Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mahalo, Ho'omalū 'Ōlelo, Ke kū nei au me ke kako'o loa. 'O kēia pila e ho'okumu ka 'aha kūka i loko ke ke'ena 'Aina a me Nā Kumu Waiwai. 'O kēia 'Aha kūka e lawe mai ka mana'o akamai e pili nā kūpuna. E holo mua kākou me ka mana'o i'o a me ka ha'aha'a."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. This bill creates an advisory council in the Department of Land and Natural Resources. This advisory council brings forth ancestral wisdom. We move forward with confidence and humility. Mahalo."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote with reservations. I do respect what the previous speaker from the Big Island said, but there are some questions that need to be answered yet, as to some of the language in the bill. Possibly when it comes down and I get the answer, I would be voting 100% for this.

"My question is, regarding the term indigenous, and what's the meaning of indigenous. I know right now Hawaiian Homes would be considered as possibly indigenous land, and you need to have 50% Hawaiian to be there. But what about the rest of the land? So this is the kind of questions that I have, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3053, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATIVE HAWAIIANS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Reservations, because it assumes that the interisland cable will be part of this."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2981, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no.

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Due to the length of the day today, I'll be short. But this is the one bill in the environmental package this year, that actually does move things along in the proper fashion. It allows projects to move onto Environmental Impact Statements, thereby skipping the EA, saving them a few months, and money. This is the sort of streamline we should be looking at. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2281, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Conversely this is the sort of bill that we should not be passing along. SB 2927 is too wide open. It would allow, theoretically, unfettered development within a certain radius of transit, and stations. One could imagine a wall of 400-foot buildings in certain areas, blocking views, view corridors that the City purposely has established to provide proper planning. It could violate many rules and ideas that are important in the whole process.

"It is extremely fuzzy. What the definition of exceptional planning project may mean in the future. It could mean anything. Therefore again, we're going wild and woolly. And finally, I do not understand why this is a State concern. Why this is not something the City and County should be dealing with. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. You know, this proposal adopts smart growth principles, principles that have been touted on by environmentalist groups, by developers, by people moving towards the smart growth movement of getting people out of their cars and being able to walk to work, and being able to take mass transit to get off of fossil fuels. These are smart growth principles that focus the energy of development around the urban core so that we don't need to go out into rural areas and develop our open ag lands.

"Mr. Speaker, this is everything that has been, I guess the buzz for the last ten years. Maybe more. I've been to a few smart growth conferences, and this is completely in line with what they tried to attain. Now this is a new concept, and this is why the State is stepping in. But if you take into account the counties' testimony in strong support of this measure, I think it's sending a strong message that they need to have the tools to be able to incorporate these new smart growth concepts into their planning departments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in opposition to this. I somewhat agree with the previous speaker of Kauai. He is right that we should be smart about our pattern of growth and we should adopt some transit-oriented development ideas and methods. But some of the rules that we're setting aside really, I'm wondering whether the end justifies the means.

"Some of these bills run rough shod over the City and County of Honolulu, and would allow things like a 650 ft. tower in the middle of Kakaako. The State is going to build this and completely ignore County density requirements, height requirements, and who knows what else. I just don't think it's a very wise idea to open the door so wide to these particular developments. There's got to be some more constraints. It's got to be a more project-by-project decision. But this is just opening the doors wide open to unfettered development. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the bill. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, you look at page 6 of the bill, and you look at the county exemptions. Any of these exceptional planning projects approved by the legislative body shall receive exemptions from the zone change process in compliance with zoning standards.

"So what we're doing with this bill is under the guise of smart growth or whatever you want to call it, creating these transit centers. They're going to be all over this Island. I don't know about the Neighbor Islands. I can't speak for them. But all over this Island, including for example, in Kailua. A transit center there could mean that all of the land use requirements or the land use protections for the Kailua area are going to be set aside. And these so called transit-oriented areas are going to be able to exceed any height limitations, any density limitations, and just move ahead and create a whole different look for our different rural and urban communities.

"The other thing that's quite interesting is that the decision makers, any county or any officials, or employees, no claim can be prosecuted or maintained against them. So they're home free. Make these decisions. Here's what the community has to live with. And the community has no legal recourse because the bill provides complete immunity for them. It's an amazing bill that has sort of surfaced as people have gone out to these different hearings that have been held by the different transit authorities. And all of a sudden, they're taking a look at maps that are related to right into their own local community, and they're saying: Wait a minute. What about the height restriction? What are you talking about? A hotel, right here in the beginning of Kailua town. What's going on with all of these proposed ideas? Who's behind this? Why wasn't it taken out to the community? Why weren't these things developed as part of the land use scheme, by the community from the grassroots up instead of being laid on now from the Legislature and giving absolute immunity to those government officials that are going to go ahead and implement this.

"So I am opposed to this measure."

Representative Kawakami rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My second time, still in support. You know, I think there's some confusion. This bill doesn't allow just these big massive hotel developments to pop up overnight next to bus stops. It gives the county planning departments and the commissions, the tools to incorporate some of these new ideas into the decision making. The counties still have full purview over their approval of these projects. In fact they have 45 days, which you already are bound by in certain projects. And what happens if they can't make the decision within 45 days? They get an additional 10 days. And if that's still not enough time, they're going to disapprove it. It's still going to go through the public process.

"So, Mr. Speaker, there's some confusion on this, and I think if they read the bill, a lot of the clarifications can be found in the language of the bill. And for the record, for something that's going to run over the counties, I would like to point out: David K. Tanoue, Department of Planning and Permitting, in support. Councilmember from Big Island, Fresh Onishi, in support. Michael Dahilig, County of Kauai, in support. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm sorry. I rise in opposition to the measure. Thank you. You know, the bill intends to spark urban growth by facilitating all this development. And actually, I really appreciate what the Representative from Hanalei had to say about smart growth and making sure that we preserve open space. And you don't have urban sprawl, and all that business in the countryside.

"But my point is, number one, not only does this exempt government from environmental protection laws, and eroding the transparency. Don't forget, the urban core's an important place. There are a lot of things here in our Downtown, Kakaako area that are exceptionally important. It's the first thing people see once you're coming off Nimitz, right from the airport. We want to make sure that our development and how we plan it, and how we create that experience, has the input from those that actually live in the area. There are a lot of special things about this Kakaako area, and I certainly, I certainly hope in my lifetime I don't see a hotel there, looking like Vegas, with gambling.

"I'm going to read from some of what the Sierra Club has to say.

While we support the intent of sparking urban growth, the bill prioritizes the elimination of the public voice as a means to expedite growth. This bill requires action by the planning agency and legislative body to disapprove of a developer's application within 45 days. Big developments sometimes require additional discussion. This short of a timeframe, even assuming legislative bodies meet frequently enough to meet this schedule, only harms the public, creates bad projects that fail to adequately analyze traffic impact, infrastructure and community input. But moreover, exempting projects from all zoning requirements, is contrary to the concepts of smart urban planning. It builds distrust. It discourages investment in new buildings. With no assurances that view planes will be protected. Seedy establishments could happen under this.

"I really don't hope that this is just another thing to make the place look like some city that's not in keeping with the spirit of Hawaii. We have so much going for us. And you know our urban space, as well as our countryside. It's beautiful. Not far from here are many historic sites. Let's keep it where we're getting the best practices, the best input, from those who live there, as well as developers."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Thank you, if anyone has been to Kona recently, you'll drive into the town and you'll wonder why they didn't have planning guidelines and planning districts, and think about smart growth, because it looks hodgepodge. It looks disconnected. It looks like there was no discussion about what are guidelines we want to live by.

"One of the things I really like about this bill, and that's why I want to strongly support it, is it says that any county or county agency participating in the program shall enact ordinance or adopt rules or regulations as necessary for the purposes of this section. I think if you really get into the nitty-gritty detail, it's talking about developing guidelines, strategies. What it is we're going to do if we go into transient-orientated, main street development. That actually gives them a framework and tells them, if you're going to move in this direction, you need to discuss all these things. And you need to do it in the area where you have the bus center or the transit center. It's very smart, that we're doing this, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support it. Thank you"

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Assuming that growth continues on Oahu, population growth that is, we have a choice between, well on one extreme is we can just keep building subdivisions until there's one big subdivision from Wahiawa all the way up to Haleiwa. Or we can do something that's more in line with what this bill does.

"I think it probably does need a little more scrubbing, and hopefully that will happen in Conference so that the parameters are pretty tight. But the overall concept, I wholeheartedly support. It dovetails with rail. It dovetails with keeping enough of Oahu country so we can still enjoy that part of our environment. Thank you. I do support the bill. Mahalo."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. I think the City of Honolulu is in much need of open redevelopment and I welcome this bill. Furthermore, as far as this topic or this need for community input, although it's well intended, in my observation it almost always leads to that 'not in my backyard' concept. So, although we need this, I think we need to know that it also may have some unintended consequences. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Thank you. I think again, the bill is underpinned by a worthy concept. If we're going to have a large public infrastructure project, then we should maximize it for the benefit of the taxpayers. I don't disagree with that at all. In fact, I understand how transit-oriented development can be done successfully. I lived above a metro stop for four years, in Washington DC in a suburb that was largely developed around a certain line of the Washington DC Metro and it's spur into Virginia. So, I think there are potential opportunities to do it well. I think that's what our constituents would want if we're making them on the hook for this.

"My concern though, is that as someone who has two freeways going through their District, the airport in their District, the harbor, Pearl Harbor in their District. My community knows what it is like to be brushed up right next to major infrastructure and to see the consequences of both the good, and sometimes the bad of what it's like to be buttressed right next to that infrastructure. And my only hesitation with particular bill, I echo the Representative from Downtown, Chinatown, I do hope it gets tightened up. I'm uncomfortable with some of the exceptional planning projects and the abilities to be exempted from certain zoning requirements, because I do worry that there are the environmental consequences. But there are also the traffic consequences. And there are the quality of life issues, that particularly, for many of us who are from the urban core, do uniquely impact our constituents. So, for those reasons, I do support this bill, but have reservations. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. I want to of course say, again the process here, the intended purpose is excellent. And I think this is something that if we are going to be able to manage our development in a smart growth sort of way, 50 years down the road. However, I would note that we are a community, or an island of existing communities. Communities which have come a long way, building themselves and maintaining their own character and their own direction for growth. And while the bill empowers counties to come up with designated districts that would allow for these sorts of provisions that are here in the bill, I do think that there aren't quite the restrictions that some of these communities would like.

"There are a number of concerns as well, noting indemnity of the counties which raises potential constitutional questions. The Attorney General notes that the exemptions in the bill, with the specific language could be tightened up to specifically target county versus State zoning issues. Things like that.

"Ultimately we'll need to make sure that whatever happens and whatever direction we choose to go as we continue to focus development and growth, and where people, the next generation of us are going to live here, in Hawaii. We want to do it in a way that is sound, does not open up a number of communities that themselves are, in some sense, mature, and choose to be. So for those reasons I do have concerns. Thank you."

Representative Giugni rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Giugni's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure creates a process for developers to facilitate approval for residential and commercial exceptional planning projects. My concern is the process will circumvent existing land use zoning regulations, environmental review requirements, and State impact fees for schools and public facilities. This will not be in the public interest."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The title of the bill is, Relating to Community Planning. And I do believe that based on what I read, it should be not relating to community planning, because what we're trying to do is basically exempt the community from the planning process. You know, I support rail. I continue to support rail. But doing these types of things, just to alleviate some concerns of the community, legitimate concerns as it relates to transit-oriented development in and around the rail line, to me, does a disservice to the people that support rail.

"I'll speak for myself as a Representative of Aiea, Pearl City, and I can tell you that our community at the very beginning generally supported rail. And I believe they continue to support rail. But there was some commitments made to our community in regards to access on Kam Highway, in terms of beautification projects and what they call community benefits, a community benefits package. Unfortunately, with the changes of both the State and county Administrations, those types of community benefits promised to our community, is up in the air.

"Now if we pass a bill like this, I suppose that one of the results and consequences of this could be in fact, the ramming down of the throats of people in our community about some of the things that are happening in and around the rail line. And as you may know, the rail line goes right through our community along Kam Highway, from the entire length of Pearl City on the West, all the way through Aiea on the East. In addition, Mr. Speaker, there's been much concern and discussion in our community regarding development right across the street from Pearl Ridge Shopping Center.

"Those of you may recall the Kam Drive-In, when we use to go and watch movies years ago. That is actually, right now, being proposed for a huge development, and many people have mentioned that as a transit-oriented development project, because it is so near to the transit stop at Kaonihiki Street and Kamehameha Highway.

"I shudder to think about the consequences to our community and the people that live in and around that project if this bill goes through. And if that particular parcel of land, it gets included in an exemption done by the City Council of Honolulu. I just don't think we need to do this. Again, I support rail. I support what we're trying to do. But I believe and continue to support the current laws that we have in place to provide community input and feedback as it relates to development. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, smart growth development is an urban planning and transportation theory that concentrates growth in compact, walkable urban centers to avoid urban sprawl. It also advocates compact, transit-oriented, walkable, bicycle friendly land use, including neighborhood schools, complete streets, and mixed use development with a range of housing choices.

"Smart growth development values include long-range regional considerations of sustainability over a short-term focus. Its goals are to achieve a unique sense of community and place, expand the range of transportation, employment and housing choices, equitably distribute the costs and benefits of development, preserve and enhance natural and cultural resources, and promote public health. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S.B. 2927 because that's exactly what this bill does.

"There have been a lot of misrepresentations about this bill, particularly with respect to exempting community involvement. That is absolutely false. Mr. Speaker, the bill states, the counties can establish a transit-oriented development and main street redevelopment criteria which shall include rules or ordinances. The counties can then include that requirement of the application process requiring public participation via community meetings or neighborhood boards. If this process is not satisfied, an interested party may not submit the application, therefore the expedited application process does not exclude public participation.

"There have been other allegations that this bill will just open up the entire island to fast tracking of development. That is absolutely false, Mr. Speaker. Once again, the application process is not valid until the counties designate planning districts, whether that be transit stations, or main streets, and establish criteria which may include rules, regulations ordinances, etc.

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is really to focus on smart growth in creating mixed use communities, by allowing mixed use, commercial, industrial and residential, you allow people to live and work within distances that promote walking, biking, and public transportation. In addition, you reduce infrastructure costs to your existing infrastructure, as well as you reduce traffic.

"Now there have been many emails we've been getting from certain community members from the Windward side, because they want to keep their community, their community. Let's be aware of something. S.B. 2927 would allow exceptions to current land use law, laws that would allow preservation of historic buildings and facades. Preserving our community starts with keeping our historic sense of place.

"If our infrastructure cannot sustain growth, then growth needs to be focused in other areas. This bill will not force growth where it cannot be sustained. This is one of the many checks and balances the county process offers and which cannot be avoided, nor exempted. This bill does not enforce any immediate exemptions. Instead, it only allows the counties, if they choose, to establish a criteria for transit-oriented development and main street redevelopment.

"The public is not cut out of the process. The Department of Planning and Permitting has already stated that the exceptional planning project will need to be presented in the community prior to being submitted for the permitted process, the counties will decide on their own criteria and how to implement on a case-by-case process.

"You know, Mr. Speaker. It's interesting we're debating this bill right now, because before me, I have an article that was just published on Friday the 6th, 2012 by the Pacific Business News, and the title of the article says, If Oahu's Going to Have Rail, Law Makers Should Pass Senate Bill 2927. And I want to read an excerpt from this particular article, because it's interesting. The Pacific Business News makes clear that they are not actually in support of rail, yet they are still in support of S.B. 2927, and I'd like to read from the article:

Rarely do developers in Hawaii get any kind of break when it comes to fees and other requirements. And while we often wish that local and state governments were easier to do business with, we do not have problems with reasonable laws designed to ensure the thoughtful use of our natural resources. At the same time, we think the state would not be violating this approach, even if it were, on occasion, to give developers some motivation for growth that helps achieve a well planned and highly desired outcome. That is why, despite our objections to the elevated rail transit system plan on Oahu, we are in strong support of Senate Bill 2927 ..."

Representative Tokioka rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har continued, stating:

"Thank you.

Which would waive development fees and ease some other requirements for developers who want to build residential, retail and office space, near rail stations.

Our first choice, as we've stated on numerous occasions, would be that the City and County of Honolulu find a better alternative to the elevated rail system it plans to build, but if we're going to go through with it, the legislature's attempts to encourage development along the 21 stations anchoring the 20 mile route, are not only appropriate, they are necessary.

Given the project's $5.1 billion cost, we must do everything we can to encourage ridership and leverage the return on our soon to be enormous investment. As mainland cities from coast to coast have shown, one of the best ways to do this is by incentivizing transit-oriented development. We like the project by project assessment contained within Senate Bill 2927, which would allow the state to emphasize housing as part of its strategy for transit oriented development. Not only would that approach create much needed affordable options, housing concentrations typically result in commercial development, and if enough transit-oriented development projects occur, the flow of jobs will move out of Downtown and along the route of the rail system which would take even more drivers off the road.

"Accordingly, for these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMMUNITY PLANNING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 30 ayes to 21 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Brower, Carroll, Ching, Choy, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, Marumoto, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Riviere, Saiki, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1642-12) recommending that S.B. No. 490, SD 3, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. After that long period of time we spent discussing the other bill, I guess I should make mine very short. I'm speaking with reservations on S.B. No. 490. Are we on that bill now? I just want to make sure because I lost count after all of that discussion on the last bill. Thank you, very much.

"The two concerns I have, and it's quite ironic. You're providing $2 million to try to provide some special areas in tourism where they can try to get more tourists here. But it's ironic because it's from the general funds and the Hawaii Tourism Authority. The Hawaii Tourism Authority is capped, so it cannot earn anymore. It goes back to the general funds. So what we do now is, we get money from the general fund and we put it right back in. So I think what we should do at some point in time is take off the cap so we won't have this kind of problem. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support, with written comments. And just a footnote of hats off to HTA, the visitor industry that took us out of the recession. It's the visa waiver program particularly for the Chinese visitor that allotted this $2 million. Regardless of where it comes from, it's going to go and leverage our industry. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in strong support of this measure.

"Recently, the federal government instituted initiatives to increase international travel and tourism in the US. This bill would take advantage of the new initiatives by increasing the level of funding for the tourism special fund per fiscal year provided a certain amount of it be specifically used on expanded visa programs and increased travel opportunities for international visitors.

"These funds could be used to attract visitors from new and emerging markets, specifically those in Asia (China, Taiwan, others). The easing of the visa process for China allows Hawaii to further tap into a market with large growth potential. The number of visitors from China is expected to top 125,000 this year with each traveler expected to spend around $380 per day, which is higher than any other country.

"Furthermore, the visa waiver status for Taiwan also opens up a fortuitous market for the state. This could lead to an influx of Taiwanese visitors to the state very similar to what happened after Korea received its visa waiver in 2008.

"This increased travel would help solidify and increase Hawaii's already successful tourism industry. The increase in visitors means more off-island money for the economy and State. It also means more jobs as these travel initiatives could help provide up to 154,000 jobs in the State.

"These initiatives should help the State economically recover and expand, but they may also have an impact on a larger, grander scale. The islands are already a unique place in the United States and world, but with increased international exposure, the State could become an even bigger player on the international stage, especially in regards to Asia. In time, the state could become the international focal point of the Pacific.

"I appreciate the opportunity to express my views and to voice my strong support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 3:36 o'clock p.m., Representative Aquino requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:37 o'clock p.m.

At 3:39 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 3003, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 2981, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1197, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2281, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 2787, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1643-12) recommending that S.B. No. 3048, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3048, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak against this measure. Not because it provides an income tax credit for the hotels, which I think, is very timely and needed. But more because of the making permanent the 2% increase that we provided for the Transit Accommodation Tax a couple years ago. When we provided that increase, it was told to this Body here, and to the hotels that it was going to be temporary.

"It was going to be sunsetted in a few years. And now I'm looking at this bill to make it permanent. So this additional 2%, instead of going for marketing, will be coming into the general fund.

"I understand that for emergency purposes, you need to do this thing. But with this year's budget, I don't believe we need to. And more important is the ability, when you convince people to vote for a measure, that you keep your word. Your word is golden. So this is one of the reasons I am voting against this measure. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, for the same reasons."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker in support, with the words of the Representative of Wailuku inserted as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. While I understand the words of the Representative from Wailuku, the measure in extending the tax is essentially, and mainly just to pay for the credit. So, I think it's just a fiscal responsibility issue. And if we can't do that, then the credit will be difficult as well. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, no vote on this measure. And a couple of comments. To sweeten the pie obviously, they spliced to make nice, some of the opposing issues by making nice. On the one hand, a tax credit. On the other hand, making permanent what otherwise was a temporary one. This is one of the few, how would you say, tax increases, because it makes permanent that which we have. And we have another one coming up in a couple of bills, but it's when we give our word that something is permanent.

"It's no wonder the political subculture, when someone says it's just a permanent tax like the one for the train, how many people really believe us when we do what we're doing now, by making permanent that TAT tax. And the same way with the rental cars. Mr. Speaker, we jacked it up to $7.50 a day because we told the rental car agencies we're going to put the money to build on their premises at the airport. And again today, we took it out. We didn't do what we promised.

"I think our credibility's at stake with a bill like this. And like the speaker of Maui said, this is not what we should have done. And if we were going to do it, we should have been more honest about it. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I guess the wonderful thing about living in paradise is that sunsets never come. They just always get extended. So it's a beautiful place to live, but it's a terrible place to put your faith that things are only temporary. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will vote aye with reservations for much of the same reasons as the Speaker Emeritus. I do support the tax credit for hotel construction. I believe the construction activity and revenues derived from it will help pay for the tax credit. I do oppose keeping the retention of the hotel tax at the current high rate. I believe it's 9.5% percent. And be aware, if you're voting for this, you are voting for a tax increase. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, just for the edification of Members and maybe those who were not here back in 2007. We did increase the hotel room tax by 1% over 2 years. So it went up from 7% to 8%, and 8% to 9%. And at that time, the naysayers said that it would cause the demise and the end of the Hawaii tourism industry. That never came to pass. In fact, we've been seeing record numbers of tourists visit us. So now we extend the increase of the TAT upon their rooms. We're setting new records every year since we began to emerge from the great recession of 2008.

"So I think this is the real background and honest truth of where this measure is coming from. Back then, we tied it to a 6-year financial plan, Mr. Speaker, so that it would go out to the year 2015. At that point in time, the Legislature will have a time to address that sunset. We're currently, in the current calendar year of 2012, entering to the fiscal year '13 cycles.

"There's two more years for the bill, the Act to be effectuated. So this is just being brought up for this Legislature to consider. The carrot, I guess for the hotel industry to receive a tax credit, both for new rooms, as well as to remodel their older rooms. So that's part of the discussion. I think there's some interested parties out there. So I ask that we move this measure forward and continue discussion. But there's still some time for an open, honest debate on this revenue stream, as well as the incentives for the hotel owners. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support. And I would agree with the Finance Chair. That support of this measure is not, I wouldn't consider it to be that you're raising taxes. I would possibly consider that you are open to maintaining a tax that was set to be sunset in 2015. And since the amendment is fairly new to the bill, I do welcome more discussion in the next few days and few weeks. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with some reservations and a question. The bill is creating an income tax credit for hotel construction or renovation, but yet we can't continue a credit for homeowners that want to put in photovoltaic systems. At least we can't continue it at the same level.

"I just would like to ask the Chair of Finance if he would yield to a question. If you want to call a recess, I'll go ask him a question. Why one, but not the other. One's homeowners, the other's hotel constructions."

At 3:47 o'clock p.m., Representative Thielen requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:49 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3048, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRAVEL AND TOURISM STIMULUS INITIATIVES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Cabanilla, Carroll, Choy, Fontaine, Herkes, Luke, McKelvey, Nakashima, Riviere, Souki, Takumi, Ward and Wooley voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1644-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2739, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2739, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SMALL BUSINESS REGULATORY REVIEW BOARD," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1646-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2226, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2226, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This is a tax increase. It's real. It's now. It's going to be an increase in the cost living for everyone in the State of Hawaii who is near, or at least dear to buying online, anything that comes into the State. And I know that the logic of this is that it's the Use Tax that came about decades ago, which I submit if it was a Use Tax today, it wouldn't be implementable. It would have never pass an august body such as this.

"But this is another way of saying it's a tax increase and it's due. And the other response is it's unfair to the local retailers. I say that being that we're in Hawaii and we are brick and mortar, we can sell to the rest of the world our products with our name, with our brand as easily as anybody else can sell to us, Mr. Speaker. And having been a retailer in Waikiki for 15 years at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, we used to send stuff to the mainland and we never paid the GET tax. Hawaii has that same opportunity as everybody else. But this is a tax increase. It's now, and I vote no on it. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Mr. Speaker, yes I agree with the Minority Leader. It is a tax increase, if you're a tax cheat. And if you cheated on your taxes all this time, and never paid your Use Tax, and you have to pay this new tax, then I guess, it is an increase. So yes, sir. I do agree with you. But tax cheating should not be a planning technique. It should not be used against all of us who pay our taxes. So this is not a tax increase for the honest tax payers. But it is, for the tax cheaters. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well with that, Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. The bill proposes to make a law. The bill proposes to increase, create taxes for consumers, for our Hawaii residents, for consumers, specifically for our electronic and catalog purchases. Something of which we've had lots of debate on.

"Testimony provided by Amazon during a recent hearing said the bill would not be an effective source of revenue. Let's face it. This is a source of revenue. It's one more, let's get some money. It says that it would sever the relationships with Hawaii-based advertisers, exempting the repercussions of this measure. It also says it will reduce tax collections as local businesses with affiliate relationships would lose that revenue.

"The point is, I guess, my concern, my number one reason for rising in opposition, is that this affects my people, the people of my district. Mr. Speaker, I've said before on this Floor, we are not like the mainland. Let me repeat it. We are not like the mainland. And one thing that always comes clear too, if you like to go shopping, is that being the farthest from any landmass in the world, we don't have that interconnected railway system of the contiguous 48 states. So they can just, you know, go ahead and take shipped goods and all that kind of stuff. So when you go shopping on the mainland, you have a huge choice of stuff to buy. Yeah, ship everything in here, until some people decide they're going to go on the internet. What they want to get. What they want to get, and have choice.

"Choice, that's a nice thing because it's connected to freedom. Freedom and choice. Like you choose your doctor. You choose your doctor. You choose other things. Choice. So they've got to go on the internet to get what they want. But when they go on the internet and they purchase, and I appreciate the Representative from Kauai who introduced the Resolution to address this comment that I made on the Floor, previous. A couple months ago. That you're paying top shipping costs.

"So sometimes, I've heard arguments, 'Oh that this is for the brick and mortar guys. This is, you know. It's anti-business not to tax the internet because after all, you know, they've got to pay taxes on it and price differential and all that.' But actually it's just raising prices on our people. That's all it's doing.

"I would like to share with you, if you don't mind, one of the testimonies from Miles Tanabe of the Island of Kauai. Miles says,

As a small business owner and Kauai resident, in the rural county of Kauai, I rely on out-of-state catalogue retailers and businesses that use the internet to supply much of my uniforms, the specialized equipment, and the supplies I sell. So actually, you see, small businesses are using the internet. Small businesses like those in the County of Kauai. This type of interstate commerce allows companies like mine to be able to obtain items that cannot be found in the County of Kauai or within the State of Hawaii, and as such we have no other choice, than to shop on the internet.

"Our people. Our people, Mr. Speaker, shop on the internet. They want to get certain things that you just can't get in Hawaii. A lot of things you can't get, because of the way we're located so far away. And I appreciate, like I said before, the Resolution introduced to address what I said on the Floor. I said that we're paying higher shipping costs. So what's it all about, is it's about a money grab. Or is it about taking care of making sure people have choices, so they can have the highest quality of life for our people. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some very brief comments. I will not adopt the words of my good Vice Chair, but I do have concerns over the last comments about choice. That this takes away choice. That somehow, by having fairness, about paying just a .5%, or 4%, or whatever it is, GET, like you would at any retail store in Hawaii, that now you don't have the choice.

"The internet isn't going anywhere, Mr. Speaker. It's still there. People can get online. All we're saying is, pay the GET like you would if you bought it here. The prices are still going to be much better. This doesn't stop the good gentleman from the Neighbor Islands from purchasing the uniforms. It's just if like you would at a brick and mortar. All it's saying is, pay the GET.

"And we can say, 'Hey, you know what? Let's go on the internet, 100%. No need. Just go 100% internet.' Well, you can imagine what the cumulative picture of that would be? And also that would be a job killer, Mr. Speaker, because then what would be the next progression? You'd lay off your staff, right? And I think Amazon is not the company whose testimony, with all due respect, I would look to. I would look to that of the Retail Merchants Associations, of our neighbors and friends, who own stores.

"I use the internet all the time. I love it, you know. And I pay my GET on what little I buy off of it. And you can go on the internet tomorrow. Now for resellers in the State of Hawaii, they are being unfairly victimized by Amazon. And I think the blame should be pointed at them for pressuring these small people out of it. But to say because there's no resellers in the State of Hawaii that you won't be able to go to Amazon, or to other internet sites is not accurate.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I'm just sad that Amazon continues to do this nationally. And that we have to continue to have this debate. I hope Congress acts in one form or another so we can stop having this debate. I just feel bummed out, right now, pardon my French, that we're having this conversation about, well this is a new tax. This is something that's going to really take away people's choices. They won't be able to use the internet anymore, which is not true.

"I'm siding with the mom and pops on this, because I think it is unfair, that they have to be responsible for collecting the tax. But yet, an entity that's far away on the mainland is somehow given a free ride on that. And that's why I support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Sorry, Mr. Speaker. I'm still in opposition. With all due respect to the Representative from Lahaina. You know, one of the most fallacious arguments I remember in logic class, which I did pretty well in, actually, believe it or not. It is a fallacious argument. We call it fallacious in logic. Where you take something all the way to an extreme. You create a straw man and say, 'Boy, if you're for protecting and not raising this tax, therefore you're against all of this.' Taking it to the extreme. It's a typical argument, but it's still categorized as fallacious.

"I rise and say, in fact my whole point, in bringing this gentleman, Mr. Tanabe's testimony, and I ask that it be submitted into the Journal, was that I'm defending small business people. That's my point. And I'm saying truthfully, as he says in his testimony, that excessively high rates apply to Alaska and Hawaii. I'm just saying that it's raising taxes on our people. Their quality of living. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in opposition to this bill. This bill proposes to increase/create taxes for consumers, specifically for electronic and catalogue purchases; something of which, we have engaged in much debate.

"Testimony provided by Amazon during a recent hearing confirmed that this bill would not be an effective source of revenue, as Amazon and similar companies would sever their relationships with Hawaii-based advertisers to be exempt from the repercussions of this measure. This would reduce tax collections as the local businesses with affiliate relationships would lose that revenue.

"The revenue that the State seeks would be a result of the newly collected tax at the expense of consumers, or Hawaii residents. This bill is actually anti-small business in the sense that it does not encourage free enterprise and many small businesses rely on internet sales. This bill encourages a mainstream of commerce through large corporations, while the innovation and creativity of local small-business owners is compromised, due to the extravagant costs. As a result, this bill would encourage more residents to become victims to the declined economy.

"Previous testimony for HCR37, Mr. Miles Tanabe, a small business owner and Kauai resident put it best when he said, 'As a resident and small business owner in the rural county of Kauai I rely on out of state catalog retailers and businesses that use the internet to promote their products, to supply much of my uniforms, specialized equipment and supplies. This type of interstate commerce allows companies like mine to be able to obtain items that cannot be found in the county of Kauai or within the state of Hawaii. As such, we have no other choice than to shop through mail order catalogs or on the internet.'

"Mr. Speaker, this bill increases the cost of living for our residents, and the small businesses that rely on internet purchases. Hawaii consumers already pay inflated prices, while limiting consumer choice and therefore compromises the quality of life for our residents. Shipping costs, out-of-state taxes and extra packaging will be exacerbated costs next to the increases on internet taxes to consumers.

"The goal is simple; we must protect our residents from additional tax burdens. Their costs are already exponentially higher than retail, due to the shipping costs related to the geographic location of our home. Let us not compromise choice, quality of life, and heighten the cost of living for our residents through increased taxes AND shipping. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know I said I wasn't going to stand up, but I did introduce that Resolution for Mr. Tanabe, and it was for a different subject.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support, by the way. It was for a different subject. It was talking about shipping to Hawaii and Alaska, and the advertising from companies talking about shipping to Hawaii. When I did talk to him about the tax at that time, he told me he didn't have a problem with that, as long as it was equally applied. So I just wanted to set the record straight. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in opposition. I hope that when this measure goes to Conference that Members will look at the US Supreme Court's Quill decision which basically stated that states are prohibited from requiring sellers to collect sales tax in states where they lack a physical presence. So this bill may be unconstitutional, and there may be issues with that. That will need to be researched. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1648, S.B. 2457, I rise with reservations. My only reservations with this bill, and I do think that we need to address the procurement process, is with respect to the exemptions allowed to the Governor and the Mayor. I just think it's a little overly broad delegation of powers to the Chief Executive. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Johanson be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, at this time we are on page 23. We've got 4 more pages to go, which is fine. But at this time, we will be taking out of order, Stand. Com. Report No. 1658-12, S.B. No. 2789, SD2, HD2."

"Just in support of the motion, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair addressed Representative Pine, stating:

"Can you confine your remarks just to the motion to recommit."

Representative Pine continued in support of the motion, stating:

"I think in times when we, perhaps see legislation that may out-step our bounds, and may isolate a certain group, and separate them from others, I think it's imperative and important, and proper that we recommit a bill such as this."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you. Any further discussion before calling for the voice vote? The Chair would like to state for the record, for all of you in the legislative process, we have a process where measures like this are recommitted back to their respective Committees.

"But also understand that we have two Chambers; the House and the Senate. I truly hope that the House, we will recommit this particular measure, but the Senate, who made a Floor Amendment to this particular measure with a House Bill, will be giving us the opportunity, and the Administration the opportunity, of having a vehicle in Conference this coming Thursday. They will be making their decision.

"But they did a Floor Amendment this morning, and the Floor Amendment has a defective date. So I hope, and I truly wish, that they will send the House Bill back for further discussion."

Representative Ward rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. Was the Floor Amendment similar to the one that we saw earlier?"

Speaker Say: "No, it's just a defective date."

Representative Ward: "I see. So nothing as to what ..."

Speaker Say: "Nothing as to substance. To clarify it to all the Members of this Body."

Representative Ichiyama continued in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. This bill proposes to provide State support in the preservation of the Honouliuli Internment and prisoner of war camp site and establish an advisory group to leverage funding to develop an educational resource center at the site.

"On March 1, 1943, the Honouliuli camp opened to house several hundred Americans of Japanese ancestry. In an effort to demoralize any pro-Japanese sentiment, a vast majority of detainees were community leaders, including members of the Territorial Legislature, Senator Sanji Abe of the First Senate District in Hilo and Representative Thomas Sakakihara of the Hawaii First District. For two and a half years, these internees endured extremely difficult living conditions in a remote internment camp and none were ever charged with any crime.

"Today, all that is left of the Honouliuli Internment Camp are concrete slabs and a stone path, with no indication that this was the site of a grave injustice against local Japanese Americans. The development of this site as a historical center will help shed light on a dark time in the nation's history and commemorate the experiences of those who were confined in internment camps. It is my hope that this site will serve as a symbol of strength and solidarity, signifying our promise that we will never forget the Japanese American incarceration in Hawaii, and reaffirm our commitment to civil and human rights.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support for S.B. 2678. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure because the State is taking a step towards preserving the Honouliuli Internment Camp Site established during World War II.

"Mr. Speaker, the site is a part of our district and it serves as a constant reminder for the next generations of the injustices that war brings to not only our nation, but also to our communities. I have visited the site and have seen the efforts already started. This measure will allow those efforts to continue. This measure continues Hawaii's rich and unique history within our world."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2678, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HONOLIULI," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1656-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2782, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2782, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, reservations. Part 1 and Part 2 I believe were pretty good and not controversial. Then Part 3 got thrown in. This is the part that would have the Job Corps for several hundred people, which is a great idea. It's a worthy idea. We could use them up in the watersheds. The problem and my reservation revolves around the opposition by DLNR, because they're afraid that other parts of their Departments will be gutted. In other words, the professionals that they have on permanent staff will be displaced for temporary help of unskilled. So for that reason, I have some reservations. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations and the words of the Representative from the North Shore. And in addition, because of opposition on Part 3 from the University of Hawaii Research Corporation, the Land and Natural Resources Department, and several environmental groups whose funds will be affected. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2782, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1659-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2116, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2116, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Support with reservations. My reservations basically focus on the exemption from the Ethics Code of these people under the Charter Schools. I hope we can resolve this in the end. Thank you."

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Support with reservations for the similar reasons as the Representative from Pearl City."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just with a clarification for the purpose of those who are noting reservations. This is actually Senate Bill No. 2116 that deals with the implementation and transition for the Charter Schools. So it's not actually the bill that the Representative from Newtown was talking about. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2116, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHARTER SCHOOLS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Souki voting no.

At 4:21 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2745, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 2001, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 2335, HD 2
S.B. No. 2678, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2782, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2116, SD 2, HD 1

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1660-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2535, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2535, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morikawa rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill is another step to legislate a function of the Department of Education and the Board of Education. When Act 51 was enacted, the Department and Board of Education should have started its implementation. It seems like the Legislature is doing what the Board of Education should do, which is set policies. The Legislature's primary responsibility or power is that of budgeting, which can influence or mandate education programs. It is time for the new appointed Board of Education to do what they should ... make education in Hawaii better."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition with brief remarks, Mr. Speaker. I know that this bill on mandating certain bell schedules and other instructional issues is well intended.

"The reason why I'm against the particular bell schedule portion of this bill is, when Campbell High School's Principal, many years ago, who is my former High School teacher, Dr. Awakuni, got together with teachers and parents, as well as student leaders, with the commitment to bring excellence to the High School, they all realized that they needed to change their bell schedule to fit this quest for excellence. And so in their own creative way, they came up with their own unique bell schedule that actually increased instructional time in their own way. But it perhaps would not work for another school.

"By mandating specific schedules, it really takes away the creativity and the individuality of a particular school who wants to succeed. I know that this bill was intended for those schools that aren't succeeding. But should we handle that in a different way. Because in a sense, by targeting this bill towards those schools that aren't succeeding, we are actually going to hurt those many schools that are being creative and innovative in the process, and succeeding."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. I'd like to have the words from the previous speaker entered as my own, and just a brief comment. I'm just concerned, again, that this would reduce the flexibility of schools. And it removes community involvement in the process, which I think some of our constituents would consider that to be kind of a top-down micro-managing approach by the Legislature to do that.

"Mr. Speaker, in my county, there is one school in particular I believe, Hana School, that actually only has four days of instruction, and they have one day of developmental time. And it varies, depending upon as you go out throughout the county, there are various needs to having bell schedules a certain way. So for those reasons, that's the reason why I object to this measure. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm sorry, but I have to rise with reservations on this measure. I just don't feel that this would take into consideration students who sometimes are immigrant students who need some more time, or need that flexibility. But I also feel that this is just one of those measures that should be addressed by the Department, and not the Legislature. So for those reasons, I'll be voting with reservations."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in opposition to SB 2535, relating to instructional time in public schools. I understand the desire to standardize instructional time across the State, but I am concerned that the standardization proposed in this bill does not take into account certain intra-school and inter-school dynamics. This bill may limit schools' flexibility and adversely impact the progress and achievements they are making.

"We have many successful schools across the State that are meeting AYP and continue to have positive educational developments. The standardization proposed in this measure may adversely impact these high-performing schools. I do think it is a worthy intent to try and ensure that students all across Hawaii have the same amount of instructional time, but I do not believe this is the most ideal way to accomplish this end. For these reasons, I stand in opposition."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I oppose SB 2535 which is another bill asking the Legislature to handle an issue better addressed at the local level and which again hedges on the commitment we made to extend Hawaii's school instructional years. This bill abolishes the goal of providing 1080 hours of instructional time to students per school year. This opens the door to significantly lowering the number of instructional hours they receive, which is already quite low in comparison with the national average. It requires the Board of Education to develop multiple standard bell schedules for elementary, middle, and high schools, with the exception of charter schools and multi-track public schools, and amends the public education instructional time law.

"Simply standardizing bell schedules will not meet the bill's desired outcome of providing equal quality education to all of our public school students. Schools determine their bell schedules based on their unique needs, and the current process of determining bell schedules through dialogue between the schools' administrators, teachers, and parents is a process that local communities value. There is a myriad of reasons why standardized bell schedules would throw schools, especially those in rural areas, into chaos including, but by far not limited to: the great distances that teachers, students, and parents must travel to get to and from schools in rural areas, the fact that cafeterias and buses are sometimes shared between multiple schools, and the inability to adjust school schedules to allow for additional instructional time and extracurricular activities as needed.

"In my community we have a mixture of elementary and middle and high schools along the same transit corridor. It's folly to mandate the same bell schedule and risk different aged children leaving campuses at the same time – some in their vehicles while younger kids are walking home.

"Finally, I feel this legislation circumvents teachers' right to collectively bargain for fair working hours and especially fair pay for the hours that they put in. Standardizing bell schedules could mean that teachers work longer hours than they currently do, but this bill makes no mention of compensating them for their additional labor. These are issues that must be open to negotiation, and should therefore not be legislated."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, and the report of the Committee was not adopted, and S.B. No. 2535, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSTRUCTIONAL TIME," did not pass Third Reading by a vote of 19 ayes to 32 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Brower, Carroll, Chang, Ching, Choy, Cullen, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Johanson, Kawakami, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, M. Lee, Luke, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Morikawa, Nakashima, Pine, Riviere, Takai, Thielen, Tokioka, Ward, Wooley and Yamane voting no.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Madame Clerk, for Stand. Com. Report No. 1660-12, the Chair counts that there are at least 27 no votes at this point in time, so this measure is defeated on the Floor of the House. Am I correct?"

The Clerk responded:

"That is correct, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then addressed the Chamber, stating:

"Let's have some proper decorum, please. Why are you elated? This is just a vote, where the Committee sent this particular measure out in trying to address the budget deficit. This was going to save the State of Hawaii a lot of money in the Department of Education budget.

"This particular measure has been defeated."

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1661-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. This measure proposes to create the Executive Office on Early Learning. I don't have a problem with that. In fact, I support that because we need to address the issue of educating our young people. The concern that I have is really in section 3. And those of you unfamiliar with the bill, I'll just note that, that section proposes to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten, effective the 2014-2015 school year.

"Mr. Speaker, this is coming up because there was some misunderstanding, I believe on the part of the Department of Education. They had thought that we had eliminated Junior K last year. I had mentioned to them that I didn't think so. So I made a request to the Attorney General's Office, and in a response from the Attorney General dated December 14th, they clarified that in fact, Junior Kindergarten is alive and well in the Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"My concern is this. I do support elevating and requiring 5 year olds to start Kindergarten when they are 5. Those of you who have been here for quite awhile, know that I have been advocating this for most of my legislative career. I see no reason why our public schools should be no different from some of our best private schools in mandating that requirement. In fact, I think that part of our problem with competing not only on the State level, but also on the national level, is the fact that many of our children are one year younger than their counterparts in either in private schools or schools on the mainland. So we needed to make that change. We needed to mandate that children be 5 years old when they start Kindergarten.

"The problem was implementation of Kindergarten and Junior Kindergarten a few years ago. And as the Chair of Education has noted on the Floor quite a few times, there is one-third of the schools that follow the mandate. There is one-third of the schools that didn't follow the mandate.

And one-third of the schools that kind of did a hybrid where they basically put Kindergarteners and Junior Kindergarteners in the same room.

"My concern is that we needed to, or the Department of Education needed to, label the students appropriately. They're either Junior Kindergarteners, or Kindergarteners. Now this is not a big issue for many of you, but it is a big issue from my perspective, because just last year, we codified into law the Interstate Compact on Education for Military Children. And in that Compact it said that any child who starts a particular grade level, in a particular school, in a particular state, and then moves to another state, is allowed to transition at that grade level.

"With some of the schools, the one-third of the schools not following the requirements as set for by law, some of the kids were moving from Hawaii to other states, at a lower age. And that was a problem.

"The problem with this bill is that it entirely eliminates the Junior K program. Now some will argue that the bill also specifies that the Executive Office on Early Learning, by the 2014-15 school year have an implementation plan and projected financials in order to address the seamless transition of these Junior K kids. But I asked in Committee, what does that mean? What happens when they submit their implementation plan to the Governor, and the Governor submits it to the Legislature? What happens if the Legislature doesn't act? The answer was, these kids, these Junior Kindergarteners will have nowhere to go. And I don't believe that that's our intent. Our intent is to create a seamless transition for these kids who are not 5 years old, come the 2014-15 school year. And this bill doesn't do it.

"So I would hope, since there's a flawed effective date, that when it comes back, as a Conference Draft, that we will see the elimination of the Junior K drop, unless there's a requirement tied into the creation of something else that we can hold our hats on, and say once and for all that there will be something for these children. Otherwise, I can almost guarantee you that two years from now, or maybe even next year, we'll be coming in with another bill, extending this lapse date, or eliminating the lapse date because of concerns throughout our community.

"I don't know if you've heard it, but I've heard it from a number of parents already in our communities, wondering what was going to happen to their kids, because their kids were going to be hopefully going into the Junior Kindergarten program in 2014-2015. But now it's clear based on this bill if it passes, that they'll have nowhere to go. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I thank the Representative from Pearl City requesting we go back to this, because I really agree with him. I'd like to amplify a little bit on his remarks. I agree with everything that he has said. I have a real concern that we are eliminating Junior Kindergarten, and leaving a lot of children in the lurch. There's no substitute for Junior Kindergarten.

"So what would happen is that we are requiring Kindergarteners now to start when they are 5 1/2 years old, starting in the 2014 year. You must be born in the first 6 months of the year. And then if you are late-born, then you have to wait another year. Kindergarten is not mandatory in this State, and some people will keep their children out. Well, they will have to keep them out until they are old enough. But if they don't put them into a Pre-plus, or Head Start preschool, and there's no Junior Kindergarten. Some children will not be starting until they are fairly old, and it does not help their development. They will be behind as far as being ready for school. So I really question the wisdom of dropping Junior Kindergarten. It's good that we're starting the Pre-plus Program, and that we're allowing them to use school facilities.

"In asking the Governor's Office, will the Pre-plus people handle Junior Kindergarten or 5 year olds, the answer was, 'Well, it's sort of a condition that if they're using the school facility, that they will take in the 4 1/2 and 5 year olds. But in talking to the Good Alliance people, they said the Pre-plus Programs have no money to take care of this older group of children. So we'll have to come back next year and really work on this to make sure there is something, good education, available for our young children before they start Kindergarten. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in favor, but with a reservation. I understand the need for early childhood education. I ran a Head Start Program for 18 years. And I can see the great results you get from students as you watch as they grow. However, the State of Hawaii presently, in our budget, we don't have the money. And I think I heard the last speaker say, where's the money? And that's my same question. We still have programs that are running at about 50% capacity. We have the ag, which could use 50% more. We don't have enough inspectors. I could go on, and on, and on, and on.

"So, again Mr. Speaker, Finance Chairman and Members, where is the money? You cannot be taking away from special funds all the time. At some point in time you've got to make a major decision. If you're going to keep on adding, if you want to put this State into a quality situation, you run quality programs. So that's the only reservation that I have. I want to see where the money is going to come from. Hopefully, not from the highways. And hopefully not from the TAT. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just request to insert a letter that I wrote on November 18, 2011 to the Attorney General, and his response on December 14, into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

STATE OF HAWAII
STATE CAPITOL
HONOLULU, HAWAII 96813

November 18, 2011

The Honorable David Louie
Department of the Attorney General
425 Queen Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Attorney General Louie:

Senate Bill 2068 SD2 HD1 CD1, enacted as Act 183, Session Laws of Hawaii 2010 (Act 183), amended the age requirements for entrance into kindergarten at Hawaii's public schools. According to Act 183, beginning with the 2013-2014 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on the first day of instruction may attend a public school kindergarten. This appears to have caused a great deal of confusion in the early childhood community.

Some, including the Department of Education (DOE), believe that Act 183 relieves the DOE of its responsibilities for providing early childhood education through its Junior Kindergarten Program by completely eliminating the program itself with the start of the 2013-2014 school year. I respectfully disagree with that assessment and believe that the DOE must continue to provide for both junior kindergarten and kindergarten.

Although Act 183 amended the age requirements for entrance into the Kindergarten Program, it does not appear that this change absolves DOE of its responsibilities to provide the Junior Kindergarten Program as well, as evidenced with statutory language continuing to mandate this requirement. Specifically, section 302A-411(a), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), states:

"(a) The department shall establish and maintain junior kindergartens and kindergartens with a program of instruction as a part of the public school system;..."

Moreover, section 302A-411(b), HRS, states:

"(b) The department shall establish a two-tier junior kindergarten and kindergarten program to support the range of developmental abilities of children in junior kindergarten and kindergarten. Schools shall not move students between junior kindergarten and kindergarten, except in cases where the movement is warranted and based on appropriate assessments determined by..."

Furthermore, I would like to ask for some clarification on whether a child who turns five after August 1, 2011, and before January 1, 2012, or whether a child who turns five after August 1, 2012, and before January 1, 2013, can officially attend a public school in Hawaii as a kindergartener? Under a common sense interpretation of current state law, assuming that August 1, 2011, is the first day of instruction, a child who is at least five years of age on August 1, 2011, will be allowed to enroll in kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii while a child who turns five years of age on August 2, 2011, will not be allowed to attend kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii. However, a child who turns five years of age between, and including, August 2, 2011, and December 31, 2011, can officially attend junior kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii. Also based on current state law, if August 1, 2012, is the start of the 2012-2013 school year, and is also the first day of instruction, then a child who will be at least five years of age on August 1, 2012, will be allowed to attend kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii. A child who turns five years of age on August 2, 2012, however, will not be allowed to attend kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii. Again, it would appear that the child who turns five between, and including, August 2, 2012, and December 31, 2012, would be eligible to enroll in junior kindergarten.

Please contact me at 586-8455 if you have any questions. I look forward to hearing from you.

Some cite that word "may" contained in section 302A-411(c), HRS, as a reason that DOE no longer needs to provide junior kindergarten as an option for parents. Specifically, section 302A-411(c) states:

"(c) Beginning with the 2004-2005 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on or before December 31 of the school year may attend a public school kindergarten. Beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on or before August 1 of the school year may attend a public school kindergarten. Beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age after August 1 and before January 1 of the school year may attend a public school junior kindergarten. Beginning with the 2013-2014 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on the first day of instruction may attend a public school kindergarten."

However, it is my belief that, as used in this subsection, the word "may" is applicable to the parent of a child and is intended to provide the greatest flexibility to a parent in determining their child's early educational needs and whether or not they want their child enrolled in kindergarten or junior kindergarten. Dependent upon when a child attains the age of five, a parent "may" choose to enroll their child in either a kindergarten or a junior kindergarten at a public school in Hawaii.

I've been a long-time advocate of requiring children to be five years old prior to the start of their kindergarten year. I've also been a long-time advocate for junior kindergarten programs that provide for adequate educational services for children who turn five after the start of school and before January 1. The problem with the Junior Kindergarten Program is that only one-third of the schools in the state followed state law and adopted some variation of the Junior Kindergarten Program.

The purpose of this letter is to formally request an opinion from your office regarding this issue. Can you please provide an opinion on whether DOE can eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program with the start of the 2013-2014 school year? Your opinion on this issue alone is of great importance to approximately 5,000 Hawaii families with children who will turn five after the 2013-2014 school year starts and before January 1, 2014.

Additionally, I request your opinion, based on current state law, on whether a child who doesn't turn five by the start of the 2013-2014 school year can be allowed to attend kindergarten in 2013. This opinion is necessary if junior kindergarten is still a legal option in 2013. Your decision on this issue may affect member states of the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children since a four-year-old child being accepted into kindergarten in Hawaii will need to be recognized by mainland school districts if the family relocates to another state.

December 14, 2011

Hon. K. Mark Takai
State Rep., 34th House Dist.
State Capitol, Rm. 305
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Representative Takai:

This responds to your letter to the Attorney General dated November 18, 2011 requesting advice from the Department of the Attorney General (the "Department") as to the Hawaii Department of Education's ("DOE") obligation to provide both a Kindergarten Program and a Junior Kindergarten Program, and the age requirements for entry into the programs, as required under section 302A-411, Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS"), as amended by Senate Bill 2068 SD2 HD1 CD1, enacted as Act 183, Session Laws of Hawaii 2010 ("Act 183").

I. Questions Presented:

- (1) Whether the DOE can eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program beginning with the start of the 2013-2014 school year?
- (2) Assuming the DOE must continue providing the Junior Kindergarten Program after the start of the 2013-2014 school year, can a child who is not yet age five by the start of the 2013-2014 school year attend kindergarten?

attend Kindergarten?

II. Analysis and Advice:

We present you with the following advice based on our review and analysis of HRS Chapter 302A and Act 183.

Question 1

In answer to question 1, it is the Department's position that Act 183 does not permit the DOE to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program beginning with the start of the 2013-2014 school year.

Prior to the enactment of Act 183, HRS section 302A-411(c) read as follows:

Beginning with the 2004-2005 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on or before December 31 of the school year may attend a public school kindergarten. Beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on or before August 1 of the school year may attend a public school kindergarten. Beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age after August 1 and before January 1 of the school year may attend a public school junior kindergarten.

Thus, beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, children who were age five by August 1 have the option of attending public school kindergarten, whereas later born children who are going to turn five in the first-half of the school year have the option of attending public school junior kindergarten. Children turning five on or after January 1 of the school year have to wait until the following school year to begin kindergarten.

Act 183 amended HRS section 302A-411(c) by adding the following sentence at the end of the above-quoted paragraph regarding the age requirement for regular kindergarten starting with the 2013-2014 school year:

Beginning with the 2013-2014 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age on the first day of instruction may attend a public school kindergarten.

The amendment is silent as to junior kindergarten. The amendment also uses "the first day of instruction," as opposed to "August 1," as the cut-off date for eligibility.

At the outset, we do not read the statute as allowing a parent to choose between kindergarten and junior kindergarten. If the Legislature intended to give parents such a choice, the statute would have simply provided that any child who turns five prior to January 1 of the school year can choose to be placed in either program. Instead, the statute provides quite clearly that children who want to attend public school and who are five by August 1 (for school years 2006-2007 through 2012-2013), or by the first day of instruction (beginning with the 2013-2014 school year), are placed in kindergarten, whereas children who turn five after August 1, or after the first day of instruction as applicable, but before January 1 are placed into junior kindergarten. There is nothing in the statute that gives parents the right to choose which program to have their child placed in. Thus, a student that is five by August 1 (for school years 2006-2007 through 2012-2013), or by the first day of instruction (beginning with the 2013-2014 school year), cannot choose to be placed in junior kindergarten, and an eligible student who is still four years old on August 1, or on the first day of instruction as applicable, cannot choose to be placed in regular kindergarten. Such an interpretation makes sense since the obvious aim of the statute is to help the later born students, who may not be as developmentally ready as their earlier born peers, succeed in school. Accordingly, the parents of eligible but late born children, born after August 1 (for school years 2006-2007 through 2012-2013), or after the first day of instruction (beginning with the 2013-2014 school year), but before January 1, have the choice to either start their child in junior kindergarten, or wait until the following school year when the child will be five at the beginning of the school year and more ready for regular kindergarten.

We do, however, agree with you that the statute does not permit the DOE to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program beginning with the start of the 2013-2014 school year. While the statute, as amended, is silent as to junior kindergarten starting in 2013-2014 school year, there is clearly nothing in the statute authorizing the DOE to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program. To the contrary, and as you have pointed out, HRS sections 302A-411(a) and (b), which were unaffected by Act 183, expressly requires the DOE to provide both kindergarten and junior kindergarten.

Furthermore, HRS section 302A-411(c) continues to provide that:

Beginning with the 2006-2007 school year, a child who will be at least five years of age after August 1 and before January 1 of the school year may attend a public school junior kindergarten.

Act 183 did not affect this language and so it continues to be controlling with regard to junior kindergarten. Therefore, it is the Department's position that HRS section 302A-411, as amended by Act 183, does not permit the DOE to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten Program beginning with the start of the 2013-2014 school year.

As noted above, it is the Department's position that the DOE is required to continue providing the Junior Kindergarten Program after the start of the 2013-2014 school year. It is also the Department's position that if a parent wants to have their child attend public school in the 2013-2014 school year, and if the child is not age five by the first day of instruction, but will turn 5 by January 1, the child will be placed in junior kindergarten. There is no option for a four year old to choose to be placed in kindergarten. If the parent wishes to wait until the following school year when the child will be eligible for regular kindergarten, the parent has every right to do so.

The same analysis for answer to "Question 2" above applies here. A child who turns five after August 1, but before January 1, 2012, can attend a public school in Hawaii, but only as a junior kindergartener. Similarly, a child who turns five after August 1, 2012, but before January 1, 2013, can attend public school only as a junior kindergartener. Again, regular kindergarten is not an option for eligible students who are still age four at the beginning of the school year. These younger students must be placed in junior kindergarten because of the assumption that they may not be as developmentally ready for school as their older peers. However, if the assumption is proven wrong for a given student who does well in junior kindergarten, that student can be promoted to first grade like any other regular kindergartener. See HRS 302A-411(b).

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1663-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2804, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2804, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Jordan rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I have a ruling on a potential conflict of interest? I currently sit as an alternate on this particular Interagency Council for Homelessness," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to note my reservations, and a few comments, please. I am objecting to Section 7 of this particular measure, and hopefully as it moves into Conference, we will be able to discuss that issue in this measure, and support this measure from the Administration. Thank you, very much."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, in 2011, the homeless population in the State of Hawaii was approximately 7,000. I've got a rhetorical question for you Mr. Speaker. Have we been efficient in addressing homelessness in our State?"

Speaker Say: "Yes, we have."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Rhetorical question. A good political answer. I would beg to differ. Mr. Speaker, I've got another question. Will we end homelessness in Hawaii? And, before you answer, I can share the answer. I know you're pretty fast at the draw, Mr. Speaker. But, the prior State Coordinator on Homelessness had said this on numerous occasions, that we will end homelessness in the State of Hawaii. It would be politically incorrect to say 'No, we wouldn't.' And the answer is, no. No, we will not end homelessness in the State of Hawaii. In fact, we can come back 20 years from now, and we'll still have homelessness in the State of Hawaii.

"The correct answer is, will we substantially reduce homelessness? And will we be efficient and effective in addressing homelessness? That answer is, Yes. Yes, we can. We're not doing it right now. Why, Mr. Speaker? I give the non-profits, the advocates, State, fed and county agencies, an 'A' on effort. I give them a 'D' on their end game.

"There's no end game. Mr. Speaker, there are a buckshot of services. Everyone is trying to do the right thing, but they lack one thing. One word. I can sum it up. It's complex, but it's a simple answer. Coordination. We're not coordinated.

"Mr. Speaker, when we have the federal government, the State, county, the non-profits, the churches, faith-based organizations, and businesses, all come to the table and work as one, we will be very effective. And we will substantially reduce homelessness. Until we get to that point though, we're not doing a good job. That's why I support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2804, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII INTERAGENCY COUNCIL ON HOMELESSNESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1664-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2568, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2568, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. No. 1664, it's the Homeless Return to Home Program appropriation. And while it's been changed now to 'permits' rather than 'requires', as I said earlier, we don't want to be known as a place where crime pays. But then you have to start to wonder, 'Gee, does it pay to be homeless?' Because if there's no way to, and I don't see there's any foreseeable way, to double check that these people who we want to send back home, won't just get back on a plane and come back.

"This could become a great system for sabbatical. I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. Where one state is paying for them, maybe, to get over here. And then we are paying for them to go back. There's got to be a better way to have a process by which we don't have people take advantage of this. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Although there are a lot of doubts or even ridicule to this measure of returning homeless to the mainland, I feel that this is one tool that we need to explore and implement. There are over 7,000 homeless people in Hawaii. And some of us want to hang on to every homeless person here in Hawaii, because it offers federal funding, State funding, and all kinds of funding, that it now becomes one source of livelihood to certain people, whether it be mental health or outreach services.

"That is not right to the taxpayer, Mr. Speaker. There is beauty to this bill. Every un-housed, homeless person takes away over $35,000 a year. Mental health services cost about $2,897 a month. And that doesn't include if they ever get sick.

"This bill doesn't mandate anybody to go back to the mainland. It is only, for those who want to go back, that have been stranded to our islands. We are surrounded by water, Mr. Speaker. It's not like the mainland, where you can take a bus, a Greyhound, and go somewhere. It costs a lot of money to go there. But, it only costs about $400 to fly to the West Coast. However, it's costing our State over $6,000 a month, on a good day. Not to mention if they ever get incarcerated or hospitalized.

"There are checks and balances in here, and I trust the people that will implement this, that they will do the right thing. This is not going to be a sabbatical. You have to be homeless. If it costs you to be in a homeless shelter to have a sabbatical, I don't think so, Mr. Speaker. I think this appropriation would be for the best use for those people who really need to be re-united with their families. It's a good bill, Mr. Speaker, and we need to reduce the number of homeless population in this State. Thank you, very much."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, and a brief comment. The Chair of Human Services said, the one thing missing in homelessness, and why it will last forever and ever, is coordination. I would say, Mr. Speaker, there is one proven solution to homelessness, and that's the family. Family is the best homelessness cure. And this nudges up, gets close to, suggestively, if you re-unite families, you've got a chance at it.

"So with that reservation, I think it's worthy experimenting with, piloting, see if it works, because re-uniting with the family, and the reason why there's so many homeless is because they've broken off those relationships. Hardened relationships have cast them out, either if there is drug use or other arguments that have ensued. And we've got to do something to bring that family back together. This is a gesture in that direction. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a pretty simple bill. The concept is relatively easy to understand. We're returning homeless. Let me break it down in three simple steps. We are reducing homelessness in the State of Hawaii, Step 1.

"Step 2, we are protecting our finite resources for local homeless. Why has that become an issue? Because approximately 30% of our homeless population is from the mainland, or out of our country. Compact citizens – Marshall Islands, Pohnpei, Chuuk, the State of Micronesia.

"Third, we ensure that these individuals will go to a home. A support system, a strong support system, as was suggested by the Minority Leader. Three simple points.

"On July 2, 2010, we sent our first homeless person through this program back to Seattle, Washington. Gregory Reece. He came over here on a job offer that fell through, and his father who had lung cancer couldn't afford a ticket back home for this young man. We sent him back.

"Mr. Speaker, since July 2 of 2010, we have sent back 16, 16 individuals. And not one has returned to Hawaii. Not one has abused this program, this system. And the State has not paid one cent for this program. It's all volunteers.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to highlight a story of a homeless mother and daughter, homeless daughter. Because I think it displays the intent of this measure. You see, in May of 2010, a 32 year old female from Houston, Texas, found her way in Honolulu, Hawaii. It was a traumatic experience, and we didn't really question her. We thought she may have been trafficked. She suffers from an intellectual disability, Mr. Speaker.

"Because of the fine work from Honolulu Police Detective Erick Tanuvasa, he befriended this woman. And after talking to her, he looked her up on the missing persons registry. He was able to ascertain that she was from Houston, Texas, and he contacted Yughette's mother. Her mother, Cheryl Walter, who used all her disability pay to fly out to Hawaii to get her daughter back. In doing so, Mr. Speaker, Cheryl Walter became broke. She didn't have any money to pay even for her change of flight fee. They didn't have money to get Yughette, her daughter, back to Houston, Texas.

"I shared this with the Chair of Housing, and we put a public plea out. Hawaii News Now I believe, sent it out an hour after we put it to the press, and within 45 minutes we had two callers willing to donate for the entire flight home. It was a success story. Mr. Speaker, I don't think I would do justice to Cheryl Walter, or to her daughter Yughette, if I tried to display in words the heartfelt thanks of Cheryl Walter. And so if I may, I'm going to share with you a brief statement by the mom, Cheryl Walter, who stated:

I was willing to become homeless to be with my daughter. I have no regret using my entire disability pay to come to Hawaii to find my daughter. I couldn't eat while thinking my baby is without food or shelter. I think what I did would be what any mother would do for their baby.

Yughette is ready to come home after this most difficult ordeal. I have used up all my money finding my daughter and staying in Hawaii this past week. Therefore, words can never display my heartfelt thanks to the people of Hawaii for their kind generosity in purchasing the one way ticket for my daughter, and for covering my change of flight fee.

When I searched for my daughter, I met so many homeless children. I realized their families should come for them like I have for my daughter. I am so excited about going home with Yughette that I couldn't sleep last night.

"Mr. Speaker, this is how we effectively address homeless in our State. One person at a time. One family at a time. One community at a time."

Representative Tsuji rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Again, Mr. Speaker, 16 individuals have gone back and reunited with families. Not one has come back. And we've made sure that each family was willing to accept that homeless individual, to offer them a solid support system where they can go to school or get employment. That's why this works. For those reasons, I support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I think it's necessary for me to clarify. I am in support of this. I've supported the Representative from Ewa on this in years past. So again, I think that's wonderful, and I applaud the Chair of Human Services for his accomplishments. It's wonderful. And it's absolutely true. One person at a time. Each one is unique. Each one is an individual. Different types of reasons for being homeless. So it's just the slight reservations that, should this someday be abused, it would not be a good reflection."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2568, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOMELESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Keith-Agaran voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1665-12) recommending that S.B. No. 3025, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3025, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"The County of Kauai is a political subdivision of the State of Hawai'i and subject to State and federal fair housing laws; affordable housing required by zoning ordinances pursuant to HRS 205 (State Land Use Law) and Ordinance No. 860 (the Housing Policy for the County of Kaua'i) is to be for the general welfare of its citizens – all citizens; the proposed bill would allow that housing to be assigned to a specific racial subset on request; if this resulted in the majority of affordable housing being built on DHHL lands, this would expose the County to potential litigation under the federal fair housing laws. Open-ended/unlimited – credits can be requested for all existing (past) and future (planned) DHHL projects – no completion or construction is required prior to the date of the bill's repeal.

"This bill allows ALL affordable housing required by County law for development to be requested by DHHL, and the County would have to comply. This would also allow any developer to satisfy ALL of its required affordable housing on DHHL lands, not in proximity to the development or its impact – for example, a North Shore developer could end up providing all its affordable housing in Kekaha rather than in the Hanalei District (For its Lihue development, a developer built over 600 units for affordable sale in Lihue/Puhi – what if these had all been committed to Anahola instead?) The bill allows application of affordable housing credits to DHHL developments regardless of income qualification of lessee households.

"The bill if enacted would have the effect of undermining the Housing Policy Ordinances of all counties, in that it would separate the "nexus" (legally required connection) of the impact of the market development on the availability of affordable and workforce homes in the area. This bill would have the potential for significantly reducing the availability of affordable homes for households in the 80%-140% Kaua'i median income."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3025, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING CREDITS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1666-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2737, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2737, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2737, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC MEETINGS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1669-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2941, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2941, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with enthusiasm and support, and written comments, except for a couple of brief introductory notions. Mr. Speaker, there is a section in this bill that is all about our future. It's about aerospace. I've said many times on this Floor, NASA is in love with Hawaii. NASA is in love with the Big Island. There's no closer simulation of any planet, or Mars, or the Moon than we have on Mauna Kea. That is a gold mine in terms of the lunar research park that will be put there. The high-paying jobs, the complementary of University of Hawaii, good futures for not only our children, but for attracting people such as Google, for the aerospace industry, NASA, and for a lot of those and Lockheed, and other places.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a win-win. This is a job creator. This is really the future of diversifying our economy, and quite frankly, the private sector is now left with the ball that basically NASA has been taken out of the public sector, and has cancelled all of its future space exploration. The ball is in our court. Mr. Speaker, I appreciated being in your office, and meeting with the Lieutenant Governor from Alaska who basically said this. Hawaii is known throughout the nation, as well as the world for what it's doing in space exploration. A lot of our colleagues may not know that what we're doing, even though it's small, is exceptional in terms of all the other states.

"But Mr. Speaker, he said this. And it was very compelling. That we almost are compelled to stand up to the plate to do what we're doing, with the Big Island, for space, for the sake of the nation, and for the sake of the world. That was rather compelling, that the Lieutenant Governor said. So for those reasons, I'll submit the rest in writing. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in strong support of this measure.

"This bill, among other things, authorizes the establishment of aerospace high technology enterprise zones and aerospace high technology parks. The establishment of aerospace high technology enterprise zones including an aerospace pilot program will help boost the economy overall and especially in related sectors and industries.

"The zones allow 'qualified businesses' to receive tax credits and may be exempt from GET and use taxes. The benefits of the zones and parks should help attract aerospace and lunar transportation companies and other related industries. Many of these companies would be high technology and research and development based meaning attractive, high quality, and high paying jobs that could reward talented Hawaii residents.

"A park on the island of Hawaii would also benefit UH Hilo by offering educational and career opportunities to students and creating an influx of research dollars through its proximity to the school.

"The bill would help PISCES and in turn its proposed International Lunar Research Park. This park is intended to attract companies from the aerospace, technology, and energy industries along with capital investment. The lunar park will boost the number of high technology and high paying jobs. The use and expansion of the park will also benefit the service and support industries and possibly the tourism industry in Hawaii.

"The park has already received extensive national and international interest including space agencies, NASA, Google Lunar X-Prize foundation, and other groups and companies from the aerospace and technology industries. The zones and park will also place Hawaii in position to take advantage of the future of the aerospace industry.

"In the lunar park aerospace companies may take advantage of the unique landscape in Hawaii that allows them to test and develop automation, robotics, and other aerospace related equipment and technology. These new technological developments will help drive the industry.

"Space tourism is still in its infancy but is also a possibility in the future for Hawaii. There is also a resolution this year that encourages the state to propose to the FAA to be selected as a site for unmanned aircraft testing.

"I appreciate the opportunity to express my views and voice my support for this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker in strong support. You know, 4 years ago when I first came here, I didn't even believe in this aerospace to high technology, economic diversification. But my good Chair had educated me, and as the Minority Leader said, and as my good Chair led, this particular initiative is very, very important for Hawaii. And it has to do with location.

"Location, location, location. And we do have the best location for this particular project. We are in competition with other states. But because of our location, we are poised to take a leadership role in aerospace. And I'm really, really in support of this particular bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks and the remarks of Representative Choy be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 2941 – Relating to High Technology.

"I rise in support. This bill allows an aerospace high technology park in the agricultural district and designates pilot aerospace high tech enterprise zones in Hawaii County. When dealing with aerospace issues, location is paramount. Hawaii Island has areas much like the moon which will be helpful to the development of this niche industry which can do so much for Hawaii's future. I urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2941, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 4:57 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2804, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2568, HD 2
S.B. No. 3025, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2737, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 2941, SD 2, HD 2

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1671-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2030, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2030, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2030, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1672-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2235, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2235, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just note my reservations. I'd like to point to the testimony of the Chair of the Public Utilities Commission that has grave concerns regarding the inadvertent consequences of this measure on health and safety issues. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I think the Representative from Upcountry, Maui has made a lot of compelling arguments on measures that are similar to this, and I'm persuaded by them. The only thing that I am concerned by is any governmental process that has an automatic action irrespective of the number of days. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations of Senate Bill 2235 – Relating to Communications Technology.

"I rise with reservations. Although in principle this bill has a good purpose, my community of Mililani has concerns about any and all antennas introduced or modified and wants to have a voice in approval. Concerns voiced have been disruption view planes, noise such as humming, and unresolved health issues. Mainly, the community really wants to have a voice in placement and use of broadband structures. Perhaps more education on the value of such technology would result in better understanding of the need."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"If SB 2235 becomes law, it will require the State and counties to approve, approve with modification, or disapprove all broadband-related permits within sixty business days. Such mandated deadlines result in inappropriate approvals and inadequate projects reviews and for that reason I do not fully support the passage of SB 2235."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise with reservations to this measure. This bill requires the State and county to decide and act upon a broadband related permit within 60 days of the application submission. If not decided upon, the permit will receive automatic approval.

"While I am afraid of the aesthetic sore that these broadband works and utility poles may cause, that isn't the only problem I have with this bill.

"I feel the Sierra Club, Hawaii Chapter, said it quite well in testimony against HB 2325 HD1 [House bill almost identical to the Senate bill]. 'The 'automatic approval' of any project is simply poor policy. Permits should be granted on their merits, not by mistake or government inefficiency. No community should suffer because government failed to perform.' I wholeheartedly agree with this view of the process. Why should people, our community, suffer because the government failed to act? Why should our community be at the mercy of a time restriction when what is decided could have a sizeable impact? What happens when there is a time limit on the automatic approval process? What is the result if the State drags their feet, purposely or not? Poor choices, poor results, and adverse effects on our people and community.

"Why should government be, in a way, rewarded for inefficiency, failure to act, or for unscrupulous purposeful delays? Shouldn't we, as Representatives, err on the side of caution and protect those we serve? Shouldn't we be looking out for what they want and not creating shortcuts for the government?

"We should remember; there is a means to the process; it isn't just about the ends. I appreciate the opportunity to express my concerns and to voice my reservations to this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2235, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Fontaine, Riviere, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1673-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1676-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2434, SD 1, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2434, SD 1, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations. When this proposal came up to create the Hawaii Health Insurance Exchange, I supported it. And I guess at this time I would like to request a ruling on a potential conflict. I sell health insurance," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, very much. As you know, I sell health insurance. Some people have said that it's crazy that I supported the creation of this because it's really going to put people like me out of business. And the reason why they said that is because we're creating our own Health Insurance Exchange to address the 100,000 or so uninsured residents who can't afford health insurance currently. And I support that, and I continue to support it.

"Unfortunately, we've been receiving some emails to the effect that what we have created is actually pushing the discussion, deliberations and decisions of this Exchange towards the insurers. And I think they raise a great point. They mentioned that the interest of Hawaii's consumers are not being served when there are insurers on the Exchange Board and they are allowed to vote on decisions involving setting up the health insurance marketplace for these particular consumers. And again, these are consumers that right now, can't afford current health insurance.

"They are concerned, and I agree, about the inherent conflicts, financial conflicts of interest, and the lack of transparency and accountability to the public as it relates to how we created the Insurance Exchange Commission. So as we move forward, and I know this bill is ready for final passage if the Senate agrees, and it'll go straight up to the Governor. But if this does go into Conference and we have an opportunity to further review the makeup of this Insurance Exchange, I would hope that we would keep these concerns in mind as we move forward. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of S.B. 2434 SD1 HD3 – Relating to the Hawaii Health Insurance Exchange, which requires the Hawaii Health Connector to conduct an assessment before establishing a program to serve the individual and the small group markets. It establishes a navigator program and clarifies the conduct of board meetings. It also establishes staggered terms for board members and clarifies board compositions and the role of the Department of Human Services in determining Medicaid eligibility.

"Chapter 414D limits navigators to nonprofit entities and excludes trade, industry, and professional organizations that can conduct navigators. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on SB 2434 regarding the Hawaii Health Insurance Exchange. Regarding the Hawaii Health Connector program, I honor the intent of the measure to streamline the process of comparing and purchasing health insurance. However, I am concerned about the financial sustainability of the Hawaii Health Connector program, particularly because the grant that is being used to fund this endeavor expires in 2014 and there are no guarantees of renewal.

"I do recognize and honor the provisions in the measure designed to increase transparency for the Hawaii Health Connector Board's public meetings, notices and records. Organizations such as the AARP brought up their concerns with potential conflicts of interest pertaining to the makeup of the Health Hawaii Connector board, mainly the inclusion employees of health insurance providers on the board, which would be a direct conflict of interest as the board should be aimed at reducing consumer insurance rates while the employee would be looking at increasing costs and profits for his employer.

"These concerns were somewhat addressed in revisions made by the House, however, I still have concerns about the Board working to overcome significant hurdles with regards to transparency and accountability to the public, as they are funded by State revenue, but operate almost semi-autonomously and with limited transparency to the public. For these reasons, I stand in support with reservations on this measure."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2434, SD 1, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH INSURANCE EXCHANGE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Marumoto and Ward voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1678-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Although I stand behind the intentions of S.B. 2424, please allow me to express my reservations on several components of the bill. S.B. 2424 adds powers and duties to the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations regarding the registration and regulation of professional employer organizations. It authorizes various penalties for noncompliance, amends definitions and bond level requirements, and establishes the professional employer organization special fund.

"I support the overall direction of this bill, as it streamlines operations for simplified administration, by combining two separate chapters in the Hawaii Revised Statutes relating to professional employer organizations. As noted by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, it proposes single fees, rather than initial registration fees and biennial renewal fees. Divided fees open chaotic loopholes, whereby entities could avoid paying graduated renewal fees by changing their corporate name to pay a much lower new registration fee. Furthermore, concentrating oversight into a single organization increases accountability, to ensure a more orchestrated – and diligent – regulatory process.

"Nevertheless, let us proceed with caution. Proposed registration requirements could serve as effective barriers to new entrants in the market, so we should keep in mind DLIR's ameliorating amendments. Furthermore, if we are to empower a new fund, we must recall – as the Tax Foundation of Hawaii elucidates – that the creation of numerous special funds in the past has eroded the integrity of state finances: 'Moneys in special funds are neither subject to the general fund expenditure limitation nor to the close scrutiny that general funds are subject to in the budgeting process. Special funds that earmark general fund revenues cannot be justified as they restrict budget flexibility, create inefficiencies, and lessen accountability. Further, as evidenced by recent legislative sessions, special funds have been raided in the search for additional revenues.'

"In realizing S.B. 2424, we must guard our initial intention to streamline and simplify administrative processes. We must not, in seeking accountability, apply provisions that cripple processes extant. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1679-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2671, SD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2671, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2671, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no.

At 5:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2030, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 2235, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2958, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2434, SD 1, HD 3
S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2671, SD 1

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1683-12) recommending that S.B. No. 755, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 755, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against Senate Bill 755. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been portrayed by a Pritchett cartoon titled, Damn the Environmental Laws, Full Speed Ahead. And basically I think that what he has done with a single cartoon is capture exactly what this bill does.

"You take a look at the Committee Report, which is very well written. I have to give credit to the Vice Chair of Water Land, who I understand was the principal author of the Committee Report. And it goes on about how the purpose of the bill is to promote economic development by temporarily removing regulatory restrictions. Regulatory restrictions refer to environmental laws. To the expeditious construction of certain State and county projects. In other words, those pesky environmental laws get in the way of moving ahead with State and county projects, so let's temporarily, for about a 5 year period, set them aside.

"And then the Committee Report goes on and talks about how, don't worry about it, because there are federal laws, basically, that cover all of these different areas. And it goes through and lists them all. The National Environmental Policy Act, NEPA. Federal EIS, FAA permits, etc. Federal Clean Water Act, Clean Air Act, Federal Water Pollution. It goes on and it lists them. Federal National Historic Preservation Act, Federal Marine Mammal Protection Act, etc., etc. It goes on and lists in detail, all of the different federal laws that really are going to cover these projects that are then going to be exempt from State law.

"But actually, the federal laws don't cover everything that Chapter 343 does, which is our Environmental Impact Statement law. They don't cover everything that Chapter 343 does. And basically, they only cover projects with federal funds. Now, we don't always do things on a State and county level with federal funds. So when you're talking about State projects without federal funds, then we're exempting those from environmental protection. And yet the federal laws won't come in and cover those projects.

"In addition, your federal, and this I believe that our Big Island Representative will care very much about this, as will others in this Body. The federal laws are weak on cultural issues. Our State laws aren't. Because they're particular to Hawaii, and we realize the importance of cultural issues.

"There isn't duplication, Mr. Speaker. So when you talk about pesky environmental laws, the Committee Report seems to make it sound as if everything is in duplicate. Why do we have to have it in duplicate? Why can't we just eliminate the State portions?

"The Committee Report seems to appear to say, it's all duplication, so we don't really need it. Well I've explained to you, if it's a State project without federal funds, then we're not talking about federal law that will come into play.

"But you don't have to do things twice. There's certainly the way that the agencies have worked together to make sure that you don't have the duplication. There's another issue that is of great trouble. And that's when you turn to Part 5, to temporarily authorize a streamlined process for exempting State projects from Chapter 343. That issue, that bill, was never heard in the Senate, to my knowledge. And yet it is coming forth here in Part 5 of the bill."

Representative Johanson rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, it's a bill that says basically as Pritchett put it in his cartoon, Damn the Environmental Laws, Full Speed Ahead. And then it shows some legislators sitting in the boat that is titled, S.B. 755. The legislators are saying, 'We're exempt. Rules are for others,' as the boat goes moving ahead.

"It's an amazing bill, Mr. Speaker, that captures all of the exemptions in one vehicle. And then in a Standing Committee Report, and thank you for the correction. In the Standing Committee Report, it tries to justify in 9 pages, saying it's duplication. You don't need it. It's all taken care of. It's taken care of by other laws. Well, that's incorrect. And then the basic issue is, do we want to exempt State and county projects from the SMA, the Special Management Area, and from Chapter 343?

"And what is the justification for doing that? If it's just a valid thing to do, why are we only doing it for 5 years? Why don't we say instead, 'Okay, 30 years ago, and 37 years ago, those two laws were put into place.' If we're finding them to be inconvenient, why don't we just eliminate them? Why this 5 year hiatus? Why not just say, 'Humph. Too much trouble. Too much problem. Get rid of 343. Get rid of the SMA, Special Management Area, and let's let the projects just go ahead. We won't have a 5 year hiatus. We'll have forever.'

"And then as to the cultural analysis that we like to have go on in our State. That's an inconvenience. Just eliminate that requirement. And basically this is what the bill does. Damn the environmental laws. Full speed ahead. And I think that that should be the revised title of the bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, I feel compelled to read from a recent report, Construction - Neighbor Islands Continue to Slide, Oahu Improves.

Neighbor island construction continues to slide with no relief in sight. In December it was nearly 13% lower than the prior year with the greatest weakness on Maui. The UHERO economic team said it will present more detailed picture in their forthcoming 'Hawaii Construction Forecast.'

Public Construction Contracts Down 67%

Perhaps the darkest news from the building trades came from public sector where public contracts awarded for the first three quarters were off a staggering 67%.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, DBEDT reports of the first quarter in 2012, a report on county economic conditions, reported that unemployment went up in all counties except Maui. However, listen to this. Hawaii County lost 500 jobs, 400 of which were in construction. Maui County lost 850 jobs, 350 of which were in construction. Kauai County lost 450 jobs, 150 of which were in construction. As far as unemployment benefits that were being claimed for the State of Hawaii, the highest percentage, at 28.2% of all of those claims, came from construction. 3,867 construction workers, not able to put food on their tables for their families.

"Just recently, Mr. Speaker, at the end of last Session, you gave the Freshmen an assignment. You told us that we'd been gone. Go back home. Reestablish yourselves with your community. And go and talk to the people. And we have. I have been invited to some Christmas fellowship luncheons with the Building Industry Association, all under $25. And we met with some of the union officials. And we've heard them. When we asked them, what do you guys need? From the Carpentry Unions, they asked us to look for redundancies, inefficiencies. They asked us to look at being a more effective government. And they asked us to get them back to work.

"It is heartbreaking. Once you get to the ground level with these people, and you hear their plight. Mr. Speaker, I learned a lot. I learned a lot from going out into the community. From going to my daughter's classroom, and seeing that some of these kids that are children of these unemployed construction workers, not knowing if they are going to eat Saturday and Sunday. So they created backpack programs. Can you imagine that? They have organizations that fill backpacks full of food, because we don't know if these kids are going to eat over the weekend. When we furloughed teachers, people were complaining about the loss of educational time. But for a lot of these unemployed construction workers, they were worried that it's one more meal their kids are not going to get to have during the week.

"I feel very insulted that we are portrayed in that way. That we are portrayed as, damn the environmental laws. That we are portrayed as hating the environment. I love the environment. I'm the one who takes my kids to the beach. I'm the one who takes my kids up mauka. A lot of these construction workers are the ones down at the beaches, barbecuing, enjoying the environment that we all love. Would it be fair to be portrayed in a cartoon, the opponents of this bill, with their feet stomped on the unemployed construction workers? That's very unfair. I think it's very inaccurate, and that's where we stand on the bill. And to claim and be proud of that cartoon is something to me, that's just appalling, Mr. Speaker.

"But you know, recently, we got to hear from Director Bill Aila. Why should it take so long to resurface a drag strip on Mana? There are very few things to do on Kauai. One of the most beloved places on Kauai is that Mana Drag Strip. And he posed the question, why should it take so long? An existing drag strip with simple resurfacing.

"Mr. Speaker, we're not asking to just wipe out environmental law. I think we all appreciate the environmental laws that are set. But when people ask us to take a look at redundancies and inefficiencies, that's what we're doing. When people come to us crawling, and saying, please put us back to work. We're tasked with that. So unless you have a solution to get these guys back to work, it's a hard claim to make. And to say that we hate the environment because we are supporters of this bill is like me saying, you guys hate the ..."

Representative Morikawa rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami continued, stating:

"It's like my saying that you guys hate the construction workers that are unemployed. And I don't believe that. But those claims are very unfair, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and some comments. Mr. Speaker, in addition to the comments that we just heard from the previous speaker, I'd like to ask if I could have the words of the Representative from Kauai to be my own in the Journal. And furthermore, just to remind this Body that a lot of those people who lost those jobs, have also lost their homes. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I think it's really polarizing to categorize this as a jobs or environment bill. I just think the premise is misguided. Everybody wants to see people get back to work. Everybody wants to see people do well. The economy has not been cooperative. It has been a tough several years. So, likewise as some people are offended by certain comments and insinuations, I don't believe it's fair to say that anybody is supporting people staying out of work.

"There are problems that are fundamentally wrong with this State, as far as the economy, getting people back to work. There is timing. There's financing constraints. The money markets have dried up. Believe it or not, the financial crisis of several years ago is still reverberating in all aspects. So there's not much money for construction projects.

"As far as the thought of going back and talking to your community, I've got to tell you, I talk to my community all the time. Every two weeks I've got a newsletter, I've got an article in the North Shore news, and people are very, very behind the position that I present on this Floor. There is no question that the public, if the public were aware of this, and if this were coming up for a public vote, it would not pass. There is no question in my mind. There are other elements going on here. There are people that would like to vote no. They might not. And so everybody is going to vote their conscience. I'll grant that everybody will vote as they will.

"I think you cannot avoid a couple of simple facts. This bill does allow the Governor to wave his magic wand and exempt projects. It does exempt SMA permits and shoreline setbacks for certain State government projects. It does exempt all permits and requirements for submerged lands. We've talked about this again, and again throughout the last few months. These are bad policy decisions.

"There are processes for exemptions. And when we write into statute that the Governor may, and just for those people who say, 'Gosh, those guys never read the bill,' I take exception to that. We do read the bills. Here's one. The Governor may establish the list of exemptions without necessity of approval from the Environmental Council, or compliance with the procedures established by the Environmental Council. Or adoption of the rules under Chapter 91.

