THIRD READING

S.B. No. 332:

Representative Saiki moved that S.B. No. 332 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in strong support. I think it is vital that we honor Mahatma Gandhi. Two of his greatest teachings, not just to India but to the people of the world, are Ahimsa and Satyagraha. Ahimsa means nonviolence, and nonviolence doesn't just mean physical violence, it means violence in talking with one another, it's about having respect for one another. And Satyagraha is the insistence on truth. These were vital to the Independence Movement in India against the British Raj, and they deeply influenced the American Civil Rights Movement.

"I could go on for a long time as a professor on him, I teach some of his works, but I'll keep my comments to just one quote that you often see. And he said, Mr. Speaker, that we must be the change that we want to see in the world. And it inspired me and it inspires thousands of people every day to be the change they want to see in the world. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 332, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOHANDAS KARAMCHAND GANDHI DAY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Aquino, Cullen and Ward being excused.

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is the 227th anniversary of my ancestor, Patrick Henry's famous speech that ended in, 'Give me liberty, or give me death!' He spoke for liberty, free commerce and religious tolerance, and he opposed the adoption of the United States Constitution until a Bill of Rights was going to be added. Thank you."

Representative Matsumoto: "I just wanted to let everybody know that it's time again for the Women's Legislative Caucus Easter Basket drop off. It's going to be starting this Wednesday, March 25th. You can either drop off donation items in my office in Room 303, or Senator Roz Baker's office in Room 230. We'll be sending an email with all the different donation ideas. The drop off ends on Thursday, April 2nd, where we'll also have photos with the Easter Bunny, who is yet to be determined. So, thank you so much, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late former Prime Minister of Singapore, Mr. Lee Kuan Yew.

Representative Ito: "Mr. Speaker, can I say a few words on his behalf? Mr. Speaker and Members, my friend from Singapore, Patrick Liew, informed me last week of the passing of a remarkable man, the former Prime Minister of Singapore has passed away. Lee Kuan Yew, the founding father of modern Singapore, is recognized as a towering figure of post-colonial Asian politics, who brought an entire country from third world to first world status in a single generation.

"As one of the longest serving ministers in history, he is credited with his country's sustained economic growth. He forged a system of clean, self-reliant government and civil service from an underdeveloped colonial outpost with no natural resources, into an Asian Tiger economy.

"Having attained worldwide respect and recognition for his leadership, former US Presidents Clinton and Bush referred to Lee as a remarkable leader and statesman, and one of the brightest and most effective world leaders. President Obama referred to him as one of the legendary figures of Asia in the 20th and 21st Century who helped to trigger the Asian economic miracle.

"During the 30-plus years as prime minister, Lee forged a widely admired system of meritocratic, clean, self-reliant and efficient government and civil service. Thank you."
