INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 1) was read by the Acting Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RELATING TO THE OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives Chong and Ward.

Representative Chong moved that H.R. No. 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"When I first came in to office, one of the first people I did meet was CJ Leong. And one of the things I learned about CJ, other than she's very professional, very competent, and very, extremely smart, was her ability to listen, her loyalty to the House, the Body and the people of Hawaii, and her wisdom that she always gives. And I thank her for that."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I can't say enough for CJ Leong because she fills big shoes left by my constituent Pat Shimizu. But I know there's something that's not known by all of you. This lady gave part of her life for the person who she's taking the place of. Something that very few of us ever do, have the opportunity to do, or would do.

"So CJ, your brain, your beauty, your presence here is welcomed. And we look forward to having a unanimous vote for you to be with us for many, many years ahead. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"Mahalo, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments in support of House Resolution 1. It is truly an honor to support this Resolution of an individual who is beyond capable, extremely qualified and there is no question as to her dedication to this Body and institution. This individual goes above and beyond the call of duty not only in her career, but in her personal life as well as she risked her own life to save a life of another. For these reasons and many others I strongly support House Resolution 1."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HR1 and the appointment of CJ Leong as the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

"Ms. Leong has served in the House for more than 25 years, most recently as the Director of the House Majority Staff Office, and prior to that served ably as the Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives. Ms. Leong has always exhibited professionalism, intelligence, and respect for the institution, making her more than qualified for the Chief Clerk position. Ms. Leong knows and understands the procedures used in the House of Representatives and continues to strive for excellence in making the House of Representatives efficient for both the institution and its Members. I am fortunate to consider Ms. Leong both a trusted colleague and a personal friend, and there is no doubt in my mind that she will continue her dedicated and professional service to this Body. I can think of no one more suited to take on the responsibility and honor of serving as Chief Clerk, and accordingly stand in strong support of the Resolution.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 1, was adopted.

The Chair then administered the Oath of Office to Ms. CJ Leong.

LATE INTRODUCTIONS

Representative Luke introduced Ms. Leong's father, Mr. Peter Leong, and his wife, Mrs. Merrily Leong.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 2) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RELATING TO THE CAUCUS LEADERS AND THE COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE," was offered by Representative Say.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.R. No. 2, was adopted.

The following concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 1 and 2) were announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.C.R. No. 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RELATING TO RECESS DAYS FOR THE REGULAR SESSION OF 2012," was jointly offered by Representatives Chong and Ward.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.C.R. No. 1, was adopted.

H.C.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS THE LEGISLATURE ASSEMBLED IN JOINT SESSION," was jointly offered by Representatives Say, Chong, Manahan and Ward.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.C.R. No. 2, was adopted.

At this time, the Speaker delivered his address, stating:

"The Chair would like to give an Opening Day Address. And I will be very, very brief for all of you and our visitors in the gallery.

"Let me start off by saying, welcome Members to the 2012 Regular Session of the Twenty-Sixth Legislature. And a very special welcome to our recently appointed Member, Representative Tom Okamura of District 33, Aiea, Halawa, and Red Hill.

"Today I am glad and relieved to say that we will probably not have to make another extraordinary effort to balance the State budget during this Session. This situation will be a welcomed departure from the past three Sessions because of the great recession. We had to balance the State budget by a combination of painfully difficult expenditure reductions and targeted revenue enhancements, but we maintained essential public service without, without increasing the general excise tax rate or the income tax on low- and moderate-income persons.

"We all rejected extremism and expediency in favor of reason and fortitude, and we took a balanced and responsible approach. And for that effort Hawaii is in a much better place, today, compared to our peers on the mainland. I commend all of you for a job well done.

"In continuing on the journey, the economic recovery although still fragile, is on its way. We in this Chamber, however, must remain cautious. Cautious. The fragility of the economic recovery requires the continuation of our balanced and responsible approach during the 2012 Regular Session.

"For the short term, we must maintain stability with respect to the State budget. Maintaining stability means no new taxes for State government from residents and business. Maintaining stability means no major general fund appropriation increase for the expansion of State programs. For this effort and this Session, we must focus on maintaining the economic recovery and promoting immediate job growth. And we all must be creative and innovative in one's thinking. We must make difficult choices, some of which may be opposed by segments of this community. We must seek ways to expedite the construction of State projects so that money flows into the community. We must also seek ways to avoid mandates on businesses that will increase their costs of doing business here in the State of Hawaii. I am confident that we will make these choices using the same balanced and responsible approach of the past three Sessions.

"Our recovery effort depends on a strong, solid foundation, and maintaining a foundation today, will enable us to pursue our dreams in the future. Dreams such as a Hawaii, Representative Coffman, powered exclusively by alternative energy resources, requiring no export of dollars. A Hawaii with broadband coverage for all schools, businesses and homes. A Hawaii in which healthcare is universally and affordably available to all. A Hawaii in which everyone lives in an affordable home, paying no more than one-third of their income for their rent or mortgage.

"And dreams of a Hawaii with a thriving and diversified economy, this means a Hawaii with a military presence that is fully appreciated for its importance to our nation and our Pacific allies' defense, and our State economy and social mix. A Hawaii with a visitor industry that continues to be the envy of the world. A Hawaii in which agriculture is a viable and sustaining enterprise that feeds our people, supports alternative energy and exports products.

"And for all of us, a Hawaii with a public education system that produces business professional and governmental leaders able to effectively guide our State in the future, and even lead the world in selected areas of expertise.

"But more mundane than this Body has addressed in the past two years, but that is very important, is a dream of a Public Employees Retirement and Health Fund systems with no unfunded liability so that our children and grandchildren do not have to carry the burden of increasing governmental fringe benefit contributions.

"I have many such dreams, as do all of you. Fulfilling the dreams, however, would require the expenditure of substantial taxpayers' money; money that we do not have today. Despite this intrusion of reality, let us not abandon our dreams. Let us continue the groundwork for the achievement of the dreams. Later, when the economy and public resources return to robust growth, we will then have the opportunity for full implementation. Let us be confident that our unselfish work of today will lead tomorrow to the Hawaii that we all dream about. To all of you, thank you very much."

The Chair then recognized Representative Ward, the Minority Leader, to present the Minority's response.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Aloha mai kakou. Aloha. Good morning, and welcome to the peoples' House. The House I like to call the marketplace of ideas. Good ideas that the Speaker has just given out. I was hoping Governor Abercrombie would still be here. I see the Chief Justice, the gentlemen from Fukuoka, welcome. HSTA, and other former representatives. Thank you for coming to the first business day of the State Legislature.

"Mr. Speaker, we are here doing a scaled-down opening. We don't have singing. We don't have dancing because of what's going on outside of this Capitol. There's a lot of anxiety out there. People are fearful of their jobs. People are fearful that the cost of living might go up. People are fearful that we may have a State budget that goes beyond and we may have to raise taxes and fees like, Mr. Speaker, last year. $600 million was added on after we left the Session here. Mr. Speaker what I want to do in the beginning though, is to be grateful that we have a chance to say the, not the opposing, but the minority view.

"When people are anxious they need to hear straight talk like you gave. They need to hear hope. They need to hear assurance. They need to know what is going on. And the Minority, on behalf of myself, are grateful that we can offer a four-point recovery of confidence to create jobs, put a check on spending, and ensure more overall government accountability and transparency, and protect our community from organized crime. Yes, you heard correctly. Organized crime. If we're to succeed in this, Mr. Speaker, we've got to think outside of the box. We've got to think outside of this square box here. We got to start thinking entrepreneurially. We have to start innovatively, and creatively.

"Mr. Speaker, yes we've balanced the budget after the last three Sessions. But if all we do is balance the budget, beat our chest, and say, 'We've done it, by doing fees and taxes,' we will not be fully serving the people of Hawaii. We've got to do more than that. We've got to be what made America great in the beginning. What made Hawaii great in the beginning. And that was expansion of the pie. It's called growth. We've got to start being growth pie makers. We've got to expand the pie, Mr. Speaker. Not just cut it up in different pieces. We've got to think the way that America made us great.

"And one of the first ways to do that, and that's our first priority, is to start creating jobs and begin with creating green jobs. Let me illustrate why jobs are so necessary to be created. When we started in the 2011 Session, there were 39,621 people unemployed. Now one year later, there are over 41,000 people who are unemployed. That's about 150 people per month that have lost a job since we came in to Session. I think there's a better way to do that than having what all of you have heard me saying is their job killer number one, job killer number two. I hope we don't have to do that this Session because it's that private sector that hires these people. And the question is, have we had anything to do with the job killing that took place over the last twelve months?

"Mr. Speaker, one of the lead proposals that we want to do, and I know our lead proponent of energy is Representative Thielen, is to put the PACE bill back in to place. That's for solar on everybody's roof. The PACE bill, the Los Angeles version, is to be able to have homeowners save on their electric bill by installing renewable energy systems and paying for it over twenty years. Mr. Speaker, we've had incentives in place and we should keep those in place, but let's face it. Only 25 percent of our nation, of our State, has solar on their roof. In the Nation of Israel, they have 90 percent solar on their roof. If Israel can do it, we can do it also, Mr. Speaker. We can do it also. Right now, we have only three to four percent photovoltaic on our roof, and Germany has five to ten percent. If they can do it, we can do it because we are as world-class as they are, and we have more sun and we have more opportunity to be the best in the world.

"Another job creation strategy is to give veterans who have served in the Gulf to come back and have a tax credit. It's a veteran-owned business, that they will be given a preference in the procurement process of which we have a billion dollars and have three percent set aside so they can hire people. They can be franchised after they come back from serving their people.

"Lastly we're proposing hiring incentives for those who are unemployed. Those who are getting unemployment insurance, transfer that in to a tax credit and the employer will be sponsored and made whole.

"Our second priority, Mr. Speaker, and I know time is limited and I'm going to go a little bit quicker on this, is to build confidence in the people of Hawaii. Job creation doesn't work just by passing legislation, if there is so much uncertainty out there. And literally, right now there are trillions of dollars that are sitting on the sidelines because of a lack of confidence in policymakers, a lack of confidence in the economy. If we are going to be predictable in what we do Mr. Speaker, we need to be able to be sure of what we say and what we do so the confidence of the American people is not where it is now. In a recent poll by the Rasmussen Organization, 35 percent of Americans believe that it was possible to get rich by working hard. Sixty-five percent of our people don't believe that they can get rich by working hard. That is an attitudinal shift and the level of confidence in our economy is very, very hurting. And I say that because the equity that the little man had was in his house, and Mr. Speaker we have to get rid of these foreclosures and all the danger to what that was as the essence of building the American Dream.

"The third priority is accountability and transparency in government. I'm really pleased that the Governor was here. I wanted him to hear that when he said to the Hawaii Tax Foundation in Waikiki last month, he was going to try to put in place a positive financial report every quarter that people could see and count on and know that is real, and not some kind of a jury-rig or something meant to fool you. We have online balances legislation that we are going to be promoting. And we also have our usual annual Excel sheet budget online put together by the Minority Caucus. Also for transparency, we'd like to have fiscal notes passed. It's come up every year. Basically it's price tags so when we pass a piece of legislation, people will know, we will know how much it costs and right now, it's a hit and miss.

"Lastly Mr. Speaker, our last priority is to protect our communities. I said earlier, organized crime is out there. This is not the Al Capone type. This is online cyber crimes. We are being hacked, bribed, extorted, robbed of our identities, and massive fraud is going on unpunished. Beginning with an information briefing that was put together by Representative Fontaine and Representative Pine, our Caucus bills will make it easier to help Hawaii's citizens who are being victimized every day. And for example, we are going to have penalties for unauthorized access to a computer. There's going to be that Internet service providers who will have to maintain certain records and for a certain period of time, and it will help in the evidence that police have which now when they're reported, they can do nothing because they have no evidence to do that.

"Mr. Speaker, we think these are four priorities that are important. Now as you indicated, we have to keep our military strong. We have to keep our industry for tourism strong. And we need to keep the tax credits for our solar. And I would appeal to Speaker Emeritus from Maui, please lead us not into temptation for a quick fix for gambling, even though I know every year you're going to do it. It's a quick fix. It's not going to work Joe, but you can do it. With the forecast in the budget, the red ink by 2016 of $312 million. It's a time to stop spending and I was going to look at Mr. Abercrombie, the Governor, and say, 'You know, we can't expand programs.' Thank you Mr. Speaker, for saying that no State programs should be expanded. That is greatly appreciated. And it's not the time to suffocate our small businesses with a steep increase in our Unemployment Insurance Tax. And I thank Representative Rhoads who made the front page of the newspaper who said we're going to decline the rate. We're not going to give that steep rate increase in unemployment insurance. Representative Rhoads, I hope you keep your word on that because that's very, very important.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, let this Session be one of gratitude. Let's thank our small businesses who hire people. You know, we thank people at the airport who serve in the military. Let's thank the small businesses. Thank you for hiring your employees. Thank you for staying on the course. Right now, survival is success. As long as they're still in business, they're still successful.

"But I want to end with what Senator Inouye reminded us during APEC. And I want to commend everyone in Hawaii for APEC because we hit a homerun on the world stage. We internationalized aloha. We put it to the test and we succeeded. Mr. Speaker, Senator Inouye said we should be proud of what Hawaii has done and can do. He said we have the best bank, the best airline, we're the national leader in renewable energy, have the largest solar telescope in the world, serve as the home of the Pacific Command where we basically supervise the security of 50 percent of the world's geography, have the biggest shipyard, Pearl Harbor, have one of only two missile ranges in the nation, and grow 80 percent of the world's seed corn. With these seven strengths defining our competitive position in the global economy, Mr. Speaker, we are an exception place, Mr. Speaker.

"We live in an exceptional nation. If we're going to achieve our potential this Session, let us try to be all we can by being job creators, pie expanders, confidence builders and protect our community from cyber criminals. God bless the House, the people of Hawaii and our great nation. Thank you, and aloha."

The Chair then addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, Thank you, very much. But may I make a correction for the Members of the House and the audience. That when you recognize a Member, you recognize them from the district he or she comes from and not their name on the Floor of the House. You got that? Everybody got that? In our debate on the Floor it's recognizing the Member by that particular district, and not by name. Thank you."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative M. Lee: "Mr. Speaker, I would just like to invite the Members, both male and female, to stop by our office to sign the bills that are going to be part of the Women's Caucus Package and also the bills that are going to be part of the Kupuna Caucus Package. Thank you."

OTHER COMMUNICATIONS

STATE OF HAWAII
STATE CAPITOL
HONOLULU, HAWAII 96813

October 27, 2011

RECEIVED

2011 OCT 27 P 2:30

SPEAKER'S OFFICE

Speaker Calvin K.Y. Say and Members of the Hawaii State House of Representatives
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

I write to notify you that I will be retiring from the Hawaii House on November 30, 2011. I have on this day accepted a position with the Hawaii State Bar Association, and will be the Executive Director of this organization beginning on December 1, 2011.

This was a very difficult decision for me as I have spent almost half of my life here with the Hawaii House. The Hawaii House is indeed my second home, and you and the Members and the staff, are my second family.

People here at the Capitol have been with me through life's joys and challenges. People in the Capitol helped me through my pregnancy and rejoiced with me when I gave birth to my daughter, Melissa, almost twenty-six years ago. When I experienced difficulties in my personal life, people in the Capitol helped me through dark times with encouraging words. When I began to experience health problems, people in the Capitol, especially the CCO staff, helped me watch my diet by keeping me away from sweets and fried foods, made sure I made it to exercise class, and helped me find the time to rest when I got tired on long deadline nights. And of course, at the Capitol, especially my "sister", CJ, was with me every step of the way when I had the kidney transplant two years ago.

I realized fully how fortunate I was to have people in the Capitol as my second family during the post-surgery recovery period. The Capitol phone calls and get well messages helped me through the hospitalization and recuperation periods. At the hospital, CCO and HMSO staff wore hospital masks and sanitized their hands and made sure I had short visits to keep me in a positive frame of mind.

When I returned home, the phone calls, cards, emails and fruit baskets were in abundance. Whenever I needed to talk to someone for companionship during my 30-day "home quarantine" after the surgery, I could always find someone in the Capitol to call. Rep. Marumoto dropped by the first Saturday I was home and surprised me with a box of manapua—something I could not eat for 2 years due to dietary restrictions. CCO staff drove to Hawaii Kai with lunch [and light desk work] when they could. The Minority Caucus sent Chinese food. And when I was finally medically cleared to come back to the Capitol, a month earlier than initially forecasted, I had to argue with you, Mr. Speaker, for permission to come back to work.

My close to 30 years in the House was never boring. Each day was different, especially during the legislative sessions. I was privileged to be a part of many historic and sometimes tumultuous decision-making activities. And it was most fulfilling to be a part of administrative and procedural changes. I came to the House when magnetic cards were used for committee work and typewriters were normally used for office business. We have now moved to the networks, dual-screen computers and laptops, websites and webcasting of proceedings.

I have had the privilege of serving 5 House Speakers. Mahalo to Speaker Peters who personally recruited me from the City Council to serve in the then-House Majority Research Office. Speaker Richard Kawakami was the visionary who taught me how to use legislative studies and research to formulate a 5-year issue plan. Speaker Kihano showed me that compassion was a necessary quality in a leader. I will be forever grateful to Speaker Souki, a leader who has never wavered in his lifelong support for the poor, the aged, the disabled, and the disadvantaged, and who never hesitates to speak his mind, for appointing me to the position of House Clerk. And finally to you Mr. Speaker, I thank you for the trust you have placed in me over the years as our respective administrative roles in the House expanded significantly, especially in the areas of personnel management and internal fiscal control.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my tenure here in the House. And I have enjoyed serving you and all of the members of the House on both sides of the aisle for the past three decades. It has been a privilege to work with the diverse House permanent staff and the hundreds of session staff I have met. The staff is truly the heart and backbone of this great institution.

My family and I will forever remain grateful for all of the opportunities and friendships the House has provided me with.

Before closing I would like to take this opportunity to thank and acknowledge the staff of the House Clerk's Office, some who have been with me for over 20 years. The CCO permanent staff is a talented, hard working group of people who have supported me and made it possible for me to do my job. They quietly work behind the scenes and help run the House smoothly making it look effortless. They are true professionals who do not seek accolades or praise, but are satisfied when the group effort results in success. They are the ones who really deserve praise and thanks. I would not have been able to do my job without each and every one of them.

I leave the House with a very heavy heart, and the House will always remain a part of me. In my heart I will always remain "Pat from the House".

Sincerely,

Patricia Mau-Shimizu
Hawaii House Clerk

The Governor was presented with lei by Representative Marilyn Lee on behalf of the House of Representatives, and Vice President Donna Mercado Kim on behalf of the Senate. The Speaker then presented to the Members of the Twenty-Sixth Legislature and the audience, the Honorable Neil Abercrombie, Governor of the State of Hawaii.

The Governor then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"Thank you. Mahalo nui. Thank you very, very, much everyone. Ladies and gentlemen. This is a solemn occasion, in more ways than one. For those who are able, I would ask you all to stand at this time, for a moment of silence on behalf of two fallen officers, Eric Fontas and Garret Davis, who gave their lives for all of us here in Hawaii in their service with the Honolulu Police Department."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate, honored guests and audience rose for a moment of silence in honor of the fallen officers of the Honolulu Police Department.

The Governor continued, stating:

"Mahalo. Thank you. Chief Kealoha said, 'Today our officers risk their lives daily to protect our community, and I am pleading with all of you to help protect them while driving with care while you see them performing their duties on the highways.' It is a sobering thought, but one that caused me to reflect that it is the obvious that we have to repeat to ourselves everyday because it's the obvious we tend to take most for granted and perhaps forget first. And one of the obvious things is that people who are committed to public service in the broadest range of activities. Those things that we count on everyday can sometimes be brought to our attention in a very forceful way. And on behalf of the people of this State, I'm sure you will not object to me extending our deepest sympathies and aloha to the families of Garret Davis and Eric Fontas.

"Mr. President, and Mr. Speaker, distinguished Justices of the Courts, Mayors, representatives of our Congressional Delegation, Members of the Hawaii State Legislature, other elected officials, honored guests, family and friends. I would like to make a reintroduction if I could just for a moment. Because as I just said to the Speaker, last year when I gave my first State of the State, it was in kind of a dream state. To be back in the Chamber and to be with friends and people I've known so long like my former student, Speaker Say. I said, 'How come you still don't recognize me as the professor here?'" It's been that kind of length of time, but I know the Governors have already been introduced, but I want to reintroduce because when I said, 'my friends,' I want to indicate how important it has been to me to have their mentorship and friendship.

"First, I want to reintroduce Governor George Ariyoshi for a simple reason. Governor Ariyoshi provided the leadership necessary in our State to recognize the true meaning of environment. He is the one that led the way, for us to understand what sustainability was all about. To understand in its entirety how we would be able to sustain ourselves. The State Plans that he caused to come into effect are as true today as they were then. If there is a true pioneer of understanding Hawaii in its most modern context, it is George Ariyoshi. Governor.

"And next, I would like to reintroduce to you, Hawaii's first Native Hawaiian Governor, who is now leading, once again, Native Hawaiians into their future. The Native Hawaiian role which is now being assembled is under the leadership and the direction of Governor John Waihe'e. It will be truly said of this son of Hawaii, this keiki o ka 'aina, that he has led his people into a future that will renew and reinvigorate the entire values associated, as we all do, with the culture of Hawaii. Governor John Waihe'e.

"And I understand that there is a lot of interest these days in friendship, and what friendship means. And I would like to introduce my friend, who apparently is looking for something else to do now. Governor Ben Cayetano.

"And I have one other introduction I want to make if I may. We understand that the media focuses on celebrity, and personalities, and drama, and in the political sphere perhaps there's a concentration on names and years, but there are those who triumphed. Keiki o ka 'aina, people of Hawaii from the most diverse backgrounds. People who are heroes. People who perhaps are not necessarily always recognized. But there is someone who has been a friend to all of us here in this Legislature. Someone, who has helped to guide in terms of understanding what real heroism is all about. What discipline, what professionalism is all about. What concentration, what dedication is all about. For a number of years now we've had the opportunity to have as a Sergeant-at-Arms in the Senate, a friend to all of us, a hero to the Filipino community, a giant of people from Hawaii. The former Junior Lightweight Champion of the World, Ben Villaflor. Ben, come out and take a bow. Champion of the World. I know all of you are saying, 'He's not a Junior Lightweight anymore.' But I ask you to take a look at ourselves and maybe we won't be so quick to make that observation.

"One year ago, I stood before you to present the sobering fiscal reality facing Hawaii. At that time, we faced an enormous deficit and the effects of fractured government services. The discussion was not about "whether" we needed to find additional revenues, but about "where" we needed to find them. But by working together and through shared sacrifice, we have started to turn the corner. This past year has not been easy, but we have accomplished our purpose.

"I want to thank the Legislature for your cooperation, each and every one of you. I want to thank you for your collaboration. And I want to thank the public gathered here in numbers today for weathering through those difficult choices.

"Thank you, especially to our State employees, who agreed to labor savings, and additional payments for health benefits, in order to effectuate this recovery. There was no way for us to have balanced our budget and achieved today's fiscally favorable outlook without the commitment of everyone. To all of you who came to work each day bearing the burden of cuts and slashes to your programs over these past three years; and to those of you who gave up your furloughs because of your commitment to serving the people of Hawaii, I thank you. Mahalo plenty to each and every one of you.

"Together, we are moving forward. And moving forward means leaving behind the drama of the recent past. It is for that reason that I have again, requested that the Hawaii State Teachers Association provide us with a proposal as soon as possible. After good faith negotiations achieving two agreements, the teachers still have not ratified a contract. I want to emphasize, I will continue to press for a resolution.

"Nonetheless, we must continue our focus on our children and students' performance. We cannot wait any longer. We wanted to cross the Race to the Top finish line side-by-side with the HSTA, but make no mistake we will cross that finish line. Our students deserve no less. I will be using all management, administrative, legislative and legal tools we have at our disposal to implement an evaluation system that not only measures, but achieves student growth; turns around low-performing schools; and supports teachers in achieving and increasing their effectiveness.

"Just as we must concentrate on providing for our children's future, it is critical that we continue the economic momentum we have achieved. Since last year, Hawaii's recovery has been steady. The visitor industry – a key element – saw 3.4 percent growth in the number of visitor arrivals, and total visitor expenditures have grown over 15 percent, resulting in an additional $5 billion flowing into Hawaii's economy.

"A solid indicator of our growth is the average 8 percent increase in our general excise tax revenue compared to last year. Very welcomed. Despite the unfortunate closing of Hawaii Medical Center, our unemployment remains one of the lowest in the nation. Payroll employment increased 1.3 percent after three years of decline. Initial unemployment claims declined 8 percent in 2011. Bankruptcies dropped 15.9 percent.

"Nonetheless, my budget team and House and Senate fiscal committees have warned, we must remain wary of the current national and European economic uncertainties, which continue to loom ahead. Earlier this month, the Council on Revenues projected a 3 percent decline in our revenue forecast, which amounts to $130 million. The question then, is how do we address what could be a daunting fiscal picture.

"Last year, when the revenue projections plummeted, we met the enormous challenge, and I want to emphasize, we. We met this enormous challenge of our shortfall through shared sacrifice and collaboration. We instituted fiscal prudence and discipline, through tools provided, and I thank you, by the Legislature. The result was a general fund balance, today, of $126 million; a $300 million plus dollars turn around in a year. That is fiscal discipline. That's showing what Hawaii can do when we all work together. This was the first positive balance achieved in three years.

"Despite this budget success, current fiscal uncertainties swirling around us mean that our supplemental budget proposal must reflect continued discipline. Through our strong management of resources in 2011, we were able to achieve nearly $86 million in general fund savings. It's these savings that we will use to propose initiatives that will support and strengthen our economic recovery.

"The first is construction. All the signs show that private investment and construction appears hesitant and tentative. Therefore, it is the public sector that must step up to invest in repairs and maintenance, construction projects and infrastructure improvements. By aggressively putting these projects into action, we will ensure that job creation continues.

"Our recent bond and refinancing sale of nearly $1.3 billion, along with $1 billion in projects that are already on the budget books, thanks to the Legislature, and another $300 million that I am proposing in this supplemental budget, will spur an immediate rise in job growth.

"These New Day Work Projects were chosen because they not only address critical infrastructure needs, but more importantly, they are primed and they're ready to go. We looked for projects that were not mired in permitting delays, or only in design and planning stages, but rather those that are ready to provide impact now.

"After my initial discussions with the House and Senate, I know we are all committed to looking at an aggressive budget schedule for these repair and maintenance construction projects. I am committed as well to working with you to make sure that we have a healthy and strong construction budget and a solid plan to continue our investment in our economy.

"But, investment is not only about immediate impacts to the economy. It's about our long term vision towards the future. A prime example is the proposed Pohukaina project that is designed around the consolidation of mixed-use and mixed-income. If we want to curtail sprawl and we want to protect precious available lands, we must focus on increasing urban density and provide working families affordable housing opportunities, assisted living opportunities, long-term care opportunities. This is the first step. This is a central project in that quest. It's the first step in future plans for further smart development along the corridor from Iwilei to Waikiki.

"Not only is it important to emphasize brick and mortar, but we must also build an infrastructure for technology to meet the demands of the 21st century. This is the intellectual and social infrastructure we must have to provide opportunities and experience for our people to become an advanced workforce that can compete in the global marketplace. This is why we have to have early education. This is why we have to back the Race to the Top. This is why we need to get our young people ready for the future. We are not going to leave our young people behind.

"We're going to move forward on our Hawaii Broadband Initiative. We'll be requesting $2.9 million to enhance the online services for eHawaii.gov, advance research for trans-Pacific fiber landing stations statewide, and initiate a "one-to-one" laptop program for all of Hawaii's schools that will provide laptops for every single student. Not only are these advances needed, but they are crucial in ensuring Hawaii's global connectivity and technological advancement.

"We'll also be seeking more oversight of telecommunications by putting it in the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. Telecom will now be regulated by one agency, rather than having multiple functions spread over multiple departments.

"Similarly, we are ... Scattered applause. You can put that right in there if you want. Similarly, we're moving forward on our comprehensive plan to consolidate all of our State technology under the Office of Information Management and Technology, led by Hawaii's first Chief Information Officer, Sonny Bhagowalia. Stand up. You're the one I'm going to blame if it doesn't work. I'm introducing him personally because afterwards I'm going to ask the legislators en masse to say his name five times in a row very quickly.

"It reminds me of the first day that I ever taught. My first day at the University of Hawaii. Saturday morning, eight o'clock. We were on a six-day week then. And the haole boy from the East Coast was coming in to teach. I was scared to death of taking the roll, because the first name on the list was Sampson Poomaihealani. I got it right, and Sampson and I have been friends for 50-plus years. 50-plus years. Sonny, you're easy.

"For this important mission, we are requesting $10 million.

"Finally, in this area of our economic future, we must never forget that we need to invest in being proper stewards of our Hawaii nei as Governor Ariyoshi has reminded us. We must nurture our environment, not only because it is pono, but because it is an essential investment for kama'aina and visitors alike. It is for that reason that I am proposing that we invest $5 million in protecting our watersheds. If we are going to nurture the ahupua'a of every island, we need to keep the oceans blue. We must save Hawaii's forests and preserve our water resources.

"Ladies and gentlemen, paradise is our home. It needs our devotion and it needs our care.

"Our islands reflect travelers and attract travelers from around the world. So too, the film industry also depends on showcasing the beauty and variety of our Aloha State. We've seen what these islands can look like on big screen and television. Having top-rated television shows and award-winning films like "The Descendants," speaks volumes about Hawaii as a television and cinema venue. It is for that reason that we will be requesting the Legislature to look at the TV and Film Tax Credit with the intention of drafting necessary changes in making it permanent.

"All of our work comes down then, to one underlying purpose – to serve Hawaii and its people. I mean it broadly, and I mean it inclusively. It's part of our culture and part of our history. We're one 'ohana, one family, one state. So, we create programs, we establish services, we pass laws to meet that obligation. In short, we best care for our people by investing in them.

"That investment begins, as I've indicated, with our youngest children. Early childhood education lays the foundation for a lifetime of learning and results in productive citizens who will someday manage our businesses, build our homes and offices, welcome our visitors, care for our sick, make new discoveries in science, enter this Legislature, cast votes on behalf of the people of Hawaii and lead us into the future.

"We're at a crossroads then when it comes to early childhood education. For too long, we have continued old patterns that treated early education as something that is optional, a luxury for only those few who have the means.

"Research shows that 85 percent of a child's brain development takes place before the age of five and that children who have quality early experiences are more likely to graduate from high school, attend college, contribute positively to the economy and to their families. Yet, many of Hawaii's children are entering school unprepared. It's time to invest in our children, and invest in our future, so that our state can thrive."

"My friends, that was a direct quotation and observation from 'Be My Voice Hawaii'. Be My Voice Hawaii who advocates for young children. It illustrates without equivocation that early education is not just an option; it's a fundamental necessity if we are to set the broader educational stage for our children. It is not just about learning to read and write. It establishes healthy attitudes towards learning that will stay with them throughout their lives. We also know that early education greatly enhances a young person's sense of self-worth and confidence and that, in turn, positively affects learning.

"Early childhood education must be the initial step on the education ladder. Failure to act now virtually ensures our children will be left behind. I cannot emphasize that enough. Failure to act now ensures that our children will be left behind. If they are not our top priority, then we no longer know the meaning of that word.

"The State's Early Childhood Coordinator Terry Lock has put together a team to create a unified framework. This early education plan for the State will be the guide for building a stronger quality early care and education system for our youngest children and all their families. Investing in the next generation is the wisest decision that we can make as a people. And make no mistake – it is an investment with long-term returns that will far outweigh the initial costs.

"Last Session, I forwarded difficult proposals to you to address difficult times. In stark contrast to one year ago, as a result of the aforementioned tough-minded administrative and legislative action, the State finds itself in an all-too-rare financial situation of not having to pay for debt or to balance the budget by raising taxes.

"We will continue on this path of strong fiscal management and strategic financial investments, as indicated in Opening Day remarks by President Tsutsui and Speaker Say. Yes, I read those speeches and read them more than once. They're well worth reading, by the way. I commend them to your attention. I think we are in exactly the same position, right straight across. They were very, very excellent admonitions not just to ourselves, but a genuinely clear reflection of the context fiscally and programmatically that we find ourselves in.

"So, we now have the luxury of weighing solutions to behavioral and societal issues on their own merit. We can ask ourselves what will be most effective and do the most good for our children without the distraction of having to balance the budget on a new tax program.

"Nonetheless, the fact remains that the link between one of those issues that I mentioned last year, sugar-sweetened beverages and health is undeniable. The link between them is undeniable. The policies or the proposals that might be associated with that, in reaching out to deal with it, that may be subject to discussion. Obviously it is. How we go about it. Remember, in the beginning of my remarks I indicated how we are going to do things is the most important thing, if we agree on what needs to be done.

"The connection is undeniable. I have proposed then the establishment of a task force, with members from the public and private sectors, to identify and then implement a solution to this very real health issue in our State. This is a fiscal issue. This is a money issue. But it is fundamentally and primarily a public health issue. It is not going to go away and is only going to accelerate and be exacerbated in time to come. This group's objective will be navigating us away from the path that has led obesity rates in Hawaii to have doubled, doubled in the last 15 years. Sadly, more deaths and illnesses have occurred from chronic diseases than from contagious diseases in Hawaii. We're controlling contagious disease. It's the chronic disease that is getting away from us. That's why we're having these arguments that we're having today. Not maybe arguments. These discussions, having to confront the idea of healthcare costs. Why are the healthcare premiums rising? It's not spending. Spending is chasing the costs, and the costs are what are involved in us not having the kind of healthy lifestyle that we must have in order to survive.

"The Director of the State Department of Health recently noted that, 'Obesity is not just about losing weight for our children ...' That is not what I'm concentrating on. Yes, that brings us to an immediate focus, but it is a deadly accurate predictor of cancer, heart disease, stroke, diabetes and other mental and physical ailments. This will follow our children as it is following adults now throughout their lives. And it is having immediate impact on our Medicaid funding; an immediate impact on what constitutes Medicare generally throughout the nation; and immediate impact on what we have to do in order to meet our obligations with regard to healthcare premiums.

"So for these early childhood education and health initiatives, I'm only requesting $1 million total, but we can do it. There is commitment throughout the State. There are people and groups ready to go to work on this, ready to come up with a consensus conclusion that we can get behind. Thank you for your attention to this because this, for this modest amount of investment, can have long-term payoffs for us in terms of health and in terms of security for our people that can scarcely be measured at this time.

"As important as these issues are for our children, the issues affecting our kupuna are growing in importance in conjunction with their numbers. Last year, the first of the Baby Boomers reached retirement age. Hawaii acutely felt this demographic shift not only because of their sheer numbers, but also because Hawaii enjoys one of the highest life expectancies in the nation.

"That is why I am proposing $1.4 million appropriation to begin creating one-stop shops across the State for information on aging, to assist all of our kupuna who face the challenges of aging and restricted mobility. We are working with federal, county and community partners to establish Aging and Disabilities Resource Centers, which will serve as a single point of entry for all long-term care support and services in the State. The centers will streamline eligibility determination, minimize the need to navigate multiple bureaucracies, and facilitate informed choices about long-term care. This group will address the question of assisted living; address the question of living in place; address the question of how do we meet the long-term care needs of our people. But this initiative to ease access to services is only the start. We need then to have a further and deeper conversation about long-term care. Seniors want to age in their communities, they want to age in their homes. But more importantly, they deserve to do so; they deserve to do so with dignity. That is why I am committed to strengthening our system of home- and community-based services. These needs can no longer, and should no longer, be ignored.

"As I mentioned earlier, the sudden shut down of two Hawaii Medical Center hospitals on 'Oahu at the start of this year emphasizes this issue. It had widespread ramifications throughout the medical community and the State, including those who suffer from kidney-related diseases.

"An emergency appropriation for a grant of $1.8 million to the National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii will support this important health service. It's fundamental. It is just fundamental. I suspect there will be very few of us in the State, at some time or another, who are not going to have someone in the family, or friends, or in the community that you know who's going to need dialysis. That's part of the legacy of not coming to grips with our nutritional and health needs to this point. We pledge to help those who have stepped forward in the private sector to ensure that the people of Hawaii have this crucial medical care and expertise.

"Our State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations immediately provided rapid response services to employees at the Hawaii Medical Center worksites, giving them information on applying for unemployment benefits, health insurance options, potential workforce training programs and other services.

"We appreciate all the assistance the Department has received and I want to emphasize that. Everyone has pulled together here. I'm very, very grateful, as is everybody in the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. We're grateful that you put these opportunities together and you're helping these workers transition. In Hawaii, we must think of ourselves as ‘ohana first and that's what's taking place today.

"It reflects a spirit of aloha, and this spirit of aloha is deeply rooted in the diverse cultures of these islands. We must never forget that it is the culture of our Native Hawaiians that we so proudly share with ourselves and the world that causes this to be in the forefront of our consciousness. The recent settlement in principle with the Office of Hawaiian Affairs directly addresses ongoing issues that have remained unresolved for decades. The proposed settlement transfers about 25 acres in Kaka‘ako to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs. OHA can use that resource to immediately benefit Native Hawaiians. We're going to stop talking about what needs to be done and give Native Hawaiians the opportunity to do something for, and with themselves now.

"In turn, this proposal provides approximately $200 million in value to settle claims against the State. More importantly, it brings closure to this longstanding rift allowing both the Native Hawaiian community and the State to move forward. It is my hope that this proposal heals old wounds.

"We have also begun to make progress in one of the biggest challenges faced by the whole community – homelessness. A coordinated approach and strong desire to help people has been the basis of a multi-pronged effort to assist the homeless in Hawaii – to provide not only temporary shelter for those who need it, but to help them to become productive citizens.

"We have and we will continue to invest in the potential of those who are currently homeless. That's what we're focusing on. This is not a dead end. Everyone has potential. And that's what we're going to focus on relentlessly. In July 2011, I signed an Executive Order that established the Hawaii Interagency Council for Homelessness, a 24-member council comprised of community leaders, State department directors, federal agency representatives and others to develop a unified plan on addressing homelessness. We had never had unity of effort previous to this. The Council aligns its efforts with the United States Interagency Council on the Homeless, established by President Obama in 2009.

"Led by the State's first Coordinator on Homelessness, Marc Alexander, the Council worked to bring together a patchwork of organizations that are now seamlessly put together in a single quilt to meet their goals of: 1) increasing transitional and permanent housing options, and 2) acquiring increased federal funding and funding from any other sources that can aid and abet this process.

"Now, all these initiatives that I've been discussing are not only about saving or spending money, or programs or projects. It is about how to spend the precious taxpayer dollars.

"A key example of this is the Justice Reinvestment Initiative. The data is clear that from 1997 to 2010, violent and property crime throughout the State steadily decreased by nearly half. But despite these improvements in public safety, the incarceration population has remained the same. We must change the way in which our laws work, change the way in which the system works, so that we can make a clear distinction between those that need to stay in prison to keep the public safe, versus those who present little risk or have the potential to be rehabilitated. But, we must also provide proper and consistent supervision of those who are released so that we can act with dispatch when any offender fails to take advantage of the opportunity offered for a productive life. I can speak, as many of you know, with some authority in this area as a former probation officer.

"The Justice Reinvestment Proposals have nothing to do with any decline in public safety. I hope we do not have a false argument about whether or not we want to keep people safe. There is not a legislator here, there is not a responsible citizen anywhere in Hawaii that is talking about at all, with declining safety or imperiling public safety. What we're talking about is, as a matter of fact, the exact opposite. If you keep people in prison for long terms; if you keep them away from their family and their community; if you separate them from the possibility of being able to integrate themselves back in to a society, I can guarantee that you're going to have not just recidivism, but you're going to have destroyed families and destroyed possibilities.

"However, for those particularly in the grip of today's drug culture, if we can give them an alternative; if we can work with them together as a community, for those who do want to take advantage of it. Then I can assure you that this reinvestment procedure, the changes that we're seeking to make will have a positive benefit for everybody, including seeing to it that public safety is first and foremost, and a future for the individuals who can be rehabilitated can be assured.

"So after this unprecedented collaboration with the Governor's Office, the Justice Department, the Public Safety Department, key lawmakers, the Judiciary, The Council of State Governments Justice Center, we will be proposing legislation that will improve the criminal justice system using the most up-to-date strategies. And we'll do this with existing resources. I'm not asking for a dime for this. I'm not asking for a penny extra for this. I'm asking that we use our brains, and we use our aloha with one another and make it work for all of us.

"And I'd be totally remiss, if I'm talking about how we spend our money, if we didn't ask ourselves, "Why do we continue to send billions of dollars a year outside of the islands to meet our energy needs?" If there's one thing we export from Hawaii it's dollars. It's our major export, for oil, for food, for prisoners. We've got to keep these dollars here in Hawaii, and we most especially have to keep them here where energy is concerned.

"Two weeks ago, Tesoro Corporation announced it would be selling its refinery here in Hawaii. This news is not a surprise. Over the years, I have indicated we are at risk given the rising cost of crude oil and the severity of speculation in the global world market. Does everyone understand that the speculative price of oil in Singapore is what dictates what happens to us here in Hawaii? If you want to talk about being a victim of globalization, or you want to talk about how globalization affects all of us, just reflect for a moment on the fact that we are totally in the hands of oil speculators in Singapore, because that's where the price is established for the oil that's imported. I know that there is uncertainty for current employees at Tesoro as it starts the process of seeking an appropriate buyer. Again our Department of Labor and Industrial Relations stands ready to provide job assistance for those who need it.

"I also know there is uncertainty for those who are wondering what the sale of the State's largest refinery means to the cost of fuel in the State. Well, Hawaii has never had control over the high cost of energy. Going back, and I daresay Governor Ariyoshi will agree, certainly when I first came into the Legislature, we were talking about the high cost of fuel. This is something that we've tried to come to grips with over the years, and we've always had to look to an outside source to see if we could get somebody out there to pay attention to us in a positive way. Well, how's that working? Not very well. We're going to have to take our destiny in to our own hands. So, one thing is certain – and you have heard this before – we must lessen our dependence on imported oil. It has to stop, to the degree and extent we can make it happen.

"This is not just an issue then about sustainability. This is about the survival of our State. In moving forward our path to advance a clean energy future, failure is not an option. Reducing our dependence on imported oil will take an equal commitment by government, business, community, family and individuals. We can no longer view energy production or distribution as an island-by-island operation. We must be united on a statewide basis to produce and distribute energy. My Administration is committed to clean alternative and renewable energies for the benefit of all of our islands.

"In November, I signed two international agreements that demonstrate that commitment. The first was signed during the APEC Summit with the Vice Chairman of the China Council for Promotion and International Trade to pursue mutual interests in clean energy development. This year, we will continue to build upon that relationship and, by April, I hope to have a more defined Memorandum of Understanding to advance projects that will result in business opportunities.

"I signed a second agreement with Japan-based New Energy and Industrial Technology Development Organization (NEDO) to collaborate on building a first-of-its-kind smart grid demonstration project on the Island of Maui.

"For this project, Hitachi, NEDO and Mizuho are investing $37 million in advanced smart grid technology to improve integration of variable and renewable resources into the electrical grid. These agreements mark Hawaii's emergence as the test bed of the Pacific for clean energy demonstrations and clearly indicates the promise that energy projects offer for economic growth, and I want to thank the Lieutenant Governor, Brian Schatz, for heading everything that we did in APEC, for reaching out to the Asia-Pacific region. Particularly in terms of energy, for getting people in Japan and China to understand that we have a test bed here in the Pacific. And I think that his efforts need to be recognized. Lieutenant Governor Schatz, we thank you.

"In no small measure, thanks to the efforts of members of this Legislature and our Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, and our Lieutenant Governor, there are currently about 80 renewable energy projects that are demonstrating progress in becoming commercial enterprises which have the potential, obviously, to serve and help the State of Hawaii achieve its energy goals. My Administration will continue to look at every option – wind, solar, natural gas, photovoltaic, geothermal, bio-fuels, ocean energy and other technologies. We'll be aggressive, but respectful in our approach of the island environment

"These projects are just the first step, and in the next few months we will be unveiling a comprehensive roadmap for the State, beginning on the Big Island of Hawaii. We're going to be building a world-leading, sustainable economy standing on our people's history of self-sufficiency in both food and energy. It's time for us to work together, and the Big Island is going to lead the way. It's time for us to put our willpower to our resources and make this a reality, not just for the Big Island, but for the State as a whole.

"That is why I have assigned Lieutenant Governor Schatz to coordinate and support these energy priorities. We must stay the course when it comes to advancing our clean energy future and ensure that collaborative decisions are being made. Swift and appropriate regulation must take place, as well as healthy competition and local entrepreneurship, community involvement and integration.

"The time for sustainability rhetoric is over. Bold action is needed now. In order to accomplish that ... Thank you, Gil. In order to accomplish that, we must address two critical issues to position ourselves for increasing use of alternative energy – reliability and infrastructure. This is not just some rhetorical device that we're going through here. We know what we have to deal with, the infrastructure part and the reliability part.

"While Hawaii has an abundance of natural resources that I've just outlined, we can tap into those. But the system cannot maintain itself solely with sources that shift with the changing of the wind or the sun hiding behind the clouds. The system demands a clear measure of reliability to feed that energy into the grid. Therefore, one of my primary energy initiatives will be to provide the Public Utilities Commission with the explicit authority to develop, adopt and monitor electricity reliability standards. This will include jurisdiction over how independent power producers connect to the grid. Currently, while the PUC can take on issues through its formal docket process, there is no comprehensive authority to oversee reliability standards. We simply can't succeed unless we do this. To ensure that we have control over the reliability of the energy feeding into the system, we need to give the PUC this authority.

"But more importantly, we need to create the infrastructure for stability. This means making the long-term infrastructure investments that ensure our electric grids are stable, reliable and modern enough to integrate alternative and renewable energy technologies. Our investment will benefit future generations. Had we made this commitment in years past we would be benefitting from it today. We cannot ignore it any longer.

"One of those investments is an undersea cable that can connect our island grids to provide stable, reliable electricity between the islands. This integrated grid will provide stable energy prices and equalize rates between the islands, which will benefit all of us. To pay for this critical piece of infrastructure, we are proposing legislation that will attract private capital resources and expertise, perhaps even international. In today's uncertain world, we cannot postpone Hawaii's clean energy future any longer. We can only get there if we move now. There is no legislation more critical to our future.

"I assure you, the energy debates that will take place this Session will echo the debates that took place here when I was a legislator in these Chambers. This goes back to Governor Ariyoshi. It goes to Governors Waihe'e and Cayetano. We were here when the energy committees presented similar admonitions to us in the 1970s. We have to act. We cannot wait any longer. Let us not repeat a history of failure by failing to act in 2012.

"I want to close if I might, with something that exemplifies what aloha is all about. Whether these initiatives are aimed at reducing our dependence on fossil fuels, or to assist and uplift the homeless, or to help our kupuna or our children, all represent wise, and I believe prudent investments in our people. The cost of not taking action now will most certainly result in higher costs not only in dollars, but in social dysfunction as well.

"I am deeply grateful to Speaker Say and President Tsutsui for clearly recognizing and delineating the opportunity to work together on these issues in their respective Opening Day remarks. With the theme of "Pupukahi I Holomua – Unite to Move Forward," they have specifically referenced the main objectives that I've outlined – growing a sustainable economy, investing in people and transforming government. I want to extend my pledge to Members of the House and Senate here assembled, to work collaboratively with you to serve all our constituents.

"I know for many it is hard to see beyond today's needs when today's needs loom immediate. But unless dealt with now, today's challenges can only multiply in difficulty. We have the obligation to make a better future for our children. We live in paradise and taking care of each other is a value that's fundamental to the aloha spirit. This is about having aloha for one another and doing what is pono. What is pono then? What is aloha for each other all about?

"At one point, when the way forward was not always clear to me, Representative Karen Awana sent me a note, the essence of which was, A'ohe Hana Nui Ke Alu 'Ia – no task is too big when done together by all. I keep it at my desk. I have it with me now for when I can use a little reminder of the meaning of aloha for one another.

"There is a Buddhist saying, "Words have the power to destroy or to heal. When words are both true and kind they can change our world." Her kindness and her goodness is truly aloha in every way. I pledge my aloha to you all in that spirit. Mahalo nui."

"Imua Hawaii."

President Tsutsui then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor. On behalf of the Senate and the House of Representatives, we would like to thank you for addressing our entire State this morning. We greatly appreciate your leadership and vision, and your enthusiasm and passion in which you lead our great State. While we agree that the past year has been very challenging, the foundation that your Administration has laid provides a basis for us to build upon and move forward.

"We are here today to pledge our support to help you shoulder the burden of any anticipated and unanticipated challenges during this Legislative Session. Through collaboration, pupukahi i holomua, we will realize an even better tomorrow.

"With no further business, I declare this Joint Session adjourned."

At 11:02 o'clock a.m., President Tsutsui declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Sixth Legislature adjourned.

ORDER OF THE DAY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1-12) recommending that H.B. No. 994, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 994, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1356, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1356, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to just note my reservations with Standing Committee Report No. 2-12. I understand the privacy interests that the supporters of this bill would like to protect, but I think this might be going too far. And just as an example it says that we would block out providing information about education and training background. I just wanted to do a little anecdotal example of how this might be going too far.

"As a parent of a public school student, as it is, finding out the educational and training backgrounds of the teachers who teach my child is something that I have to go in and affirmatively request. Whereas, in comparison to private school parents, who are often given handbooks that freely tell them what the backgrounds of their teachers are. I think this is a step in the wrong direction to providing transparency to the public, for important information that helps people make wise choices. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1356, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC EMPLOYEES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1452, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1452, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure. Yesterday, Mr. Speaker, I had the opportunity to interview a sex trafficking survivor. She is a local girl. She has a college degree, and is a single mom. She was pulled into this very dark world of sex trafficking. Mr. Speaker, this is not just prostitutes on a street corner. This is in every aspect of our community, and people are controlling these women. And when they have an opportunity to escape, we need to have the services in place to help these victims, to continue their survival.

"This is a $37 billion a year industry in the United States and that is a conservative estimate. So we as a Body, as the State, we need to do all that we can to support this measure and these victims. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support, and I would also like to say that the most important thing in dealing with sex trafficking is the services. You can change the law, but if you don't have the services for the victim, you won't be successful. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1452, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SERVICES FOR SURVIVORS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, presented a report (Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-12) recommending that H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, as amended in CD 1, pass Final Reading.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, today is the United Nations' designated International Holocaust Remembrance Day. It's a reminder of what happened in Auschwitz and the 6 million Jews that were killed. Hopefully the remembrance of this will remind us that there's still the civility that we're looking for in the world, and all the member states of the UN are asked to develop educational programs to help prevent future genocide. And there is genocide going on as we speak in Africa.

"Mr. Speaker I request that I could insert the Secretary General Ban Ki-moon's comments regarding the United Nations' commemoration of this anniversary," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward submitted the following:

"Secretary-General's Message

One and a half million Jewish children perished in the Holocaust – victims of persecution by the Nazis and their supporters.

Tens of thousands of other children were also murdered. They included people with disabilities... as well as Roma and Sinti.

All were victims of a hate-filled ideology that labelled them "inferior".

This year's International Day of Commemoration in Memory of the Victims of the Holocaust is dedicated to the children – girls and boys who faced sheer terror and evil.

Many were orphaned by the war, or ripped away from their families.

Many died of starvation, disease or at the hands of their abusers.

We will never know what these children might have contributed to our world.

And among the survivors, many were too shattered to tell their stories.

Today, we seek to give voice to those accounts.

That is why the United Nations continues to teach the universal lessons of the Holocaust.

It is why we strive to promote children's rights and aspirations – every day and everywhere.

And it is why we will continue to be inspired by the shining example of great humanitarians such as Raoul Wallenberg, in this, the centennial year of his birth.

Today, as we remember all those lost during the Holocaust – young and old alike -- I call on all nations to protect the most vulnerable, regardless of race, colour, gender or religious beliefs.

Children are uniquely vulnerable to the worst of humankind.

We must show them the best this world has to offer.

Thank you.

*H.E. Mr. Ban Ki-moon,
The Secretary-General of United Nations"*

Representative Luke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to announce to the Body that tomorrow is Representative Chris Lee's birthday. So if we could, instead of a belated, do a pre-lated birthday. Happy birthday, tomorrow."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This coming weekend kicks off the beginning pre-event for what this Chamber has passed as Hawaii-Grown Chocolate or Cacao Month. I wanted to make sure everyone was aware that this so-called, brightest on the agricultural horizon which is doing quite well is actually having its first event in Haleiwa. It's called the Haleiwa Cacao Festival.

"There will be tours, those of you who are interested in this more lucrative agricultural industry, they'll have tours there in Haleiwa. It is also going to be it's their third annual. They will have keiki activities, chef demos, etc.

"Waialua Estate Cacao Orchard Tours are from 9:30 to 11:30, and they ask that we come celebrate Hawaii's bright light on the agricultural horizon, with award-winning Waialua chocolate. It's learning about the benefits of this crop, and it echoes the views of 'Buy Local, It Matters.' Please support your local AG, and promote sustainable job creation. Thank you."

Representative Brower: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On that note, I just hope everyone will support my Cacao Bill which someone in this Chamber asked me to introduce. Thank you."

Representative Har: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Tomorrow we will celebrate the grand opening of the Kroc Community Center in Kapolei. And for those of you that are not aware, it is the largest community center in the State of Hawaii.

"Several years ago, the City of Kapolei secured a $90 million grant from the Ray and Joan Kroc Foundation, otherwise known as McDonald's Corporation, and this Body did in fact support the project, via a GIA.

"We're passing around a Certificate, and if possible I'd like every single Member to sign the certificate. It's going around right now, but if you have not had a chance to sign it, please do so. If you're leaving to go home to the Neighbor Islands, if you could stop by my office. Please make sure to do so, so that tomorrow Representative Pine, and there'll be many members of the Legislature attending; Representatives Jordan, Awana, so that we could present it with all of the Members of the House of Representatives."

Representative McKelvey: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On a more sad note. West Maui lost one of its icon members, Ms. Star Medeiros. At the appropriate time, could I ask for a moment of silence for her and her family? Thank you."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Ms. Star Medeiros of Lahaina.

ORDER OF THE DAY

By unanimous consent, action was deferred one legislative day.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain Senate Bills for Final Reading by consent calendar. (Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll and Luke were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2-12 and S.B. No. 239, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 239, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As you are aware, this bill is nothing new for us. In fact this issue has been with us since 2001, and that's as it relates to the funding of both the construction and the operations of the John A. Burns School of Medicine at the University of Hawaii, Manoa. This bill attempts to extend the deadline offered to the University to allow them to use excess revenues from the Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund for operation. And as you know over the years, I've spoken against this extension. Today I stand in support with reservations. Although I do have some of the same concerns, I do want to read to the Members and to you Mr. Speaker, an email that I wrote, and the response that I received from the University, into the record.

"I wrote it to M.R.C. and Virginia, M.R.C. being the President of the University, and Virginia Hinshaw being the UH Manoa Chancellor.

I realize that Senate Bill 239 is on the Order of the Day today, and I wanted to see whether you can help me understand this bill. Can you assure me and my colleagues that you support this bill? Also, can you assure me, that UH and JABSOM support the end date of June 30, 2015 for the use of the funds. I'm leaning to supporting this bill if I get assurances from you. This issue has long troubled me, and assurances from the University and JABSOM have not been followed each of the times we've extended/amended this funding mechanism. I'm hoping that you could provide me with some comfort know that JABSOM is on its way to meeting the benchmarks established in 2001.

"Chancellor Hinshaw's response to me was:

We do support this bill, and would really appreciate your support for it. We have been working hard on a number of areas to compensate for the reduction. This bill does enable us to implement the needed changes in a planned manner over this time period.

"Then I followed, because I needed some additional clarification, and I said to Chancellor Hinshaw this:

Thanks for your reply. I'm glad the University supports this bill. I'm assuming that the support is also for the June 30th, 2015 deadline when everything goes back to the original language, and the extra funding, if any exists, will not go to the operation of JABSOM. I really would like M.R.C.'s and your commitment that this June 30, 2015 deadline is solid and we have your assurances that the University will not be coming back to the Legislature to extend this deadline yet again. Also, can you elaborate on your comment, "enable us to implement the needed changes in a planned manner over this time." I'm assuming that it's to expand revenue generation opportunities, and to reduce expenses so over time, JABSOM will be able to cover the current operational costs associated with Senate Bill 239. Is this correct?

"And her response is:

That is correct. And so is your understanding of my statement about planning.

"So Mr. Speaker, I stand here today in support of this measure because of these assurances: Number 1, that they'll support the end date of June 30, 2015; and that they're going to work collaboratively with us to assure that the revenues and the research funding increases while we start decreasing them from State support.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to also insert additional written comments. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Let me say at the onset that I continue to support the University of Hawaii and the John A. Burns School of Medicine (JABSOM).

"However, I continue to have two major concerns regarding this issue. First, I continue to raise serious concerns about the use and erosion of the tobacco settlement funds. Second, I continue to have concerns with the University's failure to fulfill numerous promises.

"I remind my colleagues of the Master Settlement Agreement (MSA) between the 46 states and the five major tobacco companies. According to the agreement, the settling states and our citizens will receive "significant funding for the advancement of public health and the implementation of important tobacco-related public health measures."

"In keeping with the spirit of the original lawsuit and the MSA, the 1999 Legislature passed Act 304 (SB 1034 CD 1), which states, "The fund shall serve as a mechanism to maximize financial resources for tobacco prevention and control, health promotion and disease prevention programs, children's health programs, and to serve as a long-term source of stable funding for prevention-oriented public health efforts."

"In 1999, when we set up the Tobacco Settlement Special Fund (TSSF), we dedicated 25 percent of the funds to tobacco prevention and quit-smoking programs. The reason why we dedicated 25 percent of the funds to tobacco prevention was the return on investment for tobacco prevention and control is quite significant. Essentially, for every $1 spent on tobacco control, Hawaii saves $5 in health care costs.

"The Hawaii Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund (TPCTF) reported that from 2000-2009, $88.9 million was spent in tobacco control. The projected health care savings from this $88.9 million investment is $451.7 million.

"In addition, there has been a significant decline in smoking rates from 2000-2009. In 2000, 12,000 high school students smoked. In 2009, only 5,500 high school students smoked.

"In 2000, 2,200 middle school students smoked. In 2009, only 1,300 middle school students smoked.

"In 2000, 187,900 adults smoked. In 2009, 154,000 adults smoked.

"I mention these statistics to show concrete evidence that since its inception, the TPCTF has saved lives by being a major driving force behind the reduced smoking rate in Hawaii.

"On the heels of September 11, 2001, the Legislature reallocated 28 percent of the annual tobacco funds to the UH Medical School while cutting the funding to tobacco prevention programs to 12.5 percent (one half of the initial amount).

"In 2009, tobacco prevention programs were again deprived of settlement funding with a further decrease to 6.5 percent.

"In 2001, JABSOM received 28 percent. Ten years later, JABSOM continues to receive 28 percent. In addition, in 2001, the intent of the Legislature was to fund only the construction of the medical school campus. Since 2007, funding over and above the bond payment went to the operations of the medical school. This temporary use of the extra funds was supposed to end, but we have yet to see the end of these types of requests.

"How can we explain the decrease of tobacco prevention support from 25 percent to nothing, while we hold steady and protect the funding to the UH Medical School at 28 percent?

"To add salt to the tobacco prevention efforts wounds, the Legislature is contemplating a raid of about $30 million from the corpus of the TSSF and the elimination of all funding for tobacco prevention efforts for at least the next couple of years (SB 120).

"Even the Hawaii Department of Health (DOH) is deeply concerned that the long-term viability of tobacco prevention efforts is at risk. In testimony before the Legislature this year, DOH urges that "any redistribution of the TSSF be done in consideration of the original spirit of the lawsuit, settlement and resulting State statutes that established the special fund."

"In addition to our initial commitment to tobacco prevention efforts, I'm also concerned about the University's failure to follow through on previous commitments made to the Legislature since 2001. We must hold the University and other departments to their commitments and they must keep those promises to be fiscally responsible.

"The commitment to use 28 percent of the funds for the UH medical school is much more than covering a $150 million bond float. It's really about spending 300 million dollars! The debt service agreement was originally pegged at $302 million or around $10 million for 30 years.

"In addition, the University committed to raising $150 million in matching funds to cover the cost of renovating the old Bio-Medical Sciences Building, to cover the cost of construction of the new Cancer Center, and to cover the operational costs of the new medical school in Kakaako.

"In 2001, I voted against our efforts to erode the promises we originally made in 1999. My support with reservation today is in part because of this.

"We must hold people accountable for their words, commitments, actions, or, in this case, inactions. I would like to quote from a few letters that I have received in the past.

"On March 25, 2003, Dr. Ed Cadman, former Dean of the UH Medical School, wrote: "Our best guess would be that operation and maintenance costs of the facility will be between $6-$7 million annually. We expect to primarily fund these costs through F&A (facilities and administration) cost recovery from sponsored projects."

"Cadman continued, "We understand (the Legislature's) expectation that the new school campus will be financially self-sufficient and the importance of having the ability to accurately measure and evaluate the school's return on investment."

"On February 25, 2004, David Morihara, former Director of Government Relations, wrote: "We anticipate that a substantial portion of the operating costs of the core facilities will be funded in future years mainly through the extramural facilities and administrative recovery mechanism and secondarily through interest earnings on endowments generated from naming opportunities and a contribution from the ancillary services provided on campus."

