Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 106, HD 1 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I want to thank the chair and the committee in moving this forward. Clearly, the Division of Boating and Ocean Recreation has so many challenges, and in Hawaii district we can't even seem to manage our, and being able to address issues coming because of the stormy seasons, and how it harms our harbors and the kind of response that we have.

"So I am very pleased that we're moving this forward, and hopefully we can figure out internally what maybe we can do to change the performance of that division. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Also in support, Mr. Speaker. I didn't realize anybody else was standing up. But there's only a couple of boaters in the building, so I'll basically echo what the previous speaker said. We've actually passed laws to help our boating community, which are like pre-approval of permits, which are not even being followed.

"I mean, this is the tip of the iceberg, so I thank the Water & Land Chair greatly for moving this forward, and I hope this measure will continue to get attention and conversation, because the small boating division is almost getting close to the airports, as far as dysfunctionality goes. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 106, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A PERFORMANCE AUDIT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES' DIVISION OF BOATING AND Representative Saiki moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 62; and H.C.R. No. 104 be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of resolutions 1540 and 1541. Mr. Speaker, the polls after polls after polls put the economy and jobs as the most important issue. This is really a job creation bill. I know it's something that's controversial, but it's been, I would say, probably eight years at least that we have, as a potential Saudi Arabia, kept our hands tied behind our back.

"This by the Federal Government has loosened those ties, and it's going to create a lot of good-paying jobs. And I know there are some who see this as an environmental slaughter, but in effect, there are a lot of safeguards that the environment will be protected.

"But, Mr. Speaker, it's about the people who live in the environment, they need jobs, and our people are hurting. This state alone has, during the Star-Advertiser's survey, one paycheck, half of our people are one paycheck away from homelessness. We need jobs, this is a good job creation bill. Thank you."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In support. Just wanted to kind of clarify and correct a statement. The total number of jobs that the pipeline will create is about 30, and that's the risk that is being foisted upon the environment for about 30 jobs, permanent jobs."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Reservations, Mr. Speaker, and a brief comment. I don't know why we're worried about what's going on in the Dakotas when we have so many problems here at home, like the homeless to work on. Thank you, sir."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 62, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE OF HAWAII FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLE OF NORTH DAKOTA TO PRESERVE THEIR CULTURAL HERITAGE AND ACCESS TO CLEAN WATER," was adopted, with Representative McDermott voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Aquino, Nakashima, Onishi, Oshiro, Say, Thielen and Todd being excused; and

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1544) recommending that H.R. No. 76, as amended in HD 1, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1545) recommending that H.C.R. No. 125, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Saiki moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 76, HD 1; and H.C.R. No. 125, HD 1 be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tupola rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote and some brief comments. This is sanctuary state lite, if you will. Well, if you go to the committee report, it says, clarifying that the enforcement of federal immigration laws is a function as reserved to the Federal Government. I mean, that's self-explanatory. Clarifying that the costs associated with the federal immigration law should not be borne by the local law enforcement.

"Basically, what they're trying to say without saying it is, don't honor these detainees. When I was in committee, I asked, does this bill apply to, they said it applies to all immigrants. I said, does it apply to illegal immigrants? And the response I got, it applies to all immigrants.

"There is a difference between people who come here legally, and people who don't come here legally. You're violating the law. We sit here all day and make laws. We don't have the option of what laws we want to choose to follow and what laws we don't.

"We've seen an evolution in language from the left. It used to be illegal immigrant, then it's undocumented worker, now they're just immigrants. My wife's an immigrant. She's not a U.S. citizen. She wasn't born in the United States. But she came here legally, is going through the process. Why should some people have to do it legally, and others not?

"And I cannot understand why attorneys, officers of the court, would purposely support or engage in a behavior that says, well, those laws really, wink and a nod, they're not real laws, we don't care about those laws, these are the important laws. Right?

"Imagine if I was allowed to do that. There are certainly laws that I don't like, but I have to follow the law. And if I put a resolution forward that said we shouldn't follow this law or that law, well, it would never be heard, but aside from that, it would be laughed out of committee. Because we are a nation of laws.

"There is a difference between following the rules, coming here legally, going through the process. If you don't like those rules, talk to your Congressional delegation and have them change them. In 2008, they controlled both the Senate and the House and the presidency. They didn't do it, so it wasn't important.

