

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

Wednesday, April 8, 1987

The Senate of the Fourteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1987, convened at 11:41 o'clock a.m., with the Vice President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Chaplain Michael E. Reynolds, Major, U.S. Army, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The Chair announced that she had read and approved the Journal of the Forty-Seventh Day.

The following introductions were then made to the members of the Senate:

Senator Solomon introduced a group of ten students from Honokaa High School National Honor Society which included three foreign students, two from Colombia and one from Mexico, accompanied by Ms. Noreen Nagamine, their teacher/advisor.

Senator Ikeda introduced Aron Ashimine and Mark Lau, 8th grade students from Niu Valley Intermediate School who are participating in the "Day at the Legislature" program.

Senator A. Kobayashi, on behalf of Senator McMurdo and herself, introduced Ms. Susan Entz, Ms. Chris Chun and Ms. Kitty Dudley, as follows:

"Madam President, I would like to introduce three individuals who truly gave so much of their time and talent to the Ronald McDonald House which opened this past weekend.

"It really is a beautiful structure and a lot of people's time went into this house which will benefit many children and their families.

"This morning we have present on the Senate floor Susan Entz, who is president of the Friends of Ronald McDonald House, and sitting in the gallery we have Chris Chun and Kitty Dudley.

"I would like to read a portion of the Senate Certificate, if I may.

'To recognize the efforts of the many individuals, notably Susan Entz, president of the Friends of Ronald McDonald House; Chris Chun, executive director of the Friends of Ronald McDonald House; and Kitty Dudley, one of the original founders.

'The countless charitable organizations and the legion of volunteers who have contributed so much time and energy to the realization of their dream, and to convey our best wishes to Ronald McDonald House for a highly successful program in the future, providing the much needed tender, loving care for children and their families at a time of stress and adversity."

The women rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate by Senator A. Kobayashi.

Senator Menor introduced Brian Clark, an outstanding student-athlete at Mililani High School, who was present on the Senate floor, as follows:

"Madam President, it really is an honor and privilege for me to be able to make a very special introduction this morning of an outstanding, young individual who, by his accomplishments in sports, has not only rewritten the record books in Hawaii State basketball, but also has carved for himself a place in Hawaii State basketball history.

"As many of you know, Brian Clark was literally a one-man scoring machine for the Mililani High School varsity basketball team. Because of that, he's really accomplished a tremendous amount in the area of high school basketball.

"For example, in the 1987 basketball season, Brian set a state scoring record for a single season of 434 points, the highest state single season scoring average of 28.9 points per game. For great basketball athletes like Senator Matsuura, he could confirm the fact that it's very tough to score on a game-by-game basis, 28.9 points a game. What makes his record even more remarkable is the fact that he sustained this throughout his entire varsity career. He holds the highest state career scoring average of 24.6 points per game and the overall total state high school career scoring record of 1,093 points.

"For his accomplishments, he has been selected by the Honolulu Advertiser and Star Bulletin as the Oahu Interscholastic Association (OIA), Western Division, Player of the Year, for the past two years. He has also been named to the newspapers' OIA Western Division All-Star Team for the past three years and to the All-State Basketball Team for the past two years.

"But, Brian's recognition goes beyond the State of Hawaii because he also was named the recipient of the Naysmith High School Basketball Player of the Year Award for the State of Hawaii, and this award is annually presented to the top high school player in each state of the United States. He has also been selected to the 1987 McDonald's All-American Basketball Team, which is comprised of 1,200 of America's finest basketball players.

"In addition, he maintains a 3.7 grade point average, renders community service as an Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts of America and, in fact, he has been offered scholarships to a number of prominent universities such as, Yale, Stanford, Michigan State, University of Pennsylvania and Utah State."

Senator Menor also introduced Mr. James Albano, coach of the Mililani High School basketball team, who accompanied Brian.

The gentlemen rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate by Senator Menor and leis by Senators Ikeda and McMurdo.

Senator McMurdo introduced Ms. Jo DeMarets, Ms. Bobbie Lanceford-Naole, Ms. Chris Hucie, Ms. Diane Slurr, Mr. Phillip Norris and Mr. Tommy Broucek, who were present on the Senate floor, as follows:

"Madam Vice President, it's my great pleasure to honor some people who have done a great deal for the Children's Advocacy Center. There are any number of people who have helped, but there are two groups, in particular, that I would like to mention.

"Some are social workers from the Women's Correctional Facility and the other group is from the Rotary Club of Honolulu. I'm going to very quickly read the Senate Certificates, if you don't mind.

"In recognition of the volunteer efforts of the female inmates of the Women's Correctional Facility for undertaking a craft fair to raise funds for Hawaii's Children's Advocacy Center. It is particularly poignant that the women at the facility would wish to assist the sexually-abused children of our community, since many of them have been victims of abuse as children.

"Under the supervision of social worker, Jo DeMarets, and the leadership of Bobbie Lanceford-Naole, Chris Hucie and Diane Slurr, the women worked hard to get craft materials donated and learned new skills such as, sewing, knitting, ceramics and jewelry making in order to put on this craft fair.

"Through their efforts, they raised more than $1,000 to assist the center and this money is being used for a child witness room in the Circuit Court building where children who are waiting to testify in criminal cases can have a pleasant and supportive environment which will, hopefully, decrease their anxiety.

"We feel it is particularly appropriate that women who are paying their debt to society for breaking the law and who have themselves been victims are now turning their efforts to assisting these children.

"We applaud the women of OCCC and are pleased to have the community recognize the positive contributions they are making to our society."

"The second Senate Certificate is to members of the Rotary Club of Honolulu for working to make the Honolulu Children's Advocacy Center a reality.

"Wishing to become involved in a major project under past president, Phillip Norris, a committee, chaired by Tommy Broucek, has been meeting regularly to help all aspects of planning a center.

"Rotary member, Father David Kennedy, was instrumental in securing the second floor of a preschool owned by St. Andrews Priory to house the center. Rotary member, Rob Hale, president of Architects Hawaii, has been working with volunteer Rotary engineers and contractors on renovation plans to make this the best equipped and most pleasant program in the country for interviewing sexually-abused children.

"The Rotary members have been very generous with their time and money. They donated furnishings and after making an initial commitment of $24,000, they are now working on a plan to raise additional funds and provide services needed for the renovations.

"The Legislature wishes to recognize the Rotary Club of Honolulu for entering into a partnership with Hawaii's Judiciary on behalf of our sexually-abused children. This is an excellent example of how segments of our community can join together to work for a common goal. It's only with their active support that the center is moving so quickly toward becoming a reality."

The honorees rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate by Senator McMurdo and leis by Senators Hee, Menor, Henderson, Fernandes Salling and Ikeda.

At 11:56 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:01 o'clock p.m.
