Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1022 be adopted and S.R. No. 115, S.D. 1, be adopted, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Baker rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this standing committee report and resolution.

"Mr. President, your committee, upon reflecting on this resolution, chose to amend the title to be very clear that we're talking about situations where nominations come to us in an impaired fashion.

"Mr. President, this resolution is about the process, not about the nominee or any individual person. It is about the Senate's ability to exercise its 'advise and consent' constitutional prerogative in an unimpeded fashion.

"Mr. President, neither your committee nor the 25 Senators who all signed this resolution came to this juncture with any great ease or with any joy, but we know that it's very important not only to be true to the prerogatives that the Constitution devolves to the Senate, but also to be true to those who have gone before us.

"As was eloquently pointed out on the floor the other day, back in 1982 there was a similar kind of situation. In that instance, the Senate, standing up for its prerogative of 'advise and consent,' voted down all of the interim-appointed nominees. There is no clear guidance as to how the Senate would respond procedurally if this process were repeated. The Senators at that particular time (1982) took great umbrage at the way the nominations had come to them. One of the Senators back then is our governor now, and I'm certain that the governor would want, and would expect, the members of this Senate to exercise the same defense of the institution and defense of the process that his 1982 colleagues exercised.

"It is important to be very clear that in terms of our procedural prerogatives, our ability to adequately exercise our constitutional role as an independent, co-equal branch of government, that we must have the ability to exercise 'advise and consent' in an unimpaired fashion. Therefore, I appreciate the effort of the committee and the Senators, and urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.R. No. 115, S.D. 1, entitled: "SENATE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THAT THE SENATE ESTABLISH A PROCESS FOR WITHDRAWAL OF GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATIONS BY RESOLUTION WHEN SUCH NOMINATIONS IMPAIR THE ADVISE AND CONSENT PROCESS AND THAT THE GOVERNOR WITHDRAW THE NOMINATION OF GREGORY G.Y. PAI TO THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION," was adopted.

The Senate of the Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1997, convened at 11:39 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Myokan Shakti Kali Khan, Soto Mission Betsuin, Shoboji, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Aki, Anderson and Taniguchi who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Sixth Day.

At this time, the President appointed Senators Solomon and D. Ige to escort Miss USA Brook Lee to the podium where she addressed the members of the Senate and their guests as follows:

"Wow, pressure! Not too long ago I stood here getting recognized for my father, who was very involved in the Hawaiian community, and it was sort of a sad day because of his passing. So it's good to be here on such a good occasion and to be on such an up note on this occasion, but I'm sitting here and I'm just in awe. I've been away for so long and you all have to pardon me because I've been so homesick and it's so good to be back. It's just amazing to be here, of all places. But as you honor me, I honor you. I thank you so much for keeping the islands what they are, because I will be home in a year. I will be back to vote.

"I realize everyday how lucky I am for where I come from. And as I look up in the gallery, one of you may be here one day, you know. It's just one big circle. It's amazing.

"Thank you so much for honoring me, and I share it all with you. Do the wonderful job that you've been doing, keep it up. I want to come back and have the islands, please, still be here in a year, and running. I take all of you with me when I go to Universe. I will be an ambassador, yes for the USA, but I will be an ambassador of aloha for the 50th State of Hawaii as well. We'll see what happens at Universe, but either way, I will be back. Thank you."

At 11:55 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

seconded by Senator Tam.

Senator Aki rose in support of the nominations as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of Gov. Msg. No. 165.

"Today, I am happy to recommend three nominees to the University of Hawaii Board of Regents. These three outstanding community leaders were nominated by Governor Cayetano and approved by your Education Committee on March 10, 1997.

"It is imperative that we confirm these three nominees who are recognized community leaders with strong ties to Asia and the business acumen to shape the University of Hawaii into a great institution of higher learning and research. In light of our state's poor fiscal condition at this time, it is more imperative that we select strong, dynamic leaders who will be asked to guide our state university system through a period of change and growth with a focus on Asia and the Pacific rim.

"These three nominees are well qualified to be appointed to our University of Hawaii Board of Regents. Let me begin by presenting the first Board of Regent nominee, Ms. Lily K. Yao.

"Ms. Lily K. Yao is being nominated to a second four-year term; she was first appointed in 1993. She is the first Chinese-American to serve on the Board of Regents in 20 years. She is presently serving until June 30, 1997, as the Board of Regents chairperson.

"Ms. Yao is the Board Chair and Chief Executive Officer of Pioneer Federal Savings Bank. She is a member of and/or officer in the following financial and professional organizations: Hawaii League of Savings Institutions; Savings & Community Bankers of America, a board member; past director on the board of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle; Hawaii Children's Museum board advisor; Governor's Advisory Council on Airline Relations; Center for International Business Education and Research; and the Council of Presidents and CEOs of the University of Hawaii College of Business Administration.

"Ms. Yao earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Hawaii and is a graduate of the School of Executive Development at the University of Washington. She was the first woman in Hawaii to complete the Graduate School of Savings and Loans at Indiana University. Moreover, Ms. Yao has served on the board of the Hawaii Chapter of the American Red Cross, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, and was former president of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. In addition to English, she speaks fluent Mandarin, Shanghaiese and Japanese.

"Our second nominee is Mr. Donald C.W. Kim.

