"Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in opposition. Madam Speaker, colleagues, I stand here in the full belief that we as a body are united in our cause to serve the people of Hawai'i in the spirit of unity and cooperation. Madam Speaker, this resolution's main content does highlight the important issue of addressing the federal government use of our state lands and the upcoming renegotiation of leases for these lands. The resolution requests the attorney general to produce and provide a list of state lands currently leased to the United States government.

"However, included in the resolution is a paragraph that I believe is completely unnecessary and introduces language that I believe is, in my opinion, speculative, of one's opinion, and stating sound bites without the benefit of a full context. And I believe it ultimately fosters unwanted and undesirable judgment and division. I reference the language in the paragraph mentioning the Trump administration.

"We as a body should not be including such disparaging language in our legislation. Our House Rule 28.3 states, 'allusions or critical references to the Speaker or members are not in good order.' And it would be my understanding that this would apply to others beyond the Speaker or members, and certainly to the office of the president. Additionally, House Rule 62.3 states, 'members should treat their fellow House members, staff, and the general public with respect, courtesy, fairness, equity, dignity, and inclusion, regardless of political or religious beliefs,' and others. Again, I would say that this certainly applies to the office of the president of the United States.

"I would bet, and you all know I am totally against gambling, so I use this phrase to make a point, that if I or anyone had made some similar remarks referencing Governor Green's administration and bringing into question something debatable, that would be totally unacceptable and cause much consternation, and rightfully so.

"Madam Speaker, we are elected leaders here to serve for the public good and benefit. To be an example which should include respect, honor, cooperation, and most of all, aloha. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

Representative Muraoka rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of the previous speaker be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Reyes Oda rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Madam Speaker. In support. Madam Speaker, I really respect the remarks of the previous two speakers, because I think it's important that we do treat each other without disparagement. I, however, respectfully disagree with his characterization of that whereas clause. Because what this resolution does is simply refer to actions that the current administration has in fact taken through its executive orders.

"I think what should be the focus of this resolution, and the reason why so many in both the Senate and the House have supported this, is that we are at a critical time in our state's management over public lands. And so, what this resolution is just simply doing is to ask for more information. In numerous committees throughout this session, there has been many, many questions and many vehicles through which we have asked for this information about federal lands.

"And so, this, again, with all due respect to my colleague from Moanalua, who I have just enjoyed because I think the conversations have been so important that we've had in our committees. With all due respect, I support this resolution as a way for us to move forward so that we, as a state legislature, can determine how to better manage our lands at the time that the military leases are to be resolved. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

Representative Hussey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. And with reference, and apologies to our colleagues from the minority party, I don't believe that our House rules would apply to President Trump, he's simply not a member of our body. Thank you."

Representative Souza rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of the representative from Makiki be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Garcia rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of the representative from Moanalua be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimizu rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, still in opposition. Thank you, Madam Speaker. With all due respect to my chair of Public Safety, and I have high respect for her and want to maintain good relationships with all of our colleagues here. I reference the testimony from the deputy attorney general, who testified in our committee yesterday regarding this resolution. And as I state verbatim, the AG has the following comments. Currently the resolution, in addition to asking for a list of current leases that are leased out to any federal entities, also requests that the AG opine on the legality of both current and potential lease renewals. The AG understands that with the upcoming expiration of numerous military leases in 2029, there are many questions regarding both renewal and continued leases. This is clearly an important topic with significant legal questions. The current resolution is quite broad in terms of the legal opinion being requested. The AG's suggestion is that rather than doing this through a resolution, legislators approach the AG after the conclusion of the session with specific legal questions. That way they can tailor their response and provide better advice and more detail.

"So, there is no question that the body of this resolution is of paramount importance, and I don't disagree at all. My comment was mainly in opposition to one paragraph. So, going back to the testimony from the deputy attorney general, which I just stated, that with that important factual testimony, Madam Speaker, I urge this body to vote no on this resolution and concur with the AG's office, our state's highest legal authority, to rely on their recommendation to have more involved discussions for their office to address rather than doing it through this resolution. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 128, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO PRODUCE AND PROVIDE A LIST OF STATE LANDS CURRENTLY LEASED TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA OR ANY FEDERAL AGENCY," was adopted, with Representative Reyes Oda voting aye with reservations, with Representatives Alcos, Garcia, Matsumoto, Muraoka, Pierick, and Shimizu voting no, and with Representatives Cochran and Todd being excused.