"Director Morihara also provided us with a chart explaining the Operating Cost Projections from fiscal year 2005 to fiscal year 2009. The chart shows that there were initial State funds of $1.8 million to fund the start up of the medical school in FY05. An additional $3.9 million was needed in FY06 to carry the medical school through a second year of transition. However, in FY07, the operations of the medical school were supposed to be nearly 100 percent self-sufficient. At that time in 2004, their own figures suggested that only $364,952 were needed in additional state funds to operate the new facilities. They projected general fund requirements of $352,094 for FY08 and $337,822 for FY09.

"On March 7, 2005, President David McClain wrote: "I do want to acknowledge that with regard to the funding of the operating costs of the research building and the educational building of the John A. Burns School of Medicine at its new location in Kakaako, initial commitments made in 2001 at the time the construction of the new facility was approved have been shown with the passage of time to have been overly optimistic."

"President McClain's comments were welcomed and necessary. In 2003, he committed to re-doing the financial plans for the medical school. He brought in Professor Shirley Daniels to come up with the new plan. In 2005, we approved an additional $3.7 million for both FY06 and FY07. This temporary funding was placed in our budget as a proviso because the University committed to fixing their balance sheets by June 30, 2007. According to their commitments in 2005, they were only going to need this $3.7 million for two years. Afterwards, their financial plans suggested that very little State funds would be needed in the biennium budget (FY08 – FY09) for the operations of the medical school.

"Gary Ostrander, who in 2007 served as the interim Dean for the medical school, said to The Honolulu Advertiser: "To the best of my knowledge to this day there was never a business plan. If there was one I have not seen it." This is totally absurd.

"In 2007, the University requested $4.1 million for FY08 and $4.35 million in FY09, in addition to the $3.7 million in the two-year proviso. Just two years prior, they said that they would need little to no State funds to operate the medical school. In 2007, they said they will need $15.8 million for two years in new money! This is irresponsible.

"In 2007 when the House passed our version of the State budget, I said then that I would support increasing the medical school base by $3.63 million and $3.95 million for the next two fiscal years. Our budget was very generous. The total general fund support to the medical school in our budget was about $5.6 million each year.

"But the University said that it was still around $4 million short in operating funds even after our very generous support in our budget. So, what did they do? They proposed to make up the difference utilizing the tobacco settlement funds.

"In 2007, I asked then-Dean Gary Ostrander what would happen if they did not get the additional $4 million. He said that they would be able to survive, but will need to make some reductions to their financial plans. I told him that his comments on right-sizing the budget were the same comments we heard two years prior. Did the University right-size the budget? The answer is no.

"This bill will allow the university to continue to access the left over monies from the 28 percent annual allotment. The University did refinance the bonds in 2006. We need to acknowledge and thank them for this. The payment for FY08 was $6.6 million and the payments for the out years are a little less than $10 million for each year.

"If this bill passes, the University will realize a lot of money. In 2008, with a significant increase in funds going into the TSSF, the University realized an additional $7.4 million. Since FY09, the University continues to receive additional funds in excess of $3 million each year.

"I want to talk a little bit about our commitment to the Cancer Center. Recall that in 2001 when we approved the use of tobacco funds for the UH Medical School that the University's commitment was to provide the necessary funds to construct a new Cancer Center facility. In 2006, we passed SB2961, which became Act 316. This bill increased the cigarette tax from $1.40 per pack to eventually $2.60 per pack in 2011. Some of this increase was to pay for the construction and operations of the new Cancer Center. In fact, the University was expected to receive $11 million in 2009, $16 million in 2010, and $22 million from 2011 forward for the construction and operations of the Cancer Center.

"In 2011, we received the "University of Hawaii Cancer Center Operating Budget Plan" (See testimony on SB 239 on March 22, 2011). In this plan, the Cancer Center plans on receiving $17 million from the tobacco tax. The debt service for the new building will be $8 million annually. With an extra $9 million each year, surely the University can use some of these funds (again from tobacco) to assist the UH Medical School with their budget challenges.

"The public expects the Legislature to be accountable for the taxes we collect and the services we provide. We should do no less to those that receive our approval and funding as well.

"JABSOM will go a long way in providing the next generation of healers with the knowledge and support to serve the people of Hawaii. But we must ensure that the university is responsible in keeping their commitments and will not continue to come back to the Legislature if they fall short.

"I would like to insert an article, which ran on Sunday, July 22, 2007 in The Honolulu Advertiser.

Hawaii med school goals come up short

By Sean Hao
Advertiser Staff Writer

The University of Hawaii's new state-of-the-art medical school and research facility in Kakaako is having less of an economic impact and costing more than originally promised.

The school has so far failed to deliver on several promises made by former UH president Evan Dohelle and former John A. Burns School of Medicine dean Ed Cadman, including:

- A promise to raise $150 million to finance a new Cancer Research Center in Kakaako. Less than $1 million of that money has been raised to date.
- A plan to draw in $100 million or more per year in research and training grants. Medical school grants improved to nearly $73 million in the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2006. They fell to $48 million the following year, according to preliminary figures.
- An expectation the med school would create 500 new jobs. Total medical school jobs rose by 43 between June 2004 and July 2007.

In addition, a key pledge — that the medical school would not require added state funds to cover costs — may not be fulfilled for several years. That promise was based in part on plans to boost grant awards to $100 million or more, which in turn would generate enough money to cover the new facility's overhead costs.

"The fact is we are actually doing what we said we were going to do," said Gary Ostrander, interim dean for the medical school. But "maybe not at that grandiose scale."

To be sure, the medical school has a positive impact on healthcare in the state. The first crop of 62 students is expected to graduate in 2010, and 60 percent of medical school graduates here go on to practice medicine in Hawaii, Ostrander said.

The $73 million in grants to the school in 2006 was almost entirely spent locally, with the bulk going toward salaries.

"These dollars are being spent at the local 7-Eleven, being spent at movie theaters," Ostrander said. "That's a significant economic driver."

The health and economic benefits of a local medical school exceed the burden on state finances, he said.

"Healthcare would suffer tremendously in this state if there wasn't a medical school," he said.

As for the goal of $100 million in grants, Ostrander said, part of the difficulty in reaching that goal has been a more competitive climate for grants in the wake of Sept. 11 and Hurricane Katrina.

In addition, the medical school has suffered from a lack of focus during a prolonged search for a permanent dean, Ostrander said. Cadman resigned in 2005 for health reasons, and the appointment of a permanent replacement dean has been delayed by a change in university leadership.

DIPPING DEEPER

Lawmakers gave UH the go-ahead to build the medical school in hopes of bolstering the state economy in the aftermath of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks. The medical school was given a portion of a state settlement with tobacco companies to repay $150 million in construction bonds.

The new school was then supposed to operate without costing the state any more money than it cost to run the university's old medical school. However, earlier this month Gov. Linda Lingle signed a new law expected to provide the school with an added $3 million to $4 million a year for the next four years.

That's on top of $7.4 million in supplemental, additional budget funds already given to the medical school during the past two years. That means that by mid-2011 the state will have given the medical school an estimated $20 million to cover increased operating costs.

Some lawmakers are losing patience with the lack of follow-through on the university's original promises. Those promises were the basis for much of the Legislature's support for the project, said state Rep. K. Mark Takai, D-34th (Newtown, Waiau, Pearl City).

On Jan. 27, 2004, Dobelle promised legislators that by September 2005, UH would raise $150 million to finance a new Cancer Research Center to be built in Kakaako next to the medical school and to retrofit the Biomedical Sciences Building on the Manoa campus.

Dobelle said he would get the money from federal, private and UH Foundation sources. "We're committed to that and confident of that," Dobelle told lawmakers at the time.

Takai said, "We were led to believe very early on that they would come up with a $150 million match (and) ... they would pay for operating the new facility. I believe we need to support the university. ... All I ask is that when promises are made, promises are kept.

"I would expect that in four years the UH medical school will no longer need additional money."

'NEVER' A BUSINESS PLAN

In hindsight, key projections, including the amount of grant money that could be used to run the school, were off-base, Ostrander said. From the outset there was a lack of basic understanding of how much the new school would cost and how much money it would bring in.

"To the best of my knowledge to this day there was never a business plan," for the medical school, said Ostrander, who has run the school for about eight months. "If there was one I have not seen it."

The school doesn't have a firm grasp on operating costs in part because its facilities aren't fully utilized and because of the transition from older facilities on the Manoa campus into the new Kakaako campus, Ostrander said.

Meanwhile, the school's increased reliance on tobacco settlement money ultimately means less money for smoking cessation programs. Currently the state receives about $35 million a year to settle healthcare claims connected with smoking. Of that, 24.5 percent goes into a state emergency "rainy day" fund, 35 percent goes to the state Department of Health, 28 percent to the medical school and 12.5 percent into a tobacco prevention fund.

Until this month, the money not used by the medical school to pay debts had to be returned to the rainy day and tobacco funds. Under the new law, excess money can be used to pay medical school operating costs instead.

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has said Hawai'i doesn't spend enough on tobacco prevention. Hawai'i should spend $11 million to $23 million a year to have an effective tobacco prevention program, the CDC says. But the state spent just $9.1 million on tobacco prevention in fiscal 2007 (ended June 30), according to the Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids.

Among those opposed to the new law was the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawai'i. Kathy Harty, its interim director, said the group already doesn't get enough money for its programs: "We believe these should be funded rather than filling in a deficit for the medical school."

"I would also like to insert an email communication, dated as of January 30, 2012 between University Chancellor Virginia S. Hinshaw, President MRC Greenwood, and myself."

Please email me with your response before 12 noon, when we have session.

I'm leaning to supporting this bill if I get assurances from you.

This issue has long troubled me and assurances from the University and JABSOM have not been followed each of the times that we have extended/amended this funding mechanism. I'm hoping that you can provide me with some comfort knowing that JABSOM is on it's way to meeting the benchmarks established since 2001.

Thanks, K. Mark

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support the passage of this measure. Increasing the University of Hawaii's authorization to issue revenue bonds by $100,000,000 to a total principal amount not to exceed $300,000,000 to fund construction projects is a great thing for the University and for all the people in the State of Hawaii, as we all benefit from a well-maintained and growing higher education institution.

"This bill increases the autonomy of the University by allowing the institution to fund capital improvement projects with the University's own revenue. In the past, the University of Hawaii used GO bonds to fund improvement projects. This is a positive step in the way of fiscal responsibility.

"I commend the University of Hawaii for its commitment to the repayment of the revenue bonds. As the University plans to start improvement projects no later than this spring, the impact of our decision today will be felt in the community almost immediately."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a very brief comment. The practice of prohibiting one's marital status, one age, etc., is on the books. It is now the case. This goes a bit beyond that and says that you can't say whether you're unemployed, basically. It means that you're looking for someone that is employed.

"For those in this building that are in the civil service, and those that are in the federal service have to know that when you are going for an upper-echelon job or a pay raise, you have to be in the system, by which you qualify to apply for that. This basically says that if you advertise a position that's already within the system, or to someone in the system, you can't say that they're in the system. So it's going to be very deceptive to change the practice of hiring people by passing this bill.

"So I would just suggest the Committee that hears this next view it with caution because this is a long-standing tradition of saying that if you want to make it further in that government position, you have to say you're already within the government. Otherwise, no need to apply. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain House Bills for Final Reading by consent calendar. (Representatives Okamura and Say were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-12 and H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, Representative Yamane offered Floor Amendment No. 1, amending H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. House Bill No. 608, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, (RELATING TO HEALTH), is amended by amending Section 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. The legislature finds that organ transplantation is a life-saving therapy for many critically ill patients with end-stage diseases. More than one hundred ten thousand patients are on the national organ transplant waiting list; four hundred seven of those patients are Hawaii residents.

Funding is critical to maintain a federally-recognized stage 3 chronic kidney disease program that focuses on prevention for disparate populations in Hawaii. Without operational organ transplant services in the State, patients with end-stage diseases must register on transplant waiting lists for mainland transplant centers and many of these patients will face a longer waiting time to receive a donor organ at a transplant center on the mainland than at a transplant center in Hawaii. The increased waiting time for an organ may mean that the sickest of those patients may not survive long enough for a donor organ to become available. In addition to the increased waiting time, many waitlisted patients in the State will have the additional burden of relocating to other areas of the country, away from friends and family, while awaiting a donor organ and during their recovery.

An emergency appropriation is necessary to preserve and save the lives of individuals combating organ failure by providing them with access to organ transplantation in the State and giving them quality care and treatment throughout their operation and recovery.

National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii provides a federally-recognized chronic kidney disease management program in Hawaii. It meets the eligibility requirements of section 42F-103, Hawaii Revised Statutes, for recipients of grants and subsidies. The Queen's Medical Center is establishing a kidney and liver transplant program in Hawaii. It also meets the eligibility requirements of section 42F-103, Hawaii Revised Statutes, for recipients of grants and subsidies, with the exception of approval as a member of the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network/United Network for Organ Sharing with designations as a liver transplant program and a kidney and living donor kidney transplant program, for which it has applied and which it expects to receive approval on or before February 15, 2012.

The purpose of this Act is to appropriate emergency funds, subject to dollar-for-dollar private matching funds, to support services by The Queen's Medical Center to perform kidney and liver transplants in Hawaii, and by the National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii to maintain its chronic kidney disease management program."

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 608, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, (RELATING TO HEALTH) is amended by amending Section 3 to read as follows:

"SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $1,500,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2011-2012 as a grant pursuant to chapter 42F, Hawaii Revised Statutes, for The Queen's Medical Center to support services to perform kidney and liver transplants in Hawaii; provided that:

- (1) No funds appropriated under this Act shall be expended unless matched dollar-for-dollar with private funds; and
- (2) Any private matching funds obtained for the purposes of this Act shall have priority in being encumbered over public funds.

The sum appropriated shall be expended by the department of health for the purposes of this Act."

SECTION 3. House Bill No. 608, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, (RELATING TO HEALTH) is amended by deleting Section 4.

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members, I offer this Floor Amendment to HB 608, which seeks to clarify the method of funding of the emergency appropriation to the federally recognized Chronic Kidney Disease Management Program in Hawaii, and a qualified member of the United Network for Organ Sharing transplantation network under the eligibility requires as described in section 42F-103.

"Mr. Speaker and Members, this Floor Amendment is a culmination of work between the Attorney General, the Administration, the House and Senate leadership, as well as both the Kidney Foundation, and Queen's Hospital.

"Members, the language that we passed in the original HB 608 in Conference we felt was adequate. However, in further working with the Administration, to expedite the expenditure of $1.8 million for Queen's Hospital and the Hawaii Kidney Foundation, we felt that it would be best to tailor the language to ensure that the money got to them in an expedited manner.

"So Mr. Speaker, all the participants and the members working on this bill have agreed to the current language before you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.C.R. No. 35) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.C.R. No. 35, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION AWARDING THE HAWAII MEDAL OF HONOR TO UNITED STATES MILITARY SERVICE MEMBERS WITH HAWAII CONNECTIONS KILLED IN ACTION WHILE SERVING IN DANGEROUS, VOLATILE, AND UNSTABLE AREAS OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN," was offered by Representative Say.

Representative Chong moved that H.C.R. No. 35, be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. In 2005, this Legislature passed Act 21, establishing the Hawaii Medal of Honor. And I recall thinking how we as a State and the Hawaii State Legislature needed to support the families of our fallen heroes. The Hawaii Medal of Honor was our way of expressing our deepest appreciation to these brave service men and women. We offer this honor as small token that can never in itself repay the honor that has been given to us. An honor born of courage, driven by duty, and paid for in loss. The Hawaii Medal of Honor is reserved for those who have touched our islands and have felt the touch of our people.

"These medals symbolize our aloha, our farewell to those we have lost. But also our love for those who have lived among us, touched us and sacrificed for us. A grateful State best honors and remembers the sacrifices of those who have served our nation by living our lives in deepest appreciation of our freedom. That is what they defended, and that is what they fought and died for. It has been almost 9 years since this war began and between March 29th, 2003, and December 31st of last year, we in Hawaii have lost 308 service members.

"Just last year we lost 24 service members Mr. Speaker, and I did want to spend some time talking a little bit about some of them who we will be recognizing shortly. On May 23rd, 2011, an IED explosion cost us the lives of four Schofield soldiers. Private First Class Thomas Allers, Army Specialist William Blevins, Private First Class Andrew Krippner, and Staff Sergeant Kristofferson Lorenzo.

"On August 6th, 2011, we lost an entire Chinook. Thirty American heroes died of which one in particular will receive this medal. Craig Vickers, a 1992 graduate of Maui High School, and in fact the Maui Interscholastic League Defense Football Player of the Year was among the 30 who died. That Chinook was crewed by five from the 7th Battalion 158 Aviation Regiment, and the 2nd Battalion 135th Aviation Regiment. Just a few weeks prior, those aviators replaced our very own Bravo Company 1st Battalion, 171 Aviation Regiment. If this would have occurred just a few days before, we would have lost five of our own.

"The last person we recognize this year, Staff Sergeant Joseph Altmann, was only 27 years old and he was assigned to Schofield Barracks. He died on December 25th, 2011, Christmas Day. Those are few people, Mr. Speaker.

"You know when we passed this, one of the regrets that I have was that we weren't, well I wasn't diligent enough to cover some of the people that are not on this list. I just wanted to mention to our colleagues, why Lance Corporal Harry Lew is not on this list. In fact, he is among ten others who are not eligible for this medal, because he and the ten others committed suicide.

"And you know, Mr. Speaker having experienced being deployed, I believe that any suicide in theater is war-related, and should be recognized. In fact President Barack Obama for the first time ever has recognized service members who took their own lives, and now he writes the same letter to the families of these fallen service members that are written of all the other ones that were killed in action. That is a regret, and I just wanted to make perfectly clear that if we can, one of these days, I want to recognize and acknowledge the families of these fallen heroes who right now don't qualify for this medal. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"Thank you. So by this Concurrent Resolution, Mr. Speaker, this year's Hawaii Medal of Honor will be awarded to family representatives of these fine men and women at a ceremony held in Joint Session of this State Legislature on Wednesday, March 28th at 2:00pm in the Chamber.

"Families invited are from far off towns like Blairstown, New Jersey, and Rosemount, Minnesota, and as close to home as Kailua-Kona, and Vickers, family from Kokomo on Maui. We honor the families and friends and colleagues of the fallen who have sacrificed and who have themselves paid a price, and who helped make this year's honorees the brave, strong individuals that we called on and counted on to serve our nation.

"Mr. Speaker, I urge our colleagues to support this. Thank you. I also request to insert additional written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in strong support of this measure.

"In 2005, the Legislature passed Act 21, establishing the Hawaii Medal of Honor. I recall thinking how we as a state and as the Hawaii State Legislature needed to support the families of our fallen heroes. The Hawaii Medal of Honor was our way of expressing our deepest appreciation to these brave service men and women. We offer this honor as a small token that can never in itself repay the honor that has been given us. An honor borne of courage, driven by duty, and paid for in loss.

"The Hawaii Medal of Honor is reserved for those who have touched our islands, and have felt the touch of our people. These medals symbolize our aloha; our farewell to those we have lost. But also our love for those who have lived among us, touched us, and sacrificed for us. And our enduring welcome for all represented here today, the fallen and their families, who will be counted among us forever.

"And in offering it to those that will gather here, in memory of those who have fallen, we recognize that they are a part of us. Wherever each of these medals finds its final home, a piece of our hearts goes with it. They will always be a part of our ohana, our family, because they have brought us honor, and allowed us to share these lives. While this medal can't take away the pain of losing a loved one, it shows that Hawaii will never forget them.

"A grateful state best honors and remembers the sacrifices of those who have served our nation by living our lives in deepest appreciation of our freedom. That is what they defended. That is what they fought and died for.

"It has been almost nine years since the War on Terrorism began. Between March 29, 2003 and December 31, 2011, we in Hawaii have lost 308 service members. We lost a 24 service members this past year.

"Here are some of their stories:

"Kraig Vickers, a 1992 graduate of Maui High School and a Maui Interscholastic League defense football player of the year, was among 30

Americans who died in a U.S. military helicopter shot down during fighting in Afghanistan on August 6, 2011. Vickers was 36 years old. He was the husband to Nani Vickers and father of two young children and one that was about to be born. But he was there, in country, part of a Navy Bomb Disposal Team. He was one of the twenty of the Navy SEALs killed that were part of the naval Special Warfare Development Group. Their deaths are believed to be the greatest single loss of life ever suffered by the U.S. special operations community in the 24-year history of the U.S. Special Operations Command.

"Tied to this story is the fact that the Chinook helicopter that went down was part of the replacement unit for the Hawaii National Guard's B Company whose members reunited with family and friends at the Wheeler Army Airfield on August 10, 2011. Had the soldiers with B Company, 1st Battalion, 171st Aviation Regiment stayed in Afghanistan just weeks longer, the ill-fated mission to deliver those Navy SEALs and others troops would likely have been theirs.

"Four soldiers assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 27th Infantry Regiment, 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 25th Infantry Division from Schofield Barracks, Hawaii died on May 23, 2011 in Nari District, Kunar Province, Afghanistan, of wounds suffered when enemy forces attacked his unit with an improvised explosive device. They were Staff Sergeant Kristofferson B. Lorenzo, Specialist William S. Blevins, Private First Class Andrew M. Krippner and Private First Class Thomas C. Allers. These four brothers, forever tied in death, paid the ultimate sacrifice in defense of their country.

"Army Staff Sergeant Joseph J. Altmann was killed in action of Christmas Day – December 25, 2011 – when insurgents attacked his unit with small arms fire. He was 27.

"One issue that we still have unresolved is whether or not to honor those who death is the result of self-inflicted action or suicide. Since the inception of this medal, eleven service members died while in country because of self-inflicted wounds or unspecified reasons. Over the past year, there have been three deaths some would feel were unnecessary. All were in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

"Marine Corps Lance Corporal Harry Lew of Santa Clara, California died on April 3, 2011. He was 21. Army Specialist Brian D. Riley Jr. of Longwood, Florida died on May 15, 2011. He was 24. Army Specialist Jinsu Lee of Chatsworth, California died on August 5, 2011. He was 34.

"Their stories vary but the result are the same. For this reason, the remaining question lingers – would they have died in they were not in that there at that time and in those circumstances and condition of war?

"By this concurrent resolution, Mr. Speaker, this year's Hawaii Medal of Honor will be awarded to family representatives of these fine men and women at a ceremony held during a Joint Session of the Legislature on Wednesday, March 28, 2012 at 2 p.m. in this Chamber. Families will be invited from far-off towns like Blairstown, New Jersey and Rosemount, Minnesota to as close as Kailua-Kona on the Big Island and Kokomo on Maui to attend this ceremony.

"We honor the family, friends and colleagues of the fallen who have sacrificed, who have themselves paid a price, and who helped make this year's honorees the brave, strong individuals that we called on and counted on to serve our nation.

"I urge passage of House Concurrent Resolution 35. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 35, was adopted, with Representatives Okamura and Say being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

At 12:37 o'clock p.m., Representative Ward requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:37 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ward: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have an announcement. It's 2012. We're on a roll for birthdays. But the birthday boy's not here. He usually has the gavel up there. It's Speaker Say's birthday. Could we wish the Speaker, when we see him, happy birthday to Calvin. Can we applaud Speaker Say, even though he's not here? He's here in spirit."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well it's that time of year, as you know. February. I wanted to announce that yes, today, February 1, kicks off Hawaii Grown Cacao Month. So in front of each of you, you are finding a sample of, I hope, you have a Waialua Estate invitation to the 2nd Annual Hawaii Chocolate Festival, Saturday, February 25 at Dole Cannery. It is from noon to five. And then you've got information and details of some of the benefits of chocolate, as well as a list of 10 reasons to support chocolate.

"But what I wanted to also show you, I thought I'd show you this future of Hawaii, as it's been called. A close-up look at this sacred plant. Those of you are aware of how we treat our lovely koa wood. We know that koa wood is special. We know that certain trees, the ilahi, sandalwood, was special. Well, I want you to make sure you look at this tree, that is not only one of the most environmentally sound, self-fertilizing trees. But it's a tree that was bought in by Chiefess Liliha's husband, Chief Boki, Governor of Oahu. Actually he was the first to think of bringing this beautiful connoisseur plant here.

"It is a sacred tree. Its botanical name is theobroma cacao, and it is sacred. This little baby is only six months old, but it's actually one of the fastest growing crops. So within 24 to 36 months it'll produce a pod. And there was a time when that pod was money, more valuable than silver and gold for the Inca, the Mayan and the Aztec. And only Hawaii can grow it out of all 50 states.

"So I have some information for you folks. Some additional little information from Huffington Post, Can chocolate save Hawaii? It's the brightest light on the agricultural horizon. Due to the fact that until we can figure it out, I don't know how easy it's going to be for us to compete ever in volume due to our amount of land and labor costs, but by golly, we can compete in quality.

"This is an award-winning plant, Mr. Speaker. This is the top of the line. This is the Trinitarian. And I hope this is the way to keep green and open space, and give jobs to our people. Mahalo."

Representative Jordan's written remarks are as follows:

"I would like to express my reservations on HB1696, HD1, Relating to Special Wastes Disposal and Recycling. While I support the bill's purpose of preserving Hawaii's natural environment by curbing the illegal dumping of motor vehicle tires, the bill as amended would require a $5 deposit for each new motor vehicle tire sold that is not exchanged with a used motor vehicle tire.

"The Department of Health's testimony explains that this bill does not address the illegal dumping of motor vehicle tires because the present illegal dumping tire situation seems to come not from new tire retailers, but from secondary use markets and salvagers. In sum, the Department of Health notes that existing State law requires retailers to take back old tires when new tires are purchased. Thus, there is somewhat of an incentive for consumers to provide retailers with their tires since they are already paying for disposal. Adding a deposit on top of the disposal fee will increase the financial burden to consumers without accomplishing the ultimate purpose of curbing the illegal dumping of motor vehicle tires."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1696, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL WASTES DISPOSAL AND RECYCLING," passed Second Reading and was referred jointly to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection and the Committee on Economic Revitalization & Business, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 37-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2484, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2484, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you. May I have a ruling on a potential conflict for this bill, as well as the following bill? I'm an owner of an electric vehicle," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan's written remarks are as follows:

"I would like to explain my reason for supporting HB2484, HD1, Relating to Electric Vehicles. This bill is attempting to reduce Hawaii's reliance on imported oil to satisfy its energy needs. Since much of the imported oil is used for the production of gasoline and with over one million registered motor vehicles on Hawaii's roadways, the consumption of gasoline can be enormous. One possible mechanism to reduce the consumption of petroleum products is to promote the use of newer technologies in everyday life.

"Nevertheless, a constituent of Makaha not only contacted my office, but also submitted testimony in opposition. I believe her concerns are valid and should be considered as this bill moves forward. This bill could be made stronger by incorporating concerns raised about the incentives offered for electric vehicles, while still supporting the ultimate goal of reducing Hawaii's reliance on imported oil."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2484, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRIC VEHICLES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 38-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2485, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2485, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you. May I have a ruling on a potential conflict for this bill, as well as the previous bill? I'm an owner of an electric vehicle," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservation on this bill. I understand that we want to incentivize the use of electric cars, but my reservation is that one of the incentives is that they can use the High Occupancy lanes. Coming from the Leeward side, those lanes are already full in the morning with buses and cars of three people in it. So if we add this as an incentive, it will make these High Occupancy Vehicle lanes as congested as the other lanes."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I have reservations for the same reason."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2485, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRIC VEHICLE PARKING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, with Representative Okamura being excused.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2154, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREA USE PERMITS," passed Second Reading and was referred jointly to the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Chang, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 40-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2590, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2590, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AQUATIC RESOURCE VIOLATIONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Okamura being excused.

No. 2480, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Chang, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 42-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2587, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2587, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SAILING SCHOOL VESSELS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 43-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2018, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2018, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"May I have a ruling on potential conflict of interest? I am a mortgage loan officer outside of this Body," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Riviere continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I stand in opposition. We created this mediation process last year to the tune of about $2.25 million in transferred funds and start-up funds. To date, we've had zero use of this facility. There are 26 trained mediators, and not a single lending institution chooses to use it. This bill attempts to fix that situation by partially repealing the Unfair or Deceptive Acts or Practices which Fannie Mae and Freddy Mac have decided are far too dangerous to engage in.

"It attempts to identify what are unfair or deceptive acts or practices, which in itself can be ambiguous and still problematic. But more importantly, this version adds 180 days to void the whole process. So that means after the whole process is complete, the foreclosure is complete, the house has essentially been conveyed, and six months later, that whole decision can be overturned. So you've moved into your home, you've been there for six months and now sorry, that transaction never happened. That's ridiculous, because you think they won't come in for an unfair or deceptive acts. Try to do a loan on a mortgage on a property where six months later the whole process will be voided. That's not going to happen. That's not going to encourage use of the mediation program, and therefore I stand in opposition to this. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. With reservations, Mr. Speaker for the well-reasoned statements of the previous speaker, and also because there was testimony that there was no guarantee that Freddy Mac or Fannie Mae will take part in the mediation services offered. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. We've created the mediation process at the suggestion of the Chief Justice. And we want to try to make sure that everybody that went in there was living up to the rule of the law and being honest with everybody. We kept the triple damages in there in case there were some problems. The lenders have used that as an excuse for not using the mediation process, and they've said that over and over and over.

"So we said, 'Why don't we just get rid of UDAP for the period that the mediation process is in law? And then if they don't use it, then we know there's another problem. Then we know there's probably that they don't show title.'

"The other thing with this bill is that when this section of UDAP expires, what kicks in is the task force recommendations on how to deal with UDAP. We're trying to fast track this bill to see whether or not the lenders will use it, if they will use mediation. And if they don't, we know there's another very serious problem. I urge your support. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling a possible conflict, on this bill as well as the following Standing Committee Report? My law firm does practice in the area, foreclosures. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I think that the fact that no one, the lenders, are not using the law as currently written doesn't necessarily mean that it was a bad law, or that this change is a bad change. It just may mean that they're concerned that they've done things that will be considered deceptive. And in that case, I would say that our, I guess it was Act 48 from last year, was very successful in ending the practices that it intended to end. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. I just wanted to add a couple things. The unintended consequence to nobody using the non-judicial process, is that the Judiciary's now backing up. 92% of the foreclosures filed last year have not been resolved. They're still in the courts, and they are backing up. It is especially a problem on the Neighbor Islands.

"So there's no resolution. The Unfair or Deceptive Acts or Practices was not created by this bill. It's always existed, and could always be cited and used. This bill creating it as an automatic default has not worked. The 180 day revocation of the whole process will not work. So we're just putting spackle on something that's not going to be fixed with the spackle. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I'm totally convinced we don't know what we're doing."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2018, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FORECLOSURES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Riviere voting no, and with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 44-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2019, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2019, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling a possible conflict, on this bill as well as the previous Standing Committee Report? My law firm does practice in the area, foreclosures. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, please. Thank you. My concern on this one is that it looks, in its present version, to apply to all mortgages whenever they were recorded. I believe that's entirely unreasonable to go back and change the rules to something that exists. If this were to go forward, it seems to me that it would have to at least apply prospectively for future mortgages so that everybody knows what the rules will be.

"Again, changing the rules after the fact sets a horrible precedent, and it would not look good for the State. And I'll leave it at that. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in reservations on this particular measure. I think that financial institutions should be able to pursue a deficiency judgment after a short sale because the person who went through the foreclosure might own other properties, and have other assets that could be attached. So I have reservations on this. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, on the last two bills, this bill and the one before, are designed to protect Hawaii's homeowners."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just to clarify my reservations, Mr. Speaker. I did support the bills in the Legislature, last year. Ewa Beach has the highest foreclosure rate in the last few years, and so I do support Hawaii homeowners. But I also recognize that I'm a legislator and a former journalist, and I perhaps do not understand the mortgage industry as much as I would like. My reservation is really to raise a flag of caution that in our strong passion to protect Hawaii homeowners, let us just pause every once in a while to ensure that the goal that we are trying to achieve and how we're achieving it is really the right path to take."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2019, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support of Stand. Com. Report 46-12 with written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. HB 2072, HD1 will increase government efficiency. There are many cases where a governmental agency needs documentation from another State agency. In this case, this measure seeks the support from the Department of Health which generates (in many instances) these records. I would like to thank the Chair and members of the Health Committee for their foresight in seeing that this measure will help the people of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2072, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization & Business presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 52-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1840, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1840, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to this measure. And I stand with all deference to the Chair of Finance. But, as with the discussion with the previous bill on foreclosures, I'm not convinced that we know what we're doing. We may be over our head in getting involved and creating a state bank. Even though now I know it's morphed into a task force. But Mr. Speaker, we're often told in Hawaii to remember your roots. Remember where you came from. And let us remember where this bill came from.

"This bill came from not a bill to make a task force, or a task force that now I understand is really to rescue and become a safety net for the mortgage foreclosure issue. But it's something that in the beginning was an out-and-out bank owned by the State of Hawaii, Chaired by the Governor and his political appointees as members of the Board. That's the origin of this bill. We should not forget that. And as it morphs through, remember that Hawaii is the owner, Hawaii is the residence, Hawaii is the place where the best bank in America exists.

"We're doing okay in terms of banking. We don't need this. I know people are concerned about the economy, but when government gets its hand in the cookie jar and says, 'Yeah, we're going to fix it all.' Look at what we did. We wasted a whole year on the mortgage foreclosure issue. And my sense is if we go through this state bank process to create a state bank, for whatever good intention, it's government going over its head and having bureaucrats doing what bankers should be doing, and they're doing it well right now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, in support. It's an interesting debate. Because if you look at the fastest, maybe not the fastest growing economy in the world right at the moment, but the Chinese. The People's Republic of China has generally been referred to as an economic miracle. They've been growing at 8 to 10% for about 20 years. Basically everything in China is run by the government. It's called state capitalism. And I think that if they can figure out a way to have state organizations help the economy grow, then I think we can probably do the same. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm willing to explore this idea; so I'll just vote with reservations. But I do want to just clarify to the Members about China. China right now, recent economic reports on China are talking about how China in their attempt to help their people and spur their economy, they have overbuilt. And so China has this rare situation where they almost have entire cities that have beautiful new buildings and homes, but nobody lives there. So there is a very big concern from our American economists right now that China which is helping to kind of lift the world up economically, is close to being on a verge of a housing crisis that caused our crisis here in America. So I hope that we don't become like China. We definitely are watching them very thoroughly. I look forward to the future debate on this bill, and seeing what this comes to bear."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I would want to vote on this measure with reservations. I understand it's just a task force. But I just want to send a message to the task force that I don't believe the state should be running the bank. I think we have enough responsibilities among ourselves without getting in to the banking business. I'm a director of the Federal Land Bank, so I know how difficult it is. It can be very challenging to ones' revenues if you make the wrong choices. So Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations, and I'm hoping this message will get to the task force if this bill should pass."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. Just as a comment as someone who studies ethnic studies and is very proud of the Chinese heritage that I have, I must speak out with all due respect to the Representative of Chinatown that we must be careful to compare apples to oranges. Because when you look at the success of certain countries, there are a myriad of reasons, cultural, historical, philosophical that must be calculated in to understanding the success of China.

"And it is not to say that America, the United States of America, is not held in high esteem as well by those from China, for what America has contributed in its philosophy to the world. Which is why so many Chinese are very happy to come to America, to learn from America, so we learn from each other. But I don't know if the connection is accurate. So I speak in rebuttal to whether we should be exactly duplicating everything going on in China."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a brief rebuttal to the learned gentleman from Chinatown. No, I'm still in opposition. I'm not convinced that I should vote for the bill. I had just spoken earlier against the bill. Did you think I changed my mind? Actually, having said that, I appreciate the international theme by which he addressed the issue. He's a very learned gentleman in Eastern European and Russian studies. But Mr. Speaker, I think we need to be aware that he euphemized state capitalism by the term which is to the European and American model, pure socialism. Where basically the government owns the means of production. The government says what to do.

"And there are three engines of Chinese origin, derivation. The Singaporean model, the mainland China model and the Taiwan model. And if you look at Freedom House, they will have categories of economic freedom. Singapore is the freest country, economically in the world. I think mainland China is one of the higher rated ones, and Taiwan is lower. But when you look at economic development and free democratic processes, what the learned gentleman said about prosperity that follows that, doesn't say about the knock on the door at night. It doesn't say anything about what when government wants to do something, whether it's a state bank or it's state capitalism. Socialism has its way, Mr. Speaker.

"We are a limited human, frail 51 people. We don't know what's always best and that's why we created the private sector. That's why 85% of the jobs come from those people. So if we get a state bank that starts competing with our First Hawaiian Bank, the Bank of Hawaii, Central Pacific, that is an incursion for the sake of a 'do good.' Whatever we want to do with our banking. It's a step backwards, Mr. Speaker. So if we want to flirt with this, that's fine. But I would say let's go like we did last year, get it up to the edge and just let the thing die. And let's go on with the business of having a private sector and private capitalism, instead of the government sector and state capitalism, as the good gentleman had noted is prospering. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, first of all, it's a task force, Mr. Speaker. Okay. Second of all, if the previous gentleman had been at the hearing he would have seen that the bankers came and testified, and we took their testimony and incorporated it into the bill. That's why it's a House Draft 1. I hope there are task force bills coming from the other side, because again, a task force is merely to discuss the idea and look at the good and the bad, which is why your Committee included the Massachusetts Report, as well as the North Dakota Report."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. We should learn something from North Dakota which is the only state in the nation that has a state bank. The State Bank of North Dakota works with all private banks. They support them, and help them. North Dakota is the only state in the nation that has not had the financial problems that every other state has had. They don't have the unemployment issue. They don't have the recession issue. They're the only state in the nation that's doing really well, and we ought to learn from them. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd like to segue from what the Representative from the Big Island said. As people know, the Bank of North Dakota, again this is a task force. I want to echo the sentiments expressed by the other Representative from Maui. The Bank of North Dakota for example, for the past 15 years has returned about $400 million back to the North Dakota General Fund. And why are they able to do this? It's because what the Bank of North Dakota does, and again with partnership with the private banks, is they're the depository for all state receipts.

"So in our case, in our state, all the receipts that we get whether from general excise taxes or whatever, we put it into the commercial banks. North Dakota puts it into their bank. Point 1.

"Point 2, the Bank of North Dakota only invests then in projects that benefit the state. So they did not engage in short term speculation or derivatives. They of course did nothing and had nothing to do with the housing crisis. It's a solid bank. I think it's worthy, Mr. Speaker. We're not voting on whether to establish one today. We're voting as to whether or not we should study it. I think it's worthy of study. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1840, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE-OWNED BANK," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Ching and Ward voting no, and with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Rhodes rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2459, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORT LIABILITY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 56-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2608, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on International Affairs.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2608, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on International Affairs, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Please note my reservations on this, due to the cost of implementing this and requiring foreign travel by the counties to go out and learn about the various licensing aspects of these various foreign countries. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2608, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DRIVER LICENSING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on International Affairs, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 57-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2322, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2322, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ETHANOL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, with Representative Okamura being excused.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 58-12) recommending that H.B. No. 127, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 127, HD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members. On the compassionate care measure, I voted no in the Committee and I will continue to vote no on the measure as it moves along. I know it goes to the Finance Committee so I shall make this very short. I don't believe that there should be mandates to hospitals, however good the intent is. And I do support care for those that have been raped and need to have care given to them. But I don't believe that, that issue should be mandated upon hospitals just as we should not be mandating upon businesses, especially in this case here because we may lose a hospital. And we cannot afford to lose a hospital.

"There is the former St. Francis Hospital, in its deed, the deed is very clear as to what it wants, and whoever wishes to use that building and that land would not be able to have the freedom to do what they want. They will be obliged to follow the deed. So in effect what we will be doing is losing a hospital, and we cannot afford to lose a hospital. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise also in opposition. I would like the words of the previous speaker entered as my own. And I'd like to see the addition of the right of consciousness as a part of this legislation. Then I could support it. But when we start forcing people to do things that they consciously don't want to do, then that's an issue for me."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this measure. I rise with reservations based also on the testimony provided by the Catholic Forum. We did vet this issue with the Catholic community. They're not necessarily opposed to having compassionate care, especially for sexual assault victims, but the religious exemption is a concern, and I hope that the future Committees, consider the exemption in this bill for facilities. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Each year, about 25,000 women become pregnant as a result of sexual assault. Especially in cases of assault, the American Medical Association and American College, obstetricians, gynecologists and a host of others believe medically accurate information and the option to use contraception should be provided to all victims as a measure of basic medical treatment. Fifteen states and the District of Columbia have already adopted legislation requiring the provision of information about or access to emergency contraception in cases of sexual assault. In addition all military hospitals also provide the same.

"If there's a political consideration here, we should rest assured that even in a 2007 poll, as recent as that, 73% of all voters believe that pharmacies should not be allowed to refuse dispensing emergency contraception on moral or religious grounds. In cases of hospitals and assault, that number sky rockets. Even among Catholic women, as far back as the year 2000, at that time 78% supported emergency contraception in cases of assault.

"This is a bill that is quite frankly, common sense. No matter how anyone feels, we are a nation of multiple religions and conflicting beliefs. However as an objective government we ought to default and defer to best medical and to an individual's choice. Especially for victims of assault who have had their bodies and rights violated once already, we cannot allow government to mandate whether or not they will be violated a second time, by forcing upon them an unwanted pregnancy. This choice must be the individual's to make and we must pass this bill to make sure the victims are given the opportunity to make that choice themselves no matter which hospital they end up in. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I want to share a story with my colleagues about someone who had worked in my office during the session several years ago and had been raped. She had been at Queen's Hospital and she asked if there was anyone that could tell her about emergency contraception. Maybe she was worried that she might be pregnant. She wanted to get tested. She wanted help. They told her they wouldn't do it, and she said, 'Well then can you please put me in an ambulance or take me to another place that will do it.' And they refused to do that.

"So what she did is she called her mother, and her mother came and got her and they went to another place here in the city. So I think what happens is they don't realize that the person who's been traumatized gets so traumatized about the thought that they might get pregnant. They ask for help and they're denied that. So she was not even given information or any assistance at all in what her options were. She was refused that.

"Now maybe the Catholic church does not want to perform an abortion. Maybe that's what they're really thinking in their mind. But why wouldn't they want to be willing to give someone some information and say, 'We're willing to help you. But if you don't want to be in this hospital, we'll help you get somewhere else.' But the fact that they denied her the opportunity to have a choice, or even assist her when she asked for assistance. If you're not going to do it, help them get somewhere else where they will, and they refused that. I think that is a horrible thing to say. We're in the year 2012. This shouldn't be happening. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I have my personal beliefs on the issue, but I also have the belief that I shouldn't be making decisions for women, especially in traumatic circumstances as so noted. My concern is that we should be giving consideration when we put down mandates on hospitals, especially those that have faith-based ties. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in opposition to HB 127. While I deeply sympathize with victims of sexual abuse and assault and fully support the disclosure of medically accurate information by hospitals to their patients, I do not believe this measure offers the necessary flexibility, particularly for religious medical institutions, to engender an acceptable health community here in Hawaii. The proposed measure may force all hospitals to provide services that may not be in line with their mission, beliefs or philosophy. Particularly at a time in our State when medical services are in dire need, we should not limit or dissuade organizations from providing these much-needed services to Hawaii residents. This measure is well intended, but it may lead to unforeseen consequences of reducing medical care options and access for the State of Hawaii."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Kawakami be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Kawakami be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Kawakami be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know we've been discussing this for a long time. I'm still in opposition. I reserved my no vote earlier. As a woman, I do want to share some other stories. But I do want to make it clear what the Majority Floor Leader had stated, that this person was refused help. It has been very clear to me in all the hearings that I've been to that the people who in the past ran the hospitals, that wanted this exemption, they were very willing to actually drive the victim to another hospital. So that story is not applicable to any of the testimonies that we have here in the House of Representatives.

"But there is another side of this story that as we move along with this issue and continue to discuss it. There is another situation that we should also take into consideration.

"I think we all are very compassionate towards any victim, especially a woman whose body has been brutalized. But we also have to be aware of that victim's mentality. If they are staunchly religious, a woman who has been or a man who has been through this type of trauma, perhaps cannot make certain decisions either. What would happen to that victim, that Mormon, that Muslim, that Catholic or any other person of very devout beliefs who was given this information. And in her delirium, and her sadness and depression took that pill. We in a sense, with this vote, we brutalize her again. Because in her confusion, she broke her own vow. So we need to consider that too.

"If we are going to move forward with this, we should also recognize that we all have different beliefs, and that our action can hurt someone even further."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. I am not particularly or I'm actually not that against EC. I'm not. In the past I did have a hospital in my district that was Catholic and I'm very, very protective of the fact that my hospitals, if they have a belief system, to respect that. Just as I would respect a Jewish hospital, deciding not to eat pork and seafood or what have you. All these things.

"But more importantly, I wanted to again reiterate that it's my understanding that they will drive a victim. You know, they've been willing to do this, to make sure that they are taken care of. And I think that they're just asking for an exemption. I reiterate again the point made by the Speaker Emeritus that in the big picture, if we lose a hospital, while in Ewa Beach or in the West, this will affect so many people detrimentally. And so with that, I'd like to ask that the words of the Vice Speaker be entered as my own, as well as Speaker Emeritus. And I request additional written comments."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 127 – Relating to Emergency Contraceptives for Sexual Assault Survivors because this version does not address the exemption for religiously affiliated medical centers and would jeopardize medical institutions.

"This measure does not take into account the religious beliefs of the hospitals and attempts to force unwanted policy upon religiously affiliated medical centers. Being the Representative for a district that had a hospital which operated with religious stipulations, I understand the importance of this issue and I would have hoped that the respect for religious beliefs would have been acknowledged.

"In a statement to the Committee of Health, St. Francis Healthcare System informed members that though St. Francis "does not own nor operate emergency service providers or hospitals; it does, however own the land ... HMC must abide by the Ethical and Religious Directives of the Catholic Church." To force upon St. Francis to adopt policies from this bill, would not only discourage the implementation of a much needed medical facility, but additionally disrespect the prior practices of St. Francis, who graciously treated our most indigent population.

"May I echo the suggestions of our public voices and request the, "... balance [of] religious liberty, tolerance and diversity of opinion by granting a religious exemption" to those facilities that may be constructed above, or associated with an objecting religious institution."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Souki be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. And quoting from the gentleman from Waimanalo, we're a faith-based community. 90% of people believe in God. Some people who are Muslim feel very strongly about drinking or eating pork. Some of the Jewish community feel very strongly about certain things that you should eat or not do. And there are certain Catholics who believe that abortion is the ultimate of something that shouldn't be done. The contribution that those Catholic hospitals have made, of which now the landowners have, has been immense for the community. Tremendous amount of ability.

"So tolerance is needed. I would ask for that because this bill has come up about 15 years in a row, and it usually gets debated back and forth; bantered, back and forth. And in the end we say, 'Well okay. We'll give them a break.'

"So I would say let's continue on that tolerance track that we have, and that if there are those options in so many other places, that those opportunities be given. But in the meantime, let's discuss it and then let's put it aside as we've done for 15 years at least, in the past."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In Committee, I did vote to support this measure. However, given that it is very complicated with a lot impacts, I am going to go with reservations now, because I believe this does deserve more discussion. But I support a woman's right to choose. However, given what has happened in Ewa Beach, that is why this needs much more discussion. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I want to point out what one of the previous speakers said, that we all have different beliefs. And we don't want to do anything that actually hurts somebody. Well I think that's really what we're talking about today. Many people believe that certain hospitals can refuse to help a woman who may ask for help. But if they truly believe that the Catholic hospital or a religious hospital will support a woman in her choice who asks for help, who says, 'Please get me to a hospital,' then why don't we pass a law that penalizes them when they don't. Because, the reality is, this bill is really about helping a person. It's not about supporting the belief of whomever the administrator is and the board of directors. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I just want to close this debate for today. I am with reservations. I just wanted to say that perhaps the discussion and this topic is obsolete at this point in time, because I believe we don't have any more Catholic hospitals. The only hospital that was standing against this measure in the past was a Catholic hospital. At this time I think it's outdated. It may be a discussion at a future time, and I would like the Body to consider that when the occasion arises. But for now, I think this is a topic we can put to rest. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. In the consideration of time, may I please have the words of the Representative from Waimanalo put in the Journal as if it's my own? And I'd also like my own words in the Journal. Thank you, very much."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. In 2009 there were 125,910 rapes in the United States; a number which only represents 55% of the total estimated rapes in our country.¹ In the 2009 Crime in Hawaii report, there were 385 forcible rapes reported to law enforcement. Survivors of such terrible sexual violence required emergency medical care at Hawaii emergency rooms. Rape is one of the most violent crimes a woman can experience.

"Sexual assault is a life-threatening event, and one that goes beyond the moment of attack to evoke long-term trauma in victims. The crime of rape does not end with violence. Survivors suffer from depression, intense fear, anxiety, and other crippling symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder. Healing can take a lifetime. Victims may find themselves the object of scrutiny or blame, even by their own families.

"In the aftermath of rape, victims find themselves dealing with a host of reproductive and sexual health issues, including pregnancy. Statistics vary, but indicate that approximately 5-8% of all rapes result in pregnancy. The sense of vulnerability and aloneness victims experience after rape is tremendous.

"Emergency contraceptives are a safe and effective way to prevent a pregnancy resulting from rape. EC are high-dose contraceptives that, when taken within a recommended time period after a sexual assault, will prevent pregnancy. EC is not the "abortion" pill, nor does it cause abortion.² Any reference by speakers that have preceded me contrary to this are in error and lead to a misunderstanding of the purpose of EC. As legislators, we should base our decisions on sound science.

"Providing EC in the ER is the accepted standard of care. The American Medical Association's Guidelines for treating victims of sexual assault state that victims should be adequately informed about and provided EC, upon request.³ The American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology also supports this standard of care.⁴

"The allegation that the passage of this bill would prevent the sale and future re-opening of HMC is ludicrous. The opposite is true. Any ethical buyer of the hospital would not agree to conditions that limit delivery of the accepted standard of care. In addition, the humanitarian aspect of refusal of care is to me unconscionable. We are talking about a violent crime against women, and every effort should be made to ease their recovery from the trauma of rape.

"I urge the Members' support of this bill so I don't have to give this speech for another 15 years. 17 states and the District of Columbia have adopted legislation requiring the provision of information about and/or access to EC to sexual assault victims in emergency rooms.⁵ The federal government also standardized rules regarding EC and now requires that all military and federal hospitals stock EC.⁶ The Army Medical Command Regulations advise discussing and providing EC to sexual assault victims.⁷"

Representative Yamane rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Just to make a point of clarification on one of the previous speaker's remarks regarding the impact of this with the current or future hospital. Just for clarification, my understanding is that measures like this which mandate services would affect the potential purchase of a future hospital setting at the former HMC West site. There is another hospital, Castle, who is also very concerned about the language of the bill. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative C. Lee be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I favor this bill, and I ask those who question the bill to think of what happens if a child is born as a result of a rape. Will that child be accepted into the family? Will the father resent the fact that the biological father was a rapist? Will the other children resent the fact that this baby is only a half-brother? I think you should think beyond just the rape itself. It's a matter of who's going to raise the child; the cost of the child, the emotional impact. I also would ask that the words of the Representative from Waimanalo be incorporated as my own. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to rescind my vote with reservations, and register a no vote."

Representative Ichiyama rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. The crime of rape in Hawaii is a reality that we cannot ignore. In the 2009 Crime in Hawaii report, there were 385 forcible rapes reported to law enforcement. Many more incidents go unreported because of the stigma of becoming a rape victim. The survivors of such terrible sexual violence require emergency medical care at Hawaii emergency rooms and deserve to receive adequate treatment.

"Sexual assault is a life-threatening event, and one that goes beyond the moment of attack to evoke long-term trauma in victims. The crime of rape does not end with violence. Survivors suffer from depression, intense fear, anxiety, and other crippling symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder. Healing can take a lifetime. Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, as I hear the discussion today, it seems to go into church issues which should not be a part of this Chamber with the separation of church and state. It also goes into abortion. And yet, emergency contraception is neither church, nor an abortion pill. It prevents fertilization, but it's not an abortion. And what we're dealing with, the thing that makes me so sad is, I listen to some of the comments.

"There was one statement about forcing people to do what they don't want to do. This bill would do it. But what did they force the woman to do, when they raped her? And what are her options, as she's traumatized and maybe reaches a hospital? And then what's available there for her? Stonewalling? Or are they going to help her in the way that we as policymakers should say we want her to be helped. She was forced to do something she didn't want to do. And by defeating a bill like this we would allow that to continue.

"I think, Mr. Speaker, this is a very important measure to put through. What it says to women who are raped forcibly is, 'You'll find a place to go and you'll be taken care of. You won't be getting an abortion, and you will not become pregnant. We will get you that immediate care.' I wish you just would stop and think, and maybe the men in the Chamber. I mean ..."

Representative Herkes rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Will you instruct the speaker to address the Speaker?"

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"I guess I'm looking at my colleagues, the Vice Chair of Finance who I respect so much, and the Majority Floor Leader who I respect so much as part of our Women's Caucus. I'm sorry to the Big Island Representative, but I'm reaching out with a bond that we have developed through the years. I respect both of you so much, and what you've said, and what you stand for.

"Mr. Speaker, we have to show the compassion to these rape victims, the women. And we need to show it and let it happen immediately, so they don't continue to be traumatized. And thank you to our Minority Policy Leader too. Thank you."

At this time, Representative Pine called for the previous question.

The Chair responded, stating:

"This is a voice vote on this particular measure, so the Chair is asking for your particular vote by announcing it on the Floor of the House at this point."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I appreciate the comments from the Representative from Kailua to distinguish between an abortion and emergency contraception, because there is a big difference. And even the churches recognize that. I'm in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"And I don't know how many people have been raped in this room, and I don't think we really want to get into that. But I do know that after a woman is raped, she has a very difficult time even asking for help, or even admitting to what happened. For us to currently allow a hospital to not be honest and truthful with a woman who has just been raped about her options, that really concerns me. And that's why I am in strong support of this bill. I think that women who have been raped deserve some truth."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 127, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTHCARE," was referred to the

Representative Chong moved that the report of the committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 101, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with just slight reservations of this measure, Mr. Speaker. What this bill does is it allows electric vehicles traveling no more than 10 miles per hour to be allowed to travel on bike paths and other walkways. I certainly support promoting the use of any type of electric vehicle instead of using gas or fuel. But my only concern is in the drafting of this bill, there is a provision under the description on the first page that defines what a bicycle is, and it adds new language that describes that a bicycle could propel a vehicle to a maximum speed of 20 miles per hour. So it kind of is in conflict to our purpose of this bill. Hopefully in the final stages maybe we can remove that section because it is a little confusing. And how are we going to control the speed if we're allowing a bicycle to be able to go that fast. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting in favor with reservations. I have the very same concerns. And the concern I have is that this does reference a maximum speed of 20 miles per hour on a paved, level surface. I think that when you get pedestrians in the same equation, it could be a safety hazard. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 101, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representative Awana being excused.

At 12:16 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 101, HD 2

H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 2:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representatives Souki and McKelvey, for the Committee on Transportation and the Committee on Economic Revitalization & Business presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 61-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2380, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2380, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"In strong support of House Bill 2380, HD 1 which establishes a working group to explore options for reducing the shipping time and costs for transporting goods from Moloka'i and Lana'i to Oahu.

"In 2006 when the SuperFerry was in progress, a huge hardship was placed upon the Moloka'i and Lana'i residents because of the proposed consolidation of wharf space at the Kahului Harbor where space was needed to accommodate the SuperFerry docking. In April 2006, Young Brothers notified its customers of a docket filed with the PUC to discontinue its less-than-container load service (LCL) effective June 2006 at Kahului Harbor. There was little time to react and come up with a fair solution to address this issue. The Moloka'i community came together and letters were sent to the PUC asking them to suspend the docket and a public hearing should be held on this issue before a decision be made.

"The message to the PUC from the Moloka'i and Lana'i community at that time was that it is not an option to stop LCL service to our islands.

About 98% of Moloka'i and Lana'i goods are shipped via LCL. In addition, if the LCL service was to stop, devastation would follow because there are no other freight consolidators, storage or staging areas near the piers that would accommodate its customers.

"Since the decision where PASHA has been granted by the PUC to provide service in the prime areas in the State where their services are being provided, Young Brothers have been forced to request for rate increases to assist them with sustaining their services. This rate increase has had devastating consequences to the customers and specifically Moloka'i and Lana'i.

"This working group that we are trying to establish will address these concerns and look closely at time schedules, cost, needs and impacts to our residents. I urge my colleagues to please support measure and the formation of this working group which will look at ways to improve our shipping industry and meet the needs of our people."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2380, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SHIPPING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Awana being excused.

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 62-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1787, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Health.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1787, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Health, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. And let me just say, this is one sweet bill."

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HB 2100 which would appropriate monies for statewide bee hive research.

"For many years, UH-Hilo has been at the forefront of such research. The work done by Dr. Lorna Tsutsumi of the College of Agriculture, Farming, Natural Resource Management is noteworthy and has garnered support from renowned Chef Alan Wong.

"Honey bees are responsible for crop pollination and their health and well-being are especially important if we truly want to reduce our dependency on imported food. Unfortunately, there are several major pests threatening honey bees in Hawai'i.

"The small hive beetle arrived in the State in 2010 and has been detected on four islands. Its presence compounds the challenges for beekeepers, who are already dealing with the Varroa mite since 2007.

"Testimony received in Committee supported this Bill. It has quite a journey ahead so I urge my colleagues support it through the process."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 1787-Relating to Agriculture. This bill exempts producers of agricultural products in areas without access to municipal water supplies or infrastructure from processing the product in a certified food-processing establishment or obtaining a permit from the Department of Health. This bill also sets the qualifying annual gallonage of honey for home-based honey production to an unspecified amount.

"We must procure thoughtful measures available to accomplish a sustainable local agriculture that thrives not only through ingenuity and natural capabilities, but the underpinnings of the local economy. There has been an alarming worldwide decrease in honey bee population due to predators and disease. Honey bees are not only essential for the production of honey and its copious useful products, but for the natural pollination of our indigenous fruits and vegetables. Nothing is harvested naturally without pollinators like the bee. H.B. 1787 will certainly address the declining bee population in Hawaii, and hopefully we may become a national forerunner in this pressing issue.

"It is my hope that this bill will not only extend to the local beekeepers, but to our local cacao farmers as well. As most of you are aware, Hawaii is the lone state within the United States that produces cacao. We must take initiative to do whatever we can to promote this effort. According to a recent Harvard University study, cacao, like honey, contains antibacterial agents. Allowing cacao growers the similar exemptions could work wonders for the cacao industry. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1787, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Health, with Representative Awana being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2525, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I stand in favor, and I just want to underline the importance of this bill for the future renewal of energy, not only its development, but it's actually getting onto the grid. It puts the responsibility to measure that, to stand up to HECO if you will, whether the grid can take it or not, to be able to get more, hopefully quicker, and more accessibility for renewable energies, rather than right now saying, 'Well, we got 15%. You can't measure it. You've got to spend $15,000, $20,000 to get onto the grid.'

"This hopefully will segregate it to where it will be an up-or-down decision on a scientific basis with our data versus their data. Right now I think it's rather one-sided. So this is a good bill. I hope it moves well, and that there's a consensus to pass it. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. This bill proposes to require any person under the age of sixteen to wear a helmet while operating a skateboard and mandates a fine between $50 and $250 for those who violate this rule. Skateboarding is a popular recreational activity among youth in our communities. It is essential for the safety of our keiki that they are fitted with the proper equipment to protect them from the risk of head injuries.

"Many of my constituents have expressed concerns about the rising prevalence of skateboard related injuries. According to the Queen's Hospital Trauma Registry, of the 119 patients who were injured while skateboarding between 2006-2010, nearly 40% of the patients were under 16 years of age. The Injury Prevention Advisory Committee states that the cost of treating these injured skateboarders is staggering, with average total charges at $11.3 million per year. We can prevent these head injuries and expenses by requiring the use of protective head gear by our youth and creating appropriate punishment for violations. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2276, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SKATEBOARDS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Awana being excused.

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of H.B. 1952-Relating to Bone Marrow Transplants. This bill appropriates funds, $500,000, subject to a dollar-for-dollar match in private funds for Hawaii Pacific Health to establish a bone marrow transplant center in Hawaii.

"The importance of this bill cannot be understated. Bone marrow transplants assuredly save lives. With the closing of Hawaii Medical Center's Transplant Institute, critical patients were faced with the daunting task of not only receiving the bone marrow transplant, but facing extensive charges to travel to the mainland without the aid of Medicare or insurance companies. As if it is not difficult enough traveling to a distant medical center, burdened with large finances, bone marrow transplant patients must largely do it without the fundamental tool to healing: friends and family. Imagine experiencing something like this without the support and the simple hand grasp of your mother, your father, sister, brother, daughter, son or friend. It is absolutely imperative that we return bone marrow transplant capabilities to Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1952, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BONE MARROW TRANSPLANTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Awana being excused.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong opposition and would like to make a few comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know, for the past 4 years while I've sat in these Chambers, bills regarding appraisal have come forward and moved. And as designated in one of the testifiers descriptions of even recent legislation as legally questionable, I wanted to bring this bill to the attention of the Body and just point out the number of individuals, groups, reputable groups that are in opposition to this, including the Land Use Research Foundation, our own Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, the Hawaii Appraisal Institute and Hawaii Reserves Incorporated.

"The gist of their opposition is that this bill before us is unnecessary. It violates the intention of the Hawaii Arbitration Law. There is no logical basis to require only appraisers to serve as arbitrators. And the practical effect of this bill is to now require and to throw into question, many, many leases that are currently in the process. But I think the opposition that really crystallizes this for me is the testimony from the Land Use Research Foundation which says that they believe that the intent and application of this bill is unreasonable, unwarranted and anti-business.