"Your Committee on Education also approved the nomination of Donald C.W. Kim to a four-year term to replace Regent Momi Cazimero when her term expires on June 30, 1997. Mr. Kim will be the third appointee of Korean ancestry to serve on the U.H. Board of Regents. He earned a degree in chemical engineering from Seoul National University, College of Engineering in 1952, and a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from the University of Hawaii, College of Engineering in 1958. He is a registered professional engineer in the State of Hawaii and Guam.

"Mr. Kim is also board chair and CEO of R.M. Towill Corporation, Hawaii's largest and oldest consulting engineering firm specializing in planning, engineering, surveying and construction management. He has been the board chair and president of Kilohana Corporation since 1994; founder and chairman of the board of AMKOR A&E, Inc., an architectural-engineering firm in Seoul, Korea, since 1982. In addition, he is co-founder and chairman of the board of Keahole Associates, Inc. in Hawaii specializing in project management of airports since 1988.

"Mr. Kim is a trustee of the U.H. Foundation; a lifetime member of the U.H. Alumni Association; on the Board of Advisors of the U.H. Engineering Alumni Association; a director of the Friends of the U.H. Center for Korean Studies; and a member of the Hawaii Pacific College's Business Administration Advisory Council.

"Our final nominee is Stanley H. Roehrig. Mr. Roehrig is being nominated to complete the unexpired term of Regent Shunichi Kimura, whose term will expire on June 30, 1999.

"Mr. Roehrig was born and raised in Honolulu. He attended Manoa Elementary School, Stevenson Intermediate School, and graduated from Punahou School. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in physics from Brown University and a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Washington School of Law.

"He has served as a deputy attorney general, State of Hawaii; deputy county attorney, County of Hawaii; first Hawaii County public defender; representative in the Hawaii State Legislature from 1969 through 1976; and is currently an attorney-at-law in the law corporation of Roehrig, Roehrig, Wilson and Hara in Hilo, Hawaii.

"Mr. Roehrig's professional affiliations include membership in the Hawaii County Bar Association; Hawaii State Bar Association; Consumer Lawyers of Hawaii; National Board of Trial Advocacy, Certified Trial Advocate; and The Association of Trial Lawyers of America.

"Mr. President, as affirmed by the record of votes of the members of your Committee on Education, your committee, after full consideration of the background, character, experience, and qualifications of all three individuals, has found them to be well qualified for appointment to the University of Hawaii Board of Regents. I urge all members to vote in support."

Senator Solomon rose in support of the nomination of Stanley Roehrig as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm speaking in support of the all the nominees and in particular Mr. Stanley Roehrig whom I have known and respected for a long time. Although, Mr. President, we have agreed to disagree on many issues, the bottom line for me is that Stanley has always been a very strong advocate for people, as well as a very strong voice for the Big Island.

"On the lighter side, Mr. President, I just would like to share with my colleagues a little story. Stan, who lives in Laupahoehoe and is an attorney and, as you know, was a former Representative, does a lot of pro bono work for various community organizations. And in reference to one of his cases (I can't recall which one in particular) I remember quite fondly, I received a call from one of my constituents who is of Portuguese ancestry and who said to me, 'Well, Senator, what's wrong with that "Portagee" boy, Stanley Rodrig?'

"I said, 'Who?'

"Stanley Rodrig.'

"I said, 'Who's that?'

"You know -- that pupule attorney.'

"And I said, 'Oh yeh, you mean Stanley Roehrig. Eh, Uncle, he's not one "Portagee," he's one haole.'

"And then he said, 'Oh, that explains it then.' (Laughter!)

"With that, Mr. President, it gives me great pride to recommend him to my colleagues. Mr. Roehrig not only has a thick skin, but he has a tremendous sense of humor. Mr. President, he does have big shoes to fill because Shun Kimura has done an outstanding job for the Island of Hawaii as a U.H. Regent and as a judge. It's just so sad that he had to step down because of family and personal reasons, but I'm very, very pleased with the governor's appointment of Mr. Roehrig. It's not too many times that I've been able to praise the governor, but in terms of this appointment, I'm very pleased that he saw fit to appoint Mr. Roehrig.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Kawamoto rose in support of Donald Kim and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise in support of the nominations and especially Mr. Donald C.W. Kim.

"I got to know Mr. Kim as executive director of the Waipahu Cultural Garden Park and Hawaii's Plantation Village and he participated as a member of the Korean Society and was very much involved with the Plantation Village. Without his participation, I think Hawaii's Plantation Village would still be a dream and not a reality as it is today, so thank you very much.

"I urge all my colleagues to vote in favor of this nominee. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (Anderson, Bunda, Metcalf).

Senator Levin rose at this time and said:

"Mr. President, now that Mr. Roehrig has been confirmed, I would like to make sure my colleagues understand that that confirmation includes an endorsement of all his proposals for U.H. Hilo which, of course, will eliminate any other proposals from being included in the budget. And, Mr. Roehrig, we want to thank you for getting dressed up to join us today." (Laughter.)

Senator Metcalf then added:

"Although I regret I wasn't present for the formal vote, I would like to have Senator Levin's remarks inserted in the Journal as my own, and underscore Senator Levin's reference to Mr. Roehrig's attire." (More laughter.)

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"Mr. President, this bill is very troubling. We had several hearings on it and a number of deferrals. It has to do with the impoundment of so-called abandoned vessels, but there was mixed testimony and conflicts, and it reflected poorly, I thought, on the Department of Transportation on some of their procedures and some of the things that they have done with vessels that have been impounded. I think in this era when we're trying to have more openness and public view, public meetings and so forth, while the sponsors of this bill tried to amend it to accomplish a number of those goals, unfortunately, the current draft, S.D. 1, was not the subject of a public hearing. And those people that had the initial objections never really had an opportunity to testify about these changes.

