

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

Tuesday, April 21, 1987

The Senate of the Fourteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1987, convened at 11:41 o'clock a.m., with the Vice President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Chaplain Johnnie D. Ward, Captain, Hickam Air Force Base, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Ikeda and Nakasato who were excused.

The Chair announced that she had read and approved the Journal of the Fifty-Fifth Day.

Senator Mizuguchi introduced a group of 100 fourth and fifth grade students from Pearl Ridge Elementary School in Aiea and their teachers, Mrs. Betty Inobe, Mrs. Judith Kurimoto and Mrs. Elaine Toguchi.

Senator George introduced the six women from Kailua United Methodist Church, on a tour of the Capitol and observing the session of the Senate.

Senator Cobb introduced Lt. General William H. Schneider, Deputy Commander-in-Chief, United States Army Pacific Command, seated on the Senate floor, as follows:

"Madam Vice President, on behalf of all members of the Senate, I'd like to make a special introduction today and then present a certificate to a man who has been with us now for some time.

"General William H. Schneider has been Deputy Commander-in-Chief and Chief of Staff, United States Pacific Command, since June 1984, after having commanded the 25th Infantry Division since August 1982, and has been nominated by President Reagan to become Commanding General, Fifth United States Army, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

"General Schneider has been a dedicated community citizen deeply involved in civic activities, serving as vice chairman of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii and was a liaison of the Armed Services Committee and Military Affairs Council of the chamber, and an official to the Hawaii Military Week '87 Committee; member on the executive committee of the Aloha Council of the Boy Scouts of American and the Hawaii Advisory Committee for the Girl Scouts of America; and a member of the Pearl Harbor Rotary Club.

"On behalf of the Senate, I would like to express our appreciation to Lt. General

William H. Schneider for his many contributions to the military and civilian community in Hawaii, and bid him warmest aloha and best wishes as he leaves to assume his new duties.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I'd like to ask General Schneider to please stand and be recognized. We also have accompanying the general the better half of the Army family, Mrs. Barbara Schneider."

General and Mrs. Schneider rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate and leis.

Senator McMurdo added her remarks as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I also would like to acknowledge the splendid contributions of General Schneider to the community-at-large by his encouragement of better relations between members of the Armed Forces serving here in Hawaii and our civilian populace. He unselfishly devoted countless hours to volunteer activities which have brought members of Hawaii's military and civilian communities working together to improve the quality of life in our state.

"I know that Bill and Barbara are going to be missed by the many friends they've made in the five years they've been stationed in Hawaii. I wish them aloha and bon voyage!"

Senator Kuroda also added his remarks as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I also would like to rise to say a few words of welcome to General Schneider.

"I had the pleasure of knowing General Schneider when he was Colonel Schneider and commanded the Field Artillery in Schofield. He left Hawaii when he was promoted to brigadier general. He came back to Hawaii as a two-star general when he took over the command of the 25th Infantry Division, and I recall the day he and I both stood on Senator Hagino's Wilson Bridge in Wahiawa, along with the other public officials, and because it took so long for that bridge to be built, we both were so pleased when it was completed.

"It was my pleasure, at that time, to learn that he was going to get his third star and then assigned to be the Deputy CINCPAC at Camp Smith. And as Senator Cobb mentioned, he may add a fourth star in the future as he becomes Commanding General of the Fifth Army in Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

"And let us all recall that we were successful in convincing Washington to add the fourth star to the position at Ft. Shafter which is now the Western Command, and perhaps one day we may again see General Schneider return to Hawaii, perhaps in the fourth star position at Ft. Shafter. Who knows what the future holds for General Schneider in other activities to come.

"Thank you."

Senator Cobb then interjected:

"Madam Vice President, to elaborate a little on some of the previous remarks, although a corps command is a three-star command it is one of the most treasured commands in the entire United States Army. There are only six Army Corps and for any officer to be selected to command a corps is indeed a very unique honor and privilege and, having command at that level, it obviously puts the man who commands such a unit very much in the running for a fourth star and I would echo Senator Kuroda's comments about hoping to see General Schneider back here as the USARPAC commander some day.

"In addition, I might add that Senator Kuroda failed to mention that General Schneider is a pretty mean golfer, as well."

Senator J. Wong also added his remarks as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I would be remiss not saying a few good words on behalf of the general. I've been chairman of the Military Committee for a short time and I just want to express my gratitude to the general.

"During the short time that I have been chairman, the deep and warm and sincere relationship that has developed surely magnifies his temperament and personality and I hope that he returns to Hawaii soon."

Senator Matsuura then said:

"Madam Vice President, I also want to make a few comments. I walked in late and I didn't realize that General Schneider was leaving Hawaii. I am wondering, maybe, if we should consider introducing another resolution. Give him the fourth star and ask Congress to keep him in Hawaii. Thank you very much."

