

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

Wednesday, February 21, 1990

The Senate of the Fifteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1990, convened at 11:40 o'clock a.m. with the Vice President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Dr. W. C. Garland of the Hawaii Baptist Convention, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Holt and Mizuguchi who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-First Day.

The following introductions were then made to the members of the Senate:

Senator McCartney, on behalf of Senator Hagino and himself, introduced his three "shadows," Kahuku High School seniors: Leilani Kapu, Pua Shelden and Duane Andersen. "The students are studying the intricacies of our state government," he said.

Senator McCartney also introduced Mrs. Jo Patacsil and said, "Jo Patacsil is a very good friend of mine who happens to be a resident of the Heeia wetlands. She has lived there for over 40 years and the property has been in her family for many, many years. This past weekend, she got Representatives Tom and Peters and me to walk through the rain and the mud and the wetlands to see the flooding problems that she is experiencing."

Senator Hagino, on behalf of Senator McCartney and himself, introduced his eight "shadows": Sophia Aiu, Jacob Robertson and Pouli Mangelei from Kahuku High School; Selizon Vidad and Jennifer Castillo from Waialua High School; and Vicki Crabtree, Eun Jung Yi and Donovan Dela Cruz from Leilehua High School. Senator Hagino said, "These bright and energetic students will be following me throughout the day to learn more about the legislative process."

Senator Crozier, on behalf of Senators Yamasaki, Reed and Solomon, introduced his cousin Franklin Delano Roosevelt Crozier as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to introduce a young man from the Island of Maui who has excelled in the arena of rodeo. He has won numerous prizes as a cowboy for roping and horseback riding. He has also won couple of trophies in 'double mugging.' His partner used to be Senator Clayton Hee. If any of you don't understand what 'double mugging' is in rodeo, they let the steer out of the chute; it weighs about 700 pounds; one guy rides the horse and lassoes the steer, and the other guy runs from the side and wrestles the steer down.

"Franklin has moved on to polo and has excelled to become one of the finest polo players in the State of Hawaii and he is well-renowned in the community of Huelo, a population of seven people, who all consider him a champion. He has now moved back to the Makawao area. Mr. President, within a month or so he will be going to Africa, train some of the Africans to become polo players so they can participate in the next Olympiad.

"Mr. President, I'd like to introduce my cousin Franklin Delano Roosevelt Crozier."

Mr. Franklin Crozier, who was seated in the gallery, rose to be recognized.

| No. 1576, S.D. 1 | Committee on Ways and Means |
| No. 2460 | Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce |
| No. 3267 | Committee on Ways and Means |

At 11:56 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:10 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Senator Fernandes Salling introduced to the members of the Senate Mr. David Ishii, the 1990 Hawaiian Open winner, as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to thank my fellow colleagues for waiting patiently, but at this time I would like to introduce someone who is no stranger to those of you who are golf lovers of which I see the two most lovers of golf are not present with us here today, and I apologize to David Ishii for that because our Johnny, Johnny Carson, that is, who was going to do the famous swing couldn't make it and so he's surely a 'Johnny come lately' today. That was Senator Milton Holt. I'm swinging for him, so to speak.

"I'm introducing David because he is from the Island of Kauai although he's been living here now on Oahu for many years.

"As a native son of Kauai and Hawaii's foremost international golf professional, he came home to take on the best in the world between February 8th and February 11th of this year in the 25th Hawaiian Open held at Waialae Country Club. From the opening round, David exhibited a poise and a swing (we would like to see that, David) that established him as a contender, and sports fans throughout the 50th State followed him on the course and in the media, pulling for him to be only the second local boy to win this prestigious tournament.

"Entering the final round, David was one stroke off the lead, but at the 72nd hole he was one stroke up, $180,000 richer, eligible for all the events on the American tour through 1992, and entitled to play in the Masters, the NEC World Series of Golf, the 1991 MONY Tournament of Champions, and the special invitational events on the PGA Tour.

"All Hawaii and all of us here today, David, are so rightfully proud of you and of your golfing achievements and the honor that you have brought to our state. We, the Senators of the Fifteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, would like to congratulate you on your outstanding and splendid performance in the 1990 Hawaiian Open and wish you continuing good fortune as Hawaii's ambassador of golf.

"And now without further ado, I would like to introduce to this body our champion, David Ishii. David is accompanied by his wife Lorraine and son, 'Little Champ Ishii.'"

Mr. Ishii and his family who were seated on the floor of the Senate rose to be recognized. Senator Fernandes Salling presented him with the congratulatory Senate certificate and Senator Tungpalan presented the lei. Senator Blair presented a lei to Mrs. Ishii.

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:33 o'clock p.m.

Senator Menor, on a point of personal privilege, remarked:

"Mr. President, for information and benefit to all of the Senators in this body, prior to this morning's floor session, your Committee on Judiciary held a public hearing in the auditorium on the four gun control bills that have stimulated a lot of public interest and, as I was made fully aware, phone calls to your offices.

"In order to alleviate you of the additional workload of having to explain to the people who may continue to call your offices as to what your positions are with respect to these gun control bills, I just want to inform this body that as the committee chairman I made a recommendation that we hold all of these bills, and my recommendation received the concurrence of all the Judiciary Committee members who were there.

"Also for the information of this body, the committee received voluminous testimony from over a hundred individuals and organizations, and with the exception of the representatives of the law enforcement community and one or two private citizens, the rest of the testimony submitted, both written and orally, were in opposition to these bills. Thank you."

Senator Wong also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to rise on a point of personal privilege in response to the chairman of Judiciary.

"First of all, I am disappointed that the bills were not passed out of the Judiciary Committee. Secondly, this does represent a setback, as far as I am concerned personally, but we cannot allow our personal feelings to intervene in the structure of the Senate. It is the prerogative of the chairman to withhold a bill. It has been my position and will continue to be my position that once that decision is made that, as president, I would support that decision.

"However, Mr. President, I do feel that progress has been made. This is the first time a bill has gotten so far with 25 signatures. Maybe next year we may have to have 26; but whatever it takes, that measure will be back before the Legislature another time.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Menor responded as follows:

"Mr. President, in response to the previous speaker's remarks, I'd like to say that the previous speaker's efforts in trying to give the issue of gun control and in general the major concerns that have been expressed on the part of the law enforcement community about the serious problem that we have in the State of Hawaii in terms of the illegal use and possession of firearms and the use of firearms in committing serious crimes against innocent victims, that that issue was really given a thorough and comprehensive hearing. In that respect, I think the Senate President's efforts were not for naught.

"I'd also like to point out that another positive result that I think will result from the committee hearing that we held today is the fact that your committee is fully intent upon passing out bills that would significantly toughen penalties with respect to the illegal use and possession of firearms so that we penalize those individuals, members of the criminal element, who are preying upon innocent victims in society by using firearms in committing crimes against these individuals. And I'd like to point out that one of the bills that was introduced by myself and the Senate President would call for the toughening of penalties with respect to the illegal use of firearms, and it's my intent to try to move legislation out of the committee this session to address that particular concern.

"I really appreciate the Senate President's efforts and we'll do the best we can in the future to try to address the concerns that he, as well as many people in the community, continue to feel about crimes that are committed involving the use of firearms. Thank you."

Senator Blair added:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Remarks were made to the effect that it is the prerogative of a chairman to hold a bill. I just want the record to reflect that there is no such rule within the Senate rules. I recognize no such prerogative on the part of any chairman. Thank you."
