

FORTY-FIRST DAY

Monday, March 30, 1987

The Senate of the Fourteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1987, convened at 11:44 o'clock a.m., with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Daniel Nebres of the Cosmopolitan United Church of Christ, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fortieth Day.

The following introductions were made to the members of the Senate:

Senator Ikeda introduced a class of 4th grade students of Holy Trinity School and their teacher Mrs. Barbara Dunn, parents and chaperones.

Senator Matsuura introduced Ms. Zula Austerman and Mr. Reginald Oka, friends of the Watumull family.

Senator Matsuura then introduced Mrs. Ellen Jensen Watumull and Mr. and Mrs. David Watumull as follows:

"Mr. President, it gives me great pleasure to introduce to this honorable body the Watumull family.

"About a month ago, I went to a ceremony at Paradise Park in Puna and the ceremony was in regards to the Watumull family giving seven of their lots in Paradise Park to those families that lost their homes because of the lava flow in Kalapana.

"After the seven lots were given, the caretaker who's been working for the Watumull family all his life said, 'Well, that's it, we'll now retire to have lunch.' David said, 'No, there's just one more lot to be given.' The caretaker looked at his sheet and said, 'No, that's it.' David said, 'No, there's one more.'

"They drove another block and to the surprise of this caretaker who has never ever owned a piece of property in Hawaii, David handed him the deed for one acre.

"For this noble deed this body gave the Watumull family a certificate of recognition. At the ceremony when I gave the Senate Certificate to David, he received the certificate as if I was giving him the Nobel Prize. He was very humble and very appreciative.

"The thing that intrigued me was that here's a man that is a very special person. I wanted to know what made David so great so I did a little research and I found, perhaps, one of the answers why David is such a perfect person. It is because of his mother and father.

"Let me just briefly cite from the December 1947 'Reader's Digest' article some of the accomplishments of the Watumulls, especially Mrs. Watumull. Very few people get written in the 'Reader's Digest.'

"Mrs. Ellen Jensen Watumull was born in Portland and attended Reed College, and those of you who know that college certainly know that you've got to be a valedictorian to go to Reed College. Ellen Jensen and Gobindram J. Watumull were married in 1922 and, at that time, because she married a foreigner, she had to forfeit her United States citizenship.

"Mrs. Watumull worked real hard with the League of Women Voters in Hawaii for women of Asian parentage to have the Cable Act amended, enabling American-born women including those of foreign descent to retain their American citizenship regardless of their husband's nationality, and was the first woman to be naturalized when the law was changed, regaining her citizenship back on May 5, 1931.

"Mrs. Ellen Watumull, in partnership with Goma her husband, helped develop a small bazaar into a prosperous department store chain, at the same time bringing up a family of three children -- Lila, David and Radha.

"And sharing her husband's dream to help India to progress to nationhood like the United States, the desire to help stop the plagues of cholera, malaria, dysentery, which kill five to six million people a year in India, and sharing her husband's convictions that India's salvation lay in industrialization, she and her husband in 1942 established the Watumull Foundation which now derives its income from an endowment and contributions from the Watumull family.

"They began to make their dream a reality by sending to the United States highly qualified Indians, mature men and women, able to absorb the most up-to-date techniques in such matters as controlling epidemics, preventing infection in mothers and babies, canning food, building machines, and so on.

"The longest journey for the Watumull family began in 1917 when David's father came to Hawaii and that was the first step he took in this long journey of the Watumull family.

"I can go on and on and tell you all what the Watumulls have done. I worked in India (and I know) they have done a lot even in that country.

"I just want to end my recognition to them by reading a proverb, an Indian proverb, which states: 'The two hardest things in the world to do are to give of one's earnings and to find a home in another country.' The Watumulls have certainly done that.

"I have also mentioned that it is only by giving and sharing do you truly possess what you have.

"The Watumulls are indeed very rich because they have just done that -- sharing and caring for the needy.

"It is a tremendous privilege and honor to introduce to this honorable body Mrs. Ellen Jensen Watumull, her son, Mr. David Watumull, and his wife Sheila."

The Watumulls rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate of recognition by Senator Matsuura and leis by Senators A. Kobayashi, Mizuguchi, Holt and Yamasaki.

At 11:54 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:59 o'clock a.m.

Kobayashi, general manager of All Nippon Airways (ANA), who was sitting in the gallery accompanied by Ms. Millie Ludwig, the local representative of ANA.

Senator Cobb in reference to the resolutions said:

"Mr. President, perhaps after the fact, maybe, we should consider amending these resolutions to allow All Nippon Airways to continue their service all the way to the Mainland, predicated on the stipulation that they would have a 10-year mileage-plus program that wouldn't be subject to change."

Senator Kuroda responded:

"Mr. President, I thought there was only one 'opihī' and that was Wakatsuki. There's another 'opihī' right here still clinging to that issue."

The Chair answered:

"It's an endangered specie."

Senator Cobb interjected:

"Yes, Mr. President, speaking as an endangered specie, tomorrow you'll see the United Airlines resolutions. Thank you."

ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

House Bill No. 1494, H.D. 2:

On motion by Senator Holt, seconded by Senator McMurdo and carried, H.B. No. 1494, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LANDS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Solomon).

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 804 (Gov. Msg. No. 92):

Senator McMurdo moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 804 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Yamasaki and carried.

Senator McMurdo then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of Winona E. Rubin, as Director of Social Services, term to expire December 3, 1990, seconded by Senator Yamasaki.

Senator McMurdo spoke in support of the nomination and remarked:

"I have known Winona Rubin since 1957.

At that time, we were both Army wives and teachers in different schools, and she was a good friend. I've never dealt with her professionally until this session since she has been nominated by the governor to be the director of social services.

"When her hearing was held, there were outstanding comments that were made and they were so good. There was nothing negative said, nor do I have anything negative to say.

"I've been impressed with all my dealings with Winona since she has been in this position. She has conscientiously and carefully answered all questions and anything which was directed toward her in the department.

"I would like to read a few of the remarks which were in the testimony from innumerable people:

'She has provided sound leadership in helping us to clarify issues, develop carefully delineated strategies in obtaining realistic results while building and reinforcing effective approaches toward problem-solving of sometimes discouraging proportion. More than a manager, Mrs. Rubin is an effective leader who, rather than simply exercising power, has the unique ability to inspire and empower others to effective leadership.'

'I have observed her ability to listen effectively to people who are concerned about different sides of issues to bring parties together to work on common goals and to articulate clear visions for the future that inspire action.'

'I was able to observe her quiet but firm management style in dealing with complex human problems. She demonstrated good sensitivity to problems associated with poverty but clearly held students, parents and even teachers accountable for their role in helping to educate students.'

"When she was executive director of the Queen Liliuokalani Children's Center:

'Her ability to de-escalate tense human conflict situations and offer viable solutions has won the respect of colleagues and other community leaders.'

"And I reiterate, Mr. President, all those who testified were in favor of Winona Rubin's nomination to this position, and all wrote most eloquently, and I would like to add my recommendation that the Senate consent to this nomination. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Solomon).

At this time, Senator McMurdo recognized and introduced Mrs. Winona Rubin who was sitting in the gallery.