"The Governor, therefore, has greater awareness of what may or may not constitute environmental impacts. We have an agency for that. That is specifically what they do. They work with agencies. It's called the Office of Environmental Quality Control. They have exception lists. DLNR is often mentioned as an agency having a problem. DLNR has worked with the Office of Environmental Quality Control. They have agency lists. They have lists for fencing that they're going to put up in the watershed. Yes, the exemption list could take up to several months to get, but that list then is useful as guidance for each project as they go along.

"If you build a restroom facility in the middle of Downtown, it may not have much impact. But if you build it in the middle of a marsh, it may have a completely different impact. Somebody should take a look at that. The people that are so opposed to these rules, what I call the heinous omnibus. The people are opposed because we're allowing us to close our eyes. Close our eyes. Don't worry about it. It's going to be fine. The State would never do wrong. Which brings up the other question of, if the laws are so bad, why not just void them and go back?

"So we are at a watershed moment, folks. This is the year where everything turns. On one side, you have what used to be, environmental protection. On one side you've got some arguments to say, 'Let's repeal them.' Everything can use refinement. Streamlining can always be improved. There are processes that are in place, and I just think this is reckless to do this. So thank you all for listening, and please have a nice day."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak very strongly for this measure. To the Members here, this is a very important bill. You've got a lot of people on the bench. Airports need to be improved. DLNR needs to be improved. And at the same time we can protect the environment. There's over 70% of our working people are on the bench. Electricians, labor, carpenters. This bill is to provide a balance, to allow the airport to come up to standards that we can be proud of this airport, as an international airport, which needs much improvement right now. Right away.

"DLNR and the harbors need a lot of improvement. A lot of these structures are falling apart. So let's not talk about delay. Let's get to work right now, Mr. Speaker.

"And may I make another point. There's a certain Member here that has a function at 5:30 and he's going to be late for his function. Thank you, very much."

The Chair then stated:

"Well, I apologize, we're going to go all the way through, and with the exception of the elected official who has a function. He may leave, but he may not be able to cast his vote."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I understand what people are saying when they say, 'Oh we need jobs.' There's a saying the Chinese say. They say, 'When you drink water, remember the source.' It's the key. It's the key. Remember the source, that which gives us our wealth. Our wealth is dependent on our beauty. Everyone knows that. Everyone knows that.

"So what this bill does is it undoes the environmental laws. The health of our people, economy, future, dependant on our natural beauty. And whether it's the ocean, the green space, the historical site that draw the residents and tourists to our State, it is that overall magnificence that makes us unique. It's the source.

"So when you are passing a bill like this, you're allowing open season, open season on the treasures of the land. It becomes then open season on the health of our people. And it infringes on the vitality of all that makes us wealthy, and makes us healthy.

"These environmental laws are not put in place to stop development. They're just there to balance it. Balance. That is also a Chinese concept. Definitely, health by the Chinese philosophy of Chinese medicine is balance. They say you will get unhealthy if there is no balance."

The Chair addressed Representative Ching, stating:

"Representative Ching, I can appreciate your philosophical statements that you are making, but on this particular measure, can you address the different parts."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Well, I was just going to quote the Chapter of which this attacks. Because that Chapter talks about, it actually uses the word, balance. And in fact, it's in the same email from the cartoon that the Representative of Kailua said. It actually is a quote. And so that's why I used the term 'balance.' Chapter 343. Economy and environment. And it was those that drafted that Chapter that understood that we always have to keep this unique balance.

"So while I understand, we want our people to get back to work, we have to remember the source that gives us our health, our wealth.

"I wanted to also insert some of the comments, maybe I will not speak so long then, of the Sierra Club. They pointed it out well in your show, Mr. Speaker, that you and Mr. Aila, and Mr. Harris, and the Representative of Waialua were on. I highly encourage all of the House to watch, because I think it brought out the points. But that's what we have to look for. And if we're at a better reputation, perhaps, for business, this also impacts jobs. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill, as this bill creates exemptions from environmental laws of our natural resources.

"The health of our people, economy and future of this state is necessarily dependent on our natural beauty. Whether it is the ocean, green-open spaces, or the historical sites that draw residents and tourists to our humble state, it is the overall magnificence that makes Hawaii more unique among the rest. When you allow an 'open season' on treasures of the land it then becomes an 'open season' on the health of the people and infringes on the vitality of our tourism industry.

"These environmental laws were not put in place per se to stop development, but rather to balance it, and do it intelligently. A Chinese concept of balance teaches us that balance encourages good health and prosperity. The preamble of HRS 343 states that the support of the economy and environment should be balanced.

"May I add the words provided in testimony by the Office of Environmental Quality Control (OEQC) where it is said this bill, "... sets a bad precedent, provides a separate set of rules for the public and private projects, and is not in the best interest of the public or the environment." OEQC also states that there is a current, established procedure which already provides a straight forward, easy to implement exemption list process for actions/projects that are likely to have no or negligible environmental impacts.

"Mr. Speaker, I do not oppose all development; however, I am against thoughtless, brash disregard for the environmental laws that protect our land. We must put forth a concerted effort to remember in part why we love Hawaii – it is the aloha and the beauty.

"As an aside, if our Legislature is eager to get construction employees "off the bench", as a Representative of a historic district, I am curious as to how this Chamber has never passed tax credits for the revitalization of dilapidated areas. Why not encourage vibrant restoration of older structures? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. It's 5:30, we've been here a lot of hours. All day. But Mr. Speaker, I have to ask for your forgiveness because I did say I wasn't going to stand up, but I feel compelled to, for the second time.

"I think some of the things that were said earlier, some of the things that were brought up were the counties. I think if you read the bill now, the counties are not part of this bill. And I think what's important to take into consideration is, if the counties were that concerned, why didn't they come and testify? They did not come and testify. In fact, when you talked to them in the Capitol while they were here, they support it. Because they're piled up with work. And if they can't get their projects out in their respective counties, then those jobs are not going to get done, Mr. Speaker.

"So Mr. Speaker, I'd also like to ask a point of information. Can I insert comments from a Representative who hasn't spoken yet?"

Speaker Say: "No."

Representative Tokioka continued, stating:

"Okay. Well then, I'd like to insert the comments as if they were my own from the Representative from Wailuku, North Kauai, and from Hana. Thank you, very much," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, I just want to take this from a completely different tact, no pun intended. Because to me, that's not what this is about. It's about creating jobs. And that to me actually, really says that this is about, well, we've got to put people back to work. So that's why these rules are being looked at and why we're looking at using the federal rules. That's not what I look at it as.

"What I look at it is trying to find, as the previous Representative spoke about, balance. Because there is an option already for the Governor, Mr. Speaker. It's called the State of Emergency. It's been used before, for things. I found it interesting that the Representative from North Shore talked about a bathroom in a marshland. If you have a State of Emergency proclamation by the Governor, it suspends everything. 4E, 343. And according to the Committee Report, Chapter 343, Cultural Impact Statements will still be required. Under a State of Emergency, no they will not.

"We have a case with the Kahului Airport right now, where it has to be repaved. Now it's been discussed on the Floor before, well they've issued the SMA permits before for the Kahului Airport, so no harm. Well I just got an ex parte communication from the Department of Transportation saying that the feds have put us on notice. That if we don't get this project completed in time, they will not encumber the funds. The runway will not be repaired, and that airport will probably get shut down. That would probably invoke a State of Emergency Proclamation which will suspend everything, Mr. Speaker.

"What this seeks to do is to use the federal laws that are in place, to make sure this review takes place. But we can expedite these essential projects, which are for the critical health and safety, Mr. Speaker.

"I want to give you a real world example of, and I have to disagree with the previous statement that the federal laws are weak. This is real world, Mr. Speaker. We have an emergency maintenance dredging project for the Lahaina Harbor, because of sand that has blocked the channel, causing the waves to shoal. We've been put on notice, too, that if a boat cracks up on the channel that they will shut the harbor down. Well, the State wanted to come and do the emergency dredging. And under the current rules, an emergency dredging would be an EA. And because it's maintenance, the existing channel, it wouldn't be required any kind of review or mitigative actions. The feds came in, Fish and Wildlife, and everybody else, and said there will be mitigative actions. Several.

"The first thing they said is, 'You will not re-dump the sand back out in the middle of the ocean. You will take it to a qualified county landfill,' which the State did. The second thing that they said is, 'You will put in silt curtains and other mitigative devices to ensure the water quality is not impeded, and that boat traffic and access to cultural resources in the area will be protected,' Mr. Speaker.

"The contractor for this project has done projects all over the State of Hawaii, and this is what I've found kind of ironic. He said, 'I have never had to go through these kinds of mitigation efforts for a maintenance dredging.' They just did a job on another island recently, and they didn't do any of that, Mr. Speaker. But all of this was required under the federal laws.

"I personally think of a State of Emergency as the big hammer that everybody fears. I think we are headed to the total unbalance between one side, the State of Emergency, and the other side, which is nothing. And then when the airport gets shut down, when the harbor gets shut down, when the boat crashes, then what happens is the backlash, against the environment. Then you start seeing some really nasty stuff coming out.

"And I do share the thoughts of the Representative of Kauai, and I take great offense at this demonization of people who are trying to support this as a way to meet a compromise, a halfway to get these things done, but still make sure there's oversight and mitigation.

"I go surfing every weekend, Mr. Speaker. I'm in the water. I don't want to get sick. I don't want to catch fish that's going to make me go 'bleagh' all over the place. Come on. I get offended. And what? Unleash the bulldozers? You're going to unleash the bulldozers? That's the last thing I want. And especially, it hurts me to hear that we're going to destroy our historical treasures? That's the last thing that I would want, Mr. Speaker. It's imperative that we protect them. But if we don't find some ways to allow these emergency things to proceed, if we don't look at trying to find some middle ground here, and I'm glad that parties are still talking, then we are going to be pivoting between extreme, to extreme, to extreme. And that would be a very big tragedy.

"And I think, Mr. Speaker, we should all remember the bumper stickers we see on our car saying, 'This ain't the mainland.' Because that's what really just makes me sick to my stomach, this polarization. Accusations by special interest groups and others that are turning this into a microcosm of Washington DC. And I just hope that Members, I respect the comments that were raised here. I respect the concerns that were raised, and I share them too. There is much work to be done."

Representative Choy rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey continued, stating:

"And I will conclude. Thank you Vice Chair. And so that's why I stand to speak on this measure, Mr. Speaker. Because I believe that this is a way to try to alleviate the concerns. But to get these critical things done without replying to the heavy hammer of the State of Emergency Proclamations. And I would just hate to see a tragedy turn around and become the whip, the driver for the initiative to get the public behind really undoing the environmental laws and Cultural Impact Statements. That would be a tragedy. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do have some slight reservations that I'd like to express in written comments, but I do want to commend the Representative from Royal Kunia for the hard work that she put into this bill. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I write to express my reservations on House Draft 3 of S.B. 755.

"With regard to Part II of the bill (Sections 2 and 3 of SB 755 HD3), I have no doubt that the closure of Kahului Airport would be a disaster for Maui County, its economy and for the general public. Consequently, I am willing, with reservations, to support a temporary exemption for airport structures and improvements from the special management area permit and shoreline setback variance requirements when the structures and improvements are necessary to comply with FAA regulations.

"Part III (Sections 4, 5 and 6 of SB 755 HD3) temporarily authorizes the Department of Land and Natural Resources and Department of Transportation, with the approval of the Governor, to exempt certain projects from the special management area permit and shoreline setback variance requirements. I assume that under the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act, the Office of Planning may still have jurisdiction beyond the consultation mentioned in the bill – to insure that nearshore values will be considered, protected, and, when necessary, condition the project with the mitigation of impacts.

"My major concerns, as this bill moves to Conference, is Part IV (Sections 7 and 8 of SB755 HD3) which permanently exempts all work involving submerged lands used for State commercial harbor purposes from any permit and site plan review requirements for lands in the conservation district. This part does not sunset.

"Hawaii is an island state and has recognized the importance of our watershed and nearshore waters for maintaining both the aesthetic and recreational quality of life for our residents and visitors, and for the sustainability of all life in these islands. Hawaii has almost uniquely in our union imposed development restrictions on conservation district lands in order to conserve, protect, or preserve the important natural resources of the islands. As described in the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) website:

the Conservation District is divided into subzones, each with a limited number of permitted identified uses. Depending on the subzone and the project, you might need site plan approval from the DLNR, a departmental permit, or a board permit and an approved management plan. The Conservation District has five subzones: protective, limited, resource, general and special. Under Hawaii's law, the four subzones are arranged in a hierarchy of environmental sensitivity, ranging from the most environmentally sensitive (protective) to the least sensitive (general). Each subzone has a unique set of identified land uses. The subzones define a set of identified land uses which may be allowed by discretionary permit. These are outlined in Chapter 13-5 Subchapter 3 of the Hawai'i Administrative Rules. Chapter 13-5 Subchapter 4 of the Hawai'i Administrative Rules, lists the varying types of permits required for each land use. A project might require a site plan approval from the DLNR chair or their representative, a departmental permit approved by the chair, or a comprehensive review and permit from the DLNR board.

Unique circumstances might allow for a temporary variance or an emergency permit. Projects with the greatest impact might also require public hearings and/or an Environmental Assessment or Environmental Impact Statement.

"While Hawaii's commercial harbors were likely developed prior to the creation of Hawaii's unique State land use district "zoning", there remains value in a State review of expansion projects. Commercial harbors are identified as an allowed Public Use requiring a board permit in even the Protective Subzone. See HAR Section 13-5-22(b) (P-6 uses). I assume that Part IV does not apply to work requiring a permit for commercial harbors in the protective subzone.

"I believe Part IV applies to dredging submerged lands in the Restrictive Subzone since the administrative rules allow such a project beyond maintenance dredging of a harbor through a board permit. See HAR Section 13-5-24(c)(R-5 uses). While exempting maintenance dredging—which requires a site review presently—may have some merit, I am cautious about expansion of a harbor basin which may implicate Hawaii coastal and nearshore waters that would benefit from a thorough review through the conservation district use application process.

"Since I am concerned about the efficient and timely completion of work on the Kahului Airport runway, which may be supported through Part II, I will vote in favor of the present bill. The permanent exemption in Part IV raises graver concerns in my mind."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition."

Speaker Say: "Please proceed. I thought you were a businessman."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"I'm aghast. Well in fact, that's what I'm going to talk about. It's the structure of the argument that I want to change. But first I want to identify with the remarks of the Representative from Kauai.

"It was gut-wrenching to hear about what his constituents are telling him about being on the bench. Are my kids going to get food? Is my life really going to continue in any normal way or fashion? Mr. Speaker, I cry. And I have cringed when I get the statistic in front of me, that 57% of Hawaii's families can't send their kids to school with lunch without a subsidy from the federal government. 57% of the people of our State. Something is amiss with the economy, Mr. Speaker, and some of that is symbolic of what is in this bill.

"The sector that we're trying to get back on its feet is not the government sector. And this bill is all about the government doing it. Put us back to work, government. 70 to 80% of all the jobs come out of the private sector, Mr. Speaker. This bill is exempting the government with the promise that we're going to live happily ever after. Government can't create wealth. CIPs can prime, but they are not the long-range solution to the problem that we have with the low-incomes that we have in our jobs, the low-paying jobs that we've got. And if people don't have the jobs, of course we have to give them something temporarily. But this bill says, the Government, by exempting itself for these State projects, is going to be the elixir. And I think that's the wrong way. It's an economic problem, Mr. Speaker. Not an environmental problem. And I think we've got to look at the structure of that. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the bill. It seems that there has been kind of a lot of misinformation and misunderstanding regarding this draft, House Draft 3, that needs to be cleared up. For those of you who have DVR or I think it's still on Olelo's website, the Finance hearing on April 2nd was a great educational tool. So let's kind of go through some of the points or comments that have been made about the bill.

"Is SB 755 a blanket exemption? No. The House proposal narrowly, clearly states which projects are temporarily exempted and specifies the type of exemption. Furthermore, exempted projects will still be subject to numerous federal regulations, including but not limited to the Clean Water Act, the Clean Air Act, the Endangered Species Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, all requirements, rules and regulations of the EPA, the Federal National Historic Preservation Act, and the Federal Marine Protection Research and Sanctuaries Act. Furthermore, other State or local regulatory requirements include Chapter 6E, 46, 174C, 342B, 342D, 342E, 342F, and a Cultural Impact Assessment as per 343. So there are a lot of other requirements, and I know the Members across the aisle like to streamline government.

"Second, will SB 755 degrade our State's environment and natural resources at the expense of much economic growth? No, I don't think so. The purpose of the bill is to temporarily remove specific regulatory restrictions in order to expedite certain State projects. Exemptions of this practical nature will not only jump-start projects and foster job growth, but also reduce redundancies in State and federal regulations.

"And also to the point of what the Representative from East Honolulu said that, these are government jobs. Yes. But people have to remember, private sector invests in large part because of government infrastructure. Would you have hotels if you didn't have an airport? Would you have certain stores or warehouses if you didn't have highways, roads and bridges? Probably not. In fact ... Well anyway, I'll try and keep it short.

"And for those of you who fear SB 755 will trigger an environmental exemption free-for-all, let's clarify the misrepresentations that have been made.

"First, every single project that would move forward on this bill will still be subject to a multitude of other environmental laws. Even if the exemptions in this bill are allowed to go through, there are a number of safeguards for the environment should these projects move forward.

"Second, public participation remains, notwithstanding the exemptions. There has been a lot of false information pontificated. I like that word. About how these exemptions take away the public's right to participate in these planning projects. Yet, if you understand the numerous environmental laws that these projects will continue to be subject to, public participation and therefore transparency is still in place. For example, NEPA, or the federal EIS process, solicitation of public input or agency input is required, if an EA or EIS is required.

"Finally, in no way are we degrading or eroding our environment by passing this bill, due to many, many, many other environmental laws that will continue to be in place, which these projects will be subject to. We are simply streamlining the environmental redundancies that exist in our laws.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is not a matter of eroding environmental protections. Further scrutiny of the actual bill shows that this measure is able to preserve the status quo, the current level of environmental protections. This is a matter of eliminating repetitive and wasteful government review.

"Job creation is a desired side effect of streamlining our review process across all levels of government. By reducing bloated and redundant environmental review, we are stretching taxpayer dollars and spending them wisely, while preserving all levels of environmental review. These are the very same taxpayer dollars that are hard to come by, even during our recovery.

"This legislation is pro-environment because it consolidates the ranks of our infrastructure, our public welfare sectors, and our economic sectors to ensure the preservation of the public trust."

Representative Manahan rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong continued, stating:

"Thank you. Our constituents, via our State Constitution, have entrusted us to uphold the public trust of the environment, and we have faithfully preserved all of these environmental protections via SB 755.

"This is not a matter of repealing or weakening Chapter 343. This is an integration into existing mechanisms, both at a federal and State level of review. Anything else is a wanton mischaracterization. And that's why I support it.

"And if I could also add, Mr. Speaker. As I have stated in prior speeches, the streamlining is important not just to better use our tax dollars, not just to get more projects out and more construction workers back to work, but also for the simple fact that it clarifies, I think, what environmental approvals are for. I have seen many cases where people who don't want a project or a development nearby use the environmental permitting process in legal tiddlywinks to kill another project nearby. They know there's no environmental impact, but yet they use the process to kill the project. And it's ironic that we want to protect the environment, but we have no problem abusing the laws when it suits us. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. It has been a long debate on this, and this certainly won't be the last of it. But I did want to highlight just a couple things and put my vote on the record. It is a fallacy to believe that this is purely a jobs versus environment bill, and that the two are mutually exclusive and cannot exist together. That we cannot have adequate protections and a streamlined system of processing and so forth that ensures the continuation of the values that we hold in our State Constitution that protects the environment itself. And at the same time, get things out in a timely matter to make sure that people can get to work, particularly in a down economy, and keep that money rolling through the economy.

"There has been, if you look at the history of it, and I have been through about a list of 180 public works projects. I wish I had it compiled and done today so I could insert it into the Journal. But the biggest holdup in time has not been by and large, in the environmental review process and jumping through those hoops. Rather it has been within the departments itself. For example, in the Department of Transportation or other departments where you have approvals that need to be processed by the departments. These things are supposed to happen within short windows, often 60 to 90 days, a few months, and they've languished for years in many, many cases. And this has been compounded on top of the fact that, and to the credit of the various Administrations that have come and gone, a repetitive review.

"At the change of an Administration you'll have a whole list of projects that are in the works, in the pipe, going. And all of a sudden it will be held up. Even our Governor now has said, he's held up on stuff purposely to review it. And that's fine, but again, that's not the fault of the environmental review process, nor anything within there.

"We have a whole lot of suggestions that have been made both from the construction industry, from our different government departments and agencies that administer these processes, and our functioning as the purveyors of the process itself. And many of these have come up for review, time and time again, year after year, and we've seen them over and over, and yet so very few of them we have actually taken and adopted into law. And many of those are simple things that eliminate redundancy, that provide adequate funding and adequate staffing to make these processes both viable and able to follow through in a timely manner. That is where the holdup really is, in the large scheme of things.

"Now we're in a time where there's a whole lot of economic slowdown. Obviously there are tons of people who are out of work. But to assume that this is going to be the kick-start, and the one-size-fits-all, be-all-end-all solution to that, I think is very short-sighted. Because in the end, what you've found again is that the other side of the equation, if not being stuck in departments and other regulatory processes, things get held up in the courts again, as the Majority Leader had pointed out. And that's a result of often, on average about 1 or 2 times out of 50, due to something legitimate that was either ignored in the review process, or was an oversight or something legitimate that actually benefits the community to have it sorted out.

"And we cannot lose sight of that, because for every 5 or 10 projects that go, that have no real legitimate impact, that go through that process, there's going to be one every now and then that does. And that's going to be the one that, of course, ends up in the news and has all kinds of other things attached to it that create extra work, extra time for developers, costs the State money, costs them money, and that's something that we can't ignore.

"And so I want to be very careful when I say that, we do need to review the way that things move through the process. We need to review our departments and make sure that they're doing their job adequately, but we cannot assume that this is going to be the be-all end-all, and for that reason I don't think that we should be necessarily taking the process apart just yet. There's a lot more that we can do without going to the extremes and the lengths that we are today."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want an additional comment in creating the argument of what this is all about, and that's quoting the famous Hawaii Senator from East Honolulu, Senator Slom. He said, if this is all about the economy and jobs, why don't we just exempt all the private sector projects? This is only exempting the government projects. A lot of the building permits, a lot of the jobs, and a lot of the creation are in the private sector. Not the public sector. So why are we excluding them? If we really want to do a wild job creation blitz, the private sector has been excluded. I think it's a pertinent question. Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Ward, your statement is well taken. I believe at the Island Insights with Representative Riviere, the Members of this House and I do not have the courage to expand it to the private sector. If you were so sincere about having that as what the Senator from the other Chamber had stated, you could have proposed a Floor Amendment, and maybe the Majority Caucus would have supported you on that particular Floor Amendment. But at this point, there is no courage among the Members of this House, and that's why we are having a very lively discussion on just State projects."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. There has been a lot of discussion, Mr. Speaker, and I'd like to just clarify some of the factually incorrect information that has been espoused on the Floor today. First of all, this is not a 5-year exemption. This bill allows for a 3-year period exemption with the exception of Part 5. And it does make clear that the Legislature's intent for the Governor's list is only to exempt those projects on the list for 3 years. If in fact the construction has begun before the sunset in 2015, then yes, those projects can be extended just to be finished, completed. But this is not a 5-year exemption as was stated on the Floor.

"Another Representative noted or alleged that federal laws do not cover Chapter 343. Members, Chapter 343 is the State's environmental protection law. And it was enacted in 1974. Interestingly, in 1979, after doing a legislative history, the House Judiciary Committee made substantive amendments to Chapter 343. Specifically they noted, Senate Bill 1591, House Draft 1, makes substantive amendments to reduce the duplication of effort which occurs at the State, county and federal levels of government, when the environmental review requirements of both the National Environmental Policy Act and Chapter 343 apply to the same project. Under the provisions of this bill, State and county agencies are required to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with federal agencies in order to expedite the review process.

"So interestingly, the Legislature, when making this amendment, recognized in 343-5F, that there was going to be in fact duplication, redundancy in these processes. And as a result, specifically stated that these redundancies should be eliminated. And unfortunately through the evolution of Chapter 343, as the Majority Leader noted, there has been certain abuses of 343. And all we're trying to do in this measure is make it clear that, again, that exists currently on the books right now. And interestingly at the Finance hearing on April the 2nd, the Director of the Office of Environmental Quality Control in fact admitted, and I quote,

'There is no reason to do two reviews of NEPA and HEPA,' end quote. So again, he himself acknowledged that, to the extent there will be an overlay, there should not be two sets of review that are done.

"There was also an allegation made regarding, that once federal funding is not involved, no federal environmental laws will kick in. That is absolutely incorrect. Mr. Speaker, again, depending on what kind of project you are talking about, whether you're touching the water, whether you're dredging, the fact is, you're going to have Army Corp of Engineers permits that kick in. Whether it's 401 for dredging. Whether it's 404 for water. Those all will kick in, regardless of whether federal funds are going to be used.

"In addition, I would draw to the Members' attention, for State permits, although it's on the website for the Office of Planning, there is a State permit guide. And it basically is very clear, that all State or federally funded projects will be subject to any of the requirements applicable, even if SMA and SSV are exempt. Also if Chapter 343 is exempt, all projects will be subject to these permits. And I would ask my colleagues to go online and look at the State permit guide, because again, it ensures that there will be that overlay, as well as those safeguards to ensure that our environment is going to be protected.

"You know, Mr. Speaker, there has been so much discussion about balance today, and so it behooves me to talk about some of the balance that has been discussed. I think at the end of the day, everybody in this Body cares about the environment. It's just the way in which we interpret things, and I think that's where we're at issue here. And so I don't believe that anyone here, I think we take great umbrage, those who supported this bill, to say that we are somehow are eroding our environmental laws. And there was talk about balance from certain Members, about the environment. And that's exactly what we are doing. We are ensuring that those environmental safeguards are in place. But now there's a different type of balance that needs to be discussed.

"Mr. Speaker, every year we as Representatives, we love to go home to our districts, and we love to talk about CIP. We love to talk about, 'Well, I brought home this money for our district. And this is what I brought home. And this is how much money I got for this school.' And interestingly, if the Members ..."

Representative Coffman rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har continued, stating:

"Thank you. If the Members would note, there are so many projects that we have all gotten funding for. And people are always asking me, why does it take so long for government to get things done? Why does it take so long?

"I was looking at a list of projects that have been issued CIP. Kailua High School, natural science building, subject to Chapter 343. Baldwin High School, softball field, subject to Chapter 343. Campbell High School, eight-classroom building, Chapter 343. Number One Capitol District Building, courtyard revitalization and other improvements. It went through the whole process of an environmental assessment. And again, we keep saying that we want to brag about these CIPs, and we want to say that government is getting things done. And then when push comes to shove, why aren't things being done?

"The interesting thing here is, according to the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, as of June 20, 2011, the State of Hawaii had $1.4 billion in General Obligation Bonds authorized but unissued, and $6.2 billion in Revenue Bonds authorized but unissued. The total authorized but unissued was $7.6 billion. Additionally, Mr. Speaker, the Governor's supplemental budget proposes another $300 million in General Obligation Bonds, and at least $900 million in Revenue Bonds for highways, harbors and airports.

"So it's great that we're issuing all these bonds, but when is the work going to be done? And again, we can continue to talk about inefficient government, redundancies. And we can continue to talk about, oh, somehow we're degrading the environmental laws. But I think the fact here is that we have made sure that every environmental safeguard has been protected. And all we're actually trying to do is reiterate what the 1979 Legislature said in Chapter 343-5F, which was to eliminate those redundancies, and make sure that again, the agencies are cooperating with the feds.

"And so Mr. Speaker, at this point, I really, truly believe that we have effectively refuted all of the misrepresentations and false information espoused by the opponents of this bill, and therefore opposition to this bill leads only to one of four conclusions. A) Opponents have not read the bill or simply have not read the Committee Report. B) Opponents do not understand the numerous environmental laws that are safeguards out there to ensure that our environment is still protected, and they do not understand that they're still in place. C) Opponents support redundant, duplicative processes and therefore inefficient government, thereby supporting increased costs of government projects for all of our constituents. Or D) All of the above. Mr. Speaker, I'll let you decide. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and stated:

"I'm just rising for a point of information. I want to explain Campbell High School's classroom building. First of all, is going to be opening soon. The reason it had to go through Chapter 343 is because it is right next to a residential community and other environmental issues that would have been problematic should it not go through that process."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I would like to insert written comments. I know we have been talking about this issue for quite some time. But I want to just make clear to the Body here that the reason that we are fighting so ferociously over this issue is because we believe that the environmental laws will not apply in this circumstance. I think the previous speaker tried to categorize people, but the reality is, those laws have been on the books for almost 40 years. And the claim that somehow the federal laws are going to protect us when the State laws don't apply, doesn't make any sense.

"Many of our laws are actually, we've had federal delegation, so for example, the Clean Water Act laws are done through the State. Federal EPA is not going to come in on one project and take over. It simply doesn't make sense. These laws have been on the books for a very long time, and I think that streamlining and making the process combined is already happening. I think every agency but DOT already has a streamline process so that you're not doing duplicative work. You're just doing one plan. Thank you."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"As an advocate for increasing jobs, streamlining the permit process, and the protection of Hawaii's environmental and cultural resources, I cannot support a bill which threatens the very foundation of each one of these. If passed, this bill would apply to State construction projects at airports, harbors, schools, and other State-owned properties. Those projects currently require a Special Management Area permit because of their proximity to the ocean, but if SB 755 becomes law, SMA permits would no longer be required. This bill would also allow the Governor to choose State projects he feels would have little or no impact on the environment and would therefore be exempt from environmental assessments and impact studies.

"It is the Legislature's and Administration's priority to streamline construction projects by bypassing environmental assessments and impacts and thus forgoing the public's right to comment on the developments in their communities. SB 755 proposes economic recovery, but the consequences of inadequate planning, could have irreparable effects. For that reason, I rise in opposition of SB 755 because of concerns about the exemption of State projects at the cost of Hawaii's environmental review process. Good planning requires the integration of environmental, of cultural considerations into the plan."

Representative Riviere rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, still in opposition. I guess we're setting the record straight. And I guess this really comes down to a matter of perception. We can all see the same thing and describe it differently. So I'm glad we have this opportunity to air this out here, and I really hope nobody's carried any hard feelings. This is just a matter of principle that we fight for, and then we cast the votes.

"I still, I mentioned earlier today that sunsets never seem to come. So the 5-year sunset, the 3-year sunset, whatever. Okay, call me skeptical. I just think that temporary things often get extended and then made permanent.

"Regarding the comment about the two reviews, and there was an attribution to a certain testifier in Finance. I do remember that interview and I do remember the conversation that yes, the federal EIS is somewhat different than the State EIS. Yet they are an overlay and they are to be done, and can be done, and should be done as essentially the same work. Where the reports are different, there has to be additional work. So there's a little bit of difference.

"The cultural assessments are a little but more, as they say, robust, in the State version. So what I'm getting at is there's no reason to do two EISs. Where they overlap they can be done, and you make photocopies, that's not so hard. It's up to the agency to expedite and do the report. So when an EIS takes 5 years, whose fault is that? It's the agency who's not moving that along.

"GO Bonds. There's a lot of money waiting out there. I have mentioned in previous debate about something about SMA permits for the Kahului Airport. There's $34 million of projects waiting to be done, and they have been waiting to be done since the SMAs were cleared in 2009. So I'm giving examples of inefficiencies in the system. The environmental process could be sped up. The procurement could be sped up. The actual implementation, the planning. I would argue that the planners are far behind. Maybe they're overloaded. There's too much work going on for them. But there's a whole cornucopia of elements that come into a project. So making the scapegoat those crazy and duplicative environmental laws, I think is so misguided. And I guess we'll cast the vote and see what happens. Thank you."

At 6:03 o'clock p.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 6:04 o'clock p.m.

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 755, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 3.

"At the outset, I would like to incorporate the words of the Representative from Kapolei and the freshman Representative from Hanalei as if they were my own. From my perspective, the points they raised reflect the intent of your Committee on Finance in recommending the approval of this bill on Third Reading. Regarding the words of the Representative from Hanalei, his plain, but powerful statement of truth reveals his clear appreciation for his constituency and their needs and desires, and aspirations.

"I firmly agree with my colleagues across the aisle that we have a duty to protect and preserve our precious aina for future generations, but we have an equally important responsibility to promote the health, welfare, and economic prosperity of our citizenry. Where the difficulty presents itself is finding balance between these two very important obligations.

"As stated by the Representative from Hanalei, the Great Recession continues to threaten the livelihood of workers, their families, and entire communities. Hundreds of construction workers are still without jobs, despite the fact that just last year this Legislature approved $2,858,762,000 in all means of financing for capital improvement projects for fiscal biennium 2011-2013.

"The Budget Act of 2011 was intended to get people back to work. Conference Committee Report No. 143, Regular Session 2011, states:

"Your Committee on Conference also finds that the need to invest in local infrastructure to help stimulate direct and indirect job creation is highly critical at this time. Expedience in the creation and maintenance of local construction jobs, as well as jobs for architects, engineers, and other consultants associated with capital projects, will generate more disposable income, which will in turn circulate throughout our economy." [Emphasis added.]

"House Bill No. 200, Conference Draft 1, the bill which became the Budget Act of 2011, was approved by your House of Representatives UNANIMOUSLY. Let me state that again, it was approved UNANIMOUSLY.

"As a matter of policy, both the Majority and Minority were united in emphasizing the need to expedite the creation of construction jobs through the State's capital improvement program.

"Yet, it is evident that even with our best intentions, the labyrinth of regulatory bureaucracy has hindered job creation in our State. Hundreds of millions dollars in appropriations approved sit on the books while our Departments are stymied by numerous duplicative and in certain instances, totally unnecessary reviews. Why must an environmental assessment have to be performed if we all know at the outset that a project will need the more intensive environmental impact statement?

"My colleagues on the other side of the aisle have tried to depict the supporters of this bill as being anti-environment. This mischaracterization is pejorative, inflammatory, and totally unfair. As one who calls Wahiawa and North Shore, Oahu home, I have always done my best to protect our rich agricultural lands, and preserve our clean ocean waters and sacred ancient sites -- specifically, Lake Wilson, the Galbraith Lands, and Kukaniloko.

"As noted in the Committee Report to this bill, and in the words of the good Representative from Kapolei, there are more than adequate safeguards within federal, State, and county laws to ensure that our environment is protected even when the projects authorized under this bill for fast-tracking proceed.

"What this bill represents is BALANCE – respecting our fragile environment while promoting the economic sustainability of our people. Mr. Speaker, this is a reasonable bill. This is a responsible bill. And with the support of my fellow colleagues, this bill will get our citizens back to work without damaging the aina we so dearly love.

"I urge my colleagues to support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 755, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 32 ayes to 19 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Brower, Ching, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, Johanson, C. Lee, M. Lee, Luke, Marumoto, Nishimoto, Riviere, Saiki, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1684-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2742, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2742, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1685-12) recommending that S.B. No. 3010, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3010, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition, to Senate Bill 3010, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1, Relating to Transportation.

"The current draft of this bill attempts to exempt eleven Department of Transportation Projects—bridge projects—from historic preservation law and various environmental laws—a total of 20 different chapters or parts of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. We are told that the exemptions are necessary because the bridges are "Structurally Deficient".

"Time we are told, is of the essence! The implication is that these historic and environmental laws—such as chapter 343, Environmental Impact Statement law—get in the way. But during the House Committee on Finance, David Penn, Environmental Center, University of Hawaii challenged the need for this type of measure. It was indicated that HRS chapter, 343, Environmental Impact Statement law, was not the problem, and that when Chapter 343 is run properly, it can make a program run more efficiently.

"Sierra Club has testified: This bill is a terrible idea, and bad policy. They [Sierra Club] stated, "If government cannot follow basic regulations to protect health and safety, why should a private developer? Ultimately this creates a slippery slope to the significant detriment of our communities and Hawaii's fragile environment." And they are right. It is easy for any construction agency or any developer to claim that environmental laws get in the way. Part of being a savvy developer or an efficiently run agency means planning ahead to avoid conflicts with environmental laws.

"Further, Historic Hawaii Foundation believes that the bill exemptions are "unnecessary and could put significant historic properties at risk." Even further, HHF states that "Exemption from this [the historic preservation process] would mean that the historic and cultural significance of the bridges and their settings may not be fully considered during planning, design or construction."

"Are we willing to forego that heritage just because DOT has a problem in coordinating its resources and complying with the law? I hope the answer is no.

"I am aware of DOT's desire to see these projects proceed, but there must be a better way to facilitate the repairs of these bridges. If DOT needs to proceed, there is the possibility of exemptions under existing law. I appreciate the opportunity to express my concerns and to voice my opposition to this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. On this list there are three bridges that will affect my community. Two of them we have been working on for over 10 years now. Talk about community participation. Yes, as a resident of my community, I have participated on that dialogue. Three weeks ago we had the opportunity of getting the second to the last permit, and we would be able to start in September. And a body across the street decided to hold off decision making on that. Therefore delaying my project another 18 months.

"How important are those bridges? Well, to 3,000 people, if one of those collapse, it'd be very important because they couldn't go home. That's why this measure is so important. These are shovel-ready projects. And I think we should have everybody support these projects too. As my fellow Representative from Kauai had pointed out earlier, get our guys back to work. Get these projects moving. My project has $15 million in federal funds. I don't know where we're going to be in the next few years with that. So, in support. Thank you very much."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I want some written comments included in the Journal. Mainly this bill is about safety, and as I've said before, if I have to err, it will be on the side of safety. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 3010 – Relating to Transportation.

"I rise in support of this measure to expedite the rehabilitation and replacement of certain State-owned bridges with temporary exemptions. One such bridge is the Franklin D. Roosevelt Bridge over Kipapa Gulch on Kamehameha Highway. Built in 1933, this bridge has been the site of many fatal accidents and other injuries. The old bridge has a distinct curve with two narrow lanes and no distinct shoulder. Recently it has been declared to be at risk for supporting heavy weights, and signs placed limit the weight of certain vehicles. An exemption had to be made for buses.

"Since 1933, the population of Central Oahu has mushroomed and this bridge carries lots of traffic, providing the second access to Mililani Town. I urge the Members' support."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am also standing in support. A brief comment. Mr. Speaker, many of these bridges are major arteries throughout our communities. One of them that was added was the Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Kipapa Bridge. At times when the H-2 may be closed, that is the only artery from the North Shore to town. And so Mr. Speaker, as we move forward looking at these bridges, please know that these bridges connect communities, and connect families. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Riviere rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere's written remarks are as follows:

"I oppose blanket exemptions of environmental protections. This bill exempts virtually every State environmental regulation for certain bridges for a certain period of time. We do not have to look any farther back than 2011 to see the mistakes that were made in highway construction by exempting proper disclosure and public input. Last year, DOT rushed through a shoreline hardening project on Honoapiilani Highway near Ukumehame, based on a Governor's exemption. Sadly, the road was not relocated inland as had been planned, beach access is no longer possible because there is nowhere to park and the hardened shoreline has increased beach erosion nearby. It would have been wiser to take a little more time and build the project correctly."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in support of SB 3010, which will speed up the construction of eleven bridges that are currently in the design phase, thereby preventing potential hazards to the public that are posed by the presence of deficient bridges by reducing State and county requirements. This should help to mitigate delays like those affecting the Makaha bridge. Taxpayers should not have to endure these kinds of delays.

"The Department of Transportation intends to comply with all State requirements during the construction of these bridges; this bill will simply eliminate regulations that require time consuming environmental processes that can take up to fifteen years. If this bill passes, the DOT will be able to have construction underway within five years. This temporary measure is needed to ensure the safety and wellbeing of our community by eliminating some of the red tape that is preventing the Department of Transportation from advancing the quality of infrastructure available."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 3010, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 13 noes, with Representatives Ching, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, C. Lee, Luke, Marumoto, Riviere, Saiki, Takumi, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1686-12) recommending that S.B. No. 1276, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1276, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1689-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2394, SD 1, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2394, SD 1, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with brief comments. I just want to preface very quickly that I have every intention of supporting the section that has to do with lending practices for military members. I don't think anybody wants deceptive and unfair practices there, and we need to protect them as consumers. My main point of opposition is the second part of the bill which has to do with the buying up of distressed residential properties. I've supported many of our measures aimed at curbing this, but I just worry that this overall poses significant systemic risk to the State in buying up some of these distressed properties and ultimately to our constituents. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition with also brief comments. Mr. Speaker, as a Vietnam Veteran, I'm very proud to associate, support and really push for the first part which is basically giving counseling for military personnel regarding difficulties with their mortgage. How to budget and how to actually make abusive lending practices not part of their lifestyle, or at least defending them from it.

"However, the second section is, you know they say if it looks like a duck, walks like a duck, smells like a duck, sounds like a duck, it's probably a duck. And this is toxic mortgages. And so it brings up the old State Bank and buying toxic mortgages. Mr. Speaker, if we get into buying and selling of houses, we have no experience. We have no money to do this. This is high-risk. But you put it right next door to the military families, so you make it a sweet-sour kind of a combination and it leaves a bad feeling. So I'm going to love one section, hate the other, and because of that I'm going to have to go down on it, because it looks too much like a State Bank."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition with the words of the Representative from Moanalua, as well as the Minority Leader incorporated as my own. In support of the first section, but having concerns with the second section. So additional written comments too, please."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in opposition to this bill. Mr. Speaker, please allow me to preface by saying the original draft of this bill was most likely constructed with good intent, however; with the recent amendments to this bill, I can no longer support it. This bill establishes a special fund where the Legislature and private contributions are able to purchase loans (or parts thereof) of distressed residential properties – or those facing foreclosure. This measure encourages the use of public monies to benefit these distressed consumers and lenders."

"While I supported the original draft of this bill, my concerns are based on the following testimony provided by the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation, as they are the primary organization to fully implement this bill. They said, "Any property subject to legislative approval of sale or gift of land in accordance with section 171-64.7, HRS, is not eligible to participate in the program. This provision makes the program unworkable. Under the terms of the program, HHFDC would acquire the fee simple title to the property and re-sell it to the homeowner. However, except for lands "subject to resale restrictions set forth in section 201 H-47 and that were acquired by the Hawaii housing finance and development corporation either at a foreclosure sale of under a buyback as authorized in section 201 H-57", lands to which the HHFDC in its corporate capacity holds title is subject to section 171-64.7."

"Hawaii Bankers Association also expressed their reservations by saying that this bill doesn't make sense. "This distressed residential properties program is a wholesale bailout of lenders who made bad loans. It creates a State of Hawaii portfolio of toxic mortgages. The State will be basically becoming the mortgagor."

"The Hawaii Association of Realtors testified, "We are concerned about the impact this measure will have on Hawaii's bond rating. Specifically, the provision that the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC) issue ... revenue bonds, which is exempt from the debt ceiling and taxes, may impact Hawaii's bond rating and needs to be carefully considered."

"Mr. Speaker, while I support the idea of protecting our residents (both military and civilian) from bad lending practices, the second portion of this bill creates an additional burden to the taxpayers, and I believe the State of Hawaii cannot afford this bill. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I rise with very strong reservations, and again the same concerns. I love the first part, but the second part I totally disagree with. I was going to make a Floor speech, but I will instead, because of time, I will submit it as written comments." [Note: Representative Fontaine later changed his vote to a no vote.]

Representative Fontaine's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition on Senate Bill 2394 Senate Draft 1, House Draft 3, Relating to Consumer Protection."

"Prior to House Draft 2 and House Draft 3, the bill was a very positive bill. It was simply a mechanism to incorporate federal law into Hawaii, to help protect military service members and their families from abusive lending practices."

"However, the House Consumer Protection & Commerce, added another part to the Bill. While maintaining the positive aspect of the original bill, the HD2 and the subsequent HD3 added a new part to establish a distressed residential properties program."

"This program sees the creation of a new special fund within Hawaii Housing Finance & Development Corporation (HHFDC)."

"The fund may be used to purchase, in whole or in part, existing loans, of distressed residential properties."

"Bill states that sales of property under the Program do not require legislative approval."

"I am concerned that that the sources of funding appear limitless—not that there is unlimited money out there, but that the bill's proponents are willing to look just about anywhere for money to fund this program."

"The bill states that funds may consist of:

- Appropriations made by the legislature.
- Private contributions.
- Repayment of loans and interest.
- Other returns and money from other sources."

"Further, the bill authorizes HHFDC to issue up to $10 million in revenue bonds for this program."

"It also appropriates an unspecified amount of general funds and general obligation bonds."

"I am concerned about the fiscal implications for the State. We would be buying toxic mortgages with taxpayer money. This is simply unfair to taxpayers."

"Further, the Hawaii Association of Realtors stated: We are concerned about the impact this measure will have on Hawaii's bond rating."

"Further, the bill states if the mortgage lender declines to contract for purchase of the existing loan, then HHFDC may acquire the existing loan by condemnation. This appears to be an abuse of eminent domain powers, as there is a questionable "public use".

"I cannot in good conscience give my full support to this bill. It places too much at risk. In the name of compassion, it ironically puts our State and its residents in a financially disadvantageous position and grows the size of government."

"Ultimately, this is not compassionate. For these reasons, I vote no on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Similar comments, Mr. Speaker. The first part is wonderful. The other is not. In opposition."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In very strong support. Most of the mortgages entered into in the last 10 or 15 years are no longer held by the originating bank. Those mortgages have been sold and resold multiple times, often into securitized trusts. These transactions occurred with such great speed, carelessness, and in many cases outright fraud and illegality, the final order of the mortgage debt may be, if challenged, have trouble proving it. It has the legal authority to collect on the loan and foreclose on the property. In order to gain the most profit, the banks look at many factors, including the strength of their legal standing, the rate of the borrower default in this troubled economy, and the cost of foreclosure. Many of these banks have decided to cut their losses, and they sell their loans to hedge funds for 30 to 60 cents on the dollar."

"The mortgage purchase program and Senate Bill 2394, HD 3, would capitalize on this secondary market for the benefit of Hawaii's homeowners. And it is targeted to assist homeowners facing hardship, whose mortgages are held by banks who have trouble showing they have legal standing to foreclose. Eligible homeowners would have to be living in their homes as a primary residence, and have received a default notice from their bank, or denied a loan modification under a federally-sponsored program. A Hawaii State agency would evaluate homeowners applications which detail their financial condition and ability to pay a modified mortgage loan deemed reasonable by the State.

"If the homeowner cannot demonstrate the ability to pay the State, the homeowner's application will be denied. If accepted for further evaluation, the State would give the bank 30 days to provide documentation and an explanation showing it has legally acquired ownership of the loan. The bank's response would be publicly recorded. The information provided by the bank would enable the State agency to assess the value of that loan. In addition to discounts, it may negotiate based on the bank's paperwork. The State's offer would allow it to offer a modified loan through principal or interest reduction, payment restructuring, etc., to the homeowner.

"If the bank refuses to sell its loan to the State, it may assert eminent domain power to acquire the loan. Just compensation would reflect the quality of the bank's documentation, showing that it actually owns the loan. The homeowner would undergo housing counseling, and be guaranteed residence in the property as long as all the requirements of the new loan are satisfied. In exchange for the modified loan, the homeowner must agree to transfer title to the house over to the State, along with a limited power of attorney on matters with the bank regarding the loan.

"Once the obligation with the State is satisfied, the homeowner would regain title to the home, and the power of attorney would expire. The homeowner would be prohibited from selling the home for a period of time, and after the loan is satisfied, and upon resale must contribute a share of the appreciation back to the State agency to enable it to assist other homeowners in similar circumstances.

"If the homeowner defaulted on his or her new loan with the State, the State would not have to go through foreclosure proceedings because it already holds title to the property. Thereafter, it can land-bank, revitalize, rent out, or sell the property. This is especially favorable to the State when they are able to obtain the house for a fraction of the homeowner's prior mortgage loan balance.

"This program is designed to protect the health, welfare and safety of Hawaii's citizens by ensuring clear title to residential property, reducing the hardship on families and communities resulting from wrongful or avoidable foreclosures, safeguarding the courts and recording systems from illegal, improper or fraudulent filings, stabilizing the housing market, reducing blight and deteriorating property values, and preserving the existing stock of residential housing.

"Mr. Speaker, this is truly a win-win for Hawaii's homeowners and the State, and you can be assured that this Representative is clearly on the side of the homeowners, and not the offshore banks."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations on this measure. I'm in support on Part 1 of the bill. My reservation is not about purchasing distressed properties. But my reservation is the use of funding from the HHFDC. HHFDC has a very clear mission, Mr. Speaker. That is to build or renovate affordable housing. And it has very limited funds, Mr. Speaker. Affordable housing is something that our State needs. And this measure will bring down the allocation for HHFDC.

"Furthermore, in the use of this funding, it doesn't say if there is a price limit for the residence that will be purchased, or the income requirement. So at least, if you are going to use HHFDC money, let's put some income requirement and some ceiling on the house that it will purchase. Otherwise, we are taking funding from those people who critically need housing. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues here to think about the people that need affordable housing. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this particular measure. The program as outlined by the Chairman of Consumer Protection, it sounds like he has great compassion for families who hold distressed mortgages and who are in financial trouble. But I'm concerned about the financial viability of the State, and if these people are not able to make the payments on their modified mortgages, and then the State has to condemn their property and take it over as a landowner, I don't know how long that the State would allow their tenants, or the former owners to stay on the property. If they cannot qualify for a loan, or if they cannot repay a loan that they've made, at what point does the State sell the house from under them, or allow them to stay without paying?

"There are so many questions to this issue that I just think it is an unwise investment for the State of Hawaii, for the taxpayers to make. I prefer the federal program which will help bring down the principal of the loan, and will allow the banks to work out a modified agreement. In this way, the homeowner retains title to the home, and perhaps can work out a program. And then the State money, our money, is not at risk. So I ask the Conferees to please consider all aspects of this thorny problem. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to rise and change my vote to a no vote on this. I wasn't going to speak, but after hearing the Chair from CPC speak, I felt I was compelled to make a few comments.

"The concern I have is that the sources of funding appear limitless. Not that there is any unlimited money out there, but the bill's proponents are willing to look just about anywhere for money to fund this program. And a new special fund in HHFDC. The bill states that funds may consist of appropriations made by the Legislature, private contribution, repayment of loans and interest, other returns and money from other sources.

"Further, the bill authorizes HHFDC to issue up to $10 million in revenue bonds for this program. It also appropriates an unspecified amount of general funds and General Obligation Bonds. I'm concerned about the fiscal implications for the State. We would be buying toxic mortgages with taxpayer money. This is simply unfair to taxpayers. During the testimony from the Hawaii Association of Realtors, they stated that they were concerned about the impact that this measure will have on Hawaii's bond rating.

"Further, the bill states that if the mortgage lender declines to contract for the purchase of the existing loan, then HHFDC may acquire the existing loan by condemnation. This appears to be an abuse of eminent domain powers, and there is also questionable public use. I cannot in good conscience give my full support to this bill. It places too much at risk in the name of compassion, and it ironically puts our State and its residents in a financially disadvantaged position and grows the size of government. So I will change my vote to no. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. A couple of things. First, may the record reflect the words of the Chair of Consumer Protection as my own? I just want to make some clarifying points here. I think just yesterday the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation, HHFDC, announced a new Down Payment Assistance Mortgage Program for first-time homebuyers. This is a State program, Mr. Speaker. They've been around for about, I think 25 years or so. I think created during maybe the Waihee Administration. But HHFDC assists local folks in becoming homeowners.

"Through this new program they announced yesterday, they have $43 million in Hula Mae funds that are available to help folks put up a down payment and enter into a 30-year mortgage at a very low rate. Actually, they're competing against some of the larger offshore banks.

"Servicing these programs would be some of the local banks here, including American Savings Bank, Bank of Hawaii, Castle & Cooke Mortgage LLC, Central Pacific Bank, First Hawaiian Bank, and Honolulu

Home Loans, Incorporated. So the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation is certainly in the program of providing housing, affordable housing, for local Hawaii residents. In fact, according to their press release, the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corp currently has a production plan in place to facilitate delivery and preservation of more than 5000 workforce and affordable housing units over the next 5 years.

"Since 2006, the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corp, HHFDC, has delivered 3890 workforce, affordable housing units in Hawaii.

"Third thing I need to point out is that, as the Chair of the Consumer Protection Committee illiterated in his remarks, this program is a revolving fund. It's not a bank, Mr. Speaker. I'll give you an example of how it can be funded, either through General Obligation Bonds or Revenue Bonds. Or even if I were to get one half of one percent of the money that we now ship out of state to Bank of America, or Morgan Stanley, one half of one percent of the amount of money that goes out of state to the foreign national banks, that would be more than enough to capitalize this program and save several hundred homes at a discounted rate in a bulk purchase pool, based upon current values.

"I think maybe what he failed to mention, and I'll mention right now, is that there's this current 9th Circuit Court of Appeals decision that's binding upon the State of Hawaii, that imposes upon all foreclosure proceedings under Hawaii, a strict liability standard, under the Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act, HRS 480-2. That means they need to comply strictly with every step and condition of their contract. And failure to do such in the proceeding of foreclosure will nullify and void the foreclosure proceedings. That means for some of these banks that hold these notes right now with this questionable title because of the MURs or mix-up, they may have a hard time selling and getting true title on their properties.

"So I think some of these properties are over-valued. And it may be of interest to them to finally get some clarification for the investors and their holdings on these questionable titles.

"So I see this proposal right now before us, Mr. Speaker, as a win-win proposition that could serve both the needs of the local banks, the homeowners in trouble, as well as the rest of the industry here. And for these reasons I ask for the Members' support. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time in opposition. Clearly we need to increase our housing supply. We need to increase our housing ownership, Mr. Speaker. If you look at the numbers, 55% ownership in Hawaii, and 70% on the mainland. 45% of people Hawaii are renters. 55% own their house. Even the mainland is not high at 70%. As you know, when we went to Taiwan, we were told specifically, 90% of the Chinese in Taiwan own a house. So we obviously need to help housing. We need to help it. Now is this the method, is the question. Is this the way that we take it and run with it?

"And if we use eminent domain, Mr. Speaker, that scares me. Eminent domain is the ultimate claw of the government reaching into the private sector, grabbing something, supposedly for the public good. Can you imagine eminent domain going in and around all the communities of the State of Hawaii? That's going to scare the daylights out of the private sector. Government can come in and take the house.

"And lastly, for this cheap 30 cents on the dollar. We hear car lot sales. 'Come to our lot. You can get a car for $800.' Well there are maybe two of them, and the rest of them that are market. So this sense about buying houses for 30 cents on the dollar, 35 cents on the dollar. That is, I think a bit of a bait and switch, and I think we shouldn't get sucked into. This is taxpayers' money that we represent. This is a very risky proposition. This is the time when the feds and all the other agencies are moving to do this. I think we should take a breath. Stand back. Stay out of it. And let it resolve itself. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I just wanted to note just a few, slight reservations."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support with brief comments. Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be referring to an article in the New York Times which was posted today, April 10, regarding new stances on forgiving mortgages. Mr. Speaker, the acting Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency, Edward J. DeMarco, just stated that in some circumstances, it might make economic sense for the government-run companies to reduce borrowers' mortgages, taking a hit to modify the loan, but also making it less likely that homeowners will default. Mr. Speaker, this federal director also stated that economists have suggested that principal reductions, if granted judiciously to underwater homeowners, would help the economy.

"In a February whitepaper, the Federal Reserve supported principal reductions from the government-sponsored enterprises as one option for helping the housing market. Mr. Speaker, our federal representatives have noted the fact that it may, and should be looked at cautiously, moving forward regarding government-supported options.

"Mr. Speaker, in the New York Times, on February 15, 2012, it was reported in an audit of 400 recent foreclosures completed in the San Francisco County area showed that 84%, Mr. Speaker, 84% of the files contained what appeared to be clear violations of the law. Mr. Speaker, there has been an ongoing issue regarding mortgage foreclosure and settlement.

"This innovative program is designed to keep local people in their home, Mr. Speaker. There have been ongoing issues regarding how to fund the principal. We've looked at very creative ways to do that, trying to limit the liability of the State. However, Mr. Speaker, how do you put a price tag on a person's home? Mr. Speaker, how do you look into a family's face and say that you didn't try to keep them, their family, their children in the home that they hold so dear? Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members to continue this discussion as we try to work on these issues preventing these hardships to our families, to our communities. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to explain my reservations. Like most people, I strongly supported the original intent of the bill, and that was to help military families. A couple of concerns. My family is very involved in the construction industry, and so is my community. $10 million can go a very long way in repairing our vacant properties that the State does own that needs repair in our public housing. But this is only going to, and really in our market. $10 million is only going to help maybe 20 homes. But $10 million to repair existing vacant public housing units could help hundreds of them, if we do what they're trying to do right now, which include volunteers and public-private partnerships.

"So who are we really helping and how many people are we really helping? And that's my reservation. We're not really maximizing our thought process here. And we're not thinking smart. In this economy, we need to think how can we make this taxpayer dollar stretch as far as we can. And so that's really my reservation, is that I really don't think this is a solution. It's kind of scary. When you talk about taking over people's properties. I don't even know if that's a good thing for us to get involved in. Because who gets to determine when we possess your home, like how a bank does. We're going to start doing that?

"So I really hope that by the end of this Session that this bill will be restored to its original glory, where we can all agree that we believe that we should do everything we can to actually go after those institutions that are trying to hurt our military families."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. The first part is great. It's fine. The bill is fine. The second part got hooked on a great idea. Well, the road to hell is paved with good intentions. But there are a couple of important facts. Facts are immovable. You can't change them. We can't pass a law that would make the sun rise in the West so that the people in Lanikai can have sunsets. That's not going to happen. You can't pass a law to cause things that are not possible. The Attorney General, in the Finance Committee, testified that this bill calls on HHFDC to issue the full faith and credit of the State of Hawaii in condemning these mortgages. And he noted that they have no such authority to be putting the full faith and credit of the State of Hawaii out in this program. So that's question number one. Fact.

"Within a couple of days of the hearing, everybody on the Finance Committee got this letter. It says, in response to some questions from the hearing, number one, can the State use Section 101-71 of HRS to condemn mortgage loans from lenders who decline to have their contract bought out? Answer, no.

"Question two. Have any other states enacted similar measures? And is there any federal or state case law addressing this issue? No. Question number three.

"Now folks, we have a lot of great ideas. This is the marketplace of ideas, as has been said so many times. But you have got to be in reality. Last year we created a mortgage foreclosure mediation process. We applied two million bucks. We created a new agency. We got 26 mediators standing by. Zero people have entered this. You have to deal in reality, folks.

"So lastly, there was questioning at the hearing. What happens to the shortage? If the mortgage value, if the loan balance is $400,000, and we magically, with an authority that doesn't exist, seize that mortgage at $300,000, the question then is, what happens to the other $100,000? Well the lender is entitled by federal tax law to issue a 1099 statement to the recipient of this gift that then becomes taxable income. So the question, which was really well asked, was well who's going to pay the income tax on that forgiveness? On the project that we can't do because it's not legally and physically possible.

"So folks, this Part 2, as much as everybody's heart is there for the homeowners, is impossible. So please, restore it to helping the military folks who need the help. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2394, SD 1, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER PROTECTION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Fontaine, Johanson, Marumoto, Riviere, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1690-12) recommending that S.B. No. 2115, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2115, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, please. And it's the reservations I had on an earlier bill. I believe, perhaps the Representative from Pearl City is the same way. It's being exempted from the Code of Ethics. Thanks."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with reservations. I think people need to take a look at this bill. This bill basically codifies into law new language for Charter Schools. And I don't want to get into the details of all of this, but one of the concerns that I had, and I mentioned it earlier on a wrong bill, is the exemption from State law, mainly the exemption of the Charter Schools to Chapter 84, which is the Ethics Code.

"We've heard recently, numerous instances of Charter Schools going rogue. And some of their leaders and staff kind of stepping over the line, so to speak. And I think that having this language in here sends a very bad signal to people out there very much concerned about how our Charter Schools are doing. There's a lot of exemption language in here. Page 51, exemption from additional State laws including 103D, and Chapters 91 and 92. And I do know that there's some exemptions already provided to Charter Schools.

"But the biggest concern that I have in regards to this bill is, we first did Charter Schools maybe about 10 years ago. And the Representative from Kaneohe was the Chairman, and I was his Vice Chair. We looked at Charter Schools and reluctantly supported it with significant provisions in terms of caps. HRS Chapter 302B-4 continued to provide for caps, and there are no caps in this current bill in front of us.

"So I do know that this is a work in progress, I got assurances from the Vice Chair of Education that it still is. But I must note that there's a lot of people that have been working on this particular bill, and it just surprises me that in the last Committee, namely the Committee on Finance, those members that participated in this task force still have significant concerns as it relates to this current draft.

"So I don't know what we're going to do, Mr. Speaker, but I think that it needs a lot of work. I'm hoping that in the Conference Committee process, we'll be able to resolve that work. But I will reserve my final vote for Final Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. First I would like to thank both the Chair of Education and yourself, Mr. Speaker, for giving me the opportunity to work on this, and to help shepherd this through. The work on this bill began a long 7 months ago with the convening of a task force that involved lots and lots of stakeholders. What I want to point out is that the measures of accountability that are codified in this law, which is actually a re-codification of the Charter School law, is very robust. The critical piece is the reorganization of the current Charter School Panel into a Commission with statewide chartering jurisdiction authority and oversight of Public Charter Schools.

"An important part of this monitoring and oversight is going to be the annual reports by the authorizer for each of the Public Charter Schools which is not in the current bill. In addition to the annual reports, there is a 5 year renewal process of all charter contracts. And finally a third critical piece of the overall re-codification is the clarification of charter contracts and the spelling out of what is going to be the performance framework within each of the charter contracts.

"So Mr. Speaker, there's a lot of work that's been done. There is a lot more work to do. One regret I have, and I do want to take note of the Representative of Newtown's concerns, about the ethics exemptions, is that, unfortunately, during the task force hearings, the Ethics Commission as represented by the Executive Director, actually removed himself from participation in our task force. We would have loved his participation in this. The exemption language that was put in for the Ethics Code at pages 58 and 59. If you look at that, it mirrors in fact the way that the exemptions to the procurement law, which are currently in statute for Charter Schools. So this is a work in progress. There is a commitment that we're going to clean up exemption language for the ethics.

"And one last point I would say, Mr. Speaker, is that the intention of the amendment for the ethics exemptions was not to actually exempt them from any ethics requirements. The bill in fact does say that they should have ethics policies and procedures in place, but that they would just not be subject to the Chapter 84 ethics requirements. So Mr. Speaker, thank you again for the opportunity to be able to work on this, to be able to take this to Conference, because I think that this will be a bill that can be something that we can all be proud of at the end of the day. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just note my reservations in support. And I will be watching this bill as it goes through Conference. So based on the representations from the good Representative from Tantalus, I'll vote with reservations."

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Giugni rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, first of all I really do want to acknowledge the recommendations of the Charter School Governance Accountability and Authority Task Force. I know they did a lot of good work and there are a lot of good provisions in this bill. But I need to be clear on why I am rising in opposition.

"There is a poison pill in this bill. And it has been acknowledged by the Vice Chair of Education and many others including the speaker from Pearl City. But the fact of the matter is this. Let's read the language. Charter Schools and their employees, the Commission and its employees, and the authorizers and their employees, shall be exempt from Chapter 84, provided that they shall develop internal policies and procedures for gifts, confidential information, fair treatment, conflicts of interest, and contracts consistent with the goals for the State Ethics Code pursuant to Chapter 84.

"Mr. Speaker, as many of us recall last summer, there was a whole series of articles done in the Star Advertiser regarding abuses in our Charter School System, which led to a performance audit by our State Auditor. There were some really disturbing provisions in this audit. I'll quote some of the provisions by our State Auditor.

In our review of our charter schools financial information, we found the same cascading delegation of responsibilities. In many cases, charter schools are free to spend public funds with little or no oversight. As a result, we found school spending and employment practices that were unethical and illegal, ranging from the seemingly frivolous, excursions to a water park, an ice skating rink and a school financed prom, to the possibly fraudulent, administrators doubling and tripling each other's salaries. Unless the Charter School Review Panel and the Charter School Administrative Office takes central and active roles in a robust monitoring and reporting system, school spending will continue unrestrained, and a clear picture of the financial viability of an individual school and the charter school system itself will remain elusive.

"The report goes on to say:

According to the State Constitution, public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct. They are subject to the State Code of Ethics and should not use or attempt to use their official position to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, exemptions, advantages, contracts, or treatment for themselves or others. Public charter school employees and local school board members are also subject to the code's conflict of interest provision, which prohibits them from taking an official action if the action affects their financial interests. Also they cannot take action affecting an undertaking in which they, in a private capacity, represent a person or business.

"So one of the recommendations that was made by the State Auditor was to establish and implement stronger and more effective controls to reduce improper and abusive purchases and to ensure operational efficiency by incorporating the requirements of ethical public procurement and the State Ethics Code conflict of interest provisions in compliance with Chapter 84, HRS, to ensure the employees conduct and participate in public procurement in an ethical manner.

"Mr. Speaker, the provisions in this poison pill fly in the face of that direct recommendation from the State Auditor. Moreover Mr. Speaker, I direct the Members to the testimony of the Attorney General. The Attorney General states:

This bill exempts charter schools and their governing boards from Chapter 84, the State Ethics Code. These exemptions appear contrary to the mandate in Article XIV of the State Constitution, which requires the Legislature to adopt a code of ethics that applies to the employees of the State and members of State boards. Article XIV states, 'the people of Hawaii believe that public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct, and that these standards come from personal integrity in each individual in government.'

"Mr. Speaker, I also note the testimony of the League of Women Voters, who also express reservations regarding this particular exemption. I look at Common Cause's testimony that, again, mirrored the same concerns as the AG's Office and the League of Women Voters.

"Mr. Speaker, for those of us who are about good government, there is absolutely no reason to have this poison pill. It flies in the face of every testifier who is about good government, and it should not be in the bill. I do realize it's a work in progress, but this poison pill has forced me to vote in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. You know, Mr. Speaker, the previous speaker is implying and inferring that somehow the poison pill was put in there intentionally, deliberately, and just the very phrase, 'poison pill' insinuates that there's something sinister and conspiracy minded about this section of the bill. I can assure you, Mr. Speaker, that is not the case. As was said, time and time again, the intent when we go to Conference is to take that section out.

"But why did this arise? Why did this issue arise to begin with? It arose because, you have Charter Schools out there, Mr. Speaker, that either have strong partnerships with non-profits, or for-profits, and as a result should their boards be subjected to the State Ethics Code? The intent is to say, that is an indirect relationship, and those boards should not be subjected to the ethics code.

"Now I realize we can only vote on the bill that's before us. So naturally when you see it on its face, it does seem, and hence as a result we have these groups opposing it. But all we can do is assure you that when we go to Conference, this will be taken care of. And if that poison pill is in there on Final Reading, I am certainly not going to be one to urge everybody to take that pill, Mr. Speaker. Because it won't be in there. You have my assurances of that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2115, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHARTER SCHOOLS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Carroll, Chang, Cullen, Har, Ito, Kawakami, McKelvey, Souki, Tokioka and Yamane voting no.

At 6:52 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 755, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 2742, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 3010, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 1276, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 2394, SD 1, HD 3
S.B. No. 2115, SD 2, HD 2

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 1142, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative Chong moved that S.B. No. 1142, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Food safety and good agricultural practices have become increasingly important to both the agriculture industry and consumers. With the demand for local products on the rise, we should not neglect to provide safeguards and guidelines to ensure the best quality of such items.

"Another Bill, HB 1947, was introduced with language to address these issues. However, the measure was not heard by the last Senate referral committee and thus is no longer viable this year. Therefore SB 1142 became the vehicle.

"Part I of this Bill establishes an agricultural practices audit and certification revolving fund; defines "good agricultural practices" and "producer"; and authorizes the Department of Agriculture to establish a voluntary program to audit and certify that producers are following good agricultural practices. Testimony received in support of the measure came from numerous industry stakeholders and I urge my colleagues to allow the dialog to continue."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1142, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Ching, Hanohano, C. Lee, Riviere and Ward voting no, and with Representative Chang being excused.

S.B. No. 2868, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Chong moved that S.B. No. 2868, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to voice my strong objections to S.B. 2868. S.B. 2868 imposes fees to obtain a tax clearance or a certified copy of a tax clearance. Specifically, this bill proposes a fee of $20 for each tax clearance application, and an additional $5 for each certified copy of a tax clearance. The proposed legislation argues these fees necessary based on the volume of tax clearances processed by the Department of Taxation, between 20,000 and 30,000 applications per year.

"As the Tax Foundation of Hawaii brings to light, this logic is flawed: "A tax clearance is merely a validation on the Department of Taxation that the taxpayer is compliant." Taxpayers are already required to abide by the laws of the state, and pay what is due. Amounts included in taxes should therefore include such routine government services as tax clearance processing. Were we to impose fees for each public service utilized by a large fraction of the population, based simply on the logic that the service yields a high volume of output, we could reach no end in the number of additional taxes proposed. Government, by definition, operates on behalf of a population as a whole. Therefore, in fact, a large number of beneficiaries for a given service should be an argument for – not against – bundling that service into government tax coverage.

"Testimony also notes that taxpayers may obtain tax clearances from the Department of Accounting and General Services' Hawaii Compliance Express program, which charges annual registration fees of only $12. This alternative renders the fees imposed by S.B. 2868 redundant, and tax clearance selection methods arbitrary. Furthermore, comparing the fees suggested by S.B. 2868 with those imposed by other state departments reveals the $20 application fee and $5 copy fee excessive: Department of Health, for instance, only charges $10 for the first copy of a birth, death or marriage certificate, and $4 for each copy thereafter.

"What most concerns me about this legislation, however, is the aggressive damage it could reap upon our community's most valuable organizations. The Hawaii Alliance of Nonprofit Organizations (HANO) reminds us that many nonprofits have multiple contracts for doing business with the state, and need to provide tax clearances frequently throughout the year. The aggregate sums of these fees could push many of these organizations toward closure, as nonprofits do not often have ample disposable unrestricted income to pay such fees on top of today's escalating fuel and energy business costs. As HANO states, "Many nonprofits partner with state government to provide critical services that provide enhanced health and safety and improve our quality of life in communities across the state ... It is important to note that these services are often provided by nonprofit organizations because state government is unable to deliver these services as quickly or cost-effectively as its nonprofit partners." Hawaii cannot afford to dismiss its nonprofits, for these organizations fill in essential holes for services we would otherwise struggle without.

"Finally, discussions of this bill have raised the question of whether electronic requests would qualify for exemptions from these application and copy fees. As testimony points out, however, the bill's current language does not address electronic exemptions. Thus, the argument that S.B. 2868 provides incentive for paperless processing is currently moot.

"Please consider my serious concerns and objections, as we seek to reformulate this potentially destructive legislation. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2868, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAX CLEARANCE FEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Ching, Fontaine, Johanson, Marumoto, Pine, Riviere, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Chang being excused.

S.B. No. 2967, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative Chong moved that S.B. No. 2967, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Kawakami rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of SB 2967. This bill would create a separate bargaining unit in HGEA for Ocean and Water Safety Officers. These Ocean and Water Safety Officers risk their lives daily to protect our most valuable resource, our keiki, our kupuna, our kamaaina, and our malihini. They protect our tourist industry and they are stewards of our island resources. These brave men and women put their lives on the line daily. The stories of their heroic rescues often reach the headlines but what we don't hear are the countless lives they save through preventative measures.

"Mr. Speaker this measure gives our bravehearts of the sea the recognition that they deserve. It allows them to be seen as they should be. A unique group of men and women who's call of duty requires the attention and resources that they deserve."

Representative Riviere rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere's written remarks are as follows:

"I support creation of Bargaining Unit 14 for the Ocean Safety and Water Safety Officers. These professionals have long served our State and saved thousands of lives through skillful training and attention. It is appropriate to remove them from the same bargaining units as office staff because their skill sets and job requirements are so dramatically different. While this will be the smallest bargaining unit in the State, this profession is unique in deserving of an appropriate bargaining unit."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2967, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Chang being excused.

At 6:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1142, SD 2, HD 1

S.B. No. 2868, SD 1, HD 1

S.B. No. 2967, SD 2, HD 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, thank you for the excellent lunch, and for the excellent debate that we've had today. And Mr. Speaker, your question of, why did we have excessive celebration, deserves an answer. Because 99.999% of the times that we vote on this Floor, everything passes. That was a 1 percent that we actually voted down. The 8 votes made a difference. We did the right thing. We voted for the teachers. We let the bell schedule stay in place and let them determine at that level. So Mr. Speaker, have a good recess. And thank you to all the Majority. Aloha."

Representative M. Lee, for the Committee on Finance requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of decision making on the following measures tomorrow, Wednesday, April 11, at 11:15 o'clock a.m. in Conference Room 308, and the Chair "so ordered."

ORDER OF THE DAY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

At 12:12 o'clock p.m., Representative Ward requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:13 'clock p.m.

Representative Awana, for the Committee on International Affairs presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1691-12) recommending that H.R. No. 133, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1692-12) recommending that H.C.R. No. 173, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 133; and H.C.R. No. 173, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. These Resolutions recognizes the cultural, educational, political and economic relations between the people of Hawaii and Istanbul, Turkey. Hawaii is located in the center of the Pacific. We have referred to our island state as being the go-between, between the East and the West. There is a strong similarity between Hawaii and Turkey in this respect. Turkey is located between Europe, Asia and Africa. With their strategic location, they have become the 8th largest economy in Europe and the 7th largest economy in the world. Perhaps our State may be able to learn from Istanbul, Turkey in this area.

"From my experience, the people embrace the same type of welcoming spirit known to us as aloha. Over many centuries, Turkey has experienced many people from all parts of the world. By building these positive relations with countries such as Istanbul, Turkey, Hawaii will help to seed the aloha spirit and bridge the friendships that will last for generations to come. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 133, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE CULTURAL, EDUCATIONAL, POLITICAL, AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PEOPLE OF HAWAII AND ISTANBUL, TURKEY," was adopted, with Representatives Chang and Oshiro being excused; and

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, these measures urge the Congress of the United States to enact the Visa Improvements to stimulate international tourism to the United States of America Act. The VISA Improvements to simulate International Tourism to the United States of America Act, H.R. 3341, 2011 is a bipartisan measure introduced by Congresswoman Maize Hirono.

"Currently, the visa process is extremely cumbersome, time consuming and inconvenient. Should this measure pass, there is an estimated increase of 280,000 visitors from foreign countries which would boost economic growth in the State. As stated in these Resolutions, it is estimated that the average visitor from China would stay in the State for six days and spend $350 a day, yielding an estimated $573,000,000 for Hawaii's economy. Mr. Speaker, with the passage of these Resolutions, this legislative body would be supporting economic growth at a time when most needed, as well as looking beyond the Party borders and do what is best for the people of our State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ORDER OF THE DAY

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, please note that H.R. No. 87 and H.C.R. No. 115 have been re-referred solely to the Committee on Public Safety and Military Affairs per Committee Referral Sheet No. 63.

"Additionally, H.C.R. No. 118, HD 1 has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Economic Revitalization and Business, also per Committee Referral Sheet No. 63.

"The Committee on Judiciary, and the Committee on Legislative Management have waived their referrals to these respective measures, and it is therefore appropriate for the House to consider action for adoption. For adoption."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of information. House Resolution 118 is on which page?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"It's on page 2. Instead of it being referred to the respective Committees, it's being re-referred back to the original Committee for adoption."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative Chong moved to suspend the rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on a certain House Resolution and House Concurrent Resolutions, seconded by Representative Evans.

The Chair addressed Representative Fontaine, stating:

"Representative Fontaine, what is the motion before this Body? The first motion that was stated? Correct, to suspend the Rules. And this Members, will be a three-step process."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on a certain House Resolution and House Concurrent Resolutions. (Representative Kawakami was excused.)

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative Chong moved to reconsider action previously taken pursuant to the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report Nos. 1431-12 and 1432-12, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary; and Standing Committee Report No. 1456-12, recommending referral to the Committee on Legislative Management, seconded by Representative Evans.

The Chair then addressed Representative Morikawa, stating:

"Representative Morikawa, what is the motion before this Body now?"

Representative Morikawa responded, stating:

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair responded, stating:

"The motion before the Body now is to reconsider action taken. Instead of the three measures before us, the first two which are companions, are being reconsidered. Instead of being referred to the Judiciary Committee, we are reconsidering our action and it will be for adoption today.

"The final one, instead of going to Legislative Management, it will be reconsidered, and be up for adoption today."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House reconsidered its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report Nos. 1431-12 and 1432-12, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary; and Standing Committee Report No. 1456-12, recommending referral to the Committee on Legislative Management. (Representative Kawakami was excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.R. No. 87; and H.C.R. No. 115:

Representative Chong moved that H.R. No. 87; and H.C.R. No. 115, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

The Chair then addressed Representative Aquino, stating:

"Representative Aquino, would you like to explain to the Members of the House, the adoption of these two Resolutions. The House Resolution and House Concurrent Resolution, the intent of the Resolutions."

Representative Aquino responded, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to defer to the author of these the two Resolutions."

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., Representative Aquino requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:16 o'clock p.m.

Representative Aquino rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just some short remarks, in support. Mr. Speaker what these Resolutions do is to urge our Congress to amend the authorization of the use of military force in our national defense, for the fiscal year, 2012, to prevent the armed forces of the United States, from investigating, arresting, detaining, any person within the US. It's a matter of civil liberties, Mr. Speaker. But I'd like to defer to the author of the bill to further explain these measures."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. And I believe that the Chair of Public Safety did explain it pretty much. Basically, what these Resolutions do is to request Congress to repeal the mandatory military detention and indefinite detention provisions of the Authorization Act that was passed last December.

"The reason why we are asking Congress to do this, is because the language as currently written could give the federal government the power to indefinitely detain US citizens, US residents without the benefits of due process, the protection of law, that's enshrined in our US Constitution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House. I wish to speak in opposition to these measures. I don't believe that we're in a situation now where we're out of the hot water with the Taliban and Al Qaeda. We're still at war with them. And until this war is over, however long it takes, I think we need to continue with the system that we have.

"And I don't know what they mean by to amend the authorization for the use of force. There are times that you need to use force. As a veteran, I can understand that. And I don't believe that these measures are in the best interest of the country. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise with some concerns on HR 87 and HCR 115 regarding provisions of the National Defense Authorization Act and the indefinite detention of U.S. citizens. I wholeheartedly honor the intent of these Resolutions and also share concerns about the United States indefinitely detaining its own citizens without charging those citizens with a specific crime. I also recognize that experts at the federal level are currently debating the particular provisions of federal law that these Resolutions refers to in an effort to further clarify federal rules as part of the U.S. anti-terrorism and safety policies.

"I have concerns about this particular part of the Resolutions and its nexus with our national security policy. I also do not wish for the abridgement of U.S. citizens' civil liberties and rights, which I believe is the crux of these Resolutions. However, these Resolutions may benefit if we wait until the debate on the provisions within the National Defense Authorization Act is settled and federal policies clearly defined."

Representative Riviere rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Riviere's written remarks are as follows:

"I am concerned that these Resolutions send the wrong message to those who would harm American citizens. I very much support our constitutional rights as Americans, but I cannot support extending these same rights and privileges to those who enter our country to kill or harm Americans, or to those non-battlefield combatants in foreign lands who actively seek to harm our country or our citizens."

Representative Pine rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine asked to insert Representative Johanson's written remarks on this measure as her own. (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to comment upon my support – albeit with reservations – for H.R. 87 and H.C.R. 115. These Resolutions urge the United States Congress to repeal sections 1021 and 1022 of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal Year 2012, signed into law by President Obama on December 31, 2011. These dubious sections may be interpreted to possibly repeal the Posse Comitatus Act, and thus authorize indefinite military detention within the United States, without charge or trial, of legal permanent residents and others residing in the country. Furthermore, H.R. 87 and H.C.R. 115 suggest the United States Congress also amend provisions in the NDAA for Fiscal Year 2012 to: prevent armed forces from investigating, arresting, detaining or trying any person within the US; and prevent the detainment, without charge or trial, of any civilian captured off any battlefield. H.R. 87 and H.C.R. 115 do recognize Congress's authority to authorize military force under its declaration of war, and the President's authority to deploy the US military to repeal a sudden attack on the US, its territories, possessions, or military.

"Consistent with repeated testimony, I agree that government should not be authorized to detain private individuals upon mere suspicion, without fair trial. The American Civil Liberties Union of Hawaii stresses the NDAA to be a "historic threat," for the first time in American history "codifying indefinite military detention without charge or trial into law." A Kaneohe resident further argues that, even if President Obama does not exercise the various provisions restricting individual freedoms, the NDAA opens doors for any future president to do so, perhaps with arbitrary discretion deeming one person "suspicious" and another not. Indeed, we must strive to protect rights guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment, the Sixth Amendment, and Article III of the US Constitution, for which (as H.C.R. 115 reminds us) "generations have fought and died."

"Nevertheless, let me express my hesitations that legislation such as H.R. 87 and H.C.R. 115 may eventually drive us in directions unwarily radical, where we find ourselves gambling with the safety and security of our nation. If national foreign powers, or individual terrorists, perceive the United States to have dropped its vigilance against all potential threats, they may be more likely to exploit a seemingly weak defense. By no means do we want to infringe upon the liberties and comforts of innocent individuals on a routine basis; yet, we must remain alert to potential threats developing around us. Almost as important as monitoring situations themselves, we must present a public façade which emphasizes that vigilance. I am confident in our ability to balance protection for the individual's freedom, along with his or her right to safety, security and thus prosperity. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. And a few comments please. Mr. Speaker, the Public Safety & Military Affairs Committee heard these Resolutions, and adopted and passed these measures out of the Committee because the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012, in that first section, we want to ask Congress to amend it to prevent the Armed Forces of the United States from investigating, arresting, detaining or trying any person within the United States.

"In World War II, Mr. Speaker, I believe some of us of Japanese descent had ancestors who were in internment camps. This, Mr. Speaker, in this National Defense Authorization Act, it would give the military powers to put any of us, if they see fit, if we were against the United States military. We already have the Patriot Act, and we're giving them more power. This is a Resolution so we can actually have them look for clarification. And being that Honouliuli Internment Camp is near my district, and seeing the historic sites that I saw there, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would just ask for a ruling of a potential conflict. I'm still an active duty member of the Armed Forces, so I don't think I can vote on this matter. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. With all due respect. You know, I spent a lot of time studying in the Ethnic Studies Department under Franklin Odo, Dr. Franklin Odo, who went on to Harvard, and who started the first ever Ethnic Studies Department in the United States here at the University of Hawaii. I actually have a degree in that. Very much about the contributions of the 442nd, about the horrible time of the internment. And actually, we have a lot to be proud of. The 442nd showed that being loyal Americans, and I think that there are many who are enjoying their legacy today.

"The Japanese internment was in the '40s. It was a horrible thing. We want to make sure we remember it. We want to make sure that people aren't detained that way. That being said, during 9/11, we found out that there were a lot of terrorists. We've been hearing from the military, from anyone who is involved in cyber crime, the fact that terrorism has changed. The world has changed.

"The world has changed a lot. And these people are, it's very insidious. It's very hard to detect terrorists. It's not like World War II time. It's not the 1940s. If anyone's ever in the DC area, I urge you to go visit the spy museum. It'll enlighten you a lot. Started by the KGB and a CIA person. To really understand the scope to which our people, our military forces, our people in the CIA and everyday at any given time, people are not aware of what came very close to attacks.

"So, once again, the middle road. We very much don't want to repeat what happened to our many people's ancestors. And we applaud the fact that we have hopefully learned from that. But times have changed. And need to understand and I hope people know that we need to give our military every chance to catch these terrorists. And if it means that they're in our nation and they are, in our United States of America, I don't want to be on that plane, or my loved ones, when it goes down."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. To me it's indefinite in a war. I mean, you have to look at what kind of war we're talking about here. The war against the Japanese was much more of an existential threat to the United States than terrorism would be, just because as a country of 100 million people. It was a real threat to the security of United States. Whereas terrorism is more like, it's not a war in the normal sense of the war. It's more like the War on Drugs, or the War on Poverty. There is no enemy nation.

"The reason that the terrorists resort to terrorism is because they know they have no chance against United States in a conventional conflict, and it will never end. There will always be terrorists. So if you allow for the indefinite detention of your United States citizens, it will not just be for five or six years like it was in the case of the AJAs, which was a horrible black mark against the United States of America in terms of our treatment of our fellow citizens.

"At least there was an end to the Second World War. There will be no end to the War on Terrorism, because with terrorism, you're not fighting another country. You're fighting a method of conflict. And I think if we continue to allow our nation to detain people indefinitely, we're making the same mistake again, with less of a provocation than we had when we made the mistake during the Second World War. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. You know, these measures and the passage of this portion of National Defense Authorization Act, has caused a lot public debate. It has in fact caused debate, and agreement among groups that you would not normally think of being on the same side. You'll have conservatives and liberals, Republicans and Democrats, all against this part. And I think it's in fact the ACLU and their testimony that says it best. 'The law is a historic threat because it codifies indefinite military detention without charge or trial, into law for first time in American history.'

"Congress has an opportunity to repeal this version and I wish we as a Body will add Hawaii's voice to that call for repeal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, very much. In support. I'd just like to point out, and actually I'd like to insert the words of the two previous speakers as though they were my own. But just to add, as a clarification. We have two centuries of history in this country, of being different than everywhere else. Different in the sense that we have clear demarcation between what our military is used for, and what it is not. And there is no one here saying that we should not prosecute this war, and bring folks to justice, both without and within our country whom intend to do us harm.

"But the question is how we do that. Right now, there's a very blurry, gray area. There are limitations that the War Powers Act, Posse Comitatus, once held that are no longer quite as clear. This clarifies that with respect to our own citizens within the United States. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a brief footnote on the reservations I have. Clearly, we as a legislative body go back and forth from one extreme to the other, the pendulum. At 9/11, I was in Washington breathing the smoke from the Pentagon and its burning. But the pendulum was where we had basically terrorists in flight school, flying all around. Doing things. Coming in and out with multiple visas. We didn't know about it.

"But the reports that were issued at that period in our history, and I think they're still true today, the CIA and the FBI said there were about 100 to 150 sleeper cells. Not just people, but sleeper cells in the United States. Mr. Speaker, one of our first obligations as elected Representatives is the protection of the people of Hawaii. Safety is primary, and I think if this thing is not going to work out, it can be changed. The great thing about democracy is, it's self-correcting. If you go to one extreme, you pull it back. The same thing about the internment. Self-correcting.

