"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to see the test case of the young lady laying out in front of Miller Street that each of us, as we drive into this building, see. I'd like to see the Governor's czar of homeless try to remove or let's say help as much as he can with all the resources that we put together, not to save face for us, but it's embarrassing that if we can't help that lady laying outside of our building, how are we going to help the other 7,000 in the State of Hawaii, and also keep them from the children's center?
