THE
SEVENTEENTH LEGISLATURE
STATE OF HAWAII
REGULAR SESSION OF 1994
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

FIRST DAY

Wednesday, January 19, 1994

In accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, was called to order at 10:00 o'clock a.m., by the Honorable Malama Solomon, temporary Chairperson of the Senate.

At this time, Senator Aki rose on a point of order.

The temporary Chairperson recognized Senator Chang, and Senator Chang then moved that the Senator from the First Senatorial District be elected as temporary Chairperson of the Senate, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling.

Senator Aki then posed the following question:

"Madam Chair, by what authority do you have to be the presiding officer of the Senate?"

"I must remind you that I am still the President of the Senate. I was elected by this body last year during the session, until a successor is named or I am voted out of office, I am still the President of the Senate.

"I would like to have a ruling from you as to why you are at the podium."

The Chair responded:

"Thank you very much Senator Aki. It has been discussed with all of the members and Senate Rule No. 2 allows you to be removed as President during the interim. Senator Holt has resigned as Vice President and Senator Mizuguchi has declined to take the podium in deference to you.

Senator Aki then rose and stated:

"Madam Chair, this is a very sad day in our history, because it is my belief, under the Constitution, under our Statutes, and our Senate Rules, which we adopted, that I still serve as the President of the Senate. This body has broken the laws of our sovereign state. This body has demonstrated by the actions today that the State Senate is a body ruled by individuals and not by laws.

"This is a sad and tragic message to our citizens of our state. I stand here today to register my protest to what is happening here. I want to state for the record that all and any business that is transacted today and during the duration of this Legislative Session is done illegally, and, therefore, subject to our Constitution.

"It is clear that I am not recognized as President by you and by the leadership you represent, when by law I am obligated to open this Legislative Session. It is futile to continue this discussion with a leadership that is so arrogant. Therefore, for the good of this body and what it represents to our state and our citizens, I will not force you to vacate the podium, because I know to do so would only lead to more embarrassment and animosity, and even possible physical confrontation. This is not what the people of Hawaii expect of us. I choose to take the high ground.

"I will stop here and allow the work of this body to proceed. I am, however, going to remind you, and this body, and the people of this state that what you have done and continue to do is against all laws of decency, fairness, and above all, the laws of our Constitution, our state, and mankind. Thank you."

Senator Chang then stated:

"I believe the pending question is my motion to invest you, the Senator from the First Senatorial District, as temporary Chair."

At this time, the motion to invest the Senator from the First Senatorial District as temporary Chair was put to a vote and carried, with Senator Aki voting no.

The members of the Senate and guests then rose to sing "Hawaii Pono'i" and the National Anthem led by Senators Fernandes Salling and Solomon.

The Chair then made the following opening remarks:

"I would like to welcome all of you. This is a wonderful day for us and it's an exciting day for the Senate. As you all know, we will be welcoming a new member, and we really want to make this a special day for her. Mahalo."

At 10:15 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:16 o'clock a.m.

"To open my remarks, I want to thank the members for electing me as your temporary Chairperson."

The Divine Blessing was then invoked by Bishop Yoshiaki Fujitani, Honpa Hongwanji Mission, who was escorted to the rostrum by Senators Mizuguchi, Tungpalan and Koki.

At 10:21 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:22 o'clock a.m.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Gov. Msg. No. 1, dated November 26, 1993, informing the Senate that he appointed Rosalyn Baker to the Senate, effective November 26, 1993, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Russell Blair from the State Senate, 4th Senatorial District, and pursuant to Section 17-3, HRS, Ms. Baker's term will expire on General Election Day of 1994, was referred to the Committee on Credentials.

Senator Grauly then moved that a committee of three Senators be appointed by the Chair as a Committee on Credentials to examine the Letter of Appointment of the Honorable Rosalyn Baker and to submit a report of its findings to the Senate, seconded by Senator George and carried.

The Chair thereupon appointed Senators Grauly, A. Kobayashi and George to serve on such committee.

At 10:23 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:25 o'clock a.m.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Senator Grauly, for the Committee on Credentials, presented a report (Spec. Com. Rep. No. 1) as follows:

"Honorable Malama Solomon
Temporary Chairperson of the Senate
Seventeenth State Legislature
Regular Session of 1994
State of Hawaii

Madam Chairperson:

Your Committee on Credentials begs leave to report that it has examined the Letter of Appointment of the Honorable Rosalyn Baker and finds that she is qualified to fill the vacancy in the Senate created by the resignation of Senator Russell Blair for the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Rey Grauly
/s/ Ann Kobayashi
/s/ Mary George"

Senator Grauly moved that Special Committee Report No. 1 be adopted, seconded by Senator George and carried.

The Committee on Credentials was thereupon discharged with thanks.

The Chair, at this time, appointed Senators Grauly, Fernandes Salling, Iwase, Matsuura and Matsunaga to escort Chief Justice Ronald T.Y. Moon of the Hawaii State Supreme Court to the rostrum to administer the oath of office to the newly appointed member of the Senate.

The Senators escorted Chief Justice Moon to the rostrum and were thereupon discharged with thanks.

Chief Justice Moon then administered the oath of office to the newly appointed member of the Senate, the Honorable Rosalyn Baker.

The Roll was then called by the Clerk showing all Senators present.

At this time, the Chair, on behalf of the Senators, congratulated Senator McCartney on the birth of his son.

Nominations for officers of the Senate being next in order, Senator Hagino placed in nomination the name of Senator Norman Mizuguchi for President of the Senate, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator McCartney then rose to nominate Senator Ann Kobayashi for President of the Senate, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Tanaka moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Senator Kanno.

The motion to close the nominations was then put by the Chair and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Madam Chair. Why am I doing this? Why am I putting myself up against the powers that be? I'm very scared, but I have to do this.

"For the past few months, across the state, I've been approached by people who are angry, who are discouraged, and they keep telling me to keep fighting, so I can't let them down. I have to respond to the people; I also have to look myself in the mirror every day and I have to keep my integrity, and I have to do what I feel is right.

"I was at a seminar on Saturday, and we were told by a woman speaker that we have to have backbone, as well as a wishbone, and that's why I'm doing this.

"I have not run around trying to get votes. I don't have any resources. I don't have any resources to offer high-three positions. The only thing I can offer is government by the people and for the people.

"We need a Senate for the people. We have to stop all our in-fighting. I'm only asking for a change in leadership style. In order to maintain our working relationship, I will pledge to keep all leadership positions and we will keep all committee chairs. We will have business as usual and just move forward. I'm just asking for a change in leadership style.

"When I was chair of the Ways and Means Committee I tried to treat everyone equally, regardless of how they voted or what they said, and that is how we should lead the Senate. We need to work as one body. Every Senator should be treated equally and with the same respect. We were all elected in the same way, and we should all be given the chance to represent our people as best we can. We should not have a system where we reward our friends and punish our enemies. There should also be an appeals process if someone feels they have been wronged. We need an independent Senate. We need a Senate that the people can be proud of, so I'm asking you now for your vote. I'm asking you equally and in the open, please give me your vote. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura, rising in support of Senator A. Kobayashi, then stated:

"Thank you, Madam Chair. I rise in support of Senator Ann Kobayashi for Senate President.

"One of my great disappointments in chairing the Senate Investigative Committee was the fear expressed by the people. I have never in my life found so many people afraid of government, afraid of retribution. Many people called me anonymously, had written letters anonymously. There were a few, such as Justice Nakamura, who stepped forward, who weren't afraid of retribution. He wanted to improve our system.

"When I evaluate all of these experiences relating to my investigating work into the procurement and ERS system,

I'm reminded of a person by the name of Dietrich Bonhoeffer. I'm sure some of the theologians will know him. When I woke up this morning, I remembered him. He was a German theologian who stood up against the Nazi regime. He knew what was happening to the Jewish people, and spoke against it. This theologian stood up and challenged Hitler. He was imprisoned, and ultimately he was executed. Yes, he was afraid, yet he was willing to die to bring about a better government in Germany.

"Some of you know that I spent ten years in India, I have walked on the same path that Mahatma Gandhi trodded. Mahatma Gandhi had a dream, and his dream was independence for the people of India. He challenged the British Empire, there were a lot of people who were afraid of the government and many died to make the dream of independence a reality.

"A few days ago, we celebrated the birthday of Martin Luther King, and he too had a dream. His dream was equality for the Blacks, and he challenged our nation. There were a lot of people who were afraid and many also perished in making that dream become a reality.

"In the recent history of Hawaii, there was a man named Governor John Burns. I didn't know that Governor John Burns died a poor man. Governor Burns had the vision, he had the wisdom, frankness, fearlessness, and moral courage that allowed him to be the pioneer and leader of the true democracy for all the people of Hawaii.

"Now almost 50 years after John Burns and the veterans rallied the people of Hawaii to energize the weak Democratic Party, the democrats again face the challenge of resurrecting the Democratic Party.

"Then and now, one theme dominates -- return government to the people. No more retribution, people should never fear government. Hawaii was never to be governed by fear and retaliation; we don't have to fear. For this very reason, it is important that we must select someone for President who the people know without question, that they are going to be first, last, and always for them, for their well being.

"I asked the people, my family, my friends in Hilo to do me one favor. I have only one vote today, just one vote, but I asked them to put two ribbons on their cars and mailboxes. I don't care where you put them, just put two ribbons, one red and one white. The red one, of course, you all know, is for MADD, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, nobody can be against that! I want to see the white ribbons to remind me that it is their one vote that gives me the one vote here today.

"When they tried to change the Senate investigative committee resolution, I was very upset. The TV focused on me, interviewed me, and I was angry, and frustrated, and my facial expression showed it. My five-year-old granddaughter Jessie Kai saw me on TV on Friday. On Sunday, when the pastor asked if there were any prayers, my granddaughter raised her hand and said, 'Please pray for my grandpa.'

"This past Christmas I received a card from my six-year-old granddaughter Ruthie Kai, who gave me a little picture of herself, and she wrote on that little card, 'Grandpa, I know they're all ganging up against you but I will always love you.'

"Although I have only one vote, I'm going to make that vote count. I don't care if I'm the only one that's going to vote for Senator Ann Kobayashi, but I want the people of Hilo to know that we do need a leader that will put government back to the people.

"Whoever the leader is going to be, we're all going to work together regardless of whoever is the President but at least there is a track record of an individual here who has always put people first. And for that reason, I speak in favor of the nominee, Senator Ann Kobayashi, for Senate President. Thank you, very much."

At this time, Senator B. Kobayashi also rose in support of Senator A. Kobayashi as follows:

"Madam Chair, I rise to speak in support of the nomination of Senator Ann Kobayashi.

"I'd like to bring you back to about a year ago, and ask who was serious about reform in this body? Who was concerned about changing the way we operate in procedural terms, in organizational terms, and in substantive terms?

"We had one side that was talking about this in a lot of different ways, and we had another side that was hardly talking about it. On one side was a person whose main point of reform was the splitting apart of the Ways and Means Committee, but no other procedural reform. Now, even as recently as yesterday, when we had a very long majority caucus meeting, there was discussion of a major reform item, that of open committee decision-making with a quorum present. The purpose, however, of this major reform item, seemed to be unsettled.

"Discussion ranged about: was the purpose of this reform item to comply with a constitutional legal requirement that was stated by the House Majority attorney in 1991, that seemed to say that decision-making must occur in open committee meeting? Or, was the purpose of public accountability? Another suggestion was perhaps the purpose of this open committee decision making, with a quorum present, was to force more Senators to attend committee meetings in order to be more informed when they voted.

"Now it would seem that if we were serious about reform, the purpose would have been clear. Maybe the purpose of this major reform item was public pressure, and whether the Senate will look good or not look good if we pass this reform.

"I have here a document that was signed approximately thirteen months ago by Senators Fernandes Salling, Grauly, Mizuguchi, Tanaka, Chang, Fukunaga, Hagino, Solomon, and Blair. In this document, signed by those individuals, the reform items listed include: reduction of the Senate budget, open committee decision-making and recorded votes, an item of which I just discussed, an appeals process for referral of bills, prior concurrence and committee amendments, appropriation recommendations of subject matter committees, reporting of Senate expenditures on a quarterly basis and with some detail, notice of meetings and hearings, attendance at Senate sessions, high standards of personal conduct, term limitations for the President to be limited to four consecutive years, limitation on number of bills and resolutions to be introduced, and the list goes on for several more pages. If this document was a serious attempt to make for a meaningful reform in this body a year ago, I think it should be considered as seriously today. I believe that Ann Kobayashi, who has supported the reform efforts that were begun last year, is serious for reform and, hence, worthy of our vote.

"On a second item, that of working for the people. We are all here to work for the common good, the public good, the people, and not for ourselves, not for improving our relationships with other Senators, although that is important, not for the purposes of endearing ourselves to potential campaign contributors, not to help each other in an 'I scratch your back, you scratch mine' kind of relationship. We are here to do the people's business. Senator Kobayashi has had a long record of speaking out on issues related to children. You remember the Keiki Coalition which she helped start, women's issues, family issues.

"I might note that one of the few projects fully identified by one of the nominees has to do with a 'field of dreams' proposal. A proposed twenty million dollar professional baseball training facility in the cane fields of Ewa. This proposal grew from a twenty million dollar proposal to a thirty-four million dollar proposal. Whether this represents real needs of the people, I leave up to you, but it is a project which I believe affects only some of the people. I believe if we want to get our agenda straight, we should be clear, which people we serve. And on this count, I support Senator Ann Kobayashi.

"Third point, I believe that Senator Kobayashi would be supportive of an attempt to keep a special investigating committee alive. It may not be the investigating committee that we currently have, it may not consist of the same members of that investigating committee, but I believe that she sincerely supports the continuation of some sort of special investigating committee. And for that I support her nomination.

"Lastly, I think we need a Senate President who can communicate. I was very surprised, and even shocked, that as recently as yesterday, it seems that the good Senator from the 21st District of Leeward, Oahu, and the Senator from the 15th District, had not personally spoken to each other to resolve the differences of what should happen on Opening Day. Discussions were held indirectly through third persons, as I understand. A person cannot be an effective Senate President without communication, without the willingness, the humility, the personal attributes that allow one to begin the communication process, and then begin the compromise or healing process.

"I believe that Senator Ann Kobayashi has a style, a personality, which is friendly, open, easy going, down home, relaxed, and enables individuals to comfortably begin the communication process, and for this, she has my vote.

"And so, Madam Chair, I would urge support for Senator Ann Kobayashi based upon seriousness of rapport, dedication to real issues affecting real people, for her support for a special investigating committee, and for a manner that facilitates communication and the healing process among Senators. Thank you."

At this time, Senator Iwase requested that his comments, in support of Senator Mizuguchi, be submitted into the journal.

The Chair, having so ordered, Senator Iwase's comments read as follows:

"For months, a great deal of public discussion and media attention has been focused on the meetings, deliberations, and actions of the majority caucus during its efforts to reorganize the Senate. In view of the many versions of the events that took place and the process that was used, I think it both necessary and appropriate to state the facts for the record:

1. On or about November 3, 1993, a majority caucus was held at the request of President James Aki. At that meeting, a motion was made to remove Senator

Aki as President and a majority of the Senate membership voted in support of the motion.

2. On or about November 5, 1993, another majority caucus was held. Senator Aki was present at that meeting. The caucus agreed, without dissent, to hold an election by secret ballot to elect the Senate President. Members listed their choice for President on a ballot and the names of the four candidates with the most votes were written on the blackboard. The candidates were Senators Chang, Holt, Mizuguchi, and myself. Senator Chang withdrew his name from consideration, leaving the three remaining candidates to vie for the Presidency. At that point, the caucus requested, without dissent, that the three candidates (Senators Holt, Mizuguchi, and myself) meet to:

- a. Recommend a process to select one of the three candidates for President, or
- b. Recommend one name from among the three candidates for President.

3. Senators Holt, Mizuguchi, and I met on November 5, 1993 in accordance with the instructions of the caucus.

4. On or about November 6, 1993, the majority caucus met once more. While 21 Senators were present, Senator Aki was not at that meeting. Senators Holt, Mizuguchi, and I recommended that Senator Mizuguchi be elected President of the Senate. The caucus voted 20-0 (with one abstention) in support of the recommendation. The caucus thereafter requested that Senators Mizuguchi, Holt, and I develop and recommend to the caucus a slate for committee chairs. The caucus agreed that there would be one 'up/down' vote on the full slate. Senators were asked to submit to Senators Mizuguchi, Holt, and myself their preference for chair positions as well as committee membership assignments.

5. On or about November 8, 1993, the caucus reconvened. Senator Aki was not in attendance. A recommended slate of committee chairs was presented to the caucus by Senators Holt, Mizuguchi, and myself. A majority of the Senate voted to support the slate of committee chairs. Shortly thereafter, Senator Mizuguchi assumed oversight of the Senate's day to day operations.

6. On January 14, 1994, Senator Aki filed a suit in the First Circuit Court (Civil No. 94-0167-01) challenging his removal on constitutional and statutory grounds and seeking a restraining order that would have allowed him to preside over the convening of the 1994 Regular Session. On January 15, 1994, the court denied the Senator's request for a restraining order, and held that the case was non-justiciable. In short, the court refused to interfere in what it considered to be an internal Senate matter.

"It is clear that no one individual or group of individuals made any of the final decisions leading to the reorganization of the Senate. A process was clearly established and carried out by the majority, and the results of that process, having been left intact after judicial review, should be respected by all of the members of the Senate."

Senator Chang, rising in support of Senator Mizuguchi, then stated:

"Madam Chair, the members of the majority honor the State of Hawaii by offering a choice for President of the Senate between two individuals who have served others with stature, dignity and experience. The commitment and interest they bring to this body speaks well of the Senate and the State of Hawaii.

"On the one hand, we have Senator Mizuguchi, who has proven leadership experience, pervasive understanding of the legislative process, and extensive resources that he can utilize in the office of President of the Senate.

"On the other hand, we have Senator Ann Kobayashi, my dear friend, who has selflessly worked for those who have few advocating on their behalf. Her agenda will surely provide a fuller measure of fairness and justice to all in our society.

"We should feel proud that we have the privilege to make this choice, for in other parts of the world such decisions are unilaterally imposed.

"After much contemplation, my choice can and will be made. My choice today is for a man whom I respect at the highest level, has a depth of knowledge and a commitment to serve. He is also a dear friend and I am devoting my energy to achieving his vision and program.

"The Senate should elect Norman Mizuguchi as President, and it is in that manner that I will cast my vote. Thank you."

Senator Aki rose in support of Senator A. Kobayashi and stated:

"Madam Chair, I have to rise to speak regarding the nomination for our President of the Senate. This is a very important matter, and I do so because we need an independent State Senate.

"I think, whoever leads the Senate this next year has to be independent if we are to do the people's business. I think it's very clear, from the record of the two candidates, that Senator Ann Kobayashi has demonstrated that independence last session and for many sessions. I do so because of the scandalous way this whole affair was conducted these last three months. I don't have to tell you what happened, it is well documented. The secret meetings amongst the Counsel of Elders, the allegations against me that have no evidence except a tape between two Senators, and not myself. I do so because this entire business has been conducted in an unconstitutional manner that is against all of the things that we should stand for. And who orchestrated this?

"I cannot support a candidate who has condoned the actions as exemplified this morning in our opening ceremonies.

"And finally, I do so on behalf of the many citizens of our state, some of whom are here today, standing in the rain, and the many, many more who are back in our communities, who are watching, and will remember this day.

"I urge all members to please vote for Senator Ann Kobayashi."

Senator Matsunaga also rose in support of Senator A. Kobayashi as follows:

"Thank you, Madam Chair. I rise in support of the Senator from Manoa.

"First, I'd like to applaud her courage for running and giving this Senate body a choice. A choice that we did not necessarily have at our last election.

"Despite the fact that the results of this election are probably a foregone conclusion, I think it's healthy, and it's good for the body, because any kind of legislative body that stifles open debate in full public view, is not a true democratic body.

"My reasons for supporting the Senator from Manoa are simple. She is a woman of fairness, she is a woman of honesty, and she is a woman of integrity. I am confident that the Senator from Manoa would run the Senate as she did the Ways and Means Committee last year, and that is with openness, with independence, and with fiscal responsibility.

"This vote is an opportunity to breathe new life into an old body, to push away public cynicism, doubt, and fear, and I encourage my colleagues to join me in voting for Senator Ann Kobayashi. Thank you."

Senator Holt then rose in support of Senator Mizuguchi and said:

"Madam Chair, the rest of the Senate having had the opportunity for a choice, I think you have the choice to listen to me, if you'll afford me one.

"I'd like to point out to the members, since we're referring to an individual's character and why we should support them on the basis of what they represent, their integrity and everything else, that, yes, I believe this is a vote of integrity for those members who are present.

"If you go back, I'd like to refresh your memory of a caucus that we had some two months ago in November, in that very room, where we went through a democratic process. We started with a level playing field. Everybody was afraid of the opportunity to nominate whoever they wanted for President of this body. We went through that selection process openly and fairly, and we ended up with one name -- Norman Mizuguchi. That name came before this caucus through twenty of us. (I believe there were two absent.) The question was asked to every one of the Senators in this caucus: are there any objections? There was none. Was there any discussion? There was none. Was any other name nominated? There was none. Unanimously, this body, in that room, voted Norman Mizuguchi in as President of the Senate.

"Since then, Senators have been carrying out their responsibilities as Chairman of their respective committees; they've been out in the community as Chairman; they've been assuming duties assigned by the President, and referring to Norman Mizuguchi as President. Not once, mentioning to him that they were, maybe, losing their support for him by changing their mind regarding his being President, until this morning. Why? I don't know; I'm not at liberty to answer that question. You have to answer that yourself.

"To me, to come forward this morning and stand here and give speeches, when for the last two months you have been supporting him as President -- there have been a few of you who have been out there publicly supporting Senator Aki, and those of you who have done that, we understand who you are and we know where you're coming from, but the rest of you...."

The Chair then interjected and reminded Senator Holt to keep his remarks to the subject.

"It is in support of Senator Mizuguchi.

"I would like to close with a little bit of history for some of you who may have forgotten the vote that we took in that room, so that in the future as we operate in the Senate under anybody's leadership, Senator Kobayashi or Senator Mizuguchi, that the decisions that are made in that room are made with integrity and forthrightness. Thank you."

Senator Grauly also rose in support of Senator Mizuguchi and stated:

"Madam Chairman, I rise to speak in support of the nomination of Norman Mizuguchi for Senate President.

"The contrast between this opening day and the opening day of a year ago is very striking to me.

"I want to remind everyone that twelve months ago I was on the losing side of a battle. And our leader then, Norman Mizuguchi, stood up at this very place, at a similar time, and stood up not to criticize those who had won. You, Senator Matsuura, you won. Senator Bert, you won. Everybody who has spoken were all winners, and he was the loser. And he stood up, Senator Aki, and he pledged support to you and the ruling majority of the Senate, so that you could go on and do the people's business. And the contrast between what happened then, and what's happening today, is the best evidence I know of why Norman Mizuguchi should be our Senate President.

"It is the rule of the majority that must prevail. You might not win all of the time but I think you need to keep in mind that it's majority rule. And if you lost, you need to pledge your support to those who have won so that they can go on to do the people's business.

"What we have today is nothing more, sad to say, than posturing in front of the TV cameras, posturing in front of the crowd. But the vote was taken in November, in the caucus, and Norman Mizuguchi won, as the previous speaker said, 20 to nothing. Where were you then? Why are you speaking now that you've got the TV cameras on? That is the contrast that I want to bring before you.

"The reason why I voted then and I vote now for Norman Mizuguchi is that I believe in his integrity. I believe in his independence. I believe in his promises of reform. The very same things that those who have spoken before me have complained about. I think he should be given an opportunity to demonstrate his sincerity, and I think he should be given an opportunity to bring the Senate together, as no one has been able to bring us together before. And I ask all Senators to give Senator Mizuguchi that opportunity. Thank you."

Roll Call vote having been requested, the vote went as follows:

Eight (8) votes for Senator Ann Kobayashi, with Senators Aki, A. Kobayashi, B. Kobayashi, Levin, Matsunaga, Matsuura, McCartney and Nakasato voting in her favor; and Fourteen (14) votes for Senator Norman Mizuguchi, with Senators Baker, Chang, Fernandes Salling, Fukunaga, Grauly, Hagino, Holt, Ikeda, Iwase, Kanno, Mizuguchi, Solomon, Tanaka and Tungpalan voting in his favor.

Senators George, Koki and Reed abstained.

The ballot having been so cast, Senator Norman Mizuguchi was elected President of the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994.

The Chair then appointed Senators Hagino, Holt, McCartney and George to escort the President to the rostrum.

At this time, Senator Aki rose on a point of order and stated:

"Madam Chair, I believe the agenda calls for me to make my remarks before the Senator is escorted to the Chair."

The Chair responded:

"Senator Aki, I was under the impression that you chose to make your remarks during the discussion portion when we were taking up the business of nominations."

The Chair then denied Senator Aki the opportunity to state his remarks.

Senator Aki responded:

"Madam Chair, I would like to have my remarks spoken so that people in our state can hear it."

The Chair then asked Senator Aki:

"Do you have any other remarks? You have already spoken twice on the floor in the discussion portions."

Senator Aki answered in the affirmative.

At 11:11 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:13 o'clock a.m.

The Chair stated the following:

"The Chair has been advised during this short recess that Senator Aki has remarks that he would like to make that include different subject matters than those that were discussed earlier. With this in mind, the Chair will allow Senator Aki to proceed."

Senator Aki's remarks were as follows:

"Thank you, Madam Chair. Distinguished guests, members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen:

"I am pleased to be able to speak. I must admit that at times during the past several weeks, I have looked forward to this day with great anxiety. The well publicized dispute over the Senate presidency has put me in a situation that is without precedent. Until quite recently, I did not know what would happen today. One thing, I was sure of, however, was that I would insist on speaking, whatever the consequences, because it is my belief, that under the Constitution, Statutes and Senate Rules, I could not be removed as President until the Senate was lawfully convened in session. We have come to that point today.

"One year ago, on the third Wednesday in January, 1993, I was elected President of the State Senate, Seventeenth State Legislature. The months went by quickly and with great effort on the part of many of our Senators and many of our citizens of Hawaii. I am proud to have served as Senate President and I am proud of what we accomplished during my short tenure: our tough stance on Supreme Court nominees; procurement reform; the convention center; the hurricane insurance fund; and the fact that we ended the session on time during a very difficult period in our history.

"These are the things that I will look back on with a great sense of accomplishment, and there is so much more that needs to be done. A government that has overgrown and overtaxed our people. An environment to protect for the future. A Hawaiian sovereignty movement that must be met without destroying Hawaii's racial harmony. A school system still under bureaucratic shackles. My hope is that we do even better this year. However, I have come to realize and accept that what we attain during this session will come about under new leadership. For the good of the Senate, I wish the new leadership well, and I will continue to support what is right and good for the people of this state and I will oppose what I believe is wrong.

"I speak today, for the last time as President of the Senate. I do so with a heavy heart, but with a clear vision on what needs to be done.

"First, I want to state for the record that I am innocent of all charges of bribery leveled against me. I was not offered, nor did I take a bribe and yet I was judged guilty without the benefit of a trial.

"My critics have said that they wanted to save me from further embarrassment. I fail to see their logic. How can I be embarrassed when the truth is spoken? How can I be embarrassed when I hold on to the values embodied in our Constitution? How can I be embarrassed when I obey the laws of our state? And, how can I be embarrassed when I stand up for the laws that we enacted and swore to follow?

"No, I am proud to stand up and speak out for what I believe in.

"It is with great honor and respect, that I stand here and welcome the people of Hawaii who have come to listen and participate in the possibilities that government, for the people, by the people, and of the people be firmly established at this time. No other moment may be said to be more important than this, to ask for and acknowledge the presence of divine providence in our task to carry out the affairs of state, consistent with the principles of our republic, the Constitution for the United States of America.

"Some months ago, I was assailed by a leadership that has known no bounds. This leadership would have it that 'the elders' know better what is good and proper for the governance of this land. They would have it that 'business as usual' is the order of the day, and that no challenge would be forthcoming from any sector. Surprisingly, I saw fit to challenge their authority. Surprisingly, the new leadership was shaken when I invoked the rule that, only in session and by a vote of the Senators present, may I be removed from office as President of the Senate. It is unfortunate that this body does not recognize this rule, because as a republic we are a government of laws not the whims of a leadership that is in disregard of the law.

"Personal attacks have been made upon me as a leader, and there has been considerable hearsay that would place my character in question. These continued attempts to disregard the will of the people, as well as to discredit me, are both reprehensible and ethically repugnant! My leadership stands for truth, justice, liberty, and ethics in action in daily life. This stand I take for ethics in government: my commitment to the people of Hawaii. I do not mean the theory of ethics, but the practical action of ethical behavior in all branches of government, the legislative, executive, and judicial. Let it be known and completely understood that our ethics are based upon the rule of common law, and that law comes from a profound comprehension of the origins of life, liberty, and happiness. May I recall for us the words of Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence for this great Union. 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.'

"This one sentence places the authority for our form of government in proper perspective and allows for, yes, encourages and empowers our free enterprise system guided by the laws of this land, and for the common law responsibility and accountability of the men who are created equal. No individual or group of individuals is more or less equal than another. Knowing this, there is no place in this state government, or for any other government, for the continued 'business as usual' for, by, and of the special interest groups. Our people have been dis-enfranchised from government to a great degree, and it is my commitment to do all within my power as a member of this Senate to champion the will of the people in this Legislative Session.

"My true assessment of the condition of the state of the state is that we have lost a vision, or perhaps, we have never had a vision for our state other than that of a repository for our military and a distant tourist destination. We must enlist the assistance and wisdom of the private sector and the people who have the wisdom and spirit to bring forth a vision that is greater than just the economic interests of a few, and the control of our land by that few.

"May I quote here from a speech by former Governor Mario Cuomo of New York:

'I believe we can balance our lives and our society even as we balance our books. We can. To those who today stand on platforms built by their forbears' pain and are warmed by applause earned by their forebears' courage; remember who we are, and where we came from and what we have been taught.

Those who made our history taught us above all things that idea of family, mutuality, the sharing of benefits and burdens fairly, for the good of all. An ideal essential to our success, and no family that favored its strong children or that in the name of evenhandedness failed to help its vulnerable ones would be worthy of the name. And no state or nation that chooses to ignore its troubled regions and people, while watching others thrive, can call itself justified.

We must be the family of New York. Feeling one another's pain, sharing one another's blessings, equitably, honestly, fairly, without respect to geography or race or political affiliation. Those who made our history taught us more by a willingness to sweat for a lifetime just to give their children something better, they taught us the virtue of hard work.'

"Contrary to the politically correct thinking that many of our present leaders have today, I believe that we have become legally piggly, that is, we have encumbered our land with all too many laws. These laws have and do make our position in the center of the Pacific, a very unattractive place for the creative mind, which could instead establish productive endeavors that would give to our land a new light and opportunity for our children. By this dismantling of big government, as recently Governor Thompson of Wisconsin has done, by insisting on 'workfare,' not 'welfare,' we assist our people to explore areas of activity that are both educational, productive, and self-empowering. As we unravel the bureaucracy of this government, we lessen the need for a tax base that is the highest in the nation. This oppressive taxation has left our people wanting: wanting for homes; wanting for good education; wanting for creative employment; and wanting for a sense of well-being. By decreasing government and bureaucracy, we shift the activity of life to the private sector, the sector of the people. They will know what to do with more money in their pockets, with land available, with less red tape and restrictions for their enterprise; they know how to create a productive business; they know what is needed and required for themselves and community. Government must roll back its control, domination, and manipulation and allow people to do what is natural: live life in liberty and happiness!

"This vision for Hawaii, has another aspect that is equally, if not more, important than the lessening of government encroachment upon our lives. This vision requires the full and active participation of the people and their responsible and accountable guidance of their government. No longer may we maintain the entitlement mentality, the mentality that we are owed something by government or that government will take care of us from cradle to grave. It is incumbent upon the people to wean themselves from the notion and self-indulgence that government is required to do more than provide for the common defense and regulate interstate commerce as well as foreign commerce, as stated in the Constitution for the United States of America. The handouts of the early 1960's, has been, is, and will be, a continued source of loss and disruption for our society. These 'war on poverty' programs have not worked. Handouts and pork barrel mentality work for but a brief time, and then greater taxes must be levied to replenish the loss.

"This vision, this relationship of people acting with government can work if we choose to commit ourselves to work together for the common good, the welfare of each of us, the welfare of the land. We must begin to see our land as being alive and that as we violate her integrity, we have violated our own. Ethical behavior is a balanced relationship: man to government, man to man, man to environment. If, as we act in this 1994 Session, and maintain at each point the attitude: respect and care for the land, the sea, the air, and each other, and the ultimate purpose of the well being of each and every person in this land, we shall become a beacon of light for the Pacific basin communities and the world. This radiant light will shine forth due to love and harmony established by the proper ethical behavior of her people.

"I call upon my colleagues in government and the people of this land to unite in this vision! I ask all of you, whatever your political beliefs, whatever community you come from, whatever you think of me, and whatever you think of us here in the Legislature, to help all of us keep the oath that we swore to uphold, and share in this vision.

"Pray that we all see Hawaii for the family that it is. That all of us today give Hawaii the leadership it deserves.

"Thank you, and God bless everyone."

At this time the Chair appointed Senators Hagino, Holt, McCartney and George to escort the President to the rostrum.

The President addressed the members of the Senate and guests as follows:

"Members of the Hawaii State Senate, thank you very much for the vote of confidence and the honor that you have bestowed upon me. I'm one individual that will give my utmost and my energies to leading the Senate this year, but it really takes a majority of Senators to pass good laws for this state, and I hope that I have your support in this endeavor.

"Before I begin my speech, I'd like to introduce to you, two individuals who have been an important part of my life. I've been in politics for a very long time. I was a researcher for the Senate majority for five years, and I embarked on my legislative career in 1974. These two individuals have sacrificed their lives, have helped me and stood by me in the good times and the bad times, and the two individuals are my wife, Harriet, and my son, Reid. (Both rose to a warm round of applause.)

"Lieutenant Governor Cayetano, Chief Justice Moon, Congresswoman Mink, Mayor Fasi, Mayor Yamashiro, Mayor Lingle, Mayor Yukimura, distinguished guests, members of the Senate, people of Hawaii:

"The convening of each session of the Legislature presents all of us with new challenges. As the elected officials closest to our constituents, we owe it to the people who put us into office to listen carefully to their wishes and represent them well. This is especially important at this moment in time, given the sometimes heated debate that preceded the session.

"Now we must put behind us the differences that have divided us and get on with the public's business.

"To those who doubt our resolve, I say take the measure of the committees that have been working to prepare the legislative agenda since November, weigh the sincerity and determination that they have brought to the task, and judge us when the session ends on the solid accomplishments we achieve.

"Senators, our agenda is long and important. Every legislative committee chair and every member must work hard to create a memorable product.

"Of all the things that require our attention, none is so full of promise, so certain of reward, so essential for our society as education.

"Education in the nineties bears little resemblance to that of earlier ages.

"Across the state the schools take all comers and diligently try to implant in their students both the basic skills of survival in contemporary society and an enjoyment of learning.

"The effort is flawed, victim of too many demands from too many sources, but a careful ordering of resources and creativity will still achieve success.

"I have always insisted that the individual school should be the focus for improvement and change. Rather than seek change through massive implementation of new curriculum and programs, some of which have been costly failures, I believe that the individual school can better itself if it is given adequate resources, the necessary authority and strong community support.

"I am pleased to report that the Senate and House Education Committees, which have labored long on what the nature and shape of education should be, hold similar views. With a focus centered on getting maximum results from each education dollar, they jointly advocate a system-wide reform that will see decision-making and goal-setting placed at the individual school. Accountability will be the watchword; performance will be matched to goals. The education system will be decentralized and results-oriented. Schools will be more flexible and autonomous. Financing decisions will be made at the individual school level. I applaud the Education Committees' efforts which deserve our wholehearted support.

"Looking back over the years, which have included terms as chair of the Education Committees of both the House and Senate, I am persuaded that the more effective reforms are those that have channeled funds directly to schools and classrooms.

"For this approach to succeed, we must have strong leadership at the individual school level. Schools have little chance to improve unless they have quality and inspired leadership from their principals. We must give principals the authority of chief executive officers and insist that they employ it in sound management.

"As an incentive for leadership, we should provide higher salaries for principals, coupled with early retirement incentives for those willing to take the responsibility and meet the competition with other schools. In return, and to ensure that the principal ranks have the capacity for renewal, principals would not be tenured as principals but would have rights to other educational officer positions.

"We must re-examine the role of school leadership. I ask the committees on Education and Labor and Employment to review my proposal with the concerned collective bargaining unit and make recommendations for needed changes.

"For their part, teachers also must respond to the demands for a more effective system. It is understandable that they have tended to protect their professional skills from the uncertainties of educational policy. However, now we must ask them to welcome to their ranks non-certified experts, people who may not have degrees in education, but who are competent and creative by any other measure. They would receive accelerated preparation for classroom teaching. There are already alternative preparation programs for teachers of math, science, and special education. This may also be the solution in such specialties as foreign language, computer science and industrial arts.

"We should also explore the prospect of greater support for the public schools from the private sector. For whatever reason, the business community has tended to contribute to private schools exclusively. We will encourage the establishment of a scholarship fund within the University of Hawaii Foundation for students aspiring to a career in education.

"Even as we consider new ways to structure the system, we also must honor the professionals who make it go. Teachers, for example, often invest their own money in classroom supplies that the educational system never seems to adequately provide. This is unpardonable. The Department of Education must attend to the need for essential supplies.

"As a measure of our belief in teachers and the desirability of classroom creativity, I propose the establishment of a classroom improvement fund which teachers can draw on to make supplemental purchases for classroom needs and innovations. The taxpayers themselves will be given the opportunity to support teachers and their classrooms by dedicating $5 to $20 of their income tax liability through a check-off box on their state tax returns. Every teacher would be issued a credit card so that classroom purchases can be made without bureaucratic hassles. This proposal would be just one step in our continuing resolve to empower teachers.

"For public and private sectors alike, the challenge of the nineties is both real and immediate. We face a world shrunk by air travel, in which peacekeeping forces can be whirled around the globe, in which an emerging new world order fashions trade agreements from afar which will impact the Hawaiian economy, in which public and private sectors alike must act with uncommon unity to compete for our share of the world's wealth.

"These and other changes have placed a premium on competitiveness in Hawaii, the nation and the world.

"Increasingly, Hawaii must compete in the national and global economies. To do so, Hawaii itself must be vitalized by competition, be it in transportation, banking, publishing, communications or any of the other important sectors comprising our economy. Let us seek assurance that the competition is genuine, market-produced competition, not protection behind a regulatory shield.

"Tourism, our economic base, offers sound illustration. For many of the postwar years, it was sufficient to buy ads, build hotels and pack 'em in. That is not good enough any more.

"Increasingly it has become apparent that we must tailor our offerings to a variety of prospective travelers. Thus, we are building a convention center for that special audience, welcoming visitors from Asia and the Pacific basin countries, seeking diversity in air routes and addressing western Europe. We should not stop there.

"As the chairman of the Committee on Tourism and Recreation pointed out in a recent article, ecotourism would invite travelers to experience the wonders of nature first hand, especially those interested in visiting and studying Hawaii's unique habitats. And cultural tourism programs would attract people who want to learn more about our history and our cultural heritage. The further development of sporting events as major visitor attractions is also promising.

"There are plentiful opportunities for taking Hawaii's message to the world. We should take advantage of the goodwill of those outstanding athletes and celebrities who maintain homes in the islands. Many are willing to endorse island vacations.

"We also should make a real effort to overcome the disarray that 30 years of near-continuous construction has produced at Honolulu International Airport. To the airiness of the terminal and concourses should be added furnishings that capture the essence of the islands and give our visitors a memorable sense of place. Marketing distinctive island products within the terminal will contribute to its atmosphere.

"In recent months, several long established mainland visitor destinations have experienced episodes of violence involving tourists. There is also carnage in old neighborhoods of other mainland cities, and national polls show that fear for their personal safety is now the foremost concern of citizens. Hawaii must be vigilant against the threats to the safety and security of visitors and residents alike. I strongly support President Clinton's proposal to increase police presence across the nation. Moreover, I encourage the Senate Judiciary Committee to seriously review the proposals for tough new controls on the purchase of handguns.

"The Judiciary Committee is already at work on other fronts, such as campaign financing reform. Closely related to the building of public trust are proposals to strengthen the ethics statutes, adopt a Senate Code of Ethics, and improve public access to the institutions, instrumentalities, and processes of government.

"I have left for the last an issue that has been continuously before us in one form or another since Hurricane Iniki swept over Kauai. That issue is insurance. So extensive are the complaints about the insurance industry that I am convinced of the need for a thorough review of its business practices.

"We are confronted with the collapse of a key sector of the insurance business: homeowners' insurance. After the storm damages were assessed, insurers simply walked away from Kauai and some will not now write homeowners' insurance anywhere in the state. In spite of the determined efforts of the Legislature last session, the industry has not made insurance accessible or affordable. Eventually, every homeowner in Hawaii will be adversely affected.

"I am asking the chairman of the Committee on Consumer Protection to advise me on a course of action which will shed light on all factors impacting on homeowners' insurance.

"Hawaii is a magical place. The green of its mountains and uplands, the gush of waterfalls, the drama of lava flows, the moist breath of the trades, the crash of surf on headlands, the glow of sunbeams and colors of rainbows. All these contribute to making Hawaii a marvelous place.

"No less important is the legacy of human experience that shapes this island society. It proceeds from the oneness with the land of the original Hawaiians and is enriched by the tolerance that is now in practice.

"Our response to this great Hawaiian gift must be equally generous as native Hawaiians seek out a new and rewarding future. All of us who live here should respect and support their hopes and aspirations.

"This is our grand heritage. It cannot be replaced at any cost. Once gone, it is forever lost.

"But we have the time and opportunity and resources to sustain our natural legacy, order our commerce, and make harmonious our lives. Let us begin."

Senator George, Minority Leader of the Senate, then responded as follows:

"Mr. President, honorable colleagues, distinguished visitors, friends:

"To say that this is a remarkably different opening day is an understatement. At this stage in the legislative biennium, we would usually be measuring our progress against the goals we established a year ago, and charting our course toward their completion.

"Rather like the end of half time in a football game.

"Only this time, instead of resuming play, we're beginning a whole new contest -- with the old players on the bench. A whole new team, with a new quarterback calling the shots. A new playbook and perhaps even new goalposts.

"But I've probably carried the game analogy far enough. Or maybe too far. Because what we're talking about isn't a game, it's government -- and the stakes are too high for a spectator sport.

"Our business here today is to talk about the problems and issues before us, and how we expect to get a handle on them.

"It's safe to say, Mr. President, that we pretty much agree on what the issues are. We've agreed for a very long time on the catalog of problems -- the same ones we've hoped to diminish for a lot of years; a lot of opening day speeches. If there's been any change at all, it's been to recognize that the same old problems are bigger -- and worse.

"But now I'm getting a sense that we may be getting closer to agreement on how to solve our problems. And I credit you, my Democrat colleagues, with this most hopeful of circumstances. Many of you are showing symptoms of having been infected with Republican ideas.

"This brings me to a statement by John Griffin in a newspaper column a couple of weeks ago. He said, 'Ruling Democrats have failed at leadership and Republicans have offered dubious alternatives.'

"I'll leave it to the public to decide whether or not Griffin is right about Democrats.

"But I take serious objection to his characterization of Republican ideas as 'dubious alternatives.'

"For a very long time Republican ideas have been put forward in this Legislature, some of them very good ideas indeed. They have usually been unnoticed; a few have received modest committee hearings; an occasional proposal reaches the floor and is advanced to decent burial in the other chamber. Some few even become laws.

"A large number of them, in good Hawaiian tradition, were hanaia by a Democrat parent and enfolded in a Democrat bill, promoted into law with its birth parentage forgotten.

"Let me remind you of some of the Republican alternatives that are a long way from 'dubious.' (Maybe it's that word that really got to me. My dictionaries translate it as 'ambiguous, vague, rousing suspicion, shady' or 'of questionable ethics or taste' -- come on, Griffin! Give us a break!)

"Well, back to some of those Republican ideas. School/community based management. Whistle-blower protection. Campaign and ethics reforms. Broad-based tort reform. Protection of trees. Workers' comp reform. Privatization. Initiative. Sunshine laws. Term limits. Down-sizing government.

"In offering these alternatives, we weren't just speaking for ourselves, and certainly not just for Republicans. In calling our alternatives 'dubious,' Griffin forgets that they are often what a significant majority of Hawaii's people want.

"Mr. President, esteemed colleagues, the minority is far more than what you see before you. Sometimes we speak for all the people who didn't vote for you in your districts; for all the people who disagree with you on any one of a great number of issues; for all the people who think they might have a better idea and feel they haven't gotten your attention.

"I'm pretty sure, Mr. President, that quite a few ideas that started on this side of the aisle will be offered, discussed and finally voted on this year.

"And on those good ideas, and any other good ideas you come up with, you'll have our support.

"Count on us."

Senator Chang then moved to defer elections of the Vice President and Second Vice President of the State Senate until Thursday, January 20, 1994, seconded by Senator Solomon and carried.

At this time the President called upon the Reverend Abraham Akaka to give the closing prayer.

"At this time, I would just like my distinguished colleagues to remember that she was a pioneer in many, many of the areas that we perceive as problem areas today, notably, health problems of all kinds, and she made a real difference.

AUTHORITY TO EXERCISE INVESTIGATIVE POWERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHAPTER 21, HAWAII REVISED STATUTES."

By unanimous consent, action on S.R. No. 5 was deferred until Wednesday, January 26, 1994.

No. 6 "SENATE RESOLUTION RELATING TO AMENDMENTS TO SENATE RULES 2, 4, 5, 19(1), AND 45."

NOMINATION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE
OF THE SENATE

At this time, the President announced that nominations were in order for the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

Senator Solomon placed in nomination the name of Senator Lehua Fernandes Salling for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Solomon then requested that her remarks, in support of the nominee, be included in the journal, and the Chair, having so ordered, Senator Solomon's remarks read as follows:

"January 20, 1994

Dear President Norman Mizuguchi:

Senators Malama Solomon, Rosalyn Baker, Joe Tanaka note that, other than Senators Solomon and Levin, leadership positions in the Senate are held by Senators from Oahu. Furthermore, out of the 17 Senate Committees, only three are chaired by neighbor island Senators. For many years the presidency and the chairmanship of the Senate Ways and Means Committee, the two most powerful positions in the Senate, were split by Oahu Senators and neighbor island Senators. Currently both positions are held by Oahu Senators. There is in the Senate, an imbalance of responsibility and influence between Oahu and neighbor island Senators. With this in mind Senators Solomon, Baker and Joe Tanaka nominate Senator Fernandes Salling as Vice President of the Senate.

We would appreciate your favorable consideration in this matter.

/s/Joe Tanaka

cc: Sen. Fernandes Salling"

The ballot then having been so cast, Senator Lehua Fernandes Salling was declared elected as President Pro Tempore of the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Matsuura).

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

NOMINATION OF VICE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

The President announced that nominations were in order for the office of Vice President of the Senate.

Senator McCartney placed in nomination the name of Senator Ann Kobayashi for Vice President of the Senate, seconded by Senator Matsuura.

The ballot having been so cast, Senator Ann Kobayashi was declared unanimously elected as Vice President of the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994.

NOMINATION OF SECOND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

The President then announced that nominations were in order for the office of Second Vice President of the Senate.

Senator Levin placed in nomination the name of Senator Dennis Nakasato for Second Vice President of the Senate, seconded by Senator B. Kobayashi.

The ballot having been so cast, Senator Dennis Nakasato was declared unanimously elected as Second Vice President of the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994.

At this time, Senator Reed rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I find the floor speeches prompted by the struggle for the right to pound the gavel--and in other more tangible ways to enjoy power in the Senate--ironic and disingenuous.

"Ironic because virtually the same speeches have been made in the past--but by the other side. Someone should start a file--open to all senators--entitled: Speeches for the Out of Power. Then the faction that loses power could save time recycling speeches used last year by those in power this year.

"It is ironic that only when they lose power do most elected officials begin posing as the champions of democracy--of legislative reform and openness. It is sad that the public buys into this charade year after year.

"In the seven-plus years I've been in the Senate, I've spoken regularly about the need for legislative reform--standing up on the floor of the Senate with a thoughtful list of reforms essential if we are to succeed in returning state government to the people. I reviewed the Senate Journal this morning and found that the only person who ever voiced support for any of my reform proposals was Senator Blair.

"As a result, it is difficult if not impossible to take seriously the political rhetoric of Senators who happen to be on the outs this year. Talk is cheap.

"If there is a sincere willingness to return government to the people--to set aside personal interests and concern for being re-elected, let us prove our sincerity by taking the following action this year:

1. Pass Initiative, Referendum and Recall ... let the people participate directly by putting issues on the ballot and having the power to recall politicians who forget who they're supposed to be serving. Pass Initiative, Referendum and Recall and make passage of those measures in the House a first condition for passing any House bills on any issues.
2. Transcend partisan immaturity. It is mind-boggling that an elected member of this body could actually say he would refuse to serve on any committee chaired by a Republican. This partisan nonsense is not only a product of small-minded bigotry, it is also counterproductive. Once an election is over, all senators should work together regardless of political party affiliation to serve all the people of Hawaii. Committee assignments and chairmanships should be based not on party affiliation but on interest, expertise, experience.

3. The Senate should adhere to laws it imposes on other bodies. It is absurd that Chapter 92--the sunshine law--does not apply to the legislature. Of course the sunshine and the public should be allowed into any and all legislative meetings. If elected democrats want to have a meeting of democrats, let them meet outside this building. It is completely inappropriate and contrary to democracy to have closed-door meetings to discuss the people's business.

Open up the decision-making process. Have the courage to abandon the Caucus Room and do your debating and decision-making out here--in the sunshine; in the public view.

The people have a right to know how and where we stand on every single issue.

4. Abandon the practice of counting votes in private, in Caucus, and then resubmitting or killing bills rather than expose members to a public floor vote.
5. Abolish the all-powerful chairman system and change the function of committees. Have committees screen bills to reduce the number of bills. Don't continue to hide behind committee chairmen to avoid voting on controversial issues.
6. Support term limits and genuine campaign spending reform to prevent career politicians and make it possible for more new people to serve in public office. Two terms is long enough for anyone to serve in a particular office. The only interests served by a 30-year incumbent are the special interests.
7. Limit the number of bills a particular legislator can introduce, but allow for year-round bill introduction to make it easier for the public to be aware of and discuss proposed legislation.

"I believe that an objective, nondefensive review of many of the policies and practices of the Senate--time-honored though they may be--are designed not to open the process to the people but, rather, to protect politicians and enhance their chances of re-election.

"Therefore, it is an attitude--a consciousness--that must change before real legislative reform will be possible. The reality is that most legislators have come to identify with their colleagues and a particular political party and, as a result, have forgotten who they serve. They have to come to treasure the office rather than the service.

"I know that such criticism is not welcome and not easy to swallow. But I criticize not out of animosity but out of a sincere desire to encourage genuine reform. On behalf of the people who hired us to represent them, I urge this body to set aside partisan bigotry, factionalism and self-interest and join together as a whole body to implement genuine legislative reform to create a process that is truly open to the public. I pledge my support and energy to any who accept such a challenge."

Senator Chang, rising in response, then said:

"Mr. President, in brief response to the concerns expressed by the Minority Senator from Maui: let me say that I dropped by and chatted with him about these concerns on a collegial basis and we've shared many ideas. While we may not agree on specifics, I can say that both the majority leadership and the minority leadership are committed to implementing many of the reforms that have been proposed, not only by the good Senator, but by many of our members. I think that with the progress we have made in the brief time that we have been in session this year, and by the actions taken this morning, we are well on our way to doing the people's business.

"I believe that the leadership is committed to developing more discussion not only among the democrats, but between democrat and republican, in addressing the many issues and the many problems that are faced by our state today.

"And to that end, I encourage all of our colleagues to visit with one another and not let factionalism or partisanship stand in the way of genuine, full, and sincere discussion about our shared duties. Thank you."

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, was called to order at 10:13 o'clock a.m., by the Honorable Joseph Souki, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

At this time, the Speaker welcomed and introduced the following distinguished guests to the members of the Seventeenth Legislature:

Mrs. Lynne Waihee, First Lady of the State of Hawaii. She was presented leis by Senator Matt Matsunaga and Representative Les Ihara;

The Honorable Benjamin J. Cayetano, Lieutenant Governor of Hawaii. He was presented leis by Senator Ann Kobayashi and Representative Paula Ishii-Morikami;

The Honorable Ronald T.Y. Moon, Chief Justice, Hawaii State Supreme Court;

The Honorable Frank F. Fasi, Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu;

The Honorable Stephen Yamashiro, Mayor of the County of Hawaii;

The Honorable Daniel Kihano, former Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Mrs. Kihano.

The Speaker then appointed Senators Malama Solomon, Anthony Chang and Mary George, on behalf of the Senate, and Representatives Jackie Young, Tom Okamura and Gene Ward, on behalf of the House of Representatives, to escort the Honorable John Waihee, Governor of Hawaii, to the rostrum.

Senator Lehua Fernandes Salling and Representative Bertha Kawakami presented Governor Waihee with maile-ilima leis.

The Speaker then presented the Honorable John Waihee, Governor of Hawaii, to the members of the Seventeenth Legislature.

The Governor addressed the Joint Session, as follows:

"Thank you.

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, members of the Seventeenth Legislature, honored guests, ladies and gentlemen:

"Before I begin my formal remarks, I would like to take advantage of this time to do two things.

"First of all, to notice that even at my last state of the state, the Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu would attempt to mar my entrance ... welcome, Mr. Mayor.

"I would also like to express my deepest appreciation to all of you who have offered your prayers to my family upon the passing of my mother. Many of us, myself included, have a tendency to use words, too often lightly or casually, in our daily conversations so that when you really want to express something that you feel deeply about or passionately for you find yourself struggling in a sea of cliches. I find myself in that very position this morning as I try to express to you how much your warm support has meant. I only know that your thoughts of concern kept translating into one word -- Aloha. My family and I would like to extend to you that same Aloha. Thank you very much.

"It has been seven years since my first state of the state address -- seven years of dramatic changes for the world, for the nation, and for our state.

"We came in as an activist administration, and we have been innovative and non-traditional in our efforts to achieve results.

"Over the last seven years, I have used the state of the state to outline our hopes and our dreams.

"They have been bold forums upon which we have presented programs to address not only today's needs, but also our needs for the twenty-first century.

"You responded, and together, we have made significant accomplishments.

"But, my friends, we have unfinished business. It exists because you and I have always looked beyond the horizon of this administration's eight-year tenure.

"The challenge remaining before us is to position this state for that final leap that will take us into the next millennium.

"To reinvent government, to invest our resources wisely, and to commit ourselves to the goals and dreams of our citizens.

"Since coming to office, this administration has constantly looked for ways of making government more efficient, accountable, and responsive to the needs of our people. In short, we've sought to reinvent government.

"Last year, you asked us to intensify our reinvention efforts. Consequently, we formed a 'redesign team' chaired by my Administrative Director, Joshua Agsalud, which responded to your request with a report on how we might be able to do even more.

"While the buzz word may be new, the concept is not. Reinvention centers around an essential willingness to change.

"With the impact of the recession, the after effects of Hurricane Iniki, and the restructuring of our sugar industry, that willingness to change is even more imperative.

"As Speaker Souki noted in his opening day remarks, 'The prognosis is better, but there are still plenty of symptoms of the economic flu.'

"And if there is anything that will immediately force someone to look at new ways of doing things, it is not having enough money to get things done the old way.

"That's one compelling reason to reinvent government. Making it more accountable and more responsive are two others.

"The first and most important area that requires a willingness to change relates to restoring the public's trust.

"I was reminded recently that the public's trust is not a given, it is earned, and that past accomplishments are a foundation, and not a shrine.

"In spite of our pride in public service, there is discontent, distrust and dismay over where we find ourselves today.

"I know it, and I am very troubled by it too.

"It seems to me that part of what we are going through as a state and as a government is akin to middle-age crisis. And yes, there are some worn out paths and tired feet.

"The question is whether our hearts are as tired as our feet. The answer is no.

"I stand here today to rededicate both myself and the people who work for me to the same activist spirit where I began in 1986.

"If together we can open up public records and tackle reforms in one of the most entrenched instruments of government -- our procurement system -- then we can tackle other areas as well.

"On a number of occasions, I have talked about leveling the playing field by restricting all political contributions and instituting public financing of state political campaigns.

"No one has taken me up on the challenge. I can understand why. This is a painful area where tinkering around the edges is a lot more comfortable than a major overhaul.

"I know this as much as anyone. When I began my career, I was an outsider. As Governor, I find myself the ultimate insider. Having come all this way, I believe now what I believed then, and that is the only way to fix the system is to turn it upside down.

"Until we remove the suspicion that campaign contributions and government actions are somehow linked, it will be very difficult to restore public trust.

"I believe we need two things:

"First, to sever both the real and perceived links between the candidate and the contributor, and

"Second, to rebuild broader based participation in the electoral process.

"To achieve these goals, I propose that we institute mandatory public financing of campaigns. I suggest we begin in the next electoral cycle, not the upcoming, the next electoral cycle, with the races for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Mayors of the four counties.

"To facilitate this, we recommend dropping the limit on individual contributions from two thousand dollars to two hundred, and establishing qualifying contribution thresholds.

"I know that one of the criticisms of public financing is the use of taxpayers' dollars. We can partially address that by allowing for private contributions into the public fund, in addition to the taxpayers' checkoff.

"Also, to address the growing concern of the influence of lobbyists, I propose tougher rules for lobbyist registration by the Ethics Commission.

"If we are truly interested in restoring public trust in government, then now is the time to move boldly.

"The second area for reinvention relates to how we educate our children, how we allocate and spend our resources, and how we measure the performance of our schools.

"As President Mizuguchi noted in his opening day remarks, the most striking example of the reinvention process in government in Hawaii is the reform going on within our schools.

"We've shifted responsibility and resources down to the schools, where it counts, through school/community-based management.

"Project Ke Au Hou will further collapse the education bureaucracy so that all levels of the system are oriented to the schools.

"We are reviewing new performance standards to make our goal of creating a 'results-driven' system meaningful. You cannot be results driven if you don't have standards to measure those results.

"These are revolutionary changes, but what is missing is accountability in governance.

"That responsibility is currently diluted among the Legislature, the Board of Education, the Superintendent, and the Governor. It is a situation that leaves the accountability picture muddled.

"We've talked about clearing up governance of our education system for seven years now. It's time to fish or cut bait.

"Personally, I have always preferred an appointed Board of Education because it clearly makes the Governor accountable.

"But, apparently, that opinion may be shared only by myself and a few newspaper editorial writers.

"Therefore, I propose that we go the other direction and have a truly independent Board of Education, with the ability to raise its own revenues for its own programs.

"In order to do this, we need to know how much we spend on education.

"Right now, the DOE's operating budget is about $687-million. But when you include the capital improvement and maintenance costs, personnel, and some pretty significant employee benefits costs, the real price of education is about one billion dollars. That's 33 percent of our total general fund revenues.

"My friends, that's a level of funding that is almost twice as large as the City and County of Honolulu's budget. When you are that large, perhaps you ought to be independent -- subject, of course, to laws of general application.

"So, I am submitting a constitutional amendment to allow the voters to create an independent Board of Education, and transfer the personal income tax -- which makes up about 33 percent of our general funds -- to the Board of Education.

"If passed by the voters, an education restructuring commission would have two years to flesh out the many details associated with such a significant change.

"In short, if public education is the responsibility of the Board of Education, let them be clearly responsible.

"The issue, after all, is accountability.

"A word about the role that technology plays in education and educational reform. Computer literacy is no longer a luxury. It's a requirement.

"High tech enhances teaching and learning, from electronic highways that bring together far-flung teachers and students to tracking students performance.

"Computers and information systems are so important that Superintendent Toguchi calls it one of the three pillars of education reform -- reform on a scale that would not have been possible without the tools that high technology has provided us.

"I call on the Board of Education and my colleagues here in the Legislature to strongly support technology in our schools.

"We all want the best school facilities possible for our children. That's why we created the 'Super Fund' for school facilities, providing our schools each year with $90-million.

"So why do we still hear of students in makeshift classrooms? Obviously, because our educational needs are so large and we need more money. But there is another reason as well.

"We are not spending all the money we have.

"In fact the DOE spends less than $55-million each year for facilities and currently has over $200-million in authorized but unspent funds.

"There is no need, or should be no need, for any child in this state to make do in sub-standard or makeshift classrooms -- and certainly not while we are accumulating millions of dollars specifically for those needs.

"DAGS, Budget and Finance and the DOE are working right now, with a little encouragement, to reduce the bottlenecks and drastically cut that processing time for school facilities. By the next fiscal year, the DOE will be able to use all of its annual super fund allocation to build and upgrade school facilities.

"Back in 1986, we agreed the University of Hawaii should be more autonomous, and gave the Board of Regents flexibility to allocate funds among programs. I now propose we make that flexibility permanent.

"I also propose that we increase that flexibility by lump-sum budgeting and allow the University to carry over five percent of appropriations beyond the fiscal year.

"It is also time to allow the University to handle all of their own personnel matters.

"By the way, I was very pleased that the Board of Regents selected Kapolei as the site for the West Oahu campus. I think, like you, it's the appropriate choice and I ask for your support on that endeavor.

"Hawaii's health care system is the envy of the nation, and the credit should be rightly shared by Hawaii's leaders, past and present, in both the legislative and executive branches, as well as the private sector.

"It has been a partnership effort of the highest quality. Yet it is still not the seamless health care delivery system we all desire.

"Consequently, we have continued to put the way we deliver health care services under the microscope of reinvention.

"As a result, we created Project Quest, which will overhaul our medicaid system by consolidating three programs into one and privatizing it.

"Quest has already been approved by the Federal Government and is nearly ready for implementation. The last step is to transfer the state health insurance program from the Department of Health to the Department of Human Services. I ask for your support in implementing Project Quest.

"While we are working to contain costs in public health care programs, we also need to help the private sector do the same.

"The creation of a health alliance would do just that. A health alliance -- composed of government, businesses and individuals -- could:

- Form a pool for negotiating strength with insurance companies and help control costs;
- Ensure a broader range of health care choices;
- Provide consumer information on health care quality and costs; and, at some future date,
- Coordinate long-term care financing, and consolidate workers' compensation, no-fault auto, and health care coverage.

"The fourth area of reinvention relates to the stewardship of our resources. It includes reforming our land-use law, fundamentally changing how we perceive and support agriculture, and consolidating our environmental and conservation activities throughout the state.

"Session after session, you and I have had to deal with the 'tension' between the state and counties on who is responsible for land-use decisions. Under the current system, the task is duplicated.

"I believe the state should move away from parcel-by-parcel decision-making, leaving that to the counties. The more appropriate role for us is to refocus on the development of an overall land-use plan.

"The legislation we are submitting will eliminate that duplication.

"We need the same kind of shift in our approach to agriculture.

"Times are changing. The plantation lifestyle I grew up in is quickly disappearing, and it is a painful transition. Obviously, we need to help our affected communities in any way we can. But that transition also has the seeds of opportunity.

"Large tracts of prime ag lands -- with water, roads and other infrastructure -- are becoming available. New farmers -- small agribusiness -- can and will want to use this land, but they need our support.

"And we can help in two ways:

- By strengthening the role of the Department of Agriculture and consolidating resources; and
- By creating an agribusiness development authority to assist and promote the development of new agricultural enterprises -- as we do for high technology ventures.

"Such an authority would bring together the elements of land, infrastructure and marketing -- in short, the same things we do to attract new business to Hawaii.

"Our farmers deserve the same break.

"In this light, the proposed land exchange between the Galbraith Trust and the state makes sense. The exchange gives us the opportunity to preserve ag land, protect historic sites, and facilitate housing where it ought to be -- in the city of Kapolei.

"In the past, when we sought to protect and conserve natural areas, we appropriated funds. How do we continue our efforts in tighter economic times?

"By shifting from traditional solutions to more creative methods.

"For example, I proposed, four years ago, the creation of a seven-mile shoreline park from Mahaiula to Kua Bay in North Kona.

"The last parcel we need to complete that park is Makalawena. We are now negotiating a lease, which will place the land immediately in the public domain, then, later when funds become available and if we choose, we can buy it.

"You decided last year that Olomana's pristine east face needs to be protected, and I propose that we accomplish that through a land exchange.

"On Maui at Makena Beach, we are forming a partnership with the Federal Government, Maui County, and a private landowner to acquire additional lands to expand the existing Makena Bay State Park at no cost to the state.

"Just as we change the way we manage our lands and agricultural resources, we also need to change the way in which we protect our environmental resources.

"Therefore, I am proposing that we establish a new Department of Environment.

"The increasing environmental emphasis and mandates at the federal level, as well as our efforts to make government more responsive, make it an ideal time to begin that process.

"By taking these actions to reinvent government, we put ourselves in a position to continue to invest wisely in our future.

"As we move to streamline government and re-identify priorities, we will find a much stronger justification for the areas where government can and should be the primary provider of services -- those areas where compassion, not profit, is the bottom line.

"In these tough economic times, we need to also avoid the temptation of being 'penny wise and pound foolish.'

Sound and timely investments in our people, housing, economy, and transportation system will more than pay for themselves.

"Our investments for the future should also include correcting past wrongs, such as making our trust with native Hawaiians whole again.

"Investment in housing has been one of our highest priorities. When I first took office, our goal was to provide 64,000 affordable homes by the year 2000.

