stand corrected, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1984, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONVICTION DATA," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2050, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2050, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"This bill will further tighten up the law we passed to protect individuals using the services of an international matchmaking organization. These individuals, almost all of whom are women, deserve to know not only the marital history of the men who are seeking their companionship, but also to be told if these men were previously the subject of domestic abuse orders of protection.

"It does not take very much imagination to understand what could occur if a foreign woman is "matched" with a man who has a history of violence against women. The women should enter into these relationships fully informed to properly weigh the risks involved.

"I also am happy to see the amendment to require the matchmaking organizations to report annually to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. This reporting will, I hope, enable the State to keep an eye on this ethically dubious industry.

"I urge my colleagues to support this Women's Legislative Caucus measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2050, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTERNATIONAL MATCHMAKING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2192, H.D. 2, S.D. 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2192, HD 2, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"This bill will amend Hawaii laws concerning narcotics prescriptions to be consistent with federal law by making several clarifications to Chapter 329. The bill is quite technical in nature, but in essence it will clarify how prescriptions for narcotics must be written by physicians, and how they are transmitted to and filled by pharmacists.

"As it stands now, there are times when verbal instructions are given to pharmacists by state officials after pharmacists raise questions about particular narcotics prescriptions. In our litigious culture, pharmacists are increasingly concerned about liability that could result should the prescription process be abused when a pharmacist was following verbal instructions in good faith. I'm quick to acknowledge the fact that narcotics prescriptions are vulnerable to abuse, so the pharmacists' concerns about properly filling these prescriptions have merit.

"However, it's also important to remember that when there is confusion during the filling of a narcotic prescription and a pharmacist chooses to be cautious that the net result is a patient, who may be in great pain, will be unable to have his or her narcotic prescription filled. This unfilled prescription situation is precisely what the bill before us would seek to remedy.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2192, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2207, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2207, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of House Bill No. 2207, House Draft 1, Senate Draft 1, Relating to Sexual Assault.

"This bill would address the Hawaii Supreme Court decisions in State v. Rabago, 103 Hawaii 236, 81 P.3d 1151 and Taomae v. Lingle, 108 Hawaii 245, 118 P.3d 1188. In State v. Rabago, the Supreme Court invalidated the continuous sexual assault of a minor statute due to the Legislature's lack of authority under the Hawaii Constitution to define it. This measure is in conjunction with Senate Bill 2246 CD1 proposing a constitutional amendment to allow the Legislature to define continuous sexual assault of a minor. Senate Bill 2246 CD1 allows for the Legislature to define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct and what constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction.

"Consequently, the Legislature attempted to address this issue during the session with a constitutional amendment -- later having the amendment struck down as unconstitutional in Taomae v. Lingle. The Taomae decision upends the long-standing legislative practice of amending bills to address emergency situations or new issues that occur while the Legislature is in session. Since the Legislature only has 60-days in session to conduct business, it needs flexibility to address public concerns as they arise. While Taomae struck down a constitutional amendment, the Legislature believes the decision only applies to constitutional amendments and not to all bills that are amended during the legislative process.

"The Hawaii Supreme Court is the final arbiter of the Constitution and Hawaii's laws. In an effort to comply with their recent decisions, the House proposed House Bill 2207 to define continuous sexual assault of a minor according to the Constitution. The Legislature believes that the people of Hawaii value the protection of our keiki and want to increase penalties for those who perpetrate crimes against them.

"For these reasons, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

H.B. No. 2454, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please enter my no. I have some comments that I'd like to make for those that are intending to vote with the Majority. I'd like to just give you some numbers and some thoughts to think about.

"I think I asked this question in the past: Why now? Why now do we need to statutorily establish some process for appointments? And as I look at this bill, it's even worse than it started off with. Now we're inserting our legislative selves not only into unions, but we're inserting our legislative selves into party politics. And we're by statute, saying that you must be a member of a party for six months before you can even become eligible for an appointment for a replacement. Why are we so fearful of replacements or appointments?

"I'm sure I can get into some of the reason why that is. But in looking at this bill which came over from the Senate, it barely made it through the Senate's Judiciary Committee, so I must commend them at least I think they may have the intelligence to see that this bill is thwart with problems.

"Let me give you some numbers. We have by I think at last count, 650,000 registered voters in the State. We have perhaps maybe, if the Majority party, which is our Democratic Party is actually doing their job, we should be at about 30,000 Democrats in this State. We have some maybe 2,000 at the most showing up for our annual convention to elect the Party Chair, which I'm going to have the absolute joy of being there this year. And I think maybe we might get some new leadership at the Majority Party. But let's take it one step further.

"In my case for instance in my district, I have 350 registered Democrats in my district. That is not a really big pot to pick from. Of the 350, the last go around they came up with three appointments and I couldn't even get an interview, because these were made in secret behind closed doors. They were voted on, names sent up to the Governor in secret. Not voted on. I asked for the records. No secretary, no records. They're even more secret than some of the secrets I see happening in this Chamber. Now we're going to legislate an even more secret thing. You have to be a member for six months.

"So if anybody thinks that they're going to resign and they want to be able to hand select their choice, all they have to do is get somebody registered in a party six months ahead of time and quietly resign, or quietly get invited, or quietly leave and guess what we have? We have a party that gets to select a replacement. In my instance out of 350 registered Democrats.

"This is almost as bad as unionization through legislation. This is replacement through legislation. This is shameful. This is shameful. This Legislature, this Chamber will be embarrassed over and over and over again in the papers, in the business magazines on the streets. It's an embarrassment. People ask me, 'Why do you want to be there?' It's an embarrassment. It is an embarrassment, Mr. Speaker. And I hope all of those that are embarrassed, will have the guts for the first time in your life, fill out a green slip because this is not right. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be in opposition. Mr. Speaker, replacing elected officials is important. It's important to our people. It's important to our community. This bill, Mr. Speaker, puts Party before people. Puts Party before the State of Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, this is asking that just a few people who are not elected, well maybe elected among the chosen few of the particular Party, who are essentially making the ultimate selection, who are certainly limiting the field to their own particular choices. These are not people that are elected at large, that the community has sanctioned.

"In fact, I would say that most people in Hawaii are not enamored with Parties. That generally distrust political Parties and this is kind of bill will lead them to distrust Parties even more. The bottomline Mr. Speaker, is that this bill ennobles Parties. It does not ennoble people. And it does not ennoble our communities of the State of Hawaii, so I'm voting no."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Halford be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 3018, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell's written remarks are as follows:

"I support H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, which seeks to:

- (1) Clarify that employer contributions and Hawaii Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund (EUTF) assets are irrevocable and may be used only for the benefit of employee-beneficiaries and dependent-beneficiaries; and
- (2) Authorize the EUTF board of trustees to use funds and create separate funds as a reserve against or to pay future costs of providing health and other benefits to retired employees and their beneficiaries.

Also, I wish to make clear that this measure has met all of the constitutional requirements concerning the passage of legislation.

"Senate Standing Committee Report No. 3400 (S.S.C.R. No. 3400) cites Taomae v. Lingle, 108 Hawaii 245 (2005), in claiming that H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 must receive three additional readings by the House of Representatives in conformance with Article III, Section 15, of the Hawaii State Constitution before it can pass the Legislature. However, Taomae pertains only to the passage of constitutional amendments contained in bills that did not indicate in their titles that a constitutional amendment was being proposed. H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, amends an ordinary statute. Taomae has no bearing on this bill.

"In addition, H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, meets the standards regarding bill titles crafted by the Hawaii Supreme Court in Schwab v. Ariyoshi, 58 Haw. 25 (1977), and changes made to the substance of H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 through the legislative process continue to remain true to the subject expressed in its title, "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES."

"The Senate did not attempt to give three additional readings to H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, after substantive changes were made to the bill. After H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, passed First Reading in the Senate on March 9, 2006, its substance was deleted and new contents were inserted by the Committee on Labor on March 15, 2006. The Committee on Labor recommended passage of H.B. No. 3018, S.D. 1, on Second Reading and referral to a subsequent Senate committee on March 17, 2006. The Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Ways and Means jointly passed H.B. No. 3018, S.D. 1, unamended on April 4, 2006, and recommended passage on Third Reading--not passage on Second Reading. The full Senate voted on April 11, 2006, to pass H.B. No. 3018, S.D. 1, on Third Reading.

"Because the Committee on Labor so drastically amended H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1 under the reasoning expressed in S.S.C.R. No. 3400, the bill would need to have passed additional readings in the Senate before it could properly be considered to have received the requisite three readings. (Article III, Section 15, of the Hawaii State Constitution requires a bill to receive three readings in one chamber before being transmitted to the other chamber.)

"However, not one senator voted in opposition to the bill on Third Reading. It is puzzling that S.S.C.R. No. 3400 asserts that the House of Representatives must give three additional readings to a bill if it is substantially amended, while the Body of the Senate did not require such a procedure in the Senate.

"Given the history of H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, in the Senate and its treatment by the Members of that Chamber, the Senate itself has rejected the line of reasoning in S.S.C.R. No. 3400. The House of Representatives similarly rejects such flawed thinking."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 3018, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Third Legislature was called to order pursuant to Concurrent Resolution at 10:04 o'clock a.m. by the Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives addressed the Members and audience, stating:

"This is indeed a momentous occasion. A first of its kind called to honor members of the Hawaii National Guard, the United States Military Reserves and members of the Regular Armed Forces of the United States with ties to Hawaii, who fought and died bravely, in a combat zone designated by Presidential Order.

"On behalf of the Senate President and all of the Members of the Hawaii State Legislature, I convey our deepest condolences to our very special guests – the family, friends and colleagues of loved ones, who have lost their lives overseas in the Middle East. Our prayers are with you, and we are honored by your presence."

The Members of the House of the Hawaii State Legislature, guests, and audience rose for the presentation of our Nation's and our State's Colors by the Joint Services Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard Royal Guard. The singing of the National Anthem and Hawaii Pono'i was led by Ms. Traci Toguchi, followed by a pule and invocation delivered by Mr. Ray Ganotise.

At this time, House Speaker Say delivered the following remarks:

"Mahalo, Joint Services Color Guard, Royal Guard, Ms. Traci Toguchi, and Mr. Ray Ganotise. Your participation in today's ceremony is greatly appreciated. You may all be seated at this time.

"Today is a day where we have put aside our political and philosophical differences, to come together as one Body to honor these brave men and women. Our Nation – the whole world – has been wounded deeply by the destruction caused by the enemies of peace, freedom and human rights. As Americans, we are a strong people. United in our resolve. Respectful of our differences. Taking strength from our diversity and richness of our cultures.

"As Americans, we will not allow our resolve to waiver in the wake of the loss of our loved ones. Although their premature demise is very painful, and at times almost incomprehensible, take comfort in knowing that our Hawaii warriors were well-trained, and battle ready. They understood the risks. And yet, they proudly wore their battle fatigues, and carried our Nation's flag, and courageously departed and set their course into a hell called war.

"While I did not personally know any of the warriors being honored today – as a father of two young men – if I were seated in this Chamber among you, instead of standing here on this podium, I know my sadness would be tempered by pride. I would be proud to the core of my soul, that my loved one sacrificed his life or her life to allow the rest of us surviving – to live in a democracy, unfettered by fear.

"In the end, what matters most, is that each fallen warrior made a difference. They gave us the greatest gift of all – freedom. Freedom to enjoy everyday pleasures. Watching the sunset. Listening to the familiar ebb and flow of the ocean. Smelling the plumeria blossoms in full bloom. And knowing that tomorrow will be yet another beautiful day in paradise."

At this time, the Speaker of the House introduced the following dignitaries seated on the floor of the House:

The Honorable Linda Lingle, Governor of the State of Hawaii;

The Honorable James R. Aiona, Jr., Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawaii;

The Honorable Daniel K. Akaka, United States Senator;

The Honorable Ed Case, United States House of Representatives;

Admiral Gary Roughead and Mrs. Ellen Roughead, United States Pacific Fleet;

Lieutenant General Daniel P. Leaf, United States Pacific Command;

Lieutenant General John M. Brown and Mrs. Elaine Brown, United States Army Pacific;

Lieutenant General John Goodman and Mrs. Gayle Goodman, United States Marine Corps, Pacific Forces; and

Major General Robert G.F. Lee, Hawaii State Department of Defense.

The Speaker of the House then directed the Clerk of the House to note the receipt of a correspondence from Hawaii Senator Daniel K. Inouye noting: "Uncommon courage. Devotion to duty. Love of our country. And the ultimate sacrifice of the 120 Hawaii Medal of Honor recipients."

Hawaii Medal of Honor Ceremony
Special Joint Session of the Hawaii State Legislature
Hawaii State Capitol - House Chamber
Honolulu, Hawaii

Dear Friends:

Uncommon courage. Devotion to duty. Love of our country. The ultimate sacrifice. These qualities define the special men and women we honor today as the first recipients of the Hawaii Medal of Honor.

They served our nation with distinction, believed in our country's democratic ideals, and upheld the highest standards of the U.S. military. Their unwavering service to our beloved country during Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom will not be forgotten.

While my schedule has taken me away from Hawaii and prevented me from joining you today, please know that I am here in spirit. I share with the families of the 120 medal recipients their pride in knowing that their loved ones embodied the best qualities of the United States of America. On behalf of a grateful nation, we salute and honor them. I wish you Godspeed and, God Bless America.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator

At this time, House Speaker Say called upon the Honorable Linda Lingle, Governor of the State of Hawaii, to deliver her remarks.

The Governor then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Members of the Legislature, General Lee, families of our heroes, veterans, members of the armed services. It is for a very sad but noble purpose that we're gathered here today. I want to thank all those in the Legislature who took the time to plan, to carry out this event. It's an appropriate event for Hawaii because it doesn't just recognize those who were born and raised in Hawaii, or those who grew up here, or those who went to school here, but everyone who was touched, and who touched Hawaii. Those who were stationed here from all parts of the country. All are included today in our ohana and it's important to pause today to remember all of them.

"I didn't know any of the heroes personally, but I have come to know many of the families by attending various funerals and services throughout this war on terror. I remember sitting with a mother of a young soldier, a soldier who had been so close to her church that she left her life insurance policy to the church, a young woman who wanted to become a nun. She had come here from the Philippines as a youngster, and had gone to high school here.

"I remember sitting with the wives of the Marines. One Navy man who was shot down in Afghanistan, and I sat with them and with their infant children in a small, modest military housing. And I watched them deal with their lives, with their children, who would never know their fathers, and I hoped that the children would one day appreciate the sacrifice that their father had made, and that their mother made for our country.

"And I especially remember sitting with the family of one of our National Guardsman from Hawaii. I was sitting in their modest home and listening to them talk about their beloved son. Not only the parents, but his brother and his grandparents, who had raised him from a small boy. He was the apple of their eye.

"It's not an easy thing to sacrifice the way you have for our country. So we pause today to spend a few minutes to let you know how appreciative we are, although we can never, never take away the pain that you feel. In our small way we want you to know that we will always remember your loved one as a member of the ohana here in Hawaii.

"And I remember a day, General Goodman, when we were out in Kaneohe. And I'm not certain you remember our conversation, but it stuck with me since that day and I carry it with me today as an embodiment of what we were talking about.

"It was another funeral, another memorial service. There were four Marine families there that day from all parts of America, who had come to Kaneohe to participate in a memorial service. Although I didn't know any of the Marines, they didn't go to school here, they didn't grow up here. But I wanted their parents to know, how much the people of Hawaii appreciated their sacrifice on our behalf so we can gather in freedom the way we are today.

"And one of the speakers that day, he was so eloquent. I don't remember if he was a Colonel or what this rank was exactly, but his remarks touched me so deeply that I went up to General Goodman afterwards and I commented to him about how touching and poignant the remarks were. And General Goodman said to me that day, you know after Vietnam, of which he is a veteran. He said, 'In Vietnam, we went over as bunch of individuals. We came home as a bunch of individuals.' And we all know those of us of a certain age, know how they were greeted when they came home, and most of us are ashamed by it today. But General Goodman said to me that day, that after Vietnam, he said, 'We promised ourselves that we would never again let that happen in America. That we would go together. We would come home together. And we would honor everyone who sacrificed for our country, for our freedom, for our way of life.'

"And today is an embodiment of that idea. That they weren't a bunch of individuals. They were great Americans, who were part of our ohana, here in Hawaii. We honor them. We thank the families for their sacrifice knowing there's nothing we can do that's going to take away the pain and the emptiness that you feel. But we still want to make this attempt to let you know, how deeply we appreciate what your son, your daughter, your husband, your aunt, your uncle. We want you to know, we appreciate what they did for us as Americans, so that our way of life could continue."

House Speaker Say thanked Governor Lingle, and then called upon Major General Robert Lee to deliver his remarks.

Major General Lee then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"Good morning and Aloha. We are a nation blessed with the finest military in all of human history. And we have been blessed by great minds with great strength and determination that enables the United States of America to be the world's leader and liberator of oppressed people.

"To become the world's finest military, we have trained our forces better and harder than any other nation, and our forces are better equipped than any other nation. We are faced with difficult and challenging training. Long separations from our families and loved ones. And we are challenged with great responsibilities and commitment but in our profession of arms, there is nothing more difficult than losing one of our own.

"However that degree of difficulty cannot be compared to the anguish suffered by family members who lose a loved one on the field of battle, and this time in Afghanistan and Iraq. We can only imagine the pain of losing a son or daughter, husband or wife, father or mother, while they served our nation in harm's way. This pain can be only lessen over time, if at all. We cannot truly feel their pain, nor can we in any way make up for that loss.

"As President Ronald Regan so eloquently stated, 'Our young friends, in our hearts you'll always be young. Full of the love that is youth, love of life, love of joy, love of country. You fought for your country, for its safety, and for the freedom of others with strength and courage. We honor you today.'

"The State Medal of Honor is Hawaii's way in which we can remember that ultimate sacrifice to show our appreciation to the families, and to assure them, that they will always be part of this State's ohana.

"A circle of kalo or taro leaves is part of the Hawaii Medal of Honor. The word ohana is derived from kalo, and the circle is emblematic of the embrace of the people of Hawaii. Whether a fallen Soldier, Sailor or Marine, grew up in Hawaii or were members of units based in Hawaii, he is still remember and will always be a part of our ohana.

"The star and the coat of arms of the Medal represents the 50th State's star on American flag, and also represents today, the person who is being honored. But the star also evokes a symbol of America's past. In World Wars I and II, families that had a member of the Armed Forces would display a blue star on a banner or a flag. If a service member from that family was killed in action, a gold star was often displayed in a window facing the street to let the neighborhood know that the life of a hero who had grown up there had been taken. Today this Medal is a token of gratitude from the State of Hawaii, proclaiming to all that this is a family of a fallen hero.

"There's no greater sacrifice a family can make than the loss of their Soldier, Sailor, Airmen, or Marine while in service to our nation. And there is no greater honor, which we the people of Hawaii can bestow upon that family to symbolize this sacrifice.

"There is an attachment device at the middle of the red and yellow ribbon and it is a rendering of the ancient puela or flag. This ancient flag was raised at sea above the Hawaiian sailing canoes and all who saw the puela from afar, knew that a person of the highest rank or honor was coming. Today this service ribbon and its attachment will remind us that these families or of the highest rank and honor.

"To paraphrase President Abraham Lincoln at Gettysburg, when brave Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines die, it is their deeds not our words, that are remembered. It is their sacrifice that offers everlasting testimony to a love for others, and their love for us.

"To the families of our fallen heroes, I humbly ask that you accept this Hawaii Medal of Honor on behalf of the people of Hawaii who today, and forever, shall be your devoted ohana. May God bless all of you, and may God continue to bless the United States of America."

At this time, the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate presented the Hawaii Medal of Honor. Governor Lingle and Major General Lee expressed condolences on behalf of the people of Hawaii to the representatives receiving the Hawaii Medal of Honor.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives announced the names of the Hawaii Medal of Honor recipients, which was followed by the ringing of the memorial bell.

Senate President Bunda then delivered closing remarks as follows:

"As a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and Hawaii Army National Guard, I am proud to be a part of this ceremony in honor of our fallen comrades, our heroes.

"I am proud and humbled by the enormity of their sacrifice.

"Yes, we honor 120 today. But each soldier leaves behind a wide circle of family and friends who sacrificed a part of themselves as well.

"We honor and thank those countless individuals who not only lost their loved ones, but who also surrendered special dreams and hopes for the future.

"A grateful State and nation best honors and remembers the sacrifices of these soldiers by living our lives in deepest appreciation of our freedom. That is what they defended. That is what they fought and died for.

"Today, we remember, in moments of quiet reflection, each and every one of these heroes. We have joined together to honor their memory and express our profound gratitude for their ultimate sacrifice.

"Mahalo."

Senate President Bunda then called on the Joint Services Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard Royal Guard for the retiring of the Colors, and at 11:17 o'clock a.m., declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate adjourned.

SYMBOLISM OF THE HAWAII MEDAL OF HONOR

The Hawaii Medal of Honor was designed by Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick from the Hawaii Army National Guard. This medal consists of the following six components, superimposed on each other:

Circle of Kalo Leaves: The kalo leaves represent the family or Ohana. The leaves are designed in an encircled fashion and represents the concept of Ohana, which we strive to embrace.

Coat of Arms: The Great Shield is the keystone of the design. The eight bars represent the eight major islands of the State of Hawaii. The kapu sticks, or Pulo'ulo'u, symbolize authority and protection. The star in the center of the medallion is the Star of Hawaii, the 50th star on the flag of the United States. This star also represents the honorees of this prestigious award.

Maltese Cross: The Maltese Cross represents the four directional axes of the globe, denoting Hawaii as the Crossroads of the Pacific.

Sun Rays: The irradiant sun is symbolic of the new era. Its position in the center of the Maltese Cross represents our sunny shores and warm hearts ever shining on all the corners of the world.

The Neck Drape: The neck drape is red and golden yellow in color. These colors symbolize the royal monarchy that once ruled these islands. The red represents courage and strength. The golden yellow depicts the honor that the recipients have brought to our islands.

Service Ribbon & Attachment: The service ribbon represents distinguished service. Its colors are identical to the colors of the neck drape. The attachment device at the middle of the ribbon is an ancient flag or puela of Hawaiian Chiefs. In olden times, the puela was raised above the sail of the ancient Hawaiians' canoes while at sea. Our puela signifies that the person receiving this medal is of high rank or honor.

Representative Wakai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to acknowledge the wonderful work by Representative Takai at yesterday's ceremony, assisted by Pat Mau-Shimizu's office as well as Kevin Kuroda's staff. I think all of us were touched by what transpired here on this Floor yesterday. And I know it was a heck of a lot of work to be put together and spearheaded by Representative Takai. And I think yesterday was a wonderful opportunity for us to show the community that there's a lot of good work that goes on here. And I think all of us were proud to be an American yesterday. And I wanted to acknowledge all the good work by Mark Takai's staff as well as the rest of the staff here at the House.

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Yesterday this Chamber looked very different than it does today. And I think Mr. Speaker, when you take a look back at our conversation, it was probably December of 2004, when we just started talking about this Hawaii Medal of Honor. I don't think you, who really needs to be given the credit for coming up with the idea, you, nor I, nor anyone else close to us during the early discussions, ever realized the magnitude of what yesterday's ceremony was going to be.

"Having said all of that, as we all know, and I appreciate the recognition and the comments by the Representative from Moanalua, having said all of that, a thing like yesterday doesn't go on just with one or two people. In fact, yesterday's ceremony was the culmination of many, many months of hard work by many individuals. Although, we recognized a few of them on the acknowledgements on the back of the program Mr. Speaker, with your indulgence and permission, I'd like to go through some of them today.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to first thank all of our staff here. Chief Clerk, Pat Mau-Shimizu and her staff; Kevin Kuroda, House Sergeant-of-Arms, and his staff; Linda Oamilda, House Majority Staff Office, and her staff; Georgette Deemer, our Communications Director; and David Wilson and Lea Okudara from McNeil Wilson Communications and their staff. We did get a lot of support and assistance from the military. And I would like to recognize Dennis Fujii from the US Pacific Command, and Leighton Siu from the Governor's office, who helped us with protocol.

"I also wanted to mention four individuals who helped us very early on in identifying the people that we recognized yesterday. From the Army, we had Mr. Mark Van Doorne. From the Navy, we had Chief Jonathan Weiss. From the Marines, we had 1st Lieutenant Jon Mohler, who unfortunately is currently deployed and replacing him, we continued our work with the Marines with Captain Mark Nicholson.

"In addition Mr. Speaker, as all of you noticed, the Medal itself was beautiful and I wanted to acknowledge Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick once again, who came up with the initial design. But with that, a lot of other people participated, namely Bobby Chi from the Honolulu Mint who created the final Medal, minted the Medal. We had Kent Untermann and Valerie Wang from Pictures Plus who framed it, Rose Lee from Rose Lee's Alternations who helped us sew the ribbons. And Ty and Cindy Tamanaha from Awardline who helped us with the plaques.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, we all knew this was going to turn into a much bigger event after we started receiving RSVPs from many people from very far away. And because of that we worked very closely with the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites, the Bowfin, the Missouri, and the Arizona. And they came through with support for the families. The Hale Koa Hotel came through, the Polynesian Cultural Center came through, and we worked specifically with the Hawaii Restaurant Association, the Hawaii Tourism Authority, and the Hawaii Hotel Association. All of these organizations and entities helped us as we helped the families make this a special visit to Hawaii.

"Many people yesterday were asking about the 'Olelo Broadcast and I wanted to make mention once again, Mr. Speaker, that Capitol TV will be graciously donating a DVD for each family, both present and not present of yesterday's ceremony.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, I wanted to recognize the Planning Committee. Many people in this Chamber, as well as the other, and a few other individuals really put in the hard work over the past year to make yesterday's events a reality. Senate President Bobby Bunda, you Mr. Speaker, Senator Norman Sakamoto, Representative Ken Ito, and Representative Pono Chong. All helped from our side to make yesterday's event a reality. In addition, we got support from Major General Robert Lee, Brigadier General Gary Ishikawa, and Colonel Retired Emerick Kaneshi.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, we all know as Representatives that much of our success and the things that we do in this Chamber, as well as in our communities, are the direct results of our staff. And I wanted to at this time, acknowledge the staff people who made this all possible. From Representative Pono Chong's office, Janis Higaki and his other staff. From Representative Ito's office, Carole Furuya and his other staff. From Senator Sakamoto's office, Cherry Torres and his other staff. From Senate President's office, George White and his other staff. And from my staff in particular and I have them here today, I wanted to recognize Kendall Matsuyoshi, Victoria Hallett and Sara Hoffman.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, I saved her for last because she really did a lot of work and without her we would not have had yesterday. Lisa Vargas, our office manager did the due diligence, and covered all of our bases and contacted all of the service members who are deserving of this award. And remember now, this award recognized anyone with Hawaii ties, 120 of them up until February 28th. I think we got them all. So I wanted this Body at this time to recognize my legislative staff and in particular, Lisa Vargas who made life much easier yesterday. Can they rise and can we recognize them? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 262) was announced by the Clerk and was received for possible consideration at a later date:

Gov. Msg. No. 262, transmitting S.B. No. 3008, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 19, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 3008

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 3008, entitled, "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Work Projects."

This bill is objectionable because it would require the State to cite a contractor for each individual construction project for which work is performed, no matter how minor the infraction and whether the violation was committed knowingly or not. If violations were discovered in one investigation involving multiple construction projects, the contractor would receive multiple citations.

Upon the receipt of a third violation, a contractor would be precluded from performing any new public work construction for a three-year period. Considering the complexity of the law and the difficulties it poses for a contractor to successfully navigate, this result is too harsh. This rigid violation structure fails to take into account the severity of the violations found and the willfulness of the contractor in committing the violation.

The mandatory, progressive penalty structure in current law allows firms to correct errors as soon as they are identified and ensures that the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is able to work with affected contractors to provide fair wages pursuant to the wage schedules, benefit formula and applicable overtime rules in place.

The changing of the manner of issuing violations from one based on investigations to one based on projects will likely result in potential litigation. Further, the number of firms bidding on and accepting State and county projects is likely to diminish if the rigid penalty structure imposed by this bill is enacted.

Diminishing the number of firms that can bid on State and county projects, and passing measures that further discourage qualified firms from bidding, will inevitably result in higher costs for public works projects. This will adversely impact the State's ability to fund and execute construction and repair of schools, highways, parks, harbors, and the entire spectrum of public facilities operated by the State of Hawaii. It will also negatively impact the ability of the counties to repair and rebuild our sewer systems, upgrade wastewater treatment plants, expand police and fire facilities and similar local government structures.

To avoid the adverse effects on government contracting and critical public works projects that would likely occur, the finding of a violation should continue to be based on the investigation conducted rather than on individual projects as contemplated by this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 3008 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

Representatives Sonson and Arakaki, for the Committee on Human Services and the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1806-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 108, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 108, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING CONGRESS TO EXAMINE THE PUBLIC POLICY UNDERLYING THE RECOVERY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Saiki, Stevens and Thielen being excused.

Representative Sonson, for the Committee on Human Services presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1807-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 2, SD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 2, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES TO CONDUCT A STUDY AND PROVIDE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ADDRESSING THE SHORTAGE OF INFANT AND TODDLER CHILD CARE PROVIDERS, FACILITIES, AND SERVICES IN THE STATE," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Saiki, Stevens and Thielen being excused.

Representative Sonson, for the Committee on Human Services presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1808-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 6, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 6, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. This Resolution calls for us to urge President Bush and the United States Congress to not privatize Social Security.

"And the reason I'm in opposition is that if the only way to save Social Security is to privatize it, then I'm all for saving Social Security, so I have to oppose this measure. Thank you."

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. This Resolution urges President Bush and the U.S. Congress to not privatize Social Security.

"Our Social Security System urgently requires reform, as our ability to support future generations is impacted by our growing population and their retirement needs. Converting even partially to a system of private accounts will give retirees the chance to substantially increase their savings, boost their sense of family and personal responsibility for their own economic well-being and allow savings to be passed on to next of kin in the event of a retiree's untimely death. Additionally, privatized Social Security will stimulate the economy, as retirees choose to invest their money in a variety of financial instruments."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to that same measure. I would ask that the words of the Representative from Makakilo be put in the Journal as if they were my own.

"I just can't understand why there is so much opposition to the idea of privatizing. Employees pay 50% of the FICA tax and the employer pays 50%. If you were taking that money and putting it in some kind of security that you have some control over, if you were to die at least your family would get something. Not just a death benefit.

"I just can't understand the fear people have. To me, it's a far better thing if you have some control over some of that money. There is a real fear on the part of younger Americans that they may never get any of their Social Security. And you don't know what to believe in the papers because some people say, 'There's no problem.' Others say, 'It'll be insolvent through 2015, 2020.'

"We need to do something. The whole idea of privatizing, it's not the entire thing. It'll be portion of it. Those are the details that could be worked out. And I think for me personally, I want Congress and the President to continue looking at this model. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with words of support for this Resolution. I thought we had finished with this issue last year, Mr. Speaker. And then I thought, perhaps both sides of the aisle are in agreement, that privatization of Social Security is not the best way to go.

"It surely has been beaten down by the roar of public opposition across our country, as we've read in newspapers and seen on TV news, journals. It's pretty clear that there no longer is support for privatization of Social Security. Even our own President, Mr. Speaker, has stopped talking about it, as has Congress. So to hear people on the other side of the aisle to get up and repeat arguments, that not even their own President is supporting anymore, is kind of surprising. Last year Mr. Speaker, I quoted ..."

Representative Moses rose, stating:

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege. Did I understand that the Representative across the aisle is saying that the President is not his President? That's the way I took that."

Speaker Say: "No, he did not say that. Please proceed, Representative Caldwell."

Representative Moses: "I think he's our President. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to quote from one of our other Presidents, my President, your President, and everyone's President, and that's Franklin Roosevelt. He stated, Mr. Speaker, when he started Social Security back in the 30s: 'This law, too, represents a cornerstone in a structure which is being built, but is by no means complete. It is a structure intended to lessen the forces of possible future depressions. It will act as a protection to future Administrations against the necessity of going deeply into debt to furnish relief to the needy. The law will flatten out the peaks and valleys of deflation and of inflation. It is, in short, a law that will take care of the human needs, and at the same time provide the United States an economic structure of vastly greater soundness.'

"Mr. Speaker, I quote this because it still rings true today. It is probably the foundation of so much good in our country. And it remains a cornerstone that has taken of the human needs of our senior citizens in their golden years.

"The contention somehow being made by some people, usually the Neo-Conservatives, that the Social Security Trust Fund is a myth, is something that shouldn't even be repeated again today, in my mind.

"As we discussed previously Mr. Speaker, Social Security is protected by treasury bonds of a special type. They're actually stored in a vault, they're not traded on the open market like regular treasury bonds. And their value remains strong and backed by the United States of America, the strongest economy in the world, Mr. Speaker.

"Mr. Speaker, even President Bush, my President, your President, and everyone else's President, has now admitted that this is not a problem that privatization can solve. In fact, what isn't a myth, Mr. Speaker, is our ballooning Federal deficit and the payment of the Iraq War, which is we've just read recently in yesterday's paper has ballooned to over $100 billion a year now, Mr. Speaker. More than what the entire Marshall Plan cost, to save Western Europe from Communism.

"So Mr. Speaker, I think we should focus more on our President's tax cuts to the rich, and less on Social Security. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I think from the argument that was made just now, that this is not an issue that we should be doing a Resolution on in the first place. It wasn't an issue. I guess the President and Congress are not talking about it so why do we need to do a Resolution, Mr. Speaker?

"And then let's go ahead and talk about tax policy and other things that might be more pertinent to the discussion of this day. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak in favor of this Resolution. And I believe Mr. Speaker and Members, the bigger issue of Social Security is the tremendous debt that the United States is incurring and the continual raiding of Social Security funds. If anything is going to bankrupt Social Security, it's the government raiding Social Security funds to help to pay the debt. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Despite what previous speakers have said, the Social Security will be paying out more money than it is taking in, in about ten years or so. There must be some remedy to this. So I will support looking at privatization as a solution. Maybe a partial solution. I have not heard of any other ideas to help the fund except for raising the taxes on the fund. So I think we should be concerned about a solution because more and more retirees will be supported by fewer and fewer workers. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just wanted to note my reservations to this measure. The speaker from Manoa convinced that this measure is not needed. And since the speaker of Manoa was talking about tax cuts for the rich, it's my hope then that this Legislature that can act on tax cuts for the poor, will do so this year because we do tax the poor higher than any other state in the nation. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I enjoy getting my check every month."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to clarify that if I were to walk into the Chamber, and still in opposition, and hear certain statements made, I would infer that certain people are not in support of Social Security. And I would love to know who's not in support of Social Security. And I can vouch for myself fully in support. What this measure is about is ways to help or to look at different options to improve it.

"And also to refute a second point, is that it's my understanding, although I'm not, maybe been around so, so long, but I've been here long enough before the Iraq War started, that there was much concern over the situation with Social Security and the fact that it looked like it was a dire situation of not being continued. So the fact that, the point made that the Iraq War has caused this situation, I think is fallacious.

"So I just wanted to clarify that I don't think anyone in this Chamber, I would love to know who is not in support of Social Security."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Still in support of Social Security and am opposed to this measure. Mr. Speaker, we heard talk about Gross National Product and that's not what we're talking about here. Really, it's Social Security, but just for the Member's edification, the Gross National Product, I'm sorry the percent of our debt. Our debt is a lower percentage of our Gross National Product than it's ever been. So you might talk about the growing debt, but you have to look at what we're bringing in as a country and the ratio is going way, way down. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, rebuttal please. Mr. Speaker, I may favor privatization if they would provide the money to Halliburton. As the war continues, Halliburton gets richer all the time. So that might be a way of us getting some money and some good return on our Social Security. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you. Again, still in opposition to this Resolution. The language in this Resolution is just skewed. About the fourth or fifth Whereas: Whereas opponents of Social Security. People who are looking at ways of solving the problems we have with Social Security are not opponents of Social Security. They are realists. They are people looking at a real problem that is down the road.

"Just because one Party doesn't want to even look at it or touch it, doesn't mean that ... I mean, it just means that just think it's too sacred. You can't do anything. Congress has over the years, in trying to address the problem with Social Security, which listening to the conversation in this Chamber, you might think there was no problem. They have lengthened the age before you can file for Social Security. This has all been done in recognition that we are going to have a problem.

"We have this huge number of 'baby boomers' that are going to be retiring in droves and we're going to have a problem funding it. But because somebody is looking at the problem and thinks that we need to find some solutions, doesn't make them opponents of the Social Security Fund. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 6, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING PRESIDENT BUSH AND THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO NOT PRIVATIZE SOCIAL SECURITY," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses and Stonebraker voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Saiki, Stevens and Thielen being excused.

No. 204, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING MARCH AS CAREGIVERS' MONTH IN HAWAII," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Saiki, Stevens and Thielen being excused.

Representatives Souki and Caldwell, for the Committee on Transportation and the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1812-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 47, be adopted.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Chair then announced:

"Members, please note the 48-hour notice for Conference Committee Report No. 4-06, as listed on page 4."

Representative B. Oshiro, for the Committee on Conference on the disagreeing vote of the Senate to the amendments proposed by the House in S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1, presented a report (Conf. Com. Rep. No. 4-06) recommending that S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in CD 1, pass Final Reading.

In accordance with Article III, Section 15, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, action on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 4-06 and S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WRIT OF CERTIORARI," was deferred for a period of 48 hours.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION

The following resolution (H.R. No. 283) was placed on the members' desk and referred:

H.R. No. 283, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION AMENDING THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES TO REQUIRE THAT ALL BILLS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR FINAL READING BE LISTED ON THE ORDER OF THE DAY AT LEAST TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN ADVANCE OF FINAL READING," was offered by Representative Harbin.

Representative Harbin rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, before I go into announcements, I'd like to once again return us to the order of business. Rule 30, Order of Business says that after the fourth order, the House may specify that special orders be taken up. I hereby request that House Resolution No. 238 be set for rule change debate in 24 hours. That would be tomorrow."

The Chair then stated:

"At this point, the Chair would like to note to all of you, that the Chair has made a decision as far as referring to the Committee on Legislative Management/Judiciary. That is the legislative process that we have here in this House and this Chamber. And that is the process that you would have to consider, Representative Harbin."

Representative Harbin responded, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for that ruling and obviously I'm not content with that ruling because I feel it's contrary to Rule 57. So therefore pursuant to Section 230 of the Mason's rules of procedure, I would like to appeal your ruling to the Members. Thank you."

At this time, Representative Harbin moved to appeal the decision of the Chair in referring H.R. No. 283 jointly to the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Point of order, I believe that there is no appeal to be made because the Chair has not made a decision on a matter before this Body. So it's an inappropriate motion and she's out of order, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin responded, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe my motion is on the Floor waiting for a second. And I believe that the prior motion is out of order. So if I could have a second on my motion to appeal please. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan then seconded the motion.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, the motion to appeal the decision of the Chair in referring H.R. No. 283, entitled: "AMENDING THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES TO REQUIRE THAT ALL BILLS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR FINAL READING BE LISTED ON THE ORDER OF THE DAY AT LEAST TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN ADVANCE OF FINAL READING," jointly to the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary, was defeated. (Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Saiki, Stevens and Stonebraker were excused.)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Harbin: "I have an announcement. Thank you. I would like to announce that there was a news release and I'm not too sure everyone in this Body has been aware of it. That HCDA is seeking input on the historic Ala Moana Pump Station Policy Study. I do believe that in this particular website and this particular news release, they are discussing placing low rise and possibly medium rise residences at the historic Pump location behind the building.

"So I got the information, if anybody would like to come to my office. I can give you the website because they're planning to make a decision on high rise, low rise, medium rise residences on makai side behind the historic Pump. So I just wanted to give my colleagues notice. Thank you."

Representative Arakaki, for the Committee on Health, requested a waiver of the 48-hour advance notice requirement to hear S.C.R. No. 70, with a proposed HD 1; S.C.R. No. 72, with a proposed HD 1; and S.C.R. No. 76, tomorrow at 8:45 a.m. in Conference Room 229, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Arakaki continued, stating:

"SCR 70 and 72 are two measures that the Committee intends to amend and we did provide advance copies of the proposed HD 1. The first has to do with a taskforce or committee to look at developing a method of assisting children and screening them for children ages three to eight prior to their entrance into school.

"The second, requests the Department of Health to conduct bacterial level testing of the sand at beaches that have been deemed to be contaminated.

"The third resolution, we just received a re-referral to Health only. And this is for safe staffing guidelines for nurses here in Hawaii."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have another announcement. Tonight or this afternoon between 5:00 and 6:00, for those of you that are in Conference Committee and those of us that are not, on Hawaii Public Radio, tonight from 5:00 to 6:00 on the Town Square, two Representatives have been invited to participate in the ups and downs of being a political appointee to the House of Representatives. And that would be Representative Stevens from Waikiki and myself. So if any anybody would like to call in, the number is 941-3689, but it will be on the radio for the driving public. And it should be a very interesting discussion. Maybe we can talk about the Resolution at that time too. Thank you."

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

April 18, 2006

The Honorable Calvin K. Y. Say
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Twenty-Third State Legislature
State Capitol
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In a letter dated February 10, 2006, I had requested your immediate consideration and passage of S.B. No. 2339, Making an Emergency Appropriation to the Department of Health (DOH) for the Emergency Medical Services System Branch, to appropriate emergency funding to address deficits in ambulance service contracts and to request an increase in the expenditure ceiling for the emergency medical services special fund in accordance with Section 9, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

I am now requesting to amend Senate Bill No. 2339, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, to add emergency funding in the amount of $2,356,497 in general funds to pay for Hawaii National Guard helicopter medical transport services. As you know, this critical service was provided by the United States Army, but due to the deployment of the unit, the Hawaii National Guard has provided the service. The cost may appear high but this is the only available alternative for the remainder of FY 06. For FY 07, the United States Army is procuring private air ambulance services which will include the emergency transport of injured civilians on Oahu. The State will reimburse the Army on a per transport basis.

Attached is a proposed C.D. 1 of Senate Bill No. 2339, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, that incorporates the requested additional appropriation requirements for DOH.

The general fund recommendation included in this measure has been made in accordance with the statutorily defined appropriation ceiling for the Executive Branch pursuant to Section 37-92, HRS.

Including appropriations made up to and including the regular and special sessions of 2005, the Executive Branch appropriation ceiling for FY 06 has already been exceeded by $165,665,981 or 3.83 percent. Funding requested in this measure for emergency medical transport services will result in the appropriation ceiling for the Executive Branch to now be exceeded in FY 06 by $9,511,232, or 0.22 percent. This current declaration takes into account additional general fund appropriations authorized for FY 06 in this measure only, and does not include other general fund appropriations for FY 06 that may be authorized for the Executive Branch in other legislation submitted to the Legislature during the regular session of 2006.

We appreciate your prompt attention to this matter. DOH and the Department of Defense will be available to answer any questions you may have on this request.

Sincerely,
/s/Linda Lingle

S.B. NO. 2339
S.D. 2, H.D. 1 Proposed C.D. 1

A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH FOR THE EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES SYSTEM BRANCH.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. This Act is recommended by the governor for immediate passage in accordance with section 9 of article VII of the Constitution of the state of Hawaii.

SECTION 2. Although funds were appropriated to the department of health for emergency medical services for the fiscal period beginning July 1, 2005, and ending June 30, 2006, a critical funding emergency now exists.

The purpose of this Act is to appropriate additional funds for ambulance service contracts and other costs, and helicopter medical transport services.

An additional $7,154,735 in general funds for fiscal year 2005-2006 is required to pay for unexpected ambulance service contract collective bargaining costs, fuel and other ambulance service operating costs, and contract ambulance billing and collection costs. This emergency appropriation is necessary to comply with collective bargaining increases negotiated by ambulance service providers statewide, increases in fuel and other ambulance service operating costs, and increases in workload in contracted ambulance billing and collection services. In addition, the purpose of this Act is to request an increase in the expenditure ceiling of the emergency medical services special fund due to an increase in costs in contract ambulance services in Maui and Kauai counties.

An additional $2,356,497 in general funds for fiscal year 2005-2006 is required to pay for Hawaii National Guard helicopter medical transport services. This emergency appropriation is necessary to cover costs incurred by the National Guard in providing critical transport services that were previously provided by the United States Army.

SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the state of Hawaii the sum of $9,511,232 to the department of health, to be distributed as follows:

- (2) The sum of $867,531, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 for the county of Hawaii for ambulance related services, including general operating expenses, equipment, and supplies;
- (3) The sum of $394,330, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 for the purposes of payment to the American Medical Response-Maui;
- (4) The sum of $178,976, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 for the purposes of payment to the American Medical Response-Kauai to comply with negotiated collective bargaining agreements, increases in fuel costs, and other ambulance service operating costs;
- (5) The sum of $92,346, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 for emergency medical system contract ambulance billing and collection costs; and
- (6) The sum of $2,356,497, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 for costs incurred by the Hawaii Army National Guard in providing helicopter medical transport services on Oahu.

SECTION 4. There is appropriated out of the emergency medical services special fund the sum of $441,721, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for fiscal year 2005-2006 to be used for:

- (1) Increased costs in contract ambulance services for the counties of Maui and Kauai; and
- (2) Payment of the central service assessment and department administrative expenses for fiscal year 2005-2006.

SECTION 5. The sums appropriated in sections 3 and 4 shall be expended by the department of health.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval."

ORDER OF THE DAY

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENT

The following House resolution was referred to committee by the Speaker:

H.R.
No.

Referred to:

285 Jointly to the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary

At this time, Representative Harbin rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to, pursuant to Rule 57, ask that House Resolution No. 285, titled: Amending the Rules of the House of Representatives to Require That the Order of Day be Posted in Both Paper and Electronic Form at Least Twenty-Four Hours in Advance, be set for debate on Tuesday, April 25th at 12:00."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Thank you very much for your request. That particular request will be denied at this point and time. House Resolution No. 285 has been referred to the Committees on Legislative Management/Judiciary."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If I may, pursuant to Rule 2, Subparagraph 15, the Speaker does not have authority to refer this particular measure to Committee. And this matter is pursuant to special rule, Rule 30, which is discussing special rules. This matter must be taken up at a specific point on the order of business. If I may please have that done. Thank you."

Speaker Say: "Thank you very much. Your statement is incorrect at this point. And if you would like to appeal the Chair's ruling, you may at this time."

Representative Harbin: "If I may, I'd like to, if I could, a point of order please, sir. Again, I must direct us to Rule 2, Subparagraph 15, which states that, within 4 session days that you have the right to refer all bills to committees which have subject matters within the House. At no place in the rules does it give you the authority to refer any resolution, especially resolutions that are under Rule 57. If I may, based upon that particular statement, appeal your ruling, but I would like to also mention Mr. Speaker, that my initial motion that was denied is actually a very debatable motion."

Speaker Say: "At this point, it is not a debatable motion. And the Chair will stand on the referral as far as House Resolution 285. If you like to appeal the Chair's ruling, you may at this point."

Representative Harbin: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to appeal your ruling, and I may have other procedural issues that I will probably take up tomorrow because obviously the appeal will go down because the Majority will, of course, vote with you. So why don't we just vote on it and then I'll have another procedure to discuss tomorrow. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, at this time, I'd like to stand on a point of privilege. Mr. Speaker, we've heard the former, not former Representative but ..."

Representative Takai rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. I believe there is a motion on the Floor. It needs a second."

The Chair responded, stating:

"There is no second at this point and that's why the Chair recognized Representative Sonson."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, we've heard this debate over these issues brought on by our colleague, my colleague sitting on my left. I believe that the Chair has made it clear that the ruling is going to be the same regardless whether she's going to bring up a motion today, tomorrow, or the other previous times. It seems to me that at this point, it does affect the Members as far as time management. And it affects this Body, regarding to time management.

"I don't want to listen to the same motion every day from now until Sine Die. Mr. Speaker, I think at this point, it's just a waste of time. You have given her the privilege to speak on it three times. The same issue, the same arguments and the same result. Therefore Mr. Speaker, if this is going to continue, it really will be some precedent that will be set. That if somebody wants to bring attention to themselves on the Floor because there are cameras rolling, whatever the reason may be, at this point there is no reason for continued debate on these same issues. It does affect this Body in the way we do business. We are running on a lot of deadlines. And frankly Mr. Speaker, I think I can speak since I'm sure of this, I've heard enough of this and we should stop it. Thank you very much."

Representative Harbin rose to a point of personal privilege, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on a point of personal privilege so that I can respond back to the prior speaker. I believe if the prior speaker were to stand back and take a look at what I'm trying to do, it's not a matter of cameras running or rolling. What it is, is a matter of transparency in this Body. It's a matter of this Body proceeding under its own rules and the rules of Mason's, which we have adopted as our bible of behavior. And I think that we are so concerned about this perception in the public place that we are not open for business to the public for transparency that we are in fact going to be hearing SCR 216 on the Floor very soon, which is to establish a task force for transparency. I stand down. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think you made your decision Mr. Speaker and if the Representative wants to continue under the appeal, we can, but I believe we need to move on."

Representative Harbin continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as a point of order, I'm responding to the prior speaker. I am responding to the prior speaker, in that I have been accused of standing and trying to make a point of showing off and I'm not."

Speaker Say: "And your point is well taken."

Representative Harbin: "I'm trying to make a big point of the fact that this Body does not follow its own rules. And I will continue to make that point until we at least get some of these resolutions on the Floor for debate because the public is asking me, as their Representative, the Downtown Representative, as I walk the streets, that this Body is not responsive and is not open for transparency. Those are the reasons for these resolutions. To make us to look at own rules and follow our own rules. That's it."

"Time, yes we are running out of time, but that we're running out of time, we cannot rush to make laws that impact the people of Hawaii because we are running out of time."

Speaker: "Members, let's proceed on with the Order of the Day."

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, was there a second needed for the Representative from Downtown? You asked her, if she wanted to appeal, and she said, 'yes'. She didn't make a motion for an appeal."

Speaker Say: "There is no motion for the appeal at this point."

Representative Meyer: "So there is no need for a second."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the rules be suspended for the purpose of considering a certain bill on Final Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar, seconded by Representative Meyer.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, any questions? What is the motion before this House, Representative Stevens? If you want to learn about process, this is the process."

Representative Stevens responded, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe the motion is to consider certain bills, which I believe refers to Senate Bill 2609 for consideration before the House."

Speaker Say: "Your point is well taken. It is the motion to suspend the Rules of the House to consider certain Senate Bills for Final Reading by consent calendar. Any questions at this point?"

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering a certain bill on Final Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Chang, M. Oshiro, Souki and Stonebraker were excused.)

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"In strong support. Mr. Speaker, the importance of this Resolution is highlighted by it making the front page of this morning's Advertiser.

"Mr. Speaker, put simply, this Resolution concerns whether we should support the Department of Human Services in providing incentives to mainland-based, for-profit insurance companies to enter and compete in the QUEST market.

"This Resolution urges the Department to address the impact of positive re-enrollment in the recently issued QUEST request for proposal, or RFP.

"Positive Re-Enrollment means that every year QUEST patients must now 're-enroll' in their health plans. If you fail to re-enroll by the deadline, QUEST will automatically assign you to the health plan with the lowest bid.

"Enter Summerlin. A Nevada-based, for profit, insurance company that wants to enter Hawaii's market by hopefully underbidding the three current providers, HMSA, AlohaCare, and Kaiser.

"Who are these current providers? AlohaCare for one. AlohaCare is owned by a consortium of community health centers, such as Hana Health Center, Kalihi-Palama Health Center, Community Clinic of Maui, Hamakua Health Center, Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center, and other non-profit health centers providing care to the indigent in rural areas.

"Imagine, Mr. Speaker, if you were required to 're-enroll' in your health plan every year. If you missed the deadline, you'd be automatically re-assigned to a plan that bid the lowest to the State. Imagine your surprise if you show up at your neighborhood doctor, only to be told that you are no longer covered.

"Now imagine that you are homeless, mentally ill, illiterate, or physically abused. You either didn't receive, didn't understand, or didn't have the time to complete the positive re-enrollment form. Now you are told that you have to go elsewhere for medical treatment. Mr. Speaker, this could mean the difference between life and death for this fragile QUEST population.

"DHS thankfully understands the dire consequences of such a situation, and now plans to amend its RFP to include 'safety net' language that would permit a QUEST recipient to remain in their current plan if they show up at their previous provider and indicate that they misunderstood the process.

"This 'safety net' proposal brings up two important issues. First, if DHS is going to include it, then positive re-enrollment is totally unnecessary. Under the current system, all QUEST recipients may select a new plan during 'open enrollment' each July. If a recipient fails to select a new plan, they remain in their existing plan. This sensible set-up is what you and I experience each year with our health plans, resulting in no unintended disruption in critical medical service. The current open enrollment system provides more than enough incentive for companies like Summerlin to compete with AlohaCare and others.

"The other issue I have with the 'safety net' proposal is whether it is realistic. I find it hard to believe that every single receptionist, medical assistant, nurse, office worker, etc. at every health center, hospital, etc. will understand exactly what to do if a patient shows up and does not appear on the computer as covered under a qualified plan.

"I have represented a number of people who have fallen through the cracks of the QUEST system. One woman was told by QUEST that she was covered, that her card was in the mail, and provided with an identification number. Later that day she appeared before her doctor for a medical emergency and provided the receptionist with her identification number. Unfortunately, the receptionist could not verify with QUEST that the woman was covered, and charged her $1,200 out of pocket for the services. Later that same day, the woman went to another medical center and received services under QUEST without a problem. Mr. Speaker, this unfortunate incident occurred in 2004 and there still has not been a resolution.

"Thus, I am very concerned that the safety net proposed with positive re-enrollment will prove to be unworkable.

"Mr. Speaker, the non-profit health care centers that own AlohaCare provide care to all, including the uninsured. Besides that, they willingly accept QUEST patients, despite the low reimbursement rates.

"To fund this extremely costly endeavor, the health centers created AlohaCare, which stepped in to fill the void when other insurance companies pulled out of the challenging business of providing care to the poor and needy. This effort toward decreasing dependence on government subsidies by self-funding through AlohaCare is a model that should be applauded and supported whole-heartedly by the Legislature.

"Do we want to unduly assist a for-profit company from the mainland that is trying to undercut locally owned companies providing healthcare to the poor such as HMSA and AlohaCare?

"The bottom line is this. Sure we want to encourage competition if it will result in better care for Hawaii's indigent population. But at what cost? On the one hand, we can go the route that will risk disruption in services to the patient. On the other hand, we can go the route that will risk providing fewer incentives for the companies. There is only one answer: We as government must not take any risk that could harm an indigent patient.

"Colleagues, do what is right and support this legislation."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.C.R. No. 81, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES TO ADDRESS THE IMPACT OF POSITIVE ENROLLMENT IN THE RECENTLY ISSUED QUEST REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Nakasone, M. Oshiro, Sonson, Stonebraker and Takamine being excused.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this concept that's stated in this Resolution in that, I think it's a very good idea that we as policymakers continue to not support bullying or any type of violence in the workplace. In every Session we should be addressing this issue.

"But I just wanted to raise a concern because this seems to run very counter to certain provisions in a bill making itself through the Legislature with uninsured insurance which will encourage and make it very easy for those that are fired for bullying or violence in the workplace, make it very easy for them to get unemployment benefits for a pretty good time. Plus also under that particular bill, it increases their benefits.

"So I really think that if we're going to send a message to the employers and the employees of the State of Hawaii, that this is in fact the message that we want to take, there needs to be some type of a penalty for those employees that are released from work due to violence or bullying. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Reservations, please. Mr. Speaker, I spoken out on this subject several times. This measure is requesting the Department of Defense to present a Homeland Security plan to the Legislature. And this Body earlier took a very prudent course, I believe, in passing out a measure to the Senate to setup an oversight committee where sensitive material which could possibly aid terrorist could be disclosed within that body and still remain not publicly disclosed so as to threaten our State and our people.

"This measure just asks for them to present the material to the Legislature which makes it completely public knowledge and I think it's not the prudent way to go. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 12, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE PRESENT A HOMELAND SECURITY PLAN TO THE LEGISLATURE," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Nakasone, M. Oshiro, Sonson, Stonebraker and Takamine being excused.

Representative Magaoay, for the Committee on Legislative Management presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1845-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 32, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Takai moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 32, SD 1, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Halford rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is a fairly bizarre Resolution in my view. On the face of it, it sounds okay. Requesting the State Ethics Commission to Review Possible Ethics Violations Committed by the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, which is referring to the Asian trips.

"Fairly bizarre Mr. Speaker, in several respects. One, this is not really an order of importance. Now first of all, the testifiers on this bill, there was only one person who planned to testify in favor of this Resolution and that is the Majority Leader. As you know, Mr. Speaker, from time to time, it's not very often, but sometimes we have a Representative sitting on the other side of the conference table and usually that's okay. In this particular case, the Majority Leader had very comprehensively put together testimony that if it was useful or valuable, one would think that members of the public would be interested and might have testified too.

"Well actually one member of the public did testify. A member of the public who's just sitting in the audience and heard the issue. He was there to speak about something else and decided that he would comment, but otherwise the only planned speaker in favor of this Resolution was the Majority Leader.

"Another unusual phenomena about this bill is that present was Mr. Mollway, who we are asking to pursue this the request of the Resolution, stated that, he had never seen this before. He had never seen a Resolution asking him to act. He's seen complaints before, but never a Resolution asking him to act. And he was not giving us a very clear signal about exactly what he was going to do except to say that he would be paying attention to the Legislature.

"Additionally, Mr. Speaker, there is report deadline asking for this, results of this review by September 1, '06. Are we having a Special Session, Mr. Speaker, in September? Normally we're asking for reviews to come back in December so when we're in Session we can take some action if we learn something useful. But to pick a date that's within a month of the primary election is, in my view, bizarre. And it hasn't been answered, why would we want that answer a month from the primary election.

"Additionally, Mr. Speaker, we have already asked the Auditor to review the trips to Asia. We did that in a previous Resolution. And that in itself was an interesting step, although I voted in favor of that Mr. Speaker, because I'm okay that this Legislature be clear about all of the great things that were done to create that trip and the great outcomes that came from that trip. So I think a review is okay.

"But in light of that and now this Resolution asking for the Ethics Commission to study this, this looks like we're trying to get all of the dogs to attack at once. And particularly to ask for the results by September 1. It's certainly not for us as a Legislature because we're not going to convene and do anything about it. Maybe it's for the press, but certainly not for our action.

"And additionally Mr. Speaker, as was brought up during the Resolution about the Auditor's review, which is the same subject matter essentially, apparently from the testimony we're trying to drive at exactly the same information."

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Halford continued, stating:

"During testimony for that, the issue was brought up from the proponents, which is Leadership essentially Mr. Speaker, proponents for this 'headhunt', I guess. I'm couching it now as 'headhunt' because I'm seeing this report date, rather than an information gathering phenomenon, which is what I was voting yes on. I voted yes on the Auditor Resolution because I'm okay with information gathering. But compounding these, that perhaps it's a headhunt, Mr. Speaker. And in the previous testimony, the Auditor review, the issue of 'pay-to-play' came up. That the purpose of Leadership is to look at 'pay-to-play'.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm okay to talk about 'pay-to-play', but that is a whole other issue. When we conduct fundraisers during Session, that can be characterized as 'pay-to-play'. When the Majority conducts a fundraiser during Session, where 80% of the Members of this Body conduct a fundraiser ..."

Representative Yamane rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. Are we discussing fundraisers during this Legislative Session, or are we talking about the Resolution, Stand. Com. Report 1845?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"We're addressing the Stand. Com. Report 1845, Requesting the Ethics Commission to Review Possible Ethics Violations Committed by the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism."

Representative Yamane: "Okay, I'm just trying to clarify since the speaker seems to be straying."

Representative Halford continued, stating:

"Thank you. So the issue of 'pay-to-play', if that's what this wishes to examine, then let's examine 'pay-to-play', including the majority of this Body fundraising during Session, asking for up to $2,000 to attend a fundraiser, attended by almost anyone that wants to have their bills passed.

"So Mr. Speaker, let's do talk about 'pay-to-play' and I hope that issue comes up for further discussion as a general activity in government. How does 'pay-to-play' go in government, and how do we ourselves do that. But regarding this ethics review, I would be okay if someone wants to file a complaint, which is the normal process. But this Mr. Speaker, is bizarre. It's never been done before. And frankly, at the hearing, the Ethics Commissioner really didn't know what to do with it. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting with reservations on this measure. Let me explain why. I attended the hearings specifically because as a citizen participant last Session, procurement was a big issue for myself as a citizen. And one of the reasons is because procurement is becoming a huge industry in the State of Hawaii. And what this measure attempts to do is it attempts to attack, I think a very negative perception. And there is a very negative perception in the community of what this particular measure is discussing, and for that I support looking into this so that we can make a determination.

"However, with that being said, I took the time to attend the hearing as a sitting legislator because of my past experiences with procurement and the procurement industry. And I was there specifically so that I could ask the State Procurement Office, which was one of the testifiers, a specific question because I think we need to get to the bottom of this. Is this good? Or is this bad? Or is this a gray area that we need to fix?

"However, reducing this to some type of a across the aisle issue of us versus them, I don't think is the correct way to do this. In talking with those in the federal procurement enforcement side, they find this to be very suspect also, and it does not perceive, and does not look well with the public. However, with that being said, while I sat in the hearing, I was waived off so I couldn't ask a very important question that I think might have given us some guidance on a way to deal with these types of issues.

"Last Session, again as a citizen participant, one of the issues that I worked very hard to do was to get the Hawaii Procurement Institute under the School of Law at the University of Hawaii. Who more can we trust than the School of Law? And we have a brain trust there that would be able to look at this and give us an opinion if this is in fact a gray area and perhaps give us suggestions on how to fix this type of things from happening.

"So making this into a partisan, ethics type of an issue, I think is going down the wrong trail because ethics and procurement are like oil and water, they just are two very different things. So we need to know, is this wrong or is this right? And until we get the wrong or right answer, we're going to have a bad perception and this is not going to solve that perception because it looks very partisan to me. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to a point of information, stating:

"Just a point of information, Mr. Speaker. This Resolution in it's form now, deleted all reference to procurement. That this deal with ethics only. It did as was pointed out, deal with procurement when she was at the hearing, but since then all procurement issues have been deleted from this. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On the same measure, I'm standing in support of this measure. And I appreciate the Representative from Maui for clarifying that basically it was procurement and ethics, and we deleted the procurement on this because of the information that was given.

"Just for the information regarding the State Ethics Commission, the way this Resolution is right now is basically if you read it and on page 2 because it says be it further resolved, pursuant section 84-31 (a) (7), the Hawaii State Ethics Commission is requested to educate the Legislature on its history regarding the ethical aspects of its review no later than September 1st of 2006. This is the basic essence of this Resolution.

"As far as the question relating to why is it September 1st? Why not the end of year, prior to Session? I spoke with the Executive Director at length. And speaking with the Executive Director trying to get a straight yes or no, it takes a while before you get a final answer, if you do get an answer. So we left the Resolution the way it is as September 1st. So I ask my colleagues to stand in support. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to the measure. I think the Representative from Maui makes a good point and my colleague from Kahuku, trying to explain the September 1st date, I don't think makes any sense. It's actually, the way it reads, they want this report no later than September 1st. It doesn't make any sense. And it brings up the intent of looking like this is trying to make this a political problem. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also voting no on this measure. Mr. Speaker, it looks uncomfortably politically motivated. And I don't think it does credit to this Body to pass it."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some reservations on this measure. As we heard, both the Auditor and the State Ethics Commission will be now reviewing the procedures used in funding the trips to Asia. It seems like this is just a duplicative effort. And I would like to see something like a lead investigator chosen, appointed to lead the effort, if we want to investigate this. It just seems like having two bodies running independent investigations, is duplicative to me so, I just have that reservation. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak in favor of the Resolution. I'm quite amazed at some of the speeches done by my friends across the aisle. There's an old saying, it was made by a great man years ago who said that, 'Who is without sin, cast the first stone.' Thank you very much."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly to clarify. I think the prior resolution that we took a look at, when we asked the Auditor to take a look at what went on, really had to do with the issues of procurement, that's Chapter 103D.

"This is different. This is having to ask the Ethics Commission to take a look at whether there were violations. That's an entirely separate chapter. That's taking a look at Chapter 84, specifically Section 84-13 regarding fair treatment, which says, 'that no legislator or employee shall use, or attempt to use, their official position to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, exemptions, advantages, contracts or treatment for one self or others.'

"It's very broad. It does state that we basically cannot be interfering to try and give preferential treatment to certain individuals. And that's the underlying question that we have to answer. And while some of that may be addressed through the procurement code, some of that also should be address through the State's ethics code. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, the Representative from Kihei brought up how it's wrong for lawmakers to have fundraisers during the legislative session and that conjures up the impression of 'pay-to-play'. But I do want to point that he himself has a fundraiser tomorrow night at Nick's Fish Market, so I don't know where the hypocrisy is in his discussion this morning."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The Chair addressed Representative Halford, stating:

"Representative Halford, for what purpose do you rise? This is your third time. Are you rising on a point of personal privilege? The Chair will allow you to state your point of personal privilege."

Representative Halford rose, stating:

"Okay. It is true that I am having a fundraiser tomorrow and that is a common long standing practice in this Legislature for decades. But what is not common, and as far as I know, never occurred before two years ago was that a legislative Political Action Committee with essentially 80% of the body, holding a fundraiser, a leadership Political Action Committee holding a fundraiser during Session to push legislation. That was the point I was going after, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to a point of personal privilege, stating:

"Point of personal privilege. I just want to state that the previous speaker, at least as I'm listening to this conversation, is implying that we, maybe all of us have fundraisers. And I just want to state for the record, I did not and do not plan on having a fundraiser during Session. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Halford and Thielen be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with grave reservations on this measure. This bill requests the State Procurement Office and the Ethics Commission to investigate the circumstances of the 2005 trip organized by the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism.

"DBEDT did not oppose this measure as the Department favors a transparent, open-door policy, and if the public is reassured, then there may be a possible benefit so I will not cast a no vote. However, it must be stated that DBEDT's purpose in undertaking this type of trade mission was to put Hawaii's best foot forward in efforts to strengthen economic ties and to develop new markets and new opportunities for the State and its businesses. In order to best represent our State abroad and to put our best foot forward (accurately portraying the quality of our entrepreneurial talent) public-private partnerships were sought.

"My grave concerns are that the premise of any wrongdoing is unfounded and that this measure may only serve to hurt the business community and prevent them from participating in the future, therefore unfortunately amounting to a partisan attack at the expense of the business community and ultimately this State."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting with reservations because of the September date before the election. If the report came in after the next Session, it might be of more use to the new Members who may be elected this coming November for possible use for legislation next Session. But before that, they'll be the old Members of this House. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of Senate Concurrent Resolution 196.

"The Turtle Bay expansion project has divided the North Shore community into two camps, for and against the proposed development of five new hotels, built over a long-term period, based on a City special management area granted 20 years ago. Both sides claim that the quality of life for the North Shore residents will be harmed if the opposing side gets its way.

"Senate Concurrent Resolution 196 asks for a rigorous reexamination of the Turtle Bay expansion project by the City and County of Honolulu Council. In 20 years time, conditions of the North Shore and the island of Oahu have changed. If we are truly to do what's best for the people of the North Shore, the development should go through a process that meets the standards of today and the needs of tomorrow, not those set in 1986.

"What have been the significant changes? For one thing, traffic on the North Shore has increased dramatically over the years, particularly along Kamehameha Highway due to the tremendous popularity of the surf meets, people flocking annually in awe of the high surf, and the enjoyment of the world renowned beaches by both locals and visitors.

"Over the past 20 years, the developments of Ko'Olina and Kapolei have put a significant strain on the infrastructure and resources of West Oahu. In addition to traffic, this includes health care services, landfill capacity, water and affordable housing. Can a third major development be supported on Oahu?

"The environment impact statement (EIS) completed in 1985 failed to address the impact of the project on customary and traditional practices of native Hawaiians. The EIS did identify known prehistoric settlements in the development area, and the development plan calls for the disinterment of any burial remains found during the project construction. By today's standards, this does not adequately or fully take into account the environmental impact of the development on native Hawaiian culture.

"The Department of Health's administrative rules require that if the timing of a project has been significantly changed, the environmental impact statement must be supplemented. Due to the size and scope of the developer's plans, we propose that the City should follow through on this, as well as require the developer, Kuilima Resort Company to do more.

"SCR 196 calls for not only the reexamination of the special management area permit, including the supplemental environmental impact statement, but recommends that the City also review the Land Use Commission's action to reclassify this area from the agricultural to the urban district in order to facilitate the project, and the Unilateral Agreement filed with the Bureau of Conveyances that require certain conditions.

"While unusual, there is legal precedent in the City to take this route. The Hawaii Supreme Court affirmed an issuing agency's right to review, revoke or modify special management area use permits in Morgan v. Planning Department County of Kauai, 104 Ha. 174, 86p.3d982(2004).

"Change, especially on something as permanent as land development, is always hard on a community. As I talk to the people of the North Shore, both for and against the Turtle Bay Expansion, there is mistrust and divisiveness growing to a harmful degree. People expect you to take a side in what has become a bitter battle, and that will only result in one side winning and one side losing.

"We have a better chance of getting on both sides winning if we can focus on areas where there may be common ground – good jobs with decent pay for residents in the community, affordable housing for some employees, cultural sensitivity, beach access and support for local fishing, surfing and family gatherings, preserving the sense of Hawaiian country.

"I don't believe anyone expects the North Shore to stay in a time warp, so if we are to move forward with some sort of development, let it be one in which the people's best interest drive the nature, size and scope of the project. That includes holding government accountable for thoroughly examining the environmental, economic, social and cultural impact that this community will be forced to live with for generations to come.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill. Malama Pono."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in strong support and appreciation to the Committee in passing out this Resolution, this Concurrent Resolution. I think that it's helpful because many of our historic preservation professionals, which by the way take care of many different sites, through them, like the previous page is in support of Mauna 'Ala, where our former kings and queens of the Kingdom of Hawaii are buried. But also there are the different temples, our Shinto Temples, our Buddhist Temples, that are all very much in need of help. And what is interesting about this is that a number of the people who help these artifacts of our cultures and preserve these educational infrastructures which serve to educate our children, a number of them are supported by those individuals with training and skill and they all happen to be, for some reason, are often a generation above us.

"Maybe back then it was more valued. Maybe understanding where you came from and your history was valued more for some reason in generations past. But what happens in that situation is that our present generation isn't trained. So this portends a very real crisis because if we don't have people who are trained to preserve these sites, they won't be preserved or we'll have to pay the price of importing experts from the mainland which there are not that many there either. So I'm really pleased with the passage of this Concurrent Resolution in protecting the future for our children. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 211, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION SUPPORTING A FOUR-YEAR DEGREE PROGRAM IN HISTORIC PRESERVATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Nakasone, M. Representative Takai moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 85, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. On 1858, I'm rising in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, the Board of Education and OHA are elected and they do provide the information that's requested in this Resolution. But the Regents are appointed. And they answer to both the Governor and to the Senate, which must confirm them. The Regents in question, mentioned in this Resolution, all recused themselves, they disclosed the possible conflicts and they left the room during deliberations and voting. So there was no conflict of interest.

"But what we're doing here is we're responding to newspaper reports that there were conflicts of interest in the Board. I guess since newspapers are considered gospel, then what about conflicts that the newspaper have discussed going on at the Legislature. There's been several in the past three or four days, and what do we do about them? Well, we don't do anything. But this Resolution to me is very suspect.

"It's another, let's attack those that have been appointed by the Governor. That's exactly what it appears to be. Some can say, well the WASC had some problems with the Regents. They had a report on that and I'll let my colleague discuss that in a moment, but that was all resolved. The testimony we received said it was resolved. And yet here we are with this Resolution. Again, in opposition."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. You're all familiar with the proposal by two Regents for the University of Hawaii procurement policy that was quite bizarre. I think you'd support this Resolution. And there's been other problems with Regents attempting to override the State procurement code."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition. When this Resolution was heard in Finance, the Vice President for Legal Affairs at the University, Walter Kirimitsu, testified to the fact that there was no need for this Resolution. He did refer to these reports by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and the negative report came out in March of '04, but it was at a very tumultuous time at the University when the Board of Regents did not have a very good relationship with the President of the college. They came back and did another report that came out in December 21st, when that President was not there anymore. There had been changes in the Regents and they gave a very positive report.

"The Board of Regents have to comply with the bylaws which are set forth in Article X of the Board of Regents bylaws. And these are much more stringent than what is in the State of Hawaii Ethics Code, which they also must comply with. But as far as if there was any thought that they may have a conflict of interest, the Regents may not vote. And as the Representative from Makakilo said, they can't even be in the room when there's any discussion or deliberation. It's in the Article X, it is saying restraint on participation. They may not even be present to hear the discussion on the particular matter that they feel they shouldn't vote on. So I think that they are doing a good job.

"The other part of this Resolution which is going to ask the Auditor to decide whether the Regents should have financial disclosure statements that must be available to the general public. There are others. Members of the Board of Land and Natural Resources do not have to make their financial disclosures public. That could be an impediment for people being willing to serve as Regents. Very well qualified people who may not want the whole world to know everything about their financial affairs. So for those reasons, I'll be voting no."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just wanted to also note my reservation. It just seems like, I guess what a cynic would say, that we are abusing our power for political purposes and that's why I have reservations. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations for the same reasons."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting with reservations on this measure. And it sort of is a little deviation from all of these Resolutions that I have been introducing and being criticized for introducing. But the reason I'm voting with reservations on this is because I really questioned whether or not we need a taskforce, whether we need statutory provisions, whether we need anything to do that magical word that seems to be the word of the century in this Body, which is 'transparency'.

"Since being here, moving from being a citizen participant into being a real life participant, I found that transparency is somewhat of a figment of all of our imaginations. And once I realized that my imagination wasn't fooling me, that is the reason why I have been introducing all these Resolutions.

"We have before us, Members, the rules of the House of Representatives, which also relies on the Mason's Rules of Legislative Procedures, and guess what? These rules are here for one reason. For our behavior, for how we proceed, but basically it's there to give transparency to the people that we represent. And I firmly believe that transparency is so vividly missing in this Session that it just really angers me to the point that I just don't realize, I just can't understand, why we would have to statutorily tell ourselves that we need to be transparent to the people that we are representing.

"If we all look at Section 13 in Mason's Rules, it says that within 24 hours, we can change rules. We can do everything that is in this Resolution that's going to require a taskforce to sit around between now and let's see ... To report back maybe in a year or two on how to have transparency. Transparency is simple. Fix the rules. Follow the rules. Set things 24 hours before they're scheduled to be set. We have wonderful Internet capacities. We can PDF proposals, so that we don't have to run to offices to get them. We can have instantaneous transparency. So let us put this aside and let us look at some of the Resolutions that are pending before this Body that have been referred away, but will soon be back on the Floor. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 216, HD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CREATING A LEGISLATIVE TASK FORCE TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR STATUTORY ENACTMENT TO ENHANCE TRANSPARENCY IN LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS," was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, Nakasone, M. Oshiro, Sonson, Stonebraker and Takamine being excused.

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENT

The following House resolution was referred to committee by the Speaker:

H.R.
No.

Referred to:

286 Jointly to the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representatives Sonson and Kahikina, for the Committee on Human Services and the Committee on Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1869-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 107, be adopted.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and S.C.R. No. 107, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE COUNTY COUNCILS TO ASSIST LOW-INCOME HOMEOWNERS," was adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Saiki and Schatz being excused.

Representative Kahikina, for the Committee on Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1870-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 58, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 58, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in very strong support of this resolution. Some of us may or may not know, this is an affordable housing project right in the heart of Honolulu, which happens to be my district. This is a really hard position for me to take and it's taken a lot of soul searching for me because as we all know, I come as a small business advocate to this, as my prior life and I truly believe that the market should be allowed to generate what it is that should happen with property.

"But as I have become more and more realistic about what is happening to our people, and the lives of our people, and the lack of housing, and the fact that I live right smack down in the middle of town at 250 North King Street, across from Aala Park, in an affordable housing project, it is really a wonderful experience to see the blending of many of our young local people. Young people coming into the State, retired people, and people such as I, that have one foot in retirement and one foot out.

"And to allow something as valuable as Kukui Gardens to leave the possession of our State and our people, I think is very very scary. There have been some beneficiaries that have reaped the harvest of this property for over 40 years, and I think that they should look at this Resolution as a message from this policymaking body that the needs of our people sometimes has got to be more powerful than the needs of landowners.

"So I hope that they will continue to work with us, with the State and with the community and with the nonprofit community to do everything possible to keep this as affordable housing, which it should be. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Harbin be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in favor. I just want to take this opportunity to express how well the Housing Committee has worked and the complete sincerity of the Chairman of the House Committee in general and on this issue in particular. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 58, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE OWNERS OF KUKUI GARDENS TO SELL THE PROJECT TO A QUALIFIED AFFORDABLE HOUSING NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION," was adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Saiki and Schatz being excused.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, please note on page 2 and 3, the 48-hour notice for the Conference Committee reports."

In accordance with Article III, Section 15, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, action on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 54-06 and H.B. No. 2897, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO APPELLATE JURISDICTION," was deferred for a period of 48 hours.

RECALL FROM COMMITTEE

At this time, Representative Finnegan moved that S.B. No. 3279, SD 2, HD 1, be recalled from the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Meyer.

The Chair then stated:

"For all of you, this is a procedural motion. Debate is limited to the propriety of the action in recalling the bill from Committee. So the debate on the merits or the substance of the bill is not in order at this point and time. Any discussion on the recall motion?"

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the motion to recall, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I will confine my remarks to the procedure. I would like to describe the bill. The report title is, Medical Malpractice Insurance Premiums, and the description is, 'lowers medical malpractice insurance premiums by adopting legislation that directly affects elements impacting medical malpractice insurance rates.'

"Mr. Speaker, this particular bill was passed out of our Health Committee and our Consumer Protection Committee. The Consumer Protection Committee did not have any amendments and on the Floor. We did not have anyone against this particular measure, and the reason why we are, or I am, passing or asking for the recall is just to have the ability to go to the next stage, which is to give us an opportunity to discuss this very controversial matter, but also to give us the opportunity to discuss some different options.

"Mr. Speaker, I would ask for the support of this Body in order to keep just a glimmer of hope on this particular issue alive. At the appropriate time Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for a roll call vote."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recall, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak against the recall motion. The reason for a recall is to allow for debate on an issue when a subject matter committee has not dealt with the issue. In this situation, the subject of the bill itself was fully discussed on the Floor when the Minority put the contents of S.B. No. 3279 into another bill as a Floor Amendment. So I believe that we did have a Floor Amendment and the reason for the recall is no longer there. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the motion to recall, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support of the recall motion. I realize that this is not something we do every day, but every now and then a subject or a problem is so pressing that it requires some kind of extra special effort.

"We did, as the Chair of Judiciary said, we did speak on this measure in another amendment, but the Legislature is almost over and the problem that this bill tries to seek to relieve has not gotten any better. It's something that we have been aware of, a statewide problem, for many years and it is only because it is such a serious problem that we feel that this kind of unusual motion is appropriate. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recall, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking against the motion. Mr. Speaker, I stood up yesterday because there was another motion, which I believe was previously discussed thoroughly. I want to be consistent to say that, if something is done over and over again, expecting the same result, it's a waste of time for this Body to take it up. This is sometimes called in the legal arena, a frivolous motion, and there are sanctions for those. If we only had sanctions for frivolous motions in this Body and maybe there is, we should impose them so that we don't have this discussion over and over about these matters we have already taken up.

"Now the Minority Leader has said, we want to bring this motion up today because we want to go to the next step, which is to discuss a controversial issue. Again, as pointed out by a prior speaker, we have done that. We discussed this issue twice at least in this Body this Session, and the result is the same. Why again, other than to have political posturing be right here and focus the attention of the public. The public is not going to want us to discuss this over and over to see whether we come up with different results.

"I think if we truly need to discuss this matter, we need to be discussing it with a goal of addressing the real issue that is underlying the proponents of this measure. Again, I'm not opposed to having discussions to find solutions, but I think that we need to discuss that at another point in time. The motion that has been proposed here is simply a waste of time at this point, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I almost rose with an objection because I don't believe this political posturing. We're trying to discuss a very serious matter. I know we can't discuss the matter that's underlying the motion until we move the motion forward, so I'm trying to stay away from discussing the underlying matter, but we need to move this motion forward."

"Whether or not we discussed it on the Floor before, it's a serious matter. It's affecting our State. It's affecting the people of this State. And unless we can just break through this barrier and get the motion on the Floor so we can discuss the merits of the underlining bill. You know, we're keeping the people in the dark. It's not that we're trying to politically posture this thing. It's that we're trying to help the residents of the State, and I'm sure that's what you're all about too. So we're trying to work together and get something done for the people. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recall, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion. Very briefly, procedurally one of the problems with this underlining bill is that it was actually a 'gut and replace'. S.B. No. 3279 as it came over from the Senate had to do with the admissibility of expressions of sympathy or benevolence. So that is the subject which the Senate dealt with when they passed over the Senate Bill in the form of an SD 2. And it was actually in our own House that there was a 'gut and replace' procedure, and usually while we tend not to really favor 'gut and replace' because that does not fully allow for the public process. The bill continued to move and ultimately did not make it all the way out, but I think the criticisms that we don't want to be in the dark and we want a public discussion, really are not warranted."

"If people really want to take a comprehensive look at this issue, what they need to do is read the LRB report that came out in this year entitled, On Call Crisis in Trauma Care: Government Responses. That's a very comprehensive report that deals with this problem and will tell us there's a multitude of approaches that we need to take. This singular approach in the underlying bill is not sufficient, and that's why if we really are truly going to work on this problem. We need to take a look ..."

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Point of personal privilege. Thank you. I would just like to ask if this speaker is speaking on the underlining bill?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"I believe he's speaking to a ..."

Representative Finnegan: "Because he did bring up the report on the On Call Physicians."

Speaker Say: "Yes, but the Chair will allow him to stray a little."

Representative Finnegan: "Mr. Speaker, will you allow us the same opportunity?"

Speaker Say: "The Chair will, but I wanted to close the debate on this motion of a recall."

Representative Finnegan: "I would like to, Mr. Speaker ..."

Speaker Say: "There is no reference of the substance of the matter that he is presenting to this Body. It is just a study that was completed."

Representative Finnegan: "Mr. Speaker, we been very careful not to be to stay within the confines of the procedure."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of order. A point of personal privilege under Section 223 of Mason's has to do with somebody's ability to actually be a Representative. I never called into question the current speaker's ability to be a Representative. So she's out of order, it's not a point of privilege."

The Chair responded, stating:

"The Chair will allow her at this point, to voice her point of personal privilege if she is aggrieved by the decision of the Chair in regards to what the debate is all about. The debate was supposed to address the motion of a recall. The Chair has strayed with the Majority Floor Leader to allow him to make reference to the study, but that was it. Like I said to you earlier, this is a motion for the recall of a measure out of a Committee, which is a procedural motion. Representative Blake Oshiro."

Representative B. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Again Mr. Speaker, let me just close with this. People have criticized that we're in the dark and that we're not allowing this issue to be brought to the forefront. I suggest people read the report. That fully discusses what we need to do if we're going to move forward. That's all I referenced the report for. Not to talk about the substance and what we're going to do about it, but to really suggest that, because I really don't think people have read the report. That's my 'guestionment', but I would suggest that they do. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the motion to recall, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. I'm going to be speaking for the recall as a procedural issue. I'm very sorry that the prior speaker strayed because I'm quite prepared to discuss the LRB report at length now, if that is what you would want me to do."

The Chair responded, stating:

"No, not at this point and time."

Representative Harbin: "Then with that being said, let's move on to procedural issues."

Speaker Say: "Representative Harbin, you're out of order if you're going to be addressing the motion of the recall."

Representative Harbin: "I am going to address the motion. One of the prior speakers, the Representative from Waipahu made mention of 'over, and over, and over again'. I think that's a song that I grew up with, but part of it was in reference to my everyday motions for certain Resolutions."

"I'd like to really say that one of the things that I learned in my short stint here is that one must be patient with 'over, and over, and over again'. In fact, I think I've seen and heard that bills have been introduced for four to five, even six years before they finally become policy. And I think what makes us different from the Judiciary system or other systems is that we need to consistently have public debate which has been sorely lacking in this House, which is why I am supporting this recall. Because this issue according to the LRB report, which like I said, I'm ready to discuss at length, makes it very obvious that this subject needs to be discussed and the people want it discussed. Thank you."

The request for a roll call vote was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, the roll call was approved.

Roll call having been approved, the motion that S.B. No. 3279, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAL LIABILITY," be recalled from the Committee on Judiciary, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry on the following show of Noes and Ayes:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

April 26, 2006

The Honorable Calvin K. Y. Say, Speaker
and Members of the House of Representatives
Twenty-Third State Legislature
State Capitol, Room 431
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2581 SD1

On April 25, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2581, entitled "Relating to the Backlog in Unserved Arrest Warrants" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill seeks to reduce the backlog of unserved arrest warrants by (1) authorizing county police officers and public safety officers with police powers to serve arrest warrants, and (2) requiring the Attorney General to adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91, Hawaii Revised Statutes, through which retired police officers or public safety officers may be authorized to serve arrest warrants.

It should be pointed out that county police officers and public safety officers already have the authority to serve arrest warrants. Hiring retired law enforcement personnel is also currently possible and these rehires could serve arrest warrants if the department which hired them has such authority.

While this bill assigns to the Attorney General responsibility for adopting administrative rules to provide for authorizing retired county police officers and retired State public safety officers to serve certain arrest warrants, it fails to specify which State entity is responsible for administering such a program.

Further, this bill does not appropriate funds to compensate retired officers and to supervise the service of the arrest warrants.