"So in that spirit, Mr. President, I'm going to urge a 'no' vote. Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto then rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, relating to some of the previous speaker's remarks ..."

The Chair interjected:

"Are you speaking for or against the bill?"

"For the bill, excuse me.

"The Department of Transportation needed a remedy to dispose of vessels that may be called 'junk' or need disposal. The current procedure calls for a public auction. And for vessels less than $5,000 the proposal was that they have a more economical, more expeditious way to dispose of the vessels. So we amended several provisions, including removing negotiations which had implied that some former employees somehow acquired vessels, so we've amended that to follow the state procurement code, as opposed to letting the department negotiate.

"We've amended the provision and gave people opportunity to submit their suggestions so that this can be a measure that can be efficient because we need efficient government. There's a provision for owners to submit their own alternate appraisal of their vessel at their own cost so that the department isn't single-handedly either appraising or just disposing of the vessels. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1762, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DISPOSAL OF IMPOUNDED VESSELS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Aki, Kanno, Slom).

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"For the last several years we've had a number of individuals in this body and in the House, and in the general community at large, talking about our problems with the increased indebtedness that the State of Hawaii was taking on, and the ramifications should we continue to go into more debt.

"Since we last met on Friday, Mr. President, we had the culmination of action taken by one of the two leading national rating organizations, Standard and Poor's, in down-rating the bond and credit worthiness of the State of Hawaii. This is a major factor and has long-range consequences not only to our fiscal picture, but also to the young people that were all sitting in the gallery here today. If we're truly concerned about our keiki and our youth, we should be more concerned with what we're doing with our bonded indebtedness.

"We also have a proposal before this legislative body from the administration to have a billion dollars more of bonds in order to jump-start the economy. Mr. President, colleagues -- debt does not jump-start the economy. We know what we need to jump-start the economy and that is simply to cut taxes, cut spending, reduce debts and do the things that the job creators have said that they need to do.

"So I urge my colleagues, as we take up further fiscal matters, that we have tremendous obligations to our community and to our young people, particularly, not to further mortgage them and pass on this tremendous debt at higher cost now because of this bond rating lowering by Standard and Poor's.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Yesterday, some of us were here, including yourself, Mr. President, for the Youth YMCA Legislature. And just as students here were involved in other activities, that was a very worthy activity and they're looking at measures to set some similar measures to what we're considering. One student made an analogy of a tree and its roots and that brought to mind, as I read this morning's editorial page, there was library cuts and just below that talked about the economy. And I'd like to use an analogy of a tree -- just as a tree, sometimes you need to prune the top of the tree just as in library cuts, not to say which cuts are appropriate, and also the roots as the YMCA legislator had talked about roots.

"And as we look at the economy, whether it's bond ratings, sometimes we need to fertilize and maybe $1 billion of fertilizer may not be the right amount, Mr. President, but we need to fertilize. We need to not let the roots get bound, but we also need to prune appropriately. If in your yards you don't prune the trees appropriately, there'll come a time when the tree will fall of its own weight or you'll need to prune back so severely that the tree has very little foliage at all.

"So, Mr. President, I think we should look at how to prune things and how to appropriately fertilize. And just as an off-shoot, many of you are familiar with banyan trees. Banyan trees have roots that come down at yea places, here and there, and the analogy here, Mr. President, is that may be like our public-private partnership where the tree gets so heavy that roots need to come down and be supported with roots in other areas.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:42 o'clock a.m., on motion by Senator McCartney, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Tuesday, March 25, 1997.

FORTIETH DAY

Tuesday, March 25, 1997

The Senate of the Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1997, convened at 11:37 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Sam Domingo, Harris United Methodist Church, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Ninth Day.

At 11:41 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:45 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the following student "shadows" were introduced:

Senator Baker introduced Lucas Okamoto and Tyler Loo from Lanai High School;

Senator Tam introduced Sandra Kim from McKinley High School;

Senator M. Ige introduced Gary Ishida from McKinley High School;

Senator Sakamoto introduced Maelynn Jones from Farrington High School;

Senator Chun Oakland introduced Chu Hyung Lee from McKinley High School and Jeannie Randall from Roosevelt High School; and Senator Matsunaga introduced Joel Arakaki from Jarrett Intermediate School and Matthew Dunn from Kaimuki Intermediate School.

Senator D. Ige, with the assistance of Senators Baker, Chumbley and Slom, introduced Lowell Milken, co-founder and president of the Milken Family Foundation; Dr. Julius Lesner, vice president of the Foundation; and Raymond Sugai, Lawrence Joyo, Linda Holt and Angela Church, all recipients of the Milken Family Foundation's 1996-1997 National Educator Awards.

At this time, President Mizuguchi invited Mr. Lowell Milken to address the members of the Senate and appointed Senators Tam and D. Ige to escort him to the rostrum.

Mr. Milken addressed the members of the Senate and their guests as follows:

"Good morning. Those two comments are a tough act to follow.

"On behalf of the Milken Family Foundation, let me express my gratitude for the recognition the Hawaii State Legislature has bestowed upon the foundation this morning. But in recognizing the foundation, you are really recognizing the critical importance of education -- the role that outstanding educators play and how a rigorous education is the key to helping get our young people prepared to lead lives that are productive and satisfying.