"Right now, the world is in an uncertain state of terrorism. Al Qaeda lives. Al Qaeda is active. Al Qaeda is a clear and present danger to the people of the United States. So if we've gone too far in this measure, in a couple of years, we can pull back on it. But right now there's not a sense of security that the US Congress, the elected Representatives from the 50 states, believe that this is the best policy for now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I rarely speak for or against Resolutions, but apparently this has engendered quite a bit of debate. People have raised this point. Some of these points I'm going to make, earlier. But let me emphasize that, you know, Mr. Speaker, this nation was founded on the basis of the rule of law. And it was also founded on the basis that everyone has the right to a trial, a fair and speedy trial, by the way. So, I don't think anybody in this Chamber is saying that we shouldn't go after terrorists or we shouldn't go after people that would undermine our society."

"I think what those of us who are in support of these Resolutions are saying, is that if you are arrested, if you are suspected of any kind of activity that's not in the interest of the United States, when it comes to national security, you should be arrested. But by the way, you should be charged, and you should have the right to a trial."

"You know Mr. Speaker, we see in the civilian sector, not just the military sector, but the civilian sector. Obviously if someone is clearly guilty, I mean there's witnesses to a murder, say, we don't just say, 'Well we know you're guilty because there's 100 witnesses to this crime.' Even a person like that, rightfully so because again, we are a nation that follows the rule of law. He's entitled to a trial. So, I think that's the main point of these Resolutions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. My main reason for support for this, other than in addition to what everyone has talked about is, do we want the military addressing this issue, versus what I think the correct way is. The FBI, Department of Homeland Security, and others who are designed and tasked with the domestic population. And not the military. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, these measures urge the United States Congress to Repeal the Mandatory Military Detention and Indefinite Provisions of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 and Amend the Authorization for Use of Force. These Resolutions are well intended. We hear of many individuals who may appear to have been incarcerated for long periods of time without reason. Other reports talk about abuses that take place while an individual is incarcerated. However, the vast majority of actions taken by our military on this Congressional Act have reflected the positive effects for our country."

"As a former military officer, there is much information that the general public does not know and should not know - for good reason. Security matters keep Americans safe from the ugly reality of others who will easily jeopardize the health of the masses. If there are injustices in the military, the military must take action to resolve such issues. The vast majority does not have all of the information and because of this, I can only provide my support with strong reservations."

Representative Ichiyama rose in support of both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. These Resolutions urge the United States Congress to repeal the mandatory military detention and indefinite detention provisions of the National Defense Authorization Act and amend the authorization for use of force."

"On December 31, 2011, President Obama signed the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2012, noting his serious concerns regarding the provisions that codify indefinite military detention without charge or trial. The law could permit the President to order the military to indefinitely imprison civilians without the protections of due process. This kind of sweeping detention power is at odds with our American values, violates the Constitution and weakens our Nation's commitment to the rule of law. We must prevent this injustice and protect the fundamental freedoms enshrined in the U.S. and State Constitutions."

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 87, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO REPEAL THE MANDATORY MILITARY DETENTION AND INDEFINITE DETENTION PROVISIONS OF THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2012 AND AMEND THE AUTHORIZATION FOR USE OF FORCE," was adopted, with Representative Souki voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla and Kawakami being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 115, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO REPEAL THE MANDATORY MILITARY DETENTION AND INDEFINITE DETENTION PROVISIONS OF THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2012 AND AMEND THE AUTHORIZATION FOR USE OF FORCE," was adopted, with Representative Souki voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla and Kawakami being excused."

H.C.R. No. 118, HD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.C.R. No. 118, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Just really brief comments. This Reso is actually very important if we are going to work with the legitimate zip line operators on addressing wildcat operators in making sure that these operations are safe for our visitors. We need to get this sunrise study done. Additional written comments to the Journal. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Hawaii's zip line tours are among the fastest growing segments of the States activities and attractions. Hawaii's zip lines are spectacular; they are long and run over forests, waterfalls, gulches and streams while providing the phenomenal views that showcase Hawaii's natural beauty. The thrill of soaring over these natural wonders provides locals and tourists alike with an unforgettable experience that they undoubtedly share with others. Perhaps we as a state will become world renown for this increasingly popular form of ecotourism."

"It is crucial that the State ensure the well-being and safety of those who enjoy Hawaii's scenic landscape via zip lines and canopy tours. While zip lines and canopy tours can be safe, this can only be accomplished when the operators and employees have the safety of the participants as their greatest concern. In the last several years, Hawaii's zip lines have gained prominence in the industry competing with the zip lines in the Amazon and Central America. However, the reputation of the entire ecotourism sector is put in jeopardy when wildcat operations crop up without safety as their top priority."

"The legislation introduced in the Regular Session of 2012 proposes regulations for zip lines and canopy tours that are currently nonexistent. Two trade groups in the United States - the Association for Challenge Course Technology and the Professional Ropes Course Association have already established regulations for zip lines and canopy tours providing the State a model as to which to operate. The question one begged to answer during the hearings in the Regular Session of 2012 was which agency is the proper authority to inspect zip lines and canopy tours and enforce regulations.

"Section 26H-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires a review of the Auditor prior to the enactment of a measure that would subject an unregulated profession or vocation to licensing or other regulatory control. In the best interest of the State, the Auditor is requested to perform a sunrise review on the regulation of zip lines and canopy tours including an assessment of alternative forms of regulation. With regular inspections of all equipment being key for the prevention of injury, the Auditor must specifically address the issues of inspectors and inspector qualifications; questions raised by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations and the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs in testimony on the legislation introduced during the Regular Session of 2012.

"I am in strong support of HCR118, which is a positive step to ensure the personal safety of consumers within this facet of the State's ecotourism industry and protects their reputation."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 118, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING A SUNRISE REVIEW OF REGULATIONS FOR ZIPLINES AND CANOPY TOURS," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla and Kawakami being excused.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1700-12) recommending that H.R. No. 5, HD 1, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1701-12) recommending that H.C.R. No. 5, HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 5, HD 1; and H.C.R. No. 5, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"It just always amazed me. Maybe my fellow lawyers feel the same way, but corporations are useful legal fictions to limit investor risk, and they have proven very useful over many, many centuries at this point. But to consider them as persons for really any reason other than what I can think of. That they just aren't people, despite what the Supreme Court of the United States says. And I think, and that's why I support these Resolutions. Useful little fiction, but not people. Mahalo."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I was going to be voting no. But if I vote with reservations, I've been listening to the previous Representative speaking, and it seems that he's looking at unnatural persons would be corporations.

And the Constitution would have no right in protecting them. If that's the case, then I would agree with that. If I could call a recess so I can ask the Chairman."

At 12:33 o'clock p.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:33 o'clock p.m.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I want to change it to a yes vote. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I register a no vote, please? I feel that these Resolutions may have unintended consequences. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would just like to adopt the words of the Chair of Labor as if they were my own. And just a brief additional comment. Unintended consequences. I think Citizens United and all of the Super PACs that are going to be unleashed this summer are one of those consequences that I hope Members will remember, too. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support, and may I have the words of the speaker from Maui entered as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered. (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 5, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THAT THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION ONLY PROTECTS RIGHTS OF NATURAL PERSONS," was adopted, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 5, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THAT THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION ONLY PROTECTS RIGHTS OF NATURAL PERSONS," was adopted, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 9; and H.C.R. No. 13, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of these Resolutions. My district, Liliha, has an issue whereby a former Councilman decided to widen the roads. We have Ho'opono Center for the Blind. We have numerous elementary schools. The Senator from the District and myself have questioned this widening. There's so much possibility with urban design to make a difference in the lives of our people, the quality of life, and whether or not people actually interact, and are healthy. So, with that, I'd like to ask for additional written comments to be inserted. We appreciate the Representative from Mililani for this introduction."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please let me express my most sincere gratitude to all those who have helped to push through such beneficial measures as H.R. 9 and H.C.R. 13. These Resolutions ask the City & County of Honolulu to review its policies regarding street and road widening, with regard to impact on pedestrian safety. Within this review, it requests research on specific impacts of road widening on pedestrian safety in neighborhoods with significant senior citizen populations. Findings and recommendations would be due to the Legislature at least twenty days prior to the convening of the 2013 Regular Session, and also transmitted to the Mayor of the City & County, and the State Department of Planning and Permitting.

"Although H.R. 9 and H.C.R. 13 benefit individuals of all ages and socioeconomic backgrounds, it particularly safeguards my own constituents residing in Liliha, Nuuanu, Puunui, and Alewa Heights neighborhoods. The United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention reported in 2007 that Hawaii ranked number one in pedestrian fatalities for people ages 65 and over. Not even considering the inconveniences and dangers involved in the construction process of wider roads, seniors will also face special dangers and challenges once the wider roads are finally complete. In such neighborhoods as mine, seniors often struggle to cross the street in a timely fashion and safe manner; wider residential streets near their homes may prove even more difficult for them to navigate. Of Hawaii's 27 pedestrian fatalities in 2010, 10 (37%) were seniors. Moreover, given my district's numerous hospitals, long-term care facilities, affordable housing units, and accommodations for the blind, our pedestrian population also includes a number of chronically disabled residents. Physical disabilities correlated to these facilities often accelerate symptoms of the aging process, yielding a pedestrian sector even less adept than those of other more healthy communities of comparable age.

"Considering the particularly constructive impact H.R. 9 and H.C.R. 13 will have on the lives of my own constituents, I gladly extend a special "Mahalo" to all who have worked hard in ensuring its progress. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 9, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU TO REVIEW ITS POLICIES REGARDING STREET AND ROAD WIDENING, WITH REGARD TO THEIR IMPACT ON PEDESTRIAN SAFETY," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 13, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU TO REVIEW ITS POLICIES REGARDING STREET AND ROAD WIDENING, WITH REGARD TO THEIR IMPACT ON PEDESTRIAN SAFETY," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 13; and H.C.R. No. 19, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Please note my strong support, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1704 and 1705. As many of you may know, the Women's Caucus Package this year was dedicated to women veterans and all they have done. This is a very important Reso, because many times the services provided for women veterans have not been adequate. And I'd like to add some written comments. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 13/H.C.R. 19 – URGING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS AND THE HAWAII OFFICE OF VETERANS SERVICES TO DEVELOP COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF WOMEN VETERANS.

"I rise in support of the measure which is part of the 2012 package of the Women's Legislative Caucus. Women veterans suffer many of the same re-entry problems as men, yet programs for them are either behind or non-existent. At times the military has discounted or overlooked the problems and complaints of women. This seems to be changing to a certain extent, however this resolution is a reminder that women veteran's needs deserve equal treatment. I urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 13, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS AND THE HAWAII OFFICE OF VETERANS SERVICES TO DEVELOP COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF WOMEN VETERANS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 19, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS AND THE HAWAII OFFICE OF VETERANS SERVICES TO DEVELOP COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF WOMEN VETERANS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented two reports:

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 16; and H.C.R. No. 23, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. But this is just a glorified housekeeping because the Board has already approved this action. And pursuant to law, it must be approved through Resolution by the Legislature as well. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 16, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF A TERM, NON-EXCLUSIVE EASEMENT COVERING A PORTION OF STATE SUBMERGED LANDS AT LAHAINA, MAUI, FOR MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF EXISTING DECK AND IMPROVEMENTS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 23, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF A TERM, NON-EXCLUSIVE EASEMENT COVERING A PORTION OF STATE SUBMERGED LANDS AT LAHAINA, MAUI, FOR MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF EXISTING DECK AND IMPROVEMENTS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

I want to recognize the Representative from Moanalua for introducing these Resolutions and also a bill, to find out the impacts of ATVs on children. I think we could learn from this Resolution such as the number of accidents there are. The ages of the young people. The intensity of injuries. Whether they're head injuries or not. Whether helmets should be required. Whether they were passengers or not.

"The bill on this subject, advanced further than any other measure thus far. And you know, one of these years, we will have significant legislation passed. For your information Hawaii, unlike most other states, has no restriction on ATV use. So we're due. Thank you."

Representative Aquino's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HCR 41 which would request the auditor to perform a sunrise analysis of the regulation of the music therapy profession.

"The benefits of music in emotional and physical health have been well described for many centuries and across cultures. In more recent times, studies have shown the effects of music therapy in alleviating symptoms of a variety of physical and psychological conditions. Music therapy is the clinical and evidence-based use of music interventions to accomplish individual goals for a patient by a credentialed professional who has completed an approved program.

"As mentioned earlier, this is not something new. In fact, music therapy has over 60 years of clinical history in the United States and is recognized in our State by various departments including the Departments of Health, Human Services and Education.

"Music therapy offers a new perspective for health care. It provides an alternative therapeutic treatment to improve motor skills for individuals with physical disabilities, increase emotional expression in people with emotional conditions or have experience trauma, increase social interactions and communication skill is autistic children and increase reminiscing and mental stimulation in adults with Alzheimer's and dementia.

"We must remember that music therapy is not just a daily dose of Beethoven, Bach, Beatles or Justin Beiber. As we learned through testimonies presented during previous hearings, music therapy is a World Health Organization (WHO) acknowledged health care profession with a 40-year period of academic and research development in all parts of the world.

"That's why HCR 41 is critical in the establishment of a regulated music therapy program to meet the needs of our communities by providing additional therapeutic treatment options. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 41, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO PERFORM A SUNRISE ANALYSIS OF THE REGULATION OF THE PROFESSION OF MUSIC THERAPY," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

And also on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1721, the site of the Korean Methodist Church. I've for long time, been supporting these understandings of the contribution that our different ethnic groups play in Hawaii.

"I'm not sure if all our local people know that not only Sun Yat-Sen lived here in Hawaii attending Punahou, and Iolani. But also Dr. Syngman Rhee, who's a really important figure in Korean history, akin to the Abraham Lincoln of Korea who actually laid the cornerstone of the Korean Christian Church right on Liliha Street. It's kind of an important site. I'm hoping that possibly, that site might be incorporated at some point, too. We've been working on that for some time. But this a good start. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I'd like to note my support for Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1722, and 1723. This is a very important measure that was introduced by our Chair of Health, and I do appreciate it. As you all know, the Waianae Coast is far from any emergency trauma center, and during the conflict of the last several years, we lost our ambulance helicopter service when the 25th got deployed. The National Guard stepped in during that time. And then the National Guard got deployed, and then we lost that service. So currently, we do not have a helicopter service at the Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center, and I truly appreciate this. This measure was introduced by our Health Chair, and I do support this. Thank you, very much."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. With the existing lack of proper infrastructure for the Leeward Coast, these Resolutions are greatly needed. I would like to commend the Chair on Health for these measures, and I urge the support from the other Members of this Body. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HSCR1739-12, HCR108.

"On March 11, 2011 a 9.0 undersea earthquake struck Honshu Island, Japan. The resulting tsunami devastated the northeast coastline of Japan, sending approximately 20 million tons of debris into the Pacific Ocean, much of which may have already sunk into the vast ocean or broken up into smaller pieces. When will the debris, if any, reach Hawaii? What percentage of that 20 million tons of tsunami debris can we expect to reach Hawaii?

"We, the State of Hawaii, must take a proactive role to ensure that we find a solution to this issue. HCR108 is a good starting point in planning how to address this issue.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I ask my colleagues to please support HSCR1739-12, HCR108."

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 94; and H.C.R. No. 123, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I shall proceed. I will start over again. I commend you for the speed at which we are going through this. It's not rapid fire. But some of us went over to the Senate this morning to celebrate Sam Slom's 70th birthday, and they took 20 pages in like 35 seconds. So your pace, which often we think is fast, is considerably reasonable.

"Now back to the goody two shoes I was referring to in the Resolutions, which for socially responsible corporations we must have the best service to the public of safety, whether it's food or otherwise. But this goes a bit far and these Resolutions make pejorative comments about our military, in that it singles out corporations that do military defense contracts, as unacceptable, or let's say, less desirable as a part of the American corporate culture.

"Mr. Speaker, just a few days ago, or yesterday, we had the National Guard exhibit here. I had the privilege of looking at some of their new equipment. And one of the fully uniformed individuals with his breastplate on said he could take an M40 bullet, point blank right at his vital organs. And because of Kevlar, it would be repelled. Lifesaving devices that these corporations are now being spoken of as pejorative in this Reso would be set aside.

"Mr. Speaker, last night at the Washington Place, we had a goodwill understanding with the people of Turkey, of which the Representative from Waianae did an excellent job in welcoming the business people from the Turkish-American community in Los Angeles. Tremendous goodwill. One was a defense contractor, because he made parts for the F-16 plane that keeps those 4,000 planes flying throughout the world. These people are looked upon as pejorative here.

"So Mr. Speaker, it's the lack of balance. We need socially responsible, but if we start picking winners, and saying that these are bad, we forget about the defense. We forget about the military, and those who are now in harm's way as we speak. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Urging the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Hawaii to Preserve the Counties' ... If we want to preserve the TAT share, keep the counties' share, then we should just do it. But I don't see any point in telling ourselves to do it."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote on these measures, please. We could name this the Library Peace Talks Reso. The difficulty is the warring parties of Kailua and Aina Haina are excluded as to the people that are going to be called to the table, and it ultimately is going to be difficult because there has been a real turmoil that the reinterpretation of the statute has brought out in Finance Committee hearing. I'm hopeful that something might come of this, but unless you get North and South Korea at the table, you're not going to get too much in terms of a Korean resolution. So for this reason, I think it's not going to be very helpful. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. This has been a very long and painful issue that we've been dealing with this Legislative Session. It doesn't specify the exact two warring parties, but if you read the Reso which it says, a representative from the Friends of the Library of Hawaii affiliate group, and a representative that is not an affiliate group. Kailua is an affiliate group, and Aina Haina is not an affiliate group. So it does include them. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"I stand in support and I would like to include the words of the Vice Chair of Agriculture. I would like to note too, that there was no negative testimony on these Resolutions when it was heard in Committee. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"My. Speaker, I rise in favor of these resolutions, with reservations. And first of all, I'd like to point out that in the Committee Reports, it shows that I voted free and clear. And also Representative Ward. In actuality, I voted with reservations in Committee, and Representative Ward voted no. So, just to clarify that.

"All the bill purported to do, not these Resolutions, but a bill from the Senate introduced by I believe Senator Tokuda, was to allow the Friends of the Aina Haina Library to continue selling books at the library. They have been doing this to raise money for the library for 50 years.

"Apparently, the Librarian felt that it was not proper that they should be on State property since they were a nonaffiliated, private nonprofit. So, essentially they were kicked off. So we tried to get a bill passed that would allow them to continue their activities. It just dawned on me. I think the bill was introduced by Senator Slom. It's in his district. But that bill failed, and so these Resolutions are a result. I'm not sure that these Resolutions will work, but I certainly hope it will. So in that respect, I am very much for it."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition to these resolutions. Well first of all, these Resolutions started off being referred to the Agricultural Committee. And then it morphed into this Library bill. And I do realize in the library you do have books about farming and whatnot. But you know, I don't quite see the connection for it to go to the Ag Committee, and then to the Finance Committee. These Resolutions obviously should have been heard by your Education Committee.

"Besides, we have as previous speakers have mentioned in dealing with this issue this whole Session, I think I've learned more about the Friends of the Library, and the Little Friends of the Library than I ever have in my entire career here. But the point is that this is going to require statutory change. So you can convene a task force, and they can meet for the next year and so on. I just don't think the library such as the Aina Haina Friends of the Library are going to be able to conduct any business in the coming year while this task force meets. A simple fix to the law, according to the Attorney General, would have taken care of this, and I see no need for a Resolution. I see a need for a bill to change the current law. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just heard from the Aina Haina Library people and they were, at the very last minute informed of something that they could no longer make. So the fact that they had 48 hours notice is immaterial.

"Second point I wanted to mention was that even though there is a non-affiliate, there are many non-affiliates. Even though there are affiliates on this group, there are many affiliates. So to say at the North and South Korea peace talks, we're going to have one Asian and one non-Asian among the millions of possibilities, is really not bringing the warring parties to the table. That's the problem.

"And as the Representative of Kaimuki, Kahala said, these people have been doing this for 50 years. Over a quarter million dollars they have brought in. If it doesn't work out, it's going to shut down a lot of goodwill, Mr. Speaker, and we don't want to do that. We don't want to have Kailua fighting with Aina Haina, and back and forth. There should be peace, and this unfortunately, I don't think is going to settle it. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in rebuttal. I would just like to ask, if we don't have a Resolution like this, and we don't have the parties come together and talk about it, and yes, everybody is right. They're all completely correct in what they're saying. They've been doing this for 50 years, and we've been trying to work this through. We do need a bill, but what is your option? If we don't do this, then what? You vote no, and you don't do anything? The AG already said that, we have to change the law. So we have to do something, and this is doing something. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 74, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE STATE LIBRARIAN TO CONVENE A TASK FORCE ON THE USE OF PUBLIC LIBRARY FACILITIES FOR CONCESSIONS," was adopted, with Representatives Takumi and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

No. 102, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE STATE LIBRARIAN TO CONVENE A TASK FORCE ON THE USE OF PUBLIC LIBRARY FACILITIES FOR CONCESSIONS," was adopted, with Representatives Takumi and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 115; and H.C.R. No. 153, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. You know, Mr. Speaker. We have a road that I think each and every one of us has used in the back of the Manoa Valley. It goes to Paradise Park, and it goes to Manoa Falls, the Lyon Arboretum. That little stretch of road is not owned by anybody, and therefore not maintained by anybody. We have been battling to figure out who owns the road and who should maintain it.

"Well, in the last couple months there have been several accidents on the road, and it's coming to a point that we have to do something to figure out who owns this particularly road. So I'm hoping that this particular task force will be successful, and we can figure out who owns the road and then we can maintain the road.

"And if this particular task force is successful, then hopefully we can use this for a model, because I know about two or three other roads in Manoa that also don't have an owner designated. So I think these are really good Resolutions. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 115, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CONVENING A MANOA ROAD TASK FORCE TO DISCUSS OWNERSHIP, MAINTENANCE, AND REPAIR RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PORTION OF MANOA ROAD LEADING UP TO THE LYON ARBORETUM," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused; and

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1778-12) recommending that H.C.R. No. 58, HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 58, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just with reservations. But also a thank you to the Chair of CPC for including wave energy in it. My reservations are because of the direction to the utility to develop an under seas electricity transmission cable."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 58, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION TO DIRECT ELECTRIC UTILITIES TO EXAMINE SPECIFIC RENEWABLE ENERGY SCENARIOS IN THE INTEGRATED RESOURCE PLANNING PROCESS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1779-12) recommending that H.C.R. No. 165, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 165, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING ALCOHOL RETAILERS AND LICENSED PREMISES UNDER CHAPTER 281, HAWAII REVISED STATUTES, TO POST A SIGN IN OR ABOUT THE PREMISES WARNING WOMEN NOT TO DRINK ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES DURING PREGNANCY AND THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO CONTINUE ITS EFFORTS TO PROVIDE STATEWIDE TRAINING ON FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDER PREVENTION, IDENTIFICATION, AND INTERVENTIONS," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Chang, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1780-12) recommending that H.C.R. No. 169, be adopted.

At this time, Representative Har offered Floor Amendment No. 6, amending H.C.R. No. 169, as follows:

"SECTION 1. House Concurrent Resolution No. 169 (URGING THE COUNTIES TO DEVELOP AND IMPLEMENT COMMUNITY CONCERNS COUNCILS IN RURAL AREAS) is amended by deleting its contents and replacing it with new language to read as follows:

Representative Har moved that Floor Amendment No. 6, be adopted, seconded by Representative Ito.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, and Members, yesterday your Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources heard a proposed H.D. 1 for H.C.R. 169 of which you have the Floor Amendment in front of you, which is urging the establishment of a Koreatown and development of a master plan for the development of a Koreatown.

"The room was packed yesterday, for those that were in that hearing. We had over 3500 pieces of testimony in support. And I think in the elation and overwhelming excitement of it all, we accidentally, and I should say, I accidently, instead of adopting the proposed H.D. 1, we actually passed it out un-amended. As a result, your Committee voted on the wrong Resolution. Therefore, as a result we are trying to amend the error of the Vice Chair from yesterday's hearing and we ask for your favorable consideration on the adoption of the Floor Amendment."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 6, amending H.C.R. No. 169, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE COUNTIES TO DEVELOP AND IMPLEMENT COMMUNITY CONCERNS COUNCILS IN RURAL AREAS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Chong moved that H.C.R. No. 169, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker, and may I enter written comments into the Journal?"

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support on HCR 169, HD 1. The purpose of this Resolution is to urge the establishment of a Koreatown in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Office of Planning and the City and County of Honolulu Department of Planning and Permitting are also urged to create a master plan for the development of a Koreatown.

"Koreans have a long history in Hawaii dating back to 1903. The establishment of a Koreatown will serve to recognize the long history of Korean immigration and influence in Hawaii. According to the 2010 United States Census, at least 40,000 Koreans now live in Hawaii. The Korean population in Hawaii has come a long way since the first group of one-hundred-and-two arrived over one hundred years ago.

"But the development of a Koreatown will do more than highlight the century-long influence of Korean culture, history and service in the State of Hawaii. A Koreatown will also serve to welcome and recognize the thousands of Korean visitors to Hawaii each year. In 2011 alone, 100,172 visitors from Korea visited Hawaii, a total that is projected to increase by thirty to fifty percent annually. With such a large and dedicated group of visitors, Hawaii is well aware of its close ties to Korea and the influence visiting Koreans have on the state's economy. On June 16, 2003, the Korean Consulate, Hawaii Korean Tourism Association, and Korean Air formed the Hawaii Tourism Promotion Association in order to promote tourism and a visa waiver program for Koreans. Two months later the Korean-Hawaii Visa Waiver Program Action Committee was also created to further advocate for a visa waiver program. After years of lobbying in Washington, D.C. and in Korea by the Action Committee, President Bush announced the visa waiver program for Koreans, effective November 17, 2008.

"The establishment of a Koreatown in Hawaii will attract Korean investment opportunities that will benefit the State's economy and provide visitors and kama'aina with another site that proudly displays the State's multi-cultural and multi-ethnic heritage. The recognition of a Koreatown will help foster stronger relations between Hawaii and the Republic of Korea, and further solidify the significance of the United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act passed by the U.S. House of Representatives in October of 2011.

"Dozens of Koreatowns already exist in cities across the United States, including Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia, and internationally in Toronto, Sydney, Tokyo, London and Beijing. Mr. Speaker, your House Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources heard this Resolution in a packed room of individuals enthusiastically supporting the measure, and received 3,480 petition signatures from the Korean community in support of the measure. It is clear that development of a Koreatown is wanted, and it is time for Honolulu to be added to this list.

"Finally, as a second-generation Korean living in Hawaii, I personally understand the need for an area where Koreans can be recognized for their unique and significant contributions and am proud to have participated in shepherding this Resolution forward as the Vice Chair of your House Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. But since I would want the Neighbor Island Members to go home, I will refrain from making a long speech. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of information. If this is Amendment No .6, which were Nos. 1 to 5? Or are we talking about a different day? This says Floor Amendment No. 6. Did we have the other five prior to this?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"Yes, from previous sessions days."

Representative Ward: "Okay, so it's cumulative. Okay, that's understandable because I didn't see Nos. 1 to 5 today. Okay, thank you."

Speaker Say: "There was only one Floor Amendment today. This past Tuesday, we had 3, or 4. Or 5."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong reservations and ask to insert written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with strong reservations. Before I begin, I would like to first state that my reservations have nothing to do with the Korean people, or their culture. I have Korean friends and some of what I will be speaking with you comes with their sentiments as it was their concern that flagged me about this measure. Although their comments were much stronger than what I will share, they have concerns just the same.

"Mr. Speaker, as a Representative who was born and raised in these islands, I am quite perplexed with this Resolution. This measure which urges the establishment of a Koreatown and development of a master plan for the development of a Koreatown appears to be counterproductive to what our island state is recognized by those around the world. If this Resolution were to establish a Japanesetown, or a Filipinotown, or even a Hawaiiantown, I would still stand with reservations. To set aside a prime location in the center of the most populous location on Oahu, I strongly believe will divide our community when we should be united.

"Hawaii hosted a monumental event last year – APEC. The heads of the world's largest economies met here and the response was nothing but positive. My discussion with those who travelled thousands of miles over and over shared their personal experiences surrounding the beauty of people who can come from different areas and look different, but still be able to live harmoniously. As well all know the appeal to our State is a place where people are able to get along and the color of our skin or our origin takes a back seat to establishing a place where we all belong without barriers.

"Mr. Speaker, I ask that we not go back to a time when camps were established and people who were not of a certain race were not welcomed in a particular community. This Resolution, I believe will take us back instead of moving forward Mr. Speaker. For these reasons, I stand with strong reservations."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some reservations, and request to insert further written comments into the Journal."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some reservations to this resolution.

"Like the Office of Planning that testified about this proposal, this is an exciting concept for an area in urban Honolulu that is already colloquially known as "Korea-moku." However, as the Office of Planning pointed out, they would need approximately $250,000 to $450,000 and at least two years to produce the deliverables that are being requested here. If we want this planning process done correctly and with as much community involvement as possible, we should provide funding and more time for this important work to be done.

"Furthermore, as pointed out by the Office of Planning this work is more appropriately carried out by the City and County of Honolulu whose Department of Planning and Permitting has testified in opposition to this measure. DPP's opposition echoes the Office of Planning's concerns of lack of funding and limited staffing, especially since the DPP is heavily involved in its planning process for rail transit. In fact, the DPP offers an interesting way to move forward with this "Koreatown" concept by engaging the residential and business communities around the Ala Moana rail transit station in the City's transit-oriented development planning that they expect to begin this summer.

"Please find attached the testimony of the DPP and the Office of Planning below.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker for allowing me to express my reservations and I look forward to all the planning efforts that are moving forward in this culturally diverse area of urban Honolulu."

Lastly, we are beginning the planning process for the area around the Ala Moana rail transit station. It will include the area referenced in these resolutions. We expect to hold the first community meeting this summer. If the residential and business communities raise the desire of developing a Koreatown character to the area, we are willing to consider it as part of our transit-oriented development plan.

In short, this resolution is not justified given the limited resources at both the state and city levels of planning. Rather than encouraging inter-governmental coordination and maximizing use of scarce government resources, it is redundant with ongoing city work and infringes on home rule. Thank you for this opportunity to testify.

Very truly yours,

HCR 169 PROPOSED HD 1
URGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF KOREATOWN AND DEVELOPMENT OF A MASTER PLAN FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A KOREATOWN.

Chair Chang, Vice Chair Har, and Members of the House Committee on Water, Land and Ocean Resources.

The Office of Planning (OP) is excited by the concept of establishing a Koreatown and a master plan for the development of a Koreatown. However, we must oppose this resolution unless the legislature provides staff and/or funding to complete the tasks assigned to OP in the subject resolution. Also note that even if adequate staff and funding were provided, the time for deliverables is not practicable. To begin preparing an adequate plan, we would need approximately $250,000 to $400,000 to hire a consultant. The City and County of Honolulu would be the proper entity for carrying out such a task. They engaged a consultant for similar work, which resulted in the attached report entitled, "Rediscovering Chinatown Honolulu."

The Honorable Jerry L. Chang, Chair and Members of the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources
State House of Representatives
State Capitol
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Chair Chang and Committee Members:

Subject: HCR 169 Proposed HD1
Establishment of Koreatown

The Department of Planning and Permitting opposes the Proposed HD1 for HCR 169, based on home rule and the City and County of Honolulu's role in the development of community-based plans. This resolution would direct the Office of Planning to develop a master plan for "Koreatown", in coordination with our department, for the area generally defined by Census Tracts 36.01 and 36.02.

The City and County of Honolulu has prepared many neighborhood plans. We have found that one of the prerequisites for a successful plan – one that moves beyond the planning phase and into implementation – is community support. While we are aware of the label Koreatown, we are not aware of a strong desire to introduce Korean architecture and urban design to the Keeaumoku Street area.

Further, "specialized design plans" would imply special design regulations. We are not aware that residents and businesses in the proposed area, whether connected to Korean culture or not, desire Korean designs. More importantly, additional permits and reviews will be required to develop such a character.

We also note to be done well, with good community participation, neighborhood plans need significant planning support. Given our limited staffing, our planning efforts will depend on consultant services. We would recommend funding this effort with about $400,000.

In 2007, we prepared a needs assessment and conceptual design study for a Korean Cultural and Community Center, working with an advisory committee made up of Korean-American leaders and others. We completed the task and the community leaders were able to proceed with fundraising for the project, including land acquisition.

OP's limited resources are currently fully employed. Although the Office of Planning's resources have diminished, OP has leveraged its resources to conduct comprehensive, long-range and strategic planning. As an example, OP sought federal funds to help offset the 30% general fund budget reductions in 2009. However, federal funds have constraints. These funds must be used for purposes of the grant and usually have matching requirements. About 50% of OP's staff is federally funded and the remaining staff provides a portion of the one to one match requirement for these funds.

In addition to the projects and programs discussed in our recent Fiscal Year 2010 – 2011 Office Of Planning Report to the Twenty-Sixth Legislature Regular Session of 2012 (available at <http://hawaii.gov/dbedt/main/about/annual>), I would like to highlight the following projects.

Climate Change Adaptation Policy

OP worked with numerous stakeholders to develop a climate change policy to be included as a Priority Guideline in Part III of the Hawaii State Planning Act, HRS ch. 226. (SB 2745 and HB 2483 Relating to Environment) A Framework for Climate Change Adaptation in Hawaii, was prepared in November 2009. This was a collaborative effort of the Ocean Resources Management Plan Working Group with the assistance of the University of Hawaii, Center for Islands Climate Adaptation and Policy. OP is working with the Ocean Resources Management Plan Policy and Working Groups, University of Hawaii Center for Island Climate Adaptation and Policy, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and other stakeholders on issues pertaining to climate change adaptation. This work is made possible through federal Coastal Zone Management Act grant funds and matching OP services-in-kind.

National Ocean Policy

Governor Abercrombie designated the Director of OP as his representative for initiatives of the National Ocean Council (NOC) and the designated US Pacific Islands region (American Samoa, Guam, CNMI, and Hawaii). OP through its Coastal Zone Management Program received a $250,000 competitive grant award from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric strategies and projects for implementation. Completion and acceptance of the Report demonstrates that the State of Hawaii has gone through a deliberative and thorough planning process to provide a framework for recommending projects for EDA funding. A CEDS is a precondition to obtain funding under most EDA grant programs.

The 2010 CEDS was a collaborative effort with OP, the State Department of Business and Economic Development and Tourism (DBEDT), the Economic Development Alliance of Hawaii (EDAH), Enterprise Honolulu, Economic Development Boards, County Economic Development Agencies, community, business, non-profit and other organizations; and the public. ($133,360 EDA Federal Funds; match provided by services-in-kind by OP and economic development agencies and organizations).

Planning for Rural Economic Development

Planning for Rural Economic Development (Rural Report), 2010, examines rural economic development in Hawaii. Prepared by SMS Marketing and Research Services, Inc., the Rural Report defined "rural", identified rural communities statewide, and developed a baseline of socio-economic conditions of rural communities. Best practices were then identified through a nationwide and statewide review of rural communities who have successfully integrated economic development while maintaining rural character. Lastly, recommendations to support rural economic development in Hawaii were provided ($100,000 EDA Federal Funds; matched by OP services-in-kind).

Master Plan for Agricultural Resources at Hoesa

Master Plan for Agricultural Resources at Hoesa (Master Plan), July 2011, is comprised of an environmental assessment and a site plan for the development of an agricultural resource center and processing facility in North Kohala, Island of Hawaii. The Master Plan provides the basis for moving forward with land acquisition, design, and construction of this facility. It will help the residents of North Kohala move closer to their goal of strengthening this rural area's local economy.

The resource center envisioned in the plan will support small farmers and ranchers to ensure the future of agriculture and ranching in the region. Kahua Paa Maa, Inc. and the Hawaii Future Farmers of America Foundation prepared the plan for OP and County of Hawaii ($20,000 EDA Federal Funds; matched by in-kind services from OP, Department of Research and Development, County of Hawaii, Hawaii Future Farmers of America Foundation and Kahua Paa Maa, Inc.).

Administration (NOAA) to strengthen the Ocean Resources Management Plan and implement the National Ocean Policy.

Ocean Resources Management Plan (ORMP) Update

An update of the ORMP is underway. The ORMP sets forth guiding principles and recommendations for the State to achieve comprehensive and integrated ocean and coastal resources management. HRS §205A-62 charges the Coastal Zone Management (CZM) Program with the review and periodic update of the ORMP, as well as coordination of the overall implementation of the plan. The ORMP is an integrated, place-based approach to management of ocean resources in the islands, based on recognition of the ecological connections between the land and sea, the link between human activities and its impacts on the environment, and the need for improved collaboration and stewardship in natural resources governance.

Charged with coordinating meaningful interagency and multi-sectoral engagement for plan implementation, the CZM Program established an ORMP Policy Group and an ORMP Working Group. These groups have been meeting consistently since they originated in 2007, and have continuously reached out to new partners and grown stronger as it becomes more evident that collaborative governance is essential for effective natural and cultural resource management. (CZM Federal funds; matched by OP services-in-kind)

Sustainability 2050

OP worked with the UH Public Policy Center for the passage of Act 181 (2011), which made the Hawaii 2050 Sustainability Plan a Priority Guideline under the Hawaii State Planning Act. OP coordinated and facilitated the two-day workshop by the Governors' Institute on Community Design to allow Administration decision-makers to consider how to implement sustainability under the New Day agenda, Hawaii 2050 Sustainability Plan, and State Planning Act.

OP, in coordination with the Governor's office and the Chief Information Officer, are working on an interagency, statewide strategic plan to further these objectives and make that information available online. OP is also working on securing potential funding to support the Administration's planning efforts in the urban core.

2010 Hawaii Statewide Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS)

Accepted in March 2011 by the United States Economic Development Administration (EDA), the 2010 CEDS (Report) is an economic development strategy document for the State of Hawaii to increase Hawaii's economic competitiveness. The Report supports key industry clusters through proposed

Food Self-Sufficiency Strategy

OP was awarded a federal grant of $100,000 from EDA to develop a strategic plan to increase food security and self-sufficiency in Hawaii. The Special Plans Program has begun work on the development of this plan in cooperation with the State Department of Agriculture.

Natural Disaster Economic Recovery Strategy

The goal of this grant is to improve economic recovery after natural disasters. OP will prepare a Natural disaster economic recovery strategy as a supplement to the CEDS to address pre-disaster continuity planning and post-disaster recovery actions for both public and private sectors. OP will work closely with State Civil Defense on this project ($150,000 EDA Federal Funds; matched by OP services-in-kind).

Economic Development Strategy for Native Hawaiian Communities

The goal of this grant is to prepare an economic development strategy for native Hawaiian communities in cooperation with the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands ($150,000 EDA Federal Funds; matched by OP services-in-kind).

Coastal Nonpoint Source Pollution Control Program (CNPCP)

OP through the Coastal Zone Management Program is working to reduce polluted runoff into our ocean and streams. Hawaii Watershed Planning Guidance 2011 was created to help local community organizations understand and prepare watershed plans in compliance with EPA guidelines for funding through Section 319 of the Federal Clean Water Act and serve as a means to reintroduce all CNPCP management measures. The Guidance presents a user friendly, step by step guide to ensure that as watershed plans are developed and updated in Hawaii, appropriate CNPCP management measures will be considered to achieve water quality improvements. The program is conducting training to government and other organizations on reducing coastal nonpoint source pollution. This work is made possible through federal Coastal Zone Management grant funds and matching OP services-in-kind.

In addition to the above specified projects, which leverage general funds for additional federal funding support, OP has updated its Web site to provide agencies and the public with better access to information about our programs and services. We provide planning expertise and support to various state agencies and programs and coordinate with county and federal agencies on initiatives of statewide concern. For example, these activities include, but are not limited to, membership on the Oahu Metropolitan Planning Organization (OMPO) Advisory Committee, the City's Transit Oriented Development (TOD) Advisory Committee, the Pacific Regional Ocean Partnership, and interactions with military planning officials.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony on this measure.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. And I just would like to make a few comments. I was member of the Committee, and I was really touched with the number of people that showed up, and the number of petitions that they signed. I wished I was a Korean that day so I can also say that I am very proud that I am a part of this Resolution. I would like this initiative to come through. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I have recently been a fan of this television station, KBFD, when I came to Oahu. And I was stunned to see that it was on their news last night, on that station. They had the hearing. So with that, I really think this is important. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. And just hopefully in the future, maybe we, this Legislature, can consider also giving some funding to the counties for this project. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would just like the words of the good Representative from Ewa entered into the record as if they were my own. And just a couple of brief additional comments in support. To quote the great minstrels, Lipps Inc.: We can talk about it, talk about it, talk about it, talk about it. But in the end Mr. Speaker, I want you to take me to Koreatown."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'm afraid I can't be as eloquent as the Representative from Maui, but I did just want to say that I do represent several thousand Korean Americans, but the vast majority of them do not live in the Keeaumoku end of my district, as some people might suspect. They live in Chinatown, and in Palama. So I hope as the planners move forward, they don't forget about the thousands of Korean Americans who live in the Chinatown and Palama area of my district. Mahalo, or should I say, kamsahamnida."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 169, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF KOREATOWN AND DEVELOPMENT OF A MASTER PLAN FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A KOREATOWN," was adopted, with Representatives Chang, Kawakami, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Aquino: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to thank all the Members who participated and took time out of their busy schedules to visit our National Guard members on National Guard Legislative Day on Wednesday. Many of us got to hear and experience what our Guard members experience, and what they do in service for our State and country.

"I just wanted to acknowledge and give special thanks to our State Adjutant General, General Darryll Wong, for working hard to make that day happen, along with Major Troy Cullen, and Captain Eric Shimodoi, who did a lot of the legwork in preparation for that day.

"Also, I wanted to acknowledge and give special thanks to the Representative from Waikale, Village Park and his staff, as well as my staff, Mr. Speaker. Lastly I would like to acknowledge some hardworking people who assisted us that day, who assisted tremendously I might add, mostly in the background. But I'd like to acknowledge our House Sergeant-at-Arms, especially Lon Paresa, Glenn Okamura, and John Baker. Also, Mr. Speaker, Denise Liu from House Journal, and staff members from DAGS.

"And mahalo again to everyone who took the time to show support for our National Guard members. Thank you, very much."

Representative M. Lee: "I'd also like to say thank you to all the people who participated in our annual Women's Caucus Easter Basket drive. All the many offices, the departments and really people from around the building, and even outside the building. I'd also like to give a special thanks to the Easter Bunny, who participated. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to make an announcement that, as someone who likes to let people know what's going on historically. This coming Sunday, there's a couple of things that are kind of important.

"Number one, the Voices of Palama will be airing. This is the 100th anniversary, the centennial of Palama Settlement, of which many people, particularly of the Democrat Party came from. Senator Mercado Kim, Ben Cayetano. It's 6:00 on K5, Sunday the 15th.

"And it also happens to be on the day the Titanic sank. For those of you who may not know the historical district which I represent, has the lone survivor in the State of Hawaii of the Titanic. Her name was Mrs. Lucy Parrish. A lot of people visit her at the Oahu Cemetery, across the street from where I live. So just this weekend, when we're thinking about history, when we're thinking about the things we do. Palama Settlement. And it's been, you know, 100 years."

Representative Thielen: "Mr. Speaker, next Friday is our annual Hemp Aloha Friday, aloha shirt Friday. And I was hoping that Members would either wear a hemp shirt, or a natural fiber shirt in honor of Earth Day. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, notwithstanding next Friday when we wear our hemp shirts, there was as proposal that we would wear our APEC volunteer shirts on Friday. And a resounding success of a total of 1 person has worn that. The message is let's not forget that success. We were on the world stage. We hit a homerun. And maybe it should be like the hemp shirt, once a year, rather than every Friday. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ORDER OF THE DAY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1781-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 135, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 135, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The first one here on the Order of the Day, Stand. Com. Rep. 1781, S.C.R. No. 135 introduced by the good Senator, the Chair of Ag on the other side of the Legislature, has a couple of statements that I thought I'd repeat, in strong support, Mr. Speaker.

"Diversified agriculture results in a variety of locally grown and produced agricultural products available for local consumption, but for export and increases the viability of the ag industry. Job opportunities, it goes on in the fifth paragraph. And agricultural exports that diversify, again, the economy. I don't think our bill made it, the one that is supposed to be for chocolate month. But the business is doing it on its own anyway, but not with help from us. But that's not the subject of the Reso.

"The reason I support one of the ag products, and I think it qualifies for this Reso is because it increases jobs, it's actually been touted as the brightest light on the agricultural horizon right now. More and more coffee people, because of coffee farmers, because of the borer beetle, are now, thank goodness, being saved by cacao. More and more interests. I get calls every day. Whole Foods in Kailua will open tomorrow, and it'll be carrying 100% Hawaiian Grown Chocolate. It is listed on a very prestigious world list now. It's the brightest light.

"It's nice to have a Resolution that says to support the Department of Ag's efforts to stimulate the ag industry. See cacao, actually helps ag products. It helps all of the other ag products. It's not just about itself. It's about other ag products. It's about jobs. It's about the cosmetic industry. But I don't know when this State is going to start to look to bright ideas that are unique to Hawaii, but I'm happy to support this Concurrent Resolution that says that ag is important."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 135, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION EXPRESSING SUPPORT FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE'S EFFORTS TO STIMULATE THE STATE'S AGRICULTURE INDUSTRY, INCREASE AND DIVERSIFY AGRICULTURAL OUTPUT, AND PROMOTE FOOD SECURITY," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Say and Takumi being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1782-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 97, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 97, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER TO CONVENE A WORKING GROUP TO EXPLORE THE CREATION OF A WEB SERVICES-BASED DATABASE PROGRAM TO TRACK UNINSURED MOTORISTS," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Say and Takumi being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1783-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 49, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 49, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1783-12. I just wanted to hope that the Committees that look at this later, in the Conference, if there is a Conference Committee, also look at the fact that we have these roads in limbos on other islands as well. On Oahu of course, we have in both your and my Districts, there are a number of lanes where the ownership is either not known, or people are not taking care of it. So I just hope we'll look at the issue at a statewide level. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 49, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION TO FORM A WORKING GROUP TO EXPEDITIOUSLY RESOLVE THE ISSUE OF ROADS IN LIMBO IN MAUI COUNTY," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Say and Takumi being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1784-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 59, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 59, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in brief support for Stand. Com. No. 1784. Mr. Speaker, I have a good word about old cars. In the Hawaii Kai Christmas Parade, we have all of the Tin Lizzies and you can imagine how many different old cars. So, having a celebration on July 13th is going to be great news for my community, and for the gentleman who stands and watches over us during the House, who puts so much of his time, off session, in keeping his car an antique, the vintage of which I'd forgotten. He does great honor, and we give you honor for July 13th. Thank you. And thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support. Having spent a number of years rebuilding and restoring cars I just wanted to note my support, please."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Brower: "Mr. Speaker, thank you. Two quick items, first I want to wish our Waikiki Office Manager a happy birthday today. We're celebrating her work this afternoon in the office.

"And the second item, Mr. Speaker, after last night, I finally feel like I've done something with my life. Unlike kickball where everyone was a winner, perhaps last night there were winners and loser in the First Annual House and Senate Talent Competition. I would like to commend the Senate. It had more of what I'd call legitimate talent. But the House's success was its creativity and shameless desire to entertain the Capitol audience.

"Speaking of which, I congratulate the Finance Chair, she was outstanding. The Wahiawa Representative basically went on stage and acted like himself and he won the Individual Performer category.

"In addition, the House took home the Team Competition Award. Last night reminded me that working at the Capitol is kind of like a family because there were many people I don't get to see on a daily basis. The Auditorium was packed. Mahalo to the Representative from North Kona, South Kohala, for her work, and if we may request a few words from her. Thank you."

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have the pleasure, I know Marcus has not seen this, but this is yours. This is what you won last night for the Individual category. We are going to return it to the Senate who's going to put a nameplate on this for you.

"Another thing is, I'm so pleased to announce that the House won this. They're going to put a plaque on this and it is a perpetual trophy with the hope that this becomes an annual event.

"But I want to really thank all of my colleagues that really stepped up and were willing to put themselves out there on the stage. I know when you're up there, it's pretty bright lights and it's hard to see people. It's a little strange being up there. But you know, it was a lot of fun, and everybody really got into it.

"I really want to thank everyone who gave money because this was a Foodbank fundraiser, and we raised $1,400. So again, thank you, everybody. Thank you, everybody that came. And thank you, Marcus, for showing us the other side."

Representative Morikawa: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As the lead singer of the Sisters Act for the House, I would like to really thank, especially those who put Jacksons in our basket. That was very impressive. Thank you for your support and for showing up for us."

Representative Ichiyama: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Following along the lines of the previous announcements, on behalf of Co-Chair Representative Ken Ito and myself for the Hawaii Foodbank, we just wanted to thank all of the offices and members and staff who participated in this year's Foodbank drive. We raised a little over $10,000 to benefit the Hawaii Foodbank, the Food Basket on the Big Island, the Maui Food Bank, and the Kauai Independent Food Bank.

"If I could just briefly acknowledge the staff members who helped make this year a success. From Representative Ito's office, Melissa Miranda-Johnson, Also our Chief Clerk, CJ Leong, and the House Accounting Office. And from my own office, Melanie Kuroiwa-Steiner and Cu Ri Lee. Members if you could please join me in a round of applause, thanking them for their hard work. Thank you."

Representative Ito: "Mr. Speaker and Members, this is a reminder. Tomorrow we're having our informational briefing on the Marine Debris from the 2011 Japan tsunami. It's going to be tomorrow, Wednesday April 18, from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock at the Capitol Auditorium. The panel will include representatives from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, National Park Service, US Coast Guard, US Environmental Protection Agency, the Department of the Navy, the Army Corps of Engineers, and the Department of Forestry and Wildlife. This is being coordinated by my office, and Senator Dan Inouye. So, tomorrow, 2 o'clock at the Capitol Auditorium. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Minority, I'd like to congratulate all the winners, the humorists, the singers, those who are multitalented. And I would also add to the gentleman from Waikiki, who tried to change history in the kickball game. Due to a sudden death, the Republicans were declared the winner. Thank you."

Representative Evans: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to make a few comments. It is Equal Pay Day, and I've always stood up and said a few words just as a reminder that today is the day where women now, it takes this many days into the year, before we finally reach equality in terms of pay. I have just a few comments.

"Pay and equity remains a persistent problem that continues to affect women today. It's hard to believe that less than a century ago, the subject of gender equality was little more than a fledgling ideology. Little more than a hope in the hearts of a few brave women suffragists, and other women rights pioneers of the early 19th and 20th centuries throughout the US.

"Today, the hope of these pioneers is manifested in the massive cultural shift we've experienced as a society in regard to women in the workplace. Women are no longer regulated to domestic capacities. Today, women serve as Supreme Court Justices, teach at the front of Ivy League classrooms, and run as Presidential candidates.

"According to a study conducted by John W. Curtis, the Director of Research and Public Policy for the American Association of University of Professors, on the equity between genders, within academic employment. Women make up the majority of the undergraduates and graduate student population in the United States. An even more dramatic figure is the type of degrees earned by women students. More specifically, first professional degrees such as law and medicine have risen from 3% in 1960-61, to an impressive 51% in 2011.

"Despite these figures, women remain at a disadvantage when it comes to employment and competitive pay within these institutions of higher education. Curtis illustrates that even after four decades of efforts to fully involve women in the academic workforce, only 42% of all fulltime faculty staff are women.

"He goes on to explain that women's overall average salary has remained at around 80% of the average for men, since the 1970s. So, Mr. Speaker, I just want to point that out, and acknowledge that we are closing the gap. But we still have 20% to go. Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:05 o'clock p.m., on motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m. tomorrow, Wednesday, April 18, 2012. (Representatives Say and Takumi were excused.)

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain House Bills for Final Reading by consent calendar. (Representative Souki was excused.)

FINAL READING

Representative Chong moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to the following House Bills, seconded by Representative Evans and carried: (Representative Souki was excused.)

H.B. No. 238, HD 2, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 425, HD 3, (SD 2)
H.B. No. 2013, HD 2, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2436, HD 1, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2564, HD 1, (SD 1)

At 11:48 o'clock a.m., Representative Chong requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:49 o'clock a.m.

H.B. No. 238, HD 2, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 238, HD 2, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Chang and Souki being excused.

H.B. No. 425, HD 3, SD 2:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 425, HD 3, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against H.B. 425, as amended. Mr. Speaker, the bill is related to public utilities. What the bill states on page one is that, and I quote, 'It is anticipated that in 2030, 60% of electricity generation will come from fossil fuels.' Mr. Speaker, I'm not ready to take that defeatist attitude, and I don't think we should as a Body. We're saying that we're going to virtually give up on being able to accomplish what we want to accomplish, getting off a larger percentage of fossil fuel, by the year 2030. But the bill says, in the next 18 years, we're not going to accomplish what we want to, and I think that is a very defeatist attitude. I just can't accept that.

"It seemed to me as a Legislature, we should be saying to the Public Utilities Commission, 'Do everything that you can to even exceed what we're trying to accomplish with the clean energy initiative. Do everything that you can to move us off of fossil fuel.' There are young people in this Legislature that within 18 years will be, if they're still here, will be more mature. And they'll look back to today, and say, 'Couldn't we have done better with what we're saying as public policy? Shouldn't we instead say, Public Utilities Commission, you need to do more?'

"The bill in its new language says that the Public Utilities Commission shall consider the costs and benefits of a diverse fossil fuel portfolio, still mired in oil. That's the new language in the bill. I know that there's a savings clause that says, 'Well, we're not excluding the utilities from meeting the renewable portfolios standards.' But here's the plain language. Public Utilities Commission shall consider the costs and benefits of a diverse fossil fuel portfolio.

"And then what's even more puzzling, the Committee Report that we're adopting through this motion, states that, and I quote, 'Careful consideration and planning must therefore be given to the future supply and pricing of fossil fuels in order to mitigate the negative impacts of high fossil fuel costs on this State's residents and businesses.'

"Well that's pretty arrogant. How the blazes can we, Hawaii, an island state, have any impact, mitigate high fossil fuel costs. What are we going to do? Say to the nations that really prefer to do us great harm, give us your oil at a cheaper cost. We import, basically from other countries, not from our mainland United States. Now how the blazes are we going to mitigate those costs? The only way we're going to mitigate them is if we get off of fossil fuel. We can't be arrogant enough to say, 'Hey, we can have an impact on mitigating those costs of fossil fuel in the future.' I mean, that just, I'm sorry. That just can't happen. But we can have a huge impact if we really move forward more aggressively with our renewable energy. I know I've talked to you all about wave energy again, and again, and again.

"Let me just remind you, that the United States Department of Energy's Wave Report has come out this year, and they're indicating that we will have, on Oahu, three times the amount of wave energy power than we need for the entire Island. Why aren't we instead saying, 'Okay, let's move ahead with this new industry. Let's give the focus to that.' We're surrounded by the ocean that has great energy, and great power that can light up our buildings, can light up our State at a much lower cost. Single digit per kilowatt hour, versus the 30 some-odd cents we're now paying. Why aren't we moving ahead with that as our public policy, and saying this is the way we need to go?"

Representative Pine rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. I don't like to stand here at my age and say, 'I'm going to be a defeatist.' And say, 'In the next 18 years we can't really reduce our use of fossil fuel.' And for the young people in this Body, you youngsters. I would expect you would want to stand up and say, 'I know we can do better.' Because it's the young people that are really reaching out to do that. And instead what we're doing is saying, 'Go ahead. Assume we'll be stuck, mired in the fossil fuel.' And we'll be able to have some impact on changing the international cost of providing that polluting material to light up our islands.

"Well the Marines within about a year and a half are going to have a wave hub in the water on the Windward side of the Island. There were a number of international and local companies meeting with the Marines, talking about the procedure for hooking up their wave energy converters. That's the way we can go, Mr. Speaker. And that would say something if this Body instead said that we're not going to accept the status quo. We're going to listen to the young people in our State that want a green energy future. And we're going to set forth the policy for the Public Utilities Commission that says, 'Let's get there,' and we're going to get all the other arms of government working ahead to do that. I'm proudly voting no on this, because I don't agree we need to stay mired in fossil fuel. And I wish others would join me. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. May I have the words of the Representative from Kailua entered into the Journal as my own? I have a few footnotes to that. I would describe the bill as a loosey-goosey language which gives an out, an excuse, for not realizing who we are and where we're going in the future. It's like, Mr. Speaker, someone said, 'You know when I grow up, I might be a fireman.' How much commitment does that really say about what you really want to be when you grow up?

"If we really want to get rid of that $5 billion import of fossil fuel, we can't have language at the beginning of this bill that says, 'You know, unless there's a technological breakthrough that we have got to have 60% still in fossil fuel.' That really turns the odds on its head, and I think everyone genuinely in their heart wants to get off of fossil fuels. But when we do bills like this, it makes us look like we're really not sincere. It looks like, well, there's more political rhetoric. Because I know someone may stand up and say, 'But look, in the last part of the new language it says that, nothing in this section shall subvert the obligation of electrical utilities to meet the renewable portfolio standards set forth in section 269-92.'

"If that is true, Mr. Speaker, why do we even need this bill? Why are we giving an out or a possibility if there's no technological lightning from heaven that changes this formula, then we're going to need this. As leaders, we're supposed to mean what we say, and say what we mean. And this bill makes us look like we don't know what either we mean, or what we say that we mean. We're going to keep our word. So, for those reasons, I join my colleague in voting no."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'm not sure where to start. This is a good piece of legislation that is for the benefit of the entire State. If you look at the renewable portfolio standards, if you look at the clean energy initiative, yes, by 2030 get off oil by 60%. So where is the other 40% going to come from? Where? 40% is still going to have to be, at some point, fossil fuel, because we need firm power. Not when the sun's outside, or when the wind is blowing. When we need firm power. Think about it.

"If you're a utility, Hawaiian Electric or otherwise, it is the only industry I know of, where you don't need a reservation to use the service. We all go home. We plug in our Mac Airbooks, or our soy latte maker, it's got to work. We expect it to be on. We don't all plug into a PV panel. So where does the power have to come from? At some point, for the foreseeable future, we're going to have to use a mix. It is like any other difficult problem. There is not one single bullet solution. It is not always going to be only renewable. You know people talk about sustainability on this Floor. Guess what? It's not just environmental. It has to be economically feasible and socially equitable.

"So, how do you tell somebody, that someone who has money and is willing to pay 5 bucks a kilowatt hour for some renewable. Pat themselves on the back and show the rest of the world, 'Look how clean we are.' While another person who is working two jobs and has a $300 electric bill just so somebody else can feel good about themselves. This is about socio-economic equality. Are we still for renewable? Absolutely. Is renewable the only solution? No. And it's kind of interesting that when we talk about renewable, nobody here wants to really build the cable for the only firm power that is here, which is geothermal. So I ask my colleagues to take a look at the broader picture. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Thielen and Ward be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a point of information, but I believe that I heard the Representative say that it's going to be 60% renewable and 40% fossil fuel. If as his predecessor would say, according to the bill, if you read it, it says on line 5, it is anticipated that in 2030, 60% of electricity generation will come from fossil fuel, not 40%, 60% fossil fuels. I heard 40%. If it was 40%, I would agree with you. That's good enough. But it's 60% which means, Mr. Speaker, we haven't come very far.

"In fact, we've been 3 years really pushing this. On Oahu we're at 3% renewable. And I'm not going to get into the way that we're taking away tax credits to disincentivize the PV industry, which we are doing. But if this says that 60% is going to be there in 2030, I think it's a very, very poor example of leadership. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I disagree with a lot of comments I heard earlier. But part of it is because, taking a sentence or two out of the context of the whole bill sometimes creates an image of what the bill is about. I want to clearly state that I read the bill totally different from what I heard previous speakers say. What this is really talking about, in my opinion, is that realistically we have to realize that we're very invested in the State of Hawaii in terms of our current assets. A lot of investment in the grid and generation facilities. A lot of investment going on right now in research and development. We have discussions about tax credits, trying to get people converted. But those generally go for people that can afford paying for those systems, which are extremely expensive for some of these renewable energies.

"So what I think this bill's trying to say is, ideally we want to get to a certain place. But realistically, along the way, we're going to have to work together like with the Public Utility Commission and make sure that whatever we're doing generating electricity has to be efficient. It has to be the best it can be. The other more important piece to this is we have to change behaviors. So a big part of this is the Public Utility Commission, working on, you know, making sure that our behaviors are such that we have energy efficiencies.

"So I think the goal of the bill is to give the Public Utilities Commission more 'umph' in saying, that while research and development is out there, while we're trying to get the cost of renewables down to where people can afford them. Until such time we have breakthrough technologies, so we can have batteries, so that with wind energy, and all the other renewables, we can actually store the energy. Until we have some breakthroughs, we, collectively, we have to address this problem. We have to stop using electricity. Electricity generation, I think, is the bigger policy discussion that we're trying to address in this bill. And I'm really glad that we're moving it forward, because I'd like it to be a reality check.

"You know, ideally we're going to get to renewable. Renewable, at this point in time is extremely expensive. I can tell you, in Waikoloa, everybody's talking about how they can get on renewable. But when you look at the cost of photovoltaic, and solar, and just the whole, trying to get there. Unless people have saved a lot of money, they really can't afford to do it. So what do we do in the meantime? Well, we better work with the people that are generating electricity, and figure out a way to make sure they're more efficient to drive down those costs, because in the end it's the rate taxpayers that are getting hurt. So I strongly support the bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. My second time, Mr. Speaker, I know. I'd like to respond to the Majority Leader's comments. That we need firm power. The head of Maui Electric who has attended wave energy conferences overseas because of his interest in and awareness that is a power source for Hawaii. He made this statement that wave energy is essentially a firm power. Well how? How is that happening? Because of the NOAA satellites where the utility can obtain the forecast 24 to 48 hours out, to know whether there's going to be a change within that wave energy resource, and then make the adjustments. So it's not like solar, which is not a firm power. It's not like wind, which is not a firm power. Wave energy, surrounding our islands, is a firm power.

"The other thing I found very puzzling that the Majority Leader said, was his plea for socially equitable power sources. If that's the case, wave energy comes in at single digit cost, delivered. Hawaiian Electric's fossil fuel raises our rates to about the highest in the nation, 30 some-odd cents or more per kilowatt hour. We're talking about wave energy, which is essentially a firm power that can cost one-third of what the utility presently uses.

"So what I'm saying is, where is the policy direction of this Body. Why aren't we being more positive, more farsighted, looking ahead toward a source that, really, will reduce our rates for all of our consumers? Will provide the firmness that the utilities need? And saying to the public utilities, help us to get there. This Body has been so silent on giving the support to this technology, and yet young people in this State are coming up with designs for wave energy converters. That's our youth. That's the youth I'm talking about. They wouldn't sit here saying, 'We'll keep our feet mired in fossil fuel and believe that we can't do any better by the year 2030.'

"Thank God for the young, and thank God for the Marines, because they're going to be moving us. But unfortunately, the majority of the Members in here are going to take the defeatist attitude and vote in favor of this bill. I'm not. I say no. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, one point that I like about the bill is, I think it tries to bring some honesty in our efforts to meet our energy needs, and hopefully we will exceed what this bill asks for. I think that this bill is setting a basement, not a ceiling. Now, I don't know what type of military the Minority Party envisions. Will we be sending tanks into battle that run on solar energy, or gas energy. The military uses oil and nuclear for all its major combat energy needs. They do experimental energy items regarding the sea, as was brought by the Representative from Kailua.

"And when I read the bill, since everyone's reading the bill more clearly, it says that by 2030, we anticipate 60% of our energy needs for electricity will come from fossil fuels. The key word is anticipate. Because in the same line it says, it depends on technological breakthroughs. And lastly, I would like to conclude with, in our life, generally speaking, use of fuel is voluntary. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. In opposition still. I think it's clear that the Representative that spoke, from Kailua, regarding the Marines' use of wave energy was not, again, was not referring to tanks and things that are going to be used in warfare. But to the alternative energy available here for the State of Hawaii, and what they're utilizing. You know, in terms of financing, and making sure that people have help, leadership. Leadership starts with vision. You really want it. You've got to see it. And you've got to explore those who have the same vision as you, and ask them, how can we do it. If other jurisdictions can do it, I don't understand why we cannot do it.

"It kind of reminds me of when I was a teacher back at Ma'ema'e. I never thought my kids couldn't do it. There's no glass ceiling for a kid. You say he can do it, he can do it. You help him. You help him. And with the clean energy initiative, if you have vision. You have the will to do it. You'll start to find people who can make it happen. I seem to recollect that we did have legislation in the last Administration that was focused particularly, in fact with the Obama Administration, to help finance things.

"You've got to want to do it. But if you say things, like this legislation, will kind of. Okay. Maybe. You've got to want it. And we all know that concept, because you wouldn't be elected here, if you didn't have that. So if you had that fire in the belly for clean energy, for doing what the young, what we need now. We could do it. I think we could do it. I know we can do it."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. We've heard a lot about wave energy, Mr. Speaker. I've cleaned up, and been through, seen five different tsunamis. With rising sea levels and climate change, the entire plant of ocean energy could end up about a half a mile inland."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. I have to speak against this motion. I know that the intent is good, and I respect the Chairman for providing this. But the State Constitution provides that all property tax responsibilities belong to the county, and I don't believe that we can supersede the Constitution. Thank you, very much."

Representative Awana rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. Our family owns Kuleana lands," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution 116, approving the selection of Daniel Kahikina Akaka to be inducted into the Aloha Order of Merit.

"It is an honor and privilege to stand in support of Senator Akaka, our United States Senator, and to recognize him for his many years of dedicated service to our country and his unwavering commitment to the people of Hawaii.

"He is a longstanding member of the U.S. Senate Armed Services and Veterans' Affairs Committees and was honored by the National Guard Association of the United States at the National Guard Memorial in Washington, D.C. on November 5, 2011 as the 2011 recipient of the Harry S. Truman Award for Distinguished Service.

"Senator Akaka was recognized for his work in helping to increase benefits, full-time manning, and the availability of body armor for the National Guard. He was also recognized for rewriting the Post-9/11 GI Bill to include National Guardsmen mobilized while on Title 32 status. Sen. Akaka was nominated for this award by retired United States Army Col. Raymond Jardine, Jr.

"The Truman award is the highest award given by the National Guard Association of the United States. Past recipients have been Presidents, Senators, Congressmen, Governors and senior general officers.

"Senator Akaka joins Senator Daniel K. Inouye and Governor Neil Abercrombie as the third recipient of this national award from Hawaii. Despite being one of the smallest states in the Union, Hawaii, with three recipients, has the most Truman Award recipients of all the 50 states.

"Senator Akaka is a combat and war veteran who served in the Pacific, with the United States Army Corp of Engineers, during World War II. He was initially based at Schofield Barracks and then assigned to the Pacific islands of Tinian and Saipan.

"After the war, Senator Akaka returned to Hawaii, and like many young veterans of his generation, he attended college with the help of the GI Bill. Upon graduating from the University of Hawaii at Manoa, he became a teacher and spent many years educating the young people of Hawaii. Since 1976, he has represented Hawaii in Washington D.C., first in the House of Representatives and currently in the Senate. That's 36 years of service to our state and our people.

"Senator Akaka is the only Native Hawaiian and the only member of Chinese ancestry serving in the United States Senate. As the first United States Senator of Native Hawaiian ancestry, Sen. Akaka brings the unique perspective of Hawaii's history and multicultural society to bear in his effort to promote dialogue and reconciliation between Native Hawaiians and the Federal Government. Not only does he represent the people of Hawaii in Washington, but he is also an example to us of the way to live and serve with aloha. He has taught us all that you can be nice, pleasant, and gracious – you can have the spirit of aloha as you work with others – and still be an effective and powerful lawmaker.

"I have many personal memories of Senator Akaka. I recall a time that I was walking through the Senate's Hart Building with some National Guard buddies from other states. There in front of us was Senator Akaka. As is the case on many occasions with people from Hawaii, Senator Akaka embraced me with his signature hug of aloha. We briefly talked about the National Guard priorities before his Committee. After parting, my fellow Guard colleagues couldn't believe what they just witnessed. A U.S. senator full of welcome, full of aloha.

"I also will cherish the many times we would see him and Auntie Millie with Grand Master Hong. They would spend hours, if not days, with Master Hong either at the Chi Center or at Master's Punaluu home. There Senator Akaka and all of us would have some time to get re-energized. There's something to be said about spending time in the furo and watching as the days turn to nights, and back to days.

"A few years ago Senator Akaka sat down with Leslie Wilcox on the PBS Hawaii show "Long Story Short." These are some of the words of wisdom that Senator Akaka shared during that interview. He said:

The people of Hawaii tend to work together so much better than other places. And I feel that that style is really needed in the Capitol and in the country. And I think the diversity of Hawaii, the diversity of people has helped to bring that about. Hawaii is Hawaii because of its culture, its people, its diversity; and we need to keep that.

"Grace, dignity and aloha. These are the words that reminded me of day when Senator Akaka announced that he would retire from the U.S. Senate. He will leave his seat this year. But, he leaves on his own terms and at his own time. He leaves public office just as he's worked throughout his nearly 40 years in Washington, D.C. – with grace, dignity and aloha.

"Hawaii is Hawaii also because of the lifetime commitment and tremendous contributions of Senator Akaka. For these reasons, I strongly support this Resolution."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.C.R. No. 116, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION APPROVING THE SELECTION OF DANIEL KAHIKINA AKAKA TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE ALOHA ORDER OF MERIT," was adopted, with Representatives Ching and Tokioka being excused.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 297, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PROBATION SERVICES FEE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 1671, HD 2, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to express my reservations regarding H.B. 1671. This bill imposes time limits on rendering administrative and judicial review decisions. It limits protests to those of a minimum percentage of the contract value, and requires posting of a protest bond, which is to be forfeited if the protesting party does not prevail.

"My concerns rest with comments stated by DCCA that this bill allows inadequate time to review an agency decision. The original House Draft appropriately revived Act 175 which streamlined the procurement process for two years following its passage in 2009. This version unfortunately does not. Furthermore, the City & County Department of Budget and Fiscal Services also suggests that a 20 day deadline for protest review may yield increased requests for appeals because initial government reviews and determinations were rushed to meet the deadline.

"In the end, the public may pay a dear price for minor degrees of efficiency saved by administration. Citizens who seek an administrative hearing or judicial relief might not receive court hearings just because the administrative staff or court may not have processed applications promptly. The protest bond deposit, moreover, punishes those who try to seek relief just because they lose. Instead, we should examine whether those seeking reviews had frivolous claims or not. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.B. 1671. This measure is the accountants answer to decreasing the amount of lengthy and frivolous procurement protests. As you know, protests have taken on the role as a way to frustrate the procurement process. This bill discourages frivolous protest by adding materiality as an eligibility criterion for protests. In addition, a bond requirement by the protestor was added to the protest.

"This measure also limits the time for the protest process. Time limits have been added to the administrative process. These time limits dictate when a protest must be filed to the amount of time a procurement officer or hearings officer must render a decision. To accommodate these timelines the rules of evidence was changed to quicken the process.

"These changes should make the protest process faster and should also lessen the amount of protests in the procurement process. For these reasons, I stand in support of H. B. 1671."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1671, HD 2, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Although I value the considerations of efficiency taken into account by H.B. 1754, I must express sincere reservations as well. H.B. 1754 permits the mailing of absentee ballots to all registered voters in areas with fewer than five hundred voters. Without this bill, each of those small districts would require a unique ballot type and an individual polling place.

"Logistically, this bill was clearly founded by sound logic: more voters are now voting by mail than in person. Indeed, there have been cases where only 75 voters show up in person to cast ballots in districts of several hundred registered voters. Given reapportionment delays, we may inevitably end up with small voting pockets each requiring unique ballot types. Mail out ballots would save some capital, in costs and operators needed to run a polling place. Residents of these small districts would also have the option to vote in person at an early polling site.

"Nonetheless, this bill violates our founding principle of good governance, allowing a Chief Election Officer or Clerk to unilaterally decide not to establish a polling place in certain areas. In the unlikely event that political biases arise, unethical decisions could skew the integrity of Hawaii's voting process altogether.

"Furthermore, many individuals still prefer to vote in person, distrusting the mail service, or because they want help to understand voting procedures. Often, these highly concerned individuals are also those most diligent about the voting process, and those who consider their selections most thoroughly. They are also often elderly residents seeking to honor the American tradition of in-person voting. There is a good chance that these voters will not be able to make it to an early voting site, for they may not be able to leave work outside the official Election Day holiday. If we rob these individuals the ability to vote in person, being uncomfortable with their limited alternatives they may not be able to vote at all.

"We must not disregard the rights of certain minority groups, such as the elderly, for when we do so we upset the equilibrium in Hawaii's selection pool of voters. Votes should accurately reflect the distribution of a population, and by biasing the system against certain preferences – especially those most loyal to diligent voting – we violate our nation's core values. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1754, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 1967, HD 2, SD 2:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 1967, HD 2, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAL CLAIM CONCILIATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 2169, HD 2, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2169, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. I'm a CPA. I'm a Certified Public Accountant," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2169, HD 2, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC ACCOUNTANCY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 2374, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2374, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF LANGUAGE ACCESS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2454, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RAP BACK PROGRAM OF THE HAWAII CRIMINAL JUSTICE DATA CENTER," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

H.B. No. 2574, HD 1, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2574, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2574, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NOTIFICATION OF CHAPTER 91 HEARINGS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Saiki being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I have two announcements. The first is, that on this Sunday, April 22nd, the I Love Kailua Town party will be held. And that's from 11:00 till 4:00. Live entertainment, food booths, crafts and plants. It is on the roadway area fronting Macy's.

"The second announcement is I would like to thank the Members for participating in our annual Hemp Aloha Friday. For those of you that wore hemp shirts or natural fiber shirts in honor of Earth Day, I thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, in 1999, the Legislature passed a bill establishing the Industrial Hemp Research Project. Governor Cayetano signed that into law. The research project took place over a three-year period, and was highly successful in identifying the strain, and the variety that would work best in Hawaii. The industrial hemp variety.

"The University of Hawaii at the same time did research out there, and discovered that hemp is one of the best crops to pull contaminants from the soil. So, in other words, when you have a Super Fund site, one of your best ways of cleaning that up is to plant industrial hemp.

"The former Kentucky State Treasurer has just commented in his leading sentence that, 'Smoking hemp can't get you high. It just might make you feel a little foolish that you tried.' And then he goes on with, 'More significantly, legalized industrial hemp production could emerge as a prolific cash crop that could bring hundreds of millions of dollars of revenue to Kentucky, and many billions of dollars to the United States.' He notes that, there are more than 25,000 uses for the crop, including rope, clothing, automotive paneling, door installation, and even makeup.

"More exciting to the former Kentucky State Treasurer, is hemp's application as a clean burning alternative fuel. He notes, 'Hemp burns with no carbon emissions, produces twice as much ethanol per acre as corn. And while bio-fuel critics have raised alarms at the diversion of food products into fuel production causing a recent spike in food prices, hemp has no such negative economic side effects. Moreover, hemp crops need no pesticides to flourish and their cultivation leaves the soil more enriched. Legalizing industrial hemp would provide a no risk, no victim, economic jackpot for the United States.' Then he notes, '70% of the Kentuckians, support the legalized use of industrial hemp.'

"Equally exciting, Mr. Speaker, is hemp as a building product. This is a legal product, produced in the United Kingdom and brought back by me, to Hawaii. This is a hemp and lime composite and they are building homes out of this in England. The homes are termite impervious. Termites don't like it. They just leave it alone, which would be wonderful for Hawaii. It's also a very insulating material. When your walls are built out of this industrial hemp, you don't need air conditioning, and the termites won't eat it. So, when you take a look at our ag land, Mr. Speaker, and you realize that we want in an active agricultural production, we also want to stimulate building. Both of these work together. And while Hawaii had its initial research project, I would like to see Hawaii move forward into full-grown agricultural production.

"Speaker Emeritus had an excellent bill to start that. I think that we have to look at industrial hemp as economic development. Those bills should not be referred to Public Safety. They don't have any business there. Pry some of this off, and try to smoke it. You'll just get diarrhea and a headache. This is not hallucinogenic, and the bills that are promoting industrial hemp need to be put into Economic Development and Agriculture. People in this Body need to realize, this is Hawaii's future, its green future. Happy Earth Day."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just an announcement. The Kam Lions will be doing their Earth Day project at the Palama Settlement, planting flowers there. I'll be there."

"And it is, starting tomorrow, National Park Week. National Park Week was started by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1906 and it is why he is considered the greatest preservationist President of all Presidents. It started with Yellowstone. It's also to conserve the scenery, the national and historic objects, and wildlife to give everlasting breath to a step back from the hustle and bustle of life. And it is also accessible for everyone, unlike expensive parks and cruises that at the time charged money."

"It was to defend against encroaching pollution and it says, 'Theodore Roosevelt said it's important we value the prosperity of our National Parks. Not just for the enjoyment of posterity, but for land, water animals that we aim to maintain symbiotic relationships with. The National Park shall be forever the fountain of youth for Mother Nature in our aging and expanding world.'"

"Our National Parks here in Hawaii are Haleakala, obviously, Hawaii Volcanoes on the Big Island, Kalaupapa on Maui, Kaloko Honokohau National Historical Park, Pu'uuhonua o Haunau Hōnaunau, and of course, Pu'ukohola Heiau on the Big Island and the Pearl Harbor. It's National Park Week, starting tomorrow. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano, for the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Culture and the Arts requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of decision making today, Friday, April 20th at 3:25 o'clock p.m. in Room 329," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee: "Lastly, Mr. Speaker, I'd be remiss if I didn't stand up and share this. On behalf of my fellow colleague from Kailua, I was at the new Whole Foods opening a couple days ago, and in one of the cereal bins I look down, and it's hemp cereal. It looks just like, I'm told, it looks just like oregano, Mr. Speaker. But you can consume it all you like, without even having to light up. Thank you, very much."

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain House Bills for Final Reading by consent calendar. (Representatives Marumoto, Oshiro and Tokioka were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Chong moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to the following House Bill, seconded by Representative Evans and carried: (Representatives Marumoto, Oshiro and Tokioka were excused.)

H.B. No. 2656, HD 2, (SD 2)

H.B. No. 2656, HD 2, SD 2:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2656, HD 2, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Coffman rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman's written remarks are as follows:

"The intent of HB2656 is to provide a date certain that three in-state crematoriums, that have been exempt from air permits since they were in operation before March 20, 1972, begin the process of obtaining air permits. Several Representatives expressed concern that the crematoriums had to be in compliance with all regulatory requirements by the application deadline. This issue created unfounded concerns that the crematoriums could or would be shut down on the application deadline of December 31, 2013.

"Based upon an email response from Nolan Hirai, Acting Program Manager Clean Air Branch, the required deadline of December 31, 2013 specified in HB2656, SD2, is the date when a permit application is required to be submitted to the Department of Health. There are no changes in compliance standards to be dealt with by the affected crematoriums before submitting a permit application. Although the additional requirements will only be determined after completing the permit review process, they may consist of primarily monitoring, recordkeeping and reporting provisions. There are no anticipated major physical changes to the facilities, assuming they are currently abiding by the standards that apply to them. The Department will work closely with the facility to make sure they can comply with their requirements without placing undue hardship on the facility. Upon issuance of an air permit, additional requirements in the form of permit conditions will become applicable to the facility.

"In telephone conversations, the Department of Health Clean Air Branch has stated that there would only be an operational problem with any crematorium if the facility were not actively working to resolve any non-compliance issues. Based upon these comments, any action to replace an existing crematorium with a new facility in order to become compliant with the requirements of an air permit would indicate action and allow operations of the older facility to continue until replaced by the new facility within a reasonable (several years) time frame."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know there's been some discussion over the past couple of days and I appreciate the extra day that we had, from Friday to today. I made a request to you, Mr. Speaker, and Leadership, to give us one more day, I think there's some misunderstanding regarding what this bill and what it will do as it relates to the cemetery, the Oahu Cemetery Association, OCA, in Nuuanu.

"The fact is, Mr. Speaker, this bill, according to their attorney, if implemented, will put them out of business. The December 31, 2013 date, in the bill on page 1, section 2, requires them to submit a permit. And as we all know, this crematory has been in existence for more than 100 years. This permit will be on the current facility, Mr. Speaker, and we all know, everybody knows, without a doubt, that they are not in compliance. I think reasonable minds will look at this and recommend, if given some additional time, that we should take a look at a dropping of the grandfather provision, put in force through federal and State laws for crematoriums constructed prior to March 20th, 1972. I think that's the better solution to this situation.

"We recognize the concern of the community, but I do believe, and support OCA's commitment to addressing the concerns. They want to build. They want to rebuild the crematoriums to be in compliance with the Clean Air Act. They also want to comply with the concerns or address the concerns of the community. But this bill, Mr. Speaker, in its current form will not do that. It will not give them the opportunity. It will shut them down. And that will be a public health crisis for this State, because as you know, Mr. Speaker, this is the only crematorium in the State that can cremate remains of people, 300 pounds and over.

"So again, I publicly request an extra day, so that we can address this. But if not, I urge the Governor to veto this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Actually I know that my Community is divided on that. I was going to explain that in written comments. But at this time, I'd like to change my vote to a no vote, with written comments. And I ask that the words of Representative from Pearl City be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Clearly, H.B. 2656 was composed with the best intentions to monitor environmental hazards, and as a longtime environmental advocate and member of relevant House Committees, I do not readily dismiss such concerns. Let me then explain my reasons for voting against this bill. This bill requires all crematoriums operating without air pollution control permits and that were constructed prior to March 20, 1972, to submit permit applications to the Department of Health by December 31, 2013.

"My concerns surround the ability of Oahu Cemetery Association, a nonprofit organization, to maintain the irreplaceable services offered by Oahu Cemetery: one of Hawaii's gems on the National Registry of Historic Places. Three crematory units operating within Oahu Cemetery are over one hundred years old, and the State's only crematory facilities able to accommodate deceased persons exceeding three hundred pounds in weight. About one-third of the two hundred cremations performed at Oahu Cemetery each month are for such large bodies that would not have qualified for cremation elsewhere.

"Advocates for H.B. 2656 claim that it merely calls for permit applications to be submitted by 2013, and does not demand that final air quality standards be already met. Nonetheless, such applications will very likely include checklists for basic requirements, and if Oahu Cemetery cannot check off all necessary items they may not be permitted to operate for a significant number of years. If shut down, three of Oahu's seven crematoriums – almost half of the island's total crematory capacity – will be lost. To quote my colleague, Representative Mark Takai, "we cannot afford to let these guys go out of business. It will be a public health crisis."

"Oahu Cemetery Association is now actively pursuing construction and installation of new crematory units, which will allow it to meet clean air standards. Efforts are expected to be complete no later than 2018, but that leaves many years in jeopardy of H.B. 2656 and its red tape. As Clifford Hosoi, President of a local mortuary for the last 35 years and son of his predecessor, explains, "If Oahu Cemetery is shut down for any length of time it is uncertain whether the other crematory operators can efficiently absorb the increased cremations." Oahu Cemetery, he catalogues, holds many invaluable attributes: its crematorium is centrally located within the cemetery grounds, and its accessibility controls transportation costs; it offers special services upon request, such as peace of mind and witness cremations; it maintains a beautiful, well-funded cemetery for plot holders and families with members interred there; it keeps services affordable; it accommodates turnaround times to bereavement schedules; it remains dependable when other vendors need to repair their crematoriums.

"Cremation is commonly deemed ecologically superior to body burial. I agree with the advocates of H.B. 2656 that proper repairs to antiquated crematory facilities will ultimately benefit all. However, without enough time, immediate and chronic public health hazards far worse than any we experience now will afflict us without the necessary services offered by Oahu Cemetery. Thank you."

Representative Giugni rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to insert into the record, an email that we received today at 12:06 from Nanette Napoleon, the Trustee, and Hal Lewis Jr., Superintendent of the Oahu Cemetery Association, into the record."

Representative Takai submitted the following email:

"From: Middendorf, Bernadette [bjm@torkildson.com]
Sent: Monday, April 23, 2012 12:06 PM

Cc: Hetherington, J. George
Subject: HB 2656 HD2 SD2 Dear Representative,

This e-mail requests an amendment to HB 2656 HD2 SD2, extending the deadline by which all crematoriums constructed prior to March 20, 1972 must submit permit applications to the Department of Health ("DOH") until December 31, 2018.

Oahu Cemetery Association ("OCA") is a Hawaii non-profit corporation that owns and operates Oahu Cemetery. OCA operates three crematory units all of which are more than 100 years old. OCA is actively pursuing construction and installation of new crematory units, which will make OCA's compliance with clean air standards technically feasible. OCA expects to complete this effort by no later than the end of 2018. OCA opposes HB 2656 HD2 SD2 only because the December 31, 2013 deadline does not provide enough time for OCA to replace our existing crematoriums and comply with permit requirements.

Proponents of HB 2656 HD2 SD2 contend that this bill will have no real effect on the operation of OCA's crematoriums because it requires only that OCA submit an application for an air pollution control permit no later than December 31, 2013. However, the permit process, as described in Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 342B and Hawaii Administrative Rules Chapter 11.60.1, is ambiguous as to whether OCA's three 100-year old crematoriums could meet the necessary standards and approvals to obtain a permit. Although OCA has initiated communications with the DOH, we have not yet received any guidance about the permitting process. If the permits are submitted prior to December 31, 2013, we anticipate that OCA's crematoriums will be unable to comply with the existing air quality standards. Accordingly, the permits will be denied, and three of Oahu's seven crematoriums – almost one-half of the island's total crematory capacity – will be closed sometime in 2014.

HB 2656 HD2 SD2 needs to be amended to provide OCA time to complete the replacement process. The practical consequence of the passage of HB 2656 HD2 SD2 in its current form will likely be that OCA's three crematoriums will close in 2014 and its services to John A. Burns School of Medicine and the four mortuaries that lack crematory facilities of their own will cease. At current levels of cremation, Oahu's four remaining crematories are unlikely to have the capacity to satisfy the Oahu residents' demand for cremation services. OCA now performs about 200 cremations each month. About 30% of those cremations are for large bodies weighing more than 300 pounds, which cannot be accommodated by Oahu's remaining crematories. Upon the closure of OCA's crematories there will be no facility on Oahu that will provide cremation services for such large bodies. Such an outcome would have an obvious, devastating impact on countless Oahu families and could result in a public backlash against this bill.