This bill, alone, will not accomplish the goal of reducing the backlog in unserved arrest warrants. It will be incumbent upon the next session of the Legislature to remedy the aforementioned shortcomings of this measure with legislation placing the program under the jurisdiction of an agency, such as the Judiciary, and providing funding commensurate to ensure its purpose is served.

Therefore, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2581 SD1 to become law as Act 28 effective April 25, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/Linda Lingle
LINDA LINGLE"

ORDER OF THE DAY

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENT

The following House resolution was referred to committee by the Speaker:

H.R. No.

Referred to:

287 Jointly to the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary

Representative Harbin rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe I am rising on a point of personal privilege. Mr. Speaker, for the last two days I have been accused, I think, of interfering with the process of this Chamber with repetitious Resolutions. I have a little bit of a problem with that and I thought perhaps maybe what I would do is take this personal privilege time to explain that I feel very strongly about rules of order and rules of how a body operates.

"With that being said, yesterday I deferred to invoking a Rule 57 motion in deference to the fact that we were going to be doing a recall which was a first time for me. With that being said, what I would like to do at this particular juncture, since we don't have an Order of the Day that has an addendum item for special orders, I would like to move that House Resolution 286, Amending the Rules of the House of Representatives to Require Each Member to Disclose the Name and Place of Employment of a Staff Member Whose Salary is Paid by a Third Party, be placed on the agenda for a 24-hour notice for debate for Friday April 26."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"I second the motion, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair responded, stating"

"Representative Thielen, there is no motion before us at this point. She's on a point of personal privilege, inquiring about the discussion we had during the past few days."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand corrected. Now Mr. Speaker, if I may, I would like to move that House Resolution 286, Amending the Rules of the House of Representatives to Require Each Member to Disclose the Name and Place of Employment of a Staff Member Whose Salary is Paid by a Third Party, pursuant to Rule 57, be placed on the agenda for 24-hour notice of debate for Friday April 26, 2006."

Representative Thielen: "I second the motion, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Say: "May we have a short recess? Recess subject to the call of the Chair."

Representative Harbin: "Mr. Speaker. I'm not yielding the floor. My motion and a second is on the floor and I'm not yielding for a recess."

Speaker Say: "And the Chair is calling a recess at this point and time. Recess subject to the call of the Chair."

Representative Harbin: "I have the floor."

At 12:14 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:21 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"At this point, the Chair has been very generous in allowing Members of this House to speak on a point of personal privilege. I think the Members of this House realize that as the Chair of this House, the Chair has the responsibility of referring bills and resolutions.

"Presently, there is nothing before this Body in regards to this House Resolution that the Representative is talking about. For all of you, you know that it has been referred to the Committees on Legislative Management/Judiciary. It is on your desk. And on page 33 of our House Rules it states that the Clerk shall send all resolutions except congratulatory resolutions to be printed. When they have been printed and circulated among the Members of this House, they shall placed on the calendar for adoption, unless ordered otherwise.

"The Chair has decided that because it is a very substantive Resolution that impacts the Members of the House, it has been referred to the Committee for a hearing, if the two Chairs would like to schedule a hearing. That is the process that I'm asking all of you to be patient about.

"So right now Representative, there is nothing before this Body except for your point of personal privilege that you have been aggrieved by the Chair in the referral of these Resolutions. May we proceed on at this point? Representative Harbin."

Representative Harbin responded, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Before I waive my right to appeal that, but I would like to now file another Rule 57 motion for House Resolution 287, which I think is rather appropriate at this time. This amends the Rules of the House of Representatives to prohibit smoking in any area under its jurisdiction. Again, rules are very important for how we function, and I'd like to bring everybody's attention, for those of us that voted on this particular bill ..."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. I believe this particular Resolution is no longer before this Body and has been referred to the Committees on Legislative Management and Judiciary as of April 26 on your referral sheet. So it's with the two joint Committees and is not presently before the Body. It is out of order."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Harbin, you are out of order at this point because it has been referred to the Committees as has just been stated. If you want to appeal the Chair's decision on the referral, please ask for the appeal and I'll have a vote of this House."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I appeal your order please?"

Speaker Say: "Members of this House, there has been an appeal of the ruling of the Chair in regards to the referral."

Representative Takai then rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I believe the Representative did not make a motion. She's asking for permission. She has to make an affirmative motion to appeal your decision."

Speaker Say: "Representative Harbin, once more. Please make the proper motion."

Representative Harbin: "Mr. Speaker, I move for a motion to appeal your order. No. May I have a recess please?"

At 12:25 o'clock p.m., Representative Harbin requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:26 o'clock p.m.

Representative Harbin rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to at this time withdraw my motion to appeal, in that I have been advised by my colleagues that there is a ruling in DAGS that the Capitol is a smoke-free building, in spite of the fact that our rules are different. So I hereby withdraw my motion, and hope that we can continue on with our business. Thank you."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering bills on Final Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Abinsay, Kahikina and Stonebraker were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 5-06 and S.B. No.2213, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 2213, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of Conference Committee Report No. 5-06, Relating to Tort Actions. Limiting the liability for public entities or public employees associated with a motorsports facilities appears to be a good public policy. Given the popularity of these activities, this policy of limiting liability would go a long way in helping to promote this sport, which is a very popular family activity. While we are moving to make some reforms in tort law in this limited area, it is a shame that don't do the same for OBGYNs, specialists, and other surgeons.

"Even with this bill in place, minors will still suffer injuries. Motorsports racing is a dangerous activity, so while we protect counties, we won't address the people that will heal potential life-threatening injuries suffered by minors as a result of activities at a motorsports facilities. We won't even take care of the specialist that deliver the children that grow up to indulge in this activity.

"The question is: Will we even have these trained folks left to take care of these injuries?"

Representative M. Oshiro rose to a point of order:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I think the current speaker is really straying off the path of this particular measure."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Meyer, could you confine your remarks to tort liability in regards to the motorsports facility?"

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will just ask to have the balance of my remarks inserted in the Journal. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's additional remarks are as follows:

"Will we even have these folks left to take care of these injuries or to deliver these children in a few years?

"Mr. Speaker, addressing the narrow liability issue here is simple. But what good does it do if the folks that heal the injuries aren't there? Are we going to collectively pat ourselves on the back when one of these injuries occurs, and the county and public employees can escape liability in limited cases? We can congratulate ourselves that a good balance of rights and responsibilities for safety was struck, as the Committee Report states. And I support that balance. But what have we done to address the real issue, some child, maybe not ours, but someone's child, gets hurt badly - and cannot get the care they need at the hospital emergency room because of a lack of trauma doctors.

"Because of the medical malpractice system, doctors try to avoid liability to practicing defensive medicine which drives up the cost of healthcare. Doctors are sued anyway, often without cause, driving up the cost of medical malpractice insurance, and further driving up the costs of healthcare. What does that mean for you and me? Higher insurance rates and higher doctor bills, but worst of all, less and less doctors willing to practice medicine. That hurts everyone, including the person who gets injured at a motor sports facility. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2213, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORT ACTIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

At 12:30 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 2213, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, passed Final Reading.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Public Safety & Military Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1871-06) recommending that S.C.R. No. 233, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 233, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations on the measure. I don't have any reservations on the underlining intent. My reservations are just in some of the, 'Now Therefore', if you will. Some of the intended requested actions.

"The measure first is requesting the military to map and monitor all munitions dumpsites off of Hawaiian shores. Great, that's very good. I appreciate the effort. But it just appears to me that maybe the House is way ahead of the Senate on this issue because we heard from Mr. Addison Davis, the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Environment Safety, and Occupational Health.

"He appeared before the Public Safety Committee with others and then he briefed me in my office on March the 13th. That appearance in Public Safety was early March. On March 13th we discussed more details in my office because of course, I do have a district that parallels that area off the coast.

"I attended a public meeting on March the 15th at Fort Shafter where he appeared again with many other military brass, if you will, from around the area. And basically the Army is already doing just about everything, I think, that's in this Resolution. I'll go through that in a minute. They provided detailed maps. You can't see this well because it's black and white, but they're in color. It shows the dumpsites. It shows where they are. They're in tremendously deep water off the coast. Some are over 5 miles. They can't exactly say from the old records, which are 60 years old. And others they know are more than 10 miles off the shore. They are monitoring them.

"They also provided handouts to anybody interested to attend the meetings. 'Explosives Safety Guide for Hawaii.' 'Ammunitions at Sea, A Guide for Commercial Maritime Industries.' So all of the things in this measure are basically covered already.

"I want to go through just a few details. The first 'Be it Resolved' says they want appropriate resources provided by Congress for cleanups. Well, those listening to the Army Assistant Secretary on this matter say it's better not to touch them. Leave them where they are. They're safe. They've been investigated off the coast of Europe and are safer left alone, rather than drag them up and bring up to shore and everything else.

"The next 'Be it Further Resolved' is existing ordinance transportation rules should be examined. Well, they already do that. That's on-shore here. That's just to comply with existing ordinance rules.

The next 'Be it Further Resolved', requests the military to do a mapping project, which is what I just showed you. That's exactly what they're doing, and they're not done. They're going to continue to do it.

"The next one is, 'Be it Further Resolved' that the military conduct a risk assessment. That's what they have done. That's what they're reporting to us. Better to leave them there than to drag them up.

"The next 'Be it Further Resolved' is that the military monitor dumpsites off Hawaiian shores. Again, that's what they're doing. This is all with the full knowledge of the Department of Defense and the US Congress.

"The next 'Be it Further Resolved' that now all of a sudden it's considered a major emergency after 60 years, and that the military should develop an emergency public notification procedure, which they have in place already. And that they should look at any contamination or other dangers arising from the dumpsites which are many miles offshore and in very, very deep water.

"The next 'Be it Further Resolved', the next to the last, says the Departments of Health and Public Safety shall develop adequate safety procedures including evacuation and disaster control procedures. Well Mr. Speaker, as you and I know, it's not the Department of Health or Public Safety that does that. It's our Civil Defense. So we can pass this out. I guess it does no harm. But I just want to make sure that the Members know that there is nothing requested in this measure that isn't already being done. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I think the importance of this Resolution is highlighted by the fact that it took a KHON TV news reporter to tell us about these tens of thousands of mustard and other types of chemical munitions that were dumped at sea, offshore from Waianae and other areas around this State.

"So I think it's difficult for the public to have a whole lot of trust at this point on this issue. That's why it's extremely important that this type of Resolution be passed, and that we make a strong statement that we want to ensure that all of these types of things are disclosed.

"Mr. Speaker, I was at those community meetings out in Waianae and basically it was told to us is that they're going to come back and report to us in the spring. A lot of these questions are still unanswered, and a lot of it is still being researched by the military. I think it's extremely important that we remain vigilant on this issue. I have additional written comments that I'd like to submit in strong support. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro submitted the following letter:

"HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
STATE OF HAWAII
STATE CAPITOL
HONOLULU, HAWAII 96813

Hon. Francis J Harvey
Secretary of the Army
The Pentagon
Washington, DC 20310

Re: Chemical weapons dumped off the Wai'anae Coast, Pearl Harbor, and any other locations in Hawai'i

Secretary Harvey,

I am writing to request a written report and public meetings regarding the Army's dumping of chemical weapons near Hawai'i approximately 60 years ago. The report and public meetings should include the Army's plans to mitigate the impact of these weapons on human health and the environment.

While comments by the Army have indicated that the dumping was done a considerable distance from Hawai'i shores, KHON Channel 2 News recently revealed that the dumping may have occurred much closer. Reports indicate ordnance litter is frequently found within 5 miles offshore of the district I represent, the Wai'anae Coast of O'ahu, Hawai'i.

I believe the people of Hawai'i have a right to full disclosure regarding the description, condition, and location of the dumped munitions, with special emphasis on the human health and environmental threats posed by the materials. It is imperative that the Army perform a risk assessment regarding this matter immediately.

I look forward to your response. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 285) was announced by the Clerk and was received for possible consideration at a later date:

Gov. Msg. No. 285, transmitting H.B. No. 2208, HD 1, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 26, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2208

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2208, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Counties."

The stated purpose of this bill is to extend the statute of limitations for actions against the counties for damage or injury from six month [sic] to two years.

This bill is objectionable because it is inconsistent with the intended purpose of section 46-72, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which was to create a claims procedure as a prerequisite to the filing of a lawsuit, not to establish a limitations period for filing a lawsuit. Notification of a claim within six months of the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the claim is to allow for a prompt investigation while facts and circumstances are still fresh, witnesses are still available, and conditions remain substantially the same. An early review of claims would minimize unnecessary litigation, because a determination can be made whether the claim is frivolous or should be settled before a lawsuit is filed. If the claim is denied, the claimant still has the option to file a lawsuit within the two-year statute of limitations set forth in section 657-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

The claims procedure provided by section 46-72 will become a nullity if the time to submit a written notice of a claim were identical to the time to file a lawsuit.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2208 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/Linda Lingle
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

April 27, 2006

The Honorable Calvin K. Y. Say, Speaker
and Members of the House of Representatives
Twenty-Third State Legislature
State Capitol, Room 431

Honolulu, Hawaii 968 13

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2602 SD1

On April 26, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2602, entitled "Relating to Adult Probation Records" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill adds persons and entities to the list of those who are allowed access to adult probation records to include court officers and designated social workers. The bill also allows the court to give contact information of current and former defendants to attorneys or collection agencies contracted to collect court penalties, fees, and judgments.

The statutory changes under Senate Bill No. 2602 have generally met the original intent of the bill to improve services to offenders, victims, and the community through selective release of information under collaborative relationships. The bill sought the release of information to selected individuals who facilitated the collection of delinquent monetary penalties and restitution. It also sought release of information to service providers to ensure offenders receive the proper substance abuse treatment.

The standard practice in substance abuse treatment is that the risk assessment and need for treatment services are obtained by a provider before placement decisions are made. Senate Bill No. 2602, however, states that the defendant's risk assessment and need for treatment services "shall be given only upon the acceptance or admittance of the defendant into a treatment program." Providing such information after the client is admitted is contrary to standard clinical practice, since a client should be admitted only if there is an assessed need for treatment.

Treatment providers, which are private nonprofit entities, objected to the above provision since it may result in admissions of clients who require specialized services that may be beyond a provider's program capacity or are inappropriate for the offender.

The Judiciary has indicated that despite these possible problems, they are willing to monitor the effects of the law and make suggested statutory changes to the 2007 Legislature.

Therefore, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2602 SD1 to become law as Act 36 effective April 26, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/Linda Lingle

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering bills on Final Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Abinsay, Saiki, Takai, Takamine and Waters were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 6-06 and S.B. No. 2924, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2924, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of this measure with some reservations. As the Committee Report states, this bill and the one that follows it, the impetus for drawing up these bills was a recent animal cruelty case where the Hawaiian Humane Society took in about 69 dogs that belonged to a man who was a constituent of mine and was a dog breeder. And by keeping the dogs for a very long time, while this case went to court, they incurred a lot of expenses for board and care for the animals.

"But in looking at the existing laws on animal cruelty, it really is a question of whether this man was really being cruel to the dogs. The dogs had food, the dogs had water, and the dogs had shelter. Some of the dogs were in the house, but many were outside in cages because they were going to be sold. I think that sometimes the Humane Society is overzealous. The owner of these dogs has a very large piece of property, had a lot of equipment on there. It was a little bit crowded with things like many people. They gather more than what they can really take care of.

"But as far as the animals, I don't see that as the law is written that he was being cruel to these animals. It wasn't like the case in Hawaii Kai where a woman was raising dogs and had them in a vacant apartment and came infrequently to check on the animals. This owner came home every night, every day, made sure the dogs had water and food, and then he would exercise various dogs each day. So I'm just concerned that we are perhaps overreacting in this situation. If the Humane Society rather than taking possession of all these animals, had worked out something with the owner, they would not have incurred all the expense that they incurred. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2924, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRUELTY TO ANIMALS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Abinsay, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

FINAL ADOPTION

H.C.R. 12, S.D. 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 12, and H.C.R. 12, S.D. 1, entitled: "REQUESTING HAWAII'S CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION TO SEEK FEDERAL FUNDING TO BE USED FOR PROGRAMS AND MEASURES INTENDED TO PREVENT AND FIGHT AGAINST INVASIVE SPECIES IN HAWAII," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

H.C.R. 30, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 30, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have reservations. My reservations are, I know we're passing a bill to prohibit development, on the makai side, but it seems to me that there's some legal problems that we're going to run into if there are already agreements entered into, legal contracts entered into. And now we're urging a State entity, if you will, to break that agreement. It just makes me uncomfortable that we started with something and now we're just backing off. And it's just, we can just break a contract because we're the State, but if a company did that, there would be serious ramifications. Thank you."

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to clarify something. The terms of this agreement between HCDA and the successful bidder are such that actually either party legally can back out at any time. So while that may be the case that there would be normally legal ramifications if the State backed out of a contract, there are no such concerns in this particular case because those were the terms of the RFP. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this Resolution. I would also at this time like to publicly thank Alexander & Baldwin for being a very good corporate citizen in standing down and working with the State of Hawaii and with this Legislature to overcome public outcry, and perhaps maybe some wrong decisions.

"But with that being said, with regards to the liability to the State, I think it was very clear, through HCDA and Alexander & Baldwin, that the letter of intent to accept the process was actually to be implemented in January before we went into Session, and all parties agreed to stand down. So I think the liability question and the exposure to the State is not a very good argument.

"However, I would also say that, again on behalf of the people of Kakaako and the citizens of Hawaii, that this is a great Resolution and I hope that everyone here supports it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 30, HD 1, and H.C.R. 30, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "URGING THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY TO IMMEDIATELY RESCIND BOTH ITS REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS AND ANY CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT AWARDED, OR COMMITMENT MADE, TO ALEXANDER & BALDWIN PROPERTIES, INC. FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF KAKAOKO MAKAI," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 192, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with some concerns about this measure. Thank you. I believe the Attorney General's Office is adequately staffed and very capable of impartially investigating the reservoir dam collapse on Kauai. I don't think we need to ask them to appoint a special Deputy Attorney General. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I especially want to thank the Attorney General for working with me on a compromise with regard to this issue, and especially recognizing that the State may be in conflict in some of the civil actions in representing itself and defending itself. I just want to add additional written comments to the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, when this Body passed House Concurrent Resolution 192 in the form of a House Draft 1, I spoke at length about the concerns of many people in my community. These constituents were extremely disappointed in the Attorney General's negotiated guilty plea involving one of the owners of the Kaloko reservoir regarding an earlier environmental catastrophic event that resulted in criminal charges. Currently, as this investigation proceeds with the potential legal issues that may ensue over the Kaloko reservoir dam breach, the Attorney General's office may find itself in the position of not only prosecuting or suing a State agency, but defending it as well. Therefore, the investigation of the Kaloko reservoir dam breach, conclusions about its cause, and possible subsequent legal actions to place responsibility for it should not be jeopardized or mired in conflict of interest charges.

"Unfortunately, at this late date in this legislative Session, there was no way that we could amend statutes to allow for an independent investigator distinct from the Attorney General to hold the powers and authority of that office to fully investigate and, if necessary, prosecute this incident. However, I believe the language of the Senate Draft 1 is a fair compromise of the best way we can handle this situation under existing laws. Should this Body not be satisfied with the State's investigation, later, in the next legislative Session, we can authorize a legislative investigation of the incident, if necessary.

"This resolution also outlines the history of the United States Office of the Independent Counsel. The Special Counsel is an independent prosecutor distinct from the Attorney General of the United States Department of Justice that provides reports to the United States Congress under Title 28 of the United States Code, Section 595. Perhaps, to avoid this dilemma again, we should look at the Office of the Independent Counsel as a model or investigate other States for model legislation to authorize a Special Counsel before the need should ever arise.

"I especially want to thank the our House Chair of the Water, Land & Ocean Resources Committee and the Senate Chair of the Water, Land & Agriculture Committee, for working with me on this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 192, HD 1, and H.C.R. 192, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "REQUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO APPOINT A SPECIAL DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL TO INDEPENDENTLY AND IMPARTIALLY INVESTIGATE THE KALOKO RESERVOIR DAM COLLAPSE," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

H.C.R. 197, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 197, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to speak in favor of this Resolution. There is a lot of State land, which is under the control of the Department of Health, in the area around Leahi Hospital. It's adjacent to Kapiolani Community College. It's on the saddle of Diamond Head. And there are several blocks that belong to the State and there should be a master plan. I think this is a very good resolution. I would encourage all of you to vote for it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 197, and H.C.R. 197, S.D. 1, entitled: "REQUESTING LEAHI HOSPITAL TO DEVELOP A MASTER PLAN AND FINANCIAL FEASIBILITY REPORT FOR ITS EXISTING CAMPUS THAT WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ITS UNIQUE LOCATION AND RELATIONSHIPS IN EAST HONOLULU," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

H.C.R. 202, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 202, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support, but I do have a concern about this, if I may? Thank you. Mr. Speaker, if you notice, the House Concurrent Resolution would have included homeless in this examination of whether or not mobile home parks would be a possible option for solving that crisis, the lack of housing crisis. Unfortunately the Senate version only focuses on Hawaii's affordable housing. I think that we should have left homeless in and I'm sorry that we didn't have a chance to go to Conference on this matter to convince the Senate. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 202, HD 1, and H.C.R. 202, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "REQUESTING THE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF HAWAII, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES, THE DEPARTMENT OF HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS, THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS, THE LAND USE COMMISSION, THE OFFICE OF PLANNING, THE OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY CONTROL, THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES IN HAWAII, THE COUNTIES, AND THE AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND HOMELESS ALLIANCE TO STUDY THE USE OF MOBILE HOME PARKS AS A POSSIBLE OPTION FOR SOLVING HAWAII'S AFFORDABLE HOUSING CRISIS," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

H.C.R. 312, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 312, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stonebraker rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This is a Resolution requesting the Hawaii Institute for Human Rights to convene a working group to examine and make recommendations regarding United Nations' human rights instruments for adoption by the State of Hawaii.

"My problem is I don't believe that the United Nations has proven itself a paragon of exemplary behavior. Recently, the United Nations has admitted that many of its peacekeeping forces have violated the rights set forth in the Convention of the Rights of a Child. There have been reports of peacekeepers raping, abusing, and exploiting women and children, contrary to their declaration. What does that say to us about the people that created the document? They do not practice what they preach. For those reasons, I can't support this Resolution."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this. It did not come out of my Committee like this. Actually we asked for the Convention of the Child. But with the Conference Committee with the Senate, they wanted to broaden to a study of all of the kinds of human rights conventions that have been passed by the United States, and have not been passed by the United States.

"As far as the United Nations actually violating certain people, if you follow what has happened, the Secretary of the United Nations has really tackled that problem to clean it up.

"And I think for the United States, this applies to a former Resolution, one that we are agreeing to, and that is for Okinawa, where the United States troops have violated many of the human rights that we supposedly are telling people that they should do this. And for that reason, we have asked that some of these bases in Okinawa be moved. But I strongly support this and I think that by doing a taskforce on this area we can find out where, again the United States has not carried out many of the documents that we started when we started the United States, and also the human rights declaration.

"So we're hoping that the State of Hawaii can lead the United States as to how we carry out some of these decisions. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I've traveled through scores of countries, Mr. Speaker, and the human rights we have here in the United States are second to none. There are countries where you can't protest, you can't speak. You'll get run over by a tank or whatever it is. You'll get locked into jail for trying to do anything. Women still can't vote. The abuses that are around the world and with countries that are represented in the UN, the abuses that they have in their own countries are just horrendous. And yet they can see fit to come together in the United Nations and try to preach to countries like us, who have real human rights. We do have human rights here. We respect human rights. So Mr. Speaker, there's no way I can support a Resolution like this."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this Resolution. As the good Representative from Puna had mentioned, this is not the Resolution that left the House. But I'm very proud to be voting in favor of it and encourage my colleagues to think of the bigger picture.

"Last year, this Body passed, both us and the Senate, passed a draft of the UN Rights, Convention on the Rights of Indigenous People. When I sat in Geneva last summer, representing Hawaii and vis-a-vis the United States, at an interparliamentary union conference. We are the only state in the nation that recognizes the rights of indigenous people by adopting this UN convention draft. The United States was not present. The United States did not sign this.

"So when we look at the possibility that Hawaii has to be leaders in the planet for states of a free nation to adopt UN conventions and drafts, I think we have a tremendous opportunity to set the standard. And I appreciate the fact that the Senate has worked with us. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 312, HD 1, and H.C.R. 312, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "REQUESTING THE HAWAII INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS TO CONVEY A WORKING GROUP TO EXAMINE AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING UNITED NATIONS' HUMAN RIGHTS INSTRUMENTS FOR ADOPTION BY THE STATE OF HAWAII," was Adopted with Representatives Meyer, Moses and Stonebraker voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine being excused.

At this time, Representative B. Oshiro moved to keep the Journal open until 12:00 midnight this legislative day, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried. (Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine were excused.)

At 7:46 o'clock p.m., on motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried, the House of Representatives stood in recess until 6:30 o'clock p.m. tomorrow, Friday, April 28, 2006. (Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki, Takai and Takamine were excused.)

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR #1 CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Before going on to the Unfinished Business, the Chair would like to say a few words regarding Supplemental Calendar No. 1 on your desk. For all of you, the following measures were filed with the Clerk's Office and were dated May 2nd, 2006.

"As you may know, the Senate President and I waived the Friday deadline for filing the Conference Committee Reports and Conference Drafts for these ten House bills.

"I wanted to take this opportunity to explain the procedural reasons for why these reports and bills were not filed on Friday night, and the reason the President and I waived the deadline.

"Back on December 13, 2005, the Senate President and I prepared an internal legislative timetable, setting April 28th as the last day to file fiscal bills to deck for Final Reading. On March 24th of this year, the President and I signed the Conference Committee Guidelines that provide, in paragraph 10(c), that all Conference Committee reports shall be filed by 11:30 p.m. on Friday, April 28th.

"However, several measures were being negotiated up to the last minutes on Friday night. Several Conference Committees, even though they had reached agreement on the substance of these ten measures, did not have the time to prepare and adequately review the reports and final form of the Conference Drafts prior to the filing deadline.

"Therefore, the President and I exercised our powers under Rule 12 of the Conference Committee Guidelines, to make an exception to this deadline for these bills. The reason we granted this exception was to provide the Conference Members with an opportunity to make sure that the Conference Reports and the Conference Drafts accurately reflected the agreements made on Friday evening.

"The President and I felt that since the Conferees had reached timely agreement on these bills, allowing these bills to die based on an internal procedural deadline for filing paperwork with the Clerk's office, was not in the best interests of the people of Hawaii.

"Rather, we felt it important to exercise the discretion that the Guidelines gave us to waive that deadline and ensure that the tax relief provided for in House Bill No. 957, as well as other important initiatives, would reach the floor of both houses for Final Reading as the Conference Committees intended.

"I wish to emphasize to all of you that previous Legislatures, when facing similar problems in past years, have followed the same procedure we will be following with these measures. These bills are listed on today's Supplemental Calendar No. 1 on the Order of the Day.

"Please note that these bills will receive the proper 48-hour notice of final form as required by the Constitution and will be before this House for Final Reading on Thursday."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 163-06 and H.B. No. 1900, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Takamine moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1900, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Kawakami

Representative Takamine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, the budget has always been a collective effort. Because there was so much demand on resources available, it was even more critical that this budget be a product of many voices. Otherwise, Mr. Speaker, we would not be able to agree on its priorities.

"I'd like to first thank the Leadership and all the Committee Chairs for providing the framework for this budget. All the hard work of the various interim workgroups led by your Committee Chairs as they held hearings and briefings statewide to find answers to the critical issues we face today have culminated in the priorities of this budget.

"I'd also like to thank the efforts of the Members of the Finance Committee. Beginning late last summer in August, the Finance Committee embarked on site visits that would encompass all islands. Those visits allowed us to see firsthand the challenges faced by our various communities.

"Mr. Speaker, I thank the Finance Committee staff for all their hard work in organizing our interim site visits, as well as all the time dedicated to analyzing the details of the budget and all the other bills that tied into the Executive Budget.

"Mr. Speaker, I would be remiss if I didn't acknowledge the hard work of your Grants-in-Aid Subcommittee Chair, Representative Magaoay, and I would like to thank Representative Nakasone and his staff for all their hard work on the CIP portion of the budget.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to also acknowledge and thank the tremendous contribution of Vice Chair Kawakami. Her insight and knowledge of the budget has been invaluable over the years. Vice Chair, thank you for all your support.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I would also like to acknowledge our Senate counterparts, Chair Taniguchi and his conferees, who were integral partners in crafting the Conference Draft of our State budget.

"Mr. Speaker, in your Opening Day remarks you challenged us. You pointed out that, and I quote from your remarks:

We need to take a collective deep breath and think hard before we decide what to do. As good stewards, we know there is a significant responsibility on our shoulders. We must make the right choices. Why? Because we may not have another chance like this for a long time.

"Rather than squandering this incredible opportunity, we took a balanced, fiscally responsible approach to this budget. During the mid to late 1990s, many states enjoyed economic booms that provided unprecedented revenues – a situation similar to what we face today. In response, these states both increased their spending, as well as reduced their taxes. These actions created structural deficits in their budgets, and when recession hit, these states were faced with making tough choices, which included raising taxes and cutting essential programs.

"We took a lesson from the past, Mr. Speaker, and heavily scrutinized new funding initiatives and tax cuts that would have created similar obligations in the future. We cannot and should not sacrifice the future of our children for short-term political gain.

"We began this Session with numerous ideas on how to spend our surplus. Our challenge was to strike a balance between providing for the numerous unmet needs in our communities caused by tight budgeting and ensuring a prosperous future for our State.

"You challenged us, Mr. Speaker, to reinvent our future. We did just that. This budget is one step towards doing so. Funding in several bills that we will be voting on later will more fully define that future.

"Mr. Speaker, we have repeatedly recognized that our children are our most precious resource. Our first, and perhaps our greatest, single priority is to ensure them a safe and prosperous future. That future begins in a safe, clean, and productive learning environment."

Representative Schatz rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takamine continued, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, our communities demanded that we fix our schools – both public schools and our colleges and universities.

Mr. Speaker, we did just that.

"Governor Lingle provided a mere $40 million to fix schools. That's a drop in the bucket, Mr. Speaker, to tackle a backlog of repairs that amount to about $525 million and grows by $75 million every year. We're providing $230 million in cash and bonds for this purpose. Our efforts will reduce the immediate backlog by one-third.

"Mr. Speaker, we could have the best primary educational system available, but it would be wasted, if it weren't also a door to higher learning opportunities. We found that our community college system and university system was suffering from a problem very similar to that of public education – decaying infrastructure. The Governor proposed to provide the university system with just $10 million to address all of its critical repair needs. That's simply not enough.

"The University of Hawaii System has a backlog of over $160 million. Our budget proposes $50 million to take a major bite out of the repair and maintenance backlog.

"Mr. Speaker, in the process of building a stronger, more prosperous Hawaii, we cannot lose sight of our responsibility to the most vulnerable in our communities. If we are to invent a new future for ourselves, we cannot afford to leave anyone behind. We must improve the quality of life for all.

"Some people have said that we're too late to do anything about the affordable housing crunch. That doesn't mean that we shouldn't tackle the problem head on. Mr. Speaker, we did just that.

"As a start, $50 million has been set aside to provide for an array of services for the homeless and to assure that affordable rentals will be available in the future. In addition, over $34 million has been provided to decrease the number of people without health insurance; provide for dental services for low-income families; and support our rural hospitals in the delivery of efficient, high-quality healthcare services.

"Our quality of life also depends on the responsible use of our natural resources. Finding new ways to conserve energy and develop the technologies that allow us to decrease our dependence on oil are urgent priorities, not only for our citizens, but for our businesses that provide jobs for everyone. In order to address these efforts, we need to develop a comprehensive energy strategy and Mr. Speaker, we did just that.

"$40 million will be invested in renewable energy incentives and research and development of new technologies and applications.

"Mr. Speaker, we are at a turning point in our State's history. The many sacrifices that we have collectively made have brought us to the point where economic diversity is no longer just a buzz-word. It is a part of a reality ..."

Representative Caldwell rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takamine continued, stating:

"Thank you. It is part of a reality that is starting to blossom. We stand on the edge of a brighter future for the State built on a foundation of years of visionary, steadfast, and difficult decisions.

"Not everyone will agree with the choices made. Some will say we could have done more to pay for programs and services. Others will say that we could have not cut enough taxes. I beg to differ.

"We must seize the opportunity we now have to really plan for the long term. We must not squander this chance to chart a new course. We don't know what the future holds, but that's exactly why we must exercise fiscal restraint.

"Mr. Speaker, we saw what happened in February and March when our communities were inundated with heavy rains that caused much suffering. Governor Lingle requested over $60 million to address this situation.

"Due to funding requirements of the ongoing war in Iraq, President Bush has already made cuts in federal funding that are being felt by this budget. For example, the Even Start Family Literacy program has already been cut by 60%. The President is now requesting that this program be eliminated.

"We've provided substantial resources to the Department of Education to fix our schools and address our repair and maintenance backlog. But our work is just beginning. Even if we were able to provide the DOE with $150 million more per year, it would take until 2013 – six years from now – to totally eliminate the backlog.

"Mr. Speaker, the balanced combination of one-time funding and recurring expenses in this budget will ensure that we are prepared for uncertainty. This is a fiscally prudent, responsible and responsive budget that focuses on improving the quality of life for all the people of Hawaii. This is a budget that reinvents, defines and sets us on the path to that brighter, more prosperous future.

"Therefore, I urge my colleagues' support. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in support with some comments. Thank you. Thanks to Hawaii's hardworking people and our Administration's 'open for business' policies and attitude, Hawaii's economy is robust and continues to grow. We have the lowest unemployment rate in the nation. Employment is available for just about anybody in Hawaii who is willing to work. This, combined with some of the highest taxes in the nation has produced a very large surplus, which we have invested in public safety, healthcare, human services, alternative energy, transportation, our aina, our heritage, and education. These are all fundamental services that make our State a better place to live. In addition, many emergency situations receive necessary funding.

"Unfortunately Mr. Speaker, while some entire areas received everything asked for and more, often much, much more, others appeared to be intentionally singled out for reduced attention. I supported education since before my first election Mr. Speaker. It's what brought me here into politics.

"I'm not opposed to giving money to our schools. There's probably no more noble cause, but I question where the money has been used by the Department of Education. I believe that too much money has been provided with insufficient guidance and oversight. Money has been provided in amounts beyond the Department's ability to properly spend it, with the results that some funds sit in the DOE's account while our children still lack essentials and our citizens continue to pay taxes that are too high and other programs are deprived of needed funds.

"It would make better fiscal sense to appropriate an amount the DOE has the capacity to spend. Our tax dollars should be working for the taxpayers. Circulating through the economy not tucked under a mattress at the DOE.

"Although in another bill, House Bill 957, that you refer to earlier, that will be before us on Thursday, there is some income tax relief that was taken up at the last minute this Session – about $51 million for our residents and approximately $9 million for flood relief. That's very good. That's out of the surplus that exceeds $700 million. There should have been more and it should have been done much sooner and it should be immediate. Immediate relief for the taxpayers. Our hardworking families were not considered for the benefits of their labor until at the deadline for taking action.

"Mr. Speaker, surely we all realized that money for tax relief to hard working families is circulated back through the marketplace, back through our entire economy and it makes our economy even stronger.

"On another subject, Mr. Speaker, I'm personally very saddened by the fact that while the DOE has benefited so grandly, the University of Hawaii did not receive needed funds for many program IDs, nor any of the funds for the badly needed West Oahu campus. It is true that the House provided $200 million in B funds for the construction of the new campus in Kapolei and that the Senate deleted the money, but the final result remains that the people of West Oahu must wait for the badly needed campus despite the State's budget surplus.

"I like to end by commending this Body for providing badly needed funds for a North-South Road, sufficient funds to move ahead with the Kapolei Judiciary Complex, and funds for many needed and well deserved grants-in-aid. Although some projects I talked about are in the Second City at Kapolei, they are projects that are for the benefit of the entire island and I believe for the entire State. That's why I singled them out. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just in support, Mr. Speaker. And I want to use the words of the previous speaker and to also thank this Body for also including the whole Ewa Plain in their priorities this year. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, but I do have some reservations. Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, we reviewed a lot of the budget bill and the Conference Committee Report and I did want to thank the Chair of Finance, as well as the Chair of Ways and Means in the Senate, and all those who participated in this bill. I know that this takes a lot of work so the comments that I have are meant to not disrespect anyone because I know that this budget, it still does a lot of good funding for our State.

"Mr. Speaker, some of the reservations that I have would be that as I look at it, there are a couple things that stood out in my mind as to our overall picture and what we're trying to accomplish as a State with government, and one of those is the issue in regards to an alternative to the HYCF situation that we have. It was brought to my attention that there is another alternative which is called the 'safe house.' And this safe house is an alternative from sending these youths over to Oahu, to and going to HYCF, instead staying on some of their own islands and Neighbor Islands. Some of that money has not been included in the budget and what that means is less alternatives for these youths on these Neighborhood Islands.

"We all know the challenges that they're having over there and that particular pilot project was visited by the US Department of Health and Human Services. The Administrator, I think he's the Secretary, and he said, that basically it was a great pilot project, that it was a good alternative and that it should be supported. And it would be nice, I think that some of the other areas like Maui and Kauai and West Hawaii were also included in some of that money to be able to fund that project.

"Another one that comes that stuck out to me was also for the DLNR's budget to help with the water access for the thousand affordable homes over in North Kona. You know, we are talking about different affordable housing measures and that would have been a good opportunity to increase our affordable housing on that side of the island.

"Overall, Mr. Speaker, I look at the bill and I want to thank, the Finance Committee for supporting Charter Schools. It does show support of Charter Schools in this particular area.

"In regard to schools in general, one of the things that I stood up and I've talked about throughout this whole Session is allowing the schools to be able to prioritize their own spending and through that and through community involvement we would be able to have meaningful programs, not just spread out throughout the whole State, but meaningful programs for each school level, at the school level and some of what's in the budget detracts from that. It basically says that, here we have DOE making the decisions for the school level needs and priorities, so I would have preferred if we put more money into school level priorities.

"Mr. Speaker, some of the things also that I'm concerned about is the Standard of Need. That particular bill, the money for that bill, it's really budget neutral. So in the beginning of the Session I talked about if we wanted to help the poor, that this is an area where we would be able to help them. The Standard of Need allows for more money going to groups like the aged, blind, and disabled, and although we are looking at a bill for that, it's considered 'budget neutral' and so it doesn't necessarily allow them to receive more money.

"As I look at this, let me see ... The other thing the main thing in regards to my reservations, however ..."

Representative Thielen rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think the main issue for me though with my reservation, is not having an overall picture with a six-year financial plan to be able to take a look at how this all fits together, and not just look in a bubble and say, 'Okay this is the budget and we have so many other bills that have fiscal implications to the State.' We have debt service. We have ongoing support for these programs. We have a lot of things in '07 in regards to our collective bargaining increases and other items that we don't have an ability to take a look into the future, and see how that works with our future stability, the financial stability of our State. Mr. Speaker, that's why I rise with reservations and I thank the hard work that everyone has put into it."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 236-06 and H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

At this time, Representative M. Oshiro offered Floor Amendment No. 6 amending H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 as follows:

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 3115, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 (RELATING TO PETROLEUM INDUSTRY), is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the oil industry has in the past, and if unchecked, will likely in the future, use oligopolistic powers to set artificially high prices in Hawaii for motor fuel and other petroleum products. Disadvantaged by the secrecy in the industry, elected officials and the public are denied accurate assessments of the true causes of higher prices. True and effective transparency would be an effective tool to prevent the use of price maintenance schemes or other illegal behavior that artificially raises consumer prices.

While true transparency should provide benefits for Hawaii consumers, the legislature further finds that the combination of the state's geographical isolation and the market control exercised by the oil companies necessitate additional measures to safeguard the public. While the effectiveness of increased transparency is tested, the current maximum wholesale price of gasoline should be suspended but the governor should have the ability to reinstate it in the event transparency does not provide the relief needed and the oil industry maintains excessively high prices. The governor should have the authority to reinstate the maximum wholesale price upon publication of a finding that its reinstatement is beneficial to the economic well-being, health, or safety of the people of the State.

The legislature further finds that the establishment and allocation of adequate resources for a vigorous state watchdog system to monitor and oversee the petroleum industry and gasoline market is a prerequisite to ensure an efficient market. The public disclosure, collection, aggregation, and analyses of current data relating to Hawaii petroleum fuel prices, volumes, costs, and profits, and the subsequent reporting of this information to planning and enforcement agencies, such as the departments of the attorney general, business, economic development, and tourism, and taxation, for review and assessment, is critical in ensuring compliance with the letter and spirit of the laws and regulations designed to promote fair and competitive gasoline prices for Hawaii's consumers.

The purposes of this Act are to:

- (1) Require true transparency by the oil industry to increase competition and provide the public and elected officials with the necessary monitoring capability to discourage the industry from using price maintenance schemes or other anti-competitive practices that artificially raise consumer prices;
- (2) Suspend the maximum gasoline wholesale price while leaving the governor the ability to reinstate it if oil companies maintain excessively high prices that are detrimental to the economic well-being, health, or safety of the people of the state;
- (3) Require the public utilities commission to develop and maintain the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program, including an automated petroleum industry information reporting system;

- (4) Redelineate the types of information that the petroleum industry must submit to the public utilities commission;
- (5) Appropriate funds to be expended by the public utilities commission to establish and maintain the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program; and
- (6) Prohibit unfair trade practices by the petroleum industry.

PART I

SECTION 2. Chapter 486J, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§486J-A Informational cost reports. (a) Each refiner shall file with the commission, on a quarterly basis, in compliance with reporting dates established by the commission, on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the commission, a certified statement of operating and overhead costs for the refiner's Hawaii operations that shall include but not be limited to the following:

- (1) Crude oil costs and sources;
- (2) Other feedstock costs and sources;

- (1) Gasoline purchases, exchanges, and sources;
- (2) Diesel purchases, exchanges, and sources;
- (3) Marketing expenses; and

§486J-B Petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program. The commission shall establish the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program that includes development and maintenance of an automated petroleum industry information reporting system that meets the requirements of government, industry, and the public while promoting sound policy making and consumer information and protection. The purpose of the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program is to conduct and facilitate the efficient analysis and reporting of all information and data provided by the petroleum industry pursuant to this chapter. The commission shall develop the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis, and reporting program in a manner that will result in greater market transparency and provide useful information to the general public and those agencies that are authorized or mandated to conduct oversight of the petroleum industry and ensure compliance with all relevant laws."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that Floor Amendment No. 6 be adopted, seconded by Representative Finnegan.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe I rise in opposition to this amendment. If I may explain, Mr. Speaker, this particular amendment addresses, perhaps, one of the most contentious issues that we have faced in this Legislature – the repeal of the gas cap. This matter had numerous hearings, numerous upon numerous meetings in Conference Committee, and I think many of us, and along with many consumers and many advocates for consumers were present at 3 minutes to 12:00 when this Senate Draft was agreed to by our conferees, which is lead by the Chair of Judiciary and the Chair of Transportation.

"I'd really like to thank them for those amendments, which brings me to the issue of why at this time are we looking to make such radical changes to a measure that I think would have had, or will have, such a great impact to help the people of Hawaii. I was so looking forward today to voting yes on the agreement reached by the conferees. Perhaps maybe if the introducer of the floor amendment would agree to receive a question from me, perhaps maybe it might be more settling for us before we vote on this amendment. Pursuant to Mason's Rule section 114 will the introducer rise for a question of explanation of the amendments?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Harbin, who are you addressing this question to? Representative Marcus Oshiro, will you yield to a question at this point and time?"

Representative M. Oshiro responded, stating:

"No."

Representative Harbin responded, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Representative. It's very unfortunate for the consumers of Hawaii to be deprived of an answer."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 6 amending H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY," be adopted was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

[Note: Floor Amendment No. 6 was adopted on May 2, 2006 at 1:23 p.m. A motion to reconsider the adoption of Floor Amendment No. 6 was made and carried on May 2, 2006 at 2:17 p.m.]

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 25-06 and S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1:

At this time, Representative Kanoho offered Floor Amendment No. 7 amending S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2006, S.D. 3, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by amending section 1 to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. In recent years, the number of edible opihi found in Hawaii has declined. The popularity of opihi as a delicacy has led to overharvesting on the island of Oahu and has made opihi difficult to find on the neighbor islands.

The blackfoot opihi (Cellana exarata), also known as "makaiauli," once the most common limpet in Hawaiian waters, is found in the upper wash of waves. The yellowfoot opihi (Cellana sandwicensis), also known as "alinalina," is the preferred species for eating. It is found in the wash of waves, roughly between the habitats of the blackfoot opihi and koele, the third type of edible opihi in Hawaii. Koele is also known as the "kneecap" opihi (Cellana talcosa). There is also a fourth type of opihi (Cellana melanostoma) observed in Kaua'i that probably also could be found in Niihau.

Although opihi can be collected year-round, opihi shells must be at least one and a quarter inches wide, or the meat must be at least a half-inch wide, to be legally harvested in Hawaii.

The purpose of this Act is to prohibit the sale of all Hawaiian species of edible opihi, subject to an exemption for certain opihi shells used to make jewelry ~~[and for residents of any populated island that is privately owned and has a population of five hundred or less].~~

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2006, S.D. 3, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by amending section 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. Section 188-42.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"[H]§188-42.5[H] Hihiwai, hapawai, opihi, and opae kala'ole selling prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person at any time to sell or offer for sale any hihiwai, hapawai, opihi, ~~[and]~~ or opae kala'ole taken from any of the waters within the jurisdiction of the State. ~~[; provided that it shall not be unlawful for a resident of any populated island that is privately owned and has a population of five hundred or less to sell or offer for sale any amount of opihi.]~~ It shall be presumed that the taking of more than one-half gallon per person per day of opihi, as measured with its shell on, from any of the waters within the jurisdiction of the State, is for the purpose of selling or offering to sell opihi.

As used in this section, "opihi" means all known Hawaiian opihi species, including Cellana exarata (blackfoot), Cellana sandwicensis (yellowfoot), Cellana talcosa (koele), and Cellana melanostoma.

The prohibition to sell or offer for sale any opihi as provided by this section shall not apply to opihi shells at least one and one-fourth inches in diameter, sold or offered for sale as a curio or jewelry, or as part of a curio or jewelry; provided that the taking of the opihi for these purposes is in compliance with this section."

Representative Kanoho moved that Floor Amendment No. 7 be adopted, seconded by Representative Schatz.

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 7 amending S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1 entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROHIBITING SALES OF OPIHI," be adopted was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

At 1:23 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:30 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, at this time, we are on page 1. Before proceeding on, let me state for the record that the four floor amendments that we adopted earlier have been clocked with the 48-hour notice. So when these amendments were adopted on the Floor, the 48-hour clock started. So these measures will be addressed on Thursday at the point that it was adopted, sometime around 1:10, 1:15, 1:20 on each of them."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-06 and S.B. No. 2479, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2479, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm going to vote in favor of this measure, but I still have some serious reservations and I'd like to just mention what those are. They're basically the same concerns that Earthjustice brought up. This bill and I believe it's one other that we'll come to subsequently, address the irrigation systems. This bill will propose an amendment to a provision in the State Constitution and it will provide for a special purpose revenue bond for certain agricultural infrastructure.

"Earthjustice comments that the irrigation systems these bills seeks to support were originally built by plantation interests who assumed that water was their property and ignored the impacts of diversions on public streams, local farmers, and communities. We know that there was a landmark ruling of the Hawaii Supreme Court in 1978 and then the enactment of the State Water Code in 1987. Both made it clear that water is a public trust resource and the State has a responsibility as trustee to protect and restore public streams being diverted.

"My concern is that this State and the Water Commission hasn't yet set up the stream flow standards, so to go ahead and allow business as usual without this stream flow standards being set up could be detrimental to our local farmers, and for those reasons I am concerned about it, and as I will also be about the measure a few pages later. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2479, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII, SECTION 12, OF THE HAWAII STATE CONSTITUTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

S.B. No. 2479, HD 1, CD 1, passed Final Reading in the following form:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2-06 and S.B. No. 995, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 995, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is a bad bill. It seeks to perpetuate a status quo – a male dominated Hawaii Supreme Court, and chokes off the infusion of new blood and new ideas into our highest court. Women now comprise almost 50% of the graduates from the William S. Richardson School of Law, but there is only one female Supreme Court Justice.

"With no mandatory retirement age, it will help perpetuate inequality. I also oppose this bill because, while it is true that many persons over the age of 70 are still mentally and physically capable, this is often not the case.

"Mr. Speaker, this Legislature has recognized that very fact during the Session when it passed Senate Bill 2051 just a few days ago, which requires additional testing every two years for commercial driver's licenses over age 72, which this Body obviously believed to be both prudent and constitutional.

"Such is not possible for Supreme Court Justices. There is no biannual testing of their physical condition. No review of their work. We have the highest court in the State and their decisions stand without recourse. It is true that they must be reconfirmed by the Judicial Selection Commission every ten years, but at that age, physical and mental changes often occur very rapidly and ten years is far too long for reassessment.

"Given tremendous responsibilities placed upon these Justices and lack of oversight or recourse, it is only prudent, Mr. Speaker, that the inevitable effects of aging be considered and we take reasonable precautions to preclude the possibility that they are serving with impaired judgment by requiring retirement at age 70. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I would first like to point out that our United States Supreme Court, the highest court in the land, has no retirement age and up until recently, there were two women Justices serving as long they wanted to. So an age limitation has nothing to do with the number of women who serve in our courts.

"But more importantly, Mr. Speaker, I don't see how forcing a judge to retire at the age of 70 has anything to do with improving the quality of justice in our country or in our State. If you read Article III, Section 1 of the United States Constitution, it states simply, Mr. Speaker, 'that judges shall hold their offices during good behavior.' Plain and simple – nothing else. Which means unless they violate some law, they should not be forced to be removed.

"And it's interesting, Mr. Speaker, to somehow just pick the age of 70 as an age of retirement. We all know people who up until their 90s as judges, are totally cognizant and issue incredible decisions. One of those was Martin Pence. One of the great judges in the federal District Court, and it's sad that he's no longer here to make decisions. And others we know who are in their 50s who I believe in a way, have a diminished mental capacity and I wish they weren't sitting on the court, but they are and that's, plain and simple, the facts.

"But Mr. Speaker, I tried to look back to see how did we get to this point, where at least in the founding of our country and the United States Supreme Court, they didn't put a mandatory retirement age.

You can look to Alexander Hamilton and Federalist Paper number 79 and he quotes, and I want to quote him to you, Mr. Speaker:

The deliberating and comparing faculties generally preserve their strength much beyond that period in men who survive it; and when, in addition to this circumstance, we consider how few there are who outlive the season of intellectual vigor, and how improbable it is that any considerable portion of the bench, whether more or less numerous, should be in such a situation at the same time, we shall be ready to conclude that limitations of this sort have little to recommend them.

"Basically Mr. Speaker, he's stating in Federalist 79, that there should be no retirement age. That people who serve into their older years, serve and rule and issue justice just as well as those who are younger.

"Another thing Mr. Speaker, it's interesting we all received a letter from the Governor regarding this provision, and basically the Governor argued that somehow by us lifting the retirement age, we're going to be impeding the movement of minorities and women in our State judiciary, and that caught my eye. I think it caught many of our eyes because we are concerned. We want to support the noble cause of moving forward against discrimination against women and minorities.

"But I have to say Mr. Speaker, I don't think there's anyone in this Body who would support getting rid of one form of discrimination, in this case age discrimination, to support another. Both are noble and both need to be supported, and the first step is to appoint more women to the bench. We hope that the Governor continues to do that as she goes forward.

"I do want to point out that despite that statement by this Governor, we have currently as our Chief Justice a man of Korean descent. We had a Chief Justice, who I served under as one of his clerks who was of Native Hawaiian and Chinese descent, William S. Richardson. And we had a Japanese Supreme Court Justice. So that in itself is a problem we can point to and I hope we continue to do that.

"In the end, Mr. Speaker, this is much about getting rid of one form of discrimination, plain and simple, and that is age discrimination. So I hope all of us today will support this constitutional amendment and put it up before the voters. Thank you."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I kind of take personal objection. I am very much for this. Thank you. You know, I didn't even start here as a legislator until 82. I am going to leave at 88, but not because I'm too old. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support and I'm glad the Legislature doesn't have an age requirement otherwise we wouldn't have the benefit of the knowledge and experience of the Legislator from Puna.

"But I just wanted to state that even if we get rid of the age requirement, it doesn't mean judges don't go through some type of review process. The judges have a ten-year judicial selection retention process. The judges also go through the Judicial Conduct Commission which has routinely requested judges to leave the bench when the Commission felt that the judges were no longer capable of ruling in that capacity.

"The other thing is, if we are concerned about the lack of representation of women, it's not because of what the age requirement has done. If we look at the judges who have been removed by the Judicial Selection Commission in the last few years, the last five judges have been women, and it's the Judicial Selection Commission that has gotten rid of women judges. So if we want to do something about that, we need to look at what the Judicial Selection Commission has done in the past five years. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Unfortunately I'm rising in opposition to this measure. I had a very hard time coming to this decision, and the only reason I'm voting against this measure is because I truly feel that we are going through a social change in the State of Hawaii and I really question whether or not, because I think part of being a judge or a justice is to understand what society is asking of its judicial interpretations. And I just feel that many of our judges are perhaps maybe a little out of step. I think an infusion of some of the younger leaders that we have in our State will give them more opportunity to step forward and perhaps maybe change the way we look at things. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This limit of 70 years was put in our Constitution many, many years ago and I don't think it's ... It was fine for all those years, but now that we have a Republican as a Governor, this bill comes up and I truly feel that this may have something to do wanting to preclude the Governor, should she get elected for the next four years, from being able to appoint people to the Supreme Court. I don't think it's about suddenly not wanting to discriminate against age. There were many, many Democrats before you folks here who thought this was fine, and now it is not fine. And I think that has more to do with this bill than anything else. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a short comment in opposition. And to clear up the perception, maybe what we could do is, what we should have done is, just for sitting judges, not to include them in this bill. They were put on as judges with the retirement age of 70. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 995, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VI, SECTION 3, OF THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION TO REMOVE THE MANDATORY RETIREMENT AGE FOR STATE JUSTICES AND JUDGES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 13 noes, with Representatives Arakaki, Finnegan, Harbin, Halford, Lee, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Sonson, Stevens, Stonebraker, Takumi and Thielen voting no.

S.B. No. 995, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, passed Final Reading in the following form:

S.B. No. 995, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VI, SECTION 3, OF THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION TO REMOVE THE MANDATORY RETIREMENT AGE FOR STATE JUSTICES AND JUDGES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that in today's society, individuals are living longer, healthier lives, as evidenced by the growing number of older individuals throughout the country as well as the world. The legislature further finds that a benefit of our aging society is the wisdom, experience, and skills that these older individuals possess, which should be both valued and respected, particularly in the workforce.

The legislature determines that the antiquated notion that all individuals are no longer mentally or physically fit to be contributing members of the workforce once they reach a certain age must be abolished. This point is particularly striking when examining the age restriction placed upon Hawaii's justices and judges, who are highly educated individuals who have served as learned members of the bar and now the bench. The wealth of knowledge and experience in interpreting Hawaii's laws that is retained by these individuals is invaluable to the residents of Hawaii.

SECTION 2. The purpose of this Act is to propose an amendment to article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to repeal the mandatory retirement age of seventy for all state court justices and judges.

SECTION 3. Article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii is amended to read as follows:

"APPOINTMENT OF JUSTICES AND JUDGES

Section 3. The governor, with the consent of the senate, shall fill a vacancy in the office of the chief justice, supreme court, intermediate appellate court and circuit courts, by appointing a person from a list of not less than four, and not more than six, nominees for the vacancy, presented to the governor by the judicial selection commission.

If the governor fails to make any appointment within thirty days of presentation, or within ten days of the senate's rejection of any previous appointment, the appointment shall be made by the judicial selection commission from the list with the consent of the senate. If the senate fails to reject any appointment within thirty days thereof, it shall be deemed to have given its consent to ~~[such]~~ the appointment. If the senate ~~[shall reject]~~ rejects any appointment, the governor shall make another appointment from the list within ten days thereof. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made, or failing this, the commission shall make the appointment from the list, without senate consent.

The chief justice, with the consent of the senate, shall fill a vacancy in the district courts by appointing a person from a list of not less than six nominees for the vacancy presented by the judicial commission. If the chief justice fails to make the appointment within thirty days of presentation, or within ten days of the senate's rejection of any previous appointment, the appointment shall be made by the judicial selection commission from the list with the consent of the senate. The senate must hold a public hearing and vote on each appointment within thirty days of any appointment. If the senate fails to do so, the nomination shall be returned to the commission and the commission shall make the appointment from the list without senate consent. The chief justice shall appoint per diem district court judges as provided by law.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT

Justices and judges shall be residents and citizens of the State and of the United States, and licensed to practice law by the supreme court. A justice of the supreme court, a judge of the intermediate appellate court and a judge of the circuit court shall have been so licensed for a period of not less than ten years preceding nomination. A judge of the district court shall have been so licensed for a period of not less than five years preceding nomination.

No justice or judge shall, during the term of office, engage in the practice of law, or run for or hold any other office or position of profit under the United States, the State or its political subdivisions.

TENURE; COMPENSATION; RETIREMENT

The term of office of justices and judges of the supreme court, intermediate appellate court and circuit courts shall be ten years. Judges of district courts shall hold office for the periods as provided by law. At least six months prior to the expiration of a justice's or judge's term of office, every justice and judge shall petition the judicial selection commission to be retained in office or shall inform the commission of an intention to retire. If the judicial selection commission determines that the justice or judge should be retained in office, the commission shall renew the term of office of ~~[such]~~ the justice or judge for the period provided by this section or by law.

There shall be a salary commission to review and recommend salaries for justices and judges of all state courts. Justices and judges shall have salaries as provided by law. Their compensation shall not be decreased during their respective terms of office, unless by general law applying to all salaried officers of the State. ~~[They shall be retired upon attaining the age of seventy years.]~~ They shall be included in any retirement law of the State."

SECTION 4. The question to be printed on the ballot shall be as follows:

"Shall the mandatory retirement age of seventy for all state court justices and judges be repealed?"

SECTION 5. Constitutional material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New constitutional material is underscored.

SECTION 6. This amendment shall take effect upon compliance with article XVII, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

S.B. No. 2246, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1

A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE I OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII RELATING TO SEXUAL

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to propose an amendment to article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to provide that the legislature may define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age and what constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction.

Under current Hawaii law, it is difficult to prosecute those who repeatedly sexually assault a child, because of the difficulty young children have in remembering the individual dates on which they were sexually assaulted. This amendment would allow the legislature to enact a law that would permit juries to convict a person of the continuous sexual assault of a minor younger than fourteen years of age, if each member of the jury was convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant had sexually assaulted the child the required number of times (such as three), even if there were not unanimity as to the individual assaults. This would make it easier to prosecute those who repeatedly sexually assault a child.

The legislature passed such a law in 1997, but that law was invalidated by the Hawaii supreme court. An amendment similar to this amendment was proposed to the voters in 2004 and the amendment was invalidated by the Hawaii supreme court.

SECTION 2. Article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"SEXUAL ASSAULT CRIMES AGAINST MINORS

Section . In continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age, the legislature may define:

1. What behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct; and

2. What constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction."

SECTION 3. The question to be printed on the ballot shall be as follows:

"Shall the Constitution of the State of Hawaii be amended to provide that in continuous sexual assault crimes against minors younger than fourteen years of age, the legislature may define:

(1) What behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct; and

(2) What constitutes the jury unanimity that is required for a conviction?"

SECTION 4. New constitutional material is underscored.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall take effect upon compliance with article XVII, section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 12-06 and S.B. No. 427, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 427, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in support on SB 427, SD1, HD1, CD1. This bill will better protect the children between the ages of 4 and 8 who are too small for the shoulder restraint and too big for infant seats that are involved in motor vehicle accidents.

"As recommended by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, National Transportation Safety Board, and American Academy of Pediatrics, children who are between 4 and 8 should be properly secured in booster seats because more than 90% of children who are between 4 and 8 that were seriously injured in motor vehicle incidents were not in booster seats. Cited from the American Academy of Pediatrics, using booster seats instead of only a seat belt reduces risk of injury by 59%.

"In reflective of this important statistic, 28 other states have similar laws requiring children in booster seats, and 20 other states are considering similar legislation this year. Within our own State, Maui County Council passed a Resolution that adopted this measure. In order to make this measure universal across the State and to ensure the safety of our keiki, I will be voting in favor of SB 427, SD1, HD1, CD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 427, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILD PASSENGER SAFETY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Stonebraker voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 13-06 and S.B. No. 706, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 706, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak with strong reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, I believe a bill like this could affect many families throughout the State that provide a form of liquor because of cultural traditions, to their children. The children could be anywhere between 10 and 19, or 20. And personally being of Latin blood, we've always had a little beer or wine with the dinner, and the family would always offer some to the children. A little glass.

"With the Italian race, having a beverage, a little wine, is part of the meal. And that's the way it is with the Portuguese, and there's other races I'm sure, that have the same kind of tradition. Not all the time, but now and then."

At 1:46 o'clock p.m., Representative M. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:48 o'clock p.m.

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe we just heard a bill that had to do with mandatory ages of retirement, and I believe I'm a poor example. I was speaking on the wrong bill. My apologies to the Chamber."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 706, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTOXICATING LIQUOR VIOLATIONS INVOLVING MINORS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Harbin and Sonson voting no.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2667, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To remain consistent, I've spoken about this bill every time it's come around, which has been many times now. I believe there's a problem with the restrictions on the time that fireworks may be used.

"For instance, it says, New Year's Eve to 1:00 a.m. on New Year's Day. Again I bring up the fact that New Year's Day is a holiday, and you might want to take your children out to do sparklers and such. The day before, not being a holiday, they may be in school and there's no time to do that. But I don't see why you can't go to a park on New Year's Day and use sparklers, or the worms, or whatever. Not necessarily the aerials. The small things.

"Then we look on the Fourth of July. It allows fireworks from 1:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on the Fourth of July. Well every ceremony I go to on the Fourth of July is after sunset on the day of the Fourth of July. It's beginning about 7:00 p.m. and they will go well past 9:00 p.m. So again, I think we're being overly restrictive. This is the day we're celebrating the birthday of our nation. We talk all the time about our military. How we love them, how we do everything for them, we support them but when it comes to celebrating our own birthday of our nation, we're going to restrict the time that we can do that, artificially. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2667, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREWORKS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1223, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Thank you. This increases the fee being charged for returned checks from $20 to $30. I just believe that prohibitively hides that raise in the fee and I believe it's going to hurt our young people. During the Committee hearing, the testimony was just not convincing to me that the collectors of this returned check, needed that much of an increase to make their businesses work. So for those reasons, I'm going to vote no on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Stevens be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. This particular measure raises the fee from $20 to $30 for dishonored checks. My concern is not only for the young people, but mainly for the people and the families that go from paycheck to paycheck. It's a substantial increase and that can eat away at one's monthly budget. Mr. Speaker, I disagree with that, and I think that $20 is a good amount and that's why I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I think that this measure is unnecessary for us to vote on. I think these people that bounce checks don't do it on purpose, and I think $30 is too much of a penalty. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 3247, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1 as it would ensure the continuation of the licensing of home- and community-based case management agencies.

"Specifically, I support the repeal of the sunset for two demonstration projects for licensing of home- and community-based case management agencies for Honolulu and the other Neighbor Islands.

"This measure will ensure the continued provision of quality home- and community-based services and care at reasonable costs. Community based case management provides an economical method of management.

"Please support this important bill as the case management system alleviates the state of much supervisory or oversight responsibility. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this important bill."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 24-06 and S.B. No. 2004, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2004, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Senate Bill 2004. I have spoken against this bill before so I think most of you are somewhat familiar, but it is really of a concern to me that we are here today, not only in the House, but in the Senate. We are going to establish a new monument in the State of Hawaii and that monument will be the sandbar that so many of us in Kaneohe have known and enjoyed for many, many years.

"My concern is that there has not been enough discussion in the broader community. Right now we have monuments on the record. Some of you might wonder how many. Is it 100? Is it 50? Is it 25? No, 6. There are 6 State monuments in the entire State of Hawaii including every island in the chain and today, 76 legislators in the 2 chambers with a minimal amount of information are going to vote on this bill to create a new monument.

"The monuments that are on the record are Iolani Palace, Diamond Head, Kukaniloko Birthstones, the Royal Mausoleum, Puu o Mahuka Heiau and Ulupo Heiau. There are other well-known heiaus that would be deserving of being made a monument.

"The sandbar is underwater probably 22 hours a day, and the history of the sandbar is there are different renditions of why it is an important place. First of all, the question is: What is the name of the sandbar? Some would call it Ahu o Laka, an altar to the Goddess of Hula, Laka. Others long time, many years ago, refer to it as Ahua a Laka. The sand bank of Laka. The Chief, a well-known chief in Koolauloa in many days gone by.

"I think there were three hearings. One in the Senate, there was only one referral. One hearing and then it went to the Floor. And when it went to the Floor, the Committee Report had a very large error in it and this is what the Senators saw on their desks when they considered the vote. It said that there were 15 people who had testified in opposition. I believe it was about 7 that testified in favor, and then there were another 190 that were in favor. Well those 190 were signatures on a petition that were all against the bill, so the Senators in the Senate voted with misinformation when the bill came over to us. There it was, in the Committee Report. I did bring it to the attention of the Chairman of Water, Land and it was shared with the 6 or 7 members that were in the second hearing.

"I had hoped, because the introducer of this bill had also introduced with other members of the Senate, a Resolution, which would make a whole lot more sense than what we're doing here today. The original draft of the Resolution would encourage a more deliberative outcome. It would have allowed for greater community involvement and better understanding of the real issue surrounding the sandbar than this bill.

"The Resolution would have involved a taskforce to ascertain the seriousness of the abuses, and it involved a greater portion of the community including representatives from the interested parties, Native Hawaiians, recreational boaters, and fishers, marine and environmentalist. Additionally the Resolution allowed for experts to be consulted on some of the uncertainties surrounding the sandbar's historical importance.

"One of the testifiers in favor of making the sandbar a monument went through his genealogy and tied himself as a direct descendant of Laka, and there was much discussion."

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. There was much discussion about the stories around Laka the Chief. No one was sure whether Laka died at the sand bank, or Laka just rested there and died in Waiahole and had his son take some of his bones and buried them there. They were not certain. In 1998, someone found a finger bone which they first thought was found at the sandbar, but then it turned out as they described where he found it, it was found on Kapapa Island, which is seaward of the sandbar.

"With all these questions, I still say, why would we, on this Floor along with the Senators, go ahead and pass this bill and make this a monument when there are so many questions that still hang out there?

"Overall, another great concern of the boating community is what will the regulations be once we elevated the sandbar to a monument, and they have real concerns. You can't go to Diamond Head and have a picnic any time you want. You certainly can't go and have a big party at Iolani Place unless you got a permit. There are just a lot of questions and yet we are just going to steam ahead here and create this brand new monument to sit beside Iolani Palace and Diamond Head. I hope that some of you will think about the actions you're taking here today and consider voting no. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, with reservations. The concern I have is similar to the Representative of Laie. Historic preservation is a serious issue and usually many other states use experts who come to the fore with input from the community, but it should never be an issue that divides people. It should be an issue that brings people together. So if there is not enough deliberation and input, then perhaps this measure needs to wait a little longer. So with that I express my deep reservations."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with some reservations. Thank you. My concerns are similar to the previous two speakers and I'd just like to add some nautical perspective. The area there has been dredged, and sandbar shifted and moved. I believe that we probably don't even know exactly where the Laka sandbar actually is or was.

"And I think because the genesis of this bill, as I understand it, were some parties that got carried away out there on the sandbar possibly, I don't think using historic preservation as a tool when perhaps law enforcement might be a better tool to use to control what happens out there. For the few people who perhaps got out of control, we limit the access to many, many people who enjoy this area as a recreational spot. So I just have reservations and I hope that we consider not using historic preservation actions as a tool when maybe law enforcement is a better tool to use. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2004, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORIC PRESERVATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Harbin, Halford, Kahikina, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2162, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Senate Bill 2162, Conference Committee Report 33-06, I rise in opposition. And I know that I stated this before and so pardon me Members, I'll repeat it again. I believe that children, in terms of car insurance, I think it's a privilege and not a right. I'm still disturbed that in this bill that we're requiring foster parents to pay for car insurance. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I have reservations about SB 2162 HD1, Mr. Speaker. I am not against foster children getting drivers' licenses, but I believe the foster parents should be included in that decision. They may not want the foster child driving their car, and they should not be forced into a situation where the foster child gets the Director of DHS to sign an application for an instruction permit, and then hound the foster parents to teach them how to drive. The rest of the bill is fine."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I just briefly wanted to say this is something again, that the foster youth have really pushed hard for, as well as their advocates. I would also like to submit written comments in support."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of a bill which will allows foster children to apply for a driver's license.

"The purpose of the bill is to help foster children successfully transition out of foster care and into independent living. Sadly, for many foster children, the difficulty in obtaining parental consent on a driver's instruction permit or license proves to be an insurmountable barrier - one that most of us could not imagine having to contend with. As stated in the Committee Report of the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce, "this bill is consistent with the State's responsibility to provide the best possible care of its foster children."

"Some may object to the bill on the grounds that driving a motor vehicle is privilege, not a right, and therefore the State has no obligation to provide the means or facilitate the process for a foster child to apply for a license. I would submit that in our present-day economy, the ability to drive is not a luxury. It is often a necessity for certain types of employment. One of the keys for young people to transition out of foster care and take their place in the community as productive citizens is to find a job. A driver's license may very well make a difference in enabling that youngster to secure meaningful employment.

"Others may object that the bill requires a foster child's natural parents to pay for the child's car insurance, with such a requirement not only being burdensome, but also coercive. I must note that the bill does establish provisions for payment if the natural parents are unable to pay, and does not apply in circumstances where the foster parents are cooperative with the drivers' license process and willing to cover car insurance costs. Further, the bill is only intended to apply to minor foster children, who, I must emphasize, are wards of the State. I would also add, that foster children are no different from other teenagers when they reach legal driving age. Since it is the rare young person who is able to afford his or her own insurance, it is the parent who assumes that responsibility - hopefully, with the son or daughter contributing at least some share when possible.

"Another benefit of this bill is to allow foster board payments to be paid directly to a former foster child. This is a good bill, Mr. Speaker, which is strongly supported by the Hawaii Youth Services Network and many others. It will help deserving young people to join their peers in enjoying the privilege of driving - an accepted part of 'coming of age' in our society."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, we heard testimony on this and how great a need it is for the foster children to be able to drive. These are special kids with special needs, and a lot of times they need to be able to get where they have to go.

"They are already handicapped pretty much and the testimony points out that if they don't get this drivers' license privilege, there's no one that can help them aside from DHS. DHS is authorized to do this.

"And as far as the concern of the Representative regarding who's going to pay for it, it's only if they are able to. If they're not able to do it, there's a provision in this bill that under 587, they will be able to be subsidized. We already subsidize welfare recipients through 431.

"So I think that the good that will come about is really understated in this bill, but if the Representatives will trust the testimonies that were presented, it is something that foster kids and the foster parents actually support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2162, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOSTER CHILDREN," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Evans and Finnegan voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 34-06 and S.B. No. 2188, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2188, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker.

"Having the Director of Public Safety serve on the Commission of Fatherhood will bring a perspective to the Commission that relates to the criminal justice system.

"We have a war going on with graffiti in our State and statistics reflect that the average age of the offender is between the ages of fourteen to sixteen. This type of community blight needs to be discouraged and the Director of Public Safety may have a positive impact on deterring youth from this activity.

"The link in which to accomplish this would be to replace the Director of the Office of Children and Youth as a member of the Commission on Fatherhood with the Director of Public Safety.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2188, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A COMMISSION ON FATHERHOOD," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In support, but with reservations for the same reasons that the previous speaker gave."

No. 2485, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2487, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but I would like to enter some very strong comments and encouragements. The HCDA has created quite a stir here at the Legislature, and I think this Legislature has responded to the call of the community that was very much impacted by various decisions relating to Kakaako Makai.

"I feel that expanding the membership of the Authority Board may perhaps not be the correct mechanism to keep the Authority in control. But with that being said, the fact that we are now looking at this measure, it is my hope, and it was my hope, that it would reflect in the Committee Report, but as it is not, I would like to reflect it in the Journal that as very much a strong citizen activist in that area, that the Speaker of the House and the President will now have the ability to appoint to a list to send to the Governor, two new members to the Authority. Please look to the community for that list. Don't let these appointments become political. Make them the voice of the people.

"There's an active working group being developed at the HCDA. Look to those people for guidance on who should be sitting on the Authority from here forward so that we don't get into another mess as we have seen in Kakaako Makai where we had to take some very radical rules, sweeping moves to accomplish what the community has asked for.

"So with that being said, let's pass this out and let's hope that the appointment from the Senate and the House will really help bring the people to the Authority. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this bill. I know that the people that have come here to testify on the Kakaako issue, what they really want is representation by community members. And the whole problem with this bill is there is no guarantee whatsoever that that will happen.

"This bill is like many we have seen in the last two years. It changes how people are selected and it limits the Governor's choice of people that she can appoint by making it exclusive to the list that are provided to her by Senate President and yourself. There is no language in this bill, which says that these folks should be community members within a radius or anything. People were appointed from Kalaheo, they were from Kalaheo. But there's nothing that guarantees that in this bill, and for that reason I think this is just sort of a sham and gives hope to people when it doesn't represent a hopeful move. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2487, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 42-06 and S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I'm proud to say the Legislature is about to pass one of the most sweeping protections in public health for Hawaii and Hawaii's citizens. I especially think that this is going to benefit our children and our future. I just want to read an excerpt from two testimonies that illustrate that.

"One is from a Matthew James Hanley, who's a junior at Kapaa High School and he says, and I quote:

I personally come from a family where a majority of the people smoke cigarettes. I'm exposed to smoke on a daily basis, whether I'm with my dad, cousins, grandparents, or aunts and uncles. So I know how it feels to be exposed to secondhand smoke. It is not a very nice experience.

I can feel the smoke get into my lungs which causes me to breathe heavily. As an athlete, it is hindering. It stings to have chemicals from cigarettes in my lungs, especially when I'm not the person who put them there. I personally choose to make myself scarce when my family members are smoking, but people don't have that choice at work.

"Also from Arnessa Iranon from Hilo and I quote:

My parents both smoked and did not think twice about the harmful effects of second hand smoke. They did not know smoking in the house and in the car would affect our lungs and expose us to increased risk of a heart attack. That it causes respiratory illnesses. I suffer bronchitis all my childbearing years and my sister still suffers from asthma. Today science demands that we strengthen our statewide law to protect our most vulnerable citizens, workers and children.

We know second-hand smoke causes cancer and all types of illnesses and disorders. I'm writing because we need to educate and protect the children from a known health hazard.

"And that's from Arnessa Iranon from Hilo, Hawaii. I think these are the sentiments of people from across the State and I know that they're saying thank you to all of us for providing them with this protection. Even though it doesn't cover our children in our homes, I hope that they also get the message to protect their children who live in the home or the car or anyone else to not smoke in their presence. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This is a very difficult one, obviously following the speech from the previous speaker because in fact I do believe that smoke affects people who has asthma. I do think from a person like myself that's been around smokers, I don't like the smell. Personally, I don't have bronchitis or problems breathing because of smoke, but I don't like how my clothes smell and my eyes water and whatever. I don't like that either.

"But the reason I oppose this bill is because if people really read it, again like I said on Third Reading and when I opposed it then, is there is nothing in the bill that gives people who do smoke the ability to go to a place, away from everybody else and actually smoke. So if you really look at this, it says there is no smoking in airports, at public transportation facilities, at stadiums, at bars, at bowling alleys, at conventional centers, at hotels and motels, except there is a certain percentage of rooms, lobbies, hallways, common areas, night clubs, restaurants, retail stores, service line, shopping malls.

"I mean we're saying that we can't even designate a place for people to go smoke. So what is this bill really doing? It is forcing them out on the sidewalks. What's going to happen next year is we're going to come back and people are going to say, we find it disgusting that we walk down the street, people are smoking and we have to pass them on the sidewalk.

"So what we're doing is we're pushing people out and making them get more in our face, and I think with the intent that maybe what we're really headed for in this Body is to try to eliminate smoking all together in this State. I've heard it before from other speakers that that's what they'd really like to do. But I want to say to this Body, you want to talk about health, then why do we allow children to have a soda pop, which has caffeine, which is addictive. Caffeine is addictive. So why do we allow caffeine and sugar for our children? Because that affects their health, their teeth and they may have diabetes and problems at a young age.

"This is a very complicated issue. I don't like smoking in public places, but to not give people places, to treat people decent, and give them an area for designated smoking, I think is just gone way too far.

Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Just a correction. The most sweeping antismoking ordinance ever passed was in the County of Hawaii, 21 years ago. And we were way ahead of the rest of the State."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I just wanted to say that tobacco is a known killer of our citizens. It's the biggest problem we've got from a healthcare standpoint and anything that we can do to prevent secondhand smoke or primary smoking is going to be in the best interest of the people."

"They elected us to help protect their health and well-being, their economy, all sorts of things. But first and foremost, we need to look after the lives of our citizens so that's what we're doing."

"As to caffeine and sugar, its not causing cancer, its not killing children, it's not killing the adults. We really have to focus on, yes, decreasing tobacco in any way, shape or form. I do recognize the concerns about displacing people, but we also have to look at the concerns of the people that didn't have rights, that were having their own rights violated to breathe clean air if they were sitting next to someone smoking. So it's our job to protect the people's health and we're doing it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I don't smoke. I don't like to smoke. I quit smoking. We can get that all out of way. I'm not talking about pro-smoking. What I'm talking about is hypocrisy. If it's so bad why do we still allow it in public residences? Why do we allow it in hotel and motel rooms that are rented to guests and are designated as smoking rooms. When we talked about this earlier, I said why don't we allow some bars or nightclubs that want to have smoking areas if the employees all agreed. Well that was no good, but we're going to allow it in hotel and motel rooms."

"What about retail tobacco stores? We're going to kill off the tobacco merchants I suppose. That's why we're allowing it there. How about private and semiprivate rooms in nursing homes and long term care facilities that are occupied by one or more persons? Boy, that's hypocritical. How about outdoor areas of places of employment? That's okay. All areas covered by this Chapter when smoking is a part of their production being filmed. So we don't care about our actors or filmmakers are being murdered, I suppose, is the term everybody is using here, by secondhand smoke."

"We also exclude State correctional facilities so our prisoners can smoke and our ACOs can be subjected to the smoke or smoke themselves. That's okay. Probably also our visitors will pass another bill that says we cannot restrict visitors from going into the correctional facilities so they can go in there when they're smoking too. That's all right."

"So why are we talking about everybody we're trying to protect but we're not protecting all these vast amounts of our society? I think this is a feel good bill. If we really want to stop smoking, ban it. But we can't ban it because we have another bill later on where we're taxing cigarettes to pay for medical care and cancer research. So we don't want to ban it, we want to collect off it and we want to feel good about saying we passed these smoking prohibition bills. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, this measure will greatly improve the health of everyone in Hawaii who is currently forced to endure secondhand smoke from tobacco users. Beyond the well-known deleterious health effects attached to smokers personally, numerous cancers and a myriad of other serious health problems can result from, and are exacerbated by, exposure to secondhand smoke. And much of the cost of healthcare is directed to afflictions caused by smoke."

"Members of the public who do not choose to smoke are subjected to the risk whenever smokers are present. The various counties have a hodgepodge of regulations on smoking in public places, but this bill will set a consistent and comprehensive standard for protecting the health of residents and visitors alike."

"As noted by the National Cancer Institute and contrary to many of arguments made by those who oppose the measure, there is a firmly established link between secondhand smoke and illness. Furthermore there is no right to smoke in a public place. Just because a product, cigarettes, are not illegal it does not automatically follow that it is improper to regulate where it may be consumed. Compare this to alcohol another legal substance, which may not be consumed openly in public."

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is not new, it is the product of more than 10 years of hard work by people like the American Cancer Society, the Hearth Association, the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawaii and by many members of this Body, especially including Representative Arakaki, Representative Mark Takai, Representative Cynthia Thielen, who stood on the Floor of this House time after time and recited the same thing I'm reciting. So I once again urge my colleagues to support this measure. It is certainly the most important health goal of this Session. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, the bill comes too late for my son, Dave, who developed throat cancer. When Dave was growing up in Hawaii, there was no restriction on smoking and it was everywhere. In the schools, everywhere. Fortunately he is in remission, but this bill does come in time for the other youngsters that are growing up that aren't going to have to be subjected to secondhand smoke."

"Yes, it's a 'feel good' bill. It is a 'feel good' bill because those parents of those youngsters are going to feel good that they don't have to watch one of their children ravaged by the disease of cancer. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill. This legislation is historic. The State of Hawaii is again leading on health advocacy. I will keep my comments brief, but I want to point out why I believe this is such vital legislation."

"On a personal level, I am really pleased to see that this bill is moving. My father was a life-time smoker and died of cancer. He always smoked in front of my siblings and I. He smoked up until the day he could no longer hold the cigarette himself. Smoking is bad, bad, bad ..."

"As we all know, second hand smoke exposure can be just as detrimental to one's health as smoking itself. In addition to being linked with various forms of cancer, secondhand smoke is also associated with non-cancerous conditions, some of which include: stroke; severe and chronic heart disease; asthma, especially in children; and diabetes."

"Eliminating smoking in places such as public facilities, businesses, and restaurants will not only remove exposure to second hand smoke, but it will create a smoke-free and "health positive" environment. This will not only support and encourage smokers who have long-considered quitting, but it will change the 'normal' environment that our children grow up in.

"There was a time when it was 'normal' for us to see people throwing trash out of their windows. Policy changed that norm for the better. Our State has been consistently named in the top 5 of the nation's healthiest states in the annual America's health rankings. This past December, Hawaii was ranked number 5 by the United Health Foundation, the American Public Health Association, and the Partnership For Prevention. Let us live up to our 'Health State' motto.

"Smoking is an individual right, but this bill takes the serious and necessary steps of ensuring that smokers do not harm others in exercising their individual rights. SB 3262 is an opportunity for us to do something about the quality of our air and ensure that a 'health positive' environment is proactively cultivated here in Hawaii for us and our children."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3262, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Evans, Moses and Nakasone voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 45-06 and S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to vote in support but with reservations on Conference Committee Report 45, Relating to Energy. Mr. Speaker, we started off this Session with a real vision of energy reform for our State. Knowing that we are a state blessed with the most natural resources in all of the United States, we're looking at moving ahead aggressively a vision to move us toward a renewable energy present day. Not future, but present day. I don't think we've gotten there, Mr. Speaker. I think we maybe stumbled a bit on the road to doing this.

"One of the things that I felt was at the heart of moving us ahead was the Energy Cost Adjustment Clause. Let me just explain for the members that ECAC or Energy Cost Adjustment Clause is where Hawaiian Electric can pass through to the consumer 100% of the cost of the increase in the price of fossil fuel that Hawaiian Electric or Maui Electric or the other Neighbor Island utilities use to power homes and offices.

"So when the cost of fuel goes up, fossil fuel goes up, when they have to import it and pay more for it, no big deal. Then the utilities just sort of can look at it and go, 'Tough.' They pass that 100% on to the consumer. Well, as I said before on the island of Maui that means that 50% of those utility bills for the resident are due to the cost of fossil fuel. On our island it's about one-third, so if you take your utility bill, tear off one-third of the bill. Then if we weren't having to pay for the increase of the cost of fossil fuel, we would be paying a lot less on our utility bills.

"Mr. Speaker, the one thing that would bring Hawaiian Electric to the table and make them change their fossil fuel habits, their addition to fossil fuel is if we mandated change in the ECAC, mandate it. Now what this bill does, the present bill that we have before us is that it says that the ECAC, if a utility requests an adjustment in its ECAC then the Public Utilities Commission can do certain things. The public utility would be required to have an incentive to reasonably manage or lower its fuel costs, and it would be encouraged for the greater use of renewable energy. I mean in law these are sort of fuzzy words. You can really move your way around them. They are not a mandate.

"We should have and could have said that by December 31, 2007, to share the risks of the reliance on oil fire generation, the Public Utilities Commission "shall", that's a mandate, "shall" determine whether the fuel adjustment clause should be eliminated, or the Commission shall establish ratemaking provisions that amend the fuel adjustment clause to share oil cost increases and decreases between the utility shareholders and the utility customers.

"Let me just digress on that. In other words the utility has shareholders. When it passes through the 100% of the increase in fossil fuel cost to the consumers, the shareholders benefit. So what we should have done and could have done is said, 'Hey shareholders, you are going to have to share the risk with the consumers,' and we should have done this as a mandate.

"Now I know that others are going to stand up and say we couldn't have gotten such a bill through. I know that there are problems on the Senate side, that we have a big stumbling block over there, but we still should have taken the leadership in this Chamber."

Representative Stevens rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you so much, Representative. We still should have taken the leadership in this Chamber, Mr. Speaker. We could have said, if the Public Utilities Commission determines that the fuel adjustment clause shall not be eliminated for whatever reason, the PUC would decide that it shall be amended. Now those are mandates that we could have sent forward from this Chamber.

"This is the vision, Mr. Speaker. This is the vision of a renewable future. Now when this would happen if we had mandated changes to the ECAC, what happens to Hawaiian Electric? All of a sudden they go, 'Oh, all right. We no longer can just throw off all of our costs of increase cost in oil. We're going to have to be serious about looking for renewable energy,' and then they can stop just dancing around this stage with all of these different 'outs' that they have. They would have had to aggressively at that point look for renewable energy projects. They would have had to go into funding situations where they would cooperate with renewable energy products like it's being done all over Europe. It's being done on Rhode Island, but not being done in Hawaii because we let Hawaiian Electric have the 'outs', and what does that mean? 77% reliance on fossil fuel, and no other state in the nation is that heavily addicted to fossil fuel. The next closest is Florida with something like 17%.