"We applaud your recognition of these outstanding educators because we believe that in a society that is quick to recognize greatness -- we see it in sports, in music, literature, and even medicine -- it's simply not fair that greatness in the most important profession there is -- education -- hasn't been part of the celebration all along. That is why we created this program to celebrate, recognize and award outstanding educators who not only develop the potential of children, but stand as powerful role models for their students and their colleagues.

"Recognizing excellence in education is only part of the answer. So, too, is giving our educators tools to provide the quality classroom instruction our children need and deserve. And that is why for several years we have been focussed most intensively on the potential of integrating education technology into our schools. It has the potential in so many ways to enrich the learning experience of our young people -- chief among them the power to be the great equalizer in our schools.

"And I can tell you that this is not a hunch. We've observed it from coast to coast in visiting thousands of schools. It's what our research tells us, and it's what the Milken Exchange and Education Technology -- a nerve center of an emerging national network of business leaders and public officials and educators -- tells us. It also grows from our first-hand experience with many Milken educators, such as Angela Church. Thanks to technology we heard this morning, she is able to communicate with scientists on-line, she is able to communicate with kids in Finland, and she is able to create computer simulation programs stressing math and economics and city planning.

"What's happening in Angela Church's classroom can and should be happening in every classroom in this state and across the nation. While the Kalama Internet Project, the Hawaii Distance Learning Program, and the Hawaii Educational Research Network all represent exciting new initiatives, I think we all would agree that much more can be done.

"In this milestone of our 15-year history of the foundation, we see the many challenges facing education as opportunities. We can elevate the teaching profession to the status that it deserves and we can make technology a vital part of the academic program in our schools. We can best take advantage of these opportunities if we work together in partnership with each one of you, for you are the leaders who share this commitment and the belief that the future truly belongs to the educated.

"Thank you very much for this honor."

At 12:08 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:15 o'clock p.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1222 (Gov. Msg. No. 192):

Senator Aki moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1222 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Tam and carried.

Senator Aki then moved that the Senate consent to the nomination of RAYMOND S. ONO to the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE), term to expire June 30, 2001, seconded by Senator Tam.

Senator Aki then rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I have comments in support of Mr. Ono's nomination to the WICHE Commission. Mr. Ono is well qualified for the position and I'd like to have these comments inserted into the Journal, and ask the Senate to confirm his nomination."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Aki's remarks read as follows:

"It is my privilege today to recommend Hawaii's newest commissioner nominee to the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE) from the State of Hawaii... Mr. Raymond S. Ono. He is an outstanding business and community leader and a vice president for the First Hawaiian Bank. Your Committee on Education heard testimony and confirmed Mr. Raymond S. Ono's nomination on March 17, 1997. He will be replacing Dr. Richard Kosaki. Mr. Ono's term will expire on June 30, 2001.

Our state's participation in the WICHE Student Exchange Program over the many years has enabled our bright young people to be admitted into professional schools in the Western region in such areas of study as dentistry, veterinary medicine, and physical therapy. In reciprocity, our University of Hawaii has admitted WICHE-certified students from the Western region of the United States into UH academic programs that are not available in their home state public higher education system.

As we approach the 21st century, it is vital that we confirm Mr. Raymond S. Ono who is a recognized business and community leader with strong ties to Hawaii and our young people who represent our future civic leaders to keep Hawaii's economy and Aloha Spirit alive and well. Mr. Ono will use his business acumen and experience to promote awareness and active participation of Hawaii's young people in the WICHE Student Program.

Mr. Ono is a graduate of Iolani School (1972) and Willamette University where he earned a bachelor of science degree in economics in 1976. He also earned a master's degree from Atkinson Graduate School of Administration (1978). Mr. Ono enrolled in the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington in 1990. He is presently employed as vice president and manager of the First Hawaiian Bank South King Street Banking Center.

While residing on Maui, Mr. Ono was very active in the following community affairs:

1. Past member of the Maui Community College Horizon's Committee;
2. Past president of the Rotary Club of Kahului, Maui;
3. Past member of the Maui United Way Allocations Committee;
4. Past member of the Makai Kokua (Police Support Group);
5. Past director of the Maui Country Club;
6. Past vice president of the Maui Family Support Services;
7. Past member of the Maui Chamber of Commerce; and
8. Past member of the Maui Japanese Chamber of Commerce.

Presently, Mr. Ono is a member of the UH Foundation President's Club Committee; vice chairman of the Building Industry Association; and a member of the Home Building & Remodeling Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii.

As affirmed by the record of votes of the members of your Committee on Education, your Committee, after full consideration of the background, character, experience, and qualifications of Mr. Raymond S. Ono, has found him to be well-qualified for appointment as a WICHE Commissioner and, therefore, recommends that the Senate advise and consent to this nomination."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORT

Senators Chun Oakland and Kanno, jointly with Senators Fernandes Salling and Fukunaga, for the Committee on Human Resources and the Committee on Ways and Means, presented a joint report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1223) recommending that H.B. No. 139, H.D. 2, as amended in S.D. 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Senator Kanno, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling and carried, the joint report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 139, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 27, 1997.

Senator Kawamoto, for the Committee on Transportation and Intergovernmental Affairs, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing pursuant to Senate Rule 20 on the following resolutions: S.C.R. No. 170, S.C.R. No. 183, S.C.R. No. 194, S.C.R. No. 205, S.C.R. No. 210, S.R. No. 89, S.R. No. 99, S.R. No. 107 and S.R. No. 137, and the Chair granted the waiver.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

S.B. No. 175 (H.D. 1):

The President appointed Senator Tam as an additional manager on the part of the Senate at the conference to be held for the consideration of amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 175.

