Each candidate brings a wealth of education, experience and skill to these respective positions. Your committee was most impressed, however, with their commitment and dedication to public service.

"In making its recommendation, Mr. President, your committee was mindful of the importance of the duties that the various boards and commissions have to ensure that licensed professionals are practicing their vocations with the highest standards of integrity and that consumers in the marketplace are well protected. We are confident that the nominees before us will make a positive contribution to these boards and commissions.