OCA understands the concerns of the community and is committed to operating a clean and efficient crematory. As we proceed with our plans to replace and upgrade the crematory units, we have implemented new operating and training procedures to reduce emissions as much as possible. OCA has cooperated, and will continue to cooperate, with the Clean Air Branch in its effort to maintain optimal air quality. As requested, we have submitted monthly cremation logs and reported each cremation of a large body to the Clean Air Branch. When the Clean Air Branch conducts inspections and takes opacity readings at our facilities, we make sure we have an active cremation in progress for them to observe and inspect. To date, we have not had been cited for any violation or assessed any penalty for noncompliance with regulations administered by the Clean Air Branch.

OCA understands and agrees with the purpose of this measure. It requests an amendment extending the deadline for submission of a permit application to December 31, 2018 to allow us adequate time to replace our crematory units prior to implementation of the requirement for a permit application, thereby ensuring that sufficient crematory facilities are available to meet the needs of all Oahu residents while the new units are being constructed. Please feel free to contact us if you should have any questions. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely Yours,

Nanette Napoleon, Trustee

Representative Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1799-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 49, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 49, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION TO FORM A WORKING GROUP TO EXPEDITIOUSLY RESOLVE THE ISSUE OF ROADS IN LIMBO STATEWIDE," was adopted, with Representatives Marumoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Hanohano, for the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1800-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 155, SD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 155, SD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support, but with reservations, and I'd like to explain why. My concern is that the Resolution is requesting, or urging the Kahoolawe Island Reserve Commission to require each, and I want to stress each, stewardship program conducting activities on Kahoolawe to obtain liability and property damage insurance.

"The difficulty will be, that this will prevent a lot of the smaller groups from being able to go out. Individual insurance policies, particularly, when they're going to cover the youth that travel to the island can be very expensive. I think there's a better way to do this, to make sure that there is insurance coverage, but not requiring each of the different stewardship programs to get their own policy. That's going to prevent a lot of young people from being able to reach the island and learn about their heritage and the cultural significance of Kahoolawe. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, also with reservations, and a couple of comments. Mr. Speaker, I too concur that we should keep as many visitors, encourage to visit and to participate in the rebuilding and the enjoyment of Kahoolawe. I know when we had the opportunity to go to the Island of Niihau, we didn't have to have insurance. So to have insurance, it looks like it's getting too formal, too restrictive. And Mr. Speaker, I'm sure when Pat Saiki had elder Bush, President Bush, stop the bombing of this, the intent was not to put up a gate of taxation, insurance, or other things, but to have the great and full enjoyment of that Island by as many people as possible. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 155, SD 2, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE KAHO'OLAWA ISLAND RESERVE COMMISSION TO REQUIRE EACH STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM CONDUCTING ACTIVITIES ON THE KAHO'OLAWA ISLAND RESERVE TO OBTAIN LIABILITY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE INSURANCE AND LIST THE STATE AS AN ADDITIONAL INSURED," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Marumoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

FINAL READING

Representative Chong moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to the following House Bills, seconded by Representative Evans and carried: (Representatives Marumoto, Oshiro and Tokioka were excused.)

H.B. No. 1524, HD 2, (SD 2)
H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2264, HD 2, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2266, HD 1, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2273, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2296, HD 1, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 2429, HD 1, (SD 1)

The Chair addressed the Clerk who announced that the record of votes for H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, SD 1, had been received which indicated that the requisite number of House Conferees appointed had agreed to the amendments made by the Senate, and had cast affirmative votes to report said measure to the Floor for final disposition.

H.B. No. 1524, HD 2, SD 2:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 1524, HD 2, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 1524 HD2 SD2 which would not only establish clear criminal penalties for agricultural theft, but provide restitution to victims of this crime. Based on requests from a number of constituents on the Windward side of Oahu, I introduced the first plant theft bill, HB 12, last year. Although HB 12 was deferred in Committee, it was combined with HB 1524 HD1, as an HD2, which requires "those convicted of theft in the First, Second, Third or Fourth degree of an agricultural product or commodity to pay restitution to the victim, in an amount equal to the value of what was stolen and the cost of replanting". Unfortunately last Session, HB 1524 was passed by the House and stalled in the Senate.

"During the interim, I met with a Windward Resident Task Force who worked hard to educate key legislators on the devastating impact agricultural theft has had on our farming communities. Millions of dollars, not to mention man-hours, have been lost due to agricultural theft. We were pleased to have concerned legislators visit Waimanalo farmers and speak directly with them about how theft has affected their businesses. The decision to keep HB 1524 HD2 moving this Session through the legislative process was applauded by many, including these small businesses that survive on very tight profit margins.

"Beginning as HB 12, and ending as HB 1524 HD2 SD2, plant theft legislation has travelled a challenging road. Passage of this bill will mean so much for so many. Stronger laws that protect our constituents from vandalism and theft will send out a strong message that violence and crime will not be tolerated in our islands. This bill is needed and necessary. Thank you for voting yes on HB 1524 HD2 SD2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1524, HD 2, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL THEFT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Marumoto, Nishimoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, SD 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 5 (Herkes, Choy, Hashem, Tsuji and Marumoto). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 2242, HD1 SD1 which would establish 20-hour continuing education requirements for veterinarians seeking to renew their Hawaii licenses. Almost every state has some type of requirement to insure that licensed veterinarians keep current with the latest in research, prescription medications, medical procedures and animal health concerns. Hawaii does not.

"Last year, after meeting and talking with several veterinarians, as well as the Hawaii Veterinary Medical Association, I introduced HB 13 which established requirements for 45 hours of continuing education credits for veterinarians. The average number of hours most states require is 40. Although HB 13 did not make it through the legislative process, I was pleased to see that the substance of this bill was incorporated into HB 2242 this Session. Most professional licensees have continuing education requirements, which is especially important in the medical fields where treatment options can change on an almost daily basis. I know Hawaii's veterinarians join me in thanking you for voting yes on HB 2242, HD1 SD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2242, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR VETERINARIANS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Marumoto, Nishimoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 2264, HD 2, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2264, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the bill, and I will be voting no on this measure. Mr. Speaker, it's a difficult no vote, but I am thinking about the companies that are struggling so hard to still stay in business. A year or so ago, we reduced the UI rates, and then at the same time the benefits had been increased to about 70%, I believe is the present number at this point. Now for certain sectors that are having the most difficulty, we're going to be increasing the UI rates again.

"My feeling is that, what we should do at this point in time with our economy still really in a recession, is just hold the line. Not do anything. Instead this bill singles out the sectors that are having the most difficulty and it increases their cost. I don't see how that is going to keep those sectors in business, and I don't see how it will keep employees employed.

"So this very measure could be the death nail for some of the employees in these sectors. I don't want to do that. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations on HB 2264 regarding the unemployment insurance contribution schedule and employment security. I am supporting this measure because I do believe it is important to take steps to make sure the Unemployment Insurance Fund is solvent. This Fund is an important one and we need to ensure its stability so that those individuals who face unemployment still have some cushion to weather difficult economic times.

"My concerns, however, revolve around potentially exacerbating the burden placed on struggling businesses. Under this measure, those businesses who may have to lay off people to remain afloat would be asked to pay more. Although understandable, this proposed change may continue to add to their financial burdens and ultimately drive some struggling small businesses out of business. In this case, more workers will lose their jobs. It is for these reasons, I am supporting this measure with reservations."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise to stand in support of House Bill 2264, HD2, SD1. The purpose of this bill is to increase employer contribution rates to the State Unemployment Compensation Fund, which has become precariously low due to the State's slow economic recovery.

"I want to point out, Mr. Speaker, that the bill also does something very important by raising the percentage cap for the employers who fall into the range of the highest number of claims. Over the past four years, our unemployment claims have risen dramatically due to the economic downturn, yet those employers who have experienced more claims against their account do not have to pay more once they reach the cap.

"The intent of the law is to create a schedule in which the payment of contributions closely reflects the actual experience of employers regarding the benefits charged to their account. Consequently, the formula should be adjusted from time to time to determine the proper contribution rates, based on this actual experience.

"This is what HB 2264 accomplishes. According to information received from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, capping the contribution rate at 5.4% does not accurately reflect the experience of employers at the high end of the schedule. The high end employers are paying less than they should, based on the amount of claims against their account, and the middle range employers are ultimately contributing a greater percentage to the Unemployment Fund. By raising the standard contribution rate and cap at the higher end of the schedule, with the maximum at 6.6%, the contributions are more fairly calculated.

"HB 2264 is in line with the original intent of the law, and proposes a formula that is fair and based on actual experience."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2264, HD 2, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Ching and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Marumoto, Nishimoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 2273, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2273, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on HB 2273, SD1, I'm in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2273, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONCUSSIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Marumoto, Nishimoto, Oshiro and Tokioka being excused.

At 12:27 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

ORDER OF THE DAY

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 2491, HD 1, SD 1:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred one legislative day.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Yamashita, for the Committee on Legislative Management presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1801-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 90, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 90, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I have comments in opposition to this measure. My comments are that this measure is part and parcel of a decade-long effort to undo commercial leases in Hawaii which began in the early 2000s in the report issued by the Legislative Reference Bureau. It was a report that was pushed by one of the proponents for this Resolution. Unfortunately, that report did not find in the favor of the proponent, so here we are, back again, requesting the LRB to update its report.

"What's significant is that the LRB in testimony, when this Resolution was heard, concluded that it would be futile to issue an updated report, because, I'll just quote from their testimony, 'Consequently, since no legislative or other effort has been successful in mandating the removal of "not less than" clauses in lease rent contract, it seems that the recommendations made in the 2003 report would still be applicable and thus, an update by the Bureau would not add any new additional useful information to inform their legislature on this issue.' Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 90, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU TO UPDATE THEIR 2003 REPORT ANALYZING THE MAJOR PROBLEMS FACED BY COMMERCIAL LESSEES BY INCORPORATING AN ECONOMIC ANALYSIS TO DETERMINE IF THERE IS A NEXUS BETWEEN THE EXISTENCE OF HIGH LEASE RENTS IN HAWAII AND THE STAGNATION OF HAWAII'S ECONOMY," was adopted, with Representative Saiki voting no, and with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1802-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 77, SD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 77, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AND DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO ESTABLISH A STATEWIDE RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM TO ASSIST THE COMPLEX AREAS IN CREATING ENDOWMENTS TO BENEFIT HAWAII'S PUBLIC SCHOOLS," was adopted, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1803-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 79, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 79, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AND DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO COLLABORATE WITH PARENT ORGANIZATIONS TO ESTABLISH, IMPLEMENT, AND MONITOR STATEWIDE POLICIES FOR FAMILY ENGAGEMENT IN HAWAII'S PUBLIC SCHOOLS," was adopted, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1804-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 80, SD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 80, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO CONDUCT RESEARCH ON THE CORRELATION BETWEEN CHILDREN WHO ARE LATE-BORN AND EDUCATIONAL OUTCOMES," was adopted, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1805-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 122, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 122, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AND STATE LIBRARIAN TO DEVELOP A STRATEGIC PLAN TO OPTIMIZE THE USE OF STATE PUBLIC LIBRARY FACILITIES," was adopted, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1806-12) recommending that S.C.R. No. 120, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 120, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with some reservations on this measure. Thank you, very much. I just don't think it's necessary for the Legislature to request the Board of Education and the Department on their application to United States Department of Education for a waiver of some of the requirements of the No Child Left Behind Act. We already know that they're going to do it.

"In testimony to the Education Committee, the Superintendent said she was already in the process of putting it together, and will be making the request in September. I just have problems with us supporting waiver requirements to the NCLB. Now I agree with it, but I just don't think that this Resolution is necessary. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 120, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AND DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO APPLY TO THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION FOR A WAIVER OF THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND ACT," was adopted, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2295, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of HB 2295, which criminalizes the use of electronic media by perpetrators with the purpose of harassing, alarming, or annoying a victim. New technologies have provided criminals with an alternative means for harassing and annoying their victims. Prior to this bill, those who were victimized stood defenseless, lacking the necessary protection from criminals who sought to destroy their reputations and cause them mental anguish.

"Our State's prosperity is dependent upon the passing of this bill, as small businesses in the community are among those who have suffered from victimization which has resulted in a loss of profits, and in some cases their business has been entirely destroyed.

"Children in particular are among the most vulnerable to humiliation online. Cyberbullying by classmates has led many teenagers and preteens to commit suicide and experience severe depression. We must ensure that we consider the necessity of severe punishments for online stalkers since harassment can lead to long-term emotional damage for its victims.

"Cyber harassment has the capacity to destroy people's lives and livelihoods to the same extent that other forms of harassment do. We need this bill which adds additional offenses to ensure that the severity of the crimes match the punishment to enable those who have been targeted to find relief.

"For these reasons, I stand in strong support of HB 2295, which adds stiffer penalties for harassing a person through the use of digital media."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to express my strong support for H.B. 2295. While we have several reasons to remain cautious in interpreting and applying this bill and its language, it leads us in directions crucial to our urgent fight against cyberbullying. H.B. 2295 amends the offense of use of a computer in the commission of a separate crime to also include knowingly using a computer to pursue, servile, contact, harass, annoy or alarm a victim or intended victim of certain offenses.

"Cyberbullying is a growing, and often fatal, problem throughout Hawaii. Whether done among elementary students or corporate co-workers, abuse of the Internet and its uncensored reach can threaten jobs, marriages, and even lives. In 2011, Hawaii suffered the highest attempted suicide rate among teens, approximately double the national average, of 13%. At the 2011 Children and Youth Summit of 125 participants, bullying was voted the top priority for legislative action, receiving nearly three times as many votes as the second priority issue.

"Hawaii's high cost of living, many speculate, forces parents to work multiple jobs, and thus spend less time with their children. Moreover, many local cultures attach stigmas to openly discussing one's emotional wellbeing – or lack thereof – not to mention the topic of suicide itself. Finally, high living costs force many to move around often and stay with various relatives, leaving the online world among the only constants in their lives, and thus most often frequented. These factors render young people – and those of all ages – less likely to seek counsel, and thus to resolve issues plaguing their mental health. Particularly among members of a generation more fluent online than face-to-face, issues may diffuse so quickly via the Internet that friends and family may not become aware until it is too late.

"The Hawaii Youth Services Network suggests that, "creating a criminal offense for cyberbullying will not be sufficient to prevent it from happening and damaging the lives of the victims." Instead of criminal prosecution, the organization prefers constructive measures like mediation and restorative justice. We must not assume that, through retroactive measures like criminal prosecution, we will be taking all the steps possible to actively assisting those at risk. Some alternative suggestions include: character education, parental and community education, and intervention training for teachers and school personnel. Law enforcement should become involved only when all other means fail. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2295, HD 1, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CYBERBULLYING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 2584, HD 1, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2584, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NOTICE OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Oshiro, Say and Tokioka being excused.

ORDER OF THE DAY

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 2491, HD 1, SD 1:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred one legislative day.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 27-12 and H.B. No. 2595, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to May 1, 2012.

and the accompanying House bill will also be deferred until May 1st so that the two related measures may be addressed at the same time."

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1807-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 140, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 140, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just wanted to say that I think that this is an important Resolution because the Environmental Impact Statement for the rail probably significantly underestimates the ridership numbers. The reason for that is it doesn't include transit-oriented development as a factor. And of course transit-oriented development is something the City is going to be adopting at all the rail stations. That will probably show, or give a much truer indication. If you included the TOD numbers of the residences that would be close to rail stations, the ridership numbers will go up significantly in all likelihood, and this Resolution will hopefully bring out that point. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support, but with a correction, I think it's equally plausible that many people say that they've overestimated the ridership. So I think it's yet to be known, but I think we need to study this. To say that it's a fact that it's underestimated, I think is an estimation that deserves questioning. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 140, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE HONOLULU AUTHORITY FOR RAPID TRANSPORTATION TO DETERMINE COST-EFFECTIVE AND REVENUE-GENERATING RIDERSHIP LEVELS FOR THE RAIL TRANSIT SYSTEM," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Oshiro being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1808-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 111, SD 1, be referred jointly to the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 111, SD 1, be referred jointly to the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to vote on this with reservations. Generally, I am in support of transit-oriented development. I do believe we should have more density, and retail, office, commercial opportunities around rail stations. However, as you will recall, we had a bill early in the Session that outlined the Governor's ten favorite projects and we were going to put this bill into the Session Laws.

"One of the projects included a 650 foot housing tower. A 650 feet is 250 feet over the Honolulu City and County height limit. So yes, this would really increase density, but the Governor, using certain bills can skirt environmental, permitting and procurement laws affecting the building of this project. So, I think it's a good idea to increase density, but I think we should stay within the current laws regarding City and County regulations and other environmental laws. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with strong reservations about this Resolution. My concern is that it ties right in with S.B. 2927 which I firmly oppose. I think that the transit-oriented development zones are very questionable when you end up ignoring the environmental and land use laws. This is just a Resolution so it doesn't have the force and effect of law, but it still is tied in with the S.B. 2927."

Representative Evans rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. Well I think she's done, but she was referring to another bill, and I ask that she stay on the Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I would like to express my support for this Resolution. Yes, I just would like to comment that a Resolution such as this is worthy for two reasons. First of all, it preserves affordable housing, as well as it will create new ones which is something that our State and our population much needs. And it also will help the viability of the rail project as far as ridership. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 111, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU TO PRESERVE EXISTING AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND CREATE NEW AFFORDABLE HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES, FAMILY-ORIENTED SUPPORT SERVICES, HEALTH CENTERS, COMMUNITY CENTERS, RETAIL SERVICES RELATED TO HEALTHY LIVING, AND COMMUNITY GARDENS WITHIN TRANSIT-ORIENTED DEVELOPMENT ZONES ALONG THE HONOLULU RAIL TRANSIT PROJECT CORRIDOR," was referred jointly to the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, with Representative Oshiro being excused.

Representative Souki, for the Committee on Transportation presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1809-12), recommending that S.C.R. No. 156, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 156, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE CREATION OF AN EXPLORATORY COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERNATIONAL AVIATION TRAINING CENTER AT THE HILO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AND AN ADVANCED AVIATION DEGREE TRAINING PROGRAM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT HILO," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Oshiro being excused.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of HB 1777, which authorizes State of Hawaii judges to compel companies outside of Hawaii to produce records that will aid in the prosecution of cyber criminals. For years, cyber criminals have gone unpunished because the evidence needed to prosecute them was possessed by companies on the mainland, and our judges were not provided with the jurisdiction to order these companies to produce this digital evidence. This bill is necessary to ensure that our legal system is provided with all pertinent information surrounding a case to enable them judges to make fair rulings and deliver justice to victims.

"The Honolulu Prosecutor's Office has testified that this bill is key to combating cybercrime because it would authorize it to access information from internet service providers, web-based e-mail providers, web site hosting companies, social networking providers, and cellular telephone providers. This bill makes certain that this evidence will only be requested if existing legal requirements are met by attorneys.

"Anyone can become a victim of cybercrime. Our State must be prepared to defend all of its residents from harassment and cyber crimes by having the means to retrieve evidence stored on the mainland to prosecute those who commit these crimes.

"For the above reasons, I strongly support HB 1777 which will enable our judges to gain access to digital evidence stored on mainland servers to aid in the prosecution of cybercriminals under existing legal requirements."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRODUCTION OF RECORDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Oshiro being excused.

At 12:24 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 46, HD 2, SD 2
H.B. No. 1777, HD 1, SD 1

"Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB1868 HD1

I intend HB1868 HD1, entitled "RELATING TO TELECOMMUNICATIONS," to become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to amend section 269-16.85, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to prohibit a telecommunications carrier from charging a rate for any retail telecommunications basic exchange service that is higher than the rate in the filed tariff, unless otherwise approved by the Public Utilities Commission ("PUC").

I understand the overall importance of section 269-16.85 as a means for providing telecommunication carriers with pricing flexibility in today's competitive market environment. This measure retains such flexibility except for basic exchange service, which remains subject to PUC oversight.

However, I am concerned that the competitive market today may change in the future, and/or that a service that is now considered to be a non-basic exchange service may become essential in the future. In either situation, PUC oversight may become necessary or appropriate for far more than what is now considered to be basic exchange service.

For the foregoing reasons, I intend HB1868 HD1 to become law as Act 074 (12), effective April 25, 2012, without my signature.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawaii"

RE: Extension of Conference Committee Report Filing Deadline

In December of this year, we prepared an internal legislative timetable, setting April 27, 2012, as the last day to file fiscal bills to deck for Final Reading. Earlier this month, we signed the Conference Committee Guidelines that provide, in paragraphs 11(b) and (c), that all Conference Committee negotiations shall conclude by 6:00 p.m. and all Conference Committee reports shall be filed by 11:30 p.m. on Friday, April 27, 2012. However, due to the delay in negotiations and passage of H.B. 2012, the supplemental Executive budget bill, several measures will need to be negotiated and Conference Committee reports filed beyond the evening of April 27, 2012.

Therefore, we are exercising our powers under Rule 13 of the Conference Committee Guidelines, to make an exception to these deadlines for certain fiscal measures. The Conference Committees on:

- (1) Bills with general fund appropriations that fit within a $50 million ceiling;
- (2) Bills with non-general fund appropriations that had the agreement of the Conference Committee on language and approval of the Chairs of the Senate Committee on Ways and Means (WAM) and the House Committee on Finance (FIN) as of 6:00 p.m., Friday, April 27, 2012; and
- (3) Other fiscal bills (bills with WAM or FIN referral) that had the agreement of the Conference Committee on language and approval of the Chairs of WAM or FIN as of 6:00 p.m., Friday, April 27, 2012, shall be permitted to continue negotiations beyond 6:00 p.m. on Friday, April 27, 2012, until 10 a.m. on Monday, April 30, 2012. No general fund enhancement or tax relief bills shall be permitted to continue negotiations beyond 6:00 p.m. on Friday, April 27, 2012. Furthermore, to allow adequate time to prepare and review the reports and the final form of the Conference Drafts, the filing deadline shall be extended until April 30, 2012, at 1:00 p.m. The opening of any conference meeting must be approved by signatures of the Chairs of WAM and FIN.

We are granting this exception to provide the conference members with an opportunity to ensure that the Conference Committee report and the Conference draft reflect the agreements made throughout the weekend. We believe that, due to the delay in the passage of the budget, allowing these bills to die based on an internal procedural deadline is not in the best interest of the people of Hawaii.

We wish to emphasize that previous Legislatures, when facing similar problems in past years, have followed the same procedure we follow with these measures.

to continue negotiations beyond 6:00 p.m. on Friday, April 27, 2012, until 10:00 a.m. on Monday, April 30, 2012.

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"The process of buying a home is difficult enough. Purchasing insurance for it shouldn't be as trying.

"This bill will allow consumers to view the going rates for homeowners insurance without having to make multiple calls or visits to insurance companies. Posting insurance premiums on a State website will not only make it convenient for consumers, but will give them side-by-side comparison on rates and the services that go along with them.

"Hawaii Revised Statutes already requires the Insurance Commissioner to post motor vehicle insurers and premium information. Why not do the same for homeowners insurance? With side-by-side comparisons, homeowners should feel a lot more comfortable and confident about their selection of insurance that meets their needs.

"The bigger benefit is that with premiums from all insurers posted, homeowners can be assured a competitive rate. This would definitely help keep premiums at a fair market price.

"The bill also enhances the present law by allowing the Insurance Commissioner to require that insurance companies submit new rate filings when the current rate may be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2769, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

No. 2486, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PENAL CODE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2221, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which addresses issues concerning child abuse and possessing child pornography. Specifically, this bill expands the offense of promoting child abuse in the second degree to include possession of particularly violent or egregious child pornography.

"Hawaii law currently criminalizes possession of any form of child pornography, but limits the penalty and severity of such an offense to just a class C felony. This bill strengthens Hawaii's child pornography laws by distinguishing between various forms of child pornography, and increasing the severity of possessing pornography that involves a child under the age of twelve, sadomasochism or bestiality with a minor.

"Child pornography is among the fastest growing criminal offenses on the internet, and is a permanent record of the actual sexual abuse, exploitation, and assault upon the innocent and helpless children of our community. With the rapid advancement in modern technologies, and global proliferation of electronic communication and sharing of digital information, child pornography remains a cause for constant concern.

"Given the fact that Hawaii's child pornography statutes have not been amended since 2002, this bill will provide more effective tools for enforcement and more stringent standards for prosecution of such horrific offenses that shock the conscience of our society."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2221, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILD ABUSE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 25-12 and S.B. No. 2222, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2222, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this important measure that addresses the problem of "sexting". As has been reported repeatedly, Mr. Speaker, "sexting" involves people taking nude pictures and transmitting the images to others via electronic communication.

"However, with ubiquitous availability of smart phones for even pre-teens, the electronic transmission of youth-produced sexual pictures and videos is a growing problem with our children. This problem is difficult, especially because the images, once transmitted electronically, can be shared with many people almost instantaneously. Also, once transmitted, the original transmitter has very limited ability to control or prevent further dissemination.

"This bill also covers the situation where images are being transmitted to an adult who has convinced the minor to make the images and send them to the adult.

"Often, the images are intended for the minor's "significant other". But regardless of the reason the images were created, or to whom they were originally sent, the images frequently get disseminated to others, especially after the relationship has deteriorated, or a cell phone is lost, misplaced, stolen, or improperly accessed.

"As the Attorney General's Office testified, "such images may be used as a commodity for exchange" and "the threatened dissemination of such images may also be used as leverage against the subject to make the subject engage in certain conduct."

"In this age of electronic connectivity, the images can instantaneously be shared with many people and can cause great embarrassment and mental or emotional harm to the subjects of the images. The unwanted dissemination has even resulted in suicides in other states.

"Our current State laws do not specifically prohibit "sexting" conduct. While our laws prohibit the dissemination of child pornography, the nude images transmitted through "sexting" behavior often do not qualify as pornography.

"This proposal will make it clear that soliciting and disseminating nude images of minors is harmful and inappropriate behavior. While the severity of the penalties has been amended to reflect concerns about criminalizing children for poor judgment and questions about Romeo-Juliet situations where one person in the couple is an adult by a year or two, this law will be a tool for law enforcement agencies to appropriately wield with due prosecutorial discretion. This bill will also assist parents and school officials in addressing this growing problem with minors and perhaps educating their children or their students of the inappropriateness and harmfulness of "sexting.""

Representative Rhoads' written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I support the creation of the crime of promoting minor-produced sexual images in the first degree which addresses adults encouraging minors to send sexual text messages. I do not support the second crime created by this bill, promoting minor-produced sexual images in the second degree. This criminalizes sexting between minors. While I strongly disapprove of the behavior, I don't believe it rises to the level of a crime. Are we really going to arrest 16-year olds for this type of behavior?"

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support SB 2222 to combat the growing trend of "sexting" among young people. Images, once transmitted electronically, can be shared with many people almost instantaneously including classmates and strangers on the Internet. Furthermore, it is almost impossible to completely remove an image from the Internet once it has been posted. It's imperative that our youth understand the consequences of sending photos no matter who the recipient is.

"This bill would make it a misdemeanor for a minor to knowingly electronically transmit nude images of him or herself or other minors to any person, or intentionally or knowingly solicit other minors to do so – and prohibit a person of any age from knowingly possessing a nude image transmitted by a minor. The bill also makes it an affirmative defense if the recipient had made reasonable efforts to destroy the transmitted nude image.

"In addition to harsh punishments, young people need to be educated on the dangers of putting revealing photographs on the Internet. Oftentimes they do not understand the potential consequences and the possibility of a relationship turning sour – turning a once friendly relationship into one that cannot be trusted, opening the possibility of these images being shared openly without the permission of the subject.

"For these reasons, I strongly support SB 2222."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 26-12 and H.B. No. 2594, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2594, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII, SECTION 12, OF THE HAWAII STATE CONSTITUTION TO ASSIST DAM AND RESERVOIR OWNERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 27-12 and H.B. No. 2595, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2595, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST DAM AND RESERVOIR OWNERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 29-12 and H.B. No. 1925, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1925, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support HB 1925 HD1 SD1 CD1. This bill amends HRS sec 281-31(b) to allow local craft distillers to sell directly to people touring their facilities – the law already allows brewers and wineries to do so. Hawaii craft distillers produce brandy, vodka, rum and other concoctions.

"This measure allows holders of Class 1 manufacturer liquor licenses to sell beer, wine, or other specified liquor manufactured or distilled on the licensee's premises from fruit or other products grown in the State, in any quantity to wholesalers in original packages or for private use and consumption.

"There are presently eleven facilities with licenses from the US Dept of Treasury Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (one recently ceased operations, and one facility is a second facility for the same licensee) who would be affected by this change in the law. Of the nine active facilities, five are on Maui (Haleakala Distillers – Rum; Kolani Distillers – Rum; Hawaii Sea Spirits – Vodka; Haiku Lemon Scents – Liqueur; and Haliimaile Distillers – Vodka); two are on Oahu (Aloha Distillers – coffee liqueur; and Island Distillers – Vodka); one is on Kauai (Koloa Rum – Rum); and one is on Hawaii (Hawaiian Rainforest – Brandy).

"Hawaii is becoming internationally renowned for its locally produced wine, beer, and liquor. Craft distillers often make their products with locally grown fruits, grains, cane sugar, and other locally grown commodities. This bill supports this niche in our local economy. Opening the door to opportunity for entrepreneurs interested in starting their own winery or distillery, while cultivating or purchasing from local farmers the ingredients used to make their products, can provide additional opportunities in our rural areas, boost the growth of agro-tourism in our State, and will contribute to our agricultural independence."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 30-12 and H.B. No. 2686, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2686, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which provides protection to property owners who provide shelter to their neighbors in emergencies.

"This measure exempts an owner of private property who provides emergency access to land, shelter, or subsistence to a person in good faith during a disaster from liability for injury or damage suffered by the person, unless it was caused by the gross negligence or intentional or wanton acts or omissions of the owner of the land.

"Our islands are subject to a number of different kinds of disasters. We are frequently reminded of the devastating toll that tsunamis can take. Our communities make plans to avoid loss of life in the event of such disasters. Swift evacuation to the nearest higher ground is the best option for coastal residents. In some communities there are no public roads leading mauka. The owners of higher ground are often willing to let their neighbors evacuate through their land, but worry about the liability if they give permission to open their fences and gates. This bill will exempt such owners from liability in the narrow circumstances of such disasters for allowing access to their land and other emergency assistance. This measure is not a general exemption, but one crafted to protect and encourage common sense, neighborly kokua that is part of our heritage."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which provides that real property held in tenancy by the entirety shall continue to have the same immunity from the claims of separate creditors of spouses or reciprocal beneficiaries if conveyed into a joint or separate revocable trust, under certain circumstances. It requires adequate notice in the conveyance document to note tenants by the entirety protection continues after the real property is transferred to the trust. It also clarifies that the real property will be governed by the trust instrument. It further allows spouses or reciprocal beneficiaries to waive the protection in favor of specific creditors.

"Traditionally, holding property in tenancy by the entirety is severed when the property is conveyed into a trust even if the trust is formed by settlors who are spouses or reciprocal beneficiaries. This bill makes a significant change by allowing the protections afforded to spouses and reciprocal beneficiaries for their property held in tenancy by the entirety into their trust as part of prudent Estate Planning. The framework provided in this bill – requiring that such trusts include the names of the settlors – limits the use of this new law to hide assets from bona fide creditors of the settlors.

"Estate planning is of great benefit. As baby boomers age, more and more couples need to make plans for their families and assets. Allowing them to use the benefits of a trust to hold their property, without giving up the benefits of holding property by the entirety will give important security to Hawaii couples, especially as they enter their golden years."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 36-12 and H.B. No. 1788, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1788, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which addresses issues relating to cybercrime. Specifically, this bill amends certain computer crime statutes related to Computer Fraud and Unauthorized Computer Access, by clarifying and strengthening certain elements, and increasing their severity.

"This bill addresses the rapid advancement in modern technologies and realities of modern cybercrime in a society increasingly interconnected to and reliant upon, the Internet for storage and transfer of valuable and confidential information. This bill also reflects the belief that heightening the severity of these computer crime offenses, will deter such activity by would-be offenders, and also emphasize to the public that these types of activities will not be tolerated.

"With the rapid proliferation of advanced and mobile electronic devices over the last decade, it is now possible for practically anyone, anywhere, to engage in online criminal activity, at any time. Here in Hawaii and across the world, state governments and universities, federal agencies and legislative bodies, as well as international companies, have all already been compromised or breached by cybercriminals. Through the ranks of organized crime to the hobbies of everyday hackers, the value and ease in committing cybercrime is an unfortunate reality that cannot be ignored.

"Given the fact that Hawaii's computer crime statutes have not been amended since their enactment in 2001, this bill will provide more effective tools for enforcement and prosecution of computer crime offenses."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of HB 1788 Relating to Computer Crime. HB 1788, the cybercrime omnibus bill, will toughen computer crime laws by modeling language after existing identity theft laws defining computer fraud as an aggravated form of theft. It will also impose harsher penalties by raising each existing crime one grade higher. The bill creates a new offense of Computer Fraud in the Third Degree, a class C felony. The crime would involve knowingly accessing a computer, computer system, or computer network, with intent to commit theft in the third or fourth degree.

"I am so proud of this Body for advancing important cyber crime legislation this Session. Cyber crimes include harassment, financial fraud, identity fraud and theft, stalking, bullying and luring underage minors via the Internet. Internet crimes have ruined countless lives and businesses.

"I strongly believe our laws must evolve with ever-changing technologies. This bill is one step toward protecting the people of Hawaii from this awful trend. We must send a clear message to cyber criminals that their heinous behavior will not be tolerated in the State of Hawaii."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill strengthens the State's ability to monitor the import and export of plant commodities.

"It authorizes the Department of Agriculture (DOA) to create rules on compliance agreements with federal or state departments of agriculture to conduct inspections of imported and exported plant commodities. Nationally, origin inspection programs are done through the establishment of compliance agreements between federal and state departments of agriculture.

"HB2244 gives DOA a means to evaluate items at mainland points of origin before they arrive in the State and also to assess fees for conducting inspections required under the compliance agreements.

"This type of pre-entry program is especially important for high-risk commodities, such as Christmas trees and leafy greens. I thank the Vice-Chair of the Agriculture Committee for introducing this Bill and urge my colleagues to support the measure."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which clarifies the authority of the court and paroling authority in sentencing an individual convicted of manslaughter.

"Specifically, this bill removes mandatory terms of imprisonment and allows for indeterminate maximum and minimum terms of imprisonment to be imposed. This allows for the possibility of suspension and probation to be considered at sentencing. This bill also grants the courts discretion to impose license revocations for a specific, instead of indeterminate period of time, as well as to impose license revocations in sentencing for negligent homicide resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle.

"According to law enforcement officials, our current law is not clear about the period of time in which a court may revoke an individual's license, as well as whether a sentence of probation is possible for a manslaughter conviction. Further, if a sentence of probation is imposed, the law is not clear on the amount of jail time a court may impose as a condition of that probation.

"With this lack of clarity, courts and prosecutors throughout the State have interpreted this law differently, and this bill resolves this confusion and disparity in sentencing."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I strongly support the passage of SB 2737, a measure that amends the State's Sunshine Law to permit board and commission meetings to be conducted via any form of interactive conference technology that allows interaction by audio or by audio and visual means, including teleconference, videoconference, and voice over internet protocol, subject to certain provisions. These changes to the Sunshine Law will increase the ability of members of State and county boards and commissions and the public to participate in or attend board and commission meetings.

"Additionally, this measure allows a disabled board member, who is physically unable to attend the meeting, to participate in a board or commission meeting from a location not accessible to the public; provided that the disabled member is connected to other members of the board or commission and the public by both visual and audio means, and the member identifies where the member is located and who, if anyone, is present at that location with the member. This measure will greatly decrease the costs for board or commission members to attend public meetings on a different island and will facilitate the attendance at these meetings for disabled board and commission members."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2737, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC MEETINGS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2158, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which protects an individual's constitutional and statutory right to bail. Specifically, this bill standardizes bail processes statewide and requires law enforcement agencies to accept cash bail, certified copies of pre-filed bail bonds, and original bail bonds, at all hours, not just during normal business hours.

"Presently for example, if an individual is taken into custody by the Department of Public Safety, during non-regular business hours, that individual may not be able to post bail simply because the courts are closed. This bill removes the current bureaucratic barriers that prevent this individual from being promptly released from custody pending posting of bail.

"Though concerns were expressed about the staffing, accountability and feasibility of effectuating these new processes, an individual's right to bail should not be compromised for administrative convenience. In amending a statute that has not been revised since 1972, this bill merits our support because it promotes fairness in process, and ensures equal access to justice for all individuals."

 H.B. No. 2529, HD 1, (SD 1)

The Chair addressed the Clerk who announced that the record of votes for H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, SD 1; and H.B. No. 2375, SD 2, had been received which indicated that the requisite number of House Conferees appointed had agreed to the amendments made by the Senate, and had cast affirmative votes to report said measures to the Floor for final disposition.

H.B. No. 2491, HD 1, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2491, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII EMPLOYER-UNION HEALTH BENEFITS TRUST FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, SD 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 3 (Brower, Tokioka and Nishimoto). Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Ching).

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure. This bill aligns deposits into the Convention Center Enterprise Special Fund (CCESF) with the operating budget of the Convention Center. The law presently provides for depositing the Convention Center's allocation of Transient Accommodations Tax revenues into the CCESF on a calendar year basis.

"The fact that collections are made on a calendar year basis creates an accounting conflict with expenditures made on a fiscal year basis, painting the specter of a discrepancy between the timeline of incoming and outgoing funds. Due to this discrepancy, after the fund reaches its $33,000,000 limit, further revenues are suspended from deposit into the fund until the new calendar year. Therefore, at times, a paper shortfall appears in the fund's ability to pay the Convention Center debts while at other times a phantom balance may also be shown which could mislead policy makers and other observers."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

H.B. No. 2375, SD 2:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2375, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 5 (Herkes, Keith-Agaran, Tsuji, Yamane and Marumoto). Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Oshiro).

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2375, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE MORTGAGE RESCUE FRAUD PREVENTION ACT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

H.B. No. 2529, HD 1, SD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 2529, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ching being excused.

At 9:24 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 2491, HD 1, SD 1
 H.B. No. 2314, HD 1, SD 1
 H.B. No. 2375, SD 2
 H.B. No. 2529, HD 1, SD 1

The Chair then announced:

"Members, please remember to submit to the Clerk, the list of House and Senate Bills on the Consent Calendar, for which you'll be inserting written comments in support, or in opposition. This must be done by the adjournment of today's Floor Session."

At 9:24 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:01 o'clock a.m., with Vice Speaker Manahan presiding.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, please turn your attention to Supplemental Calendar No. 1, and Conference Committee Report No. 128-12, on page 3."

REPORTS OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 128-12 and S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

At this time, Representative Har offered Floor Amendment No. 7, amending S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2927, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, Section 2, is amended by amending page 8, lines 6-12, to read as follows:

"(A)Bus transit station or center, as designated by the county to achieve density and ridership goals, located within the county development or sustainable communities plans for Ewa, Central Oahu, and Primary Urban Center that has existing infrastructure, public utilities, and roadways; or""

Representative Har moved that Floor Amendment No. 7, be adopted, seconded by Representative Tokioka.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker and Members, as you may recall, we had received much concern about this particular measure. Specifically, we heard the concerns raised by people from the Neighbor Islands, as well as from the Windward side, and other communities that are not necessarily developable, if there's such word.

"So at this point Mr. Speaker, we wanted to show there was a mistake, and this was truly a learning lesson. The bill had come to us, the CD 1 at literally 11:57. It came to the Chairs while we were all in Room 309 trying to vote on the budget. We all perused the bill and admittedly, thought the language should have been taken out regarding other developed communities, and unfortunately, in the midst of trying to get the bill decked by the midnight deadline, nobody caught the fact that that language had not been removed.

"Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, I do submit this Floor Amendment to show that we are in fact deleting that language, to ensure that this bill would apply only to the communities of Ewa, Central Oahu, and the primary urban core. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the bill, and this is bill, S.B. 2927. The amendment and the underlying bill. But the amendment."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"We're just talking about the Amendment right now."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. I appreciated what the former speaker tried to do to remove 'or is within a developed community,' and that's within quotes. That language is no longer there on page 8. However, Mr. Speaker, I see this S.B. 2927 is still aiming at urban areas like Kailua, Hawaii Kai, Kahala ..."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, we're talking about the Floor Amendment right now. We can talk about the underlying bill after we talk about the Floor Amendment. Please."

Representative Thielen: "I am addressing the Amendment. I'm sitting and looking right at the Amendment, Mr. Speaker. So I see it still addressing those areas on page 7 of the Amendment that I'm looking at right here. It says on line 18, within the Amendment, page 7 ..."

Vice Speaker Manahan: "It's only the amendment."

At 10:05 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:08 o'clock a.m.

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I understand what the Majority is saying, that I am only allowed to address the language of the cover of the Floor Amendment. Bus transit station, or center, etc.

"I do thank the former speaker from removing the language as I said, of 'or is within a developed community.' However, Mr. Speaker, with this amended language that I'm looking at, that I'm addressing, this bill still would apply to Kailua, Hawaii Kai, other areas that are within the urban district. So I cannot support this concept, even in the amended bill. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 7, amending S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMMUNITY PLANNING," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representative Thielen voting no.

At 10:10 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 7, was adopted.

The Chair then announced:

"Members, let's proceed on to the next Floor Amendment on page 11 of your Regular Order of the Day. We are on Floor Amendment Number 8, for Conference Committee Report Number 23-12, Senate Bill Number 2873."

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:10 o'clock a.m.

At 10:10 o'clock a.m., Representative Chong requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:12 o'clock a.m.

At 10:12 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:12 o'clock a.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 23-12 and S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, Representative Souki offered Floor Amendment No. 8, amending S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2873, S.D. 1, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, is amended by amending section 343-5(d), Hawaii Revised Statutes, contained in section 2, to read as follows:

"(d) Whenever an applicant requests approval for a proposed action and there is a question as to which of two or more state or county agencies with jurisdiction has the responsibility of ~~[preparing the]~~ determining whether an environmental assessment is required, the office, after consultation with and assistance from the affected state or county agencies, shall determine which agency ~~[shall prepare the assessment.]~~ has the responsibility for determining whether an environmental assessment by the applicant is required, except in situations involving secondary actions under this section; provided that in no case shall the office be considered the approving agency."

Representative Souki moved that Floor Amendment No. 8, be adopted, seconded by Representative Ichiyama.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. This Floor Amendment is merely to clarify the language of who is responsible for the secondary impact statements. By secondary impact statement we mean other than the primary impact like on a highway, or waterways and sewage lines, electric lines, and those kinds of things you can build close to a highway. That will be considered as a secondary action.

"So what this bill does is, it determines who is responsible for it. It's the respective agency. If it's going to be on a highway, it would be the Department of Transportation. The Environmental Agency from the State merely identifies who is the one to make the particular assessment. And it goes on to say that the secondary actions on the section 343 provide that in no case shall the Environmental Office be considered as the approving agency. So the approving agency in this case would be the Department of Transportation or whoever is named. Thank you, very much."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote on the Amendment and the underlying bill. Mr. Speaker, this Amendment, once again, is taking out the best office, the Office of Environmental Quality Control. That office is the only one that has been out there protecting the environment. The only one in this Administration. DOT is trying to be exempted. The other agencies and the Governor's Office are being very quiet as all of these bills to gut the environmental review are passing through. This amendment simply says to the Office of Environmental Quality Control, 'You've spoken up. You've defended the environment. Now we're taking you out.' Thank you."

The Chair then addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, at this point we are just taking a vote on the Floor Amendment. If it is adopted, it will be up for 48 hour notice and discussion on the underlying bill."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 8, amending S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representative Thielen voting no.

At 10:18 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 8, was adopted.

The Chair then announced:

"Now Members, if you can refer to page 17, and Conference Committee Report Number 114-12, House Bill Number 280."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 114-12 and H.B. No. 280, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 280, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, Representative Thielen offered Floor Amendment No. 9, amending H.B. No. 280, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by designating sections 1 through 6 as Part I.

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by amending section 6 to read as follows:

"SECTION 6. Part I does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were begun before the effective date of this Act."

SECTION 3. House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by inserting the following:

"PART II

SECTION 7. In the wake of the global recession that saw Hawaii's unemployment rate triple between 2007 and 2009, the legislature finds that rebuilding and diversifying Hawaii's

economy to create new jobs, to put people back to work, and to build a strong economic base that carries Hawaii into the twenty-first century is a key priority.

The legislature also finds that Hawaii is dangerously dependent on imported food. As the most geographically isolated state in the country, Hawaii imports approximately ninety-two per cent of its food, according to the Pacific Regional Integrated Sciences and Assessments Program. Currently, Hawaii has a supply of fresh produce for no more than ten days. Ninety per cent of the beef, sixty-seven per cent of the fresh vegetables, sixty-five per cent of the fresh fruits, and eighty per cent of all milk purchased in the State are imported. The legislature further finds that Hawaii's reliance on out-of-state sources of food places residents directly at risk of food shortages in the event of natural disasters, economic disruption, and other external factors beyond the State's control.

The legislature further finds that each food product imported to Hawaii is a lost opportunity for local economic growth. The legislature notes that according to the University of Hawaii college of tropical agriculture and human resources, an increase in the production and sale of Hawaii-grown agricultural commodities would contribute to significant job creation. The research shows that replacing ten per cent of current food imports with locally grown food will create a total of two thousand three hundred jobs. The legislature thus finds that increasing the amount of locally grown food by as little as ten per cent could keep hundreds of millions of dollars circulating within Hawaii's economy, stimulate growth, and create thousands of new jobs. Such diversification would help make Hawaii's economy more resilient to worldwide events.

The legislature further finds that increasing local production will ensure that Hawaii has food sources that will be more resilient to global supply disruptions, will be better able to cope with increasing global demand and shortages of commodities such as oil, and will be better prepared to deal with potential global food scarcities.

The legislature notes that the nutrients in fresh fruits and vegetables degrade rapidly and recognizes that increased availability of local food typically ensures access to fresher, later-picked produce with greater vitamin content and higher nutritional value. A more robust local agricultural sector will lead to more consistency and a likely increase in nutritional choices for local residents. The legislature believes communities will thrive by having a steady, affordable stream of local products that act as staple foods to residents and by having their food dollars recycled and reinvested in the local economy.

The legislature further finds that by establishing a food sustainability standard, Hawaii will be able to ensure a long-term commitment of resources and investment to producing a significant portion of Hawaii's food for local consumption. Such a standard will also create a framework for long term planning, including land use planning, resource allocation, and tax incentives, and will otherwise direct Hawaii toward a more robust and sustainable future.

In summary, the legislature finds that establishing an increase in the production of local food as a key state priority will lead to the diversification of Hawaii's economy, create new jobs, advance Hawaii's long term economic stability, and boost the food security of the people of Hawaii.

The purpose of Part II is to establish a statewide food sustainability standard program.

SECTION 8. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"CHAPTER
FOOD SUSTAINABILITY

§ -1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Department" means the department of agriculture.

"Farm cash receipts" means the gross revenue of farms derived from the sale of Hawaii-grown products including livestock, dairy, and edible crops, as determined by the department on an annual basis.

"Food sustainability standard" means the volume of food commodities sold in the State, measured by farm cash receipts or as otherwise determined by the department, that are grown in the State.

§ -2 Department of agriculture responsibilities. (a) The department shall be responsible for measuring and analyzing the amount of food livestock, dairy, and edible crop commodities grown and sold in the State on an annual basis. This information shall be made publicly available in accordance with chapter 92F.

(b) The department shall, on an annual basis and in conjunction with the department of business, economic development, and tourism, identify key food commodities to be targeted for assistance in developing an increased local market share.

(c) The department shall be responsible for planning and adopting the necessary incentives to ensure that the food sustainability standard established under this chapter is met or exceeded.

(d) The department shall submit an annual report to the legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of each regular session on the status and progress of the department's efforts to effectuate this chapter and any recommended policy changes or necessary legislation.

(e) The department may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

§ -3 Food sustainability standard. (a) A statewide food sustainability standard to be achieved by the year 2020 is hereby established that requires the State to increase the amount of food grown in the State for local consumption by at least double the amount grown in 2014; provided that the department shall measure this amount by the farm cash receipts for livestock, dairy, and crops without regard to inflation adjustments, or by a comparable measurement as determined by the department.

(b) The department shall submit a report and recommendations to the legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of the 2020 regular session on how to raise the food sustainability standard over the following decade."

SECTION 3. House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by renumbering sections 7, 8, and 9 as sections 9, 10, and 11, respectively and by designating the newly renumbered sections as Part III."

Representative Thielen moved that Floor Amendment No. 9, be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this time I'm standing up in support, and in support of farmers. There was a measure Mr. Speaker, that almost made it through the legislative process. It unfortunately died, because it was amended into a form that was incomprehensible and unacceptable to farmers.

"So going back to the Senate Draft 2, which is the basis of the amendment. This is what is before us now, to pass and to protect farmers. It keeps the false labeling of Hawaii grown coffee in the bill, because that is a good measure. But the amendment brings forth what we have needed to do to protect our farmers, and to protect our agricultural community, and also be able to have local grown food put onto the table for our community.

"Mr. Speaker, when we take a look at how hard the farmers worked on that original bill, and realized that we asked them to take their time out of their busy days, leave their farm, leave their ag production and come in and testify before this Body. The measure was food sustainability. I mean that's something we all in this Body should be supporting. The food sustainability was important. It would help the farming economy. It would bring more new people into the farming community because we would be expanding this, through food sustainability standards.

"The food sustainability standard was to be achieved by the year 2020. That's eight years out from now, but it would increase the amount of food grown in this State for local consumption. Double the amount grown by 2014, that's within two years. And then keep moving ahead with the food sustainability objectives.

"The bill was excellent, Mr. Speaker. And the farmers were distraught when all of a sudden a new version appeared that made no sense. It talked about housing and all sorts of other things that had nothing to do with our farming community. So this bill, this amended bill, simply goes back and puts forth a measure that everyone was supportive of and it deserves to pass. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. In the Constitution it says we will preserve agricultural land. Right now Mr. Speaker, land is being used to grow weeds and houses. This amendment gets it back to its initial intention, food. Mr. Speaker, the farmers have a tough road to hoe, literally and physically. We need to send a gesture to them that we are serious about getting more food security, more food sufficiency. And this amendment will do that.

"It protects the coffee growers in the other part of the bill. And with this amendment, makes us true to the Constitution. It's in there, and this bill should be amended to have this component within it. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"In support. Mr. Speaker, this bill started out from the House. Left the House with support. Passed through the Senate. Came back, not significantly changed, relatively similar. So the two bills going into Conference Committee were not terribly different. Unfortunately, there was a Conference Draft that was submitted which was horrendously different, and included all kinds of things, the kitchen sink. I think that torpedoed the project.

"So I think it's a travesty that a bill that so many people testified on and went so far, really had not that much opposition, in both Chambers, was scuttled in such a way. And for those reasons, I would support the inclusion of this at this time. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the amendment. I wanted to reiterate that, you know, good legislation. We want to pass, good legislation. We want to hear the voice of our, as was said by the Representative of Kailua, our farmers. This is a goal. This is an important goal. The health of not only our people, their physical health, but the health of our economy. So I'd like to ask that the words of the Representatives of Kailua and Waiialua be entered as my own. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know it's the second time. I just was wondering if the Members are really aware that Hawaii has a supply of fresh produce for only 10 days. If things are cut off, which they could be, due to crisis or other reasons, we have 10 days worth of fresh produce. We also import approximately 92% of our food. Those statistics should be alarming to Members. This bill will reverse those appalling statistics.

"The amendment is necessary. We don't need to delay another year. This had the support of the agricultural community, who worked hard to pass it. We don't need to delay. This had the support of the agricultural community. We can't afford to delay. So, this measure should pass in its amended form. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition. I'm not really opposed to what's in the language. However, the amendments that are posed, to be put in this bill, have no relation to the underlying bill. The bill talks about coffee. This language in the Amendment was never heard in Committee, and at the last second, you're going to add it into the bill? This is just bad policy, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"In support of the Amendment. And just in rebuttal to the previous speaker. Actually, this language was heard a lot. It was heard several times in the House, and several times in the Senate. Unfortunately it was new language that was put in the very good bill at the last minute, and the Conference Committee that killed the bill.

"And so we, in good faith, to support the agricultural community, to support this very Legislature's commitment, so they say, to the people of Hawaii to create a sustainable Hawaii. We know that a lot of things happened in Conference Committee, and as was mentioned in the previous amendment, that a mistake was made. So we are in good faith, believing in the will of the people and believing in the will of this Legislature, who says the people of Hawaii."

Representative Hashem rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of clarification. She's referring to a different bill. This bill never had any sustainability language in it. Thank you."

The Chair addressed Representative Pine, stating:

"Representative Pine, please keep your remarks to the Floor Amendment before us."

Representative Pine responded, stating:

"Well actually, in the previous amendment, the buses never had any language in that particular bill. But this Legislature had no problem with that. So I object to your ruling Mr. Speaker, and I ask you to reconsider."

Vice Speaker Manahan: "There's no ruling. I'm just asking you to keep your comments to the Floor Amendment."

Representative Pine: "Okay, which I believe that I was, Mr. Speaker. I understand that things happen sometimes, and we are filled to hold to our positions that we're supposed to come to the Floor to protect. But sometimes it just doesn't make sense, and right now, this is something good, that we're doing. This is something to say to all those people that have so much faith and belief in the bill that is now being inserted into this bill, as we're doing the same action as we did in our previous amendment. We're just saying to these people to don't lose faith in us."

Representative Hashem rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of clarification. There was no food sustainability amendment in this bill."

Vice Speaker Manahan: "Representative Pine, please proceed."

Representative Pine: "Then we can put things in amendments that weren't in the previous bill, I ask that we reconsider our previous vote, and I would like to make a motion to reconsider the previous action on the previous amendment."

At this time, Representative Pine moved to reconsider the previous action of the previous amendment, seconded by Representative Thielen.

At 10:28 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:28 o'clock a.m.

At this time, Representative Pine withdrew her motion, and Representative Thielen withdrew her second.

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"Well, to conclude, Mr. Speaker, what a wonderful way that we could end this Legislature, to show the people of Hawaii that we believe in them, and that we know that all the hard work that those just regular citizens put in for the language that is in this amendment, to see it pass for the future of Hawaii. I think this is a good amendment, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support of the amendment, and also to mention that on this House Floor, we've seen many amendments. Many amendments. And I think that the comment made by the Representative is a little, how should I put it. A little unusual. And the title still remains, Related to Agriculture. The language that has been referred to has been heard, probably ad nauseum in this House, by various people and various Committees. I mean, do we support the farmers or not?"

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Regretfully, I do have to oppose the Floor Amendment. I think the concept is fantastic. I for one, if you guys didn't know, have no problem with putting stuff in the titles that are similar. However, there's an important mechanical thing. This thing has to be adopted in the same form in the Senate, Mr. Speaker. And if it doesn't happen, which I don't think it will, you kill the underlying bill, Mr. Speaker.

"It is clear the coffee industry, and I point to the op-ed piece in the Star Advertiser today. This is critical for the coffee industry. And the Floor Amendment, it's a good policy statement, it's a good goal, but it simply says to measure the cash standards of the industries. That's not a compelling reason to kill this bill for the industry. And quite frankly, that doesn't help farmers who are struggling with the big thing, cash. If this thing had cash in the bill, Mr. Speaker, then I would be like, 'Let's do it.' But it doesn't."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. You corrected me before and said I could only talk about the amendment, and the amended language. And the other speaker is not doing that."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, the Chair has not recognized Representative Thielen. The Chair's going to call you out of order. Representative Thielen, you're out of order."

At 10:32 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:33 o'clock a.m.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a few short items, against the amendment. Thank you, very much. First of all, I believe there is support as far as agriculture is concerned with the CD 1 that was proposed. The number one, the breadbasket, the mainstay of all the entities in the State of Hawaii, the Farm Bureau, has supported this Conference Draft.

"Also, going to this Floor Amendment, it talks about a 2020 doubling, but, there's no specifics. In the amendment, from the 16% it does have a proposal, from 16% and it defines doubling up until 30% for food sustainability.

"Number two, the proposed CD 1 also recognizes the importance ..."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, here we go again. The proposed CD1 is not an issue. The amendment is an issue and he is supposed to be speaking only to the amendment, right? The standard goes for our Caucus. It should go for your Caucus."

The Chair responded:

"Representative Thielen, thank you. Representative Tsuji, please keep your remarks to the Floor Amendment."

Representative Tsuji continued, stating:

"Thank you. This amendment does not address about exports, renewable energy, and also livestock that is so important. It is not included in this Floor Amendment.

"Also, item number 3. The importance of water in agriculture. The basics of water is not addressed in this amendment. Thank you."

Representative Thielen: "Mr. Speaker, let's go again. He is supposed to be addressing the amendment, and he is not addressing the amendment."

Vice Speaker: "Representative Thielen. Representative Tsuji, please proceed."

Representative Tsuji: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm done. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition of the amendment. Clearly this is a procedural call. When we have a bill in Conference, and we try to add new material, just for that bill. It could have been another bill, but just the specific bill we're looking at before us, today. The only time new language can come in for that bill will be by the agreement of both the Senate President and the Speaker of the House. In this case, it hasn't happened. Therefore I respectfully oppose the amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Vice Speaker Manahan:

"Representative Riviere, the Chair is recognizing you. Representative ..."

Representative Thielen: "Point of information, Mr. Speaker. It is not new language. It got all the way to Conference Committee."

At this time, Representative Souki called for the previous question.

Representative Riviere rose, stating:

"Thank you. I just wanted to clarify that all of the text that we have objected to, that was thrown into the Conference Draft of 2703, did come from left field. It wasn't heard in any of the Committees. It came broadly from ..."

Representative Souki rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The question has been called."

Representative Riviere continued, stating:

"I'll continue, if I may, on my point of order. I'm just responding to a statement that was made, and I'm just correcting the statement as I best understand it. Thank you, very much."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 9, amending H.B. No. 280, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 11-12 and S.B. No. 2745, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2745, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak in support, but to add some statements. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, S.B. 2745 creates a climate change adaptation policy for the State of Hawaii by amending the Hawaii State Planning Act, to include climate change adaption priority guidelines. I wish we had something better than warm and fuzzy in the measure, because warm and fuzzy is not going to protect us against the climate change and the sea level rise that is expected to hit Hawaii's shores by the year 2050.

"Mr. Speaker, the rising sea levels pose a substantial threat to Hawaii's infrastructure and overall economy. I think we all know that the Center for Island Climate Adaptation and Policy has stated that as a result of climate change, which this bill addresses, Hawaii is expected to experience a sea level rise of one foot by the year 2050. What does that mean to our islands? What does that mean to our resources? What does that mean to our transportation, that the Transportation Chair, I'm sure, is concerned about? Well if we don't take steps to adapt to the actual anticipated sea level rise, we will have some serious problems.

"For example, take a look at the airport runways. A rise of one foot at the Honolulu Airport could inundate our reef runway, and make certain sections unusable. That's part of climate change. But the bill doesn't go far enough. It should address that. I have other measures that I'd like to add in written comments, Mr. Speaker, but let me just mention to you what we're talking about here, in the bill. The bill says that the purpose of the Act is to encourage collaboration. Well, I want to mandate collaboration. I want to mandate the government agencies, county level and State level to work in advance.

"We're talking about 2050, Mr. Speaker. Thirty-eight years out and what's going to be happening to the reef runway? And you can't go and wait till that fifty or that thirtieth year to take some steps.

"The bill also goes on with the warm and fuzzy language about explore adaptation strategies. I want to implement them, not explore them. And then it says, 'foster cross-jurisdictional collaboration.' I want to mandate that. We don't have the time left. And then it says, 'encourage planning and management.' Warm and fuzzy isn't going to protect our shores against sea level rise, and we need to step forward boldly, and mandate action. Thank you."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"While I am encouraged that my colleagues, in advancing SB2745 thus far, have shown progress by amending the Hawaii State Planning Act to include climate change adaptation priority guidelines, I fear we are failing to look far enough down the road.

"Rising sea level poses a substantial threat to Hawaii's infrastructure and overall economy. The Center for Island Climate Adaptation and Policy (ICAP) has stated that, as a result of climate change, Hawaii is expected to experience a sea level rise of one foot by the year 2050. Long term sea level rise has contributed to, and will continue to contribute to, ongoing coastal erosion, coastal flooding, and drainage problems.

"The science tells us that sea level rise is coming to our islands regardless of mitigation efforts. In order to successfully adapt to rising sea levels in the coming decades, we must implement land use policies that take into consideration ICAP's predictions before it is too late. SB2745 CD1 does not delve deep enough to accomplish this.

"The current bill language maps out climate change guidelines using soft, feel-good language like "encourage", "explore", "foster", and "promote" ... these are positive words, but they are not substantive. The bill amounts to "fluff and puff".

"To ensure Hawaii makes sound planning decisions, this bill should include language that directs the State and counties to take definitive action based on scientific fact.

"We should require the State Office of Planning and the planning authority of each county to take into account a predicted sea level rise of one foot by 2050 when reviewing present applications for building, zoning, and other development permits and when developing future county plans.

"This language was included in the HD1 of this measure (inserted from HB2330). By removing this language in more recent drafts of the bill, we have taken the teeth out of it. We've whittled our planning down to just a surface treatment of the issue, rather than including a specific sea level guideline by which to measure and map our community planning.

"If we do not take steps to adapt to the actual anticipated sea level rise, the scientifically predicted increase in the sea level will inundate our islands and negatively impact our infrastructure. Take for example our coastal airport runways. A rise of one foot at the Honolulu Airport could inundate our reef runway, making sections unusable. This could hurt our tourism industry, our cargo and freight transport, and leave our local residents and businesses with limited mobility and increased vulnerability.

"Or consider Kamehameha, Farrington or Kalanianaʻole Highways on Oahu, our main coastal roads which run along and at a level with the shoreline. The sea level rise of one foot should be taken into consideration for any development along these roads, concurrent infrastructure such as sewer and utility lines, and their future repair, maintenance, and upgrades. Kamehameha Highway along the North Shore is already frequently submerged during times of high winter surf and storm systems. Imagine the difference with the one foot rise, and then imagine the impact if we do not plan for this elevated level.

"With proper planning to take into account the anticipated one foot rise in sea level, we can realistically adapt to these consequential changes. At least this Legislature began to address climate change, and therefore I will vote in support of this bill. However next year the Legislature must look to the far horizon in planning, rather than gazing near-sighted at the current shore. In other words, enact the following language from HB2330:

"The purpose of this Act is to require the state office of planning and the planning authority of each county to take into account a predicted sea level rise of one foot above current levels by 2050 when planning for development.

SECTION 2. Chapter 46, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§46- Sea level rise; planning. The governing body or planning commission or department of each county shall take into account a predicted sea level rise of one foot above current sea level by 2050 when reviewing applications for building, zoning, and other development permits and when developing future county plans for building, zoning, permitting, and other development."

SECTION 3. Chapter 223, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§223- Sea level rise; planning. The office of planning shall develop a strategic plan for directing statewide growth that takes into account a predicted sea level rise of one foot above current sea level by 2050."

SECTION 4. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect upon its approval."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2745, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 10:47 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 2640, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2767, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2632, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 14-12 and S.B. No. 2402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on this measure. Thank you. Though the intent to preserve the natural quality of night sky and its associated values is good in nature, the possible repercussions from excusing grandfathered or current projects seems to deem significant reservations. The bill is unclear as to how much of a new law applies to non-State entities which may pose a regulation issue.

"Dr. Wainscoat from the Starlight Reserve Committee confirmed the ambiguity of non-State projects saying the bill did not include the City and the county. I understand the argument that there are costs associated with retrofitting all projects to meet these standards, but as he confirmed, though inexpensive in comparison to replace and install, these current lights are actually more costly to run, so as a result the State will pay more not to retrofit. We need to look at these improvements as investments.

"But the most worrisome exemption is the Cooke Field renovation as this bill does not require the retrofit of the field. Lights from this field, similarly, can easily affect the light pollution for extensive distances, even as far as the Big Island, affecting the projects drawn to Hawaii because of its natural lighting. In an unprecedented investment in astronomy at Yale, the University entered into a partnership with the California Institute of Technology that gave access to the world's premiere observatories. Yale has invested $12 million towards future operations with the observatory in Hawaii, in exchange for 150 nights of observation time over the next 10 years.

"These telescopes are the two largest, the best in the world. Mr. Speaker, we cannot ignore these investments to our sciences, our knowledge, our prosperity. Not only at a local State level, but moreover, at a national, and an international level. So I'm hoping that we will appreciate the fact that we need to take care of our night sky, and understand that light pollution is important. Additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise with reservations to this bill. Though the intent to preserve the natural quality of the night sky and its associated values is good in nature, the possible repercussions from excusing "grandfathered" or current projects deems significant reservations.

"This bill is also unclear as to how much of the new law applies to non-State entities, which may pose a regulation issue. Dr. Wainscoat, from the Starlight reserve Committee, confirmed the ambiguity of non-State projects saying the bill did not include city/county.

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the argument that there is cost associated with retrofitting all projects to meet these standards, but as Dr. Wainscoat also confirmed, though inexpensive in comparison to replace/install, these current lights cost more to run. As a result, the State will pay more to NOT retrofit.

"We ought to look at these improvements as investments. Perhaps the most worrisome exemption is the Cooke Field renovation, as this bill would not require the retrofit of the field. Lights from this field, and similar, can easily affect the light pollution for an extensive distance – even as far as the big island, affecting projects drawn to Hawaii due to its natural lighting.

"As the Department of Transportation reminds us, the implementation of fully shielded outdoor lights will require coordination with the scientific and environmental parties to properly address the State's lighting needs. Many considerations will be necessary to maintain and ensure transportation safety and security, for instance. The Historic Hawaii Foundation also brings up concerns that some historically significant buildings feature external lights integral to the historic integrity of those structures' design and character. As we must strive to retain a notion of living history through the architecture of times past, we cannot afford to deface elemental lighting fixtures arbitrarily.

"This bill contains several inconsistencies of note. For one, we need not exclude populations of under 100,000 people from these requirements; were we to reach that resort, businesses and others far exceeding light restrictions elsewhere may concentrate in small communities, and produce such excessive light pollution so as to defile natural habitats for many miles around despite their small numbers. Additionally, evidence has shown a maximum correlated color temperature of 4,000 Kelvin harmful to both astronomy and native species, and experts suggest the limit be restored back to its original value of 3,800 Kelvin. If we are to enact such a law, let us design it so as to apply uniformly and effectively.

"In an unprecedented investment in astronomy at Yale, the University entered into a partnership with the California Institute of Technology (Caltech) that gave access to one of the world's premier observatories. Yale invested $12 million towards future operations of the W.M. Keck Observatory in Hawaii in exchange for 150 nights of observing time over the next 10 years. These telescopes are known to be the two largest and best in the world.

"Mr. Speaker, we cannot ignore such lofty investments to our sciences, knowledge and prosperity – not only at a local/State level, but moreover at a national and worldwide level. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support with reservations on SB 2402 relating to light pollution and outdoor lightning. I am worried about the potential negative impact this measure may have on Aloha Stadium because the stadium emanates light upward during sporting and special events. I know the bill has an exemption for sporting venues, but the bill is still somewhat ambiguous with respect to replacements and upgrades. I do, however, support the underlying concept of optimum skies for viewing and enjoying, which is why I am willing to support this measure with reservations."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Conference Committee Report 14-12, Senate Bill 2402, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 1, Conference Draft 1.

"The purpose of this measure is to require all State agencies to use new and replacement outdoor light fixtures that are fully shielded in counties with a population of at least 100,000, with certain exemptions.

"While I understand the intent is to preserve the night sky as a natural, cultural, environmental and scientific resource, my reservations lie with the potential cost of replacing State outdoor light fixtures. The issue of cost is not at all addressed in SB2404 SD1 HD1 CD1. Such an overreaching bill would require installation of many new or replacement State outdoor light fixtures from no specified source of funding and could therefore cost our taxpayers millions of dollars.

"For these reasons, I stand with reservations on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIGHT POLLUTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, with reservations. I do support helping our agricultural enterprises succeed and I do appreciate the opportunity for farmers to sell their goods, especially farmers who have multiple pieces of property, where they cannot sell produce grown on the other lot. So I am in support of the program.

"Where I do have a reservation however, is the potential for abuse. And so I truly hope this will work as intended, and will not run away from us and create other zoning issues, and commercial activities in areas where they shouldn't be. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For the reasons stated by the prior speaker, I'm voting no."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"The purpose of this bill is to make public housing more efficient.

"Some 30,000 individuals are on a waiting list for public housing, there is an urgency to service them. But the process it takes to repair and build more housing units takes too long. This bill streamlines the process.

"While the State is concerned with compliance of the Procurement Code, the bill DOES NOT exempt the HPHA from federal procurement regulations, which are stringent with respect to the public-private partnerships that redevelop HUD public housing properties. The State's Procurement Code would just be a redundancy of regulations. Cutting this extra work will expedite the process. In turn, that gets people in the much-needed shelter quickly.

"To alleviate procurement concerns, the HPHA is still required to submit annual reports on all public-private partnerships."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1398, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2589, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, I rise with some reservations on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 43-12. And just some brief comments. You know, I had an opportunity to speak with some employees with the County of Maui, and removing these vessels could pose a problem for the County, being that they lack the equipment, and other things. As well as a place to store these vehicles. I would like to see, maybe in the future, that we craft some legislation that would include DLNR as part of the equations, looking at ways where we can actually store these abandoned vessels. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2589, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VESSELS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2175, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the measure. Thank you. I'd like to quote from Common Cause. Common Cause states:

This bill exempts task force members from the state's ethics code. We believe that task forces play an important role in the policy making process and the ethics and credibility of task force members is so important.

Although this measure is better than previous versions, in that it's more narrowly tailored, we're still very concerned about section 3 that allows task force members to share confidential government information with the entity they represent. This is problematic in that some companies in a given industry may be represented on a task force, but not their competitors. Those with task force representation could end up using confidential government information for private profit, or to gain advantage over their competitors. Clearly this would not be in the public interest.

"And I agree with the statements of Common Cause. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with reservations. Echoing some of the comments that were previously made. I mean clearly, we live in a cynical world. A very cynical world. And we work in a business with tough competitors. And to give one set of folks an advantage over another is questionable. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this practical, common sense and reality-based measure which exempts members of government task forces from certain requirements, restrictions, and prohibitions of the State's code of ethics.

"The State benefits when it can call upon knowledgeable people to provide advice and recommendations in the early stages of policy and legislation formation. The Executive and Legislature create task forces composed of such knowledgeable people to provide this kind of expertise. Inevitably, some of the most knowledgeable people will be those who work in the area. People who work in a subject area can offer valuable insight gained through daily exposure to a subject area. However, working in the area would constitute a conflict of interest if these knowledgeable people were treated as State employees. However, task force members – other than those serving by virtue of their position as a State official – are not state employees. They have no ministerial or discretionary power and are often uncompensated for their time and expertise.

"In recent years the Administration has convened a working group on homeless issues which include many stakeholders who have long worked in such area. The Legislature recently also convened and benefitted greatly from stakeholders addressing issues related to the foreclosure crisis facing Hawaii homeowners.

"These task forces are not decision making bodies. The recommendations of such task forces are considered by the decision makers in full knowledge of the identity of such task force members. Actual decision makers remain subject to the State Ethics Code requirements. They are free to evaluate the advice of a task force and accept or reject it in whole or in part.

"The numerous requirements of the State Ethics Code – if applied wholesale to task force members as if they were full-fledged "employees" of the State – would discourage knowledgeable people from serving on task forces and giving the state their time and expertise. They cannot be expected to make their knowledge available to the public, when to do so would impinge on their livelihoods.

"This measure exempts members of task forces from specific Ethics Code requirements that would discourage them from serving on task forces and freely giving of their knowledge and time. The State will benefit by having better informed policies and legislation and no harm will result because these task forces are not decision makers.

"This bill exempts persons appointed to serve on task forces or groups established for the sole purpose of recommending possible legislation, from the provisions of Chapter 84, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), the State Ethics Code. It does this by seven means: (1) defining "task force"; (2) specifically exempting task force members from HRS Section 84-12 on Confidential Information; (3) exempting task force members from HRS Section 84-13 on "Fair Treatment"; (4) exempting task force members from HRS Section 84-14 on "Conflicts of Interest"; (5) exempting task force member from HRS Section 84-15 (b) on the award of contracts; (7) exempting task force members from 84-18 (c) on representation of on matters on which an employee participated.

"The objective of this bill is to carve out persons tapped to share information and expertise with State officials and agencies on an ad hoc, particularized basis, from the Ethics Code. As the Attorney General testified, this bill recognizes two realities: first that with increasing frequency, State officials and agencies need to deal with issues and situations that require technical or experiential information that government does not have and cannot readily obtain; and second, that individuals capable of providing State decision-makers with this knowledge and expertise often acquired that information and experience by owning or working for business or other undertakings that deal with the very issue or situations which the government needs to deal.

"Similarly, this bill responds to the recently raised questions as to whether the Ethics Code's conflict of interest provisions preclude these knowledgeable individuals from serving on these task forces or foreclose them from future associations with the business or undertakings through which they gained that knowledge and expertise. The Legislature, as a policy matter, resolves any ambiguity as to the Ethics Code's applicability to individuals tapped to serve on task forces and other groups, by opting in favor of informed decision-making, and exempting members of these ad hoc, particularized groups from the Ethics Code. The public will have the benefit of their specialized knowledge, expertise, and advice in the policies and legislation considered and enacted."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise with reservations. I'm inclined to support the measure even though I have some concerns just because I do believe that it is in the interest of good government and the people to have the expertise beginning at the phase of creation and/or potential revision of some of our laws and/or creations of the State. I think you need that expertise at the beginning stages of process. I also believe that sometimes in the implementation end of things, you need that same expertise, particularly in a smaller state where we're less able to draw from a pool of talent.

"I do worry that there might be potential conflicts of interest and maybe ask that in the future, when this Body considers changes to the ethics laws, perhaps we consider some of the federal guidelines that end up creating carve outs. So if you are involved in the inception of the entity or the regulation of an entity and formation of it, in the future if you are still subsequently involved, then with respect to profits and other personal gain, sometimes those things are carved out at the federal level. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. And may the highly nuanced and specific comments of the previous speaker be entered into the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to express several reservations regarding H.B. 2175, despite my overall support for the bill's intentions. H.B. 2175 exempts task force members from certain requirements, restrictions, and prohibitions of the State's code of ethics. It defines "task force," and becomes effective July 1, 2012.

"Most specifically, H.B. 2175 provides an exemption for members of task forces or working groups established by the Legislature from the conflict of interest law under the State Ethics Code, and excludes such members from the definition of "employee." The intention of this bill is to broaden the pool of qualified candidates who serve on legislative task forces, and encourage those to join who would maximally contribute to dialogue between task force members and the industries investigated.

"The League of Women Voters of Hawaii voices grave concern about the "inherent risks of actual or at least the perception of conflict of interest, including undue influence and the use of public office for personal gain." In these times of eroding public trust in government, we must take care not to build loopholes to obscure transparency. Of all people, task force members who formulate recommendations on possible legislation must be held to utmost standards of scrutiny.

"Last year, the State Ethics Commission advised the Mortgage Foreclosure Task Force on about the application of the conflicts of interest law to their ability to lobby the Legislature on behalf of a private business. Restrictions are placed on paid lobbyists serving on task force in order to prevent "influence peddling," and State employees are also subsumed under such restrictions. Let us remain consistent to past applications of the Ethics Code, and simplify boundaries for our "red tape." Once we open up loopholes, we invite the system down a slippery slope.

"Americans for Democratic Action in Hawaii also opposes H.B. 2175, reasoning that – by excluding members of task forces and working groups from the Ethics Code definition of "employee" – we would imply it acceptable for those members to: accept or solicit gifts intended to influence recommendations; disclose confidential information to the public; seek favors; seek contracts with a State agency without undergoing the bid process. Indeed, any one of these concerns amply justifies our reasons to be wary of this bill and its repercussions. Let us follow our best instincts, and reexamine how its expansive intentions may swerve recklessly once applied."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For the same reason stated previously, with reservations. And as I read section 3, that looked like a good location for a Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2175, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ETHICS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Pine and Thielen voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 49-12 and H.B. No. 2347, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2347, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. This measure authorizes the counties to issue GO bonds secured by a pledge of certain receipts. Now what does that mean? That means they can borrow more money if they pledge such things as, in addition to property taxes, rental fees, charges, taxes, State and federal grants, etc. Mr. Speaker, this is like you wanting to increase your borrowing power by throwing in your, not just your house, but your boat, your dog, your cat, your kids, your surfboard and everything else.

"The point is this is the State of Hawaii saying to the counties, 'Hey guys. We want you to borrow more money.' That is not a good sign, and the argument against that is, 'Hey, money is cheap now. We should be borrowing more money.' Case in point. When you borrow more money, you have to pay more money, and right now, there are places on the mainland that have done this, and they've nearly bankrupted their counties.

"Case in point, the City and County of Honolulu, the City Council just passed a $450 million line of credit. A line of credit for $450 million. The point is, if they're trying to secure the rail by having more of State taxpayers' money in hock, I don't think we should be part and parcel of that. And, Mr. Speaker, because of those various reasons and the endangerment of an indebtedness, particularly in a nation of the United States, where we're 40 cents on every dollar that we spend is borrowed money. This is a dangerous downward trend that we shouldn't let the counties get into. And for those reasons I am voting no. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I think it's probably also true that revenue bonds have even lower interest rates than regular bonds because there is something backing them up. That's why you get the lower rate. So there's actually a fiscal advantage to doing this.

"With regard to rail, I mean, this is a perfect example. The City has a revenue stream coming in that they can borrow against because they know they're going to get the money for rail, because that's the only purpose that money can be used for.

"So I think, as a fiscal matter, if you're going to borrow the money anyway, revenue bonds probably make sense. If you're not going to borrow the money at all, then I agree with the former speaker. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker: I rise with reservations on HB 2347, a bill that would allow the counties to issue general obligation bonds, that is borrow money, in excess of what the county property taxes can support.

"This bill was supported by the City and County of Honolulu. They say it is to give bondholders more security by using fees, receipts and even State and federal grant funds as collateral to issue general obligation bonds.

"But in reality this bill will leave the residents of Oahu less secure since the City will be pledging fees and grant funds that can easily change or disappear. This leaves the taxpayers, such as the voters in my district, with having to pay off these bonds – money that was borrowed using volatile revenue sources.

"Mr. Speaker, look at the history of cities in California who pledged various revenues to borrow large sums of money that they could no longer pay off when the economy soured. In some cases, such as Vallejo, California, local governments had to declare bankruptcy.

"We have an obligation to ensure our counties remain financially viable. This bill sets an ominous precedent. I urge my colleagues to show they are financially responsible and vote against this measure."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations on this, because I feel that it could be a risky venture. Revenue bonds do have the proceeds going toward repayment of the bonds as it's fairly sure bet, so that's why the interest rates are lower. These are GO bonds with slightly higher rates and I think the risk is greater. So I caution the counties on using this particular device. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 11:05 o'clock a.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:07 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, it is 11:07 and I have just been informed that the Senate is finished with their Floor session for today. The finished at 10:56."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, and a cautionary note in terms of revenue from the train. If there's anything that is not a revenue winner, it's the mass transit. Case in point, almost all of the metros in the United States have a fare box that contributes maybe 35% on the dollar, which means 65 cents on the dollar is public subsidy. And I believe I'm at the end of my thing unless I can't say anything else."

Representative Chong rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. It's not in the bill. Thank you."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, please talk about the bill."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"The point is, I'm responding to the gentleman saying, that 'Hey, fare boxes on mass transit is a money winner,' and my point is that it's a money loser because 65% is subsidized. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in support. If we're going to go off on that tangent of argument, almost all forms of transportation are subsidized. Certainly airlines are. Cars are as well, if you look at the construction costs of putting together the streets and highways. So if we're talking about revenue bonds, that's a different issue. And the actual revenue, whether it covers the cost of the transportation type, is irrelevant to the question of whether there will be revenue. That's what the bond issuers look at. They don't look at whether the proposition makes money necessarily. What they're looking at is whether the source of revenue is secure, and certainly the source of revenue would be secure under those circumstances."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2347, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS FOR REVENUE-PRODUCING UNDERTAKINGS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Ward voting no.

At 11:10 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 2593, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1666, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 679, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1398, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 2589, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 2175, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 2347, SD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 50-12 and H.B. No. 2099, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2099, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. No. 2099. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is just yet another bill that will hurt job creation. It will slow our economic recovery, for it attempts to overthrow well-reasoned court decisions issued by the Intermediate Court of Appeals in 2008, Kelly vs. Metal-Weld Specialties that clarified a party that goes to court over a workers' compensation case is not responsible for paying the attorney's fees, if it is determined that the case was brought to the court on unreasonable grounds.

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that the people who decide whether a case is unreasonable are biased against employers, small business, and insurers. Hawaii's track record of workers' compensation costs show that our small businesses are paying higher premiums, have more claims, and that workers stay out longer than other states. So now we are adding to the workers' comp burden, by saying that if you try to defend yourself, someone can decide that you have to pay all of the attorney costs. So this just is not right. It will further hurt employment in Hawaii.

"I'm urging my colleagues to stand up for the fairness, to uphold the ICA decision, to vote no, because it will be a nail in the coffin of jobs and employment in our State. It'll just send a chilling effect on all employers in the State that now you are responsible for paying all of the attorney costs of a worker's compensation legal case, if the Director of DLIR says you are somehow, 'unreasonable' in protesting the workers' comp claim.

"Mr. Speaker, unreasonable is a vague and arbitrary standard. No two people may agree on what constitutes a 'unreasonable' action. So to tell the small businesses in my district, who I talk to on a regular basis, and they all bring this up, workers' comp. That you run a huge financial risk when you think that an employee has improperly filed a workers' comp claim. It's just not balanced and further discourages companies from hiring our people, and getting our economy going. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. After much thought, I would like to vote no on this measure. And the reason I want to vote no on this measure, is because it seems to be a defense insurance kind of a measure. There's little attention being paid towards the plaintiffs. I'm disappointed we didn't pass any measure for plaintiffs who seek better care in the hospitals, and etc. This opens the door for suits, expenses. 'Unreasonable' can be identified in many different ways, and this bill here makes me very concerned that the defense attorneys and the insurance companies will have an advantage over the working people. Thank you, very much."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This bill is an attempt to eliminate frivolous lawsuits, both from plaintiffs and defendants, whichever side of the workers' comp divide you're on. This should ensure fairness, that the other side is not moving forward with the defense, or bringing a claim that's frivolous. Because if you lose, if it is frivolous, and the court catches you doing it, you get to pay the other person's attorney's fees and that's often a substantial sum of money.

"With regard to it being some kind of a job killer. I don't see how. On the contrary, those who are injured, if the workers' comp case is moved quicker, people would be back to work sooner, and that would actually be a job creator in the sense that more people would be working. So, I'm not sure what the rationale there is.

"The other thing to point out is that workers' comp rates have been falling in this State for several years now. And if we can't take care of the workers who are legitimately injured without insurance companies raising frivolous defenses, that poses a problem. I think the reason that the insurance companies are opposed to this measure is because they're the ones that are putting forth the frivolous defenses. The people, who are actually injured, don't play those games as often. I'm not saying they never play them, but they don't play them as often, and that's why this has broken down on the ideological lines it has. Because it's the insurers who were doing most of the game playing. Mahalo."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I wish to rebut. The workers' compensation law that we have, at one time provided a 69% in savings in the workers' comp law. And it still provides considerable savings in relation to the rest of the nation. Our workers' comp medical cost is between 110 of Medicare. Nationally, the average is 141. And I can point to people right now in the hospital, emergency rooms, on the verge of dying because they didn't get timely medical care. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this particular measure. I think most employers would like to see their employees' injuries taken care of in a timely fashion. But there are times when you feel that it may not be a reasonable injury. This further adds to the cost and impacts of a skewed workers' compensation insurance system in Hawaii. And even though the cost may be lower now, it may arise if we keep adding on increased cost, like this one, for attorneys' fees.

"It has long been documented that work comp costs in Hawaii are high and the program is distorted because the presumption is, that any injury to a worker occurs on the job. Remember the fellow jogging after work. He fell, and that was a work injury. The burden falls on the employer and their insurance company then, to prove otherwise, that it wasn't a work injury. Further, our State says that the DLIR Director, the Director of the Labor and Industrial Relations Board, or a court decide that the employer's efforts to challenge the work comp claim are unreasonable. Then the small business must pay for the legal proceedings.

"In 2008, the ICA, the Intermediate Court of Appeals, as aforementioned, determined that attorneys' fees should not be included in the cost of these proceedings, and now this bill would reverse that court decision. It puts a further financial impact on companies who question work comp claims.

"I have no problem with the concept of loser pays in court actions. In fact, I wish Hawaii would adopt this in tort liability cases. But the work comp program is not a loser pay system. Rather, it allows for an arbitrary and possibly capricious decision to be made against the small business man or woman, who questions a work comp matter and decides to prosecute the claim. When will my colleagues realize that every time you pass laws like this, you add one more obstacle to those who want to employ people? I will vote no because I know this bill is bad for jobs and for the workers of our State. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, first may I have the words of the speaker from Chinatown entered into the record as if they were my own? Secondly, Mr. Speaker, I do insurance defense work, and I can attest to the fact that there are frivolous claims brought every day. And as the speaker from Downtown, Chinatown, noted, that generally, it's not the actual plaintiffs themselves. But the fact is that you have insurance companies and their lawyers, who do this knowing that there's no downside.

"And I'll give you a perfect case in point. Chapter 480-2 which deals with unfair and deceptive trade practices. There's absolutely no penalty there for someone who brings a frivolous suit because, and most plaintiffs' lawyers, my friends tell me all time, 'We bring that suit all the time because we've got nothing to lose.' So the fact is, this type of measure here will prevent those frivolous claims, because it ensures that you must have a legitimate claim in order to get your attorneys' fees, and as such, I do support this measure wholeheartedly. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. With regard to the presumption for workers' comp cases. The presumption is not if you're injured anytime that it's going to workers' comp. If you're playing softball after work and you get hurt, you're on HMSA, or Kaiser, or whatever your insurance policy is. But you have to look back at the history a little bit, too, with regard to that presumption. It used to be that if you got hurt at work, you just sued in a normal court case, and punitive damages can be pretty crippling to a company.

"Finally, eventually, it was decided that this is a really inefficient way to do things. Let's just get rid of the torts for workers' cases, and we'll go to what we have now, which is essentially a no fault system. If the presumption is that if you're at work, and you're injured or there's some kind of illness that results from that, then it goes into the workers' comp system. But that was I think, the explicit tradeoff between getting rid of it. What business gained by going to the workers' comp system is, they don't have to get sued in a regular, drawn out litigation with depositions and expert witnesses every time somebody stubs their toe at work.