"I really urge my colleagues to take a look at this bill and also join with these other testifiers in opposition to this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"A no vote also. And may I have the words of the previous speaker as if they were my own? And as a footnote to that, that I believe this bill was passed previously by this Body. And if I'm not mistaken, and it was vetoed by the Governor, for the very reasons that were mentioned. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

END OF CALENDAR

H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 2:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. This measure, in immediate accordance of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, it's going to appropriate emergency funds subject to dollar-for-dollar matching funds to support services to perform kidney and liver transplants. Because the Legislature does find that organ transplantation is a lifesaving therapy for many of our critically ill, with end-stage diseases, and funding is critical to maintain a federally recognized Stage 3 chronic disease program. We recognize that more than 110,000 patients are on the national organ transplant waiting list. And over 400 are Hawaii residents. But Mr. Speaker, we're very grateful because diabetes is an overbearing crisis, a tragedy. It's currently costing our State over a billion dollars annually.

"It's on the rise, Mr. Speaker. A third of the population of Hawaii. In fact, it's estimated that one in every two children born after the year 2000 will be affected by this disease, and it oftentimes relies on immediate transplant services. Kidney and pancreas transplants are widely accepted long-term recovery methods for Type 1 and at times, Type 2 diabetes, and it would prove highly imprudent to discontinue such a major avenue for such a severe complication here in Hawaii.

"At HMC we're very proud, now let's not forget, that when we lost this transplant center we lost a piece of history, because it was in 1966 that our own Dr. Livingston Wong, a member of Dr. Hume's transplant team from Harvard Medical School, joined the St. Francis Medical staff. Sister Maureen Keleher was aware of the growing problem of kidney disease and gave Dr. Wong and fellow physicians the green light to start a transplantation program. In '69 he came from Harvard. He joined the St. Francis team in Liliha to perform the first ever kidney transplant in Hawaii, and 9 years later St. Francis established the foundation for bone marrow.

"Mr. Speaker, we know intimately of a hero that sits on our Floor today, who saved the life of a person who served our Chamber so well.

"My friend, Beverlyn Ho who also worked here in the Capitol. She was a 4th generation from Liliha and Palama who many of you who have served many years may remember. She was not so lucky. And had I not been a mother who must preserve my own kidneys for one day taking care of perhaps my own family, I would have considered giving her my kidney.

"What we do in Hawaii is important, and if you had known Bev, she was really special. You would have known how I came to understand this intimately, as more than just a piece of legislation. And so with that, I have much thanks. I want to thank our Governor who expedited this. I want to thank the leadership of the Senate and the House. You, Speaker Say. I want to thank the Chairs who expedited this measure; the Committees, and particularly the Chair of Health for all of his time and effort. To Glen Hayashida and the National Kidney Foundation; to Queen's Hospital; to CJ our current Chief Clerk; to Pat Mau-Shimizu; and to St. Francis Healthcare System."

Representative Fontaine rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you. To George Greene of the Healthcare Association, and all who have helped this very important matter. Mr. Speaker, I've walked through dialysis centers, and some of the greatest local people we have are filling those centers from morning till evening. I want to thank this Chamber and all who helped. May I submit additional written comments please," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 608-Relating to Health. This bill appropriates emergency funds, $1.8 million dollars, subject to dollar-for-dollar private matching funds, to be expended by the Department of Health for grants to the Queen's Medical Center to perform kidney and liver transplants and to National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii to maintain its chronic kidney disease management program.

"The importance of this bill cannot be understated. Diabetes presently, has a stranglehold on my district. Native Hawaiians, Filipinos and Japanese have more than twice the rate of diabetes than Caucasians. Hawaii has a much higher prevalence of end-stage renal disease than the national average. Blindness, amputations, kidney disease, and organ failure are all directly related to this disease. There are currently over four hundred patients in Hawaii enrolled in an ever-lengthening organ transplant wait list.

"It would prove tragically imprudent to send our transplant patients a minimum of 2,500 miles away for transplant services. In this modern era of vast technological advances, it is absolutely cold-hearted for an isolated state to be ill-equipped for organ transplantation. It is my firm belief that this bill is crucial to the health and healing of many of our critically ill family, friends, and residents of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of HB 608, Relating to Health. It's been a longtime coming Members, to get this measure before you. With the help of the Finance Committee, the Finance Chair, the Governor, Queen's Health Systems, the Kidney Foundation and Speaker Calvin Say's Office, this bill was drafted with the specific intent to protect the people of Hawaii. This bill before you will save lives, keep families together and promote healthy lifestyles. It is my hope that this bill will be interpreted broadly, with the funds being used to cover services, operational costs, staffing, renovations, and other support services for the organ transplant program at the Queen's Medical Center.

"Mr. Speaker, we were left in a state of crisis with the closing of Hawaii Medical Center. This closure led to hundreds of patients facing relocation for their medical services, and the loss of a valuable emergency room. Adding to these worries, those facing kidney and liver issues were dealt a heavy blow, knowing that the only Medicaid and Medicare certified center for hospital and kidney transplants would soon be closing.

"In Hawaii alone, there are over 400 people on the organ transplant wait list, 90 percent of which are for issues relating to kidney failure. In addition to those currently on the wait list, it is estimated that 156,000 people in Hawaii have chronic kidney disease, and another 100,000 are 'at risk' for kidney failure. Hawaii leads the nation in chronic kidney disease with a rate 30 percent higher than the national average. Hawaii Medical Center provided treatment services for those facing many of these problems along with providing transplant services, and with its closing, left everyone stranded.

"Without a certified transplant center in the State of Hawaii, our people will be forced to seek treatment at mainland hospitals, where the average wait time for a transplant can range from three to five years. Even if an individual is lucky enough to make it on the waitlist, and then off the waitlist and complete surgery, recovery times for transplant patients can also take upwards to several months. For many patients, a full-time caretaker is often needed to assist them through the transplant process, a role a family member is often forced to undertake due to the high costs of hiring a full-time caretaker. This leaves many families splintered and lives uprooted as our parents, sisters, brothers, family and friends go through the process.

"The need for a new liver and kidney transplant center is dire. HB 608, which works with the National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii and the Queen's Health System, is an investment in the wellness of the State of Hawaii. It is incumbent upon all of us to ensure that our citizens who face serious disease, have the tools and support necessary to improve their quality of life at a reasonable cost with the whole essence of aloha spirit and ohana.

"This measure will help Queen's Organ Transplant Program with a $1.56 million dollar-to-dollar matching fund, and support the Hawaii Kidney Foundation with an additional $300,000 dollar-for-dollar match. This bill would not be here today in front of you without support from the Governor, Queen's Health Systems, the National Kidney Foundation, the Senate, and my counterpart Chair Green, and the Senate President, but also other people like former Chief Clerk, Ms. Patricia Mau-Shimizu, Ms. C.J. Leong, your staff Calvin Azama and members in the community. Also, those who some of you see up there in the audience today, and members who came to testify, as well as many unsung heroes Mr. Speaker, from the Attorney General's Office to the Department of Health, to people like Mr. Tobi Solidum, who never let this issue rest.

"So for these reasons Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the people of the State of Hawaii, I strongly support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I'd just like to thank the Chair of Health for all his hard work and guidance in getting this bill through. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 608. Hawaii experiences a higher than average rate of kidney disease with one person in seven afflicted with this disease, versus the national average of one person in nine. Native Hawaiians, Filipinos and Japanese appear to be the predominant ethnicities affected by chronic kidney disease. So this certainly is a disease that is not far from any of our homes.

"It is in this spirit that I congratulate the Chair of the Health Committee for his efforts in going through great lengths to ensure passage of this bill, giving hope to the many patients and especially those on the kidney and organ transplant waitlist. He coordinated meetings for a year and a half with various healthcare providers, and continuously consulted with the National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii to monitor events that were unfolding at HMC while proffering efforts and discussions to find a home for the transplant center. His foresight has been right on target, and I salute his efforts, and hope that House Bill 608 will provide the basis necessary to help the people of Hawaii for generations to come. In addition Mr. Speaker, I'd like to adopt the words of the Health Chair as if they were my own. Thank you, very much."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 608. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wish to congratulate our Health Chair for his efforts in stewarding this most important piece of legislation through the legislative process, on behalf of the people of Hawaii. Most especially for those with chronic kidney disease, and those who found themselves as one of the 407 who are currently on the organ transplant waitlist in Hawaii who found themselves without a local transplant center. If ever there was a time when action needed to be taken, it is now, to provide the resources to build the necessary infrastructure, meeting the immediate needs of today's patients, while doing our very best to slow down the progression of this debilitating disease through patient surveillance, education, and wellness programs.

"Mr. Speaker, House Bill 608 is a holistic approach to address this healthcare crisis, and it's a positive step in making sure that our healthcare safety net and system remain sound in our care for our ohana, now and in the future. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to wish Queen's Medical Center and the National Kidney Foundation of Hawaii the very best in their mission to continue to provide the very best healthcare for our patients and our families. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks and the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"I supported this bill last Session as it provided profound insight into the important future benefits of this measure. I would like to commend the Legislature on pushing forward with this measure and thank Governor Abercrombie for signing this bill. Although no price can be placed on a human life, I believe this bill will not only save lives, but also save our citizens from the exorbitant cost that traveling out-of-state for a transplant could entail. It provides an important benefit to our State, our community and the residents of District 41."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I just would like to adopt all the words of the previous speakers as if it were my own, with just a brief additional comment. On behalf of the people of Maui and Lahaina, I want to really support what the Health Chair said. This is a statewide thing. This will help all the people of Hawaii. So I just wanted to add my voice on behalf of the people of Maui, to show that this is an important thing for everybody. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 608, HD 3, SD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes.

The Honorable Calvin Say
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Dear Speaker Say,

I'm most disheartened to tell you that I must resign from the office of Representative of the 33rd District of the State of Hawaii House of Representatives.

When the opportunity arose to apply for this position, I believed that I was physically able to do the job for the people of my district. Regretfully, I was mistaken, and, under the advice of my doctor, am resigning effective February 2, 2012.

It is an understatement for me to say that I am disappointed. At the same time, I realize that the residents of my district deserve the full attention and energy of their Representative.

I humbly thank you and your staff for your tremendous assistance and support and wish you the very best with the legislative session ahead.

Sincerely,

Tom Okamura

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I'm just concerned. I understand the idea of having sick leave. In the long run it potentially saves money for the employer because they stay home and they're able to get well rather than coming to work and being the 'walking dead' so to speak.

"But the other thing about this is the unintended consequences we might cause with this piece of legislation. I'm concerned that a small business would then say, 'Okay, there's mandatory sick leave, so now we're going to take away your paid vacation, because I can't afford this.' And that's a real concern. I would hate to see that we lose other benefits in some other area that they're already getting shift to be able to fund this. So I really think we should take a look at this and just allow the employers and the employees to negotiate and work this out between themselves. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, the role of unions is to do exactly what we're trying to do. We are not a union; we're a legislature. And if they want to negotiate through a union or the mediary which is usually the union, I think that's fine. Otherwise, as the Representative from Maui said, this is something they should be able to work out themselves. We are not the price setters and the fixers of these things. They are. I think that the best place for the private sector is to remain private. Thank you"

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Briefly, on the union issue. We've considered one of the most unionized states in the nation. But even as one of the most unionized states in the nation, there are less than 25 percent of the work force is unionized, so most workers don't have the protection that being a union member provides. I don't think we're overstepping our bounds by considering this measure, especially when you consider that the vast majority of countries in the world, I think the number is 145 countries provide paid sick leave, and there's 196 countries in the world. So approximately three-quarters of the world provides for paid sick leave. So I don't think we're stepping outside our bounds in terms of considering this legislation. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I just want a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm an employer," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 2727 – Relating to Vehicle Immobilization.

"The purpose of HB 2727 is to deter individuals from driving illegally when their licenses have been suspended or revoked. The threat of immediate immobilization for those apprehended driving without a license may encourage more DUI drivers facing license revocation to install an ignition interlock device in their vehicles rather than chance driving illegally. For those not eligible for an interlock device, the possibility of vehicle immobilization should discourage individuals from driving illegally without a valid license. Ultimately, there should be fewer crashes caused by high-risk drivers.

"This bill proposes: a largely administrative system of implementing the immobilization program rather than court-based; the use of a vendor to provide the immobilization devices and monitor their use; penalties for tampering with or circumventing the device; a schedule of time periods for the immobilization device to remain on the vehicle; and a procedure for family members to petition for removal of the device if they have no other means of transportation.

"Individuals who are arrested for driving on a suspended or revoked license when the suspension or revocation was the result of an alcohol or drug related law enforcement contact fall into a high risk category of drivers. Highway safety research and advocacy groups recommend that penalties for these drivers include vehicle sanctions. It is apparent that the license revocation penalty has been disregarded, jail time is usually too short to be an effective sanction and fines may also be postponed or also disregarded. Immobilizing the vehicle is a sanction that is relatively simple and avoids the challenges and costs associated with impoundment or forfeiture.

"I urge the Members to pass HB2727 to reduce the problem of individuals illegally driving after their license has been suspended or revoked after a DUI."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2727, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATED TO VEHICLE IMMOBILIZATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure, which authorizes certain private employers to administer a work-sharing plan to avoid temporary layoffs. Under the plan, the bill allows employees to receive employment benefits to compensate for lost wages.

"The Work-Share program gives employers an alternative to avoid layoffs. Currently, during temporary layoff situations, employers who wish to reemploy their workers are at risk of losing their skilled employees to other business offers. Under the Work-Share program, employers can keep their skilled workers during a slow economy by reducing the work hours of a larger group of employees. The workers whose hours and wages are reduced would be eligible to receive a portion of their unemployment insurance benefits to compensate for the lost wages. The program benefits both parties as companies can retain skilled workers, reduce hiring costs once business improves, and avoid "financial and emotional hardships" associated with layoffs, while the employee will still have a job and receive unemployment benefits.

"During a recession, the State must do all it can to keep people on the job where they can continue to develop skills and gain experience. 20 states have already implemented work-sharing legislation. I believe it is imperative that we join those states to assist both employers and their employees during difficult economic times. For these reasons, I urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2025, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Economic Revitalization & Business, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 2228 HD1. The Breastfeeding in the Workplace bill is a commonsense bill which accommodates new mothers by making it mandatory that a sizeable business (20 or more employees) provide a clean location in which new mothers can express breast milk in privacy.

"This bill aids new mothers in assimilating back into the workforce after their pregnancy. Without an appropriate and sanitary environment in which to breastfeed, new mothers may potentially find themselves in an unfair situation where they must choose between being a mother and being employed. Women have struggled for some time to attain equal footing in the workforce, and to reject new mothers as employees would be detrimental to this decades-long struggle.

"HB 2228 is a fair measure that applies to new mothers and does not pose an unreasonable burden on employers of 20 or more employees. A business of that size can be expected to provide some small, sanitary area to a new mother for the purposes of breastfeeding.

"Breastfeeding is a natural and necessary part of raising an infant, and it is my hope that the Legislature will be able to recognize this fact. In accordance with our modern and equal society, I hope similar legislation to this will be made to support new mothers in the workforce, and not keep them from securing gainful employment in this new phase of their life.

"I urge you to support passage of this bill as it pertains to the cause of women and their equal standing in the workplace."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on this measure. While I do support this measure in concept and recognize that there is a need to address the decrease in the number of physicians willing to accept worker's compensation claims, I have concerns about the potential cost implications that this measure may have for employers. The Hawaii Insurance Council estimated the total cost impact of this increase could be upwards of 3.4 percent or $6.2 million. There is a potential for insurance premiums to rise, for employers to incur additional costs and to create long-term fiscal impacts to insurance providers, employees and the State.

"Moreover, testimony we received from the State Department of Human Resources Development and the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations indicates that the Director has the ability to raise fees for specific services in certain circumstances. At this time, because the measure appears potentially unnecessary and costly, I support the measure with reservations."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, just brief comments in support. What this bill does is it makes an appropriation to expand emergency medical services and ambulance systems for the Leeward Coast after the closure of Hawaii Medical Center. I just really wanted to publicly thank the Chair and Vice-Chair of Health for making this a priority for people of the Leeward Coast."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in strong support, and also would like to thank the Chairman and all those that made this possible. Because we know that the importance of this bill cannot be understated. The closing of HMC Center, East and West affected so many residents of the State of Hawaii. So I'd like to incorporate the words of our Floor Leader, and also insert additional written comments, please."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 1953-Relating to Health. This bill makes an appropriation to expand emergency medical services and ambulance services on the Leeward Coast of Oahu. This bill also creates a grant pursuant to Chapter 42F to Wahiawa General Hospital to provide additional emergency room services.

"The importance of this bill cannot be understated. According to H.B. 1953, the closing of Hawaii Medical Center-East drastically affected the patients of Ewa Beach and Liliha district. Consequentially, the City and County is now responsible to take care of current and future emergency care cases. It is of paramount importance that we provide appropriate funding for emergency medical and ambulance services at this time to address the healthcare needs of our people, many of who needed to be transferred or discharged to other facilities.

"According to the testimony provided by the Emergency Services Department of the City and County of Honolulu, after HMC's closure, the City Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Division found "sick individuals seeking help at the empty emergency departments" and that their original funds were unable at this time to support the amount of patients needing care. They have acknowledged in their testimony that without "supplemental appropriations which would be afforded by this measure, other areas of our service will suffer."

"It is my firm belief that this bill is crucial to the health and healing of our family, friends, and residents of Hawaii. If any of our family members or friends were in an accident, we would hope that we would receive the most excellent care possible. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I just would like to thank the Chair of Health, as well as all the Members in this Body for yielding to the needs of the people on the Leeward Coast."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to say that I also strongly support this, and if you would please allow me to have additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Jordan's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of HB 1953, Relating to Emergency Medical Care. The purpose of this bill is to ensure that there are adequate emergency services to Leeward Oahu after the recent closure of Hawaii Medical Center's two hospitals by appropriating $1.2 million to the Department of Health to assist the City and County of Honolulu Emergency Medical Services Division with expanding emergency medical services and ambulance services in communities on Leeward Oahu. This will help expand hours of operations for ambulance services within the Leeward Oahu area which will help with shorting travel time for the patient, as well as provide much need support and relief for Emergency Medical Service personal.

"This bill also appropriates $500,000 as a grant to assist Wahiawa General Hospital in providing additional emergency room services. As noted by the Committee on Health in SCR 152-12, this Body should consider not identifying specific locations and broadening the time to allow for the most efficient and effective use of the appropriation moneys."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1953, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure, which would make permanent the assessment and deposit of the Hawaii State Center for Nursing ("HSCFN") fees into the Compliance Resolution Fund and distribution of those funds to the credit of the HSCFN special fund.

"In 2003, the Legislature passed Act 198, to create the Hawaii State Center for Nursing. The Center was given the mandate to collect and analyze data, and make recommendations regarding the current status and trends of the nursing workforce; conduct research in best practices and quality outcomes; develop a plan for implementing strategies to recruit and retain nurses; and research, analyze and report data related to the retention of the nursing workforce. We can see in the work that the Center for Nursing has produced that they have very ably done what was asked of them. The data and evidence collected by the Hawaii State Center for Nursing is invaluable in making workforce, policy and resource decisions.

"The HSCFN should be continued as it has become a leader in workforce planning, nursing research, and professional practice in the State. Stakeholders recognize the HSCFN as the source of reliable information regarding existing and emerging trends in nursing. The repeal of the Center fees would in essence cause the demise of the HSCFN as the fee is its main source of funding.

"I urge the Members' continuing support of nursing and healthcare in Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2023, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CENTER FOR NURSING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Higher Education, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 1954-Relating to Health. This bill provides reimbursements by Medicaid and its contracted health plans to hospitals for patients occupying acute-licensed beds who are waitlisted for long-term care patients.

"The importance of this bill cannot be understated. Currently acute care hospitals are financially constricted due to providing care to patients who need to continue receiving medical services long after hospitalization. That said, we need to recognize that acute hospitals are budgeted to care for patients that do not require long-term care and are doing the State of Hawaii and our community an added service by accommodating long-term care patients.

"We also need to recognize that acute hospitals are taking a financial risk managing patient transitions to appropriate facilities at this time. If the hospital is unable to find appropriate long-term care facilities for patients that no longer need acute care, according to H.B. 1954, the hospital absorbs the financial losses occurred due to reduced Medicaid reimbursement, which is 20 to 30 percent of the actual cost of acute care hospitalization. That means a 70 to 80 percent revenue loss that occurs on the part of the hospital. As you can see in the heart-felt testimony submitted by The Healthcare Association of Hawaii, which comprises of a breadth of healthcare organizations, including acute care hospitals and long-term care facilities, an average of 150 patients in Hawaii's hospitals are waitlisted because long-term care is not available, thereby causing "inappropriate quality of care for the patient and creates a serious financial drain on hospitals."

"It is my firm belief that this bill is crucial to the health and healing of our family, friends, and residents of Hawaii. Without compensatory reimbursement by Medicaid at this time, we may be causing undue strain on our hospitals. That said, we should be sensitive to contributing factors that may cause financial hardship on our hospitals, especially in the recent bankruptcy of HMC in Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This bill intends to provide a great safety measure for those that are visually impaired or blind to apply for and obtain disability parking permits. The current law allows for disabled residents who require the use of a cane for mobility to obtain a disability parking permit. However, the blind who also required the use of a cane for mobility are excluded. Nearly half of the states have laws allowing the blind to obtain a disability parking permit including other similar veteran and tourist friendly states such as California, Florida, and New York.

"The current law also implies that the blind only ride TheBus, TheCab or the HandiVan as transportation where they are dropped off at a sidewalk and have a clear reference to their destination. However, many blind persons travel with their families and must navigate through crowded and dangerous parking lots, risking their safety en route to the sidewalk.

"The Disability and Communication Access Board does not support the bill mainly due to funding, which was estimated to cost an extra $60,000 a year. When one compares that to the medical costs of a potential blind victim in the parking lot, the number becomes irrelevant, showing that the benefits of authorizing a parking pass for the blind greatly outweigh risking their safety through a crowded parking lot. I urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2104, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PARKING FOR DISABLED PERSONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Transportation, with Representative Takai being excused.

This bill allows public schools to claim student activity funds left in the school by a graduating class immediately after the graduation of the class, rather than 5 years after the class graduates as provided under current law.

"Allowing these funds to go into the General School Fund in the Local School Non-Appropriated Account immediately after all graduation expenses are paid will allow money to be spent on students that contributed to the fund instead of allowing the funds to be stockpiled for future uses that are not clearly defined. For this reason, I urge the Members' support."

"The Board of Education has not requested funding for this program in the coming fiscal year. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is a tax by any other name. Even though we call it the internet tax, and with all due respect to the CPA from Manoa, I have a couple of words to say. First of all, that our Governor has said, 'No new taxes.' This is a tax increase. Our Speaker has said, 'No new taxes.' This is a tax increase. Everybody in this election will not want to have taxes, and this is going to be a tax increase on everybody who shops.

"The other problem with this bill is that the economy is still fragile and hardworking families and small businesses cannot afford another tax. And even the Department of Taxation recommended that the Tax Review Commission, not us, look at this first. The Tax Review Commission. So we're kind of putting the horse one step ahead of the cart here, by not doing what was recommended by even the Tax Department.

"So Mr. Speaker, what's the hurry? What's the hurry to keep pushing this? There's federal legislation called the Marketplace Fairness Act that would provide us with the mechanism, constitutionally that if we want to do this, we could do it. So I say, this is, again, the 'nose of the camel' into internet taxation, which, when we get into that, we never know what's going to happen to the internet. What if we want to have a City and County internet tax? Or we're going to have a DHL wire-in tax on the internet. And I know when, or if he does, or someone does stand up and say, 'What about the fact that Amazon is doing this in other states?' Well there's a big federal court case that hasn't been decided yet, that will decide that. Yet we're trying to pre-empt it and get ahead of it.

"So I say let's slow down. Let's give it to the Tax Commission. Let's pursue it. Let's see what's available. But right now I don't think it's good public policy for us to pass this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This is a fairness issue. This is a fairness bill. This is a pro-small business bill. People may be out there watching this and thinking, 'How can this tax be a pro-business bill.' The reason is, for everyone that does business in the State, who has a shop, whether it's a 'mom and pop' sporting goods store or whether it's Sport's Authority; whether it's a small 'mom and pop' selling hardware items like City Mill, or if it's Lowe's or Home Depot. If you have physical presence in this State, you have to pay general excise tax.

"You also pay a lot of other taxes, whether it be on your electricity, or whether it be your real property taxes to support community services. You pay those taxes. For those businesses who do not have presence in this State, but they sell online, they do not have to pay these taxes. And when you talk to most businesses, what they want is a fair playing field. What this bill does is it makes the playing field level now, because it is unfair that if you have presence in this State or a physical store and you have to pay taxes, and somebody like Amazon does not.

"Is that fair to the businesses here who employee people? Who provide healthcare? Who support our little league and our schools? That they have to pay and those others don't? I don't think so.

"I think this is what we need to take a look at. Is Congress looking at this kind of legislation? Yes. There are several pieces of legislation, but it seems difficult that any of it is going to be passed anytime soon.

"So what do we tell the businesses who pay taxes? Just wait? Wait while your sales go out the door to mainland sales providers who do not pay taxes, and are taking away your business, and possibly taking away jobs from local residents? I don't think so. So I encourage the Members to think about it. They should look at the bill before they have their reservations. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this measure. Now, at present, Hawaii does not pay any tax on internet sales. We don't pay the 4.5% percent use tax unless there is a nexus. Now this bill creates that nexus. It is a big money raiser. It may be fair to business, but under this bill, Hawaii consumers will end up paying millions more. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. And I very much understand the Majority Leader's comments on helping small business. I realize that they may feel that they're paying taxes, and internet sellers aren't. The question becomes though for our consumers, for our people. For the people to do what they want, what they need to do to have their adequate choice. What happens is there are a lot of things that you cannot get in the stores that we have here in Hawaii. So people are kind of forced to go on internet for certain things.

"Have you ever checked postage on that? It's huge, because of where we live. So it's not like it's often becoming that much of a huge difference. But the important thing is that our people can get the items that they need. And yes, I think the solution is that we should lower our taxes on our small businesses. So with that, I would like to submit additional written comments, and I'm still in opposition, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 1694-Relating to Taxation, which would require the collection of use taxes by sellers of tangible personal property, including purchases by an internet link or web site, or related services in the State on behalf of the seller. This bill includes those who engage in business in the State or sell tangible items to people in the State. Electronic and catalogue purchases would be taxed regardless of the seller's location.

"This bill increases the cost of living for our residents. Hawaii consumers already pay inflated prices. Added shipping costs, out-of-state taxes and extra packaging are among the exacerbated costs to consumers.

"The goal is simple; we must protect our residents. The costs are already exponentially higher than retail, due to the geographic location of our home. Let us not compromise choice, quality of life, and lower cost of living for our residents through increased taxes AND shipping. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Just in rebuttal to the good lady from Waiālae. If you do buy something on the internet, you're supposed to pay your 4 or 4.5% taxes. So this is a tax compliance move. This is not an additional tax. It never was. This is not a tax on the internet. It's for purchases that you made over the internet, and it's something that you're supposed to have paid. By not supporting this bill, who are we protecting? Who are we protecting by not supporting this particular bill? The people who are not paying their taxes. And since this is Second Reading, I'll save my other rants for the Third Reading. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Also in opposition again, and with a brief retort to the learned gentleman from Manoa. I can say unabashedly that I'm protecting my constituents. I'm protecting those who, if we remember the latest statistic, 57% of Hawaii's families cannot send their kids to school with lunch money, without a subsidy. Hawaii is hurting, and it's not the elite who go on the internet. It's those who are trying to make it through. In a way, the internet is kind of like a WalMart, or a Costco, or something where you can get something quickly and you can shop around and get it least expensively.

"But I want to go back to the Majority Leader's point about this is about a fair playing field. Mr. Speaker, this is a fair playing field, because every Hawaii retailer, and I speak as 15 years at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel as a retailer, has the capacity to do internet and ship overseas to the huge market on the mainland, and the huge market throughout the world. And having filed my income tax, my sales tax every month, there's an exemption for the GET tax. If it goes outside of the State of Hawaii, you do not pay any tax.

"So those people that we say are hurting, who are the 'brick and mortar,' they have the same opportunity that the retailers on the mainland are being used as the providers of services and goods for the people of Hawaii. So it's an even playing field. Let's call a spade a spade. It's a tax increase, no matter how we dress it up. Like I think there was a Vice Presidential candidate who said, 'No matter how much lipstick you put on a pig, it's still going to be a pig.' This is a tax increase. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Adoption of this Act will establish guidelines to determine which court, in this State or another state, has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated adult and to determine the disposition of out-of-state guardianship and protective orders thereby ensuring that only one state has jurisdiction at any one time. Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 425, HD 2, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the measure. Thank you. Mr. Speaker. House Bill 425, Relating to Public Utilities would require the Public Utilities Commission to consider the costs and benefits of a diverse fossil fuel portfolio, and I want to stress that. A diverse fossil fuel portfolio. I think that it really is a major step backward. On page one of the bill in the purpose clause, it states that, unless there are major technological breakthroughs, it is anticipated that in 2030, 60% of electricity generation will come from fossil fuels. That's an incredibly pessimistic approach.

"It is not the one that the former Administration had, but it seems to be now one that this present Administration has, that in 2030 we'll still be locked into dependency on polluting fossil fuels. This ignores the vast resources that we have on the Big Island with geothermal. And it ignores the recently released report from the United States Department of Energy stressing the vast potential for energy in our oceans. They have in fact in that report which is available online, they have indicated that Oahu itself could obtain 3 times the amount of power needed to power our island from tapping into the renewable energy sources of the ocean. Those types of wave energy projects are going forward in Europe, Australia, and I believe even China now is stepping forward.

"So I look at this as being such a pessimist approach and that's why I'm digging my heels in. If we really believe in our renewable energy, if we believe that the green jobs we will create are going to help our economy, are going to provide good paying jobs for our young people, then we will not pass a measure with a pessimistic approach saying that we give up. In 2030 we're going to still be 60% dependent on polluting fossil fuel. I know there's a catch all, or a so-called savings clause, that says nothing in this section shall subvert the obligation of electric utilities to meet the renewable portfolio's standards, but that's just SOP, S-O-P, SOP thrown out.

"Because what it does say above that, it says, 'the Public Utilities Commission shall consider the costs and benefits of a diverse fossil fuel portfolio.' So here we are saying to the PUC, go spend your time, go spend your resources on fossil fuel, a diverse portfolio. What that actually means too, is that we shall reach out to liquefied synthetic gas. Life of the Land said that that means the PUC will spend its resources and time on this fossil fuel based power generation, rather than working on the dockets that are truly going to put us forward in a renewable energy future.

"When you look at the pollution from these fossil fuel based energy sources, you wonder why on earth is Hawaii still standing knee high in oil muck. It doesn't make sense. This is imported to our island. It's not making us be energy self sufficient. When you talk about being energy independent, that really is our islands' security. If we're still dependent on some shippers going ahead and bringing us those fossil fuel barrels, and if we're still depending upon sending $7 billion a year out-of-state for that purpose, what are we doing as policy makers? Why aren't we instead shelving or tabling this bill and saying, 'We don't want to go that way.' PUC has adequate authority to do what it needs to under dockets that are presented to it. But for us to say we're elevating fossil fuel generation and the diverse sources of that, whether it's coal, oil ..."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Or the liquefied gas. We're saying to the PUC, 'We're elevating that above having you go ahead with the dockets that are truly renewable-based, and we're continuing our insecurity for our islands.' I'm very astounded that the 5th Floor is taking this approach, and frankly I'm disappointed, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There's nothing in this bill that takes away from anything with our renewable portfolio standards, which is one of the most aggressive portfolio standards in the country. What this bill does though is recognize the fact that most of the renewable energy sources are really on the Neighbor Islands, and until we can put cables in or develop geothermal, there's probably a 10, 15, 20 year time span, certainly on Oahu, where we're going to have to take a look and find ways to reduce our costs. Oil's going up. There are other fossil fuels that may potentially provide an ability to reduce our rates. What this bill does is provide the PUC as an interim, to working towards our long-term goals to do their best effort to reduce rates in the State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. And as others have previously requested, the words of the good representative from Kailua would be as my own, and with the passion and compassion that she put. She's basically saying, 'We can do better, State of Hawaii.' We can do better. We should not only be the national leader, we should be the world leader, and not use any of the excuses. The good representative, the Chair of the Committee of Energy just said that, basically the renewable resources are primarily on the Neighbor Islands.

"I didn't know that the sun didn't shine on Oahu. The greatest renewable resource is the sun. Not just the geothermal and the other wind farms. We have not used our renewable potential on the photo voltaic on the roofs of the State of Hawaii, particularly on Oahu. Our penetration is 3 to 5%. Manini. 3 to 5%, and if we pass a bill like this, this is, 'Well if you don't really make it, it's going to be okay.' Versus, a very aggressive positive, 'We're going to do this thing.' Because we've got all the natural resources. We're blessed with all the sunshine, all the wave energy and all the other renewable, Mr. Speaker. We shouldn't sell ourselves short by using this possible excuse. And there's a lot of other excuses and other issues with the PUC about stability and reliability that really shows if we're very serious, we've got to go to the jugular to this. Get off of fossil fuels and stop using excuses. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mahalo Ho'omalu 'Ōlelo, Ke kū nei au me ke kako'o 'ole. He pila hewa kēia. Nui nā piilikia i loko 'o kēia pila. Ina e puka ana kēia pila e hele ana kākou i hope Mahalo pihō nō kō 'oukou ho'olohe ana me ka maopopo."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This is a defected bill. There are many problems in this bill. If this bill passes we are moving backwards. Thank you for listening and understanding.

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to continue a bit more to my colleagues. Mr. Speaker, our three very strong, respected, environmental watchdogs all testified against the measure. Blue Planet Foundation, the Sierra Club, and Life of the Land, for the very reason that it's going backward and it's admitting defeat. Now, in 2012 we admit defeat, instead of pursuing our strong renewable energy goal, and accomplishing that, which we could do by 2030.

"I just wanted to read one thing about the updated assessment from the United States Department of Energy which shows that Hawaii's wave energy resource is 130 terawatt per year. What that translates to for Oahu is 22 terawatts per year. Right now it only takes 7.7 terawatts per year to power Oahu. So Oahu's wave energy potential can almost provide its island with 3 times the needed energy.

"The Marines understand this. Instead of saying, 'We're going to be stuck with fossil fuel till the year 2030,' the Marines, the Kaneohe Marine Base in Kaneohe, on the Windward side, is constructing a wave hub. And that wave hub is designed to capture some of the best wave climate in the world. They'll have 3 to 5 plug-ins for local companies and international companies to come and to hook up their wave energy converters. That should be online within a year. Maui is going ahead with its ocean lengths wave energy project. We have the resources.

"We do not need to stand here in 2012 and tell our Hawaii community that we admit defeat before we've even tried. Instead we should table this bill, and never put in language that we acknowledge we're not going to meet any lofty goal of becoming a green energy state. The Marine Base is going to go off-grid by the year 2015 or 2016. They're not admitting defeat. They're leading, and we're not here. We're just saying we're defeatists. We can't get there. I think it's a bad bill, and I think it should be tabled. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, when I see this bill, I see something totally different. What I see is acknowledging that we still reiterate that we are obligated. Nothing in this section shall subvert the obligation of electric utilities to meet the renewable portfolio standards as set forth in Section 269-92 of the Hawaii Revised Statute. So I think it really reemphasizes again that that's our goal.

"But the purpose of this bill is also to acknowledge from the time we go from here to there, we have to take into effect what the costs are to the rate payers, and what the costs are going to be to actually convert. It's going to cost an awful lot of money. And so to acknowledge that a diverse portfolio may be necessary until we get to our goal is not a bad policy.

"I just want to read the sentence that the previous speaker is talking about. It says, and this is new language in the bill, 'In exercising its authority and duties under this Chapter, the Public Utilities Commission shall consider the cost and benefits of a diverse fossil fuel portfolio and of maximizing the efficiency of all electrical utility assets to lower and stabilize the cost of electricity.' And I think that's the 'nuts and bolts' of this, and it's the lower and stabilized cost.

"We can't predict, right now, to go to renewable, if our heart and souls are in to it, otherwise we'd say, 'Okay, just tax everybody. Get it over with. Jump in there, and make it happen.' Take tax credits. Our economy is really suffering right now. We're trying to do the best we can, we know the economy is flat, so I think that this policy really sets the tone that we're going to move to our renewable portfolio, we're committed to it, but acknowledging we have to do it being very conscious about what affect it has on our rate payers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, and I would just like to add that nothing in this bill says that we are admitting defeat. What this bill says is that we are doing our duty to be responsible to the people of Hawaii by performing our due diligence, to lay everything on the table.

"Now the utilities are responsible to provide firm power, and a lot of these clean renewable energy sources are intermittent, meaning that they fluctuate with the environment, with the climate, with the way the weather is blowing, with the way the wind is blowing. But the utilities are mandated to provide power so that every time you flick that switch on, your lights go on.

"All this bill does is say that we need to look at every single option and look at everything that's on the table. Nothing in this bill says that we're admitting defeat. Nothing in this bill says that we're not looking for a brighter future for our keiki. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 425, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC UTILITIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Ching, Hanohano, Pine, Takai, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Belatti, C. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure, the Veterans Preference bill. Mr. Speaker, sometimes we forget that small businesses are the primary employer of the State, 85% of the people. Bills like this are the ones that give a boost, particularly in acknowledging those who have served. And I know in the State of Hawaii, it's been very difficult to even get minority preferences set aside, but this one is important enough that if we push it with enthusiasm, vigor and with political will, it can be done. Those who served need this, and these are the ones who hire the people to make a difference.

"We know that there are certain bills that we have introduced on our side of the aisle that are comparable to this. I think this bill could probably be improved in its next iteration in the next Committee with some of the things that we put in there. I hope the next Chair of that Committee will consider accordingly.

"But this is a good bill. And as a Vietnam veteran myself, this is special, because when we came back from Vietnam, there was no acknowledgement whatsoever. In fact, if I can be reminiscent, it's only when we honored the Marines from Kailua and my friend was leading the Floor Presentation, that it was really a welcoming home.

"So this is a welcome home to all those who served in Afghanistan. This is a welcome home to those who served in Iraq. And it's a good charge for our small business community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. And I rise with a degree of sadness. I think it's a sad day in a first world leading country that we have to have a meal break put into and codified in the laws of the state of the people. Mr. Speaker, we're not the third world, where you might have employees who, because they don't have enough money, can't eat lunch. The fact that we have to deal with this suggests that the 'nanny state' is growing as well. I know there is a price control bill that we're going to be hearing that is not good policy. There's probably, if this passes, a meal control board, that's going to be developed. I don't know who the employer is out there, but I don't think there's an employer in the State of Hawaii who will not allow his employees to eat, and eat at appropriate times. I think it's a good gesture if we want to make labor feel happy.

"I think labor is happy when they get better wages, and better health and employment benefits. But if there are people who're out there that are hurting, that means the State of Hawaii is really amiss in watching over its people. And I know it says in the report that while there's nobody over 16 years old who has any mandated meals. Well we are a civilized nation. The fact that we've got to tell people to feed people. That is a step backward in my sense of the anthropological development of who we are as a people, who we are as a State, and who we are as a Legislature to be mindful of the very important issues of getting people hired, creating jobs, rather than putting legislation in to make sure that there's a meal break.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm confused by this, but primarily disappointed. Having lived in the third world for a number of years, I know what hunger is. I lived among people who'd never ate for days, who had malaria. We have to watch over our people, but to codify this is very strange and that's why I have strong reservations. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations regarding H.B. 1699-Relating to Labor. This bill requires employers to provide meal breaks for employees who work more than a total of five hours a day. It imposes penalties for failure to provide meal breaks. It also clarifies that the penalty is based on an employee's regular wage at the time the infraction occurred.

"As stated by the Maui Chamber of Commerce, later echoed by the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii:

Most employers already provide meal breaks and often longer than thirty minutes. This measure will cause confusion and litigation regarding the calculation of overtime payment. If this measure were to pass, an employer would have to factor in premium pay in calculating the regular rate because the only method of calculating the regular rate of pay under Hawaii law is to take the total earnings for the period and divide by the number of hours worked. This measure would also hurt employees who would rather work through their lunch or take shorter breaks in order to shorten their work day. Employers would now be required to force employees to take an unpaid thirty minute meal break before the fifth and again before the tenth hour of work, therefore prolonging an already long work day.

"I also concur with Tim Lyons, President of The Hawaii Business League, in his statement that, "complaints in this area are almost non-existent; at least, we have not heard of any. Secondly, most employers are aware of the fact that employees need periodic breaks from their work and they accommodate this without requiring employees to work straight through if for no other reason than productivity is better when employees are in good health and get the proper nourishment." Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just would point out that at least 22 other states have similar legislation. And for those, the majority of employers, I'm assuming it's the majority of employers, who do provide meal breaks, this won't affect them at all. We're looking to try to provide a level of civilization if you like, for those employers who do not provide meal breaks. But for the notion that somehow this is a third world measure, I think, is way off the point in that at least 22 other states in the United States have similar requirements."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a brief retort? Because what it does is it maligns, it suggests that there are employers out there who are not giving breaks. I would challenge that assumption that there are employers who don't give breaks. If they're not giving breaks, they need to be reported to the Better Business Bureau. They need the Chamber of Commerce. They need to be counseled, if you will, on civilized behavior.

"But the fact that there are those in other states that have done this, the need for this seems to be rising to an occasion of which I think the employers in Hawaii have a standard of Aloha, a standard of caring, for their employees by which I'm confounded that this is really an issue. That's where the disappointment comes in. It's important that people eat, definitely. But it's important that we get them jobs so they can get the money so they eat better, and that to me is where the focus should be. Not on these meal break issues which are important, but not the significant policy-making obligation with this Body. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a short comment. Since we meet in session during lunchtime, in the afternoons, I generally ask my staff not to have lunch at their normal time. So, I'll be supporting this legislation to see what other private sector businesses do, and then incorporate that into my policy for the office. Thank you."

Human trafficking is a multi-billion dollar business that takes place throughout the world. Although we do not want to admit it, such activities take place in Hawaii. I understand the concerns coming from the Hotel Industry. However, my hope is that we can continue this dialogue to come to an agreement. "Yes, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure. You know, it's unfortunate that we recently lost two officers' lives to this very situation of being struck by a vehicle while stalled or assisting other people. It would just seem common sense that people would slow down and move out of the way of a public servant doing his duty. But what we have here today is we're codifying it, and we're going to ensure the safety and the protection of lives in our law enforcement and service personnel. This is so critically important. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. We no longer live in a world of common sense. 49 other states have already passed laws relating to the Move Over Law. By passing this measure, the Legislature believes the safety for emergency personnel is paramount. I ask that Members of this Body do the same and support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked the remarks of Representative Fontaine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks and the remarks of Representative Fontaine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 2030-Relating to the Statewide Traffic Code. This bill requires motorists when passing a stationary authorized emergency vehicle on a highway to vacate the lane closest to the stationary authorized emergency vehicle or reduce driving speed until safely clear of the stationary authorized emergency vehicle.

"It is my hope that H.B. 2030 will save the lives of our brave police officers and emergency responders, as well as honor the memories of Officers Eric Fontes and Garret Davis. It is vital that we procure this thoughtful measure to create a safer highway system for persons who selflessly provide vital services for the residents of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I support HB2030 to join the 49 other states that already have a "move over law." This will enhance safety for personnel utilizing emergency vehicles while performing safety tasks."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support with a short comment. I would just like to ask those who support this bill that if we could in some way go further. I hear about accidents and officers being injured, but I don't hear about why motorists are stalled. And I believe that some of these stalls are due to simple human error that could have been taken care of, and that's what I hope this Body will look in to. Why people are stalled, and are there reasonable reasons why. And if not, I think they should be penalized."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would just like the words of the Representative from Waialeale entered into the record as if it were my own. And just to reiterate the point that it's kind of sad that we have to actually pass a law for something that's common sense. So like we say on the Neighbor Islands, 'Slow down. This ain't the mainland.'"

I would like if the Representative would make, after she is finished, she could explain very briefly in English as to what the content of her remarks is about. Or maybe provide us some lessons at the end of the Session so we all can learn Hawaiian. I'm willing to learn Hawaiian even at this age, but at this point I really don't understand what my good friend is saying. So maybe if she could help us a little bit along the way. Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support and ask for permission to insert written comments on the Assault on Medical Service Providers. There are 2,637 non-fatal assaults that occurred from 1999, a rate of 8.3 assaults per 10,000 workers. We need to protect our medical service people. Those that protect us, we must protect them. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 1926-Relating to assaults against medical service providers, which would expand the offense of assault in the second degree to medical services providers while on-duty.

"We must look to testimony provided by the Healthcare Association of Hawaii, where it states that, "The rate of assaults and violent acts against health care workers is more than 10 times the average rate." The testimony continues by saying up to 80% of hospital staff have been "physically assaulted at least once" while on duty. Numbers like these do not encourage new medical providers to join the workforce, where there is currently a shortage.

"The importance of this bill goes beyond the medical facility. This bill protects service providers, who not only spend years in study to practice their profession, but are additionally pre-disposed to potentially hazardous work environments. We must keep doctors and nurses safe from violence. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. "Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Report. No. 277-12, I would like to cast a vote with reservations. Please allow me a brief moment to explain my reservations. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I applaud the intent of the bill to protect and fight against domestic violence. My reservation is in regards to the fact that there are other professions, not only law enforcement, that have individuals that engage in domestic violence. And so targeting only law enforcement officers, I think, might characterize them as being perceived as having a higher incidence of domestic violence.

"Members, you know our law enforcement work with us on catching and penalizing these types of individuals and so we would not want them to be perceived as being part of the problem, but rather to know that they're part of the solution."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On the measure before us, in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Honolulu Police Department reports that up to half of their calls relate to domestic violence. I want to thank Public Safety for recommending an amendment to this measure, to broaden the scope. Law enforcement are the first ones on the scene at a domestic violence situation. They need to have a proper policy in place. I think this is a good measure and I ask all Members to support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure with reservations.

"I recognize the seriousness of domestic violence problems in our community and for this reason feel compelled to move this measure forward. However, I am concerned that this bill singles out law enforcement officers who have already received training regarding domestic violence and who already face the sanction of losing their jobs under the requirements of the Lautenberg Amendment.

"This bill is likely unnecessary. This bill proposes law enforcement agencies adopt and implement a written policy for officers charged with domestic violence. The police department has already established internal rules and regulations on the matter.

"Since the Lautenberg Amendment already applies, law enforcement officers who lose use of their weapons also lose their jobs as a result (they no longer meet the qualifications of police officers who must be able to use firearms)."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1917, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives C. Lee and M. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this is the real thing. This is not a study. Remember we talked about the State Bank last week, and said, 'Look it's only a study.' This is the real McCoy. This is the bank that will be established as the State of Hawaii Bank and quite frankly, I don't want to repeat what I said last time so we've done a little bit of homework. We've looked into it. We don't want to reinvent the wheel, so we've looked at other states and what they're doing.

"In Massachusetts, lo and behold, they actually went through a few months ago what we are going through now. They did some research and I want to cite a couple of things that they found out.

"First of all, they found out that publicly-owned banks are really not a phenomenon that are in developed countries. It's usually in third world countries that the state owns the banking. Our good friend from Downtown Honolulu mentioned that China is the leading state bank successful example. Right now, there's not been even a consideration of a state owned bank since 1970, and the bank of North Dakota actually began in 1919. And they Mr. Speaker, started out with a $2 million capitalization. And in the Massachusetts' study it says, 'The original capitalization, if put in today's dollars for a similar start up would be $3.2 billion.'

"I ask my colleagues, do you want to get a state bank with $3.2 billion? Because you see the model of North Dakota and you want to make this the State Bank of Hawaii, when we don't even have a funded liability for our pensions, for our trust funds, for our health program.

"Another revealing statistic was that the State Bank of North Dakota has $4 billion in assets. Guess what? The Bank of Hawaii has $4 billion in assets. Guess how many years Bank of Hawaii's been around to get $4 billion in assets. And almost 100 years of the Bank of North Dakota. We are not going to get an immediate return on this unless we really put a lot of money into it. I know the intention of getting the money into it is to buy these foreclosed mortgages. I ask my colleagues, do you want your constituents to bail out the banking industry that has already been bailed out, and the mortgage industry that owes a lot of money to the taxpayers already?

"In addition to that, it is not the FDIC that the deposits are insured by in the Bank of North Dakota. It's the taxpayers of North Dakota. So this is another reminder that the burden of proof of the viability of this is not on the organizers of the bank, but those who are the taxpayers in the State of Hawaii. I know some people took a little bit of umbrage when I said, do you know who they've got on the first Bank of Hawaii? It's the Governor's political appointees who are going to be the board of directors. Well guess who runs the Bank of North Dakota. It's run and overseen by three commissioners. The first primary commissioner is the Governor, the second is the Attorney General, then there's an agricultural commissioner.

So do you see a little bit of political stuff mixed in to this? I think it's as we had predicted.

"The other thing about the Bank of North Dakota that we have to realize is that it was really put in place for farming and now, it's not even doing farming loans. 50% of its loans are actually buying the loans of small banks. North Dakota is rural and they have a lot of small banks. So basically half of their business is simply buying up loans from small banks. Hawaii has a handful of banks, but do you see any hue and cry for small banks to say, 'We need you, Bank of the State of Hawaii to buy loans from us.' There's no hue and cry from our small bankers.

"Another interesting point I think that which we forget thinking is that North Dakota by its bank has been successful. It mentions in the Massachusetts' study, and this is not me saying it. It's saying North Dakota has fared exceptionally well during the recent national recession. People have to be mindful that North Dakota's overall performance is mostly attributable to oil and natural gas extraction and high commodity prices. And it is me when I say it's also run by Republicans who are conservative, fiscally responsible people. And that's another reason why this thing works. It's because of the economy there, and who's running it, as well as the oil and the extraction industries that are driving it.

"Mr. Speaker, I should also add that the small business loans ..."

"My goodness. And this is not even Third Reading yet, but this is important stuff. Again, I am not speaking. It's the study that Massachusetts that did, because it said that there were like 18 other states that were considering to do this bank and Massachusetts says, 'We're out of here. After this study we have decided not to do it.' So I say that as a way to say, we don't have to reinvent the wheel because Massachusetts gathered all this information.

"Basically what they said was the burden of proof of loans to our small businesses should be the federal government, not just the state bank. Two-thirds of the profits of the State Bank of North Dakota actually do go back to the State, but that also says that one-third of their costs are administration. And whenever you're in a business that takes 33 1/3% just to run it, that's rather high. What they do put in the coffers is $30 million so the benefit is substantial. $30 million a year is substantial, but remember that this is a bank that's been in business almost 95 years. We're talking about starting from scratch, and it's going to be an elixir because we're going to make money on buying mortgages at 75 cents on the dollar.

"The other thing we need to know is that the state bank is liable, or the state is liable for any of the bank's losses. And I think I mentioned that in terms of our own constituents. One of the kickers here in addition is the fact that the DCCA Director has noted as follows: "Arguably, the soundness of Hawaii's financial institutions may be compromised and jeopardized by transferring state moneys to a state owned bank."

"The point is Mr. Speaker, that we have two of the healthiest banks in the nation. They have fared very well. There's no shortage of capital. They're not in just to bail out the mainland banks that have primarily cheated a lot of our residents or stonewalling our residents. And to say that we should put this burden on our constituents is what I'm basically arguing against. That's the bottom line.

"And finally, do we really want to pony up $3 billion to do what the Bank of North Dakota did? I think it's a resounding no. I think if we asked our constituents, if we ask ourselves, can we afford to do a bank, to do high-risk loans with the state of the economy the way it is today, I think it's obvious, Mr. Speaker.

"Thank you, for your indulgence. And I hope everybody sort of starts changing their thinking. Perhaps maybe government is not the best to get into the banking industry. Maybe we should rethink what we're good at and stick to our knitting, in those areas, and not go too far out on a limb as North Dakota did, and did well 100 years ago in an entirely different climate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. In opposition as well, and I'd like to ask that the remarks of the Minority Leader be entered as my own. I just wanted to recap just a few comments, distilling it down to what I think is my concern.

"In understanding how we prosper and how we provide excellent service, and the way that in general I feel that our system of government and system of business works is that when you have competition, when you have a monopoly there is a real chance of people saying, 'Well come to me, or you don't come to me.' That's life. You know. Whether it's a gas situation, or the only place you go to a super market, competition brings out work, and people wanting to be the best. They want to work hard. They want to do the best they can, because they know if they're Bank of Hawaii, but First Hawaiian Bank is doing something. Hey, great. But when you enter into the mix an uneven playing field where basically you have the illustrious and credible, never-ending taxation of the people. We just keep saying, 'Well, you know this is your money and we're going to do this.' When you don't have an even playing field the problem is that you discourage people.

"And you discourage people from working and doing what's best, good ideas, new ideas. That sort of thing. How can I do this better? And so to me, the real pitfall when I distill it down, and I know you can say North Dakota and this and that. And I agree with the Minority Leader. You always have to look in the environment. Just like a patient. Not every patient is all the same. Look at independent uniqueness. Hawaii is not North Dakota. I think that when we don't encourage competition, we don't encourage an even playing field, you hurt the young people. Because if they don't think they're going to have a fair shake, they're not going to stay. We want people to want to stay because I know that through their merit, through their merit they can do well. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2103. The creation of a state-owned bank is an incredibly complex undertaking in relatively unknown territory for the State of Hawaii. Taxpayers should be assured the bank will possess the necessary expertise to properly operate. The State already struggles to balance and effectively govern its existing bureaucracies and I fear it may prove unwise to further burden a state government already stretched thin. I also believe the creation of a state-owned bank has potential to create unintended consequences and burdens for the taxpayers of Hawaii, particularly if it lacks the necessary operational mechanisms to achieve its ultimate goal. While I do honor the intent of the measure and want to help those in our community who are threatened with foreclosure, I have reservations as to whether or not the State of Hawaii is equipped to tackle a venture of this size and scope. For those reasons, I will be voting with reservations."

Representative Riviere rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

"I do not see any need to regulate this industry. I have not heard about any complaints from small businesses in this regard. I think before we enact such legislation, we should be requesting a sunrise study, especially since this bill calls for penalties up to $2,500. I don't think our businesses should be regulated by the Department of Labor. I feel that it should be perhaps, if we decide it should be regulated, it should be in the Department of Commerce and Consumer Protection. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and just brief comments. I'm just not sure. This bill would possibly shut down the fireboat in Honolulu Harbor. And it's not clear to me what it would be replaced with, and that raises some questions in my mind."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. In the Committee Report it notes that it is not the intent to shut it down. This is just to give flexibility to the DOT."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of H.B. 1667-Relating to Taxation. This bill authorizes a state income tax credit for certain expenses paid or incurred by a school teacher during the taxable year.

"This bill reduces the out-of-pocket expenses for teachers that strive to provide an excellent learning environment.

"Many teachers incur out-of-pocket miscellaneous expenses to ensure that students have the best tools to learn. Our goal is to provide the best educational experience for our children. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Yamane: "Mr. Speaker, I rise to request a moment of silence. Former legislator and spouse of our current Representative Marilyn Lee passed away this morning at 12:45 a.m. Samuel served with some of you here today. He is survived by our colleague, Representative Marilyn Lee, as well as four children: Andrew, John, Mary and Thomas. Mr. Speaker, from Marilyn's discussion this morning, he passed away peacefully, and we would like to express our deep-felt thoughts and prayers to the family. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, may I also share the disappointment and the sadness of hearing of his passing. Sam and I were friends. Sam was probably the lead international voice in the House for a number of years. He and I basically had a coalition, sometimes even against my colleague from Kailua, who didn't always champion the international. So hearing of Sam's passage is a blow as a friend, as a person, and as someone who really helped Hawaii and the nation by his career as a Foreign Service officer. He will be greatly missed and I'm happy that we're going to honor him as we close this session."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late former Representative Samuel S.H. Lee.

What I would just ask that we consider as a Body as it goes on to the next Committee that if it is indeed a priority, the $1 instead of being an extra additive on to the already rather large increase we had last Session, just be taken out of the existing $45 fees as opposed to adding an extra dollar just to fund this very important thing. Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'd like to express a reservation on Committee Report 298. I generally favored this bill. We're very happy to see that the unemployment insurance rate will be kept at the Schedule F rate and it will certainly help our businesses and keep our people at work. It will help our job creation.

"My reservations go to raising our average weekly wage to 75%. This is only temporary from April through the end of the year. But 75% is already very generous if you're collecting unemployment compensation, and then at the end of the year it's very difficult to lower it again. So I don't think it's a wise idea to raise the average weekly rate percentage because it further drains our unemployment insurance fund. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2096, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, C. Lee, M. Representative Thielen continued to speak in opposition, stating:

"Thank you. I believe that my grandson, as well as the other children of early age in Hawaii deserve to have this Junior Kindergarten Program. Instead of eliminating this and hoping that maybe some other measures will pass that will set up some early learning opportunities, I believe we instead should make this program universal and fully funded. So I'm voting no on behalf of all of those young children. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mahalo Ho'omalu 'ōlelo. Ke kū nei au me ke kako'o 'ole no ka mea au he pila hewa kēia. O wao no e hele ke kula maka makahiki e ha o wā o ka mea. Nui nō kēia pila. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition because this is a wrongful bill. I attended school at the age of four. There are problems/issues in this bill. I am requesting to have the words of my colleague who spoke before me entered into the House Journal as if they are my thought. Thank you.

The Chair addressed Representative Brower, stating:

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker I would just like to say that I am in support. Mai ka na'au. Mai ka na'au."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. And I think what the previous speaker was, not the one from Waikiki, was saying that it's difficult to be in support of eliminating Junior Kindergarten when we don't have anything in place that's active. It doesn't really make sense economically or strategically."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support and may I make a few remarks? I appreciate the opposition and I know that there is a lot of concern. I myself, if I could declare a conflict, have a young child, two young children, and am very much concerned about our early education, especially in our public school system. However, I would urge Members to look forward on the agenda to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 309-12 and that we do in fact have a plan. I would love to join hands with Members of the other side of the aisle as we do talk about universal and funded early education because that will be an interesting conversation to have. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of this measure. But I want to tie it back again to House Bill 1683, which eliminates Junior Kindergarten. If this measure doesn't make it through Finance and then over to the Senate, and then through their Ways and Means Committee, we then are left with eliminating the Junior Kindergarten Program. I'm sorry the two weren't tied together. In other words, Junior K stays alive unless the funding is appropriated and the Early Learning Council and the Early Childhood Coordinator are able to be funded and be able to up the new Early Childhood Education System.

"I don't want to see a gap, Mr. Speaker. I don't think that's good for our children. We'd have one age level going through that would be significantly behind the rest of the students going ahead of them and coming behind them. And that can create a lot of difficulties. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. I think that we have roads that are so congested, especially those heading to the Leeward side. And yes, someone may argue that this will impact those who can't afford the toll road. But I think when we have toll roads it would benefit everyone. Because those that can afford to pay will use it, and there will be more space for those that cannot. We have to face the fact that we will never have enough money to build another freeway. We will not have enough federal funding to build a new freeway. Toll roads are something that have been adopted by the 49 other states to solve the congestion problem.

"We cannot be locked in with just thinking that there is discrimination here. There is no discrimination Mr. Speaker, because we will all stand to benefit from it. We may not all be able to go in the fast lane, but we have to look at the bigger picture. We need more roads. That's the bottom line. So let's allow those people who need to be where they want to be in the fastest time period, or the shortest time period, let's let them have this option. Do I need to be at the airport in five minutes? Or we'll all be stuck in bumper-to-bumper traffic for 45 minutes.

"There is a use for toll roads, and there is more than one reason we should have toll roads. So with those reasons, I would like my colleagues to consider and move this measure forward. Our population is growing, but there's no way we can stop or do anything about that. Yet our funding for more freeways or highways doesn't move along with the population growth. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Just very quickly, in terms of my actual reason for opposition which is the bigger picture. In the bigger picture, you know one of the number one stress people talk about is the frustration with current traffic situation. Toll roads are just going to make it worse.

"But what I'm concerned about is that we are nickel and diming our people consistently. I don't think that that makes a place attractive. Aloha spirit. Just because 49 other states do it, doesn't mean that Hawaii has to be that way because we're different. We're not like the 49 other states. So I just think that in terms of the number of reasons, we haven't yet explored more healthy alternatives, better alternatives to our traffic situation. In the big picture I think it's a bad idea. And I'd like to submit additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 2153, which authorizes the Director of Transportation to impose toll charges on existing highways or construct new toll roads. This bill provides for an agreement with private entities to construct, operate, and maintain toll roads, as well as prohibits toll roads where there is no alternative route available for use without a toll being charged.

"This bill most likely will exacerbate our traffic situation causing congestion and frustration to our residents and will also increase the cost of living for our residents as Hawaii consumers already pay inflated prices. This bill will physically restrict those residents that are unable to afford the toll charges using the highway, a route that may be of convenience, and consequently may cause these restricted residents to detour and expend more on gas or mileage when using alternative routes.

"Our goal is to protect our residents and a toll fee will increase the cost of living and prevent our residents from having transportation choices. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, very much. I wish to speak in favor of this measure. I believe this is not the first time this has come before this Body here. I think now more than ever we need to look at alternatives for financing our highways. It's a little early yet, but I suspect that the federal Highway Fund, when it finally gets to Hawaii will be less than what we have had in the past. And even without the Highway Fund being passed by Congress and being cut dramatically, which it will be. Because of the high cost of energy, we've been buying smaller cars and electric cars. Our fuel usage and our taxes have been diminishing. What that means is that our share from the Federal Highway Act is also going to be diminishing.