"But the bastardization of the language is a problem, because there are differences between legal immigrants, who come here legally through the process, and illegals who cross the borders and come here illegally. A country has to have borders. A country has to have security. And that is what, this is a sanctuary state lite. It's not very egregious, but the intent is there, and I am very discouraged by it, sir. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is about sanctuary cities, and it's about to make us one of those comparable, I guess as a state. But I would bring to the members' attention that the Council on Revenues just hit us with $500 million shortfall of the taxes that we're going to hit. This potentially is another half a billion dollar shortfall, because we are so dependent upon federal funding.

"And when this resolution gets publicity, as a poke in the eye of the Trump Administration, we are already hurting because we don't have a Senator Inouye, we don't have a President Barack Obama who, with a lot of the funding, has always been able to mark it up, just on the basis of who they were.

"So, Mr. Speaker, this is a jeopardization of our fiscal state. We think it's going to be for immigrants, but I think it's going to be turning against us. As some of my colleagues remind me of a certain age, colleagues, let's stay woke. This is not a good policy for the future of this state. Thank you."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support. I think it bears some comments in support of this. There is a difference between legal and illegal immigrants, Mr. Speaker, especially when it comes to public safety.

"When it is known that you have people of unsure immigration status in a community or who are known to be perhaps illegal immigrants, they become victims of crime, because they know that if they call the cops, they're going to come, and they're not going to protect them from the criminals, they're just going to deport them and separate them from their children and their families.

"And so the sanctuary status that this may or may not approximate, in my opinion, is a very important and good thing for human decency and safety of human beings who may become victims of crime and would otherwise be afraid to ask for law enforcement's help in protecting them, or solving crimes of which they are victim.

"So without this sort of thing, they're known targets to criminal entities. And in states across this country where they don't have these kinds of protections and law enforcement agents are required to contact ICE, immigration enforcement, this is where these problems become especially egregious.

"I just came from the Fusion Center this morning, that's why I missed roll call, and we had the meeting in the immigration center, where people take the vow of their citizenship, and we had the FBI, and Homeland Security, and HPD, and HFD, and every acronym under the sun in this state there, in that room. Except ICE, actually, they weren't there.

"So these law enforcement agencies and national security agencies communicate all the time, when it comes to public safety. But when it comes to something like this, it's important, I think, to protect human beings from criminals, regardless of immigration status. Thank you."

At 12:50 o'clock p.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:54 o'clock p.m.

Representative San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"I stand in support of the resolutions. I am mindful of the current presidency and his talks against the sanctuary city. So I ensured that when the resolution was passed, I removed the language regarding sanctuary cities.

"So the resolution urges the county and the State not to use state resources for enforcement. As I stated, because there was publicity, to a reporter, if the feds want us to use resources, they need to provide the funds. Because we are in a state of budgetary crisis now.

"I also want to point out that soon after this resolution was passed, at least on my island, the Kona coffee farmers came out. They wanted to assure their workers that they themselves did not want to force the issue of immigration. They wanted to ensure that their crop keeps getting to be harvested.

"So this resolution is timely, because there are new immigrants who are concerned, but I am also mindful, and I want to reassure the members, that I removed those areas referring to this state being a sanctuary state. Thank you very much."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I do not dispute what the Chair says. I refer to this as sanctuary city lite. And, again, immigrants shouldn't be concerned, not if they're here legally. Not if they're here legally. If they're here illegally, they've broken the law.

"And so what laws, Mr. Speaker, am I allowed to disregard? Am I allowed not to make that cake for the gay wedding? Oh, boy, I'll be shackled and tied up and taken away."

The Chair addressed Representative McDermott, stating:

"Representative, stay on the merits of this resolution, though."

At 12:56 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:57 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Before the Chair recognizes Representative McDermott, just wanted to cite one of the rules. Rule 27.7 provides that it is not the person but the measure that is the subject of debate.

"Members, it's really simple. If you're talking about a resolution or a bill, focus your floor speech on the merits of the resolution or bill. An example would be, why is this bill or resolution good for the State of Hawaii or bad for the State of Hawaii? Thank you very much."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I go back to, again, laws. What laws am I allowed to disregard? The Chair said the Kona farmers telling their immigrants, don't worry. Well, if they're here legally, they don't have to worry, because they're here legally, because they went through the process. If they're here illegally, then they're here illegally.