"So we have to look at the overall picture of the context here which is one of workers' comp I'm sure is cheaper and much less hassle than going back to a tort system. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may rebut. I could only wish that the remarks of the Chinatown Representative were true, that work comp injuries were always adjudicated on the basis of whether they're hurt on the job or for other activities. But I cite again the case that went clear up to the Hawaii Supreme Court, where a fellow was jogging after work at the Kalani High School track, fell and injured himself. That was deemed a work comp injury by the Hawaii Supreme Court. The employer has to prove otherwise that it was not. So you know, this is a problem because the word unreasonable can be determined. It could be arbitrary. It could be capricious, and no two people will consider it the same way. So this is not a good bill to pass. I think it would add costs, increase premiums, and hurt job creation. Thank you, very much."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 55-12 and H.B. No. 2290, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2290, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I'm standing in support, Mr. Speaker. International Children's Day is recognized on June 1st of each year. In fact, Hong Kong celebrates Children's Day on April 4th. The People's Republic of China celebrates this day on June 1, and in Japan it's celebrated on May 5th. Truly, this is a global event. Hawaii is the only state in the nation that has enacted legislation to recognize and celebrate Children and Youth Day. We do this on the first Sunday in October, and for the entire month of October. This is in Hawaii Revised Statutes, Section 8-11.

"This measure will authorize Children and Youth Day to be held at the State Capitol, unless otherwise determined by the Governor. Mr. Speaker, the importance of this is that we have 40,000 people that come to this event annually. 40,000. That's near the capacity size of the Aloha Stadium. And again, we're celebrating our most precious resource, our keiki.

"What kind of events do we have for the youth? A number of events. Over 200 exhibitors and community organizations provide sporting events, games, rides, demonstrations, tournaments, teen zone, free tours, hands-on art and cultural activities. I think you get the picture. This event is very important to the kids and to our State. Again it shows that the State Legislature supports Hawaii's most precious resource, and that's our keiki. Therefore, I support this measure and I'm hoping that all Members support it also. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure, and I commend the Representative from Kalihi and his predecessor and my Senator who started this so many years ago. It is so beautiful sight to behold the children coming to their State Capitol, having fun. But most importantly, being comfortable here. It's so important that we appreciate when the children come here, because they're going to be our future, and as you all know, we appreciate when they testify, whether it be the Education Committee. And I think more events like this should happen. We should remember that this is a huge piece of property right here, with a big setback and a beautiful lawn. And it belongs to the people of Hawaii. I just think that the Children and Youth Day is truly one of the most beautiful events to behold. A great idea. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2290, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN AND YOUTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 56-12 and H.B. No. 2320, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2320, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor. I'd like to express one reservation if I may. Thank you. It's just that this deals with the lifetime revocation of getting one's driver's license back. Lifetime to me, meant lifetime. But now this bill changes the lifetime to 5 years, and I just thought that was too short. So I wanted to express that thought. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise with slight reservations to this bill.

"The current draft of this bill provides individuals with LIFETIME revocations to apply for reinstatement of license and privilege to drive a motor vehicle without an ignition interlock after 5 years. The SD2 version of this bill provided the 7 year term, something more agreeable, as I believe this is a serious issue.

"These said individuals would have had their driver's licenses revoked due to impaired driving, not once, but multiple times. Statistically, as noted by MADD on their website, the average drunk driver has driven under the influence an average of 80 times before their first arrest. Mr. Speaker, these ignition interlock devices are installed after MULTIPLE times being caught driving impaired. If we do the math that could mean many of these drivers have been on our roads HUNDREDS of times impaired. The very roads we drive home from work, pick the kids up from school, attend evening functions, etc. Every moment these drivers have been on the road, they have put lives at risk.

"Mr. Speaker, my reservations are simply that 5 years is not enough for these repeat offenders. These offenders have been provided an opportunity to rectify their personal practices by utilizing an ignition interlock device. I would hope these drivers would be so thankful as to not mind utilizing such devices. I would hope they would be thankful to not only have their transportation, but additionally their lives. MADD also notes that these ignition interlock devices decrease drunk driving up to 67%. That is why I believe these devices ought to be utilized to the fullest extent.

"Mr. Speaker, while I stand with reservations to this bill due to the timeframe mandated for repeat offenders, I must commend the efforts to instill a stronger stance in the prevention of impaired driving. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2320, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1892, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This is a small bill that would ensure that the Elections Office will act in a timely manner to fund the work of future Reapportionment Commissions. It may not make headlines, but this is the kind of measure that should appeal to my colleague from Manoa, because it fills the gap in a law. I can hear him assuring me, 'I was inspired, and I'm an accountant.' Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1892, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE REAPPORTIONMENT COMMISSION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 11:29 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 63-12 and H.B. No. 1875, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1875, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Riviere rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to get a ruling on a potential conflict on this one, and later on, on S.B. 2763. I just wanted to state that I am a mortgage loan officer," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Riviere continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. On this particular measure, H.B. 1875, I stand in opposition. I know a lot of work has gone into this, and I know the product that has come out at the end is quite a bit better than it started out. And I can understand why people would be reluctant to oppose this.

"My objection is to the 60-day provision. After the foreclosure process is expired, there's still 60 days in which somebody can claim an Unfair and Deceptive Act Practice, and that will have an even more chilling effect than exists now, when in fact, as I've said many times, nobody has used the non-judicial process. What we're doing is, we're making it even harder for judicial foreclosures in the affirmation clause.

"There's some testimony that in probate cases, the attorneys already sign off that everything included in the file is 100% golden, and they'll attest to it. I don't believe that's the correct interpretation of that. So anyway, without getting too far into the details here, I am still concerned that this bill does not fix the non-judicial process. Nobody will use it. This doesn't fix any of the fatal flaws of the system, and I fear that it will also make it worse in the end for judicial foreclosures. So for those reasons, please note my opposition. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Yes, I'd like a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm we occasionally do work involving foreclosures," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Keith-Agaran continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support. But we may not do foreclosures anymore. Thank you."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I request a ruling on a potential conflict? I serve as a director on a homeowner association. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This is a very significant bill for Hawaii's homeowners, and it's the result of a lot of work, collaboration, negotiation, and quite frankly, heart. Despite the criticism of Act 48, the task force which we discussed a little earlier, a group comprised of stakeholders with diverse interest did a thorough and comprehensive analysis of Act 48 over the year, and in the end they recommended a number of refinements to preserve the intent and spirit of the law and make it work.

"The task force recommended, number one, that we temper the UDAP provisions so lenders need not fear the UDAP liability for minor violations.

"Number two. Make permanent the process allowing the owner occupant to convert the non-judicial foreclosures, to judicial foreclosures.

"Number three. Establish a separate non-judicial foreclosure and lien collection process for associations.

"Number four. Give similar rights and obligations to planned community associations.

"Number five. Provide specific language for informational notices to the public on the foreclosure process.

"And number six. Provide technical clarifications in improvements of various provisions in Act 48.

"The bill virtually adopts all the task force recommendations with a few modifications. As a legislative body we went a little further, fully repealing

Part 1, non-judicial process that once had been used to take land from Native Hawaiians. And in the last 10 to 15 years had been the mechanism to non-judicially foreclose on homeowners, often without their knowledge and without providing them a fair opportunity to save their homes. In Act 48, we just put a stop to it. Now we've gotten rid of it. This is a dreadful part of Hawaii's Code, through which too many people suffered, and repeal of this law is long-overdue.

"We made the Dispute Resolution Program permanent. In Act 48, we sunset it after five years.

"We have language resulting from a tremendous amount of discussion and negotiation, that creates a solid lien collection and foreclosure process for condominium, homeowner and planned community associations, which harmonizes with Hawaii's foreclosure process. We incorporate the requirement that for the next 5 years, lenders' attorneys filing for a judicial foreclosure must sign an affirmation stating that it verified the bank's legal standing and the accuracy of the documents submitted to court. This is a requirement that has been imposed on all judicial foreclosure actions in New York State. Since all foreclosures are now being pursued judicially, we can assure that our courts and State resources are not exploited and used as instruments of fraud.

"We cleaned up the publication requirements for auction notices, so no one newspaper will have a monopoly on these notices. One paper doubled their prices in response to Act 48. This is exploitive and troubling.

"We also gave State agencies the authority to establish and maintain a website to electronically publish these notices. To get us started, the DCCA will create a website for property subject to the Dispute Resolution Program. If a lender chooses to publish their auction notice electronically, they will need to publish it once in a newspaper at least two weeks before the auction. These provisions balance cost against the need for widespread dissemination. Homeowners will be helped because these publication fees are passed on to them in the cost of foreclosure.

"And I want to thank my colleagues here in the House and my counterparts in the Senate, for their support and hard work on this bill. And I'd especially like to thank Senator Baker, and Everett Kaneshige, in particular. They marshaled the condominium and planned community associations in their agreement. I don't have any of them in my district, so I don't get involved. These issues were very contentious and they should be credited for encouraging their consensus and firming up the association lien collection and foreclosure.

"But all is not rosy with this bill. Just like Act 48, we managed to offend a lot of people. In the aftermath of Act 48, the opponents said the banks would stop lending, but today, strangely, the banks are advertising reduced mortgage rates to encourage more borrowing. The opponents said our courts would be overwhelmed. Well yes, the courts said we would experience a surge, but the overall foreclosure rate ... "

Representative Yamane rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes continued, stating:

"The overall foreclosure rate has been cut in half, and through sound leadership, our courts are managing. They said property values will decline, but according to reports, home prices are not only stabilizing, but growing stronger. They said bankruptcy rates would rise, but Mr. Speaker, the rate of bankruptcy filings has fallen dramatically.

"So just like last year, we managed to offend some of the offshore banks, and especially the attorneys that deal with foreclosures with this bill. Well, we also offended the newspaper. A lot of you got a letter involved in that, but we did the right thing.

"You know, it's clear to me that this Body and the Senate has once again won one for Hawaii's homeowners, and I couldn't be more pleased. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I'd like to insert additional comments."

Representative Herkes' written remarks are as follows:

"In a recent news release this week from the US Department of the Treasury, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network found that Hawaii ranks #2 in the nation for Mortgage Loan Fraud. Mr. Speaker, Hawaii's people are a prime target for predatory lending. And when they can't pay, the banks further strip them of their dignity when they foreclose. Act 48 gives them a shot at mitigating the damages to homeowners, their families, and our communities. This bill strengthens the ground-breaking work of Act 48.

"I also want to elaborate further on the Attorney Affirmation that is in this bill.

"In New York State, foreclosures are only allowed judicially. Based upon the experience the New York Courts have had with the pervasive fraud perpetuated in their system during the foreclosure crisis, the Chief Administrator of their statewide court system determined it was necessary to impose a requirement that is almost verbatim to the language adopted in this CD.

"When speaking on the affirmation requirement, the Chief Justice of the New York State Courts explained in article published in the New York Law Journal on October 21, 2010:

"We feel we have an obligation to make sure the attorneys do their due diligence and come to us with credible papers because the consequences [of wrongful foreclosures] are so great. . . . I think this makes clear to everybody the court system's absolute commitment that we are not going to allow anything to interfere with the integrity of the court process[.] . . . We want to make sure that everyone is focusing like a laser on these particular types of proceedings[.] . . . It puts them on notice. That's what this is all about. We all have to make doubly sure that we are doing what we should be doing in the first place[.] . . . [W]e cannot allow the courts in New York State to stand by idly and be party to what we now know is a deeply flawed process. "

"The article quoted one New York judge, who explained: "[S]ome lawyers appearing before him have admitted to signing documents at a rate of 'hundreds a week and thousands a month, and the notary wasn't even in the room[.]'"

"According to the article, unlike the Hawaii State Bar Association, "The New York State Bar Association welcomed the new requirement. Its president, Stephen P. Younger, said in a statement that 'the chief judge has taken swift steps to address a nationwide problem in foreclosure actions. The New York State Bar Association applauds any effort to preserve and maintain the integrity of the foreclosure process.'"

"This approach is not only taken in New York State, but also two major counties in the State of Ohio. Despite court challenge, these attorney affirmation requirements in New York and Ohio still stand.

"By filing all their foreclosures in courts, the banks have essentially clogged up our judiciary with countless fraudulent claims – preventing our courts from swiftly disposing of other more legitimate claims.

"The attorney affirmation requirement will limit the use of the judicial process to only those lenders with proper legal standing.

"There is no attorney affirmation requirement in the non-judicial process. Lawyers uncomfortable signing the affirmation can advise their clients to go the non-judicial route.

"As a result, we may see use of the dispute resolution program as the only viable alternative. Nevertheless, that process requires banks to show their paperwork that would establish standing. The reaction of the banks should help us determine just how pervasive their problems with legal standing are.

"In earlier testimony, the Hawaii Bar Association claimed there was no empirical evidence that would warrant the attorney affirmation. I beg to differ. An audit by the San Francisco County Recorder's, as reported in the NY Times in mid-February 2012, found that 84 % of the foreclosure files they reviewed were done illegally; with two-thirds of those with 4 separate instances of fraud or irregularity.

"This requirement is necessary to protect homeowners against banks who've cheated. Too often, the banks win on default because the homeowners don't know what defenses to make.

"We are still in a foreclosure crisis. A recent article by the Associated Press dated March 14, 2012, noted that RealtyTrac projects foreclosures to rise by twenty-five per cent this year. Placing a 5 year limit should appease the concerns of the bar association and other legislators while we do what is necessary to protect Hawaii's homeowners from lender fraud during this foreclosure crisis.

"This requirement is not as unorthodox as the opponents suggest. Hawaii's Rules of Court on Probate has an attorney affirmation requirement, Rule 5(b).

"The bar association testifies that there are "existing safeguards to ensure the integrity of the judicial foreclosure process; and that sanctions for misconduct already exist and are effective." However, a recent order from Judge Seabright in Hawaii's federal district court (March 29, 2012 p. 13 on Civil No. 11-00632 JMS/RLP) determined that the lender did not have legal standing, and admonished the lender's attorney for failing to verify such standing. The judge said: "This dismissal does not prevent Plaintiff from performing due diligence (as it should have before filing the instant complaint) to determine whether and how it validly received the Mortgage and Note and bringing a new action seeking foreclosure." [Emphasis added.]

"Clearly, this order – coming out just last month – proves that the problem of standing is alive and well and infecting countless foreclosure files – if detected.

"Enacting the attorney affirmation requirement should significantly curb the rate of fraudulent judicial filings by requiring, as Judge Seabright suggests, that lawyers first determine whether their clients have legal standing before seeking foreclosure.

"It's clear that "existing safeguards" did not prevent the lender's attorney in this case from filing a foreclosure action – perhaps because they did not expect a homeowner to challenge standing or a court to make the inquiry.

"If lenders' attorneys have actually verified legal standing, they should have nothing to fear by signing such an affirmation.

"Opponents to the attorney affirmation cite to one NY case that held the affirmation requirement was "invalid." LaSalle Bank, NA v. Pace, 919 N.Y.S. 2d 794 (N.Y. sup. 2011). However, this was a ruling by a trial level court so its application is extremely limited to Suffolk County in New York. The analysis by that court rendered the requirement invalid not for any of the reasons cited by the bar association, but because it felt the Chief Administrator of Courts had overstepped his authority by instituting the requirement. The case discusses at length how its analysis would have been different if the requirement were a legislative act.

"Nevertheless, the requirement is still in effect in all of the rest of New York; as well as in two counties in Ohio where it has also survived challenge.

"It's easy to know when a borrower defaults on his or her mortgage. And it is happening more and more in this faltering economy – an economy we can lay blame upon the behemoth banks for creating. But we shouldn't allow the very same banks to foreclose on people's homes because they are stealth about hiding the multiple ways they've cheated.

"We must do what we can to ensure that homeowners at risk of foreclosure face a just resolution."

At 11:38 o'clock a.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:46 o'clock a.m.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to address Conference Committee Report No. 63. After the nice speech given by the Chairman of Consumer Protection, unfortunately, I will speak in opposition. I think this is a bill that makes a bad mortgage foreclosure system, even worse. I opposed Act 48 in 2011 because I knew that it would make the housing situation in Hawaii, worse, and in the past year I feel that I have been proven right. As soon as the Legislature passed the bill, Fannie Mae and Freddy Mac issued a mandate to lenders in Hawaii to stop all non-judicial foreclosures. That forced the lenders to switch to the judicial process. The result has been a clog in our courts, resulting in a backlog of mortgage foreclosure actions.

"The situation will only prolong a return to a strong housing and construction market. Now this bill attempts to correct some of the bad consequences of passing Act 48 last year, but this bill makes some things worse. The Hawaii Credit Union League, the Hawaii Financial Services Association, the Hawaii Bankers Association, and even the State Bar Association have all testified against 1875. They're still very much afraid of the Unfair and Deceptive Practices Act. Their suggestions have been largely ignored.

"While I support efforts to ensure that condo associations and homeowners associations can recoup amounts owed them, this bill does not go far enough, in making it easier for these associations to ensure that delinquent and non-cooperative condo owners pay their fair share promptly or lose their property. Condo associations are not banks or mortgage companies and they should not suffer by having to wait long periods to recover their costs. Further, this bill fails to address the need to continue prompt foreclosures against investor-owned properties.

"Mr. Speaker, I feel that we have messed up. This bill tries to fix the mess, but it only makes it messier. The people who suffer are families and homeowners who have to face higher down payments and more difficulty in getting home loans because this Legislature disrupted a mortgage foreclosure system that, for the most part, has worked satisfactorily for the past 50 years. I will vote against this bill, and warn my colleagues that you are making another mistake just as you did when you supported Act 48. Mahalo."

Representative Herkes rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A lot of the issues that the previous speaker brought up, were echoed by the offshore banks, the attorneys that do foreclosure law and the newspaper. And they're all wrong. We have found that the rates are going down, nationally. And I might add that when the one newspaper, the foreclosure attorneys, and the offshore banks are all upset with this bill, that we did something right."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 64-12 and H.B. No. 2078, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2078, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 65-12 and H.B. No. 1054, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1054, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At the risk of wearing out my welcome, I just want to say thank you on this particular measure. We owe the Chairman of Education a vote of thanks for championing this bill through this House, and also Senator Tokuda the Chair of the Senate Education Committee, for doing a really great, heroic job on this measure in the Senate. She did a gut and replace so this bill survived to live on to Conference Committee. The House Bill, although I prevailed upon the House Chairman to hear it in the Education Committee, died in House Finance.

"But what we have is a great measure that enables volunteers to work for their branch libraries, their neighborhood libraries and raise money for their own libraries and be able to turn over the money for the benefit of their libraries. So it's a great victory, it's a great fix. And I really thank the two Education Chairs. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support with written comments, please."

Representative Chong's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I would like to thank the two Chairs of Education for addressing this issue. I especially would like to thank Representative Mark Hashem who led the charge to have this bill address the issues to help the Aina Haina Library and many other library volunteer associations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, as a former Peace Corps volunteer, volunteerism means a lot. This bill puts life back into volunteerism. It's a real victory for those who give hours, upon hours, upon hours of their time to their libraries of which now, there's a settlement about where the money's going to go and what it's going to be used for. But it doesn't have the discouragement factor of which, the actual Friends of the Library of Kailua were at warring odds with the Friends of the Library of Aina Haina.

"This bill is a victory for peace between those communities. This victory is a peace for the communities that were at odds, and now for those with the financial concern, everybody seems to be happy. But overall, it shows that the democratic process does work. It's self correcting. And when people sit and reason together, better than the task force that was going to be set up for people to sit and argue together. When they reason together, they can come to bills like this, and we should all be proud that this is taking place. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashem's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of HB1054 HD1 SD1 CD1. This measure will help assist communities to more effectively support their local libraries in a meaningful way. The role that libraries play to enhance the lives and minds of people in Hawaii's communities is important. HB1054 will provide the opportunity for, and encourage, additional public-private partnerships to continue to benefit the State Library System at the community level and make sure that these vital public institutions are supported in the best way possible.

"I believe that HB1054 recognizes and acknowledges the passion, hard work, and dedication of such individuals who have given so selflessly to our local libraries without any real inhibiting factors. For these reasons, I am in strong support of this measure."

Representative M. Lee rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I have a ruling on a possible conflict? I'm a member of the Board of the Friends of the Mililani Public Library, and a charter member of the Friends of the Mililani Public Library," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative M. Lee continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, and just briefly in support. You know, I'm very glad that this passed and I just wanted to make a comment about some things that appeared in the media. One was, you know, that this was the fight between the big Friends, and the little Friends. You know, all of us are little friends. The Mililani Library is an affiliate, but they're also everyday people working in the community. It's not a lot of fun to sort dusty and mildewed books, but it makes money for our libraries and that's what it's all about. Thank you, very much."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. First, I echo the comments made by the Representative from Kahala, in that we owe a debt of gratitude to our Chairman of Education for shepherding this bill through. He did a great job. And despite some of the concerns that were raised just recently, regarding tax liability and consequences I think, that he also cleared that one up with the Attorney General's Office. So thanks to him, we're here today, supporting this bill."

"When we had this discussion in Education, there was, I think, a lot of hateful words, a lot of hard feelings. And a lot of things that were said to us, by way of, those Friends. And that, you know, those other Friends, across the State. You know, from the far reaches, on the East side of the Big Island all the way to the West side in Kauai. This probably captured most of our attention in Education, despite all of the other bills in terms of the amount of emails that we received in our offices."

"I said at the hearing then, and I hope that the Library System hears this again. I said that I think the Library System has a responsibility for educating all the Friends, affiliates and non-affiliates alike, of what occurred and how we're remedying this situation. Because as I mentioned before, there were a lot of hurtful words said back and forth among supporters of libraries throughout the State. I think the onus now, is with the Library System to educate everyone throughout the System, the supporters of libraries, about why we did what we had to do, and how we're supporting all Friends. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please allow me to express my enthusiastic support for H.B. 1054. This bill authorizes affiliates of the Friends of the Library of Hawaii and certain nonprofit organizations supporting state library branches to use State library facilities for concessions, vending machines and other activities and to maintain their own accounts for the net proceeds under specified conditions."

"As Hawaii moves forward into our current economic recovery, public-private partnerships become more crucial than ever. Small businesses and nonprofits, in particular, fall onto the fence between survival and failure, as they attempt to compete without windfall profit margins, or against more robust big brothers and chain corporations. The visibility and traffic these community-minded organizations gain, by partnering with the State library system, could make the difference between their continuing to provide irreplaceable services and having to shut their doors."

"The Maui County Library supports this bill – claiming it seeks to most effectively, efficiently and maximally support the public library system – as do various volunteers in libraries throughout the State. Primary opposition comes from members of the Friends of the Library of Hawaii, known colloquially as "Big Friends." In 2010, a Memorandum of Understanding was issued between the State Librarian and the "Big Friends," allotting the latter exclusive rights to sell books on State property. Any organization that does not choose to become an affiliate of the Big Friends, faces potential prosecution for "illegal" book sales. Such a case arose last year, when an unpaid volunteer group attempted to sell books at the Aina Haina Public Library. This group has over the past two years raised over $25,000 for books, children's programs, furniture and other needs: surely one of many charitable organizations our State must laud and enable, rather than prosecute to maintain a bureaucratic monopoly."

"By supporting this bill, we support the local community's fundamental freedom of choice. Both the State library system, and its small enterprise or nonprofit partners, stand to mutually gain from free expression of public demand. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1054, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67-12 and S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, on motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the Main Motion was amended to delete consideration of Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67-12 and S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," for passage on Final Reading, for the purpose of deferring one legislative day.

At this time, the Chair noted that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67-12 and S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, was deferred one legislative day.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 68-12 and S.B. No. 2646, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2646, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations on this measure. The measure will really provide exemption to building permits in the agricultural lands. Mayor Alan Arakawa from Maui expressed that many farmers and ranchers were concerned about the bill. And on Oahu, the Department of Planning and Permitting opposed the bill saying that health and safety issues are home rule issues. I believe that the Maui farmers, ranchers, and the Department of Planning and Permitting are concerned about the potential for abuse when any one of these buildings that are allowed to be constructed without going through the regular permitting process, where they could be turned into a transient vacation rental or I guess, a short term bed and breakfast, or just breakfast, bed, and the automatic approval also is a reason to be concerned about the bill. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 69-12 and S.B. No. 2746, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2746, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you. May I have a ruling on a potential conflict? I'm an owner of an electric vehicle. Thank you, very much," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai continued in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments in opposition to Senate Bill 2746. This measure weakens current incentives for electric vehicles.

"The Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative calls for 4,000 electric vehicles to be sold per year and 10,000 on the road by 2015. This measure sends the message that the State is backing away from electric vehicle adoption in Hawaii. It sends the public the message that the State is also backing away from the goals of the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative.

"If our intent is truly to move Hawaii towards energy self-sufficiency, it is short-sighted to do away with preferential and free parking, and other incentives that encourage more drivers to switch from gas to electric vehicles.

"I oppose this legislation, and any legislation that takes away incentives for motorists to choose electric vehicles as their form of transportation. The negative effects of carbon emissions require Hawaii to reduce, if not eliminate, oil-based transportation emissions.

"As Hawaii moves towards energy independence, and towards a cleaner environment, the purchase of electric vehicles should be encouraged. The Legislature can play a major role in moving Hawaii's people towards these goals.

"A major incentive for the purchase of our electric vehicle was the free parking, free meters, and ease of charging in public places. If these incentives go away, especially at this stage where electric vehicle purchases are still not being purchased by the mass market, the purchase and use of these vehicles will be curtailed.

"For these reasons, I oppose Senate Bill 2746."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Conference Committee Report 69-12, Senate Bill 2746, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 3, Conference Draft 1. The purpose of this measure is to replace Act 290, Session Laws of Hawaii 1997, with updated provisions that address the current use of electric vehicles in the State.

"To be clear, I support the intent of the bill. As the owner of a green vehicle, I understand the importance of minimizing dependence on foreign oil imports and doing our part to protect the environment. However, my reservation is specifically with regards to the sunset date of June 30, 2020.

"For this reason, I stand with reservations on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

H.B. No. 1054, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2787, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with serious reservations. Mr. Speaker, this bill is about the reliability standards for the interconnection, which is all about when we get PV, and solar, and all of the renewable energies up to speed. Things are going to be beneficial, but also possibly discombobulating in terms of stability of the system, which is to be expected to a degree. But to have an open-ended blank check for surcharges to be passed on, my fear is, and my biggest reservation is, this becomes like the fuel surcharge.

"It used to be where we pay for electricity at a certain amount, and then the fuel surcharge was sort of ancillary attack. And now the fuel surcharge is big, if not bigger. The tail has wagged the dog. And I would hate to see the tail of this one wag the dog because of going for PV instead of lowering the rates for our constituents, yours and mine and everybody's. We're actually going to increase it. Fearing the stability factor, in effect destabilizes all of our household budgets, which have to fit around the kitchen table. All balanced budgets. And this may be a destabilize. Thank you."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 72-12 and S.B. No. 2825, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2825, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this Administration bill.

"This bill would give more people access to personal medical information stored in the government's immunization database.

"While the database contains records about vaccines, dosages, dates administered, etc., it also includes some very private information, such as a person's:

- Name
- Address
- Date of Birth
- History of vaccine-preventable diseases.

"This last item is especially troubling. Some of these diseases carry a lot of social stigma, like Hepatitis B or C, or tuberculosis. And according to the Department of Health, the database will also note whether a person has AIDS or HIV [this was stated during the House Judiciary Committee hearing on companion House Bill 2563].

"For that reason, it is of paramount importance that the database administrators and users be fully trained on protecting the security and confidentiality of this information. If there was a security breach, immunization information could potentially be used to harass or discriminate against certain individuals.

"Yet when the companion bill was heard in the House Judiciary Committee, the representatives from the Department of Health's immunization branch couldn't seem provide us with details on how the other entities granted access to the registry will safeguard patient privacy throughout the process. It seemed like they didn't have any kind of concrete plan in place.

"I find it very ironic that the Administration is asking us to pass a bill that would put confidential medical information in the hands of more people, without a stronger guarantee that those people will be properly trained on protecting the privacy of the information, and without any language in the bill that would impose sanctions for security breaches.

"But in a way, maybe this isn't so surprising. The Legislature was recently asked to consider a bill that would have required businesses handling personal information to have a written policy and procedure to prevent identity theft, and to train all their employees on the procedure. The bill imposed stiff penalties on the businesses that failed to comply, but didn't address government entities at all.

"If the government is going ahead with this plan for the immunization registry, it should at least hold itself to the same standards that are expected of private businesses. To do otherwise would be unfair and hypocritical."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. Just briefly, I think the ACLU makes some very compelling points in its testimony on a previous iteration of this bill. And I realize that while it has been revised, I do think that there are some privacy implications inherent in this bill and that is why I'll be voting with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Johanson be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2763, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Pine voting no, and with Representative Marumoto being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 79-12 and S.B. No. 2277, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2277, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"I support this measure that will extend the Department of Land and Natural Resources' authority to enter into safe harbor agreements and habitat conservation plans, and incidental take licenses through June 29, 2017, while also repealing section 195D-27, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"Since being allowed temporarily in 1997, safe harbor agreements, habitat conservation plans, and incidental take licenses have been valuable tools for the State's ongoing conservation efforts. These tools, available previously only under federal law, provide a flexible framework for landowners to move ahead with land-use projects, while providing protection for endangered or threatened species.

"In the fourteen or so years that the law has been in effect, the Department of Land and Natural Resources has issued eight habitat conservation plans and six safe harbor agreements. These have proven effective in helping to restore certain populations of nene, montane-nesting seabirds, and Hawaiian hoary bats.

"This bill started off as what was represented as a compromise bill that would have allowed the law to become permanent while providing a private right of action to enforce these agreements. In the course of this session, the private right of action was eliminated and most parties acknowledged the existing administrative procedure for enforcing rules, habitat conservation plans and safe harbor agreements and accompanying licenses is problematic. This Conference Draft repeals section 195D-27, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which establishes administrative enforcement procedures in response to such concerns.

"While I believe that the use of these tools to foster better conservation efforts has already shown its worth and deserves to be permanent, I support at least extending the sunset date so that DLNR can continue to enter into safe harbor agreements and habitat conservation plans, and incidental take licenses in a responsible way and in concert with its federal partners processing of federal permits."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 82-12 and S.B. No. 3008, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 3008, HD 3, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Honorable Speaker, I support SB3008, HD3, CD1 which allows impoverished family court litigants to post pleadings at the courthouse rather than incur the outrageous costs charged by newspapers for legal notices. This measure provides an alternative to serving notice by publication by allowing the posting of pleadings at the courthouse for all family court matters. The increase in legal classified rates has placed a burden on impoverished litigants who are unable to locate the opposing party and must serve constructive notice as part of the due process required under our system of justice. However with the decrease in competition among Hawaii's daily newspapers and with the contraction of newspaper readership, the practice of service by publication appears increasingly obsolete as a meaningful means of meeting due process concerns.

"The posting in lieu of publication for impoverished litigants is not new in Hawaii. Current statutes have allowed for posting of publication in divorce actions since 2000, and prior to 2000, Family Court rules allowed for posting in lieu of publication.

"SB3008, HD3, CD1 would assist Hawaii's impoverished families and their children while still providing the constructive notice required to meet due process concerns."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 105-12 and S.B. No. 2858, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2858, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. My objections to this measure are numerous, but probably the real remedy would be a measure to restore the OIP, Office of Information Practices to become the court of last resort as envisioned by past Legislatures. Based on the federal Freedom of Information Act, it was not meant to allow Departments to appeal an OIP decision in court. OIP argues that it is, but that will take a paper review that would take 30 days. However, I think it is an unnecessary step.

"According to Professor Beverly Keever of the UH School of Communications, she said it best, and I would like to quote her:

Senate Bill 2858 is ill-advised for several key reasons. Rather than adhering to the dispute resolution process that has worked for 24 years, this bill establishes a judicial process in which a government agency can go to court rather than release a record to which a citizen requestor is entitled. Rather than adhering to the 24 year old legislative intent barring government agencies from suing each other, Senate Bill 2858 risks, almost invites, one taxpayer-funded government attorney contesting another taxpayer-funded government attorney in court proceedings.

Rather than aiding the public and gaining access to a government record, this Senate Bill sets up a judicial process that denies taxpayers and citizens, unable to hire their own lawyer to be represented in the complex court proceedings. In short, Senate Bill 2858 risks, one, causing bureaucratic red tape and confusion at the taxpayer expense. Two, emboldening government agencies to deny taxpayer and citizen records to which they are entitled under Hawaii's Freedom of Information law. Three, wasting scarce government resources in these dire economic times. And four, making it even more difficult for taxpayers and citizens to obtain government records in a timely manner.

Senate Bill 2858 causes the most serious erosion of Hawaii's Freedom of Information law in its 24 year old history, and shackles public participation in their own government.

"Mahalo."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, as stated in the Uniform Information Practices Act, a government agency dissatisfied with an administrative ruling by the Office of Information Practices does not have the right to bring an action into Circuit Court, to contest the OIP ruling. The legislative intent for expediency and uniformity in providing access to government records would be frustrated by agencies suing each other.

"Mr. Speaker, a letter from media and open government groups against this measure has been signed by: Beverly Keever, Right to Know Committee; Barbara Kim Stanton, AARP; Barbara Polk, Americans for Democratic Action / Hawaii; Nikki Love, Common Cause Hawaii; Kat Brady, Community Alliance on Prisons; Marjorie Ziegler, Conservation Council for Hawaii; Choon James, Country Talk Story; Larry Geller, Disappeared News; Isaac Moriwake, Earthjustice; Stirling Morita, Hawaii Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists; Rafael Del Castillo, Hawaii Coalition for Health; Ikaika Hussey, Hawaii Independent; Donna Wong, Hawaii's Thousand Friends; Alethea Rebman, Kapiolani Park Preservation Society; Henry Curtis, Life of the Land; Chris Conybeare, Media Council Hawaii; Non-Partisan Hawaii Ohana; Robert Harris, Sierra Club Hawaii Chapter, and then a number of other individual signatories.

"The measure isn't in the best interest of open government and we should choose to stop it here. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Marumoto and Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just briefly, but first let me ask that I be able to submit written comments. Generally this bill takes a balanced approach to deal with the reality of the situation, which is, that despite what the statute says, the courts have ruled that people can appeal, and agencies can appeal. This bill takes the balance towards disclosure and puts a limit on how long an agency can take. And so, I would ask my colleagues to vote in favor of this bill."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which creates a uniform procedure for State or county agencies and boards to seek judicial review of decisions by the State Office of Information Practices ("OIP") relating to the Sunshine Law (Part I of Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 92) or the Uniform Information Practices Act (Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 92F) ("UIPA").

"In light of the courts' recognition of a right to appeal OIP decisions under UIPA, this measure is necessary to provide clarity by creating clear procedures for appeal of OIP decisions. The inclusion of a 30 day period to file appeals and requiring appellants to show that the OIP's decision was "palpably erroneous" ensures that appeals will not be undertaken lightly and there will be great stability in this area of law while ensuring that citizen requests for disclosure of documents are not ignored by agencies. This bill confirms that in the balance of government transparency, the weight of our law tilts clearly towards the public's right to disclosure of government records.

"OIP administers and resolves disputes under both the UIPA and Sunshine Law. Each law has different provisions for judicial appeals from OIP's decisions. The UIPA has no provision allowing an agency to judicially challenge an OIP decision, while the Sunshine Law permits "any person" to appeal to the courts. At the time that the Sunshine Law was enacted, OIP did not exist and the "any person" standard was meant to allow an individual to challenge an agency's actions for an alleged violation of the Sunshine Law. UIPA did not contemplate allowing an agency to challenge OIP's decisions. However, in 2009, the courts allowed an agency to judicially challenge an OIP decision mandating the release of records pursuant to the UIPA, because that determination was based on an underlying Sunshine Law decision and the "plain" language of the Sunshine Law permitted an agency, as "any person," to appeal. County of Kauai v. Office of Information Practices, 120 Haw. 34, 200 P.3d 403 (Haw. App. 2009) (summarily affirmed by the Hawaii Supreme Court on June 23, 2009).

"OIP asked the Legislature to establish a simplified and uniform appeals process for both laws. Some opponents of the bill have argued that the bill relinquishes OIP's current authority to have the last word in UIPA decisions, while other opponents (agencies and county councilmembers) claim that OIP is being granted too much power for an entity that is not a court. Supporters of the measure, which include OIP, the Governor and many state agencies testified and understood that the bill reasonably balances these competing interests and would provide a clear and uniform avenue of judicial review to ensure that OIP's decisions are founded on proper legal bases while also discouraging agencies from simply ignoring decisions with which they disagree. Rather than being embroiled in litigation against other agencies, the bill would free OIP to continue to provide training as well as informal dispute resolution, which constitute the bulk of OIP's work and are important activities that help to ensure open government

"I agree with supporters of the bill. The Conference Draft allows agencies to judicially challenge OIP's decisions, but requires agencies to timely appeal within 30 days and does not require OIP or the person who requested the decision to appear in court as parties to the appeal. While the bill now gives agencies the right to judicially challenge OIP's decisions, it also sets a strong standard of review that would accord a presumption of validity and require the courts' deference to OIP's factual and legal determinations concerning the administration and interpretation of the UIPA and Sunshine Law, unless such determinations are "palpably erroneous" and result in a definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been made. See e.g., Right to Know Committee v. City Council, 117 Haw. 1, 175 P.3d 111 (2007); Aio v. Hamada, 66 Haw. 401, 664 P.2d 727 (1983). The bill further clarifies that the de novo standard of review referenced in HRS Sec. 92F-15(b) applies only to judicial appeals brought by the general public, and that agencies' appeals are instead subject to the higher "palpably erroneous" standard. The bill does not affect the standard to be applied by the courts in reviewing OIP decisions with respect to constitutional issues or other matters beyond OIP's sphere of expertise regarding the UIPA and Sunshine Law.

"As is typical in appeals from administrative decisions, this bill limits the record in an agency appeal to what was presented to OIP when it rendered its decision, thus requiring an agency to present its best case to OIP and not rely upon having a second chance to present new evidence in a judicial appeal. Only in extraordinary circumstances would the circuit court allow discovery and admission of additional evidence during an appeal from an OIP decision.

"A key provision is that if an agency fails to timely appeal within 30 days from an OIP decision mandating disclosure of a record under the UIPA, then such agency will not be able to challenge the decision if the citizen requesting the record is forced to bring an action to compel disclosure. This provision thus encourages agencies to take timely action, and it discourages agencies from simply ignoring an OIP decision and indefinitely refusing to disclose a record that OIP has determined should be disclosed under the UIPA.

"Finally, this bill does not affect the general public's existing right to bring appeals or to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs as prevailing parties in actions brought under either the UIPA or the Sunshine Law.

"It's unfortunate that we live in a cynical world. A cynical world, in this case, that believes the worst about the intentions of OIP and this present Administration. This bill provides a framework in the reality that OIP and the public faces, not the fantasy world that opponents of this measure seem to believe exists."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I'm still trying to understand why the Administration would promote this bill. Our Legislature never intended the Office of Information Practices to be challenged in court on its rulings. OIP decisions were meant to be the final authority and government agencies would have to abide by their rulings.

"The legislative history makes it very clear behind their creation of the OIP. The OIP is a product of our Freedom of Information Laws in 1989, which gave the public the right to obtain the government records they need to fully participate in our democratic process. At the time, the Legislature stated in Conference Committee Report No. 167 on S.B. 1799 of 1989, its intent that a citizen have a right to appeal a government agency's denial of access to a government record, but that the government agency not have the right to contest the OIP ruling.

"This intent could not have been more clearly stated. Again, I don't understand why this Administration is promoting this bill. Whether it's access to the Environmental Impact Statement for a controversial development project, or making sure that a local neighborhood board is following the open meeting laws, the OIP helps the public exercise their right to know what their own government is doing. This bill would completely frustrate the entire purpose of the OIP and undermine over 2 decades of sunshine in government. I can only imagine a private citizen who wants to get some information from a government agency, Mr. Speaker, and then they find out that they're going to be challenged in court.

"Why would anyone ever want to find a justice through information for people? This basically says if you have all the power and all the attorneys, then go ahead and try to get public information, because a private citizen is going to now be so fearful to ever want to request information for their community that they would represent. So that's why I'm voting in opposition of this measure, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would just like to make a few remarks in response to the previous speaker. You know, I rise because I do think this is a balanced approach to a legal situation where our courts in 2009, did in fact give agencies and acknowledge that the agencies do have the right to appeal OIP's decisions. I believe that what has been adopted, the 30 day requirement in which to file a complaint, provides time limits that will make it reasonable for agencies to challenge and then for courts to respond timely in a way that the public's needs and rights to know are going to be recognized.

"And finally, one last thing. The standard applied in this bill for palpable erroneous review would provide great deference to OIP's decisions. So, in fact, it provides as the Chair of the Judiciary said, a very balanced approach given our current legal situation with open government. Thank you."

Representative Riviere rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, the hallmark of democracy is openness and transparency. That's like saying motherhood and apple pie is something favorable. However, this Administration has not been, perhaps, the most open in terms of the Judicial selection. Perhaps in having Executive Orders being given, and now this particular issue comes up. Is there a pattern, question mark?

"So I would strongly urge the Administration to veto this, to get rid of what otherwise looks to be a secret Administration on which this is going to fall on, subject to, just reinforcing it. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations to HB 2487 regarding pension spiking. I do agree that we need to curb the practice of pension spiking amongst public sector employees. However, I am not sure that this measure accomplishes this effectively. Ultimately, I believe the onus is on management to monitor and prevent pension spiking and other abuses by employees. Nonetheless, discussions around this measure have been helpful in bringing this practice to light and helping raise awareness about the practice, which adversely impacts all of Hawaii taxpayers."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 609, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll try to put the bulk of my comments in written comments as remarks into the Journal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. But I rise in strong support.

"This bill. There's a lot of gratitude and appreciation to what the Senate, the House, the Leadership, my colleagues, to provide the option and to be able to preserve medical services. The Chair of Health. Mr. Bruce Anderson of HHSE confirmed the intent of HHSE, by stating in his testimony that this measure will be a vehicle to potentially double long-term care capacity, meeting the demand for skilled nursing beds, but enabling also collaboration with St. Francis Healthcare Systems in providing daycare, respite, and other services to meet the needs of Hawaii's aging population.

"The difficulties that were faced by HMC East, Mr. Speaker, and I will comment again. I know that you have ruled on a potential conflict, but my husband did work there at one time," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you, so much. It has been a great source of great concern, for myself, my people of Liliha, and the State as a whole. And seeing how we can work together for such a worthy cause is inspiring, and I hope we can find that common ground that benefits all. That benefits so many.

"The sisters had a legacy in Liliha, and I hope it's not a conflict of interest, but I'm a baptized Catholic, and now President of the Catholic Women's Guild," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you. But the health of our people is of vital concern and those that help our people, we want to help them. So with much gratitude, and strong support."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support to this bill.

"Mr. Speaker, I would first and foremost like to thank my colleagues for supporting this appropriation. I would additionally like to thank HHSC, who helped our Legislature provide the option and experience to preserve medical services. This measure presents the supplementary opportunity (possibility) to provide our aging population with additional long-term care.

"Dr. Bruce Anderson, of HHSC, confirmed the intent of HHSC by stating in his testimony, "HHSC supports this measure as a vehicle to, potentially, double our long-term care capacity on Oahu, meet the demand for skilled nursing beds, and to enable collaboration with St. Francis Health Care systems in providing day care, respite and other services to better meet the needs of Hawaii's aging population."

"Dr. Anderson also noted in a provided diagram that Queens Medical Center and Maui Medical Center, with the greatest volume of waitlisted patients, experienced net annual losses at least 3 times those of other hospitals. This bill would help alleviate the numbers of those waitlisted and economic loss, providing a more centralized focus for facilities like Queens to continue their emergency services and transplant care – of which they assumed since the HMC closure.

"The recent difficulties faced by HMC-East have been a source of great concern for myself, the people of Liliha, and the State as a whole. Seeing how we can work together for such a worthy cause is inspiring. I hope we can continue to find that common ground that benefits us all. This appropriation is an investment in a community institution; one that benefits everyone in our community, and it will prove its worth by its continued good works and service to the people of this State.

"Mr. Speaker, at this critical time in our State's history, the health of our people is of such vital importance. The laws we make right now will continue to affect the well-being of our communities for generations. Nowhere is that more true than in my district. So on behalf of the people of my district and myself, I strongly support HB 609 HD2, and offer my most sincere gratitude to all of my colleagues who have done the same. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend the Body for the consideration, and I hope the positive movement of this bill. This bill, in effect will start the discussion to potentially double the amount of long-term care beds available for all of our citizens, and all of our constituents as we move forward dealing with the health care situation in our State. And Mr. Speaker, this is again, another measure that we tried to emphasize in the pursuit of a true public and private partnership as we move forward in addressing the rising health care costs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to sincerely thank all of my colleagues in this Body for supporting this important legislation to protect healthcare in the communities affected by the closure of Hawaii Medical Center. This bill will authorize the assimilation of Hawaii Medical Center-East on Oahu into the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation and appropriate funds to enable the assimilation.

"According to HHSC, the bill could "potentially double our long-term care capacity on Oahu, meet the demand for skilled nursing beds, and enable collaboration with St. Francis Health Care systems in providing day care, respite and other services to better meet the needs of Hawaii's aging population."

"Mr. Speaker, when one community is hurting, many others are affected either directly or indirectly. I appreciate this effort to ease the strain caused by the closure of HMC-East as I believe this will also help patients across this island to receive the care that they need."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 120-12 and H.B. No. 2569, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2569, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Particularly regarding the church membership issue, which is a bit of a sticking point. It could lead to lawsuits and other complications. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which clarifies various issues raised regarding the application of Act 1 of 2011, Hawaii's civil unions law. The core of this measure was the work of many months by a task force working with the Department of Health.

"This bill clarifies the power of family court to grant divorces, annulments and separations to those who entered into a union in another jurisdiction that is recognized as a civil union in this State, without which the couple might have no jurisdiction which could address issues arising from their relationship.

"The bill addresses practical issues for couples formerly in reciprocal beneficiary relationships who entered or will enter civil unions. It retroactively ensures that couples do not lose the benefits of reciprocal beneficiary relationships – including the benefits of holding property in tenancy by the entirety – and civil unions by the prior requirement that their reciprocal beneficiary relationship be dissolved before they can enter a civil union. It eliminates this gap going forward by automatically terminating a reciprocal beneficiary relationship when the couple enters a civil union.

"The measure further clarifies who may solemnize a civil union. It authorizes name change on the certificate of civil union. It clarifies the standard for recognizing a union performed another jurisdiction as a civil union. It also clarifies the treatment of reciprocal beneficiaries who enter into a legal union in another jurisdiction that is not marriage to have their legal union recognized as a civil union here.

"While many of these provisions will affect only a small number of people, they are important to make sure that the laws of Hawaii are comprehensive and humane.

"The measure also contains a narrow exemption from liability for the refusal to perform civil unions in religious facilities under certain circumstances that was the subject of a great deal of input by various stakeholders and a great deal of work by the Legislature. The exemption added to the civil union statute is crafted to protect religious freedom while ensuring that the public accommodation law continues to protect all citizens where it is applicable. For churches and others who believe that the federal and/or State constitution requires more or less protection, they certainly have other recourse than legislation aimed primarily at establishing and clarifying fundamental rights for civil union partners."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I have some reservations on this particular section of this measure. I'm speaking on the solemnization bill. The concern that I have is on 572-b, section 2, item 2 there. Where the organization, the religious organization, if you have members of the church and they want to have a civil union solemnization service, the church will not be exempt then. That's what I gather from this language in here.

"I could be wrong, but it seems that they are providing exemptions. However they provided that there are a number of things. And I can understand if you're running a for-profit you certainly should not be exempt. But in this case here, it could kind of create a problem, as we move along in Section 2. And if we can, I would like to clarify this and if I could have a recess to discuss this with the Chairman. Thank you, very much."

At 12:29 o'clock p.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:33 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll have to go WR, on this measure, CCR 120-12 and I'll have additional written comments. Mr. Speaker, I think from the beginning of time, and my time here at the Legislature, I've always felt it's important to respect people's religions. In fact, historically the Mayflower, the whole reason people came over here, was to practice what they wanted to. I have a lot of respect for people who practice their religion. Jews, Orthodox Jews, don't eat pork. They don't eat shellfish. There are other sorts of things that religious people don't do. My feeling is, you know, we respect that. And that's what we do in America. We respect it. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Although I support the intentions of H.B. 2569, I do so with several reservations which I would like to explain. H.B. 2569 amends various statutory provisions related to civil unions for clarity and conformity.

"It provides uninterrupted rights for couples holding property in tenancy by the entirety who enter into a new legal relationship simultaneously with or within ninety days after the termination of an earlier legal relationship; provided that no liens were perfected and attached on the property in the interim.

"It provides for non-liability of religious organizations and religious facilities under certain circumstances.

"It ensures that rights held by certain reciprocal beneficiaries carry over to a civil union; provided that the reciprocal beneficiaries terminated their relationship simultaneously with or within ninety days after the termination of the reciprocal beneficiary relationship.

"It extends rights created by the solemnization of a civil union that were not included within a reciprocal beneficiary relationship to be recognized as of the date the civil union was solemnized.

"It amends various statutory provisions relating to solemnizations, and authorizes name change on the certificate of civil union.

"It also confirms the family court has jurisdiction over the divorce, annulment, and separation of a union that is recognized as a civil union in Hawaii.

"It allows reciprocal beneficiaries who enter into a legal union in another jurisdiction that is not marriage to have their legal union recognized as a civil union effective upon approval.

"Finally, it exempts religious organizations from liability under certain circumstances when refusing to avail a religious facility for civil union solemnization. The bill is to be retroactively effective January 1, 2012.

"On technical grounds, this bill raises concerns by eliminating the gap requirement between terminating a reciprocal beneficiary relationship and entering a civil union. It would allow couples in a reciprocal beneficiary relationship, otherwise eligible to enter a civil union, to do so without first terminating their reciprocal beneficiary relationship. While this would eliminate an unintended gap in rights and benefits, it would also lead to potential overlap. Especially for couples transferred to civil unions in other counties and thus required by this law to manually terminate their reciprocal beneficiary statuses, it could potentially result in conflicting statutes.

"Numerous organizations including the Hawaii Family Forum, Hawaii Catholic Conference, Temple Emmanuel and Lahaina Baptist Church – while appreciating this bill's attempt to somewhat relieve churches from having to make their facilities available to civil unions – asked that the bill's language be strengthened. For example, they prefer it would specify a church's immunity from any legal cause of action, including injunctions and civil rights complaints, and include not just solemnization but any celebration or event related to a civil union. The current bill requires, for all other purposes unrelated to solemnization, churches cannot discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation. Religion by nature inevitably makes such distinctions in its philosophies, so such a clause against discrimination is both unfair and illogical. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill No. 2569, Conference Draft 1, RELATING TO CIVIL UNIONS. In my capacity as Chair of your Committee on Finance, I served as a Co-Chair on the Conference Committee for this measure.

"Throughout the negotiations, my main concern has been and will continue to be the manner in which religious organizations will be treated under the terms of Act 1 and the amendments thereto that will be made pursuant to this bill.

"Accordingly, during the negotiations, I had drafted a proposed Conference Draft 1 for the Conference Committee's consideration. The draft kept intact the substantive provisions of an earlier proposal, but included a substantial revision to the legislative findings found on SECTION 1.

"For sake of fairness to religious organizations, I feel it is vital for these findings to be inserted into the legislative history on this bill. The pertinent language is as follows:

". . . In addition, there is a case pending before the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii, Jackson v. Abercrombie, Civil No. 11-00734 ACK KSC, in which the plaintiffs have alleged that the marriage law and the "marriage amendment" to the Hawaii state constitution are unconstitutional. Not only has no court thus far found Hawaii's marriage law to be unconstitutional, a majority of states currently have similar laws. Despite this, Governor Abercrombie has publicly declined to defend it, although his administration is defending the law.

"The legislature finds that the administration introduced this Act. By virtue of introducing this Act concerning civil unions, it is an implied acknowledgement by the administration that it is the legislature, under article III, section 1, of the Hawaii state constitution, that determines the benefits and responsibilities between couples. This was affirmed in the constitutional amendment that resulted in article I, section 23, of the Hawaii state constitution, which confers the power to the legislature to define marriage and establish the parties who may enter into a marriage under section 572-1.

"The legislature maintains the authority to determine whether marriage should be reserved to opposite sex couples and therefore also maintains the power to adopt any amendments to the marriage and civil union laws. As such, any amendments to these laws are done so under the authority given to the legislature by the Hawaii state constitution.

"Lastly, the legislature acknowledges that critical to this Act are the amendments made to clarify that religious institutions are protected from civil liability in denying the use of their facilities for the purpose of solemnizing civil unions. The Legislature finds that the United States Supreme Court has held that government regulation cannot interfere with a citizen's First Amendment right to associate for the purpose of engaging in protected speech. In Boy Scouts of America v. Dale, 530 U.S. 640 (2000), citing Roberts v. United States Jaycees, 468 U.S. 609 (1984), the Supreme Court ruled that:

" . . . implicit in the right to engage in activities protected by the First Amendment is a corresponding right to associate with others in pursuit of a wide variety of political, social, economic, education, religious, and cultural ends. This right is crucial in preventing the majority from imposing its views on groups that would rather express other, perhaps unpopular, ideas. . . . Government actions that may unconstitutionally burden this freedom may take many forms one of which is 'intrusion into the internal structure or affairs of an association' like a 'regulation that forces the group to accept members it does not desire.' . . . Forcing a group to accept certain members may impair the ability of the group to express those views, and only those views, that it intends to express. Thus, freedom of association. . . plainly presupposes a freedom not to associate."

"The Legislature asserts that religious organizations are expressive associations that are free to not associate with persons wishing to solemnize or celebrate civil unions at their facilities. To do so through the application of the public accommodations statutes would significantly affect its expression in violation of the First Amendment.

"The Legislature finally acknowledges that the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, applicable to the States through the Fourteenth Amendment, prohibits governments from prohibiting the free exercise of religion. Under this guarantee, public authorities may enforce neutral and generally applicable rules and may do so even if they burden faith-based conduct in the process. However, if the law appears to be neutral and generally applicable on its face, but in practice is riddled with exemptions or worse is a veiled cover for targeting a belief or a faith-based practice, the law satisfies the First Amendment only if it "advance[s] interests of the highest order and [is] narrowly tailored in pursuit of those interests." Church of Lukumi Babalu Aye, Inc. v. City of Hialeah, 508 U.S. 520, 546 (1993). "Tolerance is a two-way street. Otherwise, the rule mandates orthodoxy, not antidiscrimination." Ward v. Polite, United States Court of Appeals, 6th Cir. (Slip Op. 10-2100/2145, January 27, 2012)."

"Thank you for the opportunity to comment on this bill. It is for the aforementioned reasons that I vote in support."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise with reservations on HB2569, Relating to Civil Unions. I am glad to note that the final version of this bill allows for religious organizations to be exempt (not required) from performing marriage for couples under civil unions – that is the solemnization of marriages pursuant to Chapter 572, and that said religious facility will not subject to any fine, penalty, or civil liability for the refusal of performing such a marriage.

"HB2569 also contains language which confirms that requisites of a valid marriage contract shall be only between a man and woman. I believe the added language will protect our churches from a State mandated law which would violate the Freedom of Religion clause in the U.S. and State constitutions. I also believe that this measure does respect freedom of religion and respect the couples and churches. Moreover, I believe this would protect the individual and businesses for their expression of choice as they do business.

"However, I rise with reservations, to display my continued concern of laws or policy being produced by this Legislative Body which appear to mix the long standing position that we must continue to recognize and honor the separation between church and State. Please note that bills that mandate that the State of Hawaii become involved in religious affairs may blur the line of separation between church and state.

"For the foregoing reasons, I provide my reservations on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand with reservations on HB 2569 Relating to Civil Unions. My concern is that the language does not sufficiently immune religious organizations from the definition of 'public accommodation.'"

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against this measure. Thank you. This House Bill, 2398, is relating to land use and it's also relating to the Public Land Development Corporation. The bill will exempt State public lands from the definition of public lands and that would include any public lands set aside by the Governor for the Public Land Development Corporation, any State department or agency, public lands lease to, and controlled by the Public Land Development Corporation, including, but not limited to not public lands from the Department of Land and Natural Resources. That means conservation lands and small boat harbors.

"Those of you who have the small boat harbors in your district should be very concerned about this. Department of Transportation commercial harbors and coastal airports; University of Hawaii, Manoa, Mauna Kea, West Oahu, Hilo public lands; and even the Hawaii Community Development Authority, Kakaako makai and mauka, Kalaeloa, and Heeia. And any public lands to which the Public Land Development Corporation holds direct title.

"You know, the Public Land Development Corporation is becoming a very scary entity. It operates really outside of the public purview. It still hasn't adopted its rules of procedure under which it'll operate, but it's been given great, great power and authority. It was a brain child, or a brain ... I don't know how I would term that. Of Senator Dela Cruz, who wanted to have the public ..."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, you're out of order. Please do not state the name of the Senator at this point in time, since ..."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Let me just say the proponent for the Public Land Development Corporation sees this entity as having these broad powers to be able to go ahead and do what it feels is best with public lands. But actually it also will allow the Public Land Development Corporation to manage any State or county lands which end up under PLDC control, and then it transfers to the Public Land Development Corporation, the management and development proposals for 123 acres of public land at Honokohau Harbor. And this includes some lands of landmark historical and cultural significance.

"The concern I have, Mr. Speaker, is the wisdom of establishing a policy where we have this sort of quasi-independent Public Land Development Corporation going ahead and doing what it wants to do with these lands that it either is able to get from the government or taking other steps where it actually has condemnation powers. It's kind of a scary operation. At least with the organization that takes care of Kakaako, that operates within the public, in the public interest, and it's also very open to public input. The PLDC isn't. It's a group with vast power. We've established it under our policy, and now we're adding more rights and authority and ability for them to go ahead and do what they want to do.

"I don't think it's wise. I think we need to call that group to a halt and find out how it's operating. What it's doing. I was present at the one meeting held by the Senator who I can't name, but the one that gave birth to this PLDC. I was present at that meeting that he held, and the PLDC Executive Director really couldn't answer anything. They didn't have rules. They weren't really clear on how they were going to go ahead and operate. Would the public be able to have any input? That was up in the air. And yet they've got this power, and we continue to give it to them.

"I'm voting no, and I hope others that are concerned about what this group is going to do with land within the districts they represent, will also cast a no vote."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker with respect to the language that was being referred to by the speaker from Kailua, please be advised, Members, that this language mirrors that of other groups that we've created, whether it is the Hawaii High Tech Development Corporation, whether it's the Agribusiness Development Corporation. These were not exceptional powers that were given to the land use, Public Land Division.

"But more importantly, this language was given to us by the Attorney General's Office. They had asked us for these amendments, given the fact that Act 55 had passed last year. So they needed to have conforming amendments put into the current law. So this language was provided directly by the Attorney General's Office just to address those concerns. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill consists of three parts: Part I of the bill directs the transfers of planning and management authority for the Honokohau Small Boat Harbor land to the Public Land Development Corporation (PLDC). I have reservations about this bill because the transfer includes adjacent land that is outside of the current intended harbor development area: land that is designated as "open space" in the Kona Community Development Plan and coastal areas that are part of the Kaloko Honokohau National Historic Park. I would like to note that based on conversations with the PLDC Executive Director, the adjacent land is being included to enable the PLDC to incorporate shoreline access and deal with environmental protection issues – the adjacent land is not being transferred for development purposes. Nonetheless, I am hesitant to support this transfer of adjacent land because I do not want development on these lands and do not see any assurances of this in the wording of the bill.

"Part II and Part III of the bill was not in the original bill, is unrelated to the Honokohau Small Boat Harbor redevelopment, and was not intended by the bill's authors."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on HB 2398 regarding the Aloha Stadium Special Fund creation and the Public Land Development Corporation. I have significant concerns about the parts of this measure regarding the Public Land Development Corporation. I worry that it cedes too much power to an entity that is exempted from many of the same regulations and processes that govern other State departments. However, I do believe the Aloha Stadium, Stadium Authority and Stadium management team need to be on a path to financial self-sufficiency. I am willing to support this bill because I believe the special fund established for the Aloha Stadium would help attain that self-sufficiency and ultimately help the State and our community."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with just a one brief comment. My major concern with this bill is procedurally, in the manner in which it was amended and adopted, that I wish that there had been more opportunity for the House to have public comment and receive public comment on this very important bill which has very important issues."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I share the former Representative's concerns about the process, and how things magically come across different than they started. This bill started out, I believe and I might be wrong, but I believe it was to address the Aloha Stadium development. That is a conversation worthy of having. It also, along the way, swept in the Honokohau Harbor development, which is quite controversial, and has always been controversial, and opposed by many people in West Hawaii.

"I support the Chair of the Committee who narrowed the scope to just the harbor itself, that was a good amendment along the way. But now again, magically, it sweeps up a whole bunch of land in the Honokohau area. I would note, hopefully, every Representative saw this email. It came in at 5:00 o'clock last night, 5:14, from the Kaloko Honokohau Park Service, and it's from the Superintendent. The Superintendent has grave concerns that this bill will sweep in parts, portions of the park, and the Superintendent notes that it would be highly inappropriate for this Public Land Development Corporation to be developing in and adjacent to the national park. So I think there's a very fundamental flaw right there, and for those reasons, I am in opposition."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition to H.B. 2398, and would like to elaborate upon my reasons why. H.B. 2398 transfers development rights of certain lands under the division of boating and ocean recreation and land division to the public land development corporation. It exempts certain lands from the definition of public land under Chapter 171 HRS, but requires legislative approval for the sale or gift of those lands. It creates the stadium facilities special fund into which shall be deposited a portion of the proceeds generated by the PLDC on Aloha stadium lands and facilities. It allows the PLDC to contract with State and county agencies for lease management services of PLDC-controlled land. Finally, it clarifies the definition of development rights.

"Although this bill may have stemmed from good intentions, such as concerns for job stimulus and interests to enhance State revenue, the routes by which it attempts to achieve these are unrealistic and non-navigable. According to one longtime land use advocate, the public land development corporation (PLDC) "is not intended to be a traditional administrative agency of the lands it will be (re)developing which this particular bill expects it to do over the next several years." A more logical maneuver would be to place the site within DBEDT.

"Numerous Native Hawaiian associations and individual advocates raise concerns in regard to the development of the Honokohau marina on the Big Island. Office of Hawaiian Affairs states that this bill "raises unknown implications with regards to responsible development and management by an entity that has not yet established its guiding documents." Community groups such as Life of the Land also oppose this bill on the principle that it overrides informed consent of the people, reflecting back to the recent occasion in the late 1990s when several native Hawaiian families were evicted from Honokohau grounds in order to formalize the area's recognition as a "National Park." In our attempts to marshal land into designated entities, let us not forget the true meaning of cultural preservation.

"This bill fails to assign managerial responsibility to an appropriate administration agency. In maneuvers of such a magnitude, we must not set out in the wrong lane. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, although I do have one slight reservation. It's just to make a historical footnote that, I'm just concerned that the future direction could be the PLDC will subsume the powers of some of these other agencies like the Hawaii Tech Development Corp. So that's the only reason for my slight reservation. Just for historical record. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just briefly, I think again, it's important that we understand the role of the LDC. I think, first of all, I want to quell some of the incorrect information that's been espoused about the LDC. First and foremost, they are subject to sunshine. Second, they are subject to Chapter 343. Any project is subject to Chapter 343. Number three, they are subject to Chapter 6E Historic Preservation.

"I would invite the Members, on March the 22nd, 2012. The draft rules for the LDC just came out. They are now going out to public hearing as required by Chapter 91. So for any of you who have concerns, I would urge you to review those rules. And if you have the opportunity, please attend those public hearings to get your input recognized. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In spite of that great speech, I wish to vote no on this measure. My major concern is that it takes away from the oversight of the State as a whole. Even though the Legislature will still have the authority to approve or disapprove, I think it weakens the whole system. It is all going to be dependent on the Board. If we're very fortunate, we will have a good Board and things will work well. If they don't have a good Board, things will not work well. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also have reservations on this measure, mainly because the bill seeks to develop land around Aloha Stadium. I think the first order of business is to look for a replacement for Aloha Stadium. It's very important to the citizens of Hawaii to have an arena of this size. Secondly, the bill pertains to land use, and this section sets up a special fund, albeit a special fund to gather revenues generated from Stadium lands and facilities. But I just raise that question rhetorically. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. I just wanted to kind of clarify. I do believe that the Representative from Kapolei mentioned that the Attorney General's Office requested some clarifying amendments to the PLDC language, or to the PLDC law that we passed last year. However, I wonder whether Part III of this particular bill, relating to the Stadium, was actually requested by the Attorney General, because my understanding is that it was not. So I want to make it very clear to the Members that this bill included other language outside of the recommendations made by the Attorney General."

"Now, I'd like to focus for a minute on Part III which is regarding the Stadium. As we all know, the Stadium Authority is the governing body over, not only the facility, but the surrounding land. This bill, I think confuses the situation. Are we not saying that the PLDC is going to be running the Stadium lands, in and around the structure? Where does that put the Stadium Authority? And as the Representative from Kahala mentioned, there has been for a few years now, talk about the replacement of the Aloha Stadium. One of the probably, most logical solutions to the aging facility is actually to rebuild in place, and the place is the lower lot of the Stadium. I understand from the Senator from Moanalua, that the Aloha Stadium lands in the lower lot are actually State lands, and not governed, he believes, by the deed restrictions of the federal government."

"Having said all of that, I just don't think that it's proper or good form for us to give another entity the development rights of that particular site, that particular area surrounding Aloha Stadium in light of the fact that eventually the Stadium facility will have to be rebuilt and we'll probably be rebuilding it on that particular area. I do have significant concerns regarding this portion of the bill, because as the Representative from Tantalus mentioned, that part of the bill was not even heard by the House. We are accepting a Senate Draft of this particular House Bill, and that particular Part III was inserted at the very last minute by the Senate. We've had no public discussions about this particular provision in the House, and I think that is clearly a violation of our House Rules and possibly even a violation of the State Constitution."

"Mr. Speaker, I have concerns regarding the PLDC. I've mentioned it to some of you earlier, and I'll mention it publicly. I think the biggest concern that I have regarding the PLDC is that, as the Representative from Kapolei already mentioned, the PLDC is in the process of promulgating rules that'll talk about how their processes work. I had thought that until those rules are defined and voted on, and set in stone, that we would not be pushing along these routes. And for a Representative of an area close to Aloha Stadium, I think that the community in and around the Stadium may have some concerns as it relates to public discussion and debate, regarding the future of the Aloha Stadium lower parking lot, or for that matter, anything in and around Aloha Stadium. So for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I do not support this measure."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'd just like to make a couple brief comments. Thank you. I've talked about the Public Land Development Corporation. I also have serious concerns about the broad authority that it has, in particular about land. It can condemn and sell land, essentially. And I think these issues are so critical to the people of Hawaii, all of us, whether it's a host culture of any of us who enjoy these islands, but especially the host culture. I'm concerned, and when I look at this bill, the Public Land Development Corporation, it's primary goal was to do culturally appropriate development. I have a hard time understanding why, with a bill like that, it would not go to Hawaiian Affairs, and EEP."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure with written comments. I'll just summarize my comments. There are three challenges with this legislation. The first is that it is an unconstitutional abdication of the Legislature's role in the disposition of public land. Second, this legislation violates the three Reading requirement as discussed in the case entitled Taomae vs. Lingle. And third, this legislation does not conform to the legacy that has been set forth by prior Legislatures."

"In the absence of governing principles with respect to the environment in this Body, we can look to the Governor's agenda. Unfortunately he set forth five guiding principles for the environment and natural resources, which I would like to restate here. Number one, considered interest of people many generations into the future. Number two, sustainable use and management of natural resources. Number three, long-term planning. Number four, taking responsibility for our own mess. And number five, personal responsibility and leading by example. Thank you, very much."

✦ Reading of Proposals

Proposal to amend Hawai'i Constitution failed to conform to procedures set forth in Constitution, inasmuch as proposed amendment entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Sexual Assault" was not titled as a constitutional amendment, and the proposal to amend Constitution was not subjected to three readings in each house on separate days, but rather, received only three readings in total; such errors were plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable violation of the Constitution beyond a reasonable doubt. propose[d] a constitutional amendment to allow the [Hawai'i State Legislature (legislature)] to define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in sexual assault cases [and] amend[ed] the law defining continuous sexual assault of a minor[.]

See Complaint at 2, ¶ 2.² Plaintiffs contend that this bill was not validly adopted because its title was insufficient and because the constitutional amendment did not receive three readings in each house of the legislature. Plaintiffs thus seek: a declaratory judgment that H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was not validly passed and, therefore, should not have been signed by Defendant Governor Linda Lingle (Governor Lingle) or submitted to the voters in the November 2, 2004 general election; an injunction prohibiting Governor Lingle and Defendant Dwayne D. Yoshina, Chief Elections Officer (collectively, Defendants) from certifying any votes cast on Question 1 (pertaining to H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1) in the November 2, 2004 general election; an injunction prohibiting Defendants from allowing Question 1 to be printed or published as part of the Hawai'i Constitution; attorneys' fees and costs; and such other relief as this court may deem just and proper.

² Because this is an original proceeding, there is no record on appeal. The basic facts are not disputed by the parties.

Defendants respond that H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was properly enacted because the legislature followed the procedure set forth in articles III and XVII of the Hawai'i Constitution. Article III, entitled "The Legislature," provides in pertinent part:

BILLS; ENACTMENT

each senatorial district wherein such a newspaper is published, within the two months' period immediately preceding the next general election.

At such general election the proposed amendments shall be submitted to the electorate for approval or rejection upon a separate ballot.

The conditions of and requirements for ratification of such proposed amendments shall be the same as provided in section 2 of this article for ratification at a general election.

(Emphasis added.)

Defendants also maintain that the process by which H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was approved was in conformity with the past practice of the legislature, which had not been previously challenged. They assert that Plaintiffs cannot show a "grave offense" to the constitution and, therefore, urge this court to give deference to the legislature's interpretation of the constitutional requirements for passing a constitutional amendment.

The legislature submitted an amicus brief echoing the arguments of Defendants. According to its brief, the legislature approved H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 in compliance with the language of the Hawai'i Constitution and with this court's decision in Watland v. Lingle, 104 Hawai'i 128, 140, 85 P.3d 1079, 1091 (2004), which held that clear and unambiguous constitutional provisions must be construed as they are written. The legislature further asserts that a decision favorable to the Plaintiffs in this case would "interfere with the Legislature's normal course of business[.]"

II.

H.B. 2789 was introduced in the legislature in response to this court's decision in State v. Rabago, 103 Hawai'i 236, 81 P.3d 1151 (2003). In that case, a majority of this court struck down Hawai'i Revised Statutes (HRS) § 707-733.5(2) (Supp.2002)³ because it infringed on a defendant's constitutional right to a unanimous jury verdict under article I, sections 5⁴ and 14⁵ of the Hawai'i Constitution, inasmuch as it did not require the jury to agree on which three specific acts constituted the "continuous sexual assault." Id. at 253-54, 81 P.3d at 1168-69.

Section 14. No law shall be passed except by bill. Each law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. The enacting clause of each law shall be, "Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Hawaii."

PASSAGE OF BILLS

Section 15. No bill shall become law unless it shall pass three readings in each house on separate days. No bill shall pass third or final reading in either house unless printed copies of the bill in the form to be passed shall have been made available to the members of that house for at least forty-eight hours.

Every bill when passed by the house in which it originated, or in which amendments thereto shall have originated, shall immediately be certified by the presiding officer and clerk and sent to the other house for consideration.

Any bill pending at the final adjournment of a regular session in an odd-numbered year shall carry over with the same status to the next regular session. Before the carried-over bill is enacted, it shall pass at least one reading in the house in which the bill originated.

(Emphases added.) Article XVII, entitled "Revision and Amendment," provides in pertinent part:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY LEGISLATURE

Section 3. The legislature may propose amendments to the constitution by adopting the same, in the manner required for legislation, by a two-thirds vote of each house on final reading at any session, after either or both houses shall have given the governor at least ten days' written notice of the final form of the proposed amendment, or, with or without such notice, by a majority vote of each house on final reading at each of two successive sessions.

Upon such adoption, the proposed amendments shall be entered upon the journals, with the ayes and noes, and published once in each of four successive 1191 *248 weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation in

Opinion of the Court by ACOBA, J.

We conclude that articles III and XVII of the Hawai'i Constitution require that (1) a proposal to amend the constitution must be reflected in the title of the bill and (2) a proposed constitutional amendment must be read three times in each house to be validly adopted. For the reasons stated herein, we determine that House Bill 2789, House Draft 1, Senate Draft 1, 2004 Haw. Sess. L. Act 60 at 301 [hereinafter, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1] violated these requirements.

³ HRS § 707-733.5, entitled "Continuous sexual assault of a minor under the age of fourteen years," states, in pertinent part:

(1) Any person who:

(a) Either resides in the same home with a minor under the age of fourteen years or has recurring access to the minor; and
(b) Engages in three or more acts of sexual penetration or sexual contact with the minor over a period of time, but while the minor is under the age of fourteen years, is guilty of the offense of continuous sexual assault of a minor under the age of fourteen years.

(2) To convict under this section, the trier of fact, if a jury, need unanimously agree only that the requisite number of acts have occurred; the jury need not agree on which acts constitute the requisite number.

⁴ Article I, section 5 of the Hawai'i Constitution, entitled "Due Process and Equal Protection," states:

No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor be denied the equal protection of the laws, nor be denied the enjoyment of the person's civil rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof because of race, religion, sex or ancestry.

⁵ Article I, section 14 of the Hawai'i Constitution, entitled "Rights of Accused," states:

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, or of such other district to which the prosecution may be removed with the consent of the accused; to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against the accused, provided that the legislature may provide by law for the inadmissibility of privileged confidential communications between an alleged crime victim and the alleged crime victim's physician, psychologist, counselor or licensed mental health professional; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in the accused's favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for the accused's defense. Juries, where the crime charged is serious, shall consist of twelve persons. The State shall provide counsel for an indigent defendant charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment.

On January 28, 2004, H.B. 2789 was introduced in the House of Representatives as "A Bill for an Act Relating to Sexual Assault." 1192 *249 It passed its first reading on the same day. H.B. 2789 proposed to amend HRS § 707-733.5(2) to read, "To convict under this section, the trier of fact, if a jury, need not unanimously agree that all of the alleged acts have occurred; provided that the jury agrees on which acts constitute the requisite number."

The amendment was intended to harmonize HRS § 707-733.5(2) with the decision in Rabago. On February 23, 2004, H.B. 2789 was amended upon the advice of the House Committee on Judiciary and designated H.B. 2789, H.D. 1. These amendments did not affect the proposed changes to HRS § 707-733.5(2). On February 23, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1 passed its second reading in the House of Representatives. On February 25, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1 passed its third reading in the House of Representatives by a vote of forty-nine to zero with two members excused.

On February 26, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1 passed its first reading in the Senate. On March 31, 2004, the Senate Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs submitted a report agreeing with the Attorney General's opinion that it was necessary to amend the Hawai'i Constitution in order for the legislature to effectuate the statutory amendment because the change proposed in H.B. 2789, H.D. 1 did not "do anything to avoid the Rabago decision." The committee recommended that the bill be amended by "[a]dding a constitutional amendment to allow the Legislature to define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in sexual assault crimes[.]" The bill was so amended and designated as H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1. As amended, the bill stated in pertinent part,

SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to propose an amendment to article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to provide that the legislature may define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in sexual assault crimes and to amend the Hawaii penal code to statutorily define the behavior.

SECTION 2. Article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"SEXUAL ASSAULT CRIMES"

Section . The legislature may define what behavior constitutes a continuing course of conduct in sexual assault crimes."

2004 Haw. Sess. L. Act 60, §§ 1-2 at 301. On March 31, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 passed its second reading in the Senate. On April 2, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 passed its third reading in the Senate by a vote of twenty-three to zero with two members excused. On the same day, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was certified by the Senate President and Senate Clerk as having passed the Senate and was sent back to the House of Representatives for consideration. On April 5, 2004, the House of Representatives informed the Senate that it disagreed with the amendments proposed by the Senate in H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1. 2004 Senate Journal at 508.

On April 6, 2004, the Senate sent notice of the final form of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 to Governor Lingle as required by article XVII, section 3 of the Hawai'i Constitution. On April 8, 2004, members from both the Senate and the House of Representatives were appointed to a conference committee to consider the amendments proposed in H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1. 2004 House Journal at 764, 793. As acknowledged by counsel at oral argument, the conference committee did not issue a report. On April 22, 2004, the House of Representatives (1) advised Governor Lingle that the conference managers on the part of the House of Representatives agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate and (2) sent notice to Governor Lingle of the final form of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 to be considered for final reading by the House of Representatives as required by article XVII, section 3 of the Hawai'i Constitution. 2004 House Journal at 1063.

On April 26, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 passed its final reading in the House of Representatives by a vote of forty-four to zero with seven members excused. Thereafter, the House informed the Senate that it had agreed to the amendments made and that the bill had passed final reading in the House of Representatives. 2004 Senate Journal at 715. On April 27, 2004, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was sent to Governor Lingle.

1193 *250 H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was presented to the voters as Question 1 at the November 2, 2004 General Election. It was one of four proposed constitutional amendments submitted to the electorate. A total of 282,852 voters (65.6%) voted in favor of Question 1. On the other hand, 148,152 voters (34.4%) voted against Question 1 or left the question blank.

III.

On October 15, 2004, eight Plaintiffs involved in this case filed a related suit⁶ in the Circuit Court of the First Circuit (circuit court case).⁷ The circuit court case sought, inter alia, (1) a declaration that the final bill was not properly adopted by the legislature and, therefore, should not have been signed by Governor Lingle and submitted to the voters at the November 2, 2004 general election and (2) an injunction prohibiting Defendants from placing Question 1 on the November 2, 2004 ballot, disseminating voter information concerning Question 1, and tabulating or certifying any votes cast on Question 1. Plaintiffs also filed a motion for a temporary restraining order, which was denied on October 26, 2004.

⁶ See Taomae v. Lingle, Civ. No. 04-1-1889-10.

⁷ The Honorable Victoria S. Marks presided.

On November 22, 2004, Plaintiffs filed their complaint in this matter. On November 23, 2004, Defendants filed their answer. On January 21, 2005, Plaintiffs filed their opening brief. On March 4, 2005, Defendants filed their answering brief. On March 17, 2005, the legislature filed its amicus brief. On March 18, 2005, Plaintiffs filed their reply brief. On July 12, 2005, Plaintiffs filed a request for judicial notice of several undisputed facts. On July 14, 2005, this court heard oral argument⁸ and, at that time, Chief Justice Moon orally granted the request for judicial notice on behalf of the court without objection.

⁸ Lois Perrin, American Civil Liberties Union, argued for the Plaintiffs. Also present for the Plaintiffs was Earle A. Purlington. Mark J. Bennett, Attorney General, State of Hawai'i, argued for Defendants. Also present for Defendants was Charleen M. Aima, Deputy Attorney General.

IV.

[I] As mentioned previously, Plaintiffs challenge the validity of the passage of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 and its presentation to the electorate in the 2004 general election.⁹ The present case is not a typical "election contest" that is reviewed pursuant to HRS § 11-172 (1993). This court has jurisdiction over cases challenging the validity of constitutional amendments presented to the voters at a general election under HRS chapter 11, Part XI.¹⁰ HRS § 602-5(6) (1993),¹¹ and HRS § 602-5(7) (1993).¹² Watland, 104 Hawai'i at 133 n. 8, 135 n. 12, 85 P.3d at 1084 n. 8, 1086 n. 12; Kahalekai v. Doi, 60 Haw. 324, 330-31, 590 P.2d 543, 548-49 (1979). Because the basis for jurisdiction over this manner of election challenge is not HRS § 11-172, the burden of proof is different; the complaint does not need to allege that different action by Defendants would have affected the outcome of the election,¹³ nor are Plaintiffs required 1194 *251 to prove such an allegation in order to prevail. Watland, 104 Hawai'i at 134-36, 85 P.3d at 1085-87.

⁹ Because this is an original proceeding, there is no standard of review.

¹⁰ HRS chapter 11, Part XI governs elections.

¹¹ HRS § 602-5(6) confers the authority upon this court to "make or issue any order or writ necessary or appropriate in aid of its appellate or original jurisdiction, and in such case any justice may issue a writ or an order to show cause returnable before the supreme court."

Taomae v. Lingle, 108 Hawai'i 245 (2005)

by law or for the promotion of justice in matters pending before it."

13 A "typical" election challenge, which would be reviewed pursuant to the standards set forth in HRS § 11-172, would be one in which a candidate contended that the election procedure was flawed in some way as to cause that candidate to lose. HRS § 11-172 states, in pertinent part, that "[t]he complaint shall set forth any cause or causes, such as but not limited to, provable fraud, overages, or underages, that could cause a difference in the election results." (Emphasis added.) See, e.g., Akaka v. Yoshida, 84 Hawai'i 383, 384-85, 935 P.2d 98, 99-100 (1997) (candidates for Office of Hawaiian Affairs Trustee positions contended that ballots were mishandled). This court has determined that such suits are inapposite to cases like the one at bar, in which a constitutional amendment that has been presented to the voters at a general election is disputed. Watland, 104 Hawai'i at 134-35, 85 P.3d at 1085-86.

[2] This court has stated that constitutional amendments that have been approved by the voters "will be upheld unless they can be shown to be invalid beyond a reasonable doubt." Kahalekai, 60 Haw. at 331, 590 P.2d at 549 (citing Keenan v. Price, 68 Idaho 423, 195 P.2d 662 (1948); City of Raton v. Sproule, 78 N.M. 138, 429 P.2d 336 (1967)). "The burden of showing this invalidity is upon the party challenging the results of the election." Watland, 104 Hawai'i at 133, 85 P.3d at 1084. "[T]he infraction should be plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable." Blair v. Cayetano, 73 Haw. 536, 541-42, 836 P.2d 1066, 1069 (1992) (brackets in original) (quoting Schwab v. Ariyoshi, 58 Haw. 25, 31, 564 P.2d 135, 139 (1977)). Thus, Plaintiffs must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the process by which H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was passed in the legislature was a "plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable" violation of article III, sections 14 and 15 and article XVII, section 3 of the Hawai'i Constitution. State ex rel. Bronster v. Yoshida, 84 Hawai'i 179, 186, 932 P.2d 316, 323 (1997).

[3] In this regard, constitutional provisions regarding constitutional amendments are not directory, but mandatory, and "strict observance of every substantial requirement is essential to the validity of the proposed amendment." Blair, 73 Haw. at 543, 836 P.2d at 1070 (quoting Andrews v. Governor of Maryland, 294 Md. 285, 449 A.2d 1144, 1146 (1982) (citations omitted)). Therefore, if Plaintiffs can show that even one "substantial requirement" was violated, they have satisfied their burden of proof. Plaintiffs need not demonstrate that the results of the election would have been different if the requirement had been fulfilled.

V.

[4] "In interpreting constitutional provisions, the general rule is that, if the words used in a constitutional provision ... are clear and unambiguous, they are to be construed as they are written." Watland, 104 Hawai'i at 139, 85 P.3d at 1090 (internal quotation marks, citations and brackets omitted). We believe the words in article III, sections 14 and 15 and article XVII, section 3 are clear and unambiguous. Because these provisions regulate the procedure by which the constitution is amended, failure to strictly comply with the requirements of these sections invalidates a proposed constitutional amendment. The plain and unambiguous language of article XVII, section 3 requires that a constitutional amendment first be proposed by the legislature. The clear and unambiguous language of article III, section 15 requires that a proposal for a constitutional amendment be subjected to three readings on different days in each house.

We conclude that H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 did not conform to the procedures set forth in the Hawai'i Constitution for two reasons. First, the proposed amendment was not titled as a constitutional amendment pursuant to article XVII. Second, the proposal to amend the constitution was not subjected to three readings in each house as article XVII, section 3 requires.

VI.

As indicated before, article XVII, section 3 provides that "[t]he legislature may propose amendments to the constitution [.]". (Emphasis added.) Given its ordinary meaning, "propose" means "to put forward for consideration." Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary 936 (10th ed.1993). Under article XVII, section 3, such proposals must be "adopt[ed] ... in the manner required for legislation." One of the requirements for the passage of legislation is that the subject of the bill "shall be expressed in its title." Haw. Const. art. III, § 14 (emphasis added). The term "shall" is ordinarily used in a mandatory sense. See Coon v. City & County of Honolulu, 98 Hawai'i 233, 256, 47 P.3d 348, 371 (2002) ("The use of the word 'shall' in the context of [Revised Ordinances of Honolulu § 38-5.2's] award of 'actual out-of-pocket expenses' is clearly mandatory."); Scheffe v. Reliable Collection Agency, Ltd., 96 Hawai'i 408, 451-52, 32 P.3d 52, 95-96 (2001) ("HRS §§ 388-11(c) and 378-5 ... mandate an award of attorney's fees to the prevailing party by employing the word 'shall' [.]").

WestlawNext © 2012 Thomson Reuters. No claim to original U.S. Government Works.

Taomae v. Lingle, 108 Hawai'i 245 (2005)

1195 *252 However, as noted in this case, the title of H.B. 2789 was "A Bill for an Act Relating to Sexual Assault" and did not refer to a proposal to amend the constitution. Hence, despite the mandates in article XVII, section 3 and in article III, section 14, the title did not announce that a proposal for an amendment to the constitution was the subject of the bill. In the absence of an indication in the title that the bill set forth an amendment to be made to the constitution, the constitutional amendment was not properly "put forward for consideration," i.e., "propose[d]" by the legislature within the meaning of that term as employed in article XVII, section 3.

While the title given H.B. 2789 upon its introduction was sufficient under article III, section 14 with respect to a statutory amendment, such a title was insufficient to "propose" that the constitution be amended by H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, the final form of the bill. The bill failed, therefore, to meet the first requirement of article XVII, section 3, that is, that the legislature "propose" the amendment as one to the constitution.

VII.

Manifestly, there is no more effective or adequate manner in which the legislature can fulfill its obligation to "propose" to the electorate changes to the constitution than by designating its action in the title of the bill as required under article XVII, section 3 and article III, section 14. It is essential that constitutional amendments be proposed as such before they are considered in the legislature and presented to the public for approval because "[p]rovisions of our Constitution are of a higher order of law than statutes. Constitutional provisions are more basic and permanent than statutes." Gafford v. Pemberton, 409 So.2d 1367, 1373 (Ala.1982) (per curiam). It is imperative then that in the case of constitutional amendments the purpose of a bill's title to "apprise the people of proposed matters of legislation [.] Schwab, 58 Haw. at 30-31, 564 P.2d at 139, is effectuated.