"This bill just merely gives DOT an option; an option to determine whether they can use it, or whether they can find someone to partner with, or to do it themselves. And of course we've all heard and we've all seen the recent polls where the need for rail has dropped tremendously. There could be also a change in the Administration and they could take a whole different tack. So you're going to lose, or you may lose potentially that mode of transportation. It was intended to lessen the traffic impact from the West to the East. With all of this in mind Mr. Speaker, I think we should look at this objectively as a tool we may use in the future.

"It doesn't mandate it. It's just a tool for the Department of Transportation, and the people of Hawaii. It will be many years before a toll road could go into effect. It needs to go through rules. And it needs to go through the Legislature first. So there's a lot of protection before it can go like this. But Hawaii is very dense. The highways can hardly bear it. There is a tremendous traffic problem, from the West to the East especially. So we need to be mindful of this, and I can speak further on this when we move on with this bill. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, the other day we had a briefing by the Office of Budget and Finance, and we saw the graphs. We saw the charts. We saw where the graphs and the arrows crossed, and they said, 'Guys, if we don't do something about this we're going to have up to 48% percent of our budget just going to retirees for the EUTF.' Now, is this the way to do it? I'm not sure.

"And what I want to end with is a quote from the Attorney General's Office. He said that, 'Giving the decision-making authority over amounts of the contributions to an arbitration panel thus removing legislative oversight and involvement poses significant risks.' So Mr. Speaker, as long as we've got our eyes open and we know that when the charts go up and those lines cross, and we go bust. We have to remember we're not Greece. We're still Hawaii. You have to plan for the future. This is one we have to watch cautiously. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. There has always been a kind of tension between the constitutional right to collectively bargain, and the provisions that we currently have about the EUTF contributions. There is no impasse procedure for resolving differences between the exclusive representatives and the employers. I would just submit that we don't really have anything to fear.

"The way the impasse procedures work for all the other benefits is that you have a panel of arbitrators, which essentially amounts to a panel of judges or private judges. One of them is picked by the exclusive representative, and one of them is picked by the employer. They then pick a third off of a list from the American Arbitration Association. Well the American Arbitration Association is exactly what the private sector actors use all the time to resolve disputes, and I don't think there's any question. The AAA strives to be fair and honest in their dealings, and if they weren't, no one would use them. So I think that the fears that have been raised about the fiscal catastrophe that would happen if we used a fair arbitrator to decide these EUTF issues, are overblown."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I'd like to say a little bit about this, with reservations if you don't mind. It's just that when an unfunded liability becomes such a crisis situation, an emergency situation, I think it steps on management rights. At a certain point or another, management must take a leadership role, so therefore I'm voting with reservations."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support still. I would just point out that the retirement benefits are of course, set in statute. The only part that's bargained for is for those active employees. So for the retirement benefits, we pretty much only have ourselves to blame. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with strong reservations. Yes, Mr. Speaker. This is a 50% increase in a birth certificate, death certificate, etc. It seems untimely and unfair, particularly if you're Hawaiian or part Hawaiian. And you know that the Hawaiian roll is coming up and there's 120,000 Hawaiians who are going to have to buy one of these. From the $10, it goes to $15. Either this is something that they should be exempted from, or this is untimely or targeted them. I know in one of our hearings it was said to be that this is the new Hawaiian Poll Tax. Because in order to vote in the Hawaiian Roll, you need to show and prove that you are Hawaiian. So this looks a little fishy."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In keeping with that fee increase, this is a no vote. Mr. Speaker, this is a really big increase, from $60 to $100 to get married. Statistically, marriage is getting less and less accomplished or done, and this fee obviously is not going to increase the incentive to get married when in effect, it goes from $60 to $100.

"Why has this gone up? Some of us suspect that a fee by any other name, is a tax. Are we trying to really save, Mr. Speaker? As we said, there's no tax increases in this session. There are no reasons to go in new programs. Yet we're feeing people to death as if it was a tax? Is a spade a spade? This is a little bit too high, and that's why I'm voting no."

"Mr. Speaker. In support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know, so many destinations, particularly tourist destinations are much more lenient with rules regarding dogs. In fact, I remember a few of destinations, to give you one extreme perhaps, some are five-star restaurants with the white table cloths, and dogs are allowed. And they just sit right underneath the table, in France. Now that's one extreme. The other extreme is when you can't bring a dog so much on a lanai in Hawaii.

"To me, we have a large per capita dog ownership in Hawaii, and it's a lifestyle thing we have numerous studies all the way down. Every single study says dogs are good for you. They elongate your life. This is true. And you know, I think that it's a good thing that man's best friend be allowed on a lanai or something like that. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. The tragedy of people losing their homes in foreclosures has been an ongoing tragedy for so long now. For several years, and it's really been exacerbated by the criminal intent. These people come along to vulnerable people who are desperate to try to save their home. These shysters come into town and they say, 'I can help you. Give me some money up front, and I will help you modify your loan. And I will help you modify your loan; I will help you do something. Don't worry. Don't make your mortgage payments. I'll take care of it.' And when they come and yell at you and say that you have to start paying, they say, 'Don't worry. That's all part of the plan.'"

"Many people have been drawn down the line into this fraud, and by the time anything is found, these guys have gone back to the mainland or wherever they are. There are also people in this State. So it is a problem. I have spoken with the FBI about it in between the Session, and they mentioned that it is a concern. There are undergoing investigations. My only concern with this is that maybe there's not enough money, or if there's no fines collected, how DCCA will promote or advertise to let people know about the dangers of these frauds. That would be the concern that I hope can get fixed along the way. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this is reminiscent of the Great Depression and FDR's Civilian Conservation Corps. If you remember, that's how the masses were put into work, particularly young people. And it was a good carryover, but it's a little anachronistic. Out of time, out of sync. We are the lowest or second lowest unemployment in the nation, and how this fits in, I'm not sure.

"And secondly can we afford $2 million now when the Unemployment Fund is at 75% of benefits, and going lower. I think Mr. Speaker, the next Committee should wait until March 15 when the Council on Revenues meets, and the Council on Revenues will say on March 15, 'Hey there's black ink coming,' or 'There's red ink persisting,' before we would move together on something such as this Great Depression measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support. Strongest support. You know, just last week we had five more vessels go up on the rocks on Maui. And while the owners were able to get four of them out, one of them is on the rocks right now. It's a commercial one, and so this bill is really needed. And of course there's still the issue of the boat that has been sitting six years on the reef, called The Dolphin, which is turning into an oblique memorial to government efficiency in its finest. So I humbly ask the Finance Committee, please, expedite this measure to the Senate. Thank you, very much."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. This measure is important to the host community as it shows the Legislature's support for the Hawaiian language which is one of our State's recognized languages. Testimony provided in the Education Committee hearing was quite compelling. Native Hawaiian immersion language tests are being formulated by English speaking individuals from the mainland. HB1986 would provide Hawaiian language immersion students with testing methods conducive to those of English language students.

"The Native American immersion programs on the mainland have been successful in using the Native Hawaiian immersion methodologies for their testing, yet the Department of Education has not adequately addressed the Native Hawaiian immersion language when testing Hawaii students. Why is the Native Hawaiian language template for testing successful with the Native American immersion language testing, but not the Native Hawaiian language template in Hawaii with Native Hawaiian immersion students?

"Mr. Speaker, students in the Native Hawaiian Immersion Language Programs need to be given an equal footing as English speaking programs. This measure is a step in the right direction. For these reasons, I stand in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1986, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAM," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives C. Lee and M. Lee being excused.

SCHOOLS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives C. Lee and M. Lee being excused.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations for the same reason."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2711. While I do support the intent of this measure, it appears potentially unnecessary because it duplicates already existing minimum wage and labor laws. Testimony received in the House Labor and Public Employment Committee indicated that currently, contractors awarded public contracts are already required to comply with HRS 104, Hawaii's version of the Davis Bacon Law. I fully support fair compensation standards for employees, but I fear that in lowering the threshold, the scope of projects under the jurisdiction of this bill may eventually encompass all public contracts. That would be a cumbersome burden on Hawaii's building industry at a time when these and other industries are struggling economically."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2711, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A LIVING WAGE FOR WORKERS ON SERVICE CONTRACTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives C. Representative Marumoto rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a potential conflict. I am a recipient of Part B reimbursements," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Marumoto continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'd like to speak on this bill with reservations. I think I have some institutional memory, and you can probably correct me if I'm wrong, but it seemed to me that there was some sort of trade-off when the State decided to encourage the retirees to go onto Medicare when they retired. I think the State figured they could save money this way because offering reimbursements to the retirees would be cheaper than purchasing health benefits for the employee and maybe a spouse also.

"If things have changed, I'd like to be corrected. But apparently there was testimony by the HGEA that said this bill could actually have the EUTF pay more in premiums. It appears that fewer retirees will obtain Medicare because then they have to pay the premiums. While the State may believe it is saving by declining to pay reimbursements, it is actually requiring the retirees to pay the premium, a higher premium. Because under the HMSA 90/10 PPO Plan, a higher overall premium is charged for non-Medicare retirees. We need some more education on this particular bill. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. First I'd like to incorporate the words of the previous speaker as if they were my own. And validate what she said. Absolutely, she is correct. Years ago, we used to require our employees to pay for a portion of their medical insurance with the commitment and promise that once they retire, we would cover them 100%. Now as medical costs have increased, we cut a deal with them and said, 'You know, the federal government will pay for your medical insurance if you go into Medicare, and we will pay for that premium.' We did it, with the understanding and obligation that we would pay for that federal Medicare premium.

"Now everything's all changed, and what I don't understand is State employees and county employees are getting bit on both sides. We now require a 50-50 match while working, and then we extended out the requirement to get 100% coverage upon retirement. And now we're saying that we're going to eliminate the Part B Medicare Premium Refund to the retirees. I say we take a look at the entire process and figure out once and for all whether we're going to cover our employees, just like we mandate the private sector. In other words, maybe while working, all our medical should be free, because after we retire, we're just like the private sector. We're on our own. Or we don't cover our employees while working. We do what we do now with the commitment that after they retire, we cover them. But we can't not cover them while working, and not cover them after they retire. It's just nonsensical. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just a couple of points on this bill. First of all, it only applies to people who were hired after June 30, 2012. So no one who is in the system has anything taken away. And those who are hired afterwards will know that that's the deal they're looking at.

"With regard to the current system being cheaper than what it would be if we adopted this bill. Well the history of it is that we used to just supply our retirees with a healthcare plan that was our own healthcare plan. So somewhere along the line someone realized that, Medicare will provide the same thing at a lot cheaper price because it's much closer to being a single payer system. And what we do now is just provide a secondary policy to cover the gap between what Medicare covers and complete coverage.

"So yes, if what we were replacing Medicare with was our own policy, it would be more expensive. But that's not what we're suggesting. That's not what's suggested in this bill. In this bill we're just saying, if you want the secondary coverage, what is essentially a Medi-gap policy, you have to pay your own Medicare Part B premium. And it does save the State significant amounts of money. If it went into effect this year, I think the number is $46 million. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well you know, it's Happy Valentine's Day to everyone in the Chamber. It is the day that the unique product from Hawaii is going to be consumed. So as we do realize that actually we will consume in this nation alone, on this month, on this day, $345 million in sales, are now going on. Around the world, it's a $75 billion industry. In Japan, maybe we should do this in Hawaii, you give chocolate to every man in your life. Women you give it to every man in their life. You don't just give it to your husband, uncle, father, that's true. And then there's another holiday later in the year for men to give to women.

"But I'm just listing, MSN today, sent 10 reasons to eat your dark chocolate: No. 1, you live longer. Harvard studies say we'll live longer, it lowers blood pressure, it improves vision, it raises good cholesterol, it decreases stroke risk, it prevents heart disease, it fights free radicals, it prevents cancer, and I think I mentioned, it's a mood booster. So go buy it, but if you do, buy Hawaiian."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, this is also a day of not only affection, but also goodwill. And on behalf of the Minority, I want to wish the Majority, Mr. Speaker, and all of you for a good Session between now and May. And may it be a sweet one. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 384-12, relating to House Bill No. 1883. Mr. Speaker, just a real brief comment. I understand the intent of trying to make sure that people don't get charged increased fees, however the fees are spread out through all the association for every homeowner. Sometimes if some individuals don't pay and the rest of the people pay for those charges and fees, they get spread out and it'll actually require others to pay more. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I would like to explain the intent of this measure. It's just to make sure that the late fees for any arrears in association fees to be not more than 10%, if the arrear is less than 30 days.

"The average association fees for the State of Hawaii are from $500 to $700. There are some associations that charge up to 40% in late fees after the 10th of the month. So this prohibition of not more than 10% applies if you didn't pay your fees anywhere from the 11th day to the 30th day.

"So after the 31st day, if you didn't pay your association fees, those associations still have the leverage to charge whatever the percentile they might want. But it's just for late fees anywhere from the 11th until the 30th day. And asking the association to not extend it more than 10%, I think is reasonable, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

I just want to monitor this as it goes through the Legislature."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to register a no vote and make a few brief remarks. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My opposition to this measure is based upon the testimony of the Department of Land and Natural Resources and the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, and I would like to point out to you, as well as to the rest of this Body, their testimony which in particular identifies this legislation as unnecessary. The Department of Land and Natural Resources is opposed to this bill because statute and administrative rules already exist to prohibit hunting on private lands without the permission of the land owner and because the measure would prohibit the legitimate use of firearms for natural resource protection and public safety.

"Also I would like to point out that in the Office of Hawaiian Affairs testimony that this measure is particularly anti-Hawaiian and anti-cultural practitioners where it says that although the Constitution broadly protects these activities, cultural subsistence hunting for example, practitioners in the field could still experience a chilling effect by this measure. For those reasons Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1950, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives Belatti, C. Lee, M. Lee and Tokioka being excused.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Just some real brief comments. I would first like to thank the Chair of Water, Land and the Vice-Chair for their work on this measure. I believe this is one of those 'enigma key' bills that you'll be seeing which we can do economic stimulation and revitalization through incentives that are fiscally responsible and prudent.

"So again, I'm very happy with the work they've done to make this a fiscally responsible measure, but at the same time it will have benefits not only protecting our historical structures, but also stimulating the construction and remodeling industry as well. Thank you, again."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Just in support. I echo the words of Representative of Maui and ask that they be entered as my own. And I ask for additional written comments."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill. This bill is in line with tax credits offered by other States that showcase their history, such as Savannah, Georgia, Historic Charleston, South Carolina and the Gas Light District of San Diego, California - these communities recognize the need to support the mission of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and they see their efforts translated to tourism dollars.

"1) Historic homes contribute to unique since of place that Hawaii offers visitors from the mainland United States and around the world. These homeowners have maintained their homes with pride. Grass roots efforts like Manoa o Malama have provided models for other grass roots organizations to be formed that are authentic to Hawaii and our heritage. Our Heritage includes monarchy that traveled to Europe to provide the finest examples of building techniques to the people of Hawaii.

"2) Missionaries who shipped homes from the East Coast of the mainland United States when the United States was still struggling for its own identity and Hawaii was serving the Pacific as a center for education of future political leaders who went on to change the world.

"3) Our Heritage reflects self studies of architecture in Europe by David Kalakaua that are reflected in the architecture of the Historic Post Office Downtown and the Judiciary Building across the street.

"4) Beautiful Japanese Temples, such as the Liliha Shingon and Sanju Pagoda reflect the multicultural heritage of the islands.

"5) Homes in the Historic Nuʻuanu Valley have been preserved by family members and passed down by generations. These homes are in danger of being lost forever if the descendants of the original families do not have some incentive for keeping the homes in pristine condition. The Philippine Consulate is a perfect example of homes that once stood in areas of the islands that are gone however and can never be replaced. Other grand homes are now symbols of Hawaii's ability to host other nations and the people who represent them as well as serve as presidents for universities. If smaller home are allowed to be torn down and replaced with less historic structures the overall beauty of the neighborhood is gone and the values of all the homes will be lost.

"6) Historic Hawaii Foundation offers support and guidance for these home owners and have done so with the help of volunteers and dedicated board members who continue to support the quality of life of our friends on the Neighbor Islands who may not have the means to maintain a home that was owned by their plantation working grandparents, but remain in the homes. Offering them incentives for maintaining Hawaii's unique history of immigration will help the world understand the success and failures of a Hawaii that helped to provide better lives for immigrants seeking a better life.

"Thank you."

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1688, HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to cast a no vote on this. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, what this is going to do is to mandatorily increase the minimum insurance required for motorists. I think we have one of the highest percentages of uninsured drivers on the road. I don't think this is going to help that situation. More people will just not be able to afford that increased premium and so they'll drive uninsured. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. How can a gecko and somebody named Flo offer 40% discounts when in effect, it's the same. We've got to increase your insurance when they're giving all these discounted rates. It just doesn't make sense. The people of Hawaii hear what's going on and then they see this bill. It's not going to mesh with the cost of living that's rising in all sections of the community. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I would just point out that the minimum amount of insurance that is required to drive a vehicle hasn't been raised in a very long time. I don't know how long, but if you are hit by somebody else and it's their fault, and you end up in the hospital, even if they are covered with the minimum amount, $20,000 dollars, I think is the minimum right now, which gets you through a day and a half in the hospital. So, it's always prudent to have plenty of underinsured and uninsured coverage on your own policy.

"But when the limits are so low, that even if it's shown to be the other person's fault they can only cover damage for a few hours or a day or two, at some point you have to accept the fact that there's inflation and that you have to raise the minimums every once in a while. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I will vote with reservations. I just would like to point out that if you wish to purchase more insurance and have more coverage, you're always able to do so. Thank you."

"Ho'omalu 'ōlelo, Ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this measure is an Administration bill that is supposed to do mapping for the broadband initiative. The purpose of this is to get the best information so that we can compete for competitive federal grants. Currently, the way it's drafted is by tax map key and I think that's where the providers have problems. It is the goal, I think, of this Body to provide a competitive edge so that the State can acquire this type of federal grant. We are willing to, and we are going to be working with the providers going forward. We're going to work on compromises that are workable for them, so I urge my colleagues to support this measure going forward. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1813, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to vote no on this measure, and I'd like to explain why. Mr. Speaker, something is going on here which is not quite out in the open. But it seems as if the purpose is to fast-track any county or State project and avoid the environmental laws that have protected our resources for so many years. This bill, No. 1813, will say that any capital improvement project within a special management area, that's your shoreline basically, that's funded even partially by State or county funds and located on the State or county lands is exempt from getting a special management area, either minor permit or a major permit.

"So it gets fast-tracked, and tying along with it also is House Bill 1893, which was re-referred just to Finance, avoiding the environmental Committee and the Water Land Committee. That one exempts these same projects from Chapter 343, the Environmental Impact Statement chapter. So Mr. Speaker, we have the environmental protections totally scrapped away, removed, for any State or county project.

"I don't understand how this is protecting our natural resources for today or for future generations, because under these two measures, they just get a fast-track approval and make them go ahead. So I am resoundingly 'no' on House Bill 1813, and I'm equally opposed to just the single Committee Referral to Finance for House Bill 1893 which is the companion bill, and that bill should have gone to Energy and Environmental Protection, and Water Land, but did not. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. There is something going on this year that is very alarming. I share the same concerns with the Representative from Kailua. The environmental laws have long been important to the State of Hawaii. It's an important part of our Constitution. And to exempt government while requiring it for everyone else on its face is questionable. Because if there is a potential for an environmental impact, then it should be reviewed. If these laws are inconvenient and are getting in the way of people making money, then maybe the laws themselves should be repealed entirely. Exempting the State because, for some reason, we believe the State's going to be good on environmental matters, no matter what, I don't quite have that much trust in our State. So please note my opposition to this and the bills previously noted. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition, and if I could make a few remarks. In addition to the concerns about the environment and the fast-tracking of these types of measures, I would also point to the testimony of the Office of Planning, which identifies that the SMAs are counties issues. Also in the Office of Planning's testimony that this bill could potentially jeopardize federal support of the Hawaii Coastal Zone Management Program, and in turn that the State may lose approximately $2 million of federal funds annually. What this translates to according to the Office of Planning, is the loss of federal funding for nine positions at the Office of Planning, six positions at the Planning Department for Hawaii County, four positions at the Planning Department of Kauai County, and four positions at the Planning Department of Maui County. It seems to me that we would be gutting the very agencies that are there to protect and preserve our resources. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ho'omalu 'ōlelo, Ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations.

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with brief comments. Thank you. What's interesting is that the Office of Planning is really working on procedures to basically ensure that State and counties don't have to go through the Shoreline Management, SMA process, which is really duplicative of the EA and EIS process. So in many ways this bill is addressing this duplication and the Office of Planning is right now working to ensure the coastal management process will continue without any problems. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I please just respond to that. I would just like to note that Life of the Land, which is one of our environmental watchdogs, they're talking about this measure. They're saying that, 'House Bill 1813 is yet another attempt to carve away at protections in order to ram through projects that have Administrative support.'

'Life of the Land continues, 'Sensitive coastal areas deserve the extra layer of protection as codified in the Special Management Area review process and the Coastal Zone Management Program. It is irresponsible to look at economic issues without looking simultaneously at environmental issues.' And they conclude, 'We should be looking for win-win scenarios.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1813, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREAS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Ching, Riviere, Thielen and Wooley voting no, and with Representatives Belatti, C. Lee, M. Lee and Tokioka being excused.

"Ho'omalu 'ōlelo, Ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations.

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2154, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREA USE PERMITS," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Ching, Riviere and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Belatti, C. Lee, M. Lee and Tokioka being excused.

Representatives Chang and Coffman, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 406-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2523, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2523, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is the cable bill, the interisland cable bill, and I'm rising to speak against it, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. The bill is supposedly just putting together a regulatory framework for an interisland cable. It's saying, 'Trust us. All we're doing is the regulatory framework. It has nothing to do with the Island of Lanai and the wind farm. It has nothing to do with Molokai and the wind farm. This is just a regulatory system.'

"Mr. Speaker, the ratepayers, all of us here in this room, in this State, are going to bear the cost of this costly project. The money will be recovered by the cable company. Any other cost will be recovered by Hawaiian Electric. I wanted to just note that instead of going ahead with this extremely costly project, we could look in our own backyard. We could look at the wave energy resources that are available, that are out there right now as we're standing in this building that could provide the power that we need on each island, without going through a costly cable system.

"I'd like to have permission to put in a brief summary of the different projects that are available and to put that into the Journal, Mr. Speaker. Thank you.

"And then I would like to just note that for Oahu, we have according to the US Department of Energy's recent report, Oahu has 22 terawatts per year, and it only takes 7.7 terawatts per year to power Oahu. So instead of setting up a regulatory system for an interisland cable, I question why the Administration and this is an Admin bill, why the Administration isn't looking in our own backyard, and saying that we have the resources that we need for each island. We have the companies, some of whom are home-based right on Oahu, that can tap into that energy. And why isn't the Administration, and this Body moving ahead to develop those resources instead of setting a framework for an intensely expensive interisland cable on top of the intensely expensive fixed-rail system. I mean how much can our residents pay? Thank you."

Representative Thielen submitted the following:

"OCEANLINX"

- Oceanlinx's core patented technology is an Oscillating Water Column (OWC) device, based on the established science of wave energy
- Turbine Technology: airwave turbine developed by Oceanlinx; Turbine significantly more efficient at converting the energy in the OWC airflow into electricity
- AirWAVE turbine, which is located above water improving reliability and providing easy access for maintenance and repair
- The technology has been successfully constructed and tested since 2005, with the first Oceanlinx wave plant installed at Port Kembla in NSW, Australia.
- An individual production-sized plate is designed to produce a nominal capacity of up to 600-800 kW of electrical power depending on the site
- WaveRoller has the ability to generate energy on a wider spectrum of wave conditions compared to existing wave energy solutions; WaveRoller is well suited for locations where wave periods are long and the swell is strong

WAVE ROLLER

- A WaveRoller device is a plate anchored on the sea bottom at its base; back and forth movement of the tidal surge moves the plate, transferring the kinetic energy created to a piston pump
- AW-Energy has developed and patented the WaveRoller technology

LIMPET

- Limpet is a shoreline energy converter sited on the island of Islay, off Scotland's west coast
- Current Limpet device (Limpet 500) was installed in 2000 and produces power for the national grid
- Limpet uses the principle of an oscillating water column
- Limpet is a shoreline unit and ideally placed to generate electricity in areas exposed to strong wave energy

AQUAMARINE POWER

Aquamarine Power has engineered its Oyster technology to use the world's wave energy resource. Our research and development team are continually working to refine the design of Oyster.

- Aquamarine Power's Oyster wave power technology captures energy in nearshore waves and converts it into clean sustainable electricity.
- Oyster is a wave-powered pump which pushes high pressure water to drive an onshore hydro-electric turbine
- Oyster wave power device is a buoyant, hinged flap which is attached to the seabed at depths of between 10 and 15 metres, around half a kilometer from the shore.
- Oyster's hinged flap, which is almost entirely underwater, pitches backwards and forwards in near shore waves. The movement of flap drives two hydraulic pistons which push high pressure water onshore via a subsea pipeline to drive a conventional hydroelectric turbine
- In the future, subsea pipelines will connect multiple Oyster wave energy devices to a single onshore plant. Ultimately Oyster will be installed in wave farms of several hundred connected devices generating hundreds of megawatts of electricity
- Aquamarine Power has conducted over five years of rigorous testing of the Oyster concept at 25th and 40th scale in the wave tank at Queen's University, Belfast; In 2009, Aquamarine Power commenced sea trials of its first full-scale Oyster prototype (Oyster 1) and demonstrated its feasibility by delivering over 6,000 operating hours.
- Aquamarine Power has now commenced its second Oyster wave power project which will consist of three Oyster wave energy devices installed at sea in a configuration known as an array.
- Aquamarine Power will install its next-generation Oyster 800 wave energy device at Billa Croo in Orkney (Scotland, UK) this summer and plan to install two further Oyster devices in the same location in 2012 and 2013.

WAVE HUBDescription:

- Wave Hub consists of an electrical hub on the seabed 16 kilometres off the coast of Cornwall, South West England to which wave energy devices can be connected.
- Wave Hub is a 12-tonne hub is linked to the UK's grid network via a 25km, 1300 tonne subsea cable operating at 11kV.
- The project holds a 25-year lease for eight square kilometers of sea. Wave Hub has the necessary consents and permits for up to 20MW of wave energy generation and offers a clearly defined and fully monitored site for marine energy production.
- Four separate berths are available to lease, each with a capacity of 4-5MW.
- Wave Hub can be upgraded for up to 50MW of generating capacity in the future when suitable components for operating the cable at 33kV have been developed.
- Wave Hub is completed by the Peninsula Research Institute for Marine Renewable Energy.
- Wave Hub has been funded by the South West Regional Development Agency (RDA), the European Regional Development Fund Convergence Programme for Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly and the UK government.

Location: South West England

Commercial Stage of Technology:

- Wave Hub is involved with an offshore marine energy project in Cornwall, which allows developers to test new wave energy technology.
- The energy project has been taken on by the UK's Government and demonstrates the government's commitment to making wave energy a vital part of UK's green energy sources.
- The Department of Business Innovation and Skills (BIS) has taken over ownership of the Wave Hub from the RDA on January 1, 2012.
- The BIS has set up a stand-alone operating company called Wave Hub Limited, which will be based in Hayle, Cornwall. This arrangement will allow the project to build on the operational plans already put in place by the RDA.

OCEAN ENERGY

- OE Buoy has been deployed in Atlantic waves and has demonstrated the ability to generate power and survive the rigors of the ocean
- The OE Buoy has been designed around the oscillating water column principle.
- To ensure survivability the platform has only a single moving part.
- OceanEnergy's OE Buoy is a wave power generation platform which is designed for survivability
- The result of 7 years of research and development is that the OE Buoy has only a single moving part and has just completed over 2 years of rigorous testing in Atlantic waves
- Storms in Atlantic waves have confirmed the survivability of the OE Buoy as a power generation platform in the most extreme conditions

WAVEGENBreakwater Development

- Wavegen has developed small power takeoff modules for incorporating into breakwaters, coastal defenses, land reclamation schemes and harbor walls
- The 18.5kW power modules consist of a Wells turbine, valve and noise attenuator.
- Complete modules weigh less than a tone so installation or removal is easily achievable using a small mobile crane
- Modules are very simple and rugged: the blades are fixed onto the rotor, have no pitching mechanism, no gearbox and have no contact with seawater
- Wavgen is currently in discussion with a number of European port authorities interested in installing this technology

OCEANITOceanit working on a Kinetic Ocean Current Energy Generator:

- Oceanit is currently looking at capturing the kinetic energy swirling around the ocean.
- System converts kinetic energy from ocean currents (wave-induced) motion using a specially designed underwater array of rotors
- System allows for energy generation in a variety of coastal environments—to power remote villages, moored/drifted buoys, hydrophones, remote sensors, etc.
- 1 kW can be produced by two 20ft x 5ft diameter rotors
- Not suitable for extreme wave action
- Oceanit is looking for funding to scale up the system and want to talk to end customers before moving to a commercialization phase

Department of Energy (DOE) Report

The U.S. Department of Energy's newly released "Mapping and Assessment of the United States Ocean Wave Energy Resource" shows Hawaii's wave energy was significantly underestimated. The updated assessment shows Hawaii's wave energy resource is 130TWh/yr according to DOE. The following is a breakdown of Hawaii's wave energy resource potential regarding the major Hawaiian Islands:

1. Kauai 21 TWh per year
2. Oahu 22 TWh per year
3. Molokai 22 TWh per year
4. Maui 16 TWh per year
5. Hawaii 35 TWh per year

The DOE's report demonstrates Hawaii's wave energy is a viable resource that can supply a significant amount of renewable energy on each island. Hawaii's wave energy could be a positive investment that could move Hawaii's energy supply away from petroleum, create new jobs, and decrease our State's greenhouse gas emissions."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, and Members. I speak very strongly in favor of this measure. First of all I want to thank the Chairmen of Energy, and of Water Land, for passing this very important measure. Providing a regulatory system is the first step in connecting the whole State together in a transmission system, not only for now, but for the future. For the future when we can look at geothermal from the Big Island which can be transported right across the State. We can look at areas where it's quite desolate like on Lanai, where we can have wind farms, and could transport their energy to Oahu. You won't have to build additional generation and power plants. All of this can be a plus. And this is the first step.

"We have no idea what the cost is going to be, and there will be costs as it goes along. But this cost is going to be shared by many parties besides the consumer. And we can look at this as, if it is on Lanai, the people of Lanai will benefit by having their rates lowered to the same rates as Oahu. That will be a tremendous benefit for the people of Lanai who now have the highest rates in the nation. So again, I thank the Chairmen and I hope the Chair of Finance and the Members will see fit in passing this measure through. It's a very important measure. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. The learned gentleman from Maui speaks the truth. The measure is needed, but the mechanics, I feel, are really suspect, Mr. Speaker. On page 15 for example, line 5 and 6 says an electrical utility company shall be entitled to recover through an automatic rate adjustment clause, its revenue requirements. That sounds like the fuel surcharge, which is now bigger than the cost of generating electricity.

"This sounds a little bit like the cost of electricity is going to be totally uncontrollable, and I would suggest, Mr. Speaker, because there's an actual technician that's coming on to the Public Utilities Commission, a guy who's actually worked in one, he knows the mechanics, because everything that Hawaiian Electric says, we don't have anyone competent to say that, that's not the case.

"So I think where we're at now is a little bit faster than we should be, but what otherwise is a huge project. This is equivalent to a train from here to Kapolei. It's got to be thoroughly vetted, thoroughly understood and fully transparent. But I just know from that one sentence, that scares the daylight out of me. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also will be voting with reservations, and just would like to point out that my understanding is that the ratepayers of Oahu will be underwriting the total cost of this capital project, not the ratepayers on the Island of Lanai nor Molokai. It would be solely Oahu. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I have several concerns on this, one of which is that I'm not aware that any island is producing so much electricity that they have enough to export. The call that this bill is necessary now, I would argue, is completely incorrect. It's too early. We don't have the generation to bring. There are certain islands that are just mortified at the possibility of being turned in to wind farms so that people on other islands can open their electric garage doors. I would suggest if this bill does proceed and make it out the other end, that maybe it exclude the smallest islands which do not have much need for demand.

"The purpose for an interisland smart grid would be to stabilize the power, and to provide continuous power back and forth both ways. The way that Oahu is such a huge consumer of power, I don't see how it could be perceived as working both ways providing backup power in both directions.

"And lastly I would say that this has the potential to be a very expensive boondoggle and I would wonder if today were we posed with the question, shall this Body allow a general excise tax increase for a rail system? I wonder how that vote would go today. So I ask that you keep that in mind now. What we do now may set in force some very expensive futures. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Ho'omalu 'ōleo. Ke kū nei au me ke kako'o 'ole. Aia i hea nā leo no na po'e? He pila hewa kēia. 'O ka mana'o i loko 'o kēia pila e ho'okae ka 'āina, ke kai, nā mea kanu like 'ole a me nā mea like 'ole. 'Ā'ohe pono kēia mana'o. 'O kēia pila e kokua na po'e anunu a me ka hui 'ai kala. Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Where are the people voices? This is a wrongful bill. The concept of this bill desecrates the land, the sea, the plants and everything on earth. This is not the right concept. This bill helps the greedy money society. It doesn't help the sustainable everyday people, the real people. We must remember Queen Lili'uokalani's story – Kaulana Nā pua, Famous are the generations to come. The line in the song, "We are satisfied in being sustainable in the caring loving relationship of our lands." Blessings and peace to all of us. Warmest aloha.

It doesn't help the sustainable everyday people, the real people. We must remember Queen Lili'uokalani's song, Kau Hana Nā Pua, Famous are the Generation to Come. The line in the song, "We are satisfied in being sustainable in the caring loving relationship of our lands."

"The Chair of Hawaiian Affairs concluded by saying, "Blessing and peace to all of us. Warmest aloha."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. Thank you. And just briefly, I've always voted against this. When we created a Works of Art Special Fund, well when we the Legislature created this, it was 40 years ago, and in fact some of the notable people that worked on this include Pundy Yokouchi from Maui. I remember talking to Pundy and he kind of explained to me why we did it and how important it was. In fact we still are the first jurisdiction in the entire nation to do this.

"I don't like pitting performing arts with visual arts as this bill proposes, and I do know that the Chair of Culture and Arts is struggling right now to find other additional revenues to help the performing arts, but I do believe that this is not the way to go. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, and I just want to make clear that there's nothing in this bill that mandates any change. But one of the challenges for the Foundation on Culture and the Arts is that there are so many amazing performers and performer educators, and they never have the ability to connect with those types of art forms, particularly for our host culture. This bill simply gives them the flexibility to fund those types of art, in addition to our acquisitions or things we can hang up on the wall.

"This law when first passed was certainly something that many other states were envious of. But at this point we're pretty far behind the times when it comes to supporting funds for performing arts. Thank you."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of H.B. 609 - Relating to Health, which provides authorization to assimilate Hawaii Medical Center-East into the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation via appropriated funds.

"We need to strongly support various options for ensuring Hawaii Medical Center-East continues to serve the community. The important idea is to keep this facility in service. We have a large senior population, and it would be a tremendous benefit to have them near their families while in care. As stated in testimony provided by Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, "...18.7% of Hawaii's population is ages 60 or older, and [that], by 2030, 27.4% of the total population is expected to be 60 years or older." This forecast strongly suggests the support needed for our community.

"When our community lost Hawaii Medical Center-East, we lost a piece of history. Let us work toward strengthening our community and write a new history of action by passing HB609. We can address the shortage of long-term care beds, and a formal affiliation with Hawaii Medical Center under Hawaii Health Systems Corporation's governance could be the first step. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members. I wish to speak against this measure. I'm certainly not speaking against the maker of this bill who I believe had very good intentions, that we should put some money aside for this liability. The problem I have with this measure is that for one thing, it's $500 million. I believe that the maker of this bill was merely trying to make a point. He knows that we can't afford to put $500 million there. And I also wish to make a point, that we cannot go overboard on this here.

"I know the Governor's looking for some dollars to put into the special emergency fund, and the Hurricane Fund, and yes we may need to put money in there. But right now the majority of our agencies are running at about 45%, and we continue to not look at that area. When you have a State running at less than 50% capability, you're not providing the quality of services that we should be doing. In fact, most all of the departments are providing, because of the lack of staff, the lack of resources, less than equality in the services that our taxpayers deserve.

"There's another issue here, which is probably even worse, that's going to come about. A measure that provides that 30%, as a constitutional amendment that provides that 30% of the dollars to be set aside in the general fund for the emergency fund.

"Emergencies come about, Members, as we go along. You have to understand that, and we cannot be just putting all the money in there. If you wish to really take care of the emergency fund, rapidly, then raise the excise tax. We raided this fund in the past. We raided the ERS to balance our budget because we didn't want to raise the excise tax. We're all guilty of that. I was guilty of that during my tenure as Speaker, and during this current tenure. We have done that. So we're culpable, in this liability.

"The fairest way to do it, and of course this is not the time to do it, is at some point in time, to raise the excise tax, and have a portion of that excise tax be used to take care of the liability problem. And over a period of years, if you have a certain percentage of the excise tax increase, that would be the best way to do it. Not to put a large sum of money, and at the same time not to fund the agencies and the programs that we have and the position to where they need to be. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. I've spoken a number of times on this, and arguably this is probably one of the worst ideas that a legislature can deal with. But this is only the task force. The other one, HB 2103, goes right to the jugular.

"But I would suggest, rather than we move in haste Mr. Speaker, we look at what the Boston Federal Reserve Board did, ordering a study on what really happened in the 1919 creation of the Bank of North Dakota. They went through five serious points which I mentioned in my last speech, and I won't ask for you to bear that again. But the point is they have done their diligence. We know that the State Bank is going to buy toxic mortgages, and foreclosures. It's simply not going to work. It's going to put taxpayers' money at risk, and it's a dangerous proposition.

"Having said that, may I have more remarks written for the Journal? And I will be making more speeches on this in the future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1840, HD2, which would create a task force to explore the idea of establishing a state bank. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston already did a study in May of 2011 at the request of the State of Massachusetts to figure out if the success of the Bank of North Dakota, which is the driving force behind this piece of legislation, could be replicated. Some of that study's major findings need to be brought to the attention of the House because they are relevant to Hawaii's tax payers.

"The Bank of North Dakota started with $2 million in 1919. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston's study found that it would cost $3.6 billion to start up an equivalent bank today. Does Hawaii even have enough for a down payment? And do we really want to divert taxpayer money away from education, health, sustainability, and other existing programs for an unknown amount of years just to start a speculative venture that doesn't have a sound business plan and lacks any concrete justification?

"The billions of dollars that would be needed by the bank would not be insured by the FDIC. All of the risk would be on the taxpayers. Adding to the danger to taxpayers is the fact that adopting North Dakota's model would leave Gov. Neil Abercrombie and Attorney General David Louie at the helm of the bank, with 76 politicians voting on its budget. The bank and its practices would essentially be under the control of bureaucrats that for the most part don't have any experience running a bank. Politics would end up dictating lending policies and the bank's practices. For example, the state bank is supposed to bail out toxic lenders and make sub-prime mortgages.

"Along politicization leading to bad business practices being carried out, simply establishing a state-owned bank with tax-free status that additionally wouldn't have to deal with federal regulations would be bad for existing local banks because the state bank would serve as unfair competition.

"Lastly, the reasoning that we should establish a state bank on the grounds that it led to North Dakota's successful economy is wrong. The study concluded that the condition of North Dakota's economy was mostly attributable to oil and natural gas extraction rather than anything the state bank could have done.

"State banks have largely been creations of the Third World, in countries where the government has a very strong hand in the economy. When the state bank issue was previously debated on the House Floor, the Central Bank of China was used as an example, with the representative from China Town saying, "Basically everything in China is run by the government." But I don't think the people of Hawaii want to embrace that way of doing things, nor does the government have the capability to run everything.

"Taking advantage of existing programs and agencies is a faster, less costly, and less risky way to address some of the issues that the state bank is supposed to take care of. Getting the state to do something it has no experience doing while putting billions of taxpayer dollars at great risk would be a big mistake.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1840 SD2."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 1840 – Relating to State-Owned Bank. This bill establishes a task force to review, investigate, and study the feasibility and cost of establishing a state-owned bank, which is dilatory to the efforts of current banking institutions. In addition, there is ambiguity of the cost to the State.

"May I echo the words submitted in the testimony by Hawaii Bankers Association, "Hawaii bankers are capable of independently performing [these] services or already obtain [these] services elsewhere ... Any state funds placed with the bank are self insured so the State loses the benefit of collateralization of state deposits." Additionally, the framework of this bill, which is designed around the State Bank of North Dakota, holds the State liable for deposits insured, not the FDIC. Thus, the State takes on the liability in the event of failure. In fact, when the State of Massachusetts considered a similar measure the commission recommended against establishing a state-owned bank.

"This measure would require an unknown amount of State money to establish a bank, let alone a task force to establish a bank. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. First of all, I'd like to thank the Committee Chair and Committee Members for advancing this bill to create a task force, to do a study of whether a state-owned or people-owned bank is appropriate for Hawaii. That's all it is. So I hope that we can keep an open mind in this marketplace of ideas, and continue the discussion. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1840, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE-OWNED BANK," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Ching, Marumoto and Ward voting no, and with Representatives M. Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Hurray, a great ATV safety bill is on the move! HB 2277, introduced by Representative Ichiyama, barreled through the House Transportation Committee, crossed the House Floor unanimously as it passed Second Reading, and arrived in the House Committee on Judiciary intact.

"The bill prohibits minors under 16 from riding ATVs, bans ATVs from public streets, bans passengers and requires helmet use. I pushed similar features in HB Nos. 17 and 18.

"Roadblocks will no doubt arise as this vehicle moves closer to reality, but it is critical that the Legislature establish ATV rules soon because of the growing popularity of this form of recreation. Right now, there are none. The result has been numerous deaths and hundreds of serious injuries including permanent traumatic brain injuries – many among children. Let's keep HB 2277 up to speed!"

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, please. As the Representative for the largest agricultural lands on this Island, and as an area that is overwhelmed by illegal vacation rentals, I see a terrible confluence of action here, where we have illegal vacation rentals taking over fake farms. So we have fake farms, and illegal vacation rentals all coming to a head on the North Shore. So with that, I want to express my reservation, and suggest that should this bill move forward and if it is very desirable for the Neighbor Islands, that maybe there be a limitation that it maybe applies to counties with less than 500,000 people."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against this bill, and I would like to explain why. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2417 is going to limit the availability of the Hawaii Renewable Energy Technologies Income Tax Credit to one credit per property for both residential and commercial. The credit has helped a substantial number of families and businesses to afford the high upfront investment in solar. Without this credit, per system, families and businesses won't be able to afford photovoltaic.

"I'd really like to call this the 'photovoltaic for millionaires only' bill. Because, what it does is it places photovoltaic out of reach of the regular family in our islands. When we had a credit that was $5,000 per system, then the photovoltaic systems became more reasonable, and homeowners could afford to buy them. They still would not recoup or be able to be on the plus side of their expenditure for maybe 6 or 7 years, and they would have to pay the full up-front amount for the photovoltaic system. That made it quite expensive. It's very much going to damage our solar, and industries in Hawaii. And it can set back our efforts to achieve the 70% clean energy by 2030.

"The Sierra Club, for example, testified on this bill that, as we all know, Hawaii depends on oil, imported oil, for nearly 90% of its energy needs. And of course this dependence results in the outflow of money out of the State. Not circulating within the State. It just leaves and goes to foreign countries to pay to bring in that polluting oil. Also, the Solar Energy Industries Association submitted testimony at the hearing and they stated that the tax credits pertaining to each system have created hundreds, if not thousands of jobs for Hawaii's workers. Now these are from electricians, panel installers, sales, marketing professionals, to engineers and accountants. If House Bill 2417 is passed, those jobs are going to be lost, and our solar and photovoltaic industry is going to just plummet and disappear.

"The change envisioned by HB No. 2417 is way too abrupt, and it's going to disrupt the market to a significant degree. According to the State of Hawaii Energy Resource Coordinator's Annual Report by the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, it states, 'By 2010, 4,336 renewable energy systems were installed statewide with a total capacity of 28.7 megawatts.'

"Now go back to 2005, before we had this credit. Only 30 renewable energy systems with a total capacity of 166 kilowatts were installed in 2005. But you fast forward with the credit, to 2010. We have 2,188 systems installed statewide with a capacity of 12.3 megawatts, and that's in 2010 alone.

"What has happened for Hawaii is that we have been ranked second in the nation in installed photovoltaic capacity by 2010 by the Interstate Renewable Energy Council. The tax credits are a very key amount, a very key factor to these photovoltaic systems where you're going to find your homeowner is not going to make that stretch and probably borrow the money to be able to pay for the photovoltaic system if there's only a single tax credit for that tax map key.

"Up till now the companies have worked with the Department of Taxation, and the Department of Taxation said if you need one, two or possibly three systems for that house to achieve your objective of providing the energy for that home, that dwelling, then you get a tax credit per system."

Representative Ward rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"The Department of Taxation and the industry, the photovoltaic industry have been working together on this. No one's pulling a scam. Or if there's one or two scammers, we don't overreact by killing the entire industry."

"Mr. Speaker, in addition to calling this bill, 'photovoltaic for millionaires only,' I'd like to call it the 'Hawaiian Electric windfall bill,' and I really believe what this is doing is stopping our average homeowners from putting in photovoltaic systems. And Hawaiian Electric will cheer all the way to the bank, because it then forces those homeowners to pay the unseemly high utility bills that they now have to pay, because those homeowners won't be able to put in photovoltaic systems."

"We know Hawaiian Electric doesn't like photovoltaic systems and the homeowner being able to go virtually off grid and have an $18 a month bill. So I don't see why we should pander to Hawaiian Electric, and its desire to have profits for its shareholders. And I don't see why we should hurt the average homeowner and leave photovoltaic as an elitist technology available for millionaires. I firmly, firmly, firmly oppose this bill. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. I'd like to first commend the Chair of the Environmental Protection Committee because actually what this bill does is, it levels the playing field. In fact, it gives the middle-income homeowner a chance to put in photovoltaic. The truth of the matter is currently, the way the tax credit is structured, it encourages only the rich people to get PV. It encourages those people who can afford to put a $50 thousand system in because they'll maximize the tax credit at 35%, and get over 15-grand, or whatever it is. $17,500."

"I talked with the Majority Leader last year because we struggled with this, because right now this tax credit is costing our State a lot of money. And the truth is, in order for the solar industry to prosper and to continue for many years, we're going to have to make this change."

"I'll speak personally about this, because I put PV in, for those of you who recall my speech last year, and I did it the way the tax system was structured. I put in a small system, a one-system system as it relates to the Tax Code in 2009. I spent about $15 thousand and took a 35% tax credit. Then I put in another small system in 2010 the way the Tax Code recommends. And I put in my final PV system in 2011. That's what people are supposed to do."

"Now middle-income families are receiving quotes from PV companies saying that they have to spend $50 or $60 thousand. Most of my constituents look at that and say they can't afford it. What this bill will do is it'll downsize those types of estimates for middle-income families, and instead of looking at a $60 thousand system which many people can't afford, they'll look at a $15 thousand system and the cost to the State as far as the tax credit is concerned, is $5 thousand."

"So I think the Representative from Kailua needs to look at it from that perspective, because if we can't make this change, we're going to lose this tax credit. It's costing us too much. What we need to do is we need to encourage these companies out there to downsize their systems so that it's fair and it focuses on the middle-income families. That's how we're going to do it."

"So I agree with her that we need to make PV affordable, and the best way to do it right now is on-bill financing as the Minority Leader has said numerous times. That's the best way to do it. If we can't do that, the very least we can do is to encourage the middle-income families to consider this tax credit and to encourage the industry to refocus their efforts on the middle-income families and not focus their efforts on the millionaires. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, thank you. Mr. Speaker, just in response. What the former speaker did is what is now going to be prevented. He put in one system one year, and got the tax credit. Put in the second system the next year and got the tax credit. Put in the third system the next year and got the tax credit, per system. And from now on, we're not going to allow other homeowners to be able to do the same thing. Unfortunately, photovoltaic is expensive. The people that want to put it in have to borrow a significant amount to pay for this system upfront."

"When we limit them to a single $5,000 tax credit per tax map key as this bill does, we're saying to your average homeowner, 'Forget it.' And then there's no point in putting in a single system of photovoltaic because you don't get the impact or the effect in trying to reduce your utility bills. It just isn't a technologically sound way to use photovoltaic for a residence."

"So I don't think we should sit and say, 'Some of us got in, in time, and we got the tax credit, but we're not going to let anyone else have it.' And to heck with the solar industry, Mr. Speaker. Because this industry, I don't think, is going to be able to survive. That means more well-paid people without jobs. We don't need to do this. We were beginning to become a national leader in something that was good, for a change. And now this just cuts the rug out from under it."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm just going to be voting with reservations. I recognize both the comments from the speakers from Kailua and Pearl City. I do have some concerns myself, and I look forward to seeing that bill in the Finance Committee. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ho'omalu 'ōlelo, ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations.

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Just a few brief comments. First of all, the genesis for this bill came from the industry itself. They came to us and said that there's a lot of abuse out there. We've had many meetings with them and many talks. I've got a lot of notes here in detail. I'm just going to give you a couple quick highlights."

"The photovoltaic industry has seen a 70% reduction in PV panel costs over the last 3 years. The cost for a small residential site, they are giving about $6 per watt. What's happened on the commercial side is that a PV system costs around $4 per watt. The bill needs to recognize the differences in those areas and really make adjustments so we can control the subsidization."

"Again, we're going to work with the solar industry. In meetings they tell us they understand the problem and in no way are we going to hurt the industry. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. I'm going to be very brief because this is what this whole Floor is about. This is the marketplace of ideas. This is where debate is really, really healthy.

"I think like many people, we're conflicted. We want to incentivize getting off of fossil fuel by getting people on solar and PV. But you look at the record, even with these incentives for solar for the last 30 years, we basically have 25% with water heaters. If you look at the renewable energy, we've got 2% of our energy coming out, even though we're the second in the country, we get 2% of our energy off of PV.

"So the Representative of Kailua is correct. If we disincentivize, and granted, it was people with a few bucks who did this. But take away that layer, I don't think people are patient or smart enough to do something over a 3-year period.

"So Mr. Speaker, I think there's a halfway house, there's a meeting place somewhere between wiping it out, and then disincentivizing it. And let's face it. It's not going to cost us cheap to do what we need to do. Israel, who has 90% solar energy on every roof for heat, gave a lot of incentives. So those who think we're going to just zero it out and we're still going to have the solar energy and get off of solar energy, I think they're fooling themselves. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2417, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representatives M. Lee and Souki being excused.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 525-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2865, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2865, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in strong gratitude, in gratitude to the Chair of Health, the Members of the Committee, and the Members of this House. I think that we'll understand how important this measure is and that we take action immediately, because our people cannot wait. The recent closure of two hospitals here in our State begs the question of why on many different levels. One of those levels is that Mr. Speaker, our people, our local people, they're not in the best of health, a lot of them. And one of the things that are afflicting the people of Hawaii is diabetes.

"Not all diabetes, but much of diabetes is preventable. And the fact is that our local people are most at risk because they have a much higher prevalence of it, than do Caucasians. Japanese, Filipino, Chinese, and all Native Hawaiians we know are very susceptible to this disease that is largely preventable. Currently diabetes is costing the State of Hawaii, per year, over $1 billion. So this is not just the heart and tragedy of when we see it. Because just go down to Kahala Mall or any of your malls, our people as amputees, our people are unhealthy. On another level is this is a source of a lot of draining on our budget, our economy. One in two children born after 2000 will be affected by diabetes, so says the American Diabetes Association, and Hawaii has a much higher prevalence of end stage renal disease, as our Chair of Human Services has pointed out in the past, than the national average.

"Right now, the way our State has been somewhat approaching it, is that we do have some things going on, but we have it often under the umbrella of chronic disease in general. And what this bill, and it was originally a diabetes czar bill, but it's good still. It's a task force that will start to shed light and focus on this thing that's killing our people. It has not really been in the public eye. I submit Mr. Speaker; it's not even a PSA, to educate our people. That number one, it's a silent disease like a snake. So by the time you get your first symptom, you've had it in your system for almost maybe 10 years. Number two, it's preventable, and a lot of it has to do with things we do on a regular basis. And number three, our people are dying at an astronomical rate. It's an epidemic. It needs our attention.

"What I wanted to mention besides the fact that dialysis, if you ever have a chance to visit, I urge all my colleagues to visit a dialysis center. 70,000 a year, 3 times a week. But the most important thing is to me our people, maybe we need to start looking at what we can do on an everyday basis. I know that we have been studying this disease. I'm sure there's tons of data, and I applaud the efforts of the ADA. I applaud the efforts of all these organizations, the DOH. The question becomes, the provocative question, the question I would like to ask is, if every educated person, I can take anyone down Bishop Street, or I can take anyone anywhere. If all people know that to increase, to help their health, they should eat right and exercise, my question is then, why aren't they? This is the provocative question. If we all know already ..."

Representative Say rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, very much. My question is, what can we do on a regular basis to improve the health of our people? What is it that we are doing that might be different from those that don't get diabetes? What is it that we have to change on a regular basis to help our people? Because I think those are the questions that I would like to see addressed in this task force.

"I come from the district Mr. Speaker, I'm very proud of plate lunch, or saimin, of spam musubi. And I have to admit, I love my spam musubi. I love my spam musubi. I've been to the spam museum. I love my plate lunch. I'm not advocating that we say, 'Oh, no more.' But what I am saying is, balance.

"You know, Chinese medicine is based on a concept of ying and yang, balance. So for those of you who think this is not congruent with chocolate, no it's about balance. Because our elders had balance. Our elders ate spam musubi, just not every day. They invented it, but they don't eat it every day. And they plant the mango tree in the back yard. They take care of the plants. And most important, they're gentle with the people. So maybe these are things that we have to learn from our elders. When we're gentle, take care, lower incidents, because the World War II generation has much less of it than their children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"I do have problems with page 8 of the bill and its section 6. What it states specifically on line 11 is, 'Except as specifically provided in this chapter, no person shall engage in dietetic practice.' That's the problem. It's the drafting problem. Dietetic practice could be defined to be what nutritionists do, and this in some way could harm what they are trying to do. I know that there was an amendment made in Committee, but it's in another section. It's trying to say, 'Wait a minute. We don't mean to say what we're saying in section 6.' Well I think the best way is for that language to be cleaned up as it goes to Finance, and I would encourage the Finance Committee to look at that. Thank you."

That was not the intention of the Committee. So we'd like to just publicly note that, and ask the Committee on Finance, if they are willing to hear the measure, if they can help us correct that oversight. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2869, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ECONOMY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Herkes and M. Lee being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to cast a no vote and if I may explain why. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill, relating to economic development, expresses the State policy and intent to complete or facilitate the completion of a list of special economic development projects by December 31 the year 2023.

"If you look at page 2 of the bill, one of those special projects that it would become our State policy to complete is the interisland cable, and I think that there have been some concerns expressed about that Interisland Cable System; the cost of it, and whether it's actually necessary. It is buried within this bill.

"Another section, on page 3, there are some in this Body that do not believe that the Fixed Rail System is the best way to go for the Island of Oahu. On page 3, line 10, that becomes another project that becomes our policy as legislators to complete this Fixed Rail System. So those are two of the problems that I see within the bill, and those are driving my no vote. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations and a brief comment. I share the concerns of the Representative from Kailua and also I noticed that it recommends that we're going to support a 650 foot tower in Kakaako. I think there's a lot of room yet for 400 foot towers before we go in to these ultra skyscrapers, so I'm opposed to that project in particular. But I will vote with reservations for this one. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and may I make a few remarks? Mr. Speaker, this bill is a representation of a number of bills that are seeking to move forward that are very disturbing. The identification of specific projects as the Representative of Kailua identified, are projects of such large scale and of such specific nature that it's not appropriate for these types of projects to be identified in Chapter 226, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which speaks very broadly to the planning processes of the State. While this bill has been changed and amended so it does not say that these things will be mandated, the very fact that these are identified, some of them very good projects that I happen to agree with, does not make it appropriate in this Chapter.

"I would also echo the comments from the Representative from Kailua that there are questions, serious questions about some of these projects. Questions that we know, projects that we know, that will be the matter for a referendum of sort in the coming election. I find it highly inappropriate that this bill is moving forward and I urge my colleagues to vote no. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak with very strong reservations on this measure. When you have a constitutional amendment of this sort here, in case of emergency, you cannot move that money. As an illustration, in 1978, we provided a constitutional amendment that when there are two successive years where you have a five percent increase in revenue, we must return the money to the taxpayers. I voted against that measure because back then I felt it would hurt those programs that needed help, whether it was human services, health or etc. We have attempted in the past to repeal the constitutional amendment, and the measure failed, I believe a couple of times. So what has happened is that we have to, by law, insert a million dollars in repayments to the people of the State of Hawaii. That's $1 per person which does nothing, but in effect it hurts the budget. That $1 million could be going to serve some more appropriate project in health or human services and etc.

"Now this here will do the same thing. I believe it amounts to almost 30% of the revenue that has been set aside to assist in the liability of the retirement program. And yes, that's a noble request. However, when you make a constitutional amendment, you make it in cement, and it'll be impossible to change in the future should you want to change that. And we all know right now there are many programs throughout the State that are running at about 45%, when they should be running at 100% or 80%. Something like this will hamper that, however the good intentions. So this message is intended for the Finance Committee, and I do hope that they will consider the statement that I have made as they go along with their decision making. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. This is the same serious reservation as the previous speaker. I would like his words entered into the Journal as if they were my own. However, I would like a few additional comments.

"The unfunded liability issue is a huge issue. Make no mistake about it, Mr. Speaker. We have to address this. It is coming. Otherwise, the people today aren't going to be able to get the benefits that they're working so hard to put in. But at the same time the previous speaker is correct. When you do a Con Am amendment, it is set in stone. And history shows during fluid circumstances, we need to have the flexibility, and that's what concerns me so much about the measure. I believe the cause is noble. But I think it ties our hands. Look what we learned from the appointed school board Con Am. Thank you, very much."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ho'omalu 'ōlelo, ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations.

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 835 relating to the disposition of excess revenues. The unfunded liabilities for the pension system and other post-employment benefits for State employees continue to be problems that our State government must address. I honor the intent of this bill and am willing to consider this measure before us because I understand the gravity of the situation our State faces if substantial changes are not made to address these unfunded liabilities.

"However, I do not know if this particular mechanism is the best way to accomplish funding these liabilities. I am not sure that a constitutional amendment proposed in this bill to use excess general fund revenues to pay down the liabilities is necessary to accomplish the outcome that the State of Hawaii must achieve.

"Moreover, I have reservations about using excess tax revenue as the primary means to pay down the debt; in principle this excess tax revenue belongs to the taxpayers of Hawaii, which is why I believe the Constitution was originally framed in this manner. I have some concerns regarding both the mechanism in this bill, as well as some of the general taxation principles underpinning it. For those reasons, I am voting with reservations on HB 835."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also with reservations. I don't think we should earmark in the Constitution."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations of H.B. 835 HD1, which proposes a constitutional amendment to Article VII, Section 6 of the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature to deposit excess general fund revenues into a fund to fund pension benefits and other post-employment benefits for State employees.

"This bill provides protection to State employees to receive full pension benefits and post-employment benefits they have rightfully earned, as well as lowers the risk of unfunded liabilities. According to the testimony provided by Mr. Wesley K. Machida, Administrator of the Employers' Retirement System, "As of June 30, 2010 the ERS had an unfunded actuarial accrued liability (UAAL) OF $7.1 billion."

"As the bill currently stands un-amended, excess Employee Retirement System investment earnings are transferred back to the State without allowing a set allocated amount to remedy unexpected market volatility that effect pension funds. I support that this bill addresses the issues of unfunded liability; however this bill should be explored further as we do not yet know the impact of this bill if provisions were implemented. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Members should note that this only applies if they general fund growth is more than 7%. So I think the flexibility issue probably would be extremely unlikely to come into play, because if the county were growing that fast, we're in pretty good shape.

"Desperate times call for desperate measures. The amount of money that we owe for the Employees Retirement System and the health trust fund, is approximately $20 billion over the next 30 years. In years where we have money, and we're growing that fast, that's the time to save money, and that's why that particular number was chosen, but I don't think we can. The problem is what would happen otherwise is we'd be giving a tax refund. While the tax money of course is taxpayers' money, the debts are taxpayers' debts as well, and we have to deal with those, too. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 835, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII, SECTION 6, OF THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF EXCESS REVENUES," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Herkes and M. Lee being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations, on this Relating to Offenses Against Public Administration. Thank you. The bill, when I read what it says, I realized it's in the Constitution. But to enact this into law seems to me to be bordering on infringing on freedom of speech.

"The language I'm talking about is, any person who isn't a member of the legislature who recklessly engages in contemptuous behavior committed in the presence of either house, which would interrupt or impair the respect due to such proceedings. It seems to me the language is too broad. And I believe that there are laws on the books that would really govern any behavior that would put people at risk. But we've all been here at the Capitol when there have been very heated issues. And when people come to express their opinions, and that's the way it should be, this is the people's House, and we should be able to handle being the recipients of the free speech that is expressed to us as decision makers. I'm afraid this somewhat crosses the line, and it's just not that necessary to do. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With strong reservations. While I appreciate and especially respect the individuals who testified in support of this proposed draft, my concern, and it is noted in the Committee Report, is that this not only violates the principles of free speech as enunciated by the Representative from Kailua, but also seriously violates separation of powers by making us, the House or the Senate both the enforcer and enactor of the laws, and the implementer of potential fines and penalties.