"We're a nation of laws, a country of laws. That's what we do here, is pass laws all day long. And well, but these aren't the real laws. We don't have to enforce these.

"My Ewa Beach colleague brought up the criminal issue. I suppose that could be a real issue, but it's not mentioned anywhere in this doggone resolution.

"The resolution talks about us being a welcoming state. Of course we are. The resolution talks about welcoming diverse and rich cultures. Of course we do. The resolution talks about how immigrants have made us better. Of course they have.

"But we are talking about illegal immigration, and this is kind of a, well, it's sanctuary lite, if you will, that's my definition of it. And this is another thumbing our nose at the Federal Government, I do believe, certainly in the spirit of it.

"And if that's the case, if we pass the tax bill, the presidential candidates have to do their tax bill, we pass this, we take other actions. Every day, I see the Congressional delegation flooding out with negative press releases.

"Why would they help us? It could put funding, certainly DOJ grants, if I'm the attorney general I'd look at this, no DOJ grants for the State of Hawaii. And they just said that the other day. So we're willing to forego that. What other funding are we going to put at jeopardy? The rail, $1.5 billion? Hawaii doesn't do anything for them. In fact, we're being antagonistic towards them.

"So I just go back to, if it's the law, it's the law. And you may not like the law, like there are laws that I certainly don't like, Mr. Speaker. And I fought here on this floor to defeat them, and I lost. But they are the law. And I must respect them, because they are the law.

"Now if you don't like the law, change the law. But the law is the law. It is what it is. So, we either are a nation of laws or we're not. And I don't like this wink and nod, well don't worry, it's not really a law, we're not really going to enforce it, don't worry about it because we don't want to enforce it, we don't agree with it. You will have chaos and anarchy if that's the way we proceed as a culture and a community. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to clarify a couple of things. First is to thank the Big Island Representative for the wordsmithing. She was very careful to say the words that didn't connote sanctuary cities, but I think it was Shakespeare who said a rose by any other name, and the other famous saying of, if it walks like a duck, looks like a duck, probably it's going to smell and be a duck.

"And my point is, this is really not a sanctuary bill, it's a budget bill. That's what I'm trying to connote to my colleagues. This is a budget bill. We are 20% dependent on federal funds, and growing.

"If we're going to help 1,000 people and jeopardize the 1.4 million people in this state, that's penny wise and pound foolish, Mr. Speaker. This is not a sanctuary bill, it's a budget bill, and it's going to hurt us all. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote and just a short comment. I, too, agree with the Representative from Hawaii Kai, that the introducer of this resolution took a lot of time crafting the language together.

"But there's particularly one whereas that I have a hard time supporting, and this particular resolution is unlike the 90% of the resolutions that we've passed before that are going to their next committee, this one is for final reading. And the whereas says, local law enforcement agencies should not be, not be required to bear the immense financial burden of enforcing federal immigration laws.

"So the concern that I have with that is, our sheriffs here, our local police department, they are bound to serve and protect. And if this thing becomes an issue that they have to support the federal immigration law enforcement, then that's what they need to do, and we're telling them that they shouldn't be doing that.

"And I know that the author of the resolution was trying to delicately put things in place, and I think all of us have concerns with what's happening in the Federal Government.

"But if you look at the language in that, and it says it in the whereas, and it also talks about it in the be it resolved. So as we all know, in resolutions, that the meat of the issue is in the be it resolved. And in the second to the last be it resolved, it mentions the State and the counties not working with the Federal Government. So for that reason, Mr. Speaker, I have a no vote."

Representative Kong rose in opposition to both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Tokioka be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tupola rose to respond, stating:

"I just wanted to also thank the introducer for clarifying parts of it, because I think the concerns she had regarding the amount of money used, it's a valid concern.

"But again, as alluding to what the Representative from Kauai said, when I read this be it resolved where it says that the State of Hawaii and its political subdivisions recognize that immigration is a federal function and that local law enforcement agencies should decline to work with federal immigration agencies. Not to go into too much detail, but I am married to a law enforcement officer and there's certain things that they are not allowed to decline. And I can't go into detail about that, but I would say that within law enforcement, they have to determine things like that, between them and the Federal Government.

"There's been so many times when Federal Government has asked, come into the State and asked for extra support, and they have to determine that, based upon safety, based upon the protecting of the citizens. So I don't want to intervene into something that I don't understand necessarily, and especially when it's on a case-by-case basis, that they should have the right to decide, that we shouldn't tell people to step out of things like that.