To that end, it is noteworthy that the other three constitutional amendments proposed by the legislature and ratified by the electorate in 2004 stated in their titles that the bills were proposed constitutional amendments, thus adhering to the directives of article XVII, section 3 and article III, section 14. The bills were entitled, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i," "A Bill for an Act Proposing Amendments to Article I, Section 14, of the Hawai'i Constitution," and "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i." (Emphases added.) The titles of those bills provided the public with clear notice concerning the nature and content of the legislation and, thus, alerted the citizenry to the opportunity to legislatively comment and debate those bills in a meaningful way. These bills attracted fifty, thirty-four, and twenty pieces of written testimony, respectively.

In contrast, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 attracted only seven pieces of written testimony. Two of those pieces were virtually identical submissions from the Attorney General suggesting that the legislature add a constitutional amendment giving itself the power to enact the statutory amendment. Two other pieces of testimony were essentially verbatim submissions from the Office of the Public Defender conveying its belief that the statutory amendment did not remedy significantly the flaw upon which the decision in Rabago was based.

As counsel confirmed in oral argument, because of the manner in which the bill was amended and adopted, the general public had no opportunity to provide comment in the legislature on the proposed amendment itself. The procedure followed hereunder eliminated "the mature deliberation, amendment and compromise usually necessary to produce sound and lasting legislation" contemplated by the framers.¹⁴ Stand. Comm. Rep. No. 47 in 1 Proceedings 1196 *253 of the Constitutional Convention of Hawai'i 1950 at 184. The words "in the manner required for legislation" in article XVII, section 3 instruct that, at the least, as to a constitutional amendment, the framers intended that there must be public participation as ordinarily contemplated in the case of statutory legislation. See infra discussion.

14 The Committee on Revision, Amendments, Initiative, Referendum and Recall stated, "All good citizens must, to some extent, neglect their everyday affairs, their work and their business, to take part in these important processes, elections and legislative sessions], whether it be to advocate good candidates or good laws, or oppose bad ones. This responsibility they must cheerfully accept as the price of liberty and efficient government." Stand. Comm. Rep. No. 47 in 1 Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of Hawaii 1950 at 183.

VIII.

Furthermore, based on the constitutional amendments passed in 2004, it appears that the legislature's current practice is to designate in the title that a bill is a constitutional amendment. See supra. "[W]hile ... past practice is not conclusively determinative in interpreting the text of the constitution, it does factor into our analysis." Bronster, 84 Hawai'i at 190, 932 P.2d at 327. The predominate practice of the legislature has been to entitle proposed constitutional amendments with some version of the phrase, "Proposing an amendment to Article of the Constitution of Hawai'i."

As mentioned previously, the titles of the bills proposing the other three amendments ratified in the 2004 general election expressly referred to constitutional amendments. See text supra at 252–253, 118 P.3d at 1195–1196. In the 1996, 1998, 2000, and 2002 general elections, ten proposed constitutional amendments presented to the voters for ratification were also entitled as proposed constitutional amendments through the legislative process.¹⁵ Thus, based on our analysis of the constitutional requirements set forth in articles III and XVII, including the predominate legislative practice, we conclude that the failure to designate H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 as a constitutional amendment in its title was a plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable violation of the constitution beyond a reasonable doubt.

15 Between 1996 and 2002, ten constitutional amendments presented to the electorate for ratification were entitled as follows: "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article VII, Section 11, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii[.]" 1996 Haw. Sess. L. at 981, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article VII, Section 12, of the Hawaii Constitution, to Allow the use of Revenue Bonds for the Funding of a State Property Insurance Program Providing Hurricane Insurance Coverage [.]"¹⁶ id. at 982, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article VII, Section 3, of the Constitution, to Provide for the Appointment of a Tax Review Commission Every Ten Years[.]"¹⁷ 1997 Haw. Sess. L. at 1246, "A Bill for an Act Proposing a Constitutional Amendment Relating to Marriage [.]"¹⁸ id., "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article X, Section 6 of the Hawaii Constitution to Provide the University of Hawaii with Autonomy in All Matters Related to the University[.]"¹⁹ 2000 Haw. Sess. L. at 1178, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article VII, Section 3, of the State Constitution to Provide for the Appointment of a Tax Review Commission Every Ten Years[.]"²⁰ id. at 1179, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article IV, Sections 7 and 8, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, to Stagger Senate Terms After Reapportionment[.]"²¹ 2000 Haw. Sess. L. Act 1 at 1 (2d Special Sess.), "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article III, Section 6 of the Hawaii Constitution, to Change the Eligibility to Serve as a Member of the Senate or House of Representatives[.]"²² 2002 Haw. Sess. L. at 1021, and "A Bill for an Act Proposing Amendments to Article VII, Section 12, and Article X, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to Authorize the State to Issue Special Purpose Revenue Bonds and use the Proceeds from the Bonds to Assist Not-For-Profit Private Elementary Schools, Secondary Schools, Colleges, and Universities."²³ Id. at 1022. The only amendment not entitled as a proposal between 1996 and 2002 was an amendment proposed in 1996 which was entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to School Construction Projects." 1996 Haw. Sess. L. at 980.

Of these ten proposed amendments between 1996 and 2002, the relevant House and Senate Journals are unclear as to whether two of sets forth one of the prerequisites that must be followed prior to any submission to the public for its vote. By incorporating the procedure for legislation set forth in article III, section 15 the framers plainly directed that any proposed constitutional amendment would be subject to the reading procedure.

In this instance, the constitutional amendment included in H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 received only three readings in total. As previously stated, the bill in its final form, including the constitutional amendment, was read and passed in the Senate on March 31, 2004 and on April 2, 2004, and read and passed in the House of Representatives only once, on April 26, 2004. This was a patent violation of article III, section 15. Allowing constitutional amendments to be approved in this manner precludes the public from participating in the legislative process with respect to constitutional amendments as discussed previously, and also undermines the intent of the framers that the constitution not be "easily amended." Comment by Delegate Fukushima, *1198 *255 in 2 Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of Hawaii 1950 at 744.

In the Committee Debates at the Constitutional Convention of 1950, Delegate Fukushima explained that the process for amending the State Constitution was to ensure that "the Constitution should not be easily amended and ..., at the same time, the procedure of amending the Constitution should not be rendered practically prohibitive or impossible." Id. The Committee on Revision, Amendments, Initiative, Referendum and Recall instructed, "This framework [i.e., the Federal Constitution], which cannot be changed except with great effort and deliberation, produces an enduring stability not found in other types of government." Stand. Comm. Rep. No. 47 in 1 Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of Hawaii 1950 at 183 (emphasis added).

As part of this framework, the Committee noted that

[t]he system of checks and balances between departments [which] tends to prevent excesses, abuses and usurpations, and the short but certain tenure of the legislators and governor insures that, by and large, the government will be responsive to the true and enduring dictates and desires of the people, but will not necessarily follow the dangerous and often mistaken dictates of storms of lusty, temporary and changeable public emotion.

Id. With respect to the legislature and in evident consonance with such a framework, the Committee indicated that [o]ne of the necessary features of laws adopted by the legislature is the necessity for three readings and the opportunity for full debate in the open ... during the course of which the purposes of the measures, and their meaning, scope and probable effect, and the validity of the alleged facts and arguments given in their support can be fully examined and, if false or unsound, can be exposed, before any action of consequence is taken thereon.

Id. at 184 (some emphasis in original and some emphases added). These premises confirm that the three reading requirement in each house must be afforded to a proposed constitutional amendment.

The three-reading requirement not only provides the opportunity for full debate; it also ensures that each house of the legislature has given sufficient consideration to the effect of the bill. Schwegmann Bros. v. Calvert Distillers Corp., 341 U.S. 384, 396, 71 S.Ct. 745, 95 L.Ed. 1035 (1951) (Jackson, J. concurring) (concluding that the three-reading requirement in the United States Constitution is intended to "make sure that each House knows what it is passing and passes what it wants"). Thus, the three-reading requirement serves a critical purpose in ensuring that constitutional amendments are adopted only after deliberate forethought. On the other hand, requiring a constitutional amendment to be read and passed three times in each house (i.e., "in the manner required for legislation") would not render the process for amending the constitution "practically prohibitive or impossible [.]" Comment by Delegate Fukushima in 2 Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of Hawaii 1950 at 744. For as this case demonstrates, these proposed amendments were given three readings in both houses of the legislature. As to the two said amendments, the respective legislative journals indicate that they were given second and third readings in the house where the amendment originated. See 2000 Senate Journal 1531 (S.B. 539, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article X, Section 6, of the Hawaii Constitution, to Provide the University of Hawaii with Autonomy in All Matters Related to the University") and 2002 House Journal 1849 (H.B. No. 1012, "A Bill for an Act Proposing an Amendment to Article III, Section 6 of the Hawaii Constitution, to Change the Eligibility to Serve as a Member of the Senate or House of Representatives"). There is no indication of when these proposed amendments were introduced or when they received their first readings in the Senate or House of Representatives, respectively.

IX.

Defendants argue that there is no constitutional provision which expressly directs the legislature to entitle constitutional amendments *1197 *254 in a certain way. They rely on the language of article III, section 14 that the title of the bill must "express" the single subject of the bill, in this case, sexual assault. While that interpretation of article III, section 14 is appropriate when applied to ordinary legislation, it must be remembered that article XVII specifically governs constitutional amendments.

Under article III, sections 14 and 15, statutes are amended in the manner required for ordinary legislation. A statutory amendment must be introduced, read three times in each house, and passed by a simple majority. Haw. Const. art. III, §§ 13¹⁶–15. In contrast, under article XVII, section 3, while the legislature has the authority to propose a constitutional amendment in a single session, the legislature cannot make that amendment law. In the single session process, a constitutional amendment can only be effected if it is proposed as such, given three readings in each house, and meets the other requirements set forth in article XVII. Haw. Const. art. XVII, § 3. The critical distinctions between "enacting" ordinary legislation pursuant to article III, section 14 and "proposing" a constitutional amendment under article XVII are exemplified by the fact that constitutional amendments are governed by a separate article.

16 Article III, section 13 of the Hawai'i Constitution, entitled "Quorum, Compulsory Attendance," states, in pertinent part, "the final passage of a bill in each house shall require the vote of a majority of all the members to which such house is entitled, taken by ayes and nos and entered upon its journal."

Defendants cite to Schwab to support their proposition that the title of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 "embraced" the subject matter of the entire bill. They rely on the proposition that the single subject requirement means that a bill's parts are "so connected and related to each other either logically or in popular understanding as to be parts of or germane" to the subject expressed in the title. Schwab, 58 Haw. at 32–33, 564 P.2d at 140. However, as presaged above, Schwab is distinguishable from the case at bar. In Schwab, this court considered the requirements embodied in article III alone, id. at 30–39, 564 P.2d at 139–44; in this case, we construe the requirements of article III as incorporated in the specific and separate provisions of article XVII. There was no constitutional amendment at issue in Schwab; therefore, it is not dispositive in the case at bar.

X.

Additionally, in considering H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, the legislature failed to satisfy the requirement set forth in article XVII, section 3, that a proposed constitutional amendment be passed "in the manner required for legislation" because the constitutional amendment, see §§ 1 and 2 of the bill, did not receive three readings in each house as required by article III, section 15. The plain reading of article XVII, section 3 requires that a proposed constitutional amendment advance through the processes set forth in article III, section 15, including the requirement that "[n]o bill shall become law unless it shall pass three readings in each house on separate days." Haw. Const. art. III, § 15 (emphasis added).¹⁷

17 Defendants' contention in oral argument that the term "propose [d]" in article XVII refers to a proposal of the constitutional amendment to the public is incorrect inasmuch as article XVII three of the four constitutional amendments adopted in the 2004 legislative session were passed in this manner. See supra. In light of the foregoing reasons, we also conclude that the failure to give the proposed constitutional amendment three readings in each house on separate days was a plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable violation of the constitution beyond a reasonable doubt.

XI.

Because the requirements of article XVII, section 3 and article III, sections 14 and 15, were not fulfilled, as discussed above, H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was not constitutionally adopted. Based on the foregoing, we grant Plaintiffs' request for (1) a declaration that H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 was invalidly passed and should not have been signed by Governor Lingle or presented to the voters in the 2004 general election and (2) an injunction prohibiting Defendants from allowing H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 to be printed or published as part of the Hawai'i Constitution.

XII.

Defendants contend that: (1) any bright line rule adopted by this court regarding the *1199 *256 requirements of articles III and XVII "apply only to bills or amendments the Legislature considers in future legislative sessions" (emphasis omitted); (2) invalidation of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 will violate the separation of powers doctrine established in article IV, section 4 of the United States Constitution; and (3) voiding the amendment would violate the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution.

A.

As to its first argument, Defendants contend that any other course of action would be unfair because the legislature and the voters did not have a bright line rule to follow regarding the application of article XVII, section 3 and its relationship to article III, section 14. Defendants rely on the holding in Jenkins v. Cades Schutte Fleming & Wright, 76 Hawai'i 115, 869 P.2d 1334 (1994) (per curiam), in which this court established a bright line rule regarding the strict application of Hawai'i Rules of Civil Procedure (HRCP) Rule 58. In that case, we noted, rigid enforcement of HRCP 58 and application of our holdings in this opinion to cases currently pending before this court and the Intermediate Court of Appeals would work an unnecessary hardship on those who have relied upon our prior case law. We will not rigidly apply the Rule 58 requirement of a separate judgment or our holdings in this opinion to appeals currently pending. However, for all appeals from circuit courts filed after March 31, 1994, we will enforce strict compliance with the separate document requirement of HRCP 58.

Id. at 119, 869 P.2d at 1338. Defendants argue that it would be wrong to invalidate a constitutional amendment which received nearly two-thirds of the votes in the general election. However, in oral argument, counsel acknowledged that the vote margin has no legal significance in the determination of this case. The legislature has the opportunity to propose identical constitutional and statutory amendments in compliance with the Constitution. Thus, the legislature will suffer no permanent hardship comparable to the threat of losing the opportunity to appeal an adverse ruling of the court that was present in Jenkins.

Furthermore, the requirements of HRCP Rule 58 were not plain and clear before the decision in Jenkins. Id. On the other hand, the requirements for adopting a constitutional amendment are established in the plain and unambiguous language of articles III and XVII; the legislature fulfilled the requirements of article XVII, section 3 and article III, sections 14 and 15 with regard to the three other proposed constitutional amendments that were presented to and ratified by the voters in the 2004 general election; and the framers of the constitution manifestly contemplated public participation in the legislative procedure that was precluded in this case. See discussion supra.

B.

[5] [6] As to the second argument, Defendants assert that if this court invalidates H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, we will intrude upon the province of the legislature, a co-equal branch of government, thus violating the separation of powers doctrine. The separation of powers doctrine is embodied in the Guarantee Clause, article IV, section 4 of the United States Constitution, which reads:

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic Violence.

Questions arising under the Guarantee Clause are nonjusticiable because they are "political, not judicial, in character, and thus are for the consideration of the Congress and not the courts." Ohio v. Akron Metro. Park Dist. for Summit County, 281 U.S. 74, 79–80, 50 S.Ct. 228, 74 L.Ed. 710 (1930) (citations omitted).

Defendants' arguments that this is a political, and not judicial, question are unconvincing. It is well settled that the courts, not the legislature, are solely vested with the responsibility to determine whether a constitutional amendment has been validly adopted.

"The power to ascertain the validity of changes in the constitution resides in the courts, and they have, with practical uniformity, exercised the authority to determine *1200 *257 the validity of proposal, submission, or ratification of change in the organic law. The question of the validity of the adoption of an amendment to the constitution is a judicial and not a political question."

Kahalekai, 60 Haw. at 330–31, 590 P.2d at 548–49 (quoting 16 Am.Jur.2d, Constitutional Law, § 43) (emphasis added). Thus, this court does not improperly encroach upon the legislature's power by invalidating H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1.

(2) A request for fees and costs must be filed with the appellate clerk, with proof of service, no later than 14 days after entry of judgment. An untimely request for fees and costs may be denied.... If oral argument is had or additional work is performed thereafter, the attorney may submit a request for additional fees and costs.

19 HRS § 11–175, entitled "Powers of supreme court, costs," provides:

End of Document

[7] As to the third argument, Defendants contend that invalidation of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 would violate the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution, which provides in pertinent part that "[n]o state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law[.]" However, Defendants present no discernible argument regarding the alleged violation of this amendment. This court may "disregard [a] particular contention" if the appellant "makes no discernible argument in support of that position [.]"
Norton v. Admin. Dir. of the Court, 80 Hawai'i 197, 200, 908 P.2d 545, 548 (1995) (citing Hawai'i Rules of Appellate Procedure (HRAP) Rule 28(b)(7)), recon. denied, 80 Hawai'i 357, 910 P.2d 128 (1996). See HRAP 28(b)(7) ("Points not argued may be deemed waived.").

The entirety of Defendants' argument that invalidation of H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 would violate the fourteenth amendment is this: "For similar reasons tied to notions of fundamental fairness [referring to the argument that invalidation would violate the Guarantee Clause, supra], we also respectfully submit that invalidating the amendment would also violate the due process clause contained in the [fourteenth] amendment of the United States Constitution." This argument does not contain any reasoning, supported by citations to case law or authority to constitute a discernible argument; thus we decline to decide the issue.

XIII.

Plaintiffs' prayer for relief requested that this court award them attorneys' fees and costs because "this case presents a novel issue of constitutional significance." We order that any request for attorneys' fees and costs be submitted in accordance with the procedure set forth in HRAP Rule 39(d) (2005).¹⁸ See also HRS § 11–175 (1993).¹⁹

18 HRAP Rule 39(d), entitled "Request for fees and costs; objections," states, in pertinent part:

(1) A party who desires an award of attorney's fees or costs shall request them by submitting an itemized and verified bill

XIV.

Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' requests for (1) a declaration that H.B. 2789, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 is invalid, (2) and an injunction prohibiting Defendants from printing or publishing Question 1 as part of the Hawai'i Constitution are granted and judgment thereon shall be entered upon proper submission by Plaintiffs. It is further ordered that Plaintiffs shall submit their *1201 *258 claim for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to HRAP Rule 39(d).

IN REPLY REFER TO:
L7621 (2012-4)

April 30, 2012

To: Senator Shan S. Tsutsui, Senate President
Calvin K.Y. Say, Speaker of the House
Members of the Legislature

Subject: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE ON THE ISLAND OF HAWAII, HB 2398 HD2 SD1

Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say and Members of the Legislature:

I am providing comments on behalf of the National Park Service regarding HB 2398, HD2 SD1, Relating to Land Use on the Island of Hawaii. This bill proposes to transfer development rights of specific parcels of land to the public land development corporation near Honokohau Harbor. The parcels of land proposed in this bill include approximately twenty-five acres of State lands (a portion of TMK (3) 7-4-008:071 and all of TMK (3) 7-4-008:041) in the Kealahou ahupuaa within Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park (National Park) and Honokohau Settlement National Historic Landmark (NHL), and is immediately adjacent to the National Park/NHL's southern boundary. Perhaps the inclusion of these two TMKs in this bill was an inadvertent oversight. Included inadvertently or not, there should be no development on lands within the National Park boundary or NHL. All of TMK (3) 7-4-008:041, and the portion of TMK (3) 7-4-008:071 that is within the National Park/NHL, should be excluded from this bill.

Any large-scale development project on lands within or adjacent to the National Park/National Historic Landmark will significantly impact its cultural landscape, traditional and customary practices by Native Hawaiians in the Park, and cultural and natural resources. The National Park Service remains supportive of infrastructure and operational improvements to the existing Honokohau Harbor for health and safety reasons, traffic management, and access, but for the reasons set out below, we are highly concerned about the appropriateness of development in the area within the National Park boundary and NHL. Given the significance of the area and National Historic Landmark designation, the public, Native Hawaiian Organizations, and the local community must be allowed every opportunity to fully participate in environmental and cultural review and analyses of any and all proposed development or "improvement" projects in this area.

Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park is part of the National Park System and was established by Congress to protect its nationally significant cultural and natural resources. The National Park Service and the State of Hawaii share a commitment to care for and preserve public trust resources including cultural and natural resources, and associated values, for the people of Hawaii and the United States. Congress has mandated that the National Park Service preserve and protect the resources and values of the National Park in an unimpaired condition in order to perpetuate their inherent integrity for the benefit and inspiration of present and future generations. (16 USC §1 et seq.) Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park was created in 1978, through the efforts of the local community to preserve, interpret, and perpetuate traditional Hawaiian activities and culture. In particular, residents of Kona were concerned that this place of great significance to Hawaiians would be lost to urban development.

Congress's decision to create the Park came primarily from the 1974 Hono-kohau Study Advisory Commission Report ("The Spirit of Ka-loko Hono-kohau") that recommended that the existing Honokohau Settlement National Historical Landmark (designated in 1962) and its adjacent waters be preserved for the benefit of the Hawaiian people and the nation as part of the National Park System. Even at the time of the Spirit Report in the early 1970's, the Advisory Commission was concerned about future land use adjacent to the National Park. They stated:

"Furthermore, since most of the land in the ahupuaa of Ke-ala-kehe is owned by the state, its use will have direct impact on Ka-loko, Hono-kohau. Finally, lands that are designated or owned by the state in the area should be given special zoning limiting their uses to activities compatible to a cultural park. The County General Plan and zoning ordinances of the area should limit the uses of the lands immediately surrounding Ka-loko, Hono-kohau to compatible activities. Lands further mauka should be restricted in density in order to preserve the integrity of the park and protect its water resources." (p.54)

The Spirit Report and the 1994 General Management Plan for the Park point out that Kaloko Honokohau is a small and fragile portion of the larger environment that has influenced the history of the entire area and that continues to affect the Kona community today. In creating the National Park, Congress stated that it shall be administered generally in accordance with the guidelines provided in the Spirit Report and that management "shall to the maximum extent feasible utilize the traditional Native Hawaiian mauka a concept of land and water management." (16 USC § 396d). The Spirit Report reminds us:

"Each ahupua'a developed around a recognition that all of its elements were interdependent. What affected the mauka regions, affected the makai. What affected the neighboring ahupua'a affected it. What affected the land affected the fishponds and the sea. What affected the water cycle affected the total environment. This is the way it was and is at Ka-loko, Hono-kohau." (p. 51)

The urban expansion foreseen by the Advisory Commission in 1974 is now underway. The direct and cumulative impacts of development projects on lands adjacent to the National Park are leading to the long term degradation of the National Park, threaten the integrity of the Honokohau Settlement NHL, and are further diminishing the rapidly disappearing Hawaiian cultural landscape. Large-scale development adjacent to the National Park will fundamentally alter the water, air, sounds, sights, and traditional and customary practices by native Hawaiians in the National Park and the NHL. Water quality and quantity will be altered forever by fresh and brackish groundwater withdrawals, and non-point source pollution inputs.

As currently drafted, the bill transferring development rights to the public land development corporation is inconsistent with the purposes of the National Park and with local land-use decisions. Development of the lands within the National Park boundary and NHL is fundamentally in conflict with reasons for establishing Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park identified in the Spirit Report and by Congress in the National Park's enabling legislation. In 2009, in response to a previously proposed development at Honokohau Harbor area, the Hawaii County Council unanimously passed an Amendment to the Hawaii County General Plan (Bill 156) changing the Land Use Designation from Urban Expansion to Open for the State-owned lands in the vicinity of and south of Honokohau Harbor.

As you are well aware, development of coastal lands has irreversible and far-reaching consequences. The National Park Service requests that you carefully review the need for transferring development rights on the parcels within the National Park boundary and NHL. Preservation of coastal open space and cultural landscape will benefit the quality of life in the Kona community, Native Hawaiian values and traditional and customary practices, and nationally significant natural and cultural resources. We appreciate your consideration of protecting these irreplaceable Hawaiian resources. If we can answer any questions or provide information, please contact me at (808) 329-6881, ext. 1201.

Sincerely,

Kathy Billings

Representative Awana: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With your indulgence, and as Chair of the House Committee on International Affairs, I would like to invite the Members of this Body to a Hong Kong reception. Representative Ward: "And speaking of refreshments, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank everyone, you, and all those who organized a real cornucopia of a potluck. In fact we could have stopped our arguments after eating so much food because of that. But secondly, I just want to remind the Members, at least on this side of the aisle, that we'll caucus at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow in the Caucus Room. Thank you."

Speaker Say: "I think, Members of the House, credit should be given to Representative Marilyn Lee for coordinating today's potluck."

Gov. Msg. No. 1199, transmitting his statement of objections to S.B. No. 2101, SD 1, HD 2, as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
May 1, 2012

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2101

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2101, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the TRICARE Program."

The purpose of this bill is to extend the repeal of the general excise tax exemption for amounts received from the TRICARE Program from December 31, 2013, to December 31, 2015.

Act 105, Session Laws of Hawaii 2011, temporarily suspended numerous exemptions from the general excise tax that were not related to the TRICARE Program. The temporary suspension of the exemptions in Act 105 expires on June 30, 2013. During the regular session of 2013, all of the general excise tax exemptions, including the exemption for the TRICARE Program, should undergo a fair and comprehensive review at the same time. Because the exemption for the TRICARE Program will not expire until December 31, 2013, there is no need to extend the expiration date of this single exemption now.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2101 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor of Hawaii"

Gov. Msg. No. 1200, informing the House that on May 02, 2012, the following bill was signed into law:

S.B. No. 3025, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING CREDITS." (ACT 098)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 131-12 and H.B. No. 2012, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2012, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative M. Lee.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of H.B. 2012, CD 1. Before I proceed in speaking to the merits of the budget before us, please allow me the tradition and customary opportunity to thank those who have spent countless hours preparing what lies before us. First off, I need to extend a shout out of appreciation to Chair David Ige, the members and the staff of the Senate Committee on Ways and Means.

"We started this endeavor about 2 weeks ago to work out a compromise, and we worked very hard together. They were long and tough negotiations, but we finally resolved and came out with this Conference Draft. So I want to thank him for his graciousness and willingness to entertain and consider my thoughts and ideas on the budget. I appreciate it tremendously, David. Thank you, very much.

"I'd also like to thank Vice Chair Marilyn Lee, because again, we wouldn't be here talking about a Conference Draft and the House position if she was not by my side. And of course, Representative Kyle Yamashita who took the lead on behalf of the House to negotiate the CIP portion of the budget. Good job, Kyle. I know it was tough going, and you had a real formidable counterpart in the Senate, Senator Kidani. But again, thank you for advancing the House position throughout. Of course, Mr. Speaker I must thank the Committee members for their hard work and dedication to developing the policies you see within this budget.

"To our veteran members, your knowledge of the practice and past actions have helped us, and driven us to decisions on these key issues. The Freshmen members, your refreshing inquisitiveness and insight brought new light to our discussions. And to my Minority members, Representatives Ward, Marumoto and Riviere, thank you very much for your often contrary views. I think it prompted some interesting and lively discussions. Equally important, it helped the Foodbank, tremendously.

"Likewise, thanks to the Committee Chairs for your time and attendance as the Second Chair of our Committee on Finance. I think taking advantage of it, gave us additional insight to the policies of the Subject Matter Chairs and I think the participation of them both enlightened and even at times entertained us, Mr. Speaker. And again, they contributed generously to the Hawaii Foodbank, also.

"Finally, I must thank my Finance staff. They are truly the unsung heroes, the ones that work day in, day out, behind those walls without any windows, often cloistered away in those dark crevices and corners that mere mortals fear to tread. They worked together very well. None of us lost anyone. And the crew remained comfortable and comforting to each other.

"Our permanent and session staff include, Mr. Speaker, Jo Hamasaki. He's the one that actually put together the budget itself, the document you see before you, and the Committee Reports. He knit and stitched the entire budget together. Thank you, Jo. Karen Horita was also with us in the front office. Puna Chai, Susan Fernandez, Erik Abe, Randall Hiyoto, Stacey Tagala, Nandana Kalupahana – that's not Hawaiian. That's Sri Lankan. Lucia Phan, Maria Millon, Midori Hirai, Bill Gillispie, Maryanne Takahashi, Megan Shimizu, Erin Ebisuya, Daniel Kikawa. You know, Daniel was an intern for the University of Hawaii, and one of the fortunate, lucky ones to end up in the House Finance Committee. But he's well on his way, prepped and prepared for law school at the Richardson School of Law in the Fall. He learned a lot and said he really enjoyed his experience. Napualani Young, she was the last fiscal analyst to join us. I think she's going to be staying on. I think she got the bug of being in the Legislature and she will be working with Chair Coffman's Office as his new Office Manager. Karisa Look, a second-time veteran. Matthew Tsujimura, a first timer. Micah Munkata, and Michael Ong. Mr. Speaker, how about a round of applause for the Finance Staff.

"Mr. Speaker in his inaugural speech four years ago, Hawaii's President Obama said ..."

Representative Manahan rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

The Chair addressed Representative Oshiro, stating:

"Your introduction took up the whole first half of your time."

Representative Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think the kudos were well deserved and earned. Four years ago, in his Inaugural Address, President Obama made these statements:

The question we ask today is not whether our government is not too big or too small, but whether it works. Whether it helps families find jobs at a decent wage, care they can afford, a retirement that's dignified. Where the answer is yes, we intend to move forward. When the answer is no, programs will end. Those of us who manage the public's dollars will be held to account, because only then can we restore the vital trust between a people and their government.

"I believe these words are even more applicable and noteworthy today. Mr. Speaker, your Committee on Finance has accepted its responsibility to craft this Supplemental Budget, constrained by the dynamic and constantly changing fiscal realities.

"We have not taken the easy route, Mr. Speaker, but kept on the course set last year as we continue our voyage through the turbulent water of the great recession. We have not deviated from the course and challenges set for us last year. Mr. Speaker, this is why we maintain that a steady, deliberative approach to this budget remains a prudent attempt at preparing for the challenges in reprioritizing, rehabilitating, and renewing government service in the years ahead. That's right, the three R's. Reprioritizing, rehabilitating, and renewing government service for our employees and those they serve.

"Short-term and long-term goals of the budget are to: Triage targeted programs to ensure that the most basic needs are met, particularly on human services, education, and agriculture; those are the basics. Support long-term planning and accountability efforts to fundamentally change the character and delivery of government services.

"Mr. Speaker for the past three years, since 2009, a common visual aid in our Finance hearings and Conference Room has been a poster which prompted answers to four fundamental questions, and many have seen it.

"The first question was, How far can we cut government programs and services? Second question, What programs and services are we willing to live without? Third question, Are we willing to pay more for the programs and services we want? And the fourth question, What do we want Hawaii to look like when the recession ends?

"As I look back on this Session, I feel that there are still those who believe that any resources available should be spent simply to return to the status quo. Mr. Speaker, to spend money simply because we can, or to merely restore programs that were cut in the past, without evaluation and assessment of our return on investment or outcomes, is simply not the right thing to do. To do so means that we have not learned the lessons of the recession from which we emerge. And let us keep in mind that we are barely addressing longer term liabilities of our public workers: our public workers' pension systems – the Employees' Retirement System, and health insurance costs of the Employer Union Trust Fund.

"This is, Mr. Speaker, my biggest disappointment of this Session, and of this budget. See, about four years ago, the GASB reporting requirements were issued to all states, when we at the state level were notified that we should begin to set aside moneys for the unfunded liability facing us to fund government employees and retiree health benefits, the EUTF. Mr. Speaker, all the counties have, to some degree, put aside a portion of money for this purpose, but the State of Hawaii has not. We should be setting aside nearly $500 million per year in the EUTF to ensure that we can pay ..."

Representative McKelvey rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you. We should be setting aside nearly $500 million per year in the EUTF to ensure we can pay for retiree health benefits when the time comes. We could not get agreement to set aside a mere 10% of that amount, $50 million as a down payment, a good-faith gesture, earnest money on our future obligations to our current retirees and current workers. We had, in our fiscal plan, a means to meet these objectives over a 6-year period. Mr. Speaker, in a last ditch effort, I even sought to deposit $5 million, $5 million of the House portion of the $50 million of the GIA and bill allocations that you and the Senate President allowed us to use last week Friday. But that too was rejected, Mr. Speaker.

"Mr. Speaker, let us not bury our heads in the sand. The longer we wait to set aside any money for this obligation, the more expensive it will become. Then we will no longer be arguing about how much to spend on human services. Or arguing about how much to spend on education. Or how much to spend on agriculture. Or how much to spend on watersheds. The only thing we'll be paying for then, will be the fixed government costs of debt service, Medicaid, and retirement benefits. Pension and health care for government employees and retirants. But actually Mr. Speaker, let me correct that. There is a solution. We can eliminate health care coverage for current and future workers. No longer will our brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, mothers and fathers, who are teachers, plant quarantine inspectors, librarians, prison guards, get support in accessing health care after they retire. They'll be on their own, but that is absurd and unnecessary.

"Mr. Speaker, our recovery nationally, and our recovery here at home has changed the lives of everyone. We know that for the next three or four years, we will not get back to the robust unemployment numbers of early 2005, 2006, until maybe to 2015 or 2018. We will no longer experience the skyrocketing growth of the mid-2000s, but a more moderate pace of maybe 2% to 3% for the next four or five years. Mr. Speaker, we are a state where one in five of our population is on Medicaid.

"Most young families cannot afford a mortgage, even with historically low interest rates, and the middle class watches their dreams and the dreams of their children vanish into exhaustion from working two or more jobs to support a family as an income divide deepens and inflation eats away at their gains. Is this what we want Hawaii to look like when the recession ends, or the effects of the recession ends?

"Mr. Speaker, this budget, if revenue projections of the Council on Revenues come through, may provide us an opportunity next year, but all we did this year was miss a golden opportunity to stabilize our long-term financial plan and provide for a stronger State fiscal health. Mr. Speaker, despite my personal disappointment, there is much good in this budget, and those of you who were here in 2007, may remember our top ten reasons to vote for the budget that I used. Vice Chair Lee has it before us. Budget cuts in 2008. We reduced that list to the top five reasons to vote for the budget. Vice Chair Lee also has that chart.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, times are tough. But in spite of the recovery that is ahead of us, if we stay the course, I offer you a renewed, rehabilitated, and reprioritized Top 10 Reasons to Vote for the Budget In 2012:

Number 1, $250,000 to develop an early Childhood Obesity and Diabetes Prevention Program for the State, one of the Governor's initiatives.

Number 2, $1 million for the Freeway Service Patrol on Oahu, which starts at Fort Ruger Road and will now extend coverage to Ainakoa Street in Hawaii Kai."

Representative Rhoads rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you.

"$1.4 million and 19 positions for staffing shortages, electricians, carpenters, plumbers, and housing specialists who will get uninhabitable rental units repaired for waitlisted applicants without a roof over their heads.

"And over $5 million, Mr. Speaker, to launch the Governor's watershed initiative, a program to protect priority watersheds throughout the State.

"Number 5, $3.3 million for Hawaii's Adult Education Program, which provides GED, English as a Second Language, and competency-based programs necessary to attain a degree.

"Number 6, Mr. Speaker, $3.4 million for the Justice Reinvestment Initiative, to bring prisoners home from out-of-state, provide rehabilitation services, and most importantly, strengthen victim assistance programs at both the State and county levels.

"Number 7, $22.9 million for Medicaid payments to maintain the safety net.

"Number 8, $26 million for continued construction of UH West Oahu, and $3 million for a bookstore, dining room and catering facilities at the new Kapolei Campus, set to open in August.

"Number 9, $700,000 for the statewide institutionalization of the Na Pua No'eau program.

"And number 10, $14 million for the Weighted Student Formula, and $25 million for school buses to ensure support for our students in the classroom and getting them to class.

"The budget before you proposes to triage targeted programs to serve immediate critical needs. This is a balanced investment, a long-term information technology initiative.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I look forward to examining the IT plan due in July 2012. This $25.3 million initiative could fundamentally transform government services, fundamentally transform government services. And what's different about this initiative and the ones we've seen in the past, is that it recognized the computerizing inefficiency for obsolete systems. It doesn't mean we'll be better or more efficient. It simply means that they're automating bad systems.

"The biggest challenge to the initiative is taking a hard, comprehensive look at State programs and services to see what needs to be changed. Success will come when we participate, share our knowledge, and change. The evidence is there in the CIO's working group. Many have come forward and honestly put forward their ideas and discuss their own shortcomings and need to change, and I highly commend those public servants for risking their own standing amongst their peers to come forward and give an honest assessment.

"We should not simply restore funding to restore funding that was cut. We must demand more accountability and transparency, and we will do so as we emerge from this recession. Using the glass is half full approach to the recession we've been struggling through, we all have had an opportunity that it should not be squandered. As we emerge from the great recession, let us not forget what we have learned from the past several years.

"Mr. Speaker, change is difficult, but it must happen, given the metrics in our budget and our financial plan. Simply returning to former funding levels is unsustainable. Mr. Speaker, I look forward to working with everyone in this Chamber as we emerge from the great recession and reprioritize, rehabilitate, and renew the way government works and is funded. I humbly ask for the Members' support on H.B. 2012, CD 1. Thank you very much, Members. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of the proposed budget. As your Chair of the Committee on Housing this bill greatly demonstrates the Legislature's foresight, and the need of our people for more affordable housing and rental units. Mr. Speaker, with your indulgence, please allow me to tell you why I make such remarks. This bill funds rental cash assistance and rental assistance, repair and maintenance of public housing, funds the Hawaii Finance and Development Corporation, funds the homeless intervention initiatives, as well as tax credits for those entities that want to build low income housing.

"The second item that I want to thank you for, the Finance Committee, and this Body, Mr. Speaker, is the appropriation for land acquisition and design for a new high school in Ewa which is now fashionably termed 'East Kapolei' in the books.

"Whatever this Body calls this upcoming high school, Mr. Speaker, this appropriation for this new high school is a clear statement of the Legislature's recognition of the needs of an upcoming robust community and how congested Campbell High School and Waipahu High School are currently. I thank this Body for recognizing this need.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, this bill also provides for additional funding for UH West Oahu. This bill, Mr. Speaker, provides funding also for the Hawaii Finance Development Corporation, who partners with private developers in the construction of affordable housing and affordable rentals. I believe this appropriation will address one of the greatest needs of our people. And believe it or not, Mr. Speaker, this bill also provides $15,600,000 for homeless services.

"Furthermore, all these measures ultimately benefit all our people for the job creation in the implementation of these projects. Job creation, Mr. Speaker. Job creation. Mr. Speaker, although the Chair of Finance is not totally happy with this bill, I submit to you, that I could not have been more proud of the sensitivity and clear demonstration of that sensitivity by the funding initiatives of the Committee on Finance, and the hard work and cooperation of the members of the Housing Committee. If I may Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the people that I represent, I thank you and the entire Body for a job well done this Session."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with a few observations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As with the beginning with the Chair of Finance, I too am very appreciative of all of his hard work and of all of our colleagues' hard work, and particularly the Minority's hard work and the price that they paid to participate with the Finance Chair. Mr. Speaker, unbeknownst to us we were charged a particular per question fee for the food and a great cause, for the Foodbank. But I want you to know that the Minority paid the most in those fees. Because we love, not only because we love food and the Foodbank, but we love to ask questions, which is part of my role now, Mr. Speaker in this marketplace of ideas and where iron sharpens iron.

"The first macro I guess you'd have say that if this was a family and we were on the kitchen table and we said, 'Here's our budget', the question would be, 'Would we break out the champagne? Would we maybe bring out a beer?' The fact is, we made it through the year, and we actually spent a little bit less on this budget. Maybe $463,000. But next year, we're going to add a few more million to the point where the budget's going to go up 3.2%, Mr. Speaker. The point is, we've made it through. We have to be grateful that we've gone that far, but we have to be mindful that things on the horizon are not hunky dory.

"Mr. Speaker, you yourself know that we have some things that may be foreboding in terms of what's coming down the pike. It's the concerns of things that are really out of our control. They're external to us. Those things indicated, for example, the oil prices. Everybody knows that even though they went down for a couple of pennies last week, that if the visitor industry, which is leading our recovery, has the ticket prices getting out of reach, our visitor industry could take a big dip in the third quarter of this year. Another huge externality is what's going on with, even though we haven't heard much recently, about the Iranian and the Israel crisis. And then thirdly, it's an unknown factor about the Presidential election of November. And as you are fond to note, that when there are indecisions and uncertainties in the climate, people who would otherwise invest or be bullish are having a tendency to hold back.

"So, Mr. Speaker, we can celebrate with a beer then. We can say that we made it through. But there are few things in the budget that I should point out that probably are a little bit of a surpiser, and I should probably point those out.

"Let me start with the good news. It's really happy to see that the film studios got funding. The spaceport license, Mr. Speaker. One thing that we tried for almost three Sessions, or three years, to get the spaceport license. We're really happy that the PISCES is going to take off, and the whole point of this, Mr. Speaker, is to point out how part of our obligation in protecting the people of Hawaii is to grow the pie. Right now, Mr.

Speaker, if you look at the cost of living, income is down over the last 5 years, 3.2%.

"We haven't grown the pie. We've cut it up in different parts, but in order for everybody to share something, we've got to get more entrepreneurial, more growth oriented. And when we have a spaceport license, when we have PISCES, when we have growth in the area of the film studios, I think it's a good foreboding, because we're not going to be able to make it now. And as the Chair bemoaned the fact that, you know there are hard times with Hawaii's families. I'd bemoan the statistic that 57% of our families cannot afford to send their kids to school with lunch money without a subsidy. 57%. That's got to hurt all of us. We cannot be proud of the fact that we're subsidizing the basic necessities of lunch.

"So, Mr. Speaker, growing the pie. Part of the budget is going to do that, but some parts of the budget, I think, may be a little bit questionable. I was surprised to see that the transpacific cable project was in the budget. I was thinking that that needed a little more airing before it actually went for a dollar amount, and it got put in as a line item.

"But speaking of line items, I'm really happy to see that we've scoured the budget. We just went through every point of the budget and the provisos, there's no state bank appropriation of $75,000 in the budget. And I want you to know that I've bored people speaking about the state bank and how the Governor doesn't want to be the head of this bank, but we would have made him the head of the bank. So I want to commend the Chair for the marketplace of ideas. Listening to people."

Representative Fontaine rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"I had no intention of going as long as the Chair of the Finance Committee, but I commend the Chair for being open at a time when we are right on the cusp of making it through. We don't want to do high risk investments such as the state bank, Mr. Speaker.

"Maybe a couple of other surprises are noteworthy. The growth of some of these spending items scares me a little bit because Mr. Speaker, if we look at, and I know we've given the analogy time and again about if the water's boiling, and the frog jumps in, it jumps right out of the water. But when it gets into comfortable lukewarm water, it stays there. It kicks back. It feels good, and in the meantime it gets cooked. The data that we've looked at, from the Minority side, is that groceries, gas, and electricity have gone up 25% to 30% in the last five years. Mr. Speaker, that's on top of what otherwise is 25% more cost of living than the mainland.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, when we on this Floor say, 'Well look, this new fee, or this new approach to raising revenue is only a cup of Starbucks coffee,' I think we miss the point of what we're otherwise doing to the people of Hawaii. When the cost of living goes so high, and that's why the Chair of Human Services, the Chair of Housing, who can be prideful that, 'Hey we got money for the homeless,' the problem is, that the economy, the growing of the pie has been missing in equation from Hawaii and unfortunately, sometimes, in the budget.

"Lastly, Mr. Speaker, I think if we just have a little bit of reflection on where we are, where we're going and how the astuteness of the Chair of Finance and all the Members, we should be very prideful. But we should also be mindful of the fact, and why we're celebrating this budget and can be happy is because the economy is picking up. Mr. Speaker, that's the private sector. That's the sector that sometimes we, maybe too much on this side of the aisle, speak up saying, 'Hey guys, let's give them a break,' because they have just put the taxes in along with the people of Hawaii that have made this budget a worthwhile budget, and one that we can be proud of. Having said that, Mr. Speaker, okay, no champagne. But I think I'll pop open a beer for the day. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in very strong support. Mr. Speaker, I would like to properly thank everyone that contributed to the budget. I would like to thank the Chair and everyone who had a big part in this process. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House, I wish to speak in favor of this budget. Again, I wish to thank the Leadership, the Chairman and the Members of Finance, and the CIP Chairman and subcommittee for doing a wonderful job. I think the management especially, in the last hours of the completion of the budget, deserves an A for the great work that they did. You know, we had a lot of work to do coming into Friday, with the House Leadership, and the Chairman and the Conferees, who had the strength and the willingness to work throughout the weekend and to complete the budget.

"To complete the budget is a tremendous task at best, and to do it without an extension, because we were on the verge of an extension. But they did it all, with discipline. That's what it takes to be a good Finance Committee Member, and a good Chairman, and good leadership is discipline. You need to do what you need to do, and they did it. They came out with a balanced budget, with a carryover. It's a good carryover for two consecutive years, and for this I think you deserve much kudos and congratulations.

"A caveat that I may have, is that of course nothing is perfect. I would wish that in future years, in the coming years, that we look at the personal income tax where we need to reduce the personal income tax for those of the middle class and of lower incomes. And of course, to reduce the top income tax, Members. It was down to 7 3/4% at one time, and now it's up to 11%. And that was done by necessity. I've always said that the revenue that we have, and what we had in the past is not enough to maintain all of the State programs that we have, and that we want to have. We're responsible for education, for health, for human services, which many of our counterparts on the mainland are not. But we're responsible for it, and because of that we're constantly fighting the battle of not having enough money, through good years and bad years. So I would hope that as we move along, we would come to a realization, that what we have and what we want to keep will eternally be difficult unless we look at some other means of raising revenue.

"You must remember that during these past few years, we have cut over $2 billion of the budget. Now this money is money that eventually has to be put back. Wages have been cut. They're paying more for their health benefits. Private programs have been looked at and we have taken money away just to balance the budget. And you can't blame the Finance Committee members for that. We all share in that blame because we're not looking sometimes, at the bigger picture.

"The bigger picture is that we want to have the best education program in the world. We want to have the best lower education, higher education, take care of health, and the poor which are increasing in numbers because of the high unemployment. But the revenue picture is not enough. So, Members as we move along, if you want to maintain ..."

Representative Ichiyama rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki continued, stating:

"If you want to maintain the quality of programs, then you have to look at all the areas of enhancing revenue, whatever they may be. And again, in concluding, I certainly wish to thank the Chairman, for his courageous, hard work, and the Committee members, and you, Mr. Speaker, and the Majority Leader, for your leadership. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time I rise in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I concur with the Chair of Finance that there are good things in this budget that benefit all the people of Hawaii. And as the Representative, I share, I know, with the Senator of the human services, health corridor of our State, our gratitude.

"This measure, and a very extensive bill, has some things I'd like to highlight with great gratitude. And before I get to those specifics though, I would like to thank the Finance Chair, the Leadership of House and Senate, your staff, and all others, who spent such long hours finalizing this budget. I'd like to mention the General Obligation Bond appropriation for Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. These funds will be used to upgrade medical facilities throughout the State, addressing health and safety deficiencies. As we know, we are a State that has a lot of long-term care needs. Maluhia Center will receive money for this, to upgrade their plumbing, their electrical system.

"We'll maintain medical facilities for all the people of Hawaii to ensure that they can provide the service and treatment for our State. And we thank the Chair of Finance, all of Leadership, all of the colleagues, all of the hard work that went into consideration of the St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii special purpose revenue bond. With the St. Francis Medical Healthcare System and the sisters, we have almost a century of service to the poor, the needy, all those that come for help. And it is good that they are going to have this chance to continue to be in Liliha.

"Third, and I'm very, very touched, I'm very happy, to see that a subject deeply important to me, that I mentioned on the Floor at the beginning of Session, allocates funds for the Childhood Obesity and Diabetes Prevention Program. I thank the Chair of Finance, his vision, his courage, his leadership. As you know, obesity and diabetes are not only serious, tragic issues, but they continue to grow in prevalence for our local people. This measure will help to increase awareness of this epidemic, a scourge among our people. It will help to fund research, data collection. The important thing is it would begin our action, action to stop this tide. S.B. 2778 will help educate the public and bring us closer to health of our people.

"So on top of all I previously said, I deeply, sincerely thank all those who worked on it, and also H.B. 304, where the health of our people again, hopefully will be taken care of through the Kalihi-Palama area. Because these will not just benefit the recipients, but the entire community and State of Hawaii, to help the least fortunate and some of those who their health is not well. They're not in the best of health. So I express, again, my views, and voice my support for this bill. I think we made a difference. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Additional written comments."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in support of this measure.

"This measure is the State Budget bill, and while it is a very extensive bill, there are a few points I'd like to highlight. Before I get to specifics, I would like to thank the Finance Chair, his staff, and all the others who spent the long hours last week and weekend finalizing the budget.

"The first highlight I'd like to mention is the general obligation bond appropriation for the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation (HHSC). These funds will be used to upgrade medical facilities throughout the State to address health and safety deficiencies. It is essential to maintain our medical facilities and ensure they can provide service and treatment for the citizens of the State and our communities. Thank you for this appropriation.

"Second, I'd like to thank the Legislature for thinking about and taking into consideration the St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii. The funds provided in this bill and from the SPRBs in SB2939 will help St. Francis provide support and care for the good people of Hawaii.

"Third, and this concerns a subject that is deeply important to me, I'd like to thank the Legislature and those who worked on the budget for allocating funds for a childhood obesity and diabetes prevention program.

"Though I rise in support to the measure, Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to insert the words of the Representative from Hawaii Kai as if they were my own. I believe my colleague adequately addresses the appropriate comments and thoughts on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you, very much for guiding the House and Senate Committee on Conference. You have demonstrated unwavering support for agricultural sustainability in Hawaii. Guided by the Council on Revenue's forecasting of the State revenues growth of 11.5% during the fiscal year ending June 30th, although lower than what was earlier predicted. The Committee continuously noted that we must continuously strive and consciously protect our ports of entry with inspectors, to defend our agricultural industry from the catastrophic losses that we have been experiencing throughout the years, the relentless invasion of foreign pests.

"This budget notes, that 9 federally funded inspector positions at Kahului were about to be terminated. They have been placed on the budget's general fund. Further, 20 special funded positions lost through reduction in force were originally intended to be placed on special funds. Now the budget calls for general funding. Understanding this strain placed on special funds means that these moneys are now available to be redirected.

"I'd like to add further that other departmental positions that have been severely understaffed have been reinforced via this budget: 2 positions to inspect and audit Food Security and Safety Standards; 2 positions created for the Agricultural Land Branch within the Agricultural Resource Management Division; 4 statewide positions, reinforced for quality assurance, and water, the backbone of agriculture.

"Our short staffed irrigation programs have been provided with 5 irrigation positions; and additionally, 6 positions that were in the special funds for Molokai, Hawaii, and also Oahu have been reinforced. Another 2 temporary positions were converted to permanent positions for the creation of Agricultural Infrastructure Branch for the irrigation systems, statewide. Measurements and Standards Branch, completely decimated by budget cuts and retirements. 4 more positions were added to augment this service statewide.

"In other areas, appropriations to construct the much needed bio-security facilities and replacement of the antiquated vacuum cooling chambers, in Kamuela. This along with other initiatives including the electronic importer manifest legislation, the invasive species inspector dog program, funding for coffee berry borer eradication program, honeybee research program, and feed subsidy programs are all geared to reinforce our ability to withstand the onslaught of invasive species.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd truly be remiss if I would not close on such a cognizant and greatly disappointing activity that took place last month, or should I say a judgment that took place last month, mainly the federal judges issuance of permanent injunction stopping our State from requiring air cargo carriers from charging customers a fee for the efforts to protect our islands from invasive species."

Representative Hashem rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji continued, stating:

"Thank you, very much. I'm referring to the special funds, the cargo fees that were used for countering invasive species. But I implore upon you, Mr. Speaker, that this should not deter our legislative responsibility to be committed, and to be forthright in our war against invasive species. I truly believe that this budget reinforces that commitment. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, very much. I do appreciate following the Chairman of the Agriculture Committee. I found it an honor and privilege to serve under him. I enjoyed working for the agricultural cause here in Hawaii, and he's a very dedicated person who's interested in farmers and sustainability. I also was privileged to serve under the Chairman of Finance, Vice Chairman and the staff. I found them very professional. You learn an awful lot if you do serve on Finance, and I got a PhD there. The Minority wasn't privileged to attend all the meetings, but you know, maybe if we were more involved, we would be more agreeable, and not have to ask so many questions.

"Thank you also, Finance Chair, for the funds put in for sexual assault services. Many members of the Finance Committee did write to request this, so we do appreciate it. But thank you, especially for the $167,000 in the Department of Agriculture budget to restart the dog detection program. This will pay for 3 inspector dog handlers, and 1 inspector trainer. So, this will help keep out the brown tree snakes in Hawaii. I've sort of bird dogged this particular prevention program since the early '90s when I obtained the first state appropriation to supplement the federal program. This new program will help ferret out invasive species at the airport baggage area, and also in the small package area. So, I just want to shout out a mahalo to all persons involved, the Finance Chairs, the Ag Chairs. Thank you, very much."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the measure and of the budget. And if my speech is a bit disjointed, the reason is, I actually read the Committee Report. It took me about an hour, but I read the Committee Report. First, I want to thank the Chair of Finance and the Finance staff for their work, often at considerable personal sacrifice. The making of a balanced budget is at times all consuming, and as Members, we owe the Chair and the staff a debt of gratitude. Their calmness and grace under pressure were amazing, truly amazing. The members of the Finance Committee, I'd like to thank them, also. For the most part, they arrived promptly and were rewarded with stars.

"Mr. Speaker, this budget is obviously a collaborative effort between the House and Senate. Personally, there were a few areas that I might have liked to come out differently, especially as Chair referred to the $50 million to begin addressing the annual required contribution of the Employer Union Health Benefits Trust Fund, the unfunded liability. That was not to be. However, in general, there were positive areas, such as support for agriculture, and support for the aging infrastructure, that are long overdue and very welcome.

"With respect to the comments of the Minority Leader, I would like to remind him that during page by page deliberation over the budget, he often suggested adding items. Do you remember that? Oh he's not there. Mr. Speaker, the times we live in are fragile, and we need to continually remind ourselves to look to the future, despite the needs of the present.

"The biblical lesson of the seven fat cows being devoured by the seven lean cows is something we should not forget. Pharaoh asked Joseph what to do. 'Prepare,' he said, 'for hard times. Grow food, and store food to feed your people.' Joseph got specific. He said to set aside 20% of each of the seven years of bounty. When famine struck, not just Egypt, but the entire Middle East, Pharaoh's people were well fed from the granaries. Egypt had saved enough grain to sell to the neighboring kingdoms. They prospered in a time of famine by Joseph's foresight and preparation. Thank you, very much."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B. 2012 CD 1. Thank you, very much. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to thank you, the Finance Chair, Finance Vice-Chair, members of the Finance Committee, and of course all my colleagues here, for once again, the opportunity to work on the capital improvements budget on behalf of the House. I'd like to thank also the Finance staff for their support, and especially Puna Chai, who was very vital in putting this together. Her patience and professionalism, is commendable, and paragon. Of course, my staff, Lois Tambalo, Eddie Hayashi, Auli'i Tenn, and John Aimo for their support.

"Mr. Speaker, although there are signs that the State economy is improving, we must remain mindful that the effects of the great recession are still felt across our State, especially through our construction industry which is still experiencing high levels of unemployment. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, it is crucial that we must further reinforce our efforts to stimulate the economy through capital investments and job creation.

"Mr. Speaker, at the end of the 2011 Session, this Legislature invested $1.4 billion in CIP projects, many of which were shovel ready in nature, and addressed the most basic, yet essential needs of our State infrastructure. Therefore, in light of this, as well as the efforts of our Governor and our Director of Budget and Finance to stabilize our debt profile, we took a very prudent approach in developing this current supplemental budget that we have before us. After carefully considering the economic conditions, as well as the priorities of the departments, we scrutinized each request, focusing on those that can be quickly addressed, can quickly address the backlog, and deficiencies that continue to fester within our State facilities. As such, in addition to the $1.4 billion appropriated last year, this supplemental budget provides $429 million more in GO and GO Reimbursable bond funded projects in FY 13.

"Overall, Mr. Speaker, this CIP biennium budget provides nearly $2 billion in GO and GOR, and more than $5 billion in all means of financing for CIP projects, statewide. Mr. Speaker, I am confident that this budget will achieve our goals of creating jobs and stimulating our economy.

"I'd like to highlight some of these budget proposals. I'd first like to emphasize that when these projects were addressed as we looked at them from the perspective of health, safety, code requirements, reducing repairing and maintenance backlogs throughout several departments while providing jobs for the unemployed and underemployed residents. These projects are shovel ready and should therefore provide immediate infusion of economic activity.

"For fiscal year 2013, we approved nearly $250 million in bond funded projects for the growing backlog of all campuses for the Department of Education, and the University of Hawaii. Over $60 million was provided to address the needs of the Hawaii Public Housing Authority, $35 million will be used to improve and maintain our community hospitals, statewide. In addition, Mr. Speaker, we provided $26 million to allow the Departments of Agriculture, and Land and Natural Resources, to continue their efforts to maintain our State irrigation systems, rivers, reservoirs, and dams.

"The need to sustain the programs for economic growth is vital for a robust and growing economy. Mr. Speaker, this CIP budget of over $5 billion will not only sustain our island state, but will help us into economic recovery. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. And may I insert additional comments."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"I would like to state for the record that there was a technical error in the description for the Palolo Chinese Home grant-in-aid in the capital budget. The correct description should have read as follows (correct material underlined; incorrect material bracketed and stricken):

"Construction [for] and renovation of the dining hall [in] and the care home building. This project qualifies as a grant, pursuant to chapter 42F, HRS."

"This statement is made in order set forth the correct legislative intent for the project."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, very briefly. Mr. Speaker, I think I'd like to address one of the criticisms from the Governor's Office regarding this budget's failure to address the Hurricane Relief Fund. As members will recall, I think that this Body was very supportive at looking at addressing those issues. But one of the great things about being a part of the Legislature is that, that's what democracy is all about. So, we go to battle with the Senate, and so whatever ends up coming out, is part of the democratic process.

"So on the flipside, although the Governor was in fact disappointed with our failure to fund the Hurricane Relief Fund, there is something positive in all of this, and that is the carryover balance. If you look at the carryover balance Members, I think that that, in and of itself speaks volumes of how strong this budget is. Because notwithstanding the fact that should anything go wrong, if there should be an act of Mother Nature, then this Body will be immediately able to address such a situation. And in fact, if we are out of Session, the Governor will have that power with the carryover balance.

"So for that, I am very proud of this budget. I want to thank the Chair. I want to thank the Vice Chair, and all of the members, including the Minority. And for you, Mr. Speaker, for leading us through these tough times. Mahalo."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. Mr. Speaker, I intend to speak quickly and briefly, and at a much faster pace than the Representative from Hilo, the current Ag Chair.

"Mr. Speaker, this budget has been a work in progress for this Session. The Chair of Health, would like to express his appreciation for the Finance Chair, the Vice Chair, the members, and the Finance Staff, because Members, as they crafted this budget, they also realized that there were people's lives being affected right during the Session. With their foresight, with their support, we were able to put in moneys earlier in the budget process to save lives for organ transplants. And with the foresight in putting this budget together, this measure today before you, will actually give resources to be able to save lives throughout the State.

"Members, there are projects here that will help the health systems throughout the islands of Lanai, the Big Island, Maui. And Mr. Speaker, there are needed programs that would want more money for resources, however, during our fiscal situation, we realized that we had to tighten our belt and do more with less. Mr. Speaker, as the Health Chair, I appreciate all the hard work, the long hours, the large donation we made to the Foodbank. But Mr. Speaker, I think this is something that we can take back to our families, with pride. Thank you."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 2012.

"First of all, I would like to thank the Chair of the Committee on Finance, his staff and the rest of the members of the Committee for their hard work and dedication on the State budget.

"I would like to point out that within the budget is a $150,000 appropriation for the Hawaii National Guard Tuition Assistance Program – a program that has gone unfunded in previous years. Taking the lead under the guidance of the Chair of the Committee on Public Safety and Military Affairs (PBM), this is a great effort because those serving our State and country in the armed forces are often nontraditional students – older, with work or family responsibilities; first generation students; or from low-income households.

"By providing the military individuals with information about financial aid options, flexible schedules and services, it will help to support them through graduation, as many who have served since 9/11 have found it difficult to adjust to civilian life.

"I believe that military members and their families deserve some sort of aid from us in gratitude for their service to our nation, and this appropriation in HB 2012 for the tuition assistance would give these individuals the opportunity to not only attend college, but also to make it more attractive thus enhancing their innate and acquired abilities, and giving them the skills to help them in the civilian workforce."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of HB 2012, Relating to the State Budget. I am truly gratified that funding for so many necessary and meaningful projects for the people of House District 32 were included in this measure. Funding to help revitalize and expand Radford High School's track will make it a premiere location to host complex and statewide sporting events. Moanalua High School will continue to get support for the next phase of its innovative Performing Arts Complex, which will serve the greater community and State in addition to nurturing the talent of the Moanalua complex. The new Aiea Library, which many legislators before me have worked so hard to secure, will receive additional support through this measure. I am very supportive of HB 2012 and the investments it makes in our community."

Representative Kawakami rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 2012 HD1 SD1 CD1. I would like to thank our Finance Chair and Vice Chair for their guidance, patience, and for their ability to be brave when courage was needed."

"Mr. Speaker, my characterization of the Finance Chair is this. Imagine the Finance Chair and two of his buddies at his side at the edge of a cliff overlooking the crystal clear, blue Pacific Ocean. He grabs his buddies by the shoulders and gently whispers to them, "Let's see who can hold their breath the longest," as he plunges into the ocean grasping his two friends. One by One, his friends come up gasping for air, while all along, our Finance Chair sits at the bottom of the sea, smiling, waiting patiently, being brave, with the lungs of a Kohola. Mr. Speaker our Finance Chair can hold his breath longer than any of us."

"As Committee meetings stretched into the early morning hours, our Finance Chair's patience, openness, and ability to go the distance was very inspiring. Our Finance Chair is surely someone who leads by example, and one who is willing to jump into the trenches with his troops. He is one that will not ask us to do things that he is not willing to do."

"To the members of the Finance staff, a big mahalo goes out to all of you. They have lungs just as big as the Finance Chair's. To Vice Chair Lee, your kindness and ability to get us to our meetings on time with incentives and not mandates are greatly appreciated. To Representative Yamashita, mahalo for your knowledge, wisdom, and for being a great friend to the people of Kauai. To my fellow colleagues, we have gone to the depths together to formulate a plan that is responsible, that provides services to those who need it most, that creates jobs, that strengthens our educational system, and does not put undue burden on our future generations."

"Mr. Speaker HB 2012 HD1 SD1 CD1 is an example of a collaborative effort that took many hands to formulate. It brings to mind the Hawaiian values of kuleana and laulima – responsibility and cooperation."

At 10:24 o'clock a.m., Representative Chong requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:27 o'clock a.m.

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"In strong support. I would like to thank Speaker Say, Chair Oshiro, Vice Chair Marilyn Lee and my colleagues on the House Finance Committee for their leadership and guidance in the budget process. As a freshman legislator, the wisdom of Speaker Say to appoint freshmen to the Finance Committee allows us to learn the legislative process faster. I am proud to be a part of legislators who worked to bring back fiscal stability to the State's budget. We started our first Session in 2011, facing a huge deficit and a barebones workforce that was not providing efficient services to the people of Hawaii."

"We made some bold legislation and cut funding to many non-profit organizations. I'm thankful that these organizations survived the year and now are getting back some of the funding they so direly need. We have done a stellar job in getting the State out of the deficit, and now we can move forward to strengthen our economy."

Representative Giugni rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Giugni written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of HB2012 HD1 SD1 CD1, Relating to the State Budget that combines the efforts of the House of Representatives, the Senate, the Administration, and countless interested parties who have greatly contributed to this measure. The budget takes a prudent approach as the economy gradually recovers from the great recession, but still faces significant segment weaknesses and outside risks. Weaknesses includes the construction sector – improving on Oahu, but down on the Neighbor Islands, and an uncertain Honolulu Rail Transit project. The major outside risk is oil which has moved to over $100 per barrel and high oil prices restrain visitor growth."

"The budget improves the health and human services safety net, strengthens primary and secondary education, invests in the State's information technology infrastructure, and includes $50,000,000 to begin addressing the Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund's (EUTF) unfunded liability. In addition, the budget boosts Capital Improvement Projects (CIP) which will add construction jobs and help the Hawaii economy. CIP projects will address many critical health, safety and code requirements, and reduce current repair and maintenance backlogs in primarily the Department of Education, University of Hawaii, Department of Agriculture, and Department of Land and Natural Resources."

"I am confident HB2012 helps Hawaii move down the road to better economic health."

FINAL READING

Representative Chong moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to the following House Bill, seconded by Representative Evans:

H.B. No. 468, HD 1, (SD 2)

At 10:31 o'clock a.m., Representative Ward requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:35 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, let me restate for all of you, we will be taking a measure out of order, which is H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2, which is listed on page 15. The reason why we are taking this out of order is that this is a non-fiscal bill. Before we enroll the budget, the Senate has to adopt the budget also. So we just want to take some of these measures that are controversial out of order for discussion, very honestly, and sincerely."

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can we get a clarification on what the motion does?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"The motion at this point in time is to move to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to H.B. No. 468, HD 1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments made by the Senate to the noted House Bill.

The Chair addressed the Clerk who announced that the record of votes for H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2, had been received which indicated that the requisite number of House Conferees appointed had agreed to the amendments made by the Senate, and had cast affirmative votes to report said measures to the Floor for final disposition.

H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 468, HD 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 4 (Keith-Agaran, Ito, Tokioka and Thielen). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with some serious reservations and really a question."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Recess if you have the question. Or would you like speak?"

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"No, I'm going to say my question now, to you, in session. Mr. Speaker, this is an ethics bill, a county ethics commission bill. I was wondering why would the Neighbor Islands want an Oahu-dominated judicial council to nominate their Ethics Commission members. It's a very Oahu-centric bill, and a little bit arrogant, I believe. When you talk about home rule and home governance, that's much better served under our present system, where a Neighbor Island mayor appoints the Ethics Commission members, and the Neighbor Island councils confirms or rejects those members. I don't think anyone could argue that the Judicial Council isn't Oahu dominated.

"So right there, we've got again this Oahu-centric thinking applying to the Neighbor Islands, and I am just questioning the wisdom of this measure. Thank you. Or I guess maybe the intent behind it, I don't think Oahu is the end all, know all, be all, in our island system. Thank you."

At 10:39 o'clock a.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:41 o'clock a.m.

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I could just have a point of information. This isn't my second time speaking. I convinced myself. I'm changing my with reservations vote to a no vote. I don't believe Oahu should be dominating this ethics for the Neighbor Islands. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. My opposition to this bill isn't about any of the intent or anything else. It has to do with the effect. I think the previous speaker just pretty much mapped out my concerns, as a Representative from the Neighbor Islands about this measure. Especially when you look at the fact that now our counties will be under the control of a Commission that is Oahu dominated with no level of review or certainty that we will be represented.

"Mr. Speaker, my own philosophy has been that we pass legislation not for the sake of passing legislation, but to address a real need, a critical need. And often in my humble opinion, it's guided by our constituents, the public. Nowhere in Maui County, not a single letter to the editor, not a single phone call to my office, not a single email has come in to me telling me about anything that is wrong with the system that Maui County presently uses, Mr. Speaker. Not a one. Nothing.

"In fact, the phone calls I did receive were shock from our County Council Members and the Mayor's Office at how this measure, which was in Conference last year, suddenly re-arose again. Where was the pressing public need? And unfortunately, what happens is, under this, it appears to them, that basically it is being inferred that our County Council and our County Mayor are somehow corrupt. That somehow, that their system is not 100% above board, and that is completely untrue, Mr. Speaker. We have good people who've been vetted very closely by the public and our Council who serve on our County Ethics Commission, and they've done a great job. They have reviewed various cases which have been very controversial, but nowhere has my office received, or I've received in talking story at the beach, at the supermarket, or anything, 'Hey, you guys got to get on this. This is a problem.'

"And I think what we're here to do is respond to the real issues of this State that people are calling and emailing our office about. That's what I'd like for us to focus on. But I cannot support this measure because there is no justification for it. And quite frankly, it appears to me that it sends the message that something is inherently wrong with the Neighbor Islands that the State has to step in with an Oahu-only Council to somehow set things straight, and that's why I can't support this bill, Mr. Speaker.

"I think this is, as a Neighbor Islander, I'm especially aggrieved, and kind of saddened, that this measure would appear. I know the mechanics contain optional language, but again, there has been no pressing or compelling need or input to my office whatsoever for Maui County. If the issue is for another county, then the measure should reflect that, as other measures which are coming before this Body today have tried to do by breaking them out by the various counties. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative McKelvey be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I am in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I understand the intent of this bill, but in my previous employment at the County of Kauai, I was a departmental personnel specialist. About four or five years ago, out of all my 36 years plus, for the first time, the Mayor initiated this ethics reporting for every single county employee on Kauai. For me it was a surprise, but these guys actually filled out a form and the Commission reviewed every single employee's record. There were some conflicts, and it was brought to their attention. So with that, I feel that this is unnecessary. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm opposed to this measure, and if I could have the remarks from the Representative from Lahaina, as my own. As with him I am aggrieved that this measure has even been brought to the Floor. I believe that not only does it impede upon the jurisdiction of the counties, which by their Charter is governed. But remember, the State Constitution provided autonomous powers to the respective counties. And within the respective counties, you have charter commissions and councils who make ordinances for their respective residents. If there's any change to come within the ethics system, it should come from the councils or the charter commissions. They are the jurisdictional body for the respective counties.

"Again, I reiterate, the Constitution provides autonomy to the respective counties. This bill impedes the responsibility that the Constitution provides. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, in support. Now, I appreciate the concerns about county home rule that have been expressed by my colleagues from Maui, from the good Representative from Kailua, and also from the Representative from Kauai. It's precisely for home rule concerns that I recommended to my fellow Conferees that we agree to the SD 2 established this year. This bill was not in Conference last year, which addresses those home rule objections. Rather than sticking with the House position which we established and would have required the counties to use the Judicial Council.

"Judicial Council is established in our statutes, and allows the Chief Justice to appoint them. It requires that the Judicial Council be fairly represented. So, if the Judicial Council were to serve in the purpose that's in this bill, then I think the Chief Justice would have to adjust the membership.

"Mr. Speaker, what is before you today, is language suggested by the Attorney General's Office, to address concerns in respect to mandating each county to adopt a charter amendment to provide the Judicial Council nominate the members. Instead, the Attorney General's Office suggested that the selection process for ethics commissioners remain at the discretion of each county, and the present draft adopts language suggested by the Department of Attorney General.

"When the bill was heard in the House, the City Ethics Commission did submit testimony, which frames the philosophical discussion we're having about this bill this morning; whether it's best to continue, the traditional political appointment and confirmation system followed by the counties, or whether it's better to follow the example of the State, which in the view of some in recent years has had a strong, independent, proactive Ethics Commission and Ethics Director.

"Don't get me wrong, Mr. Speaker, I also would prefer to have an ethics commission whose members I know well, and who need to be appointed or confirmed by me, in order to serve and advise me on my compliance with Ethics Code. And I believe that that system can work well. I think that helps with transparency if the public sees who the nominees are, what their backgrounds are and whether they will serve well. But to quote Chuck Totto, the Executive Director of the Honolulu Ethics Commission, 'No one can argue against having highly independent and impartial citizens sit in the State and county ethics agencies.'

"The question, which is what we have here before us today, is what processes are likely to ensure those qualities in agency members. The revised Charter of Honolulu, like I believe the other charters of the counties, provides that all board and commissions members, including those for the Ethics Commission, be appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council. This provides for the traditional checks and balances, in the advise and consent process.

"The original House proposal, which we heard last year, and passed, would require the counties to adopt an approach similar to the State's by which an independent body would develop a list of nominees for the ethics agency. Mr. Totto pointed out at the time that, unlike the State with its three branches, the counties have only an Executive and Legislative Branch, with both falling under the auspices of the county ethics commission. There was no obvious independent agency at the county to provide nominees in the same way that the Judicial Council does at the State level.

"Now I acknowledge that I don't have an experience with the review of nominees that the State Senate does at our level, or the county councils conduct. And perhaps as I've said, that worked very well in reassuring the public about the quality of people appointed to the county ethics commissions. This bill gives the counties the option of using Judicial Council if they wish to do so. Unlike past versions of this bill, including S.B. 755 for the 2007 Session, this bill does not require the counties to adopt an ordinance or to make a change to their charter. Instead, this bill simply enables the Judicial Council to act as the independent nominating agency if a county changes its charter to name the Judicial Council to make the nominations. Such charter amendments can only be initiated at the county level, and would have to be approved by the people of the affected county. That's home rule. If the people of the county are satisfied with their existing process with its traditional check and balance between the mayor and the council for appointment of positions, this bill does nothing to force them to change that. Mahalo."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. And I'd like to insert the words from the speakers from Maui and the Representative from Kailua as if they were my own, Mr. Speaker. I look at this bill as a total home rule issue. I think I've spent more time on the county council level than most in this Body – 10 years, Mr. Speaker. And when you come from a Neighbor Island county, just even being in part of this Body, you feel intimidated. You feel like everything is Honolulu-centric.

"So, Mr. Speaker, when I look at the merits of the bill, my position in opposition is basically that, Mr. Speaker, and I'll just talk about the Kauai situation. If you look at the nomination selection as the Chair of Judiciary said, the Mayor appoints, and the Council confirms. In that process, you have three Readings, minimum, before any selection can be approved. So at those three Readings, the public can go to the County Council Chambers and give input on a particular member.

"The way this bill is set up, Mr. Speaker, there is no process for that, as it exists in this bill right now. There is some language, at the end of page 1 that kind of confuses it. It says, 'Provided that the county charter or ordinance requires members of the commission to be appointed from the nominations made by the Judicial Council.' This language is not in anyone's charter on any island.

"So, I would say that if it's not broken, as the Representative from Lahaina said, why would we try to fix it? Because we're just putting our mana'o and telling the councils, 'You guys are not ethical. Mayor Kenoi, Mayor Carvalho, Mayor Arakawa, Mayor Carlisle, you're not ethical. We're more ethical than you.'

"I'll give you the members from Kauai, who are on the Ethics Commission. The Chair, Kurt Akamine, who I know every single member from the delegation of Kauai knows who he is. He's the President of Hawaii Long Term Care Association on Kauai, a big group that helps kupuna in our community. The Vice Chair, Mr. Speaker, is a former Navy Seal. He was the Human Resources Director for the largest plantation company on Kauai. He's retired now. The Secretary, Mr. Speaker, is an attorney and a Hawaiian rights activist. His name is Warren Perry. The next member is Kathleen Clark. She is the CEO of Hawaii Pacific Health Wilcox Hospital, the largest health care system on Kauai. Calvin Murashige, Mr. Speaker. I know many of you in this Body know who he is. He's a retired judge, Mr. Speaker. Would it be incumbent on anybody from Kauai to say that these members are not ethical enough to serve on a commission?

"And Mr. Speaker, this Judicial Selection Council, 15 members, ladies and gentlemen. 15 members. Where are they from? They're all from this island, and nothing in this bill says, that anybody on that selection committee needs to be from the Neighbor Island. As we all know, Chief Justice Recktenwald is a very admirable man, and if he thought this bill was good, he would have been introducing it. This didn't come from the Judiciary. This came from within this building, Mr. Speaker. So, I have a hard time with that process, and I don't know why I would need to tell a former judge for 30 something years, he was a judge, Mr. Speaker. Or a former Navy Seal, and others on Kauai, that you're not ethical enough. That we need people who are more ethical than you.

"And anybody from the Neighbor Islands I would suppose that you would feel the same way, because I have the list of the other members from the Neighbor Islands, but it's not my kuleana. It's not the island that I represent, so I won't go there. But I think for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this is not ripe, as attorneys would say. This is not ripe. The people who submitted testimony in support of this bill, Mr. Speaker, I've sat in committees when they've said, 'How can you pull a bill from last year, out in a Committee, in one Committee, send it over to the House in one Committee, and pass a bill like that. That's not open.' And we hear it all the time. But now that they support this bill, it's open? I don't think so.

"So, Mr. Speaker, and colleagues, I think most times when people make Floor speeches, people have already made their mind up on what they're going to do. I hope that in this case, it's not that, Mr. Speaker. Coming from a Neighbor Island, this bill is not ready, and I ask my colleagues to vote in opposition. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I will not be speaking again, against. I will yield to the eloquence of the Representative from Kauai, as to his remarks. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd just like to make a couple points here. I'm not sure why there's an effort to make this personal. It's not about anybody in particular. It's not an attack on anybody. It's a legislative change. Historically, the Constitution, the State Constitution, requires that ethics commissioners be appointed in a way that is impartial. At the moment, the way it usually happens is the mayor appoints, and in some counties there's also a council approval process.

"But there has been report, after report finding that when that happens, when that process is allowed, you have the foxes watching the hen house. And it's not that there's anybody bad in the room. But when you have a process where you pick your friends to be your ethical, legal advisors, problems can arise. This bill, I actually really think the language was brilliant. It gives the counties the option. It gives them a tool, a resource, one that the State has used and it has been successful, but it doesn't mandate anything. So they have to go through their own process to decide how they're going to address the constitutional obligation.

"I would also just like to note for the record a County of Suffolk report talking about this very issue. I would also like to refer to the bill that passed this Body in 2007. That was S.B. 755 and it mandated that the counties do a process. So, I'm having a hard time understanding if there's someone who has as concern about the counties having an option to do something when they previously, in 2007 voted to mandate that the counties do the same thing."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in support and very brief remarks. As pointed out by previous speakers, this is just a permissive process. It allows the counties to adopt this process if they want. But I'm all in favor of separating the ethics body that decides on ethical issues for the legislative and executive level, to be separated from the appointing body. Currently, that's the process that is used by the counties, and this allows the counties, if they wanted to change that process, to utilize this process.

"I'm a little puzzled because throughout this whole discussion on this H.B. 468, there has never been any opposition raised, like the ones being raised recently, and there has been no opposing testimony. So I'm in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose to respond, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, thank you. You know, I'm hearing all this discussion, and it brings the question of where does this end? Are we going to start mandating how the counties pick their Civil Service Commissions? The reason why we haven't heard anything from the counties is because they didn't know about it.

"Mr. Speaker, you know very well we had a meeting yesterday with the Big Island Mayor, who didn't even know about this measure. And once he found out about it, he was shocked. So there hasn't been openness. There hasn't been transparency in this bill. And from everyone I've spoken to from other counties, they've all said that they oppose this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Because as the speaker from Kauai alluded to, some of us do make up our mind before we come out here. Mr. Speaker, I think this is the one where we need to weigh the voices, the words, the heart of the Neighbor Islanders, and quite frankly, I'd really invite the other Neighbor Islanders who haven't spoken, to tell us, on Oahu, what they think of it. So far, it looks like the Neighbor Islands are getting Oahu's fingers poked in their eyes. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. Just very briefly. I think it's absolutely clear that we need to take steps to ensure that there's a perception in the public that we're doing things transparently, openly. And especially in small communities on the Neighbor Islands, where many of my friends serve in various capacities in county government, I think it's clear that it's an island in most cases, where everybody knows everybody. And at any point, you're going to run into someone who you know at the super market, and you'll run into them in your workplace, and be able to have that existing connection.

"So to create a further barrier between someone with whom you're friends, and someone with whom you work, and to create the public perception that there is indeed an impartial process in place, to make sure that, despite those relationships, you're going to have people who are solely invested in the purpose and intent of the job, and nothing else, ensuring ethical outcome. I think that's what this bill really enables counties to do. So, in that perspective, in support."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I'd just like to clarify that the argument concerning home rule is somewhat misplaced, because the county ethics commissions are the creature of the State Constitution. The State Constitution requires the State and the counties to form ethics commissions, and it delegates to them the responsibility to administer those commissions. The Constitution is silent with respect to the composition, the manner of composition and appointment, to those respective commissions. So, accordingly, it'd be fair game to provide the counties with an option to use the Judicial Council to nominate members. Thank you, very much."

Representative Tokioka rose to respond, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, I can't remember in six years that I got up twice to speak about an issue. But I just want to talk about the earlier comments made, about openness and transparency of a selection process.

"So these 15 members of the Judicial Council, there's nothing set up on how they select these people. So they're going to select in Kauai's case, we have 7 members. In the Big Island's case, they have 5 members. I think Maui has 7 as well. These 15 people, who are not from any of the Neighbor Islands are going to select people in a meeting room some place, with no Chapter 92 involved in it. These are good people, but still, there is no transparency. There is no open process the way this bill is written right now, Mr. Speaker. So once again, for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, in opposition."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, and H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTY ETHICS COMMISSIONS," did not pass Final Reading by a vote of 22 ayes to 27 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Awana, Cabanilla, Carroll, Chang, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Fontaine, Har, Herkes, Ichiyama, Ito, Jordan, Kawakami, M. Lee, Manahan, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morikawa, Souki, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward, Yamane and Yamashita voting no, and with Representatives Giugni and Hashem being excused.

The Chair then announced:

"Members of the House, H.B. No. 468, HD 1, SD 2, is defeated."

ORDINARY CALENDAR

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

At this time, the Chair announced:

"S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2, will be deferred to the end of the calendar. Deferred to the end of the calendar."

S.B. No. 2927, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2:

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

The Chair then stated:

"At this time, for S.B. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, we will take this out of order and we'll debate this particular issue at this point in time."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67-12 and S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is the agricultural tourism bill. I'm standing up to vote no, and I'd like to explain why. Mr. Speaker, an attorney that I highly respect, who is one of the State's best experts in land use law, sent the following information to me: 'S.B. 2341 amends section 205-4.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes to allow tourism activities, including overnight accommodations of 21 days or less for any one stay within a county, provided that this paragraph shall apply only to a county that includes at least three islands, and has adopted ordinances regulating agricultural tourism activities.'

"Clearly then,' he continues, 'this provision applies to Maui County, at least, if the County adopts the necessary ordinances. But what about the City and County of Honolulu, which in addition to Oahu, includes most of the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands including the Islands of Nihoa and Necker, and such minor offshore islands as Manana and Mokolii. Similarly, Kauai County includes the Islands of Niihau and Kaula in addition to Kauai itself. If you see page 9 of S.B. 2540, CD 1, that section recognizes that Kauai County has three islands, Kauai, Niihau, Kaula.'

"So while we're sitting here with a bill that allegedly is going to only allow ag tourism of 21 nights on Maui, the bill actually applies to Oahu and Kauai as well. If we take the action to pass this measure, Mr. Speaker, it's pretty clear that a land use attorney with this type of knowledge and experience could successfully argue in court, the Legislature put past a bill that allows counties with three islands to go ahead and have ag tourism. So what was intended by some people as a well meaning, let's help Maui agriculture, ends up hitting all of our islands. All of Oahu and Kauai. And I don't believe either of those entities had a chance to weigh in on the possibility that this bill would apply to their islands.

"When you take a look about the agricultural property, it will now be valued for the highest and best use. So, what's that going to be? Growing tomatoes, arugula, basil? Or is it going to be ag tourism of 21 days or less? It's going to be valued at the highest and best use for rental and tourism. Not for farming.

"So, what does that do, eventually to the agricultural land? The agricultural land will be priced for their vacation rental value, and not for their farming. During one of the hearings, there was testimony about a property being marketed, ag land with beautiful views. And you stop to think, well tomatoes don't need a view. What's the purpose of the beautiful view, Mr. Speaker? You know. I know. It's because they want the ag tourism, and unfortunately, under S.B. 2341, they would get ag tourism on Oahu, Kauai, as well as Maui, which was the intent. Maui was the intent of the original bill.

"The price of farmland is nearly out of reach for food farms today, and the vast majority of Hawaii's food is grown on rented land. The problem with expanding this is that we're going to really remove the agricultural land from production. Of course, they'll have their sort of token farm for the ag tourism. Come water the basil and see the goat."

Representative Johanson rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. The ag tourism is what's really going to fuel this market. It's going to bring that money in to those operators, and it's not going to help the farmers. Our youngsters graduating from school, where they've maybe had some local food information and education. Maybe they've had a school garden. Maybe they want to go into agriculture. But the land won't be available, Mr. Speaker. You and I both know that. The big bucks are in the tourism part. And when you couple ag and tourism, tourism trumps and wins.

"I would like to suggest and read to Members, an email that I received from a Diane Kanealii who says: 'I'm a lifetime resident of Moku O Keawe. I urge you to kill S.B. 2341, which will allow bed and breakfast vacation rental type of activities on ag lands. There are plenty of lands dedicated for commercial hotel purposes, and certainly enough hotel rooms, timeshares, and vacation rental properties to accommodate the tourists. But allowing these short-term vacation rentals is not good for the hotels, the workers, or those who are truly trying to produce agriculture products on their agriculture lands.

"With Hawaii importing 80 to 90% of our food supply, this bill would use more ag lands for tourist operations versus what it was truly set aside for, therefore, setting the trend to be more dependent of tourists, and less on self sufficiency for food. Ag lands were developed and designated for agricultural purposes. Please do not allow these types of operations to occur,' she writes. 'Who is really benefitting from this? The general population? The only ones I see benefitting are those who bought ag lands knowing that it was set aside for agricultural activities, but want to change it to benefit themselves.'

"In other words, the purchaser of that property that was marketed ag land, beautiful views. Mr. Speaker, this bill, unfortunately, has much broader applications than was originally intended and I think it's appropriate that we recommit it to Committee. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with some reservations, I wish you'd consider Hawaii Island. We're talking about wilderness lodges. This State is way behind the rest of the country and the rest of the world in developing wilderness lodges. I've talked to many, many, many farmers in South Kona who would welcome the opportunity to have some additional income with some green lodge, wilderness lodge. And just for the record, I have 400,000 acres of zoned agriculture in my district. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I want you to know that this measure, Members, was brought, not because it was a priority of the delegation. It wasn't because we started off this Session in saying, 'Hey, we need to do something at the State level.' It started up because a Conference Committee several years ago, with no public input or anything else, stuck a sentence into a bill that looked innocuous at the time, but basically said you could not have any overnight stay whatsoever on any land zoned agricultural, statewide.

"Then our County Council and our Mayor on Maui started looking at the issue of agricultural tourism, and also how to create a structure, working with the community that would allow legitimate farmers, the ability to have this type of activity. And also set up a review, a complaint process, as well as really being very stringent about what is bona fide ag and what isn't, Mr. Speaker.

"Then, when they went to sign this ordinance into law, it was brought to their attention, that because of this little sentence that was shoved in at a Conference Committee at the 11th hour, and 59th minute, several years ago, that they could not enact their own ordinances. Then they asked the Maui Delegation, would we introduce a measure so that Maui County could at least enact these ordinances after they reached out to everybody, to try to come up with a system that is very stringent.

"Now, one of the members of the Conference Committee of that original bill, sat across the table from us in this Conference Committee, and both she and I have been very clear from the very beginning, she is very clear on the record that she does not want to see this on Oahu. We're both very clear that we do not want non-bona fide ag to be a beneficiary.