"So Mr. Speaker, we could have been much more forward-sighted. We could have been more determined that we're going to change things now, not wait for the future, but we didn't do that. So those are my reservations on this, Mr. Speaker.

"There are some other energy bills we're going to be addressing, and I have very similar reservations on that. But the ECAC is the key to the whole thing, and without saying to Hawaiian Electric, 'You're going to have to cost share; we'll not let you off the hook anymore.' Without doing that, they're not going to go ahead with the renewables. And then the worst thing of all Mr. Speaker, they're before the Public Utilities Commission now asking to build another fossil-fuel-powered plant in the year 2009.

"If that happens, we've lost. The consumers have lost. And the only way we can stop their fossil fuel addiction at the cost to our consumers, the only way we can do that is to take definite leadership steps. Giving mandates, without any 'outs'. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. I just wanted to point out to the members on page 17 of this bill, it lays out the fuel adjustment rate policy by this Body and it is a mandate. It says, 'Any automatic fuel adjustment clause requested by a public utility in an application filed with the commission shall be designed, as determined in the commission's discretion to: (1) fairly share the risk of fuel cost charges between the public utilities and its customers; (2) provide the public utility with sufficient incentive to reasonably manage or lower its fuel cost and encourage greater use of renewable energy.'

"The debate regarding the fuel adjustment charge rightfully belongs in the Public Utility Commission's arena. The best way to deal with a change in behavior regarding the utilities is to set the appropriate incentives and rate structure to incentivize their behavior towards less risk regarding fuel cost and the building of more renewable energy, using more renewable energy sources. So I believe that we did state a mandate for the public utilities in the policy that we laid out. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. And I think the previous speaker did a great job in developing our energy package this year. I do get a little tired of hearing the comparison of other states. We don't have the Tennessee Valley Authority providing power for many states. Our dams fall apart, so I'm glad we don't rely on hydro too much. We don't have natural gas. Perhaps the Representative from the other side suggests we should have nuclear power. That's another one that is not fossil fuel.

"So I think there are a whole lot of reasons that we have been dependent on oil. We could let geothermal supply the rest of the State. I remember I was in the Senate when we permitted geothermal and the suggestion that we transport that power between islands was roundly defeated. I think that the Chair of EEP has done an excellent job of developing our energy plan for this year. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations.

"I agree with the Sierra Club that it is crucial that an increasing percentage of our electricity come from clean, indigenous resources. We live in an era of human-induced climate change. The year 2005 was the hottest since modern recording began. Climate change threatens Hawaii in profound ways, urging us to provide global solutions to stopping the trend.

"It's imperative to improve Hawaii's Renewable Portfolio Standards law. I believe we must create an accurate definition of 'renewable energy' that includes displacement technologies in renewable electric energy and defines renewable energy."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3185, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

No. 2941, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BRUSH FIRES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 49-06 and S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations on this measure. Thank you. There are great many people in my district who believe that this measure will help them feel more secure and so I feel obliged to represent their voice. However, the conflict that I have and why I'm rising with reservations is that this bill provides for a sentence of 30 years or life in prison for what's called habitual violent felons, but which may actually be applied to someone with just three felony convictions apparently including convictions for offenses committed as juveniles.

"What disturbs me is this bill will remove the discretion of judges to be able to take into account unique or unusual mitigating circumstances when sentencing and it is a move, which has elsewhere lead to gross injustices.

"One would think that hearing the debate on this particular bill that our crime rate is soaring and the opposite really is true. So I'm very conflicted by this because according to the most recent annual statistics released by the Attorney General in December 2005, the violent crime rate fell 12.8% over the past decade, while the overall crime rate was down 30.4% in the same period. In 2001, Hawaii's violent crime rate ranked 44th lowest among the 50 states.

"So even if we did have more of a violent crime problem, there's no evidence really that such extended sentences have any impact on future crimes. And Hawaii already has laws providing extended sentences for certain violent or repeat offenders. So I would hope that the deeper question in the next Session will be addressed and I believe that is how do we create systems and processes, outcomes and relationships, that will enable all of us to feel more secure and not just address the crime issue as the one solution. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. There's no doubt that the community is alarmed about crime and with good reason. Our crime is relatively high compared to other nations in the world. There's no doubt that many of our residents feel like prisoners in their own home and worried about whether or not they're going to end up being a statistic.

"The question, Mr. Speaker, is: What do we do about it? The problem with this bill is that to avoid being accused of being soft on crime, we go soft in the head. Let me state briefly some of the conceptual specific reasons why this measure falls short of its intent.

"First, it doesn't work. California is always cited as a reason why we should do this. Let's look at the facts. New York during the 1990s, this is a period that California is always cited, that they had a dramatic decrease in crime. New York experienced a greater decrease in crime without this type of law.

"Furthermore, the California County Prosecutors have discretion whether or not to count a felony as a strike or not. Counties that aggressively enforced the law had no greater declines in crime than did counties that used it far more sparingly. And by the way Mr. Speaker, this measure does not allow county Prosecutors any discretion at all.

"Secondly, it's not new. Circuit judges in our State do have the ability to invoke enhanced sentencing that can impose stiffer sentences for repeat offenders. Are we saying this hasn't worked? I don't know, but it seems to be the inference.

"So who would be caught in this three strikes law? It will be people like James Allen in California who was convicted of petty theft in 1998, walked into a drug store and stole hair oil worth $2.74. And while Mr. Allen was trying to run away, the security guard caught up with him. Mr. Allen threw a couple of punches that missed, but that elevated that crime from theft to robbery. Combined with his previous two convictions for burglary, he is currently serving 35 years in the California penal system. Mr. Speaker, I firmly believe that if you do the crime, you do the time. But the time has to fit the crime.

"Third, it takes away the discretion of judges in the paroling authority to weigh each case on its merits. We will end up with a one-size fits all approach to criminal justice.

"Fourth, it ignores the existence of racism and classism in our society. And do we really believe the criminal justice system operates completely without bias as to the defendant's race? Look at California where African-Americans, while comprising 7% of the population, make up 44% of the inmates under the three strikes law. Look at Hawaii, where the Native Hawaiians are less than 10% of the population, but 34% of the inmate population. Do you really believe that the quality of legal representation in this country is equal irrespective of your ability to pay? I guarantee that the executives of Enron currently on trial are not being defended by an overworked, underpaid public defender.

"Fifth, the financial cost. The Lingle-Aiona Administration has asserted that they've been trying to push this through for the past three years. If so, why hasn't a study been done as we do on many other issues to show the potential impact, cost, and effectiveness of such a law? The measure assumes that there is no long-term cost relative to the short-term benefit.

"For example, how much of a threat to society is that 65 year old prisoner who committed a burglary 25 years ago? Less than 1% of violent crimes are committed by those over 60 years of age. What will be the eventual cost of the geriatric long-term care facility beyond bars? It will cost three times more to house an elderly offender."

Representative Waters rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. Sixth, and this is very troubling about this bill is the abrogation of states' rights. This measure counts as a strike, any felony conviction from any other state or the federal courts. This is basically the biggest conclusion that every conviction is valid and that we accept it on its face. This is why Louisiana modified their law so that any conviction outside the State does not automatically trigger the three strikes law.

"Let's take a hypothetical example, Mr. Speaker. An all-white jury convicts an African-American male of two felonies, 20 years ago in Mississippi. He moves to Hawaii and is convicted of burglary. How certain are we that the prior convictions were warranted and were free from bias? How does his attorney secure the records and transcripts of that long ago trial? More importantly why would we rely upon the criminal justice system of Mississippi to dictate what we should do in our State?

"Seventh, there is no provision for a mandatory release in this bill. Currently the Paroling Authority has the ability to release a long-term prisoner who's suffering from say, terminal cancer even though the term has not been served. This bill does not allow that to such a prisoner who poses no threat to society, cannot be released, ostensibly to show that we are tough on crime.

"Mr. Speaker, it's not about being tough on crime. It's about being smart on crime. We know that the typical offenders in our prisons are disproportionately males, Native Hawaiian, poor, unemployed, uneducated, and substance abusers. This by no means excuses the crimes that they committed, but it gives us an insight that explains why so many are in prison. It compels us to realize that unless we get at the root causes of crime there is no solution in sight except building more and more prisons. As it is, we already imprison over a million people in this country, a rate far higher than any industrialized nation in the world.

"There should be experimental programs like the BEST program in Maui for using models like the Delancey Street Program in San Francisco that after staying an average of 4 years, not 30 years as this bill requires, 4 years, in an institutional setting, over 14,000 former felons and substance abusers are now successful tax paying citizens. Instead of 1.2 million tax dollars per prisoner for 30 years, they have done it at no cost to the taxpayer.

"Let me close with an exquisite irony, Mr. Speaker. Do we want to end up like California, once the envy of the nation for their higher education system, but now spends more on their prisons than they do on their universities and colleges? Instead of funding a schoolhouse, we end up funding a jailhouse. And the more we put into our prison system, the less we fund our schools, and therefore end up having to fund even more prisons. The measure before us merely move us further down this path, but it does little to move us to more effective ways of protecting the community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Yes, Mr. Speaker, this measure does reinforce the message that Hawaii is tough on crime and I think it's about time. We all know that a very small percentage of offenders commit the majority of crimes over and over again. I support rehabilitation programs and training programs and I co-sponsored a measure this Session which unfortunately didn't go through. But we should take care of the people that are incarcerated, try to get them off their problems and out of that way of life that they're in now.

"However, the speaker from Pearl City mentioned several cases and I'm thinking, yes, but those people were convicted. Yes, they were convicted more than once, and yet they went out and they did it again. It's not like this is first time and you're slapped away for 30 years. This measure requires three separate convictions, each one for a violent felony. That's not simple shoplifting. So these people would be affected have done this, have been caught, have been convicted by their peers, by a jury. They've done it again, and then they've done it again.

"Maybe some people never learn. Maybe it's partly our problem that we don't have the programs to help them learn and to rehabilitate them, but there comes a point when you have to protect the rest of the citizens. The vast majority of law-abiding citizens that are out there. These are people that have broken into homes, they've raped, they've killed, they've beat up. They're not simple shoplifters, Mr. Speaker. People have to understand that. It's different from the three strikes law in California. These are violent felons, repeat violent felons.

"Mr. Speaker, there has been experience in other states that have adopted this type of law and it has shown good results. Locking away the worst of the career criminals will reduce the number of violent crimes in our State. It's not turning our back on these people. Not the first time, the second time, third time. I have to keep repeating this. It's third time convictions for violent felonies. This is a measure, Mr. Speaker, we Republicans have supported for some years now. In fact, ever since I've been in this Legislature for ten years and I'm sure it was long before that. So I'm very, very glad that today we're passing this legislation out. It will give our law enforcement the needed tools to keep our streets safer.

"I got to say again, our Representative from Pearl City talked about Mr. Allen. Well I'm very, very happy that Mr. Allen is in jail now and maybe he won't attack my relatives that live in California. I'm very, very happy for him. We know where he is and I hope he stays there, because he was caught stealing again. Not the first time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition on this matter for now. I'm in opposition because I think this bill is premature. There's a lot of prerequisite work that we need to do before passing this bill. I had to introduce a bill to build prisons in this Session, but that measure didn't even get a hearing.

"Our prisons are full now. By passing this bill and increasing more prisoners is just a feel-good measure. Until we build more prisons, we cannot pass this bill. Until we can accept there's a prison house in our own backyard, we cannot pass this bill. Until we as a group are able and willing to generate more funds so we can outsource our prisoners, we cannot pass this bill.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, we added burglary in this violent crime. I do believe burglary is a crime and they should pay time in jail. However, I as a taxpayer am not willing to pay for their incarceration for the next 30 years.

"So in conclusion, Mr. Speaker, I think that we need to recommit this measure and build the proper infrastructure so we can talk the talk in this House. Thank you so much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly oppose this bill. Mr. Speaker, as a Democrat and a resident of Hawaii I feel relatively ashamed at this point that we're looking at a measure like this here.

"We led the nation in good legislation in abortion, and in women's rights. Years ago we took away capital punishment where those who were hanged were the minority, the Japanese, and the Hawaiians. They were the ones that were hanged. And we finally had the good sense to get rid of capital punishment, and now we have this 'three strikes and you're out.'

"How far have we regressed all these years? When we look at a bill like this that would put people in jail for their life. When we already have sentences that can double and triple what one can live, but I guess we need the perception that we're hard on crime, and that's all it is. Because I know in your heart, you know that this is a bad bill, but you still vote for it and this is what makes me ashamed. That you call yourself progressive, whatever Party you are.

"Mr. Speaker, the speaker from Pearl City was very eloquent and articulate in expressing his feelings and his concerns, and Mr. Speaker, I wish to adopt his remarks as my own.

"And Mr. Speaker, I'm hopeful that the articulate remarks, the actual remarks that were made by the speaker from Pearl City, would hopefully change your mind. I don't believe a vote with reservations will help in this measure here. If we want to continue to be the progressive State that we are, we will vote this bill down. There's only one way to vote Members, and that is to vote down. Thank you very much."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. I wasn't planning to speak today because I didn't think there would be so much opposition. We heard about a fellow Allen from the mainland. Well I'm going to tell you the people in Ewa Beach and this is why I'm supporting this bill.

"There's a man named Derek Corraera who lives on Ewa Beach Road in my district, and there's many men like him in all of your districts. He is a multiple felon. He's killed several people and he carries a gun. His victims who are terrorized by him everyday, are of different races. They're white, they're black, they're Hawaiian, and they're Filipino. He's lived there for about 20 years and he has been in and out of jail for 15 years. He has constantly terrorized my community, not just on Ewa Beach Road, but all the way up Fort Weaver Road. When he gets out of jail everybody gets on the phone to call each other to say, 'Protect your children. Don't walk along the roads because Derek Correra is back out of jail and he's speeding again. He's drunk again. He's high again. He has his gun again.'

"Let me tell you about victims of West Loch Fairways. They have been terrorized almost every other day for two years by the same criminal who has been arrested 66 times. Everyday they go home and they look to make sure everything's still there. They don't leave their teenage children alone. They don't leave their elderly parents alone, because they're worried what if that guy is high this time that he robs us.

"And I always had compassion for people who have been jailed and I work with a homeless shelter that's helped criminals. But when people in my district who are good law abiding citizens cannot feel safe and they're saying, 'Representative Pine, why is he out again? Why doesn't our courts protect us? Why don't you and the other legislators protect us? We're not doing any crimes. We just want to feel safe in our own homes and in our own communities.'

"So I have no compassion for anyone who makes the conscious decision to terrorize people three times because first and foremost my job as a Representative and I hoping everyone knows that Derek Correra is in your district too and there are many of them. It's to get those guys away from the good people and people like him in jail for as long as we can keep them because he's making a conscious choice to continue to terrorize all of us."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would just like to rise with reservations. The only thing that's reservations that has changed my mind is there is a limit in 2011. I hope by that time we can prove whether that is good or not. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Strong support. Mr. Speaker, I stood up many times here in this Body to support individual rights. It seems contradictory that I support mandatory sentencing to this extent. This measure provides for 30 years sentencing for imprisonment, which is mandatory, permanent terms of life imprisonment for habitual violent felons. But these are for habitual felons as described in the bill. And Mr. Speaker, let me read to you some of the felonies, convictions that are going to be the basis for these three strikes.

"Murder in any degree, any class A felony or class B felony, but is a crime of violence. If you look at these, class A felony, Mr. Speaker, is already 20 years to life. Advancing it to 30 years is not much more, but this in response to the weakness in our system to provide safety and to provide a stop to the circle of violence.

"This is how it will work. Normally now, if somebody is convicted of murder and is a class A felony, they would receive a 20 years to life. Because of the weakness in our penitentiary there's usually an opening where these individuals will come out and then they will return again, hopefully not for the same crime, but nevertheless a lot of them go back with the same violent crime. And then you need to think about what we're going to do as a society for these particular individuals who keep repeating and never learn. There has to be a stop somewhere and it seems to me that three times is three times too much.

"Three times we would allow an individual to commit a heinous crime of violence before we say enough is enough. Three is reasonable. Even as a Democrat, I think it's reasonable. I think that this is not a feel good bill. I don't think that it's enough that we have enhanced sentencing. I think this will add to it to show that we even if we are Democrats who also feel not only for the individual person's rights, but also for the individuals who are victims. Those are the public outcry that there must be balance and I think this is in response.

"It is hard for me as a Democrat and a protector of individual rights to vote, but I think that the person committing these serious violent crimes cannot learn from the experience. That they must be put away. And yes, this brings a concern that they will take away from our education budget. I think it's a wake up call. We do need to look at our priorities. Look at us now. We are not putting enough into our penitentiary, we're not building prisons because it's not a priority.

"We are going to be known as a State that will react when there is a consent decree placed upon us. Only then we should support. Maybe this will help to ensure that we build prisons. We need to no longer ignore the fact that we have an overflowing prison system. Maybe we can build more prisons and ensure that those who are violent will remain there, because right now they are being let out, Mr. Speaker. They are being let out because there is no room. We do have mandatory sentencing for lesser crimes and that's why this is not a new thing for Democrats. We have passed bills that I say are first strike. This bill is for three strikes and I think it is well balanced because it only allows the heinous crimes to be counted in the three strikes.

"The fact that there a lot of minorities in the mainland being put in prison, it is an unfortunate one and I will have to agree with the prior speaker on that, but that is a separate issue. I think that we must ensure that the public defenders who are responsible in making sure that these people's individual rights are protected, must be funded well. That's what I have always advocated. That we must ensure that individual rights are preserved, yet we do pass legislation that keeps them picking away at individual's rights. Mr. Speaker, this is a hard vote. It is a hard vote for everyone."

Representative Tsuji rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"But I think it is time for everyone to vote their conscience, and I hope that you will balance the need for public safety, the need to ensure that violent criminals who keep committing for the third time violent crimes be put away, to ensure that in the future we also think about preventing these individuals from getting there to begin with by ensuring that we provide treatment right at the outset, and that we must provide money for health and human services. We must provide for opportunities for those who are poor.

"If there is any excuse to say the reason why these individuals are there is because of their unfortunate upbringing because of circumstances, then I think Mr. Speaker, that we must also address those. But those are separate issues, Mr. Speaker. And I feel strongly in support of programs, funding for programs to ensure that everyone has an opportunity to succeed in our society. But these individuals have no excuse and we have to look at it and say, enough is enough. We mustn't combine these together and lump them together and say we cannot do this because we are not taking of this. We cannot say, we cannot legislate this and vote on it before we build prisons. I'm glad that we are having this discussion. This is a difficult time for all of us and I wish all of us luck. For me, I'm voting yes."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. By putting this into place, this three violent strikes bill, Mr. Speaker, it does not mean that we don't have to do the drug rehabilitation. Mr. Speaker, we can still do those types of things after the first strike, after the second strike.

"But let us also realize that what this bill is, is it may be three violent strikes, but if we compare it to some of the other three strikes across the nation, this is more like, a little more strikes than three, because you have to have, there's language in here that says either the current conviction or at least one of the prior separate convictions is for an offense other than burglary in the first degree. Basically it's not just three strikes. It's three violent strikes. They have to be separate convictions and those types of things, so this is not only three strikes.

"Mr. Speaker, when I take a look at this, I look at the situations where a man comes home from work, someone in his house shoots him. Mr. Speaker, I look at the police officer that was shot and killed when that criminal had a long, long rap sheet. Mr. Speaker, the reason why we have to pass this bill is because I am so sadden when I see on the news that we are starting a fund for some child that is left without a father to provide for them, and so we have to come to their aid because their father is no longer living because they were killed.

"Those type of things and this measure is not the type of three strikes that some describe it to me. This has been softened and I understand why, Mr. Speaker, but we have to look at this for what it is. It's more than three strikes. It's three violent strikes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, first of all I'd like to incorporate the words of the speaker from Ewa Beach as my own, please. This is a very reasonable bill, in my opinion. Because the current situation that we have in terms of drugs is one that is demoralizing to all of our citizens, demoralizing especially to the police, demoralizing to the prosecutors. All those that are trying to make a difference in our situation in crime.

"I think a lot of our citizens are wondering when is the Legislature going to act? What are they going to do? I know a number of them have asked me that question. Why, why? And so their hands are thrown in the air. We need to respond. We need to let the residents know we hear their pleas. And in response to progression, unfortunately from what I understand or what my residents tell me, we progressed ourselves into a State with a reputation that crime pays in Hawaii and we cannot afford that reputation. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition. When I was in Conference and talking to some of my colleagues about this, I kept asking the question: Can't our judges currently give life sentences and 30 years mandatory? And they said, yes. So I'm kind of wondering if we're at a point that what we're really saying is that the Judicial Branch is broken.

"There's three branches of government, the Executive, the Judiciary, the Legislative. If there is something wrong with Judiciary, I'm kind of wondering why they're not getting the message to be tougher on crime. I believe they understand that.

"The previous speaker that talked about this person going in and out of jail 66 times. It makes me wonder if these crimes were crimes that terrorize people, but actually don't rise to violent crimes. And if that's the case, should we be putting our money and energy into supporting our police officers and giving them more techniques to stop this? More policemen in neighborhoods? Maybe there's not enough policemen to respond. I mean, what really is broken here? That's the question I'm asking. And I again I think this bill is a reaction to things that's going on, but I'm not convinced that the Legislature should be passing the law this year. Thank you."

Representative Souki moved that the report of the Committee and S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative Cabanilla.

At 3:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:51 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Before this Body is a motion to recommit Senate Bill 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, which has been moved by Representative Souki and second by Representative Cabanilla. Any discussion, which is limited to the motion of the recommitment?"

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the motion, stating:

"I'm in strong opposition of the recommitment of this bill. On behalf of all the victims in the State of Hawaii who cannot protect themselves from career criminals, I'm in opposition to this recommitment."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry. (Representatives Kahikina, Kanoho and Stonebraker were excused.)

(Main Motion)

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I'd just like to touch on three items regarding this measure. I draw the Body's attention to page 2, lines 20, 21, 22. I believe the drafters of this measure purposefully and intentionally set forth this particular provision, subsection 5. And it states that, 'this section shall apply only if the prosecuting attorney brings before the court a motion to sentence under this section that allows the court to advise the defendant.' On page 3, 'of the defendant's eligibility for sentencing under this section in regard to the entry of verdict of guilty, whether by trial, plea of guilty, or plea of no contest,' period.

"The motion shall set forth a date and jurisdiction of occurrences of each prior conviction required under section 4, subsection c and shall specify whether the defendant is subject to the following,' and it sets forth a list of crimes.

"And my point, Mr. Speaker, is that before this mandatory three strikes sentencing scheme is imposed upon a defendant, they must first be brought and they can only be brought through a motion by the prosecuting attorney. Mr. Speaker, as a former prosecuting attorney, I know that prosecuting attorneys, deputy prosecuting attorneys, DPAs, have a unique code within our code of ethics as attorneys. And one of the them is, in our role as prosecuting attorneys on behalf of the State or the county in which we administer the laws, we are to seek justice in all cases. And that power and responsibility lies with the prosecuting attorney to seek justice in all cases, and therefore Mr. Speaker, I believe that only through that process will such a motion take place for this enhanced three strikes sentencing.

"But it also brings to mind, Mr. Speaker, that the defense counsel will have the opportunity to submit and should file a motion in opposition to a three strikes enhanced sentencing so that the court may have the ability to hear from both parties before rendering a decision.

"The second point I need make Mr. Speaker, is on page 1 of the bill. I believe the crafters of this proposal intentionally and perhaps brilliantly drafted the following language. Section 1, subsection 3, line 13 reads, 'except for work furlough programs in the final year of the sentence, the required incarceration be in a time the inmate is not working or traveling to or from work. A habitual violent felon,' that's the affected class of defendants here, 'shall not be eligible for prerelease, furlough, or other modified terms of imprisonment without the written authorization of the Governor, which authorization shall not be delegable.'

"The way I interpret that Mr. Speaker, is that should this law even apply to defendant and one is imprisoned subject to these harsh terms, that the Governor by the powers set forth in this measure would have the ability to modify the terms of imprisonment. It gives me a little comfort because this language is in this measure.

"And then finally Mr. Speaker, in our State Constitution, Article V, Section 5, setting forth the powers of the Executive Branch provides that the Governor may grant reprieves, commutations, and pardons, after conviction for all offenses subject to regulation by law as to the manner of applying for the same.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, it gives me some degree of comfort that the Governor under our Constitution will have the ability to grant reprieve, commute, or pardon. For these reasons I'll be voting up on this measure."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, I think most of my sentiments were expressed by our Chair of Education Committee. And like him, I would prefer building brain cells than prison cells. But I want to express one particular concern as your Health Chair, Mr. Speaker, because about a month ago I did visit the Hawaii State Hospital. And we all know that the State Hospital is already overcrowded and we are told that over 80% of the patients there are forensic referrals. Already they have a hard time dealing with the violent offenders that come to them.

"So I'm just wondering, I know that with this new law that many of the mentally ill will be swept into, not only our prisons but also into our mental institutions. And I'm just wondering how we are going to handle it because the fact is, the mental health division and our public safety division have not come up with a solution to those who are prone to violent behavior, but are mentally ill and I think we need to address that before we start passing bills like this."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Thank you. I noticed that the Conference Committee Report had reinserted the offense of sexual assault in a second degree, continuous sexual assault of a minor under the age of 14. And those provisions were especially helpful to me and made me feel more comfortable with this law, because I searched the Judiciary's website of registered sexual offenders and you can search by your zip code, Mr. Speaker. In my district there were a tremendous amount of repeat sexual offenders. And I just wonder what the elderly people and the young people who were possible targets of these people would feel if we did not pass this legislation. So I really appreciate that the Chair of the Conference Committee reinserted that language and I think that's very important. Thank you very much."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. Again I speak in opposition to this bill. And I take little comfort as to what the Majority Leader has spoken in regard to the prosecutor and the defender in giving some options.

"Let me cite you a case. There was this person who was apprehended in Maui by the police, kept incarcerated for 15 months without a trial. And even after that, there was a letter given to the prosecuting office that in fact this person was innocent. He wasn't carrying any drugs, etc. He still wouldn't look at that letter until finally after 15 months, in presenting the case to the judge, the judge finally set him free. There was no evidence.

"So I take very little comfort in the judicial system that we have as being a very subjective system. Yes, there are times we may have someone who is very objective, ideal, paramount, but many times it's the opposite. It's a tired jurist, prosecutor who makes these decisions, not necessarily on the evidence, but on a particular feeling as a human being.

"So again Members, the vote will be taken and it seems right now more than likely we will have a distinctive reputation as one of the states that has a 'three strikes and you're out' bill. Members, you should feel proud of yourself. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll just make it very brief. I'm in strong support of this bill. With the epidemic of ice in our community and the people that are affected by it, and how it affects each and every one of our communities, I think we have to do something. It's not just a saying, 'tough on crime'. We do have to be tougher on crime. We use to have a reputation for having a revolving door. They come in the front of a prison and within a few days they were out the back, and it was well deserved.

"Now we have overcrowded prisons. I've been in office for 12 years. And in those 12 years, we have done nothing to create more prison space. It's been said that you know in California they spend more money on prisons than they do on education, but here our budget that we just passed today, we're spending $254 million in prisons, and for education both the lower elementary, K through 12 and the University, we spend $3.5 billion dollars.

"So we're a long way from outspending for prisons over what we spend for education. But we cannot just turn a blind eye to the fact that we do have prisoners and we have to have a place to keep them. Maybe this bill will be the impetus to get us to get really take a look at that. Bring our prisoners home, those that are on the mainland, and incarcerate all our prisoners here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"In closing the discussion, for those who like to submit written comments for or against, you are allowed to do so now."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of this measure, which provides for a mandatory sentence of 30 years to life for habitual violent felons.

"Many of the words of opposition we have heard on the Floor today have merit. However, I will be voting in support because the time has come to take a strong stand in favor of the rights of victims of these violent crimes. The five-year sunset will give us an opportunity to re-evaluate this law, and the contents of the bill have been modified somewhat from the bill as originally written. The potential this bill has to act as a deterrent to those who would flaunt the system with repeated felonies is great. We will have the next five years to evaluate the results."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SENTENCING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 34 ayes to 16 noes, with Representatives Arakaki, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Evans, Harbin, Herkes, Kahikina, Morita, Saiki, Schatz, Shimabukuro, Souki, Takamine, Takumi and Tanaka voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 50-06 and S.B. No. 951, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 951, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIRE PROTECTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 55-06 and H.B. No. 2639, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2639, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing in opposition to this first strike bill. It is a DUI enhanced sentencing bill, Mr. Speaker. What it says here, if you're convicted for the first time, a first offence, you'll be subjected to these sentencing provisions.

"The existing provision requires that there will be a 90-day suspension. However, Mr. Speaker, if a person proves that he or she is employed and that the job requires that he or she drives and the employer provides an affidavit that says, 'if you do not drive or not able to drive you will be fired.' In that case Mr. Speaker, there is a mitigating sentence, which is a 30 day suspension, and a 60 day limited or conditional permit to drive from home to work. In addition there is a conditional permit if you have to go to substance abuse treatment, that you'll be able to drive to.

"What we have done with this bill is to enhance sentencing so if a person drinks for the first time ever, that person may very well pass .15% blood alcohol content, but it doesn't really matter if this is a first time. There's really no learning process. Under our current statute, we intentionally put in this graduated type of punishment in order to see whether or not a person can learn.

"As we previously discussed in the other bill. There is a learning process and if you don't learn the third time you'll get an enhanced sentence and yet in this bill we are saying that even if you have a job, even if you have a family to support, even if you need your driver's license in order to make a living and to support your family, you cannot. This is your first offense, Mr. Speaker. We're doing the exact opposite.

"I think that we can incorporate the enhanced sentencing, but we can also incorporate a provision to ensure that it will take place at least on the second time. We're not asking for the third strike, Mr. Speaker. I'm asking that we should avoid the first strike. 90 days, 3 months is a long time and it is actually extending it to 6 months on page 10. It prompts suspension of a license for a period of a 6 months. Absolute prohibition, Mr. Speaker, and I think that is one good way to ensure that families will be homeless."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly, I did want to clarify. I agree with the prior speaker that yes, there is a mandatory revocation of your license, but I guess it's a philosophical difference as to whether driving is a right or a privilege. I think driving is actually a privilege. And when somebody has been convicted of being a highly intoxicated driver, meaning that their blood alcohol level is .15, twice the legal limit, twice the legal limit and that's when they're caught. At the first time I think it's appropriate that we take the proper sanctions to make sure that person is not on the road and being a danger to the public and to everyone else's safety. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in strong support of this measure and I want my written remarks to be inserted in the Journal. But I see this bill as probably, next to the secondhand smoke bill, probably the second most important bill we passed this Session. And those who drink and drive are as much killers as the people we talked about in the three strikes bill. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"This bill will apply many of the existing penalties faced by repeat DUI offenders to drivers highly intoxicated by alcohol – penalties such as administrative revocation of drivers' licenses and temporary revocation of vehicle registration. This measure comes into effect only for the most impaired drivers. A driver with 0.15 percent blood alcohol level is 380 times more likely to be involved in a fatal crash than a non-drinking driver. A driver so intoxicated cannot reasonably claim that he or she had "only a few drinks." Our crowded roadways are inherently dangerous to both drivers and pedestrians; legislation such as this, which will discourage people from choosing to operate a vehicle while highly intoxicated, can only improve safety on our roads.

"The strict penalties imposed by this bill may have a small deterrent effect, but, even more importantly, this measure will go far to remove from our roadways and to severely penalize highly intoxicated drivers who ignore the deterrent. These offenders pose a deadly threat to our citizens and show a blatant disregard for the common good. At this point nobody can honestly argue that DUI is a little-known offense; we have all seen the tragic consequences of this problem.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Very briefly, this weekend at 6:00 in the morning, a person came in the hospital with the paramedics because he was driving under the influence. At 110 miles per hour he hit an innocent victim, the back end of their car. Amazingly they weren't hurt. He had more than 30 fractures in his face including most of his face being gone, and then he had about 15 other major injuries. He could have killed a whole family. I see that too often so anything we can do to really punish people who are driving impaired I think is a really good idea. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, short comments in strong support. Aside from keeping other people safe, this is a measure that keeps the driver safe as well. If there are sanctions like we're talking about, it would hopefully help to make that decision, not to drive highly intoxicated and possibly save their own lives. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of H.B. 2639, which increases the penalties for driving with a high blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of .15 or more.

"Over the past 5 years in Hawaii, approximately 48% of alcohol related crashes have involved a driver with a BAC of .15 or higher. A recent Attorney General report in Hawaii showed that nearly half of DUI arrests in Honolulu involved a driver who had a BAC of .136 and nearly one quarter had a BAC above .174. Drivers at these levels are extremely intoxicated and impaired. They exhibit a decrease in performance in virtually every driving measure.

"There are no excuses for drinking and driving. As legislators, it's imperative that we take action to ensure stricter and harsher penalties for those who choose to drink while highly intoxicated and risk the lives of our children and community members."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2639, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO USE OF INTOXICANTS WHILE OPERATING A MOTOR VEHICLE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Sonson voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 4:10 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:11 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 862, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill. This is not a new problem in the State, and finally the Legislature is taking decisive action to bring safety back to our roads.

"This bill addresses an issue that is not unique to Hawaii, but it is no less a problem. I hope something like this has never touched our lives directly, but allow me to tell you about some people whose lives have been impacted.

"On August 26, 2001, Wally Kekoa was driving on H-1 with his mother-in-law, Rose Davis, and his wife, Elizabeth Kekoa, a school teacher at Holy Trinity School. Their van was struck by a racing Honda Prelude which was traveling at more than 100 miles an hour. Wally and Rose were injured, and tragically, Elizabeth was killed. Not only was this an emotional loss, but a financial one as well. Elizabeth was the breadwinner for their family of five.

"On February 14, 2004 at 3:11 am, a Safety Systems Hawaii flatbed truck was making its regular morning inspection. Until two speeding Eclipse cars crashed into its rear and ignited a three vehicle fire. This was one of the most deadly collisions on Oahu.

"Safety worker Carl Koonce III, was seriously injured. Tragically, safety worker Mariano Salangdron was killed. He was 49 years old. The two people in the first Eclipse were burned beyond recognition. The driver of the second Eclipse was killed. The passenger was also seriously injured. A total of four deaths and two serious injuries because of excessive speeding.

"According to recent annual report statistics from the State of Hawaii Department of Transportation. There were, on average, from 1998-2003: 40 fatal crashes and 550 injury crashes each year, because of excessive speeding.

"This is too many. Mr. Speaker, this bill will effectively clamp down on highway speeding and racing, and will be a monumental step toward creating greater safety on our roads throughout our State."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 862, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRAFFIC OFFENSES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 386, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COURTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 60-06 and H.B. No. 2199, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2199, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final

Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Conference Committee Report 60. I rise in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm not a constitutional lawyer, but I believe this bill may be unconstitutional. The State of Hawaii does not have the constitutional authority to establish laws and rules that would oppose those established by the U.S. government in the conduct of international trade. I don't believe the State Legislature has the right to void any federal, international trade agreements.

"That's why the citizens of this State vote for U.S. Representatives, and Senators to represent us in DC. It's their job to speak with interested parties and congressional leaders to make sure our international trade agreements are fair to Hawaii businesses and workers.

"I believe if we opt out of the rules regarding international trade agreements we will be opted out of the benefits of those agreements. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The purpose of this bill is to prohibit future binding of the State to government procurement rules contained in an international trade agreement without legislative action. This bill provides that only the Legislature can through a Concurrent Resolution, bind the State to government procurement rules contained in an international trade agreement.

"I introduced this bill because without State law outlining proper procedure, our governors have unilaterally allowed the United States Trade Representative to bind our procurement system to the rules of international trade agreements without full consideration of how those rules affect our State laws and sovereignty over our own procurement system.

"Mr. Speaker, the right to consent will not bind our State procurement system to an international trade agreement. It is solely the right of the State. I'm not a lawyer, but if it were not so the United States Trade Representative would not deem it fit to ask our Governor's permission before moving to bind us to international trade agreements. And I don't have the figures before me to show you, but many states have not agreed to their Trade Representative.

"As for the worry that we are not in Session all year long, I ask my colleagues to rest assured that international trade agreements take several years to negotiate and finalize, therefore allowing ample time to consider our consent to their procurement rules.

"Furthermore, the United States Trade Representative never places a time limit on our consent. We can do a consent at any time, but once negotiated into the trade agreement we can never take our consent back unless the other country takes the extraordinary step of agreeing to open negotiations and further agree to carve us out of the agreement.

"With this bill, we have set a proper procedure for dealing from now on with international trade agreements. We are not trying to prevent what has happened in the past, but in the future. This is a job for this State Legislature. I urge my colleagues to vote for this bill. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of the measure. Perhaps the Representative from Waikiki has a misunderstanding of what the purpose and the intent of this measure is. As you know, Mr. Speaker, this bill merely, on a go-forward basis says, that the people of this State ought to have a say, ought to have some input, as to how international trade agreements affect our State, specifically only as it relates to procurement. Every other single section of the international trade agreement is clearly under the purview of the federal government. That's point 1.

"Point 2, as the Representative from Puna indicated, previously governors unilaterally decided to sign the State on to an international trade agreement with no public input. Even the United States President does not have the authority to bind the nation to a trade agreement. That has to be ratified by the Congress and sent up for his signature. Like other states we have many laws in our books. Like local laws that prevent off-shoring, laws that try to promote small businesses.

"When any governor signs our State on to an international trade agreement as it relates specifically to procurement, it binds our State to that part of the agreement and therefore renders moot, null, and void whatever sections we have in our laws as it relates to procurement. This leaves us open to a challenge to those member nations about our procurement policies. And I think it goes without saying from anyone, whether this is the Executive Branch or the Legislative Branch, that historically and traditionally procurement laws fall completely and totally under the purview of the Legislature. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to prevent the Governor from binding the State to procurement rules under any future international trade agreements. And just for the Members' edification, currently the United States is involved in about ten proposed bilateral international trade agreements. The United States with Panama, the United Arab Emirates, Kuwait, Ecuador, Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia, Southern African Customs Union, South Korea, and Kirabati.

"Mr. Speaker, even the federal government through our U.S. Trade Representative Ambassador, Robert Zoellick, who solicited the input of governors, did note that it was the sole purpose of having governors relinquish their authority over their own procurement rules to support these trade agreements. So when Governor Lingle signed the agreement that bound the State to the Central American Free Trade Agreement on March 8th of 2004, she essentially allowed our laws to take second seat and play second fiddle to the international trade agreements.

"Mr. Speaker, only 18 other states consented to the restrictive procurement provisions of these international trade agreements. And subsequent to that time, a bipartisan group of governors from eight states, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Missouri, Maine, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Oregon, and Kansas, actually withdrew their initial agreements to bind their states to comply with the procurements rules in CAFTA.

"This legislation is necessary to clarify and reaffirm the Legislature's sole and exclusively authority regarding procurement under all future trade agreements. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2199, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTERNATIONAL TRADE AGREEMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses and Stevens voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2974, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise with strong support of Conference Committee Report 66-06. It extends the length of time allowed to acquire the lands that will be designated as part of the South Kona Wilderness Area on Hawaii preserves. This measure is important because it will protect our important cultural resources.

"With increasing development, native dry land forest covers are becoming rarer throughout the State. And the South Kona Wilderness Preserve will perpetuate Native Hawaiian culture tradition, and archaeological sites. It will preserve the special place in Hawaii's history for generations to come.

"It is in accordance with this Administration's goal to preserve and protect Hawaii's unique natural resources because we are at a time when the health of many oceans worldwide are being threatened by oil spills, fishery depletion and coral bleaching. Just this year the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands were designated under rural refuge by our Governor. Encompassing 135,000 square miles of the Pacific, an area larger than all the US National Parks combined, the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands Coral Reef Ecosystem Reserve is now the largest conservation area under our nation's flag.

"Also earlier this year in January, the Energy for Tomorrow bill was introduced to reposition Hawaii from the most oil dependent state in the nation with the highest energy costs, into a state that leads the nation with low cost sustainable, locally produced and secure energy systems.

"So with House Bill 2974, the Legislature's efforts to protect the South Kona Wilderness Area are now consistent and they add to the actions to preserve the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands and implement renewable energy technology. It is evident that resource management, and land conservation are necessary tools in assuring a clean and energy independent Hawaii for this and our future generations. Thank you for this opportunity to speak."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, the reason that we need a one-year extension of the South Kona Wilderness Lands is that the Administration has yet to provide us with an independent appraisal of that land so that we can take that appraisal to Senator Inouye who's made a commitment to provide the funds to purchase this.

"In the original bill, when we passed this, we put in $500,000 to provide for some of these chores, and some of the things that are necessary in order to acquire the land. So it is my hope that with this one-year extension that the Administration will finally do an independent appraisal that we can then take to Senator Inouye. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2974, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORIC PRESERVATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 3217 calls for an annual holiday to commemorate the significant role that our kupuna play in Hawaii's culture, history, and traditions. Though this is not a paid State holiday, the fourth Saturday of July each year would serve as Kupuna Recognition Day.

"Here in Hawaii, kupuna tradition has long been responsible for the passage of knowledge from our elders. Whether it was teaching the hula, canoe building, or la'au lapa'au, watching and learning from the kupuna can be very educational and of great value in our life. These teaching methods were responsible for maintaining a rich oral tradition and carrying centuries-old wisdom forward.

"Furthermore, our kupuna have acquired lifetimes of skill and understanding. My hope is that this holiday will acknowledge and recognize our kupuna for all that they have contributed to our families, friends, colleagues, and community.

"Mr. Speaker, I was raised by my kupuna and have and still do surround myself with kupuna because I enjoy their stories, lessons, and bits of unique wisdom I've gathered from them which are invaluable. They are life's living experts with scores of first-hand knowledge to share and pass on. This is why I feel it is necessary to give our kupuna wider attention and praise. In addition, Kupuna Recognition Day isn't just for them, it's also for our younger generations who are responsible for perpetuating tradition.

"Again, this measure will provide for a statewide recognition of our kupuna that is long overdue. Therefore, I ask my colleagues to please support HB 3217 and honor our kupuna by passing this bill."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Carroll be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3217, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KUPUNA RECOGNITION DAY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2039, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Many of the chemicals used in the production of crystal methamphetamine are toxic, especially to children. And these chemicals include volatile organic chemicals like toluene, acetone, methanol, petroleum distillates, ethers, lead, and mercury. And when illegal labs are discovered subsequent human habitation of the premises is likely to be very unsafe. To determine whether living in the building is safe and to guide any necessary cleanup it's important to adopt regulations for the testing and decontamination of property used for the production of illegal drugs.

"I wanted to tell you about what one of my constituents experienced. He related this story to me and it became the impetus for this bill. Without his knowledge, he had been renting to methamphetamine traffickers. After eight months, the tenants were arrested for an illegal methamphetamine laboratory in the unit.

"The landowner was given a classic bureaucratic run around. The federal, State, and county officials were unable to provide him guidance in making the unit fit for habitation. However, he was told, that if the cleanup was inadequate, he would be liable, but he was not told what an adequate cleanup would entail. Only after six months and significant expense, was he finally able to find a contractor willing to tackle the expensive job of returning his property to habitable condition.

"Hopefully, the rules established by DOH pursuant to this Act, will prevent any repeat of this frustration. I would also like to mention that this is part of the package of legislation that was sponsored by the Mililani Town Anti-drug Committee. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this bill. The bill before us mandates that the Department of Health to establish procedures for emergency and long-term decontamination of illegal methamphetamine labs. A key reason for the growing epidemic is that meth can be easily made with over the counter drugs and common household ingredients and manufactured in homes.

"Due to the rising number of homes being used to make meth, a growing problem is that of unsuspecting homebuyers, when they purchase what were once meth labs and now suffer the same effects as ingesting meth.

"This bill implements the necessary steps in ensuring long-term decontamination and owner's health and safety. According to the US Attorney, Edward Kubo, Hawaii today, leads the nation in the number of arrestees testing positive for ice at approximately 45%. That's 45% of anybody picked up for some kind of a charge, they find that they have ice in their system.

"We need to be mindful that as we pass measures such as these, we must remain committed to providing our law enforcement with the necessary tools to stop the spread of illicit drug use in our State. We need tougher sentences and we heard a lot of debate about that on the Floor. The passage of these enforcement initiatives assures the hope, one day, we won't have to discuss the merits of bills like these because we would have wiped illegal drug manufacturing Statewide. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2039, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DECONTAMINATION OF ILLEGAL DRUG MANUFACTURING SITES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And thank you everyone for supporting this particular measure. This measure will statutorily require that there be no residential development in Kakaako Makai, and that public lands that we value so dearly cannot be sold in Kakaako Makai.

"I think this bill is very indicative of what the community, the real people of Hawaii can do to move a legislative body such as ours as quickly as it did to respond to the potential loss of a very valuable asset of Hawaii. I really want to thank them and I hope that all those that were involved with this process, and for many of them, it was a first time event, that you go back and go home and know that you do have the power here.

"This bill has one more stop and it's upstairs. I would like to really request that the Governor, respect her words to the public, when she said, if the Legislature so mandates it, she will so respect it. I hope that this message will be carried to her.

"And as a sidebar, it was brought to my attention very, very recently that in 2002, as a citizen participant, I was quoted as saying, 'Over my dead body, there will be residential in Makai.' I want to thank you all for allowing me to live on. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak against this bill. And the former speaker doesn't have to thank me because I didn't support it. Let me go on and say that I believe the wisdom of the Legislature in adopting this measure, in my estimation is suspect. And I do respect this Body here and the decisions that you make and live by them.

"However, my concerns have been and are that we had an opportunity to provide for an extensive park, a walkway, a marketplace, a beautiful setting there, and to rid ourselves of all of the toxins in the area, in the ground, fix the buildings that need to be replaced. We had an opportunity to do all of that to make a very scenic and beautiful area, where it would be safe for the surfers, as well as anyone who wishes to walk through the area. Also it would have provided additional low-income housing.

"Now Mr. Speaker, if we are going to improve that area similar to what it was planned to be, we're going to have to put in over $150 million – between $150 and $200 million. I would prefer to see that $200 million go for school and college buildings, the arts, hospitals, etc., rather than we, ourselves putting that money in that area. Because Mr. Speaker and Members, eventually we are going to have to improve that area. But the next time we'll have to do it all by ourselves.

"If I recall, we passed a measure, Act 231. The Legislature passed it last year, to build a public cultural market. Ironically, we instructed the HCDA to look at a public-private partnership. They did so. And of course this bill means that we rejected that partnership that we requested HCDA to do.

"Now we need to understand that when we pass this bill and the decision not to build any more residences, residential property, that it is not only the State that owns land there. Bishop Estate also owns land in that particular area. So this is something that we need to look at, at some point. Suddenly, land that they have has now been downgraded. And we know what happens to land that is downgraded. They come back and make an appeal for the original zoning that they had, because suddenly they lost their zoning.

"I have no idea what they plan, but I do know this. Low-income residences and those who may have had an opportunity to get a home, will not be able to because of the decision that we made. We will not be having the open space, the park, the halau. All of that, we will not have.

"What we will have is, we will continue to have old buildings. The land filled with toxins that we cannot use unless it is cleaned. An area that we don't walk around there at night alone because it is unsafe. This is what we will have this by the action of this Body here.

"So Members, I hope that in the future as we look at future legislation for the area, maybe we can find a partner for a public-private partnership who is willing to go there. He won't be able to build any residences, but maybe, maybe he can build a park and we get his money back by vending and selling. Selling merchandise there. They can put up stores, but they cannot put any residences. I doubt if we'll have a park there in the near future, Mr. Speaker and Members. And I feel that it's going to be like that for years to come. Thank you very much."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Thank you. We had a lot of bills this Session regarding what to do with Kakaako Makai. And I believe that this bill gets to the heart of the public policy question that really needed to be answered, and that was whether or not to sell public land in fee simple for residences to a developer, and the public outcry against this was pretty strong.

"I believe you Mr. Speaker and our colleagues heard that very loud and clear, and I think this bill gets to the heart of that and answers that question and says, no, we shouldn't be selling public land. Especially waterfront land in the last waterfront area that's open and in fee because once it's sold, it can never be reclaimed for park or public use. So I appreciate the support of colleagues and I appreciate the public that has been so diligent in coming and testifying at these different hearings, and coming to give rallies and show us where their feelings were on this issue. So I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, I think this Body has taken a sensible step by saying, let's step back, let's look at what's occurred, and let's not have the residential development go forward on the Kakaako Makai lands. In doing so, Mr. Speaker, I don't think it's the intent of this Body to state that the HCDA is somehow a bad organization, or hasn't been doing wonderful work in the Kakaako area. They have really transformed that area into a place where so many people can come and enjoy themselves in so many different ways.

"And I wanted to mention that Dan Dinell, a constituent of mine, who lives in the very back of Manoa Valley, who's up in the audience and I'd like to recognize him for all the hard work he does, I want to thank him for his attempts at compromising. Can we just give him a round of applause, if that would be okay?"

"Mr. Speaker, as we know, Mr. Dinell, has worked with many of us on various issue regarding Kakaako and that his heart is in the right place. The same can be stated for Alexander and Baldwin. They rose to the occasion and asked to propose a bid based on our RFP that was outlined. They met the conditions and people like Stan Kuriyama and Meredith Ching, have worked hard on the initial proposal and then trying to craft a compromise and they too are not bad people. They were just trying to respond to what they were asked to do. And of course we have the grassroots organization who did come forward and expressed the needs that they were concerned about and that we all listened to, which resulted in the bill that we have today.

"I think HCDA did not try to sneak this issue by. Part of the problem is all of us including the people of our State and the people of our City, weren't paying attention in the initial stages of this. As back as early as 2002, HCDA announced its intention to pursue a residential development and to work on an RFP. It really wasn't until 2005, Mr. Speaker, when the plan was actually proposed, as we all remembered in the paper, that people realized what this was going to do. And in a way, we all need to accept responsibility for this and look back and see how it can be done better to get people to participate in the problem a lot earlier. And I hope that with the Resolutions that have moved forward in that process will be looked at so we can help the HCDA do its job in the future, and avoid some of the wasted effort.

"Mr. Speaker, I do take offense from of the articles in the paper and letters to the editor, saying that this is just a small minority of people who oppose this project. Maybe 10 or 20 or 30. Some people said, mostly from Manoa Valley. Mr. Speaker, I have a box here of petitions, letters, signatures, it goes on and on, Mr. Speaker. Almost 3,500 of them are here. So this is not something that just a few people expressed concern with. It's many, many people and I think we can be proud of the fact that we listened to those voices as we well should, as the Representatives for the people of the State of Hawaii. So I think it's an absolute wrong that somebody can stand up and just say that it's 10 people and nothing more than that.

"Mr. Speaker, when you think about it, we want to see a Kakaako that's comfortable for the families of the City and County of Honolulu to go to. And we see so many developments in parts of our State now and based on the poll that was recently taken, where the people of our communities feel locked out. Maybe not physically, but in terms of their comfort level, whether it be Waikiki, Kahala, or even certain areas of the Waterfront. I just think back when as kid, growing up in Hilo, we'd go to Hapuna because it rained so much in Hilo, and now there is a hotel on the one end of the beach, Hapuna Prince. Most local people don't go down to that area even though it's a public park unless the o'ama are running, to go fish, but otherwise they just don't feel comfortable.

"What we want to see, Mr. Speaker, is a development in Kakaako that addresses those concerns. To say that somehow residential development would fit the needs. If you think about it, if someone were to propose that Kapiolani Park should have a residential development, and the money gained from that development could be used, maybe improve the zoo and that's a justified need. I think there be an outcry heard across the State, saying, 'No way, we don't want that.'

"But now that we have decided, Mr. Speaker, by this bill, and we heard the Speaker Emeritus talk about it. We do owe it, to come forward, and talk about how we're going to help HCDA take the next step and that is to improve that area with the bus barns, and the warehouses, and the broken down buildings, to make it safe, to make it open for everyone so that your mother, and my mother-in-law, along with their grandchildren, can go down there, sit at a table, eat a bento, and enjoy the sunset along with the surfers and others who like to go there. We need to work on that and I hope that we all commit to it because in the end, Mr. Speaker, we have that responsibility. It'd be a shame to see that after this bill passes, nothing happens and that Kakaako stays the way it is. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. I basically want to commend the folks who worked on this bill, all of us, because it shows that the democratic process, the citizen engagement actually works.

"Secondly, what it also shows is that we have an intention to move Hawaii towards sustainability in a coherent way so this pause, I hope will be an invitation for us to look at other development areas and for HCDA, as well to ask the hard questions, in terms of what sustainability means for the quality of life of all of us. And if we look at this opportunity as talking about more than a park or not having condominiums, but rather what does the energy needs and the wellness of our environment mean to us. I believe it will cause us to pause on all islands and look at all of the studies and support the community's voice in all decisions that are made. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2555, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Souki voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Cabanilla, Nishimoto, Pine and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 73-06 and H.B. No. 2991, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2991, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.B. No. 2991, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Special Purpose Revenue Bonds.'

"The purpose of this bill is to promote the development of affordable housing through enabling legislation that establishes the manner and procedure for the issuance of special purpose revenue bonds (SPRBs) to public instrumentalities and their qualified affiliates to develop low- and moderate-income housing.

"The measure also:

Authorizes not-for-profit private organizations and for-profit private organizations, in addition to public instrumentalities and their qualified affiliates, to be eligible for SPRBs for the development of low- and moderate-income housing;

Includes projects qualifying for federal tax exempt status under 26 U.S.C. § 142 (a)(7) and (d) as projects that may qualify for SPRBs under this measure; and Specifies that the State shall not operate a project on behalf of an entity qualifying for SPRBs.

"It is our hope that in the event that competing requests for the authorization of SPRBs occur during the same legislative session, that the Legislature would give first consideration to authorizing bonds for the low- and moderate-income housing projects that will provide housing to the lowest income families.

"With approval, this measure would become effective July, 1, 2006. I ask that H.B. No. 2991, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 2145, HD2, SD1, CD1.

"Hawaii's agricultural industry is in a time of transition and this measure will assist farmers in diversifying their operations, by permitting agricultural tourism on existing farms.

"Long recognized as a prime destination for tourists, it is now the time to showcase Hawaii's agricultural industry.

"This measure specifies that tourism operations must be accessory and secondary to existing farm operations, and ag. tourism ventures permitted under this measure cannot interfere with surrounding farms.

"In addition, HB 2145 directs counties to adopt ordinances regulating ag. tourism. Thus, passage of this measure shall clarify land use codes regarding agriculture lands.

"Support of HB2145 will aid the diversification of agriculture, and will give farmers an opportunity to present Hawaii's agricultural industry to the world. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2145, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL TOURISM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Waters voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Cabanilla, Nishimoto, Pine and Stonebraker being excused.

At 4:49 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 5:12 o'clock p.m. with Vice Speaker Takai presiding.

The Chair then announced:

"Members, we're on page 11 but before we continue, I just wanted to remind you that I believe we have 23 more pages. In addition to that we have two Supplemental Calendars. In addition to that we have the yellow Action Sheets. And in addition to that we have the white Action Sheets. We have a little more than 6 hours to go with much to do."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 76-06 and H.B. No. 2848, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2848, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 2848. Since its inception in 2002, the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum has developed an organization framework for addressing and raising public policy issues in Hawaii's energy arena. The Forum's partnership represents the input from 41 major stakeholders, elected officials, recognized industry leaders and scientists Statewide."

"This Session, we're fortunate to see some of the Forum's energy policy recommendations in many of the bills before us today. Mr. Speaker, your Minority Caucus, under the leadership of our Senior Ranking, Assistant Minority Leader from Kailua, energy champion, are long time proponents of increasing implementation of alternative energy through credits and incentives to consumers and we're encouraged to see this concept being expanded in the omnibus alternative energy bill that will be discussed later in today's OD.

"The passage of this bill reminds me of the accomplishment last Session in establishing an alternative energy standards mandate. This bipartisan effort demonstrates our success in making energy a top priority in our State, furthering Hawaii's nationally recognized leadership in renewable energy initiatives.

"Increasing global demands on natural energy resources will continue to raise the price of electricity, and vehicle fuel cost. Current economic trends force us to forge ahead with solutions to our longstanding dependency on imported oil. The $200,000 appropriation to the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum is just the beginning of our State's long journey towards energy independence. And your Minority Caucus looks forward to supporting future bipartisan efforts like this bill that will secure Hawaii's renewable energy future. Mr. Speaker, thank you for this opportunity to speak."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. And this is the only time I'll get up to speak on energy issues so I ask for your indulgence. Today besides House Bill 2848, CD 1, we will move four other energy measures. Usually when we open up the new legislative Session, many think we have the one magic bullet, or the one big idea that will transform into a policy or solve a problem. Unfortunately, for most of the time this is not the case as many difficult issues we deal with, take a long-term vision and a sustained effort to keep us on track. Energy policy is one of those issues, and today I'd like to speak on energy issues, on each of these bills we pass today, and how it fits in this larger more cohesive plan outlined in this bill.

"Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2848 is a vehicle that continues the discussion and calls for action on Hawaii's big energy picture through a $200,000 appropriation to support the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum. Each action we take today falls into the desired actions of the Hawaii 10-point energy plan adopted by the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum. By talking and acting upon these measures within the framework of a 10-point plan, we can begin to understand how small changes can make a big difference.

"The Hawaii 10-point Energy Plan was adopted by the Forum as a result of its discussion on how to help Hawaii's citizens visualize the big energy picture and gauge our progress toward our desired energy vision. Originally convened in 2002 by the University of Hawaii, the Forum continues to be a unique experiment in collaborative energy policy making. The 45 members of the Forum, includes representatives of the electric utilities, oil and gas companies, environmental groups, the renewable energy industry, your Chair of the Energy and Environmental Protection Committee, federal, State and county agencies, the business community, and other major energy users. We also put the forum's preferred energy vision of achieving smart energy solutions to sustain a healthy, prosperous, and secure Hawaii.

"In Malcolm Gladwell's book, The Tipping Point, he describes how a well-placed vehicle, with a profound message, can seize an opportunity to chart and engineer the course for a social epidemic. A good historical example is President John F. Kennedy's announcement of the Apollo Project at Rice University in Houston on September 12, 1962. In setting the stage for America's ambitions in space explorations, President Kennedy said and I quote, "We set sail on this new sea because there is new knowledge to be gained and new rights to be won and they must be won and used for the progress of all people," and then he goes on to say, "whether it will become a force for good or ill, depends on man and only if the United States occupies a position of preeminence, can we help decide whether this new ocean will be a sea of peace or a new terrifying theater of war."

"Currently there is no doubt that energy issues drag us into a terrifying theatre of war with our involvement in the Middle East.

"President Kennedy rallied the citizens of the United States behind his proposed space program, committing American ingenuity and resources. Unfortunately, the essence of this important speech, to commit American ingenuity and resources is not in the vernacular or the soul of our Nation's leadership for bold and visionary ideas to guide America's energy policy. However, despite the lack of this national leadership, many states, municipalities, labor organizations, businesses and community groups are partnering with a national initiative called the Apollo Alliance to use Kennedy's inspired Apollo project as a model to launch bold grassroots energy agendas.

"The Apollo Alliance is an ambitious, 10 year, 10-point plan that promotes the advancement of renewable energy and energy efficiency ..."

Representative Luke rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. The plan is an advancement of renewable energy and energy initiatives to drive investments into modern energy technologies and public infrastructure. It is anticipated that this initiative's highly focused program for sustained energy independence can create 3 million high quality jobs, free the nation from imported oil, revitalize underserved communities, reduce dependency on foreign oil, and enhance energy security and promote a healthier environment.

"Using the Apollo Alliance's 10-point model, the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum's 10-point energy plan was developed in the spirit of President Kennedy's speech to make a commitment towards action. Hawaii now needs to bring a social, economic and environmental epidemic to create a tipping point for a sustainable energy future. The Hawaii 10-point Energy Plan pulls into a framework the smart solutions that we need to accomplish as a community to sustain a healthy, prosperous and secure Hawaii. And this is the 10-point energy plan.

"First of all, expand renewable energy opportunities and this means to increase development and use of Hawaii's indigenous renewable energy sources.

"Senate Bill 3185 amends the Renewable Portfolio Standards, authorizes the PUC to establish a public benefit fund and clarifies policy directives to the PUC to promote and remove the regulatory barriers hindering renewable energy and energy efficiency efforts.

"Senate Bill 2957 removes the sunset date for the Renewable Energy Income Tax Credit and raises the tax credit for solar hot water heaters from $1,750 to $2,250 and photovoltaic systems from $1,750 to $5,000 for single-family residences. This measure also raises the tax credit for photovoltaic and wind systems for commercial properties from $250,000 to $500,000.

"House Bill 2175 appropriates $5 million for the development and implementation for photovoltaic, net metering pilot projects in our public schools, to begin with at least one pilot project in each county.

"Almost $5 million was requested in emergency appropriations for the DOE deficit for electricity costs in this Session. The potential of these PV projects should be viewed as an income generator for our public schools, not only to offset electricity costs, but also to free up additional money for school programs.

"House Bill 2848 directs the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum to investigate and assess the State's participation in the Chicago Climate Exchange, a market based approach to emissions reduction, in terms of advancing Hawaii's development and use of renewable energy especially in selling our renewable energy resources as off-set credits out-of-state, as an export product.

"The second point in the plan is to increase energy efficiency in public buildings. For fiscal year 2006, the total estimated cost for electricity statewide in public buildings is over $90 million. This Session alone, the Governor has requested more than $12.5 million to cover deficits in electricity payments.

"House Bill 2175 updates the State's energy policy and appropriates funds and staff positions in the DOE and DBEDT to promote State use of green building practices for the construction or substantial renovation of State-funded buildings, energy and water efficiency practices, life cycle cost-benefit analysis ..."

Representative Caldwell rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Fuel-efficient vehicles ..."

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm a little confused, aren't we on House Bill 2848?"

The Chair then stated:

"Yes, I've given the Representative from Kauai the opportunity to talk about the comprehensive energy package that this House, this Legislature is passing."

Representative Meyer: "It's just that this bill is very narrow."

Vice Speaker Takai: "I realize that. She said that she will only speak once on all of the bills and I'm assuming that when the other bills come forward she won't have to speak on those other ones."

Representative Meyer: "Well that's your prerogative. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. All of these measures, as I mentioned before, fit into an energy 10-point plan and this is the work of the Energy Policy Forum, which was outlined in House Bill 2848.

"The third point increases the use of solar water heating and energy efficient appliances.

"Senate Bill 2957 helps to remove the cost barriers for many Hawaii families that can benefit from solar water heaters through the establishment of a pilot "Pay As You Save" program, where electricity savings from using a solar hot water heater pays for the system through their electricity bill.

"Senate Bill 3185 authorizes the PUC to establish the public benefit fund to help electric customers, both residential and commercial, to reduce their electricity costs through energy efficiency and conservation.

"The fourth point, maintains policies and regulations to encourage energy efficiency and renewable resources. As I mentioned before, Senate Bill 3185 helps to give a clear policy directive to the PUC to remove the regulatory barriers hindering the use of energy efficiency and renewable resources.

"Number 5, we preserve regulatory protections. House Bill 1021 requires both the PUC and the Division of the Consumer Advocate to report back to the Legislature with an in-depth review of their respective operations to develop a restructuring plan to more effectively and efficiently address changing regulatory conditions, duties, and requirements and advances in technology.

"Number 6, invest in planning for sustainable communities. The efforts to improve Hawaii's energy big picture is not the sole responsibility of government and this bill, House Bill 2848, utilizing the Hawaii Energy Policy Forum, will contribute to on-going public discussions and community, both residents and businesses, involvement in planning and meeting Hawaii's energy goals.

"Number 7, improve energy efficiencies and options in transportation. Having the State lead the example, House Bill 2175 accelerates the timetable to phase-in energy efficient vehicles into the State's motor vehicle fleet operations.

"Number 8. Support research and development of alternative fuels. Senate Bill 2957 codifies the Hawaii Renewable Hydrogen Program, appropriates $10 million into the Hydrogen Investment Capital Special Fund, funds the hydrogen system program manager position at the Hawaii Natural Energy Institute. And this particular position can be used to match various federal programs as much as 4 to 1. In the past, legislative appropriations have been match as much as 20 to 1 through public-private partnerships to advance Hawaii's renewable hydrogen program and efforts.

"Number 9, encourage development, production, and use of biofuels. Senate Bill 2957 appropriates $150,000 to provide assistance to the agricultural community interested in developing energy projects, especially for the production of biodiesel from energy crops and cellulosic ethanol from agricultural waste to maximize funding available from USDA and US Department of Energy or other external sources.

"Senate Bill 2957 also appropriates $200,000 to allow DBEDT to conduct a Statewide multi-fuel production assessment ... "

Representative Chong rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"I'm almost done. So the $200,000 will be used to conduct a Statewide multi-fuel biofuels production assessment of potential feedstock and technologies and economies of various renewable fuels pathways to contribute to Hawaii's near-, mid- and long-term energy needs.

"And the bill also establishes a statewide alternative fuel standard of 10% of highway fuel demand to be provided by alternative fuels by 2010, 15% by 2015 and 20% by 2020.

"And number 10, to ensure a secure system for fuels and an electric utility grid. As we build new or renovate our infrastructure, we need to embed these multiple uses and concerns in our planning efforts. While we do not have any specific energy legislation to address this issue, various discussions in other bills have included this philosophy of securing our fuel and utility grid infrastructure.

"So Mr. Speaker these are just some of the many aspects of these energy bills. Many which I did not cover, fit into this comprehensive 10-point plan. Your Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, your Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and your Committee on Finance did its best to deliver an energy package that this Body should be proud of to achieve our goal of smart energy solutions to sustain a healthy, prosperous and a secure Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2848, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 77-06 and H.B. No. 1706, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1706, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIFORM ENVIRONMENTAL COVENANTS ACT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 78-06 and H.B. No. 439, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 439, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Conference Committee Report No. 78, House Bill 439. This is a bill that the original purpose of this bill was to enable the Office of the Ombudsman to access State tax returns and tax return information relating to its official duties including the investigation of the administrative acts of various agencies.

"As the bill was amended in Conference Committee, it was limited, limiting the Ombudsman access to tax returns and return information of any taxpayer who files a complaint with the Ombudsman about an administrative act of the Department of Taxation. So it's very much more narrow than it was going to be originally.

"But the question comes up, for me anyway, if somebody comes and files a complaint with the Ombudsman, they can just give the Ombudsman their tax returns if that's their choice. I'm not sure that that limitation is what it looks like at first glance. It's when you read the bill further in, it talks about the Ombudsman shall have access to the complainant's tax returns and return information required to be filed pursuant to Title 14.

"In this investigation, it sounds to me like he would be able to get other return information. Again, if it's just information having to do with this complainant, he doesn't need this bill. That person can simply provide him with any information he needs.

"My concern is that this gives the Ombudsman a great deal of latitude where he could then in connection, with this person's complaint, get other tax returns from the Tax Department.

"The bill goes on to amend, at least three other parts of the HRS statutes that have to do with tax returns. I'm concerned that, while this is very narrow, once we make these changes in the law, giving the Ombudsman the right to get this information, people's personal tax returns, it will take very little to broaden it in the future. I don't know exactly who or what parties are interested in giving this power to the Ombudsman, but I think it has the effect, it could create a lot of mischief in getting people's tax returns in the hands of a much larger group than is now allowed in our laws. So for those reasons, I'll be voting no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 439, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF THE OMBUDSMAN," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2265, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Stevens rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to 81-06. Thank you. This bill transfers the supervisory and counseling functions, positions, and employees of the field service branch from the Hawaii Paroling Authority to the Department of Public Safety. The bill also requires HPA to meet to discuss the effect of transfer of these functions.

"The Hawaii Paroling Authority testified that this bill will drastically undermine the historical authority that has been vested in the Hawaii Paroling Authority. The measure eliminates the Parole Board's ability to render decisions without outside interference and will delay the timely rendering of parole revocation decisions, which directly affects the public's safety, Mr. Speaker.

"The Hawaii Paroling Authority was not consulted by the sponsors of this measure prior to its introduction. I believe this measure represents a complete change to current law, parole policy, and practices and was introduced without the input of the agency with the most knowledge about all matters involving parole. So for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm going to vote no on this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2265, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I think this bill would go too far as it would give both those under the age of 21 who consume alcohol a criminal penalty. I think a penalty of a fine would suffice. But making it criminal, it is a little too harsh. So for those reasons I'm going no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3242, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTOXICATING LIQUOR," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Halford, Karamatsu, Meyer, Sonson and Tsuji voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB2146, HD1, SD1, CD1. Passage of this measure will aid the agricultural industry in Hawaii. HB 2146 will allow certain agricultural lands to be subdivided without county subdivision practices. Large landowners will be able to easily divide and lease land to small farmers.

"Currently, infrastructure improvements mandated by county law often make land too expensive for farmers to lease at reasonable rates. In addition, farmers are unable to secure financial loans for long-term leases. Lastly, today's farmers are unable to secure long-term leases on land divided by Hawaii's big land owners, and must lease under uncertain month to month conditions.

"Passage of this measure will allow agricultural lots to be leased at affordable rates, and will greatly aid small farmers in Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2146, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in favor of this measure. Aside from the increase in the standard deduction and widening the income tax brackets and other tax relief measures, this bill before us ..."

Representative Say rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe she's on the wrong bill."

The Chair then stated:

"Yes. Representative, we're on Conference Committee Report 86-06."

Representative Marumoto continued, stating:

"Aside from those bills, yes, Mr. Speaker, I think the bill before us is the best news taxpayers will get this year. I am speaking to House Bill 237, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1, Relating to Torts. Given the large volume of lawsuits against the government, both State and county, the abolition of joint and civil liability will save the State and counties significant amounts of money, and that's taxpayer's money.

"Government has always been the deep pocket. The one that ends up paying the bill. This bill will button that pocket up. If enacted, this measure will no longer leave the State stuck with paying 100% of the cost, if determined, let's say only 5% liable or negligent. Government will now pay its fair share.

"Everyday we hear that we live in a litigious society. We are sue happy. The State and counties are often the target and this change in the law will serve to discourage people and lawyers from taking us to court. Now what we need is a law to extend it to the private sector as well. It is an excellent bill and would recommend a yes vote. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 237, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Caldwell rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill. This bill was introduced to prevent what is known as 'billboard creep'.

"Back in the 1920s a group of innovative women formed the Outdoor Circle. In 1927, this group was able to get legislation passed eliminating all billboards from the Territory of Hawaii. It is up to us to preserve this legacy and keep Hawaii's natural beauty unscathed by hideous and obtrusive billboards.

"Marketers and advertisers have found a loop-hole in our laws by using mobile billboards instead of stationary ones.

"Mr. Speaker, it says in the State Constitution: 'For the benefit of present and future generations, the State and its political subdivisions shall conserve and protect Hawaii's natural beauty.'

"We don't want our cities to look like other cities. Our cities are beautiful exactly because the beautiful vistas are not obscured by ads for light beer or fast food restaurants.

"Can you imagine the Hana Highway lined with billboard ads, blocking the picturesque mountains and ocean views? Huge trucks plastered with ads, parked all over our cities, distracting drivers and increasing the chances of an accident. Billboards of all types; traditional, mobile, mechanical, aerial, etc., would create a visual pollution against Hawaii's scenic backdrop.

"Hawaii is rightly proud to be one of four states that has a total ban on billboards. As Bob Loy from the Outdoor Circle said, 'It's an important part of our culture, the absence of billboards.'

"Fellow legislators, let's do everything we can to take care of this beautiful aina for generations to come."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2708, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADVERTISING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Souki and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Luke rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke's written remarks are as follows:

"In order to clarify in advance, any possible ambiguity that might arise from the language of the Committee Report and the language of HB 1968, HD 1, I would like to make the following comment. The bill states clearly, and it is the intent of the Legislature, that the limitation on purchase by a single household from a single wine shipper is a maximum of 6 nine-liter cases of wine, annually. Nothing in the bill restricts a household from purchasing wine directly from more than one wine shipper during a one-year period, provided of course that the wine shipper meets all of the other statutory requirements specified in HB 1968, CD 1."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this bill is to establish a permit system for direct shipment of wine to Hawaii's residents.

"I would like to clarify the following language found in the Conference Committee Report Number 89-06: "As such, your Committee on Conference would like to emphasize that this bill specifically provides that households can receive no more than six nine-liter cases of wine annually."

"This statement is broader than the language of our intent stated in the bill found on page 1, section 1, line 17 through page 2, section 1, line 3: "(b) The holder of a direct wine shipper permit may sell and annually ship to any person twenty-one years of age or older in the country that issued the permit, no more than six nine-liter cases of wine per household for personal use only and not for resale, and shall:"

"Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker.

"The condominium industry is a governing entity within itself that impacts association members' ability to maintain their investment - that being their home.

"Over the years, it has become apparent that there are inequalities within the relationship between management and the individual owner within condominium associations. This disparity impedes the condominium owners' mobility to change and amend its own governing documents and thus ensure that their investment is preserved.

"This bill was crafted in part with the intentions of lessening the inequalities between individual owners and management by clarifying and codifying the means and methods in which to remedy these inequalities with a level of self-governance that promotes greater participation in association affairs for all members.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3225, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2691, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. The purpose of this bill is to establish a joint labor management committee to institute an action for injunctive and other relief against an employer that fails to pay its employees a prevailing wage. The bill has several problems, Mr. Speaker.

"The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations testified that the bill may not serve the best interest of local businesses because the power given to the labor management committee, to bring injunctive action or any relief against any employer who fails to pay prevailing wages is overbroad and gives standing to individuals who would otherwise have no connection to any investigation under Chapter 104.

"This presents a potential conflict for abuse. Since DLNR, is forced to examine even more businesses to see if they paid a prevailing wage, the Department will lack the resources to carry out the provisions of the bill because they are already understaffed and lack the appropriate funds to carry out the measures proposed under this bill.

"And from the Associated Builder's and Contractor's Incorporated and other construction companies all across the State, they testify that within most businesses, there are often clerical errors. Under this bill, businesses will face harsh penalties for violating provisions of this proposed act. This bill leaves little room for honest mistakes.

"The purpose of Chapter 104 is to protect workers on government jobs to ensure they are paid a prevailing wage. It is not a union-organizing tool or a means to eliminate competition."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. What I'd like to do is maybe share some real life experiences of what it's like really down there in the trenches and signatory versus non-signatory companies, which I believe this is what this is an attempt to do. I believe this is an attempt to do what I have coined as 'unionization through legislation'.

"What truly happens and will happen with this measure is that we find labor management committees embedded in the labor trade unions, we find them in a very upstanding organizations like the Pacific Resource Partners. What happens is if a member of the committee gets a little excited about wanting to look at non-signatory companies to see whether or not they are in fact following the prevailing wage.

"Through this particular measure, they will have the ability to go into the books, take a look, and see whether or not there are any clerical, other errors, or other prevailing wage errors. This is like allowing Hawaiian Airlines to look at the books of Aloha Airlines, or allowing McDonald's to look at the books of Burger King, and then having the ability to bring a civil action for injunctive relief and perhaps penalties.

"In the real life, what happens is these labor management committees are able to get the information on certified payrolls and if they find a $50 error or a $100 error in the payroll, what they can do is go to the home of the employees of the non-signatory companies. This is public information. Home addresses are in the hands, can be in the hands of this labor management committee.

"Now what employee with someone knocking at their door saying, 'You've been ripped off by your employer. Come join us, we'll help you sue. We'll help you get your $50 back or your $100 back. Not only that, we'll bring charges and then maybe after 3 strikes, 2 strikes, your boss will be out of business.'

"This is not a good way to manage. This is not a good way by switching authority to a organization, a labor management organization, which has a hidden agenda and which could make competition in this State very difficult and will also drive many private, non-signatory, hard working, local businesses, employers, people that have their homes, their families on the line to be able to bid for contracts to do the very work that we in the State need in affordable housing, agricultural infrastructure. You name it, all those wonderful things and important things that we need to do for our people, we are going to damage our own hard working small business owners by setting this labor management group loose, loose on our people. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. I just wanted to correct some misstatements. If you read the HRS on prevailing wages, right now they have the access to the certified payroll. It's by statute. It's not changing anything in that regard. They don't have the right to come in and look at everything in the books, but they do have a right to the certified payroll under existing HRS statutes.

"So what we're doing here, Mr. Speaker, is as we heard from previous speakers is that the DLIR is understaffed and unable to do the job they're supposed to do with that 30,000 contractors in our State and to make sure in those cases where prevailing wage is to be paid, that in fact it is paid. And this provides the assistance to do that by having in those cases where it's a labor management agreement, to take action before a court. You have the protection of the courts here. It's not unilateral action by the labor management committee.

"For that reason, this is a good provision. It's trying to apply the law, to get it more applied more often, and to make sure that workers of our State that should be paid a prevailing wage are paid a prevailing wage. Thank you."

At 5:57 o'clock p.m., Representative M. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 5:58 o'clock p.m.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill creates a scenario for some serious mischief. As a short description of the bill says, it allows a joint labor management committee to institute an action for injunctive and other relief against any employer who fails to pay its employees the prevailing wage, regardless of whether there is a collective bargaining agreement in place or not.

"The joint labor management committee could be the carpenter's union, or the Pacific Resources Partnership. With this bill, we are giving the power to march into the jobsite of a union or non-union contractor and make demands that the contractor pay a particular employee what they believe the contractor owes. They can get a court order requiring specific action from the employer.

"Why would we want to encourage this kind of a confrontational situation? You have people that are competitors working in the same business. Under the present law, the aggrieved laborer can file a request with the Director of Labor who will get an investigator to remedy the situation and invoke requisite penalties.

"I got some information, I think we all got some information from the Director of the Department of Labor. These are some of the things he said, I sort of paraphrase them, but over a 5-year period the Department of Labor received 175 complaints. The Department investigates every complaint. In addition to responding to direct complaints from workers, the Department makes random payroll reviews to see if contractors are complying with prevailing wages.

"In 2005, the Department conducted 118 random compliance reviews. 66 were union companies. 52 were nonunion companies. Those reviews revealed monetary violations by 4 union companies and 2 nonunion companies. The Department of Labor uses discretion to determine de minimis violations. They are not trying to nickel and dime businesses. They are looking for major violations.

"Mr. Speaker, my fear is that the joint labor management committee, which could be as I said the Carpenter's Union, would use the power given to them under this bill to harass nonunion contractors. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2691, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PREVAILING WAGES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to clarify, a point of information, that the motion I made was for the passage of Final Reading of all House Bills and Senate Bills on page 14."

The Chair then stated:

"Except for Conference Report 100-06."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just brief comments in support. On 99-06. This is an example, Mr. Speaker, of a Representative learning of a problem and trying to do something about it. In this case it was the Representative who represents Kapahulu, Kaimuki, Waikiki, Ala Moana, and Diamond Head. Quite a conglomeration of districts.

"It deals with the case where if you have a State employee who is very sick and faced with life and death kind of conditions and then be faced with whether they're going to take their ordinary disability or not. There's strict timelines where they must do that and of course, they don't know exactly when they're going to be stepping off and not working anymore. And what this legislation does is it tries to address that in these extreme situations to make these people have an easier time of deciding when to do it. I just think it's a good example of doing the right thing and hearing from a constituent and then correcting the problem. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2678, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 101-06 and S.B. No. 2948, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2948, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kanoho rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Very, very briefly, this bill reflects the good faith effort on the part of the State to fulfill its trust obligations to the Hawaiian people. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Kanoho be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. It is a fact that the State's obligation to Native Hawaiians is firmly established in the State Constitution (See Haw. Const. Art. XII). Today, I ask my colleagues to please support SB 2948, CD 1.

"If enacted, this measure would mark a historic step toward honoring the State's obligation under Article XII, Section 6 of the State Constitution. It would establish $15 million annually, beginning in fiscal year 2005-2006, as the income and proceeds from the pro rata portion of the public land trust under Article XII, Section

6 for expenditure by the Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA). It would also appropriate $17.5 million for fiscal year 2005-2006 to pay OHA certain amounts received from the use of lands in the public land trust that were underpaid between July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2005. More importantly, it will improve the betterment of conditions of Native Hawaiians.

"Furthermore, this bill would require the Department of Land and Natural Resources to provide by January 1 of each year, an accounting of all receipts from lands described in section 5(f) of the Admissions Act for the prior fiscal year. Information of this nature is important to decision makers seeking to determine what is owed and what has been paid to OHA.

"While this measure represents an interim resolution of sorts, it does not resolve or settle all of OHA's claims to public land trust proceeds.

"Further negotiations and future legislation will likely be needed. However, the measure will result in a degree of stability of OHA's land trust revenues.

"Mr. Speaker, it is not often that we can play a role in truly historic events. This is one such occasion.

"For these reasons, I strongly support the bill and urge all Members to support it too. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2948, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC LAND TRUST," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 102-06 and S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. I will also request permission to insert comments. And very basically, while this bill provides greater autonomy for the Hawaiian Homes Commission, it does so in a manner that poses financial risks to the Commission's beneficiaries and my page-long comments will be inserted. Again, I have great concerns because it appears that the responsibility that we would have to the Native Hawaiian beneficiaries are not suitably discharged by the passage of this bill. Thank you."

Representative Berg's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in opposition to Senate Bill 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1.

"I oppose this measure primarily because I believe strongly in government accountability and responsibility. While this bill provides greater autonomy for the Hawaiian Homes Commission, it does so in a manner which poses financial risks to the Commission's Native Hawaiian beneficiaries. Furthermore, no other Executive department has the independence and ability to invest allocated funds in such a proposed manner. I am concerned about the precedent being established for Executive departments and also the constitutionality of allowing the Department of Hawaiian Homelands, in particular, to invest trust monies.

"This bill would allow the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to sidestep the statutory procedures that provide financial safeguards, oversight and accountability for the rest of the State's financial resources.

"This proposal in being made in the hopes that increased autonomy will translate into higher returns on invested funds, however I have grave concerns about the new responsibilities – and accountability -- that such legislation would impose upon the DHHL.

"Our laws generally treat State funds conservatively, requiring investment in government bonds, notes, and related securities that have a maximum degree of safety and security. This conservative bias is the result of long and at times difficult experience. We have seen what can happen when oversight is lacking or not adequately monitored. Removing these requirements will potentially expose the trust funds of the Department of Hawaiian Homes to increased risk and potential losses.

"Along with more autonomy, the bill would exempt the Hawaiian Homes Commission from the responsibilities spelled out in Chapter 36 and 38, Hawaii Revised Statutes. Among other things, Chapter 36 makes the Director of Finance responsible for the safekeeping of all moneys paid into the State treasury, and establishes the requirement for keeping "a clear, distinct, and full record of all transactions and business". This bill, while exempting the Hawaiian Homes Commission from Chapter 36, would not provide for similar responsibilities to be shouldered by the Director of DHHL.

"Similarly, while exempting DHHL from Chapter 38, relating to deposits of public funds, this bill does not provide comparable restrictions on risk. For example, Chapter 38 provides that no more than 60 percent of all funds may be invested in one place, and requires that the beneficial effects of local investment be considered when selecting where to invest. Chapter 38 defines suitable investments that meet the fiduciary responsibilities of public officials. This bill, while exempting DHHL from Chapter 38, does not incorporate comparable safeguards. It is from this perspective and reasoning that I am compelled to vote against this proposed measure.

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, that the bottom line is that we, as a Legislature, have a fiduciary and moral responsibility to the Native Hawaiian beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Homes Commission which will not be suitably discharged by passage of this bill. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Hawaiian Home Lands.'

"The purpose of this measure is to allow the Hawaiian Homes Commission to deposit moneys in depositories other than the State treasury.

"This measure provides the Hawaiian Homes Commission with the necessary flexibility and authority to manage, invest, and reinvest funds to earn a higher return in the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust Fund. This measure is consistent with the intent of Act 302, Session Laws of Hawaii 2001, and is also a step in moving towards greater autonomy and self-determination for the Hawaiian Homes Commission. This measure has reinserted language specifying that the moneys from the trust that are deposited into depositories other than the State treasury are exempt from the requirements of Chapters 36 and 38.

"I ask that S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3119, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 2992. Mr. Speaker, this bill contains several good administrative and housekeeping provisions and I support all of these measures in this bill.

"However, bill does one thing, that after reviewing it, I find so radical that I must oppose the entire bill. If we pass Senate Bill 2992, it will repeal the current law that limits corporations from making more than a $1,000 in campaign contributions in any election period.

"Federal law provides for a complete ban on corporate contributions to congressional candidates, but Hawaii law allows corporations to allocate no more than a $1,000 among corporations, among candidates and Political Action Committees. Without the $1,000 corporate donation limit, a single corporation could donate over $100,000 to a dozen candidates all within the per candidate contribution limits of $2,000, $4,000, or $6,000. This would increase the aggregate corporate contributions over a 1,000%, from $1,000 to a $100,000.

"I believe this change in this law is too drastic and I cannot support it. Instead of decreasing the influence of money in the legislative process, I believe this bill will greatly enhance corporate influence in election campaigns and the legislative process. If this bill passes, it will not only take effect immediately, but would reach back to January 1st, and have all corporate contributions not count towards any aggregate donation limit. This is as if no corporation, no corporate limit ever existed.

"I believe the voting public has had a very cynical view of this Legislature. Many often wonder in whose interest we sometimes act. Very recently, until I was privileged to be a part of this Chamber, I too had the same attitude. The majority of our Legislators usually hold campaign fundraisers during the legislative session in the very period that bills are being decided upon.