H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1 (S.D. 1):

In accordance with the disagreement of the House to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, and the request for a conference on the subject matter thereof, the President appointed Senators Baker, Ige, D., co-chairmen, Slom as managers on the part of the Senate at such conference.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege -- just some very brief comments on the Supreme Court decision yesterday involving the Constitutional Convention election.

"Mr. President, the opinion of the court which I have here seems, at first blush, to be a fair and equitable opinion covering the appropriate points and taking legislative intent into account, but upon closer inspection one can perceive an omission and a glaring error, Mr. President, in the court's opinion. Nowhere in that opinion does the court address HRS Section 11-151 (3), which reads as follows, Mr. President: 'If a contest or question requires a majority of the votes for passage, any blank, spoiled, or invalid ballot shall not be tallied for passage or as votes cast except that such ballots shall be counted as votes cast in ratification of a constitutional amendment.'

"That's 'shall not,' Mr. President, 'be tallied for passage or as votes cast except ... as votes cast in ratification of a constitutional amendment.' Why doesn't the court address this statute in its opinion? Why the silence? Why are the people of Hawaii and their will being silenced, and some would say and agree, for the third time this year by our state's highest court? The attorney general, the governor and the courts and all of us, Mr. President, are ultimately answerable to Hawaii's people and they look to us for our leadership. And I think that this body must take action and provide that leadership.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mine is more or less on the Council on Revenues dispute now that DBEDT has come out with their findings. We've gone over everything and for those of us in Ways and Means and those of us that have talked to some of the members on the Council of Revenues, I have a problem with having DBEDT go a little higher. I think it was brought forth that if, in fact, the Council of Revenues' findings are lower, and then we take in more revenue, we're not too bad off. But if their revenue forecast is high and we take in less money and we spend that, we're then in trouble. That's like saying that you have $100 left in your checking and you go to a bank and they look at your $500 mortgage and you bring in $1,000, and you have utility bills and you owe Sears and the others, and now you want to buy a new car because you're anticipating getting a part-time job as a service station attendant -- they're not going to give you that loan.

"The Council on Revenues does not do anything on anticipation. They take everything into concern here. Even DBEDT who has come up with one hundred and some odd hundred thousand dollars, I mean $178 million, and the balance being $78 million compared to Council of Revenues. Mr.

Brewbaker did say that they did take into consideration the construction for the CIP projects, but it was a wash. So if you take that into a part of this, then in essence we are only 17.3 million off as far as the council's figures and that's not very much, my fellow colleagues.

"I think we have to look at what we have. I think that the governor and his administration are going to have to, if they want to look at anticipated revenues, find ways to bring in revenues -- lots more than we are looking at right now. And as I said the other day on this floor, if in fact now he's considering looking at gambling and the referendum that's there, then we'd better pass something in that way so that the people can vote. If we're going to be able to use state lands and give off free rent for five years and long leases, or selling off some of the long, long leases that have been out there because the people have a short-term left and banks won't lend money, then we'd better start looking at these things.

"So I just have a problem with what came down from the department and I don't blame Mr. Seiji Naya. I have a lot of respect for him and I know he had a very difficult job. It's just that I do dispute some of the figures and I wish that we'd all look at them very, very seriously before we jump in and want to spend more money. Thank you very much."

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:27 o'clock p.m., on motion by Senator Ihara, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Thursday, March 27, 1997.

Senator Chun Oakland moved that H.B. No. 139, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling.

Senator Slom rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I think the public has been waiting for a long time for us to take some action on the so-called 'high-three' benefits and I think that the Senate is to be congratulated on the current draft before us. There have been a number of improvements that have been made but, unfortunately, I think there are still some inequities within the bill. I think we still have some improvements to be made, so I support the bill with reservations. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 139, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Aki, Tam).

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILL

The Chair re-referred the following House bill that was received:

House Bill                      Referred to:

No. 1806, H.D. 1      Jointly to the Committee on Human Resources and the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I make my remarks in response to a letter that was submitted to the editor in the newspaper and it says: 'Same-sex version in Senate ridiculous. It is profoundly disturbing when our elected officials have less understanding of the principles of constitutional government than an elementary student who has just taken a first civics class.' Mr. President, all I can say is, 'RIGHT ON, Mark Young!' who is the author of this letter.

"Mr. President, what we have seen during the four years is senatorial arrogance opposing the popular will on the same-sex marriage issue. Our Judiciary Committee has concocted an absurd bill and, as can be seen by Mr. Young's letter, its absurdity is clear to the public. The Senate draft put all marriages, entered into heretofore or hereafter, in jeopardy of being rendered void if any court shall hold that any state law concerning marriage deprived any people of any civil rights. Mr. Young says, 'Balderdash.' I say, 'Nuts.'

"Mr. President, it's time, finally, to let the people speak. The monkey's on our back. The House bill provides an opportunity for the people to speak. If we in the Senate continue in denying that opportunity out of mano-a-mano, macho hubris, or for whatever reason, we have no rightful place in this representative body.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege, if I may.

"Mr. President, in this morning's paper on the front page there is a headline that says, 'Groups sue to save immigrants' benefits.' One of them says that 'Hawaii's Gov. Ben Cayetano has joined a number of governors in opposing the cuts and has committed his administration to protecting legal immigrants from losing necessary assistance.'