As this moves forward, I hope that obvious defect is fixed, but there are still other serious reservations with this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Just note my reservations. I do, again, appreciate the concerns of the House Sergeant-at-Arms who does have the responsibility for enforcing what happens here at the House and protecting us and the process. But I do have concerns and quite frankly, if we're allowed to be belligerent and contemptuous here on the Floor, without penalty, then the public should be allowed to as well."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I'd just like to say that we all appreciate the work that the Sergeants do on both sides. This is just a matter of clarifying some of the things that haven't been clarified in the past. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ho'omalu 'olelo, ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just a point of clarification. I just wanted to clarify that we are not allowed to be belligerent, and the Speaker does according to our House Rules, we allow the Speaker to remove one of us from the Floor, and we have to comply with that. In fact, my colleague on my left has been asked to be removed from the Floor in the past, and he had to be removed. I was just making a point of clarification, and I'm in strong support of this measure."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"As this brown tree snake bill slithers through the legislative process, I am excited for the early detection on the radar. House Bill 1943, House Draft 1 would fund the plant quarantine detector dog program. I have been a strong proponent for many years. These dogs and their handlers will help keep Hawaii safe from invasive species such as the brown tree snake, which has devastated Guam and currently causes over $4 million in damage to its electrical systems. These types of power outages could be extremely devastating to our local businesses as they fight their way out of this quagmire economy.

"If this bill passes, the program will take some time to get up and running. We can speed up the protection of our State by encouraging the Department of Agriculture to contract with private dog handlers, who have dogs who are already trained and ready to go into the field to protect our State from invasive species.

"Whether the Department uses a private contractor or hires civil servants to fill these positions, this program needs to be activated so Hawaii will be protected from an invasion of critters. We can then continue to enjoy the beauty that is Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like a no vote, and I'd like to explain. The Department of Transportation is asking for an exemption from Chapter 343 for certain actions. The Department can and should go to the Environmental Council and go through the process for getting the exemptions under their rules. That can happen. The Environmental Council is up and operating, and the DOT should not come to us to ask us to enact legislation to take care of what that Department can and should do on its own, with the Environmental Council. There's a process for what they want to have accomplished, and it's not here in this Body. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations and brief comments. The testimony was, and on questioning, the Department of Transportation already has the authority to exempt or move beyond without environmental reviews for minor projects. The point of the law is that they actually have to make a decision. If they're going to study the interface of a driveway, for example, onto the road, they're already looking at the project. So they just have to consider if there's likely or potential impacts. If there are no likely impacts, they can move on without a full environmental review. So the testimony was that it's not necessary.

"There were comments made by the Office of Environmental Quality Control that, to that effect, that it's not necessary. But if the Members feel it is necessary to go forward, then certain amendments were put in to clarify. Thankfully the Chair of EEP has put that in. So the bill at this point is not necessarily bad in its current form, but it's not really necessary. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ho'omalū 'ōlelo, ke kū nei au ke kako'o me ke kanalua."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Another no vote on behalf of the environment. Mr. Speaker, I don't see why we would want to prohibit State and county agencies from entering into an energy agreement or a contract to install a renewable energy system with a private provider. I just am not quite sure what is going on, but I know the bill does authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for renewable energy systems for State facilities, but it impacts or impedes any power purchase between government agencies and the private sector. I would think we would want to encourage all sorts of different methods for getting our State to our renewable energy goal by the year 2030. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, my second time, I know. But I would encourage the Members to look at the testimony that was overwhelmingly in opposition to House Bill 2121, Standing Committee Report No. 592. Take a look at what the opponents to this measure are saying, and it comes both from county governments, as well as environmental groups. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"I'm sorry. Can I make additional comments on why I'm voting no? Right now, I'm working with different schools in my community, very old schools whose energy costs are very, very high. We're looking at various ways to be creative that would save the school money, as well as upgrade old schools that can't take on anymore electricity, for example Campbell High School in Ewa Beach. Their system is so old that they can't run a microwave and a fan at the same time in one of their buildings. So since it's too expensive to upgrade their electrical system there, it would be cheaper to use renewable energy to get the energy from those sources. So I hope if this moves forward that we can exclude some of those schools from being included in this bill. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Just note my reservations, please. And I'd like to note that according to the Committee Report, nobody testified in support."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Yes, I want to help clarify an issue here that's going on. As the previous speaker talked about, yes there was no positive support for this bill. The reason for that is that none of these agencies realize that the State is providing 24.5% of refundable tax credits for these projects. So moving this bill on to Finance, we want to really analyze what is the real cost of these projects, and is there really a return on the investment. I know that the DOE testified they need $130 million. Well if the State kicks in another 24.5%, we're in excess of an addition $30 million for these projects. It may make more sense to finance these things out of the capital improvement project. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations on HB No. 2672. My concern is that I'm not sure whether this unites us or divides us, particularly when the issue of the Hawaiian Nation goes to the federal government, and how they may be perceiving this. How we see it I think, is going to be different. But how they may see this thing may be entirely different. So if we're going the long run for Hawaiian sovereignty, I think we have to have a bit of circumspection as we pass this along. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2672, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OVERTHROW OF THE HAWAIIAN KINGDOM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Herkes, Kawakami, M. Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to make a clarification. This is to have a Hawaii Interagency Council on Homelessness. I just wanted to share with the Members, the Department of Labor, the Department of Human Services, the Department of Health, they all supported this measure.

"We need to do this because we need to have better coordination as we deal with homelessness. Right now we've got the county, the State, the federal government, nonprofits, they're a bunch of silos, Mr. Speaker. Unless we unite, we're not going to address homelessness. We need a short term plan, and a long term plan, and this bill gets it out. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in favor. I would like to mention that there is a federal legislation called the Federal Interagency Council on Homelessness, and this could be a measure for us to get federal funding for our homeless population. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I respond? Maybe I should be a little more clear. My reservations are not with the establishment with the Interagency Council on Homelessness. I sit as a backup representative on that current Council. My reservations happen to be with requesting the task force to look at safe havens, which the Council currently does not support. That's my reservation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

So the additional fees will be assessed at the rate of $300 per day for up to 2 hours, and up to $600 dollars per day for more than 2 hours. Mr. Speaker, I rise with deep reservations.

This is a wrongful bill. Where are the voices of the Kona people from Honokahau. This is not the right process. My colleagues didn't have enough discussion on this bill which concerns the special place of Honokahau. The land and the people of Kona are crying. What is wrong with my colleagues that introduced this bill if they had more discussion with the generational people of the land (Honokahau) that is the proper process. This is a worthless bill. If we make right the concern in the bill that is the greatest justice. Again I repeat my deepest reservation. We need to carefully seek the proper justice. Thank you.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition from two perspectives. The first, from the study that was done by the Federal Reserve of Boston. I'll just review that, because I've basically said this previously. And secondly, from the perspective from the Hawaii bankers, our own bankers and what they feel about them.

"First in review, is a reminder to this Body that this is not an FDIC bank that would be guaranteed by the feds, by the nation. This would be guaranteed by the taxpayers of Hawaii, if anything went wrong. Because the intent here is to buy basically toxic mortgages, and those people who have not been able to keep their house. The second reminder is that there's only one state bank in the whole nation and basically state banking is a third-world phenomenon. I think we had some discussion about China on the Floor in that regard. The other point was that even though the Bank of North Dakota began in 1919 at a capitalization start up cost of $2 million. The extrapolation and the equivalent of that in today's dollars for Massachusetts was $3.6 billion. Mr. Speaker, where are we going to have $3.6 billion. Even if it's half of that, the cost for starting up is tremendous.

"The other reminder of the study, and again this is not me talking, the Federal Reserve Bank and their study center said that the governance model that is used in North Dakota, if we replicate that governance model. The commissioners are three, two of which, one is the Governor of the State of North Dakota, the second is the Attorney General. If we follow that, that puts Mr. Louie and Mr. Abercrombie front and center. And the other thing they said about governance was the budget of the Bank of North Dakota is actually funded by the legislature. That's us if we follow their model.

"The last point, Mr. Speaker, was that we tend to think that this would be a great shot in the arm because of the economy of North Dakota is one of the leading economies. It's like 3.3% unemployment. But the study went on to say that that's basically because of the oil extraction industry that has caused this to happen. So my sense is if we think this is a savior, we're, I think, going to be sadly mistaken. That's the first perspective, and that's basically a review.

"Now bringing our banker's perspective front and center through the testimony of the Hawaii Banker's Association. I'd like to recap a couple of the points that they make. And remember, this is First Hawaiian speaking. This is Bank of Hawaii speaking. These are all of those who represent our constituents basically, and who we are as a State, wanting to start out and put a state bank in place to compete with them. First of all as bankers, they would like to see a business plan. And I know the sister bill of this that came up yesterday was the, quote, 'task force,' but they say there's not really a plan to do this. There's an idea, and bankers like to have numbers and logic before they move on anything.

"But particularly bankers like to know how are you going to collateralize this? How are you going to actually fund it? So without a funding source, they're at a questioning position. How and when and where $3 billion, or if even it is a billion dollars, even $500 million to start this thing up. If we're going to buy thousands of toxic mortgages. They again report that this is State liability, and can the State with its bond rating now actually afford to extend credit out in such a way.

"I want to read, word for word the notion of a policy conflict which they mention in their testimony. They said that there could be a potential public policy conflict of the bank's mission. This is the Bank of the State of Hawaii. Of doing social good instead of running a sound bank for profit. The potential exists for politics to influence lending policies that lead to lower quality loans with increased likelihood of non-payment.

"Mr. Speaker, having worked in the third world with the United Nations for a number of years, I know for sure, state-owned banks are influenced by politics, real influence and this is a real possibility. We're voting on a bank and our elected officials are running the bank. Assuming that we follow that model, we are mixing dangerous, dangerous elements together.

"They also said tying up public funds incorrectly may be a problem. I want to read what they mean by this. It is a fundamental error to match short-term assets ..."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, you are a gentleman and a scholar. Thank you, both Speakers. It is a fundamental error to match short-term assets, that is operating income, with long-term liabilities, for example thirty-year mortgages. Unlike a bank that has short-term and long-term assets, as well as short-term and long-term liabilities, a state bank will have short-term assets and thus buying long-term liabilities may not be in the best interest of the State. Generally speaking, these mortgages that are intended to be bought are long-term liabilities, Mr. Speaker.

"They also note unfair competition. What about the State Bank of Hawaii which would have tax-free status and not have to comply with costly federal regulations. That's really a leg up because federal regulations are getting more and more onerous, since the great recession.

"They brought up the question, will we be bailing out toxic lenders. I translate that into, will we be bailing out basically, Wall Street which was already bailed out. Helping subprime loans is very risky, Mr. Speaker. And let's face it, there have been a number of 'liar loans' where people made up their income in order to get this, or even some of the people taking the applications, made up the income, and the intent of this bank is to buy those loans. Mr. Speaker, that's very, very risky. If we're going to bail out the bail out, we have to be a pretty rich state to do that.

"Lastly, the bankers feel that the existing loan programs that are out there are sufficient to cover this. And because of the precarious economic position and the precarious State budget position, this is probably not the best thing to do.

"So in conclusion, Mr. Speaker, the bankers on the East Coast, the Federal Reserve did a study. The Massachusetts people looked at the study and said, 'Whoa, we're going to make a mistake if we do this,' and they backed off. The study's only fresh, from May 2011, so this is not ancient data. So if we are looking at reinventing the wheel, we then, if we can't trust the Boston bankers, look at our own bankers who are saying, 'Guys, this is probably not a good idea. It's probably not a good time for doing it. It's probably not a good time for using tax payers' money.'

"So Mr. Speaker, I say let's not reinvent the wheel. Let's be wise in what our colleagues have done and not have to go to the moon to prove it's there. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 2103, Relating to the Bank of the State of Hawaii, which would establish the Bank of the State of Hawaii. I am opposed to the bill both conceptually and theoretically. The following paraphrases support my stance and are taken verbatim, respectively, from: Hawaii Bankers Association, Hawaii Credit Union League, State of Hawaii, Office of the Director, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs:

- Deserves a more thorough analysis and raises the questions: Can it be accomplished without risking the public's money? Can it be operated in a safe and sound manner?
- The State could be burdened with more costly bureaucracy, not to mention the initial banking infrastructure set up costs.
- There is an unknown funding source.
- The State would become liable for public deposits.
- There remains an inherent policy conflict; a state bank would make room for politics to influence lending policies.
- A State Bank would tie up public funds by turning them into loans.
- Bank would create unfair competition since it would enjoy a Hawaii tax-free status.
- Buying troubled loans would: a) Bail out toxic lenders, b) Provide defective mortgage titles, c) Make subprime mortgages.
- Funds being deposited would be uninsured by the State itself without the benefit of being insured by a separate entity like the national credit union administration (which insures all credit unions in Hawaii). This would be extremely precarious in the event that financial difficulty within the State and would place taxpayers at enormous risk.
- Chosen board members would require no experience whatsoever.
- Bank of North Dakota didn't profit for the first twenty-six years and that was in a far more suitable economic climate.
- The Bank of North Dakota is the only current state-operating bank, North Dakota is far different than Hawaii in almost every regard.
- A State Bank would significantly decrease capital reserves of existing banks and threaten their soundness.
- State's funds deposited in local banks are backed by bonds; it is unclear whether or not the State-owned bank would be backed by bonds.

"Significant statements such as those abovementioned should not be disregarded. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Strong reservations, and wish I would have the remarks of the Representative from Hawaii Kai as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I'll be brief. I often talk to people in the District, and I would encourage every Member in this Body to go out and ask people what they think about a State bank. The response is consistent and it's strong. Every time it's in opposition to this. I think people intuitively know this a bad idea. So, before this gets to a third vote, please ask folks and see what they say. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this bill. I note that the Attorney General, a federal program that will go into effect that brings $71 million to address our mortgage problem here in Hawaii. It will help with many of our underwater mortgages. I'm hoping that this program will be beneficial to many of our homeowners. I think we should wait and see how this program will help before we go forward with this measure. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in opposition to HB 2103 relating to a state-owned bank. I honor the intent of this measure and the goal of this Legislature to help those in our community who are threatened with foreclosure. With our State's ongoing fiscal situation, Hawaii residents continue to feel the burden of uncertainty regarding their jobs and their homes. I think it is our duty as legislators to pass legislation that will set our State on a path of fiscal solvency both in the short and long term.

"However, I have reservations as to whether or not the State of Hawaii is equipped to tackle a venture of this size and scope. The creation of a state-owned bank is an incredibly complex undertaking in relatively unknown territory for the State of Hawaii. Taxpayers should be assured the bank will possess the necessary expertise to properly operate. The State already struggles to balance and effectively govern its existing bureaucracies and I fear it may prove unwise to further burden a state government already stretched thin.

"I also believe the creation of a state-owned bank has the potential to create unintended negative consequences for our State's fragile economy and additional burdens on the people of Hawaii. This may be the case particularly if a state-owned bank lacks the necessary operational expertise and mechanisms to achieve its ultimate goal. For those reasons, I oppose this measure as currently drafted."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. First of all I'd like to thank the Chair of the Consumer Protection Committee for moving this bill along, and to continue discussion on this very important matter. Just to clarify some comments that were made.

"First of all, understand that the Federal Reserve is a public/private partnership. Look at the composition of who sits on the Board of Directors of those institutions. Understand that they're not regulated by the Congress or the Senate. They are appointed by the President, and occasionally viewed by the money Committees in Congress when Mr. Ben Bernanke comes before them. But they really have total independent decision-making powers. The Federal Reserve is instrumental and central to the flow of money in our banking system. So understand that. It's not surprising that they would come out with an adverse opinion through the Boston Federal Reserve System.

"As far as the FDIC, much has been said about that, but I think people need to understand that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation does insure certain deposits, but only up to $250 thousand per account. That's the limit. We certainly have more than $250 thousand in assets and most of our liabilities, even today, are self insured. Again I think we need to remind ourselves that unlike my esteemed colleague who said that Bank of Hawaii and First Hawaiian represent our constituents, I think the truth is that we represent our constituents. I think that Bank of Hawaii and First Hawaiian Bank represent their shareholders, and that's well and good. That's their duty.

"A couple other points. As far as the Attorney General's recently announced settlement by 49 states with the five largest banks, and some $26 billion. As of today, Mr. Speaker, I do not know the terms and conditions of the settlement. I know some general outlines of it, and in speaking to some of the agencies and Deputy Attorneys General involved in the settlement discussions, they themselves have not seen the final terms and conditions of the settlement. So at this point in time, I do not know whether and how any of the settlement moneys will find its way to relieve our distressed homeowners.

"Furthermore, until such an order and judgment is approved by the Federal District Court, it is non-binding. It has no effect on the operations of the current practices going on with the robo-signing and other fraudulent acts taking place even today. So I believe the Chair in his wisdom wanted to have a vehicle to move forward until we can learn more about what's in the settlement. And equally important, what's not in the settlement, and when we might need to create an agency or have a government entity to pick up the slack, fill in the gap, and to make sure that our homeowners are protected. So again, I think we should move this bill forward. I ask Members to keep an open mind. Again, we work for the people of Hawaii who are our constituents, first and foremost. Thank you."

At this time the Chair stated:

"Members, we've had a lot of discussion. At this point the Chair will only allow for written comments. You will have another chance to comment in the Finance Committee. Representative Ward, would you like to submit your written comments?"

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. There have only been three people who have been speaking. Why written comments as a mandatory thing from the Speaker's podium. Please indulge me, just two minutes. One minute, if I may. Let's be fair. This is the market place of ideas. This is a big issue. This is a very important issue because it does taxpayers' issues with money. I don't want to be out of order, but I want to be able to speak for one minute.

"Thank you. First of all, the Federal Reserve is filled with economists. They're filled with bankers, people who have been around the block. I'm not saying we should worship them, but I think we should respect their opinion rather than throwing it out. Because as of a few months ago, Massachusetts was in the same trajectory as Hawaii. They looked at the data and said, 'Wow, those guys have done my homework. Why do we have to do this?'

"Secondly, I will not question the integrity of our banks, but I know one of the banks is the best in the nation, and if they're not looking out for the people of Hawaii, they would never get there. I think they probably feel a little bit sad that they're suspect in this toxic mortgage issue. The point is we're trying to put a round peg into a square hole. We need a mechanism to address this mortgage issue, not by creating a state bank and throwing the economy and the whole of federal and State funding into a tailspin. We have to be more rational. We need more economic and business thinking, not just the kneejerk; well we got a silver bullet from the bank of North Dakota.

"My point is, Mr. Speaker, let's be rational. Let's be objective. Let's look at the data, and then if the data says it, I'd be willing to concede to the Finance Chair if I'm wrong. Here's what the data says. But the data is so clear now, that this is not the best policy for the people of the State of Hawaii. Full stop. Thank you, sir."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in reservation, with brief comments. I understand the intent of this Governor's bill regarding broadband and I commend my colleague, the Representative from Upcountry Maui, Ulupalakua and his endeavors. And I probably will yield the rest of my time for him to retort. But Mr. Speaker, this 170-page bill brings up some very questionable issues, and I just want to highlight it for some of the Members to be aware of what we are creating in this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, this measure will create what I would call a Telecommunications Czar in which cable, wireless and wired communications, would fall under this one Commissioner. This bill also allows the Commissioner, and is stated on page 17, 'The commissioner shall serve as a broadband information and application clearinghouse for the state and coordinate broadband related services and programs.'

"Mr. Speaker, this means one person will have this jurisdiction, as well as in this bill, we allow this one individual the ability to administer oaths, and serve subpoenas to witnesses and documentation. Mr. Speaker, this Commissioner will also be able to exercise, discharge or perform these duties and allow a designee of his choice or her choice to be allowed the same authority.

"Mr. Speaker, also this will allow the Commissioner to affect our PEG access. Mr. Speaker, the Commissioner may initiate and access organizations, educational institutions, or government agencies at anytime, at that person's request. They'll be also able to control, from my understanding of this bill, three cable stations, and can designate who and what is placed on it.

"Mr. Speaker, the other concern I have on this measure is that the Director of DCCA shall appoint the Executive Director of the Division of Consumer Advocacy, who shall be the consumer advocate in the hearing before the PUC.

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the intent of trying to move projects forward to the benefit of making Hawaii 100% broadband accessible, but Mr. Speaker, making a Telecommunications Czar with these far-reaching authorities do not only force companies to participate, but also could lose sight of where's the public input and the access to the people that we serve. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll yield my time to the speaker from Ulupalakua."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and I'd like to adopt the comments from the Representative from Mililani. I also have concerns on this bill going forward, however it is important to note that this is a similar bill to what we did in 2010, which the Minority introduced a bill, the House Majority introduced the bill, the Senate Majority introduced a similar bill, and the previous Administration introduced a bill.

"The purpose of this is to try and get one entity to have a focused approach on broadband, from an economic perspective. This measure currently gives too much authority to one person, and I also share those concerns. However, I think it is important that this measure move forward and that we continue down the road of looking for a certain agency maybe, or a mechanism that will accomplish these goals and look at it from an economic perspective first, if broadband is important for our infrastructural foundation going forward. And from a regulatory perspective, second, because that is also very, very important."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to also note my reservations on this bill. I know that the next two Committees that it will be going to will be looking at it very closely. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. Thank you. I would like to note that Members may have read the newspaper in the last few days that the numbers of foreclosures has grown substantially in the last reporting period. There's a huge backlog, and it's getting worse. The Judiciary is getting bogged down. Our great intentions last year have not solved the problem. By nearly all accounts of people in the industry, it has impaired the process.

"This legislation attempts to ameliorate some of the problems, but I believe it makes it even worse. In particular, the 180 days after the foreclosure conclusion in which the whole process can be voided and overturned is just unbelievable. As I mentioned before, if zero lenders have used the system to date, there will continue to be zero use of this bill.

"The two areas that really need addressing are the Unfair and Deceptive Acts Practices. Rather than tampering and making ambiguous determinations as to what we mean, that will still be an impediment to use of the program. So what we need to do is we need to repeal flat out, the Unfair and Deceptive Acts Practices. It still exists, and can still be called during the appropriate time, but we need to repeal that from the Act that we passed last year. And we need to shorten the mediation process from six and a half months, to three months. So with those two provisions, we might actually get some use of this. But this measure just makes an ugly program, worse. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1875, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FORECLOSURES," passed Second

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I represent a District where 40% of the population is born outside the country, not just outside of the State of Hawaii, but outside the country. Many of them don't speak English as a first language. Many of them don't speak English at all. Unfortunately there are still unscrupulous employers who take advantage of these facts and don't, among other things, don't give employees meal breaks.

"When I was growing up, my father owned a business. We had a small business with a maximum of maybe 10 or 11 employees. This bill would have had no affect whatsoever on our operations, because we gave meal breaks, like any good employer should. But unfortunately that's not always the case. And that's why I introduced the bill, and that's why I support it. Mahalo."

I think that's something I hope my colleagues and the people will keep in mind as we move forward, because this is a problem. The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 51, was adopted, with Representative Saiki being excused.

At this time, the Chair invited the Governor to address the Chamber.

Governor Abercrombie's remarks are as follows:

"Thank you. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate the brevity of that introduction. And I also appreciate, and I want all of you to know, that as I stand here before you, that you really can't teach old dogs new tricks. Apparently old dogs do their old tricks. I found myself, and thank you very much for not turning around and saying, 'What do you think you're doing?' When he said, 'All those in favor say 'aye'.' And I said, 'aye'.' Maybe it was a new trick. There was a lot of time when I said 'no' down here.

"But it does remind me what a pleasure and what an honor it is to be back in the House of Representatives, the People's House, and to be able to participate. This is indeed, for our friends from the Philippines and for the Mayors of all of the islands, an opportunity to share a few moments with one another as legislators. And I particularly have the privilege this evening in being able to welcome all of you to Washington Place.

"It's very appropriate that we meet at Washington Place, because the kings and queens of the Kingdom of Hawaii were well known throughout the world for their international outlook. The royalty of Hawaii traveled the world over, engaged in conversations and interaction and indeed treaties with people the world over, most particularly in Asia and the Pacific. And so that legacy is made manifest in this Memorandum of Understanding today. Many here participated recently in the APEC activities here in Honolulu, in which we tried to establish in the minds of not only our friends and neighbors, our brothers and sisters in the Asia-Pacific area, our relationship with one another, but in fact announced it to the world.

"The President of the United States himself has indicated that this century will be the Century of the Pacific, and we like to posit ourselves here, for all of our friends, Mayors in the Philippines, posit ourselves as the anchor of the Asia-Pacific area. We no longer think of ourselves as a crossroads, or a pass through from East and West. We are in fact the anchor of the Asia-Pacific area, and we reach out to our brothers and sisters throughout the Asia-Pacific area. This is particularly pertinent today, as Hawaii's population reaches almost one in four with at least some portion of their ancestry from the Philippines.

"Hawaii, as has been noted by several of the previous speakers, is a place of diversity, and that diversity in fact defines us rather than divides us. And the Philippines now provides a foundation stone in that diversity that is unique not only in its contribution, but in the breadth and depth of what it will mean for us in the future. As has been noted, Filipinos have lived in Hawaii since 1906, and I don't know if Representative Pine's ancestors were among the 15 original laborers recruited to the Islands, but I can tell you right now, for those who don't know, that over 3,500 new Filipinos immigrate each year here over the past decade. And that I think is a symbol, in no uncertain terms, of what our diversity is all about.

"This Memorandum of Understanding will set up a working group. For those in the audience who may not be familiar with what this means today. It will be a working group representing both Hawaii and the Philippines as has been indicated. We will meet from time to time. We'll review the objectives of the Memorandum of Understanding which are: yes, exchange of business by citizens of both places. More regular visits by officials to both places. But in terms of business and in terms of culture, in terms of energy uses, urban land use, environmental questions. We intend to exchange not only views, but best practices that will benefit both sides on the Memorandum of Understanding.

"This is, in one respect, something that I do have a particular personal interest in, and I want to cite it. For some years, we struggled in the Congress of the United States to recognize the contribution of World War II Filipino Veterans. We managed to achieve that recognition and to put something behind it that indicated to those that had made those sacrifices in the Philippines that we not only remembered it, but that we recognized it in the most tangible way.

"So this League of Cities of the Philippines representation here today is very, very, important to us. We are very, very, grateful and extend our mahalo, our thank you, and a mabuhay and aloha to all the Mayors that are here today representing your brothers and sisters throughout the Philippines. Because the League of Cities is most appropriate in promoting exactly the things that this Memorandum envisions: trade, culture, tourism to be sure, and related activities between Filipino cities, the State of Hawaii and of course all the people of Hawaii.

"I look forward to meeting with you tonight at Washington Place. I look forward to the signature on the Memorandum of Understanding tonight, as representational of what the future of the relationship between Hawaii and the Philippines will be: one of progress, and one of friendship. Aloha. Mahalo. Mabuhay."

At this time, the Chair invited Mayor Oscar Rodriguez, President of the League of Cities of the Philippines, to address the Chamber.

Mayor Rodriguez's remarks are as follows:

"To the Honorable Governor of the State of Hawaii, Governor Neil Abercrombie; the Honorable Lieutenant Governor; Brian Schatz. To the Honorable Speaker of the House, Calvin K.Y. Say. To the Honorable

Members of the Filipino Caucus. To all of the Honorable Members of the House of Representatives of the Hawaii State Legislature, and to the Honorable City and County Mayors here: Mayor Peter Carlisle, Mayor Alan Arakawa, Mayor William Kenoi and Mayor Bernard Carvalho Jr., my warmest greetings and a pleasant day. I was once a member of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the Philippines for 14 years, and I therefore feel privileged to be in the middle of legislators like you.

"Not only that, I still remember the definition of the great President, our great President of the world, the late Franklin Delano Roosevelt when he defined what a true leader is, and I quote, 'A true leader is one who tries to bridge the chasm between humanity and better life.'

"After reading the history of Hawaii, after I've seen Hawaii in the few days of my stay here, and hearing from the stories of leaders here, I came to believe that I am in the midst of true leaders defined by Franklin Delano Roosevelt. I am, therefore, deeply honored by this opportunity to speak before this august Body. Representing the 122 members of the League of Cities of the Philippines, truly, this is a historic event, a first for our organization, at least of this magnitude.

"I remember that only a few months ago, yours truly along with our Secretary General, Mayor Nani Braganza, and our Deputy Secretary General for the National Capital Region, Mayor Del De Guzman, met with your colleagues, Representative John Mizuno and Representative Tom Brower, to explore the possibility of a Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation between our two institutions.

"I still remember distinctly thinking that although we are still far from finalizing any agreement, we were all so seriously discussing possibilities of knowledge exchanges and joint workshops. These exchanges have in fact, already become a reality. Just yesterday, we were fully immersed in discussions with the senior personnel of your State government regarding your disaster preparedness initiatives which is a very, very, important component of governance today because of the present situation of the world, and climate change.

"This morning we were engaged in discussions that focused on your tourism practices. And we learned a lot because we know that Hawaii State depends on its tourism industry. On behalf of the members of the League of Cities of the Philippines, therefore, please allow me to express our most sincere, thank you.

"The idea of a more formal agreement for the future excites us. However, not simply because this may mean more opportunities for us to learn from you, equally so through our Memorandum of Understanding, we will seek and pursue all opportunities through which we can share our experiences which we hope will also be of benefit to you. The logic of pursuing such an agreement seems simple enough. The globalization, the IT revolution, practically make every one of us one big family, and therefore, we have to reach out with each other particularly with our friends and former countrymen here who have the Filipino blood in their veins. Why then should we reinvent the wheel or innovate, when there can be mechanisms that could allow us access to the best practices of our counterparts. Surely if we did so we would only have to fine tune the broad strokes of such best practices so that they would suit the particularities of our own context.

"With the complex demands on governments that we encounter, particularly in the delivery of basic services and economic development, efficiency is key. This Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation can also underscore and highlight our distinct competitive advantages, which would lead to more rational synergies that would not only preserve our strengths, but also enhance opportunities for exchange.

"Last, but definitely not the least, this Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation reflects our sincere commitment to serve effectively and responsibly the communities that we share, I am sure that it is known to all of us that we do not only share the Pacific Ocean, we also share a people.

"I understand there are many citizens here who are, in their deep recesses, carrying Filipino blood. I am equally sure that while we seek to walk joining hands, our governments in general, our efforts to this partnership also seeks to serve in particular the people who trace their roots both in yours and in ours.

"Our initiatives have not gone by without notice. His Excellency, Benigno S. Aquino III, President of the Republic of the Philippines has sent a message, a copy of which we will give officially to the Office of the Speaker, and I am both honored and privileged to deliver this now to you, and I quote:

On behalf of the people of the Philippines, it is with great pleasure that I send my warmest greetings to Governor Neil Abercrombie, Lieutenant Governor Brian Shatz, Senate President Shan Tsutsui, Speaker Calvin Say of the Hawaii State Legislature, the honorable members of the Hawaii State Legislature, the Hawaii state and local government officials.

I am very pleased by this auspicious occasion, the Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation between the State of Hawaii and the League of Cities of the Philippines. We are bound by ties of history and ancestry, Filipino-Hawaiians who consider both the Philippines and the islands of Hawaii as their home, are living exponents of this bond.

We are also united by shared ideals: of democracy and good governance. In the Philippines, we are seeking to mobilize our institutions to strengthen our democracy and restore the culture of transparency and accountability. We are mobilizing public officials who are solely focused on the public interest, who will defend the rule of law and not invoke it only where it serves the privileged few. Like you, our government remains steadfast on the path of progress and reform.

Through this partnership, ties of friendship will be pursued in a more comprehensive, strategic, and efficient manner in the areas of education, public health, disaster and climate resilience, juvenile justice, and social development. I am confident that Philippine cities have the capacity to widen this cooperation and have much to share with our partners in Hawaii. May this signing lead to broader relations between the Republic of the Philippines and the United States of America.

"Indeed, as we continue to engage in a partnership that we not only exchange knowledge, but also friendship. We will jointly find ways to ensure that we can be more successful in the fundamental challenge that we face – public service. Let us continue then, upwards in this path. Confident of the service we provide to each other, so that we can serve the people better.

"Our most sincere gratitude, therefore, to Governor Abercrombie, for giving your blessing to the Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation. I believe I speak for our members of the LCP when I say that we look forward to future realizations of our partnership.

"Our heartfelt thanks to the House of Representatives of the State Legislature of Hawaii; particularly of course to our close friends now, Congressman Mizuno and Congressman Brower, among others. To the Filipino Caucus, particularly the others, Representative Rida Cabanilla, and Representative Joey Manahan. You did not only push for this partnership, you nurtured it. We can only hope to reflect your efforts as both Hawaii and Philippine citizens pursue this Memorandum.

"To Mayors Carlisle, Kenoi, Arakawa, and Carvalho Jr., your presence and support inspire us. We are hopeful and confident that once you look into the best practices of Philippine cities, as the partnership would showcase, you may also be similarly inspired.

"To the LCP delegation present here, and likewise to all its members, it is true that your support of our conversions have emboldened us to take steps like this. Thank you.

"Last, but definitely not least, to the Filipino community here in the State of Hawaii, our most heartfelt thank you. Because you are here, we can never be far from home, while in Hawaii. Mahalo nui loa. Thank you, very much. Maraming salamat po. And from the far away land of the Philippines and the almost 100 million inhabitants therein, allow me to say, mabuhay. Thank you, very much."

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1969, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First may I have a ruling on a potential conflict? My son is the President-elect of BIA, Building Industry Association," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wanted to read from the General Contractors Association testimony in opposition to the bill. And I'm with serious reservations on the measure. Thank you.

"The purpose of the bill is to shorten the time by which subcontractors and material men are to receive progress and final payments from contractors on government and private construction projects. That's a very meritorious purpose.

"I think that makes sense, but let me explain why the GCA, the General Contractors Association, is opposed. They say the bill is not necessary, because similar issues were addressed in 2006 when a number of us were here in this Body. Those are my words; not the GCA. Then GCA continues that when the legislature passed Act 291, the purpose of Act 291 was to accelerate a subcontractor's or material man's right to payment upon completion of the subcontract, or the furnishings of material, providing for prompt payment to a subcontractor or material man upon completion of those persons' work on government projects. And then Act 291 is codified.

"In 2006 when this was occurring, a difficult industry consensus was reached with the passage of that bill, and it applied appropriate provisions that balanced the need for prompt payment to lower-tier contractors and subcontractors. And then here comes the key language, Mr. Speaker. While safeguarding the control needed for the upper-tier contractors and subcontractors to ensure that work is done timely and properly by its lower-tier subcontractors.

"So we are removing that balance, Mr. Speaker, by passing this bill mandating that all levels get this payment right at the front. And we aren't allowing a control needed for the contractor to ensure that the work is being done by the subs.

"So I think that this bill is actually not necessary, because the 2006 law is working. I would like to ask Members to reconsider their analysis of this bill after the Senate deals with it. And if it does come back, it may not. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. Mr. Speaker, in Act 291, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006, this Legislature tried to address the problem regarding delayed payments. However, Mr. Speaker, subcontractors and material men are still experiencing delays. Mr. Speaker, there are about 6,154 licensed subcontractors in Hawaii, and the bill was intended to make sure that these small mom and pop, small private businesses, get paid in a timely fashion.

"Mr. Speaker, in 2011 there was $1.8 billion in private construction contracts in the State of Hawaii, which is about 76%. This includes projects with private small companies like the Waikoloa Hilton Hawaiian Village King Landing which was contracted to start last year. But it was 4 months, Mr. Speaker, before the subcontractors received their first payment. Another project on Maui took 1 year for them to receive payment for services rendered. The Disney Aulani project is finished, but subcontractors on that project have not yet received final payment as of today.

"Mr. Speaker, public projects like the John A. Burns School of Medicine, a project that was completed several years ago, many of their subcontractors are still awaiting final payment. Mr. Speaker, the goal of this bill was to prevent something happening like the issue with the Board of Water Supply construction. That construction, Mr. Speaker, was completed in 2002, however, final payment to some of the subcontractors didn't happen until 2009 – 7 years. During a time of recession, Mr. Speaker, we need to encourage and ensure that these people get paid for services rendered quickly so they can keep and stay solvent. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 670-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1928, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1928, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with very, very, very strong reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker this bill repeals section 291E-68 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. In the past, it would repeal the criminalization of refusing to submit to chemical testing after an arrest for drunk driving. Criminalization of refusal to submit to the chemical test in drunk driving cases was included in the Ignition Interlock Program, by the Ignition Interlock Task Force, which realized that the sanction for refusing the chemical test must always be greater than the sanctions for taking the test in order to encourage compliance with the request of the test.

"Drivers arrested for drunk driving are able to legally drive with an interlock device, and individuals who refuse the chemical test are also given the privilege of driving interlock equipped vehicles, albeit they are required to keep the device installed for a longer period. The ability of drivers who refuse the chemical test to maintain the driving privilege reduces the deterrent value of the longer license revocation period for this group. Therefore, the task force recommended criminalization of refusal to make the act of refusing the chemical test, subject to stronger penalties.

"Mr. Speaker, at least 15 other states have criminal sanctions for refusal, the basic reasons for criminalization are as follows:

"The National Highway Transportation Safety Administration, issued a recommendation that states should review their laws to ensure that refusal is a criminal offense, and that penalties are greater than those for conviction on a drunk driving offense.

"Number 2. The ability to refuse a chemical test is not a constitutional right, but a statutory right created under the implied consent law.

"Number 3. Probable cause for a DUI arrest must be present before a person is asked to take a chemical test.

"Number 4. Researchers have realized that many drivers refuse to take the test, in order to avoid or reduce the chance of facing criminal sanctions resulting from a conviction from DUI.

"Number 5. Individuals who refuse to take the chemical test are more likely to be repeat offenders, than those who take the test.

"Number 6. The lack of criminal penalties for chemical test refusal means the suspect, if not convicted of a DUI, will not be identified as having an alcohol-related offense and will be treated as a first offender by the court if arrested again. The threat of another license suspension for repeat offenders is an ineffective deterrent.

"Finally, the additional criminal charge for refusal does not overburden the courts and should not complicate DUI prosecutions. The refusal crime can be charged concurrently with DUI. Prosecutors may choose to dismiss the refusal crime upon a plea to DUI. Courts may choose to impose concurrent sentences on DUI and a refusal crime. The possibility of suffering refusal penalty even if found guilty of the DUI charge, already exists with the administrative sanctions.

"Members, and Mr. Speaker, I urge the Committee to look at the testimony of Mothers Against Drunk Driving who are in opposition to this measure, and I will be voting with very strong reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

And sometimes you want to hug him. This is one of those times you want to hug him. And Mr. Speaker, may I be allowed to insert written comments into the Journal."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"Mahalo, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments in support of House Bill 2079, which establishes and designates the bacterium, Nesiotobacter exalbesceus as the official State Microbe. At present the State of Hawaii and its individual islands recognize 31 official emblems in a diverse range; from tree to song, colors to flower and insect to almost anything in between, except for the microbe. According to the Associate Professor of the Department of Microbiology at the University of Hawaii at Manoa, Dr. Stuart P. Donachie who discovered Nesiotobacter exalbesceus, microbes are the most abundant organisms in Hawaii and on Earth. They create and sustain our environment.

"However, microbes are given a bad name. If you look up the definition of microbe in the dictionary it says: "a microscopic organism, especially one that transmits disease"(Encarta: English (North America)). The latter half perpetuates the reason why microbes are viewed negatively. From a young age we remember being told to: "wash our hands to prevent the spread of germs" and "germs are bad". We neglect to remember that without many of these germs we wouldn't be able to build resistance and our overall quality of health would decline.

"Nesiotobacter exalbasensis is one of the good microbes. In pure culture it converts nitrate to nitrogen, and it may be involved in the nitrogen cycle in the environment. This species has been detected only once in Dr. Donachie's 500,000 sequences and 10,000+ cultures over 25 plus years of fieldwork. Everyday new discoveries are made in the field of microbiology. Through our STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) core program 7,000 students participated in the 54th Annual State Science and Engineering Fair 2011. STEM is helping to get our students enthusiastic about learning in the classroom. Establishing a State microbe will also assist in getting more students excited in the 5 W's (who, what, when, where and why) of everything that is microbe and everything that is science.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support House Bill 2079."

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 685-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2238, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2238, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLES," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representative Herkes being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 686-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2047, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2047, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was hoping this bill would be recommitted and then reassigned to Committee so it could be amended before we send it to the Senate. I'm voting no, Mr. Speaker.

"I think the idea is good. We want to protect information. But the bill is so broad, that is just, except for the fact it excludes government, so it says all businesses, every business that maintains personal information. Well any business that gets a check from a consumer would be that kind of a business, so it's every business, but not government. And then it says that those businesses shall implement a comprehensive written policy. If it were aimed at government and larger businesses or businesses that really are relevant to having this kind of information, then I could understand it.

"But the real killer language is on page 2 of the bill. Every business, this is virtually every business in the State, covered by this section shall train all employees, all employees, in the implementation of the policy and procedure. It makes no sense Mr. Speaker, and that's why I was hoping it would be recommitted, redrafted and put to really apply to businesses and government. Definitely government, that are dealing with sensitive information. And only those employees that are really going to be handling that information should be trained. Not all employees.

"For once I agree with something Hawaiian Electric said when they came in to oppose the bill. They talked about the height of a pile of all of their employees, sheet by sheet by sheet, that they would have to train under this bill. It makes no sense, because the majority of those have never even seen the sensitive information. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, there's probably 20 to 30 thousand mom and pops in the State of Hawaii, most of which would be very sensitive to keeping their stuff private. But if it comes to where it's going to be a policy in a written and a formal statement, it looks as though it's going to infringe upon and cost time and money of which as we know the small business community is having a difficult time, to where survival is considered success. Many not making money. Many are going under.

"So I would suggest as we do with many programs, we have a means test. In this case, an employee test. If you don't have more than mom and pop, let's let them go aside so in the event that they're exposing one spouse to the other spouse, I think we can trust that we can eliminate those. But this is kind of too broad of a brush stroke, and I think as it goes further down, it can be much improved. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Unfortunately, I'm rising in opposition. I think that the subject matter is very, very, honorable, and very, very worthwhile. Information protection. But being in the Committee hearing and one after one after one, each business coming out and saying 'Please don't do this.'

"The bill would apply to all businesses maintaining the records. And every business covered by the bill must train all employees, signing a form, acknowledging receipt of training. It places a huge cost burden on small businesses, but more importantly, makes them vulnerable to fines and penalties for violations that only in hindsight could have been prevented.

"The bill creates an unrealistic, unachievable standard, and they go on and on. So my fear is that in our good intentions to protect them, poor businesses are just going to be so vulnerable and so scared to have to make sure that each and every ... It just sends a message of anti-business to me, and I'm just hoping that there's an alternative way to achieve the same goal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I just want a ruling of a possible conflict, Mr. Speaker. I'm a small business owner," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. And I would like to make a comment on the bill. With reservations. I do realize that there are a lot of businesses where it is like a revolving door. And my reservations is in the training where everyone has to be trained. If you are a business owner, wherein you have a lot of employees who are just low level or just temporary, that's a big expense item, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. I know, my heart and prayers go out to Representative Herkes. He's not feeling well and is under the weather, so I will stand and defend the bill, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in support.

"Mr. Speaker, the intent of this bill was to try and address the growing problem of identity theft. Members, how big is this problem? On average, every 3 seconds somebody's identity gets stolen. The AARP reported about 400 thousand deceased individuals had bank accounts opened in their name. 400 thousand deceased people. So Mr. Speaker, the intent of this measure is to try to get a handle on making sure that information is handled in a private and confidential way to protect the consumer. All of us.

"We understand that there are concerns and the impact on business. However, Mr. Speaker, just within the last 3 to 4 years, there are stories that made the papers about how university students, government employees, individuals from the Sony Corporation, IBM and others, had their data attacked, breached and confidential information, sent out.

"So Mr. Speaker, we ask the Members to consider this measure as it moves forward to further the discussion. And we think that further education and knowledge by various employees should be considered as we move forward, especially with this crisis of identity theft. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in responding to the Chair of Health's comments. It doesn't apply to the University students where the University releases information, inadvertently. It doesn't apply to government. It goes after small businesses.

"Supposing you owned a yard service operation and you did commercial work, and you did residential work. And maybe you employed 50 employees that are spread out doing this yard service work. Every one of those employees would have to be trained under this bill. Does that make sense? It just doesn't. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill. I've been focused on this particular topic for a few years now, because I was, as many of us here were also victims of identity theft.

"As you know, the University of Hawaii, in the last few years, cites maybe five breaches of information. In fact they settled with the court recently and they have agreed to provide every single student, or former student, every victim of their breaches with identity theft protection for a few years.

"I do realize that this bill does not include State government, and I do hope that in the future we include State government. But I think this is truly a paradigm shift. And if people look at identity theft, like how we take a look at healthcare information, like how we take a look at EEO provisions, or sexual harassment provisions, that are required or mandated now in the workplace, you'll understand how important this training, and understanding of this type of breach and information protection is to not only the workplace, but to the entire community.

"So I would encourage our Members to take a little broader perspective of this particular measure, and I hope that in the future that we can include government as well. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2047, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INFORMATION PROTECTION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Ching and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Herkes being excused.

HB No. 2494 HD 1, Relating to Collective Bargaining Cost Items;
HB No. 2495 HD 1, Relating to Collective Bargaining Cost Items;
HB No. 2257 HD 1, Relating to Professional and Vocational Licensing; HB No. 2871 HD 1 Relating to the West Maui Ocean Recreation Management Area; and HB No. 2881, HD 1, Relating to Green Waste.

HB No. 1758, HD 1.

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted to announce that today, March 1st, kicks off National Kidney Month. Chronic kidney disease develops when the kidneys lose their ability to remove their waste and maintain the fluid chemical balance in the body. More than 31 million adults in the US have it. Most are not aware of it, as there are no symptoms until the kidney disease reaches later stage.

"At HMC East and West had a lot, particularly at Liliha, we had a lot of people on dialysis. Anyone 18 and older can have diabetes and high blood pressure, but it can be prevented. It can be delayed through early detection and proper treatment. So March is kidney month, I would ask that everybody be aware of that. I think that they're coming down to the Capitol.

"And one more announcement, which is probably a little more uplifting. Over the weekend while we were in recess, I was so proud to realize that our own homegrown Kauai Hart Hemmings, the step-daughter of Senator Fred Hemmings who served in the Senate for many years, her film, The Descendants won the Oscar for best adapted screenplay, which is really nice, since she's after all, the author.

"She was here today at the Legislature, being honored by the Senate, by Senator Brickwood Galuteria, with her mother, Suzy Hemmings, a daughter of Hawaii. And of course, her step-dad, Senator Fred Hemmings. I think that it's a wonderful film, not just because of the economics it brings to our State, but if you haven't seen it already, I won't try to give away from the plot, but what I got out of the film is the essence of heritage, reminding us how special this place is, our paradise, and how fragile this place is, our paradise, and how in need of care and the stewardship is this place we call paradise, we call home. So if you haven't seen it, it's still playing in Kahala. But I think that that lots to be proud of, lots to be proud of. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee: "Thank you. Just very briefly. I just wanted to remind everybody, that this afternoon at 2:00 and at 3:30, the American Heart and Stroke Association in collaboration will be offering CPR training in the Auditorium. Again, that's at 2:00 and 3:30."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I have many concerns, but the most is that in the Committee Report it says that laptops means personal computing devices, and they are not personal computing devices. They are not the same. I think that that's a very, kind of gross overstatement. I would hope that if they measure goes forward, that the next Committees will look at the fact that personal tablets and devices which should be the wave of the future, which Auburn and other districts are using, are completely different from laptops. And I have other concerns too. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I stand with strong reservations on this matter. If I may just make a few comments? I'm very concerned that we're taking money away from our public access channels, and this is a very important vehicle in the State of Hawaii for the community to be able to get their message out. When we start restricting fees and taking moneys away from these types of organizations, we're really putting a limit on free speech. I'd like us to consider other ways of funding the Governor's initiative. I'm all for what the Governor's trying to do in improving education in the State, but I just don't think we should be taking it away from PEGs. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. In my other job, I work for Oceanic Time Warner Business Class. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just want to note my reservations, and add a couple comments. I'm in full support of creating a broadband special fund, and in general in support of the free broadband for our citizens. My only concern especially for providing this type of service to our kids is most of the internet crimes occur in free broadband areas, and what I'm concerned is I hope when we're providing this to the children in the schools, we can somehow exclude those that may target younger children for criminal activity."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations of H.B. 2874-RELATING TO BROADBAND. This bill creates the broadband special fund to support funding public school broadband and laptop initiatives, and freezes appropriations of moneys derived from cable fees at the lesser of the 2011 appropriation of the amount that a recipient would otherwise receive in the current year. It requires excess moneys to be deposited into the broadband special fund.

"While I support broadband, the problem with this measure, as stated by the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, is that this bill places a limit on the amount of funding that certain programs receive and inhibits their ability to access funds that support expansion of telecommunication infrastructures and broadband communications. Furthermore, this bill negatively impacts the State's ability to access federal funds and the bill does not clarify if the intention is to cap the amount of operating fees paid to Public, Educational, and Governmental access organizations and Public Broadcasting Service Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, my vision has always been to make 'Olelo into a C-SPAN so the people have access to all that we're doing, saying, decision making, etc. If at this early stage, because we're not even near being a C-SPAN that we're taking away money, even though it's a good cause, and the Representative from Maui, both Representatives from Maui speak very well as to why we should be concerned about that. But my concern is that in the long run of the big picture, everything that the public fears we're not doing, they, C-SPAN, and 'Olelo and Akaku and all these other ones, are going to open up government the way it should be. Thank you."

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. All this bill does is provide funding mechanisms, originally for laptop computers, but then we did broaden it to portable computer devices. That way we could give it more flexibility in what kind of device it can be used for. It has mechanisms to be able to get donations from the private sector, which I think is a laudable mission. And as far as the mechanism that others have been speaking of, all it does is they get to keep what they currently got in 2011, and everything above that, that's the for PEGs, PBS and DCCA. So everything that is given to them through the Cable Franchise Fee, above that, above the levels of 2011, will go towards this mission.

"It's only for 5 years. In the end, I'd like to see something move for this mission. If it will end up exactly as written today, I don't know. The Senate may change it and do something else with it. But I think broadband is important. We've already got the ARRA grant to connect all our schools with high speed internet, and there's going to be a lot of need for these types of devices. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think I will vote no on this particular measure. I think it's just a money grab. I'm all for broadband access, and computers for kids. However, in order to fund programs, we are searching far and wide into special funds and diverting funds, raiding them, in order to fund special programs. And especially in the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, that's a real target for scooping up money. So if there's too much money for PEG access stations, then we consider lowering the fee. I was looking at my bill the other day, and it's almost $5. So I think we should step back and take a look at this, but definitely not divert it to other uses. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I don't think the bill goes far enough. I think we need a complete audit of all the PEG access because I think the consumers need to know where that money is going."

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2328, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Oshiro and Wooley being excused.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 725-12) recommending that H.B. No. 530, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 530, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I'm voting no, and am asking other Members to take a real hard look at this, before it comes to us for Third Reading. What this will do is give the Department of Land and Natural Resources and, more concerning, the Department of Transportation, the authority to exempt State projects from the requirements for special management areas and shoreline setbacks.

"The exemption is unusual, Mr. Speaker. Thirty years ago, or a little bit more, under a Democrat Majority, the Majority put in very strong environmental laws. Now we fast forward a number of decades forward, and under the same control, unfortunately, many of these environmental laws are being weakened, gutted or just ignored. I would like Members to please look at this seriously when you have your Caucus on Monday, and see whether or not this bill should be tabled. I hope it will be."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition. In testimony in the Finance Committee, just the other day, the Office of Planning was very clear. They don't want this. This bill would move these decisions directly into them. There is the jeopardy of losing federal funding to the tune of at least a couple of million dollars. There's a federal Coastal Zone Management Program that we have to follow in order to qualify for the federal funds which I believe in testimony relates to somewhere around 23 jobs one way or another.

"This bill would allow two new positions in the Office of Planning. So the idea of this bill is to expedite decision making. I would argue that besides the very dangerous precedent of altering the rules radically, it'll have the exact opposite effect, and bog down the Office of Planning, who's not ready to take it, and who are presently working on a program that they wish to continue to develop and present for the next legislative Session. So we're rushing to dismantle our environmental protections and this is one example that is another bad idea. A no vote, please."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members. I wish to speak in favor of this measure. It has been mentioned by the Representative across me from Kailua, that years ago the Democrats came up with these environmental laws that we have. And yes, it did come up and they did provide the language for the laws. However, Mr. Speaker and Members, the interpretation of the laws these last few years, the past ten years or so, has stretched the intent where the cost of construction, because of the time lag, has doubled and tripled. An ordinary project, once it gets to the EIS level, and then needs to go on, it can take a minimum of between five and ten years before completion. The price and the land, every day the cost goes up.

"I remember a project years back where the project was supposed to be $350 million and it ended up being about $1.3 billion, because of the continual interpretation of the environmental laws. So Members, yes we should not void the law by itself. But for special projects it may be necessary. We really need to go back and look at these laws again and if they need to be improved, they should be improved. We cannot afford the continual time lags and costs that the State is burdened with because of the laws that we have. So we need to revisit these laws again. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Yes, thank you Mr. Speaker. My second time, I know. Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict? My son is the President-elect of the Building Industry Association, and they testified in favor of the bill," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I disagree with the Building Industry Association's testimony. Mr. Speaker, responding to Speaker Emeritus' comments, the interpretation of the law may be inconvenient to the Department of Transportation, but the interpretation of environmental laws is what is to protect our islands and our environment. It may be inconvenient. It may be more time consuming and it may be that the Department of Transportation needs to do a better job in recognizing how they can comply with the environmental laws, as well as move ahead projects. But inconvenience is no reason to gut what has been on the books for over 30 years. It was a Democrat legacy that's being eroded by a present day Democrat Majority, and I find that unfortunate. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, and I'll reserve my comments for Third Reading."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like a no vote, and also I'd like to note that this bill does require particular scrutiny because it bypassed the Committee on Energy and Environmental Protection through the referral process, as a single referral to the Finance Committee."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 530, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COASTAL ZONE MANAGEMENT," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Belatti, Hanohano, Riviere, Saiki and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Oshiro and Wooley being excused.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 727-12) recommending that H.B. No. 304, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have reservations on this matter and am looking forward to finding out more about it from the Members of Finance. My concern is if there's an interstate pooling of bond allocations that are made possible in the bill, this could subject the State to some difficulties if other states run into difficulties. So I'm just not real clear. I'm looking forward to talking to the Chair of Finance to get a little bit of further information about it. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 304, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE FINANCES," passed Second

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. I think these are high-risk loans and more worthy of venture capital investment. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote please. A couple of comments in that regard. The reason why is, too many risks, too high of a cost, and management who doesn't have the experience to run this. I have nothing against the AFL-CIO or Governor Abercrombie, but they're going to be the leadership of the bank, and their backgrounds or experience doesn't lend itself to take taxpayers money in, as our colleague said, a venture capitalist mode."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and just a few short comments. It's just curious that in this Committee Report that first the measure was gutted and a proposed draft was circulated. Then that proposed draft which was testified upon was deleted in entirety, and its contents. So I just want to take a closer look at this and make sure my reservations are made clear."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 1033 – Relating to Public Finance. This bill establishes the Clean Economy Bank of the State of Hawaii to, among other things: Enable the State to leverage aligned resources and collective influence to build a national clean economy that creates jobs, reduces carbon emissions, and ensures the nation's energy security; Support clean economic development within the State and other participating entities; and Lessen the burden on the State and other participating entities to finance qualified renewable energy and other related purposes.

"This bill pursues a path that I find irresponsible, bureaucratic and costly to the State. I agree with words from the Hawaii Bankers Association, "Forming a state-owned bank is a complex and potentially costly process and deserves thorough analysis to determine whether there is truly a legitimate unfulfilled need. Legislators must ask if it can be accomplished without risking the public's money and if it can be operated in a safe and sound manner. Without proper vetting and consideration, the state could be burdened with more costly bureaucracy, not to mention the cost to set up the initial banking infrastructure."

"The underpinnings of this bill would conceivably breed unfair competition and policy conflict. Until the State can show proof of operating a for-profit business, this bill should not even be considered. H.B. 1033 lacks reasonable, intuitive support and would require an unknown amount of State money to implement. I would be astonished if something so imprudent could make its way into law in such a fragile economic environment. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1033, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC FINANCE," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Ching and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Oshiro and Wooley being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 42, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote, please. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This measure makes permanent the prohibition against urinating or defecating in public within the Chinatown, Downtown, Honolulu areas. I don't support that type of activity, but I find that the difficulty for people including sometimes our tourists, the difficulty is finding a public restroom. I know there is one in the Police Department. There are certainly some people that would feel uncomfortable about going in there to request to use that restroom. There may be a few others around. Some of them wouldn't be as accessible for the population if they were in a restaurant or in Macy's or in some other store.

"So we're putting a restriction on people in a specific area. I don't know about the people that are bordering, whose districts are right surrounding that area, but those people might feel a little uncomfortable about this bill, too. I don't think this bill makes sense Mr. Speaker, unless we had the county really doing aggressive construction to make restrooms available in a very densely populated area, and very intensely visited. So I'm sorry to see this bill move forward. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My reservation on this bill is not because I'm in total opposition of it. My reservation is that we should tackle the issue of having restrooms in shopping centers. There are smaller shopping centers like in Ewa Beach and Waipahu wherein if you happen to be there, you don't have anywhere to relieve yourself. So I believe that one of the things that we should implement in this House is to have some sort of resolution for all these private shopping centers, that there should be public restrooms. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 42, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC ORDER," passed Second Reading and was

No. 2686, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL LIABILITY," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Oshiro and Wooley being excused.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 707-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2564, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2564, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOLUNTEER MEDICAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 714-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2740, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2740, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"This bill will extend the reduction of State highway taxes for this fuel used to generate electricity in my district on Hawaii Island. The Hamakua Energy Partners took over the generation of electricity on the site of the former Hamakua Sugar Co. after the plantation closed and provided a number of badly needed jobs for this depressed area. The tax, while nominal, is borne totally by this private entity for the benefit of the State Highway Fund. I have never understood the nexus that exists between this fuel tax and energy generation, as naphtha is not commercially available as a surface transportation fuel; at least not on the Big Island."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2740, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 732-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1925, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1925, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support H.B. 1925 HD1 which will require County Liquor Commissions to treat Hawaii craft distilled products the same as wine produced in Hawaii. Hawaii is becoming known for not only fine local wines—using local agricultural products—but also for its locally-brewed beers and liquors, including rums, vodkas and other liquors. This measure supports a niche in our local economy by allowing craft distillers to sell their products directly to visitors at their manufacturing sites or a tasting site for private use and consumption. As in the case of wineries, distilleries are an additional place where visitors can view and sample Hawaii products.

"This bill will stimulate sales for local, independent entrepreneurs, as well as stimulate Hawaii's local economy. It will encourage and strengthen niche local manufacturing."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1925, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIQUOR," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 733-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1964, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1964, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 739-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2600, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 741-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2639, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2639, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Honorable Speaker, I support this measure that recognizes the quality of military training and experience and which assists Hawaii-based military personnel to earn academic credits through the University of Hawaii. This bill facilitates the UH college equivalency program giving full measure to the professional experience gained by servicemen and servicewomen while serving in the United States Armed Forces.

"As our military personnel return home from deployment and separate from military service, many will face the challenge of securing gainful employment. As the G.I. Bill provided opportunities through education for earlier generations, utilizing their military educational benefits and pursuing higher education remains one of the best ways to transition into civilian life and employment. This measure would save time and money for the service member trying to complete their education.

"This measure requires the University of Hawaii to develop an associated learning assessment to determine college level learning gained during military experience.

"This measure is the right thing to do for those who serve so selflessly to defend our nation."

Representative Johanson's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I rise in support of HB 2639. I believe it is important that Hawaii ensure a continuum of opportunity for our returning armed service members. The State of Hawaii has an opportunity to facilitate the transition back into civilian life for these brave men and women by making educational opportunities more accessible and available. This bill accomplishes that end by recognizing the professional knowledge, expertise and skills gained while on active duty. It does not make sense to make individuals repeat duplicative academic courses where the individual's professional abilities already surpass the academic quotient of learning. I am in strong support of this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2639, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHER EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 742-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2642, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 747-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2409, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2409, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER PROTECTION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 750-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2100, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2100, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HB 2100 which would appropriate monies for statewide bee hive research. UH-Hilo continues to lead the way for such research. The work done by Dr. Lorna Tsutsumi of the College of Agriculture, Farming, Natural Resource Management is noteworthy and has garnered support from renowned chef Alan Wong.

"Honey bees are responsible for crop pollination and their health and well-being are especially important if we truly want to reduce our dependency on imported food. Unfortunately, there are several major pests threatening honey bees in Hawaii. The small hive beetle arrived in the State in 2010 and has been detected on four islands. Its presence compounds the challenges for beekeepers, who are already dealing with the Varroa mite since 2007. This bill is a tool to alleviate these obstacles."

Representative Awana's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure supports the agriculture industry in providing necessary funding to ensure the safety of a tiny, but very necessary insect which is crucial to the balance of our food cycle, the bee. In years past, the varroa mite hit our Hawaii bee population creating serious concern among the farming community. No bees, leads to no pollination. No pollination means no new plants, no livestock, and no food. I applaud the University of Hawaii at Hilo as they continue to be diligent in ensuring a healthy Anthophila population which in turn helps the rest of Hawaii. Again, I am in strong support and I ask that the other Members of the Legislature support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I strongly support HB 2100 HD2, which would appropriate general funds to the University of Hawaii for beehive research statewide.