Senator Kuroda introduced Senator John Coolahan of the Maryland Legislature and his wife, who were sitting in the gallery, and said, "They are here visiting their son who is a lieutenant in the Air Force. Senator Coolahan is a colleague of our former Senator John Leopold. Senator Leopold is now serving his second term as a senator in the State of Maryland, and he is known for what he was known here in Hawaii, going house-to-house, knocking on doors, which is a rarity on the Mainland."

Senator Chang then introduced the Miss Chinatown Hawaii Beauty Pageant queen and her court, who were seated on the Senate floor, and members of the Honolulu Chinese Jaycees as follows:

"Madam Vice President, to celebrate the Year of the Rabbit, the Honolulu Chinese Jaycees have once again selected five young Chinese women as outstanding representatives of their community and heritage, as part of the annual Miss Chinatown Hawaii Beauty Pageant.

"Miss Chinatown Hawaii and her court symbolize the beauty and dignity of Chinese traditions in Hawaii, the dynamic talents of their peers, and the revitalized energies of the Chinatown community.

"May I at this time present Miss Chinatown Hawaii and her court: Miss Chinatown, Christine Lai Shan Fong; First Princess, Lisa Lei-Lan Wong; Third Princess Kimberlee Shui Nin Chun-Ming; and Fourth Princess, Tracy Maile Lin Hung Chung. Also with us is Dr. Philip Chang, president of the Honolulu Chinese Jaycees.

All of the young ladies and Dr. Chang rose to be recognized and were presented the Senate Certificate and leis.

Senator Chang also introduced Calvin Hsia and Bretton Au who were sitting in the gallery to accompany the pageant queen and her court, and Mr. Stephen Kau "who has already been designated a Chinese Living Treasure although he is yet of tender years."

Senator McMurdo then introduced Mrs. Yukiko Elaine Takata of Moiliili Community Center, seated on the Senate floor, as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I have a certificates which I would like to present today to Mrs. Yukiko Elaine Takata, better known as Yuki. I think it's very rare when you find someone who has devoted so much of her life to one community center.

"Yuki Takata, as executive secretary for Moiliili Community Center, has dedicated 39 years of her life as a loyal, conscientious employee as well as a dependable and supportive friend. Yuki has been a significant part of the Center, which provides our community with numerous services, classes and programs.

"Yuki's spirit and dedication exemplifies tremendous pride in one's employment and quality of life, and her exceptional contribution to the Moiliili Community Center and the community-at-large will be endearingly remembered throughout the years to come.

"On behalf of the Senate, I would like to express our deep appreciation and admiration to Mrs. Yukiko Elaine Takata.

"Thank you."

The honoree rose to be recognized and was presented the Senate Certificate by Senator McMurdo and a lei by Senator Menor.

Senator McMurdo also introduced Mr. Ken Takata, husband of the honoree, and Nancy Marker, Nora Furuno and Edith Wilhelm of Moiliili Community Center.

Senator McMurdo also introduced Miss Emily Willing, seated on the Senate floor, as follows:

"Emily Willing has been a volunteer coordinator and chair of the Advisory Board for Operation Network, organized by Chaminade University, Moiliili Community Center and the city's Park and Recreation Department, is a community service program which represents the best of human endeavor, striving for the betterment of our society through development of our youth.

"Miss Willing with conviction and determination has conquered the challenges of her diverse role as a community volunteer, single parent, a fully employed woman in the workforce.

"With great privilege and appreciation, on behalf of the Senate, Miss Emily Willing is recognized for her invaluable contributions to our community."

The honoree rose to be recognized and was presented the Senate Certificate by Senator McMurdo and lei by Senator Blair.

Senator McMurdo also introduced Mr. Neil Yamashiro of the McCully Community Center, seated in the gallery with the ladies from the Moiliili Community Center.

Senator Fernandes Salling introduced Mr. Danny Kaleikini as follows:

"Madam Vice President, it's my privilege today to honor a man who really needs no introduction, who's sitting here on the chamber floor, one of Hawaii's own and one of our best. Before asking him to stand to be recognized by this body, I should like to read some of his accomplishments which I might add is quite impressive.

"Danny Kaleikini is the paramount Hawaiian entertainer, having risen from humble beginnings to his present enviable position as headliner at the prestigious Kahala Hilton Hotel. Danny has demonstrated not only a God-given talent, but has nurtured that talent through perseverance and hard work, and shared that talent to help develop many of Hawaii's young entertainers.