"I have no problem with legal immigrants. What I do have a problem with, ladies and gentlemen, is years ago we had to have, when our forefathers came over, sponsors. And everybody was upset about the plantations, but the plantations were the sponsors. They provided housing. They provided jobs. They made sure that they could go to the store and charge as soon as they got here. And other people came over; they had to be sponsored by individuals. Today, after checking, I find out that sponsors are on welfare and sponsoring people to come in. How can we take care of a legal immigrant coming in when the sponsor is already on welfare and is just costing us more money?

"Now, I've been married a little over 39 years and for the first time in my many, many years of marriage, my wife and I have to start looking at our checkbook to make sure that we're not spending too much. With all the taxes and the lost revenues and everything that we're going through, the middle class is having one hell of a time. This state is in trouble. And I don't mind helping people but I want to know where that money is coming from. How are we going to be able to protect Hawaii on the laws that we have when they're from Washington? Are the people in Washington protecting us in immigration laws? Just what can we do to protect us? And that's why I'm a little upset. I don't mind the governor checking and finding out if Washington with our four congressional people are really working in our benefit, and then we can help the people that are here to discontinue the idea of having people come in with sponsors who are already on programs of welfare.

"So that's why I'm a little concerned about this, Mr. President, and I would hope that everybody else is because I understand the tune is something like $7 million, and we can't take care of the people that we have now.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Iwase rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, the Senator from Kamuela touched upon, I think, something which is symptom that I'd like to address. We are struggling this session as we have for the past three sessions with a number of decisions rendered by the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, and it started with Baehr v Lewin. We had the PASH decision; we had Judge Healy's decision in the OHA case and we had the recent Konno decision by the Supreme Court. In some of these cases -- and some would argue in, perhaps, all of these cases -- there is great argument over whether or not the Supreme Court is properly interpreting law or following legislative intent. In the case of Judge Healy, the House, at least, has enacted measures which specifically overrule the Judge's interpretation of our laws.

"I think, Mr. President, that perhaps this is the time to call for a meeting of the three branches of government to have a little heart-to-heart talk about issues affecting the state -- the Governor, you, the Speaker of the House, and the Chief Justice. We have the state of the judiciary address -- that's fine; that's a good start, but I think more needs to be done. No one is saying that we must violate the principle of separation of powers. We have three branches of government, but I don't think we should be travelling on separate roads. We are, after all, the government of the State of Hawaii and it is difficult for us here as a legislative branch to have to go back ... I mean we mutter under our breath; we jump up and down in private; and we make jokes about some of these decisions, but they affect the people. And we have demonstrations here at the legislature over these public issues and perhaps the judiciary should see some of these demonstrations that we have seen.

"I hope that some kind of process is going to be established, or you would consider it along with the Governor and the Speaker of the House, so that meetings can take place between the heads of the three branches of government so that this government of the State of Hawaii at least moves in one direction, and not have one trying to play catch-up or trying to save the other because he's trying to jump off a cliff.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto then rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I'd like to agree with the previous speaker's remarks. This morning at the mayor and governor's prayer breakfast, you were there also, Mr. President. The four mayors were there; the governor was there, the chief justice and many other people were there. So I think there are opportunities, just as this morning, where all parties are at the same place at the same time, and I think I fully agree that's a very doable thing.

"And this morning the chief justice did make an error in part of his schedule and Mayor Lingle corrected him, so I think there are other opportunities to work together and maybe correct some mis-steps."

At 11:54 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:55 o'clock a.m.

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:57 o'clock a.m., on motion by Senator Ihara, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Monday, March 31, 1997.

FORTY-SECOND DAY

MATTER DEFERRED FROM THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1997

S.B. No. 1428, S.D. 1 (H.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Tanaka and carried, the Senate disagreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1428, S.D. 1, and requested a conference on the subject matter thereof.

Senator Sakamoto rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This morning's paper talks about same-sex marriage and it's an issue that we need to resolve.

"My office has conducted a survey that found that the majority of Hawaii's voters find the current Senate language in H.B. No. 117 confusing. When the people saw the actual language for the constitutional amendment, 38 percent thought it supports same-sex marriage; 20 percent thought it did not support same-sex marriage; 27 percent did not know; and 5 percent had no opinion. Something is wrong here. If people do not understand what it means, how can they make the choice that they want. The survey showed that 72 percent of Hawaii's people still oppose same-sex marriage. Also, the majority of the respondents -- 60 percent -- did agree that the proposed Senate language did not give Hawaii's voters a clean choice.

"A memorandum will be going out today to all Legislators discussing the findings of this survey and I hope that we will work diligently to come to an agreement on the language in H.B. No. 117.

"Mr. President, we, the Legislature, have promised the voters that they would have something to vote on. Let's keep that promise.

"I ask that the additional remarks from my survey be included in the Journal. Thank you."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Sakamoto's remarks on his survey read as follows:

"SURVEY SHOWS HAWAII'S VOTERS FIND SENATE LANGUAGE FOR SAME SEX AMENDMENT CONFUSING

"Today, Senator Norman Sakamoto released survey results showing that the majority of Hawaii voters find the proposed Senate language confusing.

"In the survey, people were asked to respond to the actual wording for the question that would appear on the ballot and to the language that would be included in the State Constitution if the Senate draft for H.B. No. 117 becomes final.

"The survey shows that 72 percent of Hawaii's population still oppose same-sex marriage. Supporters of same-sex marriage made up 14 percent and those with no opinion, 13 percent.

"The major finding of the survey was that when voters saw the actual wording, they were not sure what it meant.