"Between 1988 and 1992, the state, with your help and private developers, have built more than 21,000 affordable and market-priced homes, with the current supply of affordable housing at a thirty-year high.

"Kapolei, one of our three master-planned communities, is proving to be one of our best investments in the future. It was planned to provide us with five thousand homes by the year 2000. We all know that is not fast enough.

"That's why we are accelerating the bidding process and, by the end of next year, we will have about 4,500 homes built or under construction at Kapolei. (We don't have to wait till the year 2000.)

"We also need the assurance that our homes are secure. Last year, we create the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund to encourage new insurance companies to come to Hawaii.

"They told us that if we put a relief fund in place, they could sell in this market. Well, we've done it.

"We created the relief fund which caps their liability by providing an equitable cost sharing scheme. We repealed the take-all-comers provision in our auto insurance law, and we reduced red tape for doing business.

"Yet some mainland-based insurance companies are considering leaving the state and making decisions that impact Hawaii policy holders, without recognizing the existence of our reforms.

"It's time they do their part. In the long run, insurance will only be available and affordable again if we re-establish healthy competition. Let's work together on this task.

"One of the biggest challenges is our ability and determination to invest in the well-being of our children and families in Hawaii, especially those at-risk.

"Our focus is on preventive measures and early intervention to reduce future costs and, more importantly, help these individuals break out of the cycle of dependence.

"Consequently, I am requesting in our budget:

- Three million dollars for our nationally recognized Healthy Start Program to cover an additional 1,200 families;
- Three million dollars for adolescents in need of in-patient mental health care;
- Three million dollars for school-based, early-intervention mental health services to reach about 4,800 children and adolescents with severe emotional disturbances; and
- 4.8-million dollars to continue the family preservation program.

"We also want to expand Hawaii's jobs program -- now at capacity with about 3,000 welfare recipients -- to help another 1,500 return to the world of work.

"I have requested 900,000 dollars, to be matched with federal funds to get this 'investment' in our families up and running.

"Universal early childhood education by the year 2000 was one of our goals when we first entered office. Today, 40 percent of the 83,000 children under five in Hawaii now receive education and care outside the home. We know we need to reach more.

"How do we do it? We do it by combining resources, an effort started by the Hawaii Business Roundtable, private agencies, and the state.

"An interim committee, which I am establishing, will take us another step closer to our goal. With leadership from this committee, we hope to leverage private sector efforts in early education by providing standards and a more comprehensive support framework.

"Long-term care for Hawaii's elders becomes even more important as long-term care costs continue to rise. As I've noted in the past, these costs are often as hard on the families of the elderly, as on the elders themselves.

"If we don't take action now, our projected long-term care costs will grow by more than two billion dollars by the year 2020.

"I am proposing the adoption of our Family Hope Program which will establish a long-term care plan and long-term care trust fund.

"Our approach will tie it to elements of President Clinton's national health care reform, with our own health alliance providing a future home for this program.

"One of our success stories in assisting our families has been our partnership with private social service agencies.

"To strengthen these partnerships, I am proposing multi-year contracts in the purchase of health and human services. This simple change will result in more attention to services, and less to administrative paperwork. Our families will be the winners.

"We have also got to continue to strongly invest in our economy, especially in these tough economic times.

"The engine that drives our economy is tourism. We're taking aggressive steps to get tourism back on track.

"After years of debate, this past summer, we made the tough decision on selecting a convention center site to help us capture new market segments. Before this year is over, we will have selected a contractor and will be on our way in developing a world-class convention center. Thank you for your support on this issue.

"We also need to promote more aggressively.

"Over the past seven years, you and I have significantly increased the promotion dollars for tourism. In fact, last year, we increased funds for tourism promotion by 9.5 million dollars.

"We must continue to promote Hawaii. But, in these tough times, we need to do it more effectively.

"In the past year, we've joined forces with the private sector, pooling resources to get a bigger bang for our buck. We did it with our 'Focus on Hawaii' and 'Aloha on Tour' campaigns.

"I believe that we need to build and can build on that private/public partnership.

"I ask you to support a new ten-million-dollar campaign, specifically for our key markets in North America, Asia and Europe to help kick start the industry.

"The state would provide five million dollars for tourism marketing, which the industry would match on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

"Investing in our future also means providing more opportunities for new industries.

"In the past, we've encouraged investments in high tech, alternative energy, film, sports, and other areas as a way of diversifying our economy.

"To capitalize on Hawaii's profile as a leader in health care, I am suggesting that we invest a modest amount to establish a temporary commission to create a strategic plan for development of a 'wellness industry.'

"And what better place for this industry than in Kakaako.

"There, our waterfront park, the redevelopment of Aloha Tower, and the creation of more than 800 rental housing units have brought families back to Kakaako -- making it a center for people once more.

"With your help, we can also make it a center for the wellness industry in Hawaii.

"For this to happen, we need the proper infrastructure to support such activity. That's why I am requesting 13 million dollars for infrastructure improvements.

"Reinvesting in our future also means making sure that the backbone of our economy, small business, is afforded the greatest opportunity to succeed. Small businesses are hurting in these tough times.

"One of the major costs of doing business is workers compensation. We need to deal with this issue.

"No one is arguing that a worker who is injured should be denied timely medical care and benefits. Yet, we have to look more closely at the system when it appears that costs are skyrocketing.

"Medical costs have risen from 46 million dollars in 1985 to 116 million dollars in 1992.

"In addition, the program has evolved from a simple administrative process to a cumbersome one. Today, workers' compensation is bogged down in mountains of paper. It is a process, by the way, made even more costly when lawyers get involved (in this complex mess ... with all due respect to my colleagues).

"We must bring 'prudent administration' back into the system, by simplifying the process, minimizing delays, and closely monitoring medical costs. The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is developing administrative procedures and will be submitting legislation to you for your consideration.

"However, we cannot do it alone. We stand ready to work with you, business, labor and the insurance industry to resolve this very important issue. (It had to happen sooner or later.)

"Mass transit. When we first proposed some form of mass transit four years ago, our streets on Oahu were already in gridlock. Today, it is worse and we still have not come to grips with the problem.

"I know it is a tough issue, but sooner or later, we have got to face up to the reality that we need a mass transit system on Oahu -- one that eventually connects the University's Manoa campus with the proposed West Oahu campus at Kapolei, with feeder routes to Waikiki and Mililani.

"We have the ability to plan for this system by using existing federal funds. And it would be very easy for me to propose just that and stop right here.

"But I would be remiss if I didn't bring to your attention that our 600 million dollar federal authorization hangs in the balance. This Spring, Congress will decide on whether to keep the authorization for Hawaii or re-program the money for other cities.

"With due deference to the Speaker, whose opinion I highly respect. Unfortunately, this is a touchy issue where the discussion of taxes cannot be avoided.

"If we don't make a decision on mass transit this year, we will not only lose the authorization, but we will have to go to the end of the line.

"As you know, we tried this before as a partnership between the state, the city, and the Federal Government. It didn't work. Therefore, I am proposing that the partnership be redefined between the state and the Federal Government.

"This time, it will take more than a promise (it will take much more than a promise) to secure federal dollars and a favorable matching formula. Dedicated local financing is an absolute requirement. Therefore, we are asking for authorization for a half percent excise tax -- a tax that won't kick in unless we receive fifty percent federal funding.

"I believe that it is an idea whose time has still not passed.

"Investing in our future also means passing laws that ensure our sense of community and individual safety.

"As a community, we need to feel secure and safe on our streets and in our homes. Because we are an island state, we have a golden opportunity to control the spread of handguns in Hawaii. The law enforcement coalition and Senator Grauly have advocated it, and I believe that we should support such a move.

"Honolulu is not yet in a situation that many cities on the mainland find themselves. Let's not allow it to happen here. We owe it to ourselves and to our children to have the courage to keep Hawaii a safe place in which to grow up and live.

"It would be impossible for me to conclude a state of the state without addressing Hawaiian issues. This imperative has much less to do with who I am, than who we -- Hawaiians and non-Hawaiians alike -- who we are.

"We are an island community who count Hawaiians one in five among us. More than numbers, it is clear that the future of all our peoples are intertwined.

"Our collective future depends on the justice, persistence, and creativity which we apply to long-standing and difficult issues.

"In 1993, sovereignty was front and center in a year of recognition and reflection.

"1994 brings the necessity of action. Clearly, there are few today (in my mind) who truly doubt that sovereignty will happen. It is a matter of how, when, and in what form.

"The Hawaiian Sovereignty Advisory Commission has been working on a process for Hawaiians to make those determinations, and they deserve our continued support.

"As you know, the state cannot confer sovereignty. That is the kuleana of the Federal Government, with many steps yet to be taken.

"However, there is progress to report. In particular, thanks are due to our congressional delegation for the long overdue formal apology of the United States to native Hawaiians. And yes, Auntie Frenchy, Kaho'olawe will be returned this year.

"Now is the time to press even harder on the federal front. At long last, talks have begun with the Department of Interior on land claims, political status, and trust responsibility.

"Meanwhile, back at home, we must continue to clean up and uphold our own trust responsibilities.

"Nowhere is that need more evident than with Hawaiian Home Lands.

"The 1921 Act of Congress created a Hawaiian Home Lands trust of 203,500 acres. It also created a deceptively simple term -- 'more or less.'

"The impact of those three words was best described by a young Hawaiian on the waiting list, Randall Lindsey, testifying before Senator Inouye's committee.

"He told the Senator how the 1921 Act said four thousand acres, more or less, were set aside as available lands in Waimanalo.

"Yet, less than 2,000 acres can be accounted for. The same discrepancies were to be found throughout the act, wherever the words 'more or less' were used. Mr. Lindsey asked the panel, 'What happened to these lands?'

"Yes, Mr. Lindsey, what happened to those lands, to over 16,000 acres of these lands?

"The task force I established in 1991 to resolve the hundreds of Hawaiian Home Lands claims has made tremendous progress.

"But remaining issues will not be as easily resolved as the 9.7 million dollars in past due rent paid last year with your support.

"Now is the time to move boldly and restore the trust while we still have the will and the means.

"I have asked the Board of Land and Natural Resources to turn over this year 16,518 acres of state lands to Hawaiian Home Lands.

"We will continue our obligation to resolve specific claims. And as they are resolved, credits will be made against the lands that we have already transferred. But we will not wait on the attorneys (to keep discussing and discussing and discussing and discussing and discussing the issues).

"By the way, my instructions are to turn over good lands for homes, farm lots, and income generation.

"If the land is there, then people must be put on the land. We have been playing catch-up with over 115 million dollars of roads, sewers and other infrastructure needs in the last six years alone.

"We will continue this commitment, but it is clearly not enough.

"It is time to 'shift' from the mindset of dependency and involve the beneficiaries to a greater extent in control over the pace and settlement of the land. That is the powerful message behind three new programs launched by the Hawaiian Homes Commission.

"This shift begins with sharing development responsibilities with the beneficiaries in a program that gleans the best of the acceleration program while learning from its shortcomings.

- Kuleana Hou, starts with three projects at Kawaihae, Lalamilo, and Kahikinui for a total of 1,162 undeveloped homesteading lots;
- Laulima, a twenty-three lot beneficiary developed residential project at Papakolea; and
- Kupuna elderly rentals.

"I urge you to support the 3.5 million dollars to begin these projects, not only for the homesteading opportunities they will provide, but as another important step in the process of self-determination as well.

"Finally, if you will allow me a few moments on a more personal note.

"All of our plans are of no value unless they are anchored with a commitment to fulfilling the hopes and dreams of our people.

"As I mentioned at the start of this address, this will be the last time I stand before a joint session of this Legislature as your Governor.

"Together, we have moved aggressively on a number of fronts.

"It is a fact, however, that our greatest achievements have happened when we have all been able to work together -- when we have placed all of our energies in the same direction.

"If we continue to work together as we have in the past, by the year 2000, I believe:

- We will have built an economy which withstood hard times and grew evenly and diversely to meet the needs of working people.
- We will have revitalized our schools, empowered our communities, and readied our children for the challenge of any day.
- We will have opened lands statewide for housing and provided more than 64,000 affordable homes.
- We will have created a support system for our families who need a helping hand that moves them toward financial independence rather than trapping them in programs of social dependence.
- We will have provided a seamless system of health care for all of our citizens under a strong supportive alliance involving both the private and public sectors.

-- We will have respected and supported the rights of native Hawaiians and all of our people, always striving for tolerance -- unique, special and ours. The best way to correct yesterday's wrongs is to make tomorrow right.

-- And, we will have saved forever priceless lands, an inheritance for all generations.

"The last seven years, to say the least, have been a journey of exhilarating highs as well as lows. If you are driven to doing the best job possible, if you feel as strongly about our islands and our people as I do, you cannot help but respond to this job intensely.

"I regret neither highs nor lows. They have given me the opportunity to learn and grow and contribute something to the home that nurtures and sustains me.

"In addition, you cannot become Governor of Hawaii and represent our people without having the experience intimately change who you are.

"My affection and appreciation for the richness of our history, our cultures and our people have increased many fold. And I wish I could thank individually all who have been responsible for that gift.

"I would like to thank all of you for your counsel and your insights. If, at times, we have differed on the means, we have always shared a common purpose and goals.

"I always knew, down deep, what was in your hearts. And you always knew what was in mine -- Hawaii -- Hawaii -- Hawaii.

"And while my administration will end this year, the business of government is never finished. As indicated by our ambitious list of legislative proposals, we have no intention of turning off the lights any sooner than twelve noon on December 5, 1994 (unless, of course, you want to amend the State Constitution and extend my stay. Don't worry, that reform is not on the agenda).

"I pledge, as resolutely as day one, to work with you for the benefit of this extraordinary place and all who call it home.

"For that is what is in our hearts.

"Thank you and Aloha!"

Senate President Mizuguchi then rose to state:

"Thank you, Governor, for a sterling review of the state of the state.

"The agenda you propose is ambitious and thought provoking. We, the Legislature, will give it our serious consideration. Many issues will come before this session requiring the full resolve of your administration and the Legislature. I am confident that we will emerge from this session with a legislative product we can be proud of.

"There being no further business, I declare this Joint Session of the Hawaii State Legislature adjourned."

At 11:11 o'clock a.m., the President declared the Joint Session adjourned.

EIGHTH DAY

Tuesday, February 1, 1994

The Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, convened at 11:36 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Dr. Mike Phillips, Wayland Baptist University, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Seventh Day.

Senator Fukunaga introduced Senator Robert Connor, President of the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL), and Ms. Corina Eckle, NCSL liaison for the State of Hawaii.

At this time, the President called on Senator Connor to address the members of the Senate.

Senator Connor's remarks are as follows:

"Mr. President, and other members of this esteemed body, 'Aloha!'

"Let me first of all say to you that it is indeed a privilege and a pleasure for me to be here. This is my first opportunity to visit the beautiful, wonderful State of Hawaii. I come from the first state, the first state that started this nation -- the State of Delaware, very small in size, but certainly very meaningful in our long history in the Constitution.

"Coming to the 50th State is certainly a thrill for me. The beauty of the state and the energy of its people have a lot to offer. You are looked upon with high esteem throughout this country. Many of your initiatives are looked upon by the National Conference of State Legislatures and our other states as being very progressive types of initiatives that make you world renown. I'm especially thinking of healthcare. We were just at a meeting last week where we were speaking about Hawaii and the healthcare movements that you've started.

"The National Conference of State Legislatures is an organization that certainly represents all 50 states and its territories. Together we have a certain strength, and that strength is not only our lobbying efforts in Washington, in trying to keep things moving along so that we always have a state's perspective in mind, but we also have an opportunity to share with each other the initiatives, the goals and objectives that each one of us has as our own individual state's. Sharing that with each other as colleagues is extremely beneficial, as well as our staff having a chance for professional development in sharing with each other. That's the strength of our organization -- an opportunity for meetings, an opportunity for sharing and working toward goals and objectives that are on all of our front burners, so to speak.

"It's indeed an honor for me to be here. As I came in, I noticed friends that I've become familiar with over the years through NCSL, and I appreciated their hospitality. But, I am sorry to see that one of my dear friends is having such a difficult time getting around nowadays, especially with the latest hip and knee soreness that he's experiencing through the basketball traumas these past couple of weeks. Like myself, Tony, once we reach 39, those things start to come upon us, you know. You'll heal, I'm sure.

"Once again, Mr. President and members, my colleagues, really, since I'm a Senator from Delaware and have been there for 14 years, 10 years in the House of Representatives, I feel somewhat like an older member of my own chamber .... coming here gives me a good feeling to be amongst you and your many new and bright ideas, and beautiful land.

"Thank you for this opportunity. Corina will be meeting with the Senate Ways and Means Committee tomorrow; she'll be giving testimony. Hopefully, we'll be taking back from this meeting some good words of wisdom for our other colleagues and, hopefully, an idea will be planted amongst you that membership and participation in our organization are really crucial. Thank you, once again."

"Mr. President, it is indeed an honor, thank you."

The President, on behalf of the Senate, welcomed Senator Connor and Ms. Eckle to Hawaii. Senator Connor and Ms. Eckle were presented leis by Senators Fukunaga and Levin.

At 11:45 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:50 o'clock a.m.

Ayes, 22. Noes, 2 (Aki, Reed). Excused, 1 (Koki).

At 12:27 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:28 o'clock p.m.

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE BILLS

The President then re-referred the following Senate bills that were introduced:

Senate Bill	Referred to:
No. 2172	Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs, then to the Committee on Ways and Means
No. 2248	Jointly to the Committee on Higher Education, Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation and the Committee on Tourism and Recreation, then to the Committee on Ways and Means
No. 2307	Committee on Housing, then to the Committee on Ways and Means
No. 2755	Jointly to the Committee on Higher Education, Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation and the Committee on Tourism and Recreation, then to the Committee on Ways and Means
No. 3029	Committee on Consumer Protection, then to the Committee on Ways and Means
No. 3086	Committee on Tourism and Recreation, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Tungpalan then rose to speak on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, Senators, I rise to speak on the $5,000 allowance allotted to legislators.

"Mr. President, I wish to commend you and the leadership for restructuring the process in which the $5,000 allowance will be handled as a reimbursement for legislative expenses. I appreciate the willingness to keep an open account of all expenditures made in the Senate. Like other interested citizens, I am truly concerned with the cost and the growth of government today. In this time of austerity, with major budget cuts in many state departments, we, legislators, should try to accomplish our goals with less money and less resources. When our schools and universities must do without, when our public services are severely hampered by budget cuts and constraints, I feel compelled to do my part to reduce the cost of government. As such, I will not be participating in the use of the $5,000 allowance this year.

"In addition, Mr. President, over the years, I have not taken many out-of-state trips. My intention, again, is to forego any travel to save funds, which, I hope, will be directed to the educational programs for the children of this state. Thank you."

Senator McCartney also rose to speak on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, when we started this session, there was a lot of concern and there was a lot of discussion. I think we're learning how to work with each other, and I think sometimes it's good that people can criticize each other and stand up here and debate. And when good things happen, I think we also need to be responsible and stand up and acknowledge that.

"First, I want to acknowledge and commend you. This is the first time that I've seen a detailed budget of all the Senate expenses. I think that is a step in the right direction. We are being open and we are scrutinizing ourselves at the same level that we're scrutinizing other departments. I think you need to be commended on that.

"Secondly, Mr. President, on the expense allowance. I think that is also a step in the right direction, where each Senator is now accountable for the use of his or her $5,000 allowance. We don't pay taxes on it anymore and, again, I think that it's good public policy and we're moving into an era where we, as Senators, are becoming more accountable for how we use money.

"I want to thank the leadership and you. It's a good step in the right direction. Thank you."

Senator Reed also rose to speak on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I would like, again, to ask this body to seriously consider having discussions or debates, such as you held this morning in caucus, out here where the rest of us can participate and where the public can hear your concerns and be a part of the debate. Thank you."

No. 3167 Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

No. 3176 Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Consumer Protection

At this time, Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, today we read in the Advertiser of the steepest drop in tourist arrivals since the great depression. The year 1993 brought 6.1% fewer visitors than the previous year and was the third straight year of plunging annual figures. This at a time when tourism in the Asian and Pacific region on a whole is up 10% per annum. That makes Hawaii a net loser relative to the destination areas of its region of over 16%. The figures raise a presumption that there is something amiss with our tourism promotions, when our neighbors' tourism industries are growing and ours is drastically contracting. There is hardly a person in this state whose economic well-being is not to some degree dependent on tourism. Half of our labor force work in jobs are related to tourism. It is our largest industry and foreign arrivals constitute our biggest export affecting our state balance of payment.

"Mr. President, we all must focus our energies, time and intelligence to determine what we, the Senate and the state as a whole, can do to reverse the disastrous decline in our most important industry. This must be a total and pervasive commitment and it must start now.

"It is with these considerations in mind that the chairmen of the Tourism and of Transportation Committees have scheduled hearings regarding state restrictions on taxi services at the airport. In the days and weeks to follow, they and other committee chairmen will be searching for the means to resuscitate our premier industry. Thank you."

No. 3301 Jointly to the Committee on Human Services and the Committee on Higher Education, Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation and the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs, then to the Committee on Judiciary

Senator McCartney rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I came from visiting Moanalua High School today, Senator Grauly's and your school. It is always refreshing to go into the classrooms and interact with the students. We had a refreshing discussion today. We talked about how the Senate has asked for some very significant pieces of reform relating to our expense allowance and the budget, and how only the negative things got coverage in the news and not the positive. We then began to analyze that, maybe, everybody's 'talking stink' about everybody else and that it's like a contagious thing that's happening in Hawaii. We came up, in that classroom, with an idea for a 'No Talk Stink Hawaii Day.'

"Moanalua High School would like to challenge the State Senate in a contest. We will have one special day that we'll pick, jointly, and we'll see who talks the least 'stink' about each other -- the Senate or the seniors of Moanalua High School. We'll have a contest and the losers will have to serve lunch to the other body. That might be an interesting exercise that all of us participate in, and maybe it might even be contagious to the rest of the State of Hawaii. I thought it was very interesting and refreshing.

"We also talked about the Aloha Spirit, and I promised them that I'd read this very short letter from three of the students. It's so significant and it sends a positive but firm message for all of us to remember. I would like to read it very quickly, Mr. President. It reads:

'Dear Senator McCartney,

"Let every man make known what kind of government would command his respect, and that will be one step toward obtaining it." Henry David Thoreau. Upon reading the article "On the Duty of Civil Disobedience," we, the seniors of Moanalua High School were influenced by his deep quote. This particular quote reflects the type of attitude in mutual regard between the government and society.

As leaders of our state, we feel that politicians should set an example for the people of Hawaii regarding the Aloha Spirit.

Aloha means to hear what is not said, to see what cannot be seen, and to know the unknowable.

As members of the society, we feel that the government should come out into the community to show more Aloha Spirit. Maybe the reason why the Aloha Spirit is dying is because everyone is money hungry. Even as leaders of our state, politicians are also guilty of greed. And being leaders, the community will follow your actions. That's how, in the midst of the shuffle of money, the Aloha Spirit slowly disappears. This leads to the fact that people care more about money than they do for each other. Being greedy is not part of the Aloha Spirit.

Our solution to the problem of the Aloha Spirit dying is that politicians should put aside their material desires and come out into the community to show Aloha Spirit. For example, politicians can initiate community gatherings where people would be able to meet their representatives while voicing concerns. Or, they could sponsor an "Aloha Keiki Day" where kids from Hawaii can participate in various events promoting self-growth and the Aloha Spirit. Politicians should also participate in these special events and give moral support which builds self-esteem and a stronger value system. Then, hopefully the people of Hawaii will follow those actions and share the Aloha Spirit.

We hope that you will take into consideration these solutions to why the Aloha Spirit is dying. The Aloha Spirit is too precious a thing to let slip by us. We also thank you for your time in reading our concerns.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kim Nakao
/s/ Stacie Taira
/s/ Dana Watanabe'

"I thought, on this Aloha Friday, that was important to share. The actions of the last week have proven that we are moving forward in that direction. I think that's the good news for the week. Thank you."

Senator Holt also rose on a point of personal privilege, and said:

"Mr. President, just a brief response to this morning's article in section B of the Advertiser, 'A bill lets insurance firm set rates.' They say that I'm in favor of the bill. I introduced the bill as a favor to Representative Herkes. It is a bill that was patterned after the recommendations of the State Auditor in her report. Basically, I just want to say that I cannot comment, because we have not had a hearing on the bill, as to what the commissioner has to say. We intend to have a hearing on this bill, shortly.

"Secondly, regarding the State Auditor's remarks, which are in opposition to the bill and goes on to say that our market is not healthy like other markets in the mainland and that our market is impaired, I just want to let the Senate know that we have been in contact with Mr. Robert Hunter, who was formerly the head of the National Insurance Consumer Organization. He's currently the new commissioner of the Texas Department of Insurance. We have been in communication and he has indicated that Hawaii does have a unique problem, in the sense that we are probably the only state that will be totally affected by any catastrophe because we are totally surrounded by water, and we do have a special situation. Right now, he is looking at some information that we have transmitted to him and feels that there may be some special solutions to the problem. Thank you."

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE BILL

The President re-referred the following Senate bill that was introduced:

Senate Bill	Referred to:
No. 3201	Committee on Consumer Protection

Senator Koki rose to speak on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Last week, a Pearl City High School student was arrested for carrying a 32-caliber semi-automatic handgun onto the school campus. This youth murdered a person when he was 15 years old, was let out when he was 19 and, six months later, brutally assaulted a security guard.

"Several weeks ago, constituents in my own district lost the use of the gymnasium at the Kaneohe District Park when a group of juveniles flooded the gym floor. The damage totalled over one hundred thousand dollars and hundreds of people are still being victimized by the senseless vandalism.

"Substantial reform is needed in the way our state deals with juvenile offenders. The light sentences given, for even the most serious crimes, send the wrong message. Youths who are inclined to be involved in criminal activity know that, if they are caught, they will only receive a slap on the wrist.

"I don't think most citizens realize that a juvenile under 16 who commits murder can be released after the age of 18, and when that individual is released, all records of wrongdoing are expunged, and he or she is returned to society as if nothing happened.

"Such light treatment of juvenile violators really doesn't help them get their lives straightened out. We are telling them and their parents that they are not going to pay a price for hurting other people.

"Serious crime must result in serious consequences. The youthfulness of the criminal should be a consideration, not an absolute excuse. My goal is not to destroy the lives of adolescents who commit crimes. My goal is to protect innocent victims whose lives may be destroyed by juvenile crime.

"Hawaii has been fortunate so far. Our juvenile crime problem has not reached the overwhelming proportions faced by many other mainland states. Let's not wait until it does.

"This session, I am proposing a juvenile crime package to address this problem. The measures I have introduced have already been adopted in many other states. I hope they will receive serious consideration this year.

"Thank you."

ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 2653, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Hagino and carried, S.B. No. 2653, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIQUOR TAX LAW," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Reed).

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE BILLS

The President re-referred the following Senate bills that were introduced:

Senate Bill Referred to:

No. 2261, S.D. 1 Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

No. 2262, S.D. 1 Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Judiciary, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Tungpalan rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"On Thursday, I was outraged when I received this letter from a constituent. It appears, from the typewritten section, that he had great admiration for my honesty and my integrity. In fact he said, and I quote: 'I would like to support your political endeavors because I feel you've always been honest and full of integrity, a quality quite rare in this day and age. You stand above other Senators for this and many other reasons.' And he goes on to mention how he's always voted for me. What he did, unfortunately, was enclose a check for a thousand dollars with this letter, and in a postscript he wrote: 'I will personally come by to sign the check after you voted "no" on the gun bills, and the bills are defeated.' I was outraged. I couldn't believe that anyone, especially in my district, could have thought that they would have been able to compromise my honesty and integrity. I don't think there is a Senator that I've ever served with and, certainly, none in this body that would ever succumb to any such bribery and, indeed, it is a bribery. Our laws are very clear that you cannot offer any money to anyone to influence their vote.

"I am not standing here before this body to voluntarily resolve this issue in this manner. Unfortunately, I had shared this information with you, Mr. President, with others whom I felt needed to know, as with the Prosecutor of the City and County of Honolulu and the Police Department. I wanted to have a complete background check on this individual. I wanted to be able to know thoroughly what actions and what options lay before me, and I pursued this in a very diligent and very careful manner. After all, this man lives but a block away from my home.

"In his letter, he states that he has expensive, precision-made guns, European and American masterpieces that he said a street punk wouldn't even consider buying.

"I care about my family and I care about my neighbors, and yet I want to do what is right, which is why I brought this matter before the police and the prosecutor. I wanted to be the Christian that I am; I speak of 'ho'oponopono'; I speak of healing; I speak of pardoning, so we can be pardoned. I wanted to be able to pardon this individual. Unfortunately, it's out of my hands now. The matter is before the prosecutor and the police, and I am told that even though I would like to be able to forgive and not prosecute, it is a matter now before the prosecutor and the police and it is not one which is in my hands any longer.

"I would like to leave the people in the State of Hawaii with this message: I will not tolerate this kind of activity. The Senators in this state are as honest and as uncompromising in their integrity as those in any other, and I would hope that this kind of nonsense stops. We deserve fair and just legislation to protect the citizens of this state and I, for one, can always be counted on voting that way.

"Thank you, Mr. President, and my colleagues."

Senator Tungpalan rose to speak in support of the bill, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill because I recognize the value and the need to continue discussing this important issue. The passage of this bill will send a clear message that this Senate will not tolerate the misuse of guns.

"Recently, four events have hit my home and community especially hard. The first event occurred several weeks ago when a 14-year-old teenager was found to be in possession of a handgun at Pearl City High School. The next eye-opener happened last Thursday when a principal, during a school visitation, told me that she found guns on her campus. We're talking about a campus with 12- and 13-year-olds.

"Later that same day, I was offered a bribe of a thousand dollars to vote 'no' on these gun control measures. That infuriated me because my vote can never be bought, and has never been bought.

"Unfortunately, the hard-hits on my community continue. The fourth event happened yesterday. In this morning's paper I read about a motorist who was shot twice in the head near the Pearl City interchange. This is about 2,000 feet away from my home. At least four shots hit his car; one flattening his tire. The article stated that a handgun was involved.

"Please hear me, my colleagues. Both legal and illegal guns are going off in the hands of children, enraged spouses, jilted lovers, angry employees, and ticked-off motorists. The point driven home by these violent events is that it could happen to anyone, anywhere. It's no longer a good guys versus bad guys issue. The act of violence may involve someone in your community, someone you love, and someone you know. This is why I am voting 'yes' tonight."

Senator Chang then rose in opposition to the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I agree that there is much in our society that needs resolution with respect to violence and conflict. I also agree that handguns are very much involved with some of the incidents that trouble our community and our Senate. Nevertheless, I feel that this measure is too broadly drawn. If we are to address the problem of firearms in our community, I feel that there needs to be a precise analysis of the problem and a very carefully drawn statute which will address that problem.

"The difficulty I have with this broad measure is that it would affect the many citizens in our state who engage in sharp-shooting, competitive shooting, or collecting firearms of different kinds, be they historical, antique or otherwise, and would affect some of our citizens who look upon handguns as a means of self-defense. I look particularly at our citizens in our rural communities -- Pahoehoe, Kauai and other neighbor islands' neighborhoods -- where homes may be several miles apart, and where residents are, in effect, their own police department and need to be self-reliant and self-sufficient, with respect to home security.

"What this measure would do is lock these people into technology which may be outmoded. When you are at home, you want to have a firearm that you can rely upon, that will be effective, that will not jam, when you need it in crucial situations. As technology develops and improves, so that our citizens can rely upon those items, they should be able to take advantage of that. This measure would not permit it.

"Also, we have military personnel who are issued longarms as a part of their standard equipment, but may wish to purchase their own personal sidearms so that when they go to Mogadishu and other theaters of conflict, they will have a complement to their military-issued weapons. This will no longer be permitted.

"I asked several of the women who appeared at the hearing on this measure, why they would use a handgun rather than a longarm, and they replied consistently that rifles had too much penetrating power and may endanger other people in the vicinity, or are clumsy or difficult to handle, and shotguns require persons who are larger than themselves in order to handle efficiently. So their defense of choice was a handgun, with enough capacity to protect themselves, but not endanger others.

"Given that there are citizens in our community who choose to rely upon this, and given that there are many situations across our state where our citizens need to rely upon themselves as a first line of defense, I cannot in good conscience support a measure that does not take these constituencies into account, and I will therefore have to cast a 'no' vote. Thank you."

Senator Grauly, rising to speak in support of the measure, then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. According to the Honolulu Police Department, there are approximately 400,000 firearms in circulation in our state; 16,000 handguns were registered in 1992 alone. What has this meant for our communities, to our families, to our children? It is a tragic story of pain and heartache. From 1988 to 1992, 28 women in our state were killed in firearms-related domestic homicides. In Hawaii, suicide is the second leading cause of death for youths between the ages of 15 and 24, and the leading cause of death, tied with motor vehicle injuries, for those from 25 to 30 years of age.

"The Director of Health testified that from 1988 to 1992, eleven children were murdered with firearms, fourteen children killed themselves with a firearm, and six children died unintentionally in firearms related incidents. Thirty-one tragic stories, Mr. President. That's what 400,000 firearms and 16,000 handguns, in one year alone, have done to our families, our spouses, and our children.

"There were 59 homicides committed with handguns in Hawaii between 1988 and 1992. Forty-one were committed by friends, relatives, and acquaintances of the victim. Of the ten homicides committed by strangers, nine were the result of an argument, and only one was committed during a robbery. The people of Hawaii are not being killed by strangers, but by people they know and love.

"Mr. President, Senators, voting 'aye' on this bill will reduce the supply of handguns in our community in the future. Mr. President, Senators, voting 'aye' on this bill will save lives. Mr. President and Senators, let's do it. Thank you."

Senator Reed rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, thank you very much.

"I am going to be voting against this measure for two principal reasons. First, Hawaii already has some of the toughest gun control laws in the nation. Secondly, because a ban on handguns will do absolutely nothing to reduce crime.

"I spent five years in law enforcement in a job that required carrying a handgun every day. When I joined the Honolulu prosecutor's office, I believed, like a lot of Americans, that guns were to blame for much of the violence in our country. But during the course of those five years in law enforcement, I researched and studied the gun issue and the larger issue of violent crime. The facts changed my mind. I believe that if you really studied this issue, the facts would change your mind as well.

"If more gun control laws -- on top of the tough gun control laws we already have in Hawaii -- would have any impact on crime, I would support them with enthusiasm. But the reality is that further gun control measures of this type -- banning the future sales of handguns -- will do nothing to reduce the use of guns by criminals.

"All this will do is deprive law-abiding citizens of the right to own guns. Most people who commit crimes with guns do not own them legally in the first place. So further outlawing of guns will only mean that outlaws will own guns.

"Even the proponents of this bill admit that banning handguns will not reduce crime. Why will it not reduce crime? Because it will do nothing to get the guns out of the hands of criminals, and do nothing to discourage criminals from using guns in the commission of crimes.

"So, since this bill's supporters admit that it will not reduce the crime rate in Hawaii, what is their rationale for urging 'yes' votes from this body.

"They say this bill is necessary to protect gun owners from themselves.

"Every now and then we legislators start trying to enact laws to protect people from themselves. These efforts -- as misguided as they are -- are generally well-intended. Alcohol is one of the most abused and most destructive drugs in our country, and it is good to try to discourage people from using it. But we all know that prohibition did not work. In general, government's efforts to protect people from themselves are unwise, and certainly unappreciated, even resented, by the people.

"The idea that we need to ban handguns to protect law-abiding gun owners from themselves is fallacious, and incredibly arrogant. If we're going to pass legislation to protect people from themselves in the guise of public health, we should look at the real problem areas in terms of health. Nationally, 80 percent of health problems, health care costs and premature deaths are diet-related. People are killing themselves with the food they eat. If we really want to push laws onto people to protect them from themselves, we should ban all fast-food restaurants and foods linked to disease.

"If we're really so arrogant that we feel justified in dictating to people what they can and cannot do to protect them from themselves, we should not ban guns, we should ban beef.

"But of course, I'm using absurdity to make a point. However, the facts are accurate -- what people eat causes far more damage than guns in America. I am not serious about banning beef, but I suspect that the next time I walk through the door, somebody will say, 'Hey, you're the guy who wants to ban beef.' That's probably what will happen. I'm using an absurd point to simply illustrate the absurdity of this proposal. I do not support the use of force to get people to make intelligent choices about their health. But we appear willing to use force when it comes to guns. A gun ban is even more absurd than a beef ban because the notion that taking guns from law-abiding citizens will reduce crime is a myth--popular, but nonetheless mythical.

"Study after study, Mr. President, shows that people intent on killing someone will find some other weapon if there is no gun available. I'd like to read the summary highlights of a 1991 study conducted by the Johns Hopkins University in 1991, published in the American Journal of Epidemiology. The basis of this study was that Canadians possess only one-tenth as many handguns per capita when compared to the United States. The goal was to find out whether this relative dearth of handguns in Canada translated into a lower criminal homicide rate. The study's conclusions are relevant, interesting and perhaps surprising:

'When Canadian provinces and adjoining U.S. states are compared, three- to tenfold differences in the prevalence of handguns have not resulted in consistently different rates of criminal homicide. In the relative absence of handguns, dangerously violent Canadians commit their assaults using other means which are, on the average, as lethal as handguns.

'That Canada and the United States have the same annual rate of handgun homicides per 10,000 privately owned handguns' (This is again quoting.) 'might suggest that reducing the prevalence of handguns in the United States would lead to a reduction in the homicide rate. However, this attractive proposition is true, if, and only if, equally lethal means are not substituted for the absent handguns. The completeness with which Canadians have indeed substituted such means indicates that the proposition is untenable.'

"The study concluded:

'Major differences in the handgun prevalence have not resulted in consistently different homicide rates in Canadian provinces and adjoining US states. Homicide rates along the US-Canadian border primarily reflect underlying rates of aggravated assault and Canadians are as assaultive as their US neighbors. Canadians fully compensate for the relative dearth of handguns in Canada by effectively utilizing other means for killing one another. It can be presumed that Americans would be no less resourceful under comparable circumstances. As regards homicide rates, it can be inferred that major efforts to reduce handgun prevalence in the United States would be of doubtful utility, even if successful.'

"Mr. President, a second study that is relevant was conducted in 1988 by a Florida State University professor, and the study is known as the Kleck Study, which completely debunks the notion that handguns in the home are more likely to harm or kill the gun owner than a criminal intruder. I'd like to share the study's very brief conclusion:

'Legal defensive violence by private citizens armed with firearms is a significant form of social control in the United States. Evidence indicates that private gun use against violent criminals and burglars is common and about as frequent as legal actions like arrests, is a more prompt negative consequence of crime than legal punishment and is often far more severe. In 1980 about 1,500 to 2,800 felons were legally killed by gun-wielding civilians, about 8,700 to 16,000 felons were nonfatally wounded and guns were used defensively about one million times.'

"Incidentally, Mr. President, to update that figure, in 1993, in America, guns were used defensively--successfully--by Americans against criminals 2.4 million times. Continuing to quote from the study findings:

'Victim resistance with guns is associated with lower rates of both victim injury and crime completion for robberies and assaults than any other victim action, including nonresistance. Survey and quasi-experimental evidence is consistent with the hypothesis that the private ownership and use of firearms deters criminal behavior.'

"I also find disingenuous the argument that we should ban guns because polls show that most Hawaii residents favor such a ban.

"I have long advocated government be more responsive to the people, which is why I favor Initiative. The question, 'should we govern by polls' is a legitimate question, worthy of debate at some other time. I would simply like to suggest that those who use public opinion polls to support an illogical ban on guns should be consistent. Those people should also be willing to support other measures favored by the majority of Hawaii's people -- measures such as Initiative, term limits for legislators, and capitol punishment for those who murder in cold blood. All of these measures are supported by the majority of Hawaii's residents. Why are the advocates of a gun ban not also urging us to pass legislation tonight providing for Initiative, term limits, and capitol punishment?

"Mr. President, obviously, the attempt to reduce the use of guns in criminal activity is laudable. We all want to stop the criminal use of guns. Contrary to the comments of one of the earlier speakers, the passage of this bill will not send a message that this Senate will not tolerate abuse of handguns. The only message that it will send is that it is willing to discriminate against law-abiding citizens and do nothing to actually stop the criminal use of guns. Let's do something that's real, not illusory. Let's pass legislation that will discourage the criminal use of guns. For instance, impose a mandatory 20-year minimum prison sentence on anyone convicted of using a gun in the commission of any crime. Secondly, let's impose the death penalty on anyone convicted of killing another person with a gun in cold blood. This approach would put the punishment in the proper place--on the criminal, rather than on the law-abiding citizen.

"It is superficial, unrealistic, and misguided to respond to the problem of guns being used for criminal purposes, by taking guns away from people who do not use them for criminal purposes. People who want to commit crimes with guns are going to have guns no matter what, so the only way to have any impact is to make the penalty for criminal use of a gun so severe that criminals will stop using them. The only way to discourage criminal use of guns is to make the penalties for such use so severe that criminals are actually afraid to use guns when they commit their crimes. Then, and only then, will we see a reduction in the criminal use of guns.

"Finally, as lawmakers we have an obligation to look more deeply at the problems we propose to solve. How can we propose legislation to solve a problem when we don't know the cause of that problem? What we're attempting to reduce is violent crime in our community -- from domestic abuse to random killings. But how can we propose any real solutions until we understand the cause of the problem? What causes violence? What is the root cause of violence? Do we know? Are we even attempting to find out? It isn't as if violence is a problem beyond our comprehension. The root cause of violent behavior is comprehensible, if we care enough to analyze it. Unfortunately, it is easier and more politically expedient to support popular band-aid remedies such as a gun ban, than to carefully and analytically determine the root cause of violence, and then propose real solutions.

"The ban on handguns that we're about to vote on is -- in a word--useless, and therefore dishonest. It can be taken seriously only by those who ignore the facts and by those who do not know the cause of the very problem they propose to solve.

"Mr. President and colleagues, I'd like to close with a quote from a respected American leader -- one of those card-carrying Democrats -- you can listen to with an open mind. This fellow Democrat said:

'Law-abiding adults should always be free to own guns and protect their homes. I respect that part of our culture, I grew up in it.'

"In today's odd political climate in Hawaii, that's the kind of statement I suspect most of you would disregard as extremist NRA rhetoric. Actually, it was President Clinton in his State of the Union address on the subject of reducing violent crime.

"I agree with the President. Law-abiding adults should always be free to own guns and protect their homes. I vote against this bill because it will take away that freedom while doing absolutely nothing--nothing--to reduce crime."

Senator Tungpalan rose in response to the previous speaker and said:

"Mr. President, just in case the previous speaking didn't hear what I said, I said the passage of this bill will send a message that this Senate will not tolerate the misuse of guns. We're not opposed to guns in the hands of adults who are gun collectors, because they know how to use guns. We're not opposed to guns in the hands of people who are trained shooters, who are masters, who enjoy recreational use of these guns. Yes, we are not in favor of those guns which end up in the hands of 14-year-olds at Pearl City High School, or on campuses of my district, or in yours, or anywhere in this state. We are not in favor of guns in the hands of people who are so enraged, because somebody had inadvertently cut into their path while on the highway, that they use that gun to send a message that they should not be cut in front of again.

"Let's be clear about what this vote is about. This vote is an attempt to begin discussion. This is not a perfect bill, and I surely know that this bill will not be accepted by the House. They've said as much. But it's going to continue the debate. On the need to do something about crime, we will not be able to address it by just sweeping it under the rug. This bill is the first attempt to bring a resolution to many long-standing concerns in our state and I want to applaud the chairman of the Judiciary Committee in this Senate for taking this step."

Senator Reed then responded:

"Mr. President, I'd like to respond to the previous speaker.

"This bill will do nothing that she thinks it will do. The 14-year-old out of whose hands she wants to get the guns will not be impacted by this legislation. The people who she says she has faith in, in the handling of guns -- the collectors of guns, the sports shooters, law-abiding citizens -- are the ones who will be impacted by this legislation.

"The problem is it's a common myth that you can somehow get criminals or 14-year-olds who want to use a gun to obey the law. The 14-year-old who got a gun was violating the law when he obtained the gun. Somehow there's this myth that if we outlaw guns, that guns are no longer going to be available. The problem is that guns are available on the black market. Guns are obtained illegally and, if you outlaw guns, the only people who are going to have them are the outlaws. It's common sense."

Senator Tungpalan again rose in response and said:

"Mr. President, all we're saying is let this bill go forward, let us continue discussing how we can improve it. The attempt here is not to, as I said, not to take away the rights of individuals, at least that's my intent. I don't sit on the Judiciary Committee. I didn't have a chance to fashion this measure. This is the only chance I have in making sure that the citizens in my community will be safe.

"When I first got elected, I had promised that I would do my very best while I was a member of the Legislature to insure their safety. This is what I'm doing. This is my only opportunity to speak on the floor and to rework this legislation. I would like to see a conference committee eventually rework this measure and refine it to the point where we all can accept it. But if we don't allow this to go further, if we continue to say studies are what are needed, then nothing will be done. Thank you."

Senator Chang then added:

"Mr. President, before casting my vote on this measure, I'd like to compliment the chairman of the Judiciary Committee for taking the time to consider these measures and spending long hours in the Mabel Smyth Auditorium. It started in the morning and went into the late hours of the night, and I know that it took a lot of effort and energy out of him to sit there through the day and pay attention to the many different points of view.

"I do hope that if this bill is adopted, and if it should pass through the House and return to the Senate, that he will apply the same diligence in addressing the bill so as to meet the concerns that have been expressed this evening. Thank you."

Senator Holt rose in opposition to the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, reluctantly, in respect to the hard work by the chairman of the committee and by the enforcement authorities who worked on this bill, I stand to speak in opposition to this bill.

"I am not a gun owner; I don't own any guns. I don't have a conflict. I have a lot of fishing reels and a lot of fishing poles; that's my hobby. I have, however, been involved with gun legislation for the last several years, initially, as chairman of the Senate Tourism and Recreation Committee, when we started working on the hunting bills, setting up the hunting education program, working with the gun clubs, working with the skeet shooters, the legitimate gun owners in this community. I believe that there are over a hundred thousand of them out there in this state.

"These legitimate gun owners have come forward over the years, very openly, very fairly, to present their case. There are some who are a little more aggressive than others, but for the most part I have had no problems dealing with them as a group. What we have developed, even working with Senator Blair previously on the assault weapons bill two years ago when we had a big similar problem to the controversy that we have today on the clips on those pistols, we managed to work out with the gun community to their satisfaction, and I'm talking about the legal gun community out there.

"I really don't enjoy standing up here speaking against bills. Maybe I've done that five or six times in my long career. But on this one, I feel compelled to do so because some of the statements that are being made out there, despite the well intentions, are really not true, and I think that I can only say that with evidence to support me saying that they are not true. From what I've found in the last day or two, and I have taken the time to meet with the chairman to talk with him about my concerns earlier today, talking to the attorney general, talking to the police chief, I have talked to the gun owners, and what I've come up with is my understanding of what the situation is out there. I'm not here to try and lobby anybody to vote. We're all 'big boys,' we can decide what to do out here. What I'm doing is stating the facts. I'm going to lay it out there and let people decide what they want to do.

"I requested, from the attorney general, information regarding the homicides that were caused by handguns in the last three or four years, which is, I understand, the basis for this bill. They indicated that there were something like 59 handgun murders in the years 1988 to 1992. I asked for a breakdown of those homicides, if they could give me information specifically related to the handgun that was used in those homicides. This is very important, very critical to this bill. The information I got back was broken down into categories of friends and relatives, unknown, suicides, and the like. What we found was that ... and in addition to that, Mr. President, I asked for 1993 because 1993 figures, which are important, were not presented to the committee, and the chairman indicated that to me this morning that the 1993 figures are not included in the 59 homicides that were the basis for this bill. I have the figures, the figures for the first nine months of 1993 (and this is provided by the attorney general's office in the supplemental homicide report) indicates there were four handgun homicides (and I share this with anybody who wants to see it) and four homicides using a knife. Of the four handgun homicides, one was with a stranger in a bar who was shot; it wasn't at home. Another one was a drug-related homicide. The other two handgun homicides were domestic arguments. Ironically, the victims in these arguments were men. The offenders were women.

"Just to make sure you understand it, what we're talking about are the numbers which, as I understand, they can't give to me, are over 250,000, and I can get that verified. I asked the attorney general and I asked the police chief, I believe, if they could provide me with the number of legally registered handguns out there and they said it would take time and they would get back to me. But the ballpark figure I'm using is a quarter million. The chairman indicated that I think we're talking about, in the last five years, purchases of about 16,000 handguns a year.

"In the last four or five years we've seen the amounts of handgun purchases take off. However, in the attorney general's own testimony, the homicide rate using handguns has remained relatively stable over the last five years and, in fact, last year, 1993, it declined; it went the other way. So what we're seeing here is the percentages going smaller and smaller as far as the use of handguns, as compared to the number of handguns that are out there. The pattern does not seem to justify the prohibition, the ban, on legal handgun sales and legal handgun transfers. It just doesn't make sense because we've been purchasing guns for the last five years and the rates have been going down. So the compelling, or whatever attorneys use, clear and convincing evidence to support this bill is not there, not by the numbers.

"More importantly, Mr. President, and this is where I think we want to make sure that it is perfectly clear in defense of the legal gun owners out there ... 100,000 of them or so who collect guns ... they compete, they hunt ... the words are very strong saying that gun ownership is strongly associated with homicides in the home. I read that in the committee report and I said, 'Okay, well let's go find out.'

"Of the 59 handgun murders that were committed during this period, I asked the attorney general if he knew whether the guns were legally registered or not. They don't have that information; they don't know if they were stolen. I asked them if the homicide was committed on the premises of the legal gun owner. They do not have the information on these reports as to where the homicides had taken place. The point that I'm trying to raise is that we're throwing out these numbers and we're giving people the impression that it's because of the purchases of handguns that are legally registered.

"We have the strongest registration in the whole nation, and I'm going to walk through it, just for all of you, in case you don't know.

"If you want to buy a gun, to get a permit to acquire a gun from the police department, for each handgun, now, you need a license for each handgun; you have to get fingerprinted; you have to get a photograph; you have to get a medical check; you sign a waiver so that a doctor can be called so he can check on your mental state, your medical condition; you have to get a medical history check; sign a waiver so that they can check mental institutions to find out if you have been there or not; you have to get an FBI check for criminal records before you can buy a handgun; then you have, which is the strongest in the nation, a 14-day waiting period before you can register your gun.

"Mr. President, I'm not going to belabor the point anymore, and I'd like to say, in due respect to the chairman who's done a lot of hard work, I don't support this bill. I feel that it is well-intentioned, and I mean that on the part of the proponents who want to see this bill go through. I commend them for their work, but in all fairness to those legitimate gun owners out there, I think we ought to really focus on the problem, and this does not get to the problem that we are trying to address. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 2347, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 16. Noes, 8 (Chang, Holt, Reed, Hagino, Kanno, Aki, Nakasato, Levin). Excused, 1 (Koki).

The Chair then made the following observation:

"Members of the Senate, the Chair would like to thank you for your patience and diligence regarding the very difficult issue relating to firearms. I thank you for your understanding, and the time spent this morning, this afternoon and this evening in voting on this difficult measure."

Senator Reed rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, thank you. Very briefly, there's an article in the Advertiser this morning that relates to my comments relative to caucusing during session. There's one error I'd like to correct, and that is, when I made the point of that kind of thing being rude, I was not thinking of the two or three Republicans who were here, I was thinking about people in the gallery who were here to hear the testimony, etc. But beyond that, I want to thank the leadership. I've been informed by the majority leader, and the majority caucus leader underscored that, that henceforth, caucusing on bills will be prior to session. We're very appreciative that leadership has been responsive. Thank you."

Senator Holt also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, also another correction to a newspaper article two days ago that Mike Yuen wrote -- I was not the swing vote last night. Thank you."

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to memorialize recent praise directed toward the Legislative Auditor. Recent articles in the Pacific Business News by Steve Jefferson and in the Star-Bulletin by Bud Smyser have brought to the public's attention the excellent performance of Marion Higa and informed the public of the crucial role her office plays in the legislative process. Indeed, had not our Constitution provided for the Office of the Legislative Auditor it would be practically impossible for the legislative branch to perform its function in control of the power of the purse -- its principal role in our balance of power system.

"The Legislative Auditor is appointed by a majority vote of each house in joint session and serves for 8 years unless removed earlier by us. Consequently, at all times the Legislative Auditor reflects our interests and our concerns as to the implementation of legislative appropriations. In Marion Higa we have the level of expertise and effectiveness that is essential to the proper functioning of our Legislature. We welcome her and look forward to the benefit of many more years of her professionalism and that of her staff. Thank you.

Senator Matsuura also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I would also like to rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This morning's Advertiser has a letter to the editor, 'Big Island phone service.' I'm not going to read the article but I just want to summarize it. This person, Julie Allen, writes to protest in terms of the pending rate increase that has been asked by Hawaiian Tel. For people on the Big Island, as you know, phone service is far from adequate. There are many places where they don't have private lines, dedicated fax lines are unheard of, and there are a lot of ratepayers on party lines. What she's saying is that you've got to open up competition, and she suggests opening up the competition to companies like SPRINT and AT&T. Her letter to the editor reads as follows:

'I have protested to the Public Utilities Commission about the request by GTE Hawaiian Tel for a rate increase. But protesting is strictly a stop-gap measure. As long as GTE Hawaiian Tel is the only service being offered, we will continually be subjected to rate increases and substandard service.

'Here on the Big Island, hard as it is to believe, there are many large areas where private lines are unavailable and dedicated fax lines unheard of. An "across the islands" rate increase leaves those without adequate services paying the way for those who do have them.

'But enough of shortsightedness. Here is an opportunity for the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) to show foresight and provide the public the service that it is committed to. There is an easy solution to this request for a rate hike and that is to refuse it. It is time to end the monopoly and open up the interisland market to SPRINT and AT&T.'

"Mr. President, companies like AT&T are not interested in providing local services. Recently GTE Hawaiian Tel made a statement that the negative aspect of opening up competition is that the other telecommunication companies will concentrate their services to Oahu and will not provide telecommunications services to all the neighbor island exchanges, which are in GTE's estimations, 'losers.' Pacwest Network, Inc., a reputable telecommunications company offered to buy, in cash, all the exchanges that are 'losers' from GTE Hawaiian Tel. That written offer from Pacwest was not accepted.

"The president of Time-Warner Telecommunications offered to provide a telecommunications service similar to what GTE Hawaiian Tel was offering. The only difference being that Time-Warner Co. was willing to let Time-Warner shareholders pay 60 million dollars for the infrastructure cost, while GTE Hawaiian Tel wants to pass the infrastructure cost to the ratepayers of Hawaii.

"My concern is that when a company like GTE Hawaiian Tel, a public utility company that is self-insured, comes in for a surcharge, I want to make sure that the surcharge is fair and warranted. I have been trying for the past eight years to have the PUC examine GTE Hawaiian Tel financial books. The reason why GTE Hawaiian Tel has never had their financial books examined for the past eight years is that they were making enough money and didn't need a rate increase.

"The PUC guarantees public utilities like GTE Hawaiian Tel a reasonable profit. GTE Hawaiian Tel has not been audited for over eight years. This year GTE Hawaiian Tel came in for a 50.4-million-dollar rate increase. An audit done by the Consumer Advocate shows that GTE Hawaiian Tel in 1993 over-earned 30 million dollars beyond the guaranteed reasonable profit from its regulated services. This huge over-earning does not include profit from the unregulated operation of the telephone company such as sales of telephone instruments, etc.

"When I say over-earned, that means utilities such as Hawaiian Tel are allowed to take 11.25 percent profit of the capital investment. That's 12 percent! If you look at the prime rate today, it's only 3.5 percent. It's a really good deal if one can get that kind of return on your investment capital. In 1993, they got all their profit up to 12 percent, but they made 30 million dollars more, on top of that. Now, that is unconscionable. That excess profit went to GTE shareholders and we, the ratepayers of Hawaii, paid for that excess profit.

"PUC didn't know the profit margin of GTE Hawaiian Tel because it was never audited for the past eight years. When we initiated a service for the hearing-impaired, there was a surcharge; 911 service, another surcharge; Iniki damage, still another surcharge. The best way to have done this is what the PUC recommended, go for a rate increase. It is a legitimate way to get a rate increase. We don't need these surcharges! The only problem associated with a rate increase was that GTE Hawaiian Tel would have to open up their financial books. GTE said that, at most, they make only 5 percent. I have testimonies stating these facts. No one could challenge their statements because they've never been audited and we believed whatever they said. We trusted them for telling the truth. Therefore, we passed the hearing-impaired surcharge. Then came the 911 service, and again, we passed another surcharge.

"When Iniki came, I felt sorry for the Kauai residents. As I stated in my floor speech, before I asked my Hilo constituents to pay for all the surcharges, that Hawaiian Tel was not making a whole bunch of profit. But, because we didn't have any data, we voted 'aye.' I'm going to admit that I also voted 'aye.' Another surcharge was passed on to all the ratepayers in Hawaii. Because GTE Hawaiian Tel was self-insured, GTE stockholders should have paid for the damage. GTE stockholders saved millions of dollars of premium costs. They took the chance, but we paid for the consequences.

"I'm not trying to target Hawaiian Tel, please don't misunderstand me, all I'm looking for is fairness for the Hawaii ratepayers. Maybe I am a little sensitive, but when I look at my telephone bill, touch-call service costs me $1.65 a month. Other states don't charge for this service. If the ratepayers want to jam up Hawaiian Tel, buy and use rotary dial telephones instead of touch-call telephones. It will create a chaos for Hawaiian Tel. Why should GTE Hawaiian Tel charge $1.65? It would be more appropriate to charge $1.65 for the ratepayers who are using rotary telephones because the technology is moving to digital. Touch-tone is something all the telephone companies in the United States want to achieve, yet, we get charged for this service in Hawaii. Why?

"What upsets me is that everything that I had said in my floor speech last year has come to fruition. I predicted the excess earnings. Now, I see this audit report and it really upsets me. I wasn't going to say anything until I read that letter to the editor. I have an obligation to support this lady because she is right. Why didn't GTE take the excess 30 million dollars and provide better service to the Puna area and get them all on a private line instead of party lines? They have 30 million dollars over and above the maximum profit they were allowed to take. Why didn't they do that? Why didn't they provide 911 service with the excess earnings? Why didn't they buy an insurance policy to pay for all the damages? Who benefits from the Iniki surcharge? GTE stockholders. GTE is not owned by Hawaii's people.

"Another thing that is also upsetting is their rate increase. GTE Hawaiian Tel had requested a 50.4-million-dollar rate increase in May 1993. The proposed increase includes jumps in residential basic rates ranging from 62 percent (on Oahu) to 137 percent (on Lanai) and results in a flat fee of $21.95 on each island. 'We are concerned by the proposed rates,' Totto said. 'First, it will cause the greatest hike in rates on the neighbor island. Second, the proposed increase is likely to push more than 6,000 residential users off the telephone system because they cannot afford the increase. Although the increases affect the whole state, this will hit neighbor islanders, the elderly, and those with a fixed or low income hardest.'

"Another serious concern, consumer advocate Totto said, is that 'other companies in the GTE family are syphoning off revenues that belong to GTE Hawaiian Tel.' For example, the auditors reported 1993 Hawaiian Tel revenues should be increased by 3 million dollars to reflect revenues from Yellow Pages Advertising that should be attributed to GTE Hawaiian Tel, but are now being paid to GTE Directories Corp. which is an unregulated GTE subsidiary.

"Questionable allocations of costs by affiliated GTE companies to GTE Hawaiian Tel is another area resulting in a suggested reduction of 4 million dollars. These include expenses that have little or nothing to do with providing telephone service to Hawaii ratepayers. Examples:

- Art work for mainland offices (for example, $35,000 oil portrait of a past CEO);
- GTE corporate 'image' advertising expenses;
- GTE executive incentive bonuses;
- Sales expenses and incentives (including sponsorship fees paid to the National Football League and grants to the Dallas Symphony Orchestra);
- Sports activities costs (for events such as the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl);
- Charitable contributions (which, when recovered from rates, become involuntary contributions from ratepayers); and
- Lobbying expenses.

"I was trying to get GTE audited for many years. The Legislature put in the budget last year monies to force PUC to do an audit on the state Selex system. Did you know that not a single CPA firm would take the job. Why? Are they scared of what they would uncover?

"We as Legislators have got to protect the ratepayers. That is our job. It's time that we stand up and support people like Julie Allen because she's saying, 'Help me, I can't stand these party lines.' I know what party lines are like. I still remember my old telephone in Waiialua -- 3 Blue 704. (Laughter.) I guess what I'm trying to say is that we, as legislators, have to provide some fairness, and if a utility company is regulated, then we have to make sure that the ratepayers are paying what is considered a fair rate.

"Another thing that upsets me is that Hawaiian Tel is also involved with international calls. AT&T came in as an intervener and the PUC rejected them. PUC wouldn't let AT&T be an intervener. Why wouldn't the PUC allow AT&T to come in? Who is most knowledgeable about the revenues that GTE Hawaiian Tel makes on international calls but AT&T. Yet PUC didn't allow them to come in. Why? The chairman of the PUC is going to get a letter from me because, although my investigating committee will be terminated soon, I think it's time that the people of Hawaii get some answers, and I'm going to try to get some of the answers. I'm a ratepayer and I have a number of phones in my office, and I object to paying this touch-call charge every month. I still believe that the state should be able to use our microwave system and I don't think PUC has any business regulating the state government telecommunication system.

"These are some of my objections, Mr. President, and I apologize to this honorable body for airing out some of my frustrations! Thank you."

Senator Solomon rose again on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, on a point of personal privilege. Not to make light of the situation, I think that the points raised by the previous speaker are very important ones, not only as it relates to GTE, but also to HEI and HIG. I could go back in my 12-year tenure and I can pull out my floor speeches, concerning this subject matter and you will see that this has been our concern for a long time. I was never able to get an audit of HEI in terms of the impact its diversified portfolio had on the electrical rates that our people are asked to pay. And as you know, every year they've asked for rate increases and now I just wonder, where did they get the $37 million for HIG? I think that this Legislature has a lot of challenges ahead on lowering rates for the payers of utilities.

"Not only that, Mr. President, I'd like to remind you that when I chaired the Committee on Agriculture, and this was one of the first committees that I chaired when I came into this body, that your Committee on Agriculture at that time embarked on a very ambitious plan to look at price fixing on food in the State of Hawaii. There was an article in the Star-Bulletin on this very serious problem. Buying food is an everyday basic. Now, when you buy a box of Kellogg's Cornflakes and have to pay six bucks, I think that's telling us something.

"These are the issues -- although our plate has been full up till now, with firearms, same sex marriage, shipboard gambling and who knows what else -- that, as the session progresses, the Senate committees will start looking at these serious problems that face our residents every day in the State of Hawaii. I'm hoping that the Ag Committee will meet the challenge of high prices and meet with the supermarkets and the producers to determine how and what is causing these problems.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Holt then responded:

"Mr. President, in response to the previous comments, I'd be happy to work with the Majority Leader on those problems. Thank you."

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATION

Misc. Com. No. 3, from the Hawaiian Sovereignty Advisory Commission, dated February 19, 1994, transmitting the Commission's Final Report detailing the Commission's work and recommendations to the Legislature, was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, there was an article in the paper, 'Islanders support Hawaiian cause.' This is in reference to the issue of Hawaiian sovereignty. It's not too often that I've stood on this floor and agreed with the newspaper, but in this case I'm very pleased with the fact that the poll did turn out like it did. I think that the majority, not only non-Hawaiians, but Hawaiians alike, would like to see some resolution of the whole issue of sovereignty happen within the existing government. I think that this has been the posture of many of our Senate resolutions, as well as bills, i.e., to look for some solutions within the existing governmental system. And as you know, Mr. President, only the Federal Government can settle the issue of sovereignty as it relates to the Hawaiian people throughout the State of Hawaii.

"The interesting points are those that were made on the issue of the beach, as to whether or not Hawaiians have a special right to use the beach for camping, or protesting, or whatever it may be. The poll indicates that many Hawaiians felt that they had no special right.

"I know that there has been a lot of concern about this, especially as it relates to Waikiki and the whole issue of tourism. Mr. President, I would just like to remind all of us here that in this great country of ours people do have a right to protest, and that the Hawaiians do enjoy those same rights, and I'm happy to say that at least the movement has been non-violent. I was very pleased of the news media and that those tourists that were interviewed did not feel intimidated. As a matter of fact, they felt quite sympathetic to the Hawaiian cause and Hawaiian movement.

"I'm hoping, Mr. President, that in this session, the Hawaiian bill will move over from the House. I thought it was a wise decision on the part of the chairman of the Senate committee, when it was decided to let the House move the bill, because, last year the Senate took the lead on the whole issue of sovereignty and I was, not disappointed, but unhappy as to how the sovereignty commission came about with their recommendations. I'm hoping that we can figure out a way to bring all the Hawaiian groups together so they can come up with a way to move this whole movement forward, and that the Hawaiian community will start to focus more of its efforts toward the Federal Government and try to really look at the State of Hawaii as being more of a helper in dealing with the issues in reference to the Federal Government and Hawaiian sovereignty.

"So with that, Mr. President, I would urge my colleagues, if they haven't done so, to please read the article in the paper. If you don't have one, I'll be very happy to send a copy to your office because I think the information is revealing, in that it does support the silent majority's position on this issue. Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:52 o'clock a.m., on motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator George and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Thursday, March 3, 1994.

ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 2967, S.D. 1:

By unanimous consent, action on S.B. No. 2967, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO TAX LAW," was deferred until Friday, March 4, 1994.

