Mr. Speaker, we have a housing crisis, and this is going to punish them all the more. That's reason number one.

"Number two is that we're giving the counties so much taxing power. They're going to be competing with us and competing with each other to whereas in the Constitution it says, the counties shall have property tax authority. And it's kind of getting out of hand. There are stormwater authority, to give a tax on that, which we'll come to later on this agenda. They have TAT tax, they have GET tax, I mean where does this end? Particularly now with housing, another tax for them to say, hey, if you're going to build infrastructure for housing that we need, like 50,000 to 60,000 shortage of units that we have right now, we're going to make you pay more, which is going to go on to the consumers, which is going to put the price of housing even higher than it is right now at $1.1 million. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

You get free tuition, you get to be a professor for the day, you get to be an administration, if you will, of the course. And you put it on your resume and it's a good track becoming a professor or getting a MA, or probably more so, a PhD.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, this has come up every 10 years. We are now in a crunch with the University of Hawai'i. The University of Hawai'i budget is being challenged, as it was cut in the last couple of sessions. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with all due respect to our colleague on the North Shore, I vote vehemently against this bill, with a couple of comments which hopefully will provoke him to jealousy to come up and refute it.

"We had a great discussion on the radio the other day. I said, basically, we're throwing the HTA out with the bath. We're punishing achievement, because look, they've done such a good job. They're the ones with their foot on the accelerator, they got us all these tourism, they will know how to back it off. They have a management plan, but we're not giving them a chance to show their stuff by saying, hey, we're going to cut you off at the pass or cut you at the knees.

"My point is, Mr. Speaker, let them do what they're doing well, and they're turning into an indigenous organization, not the one at HVCB that just rallies everybody to come to Hawai'i. My point is, this may come up next year, but right now it's untimely. And I think it needs to be put on ice for the present. It's not a good bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Mr. Speaker, Shakespeare once wrote, give every man thy ear, but few thy voice. And I think that the voices of our people, of those communities that have suffered so much from unmanaged over tourism, are not being heard. And I have a commitment to those people, Mr. Speaker, to continue to lend them my voice. Thank you."

Representative Garcia rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in opposition. Mr. Speaker, we have to know historically why we've reached this point. Number one countless is the Airbnb. If we can't solve the Airbnb process and the situation, how are we going to solve the HTA, which is a threat of situations? The second thing is, this went under the microscope because the HTA contract with HVCB and with CNHA and what the former administration did with awarding the contract, taking the contract back, awarding to the other entity and contracting it back, has made us focus, like in a laser focus, on what's going on with tourism.

"I think understanding those two things has highlighted, because look, all of our neighborhoods are under a threat of Airbnb. We haven't been able to do that. But to blame the HTA on the Airbnb phenomenon, I think is misplaced importance. Regardless of what Shakespeare has said, damning with faint praise is not praise at all. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and may I have the words of the representative from Hawai'i Kai entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. In an earlier speech today, I referenced the ability of the counties to tax just about everything. And now this is a tax for what you have in terms of driveways, roof space, sidewalks, anything that's non-porous, they're going to tax you. It's coming to all of our neighborhoods on O'ahu. Some of you recall they came to the neighborhood boards and explained that this is coming soon. And by the way, Mr. Speaker, they said yes, government is going to have to pay.

"This one is a direct contradiction to what the City & County of Honolulu has spread out throughout the neighborhood boards of this island. This exempts the state from all of its lack of ability to fess up to what it's been telling all of us in the different neighborhoods, that you will be taxed also.

"So, this bill is totally unfair to what has already been circulated. This exempts them and it's not fair because of what they said. And it's another new tax, also. Because of your driveway, the size of your roof, you're going to pay another way. You know, there's so many ways you can get money out of people's pockets, but to me, this is a very unfair way. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong, strong opposition, based upon principle and on conscience. Mr. Speaker, this allows a relocation allowance, if you're a millionaire on the beach, we're going to find you another property as a substitute where you live. This is such a slap in the face of the Hawaiian community that's on the beach, homeless, and we can't find them houses because we want to reserve the money, and there's a fund in this to move those millionaires off the beach so they can be safe from the sea climate change.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is probably the unkindest cut of all in all of these bills that are negative. This is unfair. It should fail. It should not be even written by any of us here, to say that we back such a bill with such inequity implied and totally funded by the state for the favor of one group. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kong's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition.

"This bill, HB 1050, would actually work and accomplish what it sets out to do, lowering the cost of goods to the consumer, if the state of Hawai'i had a sales tax system.

"But we do not! We have a General Excise tax system. The GE tax system is uniquely structured to affect the cost of doing business in this state. Yes, the GE tax may be passed through to the consumer but doesn't necessarily mean that it has to be passed on to the consumer, or vice versa.

"In other words, any GE tax cut may not necessarily be beneficial to the consumer, but will definitely benefit said business.

"For this reason, I stand in opposition."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This is one of the recommendations of the Cesspool Conversion Working Group. And the requirement to convert cesspools was established in 2017, it's been in law for six years now. So, this isn't a new requirement to convert. It does accelerate the date for something like 25,000 of the almost 90,000 cesspools that exist in the state with the reasoning that if we wait until 2049 before this requirement kicks in for anyone, we're going to be in a lot worse situation by doing nothing.

"And so, we need to move the date a little earlier in order to encourage workforce development, to get those loan programs, the grant programs, the tax credit, all that stuff in place. We're simultaneously working on a lot of other measures that also implement recommendations of the Cesspool Conversion Working Group. But this is also an important part of it."

year. It's a grant program to assist low- and moderate-income property owners, up to 140% or below, to upgrade their priority 1 and 2 cesspools. So, there is funding available for low-income people to help them through this priority process."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. My hesitation is because, why did we allow thousands upon thousands of cesspools to go this far without bringing it to the attention of those people when it was more affordable. And now, I think the state, the counties have some of the responsibility of allowing lava tubes to be filled with excrement and all of these things and various farmers who now are really pushed to make survival and a living. I just think some of the burden should be on us, therefore loans and other things that have been spoken of is probably very, very well taken. Thank you."

We developed this bill, the attorney general proposed it, and we carefully reviewed it to ensure that it is compliant with the Supreme Court decision.

So, I urge all members to support it. Thank you."
