Senator Anderson rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I just wanted to note that in this morning's paper (I forgot to bring it down, I guess I'm getting forgetful) there was a piece that there was going to be an additional charge for wharfage at the piers. Evidently the two larger companies are not going to pass on the wharfage fees, but they are going to pass on any fees for the cargo. Now, some time ago they said that doesn't amount to very much -- maybe 9 cents per item, per case. Well, some cases have 36 items, some have 24. In my particular case, when I bring in chemicals, that could be anywhere from a couple of dollars per item a case. A case, when I bring them in, is anywhere from six to four at what would be an additional $1 or $2 per item.

"I did want to state that there is some concern that when you pass on these costs, the consumer is going to have to pick them up and even though they don't sound like too much -- 9 cents for a can of peas and carrots, we'll say -- but if there's 24 to 36 cans in that particular case, it does amount to quite a bit of money per case that's being added on. So I just wanted to make that point.

"Thank you very much for listening."