At 11:44 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:47 o'clock a.m.

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE BILLS

The President re-referred the following Senate bills that were introduced:

Senate Bill Referred to:

No. 1122 Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means

No. 2201 Committee on Ways and Means

No. 3033 Committee on Ways and Means

No. 3171 Jointly to the Committee on Labor and Employment and the Committee on Ways and Means

No. 3193 Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Tungpalan, on behalf of the Senators, extended Happy Birthday wishes to Senator Malama Solomon.

Senator Koki then rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President I stand on a point of personal privilege.

"For six years I have had the honor of serving in this body and representing the interests and concerns of Oahu's Windward residents.

"During that time, I have witnessed debate on a wide variety of issues. And I have come to appreciate how decisions made on this floor will affect not only those who voted for us, but also the destiny of generations yet unborn.

"That is why I want to take just a moment to discuss two issues that will soon be debated and decided in this room ... issues that will have an irreversible impact on our culture and on our future.

"The first is the legalization of gambling. At first glance, offshore gambling seems harmless enough ... a way to perhaps attract more tourists ... a way of keeping money spent in Las Vegas here in Hawaii ... a way of raising money for education or some other good cause.

"I wish it were all that simple. Unfortunately, it is not.

"First of all, no one is sure how much money will actually go into state coffers. When gambling was introduced into Atlantic City, other retail and service sector businesses saw a reduction in revenue. I don't want to be the one to tell the tour operator or Waikiki shop owner that gambling will siphon away business they now have. But that is exactly what will happen. And the result will be more tax dollars from gambling but fewer tax dollars from other businesses.

"Furthermore, unless we require all gambling enterprises be owned by local residents, most of the profits will go out of state to those who run the gambling operations.

"Shipboard gambling will not stop Hawaii's people from going to the Mainland to gamble. Only full-fledged 24-hour gambling casinos on-shore can do that. Is that what we really want?

"There are those who say that we are already gambling ... illegal gambling. So why not accept it, legalize it and tax it? Or two reasons: first of all, HPD predicts that with the introduction of legal gambling, the amount of illegal gambling also increases because gambling is considered acceptable behavior. So we're not solving the problem. We're only making it bigger.

"But second and more importantly, what are we telling our children and grandchildren? Vice is okay as long as you make money? Is that the principle we want to build our society on?

"Once gambling becomes a part of our culture, it will be hard if not impossible to eradicate.

"The same is true of another important issue ... same-sex marriage. If we allow the State Supreme Court to sanction same-sex marriage, we will abdicate our role as legislators and set in motion a cultural change that may very likely produce unforeseen and unfavorable consequences.

"We need to affirm traditional marriage in the Legislature and protect the family structure. Let's send a message to the Supreme Court to leave legislating to us.

"We are deciding a future that we will not live to see. Let's not make that decision lightly or give our responsibility over to a co-equal branch. Thank you."

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I also rise on a point of personal privilege.

"As you know, we've had numerous articles in the newspapers in regard to our tourism industry in Hawaii. There have been pros and cons of HVB as far as promoting tourism is concerned. Mr. President, your Committee on Tourism, as well as your Committee on Transportation, have been working very conscientiously in trying to make sense of what is happening to our tourism promotion.

"We have come to the conclusion that there is, Mr. President, ineffective tourism promotion -- spending $20 million and not getting our money's worth. DBEDT does not exercise its responsibility of supervising the promotion activities of the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, but at the same time it's promoting its own projects, like Hawaii on Tour, etc. The contract between the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and DBEDT provides that HVB may not assign its duties under the contract without written authorization from DBEDT. In other words, Mr. President, the buck stops with the Office of Tourism, which is under the jurisdiction of DBEDT.

"Now, we find that the Hawaii Visitors Bureau has, in fact, contracted with companies owned or controlled by Mr. Tom Kiele, providing for those companies to perform Hawaii Visitors Bureau responsibilities. Kiele's companies are to receive an excess of $300,000 of tourism promotion funds. We have not been able to find out whether DBEDT has authorized these contracts, and if so, why? If not, why not? We have evidence of financial indulgence, waste, and the worst kinds of conflicts of interest on the part of the Hawaii Visitors Bureau. Where is DBEDT in monitoring all this?

"We must deal with the problem of increasing tourist arrivals by increasing the number of seats bound for Hawaii. Your Transportation Committee is working very conscientiously on this and we're trying to work with the airlines and air charter companies to create an aerial highway to Hawaii. This means the level of landing fees has to be related to maximizing tourist arrivals, not to supporting the Airports Division of the Department of Transportation. We must work to encourage and assist tour companies (such as Ed Hogan's Pleasant Hawaiian Holidays) in their efforts to bring visitors by air tour operations. Mr. President, where was DBEDT on these negotiations? Nowhere!

"Third, we must rationalize the ground transportation system to free it of monopoly pricing and related practices. As you know, Mr. President, early in this session we did have a hearing on that very issue.

"The bottom line is that our Airports Division is 100% larger than Los Angeles and San Francisco. Many attractions in Hawaii are at the mercy of Roberts Tours and they must pay whatever the company demands for each visitor delivered, and that's just the start.

"Mr. President, with the demise of sugar and pineapple and the fact that our diversified agriculture industries have remained almost flat for the past two years or so and with marginal prospects for growth, there's no doubt in my mind, as your Majority Leader, that we in this Legislature, for the remainder of this session, must concentrate our efforts on trying to bring in more competition to level the playing field, so that our tourism industry can, in fact, blossom and grow. Thank you."

Senator Chang also rose and said:

"Mr. President, in brief response to the Senator from Kaneohe, I believe that we all share his concerns and I believe that the Majority, the leadership, and the committee chairmen are diligently pursuing the different issues and questions that arise for each of these proposals.

"I would take small difference with one item in his point of personal privilege. The element of gambling has been a persistent and somewhat substantial part of the many different cultures that exist in Hawaii. The proposal for shipboard gambling represents an entry of the state into what has heretofore been a private matter, and as we all can imagine, there are complexities and delicacies that arise by this precedent setting proposal.

"Similarly, with respect to the issues of same gender marriage, there are many different kinds of questions that have arisen as a result of a changing society, one in which we have both traditional populations and new populations all clamoring for recognition of their rights and privileges.

"I believe that the Judiciary chairman has embarked in the right direction by promoting full dialogue, not only with the different communities represented by these issues, but also with the members of the judiciary branch in ensuring we have a full discussion with the branch that has thrust this issue upon us.

"I'd like to assure the Senator from Kaneohe that the leadership and the committee chairmen are working diligently to address his concerns. Thank you."

Senator Reed, rising in response to the previous speaker, then said:

"Mr. President, just a brief follow-up to the previous speaker. I find the debate on these controversial issues refreshing and would like to underscore the importance of this and hope again that the Majority will debate these issues openly on the floor, rather than in caucus. Thank you."

The Chair responded:

"I'm quite sure we will. Thank you, Senator."

At this time, Senator Kanno, for the Committee on Labor and Employment, in accordance with Rule 21 of the Rules of the Senate, requested a waiver of the 72-hour notice of a public hearing on S.B. No. 3171, relating to worker's compensation.

The Chair then granted the waiver.

Senator Holt, for the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means, also requested a waiver of the 72-hour notice of a public hearing on S.B. No. 1122, relating to taxation, and S.B. No. 3193, relating to newspapers, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Tungpalan rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to support all efforts that are being made to secure the return of the two sacred ka'ai that were taken from the Bishop Museum.

"Our Legislature has been very closely tied to these sacred ka'ais. In 1991, we passed legislation which allowed for the repatriation of these two ka'ai to the Royal Mausoleum. The monies were transferred to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs and it was matched, in fact, by this organization, so we have great interest in securing these ka'ais, which unfortunately were taken. We still continue our support of the return of the ka'ais, and your committee, Mr. President, will be looking into the matter of the disappearance and personally talking to people who may have knowledge of their being taken.

"I would like to encourage those who know about this to call my office with any information. We would like to be able to see that these two ka'ai remain safe in the museum until they are repatriated. Thank you."

I'm just going to read the latter part of the article. "This statewide expansion of E-911 is the result of legislation passed in June 1993 calling for implementation within one year," said Jenny Wong, vice president of external affairs. "The legislation also authorized the company to recover the costs to provide the service through a surcharge." she said.

"The reason why I bring this article up is that I spoke previously on a point of personal privilege that GTE Hawaiian Tel had, for 1993, over-earned $30 million. Yes, they over-earned $30 million, and that's beyond the 12 percent that they are allowed to earn by law. With that thirty million dollars, they should have used some of that to pay for the E-911 cost. GTE Hawaiian Tel is continually charging the ratepayers more surcharges when they have all this excess earnings. We, as Legislators, have allowed GTE Hawaiian Tel to charge these surcharges to the ratepayers.

"Mr. President, I've been trying to audit GTE Hawaiian Tel for I don't know how many years. GTE Hawaiian Tel has not been audited for over eight years. Today I got the sad news that even if GTE Hawaiian Tel was audited for other years like 1992, 1991, 1990, 1989, etc. -- and over-earned in all these past years, whatever they over-earned from 1992 backwards -- there is no way the ratepayers can recover the over-earning. That's gone to the stockholders of GTE.

"I feel as if I have let the people of Hawaii down because we, the ratepayers, have paid for all of these excessive profits -- these so-called over-earned profits beyond the 12 percent that they're supposed to get by law. I feel that we have literally lined the pockets of GTE stockholders with millions of dollars. If you think $30 million was excessive in 1993, we should take a look at 1992, 1991, 1990 profits. The over-earnings must have been large. We won't know unless GTE Hawaiian Tel is audited for 1992, 1991, 1990, 1989, 1988, 1987, 1986, etc.

"I introduced a resolution to audit GTE Hawaiian Tel for the past eight years. We will recover what they have over-earned in those years. The audit will prove that GTE Hawaiian Tel misallocated illegally some of their costs. Once this is proven, GTE Hawaiian Tel will have an obligation to return all of that over-earned profit back to the ratepayers of Hawaii. The other western states require an audit every year and an extensive full audit every third year. P.U.C. commissioners of other states cannot believe that GTE Hawaiian Tel has not been audited by the P.U.C. for over eight years.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Levin rose to speak against the measure and stated:

"Thank you, Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to this bill.

"Each of us in this chamber is a temporary occupant of the Senate. We have borrowed the desks that we sit at. The chairs have been loaned to us by our constituents.

"In some cases, we occupy the positions for a couple of years. Others of us are fortunate enough to stay a bit longer. But even for the best of us, these are temporary assignments only. And I think that each of us wants to pass on to our successors a better Hawaii than we inherited from those who came before us.

"Once in a while there comes an issue before us that truly has long-term ramifications and to make wise decisions on those issues, it would help if we could be mind readers and predict the future. Perfect wisdom, unfortunately, is an impossible task and we can never be sure. So we each make our judgments and we hope for the best.

"One thing that might help to guide us are the words of the author of the Hippocratic Oath. Hippocrates said, 'Make a habit of two things -- to help or at least, do no harm.' If we follow that precept all the time, we would be compelled to be very conservative in our approach. And we might think that we are being told by those words to take no risks at all. I would not subscribe to such a reading, and yet on issues such as gambling I think that we would be well advised to keep that admonition in mind.

"I think we know the potential consequences of legalized gambling in Hawaii. The damage that can be done to our social fabric. The addiction that some people will succumb to. But really, we are talking about two addictions, not just one. There's the commonly thought of addiction which is to the individual who's going to gamble away the rent and food money in order to make up for previous losses, or to achieve a life of wealth and splendor. But there is a second addiction we need to worry about, and that is the addiction that government experiences, the addiction to more and more revenue, and the need for more and more revenue.

"In fact, many of us are being up-front about it, even today. Most are not suggesting that we should legalize gambling because it will make Hawaii a better place. Most of us are being straight-forward and saying that we need the money. Perhaps it's for mass transit; perhaps for education; perhaps for general transportation needs. But whatever the 'worthy cause' might be, most of us are frankly admitting that we are supporting this option as a way of increasing tax revenue and for no other reason.

"We often talk about sending mixed signals. That's often been the argument when someone dares to suggest that our drug laws are too harsh, or our criminal sentencing laws are too rigid. Yet what kind of signal are we sending today with this gambling bill?

"I enjoy Las Vegas, I think most of my colleagues do also, or at least many do. But I do not choose to live there. In fact, none of us chooses to live there. Do we really want to bring Las Vegas to us?

"I know we're only talking about shipboard gambling, today. But we must not ignore the fact that during most of our political lifetimes we have had presented to us, and we have taken up at one time or another, virtually all forms of gambling: lottery, horse racing, dog racing, off-track betting, bingo, casino gambling. We have said no to all of them. We've built a firewall. And I fear that once we breach that firewall, inevitably it is only a matter of time before the complete variety of gambling is available in Hawaii. After all, we're going to 'need' that money. We will absorb whatever new revenue is generated from shipboard gambling, and then we will want more -- for human services, for extension of the transit system, for better education, for whatever good and positive motives that people may have, and the variety of gambling options will be brought in one by one.

"There's also the issue of what happens on Hawaiian land. Sovereignty is coming, and it is going to be a very positive thing. I think most of us hope and expect that the sovereign nation will be somehow integrated and disbursed throughout our island state, perhaps using Hawaiian Home lands, perhaps ceded lands, or whatever. If the firewall against gambling has been breached, and if the new Hawaiian nation wants full-on gambling, do we really believe that anyone will be able to resist, legally or ethically, such a demand?

"Even if you do not share my fears that this is a first step on a long path, I would ask you to question whether shipboard gambling is the best thing for us. What will happen to the gambler who loses whatever he or she decides they can afford, during the first hour of the cruise? What is that person going to do for the next three, or four, or five hours? Is the person going to go off into a corner and read Shakespeare? Or, is the person going to find some money somehow, somewhere, to continue to gamble to win back what was lost, or simply to avoid boredom. The person who gets on that gambling ship is going to be a captive audience for the length of the cruise. Any of us who have been in a casino knows how hypnotic and, yes, addictive those gambling tables and those slot machines can be.

"I received a copy of Senator Dan Inouye's letter to our President and so did all my colleagues. I would like to quote from that letter. He starts out by saying that he is not taking his position from the standpoint of morality or ethics, but rather:

'from the standpoint of good governance. First, gambling adds to the welfare rolls, as well as other government supported human services programs.

'Second, large amounts of cash associated with gambling provides an opportunity for money laundering and other criminal activities.

'There is no question that our crime rate would increase.

'Third, Hawaii's tourism industry does not need gambling. I would be very skeptical about taking a chance on destroying what the tourism industry has worked all these years to achieve.

'And fourth, offshore gambling is the first step to bring gambling into Hawaii. Other forms of gambling will find their way into our communities. At that point, it will be too late.'

Still quoting from Senator Inouye

'We as lawmakers and government leaders will pay dearly in social costs -- financial outlays and human tragedy -- in the end. I hope and pray that the members of the Hawaii State Legislature will take a hard look at the impact of gambling on the State of Hawaii -- its impact on our crime rate, our tourism industry, and most importantly, its impact on our communities, people and children.'

Those are the words of Dan Inouye.

"I do not know whether there are any undecided votes out here on the floor. If there are, I would urge you to weigh the speculative short-term gains against the potential long-term losses. Taking into account that balance, I would urge my colleagues to vote 'no' on this measure. Thank you.

Senator Matsuura also rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise to speak against this measure.

"I agree with my colleague from the Big Island. Once we allow legalized gambling in the State of Hawaii, the Hawaiian groups will be next to follow because that's the only thing that's keeping them from getting into the legalized gambling today. Any tribal group, like the Indian tribal group, cannot initiate a gambling operation if the state laws do not permit gambling. If this bill passes, it opens the door for the Hawaiian groups and I will support them.

"Many of you may not realize, but Sam Boyd, the person who built the California Hotel and all the casinos in Las Vegas, actually got his start in Hilo, Hawaii. Mr. Boyd worked for Mr. Hisanaga and from there he went to Las Vegas and was successful in a tremendous development project, catering to the Hawaii visitors. If one goes to the California Hotel you will see a lot of Hawaii people. That gives you a false impression that if you have legalized gambling here, Hawaii people are going to gamble here instead of going to Las Vegas. I think the reason why a lot of Hawaii people go to Las Vegas is not just for the gambling but they have good entertainment and shows and the hotel and food costs are reasonable. Las Vegas is nothing but desert. When 'Bugsy' found and started Las Vegas, that place was a desert. It's interesting that the people who own the casinos, don't gamble. I talked to a lot of executives and the reason they don't gamble is because they know that Las Vegas was built on losers, just like myself. It is unfortunate that people have that hope of making the big megabucks, but they're contributing to the economy of Las Vegas. Las Vegas has done a fabulous job of promotion in Hawaii.

"There is no doubt that the State of Hawaii is the best place in the world for gambling, but I don't think we're quite ready for that kind of move.

"The Gold Coast in Australia was known as the Great Barrier Reef and the sales pitch was that. Today, the Gold Coast is also a mecca for gambling. And I hope that Hawaii doesn't get that kind of reputation that if you want to gamble, come to Hawaii. The gambling ship may be initially going out to the open ocean, but the gambling ship may also operate docked at the pier and before you know it, the gambling operators will come on shore, just as it has happened in Mississippi, and all the other states where they had gambling on riverboats. If you open up the door, there isn't going to be an end because there's lots of cash. Transactions are in cash and that's where the danger begins.

"So, for us Legislators who have not even allowed lottery, to go to a full scale gambling on a ship is hard for me to understand why we're making such a drastic change in policy. I think if we had the laws and the rules and the experience of Las Vegas, Nevada, we may be ok, but I don't think we're ready for it today. I hope that those of you who are undecided as to which way you're going to vote that you'll consider the future of Hawaii and the children, in casting your vote. Thank you."

Senator Solomon then rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, because I'm thinking of the children and because I love Hawaii, I'm going to be voting in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, as you know, at this point in our history, we need little imagination to conceive of a future marked by misfortune, slow to grow and hampered by unwanted restraints. That is the prospect that confronts us, as our economy, with distressing speed, slides toward the death of opportunity. If I sound gloomy, I'm entitled. On the Big Island, sugar is fading away, and there is no ready replacement.

"I hasten to say that it is much too early to forecast the end of plantation agriculture. Maui and Kauai will continue to make crops for years into the future.

"But along the Hamakua and in Waialua, the old order is changing, and a generation of farm families are losing their ties to the land, the self-respect of gainful employment and the confidence of reliable lifestyle. There is no ready replacement.

"We have positive beginnings: a mountain top of telescopes on Mauna Kea and Haleakala pondering the strangeness of the universe; a research center pursuing the connections among cold ocean water, electricity and aquaculture; a geothermal resource that promises steady power. But when, Mr. President, will that happen?

"The demand that we confront is for jobs, new jobs, new industry to take the place of those we are losing to the end of sugar in our corner of the islands. There is tourism, yes, and it's a great industry -- non-polluting, export-earning, compatible with differing environments. But recent economic downturn has pointedly reminded us that there are limits in even so well-established destinations as Hawaii.

"What we urgently need is a means to build on our existing economic base without sacrificing the features that make tourism a healthy industry.

"Mr. President, that opportunity is legal gambling, and it offers more promise to both the tourism industry and the overall economy that might first seem to be the case. It is superficial to note that Hawaii and Utah are the only states which do not permit gambling. We should license a half-dozen offshore cruise ships to offer legal gambling on trips between the islands or just offshore. Examination of other states' experience with riverboat gambling reveals that shipboard gambling will bring in large earnings, valuable tax receipts and a more diverse visitor industry.

"Better still, it need not replace any existing visitor industry trade. Shipboard gambling would be marketed as an added feature of Hawaii's visitor product. Our promotion of the islands in our own country and Asian markets would continue to highlight such familiar and dependable assets as our magnificent natural environment. In that the last two years the number of states considering riverboat gambling has increased to more than 15. Their experience indicates that such gambling is a multi-million dollar resource.

"To produce the maximum in revenues, while maintaining oversight, cruise boats must go to sea several times a day, draw participants from surrounding population areas and be shielded from cut-throat competition.

"Hawaii is ideal. The islands have an ever new population of visitors, and destination areas are close to landings. With a moderate admission fee, several trips a day and vessels ported statewide, earnings may exceed $100 million a year. Mr. President, we have here a proposal that accomplishes key policy goals. It raises revenues; it creates jobs and it offers an enjoyable pastime for visitors and residents alike. Let's seize the opportunity and accept it. Thank you."

Senator George, rising to speak against the bill, said:

"Mr. President, over the years, a lot of gambling proposals have floated past me. It's ordinarily been fairly easy to resist the temptation to accept the extra money because economic times were affable and we usually managed, without too much stress, to find money to fund worthy programs. It's harder now to resist the temptation when funds may be available through gambling for programs in which I take a great deal of interest -- education and transportation. In order to resist the temptation I found myself asking myself the old question, 'Does the nobility of the end justify the means?' My answer to that is 'No.' Colleagues, I hope you'll join me in voting 'no.'"

Senator Koki also rose in opposition to the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill. This bill does not pollute the lung; it certainly pollutes the attitude and the mind.

"We're always looking for a quick fix which we must abstain from and resist the temptation of legalizing a vice. Soon we'll probably be getting calls of legalizing prostitution and drugs. Gambling is an addiction that can be worse than the addiction of drugs.

"What I'm concerned about is that we are losing the essence of what has made Hawaii great. We have a bill that's going to be mandating the 'Aloha Spirit,' teaching the 'Aloha Spirit.' Does gambling encourage the 'Aloha Spirit?' I think not. I don't think that it will encourage the 'Aloha Spirit' if the mentality of doing what is necessary to raise money prevails. Let's not destroy what has made Hawaii a very special place. Thank you."

Senator Grauly then rose to speak in support of the bill and stated:

"Thank you, Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill.

"As we consider the proposal before us to create a new industry for our state, we should put aside horror stories about the deadly embrace of gambling and focus on facts. Fancy has it that organized crime will instantly follow gambling into any new market. The fact is there is no more likelihood of such a development than with any other new industry; in fact, less, because enterprise touched with gaming throughout America has been greeted with more stringent controls and government supervision than any other enterprise, and rightfully so.

"Mr. President, your Committee on Judiciary was concerned about the impact that gambling may have on law enforcement activities. A study was done by the State of Virginia to look at riverboat gambling and see the impact that it might have on crime in the various states that have adopted riverboat gambling. I have with me today the summary of those findings and the study itself from the State of Virginia, which studied riverboat gambling in Iowa, Illinois, Louisiana, Missouri and Mississippi. Those findings indicate that interviews with chiefs of police, sheriffs, prosecutors and security chiefs of riverboat casinos reveal that there have been occasional criminal offenses related to riverboat gambling. They consist of public intoxication, driving under the influence of alcohol, disorderly conduct, petty theft, bad checks, shooting by both patrons and casino employees, traffic crashes and congestion. All law enforcement officials interviewed stated that while riverboat gambling does increase crime rates, it has not created a negative impact on their area of responsibility.

"In some cities, task forces or additional patrol boats or beats were created in preparation for an expected impact on law enforcement. All have disbanded the task forces or beats due to lack of calls for services. 911 calls have increased in most areas, while most authorities report these calls for service have not had a major impact.

"Only one jurisdiction, Galeena, Illinois, reveals emergency medical calls for service had impacted on their local rescue squad. Rescue squad is a volunteer operation and having personnel available seven days a week had caused some concern.

"Prosecutors who have prosecuted the above-mentioned criminal violations, as well as violations of riverboat gambling statutes, also report no observable negative impact in their area of responsibility. They unanimously related that the current statutes regulating riverboat gambling are well written, and to date they have not encountered problems prosecuting kinds of cases that we would expect are related to riverboat gambling.

"Mr. President, your Committee on Judiciary also took some testimony from a very successful businessman who is responsible for much of the growth in the tourism industry in our state, Mr. Chris Hemmeter. Mr. Hemmeter had some very interesting comments about gambling and I'd like to quote from his testimony. He says:

'Gaming throughout America has become the new pastime. Gaming in the decade of the '90s is to the visitor industry what golf was to the visitor industry in the '80s. It is becoming an essential ingredient in the overall matrix that makes up a successful visitor industry. It is desired by conventioners and group travelers as well as free independent travelers. Gaming is an average $12-per-hour form of entertainment and visitors spend an average of four hours per visit to a gaming facility. Gaming should not dominate the state's visitor industry, but rather enhance the visitor industry by offering another option which is so highly sought after throughout the nation.'

"A recent study by Yankelovich Inc. indicates that Americans visited casinos 92 million times last year, twice as often as they did three years ago. And for the first time, Mr. President, more Americans visited casinos than attended all baseball games in America. The Yankelovich survey of 100,000 households in America found that 27 percent of Americans gambled at least once last year, up from 17 percent in 1990. This group spent over $13 billion in the gaming industry, more than was spent attending all the movies in America. Four years ago, only Nevada and New Jersey had legal casinos, and to date, 23 states allow it. The study went on to show that gamblers have higher incomes, more education, and hold more white-collar jobs than the average American. More women gamble than men, 54 percent versus 46 percent. And the study went on to forecast that 28 states will have casinos by 1997.

"Mr. President, the gaming industry is the fastest growing segment of the visitor industry in America. Assuming that the State of Hawaii wishes to stay in the forefront of the visitor industry, it is essential that the gaming industry be seriously studied as to its appropriateness for our state.

"Nancy Todd, in a recent article entitled 'Legalizing Gaming and Doing It Right,' stated that enabling legislation and citizen involvement are the most important steps in bringing gaming to America. She indicated that each of the following areas should be included to facilitate the passage of legislation:

- (1) Type of gaming to be allowed and exactly where it will be conducted;
- (2) The precise manner by which it will be regulated and the nature of the state's regulatory industry;
- (3) Provisions for calculating the tax revenue and setting up precisely how the money will be spent; and
- (4) Provisions for state, county or local option.

"Mr. President, Senate Bill 2754 includes all four.

"Mr. Hemmeter went on to say that his company was developing a riverboat gaming facility where he will employ over one thousand individuals in the gaming operation with an indirect impact on employment of an additional three thousand jobs. There are numerous other examples throughout the United States where the gaming industry has brought about significant new employment and where there has been a transformation from government deficits to government surpluses, and examples where existing taxes have been reduced significantly in communities where gaming has been introduced. In addition to high government revenues and numerous job opportunities which cross the spectrum from computer analysts to maintenance people, from card dealers to accountants, gaming has brought other benefits to communities. In many instances, crime in a community has actually declined with the opening of a gaming facility, for the basic root of crime is poverty and lack of opportunity coupled with a desire for a better future.

"The economic stimuli brought about by the gaming industry have in numerous instances caused unemployment to drop and better paying jobs to increase, setting the opportunity for our children to return home to a future of opportunity rather than despair and unemployment. The economy of Hawaii which is based on tourism provides a bellwether to the future. The gaming industry can be an economic stimulus within the visitor industry.

"Mr. President, I'm tempted to suggest that Hawaii's durable opposition to gaming may be more a measure of our missionary past than the result of thoughtful study of our circumstances. Let us be done with the mythology that surrounds proposals to commence legalized gaming. Let us open our eyes to the real world. Let us recognize that gaming is a legitimate enterprise, no more touched with wrongdoing than any other, and fully capable of sustaining itself in high regard. Let us be done with the double standards that hold horse racing and sports betting in high regard but produces opposition to shipboard gaming.

"Mr. President, members of the Senate, we must be sound business people in this matter. We are seeking a new source of revenue that will finance essential government operations, yet enhance our visitor industry. Let us authorize shipboard gaming and welcome resulting growth in our visitor industry and new strength in the education and transportation programs it will support. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Iwase also spoke in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, this is a very tough issue for me. I did sign 'With Reservation' on the committee report coming out of the Judiciary Committee. There is the moral issue facing us on the question of gambling. There is also, for me, the question of the need for more revenues.

"I'm going to vote to support this bill because I represent a district which is suffering from a burgeoning population and it requires transportation improvements. The cost of such improvements are high. Last session we passed a bill to the House, in the absence of rail, a proposal to build a tunnel under Pearl Harbor that's $1.8 billion. A rail system would be $2 billion. A bus transit system would probably be several hundred millions of dollars. People have to understand that there have been some who voted for development in leeward and central Oahu and I assume that there are political benefits to be derived from that, and yet on the other hand chose not to support needed transportation improvements caused by the developments which they voted for. That, I think is irresponsible.

"My colleague from the Big Island, the first speaker, who went to Harvard and perhaps that is why he mentioned Shakespeare, I would like to quote to him a line from Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet: 'What light from yonder window breaks.' For me, Senator, this is a ray of hope for transportation improvement in my district, and I will support this bill for that reason. Thank you."

Senator Reed then rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, may I rise and speak very briefly in opposition? I think this is a false light from yonder window.

"Mr. President, I feel that this is an irresponsible way to increase revenues. If we, as a community, have things that we actually need, be it rapid transit or better schools, which I certainly concur with, then we, as a community, must be willing to pay for that kind of service. We must be willing to, as a community, agree to increase our contributions in the form of taxes to provide for our children and to provide whatever we want in terms of services to the community. To attempt to provide this kind of illusory source of revenue through gambling is an irresponsible way of increasing revenue.

"And finally, Mr. President, it is certainly one thing if people choose to gamble, that is their right. But in this situation, what you would have is government encouraging people to gamble, and that is clearly inappropriate.

"So, I will be voting 'no.' Thank you."

Senator Holt rose to speak in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill.

"First, let me commend you for taking this bold and courageous initiative forward despite perceived political fall-out for introducing and supporting such a controversial measure.

"Most importantly, Mr. President, I'd like to point out that if this would do what the opponents have previously stated -- that gambling will destroy what has made Hawaii a special place -- then those who benefit from Hawaii being a special place would be totally opposed to this bill. Mr. President, I'd like to point out that our tourism industry is not here today in numbers lobbying against this bill. They did not testify in committee against this bill. The HVB, state marketers for tourism, is not against this bill. The Hawaii Hotel Association, representing most, if not all of the hotels in Hawaii, are not against this bill.

"Mr. President, if our number one industry which provides most of the jobs in our state (the voters in your district are employed by these hotels in this industry) is not opposed to this bill, then they, like me, believe that Hawaii will continue to remain a special place, despite passage of this bill. I urge all my colleagues to vote in support of this measure. Thank you."

Senator Ikeda also supported the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President, it's altogether too easy in our mid-Pacific paradise to neglect the hard facts of government and political life. Since the advent of statehood and jet aircraft, an ever-growing tide of visitors to our shores have created a booming visitor industry whose growth underwrote resort development and strengthened an economy in transition. In the last two years, however, our earnings have fallen off. It is not just that the number of visitor arrivals has slowed, equally important from the standpoint of revenues, the over-building of hotel rooms has produced vacancies subject to no tax.

"However, Mr. President, my colleagues in this Legislature are far from restraining their spending habits of more opulent days. For the fiscal year 1994-1995, the Legislature is considering a total of 166 general fund appropriation proposals worth more than $250 million. Adding special funds appropriations to that would amount to more than $400 million. Plainly, these proposals must be curtailed. Just as important, however, we must seek new revenues that together with prudent cuts will allow us to balance the budget.

"The governor has proposed a half penny excise tax to underwrite the local share of the transit system and, not surprisingly, the Legislature, mindful of impending elections, has refused. That decision is a definition of what is politically possible. The Legislature will not approve taxes that fall heavily on island residents. That leaves the transient accommodations tax, which could be popular, except for the negative impact on the industry that I have already mentioned.

"Mr. President, if we are to solve our financial problems under these constraints, we must look farther afield than has been our practice. This wider view reveals a revenue source that has the benefit of boosting tourism, yet generating new funds for tax strapped agencies that are essential to our well-being, such as education and transportation. That source is legal gambling, specifically gambling aboard cruise ships transiting the islands or sailing from ports throughout the state.

"It is not possible to predict with certainty the earnings shipboard gambling will generate in Hawaii, but the experience of Illinois, one of the most aggressive states allowing gambling aboard riverboats, is very encouraging. Illinois' ten riverboats carry more than 12.5 million visitors a year, raise almost $715 million in gross revenues and produce over $170 million in direct tax revenues. In addition, the riverboats create over 8,500 jobs earning an average of $23,000 a year.

"With slightly more than half as many boats and fewer than half as many customers, Hawaii can expect returns of more than a $100 million in revenues and a dramatic increase in employment. Moreover, shipboard gambling here can offset out-of-state gambling by Hawaii residents. It is estimated that Hawaii now exports $5 million a week, $250 million a year to Mainland gambling locations like Las Vegas.

"Hawaii also will benefit from its oceanic location. Mainland jurisdictions have found themselves in competition with neighboring states that also sponsor riverboat gambling. While Hawaii would have several ports, all would be within the state. Receipts from gambling would go into a separate fund from which state and county shares of gaming income would be paid.

"Mr. President, this Legislature over the years has debated many forms of gambling, from horse and dog racing to casino resorts. Always in the past, we had the luxury of adequate revenues to operate the state without recourse to gambling. Now, however, we face different circumstances. We cannot predict an immediate return to good health for our tourism industry, and we have no enthusiasm for new taxes.

"I might add that I shared the same fears expressed by others of potential social problems several years ago when social gambling was passed by this Legislature. I have to admit, fortunately, that my fears were unfounded. I'd also like to add that the previous speakers' concerns regarding Hawaiian groups embracing gambling as a means of raising revenues are really interesting. As I recall, a bill was introduced last year by one of the speakers which would have authorized casino gambling on Hawaiian Home lands. I find this about-face curious, to say the least.

"Mr. President, we can create a legal, closely regulated gambling industry that will create new jobs and revenues. We should recognize that education and transportation are major public enterprises, which at this moment are in desperate need of support, and we should act decisively on this matter. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose again in opposition to the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, the last speaker mentioned about a person who introduced a measure that will allow the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to provide some of these gaming programs on their land. I am the person who introduced that legislation and I'm willing to admit that.

"And the reason I did that is because, like I said previously, feasibility studies have shown that if one is interested in promoting gambling, the best place in the world for legalized gambling is Hawaii. I know of the history of the Hawaiian people, how they had lost their lands like the American Indians. If we are going to allow gambling to take place in the State of Hawaii, I want the Hawaiian people to be the first in line to take advantage of it. If we're going to go the gambling route, then I want the Hawaiian people to be one of the beneficiaries.

"Many of you have mentioned about revenues from gambling. If we are talking about revenues for the state, then I say, pass the bill such as the telecom free zone in Kapolei. Do that, and I can assure you that the revenues that we will get for the State of Hawaii will far exceed what we will get from gambling on ships.

"I have written to 230 'Fortune 500' companies that are doing business in the Asian market, in the Pacific Rim, and everyone of them says if we have a telecommunication free zone in Hawaii, they will come and put up their Pacific headquarters in the State of Hawaii, which will mean a lot of jobs, high paying jobs, in the field of high technology. These bills have all been killed! How many high tech bills have made it up to this point? Just a few. Yet, that's the kind of measure we should be voting on today, instead of a gambling bill. The technology of telecommunications is moving fast and we are geographically in the right spot in the whole world to take advantage of it. We should be passing the telecommunication bills instead of passing a gambling bill if we are interested in generating revenues for the State of Hawaii.

"The Judiciary chairman mentioned that more people go to casinos than going to a baseball game. I would rather see families go to see baseball games than going to these casinos to gamble.

"If gambling is such a good idea, then I say, don't restrict it to the ships, put it on the land just like Las Vegas. If it were so good, why is it that I have never seen children in any casinos. The reason why they're kept out is because I don't think gambling is such a good idea.

"As far as I am concerned, today, I am going to vote 'no,' and Mr. President, I would like a roll call vote on this measure. Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi also spoke against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the measure.

"An earlier speaker had made a connection between gaming and golfing, suggesting that gaming was a recreational trend of the '90s. I would suggest, perhaps, that for some people, present company excepted, that golf may be a game involving chance. Of course, most of us consider golf a game involving skill, but gaming is never a situation of skill. Gaming is always a situation in which some people lose so that other people may gain.

"Years ago, I had the accidental privilege of speaking to an expert from the Mainland who was visiting the islands, on the topic of substance abuse addiction, specifically, alcohol. And after a bit of conversation, I found him giving me advice about a bill, being discussed at that time, on lottery. I asked him how he knew so much about gambling and he said that it was a hobby of his to learn more about gambling addiction because of his professional interest in substance abuse addiction. He made a great number of very cogent similarities between the kind of addiction involving gambling and the kind of addiction involving substance abuse.

"Essentially, substance abuse and gambling addiction are very real and difficult behaviors to correct. They are behaviors which are basically hidden, oftentimes, from the general public and even from family members. They have some very detrimental effects long before they are fully opened by the individual and known to family members, and once addiction takes root, it is very difficult to undo.

"One of the prior speakers had mentioned that it is not possible to estimate the revenues that might be derived from this bill. Another one of the speakers suggested that perhaps gaming should be studied and that four significant points be determined prior to legislation of this sort is approved. I would note that the legislation before us contains a blank percentage amount for expenses incurred for the administration and enforcement of the gaming board. It is difficult, at this point, to estimate the administration costs of this gaming board and, I would suggest, difficult to estimate the social ill effects of gaming in general to our citizenry. And until we do indeed have a good study of the advantages and disadvantages of gaming, I would suggest we study the issue further. Thank you."

Senator Koki rose again and added his remarks against the bill:

"Mr. President, we have been ranked number fifty in pro-business climate and we have been squeezing businesses till most are suffering and many are giving up. A lack of revenues is not simply from the tourist slump, it is because of our anti-business attitudes and business regulations. The fix is not gambling. The fix is an environment in which business may prosper. The more business prospers, the more taxes they'll pay, the more employees they'll hire and the more taxes they will pay. So I agree with Senator Matsuura, the fix is, it may be a little more difficult, but it takes a comprehensive effort and study to start to promote Hawaii as a place of doing business. Thank you."

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2292 (S.B. No. 3309, S.D. 2):

Senator Ikeda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2292 be adopted and S.B. No. 3309, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Matsuura rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I'm going to speak against this measure.

"When I saw this bill, I checked to see if there were others in Hamakua who may be interested in bidding for this slaughterhouse facility. I made a few phone calls to the people who were presently involved in the slaughterhouse business in the Hamakua district. There appears to be four other slaughterhouse operators who are interested in bidding for this facility. The major problem that I see in this bill is on page 4, section 3, and it reads:

'The department may negotiate and enter into leases of lands eligible under section 4 of not less than fifteen years but not more than thirty-five years with any person who, as of December 31, 1994, holds a revocable permit for a slaughterhouse and feedlot or for any other agricultural purpose, issued in accordance with sections 166-6 or 171-55.' (Hawaii Revised Statutes)

"I'll give you an example of why I think the language of the bill narrows it down to pretty much one person. I talked to a Mrs. Andrade, and the Andrade family has been in the slaughterhouse business since 1906. Perhaps, they're the oldest slaughterhouse operation in Hamakua. She sent me a set of letters as to what happened to her regarding this property. The first letter was dated June 28, 1993, and is addressed to Mr. Yukio Kitagawa, Director of Agriculture. She saw, at that time, an ad saying that the state will be leasing the slaughterhouse and the feedlot and so on. Mrs. Andrade's letter is informing Mr. Kitagawa that she is interested in leasing the property. Mr. Kitagawa replies to her a few days later, on July 2nd, and he says, 'Yes, it is going to go up for a lease. However, it's going to be a one-year lease, revocable on a monthly basis.' Mr. Kitagawa says 'We will need some commitment of your intent and would like your reply by Tuesday, July 6th,' which was four days later. It just doesn't make sense for anybody to pursue this lease because of the pre-conditions of what one had to do to qualify. The pre-operational requirements for a revocable permit of that facility would have cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. And Mr. Kitagawa, in his letter says, 'Please study the terms and conditions very carefully. We'll base our selection decision on your reply to those terms and conditions. You should be aware that the improvement and corrective work will require large capital outlays with no guarantee of reimbursement of such expenditures, nor of being selected for the long term lease.'

"No sane person would ever go for a month-to-month lease with the condition that you may not recover a penny of the cost of your improvement. So she didn't. So another person who doesn't live in the Hamakua district -- a person in Honolulu whose name is Donald Lau -- evidently got the month-to-month revocable permit.

"This bill does favor the person who already has the month-to-month lease. The four slaughterhouse operators were shocked that we were going to vote on this bill today. I called the Department of Agriculture and they told me that it is their intent to go out for bid. I told them that we're going to vote on this bill today and they were surprised that we had such a bill on the docket.

"It would be better not to pass this bill and let the Department of Agriculture go out for bid. This lease has become very lucrative because there are now federal funds to provide for the generators. Senator Inouye also got a military contract for the meat because of the Hamakua situation.

"With all of that background, I feel that it is better that we let the Department of Agriculture continue with its lease procedure and let it go out for public bid. Thank you."

Senator Hagino then rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"I appreciate the concerns of the previous speaker and I think the chair of the Ways and Means, when she passed this bill out, recognized some of the problems or concerns. That's why there is a defective date on the bill, as far as implementation, so this bill will have further scrutiny.

"As far as the section that was cited, section 3 of the bill, unless my ears are wrong, we did have a unanimous vote on a previous bill and that previous bill has almost identical language on that bill. This one has to do with agriculture leases on the Hamakua Coast. In fact, section 3 on page 5 of the previous bill is the exact language that the previous speaker just spoke of. For that reason I urge my colleagues to vote 'yes' on this bill. Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi rose in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, speaking for the bill, I believe that the current language in the bill simply says that departments 'may' negotiate and enter into leases of lands eligible. I would urge that the department stick to its statement that it is going out to bid and that it indeed go out for bid for these leases. The bill only allows them to negotiate, but if there is a commitment to go out to bid, they can ignore this paragraph. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2292 was adopted and S.B. No. 3309, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LANDS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Matsuura, Koki, Reed).

By unanimous consent, Stand Com. Rep. No. 2297 and S.B. No. 3026, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY," were recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2299 (S.B. No. 532, S.D. 2):

Senator Ikeda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2299 be adopted and S.B. No. 532, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Matsuura, in opposition to the bill, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I hate to be casting 'no' votes, but I think this bill pretty much takes out the sole source bidding process on all the airport projects.

"When we prepared the procurement bill, you have to understand that there was nothing wrong with sole source bidding as one of the procurement processes. There's going to be situations where you are going to need sole source bidding as one of the bidding procedures. In the procurement bill, we put a lot of conditions for sole source bidding. If we are going to eliminate the sole source procedure from the airport contract, we will be taking away an alternative that one may have to use. I don't want all of you to think that sole source contract is a bad, bad, bad thing. When sole source contracts were being given out freely and amendments to the sole source contracts was totally out of control, those were the abuses that should have never happened. Nevertheless, let me just say that all sole source contracts are not altogether totally bad. There is a place for sole source contracts and that is the reason why we kept it in the procurement bill when we passed it. That's the reason why I'm voting 'no' on this bill. Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling then rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I have to confess I'm a bit baffled by the contradictory positions that the previous Senator has taken on this issue. To the best of my recollection (I'm speaking in favor of the bill) all throughout the special investigatory hearings that the good Senator held, it appeared that airports and sole source contract, with respect to airports, was indeed one of the big problem areas that we needed to get a handle on. And it was for that reason that we decided, as the committee on transportation, this year, to move out this bill to instruct the Department of Transportation that with respect to those contracts, which I believe the Senator had identified, you are looking at millions and millions of dollars in sole source. With respect to that big problem area, we wanted to insure that this be done fairly and this be done by public bidding and it is for that purpose that we have passed this bill.

"Now, I'm aware that the procurement bill that was introduced by the Senator and worked on with others in this body last year did not address this issue specifically. We felt that based on some of the findings of the investigative committee that it should be addressed, and addressed in this manner, and it is for that reason that I'm urging all of my colleagues to pass this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2299 was adopted and S.B. No. 532, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AIRPORTS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Ikeda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2325 be adopted and S.B. No. 1634, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Matsuura rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"This is a measure which was not supported by the administration, the University of Hawaii, Maui County, Hawaii County, and the aquaculture industry, statewide. I met with Bill Paty, the former director of DLNR, and he feels that the aquaculture program should remain with DLNR. There is a very close working relationship with Anuenue facilities at Sand Island which is under the DLNR fishery program. In fact, this issue was tabled last year, after overwhelming and unanimous opposition by over 40 industry members, including DLNR and DOA. I just called the DOA today and they don't have the room to house this new program. This bill is moving again this year, despite DLNR and over 30 members of the industry going on record as being strongly opposed to this transfer of responsibilities. I was at the hearing and there was only one person who testified in favor.

"The industry believes that the current organizational placement is working well. So, why change it? The aquaculture development program has grown to a $20 million a year industry in products and service since its inception. Hawaii is the acknowledged leader in the United States in aquaculture planning and development.

"I see no advantage to this move; I only see significant disadvantages and extreme counter-productive impacts.

Whenever you change and make the move, you will be incurring unnecessary expenses.

"Proponents of this bill say that moving aquaculture to DOA would be consistent with federal policy and that additional resources will be available with the DOA organization.

"In truth, federal aquaculture efforts occur in a joint Subcommittee on Aquaculture, which is located within the President's Office. The U.S. Department of Agriculture is a member of this subcommittee, together with the Department of Commerce and the Department of the Interior. It is implied that this move is needed to access federal resources in the U.S. Department of Agriculture. But this is not the case. Support within USDA can be accessed by aquaculture interests within DLNR right now. And there are no present or future funding advantages by having the aquaculture funding function in the state Department of Agriculture. Furthermore, aquaculture in Hawaii is more closely related to fisheries and the Anuenue facilities on Sand Island which is under DLNR.

"Those who are in favor of this move cite greater resources in DOA. DOA has great responsibilities for agriculture, especially at a time when the sugar industry may be at its demise. Transferring the aquaculture program to DOA, where no resident expertise exists, could mean aquaculture would get lost in the shuffle. It is claimed that DOA has various support programs and services in place. But when you examine closely, most of the support programs are regulatory in nature and have no development interest in aquaculture.

"DLNR divisions provide much more beneficial interactions for aquaculture development activities. DLNR currently oversees state lands and freshwater, coastal resources, fisheries development and restoration of Hawaiian fishponds. The aquaculture development program staff understands and works closely with these vital components of DLNR. The interactions with the DLNR divisions far outweigh the benefits of any closer interaction with DOA divisions, which are largely regulatory.

"DLNR manages the land, water, fisheries and the coastal resources. It is deeply involved in preserving our treasured ancient Hawaiian fishponds, and it should continue to successfully manage aquaculture development for the state.

"Mr. President, we have public hearings primarily so that we can get input from the public and the administration. In this case, both departments, DOA and DLNR, totally oppose it. Everybody who had testified last year, this year, and I'm talking about all the industry people, strongly, strongly opposes this bill. I don't know why we're passing this bill. Why have public hearings? For this reason, Mr. President, I'm voting against this bill and I would request a roll call vote on this measure. Thank you."

At 12:52 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:57 o'clock p.m.

Senator Reed rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, to underscore the comments of the previous speaker (for those of us who recall the previous speaker's comments), approximately a dozen people testified on this bill, Mr. President, and all of them were in opposition. Last year, approximately 65 people testified in the House on this bill, every one of whom opposed this bill. I urge a 'no' vote. Thank you."

Senator Hagino, rising in support of the measure, requested a ruling from the Chair as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm rising to speak in favor of this bill, but before I do so, Mr. President, I would like a ruling on a conflict of interest. I work for Oceanic Institute and some of the comments made about this bill has to do with Oceanic Institute. I am in support of this bill."

The Chair ruled that Senator Hagino was not in conflict.

"Thank you, Mr. President.

"First of all, I would like to address that conflict of interest question that arose, and this is part of the reason why I'm strongly in favor of this bill, not because Oceanic is in support, but they did not come out and publicly speak in favor of this bill, knowing the situation. But I rise to speak because much of the comments that were made, also stated that Oceanic was pushing this bill and as I stated earlier, they did not come out in favor or against the bill. I had this thought in mind before Oceanic ever came out with this idea. This has been an idea of mine. To move the aquaculture department to the Department of Agriculture, in my mind, it just makes sense.

"As I continue, Mr. President, I'd like to address some of the points made by the previous speakers. As far as the amount of speakers against the bill, if we are going to go strictly by that rule then the gun control bill should not have passed. I believe the testimony was overwhelmingly against the bill. So as far as the administration being against the bill, Mr. President, we do have three branches of government -- the legislative, the executive and the judiciary -- operating independently of each other. I think that's one of the reasons why, in previous years, we passed the legislative analysts bill, because we recognized that we depend on the executive department a lot for expertise. By creating the legislative analysts we would have an independent frame of view and a different point of view.

"Many years ago, Mr. President, a lot of us talked about the '54 revolution in which there were a lot of dreamers in that '54 revolution and they thought of things that were never thought of before. Now we are recognizing a lot of the fruits of their labor. These people were allowed to dream in '54, and now in 1994, I'm asking my colleagues to allow me to dream.

"This is the third of three bills that hopefully will pass; the other two have passed. One is the agribusiness development corporation, the other is the change of GACC, and this is the third bill. All three of these bills taken together will make the Department of Agriculture a more pro-active department. One of the problems that was cited earlier is that the Department of Agriculture historically has been a regulatory department. These bills will make it a more pro-active department. It will give them the tools necessary to help out the agriculture industry, and hopefully the aquaculture industry also.

"The previous speaker from Hilo talked about aquaculture and if I remember correctly, in the 1980s when we broke in together in the House, he was chairman of the Ocean and Marine Committee at that time. And at that time he talked about playing a part in the 'green revolution,' and now it was time for the 'blue revolution.' Many years have passed since the 1980s and I would like to be a part of that 'blue revolution' that has not occurred yet. I think that this is one of the tools that will make that 'blue revolution' a reality.

"There's a comment, sad as it is, that if it is not broken, why fix it? I believe that's the same type of comment that was made by the United States auto industry in the 1970s and what it does is it really preserves the status quo. They said the cars that we have in the '70s is what the public wants. Gas is cheap and the public likes big cars. Here we see in the 1990s that the auto industry is in big trouble. Much of the trade deficit that we talk about is because of the trade deficit due to automobiles, and at that time in the '70s the auto industry was not willing to adapt to the situation. I think now we have the possibility of adapting to the situation and putting aquaculture in the forefront by moving it to the Agriculture Department.

"As mentioned, aquaculture in many of the states is in the agriculture department. Eighty percent of the states have it in agriculture. Four out of the top five aquaculture states have their aquaculture in the agriculture department. As mentioned, Hawaii is a leader in aquaculture development. We are not in the top five aquaculture states in the United States.

"Anuenue fisheries was mentioned and Anuenue fisheries will continue; their importance is recognized. It is also important in the fishery components and we're taking out the aquaculture portion. A memorandum of understanding or whatever form it will be taking to be necessary, would continue to have Anuenue resources available through this aquaculture sector. Some of the misinformation that was going around was that the staff will not be hired. We have taken care of that in the bill. We said that existing staff will also move over to the Department of Agriculture to continue the flow that has already started.

"Mr. President, with these items that I just mentioned, I'm hoping that my colleagues will support the bill. Thank you."

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill with reservations.

"Very briefly. My concern with the bill is that purchasers of motor vehicles are not used to having to pay a tax as is, and they certainly won't be used to the idea of paying the tax when they get to the motor vehicle bureau to re-register their car after their transaction has been completed and the seller is gone. It's going to come as quite a shock and I'm hoping that although the bill is fair and creates a level playing field that we come up with some other mechanism for having the tax paid, perhaps by the seller who has the cash at the time that the seller's name is taken off the car and is eliminated from having liability. But I leave it to the chair to hopefully work out a better system so that we will not have a lot of unhappy buyers of used cars. Thank you."

Senator Reed, speaking against the measure, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to this bill.

"Mr. President, I realize that decisions are never made behind closed doors in the caucus. I know that my colleagues don't come out here for public debate with their minds already made up. I know that no Senator would vote for a bill that he or she opposes just to go along with the committee chairman or as a favor to a colleague. I know that floor speeches are vital to this process and I know that my colleagues rely upon floor speeches for their decision-making basis. I also know that we can never predict votes. I know, for instance, Mr. President, that we couldn't say that the vote on this particular bill will end up being 13 to 12.

"I'd like to suggest, however, that we consider the numerous calls and faxes we've been receiving suggesting that this bill would put many religious institutions, such as Brigham Young University, out of business, and weigh that in casting our vote on this particular bill.

"Because I know how important floor speeches are, Mr. President, I have thought long and hard about what could possibly be the most persuasive argument I could make to my colleagues who are dependant upon this kind of input, and trying to think of what I could possibly say to urge you to vote against this bill. I have decided that probably the most persuasive argument that I could come up with to urge you to vote against this bill can be summed up in four words -- Rick Reed introduced it.

"In closing, Mr. President, I'd like to also call for a roll call vote. Thank you."

Senator Tungpalan then added:

"Mr. President, I was going to vote against this bill, but now that I heard that it's Rick's bill, I'm going to vote for it."

Senator Holt rose to speak in favor of the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, speaking in support of the measure, I believe that the members have expressed a lot of concerns because of some provisions in the bill. They've received a lot of phone calls. The chair has received those concerns and in speaking in support of this bill has made a commitment to the members that we will address those concerns adequately and that we would like to keep this vehicle alive. The religious concerns by those religious institutions that were not addressed in this draft, will be addressed if the bill comes back from the House. Thank you."

Senator Chang then said:

"Mr. President, I'm in possession of two letters from colleges."

The Chair interjected:

"Senator Chang, are you speaking for or against the measure?"

Senator Chang responded:

"I will be voting in favor of the measure. However, I do have letters of concern from two major universities in our state and I find their concerns persuasive. I am pledged, and I think the committee chairman and the supporters of the bill are pledged, to working vigorously with all affected institutions to insure that all legitimate concerns and operations of our institutions of higher learning are incorporated into the final product. This preliminary proposal should be viewed as one that raises certain issues for discussion and does not cement the Senate into any position until these issues are appropriately and conclusively resolved. With that pledge, I will be voting for the bill."

Senator Baker also rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak with reservations on this measure.

"I'd like to associate myself with the remarks of the previous speaker, our majority floor leader, because I think he ably expressed some of the concerns that a number of us have on this measure. But, Mr. President, I also know that we're upon a deadline and there is no other vehicle that can be used to address these very important and serious matters. Therefore, I will be voting in favor of this bill.

"It's a measure that is not perfect, but how many of us can say that any bill we've drafted or sat and worked on in committee is ever a hundred percent perfect. There can always be improvements in any complicated measure that we draft. We've been assured that our concerns will be addressed and because I know that the chair of the committee and one of the chief sponsors of this particular measure, a colleague with impeccable integrity, will keep these commitments, I feel reassured in voting for this measure at this time. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried and, Roll Call vote having been requested, S.B. No. 3249, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF DEGREE GRANTING EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 13. Noes, 12 (Aki, George, Iwase, Kanno, Kobayashi, A., Kobayashi, B., Koki, Matsunaga, Matsuura, McCartney, Nakasato, Reed).

At 1:57 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The President re-referred the following Senate concurrent resolution that was offered:

Senate
Concurrent
Resolution                      Referred to:

No. 89                      Jointly to the Committee on Human Services and the Committee on Judiciary

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, if you haven't or if you have noticed ... on Friday, March 11th, there was an article about 'Tourism industry efforts seem to be paying off,' and this appeared in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. At the end of the article it says that 'However, Hawaii can't rely solely on the cold weather, the yen-dollar exchange rate and advertising to keep the tourists coming. Maintaining the islands as a beautiful, clean and safe place to vacation is essential. The campaigns to rid Kalakaua Avenue of T-shirt stands and prostitutes are crucial to the efforts to keep Hawaii attractive to visitors.'

"As you know, Mr. President, your Committee on Tourism recently completed hearings on the issue of the obstruction of the public use of the sidewalks in Waikiki by persons soliciting charitable donations. The committee was astounded to hear from attorneys for the city that they were prepared to accept the status quo for the next four or five years it will take to complete the appeals process concerning a new ordinance that they deem necessary in order to clear the sidewalks.

"We asked them specifically why a new ordinance was necessary and why they did not proceed under existing law, specifically Section 711-1101, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which makes it a crime to impede or obstruct any person on the sidewalk in order to solicit charitable donations and also Section 29-6.3, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu, which makes it a crime for any person to engage in any deceptive, fraudulent or misleading representation while promoting products upon any sidewalk. They had no satisfactory answer.

"We also had testimony from merchants who made it clear that they will not be in business four or five years from now if the sidewalk vendors are not removed from their privileged positions.

"We are requesting the attorney general and the city prosecutor to enforce the laws against obstructing the sidewalks. Also we have talked with the attorney general relative to his office and the Office of the Consumer Protector taking actions under Section 480, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to determine whether these vendors are actually engaged in commerce and whether they are violating that section of the law in competing with others selling similar merchandise.

"In other words, Mr. President, we already have laws in the books that are effective. We also could get the attorney general, as well as our consumer affairs to look into it to see if there is any way of doing the investigation so that we can help the city in solving this issue much sooner.

"Thank you very much."

Senator B. Kobayashi also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"With regard to the comments of the prior speaker in relation to the Waikiki T-shirt vendors, I've been over this issue many times with a number of people including some of the lawyers involved. Part of the reason for the caution on the part of the city is ambiguity in constitutional law. The particular points in question may, indeed, give rise to a very long appeals process. The length of the appeals process is, itself, part of the caution because it could, indeed, stretch four or five years and it could indeed cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. A figure has been mentioned of one million dollars that might be required for an appeals process. That might be high, but there is no doubt that there would be a great deal of time and money spent on an appeals process.

"The second point, however, is the fact that the constitutional law, in this case, is not 100 percent clear. There are a few cases that will allow the city to proceed with their current legal logic. However, that legal logic has not been tested in all aspects and that's part of their hesitation.

"Nonetheless, I think the prior speaker is correct in saying that there is a great deal of frustration by the slowness of the process, a great deal of financial loss on the part of merchants who are trying to do their level best to run a good business down in Waikiki, and a great deal of frustration amongst the citizenry, including the Waikiki citizenry about the T-shirt vendors.

"Annually, I do a survey of my district asking them about a number of questions affecting the district. This year I asked them how much they would be willing to see the city and county spend on a legal court battle affecting the Waikiki T-shirt vendors. The choices were as follows: zero dollars; less than $100,000; $200,000; $400,000; or as much as needed. Fifty-two percent of my respondents said 'as much as needed.' I was astounded by the fact that 52 percent of the respondents would be willing to go out on a limb and see the city spend hundreds of thousands of dollars and many years in court litigation. That's how serious some of the residents think this problem is. Thank you."

ORDER OF THE DAY

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The President re-referred the following Senate concurrent resolution that was offered:

Senate
Concurrent
Resolution                      Referred to:

No. 82                      Committee                      on                      Government
Operations,                      Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE RESOLUTION

The President re-referred the following Senate resolution that was offered:

Senate
Resolution                      Referred to:

No. 61                      Committee                      on                      Government
Operations,                      Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs

Senator Tungpala rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Early this morning I received two phone calls from the Big Island asking of my help to establish a Ho'oponopono process so that our ka'ais can return to their proper place. I would like to read a letter that was sent to me by one of these individuals.

'Certain events that have occurred in this investigation of the missing na ka'ais have caused me to speak out about the treatment of our Hawaiian kupuna. First of all, it appears that the investigation is focussing on the descendants of the Liloa and Lono'ikamakahiki. This is ironic because descendants are supposed to be involved in the repatriation efforts of their kupuna.

'Yesterday I spoke with a very well known kupuna who told me that his telephone was being wiretapped and that he was under FBI investigation. He is about 80 years old and has health problems. He has helped many people through his Hawaiian healing method, so it bothers me to see such innocent Hawaiian people being tormented to the point that it is making them very ill. This is no laughing matter. I do not believe our kupuna deserve this kind of treatment. Therefore, I offer these suggestions to aid in the investigation of this very sensitive matter:

'That a Ho'oponopono team be created composed of Hawaiians who can establish trust amongst our people. These individuals have the capacity to understand and work with the problem collectively, with respect and kindness, to gather the information by confidential means. Only through Ho'oponopono will we resolve this Hawaiian issue;

'That people immediately contact this team, people who have knowledge of the taking of the ka'ais; and

'That Governor John Waihee and Princess Kekaulike Kawananakoa use their influence to support the process of Ho'oponopono.

'We all need to heal, and possibly through this means, the Hawaiian people would be able to settle this matter once and for all. It is hoped that our people will hear of this letter. Let us not take each other down, but work together by implementing our traditional Hawaiian process of resolving this Hawaiian problem through Ho'oponopono.'

"Another of the callers made this statement and he will be faxing a letter to me later. He started by saying: 'The Bishop Museum is missing the ka'ais, but the ka'ais are not missing the Bishop Museum.'

"I would like to ask the President to allow this chair of Higher Education, Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation to be able to meet with individuals on the Big Island this weekend to ask for their support in establishing the Ho'oponopono process. Whoever, in this body, would like to join me, I ask for their support. Aloha."

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2533 (Gov. Msg. No. 154):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2533 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of EUGENE S. IMAI for Director of Finance, term to expire December 5, 1994, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, during these tough economic times, I don't know whether we're doing Eugene Imai a favor by confirming him as budget director of the State of Hawaii -- he has such a huge task to do. He has to handle the restrictions that may come, but I have complete faith in him. I know we all do, and we trust that he will do a fine job because he has done so in the past.

"From the huge amount of positive testimony, I'd like to quote from one of them. This person says:

'In addition to being bright, articulate, hard-working and extremely knowledgeable, his professional integrity is above reproach. Eugene Imai is also a seasoned professional who works well with others. He's one of those rare individuals who not only does everything well, but can and does inspire others to do likewise.'

"And so, Mr. President, I urge confirmation of Eugene Imai as budget director of the State of Hawaii. Thank you."

Senator McCartney also rose in favor of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the nomination.

"I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Imai when I was working in the Senate back in 1983 and '84 when he was the administrative assistant for Jack Suwa at the Department of Agriculture. Since then, and all the way through working with him at the Department of Education and now at Budget and Finance, he has always been, in my mind, what truly exemplifies what public service is all about. He is dedicated, compassionate, fair and he has a high sense of integrity. I know he is going to do an excellent job in his new position as director of Budget and Finance.

"I urge all the members to support his confirmation. Thank you."

Senator Ikeda, rising in support of the nominee, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this nomination.

"I've had the pleasure of working with Mr. Imai, not just as the current director of Budget and Finance but also when he was with the Department of Education, and I must say that I appreciate his straight forwardness and his honesty. I think that he is an excellent nominee and I want to offer my congratulations to him for being the new director of Budget and Finance.

"I look forward to a continued working relationship with him. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura also rising in support of the nominee, then stated:

"Mr. President, I also rise to speak in favor of the nominee.

"A lot of people don't know that Eugene Imai is a general. I didn't know that until he came in with a star. He's not only a good administrator as a finance person, but he is a good general. There are very few persons who make it to a star. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Chang, Nakasato).

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi introduced and congratulated Mr. Imai, seated in the gallery, together with his wife and members of his staff. (Mr. and Mrs. Imai and his staff all rose to be recognized.)

At 11:44 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Gov. Msg. No. 252, letter dated March 17, 1994, as provided in Section 9, Article VII, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, requesting immediate passage of H.B. 3322, which makes supplementary appropriations and authorization for the expenditure of additional funds in fiscal year 1994 for the payment programs, was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 3322, H.D. 2:

Senator Levin moved that H.B. No. 3322, H.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Ikeda.

Senator Ikeda rose in favor of the measure, as follow:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill, but with some serious reservations.

"Because of the need and the fact that if we don't pass this bill, recipients won't get their payments, we really have no choice in this matter. We need to pass this measure.

"However, Mr. President, as you are aware, an audit done by our legislative auditor is extremely critical of the way the department has handled these payments. There is also a question of whether or not mismanagement has occurred, and whether or not 20 to 30 million dollars have actually been misspent or whether the monies are still in the department's various accounts, as the department claims. There is a real need to clear up all of these questions raised by the auditor in order to ensure that these kinds of discrepancies and errors do not occur in the future. There is also a need for the department to focus on ways to cut down on over-payments, since we generally are not able to recoup over-payments.

"Despite the fact that we have all of these problems that need to be looked at and resolved, we have no choice, as I said earlier, but to approve this $10 million appropriation so that the recipients of these welfare payments can continue to subsist.

"I would like to say, however, Mr. President, that unless measures are taken to resolve some of these outstanding problems which have been brought to our attention, I will be very reluctant to vote in favor of additional emergency appropriations in the future.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon then rose in favor of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, speaking in support of this bill, I would like to support the previous speaker.

"I think that her remarks are well taken. This is a crisis situation and this is a situation that cannot be taken lightly. There's been too many times in the past where the executive has used emergency appropriations as a way of getting the dollars to those that need the dollars, however, we have a fiduciary duty, here in the Legislature, to be sure that these monies are accounted for. Unfortunately, we have this situation that exists in the Departments of Health and Human Services where we sometimes can't make heads or tails as to their budget situation.

"So again, Mr. President, I'd like to urge all of my colleagues that it's time we heed the cautious words of the chairwoman of the Ways and Means Committee in urging our Senate committees to continue to work conscientiously with the respective departments to get the answers that we deserve. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried and H.B. No. 3322, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING EMERGENCY APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE PAYMENT PROGRAMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Chang, Nakasato).

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

The President re-referred the following House bills that were received:

House Bill Referred to:

No. 2553, H.D. 2 Committee on Judiciary, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2537 (Gov. Msg. No. 155):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2537 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of PATRICK J. BOLAND for State Administrator of the State Health Planning and Development Agency, term to expire June 30, 1995, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I'd like to first of all thank Patrick Boland for agreeing to become the State Administrator for the State Health Planning and Development Agency (SHPDA). I know in his leadership SHPDA will not only regulate our health care costs, but also help in the planning and development of our health care system. I urge confirmation of Patrick Boland. Thank you."