"There was no consensus among the survey respondents as to what the Senate proposed language means: 38 percent thought it supported same-sex marriage, 20 percent thought it did not support same-sex marriage, 27 percent did not know, and 5 percent had no opinion.

"Several of the respondents were critical of the Senate language. One said, 'Put em in plain English.' Another person felt that the proposed ballot question and the language for the Constitution were trying to say two things at the same time. Many of the respondents (42 percent) rated the Senate language 'very difficult' to understand. Despite the confusion over the meaning of the Senate draft, there was a strong consensus (60 percent) who agreed that the proposed Senate draft did not give Hawaii's voters a clean choice.

"Senator Sakamoto noted that the survey results confirm what many of the critics have been saying -- Hawaii voters deserve a clean choice and the current Senate language does not give them that choice.

"The survey shows that the current Senate language is unworkable. It confuses the people. If they don't understand what the language is about, how can they make the choice they want? What Hawaii's voters need is language that they can understand. They want something that is clear and understandable so that when they go into the voting booth, they can decide what marriage means for Hawaii.

"The survey also brought to light the potential for a voters backlash. Two thirds of the respondents said they would respond 'negatively' or 'very negatively' if the proposed Senate language were to result in the legalization of same-sex marriage. This finding provides evidence to the concern of some people that if the proposed constitutional amendment does not give the voters what they want, another electoral backlash against Legislators may be in the making.

"Senator Sakamoto commented, 'There remains only a little over a week for the Senate and the House conferees to come to an agreement on the constitutional amendment. I urge my colleagues to use that time actively. This Legislature has promised that they would give to the people of Hawaii a constitutional amendment. Let us keep that promise.'"

Senator Anderson rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, we've been doing some research and recently we've been doing a lot of resolutions and bills on education and presenting awards, and we've been doing some research on former education processes that I thought I'd just like to bring up to date. It seems whenever we look at prisons and other things ... culturally, being part-Hawaiian ... they say we have the highest percentage of Hawaiians in jail. We have Hawaiians that are not able to read and hold jobs, so we did some research.

"Every legislative session, Mr. President, we are inundated with bills and resolutions to appropriate millions of dollars for our schools and high technology, and yet we continue to fall short of what we believe is scholastic achievements. And despite this failure, we want to pride ourselves on these advancements of our almost 21st century Hawaii and look with disparagement on the old Hawaii.

"In reality, an examination of education and schools in the 1840s and 1850s is a very humbling experience for us. And it shows that we're not so advanced after all.

"For example, we pride ourselves with the progress that SCBM has made in our schools. And we are now beginning to recognize and realize that parental involvement is the most important factor in the success of a student or of a school.

"In 1851, Mr. President, the Legislature enacted the first major education act. This is the preamble to that act: 'Whereas it is the right of parents, as far as possible, to have a voice in the management of their schools, wherein their own children are educated; and whereas the exercise of this right will be likely, not only to prevent arbitrary dictation on the part of school inspectors, but to increase the interest that all parents should feel in the public schools.' And that was in the laws of 1851, Mr. President.

"Also, today we are coming to recognize and to acknowledge that not every student is meant for academia -- that for many, vocational and technical skills are the answer to a productive and successful life.

"Well, Mr. President, if I may, in 1848 Mr. Richard Armstrong became Minister of Education and made a real contribution to one phase of the school curriculum. He included vocational training in the educational curriculum almost from the start of his administration. This was, at that time, a far advancement to any introduction of any such training in the United States.

"And to go further, Mr. President, today one of the most serious problems facing both the state and the nation is literacy or rather the functional illiteracy of our population -- a problem so critical that the President has called for an army of thousands of volunteers to ensure that our school children know how to read.

"Well, Mr. President, in contrast, a century and a half ago right here in Hawaii in 1846, 80 percent of all of the native people of Hawaii could read and write.

"I just thought that I would like to put this out because it is a very humbling experience. We seem to want to advance and we think we're achieving new goals and in reality there are people in the past who have had these problems who have taken care of them. And I think that we ought to look at the whole spectrum on where we're going and what we really want to achieve. In those days it was done without federal dollars. I know we have other costs today, but we have to look at the achievements that we're doing and how we can get there without all of these cost factors hampering us.

"Thank you so very much, Mr. President."

Senator Bunda rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I guess all of us cannot help but notice a lot of people around the capitol today. And according to the paper, it's the final push on the issue of same-sex marriage. As a member of the Judiciary Committee, I would like to ask either of the co-chairs a question, if I may."

The President posed the question to the chairmen of the Judiciary Committee and Senator Matsunaga having answered in the affirmative, Senator Bunda then inquired:

"I just would like Senator Matsunaga, if you're the designee, I would like to ask, What is the status of the conference that has been taking place with the House? As all of us know, this conference has been going on for a while and I think the members deserve to know what the status would be."

Senator Matsunaga responded:

"Thank you very much for the question.

"Yesterday, the House just transmitted to us a proposed re-draft of H.B. No. 117, which is the constitutional amendment to give the voters the option of voting on whether or not they want same-sex marriage. We're very optimistic. The House has finally moved off of its position and has recognized that the previous draft that they sent over was really not a clean draft. So the current draft is much cleaner. We're in the process of looking at it to see whether or not it is effective, and also fair. Once we review it, we will be getting back to the House. Thank you."

Senator Bunda then asked:

"My next question, Senator Matsunaga -- Is the next conference scheduled in the next few days or would it be put off until the deadline?"

Senator Matsunaga answered:

"The next conference will certainly be before the deadline. The deadline is on the 11th. We haven't yet scheduled it, but it will be scheduled."