"He not only gives wholeheartedly of himself on stage, but also devotes his time and talent to the various charitable organizations throughout the State, including the Danny Kaleikini Foundation, founded by Mr. Kelikini for which he serves as president; and through his numerous contributions to Hawaiian Civic Organizations, he was awarded the distinction of 'Outstanding Hawaiian of the Year' in 1971 by the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs.

"In recognition of his many contributions of time and talent to the Variety Club, he was recently asked to include his handprints in cement at the King's Village Celebrity Circle.

"Danny's personality and genuine aloha not only touches the hearts of the people of Hawaii, but also throughout the world, affording him the opportunity to be the first foreigner invited to perform at the Thirteenth Annual Hiroshima 'Peace Music Festival' in July of 1986; and his participation in the Tokyo International Song Festival earned him the first place trophy for best song and best entertainer.

"Among his many activities, he is also an avid golfer and sportsman, official greeter for the Hawaiian Open since 1972, sponsors a softball team and plans to paddle as part of a nine-man team in the Molokai to Oahu outrigger canoe race in celebration of the Year of the Hawaiian this year.

"Besides his many charitable and sports activities Danny Kaleikini has been invited to sit on numerous corporate boards in the State of Hawaii, being the first Hawaiian to be asked to serve on several of these corporate boards.

"On behalf of the Senate, I would like to extend fondest aloha and congratulations to Danny Kaleikini for his contributions to the entertainment industry, the community, and to the State of Hawaii, as he celebrates his twentieth year with the Kahala Hilton Hotel."

Senator Solomon added her remarks as follows:

"Madam Vice President, to echo the previous speaker's remarks, I too would like to congratulate Danny Kaleikini for this honor. I do this, Madam Vice President, with a warm feeling of aloha because the Beamer-Solomon family and Danny Kaleikini go way back, especially in the field of entertainment.

"My sister and I used to dance on Danny Kaleikini's luau shows and this is how we worked our way through college. So, Danny, whenever I hear 'Milolii' or 'Hene hene Kouaka', I think of you. So, aloha and mahalo. Thank you, Madam Vice President."

Senator Matsuura then said:

"Madam Vice President, I don't know if people in the audience and fellow colleagues know that two classmates of Danny's class of 1955 at Roosevelt High School are right on the floor -- Senator Ann Kobayashi and former Narcissus Queen, Jade Sen.

"I just wanted to inform the crowd here that there are a lot of stars in that class of 1955. Congratulations, Danny! You're really the best. Thank you."

Senator A. Kobayashi added:

"Madam Vice President, I would just like to add that we also have another classmate here -- Alan Ling who is also a staff member.

"Danny, our entire class is really proud of you and your many accomplishments. Thank you."

Senator Chang added his remarks as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I would be remiss if I did not share a few words with the boy from Papakolea, representing that area in my district.

"First, I'll preface Senator Holt's remarks by warning you that he will challenge you, on behalf of the Senate canoe paddling club, to a race in the Molokai Channel.

"Senator Matsuura has already stolen my thunder with the mention of the famous or infamous class of 1955, but I do want to note that Danny has been designated Hawaii's first Ambassador of Aloha by the former Governor Ariyoshi and has performed all over the world, and in this regard has developed a language facility that we could well use. Danny, next time we need Japanese translation, please assist Senator Kuroda. Thank you."

Senator R. Wong added his congratulatory remarks to Danny Kaleikini as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I'd like to say a few words about Danny. When I first met Danny, I was working in a Waikiki nightclub called the Korean Village. That must have been in 1957, if Danny can remember that far back.

"I used to sit around the Market Place and people used to talk about this young Hawaiian boy from Papakolea who blew a nose flute, and to be quite honest with you, I didn't know what a nose flute was. I thought you played the flute with your lips. It was a very unique experience and the discussion in the Market Place went something like this: 'Oh, the guy Kaleikini, yeah, he's okay but he nevah goin make eet.'

"I am proud to say, Madam Vice President, that we all know of Danny's success and it came after a lot of difficult work. We know that he spent many, many years at his home down in a place called Kahala, I think, and he's been there for quite a long, long time.

"I've known a few musicians in my time and there is one quality Danny has I'd like to share with you that I think all of you can understand why and it is that when Danny performs, he performs with a great amount of aloha and you kind of get involved.

"But I think much more important is what his peers think about him. And if there is one good and wonderful thing about this wonderful person, it is that I have yet to find a musician in this town who said that Danny Kaleikini 'talks stink' about anybody. I think that to me in entertainment, after all is said, is certainly an accomplishment. Danny, aloha, we love you."

Senator Holt also congratulated Danny Kaleikini as follows:

"Madam Vice President, I would be remiss if I did not make a few comments.