Senator Grauly also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to speak in support of the nomination of Patrick Boland as head of SHPDA.

"I have known Mr. Boland for almost 20 years, his wife and family also. I'm so glad to see him ascend to the top position in that agency in which he has served for so many years with such dedication. I wholeheartedly support his nomination and I know that he will do an excellent job as head of SHPDA, a very important part of our state government. I congratulate him and his family on his appointment. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (Chang, Hagino, Ikeda).

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi introduced Mr. Boland, who was seated in the gallery. (Mr. Boland stood to be recognized.)

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2538 (Gov. Msg. No. 171):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2538 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SIMEON R. ACOBA, JR., for Associate Judge of the Intermediate Appellate Court, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in favor of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, in speaking in favor of the nomination, Judge Simeon Acoba has not only been an excellent judge, he has also been a key participant in revising court rules to enhance the efficiency of the judicial process.

"Testimony in support of his confirmation was overwhelming. We heard from attorneys who appeared before him who had won cases and those who had lost, in both the civil and criminal courts. All were impressed with his knowledge of the law and the fair treatment they received. His hearing went on for more than an hour because of the volume of testimony presented by attorneys, friends, neighbors, church members and staff members. It was truly overwhelming and reflective of their admiration and respect that continues to grow for this wonderful man.

"I urge confirmation of Judge Simeon Acoba. Thank you."

Senator Reed also rose in favor of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I likewise rise to speak in support of the nomination.

"I was a member of the Honolulu Prosecutor's Office in the '80s when there was a great deal of attention focussed on the circuit court and Judge Acoba was often a target of a lot of the criticism. During the course of what had to have been some very tough times for him and I suspect some times that hurt him personally, he showed himself to be a person of courage and character. I'm pleased to be a member of this body voting in support of his nomination to the appellate court. Thank you."

Senator Solomon added her support of the nomination and said:

"Mr. President, I too rise in support of this appointment.

"I just want to mention something I thought was quite humorous. When Judge Acoba came to see me, he told me, 'Madam Majority Leader, how many testifiers do you think I need?' I said to him, 'Well, about five good testimonies.' He said, 'Oh, okay, I'm sure I can arrange for that.' I said, 'That's wonderful.' But needless to say, Mr. President, when I attended the hearing, Judge Acoba I think had close to maybe a hundred, all in support.

"It gives me great pleasure to support his appointment. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura, in support of the nominee, then stated:

"Mr. President, I also speak in support of the nomination.

"Somebody described Judge Acoba as follows: 'He is the best Filipino samurai you are going to get.' So he must be pretty tough in the courtroom.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (Chang, Hagino, Ikeda).

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi introduced Judge Simeon Acoba, who was sitting in the gallery with his wife. (Judge Acoba and Mrs. Acoba rose to be recognized.)

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2539 (Gov. Msg. No. 172):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2539 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RICHARD K. PERKINS for 8th Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nomination, as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak in support of Richard Perkins.

"There was an extremely long list of attorneys who sent in testimony in support of Rick Perkins. We heard from his many friends here in the Capitol and his many friends outside of the Capitol, but the most impressive testimony was presented by Darcia Forester, a law student who has worked for Rick and his partner for three and a half years. I'd like to read from her testimony, and I quote:

'I would like to tell you about Mr. Perkins in the context that I've known him. He has been my boss, my advisor, my mentor and my friend. There are simply no words adequate enough to express my deep respect for Mr. Perkins. He is intelligent, competent, thoughtful, dedicated, fair-minded, and he knows and respects the law.

'I've had the opportunity to work closely with him and to see what an outstanding attorney and individual he is. I've watched him prepare legal memoranda for the motions he files in court. I've watched him spend countless hours researching and preparing cases for trial. And I've watched him write numerous appellate briefs.

'Mr. Perkins works hard. I know of no other person who works harder than he does. I've seen him talk to his clients and opposing counsel, usually a deputy prosecuting attorney, and he treats everyone with respect and dignity and is never condescending. I've seen him reduce his attorney's fees for poor clients and I can assure you that he has helped countless people, without asking for or receiving any form of compensation for his time and effort.'

"I know we all know of these attributes of Mr. Perkins and I urge his confirmation. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Solomon also rose in support of the appointment and stated:

"Mr. President, speaking in support of this nominee, I urge all my colleagues to vote 'yes.'

"Mr. President, it's going to be the court's gain and the Legislature's loss with regard to Richard Perkins. He has been a tremendous resource force here, in all my years of service. I've always felt that with Perkins, you could get a real fair assessment of the situation. One thing with him is that he never really tells you what to do, he just gives you the pros and cons and you make up your own mind. I think that this is a tremendous quality for a judge. And because of this, I am confident that he will serve Hawaii well. He's truly a 'keiki o ka aina.'

"And with this, Mr. President, I urge all my colleagues to vote in support."

Senator Tungpalan, rising in support of the nominee, then said:

"Mr. President, I also rise in support of Mr. Perkins.

"I surely will miss this individual. There were some very dark times when it appeared that no light could be passed that would be able to deliver us in a manner in which we could serve with integrity, yet he was there to provide the counsel and to give us the balance that really was needed in times, as I said, were very dark for the Senate. To have seen him serve, especially when we were, at times, rudderless, and do so with equanimity and with equality and fairness to all, is something that speaks well of this individual.

"I especially want to thank him because it was he that I turned to when I had been asked to vote a certain way with special consideration of a check. And it was he that helped me to do the right thing and I shall always remember this individual for that reason. I will be voting with a great deal of pride because he is indeed, not only an able counsel, but a dear friend."

Senator Reed added his support of the nomination and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise also in support.

"You can tell a great deal about a person by how that person relates to members of a minority. Richard Perkins has consistently related to minority members of this body with the same respect that he has with members of the majority. I wholeheartedly support his nomination. Thank you."

Senator Holt also supported the appointment of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I'm speaking in support of the nomination.

"Most of you know that he is a Kamehameha alumnus and on that basis alone the vote should be unanimous. Everyone here knows about his professional abilities, but I'd like to take a few minutes to share something I know of him that most of you don't know.

"Going way back to my high school days, I was surrounded by Perkins when I was at Kamehameha -- and that's an understatement! Rick was a senior when I was a sophomore on the baseball team. He was a slick fielding first-baseman and one of the best power-hitting left-handed hitters to come out of the ILH. When he graduated, I thought I'd seen the last of the Perkins, but I inherited two more Perkins -- David, the next in line, who was an outstanding second-baseman, and Mike, who was a sophomore when I was a senior. Both continued in the same ability, same expertise, same outstanding sportsmanship that Rick led. I believe he was the oldest of the brothers that played at Kamehameha. They were all all-stars and all-staters. Additionally, I had Rick's sister, Kathy, as my classmate at Kamehameha. I think she's out there in the audience as well. I haven't seen her in years. Kimo, who I've never had the opportunity to play with, was a little baby when I used to go to Aiea and visit the Perkins family.

"I'd just like to say, based on what I know of the family and their relationship to the community alone, again I state that it's a long tradition of commitment to these islands which Rick will carry on as he sits as a judge at the circuit court level. I wholeheartedly support his nomination and urge all of my colleagues to do so. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Chang, Hagino).

Senator A. Kobayashi then introduced Judge Richard Perkins, seated in the gallery, accompanied by his mother Mildred and other family members. (Judge Perkins and his family rose to be recognized.)

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2540 (Gov. Msg. No. 176):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2540 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DEXTER DEAN DEL ROSARIO for 13th Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak in support of the nomination of Judge Dexter Dean Del Rosario, who drives a nice yellow Volkswagon bug. Judge Del Rosario is such a good, decent person. All of the testimony recited the same fine qualities and in her testimony, Susan Arnett states and I quote:

'As a Lana'i native, Judge Dean Del Rosario brings with him to the bench the experience of growing up in Hawaii and achieving success through diligence and hard work. The respect he has for his own parents' hard work and those of the generations that have come before us is an intangible but very important factor in what makes him such an excellent choice to serve in a difficult, demanding role of judging other persons who come before him.'

"This is Judge Del Rosario, a really fine person, and I urge confirmation. Thank you."

Senator Baker also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the nomination of Dexter Dean Del Rosario to the Circuit Court of the First Circuit.

"I speak, especially, on behalf of my Lana'i constituents who grew up with Judge Del Rosario and know him to be a man of conviction, integrity and compassion, a child of the plantation community of Lana'i who hasn't forgotten his roots or the values that he learned there. Even though he moved to Maui, then on to Oahu in pursuit of his legal career, Lana'ians felt comfortable calling on him for advice and assistance, and he willingly would fly over to Lana'i to help out.

"Mr. President, the State of Hawaii is fortunate to have talented and able persons such as Dean Del Rosario to offer themselves for public service. I am pleased to share with you the pride that Lana'i has in the ability and accomplishment of one of her native sons.

"I urge all of my colleagues to join me in supporting Mr. Del Rosario's confirmation to the circuit court bench. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura added his support for the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, I also speak in support of the nomination.

"Not too many people come out of Lana'i High School to become a judge. As you know, Mr. President, I've been trying for 14 years to write the common sense law for Hawaii and I have failed. In Judge Dexter, I think that we are putting on the bench, somebody that has the local common sense. I've interviewed a lot of judges, but you talk about a local person, that's Dexter. If I'm ever going to face the court, I want Dexter to be the judge. I know that I'll get a fair trial."

Senator Solomon, also rising in support of the appointment, then said:

"Mr. President, I also speak in support of this nominee.

"I'd like to speak in support of the previous speakers' remarks, especially those of our Senator from Maui and Lana'i because I was also very much impressed when the judge came to talk to me. He said, 'You know, Senator, I'm from Lana'i.' And I said, 'Oh, you are? You know the Kapuikis?' He said, 'Oh yeah, I know them.' So right then and there we had a lot of things in common and the thing that impressed me the most is that he really wanted to be a horse trainer before he had aspired to a legal career. We had a long discussion, Mr. President, because dealing with horses and cattle is close to my heart. I was impressed and I said, 'Well, any man that can handle a horse, can handle human beings easily.' So I said, 'In that case, judge, you have my wholehearted support."

"And with that in mind, Mr. President, I'm urging all my colleagues to vote 'yes' for Judge Del Rosario. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Chang, Hagino).

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi introduced Judge Dexter Dean Del Rosario, seated in the gallery, together with his wife and children. (Judge Del Rosario and his family rose to be recognized.)

At 11:57 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:01 o'clock p.m.

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

The President re-referred the following House bills that were received:

House Bill	Referred to:
No. 1366	Committee on Ways and Means
No. 2780, H.D. 2	Committee on Ways and Means
No. 2990, H.D. 2	Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I rise on a point of personal privilege concerning the recent reckless and irresponsible charges levied against the Hawaiian people regarding the disappearance of the ka'ais. Because, make no mistake, when stated publicly with no proof or evidence that a crime has been committed by 'Hawaiians' we're talking -- 'reckless and irresponsible.'

"We're also talking guilt by association and racial stereotyping. In fact, this is the worse kind of racism -- to indict a race as somehow inherently composed of thieves. The Bishop Museum should be condemned in the most clear fashion for alleging the commission of a crime -- the theft of the ka'ais -- to a particular race. As you know, Mr. President, there was an article that recently appeared in the paper and now we have Hawaiians assembling in Ho'oponopono for racial 'cleansing' and 'forgiveness.' Why? Because we Hawaiians are all too quick to accept this racial classification. We Hawaiians do not need racial cleansing. What we need is the courage to set people straight when they engage in blatant racism directed toward us."

"Mr. President, if anybody needs a Ho'oponopono session, it should be the Bishop Museum.

"Thank you very much."

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

MATTER DEFERRED FROM THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1994

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2534 (Gov. Msg. No. 164):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2534 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Board of Directors of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund of the following:

HARRIET AOKI and JAMES STONE, terms to expire June 30, 1995; and seconded by Senator McCartney.

JANIS C. AKUNA, JOSEPH KEIFER and WAYNE J. YAMASAKI, terms to expire June 30, 1997.

Senator A. Kobayashi then rose to speak in support of the nominees, as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to thank the members of this commission for agreeing to serve. They have a tough job ahead of them and I know the public will be watching and hoping that there will be a prompt and inexpensive solution to our problem. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Holt, Nakasato).

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2541 (Gov. Msg. No. 173):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2541 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of COLLEEN K. HIRAI for 20th Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nomination and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the nomination of Colleen Hirai.

"The hearing for Colleen Hirai was a rather emotional one. Those who remember 'Shadow' Hirai could feel his presence in the room. It was apparent from the quantity of testimony we received from the legal community that Ms. Hirai is well-liked and respected by all of her peers, even those who have worked in an adversarial position to her.

"One of Colleen's friends of many years sent testimony that I'd like to share with you. This person says: 'Colleen is a warm, thoughtful and generous person. She's a good listener and loyal confidant. She always makes an effort to get together even during her most hectic schedules. She's very focused and devotes her entire energy to fulfill her goal. She is meticulous and rarely overlooks any detail. Her integrity is beyond question. In addition, Colleen treats people decently and, of course, everyone with respect. She also cares about the development of and improvement of the Hawaii Bar and generously devotes what little free time she has to participate in continuing legal education workshops and serving on the Supreme Court Committee of Bar Examiners and its subcommittee. With regard to family life, Colleen is what I call a "prize child" and, likewise, her family, her husband, mother, grandmother, cousins and extended family are very important to her.'

"Because of these many attributes, I urge confirmation. I would like to add that I know 'Shadow' is up there watching today. He was always proud of his only child and we're also very proud of her.

"Thank you."

Senator Reed, rising in support of the nominee, then added:

"Mr. President, Colleen Hirai is a former deputy prosecutor and is a woman. I urge your support."

Senator Matsuura also rose in support and stated:

"Mr. President, I knew 'Shadow' Hirai very well. If what people tell me is true, a person's character and what he or she becomes is molded from birth to about 5 years of age, then I know that 'Shadow' has done a fabulous job in raising a child who now stands before us to be confirmed as a circuit judge. I want to congratulate 'Shadow' for doing such a wonderful job.

"Thank you."

Senator Holt, rising in support of the nominee, also added:

"Mr. President, even though I'm quite a few years younger than you, I had the distinct pleasure of serving with you and Senator Ann Kobayashi, I believe, when 'Shadow' Hirai, Colleen's father, was Clerk of the Senate.

"Speaking in support of the nomination of Colleen, I have known her for a number of years, not quite as well as I knew her dad because her dad was a very, very strong Asahi baseball supporter. I was one of the few non-Japanese, I believe, to play and I was quite fortunate to be on their baseball team. 'Shadow' Hirai was its biggest sponsor, with Angel Maehara, Eddie Hayashi and the group, and we used to go to Japan all the time on an exchange program with the Japanese baseball teams.

"The Asahi legacy carries on with Colleen Hirai, and I believe she will be an excellent nominee and an excellent person for us to confirm and will serve the community well. I urge all my colleagues to vote in support. Thank you."

Senator Fukunaga also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to add my comments in support of this nominee.

"I think it's kind of fitting that the Senate computer system has been named 'SHADOW' in recognition of the former Senate Clerk's most notable talents -- he 'saw all' and he 'knew all.' I'm sure that Colleen will bring many years of distinction to his notable legacy.

"Thank you."

Senator Chang, also rising in support of the nominee, then added:

"Mr. President, I, like Senator Norman Mizuguchi, Senator Ann Kobayashi, Senator Holt and Senator Fukunaga, once served in the Legislature as a staff member. We knew 'Shadow' and recognized him as a devoted public servant. We are now public servants and realize that the commitment and service that we pour into our public lives and duties require the support and the guidance of a spouse. With all due respect to the accolades that have been paid to our dear friend Seichi today, we should acknowledge that the judge who stands before us is the product of a mama as well and, to Mrs. Hirai, I think we all owe a debt of gratitude and recognition. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Nakasato).

Senator A. Kobayashi then presented Ms. Colleen Hirai as follows:

"At this time, Mr. President, I introduce to you and members of the Senate Colleen Hirai, our new circuit court judge, her husband, her mother and other family members who are seated in the gallery." (Ms. Hirai and her family rose to be recognized.)

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2542 (Gov. Msg. No. 174):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2542 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DAN T. KOCHI for 21st Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the nominee.

"One of the positive aspects of the Senate's confirmation of judges is the public hearing process at which time the public can testify either for or against the nominee. I feel it is the duty of the committee to treat all testimony equally and with serious consideration.

"Although nearly all the testimony was in support of Dan Kochi, there was a group of attorneys who did raise some concerns, so it was appropriate to defer decision-making until those concerns were addressed. After speaking with the president of that group, the committee found that there was nothing specific and no documentation to deny confirmation.

"The committee unanimously supports confirmation because Dan Kochi has served the people of Hawaii well as a deputy attorney general, deputy director of the Departments of Transportation and Land and Natural Resources, the Office of State Planning and also as a commissioner of the Public Utilities Commission.

"Mr. Kochi has degrees in both engineering and the law. He is a man of principle, integrity and fairness and, with his private practice experience and government experience, he is an excellent choice for the circuit court and I urge confirmation. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise to speak in support of the nomination.

"You're not going to find too many people coming up for judgeship that have an engineering degree besides a law degree. Dan has served in so many capacities that his knowledge would be very broad. One of the things that I expect of him is honesty and using good common sense. I am sure that he qualifies in both aspects. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Nakasato).

Senator A. Kobayashi rose to remark:

"Mr. President, unfortunately, Dan Kochi is not present in the gallery. To show his dedication, also, and we know this man is very hardworking, Dan Kochi is delayed in a Public Utilities Commission hearing and is not able to be here today. We offered to defer his confirmation but he said to carry on and that he appreciates the support. Thank you."

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2543 (Gov. Msg. No. 175):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2543 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of GREG K. NAKAMURA for 1st Judge of the Circuit Court of the Third Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nomination, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the nominee.

"Retired Judge Shunichi Kimura arrived very early for Judge Nakamura's hearing because he did not want to miss testifying in support of Judge Nakamura. I'd like to read from his testimony.

"Judge Shunichi Kimura says: 'Judge Nakamura's legal work has earned him the deserved reputation of being: (1) A careful and competent legal researcher and writer; (2) A judge with substantial private practice experience and general legal practice; (3) A patient and fair judge with appropriate judicial temperament; and (4) A diligent judge who willingly works long hours. Judge Nakamura is also known for his community contributions. He continues to serve as a mock trial judge, volunteered on Kauai after Hurricane Iniki and continues to serve as a court annexed arbitrator even after appointment to the bench. He is a former JC and accommodates requests for presentations about the law and court.'

"We received similar testimony from numerous attorneys and from many residents of the Big Island where Judge Nakamura is truly well-loved and respected. I urge confirmation. Thank you."

Senator Solomon also rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, supporting the previous speaker's remarks and in support of the nominee, I would like to have Judge Kimura's remarks incorporated as though they were my own. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose in support of the nominee and added:

"Mr. President, Judge Nakamura is one person that has such a great reputation in Hilo. People who grew up with him all swear that this individual has the highest level of integrity and honesty and, talking to him, I know he has great common sense. We are very fortunate in Hilo to have Judge Nakamura as our circuit judge. Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Nakasato).

Senator A. Kobayashi then introduced Judge Greg Nakamura, seated in the gallery, together with Mrs. Nakamura and members of his family. (Judge Nakamura and his family rose to be recognized.)

At 11:52 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:58 o'clock a.m.

Senate Concurrent Resolution Referred to:

No. 27 Committee on Transportation

Senator Tungpalan then rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to report to you about our proceedings at the Honoka'a Ho'oponopono session.

"On Saturday, March 19, 1994, approximately 50 individuals gathered for a Ho'oponopono session at Kalemela Church in Honoka'a. The session was called to resolve concerns which had mounted since the ka'ais were found missing from the Bishop Museum last month. The traditional nako warriors stood guard while Kekuhi Kanakaole Kanahale sang a welcoming chant honoring the Liloa. The Ho'oponopono session followed a pikai cleansing ceremony. Ho'oponopono practitioners Abbie Napiahi, Maile Akimsu, Sonny Kinney, Arthur Holt, assisted by Kahuna Lapa'ao, Butch Richards, conducted the session.

"Everyone shared their heartfelt testimony. The meeting focused on the whereabouts of the ka'ais, and all present felt relieved when it was reported that the ka'ais were safe in Waipio Valley and being cared for by a kahu. A deep spiritual bonding united the gathering and resolved the concerns of all present. It was determined that an effort be made to carry the feelings of the ohana to the descendants of Liloa who could not be present at this particular session. A meeting for this purpose will be scheduled on Prince Kuhio Day at 12:00 o'clock this Friday at the Aiea Heiau.

"Thank you, Mr. President, for giving me the opportunity to work with the concerned citizens on this matter."

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2545 (Gov. Msg. No. 162):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2545 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of CLAUDIO R. SUYAT for Chairperson of the Hawaii Paroling Authority, term to expire June 30, 1997, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the nominee.

"Mr. Claudio Suyat has served as a member of the Paroling Authority since 1991. This is not an easy task. Being on the Paroling Authority is a very difficult task and they are making decisions that affect many people's lives. He has performed so well that the Governor has appointed him to serve as chair of the authority. Mr. Suyat has served the people of the State of Hawaii well. He always amazes me with his performance and his dedication and I urge support of his confirmation. Thank you."

Senator McCartney also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise to support the nomination.

"I knew Mr. Suyat many years ago and he paroled me out of Castle High School when he was the principal there. I want to thank him for putting up with me and I apologize for all the problems that I caused back then. I hope I can make it up to him.

"Claudio Suyat is a dedicated public servant and I had the opportunity to work with him when he was in the Department of Education. He really cares about the people of Hawaii and the state government and serving. I know he will do an outstanding job with integrity on the Hawaii Paroling Authority. I'm very proud to support his nomination today.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Nakasato rose in support of the nominee and added:

"Mr. President, it's not very often that I get up to speak for anyone, but Mr. Suyat is a very special person. In fact, I first met Mr. Suyat back in 1959, so you know how old he is.

"As a seventh grader at Dole Intermediate School, there were many gangs back then, and Mr. Suyat, along with Mr. Phil Chun of the Kalihi YMCA, started the 'Junior Y' program that was so popular many, many years ago. They used to have the 'Hi-Y' program, but they started the 'Junior Y' program to bring all the youth together to keep them out of trouble. We formed a club and called ourselves 'The Venturers.' That goes way back.

"Mr. Suyat has always been a very dedicated individual and I can say that he has always been very fair and, under pressure, he's very, very cool. In fact, to become the chairman of the Hawaii Paroling Authority, he's taking a cut in his retirement pay, so you know how dedicated he is. I would just like to add that I'm very proud of Mr. Suyat and I hope he will continue his public service for us. I highly recommend his nomination. Thank you."

Senator Chang, rising in support of the nominee, then said:

"Mr. President, I had not yet adopted a position on this proposed appointment, but hearing the testimony of the previous two gentlemen, truly 'the quality of mercy is not strained.' Knowing the background of my colleagues, having been with them for many years, I can now fully support the nominee because of this 'quality.'

"Thank you."

Senator Graulty also rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, as someone who has been trying to get Mr. Suyat not to take a cut in his retirement pay, I would like to speak in favor of his nomination.

"Mr. Suyat is a leader in the Filipino community and a well-respected person who has exemplified, I think, the best in public service that the state has to offer. Being head of the Paroling Authority is not an easy job, and I think we all know that. We all recognize the difficulties. We've got a prison system that's bursting at the seams and you've got the public that doesn't want to let anybody out, and you're caught between a hard place and a rock. But there is no better person to be between the hard place and a rock than Claudio and I wholeheartedly support his nomination.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator A. Kobayashi then rose to introduce Mr. Claudio Suyat, seated in the gallery, accompanied by his son Bob and daughter-in-law June. (All rose to be recognized.)

The President re-referred the following House bill that was received:

House Bill Referred to:

No. 2928, H.D. 1 Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Labor and Employment, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The President re-referred the following Senate concurrent resolution that was offered:

Senate
Concurrent
Resolution Referred to:

No. 165 Committee on Higher Education,
Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation

Senator Tungpalan rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I received this letter this morning and I would like to share it with the people of Hawaii:

'Aloha kakou to the descendants of Liloa and Lono'ikamakahiki and other concerned individuals.

We would be privileged to have you present at noon on Kuhio Day, March 25, at the gathering of our people at Keawa'iwi Heiau in Aiea to discuss the fate of the ka'ais.

'We have worked consistently on this issue and are seeking to bring it to its completion. We are concerned that not all Hawaiians feel the same way about what has occurred with the ka'ais. Hawaiians need to voice their concerns about this matter. During our recent March 19th meeting at Kalemela Church at Pa'auhau Mauka on the Island of Hawaii, we learned that the ka'ais are safe and have been placed somewhere in Waipio Valley.

'We need to put our people's minds at rest, as there are too many persons whose lives have been touched and disturbed while this problem has not been resolved. Our concern is to bring aloha and lokahi to our people and that all who attend will know this concern when we have completed the gathering. We should seek to come together as one people and with the goal that at the meeting's end we will have a common feeling and understanding. We can solve our problem within ourselves if we try. This is an opportunity to do it. When we do this work, it is for all the people of Hawaii.

'We hope that you can be present and we ask that you attend as an individual or as a representative from your organization. We wish to extend our warmest aloha to your ohana. It is through sharing our feelings that much understanding will come. Please give us an opportunity to meet with you again.

'Aloha pumehana,

'Reynolds Nako'oka Kamakawiwoale'

"Thank you."

Senator Levin, also rising on a point of personal privilege, then stated:

"Mr. President, I speak on a point of personal privilege.

"I do not make it a habit to defend our Judiciary Committee chair and, indeed, he does not need defense. But as a prior recipient of some unwelcomed attention at a prior fundraiser that I once had, I thought that I would stand up and comment on what occurred yesterday evening, picketing at the judiciary chair's fundraiser.

"On McNeil/Lehrer last night, a Republican and a Democratic congressman were talking about the debates that are going on there, and one quote was used that I thought was particularly appropriate to our situation. 'The temper and integrity with which matters are debated in the political process is more important than the outcome.' I think that's something that we might well want to keep in mind. I think the picketing that occurred last night was both ill-advised and totally unwarranted. I think that regardless of the merits, we have a judiciary chair who is fair and open to all who come before him.

"The picketing is most unfortunate, and can only be intended to intimidate. It is my hope that this Legislature will always function on the basis of debate and deliberation, not intimidation. Thank you."

Senator Chang also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, on a brief point of personal privilege, as a former chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee,

I share the thoughts of the Senator from Puna. I pledge, as part of your leadership group, Mr. President, to sit with those individuals who were part of that demonstration last night and share my opinion and the opinion of the leadership and work to reconcile what I think is an inappropriate straining of relationships between members of the public and the Legislature. Thank you."

REFERRAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The President referred the following House concurrent resolution that was received:

House Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
No. 489	Committee on Judiciary

Senator Tungpalan rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I want to report that this past Friday, March 25th, about 150 individuals concerned about the ka'ais came together in unity. Liloa descendents and people from various Hawaiian organizations throughout the state were present. I wanted to take this opportunity to thank these ho'oponopono practitioners: Abbie Napiahi, Maile Akimsu, Arthur Holt, Maria Solomon, and Aunt Betty Rocha, who is our Honolulu ho'oponopono specialist.

"The guidance and direction of these kupuna served to relieve the hurt and anxiety of the people who were there and the many people whose hearts, I'm sure, were with us. At the end of the four-and-a-half hour session, everyone agreed on the following:

1. That the ka'ais are safe in Waipio;
2. That the iwi should go back to Papa earth. Papa is our word for mother. In essence, we're saying the safest place for the iwi is in the bosom of its mother's hands; and
3. That it is important for all the people of this state to remember the two chiefs and their contributions.

"As such, your Committee on Higher Education, Culture and Arts and Historic Preservation will be scheduling a hearing next Friday, April 8th, to discuss the placement of two ki'i and landmarks in Waipio Valley. A hearing will be scheduled at Honoka'a Elementary School to also take up matters regarding the helicopter flight activity into the valley and to also discuss the repatriation of all other artifacts. I do believe we have something like 3,000 bones at Bishop Museum. We'd like to have all of these bones properly repatriated from where they came. This will be a hearing, as I mentioned, scheduled for next week Friday. I look forward to serving with Senator Salling, as her committee will join me in taking up the matter with respect to the helicopter flight activity in Waipio Valley.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, as a follow-up and on a point of personal privilege about the matter of the ka'ais, I would like to remind this body that this is still being treated as a second degree burglary. The Bishop Museum is still working with the Police Department in the investigation. We do not know, in fact, that the ka'ais are at Waipio Valley. I'm hoping that those individuals, who say that the ka'ais are in Waipio Valley and who have any kind of evidence, would share it with the Police Department.

"In conjunction to that, Mr. President, I would like to further state that I have had discussions with Dr. Duckworth, who is the president of the Bishop Museum, and he and the kupuna who are in charge of the preservation of the ka'ais are very, very concerned. They ask that if anybody has any information, to please notify the police because they are still investigating.

"I want to remind this body that, according to the museum, the ka'ais have been on loan to the museum since April 3, 1918, and the original three parties responsible for the loan were: the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, representing the governor and representing us, the State of Hawaii; the Kawanakoa family, representing Prince Kuhio; and the trustees of the Liliuokalani Trust. I know that there's been a lot of mana'o in the paper regarding the ownership of the ka'ais, but according to the museum, they have the documentation to resolve the problem.

"Mr. President, the museum has also said that after the disappearance of the ka'ais the Office of Hawaiian Affairs formed a special committee that described the theft as a 'desecration of the highest order.' It is a result of this committee that they have formed a puwalo, or a meeting of Hawaiian elders, who I hope to meet with tomorrow in my office to try to get a handle on what exactly happened to the ka'ais.

"As a follow-up to the remarks that I made on the floor previously, the Bishop Museum said that at no time did they issue any kind of opinion concerning the identity of the person or persons responsible for the theft. The museum emphasized again that they are cooperating fully with the Honolulu Police Department. I am hoping that if those Hawaiian persons, or anyone for that matter, have any information, that they please call the investigating officer, which I was informed is Detective Clark or Officer Clark, who is working on this case.

"It is my hope, Mr. President, that those responsible for the disappearance of the ka'ais be brought to justice.

"Thank you very much."

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senate Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
No. 117	Committee on Tourism and Recreation
No. 143	Committee on Tourism and Recreation
No. 207	Committee on Tourism and Recreation

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

The President re-referred the following Senate resolutions that were offered:

Senate Resolution	Referred to:
No. 86	Committee on Tourism and Recreation
No. 110	Committee on Tourism and Recreation
No. 165	Committee on Tourism and Recreation

Senator Grauly then rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, yesterday, I received a fax from an organization called Common Sense Now attaching a copy of an ad that they were going to be running in tomorrow's edition of the Honolulu Advertiser and the Star-Bulletin. The ad relates to the issue of same-sex marriage, specifically H.B. 2312, S.D. 1. The fax goes on to say that the individual who is the president of this organization, Mr. Mike Gabbard, indicates that he had personally hand-carried the ad to the offices of Senators Levin, Matsunaga, Kobayashi, Chang and Baker this morning and asked them to call him immediately if the information was incorrect.

"Yesterday, prior to the session, Senator Baker had approached me expressing her concerns about this ad that was going to run, and I indicated that I would speak or try to speak to the individuals involved and ask that they not do this. I got word yesterday afternoon that they had agreed to postpone the publication of the ad until, I believe, sometime tomorrow. I called them back this morning and asked if they would not publish the ad at all. Unfortunately, I was not successful in getting the organization to understand that this kind of an ad was going to polarize the committee even further and make it very difficult for us to come to a consensus on the issue of same-sex marriage.

"Mr. President, I have tried for the last two weeks to come up with the necessary support in order to move the bill, and we are deadlocked. I believe that all ten of us are sincere individuals who have studied the issue very well and are very sincere about our positions on the issue. I have met with almost every one of the Senators and I am convinced of that, and I respect each Senator's opinion with regard to the issue of same-sex marriage. What is important for me is that we continue to try to discuss and deliberate on the issue, respecting each other's rights and trying to find the common ground without being intimidated, perhaps, into taking a position that one otherwise would not take.

"The issue of same-sex marriage, to me, has always been an issue of conscience. It goes to the very basis, I guess, of us as a people and a civilization. It goes to marriage and who should be entitled to marry under the laws of our state.

"I have written seven, perhaps eight (I'm not sure anymore), drafts of the bill. I have tried to satisfy the concerns of each of the members of the committee. At this point, it is my honest and sincere feeling that there is not the consensus in the committee in order to be able to move the bill further. And as a result, although the deadline might be April 8th, I am not going to engage in any further discussions on the bill in the committee.

"Secondly, and perhaps the precipitating reason for my moving up the deadline to come up with the bill, is the ad that's coming out in tomorrow's editions of the newspapers. I do not feel that it is respectful of each Senator's opinions and feelings on an issue of conscience, and I feel that this development will make it very difficult for the Senators to make the best possible judgment with all the facts and with all the information that they need for the benefit of the people of the State of Hawaii.

"As a result of the ad that's coming out in tomorrow's papers, I feel that we need to terminate discussions this session on H.B. 2312 and therefore, as far as I am concerned, Mr. President, 2312 will not be passed onto the floor. I will accept defeat, but I will also do so, fully respecting each member's rights on the matter.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Matsuura also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"On the comments made by the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, I just want the chairman to know that my vote goes along with him. You're not making a decision by yourself only. I'm also casting my vote with you. Whatever your decision is, is my decision. I don't want you to take the brunt of getting the blame for killing this measure. I believe that your comments are believable and fair. Your standards in which you have maintained within the committee are honorable. I want you to know that I support you in your decision.

"Thank you."

Senator Reed, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, I likewise rise on a point of personal privilege.

"There's an odd thing that bothers me a lot about legislative bodies and politicians, and that is anger at the idea that the public would attempt to pressure their public servants on an issue, whatever the issue is. In the past, I remember a member of this body complaining aloud about the pressure being brought by Mothers Against Drunk Driving and others trying to get this legislative body to pass legislation that would toughen the drunk driving laws. Essentially, what she said was, if we allow the public to pressure us on this issue, who knows what will come in the future, it's a dangerous precedent being set.

"I think that this reaction today is a further indication of this kind of arrogance that takes great offense at the public exercising not only its justifiable and legitimate right, but essential right to pressure legislators to take stands on issues that are not politically easy and not lacking controversy. Thank you."

Senator Iwase then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'd like to express some comments on the statements made by the chair of the Judiciary Committee. I'd like to join him in his concern over the methodology or the method that may be employed to pressure people to vote a certain way.

"I am disappointed if, in fact, the bill is not going to move because I think there are constitutional issues on the questions of separation of power, and whether or not the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii properly took this case and, in my own view, judicially legislated a major and momentous policy change.

"I do, however, support the chair and commend the chair for the statements he made regarding the kinds of tactics which may be employed to pressure people to vote. The public does have the right to express its views to all of us. One would hope, and it's too often the exception rather than the rule, that the debate can remain somewhat at a higher plain.

"Arch Lustberg once said that 'we have, today, become a society of crucifiers and inquisitioners' so that we can no longer discuss serious matters because we keep calling each other names or because we keep threatening each other. We have gone through many very serious issues where we have been told in very threatening terms -- not physically threatening, but perhaps politically threatening -- that if you don't do this, we're going to do that. I don't think that anyone here should vote on an issue of this magnitude because of a threat. The decisions we make should be based on more objective, rational reasons with some factual basis to it, and not because someone is out there saying that we're going to fire missiles at you or blow you out of the water with bazookas. That's just not going to do. That is not democracy -- that's a Salem witch-hunt, and I don't think we need to tolerate that kind of thing.

"I agree with the Senator from Maui that we should listen to public opinion, that we should be cognizant of what the public says to us. We are, after all, a body which is supposed to be the closest to the people of this state, and it is for that reason that I had concerns about the court's decision, because two people on the Supreme Court should never have made such a momentous decision as this.

"I again commend the chair of the Judiciary Committee for standing up in defense of colleagues of mine and his on the committee who appeared to be under some threatening cloud. We should not proceed to act because of that threat.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Chang also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to second the sentiments of the Senator from Mililani and extend my support to the chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

"The Senator from Mililani was quite correct in saying that we are open and sensitive to the expression of public opinion. The difficulty with this particular item is that the level of debate has descended in many sectors to name calling, misstatement of facts, betrayal of trust and confidence, distortion, and exaggeration. We have come to a situation where, in many instances, zealotry has overwhelmed truth and responsibility. It is more prudent, at this time, to take a time out and have everyone who has feelings and positions on this matter to assess how they are going to proceed in elevating the discussion and debate on this issue to a higher and more responsible plane.

"I personally feel that there is time for the Legislature to further consider this matter. In my estimate of the court proceedings, it appears that decisions may not be made on this matter until May or June of 1995. I think that this cooling-off period, if you will, gives us all an opportunity to make a studied inquiry into the very basic institutions that are presented for our discussion and decision, and gives us an opportunity to make use of all of our community's resources in insuring that this studied inquiry does yield the kinds of facts and philosophies that will bring light and truth to the whole matter.

"I'd like to, again, extend my support to the chairman of the Judiciary Committee in establishing this process and moving this process forward. Thank you."

Senator Reed, again on a point of personal privilege, stated:

"Mr. President, if I may continue on the same point of personal privilege.

"The Senator who chairs the Judiciary Committee was kind enough to hand me a copy of the ad in question and I just fail to see what this 'threat' is. The Senator from Mililani used the word 'threat' as if there is some ominous 'threat' here of bazookas and cannons blowing people out of the water or some such imagery, and the previous speaker talked about name calling and this debate falling to some level that is totally unbecoming such an honorable body. The ad may violate some internal rules or tread upon some lines of sensitivity to people who survive by election, but it sure doesn't constitute any 'threat' or discern any kind of name calling. It simply is a statement of the facts. It says, 'So far five Senators have not signed the bill to support traditional marriage.' It goes on to say, 'If you agree that marriage should be reserved for one man and one woman, phone or fax these Senators.' That's a partial reading, but it's the crux of it and it lists the five Senators who have not yet signed off on H.B. 2312 and provides their phone numbers and fax numbers.

"I would wonder what the hell that 'threatens,' other than public pressure or public involvement in the legislative process. What is the problem with that? This can only be offensive to people who not only no longer encourage public input, but indeed feel threatened by public input."

Senator Iwase then responded:

"Mr. President, having heard the statements from the Senator from Maui, I withdraw the imagery of bazookas and instead substitute submarines running silent, running deep with torpedoes and polaris missiles. Thank you."

At 11:57 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:01 o'clock p.m.

Senator B. Kobayashi then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I respect the tough decision made by the Judiciary chairman who, I believe, embodies the highest levels of consciousness of public trust and goodwill. He said that the decision on the same-sex marriage is one of conscience. I'm reminded that we oftentimes vote here in this body on matters in which numbers of votes alone do not constitute the so-called 'right' decision. There have been issues here relating to death penalty, gambling, abortion, and the differences of what constitutes first amendment rights. These are oftentimes made on the basis of conscience, and not necessarily by tallying votes in the community or finding out which way the wind blows.

"We have a Senator here who is a great follower of former President John Kennedy. Kennedy wrote a book Profiles in Courage, in which he describes the votes of a number of statesmen who made decisions on the basis of conscience. Some of them lost their seats in Congress because of those decisions but did what they thought was right and voted their conscience. Thank you."

Senator A. Kobayashi, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, may I rise on a point of personal privilege?

"What I would like to comment on is the ad that would be appearing tomorrow. It's not so much what the ad says, but it's more what the ad does not say. It infers that some of us on the list are against traditional marriage and for same-sex marriage. It's all these inferences. It also infers that we are not signing that bill. Maybe we didn't sign today, but maybe with some small modification we might have signed tomorrow. So the ad is offensive not by what it says, but what it does not say and what it infers. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose again and added:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"In regards to my previous comments, I am a member of the Judiciary Committee. I am one person who doesn't care if I get re-elected and I don't want anything from government. I know what the chairman of Judiciary has gone through writing draft after draft of that bill. I know the consequences of the bill dying. If the bill dies, the state is going to be at a disadvantage when it goes to the court of law.

"I also agree with the Senator from Manoa. You look at the ad, it gives an impression that all the persons who didn't sign are all for same-sex marriage. That is not true. There are other good reasons for not supporting the bill, such as a person's constitutional rights, etc.

"I agree with the Senator from Maui that one can take out any ad, one can pressure any person, one can say anything, but at least be fair and tell the other side of the story also. What made me stand up to support the chairman of Judiciary is because I don't want the headline to read tomorrow: 'Senator Graulty killed the same-sex marriage bill.' I have no problem in people taking out ads and saying anything, provided that whatever is written or said is the truth and nothing but the truth and provided it tells two sides of the story.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Matsunaga also rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I too would like to express my support for the chair of the Judiciary Committee. As vice chair, I've seen him grapple with very difficult issues this session. Through it all he's been honest to the members and he's shown his integrity and his fairness to all sides. Thank you."

RECOMMITTAL OF HOUSE BILL

H.B. No. 3090, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Ikeda moved that H.B. No. 3090, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Ikeda then noted:

"The reason for the recommitment is that there is an error in the title."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 3090, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO TAX LAW," was recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Senator Levin, in conjunction with his announcement of the Senate's Hawaii Foodbank drive, stated:

"Mr. President, those who have been to Rotary meetings or are members of the Rotary are aware of the procedure they have. They fine members who get publicity during the week. I was thinking that we might start that procedure in the Senate.

"Two obvious things come to mind. One is we could start, if we are going to start today, with the Senator from Kohala, which is, as she has correctly pointed out, it (cartoon) should be Minnie Mouse, but, nevertheless, has certainly got some extraordinary publicity. I also think the Senator from the 4th District should be making an extra donation based on the fact that her name was covered over and is probably getting less phone calls as a result of today's ad. They might be the first two donors we will be hitting. Thank you."

Senator Solomon then rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This is in regard to the previous speaker's remarks on the cartoon in the paper. He's absolutely correct that it should have been Minnie Mouse and not Mickey.

"Mr. President, last year, I contacted the Department of Health concerning a possible rodent infestation on the Big Island. They informed me that we do not have a serious problem. Now, I note that the Honolulu Advertiser has set out to editorially murder Mickey Mouse. My position and that of the Department of Health, at least, is that Mickey Mouse is welcomed on the Big Island and should be extended our Aloha. Mr. President, my discussions with my colleagues as Majority Leader indicates that as far as the Senate is concerned, Mickey is not an endangered species in our state.

"We would hope that upon passage of S.C.R. 22, Governor Waihee will pick up the phone and call Mike Eisner of Disney and say, 'Mike, we have seven million visitors a year here in Hawaii and we need more recreational activity for them. We're impressed with what you have done for California and Florida and with your plans for Virginia. Maybe you have some ideas which can help us. And if your company is interested, we are prepared to pitch in to help you.'

"Mr. President, the Advertiser is misguided in its exclusive emphasis on attracting visitors to Hawaii by 'drawing on our natural advantages: climate, scenery, unique culture, hospitality and Aloha.' That's an elitist and restrictive orientation which does not well serve our efforts to increase visitor arrivals. We must be thankful that we have those recreational activities that we now have and we must facilitate the development of new attractions.

"Lastly, Mr. President, I must protest again, quite adamantly, to being depicted visually as Mickey Mouse rather than as Minnie Mouse. I'm soon to be a mother and hope that my child's generation will be free of such gender confusion.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Reed also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Over the thirteen years or so that I have been in the public arena I have many times been accused of doing things anonymously. Those accusations have hurt and I have deeply resented them because I have never approved of nor been involved in doing anything anonymously. I think that anytime anybody feels strongly enough about an issue to discuss it publicly, that person should have the courage to put his or her name to whatever that issue is, or not discuss it. That is why I want to mention one thing.

"Yesterday, I was watching the evening news and saw one of my colleagues on the floor of this Senate during recess. I had to read her lips, but it was clear what she said, and I talked with her this morning and indeed confirmed it. I won't embarrass this colleague by identifying her, but she said to one of the other Senators with regard to the ad that we were debating yesterday that was in the Advertiser this morning, she said to a group of Senators standing around her, 'Don't you know who's responsible for this ad?' or some words to that effect. And when one of the Senators shook his head, she said, 'Rick Reed.' I resent that because it is not true. If I had been involved in that ad my name would have been on it.

"Over the years, I have done things that have taken a lot more courage than criticizing my colleagues. I took on Larry Meheu, identified him as the godfather of organized crime and when I did so, I did so live on camera with my name attached to that accusation. In the last campaign that I ran against Dan Inouye for the U.S. Senate, there came to my attention, as well as others, allegations of sexual misconduct on his part. I was advised by those involved in my campaign to find some other way to get those accusations out, and I wouldn't do that. I felt they were relevant and important and therefore I publicly stood behind that issue.

"Several years ago when this body was debating the Gulf War, I was critical of many members who tried to play it both ways, stating their support for the soldiers in the Gulf, while trying to hide their opposition to the Gulf War. And I placed an ad in the paper with my name on it criticizing my colleagues and urging people of Hawaii to speak out.

"Had I been involved in this ad, I would have had my name on it. I am surprised to see people say such things so categorically, that Rick Reed did this or that, when clearly no proof could exist of such a thing because it is simply not true.

"The final point, Mr. President, I'd like to make has to do with yesterday's discussion. I believe the discussion transcends the issue, so I'm not interested in discussing H.B. 2312 or the issue of same-sex marriage. I think that many of us talk about reform and there are many reporters in our town who are fooled by many who profess to be in favor of reform when in fact they are not. Yesterday, it really brought the issue of reform to a head because ultimately what happened is that loyalty to this body transcended or became more important than loyalty to the people on this particular issue. The chairman was praised for his move and that was because he did what chairmen are expected to do in this body and that is to protect other members from constituents -- helping them avoid taking a stand or having to vote on a controversial issue, especially during an election year.

"I maintain that that is one of the things wrong with this Legislature. We have many things that we abide by here that are really based on politicians' fears of not being re-elected and they are contrary to democracy. I would simply urge people, to the extent that you can be open to criticism from me, to try to get over this fear of not being re-elected. There is life outside of politics and I can tell you it's a hell of a lot more pleasant than life in politics. So let us not be afraid to take stands on controversial issues. You may end up being more popular than you are for avoiding controversial issues.

"I think that democracy, as this is a democratic body, suffers because we're afraid to be more open. And I simply would urge people to be more open, to take stands on issues and not rely on systems that we devise from within to protect people from taking stands on controversial issues. We are public servants and the people who elect us have a right to know how we stand on every single issue.

"Thank you."

Senator Grauly, rising on a point of personal privilege, then responded:

"Thank you Mr. President. I'd like to speak as a matter of personal privilege with regard to the previous comments.

"Mr. President, I would not want to categorize those on my committee who did not support my version of the bill as not wanting to take a stand, and I'd like to be very clear about that. I think the difficulty is not so much the ad coming out or the way, perhaps, in which members were contacted with the threat of the ad coming out. For me, it was the difficulty of the effect of the ad coming out and that it made it impossible for the committee to be able to find that sixth vote that was necessary in order to move the bill along.

"I'm sure that the ten members of the committee are all big boys and girls and they are willing and able to stand up on their own. I think to characterize them as somehow hiding behind my skirt is unfair and unfortunate.

"But in fact, what I was dealing with is the fact that once that ad comes out everyone then digs into their respective positions and any effort that I could make as chairman, in order to find the consensus in the committee that was needed to move the bill along, was lost. It was to that that I was saying the ad was unfortunate, ill-timed, inadvisable, and it precluded me from being able to discuss further with the members of the committee something that we could at least get six people to support.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2729 (Gov. Msg. No. 200):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 2729 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SHACKLEY F. RAFFETTO for 1st Judge, Circuit Court of the Second Circuit, for a term of ten years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose in support of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the confirmation.

"To deny confirmation of a nominee would require evidence, documentation, something specifically substantial. As I've said many times, one of the important reasons for Senate confirmation of judges is the ability to hold public hearings at which time citizens can come forward and either testify in support of or against a nominee. At the public hearing for Shackley Raffetto, we did defer decision-making because concerns were raised by some of the members of the Maui Bar Association. However, we've made inquiries in an attempt to substantiate the concerns that were expressed, some of them in a confidential manner, and in the absence of any evidence that Shackley Raffetto does not meet the qualifications, the committee does unanimously recommend confirmation.

"Thank you."

Senator Baker also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this confirmation.

"I know Mr. Raffetto mainly by reputation and recommendation from people on Maui that I know well and whose judgment I respect. Mr. Raffetto is considered to be a fair man and one with integrity. In a conversation I had with him when he was making his rounds meeting Senators prior to his confirmation hearing, I was impressed with his candor, with his frankness, and his strong commitment to public service.

"Mr. President, I'm pleased to vote for this confirmation and I encourage my colleagues to do likewise. Thank you."

Senator Reed, rising in support of the nominee, then said:

"Mr. President, I join my colleagues in support of this nomination.

"I don't know Shackley Raffetto personally, although I met him when he was touring the halls to meet with the Senators recently, but I have heard of his name and his works on Maui over the years frequently. He has been serving admirably as a per diem judge and I have never heard anything but positive comments about his character and professionalism. I think, perhaps, we should in the future expect, perhaps a ten percent objection from other attorneys. It may well indeed be human nature, and we might want to call it the 'ten percent envy factor.'

"I wish him well and urge his support. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Hagino, Nakasato).

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi introduced Judge Shackley Raffetto, who was seated in the gallery with a group of supporters. (Judge Raffetto and his supporters rose to be recognized.)

At 11:49 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:52 o'clock a.m.

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Hagino, Nakasato).

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

The President re-referred the following House bills that were received:

House Bill Referred to:

No. 3194, H.D. 2 Committee on Ways and Means

No. 3426, H.D. 1 Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Koki, on a point of personal privilege, stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman of the Judiciary Committee to yield to some questions."

The President asked the chairman of the Judiciary Committee if he would yield to questions by the Senator from the 24th District, and the chairman having answered in the affirmative, Senator Koki inquired:

"Mr. Chairman, I understand that five Senators have indicated they support H.B. 2312. Is that correct?"

Senator Gaulty answered:

"I understand that five Senators have indicated that they support H.B. 2312. Yes."

Senator Koki continued:

"I also understand that you believe that the situation is hopelessly deadlocked."

Senator Graulty responded:

"That's what I said, that the situation was deadlocked. Yes."

Senator Koki further inquired:

"If a sixth Senator would support H.B. 2312 in your final draft form, would you pass it out of committee?"

Senator Graulty answered:

"If a sixth Senator came to my office wanting to sign the committee report, I would not show him the door. Yes."

Senator Koki continued:

"So then H.B. 2312 is not technically dead?"

Senator Graulty responded:

"As I indicated in my remarks the other day, the deadline is April 8th. I was not going to engage in any further discussions on the bill. The deadline is April 8th and if somebody should come to me before then and sign the committee report, then the bill moves."

Senator Koki concluded:

"So in other words, if one or all five of the undecided Senators would sign the final draft of H.B. 2312, the entire Senate would be able to vote on it?"

Senator Graulty answered:

"That's correct."

Senator Reed then interjected:

"Mr. President, pursuant to Rule 51 of the Rules of the Senate, I move to recall H.B. 2312 from your Committee on Judiciary, to the Committee of the Whole."

The Chair, noting that there was no second to Senator Reed's motion, ruled:

"Members of the Senate, there is no second, the motion dies."

Senator Aki then rose and stated:

"Mr. President, I will second the motion."

The Chair responded:

"I'm sorry, your second is too late."

Senator Reed then said:

"Mr. President, in the first place, Mason's 'Manual of Legislative Procedures' makes it clear that no second is even necessary. The former Senate President had difficulty turning on the intercom system. That certainly is not an excuse to justify the second not being allowed."

At 12:01 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:02 o'clock p.m.

Senator Reed then rose and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to appeal the ruling of the Chair."

The Chair responded:

"There has been a motion to appeal the ruling of the Chair. An aye vote will sustain the ruling of the Chair."

The motion to appeal the ruling of the Chair was then put by the Chair and, Roll Call vote having been requested, failed on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 19. Noes, 4 (Aki, George, Koki, Reed). Excused, 2 (Hagino, Nakasato).

Senator Reed then rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege."

"This is a total 'shibai.' It isn't that there was no second, the second was simply slow in coming."

"Members of this body pretend to be in favor of openness. This is simply an effort to discuss a bill and get a bill onto the floor of the Senate. To use as an excuse a delayed second is totally outrageous and I hope that it is clearly exposed to the media for what it is. This is an outrageous affront to democracy."

The Chair responded:

"Mr. Minority Floor Leader, you have eight days before the deadline to move a bill back to its original house. You may use your time or your efforts or your good politicking to talk to the chair. You do have that right. You do have that privilege."

Senator Reed then responded:

"Mr. President, in response. This is an issue that deserves to be before the entire body. I will use the next eight days, every single day, to re-make this motion, and I suspect those willing to make a second will be quicker on the draw in order to second the motion to combat this nonsense."

Senator Solomon, rising on a point of personal privilege, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege."

"Mr. President, the Advertiser's cartoon and characterization of the Senate Judiciary Committee members as wimps, won't stand up to scrutiny."

"The Senators did not run for cover. Judiciary Committee members routinely make tough decisions. The Judiciary chairman routinely counts votes on tough bills. None of that was new when the committee confronted the same-sex marriage issue. The new element was media coverage that focused on one decision among many."

"When Chairman Graulty acted, he was not expressing members' reluctance to vote; he was simply reporting a fact: the votes weren't there for passage."

"Senate committees have returned several measures this session without exciting controversy over lack of support."

"The Advertiser and its cartoonist have a right to free expression, but although cartoonists have a right to free expression, it is equally well established that with free speech comes responsibility. The paper's presentation of the Senate Committee is unfair and wrong and should be corrected.

"Thank you."

Senator Aki then stated:

"Mr. President, I just want to make it clear that my second was not delayed or in any way late, as implied by some members in this Senate. I immediately stood up and made my second and it was done in less than a minute after the motion was made. I just wanted to make that point clear. Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT

MOTION TO RECALL HOUSE BILL NO. 2312

Senator Reed then moved that House Bill No. 2312 be recalled from the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Reed then stated:

"Mr. President, the people of Hawaii feel strongly about the issue of same-sex marriage. It is understandable and, in fact, inescapable that on this issue there are very strong feelings on both sides. And, indeed it is an issue that turns on principle, conscience and each individual's sense of morality.

"The vast majority of those who pay us to represent their views are opposed to same-sex marriage. And for most people this opposition is not borne of intolerance. The people of Hawaii, as we all know, are very tolerant.

But there is a difference between tolerance and acceptance. Majority of people in our islands do not want government giving homosexual behavior a stamp of official acceptance or approval by legalizing same-sex marriage."

Senator Chang interjected:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Is the present speaker limiting his remarks to the pertinence of recalling the motion or debating the merits of the bill itself?"

Senator Reed answered:

"The former."

The Chair then stated:

"Senator Reed, would you limit your debate to justifying the recall of this measure."

Senator Reed, answering in the affirmative, then continued:

"I would like, rather than addressing the merits of the bill, to address the larger issue before us as it relates to the motion before this body.

"I believe that this debate over our handling of H.B. 2312 has brought to the surface and made clear a deeper issue that usually remains submerged and often seems obscured, perhaps because we're all too close to it. That larger issue is openness, accountability and democracy. The work being done in this legislature is the people's business. It is our honor to be allowed, for a relatively brief period of time, to do the people's business, and we should want to do the business of the people, in the open.

"We often talk about legislative reform. Some of us talk about reform so eloquently and convincingly that reporters who haven't been around for long believe it. Those reporters give some members of this Senate high marks based on the belief that they are a part of a new breed of elected officials who have the courage and integrity to fight for reform in openness, even at the risk of alienating other members of the Senate."

Senator Chang rose again on a point of parliamentary inquiry, as follows:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. With all due respect to my colleague from Maui, perhaps I'd have less reservations about the tenor of his remarks if I could see the relationship between these broad, general concerns and his need to recall the bill from committee. Perhaps if he could establish some foundation for these broad, general concerns about governance in Hawaii, his remarks might be more understandable and germane within that context."

Senator Reed then responded:

"Mr. President, everything that I'm saying is providing the very foundation for this discussion and I would appreciate the opportunity to make my brief remarks directly on that point.

"This, today, is the opportunity for those brave new reformists, those courageous, few Democrats who've shown some indication that they can't be bought with chairmanships and power and the promise of respectability to take the last step out from behind the circle of wagons. Here's the opportunity for those brave Democrats to speak with their actions. This is the tension from which heroes emerge. This is a career-making opportunity. All we have to do is rise above the crowd and take the opportunity.

"All we're taking about, Mr. President, is moving a bill from a committee into the sunshine of this public forum. All we need, to pass this motion and pull the same-sex marriage issue onto the floor before the entire Senate where it belongs, is the support of one-third of this Senate; nine votes; nine people who, regardless of their views on homosexual marriage, care more about reform, openness and democracy than about time-honored practices, internal allegiances and their own standing in the status quo; nine people who are willing to anger their colleagues to stand up for democracy.

"A few days ago when the Judiciary chairman prematurely announced the demise of H.B. 2312, one of the Senators standing to applaud that move talked of a 'betrayal of loyalty.' That is a key concept in this discussion. What did he mean when he said, 'betrayal of loyalty'? What had happened was, this particular Senator had made it clear that he intended to avoid taking a stand on the same-sex marriage issue. He told several colleagues that he intended to be 'unavailable' when it was time to sign the committee report on H.B. 2312. He told several colleagues that he intended to find a way to avoid voting on H.B. 2312 if it got to the floor. What happened is that some of those Senators told outsiders, members of the public, constituents even, the Senator's intent about the same-sex marriage issue."

Senator Chang then rose on a point of order and stated:

"Mr. President, point of order. I'm sitting here trying my darnedest to understand why the Senator from Maui feels compelled to recall this bill from the Committee on Judiciary. For the last five minutes I've been subjected to a broad, general lecture on governance and reform and hearing some aspersions cast without any idea as to whether these matters pertain at all to whether the bill should be recalled in this particular manner."

Senator Reed responded:

"Mr. President, everything I'm saying ...."

The Chair interjected:

"Senator Reed, please confine your remarks to the recall."

Senator Reed then said:

"I would like to ask the President, however, to understand that everything I'm saying is justifying a vote in favor of this motion and I would appreciate the opportunity to speak without being interrupted.

"What is meant by loyalty and trust in this environment? What is a loyal Senator? A loyal Senator can be trusted to subordinate the interest of the people to the interest of the Senate. A loyal Senator can be trusted to keep his or her mouth shut when a fellow Senator tells you he plans to be unavailable when it's time to sign a controversial committee report. A loyal Senator can be trusted to keep controversial bills bottled up in his committee, rather than embarrass his colleagues with a public floor vote. A loyal Senator can be trusted to vote in support of the Senate President's superficial and undemocratic ruling that a motion is dead on the bogus pretense that the second was not voiced fast enough. A loyal Senator can be trusted to vote with the majority even when doing so is contrary to his or her own views, conscience or principles. A loyal Senator can be trusted to betray his or her own sense of what is right, honest or just, rather than ever betraying loyalty to the leadership or Senate majority.

"Most legislators believe they must be seen as trustworthy in this context. Being trusted, being loyal to the majority and to leadership determines what committee you get to chair; what office you occupy; how much power or legislative clout you have; how many of your bills are passed; how you are perceived in the community; how much respect you are accorded. To get along, go along. Loyalty and trustworthiness above all else.

"Last week, as I watched all but four members of this Senate vote in support of the President's clearly inappropriate and brazenly undemocratic quashing of an unpopular motion, I was once again struck by the depth and rigidity of this loyalty. Even Senators who oppose same-sex marriage and want H.B. 2312 to pass voted against the effort to move the bill out of committee. Members in favor of same-sex marriage, but still pride themselves in being civil libertarians who support openness, went along with what was clearly an affront to openness and democracy.

"As I looked at the faces of my colleagues who betrayed their own principles, betrayed their own concept of democracy and belied everything they've said privately to friends and family members about wanting a more open Senate, I could not help but consider how common this human flaw is and how often throughout history this same consciousness has produced injustice. This same consciousness is responsible for countless crimes against humanity, ranging from a group of children taunting another child to tears; to white Americans sitting silently while black Americans were forced to walk to the seats at the back of the bus; to the horrendous atrocities illustrated so poignantly in the current movie about Nazi Germany's treatment of Jews, 'Schindler's List.' This collective consciousness, this collective subordination of individual principles ...."

Senator Ikeda interjected:

"Point of order, Mr. President. Mr. President, I think that this discussion or remarks of the speaker are pointedly off track and not adhering to the motion itself, and I would like a ruling from the Chair."

The Chair responded:

"Senator Reed, again, would you pertain your remarks to the merits of the recall, and maintain your remarks in this specific area."

Senator Reed then remarked:

"I'm doing precisely that and I'd like to remind the previous speaker that this is America. She may not like what I have to say, but she certainly should be willing to defend my right to say it."

The Chair then stated:

"You're out of order if you do not limit your remarks to the recall."

Senator Reed continued:

"Mr. President, I think given what we have seen over the past few days and the past few years in this body, we should never again have to wonder how people can be swayed by peer pressure to do things they would never do on their own. We should never again express amazement or disgust that others have been willing to subjugate their own principles to the demands of the clique, club, group, gang, organization or nation with which they identify.

"Amin Goethe, the Nazi soldier who personally killed 4,000 Jews during World War II, was granted a moment to speak his last words before being hanged for his atrocities. His last words were, 'Heil Hitler,' loyal to the end, trustworthy to the end.

"All of the abuses spawned by the collective consciousness of this Senate are harmless and insignificant compared to the examples I've just mentioned. The point is nonetheless valid. That same collective consciousness is alive and well here, now. Although such collective consciousness can be likened to cancer, it is much easier to be rid of. All one has to do is stand up and discard it. If we have to choose between having the trust of our colleagues and having the trust of the people, surely it is the trust of the people we should covet.

"I believe, as I have said many times in this body, that all bills should make it to the floor of the Senate for open debate and voting. H.B. 2312 is clearly a bill that demands public debate and the taking of a stand. Those who pay us to serve them are demanding no less. There is talk by members of this body of being frustrated by the lack of openness and the inherent dishonesty of some Senate practices, such as those which allow controversial bills to be bottled up in committee. This is an opportunity to take a stand to act.

"The Majority Leader, last week, spoke in response to a newspaper editorial calling us Senators 'wimps' for ducking the same-sex marriage issue. 'Wimp' is not a nice word. 'Coward' is not a nice word. But if we don't like to be called 'wimps' and 'cowards,' we need only stop acting like 'wimps' and 'cowards.' Stop voting against the effort to recall H.B. 2312 from the Judiciary Committee. Stop all the things that we do to keep the public from knowing where we stand on controversial issues.

"If we won't act with courage now, when will we? If we won't be true to our principles on this bill, when will we? If we won't stop being loyal to a dishonest, undemocratic and cowardly system, and instead act in loyalty to our principles and to the people of Hawaii on this issue, when will we? When?"

Senator Graulty then responded:

"Mr. President, I'd like, at the outset, to state that the comments of the Senator from Maui are unfortunately, embarrassingly misplaced and inappropriate for two reasons.

"First, the bill that is in the committee now is H.B. 2312 which is Representative Tom's procreation bill. A long time ago this Committee on Judiciary felt that that bill did not provide the necessary justification to discriminate against same-sex marriages in the State of Hawaii. If that's what the Senator from Maui would like to see, a vote on the procreation bill, I can guarantee that that bill will not have the support of the committee and neither will it have the support of the Senate.

"Secondly, as to the point that some of the Senators have been unavailable, somehow shirking their responsibility, unwilling to take a stand, I can say for the record that all ten Senators have signed the committee report and we are deadlocked. There is a deadlock in the committee. No one is running away; no one is hiding, contrary to what the previous speaker has indicated. It is simply that we are at a deadlock.

"And I offer those two comments to the Senator from Maui in order that he might be guided accordingly.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Chang then rose to speak against the motion:

"Mr. President, I'd like to very briefly address the merits of the motion that have been made today.

"Mr. President, we are about doing the people's work -- the House, the Senate, the Legislature of the State of Hawaii. In order to accomplish that work, we have organized into work groups called committees. These committees hold meetings, hold hearings, receive testimony, analyze the bills, talk among themselves in attempting to forge a consensus and formulate good public policy. That is how we are organized, Mr. President.

"We are not subjected to any kind of dictatorship, be it the dictatorship of the officers or leaders and we certainly shouldn't be driven by the dictatorship of rhetoric.

"Now, if the good Senator from Maui was so dedicated to achieving the public's work, he would work within this committee. He would sit in the public hearings; receive all the testimony; note all of the questions that arise; and stay to the end of the hearing so that he can determine all of the viewpoints that need to be reconciled in order to forge a product that will obtain the acceptance of his colleagues on the Committee on Judiciary.

"Now, if any member of the Committee on Judiciary is not willing to perform that task to accomplish those objectives, it seems, to me, disingenuous to then complain that the committee is not doing its work.

"I would note that the good Senator from Kaneohe who is not a member of the Committee on Judiciary has spent many, many hours attempting to analyze the bill and speak with his colleagues in order to achieve a workable draft that the Committee on Judiciary could issue. I've yet to see that kind of effort from some members of the Committee on Judiciary who would prefer a different process in formulating public policy.