"As I look out to the skies, I'm anticipating Lear jets coming in from Texas. Why? Because the oil companies are coming to town with their big pockets. As I look at the faces walking the streets of Honolulu, the employees of the small business community that will soon be without health care insurance because of the lack of rate regulation, I know that campaign contributions from corporations must have some semblance of control so that we can get back to the business of the people. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, I was very pleased to see the limits this Body placed last year on campaign contributions. Since I run my campaigns with relatively little money and believe that all of us should do likewise. I stood on this Floor at that time that I believe this measure was intended to limit contributions to our Governor. And I also stated that I thought that this Body would be back this year after it was realized that that bill would hamper entities from legally donating to us. Well here we are.

"I believe if we deemed it necessary to change the law, we should not put those changes in effect for the current election cycle. In any case we should not put an artificial cap on the statute of limitations on actions of the Campaign Spending Commission. I think you all need to look at that. It'll not only be becoming retroactive with our contribution receipts, but we're saying Campaign Spending can only go back five years. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I wanted to address some of the concerns raised. First of all, there was no limitation on corporate contributions before January 1st, '06, Mr. Speaker. This was a law that we put into effect last year and as a result of us passing this law, there has been a lot of confusion.

"In fact, the Attorney General came out and specifically stated that as a result of the unintended consequences of the law, Campaign Finance Reform Law, that we passed, there has been lot of confusion. In fact, the interpretation by the Attorney General is not only that the corporation can only put in $1,000 into the PAC. It can only expend $1,000 out of its PAC. What that does is it creates a 'first come, first serve' mentality, so whoever can reach the corporate PAC first, they'll get the benefit of the amount and the rest of the candidates after the $1,000 runs out is pretty much out of luck. I think the 'first come, first serve' mentality has never been our intent.

"In fact, in the Advertiser, even Sam Aiona, the Republican Party Chair, has admitted that as a result of this portion of the law, it has created a lot of confusion even within the party structure itself and there has been lot of urging for us to relook at this law.

"The Campaign Spending Commission actually supports this bill. It was a lot of compromise and we put a lot of their input into this bill and when we looked at the retroactivity of especially the corporate contribution portion, it was at the suggestion of the Campaign Spending Commission. I believe the House Conferees were a little hesitant in doing that because of the comments by the Representative from Kapolei urging us not to do a retro, but it was actually the Campaign Spending Commission who came in and asked that it be retroactive because she has said that she doesn't want unclarity in law just to survive for four months.

"As far as the statute of limitations for the Campaign Spending Commission, there is a statute of limitations that applies for criminal proceedings. So for instance if someone is caught with a campaign violation, the criminal proceeding portion is a five year statute of limitations so it is pretty much mirroring that portion to the Campaign Spending Commission. So that the Campaign Spending Commission out of fairness to both the parties doesn't go back 20 years and catch people off guard. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the measure. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I actually would like to request that three short paragraphs from the Sierra Club be inserted in the Journal."

The Chair then stated:

"Why don't you read it."

Representative Thielen: You want me to read it?"

Vice Speaker Takai: "Yes."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"I'm quoting from the Sierra Club:

Couched as a "housekeeping" amendment to last year's campaign finance measure, SB 2922 CD 1, would allow corporations and organizations to donate an unlimited amount of money to a non-candidate political action committee. The key language in the bill reads, "Each...corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association, or organization, may transfer an unlimited amount of money from its own funds to its respective non-candidate committee in an election period..."

While the bill would allow unlimited funding by corporations and organizations, it would cap the amount an individual could donate. By passing this measure you are, in essence, elevating the interest of corporations above residents.

You can address the technical fixes to the campaign spending law next year, but the Sierra Club, Hawaii Chapter strongly urges you not to pass SB 2922 CD 1. It gives corporations the ability to unduly influence our democratic political process.

"And the letter is signed by Jeff Mikulina, the Executive Director of Sierra Club, Hawaii Chapter. These are very persuasive arguments, Mr. Speaker. And I would say that I've received probably over 200 e-mails from throughout the State. It's not been focused just in one area, but in 200 or more, e-mails all resoundingly against this bill, and I am voting no on the bill."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you Mr. Speaker. In regards to this bill, one thing that is very correct is that this bill from last year's campaign spending reform did cause a lot of confusion. And let me just state that I did speak with the AG, the Attorney General, in regards to his opinion and it is correct that he believes that the campaign spending reform that was passed last year, did not have the intention of restricting those corporation campaign contributions.

"However, he did say also that he did not support one way or the other what we do with that policy. He just said that he didn't think that that was the intention. So this gives us the opportunity at this point and time, instead of loosening it up, according to the decision of the Campaign Spending Commission, instead of loosening it up, we actually have the opportunity to tighten up the language. To say that we want to restrict corporate donations.

"So what the AG's opinion was, was not based on policy. It was based on the fact that he agreed that he didn't think that that was the intention of the Legislature. That's two different things, Mr. Speaker.

"The other thing is in regards to the Campaign Spending Commission, I believe that what had happened in regards to the retroactive date, it was basically the retroactive date occurred or they were supportive of the retroactive date because they didn't want two different policies from January to July 1st. And what they said was, 'If you're going to move in this direction, we agree that it should be retroactive.' But I do not think and we can check, but I do not think that they were okay with the policy direction of going with the opening it up to unlimited campaign donations from corporations.

Those are two very different things, Mr. Speaker.

"If we have the ability to change the policy, to say we're going to restrict corporate contributions and we did not do that. Mr. Speaker, the other thing is some of us did play fair. We went, and in regards to the Republican Party, took the opinion of the Campaign Spending Commission and as we were asking for contributions for our fundraisers, looked through the opinion and collected money on the opinions of the Campaign Spending Commission. This was tens of thousands of dollars that was turned away by the Hawaii Republican Party and on top of that, after going through due diligence and making sure that all the checks and balances were in place. After the fundraiser, the Hawaii Republican Party returned around $15,700. I had it on a piece of paper and I can't find it amongst all my material. However, I believe it was about $15,700 that was returned in checks because they went upon this particular Campaign Spending Commission decision.

"Mr. Speaker, if we're going to be talking about fairness, if we're going to be talking about trust in government, then we should be looking at this measure to actually, even if it wasn't the intent of the Legislature last year, we should really be looking at limiting the corporate donations. To not influence the decisions, heavily influence the decisions here at the State Capitol. Thank you very much."

At 6:20 o'clock p.m., Representative Luke requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 6:24 o'clock p.m.

On motion by Representative Luke, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee and S.B. Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker, with reservations.

"This bill was crafted to provide members within a Planned Community Association unfettered access to their association documents.

"This was accomplished in the bill by permitting the membership to access their association's financial statements for the duration the member is paying the association to store the materials. This is a sound, good business practice to employ.

"However, the bill has been drastically watered down. I want to go on record to state that I do not agree with two particular amendments that were made that were never of party to the original intent of the bill and not in any draft prior to the Conference Draft.

"First, the bill now removes the membership's ability to know how the board of directors voted on expenditures. Prior to this bill, the board was required to document and record in the meeting minutes how each board member voted on motions. To take away this form of transparency perplexes me.

"Secondly, in addition to taking the right away of the membership to know how the board voted on expenditures, it also permits a board member with a conflict of interest to vote on expenditures that the board member may profit from.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Conf. Com. Report 116-06, SB2887, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, CD. 1

"Mr. Speaker, vocational, technical, and career pathway education classes provide students with opportunities to apply knowledge and skills to real-life work experiences. These classes also help students to develop the technical, academic, employability, and life skills needed for a career or post-secondary education.

"Mr. Speaker, as a former Vocational Education teacher and the former President of the Hawaii Vocational Association and Hawaii Industrial Arts Association, I understand the plight vocational education in the secondary schools have in recruiting qualified teachers. The purpose of this measure is to increase the number of vocational, technical, and career pathway education teachers by directing the Hawaii Teachers Standards Board to set alternative criteria and establish other measures of qualification necessary for these types of teachers to meet licensing standards. In the end, this measure will help the Department of Education to mitigate the shortage of vocational, technical, and career pathway education teachers. Additionally, this measure will authorize the Superintendent of Education to issue teaching permits to highly qualified individuals with pertinent trade or industry experience. These individuals will not, I state will not, be issued teaching certificates.

"Mr. Speaker, in the future these individuals should be certified upon completion of their probationary period and recommendation from their principal.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a measure that will help the Vocational Education programs in the secondary schools in the State of Hawaii and I ask my colleagues to support this measure."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 2887, SD1, HD1, CD1. This measure will provide greatly needed vocational education teachers in Hawaii's schools. Currently, there is a severe shortage of teachers in career pathway courses. Also, many highly qualified individuals with real-world experience who wish to teach are being turned away due to existing teacher licensing practices. In 2004 alone, there were forty thousand public school students enrolled in vocational education classes in Hawaii. We cannot abandon these students.

"Granted, we cannot simply allow anyone to teach in our schools, but by directing the Hawaii Teachers Standards Board to create alternative standards for vocational educators, we will ensure the future of vocational education in Hawaii's public schools. Passage of this measure will greatly aid our keiki in the job market of tomorrow. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2887, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 118-06 and S.B. No. 3077, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3077, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It seems like they're always at the top of the page. This is Relating to Conservation. I rise in opposition. Thank you."

"I have concerns about the constitutionality of this bill. Separation of power between our Executive and Legislative branches provide the necessary checks and balances that maintain our democracy and uphold the people's trust in our elected offices. It is in the best interest of the people of Hawaii for our part-time legislative body to focus on passing laws and abstaining from assuming authority in the year-round management of departments.

"The potential of legislative disapproval of State acquisitions will have a distressing effect on the willingness of landowners and outside funders like the federal government. The required consultation provision of the bill of land and natural resources where the Senate President and the Speaker of the House prior to selling, leasing, or convey lands will hamper the timely process, which will be important to acquiring sensitive properties such as agricultural lands in the path of development.

"I'm very concerned with the overreaching authority this measure presents and ask for your no vote to ensure our Constitution's separation of power."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 119-06 and S.B. No. 3000, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3000, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 3003, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Housing.'

"The purpose of the measure is to implement recommendations of the Joint Legislative Housing and Homeless Task Force with regard to streamlining government approvals and permitting for affordable housing.

"One of the findings addressed the need to expedite the permitting process for affordable housing authorized under Section 201G-118, Hawaii Revised Statutes, has had only limited success, because applications for affordable housing projects must be negotiated with reviewing agencies before they can be deemed complete, and there is no time limit for this process. Shortening the length of the approvals process will assist in reducing the overall development costs of affordable housing projects.

"This measure seeks to facilitate these specific recommendations of the taskforce for government approvals and permitting for affordable housing by:

Requiring that State agencies, in the permit review process, give affordable housing projects priority processing;

Amending Chapter 46, Hawaii Revised Statutes relating to the general jurisdiction and powers of the counties, to provide greater flexibility in approving affordable housing projects by waiving certain requirements for infrastructure; and

Amending section 201G-118, Hawaii Revised statutes, to improve and further streamline the fast-track permitting process for affordable housing projects.

"This measure facilitates the recommendations by requiring reviewing agencies to respond within forty-five days of receipt of an application, or the application will be deemed acceptable as submitted for review; and "Allowing county councils and the Land Use Commission to approve projects with modifications, as well as approve or deny. The effective date is July, 1, 2006.

"I recommend that S.B. No. 3000, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Senate Bill 3000 S.D.2. Mr. Speaker, this bill will expedite approval and permitting process for affordable housing projects. This bill addresses the shortage of affordable housing units that affect all our citizens, not just people with low income. This piece of legislation would require agencies in the land use permit review process to expedite the review of applications for affordable housing projects. This piece of legislation would also authorize the counties to waive certain infrastructure requirements for affordable housing projects and amend the process for approved housing projects exempt from planning, zoning and construction standards.

"In section two of this bill, it would amend Section 46-14.5 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes by providing the counties flexibility in land use density provisions and public facility infrastructure requirements for low-income rental projects. Section three would amend section 91-13.5 of the HRS requiring any agency that reviews and comments upon an application for a business or development-related permit, license, or approval for a housing project under section 201G-118 shall respond within 45 days of receipt of the application, or the application shall be deemed approved as submitted to the agency. Finally in section 4, this bill proposes to amend section 201G-118 to clarify that the County legislative body has 45 days to approve, approve with modifications or disapprove an application made under this section of 201G-118.

"Under the 201G process it will provide four key points. First this will allow developers to access government housing programs funds earmarked for low-income federal tax credits. Next, housing project for rental or for sale must provide at least 50% of the units to families in the 120% or 140% HUD median income groups, depending on the County. In this particular section of the 201G process, homebuyers are subject to buy-back, income requirements to qualify, and shared appreciation for resale of units. Third, the developer may choose to go through either the State HCDCH or county for the 201G process. Finally, once the application has been "deemed complete" by the reviewing agencies, it is submitted to the Council, which has 45 days to approve or disapprove the project.

"Aside from the 201G process, currently, there is no formal government permitting process to assist affordable housing projects. Counties require affordable housing through inclusionary zoning conditions placed on developers during the land use entitlement process either at zoning or through other unilateral agreements. This is where the county requires a certain percentage of the 15% to 30% must be provided to people in identified HUD median income categories for each county.

"In general, local government has set up a standard process that applies to all housing projects/developments. The 201G process was an attempt to provide an alternative, expedited process for those projects that provided at least 50% of the units as affordable. More recently, many of the counties have had limited success with providing an expedited review by committee for certain affordable housing.

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this bill as it attempts to improve the 201G process and clarify the county council's decision-making authority. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3000, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 120-06 and S.B. No. 2774, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2774, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate bill 2774 S.D.2. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to assist families who may lose their homes due to the closure of plantations such as Del Monte Fresh Produce by making plantation community subdivisions a permitted use under agricultural land use district classification and zoning.

"Mr. Speaker, Senate bill 2774 will assist plantation communities such as Kunia and Poamoho by allowing current nonconforming use on land zoned agricultural. The bill will also facilitate a proposed City resolution to legitimize plantation community subdivisions. Less than a handful of communities would fall into the definition of plantation community subdivisions. Kunia and Poamoho Camps have been operating as an employee and retiree housing for the pineapple plantation for more than seventy years.

"The current process in gaining government approval for existing plantation camps is long. The ILWU has been working with Del Monte workers and retirees at Poamoho Camp for City approval of existing use. However, despite tremendous support, cooperation and effort by the City Administration and the City Council, the process has gone on for more than ten months. In the meantime, costs have been incurred by the current Poamoho landowner for attorneys and planners – costs that will later be passed on to the residents whose limited resources will be needed to take on the struggle of operating the plantation camps themselves."

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 2774, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Housing.'

"The closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce will result in significant negative impacts to Kunia pineapple workers. Housing ranks among their primary concerns. Currently, many employees and their families live in plantation homes owned by the company at Kunia Camp. With the closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce, many of these families face the possibility of losing their homes. Housing is a fundamental need, to which every person should have access.

"With the loss of their jobs, many employees will undergo a transition period as they seek new employment, participate in job training programs, or seek other opportunities. During this stressful period of transition, these employees must be assured that their homes are secured and protected from any action that might declare them to be an impermissible or illegal land use, in the event that those units may require permits for renovation or reconstruction at some time in the future.

"The purpose of this Act is to make plantation community subdivisions such as Kunia Camp a permitted rather than nonconforming use within the State agricultural land use district.

"This measure assures that the employees and former employees who live in plantation communities must be assured that their homes are secure and protected from any action that might declare them to be an impermissible or illegal land use, in the event that those units may require permits for renovation or reconstruction at some time in the future.

"Additionally this measure address the concern of the Department of Planning and Permitting of the City and County of Honolulu that as drafted, plantation dwellings could be demolished, rebuilt, and sold or rented to others, thus erasing all elements of plantation camp or rural living without providing the current residents a means to address the existing substandard infrastructure, however, these concerns can be addressed in the county planning and permitting process, and by the residents' plan to establish cooperative ownership under a restrictive covenant that would restrict sale or even rental of the homes. It addresses the concern that the residents will have major difficulties seeking funds to upgrade substandard plantation camp infrastructure if these itself remain nonconforming under State law.

"I recommend that S.B. No. 2774, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Senate Bill No. 2774, Conference Draft 1, Relating To Housing.

"This bill would help address the housing needs of the displaced Del Monte workers who reside in Kunia Camp and Poamoho Camp by placing a 'grandfather' provision for the homes to become permitted uses on agricultural land.

"The residents of Poamoho Camp are currently facing the crisis of living in homes that do not fall under permitted uses. Although a private individual purchased the land, the homes do not have the required permits from the county. Under the State land use law, agricultural/farm housing is a permitted use on agricultural land. After the departure of Del Monte Fresh from operations in Hawaii, the camp's farm housing no longer fits the definition of a permitted use. The residents of Kunia Camp will face the same problem even if the land is purchased for them.

"House Bill 2774, Conference Draft 1, is a positive step in protecting the community and hence culture of the traditional plantation camp community. The residents of these camps have lived there for generations and dedicated their lives to the production and cultivation of Hawaii's agricultural crops. Allowing these citizens to continue the traditional plantation lifestyle perpetuates the history of Hawaii's agricultural industry.

"For these reasons, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this measure is to assist families who may lose their homes due to the closure of plantations such as Del Monte Fresh Produce by making plantation community subdivisions a permitted use in the state agricultural land use district.

"This measure will help many workers adjust from the loss of their livelihood on plantations that closed production. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"The purpose of this measure is to establish a commission to recognize and honor Congresswoman Patsy T. Mink and appropriate funds for the commission.

"Mr. Speaker it is only appropriate that we acknowledge and honor the late Patsy T. Mink and all she has done in her public service life in improving Hawaii, America and most of all ... equity for women.

"Her legacy and accomplishments will live forever now that we have establish this commission commemorating Patsy T. Mink."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to just stand in strong support on 124-06. I will insert written comments in the Journal. But I would like to say that after so many years of trying, it's really a pleasure to see this bill pass. I don't know whether Kat Brady is up in the gallery because I can't see. Kirk tried to get applause for somebody before so I don't know if you'll approve it Mr. Speaker. But Kat has been working on this bill for eight years. It's been a measure that the Women's Caucus has supported over the years. And it really is a great day for incarcerated women, and I think it would only help to bring them out of their cycle of poverty, substance abuse and help them with their literally finding jobs and becoming better parents. So I'm going to insert the written comments, but I would just like to say that I'm very, very happy for women today. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"The pathways to criminality for female offenders are not the same as those for male offenders. Very often female offenders have existing problems with sexual abuse, poverty, substance abuse, single-parenthood and un- or under-employment. Yet once women and girls who are convicted of crimes reach prison, there is not enough being done to address the issues that lead them to commit crimes. Men also could use more assistance with these issues, but inside the correctional facilities there are a wide array of programs for males. For females the options are much more limited.

"After so many years of trying, this bill would help to remedy that inequity. For too long the Department of Public Safety has been failing to address the needs of female offenders to the same extent as the needs of males. It has only been by luck that to date no females have sued to address the situation. Why wait for a lawsuit, Mr. Speaker? This bill demonstrates our intent that the Department of Public Safety must begin to take the needs of female offenders, and gender equity in general, more seriously. With the appropriations in the bill the Department may take the first steps in that direction.

"I urge my colleagues to support this Women's Caucus measure. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also rising in supporting of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I would like adopt the spoken words of the Representative from Mililani and just add that I believe that we should call this bill the Kat Brady Bill, and my thanks to her."

Representative Green rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 132-06 and S.B. No. 3181, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3181, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's at the top of the page again and I rise once again in opposition to Senate Bill 3181, Relating to Solid Waste. This bill seeks to expand the existing bottle bill to allow redemption of 68-ounce bottles. I see this as another tax on the already tax-burdened citizens of Hawaii.

"Many people legally try to avoid the tax and save some money by purchasing the larger 68-ounce bottles. Again, I must ask, are we finding new ways to recycle more or to tax more? Despite provisions in Senate Bill 3181 that requires redemption center dealers to operate for more than 30 hours a week, including 5 hours on a Saturday or Sunday, the reverse vending machines do not accept the oversize 68-ounce bottles.

"Hawaii's hard working taxpayers who continue to haul their oversized containers and wait in long lines to redeem their 5-cent share. Of course they're paying 6, it seems that they pay 6 and a half cents to get back their 5. The penalties for dealers as proposed are harsh and draconian. Particularly considering the nature of the offence, penalties should be applied to criminals, not the business people trying to comply with this increasingly onerous statute. Further, Mr. Speaker, do we find that purchasing of these bulk containers to be so sinful that we punish those trying to save money when they try to feed their families? Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am strongly opposed to SB 3181, CD1. It is amazing to me that this Legislature continues to burden the citizens of our State with a program that wastes their money and time, is ineffective, and amounts to nothing more than a new fee that consumers must pay. It is embarrassing to see all the resources that are being spent in the name of recycling. Millions of dollars spent to pay for staff at the Department of Health and subsidizing recyclers. This bill will add 68 oz. containers to the list of beverage containers that the Hi5 deposit must be paid on. Many large families buy beverages in the larger containers so they don't have to invest their cash in nickel deposits. Four large containers equal a little less than a case of 12 oz servings. Up until now these families could save themselves $1.20 by purchasing these large volume containers, but now they will not have that option. I can also foresee problems at recycling sites because the large containers will not fit in the reverse recycling machines. If we attributed a dollar amount for all the time our citizens spend trying to get their nickels back it would double the cost of the program. All this money and time to reduce the flow of garbage into our landfills by a mere 3%, it just doesn't make sense. Mr. Speaker, we should have passed a comprehensive recycling program years ago rather than this outdated bottle bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3181, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOLID WASTE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses and Pine voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. This bill provides a valued service to our children and to their parents. As the bill states, nationally nearly two-thirds of school age children are in homes with both parents working, yet very few communities have a comprehensive system of before and after school care for children.

"This bill appropriates about $2 million for non-school hour programs that will give our kids structure and fun activities to do when they're not in school and give our parents peace of mind knowing that their kids are in a safe and supervised environment when the parents are not available to watch over them. This is a good measure and I urge my colleagues to vote yes. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. On this measure, I'm standing in strong support. This is a treat for the mentally ill, elders, person with disabilities who are currently confined in institutions, to be able to be placed into the living hands of the community providers. Thank you very much."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 3247, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1 as it would ensure the continuation of care homes and the availability of care homes to Medicaid recipients. I support the increase in the maximum capacity for adult family boarding homes and care homes from five to six non-family members and the increase in the authorized number of non-family member residents who may be incapable of self-preservation from two to three.

"I also support the provision that would give the Department of Health discretion to allow an additional resident in certain Adult Residential Care Homes. We also support an increase in nursing facility level residents from 2 to 3 for type I and 20 percent for Type II ARCHs. I support increased residents for adult foster homes from 2 to 3 as well.

"For Type I homes, I support authorizing the Department of Health to allow up to six residents at its discretion, provided that the primary caregiver or home operator is a certified nurse aide who has completed a state-approved training program and other training required by the Department.

"For Community Care Foster Family Homes, I am in support of the Department to certify the home for a third adult at its discretion, provided that the resident is at the nursing level of care and a Medicaid recipient, and provided further that the primary and substitute caregivers are certified nurse aides who have completed a state-approved training program and other training required by the Department. I feel that the Department of Health should include "Critical Thinking and Judgment" and the "Behavior Management" training modules as part of the training required by the Department for the Adult Residential Care Homes expansion.

"The current level of residents for Type I and II Adult Residential Care Homes, hereafter referred to as "ARCH's" has not kept up with the steady increase in demand for community based care homes in the community in the State of Hawaii. Care homes or community based assisted living provide a valuable service to elderly and their families as it provides an economical alternative to institutionalization of patients which costs thousands of dollars more.

"The relevant federal and State rules and regulations are very stringent, calling for strict requirements which ensure residents health, safety and welfare, as well as utilizing an increased economy of scale to help provide more community based opportunities, as well as helping to ensure the survival and prolific continuance of the care homes themselves. Care homes provide society a great service and must be supported. With the rapidly rising real estate sales prices, it is virtually impossible to establish a new care home by purchasing a new home as the costs are exorbitant.

"The majority of ARCH residents in Hawaii are Medicaid clients. Without an increase in the number of residents, many of our residents would not be provided an opportunity for community based care and ARCH operators will no longer be able to afford to care for our beloved elderly without increased economy of scale. This would truly be a tragedy not only for our elderly, but for their family members as well, who rely upon the compassion and loving care provided by our Adult Residential Care Home administrators/caregivers.

"Please support this important bill as the survival of the care home industry saves the State millions of dollars compared to its alternatives. With the provision for more community based care for Hawaii elderly and their families and the Care Homes who are the unsung hero's who unselfishly open their hearts and homes to Hawaii's frail elderly and physically challenged people.

"Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this important bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3247, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CARE HOMES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137-06 and S.B. No. 3252, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3252, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of Senate Bill 3252, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm wondering how many of us can imagine a world where improvements in medical technology, genetics, and pharmacy enable our people to live past 100 as the norm, rather than exception. Does anybody here believe that's a farfetched reality?

"Well if you consider this: between 1970 and 2000, the 60 plus population in Hawaii increased 207% from 67,000 to 207,000. Between 1970 and 2000, individuals over 75 increased by 415%; and individuals over 85 increased by 482%. In 2000, individuals 60 plus represented 17% of the total population of Hawaii. And by 2020, it is estimated that individuals 60 and over will compromise 25% of Hawaii's total population.

"Now imagine a world where there is just as many people retired as working. Is that possible? Consider a recent Federal Reserve report that says that in 1990 there were 5 workers for every retiree. By 2030, forecasters expect 2.5 workers for every retiree. With the blessings of long life comes the added cost and responsibility of caring for those who are elderly and frail, and unless we plan now, we can also envision the warehousing of our elderly.

"Two questions that we need to face immediately. Question 1, who will provide the care for that burgeoning population? And question 2, who will pay for the cost of care? For example, nursing home care cost is currently over $68,000 a year. And that cost is predicted to rise to $200,000 per year by the year 2020. And given current population trends of fewer people in the workforce, we will face greater shortages in caregiving.

"The current nursing shortage is just an indication of things to come. An estimated one-third of adults are engaged in providing informal care for a disabled person. And the average age of the caregivers is 46 and 75% of them are women. When caring for our frail elderly or disabled family member or members become too difficult at home, the caregiver is faced with the problem of paying for institutional care.

"According to the coalition for affordable long-term care, 85% of long-term care is provided at home by family members and close friends who pay for most of the expense out of their own pockets.

"But I know for some of you who are listening, maybe they're just numbers but I'm just making it clear right now that we need to start planning, seriously planning for a system of care for our elderly and disabled otherwise we're going to be reaching a real crisis position and we need to do that with compassion and most of all with aloha for those who did so much for us. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Stevens rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Arakaki be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 3252, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 as it would appropriate funds to the Executive Office on Aging to coordinate a statewide system of family caregiver support.

"This measure will help the Executive Office on Aging maintain the quality of life of Hawaii's older adults and their families through the expansion of its Kupuna Care Services Program.

"Please support this important bill to aid in the coordination and development of family caregiver support services. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this important bill."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Arakaki be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Arakaki be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure.

"As the number of seniors increases significantly with the first of the baby boomer generation turning 60 this year, we are in need of expanding the services available to seniors. An estimated 18,600 seniors on Oahu need long-term care services. Almost one third are provided care in residential facilities such as nursing, care, and foster homes and assisted living facilities. As many as 10% of income eligible seniors received home and community based services provided by the Department of Human Services Adult and Community Care Services Branch. Potentially, another 5% may have long term care insurance to help pay for long term care expenses. This leaves a gap of 10,000 seniors on Oahu who need long term care assistance.

"As our population ages it becomes more and more imperative that we find ways to assure that our older adults live independently, in a safe environment and remain healthy for as long as possible. These older residents cannot live on their own without some level of assistance from family members or assistance programs. Caregivers are the pivotal link in the service continuum and we need to provide for a well-planned and managed system of caregiver support services."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3252, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAREGIVING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 138-06 and S.B. No. 2570, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2570, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this measure. And this may be the first time that I ever voted with reservations on Final Reading and I think this is the time to be either yes or no. But the reason I have reservations is because my understanding of the reading of this legislation is that it provides either a 20% or a 15% investment tax credit for the production of what they're calling digital media. Either a commercial or film or video games or other kinds of digital media and that's fine.

"My concern is that the definition of digital media may be too broad and the result could be very consequential because if what is already happening in the State of Hawaii. Commercials that are already being taped by ad agencies, websites that are already being built, flash animation that's already being done, all of that is already happening and already being paid for. And it's hundreds of millions of dollars depending on how you define whether the money actually passes through an ad agency or if we're just talking about the production cost. But no matter what, if what's already happening ends up qualifying for a 20% subsidy then we're not actually adding to the digital media industry, but we are providing a 15% to 20% subsidy for an existing industry and I don't think that's the intent of this legislation. I wanted to flag that concern for the Governor and the Governor's Office because if my reading of the legislation is correct, it could be very, very expensive. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. It is a goal of mine to see Hawaii's film industry grow more prosperous. There has been a lot of competition from other states and countries offering more favorable tax incentives that have taken film productions away from Hawaii.

"This bill will make Hawaii more attractive for film production by increasing the tax credit from four percent to fifteen percent for qualified production costs incurred in a county with a population over seven hundred thousand and twenty percent for qualified production costs incurred in a county with a population of seven hundred thousand or less. The measure provides a maximum amount of $8,000,000 per qualified productions for the tax credit. Thank you."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 139-06 and S.B. No. 3078, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3078, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 140-06 and S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. CCR 140-06, Senate Bill 2997, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, exempts NELHA, HSDC, HTDC, as well as contracted services with a legislative agency for the purpose of preparing studies or reports for submission to the Legislature from the State Procurement Code.

"In 2003, the Legislature passed and the Governor signed into law Act 52, which was designed to make State contracting more transparent, merit based, and accountable. Essentially it required impartial independent committees of professionals to award government contracts based on relevant, written and published selection criteria provided for a debriefing process from non-selected offerors.

"This law follows a number of investigations by Honolulu Prosecutors and the State Campaign Spending Commission into the relationship between the awarding of contracts and campaign contributions made by various architects, engineers, and building contractors. According to the Governor at the bill signing, Act 52 put to rest the appearance of impropriety relative to non-bid contracts and provided for openness, transparency, confidence, and integrity to the State's procurement process.

"It has been this Body's intent to provide a uniform process that is both transparent and fair to the State to professional seeking government contracts and to the public. Why are we now recommending procurement exemptions for these agencies and services? In its testimony, HSDC cited an AG's opinion providing clarification that its investments are not considered purchases and are therefore are not subject to the Procurement Code. Likewise, HTDC received an AG's opinion stating that HTDC enabling legislation did not subject it to any requirement of law for comparative bidding, therefore it too was exempt from the Procurement Code. While these opinions may be valid and must provide an appropriate exemption from the Code for these agencies, the perception they create especially to the public may be confusing.

"We have a process in place, however, some agencies are not required to play by its rules. Likewise, LRB testified in support of this bill's provision providing a procurement exemption for contracted services with a legislative agency for preparation for the legislative submittal. So I think the time constraints experienced under the code and the proposed benefits to the Legislature for the receipt of studies and reports in an expeditious manner.

"However, DAGS testified that all agencies from which legislative submittal is required do not have trouble meeting legislative deadlines under current procurement provisions. This category of procurement does not need an exemption. According to the State Procurement Officer's testimony, the procurement code should not be regarded as an obstacle or hindrance to a purchasing agency's mission, but rather as a uniform policy or standard if you will for the State. It is fair, it is transparent, it is consistent and it maintains a respectable level of integrity and propriety that contributes to the public's confidence in government.

"In recent months, Mr. Speaker, much misplaced attention had been made to alleged circumventions of the Procurement Code by DBEDT in regards to its Asian trade mission. While an investigation by the State Procurement Office has determined that there was no violation of the Code by the Administration with respect to its trade mission, the situation generated much discussion and debate for the need for transparency and accountability that the procurement law provides. Does it not seem in a sense hypocritical or at least a little fishy that we are here today proposing to make the process a little less transparent and accountable for a few agencies?

"If we determined before that it is good government and good policy to have fair and consistent processes and to hold an agency responsible for its actions, are the exemptions before us today in keeping with the spirit of trust in government and good fiscal management? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in opposition. The reason for having the Procurement Code in the first place is to provide a fair and transparent process whereby the State obtains the best possible goods and services and construction at the best possible price. Enforcing the Code safeguards against negative public opinion of government procurement procedures and protects against any public perceptions of governmental waste, fraud or abuse.

"This being true, why are we providing exemptions for these agencies and services? Why adopt a Procurement Code and then fail to follow it? The State Procurement Office testified in Committee that the Code already allows a purchasing agency to request an exemption when procurement by competitive means is not practicable or advantageous. There is flexibility within the requirements of the Code.

"Simply having a specific mission or having to deal with development issues does not warrant exemptions for these agencies according to DAGS. For these reasons, I'm voting no. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support and let's talk about hypocrisy. Let's look at the Administration's record after we passed the Procurement Code and the Governor said, 'Now it's not who you know, but what you know.' Then we learn that the head of DAGS has overturned the recommendation twice, recommendation of the independent selection committee concerning selection of an A&E firm. When we called them on it a week later, they reversed that decision.

"And then let's take a look at the HHSC expansion of the clinical labs contract. They were exempt under 103D. The State Procurement Officer of the State ruled that they were not exempt under 103F and that's where that exemption should have taken place. And so that was referred to the Attorney General. Based on the State Procurement Officer's decision that they were not exempt from 103F and therefore the exemption to that was illegal. It's been three months and the Administration and the Attorney General have done absolutely nothing about it."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in strong support. A couple of things. I think a previous speaker mentioned that the State Procurement Officer found that there was no violation of the State Procurement Code. While that may be true in Mr. Fujioka's memorandum to the Director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, I believe it was a strange ruling and opinion.

"First of all it was based merely upon the sole representations of the Director ..."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Excuse me, Mr. Speaker. I'm asking if the Member is addressing the bill? It seems to me that he's straying rather far a field."

The Chair then stated:

"I believe he's addressing the comments made by a Member of the House as it relates to this bill so I'll let him speak."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Yes, these comments are germane to the remarks made by the Assistant Minority Floor Leader, and let me continue. The opinion of Mr. Fujioka from the Procurement Office was based upon a couple of things.

"First of all, it was based upon the representations of the DBEDT Director. That DBEDT had no direct involvement in the selection or contracting or procurement of any services other than from the District Export Council or the Pacific Asian Affairs Council.

"Furthermore, that there was no signed contract despite the fact that there are numerous documents in my office showing that there was communication between DBEDT, which clearly shows in my humble opinion that DBEDT was directing the receipt of, solicitation of, and payment of a numerous amount of contracts.

"Third, it is true that the Procurement Officer also made the findings upon the fact ..."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, excuse me. Mr. Speaker, point of information. I'm looking at the description of the bill. If I'm on the correct one, it provides a procurement exemption for the National ..."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Thielen, for what purpose do you rise?"

Representative Thielen: "To say what the description of the bill is and to see ..."

Vice Speaker Takai: "That is an out of order request."

Representative Thielen: "To see what is relevant about what the present speaker is discussing."

Vice Speaker Takai: "Yes, I have ruled that Representative Marcus Oshiro can continue with his discussion, but I'm going to ask him to wrap it up shortly."

Representative Thielen: "It seems to be extremely far a field, Mr. Speaker. I mean I don't see it even relating at all to what the bill is before us."

Vice Speaker Takai: "Representative Thielen, I think the Assistant Minority Leader mentioned a few things and I let him go and speak on those, so I think we'll let the Majority Leader speak as well, but Majority Leader if you could wrap it up shortly."

Representative Moses rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege. I'm sorry. I know where you're going. I don't mind the Floor Leader continuing in a moment, but I just want to point out, I was pointing out exemptions. This measure deals with exemptions. I was pointing out different agencies that are exempted."

The Chair then ruled, stating:

"Representative Moses, you are out of order. That is not a point of information. Representative Oshiro, please proceed."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Well again, Mr. Speaker, I believe that procurement rules are important and they should be followed in all instances and I believe this is the proper course. If one wants to have a different interpretation of the Procurement Code, the best way is to go and change the law. But as long as the law stands, why don't you follow it? Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2997, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Moses voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141-06 and S.B. No. 845, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 142-06 and S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1899, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of SB 1899. Thank you. The purpose of this measure is twofold. To provide detailed researched information to allow the transgenic Rainbow papaya to be accepted by the Japanese government, and also provide a marketing plan for both the transgenic and non-transgenic Hawaiian papaya into the Japanese market and also other markets.

"Historically speaking, the Kapoho papaya was 'king' until the early 1990s when the production level was about 58 million in marketable pounds. Then in 1997, it was devastated by the ring-spot virus. The pride of the Kapoho industry plummeted down to about 25 million marketable pounds and continued to rapidly free-fall. This virus, needless to say, nearly wiped out the industry.

"But thanks to modern-day scientific technology, a team of researchers headed by USDA Chief researcher, Dr. Dennis Gonsalves, armed with research funding both from the federal government and also our State government and in collaboration with Cornell University, the University of Hawaii, and the US Department of Agriculture successfully developed the transgenic Rainbow papaya and in 1998 was successful and provided these papaya seeds free.

"The US Government has determined the Rainbow safe for consumption and also not harmful to the environment. The Rainbow is exported to the continental United States and also to Canada. Our visitors from Japan, visitors from Japan to here in Hawaii consume the Rainbow papaya.

"Today the Kapoho papaya in particular is exported to Japan after undergoing a heat treatment process to rid the presence of fruit fly infestation. The industry has been working with the Japanese Ministry of Agricultural, also the Ministry of Health. And I'm confident deregulation for the Rainbow papaya will soon become a reality.

"This supportive measure is necessary for the viability for the consumer-friendly, environmentally approved papaya in the agricultural industry; especially, Mr. Speaker, during this period when other local once-thriving agricultural production markets are becoming extinct. Thank you very much."

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Thank you. I'm very disappointed looking at the CD 1 that the only change is the amount to be appropriated. There are no substantive changes to this bill as it left the House the last time we spoke. I appreciate the perspectives of my colleague, the Representative from the Hamakua Coast, and the fact that the papayas are not labeled as GMOs is a major issue.

"That notwithstanding, the long-term question, the bigger question for which I am concerned about still exists as to whether industry linked research would change the minds of consumers and customers in other parts of the world who are both generally leery of potential dangers of genetically modified fruits and vegetables and also supportive of organically produced natural products.

"I think in the long run this is a huge mistake for Hawaii's export agricultural products to be associated with genetic modification especially unlabeled and when the public finds out, it will be even a bigger mistake as that association could rebound the detriment of other island products in the face of consumer resistance.

"I realize that this bill is specifically about the papayas and that is an income generating aspect of the Big Island in particular and for Hawaii, but it's a bigger conversation and the bigger image of Hawaii for which I am concerned. Thank you."

Representative Hale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of Conference Committee Report No. 142. This affects my district more than any other major industry in the area. Our papayas are known all over the United States and in most places. People that come here enjoy their papayas from Hawaii, most of which had been raised in the Puna district. I would like to add written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of SB 1899 and urge my colleagues to vote for this bill that will really help the papaya industry, one of my Puna District's products. A few years ago a ringspot virus destroyed the papaya crop. Today our industry was saved by the discovery of a genetically engineered, but a major market that was exported to Japan called Rainbow was not accepted. Engineers have been working with the Japanese government to answer their concerns about this genetically modified product. This appropriation will enable them to finish their studies and I believe that their results will give this the necessary boost to finish their work. This money will also help their marketing efforts to open these and other countries. People visiting Hawaii are eating these Rainbow papayas and love them. I also eat them regularly and find them delicious and healthy.

"Please pass SB1899 for our important papaya industry. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143-06 and S.B. No. 2984, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2984, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Hale rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in very strong support of SB 2984. Ever since I came to the Legislature in 2001, I have been trying to get the promise fulfilled given to the people of Kalapana for rebuilding their community. They lost an unique Hawaiian village that was overrun by lava in 1983. In 2001 we got the housing that had been appropriated in 1991 to be redirected for the necessary infrastructure. Finally the roads are about to be finished and now they again need loan and self-build help. This money of $200,000 is necessary for this purpose. With this appropriation this long promised project can finally get finished.

"Thank you my colleagues for your support and Mr. Speaker, I appreciate your help."

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 2984, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: 'A Bill For An Act Making An Appropriation To The Kikala-Keokea Housing Revolving Fund'

"The purpose of this measure is to appropriate funds to the Kikala-Keokea house revolving fund.

"Beginning in 1983, and continuing into the following decade, lava erupting from Kilauea volcano repeatedly invaded communities along the southern coast of the island of Hawaii, destroying more than one hundred eighty homes. The lava invasion culminated with the destruction of Kalapana in 1990 and 1991.

"The lava flow is one of the last native Hawaiian settlements on the Island of Hawaii, a tightly knit community whose rights to occupy the land under homestead leases and to fish in surrounding waters have been recognized by the federal government since 1938 under the Kalapana Extension Act.

"In recognition of this tragedy, the Legislature enacted Act 314, Session Laws of Hawaii 1991, as amended, authorizing the Department of Land And Natural Resources to negotiate long-term leases with qualified, displaced Kalapana families to allow them to maintain their heritage on ceded lands in the Kikala-Keokea homestead area adjacent to the Kalapana-Kapoho Beach road. This site allows the Kalapana families to maintain their traditional cultural practices.

"In 2001, the Legislature enacted Act 144, Session Laws of Hawaii 2001, which established the Infrastructure Development Fund to finance the construction of roads, water lines, and other infrastructure, and the Kikala-Keokea Housing Revolving Fund to provide low-interest loans to Kikala-Keokea lessees for home construction.

"This measure appropriates out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $200,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2006-2007 for deposit into the Kikala-Keokea Housing Revolving Fund established under section 201G-170.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to provide low-interest home construction loans for Kikala-Keokea leaseholders and to fund related activities. The sum appropriated shall be expended by the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Administration for the purposes of this Act. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2006. I recommend that S.B. No. 2984, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2984, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO THE KIKALA-KEOKEA HOUSING REVOLVING FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this measure is to extend business and technology-based incubation services to foreign technology companies seeking to do business in the State by making an appropriation for the High Technology Development Corporation to establish an international business and technology incubator program in Hawaii.

"Hawaii is an attractive alternative to other technology incubator programs on the mainland United States due to its closer proximity to Asia and the State's culturally diverse population. An international expansion of the incubator program is expected to create more business and technology-based jobs, economic diversity, and a new external source of tax revenue for the State. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2036, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR AN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS AND TECHNOLOGY INCUBATOR," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. This raises the amount of withholding placed on real estate transactions for out-of-state purchasers from 5% of the gross to 8.25% of the gross. Now it's only withholding, they'll get their money back, but I can see instances where the person involved in the transaction won't have that much capital because it's the gross, not the net amount. A large property, a very valuable property, this is a lot of money that is withheld. So you know, it's a tax increase, Mr. Speaker. I'm in opposition."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1800, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SALE OF REAL PROPERTY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Green, Halford, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Stevens voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro, Stonebraker and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1923, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. This measure, CCR 154-06, House Bill 1923, among other things allows the Hawaii Tourism Authority to retain attorneys independent of the Attorney General's Office and exempts the Tourism Authority, their accounts from supervision by the Comptroller by extending the sunset date on these provisions to June 30, 2010. This bill essentially allows the HTA to exist and operate as its own fiefdom. Remaining outside of the purview of the Department of the Attorney General and DAGS, there is no financial accountability for HTA.

"The Attorney General testified in opposition to this bill during its hearings to its referred committees. Starting with the provision granting the HTA authority to hire attorneys for specialized purposes independent of the AG's Office is legally and fiscally unnecessary.

"Under existing law, the HTA can already hire outside counsel when additional expertise is required as long as they have the Attorney General's approval. Allowing HTA to hire counsel, outside counsel without the AG's approval could lead to instances where the independent counsel advises the authority in a manner that is contrary to the Attorney General's opinion.

"Also the Deputy Attorney Generals have the experience and knowledge of unique State laws that are applicable to and required by the HTA and other State entities. Outside counsel will have to familiarize themselves with these laws and procedures at an added expense to the HTA. According to the Attorney General, a small group of in-house attorneys for the HTA could not duplicate the AG's services.

"This measure also provides for no financial accountability for the HTA. Especially given the fact that its accounts are not subject to supervision by the Comptroller. How do we know that the Authority's finances are being managed responsibly?

"Mr. Speaker, I believe the HTA does a fine job within its area of expertise. This bill provides an unwarranted degree of freedom to its agency without the commensurate required accountability. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1923, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro, Stonebraker and Takamine being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2239, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. As you know, Mr. Speaker, I spoke against this bill earlier in the legislative Session. As a freshman you come in with your set beliefs. For example, I've been against eminent domain for such a long time in my lifetime, but being on the Housing Committee and seeing the state of crisis we are in Hawaii for affordable housing and I realize that there really is no other way to definitely ensure to save this property for the people of Hawaii, who may be left behind in this great economy. And so I now stand in strong support and stand corrected on how to handle this issue, and I thank the Chair of Housing for convincing me that this is a good bill. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure and it actually created a little bit of internal discussion on my part, but I came to deal with it philosophically by looking at in three different ways.

"One, this particular issue I believe represents a huge social problem that we're now faced with here on the State of Hawaii, which is the creation of affordable housing. What this has done is raise the bar of discussion of the loss of already developed affordable housing.

"We have here probably about three or four different levels of issues that I think we need to look at, but the people of Kukui Gardens, I give them a lot of credit because they're basically a very bashful group, they're not aggressive like some of us here in this Chamber. But they had the guts and the wherewithal to come here and to explain what the loss of this particular property could do to them, their families, and to our community. And when you do research on this you realize that we have had instances like this throughout our history when we have an economic growth, it seems like our people are the ones that are always being left behind and then when it's too late, we run around and we try to figure out how can we once again help them.

"I believe that what this Kukui Gardens has done is it has made us realize that we can't go back and help them after the deed has been done. And the deed that could be done here is this property being sold to someone that does not have a vested interest or really a concern for the people of Hawaii, and that would be unfortunately a foreign corporation or a mainland corporation. I believe that we need to send a message that we want to be a business friendly state, but we're a state of limited resources, limited lands and we need to take care of our people.

"There is a philosophy that I hope that the purchasers that are looking at the property will entertain, which is a 'triple bottom line theory', which is if you're going to do business in Hawaii or own land in Hawaii, it's more than just about profits. But with that being said, we also have issues because the landowners themselves are in a position to help with this issue. The landowners have been receiving a fairly good amount of income for the last 36 years, and I believe it's nonprofit income.

"In the 60s and 70s, we stepped forward as a policy body and we enacted the Maryland Land Act and through that, through some very hard times, I think we were able to take a lot of lands and convert them into fee simple. This is what has happened here and I really, really thank the people of Kukui Gardens for stepping forward and for educating someone like me that sometimes is uneducable at my age. But they did a good thing and I hope that with this piece of legislation that as we go forward, that Kukui Gardens will lay the foundation for what we need to do to protect what we have because we can't go back and get it again. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Kukui Gardens is a unique affordable housing resource on 22 acres in Central Honolulu that provides housing for 2,500 working residents and senior citizens and 857 low-income housing units of which over 50% of the units are rented to families with incomes under 50% of the median family income and over 20% of the units are rented to families with incomes over 110% of the median family income.

"Kukui Gardens supports the character of the neighborhood by being the primary source of workforce housing for all of historic Chinatown. The 857 affordable rental units in Kukui Gardens are irreplaceable in the current Honolulu housing market. However, it is currently for sale and at risk of becoming a market-rate rental project or condominium after 2011 when the project's affordable housing commitment period with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development expires.

"The residents, surrounding community, and the island of Oahu would benefit from the active intervention of the State in this transaction to ensure that there is no negative impact on current and future residents. And for these reasons and other written remarks I would like to insert into the Journal, I stand in strong support."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in support of H.B. 2239, H.D.1, S.D.2, C.D.1, entitled Kukui Gardens Acquisition:

"In its final report dated January 2006, the Joint Legislative Housing and Homeless Task Force expressed concern that the inventory of affordable housing rental units may be reduced. Affordable rental housing projects built in part with government subsidies have been offered for sale at market prices as a result of the expiration of income and conveyance restrictions encumbering the property. The Task Force is committed to ensuring that such units remain affordable to persons at certain income levels.

"In recent months, media reports have announced that several affordable housing projects may be offered for sale, such as the Kukui Gardens affordable rental housing projects. Kukui Gardens was built in part with federal funds and its affordability restrictions will expire in five years.

"The purpose of this Act is to preserve Kukui Gardens as an affordable housing project.

Kukui Gardens is a unique affordable housing resource on twenty-two acres in central Honolulu that provides housing for two thousand five hundred working residents and senior citizens in eight hundred fifty-seven low-income housing units, of which over fifty percent of the units are rented to families with incomes under fifty percent of the median family income, and over twenty percent of the units are rented to families with incomes over one hundred ten percent of the median family income;

Kukui Gardens supports the character of the neighborhood by being the primary source of workforce housing for all of historic Chinatown;

The eight hundred fifty-seven affordable rental units in Kukui Gardens are irreplaceable in the current Honolulu housing market however it is currently for sale. And at risk of becoming a market rate rental project or condominium after 2011, when the project's affordable housing commitment period with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development expires; and

The residents, surrounding community, and the island of Oahu would benefit from the active intervention of the State in this transaction to ensure that there is no negative impact on current and future residents.

"The Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Administration or any appropriate entity of the State shall immediately initiate negotiations with Kukui Gardens Corporation, or its successor in interest, to either:

- (1) Make available, without competitive award, public financing resources to extend affordable rents at Kukui Gardens through at least 2016; provided that at least fifty percent of the rental units at Kukui Gardens are retained at affordable rents to households whose incomes do not exceed eighty percent of the median family income, of which five percent of the units are set aside for households whose incomes do not exceed thirty percent of the median family income; or

- (2) Acquire the property known as Kukui Gardens, tax map key (1) 1-7-26: 07, and may partner with private for-profit or nonprofit developers for acquisition of the property; provided that eighty percent of the housing units on the property shall be retained in perpetuity as affordable housing for households at or below one hundred forty percent of the median family income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

"The Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Administration or the appropriate entity of the State shall submit a report to the legislature not later than twenty days prior to the convening of the Regular Session of 2007 regarding its efforts to acquire Kukui Gardens and its recommendations for financing the purchase of the property.

"It extends affordable rents to at least 2016 or acquire the property is not reached within a reasonable time as determined by the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Administration or any other appropriate entity of the State, the state agency shall exercise its power of eminent domain to acquire the property. For the purposes of this Act, and notwithstanding any provision of section 201G-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to the contrary, condemnation of the Kukui Gardens property shall not be subject to legislative disapproval.

"And this measure appropriates out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $200,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2006-2007 for the purpose of negotiating with the owner of Kukui Gardens to either extend the period of affordable rents to at least 2016, acquire Kukui Gardens, or to commence the condemnation process. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2006.

"I recommend that H.B. 2239 H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 pass final reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B. 2239.

"The State's Housing Task Force has acknowledged that Hawaii has an affordable housing crisis, particularly as it applies to the availability of rental housing that serves those making 80% and below the area median income.

"It's important that the State appropriate funds through private developers to acquire the property currently known as Kukui Gardens from the Kukui Gardens Corporation. The acquisition of Kukui Gardens will help maintain an inventory of affordable rentals on Oahu.

"The State can provide private developers with financing assistance through various financing programs, such as tax-exempt revenue bonds coupled with non-competitive low income housing tax credits.

"Time is of the essence to preserve existing affordable rental properties and to protect those who benefiting from them."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2075, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 2075.

"I drafted this bill to expand our bikeway system in Hawaii. A recent survey conducted of 401 UH graduate students, when asked, 'How important are safe bike routes accessing campus?' 61% said, 'Crucial,' and 26% said, 'Quite important.' Mr. Speaker, the measure before us addresses the lack of funding for addressing safety issues for bicyclists.

"In our State's search for solutions to ease traffic congestion, lower road maintenance, improve air quality, improve health and reduce health care costs – there's a simple solution, bicycle riding.

"Oregon is recognized as the most bicycle-friendly state by the League of American Wheelmen, has been a aggressive promoter of bicycle facilities, dedicating funding each year for their construction. In 1971, the Oregon State Legislature passed the first bicycle bill requiring at least 1.0% of the State Highway Fund distributed to the Oregon Highway Division and city and county governments to be spent on bicycle and pedestrian facilities.

"Eugene, Oregon adopted a comprehensive Bikeways Master Plan in 1974, which provides bike parking at transit stops, 38 miles of bike lanes, 24 miles of off-street paths, and 18 miles of designated bike routes. These efforts have encouraged 8.5% - 10% of the adult workforce to commute by bike.

"With rising gas prices, congested roadways, and our great weather, Hawaii is poised to be the next leader in promoting bicycle transportation as a safe, healthy, alternative and non-polluting transportation that can be used for recreational or business use.

Using Oregon as a role model, the appropriations in this measure will improve safety for our bikers and get people out of their cars and onto their bikes.

"Thank you for the opportunity to support this bill."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this transportation bikeways. I would like to speak about this. The State Department of Transportation goes out and studies where it would be nice to have bikeways or bike routes over 10 years, and then states a lack of funding to do anything about it. Over the last two decades nothing substantial has been executed by the Department of Transportation to increase bikeways that link our communities.

"Take for instance the Leeward Bikeway. Federal funding has been available to complete it since 1998. The EIS was completed in 2000 and construction was once reported to be completed by 2003. Now here we are in 2006, not an inch of the Leeward Bikeway has been paved and this is with a right of way that has already been owned by the State since the 1970s. If we do not take the lead and press for this transportation need, we will be left with bike routes still defined by weeds. I pray that this measure will be actually funded by the State Highway Fund as is stated by this draft. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of the measure. I have written comments but I'd just like to say that bicycling is something we should encourage as an alternative form of transportation and also to encourage physical fitness. The present draft of the bill unfortunately has a little glitch in it and I know that advocates were really worried about it, but I personally would like to say we'll come back next year and try to fix that. And so I will stop now and insert my written comments."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support.

"Earlier this Session we passed House Resolution 89 calling for "Heart Healthy Communities." Bikeways would be an absolutely essential part of such a community. This bill earmarks two percent of federally "eligible" moneys from the State Highway Fund for bikeways. Unfortunately, there was to be inserted into the bill the following change in Section 2, which was left out in the final drafting.

"... provided that at least two percent of federally eligible moneys shall be expended for the establishment of bike paths and bike lanes in the State's master bicycling plan; provided that the department of transportation shall include the bicycling community in a public involvement process to determine when and where a bikeway should be established; provided that a reasonable and proportional share of highway maintenance funds shall be allocated towards bikeways maintenance to ensure safe conditions prevail."

"I will work to amend the law next Session and, hopefully, to further encourage the safe and increased incidence of bicycling on our island."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2075, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Pine, Stonebraker and Thielen being excused.

Representative Stevens' written remarks are as follows:

"The Harbors Division is the most qualified to administer the operations and infrastructure of the maritime cargo and cruise facilities located on the pier.

"This will restore these two key maritime cargo portals to the control and supervision by those most qualified and equipped to do so."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 1280 H.D.1, S.D.2, C.D.1. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to require the Center for Conservation Research and Training of the University of Hawaii to develop and coordinate implementation of watershed management strategies for flood control for at least two of Hawaii's most severely flood-impacted watersheds. Floods caused by heavy rainstorms have become increasingly detrimental to the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of this State. Floods endanger lives, destroy property, result in adverse effects to the ecosystem, and disrupt commerce, transportation, and communications.

"It is in the best interests of the State to identify, design, and implement effective, integrated flood-control solutions consistent with comprehensive watershed management strategies to prevent property damage, loss of life, or environmental damage that results from severe flooding. Flood prevention through comprehensive watershed management is many times more cost-effective than flood mitigation through traditional reactive and piecemeal approaches to flood control.

"This piece of legislation would appropriate a comprehensive watershed management pilot project to develop comprehensive strategies that establish broad water management goals and targets for entire catchments consistent with a comprehensive watershed management to control storm water runoff to levels that can be safely and economically carried downstream by drainage systems in at least two of Hawaii's most severely flood-impacted watersheds. Mr. Speaker, passage of this bill would mean more than the protection of property and environmental damage, it would mean the saving of lives. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1280, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FLOOD CONTROL," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Pine, Stonebraker and Thielen being excused.

Representative Hale rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I have long been an advocate for international understanding and world peace. When you gave me a chance to Chair the International Affairs, a new committee, I was thrilled. This has given me the chance to fulfill a dream to lead Hawaii to an international player on the world scene where we could try to convince the world that our Hawaiian culture of Aloha, peace and tolerance is a model to other people that is the only way we are going to save our self-destructive tendencies that may sooner than we believe destroy the whole earth.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that our mission is only begun and it will take a long time, but we have to keep trying. However, a legislative Committee cannot do it alone in our short 4 months' sessions. The state must revive the Office of International Relations that so aptly lead this original department under present Mayor Hannemann. It took two Sessions to get the cooperation of Director Ted Liu of DBEDT, the most logical department to lead at present.

"Hawaii has a long tradition of international interest starting with King Kamehameha I and followed up with King Kalakaua, the first reigning monarch to travel around the earth and gave Hawaii world recognition. I believe that the new division in DBEDT is only a first step and eventually that Hawaii will believe in its destiny as a peace advocate and will become a separate department. In our global economy Hawaii cannot stand alone looking within its own borders. We must become effective world leaders.

"Please support HB1889. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. This bill establishes within the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, an Office of International Affairs. The Office of International Affairs will promote economic, social, cultural, and scientific relations with other countries. Further, the Office will reinforce Hawaii's strong international relations with many countries. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1889, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Pine, Stonebraker and Thielen being excused.

Representative Yamane's written remarks are as follows:

"Veterans are our national heroes and deserve to be kept informed about changes that affect their healthcare and well-being. This newsletter will be a valuable tool to reach all our veterans, to let them know about upcoming events and about changes in their benefits. The veterans have been waiting a long time for a tool that would reach every one on every island with important news. Supporting this important legislation lets our veterans know that they matter, and that we appreciate their sacrifices for our country."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker.

"The continuation of the Hawaii Veterans' Newsletter is paramount to the veteran who is in need of services and the information in which to know the who, what, where, when, and how to accomplish it.

"The appropriation is more than justified, it is our duty. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B. 1879 – Relating to Veterans.

"There are over 107,310 veterans who reside in Hawaii with their families. Thousands of veterans are uninformed about their health benefits, and this measure would appropriate $50,000 to allow the Office of Veteran Services to maintain a website and produce newsletters that would bring and offer pertinent medical and compensation benefit information to our veteran community in a timely fashion.

"In 2004, the State received $321,000,000 in revenues from the Department of Veterans Affairs. I believe it's imperative that while we continue to benefit from those who served in our military and risked their lives for the future of our country and freedom, that we support the Office of Veterans Services in keeping veterans updated and apprised of their benefits through newsletters and the internet."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1879, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERANS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of House Bill No. 3235, Conference Draft 1, Relating To The State Of Hawaii Endowment Fund.

"This bill would address the needs of the Honolulu Symphony as it progresses into the 21st Century. The Honolulu Symphony was founded in 1900, and lays claim to one of the oldest symphonies in the West Coast. The Honolulu Symphony's benefactors – besides the audience – are the children of Hawaii. It has performed across the country and in its home --The Neal Blaisdell Concert Hall -- with marquee virtuosos with international reputations. The Symphony provides youth concerts and reaches out to schools with chamber ensemble performances.

"Music is a vanishing art. As music programs across the country take a backseat to the core education programs of English, Math, and Science, our youth lose out on expanding creative expression. The Honolulu Symphony provides an opportunity for children to listen and appreciate timeless melodies still found in today's world. Each year, the symphony reaches out to more than 30,000 children.

"The Honolulu Symphony is one of the most prominent and recognizable cultural, educational, and entertainment organizations in the State of Hawaii. Its mission is to enhance the quality of life of the people of Hawaii by sustaining a symphony orchestra of the highest artistic quality.

"House Bill 3235 CD1 provides a matching fund for the Honolulu Symphony, which encourages donors to pledge. Through this endowment, the Honolulu Symphony will have the ability to sustain its concerts and programs for another 100 years.

"For these reasons, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3235, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE OF HAWAII ENDOWMENT FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On 172-06, I stand in strong support and I would like to insert written comments into the Journal. I would also like to thank Chair Luke for her help on this measure."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, it is hard to believe 140 years after the Emancipation Proclamation that trafficking in humans still occurs in the United States, but it does and it does routinely. While not formally 'slaves' victims of trafficking are often held in appalling conditions and are for all practical purposes slaves. They are not allowed to leave their employers and are often forced to engage in sexual activity against their wills.

"The most common victims of trafficking crimes are women and girls. Often the victims are immigrants or others in economically vulnerable positions.

"There are, of course, laws that pertain to aspects of human trafficking, but they do not cover the full range of immoral and exploitive activities involved. This bill will establish a taskforce to study the best ways to curtail human trafficking and to make Hawaii law consistent with the federal Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act.

"The taskforce will include representatives from State and county government including law enforcement agencies. Private sector participants include the Salvation Army, Sisters Offering Support, the Sex Abuse Treatment Center, Na Loio Immigrant Rights and Public Interest Legal Center, the Domestic Violence Clearinghouse and Legal Hotline, GirlFest, and the Hawaii State Coalition Against Sexual Assault.

"The bill provides $5,000 to support the activities of the taskforce created by the bill. I respectfully urge my colleagues to support this important measure. Mahalo."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I stand in strong support of HB 2051 CD1 and would like to commend this Body for moving this bill forward. It is a sad state of affairs when we have people kidnapping and selling others into a life of slavery and getting away with it. The problem crosses state lines and involves international criminals. I am optimistic that the formation of the taskforce called for in this legislation will be productive and that our State will soon be able to implement policies and procedures that will begin to deal with this horrific situation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2051, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROTECTION FOR VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2051, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

At 7:34 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 7:34 o'clock p.m. with the Speaker presiding.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 179-06 and S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to May 4, 2006

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 173-06 and H.B. No. 2277, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2277, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Luke rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. The firm that I work with, I believe they represent some of the claims in this bill, but I do not work on any of them," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition. Mr. Speaker, we passed out a measure like this every single year and I'm bothered by it. I'm not in opposition, I'm just making comments on it. I'm in support.

"We looked at a measure earlier on the OD. It's CCR 86-06 and that bill has a direct relationship to this one. How? Take a look at part 2 of this bill. CCR 86-06 specifically retained joint and several liability for claims relating to the maintenance and design of highways. That aspect of CCR 86-06 comes with a price and the price is expressed within this bill.

"Joint and several liability means that if the Department of Transportation is found even a little bit liable, like say 25% from an accident because of road design and maintenance, DOT is on the hook for 100% of the award. Of the claims listed in part 2 of this bill, 8 of them arise because the Department of Transportation is named as a result of a road or design maintenance and there's specific items listed and I won't go through them. Pulling moneys out of the highway fund to pay for this is $1,800,941.81. I mean this money could have been appropriated to repair and maintain our roads with a 4 to 1 federal match.

"We shoot ourselves in the foot and keep working up our legs by allowing the situation to continue. We see this claims bill every year. Yet we have in our power a measure to reform our tort system such that the State is only liable in proportion to the amount of wrongdoing committed and we did not. We will keep losing resources to repair and maintain our roads."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2277, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE, ITS OFFICERS, OR ITS EMPLOYEES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 174-06 and H.B. No. 2045, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2045, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. Each of us is familiar with the plight of infants borne by mothers who abuse drugs or alcohol. These keiki often face a very difficult childhood and are at higher risk of long-term health and social problems. The money appropriated in this bill to establish a pilot perinatal care clinic will be a ray of sunshine into this depressing reality. The earlier we can find the expectant or new mothers with substance abuse problems, the sooner we can intervene and improve the health of both mother and baby. I have additional written comments that I'd like to insert. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"I am very excited to see this bill before us for Final Reading. Each of us is familiar with the plight of infants borne by mothers who abuse drugs or alcohol. These keiki often face a very difficult childhood and are at much higher risk of long-term health and social problems. The money appropriated in this bill to establish a pilot perinatal care clinic will hopefully be a rare ray of sunshine into this depressing reality. The earlier we can find the expectant or new mothers with substance abuse problems, the sooner we can intervene and improve the health of both mother and baby.

"In 2000, Child Welfare Services received reports of 208 drug-exposed infants. Most of them had been exposed to methamphetamine. In addition, about 20% of pregnant women in Hawaii drink and about the same percentage smoke. All of these practices can have serious consequences for the keiki's health.

"Unfortunately, women who use illegal drugs are the least likely to seek perinatal care. These women fear that if they come forward to get help then their children will be taken from them. This measure would establish a pilot perinatal clinic at the John A. Burns School of Medicine. The clinic will care for women with a history of substance abuse and provide them substance use counseling and psychiatric care. The clinic will also provide case management coordinating its efforts with CWS and other social service providers. The coordination and centralized location should make a big difference in the likelihood that the mothers will get as much help as is available, and that they will get help promptly.

"We must do what we can to protect the innocent victims of maternal drug, alcohol and tobacco abuse. This pilot program is an important step in protecting the next generation for, as we all know, the children are our future. This pilot program is also a perfect example of a relatively modest investment that can reap great returns in reducing future social costs.

"I urge my colleagues to support this Women's Caucus measure. Mahalo."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 175-06 and H.B. No. 1821, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1821, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I am so happy to stand in support of this landmark bill. This measure appropriates an additional $100 more per month for our Medicaid elderly, those who are mentally ill and those with disabilities that are currently in institutions. The last time an increase has been given to these individuals was in 1994 at the tune of $50 a month.

"As the Chair of Health stated earlier, when discussing the caregiver bill, 3252, the cost of caring from year to year is now about $60,000 a year. That's $5,000 a month in our institutions. If we look at and compare the $621.90 versus $60,000, that's about $5,000 a month. That's a huge difference. The difference, Mr. Speaker, is that these individuals will be removed from institutions and be placed in community settings which are more personable. It is like a family setting where they can have personal care, 24 hours per day. The cost to the State with the appropriation in this bill will be increased to $621.90. This is in addition to the social security benefits and that would total approximately $1,200 a month.

"I was talking to a friend of mine, last Saturday. I was in Hilo in a care home, and she is an elderly Japanese lady who came from Hamakua. She was first a schoolteacher and became an executive secretary for the big boss at the Hamakua Sugar Company. She now lives in the care home of my relative in Hilo. I was speaking to her and she said she thought it was interesting that she kept seeing my name in the papers in Hilo. She asked me what I do and I told them that I'm a legislator and that I am actually working on behalf of people like herself and people that are living in a care home and advocating on their behalf.

"We found Mr. Speaker, on Saturday, because we had a speaker who was a case manager, these case managers have a job of placing individuals from institutions into community settings. She said that there is a huge shortage of homes on the Big Island. The reason for that is it's very expensive to build homes and make them conform with the regulations of the State to make sure it's safe and accessible to wheelchairs, if that's the kind of home it is. And they are actually being edged out of the market by product providers.

"Mr. Speaker, the homes are usually grabbed first by private individuals who have money. Individuals with money will pay $5,000 a month for these beds out in the community. Also according to the Representative from Kauai, she knows of a facility in Kauai that charges $30,000 a month for a bed in these community settings.

"So, Mr. Speaker, if we don't help and subsidize these Medicaid patients, they will never be able to compete in the market for these community homes. It has been proven that our system, our industry that we have built in our communities are better and more able to take care of them. They are happier. They have better care. They have individual supervision. Think about this, an individual who has 24-hour supervision, they have food, they have shelter, they transportation to the doctors, they have someone to help them with their medication, they have someone to take them to the bathroom, wipe them afterwards, you know what I mean, Mr. Speaker. That's a lot of work and not all of us are lucky to have families that will take care of us.

"So if, as the Chair of Health indicated, we're going to have a whole lot of people in this category in the near future, we better ensure that these individuals in Medicaid will have a fighting chance for these particular homes out in the community. I am proud to say that this is a bill that is landmark. It is for the benefit of those people on Medicaid, the poor, the elderly, and the mentally disabled. To give them an opportunity to acquire homes in the community. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure, however, I do have a reservation about it. The last raise for the care homes was in 1994. And as stated by the previous speaker, these care homes really provide a lot of help to the State of Hawaii. They're saving the State a lot of money. Millions of dollars. As he stated, the cost of care homes in the private community is about $3,000 to $6,000 dollars, and we're sparing these care homes a little over $1,000.

"And the inflation of the cost of housing is so tremendous that it almost doubled. Giving them a $100 raise a month, I'm grateful to this Body for that $100 amount, but again, it's just a minuscule amount. And I'm raising this up because I feel that next legislative Session we should visit this matter again to give justice to these people. Thank you everyone, and thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll make my comments short, but in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I think I would like to take the opportunity to really thank the Chair of Finance and Chair of Human Services for adding money and additional amounts for these care home providers. I just would also would like to take the opportunity to thank those care home operators that do leave these beds open for Medicaid patients as we know that they are paid at a lot lower level than they can get with private paid clients.

"Mr. Speaker, so when you see a care home operator, I know that there is a lot of issues in regards to having care homes in people's district, but also we should be looking at it as a very positive thing for community care and the care of our grandparents and parents and our elderly. And so at this point and time, Mr. Speaker, just strong thanks to those care home operators who do this when they could making more money. Aloha."

Representative Sonson rose to respond, stating:

"Again, in support. I'd like to thank the Leadership and also the Chair of Finance for his understanding for their understanding in support of this bill going forward. Thank you very much."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong. I just want to say publicly that this increase is long overdue and probably a little less than what they deserve, but I think in given the situation, we're thankful for the increases. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure.

"Patients, as well as families rely upon the compassion and loving care provided by care homes. H.B. 1821 – Relating to Care Homes will adjust the levels of care payments for adult residential care homes, adult foster homes, developmental disabilities domiciliary homes, and developmental disabilities apartment complexes. An increase in pay for employees of Type 1 and Type 2 homes will address the great need to insure quality care. Based on current levels, care homes have no incentive to provide these kinds of services because the money is just not there.

"Each passing year the cost of operating care homes has increased, without a corresponding increase in payments to employees. We must make sure these facilities remain viable options for those in need."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1821, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CARE HOMES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 176-06 and S.B. No. 475, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 475, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in very strong support. Mr. Speaker, this is a measure that's been long awaited and pushed for for over 13 years now. This is a measure that's going to finally give people on welfare a raise that they haven't had since 1993. And I want to applaud my colleagues for supporting this landmark legislation. And I would just urge though that right now, it's a budget neutral item, which is great and the start date is delayed to 2007 to give DHS time to give us a projection as to the cost. And I urge my colleagues to support future amounts, appropriations if necessary to make sure that the most needy in our society, the people that depend on welfare, deserve the raise that they've been waiting for for over 13 years. Thank you. I have further written comments in support."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I, along with a consortium of social service providers known as the Welfare and Employment Rights Coalition (WERC), strongly support this Women's Caucus measure and have urged its passage for the past several years.

"Simply put, welfare recipients have not received an adjustment to their assistance amount since 1993. This bill would finally correct this injustice, and raise the Standard of Need to the 2006 Federal Poverty Level.

"At long last, this year the Department of Human Services joined the call to finally increase the Standard of Need, and supported this measure. According to DHS' cost analysis submitted to the Finance Committee, this measure has varying costs, including possible cost savings. The variation in cost is due to the bill's granting of latitude to DHS in adjusting the percentage of the Federal Poverty Level in determining the assistance amount.

"Another very important note is that this bill could provide much needed relief to elderly or disabled Medicaid recipients on the "Cost Share" or "Spend Down" program, by decreasing their monthly co-payment.

"Mr. Speaker, the way this bill is drafted allows it to pass as a budget neutral item. Further, the start date is delayed until 2007 to permit DHS to provide the Legislature with a budget proposal that includes a projected increase in the Standard of Need.

"The advocates for this landmark legislation urge that this Body ensure that this measure provide real relief to those who need it most in the near future. Please support future appropriations, if necessary, to support this raise that welfare recipients have waited over 13 years to receive."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a measure that I am very supportive of. This is in regards to welfare payments and the standard of need and increasing that. That's correct in regards to the budget neutral part of it. I think that if there was any year and I know that we have to prepare. We have to prepare for this and we have accurate numbers to know what we're getting into, but if there was any year that we would be able to implement this and have it as an expenditure in our budget, it would be this year with our large surplus.

"Mr. Speaker, one of the things that I am concerned about though is that we did not have a financial plan to see if there is room for this in the future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

No. 475, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC ASSISTANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone, Saiki and Stonebraker being excused.

Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. Senate Bill No. 965. This bill conforms our State law on electronic surveillance to the federal wiretap law. Use of current law has posed safety problems for law enforcement, therefore electronic surveillance has rarely been used as a tool in combating crime.

"However, the passage of this bill will enable law enforcement officials to make better use of our law and help them fight crimes like the manufacture and distribution of ice. As a result, our neighborhoods across the State should be safer. Hawaii is one of about 28 states that has a federally funded office, the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Office. And they have done a lot of work and are actually responsible, working with our police and DEA, of bringing down some big drug busts. But because we have not amended our law, much of the evidence that they had and collected through their surveillance, electronic surveillance, was unable to be used so it's really going to help a lot, the passage of this bill.

"This is an issue that your House Republicans and the Governor have long been pushing for and I'm glad to see that today we can all come together to help fight ice in this State through this measure. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, standing in support. Would like to just state that, I want to thank the Chairs of the Senate and House Judiciary Committees for their hard work and dedication in resolving this matter and working in negotiations. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. And I just wanted to clarify that the current wiretap bill, and why law enforcement has not used it was not so much the hampering of the process, but really a cost issue. So by allowing this law to mirror a little bit of what the federal law allows, State law enforcement would not have to spend the money to do the wiretaps. So it's always been a cost issue and not so much the hampering process.

"But I would like to thank the good Representative from Mililani, he has really helped in the negotiations and understanding the wiretap law to its fullest, and he has done a great job in Conference. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Conf. Com. Rep. No. 185-06 and S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you first and the leadership in this House for the fine leadership that you have provided me as your Chair in Housing in shepherding this omnibus bill. We should be celebrating tonight as a result of this omnibus bill, and it is really a Minority and Majority effort. And Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to alleviate the burden of Hawaii's affordable housing and homelessness crisis.

"As you are aware that the report of the Joint Legislative Housing and Homeless Task Force of the Hawaii State Legislature pursuant to Act 196, Session Law of Hawaii 2005, made recommendations as to what is needed to aid the housing crisis for the estimated 44,000 new housing units we would need by the year 2009. 33,000 of these units are needed on the island of Oahu alone.

"The recommendations were: one, to leverage more sources of financing for affordable housing; two, make available more public land for the development of affordable housing; three, streamline government approvals and permitting of affordable housing project; four, build more offsite infrastructure to serve affordable housing; five, appropriate additional funds for transitional housing, shelters, and services for homeless population; and six, preserve and maintain the existing public housing stock.

"As a result, this measure acts upon these findings by extending the use of the Rental Housing Trust Fund Program by authorizing the agency to provide funds for project-based operation subsidy. It also increases the conveyance tax to the Rental Housing Trust Fund from 30% to 50%, which would realize a little over $14 million more for these purposes. It also promotes the development of self-help housing by allowing the agency to lease parcels of land for $1 per year. It also requires the agency to identify public lands suitable for these purposes and that the lands be transferred to the agency no later than December 1st, 2006.

"It also appropriates $20 million for grants-in-aid for homeless services and transitional housing. Appropriates $10 million to repair and modernize vacant units on federal and State public housing. It appropriates $400,000 for interim construction loans for up to 10 homes to be developed as self-help ownership homes. This measure also provides ..."

Representative Magaoay rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Kahikina continued, stating:

"Thank you, Sir. This measure in conjunction with Senate Bill 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, provides meaningful relief for Hawaii residents struggling with skyrocketing home prices and homelessness.

"This bill also notes that an additional $5 million will be awarded through grants-in-aid, but recognizes that a number of worthy nonprofit organizations did not submit request for grants-in-aid, including agencies such as the Institute for Human Services, Steadfast Housing, Gregory Housing, and Housing Solutions to mention a few.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, it appropriates funding to the counties, to all the counties, and some grants-in-aid appropriations. It also continues grants-in-aid in the tune of $700,000 to Hawaii Habitat for Humanity Association, $350,000 to the Nanakuli Housing Corporation, $225,000 to Hawaii Homeownership Center, and $490,000 to Lokahi

Pacific. And lastly Mr. Speaker, it appropriates $1.5 million for land acquisition for the Kulana Nani property in Kaneohe in preserving its rental stock.

"However, Mr. Speaker, it was brought to your Chair of Housing by the Executive Director of HCDCH, Stephanie Aveiro, that although item 6 of the Committee Report of our omnibus bill clearly states that we are appropriating $10 million to repair and modernize vacant units in federal and state public housing projects, that the bill itself in section 4 reads as such, "there is appropriated out of general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $10 million or so much there as may be necessary for fiscal year 2006 and 2007 to repair and modernize existing federal and state buildings for transitional shelters and emergency shelters as defined under section 201g-451, HRS."

"Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I want to make the point very clear that the intent of the legislation was to expand the use of repairs and therefore the appropriate reading should be that "there is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $10 million or so much there of as may be necessary for fiscal 2006 and 2007 for the repair and modernization of vacant units in federal and State public housing projects or buildings of transitional shelters and emergency shelters as defined under section 201g."

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my Vice Chair, my Co-Chair in the Conference, also the Chair of Finance and more so for all of my colleagues for this wonderful *loka*hi effort in addressing the homelessness and housing crisis in the State of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Many years ago I observed a conversation with a statesman and another person working here at the Capitol and they said there's really nothing wrong with politics here at the Capitol, it's really the best and worst of human behavior intensified ten times. I have to tell you, Mr. Speaker, this has been the best I've seen of us in a very long time and I'm so proud to have been involved in the Conference Committees on both housing omnibus bills. And I truly am thankful that we have given so much hope to people who have lost hope. There's no better gift that we can give a family than a roof over their head and a warm meal and some extra help to find a job. So I thank all of you for all of your support in this endeavor, especially the Housing Chair and Vice Chair. Thank you."

At 7:59 o'clock p.m., Representative Kanoho requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 8:07 o'clock p.m.

Representative Kahikina rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in my great haste and excitement over the omnibus bill and the late hour sitting in this Body, Mr. Speaker, I was referring to Senate Bill 2958 and House Bill 2176. Both are sort of like a double-hulled canoe in addressing our homeless and housing crisis. So Mr. Speaker, I was corrected that the Senate Bill 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, addresses the non-fiscal appropriations or policy and procedures that deal with the whole effort to deal with homeless and housing.

"So at the point where we get to House Bill 2176, I would request that my remarks be enter in the Journal and further written comments be also. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, I was taking the lead of our Housing Chair and I'll have the same request."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"'Lucky we live Hawaii'. For my living in Hawaii, this statement is very true, but for a growing number of Hawaii residents, every day is a struggle to make ends meet and to keep a roof over their families' heads. Thousands of individuals and families find themselves living outside, with no protection from the rain and the sun, with no privacy and their dignity slipping away. We live in an age where we can send people to the moon and far beyond, yet there are thousands of families living in unsafe conditions right here in our own State. It is estimated that there are more than 6,000 individuals homeless on any given night here in Hawaii, and more than 14,000 experienced homelessness at some time throughout the year. More than 35,000 affordable units are needed to address the needs of those who are homeless and those who are considered to be the 'hidden homeless.'"

"Affordable housing has become a top priority for Hawaii's policy makers over the last few years, and we are making strides towards ending chronic homelessness and increasing the number of affordable housing units available. But we have much more work to do. It is imperative that we look for long term solutions to homelessness while still providing short term care and shelter for those living out on the streets and on our beaches today. Key initiatives that are being proposed include allocating a larger percentage of the dedicated conveyance tax to the development of affordable housing, appropriating funds to repair vacant public housing units, and providing incentives for developers to create new affordable housing units. These initiatives, along with the assistance of the community will help us to crawl out of our housing crisis. No longer can we say, 'Not in my backyard,' for the issue of homelessness and the need for affordable housing has affected every community throughout the Hawaiian Islands."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 186-06 and S.B. No. 819, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 819, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. And I would first of all like to thank the Committee members and individuals who helped with this measure. In particular, I would like to thank our esteemed Chair of Water, Land, Ocean for his vision and help.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill allows for civil, criminal, and administrative penalties, fines, and other charges collected under Chapter 6E of the Hawaii Revised Statutes to be deposited into the Hawaii Historic Preservation Fund. The money deposited into the fund may be used to fund permanent and temporary staff positions and cover administrative and operational costs of the historic preservation program.

"I have spoken many times on how important historic preservation is to Hawaii because I believe it is a critical issue that needs immediate attention considering the unstable condition of some of our favorite local historical sites and because of the pressure to demolish intact buildings in Hawaii.

"Hawaii's history is worth preserving. This bill clarifies how the Historic Preservation Fund will receive resources so it may offset the cost for enforcement of historic preservation laws. In addition, this measure will ensure that the Department of Land and Natural Resources may maintain sufficient staff to conduct development reviews.

"Mr. Speaker, I am very glad that this legislative body feels that historic preservation is important to our future generations. On behalf of the Heritage Caucus, thank you very much."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support and it's really nice to see that we've passed out some pieces of legislation this Session on historical preservation. Since I was elected four years ago, I've always looked for opportunities for historic preservation and I even approached the Chair of Water, Land, and Ocean Resources and had lengthy discussions about possibly even looking at historic preservation division within DLNR and look again at what is its overall mission and what we want to do with it in the future.

"So I think this is a step in the right direction. As you know, I'm Co-Chair of the Heritage Caucus and I believe this year was extremely important to bring it to the attention of our Body because we're going through so much economic development and land development with roads and all the infrastructure that we're building, that I want to make sure that we remember our history and our culture and protect some very important sites. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ching be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 819, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HISTORIC PRESERVATION SPECIAL FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

At 8:12 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 2150, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2897, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1

S.B. No. 965, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 819, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 187-06 and S.B. No. 2133, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2133, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. This measure, Mr. Speaker, creates a Hawaii Health Commission and appropriates $200,000 to continue the work of the Governor's Hawaii Healthcare

Task Force. The Governor's Task Force has not even come back with its recommendations yet. They will not be ready until June. If they come back with a recommendation stating that universal health care is not the best medical option for Hawaii, then this Commission would be pointless. I think we owe it to our taxpayers to wait at least for the results before we use their hard earned tax dollars.

"Additionally Mr. Speaker, the makeup of this Hawaii Health Commission is nothing like the Governor's Task Force. The Governor's Task Force has 13 members, this committee will only have 5. Out of the 5, Mr. Speaker, the Governor must pick 2 members submitted by you and 2 members submitted by the President of the Senate. To me this seems like a very political agenda to have 80% of the members come from those that you and the President of the Senate have selected. What this is saying to the public is that we do not want a nonpartisan review on something as controversial as universal health care. It appears that the Majority of this Legislative Body wants the result to come out a preconceived way.

"Another disturbing aspect of this bill is the provision relating to thimerosal containing vaccines. This bill is another attempt by this Legislature to disturb the doctor-patient relationship. By banning vaccines containing thimerosal, we're telling our doctors in this State that we know better than them what vaccines are safe for their patients.

"We have a doctor in the House and he may stand up in a moment, but I want to say there is no proof that thimerosal increases the chance of autism. This is according to the American Academy of Pediatrics and they say that the claim that thimerosal's ill effect on the neurological development of infants is based on studies of methyl mercury. Thimerosal does not contain methyl mercury, therefore the fear this bill states on page 4 is unwarranted.

"On page 5 and 6 of this bill, it states that the Department of Health may seek an exemption from using mercury-free vaccines if it determines there is a shortage of a mercury-free vaccine. However, it does not state in the bill who the Department of Health has to receive approval from to use the alternative vaccine. If there is an influenza outbreak and there is a shortage of mercury-free vaccines, who legally determines it is okay for the Department of Health to make exemptions? This could put our citizens at risk. I for one am not willing to take that risk, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of Senate Bill 2133. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think most of us are aware of the escalating growth and cost of healthcare over the past 30 to 40 years. And like the weather, it seems like we're unable or unwilling to do anything about it. How many of us realize that the healthcare industry is the second largest private industry in Hawaii with $2.2 billion or 7% of the State's gross domestic product and $1.44 billion or 11.5% of the private industries total wages for those employed in the industry. Current trend shows increase in healthcare costs and personnel that will be borne by the providers or government.

"Without any rational and progressive planning we can expect problems of rising premiums, deductibles and co-payments, reduced benefits, failure of employers to provide health coverage to retired employees, Medicare and Medicaid cuts and in Hawaii's case, manipulation of work schedules to avoid mandatory coverage.

"To put a face on the problem, let me read an excerpt of a testimony from small businesspeople, Steven and Barbara Tanaka, operating a business called Tanaka's Fresh Fish in Waipahu and he says, I quote,

In the year 1976, I started my commercial fishing business and in 1988, I married and together we now operate our business, Tanaka's Fresh Fish. Our business was successful until a few years ago due to high expenses. Very hard times now for us. When I first started my business, my healthcare was less than $200 a month. It is now climbed to over $1,000 per month for a family of three. That's more than $12,000 a year. That is if we don't get sick. If we get sick, add on all the high co-payments. This is more than our house mortgage, property tax, and house insurance all together.

Ten years ago, my wife, Barbara, was caught without health insurance and ended up in the hospital. This cost us over $10,000 and we're still paying for it. When we asked the State for help, their reply was, too much assets and we didn't meet their guidelines. Once again, just a couple months ago we asked QUEST for help due to our decline in income and expenses. Same answer. Too much assets and possible income. I guess you have to sell your assets, you have worked so hard for through the years, then you qualify.

It will really help our business as well as the State of Hawaii to have universal healthcare for everyone. Please consider our request for a better healthcare system that we all would benefit from.

"Seven years ago, our healthcare costs under Medicaid was ballooning out of sight with the Department of Human Services annually requesting emergency appropriations for the QUEST program to meet shortfalls in the budget. And it was your vision at that time, Mr. Speaker, as a Finance Chair, as well as that of Speaker Emeritus Souki, to direct the Department of Human Services to contain the spiraling cost of Medicaid, while maintaining the quality of care. Out of that mandate the Hawaii QUEST program was formulated with a federal 11-15 waiver.