"I first want to thank Chef Alan Wong and his staff for bringing attention to this important subject. Chef Wong recognizes the importance of honeybees, which prompted him to partner with UHH in heightening awareness about the plight of bees, their decreasing populations and what can be done to help them flourish.

"With his "Adopt a Beehive with Alan Wong" initiative, the famous chef supports the work at UHH by encouraging donations to the UH Foundation. All proceeds support bee hive "adoptions" at the campus farm, and contributors receive reports on their adopted bee hives, along with honey and other products.

"Albert Einstein predicted, "If the bee disappeared off the surface of the globe then man would only have four years of life left. No more bees, no more pollination, no more plants, no more animals, no more man." Many of us do not realize that bees pollinate and make possible a wide range of vegetables, fruits and flowers and make much of our local agriculture industry possible.

"Hawaii is a world leader in producing queen bees, and this bill would strengthen that industry. In addition to being a significant economic driver, this industry promotes the health and proliferation of bees, which pollinate many agricultural crops throughout Hawaii.

"HB 2100 HD2 would help protect bee colonies from harmful pests, such as small hive beetles and Varroa mites, and thereby increase food security for Hawaii residents. The bill would further research and educational activities at the University of Hawaii Hilo campus. At the university's 110-acre apiary in Panaewa, students receive hands-on training on how to cultivate bees at this outdoor laboratory with 25 hives.

"UHH also maintains a one-acre bee-friendly educational garden featuring a variety of plants that reflect the history of beekeeping in our Islands.

"Clearly, Hawaii's honey bee industry deserves State funding to continue its vital work. For all the above reasons, I strongly support HB 2100 HD2, Relating to Bees."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"This bill will provide an appropriation to the University of Hawaii for statewide bee hive research. This is critical to the agricultural industry as so many agricultural products are solely dependent on bees as their source of pollination which is necessary to ensure the maturity of many crops. The bee industry is in jeopardy as the result of the unintended introduction of the varroa mite that affects the development and abilities of the bees to complete this very important task."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2100, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 751-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2093, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2093, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this is a critical piece in our return to food sustainability as we have fallen far behind in our drive to develop new farmers to work the fields that we are so concerned about protecting. The rejuvenation of the Future Farmers of America program in our schools is critical to the future survival of agriculture in Hawaii as this program will not only provide us with farmers, but with the necessary participants and leaders in a strong and vibrant agricultural sector. This is just one piece of a comprehensive vision that would include the processing and marketing of island grown products that will help to ensure that agriculture is not only sustainable but also profitable for farm families throughout the State."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2093, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 752-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1942, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1942, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure which would allow the State HDOA to build an electronic manifest program. It notifies inspectors of the types of commodities being imported into the State prior to a plane's arrival. This is an advantage that would greatly help to combat invasive species from further establishing a foothold in Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1942, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 753-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1943, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1943, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure which proposes to create a detection and prevention program within the State Department of Agriculture (HDOA).

"The Hawaii Detector Dog Program (HDDP), which began in November 1989, was unfortunately shutdown at the end of June 2009. This bill would provide a general fund appropriation to match a federal grant to fund plant quarantine detector dogs. Testimony was given that the re-establishment of HDOA's detector dog program is one of the ten most important actions that must be taken to protect Hawaii. Guam's build-up and Asia's increased importance in trade and military matters means that we are increasingly vulnerable to invasion by brown tree snake and other pest species. Since there is no 100% inspection of cargo and conveyances that are bound for Hawaii, we must take responsibility for protecting our shores and the HDDP is an effective way of doing so."

Representative Awana's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. In the past, positions within the Department of Agriculture have been cut because of budget challenges. It only takes one invasive species to create havoc to our environment. We have learned this lesson from the mongoose, snake, rat, wasps, and the list goes on. This measure will provide necessary funding needed to help fund positions to increase protection against invasive species. This measure is not only important to the Department of Agriculture, but also even more important to the people of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1943, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INVASIVE SPECIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 755-12) recommending that H.B. No. 280, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 280, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Coffman's written remarks in opposition to the measure are as follows:

"I cannot support HB280—a bill to repeal requirements by the Department of Agriculture to inspect and certify Hawaiian green bean coffee.

"The current laws and rules regarding the inspection of Hawaiian grown coffee were the result of the Kona Kai coffee scandal of 1996, when it was discovered that a mainland-based company was selling coffee not grown in Hawaii and labeling it as Kona Coffee.

"Our coffee inspection and certification program worked fine until the Lingle Administration decimated the program by cutting the number of inspectors within the Department of Agriculture in 2009.

"I have reviewed the hearing testimony for HB280 and I want to share the following concerns:

- The Department of Agriculture testified in support of the bill, reminding us of the counterfeit scandal and associated fraud. However, with only one full-time inspector for Kona, they realize that their lack of inspectors is causing the problem of shipping delays which results in cash flow problems for coffee sellers.
- This year's coffee crop is almost completely harvested. The Department of Agriculture is on record that they will be hiring more inspectors by the end of this month. Why would we repeal a law that protects one of our unique Hawaiian products when we are in the process of solving the problem?
- The Department of Agriculture has established HAR 4-143-10 which authorizes and establishes a process for self-certification, making the repeal of the Department of Agriculture's inspection and certification unnecessary. It is called the Coffee Quality Verification Program (CQVP). Once a dry miller reaches a level III status in the CQVP program, that business entity is only required to have an audit/inspection every 30 days.
- Other testimony, while in support, expressed the need to have strong penalties for individuals that violate the self-certification program. The bill does not address any additional penalties for violators and accordingly the bill is not truly supported by these individuals.

- This is the worst time to repeal our inspection and certification laws. The coffee berry borer beetle is creating a lot of sub-standard coffee that cannot be labeled as Kona Coffee. While I am not accusing anyone of planning to market this inferior product, I don't think that we should provide that temptation by repealing our laws.
- Kona coffee is only as good as its reputation. All of Hawaii loses if we again taint that product's reputation.

"Because HB280 will be effective upon approval and may not be subject to a Conference discussion, I will be voting No on the measure."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this bill which seeks to repeal the requirement that all Hawaii-grown green coffee beans shall be inspected and certified by the Department of Agriculture (HDOA).

"Having had discussions with various coffee industry members, HDOA officials feel that a voluntary certification program, and mandatory compliance to grading standards and origin documentation under proposed changes to the Hawaii Administrative Rules, will provide sufficient protection for Hawaii's coffee industry. While this will make certification voluntary, this measure would not trump the current quarantines in place that are meant to prevent the spread of coffee berry borer or other potential invasive pests or diseases."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 280, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Coffman and Hanohano voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 756-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2244, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2244, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support this bill which would create a licensure process to allow private inspectors in other states to conduct inspections of items intended for import to Hawaii.

"This provision would give the Department of Agriculture a means to evaluate items at mainland points of origin before they arrive into our State. This type of pre-entry program is especially important for high risk commodities, such as Christmas trees and leafy greens."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2244, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE INSPECTORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 769-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support HB 1777 HD 1 which provides the authority for judges in all criminal cases, to order the production of records by persons or entities (including financial institutions, internet service providers, and communication service providers), located outside the State of Hawaii. Basically, this bill creates a jurisdictional "long-arm statute" for criminal proceedings, which is similar to the existing "long-arm statute" utilized in civil proceedings, for discovery and legal processes.

"This bill—included in a package of bills aimed at updating our penal statutes to deal with the growing sophistication of cyber-based and digital crimes—is patterned after similar statutes that have been recently enacted in Washington State, Minnesota, California, and Florida. This bill does not change the legal standards required to effectuate criminal process, but does ensure equality, efficiency, fairness and reciprocity of Hawaii's processes with those of other states."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRODUCTION OF RECORDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 771-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2174, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2174, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of HB2174 HD 1, a measure that ensures additional transparency in Hawaii's campaign spending laws, especially in light of changes in federal campaign spending court decisions. The bill focuses on increasing the public's right to know who the financial backers are for all candidates. The bill would also facilitate public inspection and searching of the Campaign Spending Commission's database.

"This measure requires that every report to be filed by an individual or entity must be certified as complete and accurate by that individual or entity and provides additional disclosure requirements for noncandidate committee reports. This bill addresses loopholes that may allow third party expenditures to skirt the importance of disclosures at the end of a campaign. This bill requires that any expenditure paid for, that will be rendered during the last three days of an election period, must also be included in a late expenditures report and mandates late reports from entities that make contributions or independent expenditures in an aggregate amount of more than $500 within fourteen through four calendar days prior to any election. It also provides certain requirements for advertisements and subjects any person who files a defective report to monitoring and penalties.

"This bill addresses the critical and timely issue of independent expenditures in campaigns. It creates a searchable database for campaign spending data, improves the reporting by noncandidate committees (PACs and SuperPACs), adds late expenditure reports, and improves disclosure for campaign advertisements. In response to Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. ___, 130 S.Ct. 876 (2010), this bill will improve Hawaii's campaign disclosure law and help it move toward greater transparency."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2174, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 775-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RAP BACK PROGRAM OF THE HAWAII CRIMINAL JUSTICE DATA CENTER," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 777-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2046, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2046, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Honorable Speaker, I support HB 2046 which establishes an Adult and Community Education Program Special Fund with separate accounts for each school. Adult Community Schools serve an integral function of the Department of Education in my community by providing adult basic education, Competency Based High School Diploma Program, general educational development (GED), English as a Second Language, and citizenship. My community has an ever increasing number of immigrant families with children and young adults in need of the services provided by the Adult Community Schools. This bill provides that adult and community education program will be funded through legislative appropriations supplemented by student fees.

"Although H.R.S. §302A-432 establishes a program of adult and community education which is regulated by the Department of Education, the program is constantly fighting for its basic existence. The passage of this bill establishing a special fund is vital to the program."

Representative Aquino's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of SCR 777, HB 2046. Mr. Speaker, this measure seeks to fund our adult and community educational programs in our areas. This especially hits the Waipahu and Leeward Oahu areas where the Waipahu Community School for Adults serves hundreds of students per year. Many people—young and old and from all walks of life utilize the services provided at this institution and the several others throughout our State. This bill ensures that there will be a funding stream to help sustain needed services in our communities. Thank you."

Representative Johanson's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I rise in support of HB 2046. Adult and Community Schools, such as the Moanalua/Aiea Community School, play a critical role in our communities by providing opportunities for those who may not necessarily find the traditional K – 12 educational route ideal. These institutions provide a means for students with varying needs and interests to broaden their base of knowledge or pursue their high school degrees by enrolling in a GED Program. This measure would establish a stable funding base to ensure these schools and their programs continue to serve our communities. This measure ensures the entire spectrum of educational opportunities and a holistic educational continuum."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. This bill proposes to establish the Adult and Community Education Program Special Fund, which will provide financial support for the adult and community education program through legislative appropriations and supplemented by student fees. In an increasingly competitive economy, having an education is critical to securing a quality high-paying job. Adult educational programs provide a way for those outside the traditional age range of public school students to gain basic educational skills, complete a high school education and actively contribute to society.

"Adult and community education programs serve thousands of Hawaii residents. The community schools had 9,055 students enrolled in academic programs statewide during the 2010-11 school year. Impressively, 2,035 of these students received a diploma by the end of school year. Through adult education, thousands of community members continue their studies in an effort to better their quality of life. Our support for adult education is essential to keep education accessible to all and will help to put people back to work. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this measure which extends drug-free zones to public housing.

"This bill expands the protections that we provide for our neighborhood schools and parks, to include State and federal public housing projects and complexes.

"This measure addresses the harsh, but indisputable reality of crystal methamphetamine and its disastrous effects upon our community and individuals within it. This measure is not about targeting a particular demographic, it's about strengthening our enforcement efforts to protect those most vulnerable in our community.

"This Legislature has made it consistently clear that if you go to our schools or enjoy our parks, we will do everything we can to keep you safe. We should similarly extend this protection to those living in our housing. Public housing should be safe for our residents and their families who live there."

Representative Johanson's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I rise in strong support of HB 2736. Public and low income housing should provide a safe and stable environment for those in need and provide opportunities to return to a path of self sufficiency. This is difficult to achieve in an environment where individuals fear for their safety. Children are particularly vulnerable when drugs and drug-dealing become a daily aspect of their lives; simple activities such as playing outside become dangerous because of the specter of drugs. Our current laws protect children in schools and parks; they should also be protected in their home environments. I believe this bill promotes a safe, healthy environment in public and low-income housing and ensures an environment of opportunity and a path to self-sufficiency. I am in strong support of this measure."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I am in support of this measure that establishes a medical residency program at the University of Hawaii at Hilo.

"Hawaii County continues to experience a severe shortage of physicians, and this medical residency program is a strategy to attract physicians to the communities where their skills are needed most, specifically the medically needy and underserved rural populations.

"I serve on the Hilo Medical Center Foundation Board of Trustees. The mission of the Foundation is "to support the Hilo Medical Center with projects that benefit the greater community." Funding of the Hilo Medical Residency Program is critically needed now to ensure that it is sustained through its accreditation process, which will take almost two years.

"Hawaii Island's rural communities need more doctors and the Hilo Medical Residence Program and this Bill would help to alleviate the current physician and nursing shortage."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"The Hilo Family Residency program sponsored by the Hilo Medical Center in cooperation with the University of Hawai'i, John A. Burns School of Medicine is a critical first step in our goal to provide a sufficient number of doctors to care for Hawaii residents and our aging kupuna in the islands. Studies show that medical school graduates often stay to practice in the region that they have completed their residency programs. As residents, they become familiar with their surroundings, develop networks, and become members of their community. As members of the community, these doctors begin to grow roots. Until we increase the opportunity for those roots to be grown here in the islands, we will continue to graduate medical students from our University who will be forced to leave the islands to complete their training elsewhere. The Hilo pilot should serve as a model and eventually a budget line item that will demonstrate the State's commitment to provide for the health care needs of our citizens."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2368, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT HILO," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2664, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support H.B. 2664, HD1 which would establish a public-private partnership in a county with a population between one hundred thousand and one hundred seventy thousand to develop an integrated system to deliver health care across the spectrum of care and particularly to address the current challenge in acute care. This measure supports and recognizes the interconnections in our public and private continuum of care.

"Currently, hospitals do not have the capacity to care for Hawaii's citizens in need of acute, and post-acute care. They have long wait-lists for acute care, and must usher out those in need of post-acute care prematurely in order to free up beds. Entering into public-private partnerships is a cost-effective way to expand our hospitals' capabilities and to better use existing services and programs in our community. It will provide for healthcare infrastructure that is stable in the long term. This bill fosters synergy and opportunities for growth for both healthcare organizations in a partnership. It ensures that hospital partnerships will have the resources to provide more patients with needed services, including the critically ill. This pilot opportunity will move us forward, better able as a community to face the expected healthcare crisis we face with a growing and aging population in the future."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2664, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE COORDINATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure is necessary for the sustainability of agriculture in Hawaii. This measure requires continuing education for veterinarians and in doing so, improving the quality of care for Hawaii's livestock. Veterinarians are in short supply and this measure will ensure that those who are here are kept abreast of the advances in technology and alternatives that may help these doctors. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR VETERINARIANS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1611, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of HB1611, HD2, a measure that increases the effectiveness and efficiency of State and county boards, while encouraging transparency. Maui County Council members, as well as the City and County of Honolulu's Department of Planning and Permitting, cited the need to remove unnecessary barriers that prevent key community leaders from participating in planning in their communities. They wanted to change the law to clarify that public officials would be able to attend public gatherings, community events, and professional association conferences.

"This bill allows board members to attend public gathering and community events, so long as the board is not exercising a function relative to that matter, and permits attendance at professional-association conferences and professional-development seminars, so long as the board members file a public report. Additionally, this bill allows attendance by board members, so long as the board members do not engage in ex parte communications at a public gathering or community event.

"The Sunshine Law was intended to ensure that official decision making is made in the public eye with proper and timely notice to the community. It should not be a tool that allows public officials to duck their responsibility to respond to community questions about important issues. This proposal is a balanced approach that allows a community to get answers from their public officials at public gatherings and community events."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1611, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SUNSHINE LAW," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 856-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1672, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1672, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this common sense, fairness measure which authorizes monetary awards for individuals providing information for Department of Taxation administrative or judicial actions for tax violations. Under this proposal, whistleblowers can receive awards of 15% to 30% of the amount collected based on contribution of the individual's information, as determined by Tax Director.

"This new whistleblower program is modeled on existing provisions of federal law. Based on federal experience, these bounties will improve the collection of sums owed to the State and reduce the burden on honest taxpayers by making sure that everyone pays their fair share."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1672, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Souki voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 857-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1695, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1695, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this common sense bill which prohibits the Department of Taxation from unfairly and artificially stacking the different penalties available under State tax laws on the same violation. This "anti-penalty-stacking" measure prevents penalties for substantial understatements or misstatements and for erroneous claims for refund or credit from being added to tax underpayments on which the Department of Taxation has already imposed certain other penalties. This practice artificially increases the amounts supposedly owed by a taxpayer on a violation and can prevent efficient and timely resolution of such violations.

"This measure conforms Hawaii's treatment of penalties to federal law by prohibiting the imposition of penalties for under-withholding on top of penalties for a disallowed deduction or other claim that would have reduced tax. Under this measure, a tax official would not be allowed to disallow an item, impose a penalty for that violation and then "stack" on top of that penalty an additional penalty for failing to withhold enough for the newly determined tax liability. The existing penalties for different violations are fair so there is no ground for imposing a second penalty for the same miscalculation simply because a higher amount provides more leverage against the taxpayer. For reasons of fairness and consistency with federal tax policy, this measure should become law."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1695, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 858-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support this measure which brings another aspect of Hawaii government into the reality and efficiency of the digital age. This proposal allows any board as defined under section 92-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, electronically post meeting minutes on its website, or if it does not have a website, on the official internet website of the State of Hawaii or the official website of the appropriate county. Hard copies will still be available upon request.

"The measure will increase transparency and public participation. The internet cannot be ignored and indeed may be the most cost effective way to disseminate information to the public. This bill will make every board's business just a mouse click away for a large portion of the State's population."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC INFORMATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 860-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2574, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 861-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2841, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2841, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support H.B. 2841 which enacts the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act. This law recognizes that in the modern age, our country and our legal proceedings are closer and more interconnected than in the past when distance, time zones and costs made interstate business and travel rarer. Americans and American commerce move much more rapidly to and from different states due to improvements in communications and travel. This bill creates an efficient and cost-effective process for litigants to depose out of state individuals, and obtain discoverable materials that are found out of state. It also sets clear rules in event of these situations. Uniform procedures are now necessary as the amount of litigation involving individuals and documents which are located outside of the state has increased. This bill is a much needed asset to Hawaii citizens seeking justice through our judicial system, and will improve the State in terms of its ability to dispense justice."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2841, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIFORM INTERSTATE DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 864-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2883, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2883, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support on HB 2883 HD2, Relating to Makaha Valley, which requires the Department of Land and Natural Resources to conduct a flood study for the Valley.

"Makaha Valley's drainage system is in desperate need of repairs. Over the years, heavy rains have caused it to fail again and again.

"In November of 1996, a devastating landslide occurred. After six hours of heavy rain, two waterfalls of rocks and mud flooded the first floor of the Makaha Valley Towers and buried or swept away sixty cars. In February of 1997 more breaches were made. In December of 2008, another deluge caused severe flood damage and erosion of the Waialeale River Bridge, as well as homes and businesses in the area.

"Rather than wait with our fingers crossed for the next inevitable breach in the system, resulting in costly damage both to property and possibly loss of life, this study will give recommendations to control the storm drainage and reduce the recurring flooding, protecting residents and businesses in the area. Until then, Makaha Valley residents will be at the mercy of much needed protection by the Legislature. They deserve our help and support.

"For these reasons, I am in strong support of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2883, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MAKAHA VALLEY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2595, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, the Koloko Dam incident on Kauai led to increased inspection and new standards for dams in Hawaii. Many of these dams are really agricultural earthen reservoirs. They do not meet the same characteristic dangers that were present in the Koloko situation, and yet they are required to meet the same stringent standards that we apply to such dams as the Hoover. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion, we must not decommission these water sources that help to ensure crop success in times of low rainfall or drought. This bill will seek to provide land owners with these dams on their property to have a means of financing that would allow them to upgrade and maintain their dams as a critical piece of maintaining and growing agricultural production in Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2595, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST DAM AND RESERVOIR OWNERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Strong support. This bill is about the fishponds found in the State of Hawai'i. This is an excellent bill because it makes fishpond law permanent. Thank you to my colleagues who support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"In an attempt to address the concerns expressed by residents of Hawaii Island, and with the proliferation of open ocean aquaculture ventures off of our coasts, I made inquiries with opponents for suggestions on how we would address their concerns. At the time, the only option presented was that perhaps we could encourage the use of native Hawaiian fishponds as an alternative to the open sea cages. Based on this suggestion, I proposed HB 2092, part of which has been incorporated into this legislation that would allow for an expedited process for the leasing State lands to expedite the reconstruction of these native Hawaiian fishponds as a viable aquaculture resource."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"This measure instructs that a constitutional amendment question be placed on the ballot asking/specifying that the proceeds from the sale of the special purpose revenue bonds will be used to assist dam and reservoir owners to make their facilities compliant with current safety standards.

"Dams and reservoirs provide many public benefits as a potential resource for agriculture, water supply, and flood control. These facilities enable the storage of water to better weather periods of drought, which continue to plague areas of the State. They are absolutely integral to our ability to continue to keep agriculture activity in the State. Financial incentives - such as this Bill would provide - to improve their facilities increase the likelihood that more of these facilities will be kept in continued operation."

Representative Pine's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in strong support of this measure. This measure would reduce the delay in getting waitlisted patients discharged from acute care and into long-term care.

"It would allow the Department of Human Services to make a preliminary, presumptive determination that a waitlisted patient who applied for Medicaid assistance is eligible for coverage.

"We need to address the fact that at any given time in our State, there are about 150 patients in acute care settings who are medically ready to be discharged, but cannot be, due to various barriers.

"One of those barriers is the delay in Medicaid eligibility determinations.

"According to a report to the legislature by the Healthcare Association of Hawaii, the Medicaid eligibility and re-eligibility application process can take several months, and in some cases even more than a year.

"This is a costly delay that not only depletes the financial resources of the acute care hospital, but also adversely impacts the patient's quality of life.

"In contrast, the presumptive eligibility approach will maximize the use of resources that are currently in short supply. Taking action based on a patient's presumptive eligibility will free up precious bed space in acute care facilities for others in need.

"For these reasons, this measure is worthy and deserves your consideration and support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to express my strong support to this measure."

Representative Awana's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure takes a common sense approach at mandating drivers to move one lane over or slow down when an emergency vehicle is assisting a motorist. All other states have already implemented this or a similar measure. This bill is long overdue and to my dismay, lives have already been lost. As we all know, Officer Garret Davis was struck by a speeding vehicle a few months ago. I ask that the Members of this Body see the benefit of this measure. We cannot wait until another life is lost before action is taken. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of HSCR 911. Mr. Speaker, this bill is called the "Move Over" bill. What that means Mr. Speaker is that this measure would require drivers to vacate the lane closest to an emergency vehicle that would provide assistance to another vehicle or person when driving on a highway. This would provide the needed safety precaution to avoid injury and possible death of emergency responders who are doing their jobs. We need to protect our first emergency responders who in turn, put their lives on the line day in, day out. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2030, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATEWIDE TRAFFIC CODE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Strong support. This bill pertains to the Hawaiian Language. Long live the Hawaiian Language. Thank you to my colleagues who support this bill. Blessings to all of us."

Representative Awana's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Hawaiian is a recognized language of our State. In the Department of Education, Hawaiian Immersion Programs exist. This measure requires assessments to be administered in the Hawaiian language. For too long, the challenge with the Hawaiian Immersion program has been the inability for proper translation. Assessments have been administered from a western perspective. It is my hope that this measure gives our host culture the recognition and dignity that they deserve by respecting the language and providing the network which is needed to keep their language alive. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2875, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Aquino's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. This legislation is consistent with the ongoing efforts by the U.S. Department of Defense and First Lady, Mrs. Michelle Obama that encourages states and employers to provide employment opportunities for military spouses—many of whom are qualified to fill vacancies in the local workforce.

"Many occupations require a state license, often with state-specific conditions and processes which can cause lengthy delays for military spouses moving between states. Due to these delays and the expenses involved in re-licensure, many spouses decide not to practice in their professions. This is a financial and career choice issue for many military members and their spouses which impact their desire to stay in military service.

"According to the 2008 Defense Manpower Data Center Status of Force Survey of Active Duty Members, 68% of married service members reported their spouses' ability to maintain a career impacts their decisions to remain in the military by a large or moderate extent. The report also mentions that 77% of military spouses want or need to work. Military families relocate every two to three years on the average. This measure proposes to require licensing boards to allow applicants to demonstrate competency in lieu of work experience required and to permit DCCA to establish procedures to expedite the issuance of licenses, certifications or permits to military spouses. It would provide for these individuals to enter our workforce and continue their careers when moving to Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Johanson's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I rise in support of HB 2257. I believe the measure before us has the ability to lessen the burden on military families relocating to Hawaii, easing the transition by allowing for more professional opportunities of the spouses of our armed service members. I fully support this measure and the opportunities it may create for our military families."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2257, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL LICENSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2374, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Aquino's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"In support of HB 2374, HSCR 933. Mr. Speaker, this measure would transfer the Office of Language Access (OLA) from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to the Department of Health. The main purpose of OLA is to provide needed access to state programs and services by the many individuals who speak English as a second language. I believe this would enable OLA to perform its duties and responsibilities more effectively and efficiently for the targeted populations. It would also allow better collaboration between State entities to deliver services that are currently in high need. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2374, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF LANGUAGE ACCESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Honorable Speaker, I support HB 2453 HD1 which consolidates in the Department of Transportation the State identification program with the driver license program. This measure moves Hawaii closer to making sure our residents will be able to travel freely and do business without interruption by ensuring that Hawaii Drivers Licenses and Hawaii State IDs comply with new Federal requirements for official government identification. This bill would consolidate the two functions which are currently being issued by two different State agencies. The Department of the Attorney General would no longer be responsible for the issuance of non-driver license identification cards. Henceforth, the counties which currently issue driver licenses would assume this function which will ease access to valid government IDs easier for our residents.

"The federal government enacted REAL ID Act 2005 which mandated the kinds of documentation required and procedures to be followed in issuing driver licenses and non-driver identification cards. The deadline for the implementation of the REAL ID Act is January 15, 2013. Failure to comply will result in Hawaii's people not being recognized by federal agencies and other states, thus preventing individuals to travel and to do business with the federal government and other states. HB 2453 HD1 will make sure all data collected and stored for both Drivers Licenses and for State Identification cards are managed by one State department.

"Act 35, Session Laws of Hawaii 2011, mandated the Department of the Attorney General to work with the Director of Transportation and the appropriate county agencies, to allow county employees to issue certificates of identification at the same locations where driver licenses are issued. Coordination amongst the two programs is critical as the REAL ID Act must be implemented on a timely basis so that Hawaii's citizen can continue to travel and do business without interruption."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2453, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL IDENTIFICATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Strong support. This bill assists the Hawai'i Island Community Development Corporation in building a senior housing project. Thank you to my colleagues who support this bill. Peace to all of us."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"The Hawaii Island Community Development Corp. is seeking a special purpose revenue bond to build a new facility to house the Hawaii Island Adult Day Care program. This program, the largest of its kind in the State, is currently housed in the old and partially condemned Hilo Hospital Facility. This is a proactive measure by the Board of Directors of the Hawaii Island Adult Care program who realize that they are just an earthquake away from becoming homeless and possibly months away from being able to reopen due to the permitting requirements that must be satisfied before a new facility could be opened. This project will be on the grounds of a new HUD elderly housing project and will mesh nicely with a future planned assisted living facility. This cohabitates a number of elderly services that becomes more important each day with the aging of our population."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2334, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST THE HAWAII ISLAND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I am in support of this bill which makes an appropriation to establish agricultural inspection biosecurity facilities and related infrastructure at various airports and harbor sites statewide and the Kamuela Vacuum Cooling Plant.

"Invasive species and diseases are one of the greatest threats to Hawaii's economy, agriculture, natural environment, and the health and lifestyle of its people. Preventing the establishment of a new pest is much more economical than eradicating a pest or, even worse, controlling it indefinitely once it becomes established here.

"It is imperative to have properly designed and controlled facilities for consolidation, inspection and, if necessary, treatment of cargo. This is essential to an effective biosecurity strategy, as well as to the efficient movement of goods into and out of the islands. This bill will strengthen and support Hawaii's agricultural industry and this is consistent with the State's goal of increasing self sufficiency and sustainability."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1941, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR AGRICULTURAL INSPECTION FACILITIES AND RELATED INFRASTRUCTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 943-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2668, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2668, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this bill which would amend the Important Agricultural Land (IAL) tax credit to create additional provisions to support Hawaii's agricultural industry.

"This bill establishes tax credits for drought mitigation projects that service important agricultural lands. We believe that this tax credit will assist IAL agricultural operations in the development and effective utilization of drought mitigation infrastructure and facilities to enhance the cost effective irrigation of crops and livestock. In addition, these drought mitigation projects will also assist in providing much needed irrigation water for these IAL agricultural operations during dry weather periods, which will add to the long term viability and sustainability of these agricultural operations."

H.B. No. 1788, HD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 1788, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which addresses issues relating to cybercrime. Specifically, this bill amends certain computer crime statutes related to Computer Fraud and Unauthorized Computer Access, as well as amends the definition of "computer crime" to include "phishing" and "spyware" activities.

"This bill addresses the realities of modern cybercrime in a society increasingly interconnected to and reliant upon, the internet for storage and transfer of valuable and confidential information. Hawaii's computer crime statutes have not been amended since their enactment in 2001, and this bill will provide more effective tools for enforcement and prosecution of computer crime offenses.

"Given the rapid advancement in modern technologies, this bill seeks to incorporate new cybercriminal methods such as "phishing" and "spyware" into existing offenses and definitions. These amendments focus upon functionality of a method, as opposed to the specific types of terminology or technology related to it.

"With the rapid proliferation of advanced and mobile electronic devices over the last decade, it is now possible for practically anyone, anywhere, to engage in online criminal activity, at any time. This bill reflects that understanding by heightening the severity of certain computer crime offenses, in an effort to deter such activity by would-be offenders, and also emphasize to the public that these types of activities will not be tolerated."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1788, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMPUTER CRIME," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2295, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which creates the petty-misdemeanor offense of harassment by cyberbullying. Cyberbullying is basically harassment thru electronic communication, which is sent or posted with the intent to hurt, annoy or alarm another person.

"According to the National Crime Prevention Council, cyberbullying is a problem that affects almost half of all American teens, and causes victims of this type of harassment to have lower self-esteem, increased suicidal ideation, and a variety of deleterious emotional reactions or responses. With the rapid growth and development in digital technology and electronic communication, this bill provides just one component in a broader effort to address the growing problem of harassment and bullying in our schools and communities. The Department of Education is similarly looking at administrative means by which to address the problem.

"Though statutes addressing harassment through electronic communication are presently enacted in numerous jurisdictions across the United States (including Hawaii), there is currently no specific law addressing cyberbullying directly. New York, Missouri, Rhode Island and Maryland, as well as the United States Congress, however, are discussing the issue under proposed legislation.

"This bill allows Hawaii to take part in the discussion happening across the United States to address this issue. And while the precise wording and applicability of this bill may change as the conversation continues through our legislative process, its intent and importance will not."

ORDINARY CALENDAR

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 690-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2809, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2809, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker I'm so proud to support this measure, Kalo Appreciation Month, and I think that our Chamber is so wise to push forth measures like this, that help our people, that recognize a need in our communities, in our State, and are willing to come together and are willing to support each other, because we support our people because we know that the people come first. The people come first, before people in this Chamber. We serve the people.

"And I rise in strong support because this bill, Kalo Appreciation Month, and I really commend the introducers, will increase public awareness about the significance of kalo, taro. Encourage its cultivation. Encourage its consumption. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs, the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, all supported this measure, as well as many others. As this most sacred indigenous plant, it is not only the official State Plant, but it plays a significant role in Hawaiian culture, in our history in farming.

"But I also wanted to add, another reason why I so support kalo. I've said before on this Floor that I encourage any of us, all of us, I hope one day, to understand the breadth, the impact of a disease called diabetes. It is impacting lives, breaking hearts and our local people are its number one target. Our jewels, our treasures, they are dying Mr. Speaker, and Dr. Terry Shintani, living treasure of Hawaii, knows the healing properties of kalo. In very fact I have many friends in my district that attribute eating a traditional diet comprised of poi, bread fruit, and the things that our people once ate, our native Hawaiians, as what saved their lives and got them off insulin. For he discovered this, Dr. Shintani, that those that stray away often become prone to chronic life threatening disease, and right now Hawaii has one of the highest rates in the country.

"One of my staffers mentioned to me that on their way in this morning there's a poster with one child in color printed and one child in black and white, and it said, 'One in two will be affected.'

"But health can be restored by returning to the right eating habits. In a diet of carbohydrates that are found in kalo because kalo is so special. It doesn't have gluten. It's free from gluten. It's high in potassium. In short, Mr. Speaker, it's our heritage and it helps us, and I think that it's good and I'm proud, I'm proud to support a Member of this Chamber when they work for the good of the people. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2809, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KALO APPRECIATION MONTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representatives Keith-Agaran and Herkes, for the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 692-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2298, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2298, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRIVACY RIGHTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representatives Keith-Agaran and Herkes, for the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 693-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1295, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1295, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations to HB1295 HD3. While I support the penalties for habitual and fraudulent unlicensed contractors, I have reservations on the penalty for the simple small time unlicensed contractors.

"My reservation lies with the fact that the upper limit for a handyman is by law, $1100 as an aggregate total. Sometimes a handyman takes a small job and as the job progresses on there may be more work than what was originally intended which will bring him to the limit of a handyman work. Should the handyman walk away because he is now in violation?

"Secondly Mr. Speaker, this penalty will make it very difficult for homeowners or business owners to find workers because most licensed contractors go for the bigger jobs. Bigger work takes precedence over the smaller work.

"Third, the provision in the bill that makes each day a separate violation. For the habitual and fraudulent unlicensed contractors, yes this penalty can be appropriate. But for the guy next door just trying to make a living, I believe this is too harsh Mr. Speaker. For these reasons, I am with reservations on this bill."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1295, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUSINESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 694-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1730, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1730, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE LAND USE COMMISSION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 695-12) recommending that H.B. No. 69, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 69, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing in strong support, and I would like to make a few comments. Well this bill is a long time coming. We are passing it in honor of the veterans. Even though federal law already mandates that we can hang the U.S. flag, there's still some glitches that this Body worked on so the people that live in condominiums and planned community associations can fly those flags. We worked on this measure and I am very proud of this Body, that they can now fly the flag without being charged association fees or being fined if they hang the flag in a location that the community association or condominium association does not feel is the right place.

"So they now can hang the U.S. flag and Hawaiian flag as long as it is a prominent place, and Chair of Judiciary put in that the flag should be treated with respect. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. I serve as a director on my homeowners association in Village Park," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support HB 69 HD2, which ensures the right of members of planned community associations in displaying the United States flag and State of Hawaii flag on their properties.

"Mr. Speaker, to someone who has fought for our country, the American flag has special meaning. Veterans deserve the right to fly the flag on their own homes. Here in Hawaii, we have a large veteran and enlisted military population. It is essential that we honor and support them by allowing our nation's flag to be displayed without burdensome restrictions."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 69, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PLANNED COMMUNITY ASSOCIATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 697-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2617, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2617, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PENALTIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 699-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2232, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2232, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong reservation of this matter. The first portion of this bill I agree with. I think pelvic exams should not be done without the consent of the woman. However, the second portion of it states that a pelvic exam can be done on an unconscious patient or woman, without her consent if they are to do a diagnostic test.

"There is only one reason, Mr. Speaker, that you do a pelvic exam, and that is to do a diagnostic test. That's why it's called a pelvic exam. I have fear that this bill will be passing through, especially when it's supported by the medical school. The only time that you should do a pelvic exam on an unconscious patient is if it's a life saving measure, and that is now in law, so the second portion is not needed, Mr. Speaker.

"This will have some very grave impact should that portion of the bill pass, and I hope that by the time this bill gets to Final Reading, we can delete that portion. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support HB 2232 HD2 which requires informed consent before pelvic examinations of unconscious patients.

"This measure addresses a situation brought to the Legislature's attention by a University of Hawaii medical student who reported that patient consent was not always obtained when pelvic exams were performed on anesthetized patients for medical training purposes. Few matters are as intensely personal as the right to be free from the violation of the integrity of our body. Informed consent is one tool that ensures that individual privacy interests are not violated by unthinking whims in an academic setting and then dismissed as simply a useful practice in the educational process. This bill makes it explicit that informed consent in this context is the law in Hawaii and the standard of practice that our community requires.

"This bill protects women without inhibiting medical training. Indeed, medical training must include training in the respect and dignity to which every patient is entitled, especially when their patients are anesthetized. This bill strikes a balance in requiring consent for a pelvic examination on an anesthetized patient unless it is within the scope of care for a scheduled surgical or diagnostic procedure for which the patient has given permission, or if it is necessary for diagnosis."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support HB2232 HD2 Relating to Health for the following reasons:

"HB2232 HD2 addresses the circumstances under which pelvic examinations may be performed by certain health care providers and medical students on anesthetized or unconscious female patients. The bill protects women from unsolicited pelvic exams, and it protects doctors and medical students from performing them. Specifically, the bill states that doctors or medical students shall not perform a pelvic exam on an unconscious female patient, unless the exam is for diagnostic purposes.

"All of the testimony during the hearing process was extremely supportive of this bill.

"As the law currently stands, it is not explicitly against the law for a medical professional to perform such a pelvic exam. However, ethical concerns were raised in the testimony over the propriety of doing so. Women in a non-emergency situation should have the ability to know exactly what procedures will be done while they are under anesthesia, and this bill will help to do just that. When a patient must go under anesthesia, she should be confident that all procedures to be undertaken have been discussed. Unfortunately, the current policy as it relates to unsolicited pelvic exams runs contrary to that belief.

"Not only will this bill protect the patients themselves, but doctors and medical students will also benefit from this measure. Many of the testifiers stated that they did as they were asked by their superiors in performing these exams, but they felt internally that it may not have been medically ethical.

"Of particular interest was the testimony of medical students who were ashamed that they had been required to perform pelvic exams on unconscious women without their consent. Patient consent should be absolutely imperative when dealing with such a sensitive medical issue.

"Passage of this measure will improve medical service provision and protect doctors and patients.

"For all these reasons I strongly support HB2232 HD2, Relating to Health."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 2232, HD2 – Relating to Pelvic Examinations. HB2232, HD 2 is a common sense bill which would make it mandatory for a doctor or medical student to obtain explicit written consent from a female patient before having that patient be anesthetized and submitted to a pelvic examination. It is highly unethical medical practice to perform a pelvic examination on a woman patient who is uninformed (and oftentimes unconscious or under sedation).

"The American Association of Medical Colleges, which represents 125 accredited U.S. medical schools and over 400 teaching schools, has labeled the performance of pelvic examinations on women under anesthesia as "unethical and unacceptable." According to Hawaii's criminal code, HRS §707-731, "sexual penetration of another person who is mentally incapacitated constitutes a sexual assault in the 2nd degree." An uninformed pelvic examination is essentially sexual assault in a medical setting and should not be tolerated.

"This bill acknowledges the importance of medical students being exposed firsthand to real situations which may arise in their medical career, and only asks that consent of the woman patient be obtained before student participation. Many students, when interviewed about their OBGYN rotation, have noted that they were extremely uncomfortable administering a pelvic examination, unsure if the unconscious patient had consented to it.

"As a matter of fact, this bill serves to bolster a student's education by emphasizing the importance of patient consent, which has come to be a standard in medical practice. If asked, many female patients would be happy and willing to contribute to the education of future doctors in this manner. HB 2232 will preserve the dignity of women at their most vulnerable, as well as allow medical students to train adequately for their future as physicians.

"I urge you my fellow Members to support this bill, and to support the dignity and basic rights of women."

H.B. No. 2276, HD 1

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 704-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2228, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2228, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BREASTFEEDING IN THE WORKPLACE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 706-12) recommending that H.B. No. 578, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 578, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere's written remarks are as follows:

"HB578 is bad legislation because it addresses a non-existent problem in that nobody has been fined for shark feeding. Targeting two legal enterprises with increased penalties for something they have never been convicted unfairly tarnishes their reputations. One dangerous, unintended consequence could be to further agitate whoever committed criminal acts when they burned down three boats of one tour operator. It is unclear why this bill should be moving forward, other than it is based on unfounded fears and accusations. There is no scientific evidence of any increased danger to swimmers or any ocean users. This bill should not pass."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 578, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SHARK FEEDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 518, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Standing Committee Report 709-12, House Bill 518, House Draft 2.

"The purpose of this bill is to require a seller to disclose in writing to a buyer the existence, if any, of legal or traditional public access that burdens the residential or agricultural real property being sold.

"However, HB 518, HD2 lacks a purpose clause. Without reason, there is no justification for this bill.

"Additionally, this bill is duplicative and unnecessary for at least four reasons. First, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) §508D-1 and §508D-4 already refer to disclosure of a "material fact," including legal access. Under these two sections a seller of residential property must prepare a written disclosure statement that discloses all material facts, including legal access rights, relating to the residential real property being offered for sale.

"Second, HRS §508D-7 already addresses the legal duty of the seller's agent to disclose any inconsistent or contradictory material facts to the buyer.

"Third, HRS §508D-6, §508D-13 and §508D-16 already provide for legal remedies for failure to disclose a material fact.

"Fourth, the buyer can order their own title search, which will disclose all legal access rights and easements. Part of the due diligence process prior to the closing of the sale gives the buyer the option of ordering a title search.

"And finally, Mr. Speaker, HB 518, HD2 is not the proper vehicle for securing traditional public access rights. The proper, legal way to secure public access rights is for the hostile users to bring a quiet title lawsuit against the property owner.

"For these reasons, I stand with reservations on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 518, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ACCESS TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 710-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1706, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1706, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 1706, Relating to Rental Agents for Condominiums. While I recognize the benefits in requiring a local point of contact in the State for renters, I have concerns over how it might adversely impact members of our military who are deployed. I also have concerns about the constitutionality of this measure's provisions. For these reasons, I will be supporting this measure with reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1706, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Ching, Fontaine, Marumoto and Riviere voting no.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1966, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VACCINATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 713-12) recommending that H.B. No. 425, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 425, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to cast a no vote and to make some comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If you look at page 1, the purpose clause of this bill relating to public utilities, it states on line 5 to 6, it is anticipated that in 2030, 60% of electricity generation will come from fossil fuels. That's a very defeatist purpose clause, a very defeatist assumption. That means that in the next 18 years, we don't expect to do better. We expect to stay mired in oil.

"I'd like to read a few lines from "Oil's Tipping Point Has Passed," an article that appeared in Nature Magazine in January of this year, and I think that it's something that we should pay attention to as we set policy in this Body. The authors are well respected, James Murray, School of Oceanography University of Washington, Seattle, Washington; and David King, Director of the Smith's School of Enterprise and the Environment, University of Oxford in the United Kingdom, Senior Science Advisor to the bank UBS, and served as Chief Scientific Advisor to the United Kingdom government for almost a decade. They state, and I quote, "The approaches needed for tackling the economic impacts of resource scarcity and climate change are the same. Moving away from a dependence on fossil fuel energy sources."

"And then I'd ask Members to look back at the bill where we say in the next 18 years we're still mired in oil. The authors go on, "Governments that fail to plan for the decline in fossil fuel production will be faced with potentially major blows to their economies even before rising sea levels flood their coasts or crops begin to fail catastrophically."

"The authors, I would really recommend this to everyone in the Body, to take a look at it, so we don't pass legislation like this, this year, or in the future. Instead this bill should have stated to the Public Utilities Commission, do everything you can to look at renewable energy resources that are available or emerging. See how we as a state can be part of that green energy future. See how we as a state can provide the jobs for our young people, as we develop one of the sources which I've talked about on this Floor, the ocean energy resources. Where the United States Department of Energy has done a new survey stating and concluding that Oahu can obtain three times the amount of energy that we use and that we need. But instead this stays stuck in dirty energy, fossil fuel.

"While the words 'fossil fuel' are removed, the assumption is there on page 1 of the bill. It's the wrong way for this Body to go. We're not being forward thinking. We're being pessimistic. And as these renowned authors state, oil's tipping point is past. For those states and those economies that don't prepare for that, we're going to have an economic downturn that's going to be devastating. And I have to also remind the Members, which you are all aware of. We have a monopoly utility. That monopoly utility doesn't suffer when the cost of oil escalates because every part of that escalation and increased cost is passed on to our consumers.

"This isn't the way to go. This archaic House Bill. And I wish that we would rethink this. I assume it's going to pass over to the Senate. Let's hope they will look at it more critically and say, 'No, we can do better than this.' Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 425, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC UTILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Hanohano and Thielen voting no.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2272, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I request a ruling on a potential conflict? At my law firm I represent design professionals. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2272, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONS AND VOCATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representatives Herkes and Keith-Agaran, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 735-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1957, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1957, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE INFORMATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 736-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2226, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2226, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 2226, HD2 – Relating to an Automated Victim Notification System. This bill seeks to maintain an automated notification system in which the victim of a crime will be apprised of their attacker's custody status. It is a natural extension of the current Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification System (SAVIN) that is administered by the Department of Public Safety. HB 2226 will establish a service in which victims will be kept up to date on the status of their offender, from the point of arrest and incarceration through the time they are released and under supervision with the community.

"The SAVIN program, which receives federal funding through the Department of Public Safety, may be discontinued in 2012 due to lack of funds. HB 2226 will provide for the continued operation of SAVIN by dedicating a special funding source, whose revenue will be generated by fees from inmate phone usage and from a 4% surcharge against inmate commissary purchases. So, HB 2226 is a financially feasible means of protecting the public and ensuring victim's rights. It will not be necessary to "invent" additional sources of funding for this system.

"A portion of this bill addresses the overseeing of a notification system by a committee, to be made up of representatives from victim service agencies, victim witness assistance programs, and a victim or surviving family member. This Governance Committee will build rapport with the Department of Public Safety to ensure successful implementation of the automated notification system.

"Many Victim/Witness Counselors attest to the functionality of this notification system, stating that it offers tremendous peace of mind to victims of abuse. It allows such victims to regain some control over their lives by informing them of their attacker's custody status, thereby enabling them to prepare or protect themselves accordingly. An automated victim notification system poses an invaluable service to members of the community who have been victimized, or who know someone recuperating from a crime. It has afforded peace of mind to victims living in fear of their attacker.

"I urge your support of this bill, which will continue to support victims across the State."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2226, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN AUTOMATED VICTIM NOTIFICATION SYSTEM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 737-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2258, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL LICENSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 738-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2410, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2410, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, as stated in section 1 of this bill, the purpose of this Act is to strengthen the economy, the State's economy, and maintain a mutual beneficial relationship between the State and the military by requiring the Governor to enter in to a Memorandum of Understanding. The Department of Defense in providing continued support for the military's presence in Hawaii. It's a bill that helps both the military and Hawaii. And we know that we owe so much to our troops, to those who serve honorably in the Armed Forces.

"But the military assists us on another level. According to the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, a study by the Rand Corporation, it clearly identifies Hawaii's defense industry being the second major source of revenue to the State of Hawaii accounting for more than $12.2 billion in annual revenue, creating 101,500 well paying jobs, in excess of $3.5 billion in annual household income."

"Hawaii, unlike in most other states, military bases are located closer to the civilian population and therefore military personnel spend much more time in the civilian community than in other states where bases are located far from the major population. So they're shopping at the same stores. They're eating at the restaurants, same as their civilian counterparts. They're putting money into our economy. They're support jobs and tax income. And I'd like to add that because of this interaction, the military personnel don't just spend time in our communities, but also become part of the community, our ohana.

"So the connection is obvious. When we show our support for the military in a productive manner, the military also is our friend. So I appreciate the opportunity to express my support of the military. We know that our US Senator Dan Inouye, was and is, continues to be inspiration for many and of his service in World War II. And I'm proud to say that at one point, though some be gone, there were so many 442nd that lived in my District."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2410, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE MILITARY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 743-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2681, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2681, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations on this measure. Just some brief comments. I understand that there is a need to provide this very important tool to the enforcement officers of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, but I'm concerned that we're taking away from the training standards for the aspect of providing these tools. I would hope as this measure moves on that there will be some language, that DLNR must meet some specific training standards when they issue these weapons. I thought the accreditation part of this was good, but now that that's been taken away, it doesn't specify what kind of training these officers are going to receive in order to use these weapons. I would just hope that we would take a cautious look at this measure in the future. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First may I have a ruling on a potential conflict? In the testimony below in opposition by the ACLU of Hawaii, the case cited in opposition is a case that my law firm is currently litigating," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Belatti continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And with that, a strong no, in opposition with a few comments. Mr. Speaker, it's very rare when our private lives can intersect with our legislative work, and this is a very good case where the work that I'm doing in my law office is informing, and I think informing in a very good way, my thoughts on this piece of legislation.

"As noted by the Representative from Kihei, this really is about good risk management, for the State of Hawaii and the counties that might be looking at this. It's really important that training is maintained, and this requirement for training will in fact protect the State of Hawaii and the DLNR from potential lawsuits and large lawsuits, Mr. Speaker.

"I want to just point out that if people think that it's not possible. You know I really respect the work of our DOCARE and our DLNR officers. But just recently, on January 30, 2012, in Montana, there was a case of the National Park Service employee tasing a individual who was walking his dog off-leash on a trail. That's a situation that happened and it sparked outrage across the nation. It's really important that training is provided. I thought that piece of it in this legislation in years past was a good compromise, and I hope that as this bill moves forward that language is reinserted. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition. I appreciate the hard work and effort provided by the DLNR Law Enforcement Officers. However, to give this one law enforcement group an exemption is not in the best interest of everyone concerned. In community meetings, I have heard time and time again of incidents where some officers have abused their authority. I am sure that this bill will not sit well with constituents who have experienced such abuse. We must make sure and make every effort to ensure that all law enforcement meet the standards set forth for others throughout our State. For these reasons, I will have to oppose this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2681, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRIC GUNS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Awana, Belatti, Hanohano and Wooley voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 744-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2798, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2798, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I just wanted to note a potential conflict. I work for a veteran's homeless shelter that has advocated for this bill," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"May I say a few words in support? I do want to thank this Body for allowing this bill to move this far. We're finding more and more as our veterans come back from Iraq and Afghanistan they have very unique challenges, and many are suffering from post traumatic stress disorder. Many are finding a difficult time getting back into society, as well as a difficult time reintegrating with their families again.

"What this Veterans Court does is it helps our veterans to be separated from the rest of the population. They may not have the same challenges. It will allow judges and those helping these veterans, as well as the victims, better access to the care that they need."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of HB2798, HD2, which enhances the effectiveness of the criminal justice system in regards to veterans of war and their unique needs by creating the Temporary Hawaii Veterans Treatment Court.

"A 2011 study prepared by the RAND Corporation regarding the impact of military spending in Hawaii revealed that Hawaii is home to more than 100,000 veterans, a substantial portion of Hawaii's population. Thousands of veterans, who have suffered severe stress and other injuries, have recently returned from combat environments in Iraq and Afghanistan. Some of these veterans, as well as veterans from other wars and conflicts, are suffering from post traumatic stress and brain injuries and are having a difficult time adjusting to society. In many instances a veteran's involvement with the judicial system may be a direct result of injuries, both undiagnosed and diagnosed, obtained while in service to our country.

"This bill will establish a process for the transfer of a veteran's case from the regular court system to the Temporary Hawaii Veterans Treatment Court. The transfer would need to be approved by the prosecuting attorney. However, when a veteran is already on probation, the transfer also requires Court approval. That court may substitute a treatment plan model for traditional court processing for all participating veterans. Establishing a veterans' treatment court would give these veterans a chance to get back to being productive members of our community. In this measure, the definition of "veteran" has been broadened in order to serve as many veterans as possible.

"We have revised the definition of "veteran" to include those who have been federally activated and, upon release from active duty, are eligible for services from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. That definition for "veteran" is broader than the one originally proposed and was the result of testimony by the Department of Veterans Affairs."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2798, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A VETERANS TREATMENT COURT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 745-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2848, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2848, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Kako'o loa. Makemake au e ho'okomo ko'u mana'o i loko o Ka Puke Hale Maka'āinana. Mahalo."

Representative Hanohano provided the following translation:

Strong support. I wish to insert comments in the House Journal. Thank you.

Mahalo Ho'omalū 'Ōlelo no kou 'ae ai i ko'u mana'o i loko Ka Puke Hale Maka'āinana. Maika'i kēia pila. 'O Kūlani he wahi pana maika'i e pili ana ka pu'uhonu no nā pa'ahao. E holo mua kākou i nā mea pono no nā po'e 'o Hawai'i nei.

Thank you Mr. Speaker, for approving my request to submit comments in the House Journal. This is an excellent bill. Kūlani is a special place which is fitting as a refuge for inmates. We must move forward with righteousness for the people of Hawai'i.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just want to note my reservations on this bill. I'm just concerned about the Hawaii Youth Challenge Academy which is now located there is nationally recognized and doing very well. I do appreciate the intent of the measure and its overall purpose, but I do hope that if this Body continues with this measure, that we ensure that the Youth Challenge Academy has no degradation to the services it provides our youth."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Good Morning, Mr. Speaker. I have the same reservations. In essence, if the Youth Challenge program is still located at Kulani, I would wonder whether the wellness program could coexist peacefully with Youth Challenge. I would be in opposition to reopening Kulani because that would be a very expensive proposition. It would be nice if we could have the two programs located at Kulani."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I just wanted to provide some information to some of our colleagues. As we all know, the second Youth Challenge campus was placed on the former Kulani Prison grounds a few years ago. But what we realized is that it's an unsafe situation for the cadets. In fact, the current TAG, Major General Wong has stated as one of his priorities the movement of the Kulani Youth Challenge program closer into town, in Hilo. In fact, near one of our armories.

"The reason for that is if you've gone to Kulani as the Representative for that area is well aware, because she used to work there, it's out in nowhere. There have been some serious concerns regarding safety and access to adequate emergency services in the event of emergencies. So I believe that we can assure the Representatives who have concerns regarding the co-location of the Youth Challenge Program with this Wellness Center, that it will not happen. And number two, that in the event that this Wellness Center gets created, the plans are in fact to relocate the Youth Challenge Program."

At 9:48 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1957, HD 2
H.B. No. 2226, HD 2
H.B. No. 2258, HD 2

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2599, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REENTRY INTAKE SERVICE CENTERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 749-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2598, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2598, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRESENTENCE REPORTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 754-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1947, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1947, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to express my slight reservations about the bill. I'm concerned that small farmers still seem to have issues with the language of the bill, and as it moves forward I would hope that their concerns could be addressed. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Keith-Agaran be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Keith-Agaran be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Keith-Agaran be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations of H.B. 1947-Relating to Agriculture. This bill authorizes the Department of Agriculture (DOA) to establish an Agricultural Safety and Security Program. It requires, under the program, the DOA to conduct audit and certification services and specifies that the Program is voluntary for producers. It requires the charge of fees and expenses and establishes an Agricultural Practices Audit and Certification Revolving Fund for the Program.

"H.B. 1947 possesses respectable notions however; it does not adequately address the well being of small farmers or acknowledge the inadequacy of the Department of Agriculture for such a large task. As asserted in testimony by Mr. Kokubun, Chairperson of the Department of Agriculture, the DOA "lacks staffing, expertise, and proper funds in order to establish the agricultural and management practices mandated by this bill."

"More importantly, the impact of this bill would exclude small farmers from the marketplace and reduce the availability of locally-grown food, without improving aspects of food safety. This bill would effectively cut out much of our self-sustainable local farming in favor of imported goods that would by default, be perpetually deemed safe. All the while, there is absolutely no evidence of any food borne illness arising from small farms or farmers markets. I reflect on Ms. Annie Suite's testimony, "This bill is overreaching and does not address where history shows the problem of potential hazard of contamination: processing. Requiring all farmers to undergo third party food safety certification will result in the loss of the vast majority of Hawaii's small family farms."

"It is clear, through testimony on this measure that farmers have come to a consensus that this bill will undoubtedly put our small farmer out of business. In fact, every single farmer that testified did so in opposition. Not one farmer on record is in favor of this bill. In closing, I echo Mr. Travis Overlay, a North Shore farmer, "This legislation is built upon a bad assumption: that all food imported to Hawaii is inherently safe, whereas, all food grown in Hawaii is unsafe, until proven safe by a third party certifier. This is not a market climate that promotes local food consumption". Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in reservation with similar concerns as previous speakers previously stated."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just slight reservations noting the concerns of a lot of the Waimanalo small farmers who feel that they'd be adversely impacted. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I'd just like to say that the concern of the small farmers, I don't think, was addressed. There were a lot of other bills in Committee that were never heard. So we really never heard from the small farmers.

"I do have reservations and I appreciate all the work of the Agriculture Committee, but I think we can do more. I'd also like to insert written comments."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"Not only did the Committee on Agriculture refuse to hear any of the bills proposed by the small farmers, it ignored the small farmers' concerns when it passed this bill. For those of you who don't know already, a large group of small farmers took the time to meet regularly for the last year to come up with a food safety security proposal that they could all agree on. It took a lot of time and thought, and the language the small farmers proposed is included in several of the bills still sitting in the Committee on Agriculture. These bills were never even scheduled for hearing. I support the Legislature's effort to address the concerns of our large and corporate farmer needs, but it saddens me that after all their work, the small farmers' voices were never heard."

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill which is to ensure that Hawaii is prepared to move forward with a food safety and security program. We must recognize that, based on Hawaii's unique situation and economy, it will require that most of this food be produced on small rural farms throughout the State. As the federal rule making moves forward, I hope that it recognizes this unique aspect of our small state and takes into account the already difficult situation that most farmers in Hawaii face as they attempt to make a living in this difficult profession."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I oppose House Bill 1947, House Draft 2 because it is premature and does not take into consideration the needs of Hawai'i's small scale farmers. The recently passed Federal Food Safety and Modernization Act ("FSMA") directs the FDA to develop science-based preventives of food-borne illness and apply them to the entire food production system. According to the testimony of the State Department of Health, the State will have two years to develop food safety programs once the Food and Drug Administration publishes its FSMA rules. The testimony of the State Department of Agriculture echoes the premature nature of House Bill 1947 and states that "[n]ot only is the Federal government poised to establish some or most of the standards intended by this bill, but the FDA's regulations, once adopted, could preempt any inconsistent state laws or rules on the same subject."

"Finally, the Tester Amendment to the national FSMA exempts small farmers who sell directly to the consumer since they pose less risk than large mono-cropping companies. House Bill 1947 contains no such language. Because this bill is premature and does not have the support of many of Hawai'i's small farmers, I oppose this bill."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you, I believe this is a very important piece of legislation. This authorizes the Department of Agriculture to establish this Agriculture Safety and Security Program. It further authorizes the DOA to conduct an audit and certification services.

"Nationally, the Food Safety Modernization Act was signed in January 2011, and it also further states that it exempts agricultural producers realizing annual sales, or annual gross income under $500,000. The law is not in effect yet, but producers across the nation are participating on a voluntary basis. Here also in Hawaii, a good number of buyers are requiring producers to be food safety certified.

"I'm not sure where the comments with reservations or even objection are coming from, but nationally consider this as food for thought, or fuel for thought, pardon the pun. Nationally, illnesses across the United States cost, not millions, but billions. According to figures released some $152 billion in annual health-related expenses. An estimated 76 billion people get sick because of food borne illnesses. Thousands upon thousands, 5 thousand die annually. This is according to statistics released by the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The lowest health cost to take care of such illnesses is the State of Kentucky at $1,731 annually. You know where the highest price tag is Mr. Speaker? In the State of Hawaii. Over $2,000. That's above the national average of $1,800 to remedy health cases caused by food borne illnesses.

"In 2005 it was reported on the Big Island of Hawaii where I'm a resident, a baby died from what was suspected to be a rare form of food illness caused by meningitis. The same type of disease on the Big Island inflicted a 22 year old young man and he was in coma for several months. But think about this. These are statistics that come through. In 2008, a salmonella outbreak in the United States infected 200, and 9 died. In the United States, a listeria outbreak in poultry infected 50, and 8 died. The list goes on, Mr. Speaker.

"The AG industry is already stressed with economic setbacks. This particular legislation allows producers to be prepared before an epidemic occurs, emphasizing that this program is voluntary. I repeat, voluntary. In order to be compliant with generally accepted AG and management practices adopted by the DOA in conjunction with the University of Hawaii College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources and other entities that may be desired, preferable in implementing this legislation. Thank you, very much."

Representative Wooley rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in brief response. I still have reservations. I appreciate what the Chair for Agriculture stated about food safety. I think that we all are very concerned. But I really believe we need to move away from words of fear, and focus on what the issues are. And here the small farmers have repeatedly worked together and requested that their bills be heard and their perspective be heard. This bill does not address their concerns."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. Okay, I'll just do written comments, but in strong support."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in strong support. This measure reminds me of the fight the local accountants were waging in the early 1980s. The battle raged over the requirements of additional overly far reaching audit and accounting procedures which added time and work to the issuance and audits of financial statements. As a small practitioner, I fought hard against such additional burdens put on us. The reason that the additional procedures were instigated was the proliferation of law suits stemming from failed audits. The failed audits were of publicly traded companies and audited by national accounting firms. I felt it was not fair for local practitioners, who rarely, if ever, audited public traded companies.