"This Senate is about hard work, Mr. President, not about harsh words. Hard work is what builds and formulates good public policy. Thank you."

Senator Aki then rose to speak in support of the motion, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the motion.

"In the motion a few minutes ago, you point out that this matter has been before the committee for a long time and by the admission of the chairman of the committee that the bill, as drafted by the chairman, is deadlocked and therefore will not be able to come out to this floor. Mr. President, I think it is important that this body vote on these matters. The people of Hawaii, our constituents, voted for us because they expect us to make hard decisions. That's why we're here.

"I do not want to see this matter decided before the courts. I don't think we should delay a decision such as this. I think we have the opportunity to make a decision and I think, furthermore, the voters of our state need to know where we stand on these issues. Otherwise, how are they going to make informed decisions as to who to vote for in the coming elections.

"That is why I seconded the motion and I urge all members to vote in favor of the motion. Thank you."

At 12:38 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:41 o'clock p.m.

Senator Koki then inquired:

"I need to be clarified about something. What bill are we proposing to pull out? Is that the original House bill?"

The Chair answered:

"We are proposing to pull out H.B. 2312 as it came over from the House. We are not recalling from committee the seventh draft or the proposed draft that was discussed in committee."

Senator Koki further inquired:

"We are talking about the House version, not the Senate draft. Is there a way of recalling the Senate draft?"

The Chair answered:

"No."

At 12:42 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:43 o'clock p.m.

Senator Reed asked:

"Mr. President, I'm wondering if the Judiciary chairman would yield to a related question?"

Senator Grauly having responded in the affirmative, Senator Reed then inquired:

"The chairman said that it is not true that five Senators have ducked signing the bill. If I understand or heard him correctly, and I would ask that he please correct me if I'm wrong in any way, I believe what he said is that all ten members of the Judiciary Committee have signed the bill. Is that true?"

Senator Grauly answered:

"All ten members have signed the committee report. Five have signed 'IDNC' and five have signed free and clear."

The motion to recall H.B. No. 2312, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," from the Committee on Judiciary was then put by the Chair and, Roll Call vote having been requested, failed to carry on the following showing of Ayes and Noes, in accordance with Article III, Section 12, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii:

Ayes, 4. Noes, 20 (Baker, Chang, Fernandes Salling, Fukunaga, Grauly, Hagino, Holt, Ikeda, Iwase, Kanno, Kobayashi, A., Levin, Matsunaga, Matsuura, McCartney, Mizuguchi, Nakasato, Solomon, Tanaka, Tungpalan). Excused, 1 (Kobayashi, B.).

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Senators Chang and Ikeda, for the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Ways and Means, presented a joint report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2747) recommending that H.B. No. 2639, H.D. 1, as amended in S.D. 1, pass Second Reading and be recommitted jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Ways and Means.

On motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Reed and carried, the joint report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 2639, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," passed Second Reading and was recommitted jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Ways and Means.

Senator Graulty, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2748) recommending that H.B. No. 2320, H.D. 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Reed and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2320, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PATERNITY," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, April 7, 1994.

Senator Koki rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, there is no one who wants H.B. 2312 to pass more than I do. After last Wednesday's headlines that the traditional marriage bill was dead, my heart sank. However, I did not give up. I worked with the chairman to clarify that the bill was not dead, that we still needed one of the five undecided Senators to sign the bill. And we succeeded in resurrecting the bill in committee.

"I sincerely believed that movement was possible and I spent many hours trying to work toward that end.

"Then Senator Reed who had been quiet and seemingly unconcerned about the issue, made a bold and controversial move that angered many of you. So instead of having the bill move to the floor, Senator Reed has unwittingly officially killed the bill in committee and the undecided committee members have gone on record as opposing H.B. 2312.

"Quite frankly, I am upset with Senator Reed for undermining all our efforts to see this bill through. He told me no matter how this turns out he will look good in the public's eye. But the issue is bigger than Rick Reed. You may think you are punishing Rick Reed, but you are punishing yourself, the Senate, and the process much more.

"Preserving traditional marriage is paramount in our society and most of you agree with that. With the traditional family structure breaking up, we are seeing the consequences of it in our schools, youth crime, abuse, and emotional problems. We need to shore up the family structure, not confuse the issue further.

"But today, we are also faced with another issue -- the issue of separation of powers. We have been accused by many of not being an effective third branch of government. We are being accused of rolling over and playing dead to the governor and rubber stamping many of his administration's actions. And now the courts have gotten into the act. The courts have said, in effect, we will legislate too. Are we going to roll over and play dead to the courts too? No matter where you stand on the issue of same-sex marriage, we all have a responsibility of keeping the separation of powers working; otherwise the public will be left out of the process and the system of government we have will not survive.

"Mr. President, when you lost the organizational battle last session, you and your supporters used similar tactics as Senator Reed to undermine confidence in then Senate President Aki. So let's get out of this emotional state and let's get on with doing our job.

"Mr. President, although I am a Republican, I am a member of this Senate and you are my President. The work of this body is beyond personalities and yes, even beyond partisanship.

"Mr. President, will you lead us in responding to our constituents and society in preserving traditional marriage? Will you lead us in responding to the courts to tell them to leave legislation to us; that is our business.

"We need responsive, decisive, open leadership. That was your promise to this body when you became President. We are counting on leadership. I know it can be done.

"Thank you."

Senator Reed also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"It's amazing that even in a three-person caucus we can have divisiveness. I think the only way we'll ever have complete harmony in either caucus is when it gets down to one member in either one.

"I would simply like to respond to the comment that I allegedly said that I'll look good in the public because of this issue. I have never said such a thing to Stan Koki or anybody else. In the first place, I don't confide in him or anybody else, so if I did feel that way, I sure wouldn't say that to anybody. But more importantly, I don't feel that way about this issue, nor do I care about how I'm perceived. I think anybody who knows me or hears my remarks of yesterday, for instance, should be able to see that I don't care about the public reaction, nor do I care about the internal reaction, in terms of how people in this body think of me.

"I wanted to respond to that and also say that the previous speaker seems to misunderstand the life of H.B. 2312. My understanding is, and it's obviously clear, that the bill is not dead and won't be dead until the deadline passes. Also, having talked this morning with the Senate President, I have been given to understand there is still the possibility of movement on this bill. For that reason, as I told you, Mr. President, I will not be making the motion on the floor today to attempt again to bring the bill out of committee. As I said yesterday, I think that to do so would simply beat a dead horse. The possibility of it coming out independently is very good. If that movement does not happen, then I will bring the motion again on Friday, but hopefully, it will come out on its own before then, or if not, somebody else will bring the motion by Friday. I don't care who brings it out, just so that it comes out.

"Mr. President, I also want to talk very briefly about one of our practices here, with the thought of people who are here next year making the changes in a variety of ways. The one I want to address now is the archaic demand of seconds to motions. There's some very good language in Mason's that I'd like anybody who reviews this in the interim to consider, and I want to read just parts of it:

'Parliamentary practice in American governmental bodies does not require seconds to motions, and in Parliament itself, where the practice of seconding motions originated, they have not been required for more than a century.

'A second to a motion is not out of order, but its effect is only to disclose the fact that one or more other members may favor the motion made or proposal submitted. Unless the rules require, seconds may be ignored and the presiding officer may not refuse to put a question because it is not seconded.

'Whenever a member submits a motion which is in order, the motion should be stated by the presiding officer without waiting for a second.

'There would seem to be good cause for dropping the use of seconds to motions because of their lack of utility, convenience or necessity. Tilson says, "It would seem nothing could be more nearly useless and unnecessary than for some unidentified voice from the midst of the assembly to boom out, I second it."

'An even stronger reason for abandoning seconds is that they are not in accord with the present day view of the rights and dignity of the individual. It is contrary to the theory of equality among the members. Parliamentary action is based on majority rule where each member should have one vote of equal weight. All members should have equal, individual, independent rights to propose to the assembly what they think it should consider.

And finally,

'A motion should not be suppressed because it is not seconded; neither should one be put to vote hastily without opportunity for debate.'

"So I would hope that this body will consider, during the interim, abolishing the requirement that a motion be seconded.

"Thank you."

Senator Chang then rose on a point of personal privilege and responded:

"Mr. President, listening to the comments from the Senator from Maui about 'seconds' brings to mind the idea that many women would apply the same thoughts to spouses in today's contemporary society. I invite the members of the Women's Caucus to read that quoted section and substitute the word 'husband' for 'seconding a motion.' I think many interesting ramifications will come to mind.

"Nevertheless, ours is a traditional body, contrary to some advertisements that have been taken out in the newspaper. I'd like to commend the remarks of the Senator from Kaneohe in that respect. Yesterday, I had occasion to refer to his hard work and efforts to forge a consensus in committee and I will today confirm and second his remarks in that regard. To that end, I invite his further work in communicating with those who have taken out an unfortunate advertisement in today's paper, which more than implies that the five people who have not concurred on the most recent draft of H.B. 2312 do not support traditional marriage. I find that to be highly ironic inasmuch as most of the individuals named came from the period when traditional marriage was being questioned and, nevertheless, affirmatively chose to embrace that institution, and lovingly so. We have some Senators, or at least one Senator, who came after that tumultuous period and had opportunity to choose his lifestyle and similarly chose, and embraced lovingly, the institution of traditional marriage. I find that the remarks in today's advertisement are very unfortunate and I invite the Senator from Kaneohe to exert his best efforts in correcting that impression.

"Thank you."

Senator Koki then responded:

"I will put forth my very best efforts to make sure that we do move along in the traditional marriage route. Thank you."

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

House Bill                      Referred to:

No. 2386, H.D. 1    Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means

No. 2928, H.D. 1 Jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Labor and Employment and the Committee on Ways and Means

At 11:48 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:05 o'clock p.m.

Senator McCartney rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I'd like to thank both you and Senator Ikeda, Ways and Means chair, and Representative Ige in helping put together H.B. 3657, H.D. 2. At your direction you also worked with the auditor to invite Dr. Cooper to come down and do an analysis of the Department of Education's budget and expenditures, and I'd like to ask if I may insert some of the auditor's findings into the Journal.

"One of the points I'd like to make to the members is that we are spending over 35 percent in general fund monies to education over general fund revenues. There's a lot of money going into education. I think that we're all concerned on how that money is being spent and whether it's actually getting to the schools or not. That will be the focus of our legislation. I'd like to request that we submit the auditor's findings of Dr. Cooper's analysis into the Journal."

The Chair so ordered and identified the attachment of the auditor's findings as Exhibit "A."

Senator Reed also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, if I may rise on a point of personal privilege.

"An event happened in the last few days, while we were in the midst of debating bringing H.B. 2312 out of committee, that warrants, I think, some analysis by this body, relative to rules that regard media access to the floor. We had a person who claims to have media credentials on the basis of his publishing a newsletter -- a very special interest newsletter -- and on the basis of that publication has access to the floor. What it turned into was not reporting, but lobbying.

"I think this raises the obvious specter of having anybody who publishes a newsletter, whether it is the opposite viewpoint on homosexuality, as this one was, or whether it is the League of Women Voters or MADD or every church bulletin that is published, to have people here who are able to come onto the floor of the Senate and lobby. I'm all in favor of lobbying in the halls, in the office, on the streets or wherever, but there ought to be a line over which the media is not allowed to come in or at least those who are not truly media.

"I would like to ask that the leadership review this matter and look at the rules to see if our rules need to be tightened or look at the possibility of issuing some kind of press credentials so that we really take a look at whether or not those who are posing as reporters truly are. We at least ought to insist that they can offer some pretense of objectivity. The Advertiser and the Star-Bulletin manage to give at least a pretense -- at least until election time. We should demand that at the very least, of those who claim to be representatives of the media when they come onto the Senate floor. Thank you."

Senator Solomon then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Thank you very much, Mr. President. I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Today's Advertiser has a news article concerning the same-sex marriage bill. I hope nothing I said, as your majority leader, gave Bruce Dunford of the Associate Press the impression that the Senate, as a body, had issued an ultimatum to the House over this legislation. I want to make it clear that the Senate would not pass legislation on to the House with such an accompanying ultimatum. The House is our co-equal partner in the public business of this Legislature. We expect and receive the respect due the Senate and we extend the same degree of respect to our House colleagues.

"It is my observation, from my position as your majority leader, that the individual members of your Senate accord the House every respect and courtesy. Naturally, each of us intends and hopes our individual legislative commitment will prevail, but that doesn't mean that we don't value or will not engage in the give and take of the democratic legislative process.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair thanked Senator Solomon for the clarification.

At this time, Senator Holt, for the Committee on Consumer Protection and the Committee on Ways and Means, requested a waiver of the required hours of notice of a public hearing on H.B. No. 2386, H.D. 1, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Holt then rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, may I rise on a point of personal privilege?

"Mr. President, very briefly, this morning's Advertiser has articles by Mr. Dayton on insurance problems in the state and we saw other people here at the Capitol in the last few days talking about their woes. I'm not so sure, Mr. President, the newspapers and I, for many years, have been going in the same direction and in opposite directions, but on this particular issue, evidently it seems like Mr. Dayton or the newspapers seem to be flies on the walls. Yesterday, after our hearing that we had on the insurance code, my staff was working with the insurance commissioner to address these very important issues -- one, to provide insurance relief to businesses; and the other, to look at insurance fraud -- and it's interesting to note that this morning's paper has articles on the same issues. I find it very, very refreshing to see that the newspapers and I are on the same track.

"I want to inform this body that we are continuing to work on language we hope to include in the insurance code legislation by tonight that will address these very important issues. Thank you."

The Chair remarked:

"I hope that the newspapers will be agreeing with you at the end of this evening." (Laughter.)

H.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1:

Senator Grauly moved that H.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Grauly rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President.

"Mr. President, this bill does several things.

"First, it clarifies that marriage is between a man and a woman.

"Second, it makes clear that solemnization of same-sex relationships by religious organizations that do solemnize them is not unlawful.

"Third, and most importantly, this bill conveys a clear message to the Supreme Court that this policy determination is one for the Legislature in its law-making function to address. As stated on page 3 of the bill:

'Separation of powers is necessary for the functional division of governmental power that is the foundation of our constitutional democracy. The Hawaii state legislature, as the elected representatives of the people of the State of Hawaii, is, along with the executive branch, the appropriate source of major policy initiatives. The Hawaii supreme court in Baehr has in effect substituted its own judgment for the will of the people of this State.'

"Fourthly, Mr. President, this bill provides for an 11-person Commission on Sexual Orientation and the Law so that the precise legal and economic benefits extended to opposite-sex couples, but not to same-sex couples, can be examined, and appropriate action be recommended to the Legislature no later than 20 days prior to the convening of the 1995 regular session.

"Mr. President, this bill represents a beginning, not an end, to the discussion and consensus-building necessary in our state on sexual orientation issues. It calls for us to be inclusive, not exclusive; to be tolerant, not judgmental -- this was your charge to me when we first began this 'odyssey' on H.B. 2312. This bill meets your very difficult charge.

"As I told Senator Ann Kobayashi and Senator Baker when I asked for their support last Wednesday night, 20 years from now -- when we are all gone from this place -- we will look back on this bill and say: 'It was the right thing to do at the right time.'

"I urge all my fellow Senators to vote 'aye.'"

Senator Solomon also rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, speaking in support and on the issue of same-sex marriage.

"Mr. President, as you know, the controversy that has surrounded this legislative consideration has preoccupied us despite other demands on our attention. I do not regret the fact that the Legislature invested so much time on this question, and I hope that we will not hear from critics saying that lawmakers are inattentive to the issues of the day.

"Mr. President, your Judiciary Committee and other members of the Senate have studied long and hard and examined the issues. We have had lengthy hearings and extended debate. We have heard from our constituents at length. Now we must vote. I urge all my colleagues -- let's be decisive. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura then rose to support the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I will be voting for this measure, but I just want to make a few comments.

"I have faced a lot of tough issues -- geothermal, water code, procurement, etc. -- but I don't remember any issue before this body that has generated more misunderstanding and angry comments than this measure. I read a letter that was addressed to the Senator from Palolo and I'm going to read you my response to that person who wrote that letter. He also sent the Senator a filthy cartoon. I said:

'Dear Mr. Nueske,

'I'm very angry to have seen the letter you sent to Senator Matsunaga and calling him a sleazy, gutter rat. How well do you know Senator Matsunaga? I'm sure you do not know him as well as I do. Senator Matsunaga is a very fine and conscientious legislator with a lot of compassion. He works hard to understand the issues. As a lawyer, he tries to be fair and listen to both sides of the argument. But I resent when people call others all kinds of names just because the other person has a different opinion.

'I think the cartoon that you sent him was crude, unwarranted, disgusting and stupid.' (I've never to this date called anyone stupid, and I don't apologize for calling him that.) 'If anything, you should apologize to Senator Matsunaga for your sleazy behavior.'

"Those of you who are going to vote against this bill, I have a lot of respect for all of you. It's harder to vote against this measure, than to vote 'aye.' There is no right or wrong in this issue. Whichever way you vote is the right vote. It is unfortunate that the public is going to interpret your 'no' vote to mean that you're encouraging same-sex marriage. That, we all know, is far from the truth. I understand the position that you are taking and I can understand the reasons. Your stand on this issue is on equal rights.

"I remember going to Augusta, Georgia, for my ROTC summer camp. I rode on a train and I met a friend from Hawaii. He was a Hawaiian and he was kind of dark. When we arrived at the Atlanta train station, we wanted to catch a taxi. The taxi driver was Black, and he looked at my Hawaiian friend and said that he was no problem, but I was the problem because he could only pick up Black passengers. He could not take White passengers. He explained that the White taxi drivers could take both Black and White passengers, but the Blacks could only take Black passengers. The Black taxi driver had to go into the train station to get the conductor to come out to determine whether I was White or Black. When the conductor came out, he asked what kind of blood we had. I was going to answer him by saying type O, RH positive, but my Hawaiian friend said, 'White man's blood.' He had White man's blood. So the conductor asked him, 'How come?' He said, (and this is a true story) 'My ancestors ate Captain Cook.'

"Another incident involving equal rights involved Mr. Kanda of Pomohoe Experiment Station. My friend and I got fired because two of us were being replaced with another high school student who happened to be a caucasian. I remember Mr. Kanda, who was the superintendent of the station, taking us to the University of Hawaii. He was so incensed by this injustice of equal rights that he resigned his position. I said to him, 'No, you can't resign for us. We're going to go to college soon, so you can't resign.' We talked him out of it, but I still remember the words of Dr. Baron Goto. I don't know if some of you remember him, but his comment to me before leaving the job at the experiment station was, 'When you come back from the Mainland, make sure you come back with a PhD.'

"Now, with all of those comments, you may wonder why am I voting for this measure? You would think that I'd be siding with the others. The only reason why I'm voting 'aye' on this is because I personally feel that the people who wrote the Constitution had no idea that same-sex marriage was going to become an issue in regards to equal rights. Whether we allow same-sex marriage should not to be decided in the realm of the courts of law. I believe that the persons who wrote the Constitution had no idea that this issue was going to come up. Whether or not we allow same-sex marriage should be determined by this body, at the Legislative level. That's the reason why I'm voting 'aye' on this measure. However, I do have the greatest respect for those of you who differ with me. I truly respect your position. Thank you."

Senator Iwase then rose in support of the measure, as follows:

"Thank you Mr. President. First of all, I'd like to support the Senator from Hilo regarding his comments on the Senator from Palolo. Senator Matsunaga has, during his tenure here, demonstrated unquestionable character. That kind of attack on him is totally unwarranted. This is a tough issue. But like the umpire in the baseball field or the 'gyoji' in the sumo ring, we are not paid to come to this body just to show up. We are paid to come here and make a decision. We are oftentimes criticized, sometimes too harshly, but I guess like the umpire and the 'gyoji,' we have to take it, and it is unfortunate that these kinds of comments come. And by the way, I remember the individual in question. I believe he sent me a nickel, sarcastically, for my vote on the gun control bill, which I returned to him because I felt he needed the money more than I. He returned the nickel back to me and I decided to stop this post office chase, but I still think I owe him a nickel, which I will repay in five pennies.

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill. Mr. President, there are two questions to be addressed in this bill.

"The first and specific question relates to the issue of same-sex marriage. I commend the chair for his hard work in formulating a bill which makes a sincere effort to deal fairly with the issues in this difficult case. First, it reaffirms the concept of traditional marriage. Second, it establishes a commission to conduct a studied review of the issue and to present recommendations to the next Legislature. I would like to emphasize that this Legislature has been active and fair on the question of sexual orientation. We have enacted measures barring discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation -- for example, in employment just two sessions ago.

"It is therefore, curious, given the legislative activity in this area, that the Hawaii Supreme Court would believe that a void existed which could be argued as compelling judicial action as in 1954 in the case of Brown vs. Board of Education. In historical context, there is no factual parallel.

"Which brings me to the second, broader question touched upon by the Senator from Hilo -- that of the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers.

"Very simply stated, under that doctrine there are three coequal branches of government -- the executive, the legislative and the judicial. The legislative creates policy by enacting laws, the executive carries it out and the judiciary interprets laws.

"The doctrine is the foundation, a keystone in our system of government.

"Only recently, this body affirmed the doctrine when the Senate Special Investigating Committee determined that the budget director, an employee of the executive branch, overstepped his jurisdiction when he funded a DOE project which was not approved by the Legislature. We stated, and I quote from the committee's report, 'this practice contravenes the constitutional separation of powers doctrine whereby the legislature maintains control over the power of the purse and policy formation and the executive carries out the law.'

"There is even the bold suggestion of attaching 'serious criminal penalties' to public employees who disregarded legislative mandates. That is how concerned we were.

That is how committed we were and perhaps at that time it was popular to be that way.

"Today we have, in Baehr vs. Lewin, a question involving the actions of employees of the judiciary. And today, some would argue that unlike employees in the executive branch, we, the Legislature, must remain mute and blind if such transgressions are committed by the judiciary's employees. That is wrong, and that is an abdication of our responsibility to this Legislative Branch. The governor and his cabinet, as well as the justices, each and every one of them on the Hawaii Supreme Court, have a constitutional duty to respect and to adhere to the doctrine of separation of powers. And if we do not speak out when there are unwarranted intrusions into the Legislative Branch, who will speak out for us? Certainly not the executive branch when they breach the doctrine and clearly not the judiciary when they do so.

"Long before Baehr vs. Lewin, long before any of us were elected to this body, a political figure in our history expressed strenuous opposition to the idea that the judiciary was the ultimate arbiter of constitutional issues. In the interim, Marbury vs. Madison came down and settled the question that the supreme court, under the doctrine of judicial review, is the final judge on constitutional matters and it is not argued here that they do not possess that right. It is their kuleana. However, the issue posed in this case is, what guides the court when it conducts its analysis? That's a separate question. Are judges to render decisions free from any restraint whatsoever, without any regard to the express intent of the framers, without any regard to the history of the constitutional provision at issue?

"I stand here today, Mr. President, and say that the answer to those questions is a clear and loud No. One doctrine which compels judicial restraint is the issue of separation of powers.

"And here the words of this political figure from our history is instructive on why the doctrine is so important and must be followed. Let me just quote from his writings:

'... The opinion which gives judges the right to decide what laws are constitutional and what are not, not only for themselves in their own sphere of action but for the Legislature and the executive also in their spheres, would make the judiciary a despotic branch.

'The constitution on this hypothesis is a mere thing of wax in the hands of the judiciary, which they may twist and shape into any form they please.'

And finally,

'... Their power (is) the more dangerous as they are in office for life and not responsible, as the other functionaries are, to the elective control.'

"Now, regarding the question on how to construe the constitution, this individual, in language which should have reverberated through the halls of the Hawaii Supreme Court said:

'On every question of construction, carry ourselves back to the time when the constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text or be invented against it conform to the probable one in which it was passed.... Laws are made for men of ordinary understanding and should therefore, be construed by the ordinary rules of common sense. Their meaning is not to be sought for in metaphysical subtleties which may make anything mean everything or nothing.'

"This individual, Mr. President, was Thomas Jefferson. And as Jefferson directed, the Baehr court and this Legislature should take ourselves back to 1950 when Article I, Section 5, was first adopted. It was a different era in Hawaii. We were a territory. It was a Hawaii ruled by an oligarchy, an oligarchy which was very conservative, a Constitutional Convention where the delegates had no intent, no intent to extend the word 'sex' in Article I, Section 5, to include sexual orientation.

"If such an intent, Mr. President, is present today, it is a policy issue to be pursued in the legislative and not the judicial arena. Pursuant to Article XVII of our Constitution this means a constitutional amendment or a legislative amendment to the Constitution -- in short, a legislative question to be decided by the people of this state and not by two unelected justices who made this decision out of 1.1 million people.

"We have observed in the public hearings on this bill that there are at least more than two people in this state who are crying out to be heard on this issue. In the creation of policy, this body is the closest to the people. We are supposed to go to the people, and unlike judges, not be put away into some little, tiny, sterile, separate room where we can analyze history. We are supposed to feel the pulse. We have felt the pulse. And that is what is required for the establishment of policy. The people of this state should be given the opportunity, either in the form of a legislative amendment or a constitutional amendment. The court should not have intruded itself and defined marriage in a manner which was never intended when the framers of the Constitution adopted Article I, Section 5.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator B. Kobayashi then rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to the bill and to cite Thomas Jefferson also.

"The previous speaker noted that we are here because last year a significant Hawaii Supreme Court decision, Baehr vs. Lewin, indicated that our current marriage laws, which limit marriage to heterosexual couples, are unconstitutional on the grounds of the equal protection clause. The House of Representatives, upon seeing this, read the decision of the Hawaii supreme court and saw within it a rationale which led it to seek a compelling state interest, whereby the court might reverse its decision. The House looked and found that it was indeed difficult to find a compelling state interest other than that of propagation and offspring out of wedlock. And so it fashioned its bill along these lines to state that there was a compelling state interest greater than the equal protection clause and that compelling state interest had to do with propagation and children out of wedlock within a family setting.

"All of us know that the equal protection clause is a vital and absolute essential element of our Constitution. We do not have a government that says some men are created equal and some men are created unequal or a little less equal. We do not have a Constitution that says that some men have some inalienable rights and other men have other inalienable rights. We have an equal protection law, without which our form of government would be a very fearful one. I would fear for my life and liberty in a situation in which we did not have an equal protection clause.

"So, the House having made its decision, the matter comes to the Senate. The Senate, seeing what the House did with compelling interest, decided not to try to enunciate a compelling state interest. It said nothing at all about a compelling state interest. It rather reiterated the House conclusion that marriage should be limited to sexual couples between a man and a woman. It further went on to cite, as the previous speaker had said, that we have a principle of separation of powers. Everyone knows that in constitutional law, you have a pairing of ideas. If there is separation of powers on one hand, there is also something else on the other, and in this case we have checks and balances.

"The previous speaker cited the committee report of the Senate which states that 'The Hawaii State Legislature, as the elected representatives of the people of the State of Hawaii, is, along with the executive branch, the appropriate source of major policy initiatives.' Note that he did not say that the Legislature is the sole source of major policy initiatives. Neither did he say that the Legislature was the appropriate source of all major policy initiatives. Whether we as legislators in the Legislature like it or not and whether we call it by one name or another, the judicial branch makes laws. Some people call it judicial policy-making; some people call it judicial rule-making; some people call it judicial review. But the Court, by negation of laws on the basis of constitutionality, does indeed make very major policy decisions.

"If we go back to our Supreme Court history, we find that there is a Supreme Court case called Marbury vs. Madison. It was decided during the time of President Thomas Jefferson. In this case, the most important single Supreme Court decision in our history, the court enunciates several things. It says that the power of the legislature is 'defined and limited' by the framework of the Constitution. It further states that it is the court that can decide what is constitutional and what is not constitutional. And thirdly, that decision says that it is within the prerogatives of the court to nullify an act of Congress if the court deems it unconstitutional. Given those circumstances, the State Supreme Court exercised its power of judicial review and stated that the current Hawaii State policy of heterosexual-only marriages is unconstitutional. It allowed that if the state could find a compelling state interest, that position might be reversed.

"Now, what we have here is a case in which we have one body, the judiciary, who is not normally a policy-making body, making policy and seemingly intruding upon the arena of the Legislature. Now, even as you speak of separation of powers and three separate branches of government, you have to conclude that what this decision does is it strikes down the notion of separation of powers. Let me refer to the committee report. 'Deferral of this matter to the legislature therefore would have expressed the respect due a coordinate branch of government.' Not a coequal branch of government, but a 'coordinate' branch of government. Prospect of a government with two coequal branches of government and a third coordinate branch of government is not what our founding fathers envisioned. It is contrary to a separation of powers and the checks and balances that are paired with the notion of separation of powers.

"It is unrealistic that the court would make itself a weakling, unable to effectively use its checks and balances against another branch of government. The court in establishing Marbury vs. Madison, in establishing the doctrine of judicial review, established itself as a strong and coequal branch of government, not a coordinate branch of government as the committee report would have it.

"And so, we find ourselves in this quandary -- how do we, as legislators, reverse a decision of the court when it is the court that decides what is constitutional or not constitutional? We do not just tell the court, 'Butt out of this area. This is policy-making. We know what policy is. We know what constitutionality is and we should be the judges of our own action.' In fact, that was the position of Thomas Jefferson. Thomas Jefferson was the guy on the other side of the Marbury vs. Madison case. He was President at the time Marshall was Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court and Jefferson believed that the legislature was the only branch of government capable of determining the validity of its own actions. The beliefs of Jefferson have not survived. They were quashed in 1803 with the Marbury vs. Madison case.

"The very doctrine set out by Chief Justice Marshall in the Marbury vs. Madison case is the prevailing doctrine that we use today. Protect ourselves from the tyranny of any one single branch of government.

"It's a tough choice. If you pick the House position, you pick the position in which you try to find the compelling interest, and if you do happen to find the compelling interest, it is a compelling interest that is tantamount to negating the equal protection clause. If you pick the Senate position, you pick a position in which you agree, or you try to get the courts to agree, to be a coordinate branch of government and then you do not have three coequal branches of government, but only two coequal branches of government and a third weaker coordinate branch of government. That's the problem.

"When you look at constitutional problems, and we have many of them, the Constitution does not always seem to be our friend and ally. Look at my district in Waikiki. We have people selling T-shirts on the public sidewalks of Kalakaua Avenue, some of the most expensive real estate in the State of Hawaii. They don't pay any lease rent. They don't even clean up. They don't pay any permit fees or have a permit to sell. They are out there because of something called the 'freedom of religion.' Is the Constitution our friend and ally when we have in Waikiki, street walkers, prostitutes who seem to have so much protection in civil and criminal matters that they are able to ply their trades openly, night, after night, after night? Is the Constitution our friend and ally when we have a situation in which prayers are not allowed in schools, but prayers are allowed in this body and in the House of Representatives above us? It would seem a very strong argument that if the Legislature can have prayers, so should students in school.

"Nevertheless, in these and many other matters, when we have a confrontation between a gut-level situation that we think is objectionable -- like T-shirt sellers in Waikiki, prostitutes in Waikiki, no prayer in schools -- we have to balance our gut instinct with our intellectual understanding of what the Constitution is. We do not throw out the Constitution when confronted with problems like prostitutes on streets or T-shirt vendors on streets. We work within the framework of the Constitution to try to correct that.

"I don't have the answer as to how we can best solve this problem. Personally, I am uncomfortable with the idea of same-sex marriage. I'm uncomfortable with the idea of the street prostitutes in Waikiki, uncomfortable with the idea of having the freedom of religion protect T-shirt vendors in Waikiki. We just don't write a law that shuts down the most important elements of our constitutional government to try to get the means to the end which we seek. That, I think, is the problem that I have with this bill.

"Thank you."

Senator Matsunaga also rose in opposition to the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill. Before I do so, I'd like to thank the Senator from Hilo and the Senator from Mililani for their kind remarks. I'd also like to commend the Judiciary chair for his hard work in tackling many controversial issues this session. This is one of many, although I disagree with him.

"I oppose this bill for three reasons: 1. It is unconstitutional; 2. It is unconvincing; and 3. It is unlikely to do what proponents wish it to do.

"This bill is unconstitutional because it is an attempt by the Legislature to exercise its policy-making authority outside the bounds of our State Constitution. Our state's highest court has already ruled that denial of marriage licenses to same-gender couples is a form of gender-based discrimination, which is expressly prohibited by our State Constitution. The court's reasoning is obviously correct. As a matter of definition, if a privilege is made available to persons of one gender, while it is denied to persons of another gender, then what is taking place is indeed gender discrimination. For example, if Wilma is permitted to marry Fred, but Barney may not marry Fred, then (assuming that Fred would be a desirable spouse for either) Barney is being disadvantaged because of his gender. It is that simple.

"I've heard the arguments that there is no discrimination because members of both genders are equally forbidden from marrying anyone of the same gender. But similar arguments failed to save the laws against inter-racial marriage in which everyone was equally forbidden to marry anyone of a different race. Parallel discriminations are still, nonetheless, discriminations.

"This bill is unconvincing because it incorrectly asserts that policy changes should not come from the judicial branch of government. As much as we legislators would like to believe that we are the exclusive makers of public policy, this simply is not true. Throughout our nation's history, courts have engaged in policy-making. When the courts enforced debts after the revolution, they were making important economic policy. When they decided in the Dred Scott case that the provisions concerning slaves in the Missouri Compromise were unconstitutional, they helped set the stage for the Civil War. When they protected corporations under the cloak of the 14th Amendment, they helped create the environment in which American industrialism grew.

"From 1871 to 1964, no civil rights legislation was passed by Congress. Except for the constitutional amendment granting women suffrage, every single advance of civil rights was accomplished by judicial decision. School desegregation, the right to use birth control, women's right to an abortion all exist today because of court decisions which recognize constitutional rights. No, the legislative branch does not have a monopoly on policy-making.

"The bill is unlikely to do what proponents would like it to do, and that is overturn the Supreme Court's decision in the Baehr case because there are no compelling state interests articulated. Our Supreme Court has ruled that our marriage statute is unconstitutional unless the state can show that the gender-based discrimination is justified by compelling state interests. Where are the compelling state interests? Is it that policy should not come from the courts? Is it that the court's analysis in the Baehr opinion was flat out wrong? Is it the propagation of the human race? That is what is in this bill.

"This bill is telling the Supreme Court the analysis of the case was wrong, and furthermore, butt out -- this is a policy matter. Well, maybe it is the Legislature who should butt out of the court's business.

"This bill, by definition, is doomed to failure. And even if it were successful, imagine, if you will, what things would be like if following every progressive court decision eliminating status discrimination, the legislative branch successfully overturned such decisions. Our nation and state would then be governed by the principles of equality and justice for all, except for those of us who are Black, Chinese, Japanese, Hawaiian, Filipino, union members, physically challenged, blind, or have some other status which is unpopular.

"As Congresswoman Pat Schroeder eloquently stated in referring to the last six words of our Pledge of Allegiance, 'With liberty and justice for all -- just what part of "all" don't we understand today?'

"Thank you."

Senator Koki rose to speak in favor of the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"I think sometimes too much education makes some people insane. Tyranny comes about when people go against the very meaning of words and their intent. We are being tyrannized by the courts. That is why we have prostitution in Waikiki, and that is why we have vendors in Waikiki.

"This is not an issue about civil rights. Black's and minorities have suffered economic hardship. They've been treated as second class -- in the back of the bus, separate bathrooms. None of this applies here in this case. There is no discrimination of that sort. There is no back of the bus. There is no lack of opportunity. In fact, their incomes exceed the median income of Hawaii and the rest of the nation. We cannot allow the courts to go beyond reasonableness in interpreting law and the very meaning of simple words and thereby create legislation. We have constitutional protection -- you cannot discriminate because of ancestry. It's in the Constitution. So, if a father wanted to marry his daughter, what happens? Is our law prohibiting this marriage unconstitutional? If you follow the court's logic, it is.

"Many studies have shown that the crisis in America is the direct result of the deteriorating family structure and values. Now is not the time to embark in a bold new experiment that will take us further along that road of deteriorating family values. And in the final analysis, I know most of you do not want to redefine marriage. Some of the resistance to H.B. 2312 is due to a desire for domestic partnership legislation. This is not the appropriate vehicle, or the time. Let's address the current problem and not confuse the bill with two subject matters.

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote 'yes.' Thank you."

Senator Levin then rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I may need a ruling. Is it in order to speak even though I don't have a quote from Thomas Jefferson? (Laughter. Chair: 'You may proceed.')

"I would like to thank the three prior democratic speakers for their eloquence. I think that they have very adequately set forth the issues and I'm not going to try to match them.

"I am rising to speak against the bill and I will be voting against the bill because I do not think it is properly balanced. I had taken the position that I understood people's desires to reserve the word 'marriage' for something ceremonial, traditional, unique, a union of a man and a woman, but my belief is that we should not be taking away civil rights which have been granted, virtually granted by the court in Baehr, take away those rights without a balanced bill. And a balanced bill, I believe, would have included the authorization of a registration of domestic partnerships. This bill does not do that. I am very disappointed that it does not.

"I hope that the Judiciary chair is correct that this is a beginning, not an end, and that we are being tolerant, not judgmental. But I'm not sure that we are being tolerant. I'm not sure that we are not being judgmental in this bill.

"I have a very difficult time distinguishing between the Loving decision in 1967, which said that inter-racial marriages cannot be prohibited. That base, I'm sure, sent shock waves not very long ago, 27 years ago only, throughout the South. It's difficult for any of us here to imagine that kind of situation, but it existed and it exists today where we have an Alabama principal telling mixed-race couples that they cannot attend a prom. The situation hasn't changed. And now we face a very, very similar issue with respect to same-sex couples.

"The other point that I want to make is on page 15 of the bill. We are actually taking an action which I think is, perhaps, unique among the United States. We are saying, under the section entitled 'Contracted without the State,' meaning contracted outside the State of Hawaii, that 'Marriages between a man and a woman legal in the country where contracted shall be held legal in the courts of this State.' That may well be interpreted to mean that if California, if Florida, if any other state decides to recognize same-sex marriages, that Hawaii still will not recognize those marriages which are recognized in those states. We were worried when the Baehr decision came out that other states might not afford Hawaii what's called 'full faith and credit,' with respect to the laws and decisions of our courts, when people are in other states. Undermining the 'full faith and credit' clause of the United States Constitution is a very serious issue. And I think it has gotten virtually no attention in this discussion. We are not being neutral in this bill, saying that we're limiting all marriages to a union of a man and a woman. We're saying that even if another state is willing to allow same-sex marriage, still we will not allow those unions to be recognized in our state. I thought that one of the main arguments against the Supreme Court decision was our fear of being unique.

"As much as we have tried to fashion this bill so it need not go to conference and so that there will not be further discussion on it, if it does wind up in conference, I'm hoping that at least that provision in particular can be looked at. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Baker rose in support of the measure and stated as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak on this measure, but with reservations.

"Mr. President, the issues raised by the Baehr vs. Lewin case have sparked some strong emotions and energized people who might otherwise not take part in the legislative process. Just the discussion on this issue alone has raised our collective consciousness, but at the same time the discussion has often been troubling because the rhetoric used by ardent supporters of this measure has often been mean-spirited, intolerant and sought to promote a minority religious view. It's important for me to note for the record that the Christian community, like the larger community, is not of one mind on this matter.

"As evidenced by the number of drafts that this bill has gone through and the discussion that we have had today, I would suggest that my colleagues are not of one mind on this matter, either. We all have many valid and legitimate reasons for the positions that we take. This bill is a compromise going neither as far as the proponents wanted, nor does it take the route preferred by the Baehr plaintiffs.

"This bill discarded the convoluted recitation of the so-called compelling state interests, which many of us found quite offensive and discriminatory. Instead, the bill states the Legislature's desire to deal with this controversial and divisive issue. It sets up a commission to examine the legal and economic benefits extended to opposite-sex couples, but not to same-sex couples, and asks for recommendations by 1995. I believe the commission's report will enable this Legislature to forge the consensus necessary to hopefully fashion a domestic partnership statute in a manner not possible in a judicial arena.

"While I recognize that there are many who desire to preserve the word 'marriage' for male-female unions, I do believe that it is necessary to recognize that different relationships exist, that they have validity, and should be accorded equal protection of the laws. I believe the current Senate version of H.B. 2312 sets up a process to do that, and to do it in a less divisive manner than that contemplated by the courts.

"Ultimately, the issue is not whether we like same-gender relationships. They exist alongside those of us in traditional and non-traditional marriages and relationships, as well as throughout our society. Gay people are contributing members of our community, and many of them have stable relationships with a loved one around which they wish to build a life. I believe that they are entitled to that same equality and even-handed treatment under the law that all of us have the right to expect.

"I believe that the commission contemplated in the bill can help us move towards that -- to secure for same-gender couples the major economic and legal benefits accruing from a civil marriage contract, such as survivorship rights, without disturbing the traditional view of marriage. I know this is a very difficult and complex issue about which there are strong feelings. By setting those emotions aside and viewing our differences with respect and tolerance, I believe we can bring resolution to this matter with fairness for all of our citizens. Thank you."

Senator Reed also rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this legislation.

"I would first like to commend the Judiciary chair for doing an exemplary job in shepherding this bill through the process. He exhibited a great deal of patience and perseverance and I think that it may not have made it, had there been another chairman involved. I applaud his effort. I also want to take a minute to applaud the efforts of the community at large. This issue generated a great deal of debate and a lot of faxing and phone calls and lobbying. A relative handful of those people are in the gallery on both sides of us today and they deserve a great deal of credit. I'm convinced that had it not been for public involvement in this issue, the bill would not have made it out of committee and would not be poised here for passage. And therefore, it is a testament to the democratic process that we're here to vote on this today.

"I would urge my colleagues to vote in support of this legislation -- first and foremost, because it is the right thing to do. It is absurd to grant special rights based on sexual behavior. It is offensive to equate homosexual behavior with ethnicity, as some members of this body and others have done in their attempt to make the homosexual campaign for minority status, and the special rights this nation affords minorities, comparable to the civil rights movement on behalf of Blacks and other legitimate minorities in our country.

"There are many former homosexuals in our community, although we don't often hear their message since the media doesn't like what former homosexuals have to say about the homosexual lifestyle, but there are no former Blacks. Homosexual behavior is not an immutable trait. Homosexuality is not a civil rights issue.

"Mr. President, the people who elected us, who pay our salaries and own the facilities that we use temporarily, want us to vote in support of traditional marriage and against homosexual marriage. Support for traditional marriage and opposition to same-sex marriage is not, as the previous speaker contends, coming from a religious minority. There's a high percentage of people in Hawaii who oppose same-sex marriage. This opposition is not borne of intolerance or, as the homosexuals would like the nation to believe, fear of homosexuality. Our community is extremely tolerant, but this tolerance does not equal acceptance. The people of Hawaii do not want government giving a stamp of approval, acceptance or a sanction to homosexuality.

"If this bill does not pass, the court is likely to approve same-sex marriage, making our state the only state in the nation where homosexuals can marry. And of course, this would have several impacts. Just to mention a couple, Hawaii would become known as the homosexual marriage capitol of the world.

"Mr. President, there are presently 23 states in our nation that still outlaw sodomy and this number is likely to go up, rather than down, in the future, as communities become more serious about combating the spread of AIDS. These states are not likely to recognize homosexual marriages legalized in Hawaii, and to avoid the appearance of discrimination, those states are likely to refuse to recognize any marriages performed in Hawaii.

"We need to consider the impact on schools, on the educational system. If this bill does not pass, the curriculum in our schools would have to be changed to teach our children that homosexuality is a completely acceptable, healthy, alternative lifestyle fully accepted by the people and government of Hawaii. This is not what most of Hawaii's people want their children taught.

"Because it is in the best interest of the people and future generations of Hawaii, I urge a 'yes' vote on this bill, a vote in support of traditional marriage and against the politically correct, but absurd proposal to grant special rights based on sexual behavior. Finally, I urge a 'yes' vote because that is the will of the people we are elected to represent.

"I would like to request, at the appropriate time, Mr. President, a roll call vote on this issue. Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling, rising to speak in favor of the measure, then added:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill and I would like the record to be clear that I am doing so for the reasons enunciated by the good Senator from Maui, rather than by the previous speaker, my colleague from Maui and the other Senator from the Island of Kauai. Thank you."

Senator Chang then rose and stated:

"Mr. President, in the debate about procurement reform during the 1993 legislative session, I discussed at length the doctrine of separation of powers, reading from the Federalist Papers and other excerpts from the literature of American governance. I will not reprise that discussion today, but instead request that my remarks contained in Miscellaneous Communication No. 4 be appertained to the record of the discussion about this bill."

The Chair granted the request and the document is identified as Exhibit "A."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

"Mr. President, I understand that my husband's name has been submitted by the Governor for consideration of an appointment to a seat on the Hawaii Paroling Authority. As this bill will increase the compensation of members of the authority, I ask the Chair for a conflict of interest ruling."

The Chair responded:

"Members of the Senate, pursuant to Senate Rule 71(2), the President finds that there is a monetary interest on the part of the Senator from the 1st Senatorial District and, in the question of a conflict of interest, the President will excuse the Senator from the 1st Senatorial District from voting on this matter."

"There was an article in the Star-Bulletin yesterday regarding my stance on smoking and whatever was said in the article is true. I want to put into the record that there is conclusive medical evidence that people who do not smoke but who inhale the smoke from the other cigarette smokers are being exposed to harmful levels of carcinogens. It is now a health issue. Non-smoking people should not be exposed to carcinogens such as the tobacco smoke. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2918 was adopted and H.B. No. 2192, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SMOKING," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Grauly, in support of the measure, said:

"Mr. President, this bill presents an important policy question for the Legislature to consider and the question is: 'Does the collateral penalty of a 500-600% increase in insurance premium rates for first-time DUI offense kick in at the conclusion of the administrative revocation process, or should these increases occur upon conviction by a court of law?' Your Committee on Judiciary believes it should be the latter. Unfortunately, a technical error in the bill does not make the policy question clear.

"There is a second issue relating to the 'Catch 22' drivers caught without no-fault insurance find themselves in. They are unable to get the SR-22 proof of financial responsibility unless they show they have no-fault coverage and they are unable to show no-fault coverage unless they have the SR-22. All those testifying before the committee supported the removal of this 'Catch-22' situation.

"I would like the Senate to allow the policy issues to be addressed in conference with the House, and should the House support these policy changes, I will come back a final time for the Senate to deliberate fully on these policy issues with the corrected language in place.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2919 was adopted and H.B. No. 3491, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Chang rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, many people assume that my field of study in college was Chinese literature or fashion design or some other equally artistic endeavor. The truth is that my major was in accounting and, as much as I hold dear the training that was provided to me, there are some concerns about this proposal that need to be resolved. I do hope that there will be some further discussion of this matter, perhaps in the conference committee, and the wrinkles ironed out at that time. Thank you."

Senator Iwase, in response to the previous speaker, remarked:

"Mr. President, having observed Senator Chang's dress for the last three years, there's no doubt in my mind that he studied public accounting. Thank you." (Laughter.)

Senator Matsunaga also responded, as follows:

"Mr. President, after hearing our Majority Floor Leader and being a fellow accounting major, I want to say that he does much for our reputation." (Laughter.)

Senator Ikeda then rose to speak on the measure, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill but with some reservations.

"There is no doubt that freeing up the acute-care beds from use by patients in need of long-term care will be cost effective and that, indeed, hospitals will become more profitable if this is done. However, this is one area where cost effectiveness could result in a reduced standard of care for those affected, and we must guard against this happening.

"I would, therefore, like to submit into the record a letter which I received from Dr. John Lewin, director of the Department of Health. This letter assures us that 'necessary safeguards have been taken to protect the health and welfare of the recipients of service' and that a criteria and adequate standards for all types of providers of care will be developed and adhered to.

"It is only with these assurances that I vote in favor of this bill. Thank you."

The Chair so ordered and the letter from Dr. John Lewin dated April 7, 1994, is identified as Exhibit "B."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2961 was adopted and H.B. No. 1332, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADULT RESIDENTIAL CARE HOMES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Matsuura, in support of the measure, stated:

"Mr. President, speaking in favor of this bill, I just want to make a few comments.

"On H.B. 3300, I want to caution this body that the definition of the 'professional' is being expanded to include an additional 150 professional groups, one of which is the computer specialist. What this amendment does is, it makes it easier for these professionals to get a sole-source bid. When we go into conference, we need to make sure that including these 150 additional professionals do not in any way create any procurement abuse in the future.

"This bill also calls for an interim rules and regs. Our procurement code today was patterned after the American Bar Association Model Code. The American Bar Association also has model rules and regulations that go with the model code, so we should try to follow that or use that as a guideline in establishing our rules and regs regarding the procurement code.

"With that, I urge the members to vote in favor of this bill. Thank you."

Senator A. Kobayashi, speaking on the measure, said:

"Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of the bill, however with reservations.

"I have the same reservations as the previous speaker. I think, adding 150 more services into the definition of professional services allows that many more people to qualify for sole-source contracts. I just hope that we'll be cognizant of that fact. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2962 was adopted and H.B. No. 2391, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

At 1:31 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

"Mr. President, I'd like to request a ruling on a possible conflict of interest. I'm an employee of the Boys and Girls Club of Honolulu."

The Chair ruled that Senator Kanno was not in conflict.

Senator Ikeda then spoke in support of the measure, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President, this year your Committee on Ways and Means decided to embark on a new course in developing the budget. Before the introduction of the administrative supplemental budget, your committee went out into the community to hear the concerns of the people. Traveling to the neighbor islands, we sought to insure that the budget before you is truly a people's budget.

"Again and again we heard the same concerns. The people of Hawaii consistently expressed a desire for their Legislature to address the education of our children. We listened intently. We heard the success stories of parents and communities working together to make our schools a better place. We also listened with heavy hearts of needs yet to be met.

"As we traveled about the state, we also heard a demand for greater accountability on the part of government for its spending and for the state to use its resources more efficiently. Carrying this message from the people, we then set out to work on the supplemental budget. In the end, the Senate version provides for a $5.2 billion operating budget, with the sum of $3.1 billion appropriated from general funds. After careful review of the administration's budget, your committee worked diligently with your subject matter committees to produce a Senate budget that expresses the will of the people. With this, I would like to take a moment to emphasize the areas addressed in our version of the supplemental budget.

"Education is our top priority this year. Your committee set out to construct a budget that reflected concern, accountability and pragmatism. The budget was crafted to meet immediate needs of the department and, through additional funds, encourage the development of programs that effectively utilized the funds that were provided. In all, approximately $7 million has been added to the current year's budget to meet the needs of our children.

"An example of your committee's attempts at efficiency and accountability in the area of education can be seen in the provision of funds for a systems analyst in the Department of Education. With the position, we will have spared both the department and the schools from many hours of compiling reports for legislative review. In the coming years, legislative analysts will have the ability to review and access information directly from the department's computer files. We hope that such processes will serve to enhance the working relationship between the Department of Education and the Legislature.

"Your committee is showing its commitment to education by providing over $2.5 million for textbooks and equipment, over $300,000 for cafeteria equipment, and over $500,000 for vice principals to assist in the effective administration of our schools. We were not satisfied to stop at this juncture. An additional $1 million is being provided to the innovation and incentive grant fund to encourage educational innovation at the school level. As you can see, Mr. President, we are providing additional funds, but these funds go a long way towards improving the education of our children, and are in keeping with our pledge to government efficiency.

"Mr. President, another concern which was expressed consistently in our discussions with the community was that schools were not receiving the resources they so desperately needed. In these times we must use our resources with discretion and careful consideration. With this in mind, your committee has appropriated over $650,000 for the parent/community networking centers program. Also, your committee has recommended passage of H.B. 3657 to address this issue by providing a mechanism for more accountability, increase resources, and greater flexibility at the school level.

"In the area of government spending, we have made a serious attempt to right-size government. As an example of this end, the total supplemental request to the Legislature was $36 million. After adjustments this draft reflects a net increase of only $11 million, amounting to a reduction of $25 million. These reductions reflect amounts in fixed costs such as debt service payments and the state's share of payments in the health fund. This is but a first step toward reflecting a true picture of actual anticipated expenditures and an accurate provision for actual costs. Along with these adjustments, there are several programs that have been right-sized and we have addressed a number of exempt positions to check the growth of government.

"I would like to express my sincere thanks to the subject matter chairs and their committees for their cooperation, as well as to the members of the Ways and Means Committee for their help and support, as we look toward deliberating the merits of this bill with our counterparts in the House.

"Mr. President, we have listened to the wishes of the people, and we have taken their concerns to heart. With this, I urge all members to vote in favor of this measure."

Senator McCartney spoke in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I too would like to rise in favor of H.B. 2500 and thank the Ways and Means chairperson and the Ways and Means staff for working so hard on education. I think this year we can truly say that the budget reflects a priority in education, not only in putting more money into the system, but also setting up an accountability system for how that money is spent.

"As you know, Mr. President, the auditor just provided a report a few days ago on the amount of money we are spending on public education. And if you take the amount of money that we are providing to education directly and through other departments, we are providing over 32 percent of the general fund, over general fund revenues, to public education. And the challenge for us in education in the future is, how do we use that money more efficiently and effectively? How do we get it to the schools and not to the bureaucracy to insure that the people most responsible for achieving student learning have the resources available?

"In H.B. 3657, the education omnibus bill, along with the education budget, there are mechanisms within those bills that you have recommended, along with the Ways and Means chair, which promote greater school autonomy, responsibility and accountability to empower schools.

"Finally, Mr. President, I'd like to insert into the Journal, if I may, with your permission, a memorandum submitted by the Legislative Auditor on April 11, 1994, looking at the budget and where money is going. As you know, last year your Ways and Means Committee along with the Education Committee re-formatted the education budget. We put in some provisos to restrict where money goes and we said money must go and stay within school budgets, unless absolutely necessary to be moved.

"Mr. President, one of the findings of the Legislative Auditor states that 'the DOE did not comply with legislative intent and statutory requirements when it transferred funds among program appropriations. It diverted $2.8 million from school and students and added $2.2 to state and district offices' administrative costs.' I believe that the legislation we have moving forward and the budget act will take care of this once and for all and will make sure that the money that we appropriate, and the taxpayers of Hawaii worked so hard to earn, will go directly to schools and will achieve greater accountability of the educational system. Thank you."

The Chair then granted Senator McCartney his request to insert into the Journal a memorandum from the Legislative Auditor dated April 11, 1994. The document is identified as Exhibit "C."

Senator Holt, also in support of the measure, said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"I'd like to thank the chairperson and staff of the Ways and Means Committee for their excellent work on the budget. In particular, I'd like to express my deep gratitude to the chairperson of the committee for her sensitivity to people's concerns and for her accessibility by going out into the community -- as you know, it's the first time a Ways and Means Committee ever went to the neighbor islands -- and most importantly, for her tenaciousness in dealing with an experienced administration and the unlimited staff and resources that they bring. There's no question about a separation of powers issue regarding the budget, and no question about the independence of this body. Thank you."

Senator Chang then added his support for the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I'm speaking for the measure.

"Mr. President, with regard to accessibility, I've been asked by the West Hawaii Committee (which is centered, I believe, in Kailua-Kona and is represented by Senator Solomon and Senator Levin) to extend their deep appreciation to the chairperson of the Ways and Means Committee and the members of the committee for taking the time to reach out to communities directly and hear about concerns and issues within the affected communities. I wanted to insert that into the record. Thank you."

Senator Gaulty also spoke on the measure and remarked:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of the bill.

"I just wanted to take this opportunity to thank the chairperson of the Ways and Means Committee for all the many courtesies she has extended to me and the Judiciary Committee as we deliberated on some very difficult budget issues. She was always accessible and always helpful to me and the committee and I sincerely appreciate the help that she has extended to us. Thank you."

Senator George, also for the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I would be remiss if I did not express the minority's gratitude to the chairperson of the Ways and Means Committee for her even-handed treatment of the minority in its wishes. Thank you."

Senator Tungpalan, also spoke for the measure, and stated:

"Mr. President, I also rise in support of this measure and I'd like to extend my support for the chair's efforts to recognize that education really doesn't stop at the 12th grade. It continues on throughout life and especially at our higher education institutions. Her support was evident in this budget and I want to thank her. For the first time, we're not looking at a minus. Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling, in favor of the measure, said:

"Mr. President, I promised Senator Ikeda I wouldn't say anything because I'm sure she and others here are anxious to leave, but, on behalf of the people of Kauai and others here that I think feel the same way, I'd like to say thank you. We would like to say thank you. It's been quite a refreshing experience for us who have been members of this body (myself for 12 years) to sit on a committee this year, a very important committee, and to be allowed the extent that was allowed us in the process of decision-making on various bills and also on budget items. Thank you, Madam Chair, Mr. President."

Senator Baker added her support of the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I too rise in support of this measure.

"I feel it necessary to give voice to the sentiments of my constituents from Moloka'i to the chair of the Senate Ways and Means Committee, to thank her for coming to the island and for taking so many of their concerns to heart. Moloka'i often feels that they get lost in the rest of the Maui County. Oftentimes, we go to the major island of Maui and forget about Moloka'i and Lana'i. But the needs of these communities are not left out in this budget and I do appreciate it on their behalf. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 2500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Chang then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, in reference to the point of personal privilege raised by the Senator from Maui in regard to press access to the chamber floor, I am reporting that discussions have commenced with the president of the Capitol Correspondents Association. We are reviewing the by-laws of the association and the different sources and forms of credentials possessed by the members of the association. I will report further developments as they occur."

Senator Reed responded:

"Mr. President, I would like to thank the Majority Floor Leader for being responsive in acting on my concern relative to restricting lobbyists' access to the floor."

ADJOURNMENT

At 1:57 o'clock p.m., on motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Reed and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Wednesday, April 13, 1994.

Sir:

RE: H.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1

I dissent from Standing Committee Report Number (SCR NO.) 2777 of the Committee on Judiciary, on House Bill 2312, S.D. 1, entitled, "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE".

I concur with the majority of the Committee that the bill pass Second Reading; however, I do not join the majority report in rebuking the Hawaii Supreme Court for engaging inappropriately in public policy-making.

The power of courts to review the constitutionality of legislative and executive action, commonly called the power of "judicial review", constantly involves courts in the evaluation of policy choices.

While I agree that there must be judicial deference to legislative choices, those choices suggesting prejudice against minorities in society must be subjected to close analysis in order to preserve the values of equality and liberty.

There is insufficient information for the committee to conclude that the Hawaii Supreme Court, in its application of strict scrutiny, improperly entered into public policy analysis, supplanted the role of the legislature, encroached on legislative functions, expressed disrespect due to a coordinate branch of government, or violated the principle of separation of powers.

If the committee wishes to invite judicial restraint, I believe that proper citation to legal points and authorities would be more persuasive.

MISC. COMM. NO. 4

Page 2

Having chosen to advocate judicial restraint, the report (as does the bill) merely restates the history and nature of the suspect statute without providing the state interest that the court would otherwise require in its strictest scrutiny. I have no quarrel with that approach, inasmuch as the court will ultimately determine the level of analysis that it will apply.

However, the bill does provide for a studied inquiry into this subject that may provide the basis for informed judgments and choices, and for this reason I will vote for the bill despite its orientation and regardless of the report with which I differ.

I therefore concur with the recommendation that H.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Senator Ikeda:

RE: The Assurance of Quality for the Maluhia Hospital Waitlist
Project as Requested (SB 2692)

The following information requested by your staff, Terrence Aratani and Mark Buflo, is to provide written assurances regarding the delivery of quality care to recipients that would be enrolled in the proposed Maluhia Hospital Waitlist Demonstration Project (SB 2692).

The proposed Maluhia Hospital Waitlist Waiver Project has prepared both state and federal assurances for the health and safety of all of project clients. Both the U.S. Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) and the state Medicaid Program (DHS/HCAD) require certain assurances to protect the clients for the waiver to be granted and continued.

Assurances to the Federal Government (HCFA):

In order to obtain federal approval from HCFA, the state's Medicaid program is required and has provided written assurance in the form of the following statement and attachment that is found in the project's proposal to HCFA:

"The state of Hawaii assures HCFA that necessary safeguards have been taken to protect the health and welfare of the recipients of the services. These safeguards include adequate standards for all types of providers that provide services under the waiver." See also Attachment A which is from pages 13-15 of the Project's proposal.

The Honorable Donna Ikeda

As stated to HCFA, Maluhia will screen care home operators and select only those eligible based on a set of criteria. In addition, the project will provide case management to the operators, intensive ongoing monitoring of their care of clients by the Project professional clinical staff to assure health and safety requirements are met.

Assurances to the State of Hawaii:

The proposed project will fall under the direction of Maluhia Home Health Care Agency, a section of Maluhia Long-term Care Health Center, Division of Community Hospitals, Department of Health. The Maluhia Home Health Agency is a licensed home health agency that is regularly monitored by the Hospitals and Medical Facilities Branch (Licensing) of the State Department of Health and certified by Medicare. Within the Maluhia Home Health Agency, quality is continuously reviewed and maintained. Its home health care services must be in compliance with Federal, State and local laws and regulations in addition to the professional standards of medicine, nursing, social work, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy and the like. There is a Quality Assurance Committee chaired by a physician that reviews all home health patient related activities on a quarterly basis. The Maluhia Hospital Waitlist Project will abide by those same standards that have already been approved by the Medicare and the Hospital and Medical Facilities Branch of the Department of Health.

Additional Assurances and Monitoring Plans:

Maluhia has also obtained sample copies of administrative rules developed and implemented in at least 6 states. The HCFA's Region IX office in San Francisco and its headquarters in Baltimore, Maryland have been supportive in placing Maluhia in touch with the other states that have already received Medicaid waivers for this type of project.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Honorable Mike McCartney, Chair
Senate Committee on Education

FROM: Marion M. Higa, State Auditor Marion

SUBJECT: Transfers in the Department of Education's Appropriations

This memorandum responds to a request from the Senate and House education committee chairs that the state Auditor review and assess whether transfers among program appropriations made by the Department of Education (DOE) in FY1993-94 complied with legislative intent and Act 289, the 1993 General Appropriations Act. The Auditor was also asked to review expenditures made from the State Educational Facilities Improvement Special Fund and to assess whether the fund has been used for unauthorized projects.

Summary of Findings

1. The DOE did not comply with legislative intent and statutory requirements when it transferred funds among program appropriations. It diverted $2.8 million from schools and students and added $2.2 million to state and district administrative costs.
2. Expenditures from the Educational Facilities Special Fund appear to have been authorized but the operations of the fund are a cause for concern. The fund has yet to fulfill its purpose of meeting DOE construction needs.

Program Appropriations for 1993-95

The 1993 Legislature sought to increase the authority of schools over their budgets and expenditures. To increase flexibility, the Legislature appropriated funds for the public school system into five large programs (called EDNs) instead of the former 17. The five programs are as follows:

EDN 100--School Based Budgeting includes funding for school level instruction, management, and most services in regular and special schools, as well as special education, compensatory programs, school administration, instructional media, counseling, student services, and safety and security services.

EDN 200--Instructional Support includes assessing student needs and teaching techniques; planning, developing, and monitoring curricula; technical and consultative services to schools; psychological assessment and educational evaluation services.

- EDN 300--State and District Administration includes all administrative functions such as statewide planning, budgeting, personnel management, information processing, communications; and public relations.
- EDN 400--School Support includes food services and physical plant operation and maintenance.
- EDN 500--School Community Service includes adult education and the After-School Plus (A+) program.

The Legislature appropriated $800 million to these five program categories. To emphasize its concern that funds reach schools and students, it appropriated 75 percent of all appropriations to EDN 100 for school based budgeting.

The Legislature attempted to balance the DOE's need for flexibility with its concern that funds in fact reach the schools. It created large EDN program categories and gave the DOE the authority to determine how funds are to be spent within each EDN. In Section 78 of the 1993 General Appropriations Act, it also authorized the DOE to transfer funds from EDN 100 to the other program categories. At the same time it restricted the transfers from EDN 100 to those only for "directly related school/student services." The proviso also required the DOE to follow legislative intent and the budget worksheets in executing the programs.

Transfers Made

The DOE made three transfers totaling $3.8 million from EDN 100. It said that these funds were transferred from $10 million that the Legislature had appropriated to EDN 100 to accommodate the priority needs of the department. It made one transfer from EDN 400 to EDN 300 of $2.2 million. Exhibit 1 shows these transfers.

- Transfer 1 shifted $1.2 million from EDN 100 to EDN 200 for teacher training;
- Transfer 2 shifted $1.7 million from EDN 100 to EDN 500 for the A+ program and adult education;
- Transfer 3 shifted $922,000 to the Department of Public Safety for night security services.
- Transfer 4 shifted $2.2 million from EDN 400 to EDN 300 for workload increases such as criminal history checks.

DOE Reasons for Transfers

The department presented various justifications at various times for the transfers. The reasons given were not always consistent with each other and with legislative intent. On different occasions, the DOE attributed the transfers to new budget program categories, erroneous appropriations, budget shortfalls, and excess funds.

Exhibit 1
TRANSFERS AMONG PROGRAM APPROPRIATIONS

Legend

1. $1,178,581 from EDN 100 to EDN 200 for teacher training.
2. $1,652,859 from EDN 100 to EDN 500 for A+, Adult Education.
3. $922,267 to the Department of Public Safety for night security services.
4. $2,183,548 from EDN 400 to EDN 300 to cover workload increase requirements, such as criminal history checks, special education re-certification, statistical services, records management, internal audit, etc.