"I took a little umbrage at the comment that everybody who does ag tourism is somehow a fake farmer, Mr. Speaker. Try telling that to Ali'i Lavender, to the family of Ali'i Chang, that they're fake farmers, Mr. Speaker. Try telling that to the Waipoli guys, to the strawberry guys, that they're fake farmers, Mr. Speaker.

"In fact, there was an article in the paper just yesterday about how this measure, if enacted by Maui County, will allow some of these family farms to survive, and hire young people and keep them on. It's the idea of promoting sustainability. Of sending them home with locally grown products, that they will reorder again. To show them that the sustainable local way of farming is the new way of agriculture that will touch upon all shores, all over the world. Because of one little sentence in a bill, what we're trying to do is to get Maui County the ability to just move forward on this measure, Mr. Speaker.

"And even with that parameter, the magic words, 'and ordinances adopted' is in there. This does not affect Oahu county, unless your Council all of a sudden, tomorrow, rushes something through the three hearings process, and gets it up to the Mayor and signs it. And given the comments of Chair Martin and others, I don't see that happening anytime soon, Mr. Speaker.

"For the Kauai Delegation, I agree. This is a gray area, because of the Senate's position of looking at delimiters. And of course, I supported the House position which was reflected in a Floor Amendment by my colleague from South Maui, and you know, that's a shame. But the whole intent of this is to ensure that a county like Maui that has stringent ordinances can do this. And even with that, Mr. Speaker, even with the 'and ordinances adopted,' past tense, we still put in language that it has to comply to 165.12, which is what the State's view of activities that constitute bona fide agriculture.

"So you've got three attempts to try to basically bifurcate this out, Mr. Speaker. And now, some have said, 'Well you've got this special permit process. You can go through that.' Well from the testimony your Committee received from the people of Hana. It's a very long process. It involves attorneys, 10, 20, 30-grand. A lot of hearings. And so what happened is, the one person who did go through that process in Hana, their neighbors saw them, and what the heck they had to go through. They decided just to do it on their own. So this attempt is to try to stop this wildcat proliferation within bona fide ag. Let's try to create a system so that we can make sure that only bona fide ag has this ability and a very limited basis, Mr. Speaker. That's all this is.

"All we're trying to do is to ameliorate a sentence that was stuck in to a Committee Report for the Conference Draft several years ago, that put us in this position. And as one of the authors in there, who sat across the table from me, which is why we noted it in the Committee Report, the bona fide ag section, none of us wants to see this, especially the Oahu Members. They don't want it coming here, and that's why the, 'and ordinance adopted,' keeps it from happening.

"Now if your Council rushes something through and fast tracks it, I will be blown away. But that's not going to happen, Mr. Speaker. While there probably was a better way to do this, I don't think this will bring the woes upon Oahu, that has been stated by some of the previous Speakers. It's only to allow Maui to"

Representative Choy rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey continued, stating:

"That's pretty much it, Mr. Speaker. So again, colleagues, however you want to go, I understand. But it's important that you know how this originated, and what we are trying to do. I especially do allude to the Representative of the North Shore, because through the entire process, I worked with him to try to make it clear that this is not our intent. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, the reality is after pine and sugar left, our lands have been growing weeds. They've been growing houses. If you want to put anything about the bill, it may not make fake farms, but it'll encourage people to be fake farmers in the sense that if they're not an ongoing entity, as the gentleman from Maui said. They may reach some semblance of that.

"My position is, Mr. Speaker, we have an obligation to the Constitution, to promote agriculture. To preserve agriculture, to be diversified with agriculture, and right now, it's only now a renaissance of agriculture is here. I'd say, before we short circuit it, and let the tail wag the dog, because it's much more lucrative to get 100 to 200 bucks a day with a view, and a breakfast, and a lunch and all the other stuff, than go out there and slave in the hot sun.

"So Mr. Speaker, I'm saying let's give farmers a chance. Let's give diversified agriculture a chance. And then if we can't do it, okay, let the tourists come in and let that happen. But right now Mr. Speaker, we've got to diversify the economy, and we're just not getting to where we can give agriculture a chance. Not this one. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. First I'd like to have the words of the speaker from Lahaina entered as my own. And I just wanted to make a few brief comments if I may. You know, ag tourism, like eco-tourism, is a specific niche market, that will attract visitors that may not necessarily come here. They don't want a hotel experience. They want to come here to understand and learn about the host culture. They want to learn about how taro farming is done. Ag tourism is an opportunity for those people to come here and have that experience, and be able to take that back to wherever they're from.

"Mr. Speaker, being a farmer in the State of Hawaii, as you know, is extremely difficult. They get up before the sun rises, and they don't go home until the sun has set for many hours. They work in the dark. They have one crop of tomatoes that gets white fly, and it wipes out their entire crop. That's it. All their income is gone. So this will help supplant farmers who struggle everyday to provide us fruits and vegetables grown locally here, and I think this is a wonderful way that we can help farmers proliferate, and hopefully survive and succeed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and I would like to say a few things. I very, very much appreciate the efforts of the Representative from Lahaina. He has very earnestly worked to make sure that the bill only affected the Island and County of Maui. I'm thankful for that.

"The concept of overnight accommodations on agriculture lands in itself is not a bad idea. I could see in lands where they're clearly farming wheat farms in Kansas, or something in Montana, or something where they could add some additional income. That's a great idea. It is a bit concerning here, and it is a worry because we are such a tourist destination.

"Now with the strong support from the delegation from Maui, I want to very much respect their positions on that. On this Island, obviously we don't want it. No way. No how. And this County does not have any strength, apparently, to regulate vacation rentals, or try to do its work on fake farms. Vacation rentals on fake farms would be the end of the North Shore agricultural district.

"So I'm very thankful again that it tries not to apply to Oahu. I am disappointed that the Senate in the Conference Committee amended it to have this ambiguity that now sweeps Kauai into the situation. So for those reasons, I would like to note my opposition. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I know I'm not from Maui, but I do care for the entire State. And although there are safeguards that are put in this bill for bona fide agriculture, I consider this a bad policy, because it's just like opening the door for misuse of agricultural lands. Maybe the safeguards are there today, but it only takes a stroke of a pen to change those safeguards and for those reasons, I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In opposition, very briefly. I appreciate, absolutely, the work that the Maui Delegation is doing, and the intent and purpose for which they're doing it. Maui County can do its thing and that's not an issue. I think I wanted to use this though rather as a moment to comment on the broader policy. Hawaii needs agriculture. We need farmers, and we need what it produces for our State, no question. I think this is a real chance to decide: Do we help farmers? Or do we help farmers?"

"I think, statewide, having visited dozens, if not hundreds, of different farms and farmers, absolutely they feel the pressure and feel the need to diversify into other means of value-added products and roadside sales, transient accommodation rentals and the like, in order to stay afloat. But I think the broader policy is, do we help them with that in the long term? Or do we actually help them become productive farmers? Do we give them the incentive to be able to operate the way they want to operate and further their farming production? To remove the speculative interest that is driving up their lease cost, and the price of land for new farmers, and permitting them from getting involved. That's the broader question that I just ask and put out there, in the long term, because at the end of the day, we are a tourist state, but we absolutely do need agriculture, and it's one of the few pillars of the economy that has a bright future here. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just want to clarify. I know there's been some discussion on whether or not it includes Oahu. It doesn't include Oahu. And as far as when I read the bill, and I read the rest of HRS, it does not. For Members' edification, if you look at Chapter 4, Chapter 4 sets our boundaries for election, taxation, education, City, county, and all other purposes. Here are the islands, and Oahu only has one. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I take a different look at something like this. I actually believe that the reason why ag hasn't thrived as much as it used to, is because we're really not honoring it, or treasuring it enough. And what a way to promote agriculture and how wonderful it is, and the opportunities that you can have with good agriculture, then they have ag tourism. Of course, it makes economic sense to those farmers who are suffering, and just trying to make it in Hawaii, so for that reason, I'm certainly in favor of it for that reason, because we haven't done enough to the farmers to give them the benefits and the breaks so that they can succeed in Hawaii."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in opposition. The bed and breakfast issue on the County of Oahu has been a very heated issue with the City Council, and it continues to be, and especially people on the North Shore side, the Windward side, and certain segments of the other coastal areas. We continue to struggle with the issue of bed and breakfast, and how do you regulate this type of activity. I'm afraid that this bill is going to lead to proliferation of more bed and breakfast. Currently the City Council still struggles with how to regulate these kinds of activities within the City and County of Honolulu.

"As far as the three islands issue, it is clearly ambiguous. Because if the bill had been written to state that three inhabited islands, it might be a different issue. But it was written ambiguously to swoop in Kauai and Oahu and the Big Island. And because of that, in the mean time, while the bill is being fixed, for the county to act, there might be other types of bed and breakfast accommodations springing up. Daily we struggle with this type of activity springing up in neighborhoods, that really don't want this type of activity to occur. So, strong opposition."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to quote from a June 9th, 2011 New York Times article, and I quote:

For all the talk about sustainable agricultural, most farms are not self-sustaining in a very basic sense. They cannot make ends meet financially without relying on income from other jobs off the farm, but increasingly farmers are eking more money out of the land in ways beyond the traditional route of planting crops and raising livestock.

Known as agritourism, such activities are becoming an important economic boost for many farmers.

The USDA census of agriculture, which is conducted every five years, has found that most farms now are only bringing in 13% of their income from the farm, which is why this whole move of agritourism has taken off.

"The article goes on to say that,

The agritourism movement is fueled by city dwellers who want to understand where their food comes from, or who feel an urge to embrace the country life.

"Mr. Speaker, there's been a lot of talk in this Body regarding who this bill should apply to, and as the Vice Chair and on behalf of the Chair of your Committee on Water, Land and Ocean Resources, we had put in language because this bill was to apply only to Maui County. In Conference, we went to three counties, because I think as a policy matter, Members, to continue to use numbers to determine which islands bills should apply to, I think we need to move away from that, quite frankly, because our population continues to grow. And if we continue to have, using, you know, population counts in statute, it creates a very dangerous precedent, now, because one law could be valid one year, and then moot the next year, because population counts continue to move.

"So, as a result, the Conference Committee put in counties of three or more, with the understanding that it applied to Maui County only. But to be sure, if there is any doubt, I think Members should look to page 6. Really, that is the dispositive factor. Meaning, that is the key here. That this shall only apply where their county has adopted ordinances regulating agricultural tourism activities. At this time, Mr. Speaker, Maui County is the only county who has done that, and that is why this applies only to Maui County at this time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I respectfully disagree with the prior speaker. The land use attorney that I've mentioned, has thirty years of experience in land use in the State of Hawaii. This bill could have been worded, on page 10 and then on the earlier page, shall only apply to a county that includes at least 3, with the added words, 'inhabited islands.' Then we wouldn't have had this problem. Your Minority Caucus could have proposed an amendment, but we always know what happens if the Minority proposes the amendment. The Majority does not accept it. But the word, 'inhabited' is missing. So it clearly can apply to the City and County of Honolulu, and certainly to Kauai.

"I again refer Members to S.B. 2540, page 9, the Islands of Kauai, Niihau, Kaula County of Kauai..."

Representative Chong rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. The speaker from Kailua is referencing another bill. She should just stick to this one."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"The County of Kauai is clearly referenced as having three islands in legislation that is before us as well. So the bill is too broad. It could have been narrowed. If Maui wants this, fine. But then it should have said inhabited islands. Now we've made it possible for people to lobby and push on Kauai to extend ag tourism there, and to extend it to the City and County of Honolulu.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd also like permission to insert certain paragraphs from the testimony from the City and County of Honolulu, in opposition to this bill, into the Journal. Thank you. And, Mr. Speaker, I do want to disclose, they're written by Laura H. Thielen, my daughter, a former agricultural liaison for the City and County of Honolulu. She wrote them when she was still in that position. Ag liaison for City and County of Honolulu, and the City and County of Honolulu is firmly in opposition of to this bill. Thank you."

Representative Thielen submitted the following excerpt of testimony from the City and County of Honolulu:

By itself, SB 2341 has the potential to transform much of the agricultural district, particularly the scenic regions, into a vacation rental district. The profit margins of agricultural uses simply cannot compete with the profit margins of tourism. Allowing tourism and vacation rentals as a primary use on agricultural lands will affect the valuation of these lands. Agricultural property will be valued for the new "highest and best use," primarily vacation rental and tourism, not the farming potential. This will increase agricultural property values, and subsequently the property taxes, of bonafide farmers and retired farmers, and increase the sale and lease prices for agricultural lands to the point where they may no longer be affordable for farmers to buy or rent.

Permitting tourism including vacation rentals as the primary use on the most productive lands in the agricultural district establishes a precedent for the State. Once that precedent is set, it is only a matter of time before proponents argue to extend it statewide, including to Oahu.

In addition, permitting primarily non-agricultural uses and impacting the valuation of agricultural lands on the neighbor islands may negatively impact the food supply for Oahu, as this island relies upon agricultural products from neighbor islands.

I recognize that the bill retains a reference to tourism on a working farm, however that reference specifically refers to farming operations as defined by HRS 165-2. HRS 165-2 is the Right to Farm Act. That section of the law purposefully defines "farming operation" very broadly in order to deter complaints about any aspect of a farm. However, the consequence of using this section of the law as the definition of "farming operation" is that provided any one of the listed activities - even if it is not a bona fide farm, will mean the tourist operation is permitted. For example, a property may have a beautiful flower and herb garden which provides fresh produce for an on-site restaurant and vacation rental, with a roadside stand selling fresh flowers and herb. This will be a permitted use under the proposed bill.

If the intent is to continue the prohibition of agricultural tourism operations in the absence of a bona fide farm, then the purpose clause of SB 2341 should be amended, and the reference to the requirement of a bona fide farm should not be struck from HRS 205-5, as is proposed in this bill.

Laura H. Thielen, Agricultural Liaison, City and County of Honolulu

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har and McKelvey be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. And may I insert the words of the Representatives from Lahaina, and Kapolei as if they were my own. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"As I look at this issue, the ag tourism statute was put in place in my second year in office. In fact, it was my bill. It was to look at options for farmers to subsidize their farms. It also requires that the county shall further regulate. I look at this from a financial perspective. Every country, every state, every municipality, subsidizes agriculture in some way. Reduced property tax, subsidies, everything like that. And our local farmers are competing against cheaper labor, cheaper land, cheaper water. So the question is, how do we subsidize them? You know, are we going to do it with our taxes? Our tax dollars? Or are we going to give them options? And that's what this bill attempts to do. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 30 ayes to 21 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Brower, Cabanilla, Giugni, Hanohano, Johanson, Kawakami, C. Lee, M. Lee, Luke, Morikawa, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Rhoads, Riviere, Saiki, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no.

At 11:40 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 2341, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1

At this time, the Chair addressed the Clerk, stating:

"We are now on page 2 of the Order of the Day. This is the Consent Calendar, 5a, Unfinished Business. Madame Clerk, are we able to proceed on?"

The Clerk responded, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. This next component consists of non-appropriation bills on the Consent Calendar."

The Chair then announced:

"Members, at this time, there will be no discussion as these items have been agreed upon by this Body for placement on the Consent Calendar."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 124-12 and H.B. No. 2664, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2664, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this bill which facilitates further exploration of a public-private partnership between Maui Memorial Medical Center and Hale Makua Health Services. We, on the Valley Isle, hope that this partnership will model a public-private system of collaborative health care delivery.

"Tough economic times have led to changes in policies or regulations, and efforts of health care providers to maintain an efficient quality of care have been strained. Due to the rapid increase in Maui's population density, the healthcare infrastructure is unable to keep up. Maui's elderly population is also on the rise as retirees are re-locating or returning home to Maui from other islands or the mainland. As a result, access to health care remains a central problem on Maui that will continue unless measures are put in place to address these concerns. As you know, Mr. Speaker, the only acute care hospitals on Maui cannot accommodate the demand for what should be acute care beds resulting in patients, shifted to long-term care bed waiting lists.

"This public-private partnership will encourage more efficient operations of hospitals and delivery of health care. Hawaii's elderly population is growing and will continue to do so as the baby boomers enter their elder years."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2664, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE COORDINATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2448, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which establishes a formula for calculating the amount to be contributed by the State towards a Medicaid recipient's attorney's fees and costs incurred in obtaining a judgment, settlement, or award, in lieu of recovering the full amount.

"Medicaid provides vital health care to many people in Hawaii. To husband the State's resources, the State's contribution to Medicaid is supposed to be a last resort, paid after other responsible parties have paid for medical treatment. Therefore the State is entitled to recover money from a third party, when that third party is financially responsible for the injuries treated by Medicaid. However, a US Supreme Court decision has complicated the process for obtaining reimbursement from these responsible third parties. Hawaii needs to have a formula for the allocation and distribution of proceeds when a lawsuit is resolved against such a responsible third party, which this measure establishes.

"Among other things, this measure: (1) Clarifies that a notice of lien sent by the Department of Human Services for reimbursement of Medicaid benefits shall be accompanied by an itemized list of payments made by the Department; (2) Caps the amount of the department's lien at one-third of the settlement, judgment, or award, after its contribution for attorney's fees and expenses; (3) Defines the term "medical institution"; and (4) Requires the Department of Human Services to provide a written notice of lien to the court when restitution is sought from a third person in a criminal proceeding.

"This bill also authorizes the Department of Human Services to develop fair and equitable reimbursement levels for nursing facility residents who are Medicaid recipients."

"This measure will provide greater clarity and certainty to the courts, the Office of the Attorney General, lawyers who pursue personal injury claims and injured Medicaid recipients."

S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 2:

Representative Chong moved that S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, the Chair addressed the Clerk, stating:

"Madame Clerk, are we able to make the time, as far as the 48 hours?"

The Clerk responded, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Floor Amendment No. 8 was passed on May 1st, 2012, at 10:18 a.m."

Representative Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On S.B. 2873, in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This Session has been, as we well know, has been marked by many, many bills to exempt or repeal or limit environmental reviews. This is one of the few that's remaining. I'm thankful that most of the others have gone by the wayside. This bill would exempt secondary actions from environmental review. I believe it's a bad idea for the simple reason that sometimes the secondary actions can cumulatively be even greater than the primary actions."

"So, while the argument is that maybe there's a driveway, or there's something insignificant along the way that doesn't have much likely impact, and therefore we should just exempt it. I stand by what I said all year, which is that somebody has to take a look at the potential impacts, and if the potential impacts are likely to have no significant effect, then they can be exempted. So for that simple reason, I'll keep it brief. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations on SB 2873. The exemptions outlined in this measure were utilized successfully by previous Administrations. In those cases, I believe the authority was exercised appropriately. I am leery of exemptions in general and I am still concerned about the impact this could potentially have on the quality of life on our community and constituents, because secondary impacts can sometimes be more detrimental than primary impacts to the environment and the community. However, because this kind of exemption has been used effectively in the past, I am willing to support this measure. I would also like to note that the Office of Environmental Quality Control testified in support of this measure, which further persuades my willingness to support this measure with reservations."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's been described that what this bill is doing, which is to exempt secondary actions by statute. The practice of approving statutory exemptions to Chapter 343 is bad policy. It's frankly bad policy, and it seems to be that the Department of Transportation is the poster child for coming to the Legislature to ask us to pass these statutory exemptions, because it's failing to do its work where it should go to the Environmental Council, and ask for an exemption."

"The Environmental Council has an exemption list, Mr. Speaker. I served on that body a number of years ago, and the exemption list was always a work in progress, moving as the different departments saw a different action that they might be taking, that would actually qualify to be on the exemption list. The Department of Transportation, frankly hasn't used that process as it should have and they instead come to what they consider a favorable Body, the Legislature, to say, 'Exempt us by statute from these different activities.'"

"Well this bill exempts them from roadway improvements; page 2, lines 6 and 7. The environmental laws are not what is holding up the building process. So, removing them will not significantly impact job creation, and it's I think, pretty clear that an alarming number of these measures have come through this Body, where people are just, Legislators are just saying, 'Fine, we want to streamline everything. Get construction moving. It's the environment that's holding everything up'. Well, it's not correct. The environment is not holding up projects."

"There's a report called the Economic Impact of Environmental Regulation, by Stephen M. Meyer, professor in political science at MIT. He answered the question, Do states with stronger environmental policies pay a price in job growth? And if so, how much? After an analysis, he noted the odds that environmentalism could be negatively associated with job losses at the state level are extremely poor, slightly more than 1 to 31. We can safely reject the notion that state environmentalism resulted in economically meaningful job losses.

"If you want to talk about job losses, Mr. Speaker, talk about Act 105, which has hit the construction industry, not for State projects, but the other residential and commercial industry, and has just really had a terrible economic impact on them. Not environmental laws, but an Act this Body passed, which just slowed down the private sector construction jobs significantly. The Act is supposed to expire in 2013, and I hope for goodness sake that this is one of those laws that we will allow it to expire, because the tax money that it's brought in has been minimal, and the economic damage it's done has been amazingly large.

"You stop and look at why would someone go ahead with a project now, with that added tax burden? Why not wait till 2013? And that's evidently what the property owners are doing. They're just delaying the projects because of the added costs we imposed upon them.

"I'll go back to the poster child, Department of Transportation. The Department of Transportation requested exemptions for 11 bridge projects, and at least 8 of those have had appropriations since at least the early to mid-2000's."

Representative Souki rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. Are we speaking on SB 2873?"

Representative Thielen: "We're speaking on the exemptions which apply to the Department of Transportation."

Representative Souki: "Yes, but there's nothing about the bridges here. SB 2873 merely is secondary impacts, secondary work on the highways. Bridges are not secondary work. So what my good friend across the aisle is speaking on is not germane to the bill."

Representative Thielen: "I'll go on with why it is germane to the bill. The Department of Transportation is the poster child for wanting us to pass S.B. 2873. It wants to be exempted, and yet, they have not followed up with projects that they have had in the works."

Representative Pine rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. They have not followed up with projects that they have had in the works. DOT hasn't submitted a draft Environmental Assessment for at least two bridge projects. They also submitted a draft EA without even bothering to follow up with a final EA for two projects."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, Representative Thielen, can you confine your remarks to the bill that is before you."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"I will talk about the bill before us. There's a statement that I want to make, that exemptions and statutory exemptions cannot change Administrative bungling, and these exemptions will not lead to job creation. We should not be establishing policy in here by doing a knee jerk reaction to DOT and say, 'We'll do your work for you.' OEQC has said they have no waiting list. They can process these applications for exemptions. DOT has not stepped forward to do the work it should have done."

Representative Souki rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, again a point of order. The speaker is speaking on exemptions. She should remain on this bill here, which has to do with secondary work on particular projects. Only on secondary work, and not on exemptions."

Speaker Say: "Correct. Representative Thielen, that's why could you please ..."

Representative Thielen: "And I'll go right to him, Mr. Speaker. And the Chair of the Transportation Committee should know, that this bill, this Senate Bill is not necessary if the DOT used the exemption process. It doesn't need to have us set policy. It doesn't need to have us set law to do what they themselves should be doing through the exemption list. There is no waitlist for them. DOT has bungled this and we're now being asked to step in and help them. It's bad policy, Mr. Speaker. I'm firmly against the measure."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and Members. Again, this bill, SB 2873, is for secondary work done on highways, and that includes work like sewage, water and etc., that is being done adjacent to the highway cables. I want Members to understand that in working even with the Senate, the Senators agreed to this language. This language basically just merely clarifies the role of what is secondary. It's not seeking an exemption. It's merely clarifying the language in the bill so that we can understand a little bit better. Obviously, some people didn't read the bill very well, and we have this major debate here. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with written comments, please. With a couple of footnotes. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the passion of the Speaker Emeritus in defending the integrity of the Department of Transportation, because this does impact them directly. And as the Chair of Transportation, he has a right to defend. However, in making this exemption permanent, he has to be able to defend, what otherwise two quotations. First from the Sierra Club that said in the House Committee under which the Chair has jurisdiction, 'There is no logical basis for DOT's inability to determine whether a traffic connection or the like would impact the environment based on the cumulative impact, or the unusual nature of the specific application.'

"Fast forward to the OEQC's website. The DOT is up there with their list of exemptions, but Mr. Speaker, they have not updated their website since November 15, 2000. So, I think it's great to defend the Department of Transportation, but it looks like somebody's homework hasn't been done, and that's why some of us are fearful of this. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, I rise in opposition to this measure. This is an action that is attempting to make permanent the secondary action law. Originally, the current secondary action law, Act 87 of 2009, had a sunset date of July 1, 2011, which was extended to July 1, 2013 by Act 45 of 2011. This was intended to be a temporary exemption.

"After consulting with my two colleagues from the North Shore and from Kailua, I have concluded that it is unwise to make such a law permanent. One of the bill's supporters is the DOT. They have testified that this bill is necessary because they believe it will prevent unnecessary delays.

"However, I note the Sierra Club's testimony, submitted to the House Committee on Transportation: 'There is no logical basis for DOT's inability to determine whether a traffic connection or the like would impact the environment based on the cumulative impact or the unusual nature of the specific application.'"

"The Sierra Club urged the Committee to 'hold this bill and not continue this odd exemption based on agency incompetence.' And we note that the DOT does not need this exemption to be permanent. Statutory environmental impact statement law already provides for exemptions.

"HRS Section 343-6(a)(2) grants the Environmental Council authority to make rules that establish procedures where specific types of actions are declared exempt from the preparation of an environmental assessment if such actions will probably have minimal or no significant effects on the environment.

"The Office of Environmental Quality Control's Exemption list for DOT is up there on OEQC's website. The exemption list hasn't been updated since November 15, 2000.

"Administrative Rules specifically allow agencies, like the DOT, to submit updates of their exemption lists to the Environmental Council for review and concurrence. See Hawaii Administrative Rule, 11-200-8 (Exempt Classes of Action).

"Rather than trying to make permanent a broad exemption, perhaps the DOT should put its efforts into updating its exemption list.

"I appreciate the opportunity to express my concerns and to voice my opposition to this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ichiyama rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support.

"I would like to clarify some of the points made about this bill, in particular the claim that we are exempting projects from the Environmental Assessment and Environmental Impact Statement process. This is untrue. Under section one of the bill, it states that an applicant must complete an EA or EIS for a project, the primary action. An applicant must follow all of the steps and procedures of Chapter 343. If and only if a secondary action, one that is ancillary to the primary action and touches an existing right of way or highway, is involved, then the applicant is not required to complete a new and separate EA or EIS for that minor secondary action.

"Furthermore, this section of the bill is current law. The Legislature, in its wisdom, enacted Act 87 in 2009 which provided that an applicant would not need to complete an EA or EIS for a secondary action in a right of way. We extended the sunset of this law last Session in Act 45 and now we are making it permanent. I would note that in the three years that this law has been on the books that none of the projects with a secondary action have "subverted" any of the environmental protections in our State or caused any actual harm.

"This bill merely makes permanent a law that helps us to clarify and remove unnecessary duplication and delay in our EA and EIS processes. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of S.B. 2873, relating to environmental impact statements.

"The purpose of this bill is to make permanent the exemptions for certain secondary actions from Environmental Impact Statements law (EIS). The Conference Draft before us states that a "secondary action" shall be exempt from HRS Chapter 343, if the action falls under an outlined criteria. These "secondary actions" are identified as an action on infrastructure within the highway or public right-of-way. Mr. Speaker, the EIS was put into place to protect our great state, and ensure the appropriate protocol is in place when it comes to building our infrastructure. Exempting particular projects from this law [EIS] would compromise the preservation of our State and promote leniency to the regulations.

"May I echo the words provided by the Sierra Club during their testimony of this measure when they stated, "This bill continues a statutory exemption from the environmental review process because of the Department of Transportation's inability to follow the law like other agencies, developers, or the public. The Department of Transportation openly acknowledges its projects are one of the largest causes of invasive species throughout Hawai'i. Accordingly, DOT should be held to a higher standard for the environment, not a lower one."

"Mr. Speaker, the statement provided by the Sierra Club could not be more accurate. Though I encourage the strengthening of our infrastructure, I am disenchanted by the easement of standards required to be met by the DOT. We must identify the DOT as a role model to other organizations, as they help lay the ground work for us to build upon. If we do not hold them to the same standards as the rest, how will be able to effectively enforce the EIS law? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Ching, Hanohano, Riviere, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 107-12 and S.B. No. 1269, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1269, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I understand the fiscal implications of the unfunded liability of the retirement system, but remember, ten years ago, the State skimmed more than $346 million from the Fund. That was when the system was thriving, and their investments were doing well. Unfortunately, with the recession, inadequate funding by the State and county governments, and poor investments made by the ERS, legislation such as this is introduced.

"Now, I would like to go back in time when I first became a public employee. Government employment was the most secure position a person could get. The pay wasn't that great. I was paid $1.80 an hour as a summer employee. Then when I got the chance to become a regular permanent employee, I made a whopping $690 per month with all the benefits of vacation, sick leave, medical, life insurance, and a great retirement. The benefits helped assure me, that I could spend quality time with my children when they had special activities or when they were sick. I knew that they would be okay with the insurance and retirement that my employment provided, so I loved my job.

"Now, these benefits are being reduced or taken away. Is the public employee to blame for the State or counties' budget woes? What makes government employment attractive today? Oh yes, if you get an administrative position you're just fine, but what about the laborers, the clerks, the park caretakers, janitors, the ones that make the very smallest of salaries? These employees need to seek other employment to survive the high cost of living in Hawaii. They work two or three jobs, which take away from other people needing employment. They don't get to spend time with their children, to help them with their homework, get involved with school activities, or see them play sports, or even volunteer to be coaches or team moms. Their health becomes an issue, which in turn adds to the high costs of medical services.

"The upside for the other employer is that they don't need to pay benefits to these government employees, just hourly wages. Unless of course, they provide better benefits to employees. Then, wait a minute. These employees may be seeking other employment for the better benefits.

"Well paid, healthy and happy public employees add to the economy. They spend money that helps small business thrive. They buy houses. They travel. They eat in restaurants. And more importantly, they donate to nonprofit organizations. We need to stop attacking public employee benefits. And let me remind you, these employees are teachers, police officers, firefighters, nurses, health inspectors, social workers and every single county and State employee who performs services that protect the public's health and safety. These are services that any private entity cannot provide because there is no profit to be made. These are services that provide the safety net to society. The benefit package, which includes a secure retirement, is an incentive to attract and retain a good work force. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you, I absolutely agree with the intent of this measure. There's no question. We cannot allow people to abuse the system and unfairly spike their retirement benefits. And we must address, absolutely, the unfunded liability in the ERS. However, this bill unfortunately, does nothing to address the current problem of spiking abuses for existing employees. And by applying to only new hires prospectively, it will place the burden of funding the gap in the ERS on the shoulders of our next generation of public employees, many of whom would be legitimately forced to work long hours and put their lives on the line without fair compensation.

"Unfortunately, a handful of abusers created this problem. About one in ten people recently retiring from public service were found to be spiking and taking advantage of the system. This is absolutely unacceptable. But we cannot, in a broad stroke, eliminate fair compensation for the thousands of employees who work long hours or in dangerous conditions to pay for the abuses of the handful of people.

"Police officers are often forced to provide Presidential security, support for events like APEC, and work long hours in unexpected situations. The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations notes that in addition to normal services, firefighters also work in conditions involving overtime, standby duty, unusual work hazards, and temporary differentials. These conditions are as much a part of the work performed as the normal work. Services performed by firefighters under dangerous conditions, often involve prolonged hazardous exposures, higher levels of danger, or increased emergency responsibilities. When firefighters perform these functions, they are giving their full service to the community at required levels. For that reason, pay for these conditions should continue to be included in calculations for retirement benefits.

"In public safety, health and education facilities around the State, we ask employees to forego time with their families to work long hours. By contract, although employees can refuse to work overtime, it is the employer who decides if a refusal to work is for good cause and whether or not the employee will be disciplined for their refusal. For many employees, working overtime is often not a choice. We absolutely must prevent abusive spiking and address the bad apples taking advantage of the system. But we must also ensure that other employees are compensated fairly when asked to work, both in their immediate overtime pay, and in retirement benefit calculations that accurately and fairly reflect the employee's work.

"Mr. Speaker, we talk a lot about fiscal responsibility, and we must address our unfunded liabilities. However, we cannot fill the gap in the future ERS liability simply by cutting earned benefits to our next generation of employees, especially when it was the Legislature that helped create the unfunded liability in the first place by siphoning hundreds of millions of dollars out of the ERS. The Hawaii Supreme Court found in 2007 that despite positive earnings, the ERS actuarial funded ratio declined primarily as a result of the past diversions of excess investment earnings, which prevented the ERS from establishing the Rainy Day Fund for the years of poor investment earnings. Therefore, it is plain, clear, manifest, and unmistakable that the hundreds of millions of dollars of reductions in employer contributions unconstitutionally impaired the pension system. In other words, Mr. Speaker, the Legislature's diversion of hundreds of millions of dollars out of the ERS, and to replenish a similar sum, we are now asking future public employees to pay for it by surrendering their legitimate benefits and compensation.

"Public employees already tend to earn less than their private sector counterparts and cutting benefits will only exacerbate the problem of attracting and retaining good employees. This bill will also create two tiers of employees working side by side, doing the exact same job. One employee asked to work overtime, whose retirement benefits will count for it, and another employee doing the exact same job, but whose retirement benefits will not reflect the extra hours of work the employee had to do. Mr. Speaker, at a time when states across the nation are cutting services and public employees find themselves the target of vicious political attacks, this bill really drives at the heart of what role we expect our public employees to play, and what value we place upon them.

"The general public in Hawaii still places incredibly high social value on our educators, police, firefighters, and so many other dedicated public servants. At the Legislature, we talk so often about what incredible things they often accomplish, and what an important role they play. Let's deal with the abusers, but let's put our money where our mouth is, and support fair compensation for employees who legitimately earn it. Let's not eliminate the hard earned benefits for our next generation of public employees, in reaction to the abuses of a handful or retirees, which this bill doesn't even address. Instead, let's spend a little more time crafting a real solution that prevents abuse, and addresses our unfunded liability without unfairly stripping away the legitimate retirement compensation of many public servants who were given no choice but to work long hours and who often put their lives on the line to protect us.

"There is a fair compromise, Mr. Speaker. I think we just need a little more time to find it. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This is a bill that affects new employees going forward, and changes the calculation of someone's retirement when they reach the age in which they retire. So I'd just like to cover, some of the remarks that have been mentioned by prior speakers.

"First, the issue of overtime and fair pay. It was funny. I was talking to a leader in a private sector union about a year ago, and we were discussing this issue and many other issues. And they were comparing private and public sector employees. He brought up an interesting point on overtime, in that overtime is paid as a benefit because you worked 40 hours in that week, because we've defined that 40 hours is a good balance between that and you being able to tend to your family and other personal matters. And that if we're going to ask you work more than 40 hours a week, we are going to give you a differential, say 1 1/2 times in some cases. Public employees, I think get double time, in very certain situations.

"And the comment was, that's where you get your benefit. What does that have to do with you getting a benefit 25 years later? You're not working overtime 25 years later. So why should that be part of the calculation? You're getting the benefit in the present day for working overtime.

"It was funny. They also went on to the issue of vacation which is for a given year. Why would you get to carry it over because it's meant for a year? But anyway, be that as it may.

"Second is, and I'm not going to pooh-pooh or question prior Legislatures for what they did or didn't do. I was not here. I was not here to address the shortfall, and make the difficult decisions that we have to do every day. If other people want to, that's fine. But actually, I don't find that very fair. It's easy. We could go into the whole issue of if the Legislature had not done that to balance the budget. What were the other options for public workers? Layoffs? And for those who are our present-day senior Members, they probably would have been junior Members 28 years ago when the Legislature did that. Would they have done well in a RIF?

"Thirdly is the issue of two tracks. We have many two track systems right now. Presently, the EUTF, if you start it before July 1st 1996, if you have 10 years of service you received a benefit. Now, I think you only get half the benefit. Why? Because the Legislature saw fringe costs going past 40%. So if a government employee $30,000, 40% or $12,000 would go to fringe costs, of which health care was the quickest growing.

"I haven't seen any bills introduced by Members to line up everybody. So for those reasons, I ask the Members to support the bill. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I would like to preface my reservations with starting off by saying that I too also believe that we need to ensure the fiscal solvency of the Employees' Retirement System. And unequivocally, I'd like to say that we should not countenance overt abuse and abuse that is willful and intentional, because that is robbing the taxpayer of what they're giving to the government.

"My concerns though, are predicated on two main issues. The first issue is that while the employee, and the Majority Leader just addressed this, while the employee is compensated for their overtime and some of the things that would be excluded under this bill, when it comes to calculating their retirement benefits, they will not actually be compensated for their actual work, worked. I think therein lies the slight nuance, which is how we presently do it. I realize that that engenders some problems, but I think in attempting to preempt bad actors who are guilty of spiking, which we do need to find some measure to do, we're also potentially adversely impacting the retirement of those honest workers who are obligated sometimes under certain conditions because they are emergency personnel, or because there isn't someone else, to work those hours and to do that work. And I worry that therein lies some complications.

"Secondly, and this point has not been brought up, and I did want to bring this up as part of the debate. I do believe it's fully within management's abilities and prerogatives, if they so chose, to try to successfully settle this problem themselves. They control scheduling as part of their prerogatives with management, and in so doing, I think you can start to watch for when people might be approaching retirement and when all of a sudden they go from never seeking to work overtime, to always asking for overtime. I think the onus here is also somewhat on the Executive Branch.

"I do appreciate the intent of the Legislative Branch to try to address this problem, which is why I will be voting with reservations, but I don't think that, in terms of achieving a workable solution and actually reducing spiking in the present, that we may end up achieving it with this particular measure. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. The bill states that it's for a member who becomes a member after June 30, 2012. I think that we as a Legislature have that authority to decide certain employment terms. This employment issue of are we going to add overtime or not to retirement, as part of what the package will be. If this bill passes, anybody who comes to State government will have to look at the entire employment package. They'll have to consider how many State paid holidays there are. They're going to have to consider what vacation leave is. They're going to have to consider what their medical benefits are. They're going to have to look at how many years before they're vested. They're going to have to weigh what the pay is.

"I would argue if we had time to debate it, that in fact a lot of State employees make more money than the private sector, with this recession that's happened. We've heard from all these private sector employees, all their benefits have been cut back. Their pay has been reduced. To say that public employees make less money than private sector, I would really love to debate that, because that's not what I've heard.

"So I think what we're saying is, in the future if you come and you want to be an employee, these are the conditions, and put it out in the marketplace. It's democracy. It's the right for people to choose who they want to work for. I think if you look at overall what we offer employees and their opportunities for training and advancement, lots of wonderful opportunities to move around in State government, to have a fabulous career. I had one, for thirteen years. I loved working in the state government. And I love working in the Legislature. But it's a choice. And I think this is very reasonable, and I strongly support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and Members, in reviewing this bill, there is one particular section that I'm not in favor of, so therefore, I was going to be voting in favor, but I'm going to have to vote no. The reason is for the fact that you are taking away flexibility from supervisors and management in working with the employees. There are times when you need to provide differentials, bonuses, to provide merit raises and increases. Hazard pay to wastewater people. Working in the wastewater, that's quite hazardous there. Police hazard pay. Firefighters hazard pay. It is dependent upon the extent of the hazard, and they should have some consideration in there.

"Basically I'm opposed to the spiking. But this bill does not address the spiking. It addresses what you can get and what you cannot get. And I think it's too broad, I would like this bill to go back and to work on it again. I think we made some oversights in this bill, and we should not take away flexibility from management when they work with the employees. And in fact what you're doing is you're making it standardized all the way. You can't do that. And for that I must vote against this measure.

"Hopefully if we're not going to work on it next year, next year we have to relook at this issue again, and rectify what I think are some of the problems with this measure. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ichiyama rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. SB 1269 would eliminate overtime, supplementary payments, bonuses, lump sum salary supplements, allowances or differentials from being included in pension calculations for any employee hired after June 30, 2012. I understand the importance of addressing the State's unfunded pension liability and the problem that overtime abuse creates for our ERS system. However, I have serious concerns about how this bill may affect potential recruiting of future State and City employees. Our retirement benefits package is one of the few incentives we have to attract quality employees. By decreasing these benefits, we will be making it even harder to fill vacancies and meet the needs of our residents.

"I know we are all aware of the seriousness of the unfunded actuarial accrued liability in our ERS system and the need for corrective measures, which is why I am voting with reservations. At the same time, I believe this bill goes too far in redefining compensation and it would have been more prudent to consider the method proposed by the ERS Board to address the issue of pension spiking. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker, and I just would like to make a comment that as I understand it, the State's liability to retired State employees is about $3 billion a year. $3 billion a year, Mr. Speaker, is a lot of money. And I understand our budget this year is $11 billion, and $3 billion of that is going to go just to pay retired public employees. And I could say that out loud, Mr. Speaker, because this bill doesn't affect the employees that are coming until June 2012.

"As previous speakers have said, people have a choice where they work. So therefore, that should be in the package, and that should be a decision that they make. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Briefly in opposition. We talk about the issue of spiking. A lot of times, employees have no choice to do overtime. Management has to agree for an employee to work overtime, and so this bill does not address the issue of management control and why are the management and agencies allowing overtime abuse if there is spiking.

"The other thing that I wanted to point out is, especially when you deal with police, fire, public safety officers, a lot of times they are forced to do overtime. We have situations in the prison system where they would have to do double shifts, or in addition to the 8 hours they have to do a lot of shifts. So from a management standpoint, we can pretty much say, that we don't want to hire people, and then have this one individual do two shifts. So in that sense we're kind of saving money at the expense of the employees. It's kind of an unfair system that we're creating. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some reservations. They were summed up by the good Representatives from Nuuanu and from Wailuku, and of course I kind of sat back and reflected a little bit. It's too bad that in the past, previous Administrations have blown so much money on student auction rate securities, or we probably wouldn't have to face this.

"But be that as it may, Mr. Speaker, there were a lot of options that this Body tried to push to reign this in, that unfortunately were left on the table this Session. And because of that, we are facing a situation that I think was summed up very well by my Vice Chair, which is, if we don't get a handle on this ERS thing in some form, the system going go broke. Nobody will get any pensions.

"And I think what this measure tries to do, is although it does have warts on it as I'll admit. What it tries to do is to preserve the benefits of our current retirees by looking forward as a way to try to make up the short gap. And that's why I do support it with reservations, because at the end of the day, it's trying to take an approach, unlike other states. States that aren't red in nature are doing that, which is looking at reigning in current benefits to current retirees.

"So again Mr. Speaker, I agree with the comments that were raised by the other speakers, but given the cards that we've been dealt so far, and given this $3 billion and growing unfunded liability, I think this is a measure that we do need to look at further. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. And a correction to the record, Mr. Speaker. There was no money lost by the auction rate securities. Full stop."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1269, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEFINITION OF COMPENSATION FOR PURPOSES OF THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Brower, Cullen, Hanohano, Kawakami, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, Morikawa, Nakashima, Souki, Takai, Takumi and Yamane voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 108-12 and S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations to raise a cautionary note regarding SB 2214, a bill that gives away the employers' responsibility to determine how much the State and counties should pay for employee health benefits. SB 2214 gives the purse strings to faceless, unelected arbitrators. Because of the institution of "most favored-nation" provision in collective bargaining contracts, some decisions should be under the purview of management rights.

"Under current law the State and counties as employers and the union negotiate through collective bargaining, the share that the employers should pay and the share employees should pay into the Employees Union Trust Fund (EUTF) – the fund that pays for the health benefits of our 70,000 retired and active government workers. The Legislature, knowing the fiscal condition of the State, can then fund the contract or not. The Legislature maintains control of the costs and can ensure that the $11 billion unfunded liability does not increase.

"When negotiators cannot agree SB 2214 provides a mechanism to determine the premium ratio. This measure may also prevent the employer from unilaterally increasing or decreasing its share as done by the Governor in 2011 when he announced he would increase the employer's share to 60%. It is always preferable that these important decisions be negotiated through collective bargaining.

"Under SB 2214, when there is an impasse, the negotiators then revert to arbitration. But there is a downside to arbitration and this bill. SB 2214 gives away the purse strings to faceless, unelected arbitrators. Handing over decision-making could create a more beneficial ratio for one unit. In the face of "most favored-nation" clauses in CB agreements, it would be more fiscally-responsible for the employers to set a uniform ratio in order to safeguard the integrity of the trust fund.

"That may be why the Director of Budget and Finance testified against the bill, the City and County of Honolulu opposed the bill, and the Attorney General's office also raised serious concerns about this measure.

"As elected officials we have a duty to do what is right and responsible for our citizens and for State agencies and county workers, not to mention our retirees."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 2214, a bill that eliminates one of the changes the Legislature has to control how much the State pays for employee health benefits.

"This bill deletes the Legislature's ability to determine how much the State should pay for the employer's share of EUTF contributions and turns the decision over to an arbitration panel. This means the Legislature will be faced with simply deciding whether to fund or not fund the arbitrator's decision.

"The Legislature knows the fiscal condition of our State. That is why the current law gives us the responsibility to determine the EUTF contribution when negotiations break down. We should not shirk from this responsibility.

"Mr. Speaker, I am worried about the financial viability of our health care system—a system that is already $11 billion in debt. SB 2214 will only make us more vulnerable to increased unfunded liabilities in the health fund. This is not good for the employees of our state government and for the taxpayers of Hawaii.

"That is why I am voting with reservations on this bill and I urge my colleagues in the House to do likewise."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 109-12 and S.B. No. 2576, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2576, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. Mr. Speaker. Today the House of Representatives will have the opportunity to pass Senate Bill 2576, and become the 6th state in the nation to have such progressive legislation on human trafficking.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to provide my Floor speech. Everything I say will be germane to this bill, but I think I'm going to change up the format. I'm going to kind of answer some of the concerns that were brought up to our attention by some of the Members, even the concerns by the Attorney General and the prosecutors, because they had the final word. They helped us to craft the language on this measure. I think if I do it that way, I only have to speak once, and that's it. There was some opposition the last time we heard this on the Floor.

"The first concern was Rule 40. Do we really need this mechanism if we already have Rule 40? Rule 40 is contained in the Hawaii Rules of the Penal Procedure. It's a catch-all mechanism, in case you're looking for post conviction relief. Many times we'll see this with ineffective counsel, lack of jurisdiction by the State on a subject matter or the person, or even a constitutional concern, a violation of the Constitution. Rule 40 is not crafted narrow enough for our victims of human trafficking, and that's why we have to move this measure, Mr. Speaker. So the first point, Rule 40, is not enough."

At 12:20 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:26 o'clock p.m., with Vice Speaker Manahan presiding.

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I left off on Rule 40, and I explained why there was a need to pass this legislation, narrowly crafted for human trafficking victims.

"Mr. Speaker, I wanted to explain some of the concerns about the possible misuse or abuse of this proposed statute. We've heard questions from some of the Members that indicated that perhaps the pimps would be using this as a mechanism to vacate their conviction. I appreciate the concerns, and I'm here to say, no. Absolutely not. Clearly the language in the bill will not allow the pimps to use this mechanism to vacate a judgment or a conviction against them. This section does not apply to the following. Again, promoting prostitution, this is for the pimps, or a person who pays for sexual conduct. They will not be able to vacate their conviction.

"Mr. Speaker, the key for this bill, the key for this bill was that the prosecutors and the Attorney General's office provided the language, which would allow the prosecutors or the AGs, whichever body prosecuted that case in the first place, to review the motion and approve the motion. Again, this is pretty big, and it's probably going to be rare that we see this, maybe 1 out of 100 cases. But you're having the moving body, the prosecutor or the Attorney General's Office, that followed through with that conviction, to come back, to reconsider, to approve that motion, and then submit it to the judge.

"That's the game changer. That's why the prosecutors and the Attorney General's Office support this measure. In fact, Deputy Attorney General Lance Goto was the person that recommended this language, and the prosecutors were completely on board. This was again, the game changer for this bill. Prior to that, both the prosecutors and the Attorney General's Office had some concerns about this bill. After that they were fine.

"Mr. Speaker, some of our Members have asked, what is the definition? Who is a victim of human trafficking? And it's clearly stated, Mr. Speaker. We're following the guidance from the United States Code, and I'll quickly go over it. This is a person who is involved in commercial sex. They've been induced by either fraud, coercion, forced into this. It even applies to people who have not attained the age of 18, that were involved in such acts. It's pretty black and white. We're not leaving this for incorrect review or for protecting pimps or people that pay for it. It's very clear who we're protecting here, Mr. Speaker.

"Next, Mr. Speaker, this is quite historic. I've mentioned that Hawaii would become the 6th state. We've had New York that passed it first, along with Illinois, Maryland, Nevada in 2011, Vermont 2012. We pass this, we'll be the 6th state.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I would be remiss if I did not thank the drafters of this measure, the people that actually helped to craft this. And I wanted to start off by thanking the Deputy Attorney General's office, Lance Goto and Joshua Wisch. They helped us with the language. Jon Karamatsu from the Prosecutor's Office, Kathy Xian from Pacific Alliance to Stop Slavery, James Dold - Polaris Project, Kris Coffield - IMUAlliance, the Senate Judiciary Chair and his Committee Clerk, my Committee Clerk, Dr. Bouffard, as well as Brandon Masuoka."

Representative Tsuji rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm just about done. I believe I've pointed out to all the concerns that our Members had. I'm hoping to avert any 'no' or 'with reservation' votes. I'm hoping that I explained it quite well enough. Again, the rationale, the last thing I'm going to say about this. This is to help shattered lives. If we can take that conviction off, the people that are applying for jobs, applying for loans, trying to continue their education, they'll have a second shot at life. Their lives have been shattered because of this most horrific experience. This is what we want to do. This is how we care about our people. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I ask all Members to vote up on this measure. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with written comments. I'd like to remind the previous speaker that this was a Women's Caucus measure."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB2576, SD1 HD3 CD1, which authorizes a person convicted of committing the offense of prostitution to file a motion to vacate the conviction under certain circumstances. Many women engage in acts of prostitution due to their vulnerability as a result of their youth, family situation and/or substance abuse. Those individuals who were forced into engaging in prostitution should be encouraged to leave the profession, and their ability to clear their record would help them further their educational and employment goals, as well as wipe their record clean. We need to allow these women the ability to move forward with a new beginning. For this reason, I urge the Members' support."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Mizuno be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Likewise. I think the Chair did a great job in kicking this bill out of Conference. My only concern is that basically gives the Prosecuting Attorney's Office or the Attorney General's Office, the prosecuting authority, to become the gate keeper on whether or not a review ever takes place before a tribunal. But other than that, I think this is a good measure, and I thank him and the other drafters of this measure for getting this out this Session. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Just reservations. I'm glad to see that the prosecutors have had their input, to make this better. We certainly don't want to have people have their lives ruined forever. Everyone should be allowed to, be encouraged to rehabilitate. But I just still have a few reservations on this. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2576, SD 1, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROSTITUTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 12:35 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 2873, SD 1, HD 3, CD 2
S.B. No. 1269, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 2214, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2515, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRIME," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Hashem and Ichiyama voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 148-12 and H.B. No. 2302, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2302, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, because of the high cost of housing in Hawaii, thousands of families are currently on the waiting list for public housing including thousands more who are living on the beach, and in emergency and transitional shelters. This measure attempts to expedite necessary improvements and repairs to existing public housing which will help many families in need of shelter. For this reason, I rise in support."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure because of its many benefits for the people of our State.

"Mr. Speaker, there is an extensive waiting list for use of public housing. By allowing the HPHA this temporary – I emphasize temporary – exemption from State and county civil service procurement this bill will expedite and make more efficient the system to prepare units for those who need them.

"But the people who will get to use these homes aren't the only beneficiaries. It's going to take manpower to build and repair these units. That equates to more jobs, Mr. Speaker, another benefit of this bill.

"This bill will allow temporary staff augmentation should government workers not be available or lack the expertise to do the work. If government employees are unable, the unions can do it Mr. Speaker. I see nothing wrong with that Mr. Speaker. They are God's people too."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2302, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Belatti, C. Lee, Luke, Morikawa, Rhoads, Saiki, Takumi and Wooley voting no.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 160-12 and S.B. No. 2536, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2536, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This measure creates a task force to look at the many challenges and concerns surrounding clean and sober homes and halfway houses. Although I strongly support initiatives that provides support to individuals needing guidance and help at a vulnerable time in their life, in my research, I have found that monitoring of these facilities is limited. In addition, residents in the community have expressed concern regarding these types of operations. However, my support for this measure to establish a task force is not only for the existing community, but also for those receiving programming services in these clean and sober and halfway houses. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2536, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CLEAN AND SOBER HOMES AND HALFWAY HOUSES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 165-12 and S.B. No. 2776, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2776, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I rise in opposition to this measure. I guess I've been opposed to this bill since its inception. Although the Governor's Justice Reinvestment Act contains some good features, I think this is primarily a cost-saving measure for this Administration, and not true prison reform.

"Let me just mention the parts that I like. First and long overdue, attention will be paid to increased restitution paid to victims of crimes. Secondly, we'll be bringing back prisoners from the mainland, and I suppose their families will be grateful for that. Third, released prisoners will be offered more programs to help them reintegrate back into society. Fourth, it is true that releasing prisoners is a cost saving measure, since housing them now costs $190 million. Any savings would be appreciated. And considering that we spend only $8,000 per public school student, we can prioritize the savings into our educational system.

"However, there are features in this bill that may be detrimental and even dangerous to public safety. This bill is based on recommendations of the Justice Reinvestment Working Group, working together with the Council of State Governments Justice Center. It aims to, and I quote, 'To improve the criminal justice system, relying on the department of public safety, Hawaii paroling authority, and adult probation services to effectively implement changes to policies and practices,' end quote.

"It will do this by reducing, and here I'm going to quote Part 1 of the bill, 'the current incarcerated population and generate savings of approximately five hundred beds and $9,000,000 by the end of fiscal year 2013, eight hundred fifty beds and $19,000,000 in fiscal year 2014, and one thousand fifty beds and $26,000,000 in fiscal year 2015,' end quote. That means, in the first year of the program, 500 prisoners will be released. Year 2, 350 more prisoners; and 200 more in year 3. In my humble and uneducated estimation, this is kapakahi. I think we should start out small, and enlarge the program gradually. Why start the first year with 500 releases?

"I also question whether we will have the necessary programs and personnel in place for year 1. Will drug and alcohol treatment, counseling, vocational training or halfway houses, be ready? Will there be jobs for these people. The plan outlines releasing 1050 prisoners in the first 3 years of the program, and it will sunset in 2018. 6 years. 2018, I figure, is when this Administration may hope to exit the scene. So that's why I wonder whether this is prison reform, or a cost saving device for this Administration.

"The program, as described in earlier versions of this bill, called for the release of Class A felons, 18 months before the end of their terms. Class B and C would not be released as soon or as early. Why is this? I'm sure there must be a rational explanation. I would release Class C felons sooner than Class A felons. This would appear to increase the danger to public safety.

"Even with programs supporting released prisoners, the recidivism rate approaches 50%. I share Prosecutor Keith Kaneshiro's skepticism. We should go slow when releasing prisoners to increase public safety and have people and programs in place to better their chances of success. This is important for the sake of the released prisoners, their families, and the community. We should reexamine the features of this release program, and design a better, long-term program. And consider all these things, as well as public safety. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Aquino rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I feel compelled to share a little bit about this bill. In support. The heart and purpose of the Justice Reinvestment Initiative is to manage criminal justice populations more efficiently and cost effectively, which in turn generates savings that can be reinvested in evidence-based strategies that increase public safety while holding offenders accountable.

"The JRI working group met with the Council of State Governments Justice Center to analyze our current system, which created some of the policy recommendations in this particular bill. It is important to note that the CSG Justice Center has worked with at least a dozen other states to achieve needed changes in their respective justice systems. Should this measure pass, the State of Hawaii would continue to receive technical assistance to further plan and implement these policies.

"It is apparent, Mr. Speaker, that the way the justice system is right now is inefficient, and is not working the way it should. The current recidivism rate of 50% is unacceptable, along with the various areas that this bill seeks to address. These shortcomings have increased correctional spending unnecessarily at times, where we could be smarter with tax dollars, without compromising public safety. This bill is forward thinking, and has the opportunity to address long overdue problems.

"Mr. Speaker, I would just like to address some of the concerns that have been brought up. First, the pretrial risk assessment process. The addition of the 3-day requirement for the Department of Public Safety to conduct a pretrial risk assessment does not mean offenders will be released in that time. What that tries to do is to ensure that the assessment is done in a timely manner. There are times where the Department takes weeks, sometimes over a month, to complete these assessments, which results in delays and bottlenecks in the front-end of the justice system. Ultimately, it is still up to the judges, it is still up to the courts, who decide whether an offender is released on bail bond, pretrial supervision, or on their own recognizance. Contrary to what the bail bond companies and others are saying, this bill does not, does not force or take away the courts' authority in this process.

"Another point that I wanted to make a strong point on, Mr. Speaker, is the minimum sentence for low risk offenders. Mr. Speaker, some individuals have called this bill an early release bill. To some degree it is. Early release is called parole. This is not something new, Mr. Speaker. In fact, it has been around for some time now. In Section 8 of the measure, it focuses on the need and use of a validated risk assessment, which in turn assists the paroling authority in deciding release and programming needs and the likelihood of reoffending. We put in a check and balance language, in the bill, to permit the Paroling Authority to look into an offender's background, criminal history, even though they may be classified as low-risk.

"In addition, the bill has eligibility requirements to ensure that true, low-risk rehabilitated offenders are considered for release. I'd also like to point out that this bill does not shorten any, does not shorten any current offenders' sentences, and that this section is prospective, Mr. Speaker, meaning inmates would not be affected by this policy change until July, 2015. And for the comments about 1100 inmates to be released in 3 years, Mr. Speaker, take this as food for thought. According to the Hawaii Paroling Authority, from fiscal year 2008 to 2010, in those 3 years, Mr. Speaker, which I believe is a chunk of that time was during the previous Administration, over 2000, 2000 inmates were paroled in those 3 years. So if this is the case, the Department of Public Safety will be releasing less than what has been in the past. And, I believe Mr. Speaker, in addition the max-out language that was brought up by the previous speakers is no longer in the bill.

"So with that, Mr. Speaker, along with some of the victim restitution reform measures in this bill, which I really support ..."

Representative Cullen rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino continued, stating:

"Thank you. It's a great win for victims, Mr. Speaker. This bill raises the rate 150% and ensures that victims receive some compensation for their ordeal and hurts. This measure along with another measure, House Bill 2226, shows the Legislature's commitment to victims now and in the future.

"So Mr. Speaker, we also put in a sunset date of 6 years. This gives the justice system and all parties involved, including the Administration and the Judiciary, enough time to further plan and implement these policies and make necessary changes if needed. So this would help currently with the recidivism rate hovering around 50%. The 6 year sunset provides adequate time to reduce that rate to account for a better justice system, and for safer communities.

"Mr. Speaker, at this time I would also like to acknowledge certain people who have worked very hard on this piece of legislation, potentially landmark legislation, Mr. Speaker. I would like to thank the Administration and their staff, especially our former Majority Leader, Blake Oshiro, who worked very hard and helped in every which way possible. Also Mr. Speaker, I'd like to acknowledge the justice reinvestment working group, my Senate counterpart, the Chair of the Senate Committee on Public Safety and Military Affairs. Also Mr.

Speaker, I'd like to thank and acknowledge the House Chairs on Judiciary and Finance for their hard work and support. Also our House Vice Chair on Public Safety and Military Affairs, the House Finance Committee for all of their assistance, the Department of Public Safety, as well as the CSG Justice Center, Marshall Clement and Andy Barbee.

"So Mr. Speaker, today I would like to encourage my colleagues to support this legislation, which again would better our justice system, which equates to a safer community at large. Thank you, very much."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, I was going to go in support with serious reservations, however after that speech by the Public Safety Chair, I think my concerns have been satisfied, so I'd like to go in strong support and have his comments adopted as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just would like to remind the Members that the cost of one day of an inmate in jail is $169. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support and just one comment. This is both reform and cost saving. And what's wrong with cost saving? Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support and ask that the Journal reflect the words of the Chair of Public Safety as my very own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with slight reservations. I first want to thank the Chair of Public Safety for the CD 1 that came out of the Committee. I think that it was very thoughtful and I think that he eloquently stated why this final version of the bill is something that we should all be proud of. But I do think that I remain consistent in my position, and I will do so now with respect to one of the later provisions in the bill, and for that part, I would like to add written comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight reservations on Senate Bill 2776 SD2 HD2 CD1, the Administration's justice reinvestment bill. My reservations lie with the victims' restitution fund not being enough to compensate the victims and their families. The bill in its final form pays victims twenty-five percent of the total moneys earned on new deposits and credits to the inmate's account while incarcerated. Though this bill does increase victim restitution collection from ten percent to twenty-five percent, it is still not adequate payment to victims. Accordingly, I support this measure with reservations."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, and I would like the words from the Representative of Waipahu inserted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with very strong support, however a few caveats. As for the Chairman, I'm going to say he did a wonderful job, he and the Committee. And so did the Committees on Judiciary and Finance. My concern is that we have not built a new prison for many years. There is an old dilapidated prison on Maui that's been waiting for many, many years.

There are three to a small little cell. There are not enough rehabilitation programs preparing the prisoners for when they get out.

"I think until we can develop a more comprehensive system, we will continue to have a high recidivism rate. Because letting the prisoners out is good and I'm all for it. I've been a proponent of that for many years. But I'm disappointed that we have not taken to task ourselves in building a new prison, including more rehabilitation and counselors before the prisoners go out. Right now we have recidivism that's up to 55% to 60%. That's too high a margin. And unless you correct the problem, this is just going to continue. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2776, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Ching, Giugni, Hashem, Ichiyama, Marumoto, Morikawa, Pine, Takai and Ward voting no.

At 12:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 2515, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 2251, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 2302, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2536, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 2776, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1

At 12:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:58 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair recognized the Clerk who announced:

"I have been informed by a representative of the President of the Senate that the Conference Committee Report for H.B. No. 2012, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, was adopted, and that said House Bill, Relating to the State Budget, passed Final Reading in the Senate at 12:18 p.m. on this day.

"In addition, I have been informed by the Assistant Chief Clerk of the House that at 12:24 p.m. on this day, House Bill No. 2012, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, has been duly transmitted by the Legislature to the Governor, pursuant to Article VII, Section 9 of the Hawaii State Constitution."

At this time, the Chair stated:

At 1:00 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2740, SD 1

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, again there will be no discussion as these are items agreed to by this Body for placement on Consent Calendar."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 70-12 and S.B. No. 155, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 155, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ATHLETIC TRAINERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 117-12 and H.B. No. 2248, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2248, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR HAWAII PACIFIC UNIVERSITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 118-12 and H.B. No. 2626, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2626, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support HB 2626 HD2 SD2 CD1 which promotes safe conditions for children to walk or bicycle to school by permanently establishing the Safe Routes to School program within the Department of Transportation, and establishing and appropriating funds for a Safe Routes to School Program special fund.

"While encouraging our citizens to choose walking and bicycling over driving for their modes of transportation has the potential to save our environment and slow the obesity growth plaguing our children, this bill is also timely given the Department of Education (DOE)'s challenges with its over-priced school bus contracts. On the Neighbor Islands, the DOE has threatened to end school bus services completely, including my Central Maui community which has two public high schools with enrollments both close to two thousand students each, two of the largest Middle Schools in the State, and five elementary schools (with a sixth under construction).

"We need to be mindful that children between the ages of five and eighteen have the highest rates of pedestrian injuries requiring hospital treatment or death. In the half-century that has developed Central Maui as the heart of our island's population, the neighborhoods have been built under different subdivision infrastructure standards. There are older areas without any sidewalks or bike paths for the safe passage of children walking or riding to school.

"Hawaii had the fifth highest pedestrian fatality rate from traffic crashes in the United States between the years of 2001 and 2005 and that rate has not significantly improved. Therefore, it is imperative that we, as a community, be pro-active in preventing speeding and other traffic violations in designated routes to schools. Making this program permanent should make it clear to DOT that safe routes concerns should be a priority in planning and allocation of available resources."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure will help to provide the necessary funding for those travelling to and from schools. The Obama Administration has launched a campaign to address childhood obesity. The safe routes to school program will address obesity in our State by addressing hazardous conditions which deter students from commuting in a safe and timely manner by creating venues where commuters can walk or bike safely. For these reasons I rise in strong support."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I am in strong support of HB 2626, Relating to Safe Routes to School. In a day and age where we have become ever so reliant on the automobile and the daunting task of trying to juggle so many of life's responsibilities, oftentimes our focus on the road has turned to distraction which sadly has led to fatalities and injuries on our roadways. This measure will help to incentivize safe, responsible driving and will also create a much needed funding mechanism to make our roadways and streets friendlier for bikers and pedestrians alike.

"As we continue to encourage alternative modes of transportation such as walking and biking, it is also imperative that we provide the necessary infrastructure and education to promote this healthy mode of transportation. I believe Mr. Speaker, that if we can get our youth to walk and bike more, and to be more active not only will it benefit their health, but it will strengthen our communities. You see Mr. Speaker, when we walk the streets of our towns and neighborhoods we capture the essence and the pulse of our community. We get to see and interact with our neighbors. We get to appreciate the details of our neighborhood that often get overlooked when we just drive by in our cars.

"Mr. Speaker, I truly believe that this measure does so much more than what is in the language of this bill. It strengthens our relationships with one another and it lets us appreciate the communities that we live in. Mr. Speaker, because of this I stand in strong support. Mahalo."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 132-12 and H.B. No. 1800, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1800, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of HB 1800 which provides supplemental appropriations for the Judicial Branch of State government.

"The Judiciary's request focused on maintaining its existing infrastructure while providing some limited resources to ensure the safety and security of juveniles held at the Hale Hoomalu Juvenile Detention Facility at Kapolei. The Judiciary has done its share in meeting the State budget challenges by taking similar steps as the Executive and Legislative branches, including pay cuts and furloughs. Considering that the Judiciary has no direct control over the volume of its workload – dependent on criminal and civil filings by third parties – the Judiciary has asserted that budget issues have no doubt resulted in justice being delayed in some cases and hearings taking longer to be heard and resolved.

"For example, the Judiciary indicates from FY 2009 and FY 2011, the median age for adjudicating Family Court felony cases increased by 32%. Additionally, the number of pending civil cases at the end of the fiscal year increased by 122% in the district courts and 32% in the circuit courts from FY 2008 through FY 2011. The median age of pending circuit court civil cases increased by more than 32% between FY 2009 and FY 2011. This supplemental budget tries to address certain critical issues.

"This bill authorizes moneys for a district family court judge and three support positions, due to the significant increase in family court caseloads, to facilitate the efficient delivery of judicial services to the public.

"In conjunction with other Justice Reinvestment Initiative measures, this bill also provides two probationary service positions.

"The bill also funds the expansion of court interpreter services so as to facilitate access to justice for those who have limited English proficiency.

"This measure authorizes four new juvenile detention worker positions at the Kapolei detention facility to ensure the safety and security of juveniles during all three facility operating shifts daily, thereby significantly reducing the use of overtime at the facility. In addition, the bill provides on-call nursing services for both the juvenile shelter facility on Alder Street in Honolulu and for the Kapolei detention facility, which will ensure that nurses are available to treat the juveniles when the day staff is not present.

"The bill also addresses a Neighbor Island issue arising from budget cuts in the Department of Public Safety (DPS). While Oahu courts have been providing community service sentencing program functions while DPS provided the same services on the Neighbor Islands circuits. DPS phased out services for the Second Circuit (Maui, Lanai and Molokai) several years ago and at the start of the Legislative Session announced the end of services for the Fifth Circuit (Kauai and Niihau) as well. This measure provides eight adult community service sentencing positions on the islands of Maui, Hawaii, and Kauai to fill the services previously provided by DPS and eliminated by that department. If these community service sentencing positions were not provided then persons deserving of doing community service as punishment could only be incarcerated instead.

"The budget also provides for the continuation of maintenance and warranty contracts at the Ronald T.Y. Moon Judiciary Complex in Kapolei so as to afford continuing service and maintenance for the building elevator, air-conditioning, court recording, fire alarm and sprinkler operations.

"Finally, this measure provides in excess of $12 million in general obligation bond funding for capital improvement projects related to the Judiciary, for various internal maintenance and upgrade projects to resolve issues with air handling systems on Maui and Oahu, as well as exterior building improvements at various sites across Oahu."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 138-12 and H.B. No. 2100, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2100, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"For decades, UH-Hilo has been at the forefront of bee hive study and research. The work done by Dr. Lorna Tsutsumi from the College of Agriculture, Farming, Natural Resource Management is noteworthy and has garnered support from renowned chef Alan Wong. Honey bees are responsible for crop pollination and their health and well-being is especially important if we are to reduce our dependency on imported food. However, there are several major pests threatening honey bees in Hawaii. The small hive beetle arrived in the State in 2010 and has been detected on four islands. Its presence compounds the challenges for beekeepers, who are already dealing with the Varroa mite since 2007.

"The appropriations in HB 2100 ensure continuing research in this field. This type of work can only help the bee hive industry survive its current challenges and any future ones it may face."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 2100, relating to funding for statewide research on honey bees.

"The $30,000 allocated by this bill would be well spent by the four counties and the UH Hilo College of Agriculture, Forestry and Natural Resource Management.

"As you know, Hawaii's honey bee industry is an example of global excellence. We are now the world's No.1 exporter of queen bees. This industry creates jobs and strengthens and diversifies our State economy.

"Honey bees also promote food security by pollinating numerous crops, including tomatoes, melons, cucumbers, coffee, avocados, macadamia nuts and citrus products. Unfortunately, our honey bee industry is seriously threatened by pests such as the small hive beetle. This invasive species was first spotted in Hawaii in 2010 and is now found on the Big Island, Maui and Molokai. This latest threat adds to the challenges of beekeepers, who have battled another destructive pest – the varroa mite – since 2007.

"UH researchers point out that controlling the small hive beetle is difficult. It's hard to control them with chemicals, and current trapping methods are inadequate. That's why the research funded by HB 2100 is so important. By focusing statewide efforts on the small hive beetle, we can hopefully bring this pest under control.

"As the Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation points out: "Honey bee problems are problems for all of us, since many local crops are pollinated by bees." And if we can't control the pests and diseases that harm honey bees, our State's agriculture industry will suffer from lower production and lower quality of crops. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2100, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BEES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 140-12 and H.B. No. 246, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 246, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this bill, which provides necessary funding to support the efforts and work of the Honolulu Prosecutor's Office. Specifically, this bill will support the City's Career Criminal division, its involvement in Drug Court and Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement Program, as well as its Victim Witness Assistance Program.

"This bill recognizes that the genesis of these programs were essentially legislative mandates that sought to make our communities safer and were initially funded with seed money from the federal or state governments, or both:

"To protect our communities from a disproportionate amount of serious crimes being committed by a minimal number of multiple and repeat felony offenders, the Legislature created the Career Criminal Prosecution program in 1979. To provide information, assistance, and support services to victims and witnesses of crimes, the Legislature established the Victim Witness Assistance program in 1986. To address recidivism and rehabilitation of criminal offenders the Legislature created the State's Drug Court Program in 1996, and started Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement (HOPE) Program in 2004.

"Considering the volume of cases handled by the City and County of Honolulu, these vital and successful programs have consistently been supported by the Legislature, and should continue to have state resources allocated, as available."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 246, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO APPROPRIATIONS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2320, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this bill which provides much needed assistance for the elderly and their caregivers in our community. Putting Kupuna Care in law recognizes and prioritizes the role of community-based supports for our frail and elderly.

"This measure establishes the legal framework for a continuum of care firmly based in local communities and recognizes the important role provided by family caregivers. Much of the care provided in Hawaii's close-knit communities are provided by family members. This bill will provide better support for them.

"There is no doubt that Hawaii's growing elderly population may need long-term care facilities. But we need to recognize the important role provided through traditional family support by funding and supporting affordable quality home and community-based services. The Kupuna Care Program has been addressing the growing needs of the elderly and increasing demand for such services.

"As the baby boomers enter their elder years, the demand for such services will only increase and the State must be positioned and prepared to accommodate such demand. The need for long-term care has become more widespread as a result, and the Kupuna Care Program serves as a mechanism for providing affordable long-term care by supporting home-based solutions as long as practical and effective. At a time when the economy is struggling, affordability remains a priority.

"Reserving funds to support senior centers such as Catholic Charities Hawaii, Moiliili Community Center and the Waikiki Community Center will continue to benefit Hawaii's senior citizens. In addition, funding the Alzheimer's Association and establishing a wanderer's registration service ensures that Alzheimer's patients are not forgotten and increases our monitoring of them as well. These services are essential to our continuing need to care for the elderly as they become unable to care for themselves.

"We must protect our elderly citizens as they become more vulnerable to society. The Kupuna Care Program's services will also ensure that our elderly are cared for and protected, and that they will enjoy a quality of life that's caring and humane."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 167-12 and S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This measure is needed if Hawaii wants to stay in the game of international travel. As House Chair of the Committee on International Affairs, I have been amazed by the stories of individuals being thwarted by the challenges of coming into the United States for the purpose of travel. For some, it takes a day of travelling and hours and hours of waiting in line to request a visa, and sometimes after the time and effort taken, it will not guarantee them a visa as the individual may be denied authorization.

"The Obama Administration's recent effort to address visa and travel challenges will create increased business for one of Hawaii's largest economic engine – Tourism. The appropriation for this measure will help in securing Hawaii as a major force at the national and international level. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 490, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 169-12 and S.B. No. 2695, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2695, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure would implement a livestock feed feasibility pilot project through the Department of Agriculture. Our local protein producers continue to struggle with ever-rising costs of livestock feed, and so this Bill is a step towards increasing the industry's sustainability. It includes language to build a pilot-scale feed mill to assess the operational feasibility of a feed mill in Hawaii. There is also an appropriation to reimburse qualified producers of milk, pork, eggs, poultry, and beef, for their feed costs. This Bill will help sustain our existing producers and I urge my colleagues to support it."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. The majority of farmers in Hawai'i are struggling. As a legislator who represents a community of farmers, the information that I have gathered while speaking with them has been the great challenges with feedstock for livestock farming. The high cost of fuel has immensely increased the overall cost of feedstock – being responsible for about 70% of the production costs in comparison to their mainland counterparts where this cost is responsible for 50% of production costs.

"Mr. Speaker, the feasibility pilot project will help to address this issue by discussing alternatives and initiatives to address these high costs which in turn make food sustainability and food security, both of which is urgently needed, impossible for Hawaii's farming community. For these reasons, I stand in strong support Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2695, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIVESTOCK FEED," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 170-12 and H.B. No. 1968, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1968, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIGARETTES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 174-12 and S.B. No. 2933, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2933, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this bill which promotes and improves ocean safety and addresses a long-time user conflict in the nearshore waters surrounding Maui.

"In a state surrounded mainly by water and doubling as a tourist destination, ocean safety is a high priority for both residents and visitors. In order to prevent tragic incidents in our waters, we must strive to take measures to safeguard against any potential problems to make our waters safe for both residents and visitors.

"Appropriating funds for swim zone buoys in nearshore waters is a step towards ocean safety and protecting swimmers and divers engaging in ocean activities. For visitors to the islands, they are often ill-prepared for the risks and dangers in our waters. The buoys would mark the areas distinguishing between vessel traffic and recreational use to avoid accidents. The buoys are clearly required because of the additional danger of collisions between swimmers/divers and boats. As a result of previous collisions – including fatalities – we must take action now to prevent any further tragedies.

"We want to make our waters safe for every commercial or recreational activity and use without putting any more lives in danger. Swim zone buoys are a simple solution that will provide a greater invaluable benefit to the people of Hawaii and visitors as well."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 176-12 and S.B. No. 2947, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2947, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which contains two parts.

"The first part requires the Department of Taxation to submit reports on tax credits to the Legislature annually and to submit by December 31, 2012, a report to the Legislature on the resources and information needed to complete the reports, identification of the best means of providing information in an electronic format; and recommendations for additional information that may be required for inclusion in the reports as the Department upgrades its tax computer systems and associated enterprise resource planning implementation. This part also gives the Department discretion (rather than a mandate) to explore and implement reasonable methods to cover the costs of distribution of these reports and appropriates money [$104,505] to support the Department to complete these reports.

"The second part allows the Director of Taxation to appoint administrative appeals officers to administer its Administrative Appeals and Dispute Resolution programs so that it may resolve all tax, penalty, interest, fine, assessment and other disputes between the Department and taxpayers expeditiously.

"This measure will make Department of Taxation more transparent by making more information available timely to the Legislature and ensuring that as the Department develops its computer system, it does so in a way that provides important information to the Legislature so that it may perform the vital function of monitoring the State's fiscal health.

"The measure will also allow the Department to appoint legal professionals for the limited role of hearing administrative appeals of tax issues. This will result in quicker resolution of claims for those who challenge decisions of the Department."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2947, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2257, HD 1, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 4 (Aquino, Cullen, Cabanilla and Johanson). Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Yamane).

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2257, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support HB 2257 which better allows our State to take advantage of an often overlooked resource – the skills and experience of spouses and family of service members stationed in our islands.

"This measure permits licensure by endorsement or licensure by reciprocity in certain situations for a nonresident military spouse, establishes procedures for a non-resident military spouse to receive a license by endorsement or license by reciprocity, permits issuance of a temporary license if certain requirements are met, requires the licensing authority to expedite consideration of the application and issuance of a license by endorsement, license by reciprocity, or temporary license to a qualified nonresident military spouse.

"In order to support the quality of life for our military service members we must also support their spouses and families. On average, military families relocate every two to three years, and 14.5% of military families move across state lines every year. Once here, military spouses often find that becoming licensed in their new state of residence is not worth the trouble. Exams, background checks, and the application process itself can take up to six months. It is unfair to require military spouses to continue to go through the licensing process in every new state they re-locate to, every two to three years. With these cumbersome requirements in place, many military spouses end up taking employment that is well below their level of expertise and credentials. This has the potential to dissuade potential service members from entering the military, and encourage the 59% of married military service members to withdraw from service. In an effort to support our military and their family members, this bill allows for a substitution of the licensing requirement of experience for a requirement of competency, and expedites the licensing process on the whole."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2257, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL LICENSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, SD 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 6 (Aquino, Herkes, Cullen, Cabanilla, Nakashima and Johanson). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support HB 2258, HD2, SD1 which recognizes military vocational and educational training in Hawaii licensing. This measure requires professional and vocational licensing boards to consider relevant military education, training, and service as part of the evaluation process toward the qualifications of a license.

"Our nation's military service members enjoy the opportunity to receive professional training through the military, but this incentive to enlist in the military is often times diminished by the fact that once they are discharged, they discover that licensing boards do not accept these credentials, training and education in providing civilian licenses. This bill seeks to remedy that and make sure that the time and effort that both our service members and our military devote to their training will benefit both the veterans and the community who will benefit from their skills as they return to live and work in the community.

"This is a common sense bill that ensures that tax payer money invested in training our veterans does not go to waste, and ensures that veterans have the full use of their training in making a living in Hawaii for the betterment of our State."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL LICENSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 2409, SD 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2409, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 5 (Aquino, Cullen, Cabanilla, Ito and Johanson). Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Herkes).

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2409, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support this bill which extends protections for our military men and women and their families from being targets of predatory lending practices.

"I understand that members of the military and their families must be protected from unfair and predatory deceptive consumer practices. During these slow economic times, military members must often seek financial assistance in order to provide for their families and pay their bills. Financial agencies recognize the desperate demand for such financial assistance, which can lead to companies engaging in predatory or abusive lending practices to the disadvantage of military members.

"In order to alleviate further financial burdens on the men and women serving our country, we must implement measures that will enforce consumer protection laws to deter such deceptive business practices. We need to help our military members minimize their debt, rather than add to it because of poor monitoring of lending practices by companies trying to gain financially.

"I agree that it is appropriate to authorize the Director of Commerce and Consumer Affairs to enforce certain federal laws to protect military members and their families from abusive lending practices in order to ensure that no military members fall through the cracks and become victims of such practices."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2409, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER PROTECTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 2601, HD 3, SD 1:

In accordance with the Conference Committee Procedures agreed upon by the House of Representatives and the Senate, the managers on the part of the House recommended that the House agree to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2601, HD 3, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 3 (Aquino, Keith-Agaran and Cullen). Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Fontaine).

Representative Chong moved that H.B. No. 2601, HD 3, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which increases the efficiency of the Department of Public Safety by allowing people authorized by court to serve legal process in addition to sheriffs and police. This hopefully will ensure that backlogs in serving legal process can be addressed in a timely and efficient manner in the future. This will give greater flexibility to litigants and allow the Department of Public Safety, police and sheriffs to allocate their limited human resources to the areas of greater need."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2601, HD 3, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 1:06 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 302, HD 1, SD 2
H.B. No. 2113, HD 1, SD 1

H.B. No. 2258, HD 2, SD 1
H.B. No. 2409, SD 1

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This measure is a step in the right direction to encourage ride sharing and carpooling by looking into a feasibility study for an extended zipper lane in the Leeward Coast. Traffic continues to plague commuters and HB2684 is a step in the right direction. For this reason, I rise in support."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB2684 HD2 SD2 CD1, an important bill relating to the zipper lane. The intent of this measure is to extend the zipper lane westward from Waipahu toward Kapolei, west of the Kunia on-ramp. As a Representative of the Leeward side, my constituents and I experience first-hand the burden of spending hours driving to and from town every day. House Bill 2684 addresses the State's considerable traffic congestion problem in West Oahu. A zipper lane providing access to West Oahu will be effective in reducing traffic, providing an incentive to carpool, and addressing the projected growth in the area. This bill is overdue, and I thank the Representative from Waianae for introducing this measure.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2684, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ZIPPER LANE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill protects Hawaii's coffee industry and coffee agricultural assets from invasive species by funding a program to control and eradicate the coffee berry borer (CBB), which would include the destruction of feral coffee trees. The CBB continues to plague many of Hawaii's coffee-growing areas, and its spread needs to be prevented and its presence must be eliminated. This will likely be a long process, but it is necessary to protect this unique and important local crop. I urge my colleagues to support it."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 283, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE FUNDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Jordan voting no.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill implements the Department of Agriculture's Electronic Importer Manifest Program. The Manifest Program provides for an importer to transfer data to the plant quarantine inspector regarding commodities of interest being imported by aircraft or ship arrival. In doing so, it helps make the State's import system more efficient with better flow through our ports and reduced congestion at harbors and airports. We need every advantage when responding to a threat - perceived or real - in Hawaii-bound cargo. This is a time-sensitive procedure and the Manifest Program is a key tool towards that end."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1942, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137-12 and H.B. No. 1943, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1943, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill provides funds for detector-dog inspector positions under the Department of Agriculture. The Hawaii Detector Dog Program (HDDP), which began in November 1989, was shutdown at the end of June 2009. However, the Coordinating Group on Alien Pest Species (CGAPS) Vision and Action Plan recently listed the re-establishment of HDOA's detector dog program as one of the ten most important actions that must be taken to protect Hawaii.

"Guam's build-up and Asia's increased importance in trade and military matters means that we are increasingly vulnerable to invasion by brown tree snake and other pest species. There is no 100% inspection of cargo and conveyances that are bound for Hawaii. We must take responsibility for protecting our shores and the HDDP is an effective way of doing so."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 139-12 and H.B. No. 1953, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1953, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB1953, which provides funds to increase the on-call availability of emergency medical and ambulance services on the Leeward Coast of Oahu – an aid that has been put in jeopardy with the closing of Hawaii Medical Center-West.

"With the greater burden now placed on the City and County of Honolulu's medical services division to respond to the emergency calls, the increased workload threatens the ability of the division to provide acceptable and adequate levels of emergency medical services to Leeward communities. Appropriating the sum of $1 million for the fiscal year of 2012-2013 would extend emergency medical services and ambulance services in Ewa Beach to 16 hours a day and in Nanakuli to 24 hours a day.

"This will be a great and welcomed asset to our community and our State."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141-12 and H.B. No. 1755, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1755, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I have serious concerns that this bill could lead to fraud in voter registration. Nowadays we transact many kinds of business online. We get car insurance quotes, pay credit card balances, access medical history. And many have come to rely on the convenience of doing things online. I'm not against doing things in a technologically advanced way.

"The proponents of this bill say it's only natural that our State should transition to online voter registration; it's inevitable. I think that perhaps if online voter registration gets more people to come out, register to vote, that too is a good thing. If it makes the process quicker, easier for voters, that's a positive thing. And I understand that this bill would make online voter registration optional, not mandatory.

"But my concern is that the bill does not provide for enough safeguards. Safeguards against hacking and fraudulent use of the online system. We have all heard the horror stories. In fact, we focused on cyber crime, didn't we, earlier this Session. Stories about computer hackers stealing money from online bank accounts. Or identity thieves getting their hands on personal information stored online. And online voter information stored online would be no less immune to data security breaches or misuse. The bill only indicates that the information provided by the applicant would be confirmed through existing information in government databases associated with government issued identification, including the applicant's signature.

"But that confirmation, that match, does not actually verify that the person who is applying online is really who they say they are. A dishonest person could go online. They could create a new voter registration in someone else's name, perhaps a friend or relative that's never before registered to vote or is out of State. That dishonest person could request and absentee ballot and vote by mail. There would be no way to verify that person. No way to verify who voted by absentee ballot. Is that that same person whose name is that the voter registration created? Even the name and the signature on the voter registration absentee ballot and the drivers license, even if they all match up, that doesn't prove everything. If one of those items was fraudulently obtained in the first place.

"So if a dishonest person voted in person at a polling place, there would still be no way to verify that they are the same person whose name the voter registration was created for. Currently there is no uniform requirement that voters at polling places actually show a photo ID to confirm their identity. In our democratic society, it's especially important that our voter registration records be accurate, up-to-date, but also tamperproof. And so for these reasons I'm voting with strong reservations. Because the current version of the bill does not assure us that the integrity of the voter registration process, ultimately our election process, will be protected.

"We've seen a lot of things happen online, and I think there are still situations where people are on lists, where they've either passed away or no longer live there. There is. And this could only exacerbate it. Thank you."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ching be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure which updates voter registration laws, including authorizing the acceptance of electronic applications to register to vote. This measure applies to all primary, special, nonpartisan, and general elections, beginning with the primary election of 2016. The Governor returned a similar bill at the end of last Session because there was no funding for the initiative. Let me thank the Office of Elections for re-introducing this bill this year and I would note this measure includes an appropriation of $500,000 for the purpose of planning and designing an online voter registration system. Any remaining funds may be used to implement the online voter registration system.

"As those who were entrusted with responsibility by the voters, we have a particular duty to see that those eligible can vote. This measure will bring the registration system in to the twenty-first century and make registration much more convenient to a large number of people.

"Voting is the basis of democratic governance. With a range between 35% and 40%, Hawaii ranks near the bottom of the nation in its percent of citizens eligible to vote who turn out to vote. Moreover, turnout among the young is particularly low. If the young do not register and get in the habit of voting, elections will only become less and less representative of the State's population in the future. Steps need to be taken to encourage voting. Since use of the internet is widespread, particularly among the young, this measure should help increase registration and open voting to those who have so far been least likely to vote.