"And Mr. Speaker, we need that same kind of bold leadership to achieve that vision of quality healthcare for all, while keeping cost in check through the most prudent use of current healthcare expenditures. House Bill 2133, if enacted would give us the opportunity to investigate and assist alternative means to provide coverage for all residents. Especially the uninsured, which now represents about 15% of our population. It would continue the good work of our healthcare task force led by the Vice Chair of Health and the House Minority Leader.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, I would like to have my remarks and this bill dedicated in honor of Ah Quon McElrath or AQ as many of us know her. She's a retired social worker of ILWU Local 142. A social activist who worked on health needs of working people and their families for 25 years, and a fearless and outspoken advocate of the poor and underprivileged.

"Senate Bill 2133 will help the State of Hawaii to move towards universal health coverage for all Hawaii's citizens and I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Moses rose to a point of information, stating:

"Thank you. Point of information. I let the previous speaker go on, but are we debating universal healthcare or we debating this Committee which is supposed to decide whether we need it or not?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"We are debating universal healthcare tied to this particular Committee."

Representative Moses continued, stating:

"Excuse me, Mr. Speaker, then I have some more to say. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Over and over again on this House Floor I talked about universal health care and the downfall of it. I did not bring all my data with me because I didn't think we were debating it tonight, but universal health care has been tried. Canada is privatizing their healthcare system because people come across the border to try to get doctors. I talked about hip replacements. A person, a human waits 4 months for a hip replacement. A dog gets it in 2 weeks in Canada.

"And over and over again, I brought up the fact that what happens when people are trying to have an obstetrician, a pediatrician, whatever it is, there are shortages of all those doctors and the people are waiting months and months and months. I don't think that's what we want to do to the people that live here in Hawaii. We don't want to make them wait for healthcare like they do in Canada, England, and all the other countries I talked about on this House Floor for months. Thank you."

Representative Arakaki rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a rebuttal. I believe the speaker is being critical of the single payer system and this measure does not specify a single payer system. Universal healthcare is evident in all the industrialized nations, and I think the United States is one of the few countries that doesn't have access to healthcare for all its citizens so there is a difference. And I know in some countries, in fact many countries it does work and I can point to Germany and Japan as examples. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly in support. I would just say that if a single payer system does come into effect in Hawaii, it would be uniquely American. I think that we could quibble at this late hour. I'm not going to take up the entire debate on universal healthcare.

"I would just say this, an investment in planning and investigating solutions needs to be done. We have an $8 billion annual industry in healthcare in the State. $8 billion a year. That's the numbers. That's how money is going in and out of healthcare. If we want to be loose with that, if we want to kind of abrogate our responsibilities, shame on us. I do think we have to have real answers, real solutions, to get healthcare for everyone.

"I don't really care at the end of the day what we call it, but the rhetoric about my dog getting his hip replaced doesn't do anyone any service. And I love my dog, but I'll tell you, we really have some real issues. We've got a 100,000 people that need healthcare. We're doing great things for kids. But play partisan games with this, boy, there's going to be heck to pay. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Senate Bill No. 2133, Conference Draft 1.

"Part I of the bill would appropriate $200,000 for the creation of a Hawaii Health Commission to continue the work of the Governor's Hawaii Healthcare Task Force of 2005. More specifically, the Commission would be responsible for determining future capacity needs of health providers, facilities, equipment, and support service providers, and developing a comprehensive health plan that would include:

- Establishment of eligibility for inclusion in a health plan;
- Establishment of all reimbursable services to be paid by the Commission;
- Establishment of all approved providers of service in a health plan;

- Evaluation of health care and cost effectiveness of all aspects of a health plan; and

- Establishment of a budget for a health plan.

"By way of background, this Legislature enacted Act 223, Session Laws of Hawaii 2005. Part I of this law established a Temporary Healthcare Task Force to develop a plan for universal health care in the State of Hawaii. Pursuant to this law, the temporary healthcare task force contracted with The Lewin Group -- a premier national healthcare and human services consulting firm with more than 35 years of experience in creating strategies for institutions, communities, governments and people to make healthcare and human services systems more effective -- to provide a detailed actuarial analysis of the feasibility of a single-payer health insurance system in Hawaii.

"In March of this year, The Lewin Group released its discussion draft of "Analysis of the Impact of an Illustrative Single-Payer System for Hawaii". In it, The Lewin Group found that the single-payer model held significant potential to reduce the cost of health care in our State. By reducing administrative costs for insurers and providers, eliminating market costs and the contract negotiating process, establishing uniform billing processes and covered services, and utilizing bulk purchasing of drugs and medical equipment, The Lewin Group estimated that a single-payer system could potentially save everyone approximately fifteen percent (15%) in healthcare costs each year.

"To put this into perspective, nearly 8 billion dollars will be spent on healthcare in Hawaii in 2006. While most of these costs are paid for by employers and consumers pursuant to the Prepaid Health Care Act, a considerable amount is also paid by the State and federal governments through the QUEST program, Medicare, Medicaid and other programs.

"Furthermore, the State also provides grants to our community hospitals for indigent care to offset the burden our growing uninsured population places on the system. As the number of uninsured grows each year, so do the grant-in-aid requests grow from our hospitals and community health centers.

"According to The Lewin Group, the 15% reduction in total healthcare costs that would result from implementing a single-payer system would equate to $678.8 million in cost savings each year with the added benefit that everyone in our State would be provided with quality healthcare.

"As evidenced by the contentious debate on universal healthcare in recent years, much still must be done to gain consensus among businesses, labor, insurers, health care providers, hospitals, and our government to make such an ambitious scheme work.

"That is why I strongly support Part I of Senate Bill No. 2133, Conference Draft 1. Part I of this bill will ensure that the work of the temporary healthcare task force will continue with specific emphasis on the logistics needed to be worked out before a single-payer system in our State can be effectively implemented. Among other things, the Healthcare Commission will determine the eligibility requirements for coverage, reimbursement rates for healthcare providers, the services that would be offered under the healthcare plan, and the cost effectiveness of procedures. With this information, the Legislature would be in a better position to enact legislation that would establish the single-payer system in our State.

"For these reasons, I respectfully urge your favorable consideration of Senate Bill No. 2133, Conference Draft 1.

"Lastly, I would like to join my colleague from Kalihi in demonstrating my sincere appreciation to Ms. Ah Quon McElrath. Her passion, and unceasing drive on this issue has truly been a blessing to the people of this State."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On Conference Committee Report 187, I will be in opposition because of the mercury vaccine, and I will submit some remarks in the Journal with your permission," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in opposition to SB 2133, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 because of the section that may prevent public health officials from dealing with a possible pandemic. I submit a communication from Dr. Jeffrey Lim on this measure.

Please vote NO on Bill SB 2133 limiting then banning Thimerosal-containing products (i.e. inactivated influenza vaccine) this fall 2006.

The State of Hawaii legislature will have no reasonable control over the availability of Thimerosal-free influenza vaccine and cannot ensure an adequate supply for the children of Hawaii at risk for this potentially life-threatening disease. Please do not rush into creating a law that will mandate its use, without offering very specific, practical alternatives in the likely event of a Thimerosal-free influenza vaccine shortage."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in very strong support of this measure. I am quite ecstatic to see that the Labor Chairs, and I commend them, that they have finally realized that the work comp system in Hawaii is inefficient, lacks clarity and uniformity. While this mandate is unfortunately unfunded, perhaps maybe next Session we can step up to the plate, and now that we have acknowledged it is broken, that maybe we can fund the system and be able to deliver prompt, efficient, clear, service to our workers. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to SB 2214 and the Conference Draft. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, there are two ways to deal with natural disasters: pay for them to after they happen or be prepared before they happen to mitigate loss of life, damage to property, and provide adequate supplies and shelters for all of our people.

"When SB 2214 passed out of the Floor of the House as an HD 3 on April 11, the vote was 49 in favor, 2 excused. An unanimous vote. The makeup of the bill was to prepare for the future and to plan to mitigate the loss of people and property.

"When we got into Conference with the Senate, we hoped to arrive at a good consensus between the House and the Senate. The House proposed CD 1 provided for the following: a civil defense preparedness special fund to be spent by the Department of Defense without any prior approval for a wide variety of purposes to prepare this State for a wide variety of natural disasters.

"It provided for a comprehensive natural disaster emergency shelter plan. It provided for a disaster preparedness plan for health care facilities and nursing homes to avoid the problems experienced by Hurricane Katrina. It provided for the establishment of a Hazard Mitigation and Planning Commission. To quote, 'develop and maintain an accurate database of maps with information.' It would have been publicly accessible information on all natural disaster zones with frequency, with expected losses and so on and so forth. We felt that this section of the bill was the most valuable so that everyone in this State, businesses, private citizens alike, would have a good idea of risk from natural disasters, where the most likely hazards are located, and how to plan for them. The database would also provide the central source of information based on scientific evidence so that building hardening, development of shelters and emergency planning would be run in a manner to minimize the destructive effects of all natural disasters, not just hurricanes.

"We agreed to the Senate proposed statewide building code and design standards and felt that they should be in concert with the expected type of natural disaster. We provided for an emergency cache of food, water, generators, medical supplies to sustain disaster victims. The Senate wants supplies for 5,000 people. 5,000 people is a small neighborhood. It's simply not enough. We felt that emergency supplies for 50,000 was a more appropriate number. The House proposed that the cache be spread out in locations all over the State. Not just here and there, so that supplies could be distributed quickly in any area where a disaster may strike.

"We agreed that hospitals should be hardened for hurricanes, but we want them to be hardened to prepare for other types of natural disasters as well. We agreed to the amount of the appropriations that are now on this bill. I didn't have a problem with that.

"Mr. Speaker, we felt that this proposed CD that we had met with the Senate, we met them more than halfway. We took out a number of proposals that the Senate objected to such as the creation of the PERP Committee. The Senate's response was to about-face and run. It appeared that the only natural disasters that they recognized as a danger were hurricanes. Perhaps they had already forgotten the flooding last month or the dam break on Kauai.

"In fact, when I asked if the Senate recognized that there were more natural disaster than just hurricanes, a Senate staffer responded to that, and I quote, 'Hurricanes cover all natural disasters.' I knew then that it made no sense for me to argue any further.

"Mr. Speaker, earlier last week I talked to the experts that the Chair of Public Safety and I had been dealing with for about three months in developing our bill. UH professors with an expertise on natural disasters, representatives from the financial, real estate, and insurance industry. They advised me that if the Senate did not recognize the importance of an overall approach to dealing with natural disasters, that I should walk away from the bill. After the Senate's response to our proposed CD, they were shocked and I walked away.

"Mr. Speaker, there are times here when we must just take a stand on principle and for me, this is one of those times. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISASTER PREPAREDNESS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Herkes voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 198-06 and S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting no on this measure. I spent a lot of my time following the Conference Committee on this measure and I don't know whether I lost something in the communications, but I read the bill and I read the Committee Report and it looks like there's no way of reimbursement should temporary disability payments be paid to an employee when it should not have been.

"If that is the case and if I'm missing something in the Committee Report, the ramifications for our work comp premiums and the impact on the cost of doing business is going to be rather crucial if this bill were to pass.

"I think it's interesting that in a couple of measures earlier we had the Labor Chairs admitting that we do have a problem with our work comp system and it lacks clarity and uniformity. I have seen employees deprived of their temporary disability payments because there is such a lapse in time between when their disability is denied before the Director can step in and mitigate the issue.

"However, we haven't addressed the core problem here which is whose bottomline is going to pay for these additional expenses? Is it the system? The system needs to be fixed. If it needs to be fixed, then there needs to be a way that we can expedite these hearings so that we can deal with this issue. I kept waiting for our Labor Chairs to give us a resolution on how do we get our credit back. How do we take care of the fact that the experience rating through no fault of the employer could be raised? I still haven't got an answer. It's not in the Committee Report and if I'm missing something, I sure would like to stand to be corrected. Until I'm corrected, unfortunately I'm going to have to vote no against this and my apologies to the employees of the State. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just brief comments in support to clarify the misrepresentation stated to this Body and also to state that I have not admitted to anything. If you read the Committee Report on page 2, Mr. Speaker, it says, 'Your Committee on Conference finds that concerns on the employee obtaining a credit for voluntary payments made in the form of TTD benefits were already addressed under section 386-52, HRS.'"

"If you turn to that section, Mr. Speaker, it talks about people who paid TTD and did not have to. That would be employers or insurers. That they can claim a credit and supply it to any future payments that go to partial permanent disability. This means that that injured worker would get less payments under partial permanent payments. So it does address that concern. Statements made to the contrary are absolutely wrong. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with just some reservations. Thank you. This bill, I believe is important for the employees to be able to continue their medical care, but I just had some concerns that it might possibly result in some abuse of the system. For perhaps from the doctors who continue to treat patients who are already cured and just continue to treat them and collect payments for it, and also from the employees who may want to stay out of work. But I think the overriding concern is for the employee's health and to make sure that their treatments do not stop."

"One positive note that I would like to note is that the Director of DLIR did say that if this bill does pass, he will do everything in his power to speed up the hearing process and make sure that a decision is made on the applicability of the employee's claims as soon as possible, so I think that may result in a good thing all around. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do have some reservations on this. I think it's correct that the workers' compensation carriers of insurance have something to worry about in certain cases. In an instance where they cannot recover their money is when the final resolution will determine that the case is not compensable so there is no TTD. There's no future benefits at that point."

"There may or may not be any other recourse for them. But this bill is also very helpful in such cases as when a worker is injured and doctors are obtained by the insurance carriers and usually they have a list of doctors that are preferred. And what's been noticed by consumer lawyers such as myself, Mr. Speaker, is that these doctors tend to have opinions that tend to always say that the claim is not compensable. This leaves the injured worker no recourse, no treatment and it is a burden on the worker and also their families."

"What tends to happen after that is that a decision has to be made by the attorney representing the injured worker. And the decision has to be made whether or not they also would like to spend $2,000 or more to obtain their own doctor's opinion. It can be purchased, opinions can be purchased from these lists of doctors out there from both sides. The opinions tend to say that it is compensable. And then the process does get longer because now you have one doctor saying, it's not compensable, and another doctor saying, it's compensable."

"So the worker is trapped between these competing doctors that are paid for. And then a decision has to be made by the Director. And if it is in favor of the claimant at this point, the worker will get his or her benefit. The delay is really indeed a very difficult one for the workers. Because I see mostly their side, maybe I tend to side with the claimants who are the injured workers at this point, and perhaps maybe I could ask for a ruling whether or not I'm in conflict because I do represent claimants, Mr. Speaker."

"My opinion on this particular measure going forward is mixed. I see things that could go wrong for both sides. But I'd like to point out for this Body that we attorneys working in this area have now become entrapped in this system where we rely on doctors who have no liability whatsoever for their opinions. Doctors who can say that this person is not suffering from injuries at work, who may provide opinions that may be biased. We are trapped in this system and actually it's not that the attorneys who will suffer. It is the workers."

"So the net result, I guess with passing this bill is that we do have a safety net. If we care for workers and say that they do have less resources than the employer and the insurance carriers, then it is a very compassionate bill. We are looking at the worker who has given up his or her right under the workers' compensation statute to sue the employer. And giving up that venue, this legislative Body has decided long ago that in return of that, the workers will be provided medical care through our workers' compensation system. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Sonson, before I move on to Representative Moses, there is no conflict."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'm reading the bill over and over again and I'm confused. It says, when the employer is of the opinion that temporary total disability benefits should be terminated because the injured employee is able to resume work ... So the determination is already made. The employee can resume work. The employer shall notify the employee and the Director in writing of an intent to terminate the benefits at least two weeks prior to the date when the last payment is to be made. So there's two weeks notice. Provided that if the injured employee has not actually resumed work, temporary total disability benefits shall continue to be paid until a decision by the Director to terminate the benefits."

"So the employee can determine when he goes back to work. It's not just my interpretation of this. From the Department of Human Resources Development, they say, 'The bill would require payment of temporary total disability benefits to continue even if an injured employee was able to resume work. Passage of this bill will be tantamount to allowing an injured employee to determine when he or she should return to work even if their own health care provider has certified that the employee is capable of doing so.'"

"So this is the employee's own healthcare provider saying you can go back to work and the employee doesn't and we still have to pay TTD? I don't understand that. I understand paying TTD for an injured employee. I'm all for that, but this looks like the employee just says, 'No, I'm not going back to work,' and you have to keep paying them. Thank you."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, this bill, an imperfect bill I believe, but good bill, addresses an important problem that there are some employees that are prematurely terminated. And for them or for anyone that's terminated, they can appeal. But the concern on my part is for those that should not have been terminated, that were prematurely terminated. They go through the appeal process, and it might take a few months before it's decided. Well under the current circumstance they are without benefits until it's decided, in which case, then it's unfortunate for those employees that go without benefits when they should have had them.

"So what this bill allows is that as soon as the person gets the two weeks notice that was mentioned earlier, they can appeal and during the appeal process they will continue benefits until it's adjudicated, if you will, until it's decided. Well I think Mr. Speaker, one of the things that will come of this is that almost all employees that are terminated will appeal. They will assure that they have benefits until it's decided and that will put pressure. That will then, I believe cause the decision making process to speed up. It will have to speed up.

"A good feature of this bill, Mr. Speaker, which was developed in Conference, is the start date. The effective date of this bill, January 1. It's not going to start this summer. It's going to start in January. That gives HR departments, Human Resources Departments time to discern what impacts this might have for the insurance companies to figure out how this is going to impact their workers' comp cost and it will impact workers' comp cost under this current law. So that's a good thing.

"Another good thing is that this starts in January right before we go into Session. And we, I think are experienced with this, it will be immediate, and we can make corrections to this before this law actually is implemented for 6 months. We will have had the opportunity to modify this.

"So bottomline, even though I don't believe this bill is perfected yet, it generally serves a very good purpose in that it serves those people that were prematurely terminated. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I don't think there's any doubt, I'm in opposition, that this bill will increase the cost of workers' comp dramatically. My good colleague from Maui says he thinks that people will automatically, everybody will appeal as soon as their medical provider says, 'You're good to go. You're fine. You can go back to work.' Let's appeal. Why not? You can continue to collect disability benefits for maybe two months, three months. Take a vacation, visit your friends on the Neighbor Island, go to the beach everyday.

"This bill is really set up for a lot of abuse. As it is now, under the law that is on the books now, Hawaii's workers stay out longer than workers in any other state. Why is that? They're already staying out longer than anybody else. Now we legalize this bill to a point where we're almost asking people, 'Appeal. Don't go back to work. You don't have to.' So we're really moving in the wrong direction. Businesses have been asking us for years to do something about the cost of workers' comp and we simply turn our backs on them and move down the road in the opposite direction. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3035, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTINUED TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFITS TO INJURED EMPLOYEES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2274, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Shimabukuro and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 201-06 and H.B. No. 2778, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2778, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. And it is really unfortunate that the Chair of Agriculture is not here because it was because of his foresight and his strength that we have this bill in front of us. And on behalf of Labor Chair and myself, we've really been educated on this issue and we saw the inequities in State and county government due to inability of language access. And at this point and time, we would just like to recognize people in the gallery who have worked so hard on this issue."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of 2778. I also want to join the Chair of Judiciary in providing accolades to my compadre from Kalihi, although he's not here, for shepherding this important measure. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of House Bill 2778, HD2, SD2, CD1.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of this bill regarding language access provides for effective and timely communication between all levels of government and individuals who are precluded from using public services due to language proficiency barriers.

"The importance of passing this bill is that it will ensure and improve access to State and county government agencies to people who may experience difficulties communicating with these agencies due to the fact that English is not their first language. The effective development and maintenance of a free and democratic society depends on the ability of our government to be able to properly communicate with all of the people of our State. We have found that a substantial number of Hawaii's population are unable to communicate efficiently or effectively with our government agencies because their primary language is not English. Therefore this population is being denied the benefits and the rights that they are entitled to.

"The Language Access Bill will provide for the effective communication of individuals between all levels of government who would otherwise be precluded from accessing these services due to a language barrier. This bill will ensure that all of the people of Hawaii will be entitled to the same rights when dealing with our government and county agencies. Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask that my fellow legislators join me in supporting this bill. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support and I request that the Chair of Agriculture's comments be allowed to be inserted in the Journal because I'm sure he would like to insert some comments."

The Chair then stated:

"He is not here presently."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. I just want to echo the Judiciary Chair, and in fact without the Representative from Kalihi, and the Chair of Agriculture, talking to the Chair of Labor, we probably would not have heard this bill because we didn't really appreciate its significance. And once we heard it, and when we heard from the stakeholders who are sitting up in the gallery and many more and the compelling stories that they told, it was so obvious that this bill had to go. And I can't see why anyone would oppose this bill. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 2778 HD2 SD2 CD1, Relating To Language Access.

"One of the things that make our island such a unique place is its diversity of people, cultures, and languages. According to the American Cancer Society, 17% of Hawaii's residents is foreign born and 27% speak a language other than English at home. This becomes problematic when these people have a limited proficiency in English. The purpose of this bill is to help the many citizens of Hawaii who are unable to access information or participate in government due to their limited knowledge of the English language.

"Imagine for a moment that you live in a foreign country where you don't know the native language. You become lost, hurt, or have some kind of emergency. Imagine even, that you are just trying to find enroll in a health plan, vote, or pay your taxes, but you can't communicate your needs with anyone. This is what life is like every day for thousands of people on our island.

"According to testimony of Attorney General Mark Bennett, this measure puts the state of Hawaii in compliance with President Bill Clinton's Presidential Executive Order 13166, dated August 11, 2000, which requires federal agencies to develop and implement a system of enabling limited English proficiency persons to meaningfully access public services. In turn, federal agencies, through specifically tailored guidance for state administration of programs relating to federal financial assistance, must ensure that recipient states provide meaningful access to population of persons with limited English proficiency. States are required to "take reasonable steps to ensure reasonable access to their programs and activities by limited English proficiency persons."

"While federal Executive Order No. 13166 affirmed that Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 required federally funded programs to provide language-accessible services, many departments and state agencies are not in compliance with Presidential Executive Order 13166.

"This bill is necessary for our diverse population to be able to participate in our society. It is their right as American citizens to have access to the same and equal services as everyone else.

"Last, if we might record a small but important measure of a man's work in this Body, let me proclaim my personal regard to Representative Jun Abinsay for his insight and leadership in this bill's passage. Representative Abinsay's good work will bear fruit not only from his work as Chair of Agriculture, but for his passion for equal rights among Americans who speak a language other than English at home.

"For these reasons, I ask my colleagues to vote in support of House Bill 2778 HD2 SD2 CD1."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. When my family immigrated from the Philippines in the 1920s, they had a lot of difficulty in learning the English language, but they worked really hard to do so because they wanted so much to become American. But it was just in the beginning phases of when they first came here like so many of the immigrants that are coming here now that they need so much more help than we've been giving them now. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support. As a former teacher of English as a Second Language, I support this measure and I would like to add additional written comments."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support.

"This measure offers an opportunity to rectify the lack of access to public services currently experienced by immigrants, assist service providers in fulfilling their occupational and legal responsibilities, and generally provide an exemplary statewide program that will insure ongoing necessary services for the resident of Hawaii.

"Current census data shows that 17% of Hawaii's residents are foreign born and 27% of Hawaii's residents speak a language other than English at home. The lack of access to translators can create unnecessary suffering and even life-threatening situations such as those involving hospital emergency care, criminal activity, or natural disasters. Language barriers remain a critical factor for limited English-speaking communities to access public health and medical services. Language access is essential to the patients' bill of rights.

"I believe providing institutional support, as outlined in H.B. 2778, will foster a climate to safeguard language access measures in management practices for government agencies and their staff. Timely and effective communication will also lead to greater knowledge and competency to navigate and properly utilize government services for persons with limited English proficiency. It is a win-win proposition for Filipinos who comprise the largest percentage of the service industry work force, and contribute more in taxes, than they use in government services."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2778, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANGUAGE ACCESS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2595, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tanaka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Family visits are an important aspect of the rehabilitation process. It is beneficial for inmates to have direct contact with their love ones. Although our Conference Committee had to eliminate the appropriations for non-contact visitation, I am very pleased with this bill. It is a step in the right direction and I hope that the Department of Public Safety and the State's correctional system will continue to improve. Finally, I'd like to thank the Public Safety Chair for his help on this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Schatz rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Tanaka be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2692, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no on this measure. I would like to ask this legislative Chamber to go back to one of the very first times I stood and held this microphone in my hand where I said these magic words: Watch out for the impact of Chapter 104 on the things that we need to do for the people of Hawaii. What we need to do for the people of Hawaii to put roofs over their heads. We need to fix our agriculture infrastructure. We need to fix our roadways, our City, our county governments. We need to work with contractors to fix their roads for access.

"This is Chapter 104. This particular measure is going to take us probably down a long road of education. Not just this Session. I tried, but it's not a matter of trying to educate us. I think it's a matter of raising the bar of understanding of what Chapter 104 does.

"I handed out different studies from California and from other states. It's been quite tragic what's happened to affordable housing and access to developers and contractors in many states because of the implication of Chapter 104 on SPRBs.

"This particular measure, because Chapter 104 is so full of contradictory language, this particular measure is attempting to see if we can't find some way to stealthily find a way to make the Department of Labor a governmental agency when in fact they're not. What this is going to do is create extreme expense for all contractors who want to step forward to do work for the people of Hawaii.

"No matter how much I say no, no, no, I know this measure is going to pass because we do not quite understand it. But I am looking forward to keep this bar of discussion at the forefront because we are not going to be able to accomplish the things that we need to do for our people as long as we allow the other side of this Chamber, the labor, to pass these types of measures that are not well thought through. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'll try not to mention Chapter 104 too much. This measure places an enormous administrative burden on the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations because the Department will be the responsible agency for ensuring compliance of the State's prevailing wage law for all, and I repeat, all public works projects that are not implemented by a governmental contracting agency.

"Mr. Speaker, if you listen to that, that means private businesses and that means private contractors. Currently, there is no agency that oversees special revenue bonds, SPRBs, in considering the nature of the project it will be only natural according to this bill for DLIR to be the contracting agency. But given its available resources and staff the Department will not be able to absorb the additional administrative tasks without additional funding and personnel, which this bill, of course, fails to provide.

"But the bill really impacts the private sector. It increases the administrative task and the administrative costs making it even more difficult and expensive to carry out these public service projects. Mr. Speaker, we keep talking during the Session about affordable housing. We keep talking about some public housing. All these projects require people with hammers and nails, to build things. Now the Department of Labor has mechanisms in place to count the prevailing wage violations per investigation. This measure will change the per project count for the Department, which also impairs the Department in the amount of work they need to have done.

"Again, why should we add enormous tasks to a Department without supporting it with appropriate resources? And each time I talk about the Department, I'm trying to assure that we're not burdening the Department down so much that they cannot administer the bill and that will bog down all the private business that is going on out there.

"Lastly, the additional oversight by a governmental agency like DLIR will discourage small contractors from bidding on governmental construction projects or using SPRBs because the increased oversight burden would place them at a distinct disadvantage due to the increased overhead cost and loss of flexibility for business. The small contractors will be at a tremendous disadvantage when compared to a large contractor bidding on a project. So we're driving the competition away. That in itself raises prices."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I want to bring some clarity to what we're talking about here, Mr. Speaker. We have an opinion that I've quoted before, dated September 8th of 2003 to former Senator Kawamoto from the Attorney General's Office answering the question of whether prevailing wages apply to SPRBs. The answer in summary is, 'Yes, no doubt about it.'

"Then in April 13 of 2005 the question was again asked by the Vice Chair of Labor, who sits to my left and again the Attorney General's Office responds, 'Yes, it applies not only SPRBs, but to any project where funds and resources are derived either directly or indirectly from public revenues of the State or any county.'

"Given that, the Director of Labor this past summer, Mr. Speaker, formed a working group, of which I participated, and there was much discussion about what do we about the fact that there are these opinions and it looks like the law applies. How do we make it work more effectively? And many suggestions were given by contractors, both union and nonunion, and by labor groups. There are a number of prevailing wage bills that came out of that meeting. Five to be exact. One has already been vetoed by the Governor.

"This is one of those bills. It tries to address the problem that we have. We have two opinions from the Attorney who is going to be writing by the way shortly about all these other bills and why they should be vetoed, and this Attorney General has said it applies. So now we're trying to make it clear and show how it does apply and that's what this bill does, Mr. Speaker.

"It's interesting to hear people mention, tonight and previous debates on this bill that somehow it's going to impact low cost housing. Mr. Speaker, I hold page after page after page of units that were built under Davis-Bacon going back to the 1950s for public housing. Low income housing built in this State under prevailing wages both Davis-Bacon when it's federal money, and Little Davis-Bacon when it's Hawaii money.

"These projects went forward, they were built, people are living in them, and they're benefiting from the work. And the people who worked on these projects were paid a prevailing wage. So perhaps they didn't have to live in this housing. So that they were paid a fair wage. So that they go on and buy a home themselves or pay the rent, feed their families. That's what we're talking about here tonight.

"So when I hear about these 'boogeymen' and somehow this is going to harm, and hurt, and what if, and in the future, these are the facts. If people want I can sit here and spend the next hour reading each of the projects. There's one on every island. That's what we're talking about. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In rebuttal. First of all, I think we need to be very clear that Chapter 104 is not about just prevailing wage and the blood, sweat, and tears of our workers. Prevailing wage is only part of Chapter 104. Chapter 104 deals with public works. What I'm talking about and I think what is missing and what has been discussed in the same interim meetings that I attended is this is public works and it's an additional administrative burden. Administrative burden. It is not about taking the blood off the sweat of our workers. It's about administrative burden. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to the measure. We have heard if an item about this decision by the Attorney General. The question is does this work have a public purpose? SPRBs do have a public purpose. I mean that's why they qualify for SPRBs. You have to. In Laie, the largest property owner out there, privately funded and built a sewer system, and they wanted to expand it. They were able to get special purpose revenue bonds because that sewer system served a public purpose. It was very vital to many, many people out in Laie.

"A few years ago we had a constitutional amendment, which expanded public purpose. We here in the Legislature determined that private schools served a public purpose. If all the kids that are in private schools and parochial schools suddenly shut down, we would have to build a lot of new schools, so we could expand that to schools.

"But besides having a public purpose to be public works, the other thing that's in the existing law is that there had to be a governmental contracting agency. Not just by itself, a public purpose, but the governmental contracting agency. Well, obviously, when Hanahauoli goes out for a SPRB, they're not a governmental contracting agency. And so I believe that that opinion should be challenged. I think that some in this Body are hanging their hats on that in a big way and I'd like to see some other lawyers weigh in on this because I think this is not an appropriate direction to move in. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2692, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORKS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 206-06 and H.B. No. 2153, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2153, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tanaka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of Conference Committee Report 206. West Maui is finally going to get urgent care service. No longer will West Maui residents be forced with the only option of driving 25 to 30 miles to Maui Memorial Medical Center and waiting long hours in the emergency room.

"As a person with a history of medical conditions, I am very thankful to everyone that helped to see this measure pass. Mahalo to Health Chair Arakaki, you Mr. Speaker, Representatives Magaoay and Nakasone. Thank you very much."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, this Body spent a lot of energy and time this year making emergency medical services an important factor and this bill does that again, giving $300,000 to West Maui. Mr. Speaker, this is a proud time where we can say that our money is being well spent to save lives. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in favor of this measure. And Mr. Speaker and Members, I want to congratulate the Representative, the author of this bill. I believe there have been many Representatives who represented the Lahaina area including myself, but he is the only one that was able to get this outpatient service. So congratulations for a job well done and for the Members who helped out, the Chairman of Health and etc. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2153, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 207-06 and H.B. No. 3116, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3116, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of House Bill 3116. Mr. Speaker, this is a great day. Actually now, it's a great night for keiki of the State of Hawaii. With this legislation, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, we will have invested in the future of Hawaii by ensuring every child growing up and living in Hawaii access to quality, affordable healthcare. And Mr. Speaker, it is all made possible through the collaborative efforts of the Legislature, the Executive, the federal government and the private sector providers and health insurance plans, in particular, Hawaii Medical Service Association.

"In 1997, Congress enacted in Title 21 of the Social Security Act and the Federal Balance Budget Act, the Children's Health Insurance Program or CHIP, which provided states with an important opportunity to expand healthcare coverage to low income children who are uninsured. And since then, Mr. Speaker, your Chair of Health and also as the Co-Chair of the Keiki Caucus, it's been a long dream and vision to provide quality healthcare for all Hawaii's children and this bill will finally bring that vision to reality.

"When assessing our population of uninsured children, we found that the greatest number of uninsured children were those who are now disqualified because they are immigrants who arrived after Welfare Reform Act of 1996 and those who are now specifically barred by Congress such as those from the Trust territories. Unlike other states, with this bill, we will cover all children regardless of the country of origin.

"And this is not a single payer bill. Healthcare services will be delivered through regular Medicaid and QUEST provider networks. An important component to the success of the Children Health

Insurances Program will be the outreach and coordination efforts working with and through existing public, as well as private sector healthcare and social service network resources on a statewide basis.

"And colleagues, I hope you'll get the word out that all children will be covered, and all children should have health insurance. I believe that two essential policies we can adopt for the children of Hawaii is to assure that every child has access to quality, affordable, early childhood education; and to assure that every child is healthy, ready to learn, and succeed in school. Quality education and good health, we all know by now go hand in hand. For our future, a strong mind and a strong body is essential to a productive workforce. When it comes to healthcare for children, we cannot put it off for the future. They are the future so we need to do it now.

"I want to thank the Majority Leader, my Vice Chair, and my Senate counterpart on this measure, Senator Suzanne Chun Oakland, for helping to shepherd this bill. And once again, and perhaps for the last time, I will close with this quote from Gabriela Mistral, a Noble Prize winning poet from Chile and she says, and I quote: 'We are guilty of many errors, and many faults, but our worst crime is abandoning the children, neglecting the fountain of life. Many of the things that we need can wait. The child cannot. Right now is the time his bones are being formed, his blood is being made and his senses are being developed. To him we cannot answer 'Tomorrow.' His name is 'Today.'"

"House Bill 3116 makes the State of Hawaii one of the first in the country to provide universal coverage for healthcare for all the children of Hawaii and I urge all my colleagues to support the bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just in strong support and I want to thank the Representative from Kalihi for fighting so hard for the children. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, but I do have a little bit of reservations that I would like to share. And I do want to thank the Chair of Health. But however, the reservation that I do have with this happens to be from a conversation that was had between Kookie Moon-Ng, who is from the section where this will take place, DHS's head of that section.

"The concern that I have is that we received a call from UPW, one of the representatives of UPW and the conversation went like this. Basically it was, I heard that there's going to be this children healthcare program. Does that mean that it's free insurance for children? And the intent was to find out if they could move the children's coverage from UPW onto this new program. And the one thing that is in this bill is a six-month provision that says they cannot be insured because it's a crowd out provision in this particular bill.

"And the reason why I mention, usually I wouldn't mention information like this because it is third party information. However, I do want to mention it because I want to discourage any type of activity like that. That this is not the intent of the bill. The intent of the bill is not to get insurance paid by the State when there are other measures to insure a child. So that is my reservations, Mr. Speaker, and I do commend the Chair of the House for this particular measure."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Very briefly, just I'd like to ask that I have my Chair of Health's words incorporated as my own. And one last thing, when you go back to your districts, colleagues, specifically this is what to tell people. If a child is uninsured, and they're not in one of the QUEST plans or don't qualify for the QUEST plans, ask for Keiki Care. It's that simple. It won't be complicated anymore. When they go to their doctors they'll be able to enter the Keiki Care Plan so they'll have those two options. If the families are slightly poor and they qualify for Medicaid, they will be entered into that plan. They'll get the insurance that way. Otherwise there will be no questions asked and they'll be able to enter the Keiki Care Plan. So it's really that straightforward. Every child will be insured. Thanks for reaching out to your people."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3116, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE PROGRAM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

At 9:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 2778, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 2595, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1865, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 208-06 and H.B. No. 3056, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3056, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in strong support of HB 3056, HD2, SD2, CD1. For decades community organizations have worked hard to preserve and restore Kawai Nui Marsh as a nature preserve, and cultural and educational resource. However, such efforts have been hindered for nearly 15 years because of ownership and management discrepancies between the State and the City. I believe this bill presents a satisfactory solution to a long-standing problem by clarifying ownership issues and maintenance responsibilities of the flood zones, as mandated by Act 314.

"HB 3056, CD1 requires the City and County of Honolulu to transfer to the State specific parcels of Kawai Nui Marsh effective July 1, 2007. It also appropriates funds for the City and County of Honolulu to maintain the levee and $40,000 to the community for ecological and cultural programs.

"The Marsh, encompassing approximately 830 acres of land in Kailua, Oahu, is one of the State's largest remaining wetland. It has been identified by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as a primary habitat for endemic and endangered native Hawaiian birds. Last year, the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands designated the Marsh a wetland of international importance. Recognizing its ecological value, the federal government has appropriated funds for bird habitat restoration under the condition that the Marsh's ownership be clarified. Any further delay in the transfer of marshlands would jeopardize these funds, as well as the Marsh's native wildlife population.

"I ask that my colleagues support this measure that ensures the preservation and restoration of Kawai Nui Marsh for future generations. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 3056. Kawai Nui means 'the big water' in Hawaiian, and at over 800 acres it is the largest wetland in the Hawaiian Islands. My prior staff member, Christina Hoe and I worked with Muriel Seto and others to nominate Kawai Nui Marsh as a Ramsar wetlands site of international significance. We succeeded in obtaining this highest international designation.

"Now, HB 3056 initiates the much needed land transfer of Kawai Nui Marsh from the City and County of Honolulu to the State. The model airplane field and levee system remain under City jurisdiction. This measure puts to rest the 15-year unresolved dilemma between the State and City on the flood control responsibility.

"Clearly expressed in the Territorial Legislature 1949 Session, Joint Resolution 3 – the City was authorized to construct the flood control levee and maintain and operate all flood control works after completion of the project. This bill continues this responsibility for the City. The State is not required to maintain any flood control program relating to the Marsh.

"With the jurisdiction issue settled, the Army Corps of Engineers can proceed with their $5 million project to dredge the thickening sediment in the Marsh. This will increase the habitat area for the indigenous wetland birds.

"The restoration project will:

Increase water capacity in the Marsh and prevent flooding in the Coconut Grove and Oneawa Canal;

Restore the native wetland bird habitat; and Continue the efforts to build an interpretive education center for children, families and future generations to have a special place to go to learn about wetlands ecosystems and ancient Hawaiian practices.

"I am proud of this measure and look forward to seeing the full restoration of Kawai Nui Marsh in the near future. Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to rise in support of this important measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3056, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAWAI NUI MARSH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 209-06 and H.B. No. 2109, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2109, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 210-06 and H.B. No. 1867, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1867, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final

Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. This bill allows uninterrupted medical care to an injured employee even if the injured employee's employer denies further treatment until the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations renders a final decision on the matter. So what happens?

"Currently, medical insurance is able to recover the cost in case a medical service is not approved. Under the bill there is no provision to recover losses if the Director renders a final decision that denies this treatment. Doctors will take on the expense, I suppose. Throughout the entire process the employee still has medical insurance provided by the employer. Now I understand why this bill is written, or at least I think I do because in the past, decisions would take up to eight months to render. But under the current Administration, decision making has been cut by more than during an average of three months.

"Mr. Speaker, I support the entire providing medical coverage to injured workers, but I'm concerned about the consequences of expenses of unpaid medical treatment if the claim is denied. Are we going to find that doctors refuse to take these employees? I'm not sure. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting no on this measure. One of the biggest problems we have in the workers' comp system right now is the lack of adequate care. Workers are being turned away from the doors of hospitals, and are being turned away from the doors of providers.

"What this measure will do is force the providers to carry the paper. And what does paper mean? That means they have to carry payment on their books. For maybe up to six to eight months until a third-party provider can be found. Right now, in the Prepaid Healthcare Act there is a rule that says if a worker is injured, the prepaid healthcare shall immediately provide coverage. But we find that physicians are not being paid under the prepaid or the healthcare provisions. What they have to do is sit back and wait and wait and wait.

"And you have to remember that physicians, hospitals, massage therapist, chiropractors, you name it, they are all businesspeople. They have payrolls to pay. They have rents to pay. They have workers' comp insurance premiums to pay. But they can't pay it, if they don't get paid. And what this bill is trying to do is to get them to carry the paper until another provider can be found.

"We are damaging the system further by denying prompt, quick healthcare to our workers. This is what keeps them from becoming well. The longer they're not attended to, the longer they will be out of work. This does not make sense. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with just some reservations. My reservations are similar to the ones I noted on Conference Committee Report 198-06. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. Just to clarify a misstatement made by the Representative from Makakilo. I'd like point everyone to page 4 of the bill, starting with line 17 and I'll read, 'The employer or the employer's insurer may recover from the claimant's personal healthcare provider or other appropriate occupation or non-occupational insurer all sums paid for medical services from that treatment plan rendered after the date designated by the director.'

"In other words there is reimbursement. It was misstatement to say there is no reimbursement. The Committee on Labor worked long and hard to find a way to make sure that there wasn't someone 'holding the bag.'

"But more importantly, Mr. Speaker, what this bill is all about is if you're an injured worker getting medical treatment and your employer or your insurer decides on their own, they're not physicians, they're not healthcare providers, disputes that you shouldn't be getting more treatment, treatment is stopped. So you're not getting better. And then you sit and wait and wait and wait and wait until the Director decides otherwise. If the Director decides you should have gotten treatment, you start to get treatment again, but your injury could be exasperated.

"That's a basic fairness issue, Mr. Speaker, that we're trying to address here. And so what we're saying is a non-healthcare provider doesn't have that right and we hope that the Director does render a decision more quickly. And if they find that the treatment should have been provided during that dispute, then they go to the third party provider which they'd be covered for by anyway, or by QUEST. So I think this is a good attempt to try to be fair to all parties. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, what I'm hearing from opponents to this measure is that we don't want to risk harm to employers and doctors. And Mr. Speaker, I would say if you're asking a question whether you want to risk harming an employer or a doctor or an injured worker, I think the answer is clear. You have to side with the injured worker.

"This bill mirrors what we have already in our welfare system. If you're cut off of welfare and you request an appeal, you have the right to continued benefits, while that appeal is pending and then of course if you lose, then it's an overpayment. And, I think that, Mr. Speaker, is the only fair way to go.

"I heard the Representative from Kapolei saying that, although decisions used to take eight months in workers' comp, they've cut that in half. So we're still taking about four months of waiting. For someone that's injured that needs critical medical care, I think to deny that person care on the question like the former speaker said, that a non-doctor felt they weren't disabled is unacceptable. And so I think this is a critical measure that we should all support. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, as just as a further statement and as a rebuttal to the Representative from Manoa, we would probably not be having discussion if we had our medical algorithms in place. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Just a clarification, Mr. Speaker, though still with reservations. No opposition, just reservations pointing out what I think are some difficult areas with the measure. The claim process now is down to three months and I hope it goes a lot lower. However, if we keep passing bills out like we talked about tonight and keep piling things on to the DLIR Department, we have a lot of problems and it's going to increase the time that it takes. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, real briefly. I'm in support. It's a matter of policy in this State that we provide, that employers provide healthcare for employees 24/7 and in prospective. So if they're hurt at work, their coverage is through workers' comp, and if they're hurt outside of work, then it's a prepaid health plan.

"It's not, in terms of our overall policy, we're not looking for gaps in service. And if there's a point, which apparently is happening now that a worker just does not have healthcare that needs resolution.

"The sooner that the DLIR can resolve any question about whether it's a workers' comp issue or a prepaid healthcare issue, the better. And frankly, I don't see how it increases the workload. They have to adjudicate as many cases and I don't see why the workload goes up. Just what's being asked for is that it be done more timely. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1867, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Harbin voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3101, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this. Thank you. I completely understand the enthusiasm and joy of the Chair of Housing when he spoke about the Housing Omnibus Bill, and the gratitude and appreciation of the Chair of Health in speaking about the Children's Health Care Fund Program. I too feel at this moment, this is the bill to celebrate. And we still have a few more pages of bills to go and I was hoping that we just take a moment to pause because this particular bill was a labor of love from both the House and the Senate side. It exemplifies the growing unity within the early learning community, the forthcoming collaboration and coherence of Executive departments regarding sustainable funding and services, and the beginning of a comprehensive, integrated system of early learning for all children in Hawaii.

"This bill recognizes the power of public-private partnerships, the significance and impact of parent education programs, existing services, sensibility of planning coherently. And more importantly, if you'll allow me the metaphor, this legislation is vaccine for high achievement in schools and success in life. The antidote for poverty, welfare, prisons, and war. All the things we've been talking about today. They are vitamins for self-sufficiency and for sustainability of our democracy. And in the words of John Lennon, 'A dream dreamed alone is only a dream. A dream we dream together is reality,' and this legislation is where idealism meets reality. Thank you."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I'd like to have the words of the Vice Chair of Education adopted as my own, and just say kudos and accolades to the Vice Chair of Education for continuing to pursue a vision of universal access to quality, early childhood education. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB3101, SD2, HD2, CD1. This measure will aid early childhood education in the State of Hawaii, by appropriating funds for an early learning taskforce that will deliver a plan for our pre-kindergarten students as well as fund kindergarten programs. It is extraordinarily important that we provide a strong educational base for our children. Providing funds for kindergarten and pre-kindergarten programs will strengthen our keiki, and assist them along their educational journey. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of S.B. 3101, which would build a comprehensive system of early childhood learning services by further developing and refining the recommendations of the temporary early childhood education taskforce. This measure would also establish and appropriate funds for an early learning educational taskforce and also build upon the existing framework and services for early childhood learning.

"S.B. 3101 outlines the steps that Hawaii needs to take in order to create a healthy and vibrant early learning system ensures that the care and education that a child receives, maximizes the child's ability to grow and learn and to ultimately thrive as a contributing member of our society."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3101, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

At 9:28 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 3056, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 2109, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

H.B. No. 1867, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 3197, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. My firm is representing the substitute teachers in a class action lawsuit, but I don't work on that," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am very supportive of SB 3197 SD2 HD1. Substitute teaching is a difficult and often thankless job. Our substitute teachers take over for our full-time teachers at a moment's notice. They have to deal with children who do not respect them, who take advantage of their lack of knowledge about the class. They should not have to deal with being shortchanged by the DOE in their paychecks. I hope that this bill resolves the issues that have arisen in the past ten years, and that our substitute teachers will continue to get the compensation we have promised them for the difficult job they do. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3197, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker being excused.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"With Reservations. I would like to insert excerpts from an email I received from Margaret J Maaka, Associate Professor, UH-Manoa College of Education; and Chair, American Educational Research

Association Indigenous Peoples of the Pacific Special Interest Group:

SB 3059 requires the Department of Education to create a commission to establish, implement, and maintain a standardized statewide curriculum for each grade level, with adequate course content in order to meet the state performance standards for the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

The absence of the Native Hawaiian language and culture from Hawai'i public schools is already glaringly obvious despite the plethora of research indicating that children best learn when they are able to relate new learning to familiar experiences. This absence prevents Native Hawaiian children from gaining the personal and cultural identity necessary for a sense of positioning in time and space. In short, this denies their legitimacy as a people. It should not be surprising, then, that so many Native Hawaiian children find little purpose and meaning in school.

Since the Bush administration and others of that ilk are so keen on "scientifically-based research", I offer up the following—we know that schooling that is designed to assimilate Indigenous children into the dominant culture through the dominant language (English) does not work. We have a two hundred year longitudinal study to attest to this!! Like all colonized Indigenous children throughout the Pacific, Native Hawaiian children have rates of school absenteeism and referral for special education services that are far above average. Native Hawaiian teenagers are more likely to drop out of high school without qualifications and have the highest incidence of suicide. Native Hawaiians are overrepresented in prisons, have the poorest health records, and are underrepresented as students and faculty in higher education. Thus, it appears that upward mobility through learning the English language and culture (at the expense of learning the Hawaiian language and culture) is a myth for the Native Hawaiian people.

"I end with a statement from the National Organizing Committee of the World Indigenous Peoples' Conference in Education (1999): 'We, the Indigenous peoples of the world, assert our inherent right to self-determination in all matters. Self-determination is about making informed choices and decisions and creating appropriate structures for the transmission of culture, knowledge and wisdom for the benefit of each of our respective cultures. Education for our communities and each individual is central to the preservation of our cultures and for the development of the skills and expertise we need in order to be a vital part of the twenty-first century.'"

"The first step, then, in the reinvention of Indigenous schooling is the development a pedagogy of hope that emerges from and affirms the cultural experiences of the Hawaiian people. Defending this at all cost is the second step."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of SB 3273 CD1, or any bill, really that seeks to resolve the problems our State has with substance abuse by our youngsters. I am hopeful that by helping the young people who get involved with these destructive habits, we will make real progress towards eradicating these destructive influences from our society. Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to vote no on Conference Committee Report 221, Relating to Employment Security. This started out as a pro-business bill and we thought we might be able to help all businesses that have workers, but unfortunately it turned into a 'monster' and the business community had to come back and say, 'We've got to kill our own bill.' And it's a very sad commentary on the situation here in the Legislature. We're passing bill after bill that will help workers, which is fine, but we need a little balance also and would like to pass out some legislation that could be called pro-business. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. As the previous speaker said, this bill provides temporary tax relief for two years to employers by lowering the maximum taxable wage base for calendar years 2007 and '08. That is part of what the businesses wanted. Of course they wanted for a lot longer than that. The temporary tax relief that allows businesses to use the savings to pay more competitive wages, expand their employee base, or invest in capital for business expenses by enabling businesses to have better resources to improve their resources and funds, we will essentially be improving our economy because there's a creation of better paying jobs and business opportunities for the State. And I am in support of that as are our businesses.

"However, another component of the bill permanently increases the amount of unemployment benefits that an unemployed worker can receive, as well as the duration of receiving them. Mr. Speaker, aren't we trying to get workers back into the workplace? That is why we are passing legislation that calls for things like vocational training and construction academies. Increasing unemployment benefits does nothing to provide incentives to return to the workplace.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, this bill also allows for the possibility for wrongdoers to collect unemployment benefits since it allows all unemployed workers to collect benefits except for those that were terminated because of willful and wanton conduct. And since we have many lawyers in this Chamber right now, they can explain to you that that is a very, very high legal standard to meet. So although this bill temporarily strengthens the business opportunities across the State, the permanent damage done by other parts of the bill represent what appears to be a deliberate poison pill for businesses and I must vote no."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I'd like us to step back just a minute to consider a real issue that we're considering here tonight. And Mr. Speaker, that is the unemployment compensation system of our country and our State. And before I became Chair of Labor, I didn't really know much about unemployment insurance. But I've learned that due to the massive unemployment problem from the Great Depression, President Roosevelt back in 1935 enacted the Social Security Act, which we all benefit from. But part of that dealt with unemployment insurance. It was first created by the Social Security Act. And it was a collaborative state-federal effort, Mr. Speaker.

"And it was at that time and it still remains the major public program for the alleviation of consequences of unemployment. It remains a federal-state partnership. Mr. Speaker, the primary objective of this program, known as the unemployment insurance system, is to supply a form of income maintenance through temporary and partial wage replacement for workers and involuntary unemployed. A noble cause that we all support. The objective is accomplished through a cash benefit program that is distinct from relief or welfare programs and is not means tested. In other words, it's payable as a matter of a right to workers who have enough qualifying wages and work experience.

"The beauty of this system, Mr. Speaker, is it is designed to automatically help stabilize the economy during periods of recession and depression by enabling workers to maintain some fraction of their previous consumption expenditures. Mr. Speaker, what is really brilliant about this system is that it also serves the interest of businesses by helping maintain the circulation of money during periods of national or local downturns because people who are laid off, continue to receive a wage. They can use that money to pay their rent, to buy food and so forth. So it helps the overall economy and we don't end up in the cyclical depression mode that we found in the 1930s.

"The other thing is it actually enables businesses in a downturn to retain a trained workforce so that when the economy turns around, they have people who are being paid unemployment that can come back to the workforce.

"So, Mr. Speaker, this really works for both employers and employees. And we're not talking here about stereotypical welfare moms, Mr. Speaker. We're talking about productive members of our society that are forced to transition between jobs and sometimes between industries. We're seeing that right now in Kunia and we're seeing that at the Naniloa Hotel on the Big Island.

"Mr. Speaker, it's interesting the 12th Legislature for the territory of Hawaii 1939, implemented the unemployment insurance compensation system for Hawaii. At that time, Mr. Speaker, the Speaker of the House was a gentleman named Roy Vitousek. There's a Roy Vitousek, who's practicing law over on the Big Island. He must be of some relation. And much like the process we're going through today, Mr. Speaker, this Body back then in 1939, struggled with business. I went and read the Committee Reports and the entries into the Journal on the debate and they really debated trying to address the interest of business while leaving undisturbed the principal purpose of the federal unemployment compensation system and they accomplished the goal.

"So Mr. Speaker, that systems been in place ever since. It's interesting to point out that in 1976, remember when we had the oil embargo and we first woke up to the problems of our oil crisis, the unemployment rate in State rose to 7 percent and our trust fund was almost depleted or it was and we had to borrow $22.5 million from the federal government to replenish it. As a result, in 1977 this Legislature enacted a flat tax of 3.5 percent on all employers to boost the solvency of the trust and by 1998 it was fully funded.

"It was significant, while I want to mention these dates is, Mr. Speaker, in 1988 the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund was so healthy that for the first time they gave a tax holiday. Something we're talking about here today. Saving businesses in that year $40 million.

"Now it happened again, Mr. Speaker, in 1991, we had the Gulf War and we all remember the Japanese 'bubble' burst, the Japanese tourists stopped coming to our State. There was an economic downturn. To help businesses this Legislature, Mr. Speaker, of which you were then a part of, provided a tax holiday again for the second time and this time it was another $40 million savings for business.

"Then in 1992, so in the second consecutive year, they even took a bolder step. They provided an additional one-year holiday that resulted in a savings of $50 million. So a total of ..."

Representative Ito rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. Resulted in a $90 million savings over a two year period, but it did something else. It enhanced benefits, Mr. Speaker. What it did is it increased the maximum weekly benefit for wages from 66 and 2/3% to 70% and it also increased the earnings disregard from $2 to $50 to create greater incentive for claimants who want to work part time.

"So they provided a tax holiday and they increased benefits. They did that also, Mr. Speaker, in 1988 with the enhanced benefits. So there's precedent for what we're talking about that we're going to be doing here today and hopefully passing.

"Most importantly, Mr. Speaker, this Body developed a schedule that we live under today. This A, B, C, D, E, F, G schedule that basically is self-adjusting depending on the rate of unemployment and the health of our economy so this Legislature doesn't have to come back every year and tweak it. And that still works to this day. And as a result, in fact right now we're currently at a C level and we'll be dropping to a B level because of the strong health of our economy and the low unemployment.

"And Mr. Speaker, for the fourth time in 2001, many of the members here were present, we had 9/11, huge economic downturn, and the Legislature came back and guess what, Mr. Speaker? They gave another tax holiday. They held a schedule to C, which resulted in a savings of approximately $40 million for businesses.

"So we've done this four times, and on two occasion in those four times we've enhanced benefits. So again there's precedent for what we're talking about. Now today we have another robust economy and this trust fund, Mr. Speaker, is funded almost to the tune of a half a billion dollars. Half a billion dollars.

"The Administration this year asked for a three year tax holiday and the House Labor Committee under the guidance of the Representative from Kahului our Vice Chair of the House Labor Committee recommended a two-year holiday and this Committee moved out the two-year holiday. How it would work is that right now every employer is taxed at $34,000 per employee. It would be reduced at $7,000. This bill has that, Mr. Speaker. And now what we're talking about through compromise we've agreed to a two year holiday.

"Mr. Speaker, that will result in a tax savings for Hawaii's employers of somewhere between a $150 and $165 million. This is not insignificant. This is an incredible tax savings for Hawaii's businesses. Greater than any other tax relief we're providing. So for someone to get up and say that business isn't benefiting, they are getting an incredible benefit. And I question whether they'll go to the Governor and say veto this bill because of some of the enhancement provisions that are in there, but we'll find out.

"There's no comparison in Hawaii's history in terms of this type of savings. And you have to remember now that benefits have been enhanced for the first time in 14 years. The last time was in 1992 and what we do here, Mr. Speaker, is we increased the maximum weekly benefits from 70% of your wages to 80%.

"Number 2, just step back for a minute in terms of the increase, Mr. Speaker. 70% of your wages, the maximum you'll get right now in weekly unemployment is $457.80. If we increase it to 80, which I hope we do, it'll go up $523.30. So there's small increase. The people who will be impacted by this increase is just that small margin. Everyone else remains unaffected. They benefit from the cap being increased. So the impact is not all that dramatic.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, what we do is we increase the benefits from 26 to 30 weeks. Right now its average is 14 weeks and we don't anticipate more than that being taken because of the strong economy. And then the earnings deduction for part-time work was increased from $50 to $150. Remember it used to be $5 and it went up to $50, and now $150. Again this Body, under the House has voted on this measure in the past to encourage people to find part-time work as a first step back into full employment."

Representative Luke rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. I'm almost finished, Mr. Speaker. The last time issue is 'willful and wanton' that we heard talked about. Yes, there is a provision for willful and wanton. It comes from a recent Supreme Court decision in which the dissenting opinion was that employees who were discharged should receive unemployment insurance unless their actions were willful and wanton. In the previous bill that came out of this Body just mentioned willful and wanton without much definition.

"This bill defines it and in my mind, somewhat narrows the application. What it describes willful and wanton to be is, it consists of actions which are willful or wanton disregard of the employer's interest, includes deliberate or intentional violations or deliberate desire for established standards of behavior which indicate a wrongful intent or evil design. Mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, poor performance, isolated incidences, or good faith errors in judgment, Mr. Speaker, that all of us make from time to time, or discretion shall not constitute or willful or wanton conduct. So it gives direction.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, people will ask what are the costs of these enhanced benefits. The Director of Labor and Industrial Relations answered that question and said it's going to be approximately $15 to $18 million in the years 2007 and 2008, in exchange for a $150 to $165 million in tax savings. So business needs to work that out and see if they think that's an acceptable provision for them.

"Mr. Speaker, just to reemphasize. You can ask how much is enough in terms of enhanced benefits. But if you look at the policy behind unemployment insurance that I've mentioned, it's really to alleviate the consequences of unemployment for Hawaii's workers. To help them pay their rent, feed their families, and take care of their children's health needs. It is also a way to stabilize our economy during economic downturns by enabling unemployed workers to receive some fraction of their previous consumption expenditures and invest it back into our economy. So Mr. Speaker, I hope that the members of this Body will look at this, see where the balance is. We struggled long and hard on this to try and find some balance. I think we achieved that and that hopefully the members of this Body will support this legislation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to speak in favor of this measure and express reservations. Mr. Speaker, a decidedly good part of this measure is returning taxes essentially returning an overtax to the employers. They've been overcharged. It's good that we give that back. This isn't a tax break, it's a tax rebate, but in any case it's good to give the money back. That's a good feature of this bill.

"In my view of mixed value is this increase in benefit. While admittedly, Mr. Speaker, the increased benefits are good for those few workers that do collect unemployment. The minority of workers that do collect unemployment, it's good for them and I certainly don't begrudge them that. But Mr. Speaker, the problem with the unemployment benefits increase is that it has a tendency to suppress the stated wage of all workers. The majority of whom will never collect unemployment insurance. And the way that works Mr. Speaker, is that employers in the long run are looking at what is the total compensation to employees. They're tracking total compensation as the bottomline. They're not tracking the cost of any particular insurance.

"So say, for example the employer knows that he can afford $30 an hour for a particular class of employees. From that $30 the employer starts backing down saying, well, I have to pay so much for unemployment insurance, so much to social security match, so much for health insurance, so much for workers' comp, etc. There's a long laundry list of those. And by the time he backs all those out the employer may be down to $16 or $17 an hour and calls that the stated wage. The employer knows he's going to be paying $30 an hour. The employee's worth $30 an hour, but the stated wage is say in this instance $16 an hour.

"Well, if you raise any one of those benefit costs then that has a tendency to suppress the stated wage. So really who's picking up the $15 million and $18 million? In the short run you can say, 'Oh, the employers paying for it,' but in the long run all the employees are paying for it because they would get that in a higher stated wage had the amount of benefits paid out to unemployment were last. So this unemployment insurance policy really is in the long run paid by employees for those few employee that will actually collect and that I believe is a serious reservation regarding giving too much unemployment insurance.

"I do agree with unemployment insurance. The question is striking a balance. And it's a myth for us to promote that somehow we are benefiting all workers because we increased unemployment insurance. We are actually suppressing stated wages for all employees when we do that."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. It's just that these benefits, we're increasing them by 18% in one full swoop and this is permanent. When these things go up, on some very rare occasions that they will come down because it's like taking benefits from workers. It's just not going to happen. And the benefit that this bill will give to businesses is just temporary. It's two years. It's not like they're not paying any unemployment insurance, but they're paying on a lesser base on the first $7,000 of each employee's wage.

"Hawaii has probably the highest wage base. Right now it's $34,000. It's formulated on a average wage so as the economy grows that amount goes up. But at least 50% of the State's base for unemployment payments is on the first $7,000. So what we're giving is a straight benefit, is what the rest so many of the others states pay. The employers in those states pay.

"The figure from the Director of Department of Labor estimating these 18% higher benefits, he said that, total benefits payout for 2006 with these higher benefits would increase from a projected $84 million to $99 million. So that would be $15 million in one year more. And then if you look at the experience from 1995, if the rate on unemployment insurance was 3%, that would go up from $230 million to $271 million. So that's an additional $41 million. So for businesses, they can see that working out that way, out in the future with these increase benefits, they're going to be paying anywhere from $40 to $60 million more than they are now. So thank you very much for this benefit now, when we're really going to get socked down the road.

"So this is not a good bill. This is a compromise, but it's one of these horrible compromises where you get something in one hand and you get a knife in your back in the other, and it's just impossible to support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to move that we recommit this measure back to Labor. If not, Economic Development."

At 9:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:54 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Representative Harbin moved that the report of the Committee and S.B. No. 2260, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative Meyer.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry. (Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker were excused.)

Representative Meyer then called for a division of the House.

The Chair then stated:

"At this point, I believe the Chair's ruling is that we have the votes as far as having the bill not be recommitted, but denied on the Floor. So the motion has failed. We're back to the main motion."

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"I thought a division of the House was just an automatic if someone asked for it."

Speaker Say: "No."

Representative Meyer: "There's no way of knowing on the voice vote there."

Speaker Say: "Well the Chair has ruled. If you want to appeal the Chair's ruling you may."

At 9:56 o'clock p.m., Representative Luke requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:56 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then stated:

"The Chair stands corrected at this point. There has been a request by the Minority Floor Leader that there be a division of the House."

The motion that the report of the Committee and S.B. No. 2190, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," be recommitted to the Committee on Conference was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands failed to carry. (Representatives Abinsay and Stonebraker were excused.)

(Main Motion)

Representative Ching rose, stating:

"I thought we were still on the main motion. I wanted to submit written comments."

The Chair then stated:

"Okay, the Chair will allow you but the Chair has already decided that we had enough of this discussion on this particular matter. It's been an hour and ten minutes on this particular matter, and I think you should have been aware that if you have written comments or you are opposed or in support, please stand up as quickly as possible. So Representative Ching you can submit written comments in support of this particular Conference Draft."

Representative Ching continued in opposition, stating:

"I was just trying to be polite. In opposition. Thank you. And I'd like to incorporate the words of the speaker from Maui and additional comments of my own."

Speaker Say: "The speaker from Maui was in support with reservations."

Representative Ching: "I would like to incorporate his words about the wage increase."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition.

"I support the original intent of S.B. 2190, which would have provided temporary tax relief to employers by lowering the maximum taxable wage base for calendar year 2006 and 2007. It would have afforded the wherewithal for businesses to pursue growth opportunities that would serve to sustain the current level of prosperity, including additional tax revenues to the State's coffers.

"However, I have grave concerns with this measure that would considerably increase the maximum potential benefit and the maximum weekly benefit of unemployment compensation. Hawaii's unemployment rate, currently the lowest in the nation, has had the net effect of driving wages to an all-time high. Increasing the percentage of the weekly benefit and the maximum potential benefit of these high wages undermines the initial intent of this measure.

"Of particular concern is the treble increase in the threshold for deducting wages earned while collecting benefits, which purportedly will encourage employees to seek more permanent employment benefits and maximum pay for part time work has little or no motivation to seek a permanent full time job."

Representative Stevens rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens' written remarks are as follows:

"Senate Bill 2190 began as an Administration measure designed to give a three year tax holiday to employers due a large surplus in the Unemployment Insurance fund. Unfortunately the bill was changed significantly to a generous unemployment benefit package for citizens out of work. A small amount of tax relief was attached. While the two years of tax holiday will assist employers, the permanent benefits for employees will cost a lot and tip the scale in workers' favor. It is my hope that with the current low rate of unemployment, and average of 14 weeks of collection, very few workers will need to stretch their benefit time to the full 30 weeks."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Senate Bill No. 2190, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 1, Relating To Employment Security.

"Mr. Speaker – In Director Befitel's written testimony on Senate Bill 2190 Senate Draft 1 House Draft 1 before the House Finance Committee on March 29, 2006, he testified in opposition to the proposed $150 off-set of UI benefits from the current $50 off-set – In particular, he argues that it would encourage eligible unemployed workers to intentionally remain on UI and not seek employment opportunities and full-time employment. Nothing could be further from the truth. So, let me walk you through his testimony and explain why I disagree with his opinion.

"In Director Befitel's example -- Joe works part time and earns $300 per week while he collects $450 a week in UI benefits. This means that Joe has been working for several months and may have had more than one job.

"If we assume the Director's example to be true and that Joe is entitled to $450 of UI benefits per week that means Joe was earning about $3,150 a month or $788 per week. Joe working makes $788 per week.

"So, knowing all the facts regarding the amount Joe earns while working full-time, working part-time, and what he could receive each week on unemployment lets examine the Director's argument. First under present law with a $50 off-set. Next, with the proposed $150 off-set.

"First under present law, Joe is subject to a $50 off-set. $50 is deducted from his part time wages of $300 with the balance subtracted from his $450 UI check. ($300-$50 = $250) The result is ($450-$250 = $200) a $200 UI benefit per week. Since he also makes $300 part time, his total weekly income is $500. In other words, Joe working part-time -- with a $50 off-set -- and $200 UI benefit will make $288 less a week or $1152 less a month.

"Now we need to look at what Joe would make if he receives UI benefits with the proposed $150 off-set. Joe earns $300 a week working part-time and is entitled to $450 a week in UI benefits. With the proposed $150 off-set, all the money earned over $150 is subtracted from his UI benefit. In this case -- Joe will have $150 subtracted from his UI benefit ($300-$150=$150).

"After subtracting $150 from his $450 UI benefit -- Joe's total UI benefit is $300 per week. But, since Joe also earns $300 a week from his part time job, his total weekly income is $600. In other words, Joe working part-time with a $150 off-set and a $300 UI benefit will make $188 less a week or $752 less a month.

"Now let's compare. Joe works full-time to earn $788 a week -- or he works part-time and receives UI benefits ($450-$150 = $300) for a total income of $600 a week. Even if he keeps $100 more ($300 verses $200 per week) of his UI benefit under the new proposal will not make more than he would earn working full-time. Director Befitel believes that the new $150 off-set would discourage beneficiaries from finding full-time employment because they will keep more of their UI check. Now does that make sense? I think not. First, Mr. Speaker -- $188 dollars a week more is a substantial amount to consider. It comes out to $752 more a month. I cannot believe that Joe would stay on UI benefits for the entire duration of his claim knowing that he could make almost $800 more -- per month -- working full-time. If Joe were to continue on UI benefits and forego a full-time position for the proposed duration of 30 weeks -- he would have missed $5640 in earnings. This is a clear incentive to find full-time work.

"For these reasons, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2190, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 28 ayes to 21 noes, with Representatives Berg, Carroll, Ching, Chong, Evans, Finnegan, Harbin, Ito, Karamatsu, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Nakasone, B. Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. And I want to commend the Education Committee for coming out with this excellent bill.

"I am especially am very pleased by the section that allows additional Charter Schools to be formed if a Charter School meets an accreditation, and then another Charter School can come forward. That's something that's been urged for many Sessions now by my constituents and many others. They want to see more Charter Schools.

"I am also very pleased by the section that talks about permitting funding for facilities. That's another thing that's been really, really needed by the Charter Schools. So I urge my colleagues to support this very important legislation."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Earlier this year the Legislative Reference Bureau issued a report entitled: On-Call Crisis in Trauma Care: Government Responses, which included the finding that trauma centers across the nation have for many years been facing a crisis securing physician specialist for an emergency call.

"However, the on-call crisis faces not only trauma centers, but also hospital emergency departments. What are the causes of this crisis? According to the study, number 1, the cost of care has increased, while payments to physicians from health plans, Medicare, Medicaid, have dramatically decreased. Number 2, many physician specialists have reduced or eliminated emergency calls in favor of a more predictable lifestyle. Number 3, there's a national shortage of physician specialists in many areas critical for trauma coverage. And 4, malpractice liability insurance premiums are rising.

"In January the American College of Emergency Physicians issued a report card on the state of emergency medicine. ACEP classified Hawaii's support for its emergency medical care system as quote, 'insufficient,' citing below average access to emergency care. Hawaii ranked 34th overall and in the most heavily weighted category, access to emergency care, our State earned a C+ grade due to a shortage of emergency departments, trauma centers, and registered nurses.

"The ACEP report and the LRB study supports the critical need to develop a statewide trauma care system. Mr. Speaker, I'm proud that this Legislature and the Health Committee in particular have responded to this crisis with three measures. Number 1 is this bill, HB 3142 that creates a special fund to support the continuing development and operation of a comprehensive State trauma system. This would include a subsidy of the cost of uncompensated and under compensated trauma care incurred by hospitals providing trauma care, and costs incurred by services provided by on-call physicians for trauma care.

"Number 2, Senate Bill 2961 provides a consistent source of funding for the trauma special fund. And finally, number 3, HCR 88, SD 1, requests the Director of Health to develop a trauma system plan for Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, as a state isolated in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, comprised of separate island entities, it is imperative that we develop a trauma system that provides accessibility to the finest trauma professionals available to all citizens to the greatest extent possible. And with these measure, we recognize a critical need and provide the appropriate response to those needs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just like to disclose a potential conflict. My wife sits on the Board of Queen's Health Systems and I think they're a beneficiary of this bill," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3142, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRAUMA CARE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Berg, Nakasone, Stonebraker and Wakai being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 227-06 and H.B. No. 2558, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2558, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, I'm looking at the bill and there's a change here that occurred after it left the House and maybe our Members aren't aware of it. But this has to do with putting people or offering people vocational rehab that have been disabled. And I have no problem with that except that it looks to me like every single person that is temporarily disabled in this State will use this measure to go into vocation rehab. I mean, they could go to school until they get a PhD, I don't know. But it says, 'even if you suffered permanent disability as a result of work injuries or who have otherwise been deemed unable to return to their regular jobs after the injury may have been stabilized,' and we all understand that language, 'where the employer has made no offer of permanent suitable work that would restore the earnings capacity as near as possible to a level that the employee was earning at the time of injury.'

"In other words if the employer does not offer a permanent job and it doesn't say how permanent that is. I mean until they're a hundred or I don't know. But if you don't offer them a permanent job that restores their earning capacity, then off they go to vocational rehab. We didn't have the word permanent in this bill when it passed through here and I think that that is a very dangerous word. Thank you."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no on this measure. Vocational rehab is a tool to attempt to take an employee that has been injured that cannot return to their normal employment and to give them the opportunity to rehabilitate themselves for another career. This is one of the provisions of the work comp system, which has become quite abused in the past three or four years. There have been some real horror stories on the abuse of vocational rehab for those that are unable to return to their regular employment.

"Where this bill runs us into a problem is back in the 90s, we attempted to enable the business community to have coordinated care where we would offer light duty so that we can get employees back to work. The problem is that most businesses that are 'mom and pop' businesses or businesses that are less than a hundred, we have a real problem trying to determine how they can accommodate light duty for a returning employee. What this will do is this would allow further abuse of a system that is supposed to be rehabilitating an employee. I could get into a whole trail of horror stories, but I believe that this is going to again so totally impact our work comp system that once again we're going to be in dire straights when it comes to providing coverage. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Very briefly, Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor with reservations. And I also focus on the word, 'permanent' and I'm assuming that this permanent suitable work, did not refer to a lifetime job. If I'm wrong, I would like to be corrected. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. The bill proposes to eliminate management's discretionary ability to direct its workforce by making such fundamental concepts as a determination of work methods and operations, the establishment of qualifications and standards for work, and establishing a nature of content examinations, all negotiable items.

"If these subjects are up for negotiations, who will be responsible for the outcome and where will the accountability fall? Ultimately these are all management's responsibilities. It is critical that management has sufficient latitude to respond to the multitude of demands of the employer from employees and the public. This measure would strip management's ability to conduct its business.

"In a decision by the Hawaii Supreme Court in the United Public Workers v. Mufi Hannemann, the court reaffirmed that parties are permitted and encouraged to negotiate all matters that affect wages, hours, and conditions of employment as long as the negotiation do not infringe upon the employers managements rights under Section 89-9d in the HRS.

"Management rights have been in existence since public sector collective bargaining was first implemented over 30 years ago. The existing law allows public employers and employees to resolve their differences through meaningful dialogue, discussions on matters through a variety of forums, including collective bargaining, so there is no need for this drastic change. This change will unreasonably favor employees and will be to the detriment of the general public. Of those ideas we should have, Mr. Speaker, is it fair to allow the employer to conduct business without putting them out of business? We don't have any employees if we don't have business or government at least employing them. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm also in opposition. And very simply, I feel that this bill is a total erosion of management rights. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Let's begin by saying what this bill is not. This bill is not a repeal or a lessening of management rights as set forth in HRS 89-9(d).

"Mr. Speaker, what this bill is trying to accomplish and what we struggled with over the last two legislative Sessions is dealing with a decision that was cited earlier this evening or talked about UPW v. Hannemann. And the conclusion of the holding of the case as we discussed last year, we don't have a problem with. It basically says that the transfer of employees by UPW or the challenge to transfer of employees by UPW was not determined to be right.

"But what is bothersome and what has created real problems is the dicta right before the holding on this case. And dicta is something that lawyers cite to show the intent of the court. It may not have been the ruling in that particular case, but it's an indication of how the court would rule if they were presented with this question and it is cited by lawyers. And it states, 'In other words the right to negotiate wages, hours, and conditions in employment is subject to, not balanced against, management's rights.' That indication tips the balance. Up until this point, there was a balance between management's rights and the rights of labor to negotiate on some permissive issues, and with that dicta, it tipped it in favor of management. And what we're attempting to do and what we attempted to do last year, and what we attempted to do throughout this Session, is tip it back to a balanced position. And I think we accomplished that, Mr. Speaker.

"This bill is different than last year's bill. And what it tries to do is as this, Mr. Speaker. First, it clarifies that management's rights and the rights to engage in collective bargaining are equal to each other, and that management's rights do not preclude negotiations over mandatory subjects of bargaining, and it states that in the legislation that's drafted.

"Second, it clarifies that management's rights may not be used to preclude negotiations over mandatory subjects of bargaining. We wanted to make clear that there are certain provisions or rights that management has. And it preserves the rights of the public employer to manage its own operations. Therefore your Committee on Conference, Mr. Speaker, wants to make it really clear and it puts it in the Committee Report, that this bill is not intended to infringe upon or dilute management's rights in any way.

"And then finally Mr. Speaker, and probably most importantly, something that we've heard raised last year and again this year is this: we're going to make it absolutely certain that this does not pertain to negotiating individual transfers of employees-whether they be lifeguards from the North Shore to the South Shore in a summer swell, or a police from one substation to another. And so we put in the Committee Report that it only applies during the collective period when negotiations, Memorandum of Agreement, Memorandum of Understanding or Supplemental Agreement. Only in those periods, which is fair, Mr. Speaker, do they have a right to try to negotiate with the employer on issues regarding transfers during the collective bargaining period or other periods where they're discussing basic conditions of transfer. Once that's settled and you transfer, you live with those conditions, Mr. Speaker.

"So as much as people try to argue that this somehow will infringe on the right of management to transfer workers, this legislation does not do this. It doesn't do it on the face of the language. But some people argue that maybe it's not clear enough and as we know, if you think there's some ambiguity in the legislation, you look at the Committee Report, statements on the Floor for legislative intent, and the legislative intent is clear, Mr. Speaker on all three of these points. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 266, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR," passed Final Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 233-06 and H.B. No. 2179, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2179, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 234-06 and H.B. No. 2176, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2176, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. And I request that my comments on Senate Bill 2958 be reflected in this bill and also to add my written comments. And to make certain that in the Committee Report, that they intend to use the $10 million for repairs was intended for the State and federal public housing."

Representative Kahikina's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. No. 2958, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 entitled: 'A Bill For An Act Relating To Housing,'

"The purpose of the measure is to implement policy and procedures and many of the recommendations of the Joint Legislative Housing and Homeless Task Force established pursuant to Act 196, Session Laws of Hawaii 2005. Specifically, this measure:

Addresses the non-fiscal appropriations or policy and procedures of the Housing Omnibus Bill, HB No. 2176, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1.

It adds two new members to the Hawaii Public Housing Authority Board of Directors;

Deletes the requirement that there be intent to demolish public housing units before they may be decommissioned;

Authorizes State-owned parcels may be leased for the development of self-help housing;

Makes a requirement that public lands identified as suitable for affordable residential development be transferred by the Department of Land and Natural Resources to the Hawaii Housing and Finance Development Administration; and Stresses the intent that the Housing and Community Development Corporation of Hawaii, or its successor agency, provide by rule that minor children may reside in State housing for elders where a grandparent is the primary caregiver, with a five percent set-aside of units for that purpose.

"It is my recommendation that S.B. No. 2958, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, pass Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a point of clarification that while item 6 on the Committee Report of the Omnibus Bill H.B. 2176, H.D. 2, S.D.2, C.D. 1 states that we are appropriating $10,000,000 to "repair and modernize vacant units in federal and State public housing projects;" Section 4 of the bill needs clarification for purposes of legislative intent. Section 4 currently reads:

"SECTION 4. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $10,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2006-2007 to repair and modernize existing federal and state buildings for transitional shelters and emergency shelters, as defined under section 201G-451, Hawaii Revised Statutes."

"I would like to note for the purposes of legislative intent, a point of clarification that Section 4 of H.B. 2176, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 should be interpreted as follows:

"SECTION 4. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $10,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2006-2007 to repair and modernization of vacant units in federal and state public housing projects or building for transitional shelters and emergency shelters, as defined under section 201G-451, Hawaii Revised Statutes. The sum appropriated shall be expended by the Hawaii public housing administration for the purposes of this section."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Strong support, and strong reservations as to Sections 9, 10, and 11, which appropriates, Section 9, $300,000. Appropriates $65,500 and appropriates in Section 10, $68,920 to Victory Ohana.

"Mr. Speaker, let me explain why I'm strongly am opposed to these particular sections of this Majority Package Bill. Victory Ohana, Mr. Speaker, is a structured living facility that deals with parolees and probationers. They are operating in a Weed and Seed area in Waipahu. They have two facilities. One, a 180-bed facility, the other one, over 30-bed facility. The way they get around the City Ordinance that only five people who are unrelated can live in a residential or in a home in a residential area is that they count the apartment units as individual residences. So in Waipahu you now have an institution in the middle of a Weed and Seed area.

"This came to the attention of the Neighborhood Board way back in 2002 when Jim Dooley did an investigative report on the activities of Fresh Start, which is operating a facility in a 135-bed facility in Koolau, and Victory Ohana, operating a facility in Iwilei.

"In 2003, there's a follow-up story regarding Victory Ohana in Waipahu. In Waipahu the neighborhood tried to take action to try to clarify their purpose in the area and the Weed and Seed area. And they tried to remove that program from the area because it is a Weed and Seed area. If it's the Weed and Seed Program, Mr. Speaker, it's suppose to take out criminal elements out of the area and then put in things that are good for the community like social services, etc.

"The big issue that we dealt with in '03, more specifically against this facility is that they were housing parolees that were sexual predators. And it is an area of low-income housing, right next to State housing. And there are children running around in that area. The community got involved in this. We also found that they were actually in violations of City Ordinances. I noticed a violation was entered against them, and I have it right here, in 2003. The violation is of Chapter 21. It says that the Victory Ohana is using apartment buildings at the sites, the two different addresses, to operate a special treatment facility. This special treatment facility is considered a group living facility and requires a conditional use permit from the Department of Planning and Permitting.

"This violation ended up with an order, a notice of order dated November 5, 2003, for both properties, in which the facility was fined $500 on December 8, 2003, and $100 for everyday that they will be assessed if they don't make the corrections, in other words, to stop their activities as a treatment facility.

"Now what worries me, Mr. Speaker, is that in Section 9 of this bill, they are operating to assist mentally ill individual and substance abusers who are homeless. As you know, we passed a bill that requires facilities, such as this, to be licensed last year. And it was the intention that, this facility was supposed to comply with this particular law that was passed so they can operate as a special treatment facility.

"Well according to VOHA today they confirmed that they have not even applied for this. And according to the City and County of Honolulu on May 2, '06, today ..."

Representative Ito rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. Today, these facilities have accumulated $80,000 in fines that are not paid and now are liens on the property, both facilities. And they continue to accumulate $100 a day as an assessment in fine.

"Now this facility is obviously breaking the law. First they skirted the City Ordinance that only allows for five people who are unrelated to live in a residential unit by the loophole that if it's an apartment complex we can put as many as possible as long as we don't have five in one room or in one apartment unit. And two, they are not complying with this Order. They're not paying for it. According to the Corporation Counsel, they're just sticking their head in the sand and wishing that it will go away. I'm afraid that this money, this $300,000 is going to assist them to pay these fines in that they will continue to break the law.

"Moreover, we have priorities in this bill that will assist the true homeless. This section in Section 10, this $68,920 is for a computer. In Section 11 the $65,500 is for a solar energy system for this shelter. To me, Mr. Speaker, we have high priorities that are listed in this particular measure. I hope that the dispensing agency, which is the Department of Public Safety will ensure that they at least, I don't know, prove their worth. I don't know what to do at this point, Mr. Speaker. All I'm certain to know is that I really object to this money going to this facility for the reasons that I stated. And I hope that there's somewhere in the process there's a way that the State can hold them accountable before this money is dispensed to them. Because in effect, this money can very go to perpetuate the breaking of the law. To me, Mr. Speaker, that is not a worthy cause. No matter if we say that we want to provide a cure for homelessness at every section of our community. Thank you very much."

At 10:29 o'clock p.m., Representative Kahikina requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:29 o'clock p.m.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservation. My reservation is on page 3, that is the insertion of Victory Ohana Prison Fellowship with an appropriation of half a million dollars that was added in Conference Committee.

"Conference Committees, Mr. Speaker, the function of which is that I know of is to iron out the differences between the House and the Senate versions of the bill. Dropping in a questionable recipient at the eleventh hour wherein both Houses can no longer weigh in on the discussion is what I call deceptive. Although this matter is acceptable, Mr. Speaker, I consider it as an abuse of the Chair's prerogative. This is a Majority Package Bill, Mr. Speaker, and I'm one of the signatories of the original bill. Now I am voting with reservations. I would like to vote no, but that would affect the other worthwhile recipients of this bill.

"I just feel that Victory Ohana Prison Fellowship does not belong to the same groupings of emergency shelters that are indicated in this bill. It is alleged that this organization goes to the extent of accepting mainland ex-convicts to be transferred to Hawaii to become recipients of public assistance. How can this organization rise as an emergency shelter when they open their doors to mainland transfers? We are a benevolent State, Mr. Speaker, however, we are an island nation with very limited resources. We need our tax dollars for our own people.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, ex-convicts are not the type of people that we welcome to come to Hawaii. Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, Victory Ohana Prison Fellowship is a halfway house. Dropping it in a bill on the eleventh hour did not allow the Committee on Public Safety to consider its merit. Mr. Speaker, for the sake of transparency and accountability, measures such as this should not be allowed to be entered on the eleventh hour of a Conference Committee. Thank you."

Representative Nishimoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I do want to add that this bill, and also Senate Bill 2958 is the results of your joint House-Senate Taskforce. And I do want to commend the Chairman of Housing for his hard work and his leadership, not only this summer, but this Session. We made some real progress and I do want to commend his leadership. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I don't think there was any evidence that there was any kind of abuse of discretion by the Chair of Housing. And I want to adopt the words of both the Chair and Vice Chair of the Housing Committee as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. There was a recess called and a document was handed to me, dated May 2, 2006, which confirms that there is now a cease and desist order coming from Department of Health dated April 18, 2006, which proves that there are therapeutic services and programs onsite that the Department of Health has found that are not licensed and have been ongoing since 2003 as indicated by the violation from City and County. This letter merely confirms that they are in violation and it is a way for them to correct it.

"The City and County says, stop having counseling and other services in onsite. Stop having drug treatment programs and drug testing and have those not onsite, but offsite. Meetings. There should be no other office used on this site other than an office for the resident manager, building manger, which will be permitted on a multifamily dwelling. And lastly, as I mentioned, all therapeutic services onsite as specified in the Department of Health are ordered to cease and desist. They must stop.

"This is information of the violations, Mr. Speaker, and they are continuing. They must comply with it. It does not say that they have complied and that they are no longer required to get a conditional use permit as required by City and County of Honolulu. And again, Mr. Speaker as I stated earlier, as of today they owe a lien, $80,000 per facility."

Representative Kahikina rose to respond, stating:

"I'm compelled to stand, Mr. Speaker. This letter from the City and County of Honolulu... Thank you. This letter that I have given to a copy to Leadership and to the Representative from Waipahu merely indicates that Victory Ohana was given permission to continue to operate as a multifamily dwelling for the purpose under the Land Use Ordinance.

