Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, good morning, sir. On this one I have reservations. I'd like to once again note, I'm a strong supporter of chemical castration for convicted rapists, but this one, I did not read the bill, but I'm concerned, and that's why I go reservations, how that would affect a married couple, if say they have three children, and when things were good, he rapes her, now the fourth child is conceived, their marriage is ending, does he lose parental rights for that child, even though they're still legally married? So I haven't read the bill, I don't know, but I just throw that out there as a red flag, sir. Thank you."

Representative Tupola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Please note my reservations. I just wanted to get testimony from the Judiciary to, I guess, ensure some of the concerns of my colleagues. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to cast a no vote on this one, Mr. Speaker. My remarks will be brief. The first sentence of the bill, 'The legislature finds that youth violence and truancy are a significant problem in many neighborhoods, a problem compounded by a lack of afterschool break programs and services. The 2005 Youth Gangs report by the office of youth services,' et cetera, et cetera.

"This is an anti-gang bill, anti-truancy bill, to provide services. But if you go to page 3, one of the anti-gang services we're going to provide is gender programming. It doesn't seem to be a fit to me, Mr. Speaker. What is gender programming? 'Gender refers to our social and psychological identity as males and females - what it means to be masculine or feminine in the society in which we live. Gender is not fixed.' That's news to me, Mr. Speaker. Apparently news to most biologists as well. 'It is a social construct, often shaped by other identities such as our class, ethnicity, age and religion, and it can and does change over time and across cultures.'

"Mr. Speaker, why is this in an anti-gang bill? I don't understand. Is this a Trojan Horse to get these social engineering programs everywhere? And it doesn't talk about anything about parental consent, at least at my first blush. And who are these counselors? Are these child psychiatrists, MDs who are behavioral specialists, going to address these children with gender identity disorder? At least that's what the Chief of Psychiatry at John Hopkins University calls it, not knowing it's a right-wing think tank. So for this reason, Mr. Speaker, this is a poison pill for me, and I'm going to vote no on it, sir. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. H.B. No. 1147, Relating to Health; Emergency Services Failsafe Program.

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, on behalf of Representative Mizuno and my office, tomorrow will the kick-off Fellowship Luncheon. All Representatives welcomed, all faiths, beliefs, ideologies. Lunch will be provided and we have a guest speaker from Fiji. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. That's tomorrow in Room 439. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee: "Thank you very much. Just to announce, the folks that we introduced this morning from all the various islands here to talk to us about fishing and everything else are having a reception, Thursday, tomorrow, at 8:00 a.m. in Room 224. It's to talk story with coffee and donuts. All are invited."

Representative Yamashita: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. It's with heavy heart that I request a moment of silence for our friend and colleague, Representative Mele Carroll, who passed away this morning at 3:50 a.m. There are many who have served these halls. Many have been loud and proud, and many have been quiet and effective. But my friend, Mele Carroll, had passion. She was a hard worker. Effective. But mostly to me she will be remembered as Mele. 'Nuff said. Thank you."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Representative Mele Carroll.