"That's where my reservation was. But I think if it said, to decline to work without pay, I don't know, from the Federal Government, maybe? Because they cover some of the costs, but not all of it, let's be honest, they don't cover all the costs when they come to Hawaii and ask for all HPD guys to surround their federal motorcade.

"But what I'm trying to say is, in that, the way that it's written right there, I have concerns. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In support. I just wanted to thank the introducer for moving this forward. This is a very emotional issue. On the one hand you have talks about human rights and xenophobia. On the other side, well, depending where you're looking at it from, but rather than looking at it emotionally, I think it helps to make decisions based on evidence and precedent and reason.

"And if you actually look at states or cities who have moved this sort of legislation, you'd see that they're actually safer. And it's a states' rights issue, really. You have a federal government, for whatever department, is going to conscript our local law enforcement, without funding, to do their work. That should be something that anyone who believes in states' rights should stand up against.

"Lastly, no person is illegal. Someone's status could be illegal, but humanity isn't determined by law. You're going to be a person no matter what. Lastly, just for the record, in America, there was no such thing as illegal, or legal, immigrants for the majority, actually, matter of fact, undocumented citizens or undocumented residents could vote for the majority of America's existence. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose, stating:

"Point of personal privilege. I would like to ask the author a question. On page three, line 33, does—"

At 1:07 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:08 o'clock p.m.

Representative Hashem rose, stating:

"I withdraw my request. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I appreciate the comments that have been made by a number of our colleagues on both sides of the aisle. I'd just like to respond, I think, to some of the discussion earlier by just noting that I don't think we should be afraid to hold our leaders accountable. As citizens of this nation, it is, in fact, our highest obligation. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, just brief comments. Local jurisdictions that participate in immigration enforcement often end up in court and held liable for constitutional violations.

"Local police, acting upon ICE detainer requests, have faced liability for unlawful detentions in violation of the Fourth Amendment and due process clause. They have also been sanctioned by courts for violating prohibitions against racial profiling, especially under 287(g) task force agreements.

"To the degree that we are a country, a state, that's based on the rule of law, we should not be enforcing unconstitutional actions by the Federal Government. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose in opposition to both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Tokioka be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd just like to make one observation. One speaker mentioned that the United States is a nation of laws, and I think we can obviously agree with that. But it's easy to forget we're also a nation that believes when citizens are faced with laws that they believe to be unjust, that they have the right to do something about it. In other words, violate the law.

"I think we can go back to 1773, when a bunch of terrorists led by Samuel Adams went on three ships in the Boston Harbor and threw over hundreds of containers of tea. The British thought they were common thugs. I guess they would be termed terrorists today. But they thought that they were doing the right thing. And today, in American history, they are indeed patriotic Americans. And U.S. history has been filled with examples of this, whether it's the Underground Railway, whether it was Rosa Parks refusing to go to the back of the bus, and so on.

"So, yes, while we're a nation of laws, we're also a nation that believes, when confronted with something that is unjust, they have a duty to oppose it. Thank you."

Representative Matsumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen rose in support of both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ito rose in opposition to both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Tokioka be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 76, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION DECLARING HAWAII TO BE A HO'OKIPA (WELCOMING) STATE," was adopted, with Representatives Choy, Har, Ito, Kong, Matsumoto, McDermott, Tokioka, Tupola and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Aquino, Nakashima, Onishi, Oshiro, Say, Thielen and Todd being excused; and

H.C.R. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Matsumoto: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted just to announce that yesterday was the first day for the Easter basket drop off for the Women's Legislative Caucus. You can drop off baskets in my office in 303.

"The first reps to actually drop off were, I want to congratulate Representative Ito and Representative San Buenaventura for dropping off the first baskets. And it was just asked, instead of using Easter baskets this year, if you can use tote bags or laundry baskets, they're really looking for household items this year, that would be useful.

"And they're doing something a little different. If you want to put together a kid's basket, something in a backpack, they have 62 kids this year that will be needing something for Easter. So we'll keep you updated as we go forward, but the drop off has begun. Thank you."

Representative Creagan: "I'd like to announce that there is going to be an informational briefing today to honor Harry Ako for hemp research at 1:15 p.m. in Room 224."