"However, the bullet points that the Representative cites further expresses the conditions that are not allowed under this multifamily dwelling which is the items that he had mentioned. That no therapeutic services are to be performed on this site. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kanoho rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak in strong support of this measure. And in particular on behalf of Victory Ohana, I must admit that I don't know very much about the specifics of their operation, but I've always admired Pastor Gary Shields who heads that organization. And I just admire his dedication and his intent to serve the people who almost have no hope. And unless there are people like him and this program to address the needs of those who are just out of prison, they would just go back to where they came from and recommit crimes. These are the kinds of programs that really need our help. So whatever problems may exist, if they do indeed, we should come to their assistance and provide whatever help they may require so that we can help our brothers and sisters who really need our help. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, in strong support. I wasn't going to speak, but as I'm sitting here and I heard some of the comments from my colleagues, it breaks my heart. Because whether you're from the Mainland or you live in Hawaii, the bottom line is when you come out of prison and if you have never walked in those shoes and you come out of prison and not have a place to stay you are considered homeless.

"I have not only family, but friends similarly situated. In my district we have a residential program where a faith based organization doesn't accept money, but goes out and a family takes care of prisoners who actually need a place to stay. And they take them in as their own and through their program they help them to transition, as well as MEO. They help provide a great program for reintegration, and a transitional program for incarcerated people. So it's real when they come out and they have no home to live in because what happens is they do go on the streets. And it's because of the compassion that people have to help these people, that is why I strongly support this, the Chair and all of his efforts in providing programs. It may not be perfect, but they are serving a purpose in their community. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. One last request. May I insert the letter dated May 2nd from City and County of Honolulu into the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Dear Mr. Shields

Re: Victory Ohana Facilities
4-104 Pupule Place - Tax Map Key 9-4-39: 15 to 18
94-951 Kahumoku Place - Tax Map Key 9-4-17: 33

This responds to your letter of April 20, 2006, requesting confirmation that a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) will not be required for the two (2) "facilities" at the above sites. Both sites are in the A-2 Medium Density Apartment District.

You indicate that the men's facility has thirty-nine (39) dwelling units and the women's facility has seven (7) units; and there will be no more than four (4) occupants in the two (2) bedroom units and two (2) occupants in the studio units. None of the dwelling units will be used as a meeting facility. One (1) unit in each apartment complex will be occupied by a resident manager.

Generally, the proposed use meets the definition of a multi-family dwelling for purposes of the Land Use Ordinance (LUO). However, please note that each unit may be occupied by no more than five (5) unrelated persons. Further, the following conditions would apply to the facilities for them to be considered multi-family dwellings:

- There are no programs, counseling or other special services provided to residents on the site, including the peer counseling activity you discussed with our staff on May 2; and
- All the above services, including drug treatment programs and drug testing, occur off-site; and
- There are no other office uses on the above sites, other than an office for the resident manager or building manager, which may be permitted as an accessory use to the multi-family dwelling (apartment building); and

Mr. Gary Shields

- All therapeutic services and programs on-site as specified in the "Order to Cease and Desist Unlicensed Operation as Special Treatment Facility" issued by the State of Hawaii Department of Health, dated April 18, 2006, must be discontinued.

If any of the above activities commence or continue to be in place, then the facilities on the above sites would be considered "group living facilities" under the LUO and require a CUP, Major.

Please contact Elizabeth Chinn of our staff at 527-5754 if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2641, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this measure defines public works projects to include construction contracts between private persons if more than 50% of the assignable square feet of the project is leased or signed for use by the State, county, or State-county agencies, whether or not the property is privately owned.

"Further, it refers to a new term, 'indirect public works', and it's very broad. This could be interpreted to include unintended results such as residential home remodeling or individual homeowners receiving governmental benefit such as a real estate tax exemption. It expands the scope of construction projects subject to Chapter 104, without the DLIR's power to enforce. It encourages contractors or project owners to avoid public acknowledgement prior to the completion of building a structure on private land where only a portion of the building will be leased to the State in order to avoid being subject to the administrative burden of Chapter 104.

"Further, it expands the scope of Chapter 104 to require prevailing wages be paid on projects that are not traditionally recognized as public works projects. And it will substantially increase costs which will be passed by the developer or owner to all lessees, not just the State or county occupants of the building thereby hindering economic development and expansion to the detriment of our residents. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments. I can't let one thing stand. In support. And that's somehow that this is going to apply to our individual residences. I guess it would if one of us here was going to rent 50% or more of our home to the government. But I don't see that happening. I think that's a 'boogeyman' that's being raised just to scare people. It is a valid concern. It was raised last year from the Representative from Kailua and we addressed that concern by requiring that it's 50% or more, so that's off the table, Mr. Speaker, and shouldn't even be considered.

"Again Mr. Speaker, what we're talking about here are large public works projects where the government dictates the construction of the building and takes back 50% or more of the space to use. And the idea that indirect public works are a new concept, again, I point to that Attorney General opinion letter that I cited to previously that talks specifically about that in the law. And this is our Attorney General. He is going to be advising the Governor on vetoing bills. He's advised us in Conference on what was legal and what wasn't. And I think if he is going to be relied upon on one side, he must be relied upon on the other side. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I must agree with many of the arguments put forth by the Representative from Makakilo in opposition. I too am in opposition to this measure. In addition, I could foresee, let's say there are two buildings going up. One the owner-developer knows that they will be renting to the government or the county. Let's say the county. And the other one may just want to rent it out to commercial. Well one will have to undergo rigorous governmental controls. The other one will be privately built, still of course with a lot of controls, but the price will be different and the tenants will be maybe different initially. But maybe the second structure will be leased to government later because a government lessee comes by and leases it. So it's hard to foresee the future."

"I have another point that I was also going to bring up, but it seems to escape me now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe I'm voting no. I know it's late and I'm confused, but I don't understand. If we have the infamous opinion from the Attorney General, why are we passing laws? If it's a law why do we need to have more laws? That tells me that somebody doesn't really believe the law is law. With that being said, again I have to use, coin my new phrase, which is unionization through legislation."

"I really feel bad for the outer islands. The outer islands rely on public private relationships to build roads. I believe that the Big Island delegation, when you go back to your contractors, be very wary of what they're going to say if you vote yes on this measure. The impact on the relationship between private contractors and the county on the Big Island on building roads, accessible roads, be prepared, be prepared for a backlash. We do not need a law if we have an AG's opinion that says it's law. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise again in opposition. The Chairman of the Labor Committee mentioned that this law is meant for large public works, and not having the bill in front of me, I don't know what a large public work is. Is it by dollar amount? Is it by square footage? If someone builds a parking lot to rent to government building, is that considered a large public work? I have no idea what it is, and I don't remember. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2641, H.D. 1 and H.B. No. 2641, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Harbin, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2713, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2713, H.D. 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 3 (Takumi, Takamine and Ching). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2713, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to vote yes on this, but I'd like to enter some comments. I'm in support of this because I feel this is a private school that is in dire need. Not in dire need, but I feel they're deserving of a special revenue bond. That being said I certainly hope someone tells this private school that they now have to comply with Chapter 104 public works requirements. And if they don't, they're going to be subject to fines and who knows what else. This is the type of measure that we are trying to do good to help the children of Hawaii, but what we giveth, we taketh away."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2713, H.D. 1 and H.B. No. 2713, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR KAWAIAHAO SCHOOL," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2964, H.D. 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 3 (Kahikina, Nishimoto and Pine). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2964, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting yes with comments. This would be a wonderful bill for affordable housing considering it's a funding mechanism for nonprofits. However, Chapter 201G-133, only allows these nonprofits to be exempt from Chapter 104 up to a half a million dollars. If we're going to enable nonprofits to enter into the marketplace and to do something that we desperately need in the State of Hawaii, it would make sense that this particular Body would give them an exemption up to at least a $100 million so that they can do the deeds that we're asking them to do with this funding. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2964, H.D. 1 and H.B. No. 2964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 2987, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2987, H.D. 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 3 (Takumi, Takamine and Finnegan). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 2987, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support and I certainly hope that someone here can carry the message to St. Louis that they now have to comply with Chapter 104. They are now a public works under the measures that are passing out of this Chamber. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2987, H.D. 1 and H.B. No. 2987, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR SAINT LOUIS SCHOOL," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 3100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 3100, H.D. 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

DISPOSITION OF MATTERS PLACED ON THE CLERK'S DESK

Representative M. Oshiro moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to the following House Concurrent Resolutions, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker were excused.)

H.C.R. 145, HD 1 (SD 1)
H.C.R. 164 (SD 1)

FINAL ADOPTION

The following House Concurrent Resolutions were taken from the Clerk's desk and the following action taken:

H.C.R. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 145, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This House Concurrent Resolution 145 is urging the President of the United States and the United States Congress to legalize illegal immigrants and requesting the federal and state departments of Health to provide medical services to this population in medical emergencies. That's our House Draft.

"The Senate Draft is a little bit different. Requesting the State and the Federal Government to adequately reimburse healthcare providers so that they can continue to provide emergency medical treatment to the population. Just a point of inquiry, I guess. I believe what we're going to vote on now is the Senate Draft?"

The Chair then stated:

"Yes, that is before us. Senate Draft 1."

Representative Meyer: "Well then, I just want to register strong reservations on this measure."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, I'd like to also stand in support but with reservations. Mr. Speaker, when this Resolution first came before us, I voted no because it was a blanket request to make all illegal immigrants legal. I come from a family of various immigrants and so I really respect the process of becoming an American. And so I do support the new version that really encourages us to change the process that makes it so difficult. I do support this measure, but with the reservation that the contents still I find are disagreeable to the respect that I would place on the United States. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just some reservations. Thank you and just some comments. Many illegal immigrants are turned away at health centers. Health centers always give everyone who comes through the door, health care."

Representative Stevens rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support H.C.R. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1. As an immigrant myself, I stand in strong support of this Resolution that calls for comprehensive and humane immigration reform. I am the initiator of the HD1 and asked our leadership to insert the immigration reform language into this vehicle and set it for hearing. I am grateful for your support in passing this important measure.

"I call upon our federal policymakers to reexamine our immigration laws and enact legislative and administrative reforms which uphold the basic dignity and human rights of immigrants and preserves the unity of the immigrant family.

"Immigrants from lands across the globe have helped build our great nation and newcomers have contributed to our nation by strengthening our cultural and social fabric and adding their energies and ideas to our economy.

"Their presence has enriched our local communities, rural areas, and cities, and their faith in God has enlightened our increasingly secularized culture and we celebrate and embrace newcomers and acknowledge the rich contributions they make to our nation.

"Hawaii has historically held a strong interest in immigration and how public policy impacts immigrants seeking a new life in the United States and believe that the current configuration of our immigration laws combined with immigration policies pursued by our government in the last several years have had the negative effects of undermining the human dignity of immigrants and dividing immigrant families.

"I call upon our federal policymakers to revise our nation's immigration laws and policies in a manner which includes the following elements:

1. Legalization for the maximum number of persons in an undocumented or irregular legal status, particularly those who have lived here for several years and built equities in and otherwise contributed to their communities.
2. Enforcement policies, most particularly along the United States-Mexico border, which respect the human dignity and human rights of all immigrants, regardless of their legal status.
3. Revision of the 1996 immigration laws, which undermine the procedural due process rights of immigrants in our country, limit protections for asylum seekers, and are retroactive in nature.
4. Revision of the 1996 welfare law, which severely restricts the eligibility of legal immigrants for public benefits.
5. Repeal of mandatory detention of immigrants and development of alternatives to detention, especially for women and children, as well as the release of immigrants who have completed their sentences, but are indefinitely detained because their country of origin will not accept their return.
6. Enforcement of and respect for the civil and workplace rights of immigrant workers, especially those in industries which rely heavily on foreign workers i.e., agriculture, meat and poultry processing, service.

"We need a more efficient legal immigration system which will reduce waiting times and is equitable, generous, and based upon family reunification.

"Our U.S. foreign and economic policies should address the conflict, poverty, and denial of human rights which pressure persons to come to this country.

"While I recognize the right and acknowledge the responsibility of the U.S. government to secure our national borders and do not condone or encourage undocumented migration into the United States, I nevertheless affirm the dignity of undocumented persons who live in our midst and make every effort to ensure that their human rights are respected and protected.

"Until such time as the global community effectively addresses the root causes of undocumented migration, individual nations must confront the presence of undocumented persons in a manner which upholds their basic dignity and human rights.

"It's high time to reevaluate our nation's immigration laws and policies. The American people must consider how to embrace the contributions of immigrants and, in the process, better our communities and nation.

"Our elected leaders must build an immigration system which acknowledges the increasing interdependence of our world and accounts for the migration streams which characterize the new globalization.

"I stand ready to work with our federal officials to fashion a new immigration model which prepares our nation for the 21st Century while also upholding and respecting the human rights and dignity of immigrants and their families.

"I do so as a citizen devoted to providing the full range of pastoral, legal, and social services to newcomers to our land. We offer, in particular, the experience of our nationwide refugee resettlement and legal immigration networks as a source of information on the needs and aspirations of newcomers in our country and on the reforms that are necessary in our nation's laws and policies.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit to this Body a quote from two articles that I wrote and were published. The following article was published in the April 1, 2006 edition of the Fil-Am Courier Newspaper.

"Immigration Reform: Legalization, Not Criminalization

By: Rep. Rida Cabanilla

"Never forget that everything Hitler did in Germany was legal."
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The U.S. House of Representatives passed bill, HR 4437, which declares a large portion of U.S. residents who are unable to document themselves, as felonious criminals thus subjecting them to prison for many years. Over the years, Immigrants built America, the land of the free and home of the brave. This attack on immigrants, fueled by public hysteria and racism, is an attack on the rights of all Americans.

History has shown that attacks against immigrants and minorities are unconstitutional as they arbitrarily deprive a group of U.S. residents their basic constitutional rights. In our darkest hours as a civilized nation, immigrants and minorities in the U.S. have faced fear and hostility, especially during times of economic hardship, political turmoil, and war. In 1882, one of our nation's first, the Chinese Exclusion Act, was passed by Congress to bar Asians. In the 1920's during the "Red Scare," thousands of foreign-born people suspected of political radicalism were arrested, beaten and deported without a hearing.

In 1942, 120,000 Americans of Japanese descent were interned in concentration camps until the end of World War II. Public security was used as a pretext to wipe out all Japanese businesses and to confiscate all their property and to place innocent American citizens in concentration camps similar to the Jews in Nazi Germany; all done legally by executive order by Roosevelt and Hitler. This type of attack on immigrants is an attack on all Americans and must be stopped.

As we are a free society, we must speak out and stand up against this discriminatory treatment of immigrants and minorities. Any immigration reform should include more paths to legalized permanent residency, family reunification, and workplace and civil rights protection!

During recent natural disasters like Katrina, many houses were flooded and thousands were left homeless and lost everything they owned including all forms of identification and documents that could prove who they are. Under this law, FEMA and all State and local and non-profit and religious groups would not be permitted to assist these law abiding residents in anyway but instead turn them in to be sent to prisons as felons.

This is offensive to all religious groups and especially to the Catholic Church, which has set up thousands of charities to assist refugees and immigrants. Christians themselves were once arbitrarily declared as "illegal residents" of Rome and were persecuted and fed to the lions. Good Samaritans should not be prosecuted for their humanitarian work to save lives and efforts to protect the basic human rights of all those on U.S. territory.

Our country was built on the backs of immigrants. Immigrants perform services other Americans would not do. They work hard and pay taxes. Legal immigrants are subject to the military draft and serve in our armed forces to protect our country. Many immigrants have lived in this country for generations, married U.S. citizens, and raised their U.S.-citizen children in this country.

Laws that punish them violate their fundamental right to fair and equal treatment. It is true that the Constitution does not give foreigners the right to enter the U.S. But once here, the Constitution protects them from discrimination based on race and national origin and from arbitrary treatment by the government.

The Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) and the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus (CAPAC) urged the senate judiciary chair to craft a more balanced comprehensive reform of our immigration laws and expressed their unified opposition to H.R. 4437, the Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal Immigration Control Act of 2005 urging that the most vicious provisions of that legislation not be included.

Congress should not criminalize undocumented immigrants, their family members or the samaritans and humanitarians who help the undocumented meet their material, educational or spiritual needs. Can we afford to remain apathetic and silent while our friends and families are persecuted and sent to prison? The use of stereotyping and racial profiling will result in the persecution and prosecution of immigrants of color.

Instead of criminalizing immigrants, we Americans ought to recognize the contributions immigrants have made to this country and afford them the opportunity to live in America without fear and oppression provided they have not committed terrorism or sabotage in the U.S. Please join the several thousand in Atlanta, 20,000 in Phoenix, 30,000 in Milwaukee, 100,000 in Chicago, over 1 million in Los Angeles, and stand up for immigrant rights."

"WILL IMMIGRATION REFORM HELP THOUSANDS OF FILIPINOS WAITING TO COME INTO THE UNITED STATES LEGALLY?"

By: Rep. Rida Cabanilla

Imagine waiting in line all night at the main entrance of the Filipino Community Center auditorium to see an American Idol show. Suddenly, thousands of fans come in through a side entrance to rush forward and fill up all the seats. Then the center management comes out to give you the bad news. You have been patiently waiting in line all night to get inside, but you can't get in because the fans who came in from a side entrance took all the seats.

This is the situation of many legal immigrants from the Philippines who have been waiting as long as 20 years to come to the United States the legal way. There are fears that the proposed immigration reform will push them farther back in the line to give way to more than 11 million undocumented immigrants who are already in the United States. Such is the plight and fear of hundred of thousands of Filipino Americans.

Legal Immigration takes forever.

Like many other Asian Americans, Filipinos are relatively newcomers to the United States. Majority of the Filipinos immigrating to the U.S. does so through the family-sponsored immigration petitions. In 2004, 73% of immigrants from the Philippines came to the U.S. through family immigration. Like other Asians, the Filipino American community is hurting from the discriminatory immigration system. Filipinos suffer from some of the worst immigration backlogs in the world. A U.S. citizen parent petitioning for an unmarried adult son or daughter from the Philippines must wait approximately 15 years. A U.S. citizen petitioning for a brother or sister from the Philippines must wait approximately 24 years.

Undocumented Immigration increases.

Consequently, more and more undocumented immigrants continue to enter the US through irregular channels as legal immigration takes time and is difficult.

Unless you have a qualifying U.S. citizen or permanent resident family member who can petition for you, or have highly specialized skills and a masters or doctorate degree, it is virtually impossible to legally immigrate to the U.S.

The estimates of the number of undocumented Filipino immigrants depends on who you ask and when. In 2000, the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service estimated that approximately 85,000 undocumented immigrants from the Philippines were living in the U.S. In December 2003, the Philippines Department of Foreign Affairs estimated that there were 185,000 undocumented Filipinos living in the eastern part of the U.S. alone. It is estimated that that number increased to about 300,000 to 400,000 currently.

According to the 2000 Census, approximately 68%, or 1.4 million of the 1.9 million Filipinos living in the U.S., had immigrated to the U.S. Percentages of native-born and foreign-born U.S. citizens and noncitizens in the Filipino American community are as follows: · 32.3% are native-born U.S. citizens; · 41.6% are foreign-born but naturalized U.S. citizens; and · 26.1% are foreign-born and not U.S. citizens.

Voting against criminalization, Hawaii's Congressman Neil Abercrombie said, "Any immigration bill must be informed by the spirit of fairness and respect for the millions of individuals it affects. A punitive approach animated by fear and prejudice will do nothing to resolve these complex issues, nor does it accord with American values. Immigrants have made, and continue to make, tremendous contributions to our country. I appreciate and honor those contributions."

Under the current immigration laws, no matter how long such immigrants live and work in the U.S. or how much they contribute to our economy and community, they are not afforded the opportunity to become a recognized resident of our country. The feds must allow hard working, law abiding, undocumented workers and residents to come out of the shadows and live [sic] their lives as free men and women. However, no comprehensive immigration reform would be fair and just without eliminating the backlogs of legal immigrants who have been waiting for family reunification for decades.

Without that provision, the immigration laws would be totally discriminatory against Filipinos and other Asians who do not share a contiguous border with the U.S. It would mean that other undocumented neighbors can enter the side door and then be allowed in ahead of those who have obeyed the law and have been patiently waiting for 20 years to get in.

Please urge your U.S. senator and congressman to support a truly comprehensive immigration reform that will: 1) Reduce the tremendous backlogs for family immigration petitions and facilitate timely reunification of families; · 2) Provide legal status and a path to permanent residence for undocumented immigrants who will work hard, pay taxes, undergo criminal and national security checks, and learn English and civics; · and 3) Promote the rule of law by treating fairly and justly legal immigrants waiting in line for family reunification fairly and preserve their priority rights over undocumented immigrants.

United we must stand. Together we can make a difference for so many legal immigrants patiently waiting to join their families in the U.S."

"April 10, 2006 was a national day for demonstrating support for humanitarian and humane policy for undocumented workers and residents. People from all walks of life are taking to the street across the nation to fight from [sic] comprehensive and humane immigration reform that will provide avenues to lawful permanent residency. Undocumented immigrants have made great contributions to our country and deserve to come out of the shadows and hold their heads high as free men and women in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

"I also want to express our uniform opposition to H.R. 4437, the Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal Immigration Control Act of 2005, and ask you urge our federal government to work to prevent the most vicious provisions of that legislation from being included in any Federal or State bill; and

"Specifically, I urge that federal and state immigration legislation or executive orders, department and agencies ruling do not include punitive provision that will:

1. Criminalize undocumented immigrants, their family members or the people who, because of their humanitarian roles in society, help the undocumented meet their material, educational or spiritual needs.
2. Impose the federal responsibility and unfounded mandate of the enforcement of immigration laws on our already overworked and undefended state and local police.
3. Require a wall or fence to be built around the perimeter of the United States, at the expense of all other laws and spending and policy priorities.
4. Further limit judicial review of immigration cases, thereby restricting immigrants' and Asylum seekers access to the courts.
5. Allow the indefinite detention of foreign-born people whose home countries will not take them back.
6. Revoke the constitutional right of citizenship from those born in the United States, or otherwise limit immigrants' access to citizenship by arbitrarily making the naturalization process more difficult.

"Such far-reaching and harsh provisions will do nothing to protect our borders or enhance national security, and would otherwise destroy any chance or hope of implementing a comprehensive policy.

"Rather, I urge our federal officials to support comprehensive immigration reform including the following vital elements:

1. A border security and interior enforcement policy that targets criminals, drug and human smugglers, potential terrorists and others who mean our nation harm. Such a policy cannot stand-alone--it must be part of a larger package that addresses the immigration system as a whole.
2. Collaboration with foreign governments, particularly those that share a border with the United States, to secure our shared borders and deter illegal entry into the United States.
3. A tamper-proof worker verification system that instantly checks whether a worker is eligible to work. Such checks should be phased in manageably and gradually, to minimize errors and protect civil liberties. Those who circumvent the new system should face stiffer penalties and fines.

4. A program to compel the estimated 11 million undocumented workers currently living in the United States to come forward and participate legally in our workforce. Most are here for a better life: they pay taxes and they do jobs no one else will do. Immigrants in the program must clear thorough background checks and pay appropriate fines and taxes before becoming eligible to work.

5. To be truly effective, the program must provide a way for workers to eventually earn legal permanent residence and citizenship. Implementing a program that only provides a work permit and ties the worker's legal status to the employer will relegate these individuals to permanent second-class status and place them in a precarious position should they need to find a new job or exert their workplace rights.

6. The reduction and eventual elimination of the backlog of people waiting, sometimes for decades, to be legally reunited with close family members. In addition, provisions of immigration law that address inadmissibility issues with regard to undocumented status, such as the three- and ten-year bars to reentry, must be waived to ensure that the reforms to the family immigration system are meaningful and effective.

7. A safe and legal means for future workers to come to the United States to fill jobs Americans will not do. To replace the illegal flow with a legal flow, visas must be made available to meet the current demand for legal immigration by employers and workers. To prevent worker exploitation, workers should have the same workplace rights as their U.S. counterparts, not be tied to any one employer, and have the option of becoming legal permanent residents and, eventually, citizens.

8. To urge the federal and state governments to pass the DREAM Act and enabling legislation to allow undocumented high school students who lived in the U.S. for three years and graduated from an IN-state high school to attend State colleges and university paying IN-state residents tuition (Dream Act). See Hawaii version introduced in 2002 by Rep. Romy Mindo, HB 1051.

"Minority children, their families and the nation would likely suffer tremendously if Congress decides that political expediency is more important than a realistic and effective comprehensive immigration policy.

"At the threshold of a new millennium, our nation must revisit its historic roots and reexamine attitudes, laws, and policies toward newcomers who come to our land in search of a better life. I call upon all our federal leaders and all citizens of good will to heed our call and challenge.

"Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this important measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 145, HD 1, and H.C.R. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "URGING THE UNITED STATES PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS TO CREATE A PATHWAY FOR UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS TO LEGALIZE THEIR STATUS AND REQUESTING THE STATE AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO ADEQUATELY REIMBURSE HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS SO THAT THEY CAN CONTINUE TO PROVIDE EMERGENCY MEDICAL TREATMENT TO THIS POPULATION," was Adopted, with Representatives Abinsay, Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
May 2, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 173

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 173, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the National Guard."

This bill would require that persons appointed in the future to be the Adjutant General possess at least five years of service as an active commissioned officer in the Hawaii National Guard.

This bill is objectionable because it severely restricts a Governor from selecting and appointing the best military leader from all branches of the military services to serve in this significant position. The importance of the position of Adjutant General is critical to the safety and protection of the public. Limiting the ability of the Governor to select the best and brightest for this cabinet level position is short-sighted and gravely misguided.

The best candidate for Adjutant General may very well be a candidate who is not a member of the National Guard. This is especially true as the United States Department of Defense moves to increase cooperation between branches of the military and require close coordination in response to national defense and natural disasters. This bill would reject the logic that any candidate outside of the Guard could do an outstanding job as commanding general of the Hawaii National Guard.

The Adjutant General not only serves as the executive head of the Department of Defense and commanding general of the Hawaii National Guard, but also fulfills two other crucial roles not directly related to experience in the National Guard.

First, the Adjutant General serves as Director of State Civil Defense, with responsibilities covering homeland security, emergency preparedness, crisis management, and disaster cleanup. The Adjutant General is required to coordinate not only those activities involving the National Guard, but all civil defense or emergency management activities with private, county, state, and federal agencies and military branches. Second, the Adjutant General works with the Office of Veterans Services to assist and support our veterans of all of the armed services in the State of Hawaii. A requirement that the Adjutant General have served no less than five years in the Hawaii National Guard is not a clear and convincing criteria for being able to handle a broad scope of duties the Adjutant General role requires.

The qualifications and appointment as codified in Section 121-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, have stood the test of time and should not be changed. Other than limiting the appointing power of the Governor, this bill serves no legitimate purpose in protecting the people of Hawaii. The State of Hawaii must not limit itself when it comes to ensuring the security and safety of our people, supporting our veterans, and working collaboratively with all branches of the military.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 173 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/Linda Lingle

Gov. Msg. No. 332, transmitting H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, SD 2, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
May 2, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2454

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2454, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Legislative Vacancies."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Governor, in filling vacancies in the State Legislature and the United States Senate, to select a replacement from a list of three prospective appointees nominated by the political party of the prior incumbent.

The goal of the present law is to fill vacancies in the State Legislature and the United States Senate in a timely manner when such vacancies occur. These vacancies in elective office are appropriately filled by the Governor, who is elected by the public at large, and as such is accountable to them. The process for filling vacancies in the United States Senate and the Hawaii State Legislature has been in place since 1970 and has not been shown to have compromised the integrity of the election process.

This bill places the ability for determining who may be appointed by the Governor with the political party leadership of the vacating office holder. This is in spite of the fact that these individuals are not elected by the public and, as such, are not accountable to them.

Additionally, the bill, without any stated rationale, narrows the field of qualified candidates that the political party can consider to those who have been registered members of that party for at least six months prior to the appointment. Such a provision fails to recognize that this may unreasonably restrict the pool of potential candidates as the majority of people who personally and philosophically associate themselves with a political party and vote along party lines may not meet this requirement.

The Governor's ability and responsibility to select the most qualified person to fill a vacancy should not be so narrowly restricted.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2454 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Gov. Msg. No. 336, transmitting H.B. No. 1155, HD 1, SD 2, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
May 2, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1155

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1155, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Naturopathy."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Board of Examiners in Naturopathy to adopt a formulary and qualifications for administering natural medicines by injection and to grant to qualified naturopaths the authority to administer natural medicines by injection.

This bill is objectionable because it does not provide adequate protection for the health and safety of the public. While the practice of naturopathic medicine has a long history and the administration of "natural medicines" by injection is part of that history, this bill does not sufficiently define "natural medicine." Although naturopaths would not have access to substances controlled under chapter 329 (Uniform Controlled Substances Act), Hawaii Revised Statutes, or prescription drugs under the purview of chapter 328 (Food, Drugs, and Cosmetics), Hawaii Revised Statutes, there are many substances on the market that are not controlled by law or regulated by the United States Food and Drug Administration and that are touted as "natural." The injection of some of these substances may cause serious harm or death to recipients of such injections.

Additionally, this bill provides that a temporary advisory committee on the administration of natural medicines by injection be formed to recommend to the Board of Examiners in Naturopathy a formulary of natural medicines that naturopaths may administer by injection and the qualifications necessary for administering natural medicines by injection. This committee would be composed of two persons licensed as naturopathic physicians under chapter 455 (Naturopathy), Hawaii Revised Statutes, and appointed by the Board of Examiners in Naturopathy; one person licensed in medicine under chapter 453 (Medicine and Surgery), Hawaii Revised Statutes, and appointed by the Board of Medical Examiners; and one person licensed as a pharmacist under chapter 461 (Pharmacists and Pharmacy), Hawaii Revised Statutes, and appointed by the Board of Pharmacy. The temporary committee's recommendations would be acted upon by the Board of Examiners in Naturopathy, composed of three naturopathic physicians and two public members. Thus, the determination of what constitutes a "natural medicine," as well as the qualifications necessary to inject those substances into patients, would be primarily the decision of naturopaths themselves.

It would be preferable that any formulary of injectable "natural medicines" and the qualifications to administer by injection be overseen by medical doctors, as is the case with nurses.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1155 without my approval.

Respectfully,

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 337) was received and announced by the Clerk:

Gov. Msg. No. 337, informing the House that on May 3, 2006, the following bill became law without her signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution:

H.B. No. 1233, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL RIGHTS." (ACT 076)

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

May 3, 2006

The Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say, Speaker
and Members of the House of Representatives
Twenty-Third State Legislature
State Capitol, Room 431
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 1233 HD1 SD1

On May 2, 2006, House Bill 1233, entitled "Relating to Civil Rights" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The bill would prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation in public accommodations. The measure would also prohibit discrimination in public accommodations based on gender identity or expression.

"Sexual orientation" has been defined to mean having a preference for heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality, having a history of any one or more of these preferences, or being identified with any one or more of these preferences. Hawaii law currently prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation in the areas of housing (HRS 515-3) and employment (HRS 378-2).

Further, it should be noted that HRS Chapter 368 contains the following language in the purpose and intent: "The legislature finds and declares that the practice of discrimination because of race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, or disability in employment, housing, public accommodations, or access to services receiving State financial assistance is against public policy." (underlines added) Thus, it would appear that the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission already has a basis in law to enforce prohibitions against discrimination in public accommodations based on sexual orientation and this portion of HB 1233 restates what is already a protected class.

This bill further defines "gender identity or expression" to include a person's actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance or gender-related expression, regardless of whether that gender identity, gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance, or gender-related expression is different from that traditionally associated with the person's sex at birth.

This part of the bill is problematic. The definitions are broad, subjective, and contain no limiting terms or interpretational guidelines. The Hawaii Civil Rights Commission currently interprets "sex discrimination" to include the abuses related to the treatment of individuals who have a gender identity or expression that it [sic] different from their birth sex. This interpretation of prohibited sex discrimination is in line with recent court cases in our federal judiciary and sister states. However, the definition in this bill is broader than the current interpretation of sex discrimination. Undefined and overly broad language can lead to disputes and create the potential for escalating reasonable actions by the owners and operators of public accommodations into legal proceedings. Such broad and subjective definitions should not be allowed to become a proxy for socially unacceptable behavior in public places.

It is also unclear how the definitions of gender identity or expression found in section 2 of this bill impact section 489-4 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. Section 489-4 allows a public accommodation to provide separate facilities for male and female patrons for the protection of personal rights of privacy. People have a legitimate right to privacy and it appears the broad language of this measure could interfere with these legitimate rights. This lack of clarity may result in unintended and unwanted confusions and litigation in public accommodations law that should be addressed promptly by the Legislature.

Because this bill restates an existing protection for the class "sexual orientation" and clarifies those protections extend to public accommodations in Section 489-2 and Section 489-3 of HRS, there is merit in these provisions of the measure.

For the foregoing reasons I allowed House Bill 1233 HD1 SD1 to become law as Act 76 effective May 2, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/Linda Lingle

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 239-06 and H.B. No. 2043, HD 2, SD 3, CD 1:

On motion by Representative M. Oshiro, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee and H.B. No. 2043, HD 2, SD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAID," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Representatives Nakasone and Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 238-06 and S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would hope we would recommit this measure also. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I hope everybody on the Floor takes a good close look at the measure before us, which was not what we basically negotiated in Conference. It had to be done hardly at the last moment so it got a little vague, but it also didn't do all the things we thought it would.

"Right now, there's no appropriation into the special fund that is established. It's the Innovations Special Fund. So if you note, there's no appropriation into it. It will feed the fund with about $25 million, maybe $30 million a year out of general fund revenues. It doesn't say when, so is it each month? Is it at the end of the year? Is it at then end of the fiscal year? When is it? I don't know. They probably don't know.

"It does not say how the fund will be used. It gives some general guidelines as to what it might be used for, but it does not say how at all. There are no mechanisms in the bill at all for expenditures out of the fund, so even if you know how it was supposed to be used, there's no way to take any money out of the special fund. It just sits there and grows. And it doesn't take effect until next year, which means we could always fix it next year.

"What does it do? Well conveniently it tucks away a lot of money that can't be used for other things such as tax relief. And I believe it's just a feel good, do nothing, phantom bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill will establish the Innovation Special Fund to support life sciences, advanced technology, and renewable energy. Half of 1% of general fund revenues will be deposited into this special fund in each fiscal year from 2006 to 2010. In the near future, this fund will provide grants and capital for investment for these companies and these industries. It shows that the State of Hawaii is committed to diversifying our economy and we, I think, will go down in history by helping shape Hawaii's new economy. Thank you. And I'd like to also insert written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this bill is to establish the Innovation Special Fund, which will receive the sum of all general fund revenues realized by the State that equals one half of one percent of general fund revenues for each fiscal year beginning July 1, 2006, and ending on June 30, 2010. This fund will be used to support the advanced technology, renewable energy, and life sciences industries in the State.

"In the future, the Legislature will decide on what government agency will be in charge of the fund and how the fund will be invested in the advanced technology, renewable energy, and life sciences industries in the State such as research and development grants and capital investment. This measure shows the State's commitment to diversify Hawaii's economy by promoting the knowledge-based industries. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in opposition to this measure. Although, I'm very much for economic development and helping some of these high tech industries, it's just that this bill is a little bit fuzzy for me. And I question whether we should bind future Legislatures, 24th and 25th Legislatures, to expend some unspecified expenditures. One half of 1% of general fund revenues is a questionable amount. It'll change from year to year. And I'm wondering whether this bill is flawed because there is no expending agency specified in the measure. Thank you very much."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Karamatsu be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB2546, SD1, HD2, CD1. Passage of this measure established a special fund to support life sciences, advanced technology, and the renewable energy resource industry in Hawaii.

"We have invested so much in educating our children, we must do everything possible to keep a viable job market in Hawaii. Without keeping high technology industries, we force our children to leave the islands. It is time to show that Hawaii is serious in supporting the high tech industry. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support and first ask that the Representative from Waikale's comments be inserted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Chong continued, stating:

"And also I'd like to thank all of the people, both Chairs of Economic Development, both money Chairs, as well as people in the community like Miss Gibson, like Miss Mailer, as well as Admiral Fargo, who support diversifying our economy. And I think this Fund will be a huge first step towards moving Hawaii forward in that direction. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition with short comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Like a previous speaker noted, this bill does tuck away money and it doesn't have any other rules, commission, nothing. It doesn't say how this is going to work, and in fact it basically to me has a sense like, just have faith. Vote blindly and just have faith. There's no oversight from the Legislature, that which we take pride in, of oversight of the way we spend funds. And this is a substantial amount of amount that goes directly from general revenues into a special fund.

"Mr. Speaker, for those reasons, I don't think that this is a good idea that we should have more say. We should at least know how we are going to accomplish this economic development because this bill is very skinny. It's about a page and a half and that doesn't tell us anything on how this money will be used. I think we need to be more careful than that. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just to clarify, this bill is skinny right now because there's disagreement between the House and Senate in how to administer the fund. So the industry, as well as members of the House and Senate will be looking in the interim as well as next year on the implementation of it.

"There are previous drafts showing there would be an Innovation Fund Board and a buffer to create this Board so that politics won't be involved in how the money would be implemented. For example a fund-to-fund manager, etc., and grant board, qualified individuals, nationally recognized.

"These things were taken out because in the compromise, we felt that at least we could set the money aside now and then we can work on the Board and implementation in the following year. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Just really, unfortunately, in opposition because I really do support all efforts in diversifying our economy innovation, but I just cannot back the lack of details in this bill. So I ask that the words of the Minority Leader and the Representative from Makakilo be incorporated as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Representative from Royal Kunia, I think made my case for me. He said we'll come back and we'll look at this next year with the Senate and we'll take care of all the problems and flush it out. By the way that is my reason for let's do this next year, we don't need to pass it now. But he said that there's money in it now. We need to put this money aside. Well there isn't any money in it now and that was my point. There's no money in it. It doesn't do anything yet. Let's come back next year and look at it. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this measure. And for all the reasons that we've heard from those that are opposed. But it doesn't have any money in it now, but it already instructs that this Fund would be funded by taking one half of a percent of all general fund revenues and it starts July 1, 2006. So it will start funneling money out of the general fund then. And it also instructs that they will continue to do that until June 30th of 2010. So this will be a very fat Fund when we start to get into the details. But it's just I think it's premature and not good policy to move a bill that is so lacking in details, and at the same time just funneling off funds from the general fund. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I did want to cite to one interesting statistic that I found, and it has to do with Enterprise Honolulu, A Turning Point For Capital Formation. Assessing Hawaii's Strategic Options, in August 2003 and what they estimated was in order for our high tech emerging science and technology companies to sustain themselves in the next 5 years, they will require $223 million. And I think if we can put in at least 10% of that. An estimated $25 million that's going to be taken up by this bill. That is the kind of investment that capital ventures out there want to see the State doing so that they can decide whether they're going to go forward with investing in our high tech companies.

"If we do nothing, if we wait until next year, that venture capital money could dissipate or disappear. And I think since we have the availability, since we have the momentum to do so, this is the right time. We can decide later how we are going to be implementing this law as the Chair of EDB already stated, but let's take the first step and start tucking the money away so we can show everyone out there that we are seriously committed to high tech. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. Just a couple more comments in regards to this. I took a look and of course we have to be very careful of how we spend our tax money coming in. And I took a look at this and I look at all of the people who have paid into, our taxpayers, and what they're sacrificing in order to pay for the taxes that they owe. Many people are doing it by paycheck, by paycheck. Many people are sacrificing many things in order to pay for taxes and their budgets are getting skinnier and skinnier, and smaller and smaller.

"So I think it's responsible and it is our duty to make sure that if we are spending this money, that it is going to be handled correctly, that this commission is going to be in place with a good way to choose the members of this commission. I mean if the House and the Senate could not agree on how to do these things, then maybe we should take a look at it again before we start getting money. I understand that we should look at, while we have the money, we should put it away, and we should look at investing in this. But try and see it from the point of view that any money that we spend or sock away this point and time is money out of the taxpayer's pockets at this point and time.

"Our tax measure that we have coming up with is not in effect until 2008. That means they don't get any relief until 2008. Excuse me, 2007, which 2008 is when we do our tax returns.

"Mr. Speaker, we are seeing rising costs in all shapes and forms from rising taxes, rising electricity bills, rising gas prices."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Finnegan, you are straying away from the ..."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"And I apologize. This is a very passionate issue for me and so I think everyone got the point and why I am so hesitant at putting away money in a time when there is a big surplus and at a time when people are still living from paycheck to paycheck. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2546, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses and Stevens voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2806, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. I'm a little embarrassed because I am one of the introducers of this bill as it left the House and before it returned to us today. I'm in opposition because the appropriation of $700,000 for this project is embarrassing, in light of the other projects that are so needy including early childhood education, my baby. Housing, all the other issues that we've been talking about.

"The intention of this bill, originally as Representative Yamane, myself, and Representative Chong served on the Sustainability Task Force that was formed by the Legislature last year, was to ask the Auditor to look at the Hawaii State Plan and the 12 functional plans from a perspective of sustainability and how we might have legislation then come out of the work of the taskforce to be coherent regarding all the plans.

"This has morphed into something that, I'm not sure how others on the taskforce feel, but I am certainly very uncomfortable with this. To allocate $50,000 to a Hawaii brand, establishing a brand for Hawaii is very disconcerting to me, because the intent of sustainability and as it left the taskforce in the last meeting, was to engage the citizens of Hawaii in transforming their lifestyle. Not to inspire us to do it differently, but to really enable all of us to learn how the environment and how economic diversity can be integrated for the quality of life that we want.

"We heard in last couple days when we here, the comment that the number of people who were not born in Hawaii, residing here now, outnumbers the number of us who have, who were born here. That's fine, I guess, but my point is, Mr. Speaker, we are evolving into perhaps a place that none of us really recognize anymore. So with many more things to say, I'd like to add that into the Journal if it's possible. I will be voting no on this and urge my colleagues to rethink this. It's a very noble cause. I believe that this could be done for a lot less money and, in fact if we're all committed, we could hold meetings in our districts that would enable those dialogues to occur. Thank you."

Representative Berg's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 2608, Relating to Sustainability. As an introducer of this measure, I believe it is my responsibility to clarify the intent of this bill and explain why I am in opposition of the proposed measure. I am a member of the Sustainability Task Force, for which this bill is appropriating $700,000 in the next two years. As you know, I care deeply about the initiative for Hawaii's sustainability and the possibility of creating a deliberate approach to legislation which can more coherently guide us toward an enriched quality of life in our islands.

"My experiences on the Task Force have been wonderful. I found each meeting more meaningful than the previous, as I grew in my comprehension of the pressing need for deliberate, innovative actions to address Hawaii's sustainability. Our dependence on fossil fuels, imported goods, and the visitor industry is not universally understood or acknowledged. Coupled with the reality of increasing numbers of Hawaii-born citizens choosing to live away from Hawaii, compromised natural resources, a disenfranchised host culture, and the challenges of change, more creative alternatives as 'solutions' are needed to address sufficient housing, a diversified economy, adequate transportation, responsive education, contemporary health issues, and a clean, safe environment in which to raise our children.

"This legislation, Mr. Speaker, disappoints me and frankly, embarrasses me – not only because of the amount of money being requested for a 'branding' campaign, but also because the purpose has been altered from the original, noble intention. The Sustainability Task Force was created to develop a process in which we, as a legislative body, could revisit the Hawaii State Plan and make appropriate adjustments for coherent legislation that would enable Hawaii to move more systematically toward reaching the benchmarks and indicators of increasingly more self-sufficiency.

"During the course of last year's work, the Task Force discovered that a shift is needed in our institutional view of Hawaii and that input from the public would facilitate understanding, engagement, and subsequently, legislative – and public – action. As yet, there is no consensus across our State or among professional fields on the term 'sustainability,' and it is out of that need that I co-introduced the current legislation – to continue the work of the Sustainability Task Force for the next two years.

"The legislative responsibility, at the moment, is not to develop a 'branding' campaign or a public relations plan to generate 'buy-in' for sustainability from the citizenry. I don't believe that a 'branding' plan was every discussed at a Task Force meeting. Furthermore, I believe that it is inappropriate for the Legislature to spend public funds for such a purpose. The intention of the original legislation was to enable the Task Force to continue its work of obtaining input from communities, synthesize the findings, and propose a coherent plan to approach the emerging needs of our State. Utilizing a science-based model, the legislation would provide financial resources to solicit ideas from all islands, regarding measurable indicators and 'benchmarks' of sustainability. The process was intended to guide the decisions – and legislation – toward Hawaii's evolving realization of a sustainable quality of life.

"What is required to move Hawaii – its people, businesses, environment, natural resources, education system, and legislative choices – toward an integrated, sustainable problem-solving methodology of living is engagement and participation of its citizenry.

"This grand effort was the original vision of the Sustainability Task Force. I cannot support HB 2608 in the current form, Mr. Speaker, as it appears to divert attention from the real needs and processes of sustainable change and attributes an excessive amount of money for that effort. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I had planned to rise with reservations in deference to my colleague from Aina Haina, but she has laid out the case so well. My problem was looking at that $650,000 and thinking, my goodness, what are we doing, you know this huge 25 member taskforce going to be traveling to all the Neighbor Islands and advertising going on and I couldn't have said it better than she did and so I will be voting no."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting no also. I was going to actually stay quiet on this, in deference also to the Representative from Aina Haina. But this thing has morphed into something that I think is even worse when I was opposing it when I first got in here. So thank you very much for taking the lead and I am so happy to become a follower at last. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, several of us were named on to the Sustainability Task Force. And we've been participating in quite a few number of meetings. The number of meetings, in regards to that which required getting community feedback, was the fact that people are tired of having a certain small number of people making State plans, sustainability plans, on their behalf without input from the people.

"So this endeavor of the task force, its primary focus was to bring it to the people. We represent the people, however, we want them to be part of this process. And the duty of the task force, Mr. Speaker, was to devise a process that will enable citizens to participate in determining what kind of community, their home, that they would see in 50 years.

"This is no easy task, Mr. Speaker. This requires funds, it requires input, and availability to people who cannot come to the Capitol, or cannot come to a meeting 50 miles, 100 miles away. The goal of this plan, Mr. Speaker, was to allow those that couldn't speak an opportunity to speak.

"Mr. Speaker, people are wondering what's going on with this $650,000 or $700,000 with this plan, Mr. Speaker, and the goals are this, for those that haven't participated. That what they are going to do in '06 and '07 is do things like have meetings, have data gathering, begin research, do a kickoff event to get support from the different stakeholders.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, through the participation of the people, they wanted to not just give information, but to get a plan back. Something in which they don't feel like the information was sucked from their body. They wanted to get something back. They wanted to see what their participation would bring to Hawaii in 50 years. And so part of the money will be used to get that information back to them to make them a participant. And also the goal of this planning was so that we have our departments, our State, all our different counties are represented on this taskforce to have one single path so that we are not doing things against each other.

"So, Mr. Speaker, people may rise in opposition to the funds of $650,000, but we have over a million people. If you're going to stand up and we're saying let's look for the future, this is a first step. So either we support it, or we don't. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is my second time on this. I was going to introduce some comments into the Journal and with all due respect to my colleague who is sharing his perspective. I would like to offer another perspective.

"I'm a community developer. I go into communities, currently in my profession and work with people to get their mana'o and ideas. The intent of this task force at the very beginning was not for us to have a voice and go out to the community, but rather to have another process of which I am very deeply attached to, which is the democratic process of having people have a voice.

"And why I'm so moved is because we have tried to do that here in our hearings, when we go out to community meetings. And giving money to a process that replicates the kind of top-down decision-making that we have been doing for all of my lifetime is embarrassing. It is not only embarrassing, but I think what it does is it belies what we believe about the democratic process.

"This task force, for me was an experience unlike any other experience. There was an openness. There were people coming in to educate us, and it was really with the belief that we don't go out and tell people, but rather the communities have their conversations like the Big Island.

"The Big Island is already going out into communities and having conversations because they are wanting to understand how they can best, not go to government, but how the community and the citizens can best create the life that they want. The information then comes back to the government. We don't go out to them. So the difference in this task force and the intent of this is that so all of our legislation that we've been talking about for the last 2 days, 3 days, 60 days is that we can have coherence and congruence.

"We talk about whether or not the county, or the State, or DOT, or DLNR should have a harbor, or should have jurisdiction over a harbor. It should be from the perspective of what is that harbor going to be used for and how does it tie in to the whole plan of the coastline.

"When we talk about Keehi Lagoon, should it be commercial use? Should it be visitor use? Should it be personal use? It's the general conversation that we need to have.

"The concept of branding Hawaii is for me, personally despicable. We're branded enough. And if this is about an agenda to sell Hawaii in a way that belies what the community feels, I believe that we are really going down the wrong path and I will not use the word sustainability anymore. I believe what we're talking about is enriching the lives of people, and I hope as we talk about these next bills that we have a framework also about enriching lives.

"If we want to talk about sustainability, let's give $700,000 to Kahoolawe. Let's see Kahoolawe use that money to bring back life and prove to us that it is possible to heal. I have a lot of respect for my colleagues in this House and particularly those in the taskforce and I hope that we will rethink for ourselves what the definition means. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2806, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUSTAINABILITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Berg, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Harbin, Meyer, Moses, Stevens and Takumi voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 243-06 and H.B. No. 3036, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3036, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just real briefly, I just have some concerns. Reservations. Because I received a lot comments from general contractors. They have concerns with the measure. Thank you."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just with reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, I believe that in some cases, of course it's good to get the subcontractors paid when they complete their work, but unfortunately sometimes the work is not up to standard and the main contractor may need to go in and do some revisions of the work that was done. So I believe this bill might take away a little of the control of the project. And for those reasons I just have some reservations. I don't think that we need to mandate when a subcontractor is paid. Especially, if in a case where there are some problems with the work that he's done. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of this measure. Very briefly, the contractors and subcontractors were very far apart when this bill was introduced. And thanks to the good offices of the Director of the Department of Accounting and General Services, Mr. Russ Saito, he was able to mediate a compromise, which both sides can live with. And I want just want to give him credit for that. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and the previous speaker is right. Early on we told the various parties that were involved with this bill to work it out, or else we would not take sides. And it came down to an agreement except for one sentence about two weeks ago and they finally agreed totally, all parties on this bill. And that's why we passed it out. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this measure I may have a potential conflict. I work for a big electrical subcontractor who might benefit from this bill," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a lot of work that brought the parties of the contractors and subcontractors together. Although they were a little in disagreement in the beginning, they moved towards this draft you see before us. So I'm very proud to say that the parties actually worked well together in the end. The only thing that is missing is a small technical amendment that was missed in the rush of things during Conference, so we're going to probably come back just for that one small amendment. But other than that this is the work of both the contractors and the subcontractors on prompt payment. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support for HB 3036, HD1, SD2, CD1. Mr. Speaker, this bill addresses the enduring issue of fair and equitable ties between prime and particularly specialty contractors in public works funded by taxpayer dollars.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill will address a problem within the building industry. Materialmen and subcontractors often are at the mercy of general contractors when seeking payment due them upon completion of their work or providing materials for a government project. This problem is particularly serious for materialmen and subcontractors who are involved at the beginning of a project, where their work is completed or materials are furnished long before final completion of the project. In many instances, subcontractors must wait many months, even years, before receiving full payment for their completed work. Often, the subcontractors are small, family-owned and run businesses that lack financial resources to withstand a long delay in receiving payments owed to them for work completed.

"Mr. Speaker, dollar amounts retained from materialmen and subcontractors, especially those owned by families or partnerships suffer a tremendous financial strain in the event completed projects aren't paid on a timely basis. In one case, hundreds of thousands of dollars were held back for over three years where in fact, their portion of the contract was completed over two years earlier. Mr. Speaker, passage of this bill will relieve many subcontractors and materialmen of the financial burden in remaining in business. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations.

"H.B. 3036 addresses a well-known problem within the building industry. Delay in payment hurts subcontractors, who must advance funds from their own pockets for materials and labor to perform their work. Contractors cannot afford to wait until the project is completed to get paid, particularly if their work is completed early on in the project.

"However, prompt payment is already required by existing law and we must be mindful that this measure would create more bureaucracy and payments would not get to subcontractors any faster than they would under current law.

"My concerns are based on proposed language requiring posting of certificates of completion and the amount due making public all pricing. This requirement will reduce competition and drive up costs.

"The net result of this proposed legislation is that the bill interferes with the free market relationship between contracted parties, increases the State's influence in what has been a process responsive to market forces and will increase the cost of doing business in Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3036, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 244-06 and H.B. No. 3118, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3118, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'll be as brief as I can. I believe most businesses are responsible. This is insinuating that they are not, so it's insulting. I also looked at some of the material written about this measure. Here's one that says the bill specifies at least 20% of the Board of Directors be nominated and elected by the employees to represent and advocate for the employees, and at least another 20% be elected by the other members of the board to represent and advocate for the public interest. The bill does not define public interest, but also insures that all stakeholder representatives on the board have full access to all of the corporation's records.

"I know it's very easy to understand, but there may be a problem with all of these conflicting interest when we look at how to make profits, which that's what businesses are supposed to be doing. There's also a caveat in the bill and it says it would exempt this board from the legal requirement of acting solely in the interest of shareholders by maximizing the corporation's short- and long-term profits. So I think there are some very conflicting internal problems. And this is creating a board that, I don't see how the board will function for the benefit of the business and the shareholders and therefore businesses will go out of business, and I don't see how that helps employees at all. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I don't know about the prior speaker's remarks and any reference to a prior draft, but the current draft sets up a task force to weigh in on those very issues that were raised by the previous speaker. In fact, the task force will be convening soon after this Session closes and is being chaired and led by the Director of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, who I've spoken to on several occasions who supports this measure, who supports this process.

"I've also spoken to the Commissioner of Securities at the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, and she too echoes the same sentiment that they would like to work on this during interim.

"I've also spoken to the Chair of the Business Law Section on the Hawaii State Bar Association and he has so graciously enlisted himself to work on this during interim. Also involved in this task force would be the Dean of the William S. Richardson School of Law, and the Dean of the School of Business at University of Hawaii. And the task force will report back to us next year, 20 days before the convening of the Session 2007, with its recommendations. I believe this is an important measure.

"It'll put Hawaii at the front of the pack of many other states who are looking at similar measures to address the problems of corporations, not only on the impact upon shareholders, but all stakeholders, communities, employees, and the environment. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure, though noble in purpose, calls upon corporations to behave in a manner that is already expected of them. Many corporations large and small pride themselves on caring for their employees and providing fair reimbursement including expensive fringe benefits. Corporate leaders are also cognizant of caring for the environment, for should they not observe laws and regulations, they would certainly be fined, taken to court and earn the animosity of the public.

"Corporations are aware that consumer interests are paramount - otherwise people will not purchase their goods or services. If they pursue monopolistic practices, produce dangerous or unhealthy products, or overprice goods, they will not prosper and face the ill will of the public, be taken to court and eventually pay the piper.

"It may be difficult for small corporations (such as mom 'n pop operations) to comply with many of the provisions of this measure. This measure will also create inequities between this and other types of corporations. If responsible corporations are given 'incentives', it will be unfair to its competitors.

"Further, it will be difficult for the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs to set up regulations and timelines to implement such unusual corporations with subjective value-driven requirements. I include the testimony of the DCCA to demonstrate that it will be difficult and impractical to fulfill the mandates of this bill."

TESTIMONY ON HOUSE BILL NO. 3118
RELATING TO CORPORATIONS

TO THE HONORABLE JON RIKI KARAMATSU, CHAIR AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to testify. My name is Corinna M. Wong, Commissioner of Securities of the Business Registration Division, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. The Department appreciates the opportunity to testify on House Bill No. 3118, Relating to Corporations. We take no position on the substance of this bill but have comments on section § - 4(c) which provides that the Department maintain the incorporation records of Responsible Business Corporations in a manner that clearly distinguishes corporations incorporated under this new chapter.

The Business Registration Division is responsible for administering the state's business registry and this bill proposes a new entity type that will need to be registered in the state's business registry. The Division notes that the state's business registry has a completely paperless documents processing, archival and retrieval system. There are three main parts to the business registry's computer system: the web interface programs that collect filings online; the Registration Documents Process Management System (RDPMS), the documents routing and processing system; and the Business Registration Information Management System, the main registry database. All filings with the business registry are either scanned into electronic format into the RDPMS system or filed electronically over the internet.

The Division is not able to instantaneously incorporate a new filing type with the business registry. Adding a new business entity filing type with the Division will require substantial modifications to the computer system for the business registry. The Division requires lead time to be able to modify the documents processing system and the registry's main database to accept a new special filing type. Internally test the new modified system before rolling out to live production, design the new filing form and train staff on the new special filing type.

The Division estimates the necessary lead time for the computer system modification to be at least 9 months and the cost of the project to be approximately $50,000.00.

In addition, new comprehensive provisions, comparable to those in existing business statutes, also need to be added to address the administrative procedures associated with a new entity filing type, such as, among others:

- o what specific information is to be included in the articles of incorporation and annual report filings;
- o name clearance procedures for new corporations
- o procedures for administrative order of abatements for infringement of corporate names;
- o procedure for amendments to filed documents;
- o deemed effectiveness for various filing with the Department;
- o fee schedule showing fees to be paid for filing of documents, special handling fees for certification of documents, etc.;

HB No. 3118

- o appeal process for the Department's refusal to file a document, and penalties for signing false documents;
- o procedures for mergers and conversions into other business entity types; and
- o penalties for late filing of documents.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, when I first took a look at this bill and the previous drafts, I was a little bit hesitant. And now that I look at this draft, I'm less hesitant, but however, we are setting up this task force and I'd like to explain why I'm not for this bill.

"As we push to move forward and improve our business friendly reputation in Hawaii, I believe this bill only sets us back. Is a corporation irresponsible if they do not meet the standards that are set forth in this task force? I am bothered that we would want to move in this direction. The standard should be set by the customers that patronize these corporations. Customers and employees do have choices and many times their choices have closed down businesses that act irresponsibly.

"Being a quote, unquote, 'responsible business' is subjective and is defined by perception. Government has its place and it shouldn't be in micromanaging corporations. And then this goes into discussion about penalizing those who do not meet these standards, whether or not they can afford to do it. That's connected to jobs. You penalize people by whether it is through some penalty, or whatever. And what if they couldn't afford whatever it was to meet that standard? Then does that mean they close down and we don't have jobs? I don't know.

"But it does, it says here, some of the specifics says the incentives for corporation as a responsible corporation. Standards for determining whether, this is what the task force is suppose to do, standards for determining whether the corporation will meet and continues to meet the requirements for receiving the incentives, and procedures by which the standards can be enforced including penalties to be imposed.

"Mr. Speaker, I know that we've been trying over the years to be more business friendly. And I'm afraid that this, although it's called responsible business, I'm afraid that this would be just a 'black list' for people who, like I said by perception or for whatever reasons don't meet these standards and all of a sudden they are considered a irresponsible business. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. I want to speak on this task force. While I must admit that the former speaker did provide some very relevant points as far as leaving business alone, the history of business and corporations over the last few years have not been a very envious one. Huge severance pay outs; employees losing their retirement benefits, and becoming paupers after working 30, 40 years for a corporation; and leaders of corporations going to jail for embezzlement.

"Mr. Speaker and Members, the history of United States corporations has not been good this last few years. Outsourcing. We're losing our employees. Our labor pool is becoming smaller and smaller because of the outsourcing, where profit is the only consideration for many corporations. I believe there should be a fiduciary relationship with the corporation and its employees.

"Some responsibility needs to be given to them. And I think we need to have a task force like this so we can examine all of these things. And it may come out where we won't come out with anything as draconian as one may think, but at least it should be examined. How can we make the corporations good corporate citizens with a fiduciary relationship to its employees? Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Mr. Speaker, the original intent of this bill is not to mandate or punish companies. It's to put incentives, tax credits. That was the original intent, the original bill as stated. And now it's the task force to look into implementation. How it would work and how it would be applied by DCCA. But it's not a punishment. Companies don't have to choose to be under this. If they want to they can, and they can get the tax credits. That was the original intent. Thank you."

Representative Moses rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time, still in opposition. We heard many comments on the Floor about how this is going to be fixed again during interim. We are going to look at it. Everybody's going to get together. That's another reason to not pass at this point.

"I just want to say that, yeah, maybe you can choose whether or not you want to credit or not and be labeled 'responsible'. But if you don't choose the credit, then you are labeled irresponsible, and I think that's a way of blackmailing business. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, again in strong support. Just a couple of points. The Chair of the Economic Development and Business Concerns Committee made the point, but I think it needs to be made again. This is voluntary. There's no mandate for anyone to organize and set their business under this corporate structure.

"Secondly, there is no tax credit to this current draft. Again the task force is charged with crafting implementation language for us to consider next year. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just again, unfortunately in opposition and just my concerns rest on the micromanaging and the reality that if you had two businesses and one was classified as responsible and one was not, that's going to dictate the market. So you are really going to have to have everybody be in that responsible category. So it is in a way, forcing people to be in that. And I ask that the comments of the Minority Leader be incorporated as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition and just a short rebuttal. I'll be quick. Mr. Speaker, the Speaker Emeritus spoke about how these corporations on the United States level basically have done these not so good things. And what I would like to say, okay, then how does this do it because they probably wouldn't sign up to be a responsible business. So what are we left with? Not getting to the problem of these quote, unquote, 'irresponsible businesses.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of House Bill No. 3118, Conference Draft 1, Relating To Corporations. This bill would establish a task force to study and propose the statutory framework for a socially responsible corporation. Section 1 of the bill sets Hawaii apart from the rest of the states. The whole intent of the measure is to create a corporate structure that allows for a corporation to consider both profit and other interest in its business decisions. With the creation of this entity, the State of Hawaii will be taking a proactive step to promote corporate responsibility instead of maintaining the regulatory approach of punishing corporate malfeasance.

I. THE EFFECTS OF UNIQUE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES IN HAWAII

"I find this measure to be similar to the laws that established our captive insurance industry in 1987. Who could have imagined that twenty years later, Hawaii would be one of the captive insurance leaders in our country with $741 million dollars deposited in our local banks, stimulating $10.5 million in economic activity in this State every year. According to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, although captive insurance companies only employ around 50 positions, these companies create ancillary jobs for professionals who help manage the captive companies. An example of these businesses are KHM LLP for accounting and auditing purposes, Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel from the legal sector, First Insurance Company of Hawaii, Ltd. providing business management services, as well as many other businesses prospering from captive insurance in Hawaii.

"The same affect could result from Hawaii becoming the first state in the nation to incorporate responsible business corporations and bring in related legal, financial, and investing expertise that will follow these corporations. Hawaii can become a leader by becoming the first state in the Nation to provide the legal framework for this corporate model to thrive and thus, set the example for the nation to follow.

II. SUCCESSFUL INNOVATION OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

"Mr. Speaker, the Responsible Corporation is a hybrid between a regular corporation and a non-profit corporation. It is a significant departure from the "internal affairs doctrine". While there may be apprehension toward creating such an entity, the same opposition arose from an idea to create a hybrid of a corporation and a partnership. That entity is now called the Limited Liability Company ("LLC") and it is a popular corporate vehicle for many new businesses. Imagine if the LLC idea was shelved because people considered it to be unworkable or detrimental to current corporate structures? We would have not had the opportunity to see an LLC.

"House Bill 3118, Conference Draft 1, is a positive step in the right direction. The task force will consist of talented and knowledgeable individuals and organizations that have a direct stake on our corporation statute, Chapter 414 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. The task force will be comprised of seven members:

- The Director of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, or the director's designee, who shall serve as the Chair;
- The Commissioner of Securities of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, or the Commissioner's designee;
- The Chair of the Business Law Section of the Hawaii State Bar Association, or the Chair's designee, and another member of the business law section to be designated by the President of the Hawaii State Bar Association;
- The Dean of the William S. Richardson School of Law, or the Dean's designee; and
- The Dean of the School of Business of the University of Hawaii, or the Dean's designee, and a member of the faculty of the School of Business, as designated by the Dean.

"Together, the State of Hawaii can become the world leader in the promotion and support for socially responsible corporations and create the business environment where enlightened entrepreneurs can do business successfully while insuring their values and beliefs are not compromised but instead ingrained and imbedded into the day-to-day practices of a 21st century businesses. As Delaware is now the king of traditional business corporations, so too, can Hawaii become the queen of socially responsible corporations.

"For these reasons, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3118, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORPORATIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 245-06 and H.B. No. 3261, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3261, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill, Relating to the Ingenuity Corporation Charter, seems like it's very much arm-in-arm related somewhat to the responsible corporation. The Majority Leader did spend some time trying to educate us on this. And the idea is they are going to set this charter, a group of employers, unions, to represent inventors, people to be really creative amongst us. I'm in opposition.

"Just on first glance there's just a lot of things they are trying to do here. In one of the hearings there was a flowchart that is just totally mind-boggling. I don't know if you came across this, but it's very hard to follow. You got the American Ingenuity Alliance and labor unions, inventors.

"Currently it shows the inventors have no rights, and you're going to lawsuits for infringement. The AFL-CIO is a big part of it. It is just, it's very, very, very complicated. When I read it, I felt that somehow the unions were going to get involved in representing these inventors and then perhaps get a piece of the action when somebody came up with a really good idea. I'm somewhat disturbed about the references to the International Labor Organization and a reference to the United Nations Environmental Standards.

"I'm just not sure what this is going to do. And this would just be at a State level, and somehow this is supposed to protect maybe somebody in Hawaii that comes up with a good idea that is being manufactured in foreign country, where on the strength of this charter, we could somehow strong arm them over in Saipan to pay wages that they pay in Hawaii. I mean it's just some kind of a huge idea, but yet we're going to establish it here in Hawaii just at the State level. I have to spend a lot more time getting clear about this before I want to put a stamp of approval on it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I'll be submitting some written remarks. Just a few comments in support. First of all I think we should all understand that any corporation, nonprofit, for profit is a creature of statute, and basically operates as a person in our legal community. And as such it is a creation of the laws of the State, in this case the Legislature. So in this bill here what the Legislature is doing is issuing a special corporate charter for the Hawaii Ingenuity Corporation. And I believe the Minority Floor Leader did comment upon and touch upon some of the benefits. Now, Mr. Speaker, this is a big and bold, far-reaching idea.

"I'll give you a couple of examples very quickly, Mr. Speaker. The current situation with our United States Automobile Industry, which was once touted as the largest industry in the world, producing most of the vehicles today, is probably failing and will probably not be around the next couple of years given the crisis of it losing its ability to keep jobs in America, keep technology in America and compete against construction and delivery of vehicles from the Far East.

"This bill addresses the situation going on right now with GM, Ford, Chevrolet, and Delphi. It also could help us regarding the situation at Del Monte if we had somehow been able to contain and control the patent regarding the CO2 or Del Monte Gold pineapple and retain it in America. We could probably influence the ability to have the pineapple company operate here with a profit and protect it from competing against itself from its overseas plantations in Brazil or Costa Rica or China or Thailand.

"And third, Mr. Speaker, I've been sharing with some of the people up at the University of Hawaii and some of the members of the Hawaiian community involved in the current conflict regarding the patent rights of kalo or taro. And not withstanding the fact that they have some legitimate claims to taro and truly have a link of soul and culture to it. Insofar as there are rights under the current United States patent system, the Hawaii Ingenuity Corporation might be a vehicle in which they may be able to protect and retain control over the Hawaiian taro. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to submit further written remarks into the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of House Bill No. 3261, House Draft 1, Relating To Ingenuity Corporation Charter. This bill would provide the statutory framework for the establishment of the Hawaii Ingenuity Corporation, an entity that protects intellectual property, stabilizes jobs, and promotes technology in public education. The corporation has the ability to hold intellectual property for inventors and license that property to businesses. Once the business implements the invention, the labor force becomes the ultimate user. Having inventors and labor collaborate with educators will create a win-win situation for the people of Hawaii.

I. OPPOSITION IS MISPLACED

"Mr. Speaker, opponents of the measure believe that House Bill 3261, Conference Draft 1, is not needed because it will hamper free enterprise at the expense of maintaining American jobs. This argument is misplaced. The workforce is an important part of American society. Imagine if every job of every corporation was outsourced out of the country. What would this country look like? It would be a country run by corporations and only corporations. Workers would be powerless to fight for their jobs. It is easy to speak of job loss due to outsourcing on the Floor of the House of Representatives, but not if the opponent had to explain this rationale to all of the workers that lost their jobs due to outsourcing. Or even have the courage to confront our brothers and sisters working in the pineapple fields of Kunia -- only to lose their jobs from Del Monte moving operations to the Philippines, Costa Rica, or China --

II. ESTABLISH HAWAII AS AN INNOVATIVE LEADER

"Mr. Speaker, the 2006 legislative Session will be remembered for our commitment to Hawaii innovation. Legislation enacted this year will be geared toward promoting technology and growing our high-tech industry. As with House Bill No. 2181 House Draft 2, which creates the Hawaii Innovations Partnership Act, this will reaffirm our commitment toward high technology.

"House Bill No. 3261, Conference Draft 1, works hand-in-hand with high technology by creating a conduit to assist inventors with protecting intellectual property rights. With the Ingenuity Corporation in place, inventors can take their innovations to the corporation for assistance in obtaining patents, copyrights, or other intellectual property. After an inventor licenses the technology to the corporation, it can assist with marketing the technology to businesses.

"Hawaii, under Governor Benjamin Cayetano, took the first step to promote intellectual property in Hawaii. In a letter to the governors of the other forty-nine states, dated July 9, 1999, Governor Cayetano wrote:

"Historically, innovation has led to technological advancement and that advancement has created jobs and even new industries. Independent inventors, not large corporations, have contributed the majority of this country's most important inventions. Protecting the patent rights of independent inventors is of the utmost importance to the future prosperity of states as we move into the next century."

"In a Pacific Business News opinion piece dated September 17, 1999, Dr. Raymond Damadian, inventor of the MRI, wrote:

"I conclude by expressing my gratitude to Gov. Cayetano for recognizing the importance of independent inventors to the economy and for having the foresight and courage to stand up on our behalf. I say this despite the fact that my support for Republican politics – including President Bush – is a matter of public record . . . Cayetano is sending a clear message to independent inventors. The result? Companies like mine – which are built on the patented inventions of their founders – will begin taking a serious look at Hawaii as a place to do business."

"Hawaii has gained a national following from organizations around the country interested in the Hawaii Ingenuity Corporation. John P. Connolly, President of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA), provided his insight into the proposed measure:

"The Ingenuity Corporation that HB 3261 envisions, with its alliance of scientists, workers, educational institutions and the people of Hawaii, will be a major factor in restoring balance and fairness to the current jungle warfare over patents. Not only will HB 3261 help create a level playing field for the orderly administration of crucial inventions and intellectual property, it will also create a mechanism through which society – most particularly the inventors themselves, workers, and the educational institutions of Hawaii – will share in the benefits of the enterprises of the future."

"If Hawaii becomes the first state to create this entity, it would promote Hawaii as an innovative leader.

III. LABOR MAY CONTROL THE TECHNOLOGY THEY DEVELOP

"Under House Bill No. 3261, House Draft 1, the labor unions play a pivotal role. By having a stake in the corporation, labor will have an incentive to protect intellectual property in the workplace. Since the workers are implementing the new technology, they will have an insight into the proper use of the intellectual property license.

"The unions also have the ability to promote the use of technology in the workplace. Imagine a worker who knows of technology that could save or make business thousands of dollars. Workers would be anxious to bring that technology to the business because both will benefit. Unions also have the bargaining power to promote technology in the marketplace to the benefit of all the members in the corporation and the general public. Consumers benefit because there is added incentive to constantly improve a product, formula, or service, knowing that compensation will be commensurate with inventiveness.

IV. THE CORPORATION SUPPORTS INNOVATION IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

"Mr. Speaker, the final component of the House Bill No. 3261, House Draft 1, is public education. We have all stressed the need to provide opportunities in education to our young residents. The children of Hawaii are the inventors and the workers of tomorrow. The Ingenuity Corporation will promote innovation and technology in the classroom. This will ensure that Hawaii can continue to be a leader in innovation and a champion of intellectual property in the United States.

"Finally, I close with an excerpt from Dr. Raymond Damadian's article that appeared in the Honolulu Star Bulletin, entitled "U.S. ingenuity deserves Legislature's support", dated May 4, 2004:

"[President Abraham] Lincoln declared that patent rights 'secured to the inventor, for a limited time, the exclusive use of his invention; and thereby added the fuel of interest to the fire of genius, in the discovery and production of new and useful things.' Lincoln also stated that, 'Labor is the superior of capital and deserves much the higher consideration. Capital has rights, which are worthy of protection as any other rights.' Lincoln recognized that protecting the rights of inventors and the livelihoods of working people is just as critical to the strength of our nation as protecting the rights of capital. The Ingenuity Corporation will be an effective vehicle for balancing all of these interests for the purpose of promoting innovation and securing the common good."

"For these and other reasons previously discussed, I urge my esteemed colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'm just going to read a few blocks from the chart. Lawsuits for infringement. Collective representation of inventor interest. Labor capital investment strategies. Strike. New tools for organizing and building membership. Labor rights imbedded into intellectual property rights. Strengthening Congress. And reaffirming the courts. So I mean this is just a labor-organizing chart as far as I'm concerned.

"I understand what the intent might have started as. We have some workers that maybe getting displaced because of what's happening overseas, but you can't do those things by law. It's the same as the gas cap. We can't cap things and expect it to work. We have to have free trade and free enterprise for all of us. For the benefit of all the people in the United States and all the people in the world. Free trade. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition.

"I support ingenuity, the protection of ideas, and believe this legislation offers a creative approach to dealing with many of the challenges facing Hawaii and our nation in the areas of global competitiveness, product development and intellectual property. However, I am uncomfortable with the complex ambiguity and dictating global policy that is reflected in this bill.

"This measure proposes the corporation would be a public-private hybrid, combining some features of a government agency, such as creation by government and a public purpose, with some features of a private business, such as for-profit corporate form. A hybrid may be subject to government accountability laws such as the Sunshine Law depending on the particular circumstances. Uncertainty about the status of public-private hybrids has led to many lawsuits nationwide. I believe it is crucial that the legislation clarify whether a given hybrid is subject to government accountability laws."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3261, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INGENUITY CORPORATION CHARTER," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Moses, Pine, Stevens and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 246-06 and H.B. No. 3060, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3060, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support.

"The purpose of this bill is to encourage small companies and researchers at nonprofit research institutes to work together in moving laboratory-developed technologies to the marketplace and to foster technology-based economic development.

"This measure authorizes the High Technology Development Corporation (HTDC) to provide grants to local businesses that receive a federal Small Business Technology Transfer Program award or grant or apply for a Small Business Innovation Research federal grant or Small Business Technology Transfer Program federal grant. It also appropriates funds to HTDC to increase the funding levels necessary to meet the current needs of the Hawaii Small Business Technology Transfer Grant Program and Phase 0 Competition Assistance Program.

"Further, the High Technology Innovation Corporation (HTIC) will be allowed to establish operational bank accounts in out-of-state locations, including foreign denomination accounts, until June 30, 2011. Moreover, HTIC will be exempted from Chapter 36, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), relating to the management of state funds, and Chapter 38, HRS, relating to deposits of public funds.

"HTDC and HTIC have played a big role in developing Hawaii's technology and science industries. This bill will help these agencies expand their influential role. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3060, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

H.B. No. 3060, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

The Chair then announced:

"Members of this Chamber, we'll recess until 1:45."

At 12:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:01 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 247-06 and H.B. No. 2419, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 2419, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At 2:02 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:04 o'clock p.m.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The first part of this measure is pretty good. It's having some tax measures needed by the Tax Department to do their job better and that's very good, but there are two other things in the bill that I object to.

"One, is setting up the State to collect Internet sales tax. It's called streamline taxing, but it's really Internet sales tax collection. And the other part of the measure that I find objectionable is that the State would collect the half a percent surcharge on the county tax for mass transit, which is one of the things that we promised that we would not do. We would leave it up to the counties and county homerule so I'm opposing it for that reason.

"Also, it looks like it would require 44 more people to collect the surcharge and 55 to collect the Internet sales tax. So we're adding about 100 new bodies just to administer the measure. Thank you."

At 2:06 o'clock p.m., Representative M. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:15 o'clock p.m.

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, and the report of the Committee was not adopted and H.B. No. 2419, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," did not pass Final Reading by a vote of 41 noes to 9 ayes, with Representatives Arakaki, Berg, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Ching, Chong, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Harbin, Halford, Herkes, Ito, Kahikina, Kawakami, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Marumoto, Meyer, Morita, Moses, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, Pine, Saiki, Schatz, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Stevens, Takumi, Tanaka, Thielen, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane, Yamashita voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

LATE INTRODUCTION

The following late introduction was made to the members of the House:

Representative Kahikina introduced from Waianae, Ms. Alice Greenwood, Ms. Patricia Patterson, Ms. Caroline Halloway, Ms. Farah Butangbacal and Ms. Lucy Gay.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 248-06 and H.B. No. 957, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 957, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On 248. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with just some comments. This is a tax relief measure. It is too small and it doesn't take effect until 2007, but the measure also has in it flood relief statewide, which is very good, and of course any tax relief is better than none. I just want to say that I wish it had increased the brackets in the standard deduction. If we increased the standard deduction 75% of the 2005 federal level, it would benefit another 375,046 tax filers. Increasing the standard deduction of 40% of the 2005 federal level would benefit 312,760 tax filers. The difference is 62,286 filers. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support. I am very pleased that the measure to give tax credit to victims of this recent flood is in here. In the beginning of the Session there was a bill to give a tax credit to the people in Manoa that had suffered a lot of losses and that was actually before we had all the rain starting in late February. But because my constituents were really slammed on this, and this is going to be extremely helpful, I'm most appreciative that it is in this bill now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 957, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 2:20 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 957, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, passed Final Reading.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 179-06 and S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Moses rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a tax increase on the citizens of Hawaii. I'm disappointed the bill appropriates no money toward educating our youth about smoking. Where is the money for smoking prevention programs? Hawaii's tax rates on these products are already among the highest in the nation. Even the Attorney General has the authority and stopgaps are in place to stop black marketeering. With the immensity of the Internet total stoppage of a black market created by this large tax increase on cigarettes is unrealistic.

"This tax is not a reliable funding mechanism. The UH School of Medicine, the Emergency Medical Service Special Fund, Trauma Care Fund, DOH, whom this bill will benefit, will not have a regular flow of money, year to year, from this tax increase because we are supposedly stopping or reducing the smoking. If the Body really is concerned about people's health and not about funding special products through this tax increase, we should look at banning tobacco in its entirety. And we should not look at raising taxes on an addictive product that we know many people will buy even if the prices rise. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in favor of this measure, but I'd like to express some reservations. I am for clean air and for abolition of secondhand smoke so I will be voting for this measure.

"However, as a rock-ribbed Republican, I am unhappy about voting for a tax increase. And I am also angry, angry because we were promised, I believe in a legislative hearing that private funds would be raised to erect the Cancer Center.

"The former President of the University of Hawaii assured legislators that he would personally find the money. And with that promise and on that premise the medical community and lawmakers developed expectations that a home for the Cancer Center would be a bricks and mortar reality very soon. The money never materialized. And I don't think I was the only angry legislator in this building when we realized that. I will try and forget about history and look forward to a healthier Hawaii, but I'm still a reluctant yes."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm still forming my thoughts. I stand in support, strong support of this measure. One great reason to pass this bill is that fewer children will start smoking. Fewer children in Hawaii. There are a lot of reasons and I'm not going to get into all of them. I would remind my colleagues, most respectfully, across the aisle, and I really mean that, that the Surgeon General, a Republican, and our Governor, a Republican, sat across from me, sat across from my Chair and said they like this bill. They're supporting this bill. Fewer people are going to smoke. We're going to have a Cancer Research Center. Health is going to improve in the State of Hawaii and I really think we should be very proud of this, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. I'm going to point out several things to my colleagues and let me start with the idea is smoking a right or a privilege? I know we had this discussion last week that yes, people have a right to smoke, but not around me. So we had the discussion about smoking in public places. But when I talk about smoking a right or a privilege, I want to equate it to the fact is it a right to drive cars or not.

"So the reality is, one of my colleagues said, do we tax people for the benefits they receive. So should we tax people who like to smoke cigarettes because they enjoy it? So I am equating it to roads. Should we tax people who drive cars on roads, and not only that, cars that have carbon dioxide, which is bad air? So if we're starting it to move in this Legislature and in this State about let's tax people who contribute to bad air, I think we can look to industrial users, we can look at people who drive cars. We can look at fireworks. Things that create smoke. We can actually then go one step farther about bad air. What is bad air?

"If you talk about people that have asthma, I totally respect their feelings that they don't want smoke around them because it really harms them, and I agree with that. So this thing about public places, but again I like designated places for smokers. But what I'm getting at, is if we have people that have problems with asthma and they're concerned about bad air, I think we should maybe even look at perfumes because I have worked with people who have sensitivities to perfumes. So I think we have a long way to go if we are going to be protecting people with their health."

"And my concern about the cigarette tax increase is to really be honest about what we're doing. I think it's a tax increase. I don't think it's about stopping people from smoking. Yes, I agree with the argument that children may not be able to afford cigarettes, but we're passing laws that say they can't consume them, they can't buy them, hopefully people won't give them cigarettes. But the reality is children look at role modeling, and smoking is, in my opinion, always going to exist, always.

"I want to relate to my colleagues that I had the privilege in Borneo to go up river and visit a tribe. And I was sitting there. I was there for three days and they were smoking and I asked what it was and they said it was banana leaf. That they actually cured the banana leaves over the fire, rolled them up, and smoked them. And I thought well that's kind of interesting. Why would they do this? I mean no one introduced cigarettes to them. It's just something they wanted to do I suppose and they enjoyed.

"And then one of the people there said, 'Well come out in the jungle, I want to go for a walk.' So we went on this walk and he shows me all these plants and he said that this plant is for headaches, and this plant is for stomachaches. And this plant is if you get a cut, that you squeeze the juice and you put it on it. And he said, 'Our pharmacy exist here for us and we have learned over time.' And so what I'm saying is I don't think tobacco leaves are bad. I think they grew and people just learned to enjoy them and maybe it is a stimulant but I would argue ..."

Representative Morita rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Evans continued, stating:

"But I would argue that tobacco leaves may be a stimulant, but coffee can be a stimulant, sugar can be a stimulant, chocolate can be a stimulant. I know people who say when they're stressed out they go and eat fast food because it's a comfort food, because it changes their mood.

"So I mean why are we acting as if it's such a bad thing when it's natural in nature? And I will argue what I said the other day that it's maybe the addictives. Why aren't we looking at what they're putting in these things? Maybe that is the issue that we should really go for and say that this is intolerable what you do in terms of adding things, enhancing things. Maybe that's the problem. But I believe it is a natural product that grows and has grown forever, and maybe someday with biotechnology we're going to have someone come out and say there's actually a health benefit to it.

"I grew up with family. I only smoked for about three years when I was young, but I grew up with family that I've had pipe smokers, cigar smokers, chewers, snuffers, and people that smoked and it's just something that's been around me. And I don't believe the argument that I'm going to die from all that smoke I've been exposed to. Sometimes I think I might die from stress, because I see stress as really hard on people physically. And so I'm still not convinced but I have a lot of respect that have asthma, have problems with it, and I believe we do have to address it.

"But this tax increase, I just think people should call it what it is. I think it is a tax increase. And let's talk about it as a tax increase. Why did people want the taxes? Because they want to build a Cancer Research Center? The University, I mean this amazes me. I was in a Committee hearing and the University, unfortunately, we had testimony where the President is saying, 'According to the Constitution, we're supposed to have autonomy and operate and manage our own affairs.' So you would think from that argument they would say, 'Butt out. Let us do what we have to do and accomplish what we want to accomplish.' And yet then they come here and they say, 'We need general fund money. We need money from you to construct what we want.' So it's kind of like they want their cake and eat it too.

"So when people came, when Mr. Vogel came to talk to me about this, I really couldn't understand. I said, 'Have you looked at where you're going to get revenue to do your Cancer Research Center other than tobacco tax?' They hadn't looked. So they're really banking and counting on the cigarette tax to fund that. So if that's really what we're doing, looking for a revenue source to fund this, then I think we should say it.

"I just really think saying this is all about youth and I have to agree with the other speaker, if it is about youth, then why if we raised the cigarette tax is it only earmarked for our youth that are addicted on ice, addicted on drugs, because they're addicted on cigarettes. Why aren't we taking it where we think the money should go? So I just really feel it's been framed wrong and that is really why I want to vote no on this. Thank you."

Representative Arakaki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, this is and we can be upfront about it-this is the second 'silver bullet' in our strategy to prevent people from smoking, and to convince people to quit. And one need only to look at the bill and read the purpose clause. In the United States, it cost about $7.18 for each pack of cigarettes sold in terms of healthcare. So smoking has proven to cost the healthcare system, a lot more money than what is put in. And this healthcare cost, of course, is overburdening the already rising cost of healthcare. In Hawaii, this amounts $526 million in healthcare expenses and productivity.

"There is no intention to hide that this is a tax because the studies have shown that the taxes on cigarettes do prevent young people from becoming daily smokers and that is who we want to target, our young people. Because we want them to not start. To keep them from start smoking because we know that cigarettes are highly addictive, once you start, it's harder to quit.

"And, yes we knew the tobacco plant is not poisonous, but when you put together all the products and products that are sold separately that would be highly poisonous. Not only that, the studies have already shown that cigarettes are highly carcinogenic in nature. There's no refuting the fact. So anyone who makes the conscious decision to smoke, is not only consciously trying to kill himself, but in the end they can also kill others as well with second-hand smoke.