"The use of government issued identification which can be checked by election officials to obtain a signature and validate identity means that contrary to critics, on-line registration will be as secure as in person registration."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1755, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOTER REGISTRATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 1:24 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:23 o'clock p.m., with Speaker Say presiding.

At 2:24 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:25 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, we are on page 12 of the Order of the Day. We will take Conf. Com. Rep. No. 152-12 out of order."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 152-12 and H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Conference Committee Report No. 152-12, that H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative Evans.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2404, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC INFORMATION," was recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Representatives Awana, Brower, Chang, Ito and Takumi being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143-12 and H.B. No. 2883, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2883, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MAKAHA VALLEY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 145-12 and H.B. No. 2319, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2319, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that puts its money where its mouth is. This is one of the things I called for in my earlier speech when I was bemoaning the budget as rather than growing the pie, we were cutting it slimmer and trimmer. We need to diversify, and Mr. Speaker, this is one of those areas that we can, at least in the area of high tech, with this accelerator, try to put more. We're not going to be Silicon Valley overnight.

"But if this works in the baby steps that are outlined in this bill, to give mentors, to give venture capital or accelerator capital, to give all that is needed for either establishment or taking off for what otherwise will be used in the next bill which I will also speak enthusiastically about, aerospace, high tech, etc. We will have gained an industry by which our kids won't have to go to the mainland in order to get a job. We'll have the STEM people right here, and this is one of the things to link some smart people of the University of Hawaii with the people on Bishop Street. We can hire people. And we can do much of what otherwise we have not done."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 146-12 and H.B. No. 2873, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2873, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, continuing with my enthusiasm of support, this is a line in the sand for truly, truly diversifying the economy. This is an opportunity for Hawaii to not only get into the space business. It's the ability to privatize what otherwise is international space exploration, which heretofore no one in the nation has really a corner on. As I have said many times on the Floor, NASA is in love with the Big Island. NASA sees the moon as the future of this nation, space travel. In fact many parts of the world see the Big Island as the incubator, if you will, for survival outside of the earth's atmosphere.

"Mr. Speaker, this is going to be a good one. By putting DBEDT and Hilo in a partnership in having the international lunar research park, of which already Google Lunar X PRIZE, NASA and other groups have already expressed serious interest in, and some are, I would think according to Jim Crisafulli, ready to come here with enthusiasm, after we pass this piece of legislation.

"Heretofore, Mr. Speaker, we have been a little bit of a hard customer, so to speak. We kind of play hard to get. This finally is the commitment that we need, and this is the commitment that can take us into an extremely out-of-this-world economic diversification. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support, Mr. Speaker. For the benefit of the Members, I've had some discussions with Buzz Aldrin on this issue, and he's in very, very strong support. For those of you that were here in 2000, and had the opportunity to meet him when he addressed this House."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I just wanted to note that I would like to go to the moon."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Just real quickly, I just want to actually thank the members of the Big Island delegation, both Senate and House, because without their help and effort, this would not be possible. And while that is the incubator for aerospace and part of the research component to which the potential with Alaska, and manufacturing launch component. The other great thing about this, this helps to live with the green, sustainable, well-paying jobs we've heard and talked so much about. It created a driver for the State by using the benefits of an area.

"What's really exciting is, this is an industry where millions will be committed in keeping the area environmentally pristine and untouched. And to get that kind of win these days is really important. So for all those reasons, I stand in strong support. And again thank you to the Big Island members of the delegation, Senate and House for their support and work on this bill. Thank you."

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. I'd like to extend my congratulations and thanks to the Economic Revitalization Chair, and the Chair of Higher Ed, for their hard work on this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2873, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SPACE CENTER FOR EXPLORATION SYSTEMS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 153-12 and H.B. No. 304, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 304, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. My daughter is a student at Ballet Hawaii," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support. A number of good things in here I'm very happy to see including Palama Settlement and a number of other worthy organizations across the State. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also would like to stand up with a potential conflict. My daughter also attends Ballet Hawaii. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 155-12 and S.B. No. 2778, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2778, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 2:32 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 2883, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 2319, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 2873, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 304, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2778, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156-12 and S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the measure. Mr. Speaker, the Transportation Chair sent an email out to all of us. I'm not sure in just the rush to get ready for this closing day, if Members took a look at that email. But what the head of Talent HR Solutions is stating is, this bill is actually going to put the small PEOs, Professional Employer Organizations, out of business. So this isn't just a job killer, it's a company killer and a job killer with it.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to call for a brief recess so we could discuss this just for a minute before we move ahead with this measure."

At 2:33 o'clock p.m., Representative Thielen requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:38 o'clock p.m.

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for that recess. Mr. Speaker, I'm really concerned about this. The DCCA informed us of this Talent HR Solutions, that more than 15 complaints have come in from small PEOs for this excessive bond requirement. Now here's the key language. None of the smaller PEOs were informed about, I guess about the bill, so we could present this alternate view. If such a bill is passed in its present form and the Governor was to sign the bill, the net effect would be to create two or three large monopolies. And basically this company will go out of business, along with probably the other 15 smaller PEOs and all of those employees. So in one fell swoop, trying to do something that may be a good idea, but isn't in the way that it is structured, we're going to be shutting down 15 businesses and putting all the employees that work for those businesses out of work.

"So I really would ask Members to look at this and say, the idea may be good. We want to protect companies. But let's look at doing it in a better way and do that next year. Let's not do this. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. There was no testimony at the Labor Committee or anywhere else that I'm aware of that gave any evidence that 15 companies were going to go out of business if we pass this bill. On the contrary, what this bill is designed to do is protect companies who use PEOs. If you use a PEO as a small business or even a medium sized business, and one of those PEOs absconds with your payroll for a month or two weeks, that is a major blow to any business that's even close to the edge. What we're trying to do in this bill is to protect businesses many of whom use PEOs. The bill is graduated so that smaller PEOs have a smaller bonding requirement and a smaller re-registration requirement.

"In addition, the final point I would make is that this bill went through many, many iterations, both in the hearing process and at Conference. The first I saw of any opposition from the smaller PEOs that I recall, I mean it's been a long a Session, but the only one I recall was this morning. And if you're not going to participate in the process until a few hours before the final vote, it's very difficult to calculate that into anyone's legislative amendments.

"But having said that, there is a sliding scale for small companies. But there are two sources of potential danger here. One is putting somebody out of business directly. But the other one is, if one of these companies takes off with payroll, it's a huge blow for any company. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes' written remarks are as follows:

"The Legislature recognizes that professional employer organizations (PEOs) provide a valuable service to commerce and the citizens of Hawaii. PEOs deliver this important service through increasing the opportunities of small business employers to develop cost-effective methods of satisfying their employment-related requirements. Importantly, PEOs provide employees with access to employment benefits which might otherwise not be available to them and helping to ensure greater compliance with employer requirements.

"The intent of this legislation is to create a registration program for PEOs operating in the state and to address employee benefit coverage and reporting requirements for both PEOs and to those small businesses they provide services. The intent of SB 2424 is to retain employer responsibility at the client level and to allocate certain administrative responsibilities to the PEO only during the term of the agreement. This allocation is achieved by recognizing that the PEO is, during the period it is providing services to each individual client, responsible for certain employer responsibilities including unemployment insurance, workers' compensation (and that the exclusive remedies of Chapter 386 shall apply to both the client and the professional employer organization) temporary disability insurance, and prepaid health care coverage.

"It is the intent of SB 2424 to only assign to the PEO administrative responsibilities and that all other duties and responsibilities shall remain those of the clients' business activity remain those of the client."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting no on this particular measure. I think I've been fairly consistent voting no in Committee and on Third Reading on this Senate Bill. I was a little bit upset about it. Let me first say, I think it might be a good idea to have bonding requirement, because then, if somebody does abscond with money, the business might be able to retrieve some of their money. But on the other hand, this puts the entire industry, the PEOs, under one department. And usually businesses are under DCCA, and maybe inspected by the Labor Department. But this puts everything under Labor, so Labor becomes in effect the judge, the jury, the hangman, if need be.

"There are only a few PEOs in the State. A couple big ones, and I'll mention them by name, ALTRES and ProService. They may handle maybe half the employees in the State. They cover businesses with half the employees. The other half is many small, a dozen or two, very small businesses. The fees are so high that if there are 500 or more employees that you cover, and let's say 5 or 10 businesses, your fee will be $10,000 for the biennium. Just for registration. So I think it might be a problem. It's also problematical for new businesses who want to get started. Very high registration fees.

"So I worry that some of the language in the bill might make the PEO the employer for too many functions, and then the PEO may have all the liability for that particular area. So I haven't read the bill word for word, but it's just that I'm totally opposed to everything being under one department and the fees being very high. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"The Legislature recognizes that professional employer organizations (PEOs) provide a valuable service to commerce and the citizens of Hawaii. PEOs deliver this important service through increasing the opportunities of small business employers to develop cost-effective methods of satisfying their employment-related requirements. Importantly, PEOs provide employees with access to employment benefits which might otherwise not be available to them and helping to ensure greater compliance with employer requirements.

"The intent of this legislation is to create a registration program for PEOs operating in the state and to address employee benefit coverage and reporting requirements for both PEOs and to those small businesses they provide services. The intent of SB 2424 is to retain employer responsibility at the client level and to allocate certain administrative responsibilities to the PEO only during the term of the agreement. This allocation is achieved by recognizing that the PEO is, during the period it is providing services to each individual client, responsible for certain employer responsibilities including unemployment insurance, workers' compensation (and that the exclusive remedies of Chapter 386 shall apply to both the client and the professional employer organization) temporary disability insurance, and prepaid health care coverage.

"It is the intent of SB 2424 to only assign to the PEO administrative responsibilities and that all other duties and responsibilities shall remain those of the clients' business activity remain those of the client."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as I circulated the letter, and I still feel the same, I would want to vote no on this measure. It's a very harsh penalty that I think has been set upon these relatively small professional employment operators. If you're from 200 to 1,000, your monthly requirements, according to the letter that I got, goes up to $500,000. You have to also put $500,000 in collateral. Which means that's money that's tied up in there. It's collateral. Then you go to a surety company to get a letter of credit, and you have to pay interest over there, 1 3/4 to 2% or so. Then after you get that and then you go to the bonding company with a letter of credit for the $500,000, because you got your collateral in there, so they'll charge you an additional 2%.

"What I'm hearing from the small businesses, and if you can allow me, I know that it's in the late hour, the Chairman was correct. It's a late hour. It was in the 12th hour when they came over to see me. But there's got to be some truth to all of this here. They're saying that that $500,000 is what they can make in profit. But if they're going to be tying that cash up, they'll go bankrupt. And I don't think they would be lying to me, because this letter has been spread to all of you. You all got the letter. I don't know if you took the time to read it. But what it means in effect is that, a number of small businesses will be going out. And I think we have enough of a reputation for being anti-business. We don't want to be any more.

"What I say is, let's put this bill down. Come back next year and try and clean it up. I understand why the regulations are a little tougher, because, from what I'm understanding, one of the smaller companies took off with the wages from a company that they were supposed to be taking care of. And there's a trust relationship here. So I can understand why they quickly come for strengthening the regulations. But if you're going to do that and hurt the rest of the companies, then strengthen but don't overkill. I think this bill is an overkill. So I request that Members, let's put this bill down, come back next year, work with the Chairman, and come up with a better bill. Thank you, very much."

Representative Fontaine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. And asking that the words of the Speaker Emeritus be entered as my own, and additional written comments. I just want to say, PEOs, they provide temporary, short-term regular staff for the firms that experience spikes in their workload, have seasonal increases such as the retailers that work the holidays, or who are too small to handle extensive paperwork associated with having employees on the payroll. They need our help. Thanks."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to express reservations about SB 2424, a bill that would place heavy financial and regulatory burdens on Professional Employer Organizations (PEOs).

"PEOs provide important services to our small and medium-sized businesses in the State. They help provide temporary, short term, or regular staff for firms that are experiencing spikes in their workload, have seasonal increases such as retailers during the holidays, or who are too small to handle the extensive paperwork associated with having employees on the payroll.

"This bill, would force all PEOs to pay hefty registration fees, rising as high as $10,000 per company. The bill also places excessive bonding requirements on PEOs, which the smaller firms may well not be able to afford. The National Association of Professional Employer Organizations testified that the bonding levels in this bill are seriously out of line with what other states require.

"Mr. Speaker, at a time when Hawaii's economy is still fragile and we want more jobs for our residents, this bill may well result in the closure of some PEOs and make it harder for others to remain in business.

"This Legislature keeps talking about how they want to create jobs and help the economy, but your actions do the opposite.

"I will not oppose this bill because it helps implement provisions of Act 129 which we passed in 2010. But I believe in the long run, this bill will be detrimental to employer organizations and the role they play in our State." [Note: Representative Ching voted no on this measure.]

Representative Manahan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker. You know that something must be seriously wrong with this bill, because Speaker Emeritus and I are agreeing on something. So given that fact, I would ask you all to take a look at it, because we're going to shut down at least 15 companies with this measure. So Speaker Emeritus, I would like to have your words entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Please, I ask you all, let's not do that to these employees. Let's not do this. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." [Note: Representative Johanson's vote was later recorded as a no vote.]

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to SB 2424 relating to professional employer organizations. I oppose this measure because these mandated registrations and regulations will probably put professional employment organization out of business. At a time when many of our constituents are unemployed or underemployed, I believe we should not create obstacles for job opportunities, and I believe this measure will do just that."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, I would like the words of the Chairman of Transportation entered into the Journal as if they were my own. I rise in opposition. Just briefly, I think all of us process things differently, and in my case I kind of take a look at this and do a quick risk analysis. It seems to me that it's riskier to move this bill forward, and it's just a little safer if we didn't. The risk of losing 15 or so small businesses versus the risk of waiting one additional year to fix a problem, to me is an issue that's quite easy to juggle. And in this case, I err on the side of caution, and I vote this bill down. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Souki be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in support. I would just point out too, that the bonding requirement has been there since 2010, the $250,000 bonding requirement. The other point I would make is that DLIR has oversight over most of the things that are covered in this bill anyway. So to argue that somehow DLIR should not be involved, and they're going to be involved because it covers prepaid health. It covers temporary disability insurance. It covers workers comp insurance. These are all things that are regulated by DLIR anyway. But I still, considering the fact that these companies have been subject to the $250,000 bond already, if you read on page 16, section 7, you'll see that, in the words that are marked out, there is a $250,000 bond requirement already in law. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in due respect to you, and to the Leadership and to the Chairman, I move that we recommit this measure, Senate Bill 2424."

At this time, Representative Souki moved to recommit S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, seconded by Representative Takai.

At 2:52 o'clock p.m., Representative Chong requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:54 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"I recognize it's late in the day. The Senate has already adjourned sine die, but for the House, this is your democratic House. At this point, the motion before this Body is the motion to recommit Senate Bill 2424, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, Conference Draft 1. Is there any discussion on the motion to recommit?"

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think you said it as you explained what we are doing. You said this is your democratic House. The point of recommitment is to see the democracy as it is imperfect, has a way of, it's got a self-correcting mechanism. If we've done something prematurely, by not having a fully vetted discussion on this, recommitment will allow us to have that and not rush into something that otherwise could be very risky. So in the democratic spirit, thank you very much."

Representative Chong rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak against the motion to recommit. I ask the Members to vote against this, because I think if we were to recommit and kill this bill, I think it would remove the protections of the bill for small business. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in favor of the motion to recommit. Mainly because we just got some information, rather late on this measure, which really caused many of us to have hesitancy and reluctance to vote for this measure. I feel very strongly that this will be damaging to the PEOs and the small businesses that they serve. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in strong support of the motion to recommit. Mr. Speaker, think of the people that go to work and are appreciative of their job. Think of them being told by their employer, 'I'm sorry, we have to shut the company.'"

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen. Representative Thielen, you are out of order. Representative Thielen, can you confine your remarks to the motion of the recommitment and the process. On the process."

Representative Thielen: "Well I'm saying ..."

Speaker Say: "On the process."

Representative Thielen: "Yes, I will. I'm saying the recommitment is so tremendously important, because we want to save jobs for those workers. And let's not put them out of work. Please. It needs to be recommitted to be relooked at, and come back in a way that won't be just a job killer, but a business killer too. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of the recommitment. I think that there are many people who sometimes just can't make it down here. They don't always know. But once they do find out, and we hear their voice, I think they may feel that we have good government. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"In opposition. I just want to point out to you, Mr. Speaker, and the membership, that this bill has been considered by, it was a joint LAB/ERB referral, so there was one hearing there. There was another CPC/JUD, another hearing there. And then a FIN referral as well. So a total of 5 Committees have looked at it in the House. In the Senate it was a joint CPN/JDL, and then it had a WAM referral as well. So we had a total of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight Committees. And then about a week and a half of negotiation with the Senate, and the Department of Labor, and members of the PEO community have also been involved. I think it's pretty difficult to argue that this bill has not been thoroughly considered already. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in rebuttal. Mr. Speaker, this company said, none of the 15 ..."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, confine your remarks."

Representative Thielen: "I'm responding. I'm rebutting to what the Labor Chair said."

Speaker Say: "Confine your remarks to the motion on the process to recommit. And that's what the Chair ..."

Representative Thielen: "I'm rebutting what he said. These companies weren't informed about it. No one reached out to say to them, we're considering legislation that might make it impossible for you to stay in business. The person here has testified."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, we are not on the substance of the measure."

Representative Thielen: "No, but I'm responding to what you allowed him to say."

Speaker Say: "He talked about the process of the referral process, that it was vetted by 8 Committees."

Representative Thielen: "Fine, but those different Committees, Mr. Speaker, these people were not informed. He's acting as if the whole world knows what we're doing here. Well the whole world ..."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, you are out of order."

Representative Thielen: "I'll try to become in order."

Speaker Say: "Confine your remarks to the motion to recommit. That's all it is."

Representative Thielen: "And may I do exactly what the Labor Chair did and discuss it as to who showed up and who didn't?"

Speaker Say: "At the process of the Committee hearings, yes."

Representative Thielen: "Okay, the process of the Committee hearings. The former speaker assumed that the public and the employers out there know all the time what we're doing in this Body. Many of them don't. The point is, we need to reach out to them to say, 'We're considering legislation that could jeopardize your business. Come in.' No one did that. These 15 companies never knew ..."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen ..."

Representative Thielen: "I'll stop there."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, I disagree with you, because the ..."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I call for the question."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Souki, please. Let me tell the Members at this point, that the motion before this Body is to recommit. And none of you have the courage to call for a roll call, and the Chair is going to ask for a roll call vote. We're not going to do it by voice vote. It's going to be a roll call vote. So those who support the recommitment, will say 'aye' and those who oppose will say 'nay'."

"Before I begin, Madame Clerk, is that the proper way of this particular roll call? Or shall it be the motion to recommit, those who support the recommitment will have to say 'aye' and those who oppose the recommitment will have to say 'no'."

The Clerk responded, stating:

"That is correct, Mr. Speaker."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote, and the motion to recommit S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS," was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 20: Awana, Belatti, Brower, Ching, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, Johanson, Kawakami, C. Lee, Luke, Marumoto, Morikawa, Riviere, Saiki, Souki, Takai, Thielen, Ward and Wooley.

Noes, 30: Aquino, Cabanilla, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Evans, Har, Hashem, Herkes, Ichiyama, Ito, Jordan, Keith-Agaran, M. Lee, Manahan, McKelvey, Mizuno, Nakashima, Oshiro, Pine, Rhoads, Say, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Yamane and Yamashita.

Excused, 1: Nishimoto.

(Main Motion)

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to let the Body know and let the record reflect that I voted no on the recommitment because I do believe that the bill went through its due process. It did go through all the Committees. And those concerns are coming to us very late in the process. But I have reservations in hopes that maybe the Administration could take a look and work with the concerned parties before they implement it. And maybe, if need be, then we can come back and reconsider it next year. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak in opposition to this measure. I had mentioned earlier that the small businesses that PEOs serve, I guess they're also called employee leasing companies, are very helpful to small business. Like, some small businesses, they just don't want to be saddled with all the problems of paying the withholding and all the taxes, and doing the paperwork regarding the payroll. Perhaps you use one yourself, Mr. Speaker, unless you could afford somebody to do this specifically in your business. But there are so many labor laws, and you run a hazard when you hire people, fire people, so that it's good to have someone with the necessary expertise to help you out."

"Also, PEOs assist in obtaining insurance, maybe the best rates for all the insurance policies that you have to carry if you're a small business. So if a lot of these small businesses go out, then we're hurting the small businesses. And so this one, this particular bill, calls for registration fees, biennially. If you handle a business with 500 or more employees, you're paying $10,000 for registration. From 251 to 499, you will pay $5,000. 100 to 250 covered employees, $3,000. And then if you cover only 0 to 100 employees, let's say you have a business, you do it for a business, your brother-in-law's or something, there's only 5 employees, you're paying $2,500. So folks, we should vote this down. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Briefly in opposition, Mr. Speaker. We have a workforce of about 600,000 people, Mr. Speaker. I think covered under this bill, the PEOs are about 50,000 employees. That's maybe 10% of the workforce. If even half of these things get hit, that's a lot of people that this is under. We basically thank the Chair of Finance. We thank everybody that worked through the budget, and we came out looking good.

"Well, Mr. Speaker, it's because the private sector paid wages which people pay taxes on. It's the private sector that paid the GE Tax, etc., that we're here today with our noses above water. So if we want to harm the goose that lays the golden egg, we have to be aware of what we're doing. If this is almost 10% of the labor force, why do you want to mess around with them? Because one company absconded with the payroll. You don't take a shotgun to kill a fly, Mr. Speaker. That's my point.

"I'll go back to the gentleman who drives the electric car, who said, if this is premature, if we err on the side of caution, we will not pass this now. The point is, Mr. Speaker, what we're going to get out of this is riskier than what we're going to get if it goes through. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2424, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 31 ayes to 19 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Fontaine, Giugni, Hanohano, Har, Johanson, Kawakami, Luke, Marumoto, Morikawa, Pine, Riviere, Saiki, Souki, Takai, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no, and with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 158-12 and S.B. No. 2939, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2939, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 2939 CD1 which authorizes $80 million in special purpose revenue bonds for St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii. This bill provides us [the community and its leaders] with an option when looking to address the loss of HMC, and its services.

"Mr. Speaker, when we started this Session, I made it my number one priority to help remedy the dire situation brought about by the bankruptcy and closure of Hawaii Medical Center East in Liliha. Losing this hospital was tragic for the residents of my district and the State of Hawaii, but I am pleased today to see it rising from the ashes.

"The St. Francis legacy began in 1883 when Mother Marianne Cope and six sisters of St. Francis arrived in Hawaii to work with Hansen's Disease patients at the request of King Kalakaua. In 1927, the sisters started their first hospital. In 1929, they began Hawaii's first organ transplant program. In 1988, St. Francis began operating the first official hospice program in Hawaii. And, in 1990, St. Francis opened the only major medical facility in West Oahu.

"As you can see from their history, St. Francis has been consistently filling healthcare needs in our community, and this bill will help them continue to serve the people of Hawaii, particularly the residents of Liliha.

"Special thanks are due for this monumental measure. First, I would like to thanks the Chair of Health for his tireless work for our hospitals this Session. I would also like to thank the Healthcare Association of Hawaii, Queen's Health Systems, Hawaii Medical Association, Hawaii Catholic Conference and Laborers' Union Local 368 for their testimony in support of this measure.

"Finally, thank you, Mr. Speaker for all your support for our hospitals and St. Francis this Session."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2939, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST ST. FRANCIS HEALTHCARE SYSTEM OF HAWAII," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 163-12 and S.B. No. 2261, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2261, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Aquino rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I request a ruling on a potential conflict. I work for a non-profit that serves as the fiscal agent for Weed and Seed, but we don't oversee the operations. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2261, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE WEED AND SEED PROGRAM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 112, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. This is the measure that, as the Vice Chair of Finance said, she wants to go to the moon. Well, this is her opportunity, because this bill is literally to get us into the space port business. Mr. Speaker, some of us have waited four years for this to happen. It's an exciting time, because once a space port license is given, Mr. Speaker, this is going to connect very specific nodes of the United States and the rest of the world.

"Even though it's still a little bit of a science fiction, it is possible that with 35,000 feet in the air, at altitude, then with the rockets being shot, we can actually go from here to Tokyo in 45 minutes. That's in the long run. Right now, in terms of diversification of space, we could actually have tourists take these rides that get them up, and I think after 70,000 feet they glide down with the experience of weightlessness. This diversifies our visitor plan. It doesn't put anything at risk. It's environmentally sound. We could use the existing airport. This is simply to do the environmental study, crossing all the T's, dotting the I's, to make sure that this is kosher, so we can get into the diversification of which now there's only a handful of states by which this is possible. And the window of opportunity for us to do it is now, Mr. Speaker.

"So this is a great opportunity. It's a great bill. And it's going to change the face of tourism in the future. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Just for some clarifications on this. First of all, to the Vice Chair of Finance's comment, this bill will not get you to the moon. That was PISCES. What this bill will do, though, is provide space tourism, which is basically flight within the earth's orbit, both within the State of Hawaii, and eventually working with the State of New Mexico through their Spaceport America project, point-to-point travel. And of course that builds upon Japan as well.

"And it's not science fiction. Actually, it's a lot further along than people think. The match upon which this is predicated at $250,000 is from the federal government, which has authorized this thing to move forward, to assist states like New Mexico and Hawaii to obtain these spaceport licenses. Unlike New Mexico, we don't have to build a billion dollar new facility. We have two airports already that can host these aircrafts. And this will be a way to integrate them into existing civilian traffic, as well as UAVs, and potentially working with Japan and Narita, I very well think that very soon, you could take off in Japan, 20 minutes, be in Hawaii, have lunch, do a business deal, and 20 minutes later be back in Japan just in time for dinner.

"So it's a lot further along than people think, you can google Virgin Galactic if you want to see some of the space planes that are already flying. And the timing is right, given what is happening in New Mexico. Of course this puts us in a great position among all space-faring nations. Thank you, very much."

S.B. No. 112, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 2220, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171-12 and H.B. No. 2226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I am in support of this Women's Caucus measure and would like to insert written comments. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 2226, HD2, SD2, CD1 – Relating to an Automated Victim Notification System.

"This bill seeks to maintain an automated notification system in which the victim of a crime will be apprised of their attacker's custody status. It is a natural extension of the current Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification System (SAVIN) that is administered by the Department of Public Safety. This measure will establish a service in which victims will be kept up to date on the status of their offender, from the point of arrest and incarceration through the time they are released and under supervision with the community.

"The SAVIN program, which receives federal funding through the Department of Public Safety, may be discontinued in 2012 due to lack of funds. This measure will provide for the continued operation of SAVIN by dedicating a special funding source, whose revenue will be generated by fees from inmate phone usage and from a 4% surcharge against inmate commissary purchases. So, HB2226 is a financially feasible means of protecting the public and ensuring victim's rights. It will not be necessary to "invent" additional sources of funding for this system.

"A portion of this bill addresses the overseeing of a notification system by a committee, to be made up of representatives from victim service agencies, victim witness assistance programs, and a victim or surviving family member. This Governance Committee will build rapport with the Department of Public Safety to ensure successful implementation of the automated notification system.

"Many Victim/Witness Counselors attest to the functionality of this notification system, stating that it offers tremendous peace of mind to victims of abuse. It allows such victims to regain some control over their lives by informing them of their attacker's custody status, thereby enabling them to prepare or protect themselves accordingly. An automated victim notification system poses an invaluable service to members of the community who have been victimized, or who know someone recuperating from a crime. It has afforded peace of mind to victims living in fear of their attacker.

"I urge your support of this bill, which will continue to support victims across the State."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN AUTOMATED VICTIM NOTIFICATION SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 173-12 and S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takumi rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure is critical and its passage means that we are placing a higher priority on increasing access and improving the quality of our pre-school programs because it makes good educational and economic sense.

"Educationally, we know that the first five years of a child's life are the most critical to development. Children in quality early education programs typically perform better in school, display stronger reading skills and experience fewer disciplinary problems. An increasing number of states, six at last count, are establishing pre-kindergarten classes as part of their public education system.

"According to Good Beginnings Alliance, only 12 out of 20 students are well prepared as they enter kindergarten. For at-risk children, preschool programs can be the difference between failing or passing, regular or special education, and dropping out of or graduating from high school.

"The research is compelling: children who attend preschool or other early education programs have better cognitive, verbal, and social development and enter kindergarten better prepared.

"They also are less likely to exhibit later delinquency and antisocial behavior, tend to demonstrate higher levels of school achievement and better social adjustment, and are more likely to graduate from high school.

"A recent study on the Oklahoma universal pre-K program (available to all 4-year-olds) in 2003 showed that low-income students improved test scores 26 percent, with Hispanic students having the greatest improvement with a gain of 54 percent.

"Economically, investing in human capital yields greater long-term benefits than any tax credit or subsidy that we typically hand out to developers and businesses.

"The Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis published a report in December 2004 that asserts there is an extraordinary public return on investing in early childhood development.

"One study it cited showed that the total benefit cost-ratio was $17 for every dollar invested. In other words, funds that go into establishing these programs ultimately prove to be an investment as savings amass from a reduction in crime and welfare payments and an increase in economic productivity.

"Establishing early childhood programs builds upon the framework established by Act 51, the Reinventing Education Act of 2004 since it makes little sense to ignore the fact that children need to come to elementary school prepared to learn and ready to succeed."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"My reservations are with the repeal of junior kindergarten programs at the end of the 2013-2014 school year. Communication needs to be clear with the affected parents for the children who are eligible for junior kindergarten in 2014 to ensure a seamless transition from the junior kindergarten program to the Keiki First Steps program in the 2014-2015 year."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations.

"This measure proposes to create the Executive Office on Early Learning. I don't have a problem with that. In fact, I support that because we need to address the issue of educating our young people. The concern that I have is really in section 3. And those of you unfamiliar with the bill, I'll just note that, that section proposes to eliminate the Junior Kindergarten, effective the 2014-2015 school year.

"Mr. Speaker, this is coming up because there was some misunderstanding, I believe on the part of the Department of Education. They had thought that we had eliminated Junior K last year. I had mentioned to them that I didn't think so. So I made a request to the Attorney General's Office, and in a response from the Attorney General dated December 14th, they clarified that in fact, Junior Kindergarten is alive and well in the Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"My concern is this. I do support elevating and requiring 5 year olds to start Kindergarten when they are 5. Those of you who have been here for quite awhile, know that I have been advocating this for most of my legislative career. I see no reason why our public schools should be no different from some of our best private schools in mandating that requirement. In fact, I think that part of our problem with competing not only on the State level, but also on the national level, is the fact that many of our children are one year younger than their counterparts either in private schools or schools on the mainland. So we needed to make that change. We needed to mandate that children be 5 years old when they start kindergarten.

"The problem was implementation of Kindergarten and Junior Kindergarten a few years ago. And as the Chair of Education has noted on the Floor quite a few times, there is one-third of the schools that follow the mandate. There are one-third of the schools that didn't follow the mandate. And one-third of the schools that kind of did a hybrid where they basically put Kindergarteners and Junior Kindergarteners in the same room.

"My concern is that we needed to, or the Department of Education needed to, label the students appropriately. They're either Junior Kindergarteners, or Kindergarteners. Now this is not a big issue for many of you, but it is a big issue from my perspective, because just last year, we codified into law the Interstate Compact on Education for Military Children. And in that Compact it said that any child who starts a particular grade level, in a particular school, in a particular state, and then moves to another state, is allowed to transition at that grade level.

"With some of the schools, the one-third of the schools not following the requirements as set by law, some of the kids were moving from Hawaii to other states, at a lower age. And that was a problem.

"The problem with this bill is that it entirely eliminates the Junior K program. Now some will argue that the bill also specifies that the Executive Office on Early Learning, by the 2014-15 school year have an implementation plan and projected financials in order to address the seamless transition of these Junior K kids. But I asked in Committee, what does that mean? What happens when they submit their implementation plan to the Governor, and the Governor submits it to the Legislature? What happens if the Legislature doesn't act? The answer was, these kids, these Junior Kindergarteners will have nowhere to go. And I don't believe that's our intent. Our intent is to create a seamless transition for these kids who are not 5 years old, come the 2014-15 school year. And this bill doesn't do it.

"I don't know if you've heard it, but I've heard it from a number of parents already in our communities, wondering what was going to happen to their kids, because their kids were going to be hopefully, going into the Junior Kindergarten program in 2014-2015. But now it's clear based on this bill, that they'll have nowhere to go. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Although this measure appropriates funds for early learning which is a meritorious goal, it fails to provide education for certain children before they are eligible for kindergarten. This leaves a wide, growing gap in the education of our most impressionable youngsters. We must address this gap next Session."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2545, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2678, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ichiyama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a ruling on a potential conflict please. I'm a board member of the Japanese American Citizens League," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support on Conference Committee Report 177-12, Senate Bill 2678, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, Conference Draft 1. The purpose of this measure is to provide State support toward preservation of the site of the World War II internment and prisoner of war camp in Honouliuli and establish a Honouliuli park site project advisory group.

"During World War II, over one thousand Japanese Americans in Hawaii were detained solely because of their Japanese ancestry. While most detainees were sent to mainland internment camps, at least three-hundred remained interned in Honouliuli during the war without being officially charged for acts of espionage.

"Preservation of the Honouliuli Camp and plans for an educational resource center at the site will serve to inform current and future generations of an important time in Hawaii's history. As a Representative for the 40th District, I am honored to have the internment and prisoner of war camp site located in West Oahu at Honouliuli. With all of the development occurring in West Oahu these days, it is important to have a Honouliuli museum to preserve our culture and history.

"The Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii, which will work with the Honouliuli park site project advisory group, has spent the past ten years collecting oral histories of former internees and their families. The oral histories the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii has prepared along with the proposed educational resource center at the Honouliuli site will provide visitors and kama'aina with a comprehensive look at Japanese Americans living in Hawaii during World War II, and ensure that this critical period in Hawaii's history is never forgotten.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2678, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HONOULIULI," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Representative Chong moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2236, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very quickly, I rise with some reservations on this bill. It's authorizing $100 million in special purpose revenue bonds to a specific firm. But it perhaps is not supporting some other well thought out broadband deployment in Hawaii.

"The bill started out as a measure to clarify the membership of the information technology steering committee. Then it was changed to a sizable SPRB for Clearcom. While I fully support efforts to improve and expand broadband, access to residences and businesses of our State, I am concerned that other companies who already provide these services are not receiving the same support, while many testified that Clearcom may well duplicate existing services in the urban core.

"If the intent of this bill is to encourage more competition and choices in broadband access, then the Legislature could have proposed legislation creating open architecture standard for cabling that allows all firms, Verizon, Oceanic, Hawaiian Tel, AT&T, etc., to access the cable and provide a full array of digital services. Therefore it is somewhat disappointing that we are again not establishing the level playing field to allow open market-based competition in providing what is becoming an essential public service – high speed broadband capability for residential and commercial customers. So for those reasons, I must vote with reservations on this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2236, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this measure because it addresses one of the State's pressing issues: homelessness.

"The establishment of an Interagency Council is a step in the right direction to begin addressing our homeless crisis. The bill also in a way is a safety measure. Setting up a safe facility is critical. A number of our homeless include children. They need to be protected, not just from the elements, but from predators. Homeless children are victims of circumstance and need protection.

"Moreover, Mr. Speaker, this bill will help homeless try to get back on track with educational programs. It is not enough to accommodate homeless with shelter if we can't help them improve their situation that made them homeless.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is a good start to addressing homelessness in our State."

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR #1

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, we are on Supplemental Calendar #1. Please note that SCR No. 156, SD 1, has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Transportation per the Committee Referral sheet No. 76. So at this time, we will be taking Senate Concurrent Resolution Number 156 up for adoption. The Committee on Finance has waived its referral to this particular measure, and it is therefore appropriate for the House to consider action for adoption once more."

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the House reconsidered its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1809-12, recommending referral to the Committee on Finance. (Representative Nishimoto was excused.)

S.C.R. No. 156, SD 1:

Representative Chong moved that S.C.R. No. 156, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may speak in favor of this. This Reso urges the creation of an international aviation training center in Hilo, and my point of speaking to this is that the notion of synergy is when you get something that relates to something else, you get double. It's like the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. So if we've got PISCES doing international space exploration, and we've got the international aviation training center, they will have synergy. They will help each other. It's a great core of economic development for the Big Island of which I know sometimes has been really hard hit economically, so this is a great reso. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.C.R. No. 156, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE CREATION OF AN EXPLORATORY COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERNATIONAL AVIATION TRAINING CENTER AT THE HILO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AND AN ADVANCED AVIATION DEGREE TRAINING PROGRAM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT HILO," was adopted, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

On motion by Representative Chong, seconded by Representative Ward and carried, H.R. No. 199, was adopted, with Representative Nishimoto being excused.

H.R. No. 200, entitled: HOUSE RESOLUTION INFORMING THE SENATE AND THE GOVERNOR THAT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IS READY TO ADJOURN SINE DIE," was jointly offered by Representatives Say and Manahan.

LATE INTRODUCTIONS

The following late introduction was made to the Members of the House:

Representative Ching introduced her legislative staff: Office Manager, Ms. Jessica Leigh Bursack; Mr. Lindsey Barrow, Ms. Tiffany Au, Ms. Elise Anderson and Ms. Deborah Bossley.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ching: Mr. Speaker, may I make just two more announcements? I know that technically, it started May 1st, but as you know, March 3rd, was Girls' Day, but May 5th is Boys' Day, because I'm old fashioned. I know in Japan it's Children's Day, but here in Hawaii, it's Boys' Day. It's the day to stress the importance of respecting the character of boys, and promoting health and happiness. It's also the day to remember the children, and for them to express the gratitude for the tender love and care they receive from their parents.

"There's a little something on each of the male legislators' desk, as there was on March 3rd for the females. Fair is fair. It's just a gentle reminder that there's so much good in Hawaii, and these charming things that make us who we are, is why we're so special and unique. We should always remember that.

"Also, there's a book and music festival this weekend. Don't forget. From 10:00 to 5:00 right across the street on the grounds of Honolulu Hale, on both Saturday and Sunday. Free admission. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The announcement I have, Mr. Speaker, is that on Tuesday when we were in House Floor Session, I may have erred, and I'd like to correct the error if I can.

"As we were going through the processes, there was a lot of recesses. And there was a particular bill, dealing with cable television on the agenda, and I'm not sure if I stood up and declared my potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. So at this time, I know we can't change that, but in the spirit of transparency and openness, I'd like to let everybody know that I apologize if I had not stood up on Tuesday. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have a sad announcement about the passing of a sports icon yesterday, Andy Ganigan. He was a Waipahu boy. He represented Waipahu and the State very well, during his career in the '70s and '80s. He's a world champion boxer, and again he represented Hawaii with great heart and great attitude.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, he was a National Guard Member, in his service to our State and to our country. He had passed due to some complications due to some brain injuries he sustained in an unprovoked attack two years ago. They called him the Sugar Man to pay homage to Waipahu and the many communities who had sugar plantations. So at the appropriate time, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a moment of silence."

Representative Giugni: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I've been nominated, since I'm the newest, and called the freshman, here. So on behalf of the freshman class, I'd like to thank each and every one of you, for your support, your patience, your guidance, your mentorship. Thank you, very much, for all of you. It's been an incredible experience. Mahalo."

Representative Mizuno: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We're moments away from ending the Session, and I'd be remiss if I didn't thank my fine staff. They've been fiercely loyal; to me, May, Michael, Christine and Josephine. I thank all of our staffs: HMSO, Minority Staff Office, LRB, Clerk's, Sergeant-at-Arms, DAGS.

"And I'd also like share a kind, heartfelt mahalo to some of our lawmakers that may be going to different places, two in particular. A very good friend of mine, that we've disagreed, and we've agreed on bills. And I get the process, Mr. Speaker. It doesn't have to be personal. I just wish them well and I hope that our paths will cross again. I wanted them to know that I love them, and that's the Representative from Ewa Beach, and my brother from another mother from Kalihi, lower Kalihi. I'm going to miss them. And a couple other members, that might be going to the other Chamber. I'm going to miss them too. I just wanted to thank them, and let them know that it's been a pleasure working with them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for being the great Speaker that you are, for being very democratic throughout this whole Session. You have a lot of patience, especially with some people, we won't mention names. But during the interim, may God keep you in his graces, and bless you. See you all next year, again. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Members, I know that one of our good friends, and my right-hand woman, Vice Chair Lee, went through an extraordinary year, and remained at the task at hand. I just wanted her to know that as we leave the Chamber this afternoon that we are all part of her family, and part of her ohana. And that she should reach out to us, and feel near to us as we depart this Chamber.

"So what we have here, Vice Chair Lee, Marilyn, is a Certificate of Commendation, honoring, one of our colleagues, the one and only Representative Sam Lee. It's something that we wanted you to take home and maybe share with your kids later on this summer. But it contains the personalized signatures of all the Members, all your colleagues here, both Republicans and Democrats. We all wanted you to know, while we can't be with you every day, we want to be with you in this way. So Marilyn, please."

Representative M. Lee: "Marcus, and Speaker, and Representatives. I just wanted to thank you so much for the support that I've received from the Members of the House, during this time. I think, if I hadn't had you all, it would have been much more difficult for myself. Thank you so very much. We will cherish this."

Representative Cabanilla: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I just want to publicly announce my well wishes to my cohort, my colleague from Ewa Beach, that she's now leaving our Chamber to move on to bigger and better things to serve the communities of the Leeward side. I just want to say, congratulations in advance. I know you'll do it. And you did a wonderful job in this Chamber. We're going to miss you, and don't forget the interests of this Body as you move on to the City Council, because we will be working with you. Congratulations, and thank you, Representative Pine."

Speaker Say: "Thank you, very much. Any further announcements at this time? The Chair has four announcements to make at this time, with happiness. We have four individuals that are maybe leaving, or two of them are leaving. So I would like to ask Representative Cindy Evans to present a gavel to the Vice Speaker, Representative Joey Manahan. Would you like to say a few words? 'Don't take the TAT away from me,' right?"

Representative Manahan: "That's coming. No, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much, for this opportunity. And thank you very much, Members, and Speaker for this wonderful symbol of my service here. You know, in these last days, I've been thinking about what this experience has meant, and what these Chambers mean to me. And while at different times, I've played various roles within these Chambers, they have all been significant in my overall journey. But truly, it is the people with whom you share the space and time that gives this place its meaning. To all of us in here today, you have made my experience here profoundly fulfilling and have shown me that what I have never thought was possible, is possible.

"As a staffer, as a student, I never thought I'd be a State Representative, much less, the Vice Speaker, presiding at the rostrum. Never in my wildest dreams. Nothing prepares you, really for this. I remember you saying that to me, Mr. Speaker, and how you welcomed us as a freshman class in Room 329. You said, 'Nothing's going to prepare you for this,' but I'm grateful to you, all of you, for this privilege.

"I will always be bound by the memories we have created and shared of each other, and the relationships we have forged in this building and in these Chambers. I have learned much from all of you, and I take a little piece of each and every one of you, with me in my heart. You know, I knew this day would come, but you never really think this is going to arrive until it does.

"So in thinking about my journey, it still hasn't hit me that I'm departing, although it's starting to right now. And only yesterday, I started to realize, when we were having our fellowship with Mayor Billy Kenoi, he mentioned that we are connected by our values. And so, I'd just like to impart a few pearls of wisdom that I learned in here, in working with you, Mr. Speaker, and all of you. The first one being: Your word is your bond. And I think all of us know that. Our life and death depends on that. Stay close to your family and your home. Drink the Kool-Aid, but don't get consumed by it. And be wary of the hype.

"Take advantage of every opportunity – I learned that from you Mr. Speaker, but don't cross the line. And the line is the line in the sand that we draw. I think individually we all have that line, and each one of us knows where that is, and for as long as you stay within your limits, and your known limits, then your decisions, the ones you will have to live with, I think you'll be okay.

"I learned this next one from Speaker Emeritus, who, when I think I was still a freshman when we were going through the SuperFerry trials, I remember that there's nothing that can't be undone. You know, the Legislature holds the trump card. I think he said that, and there's nothing that can't be undone.

"And finally, don't forget why we set off on this journey in the first place. Remember what brought us here.

"So with that, I just want to give a special thanks to the 29th District, all my constituents, for placing their trust and confidence in me. I've served you honorably, and to the best of my ability.

"To Representative Dennis Arakaki, and Senator Donna Mercado Kim for their encouragement in giving me my start. To my freshman class, specially my jefe, Sharon, and Jimmy, for always looking out for me. Sincerely, I appreciate that. To Kyle and to Jerry, as well as the late Bob Nakasone, for being my home away from home. Of course, I can't go without saying, thank you to my very good friends, Ryan, Henry, and Ty, for all their support and faith. To Ryan especially, who I know is a friend to the end. Speaker Say, for sharing all your mana'o and your vision. I am truly grateful to have served under you. To all the staff at HMSO, LRB, the House Sergeant-at-Arms, our Chief Clerk CJ and the Chief Clerk's Office, the Speaker's Office. You know, you guys really run the show for us on the frontline, the frontlinesmen and women.

"To my staff and everyone who brought me to today, I am grateful. To Keiki, to Karen, to Ian, to Radiant, my mom for always being there for me. And of course, last but not least, my greatest supporter and my strongest ally, my wife, Ma'an.

"Finally, I'd like to leave you with these words from Edgar Allen Poe. It is an untitled poem, and for some reason, way back, I committed it to memory. Today I realize the relevance of these words, and I share it with you, as my final thought in these Chambers, and it goes like this.

I heed not that my earthly lot
Hath little of Earth in it
That years of love have been forgot
In the hatred of a minute:
I mourn not that the desolate
Are happier, sweet, than I,
But that you sorrow for my fate
Who am a passer by.

"Thank you, very much."

Speaker Say: "And now from across the aisle, a beautiful woman who will be leaving this Chamber, Representative Kym Pine. Gene."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, a few remarks. I thought this was going to be easy. You know, this is difficult, because it takes so much energy to get here, and everybody put in so much of their life to be here. So parting is such sweet sorrow. Breaking up is hard to do. Leaving is hard to do. Transitioning is hard to do. But when you've got running through you, the spirit of Alexander Hamilton, Ferdinand Marcos, those people who were leaders and overcame all emotional or other objections, they rose to the occasion. And young lady, you serve the people of Hawaii well. You've honored us. And be like somebody who may be coming over from the City Council. Once you get termed out, you come back to us.

"But Mr. Speaker, I want you to know also, prior to this Session, this was a female-dominated Caucus, with the advent of the three new males, we have a balance. Having said that, one of her closest friends would not allow this event to take place without a few words from Corrine Ching, who is her closest seatmate, who is going to say something before I present the gavel. Corrine."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do appreciate this time. One of the best things about, I think, being an elected official, is the people you get to serve with. That they help you grow. And as the Minority Leader did mention, there was a time when there was mostly just women. And one day, I did look across the table in our Caucus Room at the many women, and I thought, my goodness, I think I serve with lionesses.

"Today, my friend, Kym Pine, kind of like Nala the lion, she moves on to new pride lands. I have been inspired by my friend. Some people think we're related. See my sister here, because she has made me so proud in her courage, her integrity. We know she's strong. We know she's beautiful. But she's intelligent, articulate, and she chooses the path less followed. She has stood for so many great things, defending a murder victim, our nation's flag, surfing reserves. And she is herself an accomplished athlete, which I'm so proud of her. She never, never gives up.

"And should there ever be someone in need, whether it be the homeless in Ewa Beach, or it be a new staff member, a newbie, in the words of some in the surfing community, you know, Kym would go. Kym, you know, you've been such an inspiration. I'll miss you, my sister."

Representative Ward: "On behalf of the Minority and Majority, this is your gavel, with our thanks and appreciation."

Representative Pine: "My last rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. I've got a gavel now."

Speaker Say: "How fast power gets to your head."

Representative Pine: "Well, Mr. Speaker, it's official. Despite all the rumors, I have made it confirmed. I am leaving this Chamber, hopefully to serve the people in City Hall. Your two haolepinos are finally leaving together. I'm so excited about taking this journey with you.

"I first met Joey, when we were both staffers. We didn't know what the heck was going on, and who was who. And we just said, 'Hey you're Filipino. I'm Haole and Filipino. Oh my God. We're haolepinos.' So we had our own Caucus going, Mr. Speaker, but we didn't tell anybody.

"You know, how do you say good bye? I have been here since 1997, and I never thought I'd actually be sitting right here. Every day I think my constituents are crazy to think that I can lead them, but I'm so honored and I'm so grateful. You know, my grandfather came here from the Philippines. He was that rebel Marcos that said, 'I'm going to America, to make something of myself.' He traveled across torturous seas, and said, 'I just want each generation to do better than the next.'

"I was so honored to see my grandmother here today, because we almost lost her, just a few weeks ago. But she's a stubborn Marcos, Mr. Speaker. And she wasn't going to miss this day. One of my mentors, Abigail Shaw, when I used to complain to her, and say 'Ah, politics is too hard. You work hard, they hate you. You don't work hard, they hate you. You try hard, they hate you. You do good, they hate you. You do bad, they hate you.' And she said, 'Oh this is not hard, Kym. Your grandmother worked on a plantation and lived in poverty. Nothing will ever be harder than that.' So I thank this Body for the incredible learning experience.

"I thank my staff who's here today, Kauai, and Linda, and Kim, and Kaylee. They will be here, when no one else is here. I assign them nothing, and they do everything. That is a dream staff. And my husband, Brian. When we first got married, we didn't really see each other much, because he was off in war deployment. But I couldn't do this job without you. I love you. I've learned from each person.

"I first came here pissed off because my community was neglected. We had no roads. There was traffic. Fix it, Rep. Pine. So I was a little feisty in the beginning, and I apologize. Marcus Oshiro, peace dude. But there's one person that taught me the most important learning experience and message, and that is my former Chief of Staff, John Gollner. You know, the problem about doing adlib speeches is you don't practice the emotion part. You don't realize you're going to cry till you're saying it. But John has been with me since my first Legislative Session. He came into my office as this buff, tan Marine. He was very cocky. He's still cocky. But you know, then he got deployed to Iraq, and he didn't come back the same. He fought for all of us so bravely, Mr. Speaker. And he comes here still today. My brother.

"Those of you who don't know, because of the war he lost his vision, and most of his hearing. And he was my Chief of Staff. He was a couple hours late to work, and he finally got in. And I'm like, 'John, what the heck's going on? We've got Crossover.' And he says, 'I'm sorry Rep. I lost all my vision today, and it took me a while to get here.' And I said, 'Why are you here if you can't see?' And he said, 'I'm never going to give up. I'm never going to let anything get me down. And at the very least, in my lifetime, I'm going to always show up, no matter what's against me.' That makes me very proud that despite all of the disabilities that he has incurred from the war, that he's going to try his best to replace me here. Only fate can decide who gets to be here, but it's the fact that he's going to try, that inspires me tremendously.

"Representative Tsuji. How are you? You're supposed to say something else. How are you?"

Representative Tsuji: "Me fine. You fine. We all fine."

Representative Pine: "I'm really going to miss that. And I'm going to miss Tom Brower. I'm going to invite you for our invocations over at City Hall. I'm going to miss John Mizuno. I have never met anyone that cared so much about everything. But you know, if there's someone that's not listening to you, they will find an open heart in his staff and himself, and sometimes that's what is needed.

"My sister from Kapolei, Sharon Har. I finally realized the reason we always have tension, is because she's Korean and I'm Filipino and Irish. We should have really started our relationship in the beloved Bob Nakasone's office on a regular basis. We would have really enjoyed each other. To my Filipino brothers who've always taken care of me, Reps. Manahan, and Aquino, and Cullen. Thank you very much. And of course, Rep. Nishimoto for always making sure... he's not here. Hopefully someone will dress as well as him one day.

"But I do want to thank this Body, because I came here, because my community was neglected. We were in distress for not having appropriate roads. The worst traffic in the State. The most overcrowded schools in the State. There was trash just everywhere, and graffiti everywhere. The community got together with me, and said, 'Hey, we're done with just enough. Now we want the best.'

"So, I thank this Body who gave us all those new roads, the new schools. I thank you for the zipper lane. Thank you. I thank you this year, for saving our hospitals. We were in dire need of an ambulance and new hospital. I've had my toughest year, personally as a leader this year, Mr. Speaker. And it has not been easy for my family who has been attacked so much. But I decided to learn from my great Chief of Staff in the belief of never surrendering, and always believing that good always prevails over evil, in every instance. And so I decided to take a bad and help other people, and I sincerely thank this Body for passing almost all the cyber crime bills this year. You have no idea of the number people that you will save.

"I thank the House staff and CJ for putting up with me. The Sergeant-at-Arms, all of our research staffs, and especially the Minority. You are my brothers and sisters, my aunty. I am continually amazed that you come here every day as if nothing ever happened the day before. You fight for your cause. That's what government should be about.

"And so as I leave you, I wish you things like this. Before you start to campaign, I wish you a beautiful sunset. I wish for you to take the time to feel the sand between your toes. For those that have kids, I wish you the ability to actually watch that baseball game of your kid. But most importantly, I wish you something I've learned that has helped me wake up every morning so excited to be here.

"Forget your personal histories between each other. Wake up each day as if nothing happened the day before, and that you've met your colleague for the first time. Then each issue will be judged on its merit and not by your personal history. Mahalo, for all the learning experiences. Mahalo."

Speaker Say: "There are three more individuals that this Body would like to recognize. Two of them, right now, are from the Big Island. I call these two individuals the 'Limbo Representatives.' Chair Herkes, I have Speaker Souki presenting you with a gavel. And Representative Har, a gavel to Representative Chang, please.

"Why I say you are in limbo is, well Chair Chang, you haven't taken out any papers for the House or Senate. And Chair Herkes, you've taken out papers for the House and Senate. So if any of you ever get re-elected to the State House, please return the gavel, okay. Bob."

Representative Herkes: "Mr. Speaker, 12 years ago, you gave me one of these. So you want me to give this one back now? Mr. Speaker, as you said, I have no idea where I'm going to be next year. If the three judge panel sides with the plaintiffs and throws everything out, I might be back here running for my existing seat. So I took out papers for this seat. If they lose, and the Reapportionment Commission lines stand, then I will run for the new Senate seat on the Big Island that does not have an incumbent.

"I brought my public relations duck with me today, Quack. He's been campaigning with me for 28 years, and had a lot to do with me getting here. So I just thought, if I do leave, the least I could do is to bring Quack along. Quack's been in the Senate. He's been in the Council. You know, I have a strange political career, Mr. Speaker, and I've been introduced Councilman Senator Representative Republican Democrat Herkes, which kind of sums it all up.

"So I don't know what's going to be added to that. I've been a freshman four times. The last time was in '02. I advised those of you that referred me as a freshman to go to hell, because I'd already been in office 12 years, and so I didn't appreciate that.

"Mr. Speaker, I want to tell you, the last 7 years as Chair of CPC has been an incredible challenge. And the support that I've gotten from all of you, the support that I've gotten from HMSO, LRB, all of you over there.

Georgette always trying to think of something nice to say about me. The Clerk's Office, Sergeant-at-Arms, and especially my staff, particularly in the last two years. The work that we did on mortgage foreclosures, I think, was remarkable. And all of you, all of you can rejoice and be proud of that.

"If I move across the street, over there, I certainly will remember all of you, and all of the support that you've given me in all of the years that I've been here. And if I'm back here, God bless you. I'll give this back. Aloha."

Representative Chang: "You're right Mr. Speaker. I'm in limbo. June 5th. So, I have several different options. One that I don't want to do, is run against an incumbent, especially a friend that I've served with. And another is moving on to the Senate, which I really enjoy being here. I enjoy the friendship, and the Leadership, and the staff, and everybody who's been so supportive for me.

"I don't want to take too much time, because I may be back here, or I may be in the Senate. But I just wanted to convey something that I have; a saying that has guided me throughout my life. I've been through many different challenges, but the one saying that I've always kept in mind, that I've heard and I don't know where I got it, or who said it, but it goes like this:

To be the best that you can be, you need to surround yourself with people who expect more of you, than you do.

"And for all of you here, I think that's what you've done for me. Especially for you, Mr. Speaker. I've served with you for the past 24 years. I've known you when I was, well we both were very young, especially you. You were the Water, Land Chairman and the first time I looked at him, and I said, 'God, this young kid is running this Committee.'

"So I was very impressed with you, and you've always been a friend. Whether you were in leadership, or on the outs, you were still a very, very good friend. Speaker Souki, thank you also for your leadership. For all of my friends here, thank you all. I've learned a lot. And I will be around, so don't worry about me. I'll be around. Thank you, very much."

Speaker Say: "And finally, a young man who has given so much to this particular Chamber throughout his career. This is a young man who is now working in the Governor's Office. We'd like to call Blake Oshiro to come on to the Floor of the House to receive your gavel, which you did not get, when you had resigned. Would you like to say a few words, Mr. Blake Oshiro?"

Mr. Blake Oshiro: "Wow, this is quite a surprise, and I am extremely honored to have been called back here. I just got a text saying that I've got to come now. So I thought there was some bill that was about to die, so I ran down. And now I have the pleasure of hearing all of you guys speak again, and really longing for those days when I used to be here.

"People ask me all the time, 'Do I miss it?' And my first answer is, no. But I do miss the people. I miss all of you, truly. I really, really do. When I think back on being here 11 years ago, and how much personally I've grown, and how much you folks have all given me in terms of opportunities to explore my own leadership potential. I never thought that the path I started on, 11 years ago would take me to the 5th Floor. So I am extremely, extremely honored for all of you, for giving me that opportunity.

"There were a couple of friends, Sylvia and Scott, that first asked me to run, and I laughed in their face. Then I eventually decided to run. Then Speaker took me under his wing and since then, I've grown into some leadership roles. And with all of that, I am extremely, extremely honored. I will miss all of you. And I miss the debates. Sometimes. Watching them from afar is much better than sitting here, sometimes. But I am glad to hear that at least one of my phrases will constantly be echoed throughout these halls at least for the time being, and that's, 'Please remember to read the bill.' Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward gave his closing remarks on behalf of the Minority as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If my memory, but I distinctly remember looking at the Majority Leader, and saying, 'If you would read the bill ... If the Representative would have read the bill ...' But you said it so nicely, and you will be remembered for that.

"Just like we will remember this Session, Mr. Speaker, because as leaders, we have to be able to see the future. We have to be able to see the future. But because of the economy and the downturn, our mirrors are a little foggy. But we have a vision, that each of us, when we were elected, was sent here for. So I want to encourage everybody, shine, polish that vision. You're here for a purpose. There's a greater purpose for the State of Hawaii. You are all here, and we have to remember what we accomplished this Session. Just two lessons learned, Mr. Speaker.

"One, when the economy is strong, we are strong. Look at the difference of the enthusiasm on the Floor that we left this year. We are going to be leaving in a few minutes, this year, versus the way we left last year, not knowing where the money was going to come from. All the people were going to be out of the inspection position. The people who were the needy, and the down-and-out were going to be hurting. Mr. Speaker, we have to keep the economy strong.

"Secondly, when our environment is strong, we are strong. And I want to thank my colleagues, the ones who have reclaimed the mantle of the Teddy Roosevelt Party. I'm really proud of you guys and what you've done. And for you, Mr. Speaker, and all the Majority and what you guys have done in keeping the ship of state afloat. Keeping us strong. Keeping us optimistic. And Mr. Speaker, all the arrows that I've seen in your back, thank you for being tough. Thank you for the thick skin that you've developed over these many years.

"But for all that we've done, we still have a long ways to go. It's been a great pleasure and honor, and we look forward to even more challenges and success in the future. God bless you. God bless you all."

Representative Chong gave his closing remarks on behalf of the Majority as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, over this past Session, your Majority Caucus has done a lot of good things, over the last two years, and a lot to be proud of. I know you'll be speaking to that in a little while, but I just wanted to, first, thank you for the opportunity to serve as the Leader, and to all my Majority members, for their support and patience.

"I'd like to thank the Minority for working with us this year. I'd also like to thank all those support staff offices, the Chief Clerk and your office, the Sergeants and your office, HMSO and all the staff. Georgette, for the Communications Office. I'd also like to thank my counterpart, Brickwood Galuteria, for working, and establishing that bridge between the House and the Senate. Also my staff, Janis, Ben, and all the others who supported me, and worked hard to support the Majority.

"Finally, to the freshman class this year, of the Majority. You did really well. I think you will make not just your constituents proud, but this Body proud. And again, thank you very much."

Speaker Say then gave his closing remarks as follows:

"In my closing remarks, let's talk about the accomplishments. Let's talk about the accomplishments. These accomplishments are the result of our early, and continuous cooperation with the Senate, the Administration, and the House. At the beginning of Session, the Legislature proceeded to move bills to address imminent problems. Three bills that, you can all recall, were reported out of carryover Conference Committees, were passed by both houses, and signed into law in February by the Governor.

"H.B. No. 608, which became Act 1, which provided State assistance to the Queen's Medical Center for an Organ Transplant Center, in the wake of the closure of the Hawaii Medical Center.

"S.B. 239, which became Act 2, extended the funding for the John A. Burns School of Medicine with tobacco settlement funds, an action necessary for the viability of the operations of the school.

"H.B. 809, which became Act 3, authorized the University of Hawaii to issue $100 million more in revenue bonds for the State of Hawaii, and that was intended to fund construction projects for the economic revitalization.

"Through January and February, the Legislature fast tracked H.B. 2096, a bill to prevent a substantial increase during calendar year 2012, of the unemployment insurance contribution rates for businesses. If not for the bill, businesses would have had to absorb a multimillion dollar increase in their unemployment insurance contributions, thereby diverting capital from other, more productive purposes. H.B. 2096 was passed by the Legislature, and on March 9th, signed by the Governor as Act 6.

"Perhaps the most notable of the early Session accomplishments, the Legislature, with all of your support, expedited the passage of S.B. 2783. Representative Ward, you know what that bill is all about. S.B. 2783? This was the OHA Public Land Trust Agreement. Passage of such legislation had eluded the Legislature for many years, and for me, being here, number three was a charm in getting it done. This Session was different because of the prevailing spirit of cooperation. At the urging of Governor Abercrombie and OHA, the Legislature passed S.B. 2783 and it was signed into law as Act 15 on April 4th.

"This House has taken a lot of initiatives where we have been doing it very quietly. I want to thank Representative Ken Ito for a job well done, in educating the Members in what is in store in regards to the Japan opala that is now traveling across the Pacific to the West Coast, and then back to Hawaii. I want to thank Representative Tom Brower for his research in regards to the tectonic plates of the Northwest, whereby, someday, when those two plates collide, there will be a tsunami. And third, Representative Yamane, thank you very much for the work that you are doing in regards to addressing a major issue that will probably occur this month, which is the closure of Tesoro.

"We are proactive, here in this House. It's just that we don't communicate what we are doing sometimes, and it's maybe because of our style, maybe my style. The old style of the Oriental. You don't have to brag. Just do it. The spirit of cooperation has continued until the end of the Session.

"The Legislature can point to many worthy bills that have passed in the areas of economic revitalization and jobs, and growth. Angus, thank you. And Isaac, and the Committee members. Renewable energy, Chair Coffman. Public employee pension reform, Chair Rhoads. Health and Human Services, Chair Yamane and Chair Mizuno. Agriculture, Chair Tsuji. Congratulations for your inspectors and your dogs in preventing invasive species. Chair Takumi, thank you very much for your efforts in regards to the Charter School reform, early learning funding, and other areas of no less importance to the people of the State of Hawaii.

"But why are we in the House the ones that are very successful? We could not have accomplished any of this without our staffs. I thank them for their efforts. Foremost, thank you to the permanent and session staff members of our respective offices, your office managers and your session employees. They had to put up with us, as well as the daily work grind. Thank you, to House Chief Clerk CJ Leong, House Sergeant-at-Arms Kevin Kuroda, and their staffs, for a job well done in operating the legislative process and the operations of the Chambers and the Conference Rooms, etc.

"Thank you for the House Majority Staff Office, Director Joan, if you're listening to us. Joan Yamaguchi of the House Majority Staff Office who did a lot of the work. And the House Minority Research Office Director Beth Fukumoto, and their staffs. Also, thanks should go out to Mr. Rich Dvorch, our House Chief Attorney, and Mr. Jim Funaki, our House Special Counsel.

"Next, I would like to thank Chair Oshiro and Vice Chair Lee. Thank you to Nan, and the staff of the Finance Committee. Thank you, also to those who we all go and visit, the Legislative Reference Bureau, which is Charlotte Carter-Yamauchi, and the Legislative Reference Bureau staff. And also we have to thank an individual, and a group of employees that withstood the time of day, as far as the recording and televising of our Conference and Committee meetings, and that goes out to Glenn Booth, and the Capitol TV.

"Finally Members, I thank you all for mostly being collegial, frequently enlightening, and definitely productive during the Regular Session of 2012. So in closing, I am honored and humbled to have served as a Speaker for you, because you are the people of high-quality character, dedication and accomplishments. You folks did it. And we're all a part of it. So in closing, aloha and best wishes to all of you on your re-election, or your election.

"And at this time, may we all stand for a moment of silence in remembering a sports figure who has contributed so much. Mr. Andrew Ganigan."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of former world lightweight boxing champion and Hawaii Sports Hall of Famer, Andrew (Andy) "Hawaiian Punch" Ganigan.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 46

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate [sic] Bill No. 46, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Housing."

The stated purpose of this bill is to prohibit smoking of tobacco or any other plant material in all public housing projects, state and federal, owned and administered by the Hawaii Public Housing Authority. The bill would ban smoking within the residential units, designated common areas, and within twenty feet of any building, and smoking would only be allowed in designated smoking areas that are not within twenty feet of any building. The bill would take effect upon my approval.

I agree with the underlying objective of the bill. Smoking is a public health issue and we should encourage our citizens to stop, but I agree with the Hawaii Public Housing Authority that implementing an incremental ban throughout the housing projects within the next twelve months is a practical path to a successful plan. It is a fact that a number of the residents are chronic smokers and it would be difficult to expect them to stop immediately. Further, establishing designated smoking areas runs counter to what is desired for making public housing smoke-free.

The Authority has already held meetings and discussions with various tenant associations at the housing projects to provide sufficient notice to the residents of the coming smoking ban, and has established a schedule of when specific housing projects will be required to implement the smoking ban. Additionally, the Authority is already drafting proposed administrative rules to implement the smoking ban consistent with the provisions of the bill. Accordingly, I believe the Authority should be allowed the opportunity to continue to implement the objective of the bill using its own administrative discretion.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate [sic] Bill No. 46 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 283, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to State Funds."

The purposes of this bill are to: (1) authorize the transfer during fiscal year 2012-2013 of $196,000 from the Agricultural Loan Revolving Fund to the Pest Inspection, Quarantine, and Eradication Fund; and (2) appropriate $196,000 for fiscal year 2012-2013 from the Pest Inspection, Quarantine, and Eradication Fund to be expended by the Department of Agriculture for a program to control and eradicate the coffee berry borer, including the destruction of feral coffee trees.

The transfer and use of moneys from the Agricultural Loan Revolving Fund for coffee berry borer control and eradication is not necessary. The Department of Agriculture has barrel tax funds available for control and eradication of this pest. Use of its barrel tax funds will enable the Department of Agriculture to address the coffee berry borer infestation while also preserving the use of moneys in the Agricultural Loan Revolving Fund to effectively promote agricultural development in the State.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 283 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1617, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Lands."

The purposes of this bill are to: (1) authorize the Board of Land and Natural Resources to extend, for a period not longer than fifty-five years, commercial, hotel, resort, and industrial leases, when the lessee makes qualifying substantial improvements to the leased land; and (2) provide fair compensation when leased public land for agricultural and pastoral uses is withdrawn, condemned, or taken for public purposes. The compensation shall be in the form of rent reduction, value of permanent improvements, crop value, livestock value, or costs attributable to the diminished use of the land.

Part I of the bill on commercial, hotel, resort, and industrial lease extensions is so broad as to cover virtually every such Department of Land and Natural Resources lease transaction in the state. The bill will allow a lessee to keep exclusive use of public lands for up to 120 years, which is beyond the lifespan of the business owner and unfair to other businesses who desire an opportunity to bid on and use public lands. There is nothing to prevent present lessees from re-bidding subject lands in any subsequent offering. I have no objection to part II of the bill on agricultural and pastoral leases and will work with stakeholders next session to pass these provisions again.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1617 without my approval.

Respectfully,

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1671

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1671, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Procurement."

The purposes of this bill are to: (1) require the State Procurement Office to keep statistics on various aspects of protests for the purpose of improving procurement procedures; (2) replace references to the "chief procurement officer" with "procurement officer"; (3) make final and not subject to appeal, the written determination of a procurement officer to lift the automatic stay imposed by the receipt of a protest; (4) require the procurement officer to compile a record of the protest; (5) establish and require different procedures for the administrative review of protests of solicitations and awards, and the administrative review of decisions to assess fines, suspend, and debar; and (6) impose time limits to expedite the protest review process, including time limits in which (a) the procurement officer must resolve a protest, issue a decision, and transmit the protest record to the hearings officer, (b) the hearings officer must commence an administrative review and issue a decision, and (c) the circuit court must issue a decision.

The legislative intent that this bill will expedite the protest review process may be difficult to achieve because of the operational burdens the bill imposes on the procuring agencies. This bill requires procuring agencies to compile a record of the protest, and states the record shall include as applicable, oral testimony, exhibits, and proposed findings of fact. These elements suggest a contested case type of proceeding must occur at the procuring agency level. I believe that requiring procuring agencies to conduct such a contested case proceeding may prove difficult for those agencies that do not otherwise conduct contested case hearings and lack experienced staff for such purpose. All agencies, regardless of their resources, will need to assign and train personnel to conduct these proceedings and compile a record of the proceedings. Currently, the protest review process at the agency level is much more informal. The formal review of the agency decision is conducted by the hearings officers at the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, who already are trained and experienced in conducting contested case type administrative hearings. This bill may create delays by shifting the adjudicatory process from the hearings officers to the agencies and requiring the agencies to grapple with the details of conducting a contested case type of hearing.

Further, because this bill would take effect on July 1, 2012, it would be difficult for the State Procurement Office to timely draft and conduct procurement training for all state agencies so that they could comply with the new protest review procedures required by this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1671 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1984

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1984, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Hawaiian Language."

The two purposes of this bill are to: (1) establish February as "'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month"; and (2) celebrate and encourage the use of the Hawaiian language by, among other things, requiring that effective January 1, 2013, all Hawaiian words that are included in documents and letterhead prepared by or for state and county agencies and officials, and all emblems and symbols representative of the State, its departments, agencies, and political subdivisions, are properly spelled, punctuated, and diacritically marked.

This bill has laudable and aspirational goals. However, the bill is so broad that it does not take into account the number of instances that Hawaiian words, particularly place names, are included in the myriad of documents state and county agencies type, print, or handwrite every day. Nor does the bill adequately address the resources required to assure that all Hawaiian words are spelled, punctuated, and diacritically marked correctly.

Additionally, the consequences of not properly spelling, punctuating, or diacritically marking a Hawaiian word used in a document a state or county agency prepares are unclear. Words used in a document prepared by a government agency should be accurate, appropriate, and spelled and diacritically marked correctly. However, despite proofreading and spell-checks, documents state and county agencies prepare may include words that are misspelled or incorrectly marked diacritically. State and county agencies routinely prepare documents that are, or could be legally significant. Given this reality, it would be imprudent to implement this measure without knowing the effect of a misspelled word in a contract, deed, order, or judgment a state or county agency or court prepares, because of the possibility that such documents might be rendered invalid or unenforceable.

Alternatively, February will be designated "'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month" by proclamation. Furthermore, a working group will be established to evaluate these issues, and determine how to implement these goals without creating unnecessary challenges.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1984 without my approval.

The purpose of this bill is to require law enforcement agencies to accept cash bail, certified copies of pre-filed bail bonds, and original bail bonds when the court is closed, including nights, weekends, and holidays, to facilitate the prompt release of a detainee.

The Department of Public Safety does not have the staff, funds, and facilities to provide these additional services. It should be noted that the Department currently does not accept cash bail at any time, at any of its correctional centers. The Department is unable to provide adequate and appropriate staffing, twenty-four hours a day, seven days of the week, including all holidays, to accept and process cash bail and bonds.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2214

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2214, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Collective Bargaining."

The purpose of this bill is to amend chapter 89 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) to transfer from the Legislature to an arbitration panel the authority to decide amounts of contributions paid by the public employers to the Hawaii Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund ("EUTF") in case of disputes or impasses between the unions and the public employers. This would make the arbitration award as to EUTF contributions final and binding on the parties.

This bill is objectionable because it is inappropriate. In 1984 when the Legislature amended section 89-9, HRS, to mandate collective bargaining over "the amounts of contributions by the State and respective counties to the Hawaii public employees' health fund," the Legislature specifically excluded amounts of contributions from arbitration as a means to resolve impasses or disputes. Instead, the Legislature retained the authority to make such decision if the parties have not reached an agreement. The alternative proposed by this bill, of specifically including amounts of contributions as a subject of arbitration, is counter-productive to collective bargaining and sound financial planning.

EUTF contributions comprise a large and growing portion of the State's budget, and an arbitration panel whose members are not accountable to the public should not make decisions regarding them. The fact that there is no history of actual public employer EUTF contribution arbitration awards in Hawaii also increases the uncertainty regarding a negative outcome for the financial stability of the State.

Further, if an arbitration award exceeds the amount that the public employers can afford to pay, an arbitration decision will be final and binding on the union and the public employer, and the public employer would be required to take whatever action is necessary to carry out and effectuate the arbitration award. The City of Scranton, Pennsylvania, recently experienced a similar scenario with disastrous results.

In Hawaii, an arbitration award would not be binding on the Legislature with regard to funding of cost items. Thus, legislative approval would still be required of any arbitration award. If the Legislature rejected the cost items, such matters would be returned to the parties for further negotiation. However, requiring the parties to renegotiate in a rapidly declining or unsettled fiscal situation in the wake of the arbitration proceedings serves only to highlight competing interests.

The involvement of multiple arbitration panels from different bargaining units subject to interest arbitration will increase the likelihood of variability in the EUTF contribution amounts, which would make the planning and administration of health premiums more difficult. Arbitration in these circumstances works against good faith collective bargaining.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2214 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2424, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Professional Employer Organizations."

The purpose of this bill is to facilitate the implementation of the professional employer organization law established by Act 129, Session Laws of Hawaii 2010. In 2007, the Legislature passed Act 225, relating to professional employer organizations (PEOs), now codified as chapter 373K, Hawaii Revised Statutes. The primary purpose of Act 225 was to provide a general excise tax exemption for PEOs. Act 225 also addressed rights and benefits of the employees and certain responsibilities as between the PEO and its client companies. In 2010, the Legislature passed Act 129, which is codified in chapter 373L, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requiring PEOs to register with the State.

Senate Bill No. 2424 repeals chapter 373K and amends chapter 373L, Hawaii Revised Statutes. The bill preserves the general excise tax exemption; amends certain definitions; and clarifies certain requirements for registration, including bonding.

PEOs need to be further regulated, beyond registration, and may require a licensing procedure. The interests of all – the consumer of PEO services; the worker who works under a PEO arrangement; the regulatory agencies; and the PEOs, large and small - need further consideration.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2424 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2536

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2536, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Clean and Sober Homes and Halfway Houses."

The purpose of this bill is to establish a clean and sober home and halfway house task force, to be chaired by the Director of Health, and for the task force to establish a pilot clean and sober home and halfway house on Oahu.

Section 14 of Article III of the Hawaii Constitution requires: "Each law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title." The title of this bill, "Relating to Clean and Sober Homes and Halfway Houses," contains two different subjects in violation of the Hawaii Constitution. The current laws defining "clean and sober homes" and "halfway houses" exist in section 46-4(f), Hawaii Revised Statutes. "Clean and sober homes" and "halfway houses," although similar, serve different types of residents and are structured differently. Therefore, the title of this bill expresses two different subjects, in conflict with Section 14 of Article III of the Hawaii Constitution.

In addition, one of the purposes for and responsibilities of the task force is "establishing a pilot clean and sober home and halfway house for a county with a population over 900,000." "Establish" means "to bring into existence," and a task force does not have the legal authority or means to establish either a clean and sober home or a halfway house. The task force would not be able to comply with this mandate.

The goals of the proposed task force are laudable, and efforts are underway by the Administration to further these goals. The Department of Health has already met with members of the Legislature, and representatives of the Judiciary, the Department of Public Safety, and the Department of the Attorney General, to set up a working group specifically to explore ways to develop a plan to ensure that clean and sober homes and halfway houses are properly monitored and accountable for meeting occupancy, zoning, and permitting requirements, and that the residents become respectful and responsible members of the communities in which they live.

Furthermore, the Justice Reinvestment Initiative Working Group is examining the issue of clean and sober homes and halfway houses and there are funds available for community programs such as those to support substance abuse treatment and the maintenance of sobriety.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2536 without my approval.

Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2640, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Wastewater."

The purpose of this bill is to allow the use of individual wastewater systems as an on-site means of wastewater disposal in lieu of a county sewer system if the wastewater system pre-dates the county sewer system, and if the county determines that allowing the individual wastewater system is fair and equitable.

It is more beneficial to public health and the environment to have wastewater collected thorough the county sewer system and treated by the county wastewater treatment plants.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2640 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor of Hawaii"

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

July 10, 2012

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2946

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2946, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Transportation."

The purposes of this bill are (1) to extend until June 30, 2016, the rental motor vehicle surcharge tax $7.50 per day that was increased in 2011; (2) to extend until June 30, 2016, the suspension of the rental motor vehicle customer facility charge under section 261-7(h), Hawaii Revised Statutes; (3) to amend section 251-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to require that $3 of the rental motor vehicle surcharge tax continue to be deposited in the State Highway Fund, but to change the $4.50 of the rental motor vehicle surcharge tax currently deposited in the general fund to be deposited instead in the Rental Motor Vehicle Customer Facility Charge Special Fund; and (4) to authorize the issuance of up to $500,000,000 of rental motor vehicle customer facility revenue bonds.

The bill fails to provide for the deposit of the $7.50 per day rental motor vehicle surcharge tax into the general fund. In addition, the bill, if enacted, will disproportionately affect residents and military families who rent cars at non-airport facilities and who must pay the motor vehicle surcharge tax.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2946 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2012

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 3017

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 3017, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Transient Accommodations Tax."

The purpose of this bill is to clarify that the $10 tax charged each day for a transient accommodation furnished on a complimentary or gratuitous basis applies to transient accommodations provided as a prize, but does not apply to transient accommodations provided for promotional or marketing purposes.

This bill expands amendments made by Act 103, Session Laws of Hawaii 2011, that, among other things, implemented the $10 tax on a transient accommodation provided on a complimentary or gratuitous basis. Specifically, this bill amends section 237D-2(c), Hawaii Revised Statutes, to clarify that the phrase "complimentary or gratuitous basis" includes prize giveaways, contest winnings, charitable gifts, and complimentary or gratuitous rooms furnished as part of a travel package, but does not include transient accommodations furnished as part of a tourism industry promotional or marketing activity.

This bill is not required because the Department of Taxation has already published comprehensive guidance in Tax Information Release No. 2011-05 that provides nineteen examples regarding the implementation of this particular tax on accommodations furnished on a complimentary or gratuitous basis. Furthermore, because this bill does not cover all the issues addressed by Tax Information Release No. 2011-05, enactment of this bill may create confusion for taxpayers who have relied upon that Tax Information Release.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 3017 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor of Hawaii"

Gov. Msg. No. 1401, transmitting a corrected statement of objections, previously transmitted on July 10, 2012, to H.B. No. 46, HD 2, SD 2, as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2012

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 46

Honorable Members
Twenty-Sixth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 46, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Housing."

The stated purpose of this bill is to prohibit smoking of tobacco or any other plant material in all public housing projects, state and federal, owned and administered by the Hawaii Public Housing Authority. The bill would ban smoking within the residential units, designated common areas, and within twenty feet of any building, and smoking would only be allowed in designated smoking areas that are not within twenty feet of any building. The bill would take effect upon my approval.

I agree with the underlying objective of the bill. Smoking is a public health issue and we should encourage our citizens to stop, but I agree with the Hawaii Public Housing Authority that implementing an incremental ban throughout the housing projects within the next twelve months is a practical path to a successful plan. It is a fact that a number of the residents are chronic smokers and it would be difficult to expect them to stop immediately. Further, establishing designated smoking areas runs counter to what is desired for making public housing smoke-free.

The Authority has already held meetings and discussions with various tenant associations at the housing projects to provide sufficient notice to the residents of the coming smoking ban, and has established a schedule of when specific housing projects will be required to implement the smoking ban. Additionally, the Authority is already drafting proposed administrative rules to implement the smoking ban consistent with the provisions of the bill. Accordingly, I believe the Authority should be allowed the opportunity to continue to implement the objective of the bill using its own administrative discretion.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 46 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie
NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor of Hawaii"

"Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: House Bill No. 2078, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1

On July 10, 2012, House Bill No. 2078, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Taxation," became law as Act 326 without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of this bill is to require any operator of a transient accommodation to designate a local contact residing on the same island as the transient accommodation, and to require that all advertisements and solicitations on websites for transient accommodations display registration identification numbers.

Concerns have been expressed to me that certain nongovernmental entities identified in this bill, such as condominium associations, will be subject to penalties under section 231-35, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), for not providing relevant information that is not maintained in the nongovernmental entities' records. I have confirmed with the Department of the Attorney General that neither this new law nor its legislative history supports this fear. This new law clearly provides that certain nongovernmental entities are only required to provide "all relevant information, maintained in its records, related to all operators who may be leasing their property as transient accommodations" (emphasis added). Page 4, lines 12-15. Conference Committee Report No. 64-12 also clearly reflects that it was the legislative intent to clarify that such nongovernmental entities "must provide the Department of Taxation with relevant information related to all owners of transient accommodations maintained in its records to avoid penalties" (emphasis added). Moreover, under the law, a nongovernmental entity is subject to the penalties under section 231-35, HRS, only if it "wilfully fails to supply information required" (emphasis added). Page 4, lines 18-19.

It appears that there are also concerns that the penalties that may be imposed may be excessive. If these nongovernmental entities "wilfully" fail to supply the information required under the new law, they are subject to a fine of not more than $25,000 provided that a corporation shall be fined not more than $100,000. This reflects the seriousness of the problems this bill attempts to address. Nonetheless, I will re-examine the penalties and consider proposing legislation to reduce the maximum fine next year.

Therefore, notwithstanding my concerns, I have allowed House Bill No. 2078, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, to become law as Act 326, on July 10, 2012, without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ Neil Abercrombie

Gov. Msg. No. 1444, dated July 11, 2012, informing the House that on July 10, 2012, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without his signature, stating:

"Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: House Bill No. 2320, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1

On July 10, 2012, House Bill No. 2320, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Highway Safety," became law as Act 327 without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purposes of this bill are to: (1) allow a person whose driver's license was revoked after December 31, 2010, to apply for a driver's license renewal; (2) allow a repeat intoxicated driver, who is arrested after December 31, 2010, and is otherwise eligible to operate a motor vehicle with an ignition interlock system, to obtain a motor vehicle registration and number plate, by requiring the Administrative Director of the Courts to remove any stopper imposed on the motor vehicle registration files; (3) to allow persons who have been convicted of habitually operating a vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant, pursuant to section 291E-61.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to continue driving with an ignition interlock device installed in their vehicles; (4) to allow persons, whose licenses were administratively revoked for their lifetimes, to petition the district court to initially drive with an ignition interlock device, and after a minimum of five years of operating a vehicle with an ignition interlock device, to petition the district court for an unrestricted license; and (5) to make housekeeping amendments to chapter 291E, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

Studies have shown that many drivers who have had their licenses revoked continue to operate their vehicles illegally and create a risk to other vehicles, pedestrians, and bicyclists on the road. I support efforts to include as many identified and impaired drivers as possible in an effective ignition interlock program, which this law attempts to do. However, this law does raise serious concerns. The provision of the law allowing people who have received lifetime license revocations to be relicensed may jeopardize public safety and give favorable treatment to the most serious offenders. The law also allows these same offenders to potentially be treated as first time offenders upon a subsequent conviction for operating a vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant. It will be necessary to amend this law in the next legislative session to provide for stricter monitoring and supervision of these serious offenders.

Despite these concerns, and in the hope that allowing more identified and impaired drivers into the ignition interlock program will make our roads safer, I allowed H.B. 2320, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 to become law as Act 327 without my signature.

Gov. Msg. No. 1445, dated July 11, 2012, informing the House that on July 10, 2012, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without his signature, stating:

"Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1

On July 10, 2012, House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Agriculture" became law as Act 328 without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of this bill is to establish as a class C felony the offense of false labeling of the geographic origin of Hawaii-grown coffee, mandate that Hawaii-grown coffee bean packages be marked with or contain documentation of the coffee's geographic origin, and repeal the requirement that Hawaii-grown green coffee beans be inspected and certified by the Hawaii Department of Agriculture for grade and origin.

The state has to protect the reputation of Hawaii-grown agricultural products, particularly products that are an iconic symbol of the islands. The process and resources that are currently in place need to be strengthened and made more comprehensive. This bill is a first step for the state Department of Agriculture to look at what is necessary to protect our state products. I will be asking the state Department of Agriculture to work with stakeholders to develop additional steps to accomplish this end.

Therefore, notwithstanding my concerns, I have allowed House Bill No. 280, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, to become law as Act 328, on July 10, 2012, without my signature.

Gov. Msg. No. 1446, dated July 11, 2012, informing the House that on July 10, 2012, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without his signature, stating:

"Dear President Tsutsui, Speaker Say, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: Senate Bill No. 2341, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1

On July 10, 2012, Senate Bill No. 2341, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Land Use" became law as Act 329 without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

The purpose of this bill is to allow overnight accommodations of twenty-one days or less for any one stay as a part of agricultural tourism within any county that includes at least three islands and has adopted ordinances regulating agricultural tourism activities and those tourism activities coexist with a bona fide agricultural activity. This bill will allow agricultural land owners an opportunity to supplement their income from agricultural operations with additional income from tourist accommodations.

Although I support efforts to increase Hawaii's self-sufficiency by encouraging agricultural production in Hawaii, there are legitimate concerns that the term "bona fide agricultural activity" is unnecessarily broad and could allow the unintended and excessive urbanization of agricultural lands. I will be asking the Legislature and the counties to review this new law and propose appropriate restrictions either in statute or ordinance to prevent this law from being abused.

Therefore, notwithstanding my concerns, I have allowed Senate Bill No. 2341, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, to become law as Act 329, on July 10, 2012, without my signature.
