"No with a brief comment, please. Mr. Speaker, this is the new no cash bail bill, which I think was passed last session, which was then vetoed by the governor because as many places on the mainland said, hey, this just doesn't work. Getting out of jail free doesn't work. Plus, I would hope that people would know that Act 277 was passed in 2019, which if you are indigent or you're poor or whatever you have no money to post bail, instead of going to jail, which costs us, Mr. Speaker, $258 per day, this Act 277, and I hope CJ and other judges are listening, is a bill that this body passed which says, hey, if you don't have the money, just give us your signature. It's an IOU, it's a promissory note. And if they show up, Mr. Speaker, the thing is ripped up, a no brainer. But none of the Judiciary has practiced that.

"There is now circulating without a hearing, I think it's bill 1172, which I talked with the head of the prisons yesterday, he didn't know about it. The point is, we have a way of doing without cash, if people would just keep their word. So, Mr. Speaker, this is redundant and to me and no is a no brainer because there should not be no cash bail. You've got to have skin in the game. And right now, people are not showing up, even if they're poor or they're rich. This is not the way we should be going. Thank you."

Representative Matsumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ganaden rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. In response to the representative from District 18, this is not affecting cash bail. It still remains in the purview of the issuing court to issue bail if they decide to. Members of the CMV and Judiciary Committees last week heard from the National Conference of State Legislatures regarding numerous best practices happening around the country, regarding how we treat those who are charged with crimes but who are not yet convicted. This does work, as seen through around the country. We also need to start making moves towards remedying the ill effects of the war on drugs. I have much more to say on this, but I suppose I'll wait until third reading. Thank you so much."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. No vote with a brief comment. This is a tax credit solely for rich people. The district that I represent, portions of my community don't even have access to clean water at all. Many people in my district live off of catchment, so that means that they're catching water off of their roof that goes into a tank and then they're then able to use that. We have no tax credits or tax breaks for those individuals, oftentimes people who are marginalized and come from very impoverished communities.

"I think that if we're going to move on a water credit, it should be equitable and we should make sure that the communities that are the most harmed have access to these things. However, if this is specifically to Red Hill, then we need to make sure that in this bill we provide the proof of harm so that we're making sure that that money is going towards families that may have been impacted by Red Hill. Thank you."

From the study it says, based on external phenotype, two-thirds of true hermaphrodites are raised as males, despite the presence of an XX, female, karyotype in at least half of them. Other karyotypes are 46,XX/46,XY and 46,XY.

"No please. I'd like to thank the representatives introducing this measure. I do support contraception. But, if this measure would include abortion, that goes against my belief. My understanding is that life begins at conception, and when a heartbeat begins to be at around five and a half to six weeks, that's a very precious thing. And it's my desire to save human life, including life within the womb. So that's why I'm voting no on this measure."

"Point of order. The previous speaker should address the bill at hand."

Reproductive justice means access to women's health care. It means access to being able to know how your body is operating. Being able to understand if you ever have any issues, how to take care of those problems.

"On the neighbor islands, we don't have access to reproductive health at all. It's very difficult in many areas and in rural communities, you barely have access to a doctor. So, having a care access office that makes sure that in every single community, women can understand how to care for their bodies, whether it's a cancer screening or a mammogram, that's what reproductive justice is, not just abortion access."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I wanted to thank the members of this body for saying some really good arguments on this and many other bills. So, I'm going to state something that didn't come from me, but I heard from a very intelligent colleague of ours. My body, my choice. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."