"Yes, there are beneficiaries from this tax, but I think the Conferees and your Health Committee, Mr. Speaker, hopefully in its wisdom tried to create a nexus between the proceeds of this tax and those who benefit. I believe the Cancer Center, our Trauma Care Fund, our Emergency Services Fund, and our Community Health Centers are, and can prove their nexus in terms of not only preventing smoking, but also providing for those who become victims from the ravages of smoking.

"And so yes, I don't think there is any hiding what's in this bill. But the irony is we don't want the beneficiaries to become addicted like people are addicted to cigarettes to the proceeds of this tax. In fact, the health advocates would be happy if we collect less taxes because that would mean a decrease in smokers. So yes, that is the intention. We were not hiding it. I don't see how we're hiding that fact, but it is a tax. But I think it's a tax that will benefit the future of Hawaii especially our young people.

"And finally, Mr. Speaker, I know that there was something that was distributed to the Members and just so that there's no misinterpretation, this is not tied to this bill. It was tied to a Resolution that we have passed earlier with the vision of a smoke-free Hawaii by the 2015. So I hope no one made the connection that this is trying to lobby any of you on this measure because that was not the intention. If anybody was offended by that, I apologize. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. It's not that I'm against the Cancer Research Center. I know they do very good work and they get some great grants. And I think they will continue whether this bill passes or not. My real concern is that this is increase in tax. And it's quite a large increase. Right now the tax on the book is 8 cents per cigarette. 20 cigarettes in a pack that's $1.60 in State tax. That doesn't include federal tax. But this bill will increase it by a penny every year for 5 years so you'll be up to 13 cents a cigarette and that will raise the price or increase the tax by a dollar.

"Hawaii already is like number one in the nation for taxing the poorest amongst us. With the tax bill that we just passed, we might move to five or six because they are going to get the tax relief that we are passing is going to be it's aimed at the people on the lower end so that is good. But we still would be number six. We're way up there. And oftentimes people who do a lot of manual labor or working out there, they're smokers. And so I think that this tax is going to in a disproportionate way, be collected from again people who don't have any, or very little discretionary income. And I think it's going to be a disproportionate amount that is going to fall on their shoulders. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote with strong reservations on this measure. And with respect to the Representative from Kalihi Valley, who to me is a great advocate of health and has been all these years. I'm certainly going to miss him when he leaves. However, I think it's ironic that we are speaking about the group that they count on the tax and that would be money will be forwarded to the Cancer Society and Cancer Center for the help. And yet Members and Mr. Speaker, we're not getting to the core of the problem, which is substance abuse.

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, substance abuse. Cigarette smoking kills more people than all the other drugs put together. Heroin, marijuana, cocaine. It's a lot more addictive and science has proven it. Heroin certainly much more than marijuana. And yet we allow this substance abuse to continue and we benefit from it by the tax that we charge with the premise that this is going to cure and help to alleviate the problem of cancer, cancer of the lungs, and respiratory conditions, cardiac condition. But we continue to and allow it to go on so it's kind of a hypocrisy in a way, Members. Hypocrisy.

"If you don't like cigarette smoking that way, let's ban it. Let's call it what it is, substance abuse, Members. But let's not continue to provide increasing taxes so we can enjoy the revenue, and at the same time postulate that we are doing good for society. Members, we are not. We're acting as a partner to this behavior that we have going on. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be in opposition to this measure. And I wish I could say more than what the prior speaker said, and I unfortunately am dumbfounded because he said what I was going to say. So please enter a very strong no. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting no and I request that the words of the Speaker Emeritus be enter into the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"We heard that this is a tax and I am a person that is not opposed to tax. However, not all taxes are good. Specifically when they are oppressive, discriminatory and in this case punitive. The end does not always justify the means. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 2961 with some concerns and reservations. This measure seeks to increase the cigarette tax for the use of things like funding the Cancer Research Center and other medical services. While I do believe that these programs that this bill seeks to fund are beneficial for the people of Hawaii and deserves these funds, passage of this measure could potentially cause harm to both our citizens and our economy.

"We must be careful when increasing cigarette taxes. Although studies show that increased taxes reduce legal cigarette sales, it can lead to an increase in the gray and black market for cigarettes. Should this happen, the increased taxes neither deter smoking, nor increase revenues for the Cancer Research Center, trauma care and community health services.

"While I strongly support these programs and the tax increase that these programs aim to fund, I believe we must curb tobacco smoking amongst our population, especially amongst our youth. We must be aware of the possibility of these gray and black market cigarette trade that might come about. Any increase in cigarette taxes go hand in hand with discouraging illegal cigarette sales. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This particular measure wasn't that easy to decide on, but I am in opposition. I look at the overall tax issue coming out of this Session and I have to vote no on this bill. Higher taxes on cigarettes have been linked to stifling teen smoking. The money from this tax will pay for wonderful programs and if we were serious about funding them, we should fund them through the general fund.

"So let's take a look at the overall tax issue. We started out with $650 million surplus this year."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Finnegan, can you confine your remarks to the 6-cent increase tied to the cigarette tax that is before us."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't know if I can because in regards to taxes, and regards to our budget, and the increase in taxes, you can't look at it in a bubble. It affects each other."

Speaker Say: "Well this is a specific legislation dealing with a tax increase on cigarettes addressing six different areas of concerns that the Members of this Chamber have. So could you address it as a point by point. First the increase of 1 cent per year for the next 6 years. And secondly, discuss for the Members your concerns in regards to those programs that you support or do not support. That's the discussion we have here this afternoon."

Representative Finnegan: "Okay, I understand, Mr. Speaker. And I will try to do that. It's just when I take a look at taxes, Mr. Speaker, this is an increase in taxes."

Speaker Say: "In the area of cigarette tax."

Representative Finnegan: "Which affects overall tax spending, which also affects overall tax increases."

Speaker Say: "It may and it may not. It depends on the consumption or the sale of the cigarette."

Representative Finnegan: "Okay, Mr. Speaker. I will proceed. Cigarette taxes affect the poor the most. I've been spending some time getting to know some of the homeless in my district, and I don't think that this tax will stop them from smoking. However, even cigarette tax increases grow government and slow down economies."

"I know that this measure will pass and will move forward, and I hope that it brings all the good it promises by stopping teen smoking, and building the Cancer Research Center, and funding emergency medical services, trauma care, and community health centers. However, they will have to do it without my vote. Mr. Speaker, it is a big picture."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in strong support and I would like to have the comments of the Chair of Health entered in the Journal as mine. You know I'm in support, Mr. Speaker, because my father, bless his soul, he's as strong as an ox, and his vice was smoking. No matter how much we tell him to quit smoking, he's a chain smoker. And the good that's coming out of this bill is that finally we're going to have a Cancer Research Center here to augment what we have at John A. Burns School of Medicine. I hope we take a look and hopefully one day we can cure cancer. And basically cigarettes are a vice to have it for people who grew from early childhood until now. So I'm basically right now in support and ask my colleagues to support it. It is a tax, but a tax goes a long way. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some reservations. Thank you. I very much support the prevention of cancer and I agree with the American Cancer Society that we should work towards ending cancer and death by the year 2015. I do have some reservations though that pretty much mirror the Representatives from Makawao so I would ask that the words of the Representative from Makawao be enter as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I'd like the words of the House Chair to be inserted in the Journal as if they were my own and some additional written comments. What I'd like to say is that there are good taxes and bad taxes, and this tax in the long run will help people. And if the revenues from the cigarette tax decrease, we'll have a savings because of the healthcare cost that we won't be having to pay for. Anybody who has ever seen somebody die of end-stage lung disease or lung cancer, I don't think could be against this tax. And I have. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. There is no doubt in my mind that this is the right thing to do. An increase in the tobacco tax has been shown to decrease the rate of smoking in many instances. The potential decrease in revenues to the beneficiaries of the tax, because of fewer cigarettes being purchased, will be offset by fewer medical costs in the long run."

"I am happy to see the revenues going to health research and community needs such as trauma care and emergency medical services. I believe this nexus makes the bill more palatable because the money will not go to the general fund. Millions and millions of dollars go up in smoke yearly – if we can make a small dent in the numbers of smokers while at the same time benefiting the community, this bill is worth passing."

Representative Stevens rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Just briefly, I have been voting with reservations all along on this measure, but today I would like to vote aye. And the reason is the Cancer Research Center really provides the nexus for me to vote for a tax increase. And I'm really kind of looking at this as a user fee. Maybe that's my own way of justifying it, but in my mind it's a user fee. It's only charged to the people who choose to smoke. And I can see that the proceeds going to the Cancer Research Center is a very good nexus very good connection for this tax and a very good use, so I'm going to vote yes on this today."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Senate Bill No. 2961, Conference Draft 1. This bill would discourage smoking, especially by young people, by increasing the tax on cigarettes and allocating funds to effective sources in the prevention and treatment of disease and injury."

"Mr. Speaker, I have long been a supporter of raising the tax on cigarettes. The record will show that I have either introduced, or co-sponsored such legislation over the past four (4) legislative sessions. Some may ask why have I done this. I have supported these bills because I strongly believe that tobacco poses a constant threat to the health and welfare of our citizens, and any mechanism that will discourage the use of tobacco in our State is a good thing."

"My colleagues across the aisle have objected to this bill on grounds that:

- It will hurt our businesses;
- It will hurt our economy;
- It will chase away tourists from Japan and Korea; and
- It will limit the personal liberties of our citizenry.

"None of these arguments are new and, in my humble opinion, none are compelling."

"According to the American Cancer Society, all 50 states and the District of Columbia impose an excise tax on cigarettes. These taxes range from a high of $2.46 per pack in Rhode Island to a low of 7 cents per pack in South Carolina. The national average for state cigarette excise taxes (as of September 1, 2005) was 89.8 cents per pack. This is an increase of about 6 cents per pack since January 1, 2005."

"The states with the highest cigarette taxes include New York ($1.50/pack), Massachusetts ($1.51/pack), Alaska ($1.60/pack), and Washington state ($2.025/pack), all of which rely upon their tourism industries as a major element of their economies. I seriously doubt that tourist think twice about going to New York, Massachusetts, Alaska, or Washington State because it costs more to buy their cigarettes."

"Currently, Hawaii has the 11th highest cigarette excise tax in the nation -- $1.40. If this bill is enacted, the cigarette tax will increase 20 cents per year for the next six years. If no state raises its cigarette tax during this time period, Hawaii's cigarette tax will surpass Rhode Island's as the highest in the nation."

"My colleague from Makakilo has argued that this bill unfairly penalizes persons who consume a substance that is "legal". Yet, there are countless products that are regulated in a similar manner because the use of such products have been found to pose a significant threat to the health and welfare of our citizens. The most obvious example of this is the liquor tax.

"In my opinion, the benefits of this tax increase greatly outweighs any perceived negative impacts on our economy or personal liberties. In fact, the passage of this bill reaffirms our commitment to making Hawaii the "Health State". I think a lot of people come to Hawaii because they long for our healthy environment and healthy lifestyles.

"Lastly, to those who have raised the question of whether there is a suitable "nexus" between the tobacco tax, cancer research, and federally qualified health centers, I agree with my colleague from North Kona and Keauhou that the use of tobacco (and second hand smoke) not only increases the prevalence of cancer in our citizenry, but also asthma, and other chronic pulmonary diseases that burden our hospitals and community health centers in the form of increased indigent care.

"For these reasons, I respectfully urge my colleagues to support this important measure."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I support this bill. This is a solid proposal that will raise the cigarette tax for worthy programs such as the University of Hawaii Cancer Research Center, the Community Health Centers and Emergency Medical Services.

"Although I whole-heartedly support the Cancer Research Center and the efforts of Director Carl Vogel and his team, I wanted to re-educate our colleagues about the reason why he needs the funds to construct the Cancer Research Center in Kakaako.

"In 2001 after the September 11 attacks, we came back into Special Session to approve the use of tobacco fund monies to support the construction of the UH Medical School. We changed the law and allowed for the use of these monies to pay the debt service on a $150 construction bond.

"The commitment from the University and then-President Evan Dobelle was to raise an additional $150 million to construct the Cancer Research Center and to renovate the now vacated Biomedical Sciences Building on the Manoa Campus.

"Dobelle was quoted in an issue of the University's magazine Malamalama. In the magazine, he said: "For the medical school, our use of the $150 million from the state's $1.2 billion tobacco fund is contingent on raising a matching sum from private sources."

"In addition to the commitment to fundraise the matching $150 million, University officials also said that they would not come to the Legislature for additional funds for the operation of the new buildings.

"Unfortunately, after the new buildings were completed, the University requested and the Legislature provided an additional $6 to $7 million per year for the operations of the new buildings.

"After an informational briefing of the House Higher Education Committee, former Dean Ed Cadman wrote to me regarding the operating costs of the new facilities.

"At this time, our best guess would be that operation and maintenance costs of the facility will be between $6-7 million annually," Cadman wrote on March 25, 2003. "We expect to primarily fund these costs through F&A (Facilities and Administration) cost recovery from sponsored projects," he added.

"We understand your expectation that the new School campus will be financially self-sufficient and the importance of having the ability to accurately measure and evaluate the School's return on investment," Cadman wrote.

"I had an opportunity to meet with President McClain in February 2005. At this meeting, we again discussed the UH Medical School. He wrote back with these comments: 'I do want to acknowledge that with regard to the funding of the operating costs of the research building and the education building of the John A. Burns School of Medicine at its new location in Kakaako, initial commitments made in 2001 at the time the construction of the new facility was approved -- namely, that the University needed only the Legislature's approval for the $150 million bond issue and could handle the operating costs on its own -- have been shown with the passage of time, and the development of a huge surge in enrollment at Manoa (a surge which you correctly point out was encouraged by the past UH administration's policies), to have been overly optimistic.'

"Our biennium budget request includes operating funds for the medical school's facilities in Kakaako," McClain added.

"In an op-ed piece that I wrote for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin on July 6, 2003, I wrote:

Legislators now are worried about Dobelle's commitment to raise $150 million in private funds to match state spending for the new medical school in Kakaako. At an October 2001 legislative hearing, Dobelle was asked what would happen if the university doesn't raise the $150 million. "I don't think that way," he answered. "We will raise the $150 million."

Fifteen months later, in a January 2003 legislative hearing, the president again was asked to update the Legislature about the fund-raising efforts for the medical school. "We will raise the funds," was Dobelle's answer once again. In March, legislators learned that only $500,000 had been raised to date -- less than 1 percent of the total promised.

On May 1, the Legislature finally received a "preliminary fund-raising plan" for the campaign. Despite taking more than one year to formulate this preliminary plan, Dobelle admitted that it must be presented to the Board of Regents for its "review and approval prior to any presentation to donor prospects." To date, the regents have yet to receive this proposal.

"I bring back this history to ensure that there is some historical record of our latest decision. As I mentioned earlier, I support the use of cigarette tax funds for the construction of the Cancer Research Center. I support Carl Vogel and his team of researchers. And I support the mission and efforts of the Cancer Research Center.

"However, years from now when we look back on this particular bill and our allocating of funds for three years to the Cancer Research Center, I don't want us to again be placed in a predicament to increase funding for the operations of these new buildings. The University of Hawaii and their leaders must be held accountable to their commitments. The taxpayers and in this case, smokers, deserve no less."

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Evans, Finnegan, Harbin, Meyer, Moses, Pine and Sonson voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 2:50 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 2961, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 2461, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 2461, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on this measure, strong support and I'd like to thank the Chair of Health for the floor amendment on this bill. And also I like to insert written comments to the Journal."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 2461 S.D.1, H.D. 1, C.D. 2. Mr. Speaker, this Senate bill authorizes funds from the Temporary Assistance for Needy programs. The Hui Malama Learning Center provides alternative education programs for at-risk youths.

"The Hui Malama program includes the GED foundations and academic tutorials for our needy citizens. The Maui Economic Opportunity, Inc. is a private, nonprofit community action agency. Its mission is to help the low-income elderly, children, and youth; people with disabilities; immigrants; other disadvantaged people; and the general public to help them become self-sufficient. Maui Economic Opportunity, Inc. also provides transitional services to inmates at the Maui Community Correctional Center.

"Adult Friends for Youth is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to redirecting youth from delinquent gang behaviors into pro-social behaviors, allowing them to merge successfully with the social and economic mainstream.

"Baby Hui another worthy organization provides low-income and teenaged parents with a positive support network through its positive parenting support groups, including neighborhood- and high school-based support groups for parents and children from birth to age three.

"Maui Youth and Family Services provides adolescent mental health programs, including components for pregnancy prevention and family strengthening.

"The Oral Health Institute of the Pacific program was opened in 2004 to increase access to oral health services by providing clinical dental services and case management to special needs patients, and underserved children and adults. These underserved children and adults are Medicaid, QUEST, or SCHIP recipients or are uninsured, and have not had access to oral health services in many years. The underserved population includes geriatric patients, children with special needs, adult mental health patients, renal dialysis patients, heart transplant patients, persons with HIV/AIDS, former inmates, and the homeless.

"The underserved population by and large cannot access dental services in their communities. This is due to dentist non-participation with Med-QUEST, low Medicaid program reimbursement rates for dental services at only twenty-five per cent of the cost of treatment, and excessive paperwork for billing Medicaid. Accordingly, the number of dental providers who actively treat these patients is alarmingly small. As an example, on Maui, there are fewer than five dentists who see these 14,765 patients. Approximately half are children under age twenty-one. One pediatric dentist who practices on Maui participates with Med-QUEST. Sometimes children are flown to Oahu, accompanied by a parent or guardian, for dental treatment. This requires extensive coordination and case management and can be very traumatic for the patient, and costly to the State.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, this Senate Bill addresses those hospitals located in rural areas; Molokai General Hospital, Kahuku Hospital, Hana Community Health Center, and Waianae Comprehensive Health Center provide these hospitals with additional $500,000.00 to assist their operational cost. Due to their location, immediate medical care is extremely vital in providing our citizens the medical care needed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tanaka rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tanaka's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of SB 2461 CD2, Relating to Grants. I have witnessed firsthand the dedicated and hard work performed by Hui Malama Learning Center, Maui Economic Opportunity, Inc. and Maui Youth and Family Services, Inc. All three organizations work tirelessly to help needy families and other disadvantaged persons on Maui. I am pleased that each organization is receiving funding this Session to sustain these valuable projects aimed at improving the lives of those in need.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Just want to thank the Health Committee so much for this bill. I can speak for Waianae Coast Comprehensive in saying they are the largest employer on our coast providing critical care and so this bill means everything for Waianae. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in strong support. I'm very appreciative that this bill was amended and it gives vital support to the Kahuku Hospital. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2461, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GRANTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused

At 2:52 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 2461, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 218, SD 4, HD 1, CD 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 218, SD 4, HD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 218, SD4, HD1, CD2. Mr. Speaker, this bill addresses the shortage of paramedics in the State by assisting paramedics who wish to advance in their field by completing a state-qualified mobile intensive care technician program.

"The expansion of Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Statewide, the aging EMS provider population, and the continued need to support our communities requires that efforts be made to ensure that all paramedic students throughout the State have equal access to educational opportunities. Currently the County of Hawaii has stipend funds available and this piece of legislation will provide support for the other counties through a stipend program.

"Students from rural communities and distant sites have access through distant education to participate in paramedic education, but sacrifice significantly when required to travel to Oahu to complete their clinical and internship phases of paramedic education. Kapiolani Community College makes all efforts through constant review of resources on the Neighbor Islands to minimize student off-island experience. The lack of clinical sites on the Neighbor Islands requires that students complete their experience on Oahu, which is a costly expense for students.

"Studies show that most students who attend the Paramedic Program are older, have families and community responsibilities. Oftentimes, although qualified, the expense of relocating to Oahu precludes the students from completing the program. This is counter-productive in efforts to produce quality graduates for the Neighbor Island communities.

"Access to the program through a stipend program will not resolve all the issues related to the current personnel shortage in Hawaii, but it is an important component to maximize opportunities for students.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, in this bill is an appropriation of $1 million for the helicopter medical transport service for the island of Oahu. Mr. Speaker, the U.S. Army's 68th Medical company will soon be deploying to the Middle East leaving many residents without this life-saving and vital service. These military aeromedical helicopters have transported over 7,000 patients and saved countless lives. This is a service needed in the community that no one can do without. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this measure, strong support. This bill would appropriate a million dollars to provide funding for helicopter medical transport services that are so very much needed on this island. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 218, SD 4, HD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused

At 2:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 218, SD 4, HD 1, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 2:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Kahikina rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. Mr. Speaker, this bill that addresses conservation and management of the sale of opihi reminds me of a lyric that was composed by Craig Kamahele. It goes like this.

Sounds like thunder.
Gotta head for the high ground.
White water coming. No fool around.
Opihi man in the sun.
Opihi man grab your bag and run.
Opihi man another swell is coming your way.
Opihi man another swell is coming your way.

Opihi bill passing.
Gotta stay on the high ground.
Couple years later. Get more opihi around.
Opihi still no can sell.
Opihi man grab your bag and run.
Opihi man another swell is coming your way.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. That's a hard act to follow. My reservations have to do with the fact that this bill changed significantly to include now Niihau. And because of the lifestyle on Niihau, the exemption was really important for them, so I rise with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have similar reservations. I'm just concerned with the limit of half a pound per person. You know, if you have a family, they have a big gathering, maybe there's only two guys that are going to go and gather. I don't know if that's enough. And I'm just concerned too about the impact on cultural and gathering rights where bartering was permitted. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that this might be the beginning of a new industry whereby opihi might be cultivated. I've spoke to a gentleman from the Department of Land of Natural Resources, Oceans Division and he informed me that should this bill pass, it might be, it might make it financially feasible to begin commercial cultivation and sale of opihi. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support, but I have the same reservation that the Representative from Aina Haina has, that this now also includes Niihau, which in the original form, it did not. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I also have similar reservations and would like to adopt the words of the Representative Aina Haina as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, SD 2, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROHIBITING SALES OF OPIHI," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representative Chang and Tsuji voting no, and with Representative Stonebraker being excused

At 2:56 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 2006, SD 3, HD 2, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 236-06 and H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Harbin rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. I want to publicly thank the House and the Senate Conferees for passing this excellent measure to the repeal of the gas cap. This is a long journey that we've gone through in this Body. As the only Member to have voted against the original gas cap repeal and the only person of this Body to vote against the aborted amendment yesterday, I believe the people of Hawaii and the businesses of Hawaii are going to greatly benefit from the depths and breadths of this new bill. Thank you so much and thank you for allowing me to be kind of a voice in the wilderness."

Representative Moses rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support but with reservations. Mr. Speaker, the gas cap has been in effect since last summer. And as predicted it has failed. It's not surprising because history shows and history tells us that caps, price caps never work, never have worked, never will work. This one was no different.

"I opposed the gas cap since its very inception. Every time we talked about it on this Floor and every vote we took. And it's a bad law, it's poorly conceived, it's poorly written. And here we are today and I thank this Body immensely for seeing the light and understanding the problems it has caused.

"The gas cap was enacted because of claims that Hawaii's high gas prices were due to collusion. And it was ignoring the fact that our gas tax is the highest in the nation and the cost of doing business in Hawaii is also very high for the same reasons.

"So from week to week what do we have under the gas cap? We had prices that have taken huge swings and that was for reasons not connected to Hawaii and I won't go into all those things about where it was linked to, we all know that, we heard it. But the gas cap did raise prices higher than we would have ever imagined, I believe. It cost us tens of millions of dollars and increased the prices of almost everything in Hawaii.

"This outcome was probably expected and I remind you of the purpose statement of that bill. Quote, "It should be clearly understood that the objective of this act is not to guarantee lower gasoline prices." Well if we're not guaranteeing lower gasoline prices then why were we passing it?

"Well this measure was bad, should be ended, I would prefer an outright appeal. For various reasons, we didn't get quite there, but at least this measure before us suspends the gas cap. It also contains what I believe is some worthwhile provisions to gather data to determine once and for all if there is any collusion. That part is fine.

"Another problem is that in the price-tracking portion of the bill, I'm sad that, I think because of the Senate's insistence, we've included

Singapore's prices into the formula. And this will result I believe in misleading data being included in the calculations. You have to consider Singapore prices to be deceitful in its design to make any reimposed gas cap look workable. This artificial lower looking price will have no relationship to the actual price of Singapore gas once it is imported here to Hawaii.

"I want to read just briefly and this will be the end of what I have to say. This is from the Honolulu Advertiser today. It said, 'The numbers of the Senator from Mililani,' meaning Menor, 'are arbitrary and for that reason are dangerous and misleading for consumers.' That's a quote from Representative Kirk Caldwell. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure with grave reservations. I hope the Members of this Body will vote with reservations to acknowledge that the flaws of this Conference Draft did not go unnoticed by this House. Mr. Speaker, there's no one more than your Chair on Energy and Environmental Protection that wanted to see the gas cap work. I truly believe that the market power of certain oil companies have led to market abuses in this oligopoly market. But I have wavered in my support of the gas cap and now support, at the very least a suspension of the gas cap, which is what this Conference Draft will do in part.

"At this time, there is no political or public will to have the gas cap continue. Like with any complex regulatory action we need accurate information and a willingness to massage the policy to work. We do not have the information nor the will to effectively administer the gas cap. Therefore the only prudent action is suspension.

"Mr. Speaker, we need to deeply examine and honestly answer that after several months of this experiment of trying to tie our gasoline prices to outside markets, if this is in the best interest of Hawaii's consumers.

"While I may have wavered in my support of the gas cap, from the inception of this policy, I have always believed that the State needed to develop an expertise in understanding this complex market. Transparency and setting up the petroleum industry monitoring, analysis and reporting program within the Public Utilities Commission is necessary to gain this knowledge.

"The purpose clause of this measure states, and I quote, "The legislature finds that the establishment and allocation of adequate resources for a vigorous state watchdog system to monitor and oversee the petroleum industry and gasoline market is a prerequisite to ensure an efficient market." This Conference Draft is flawed. And while we make this finding, we did not provide the required staff positions and only funded such a vigorous watchdog system with $1.00.

"The floor amendment offered on Tuesday would have corrected this flaw and we could have been sincere about our policy statement to establish a vigorous state watchdog system to monitor this industry and market. Unfortunately, Senate action on this CD1 forces us to vote on this bill as is to preserve the suspension part.

"Now it is doubtful that the offered transparency and monitoring of this industry will occur in the next year as I don't expect the Public Utilities Commission to expend its funds or staff resources, collected from fees from other regulated industries, to cover this unfunded mandate. This Committee Chair is way too familiar with the shortage of resources within the PUC to handle its current workload. It would be unfair to further burden this agency with an unfunded mandate, which the Senate failed to correct on Tuesday.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, this Conference Draft contains a gasoline pricing formula proposed by the Senate Consumer Protection and Housing Chair that was never properly vetted. While this Senate Chair stated publicly that he used the recommendations of the consultant for the Public Utilities Commission, ICF International, the consultants, stated that the Senate Chair misquoted its report as follows:

"ICF did not recommend the use of a Singapore price without a commensurate and market-based adjustment for real freight costs.

"ICF did not recommend elimination of the 4 cents per gallon location adjustment. Rather, they recommended increasing the factor to a market-based freight cost."

Representative Luke rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. And the third was ICF's margin estimation for the Dealer Tank Wagon class of trade was in line with the legislative recommendations of 18 cents per gallon, and they did not suggest a lower margin factor.

"Mr. Speaker, may I insert into the Journal the ICF International letter to the Chair of the Public Utilities Commission for the record. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, we should not put something as arbitrary as a proposed formula in law. Further, this flawed formula does not really hit on the real issues of trying to regulate this market. It only attempts to legitimize an artificial base that gives Hawaii's consumers unrealistic expectations of Hawaii's gasoline prices.

"Mr. Speaker, I remember a conversation I had with former Attorney General Earl Anzai four years ago when we were trying to structure the gas cap bill. I asked about using the Singapore gasoline spot market and suffice it to say that the idea was nixed by the Cayetano Administration because it was said to be unrealistically low for Hawaii's gasoline market. Again, ICF recommended that the Singapore spot be used with an adjusted freight cost added. The proposed formula does not make that adjustment.

"Mr. Speaker, one of the major problems with the current gas cap is our inability to get a true understanding of what it cost to refine gasoline in Hawaii. Therefore, we have relied on other spot markets as benchmarks. I have no doubt that Hawaii's refiners have learned to game the system early on taking more than their fair share of distribution and marketing margins forcing prices to the cap maximum. However, the Senate's formula does not directly address this problem, but squeezes the middleman, the distribution and marketing segment. Mr. Speaker, there is no doubt that there are some bad actors in this market, but nothing in this formula addresses the actions of the bad actors and gaming of the system.

"Mr. Speaker, there has been too much rhetoric about excessive profits of big oil companies mixed in with the debate about gas caps. Yes, we're talking about fruit, but comparing apples and oranges. Let me try to give you an example. Big oil companies are making most of their money by producing crude oil, that is exploration and extraction. They invested in oil fields when crude oil prices were much lower, with the expectation that they could breakeven at, perhaps, $25. Some have argued $40 per barrel. Since the market price is now more than $70 per barrel, the extra money is likely pure profit. Is big oil manipulating inventory and supply to drive up global crude oil prices? That is something that is not going to be resolved in this arena or by the gas cap.

"In dealing with the gas cap we are only dealing with costs on the refining side, we cannot control the global market price of crude oil. The price of crude oil is the price of crude oil, which typically accounts for 55% of the cost of gasoline

"As State Legislators, we need to separate gasoline-pricing issues into what we can control and what is beyond our control. Rising crude oil prices due to global market, global supply and demand issues, geopolitical unrest and mainland gasoline supply disruptions are issues we cannot control. And, there are primary reasons. And these are the primary reasons for rising gasoline costs. Let me give you an example. Last October 13th, the Singapore gasoline spot market price was $1.77 per gallon. Last Friday, April 25th, that market closed at $2.03, an increase of 26 cents per gallon."

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. The price of Indonesian Minas crude was $51 per gallon in mid-October 2005. Yesterday, the price was over $70 per barrel. The price of crude oil is driving the cost of gasoline to post-Katrina/Rita levels, where during that time the mainland spot market rose because of supply disruptions. All of these events are out of our control, yet we are attempting to regulate gasoline pricing using these kinds of benchmarks because we don't have a firm grasp of what it cost to refine gasoline in Hawaii. And we don't have a firm grasp for good reasons. The primary output of our Hawaii refineries is jet fuel not gasoline. We buy a specific type of crude oil to maximize the output of jet fuel, not gasoline. These are not typical cost factors embedded in spot market prices. Hawaii is in an unique situation given our isolation and high dependency on air travel and the visitor industry.

"Mr. Speaker, as I mentioned before I truly wanted the gas cap to work, but there is no political will or public will to make it work. Given this situation, especially with our lack of understanding and information on this market, our best bet is to step back, learn the market through the established reporting system and then take an educated position on how best, and if necessary, to regulate the market with the lightest touch possible. I think we are all hopeful that through transparency this could modify market behavior to the benefit of consumers resulting in fair and reasonable gasoline pricing. But I don't believe this can happen or should happen without proper funding from the Legislature. Therefore, I urge my colleagues to support this measure, but with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Morita also submitted the following correspondence:

Dear Chairman Caliboso:

The statements in Senator Menor's editorial in today's Star Bulletin, and the quotes attributed to him in today's separate Star Bulletin article by B.J. Reyes, directly and indirectly imply that JCF's report is the basis for the recommended changes proposed in S.B. 2911 on the Gas Cap calculation. This is most assuredly not the case, as noted below:

3. Moreover, we understand S.B. 2911 recommends eliminating the 4 cpg location adjustment. ICF's report recommended increasing this factor as noted above to reflect a much more accurate assessment of the cost to deliver competitive products to Hawaii. The elimination of this factor, coupled with the inclusion of the Singapore prices in the formula, significantly misrepresents and underestimates the alternative competitive supply cost in Hawaii.

4. We also understand S.B. 2911 recommends lowering the marketing margin from 18 cpg to 14 cpg. ICF's report recommended a marketing margin factor that varied with the prior year mainland margins. Over time, the DTW margin that we recommended would have ranged from 14.4 cpg to 19.6 cpg as shown in Exhibit 3.18 of our report. This range is somewhat in line with the legislated 18 cpg for the marketing margin in H.R.S. 486b-13, and recommended by the PUC.

ICF believes that there is insufficient information available at this time to demonstrate whether the 18 cpg factor is appropriate, too high, or too low. ICF is currently studying this matter for the PUC, and we believe additional analysis of the data being gathered from the Parties' is needed before a legislative change should be made.

It concerns ICF that its report is being mis-quoted in a public in a public venue as follows:

- ICF did not recommend the use of a Singapore price without a commensurate and market-based adjustment for local freight costs.
- ICF did not recommend elimination of the 4 cpg location adjustment; rather, we recommended increasing the factor to a market-based freight cost.
- ICF's margin estimation for the DTW class of trade was in line with the legislated recommendation of 18 cpg, and we did not suggest a lower margin factor.

We are not aware of other measures in S.B. 2911 because we have been focused on the analysis work we are doing for the PUC. However, press reports are indicating that the Gas Cap formula under S.B. 2911 could result in a reduction of the Gas Cap price by 18-23 cps. Even if this formula is published only as a "monitor", the suppliers on Hawaii may feel that they may need to operate at those levels or be at risk to a full resumption of the Gas Cap Law. This could result in a threat to Hawaii's gasoline supply security. If suppliers have an option to achieve a higher price on the Mainland, ICF sees no reason why suppliers will not move Hawaii produced gasoline into Mainland markets where a higher price can be achieved. The proposed changes in the Gas Cap formula contained in S.B. 2911 will increase the incentive for suppliers to export gasoline by 18-23 cps.

As noted, this new formula is NOT based on recommendations by ICF, but improperly uses selected portions of ICF recommendations. ICF strongly agrees with Representative Morita and Representative Souki that any formula should be "left off the books until more pricing information can be gathered and studied".

Sincerely,

Thorne W O'Connor

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with a number of reservations. Mr. Speaker, I was one of the Co-Chairs of your Conference Committee on this bill and I must say that during my career this was probably one of the most frustrating and difficult negotiations I've ever been through. Two of your Co-Chairs, who were members of the Committee, in questions to the Senator were very on point and very analytical. The Senator's response was purely political and it's unfortunate that politics has gotten in the way of what's best for the people of this State.

"As you know, Mr. Speaker, your Conference Committee has spent many, many hours discussing this over the period of the week with some feeling that perhaps the status quo was better than this bill we're voting on today because of the convoluted requirements. But the overall acceptance of the public of a suspension of the gas cap, I think takes precedent over the other sections and I think that's important. Hopefully we can come back and correct these other portions next year.

"In the final analysis, we felt that we had to do something. We couldn't just walk away from the table and leave the status quo. And so, as you know, Mr. Speaker, we accepted the Senate version. I think it was at 3 minutes to 12:00, hoping that we could do an amendment on Tuesday to make the bill what it should be. I'm sure we had the votes in this Chamber, the Senate refused to go along with our request. And I think that that is not beneficial to the people of this State. And again I join with lead Chair in urging you to vote, but vote with reservations because I think the public acceptance of the suspension outweighs the problems that the Senate has put into this bill. Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Souki, as the lead Chair of the Conference, please proceed."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much and I accept full responsibility, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, first of all I want to thank you as the Speaker of the House and the Members of Leadership, in giving us the courage and the opportunity to repeal the gas cap. And that was the position of the House, to repeal. And we remained steadfast in that position all the way and so did the negotiators until the end. The good Chair from Environment worked really hard and was frustrated at the end because she believed in what she was doing. She believes that the formula was arbitrary and will not work, and I admire her. I had some differences with the Chair, and many differences in the past. But with her having the ability to change her position and to look as to what is best for the State, and to work diligently and hard for that, and for that I give her plenty of aloha, Madam Chair.

"And for the rest of the members, Representative Caldwell, who was a bone in the craw of the Chairman of the Senate Committee. In fact, I don't think the Senator wants to face him again. He showed his prowess as a tough negotiator. And of course Representative Herkes was there all the way, and Representative Moses as a manager.

"But more important, I have no apologies for this bill. I think it's a good beginning. Yes, we didn't get the funding for the transparency, but I appeal to the Governor's Office. And if she is sincere, as I believe she is, in getting transparency from the oil companies to know exactly what is the price, what are the cost items, that she would be able to move some money around and fund the positions. Find the $250,000 or more that it would take to get that transparency. I believe the Governor can do it if she has the will. And again, I ask the Minority to help us in this. To speak to the Governor and to get her to move the money around and get the transparency.

"And before I move on I want to say that I believe in a free market for the oil companies for the above reasons that were mentioned. We have global conditions that are beyond our control. But what we need to know is that it is in fact the refineries working on a cost factor where they're not getting exorbitant profits. And to some extent, I believe that because the market is hard, that the refineries are basically doing the best they can and I'm not in favor of them but let me give you a history of it."

Representative Lee rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Souki continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. Some years ago we had only one refinery in this State, and Governor Burns then provided the incentives to get another one and we got PRI. PRI remained for about 10 or 12 years and then it began to lose money. So PRI sold it to an Australian firm. A big conglomerate, worldwide and I worked with them for a few years when I was the Finance Chair and Speaker. And Mr. Speaker, they couldn't make it over here either. So Mr. Speaker, that speaks volumes of the kind of market that we have. How difficult it is.

"And then of course now we have Tesoro. Tesoro a couple years ago lost $5 million in its first or second year in operation. However, this past year, they made some money and I believe it may have been an unintended consequence from the gas cap where there was $15 million lost by the consumers that we paid, and I believe most the of money went to the refineries as an unintended consequence and hope that we can correct that. But I what I wish to stress here is that we have a very limited market. We have global conditions here and a cap is not going to work. What we need is pure transparency and again I beg the Governor if she could move some money around so that we can fund the respective positions. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"The Chair recognizes Representative Marumoto who was a manager of this Conference."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I don't think the Speaker Emeritus realized I was there since I was very quiet. But I would have spoken if allowed to. I am rising on this measure and expressing some reservations on the gas cap bill. It's a good news, bad news situation.

"First, the good news. We have suspension. Now the bad news. It's not repealed. Neither is it a carefully researched and deliberated bill. It was heard, re-thrown into the sausage factory machine by the Senate in the final moments of Conference Committee. The Singapore factor and other provisions of this version have not been debated or researched. That was the reason we had the amendment on Tuesday. This is a very inconsistent and ambiguous document.

"It talks of money, $500,000 to do the job. To collect the data and post a supposed price but it appropriates only a measly dollar. It gives the job to the PUC but with no money and no staffing to do the job. I don't see how the Governor could move $500,000, just give it to the PUC to do the job. We mandated them in this bill to have the PUC do it, but I think the Governor's hands will be tied.

"Despite the suspension it calls for the continued posting of gas cap prices, even if the new numbers are too low, untested, misleading, and just plain wrong. The public will mistakenly think that the low prices are realistic and achievable. The public will demand that the Governor end the suspension and go back to this new gas cap. It will cause the State government much grief if the Governor for some unforeseen reason must revert to this new gas cap law.

"I think we all realize that these prices are deceptive and when people compare it to the actual prices they will demand that the Governor go back to the gas cap because it is very misleading. But I'm sure we will be hearing about the supposed price under the gas cap from here until election day. Like many Legislators, I pride myself on passing well thoughtout legislation that's studied and deliberated and discussed, and this is not a well-drafted measure and it is embarrassing. Mr. Speaker, I am a very reluctant aye vote. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand with grave reservation and I'd like to echo the comments made by my good friend the Representative from Hanalei even though her remarks were almost as long as gas cap law itself. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations."

The Chair then stated:

"Please proceed, but are your comments similar to what others have already stated on the floor?"

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Yes, I don't want to repeat. I think you can understand what the reservations are. This is a good opportunity for me to express that the Republican Caucus has a clear conscious. We voted no on the gas cap back in 2002. Many of us voted no again in 2004. Well that was a bill to try to straighten out the formula. And we are extremely happy to see the suspension although we would have rather seen a repeal.

"Disappointment that with all the language in the bill about transparency and monitoring the petroleum industry, the PUC is given no money whatsoever. If the lead Conference Chair in the Senate had really wanted all these things done, he would have seen that there would be some money in this. With the surplus that we had and a great many bills that have passed with a lot more money than this, and for a subject that is this serious, the money should have been in there."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with grave reservations. And before I speak, Mr. Speaker, I wanted to incorporate the words from the Representative from, what's probably one of the most beautiful places in the world, the Hanalei area, as if they were my own."

The Chair then stated:

"So ordered, and the Chair will limit you to one minute because of that. Please proceed."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in part because of the last comment stated. To address the issue of high price of oil in our State, in our country, is not a partisan issue. It's not a Democrat issue. It's not a Republican issue. It's an issue we all try to address to help protect the consumers of our State and that's what we've been trying to do here, Mr. Speaker, for the past five to eight years. It's something the rest of the country is waking up to and we hear the debate on Capitol Hill now about how to deal with the high price of gas.

"Well our State has been dealing with that for many years, and we have been very bold in trying to address the problem. And we've taken very bold steps. And I think all of us here, Democrat or Republican, can be proud that we're proposing, trying to come up with solutions and seeing what works and doesn't work.

"For me, Mr. Speaker, when I started this Session, one of my constituents gave me a gas cap, which I put on and now is the time to take off that gas cap. I think, Mr. Speaker that we are ready to move forward and to do something different. And once before, Mr. Speaker, I think it's a beautiful quote that needs repeating so that people again don't think that we are being partisan. And it's something that one of our great presidents, Franklin Delano Roosevelt said when he took office in the middle of Depression and he said, "The country needs and demands bold, persistent experimentation. It is common sense to take a method and try it. If it fails, admit it frankly and try another. But above all, try something."

"And that's what we're doing here today, Mr. Speaker. We're trying something else at this point. We can be proud that we are trying. It's easy to throw out something and be creative, than to tear it down. And we heard comments today that we wish there was more in this legislation than currently is. The good new, Mr. Speaker, is we can come back next year and add additional things we wanted to put in here.

"In the end though, Mr. Speaker, the problem with oil isn't something that's going to go away. We see increasing demand around the world in communities and in countries like China and India. We see what's happening in Bolivia, Venezuela, and Iran. And in the end it's all of us, Mr. Speaker, who are part of the problem and that's that we are so reliant on oil.

"And while I almost never agree with our President, my President, your President and everyone else's President, I believe he is correct when he recently said, Mr. Speaker, that we are addicted to oil and we need to get off that addiction. And I think we can also be proud given the other legislation we passed this year to start to do that through the leadership and guidance of the Chair of the EEP and CPC. And that I'm hoping that in the future we can come back and even do much more. Become totally ethanol reliant in the future and turn our former sugar lands back into verdant green fields that also help us from exporting large sums of cash outside of our State.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I think we can have a great deal of pride about what we done here this Session and I think we will continue to experiment and continue to work hard to come up with solutions for our consumers so that everyone benefits. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure.

"H.B. 3115 would establish petroleum industry monitoring and analysis special fund, petroleum industry information reporting system and an unfair trade practices chapter. The legislation would also suspend enforcement of the gasoline price caps as of July 1, 2006 and repeal the price caps on January 1, 2008.

"I believe it is important to ensure the adoption of energy policies and programs that optimize the security, cost-efficiency, and environmental soundness of Hawaii's energy users.

"The transparency and rigorous reporting requirements are important and should've been emphasized more in this bill to help provide for more informed consumer choices, provide valuable data for policymakers, and allow the monitoring of the industry by appropriate government agencies to ensure that products are not unfairly priced. All of this information together could have supplied a comprehensive factual footing on which to base future policy decisions as we try to move away from fossil fuel dependence. Coupled with the establishment of tougher pricing laws, I believe the monitoring system can better protect consumer interests than the regulation of wholesale gasoline prices.

"Since the price cap took effect, prices have not been substantially lower or more stable, rather, prices have been more volatile. This measure is a positive step in the right direction in addressing the problem of price controls on gasoline."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations, asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations of HB 3115, Relating to the Petroleum Industry.

"Because of the instability in international oil markets, I do not think this is a good time to continue our local experiment with a gas cap. The standoff with Iran, the civil war in Iraq, the unrest in Nigeria, the after effects of Katrina and the ascendancy of Hugo Chavez in Venezuela have all contributed to high oil and gas prices all around the world – not to mention the energy needs of India and China.

"For the short period it was in effect, the gasoline price cap saw our prices change direction in concert with mainland prices – sometimes radically in a short period. The global petroleum market, however, is not likely to produce any long-term decline in prices; i.e. the overall trend will be an increase in prices at the pump. Despite this economic environment the public has little patience for a price cap that does not lower prices, especially with the opponents of the law insisting, with no evidence, that prices would be 'lower' without regulation. The law was tacitly sold as a price lowering measure, when in fact it was only an attempt to tie our prices to the ups-and-downs of a few mainland gasoline markets. It worked too well, one could say.

"Further, in our quest to wean our State from petroleum, artificially low prices on fuel are not going to speed our transition to renewable energy sources. Likewise, mass transit and urban planning issues will march to the same beat until the price of fuel rises to a point where the public demands a change in policy.

"Last, the bill before us provides for closer monitoring of the petroleum industry. If the transparency provisions are able to capture and publicize the data needed to judge if we are being 'gouged,' then that is obviously a good outcome. Just because the price of oil is going steadily up, it should not give license to the petroleum industry to enjoy large (and growing) profit margins.

"I ask that my colleagues support this measure. Mahalo."

Representative Kanoho rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations with brief remarks. Mr. Speaker, I do believe that transparency is the best approach provided that we can obtain all the information that we need. I also believe that the gas cap could work had the correct factors and criteria been utilized. I would request that the words of the Chair of Energy Committee be recorded in the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative B. Oshiro rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Berg rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Stevens rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Stevens's written remarks are as follows:

"The suspension of the maximum pre-tax wholesale gasoline price is a small step in the right direction, however a full repeal of the law would be preferable. Tampering with the free market laws of supply and demand will not provide the lower prices that consumers seek.

"The bill is flawed also because the funds for staff in the PUC to monitor the practices of the Hawaii refineries, were removed. Therefore our attempts at transparency will not succeed."

Representative Schatz rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations and just one brief point. I think it's time for this Body and this State to not allow the gas cap to be the de facto energy policy for the State. We do have one of the world's leading experts in renewable energy policy in our Energy Chair and I think it's time that when we think about the energy issue, we should not think about how to make gasoline more cheap, but how to make gasoline less relevant. Thank you."

Representative Kahikina rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations and request that the words of the Representative from Kauai be enter in the Journal as my own. Mr. Speaker, just one added comment. Mr. Speaker, the scary part about depending on foreign oil is that eventually we'll be depending on foreign food if this thing keeps up, and so we need to address this."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Marumoto and Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Marumoto and Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I rise with reservations and brief comments. I agreed with the Speaker Emeritus' comments that I do believe that if the Governor has the will for transparency and accountability that she'll find the funds for it. But what I have my reservations about is the formula because we have strapped this Governor, if in fact we have to go back to the gas cap, I do think this formula is flawed and I think it's unfortunate that we didn't really pursue that discussion and get a formula that I think will work. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, Mr. Speaker, and a few words. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. According to the Department of Business and Economic Development the gas cap has cost our consumers over a half million dollars in higher fuel prices in the last year. Mr. Speaker, by suspending the gas cap we're taking a very positive step, but the unfortunate thing is that by adding the false Singapore market we will be lowering the so-called weekly price that's calculated, misleading consumers into feeling that if the gas cap were in place they would pay less for their fuel. We really need to correct this next year. I'm sorry that there was such a standoff with the Senate. I think the House was right. Thank you.

"Excuse me, Mr. Speaker. If I could just correct something. $54 million, not half a million. $54 million in increased prices at the pump. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Thank you. I'm disappointed that we only appropriated $1.00 to establish the petroleum industry monitoring analysis and reporting program. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a few points and just for information purposes for the Members. I believe that the bill does have some language in there where they can make some adjustments and that Singapore or any other market to bring it up to a level that will be comparable to the United States gas. I believe it's about 20 cents a gallon more. I think they could make that adjustment so that I think that sort of could take care of that problem for the interim anyway.

"And last year, last fiscal year, I think there was over $60 million in emergency funds that was given through the Legislature and it means that the Governor had to move some money around from some area to another area. So there is the flexibility where the Governor can do that, and so I don't believe it's an impossibility that we don't have the money and that we can't. Yes, we made a mistake, and I think both sides need to recognize that both sides were at fault, but it can be remedied if we have the will and if the Governor's Office has the will. Thank you very much."

Representative Halford rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Just to express reservations to support the position of the House."

Representative Morita rose and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker: Some of my colleagues have mentioned a DBEDT study that estimated that the gas cap may have cost Hawaii's consumer's an additional $55 million during its implementation. I have some questions regarding this study especially since it was based on assumptions and "peer-reviewed" by economists who vigorously opposed regulations of the gasoline market. I believe the DBEDT study portrayed the worst case scenario.

"I submit for insertion into the Journal an April 13th letter to the Chair of the Finance Committee from the Chair of the Public Utilities Commission. The PUC did a comparative analysis of Hawaii retail gasoline prices as compared to the national retail prices during the period from January 18, 1999 to February 28, 2006. The analysis was based on historic data, both pre and post the gas cap. The study does demonstrate that the difference between the Hawaii average and national average rose after the gas cap was implemented, but I believe not to the levels that the DBEDT study assumed. Further, it did show that the difference on Kauai was actually less after the gas cap implementation by an average of 5 cents per gallon. Nonetheless, it is difficult to ascertain whether Hawaii's consumers did or did not benefit from the gas cap or market volatility. I believe that cost conscientious consumers may have benefited from the gas cap as I personally observed that retail gasoline prices may have varied as much as twenty cents from one retail station to another with the Honolulu area or from an independent retail station."

Representative Morita also submitted the following correspondence:

Re: Maximum Pre-tax Wholesale Gasoline Prices: Updated Data and Analysis
Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS") Chapter 486H ("Chapter 486H"), as Amended

Dear Chair Takamine:

As requested by Representative Yamashita in a hearing before the House Committee on Finance on April 4, 2006, the Public Utilities Commission ("Commission") presents the enclosed updated report, which shows the average retail gasoline prices in Hawaii as compared to the nation, both before and after September 1, 2005, when Chapter 486H was implemented.

The enclosed report includes historical data for regular unleaded gasoline for the period from January 18, 1999 through February 28, 2006 (hereinafter referred to as "Historical Period").¹ As used in this report, the "Pre-Cap Period" refers to the period prior to the implementation of Chapter 486H on September 1, 2005, and covers the period from January 1999 through August 28, 2005. Likewise, the "Price Cap Period" refers to the period following the implementation of Chapter 486H on September 1, 2005 and covers the period from September 1, 2005 through February 28, 2006.

Hawaii Retail Prices as Compared to the Nation

The enclosed report shows the actual average retail gasoline prices in Hawaii as compared to the nation during the Pre-Cap Period and the Price Cap Period. The Commission calculated this difference as follows:

Step 1: The Commission aggregated and averaged the actual Hawaii retail prices from the Oil Price Information Service ("OPIS"). See Column A of the attached spreadsheets. OPIS gathers the retail prices of gasoline from a sample of gasoline service stations located throughout the State of Hawaii. OPIS did not provide retail prices for certain zones and for certain time periods.

Step 2: The Commission compiled the actual national retail average prices based on retail price information provided by OPIS. See Column B of the attached spreadsheets. The national average is based on daily retail prices from about 100,000 gasoline service stations located throughout the United States.

¹ The week of 2/27/2006 to 3/5/2006, as shown in the Report, contains data from 2/27/2006 through 2/28/06.

The Honorable Dwight Takamine

Page 2

Step 3: The Commission calculated the difference between the actual average retail gasoline prices in Hawaii as compared to the nation. See Column C. The following chart presents the averages of these differences in each zone, for the Pre-Cap Period and the Price Cap Period:

Zone	Pre-Cap Period	Price Cap Period
1	$0.34 (23.19%)	$0.42 (17.57%)
2	$0.54 (36.80%)	$0.58 (24.38%)
3	$0.63 (42.26%)	$0.71 (29.37%)
5	$0.90 (46.63%)	$0.85 (35.83%)
7	$0.46 (31.92%)	$0.49 (20.52%)
8	$0.63 (42.62%)	$0.65 (27.22%)

For example, on average in Oahu, regular unleaded retail gasoline prices were $0.34 higher than national retail prices during the Pre-Cap Period ($1.8817 minus $1.5428 = $0.3389) but $0.42 higher during the Price Cap Period ($2.8531 minus $2.4428 = $0.4203). Please see the enclosed report for further details.

We hope the enclosed information is useful. We are providing copies of this letter and report to all members of your Committee, as well as all members of the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on the Judiciary.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Docket No. 05-0002 Parties
(all w/enc.)

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The 'gas cap' law was created right before I was elected into the Hawaii State House of Representatives in the fall of 2002. I believe the state government had good intent in creating the law to help the people of Hawaii get fair gas prices, but it did not work. The 'cap' on the free market caused unusual behaviors in the petroleum industry such as pricing gas at the ceiling of the 'cap' to maximize profits and prepare for bad economic times where they are restricted by the 'cap' to recuperate.

"Therefore, I support this bill's indefinite suspension of the 'gas cap' law. Instead, I believe this measure is heading in the right direction by requiring additional and more pertinent information to be provided by the petroleum industry, thereby providing more transparency in the industry. Transparency will protect the people of Hawaii from unfair gas prices and allow a reasonable profit margin for the industry. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 3:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 3115, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, passed Final Reading.

At 3:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:40 o'clock p.m. with Vice Speaker Takai presiding.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 237-06 and S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, as you know when we passed out the Reinventing Education Act of 2004, more commonly known as Act 51, embedded in that were three basic principles, student achievement, civic responsibility, and health and safety.

"The measure before us today obviously strikes, no pun intended, at that third point. We all know that students do not do well in schools that they do not feel proud to be at. What this bill does is it appropriates $235 million of which the centerpiece is $160 million, which we dedicated into whole-school renovations of 96 schools across the State.

"Earlier today, we heard comments made about the tax relief bill and some concern and disappointment that it was too small. If you use that logic, you should be equally concerned and disappointed about this measure because it is too large. The Lingle-Aiona Administration had proposed an amount given to repair and maintenance as it relates to a backlog of $525 million less than one fourth of the amount that you see in the measure before you.

"I really want to thank the Majority Caucus and particularly the Chair of Finance Committee and the members of the Finance Committee for seeing the necessity and the need to do this despite the fact, as we all know, that there are many compelling and competing needs for the budget.

"Another thing that has been raised both in this Chamber and in the media is that the DOE is not accountable and frankly, I'm baffled by that point. You see, Mr. Speaker, Act 51 also required the delinking of various State agencies as it related to the Department of Education and in this case particularly the Department of Accounting and General Services, DAGS. So on the one hand a year ago there were roughly 200 people working for DAGS and I guess supposedly they were very productive and competent, and now they are shifted over to the Department of Education and overnight turned into fat, bloated, dysfunctional, insensitive, uncaring, faceless humans, overpaid, under worked, one size fits all bureaucrats. As you might surmise, Mr. Speaker, I disagree.

"I have every confidence in the Department of Education to be able to repair our schools with this measure and get at that $525 million backlog in an efficient, effective and timely manner. I wish I had equal confidence that the Governor will release those dollars in a timely manner as well. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, but in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just have some short comments. Yes, I do support fixing Hawaii's schools like I mentioned throughout the Session this year. But I do have some concerns in regards to maybe looking for ways to fix the way we fix Hawaii's schools. I've talked to principals and teachers and they often wonder why one school gets funded for their projects, or your CIP projects, over another. It causes confusions. It causes mistrust within the system. So in regards to wanting to be able to fund these different projects and fixing up the schools that is a concern of mine.

"Mr. Speaker, also in regards to the $160 million to do classrooms and to renovate classrooms, I think it is a very good goal to get all the classrooms done. One of the things that I think could be done maybe a little bit different is instead of putting the whole $160 million and say let's go and do all of the classrooms, I looked at the list of all of the different schools that need repair and they right now rank in different orders as to need. And when I take a look at those schools, I don't have the list in front of me, but they go from ranging I believe it was a score on I guess it's like 1 to a 100, and of those 160 schools that need classroom repair, some of them fall from probably, I can't remember right now, but from the 70s, 60s, 50s. All the way to I think the ranking of the bottom classroom renovation project is at 9.

"And there are millions of dollars ranging down at the bottom part of the ranking, and I'm wondering if some of those schools may want to use that cash money for different purposes. Maybe they might take a look at it and say, I want to use my million dollars to help assess the students at our school or maybe I want to use a million dollars or half a million dollars to buy books for our school because our classrooms aren't that bad right now. I'm only talking about this lower level of classroom repairs where maybe they don't rank quite high in regards to wanting these repairs.

"So with regards to that, Mr. Speaker, I know that this House is putting forth a great amount of money and dedication to our schools in wanting to see the environments at their best for the schools, but at this particular time when we are struggling at the schools to be able to get some of the priorities for our schools, then maybe we could have just used it a little bit differently and fix the way we fix Hawaii's schools. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Stonebraker being excused.

At 3:46 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 2956, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, passed Final Reading.

At 3:47 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:52 o'clock p.m. with the Speaker presiding.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Luke: "Mr. Speaker, if may be permitted to, on behalf of the legislators who I think we've been cooped up here for 60-somewhat days and we've recognized members of audience and our staffers. But there is a group of people we rarely recognize and that's the members of the media who are cooped up in our little box in the back, and this must be a good day because it's the first day that we have ever seen Derrick DePledge decked up in his suit. So Derrick, if you could stand up and if all the media members could stand up so we can recognize you. Thank you very much."

Representative Sonson: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to, and I was made to do this, I would like to thank Capitol TV's Glenn Booth and staff for their excellent coverage of our Session. They did a wonderful job keeping the citizens of Hawaii informed about the Legislature."

Representative Herkes: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. Speaker, during the Session my character and integrity have been challenged, and I take those charges very seriously. I would ask permission to insert a document into the Journal. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes submitted the following remarks:

"In the past few weeks, some people have expressed concern about the way that SB 2917 progressed through the CPC Committee. I have seen several local newspaper articles and blog postings that question my integrity and the integrity of my staff. I have even received a letter from a concerned citizen group that calls for my removal as the CPC chair.

"I would like to respond to these criticisms and set the record straight. SB 2917 progressed through my Committee, through the House, and through the Conference Committee according to proper legislative process.

"When Senate Bill 2917 crossed over to the House, it was first heard by the Committee on Health, and passed with an amendment to extend the sunset date for health insurance rate regulation from 2006 to 2010.

"I then worked with the Speaker's office to craft the proposed HD2 that would be considered by CPC. The HD2 retained the extended sunset date. The HD2 also contained significant changes to the rate approval process. These changes were designed to protect the consumer by making rate regulation more transparent, and at the same time, benefit the insurance providers in this State by streamlining the rate disapproval process.

"These changes were not made in secret. The proposed HD2 was available to the public in my office well in advance of the hearing, and CPC received testimony on the proposed HD2 at the hearing.

"The Insurance Commissioner was among the testifiers on the proposed HD2. He recommended specific changes to the draft. In response to his recommendations, CPC deferred decision-making on the bill so that it could be amended to include the insurance commissioner's recommendations.

"CPC then voted on the amended HD2, in the open and in public, and passed it. There were no reservations or 'no' votes on record.

"When the Finance Committee heard the HD2, the Insurance Commissioner made additional comments that appeared to contradict his earlier statements in CPC. All the same, Finance amended the bill again, this time with a faulty effective date of 2020, and publicly voted to pass out the new HD3.

"Now, some critics have claimed that it was inappropriate for representatives of the insurance industry to submit drafts of proposed legislation. I respond by saying to those critics that it is normal practice and it is appropriate. Lobbyists, of all kinds, state their opinions, they offer suggestions, and they advocate the positions of their industry or their client. Sometimes their advocacy comes in the form of draft bills or suggested changes to language. Everyone is invited to do the same.

"We as legislators are not bound or obliged to accept those suggestions. We evaluate all of the interests at stake, all of the information available, and we make informed, impartial decisions – decisions that we predict will benefit the State as a whole, not one specific group. And this is done in the open – our deliberations and decisions are conducted in a public hearing.

"When SB 2917 went to the Conference Committee, the House offered a Conference draft that would correct the defective date. The Senate rejected that draft, and instead, the Senate adopted the previous House version of the bill, including the defective date. At that time, the bill was off the table, and the Conference Committee could not be reconvened. The Senate conferees now suggest that they were unaware of the defective date in the House bill. But again, it was no secret, and I do not understand how they could have overlooked this crucial part of the bill.

"It is my understanding that some critics have questioned my record on consumer protection. They have asked, 'Who is protecting the consumer?'

"A review of my legislative history should put that question to rest:

- As a member of the Hawaii County Council from 1984-1987, I co-introduced the first comprehensive no smoking ordinance to pass in any county in Hawaii. The tobacco interests hotly opposed this measure because it would have banned smoking anywhere that the public had to go for entertainment or business. We on the Council later overrode the mayor's veto and passed the ordinance.
- In my first term in the House, I took on one of the largest companies in the world, GTE, doing business in Hawaii as GTE Hawaiian Tel. We fought a tough fight to eliminate the use of party lines in this state.
- I voted for and supported 'pure no-fault' auto insurance in opposition to the trial attorneys in this State.
- I've been criticized for voting against the present auto insurance law. I explained my 'no' vote as not going far enough to benefit consumers. I said, 'We needed a tourniquet and got a band aid.'
- I have fought to de-regulate the ground transportation industry in Hawaii to benefit consumers.
- I created the Small Business Regulatory Review Commission to protect small businesses and consumers.

"I am proud of the work that I have done for the State of Hawaii and the people of my district. I am proud of my pro-consumer record. I have long said that regulation should be for the benefit of the consumer and not the regulated industry or profession; and my actions with SB 2917 are no exception to that."

Representative Ching: "Yes, just an announcement. Thank you. I just wanted to thank everyone who did, even though it's a crazy time and I think the Heritage Caucus is reconsidering having being in step with National Historic Preservation Month, but we wanted to thank everyone who helped with Historic Preservation Awareness Day. And the Heritage Caucus thanks everyone here for our first maiden voyage of Heritage Caucus for all the support."

"And the last announcement, there is at the Hawaii Plantation Villages, a Hawaii Relive the Plantation Days this coming Saturday, a heritage event from 10:00 to 2:00 in Waipahu. And that is our final announcement for the Heritage Caucus. Thank you."

Representative Berg: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think it's safe to say at this particular moment that I can represent my freshman class in thanking the support team of the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Clerk's Office and all of our colleagues for a very educational and enlightened two years. And thank you very much on behalf of the freshman. We are no longer freshman after the song. Right? Thank you."

Representative Yamane: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to stand on a personal privilege. I'd like to say for myself that it has been an awesome experience working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, and I have the highest respect for the integrity of many of you. Thank you. Take care."

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There's one group that I think we also should thank. That's the custodial staff here at the Capitol. They do an incredible job under sometimes very difficult circumstances, and a particular thank you to Annie from the Fourth Floor."

Representative Souki: "Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my staff especially my office manger, who has been with me for 18 years, Flo; and my clerk, Peggy; and my committee clerk, Nathan, for the good work they have done; and for Vern. If you have noticed, they are not here but they're watching on television. Hi, thank you very much."

Representative Evans: "On a point of personal privilege. I want to thank the leadership shown by the Chairs of all the Committees that I served on this year. And I must say I'm going to miss the Chair of Water, Land, and Ocean Resources because he truly is such an amazing Chair in allowing everyone to speak and express their opinions and listen and try to really understand the issue and to meet everybody's concerns."

"The Representative of Hawaiian Affairs Committee, I think had a couple of really hard issues. I think he dealt with them really well and really supported his Vice Chair. The Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection was so thorough and so good. And really hard, really hard I thought the energy package in working with the Administration."

"And the Finance Chair. What can you say about Finance? The hours that we put in and trying to be open and give everybody an opportunity. A lot of people that I talked to that come to testify in front of that Committee tell me how much they enjoy that the Chairman is so open to receiving all the comments and very patient, and as you know it's very, very long hours. And he has a wonderful staff. I don't know if we mentioned them, but all of the Finance staff and the budget people. It's amazing the kind of work they have to do to support us so I just wanted to mention them. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla: "I'm rising on a point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker. I would like to thank my staff for working so hard with me this Session. Not just here on the Capitol, but also in my district. And I would like to thank very much Madame Clerk and her staff for the wonderful work they've done in this Session. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Harbin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal privilege. I think I of all of us in here owe all of you a great debt of thank you. I came in here with, I would say pomp and circumstance, but I think it was probably more grand than that."

"I came in, I think tainted, and I worked very, very hard to prove myself to you. I especially want to thank my one Chair of Water, Land, Ocean. He grabbed me by the scuff of my neck and said, 'Confrontation doesn't always get you there. You're here, do your job, and you'll gain the respect.' I hope I gained the respect of a couple of you because what I've done is I gained the respect of the process. And I gained the respect of a whole group of you that are going to be our young leaders. And I have to say to you when it seems like the darkest of dark days is coming upon you, if you know you're right and you want to do the job, you stand up to it and you go through and you do it. Thank you all so much."

Representative Abinsay: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. During the hectic moments of our Conference, there was a time when I needed some help and support from you especially as the Speaker, because of some scary moments of my life when I had to be hospitalized. And I just want to thank you Mr. Speaker and the Members, our colleagues for your support, your prayers and understanding, especially the person who replaced me as a Chair or Co-Chair of many of the bill that we had introduced. And I'd like to thank Representative Chang for taking over, and also my Vice Chair Tsuji for taking the job on my behalf."

"It was indeed something that I'm very, very much appreciative and very thankful for all the letters in support extended to me. And there were times where I needed the help and thank you colleagues for your prayers."

"But most especially, Mr. Speaker, I know it was a blessing because in the earlier conversation, we asked for your support and understanding that I needed somebody in my office and it turned out to be a blessing. I did have to ask my brother who was in Stockton and I had to ask him to come during the Session to help me. And you were kind enough to allow me what was a very good part toward helping me, and indeed it was again a blessing because of his presence. He was the oldest of the nine children in our family and he was there during those times when I needed help and I would like to just acknowledge him at this time. He's in the gallery and if I may ask him to please stand up. Cesar Abinsay. Thank you. Thank you for being with me.

"And if I may just add Mr. Speaker, just mention the members of my staff, Jake Manegdeg and the other members of my staff who are sitting up there. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I cannot thank enough the support of our members of the Sergeant-at-Arms through your leadership, Kevin, thank you and all the members of your staff. Also our Chief Clerk and the members of her staff. Thank you all very much for all the support you have extended to me. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On behalf of you and all the other boys in this House, I'd like to thank Representative Caldwell, aka Cyndi Apana for the wonderful Boy's Day wishes that are on our desk. Thank you, Representative."

The Chair then stated:

"Two years ago, we were very pleased to have a group of bushy-tailed, young, energetic, outstanding, freshmen class. You are the Class of 2004. All of you here are the 23rd Legislature, and you all have done a tremendous job during these past two years. This group of 51 will now be a class of 46, and this evening we wanted to highlight and congratulate those five who are leaving. I wish he was here, but he's not here this afternoon, Representative Bud Stonebraker. Bud, on behalf of the Members of this House, best wishes in your future endeavor as a pastor of the church that you represent.

"Secondly, the most gracious and oldest of them all, Representative Helene Hale. Vice Speaker, would you present her with the gavel and Representative Finnegan, a lei at this point. Representative Hale, why don't you say a few words. I see you have a prepared text so please, go ahead."

Representative Hale gave her farewell remarks as follows:

"Thank you so much all of you. And Mr. Speaker, everybody in the audience, and everybody around here, has been so wonderful.

"My fellow Representatives, I'm going to miss all of you. My checkered political career began in 1954 on a Hawaii County Board of Supervisors and I spent 20 years on the county level but I never expected that I would come to this State Legislature at 82 years old.

"I have not regretted it. When Representative Bob Herkes left his Puna seat vacant, I tried unsuccessfully to get a younger person to run and because I could not support any of the announced Democrat candidates or Republicans, I thought I could keep this seat a Democrat.

Under Speaker Say, this has been a very, very rewarding career because I found finally a leader I could support. For I found him to be fair, just, democratic, and efficient. And I've also found that the House of Representatives procedures have changed for the better since I first came to lobby for our county government when it was lodged in Iolani Palace.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank some special persons who have been helpful during these few years. First Representative Kanoho, when I served under him as his Vice Chair. He thought me patience, persistence, and meditating skills. Speaker Say, who appointed me as Chair of the new Committee on International Affairs, gave me this opportunity to pursue my goals of helping Hawaii to be a catalyst for world peace based on our culture of Aloha spirit, multiethnic population and different religions. Majority Leader, Representative Marcus Oshiro, sometimes I have a hard time recognizing him if he's in San Antonio, or someplace. He is a hard worker and all his staff are always supportive.

"During these years I've had two good Vice Chairs, Representatives Shimabukuro and Cabanilla. Both of them share my vision of having Hawaii lead our nation.

"It's always more rewarding when the economy is thriving for it enables government to help more people. My thanks go to the very capable Finance Chair, Representative Takamine and all the members of all his staff. They're too many to try to call by their name for I for surely forget someone, but I will never forget how helpful they were. I got my Pahoa Gym. I am proud of what they enabled us to accomplish, so much for our people.

"Mr. Speaker, in addition, I have to thank the Chairs of the Committee of Health, Education, Higher Education, Housing, Human Services, Energy and Environmental Protection and their staffs because I have served under all of you.

"With all the House staff led by Chief Clerk Patricia Mau-Shimizu and CJ Leong; and Sergeant-at-Arms Kevin Kuroda, and Lon Paresa and everyone in these offices made our work much easier and pleasant.

"My own staff that I introduced earlier, I owe a deep gratitude for your loyalty and your competence. Again, if I can mention their names, Linda Asato-Kaichi, Jelyn Kaichi, Cody Vargo and Chad Ahia.

"Mr. Speaker, the list goes on and on and I surely have missed someone. Actually everyone that I have come into contact with, including all of my Democratic and Republican colleagues have been so supportive. I hate to leave you, but life goes on and another chapter closes on this experience. My future plans include working for peaceful world through our Hawaii Chapter of the United Nations Association, and the high school model United Nations that I started in Hilo.

"When I first ran for my first time, I stated my vision. In my brochure it said that based on the vision of King Kamehameha, we can treasure our people and our land. And on the experiences and activities of King Kalakaua, we can truly become an example to the world for sustainable development, cultural renaissance and world peace. Ua mau ke'ea o ka'aina ikapono. Aloha. Thank you everyone."

The Chair then stated:

"Another individual that will be leaving this great body is a young man who will be a tremendous loss to this Chamber, but a tremendous win and gain for Capitol Hill, Representative Brian Schatz. So Representative Schatz, may we hear your campaign platform?"

Representative Schatz gave his farewell remarks as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you colleagues. As you know, I came to the House eight years ago, single, 26 years old, a little bit radical, and a little more aggressive than I am now. I want to share with you and the Body, the eight things that I've learned in the last eight years.

I've learned that your enemies can be right, and your friends can be wrong.

I've learned that a 79-year-old man can hit a golf ball 279 yards.

I've learned from that same 79-year-old man how to behave like a gentleman. I don't always do so, but now I know how.

I've learned that loud is not the same as persuasive.

I've learned never to underestimate anyone.

I've learned that no matter how small an issue may appear to you, it's a very big deal to someone.

I've learned that business and environmental needs are usually not at odds.

And I've learned that if you want to interpret the Hawaii Constitution, the best way is to lean over and ask Helene Hale what she meant when she wrote it.

"I want to thank everyone who supported me, all of the staff, all of the colleagues, you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Senate, volunteers who helped me to win reelection. And most of all, I want to thank my wife Linda for suffering through all of this, and for suffering through whatever comes next. And I want to thank the rest of my family. Every single member of my family has been incredibly supportive. Thanks for the good times."

The Chair then stated:

"The next colleague, I think all of you know very well. He has been here a long time, a very long time, but has focused his attention in one particular area and that is in the health area. Representative Dennis Arakaki."

Representative Arakaki gave his farewell remarks as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker and colleagues. I also had some prepared remarks just so I don't break up or wander off. But before I do, I'd like to recognize and thank my staff for all their support. First of all, my office manager, John Mizuno. Dr. Harry Tagomori. My legislative aides, Edgar Fernandez, Ms. Leolani Oyama. And my receptionist, Ms. Alice Nakama. And if I may, I want to recognize posthumously my former office manager, Linda Delaney because she taught me so much about what it meant to be Hawaiian. And also I want to recognize someone who has chaired my campaigns and I ran 10 elections and never lost so I owe her a lot as well, Dr. Amy Agbayani.

"Mr. Speaker, when people ask me when I started thinking about leaving office. I have to look to my right and when I saw this young man join us, I realized that he was one of those kids who used to play basketball for me as an elementary school kid. I think he was wearing Gucci athletic shoes back then. So I know the years have gone by. And then next to me is this other young man who I feel very confident knows most of the issues and would take very good care of the health issues even as I leave. It's going to be great to have a doctor in the House.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, the book of Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3 of the Bible says, 'There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven. A time to plant and a time to uproot.' My season here at the Legislature comes to an end as I move on to another season. Mr. Speaker, I feel truly blessed to have been given time here to work in His fields, to plant seeds of hope and a vision for the future.

"Mr. Speaker, I truly give praise and thanks for having Christ with me as I have walked this legislative path, which so often fraught with conflict, personal pride, retribution, and misperceptions. I've learned through Him to have a tough skin with a tender heart. I have also been reminded by Him that we must be men and women of integrity. And Mr. Speaker, something that was told to me when I first started including from you Mr. Speaker. All we bring with us is our integrity and our word. And when we leave, all we have is the judgment on how well we kept our integrity intact and how well we kept our word.

"Mr. Speaker, another of my guiding principles here, at the Legislature, came about because of a comment made by a young man during a visit by our student leaders from Kalihi. After addressing a group of a hundred student leaders and touting the important things that we as legislators do, a sixth grader from Fern Elementary School raised his hand and after being recognized he asked, 'That's all fine and well for you, but what are you doing for my future?' What are you doing for my future? That moment and that question is seared in my mind and in my heart probably forever.

"Mr. Speaker, you and I and other veteran legislators know that all too often we just react to crises and to the needs of the here and now. But we also know that we are also given the opportunity to be visionaries. In fact, Mr. Speaker, I would say that to be visionary is one of our primary missions. The Bible says that people without vision will soon perish. Mr. Speaker, our children and youth need that vision of hope for the future and it would serve us well to ask that question asked by that young man. What are you doing for my future? So I will read probably for the last time, as I do every year, my cup and it says, 'A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove, but the world may be different because I was important in the life of a child.'

"Mr. Speaker I move, with some sadness in my heart, because I will miss the people here for the humble and hardworking people in my district, and I will definitely miss being close and being part of this incredible process called democracy. It is a privilege that many are called to, but few are honored to serve.

"Mr. Speaker, you and I and maybe a few of the colleagues have seen tremendous changes here over the past 20 years. Perks have disappeared. Our personal and legislative lives come under greater public scrutiny. Greater transparency in the way that our decisions are made. And while some may mourn the loss of trappings that come with office or the loss of privacy in our legislative deliberations, in the end, we must all realize that they can never take away the awesome sense of responsibility and trust given to us by Hawaii's citizens. We are indeed trustees of the resources and the well being of and for the people of Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, I thank God and the people of Hawaii especially the voters who have given us that opportunity. God bless and keep all of you in the palm of his hands. Mahalo nui ka ko."

The Chair then stated:

"And finally, what more can we say about a young man from the Island of Kauai who taught some of our freshmen and sophomores, let's go and take an agricultural site visit. You all know what it is. What more can I say about a young man also who has the heart and the compassion as a man of all seasons. Representative Kanoho."

Representative Kanoho: "Can I have my words inserted in the Journal?"

Speaker Say: "No, you may not at this point and time so please proceed with your oral presentation."

Representative Kanoho gave his farewell remarks as follows:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and Members. For almost a year since rendering that firm decision not to run again for reelection, I've been thinking about this day and this moment with a lot of trepidation. I was thinking of maybe not showing up for session today or escaping just before this came about. But this is all so very special. It's much more than Senior Day at any of the sports at the University of Hawaii. Those are all very special occasions, but to stand before you now, I'm glad I stayed and to witness our farewell and be a part of a farewell to our colleagues who are also leaving and who will be also missed.

"I was appointed to this House by incoming Governor John Waihee nearly 19 and a half years ago. On December 26, 1986 after my predecessor, Al Lardizabal, who had successfully run for his third term was appointed to the position of Director of Human Resources. There was another name for it, but at that time we who were working on his campaign were anxiously awaiting the appointment. I was on Maui at that time attending an HSAC conference, when Gary Rodrigues, labor leader, Waihee confidant, and a powerhouse in his campaign, called me on the telephone and asked me if I was interested in the position of Representative. I told him that I was interested, but not as one of several people being considered. But I would definitely be interested if it was being offered to me.

"I was really flabbergasted when he told me, it was mine, if I wanted it. I told him that I needed to check with my two bosses. My employer and my wife. I was certain that my employer, being a good corporate citizen that they would say yes, but very doubtful about my wife. Because as island manager for Hawaiian Telephone for at that time almost 10 years and very active in the community serving as president on the boards of many organizations. And at that time just having served as a Co-chairman of a very controversial Nukolii land referendum issue, I had always been approached by people to run for office and she was adamantly opposed. At that time I wasn't interested because I didn't relish the idea of being obligated to anyone or seeking, and asking people for votes and most of all reluctant about asking anyone for money. But she was adamantly opposed.

"I called my employer and as expected, my boss without having to check with anyone said, 'Yes, by all means.' And so I called my wife on the telephone and I said, 'Guess who they want to serve in Al Lardizabal's place?' And she said, 'Who?' I said, 'Your husband.' And I expected her to say, 'Let's think about it.' But then instantly she said, she was so excited she said, 'I'm behind you. Go for it. I'm behind you 1000%.' I had to look at the telephone and I couldn't believe my ears. Is this the lady I'm talking to that just didn't want me to serve in political office? We're so excited. We were very happy and overjoyed. Very honored and humble at that time as we have been for the last 20 years.

"I tell you the story because it only indicates the depth of my thanks to Governor Waihee, to Al Lardizabal, to Gary Rodrigues, to my employer Hawaiian Telephone. And companies like Hawaiian Telephone who want to fulfill their obligation to the community of being corporate citizens. And most of all to thank my wife. We've been together as man and wife. She's been my bride for 55 years and so I'm very grateful to her. Now it's time for me to pay attention to her and be with her at home because she's been so supportive through all these years.

"At the time of appointment, people would keep saying you need to be in the Legislature for these 10 years and I said, 'No way do I want to do that for 10 years.' And here it is almost 20. Actually it's the twentieth Session.

"I still very vividly remember stepping into these Chambers in early January 1987. We were preparing for the incoming class to attend Session and I remember stepping into these Chambers. It was a late afternoon, the lights were not on, but I just stood in here in awe looking at the tapestry and the chandelier, and the koa, the abundance of koa here and all the richness that it symbolizes. Thinking about the history, thinking about the debates and actions that took place here. And realizing that at that time that I would be a part of history of making laws, thinking about funding and approving programs and projects. And as I stand here on what will be the last Session day, I feel that same gratefulness to have been a part of this. To be able to make a difference to work with all of you to do this.

"I want to thank again all of you for being such great people. The kind words that you expressed to me. I need to in addition to thanking Governor Waihee and Al Lardizabal, and Gary Rodrigues, and Hawaiian Telephone, and my wife, I said it before but it deserves to be said again, our support staff, the Clerk's office, the Sergeant-at-Arms, HMSO, LRB, the people that just been so professional, so accommodating, so willing to help and we really couldn't function very well, if at all, without them.

"This is the end of a real Session but I expect to be very active and I want to be very active after this life. But legislatively I need to say that we did pass House Concurrent Resolution 300, which establishes the Land Use Working Group, we have a lot of issues. So I intend to spend a lot of time on that working with all the stakeholders so that we can be in a better position to move forward with reforming land use laws.

"I want to thank the people of Kauai for their faith and confidence and trust me for having me serve as your Representative. Most of all, I want to thank my God for having blessed me, and for all the blessings that I had. You can go through life with a lot of adversity, but it's incredible. It's just amazing. I never cease to be amazed as we face adversities, how those adversities turn into opportunities and that's how it's been for me and I'm sure that it is how it's been for you. So I thank you, and I thank God. Aloha ke akua."

The Chair then delivered his closing remarks:

"In closing, Members of this House, the 23rd Legislature, the Chair would like to make a request that you all stand at this point and time, please. In order to run a House or an organization like this, I think we owe it to the Chief Clerk's Office, Ms. Mau-Shimizu, Ms. Leong, and their staff; the Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Kuroda, and Mr. Paresa and their staff; Ms. Linda Oamilda and John Moriyama, and Mr. Richard Dvonch, and Mr. Jim Funaki, which is the House Majority Staff Office; and also Mr. Boyd Akase and Ms. Malia Gray on the Minority Staff.

"It is these individuals that put their blood, sweat, and tears in getting the job done for all of us. If it is not for them, this House would be a dysfunctional House or Chamber. So on behalf of the Members of the House, how about giving them a big round of applause and thank you very much for a job well done."

Gov. Msg. No. 504, informing the House that on June 23, 2006, the following bill was signed into law, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

This is to inform you that on June 23, 2006, the following bill was signed into law:

S.B. No. 2774, A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SD 2, HD 1, HOUSING. (ACT 237)
CD 1

I have signed this bill in recognition of the immediate need to address the concerns of families residing at Kunia Camp in Central Oahu.

However, I believe the bill is not well thought out and presents long-term problems, which I plan to address administratively and through legislative proposals.

First, the bill constitutes "spot zoning" within a State agricultural district. This approach has the potential to whittle away at the State's most productive and readily irrigated agricultural lands. Further, it runs counter to the principles embodied in the Important Agricultural Lands provisions within the State Constitution and enacted into law by the Legislature in 2005.

Second, there are no safeguards provided within this bill as to the type and use of future housing within "plantation community subdivisions." For example, the bill does not state that the workers must dwell in these structures after the plantation is closed down. The bill also does not prohibit the dwelling from being demolished, rebuilt, or sold or rented to others.

Third, there is nothing in the language of SB 2774 to inhibit a person from constructing a large, up-scale home on the site of a former plantation dwelling. Further, if a company involved in both agriculture and land development elected to build luxury homes for its senior executives on agricultural land and declare these "plantation community subdivisions" the bill does not impede this type of construction.

Additionally, the bill does not define the boundaries of a "plantation community subdivision," thus allowing additional homes to be built at some time in the future, further encroaching on agricultural properties.

Mayor Hannemann's Administration considered these problems so serious his planning director recommended I veto this bill.

I hope the Legislature will work with my Administration during the balance of the year to address the land-use concerns raised by the enactment of SB 2774.

Sincerely,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 266

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 266, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Labor."

The stated purpose of House Bill No. 266 is to establish clear distinctions between mandatory, excluded, and permissive subjects of collective bargaining. However, the bill would not achieve the stated purpose and would blur the delineations that have historically existed in statute.

This bill is objectionable because it constitutes an unacceptable infringement upon management rights currently protected under section 89-9(d), Hawaii Revised Statutes. It attempts to overturn the case of United Public Workers, AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO v. Hannemann, 106 Hawaii 359 (2005), the Supreme Court of Hawaii case that held the City and County of Honolulu's transfer of refuse workers from the Pearl City baseyard to the Honolulu baseyard was not subject to collective bargaining. The Hannemann case reaffirmed management rights as set forth in section 89-9(d). Historically, section 89-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, has been recognized as the provision that sets into law protections that do not allow management to bargain away the right to direct its workforce and oversee governmental operations. This ensures that Public Employers are able to manage their operations efficiently and effectively to serve the public.

This bill erodes management rights by permitting negotiations over criteria governing promotions, transfers, assignments, demotions, layoffs, suspensions, terminations, discharges, and other disciplinary actions. Allowing negotiations on the criteria management uses to act on matters such as layoffs, transfers, and assignments involves labor in the fundamental decision-making process of management. Whereas negotiating procedures may impact the means used to reach an outcome, negotiating the criteria could impact the nature of the outcome itself, thus interfering with the primary rights and obligations of public employers.

In permitting negotiations over assignments, this bill would adversely impact the delivery of services to the public, particularly in emergency situations. The bill provides for collective bargaining over a supplemental agreement or a memorandum of understanding and such mutual agreements cover individual employees and specific situations. Therefore, this bill would adversely impact the employer's ability to make assignments of specific employees and groups of employees.

The other Public Employer jurisdictions have advised me that this bill would critically impede their ability to manage their workforce and protect the health and safety of the public. State and county governments would face serious difficulties in carrying out civil defense, public safety, health, welfare, and other public service functions. For example, if this bill became law, it could result in restrictions on the deployment of lifeguards, emergency medical services personnel, and other health and safety staff who are expected to respond to and adjust their work locations and hours as emergencies and unanticipated events may dictate. Such restrictions could result in a lowering of services to the public and possibly delay response time in cases where immediate action by government is required.

Furthermore, this bill added a provision to section 89-9(d) stating that section 89-9(d) shall not be used to invalidate provisions of collective bargaining agreements in effect on and after June 30, 2007. However, this provision is confusing and contradictory because it does not address issues covered in the collective bargaining agreements addressed in this bill, but attempts to cover issues which may or may not arise in the future.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 266 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 439, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Office of the Ombudsman."

House Bill No. 439 provides the Ombudsman with access to taxpayers' confidential tax returns and return information, ostensibly to allow the Ombudsman to investigate complaints from taxpayers concerning the processing of their tax returns.

The statutory guarantee that taxpayers' returns will remain confidential promotes full compliance with Hawaii's tax laws and encourages taxpayers to voluntarily report their income from all sources. This bill unnecessarily erodes the strong statutory assurance of confidentiality that attaches to each taxpayer's tax returns.

The Department of Taxation is authorized to disclose, and routinely discloses, confidential tax returns upon the express written authorization of the taxpayer affected. Where it is necessary for the Ombudsman to investigate a complaint regarding the processing of a tax return, the Ombudsman should reasonably be able to obtain the written authorization of the complaining party.

