ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Lee: "This is a poem.

While counting down, let's give a cheer.
The Easter Bunny is almost here.
The baskets are growing day by day,
And it will soon be time to give them away.

There's still time on the clock, so don't you worry,
You can complete a basket if you hurry.

"I have some examples on my desk, and we'll see you on May 20 at 1 p.m. in the Chamber Level. IHS will be there to pick up the completed baskets. Now this project is not limited to the Women's Legislative Caucus. You are all invited. We would like to thank the people who have contributed so far. Thank you very much."

Representative Green: "I don't know if this is an announcement, but I want to offer an apology to a colleague, the Representative from Kaneohe. During a hearing I think I misrepresented accidentally, his intentions on a bill during a discussion we had. I didn't mean to suggest anything negative about him. I do appreciate his leadership here at the House of Representatives. And it's my fault that he and I were five or ten minutes late today because he appropriately asked me to clarify my position. So I offer my apologies to the Representative from Kaneohe for that discussion."

Representative Ito: "Mr. Speaker, apology accepted."

Representative Berg: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have an announcement for tomorrow, for our colleagues. Tomorrow is Human Right's Day. Some affectionately call it Human Relations Day. We are also going to be hosting 80 Leaders For a Day, essay winners, and I invited my colleagues to join us at 9 a.m. in the Auditorium as Jonathan Kathrein, for the Future Leaders of Peace will be conducting a dialog with these young people. Thank you."