"The local practitioners lost this battle and soon we were inundated with checklists and procedures far beyond what I felt was necessary. But something happened that made all of these additional procedures necessary. The proliferation of law suits migrated to local firms. Local firms were now called upon to prove our quality control procedures and show that our work was preformed with all due diligence. The additional procedures turned out to be godsend and a savior for the small local firms.

"These evolutionary steps will happen to the small farmers. Slowly, the market and people's attitudes are changing. Farmers will no longer be able to sell their products, and stores and patrons will not accept uncertified products.

"This measure is a just a start since it is not mandatory, but someday, it will be mandatory. Probably, right after the amount of deaths increase, the lawsuits increase and then the public will demand it. Let's start now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Chair. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. And I ask that you allow me to adopt the words from the Representative from the Big Island. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1947, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Fontaine and Riviere voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 757-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2004, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2004, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 759-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2626, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2626, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support with written comments."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of HB 2626, HD2, Relating to Safe Routes to School. This bill establishes a partnership with federal, State and county governments to accomplish one of our top priorities, keeping our keiki and kupuna safe and healthy.

"HB 2626 not only builds these bridges, but also provides a funding mechanism. The generation of this revenue is based on a surcharge that will be imposed on individuals that are guilty of moving violations at the price tag of $10; and $25 if it involves speeding, in a school zone. If one does not wish to pay this fee, the opt-out is quite simple. Follow the laws of the road.

"Furthermore, these funds will be channeled to our local government for the creation of infrastructure and non-infrastructure improvements with the goal of creating safer routes to school for our keiki, kupuna, and everyone to enjoy. This effort will encourage people to live healthy and will create the incentive for people to drive with Aloha. Mr. Speaker, the benefits of HB 2626 will surely outlast our lifetimes and will benefit keiki and families for generations to come."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support with written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure will help students arrive to school on time and in a safe manner. Efforts by the Department of Transportation have been difficult as the federal funding for this program was a mandated action by the DOT. In addition, matching funds were not always available and school support groups or organizations would have to pay upfront costs to make necessary improvements before any reimbursements arrived. This fund will help in supporting this important initiative while being able to receive federal grants for those arriving to and from school safely. For these reasons, I strongly support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak on Standing Committee Report Number 759-12, Safe Routes to School. I stand in strong support, and I'd like to insert written comments."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB2626 HD2 "Relating to Safe Routes to School."

"Each year the congestion around our schools becomes more intense. Especially at elementary schools, parents or others have a tendency to speed in schools zones leading to dangerous situations, especially in rural areas.

"The Safe Routes to School funds coming from the Federal Government have been difficult to administer due to restrictions. This bill would create a fund which would be used for local solutions.

"Hopefully some of the funds collected would be used to organize parent and community groups into work creating activities such as the "walking school bus" and the "biking school bus", thus cutting down on the number of cars around schools, and making the schools safer.

"I urge the Members' support."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"With the cuts in school busing, it is more imperative that we develop safe routes to school. Children close enough to their school, should be afforded a safe route to walk or bike. Schools on Kauai are currently having "Walking School Bus" activities whereby the whole elementary school is invited to meet about a mile from school and all walk together. This will also promote a healthier lifestyle for these children. This bill offers a funding mechanism to implement that goal."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 2626-Relating to Safe Routes to School. This bill permanently establishes the Safe Routes to School Program within the Department of Transportation and establishes a Safe Routes to School Program Special Fund. It assesses a surcharge of $25 for violations of speeding in a school zone and a $10 surcharge on various traffic violations and deposits these surcharges into the Safe Routes to School Program Special Fund.

"H.B. 2626 would successfully create a safer environment for our children while promoting more conscientious automobile drivers. This legislation will not only promote keiki safety, but would make the notion of walking first nature for them. If our children begin to walk now, they will live healthier lifestyles, reduce their risk of diabetes, and become more involved in their local communities. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2626, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SAFE ROUTES TO SCHOOL," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 761-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2154, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2154, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I think the intent of this bill certainly is laudable. I, as much as anyone else, want to encourage publicly beneficial development in a responsible manner. I also want to make sure that we're federally compliant. The reservations I have with this bill though are its potential to impact surrounding communities. I think much of our current law was set up to ensure checks and balances, and while I'm willing to support this bill, I do worry that in granting an exemption, some of those checks and balances may be called into question for surrounding communities such as my own, that all border the airport. So with that I just wanted to express some reservations on this bill. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the bill providing Special Management Area exemptions. This is House Bill 2154, Mr. Speaker, as the measure is supposed to allow the Department of Transportation to go ahead with some airport projects. As the Sierra Club mentioned in its opposition to this measure that it is overbroad and unnecessary. I quote from them: 'The Special Management Area law already has an exemption for emergency projects needed for public health or safety. As written this measure exempts DOT from permitting for structures and improvements relating to airports that are necessary to comply with FAA regulations, but it could be used to justify any structure based on broad FAA language.'

"The difficulty to creating exemptions to our environmental laws is that once we start with one project, then the demand comes to exempt another department from another project, and the list goes on and on. I just wanted to read to the Members the names of the leaders who put together this special management area law 36 years ago, and this bill now starts to dismantle the protections they put in place. Here are the names of those leaders in the Legislature: Jean King, Anson Chong, Richard Wong, Francis Wong, Patsy Young, T.C. Yim, Joseph Kuroda, Donald Ching, Mamoru Yamasaki, Duke Kawasaki, George Toyofuku, Donald Nishimura, and John Ushijima. I think it's a sad day when we in this Body 36 years later, cut holes into what they put into place to protect Hawaii's environment."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just want to note my strong reservations and I'd like to use the words of this previous speaker as my own. I'd also like to just express some concerns. In the Ewa Beach area, we are just across the water from the airport. There has already been construction in the past that has impacted us greatly even though it did go through an EIS. I'm just a little concerned how that process would take place, and if the community would still have involvement in that process. So that's why I have concerns about this bill."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I rise just briefly with reservations. As stated earlier, the SMA process already has a mechanism to allow exemption in certain situations, and these are just too broad, sweeping changes."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Johanson and Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, the testimony of the Sierra Club, when it says this bill is vague and unnecessary, is patently false. I think for the edification of the Members it's important to understand something. While there may be an exemption process for the SMA, the fact of the matter is this. This specific bill rose for one particular purpose, and for that exact reason on the Island of Maui, I will defer to the Speaker Emeritus regarding that situation. But if you read the testimony of the Office of Planning from DBEDT, they supported this bill specifically because of the following reasons.

"FAA permits and licenses are identified on the NOA approved list of federal licenses and permits, subject to federal consistency certification in accordance with 15 CFR 930.53. The FAA permits and licenses per construction and operation of airports are subject to Hawaii Coastal Zone Management program federal consistency review. The requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act, NEPA, and Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 343, EIS statements are applicable to structures and improvements relating to airports. The Office of Planning as the lead agency of Hawaii CZM program will continue to review and comment on NEPA and EIS documents in that regard.

"To state that this bill is overbroad and unnecessary is incorrect, because there are so many checks and balances in this particular program, and the fact is that the Office of Planning admits that they support this measure because they understand the specific situation that arose at our federal airports. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. My second time, I know Mr. Speaker. I would like to give the opposing viewpoint on this. Mr. Speaker it's always more convenient to avoid environmental laws because then projects move faster. But that's not what those leaders decided should be the case in Hawaii, 36 or 37 years ago.

"When I look at the Sierra Club's testimony again, what they're talking about is, they're calling the bill a 'pennywise and pound foolish' proposal. And they said, 'Do we really want to encourage the development of airports without examining the particularized impacts on the marine environment?'"

"Here's one that really hits. I think those early leaders in 1976 would agree with this. The economic benefit, if any, is not worth the destruction of our democratic process and the resulting risks to our natural environment.

"Mr. Speaker, expediency or inconvenience; neither of those are reasons to move ahead to dismantle, even for a temporary time, some of our environmental laws. The difficulty of today's agenda and the number of no votes I had to cast is because it is happening like marks throughout the whole Order of the Day, on different pages. And when you put them all together, and you take a look at what this Democrat majority is doing today to undo what your leaders did about 35 years ago. They really set up a wonderful land use scheme, set up protections for our environment. They were the leaders that stepped forward, and today as we go through the agenda with different pages and different projects, we are harming the Special Management Area with this bill, and later on the Environmental Impact Statement laws. You go through the different things one after the other. One standing alone may not be very bad. When you put them all together, I think it brings shame on this Body."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A brief rebuttal. If you looked at page 2 of the bill, Members, this is a very narrow exemption. It says here that they shall be exempt from requirements to obtain an SMA minor permit or SMA use permit provided that the structures and improvements relating to airports are necessary to comply with Federal Aviation Administration regulations.

"Mr. Speaker, while our forefathers I'm sure, had every intent of protecting our environment, I'm sure they had no intent for us to be in violation of federal regulations. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker I have reservations on this measure, and I'd like to note that aside from being overbroad, this bill is also vague and ambiguous. There's terms in section 2 which are defective and will just lead to further litigation. These include the terms, 'structures,' 'improvements,' 'relating to airports,' and 'necessary to comply.'"

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I'll keep my comments brief. This is ultimately special legislation. Special legislation gets us into trouble as we will remember from just a few short years ago. If the system and the process is inconvenient, that maybe needs an overhaul. But to start carving out exemptions here and there sets a very bad precedent and the checks and balances get eroded. Inconvenience is always stated. Expediency. But if there's a systemic problem in the people processing or that are supposed to be implementing projects, we need to look at the whole picture here and not find scapegoats. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Saiki be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was not going to rise and speak on this bill, but I feel someone from Maui has to, because of what the good Vice Chair of Water Land said. This is an attempt to try and find a way to help us make sure that the repairs to keep the Kahului Airport, our only lifeline to the world and one of the biggest sectors of the visitor industry, open and on track. Now we could have easily gone with the State of Emergency Declaration from the federal or State level, but I think that would have been bringing up the fears of the speaker from Kailua.

What this says is that, in these certain circumstances. I agree the language probably has to be reviewed as we move forward, but the concept behind it is, that this is necessary for this to move along, then they will look at the SMA process. And the Office of State Planning is going to be working with the State on this. It's not like it's being done in a vacuum. I knew the good former Senator Yamasaki, granted only for a couple of years, and I can tell you, if he was faced with the airport being closed, and coming up with a process like this, I think he would support it.

"It's not to undo our environmental legacy. It's not to destroy our beaches and our surf spots. It's to try and find a way we can keep this critical airport open and yet not throw the baby out with the bathwater, and go for a full on suspension that affects many different segments of the law. So Members, please, I ask you, for the people of Maui, if we lose that airport, we lose our food, our lifeline, our industry, everything. Help us. If this isn't the way to do it, then work with us to come up with a process that will address your concerns. But keep this project going because we cannot afford to lose our lifeline. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, and with the suggestion from the Representative from Maui, a carve out of saying this is for populations of less than 200,000 would narrowcast it, and I think cut down some of the fears that other people have. Because it's true that Maui would be in dire straits without this. Taking away 20 to 30% of its economy is a serious proposition. So let's narrowcast and not broadband it, and not broad scope it to where it, as our good Representative from Kailua said, really turns upside down a lot of good legislation. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Just to follow up on the remarks of the good Representative from Royal Kunia. A federal consistency review assures that all of the CDM interests are going to be considered in any project that goes forward under this very narrow exemption. Obviously this is a bill that is very important to the County of Maui, and to the Representatives from our County. So for those reasons, I do support this bill."

Representative Fontaine rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative McKelvey be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. To give some historic perspective, I served with Senator Yamasaki. I knew him personally and very well. I served with him across the table for a number of years. I'm sure if the Senator was still alive he would approve of this, because I remember when the Senator was alive and the expansion of the Kahului Airport was stopped, even though the FAA recommended approval. The Pilot's Association recommended approval. The Visitor's Bureau recommended approval. And in spite of all of that, those who were opposed to the expansion were able to kill the project.

"The Island of Maui has crosswinds, and it is one of the more dangerous airports to land and to take off from. The request for the expansion was not that for larger planes to come in, but for safety. Till this day, the pilots that land there say that when they land there, they have what they call 'chicken skin,' because of the crosswinds and the ocean just a few feet away from where they land.

"So this measure is a historic measure in a way, because as the Representative from Lahaina ably stated, that if we do not have this exemption and if it should be stopped for any reason, and it was stopped in the past, then we will be without the capability of having tourists arrive and for us to travel throughout the State, or having food supplies to come in to the island. So I think it's very important that this measure pass, and other measures similar to this asking for temporary exemption. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman and Members."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I just want to add that I think everyone in the room wants to help everybody on Maui so that the airport can be constructed in compliance with FAA regulations. I don't think that there's any question that we all support that, and I want to extend that comment to all the Maui Representatives in particular because I know that they're all concerned about this.

"But special legislation is not the answer here, and I think that providing an exemption from the law in all circumstances has no relationship to whether or not we can comply with FAA requirements. They're not related. We can still comply with FAA requirements. We don't need to waive all of our regulations related to our entire area. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This is, as the Representatives from both Kapolei and Kahului have said, is a very narrow measure, and it still requires certain federal approvals to ensure the coastal areas that we protect. But I do want to speak to some of the concerns that have been brought up, regarding, 'Well, let's just help Maui.' We're an island state in the middle of nowhere. All of our airports are important, on every island. Not just for food, but for jobs. Tourism is one of our largest industries.

"We keep talking about jobs. Here's one of them to help the facilities expand so we can continue. Honestly, I think that the founders of this law would support this, and the reason why is that I don't think they ever expected this law, like many of the others, to be used as legal 'tiddlywinks' to stop projects because people don't want development, or people don't want more people moving here. That's the battle we're having that we're not talking about.

"People with a lot of money who move here, and who want to close the door behind them. What happens to the person who needs tourism for work? Who needs construction for work? Who isn't a 'trust fund baby' or made it big in tech? We need the airports. This narrow exemption will help the airports do the work that they need to do to improve the infrastructure, and improve the safety for travel and for our State."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Actually I just would like a few sentences to clarify my strong reservations. I just want to inform the Members as to why I have strong reservations, and just so that you can visualize what happened to my community. In Ewa Beach, what happened was they built a new runway for the airport. And what happened to my community was, Ewa Beach used to be well known as having this thriving ocean with fish and limu. It was something that they were well known for.

"People's livelihoods did depend on that lush ocean to be successful for their livelihood. What happened was that when the airport runway was built, it changed the whole circle and flow of the ocean in the area. Now there's very few places that have limu anymore. Now when you fish in Ewa Beach, you hardly catch anything. So we are talking about that checks and balances between different types of livelihood, and so that's why I'm not voting no today. But as we proceed throughout this Session with this type of legislation, it is my hope that we don't have to give up one for the other."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the words of the Representatives from Kapolei, Wailuku, Lahaina, and Kaneohe to be inserted in the Journal as my own. In strong support."

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Speaker; I'd like to stand in strong support and written comments, please."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"Public policy is a dynamic and moving target. Applying the ideas of the past to the present or applying current social norms to the past is an attempt to pass judgment without a full understanding or appreciation of the time, place and cultural values that were present in these different eras. Increasing litigation and the rise of special interests groups with roots in other places have begun to influence and utilize formerly common sense laws into a grotesque maze of bureaucratic red-tape that casts shadows on many critically needed projects such as commercial harbor expansion and small harbor development. These delays deprive the citizens of much needed services and resources and exponentially increase the cost of simple projects."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"I support this important measure that temporarily shifts review of compliance with Coastal Zone Management values and concerns to the Office of Planning when a development is necessary to comply with Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) regulations. This shift in responsibility from the County Planning Commission to the Office of Planning will help the State Department of Transportation complete crucial projects quicker to ensure compliance with FAA regulations concerning requirements such as airfield safety.

"The Office of Planning is the central administrator of Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 205A, the State statute implementing the requirements of the Federal Coastal Zone Management (CZM) law. The Special Management Area (SMA) permitting system—administered in the various counties through a combination of Planning Commission or County Council review, or both – is another part of the federal and State approved Hawaii CZM Program. The county processing of SMA permits is supported by federal funding as part of the Hawaii CZM Program.

"The consistency review administered by the Office of Planning—presently for the Kakaako area which is exempt from City and County of Honolulu regulatory reviews. Under this bill, and in compliance with existing federal regulations and processes, the Office of Planning will undertake the same review of CZM values and concerns for the projects covered under this legislation.

"This exemption will apply for a period of less than two years and will be a practical method to ensure compliance with federal regulation to avoid any disruption in air traffic while still ensuring that CZM values and concerns will be reviewed and considered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2154, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREA USE PERMITS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Ching, Hanohano, Riviere and Thielen voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 763-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2608, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2608, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2608, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DRIVER LICENSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 10:23 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 2599, HD 1
H.B. No. 2598, HD 1
H.B. No. 1947, HD 2
H.B. No. 2004, HD 2
H.B. No. 2626, HD 2
H.B. No. 2154, HD 2
H.B. No. 2608, HD 1

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 764-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2789, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2789, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Opposition, please. About ten years ago, this Body passed the roving van cams and it really blew up. It created a lot of agitation. The vans were called tally vans, and people were furious. The bill was ultimately repealed at a significant cost to our State. This is a Big Brother attempt to ... I don't know what it's for, other than to generate money. It's just a bad idea so I am in opposition, on this."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"I am concerned about the consequence to families when speeding violations are put into their record affecting insurance costs. There are emergency circumstances that may necessitate excessive speed and I am not clear about how those issues would be resolved. A police officer's involvement can alleviate special circumstances. On Kauai, the Department of Transportation has installed speed notification signs. These signs will blink and flash when you are going over the speed limit. It makes people slow down. More so, when other drivers can see how fast you're going. As long as the county will be the entity to implement this law, I could support it, because each county has different lifestyles and policies."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2789, Relating to Highway Safety. I believe we must address the issue of speeding and safety on our roads. As a Representative of a district with several major traffic arteries, including two freeways passing through it, I am keenly aware of the potential negative consequences of speeding and unsafe driving. However, I have concerns about the State's problematic history with similar traffic enforcement mechanisms such as van cams."

"I believe there are certain situations where motorists may inadvertently violate official speed limits by a few miles, such as in sections of State highways where speed limits change abruptly with little notice. The fixed and mounted camera system potentially envisioned by this measure removes the component of human discretion normally accorded to law enforcement officers. I do not want to create a system with no room for discretion that too easily penalizes drivers for unintentional violations. For these reasons, I have significant concerns with this measure."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in opposition. I just want to say I appreciate the Chair of Transportation and his efforts in trying to reduce speeding. As you know, speeding has killed, and until we get a better handle on this, we still put at risk our first responders, as well as our citizens. However, when the program was initiated years ago, it caused a lot of problems. The way it was implemented caused significant safety concerns at that time. So I understand the Chair is moving this measure on, and he's trying to make improvements and I appreciate that. But at this time, I will be voting no. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Riviere and Yamane be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this measure on the van cam bill. You will recall that a few years ago when this went into operation, hundreds of motorists from the Windward side were pulled over. I don't know in what other parts of the island we saw this phenomenon, but it costs these drivers hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees. I mean, maybe millions. And also their insurance probably went up considerably. Just one speeding ticket could cost one person $240. And if they go over 30 miles above the speed limit they would be paying even more. So this is a very, very expensive proposition. Sometimes people will get pulled over just for going a few miles over the speed limit. It's an awesome machine that could really assess a lot of grief and a lot of money. Thank you, very much."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. I pass by the HOV lane to work in the morning and you see a lot of cars there with only one or two passengers, but mostly one. I keep thinking that maybe if we have a way to ticket those cars without holding up the traffic, that would be great. Because the reasons why there are a lot of violations in that HOV lane is they know they can get away with it. I know there's hesitancy among the policemen to pull them over because that would clog up traffic. So I think this is a measure or a means that we can use to ticket those people without causing a lot of traffic jams. So in this particular instance, the HOV lane, Mr. Speaker, I support this measure."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes. Thank you very much Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House. I support this measure. I supported the previous measures also. But it should be mentioned that this is unlike the previous measures. There are no van cams that are going to be used. This program, this legislation will provide for the counties to run the program, if they wish to. It's their option. They don't need to run the program. That may allay some of your fears. Hopefully, the county will, because speed kills."

"Almost every night in the news some person dies in a highway accident from speeding. Last year, over 100 of the deaths could be attributed to speed, and I'm sure there were more than that. In the United States, on the mainland, 10,000 deaths a year are because of speed. Mr. Speaker and Members, as legislators, we have a responsibility for the welfare of the people of the State, the health and welfare. A measure like this will provide a safety and health resource for the people of the State. We should be eagerly wanting to have legislation like this where we know that on a small island that's very dense, the highways are very dense, and that makes speeding even more precarious."

"So Members, I hope that as this bill goes along, for those of you that have some concerns, just remember your aye vote may save a life. Remember that. Thank you."

Representative Cullen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I understand that speeding continues to be a problem on our highways and freeway systems within our State. I believe that we should not support such a measure that would provide enforcement, which possibly could be justified with constitutional concerns, as it may not be the owner of the vehicle driving, thus causing a wrongful accusation. We previously had a VanCam system that did not work and proved ineffective for catching speeders on the road. Being that the people from my district and those are required to drive far to get to work in the Downtown area, they are subjected to more enforcement areas in comparison to those who live closer."

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2789, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Cullen, C. Lee, Marumoto, Nishimoto, Pine, Riviere, Takai, Thielen, Wooley and Yamane voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 765-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2790, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2790, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. Likewise this is another Big Brother attempt to stifle things. I understand the hazards, and the dangers, and the problems that are caused by people running red lights. A few years ago there was a really tragic situation where a drunk driver came down the Pali and he ended up T-boning a car and killed the person in the intersection. My point on this is not to recreate the tragedy or to expound upon that, but to point out that a camera at the intersection would not have prevented that accident. That drunk was going to fly through that intersection and plow that car. The only thing the camera would have done is taken a picture of the accident. That whole thing is just tragic.

"Why I'm opposed to this is it's oppressive. There's no discretion. If you roll your car into the crosswalk, you're probably guilty of entering. You cross into the crosswalk by a foot, guilty. There's a ticket. You don't even know you've done this. It arrives in the mail. My son, my 12-year old son said something to me the other day that was pretty insightful. He said, 'Dad, if the problem is people are running the red lights, why don't we put a policeman there. And dad, if they're going to put the traffic camera at a certain intersection and then move it from time to time, why don't they just beef up a policeman. Make him more visible until people get the idea.' And to me, that is just so much more prudent and appropriate. And for those reasons, I'm in opposition to this bill. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, if motorists know they're being watched, they're going to be a lot more careful. In the bill before and this bill, if they motorists would just follow the law, we wouldn't need these two bills. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In support. To address a previous statement about putting police officers at the intersection, unfortunately we cannot put a cop on every corner. I believe this measure will work towards having people have second thoughts about running red lights. I know in my particular district, the red lights, to some of our residents it seems to be optional to stop, and they proceed through intersections regardless of what the color of the light is. We've seen very many tragic accidents occur from red lights. This is not like the speeding bill before this where you have a 10 miles an hour over, or 5 miles an hour over, or 1 mile an hour over. This is pretty black and white. You either run the red light, or you don't. And this will help enforcement of those people who find traffic lights to be something of an optional thing to abide by. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2790, Relating to Highway Safety. I believe we have a responsibility to ensure safety on our roads and I recognize the extreme hazard posed by drivers who fail to obey stop lights and signs. However, because of our State's problematic experience with traffic cameras and photo enforcement, I have concerns with the details in this particular measure. I do hope that the provisions in this bill may serve as a deterrent and encourage traffic safety in our community, and for these reasons I stand in support with reservations on this measure."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2790, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Pine and Riviere voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 767-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support of this measure which promotes the efficient administration of elections. Despite efforts to coordinate redistricting so that boundaries of election districts for different offices conform, inevitably there will be and are small neighborhoods or communities which require unique ballots. This measure allows a County Clerk to mail ballots to each resident of such pocket communities – not exceeding 500 voters – if the Chief Election Officer, or the Clerk in a County-only election, determines that a separate polling station will not be established for such voters.

"This measure balances the important interests of maintaining fair and efficient elections, maximizing voter participation while also containing government expense. Voters will not have to travel to inconvenient polling stations and polling stations will not have to be set up and staffed where they would only be used by a handful of voters."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 768-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1756, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1756, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 772-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2251, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2251, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support of this measure which promotes the efficient administration of elections. This measure would permit the mailing of ballots to voters who live on an island that is not contiguous to their county seat in counties with a population less than 100,000. As an example, in the County of Kauai, this measure will ensure that all voters on the Island of Niihau will get their ballots and are able to vote without the expense of establishing and staffing a polling station there on election day. This proposal should help maximize voter participation while conserving public resources."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2251, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 773-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1755, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1755, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support HB1755 HD2 which is another bill that brings Hawaii's election laws into the digital age. This measure allows for online voter registration through the use of an electronic application for registration. This bill also amends the record keeping requirements affecting the maintenance of voters' names, affidavits of registration, and the use of tabulating cards, computer tapes, the register, and voter lists to reflect the practical realities brought on by better technology and modern best practices.

"By establishing online voter registration, we modernize voter registration for the 21st Century and reduce barriers to voting. Online voter registration will make participation more accessible and convenient. Also, online voter registration streamlines the enrollment process. Studies have shown that online voter registration leads to greater accuracy as to the voter rolls and saves significant money in the long term.

"Furthermore, due to ongoing national and local problems with identity theft, it is clearly advisable to reduce the government's use of a person's whole social security number whenever possible. Thus, this bill requires the Chief Election Officer and county clerks to consider and report on the feasibility of using the last four digits of a person's social security number in lieu of using that number in its entirety in voter registration and record keeping.

"I appreciate that the Elections Office brought this proposal forward after the Governor vetoed a similar proposal after last Session. Hopefully the Elections Office will move forward on this project and Hawaii can implement these changes by the 2014 elections."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1755, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOTER REGISTRATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 774-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2401, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2401, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this proposal for a constitutional amendment that ensures concerns from every island will be represented directly on the next Reapportionment Commission.

"This amendment, if adopted by Hawaii's voters, will require that the members of the Reapportionment Commission selected by the Senate President and Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the members selected by each of the legislators from the party or parties that are different from the Speaker and President's respective parties, be residents of different counties.

"While there are advisory councils for each of the four larger counties presently, this measure would make it possible for every county to have a representative on the Reapportionment Commission. As the League of Women voters said in its testimony in support, while not providing for strict proportionality, this constitutional amendment, "would be a fairer geographic balance than the current approach."

"In the current Reapportionment, each of the current Advisory Councils raised concerns about whether the Reapportionment Commission was complying with the constitutional requirements regarding the base population of permanent residents. It made a difference to the Neighbor Islands who stood to gain additional representation in the legislature if the constitutional provision was followed.

"The perception of fairness is critical in a democracy. After the recent reversal of a decision of the current Reapportionment Commission by the Hawaii Supreme Court on Neighbor Island representation, it is essential that we take steps to restore the confidence of all Hawai'i in future Reapportionment Commissions. This measure will ensure both fairness and the perception of fairness."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. The problem is it needs to be fixed because Oahu, where there is the majority of the population, this bill swings it to where it becomes a minority population, and probably doesn't represent really what the intent of the author is here. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support this measure because it represents an attempt to impose standards upon the selection of members of the Reapportionment Commission. However, I submit written remarks to emphasize that our reapportionment model requires fine-tuning. Although our model is preferable to reapportionment plans that are drafted by legislative bodies (as is still done in other jurisdictions), it became apparent this year that qualifications for commission members may need to be imposed. Specifically, the issue of whether legislative staff members and registered lobbyists should be eligible to serve on the commission requires consideration. Otherwise, as was demonstrated this year, the inherent or implicit conflicts that arise may subject the work of the commission to public scrutiny, legal action, and delay, as is evidenced by the attached testimony that was submitted to the Reapportionment Commission on February 29, 2012. It is important that Hawaii's reapportionment model be strengthened so that it will garner the public's confidence in government.

"Thank you very much."

Representative Saiki also submitted the following testimony:

TESTIMONY
Reapportionment Commission
February 29, 2012

*4:29 PM 1:55 PM
Cayman*

Good Afternoon

My name is Sylvia Luke. Thank you for this opportunity to testify before the Reapportionment Commission. I greatly appreciate the time and effort you have put into redrawing the district lines. I specifically want to thank the Office of Elections staff and the commission staff members who have put in countless hours and served without question to carry out the directives from the commission.

I mean no disrespect but I would like to point out that the current district lines proposed by the technical committee are problematic due to the following. My testimony focuses on the Oahu House district lines.

The district lines proposed by the technical committee violate Hawaii's State Constitution as it is drawn to unduly favor a person or a political faction. This is a constitutional mandate imposed on the commission and the commission must make attempts to cure even the appearance of such.

To demonstrate, I would like to present to the Commission a chart showing that the members of the political faction who opposed Speaker Calvin Say were more severely impacted by the district lines. For example, districts currently held by the opposing faction had substantial increase in new residents as compared those held by Say's supporters.

I would like to present to the Commission a report by Tom Ramsey, Ph.D., in Mathematics at the University of Hawaii who opined as follows:

1. Among the ten legislators with the lowest percent of new voters there was no opposing faction legislators.
2. At the other extreme, among the six legislators with the highest percent of new voters, five were opposing faction legislators.
3. On average, opposing faction legislator will have 52 percent new voters. In comparison, the members who support Say have only 24.9 percent new voters.

Based on the above, Dr. Ramsey concluded that the manner in which the district lines were redrawn to disfavor the opposing faction was deliberate.

The district lines proposed by the technical committee also violate Hawaii's State Constitution as they are not contiguous and compact and do not follow geographical features.

I would like to present to the Commission how the proposed maps break up neighborhoods as illustrated in red on the attached maps.

The district lines proposed by the technical committee also violate the United States Constitution as the deviation between the largest House district and the smallest House district is as much as 20 percent. Within Oahu, the deviation between districts is as high as 9.9 percent. Use of different target population for each island unit, the high statewide deviation, and the high Oahu deviation rate violates the standard set forth by Travis v. King.

I would like to present to the Reapportionment Commission an alternative map that uses the Commission's previously adopted September 2011 plan as a starting point. The September plan was rational in that it respected natural boundaries and established political borders, preserved communities and created only two new open districts.

Making minimal changes to the previously adopted plan while extracting 108,767 persons preserves the thorough vetting and extensive public input the plan already received over the last year.

This alternative plan shows that it is unnecessary to drastically alter the previously adopted September plan, create new open districts, or favor one faction over another. This alternative plan minimizes changes, preserves the integrity of communities, and reflects the intent of the previously adopted plan.

I would also like to submit the following additional exhibits:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

December 6, 2010

The Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say
State Capitol, Room 431
Honolulu, HI 96813

Dear Speaker Say:

For five weeks, House Democrats have been at an impasse over who should lead the House of Representatives. You have represented our community for 34 years, and have served as Speaker longer than any other Representative. We thank you for both your service and sacrifice throughout these decades.

However, Hawaii has entered a new era. The House of Representatives must be open to change.

Recently in the House there has been little collective discussion or planning to address our most pressing issues, not even a package of priority bills from our Democratic caucus. Improving public schools, reforming government, protecting our environment, and safeguarding civil rights are important to Hawaii's future, yet many of these initiatives have been stalled or derailed.

Too often votes are traded for pet projects and positions without regard to a larger policy agenda. We believe that the challenges facing Hawaii are too great to continue this practice. Leadership must focus on resolving the larger challenges, and not just narrow issues that benefit only a few.

The House requires strong leadership that will be bold, will craft a democratic agenda, and will embrace open and inclusive decision-making. The House requires leadership that will work productively with the new Governor, Senate, and Congressional delegation. The House requires leadership that will restore public confidence in how we make decisions.

The 2011 Legislative Session will begin in five weeks and there is much to do. We respectfully request that you work with us to find a leadership compromise that will unify and rebuild our House. Only by working together can we move Hawaii forward and give everyone a better future.

Sincerely,

There Is Strong Evidence of Factional Discrimination in the Proposed Apportionment Plan

Tom Ramsey, Ph.D., Mathematics
February 28, 2012

Visually, there is a strong pattern of discrimination in the percent of new voters assigned to proposed House districts on Oahu---see page 2 for the table of data. The pattern is so strong that any reasonable person would regard it with suspicion:

1. For example, among the ten legislators with the lowest percent of new voters there is NO dissident.
2. At the other extreme, among the six legislators with the highest percent of new voters, five are dissidents.
3. On average, a dissident legislator will have 52.0% new voters. On average, the non-dissidents have only 24.9% new voters. Dissidents have, on average, more than twice as many new voters as do non-dissidents.

The Wilcoxon rank sum test is designed to confirm such suspicion or remove it. In this case, it confirmed it. The chance that a fair process would produce such an unusual pattern is 1.21 in 1000. A reasonable person should conclude that the unfair treatment is deliberate.

Technical Notes: The Wilcoxon rank sum test provides a measure of how unusual is a pattern of numbers. It uses only the ranks of the numbers. The rank of a number is its position in relation to all the other observations. To learn about this test, see pages 630 through 638 of the twelfth edition of "Introduction to Probability and Statistics", by William Mendenhall, Robert J. Beaver and Barbara M. Beaver.

For the data on Page 2, the one-sided p-value for the pattern of ranks is 0.00121, which is 1.21 in 1000. Such astonishingly rare p-values can't be found in published tables. In this case, it was computed by calculating the rank sum for every possible subset of size 9 chosen from the 28 observed ranks in the table on Page 2. There are 6,906,900 of these subsets. If nine ranks had been assigned randomly and fairly, most rank sums would be much lower than the rank sum observed for the 9 dissident legislators.

Professional Sketch: I am a professor of mathematics at the Manoa campus of the University of Hawaii, and department chair. I have taught both statistics and probability many times. For the past three years, I have taught stochastic (random) differential equations for the Master of Financial Engineering Program in the Shidler School of Business.

Institutional Disclaimers: The opinions of this report are not the official view of the University of Hawaii and are not the official view of the department of mathematics.

Isle legislators pool for funds

Both parties form their own political action committees

By Richard Borreca
rborreca@starbulletin.com

Politicians usually turn to political action committees, or PACs, for campaign funds. Now they are forming their own PACs to raise money.

The first PAC for legislators was organized in 1995 to help elect Republicans to the state House. GOP PAC numbers have increased to 15 this year from seven in 1995, with an all-time high of 19 in 2000. PACs are usually formed by a group that wants to influence public policy or legislative voting.

The trend is occurring because politicians are looking for new ways to raise money for candidates of their respective parties.

Bob Watada, Campaign Spending Commission director, said there are no prohibitions on politicians forming PACs.

"Anybody can form a noncandidate committee," Watada said.

The Republicans in the Senate just formed a PAC this year but will not hold the first fund-raiser until next month at the GOP state convention on the Big Island.

Monday evening, the Committee for Responsive Government, the PAC affiliated with the Democrats in the House, held a $100-a-ticket fund-raiser at the Rumors nightclub at the Ala Moana Hotel. House Speaker Calvin Say gave a short speech thanking the estimated crowd of 400.

Organizational papers for the Citizens for Responsive Government PAC were filed in December 2001 by former state Rep. Clarice Hashimoto, who said the PAC was formed to help elect Democrats to the House.

The PAC was modeled after the GOP House PAC, Say said.

"They are the Goliath, and we are David in comparison," Say said.

The committee reports raising $20,200 last year, with most of the funds coming from lobbyists and lobbying organizations. Developer Robert Kobayashi gave $2,000, as did Kobayashi Development. Hidano Construction gave $1,000.

Others giving $1,000 included Island Insurance, Monarch Insurance, IBEW Local 1357 and Hawaii Medical Service Association and lobbyist G.A. "Red" Morris, who represents business and development interests.

Contributions of $500 were given by SSFM, the engineering firm that, according to the Campaign Spending Commission, has given about $400,000 to more than half a dozen local political candidates during the past decade.

Also giving $500 were John Radcliffe, a business and union lobbyist, and Linda Chu Takayama, who represents health care companies and groups.

Say explained that the House Democratic PAC sent requests for contributions to all registered lobbyists in the state and also to donors to the Republican Lincoln Day dinner.

The money will go to hire a campaign consultant for House Democratic candidates and provide them money for the general election next year.

"It will show support for our House incumbents and new candidates," Say said.

Last year, the House Democrats gave $7,000 to Kim Devlin, a national Democratic political consultant, who helped design campaign mailings for Democrats.

The Senate GOP PAC was formed at the request of Senate GOP leader Fred Hemmings (R, Lanikai-Waimanalo).

"This way, people will be able to see more balance in the Senate," said Hemmings, who has five GOP votes in the 25-member Senate.

http://archives.starbulletin.com/2003/04/02/news/story12.html

The Senate GOP PAC will also be charging $100 for its breakfast fund-raiser during the May GOP convention.

Republicans in the state House hope to raise $100,000 for next year's campaign. Rep. Chris Halford (R, Makana-Kihei) said last year the GOP was able to raise almost $60,000.

The money goes for candidates in the form of direct subsidies, Halford said.

"Our goal is to give support to 51 Republican House candidates," Halford said.

Inouye sorry for involving legislator in feud

By Derrick DePledge
Advertiser Government Writer

U.S. Sen. Daniel K. Inouye has apologized to Big Island state Rep. Dwight Takamine for asking Takamine to help mediate an internal House leadership fight in November, fearing his request may have cost Takamine the chairmanship of the powerful House Finance Committee.

Takamine, D-1st (N. Hilo, Hamakua, N. Kohala), was removed as chairman in a leadership shakeup after state House Speaker Calvin Say, D-20th (St. Louis Heights, Palolo, Wilhelmina Rise), overcame a dissident faction of lawmakers trying to replace him as speaker. State Rep. Marcus Oshiro, D-39th (Wahiawa), one of Say's allies, has taken over the Finance committee.

Inouye, D-Hawaii, and Democratic Party of Hawaii Chairman Mike McCartney had met with House leaders during the dispute and had urged them to resolve the situation in a way that would allow them to all work together afterward. Inouye, according to some people who attended the meeting at the party's headquarters, had asked Takamine to serve as sort of a mediator.

Takamine apparently stayed neutral until Say called for a leadership vote on Nov. 13, the sign Say had enough votes within the Democratic caucus to win. In the days that followed, several Democrats and union leaders had asked the leadership not to punish Takamine with the dissidents.

But one lawmaker familiar with what happened said some of Say's allies believed "there needed to be heads on stakes" as a warning to future plotters.

In a Nov. 28 letter, Inouye wrote Takamine that he may have made things worse with his request, "with more, not less blood, on the floor." Copies of the letter were sent to Say and state Rep. Sylvia Luke, D-26th (Punchbowl, Pacific Heights, Nu'uuanu Valley), one of the dissidents, who lost her chairmanship of the House Judiciary Committee in the shakeup.

"Dwight, I am truly sorry," Inouye wrote. "Had I had any inkling of the harmful position I asked you to assume, I would never have done it. My request to you was based on the high regard I hold you and that you are held in to both chambers and in many leadership circles from business, nonprofits to labor."

"It was also based on the need to at least try to get beyond the factions and focus on strengthening the institution in light of our Democratic victories at the polls. Too much energy had been focused on fighting and stymieing each other across the caucus table, all the while giving the governor upstairs a free ride."

Inouye closed the letter by writing, "I owe you one."

Takamine and Say could not be reached yesterday for comment on Inouye's letter.

Luke, who attended the meeting with Inouye and McCartney, said she expected she might lose her chairmanship if the attempt to replace Say failed but said Takamine was not among the dissident faction. Luke said leadership is sending a message that lawmakers who do not show their loyalty will be punished.

"With this letter, it was pretty clear there was no misunderstanding," she said of Takamine's role.

But Oshiro, who also attended the meeting, said it was never made clear that Takamine was supposed to mediate. Oshiro said he had considered Takamine among the lawmakers who had not committed to Say before the leadership vote was called. Had Takamine committed, Oshiro said, he probably would have kept the Finance committee, which he had led since Say became speaker eight years ago.

"At the end of the day, my job was to count the votes," said Oshiro, who was majority leader at the time. "In my mind, he never committed to Calvin."

Say acknowledged after he retained the speakership that it would be harder for him to keep control over such a large caucus, which has grown to 43 Democrats. The dissidents, who also unsuccessfully tried to replace Say after the 2004 elections, have said they would be more publicly vocal next session about their disagreements with leadership rather than keep their differences within the caucus.

This discord could be a problem for House Democrats if the disagreements involve parts of the majority legislative package or issues where they are trying to stay unified when negotiating with the Senate or the Republican governor.

State Rep. Scott Saiki, D-22nd (McCully, Pawa'a), who was ousted as majority leader after the leadership turmoil in 2004, said he hoped the leadership's treatment of Takamine was not a reflection of how the House will operate over next two years. "The House leadership, in effect, killed the messenger," he said.

Say will return as House speaker

State House Democrats voted yesterday to keep veteran House Speaker Calvin Say in power, closing off a move by several younger lawmakers who have been privately angling for a new leader.

Calvin Say

Say asked House Democrats yesterday to fill out questionnaires about their interests and will meet with lawmakers over the next few days before announcing his leadership team and committee assignments. Say would not commit yesterday about whether the chairmanships of influential committees such as the House Finance Committee might change.

While House leadership will remain in familiar hands, there were increasing signs yesterday that Democrats in the state Senate may choose new leadership to replace President Robert Bunda.

Say, who has been House speaker for the past eight years, acknowledged that it will be more difficult to keep control of the growing Democratic caucus on policy issues. Democrats picked up two seats in the elections last week after gaining five seats in 2004. Democrats have a 43 to 8 advantage over Republicans in the House.

"I believe it will and I'm not the type of the old school where I'm going to be twisting arms," said Say, D-20th (St. Louis Heights, Palolo, Wilhelmina Rise). "If the votes are there, they're there. If they are not there, they're not there."

Say said issues such as public education, prescription drug coverage, long-term care, and land use, particularly the availability of water for agriculture and new homes, will likely be priorities for the upcoming session. He said he would try to work collaboratively with Republican Gov. Linda Lingle.

Both Say loyalists and the faction interested in a new leader had been lining up votes over the past several weeks. Say's allies were confident they had enough votes but, at one point late last week, they thought it might be close.

Say and several others said the likely challengers were Vice Speaker K. Mark Takai, D-34th (Pearl City, Newtown, Royal Summit), state Rep. Sylvia Luke, D-26th (Punchbowl, Pacific Heights, Nu'uuanu Valley), and state Rep. Roy Takumi, D-36th (Pearl City, Palisades).

Say informed Democrats on Sunday that he would be calling for a leadership vote yesterday afternoon, the signal he had the votes to prevail. The vote to keep Say was unanimous among the 41 Democrats present.

In the Senate, Democrats were meeting privately late yesterday about who might replace Bunda, D-22nd (North Shore, Wahiawa), and take control of key committees such as the Ways and Means Committee, which oversees state spending. Senate leadership has been unsettled since a failed coup against Bunda at the end of the 2005 session.

The Senate's competing factions of Democrats have apparently agreed to replace Bunda but were still negotiating over which faction would control the presidency and key committees. Senate Majority Leader Colleen Hanabusa, D-21st (Nanakuili, Makaha), has been named most frequently as a possible new president, but she has fallen short of the votes in previous reorganization attempts.

House and Senate leadership decisions are important because leaders have the power to set the policy agenda at the Capitol and will help define the tone of the relationship between the Legislature and Lingle.

State House is in need of real reform

Speaker of the House among those clinging to status quo

By SCOTT K. SAIKI and SYLVIA J. LUKE
One key indicator of how the Hawaii Legislature will conduct business is the way it selects its leaders and committee chairpersons. The Senate has gone in the right direction with its focus on openness, moving away from petty politics and the status quo. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said of the House of Representatives.

Key community leaders, such as U.S. Sen. Daniel Inouye, recognized that House Democrats are factionalized and attempted to fix it. The day after the general election, Democratic Party Chairman Mike McCartney convened a meeting with Reps. Calvin Say, Kirk Caldwell, Marcus Ostlund and ourselves. Sen. Inouye specifically requested that veteran Finance Committee Chairman Dwight Takamine attend.

At the meeting, Sen. Inouye expressed his hope that the factions would resolve their differences and work together for the good of the state. He then asked Rep. Takamine to serve as a mediator and to bring the sides together to work out a compromise.

Immediately after Sen. Inouye and McCartney left the meeting, Rep. Say told the group that he intended to serve as speaker for the next eight years and would do whatever it takes to retain that position. The following week, as he gathered votes, he did not respond to Rep. Takamine's requests to meet.

Rep. Say eventually garnered the 26 votes he needed to continue as speaker. While doing so, he and the House leadership went so far as to deny that Sen. Inouye had requested a compromise, and then ousted Rep. Takamine and other House members who had not supported them. In doing so, the House lost an opportunity to provide real leadership and to bring about change in the way the House conducts business. However, moving forward, we must all recognize that we were elected to serve the general public, and that it is not too late to bring about real reform. By working with the Senate leadership, the House can implement a progressive agenda that will improve the Legislature and residents' quality of life. Here are a few things that we can do.

1. Increase ethical standards. The House needs to prevent self-dealing from occurring. Self-dealing results in bad legislation and policy decisions. We must set higher standards and learn to enforce them—even against our colleagues.

2. Approve immediate tax relief for working people. Programs such as the earned income tax credit (EITC) can provide more than $20 million in annual tax relief for thousands of working families in Hawaii. The federal government and 20 other states have already adopted the EITC. Hawaii should provide this and other tax relief to our residents.

3. Pass an aggressive renewable energy agenda. In recent years, the House has watered down bold proposals to reduce our reliance on oil. We can no longer afford to do this. We must set a comprehensive plan to reduce our dependence on foreign oil and its impact on other facets of our economy. We cannot continue to prolong action if we are to become more self-sufficient.

This is just an example of what is possible. For six years, we served as part of Rep. Say's leadership team, but resigned in 2004 when we realized that Rep. Say was not willing to change.

It is time to put aside the old way of doing things. We believe that our generation and those that follow deserve a sharp and progressive Legislature that will work for the public interest. We hope the House is up to the task.

Representatives Saiiki (D-McCall, Moiliili) and Luke (D-Paiaea, Nuuanu) previously served as majority leader and vice speaker, respectively, of the state House of Representatives.

The Freshman Rebel

Q&A The opening day of the state Legislature in January is a time when even bitter enemies pretend to like each other. So it was shocking when freshman Rep. Della Au Belatti and two fellow Democrats used the ceremonial occasion to blast longtime House Speaker Calvin Say, criticizing him as shortsighted and too concerned with power. We checked in with Belatti—a former teacher, lawyer and Campaign Spending commissioner—to see how she's fared in her first few months at the Capitol.

● Why make such a bold move as a freshman legislator on your official first day?

Some of the headlines made it like we were trying to overthrow the speaker, and we weren't. We knew we didn't have the votes. I'm only here for two years, and I didn't want to start my political career with a vote that I couldn't agree with.

● What concerns you about the leadership in the House?

I was very disappointed in the way leadership had organized. [Editor's note: In November, after Say had thwarted an earlier attempt by some dissident legislators to oust him, he replaced several key leaders in the House, including the chair of the powerful Finance Committee. Committee chairs determine which bills get heard.] There was no compromise. I hate to get into this—for outsiders, it's like, oh, they're just fighting for power, but I think it's more than that. If our organization is based on retribution, what does that say about the decisions we make on substantive issues? I'm concerned that the way decisions are made is not transparent or on the merit of an issue, that there is too much emphasis on protecting our offices.

● Were there any repercussions to your opening-day statement?

Are all of our ideas being adopted? I'm not sure. Are some of them being quashed? The jury is still out, because the session isn't over. But I've had a lot of positive feedback from the outside, constituents who call and say, "Keep them on their toes," or, "Way to hold your ground."

● You've also shown a rare willingness to work across the aisle.

There are differences between Democrats and Republicans, but where I see an opportunity to cross the lines, I'm not going to be afraid to do that. We need to index the elements of the tax code to inflation—every time I talk about it, people's eyes glaze over, but that's been a big push by the governor and introduced by Republican members. I think it's a great idea. It would eliminate the "shadow tax" that applies to everyone in the state. On the first day, I also said I think we should pass [a local] earned income tax credit, which was originally a Republican federal proposal. I know Republicans will want more aggressive income tax policies, but I hope to reach across the aisle to pass this targeted piece of tax relief.

Say retains state House speaker job

Advertiser Staff

State House Speaker Calvin Say, D-20th (St. Louis Heights, Palolo Valley, Wilhelmina Rise), locked down enough votes over the weekend to keep control of the House.

State House Speaker Calvin Say

Say and other Democrats are still discussing the leadership team and committee chairmanships, with an announcement expected later.

"We head into one of the most challenging legislative sessions that Hawaii has ever faced, and it's extremely important that we come together, with the Senate, to focus on our first priorities: a balanced state budget and Hawaii's economy," Say said in a statement. "I am grateful for the opportunity to lead the House for the next two years. As soon as organization is completed, we will start work immediately."

A group of dissidents, led by state Rep. Sylvia Luke, D-26th (Pacific Heights, Pauoa, Punchbowl), has been trying to unseat Say since 2004, and the emergence of a middle group concerned about the bitterness between the factions gave dissidents hope this year.

Last week, dissidents described the leadership struggle in the 45-member Democratic caucus as a stalemate, but the speaker's allies were confident he would prevail.

Say, first elected to the House in 1976, has been speaker since 1998.

Political group appears linked to House Speaker

October 21st, 2010 • 4 Comments • Campaigns, Politics

A reader inquired about Citizens for Responsive Government, a political committee that reportedly has been sending out campaign mailers in support of Democratic candidates in several districts.

A quick check at the Campaign Spending Commission web site quickly turned up the group's organization report. Officers listed are Calvin Azama, chairperson, and Brian Takeshita, treasurer.

Azama and Takeshita both work for House Speaker Calvin Say. Azama serves as chief of staff, while Takeshita is special assistant, according to Say's profile in a directory of legislative leaders published last year.

So it appears the group is sort of a leadership PAC supported by the House Speaker through his top staff, and is stepping up to add support for Democratic candidates in the general election.

As of September 18, the group reported raising $88,247.99 during this election cycle, spending $37,570.99, and ending up with $169,185.96 in the bank.

It's last major fundraiser was in March 2009, when it took in $69,250 in amounts of $100 or more. The contributors list is heavy on lobbyists, lawyers, and PACs.

But Citizens for Responsive Government had not made any contributions directly to candidates or spent money on independent campaign activities in this election prior to the September primary, staying aloof from primary fights.

The next campaign spending report isn't due until next Monday, October 25.

That's just a week before election day, and a week after early voting started. This means that many voters will not have an opportunity to be informed by the patterns of money flowing in the month since the primary before casting their vote.

If we are encouraging early voting, which seems to be the growing policy, then the legislature needs to adjust the administrative deadlines so that the voting public has access to the most current information before they actually cast their votes.

CRG is the House PAC and has been in existence for a number of years now. Its main activity is coordinating independent mailers into targeted House races for the general election.

Football fans know that in order to appreciate the game, follow those fellows on the line, because everything starts with those behemoths.

Run or pass, it all evolves with the big guys doing the heavy pushing and shoving.

If your game is politics, you have to follow legislative organization to appreciate the work product from the House and Senate.

The pushing and shoving are more disguised, but the fight is just as real.

This year the state Senate, always a treacherous place with various factions appearing and then disappearing, settled down early with Maui Democrat Shan Tsutsui as president.

Sen. Donna Mercado Kim was dropped as Ways and Means chairwoman, but reassumed her old job as Senate vice president, chairwoman of the Tourism Committee and tacked on the job she was already doing probing the state Transportation Department by making her head of a committee on investigations.

All this is important because committee chairpeople run the show; the bigger the committee, the bigger the show. Committee chairpeople are appointed, in part, by agreeing to support someone for Senate president or speaker of the House.

Over in the House nothing has gelled. Palolo Democrat Rep. Calvin Say is battling either one or two groups of Democrats who want to be included in House policy.

Say, one of the Legislature's old-timers, started in 1976. Since then he has gone from the obscurity of running the Committee on Culture and Arts to chairing the Finance Committee, and has been speaker since 1999.

Along the way he has made enemies by repeatedly trying to cut the budget by trimming state benefits to public workers and refusing to consider raising the general excise tax to balance the budget.

Say has also been a practical politician, forming a political action committee, Citizens for Responsive Government, which raised a total of $262,000 during the last election cycle and doled out $116,000 to Democratic candidates.

Say has been speaker so long that a growing group of dissidents has formed to demand that they have a larger share in running the House. But the Rebel Alliance has not come up with a specific reason for a change except that the current system doesn't include them.

Since it is controlled by the House leadership, some members are critical of it because they believe the targeted races are tilted to those who support the current leadership.

I don't know if that's true or not but apparently that's one reason why many unions no longer contribute to it.

CRG is a big part of how Say buys the allegiance of legislators. If you swear fealty to Say, he will spend in your district. If not, not.

Calvin Say actually does that? Absolutely amazing. I thought he was about the people, not his circle of power. Sarcasm at you step.

CRG has been around for years. It was set up by former Rep. Clarice Hashimoto and then it was run by Calvin Say's in-house attorney Ember Shinn. The GOP had a similar PAC called GOP House PAC run by former Rep. Chris Halford but it was shut down. CRG was set up for one purpose, to help candidates that will support Calvin Say for Speaker of the House.

Dissident group lining up to tackle House Speaker Say - Hawaii News - Honolulu Star-A... Page 2 of 2

So far there are 19 votes for someone besides Say as speaker, while Say holds 24 votes. A speaker needs at least 26 votes to win.

Rep. Roy Takumi, another legislative veteran, is being boosted by some in the anti-Say block.

Interestingly Takumi is an employee of the Hawaii State AFL-CIO. Although the Hawaii Government Employees Association, the state's largest public worker union, isn't actively working to defeat Say, it might find an agreeable legislative climate with someone other than Say.

Just like in football, the winner may be the best blocker, not the best runner.

Whoever the Governor appoints to Rep. Shimabukuro's seat could conceivably have a lot to say in the organization if (and that is a big if) all of the dissidents and Republicans hold together. But say they do, then wouldn't you like to know how the replacement is chosen?

Well, by law, once Shimabukuro resigns from the House, the Democratic Party has 30 days to submit a list of at least 5 party members residing in the district to the Governor. Once received, the Governor would then have 30 days to pick someone from that list.

The Party went through great effort giving the appearance of establishing an "open" process of requiring community meetings at the precinct level and then at the district level to come up with a list of at least three names for the Party's Executive Committee to approve before transmitting it to the Governor. Yet, most insiders know that this is a sham since the Executive Committee is dominated by urban Democrats, most of whom have aligned themselves with the House dissidents.

By law, the Governor must use that list and cannot name an alternate. So if the Party wanted to totally tie the Governor's hands, they could submit a list comprised of only supporters of the dissidents... but that is only if the Party is afraid that the Governor might want to choose someone who would support Speaker Say.

So who would the Governor like to have as Speaker? Some on this blog suggest that he would support Speaker Say citing their amiable relationship in the past. Others contend that with so much change within the Administration and the Senate, Speaker Say would serve as a stabilizing force, especially when it comes to handling the budget.

But there is someone on the fifth floor, the Lieutenant Governor, who has long been a supporter of the dissidents and would like nothing better to see Say banished into Siberia. That would allow his cronies (i.e., Sakii, Luke, Nishimoto, etc) to reap the rewards of power that they have waited so long to gain.

Doesn't this sound like a really bad episode of "Dallas"?

Perhaps the leadership fight in the House is just a prelude to a much bigger battle in four years — when Brian Schatz decides to run for Governor.

We are just a few weeks away from the start of the 2011 Legislative Session, and it looks like the 17 who want change in the House aren't going to be bought off to go over to Rep. Say's side. So now it looks like there are two options:

So if Rep. Say wants to keep his power, he can trade something to the Republicans to secure their vote on Opening Day, or negotiate a compromise with the other 17 Democrats.

No matter what happens, surely Rep. Say will take care of his core groupies, Jerry Chang, Bob Herkes, Ken Ito.

But if he has to negotiate a compromise to retain his power, then my question is what happens to everyone else on his side that he made promises to when they find out he had to negotiate their positions away?

Does that mean a third group will form again when they all bolt?

I just saw the comment by "Voice of Reason" and need to say it is helpful if one's "reason" is supported by actual facts. This paragraph is patent nonsense:

"The Party went through great effort giving the appearance of establishing an "open" process of requiring community meetings at the precinct level and then at the district level to come up with a list of at least three names for the Party's Executive Committee to approve before transmitting it to the Governor. Yet, most insiders know that this is a sham since the Executive Committee is dominated by urban Democrats, most of whom have aligned themselves with the House dissidents."

The Rules of the Democratic Party give the power to come up with three nominees to the grassroots officers of the district affected by the vacancy. Contrary to VORI's misinformation, the list is not sent to "The Party's Executive Committee" for approval. The Executive Committee has no say on the names submitted to the Governor. Once the names are sent to the party chair, they are checked to against the membership rolls to ensure they have been members for 6 months at the time of the vacancy.

So your conspiracy theory about "urban Democrats" dominating the process in favor of the dissidents is pure, uniformed claptrap.

House Republicans will help Say retain leadership post

State House Republicans said today that they will back House Speaker Calvin Say, potentially ending a leadership stalemate that has split majority Democrats.

Say, (D-St. Louis Heights, Palolo Valley, Wilhelmina Rise), has been one vote short of keeping control of the 51-member House in a leadership struggle that has lasted since the November elections. Say has 25 votes, while a dissident faction that prefers state Rep. Roy Takumi, (D-Pearl City, Momiiani, Pacific Palisades), has 17 votes.

Say said he was "honored" and "grateful" for the GOP support for his leadership. He said he will meet privately today with his loyalists to discuss options, including whether to continue negotiating with the dissidents.

"I'm very honored that the minority caucus has thrown their full support behind me," Say said. "And I'm very grateful that they have considered me to be retained as the speaker."

State House Minority Leader Gene Ward, (R-Kalama Valley, Queen's Gate, Hawaii Kai), said the eight House Republicans have committed to Say. Ward said Republicans did not receive any committee chairmanships or leadership posts in exchange for their votes.

Ward said Republicans wanted to end the deadlock so the House could prepare for the new session that starts on Jan. 19.

"The public is fed up," he said. "The public is saying, 'Why are you doing this? Let's get on with it.' They want to see some results. They want to know what's going to happen."

State Rep. Cynthia Thielen, (R-Kailua, Kaneohe Bay), said it was difficult to prepare when the leadership posts and committee chairmanships are unknown.

"It was time to say 'enough.' Let's get it moving," she said.

Say's group has offered dissidents four committee chairmanships and two leadership posts in an effort to break the stalemate. Dissidents, sources say, were preparing to counter with a chairmanship lineup that more closely reflects the numerical split between the two camps.

While the negotiations are ongoing, some dissidents indicated that they are prepared to take the challenge to opening day. A protracted leadership fight among majority Democrats during session could be a potential political embarrassment for the party and an obstacle to the legislative process.

Say has served as House speaker for 11 years and is the longest-serving speaker since statehood. Dissidents have said that they want more collective discussion and planning on public-policy issues and a leadership and committee lineup that better represents the strengths of the caucus.

If Say relies on Republicans to keep control of the chamber, he would be under even less obligation to assign dissidents leadership or committee posts.

Stalemate Broken: House Republican Caucus backs Calvin Say for Speaker

Rep Gene Ward (R-Hawaii Kai) announced this afternoon that the eight members of the House Republican caucus will vote as a bloc to reelect Calvin Say (D-Palolo Valley) House Speaker.

Ward told KITV news: "The eight of us have heard directly from our constituents, from Oahu to Maui, about the importance of not raising the general excise tax (GET), providing favorable pro-small business initiatives that will create jobs and ensuring improvements are made to state infrastructures."

Say told the Star-Advertiser: "I'm very honored that the minority caucus has thrown their full support behind me. And I'm very grateful that they have considered me to be retained as the speaker."

Ward said the Republicans did not receive any committee chairmanships or other leadership assignments in exchange for their votes.

Within the House Democratic caucus, Say was one vote short of the 26 needed for reelection, according to numerous reports.

Backing Rep Sylvia Luke against Say are 17 Democrats more beholden to HGEA, UPW and other government employee unions which have been pushing for an across-the-board increase in the General Excise Tax. Attempting to win their support, Say had offered the dissidents four committee chairmanships. Now with the Republican commitment, Say will no longer be required to offer the dissidents anything in negotiations scheduled for 6PM tonight.

Republican legislative minorities in the mid 1980s also joined with Democrat factions to form a bi-partisan majority. Such coalitions have allowed Republicans to advance legislative proposals which would otherwise likely be killed by a partisan Democratic majority. In General Elections, Republican legislative candidates supporting such coalitions were sometimes backed by Democrats aiming to eliminate their factional opponents.

Say's refusal to consider a GE Tax increase during the 2010 Legislative session was a major factor in a decision by the HGEA not to endorse Say for reelection. Nonetheless Say handily defeated his opponent, Dwight D. Syman who received backing from gay-atheist activists upset that Say had not done enough for HB444 civil unions.

In place of the across the board GE Tax hike, which Say describes as "regressive", during the last legislative session Say proposed abolition of numerous tax exemptions. He also allowed several legalized gambling bills to advance.

Similar proposals are already being mooted for the 2011 Legislative session.

HONOLULU—On Friday, State House Republicans announced that they will be voting to keep Democrat Calvin Say as Speaker of the House. The announcement puts an apparent end to the Kaimuki representative's fight against a group of 18 Democratic dissidents who had rallied behind Rep. Roy Takumi for House leadership.