Furthermore, the Department of Taxation Taxpayer Advocate is responsible for helping resolve tax disputes. Thus, it is possible to resolve a majority of concerns without violating the confidential arrangements for protecting taxpayer data that already exists within the Executive Branch.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 439 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1800

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1800, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Sale of Real Property."

This measure increases the income tax withheld on the sale of real property in Hawaii by a nonresident seller from five percent to eight and a quarter percent of the amount realized from the sale.

This bill unnecessarily increases the income tax withholding on the sale of real property by nonresident sellers to ensure proper payment of taxes owed to the State are paid. The Department of Taxation reported that the current withholding of five percent is already excessive and large refunds are being issued because the five percent withholding is almost always larger than the tax on the gains on the sale of the property. Further, this bill fails to recognize that many land transactions involve 1031 exchanges wherein the seller is not liable for taxes if they purchase a property of the same or higher value within 18 months.

Moreover, this bill does not increase tax revenue or affect the proper assessment of tax because the capital gains tax remains unchanged at seven and a quarter percent. Instead, this bill will increase the burden on the Department of Taxation to process more claims and issue more refunds to taxpayers.

It should be noted that when the withholding tax rate was previously increased, the Legislature had to reverse their decision within a short period of time. In 1990, Act 213 required a buyer to withhold nine percent of the amount realized on the sale of Hawaii real property from a nonresident seller. Due to the overwhelming dissatisfaction expressed by the public, the Legislature in the very next session reduced the withholding amount to the current five percent by Act 279, Session Laws of Hawaii 1991. In effect, Act 213 of 1990 was operative for only seven months (i.e., January 1, 1991, through July 31, 1991).

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1800 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1867

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1867, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Workers' Compensation."

This bill would extend medical services when a dispute exists between the injured employee and the employer or employer's insurer, until the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations (Director) issues a decision on whether medical care should continue. It allows the employer or employer's insurer to recover from the injured employee's personal health-care provider or other appropriate occupational or non-occupational insurer all sums paid for the disputed medical services after a designated date.

This bill is objectionable because it requires that an employer or employer's insurer continue to pay for medical treatments where the employer or employer's insurer considers the treatments proposed by the plan to be inappropriate, excessive, or for a non-compensable condition. In most cases these determinations are made after an independent medical examiner concludes the individual is ready to return to work.

This bill does not limit the type of medical service covered; thus, it could conceivably apply to all medical procedures, up to and including surgery. Further, it allows the medical treatments to continue solely on the decision of the medical provider who may not be a licensed physician.

Responsibility for paying for these extra treatments would rest with either the provider or the insurer if the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations subsequently decided they were not needed. This could result in a situation where the insurer has to pay for medical services that were determined unwarranted and unnecessary, likely resulting in higher workers' compensation premiums since this adds to the workers' compensation risk exposure of all businesses in Hawaii. Alternatively, if providers are left with the bill, they may decide not to offer the treatment, which defeats the purpose of this measure.

The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations issued rules in May 2005 that improved the hearings process and mandated the use of evidence-based clinically tested, medical treatment guidelines and allowed for an alternative dispute resolution process in lieu of a Department of Labor and Industrial Relations hearing. These rules could have decreased the number of denials. Ironically, these are the rules the Legislature suspended last year when they denied the Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations rulemaking authority in this area.

Finally, this bill fundamentally changes the balance between employer and employee regarding the method by which medical care can be terminated. It essentially overrides the workers' compensation medical fee schedule and negates the "reasonable and necessary" language in current Hawaii workers' compensation law, thereby placing in jeopardy the fiscal integrity of the State's workers' compensation system.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1867 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2199

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2199, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to International Trade Agreement."

The purpose of this bill is to provide that procurement provisions in international trade agreements shall not be valid as applied to the State unless the Legislature votes to approve those procurement provisions. Certain existing international trade agreements that contain procurement provisions requested the individual states to consent to be bound to the agreements. In the past, governors of Hawaii had given the State's consent. This bill henceforth requires legislative action to give that consent.

This bill is objectionable for the following reasons. First, the federal government's requests to the states to consent to be bound to international trade agreements frequently come with short notices and specific deadlines. House Bill No. 2199 does not address how the State will timely respond to these deadlines when the Legislature is not in session.

Second, the timing of this bill raises the question why the Legislature did not object to the ability of prior governors to bind the State to such international trade agreements but does not support this authority for the existing Governor.

Third, the procurement provisions of these international trade agreements are usually reciprocal. If the Legislature cannot or does not act in time to commit the State to these reciprocal agreements, there may be serious consequences for the conduct of business in Hawaii. The Department of Accounting and General Services believes, and I agree, that the Legislature's involvement in the review of these international trade agreements could result in foreign companies not conducting business in Hawaii and Hawaii companies being prevented from conducting business in other countries.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2199 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2265, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Corrections."

This bill would transfer the supervisory and counseling functions of paroled individuals along with positions and employees from the field service branch of the Hawaii Paroling Authority to the Department of Public Safety.

This bill is objectionable because it creates a conflict of interest on the part of the Department of Public Safety in rendering services to be relied upon by the Hawaii Paroling Authority. The Hawaii

Paroling Authority utilizes the reports and recommendations of its independent supervisory and counseling staff in its field service branch in rendering its decisions on whether to re-incarcerate parole violators. To the extent that the Department of Public Safety's interest is in the operation and management of jails and prisons and accommodating those committed to incarceration, its recommendations to the Hawaii Paroling Authority against re-incarceration could be called into question creating an undue conflict between the two governmental bodies.

This bill erodes the independence and objectivity the Hawaii Paroling Authority must exercise when making decisions about recommitting convicted felons and also protecting the safety of the community.

The bill fails to note that the populations the Department of Public Safety supervises in its Intake Services Center are different from the populations the Hawaii Paroling Authority is responsible for supervising. It should be noted that the proposed transfer is opposed by those respected in the law enforcement community, including the Honolulu Prosecuting Attorney, Attorney General, members of the Judiciary, and the senior management of the Department of Public Safety.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2265 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2299

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2299, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Chapter 803."

The purpose of this bill is to specify the exact procedure and the exact words to be stated by police before entering homes to arrest persons suspected of having committed crimes.

On June 15, 2006, the United States Supreme Court decided Hudson v. Michigan, a case that has re-written the entire federal jurisprudence of "knock and announce" and has determined that there is no constitutional requirement to suppress evidence based on a "knock and announce" violation. I believe that any bill that addresses "knock and announce" ought to reflect this decision, and thus it would be prudent to wait until the 2007 regular session of the Legislature to revisit this matter.

The original purpose of this bill was to restore the standards required by the United States Constitution, rather than the higher standard imposed by section 803-11, Hawaii Revised Statutes, that dictates police procedure when entering a house to arrest a person suspected of a crime. This bill was proposed in response to a case decided by the Hawaii Supreme Court. In State v. Maldonado, 108 Haw. 436, 121 P.3d 901 (2005), the Court held that section 803-11, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires strict compliance and that, if a law enforcement officer does not strictly comply with the exact language of section 803-11 when executing a warrant of arrest, all evidence gained during the execution of the warrant must be suppressed. (As noted above, such suppression is now no longer required by the United States Constitution).

It is well-settled law that both the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and section 7 of article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii require only that a search must be reasonable. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, in United States v. Combs, 379 F.3d 564 (9th Cir. 2004), citing the United States Supreme Court decision in Wilson v. Arkansas, 514 U.S. 927, 934 (1995), stated that "The common-law principle that law enforcement officers should 'knock and announce' their presence and authority before entering a dwelling is part of the reasonableness inquiry under the United States Constitution's Fourth Amendment guarantee against unreasonable searches and seizure" and that "[t]he Fourth Amendment's flexible requirement of reasonableness should not be read to mandate a rigid rule of announcement that ignores countervailing law enforcement interests." The Combs decision further stated, "Since Wilson, the Court has reiterated that the knock and announce principle is a part of the reasonableness inquiry rather than a prerequisite for constitutional entry." Thus, in a case where the police shout "Police -- search warrant," the police have substantially complied with the constitutional "knock and announce" requirement.

However, in Hawaii, because of the wording of section 803-11, it is insufficient to shout "police -- search warrant." The Hawaii Supreme Court has held that, even though it would be reasonable to infer that police officers standing at a door shouting "police -- search warrant" are demanding entry to a house, the entry is invalidated by section 803-11 unless the police explicitly demand entry. State v. Harada, 98 Haw. 18, 41 P.3d 174 (2002).

In the Maldonado case, a law enforcement officer received a tip that one of Hawaii's most wanted criminals, Robert Maldonado, was at a given location and that this wanted criminal might be in possession of firearms and drugs. This officer, along with others, donned body armor and went to the location, bearing a valid warrant for the arrest of this "most wanted" fugitive. One can scarcely imagine a more dangerous assignment for a law enforcement officer. The search of the house resulted in the discovery of contraband and the arrest of Jobert Maldonado, the fugitive's brother. Jobert Maldonado was arrested and convicted, but the conviction was reversed because the officers, while conducting a potentially dangerous operation, did not "strictly comply" with section 803-11.

The law enforcement officers in this case had knocked and then shouted "Sheriffs Office -- Police" while simultaneously opening an unlocked screen door. Although the screen door was closed, the wooden door was open when the officers arrived and was not broken by the law enforcement officers. The officers received oral permission to enter the house and entered the house, where they observed what appeared to be evidence of a "clandestine lab" used for the production of methamphetamine. However, the officers did not announce that they were the bearers of an arrest warrant and did not wait a reasonable time after demanding entry before opening the unlocked screen door. While it is true that the officers had not strictly complied with section 803-11, permission to enter was given and not refused, so most citizens, as well as the United States Congress and the United States Supreme Court, would have deemed the entry lawful.

Under the United States Constitution and under the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, the arrest of this "most wanted" fugitive would not have been subject to strict compliance, but rather a more appropriate standard of reasonableness. But because of section 803-11, the "strict compliance" standard applies, even under very dangerous circumstances, so the conviction was reversed.

The intent of the Legislature was not to change the rule that exigent circumstances can excuse the use of the "knock and announce" procedure. However, the phrase "absent exigent circumstances" was placed in a portion of the bill where it will not have the intended effect and will likely create some serious interpretational problems and unintended consequences. This phrase was placed in the bill very late in the drafting process at the request of the Department of the Attorney General, but unfortunately the phrase was not inserted in the proper place.

In addition, as drafted, House Bill No. 2299 will not resolve the problem demonstrated by the Maldonado case. The first part of the bill specifically requires a knock on the door and specific words to be used. This is not flexible enough, given the varied and unpredictable situations law enforcement officers encounter, and could lead to other unjust outcomes like the one reached in the Maldonado case.

The bill also rewrites the statute and redefines reasonable time. There is a potential problem with this amendment. First, the amendment is apparently based upon 18 U.S.C. § 3109 (the Federal Knock and Announce Rule) and the federal case law interpreting that section. That section reads, with regard to search warrant execution:

The officer may break open any outer or inner door or any window of a house, or any part of the house, or anything therein, to execute a search warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he is refused admittance or when necessary to liberate himself or a person aiding him in the execution of the warrant.

18 U.S.C. § 3109.

As noted in the Senate Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs Committee report, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in United States v. Chavez-Miranda, 306 F.3d 973 (9th Cir. 2002), spelled out what should be taken into account when deciding a reasonable length of time, and that has been essentially incorporated into this bill. However, by incorporating only part of the federal law, this amendment fails to restore the more reasonable standards created by the United States Constitution and conversely will serve only to further complicate state arrest procedures by mandating strict compliance with additional statutory standards.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2299 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2558

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2558, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Vocational Rehabilitation."

The purported intent of this bill is to authorize the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations to refer injured employees who may not have suffered permanent disabilities as a result of their work injuries for vocational rehabilitation when the injured employees are unable to return to their regular jobs after their injuries may have stabilized and when employers have made no offer of "permanent" suitable work that is comparable in earnings to that of the employees' former jobs.

My Administration believes that returning injured employees to work is medically and economically beneficial to the employees, is economically beneficial to the employers, and is beneficial to the workers' compensation system. Thus, my Administration has supported efforts to encourage employers to provide alternative work and efforts to vocationally rehabilitate injured employees.

This bill, however, is objectionable because the requirement that employers offer "permanent" suitable work could be interpreted to imply that employers must offer guaranteed lifelong employment and that employers cannot later terminate the employee for economic reasons or employee misconduct. To the extent that employers will not be able to offer such permanent work, more employees would seek vocational rehabilitation services, thus increasing the cost of the system.

It should be pointed out that vocational rehabilitation services are intended for those injured employees who have become permanently disabled from performing their usual and customary work and the employer has no other work available to accommodate the person's permanent limitations. Allowing all injured employees, even those with minor injuries, the ability to be considered for vocational rehabilitation services could significantly increase the number of injured workers flowing into the vocational rehabilitation system. It would increase temporary disability costs, increase workers compensation premiums, and preclude availability of the system for those who most need it--the permanently disabled.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2558 without my approval.

Twenty-Third Legislature

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2641, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Work Projects."

The purported intent of this bill is to mandate that a private construction project will be considered a public works project subject to chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Hawaii's Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works law, if the State or a political subdivision leases or is assigned more than fifty percent of the project. Copies of the lease agreement must be filed with the Department of Accounting and General Services and the construction project owner must submit weekly certified payrolls to the leasing governmental agency or the governmental agency using the leased or assigned space.

This bill also requires, prior to the start of construction, that the construction project owner sign an agreement with the leasing governmental entity agreeing to pay the prevailing wage to the laborers and mechanics working on this project and to otherwise comply with the requirements of chapter 104.

This bill is objectionable because it is an unwarranted expansion of the types of projects that could be subject to public works projects rules and statutes. Currently, section 12-22-1 of the Hawaii Administrative Rules defines a public work to encompass a private construction project when the State or a political subdivision leases the entire building or structure and where: (1) the lease was entered into prior to construction of the structure or building; and (2) the construction work was performed according to plans, specifications, or criteria of the leasing governmental entity.

Expanding public works coverage to mixed public-private structures may inject confusion and needlessly increase the associated building costs of the project. Smaller owners in particular may not want to develop commercial space for lease to the government because of the additional burden of complying with unfamiliar labor laws. It is anticipated that this bill will limit or reduce the number of office buildings that will be available for lease to government agencies. Finally, this bill could impede the development of mixed use housing projects, wherein some of the units were for market sale or rental and others were leased to a public housing corporation for elderly, Section 8, or transitional housing.

Additionally, because this bill directs that certified payroll data shall be submitted to the government leasing agency, rather than the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, this data will go to entities that have no authority to audit or enforce these payrolls, thereby inhibiting the enforcement of wage laws this bill attempts to impose on private projects.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2641 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2691

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2691, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Prevailing Wages."

The purpose of this bill is to allow a joint labor-management committee established under the federal Labor Management Cooperation Act of 1978 to file a lawsuit against an employer who fails to pay the prevailing wage required by chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Hawaii's Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works law, to its laborers and mechanics working on a governmental construction project.

This bill is objectionable because the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations currently conducts both complaint-generated and random routine investigations of public works projects for compliance with chapter 104. The Department's improved educational and outreach programs have focused in a positive manner in ensuring employers understand their obligations under the law. There is no demonstrated need to allow for the enforcement of chapter 104 by labor-management committees that may have personal interests in singling out certain contractors. Lawsuits against these contractors may also deter other contractors from bidding on public works projects, limiting the competition for these types of projects.

Moreover, this bill may require the Department to devote more resources to litigation, since the Department may have to intervene as an interested party to ensure that chapter 104 is being interpreted correctly. This will divert attention from what should be the primary focus, which is consistent, vigilant enforcement by the responsible government agency of the existing statute.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2691 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2692

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2692, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Works."

The purpose of this bill is to make projects financed by special purpose revenue bonds and housing projects financed through Section 201(H) subject to Chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Hawaii's Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works Law.

This bill is objectionable because it is likely to increase the actual costs of constructing projects using special purpose revenue bonds. Special purpose revenue bonds are used to build hospitals, schools, early childhood education centers, county pollution control projects and related works deemed to be in the best interests of the general public. Often it is non-profit organizations that seek special purpose revenue bonds to finance a new structure. This funding tool is used to lower interest costs of the financing for such projects. No taxpayer funds are used and taxpayers are not responsible for a default on the bonds.

While these projects may meet the narrow definition of public works projects, they do not meet the test of having a governmental organization responsible for the monitoring required to meet Chapter 104 applicability.

Subjecting these projects to Chapter 104 runs counter to the intent and spirit of using special purpose revenue bonds to help reduce expenses incurred by strictly private and non-profit entities and may actually act as a deterrent to using this financing mechanism and decrease the number of projects on behalf of the general community.

Additionally, this bill would place enforcement and monitoring functions on the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations without the commensurate resources to carry out these duties.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2692 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2878

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2878, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Special Purpose Revenue Bonds to Assist Tradewinds Forest Products, LLC."

The purpose of this bill is to authorize the issuance of up to $25,000,000 in special purpose revenue bonds to assist Tradewinds Forest Products, LLC ("Tradewinds"), a Delaware limited liability company, in the establishment of a veneer mill and associated cogeneration plant (the "project").

This bill is objectionable because there are serious questions as to whether issuance of the contemplated special purpose revenue bonds would serve a public purpose and whether financing of the project is an appropriate use of such bonds. First, based on an initial review, it is doubtful that special purpose revenue bonds could be issued for this project since most of the $30,000,000 project does not appear to qualify for special purpose revenue bond financing on a federal tax-exempt basis. Absent a detailed legal analysis of the engineering schematics and components of the project by bond counsel, federal tax-exempt financing for the project likely would be limited to $10,000,000 under section 144 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Generally, special purpose revenue bonds are marketable only if they can be issued on a federal tax-exempt basis. Absent sufficient special purpose revenue bond financing, it is unclear whether the project would produce the local products and jobs anticipated in the bill. Tradewinds has had an agreement for the past five years with the State to build a timber processing plant and to harvest eucalyptus and maple planted in the Waieka Forest Reserve. However, due to difficulties in securing financing, the project has been delayed and has not produced the local products and jobs initially anticipated.

Unfortunately, it appears the proposed project has not been adequately explained to the community such that residents of the area have raised questions and concerns about the potential impacts. Additionally, questions have been raised as to the appropriateness of using publicly issued financing for a project that proposes to use the public's resources for private gain. Until these concerns are fully and fairly addressed, the State should not be asked to issue bonds for this proposal.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2878 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 3116

Honorable Members

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 3116, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Hawaii Children's Health Care Program."

The purposes of this bill are to establish the "Hawaii Children's Health Care Program" (HCHCP), a temporary three-year pilot program that will provide free health insurance for qualified uninsured children, and to appropriate $600,000 for fiscal year 2006-2007 to the Department of Human Services for the HCHCP.

This bill is objectionable because it will fail to achieve its intended purpose of providing health insurance to "uninsured children" who are "ineligible for any state or federal health care coverage."

First, the limited number of spots available in the free HCHCP may go to children who were insured, but whose parents opted to keep uninsured for six months in order to qualify for the free HCHCP insurance. The bill provides that "individuals between two hundred fifty and three hundred per cent of the federal poverty level who would otherwise be qualified for QUEST-net coverage may choose to receive coverage through QUEST-net and pay a prorated premium rate or to receive coverage through the [HCHCP] at no charge." Allowing children who qualify for coverage under an existing program to be eligible for the free HCHCP insurance would clearly defeat the intent of this bill to provide healthcare coverage to uninsured children.

Second, the measure states, "All children currently enrolled in a mutual benefit society's children's plan shall be eligible for enrollment into the Hawaii children's health care program." This means that approximately $300,000 of the $600,000 appropriation contained in House Bill 3116 will be used to cover children who are currently enrolled in HMSA's children's health plan, whose parents currently pay the fifty dollar co-pay for coverage. Consequently, a child who was already insured may take the spot of a child who was truly uninsured. Again, allowing children who qualify for coverage under an existing program to be eligible for the free HCHCP insurance clearly defeats the intent of this bill to provide healthcare coverage to uninsured children.

Third, requiring that children be uninsured continually for at least six months in order to qualify for the program may result in the unintended consequence of parents disenrolling their children from private health insurance to go without health insurance for the six months required to access the program.

Fourth, with the recent approval of the Department of Human Services' Section 1115 waiver, any child with a household income up to three hundred per cent of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) will now have easier access to the full benefit packages offered in Medicaid health insurance, QUEST, and QUEST-Net programs. It is important to note that these programs are able to utilize federal funds as well as State funds, providing an enhanced package of benefits at a lower cost. By contrast, this measure appropriates $600,000 in State funds, without any federal contribution, for a limited health benefit package that can only serve a portion of the children that are served through the State's existing programs.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 3116 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 3118

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 3118, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Corporations."

The purpose of this bill is to establish a task force to determine how to authorize the establishment of corporations structured to incorporate and protect the interests of employees and the public, and provide incentives for the creation of "responsible" companies that not only consider the public interest, but integrate the public interest into the structure and duties of the corporation.

This bill is objectionable because it assumes that shareholder and community interests are at odds. This presupposes that corporations are so driven by their bottom lines that they do not care about their employees, their customers, the environment, public health and safety, or their communities. The bill's preamble is especially objectionable because it contends that corporations are incentivized and, thus, move deliberately to cause harm to those community interests. This assumes that corporations ignore their greatest asset (i.e., their employees) and their target audience (i.e., their customers). Nothing could be further from reality.

In the real world, a business must be responsive to its employees and its customers, for without them, the business will fail. Corporations are comprised of our neighbors; they are active at community events; and they are some of the most generous givers to charities in our community. To suggest that corporations would choose profit over the communities they operate in draws a false distinction and does a disservice to all of the hard working private-sector people who contribute to the betterment of our community.

Second, this bill is objectionable because it is inconsistent with other states' laws and, therefore, moves us in the wrong direction. It is flatly inconsistent with the recent progress that the State has made in becoming more business-friendly, and would move us back, once again, into the business-unfriendly column. My Administration has worked hard to make it easier for new businesses to come to Hawaii and increase competition in the marketplace. One way that we do this is to adopt model business laws and uniform legislation that have been adopted in other states across the nation. Adopting model laws means that businesses are familiar with the regulatory scheme and do not have to invest large amounts of capital to comply with regulatory laws that are unique to one location. As this bill is not based upon uniform legislation, it will not have the effect of enhancing Hawaii's business-friendly reputation. Instead, this bill will likely have the opposite effect, perpetuating the impression that Hawaii is anti-business.

Third, this bill is objectionable because it takes a myopic view of corporate governance. Rather than exploring other approaches to improving corporate governance and then determining which approach is appropriate for Hawaii, this bill refers to the Senate Draft as the basis for discussion and thereby rushes into an approach that will likely perpetuate Hawaii's anti-business reputation. If the intent were to improve corporate governance, it would have been more appropriate to charge the task force with examining a variety of approaches and then recommending the most appropriate approach for Hawaii, rather than requiring that the task force begin by considering how to disempower corporate shareholders.

Finally, I am concerned with the bill's potential impact on tax revenues. Both the House and the original Senate version of this bill reflected what I believe to be the obvious fact that shifting control of corporations from shareholder investors to those representing community interests will not happen without financial incentives. As a result, those versions included tax breaks for those investing in "responsible" corporations. The Senate Committee on Ways and Means wisely removed the tax break provisions from the bill, but the task force will surely have to consider whether tax breaks are necessary to make this new corporate form feasible. Giving tax breaks to encourage the creation of alternative corporate forms is bad public policy. If those corporations cannot succeed in the marketplace, their good intentions notwithstanding, I am not willing to force taxpayers to subsidize an experiment of this sort.

It is unusual for me to object to the creation of a task force, as a task force usually reflects an honest attempt to thoroughly consider an issue and, as a result, incorporates concepts of intellectual exploration, openness, and transparency that I frequently champion. In this case, though, I believe that the deck is stacked in favor of a demonstrably flawed concept. If the task force was not directed to start from the Conference Draft version of the bill, and if the Conference Draft itself did not reflect such hostility toward local business, it would be less problematic. Hostility toward business, though, is the essence of the proposal, and for that reason I cannot support it.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 3118 without my approval.

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 3261, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Ingenuity Corporation Charter."

The purpose of this bill is to establish the Hawaii Ingenuity Corporation to create a business entity that owns and licenses intellectual and other property.

This bill is objectionable for a number of reasons. First, there are concerns regarding the creation of a private, for-profit organization within Hawaii Revised Statutes that would have no attachment or oversight from a government department. This arrangement may result in a challenge under the equal protection clause of the Constitution since this entity would not be required to comply with the incorporation laws that other corporations are required to follow before being authorized to do business in the State.

Second, there is a lack of clarity relating to the State's responsibility, if any, in the event the Corporation is sued or for any other legal matters the Corporation may face. This ambiguity also creates confusion as to whether this Corporation is covered by Chapters 91 and 92 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes covering public rulemaking and sunshine laws.

Third, there would be difficulties in making any changes to the Corporation's charter because amendments to the charter of the Corporation would require the passage of a legislative act and rescission of the charter would require a two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature.

Fourth, it is inappropriate and outside the scope of law to give a for-profit corporation the ability to declare that exercising the power to collectively bargain on behalf of inventors and labor organizations is an exception to all state antitrust and federal anti-competitive practice rules and statutes.

Fifth, and most importantly, the bill may actually hurt the very entity it is intended to help--the inventor. Inventors would have no direct representation on the Corporate Board. The bill further limits the inventor's return on investment and only allows the inventor to sue the corporation after going through an elaborate and unnecessary grievance process structured to the benefit of the corporation and not the inventor. The legislation fails to increase an investor's ability to compete in a global marketplace or protect his patents beyond what is already available through federal statutes. Hawaii inventors expressed specific reservations about Mainland entities pushing this bill and attempting to organize Hawaii inventors.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 3261 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2004, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Historic Preservation."

The purpose of this bill is to designate a sandbar in Kaneohe Bay as the "Ahu o Laka State Monument" and to regulate the use of the sandbar pursuant to rules to be adopted by the Department of Land and Natural Resources.

This bill is objectionable because it provides unnecessary regulation of an active recreational and historical site in Kaneohe Bay. The bill was introduced in response to an incident that occurred in 2005. There exist sufficient laws to govern activities on the sandbar without converting it to State monument status. The Division of Conservation and Resources Enforcement and the United States Coast Guard have the authority to monitor activities that address safety, security, and sanitation concerns.

Secondly, the ability to define the actual State monument area may be difficult, if not impossible, given the shifting sands and movements during tides. Creating a specific perimeter for the State monument might lead to administrative and legal challenges as to where the monument rules do and do not apply.

The cultural and historic nature of the area continue to be researched by the Department of Land and Natural Resources and others. However, long-standing members of the community, locally elected officials, and community leaders stated that there has not been any discussion prior to this bill to suggest that the sandbar should be treated as a State monument. There is community concern that a monument designation may act to the detriment of the area, encouraging visitor guidebooks, websites, and tourist literature to highlight an area that has traditionally been used by residents and those familiar with the Windward Oahu topography.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2004 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2006, entitled "A Bill for an Act Prohibiting Sales of Opihi."

The purpose of this bill is to prohibit the sale of all Hawaii species of edible opihi, subject to an exemption for certain opihi shells used to make jewelry.

Currently opihi can be collected year round throughout the Hawaiian Islands. The shells must be at least one and one-fourth inches wide or the meat, without the shell, must be at least one-half inch wide to be legally harvested. Under current Hawaii Administrative Rules, there is no limitation on the amount of opihi that may be legally harvested. However, this bill will create a presumption that the taking of more than one-half gallon per person per day of opihi, as measured with its shell on, from the waters within the jurisdiction of the State, is for the purpose of selling or offering to sell the opihi. The Department of Land and Natural Resources has taken the position that it will be difficult, if not impossible, to enforce this bill, because its officers will not be able to determine if the opihi someone possessed was legally harvested within the personal limits established in this bill.

Residents of Ni'ihau requested an exemption to a statewide prohibition, indicating that the sale of opihi makes up a portion of their local economy, but their request was rejected by the Legislature. Furthermore, those familiar with the industry believe that this bill will create a black market for opihi that will likely promote illegal harvesting and hurt legal collectors and, thus, will disproportionately impact those who gather nature's products as has been traditionally practiced for centuries in our islands.

I intend to call upon the Department of Land and Natural Resources to conduct a scientific, fact-based study of opihi to determine whether harvesting limits should be imposed. If the Department of Land and Natural Resources' study determines that harvesting limits are needed to protect the species, then my Administration will take the necessary steps to address this matter.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2076, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Leasehold Conversion."

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 2076 is to allow, for a limited time, a fee owner to exclude from taxable income one hundred percent of the gain realized from: (1) the sale of the leased fee interest in a residential house lot or multi-family residential leasehold unit to the lessee of the house lot or unit; or (2) the sale of the leased fee interest in a multi-family residential leasehold property to the association of apartment owners or the residential cooperative corporation of the multi-family residential leasehold property. The total exclusion may not exceed an aggregate cap of $800,000 for "all taxpayers in the State in any tax year."

Although the provision of an incentive for fee owners to sell the fee interest in their residential real property is an idea that has merit, this bill is objectionable because it provides an inadequate incentive for a significant number of owners to sell their leased fee interest. Moreover, the cost and time necessary to implement the bill for two years far outweigh the benefits. This bill will provide an incentive for only a few fee owners to sell their leased fee interest since the maximum tax savings available under the cap would be $58,000 per year. On the other hand, to implement the bill, the Department of Taxation will be faced with the administrative burdens of establishing guidelines, training personnel, gearing up for a public information campaign, creating and printing the exemption form, and reviewing an unknown number of claims.

The aggregate cap frustrates the laudable purpose to promote widespread leasehold conversion. The aggregate cap of $800,000 is very low and will easily be exceeded by the sale of just one or two single-family homes, or maybe three or four condominium units. This bill provides no criteria or guidelines for the Department of Taxation to determine which of the fee owners would qualify for the exclusion from income of up to $800,000 "in the aggregate for all taxpayers in the State in any tax year." Consequently, the Department of Taxation will also be faced with tax appeals and litigation regarding this bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2133

Honorable Members

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2133, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Health."

The purposes of this bill are to establish a Hawaii health commission within the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs that would develop a comprehensive health plan for people in Hawaii and to restrict the use in Hawaii of vaccines that contain mercury.

This bill is objectionable because it restricts the use of FDA-approved vaccines for no scientifically sound reason. This restriction will put the health and well-being of Hawaii residents at risk, particularly in the event of an influenza pandemic.

Thimerosal, an organic mercury compound, has been used as a preservative in some vaccines for many years. The FDA requires that vials of vaccines that provide multiple doses, such as many flu vaccines, contain preservatives to prevent contamination as individual doses are withdrawn from the vial. When thimerosal is processed by the body, it breaks down into ethyl mercury, one form of mercury. Others are pure mercury, such as that formerly used in thermometers, and methyl mercury, which is produced by microorganisms in water and soil and can accumulate in fish. Exposure to high levels of methyl mercury is toxic.

In 1999, the FDA determined that on a regular vaccination schedule some infants might be exposed to accumulated doses of ethyl mercury that would exceed some guidelines for methyl mercury. These forms of mercury are different and are processed differently by the body. Ethyl mercury breaks down much more rapidly and is eliminated more quickly than methyl mercury. But as a precaution, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the American Academy of Pediatrics, and vaccine manufacturers decided that thimerosal should be reduced or eliminated in vaccines. As a result, the vaccines routinely recommended for childhood immunization no longer contain thimerosal. However, some immunizations for adolescents and adults still do. Further, much of the flu vaccine supply does as well.

Two years after that precautionary decision, the Immunization Safety Review Committee of the Institute of Medicine in the National Academies of Science reported that there was not enough evidence to say that vaccines with thimerosal either do or do not cause various disorders in children such as autism, hyperactivity, and delayed speech. By 2004 enough additional studies had been done for the committee to conclude that there is no causal relationship between thimerosal-containing vaccines and autism.

This bill ignores the body of current scientific evidence on thimerosal-containing vaccines. It also ignores the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Hawaii Academy of Family Practice, the Hawaii Medical Association, the Hawaii Chapter of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology, and numerous physicians who are on record opposing this legislation. Its enactment could cause some parents to doubt the general safety of vaccines and to decline vaccinations for their children, a step backward in our efforts to encourage families to participate in vaccination and to reduce or eliminate preventable illness and deaths from communicable diseases.

Any action that potentially lowers the immunization rate is of concern to me, particularly since Hawaii is a natural gateway for a flu pandemic. Reducing our population's health protection is a risk I am not willing to take.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2133 without my approval.

The purpose of this bill is to prohibit the State from transferring small boat harbors to any county unless provided by statute.

This bill is objectionable because the proposed statute prohibiting the transfer of the small boat harbors to the counties is more restrictive than the already existing statute (section 200-2.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes). The statute already authorizes the Board of Land and Natural Resources to lease fast lands within an existing state boating facility for private development, management, and operation without legislative approval.

Senate Bill No. 2150 provides that a similar transfer to a county would be prohibited. To the extent that the Legislature has already authorized the board to lease fast lands to private parties, the prohibition of leases to the counties, which are public bodies that are directly responsible to their citizens, is contrary to public policy because it places the counties at a disadvantage when compared with private parties if the counties desire to seek authority to operate a State-owned small boat harbor.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2166

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2166, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Minors."

The purposes of this bill are to (1) allow minors without guardians to consent to the provision of primary or preventive medical care and services if a licensed healthcare practitioner makes certain determinations; (2) provide immunity from civil and criminal liability to a practitioner who provides primary care to a minor without a guardian in certain circumstances; (3) allow a minor to request that a managed care or health insurance plan billed for the minor's care not disclose information to certain individuals; and (4) deletes current statutory language that would have required parental consent for a minor (14 to 17 years of age) to terminate a pregnancy.

Although it is certainly important for minors without guardians, including homeless, runaway, and immigrant minors, to be able to consent to medical services, this bill is objectionable because it goes beyond that goal. In addition to allowing minors without guardians to consent to primary and preventive medical care and services, the bill would expressly allow some minors as young as fourteen years of age to consent to complex medical procedures including surgery. These types of medical procedures are serious and have long-term consequences for the health and well-being of the child. Yet, this bill would allow young people to make their decisions who may not have the maturity or judgment to understand the full consequences of this decision.

First, the purpose section of this measure indicates the target population is homeless, runaway, and immigrant minors who find themselves unable to obtain medical services. While this is referenced in the preamble to this bill, the actual statutory language contains no phraseology specifying this target population. The law, as drafted, applies to any minor over age 14. Further, the stipulation that it "not be practicable" to obtain legal consent from an adult, is overly broad.

Second, Senate Bill No. 2166 provides immunity to licensed or certified health practitioners who provide care and treatment to minors. However, the bill expands the type of person who can perform medical treatments on a minor beyond the current statutory limit of licensed practicing physicians. Further, while it is likely the medical practitioner could be held liable for improper medical care, the practitioner could not be held liable for any errors in determining that the minor had no adult supervision and understood the nature and consequence of the medical procedure performed.

The bill also contains a confidentiality provision that may prevent parents from being informed about the medical care and treatment that their children receive. There is merit in the concern that parent rights as well as obligations are being undermined when the State sanctions in laws the ability of a child to avoid, for whatever valid reason may exist, the involvement of a parent or responsible adult.

Further, this measure requires a health insurer to not disclose payment information to the adult who owns an insurance policy covering the minor, if the minor asks that the information be withheld. Homeless, runaway, and immigrant minors are usually not covered by a parent's insurance policy, leaving the intent of this provision questionable while requiring insurance firms to participate in this concealment.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2166 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2190

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2190, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Employment Security."

The purposes of this bill are to provide temporary tax relief to employers by lowering the maximum taxable wage base for calendar years 2007 and 2008, to increase unemployment benefits for eligible individuals, to increase the amount an individual may earn while collecting his full unemployment benefit amount, and to exclude the payment of benefits to individuals who are terminated for willful or wanton misconduct.

This bill is objectionable because the increases in benefits to unemployment insurance claimants provided by this bill will have an adverse impact on the unemployment insurance trust fund and are projected to increase unemployment compensation benefits by approximately 18 percent per year.

This bill amends section 383-22, HRS, to increase the maximum weekly benefit amount an eligible individual may collect from seventy percent of the average weekly wage to eighty percent of the average weekly wage for benefits years beginning January 1, 2007. This permanent increase in the benefit amount will affect the balance of the unemployment trust fund.

In addition to the higher benefits amount, this bill also amends section 383-24, HRS, to increase the number of weeks that an eligible individual may obtain unemployment benefits from twenty-six weeks to thirty weeks. This section is effective for claims filed on or after January 1, 2006.

This bill also amends section 383-23, HRS, to increase the amount of wages an employee may earn from $50 to $150 while collecting the full unemployment benefit amount.

As a consequence, the amount of taxes employers will pay in the future will permanently increase.

The bill's proponents failed to provide convincing data that these changes are merited given the current unemployment climate in Hawaii. Our State has benefitted from the lowest national unemployment rates. There is no demonstrable basis that indicates employees who are temporarily out of work need extended unemployment insurance benefits nor higher payments. The job climate is such that those out of work should be encouraged to seek new employment in a timely fashion. This bill would tend to discourage timely re-entry into the workforce.

This bill will increase the cost of doing business in Hawaii, perpetuating Hawaii's reputation as anti-business, which my administration has worked hard to reform. Had this bill provided for temporary tax relief for employers only, the cost of doing business would have been reduced and the trust fund would have remained healthy.

Finally, this bill amends section 383-30(2), Hawaii Revised Statutes, to disqualify individuals terminated from employment for willful or wanton misconduct connected with work, and defines "willful or wanton misconduct." Currently, section 383-30(2), HRS, disqualifies individuals who are discharged for misconduct connected with work.

As defined by this bill, "mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, poor performance, isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion shall not constitute willful or wanton misconduct." Given this language, a single act, no matter how egregious, would not constitute misconduct.

My administration believes it would be bad public policy to allow employees to collect unemployment insurance benefits who are terminated for acts that endanger the safety of others in the workplace as well as misconduct and failure to follow proper company rules.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2190 without my approval.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2244

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2244, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Expungements."

This bill permits the expungement of convictions for violations upon written application to the Attorney General. This bill will require the deletion of digitized arrest records rather than the return of hard copy materials, if applicable. This bill would also require the return of fingerprints and photographs, or the deletion of digitized images to a person entitled to an expungement, except when the person is a fugitive from justice.

This bill is objectionable because it will allow for the expungement of convictions of violations, including simple trespass, disorderly conduct, and loitering for prostitution. If the expungement of violations is permitted, charges such as these would be unavailable to criminal justice agencies, such as the state and county prosecuting agencies, as they are not "law enforcement agencies" that are authorized to have access to these records if acting in the scope of their duties. This information would also be unavailable to employers or agencies authorized by the Legislature to conduct suitability determinations on prospective employees who have direct contact with Hawaii's designated vulnerable population, namely children, the elderly, and the developmentally challenged.

This bill will also lead to court challenges as there are no guidelines or standards that can be used to determine when the Department of the Attorney General should deny or process an application to expunge the record of a conviction for a violation. As a result, any denial of an application will be open to a challenge that the decision was arbitrarily made. Therefore, the Department will be unable to deny any application for expungement of a conviction for a violation, even in cases where an individual continues to be convicted of violations such as simple trespass, disorderly conduct, and loitering for prostitution. An individual could be convicted for committing a violation every single day and still be entitled to file for an expungement of the conviction for the violation and have it granted each time.

If this bill becomes law, the Department of the Attorney General anticipates that there would be an additional 3,000 - 100,000 offenders that would become eligible for an expungement. The Hawaii Criminal Justice Data Center would require additional positions to process these requests. The police departments and Sheriff's Office would also require additional personnel to expunge the requested charges from their files. However, this bill does not provide any additional funding or resources to the affected agencies to handle the additional workload.

This bill will also mandate the return of all fingerprint cards and photographs of a person entitled to an expungement order unless the applicant is a fugitive from justice. This will erode the accountability and integrity of our fingerprint records in the State Automated Fingerprint Identification System. This is especially true in the case of an arrest with two or more charges. If one of the charges is expunged, the fingerprints and photographs would have to be returned to the eligible applicant. Law enforcement agencies would then have no fingerprints or photographs associated with the charges remaining from that arrest. This could lead to a problem in the future, as law enforcement agencies would be unable to correctly identify the convicted individual.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2244 without my approval.

HONOLULU
July 10, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2727

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2727, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Neurotrauma."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Neurotrauma Special Fund, established by section 321H-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to be used to pay for services to assist individuals with neurotraumatic injuries, in addition to its existing purposes of education, access assistance, and creation of a neurotrauma registry. The bill also requires the Department of Human Services to apply by December 31, 2007, to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services for a medicaid home and community-based waiver for traumatic brain injuries ("TBI").

This bill is objectionable because, first, the limited amount of moneys currently in the fund (approximately $1,000,000), combined with expected deposits into the fund, are not sufficient to provide the direct services listed in this bill to the estimated number of persons who might need services per year in Hawaii. Each year there are approximately 1,500 individuals hospitalized in Hawaii with TBI. A survivor of TBI typically faces five to ten years of intensive treatment, with estimated lifetime costs exceeding $4,000,000 per survivor. A mandate to provide similar services to clients of the Developmental Disabilities Division costs the State $38,000 per client per year. Applying those figures, the estimated annual cost to the State to provide these direct services to all individuals with TBI would exceed $57,000,000.

Second, the Departments of Human Services and of Health do not have the detailed data necessary to determine the identification and needs of target populations; which services to include in the waiver that will provide cognitive therapy, personal assistance, respite care, and day health programs as mandated by the bill; the number of people to be served; the availability of service providers in the community; or differentiation among varying levels of TBI. More time is needed to collect and analyze this data, because without it, the departments cannot meaningfully develop and select the services to be included in a TBI waiver application.

Third, while the amendments do not direct the State how to apportion the moneys in the Neurotrauma Special Fund among the purposes specified in the bill, they do add a mandate that moneys in the fund "shall be used for the purpose of funding and contracting for services . . . that assist individuals with neurotraumatic injuries, including but not limited to cognitive therapy, personal assistance, respite care, and day health programs." Because this mandate is estimated to cost much more than the total amount of money available in the Neurotrauma Special Fund, this bill may subject the State to adverse legal action and liability for failure to provide direct services to individuals with TBI.

Fourth, the moneys in the Neurotrauma Special Fund are designated to assist individuals with a spectrum of neurotraumatic injuries, not just traumatic brain injuries. However, this measure intends to use most of the funds only for services to the Medicaid-eligible traumatic brain injury waiver clients. The potential adverse impact of denying services to other neurotrauma patients is inappropriate and unfortunate.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2727 without my approval.

Respectfully,

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2006

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2997

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2997, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Procurement."

This bill would provide exemptions from the Hawaii Public Procurement Code for the High Technology Development Corporation, the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation, and the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii Authority. This bill also exempts from the Procurement Code contracts for services by a legislative agency for the purpose of preparing a study or report for submission to the Legislature.

This bill is objectionable because the Procurement Code promotes transparency, fair treatment, competition, and public confidence in the government's procurement of goods, services, and construction. It is intended to protect against waste, fraud, and abuse. Absent compelling reasons, any governmental agency with the authority to expend public funds should be in compliance with the Procurement Code.

The ostensible reason for exempting the above-mentioned agencies from the Procurement Code is that they are involved in cutting-edge technology in a time-sensitive, market-driven, volatile investment environment, thus requiring the agencies to have the flexibility to make procurements in an expeditious manner. The reason for exempting contracts for legislative reports is that the procurement process impinges on the agencies' ability to timely comply with their reporting requirements to the Legislature.

The Procurement Code, however, already allows various source selection methods. In addition to invitations for bids and requests for proposals, the Procurement Code allows an informal process for small purchases, sole source selections, emergency purchases, and exemptions from the Procurement Code by law, by rules, or by written determinations of the Chief Procurement Officer. Given the existing flexibility, there is no basis for exempting these agencies from the Procurement Code. Moreover, the purposes of the Procurement Code -- the promotion of transparency, fairness, competition, and public confidence and the protection against waste, fraud, and abuse -- should not be sacrificed absent compelling reasons or for the convenience of the agencies.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2997 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 3035

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 3035, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Continued Temporary Total Disability Benefits to Injured Employees."

This bill prevents the termination of temporary total disability (TTD) benefits although an injured worker is deemed ready to return to work. Currently, pursuant to section 386-31(b), Hawaii Revised Statutes, an employer/insurance carrier (employer) may terminate TTD benefits if a claimant is able to return to work. The existing law provides that an employer must notify the claimant and the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations of its intent to terminate TTD benefits at least two weeks prior to the date when the last payment is to be made. Section 386-31(b) also requires the notice to inform the claimant that the claimant may make a written request to the Director for a hearing if the claimant disagrees with the employer's decision to terminate TTD benefits.

Upon receipt of the request for hearing, the Director is required to conduct a hearing as expeditiously as possible and render a decision. The current law protects claimants from unwarranted premature termination of TTD benefits by allowing the Director to award a penalty of twenty percent of the unpaid compensation against the employer, payable to the claimant.

This bill is objectionable because it does not recognize that the twenty percent penalty already deters employers from terminating TTD benefits unless there is a valid and good faith basis to do so.

This bill is not clear whether an employer would be entitled to a credit if the employer continues to pay a claimant TTD benefits pursuant to this bill, but a decision of the Director determines that TTD benefits should have been terminated. If a court or other tribunal determines that an employer is not entitled to a credit against permanent disability benefits, the claimant would receive a windfall because the claimant would be allowed to retain the overpaid TTD benefits, which would ultimately raise the costs of workers' compensation. Moreover, even if it is determined that an employer would be entitled to a credit, if the work injury does not result in a permanent disability award, it may be difficult for an employer to collect the overpaid benefits, if any, again resulting in higher workers' compensation costs.

This bill is also objectionable because it provides a process for a claimant, but not an employer, to request a hearing. Pursuant to this bill, an employer cannot terminate TTD benefits unless the claimant has returned to work or the Director orders the termination of benefits. The bill, however, does not provide a specific process for the employer to request a hearing.

This bill also states that the Director must conduct a hearing as expeditiously as possible and render a prompt decision if a claimant requests a hearing, but this requirement does not apply if an employer requests a hearing. Thus, on its face, the bill treats requests from a claimant differently than requests from an employer.

Furthermore, this bill is objectionable because it allows a claimant to choose not to return to work, without penalty, thereby delaying a decision even if the attending physician indicates the claimant is able to return to work. The employer would then be required to continue paying TTD benefits until the Director unilaterally schedules a hearing and issues a decision terminating the benefits. As a result, this bill creates a disincentive for a claimant to return to work because the claimant will suffer no penalty should the claimant refuse to return to work in spite of a doctor's indication that the claimant is able to do so.

Finally, it should be pointed out this bill would take disability determinations out of the hands of the health care profession. This runs counter to good medical and administrative practices and is not in the best interests of the employees themselves and the well-being of the workers compensation system.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 3035 without my approval.

Respectfully,

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 3181

Honorable Members
Twenty-Third Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 3181, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Solid Waste."

The purpose of this bill is to make several changes in Hawaii's deposit beverage container program. Among those changes are including in the program containers with a capacity of up to sixty-eight fluid ounces, allowing consumers to choose to have the refund value of their deposit beverage containers computed by container count for loads of up to 200 containers, and permitting redemption centers to refuse payment for deposit beverage containers that appear to have been previously processed or baled.

This bill is objectionable because the inclusion of sixty-eight-fluid-ounce bottles will make it difficult to recycle these containers; will have little impact on beach or roadside litter; will be difficult, if not impossible, to implement by the bill's effective date; and will have a disproportionate impact on families.

Redeeming the refund value of larger containers will be inconvenient because reverse vending machines do not accommodate containers of this size and they are bulky to haul to recycling centers. These larger containers do not make up a significant portion of beach and roadside litter. The original scope of the beverage container redemption program was single-size servings based on limited data indicting these size containers are a portion, albeit small, of the litter and solid waste stream. This is not true for larger containers up to sixty-eight fluid ounces in size.

This bill would include the larger containers in the deposit beverage container program as soon as the bill becomes effective. There is no phase-in period, as there was when the original program began, and the industry will not be able to comply with the bill's requirements since the regulation is law at the moment I sign the bill.

Containers this large move off the grocery store shelves more slowly; those currently in stock may take three to five months to sell. New labels take six months to prepare. The combination of a slow-moving product with the required six-month lead time to change labels presents difficult hurdles to implementing this measure that need to be rethought by the Legislature.

It should be noted that containers greater than 1.5 liters are purchased more often by families and those seeking to buy in bulk to conserve funds. Including larger size containers within the fee and deposit requirements of the beverage container program subjects these buyers to the higher costs imposed by this program.

Finally, most of the other changes to the deposit beverage container program included in Senate Bill No. 3181 can be addressed by the Department of Health through the rulemaking process and the Department has signaled its intent to make these changes via administrative rules.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 3181 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Gov. Msg. No. 593, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill 3270 SD2 HD1 CD1:

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 3270, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Health" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

Senate Bill No. 3270 guarantees a payment methodology to federally qualified health centers and rural health clinics in accordance with the Social Security Act and appropriates $2,000,000 for the Department of Health to provide resources to nonprofit, community-based health care providers for direct medical care for the uninsured.

The Department of Human Services' Med-QUEST Division has been working with the federally qualified health centers (FQHCs), rural health clinics, and the Hawaii Primary Care Association in good faith to review the current rules regarding the Prospective Payment System (PPS) methodology, which gives the highest cost reimbursement payments to these particular Medicaid providers. This bill is similar to a bill that was vetoed last year that would have required continued payment under PPS cost reimbursement.

The Administration has concerns that if the federal law which requires the PPS reimbursement methodology is changed or eliminated, or if there is a change or reduction in the federal matching funds Hawaii receives for PPS, codifying the payment into State statute will obligate the State to future funding commitments.

This bill also provides a one-time payment to FQHCs and rural health clinics of $2 million. However, the bill fails to identify what will happen to FQHCs and clinics after the fiscal year is over.

FQHCs are an important component to Hawaii's health care safety net of service providers, especially in our rural communities. The majority of patients served at FQHCs are patients covered by federal or State health insurance programs or who may not have current health insurance.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill SB3270 to become law as Act 297 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 594, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2719 SD2 HD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2719, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Education" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

Senate Bill 2719 makes various changes to the charter school law. My Administration supports charter schools and for the past two years we have introduced comprehensive legislation that would improve the environment for charter schools in Hawaii and empower charter schools with the tools they need for success. While well intentioned, Senate Bill 2719 falls short of implementing significant changes for charter schools.

This measure creates a charter school review panel to review charter applications and make recommendations to the State Board of Education but gives no significant authority to the panel. The Board would continue to serve as the charter authorizer with the ability to issue and revoke charters. In contrast, I believe a strong charter school law would allow for multiple chartering authorities, including the University of Hawaii Board of Regents, other public entities, and non-profit agencies. Allowing multiple charter authorizers permits a broader range of paths to obtaining a charter and brings outside resources, expertise, and attention to help shepherd and oversee the charter school movement in the State. Along with oversight and management responsibilities, the panel should be recognized as a Local Education Agency and be allowed to receive federal funds on behalf of charter schools. Unfortunately, Senate Bill 2719 does not give the panel this status.

Second, this bill caps the number of conversion charter schools at 25 and provides restrictive criteria for the establishment of new start-up charter schools. I support a more flexible system that encourages new and conversion start up charter schools. As an alternative to completely removing any caps on charter schools, I proposed targeted expansion for the charter school community by allowing new charter start-ups for schools with an environmental curriculum. Neither of these proposals were considered or included by the Legislature in SB 2719.

Senate Bill No. 2719 states that the Executive Director of the Charter School Administrative Office (CSAO) operates under the direction of the Board of Education (BOE), and in consultation with the charter schools. This continues the confusion and current challenge for the CSAO in determining whom they are accountable to—the BOE, or the charter schools. Further, it places the CSAO Executive Director in a conflicted position since this bill directs the Executive Director to work under the direction of the BOE, provide "...independent analysis and recommendation on charter school issues," and represent charter schools and the charter school system in communications with the BOE, Governor, and Legislature.

This bill clarifies that the local school board shall be responsible for the financial and academic viability of the charter school, implementation of the charter, and the independent authority to determine the organization and management of the school, the curriculum, virtual education, and compliance with applicable federal and State laws. However, I have repeatedly proposed that local school boards be allowed to negotiate master collective bargaining agreements. The Task Force on Charter School Governance Final Report (December 21, 2005) documents that a majority of task force members voted to remove charters from collective bargaining. This measure ignores these recommendations.

As a matter of policy, I believe in giving charter schools the choice to bargain collectively under Chapter 377 (Hawaii Labor Relations Act), Hawaii Revised Statutes. I am concerned that local school boards are not included in the definitions established in our collective bargaining laws, 89-6(d), HRS, as an "employer." New century charter schools employees will be bound to collective bargaining agreements which they did not negotiate and which were not negotiated with the charter school's interests in mind.

For two years, I have proposed including facilities maintenance costs in the per-pupil funding amount and basing the entire per pupil funding on the most recently enacted Department of Education budget, not the Consolidated Annual Financial Report (CAFR). Data from the CAFR is two years old. Neither of these changes is included in Senate Bill 2719. While this measure allows the Legislature to appropriate additional funds for facility costs, by not including the dollars in a per pupil formula, Hawaii cannot access federal monies that would provide an $8 to $1 match in facilities funding.

This measure requires charter schools to be eligible for all federal financial support to the same extent as all other public schools. The Attorney General has pointed out that State law cannot unilaterally make charter schools eligible for federal funding. As stated earlier, a charter Local Education Agency needs to be designated to make this provision viable.

I have proposed for the last two years that extra-curricular activities such as debate, clubs, theatre, and dance should be included as activities that charter school students are entitled to participate in. Senate Bill 2719 only allows charter school students to participate in sports within their school complex.

This bill alone will not accomplish the goal of improving the charter school system in Hawaii. It will be incumbent upon the Legislature to remedy the aforementioned shortcomings of this measure with legislation that further empowers, expands, and supports the charter school system.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2719 to become law as Act 298 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 595, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 1918 HD1 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 1918, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Commission on Salaries" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill establishes a seven-member salary commission to review the salaries of appointed managerial positions within the Executive, Judicial, and Legislative branches of government, but excludes positions within the Department of Education and University of Hawaii. Establishment of the commission is predicated upon ratification of an amendment changing Article III, Section 9 and Article XVIII, Section 3 of the State Constitution governing the salaries of the Legislature.

This bill poses a number of concerns that could adversely impact the separation of powers within the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of government.

First, the composition of the proposed seven-member salary commission will be such that there will be a majority of members selected by the Legislature. Such a composition may favor one branch of government over another.

Second, a very real concern exists as to whether it is appropriate and proper to have the salaries of the Chief Justices of the Supreme Court and sitting judges set by a commission that contains members of the other two branches of government. This raises questions as to whether this commission violates the basic tenets of the separation between the branches of government as recognized by our founding fathers.

Third, the timetable for the Commission is unrealistic and will be difficult to meet. The Commission cannot be established until after the November elections are held. Yet, the Commissioners must be selected, convene, establish criteria, conduct proceedings, make recommendations, and report to the 2007 Legislature that convenes the following January. Since the bill lacks guidance and fails to establish criteria for the commissioners to follow, this will make it even more challenging for the Commission to meet this deadline.

Fourth, House Bill No. 1918 exempts the Department of Education and the University of Hawaii from the purview of the salary commission but fails to provide any rationale as to why these two executive branch agencies should not be subjected to the same process of determining the appropriate salaries of its senior management. In fact, one could argue that these bodies need the transparency and accountability a public salary commission might offer.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 1918 to become [sic] law as Act 299 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 596, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 3009 SD2 HD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 3009 SD2 HD2 CD1, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Civil Service Exempt Employees," became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill allows statutorily exempt positions within the Executive Branch to be converted to civil service. This bill also directs the Department of Human Resources Development and the Hawaii Government Employees Association to work collaboratively to establish a process for converting positions in various departments and appropriates $110,064 for two positions in the Department.

The Legislature recognized that many positions within the State require people with specialized skills and expertise not found within the ranks of civil service personnel. As such, the Legislature specifically identified positions in law that should be exempt because of the nature of the programs they are managing. To now require a wholesale conversion of those positions to civil service ignores the original rationale of the Legislature when the positions were created and significantly reduces the ability of the Executive Branch to effectively manage and operate these programs.

Further, this bill may involve the conversion to civil service of positions attached to programs that are themselves temporary in nature. It is important to the integrity of the civil service program that positions within this system be used for programs that are ongoing in nature and reflect the permanency of a civil service appointment. Otherwise, there is the possibility that civil service personnel will have to be terminated once the temporary program they are working on is completed.

Finally, it should be noted there is no empirical evidence that the exempt employees currently in various statutorily exempt positions are not carrying out their jobs satisfactorily. In fact, the opposite seems to be the case. Departments with the ability to hire exempt personnel have been able to demonstrate a responsiveness and flexibility that has resulted in a satisfied client base and taxpayers who believe that government services are being handled well.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 3009 to become law as Act 300 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 597, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 3059 SD2 HD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 3059, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Education" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The original purpose of Senate Bill 3059 was to mandate the establishment of a model curriculum for use by teachers statewide to meet the Hawaii Content and Performance Standards. Unfortunately, in its final form Senate Bill No. 3059 does not require the Department of Education to develop and implement a standards-based curriculum statewide. Rather, this measure appropriates a total of $2,008,000 for software implementation to align school course material with Hawaii Content and Performance Standards and federal education standards, for the adaptation of a curriculum in one pilot school complex, and for the contractual services of programmers, data analysts, and clerical support to generate reports for the Department of Education's study on the curriculum implementation process.

This bill raises a number of concerns.

First, this bill does not require the Department of Education to develop and provide a statewide curriculum. Instead, a school or a school complex is left to take the initiative to choose to adopt a curriculum. One of the main purposes of having a curriculum is to ensure all students receive adequate instruction, regardless of exogenous forces such as the school district's funding or a teacher's natural abilities. With a curriculum as a guide, teachers and students can have a reasonable sense of what to expect and how to prepare for each school year, creating continuity within the statewide system. Senate Bill No. 3059 affords single schools and school complexes the choice to implement or not implement a curriculum. Therefore, the goal of a statewide curriculum that is aligned with the Hawaii Content and Performance Standards to increase student achievement will not be reached.

Second, this measure appropriates $900,000 for the development and implementation of a curriculum in one "pilot" school complex, according to the DOE. Therefore, the burden of curriculum development and implementation in all the other complexes is placed upon teachers, principals, school community council members, and complex area staff.

Third, while assessments of "progress" and "performance" are mandated in the bill, nothing exists to assure teachers can address the shortcomings these assessments demonstrate. The introduction paragraph of the bill states, "Although the State has established statewide standards and benchmarks, learner outcomes, (and) assessments, the legislature finds that Hawaii's public school system does not have an articulated and aligned standards-based curriculum to meet its goals." Despite recognizing this deficiency in the public education system, the Legislature, by passing Senate Bill No. 3059, is accepting the status quo.

Fourth, the Department must also report to the Legislature on the implementation of curricula in schools and complexes and indicators of student achievement to help evaluate the implementation of the curricula (not the curricula itself). Further, the bill says the reports must have a plan for the complex-by-complex development and implementation of a standards-based curriculum, as well as a timeline to implement specific portions of the curriculum for possible statewide application. The plan for the complex-by-complex implementation is problematic because it is not mandatory for schools to adopt a curriculum. This method of planning does not ensure that the different curricula developed by the different school complexes will be of equal caliber.

It is unfortunate that the final draft of Senate Bill No. 3059 is so significantly different from the original proposal that the major supporter of the bill, the Hawaii Automobile Dealers Association, revoked their support of the bill and requested its veto.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 3059 to become law as Act 301 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 598, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 2258 HD1 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 2258, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Human Services" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

House Bill No. 2258 requires legislative appropriation for the expenditure of Temporary Assistance to Needy Families program (TANF) funds received by the State before the Department of Human Services can expend the funds. The measure also appropriates monies for the Department of Human Services' Chore Services Program and the Department of Education's Even Start Program.

This measure is objectionable because it restricts the Executive Branch's flexibility in managing human services programs funded under the temporary assistance to needy families program and appropriates TANF funds in a manner that is illegal under federal law.

Although State departments can only expend funds appropriated by the Legislature, for many years the Legislature has felt comfortable appropriating TANF money as a lump sum. However, the Legislature now intends to interject itself into the Executive Branch decisions regarding the use of these funds. This will restrict the Executive Branch's flexibility in setting priorities for human services programs and could adversely impact the neediest citizens of Hawaii these funds are meant to help.

House Bill No. 2258 also appropriates $1,191,058 in general funds in fiscal year 2006-2007 for the Department of Human Services' Chore Services Program and $600,000 in temporary assistance to needy families funds in fiscal year 2006-2007 for the Department of Education's Hawaii Even Start Family Literacy Program. Even Start is an educational program funded by the United States Department of Education. As such, it cannot be funded by temporary assistance to needy families funds as these funds are prohibited by federal requirements from funding education programs.

However, it is important that the Department of Human Services receive the approximately $1.2 million dollars in supplemental funding for the Chore Services Program to maintain services to its existing clients.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 2258 to become law as Act 302 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 2098 HD1 SD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 2098, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Developmental Disabilities" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of this bill is to establish a pilot project to expand the residential options of developmentally disabled or mentally retarded individuals to allow them to live in a setting of the person's choice if it is determined that "the person can be sustained with supports, the supports are attached to the person, and adequate consideration and recognition is given to the person's safety and well-being." This bill will be repealed on June 30, 2008.

This bill is problematic because the language is unclear and may create problems in implementation.

First, this bill does not state how the person's choice of residential setting is to be made and how the Department of Health (DOH) is to support the choice. Under the current system employed by the Developmental Disabilities Division (DDD) of the DOH, DDD assists clients to locate licensed or certified homes. This bill will create uncertainty over the DOH's role in selection of these residential alternatives even though State money would be spent supporting the individual.

Second, the bill does not specify how to determine whether "adequate consideration and recognition" has been given to the person's safety and well-being. This bill does not mention licensing or certification requirements, an omission that could lead to an interpretation that this amendment to section 333F-2(c) allows placement in unlicensed or uncertified homes. Allowing placement in unlicensed or uncertified homes poses a risk for the safety and well-being of persons with developmental disabilities or mental retardation because it is only through licensing or certification requirements that safety standards such as criminal history background checks of the home operator and periodic monitoring or unannounced home visits are maintained. Any program that purports to assist the developmentally disabled under the care of the State must include a degree of accountability within the system.

This bill will likely create problems in implementation due to the fact that many parts are vague enough to be subject to more than one interpretation. My Administration will work within the confines of this law to provide the best protection possible for State clients. However, it will be necessary to amend the law in the next legislative session to clarify the problems with this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 2098 to become law as Act 303 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 600, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 1891 HD2 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 1891, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Education" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill doubles the amount of General Excise Tax (GET) revenues to be deposited into the State Educational Facilities Improvement (SEFI) special fund from $45 million to $90 million.

House Bill No. 1891 HD2 SD2 CD1 is problematic because the automatic, mandatory diversion of GET revenues limits the State's ability to fund priorities, thereby negatively impacting the State's general fund financial plan. In essence, this measure guarantees the diversion of up to $90 million dollars of general revenues into the SEFI if no general obligation bonds are authorized. A financially sound approach to manage the State's funds would include providing funding for public school capital improvement requirements on the basis of need, funding ability, and the consideration of statewide priorities. House Bill No. 1891 does not take these criteria into consideration.

The State Educational Facilities Improvement special fund was created to set aside State funds for school construction and repairs. Currently, the SEFI is funded from general obligation bond sales. Consequently, in essence, projects funded by the SEFI are funded by general obligation bonds. Thus, the SEFI may no longer be needed.

One of the priorities of my Administration is to foster a proper learning environment that I believe is critical to the education of Hawaii's students. For fiscal year 2005-2006, I released $200 million to assist the Department of Education with repair and maintenance and other capital improvement program projects for Hawaii schools. In addition, on June 26, 2006, I signed Act 246, the Fix Hawaii Schools Act, which appropriates $235 million to repair schools statewide. There is also $170 million in capital improvement project funds in the supplemental budget for 2007 (Act 160) and $5 million for solar panels in schools in Act 96, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006. These amounts total $610 million devoted to school construction.

My support for public school facilities is clear. However, the Department of Education should fund its capital improvement program needs directly with general obligation bond fund sales as do other State departments.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 1891 to become law as Act 304 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Gov. Msg. No. 601, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill 3142 HD2 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 3142, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Trauma Care" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill establishes the Trauma System Special Fund to support the development of a statewide trauma system. The measure sets forth categories for reimbursement and requirements for the use of monies from the Trauma System Special Fund. This measure includes potential sources of funding, but does not appropriate funds or specify a source of funding for deposit into the special fund.

It is troubling that this Special Fund would be exempt from the State Procurement Code (Chapter 103d, HRS) and the Purchase of Health and Human Services law (Chapter 103F, HRS). These exemptions, in effect, mean that procurement and purchase actions will not be subject to the transparency, accountability, and audit requirements that taxpayer-financed expenditures deserve. Further, the Special Fund would not pay its fair share of administrative costs as other funds must do.

Additionally, the Trauma System Special Fund does not meet the requirements of Section 37-52.3, HRS, which mandates the Legislature shall ensure that a special fund: "(1) Serves the purpose for which it was originally established; 2) Reflects a clear nexus between the benefits sought and charges made upon the users or beneficiaries of the program; (3) Provides an appropriate means of financing for the program or activity; and (4) Demonstrates the capacity to be financially self-sustaining." While it is important that the State of Hawai'i maintain trauma care services, there is no clear nexus between tobacco taxes and trauma care use. Further, depending on costs to develop a "comprehensive state trauma system," the ability for the fund to be self-sustaining is questionable.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 3142 to become law as Act 305 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Re: HB1923 HD1 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 1923, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Hawaii Tourism Authority" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill extends the sunset provision of Act 58 SLH 2004 relating to the Hawaii Tourism Authority (HTA) which allows HTA to appoint or retain attorneys independent of the Attorney General, exempts the Authority from audit and accounting provisions under the Department of Accounting and General Services, and allows the board of directors of the Authority to appoint a sports coordinator exempt from civil service, and pension and retirement laws until June 30, 2010.

This bill is objectionable because it allows the Hawaii Tourism Authority to operate outside the safeguards of State law, continues to micromanage the personnel decisions of the Authority, and creates potential legal difficulties for the State. The exemption from the accounting and auditing provisions of Chapter 40 allows the HTA to spend moneys without regard to transparency, controls, and accountability for funds managed by the State Comptroller.

Additionally, the authorization to hire attorneys independent of the Attorney General potentially creates legal difficulties for the State. As I stated in 2004, retention of special counsel by the HTA can result in inconsistent legal advice when adequate counsel already exists in the Attorney General's office.

Second, the bill continues in statute a provision that contradicts section 26-39 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes that provides for the establishment of positions deemed necessary to carry out the functions of agencies and departments. This bill instructs the Hawaii Tourism Authority to continue an exempt sports coordinator position without regard to personnel laws.

In 2004, the Legislature passed House Bill 2608, which I returned to the Legislature, indicating I believed the bill should not become law. The concerns I raised at that time are still applicable to this bill.

Therefore, for the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 1923 to become law as Act 306 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 3066, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Interest and Usury" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill permits certain credit card service fees from being included in the calculation of the maximum interest rate credit card issuers can charge for firms that issue such cards and are domiciled in the State of Hawaii.

While I understand the concern of local credit card firms who want to remain competitive, I remain concerned that Hawaii's current law already permits an 18% per annum annual interest charge on credit card balances. This interest rate is significantly higher than interest charged on most other financial transactions such as non-secured loans, collateralized loans, and borrowings from a bank or lending institution. This interest rate is also considerably higher than inflation and other cost drivers, both locally and nationally.

I recognize that firms who issue credit cards need to make an adequate return on their money. However, it has not been demonstrated that they are not making such a return based on the current method of calculating the 18% interest rate.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 3066 to become [sic] law as Act 307 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Re: House Bill No. 3016 HD1 SD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 3016, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Unserved Arrest Warrants" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The backlog of arrest warrants is a problem that has gained attention from various sectors of the community and engendered a number of proposed solutions. The stated intent of this bill is to require due diligence in serving all traffic warrants issued against a defendant and to require the Hawaii Paroling Authority to report to the appropriate court and arresting authorities whether a parolee has any outstanding traffic warrants. However, the substance of the bill is questionable.

First, the bill adds a section to chapter 353, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to require the Hawaii Paroling Authority to inform the appropriate courts and arresting authorities of all outstanding traffic warrants issued against those whose parole has been suspended or revoked. The purpose of this is to allow such warrants to be "served on the parolee in a timely manner." This merely codifies existing practice of the Hawaii Paroling Authority. Thus, adding this section to the law will not result in any improvement of current procedures.

Second, the bill adds a section to chapter 604, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to require that "in any criminal proceeding, due diligence shall be used in serving any outstanding traffic warrants on the defendant." It is arguable whether this addition to the statutes is substantive inasmuch as the Hawaii Rules of Penal Procedure Rule 9(c)(3)(i) already requires that a "warrant shall be executed without unnecessary delay by the arrest of the defendant."

Finally, this bill instructs the Judicial Council to set up a committee to "conduct a comprehensive review of the backlog of arrest warrants waiting to be served upon persons incarcerated in the State's correctional facilities and the entire backlog of unserved arrest warrants and recommend to the Legislature action necessary so that these warrants will be served without further delay." While a comprehensive review of the warrant backlog is warranted, the bill's review is duplicative of Senate Concurrent Resolution 91 SD1 which convenes a task force to "conduct a comprehensive review of the entire backlog of unserved arrest warrants and recommend to the Legislature action necessary to permanently alleviate the backlog." Both the bill and the resolution establish review panels largely comprised of representatives from the same agencies and both require reports to be submitted to the Legislature twenty days prior to the convening of the regular session of 2007.

I support a comprehensive review of the backlogged warrants problem and subsequent meaningful action to eliminate the backlog. However, this bill is duplicative of actions already underway to address this issue.

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill 2274, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Employees' Retirement System" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill would allow the directors of the offices of council services within the counties of Maui and Honolulu to participate as Class A members within the State Employees' Retirement System if they were employed prior to July 1, 2006.

The intent of this bill is to place the directors of the councils of these two counties on a par with the county clerks of Hawaii and Kauai who perform similar functions. While this objective is understandable, we must point out that Class A membership in the Employees' Retirement System has traditionally been reserved for high-level officials such as judges and elected leaders. Additionally, Class A membership is extended to those with jobs that subject them to possible bodily harm, such as narcotics investigators and public safety officers. The rationale is that these positions have a level of tenuousness and difficulty not found in other public positions.

My Administration remains concerned about the precedent this bill establishes in allowing legislatively favored personnel to become Class A contributory plan retirement system members while other senior personnel in the executive agencies are not allowed to receive this higher retirement benefit.

Further, it should be noted that the directors of the council have the option to join the hybrid retirement plan which allows them to accrue higher retirement benefits if they are willing to pay a portion of their earnings into the plan. [sic]

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 3180, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Counties" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill provides that each county shall adopt ordinances that allow the exercise of indigenous Hawaiian architectural practices, styles, techniques, and materials historically employed by Native Hawaiians. The bill recognizes that the applicability of this ordinance may not be appropriate in historical districts and explicitly exempts these districts.

However, the bill presents concerns outside of those associated with historical district structures. Most notably, this bill represents a legislative intrusion into the responsibilities of the counties and mandates that counties must adopt ordinances as prescribed in the bill. This type of legislation goes against the spirit and intent of home rule and provides legislative direction in an arena that has long been recognized as within the scope of county authority--namely building code requirements.

Further, this bill leaves unanswered questions as to how the use of indigenous building approaches will be addressed within the safety and structural requirements building codes must address. Additionally, the issue of how these structures will conform to energy conservation standards and disaster preparedness requirements is left unanswered.

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 3105, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Psychotropic Medication" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill is intended to provide equal access to psychotropic medication for Medicaid patients, regardless of whether the patient is covered by a fee-for-service plan or a QUEST managed-care plan.

While this portion of the bill is laudable, the measure goes too far in allowing a physician to prescribe a psychotropic medication without the required consultation with a psychiatrist. The field of psychotropic medicine is specialized and requires knowledge of the interaction of various drugs with each other as well, as with other medications a patient may be taking.

The current statute allowed for the consultation to take place by telephone, electronically, or via a face-to-face discussion and did not appear to place an undue burden on the attending physician. Further, the law now allows for the concurrent psychiatrist's opinion to be documented in the recipient's medical records, thereby allowing future medical service providers to understand the rationale used in issuing the prescription. Failure to document these decisions could cause harm to the patient in later years and does not appear to be medically prudent.

Finally, the bill eliminates the requirement that only those agents approved by the United State Food and Drug Administration for the treatment of mental and emotional disorders may be prescribed. This deletion in the governing statute raises concerns as to what medications can be prescribed and what safety considerations will be applicable to these medications.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 3105 to become law as Act 311 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Re: Senate Bill No. 2193 SD1 HD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2193, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Planned Community Associations" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill addresses issues of access to board meetings and association documents of planned community associations.

While the bill contains some provisions that would give homeowners in planned communities greater access to information about the management of their association, the bill also contains some provisions that might work to exclude homeowner participation in the affairs of their community.

Most notably, the bill deletes from current law the requirement that board meeting minutes include the recorded votes of board members. Deleting this provision could be construed to remove the accountability for actions of the board members. It may also make it more difficult to identify potential conflicts of interest when a board member should have abstained from voting.

Second, the bill allows for the examination of board meeting minutes but deletes language that allows for the review of the association's meeting minutes. Since association business is conducted at both types of meetings, it is unclear why the legislation allows homeowners to review one set of documents but not the other set of documents.

Third, the bill allows the Planned Community Association Board to set up committees and subcommittees at various times and places and requires that the members of the committees and subcommittees be identified by name. This seems reasonable. However, the bill also allows the Board to eliminate committees and subcommittees without regard to the fact that some committees are established as a result of requirements placed on the development by the counties as a condition of approval.

Finally, some members of planned communities have expressed concern that this bill could be interpreted to allow homeowner input on matters on a board agenda, but would preclude homeowners from commenting on important matters not on a board agenda. They believe this could lead to some boards deliberately not putting sensitive topics up for discussion.

The bill contains provisions indicating planned community meetings should be open, ensures that minutes are available to the members, and requires detailed financial information to be made available for inspection.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2193 to become law as Act 312 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Re: House Bill No. 386 HD1 SD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 386, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Courts" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of this bill is to repeal jury service exemptions for an attorney at law, a head of an executive department, an elected official (except while the Legislature is in session), a minister or priest, a dentist, and an active duty member of the armed forces or militia. This bill continues the exemptions for a judge, an active practicing physician, an active member of a police or fire department, and a person who has served as a juror within one year preceding the time of filling out the juror qualification form. The bill adds jury service exemptions for active members of an emergency medical services agency, persons who live more than seventy miles from the court for which jury service is required, and persons who are eighty years of age or older.

Although the addition of the exemption category of active members of an emergency medical services agency is positive, other portions of this bill will cause difficulties for the Judicial Branch of government. The bill amends the exemption for elected officials such that the exemption is available only while the Legislature is in session. This amendment does not consider that elected officials at the federal or county levels are not necessarily affected in their duties by the timing of the State legislative sessions. Thus, the narrowing of the exemption may negatively impact federal or county elected officials if they are summoned to jury duty during times when their political bodies are in session, but the Legislature is not.

The bill amends the current exemption for active duty members of the armed forces or militia such that the exemption is available only when those individuals are deployed out of the State. The amendment does not consider the case of reservists who have been assigned to their annual two weeks of active duty. The active duty member and his or her unit could be adversely affected if the member is unable to receive training with the member's entire unit.

The addition of the category of persons living more than seventy miles from the court for which jury service is required will have a negative impact in the Third Judicial Circuit (the Island of Hawaii), as well as the Second Judicial Circuit, which includes Maui, Molokai, and Lanai, wherein jurors frequently reside more than seventy miles from the courthouse.

The deletion of the category of attorney at law could cause a "ripple effect" on the court system by necessitating the rescheduling of motions, hearings, trials, and other court appearances if an attorney is summoned for jury duty. Negative effects on attorneys, especially sole practitioner attorneys, and their clients are anticipated.

Finally, this bill adds a person over eighty years of age to the list of people who are excused from jury duty. As pointed out by the Judiciary, chronological age should not be used as a factor in determining if a person has the physical and mental capacity to serve as a juror.

Persons who fall within a particular exemption eligible category may claim an exemption from service as a juror, but it is not guaranteed that the court will grant the exemption. Any individual can seek to be excused from jury duty, even if the individual is not within an exemption.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 386 to become law as Act 313 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,

An increase in the diversity of activities in the Waianae Coast ocean area has raised concerns over the effects such activity can have on resources, public safety, user relations, and traditional livelihoods. The purpose of this bill is to provide funding for a baseline environmental study of the Waianae Coast ocean area, which will be used to draft proposed rules for an Ocean Recreation Management Area (ORMA) designation for the Waianae Coast, as mandated by Act 6, Special Session Laws of Hawaii 2005.

I am supportive of establishing an Ocean Recreation Management Area for the Waianae Coast with pertinent administrative rules to protect resources and regulate permitted commercial activities. However, this bill leaves some issues insufficiently resolved.

First, this law could potentially set a precedent that the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) must conduct a baseline environmental study before adopting rules to create and regulate an ORMA. The DLNR has demonstrated that it is capable of adequately making such rules and has, in this particular instance, met extensively with interested parties to resolve conflicts concerning the proposed ORMA rules in a manner that complies with the federal Marine Mammal Protection Act.

Second, this bill does not provide the public with reasonable means to express their comments and concerns. Although the baseline study proposed in this bill is not an environmental impact statement (EIS), it is modeled in much the same way. An important component of an EIS is a required public review and comment period. A comment period is not required in this study.

Furthermore, estimates from multiple parties place the cost of this study anywhere from $250,000 to $1,000,000, while this measure only appropriates $120,000. A shortage of funds could force the DLNR to divert staff resources and expertise from existing projects in order to complete the study.

It is imperative that a Waianae ORMA be established and that all parties work with due diligence to properly manage this area.

Therefore, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2575 to become law as Act 314 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/

Gov. Msg. No. 611, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2708 SD2 HD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2708, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to School Facilities" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill extends through July 30, 2007 an impact fee Working Group that will assess the impacts of new housing developments on the Department of Education and examine the current method of imposing and collecting impact fees. The Working Group was supposed to issue a report to the 2006 Legislature but will now report to the 2007 Legislature.

Impact fees are a method by which State and county departments assess developers a monetary fee, or land donation, to minimize the effects the development will have on the various public services, such as transportation, roads, public schools, and sewage/water systems.

While I continue to recognize the importance of this issue and the need to have a consistent, statewide process in place, this bill raises a number of concerns similar to Act 246 of 2005. First, the measure only addresses impact fees imposed by, or collected for, the benefit of the Department of Education. There are other State and County functions that are affected by a new development, such as roadways and sanitation systems. This measure only takes into account the effect of a development on the public school system. My Administration supports developing an impact fee assessment process that addresses the full array of potential impacts on public services.

Second, this measure continues a Working Group that does not allow input and membership from other State or county departments that may be directly affected by the outcomes of the Working Group, such as the Department of Transportation, the Hawaii Public Housing Authority, the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation, the Department of Health, the county housing and planning/permitting departments, and the Office of the Governor.

There remains an issue of the appropriateness of placing this Working Group in the Office of the Auditor. The Legislative Auditor has not had experience in dealing with developer impact fees and fair-share contributions. Apparently she has had to contract out this work. Furthermore, the Auditor did not explain how the initial $150,000 was spent by the Working Group and why an additional $25,000 is necessary for this effort.

The minimum criteria for the needs assessment are outlined in the measure. However, there are vital elements missing from this needs assessment evaluation. A needs assessment should provide a clear, rationale nexus between the development and the impact fee assessed; a fair share proportion to be assessed on the developer, not a disproportionate assessment; predictability in the amount of the fee or land requested; a dedication of the funds/land assessed to be used directly in the community where the development is located; and an agreement that if the funds are not used within a reasonable amount of time, the monies should be refunded to the developer. None of these items are included in the needs assessment described in the original bill not addressed in this measure.

I support the exploration of a comprehensive statewide evaluation to examine impact fees in a transparent, fair, and equitable manner. This work is being carried out by my Administration and does not require statutory authority. Regrettably, this bill is not comprehensive enough in either the membership of the Working Group or the tasks assigned to produce a meaningful product.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2708 to become law as Act 315 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/

Gov. Msg. No. 612, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2961 SD1 HD1 CD1

On July 11, 2006, Senate Bill No. 2961, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Health" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill raises the tax on cigarettes and uses the monies derived from the tax increase to fund programs that promote health. This measure creates the Hawaii Cancer Research Special Fund and the Community Health Center Special Fund and exempts these funds, as well as the Emergency Medical Services Special Fund, from transfers for central service and administrative expenses.

This bill reflects an effort to deter smoking by incrementally increasing the Hawaii cigarette tax from the current rate of $1.40 per pack to $2.60 per pack over a period of five years. Unfortunately, Senate Bill No. 2961 contains several drafting errors.

In the sections which distribute the cigarette tax increase into the various special funds, Senate Bill No. 2961 omits some key language. This bill only appropriates between 0.25 cents and 2.0 cents into each of the designated special funds between September 30, 2006 and September 30, 2011. Other sections of the measure convey the intent of the Legislature was to deposit the amounts on a per cigarette basis but the bill was not drafted to state this clearly and unambiguously.

Second, the bill deleted language authorizing the Director of Finance to assess and collect central administrative fees on all special funds. According to conversations we have had with the Legislative Reference Bureau, they recognize this flaw in the bill and will correct it in their annual statute correction legislation next session.

Third, the newly established special funds do not meet the requirements of Section 37-52.3, HRS, which mandates that a special fund reflect "a clear nexus between the benefits sought and charges made upon the users or beneficiaries of the program, as opposed to serve primarily as a means to provide the program or users with an automatic means of support that is removed from the normal budget." There is no clear nexus between tobacco taxes and trauma care use and, thus, this portion of the bill does not meet the requisite statutory test.

I anticipate the Legislature will return next session prepared to introduce and pass a housekeeping measure to correct the mistakes evident in this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 2961 to become law as Act 316 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/

Gov. Msg. No. 613, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 2555 HD2 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 2555, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Hawaii Community Development Authority" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill prohibits the sale or transfer of fee simple interest in State-owned land in the Kaka'ako community development district. The bill also prohibits approval of plans or proposals for any residential development makai of Ala Moana Boulevard between Kewalo basin and the foreign trade zone. These restrictions are broad in their impact on the planning process for the Kaka'ako area.

First, the prohibition on the sale or transfer of State-owned land causes difficulty for the Hawaii Community Development Authority (HCDA) to achieve its directives as originally set forth by the Legislature. Land exchanges, realignments, and sale of remnant parcels further the goals of the various District plans. HCDA will be prevented from executing buybacks of reserved housing units and reselling to qualified buyers. These transactions are used to prevent excessive profits in the sale and purchase of affordable housing units. Additionally, land exchanges would be prohibited under this bill.

This restriction in this bill applies to the entire Kaka'ako community development district, not just the Makai area, and may interfere with planning in other sectors of the District. It is not good policy to restrict sale or transfer of lands with such a broad stroke.

Second, the ban on residential development in the Makai area is restrictive and could be considered a taking of private property rights. This restriction applies to all landowners in the Makai area, not just the HCDA. Kamehameha Schools had planned to propose a development of workforce housing including up to 200 residential lofts in a life sciences research complex on its land in the Makai area. It is unclear what legal recourse Kamehameha Schools may want to pursue given the imposition of the restriction on their private property.

Further, the prohibitions of this bill are inconsistent with several provisions in HCDA's enabling legislation (Chapter 206E, Hawaii Revised Statutes) that mandate a mixed-use of industrial, commercial, residential and public uses within the entire Kaka'ako District.

At its meeting on June 7, 2006, the HCDA Board terminated an outstanding request for proposal (RFP), effectively stopping all development in the Kaka'ako Makai area. It also agreed not to transfer, in fee, any State lands in the Makai area. In an effort to address the concern that the public did not have sufficient opportunity for input in the planning process, the HCDA Board also established a Makai Area Advisory Planning Committee consisting of members of the public. Its purpose is to provide input for a new waterfront development plan.

With the formation of the Advisory Committee and in light of the Board's termination of the RFP, I believe the prohibition of residential use in the Makai Area is premature. The Advisory Planning Committee should be given the flexibility to make a recommendation that might include residential development. It is unfortunate this bill will have a chilling or limiting effect on a process specifically designed for more public participation.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 2555 to become law as Act 317 without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 614, informing the House that on July 11, 2006, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 2595 HD1 SD2 CD1

On July 11, 2006, House Bill No. 2595, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Family Visits," became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of House Bill No. 2595 is to ensure family members can visit inmates at a correctional facility during official visiting hours.

This bill raises concerns because it is vague as to whether the Department of Public Safety may cancel visits by family members when emergency situations would so merit. The bill was passed as a result of isolated incidents of family visits being cancelled due to staffing shortages.

Recognizing the need to be more accommodating of special visits by family members, the Department of Public Safety has implemented changes to its visitation policies. The Department's policy now addresses the concerns giving rise to this bill. At the same time, it also reserves in the Department the needed flexibility to cancel visitations when security concerns merit.

I believe these visitation policy rules, coupled with the provisions of this bill, address the concerns family members of incarcerated persons may have had.

For the foregoing reasons, I have allowed House Bill No. 2595 to become law as Act 318 effective July 11, 2006 without my signature.

Sincerely,