- A first reason was appropriations to the wrong program categories. In a memorandum to the Director of Finance, the Superintendent requested approval of the transfer of funds by stating that the Legislature had added $10 million to EDN 100 instead of appropriating the funds to the programs where the funds were needed. The Superintendent said that the DOE had explained to the Legislature that some of the funds were in the wrong EDN but the Legislature had responded that the DOE could transfer funds from EDN 100 when the budget was executed.
- In a December 1993 report on the transfers, the DOE gave a similar reason for the transfer that the Legislature had appropriated $10 million to EDN 100 instead of to the programs where the funds were needed and that changes had been made in the program structure. It also added that excess funds had been generated in the school food services program through increased school lunch fees.
- In a January 1994 report on the transfers to the Chair of the House education committee, the DOE added a third explanation--that the transfers were being made because the appropriated budget left the DOE short by $8.8 million.

It is probably true that the DOE was experiencing a budget shortfall. However, it is not true that the Legislature had appropriated funds to the wrong EDNs since the programs to which the funds were transferred had already been budgeted for in the other EDNs. Teacher training is budgeted for in EDN 200 and A+ is budgeted for in EDN 500.

Transfers Not in Compliance With Legislative Intent

We believe these transfers, except for the transfer to PSD, violated the spirit and intent of the legislative proviso since the transfers failed to follow the budget worksheets and were not directly related to schools and student services.

The transfer of $922,000 to the Department of Public Safety (PSD) for night security guards was warranted due to an oversight. Act 146, SLH 1992, transferred the responsibility for security contracts from the DOE to PSD effective January 1, 1993. However, safety and security services continued to be budgeted for under EDN 100. The DOE had to transfer from EDN 100 to PSD the 1993-94 funds for night security services. We note that in the 1994-95 DOE budget funds for night security continue to be in EDN 100. The 1994 Legislature should appropriate these funds to PSD so that the DOE will not have to transfer these funds to PSD again at the start of the 1994-95 fiscal year.

The first two transfers from school level programs--$1.2 million for teacher training, and $1.7 million for the A+ program and adult education--were not warranted and did not meet the legislative intent specified in the budget worksheets. The worksheets show that the Legislature appropriated $10 million into EDN 100 for DOE priority needs. The education chairs said that this appropriation was intended for EDN 100 program needs. The department did not comply with the legislative instruction that the budget worksheets be followed when it transferred about a third of the $10 million appropriation into other program categories.

While it could be argued that the transfers were for "priority needs," and ultimately would affect students, they were nevertheless supplements to programs that were budgeted elsewhere and thus not in "School-Based Budgeting," the title of EDN 100. We do not believe that they are the priority needs of students and schools.

In the fourth transfer, the DOE shifted $2.2 million from the school lunch program which is supported by general funds, federal funds and meal fees paid by students and staff. The school lunch program operated for many years without an increase in the price of meals. The 1993 Legislature authorized an increase in the school lunch fees from 45 cents to 75 cents to set meal prices in proportion to the actual costs and to provide additional support for the program. The increased lunch fees reduced the need for general fund support and allowed the DOE to transfer $2.2 million from EDN 400 to EDN 300 for state and district administrative costs. The objectives of the school lunch program are different from those of school and district administration. Consequently, this transfer does not meet the criteria in Section 37-74 (d), HRS that allows the DOE to transfer funds among programs with the same or similar objectives.

Furthermore, adding funds to EDN 300 for administrative costs also violated the Legislature's intent to shrink the administrative cost segment of the budget. In discussing the budget bill, the chair of the House education committee noted that "EDN 300 refers to the dreaded state and district administration. This is the part of the budget I think that all of us will agree we need to manage and shrink and try to reallocate funding from this area into the school system and other segments of the budget." The intent was to restructure the budget to put children first and enhance the concept of school-based budgeting. Instead of shrinking EDN 300, the DOE continued to expand it.

Effects of Transfers

We were not able to determine the effects of $6 million in transfers on the programs that lost the funds. The DOE was not able to identify what the funds would have been used for had they remained in their original EDNs. Nor can the department identify which specific subprograms or schools benefitted by the transfers out of EDN 100 and EDN 400.

Exhibit 2 shows the effects of the transfers on the relative distribution and percentages of funds available for each of the program categories. While the percentages remain more or less the same for each of the program categories, it can be seen that the transfers benefitted non-school based programs at the expense of school based programs. While a drop of .4 percent in EDN 100 appears to be small, the reduction of over $3.75 million in funds available to schools means that each school had $15,640 less for its own needs. This should be of concern at a time when teachers complain that they have to buy supplies out of their own pockets.

Conclusion

When the DOE transfers out of School Based Budgeting a third of the $10 million that the Legislature had intended for priority school needs, the Legislature must give thought to the kind of language it needs to include in appropriations acts and/or statute to ensure that legislative intent will be honored. To ensure that the DOE honors legislative intent to use funds appropriated for school based budgeting for schools, the Legislature should prohibit transfers out of EDN 100 to other programs.

Operations of School Facilities Special Fund Is A Cause for Concern

The School Facilities Improvement Special Fund was established in 1989 to ensure that the facilities needs of the DOE are met. The Legislature believed that by (1) setting aside $90 million per year in excise tax revenues for seven years and (2) spending $80 million each year and (3) investing $10 million, the fund would pay for $800 million of school construction over a ten year period. For the first three years, the Legislature authorized $90 million in cash to be deposited into this fund. However, in light of falling state revenues, in 1992 the Legislature changed the means of financing from cash to general obligation bonds. We are currently in the fifth year of the program and the second year of bond financing. It appears that progress in the DOE's capital improvement projects (CIP) program remains slow and the problem is not due to the lack of money.

Since 1989 and through the current year, the Legislature has authorized $450 million in CIP projects for the DOE. The DOE, however, has been able to spend an average of only $55 million per year. As of December 31, 1993, the DOE had spent less than half of the five years' accumulated authorization, or $219 million. Or, put another way, in this fifth year of the program DOE is spending the funds of the third year.

Responsibility for the school construction program is shared between the DOE and the Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS)--DAGS carries out the projects selected by the DOE. Both departments acknowledge that spending was slow during the first two years because much of the effort was spent on the lower-cost activities of planning and design. The agencies maintain that once a project enters the construction phase, spending accelerates. However, whether DOE and DAGS can manage to spend up to the authorized $90 million per year, plus the prior years' accumulated funds, remains to be seen.

Meanwhile, the Legislature should be particularly concerned about bond funds sitting unused while the State pays interest on the borrowing. For the fourth and fifth years of the special fund, the Legislature switched from cash financing to bond financing. In 1992 and 1993, despite the fact that the cash balances in the fund were greater than DOE's and DAGS' capacity to spend, the Department of Budget and Finance sold $90 million in bonds each year. The funds were borrowed and deposited in the special fund. Especially disturbing is the fact that B&F sold bonds from the FY93-94 authorization in September 1993 when all of the borrowed funds from the previous year had not yet been spent. Without a significant step-up in the pace of school construction, the balance in the fund will continue to be comprised of borrowed money not in use.

DAGS and DOE contend that various roadblocks delay their ability to spend $90 million each year--including problems with sites, county permitting procedures, and litigation. The two departments, however, are looking for a solution to this problem that is specious and unrelated to the cause of the slow CIP progress.

At a hearing of the joint education committee on March 9, 1994, the DOE requested legislative consideration of an increase in the annual appropriation made to the School Facilities Fund to $140 million each year. The DOE claimed that this would give the department the flexibility to move monies which were not "authorized" for specific projects to other projects which fell short of funds. Officials assured the joint committee that they would not actually spend more than $90 million each year. To address the DOE's concern, the Tax Foundation suggested that the Legislature appropriate the CIP projects in a Part A/Part B pattern--that those in Part A totaling $90 million be given priority, but should roadblocks arise, the departments would be allowed to switch to Part B projects.

While we understand the frustration of the DOE and DAGS with what they perceive to be unanticipated roadblocks, the two departments have yet to make clear whether the $140 million or the $90 million would apply against the State's debt limit, how the executive and legislative branches would develop their spending plans, how the allotment process would be affected (that is, how B&F releases funds for specific projects), and how this would speed up the CIP program.

More importantly, we believe this "solution" is misdirected. The DOE, like the other executive agencies, requests funds for each project in its entirety, including funds for planning, design, and construction. When the State reformed its budget process in 1970, appropriations for CIP were intended to be made in phases to coincide with the times when each project needed funds. The Legislature was supposed to be presented with planning, design, land acquisition, construction, and equipment costs separately and in phases. This would enable the Legislature to judge, for example, after obtaining the plans, whether a project should proceed. Or, after learning of the planned design, the Legislature might conclude that a project in its entirety would be too costly. In over 20 years, however, the executive branch has consistently presented CIP requests as whole cost packages. When the entire cost of each project is included in a request for authorization, the result is that fewer projects are authorized for the same $90 million. If the DOE were to request funds in phases, it would be better able to execute a realistic, timely CIP program. This would also help reduce underestimated project costs because construction estimates would be made at appropriate times rather than at the planning phase.

DOE officials have also proposed that the school construction program be transferred from DAGS to DOE. Under the current division of responsibilities, DOE selects the projects and gives DAGS its priorities for implementation. DOE appears to believe that it could implement the construction program more capably. This proposal needs a great deal more analysis before any legislative commitment is given. For example, the Legislature needs to consider the effect of such a transfer on DOE's practice of filling technical support positions with principals. Also, the impact on DAGS' workload and functions should be considered.

We examined the specific question of whether the Facilities Special Fund was used for unauthorized projects. Our review of expenditures made from this fund did not indicate that such was the case. In some cases, nominal funds were used from this fund to cover shortfalls for projects authorized prior to the inception of the fund.

"Mr. President, it is with great pleasure that I call to the attention of my colleagues the latest issue of Life magazine, which talks about the best places to visit in 1994, because the Island of Moloka'i is featured very prominently in this issue. They refer to the island as representing 'the illusive Hawai'i of our dreams' and call it 'Angel Isle.'

"I think, in light of this very beautiful article in the magazine, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of my colleagues who have deliberated on a variety of bills affecting Moloka'i, not only to help tourism, but also to help keep it 'the illusive Hawai'i of our dreams.' Mahalo."

Senator Solomon also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I also rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I have an inquiry concerning the recent report of the legislative auditor which exposed an illegal diversion of funds by the Department of Education, from the area of educational support mandated by the Legislature in its appropriation, to the area of administration expenses.

"Mr. President, it is essential to the workings of our system of checks and balances that the executive branch strictly follow the expressed intent of the branch of government charged with the power of the purse -- the legislative branch. In this case, the appropriation was to the Department of Education with the specific proviso that the department follow the legislative intent as clearly expressed in the budget legislation. The Department of Education has ignored that express intent. Some person, or persons, in the Department of Education is, or are, responsible for the illegal diversion of $2.2 million and must be held accountable by this Legislature.

"Mr. President, as we have discussed, I will be scheduling a leadership meeting early next week to determine and undertake the proper and suitable action to be taken by us this session.

"Thank you very much."

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 3006 (Gov. Msg. No. 163):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 3006 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DONALD M. TAKAKI to the Convention Center Authority, term to expire June 30, 1996, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of all of the nominees, as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I'd like to thank these individuals whose names are before us today. They volunteer their time and effort, and their willingness to serve is greatly appreciated.

"I urge confirmation of all of these fine individuals. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose to speak against the nominee, Donald Takaki, as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm going to vote 'no' on Com. Rep. No. 3006 on Donald M. Takaki to the Convention Center Authority.

"I want to explain why I'm voting 'no' on this nomination. I find it very difficult to speak against anyone, especially a personal friend, when their service is a labor of love. I've had a hard time trying to decide whether I should vote 'aye' or 'no' on this nomination, but I thought I should at least explain my negative vote.

"When Mr. Takaki came for the confirmation hearing, I asked him if he had any knowledge of the previous sales of the Aloha Motors site and he said no, he didn't. I had done some investigation looking at the previous sale and I found out that there were five corporations that were involved in the previous sales. These are Japanese companies. I found out that two people, Yukio Sato and Toshiyuki Sato, were on the board of directors of all five corporations. It appears, from the transaction of the sales, that these corporations were selling the property to each other, the same people.

"I had a difficult time tracing the sales price which they paid for the land. The only way I could figure out the exact amount that they sold the property, or bought the property from each other, was to examine the conveyance tax and work backwards. I found out that there was a capital gains tax to be paid in 1988. One corporation made a $22 million capital gains in a matter of ten months. I wanted to find out whether or not that corporation had paid the capital gains tax. This land transaction occurred in Hawaii so they had to pay, by law, the capital gains tax to the State of Hawaii.

"I wrote to the principals for the tax information over a month ago, and they have not responded to me. I am assuming that they may not have paid the capital gains tax.

"The Aloha Motors site appraisal that was done by the state was valued at $120 million. The state paid $136 million for the land. I think it's common knowledge among all the business people and the financial people in Hawaii that Mitsui Bank did not have the money to build whatever Sukanto was planning to build or had permits to build. During this period of negotiation, the Waikoloa property on the Big Island, which had a construction cost of over $350 million, was being sold for less than $100 million. The Japanese banks were taking a tremendous loss.

"The Japanese bank also had the property at the Kapiolani bowling alley, right next to the Blaisdell Center. And there also, the bank took a tremendous loss. They lost maybe 60 cents for every dollar invested. Having knowledge that Mr. Sukanto did not have the financing, and with an appraisal of $120 million, and having the golf course as an alternative site, paying $16 million more than the appraised value is very difficult for me to understand and accept.

"The reason for these increases in land value is that the corporations were selling it to each other. The question I asked of the chairman was, 'Why didn't you check the previous sales transaction?' If I am going to buy a property for $120,000, I'm going to want to find out from the person that I'm buying from, when did he buy it and how much did he buy it for. I would at least look into that. Surprisingly, none of this investigation was done during the 60 days of due diligence, period. I also asked the chairman, 'Who was in the state negotiation team for the property?' And he said, 'himself, Mr. Harold Matsumoto and a private lawyer.' I said, 'Why Harold Matsumoto? Why didn't you include Mufi Hannemann also, because he is more directly involved with the convention center than anybody else?' And I said, 'What about Mr. Alan Hayashi, because he is the full-time, paid, executive director of the Convention Center Authority, why didn't you bring him into the negotiation?'

"I'll be honest with you. I personally feel that the state paid too much for the Aloha Motors site. That's my basic problem because the Convention Center Authority didn't do the due diligence of checking the previous sales, and the negotiation was done pretty much by one person from the authority, with the other members really not being involved. It is common knowledge that the Mitsui Bank would never have loaned Mr. Sukanto the money to build his project. Everybody in the State of Hawaii who has any knowledge of real estate will tell you that the state paid too much.

"Now that the land deal is done, I think it's time, knowing that we have placed a cap of $350 million of which we have already spent 136, we should have another chairperson take over so that there'll be no question of any impropriety. I'm not accusing Mr. Takaki of anything. Be assured that I'm not blaming him for anything. Mr. Takaki has done his best.

"A lot of this information, I got in one day. It was not difficult to obtain this information, it was something very simple. So, for that very reason, I'm going to vote 'no' only on Mr. Takaki's confirmation. The other person is all right. Thank you."

Senator Holt then rose in support of Donald Takaki, as follows:

"Mr. President, very briefly, speaking in support of Mr. Takaki to the Convention Center Authority.

"Just for the members' information and clarification and to also speak in support of Mr. Takaki's integrity, my understanding was that, yes, it's true that the state's assessed appraisal was $120 million. The City and County of Honolulu's tax assessed value of the Aloha Motors property of $136 million, I believe, is what the Authority, not just Don Takaki, but the entire Authority including Alton Kuiuoka, (who we're voting on today) made the decision on getting an agreement with the Aloha Motors people -- just for the members' information."

Senate Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
No. 47	Jointly to the Committee on Agriculture and the Committee on Education
No. 108	Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Judiciary
No. 153	Committee on Ways and Means
No. 258	Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Judiciary

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

The President re-referred the following Senate resolutions that were offered:

Senate Resolution	Referred to:
No. 38	Jointly to the Committee on Agriculture and the Committee on Education
No. 117	Committee on Ways and Means
No. 209	Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations, Environmental Protection and Hawaiian Programs and the Committee on Judiciary

Senator Fernandes Salling rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This is in respect to the editorial that appeared in this morning's Advertiser (which I was very glad to see, by the way) talking about how we are giving a shot in the arm to our airports. It also gives me the opportunity to add my comments to the article. One media phone call which my office received, and I got later in the day, did not afford me the kind of time to respond, so I'm going to take the opportunity to add those comments now, because we do have to clarify some misunderstandings out there in the public, which Senator Ikeda alluded to.

"We're getting some calls from people saying, 'why can't we use those monies to pay for raises?' This is the confusion that always exists with respect to special fund monies and general fund monies. To make it clear, the $22 million that we are using for CIP this fiscal year for our airports, comes out of the airports special fund. Those funds are from fees derived at the airports only, and by both federal and state law, we cannot transfer or use those funds for any other purpose other than airports. I would be ecstatic if there was a way to transfer these monies into the state's general fund to help with some other pressing needs around the state, such as hurricane relief on Kauai, but, by federal and state law, we can't. I wanted to clarify that important point.

"The second point, is adding to what was stated with respect to the committee. There's an ongoing committee at the airport now that is looking at training of personnel for the 'Aloha Spirit,' if you will. The tourism congress met during this past summer and quite a few recommendations were made. The Senate took it into consideration and decided to expand upon the duties of this committee to look at not just the training of personnel, but to also look at the airport itself; the facilities; whatever activities are occurring within the airport. Do they provide a pleasing and authentic reflection of Hawaii? This is the point where most visitors entering our state start their trip or their vacation in Hawaii. We felt that it was time, and so did the tourism congress, that we look into that more carefully. So the $22 million that we have in the Senate budget for capital improvement projects is merely to implement what this committee will be working on over the interim to recommend, with respect to changes in the facilities itself. Other additions and renovations to make our airports more convenient and user friendly should also be looked at.

"We've had complaints about the art not being reflective of Hawaii. In fact, Senator Tony Chang mentioned to me one day that the art that he saw hanging in the interisland terminal looked like, perhaps it was from South America. Those are the kinds of complaints and concerns that have come before us. It's a serious thing because we have seen pictures of other airports, and truly they've done a great job with plants and skylights and opening it all up. This is what those funds are for and also to look at the kinds of activities that we would like to see going on in the airport, such as music, for one, such as the relocation, perhaps, of our lei vendors. Why are they out there on the streets, when they should be in the airport itself? This is all part of Hawaii.

"We are trying, Mr. President, in one small way, to bring that 'Aloha Spirit' back and to bring it back to that point where people first come and start their visit, and that is at our airports. This is a statewide appropriation. Thank you."

At 3:25 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 3:32 o'clock p.m.

MATTER DEFERRED FROM FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1994*AGREE/DISAGREE

S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1 (H.D. 2):

Senator Ikeda moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Ikeda then noted:

"Mr. President, the amendments made to this emergency bill are nonsubstantive."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING EMERGENCY APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1994 FOR HAMAKUA MEDICAL CENTER," was placed on the calendar for Final Reading on Friday, April 15, 1994.

Senator Grauly then rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Over the last few days, there's been a lot of publicity on the front pages of the paper with regard to the new federal detention center that is to be located near the airport. Because it is in my district, there have been a lot of calls to my office about the detention center, primarily regarding the size and what it's going to look like being so close to the airport and right next door to the Airport Holiday Inn. I wanted to assure the Senators and the public that any design that is contemplated for the detention center, the senior Senator from our state, Senator Daniel Inouye and his staff have indicated that Senator Lehua Fernandes Salling, as Chairman of the Transportation Committee with responsibility over the airports, Senator Tanaka, as Chairman of the Tourism Committee, and myself, as the Senator for the district or the area, would have the opportunity to review these plans to insure that the building is in conformity with the rest of the area.

"Finally, Mr. President, as you know, that area is not a residential area. It is an industrial area, and in my view, it doesn't have the problems that some of the other sites that were under consideration have. For that reason, I support the airport site for the new federal detention center.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Chang then responded:

"Mr. President, in response to the remarks by the Chairman of Judiciary, let me say that I did visit the federal center in San Diego. I am not going to pretend to be as good an architect as I am a fashion designer or art critic, but I will say that that building we saw in San Diego did appear to exceed, aesthetically, many buildings that we already have in Honolulu that aspire to be office buildings or residential buildings. I think that the Chairman of Judiciary is on the mark when he predicts that this may not be as objectionable as some people may make it out to be. Thank you."

At 3:37 o'clock p.m., on motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Solomon and carried, the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair to meet in Joint Session with the House of Representatives, in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution No. 488, to receive His Holiness Tenzin Gyatso, the Fourteenth Dalai Lama of Tibet.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, was called to order at 4:08 o'clock p.m., by the Honorable Joseph Souki, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

At this time, H.C.R. No. 490, embodying the sentiments and official greetings of the Seventeenth Legislature on behalf of the House and Senate, was read by the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker then presented His Holiness the Dalai Lama of Tibet to the members of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii.

At this time, Senate President Norman Mizuguchi presented an orchid plant to His Holiness the Dalai Lama of Tibet and Senator Malama Solomon and Representative Jackie Young presented Certificates on behalf of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Speaker then stated:

"His Holiness the Dalai Lama of Tibet is in Hawaii under the auspices of the Matsunaga Institute for Peace; the East-West Center; the School of Hawaiian, Asian and Pacific Studies of the University of Hawaii; the State Office of International Relations; and local corporate sponsors and supporting organizations.

"Members of the Seventeenth Legislature, it is my distinct honor to call upon His Holiness the Dalai Lama of Tibet to address us today."

His Holiness the Dalai Lama of Tibet addressed the Joint Session (through an interpreter) as follows:

"Honorable President and Speaker, His Excellency the Governor, and members of the Legislature, and friends who have gathered here, I am very happy to have this opportunity to address the Joint Session of the Legislature. It is also a great honor for me, and I would particularly like to express my deep thanks for the warm words of welcome which you have given to me, and also the support that you have given to my work and myself. Thank you.

"I learned that in this island of Hawaii, there is a collection or gathering of many diverse people from diverse communities, cultures and races, and religion, and in spite of that diversity, the community as a whole lives in great harmony and understanding of each other. And this in fact gives me great pleasure, and I would like to express my admiration for this.

"Just as the external physical environment of this place is so pretty and beautiful, so is the richness which has been contributed by the diversity of people who are living here, especially when this diversity which has been used in the positive direction, bringing out its best and definitely it gives an added color and enrichment to the whole place.

"It is both my hope and also my wish and prayer that the harmony, the spirit of harmony, and co-existence which we find here, could be extended towards further directions so that it could be experienced and enjoyed by other parts of the country as well." (End interpreter.)

"Now, let me speak in my broken English a few sentences.

"I always believe, as a real human life, there is something really, as they say, that is not only precious, but something very, actually interesting because of human intelligence. So we human beings, we can visualize or can imagine, not only temporary situation, or temporary fact, or temporary thing, but we can think many years into the future, even in some cases a hundred years or a thousand years. With that intelligence, we also have the, I think, special ability and on top of that, I think due to science and technology, human ability now becomes very, very strong. So in a way, the person or the thing which have more influence, or influential, or is more powerful, is also automatically the one most with the responsibility.

"So sometimes, unfortunately, the human intelligence has the human ability, sometimes also it creates an unnecessary or some other unfortunate things also happen. So here, while we are acquiring our knowledge, our information, we must check oneself ... our motivation -- how our motivation is. That is very, very important. So long as the intelligence and ability go with sincere motivation, motivation which is based on the sense of responsibility, usually I describe as a sense of global responsibility or universal responsibility, which essentially very much in the spirit of compassion of himself or non-violence, now with that, then our future will truly be brighter and a happy one.

"I always stress the importance of the development of the spiritual side -- this compassion and forgiveness of these things because it seems to me, generally speaking, it seems that people, I think, are too much concerned or too much care about the brain development. Sometimes little bit neglect about the basic human spiritual development and meantime when I say spiritual -- spirituality not necessarily religious faith. Of course, any individual who believe any religion or any major world religion, of course good. But even without religion, we can live, we can survive, we can manage. But as a human being without human compassion, then that person I think has no depth as a person, has no human affection. That is almost like a half human being -- half. So that person himself or herself will not be a happy person and also should that person, wherever that person lives, all it is is some kind of something, some kind of uncomfortable thing always happens so, therefore, the other side, the human side, has deep spirituality that means more to human feeling or human affection or compassion. These things are very, very important.

"Now, with these things -- human intelligence, good education, and in the meantime with a good heart, good things that go together -- then they like a flower. When we have gotten only one kind of flower and the same color, one color, then that garden may not be so attractive. More variety, more different colors, more different shapes, that becomes more attractive. Similarly, on this planet, human beings have evolved five billions of human beings. If all is the same culture, same pattern of life, if it's the same religion, then that may not be so attractive. So it is better to have variety. But at the same time, if all belongs to one that is human being, everyone belongs to one human family. Actually, we all belong to one human family.

"So I think the spirit of today is humanity -- spirit of oneness within the variety, diversity, all this can go well if we have intelligence, knowledge. In the meantime, a sense of involvement, a sense of responsibility. So wherever I go, I always share with other people this as my firm conviction. The reason why I am stressing with you today conviction, is basically I believe human nature is gentleness. Of course, in the ancient mind, there are a lot of negative things that these boggle our minds. However, I think one dominant force of human life, the basic foundation, I consider human affection ... gentleness. So therefore, if we take care and involve these in the development, there is possibility to increase so the more the positive side increase, then the negative side automatically can be less effective.

"So once more I very much appreciate, as I mentioned earlier, the multi-culture. This is a small island with spiritual oneness, which is a spirit of one human form so that is very, very important, very good. So thank you.

"Lastly, I would like to express my special thank you for the orchid. It is very attractive, very, very beautiful, and I especially love that kind of color. So very, very good, but also that gives me a little worry because in Dharamsala where I live, the rest of the year, except during monsoon, the rest of the year very dry. So in the past I tried, on many occasions, to keep or to survive, and also with a great expectation of a good flower next year, but always fail because of the dry climate. So I am afraid this flower also I think will not survive. I feel it gives me some more trouble, but anyway, I am very, very happy.

"Thank you very much."

President Mizuguchi then stated:

"Your Holiness, Hawaii is deeply honored by your presence in the islands. You have known much adversity, yet retain the spiritual sense that guides your actions. We are deeply impressed by the wisdom of your example and hope that it will yield hope for you and your countrymen.

"Please accept our sincerest appreciation for sharing your insights with us. We will long remember your visit.

"Thank you very much.

"Members of the House and Senate, and members of the audience, after adjournment, I ask that you rise and remain standing at your seats until after His Holiness and the official party depart from the floor.

"There being no further business, I declare this Joint Session of the Seventeenth State Legislature to be adjourned."

At 4:30 o'clock p.m., the President declared the Joint Session adjourned.

Senator McCartney rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I know it's Friday, but I'd just like to make a point of personal privilege, if I may.

"Mr. President, there's been a lot of debate and discussion about the Senate omnibus bill and I want to be the first to say that I'm very proud of the bill in the Senate. We want to thank you, Senator Ikeda and our staff, who helped put together a good piece of legislation.

"I want to share a point of departure where I think there is a lot of anger and a lot of concern coming from the Board of Education and the Department of Education. The responsibility falls with me, so I want to clarify that for the body. As you all know, I tend to work collaboratively, sometimes called 'Mr. Win-Win,' trying to make everybody happy, and that doesn't always work out. Over the past three years, we strove to be collaborative, 'Mr. Win-Win,' and tried to make everybody happy, and if you look at the record, we've always assumed that the department and the board would internally restructure, down-size, and move personnel to the schools.

"Mr. President, I'm here to report to you that has not happened. It's easy to point blame and say this couldn't happen, that couldn't happen, but we always assume that it will happen, and it hasn't been done. It's like my head has been hitting against the wall and I finally feel the wall, Mr. President, and we have to turn around. We're taking a different direction, and that different direction is challenging. It is not always pleasant; sometimes it's painful, but like giving birth to a new baby, we're going to be very excited about the new baby, but that process of birth is painful.

"Somebody has to assume leadership and move the educational reform agenda forward. What is in our bill is nothing different that has been talked about for years. In fact, in 1989 the Board of Education talked about putting themselves out of business once we enact school/community-based management.

"Mr. President, there's been a lot of talk; there's been a lot of rhetoric -- there hasn't been a lot of reality. Our educational omnibus bill is drawing the line in the sand and saying we need to move the agenda forward, not to empower the Legislature, not to empower the board, not to empower the department, but to empower the schools. That's what the education omnibus bill is about. The department is not happy. The board is not happy. They're asking people to call you and fax you and tell you that this bill should be killed. I think it's a very good bill, Mr. President. What this bill does is empower schools. This is a departure from the old Mike McCartney of 'Mr. Win-Win' trying to make everybody happy -- it just doesn't work that way.

"Another example of that, Mr. President, is the confusion on the interpretation of the proviso about moving money between budget categories. Again, that was put together in my office when we were trying to move from 17 EDNs to 5 EDNs in one week. That was written between the superintendent, myself, Representative Ige and our staff. Again, I need to assume responsibility for the drafting of that proviso. Representative Ige had one concern. The superintendent had another concern. Who was in the middle? Senator McCartney trying to be 'Mr. Win-Win Collaborative.' What happened? Tremendous miscommunication and misunderstanding from the department's side and from the legislative side. We look at what happens, it's not clear. In our omnibus bill, Mr. President, it will be very clear. We will say that:

1. You cannot move money out of school-based budget, period; and
2. All administrative funds shall be capped at 6.5 percent, and administrative and instructional expenses will be separated so that we can be accountable for the taxpayers' dollars.

We're responsible for raising revenue. We're held accountable for how it is spent. The omnibus bill clarifies things and makes things crystal clear so that misunderstandings about who can move money and who can't move money, and whether it violated legislative intent or not, will no longer exist.

"I want to apologize to the body for writing language that wasn't clear enough because I was trying to be 'Mr. Win-Win,' 'Mr. Collaborative.' I think the time for that is over. We all know what needs to be done. We just have to have the courage to do what is right.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The Chair remarked:

"Senator, the Chair has every confidence in you and the Ways and Means Chair. You'll be convening a conference committee with the House and we hope that the omnibus bill is up for a vote next Thursday."

Senator A. Kobayashi, at this time, introduced Mr. Richard Davi, president and CEO of Kapiolani Medical Center, who was accompanied by his wife and several representatives of the Kapiolani Health Care System. Mr. Davi was presented a Senate certificate and all of the guests were presented leis by various Senators.

At 12:18 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:21 o'clock p.m.

Senator Ikeda then rose to speak on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I would just like to commend the Education Chairman for his remarks. It takes a big person to admit to making mistakes and then trying to correct them. However, I don't really believe that the Education Committee Chair has made mistakes, I think that he has proceeded as one should, in trying to get the opinion of people involved and, working with them. Unfortunately, as you and I well know, this problem has persisted for years, probably longer than he's been alive, and there's no quick and easy solution to this situation that we face.

"However, Mr. President, I think that everyone who is critical of the bill should take a leaf from the Education Chairman's book, that is, to put aside their ego's and in doing so, to focus on what the goal and the results we seek would be -- which is to improve schools and provide our children with a better education. And if we can do that, then I think there will be a meeting of the minds on this bill which will result in not only good legislation, but a vast improvement in the education system as well.

"Thank you."

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3225 (S.C.R. No. 282):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3225 be adopted and S.C.R. No. 282 be adopted, seconded by Senator Tanaka.

Senator Hagino rose in support of S.C.R. No. 282 and S.R. No. 229, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in favor of these resolutions, but with reservation.

"First, I must clarify. I think the last time I did something like this, I ended up killing the Department of Environment, and I don't want to kill this resolution. My reservation is not with the person who this tunnel is going to be named after. My reservation is with the inconsistencies of the Department of Transportation.

"Earlier this year, I had wanted to name something after the late Joe Leong. I went to talk to the family and we thought maybe they wanted the cafeteria at Sunset Beach named after him because he fought long and hard for that cafeteria, but their request was that the Haleiwa bypass be named after Joe. So we asked the Department of Transportation what their policy was in terms of naming highways, and they told us that their policy is not to name highways after any person. After hanging up, (sometimes the light comes on a little bit later) I started to think -- there is a Nimitz Highway; there is a Farrington Highway; and there is a Kamehameha Highway; and also there are other highways named after people. So that's strike one against the Department of Transportation.

"Strike two is this -- now they have this resolution that asks that H-3 be named after Mr. Harano. I don't doubt that anyone who's worked this long and tirelessly for the state deserves some type of recognition, I just hope the same type of thing will be considered for Representative Joe Leong. I understand that the House is passing this same resolution over to us and I hope we will consider naming the bypass for Joe Leong in that resolution.

"Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling also rose to speak in support of the resolutions and said:

"Mr. President, just briefly. I can assure the previous speaker that we will take that into consideration. With respect to the naming of the H-3 tunnel, I believe one of the key factors which we should point out is that Mr. Harano is going to be retiring at the end of this year after probably 40-something years of service in the DOT. This is the primary reason for this honor.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 282, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION TO NAME THE H-3 TUNNEL IN HONOR OF HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATOR TETSUO HARANO," was adopted.

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3063 (S.C.R. No. 88, S.D. 1):

Senator Levin moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on Friday, April 15, 1994, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3063, seconded by Senator B. Kobayashi.

Senator Levin then noted:

"By way of explanation, Mr. President, very briefly, this resolution deals with the task force to recommend more effective ways to deal with Hawaii's drug problems. It was originally referred to Judiciary as a second referral. The Judiciary Committee is willing to waive referral and that is the reason for these motions."

The motion to reconsider action was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Levin then moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3063 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator B. Kobayashi and carried.

On motion by Senator Levin, seconded by Senator B. Kobayashi and carried, S.C.R. No. 88, S.D. 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE FORMATION OF A TASK FORCE TO RECOMMEND MORE EFFECTIVE WAYS TO DEAL WITH HAWAII'S DRUG PROBLEMS," was adopted.

At 5:27 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 5:29 o'clock p.m.

Senator Koki rose on a point of personal privilege, and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, today's headline reads, 'HGEA strike sweeps state' and the 'Federal Reserve moves to boost interest rates.' At first glance, there seems to be no correlation between these two headlines, but a closer look reveals a very serious problem for a number of Hawaii residents.

"The state Bureau of Conveyances, the government agency that records the transfer of real property, is closed. For the duration of the strike, no one in Hawaii will be able to buy or sell a home.

"The Federal Reserve raised short-term interest rates this morning by one-quarter percent. That increase follows two similar interest rate hikes earlier this year. The result has been a significant increase in mortgage rates. So it is essential that anyone borrowing money to buy a home complete the transaction as soon as possible.

"I was contacted by a taxpayer earlier today who has been granted a $300,000 mortgage loan at 7 3/4 percent. He must complete the purchase of his home by Wednesday or be forced to renegotiate his loan at 8 1/4 percent or higher. He will have to pay an additional $20-25,000 in interest because the State of Hawaii cannot record the transfer of title.

"Other homebuyers and businesses are facing the same dilemma. If the strike continues for a long period of time, interest rates will continue to rise and the financial losses to our citizens will be even greater. Some may even be involved in 1031 exchanges where millions of dollars may be at jeopardy if they do not meet closing deadlines.

"The right to purchase a home is a basic right in Hawaii. It is essential that the state protect that right, even during a strike of government workers.

"I am told that health, safety and welfare are the only criteria for declaring a state service essential. Surely the mental health and welfare of homebuyers qualifies under that criteria.

"It's the state's responsibility to see that essential services are maintained ... that our citizens do not suffer undue harm.

"I've asked the governor's office to declare the bureau an essential service and I urge my colleagues to do likewise.

"Thank you."

Senator Matsuura also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I also read the Star-Bulletin editorial regarding a $22.5 million appropriation for the interisland airport to make it Hawaiiana. Since the Department of Transportation officials didn't request the funds, it gives an impression to the public that the Department of Transportation doesn't really know for what purpose the money was put in. The last action we just took also gives a bad impression. I have no objections to motorcyclists getting combat wounded license plates, but I think we give the public a wrong perception as to how we make these changes. A resolution gets changed at the last minute on the Senate floor. I don't think there was a hearing regarding the motorcyclist license plates. Except for a very few people, we didn't know what the changes were, and we voted on that resolution. We are giving the public an impression that we do things not following the proper legislative procedures. We're giving the public a cause to be concerned. We should try to avoid these short cut actions because we have enough problems trying to maintain credibility in the Senate.

"Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Relating to the comments of the prior speaker, I too had a call this morning regarding the same matter -- the strike and the closing of the DLNR Bureau of Conveyances.

"The person who called me was an HGEA member who had agreed upon a sale price and interest which was to be increased approximately 4/10 of 1 percent. Comment was made that 4/10 of 1 percent over 30 years is a great deal of money. She was concerned that the bureau was completely closed, not even taking anyone who was willing to wait in line a long time. She, herself as an HGEA member, was willing to personally stand in line and do the recordation if that opportunity was available to her.

"Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This is in respect to the comments that were made by the Senator from Hilo, Hawaii. According to Senate Rules, this is how we handle the resolutions. I also wish to point out to the Senator that these were issues that were discussed at hearings of which he sat as a member of the committee. These were issues that we could not deal with by passing a bill ... but, however, one which would have to be addressed in resolution form. It was not something unknown to those who attended the hearings.

"Thank you."

Senator Matsunaga rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I have some good news. On February 1st, the Maui High Performance Computing Center hooked up to the National Information Super Highway. Now, what does this mean? The National Information Infrastructure, or NII, of the 90's has been compared to the interstate highway system of the 1950's. However, instead of carrying people and cargo, we will transport information. Government's not going to do this. We are going to attract businesses and private enterprise, and that's what's going on in Congress right now.

"I'd like to also challenge the Education chair. Right now, very few classrooms have basic phone service, but I'd like to challenge the Education chair to see that by the year 2000, every classroom in the State of Hawaii is hooked up to the Information Super Highway so that every classroom will have an on-ramp to the super highway. Ability to provide on-demand interactive voice, video and data service to every classroom would mean that social and demographic barriers to a good education would be reduced, if not eliminated.

"Interesting enough, Hawaii is the western most stop on the National Information Highway and is therefore ideally situated to be the link between the United States and Asia. Thank you."

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

Wednesday, April 20, 1994

The Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, convened at 11:36 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Robert Fraser, First Unitarian Church of Honolulu, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Reed who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fifty-First Day.

Senator Iwase, with the assistance of Senators Matsunaga, Tungpalan, George, Chang and Hagino, introduced the 1994 Cherry Blossom Queen, Kendelle Chiemi Yamamoto, and her court. The young ladies were presented leis by various Senators.

The President then invited Queen Kendelle Yamamoto to the podium and she addressed the members of the Senate and guests as follows:

"This is the second time this week they've done this to me in telling me to come up and give an impromptu speech. At John Robert Powers they told us how to answer impromptu questions, but not actually give a speech. I think I'm going to write one and stick one in my pocket from now on.

"First of all, I'd like to thank you for having us here today. I know your schedules are very busy but it's a real pleasure to know that we do have the support of the State of Hawaii.

"I'd like to give you a brief agenda of what we'll be doing this year. Besides making appearances around the State of Hawaii, we'll be going to San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles and Japan. Basically, our goal for this year's 42nd Cherry Blossom is to take the beauty and the culture of the Hawaiian Islands wherever we go and to share it ... share it with the people on the mainland and in foreign countries because there's a lot about the islands that the people don't know. Also, we'd like to learn as much as we can about the Hawaiian culture, the language and the arts and bring it back to the islands to share it with the local people here.

"I'd just like to thank you again for taking time out of your busy schedules and having us here today. Thank you."

At 11:51 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:57 o'clock a.m.

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I would like to commend the governor and the HGEA for working together to reopen the Bureau of Conveyances. Home ownership is the top priority of residents of Hawaii and it takes the lion's share of their budget.

"It is encouraging to see cooler heads prevail so that our citizens will not see their housing pursuits increase dramatically in cost or evaporate altogether.

"From the calls I have been getting, the emotional and mental health of many of our home buyers and sellers were in jeopardy. I am sure they are all relieved and grateful.

"I call on the lending institutions to do their share and not raise the interest rates during this week's delay.

"Again, I would like to commend the HGEA for the compassion and understanding that they have displayed in agreeing to open the Bureau of Conveyances. Thank you."

Senator Graulty then rose and said:

"Mr. President, this morning the Judiciary chairman of the House announced that the House would be agreeing to the amendments made by the Senate to H.B. 2312, the same-sex marriage bill. I want to take this opportunity to thank the members of the committee for the work done on that particular bill. I would be remiss if I did not mention that Senator Iwase deserves the lion's share of the credit for the hard work he put in on the language of the bill, which he co-authored together with the LRB. Senator Koki was also very instrumental, at a time when it seemed that the bill was lost, in trying to get the bill revived. I also want to commend Senator Baker and Senator Kobayashi who were very helpful to me. I appreciate very much the support they've given. All in all, I want to thank all the Senators for their support and encouragement. Despite the fact that the issue was so difficult, we managed to come up with consensus on the bill. I thank everyone very much.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

No. 2949, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Koki rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"The opening of the Bureau of Conveyances on Friday has not been as successful as I had hoped. In fact, the title companies are not issuing any title insurance because of the way the bureau is functioning.

"There seems to be a misunderstanding by strikers of what a strike is supposed to do. In the private sector, a strike is supposed to hurt the employer. The employer then would negotiate according to how much business it is losing. However, a public sector strike is different. The employer is not hurt financially. In fact, the government is actually saving money. The parties that are being hurt are the citizens of Hawaii. And the citizens are not authorized to settle the strike.

"I already own my home. The bureau being closed does not personally affect me. However, I understand the importance of home ownership. It is the most expensive and one of the most important pursuits of our citizens.

"I empathize with workers' demands for an additional two percent wage increase. But must the strike hurt a small group of people who simply want to buy a home at an affordable cost? These people do not have the influence to effect the pay raise the union wants. Will the bureau being closed settle the strike? What good is accomplished by all this suffering. Hurting people is no way to settle a public sector strike.

"I want to re-emphasize the major importance of the bureau being opened at this time of dramatically escalating interest rates that will delay or destroy the ability for some of Hawaii's citizens to own a home.

"As a public servant, I implore the HGEA to make good on their agreement to open the bureau for the entire day. I also again call on the governor to declare the employees at the Bureau of Conveyances to be essential workers.

"Thank you."

Senator Chang rose in response to the previous speaker as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to comment briefly on the remarks of personal privilege that have been extended by the previous Senator.

"It seems to me that the people of Hawaii are the employers of the workers that are on strike. Through their agents -- the various directors, the governor, the legislators and the like -- the people of Hawaii have a vital interest, as the employers of these workers, in insuring that this labor dispute is resolved in a satisfactory fashion. It is incumbent upon those who are affected by this strike -- citizens and government agents, alike -- to implore those who are charged with addressing the issues to bring this to a rapid and satisfactory solution. To the extent that these potential home owners have a concern, it is in their interest to communicate their difficulties to the government agents so that this whole negotiation is expedited."

Senator Ikeda also responded:

"First of all, Mr. President, just briefly in response to the comments made on a point of personal privilege. I think that it is a fallacy when people think the state is actually saving money during the strike. We have to take into consideration, not only the increases in pay at the end of the strike, but the fact that overtime payments will have to be made in order to catch up with the backlog. There is no savings ... just a lot of grief ... for those on strike as well as those affected by the strike."

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The President re-referred the following House concurrent resolutions that were received:

House Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
No. 156, H.D. 1	Committee on Ways and Means
No. 190 Management	Committee on Legislative Management

Senator Matsuura rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, may I speak on a point of personal privilege?"

"Mr. President, this morning we passed several resolutions in which the committee report was separated from the resolution. I have no problem with this procedure being legal. However, I think that as a policy of this body, (I've seen bills in conference that were gutted and totally new things were put in. The public will never know what's going on in this body.) we should try, as much as possible, to maintain a simple procedure in the legislative process so that there will be no confusion and mistrust. I'll be honest with you, I had to ask the Senator from Mililani why we were separating the committee report.

"My recommendation to this body is that when we totally gut a bill and put entirely new things in the bill, that we at least notify everybody, including the public, so that we all know that something unusual is being done and that people who are following this legislation will know what is transpiring in this Senate body. As far as I was concerned, I wasn't aware as to why the committee report was being separated, but now I know. However, I don't think the public knows what is happening here and what we have just adopted.

"I'm not objecting to the contents; it's just the Senate procedure. I think it would be simpler for the public to follow a bill if the public knew that this bill was referred to the Ways and Means committee. However, all of a sudden it's not referred to Ways and Means and then, bingo, we adopt it. The public is going to feel that we're doing something that needs to be scrutinized. It would have been better if this measure had a single referral from the beginning. Thank you."

The Chair responded:

"Your concerns are so noted."

Senator Iwase also rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege to address the points made by the previous speaker.

"I appreciate the fact that he is, at this point, raising the issue. I do want to correct some things or some inferences which may have been made. First, that the resolutions were gutted. They were not. These were the original resolutions which were in the committee. Second, the reason for the separation of the committee report, which is a practice that I understand this body follows.

"I would have been pleased to answer the question during the discussion period when I made the motion, and I am pleased to address the question now. Because of the time constraint, we were circulating a form to refer from a double referral (PLW then to WAM) to a single referral (PLW). Because of the hectic work schedule, we were not able to sign off on the report or the referral sheet as soon as we would have liked to. In the interim, we were circulating a committee report which was signed off by all members of the Planning Committee. In order to insure that the appropriate procedures of the Senate are followed, I had to make the motion today, to separate the committee reports from the resolutions. I do, again, want to assure everyone here that there was no gutting of resolutions, nor transmogrification of any of these resolutions."

"Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose again and said:

"Mr. President, I need to rebut on some of the comments made.

"I wasn't mentioning that the resolution was gutted, but there are bills that were gutted and that is a fact. That's what I'm referring to. In fact, I introduced a bill preventing the gutting of a bill at the conference level and putting totally new material into the bill, which we have done because I've seen it this session, not in this resolution that we were just talking about, but in other bills. I've seen bills that have been gutted and new unrelated material put in. That's what I'm referring to and that's my point of objection."

Senator Iwase then responded:

"Mr. President, again, I thank the previous speaker. My suggestion would be, if there is a big concern, that it be raised when those particular bills are before the body. Thank you."

"Mr. President, I rise on a procedural request.

"Mr. President, I request that we adjourn by a rising vote to mark the passing of the 37th President of the United States, Richard Nixon, and to remember some of the ways in which this remarkable man chartered new directions for the country he led.

"Many have forgotten that it was he who first conceived the Environmental Protection Agency. It was his administration that set up the Consumer Product Safety Commission and began to require federal construction contractors to take affirmative action to meet minority hiring goals. It was Nixon who, far ahead of today's headlines, proposed welfare reform and a national health insurance plan.

"By recalling these initiatives, I don't intend to slight the pinnacle accomplishment of the Nixon presidency -- the trip to China during 'the week that changed the world' -- nor have I forgotten the dismal chapter of Watergate.

"De mortuis nil nisi bonum may have kind intentions, but it isn't history.

"We now adjourn in acknowledgement of the contributions made by Richard Nixon and in tribute to the office in which he served -- the Presidency of the United States of America.

"Thank you."

FINAL READING

S.B. No. 2020, S.D. 2, H.D. 3:

Senator Tungpalan moved that S.B. No. 2020, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, having been read throughout, pass Final reading, seconded by Senator Iwase.

Senator Levin rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of the bill. I would like to note, for the record, that on line 18 of page 1, there is a phrase that reads, 'consisting of a contiguous area of not less than acres.' I think the legislative record should reflect that that clearly is meant to indicate not less than one acre, and that the development zone for the University of Hawaii, West Hawaii, should not be deemed defective and should be allowed to go forward. I would like to have that registered as legislative intent. Thank you."

Senator Iwase then made the following remarks:

"Mr. President, thanking the previous speaker, I'd like to offer, for the record, a comment with respect to the University of Hawaii, Kapolei. The Department of Land and Natural Resources has approved the set-aside of 500 acres for the campus and that should be noted for the record. There is also a bill which involves a land exchange, which has moved through both houses, which makes reference to 500 acres for the U.H. Kapolei, and should be so read in this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2020, S.D. 2, and S.B. No. 2020, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, none. Excused, 4 (Fernandes Salling, Ikeda, McCartney, Reed).

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The President re-referred the following House concurrent resolution that was received:

House
Concurrent
Resolution

Referred to:

No. 107

Committee on Housing

At this time, Senator A. Kobayashi, for the Committee on Executive Appointments, requested a waiver of the required hours of notice of a public hearing on Gov. Msg. Nos. 392 to 395, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator A. Kobayashi then rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, may I rise on a point of personal privilege?"

"Mr. President, I'm very disturbed and upset that these names from the governor have been coming down so late, especially on important boards like the PUC, the Board of Regents, the Land Board, the Land Use Commission, and the Convention Center Authority. We received close to 180 names and had to hold hearings on them in three days in order to meet deadlines. It really does not give us time to investigate a lot of the concerns that have come up at the hearings. It does not give the public an opportunity to respond. Many people have called in very upset that they were not able to participate in the public hearings process and I understand how they feel. I sympathize with them. I hope that in the future, names of these very important boards and commissions will come down in a timely manner. Thank you."

Senator Solomon also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I am in support of the remarks of the previous speaker. I think that this is a very serious situation and I'm hoping that you will communicate our concerns to the governor. It is quite difficult at such a late time in the session for many of the members to attend the hearings, being that we are obligated to attend conferences and have other obligations that we have to take care of. It's very important that these names for confirmation come early so the committee can deliberate on them. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, on a point of personal privilege.

"I don't want to give the impression that I am the watchdog of this body, but I think that we should do things by a procedure that is pretty much accepted by the voting public. I was not aware that this resolution was being brought to the floor for the final vote. Since this resolution did not have a hearing at all in the Senate body it concerns me because the public had no input and has no idea that this measure is now on the floor and we voted on it. The public had no opportunity, at least in the Senate, to make comments on these resolutions.

"I'm not objecting to the material in the resolution -- it's just the standard procedure. We cannot afford to let the public think that we are doing things that they are not aware of. I am told that these things have happened in the past. I cannot, Mr. President, remember any substantive resolution that has come to this Senate floor for a vote without first having a public hearing. Maybe it happened in the House, but not in this Senate body, as far as I've been here.

"On the other side of the coin, as you remember in my previous objection, we had one bill that had 80 people who testified against it and one person who had no knowledge of the issue supporting it and yet we passed it. So my comment at that time was why have a public hearing if you're going to have 80 people testifying against, and there is nobody really in favor, why are we passing such a bill in the Senate?

"So again, it is the negative public perception of this Senate body and we should really try to avoid these actions. With that, Mr. President, thank you."

Senator Iwase, rising on a point of personal privilege, then stated:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise on a point of personal privilege and I'd like to thank the previous speaker for his comments.

"I think we are all aware that, given the closing days of the Legislature, we are under severe time constraints. There are procedures involved which we can follow to try and get resolutions to the floor. I believe they will be adhered to. This includes waiving resolutions to the floor.

"I would support, rather than just raising the issue, a point about reforming the present structure and perhaps the previous speaker can provide some solutions to that. I would not support more than 60 days of the legislative session but, perhaps, he might, and also finding the money for it. I would, however, support limiting resolutions that each Senator can introduce and perhaps limiting the number of resolutions which each Senator can have passed. I think we should continue to look at these reform objectives and perhaps come forward with a reasonable plan that takes into account our timetable.

"And finally, I probably would support the previous speaker being a watchdog. President Roosevelt appointed Joe Kennedy to head the Securities Exchange Commission because Joe Kennedy had played in the stock market and knew all the tricks. Therefore, President Roosevelt felt that no one could pull anything over Joe Kennedy. I would think that the previous speaker would be an excellent choice to be our watchdog.

"Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi also rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I'd like to support the comments of the prior speaker. In this particular case, where we are not on the last day, there is actually time to have a public hearing, even with a -- how would you say -- hasty public hearing notice. I think that, if at all possible, a procedure should be adopted so that all resolutions come to the floor with a public hearing. For myself, for instance, in the Health Committee, on this latest round of resolutions, almost all of the resolutions from my committee are resolutions that we have heard before, usually in virtually the same, if not the exact same, language. So the contents of the material coming to the floor are the same, or almost the same, as those that previously had come to the floor and had passed the Senate and gone over to the House. But, nonetheless, when the House passed over their resolutions to the Senate, given that there was time, we did hold public hearings on all of these resolutions, be they virtually identical, and after public hearings, have brought them to the Senate floor.

"Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose again on a point of personal privilege and said:

"I appreciate the Senator from Mililani offering me the position of watchdog. We don't need a watchdog if things are done properly and fairly. I have a resolution that I introduced in this body that is in the Legislative Management Committee. It is to continue the Senate Investigative Committee. If you will bring something like that down I will still speak against something like that because it does not go through the proper procedure. Now, I'm sure that there will be a lot of public support for that resolution so why don't we bring that resolution to the floor for a vote because the public would want to see how we would vote on that resolution. We could bring that resolution out for a vote. The Chairman of the Legislative Management Committee could do it, but I don't think that would be proper unless it had a public hearing. I would be one who champions to get that resolution on the floor for a vote, but I would object if that was done without a public hearing at the committee level. That's the point that I'm trying to make. Let's get some public input first before we vote on any issue. It is the proper procedure.

"I don't give a thinker's damn what the House does. On this Senate floor, we should follow a proper procedure so that there'll be no misunderstanding, as far as the public, in regards to our integrity.

"Thank you."

The Chair responded:

"Thank you, your points are well taken. We'll take all your comments under advisement."

'Judge Simms has earned a well-deserved reputation for not only being a hard-working, knowledgeable and ethical attorney, but also as a fair, firm and dedicated judge. Judge Simms also brings to the court, common sense and reason in a system that often is confusing and intimidating to people who have never dealt with the courts before. 'Judge Marks exemplifies what is best in a judge. She is intelligent, compassionate, hard working and decisive, all the while maintaining a sense of humor and balance in her dealings with the attorneys and parties who have come before her. An almost impossible task is placed upon a family court judge to sort out all of the competing interests presented in each family law case, while fashioning a decision which is fair and equitable to each party. Senator B. Kobayashi rose to speak on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak on a point of personal privilege.

"I'd like to comment on what happened last night, with regard to the smoking bill and the change of the midnight rule. Last night, as you know, was the decking deadline for non-fiscal bills. We had assumed that there was a decking deadline for all non-fiscal bills at midnight, last night. What happened was that there was a procedural mix-up, I believe, and a communication mix-up. First of all, at about midnight it was unclear as to whether the midnight deadline had been changed. Second, we were not told of a rule change until sometime after all of the activity had occurred, and it was not until sometime after that we were told how the rule was changed. The rule change was made, I believe, by yourself and the House Speaker, without notice, in secret. It applied selectively and arbitrarily to a limited number of bills and it was not communicated generally. It seems it was communicated to some legislators but not to other legislators.

"This is the scenario that I saw from my vantage point. There was a very large and important series of bills having to do with, among other things, gun control, up on the 8th floor that ran late. It concluded at about one minute to midnight, at which point the conferees on your smoking bill rushed and sought to get agreement from the House on a package that we had put together. About that time, one minute to midnight or midnight, the House Chair rejected the Senate proposal. I did not know what was happening in terms of the rule change. It seems that the House Chair knew of the rule change and it was easier for him to reject the House proposal because he knew that he would have another chance later, after midnight, to have another version of that bill approved.

"Shortly thereafter, probably around 10 or 12 minutes after, I asked the chairman of our Senate side, 'Do we have a midnight deadline?' The response from the Senator was not direct at all. He said something of this sort, 'Where is the Senate President?' and sent someone to get the President. While this was being done, I said to him, 'If there is no midnight deadline, let's discuss it. We have 11 hours or until 11:00 o'clock,' meaning we have until 11:00 p.m. Friday to deck this bill. About 12:15, after further request from the Chair for me to sign the bill in a new revised form, different from the version that the Senate had put on the table at 12:00 o'clock, the Chair said to me in approximately these words, and I quote: 'It's up to you, Bert, if you don't want to sign it, it dies.' I paused for a second and my reply was, 'Then it dies. The bill dies.'

"A minute or two later, the Chair looked around the room and said something of this sort, 'I didn't know that Stan was in the room,' referring to Senator Koki. Senator Koki had been in the room all the while we had been in the room and, to my knowledge, had been there for most of the late evening. (He's another conferee on the bill.) Seeing Senator Koki in the room, the Chair rushed out and got the House Chair back to the table and hurriedly agreed, over the table, to the new language, which was the insertion of the House pre-emption clause into the Senate draft that was presented at midnight.

"There was agreement at around 12:20 last night and the bill was then circulated for signature. Shortly after that, around 12:25, you, Mr. Senate President, arrived back in the room. I asked you, 'Do you have an agreement with the House about the midnight deadline?' Your response was, 'For this one, yes. We'll accept.' I did not know that there was an agreement of the following sort until later, after I left the room and was told such by a House member, which I later confirmed with one of our more senior Senate staffers. The understanding was that the agreement between yourself and the House Speaker was that only certain bills would be accepted, and only certain bills that were finished close to the midnight deadline would be accepted. I didn't know that. I thought, the midnight deadline having been broken, we had many hours, perhaps almost a whole day or until 12:00 midnight to sign.

"At any rate, what really occurred is unfortunate. Why do we have rules if they can be changed without notice and in secret, without being communicated to all the people that should be playing by those rules? Why have rules if some people are being told of rule changes and other people are not, so that some people are playing by one set of rules and other people are playing with another set of rules?

"The smoking bill was a complicated bill in that there were three different principal interest groups involved -- the tobacco industry, the restaurant/food and beverage industry, and the public health sector. I make no apologies that I represent the health sector more so than the other two sectors. After all, I've been involved in the Health Committee longer than anyone in this body for 16 straight years, most of that as chairman or vice chair, so I took a strong stand on the bill representing the health sector. I cannot imagine doing otherwise, being a conscientious Health Committee Chairman.

"The position that eventually ended up, I think, was a victory for the tobacco industry and a defeat for the health industry. It was something that was very much different from the earlier Senate drafts, including the Senate draft that originated with our Judiciary Chairman in another bill and the various drafts presented by our current Senate Chairman up to midnight, last night. The compromising between the three sectors took some doing. Originally, as you remember, the House came over with a bill that supported the tobacco industry heavily, but absolutely disregarded the restaurant industry because they were required to make some very expensive air-conditioning changes and get those certified within one year -- tough to do when the economy is not doing good for the restaurant industry.

"At any rate, a compromise was worked out earlier by the Judiciary Chairman, and the health sector grudgingly accepted. It's not too often that you have the Health Director, Dr. Lewin, use the words 'okay' and 'tobacco' in the same sentence, but that happened, and other people from the health industry either backed off their opposition or grudgingly supported, including the Lung Association and the Cancer Association.

"At any rate, not to go into the specifics of the bill, I believe that we need to have rules that mean something. I believe we need to have rules that are known publicly to everyone. If these rules are to be changed, they should be changed with due notice so that we know the rules have been changed. When the rules have been changed, the change should be communicated to everyone involved, not just to some people and not kept secret.

"What resulted last night was confusion and I believe it made it difficult for some of us to work together. These things should not have occurred and should be prevented in the future. Perhaps Senate rules should be changed so that we do something about how our timetable is stipulated or approved and how our timetable can be changed. Maybe another suggestion would be that we drop this deadline of the non-fiscal bills because if they are to be changed arbitrarily and selectively for only certain bills, then perhaps it's not really much of a rule anyway.

"Mr. President, I hope that some consideration might be made along these lines to look at what our rules mean and to see if there would be a better procedure by which to change rules, such as this timetable, and to communicate those changes to those involved. Thank you."

At 12:21 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:22 o'clock p.m.

Senator Kanno then rose and said:

"Mr. President, if I could address some of the comments made by the previous speaker."

The Chair asked:

"Senator Kanno, are you rising on a point of personal privilege?"

Senator Kanno having answered in the affirmative, the Chair recognized Senator Kanno.

Senator Kanno then continued:

"Mr. President, I would like to address the points raised about the bill, because there are many different provisions in the bill and I want to clarify to the members of the body the extent to which this is a positive piece of legislation having to do with the regulation of smoking.

"I would differ with the previous speaker who stated that this was a victory for the tobacco industry. I believe this is a very balanced measure taking the issue of regulating smoking forward with the interest of the health and safety of the public in mind. This is what the bill does in that regard.

"First of all, we are implementing a ban against the distribution of samples of cigarettes and tobacco products in all of the following areas: all public streets, all sidewalks, all parks, and within 500 feet of any school, playground or other facility primarily used by persons under 18. Also, we are making illegal the distribution of promotional products of tobacco companies within 500 feet of any school, playground or other facility within the state primarily used by persons under 18. If the distribution is done within the confines of a permanent commercial building, that would be permitted.

"Secondly, there are comprehensive laws already in the statute regulating restaurant smoking throughout the state. This bill goes further and extends that protection by altering the definition of restaurants. It increases the number of restaurants by including restaurants with more than 40 seats. Currently, we only regulate smoking in restaurants with more than 50 seats.

"Thirdly, restaurants currently have the flexibility of expanding or diminishing the size of their nonsmoking sections. This is the language in the statute: 'All restaurants shall provide nonsmoking areas which are reasonably proportionate to the preference of users.' If, let's say, a group of Japanese visitors walks in and requests that 90 percent of the seats be for smoking, the restaurant can accommodate them as such. We are implementing much stricter language upon passage of this bill; the nonsmoking section shall constitute at least 35 percent of the dining area of the restaurant. Effective July 1, 1995, that percentage goes up to 50 percent. Restaurant smoking will be much more regulated as a result of the passage of this measure.

"Further, this bill addresses the issue of whether or not we should be banning all smoking in restaurants. This is a very balanced approach in considering that there are possibly severe economic impacts of banning smoking in all restaurants. Our number one industry is tourism. Many of our visitors prefer to be able to smoke in a restaurant and what we have done to address this is, we have included in this bill a four-year pre-emption of a county ban on smoking.

"We have created a temporary task force that is made up equally of groups that are interested in the health concerns of our citizens as well as the economic interest in our tourism industry. These are the groups that are included in the task force: the Hawaii Federation of Physicians and Surgeons, the American Lung Association, the Hawaii Medical Association, the Hawaii Medical Service Association, Kaiser-Permanente Medical Care Program, the ILWU, Local 5, Department of Health, Department of Labor, the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, the Hawaii Hotel Association, the Liquor Dispensers of Hawaii, and the Hawaii Restaurant Association. The task force will be coordinated by the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism. Our intent was to look at developing legislative proposals to address the economic and environmental impacts of regulating smoking in restaurants, cabarets and bars throughout the state.

"Mr. President, I strongly disagree with some of the comments made by the previous speaker in regards to this being a victory for the tobacco industry. Rather, we've taken a very reasonable approach in balancing the interest of the people of Hawaii -- first, seriously looking at the health and safety issues of second-hand smoke; secondly, the livelihood of the state's economy, and looking at whether or not it's prudent to ban restaurant smoking. If it is, this task force will come to that decision, given the right amount of time. If it isn't, then a very balanced approach can be considered by this body.

"Thank you."

Senator Matsuura also rose to speak on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, on a point of personal privilege.

"The Senator from Kaimuki's argument was not the merits or demerits of the bill. What he was trying to tell us is that if there's going to be a rule change, let everybody know and it should apply to all bills and not just certain bills. As the Chairman of the Health Committee or as a conferee, the knowledge that the deadline has been extended is critical when you are negotiating and that's the point the Senator from Kaimuki was trying to make.

"If we are talking about the merits of the bill, I am one person who feels that people in the private industry should not be told by us how to run their restaurants. However, I have changed a little bit since finding out that the secondary cigarette smoke has such a carcinogenic effect on people who inhale the secondary smoke. I will address these concerns when the bills relating to smoking comes to the floor.

"The Senator from Kaimuki's main points were that if we're going to change the rules, let everybody know. I have no problem with the deadline being extended, but at least for the participants, they should be informed and it shouldn't be for only certain bills. If you're going to extend the deadline, extend it for all the bills. I think that these were the points the Senator wanted to make.

"Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi then responded:

"Mr. President, on a point of personal privilege.

"The concern was not the merits of the bill. The bill will be before us later and the merits of the bill can be discussed then. I was concerned about the procedure which put me in an awkward position not knowing what the rules were, and then finding out, only after all of the action had occurred, what the rules were.

"I have to commend the Senator from Ewa who stuck to a good three-way compromise until midnight. As stated earlier by a prior speaker, your bargaining advantage is greatly heightened if you know there is no midnight deadline. I did not know that. I don't know if our Senate Chair knew that. Further, when our Senate Chair asked me, as I stated, 'It's up to you, Bert, if you don't want to sign it, it dies.' I didn't know that there was a limit as to how long there could be discussion. Remember, I had just told him minutes ago, let's discuss it, assuming that there were hours to discuss it. So I told him, as I said, 'then it dies; the bill dies.' But I did this knowing what the deadline was, and if I was a bit rough on the Chair I apologize to the extent of saying that I did not mean anything personal about his efforts to make for a balanced bill. I simply represented what I thought was the interest of public health in the State of Hawaii.

"Thank you."

The Chair then made the following observation:

"Members of the Senate, let me clarify the role of the Chair with regard to the agreement made with the House on the internal deadline for non-fiscal bills. I assure the body that there was no preliminary discussion with the Speaker regarding extending the deadline. You and I know, especially those of you who have been in this chamber for a long time, that you don't extend the deadline because nothing will happen. If I extended the deadline, with the agreement of the Speaker, we would have no gun control measure before the body ... we would have no judiciary and 'no smoking' measures ... because people will wait until the last day and hour before coming to an agreement.