"Late last night Senator Fernandes Salling informed me that Danny was going to be here and asked me if I could say a few words. And the first thing that came to mind was, first thing this morning I was going to make some phone calls to some of his friends and ask them if they had anything nice to say about Danny Kaleikini. Well, I'm still waiting for them to call me back. (Laughter.)

"Senator (Ann) Kobayashi talked about the class of '55. We're still proud of you; I was only in preschool. (Laughter.)

"People have forgotten, on a serious note, how long ago it was when Danny started at the Kahala Hilton. At that time Hawaiian music, genuine Hawaiian music, was falling really out of sync with what was happening in the entertainment field. Hawaiian music was at its lowest ebb. It took someone like Danny with the courage and dedication to try and bring Hawaiian music back, and he ventured over to Kahala Hilton and as we can see today, 20 years later, he's been very successful in preserving Hawaiian music.

"Not only has he done a lot for Hawaii in the field of music, he's done a lot for the community, participating in lots of charitable events. And I only have one request, Madam Vice President, at this time, if you could please appoint him to be a conferee on Senate Bill 1192. He is, and with all due respect to the people from Moiliili and McCully, he is a strong supporter of the Senate's position on a convention center at Ala Wai.

"Mahalo, Danny, for coming down. Thank you very much."

Senator J. Wong also added his remarks and said:

"Thank you, Madam Vice President. I'd also like to express some of the sentiments of the previous speakers, but would like to express one particular characteristic of Danny and that's his perseverance.

"I always remember a story about Danny. When he first got started he went to the bank to get a loan for I don't know what it was — a guitar or some musical instrument — and he was turned down. But perseverance is the key in his life and the fact that he has achieved the great excellence that he has in the business and entertainment industry.

"I'd like to express my aloha and mahalo to you, Danny, and especially your perseverance on the golf course because I remember playing with him, Madam Vice President, and he was the guy that carried me through the golf course throughout the game. Thank you, mahalo!"

Senator Aki then said:

"Madam Vice President, I just wanted to also express the love and aloha that we have for Danny Kaleikini, especially those of us who live on the Leeward side of the Island, along the Waianae Coast.

"I would like to say that Danny has never forgotten his roots. He has a lot of 'ohana' and family and friends all over the Islands and in the Leeward Coast, and Danny has returned quite regularly to our community to help in our Veterans Day parades and all the special events.

"Danny, thank you very much for all the kokua and support you have given us. Thank you very much. Mahalo."

The honoree, accompanied by his wife Jackie and brother John, rose to be recognized and was presented the Senate Certificate by Senator Fernandes Salling. Senator Solomon presented him with a lei and Senator Holt a lei to Mrs. Kaleikini.

At 12:13 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:24 o'clock p.m.

Senator Solomon rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Madam Vice President, the Department of the Interior, through the National Park Service, has announced that the nomination of the Pu'uuhonua O Honaunau National Historical Park is now being submitted to the prestigious World Heritage List.

"The nomination has been submitted to the secretariat of the World Heritage Committee in Paris, France, for consideration through a process that would leave the inscription of this historical site to the World Heritage List this fall. There are currently 247 sites around the world on this list.

"The reason I bring this to the Senate's attention is that we did pass a resolution in 1984 that the Pu'uuhonua be included on the list.

"Part of the study conducted to the nomination of the Pu'uuhonua O Honaunau National Historic Park reads as follows:

'This area, formerly known as the City of Refuge National Park, includes sacred grounds where vanquished Hawaiian warriors, non-combatants and kapu breakers were granted refuge for secular authority.

'The park bears a unique or exceptional testimony to a civilization which has disappeared, an outstanding example of a type of building of architectural ensemble which illustrates a significant state in history and is directly or associated with "idees oubliées" of outstanding universal significance.'

"The park superintendent, Mr. Jerry Shimoda, has expressed his gratitude and appreciation to my fellow colleagues in supporting the resolution that he believes helped get our park on the list.

"Madam Vice President, I'm very pleased with this and would like to recommend that maybe our Senate Judiciary Committee chairman should activate the Pu'uhonua O Honaunau for purposes in response to the article that appeared in the Advertiser.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Hee responded:

"Madam Vice President, must be my cue. If the Pu'uhonua was activated, I'd be one of the first recipients to take refuge, no doubt."

Senator Holt, chairman of the Committee on Tourism and Recreation, then requested a waiver of the 48-hour Notice of a Public Hearing on Gov. Msg. No. 264, and the Chair granted the waiver.

"All committee chairmen are requested to turn in their committee reports on nominations by this Friday in order that the Senate can take floor action on the following Monday.

"Also, it would be appreciated if committee chairmen would report out any Senate concurrent resolutions by tomorrow. This is in order to allow sufficient time for transmittal to the House for action there."
