

EIGHTH DAY

Tuesday, February 3, 2015

The House of Representatives of the Twenty-Eighth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2015, convened at 12:05 o'clock p.m., with Vice Speaker Mizuno presiding.

The invocation was delivered by Ms. Karina Yudharto of Representative Richard P. Creagan's Office, after which the Roll was called showing all Members present.

By unanimous consent, reading and approval of the Journal of the House of Representatives of the Seventh Day was deferred.

DEPARTMENTAL COMMUNICATIONS

The following departmental communications (Dept. Com. Nos. 59 and 60) were received by the Clerk and were placed on file:

Dept. Com. No. 59, from the University of Hawaii, dated January 30, 2015, transmitting the Annual Report on University of Hawaii Non-General Funds for FYE 2014, pursuant to Section 304A-106, Section 304A-2007, and Section 304A-2273, HRS, and Act 134, Section 129, SLH 2013.

Dept. Com. No. 60, from the Office of the Auditor, dated January 30, 2015, transmitting the Financial Statement Audit Reports for FY 2014 for: Department of Transportation, Administration Division; Department of Transportation, Harbors Division; and Hawaii Tourism Authority; and a revised super summary for the Hawaii Community Development Authority.

KA HUA 'ŌLELO O KA LĀ
HAWAIIAN WORD FOR THE DAY

Representative Keohokalole presented Ka Hua 'Ōlelo o Ka Lā, the Hawaiian Word for the Day, as follows:

"Aloha, Members. Today's Hawaiian Word for the Day is eō, which is pronounced E-O with a stress or a kahakō over the 'o'. So it sounds eō instead of eo. There's a difference, the other one means to lose. This means, to answer a call by name.

"So for example, during the roll when a name is called, to answer eō basically just means to say, yes, I am here, and it's used specifically when someone is calling you by name.

"If you use it in a sentence, it goes like this. Ua eō akua e ku'u makua. I call to my parent. So that's today's Hawaiian Word for the Day, eō. Mahalo."

INTRODUCTIONS

The following introductions were made to the Members of the House:

Representative Tupola introduced her intern, Daniel Ulu, a student from UH West Oahu.

Representative Pouha introduced Ms. Grace Liava'a, a community member involved with the UH Social Work program.

ORDER OF THE DAY

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Morikawa: "Mr. Speaker, thank you. This morning's flu shot had so many people show up I was very pleased to see that you came out for the betterment for all of us. But you have until 1:00 p.m. to get those shots, so for those who still can, please do. Just remember to bring your card. We had a couple of Representatives who had to take off their shirts, so if you have a nice short sleeve shirt, that would be better. Thank you."