"Both the Speaker and I were involved with the gun control measure and we felt that we were making progress. The Chairs of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees were bargaining in good faith with assistance. The hour was close and we had reached agreement on the gun control bill and the important measure on the Judiciary. Senator Kanno, chairing the conference committee on smoking, was also close to an agreement. So, at about 12:15 or 12:20, the Speaker approached me and said, 'We have a good package. I'm concerned that we may not have made the deadline on gun control. Will the Senate, because it is an internal deadline, agree that those bills that are very close to agreement, about six or seven, be accepted when the conference drafts are prepared?'

"So I went into the conference room and spoke to Senator Kanno. Senator Bert Kobayashi was there. He expressed his concerns to me. I think Senator Baker was also there. I looked at Senator Bert Kobayashi and I asked him straight, 'Do you want this bill killed?' There was no response. At that point I felt that the agreement between the Speaker and me was good and that we would accept the smoking bill, which was the last bill on the agenda for last evening. So I gave the Senator that opportunity. I did not hear a response so I thought that the agreement made by the House and the Senate, with the concurrence of the Speaker and myself, would be adhered to and the bill would be positioned for final reading even though it was about twenty minutes late.

"So that is my clarification. Senators were given the opportunity and I felt that it was a reasonable approach between the Speaker and me because those bills were very close and they had closed negotiations on that one last smoking bill. No rule was broken.

"So everyone was given the opportunity and only with respect to those bills that were very, very close to agreement, the Speaker asked me if we could go beyond the deadline, and as the leader of this body I accepted."

At 12:36 o'clock p.m., on motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Reed and carried, the Senate stood in recess until 7:00 o'clock p.m.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS HONOLULU

April 28, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2406

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2406, entitled, 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Insurance.'

The purpose of this bill is to expand the authority of domestic ceding insurers to take credit on financial statements for risks ceded to a group that includes incorporated underwriters in addition to individual unincorporated underwriters, thus paralleling the expansion of membership of Lloyd's of London to include corporations as underwriting members.

However, House Bill No. 2462 is substantially identical to Senate Bill No. 2406, which was also passed during the regular session of 1994. Since I intend to approve House Bill No. 2462, which will accomplish the purpose of Senate Bill No. 2406, there is no necessity to also approve this bill.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2406 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ John Waihee
JOHN WAIHEE
Governor of Hawaii"

was placed on file.

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141 (H.B. No. 2500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Ikeda moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141 be adopted and H.B. No. 2500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Hagino.

Senator Ikeda rose in support of the measure, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill. I'd like to share a few thoughts about my first year as Chair of the Ways and Means Committee and speak in favor of H.B. 2500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1.

"Mr. President, this session has been a long but, I feel, productive one. You, as well as my other colleagues here, have put your confidence in me. I hope that this supplemental budget has served to meet your expectations. If anything, my year as your Ways and Means Chair has impressed upon me the great responsibility that has been bestowed upon us by the people of this state. It is not simply a popularity contest. To think in those terms would only be a disservice to those whom we serve. Our responsibility requires long hours and constant commitment. I've had to make some difficult and, at times, unpopular decisions this year but I've done so, always bearing in mind the interest of our state and its people.

"I came into this job with some very clear goals in mind. First and foremost was the preparation of a budget that left the state a sound reserve so that Hawaii can maintain its excellent bond rating. Hawaii has continued to be an attractive place for investment and maintaining our bond rating is crucial to that end. Second, I sought to stay within the constraints of a tight CIP ceiling. Through lapsing of some projects, we were able to find monies to fund some of the state's more pressing capital improvement needs. Finally, I wanted not to downsize but to right-size government. Simply cutting funds does not guarantee savings over the long haul, but maintaining that balance between vision and efficiency can help government work for all.

"Mr. President, the Ways and Means Committee presents to you a supplemental budget that, I feel, in many ways embodies these beliefs. We have constructed a budget that is fair, responsible, compassionate and forward looking. To bolster our state's economy we have added $5 million to the promotion of tourism in our state. In social services, we have provided funding for the Quest Program which could save the state money over the coming years. In education, we have added funds for both the schools and school level personnel and look forward to a greater role our schools would take in the education of our children. Lastly, we have taken serious efforts to right-size our government by adopting the provisions of early retirement in H.B. 759, C.D. 1, reducing the number of exempt positions throughout the state and encouraging the movement towards program self-sufficiency.

"We feel that we have taken steps to make government more responsive and responsible to the people of Hawaii. Mr. President, I believe that we met many of the goals we sought out to achieve.

"I would be remiss if I didn't take a moment to recognize the diligent work of the people who helped us meet these goals. To you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate leadership, my deepest appreciation for your support and guidance during this first year. To the members of the Ways and Means Committee, thank you for your long hours of service in crafting this supplemental budget. To the subject matter committees, my thanks for your concern and your expertise in your respective areas. And to the Ways and Means staff, your work was first rate and truly appreciated. I would like to introduce the staff, Mr. President, if I may this morning. Will you all wave? I owe a great deal to these people.

"And, finally, to Chairman Say and his members of the House Committee on Finance. We have worked well together and can be proud of the budget we have put forward.

"With that, Mr. President, I ask that all of my colleagues join me in voting in favor of this measure. Thank you."

The Chair then interjected:

"Thank you for a job well done, Senator Ikeda. To the Ways and Means staff who supported the Chair, we appreciate all your hard work, thank you."

Senator Levin also rose in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill, very briefly. As one of the members of the Ways and Means Committee, I would like to express my thanks to the Chair and to the staff. They put in incredible hours. They dealt with an impossible task and in the end they came out with a document that we really all can be very proud of. I think the Chair of the Ways and Means Committee deserves our deep debt of thanks and gratitude for the work that she put in. Thank you."

Senator McCartney, also rising in support of the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I too rise to speak in favor of the budget and especially appreciate the work that the Chair has done on education and, importantly, the staff worked so hard. The Chair commented to me that the Ways and Means staff feels like family to her. And when you go into their office, you see everybody working together as a team, as a family. They're the ones that help to translate all the ideas into reality. It's not easy to put together the state budget.

"Mr. President, one of the things that I admire about this Chair is that she has taught me a lot of things. She taught me how to say 'no' with dignity. And I think that in this tight budget year she had to make some really difficult decisions. Sure we wanted to give people a lot more, but we couldn't. The resources weren't there. We had to make some very tough decisions. I think it's a budget that we, as the leaders of the state, and the people of Hawaii can be very proud of. I want to commend her for the excellent job that she and her staff and the rest of the committee did. Thank you."

Senator Holt also rose in support and added:

"Mr. President, just to restate what the previous Senators have said in congratulating the Chairman for her excellent job and the excellent job by her staff. Most especially, I want to recognize the chief clerk. It's very difficult to work for three different chairmen in three years. That's what Kevin Kuroda has done, and he's done a 'hell-of-a-job.' I think Kevin deserves our finest accolades.

"I urge everyone to support this budget."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141 was adopted and H.B. No. 2500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Matsuura rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against H.B. 2680 and the insertion of a clause into this bill that would prohibit the construction of overhead lines 46-kv or greater on lands designated for the future University of Hawaii - West Oahu Campus at Kapolei.

"While the intent of undergrounding utility line is good, it is not relevant to the issue of the land exchange. The cost of undergrounding 46-kilovolt and greater lines is tremendous. While in some instances undergrounding may be desirable, these decisions are properly the responsibility of the PUC, which has the responsibility for balancing all sides of the issue, including costs and aesthetics and determining whether or not such lines should be placed underground.

"This clause makes no determination of the cost of such undergrounding or who's going to pay. In caucus, the Chairman of the Planning, Land and Water Use Management Committee mentioned that the cost on this property will not be borne by the state or the ratepayers. The cost will have to be borne by the utility company. This is unfair. We should not be making these decisions by legislation. The PUC is mandated to make these decisions. The clause also contains language on page 3, line 9, that may prohibit the provision of electrical service to the exchanged land.

"In conclusion, the Legislature's forcing the utility lines underground without a thorough evaluation would only limit future options without the health or reliability benefits. Although there appears to be no such planned lines currently designated for the campus, we should not be limiting ourselves in excluding that option now.

"The thing that I have serious objections to and I think is bad policy is when we legislate a private company, such as Hawaiian Electric, in telling them what to do, and whatever we tell them to do that they will have to pay for it. It is a very bad policy to initiate. That's one of the reasons why these issues are usually decided by the PUC ... as to who's going to pay for it. If not, we're going to say everything's got to be underground. Ratepayers are not going to pay for it. The state is not going to pay for it. Guarantee, Hawaiian Electric will go broke.

"Thank you."

Senator Iwase then rose in favor of the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill.

"I do wish to briefly correct some misunderstandings. If the bill is closely and properly read, the bill's purpose is to make sure that no overhead line is placed on the 500-acre campus site for the University of Hawaii - Kapolei. The state owns 1100 acres at Kapolei. This bill does not preclude use of any of the remaining 600 acres for overhead lines. So, Mr. President, I just wanted to make that correction clear.

"Secondly, with respect to the issue of rate, this bill does not really go to who pays for the overhead lines. Assuming that it's overhead, I hope that the Hawaiian Electric Company would assume some of the costs. I do not advocate that the state subsidize Hawaiian Electric, in performing its function as a monopoly in this state, to provide electrical service to the people of this state.

"And finally, Mr. President, with respect to cost, which may be borne by Hawaiian Electric, I would hope that at some point and time that the repeated request for an audit of Hawaiian Electric is passed so that we can have a clear understanding of how much profit they're making.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 36 was adopted and H.B. No. 2680, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND EXCHANGE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Graulty moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 44 be adopted and H.B. No. 3290, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Reed rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill, primarily, for three reasons.

"First, it gives legislators special privileges it doesn't give other public employees. Secondly, it changes the law to allow for public hearings when people violate the ethics code and then turns around and allows the commission to close the hearing for any reason they want. And, finally, it requires a higher standard of evidence, just to hold the hearings on whether there's been an ethics violation, than a grand jury needs to indict someone for murder.

"Mr. President, I have longer remarks and I'd like to have your permission to insert them into the journal.

"In closing, I would like to simply say that this bill is not ethics reform -- it is an insult. If it passes, I hope the governor will veto this bill.

"Thank you."

The Chair, having so ordered, Senator Reed's remarks read as follows:

"The legal problems with this bill are complex. What's simple is this:

1. This bill provides confidentiality for legislators and other elected officials while at the same time requiring that complaints against other public employees be public record. Legislators should not be singled out for special treatment.
2. This bill gives the commission extremely broad discretion to close any so-called 'public hearings,' and to prevent certain complaints and findings from being public record.
3. This bill provides for public hearings when there is a complaint filed, but then requires a standard of 'clear and convincing evidence' to even hold a hearing to find out if there's a violation. A grand jury may indict for murder with a considerably lower standard -- probable cause."

Senator Matsuura also rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise in opposition to this measure.

"The State Ethics Commission introduced this bill to abolish its now secret hearings in favor of public hearings.

"However, contrary to the stated wishes of the commission, this bill was altered to weaken ethics law enforcement by requiring the commission to find 'clear and convincing evidence' or, in other words, overwhelming evidence of a violation of the State Ethics Code before the commission could hold a public hearing.

"For the past 25 years, the commission needed to find only 'probable cause' of a violation of the State Ethics Code in order to hold a hearing, and 'probable cause' is indeed the appropriate standard for the commission to follow.

"A prosecutor only needs probable cause to go to trial in a criminal case. A grand jury only needs to find 'probable cause' for even the most serious of crimes -- like rape or murder. The 'clear and convincing evidence' standard placed in his bill is a gross anomaly. It's a standard that doesn't even exist in criminal law in this state. Our ethics laws are not criminal laws, but civil statutes. Yet, this bill applies a standard not even found in criminal law. This does not make any sense.

"It is evident that H.B. 3290 has been structured to provide legislators with legal protections an ordinary citizen does not enjoy. As legislators, we should be holding ourselves to higher standards -- not creating almost insurmountable legal barriers to insulate us from the very laws we have passed to ensure high ethical standards for ourselves.

"The 'clear and convincing evidence' standard applies to weighing evidence after a hearing, not and I repeat not before. Using the standard prior to a hearing is going to create a legal confusion.

"The motive for inserting the 'clear and convincing evidence' standard in this bill is transparent -- to throw a legal roadblock in the way of public hearings.

"This bill does not stand for ethics reform. It's a phony attempt to look good, while in fact looking bad, by weakening ethics enforcement.

"Legislators again have given themselves special legal treatment. It's time for us to set higher standards for ourselves, or at least the same standards that apply to everyone else, but certainly not lesser standards, and I say this in all sincerity. It's time that we at least tell the public that we're not here for loyalty or anything like that -- this is a matter of integrity.

"Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi, also against the bill, then said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to join in the remarks of the prior speakers. I will be voting 'no' on the bill. Thank you."

Senator Graulty then rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, we've been dealing with this bill from the beginning of this particular session and the questions that were often posed to me as Chairman of the committee was, 'Why is there an inconsistency in our law, such that under the information practices act the record of the proceedings is disclosed upon the conclusion of any proceedings? And why is it under previous versions of this bill there is a requirement that the information regarding the proceedings be disclosed prior to the final hearing? What your committee has done is made this particular bill consistent with the information practices act.

"It does not create a higher standard because there are three particular points in the investigation of an ethics violation. First is the complaint stage, and the bill requires probable cause. Secondly, is the point that a charge is actually made. That is where the requirement under this bill is that 'clear and convincing evidence' be presented. Finally, there is the third stage which is the hearing stage. It's at that third stage that the proceeding becomes public.

"We need to balance the rights of those who have been brought before the Ethics Commission with the interest of the public. I think this bill does that. Not everyone will agree with it, but I think it's a bill that we can look to and say it provides for fairness and is consistent with the philosophy of making sure that everyone is given the opportunity to defend himself or herself, whether he is a legislator, a state employee, or whatever, before any body in which the charge is made against that particular individual.

"For this reason, Mr. President, I ask that all members vote 'aye' on this bill."

Senator Matsuura rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, let me explain why I'm going to vote 'no' on this issue.

"Basically, I have always protected people in private business whether it's in restaurants, in homes etc. It was the policy of this Senate body in the past that we try to prohibit smoking in public places. It was also a policy within this Senate body that if the counties wanted to adopt something stricter, that's their prerogative and we have also gone along with that.

"Now you may ask, for a person like myself who has initiated no smoking in airplanes and later protected the private industry, primarily the restaurants, protecting them from the smoking laws -- why the change? I can explain the turning point as to my stand. At the last hearing, one of the things that made me switch was the detrimental effects of the second-hand smoke. This is not the guys who are smoking. Those that want to smoke, they can smoke as many packs as they like because it's their life. That's their prerogative. But second-hand smoke is something else because it has a detrimental health effect on non-smokers.

"The reason why I'm so concerned is that the EPA has now classified second-hand smoke as a class A carcinogen. There are basically four class A carcinogens -- benzene, asbestos, radon and cigarette smoke. If there's a school next to a gas station and the benzene vapor comes out of the gas pump and there's no preventive measure, that school is going to get closed!

"One of the reasons I have switched is that it's not an issue of privatization anymore. For me, it is an issue of health -- health for the people who don't smoke -- and we must protect the non-smokers from this second-hand smoke class A carcinogen. For that reason, I'm voting 'no' on this issue.

"Thank you."

Senator Levin then rose to speak in opposition to the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill, but in doing so, I want to start by complimenting the Chair of the Conference Committee. I know how hard he worked to put together a good bill and it is a bill that is a compromise and clearly incorporates much of what the "pro-health community," if you will, wanted to see in the bill. Nevertheless, I do have to vote against it in spite of feeling that he did do a very credible job and worked very hard on the issue.

"My problem with the bill is the pre-emption clause that would impose what is basically a moratorium for four years and potentially a permanent moratorium if the Legislature takes any action over the course of the next four years with respect to smoking. We have a relatively unusual statute on the books in terms of smoking, under which the state has taken a position but said that the counties can deal with the smoking area if they want to impose laws that are more stringent than the laws that the state has imposed.

"The reason that the smoking lobby has come to the Legislature is to prevent the City and County of Honolulu from using that provision to impose more stringent laws. Apparently the bill the council wants to pass, an ordinance that they want to pass, will deal with restaurants.

"If I don't want to go to a restaurant that allows smoking or if I don't want to be in a restaurant that allows smoking, I can just stay away. And in that sense I don't think we need laws to deal with restaurants. However, there are workers in those restaurants, and I don't think it is any fairer to say to those workers 'if you don't want to work in a smoke-filled restaurant, then get a different job,' it is no more fair to say that, than it would be to say to a woman 'accept sexual harassment or get a different job.' We've crossed that bridge. We know that's not acceptable, and we pass laws against it.

"I think that if the City and County wants to pass a law, and I'm not saying that the state should, but if the City and County wants to pass a law that says 'There shall not be smoking in restaurants,' then I think that the City and County, elected officials just as we are, ought to have that option.

"So, I'll be voting 'no.' Thank you for letting me make these comments."

Senator B. Kobayashi also rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I believe that this is a compromise that almost made it. It represents some good things as the prior speaker has said and the Chairman should be complemented for having gone this far. It does, however, have a very strong pre-emption clause and the pre-emption clause is the major objection to the bill.

"Let me read from some material that comes from a June 1991 memo from the president of the Smokeless Tobacco Council in which he details a strategy on behalf of the tobacco industry to support the interests of the tobacco industry. The memo, addressed to various lobbyists in the State of California and in Washington, D.C., talks about a new strategy -- that of developing comprehensive legislation and making that comprehensive legislation look like an anti-tobacco law. Quote: 'The trick in doing this, passing a law with pre-emption, would be that such an act would have to have the appearance of a comprehensive scheme.' unquote. The idea is to pass a multi-point, comprehensive piece of anti-smoking legislation, but include within it a pre-emption clause. This would enable the tobacco interests to concentrate their lobbying efforts at the state legislature only, and not in numerous local levels of government.

"The memo goes on to say, quote: 'The chances of success depend upon the perception that the act was comprehensive.' unquote. This strategy, which was first enunciated in June 1991, resulted in a bill introduced into the California State Legislature approximately two weeks after the memo was written. In the following two years after this memo was written, numerous pieces of legislation were introduced in states across the country and in a number of states -- less than half -- pre-emption legislation was passed.

"Hawaii is now on this path of following a memo advocating a strategy presented by the Smokeless Tobacco Council, in passing a multi-point, so-called comprehensive piece of legislation, which has a strong pre-emption clause. The pre-emption clause, as was noted earlier, starts with a four-year moratorium and becomes permanent, forever and ever, if any legislation is passed within four years.

"The bill does not specify what kind of legislation needs to be passed within the four years. A technical change of a comma or a nonsubstantive bill could indeed trigger a permanent pre-emption. Although this was not the intent of the drafters, this is, in effect, the effect of the bill. And so we put ourselves in a very awkward position of having, on one hand, certain attractive features in the bill, but also a pre-emption clause that could prevent the counties from protecting citizens against a class A carcinogen.

"I think that counties are sovereign entities unto themselves and they have legislative bodies which are answerable to the people. We have a notion of home rule and the county councils should be given the opportunity to exercise their sovereign responsibility under the notion of home rule.

"I would note that we have to understand how much our attitude towards smoking has changed over the last few years. Smoking has indeed been recognized more and more as the most hazardous, preventable habit in the United States public health today. Smoking was once seen as a sort of benign kind of thing that affected only the smokers themselves. We know now that it affects people around smokers. Restaurants are also an attractive place to be, but they can also be a dangerous place when smoking is allowed.

"I have a document here from the U.S. Public Health Service, not a radical organization, and it says, quote: 'Restaurants that allow smoking can have six times the pollution of a busy highway. Don't be fooled. Restaurants that have separate smoking and non-smoking sections cannot eliminate your exposure to toxins from second-hand smoke. Ventilation systems are designed to efficiently circulate air within an enclosed environment, not to filter and clean. Trying to have a smoke-free section of a restaurant is like trying to have a chlorine-free section of a swimming pool.' unquote.

"In short, we have a situation in which the bill before us has a potential harm that is permanent, and that is the major objection to the bill. I would hope that we recognize if we pass this bill, that we have to be very clear about what we pass over the next few years. Conceptually, even a resolution might be considered specific legislation and that might even trigger a permanent pre-emption.

"Thank you."

Senator Kanno then rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the measure.

"This is a reasonable measure, providing for a balance between health concerns and economic impact concerns. It implements new standards for restaurants requiring 35 and 50 percent of their seating areas to be reserved for non-smokers. A previous speaker mentioned needing to sit next to a smoker in a restaurant. That situation should no longer be required with the provisions that are included in this bill. There are also new requirements for non-smoking policies for all private businesses with two or more employees.

"In regards to the appropriateness of the state implementing smoking policies, we already regulate smoking in the following areas: elevators, hospitals, doctors' offices, restaurants, theaters, museums, libraries, public auditoriums, sports arenas and meeting rooms, airports, restrooms, banks and stores. And clearly it's a concern at the state level.

"This measure provides for a balance of the economic impact on small business and the health and safety concerns of the public. I'm very pleased to support small business and I urge my colleagues to support this measure.

"Thank you."

At 1:00 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 1:01 o'clock p.m.

Senator Chang then stated:

"Mr. President, with respect to the bill before us, I share the concerns expressed by previous speakers about pre-empting county decisions in this area. However, in the interest of insuring that my position on the subject had some grounding in the real world, I shared the evening with Senator Kanno last night and we went to various venues which might be impacted by regulation and I must say that the impact of Golden Week on the economy of the State of Hawaii really needs to be taken into account. (Laughter.)

"Upon the Senator's detailing of the various areas in which the state already has regulatory powers, and in view of the real life situation that we found last evening, I've changed my position and I will vote for the measure. However, I do have continuing concerns about the pre-emption language and I am hoping that when we develop a consistent statewide approach to this, that appropriate decision making can then be left to the counties. Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi then added:

"Mr. President, if I had been on last night's inspection, I might be voting in favor too." (Laughter.)

The motion was put by the Chair and carried. Conf. Com. Rep. No. 61 was adopted and S.B. No. 256, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SMOKING," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 18. Noes, 7 (Matsuura, Levin, Kobayashi, B., Matsunaga, Tungpalan, Kobayashi, A., Reed).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 62 (S.B. No. 495, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Grauly moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 62 be adopted and S.B. No. 495, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Matsunaga rose to speak against the measure, as follows:

"Mr. President, I oppose this bill because (1) it sends the wrong message to our community, (2) it will significantly damage our law enforcement efforts, and (3) it is a misguided attempt to address an issue in an inappropriate and piecemeal manner.

"This bill sends the wrong message to our community because it proposes to allow probation for our most serious drug offenders. Under current law, certain convicted criminals are not eligible for probation at sentencing. These include murderers, career criminals, criminals who use firearms in the commission of a felony, and our most serious drug offenders -- Class A drug felons. Class A drug felons include drug traffickers, dealers and those who distribute dangerous drugs to minors.

"The rationale for our current law is rooted in the Model Penal Code. The philosophy of the Code is to penalize according to the degree of social harm. The Hawaii Supreme Court in 1979 in State v. Caldeira stated, 'social harm in drug distribution is great indeed. The drug seller, at every level of distribution, is at the root of the pervasive cycle of destructive drug abuse.'

"In 1980, the Senate Committee on Judiciary stated, 'The seriousness of Class A drug felonies merits mandatory imprisonment.' In the '80s, we saw the drug problem in Hawaii become epidemic. In fact, during a nationwide marijuana eradication program, Hawaii accounted for 25% of all the marijuana seized in the entire country. We also saw an alarming increase of drug sales in elementary and secondary schools.

"The problem of drugs and drug-related crimes has not diminished since our drug policies were effected. In fact, law enforcement's war against drugs is raging full force as more addictive and available forms of drugs infiltrate our society. Yet, we are now proposing to weaken the penalties for drug traffickers and those who sell dangerous drugs to our kids?

"It appears as if we're changing our message from 'Just Say No' to 'Just Say Maybe.'

"This bill will significantly damage our law enforcement efforts because it removes the 'teeth' from law enforcement's attack against the drug community. Presently, law enforcement uses the mandatory minimum sentence as leverage to obtain from offenders information about accomplices. This enables law enforcement to not only prosecute the carriers, but also the kingpins.

"Two examples come to mind -- the Hackett Brothers case and the Troy Barboza case.

"The Hackett Brothers Case - In 1989, Ray Batungbacal was arrested and charged with promoting a dangerous drug in the first degree, a Class A felony. Batungbacal was linked to a four-person cocaine ring which, during only a six-month period, had successfully imported 22 kilos (45-47 pounds) of cocaine from Los Angeles to our state. Batungbacal possessed the information and inside position to help law enforcement arrest members of this mainland-based cocaine ring. Prosecutors were able to negotiate an exchange of reduction to a Class B felony for Batungbacal's cooperation in identifying and arresting the members of the ring.

"As a result of Batungbacal's cooperation, Stephen and James Hackett, Lisa Estrada and Leonard Ullibarre were arrested, charged and convicted, putting an end to the continued importation to this state of an alarming amount of cocaine.

"The Troy Barboza Case - In 1988, Japan Honda and Alexander McAllister were arrested and charged with promoting a dangerous drug in the first degree, a Class A felony. Both individuals had information regarding the murder of Honolulu police officer Troy Barboza. Prosecutors were able to negotiate an exchange for cooperation and information leading to the arrest and conviction of Tony Williams for the first-degree murder of Officer Barboza.

"Using his drug connection with Williams, Honda was able to lure Williams back to Hawaii where he secretly obtained a taped confession concerning Williams' involvement in Officer Barboza's murder. Law enforcement agents who were monitoring this exchange were then able to secure the arrest of Williams. Both Honda and McAllister testified at Williams' trial offering valuable information leading to his conviction.

"Honda and McAllister entered guilty pleas to the Class A drug offense and received favorable recommendations from prosecutors to the paroling authority. Without the threat of the mandatory sentence accompanying a Class A drug offense, our prosecutors would not have had the leverage to extract cooperation and information from Honda and McAllister, and the arrest and conviction of Williams may never have been realized.

"The bill's apparent purpose is to give judges more flexibility in sentencing. Yet, judges are not the ones asking for this bill. In fact, the Judiciary did not testify in support of this bill.

"Further, amending only one aspect of our mandatory minimum sentencing laws is an inappropriate piecemeal attempt to modify our existing penal code.

"If, indeed, this body believes we should revisit our mandatory minimum sentencing policy, why not defer to the recommendations of the Committee to Conduct Comprehensive Review of the Hawaii Penal Code? This committee was appointed by our chief justice in response to Act 284 (which the Legislature passed last year), and includes amongst its members judges, prosecutors, defense counsel, university professors, mental health experts, parole and probation personnel, police counsel and representatives of the attorney general and public safety departments. This committee has met several times in plenary session, has formed subcommittees, has articulated an agenda for 1994, and is well into the business of comprehensive review. The committee's recommendations will be submitted to the Legislature in ample time for us to act next session.

"Why not defer to the comprehensive work of this committee instead of passing a bill which has not even had a public hearing this year?

"Finally, for those of you who think our current drug laws are too severe, you should be aware that a mandatory minimum of 20 years for Class A drug felons does not mean 20 years in prison. In fact, the average length of minimum sentences determined by the Hawaii Paroling Authority for Class A drug felons is approximately 3-4 years.

"This bill is a bad bill, and I urge my colleagues to vote 'no.'"

Senator Matsuura then said:

"Mr. President, I thank the previous speaker and I'm voting 'no' on this measure. Thank you."

Senator Graulty rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, this bill was a bill that my predecessor, Senator Levin, had hearings on. He adopted a policy that I personally support and the reason why this bill is before us today is also for three good reasons. First, Mr. President, I believe that the court should have discretion in sentencing a defendant convicted of a Class A felony drug offense. I believe that we have to have faith in our judges, that under all the facts and circumstances of which they have been made aware, that they will render the proper decision, appropriate under the circumstances of the case.

"Secondly, this bill extends probation to ten years for these kinds of offenses. This will enable the judges to evaluate all the appropriate sentencing and treatment alternatives available for drug offenders.

"Thirdly, Mr. President, in the event that a judge feels that probation is warranted, he needs to be able to state on the record, why, in order that the public can properly evaluate the judge's decision and make an evaluation of the judge when they feel the sentence was inappropriate.

"Mr. President, I think this bill provides wide discretion to judges and I think that is important and necessary for these kinds of offenses. I believe that this is the direction in which your committee would like to go now and more so, in the future.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Levin also rose in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"I'm not sure what the Majority Floor Leader had in mind when he set the three civil libertarians back here on one table. Originally, I thought that it might be to oversee the Republicans to make sure that they were under proper control. If he expected us to act in unison, obviously that was a disappointment. I was unable to convince my two colleagues here of the obvious wisdom of prohibiting rocket launches as an example. Two of us were unable to convince the Judiciary Chair of the obvious wisdom of allowing domestic partnerships among same-sex couples. And now our young colleague has not been able to see the obvious wisdom of allowing our judges the ability to use their discretion when they hear the facts of a particular case and are in the best position to know what an appropriate sentence is.

"I think this is a good bill. I'm pleased to have the opportunity to support the Judiciary Chair on this. I urge my colleagues to vote 'yes.' Thank you.

Senator B. Kobayashi then rose in opposition and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"If all of our judges were as astute as the members of the back row, I would certainly support this bill. However, this bill particularly segregates out one type of Class A felony, a most grievous and serious type of felony, that having to do with Class A drug offenses, and says that somehow this category deserves less harsh treatment. Given what has happened with the drug scene in the last few years, I think that is absolutely the wrong message to send. We should have discretion, no doubt, within the court system, but to have such a narrow opportunity for discretion would not, I believe, make our prisons less crowded. It will send a wrong message and I think it could have been handled such that, perhaps we could have gone with longer probations, but without this one particular exception.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 62 was adopted and S.B. No. 495, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SENTENCING," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 15. Noes, 10 (Matsunaga, Matsuura, Kobayashi, B., McCartney, Kanno, Iwase, Tungpalan, George, Koki, Reed).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 63 (S.B. No. 2393, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Grauly moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 63 be adopted and S.B. No. 2393, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Iwase.

Senator Grauly rose to speak in favor of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, it's quite a coincidence that the last bill on the agenda for the Judiciary Committee is the first bill that we began this session with. In the middle of December, we held informational hearings on gun control and I think the effort reflects, very greatly, the tremendous amount of work that your Judiciary Committee did during this particular session. As I count the number of measures on our agenda today, there are 32 that came from the Judiciary Committee. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the committee for their hard work and support of the Chair as we dealt with every one of these issues. Some of these issues have been more difficult than others, admittedly, and there were no measures more difficult for us than same-sex marriage and gun control.

"With regard to this particular measure, Mr. President, I'm proud to stand as a member of this Senate for more gun control in our state. We took a very strong position in support of stricter gun control measures by a vote of 16 to 8. This bill will make it possible for Hawaii to stand strong and to stand as the first state in the nation to have universal registration of all firearms in our state. It does a few other good things. It provides for absolute liability in the case of personal injury or property damage arising from the discharge of any firearm. Secondly, it requires that before one can get a handgun permit or to acquire a handgun, one must demonstrate that he or she has undertaken the necessary training and live firing and can use the handgun properly. Thirdly, it provides for very strong forfeiture of vehicles language in order to arrest the number of drive-by shootings that we find so prevalent in certain areas of our state. And lastly, it provides for very strong language with regard to TROs, the most volatile period in a domestic violence situation.

"Mr. President, this is not what we wanted. We wanted something more than this, but this is something we can still be proud of. It's taken a lot of hard work on the part of the members of your committee. It wasn't easy dealing with the House. It wasn't easy dealing with a very vocal minority, but we managed to come up with a bill that will make our community safer. And for that, Mr. President, I ask all my colleagues to vote 'aye.'"

Senator Matsunaga also rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"I'd like to just compliment the Chair of the Judiciary Committee for his hard work and tenacity in the face of quite a bit of adversity, for bringing this measure out.

"Mr. President, I fear my colleague from the Big Island may vote 'no' just to prove that his prior speech was correct.

"Thank you."

Senator Reed then rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, thank you. I rise to speak in opposition. I want to compliment the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee first, however, on his good sense for front page photo material.

"I believe there are many good elements to this bill. I definitely support training and the forfeiture measure as well as the temporary restraining order aspects of this bill. In fact, I was involved in the committee discussion that led to providing for the tough aspects of the TRO in this bill, and to the extent that that will help reduce the potential for violence in domestic problems, I'm wholly in support.

"There are good elements to this bill, but I oppose it not so much because of the specifics, but rather on principle, and also, for the record, to underscore the reality as it relates to gun control and our attempt as a society to reduce violent crime. Making it more difficult for law-abiding citizens to buy and own guns would do nothing to reduce crime. Studies across our country suggest in fact that gun control may in fact increase crime, as criminals become the only ones who have the arms and who know that people are unarmed.

"The main point of my opposition to this kind of measure is that the focus is wrong. If our goal is to reduce the criminal use of guns, which I'm led to believe by the proponents of this kind of measure that it is, then we should pass legislation that focuses on the criminal. I am reminded, in this kind of debate, of the most recent presidential race where Bill Clinton and his campaign workers had a sign in their headquarters while George Bush was talking about international problems, that said, 'It's the economy, stupid!' I think that in this kind of debate, we should all have signs or at least remember a bumper sticker type of slogan that would read 'It's the criminal, stupid!' because indeed our focus should be on the criminal and not on the law-abiding citizens.

"We need to be willing to get tougher with people who use guns in the commission of crimes. There's an irony in the thinking of those who support this kind of legislation and that is their reticence to get tough with people who use guns in the commission of crimes. I favor the death penalty for anybody who kills another with a gun. For those who are opposed to imposing the severest penalty society has to offer to murderers then I would suggest we seriously consider a sentence of life without the possibility of parole for anybody who uses a gun in the commission of any crime. The result would be that criminals would know that they cannot use a gun in the commission of a crime and get away with it. The result would be that they would be afraid to use guns. Criminals, of course, and those intent on violent behavior would find some other weapons, whether it is a knife, a machete, a hammer, or baseball bat, but they would leave guns alone because they would know they would spend the rest of their lives behind bars if they used guns in the commission of crimes.

"We all agree that the goal of reducing violent crime is worthy and essential. So let's put the focus where it belongs, where it will help achieve that goal and that is not on law-abiding citizens, but on the criminal.

"I will be voting 'no' on this measure. Thank you."

Senator Koki rose in favor of the measure and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I want to say that I agree wholeheartedly with the previous speaker in making criminal acts with a firearm to be a very onerous sentence, and we can include extremely harsh penalties for anyone who does commit a crime with a firearm. It has been our big push to ban handguns and I have always been opposed to banning handguns.

"This bill, however, presents a little dilemma for myself. This does not ban anything, but it does clarify what a loaded firearm means. It does eliminate hunters who are travelling on private roadways with a loaded firearm from not being a Class B felon anymore. This allows them to go and hunt with a loaded firearm because it's going to be too late by the time they spot their prey. And also because of the forfeiture, we all know the kinds of problems that we're having with youth gang activities, the forfeiture of their vehicles if they're caught with a firearm would go a long way in guarding against this kind of activity.

"So, although I'm hesitant about this bill, I will be voting in favor of it because of the things that I see that are positive.

"Thank you."

Senator Levin also rose in support of the measure and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of the bill, with reservations.

"I was going to make light of this and say that I was doing this in order to make sure that every permutation and combination is accounted for during this session. But there really is a serious flaw in the bill (what I see as a flaw) and that is that it takes away the rights of 18, 19 and 20 year-olds to have a firearm, which means it takes away their right to hunt independently. I suppose that if they are with somebody who's over the age of 21 they can still hunt, but without that, I don't think they would be allowed to. And I think that is going to cause major problems.

"Nevertheless, I will be voting in favor of the bill because I do think there are a lot of good points in it. Thank you."

Senator Iwase rose in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, thank you. I'd like to also rise to speak in support of the bill. I do want to, very sincerely, commend the Chair of the Judiciary Committee. I know that this bill and others have been a very trying experience for him in his first year in the Senate, and I'm glad that as a 'sophomore' in the Senate, I did not have to go through that.

"I do want to point out, Mr. President, that this bill, as it is before us today, goes beyond merely focusing on criminal activity. It involves other public policy matters which, I think, strongly supports the reason for its passage. Let me just go over some.

"First, as to the TRO. It addresses the question of domestic violence. People in that flash of anger may do things, and have done things, which in calmer times, normal human beings would not do. This bill would seek to remove, or allow police officers to remove, a dangerous weapon from that environment.

"Second, forfeiture of auto to go after those who illegally carry guns in cars. You don't need to carry a loaded handgun in a car.

"Third, the area of safety and education. This bill provides a strong training program for those who seek permits to buy a gun, whether it is a long gun or a handgun.

"Finally, registration -- to have a record of who owns what. I would also point out that to have this knowledge is also very important in situations involving a TRO. A police officer can go to the house or the property in question, know that the individual has a registered weapon, and seek to remove it.

"I think we must understand, Mr. President, that guns are not toys. They're not pillows; they're not TVs; they're not radios. Guns are dangerous weapons. Guns have a valid use. People have used them for valid purposes -- for hunting, for skeet shooting, for target practice, for a number of things -- but it is a dangerous weapon. This bill attempts to recognize that and attempts to deal fairly with it and attempts to cover a number of public policies which need to be addressed.

"I again commend the Chair for his efforts in this regard. Thank you."

Senator Holt rose in favor of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I hadn't planned on speaking, but I rise to speak in support of the bill, with reservations.

"First, I'd like to commend the Chair and also Senator Iwase for the good work they did on this bill. There are some provisions in the bill which I still have some concerns with, however, the bill has come a long way since it passed the Senate and due to the good work that has been done in the other provisions which are included in the bill, I'm going to vote in support of the bill. Thank you."

Senator Chang also rose in favor and said:

"Mr. President, in rising to speak in favor of the bill, I'd just like to use the occasion to thank and compliment the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee and the members who have served him and the Senate well, in presenting all perspectives on a variety of very thorny issues presented to us this year.

"Much attention has been paid to the state's power to tax and spend, but I believe that the fundamental test, the fundamental role of the Legislature, has to do with the questions of power, privilege and rights that have been considered by the Committee on Judiciary. I believe that the allocation that the leadership provided in the beginning of the session has proven itself. All of the members that reside in that sector have contributed to the debate. Our Republican colleagues, our young colleague from Palolo, our colleague from the neighbor island have presented different perspectives and, interestingly enough, all of these have revolved around the chairman, who sits calmly in the eye of the various storms. If I would concede to a mistake in this arrangement, Mr. President, I would say that on the next occasion, we'll be sure to thrust our Senator from Mililani into that sector.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 63 was adopted and S.B. No. 2393, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS AND DANGEROUS WEAPONS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

At 1:31 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 1:39 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 64 (S.B. No. 3309, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1):

Senator Ikeda moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 64 be adopted and S.B. No. 3309, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Iwase.

Senator Matsuura rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm going to be voting in favor of this bill, but with reservations.

"I'm getting to the conclusion that maybe nobody is listening to what I have been saying on the Senate floor. But this will prove that this body is not listening to me. This same measure came up at the last day of the crossover, the Senate bills going over to the House, and I have a copy of the floor speech that I made at that time and I'm going to read the floor speech one more time so that you can understand my objection to this measure.

"The portion that I have objections to is 'The department may negotiate and enter into leases of lands eligible under section 4 of not less than fifteen years but not more than thirty-five years with any person who, as of December 31, 1994, holds a revocable permit for a slaughterhouse and feedlot or for any other agricultural purpose, issued in accordance with section 166-6 or 171-55.' My objection is that the same language is in this bill and my objection is the same as it was at that time. I'm going to read my floor speech that was made at that time. Quote:

'When I saw this bill, I checked to see if there were others in Hamakua who may be interested in bidding for this slaughterhouse facility. I made a few phone calls to the people who were presently involved in the slaughterhouse business in the Hamakua district. There appears to be four other slaughterhouse operators who are interested in bidding for this facility. The major problem that I see in this bill is on page 4, section 3, and it reads:' (That's the same language that I have read earlier.)

'I'll give you an example of why I think the language of the bill narrows it down to just one person. I talked to a Mrs. Andrade, and the Andrade family has been in the slaughterhouse business since 1906. Perhaps, they're the oldest slaughterhouse operation in Hamakua. She sent me a set of letters as to what happened to her regarding this state property. The first letter was dated June 28, 1993, and it is addressed to Mr. Yukio Kitagawa, Director of Agriculture. Mrs. Andrade saw, at that time, an ad in the Hilo Tribune that the state will be leasing the slaughterhouse and the feedlot, etc., interested persons should apply. Mrs. Andrade's letter is informing Mr. Kitagawa that she is interested in leasing the state property. Mr. Kitagawa replies to her a few days later, on July 2nd, and he says, "Yes, it is going to go up for a lease. However, it's going to be a one-year lease, revocable on a monthly basis." Mr. Kitagawa says, "We will need some commitment of your intent and would like your reply by Tuesday, July 6th," which was four days later. It just doesn't make sense for anybody to pursue this lease because of the pre-conditions of what one had to do to qualify.'

And this is Yukio Kitagawa's letter to Mrs. Andrade. He said that in four days you will have to make the commitment and these are the pre-conditions.

'The pre-operational requirements for the month-to-month revocable permits of that facility would have cost hundreds of thousands of dollars and Mr. Kitagawa, in his letter says, "Please study the terms and conditions very carefully. We'll base our selection decision on your reply to those terms and conditions. You should be aware that the improvement and corrective work will require large capital outlays with no guarantee of reimbursement of such expenditures, nor of being selected for the long term lease.'

In other words, for the precondition they're telling her, you make all of these improvements for hundreds of thousands of dollars, but when the long term lease comes up and if you don't get it, you may not get reimbursed for your costs. This precondition is unfair and ridiculous.

'No sane person would ever apply for a month-to-month lease with a pre-condition that you may not recover a penny of the cost of your improvement that you are forced to make. So she didn't.'

And nobody else did. So what ultimately happened was that another person from Honolulu got the month-to-month lease. I don't know whether or not he fulfilled all of those pre-conditions.

'This bill favors the person who already has a month-to-month lease. The four slaughterhouse operators in Hamakua were shocked that we were going to vote on this bill today. I called the Department of Agriculture and they told me that it was their intent to go out on bid. I told them that we're going to vote on this bill today and they were surprised that we had such a bill on the floor for a vote. The Department of Agriculture was not in favor of this action.'

What I just quoted occurred several months ago when we voted on this measure to pass from the Senate and go to the House. At that time, I said it is better to just take out that objectionable language and let the Department of Agriculture handle it by going out to bid. Don't put language in the bill that the Department of Agriculture may negotiate the long-term lease, because once you put that language in, the Department of Agriculture is going to have some heavy lobbying and the Department of Agriculture may give in to the person who already has the month-to-month lease.

"The problem now is that whoever has the month-to-month lease has an advantage. The scenario has changed because Senator Inouye has been able to get some federal funding for a new electrical power generator for that slaughterhouse. In other words, they have federal money to put in a brand new generation plant. Also, Senator Inouye has gotten a large military contract that most of the meat from this slaughterhouse is going to be sold to the military. So you already got the market for the meat. Whoever ends up with the long-term lease will make a lot of money.

"The only thing that is unfair is that I wish that there was a level playing field for the people of Hamakua who we are trying to help with this bill. I want to make sure that this slaughterhouse and the feedlot, would definitely go on a bid basis and not be negotiated and given to this one person who has this month-to-month lease even though this bill, as written, permits it. I'm only citing this into the Senate journal to make sure that there's going to be fairness in this long-term lease proposal. The Department of Agriculture has given an oral commitment that the lease will not be negotiated but will be put out on bid. That is why we don't need the same objectionable language in this bill. Thank you."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 86 (S.B. No. 1249, S.D. 1, H.D. 3, C.D. 1):

Senator Holt moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 86 be adopted and S.B. No. 1249, S.D. 1, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kanno.

Senator Matsuura then rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, may I be permitted to give my speech on this bill and the next bill because they're sort of related. I'm speaking against these bills.

"Mr. President, at this time I want to express my concern over the combined effect of H.B. No. 3212, C.D. 1, and S.B. No. 1249, C.D. 1, relating to the creation of the class of advanced practice registered nurses and their ability to prescribe drugs. H.B. No. 3212 merely creates the category of advanced practice registered nurses. It does not give them the authority to prescribe drugs. Previous drafts of S.B. 1249 gave the advanced practice registered nurses the ability to prescribe drugs, but only within the scope of a prescriptive authority relationship with a physician. However, the C.D. 1 removes the requirement of a prescriptive authority, and merely requires the DCCA to grant prescriptive authority to advanced practice registered nurses, and requires the Board of Medical Examiners to designate the formularies, or lists of drugs, that an advanced practice registered nurse can prescribe.

"The conclusion that I draw from the combination and history of these bills is that the advanced practice registered nurses will be allowed to prescribe without physician supervision or collaboration.

"It does not appear that the Board of Medical Examiners has the ability to require advanced practice registered nurses to work with physicians, as S.B. 1249 merely assigns the Board of Medical Examiners the task of drafting the formulary. It would be outside the plain language of this bill for the Board of Medical Examiners to impose restrictions on the use of the formulary, such as physician collaboration. While it may be argued that the definition of a registered nurse requires working with the physician, a closer examination of the actual language is not so comforting. The practice of nursing as a registered nurse, according to the statute, 'includes but is not limited to' providing health care to the patient in collaboration with other members of the health care team. Therefore, registered nurses are not, and I repeat, not limited to working with members of a health care team. It appears that they may work on their own, open their own clinic, etc.

"The inescapable conclusion that I draw from the combined effect of these two bills is that they will permit the autonomous functioning of advanced practice registered nurses in prescribing drugs. I have very grave concerns about the impact of this unsupervised prescribing ability on public health and safety. So I invite all of you to at least listen to my concerns and vote accordingly. Thank you."

Senator Holt rose to speak in favor of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, the major purpose of this bill is to authorize advanced practice registered nurses with limited prescriptive authority. As simple as this concept may sound, it has taken Hawaii's nurses four long and hard years to convince the Legislature that this change would allow them to practice their profession to the full extent of their education and training, which is the trend across the nation for primary health care. Among other benefits, this would result in an expansion and improvement of health care services and a lowering of health care costs for the people of this state.

"For every measure that we as Legislators consider, Mr. President, there will always be those who oppose it, oftentimes with good cause. This is the system in which we operate. As Legislators, we are ethically and constitutionally bound to weigh these arguments presented by each group and reach a fair and just decision which is in the best interest of the state. In this particular case, however, the objections of the opponents were unconvincing and clearly lacking of any merit.

"Aside from the issues I just mentioned, Mr. President, I would like to remind this body and the people of this state, that the debate over this bill also raised a much larger concern. This bill, Mr. President, is not just about prescriptive authority for nurses. This is also reflective of the discriminatory 'glass ceiling' that exists in those professions and occupations that are dominated by women. In short, this bill also falls within the realm of what has been referred to as 'women's issues.'

"I am therefore proud, Mr. President, to have played a part in removing yet another 'glass ceiling' for the women of this state.

"In closing, Mr. President, I would like to reiterate my support for this bill and urge my colleagues to vote in support of these measures to make Hawaii the 47th state in the nation to recognize the important role of nurses in health care and the role of women in general to our society.

"Thank you."

Senator B. Kobayashi also rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor with reservations.

"I believe this bill is an opportunity to continue the discussion between the various parties. It is not a complete bill. It is so incomplete, in fact, that in granting the authority to DCCA to give prescriptive authority, it does not even cite Chapter 91, which is usually the procedure used for granting this kind of authority. Nonetheless, the Board of Medical Examiners has, under this bill, a very strong, shall we say, veto power as to what the nurses might prescribe.

"I've long felt that it is not a matter of so much prescriptive authority, but how much prescriptive authority and under what circumstances. I've said in public several times that I believe nurses should be able to prescribe certain things. On one hand, I don't think there's much controversy that public health nurses should be given prescriptive authority for fluoride drops, especially on the neighbor islands where we have extraordinarily bad dental care. Also, they run into situations in which antibiotics for middle-ear infection and lacerations should and could very well be used by nurses, and safely. When you get up to the more complicated and powerful drugs, I think you have much more controversy. But nonetheless, the question is how much and under what circumstances.

"The Board of Medical examiners, being given the opportunity to develop the applicable formularies, does have control over what nurses can prescribe. But I think that eventually the two have to continue to talk together because granting of the authority is separate from granting the opportunity to practice.

"Thank you."

Senator Ikeda also rose in favor of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I too rise in favor of this bill, but with some reservation.

"In relating to the remarks by the previous speaker, whether or not an advanced nurse practitioner would be able to go into private practice as a sole practitioner appears to be the crux of the concern on these measures. I believe that concern becomes even more evident at this point in time because we just passed the budget and the budget does include implementation of Quest. And for those that know about Quest, how little we know about Quest, but what we do know about Quest is that one of the provisions institutes a gatekeeper and that gatekeeper could be a nurse. Consequently, the concerns become even more evident as we deliberate and vote on these bills.

"However, Mr. President, it is my impression that the concerns are unfounded. Even though Quest does allow a nurse practitioner to become a gatekeeper, if the provider of services so chooses, it is not the intent, given current law, that an advanced nurse practitioner be allowed to practice solely and independently of a doctor. And it is only under this impression that I will vote in favor of these bills. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura rose again and said:

"Mr. President, let me just qualify some of the concerns that have been registered. One of the things about this bill ... I'm voting against this bill primarily because it is teamed up with the bill that's following.

"The Chairman of the Consumer Protection Committee gave me a page of the statute. It's a definition that includes the practice of nursing as a registered nurse. The present statute states that the registered nurse has to work in collaboration with the health care team. However, the bill before us says that the nurse practitioner doesn't have to. Some of the drafts that preceded this conference draft, I have no problem. I have no problem with these nurse practitioners working at the Palama Settlement or they're working in Kaiser Permanente group. But then this new conference draft took that all out, totally out. The previous draft specified where the nurse practitioners can practice, but that has been totally taken out now. And looking at this conference draft before us -- and I am not a lawyer but I checked with a lawyer -- it allows a nurse practitioner to go and practice, open up a private practice anywhere in the State of Hawaii. A nurse practitioner must work in collaboration with a physician and that language is not in the bill and that is my concern. That collaboration has been completely removed from the conference draft and that's where my objection is.

"Thank you."

At 2:01 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 2:09 o'clock p.m.

Senator Holt then said:

"Mr. President, just to clarify the previous Senator's concerns. The mention of the physician prescriptive authority relationship that he referred to, that was in the earlier draft by the House, was removed by the Senate in conference. That was part of the House's proposal, which also had the Board of Nursing determining the practice and also setting the formulary. All of those provisions were deleted in conference with the House, and the House agreed to the Senate's position.

"Thank you."

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Chang and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137 was adopted and H.B. No. 2284, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRIVATIZATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Kanno, Levin).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 138 (H.B. No. 3300, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Chang and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 138 was adopted and H.B. No. 3300, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII PUBLIC PROCUREMENT CODE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 151 (H.B. No. 3179, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Ikeda moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 151 be adopted and H.B. No. 3179, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Holt.

Senator Chang rose and stated:

"Mr. President, I had initially overlooked the changes that had been made to this bill, but upon further examination over the weekend, I find that the conference draft proposes to eliminate a deputy director in the Department of Health related to environmental protection. I don't know the reasons for that proposal, but I find that to be of extreme concern to me. I do not believe that the Department of Health has been able to sufficiently marshal all of these various state resources in order to address our environmental concerns. And for that reason there have been recurrent proposals to establish a Department of the Environment by eliminating the deputy director for environmental management. We take a giant step backwards and for that reason alone, I am compelled to vote against the bill.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 151 was adopted and H.B. No. 3179, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 4 (Chang, Fukunaga, Levin, Reed).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 154 (H.B. No. 3607, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Baker and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 154 was adopted and H.B. No. 3607, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 (H.B. No. 3657, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Ikeda moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 be adopted and H.B. No. 3657, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator McCartney rose to speak in favor of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"Mr. President, the Senator from Kauai leaned over and told me, 'more hands are better than one.' A bill never becomes reality unless it's a team effort and everybody makes the bill happen -- it's not just one person. This education bill has a powerful impact on our schools and will cause a lot of systemic change, but there are a lot of people outside who helped and I just want to acknowledge them: the PTSA, the HSTA, the UPW, the HGEA, the Hawaii Business Roundtable, the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, and many, many of the public schools like Kapaa Elementary, Waiālae Elementary, Waiiu Elementary, Moanalua and Kahuku High Schools. A lot of the people at those schools helped. There are many people in the Senate who worked behind the scenes who never really get recognized, but if it wasn't for their work and their efforts this bill again would not become reality. People in the Senate Majority Research office like Laurel Johnston, Richard Wada, Susan Claveria; in your office, Mr. President, Carol Taniguchi; on the Ways and Means staff -- a person that worked really very hard on the bill and put in a lot of ideas, Clay Springer, along with Kevin Kuroda; in Senator Holt's office, Glenn Nakamura; on the House side there was Susan Char and Cara Watanabe; and I'd like to thank my staff -- Walter, Jason, Blossom, Nancy and Ann.

"And, Mr. President, there are many of you. First of all, I'd like to thank you for sitting me down in your office and looking me straight in the eye and saying, 'We've given a lot of flexibility to the department and the Board of Education,' and you looked straight at me and you said, 'What have we gotten for it? Not ourselves as a Legislature, but what have the schools gotten?' And you know, Mr. President, I couldn't answer and it caused me to examine a lot of things that we've been doing and it caused me to help turn around our direction and take a stronger stand. Along with Senator Ikeda, we sat down and with her guidance and support and sometimes telling me in conference, 'What are you doing?' it helped steer the bill in the right direction.

"In conference, there's one person I'd like to thank. You know, he's really good in conference and we asked him to be part of the conference committee and I can honestly say that if I didn't use his leadership, and his leadership didn't help us, this bill would not be a reality, and that's Senator Holt and I'd like to thank him for working so hard on the bill, not only on the language, but working closely with the House, all the conferees.

"Last, but not the least, I'd like to thank my counterpart, Representative David Ige. He and I worked very hard for the last three years. We've done a lot of things together. This summer we've been working on this bill and it was kind of interesting. In conference he was saying things that I would say three years ago and I was saying things that he was saying three years ago, so it truly was a transformation of ideas.

"Mr. President, this is a bill that the people of Hawaii and more importantly, all of us here in the Legislature can be very proud of because it's a transformation of the system. It provides a significant change, systemic reform. It challenges the status quo and it puts children first. It empowers the school. What this bill says, Mr. President, is that we trust those closest to the children to do what's right for education. And it finally translates all the rhetoric in education, into reality. There are many more steps to take, but this bill is a firm step in that direction. It's not a win-win bill, Mr. President. The children win in this bill and that's what's most important. I just want to thank my colleagues and the entire body for supporting this bill and looking over the years, it's something we can be very proud of.

"If I may, Mr. President, may I insert into the Journal today's Advertiser editorial so that history may see the environment that we operated in. I think the editorial is very accurate and correct and I'd like to insert it as a point of information.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair having granted the request, the document is identified as Exhibit "B."

The Chair then remarked:

"Senator McCartney, thank you for your leadership on this bill."

Senator Holt also rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill. Before proceeding, Mr. President, I'd like to thank the Chairman of the Education Committee for his hard work on this measure and his steadfast dedication to improving the quality of our educational system, and also to the Chairman of Ways and Means for her support and her coaching. There were times when we looked like we were moving backwards, but she kept holding us together and we managed to come out with this bill.

"In particular, I'd like to thank the Education Chairman for agreeing to one area that I recommended of reserving appropriate language to involve the University of Hawaii to a much greater degree. With the agreement and approval of the Chair, language was inserted to provide for an articulation agreement with the University. Under this concept, qualified high school students would be able to enroll in college level classes which would satisfy both the DOE's requirements for graduation and the University's requirements for course credit. In recommending this program, it is my intent to provide the DOE and its students with a means to hopefully, quote, 'pull up the bottom by raising the top.' unquote. If successful, this would occur in both the traditional academic course of study, as well as in the vocational area.

"It is my sincere hope, Mr. President, by expanding early access to the rich educational resources of the University, especially in the neighbor islands, our students will be better served. As a former Chairman of the Higher Ed Committee, I'm very familiar with the capabilities of the University and therefore confident that this program will work as intended.

"For these reasons, Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to join me in support of this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 was adopted and H.B. No. 3657, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 45 (H.B. No. 65, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Ikeda moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 45 be adopted and H.B. No. 65, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Grauly rose to speak in support of the measure, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this bill.

"Very briefly, I'd like to thank Senator Baker, the Chairperson for our Housing Committee, for inserting language in this bill to take care of something that we acknowledged last Friday when we passed the resolution urging that the Filipino World War II veterans, who are American citizens by an act of Congress, be treated the same as all other veterans of the second world war. This bill, which allows them to have veterans' preference in our state housing projects, is consistent with the sense of the Senate as passed last Friday. I'd like to thank Senator Baker and all the Senators for their support of this particular measure, which I think is morally right and equitable and I think the proper thing to do for those veterans. I urge my colleagues to vote 'aye' for that reason alone. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 45 was adopted and H.B. No. 65, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (George, Koki).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 68 (S.B. No. 3254, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 68 was adopted and S.B. No. 3254, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE 1994 SAMOAN FLAG DAY," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

On motion by Senator Ikeda, seconded by Senator Holt and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 81 was adopted and S.B. No. 2141, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A SPOUSE/CHILD ABUSE SPECIAL ACCOUNT," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Hagino rose to speak in support of the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"Mr. President, first of all, when this session started, one of the things I outlined was that there were three bills that the Agriculture Committee would be considering. They say in baseball, if you're batting .300, you're a good hitter. Well, this is the only bill of the three that's still alive and hopefully we'll get to see this bill become a law.

"I'd also like, at this time, to thank the members of the conference committee. Without their support and effort, this bill probably would not be here today. There were times when I personally wanted to walk off the table and call it quits, but my conferees came in at very opportune times to move the bill along. I'd like to thank them for their efforts and their contributions.

"Mr. President, before I continue, there is one typographical error in the bill in which we make reference to Chapter ... it's supposed to be Chapter 174C, which is the chapter on water code; it is listed as Chapter 74C. I'm told that there is no Chapter 74C and this is a typographical error that can be corrected, so it is not a fatal error in the bill.

"Earlier this session, also today's session, the Education Committee Chair talked about his omnibus bill and how it would transform the educational system. I feel this bill is also a transformation of the agricultural community and there will be a step made to the future that will make agriculture a much more viable player in our economy. Right now, diversified agriculture is an important force, but with this bill, it will move forward and into the future.

"Again, I'd like to thank all the members for supporting this bill. Thank you very much."

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 3343 (Gov. Msg. No. 358):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3343 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of BERT M. TOMASU to the Hawaii Labor Relations Board, term to expire June 30, 2000, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator A. Kobayashi rose to speak against the nominee as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. First of all, Bert Tomasu is a friend. However, I must vote against him.

"We received petitions, phone calls, letters and testimony in opposition to his confirmation. Much of the opposition were from women, especially the members of Unit 3, who felt they were not treated fairly and this was a case of discrimination. Now that the strike is over and the position of many has softened, women still fear that they may be treated unfairly in the future. And because I assured them that I would support their stand against discrimination, I will be voting 'no.'

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Kobayashi, A., Nakasato, Tungpalan).

Ldr. Com. Rep. No. 3363 (Gov. Msg. No. 365):

Senator A. Kobayashi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3363 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried.

Senator A. Kobayashi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of LIBERT K. LANDGRAF to the Board of Land and Natural Resources, term to expire June 30, 1998, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator Matsuura rose to speak against the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I speak in opposition of this nominee.

"Mr. President, I would like to insert the committee's report into the Journal as part of my opening statement. The reason why I'm doing this is that I would like to read at least a portion of the committee report.

'Your Committee has serious concerns regarding the nomination of Libert Landgraf to the Board of Land and Natural Resources. Concerns have been raised as to Mr. Landgraf's management style, his role in the bulldozing of the native forests, his unwillingness to involve the public in decision making processes, his fiscal practices, and his commitment to protecting the environment.

'Your Committee submitted seventeen questions to Mr. Landgraf. He did not respond to over half of the questions. He failed to resolve our concerns on several others including those regarding receipts of per diem payments while living on Oahu. His reply was that the per diem payments stopped in 1980 is contradicted by the written record.

'Your Committee believes it is time to restore the public's trust in government. This appointment threatens to increase public cynicism and distrust of government and time has run out for any further attempts to resolve the Committee's concerns about this nomination.

'For these reasons, your Committee recommends that the Senate not consent to the nomination.'

And this is the committee report submitted by the Chairman of the Executive Appointments Committee.

"Mr. President, I have been here for ten years now and I've seen a number of nominees come and I have voted pretty much on all, but I can tell you for a fact, I have voted against a few of them. In fact, I voted against one not too long ago. It is extremely difficult to vote against a nomination, especially a friend and especially because you know that all of these people are volunteers. However, it is our responsibility to do what is right and in the best interest of the people of the State of Hawaii. It reminds me of when I used to Chair the Senate Special Investigation Committee. It was very difficult to subpoena people, subpoena documents and put these witnesses under oath and ask them some very leading questions. It is very difficult because these individuals ... you're known to them, you're friends of them. But yet, the thing that I have learned from that investigation and also from this nomination is that people in the State of Hawaii, they're afraid. I've never in my life experienced so many people, especially those working for the government, who are afraid of retribution, so it's amazing that according to the Executive Appointments committee report, a few of the state employees have stepped forward to express their concerns towards this nomination.

"So looking at all this data that has been produced, I feel that I have to vote my conscience. It is not, again, a question of loyalty. If it was a question of loyalty, I would vote up. But I think this is a question of integrity. If Libert was the only person in the whole State of Hawaii that can do this job, I would vote 'aye,' but I'm sure there's maybe a thousand other persons who can fulfill that responsibility. Having half of the committee members, including the Chairman, who sat through the hearings, listening to all of the testimonies and voting against this nomination tells you something. I'm not a member of the committee. I have to rely on the discretion of the Chairman, especially when I see four of the committee members going against it, it really gives me great concern that this nomination is even on the floor for a vote even against the wishes of the Chairman of the committee. And for that reason, Mr. President, I'm voting against this nomination to at least support the integrity of this Senate body.

"Thank you."

Senator A. Kobayashi then rose in opposition to the nominee as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I ask all my colleagues to join me in opposing the confirmation of Libert Landgraf to the Board of Land and Natural Resources.

"The good part, however, of this, really a mess that's been happening, is that I guess a decision was reached that every nomination sent by the governor should be voted on by the Senate body as a whole. I think that is a good move forward. I'm glad that this came out. I'm glad this happened, because it was said that this is a move on the part of leadership for more openness. So I'm sure the new governor in November will be happy to know that every nomination by the governor has to be voted on by the Senate body as a whole. It really is a good move forward.

"This attempt to confirm Mr. Landgraf by this body sends a troubling message. It is a blatant political move. We need to ask ourselves why after so many questions have been raised and why after so much opposition was raised by so many community groups, is the administration so insistent that Mr. Landgraf be placed on the Board of Land and Natural Resources? Why is this appointment so important? Why is it that after so much opposition from citizen groups, environmental groups, former employees, foresters and members of the fisheries group, why after all of that, instead of withdrawing his name and sending another name, as has been done in other instances, why did lobbying by the administration intensify? At a time when the public looks with increasing distrust at government, this appointment sends a wrong signal to our constituents.

"Mr. President, let me briefly present for you compelling reasons why Mr. Landgraf should not be appointed to the Board of Land and Natural Resources. We asked Mr. Landgraf to respond to a series of questions regarding his activities while working for the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Mr. Landgraf did not respond to over half of our questions. Particularly troubling was Mr. Landgraf's failure to clear a question regarding a per diem he received for his work on Oahu. Apparently he started receiving this per diem in 1978. He contends that the per diem was authorized by the Board of Land and Natural Resources. I'm not sure whether the board was authorized to grant him this per diem, particularly since the rules existing back then appear to forbid this practice. In any case, Mr. Landgraf contends that when it became clear that the state forester's job was not going to move to Hilo, he stopped receiving the per diem. It was abundantly clear that the state forester's job would be permanently located in Honolulu by 1980, two years after the creation of the Division of Forestry and Wildlife. The documents reveal he was still receiving per diem in November of 1982.

"Mr. Landgraf's failure to fully respond to our questions troubles me greatly. Questions have been raised and proof has been offered about his role in accelerating a program to bulldoze native forests. Documents reveal that he was slow to respond to citizen and staff complaints about illegal logging, bulldozing, construction and grazing. His actions at Nanawale, Laupahoehoe, Hanaula, Puuwaawaa and South Kona demonstrate an insufficient interest in protecting public resources and in addressing community concerns.

"It is time to restore the public's trust in government. This appointment will only increase public cynicism and I urge you to join me in opposing this nomination.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator George then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Would the previous speaker respond to a question?"

Senator A. Kobayashi having responded in the affirmative, Senator George continued:

"Thank you, Mr. President. My curiosity is directed toward seeing the committee report. I never have. I see the speaker before last has a copy of the blue committee report. I saw it when it was circulated to me for signature, but I believe mine and the Chair's were the only signatures at that point, so I had no idea who voted, how the votes were, or if the final text was as I saw it. Was that indeed distributed?"

Senator A. Kobayashi answered:

"Yes, and there was a majority of votes to have it reported out of committee, and the text remained the same. It is a report recommending that the Senate not consent to the nomination.

Senator George continued:

"My curiosity, Mr. President, is directed toward the fact that in this rainbow of colors, I don't seem to have any blue sheets to indicate distribution. There was something in the computer which I understand, subsequently from talking to the clerk, was an anomaly. I think perhaps I would like an explanation from the Chair or the Chairman as to what happened in this matter."

