Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the sanctuary state bill, 1994, with a few comments. Mr. Speaker, this bill is as myopic as it is partisan, political and polemical. But who doesn't like immigration? Who doesn't like immigrants? My wife is from Malaysia. My daughter is from China. The key, Mr. Speaker, is that they're all legal.

"This bill legitimizes, protects and otherwise disguises illegal immigration, therefore promoting it. The territory that we are entering on calls all of us into question. Every two years, we raise our hands to protect, obey, and otherwise enforce the US Constitution and the State Constitution. This bill pushes us to say that, hey if you at the federal level want to do something, we are going to exempt ourselves from the US Constitution. Mr. Speaker, that's a dangerous proposition.

"I would also say how this is a bill that is going to hurt us rather than help us, even though it's supposedly going to hurt us. We're getting on a territory that's going to hurt us more than it's going to help us. Not because I'm a member of the Finance Committee, but everybody here knows that our budget is federally funded up to the point of 25% and growing.

"Mr. Speaker, we have already not endeared ourselves to the Federal Government. And to do something like this is going to make us even all the more marginal. I'm not going to note how many times our federal congressional delegation has poked their fingers into the President's eye, but this is going to be a bigger one than even in the past.

"This is going to hurt us fiscally, financially, and on the margins of being a full participant in the Federal Government in all the things that we do. Can you imagine if PACOM says, well, HI-EMA, we're not going to help you because you guys have got it all on your own, we're not going to give you federal assistance because of this disaster on January 13th where you didn't know what you were doing when you created trauma for 1.4 million people and our visitors. The feds are going to pull us out of this. Should we say, well, if the feds do a reciprocal, it's okay? No, Mr. Speaker. But we're tempting the hand of that. You know, what goes around comes around, what comes around goes around.

"So we're playing with fire in the same way that many of us would not wish that the feds would pull back in so many areas, not just the defense of the country, but our human services, our transportation, the majority of our funding. And the idiosyncrasies of some personalities in Washington can earmark stuff and take money away.

"So why do we want to do this? We don't have an immigration problem, per se."

At 12:31 o'clock p.m., Representative Belatti requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:31 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I think the bottom line is, the costs outweigh the benefits. If there's any benefits, I need to know them. And that is not to demean anything or anybody, but other than this, if there's a problem where we have huge immigrants, if we want to talk about immigrants who really need help, what about the Indonesians down at the harbor? They're captive right on our shores. What have we done for them?"

"We already have a sanctuary state for the homeless. We have the highest homeless in the whole nation. The state of Hawaii has the highest homeless. What kind of sanctuary are we giving the homeless?"

"So where are the priorities here? And also, I should note that this morning we passed a bill, 2091, which is for a Homeland Security fusion center, which states, by continually staffing itself to monitor all crimes, hazards, and shall be the focus for sharing local, national, and international information. So we've already got a bill that says the national level intelligence community, we are going to cooperate with this fine bill passed this morning--"

Representative LoPresti rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Ask that he speaks to the measure at hand, which hasn't even been done yet."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, please confine your remarks to the bill before us."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"I'm sorry, it's relevant to me when we pass a bill that's contrary to what we are passing now. The bottom line, Mr. Speaker, this bill is going to hurt us more than it's going to help us. It causes our loyalty, which is a virtue of this state, to be put aside. And it's got a kapakahi emphasis on, more for illegitimate migration rather than legal migration, which is what this country is founded on and it's all about because we are all immigrants. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I am, after a lot of thought, I am going to be voting no on this. I come from a family of immigrants that came over to this, it wasn't a country then, in fact, one of my ancestors helped with the revolution and stood up to the ruling party there.

"The concern I have, Mr. Speaker, it's going to put a spotlight on Hawaii. It's going to put a spotlight on those people who are here that aren't documented but they've been part of our communities for decades. They're our friends, they help out with things in the neighborhood, they might be a little league coach, soccer coach, whatever. But it's going to bring down the wrath and the attention of the Federal Government on Hawaii, and we don't need to do that. We may feel noble in here, that we're protecting these people who are undocumented residents, but we're putting the spotlight on them, and I think it can end up with some very brutal consequences.

"The other thing, I understand in Chicago, which went out and said, look at us, we're a sanctuary city, I understand that ICE agents are now going into the courts and questioning people, and finding some of the undocumented residents of Chicago and arresting them and deporting them. That's pretty darned intrusive, but the Federal Government has that power, and Chicago put itself in the spotlight. We don't need to do that with Hawaii.

"I know it's a bill that makes people feel, isn't this great, but I don't think anyone in here is an undocumented immigrant. It's going to focus it on them, it's going to harm them. And I would encourage members to think about this a lot more seriously.

"You also have the political rhetoric on page 2 of the bill, lines 9 through 13, and that'll be a message back to Washington, D.C. And the federal administration is powerful, they do have huge resources, and we're hurting the very people we're trying to help. So I'm voting no."

Representative Matsumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and a few comments. I understand why this bill was introduced and why it's moving forward, but I was compelled to speak because of the former speaker from the other side of Oahu, sorry I can't remember your district.

"I think I had pointed out some issues, and that is some of the purpose language may be a little inflammatory and unnecessary. But also, based on what we do here at the Legislature, this may be more appropriate as a resolution instead of a bill, because if it does move forward, it will be a Hawaii Revised Statute in our statutes, and I think it may be more appropriate as a resolution from this body. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. We had a hearing maybe three months ago with DLNR and they actually initiated, it was the division head of Department of Aquatic Resources and the chair of DLNR, and they said that this is the year to move forward on making the Governor's 30% of nearshore fisheries managed by 2030 codified into statute, so I think we're following their lead. It is a work in progress."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1751, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AQUATIC RESOURCES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, with Representatives DeCoite, Har, Ito, Matsumoto and Tokioka voting aye with reservations, with Representatives Say and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Quinlan and Tupola being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, if he is here, I would like to commend the Sergeant-at-Arms for a man of his word, he did not break his promise, we have new chairs, we don't have sticky hands when we sit down, and it's a great addition to this House of Representatives. So, thank you for leadership, thank you for having these chairs exchanged. Thank you."

Representative Lee: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to remind the members of the Energy & Environmental Protection Committee, we have a vote immediately following the conclusion of our chair's caucus, I believe, on our 8:30 a.m. agenda this morning for decision making on a small handful of bills. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"The Chair does have an announcement. The Chair would like to remind members of today's triple referral filing deadline for bills moving from their first committees to their second committees in a triple referral. You must file the committee report with the Chief Clerk's Office by 6:00 p.m. this evening. Please allow yourselves and your staff sufficient time to file their reports before the deadline."