The State House Minority Leader, Rep. Gene Ward, said in a statement that Say's return as Speaker "was the best choice to ensure the State's long-term fiscal condition improves."

"We need leadership in place so we can get on with the business of the people of Hawaii," said Republican Rep. Aaron Ling Johanson.

With the backing of the eight House Republican Caucus members, Republicans expect Say to keep spending down and to organize the House expeditiously.

In October, Say told The Hawaii Independent: "I do not support a General Excise Tax (GET) increase. I feel that such an action would jeopardize the economic recovery, raise the cost of living for residents, and exacerbate the regressive effect of the GET. If additional revenues must be raised, my first preference would be to limit or eliminate tax breaks for special interests."

Say's commitment to not raising the GET was a deciding factor for House Republicans.

"The eight of us [House Republicans] have heard directly from our constituents from Oahu to Maui about the importance of not raising the GET, providing favorable pro-small business initiatives that will create jobs, and ensuring improvements are made to State infrastructures," Ward said. "With Say returning for his seventh term as Speaker, we feel confident these issues will be a top priority this session."

Say has served as Speaker for the last 12 years.

"The Republican caucus is focused on strengthening and diversifying our local economy."

"The Republican caucus is focused on strengthening and diversifying our local economy," Ward added. "Therefore, we are very concerned that the administration and the legislative finance committees maintain fiscal discipline to ensure our residents are not negatively impacted."

The addition of the eight Republican votes ends a months-long stalemate that saw 25 House Democrats backing Say, including last month's late commitment by freshman Rep. Linda Ichiyama, against the 18 dissidents. A nominee needs 26 votes to be seated as Speaker.

The group of Democratic dissidents included Rep. Della Au Belatti, Rep. Tom Brower, Rep. Mele Carroll, Rep. Denny Coffman, Rep. Cindy Evans, Rep. Faye Hanohano, Rep. Gilbert Keith-Agaran, Rep. Chris Lee, Rep. Sylvia Luke, Rep. Dee Morikawa, Rep. Hermina Morita, Rep. Mark Nakashima, Rep. Scott Nishimoto, Rep. Scott Saiki, Rep. Maile Shimabukuro, Rep. K. Mark Takai, Rep. Roy Takumi, and Rep. Jessica Wooley.

Last month, the Democrats backing Takumi for Speaker sent a letter to Say that stated: "Too often votes are traded for pet projects and positions without regard to a larger policy agenda. We believe that the challenges facing Hawaii are too great to continue this practice. Leadership must focus on resolving the larger challenges, and not just narrow issues that benefit only a few."

When the 2011 Legislative Session convenes on January 19, committee chair assignments will paint a picture as to how dissident Democrats are punished and how the Republican Caucus might be rewarded.

The Democrat says he is grateful but will keep negotiating with dissidents in his party

State House Republicans agreed yesterday to back House Speaker Calvin Say, a commitment that could break a leadership stalemate that has divided majority Democrats.

Say, the longest-serving speaker since statehood, has been one vote short of keeping control of the 51-member House in a leadership struggle that has played out since the November elections. Say has 25 votes among Democrats, while a dissident faction that prefers state Rep. Roy Takumi (D, Pearl City-Momilani-Pacific Palisades) has 17 votes.

There are eight Republicans and one vacant House seat, to be filled by a Democrat.

Calvin Say
A deal with Republicans could let him retain control of the House, but the longest-serving speaker since statehood says he will keep negotiating with dissident Democrats to resolve the leadership struggle.

Say (D, St. Louis Heights-Palolo Valley-Wilhelmina Rise) said he was "honored" and "grateful" for the Republican endorsement. But after nearly two hours of private discussion with his loyalists yesterday evening, the speaker said his group will continue to negotiate with the dissidents to try to resolve the dispute among Democrats.

"We should work with the Democratic caucus first before we ever venture into the Republican side," he said.

The speaker set a tentative deadline for negotiations to end on Wednesday. He said if the dissidents choose to take their challenge to the opening day of the session on Jan. 19, he believes he now has the votes to prevail.

Dissidents predict that some Democrats will defect from the speaker if it becomes apparent that he is unable to retain control without Republicans. Dissidents also warn that if Republicans do help keep Say in power, they will have leverage over legislation.

"It will be difficult to govern with a bipartisan organization," said state Rep. Scott Saiki (D, Moiliili-McCully-Kaimuki), one of the dissidents.

State House Minority Leader Gene Ward (R, Kalama Valley-Queen's Gate-Hawaii Kai) said the eight House Republicans did not receive any committee chairmanships or leadership posts in exchange for their support.

Ward said Say, like Republicans, has opposed an increase in the general excise tax and has shown concern for the struggles of small businesses. "The public is fed up," Ward said of the leadership fight.

State Rep. Cynthia Thielen (R, Kailua-Kaneohe Bay) said it is difficult to prepare for session when leadership posts, committee chairmanships and committee assignments are unknown. "It was time to say 'enough.' Let's get it moving," she said.

Say's group has offered dissidents four committee chairmanships and two leadership posts to end the stalemate. Dissidents, sources say, are preparing to counter with a request for more committee chairmanships.

Dissidents have said they want more collective discussion and planning on public-policy issues and a leadership and committee lineup that better represents the strengths of the caucus. One Democratic House seat is vacant and will likely not be filled by the party and Gov. Neil Abercrombie in time to influence the leadership vote.

If Say — who has been speaker since 1999 — relies on Republicans to keep control of the chamber, he would be under less obligation to assign dissidents plum committee or leadership posts.

A leadership challenge that extends to opening day or beyond — or is broken by the GOP — could be a potential political embarrassment for the party. Democrats hold overwhelming majorities in the House and state Senate and again control Washington Place with Abercrombie.

Abercrombie, who as a state senator was among the Democrats who formed a coalition with Republicans to organize the Senate in 1981, chuckled when told of the GOP's commitment to Say.

"Oh, wonder of wonders," the governor said. "I'm not going to get involved in internal politics there (in the House).

"But with any kind of a coalition attempt, it depends on what's expected as the result of that. So you have to get the agreement of both parties. And that's where the difficulty always comes in."

State House Speaker Calvin Say and a dissident faction challenging his leadership traded proposals over the weekend but have yet to reach a power-sharing agreement to organize the House.

Say's group has offered the dissidents five committee chairmanships — up from four last week — and two leadership posts. Say said the dissidents have suggested that he remain speaker but that the two camps of Democrats divide the committee chairmanships.

Say (D, St. Louis Heights-Palolo Valley-Wilhelmina Rise) described his offer of five committee chairmanships as "very generous."

The speaker said he is willing to continue negotiations among majority Democrats even though he has a commitment from House Republicans to give him the votes he needs to remain in control. The speaker said he is prepared to organize with Republicans if necessary.

"I want to do the people's work as I move forward," he said.

House Minority Leader Gene Ward (R, Kalama Valley-Queen's Gate-Hawaii Kai) said Say should end the stalemate now.

"With our eight Republican votes, Rep. Calvin Say has seven more votes than necessary to keep the Legislature from slowly shutting down, which it has been for the past 10 weeks of gridlock," Ward said in a statement.

Rep. Chris Lee (D, Lanikai-Waimanalo), one of the dissidents, disputed Ward's description of a shutdown. He said lawmakers have been holding informational briefings on the budget as they always do before session.

Speaker Say, take GOP's offer

This isn't the first time setting up a leadership team in the state House of Representatives has become a tug-of-war. Some measure of political pushing and pulling comes with the territory, of course, but after weeks and weeks of this, public patience is wearing thin.

The Legislature is now only days away from convening, and the questions of who will be speaker of the House and who will lead the chamber's key committees, are still unanswered. Some preparation work can be done independently of leadership wrangling, but perpetuating this unsettled state for much longer surely will handicap lawmakers who, after all, are facing a challenging public-policy landscape.

They will have to navigate the many decisions that will be necessary to close a nearly $800 million budgetary gap for the two years following the session. They have to decide how the next Board of Education will be appointed. There are languishing issues such as the civil unions debate that they should confront.

It's hard to get ready for all this when, as Republican state Rep. Gene Ward points out, some freshman legislators don't even have permanent offices yet.

Ward -- who represents the 17th District, encompassing Kalama Valley, Queen's Gate and Hawaii Kai -- is the House minority leader. On Friday he presented a GOP proposal to back state Rep. Calvin Say's bid to continue as speaker, a seat Say has occupied for 11 years.

Say reportedly has 25 votes from the Democratic caucus, only one vote shy of the majority. That's a sizable lead over his nearest rival, state Rep. Roy Takumi, but the dissident group that wants a changing of the guard has held together for weeks.

Negotiations are continuing to forge a Democrats-only majority group of backers, but the advantages of doing so are becoming less and less clear. Rather than prolonging these talks, however, Say would serve the broader community best by relying on the Republican House caucus for the support he needs.

In other words: Enough with the power struggle, already.

The state Capitol has never been a bastion of bipartisanship and could benefit from a scheme that gives the GOP more influence -- bringing more Republican bills up for a hearing as a matter of course, for instance.

That said, Ward insisted that the decision was made simply to get on with the workload ahead, adding that he hasn't exacted any promises from Say in exchange for Republican support.

Lawmakers, like the Abercrombie administration, are a long way from assembling a plan for resolving the state's revenue shortfall. But Say's record as a fiscal moderate with a distaste for general excise tax increases strongly indicates that the GOP caucus would align better with him, Ward said.

And, he added, the chance to have at least some role to play is welcome.

"We've become relevant, reinserting rational thinking into the leadership process," he said.

That could be at least a small breakthrough in what has been virtually a one-party political structure. But even if a more collaborative era is not at hand, the GOP is offering a chance to get on with the people's work, and the calendar on the wall suggests that it's time to seize it.

State House Democrats, unable to agree on leadership, were on the brink last night of allowing internal differences to affect opening day of the state Legislature.

State House Speaker Calvin Say (D, St. Louis Heights-Palolo Valley-Wilhelmina Rise) has been negotiating privately over the past several days with Rep. Sylvia Luke (D, Pacific Heights-Pauoa-Punchbowl) to end a leadership stalemate that has gone on since the November elections.

Say and Luke have exchanged potential committee lineups to share power but had not reached agreement as of late last night. If the impasse continues this morning, the House would gavel in a new 60-day session without a leadership slate for what is believed to be the first time since 1971.

House leadership posts, committee chairmanships and committee assignments remain unsettled.

Say, who has led the chamber since 1999 and is the longest-serving speaker since statehood, still has the option of accepting an offer by House Republicans to give him the votes he needs to stay in power. But Say has chosen to continue talks with the dissidents challenging him to try to settle the leadership fight among Democrats.

THE 26TH LEGISLATURE

State House and Senate leaders will open a 60-day session at 10 a.m. today at the state Capitol.

Senate President Shan Tsutui and Senate Minority Leader Sam Slom will make opening speeches in the Senate, followed by entertainment by the Kamehameha Schools Children's Chorus, Society of Seven and Willie K. In the House, where leadership remains unsettled, Rep. Mark Nakashima will preside.

The Moanalua High School string ensemble and artist-in-residence Sean Naauao will perform.

Many lawmakers will hold receptions in their offices.

"It's not any embarrassment to the party or anyone out there, because at the end of the day, we're just here to do the people's work," Say said of the protracted negotiations.

Say said he does not believe dissidents have the leverage to force a new speaker -- what he called "ABC, Anybody but Calvin" -- so the end result is likely a negotiated division of committee chairmanships and leadership posts or his acceptance of the GOP commitment. "At some point in time, may it be Wednesday or Thursday or Friday, a vote has to occur, to get the people's work done," he said.

Luke said the dissidents' goal is shared responsibility. "We continue to work towards bringing people together, bringing the sides together, so that we can all be productive."

U.S. Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, and other leading Democrats have urged House Democrats not to organize with Republicans and instead negotiate a reasonable compromise. The senator, after meeting privately with both camps on Friday, said it would be embarrassing for the stalemate to extend to opening day. He also said it would be "disgraceful" to rely on Republicans.

But majority Democrats have taken advantage of GOP votes in the past. In 1971, House Speaker Tadao Beppu accepted Republican help to end a leadership struggle that extended two weeks -- 10 legislative days -- into the session. In 1981, Gov. Neil Abercrombie and Democratic Party of Hawaii Chairman Dante Carpenter were among a group of Democrats who formed a coalition with Republicans to organize the state Senate.

Say said last night that if no deal is reached by this morning, his preference is to open the session with the traditional speeches and music and put off a leadership discussion until this afternoon. Under that scenario, House Majority Leader Blake Oshiro (D, Aiea-Halawa Valley-Aiea Heights) would likely give opening remarks instead of Say. House Minority Leader Gene Ward (R, Kalamia Valley-Queen's Gate-Hawaii Kai) is scheduled to speak for Republicans.

By tradition Rep. Mark Nakashima (D, Kohala-Hamakua-N. Hilo), who represents House District 1, functions as the presiding officer until a speaker is chosen by resolution.

Nakashima, one of the dissidents, said it would likely be "chaos" if individual lawmakers attempt to force a floor vote on a resolution this morning. More likely, Nakashima and others said, lawmakers will wait until the afternoon or later. Some lawmakers are sensitive about exposing family, guests and VIPs gathered for the traditional celebration to a floor fight over leadership.

Democrats control 43 of the 51 House seats and 24 of 25 state Senate seats, the most lopsided advantage in the nation. Some Democrats believe it would be a black eye for the party if House Democrats have to organize with Republicans. A Say alliance with the GOP -- even if it is only for leadership votes -- could also give dissidents ammunition to use in future challenges.

Say has 25 votes to remain as speaker, one vote short of a majority. The dissidents have 17 votes. One House seat is vacant.

Separate from the leadership talks, four dissidents suggested a rule change yesterday that would limit a speaker, other leaders and committee chairmen to serve six years in those posts. The dissidents believe a time limit would help ensure routine succession and promote fresh ideas.

Ward has been urging Say for more than a week to accept the Republican votes and to organize the House. "Let's get on with the business of doing the business of the people who sent us here," he said.

House Republicans released their legislative package yesterday, which includes a constitutional amendment requiring two-thirds' votes in the House and Senate for any tax increase, college tuition incentives for high-school students who finish early and enroll in the University of Hawaii system, and public hearings whenever the state salary commission recommends pay raises for lawmakers.

The Speaker's PAC

By Chad Blair | 02/13/2012

Calvin Say has been speaker of the Hawaii House of Representatives since 1999 and has survived several attempts to unseat him from the top job.

And yet, with the support of a majority of fellow House Democrats, he has been re-elected speaker like clockwork every two years.

Turns out that last Aug. 1, 27 of those supporters received $2,000 each from a political action committee called Citizens for Responsive Government. Many of the others are committee chairs.

They included the top-ranking House leaders: Speaker Emeritus Joe Souki, Vice Speaker Joey Manahan, Majority Leader Pono Chong and Finance Chair Marcus Oshiro.

The chair and treasurer of the PAC? Calvin Azama, the speaker's own chief of staff.

According to one report, a former treasurer is Brian Takeshita, who worked for Say as a special assistant and is now assistant chief clerk in the House.

Say did not return a call requesting comment on Friday.

All told, the PAC gave $53,000 to the supporters, according to its July 1 - Dec. 31 filing with the Hawaii Campaign Spending Commission.

It still had more than $100,000 cash on hand at the end of the year.

Only one House dissident — the name for House Democrats who have tried to depose the speaker — received money from the PAC. That was Linda Ichiyama, who later switched her loyalty to Say.

Two other House reps who got money, Jo Jordan and Derek Kawakami, were appointments to replace lawmaker who left the House.

Familiar Donors

There is nothing illegal about the PAC. But it reveals the close link between money and politics.

So his PAC give money to the chairs, and the chairs send bills to Say's Finance Committee, which don't belong there, all so Say can corrupt the players and the process by hiding bills and hearings away from the public and the democratic process. It may not be illegal but it SHOULD be illegal for any politician or his staff to set up a PAC to reward or punish those who know him and those who have the integrity to think for themselves and act for their constituents. Is this a Banana Republic? What on Earth is going on that this can happen and that these other legislators are even considering accepting money from this PAC? Please follow up on this story Civil Beat to track votes with or against the speaker correlate that with money received or not received by the PAC this session. This whole thing is rotten to the core.

New voter maps leave incumbents at odds

The latest plan for state House and Senate districts tweaks some boundaries to keep communities intact but does not change district lines in seven areas where incumbent lawmakers would have to run against each other this year.

Members of the 2011 Reapportionment Commission unveiled the new maps at a meeting Monday.

Commission Chairwoman Victoria Marks said she is satisfied the plan meets constitutional requirements, although various parties continue to talk about another potential legal challenge.

"We keep hearing all these rumors, so who knows," Marks said. "I'm satisfied with it completely."

The boundaries are being studied by a faction of House Democrats who say the new maps are overly favorable to House Speaker Calvin Say. In the six situations where sitting lawmakers were placed into the same House districts — meaning they would either have to run against another incumbent or move into an open district — four involve members of the 18-member dissident faction that has sought to oust Say. (The seventh case involves a Senate district.)

"I would again urge this commission to carefully consider how the plan continues to unduly favor a political faction in light of some of the very factional lines that currently exist in the state Legislature," state Rep. Della Au Belatti (D, Makiki-Moiliili) told the panel.

Belatti was redrawn into a district against state Rep. Scott Saiki (D, Moiliili-McCully), a fellow member of the dissident faction.

The nine-member commission was appointed by leaders in both chambers — two each by the House speaker, Senate president, House Republican leader and Senate GOP leader. Chairwoman Marks was appointed by the Supreme Court.

The commission's technical committee, which was charged with drawing the maps, is comprised of two Democratic and two Republican appointees.

"I don't know how legitimately one could claim that you're favoring any party or a faction," Marks said.

Dylan Nonaka, a Republican appointee who was on the technical committee, called the favoritism claim "baseless."

"In order for there to be some kind of conspiracy against the dissidents, it would require that the Republicans like myself be doing the bidding of Calvin Say, which is utterly ridiculous," Nonaka said.

The maps were presented Feb. 15, with public comment taken at two meetings last week. Commissioners made slight changes to keep intact areas whose residents oppose their communities being split or being included with a community that does not share their legislative concerns.

Those areas included Newtown, Ocean Pointe, Makakilo-Haleiwa-Waiailua and Maunawili.

"Maintaining community integrity was a significant consideration," said Commissioner Calvert Chipchase IV.

The commission is poised to approve the plan at a meeting Wednesday and send it to the state Office of Elections for approval.

Speaker of the House in the state legislature and later as a U.S. senator. Fong was not a "Republican" in the traditional, white Merchant Street mold. Elected because he was a "local," his political base was largely from the populace. He developed an independent, local image that was unencumbered by the albatross of white Merchant Street affiliation. As a lawyer and businessman with a non-white political base, Fong, a Republican, was not so different from a moderate Democrat.

Tom Gill, the aggressive head of the liberal wing of the Democratic Party, was different. The Burns faction was moderate, independent, and relatively conservative on fiscal policies. While they were sympathetic to labor, they were also concerned about business, especially small business. Labor would always be given an audience, but the Burns faction was not going to be controlled by them. Tom Gill, however, was more labor-oriented. Born and raised in Hawai'i, Gill was not a member of a chosen kamaaina family. Instead of attending the exclusive Punahoa School with most other haole elite, he attended Roosevelt High School, a public school. When he came back to Hawai'i from law school, Gill represented the Art Rutherford-led labor unions, and he became the leader and spokesman of the party's labor-oriented faction. When Gill refused our overtures to reach an accommodation within the broad structure of the Party, we parted into competing and often conflicting factions with a different agenda and priorities.

There was never any real accommodation after that. The division flared up at the county and state conventions, where there was a struggle for internal Party control that evolved into organizational infighting in the legislature. Unaligned legislators blurred the lines between these factions with powerful egos. Political muscle moved individuals one way or another until a majority was put together. Leadership and control were at stake in these struggles, which sometimes left deep, bitter, long-lasting scars.

George Ariyoshi was another leader who impacted the political scene during this period. He had started his career in and calling on people privately for help. I also knew that I had a certain amount of leverage within the community as a councilman to rally political support for Burns. My personal closeness to Jack Burns was well known and helped me to garner support for his campaigns. The fact that I had also become closely affiliated through my law practice with many businessmen in financial circles helped. To work privately in the background, away from the media, was the best way I got support.

As a governor, Jack Burns always did what he thought was right. I never interfered. He had good instincts and judgment as well as a strong sense of character and heart. I never said anything unless asked. Despite the criticism that comes with the job, Jack Burns always did the best he could, showing his concern and compassion for people, especially the weak and poor. He had an extraordinary understanding of the islands' political and social systems, and did not allow his ego to interfere with a vision of a new Hawai'i. History, I believe, will place him as one of the great governors of Hawai'i.

During my political career, I learned that dealing in politics was quite different from dealing in business. In business, either the deal is on or it is off. Both sides of the negotiations have to feel that they are benefiting from the deal. Overreaching is the beginning of a fractured business relationship. Both parties have to be prepared to give and take, knowing the options available to them and the risks they are taking. The deal that is finally settled upon should be fair and reasonable to both parties, with an eye to creating a lasting relationship.

In politics, however, the ultimate bottom line is power, based on how many votes each party carries. If a party is in the minority, it can only sit on the sidelines and challenge and harass the majority. Because votes shift, politics can be volatile and unpredictable, with egos often getting in the way. Politics, as is so often the case, makes strange bedfellows.

During the 1950s and 1960s, some powerful personalities emerged in the political arena. Governor Burns, Hiram Fong was one of these leaders. He had served as stant influence over individual members of the supreme court, the ultimate appointment was theirs to make.

Following Blaisdell's announcement that he would not run for governor in 1966, Burns issued a warning to the five hundred Democratic delegates who had gathered for their convention at the Elks: "Now that the Republicans have lost their strongest candidate, we must guard against rampant complacency. The party that goes cocksure into a campaign often gets knocked off." The big news from the Democratic Convention was that the Purdy had apparently come to grips with the lieutenant governor's race. As Doug Bowtell reported, "Burns said the decision, if it was adhered to, means that Governor John A. Burns and his political lieutenants will make no attempt to deny the nomination to former Congressman Thomas P. Gill."

On 9 June, the public got the first glimpse of a political protest that Governor Burns had been working on when Larry McNamara wrote an article for the Honolulu Advertiser under the heading, "Kamania 'Defiant' to Demos." The article described the political metaphorology of the 1968 election. It was the first of a series of articles by Burns. Kenneth B. Brown, son of one of the State's best known Hawaiian families, Kenneth B. Brown Jr, met with Burns at the Waialeale Country Club, where Burns was offered a courtesy membership after he became governor in 1963. Brown was the club president and a respectable golfer. He and Burns developed a close friendship and a close bond over the years. In 1978, Kenneth B. Brown Jr was elected Mayor of Honolulu. Burns continued that he's the most intelligent man I have ever known. This was quite a tribute from a man who had been educated at Punahou, Hockessin, and Princeton.

At his friendship developed, Francis named Brown to stage the Canada Cup matches at Kawarata, Maui, in November 1946. Brown impressed Brown with his handling of the prestigious international golf event. Brown had other attributes that appealed to the governor. Most important, he was post-Hawaiian, a nephew of the well-known sportsman and Republican politician, Francis I. Brown. His grandfather had been John I. one of the first Hawaiians to read and write English. It had become a teacher, historian, superintendent of schools, and member of the Kingdom of Hawaii's house of representatives, house of nobles, and supreme court. Brown hoped that, as his lieutenant governor, Brown could provide that link with the Hawaiian community that he had lost with Bill Richardson's departure.

the endorsement of a Burns-Gill team, emphasizing that he had never opposed Burns as governor. The crusty union leader ended with a quip aimed at a potential Burns-Brown ticket: "There's no sense in having the governor and lieutenant governor both out playing golf." Governor Burns later appeared to accept COPE's endorsement, but made no mention of either Tom Gill or the lieutenant governor's race.

While the AFL-CIO was swallowing hard and enduring Brown's wrath, the ILWU was telling its members to "close ranks" and defeat Tom Gill in the primary. Jack Hall, executive director of the ILWU, told union members that a lieutenant governor should be "willing to subjugate himself to the administration. If the candidate [Gill] is critical, he should run for governor, not lieutenant governor." Jack Hall said that the ILWU was not planning to support any candidate for governor in 1964. The ILWU had told Gill for years to run for governor. But when representatives in 1962 and was prepared to do so again in 1964, Brown and Gill announced that he would run for Fong's seat, the ILWU had gotten behind the candidacy of Nado Yoshinaga in the Democratic primary. While the ILWU found it difficult to generate enthusiasm for Kamy Brown, the union's leaders were quick to denounce Tom Gill.

In his frustration, Governor Burns was making the support of the Chicago Tribune a condition of his friendship with Keaney Brown a matter of personal loyalty among his friends. Elmer Cawwello made a public statement that a Burns-Gill ticket might well lose to the anticipated Republican ticket of Burton Crossley and Dr. George Mills. Burns publicly agreed with Cawwello's assessment. In the face of this kind of pronouncement, Tom Gill continued to sound like the ultimate team player. Walter Johnson, the former chairman of the history department at the University of Chicago, editor of the papers of Adlai Stevenson, and distinguished professor of history at the University of Hawaii, spoke of Tom Gill at a rally at a Kiea Lookout, comparing him to the great statesman he had known so well.

Like Adria Stevenson, Tom Gill has a fundamental belief in reason, the possibility of progress, basic optimism, and intellectual curiosity. Again, like Stevenson, Tom Gill is not an aggressive Madison Avenue manufactured type, but instead he is a decent, thoughtful human being who is willing to speak out in an independent fashion.

With one week to go in the primary campaign, Governor Burns left Hawaii for Africa. He went to represent President Lyndon Johnson at the nationhood ceremonies for two small states that had been carved out governorship as a stepping stone to the governorship in 1970. He added that he did not expect Burns to run for a third term in 1970.

Over the weekend of 21–22 May 1966, both political parties held their state conventions. Most observers expected the highlight of the Republican Convention to be the announcement by Honolulu Mayor Neal Blaisdell that he would seek the governorship in 1966. But, in a dramatic statement to the assembled delegates, Blaisdell announced that he would not oppose Burns for governor. In his history, The City and County of Honolulu, Professor Donald D. Johnson of the University of Hawaii wrote:

For some city and state workers, such a campaign would have created a painful division of loyalties, for many had supported both Blaisdell and Mayor Burns for Governor. Furthermore, department heads and others in the city structure stood to lose their non-civil service and other forms of job security if they were to support the change in the charge of Mayor Cook. Angel Mathews and other political advisors close to Blaisdell therefore argued against the change, contending that the Republicans were merely trying to use the Mayor to strengthen their ticket, which was undoubtedly true. Political writer Doug Bowser made two contemporaneous points about Blaisdell's decision not to run for Governor. First, he noted that "public opinion [in Republican-controlled St. Paul] was not in favor of his going outside the city of Blaisdell." Second, Bowser speculated that those of the Republican ranks who wanted Blaisdell to "ruin" the Republicanism of the city were "ignoring the possibility that Blaisdell himself might attain a defeat."

At age 63, Blaisdell was in the middle of his fourth term as Honorary Mayor. Two years later, in 1968, Blaisdell retired rather than continue another second term. He was replaced by William H. Hargrave, who was also from the Holyoke City Council at the time. Blaisdell explained that Blaisdell left public office because of family pressure. As Lemke speculated, "I guess he said, 'The hell with it.' There was speculation that Burns had helped Blaisdell out of the 1966 governor's race by promising that he would make him a trustee of the Bishop Estate. Lemke said that Blaisdell had had no personal knowledge of such a deal, but he did say that Blaisdell was disappointed when he was passed over as a trustee of the Bishop Estate in 1968 in favor of Burns himself. Hing 1968, Burns was elected to the Bishop's Board of Trustees. Blaisdell was on the board of the Bishop Estate. While Burns undoubtedly had significant influence on the Bishop's Board, Blaisdell was not a member.

that he preferred Kenny Brown over Tom Gill for lieutenant governor for the following reason, which was reported in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin: "When the Governor leaves the State, the Lieutenant Governor becomes acting Governor, with real power. In another state, when this situation arises, the acting Governor called the legislature into special session to investigate the Attorney General." Burns added that he would feel comfortable leaving Hawaii to Kenny Brown to back him up and, by inference, that he would not feel comfortable leaving Tom Gill behind.

In the same issue of the Star-Bulletin, an appeal for Party unity by Gill to a group of Kaula Democrats was reported. Gill said:

We won in 1962 with a wide base of support among labor, small business and the great mass of independent voters. . . . Jack Burns and I can produce this same unity in 1966. Between the two of us, we will probably marshal the support of all organized labor in this state. Between the two of us, we can keep in the Democratic fold the often disparate elements of small business, the housewife, the independent white collar workers and the intellectual community.

Yet another story on 20 August revealed that the executive committee of the AFL-CIO's Council on Public Education (COPE) had just voted 3-2 against endorsing Governor Burns in the Democratic primary, citing the bad treatment Burns had given Gill as the reason for the negative vote. Two weeks later, at the AFL-CIO's statewide meeting of COPE, representing some thirty thousand workers, Tom Gill rose to claim the rumbled waters. He told those assembled:

I am deeply appreciative of the warm and strong support so many of you have given to my candidacy. I also am aware of your puzzlement and anxiety over the support my opponent (Kenny Brown) has received from certain groups both within and without the Democratic Party. I know that some of you have expressed indignation at the position of the governor in this matter. But I hope you will not allow this concern to blind you. . . .

No political party can run without a head. The leader of our Party in this election is Governor Burns. I support him for reelection. I will support him after the election.

Art Rutledge spoke after Gill. He reminded the delegates that he had been a member of the screening committee that had voted against Burns' endorsement. Rutledge then announced that he would support support him after the election.

A Case of the Hives 221

Council Chairman Herman Lemke, 50; City Councilman Frank Fasi, 48; and Attorney General Bert Kobayashi, 37. Kenny Brown, of course, had not announced his membership in the Democratic Party when the poll was taken, much less announced that he might be a candidate for lieutenant governor.

On July 31, Tom Gill and Kenny Brown shared the platform at the statewide convention of 125 members of the Young Democrats of Hawaii. Gill warned those assembled: "There's a danger that if we stretch our political tent so far as to include too many of the 'Big Muls' they are liable to crowd and trample a lot of the traditional Democratic donkeys. If that should happen, we will not lose our vote base, but we will lose our identity as a Party." The Honolulu Advertiser reported that the positive response to Gill's remarks was roughly twice that accorded to Brown for his tribute to Governor Burns.

By 5 August, when Tom Gill made his formal announcement that he was running for Lieutenant Governor, he was ignoring Brown. He now turned on the role of the team players, telling those assembled, "Jack [Burns] and I can produce great things for our people and our State." Gill even tried to carve out a logical role for himself as Burns' assistant governor. Pointing out that roughly one-fifth of the State's $57 million operating budget came from the federal government, Gill emphasized how much his past experience—in Congress and with the Office of Economic Opportunity—would help the governor. It seemed to make sense—at least on the face of it.

But nothing seemed to make much sense to Governor Burns in the summer of 1966. He had made the same mistake he made in 1959, when he felt that the State of Hawaii should have rewarded him with the governorship. He had worked so hard and achieved so much that the logic of events showed, in his mind, make itself clear to the voters. As Burns told Robert Douglass Bowtell, "I figure when you do a good job, people will know about it." Burns felt that the voters should not only reward him but also thank him. "Burns felt they should allow him to choose his own lieutenant governor. And they should leave less sense to him than having Gill as his running mate." By now the issue had become so emotional that it clouded the governor's judgment and nearly cost him the election.

Like an inexperienced swimmer caught in a rip tide, Burns continued to resist the inevitable. At an August political coffee at the home of University of Hawaii professor A. Leonard Diamond, the governor said public organizations with which Kenny Brown was associated, including the American Red Cross, Queens Hospital, chairman, Hellenic Foundation, president, New York City Police Officers Association, Four Seasons Club, director, Francis Yi Lounge, Golf Club, chairman, Hockley Day Club, director, Brown's Stadium Commission, Prince Kallio Hawaiian Civic League, Mayor's Stadium Commission, director, Ulu Manu Village, and president, Hawaiian Professional Corporation. Brown's business interests were equally impressive. In addition to his own architecture firm, Brown has been chairman and president of Pacific Savings & Loan and a director of Amfinc, Hawaiian Airlines, Pacific Network, Inc., Island Holdings, Inc.; Leward Ocean TV Network; Central Alarm Company; Hawaiian Network, Inc.; Olohanas Corp.; and Ainsulu Corp.

B. Brown, the developer and owner of the Holiday Inn Hotel. A 200-million, 286-room hotel under construction at the corner of the Kashiwa and Leveas in Wakabi — was hardly typical of Burns' political associates. Most didn't even know who he was. When Mike Tokuda, a 30-year-old lieutenant, first heard the news from Masao Takahashi in a phone call, his response was, "Who's he? Hiroshi 'Scrub' Takahashi, the governor's principal political lobbyist on the Big Island, is talking about a hotel? What? Why?" Tokuda bowed up, with some embarrassment, having made the same response. When Tanaka called a Hiroshi Takahashi, he was talking about a different Hiroshi Takahashi. "I know my work was cut out for us,"

When Gill was asked his reaction to the possibility of Brown as lieutenant governor's race, his cheerful response was, "Welcome in the water's fine.... [The Brown campaign] will be well loaded with Republican money, trying to beat me." Ten years later, he said, "I suppose we have less gentlemen: 'That was a dumb thing.' They said of Burnside that he promoted Brown at his running mate. 'They couldn't get up' their enthusiasm for Brown.... They couldn't sell him in the booties [nude apparel]."

Hooye, and Cavallo, all of whom had campaigned for Kenny Brown, the paper wrote:

Individually, their following is considerable. Collectively it is massive. But the combined (a) the support of the people who are not yet organized to do so, and (b) the attempt to do so was created by a substantial number of those who want to do so.

Tom Gill . . . never doubted his victory. The Establishment's opposition to him cast him as something of an underdog, a role which he willingly and productively accepted.

He never rocked the boat, he never fought back . . . His campaign was "cool." He was not his usual stringent self.

The Honolulu Star-Bulletin pinpointed the beginning of the downward spiral for the Burns organization when it wrote: "In retrospect, things began to go wrong from the Governor's standpoint from the moment Elmer Cavallo turned down the vacancy in the Lieutenant Governor's office six months ago and Humphrey Dunphy never really got put back together again."

Honolulu's two rival union leaders were quick to agree upon a strategy for the general election. Jack Hall, the ILWU chief, warned, "The people had better stick to the Democratic side because everything done by the administration to build a stable economy may go down the drain." Art Rutledge, head of the AFL-CIO's Unity House, came to the same conclusion, but from a vastly different perspective: "Tom Gill has been elected to a partnership in running the Government. Burns has got to make this clear now, the quicker the better."

The ink was still wet on the primary election returns when the Republican standard-bearer for governor, Randolph Crossley, began to throw Governor Burns' primary campaign back at him. "The Governor has made it clear," Crossley intoned, "that he cannot work with Mr. Gill. How can Governor Burns now turn around and say that he can work with him? I don't think the people in this island are that stupid. Burns has made it absolutely apparent to me that he is going to continue to work with Crossley. Crossley is now a member, vice-president, secretary, flower, wheeler, contractor, trading stamp dealer, and owner of a savings and loan association."

Crossley first entered public life in 1945, serving a single term in the territorial house of representatives from Kauai. From 1947 to 1949 he of South Africa. Botswana and Lesotho. The ostensible reason for sending the governor of Hawaii was that Botswana was Hawaii's antipode—that point which is on the exact opposite side of the planet. With him, Governor Burns took Alfred Laurent, the state director of labor and Dr. James Robinson, director of Operation Crossroads Africa. On his departure, Burns told the press: "I deeply regret only the coincidence that I must be out of the State at a time when I should be here to give all the support I can to the man who must be our next lieutenant governor, Kenneth T. Brown."

Burns did not leave his campaign staff empty-handed. He had made nine one-minute television spots. They presented Burns at his worst: a stiff, unsmiling, complacent aping that he needed a partner, not a competitor, a conservative deputy, not a constant critic. Burns attacked Gill's campaign as "a complete lack of leadership." In his implication that Burns wanted Gill for his lieutenant governor, "This is not true," a strident Burns protested. "Mr. Gill is not my lieutenant governor. It is long before he announced his candidacy." This is known to him. In his 1973 book, Crash a Wave, reporter Tom Coffman wrote about how Burns learned the results of the 1966 primary election:

The primary was on Saturday [1 October]. Very early Sunday a Star-Bulletin editor placed a call to Burns in Botswana. The telephone operator didn't know how to route the call, so the editor suggested the go through Europe to Cape Town. Finally, she made the connection.

"How did the election come out?" Burns asked from the other side of the world.

The governor was told that he had won, but that Gill had beaten Brown.

Burns asked, "How many votes did I get?"

The answer was 86,000.

"How many did Gill get?"

The answer was 90,000.

There was a long pause, finally broken by a question from the editor.

Burns interrupted, "Would you give me those figures again?"

The Honolulu press got it right. The Star-Bulletin, Crash a Wave, Crash a Wave pointed out on its editorial pages that Gill's victory over Brown, "proved again that political popularity is rarely transferable." Of Burns, 1966 senate. The Democrats still enjoyed a two-thirds majority, the Republicans having reduced the Democratic majority by only one, from 16 to 9 to 15 to 10. The change, however, was far more than the one-seat difference would suggest. That change was geographic. With reapportionment, the state senate had gone from a 15 to 10 neighbor island majority to a 19 to 6 Oahu majority. In the 1966 elections, Oahu members of the state house of representatives had scrambled to move over to the senate, resulting in a decidedly different roster of senators. Governor Burns' influence in the state senate declined, since his greatest strength came from the neighbor islands—yet another by-product of reapportionment. The man who gained the most from this change in geographic distribution was Tom Gill.

When the fifteen senate Democrats attempted to organize themselves, they found themselves split into two factions—the Burns faction, led by Nadeo Yoshinaga who had moved from Maui to Oahu as a result of reapportionment, and the Gill faction, led by Nelson Doi from the Big Island. Each group had seven members. The tiebreaker was George Aiyoshi, who sought to play the role of peacemaker. None of his efforts to resolve the impasse before the legislative session began proved successful and as the 1967 legislative session convened, the majority party was still unable to organize itself. The struggle became so bitter that David McCullough, a member of the Gill faction, even suggested that Republican Hidden Furebe be elected senate president.

Once the senate had convened, the Doi forces attempted a bold move when they tried to replace Burns loyalist Shadow Hirai, the popular clerk of the senate. When it became clear, however, that Hirai had the votes necessary to retain his position, the Doi faction quickly backed off. The attempt to have Hirai removed was ill advised, and not quickly forgotten—or forgiven. The Republican, who held a position to organize in some serious manner, was the D. "Doi." Hill, the chairman of the state senate, commented on the Democratic confusion: "In the thirty-nine years since I became a legislator, I have seen skullduggery and may have been mixed up in some myself, but I've never seen anything like this."

On the second day of the legislative session, in his state of the State message, Burns made no mention of the division within the Democratic Party. Instead, he offered an expanded version of his recent inaugural address. The governor also proudly announced that the state government had ended the 1966 fiscal year with a surplus of $12.8 million, and expected to end the 1967 fiscal year with a $7 million surplus. "The economic outlook is not as clear-cut as it appeared when we met here a year ago," Burns told the joint session, "although most signs point to continued prosperity and high productivity."

As the senate's organizational struggle continued, Burns' people leaked the name of Kamihua Abe, former Big Island senate president, as a potential candidate for the state supreme court. Burns wanted to reward Abe for having declined the lieutenant governorship in 1966, for having stepped aside in the senate race when it was clear that there were too many neighbor island incumbents fighting for a smaller number of seats, and for having supported Kenneth Brown's candidacy in the primary contest against Gill. The Gill forces were incensed by Abe's reward. As Doug Boswell wrote: "The two men [Burns and Gill] are enveloped in a capsule of bitterness which points toward a crisis for the Democrats in the primary election of 1970. . . . Many Democrats believe Burns now has no choice but to run for a third term in 1970 as a means of blocking Gill's drive for the State's top elective post."

On 24 February, the senate finally organized itself. The compromise candidate for senate president—the spot Doi had sought—was John Hui, a member of the Burns wing of the party who was best known for his advocacy of a state-operated interisland ferry. Ways and Means, the post covered by Yoshinaga—went to Vincent Kahi, a member of the Gill wing of the party. In an apparent effort to avoid a tie, the senate chose Burns, John Chikunaga, and the chairman of the Judiciary Committee. With three appointments to the supreme court coming up during the session, the senate's appointments would be crucial to the success of the governor's appointments.

One month into the legislative session, Governor Burns decided he needed a legislative liaison, a role Bill Richardson had frequently played for him as lieutenant governor. Gill had suggested the post for himself, but Burns ignored the suggestion. Instead, he decided to use Myron "Pinky" Thompson who had been appointed to the cabinet-level post of director of administration. Thompson filled the position which had been vacated by Bill Norwood in July 1966 when he became the high commissioner of the trust territory of the Pacific. Tom Gill's first reaction to Thompson's appointment was positive:

during his first term, focusing upon familiar themes: education; full employment; the development of new industries, "in particular, those oriented to ocean sciences"; preservation of Hawaii's natural beauty; the creation of new recreational opportunities; and, finally, the theme of Pan-Pacific leadership, announcing a joint state-federal Pacific Conference on the Problems of Urban Growth for May 1967.

Gill's inaugural address contrasted markedly. He sounded like a man who had just been elected with a mandate to clean up the mess he had inherited from his defeated opponent:

We can no longer escape a serious and broad assault on the widely proliferating problems of urban life. Pollution of our air and water; traffic snarls, . . . shrinking recreation areas, and the menacing fuel of cancer present planning mechanism—all of these and more run like cancer through our metropolitan complex.

Gill then continued with words that seemed to be aimed directly at Governor Burns: "But the worst of all would be to let the government's planning be a mere facade." "We have had a long time for editors and auditors to doled and secretly reviewed; we have no use for those who view public office as the road to private gain."

While Gill made no specific accusations, his friends from the AFL-CIO Council on Political Education (COPE) were raising serious questions about a land deal that had been consummated by a company called Ethereal, Inc. COPE charged that Ethereal had purchased land from the Oahu Sugar Company in Waiipahi in 1965 which included a private park—Hans L'Orange Park—that had been maintained by the company for many years for the benefit of its employees and other residents in the area. During the 1966 session of the legislature, COPE charged, Senator Nadeo Yoshinaga, Ethereal's vice president, had introduced a bill allocating $105,000 for the State to acquire the park, money that would go directly into the pockets of Yoshinaga and three other Burns loyalists who were principals in Ethereal. Masao "Punchy" Yokouchi, president of Ethereal and Burns-appointed chairman of the Hawaii Foundation on Culture and the Arts, appointed Shadow Hirai, treasurer of Ethereal, to chair the same Japanese-U.S. Friendship Commission from Honolulu. The charges hung like a cloud over the impending organization of the Hawaii state senate.

On the surface, the state senate in 1967 looked very much like the JACK BURNS MEANT IT when he told Tom Gill that there would be no Burns-Gill administration. The new lieutenant governor, learned quickly that he was not in the "partnership" Art Rutledge had proclaimed in October 1966. Any chance that partnership might have had ended with Gill's very first public exposure as lieutenant governor. Burns asked Gill to name the grand prize of food prices in Hawaii. Burns was looking for something to bait Randolph Crossley's attack on his administration for the state excise tax on food. Gill turned this campaign assignment into his first job as lieutenant governor. In a revealing reminiscence, Tom Gill discussed his approach to the matter:

We put together a pretty good committee and held quite a few hearings. I guess we got more publicity out of it than I should have. And we refused the report to the legislature and to the media at the time. But I think that was a mistake. But I think I have given it to [Burns] first, even though he said nothing about it.

The 177-page food price report Gill released on 15 March 1967 was an outstanding analysis of the subject—thorough, analytical, and based upon significant community participation. But it was received by the public as a powerful statement by Tom Gill rather than an initiative of the Burns administration.

Few doubted that a contest between the two men had begun. When Burns and Gill were inaugurated on 3 December 1966, neither mentioned the other in his inaugural message. In his speech, Burns pointed forward to a continuation of the progress his administration had made

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2401, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE IV, SECTION 2, OF THE HAWAII STATE CONSTITUTION TO ADD A RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT FOR MEMBERS APPOINTED TO THE REAPPORTIONMENT COMMISSION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no.

At 10:39 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 2789, HD 1
H.B. No. 2790, HD 1
H.B. No. 1754, HD 1
H.B. No. 1756, HD 1
H.B. No. 2251
H.B. No. 1755, HD 2
H.B. No. 2401, HD 2

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 776-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2007, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2007, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morikawa rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"I feel that this bill would hurt our current education system, because it would limit the current flexibility our schools have in providing the best education possible for our keiki. Each individual school should be able to set forth its own independent bell schedule that will optimize its ability to provide the best possible education to the community. Additionally this legislation will interfere with our teachers' collective bargaining process as it has the potential to change the amount of instructional time a teacher is required to work. If changes were made to a teacher's instructional time, compensation would need to be provided under collective bargaining agreements. I feel it is unwise for the Legislature to interfere with the union process."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2007, Relating to Instructional Time in Public Schools. I understand the desire to standardize instructional time across the State, but I do have reservations about the kind of standardization proposed in this bill because it does not take into account certain intra-school and inter-school dynamics. This bill may limit schools' flexibility and adversely impact the progress and achievements they are making.

"We have many successful schools across the State that are meeting AYP and continue to have positive educational developments; I am concerned that standardization might adversely impact these high-performing schools. I do think it is a worthy intent to try and ensure that students all across Hawaii have the same amount of instructional time, but I am unsure that this is the most ideal way to accomplish this end. For these reasons I support this measure with reservations."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations on H.B. 2007-Relating to Instructional Time. This bill requires the Department of Education to devise four bell schedules each for elementary, middle, and high schools, except for charter schools and public multi-track schools. It repeals the general requirement that all public schools except charter schools and multi-track public schools include one thousand eighty student instructional hours for the 2016-2018 school years.

"While H.B. 2007 seems to improve education in Hawaii, there are concerns that a standardized schedule would not allow for the necessary flexibility of schools and their specific needs or students. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations. I appreciate the intent of the measure. I think there are just a couple concerns that just need to be worked out. Thank you."

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"I am concerned that this attempt at micro-managing the public school system by the Legislature would have unintended effects on small rural communities where things such as bus schedules and the need to feed multiple grade levels at a single cafeteria must be considered. I do not see the reason why these schools would be required to request an exemption if the purpose of standardizing bell schedules is because of concerns regarding the great disparity in the amount of school instructional hours."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, very much. In support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is part and parcel of this whole attempt to reform the educational system, and I think it also segues very nicely into what we did in 2010. For Members who were here in 2010, if you recall in 2009, the collective bargaining agreement among the stakeholders at that time resulted in 17 furlough days for our public school students, resulting in the shortest school year in the country. That item was bargained previously, as we all know. In 2010, during that Session, we passed a law that mandated 1080 instructional days that passed both the House and the Senate unanimously, because we believed, and I'm glad we believe, that as a matter of State policy there should be a minimum of instructional days for our students.

"This bill, Mr. Speaker, seeks to do the same. What the bill attempts to do is to say for every grade level, the Department shall develop 4 different bell schedules from which schools can select what best meets their needs. Again, waivers can be gotten if they appeal to the Board, but 4 different bell schedules. Why is this a problem, Mr. Speaker? It's a problem because there are dozens and dozens of bell schedules in our current system and it has resulted in the following anomalies.

"At the high school level, Mr. Speaker, the lowest and the highest school in terms of instructional hours varies by as much as 6 hours per week, which is the equivalent of 7 weeks of extra time for those students in that are at the high end, or 7 weeks less at the low end. Similarly at the middle school, it's 4 hours or the equivalent of 5 weeks. And more important and more dramatically at the elementary school level, the difference is 9 hours. Let me repeat that. From the lowest, the fewest number of instructional hours in an elementary school in our State system, to the highest number of instructional hours, we're talking about seat time, classroom time. It is 9 hours, or the equivalent of 10 weeks.

"Now put yourself in the seat of that student, Mr. Speaker. Or the parent of that student. And you tell me, if a parent has a child in the school and that parent knew in that particular school, her child was getting 10 weeks fewer instructional time than the student down the road, what do you think the reaction of that parent would be? Now perhaps that student cannot speak for herself, but I daresay, Mr. Speaker, when that student does become aware of that fact that she is getting shortchanged on instructional hours, I suspect I know what that answer will be. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Honorable Speaker, I am opposed to this measure that has the Legislature interfering with what should be a decision by the Governor-appointed Board of Education and the Department of Education. The Legislature has no business mandating four "one-size-fits-all" bell schedules for elementary, middle, and high schools without taking into account the local circumstances that go into fashioning the bell schedules currently in effect in our public schools. For example, on Maui, elementary, middle and high schools have been built along the same roadways. Different bell schedules may be required simply to ensure that younger children can be transported safely to and from school.

"This bill also backtracks further on the commitment the Legislature made to make sure that Hawaii no longer has one of the shortest school years in the country by apparently repealing the general requirement that all public schools, except charter and multi-track public schools, include one thousand and eighty (1080) student instructional hours.

"A systemwide standardization of bell schedules is micromanaging the Department of Education regarding in-school operations and seems to be another instance of simply blaming teachers for dysfunctions within our education system. A top-down mandate from the Legislature does not allow for the unique needs of each school regarding enrollment size, and campus size, and local circumstances, and effectively substitutes the judgment of politicians for educators, parents and local officials.

"Further, I am leery of bills that appear to be simply aimed at leveraging one party or another on collective bargaining issues."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2007, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSTRUCTIONAL TIME," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 12 noes, with Representatives Chang, Choy, Cullen, Hanohano, Har, Ichiyama, Kawakami, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morikawa, Takai and Tokioka voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 780-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2816, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2816, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to request a possible conflict of interest. My child attends Le Jardin," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2816, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR LE JARDIN ACADEMY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 781-12) recommending that H.B. No. 1683, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1683, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"At first I'd like to ask for a potential conflict ruling. I have a grandson that could be affected by the elimination of junior kindergarten," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm voting against the bill, because we can't guarantee at this point that House Bill 2519 will ultimately pass both Bodies. If it does, then okay, provided that the task force develops the early learning solution so we don't have a gap where some of the children fall through that gap."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill eliminates the Junior Kindergarten Program from Hawaii's schools. I support this measure, but offer concerns over a demographic of children that will be displaced due to this legislation. Late born children, children who are born in the latter months of the year, that enter kindergarten without being benefited by a pre-kindergarten program will be developmentally behind their peers. It should be noted that the needs of these late born children need to be addressed when eliminating the Junior Kindergarten Program. Further, it would be pre-mature to eliminate this program if the other initiative of early childhood learning is not implemented."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I vote with reservations on this measure because I believe that it would deprive keiki statewide of the opportunity to attend junior kindergarten for foundational and preliminary education."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition. This measure, if passed, will eliminate Junior Kindergarten in our public school system. As a replacement an early learning council will be established and attached to the Department of Education for administrative purposes. Instead of creating another program within the DOE an alternative could be to provide the support needed to the existing program. Our keiki must not be compromised. Junior Kindergarten programs have proven successful in transitioning youth into kindergarten and then elementary school. Because funding sources come through various venues, early learning programs already exist in the Department of Health, Department of Human Services, as well as programs offered through many non-profit organizations in the area of early learning. For these reasons, I stand in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1683, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO JUNIOR KINDERGARTEN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Awana, Hanohano, Souki and Thielen voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 782-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2106, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2106, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STUDENT ACTIVITY FUNDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 783-12) recommending that H.B. No. 2527, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2527, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak in opposition because I believe a measure like this should be done through collective bargaining and not through legislation. I would probably not be too opposed to this bill if it came from the Board of Education. But it seems that the Board of Education is relying on the Legislature, again, to do its work. Until they can begin to take a more positive role in initiating legislation and recommendations to this Body, I will be continually opposing bills like this.

"I opposed the bill last Session when we had the vote, the constitutional change providing that the Governor will appoint rather than having duly elected representatives. I believe to some extent my prediction is coming true. I would hope not, but it is. Again, the Legislature is doing the kind of work that they should be doing, or the one on the 5th Floor.

"So Members, because of this and because I think it should be a collective bargaining item, and because the Board has not been taking an active role in the kind of legislation they want, I will continue to vote against measures like this. Thank you, very much."

Representative Morikawa rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"While I agree we need to manage the performance of our educators, I feel that this bill improperly addresses this need. Performance management, under this bill, will affect compensation, employment, and "merit pay" and should be addressed under the collective bargaining process and not legislated. Our educators need to be represented when creating an evaluation program that measures their success in the classroom. This is why we have the collective bargaining process between our teachers and the State. If we are to properly gauge the effectiveness of our educators and to create incentives for exceptional work, this must be done through coordination between the educators and the State and not through legislation such as this."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise with reservations on HB 2527, Relating to Teacher Evaluations. While I do support the principle and concept of teacher evaluations for support and development purposes, as I know that most educators desire and appreciate some form of constructive feedback, I am concerned that the procedures for teacher evaluations set forth in this measure may not be successfully implemented. The Department of Education has experienced considerable challenges in implementing the current teacher and principal evaluations. I also have concerns on how fair and accurate the evaluations will be. The evaluation procedures should be arrived at through the collective bargaining process rather than instituted in statute.

"Again, this measure is underpinned by a worthy intent and good principles, but the details of implementations give me considerable pause. While I do not wish to jeopardize our Race to the Top funding, I also want to avoid implementing a non-pragmatic solution for a one-time financial gain. For these reasons I am voting with reservations on this measure."

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I am concerned because the underlying law here, that this legislation is based on what has been passed by the Legislature many years ago, and has to this date, not yet been implemented. To add additional requirements to this legislation so that the Department can continue to ignore the public policy set by the Legislature, I don't believe, is prudent. If we are going to help to resolve this problem, perhaps we have to be more prescriptive than to just allow additional things to be hung on this legislation. May I have permission to add additional comments?"

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"It is not a question of collective bargaining, but rather a question of accountability. There is no working system for accountability in State government for the policies set forth by the Legislature. As we quickly approach the tenth anniversary of Act 51 (2004), principals have realized the benefit of increased salaries—in some cases exceeding those of the State Superintendent—but are yet to be held to any form of accountability or standard of performance to justify their generous salaries.

"We celebrate the fictional achievement of yearly progress however we do not know if our children are truly better prepared for the new challenges and needs of a changing society. Our school system blindly puts inordinate emphasis on math and English at the expense of creativity and the arts. The public school system gives great emphasis on passing a test which is a high stakes game for everyone except the student. This is not a comparison of student progress, but rather a measure of how students in a particular grade improve over time. There is no incentive or real consequence to the student for doing well in this instrument and none of these addresses the fact that a leading indicator of student success is socio-economic status.

"If the Legislature truly wants to address school performance, then we have the opportunity to take this legislation a step further and prescribe the standard of expectations and performance that we expect from our employees."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise with reservations. The issue of tenure is currently an item that is under collective bargaining and it should remain as a collective bargaining portion. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I oppose HB 2527 HD2 which has the Legislature encroaching into a collective bargaining matter and is another bill that has this Legislature apparently siding with the present Governor and his appointed Board of Education against Hawaii's teachers in their ongoing contract dispute. I support improving public education and making sure that our children have the best possible opportunity to get a quality education. I do not support simply hammering Hawaii's educators in the midst of a collective bargaining dispute.

"The bill supposedly improves the public education system by having the Department of Education establish a performance management program, and having newly hired teachers of the Department serve a minimum three year probationary period.

"The voters of this State decided two years ago to make the Board of Education into an appointed board. While now appointed, the BOE remains the policy maker for Hawaii's public educational system and the Legislature should be cautious in interfering in policy areas that should be the BOE's kuleana. I am also concerned that a State mandated performance evaluation will do little to promote effective teaching and better learning without the State also including complementary professional development programs for our teachers, classroom support, and adequate funding.

"Additionally, to have new teachers serve a three year probationary period—as opposed to the present two years in the present teachers contract—prior to obtaining tenure certainly should be addressed as part of the ongoing collective bargaining negotiations.

"The handling of this proposal has been short-sighted for two reasons. This bill, as original proposed, feeds the insecurity and deep resentment that local teachers are feeling about the current Administration, the Board of Education, the DOE and could lead to concerns about whether the Legislature also thinks of teachers as just convenient whipping boys and girls. Ultimately, devaluing Hawaii's teaching force will end up harming Hawaii's children.

"I hope that this measure does not have broader effect of undermining workers' rights. I am concerned that undermining the job security, working conditions, and wages of one group of workers, makes it easier for employers—including public employers—to undermine them for all workers. This is why, during the Depression, many unemployed people organized in support of workers on strike. Workers then believed in the concept of solidarity — the idea that working people could only progress if they did so together, and if one group of workers improved their conditions, it would ultimately improve conditions for all.

"For these reasons and concerns, I am casting a NO vote on this measure."

Representative McKelvey rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Nakashima and Souki be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. Let me just remind some of our colleagues that talk about whether or not this should be bargaining or not, I think we all know the whole issue of teacher evaluation has been in statute, Mr. Speaker, for several decades. So this is something that just expands upon that statute.

"Secondly the whole issue of tenure. Tenure was in law until 2008. So for those who say that should be bargained, I don't recall anyone introducing a bill prior to 2008 repealing the law saying that should be a bargainable item. And by the way, Mr. Speaker. When it did become a negotiable item, tenure went from two years to one year. There are very, very few states that have a one-year tenure. In fact, I don't know of any. The vast majority of states have teachers on probation anywhere from three to six years before they get tenure. This bill would put that tenure provision back into law and increase the probationary period from two to three years.

"I think it's also safe to say it's a work in progress. If you look at the current collective bargaining process that's ongoing between the teacher's union and the Administration, it's still currently in limbo. And whether or not this legislation will be necessary by the end of Session remains to be seen. I'm going to be hopeful that the parties will get back to the bargaining table in good faith and iron some of these issues out.

"But let me just say one more point about what should we bargain and not. When we passed out Act 51 in 2004, for those of us who remember that time, we put into statute that there should be School Community Councils. If you recall, School Community Based Management Teams were a bargainable item. That a certain number of teachers at every given school, two-thirds, had to agree whether or not to have an SCBM at their school. The law was passed 10 years later, and 10% of our schools had no SCBM, because they could not reach that threshold of teachers to agree to an SCBM. Again as a matter of public policy, we decided in this Body, that every school ought to have a community based volunteer board to determine some of the academic and fiscal destiny of each school. That was put in to law. The teachers' union, at that time opposed that, saying that should be a bargainable item.

"And my last point. A small point, but a significant one. We have taken items that were bargained in the past, and put them into law. And taken items that were in statute and put it onto the bargaining table. Let me give you one example. National Board Certified Teachers, Mr. Speaker. National Board Certified Teachers in our State get a $5,000 bonus. That was negotiated in the past. In 2004 we decided that issue is so important, that certification is so valuable that it should be a matter of law. And it currently is in law, that every teacher who achieves that certification, deserves, and rightfully so, that $5,000 bonus. The union at that time, or any of our colleagues, has not objected to taking that from a previously negotiated item and putting into law. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm standing in support, Mr. Speaker. This bill attempts to pay teachers according to performance. I think in the private sector, as well as in the corporate world, those people are paid according to performance. I welcome bills such as this, because the way we are with our school students' performance, we ought to try other means to improve that. I think paying teachers on performance pay is something that should be discussed and it should be voted on. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Nakashima be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"I do not agree with exempting from civil service, employees who are hired to repair and maintain vacant housing units, and employees who are hired to perform planning, design, engineering or processing work for State or county capital improvement projects. I strongly support the renovation of public housing, but question why recruitment for these positions is unsuccessful. I am very familiar with the recruitment process and know that it is a fair and honest process and with the recent computerization, is a lot faster. Further, I question if the employer has provided adequate justification to exempt the types of employment that have customarily and historically been performed by civil service employees.

"The Hawaii Government Employees Association (HGEA) submitted testimony that I agree with and it reads, "As written, this legislation is in stark and direct contrast to the intent of Act 253, SLH 2000, and Act 300, SLH 2006, which require the Director of the Department of Human Resources Development to review exempt positions and determine whether the positions should remain exempt permanently or convert the position to civil service. It also usurps the result of S.B. 1090, introduced in the 2011 Session, in which the Employer and the Union mutually agreed to collaboratively identify and facilitate conversion of exempt positions throughout the executive branch." If an exempt position is converted to a permanent position, that position wasn't recruited through the civil service process and thereby that employee may not have met the requirements to be a permanent employee. At the County level, I have hired people with the same computer program as the State, so I know how fast you can get people hired."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

St. Francis has been healing the people of Hawaii since 1883. It's a way for them to know that we have not forgotten what they've done. We're sad about the loss of HMC, and we're hoping though that we can explore measures that we can still be in service to the people Hawaii. Additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of HB 2345 HD1, Relating to the Issuance of Special Purpose Revenue Bonds to Assist St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii."

"Mr. Speaker, I would first like to say thank you to all of my colleagues who are making it possible to issue these special purpose revenue bonds for St. Francis Healthcare System. This bill will assist St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii to finance the construction, improvement, and equipment of its healthcare facilities."

"As we've all seen recently, the healthcare system in Hawaii is struggling. When this particular industry struggles, people can lose their lives. That's why HB 2345 HD1 is so important; not only the people of this state, but to institutions like the St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii."