At 2:39 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 2:50 o'clock p.m.

Senator George then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Your Minority has now liberated the copy of the famous report. I assume we're still on G.M. No. 365 on the matter of Libert Landgraf to be confirmed.

"Mr. President, on perusing the report, I find that of the nine members of the leadership Committee on Executive Appointments, there are three affirmative signatures and there are four WRs, which might lead one to think that this would be in favor of confirmation, but I see that the report still reads as a negative recommendation. My understanding is that there are eight votes not to confirm and one member excused. Under the circumstances, Mr. President, I hope that my colleagues will join me in rejecting the nomination of Libert Landgraf.

"Thank you."

Senator McCartney then rose in support of the nominee, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the confirmation.

"Mr. President, serving in the Legislature is not easy and I represent an area that has many people that are concerned about the environment. My father is one of those who fought long and hard to save Kahaalu from noxious industries. I have a record of supporting many environmental issues.

"Mr. President, I received many calls on this issue. Many calls saying not to confirm Mr. Landgraf. I was in the middle of working on this education bill which is my number one priority, and I got sidetracked. I said, what is going on here? I went to the hearings and raised some questions. There were a number of concerns still on the table, so, Mr. President, I met with Mr. Landgraf for over two hours on Friday. We had a very good meeting. It was very heart to heart; it was very to the point. There were many things that I asked him, many things that were covered. And to me, Mr. President, that's what the confirmation process is all about, everybody voting their conscience and doing what they think is right, not just going from one side or the other, but looking at the issue, looking at the man.

"Mr. President, when I examined the issues, many of the actions that he took were actions of the department or the board. He was implementing them. On the per diem issue, that was approved by the board. The board approved the per diem. He lived in Hilo and he worked in Honolulu, the same as any other state employee.

"Mr. President, what I found most interesting was that the experience in Hana had changed him. He was a different person after he lived in Hana. I asked him why and he said, 'because of the people.' They taught him that your integrity and your values are more important than money. He took a very tough stand to walk away from a six-figure job, Mr. President, because the commitments that he made on behalf of the company to the people, he felt were not going to be followed, so he walked away from that job. I looked at the man and I asked him, 'What is your commitment?' He said his commitment is to serve. His commitment is to Hawaii. He's retired; he's not looking for future employment. He talked about not working for other companies while he was on the board. He wanted to go back to school. He had sixteen grandchildren and the most important thing for him is making Hawaii a place where his children can live. We talked about environmental issues and he told me very clearly that serving on the Board of Land and Natural Resources, environmental issues are very important, but not the only issues. You also need to be a land manager. You have to look at all perspectives on how to manage public lands. His father, Mr. President, was a state forester and he comes from a long tradition. He himself worked in the forests and worked on the land.

"Mr. President, I think he has a good heart and one question stuck in my mind and I asked him, 'Back in the old days when you implemented those actions, you know how you felt, right?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'How will you act now, when you're a member of the board?' He said, 'much differently.' He's learned a lot and he said, 'Back in the old days, the public was an observer, and today, the public is a participant and partner in the decision-making process.' His main goal, if he gets confirmed, would be to provide an outreach program for the Board of Land and Natural Resources, not to just have hearings where the public comes and testifies. He said he'll be an active board member, get involved with the community, hear what people have to say and make decisions not just based upon what happens in executive sessions, not just what happens in the hearing room, but based upon his feel of the people of Hawaii.

"The other major issue that he wants to work on and he feels is so close to his heart is the Hawaiian issues. We all know the Kahoolawe Commission and all the issues coming to the Department of Land and Natural Resources will be very big issues, like Hawaiian Homes, and he feels that with all of his experience, his heritage and who he is, he can do a good job, Mr. President.

"So, Mr. President, there's no real right or wrong. There's no good or bad, or evil or good. It's just everybody here voting their conscience. That's what we set out to do in the Senate, to have a vote taken, and that's what's happening today. Mr. President, I know some people will not be happy with my vote, but I assume responsibility for that vote and I vote my conscience in supporting Mr. Landgraf for the Board of Land and Natural Resources.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon also rose in support of the nominee as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I'm speaking in support.

"I would just like to correct some of the remarks of our Chairwoman of the Executive Appointments Committee. I have here the minutes of the Board of Land and Natural Resources dated November 10, 1977, where the board in fact did take official action and sanctioned the per diem that Mr. Landgraf received all of those years. I also have a letter which was submitted by then chairperson, Mr. Thompson, that also explains the situation. Mr. Landgraf at the time was, in fact, assuming dual responsibilities. He was still the division chairperson of the Division of Forestry office in Hilo, as well as, acting as a deputy here on the Island of Oahu.

"So with those corrections, Mr. President, I'm hoping that my colleagues will vote in the affirmative. Again, I would like to just say on behalf of our Chairwoman that I think that she has done an excellent job. She had a very, very difficult job because of all the testimonies from many, many of the groups that were disenchanted with Mr. Landgraf. Many of those groups were the different environmental organizations and I agree with a lot of the concerns of the environmental groups, but I think in the case of Mr. Landgraf's appointment, we have something that is more delicate. In many instances he was enacting on the decisions of the Land Board and not on his own as an individual. I think that is a consideration that has to be taken seriously.

"With that, Mr. President, I'm urging all my colleagues to vote in the affirmative. Thank you."

Senator Iwase then rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise to speak in support of the nomination, and I'd like to explain my vote.

"Mr. President, initially when this matter was brought to the Senate and all of the publicity had come out about Mr. Landgraf, I had strong reservations about the nomination. I'm not on the Executive Appointments Committee. I basically followed the nomination through the newspapers and on television, which may not be the best thing to do given the accuracy of the press, but nevertheless, I did. What touched me the last two days, when I really got to focus on this, is an issue which this nomination and the controversy surrounding it has left in the distance, but which I believe must be kept in the forefront, and that is the issue of Hawaiian rights and Hawaiian sovereignty and the need to have a voice on the Land Board of someone who understands and who can reasonably respond to this important issue.

"Make no mistake about it, this issue -- the Hawaiian sovereignty issue and the Hawaiian rights issue -- will become a major, primary issue before this body, perhaps within the next year. We are going to talk about issues of ceded lands and whether they should be sold or exchanged. We're going to talk about conservation land and whether and how we can preserve it for cultural uses. These land use questions go beyond just the environmental issue.

"Over the last couple of days, it has come to my knowledge, and I've spoken to members of these groups, that Hawaiian groups have come out very strongly for Mr. Landgraf. I understand that it spans a broad cross section, from individuals who have come and testified on their behalf or not necessarily on behalf of organizations, but individuals from the Ohana Council, to people like, and whom I dearly love and respect, Frenchy DeSoto. And it's really talking to some of these people this morning that has allowed me to come to the conclusion that we're going to need someone like Mr. Landgraf on the board, who will bring an understanding of the issue of Hawaiian sovereignty, who will come with an understanding of how emotional it's going to be and who will have the sensitivity to deal with it because we are going to need that kind of sensitivity, understanding, experience and intelligence as we move to deal with these issues over the course of the next year. These issues are as important as the environmental question.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Tungpalan, rising in support of the nominee, then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of Mr. Libert Landgraf.

"I was thankful for the opportunity this morning to spend the hour with him. I was also concerned about the many questions that were not answered by the Executive Appointments Committee. But as I spoke with him, I learned that there was one thing that was coming through very clearly and that was, had he been in control, full control, things would have been different.

"I recall my work with Mr. Landgraf because as Chair of the historic preservation area I've had an opportunity to work very closely with him. One thing impressed me most, and that was, his willingness to work with people for many years to get them to return cultural artifacts at heiau sites that these stones or pohaku were taken from. I'd ask him, 'You know, Mr. Landgraf, I knew of three pohaku that were missing from a particular heiau for over 30 years, and I'd wondered how they got back.' I knew that he was instrumental in returning them and he said that when he was a little boy, he went with his father throughout various sites in the state (at that time it was a territory) and he had this memory bank of many, many pohaku and artifacts that were located at these heiau. He said when he had an opportunity to see them again at someone's home or in a museum, he worked very diligently with the individual to see that those were returned.

"I need not tell you about our work here in trying to preserve our heiaus and how it seems like it's an uphill battle because many of our artifacts and pohakus seem to be taken so unreligiously and at will. To find a man, who over the years ... in fact he said he spent three years with that individual to see that those pohaku were returned. To see a man with an institutional memory like this and a memory of historic sites and the memory that his father instilled in him, willing to give of himself and to serve as a member of the Land Board, moved me to change my vote to vote 'aye' on Mr. Landgraf's nomination today.

"Thank you."

Senator Holt also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this nomination.

"Mr. President, I find a little irony in sitting here today and listening to some of those who have concerns about Mr. Landgraf. Having worked with him previously, when he was deputy director of DLNR, and as Chairman of the land committee and my predecessor Senator Matsuura who was chairman before me, we found Libert Landgraf to be a very fair, responsible state employee, instrumental in helping us develop the industrial park law, which today we can make claim to as the foundation for 110 businesses to be able to survive down at Sand Island. He was instrumental in moving ahead a lot of programs in the forestry area. We knew of his involvement in a lot of those things, yet, still today the Nature Conservancy supports him. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs supports him.

"Mr. President, as I stated earlier on the nurses bill, we're going to have measures that will always have those who oppose oftentimes a good cause. In this particular case, however, the objections of the opponents to Mr. Landgraf's nomination are unconvincing and to me, pretty lacking of any good cause. I urge my colleagues to vote in support.

"Thank you."

Senator A. Kobayashi rose again and stated:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Not to belabor the point, and I'll be very brief, but I did say in my remarks that the Board of Land and Natural Resources did approve the per diem. It's just that there were a lot of inconsistencies in his answers regarding dates, why and the length of time.

"In his first Hana job, we did receive a letter from the Hawaii Thousand Friends who quoted a news article in the Maui News, and also from one of the directors, that Mr. Landgraf was going to be terminated and that's why he left. This director also left because of some of the inconsistencies.

"Mr. President, I also worked with Mr. Landgraf when I was Chair of the Environmental Committee and I have nothing personal against the man. I've worked with him. However, we're still back to the basic question, why is this man needed so much on the Board of Land and Natural Resources when those in the field have been opposing him, those citizens groups, especially those environmental groups who keep a sharp eye on what happens in the environment? Why is it that when they oppose, the more they oppose the stronger the lobbying by the administration? And this is what frightens me the most; not so much the negative testimony that we received, but more, why is this man needed so badly on the board?

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 18. Noes, 7 (Chang, Fukunaga, George, Kobayashi, A., Matsuura, Matsuura, Reed).

Senator Tungpalan then stated:

"The amendments made by the House were basically stylistic in nature. I would like to insure the members of the Senate that we have this letter which states that, 'At this point, it is critical that the Kaho'olawe bill passes. Please agree to the House version. The administration will find the money elsewhere.' It was signed by Norma Wong and Harold Matsumoto. We have their assurance that money will be obtained for the fund.

"Thank you."

Senator Ikeda rose in favor of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President, as Chair of the conference committee in charge of this bill, I would like to apologize for the inadvertent error that was made which resulted in the conference draft missing the deadline. Contrary to statements made by one member of the House in this morning's Advertiser, this bill was not handled carelessly. We made some mistakes during the last few days. This was one of them. It was not intentional and should not be considered as a deliberate attempt to insult anyone.

"I hope that this action does remedy the error and it is my understanding, Mr. President, that you and the Speaker will be sending a letter to the governor, requesting his help in seeking the necessary funds and I'm sure that can be done. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Chang then said:

"Mr. President, with respect to the search for funds, we have a colleague of Norma Wong and Harold Matsumoto in the gallery today. I was wondering if he could perhaps, affirm his commitment to that task."

The Chair welcomed the Governor to the Senate.

Senator Matsuura then stated:

"Mr. President, we're passing a lot of bills through reconsideration. I didn't expect this to happen so I don't have any of the bills on my desk. So those who are asking for reconsideration, if there is anything controversial, please let us know about it because I don't know what we're passing. To be honest with you I don't remember contents of bills by the House bill number. So at least, if there is something bad, let us know so that we can at least express our concerns. I'm just getting a little concerned about voting on bills that I don't know what the content is. Thank you."

Senator Chang then responded:

"Mr. President, with respect to this bill, may I repeat the favorite refrain of the Senator from Hilo -- 'good bill.'" (Laughter.)

"Mr. President, I would like to recognize, at this time, the efforts of the Chairman on Higher Education, Culture and the Arts and the due diligence of the Chairman on Ways and Means in advancing this bill for consideration by both the House and the Senate. This has to deal, of course, with the commemoration of our compadres to Hawaii, the Hispanic population 200 years ago."

The motion to reconsider the action was put by the Chair and carried.

On motion by Senator Chang, seconded by Senator Tungpalan and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 3253, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 3253, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE COMMISSION TO COMMEMORATE THE 200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARRIVAL OF THE HISPANICS IN HAWAII," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Fukunaga).

Senator Holt rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'd like to insert into the Journal, a memo from me to you dated yesterday, regarding the Investigating Committee on Insurance.

"Very briefly to my colleagues, I'd just like to read part of it. It says that:

'My finding (regarding S.R. No. 5) thus far, lead me to believe that the initial scope of the investigation contemplated by the resolution, can be adequately addressed by your existing Committee on Consumer Protection without the additional powers provided to investigative committees under Chapter 21. Senate Resolution No. 5, which establishes an investigative committee, is consequently unnecessary at this time.'

'Therefore, with your approval, I would like to proceed on this basis with a full examination and evaluation of the insurance industry during the interim.' (I have a work plan which is attached to this.)

'While this agenda as proposed appears ambitious much of the information that will be required should be available without subpoena. If roadblocks are encountered however, the need for Chapter 21 powers may have to be revisited next session.'

"Thank you."

The Chair so ordered and identified the attachment of the memorandum from Senator Holt as Exhibit "C."

Senator McCartney also rose on a point of personal privilege, as follows:

"Mr. President, very briefly on a point of personal privilege.

"I'd just like to make a couple of quick remarks and thank all of my colleagues for working with me these last four years. It's been a very memorable experience and I want to recognize three people because this is their last day.

"First, I want to recognize the Senator from Manoa, Senator Ann Kobayashi, for serving 14 years in the Senate and for all her dedication and integrity to the people of Hawaii. We want to wish her well in her pursuit to higher office in the City and County of Honolulu and we hope the City Council will treat you well.

"I also want to wish my fellow Okinawan farewell. Senator Nakasato, who has provided many years of service and dedication to the people. He's running for the Congress of the United States. We want to wish you very well.

"And to my other fellow Okinawan, Senator Stan Koki from Waihole, we want to wish you very well in your pursuit of the lieutenant governorship. If you get in, can I still have a ride in your car? (Laughter.)

"I guess if I return, Mr. President, I'll probably be the only Okinawan in the Senate, the half-Okinawan, so we need to recruit more at the next election.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Solomon, Senate Majority Leader, then conveyed her closing day remarks, as follows:

"Mr. President, we began this session divided, with a change in leadership on the eve of the session, we were faced with uncertainty. Some questioned your ability to lead and the ability of all the new Chairs to handle the job before them. You asked us to work hard and to withhold judgment until the sixty-day session was over. Well, the time for judgment is here.

"Looking back over the past four months, I have seen many improvements in the way the Senate operates. Our leadership meetings were open to the public for the first time in the history of this body. We have chosen to make ourselves accountable for the expenditure of the annual $5000 allowance. Administrative matters are now handled quickly and efficiently. We have made equipment purchases, such as additional fax machines, that have improved public access to the legislative process.

"I noticed that there was a stronger public interest shown during this session as measured by attendance at hearings and the multitude of phone calls received. Was it because of the high profile and controversial legislation before our body or was it because the citizens are realizing that their personal participation in the legislative process can make a difference? At any rate, this is a good trend.

"I heard from the majority researchers that the quantity of legislation was normal this year, but the quality was of a higher level. Also, that legislation bordering on frivolousness were dropped forthright without much opposition from sponsoring Senators because we all realize that our legislative time is limited and we should not be wasting time with consideration of marginal legislations.

"Certainly, we have economic problems of a great magnitude which we have not adequately addressed. Mr. President, during this interim we must be prepared and available to deal with the fiscal and economic problems that combine to confront us. What are the causes of our fiscal difficulties? Economic growth has slowed as our state has entered its third year of recession with both discretionary and mandatory spending out-pacing revenue growth and our tax system and budgeting process is to a degree antiquated and in many instances does not reflect modern economic circumstances and behavior. As a result of this supplemental budget year, this was very, very difficult, but all in all I think we did a creditable job in being fair.

"But more than this, I feel that a sense of stability has returned to the Senate. For those of us who have chosen to put our differences aside and work with you, you have been accessible and you have been fair. We have seen how hard you have worked to bring pride back to the Senate, and this has made it easier for us to work hard. Our Chairs have done an admirable job under very difficult circumstances. We still have our differences, but no one said the process would be complete in sixty days. We have come a long way, Mr. President, and I congratulate you on a job well done.

"A fond Mahalo and Aloha to you all!"

The Chair then said:

"Thank you, Senator Solomon, for those kind remarks and congratulations and best wishes to you as you add another voter to your Senate district."

Senator Koki then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I guess I want to begin by a quote of our resident poet, Senator Iwase. I think he might have said this, but if he didn't say it first, he should have. 'Parting is such sweet sorrow.'

"You know, I never dreamed, or even desired, of really being in politics. In fact, there was a time when I even questioned it as a legitimate endeavor. However, I have learned differently and it has been a wonderful and valuable experience for me. Of course, it has been frustrating at times, but this is not a time to discuss that. I just want all of you to know that it has been a pleasure and a privilege for me to have worked with all of you. Of course, some of us, at times, have been on opposite ends of the issues, but I want all of you to know that each and every one of you has been a valuable person and has been a very valuable experience for me.

"We all know that the process is not perfect and it probably will never be, but we need to keep trying. And so, although this is my farewell to this body, it is not good-bye to elective office. And I want to end by quoting a famous Filipino patriot, Senator Grauly, 'I shall return.'" (Laughter.)

Senator George, Senate Minority Leader, then delivered her closing day remarks, as follows:

"Mr. President, each year when we dwindle down to the final gavel, we Legislators tend to turn into members of other professions. Sometimes we become school teachers, awarding As and Bs - or flunks - in a session report card. Or we get transformed into drama critics, identifying comedy or tragedy -- thumbs up or down.

"This year a legislator may seem more like an auto mechanic - you know, the kind who, after four months of tinkering under the hood, comes out to break the bad news that he thinks he's fixed the problems but it's going to cost you.

"While the press and the people who write the legislative wrap-ups will be looking back on this session, just about everybody else will be looking forward -- it's an even-numbered year!

"This body did a fair amount of looking forward, too. We know very well there will be a new administration before we convene again. Nervousness about this prospect has motivated quite a bit of this year's legislation.

"Historically, this body has encouraged and nourished a powerful executive branch, but this year, it's different. We have now voted to eliminate a slough of political appointees, and the Senate even tried to scuttle the most powerful office in the state -- the Governor's own Office of State Planning. Did they get their plans all finished? Or did we maybe not need them in the first place?

"We've strengthened legislative control over the way money is spent. We've voted ourselves advise and consent on District Court judges, and also handed ourselves two more slots for nominees to the Judicial Selection Commission.

"At the same time, the shrewdest critics are certain to notice the balls we dropped: tort reform, workers' comp reform, election and campaign reform.

"Let me return to my analogy of legislators as auto mechanics.

"I think there are still plenty of problems under the hood. And I believe this fall the voters will demand a government that runs better, is more fuel-efficient, is properly aligned, and is more reliable and responsive.

"I further predict that when this body convenes in January, the people will be in the driver's seat.

"Aloha. May we all fare well."

Senator A. Kobayashi rose on a point of personal privilege, and said:

"Thank you Mr. President. I know I've been a thorn in your side this past session. I stood here on opening day and I challenged you. Mr. President, I stand here today and I challenge you again. I challenge you to be as good a President next year as you have been this year. You've been a fine leader and I thank you for the courtesies you have extended to me. Thank you."

Senator Matsuura, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I guess I've been the biggest thorn to this Senate body. But as you know, my comments and actions have been with total sincerity.

"The most disappointing thing for me was that none of the bills that we introduced after all the ERS investigations, passed the House. But that's not our fault. I know there are a lot of people who are wondering about the continuation of the Senate Investigative Committee resolution etc., but there is one thing I learned this session -- I've got to go back to elementary school and learn to count to 13. I know that in the legislative process, with 13 votes the majority wins. So with that, thank you."

Senator Chang then said:

"Mr. President, if you could correct the record, Senator Matsuura has not yet been confirmed as the biggest thorn. Measurements will be taken after the session by Senator Matsunaga. Thank you." (Laughter.)

Senator Baker rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"As the Senate's newest member, I think I would be remiss if I didn't take this opportunity to thank you, Mr. President, and all of my colleagues for the assistance and advice you have given me this year and for your understanding when I lapsed back to remembrances from whence I came with references to a body that sits a floor above us. You were very kind and considerate and helpful. I enjoyed serving on the committees to which I was assigned and I appreciate the courtesies that all of my colleagues have extended me.

"I look forward to the opportunity, after a hard fought campaign, to return next year.

"Thank you."

Senate President Mizuguchi then delivered his closing remarks, as follows:

"Some sixty working days ago, a badly divided Senate convened amid predictions of disharmony and a flawed session that would be stuck in legislative gridlock.

"I took note of the conventional wisdom and on opening day of this session called upon the members of the Senate to outdo themselves. I asked the public and the pundits to withhold judgement on our accomplishments until this day and made my own prediction of a session that would far surpass expectations.

"Although there have been some rough spots, and emotions have flared especially during the last few days, the Senate can boast of either setting aside the past in the overriding interest of addressing the public agenda.

"That is an accomplishment of which all members may take pride.

"Also at the outset of the session, I asked Senators to give a special priority to the education of our children.

"Of all the things that require attention, I said, none is so full of promise, so certain of reward, so essential to our society, as education.

"I am very pleased to note that the Education Committees of the House and Senate have confronted the issue directly and created a new and more responsive system that is stronger and more productive. I congratulate the members of the education conference committee on their accomplishment and thank them for their hard work.

"While education may be the central issue of the session, I do not wish to ignore other important matters on which the Senate's committees have worked to the credit of themselves and the Senate as a whole. We have done much, but there is more to be done in the interim.

"There are, for instance, significant unresolved issues in the insurance industry, which will require oversight by the appropriate committees as we try to establish a new understanding of the role of insurance in our economy.

"This year is an election year, and we can expect some changes in the Senate membership. Some of you will be going on to other offices. We thank you for your work and extend our best wishes to you as you continue your career.

"We are given sixty days to assess the wants and needs of our constituents and fashion a response that leads us to the future. This is a task that demands insight, fosters cooperation and generates creativity. I am confident that the Senate is equal to the challenge.

"In closing, let me thank each Senator and member of the Senate staff. From the excitement of opening day, to the demand of deadlines, to the determination of crossover, you have been steadfast in supporting the public's interest to the best of your ability. Your contribution has been valuable, and will be remembered.

"Thank you very much for your support."

At this time, the President asked the Majority Leader, the Majority Floor Leader and the Minority Leader to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate is ready to adjourn Sine Die.

At 3:55 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 4:10 o'clock p.m.

Senator Holt then remarked:

"Mr. President, I would be remiss if I did not take this opportunity to bid Aloha to one of the finest persons I've been happy to work with. Mr. Rick Perkins is also leaving this body along with the others who won't be here next year when we return. I don't know about the rest of you, but I'll return. (Laughter.)

"Rick, thanks for everything. We're looking forward to all of you coming back. Work hard during the interim. Rick, thanks again for everything."

ADJOURNMENT

Senator Chang moved that the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, adjourn Sine Die, seconded by Senator George and carried.

At 4:12 o'clock p.m., the President rapped his gavel and declared the Senate of the Seventeenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1994, adjourned Sine Die.

April 28, 1994

Senator Ann Kobayashi, Chairman
Committee on Executive Appointments and committee members

Dear Senator Kobayashi:

In response to questions from Senator Mike McCartney:

1. Understanding the State Constitution as it relates to water?

Under Article XI our State has the duty to conserve and protect our natural resources which include water and it's our obligation to control and regulate these resources for the benefit of our citizens.

2. Appurtenant water right?

A right to water based upon native custom and usage. Farmers who grew taro were entitled to use water. (In State Water Code)

3. Riparian water right?

A right to use water that runs past an owners property. Subject to reasonable use of other riparian owners. Domestic, first rights artificial use secondary.

4. Term Beneficial use?

To utilize water to serve our public. Domestic, Agriculture, Conservation, Navigation, power, commercial, recreational, wild life habitat, etc.

5. Stream systems being retained in natural condition?

If possible streams should be retained in their natural condition. There is only a few left.

6. Should the Water Commission restore if practicable water to stream statewide?

Hard question. We could close down plantations, that would not be beneficial. Are we suppose to undo sins committed 70 to 100 years ago? It was our economic development. Would need more information on cost, benefits, etc., to make a response.

7. Pursue Stream channelization for flood control?

I am the only West Maui SWCD Director left that has pursued the Honolua Water Shed and Kahoma Stream channelization in West Maui. You must live in or around to see and understand dangers to human lives. Also if it's done, its got to be balanced to protect our environment. Most people do not understand, especially newcomers. We can't make a storm nor stop one, but we can provide for safety and welfare of our people.

8. Role of a Commissioner?

Protect our State Constitution as it relates to water to benefit all of the people of Hawaii.

OTHER QUESTIONS:

My friendship with Mr. Souki? Yes a very dear friend. From our days in school long before he being in public office and long after his public tenure where a lot of his friends now won't be available.

My Companies? Maui Soda & Ice Works a local owned corporation. Nobriga's Ranch and Wailena Farm all local owned. Family owned, closed corporation to the public, etc. Mr. Souki does not own any or sit on any of my Boards.

My application to the Water Commission was not the first time. It was in on the original incorporation of the Water Commission, but not chosen.

In 1977, Congress passed Public Law 95-192 RCA for each State to conduct an appraisal of its water resources. I was one of that five member from SWCD Districts and State DLNR that worked that plan. Chapter 226 Hawaii Revised Statutes was signed into law on May 22, 1978 as our State Water Resource Development Plan and Agriculture Plan.

I am a graduate of St. Anthony High School only and know that common sense is something that a lot of high educational and or professional people don't have. It was an honor to be nominated by our Governor and an honor to be confirmed by you if you feel I'm qualified.

Sincerely,

/s/David Nobriga
DAVID NOBRIGA

What a sorry education mess

This is school governance?
School board should tell voters
how they voted and why

The system that "governs" (and we use the word loosely) Hawaii public education hit bottom this weekend:

■ Faced with public demands for change, the elected Board of Education picked the incumbent — acting superintendent Herman Aizawa — to be the next state superintendent.

That doesn't automatically rule out "change." However, board members owe us an explanation of what, exactly, separated Aizawa's vision for change from those of the other four contenders. No such explanation has been given.

■ Faced with a public demanding accountability, board members won't say who voted for whom as superintendent, except for leaked word that the tally was 7-6.

These are elected officials, mind you; one of their main duties is to hire a superintendent. They owe it to you voters to say whom they voted for and why. They refuse.

■ Faced with a need for stable guidance at the top, the board picked Aizawa by a one-vote margin, 7-6, then gave him no long-term contract. "We could fire him tomorrow," Hartmann said Saturday in the most bizarre statement ever made at a press conference announcing a new hire.

So, Aizawa has the job, but if he displeases even one of the seven board members who favor him, he could be gone. That's a formula for fence-straddling inaction and micro-management by individual board members.

■ The state Legislature is so fed up by all of this that it is about to pass legislation to ask voters to switch to an appointed school board and/or strip the board of all but broad policymaking power. Hartmann says the school board welcomes a public vote on the elected vs. appointed board issue because it will decide the question once and for all. She predicts an overwhelming vote for an elective board. Sadly, she's probably right, because many voters still cling to the fantasy that an elected board is automatically more accountable to the public.

This weekend's strange development puts the lie to that.

Anybody who claims to know who controls public education in Hawaii is hallucinating. The fact is, everybody's in charge — a little bit. The governor's office, the Legislature, the school board, the state budget office, and oh yes, the superintendent to some extent. Because all are accountable, none of them is.

Aizawa

Nobody knows this better than Department of Education veteran Aizawa. It's a mystery to us why he would want the job under such circumstances with a seven-vote majority of board members who won't even tell how they voted.

What now?

■ The public ought to flood the Board of Education with mail, faxes and phone messages demanding that each member publicly explain his or her vote on the superintendency — who they voted for and why. The list at the top of this column tells you how to put the pressure on.

■ The board should come to its senses and give Aizawa the security of a long-term contract so he isn't looking over his shoulder every day.

■ Voters in November should change the Constitution to create an appointive, advisory, policymaking school board. Authority for appointing the superintendent should be given to the governor. That way, you'll know who picked him, and who to blame if he doesn't work out.

No wonder Hawaii leads the nation in private school enrollment.

TO: Senator Norman Mizuguchi, President
FROM: Senator Milton Holt
SUBJECT: INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE ON INSURANCE

Due to the extremely heavy workload during the last few weeks, I would like to apologize for my failure to notify you of my plans with regard to Senate Resolution No. 5. I would therefore, like to take this opportunity to provide you with an update of our previous discussions concerning insurance matters.

My findings thus far, lead me to believe that the initial scope of the investigation contemplated by the resolution, can be adequately addressed by your existing Committee on Consumer Protection without the additional powers provided to investigative committees under Chapter 21. Senate Resolution No. 5, which establishes an investigative committee, is consequently unnecessary at this time.

The need for a close examination of policies and practices within the insurance industry, especially with regard to the availability and affordability of homeowner's insurance is well recognized and described at length in S.R. No. 5.

Therefore, with your approval, I would like to proceed on this basis with a full examination and evaluation of the insurance industry during the interim.

My tentative workplan for the examination consists of the following items:

Senator Norman Mizuguchi, President
May 1, 1994

- (1) Receive input from individual property owners and small businesses on the availability, cost of coverage, and the resulting economic impact;
- (2) Evaluate the nature and extent of insurer operations in Hawaii;
- (3) Evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of existing regulatory controls and oversight of the industry;
- (4) Examine actions taken by other jurisdictions with similar conditions;
- (5) Identify and consider various incentives to attract additional insurers and increase competition;
- (6) Identify alternative market mechanisms, disaster relief programs, and potential risk management measures; and
- (7) Examine any other potential mitigation and risk management opportunities.

While this agenda as proposed appears ambitious much of the information that will be required should be available without subpoena. If roadblocks are encountered however, the need for Chapter 21 powers may have to be revisited next session.

At your convenience, I would like to discuss this matter further and provide you with a list of staff and other resources that will be required during the interim.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1733

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1733, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the Return of Merchandise.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 1733 is to strengthen laws pertaining to the return of goods. Specifically, the bill replaces the current law with a new section that sets forth a set of definitions and procedures intended to resolve many of the ambiguities in the current law by (1) requiring merchants to post conspicuous signs notifying consumers of the merchant's refund and exchange policy; (2) requiring merchants who fail to post such a sign to accept the return of merchandise from customers and make refunds upon the return of merchandise; (3) establishing conditions by which refunds are to be provided to consumers and conditions by which the merchant is not required to provide a refund, credit, or exchange; (4) authorizing merchants a deduction for the expense of restocking the returned goods when calculating the full amount of payment to be refunded; and (5) subjecting any merchant in violation of the section to a fine of $1,000 for each violation, to be collected in a civil action brought by the Attorney General or the Director of the Office of Consumer Protection.

The removal of the current provision that violations of the refund and exchange law constitute unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce under section 480-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, does not strengthen the current law and in fact creates significant questions concerning consumers' rights to pursue a private action for violation of the law.

Additionally, this bill reduces significantly the potential penalty for violations, severely curtails the enforcement options contained in the current law, and imposes unreasonable and costly enforcement burdens on the State.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1733 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ John Waihee
JOHN WAIHEE
Governor of Hawaii"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2647

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2647, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Environmental Education.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 2647 is to establish within the Department of Land and Natural Resources an Environmental Education Clearinghouse that will consist of a computerized reference data base of environmental education services, programs, and curriculum accessible to the public by electronic and printed formats and a reference library composed of environmental education documents. The bill will also establish a temporary Environmental Education Council, consisting of up to eighteen members, which will hire a coordinator to coordinate resources and personnel required in the development of the clearinghouse, but whose appointment will not extend beyond June 30, 1995.

For the purposes of this bill, including but not limited to the hiring of necessary staff, the bill appropriates only $25,000. The appropriated funds are grossly inadequate to achieve the purposes of the bill, and only a scaled-down version of a small part of the actions specified by the bill could possibly be achieved with the appropriated funding.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning House Bill No. 2647 without my approval.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2020

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2020, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Land Use.'

The purposes of Senate Bill No. 2020 are to (1) establish and designate the boundaries of two Special University of Hawaii Development Zones ('Zones') in Kapolei Village in Ewa, Oahu, and in West Hawaii on the island of Hawaii, (2) provide the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii ('Board') with the exclusive authority and responsibility to develop, plan, construct, operate, and maintain higher educational facilities in the Zones, and (3) authorize the Board to contract with any person for the construction, operation, and maintenance of facilities for its athletic programs in the Zones.

The bill fails to indicate the boundaries or the specific acreage that should be set aside for each of the two Zones. Section 2 of the bill attempts to establish the Kapolei development zone without a specific reference to the exact location and land area by only stating that the 'zone consist[ed] of a contiguous area of not less than [ ] hundred acres of land located adjacent to the Diamond Head side of Kapolei Village in Ewa, Oahu.' Furthermore, Section 3 of the bill attempts to establish the West Hawaii development zone without a specific reference to the exact location and land area by only stating that the 'zone consist[ed] of a contiguous area of not less than [ ] acres of land located on the island of Hawaii.'

The legislative committee reports do not indicate the specific acreage that should be set aside for each development zone. Since neither the bill nor its legislative history contains a specific description of the boundaries for each development zone or the amount of acres that should be set aside for each development zone, this bill cannot achieve its purposes.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2020 without my approval.

Gov. Msg. No. 424, dated June 21, 1994, transmitting his statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 2249 which he has returned to the Senate without his approval and which reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 21, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2249

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2249, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the Controls to Be Exercised in the Execution of the Budget and Other Program Appropriations.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 2249 is to modify the budget allotment system by incorporating fiscal and personnel controls on an aggregate basis regarding budget estimates and allotment changes. Senate Bill No. 2249 enables each state department to determine its program priorities in meeting increases or, in particular, reductions, in program allocations.

According to the legislative committee reports on this bill, the committees believed that this bill would give departments greater flexibility in accomplishing their budgeted objectives and would insure greater accountability in the expenditure of state funds. While I am not sure that this bill would provide greater flexibility and accountability, I do believe that existing law, namely, part II of chapter 37, Hawaii Revised Statutes, provides the means for addressing the issues of flexibility in program priorities and accountability by individual departments. The provisions of part II of chapter 37 give departments latitude in allotting moneys according to their internal priorities, subject to the determination that those prioritizations are consistent with legislative direction and statewide priority considerations, and are within the limitations of available revenues. Accordingly, I believe this measure is not needed.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2249 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Gov. Msg. No. 425, dated June 21, 1994, transmitting his statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 2648 which he has returned to the Senate without his approval and which reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 21, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2648

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2648, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the University of Hawaii.'

The purpose of this bill is to authorize the expenditure of funds from the University of Hawaii Student Activities Revolving Fund for use by chartered student organizations to employ, or retain by contract, attorneys to defend the chartered student organizations in any litigation, to render legal advice, or to draft legal documents.

Senate Bill No. 2648 will amend Section 103-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and section 103D-209(b) of the new State Procurement Code adopted by section 2 of Act 8, Special Session Laws of Hawaii 1993. These sections allow the listed government entities to expend public funds for legal services. The amendments to section 103-3 and the State Procurement Code do not achieve the purpose of the bill, which is to authorize expenditure of public funds to employ attorneys for the chartered student organizations. These amendments authorize chartered student organizations to expend public funds for the employment of attorneys to represent the State of Hawaii or a state department, not private organizations such as the student organizations.

In addition, Senate Bill No. 2648 could open the door to the State Treasury to pay for damages caused by private nongovernmental organizations. Based upon a review of statutes and documents, the State Attorney General declined to represent a chartered student organization (Board of Publications) in one instance because it was determined to be an independent unincorporated association and not a public governmental entity and, in another instance, also determined that another chartered student organization (Associated Students of the University of Hawaii) is similarly not a public governmental entity. However, in a legislative committee report, one of the committees expressed its belief that 'chartered student organizations at the University are legitimate public entities, and are entitled to use public monies to defend themselves against possible lawsuits.' Because the state government, including the University of Hawaii, does not presently control or supervise the student organizations, this exposure to liability is of grave concern. The foregoing statement in the legislative committee report together with the inclusion of chartered student organizations in the list of governmental entities in section 103-3 and section 103D-209(b) could lead to a judicial determination that the legislature intended to treat chartered student organizations as public governmental entities, and open the door to the State Treasury to pay for damages caused by those organizations.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2648 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ John Waihee

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 22, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 3324

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 3324, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Permanent Autonomy for Hilo and Maui Memorial Hospitals.'

The purpose of this bill is to make permanent the provisions of the pilot autonomy project, Act 211, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993, for the autonomous operation of Maui Memorial Hospital and Hilo Medical Center by exempting those facilities from the requirements of advertised bidding sections of the new procurement law, chapter 103D, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and other related statutes until June 30, 1996. The bill requires the two facilities to adopt policies and procedures to ensure that acquisitions conform to the spirit of the competitive bidding process, however.

Furthermore, this bill will amend section 36-30, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to exempt the special funds of Maui Memorial Hospital and Hilo Medical Center from the requirement that special funds must pay their pro rata share of the administrative expenses incurred by the Department of Health for the operations supported by the fund concerned. Other state agencies are generally required to grant waivers upon request by the Department of Health on matters affecting Maui Memorial Hospital and Hilo Medical Center.

While I fully support the autonomy concept as it relates to the state public health facilities, I cannot approve this bill.

First, the bill is not needed. It was introduced as part of a package drafted by the Department of Health. House Bill No. 3324 was included as a 'safety net' for the two largest facilities in the event the Legislature failed to pass House Bill No. 3327, which creates a task force to prepare a plan for a future agency of community hospitals, and House Bill No. 3458, which amends chapter 103D to provide that the deputy director of health for the Division of Community Hospitals is the chief procurement officer for all the public health facilities and the division office. House Bill No. 3327 and House Bill No. 3458, both of which were passed by the Legislature, are better vehicles for achieving the goal of improved management of the public health facilities than this bill, which exempts only two of the thirteen facilities from chapter 103D and requires that acquisitions be accomplished in the spirit of the new procurement code.

Second, the provision allowing the division to permanently seek waivers from other agencies is inconsistent with the entire legislative package. Under Act 211, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993, section 4, which sunsets on June 30, 1996, the community hospitals already have the power to request the waivers. With the enactment of House Bill No. 3327, a permanent waiver provision is not needed.

Finally, House Bill No. 3300 will repeal sections 103-41 through 103-48, Hawaii Revised Statutes, rendering the portion of the bill exempting the community hospitals from those provisions moot.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 3324 without my approval.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO.
556

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 556, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Prostitution.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 556 is to preserve the health, welfare, and safety of residents and visitors in Waikiki by making street solicitation of prostitution in Waikiki a separate criminal offense with a mandatory six-month minimum term of imprisonment.

Although I agree that prostitution is a serious problem which represents a threat to the health, welfare, and safety of the public, that threat is present wherever prostitution occurs. This problem must be addressed by a law of general application which does not simply target specified geographical areas. A law such as that proposed by this bill will only drive prostitution into the neighborhoods adjacent to Waikiki, namely, Kapahulu, McCully, Ala Moana, and the area surrounding the Hawaii Convention Center. Such a result is unacceptable to me.

Moreover, no appropriation of funds was made to implement this bill. The six-month mandatory minimum term of imprisonment that must be imposed for conviction of street solicitation of prostitution in Waikiki will create a right to a jury trial when no such right exists for convictions of similar crimes under existing law. The creation of another criminal offense that will entitle the accused person to demand a jury trial will add to the existing backlog of court cases awaiting jury trials at a time when fiscal constraints prevent the judiciary from resolving the problem of the existing backlog.

In addition, according to the Department of Public Safety, the prison system is already overcrowded and additional facilities would be required to accommodate the violators of this proposed law. The Department estimates that, for approximately 40 convicted prostitutes, $1.5 million annually would be required to accommodate and implement the six-month imprisonment provision for violators of the proposed law. Due to budgetary restrictions, the Department's projections for fiscal year 1994-1995 already show a budget deficit of $600,000 without the enactment of this bill. Without an appropriation of additional funds, this bill will only contribute to the overcrowding of the existing correctional facilities at a time when the correctional facilities are already subject to a court-ordered consent decree that specifies minimum bed space capacities for the correctional facilities.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 556 without my approval.

Gov. Msg. No. 429, dated June 22, 1994, transmitting his statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 2262 which he has returned to the Senate without his approval and which reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 22, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO.
2262

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2262, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Hawaiian Affairs.'

The purposes of Senate Bill No. 2262 are to provide for continued service of a court-appointed independent representative of the beneficiaries of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, and to appropriate funds for that purpose; to confirm the continued commitment of the State to resolution of claims against the State and the federal government with respect to the Hawaiian home lands trust pursuant to the Governor's action plan as approved by the Legislature in Senate Concurrent

Resolution No. 185, Regular Session of 1991, and as provided in Act 352, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993, to appropriate funds for that purpose; and to provide 'access to the courts for prompt resolution of legal disputes that may arise between the independent representative and members of the task force in considering steps to be taken in resolving such claims.'

As I have recognized on many occasions, native Hawaiian beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act of 1920, as amended, have waited many years for the trust corpus originally conveyed pursuant to the Act to be restored to its full potential. It was with this central fact in mind that I submitted to the legislature an ambitious action plan, which was approved by the Legislature in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 185, Regular Session of 1991, for the resolution of claims against the State pertaining to the Hawaiian home lands trust. In 1992, after more than a year of diligent effort, the task force convened pursuant to that action plan -- without an independent representative -- was able to recommend, and I was able to present, payment of more than $9.72 million to the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. Since then, the Circuit Court for the First Circuit, State of Hawaii, has held that the task force process had operated lawfully. Nonetheless, the Legislature enacted Act 352, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993, authorizing the expenditure of funds for an independent representative of the beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. By a court-approved agreement, legal challenges to the task force process were dropped when I signed Act 352 into law. Under the court-approved agreement, Act 352 provides the sole basis for the independent representative's authority and compensation.

Unfortunately, Act 352 has not achieved its purpose of resolving claims against the State concerning the Hawaiian home lands trust. In fact, since Act 352 was passed, no funds have been paid to the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to resolve any claims. Instead, legal proceedings concerning the independent representative's powers and authority have become protracted, and threaten to delay the process of compensating the home lands trust for years into the future, and beyond.

Senate Bill No. 2262 exacerbates the problems of delay, without corresponding benefits. In particular, the bill provides for even more protracted legal proceedings that are supposedly aimed at assisting the task force process, but which, in the end, will likely only add significantly to the delay of payments to the trust. As our state courts have reaffirmed on several occasions, the chairman and members of the Hawaiian Homes Commission owe a fiduciary duty to their trust beneficiaries, and I have seen nothing to indicate that the chairman of the Commission, who sits upon the task force relating to resolution of trust claims, nor the Commission members, in their approval of payments and related matters, in any way have breached their trust responsibilities. In lieu of the officials charged by Congress with the essential fiduciary duty to the trust beneficiaries, Senate Bill No. 2262 vests not only the independent representative, but arbitrators and the state courts, with significant new responsibilities, all of which will take years to discharge, and which will frustrate the purpose of the action plan submitted to the Legislature, and approved by it, pursuant to Act 395, Session Laws of Hawaii 1988.

I especially regret that the Legislature decided to add these new provisions to the bill, and that the independent representative was not able to move more quickly to resolve the important issues blocking payment of additional funds to the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. Justice delayed is justice denied, and Senate Bill No. 2262 only threatens more delay, without significant gains to the beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act.

The independent representative's authority will terminate on December 1, 1994, pursuant to section 5 of Act 352, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993. In the time that remains until then, I expect the task force which I convened to work diligently on the outstanding claims. It is my sincere hope that the next Legislature may look favorably upon the expected report and recommendations of the task force.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2262 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 740, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Accountants.'

The purpose of this bill is to limit the circumstances under which a civil tort action based on simple negligence may be maintained against a person engaged in the practice of public accountancy.

This bill creates a new section in chapter 663, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which limits the liability of public accountants for simple negligence exclusively to (1) the issuer or requester of the public accountant's work product and (2) any person (a) specifically identified to the public accountant, (b) to whom the public accountant knew that the financial statements and other information would be made available and relied upon, and (c) to whom the public accountant acknowledged in writing an understanding that the person would rely upon the financial statements and other information. Thus, these are the only persons to whom a public accountant owes a duty for his or her professional services.

This bill raises significant concerns since other innocent consumers or third parties who have access to and normally rely upon the financial statements, audits, and other information prepared by public accountants are precluded from bringing an action for simple negligence. Accordingly, the partial immunization from third party liability may reduce the reliability of the financial documents prepared by the public accountant and ultimately protect the public accountant at the consumer's expense.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 740 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 256

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 256, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Smoking.'

The purpose of this bill is to amend chapter 328K, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to (1) prohibit the distribution of tobacco product samples on public streets and sidewalks, in public parks, and within 500 feet of schools and other facilities used primarily by persons under 18 years of age; (2) prohibit the distribution of tobacco promotional materials within 500 feet of schools and other facilities used primarily by persons under 18 years of age; (3) amend the definition of the term 'restaurant' so that restaurants with a seating capacity of 40 people or less (instead of the current figure of 50 people or less) need not provide nonsmoking areas; (4) require restaurants to set aside at least 35 percent of their dining areas for nonsmokers until July 1, 1995, and 50 percent thereafter; (5) nullify any county regulation of the 'the sale, use, distribution or promotion of cigarettes or other tobacco products' adopted after January 1, 1994; (6) redefine the term 'employer' so that the provisions of chapter 328K that regulate smoking in the workplace will apply to private employers of two or more people as well as to government agencies and to entities that receive state funds under chapter 42D, Hawaii Revised Statutes; (7) make clear that the chapter's workplace smoking regulations do not apply to the dining or public areas of restaurants, bars, or nightclubs, or to banquet rooms or convention facilities used for private functions; and (8) establish a temporary task force within the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism (DBEDT) to 'develop legislative proposals to address the economic and environmental impacts of regulating smoking in restaurants, cabarets and bars throughout the state.'

Portions of the bill would address the need to protect the public against the hazards of smoking and of environmental tobacco smoke. However, other parts of the bill would have the opposite effect, and for this reason I cannot approve it.

First, under the existing law restaurants are allowed to provide nonsmoking areas based on their patrons' desires. This bill's requirement that restaurants set aside certain percentages of their seating areas for nonsmoking patrons would require enforcement by the Department of Health. With over 2,000 restaurants across the state, this is beyond the ability of the department's current staffing, so the provision is, practically speaking, unenforceable.

Second, the bill's preemption provision would limit the counties' ability to protect public health within their respective jurisdictions. Current law allows the counties to establish smoking regulations that are stricter than those of the State, an arrangement that has created appropriate protections in the counties. This arrangement has, for the most part, worked well. Still, I feel strongly that there is a place for state-wide uniform standards. Had this bill contained state-wide indoor air quality standards and the resources to monitor and enforce those standards, instead of focusing only on tobacco-related issues, I would have signed it.

Third, the establishment and chairing of the temporary task force under the auspices of the DBEDT will place increased emphasis on economic rather than public health issues. The bill stipulates that the purpose of the task force is to develop legislative proposals to address the economic and environmental impacts of regulating smoking in restaurants, cabarets, and bars throughout the state, but this provision does not include consideration of public health issues. Moreover, the bill does not appropriate any funds to support this effort.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 256 without my approval.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 22, 1994

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO.
2198

Honorable Members
Seventeenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2198, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Creditors' Rights.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 2198 is to render ineffective all judgments obtained by Hawaii's sister states against delinquent taxpayers for failure to pay state income taxes on retirement income. The bill will accomplish this by preventing the attachment or execution of real or personal property in Hawaii pursuant to the other states' valid judgments.

This bill is before me for approval because there is a belief by some in our community that taxpayers in Hawaii who receive pension proceeds from out-of-state are taxed twice on those proceeds -- once by Hawaii and once by the state where the pension payments originate. If this were true, I would sign this bill. However, there is in fact no double taxation. The State of Hawaii, as well as other states, gives a tax credit to residents paying income taxes in other states. Since double taxation of the same income is not, in fact, occurring, there is no valid reason for Hawaii taxpayers not to pay lawfully imposed taxes or to prevent the execution of valid judgments for taxes lawfully imposed by other states.

Moreover, this bill, by requiring the State of Hawaii to dishonor the valid judgments of other states, appears to violate the Full Faith and Credit Clause of Section 1 of Article IV of the United States Constitution. The bill also conflicts directly with the tax comity provision in section 231-26, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which mandates that 'the courts of the State shall recognize and enforce the liability for taxes lawfully imposed by the laws of any State which extends a like comity, whether by statute or case law, in respect of the liability for taxes lawfully imposed by the laws of this State.' This bill, if enacted, may impair the ability of Hawaii to enforce its tax laws out-of-state by diminishing the comity Hawaii currently enjoys with other states.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2198 without my approval.

State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 3253, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Making an Appropriation for the Commission to Commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the Arrival of the Hispanics in Hawaii.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 3253 is to ensure that funds in the budget of the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts are expended for the 1994 bicentennial anniversary celebration of the arrival of Hispanics in Hawaii. The bill will amend the General Appropriations Act of 1993, Act 289, Session Laws of Hawaii 1993, to add a proviso designating $1 of the funds appropriated for fiscal year 1994-1995 to the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts to be expended for the celebration.

I believe that the bicentennial anniversary of the arrival of Hispanics in Hawaii is certainly an event that should be celebrated. The $1 designated for the celebration is obviously inadequate, but it is my understanding that the Legislature included in operating funds for the Office of the Governor in the Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1994 the sum of $10,000 to fund the celebration. Enactment of this bill could prevent the use of those available funds, because the specific dollar amount specified in this bill would properly be interpreted to be the maximum amount intended by the Legislature to be expended for the celebration, overriding the funding in the Supplemental Appropriations Act.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 3253 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ John Waihee
JOHN WAIHEE
Governor of Hawaii"

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, under Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, the Governor is required to give notice, by a proclamation, of his plan to return with his objections any bill presented to him less than ten days before adjournment sine die or presented to him after adjournment sine die of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 3253, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Making an Appropriation for the Commission to Commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the Arrival of the Hispanics in Hawaii,' passed by the Legislature, was presented to the Governor within the aforementioned period; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 3253 is unacceptable to the Governor of the State of Hawaii;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN WAIHEE, Governor of the State of Hawaii, do hereby issue this proclamation, pursuant to the provisions of Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, giving notice of my plan to return Senate Bill No. 3253 with my objections thereon to the Legislature as provided by said Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution.

DONE at the State Capitol, this 22nd day of June, 1994.

\s\ John Waihee
JOHN WAIHEE

(1) Whenever any matter shall be referred to a committee it shall be the duty of the committee to make diligent inquiry into all of the facts and circumstances connected with the matter. If necessary, witnesses shall be summoned or subpoenaed, and everything shall be done to bring all facts pertaining to the matter before the Senate in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 21 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. The President may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21, relating to the issuance of subpoenas, and the President, committee chair and other duly delegated members of the Senate may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21 aforesaid, relating to the administering of oaths, and the compelling of witnesses who have been subpoenaed to testify. All committee meetings held on matters referred to it by the Senate shall be open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the Senate or otherwise provided by these Rules.

(2) The report of the committee shall state findings of fact and conclusions based thereon, together with a distinct recommendation as to the disposal of that matter.

(3) A report upon a bill shall state clearly the amendments, if any, proposed. If a substitute bill for one or more referred to the committee shall be reported, such substitute bill shall agree with the subject of the bill or bills referred to the committee.

(4) Whenever a committee fails to agree, the majority shall report and it shall be the report of the committee. The minority may report or simply write upon the report of the majority the words "I (or we) do not concur," signing the same. The final vote of each member of a committee upon any matter referred to it shall be recorded in the records of the committee.

(5) Any decision by a committee chair to hold a bill in committee may be appealed to the majority caucus upon written notice to the President signed by a majority of the members of the committee.

Rule 25. Committee of the Whole

(1) The Senate from time to time may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole. Whenever any matter shall be referred to such committee upon the adoption of a motion to that effect, the President shall call some member to take the Chair (unless the Senate shall nominate a chair), which being done, the Senate then shall be in committee.

(2) The Clerk of the Senate shall act as Clerk of the Committee of the Whole without extra compensation, and shall make a careful record of the proceedings, which shall be filed as one of the records of the Senate.

(3) The committee, on motion, may rise and ask leave to sit at any future time.

(4) When a bill shall be referred to the Committee of the Whole, the bill shall be first read throughout by the Clerk, and then again read and debated by sections, leaving the preamble to be the last. All amendments, noting the page and line, shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper, as the same shall be agreed to by the committee, and so reported. When a bill is ordered into Committee of the Whole, such order may dispense with the reading of the whole bill before considering it section by section.

The Executive Budget, Judiciary Budget, Legislative Budget, General Appropriations Bill, Supplemental Appropriations Bill, Office of Hawaiian Affairs Budget, and bills for criminal injuries compensation, for claims against the State and for funding of collective bargaining agreements may be introduced only by the majority party leader or the minority party leader after appropriate consultation with committee chairs and other members of the Senate. Each member may introduce only one bill appropriating money for capital improvements projects in the member's district. The majority party leader and the minority party leader shall develop a policy governing introduction by individual members of bills intended to appropriate money or to authorize the issuance of state bonds.

All bills shall be introduced under the order of resolutions.

Bills which shall carry over from a regular session in an odd-numbered year to the next regular session shall retain the numbers assigned to them. The Clerk shall keep a record of the status of all bills in possession of the Senate at the end of the odd-numbered year session and shall publish the record of the status of all such bills prior to the convening of the next regular session.

Every bill introduced or reported out of any committee, which amends an existing section or subsection of the Hawaii Revised Statutes or Session Laws of Hawaii, shall set forth the section or subsection in full, and the matter to be deleted shall be enclosed in brackets and any new matter added to the section or subsection shall be underscored. However, a Supplemental Appropriations Bill need not conform to this rule, nor an amending bill where the intent and effect of the amending bill can be clearly identified and understood without repeating the entire section or subsection, in which case only the paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses or items to be amended need be set forth as the President may allow. The President may allow additional exceptions to this rule.

Upon the final passage of any bill, the Ayes and Noes shall be called. Such passage shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the Senate and the Ayes and Noes shall be entered on the Journal.

Rule 50. Bills: Property of Senate

All bills introduced in the Senate shall be deemed the property of the Senate and under its control unless they shall become law, subject however to the right of the House of Representatives to amend or to refuse to agree with the bills.

Any bill pending at the final adjournment of a regular session in an odd-numbered year shall carry over with the same status to the next regular session; provided that if such bill shall have passed third reading in the Senate in an odd-numbered session, it shall pass at least one reading in the Senate in the next regular session upon its return to the Senate from the House.

The Clerk shall prepare and distribute copies of the floor amendment to each member of the Senate present.

(3) A floor amendment shall be deemed pending only after its proponent has been recognized by the President and its adoption has been properly moved and seconded.

(4) A floor amendment that relates to a different subject, is intended to accomplish a different purpose, incorporates any other bill pending before the Senate, or would alter the nature of the bill as reported, is not germane and shall not be considered by the Senate.

(5) An amendment to a floor amendment that is not germane to both the floor amendment and the bill as reported shall not be considered by the Senate.

Rule 54. Bills: Certification

When a bill is passed it shall be certified by the Clerk who shall note the day of its passage at the bottom of the last page of the bill.

Rule 55. Bills: Received from House of Representatives

Whenever a bill which has finally passed the House of Representatives shall be certified to the Senate for its action, such bill shall be read three times before final passage, in accordance with the provision of the rules for the passage of bills introduced in the Senate.

Rule 56. Bills: Transmittal to House of Representatives

When a bill originating in the Senate shall have passed its third reading, or when a bill originating in the House which has been received from the House shall have been amended, or when a carry-over bill from an odd-numbered year originating in the House passes its third reading in the Senate in an even-numbered year session, such bill or such amended bill shall immediately be certified by the President and Clerk and sent to the House of Representatives for its consideration.

Rule 57. Bills: Correction of Errors

When a bill has passed both the Senate and the House of Representatives and an error in it is discovered prior to its having received the approval of the Governor, the bill may be returned by Concurrent Resolution to the House last considering the bill for proper correction.

Rule 58. Bills: Order of Consideration

(1) The Clerk shall send bills that have passed first reading to be printed immediately. When they have been printed and circulated to the members of the Senate, the President shall refer them to the various committees. When the committees have considered them and reported on them, the committees shall return them to the Clerk, and the Clerk shall place them in the Second Reading File. The Senate shall consider them in the order in which they appear in the Second Reading File.

(2) The Clerk shall arrange bills that have passed second reading in the order of their passage on second reading, regardless of the date of their reference to committee or the date of the committee report on them. The Clerk shall place them on the Third Reading File in the order in which they passed second reading and the Senate shall consider them on third reading in that same order. However, if the third reading of a bill is set for some particular date, that bill shall be removed from the Third Reading File.

Rule 59. Bills: Special Order of Consideration

All bills and other matters set for consideration on particular dates, shall be arranged in the order of the several votes making such assignments. A list shall be made of such special orders, and when the time for consideration arrives, such bills and other matters shall be considered in the order of assignment. If an adjournment shall be had before all of such special orders are disposed of, the remainder shall go over and come under the head of unfinished business on the following day, unless otherwise ordered.

PART VI. RESOLUTIONS; MOTIONS

Rule 60. Resolutions and Motions: Form

All resolutions shall be typewritten, dated and signed by the introducer, otherwise they shall not be considered. Motions and amendments may be verbal but shall be reduced to writing if requested by the President, and shall be read from the desk if so ordered.

Rule 61. Motions: Second Required

No motion shall be received and considered by the Senate until the motion is seconded.

Rule 62. Motions: Disposition

After a motion is stated or read by the President, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Senate, and shall be disposed of by vote of the Senate; however, it may be withdrawn by the movant at any time before an amendment has been adopted or before the decision on the motion if not amended.

Rule 63. Motions Applicable to Pending Matters

Whenever any bill or resolution or other matter shall be under discussion, the only motions relative thereto shall be:

- (1) To lay upon the table,
- (2) To postpone to a certain time,
- (3) To postpone indefinitely,
- (4) To commit, and
- (5) To amend,

which motions shall have precedence in the order named.

The first two motions shall be decided without debate and shall be put as soon as made.

When any of the motions shall be decided in the negative, they shall not be revived the same day relative to the main question under discussion. If all are negative as aforesaid, the only remaining question shall be as to the adoption of the bill, resolution or other main question.

Rule 64. Matters Postponed Indefinitely

When a question is postponed indefinitely, the question shall not be acted upon again during the session in which it was introduced.

Rule 65. Motion for Previous Question

The object of the motion for the previous question is to cut off debate. It shall always be in order. It shall require a three-fifths vote to carry it.

Whenever the motion shall be carried, the author of the resolution or introducer of the bill under discussion shall be permitted to close the debate, after which the main question, subject to Rule 63, shall be put. The author or introducer may delegate to another such right to close.

Rule 66. Motion for Reconsideration

(1) When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted in the minority to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted with the majority may move to reconsider it on the same or the succeeding day of session, or, with the consent of the Senate, on any subsequent day and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

(2) When a motion for reconsideration has been decided by vote, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

(3) When a bill or resolution or other matter upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, and shall have been transmitted to the House of Representatives, a motion to reconsider shall be deemed to include a request to the House to return the same. If not complied with by the House, then the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be set aside. If such motion shall pass, the Clerk shall promptly communicate to the House the request for return of the matter to be reconsidered.

PART VII. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Unless submitted to the Senate, such questions shall be decided without debate by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the Senate. Laying such appeal on the table shall be held as sustaining the ruling of the presiding officer.

(2) Any question of order may be submitted to the Senate for its decision.

Rule 69. Debate: General Limitation

No member shall speak more than twice, unless such member be the movant of the matter pending, in which case such member shall not be permitted to speak in reply until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 70. Voting: Methods

There shall be five methods of ascertaining the decision of the Senate upon any matter.

(1) First, by voice or raising of hands; Second, by rising; Third, by ballot; Fourth, by call of the roll of the members and a record of the Clerk of the vote of each; and Fifth, by unanimous consent.

(2) Whenever the Senate is ready to vote on any question, the President shall rise, and after stating the question, shall request all those in favor of the affirmative of the question to vote "Aye." The President then shall call upon all voting in the negative of the question to vote "No." The President then shall announce the result to the Senate.

(3) If any member shall doubt the result, as announced, the President again shall state the question and call upon the members to vote by rising in their places, and they shall remain standing until counted, and the result again shall be announced.

(4) The method of voting by ballot shall be as customary. The President shall appoint one or more tellers, or direct the Messengers to collect the ballots, which shall be counted by the Clerk. On motion, the Senate may vote upon any question by ballot.

(5) Whenever one-fifth of the members present shall request, the Clerk shall call the roll of the members of the Senate. Each member, when called, shall vote in a clear loud voice, "Aye," if voting in the affirmative, or "No," if voting in the negative. The Clerk shall record each vote and such record shall become a part of the Journal of the Senate. The President shall announce the results as above set forth.

(6) With the unanimous consent of the Senate, the President may direct the Clerk to record an "Aye" vote for each member of the Senate. If there is no objection, the Clerk shall so record the vote. If there is objection, the President shall ask for the names of the members voting "No" and order the Clerk to record no votes for them.

Rule 71. Voting: Rights of Members

(1) No member, on any account, shall refrain from voting unless excused by the President. A member may vote "Kanalua" the first time the member's name is called by the Clerk on any vote, but if the member votes "Kanalua" on the next call of the member's name, the member's vote shall be recorded as "Aye."

(2) The President may excuse a member who has a monetary interest in the question, or whose right to a seat in the Senate will be affected by the question, or whose official conduct is involved in the question. If a member thinks there may be a personal interest in the question, the member shall rise and disclose the interest to the President. The President then shall rule whether the member has a conflict of interest. If so, the member shall be excused from voting.

(3) Whenever the Ayes and Noes are called, no one, without unanimous consent, shall be permitted to explain a vote.

(4) After the announcement by the President of the result, no one shall be allowed to vote or to change a vote.

Any member so charged by the Senate shall be informed in writing of the specific charge or charges made against the member and have opportunity to present evidence and be heard in the member's own defense. Following its investigation and hearing the Special Committee shall file its report with the President setting forth its findings and recommendations.

In the event the committee recommends censure, suspension or expulsion, the President shall present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration and decision. The Senate, by a majority vote, may censure a member or, upon a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Senate, suspend or expel a member.

Rule 73. Decorum: Transgression of Rules

Rule 78. Decorum: Disorderly Conduct in Session

If, during any session of the Senate, any member should behave in a disorderly manner the President shall order the member to be seated and preserve the peace. If such member then shall persist in disorderly conduct, the President shall order the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the member from the Senate and the member shall not be permitted to take a seat during the remainder of that day's session, except upon satisfactory pledge given to the Senate for future good behavior.

For the punishment of any person not a member, the provisions of Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution shall govern.

Rule 79. Decorum: Recording of Debate Called to Order

If any Senator is called to order for words spoken in debate, upon the member's demand or on that of any other Senator, the words objected to shall be taken down in writing and noted by the Clerk, and, if required, shall be read for the information of the Senate.

Rule 80. Decorum: Smoking

No member or other officer shall smoke within the Senate Chamber during any of the meetings of the Senate unless authorized by the President.

Rule 81. Decorum: Solicitation Prohibited

An officer or employee of the Senate shall not solicit subscriptions, for any purpose, from any other officer or employee thereof, nor from any Senator. Rule 82. Disclosures

Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission of the State of Hawaii, a disclosure of the member's private financial interests, as prescribed by law. Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission any change in such financial interests.

If a legislative matter which affects a member's interests arises before the member has made a disclosure to the Ethics Commission, the member shall disclose orally such interest to the Senate before voting. The member then shall immediately make the written disclosure required by law and the Rules of the Senate.

Any member who has filed a disclosure as required by this Rule need not make a further oral disclosure on the Senate floor of any interest so filed.

Rule 83. Violating Confidence

If any matter covered in Rule 35 or 36 shall be disclosed by any Senator, the Senator shall be liable to censure, or, by a two-thirds vote, to suspension or expulsion from the Senate. If an officer or other person authorized to hear such matter shall disclose the matter, such officer shall be dismissed and such other person shall be liable to punishment for contempt comparable to the punishment provided for by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution and in the manner as therein prescribed.

PART X. QUESTIONS TO STATE OFFICERS

Rule 84. Questions to State Officers

Any member of the Senate may ask any question of any state officer relating to the officer's respective department by reducing such questions to writing, over the member's signature, reading the same before the Senate, and furnishing the officer with a copy of such written question. Any officer questioned shall reply to such question upon the following day, unless the Senate shall grant a definite extension of time for replying.

PART XI. AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION AND INTERPRETATION OF RULES

Rule 85. Amendments; Suspension; Violations