This is a bill jointly referred to Ways and Means and Health and because of conflicting schedules we have scheduled it today for 1:30 p.m. We posted notice as of late Tuesday."

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I rise today to speak of the dead, Mr. President ... to read the obituaries ... to mourn the loss of Hawaii businesses and employers. The latest are two Oahu restaurants operated by Pacific Food Services, which has filed under Chapter 11, representing a loss of jobs for 60 more of our residents -- hard-working, tax-paying people. While Chapter 11 allows Pacific Food Services to try and regain a foothold in the business community, we all know that the odds are really against that. We can hope for the best, but in the case of the following businesses, which filed Chapter 7 or liquidation bankruptcy in March alone, hope wasn't good enough for these struggling businesses.

"Let me read the names, Mr. President: Pacific Mystics; S.A.P. Enterprises; Scott's Horseshoeing; EPM Rental; Phase One Hair Design; Werner Electric; Yoko's Sales and Marketing; Pathfinder Business Services; Machado's VCR and TV Repair and Service; Parker Equipment, Maintenance & Service Company; Stone Yakiniku Restaurant; Order n' Save; Lucky H Enterprises; Filipino Variety Store; Hawaiian Divers; King Kamehameha Divers; CRC Services; Brandt Automotive; Pro-Line Paints; Techline Computer; Lord & Associates; Kilauea Secretarial and Notary Service; Herb's; Bob's General Services; and Island Studios.

"These are just the obituaries, Mr. President, for the month of March alone. In just three weeks, the lives of these 27 businesses, their owners, their families and their employees have been affected. That's nine businesses per week. That could be 468 more businesses in the year's time if the trend continues. And even our thumbs-up, positive economist from First Hawaiian Bank, Mr. 'Thumbs-Up' Laney has said that this trend is going to continue over the next five to ten months, at least.

"Mr. President, I'm dead serious about the death of Hawaiian businesses, particularly small businesses, because I know that it means fewer jobs, fewer opportunities, fewer tax revenues, fewer choices, and less hope for our state -- particularly our young people. As the U.S. economy grows and strengthens, as the economy and economic indicators from other states and cities continue to become more strong, we languish here with the same problems that we've had year after year -- high taxes, high regulations, high mandated benefits, low incentives for people in business. Statewide, Mr. President, Chapter 7 filings for business and individuals have reached an all-time high this year of 801 -- 65 percent higher than a year ago. Despite earlier, rosy predictions, 1997 is not a better year for these folks.

"I think all of us in this room are touched by people that have been impacted by the economic conditions. And yet those people who say that 'it's the economy, stupid!' are wrong -- it's the politics, stupid! And we have a responsibility and obligation to do something about it.

"We must have the leadership from this body and from this Legislature. We have to stop looking at band-aid cures and look at the cause of our problems, and most importantly, Mr. President and colleagues, we have to take action. We have less than 18 days in which to do it, but still we have time to turn our state around. I plead with all of you -- let's put our priorities first. They're not no-rules combat. They're not some of the other things that we discuss on a daily basis. It is the economy and it is economic incentives.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"You know, we read the paper -- Senate budget cuts, you know, cuts -- and we all know this is a problem. I guess a problem I have, coming from small business, is that time is very important. And on many issues this body seems to think a study or let's talk some more ... and I'm not here to talk about adding to the obituary list that was read yesterday.

"I'm here to talk about, just as there were students here a few minutes ago, where will our 12,000 graduates go, Mr. President? Where will they go come June and July? How will they stay in Hawaii? There's much talent that graduate each year, much talent, you know. Some of you have younger children. Where will the Senators' children from Manoa go? Will they go to Seattle?

"So I think many of the issues before us -- small business caucus issues -- they're not all major issues. Yet, they have merit. And I think time is very important. In three weeks we can do a lot, and I guess I ask for my colleagues not to say, 'well, let's study; let's look at.' Let's do it! Things can be done and there are solutions. I guess one solution -- I'm not going to elaborate with the body -- but there are solutions that some you know of and I hope we can at least make steps forward on some of the ideas that are put forward, whether in private or in public, Mr. President. Thank you."

Senator Anderson also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege, if I may.

"Mr. President, I think we do a lot of good here and I know that we do, at times, a lot of bad things that people chastise us for, and I can't blame them. But one of the good things that I didn't read in the paper and I believe should have been brought forth because of all of the failing restaurants that are going on right now is that there was a bill last night to add not just the 50 percent tax credit on meals that the federal government allows us and the state government, but also to add another 30 percent state tax credit on business meals. And our director of taxation didn't think that was very much and that we should look at the federal level. But 30 percent added on might save a business because the business people are the ones that go out and buy luncheons or dinners and keep these restaurants and private clubs going.

"One of the things that disturbed me that we're not doing and we're trying to jump-start the state, Mr. President, is finish the Lab School that Senator Malama said that when she was chairman had asked about an $11 million building. The design and planning was over, and yet we're not going to construct that building. And that would jump-start the state, but that's not going to be done at the University.

"What we are going to do, Mr. President, is charge a tuition fee to the Lab School students. And they get no new buildings. Not only that, but in order to try to save a few dollars and put some money in the general fund, what we're going to do is take the University Lab and penalize them. And I say penalize because, Mr. President, it costs us as taxpayers -- every one of us across the state -- $5,000 roughly, per student, per year. At the lab school when we were checking yesterday, it costs $3800. So I think it's being penalized because they want to charge a tuition fee for students to go to the lab school. Now, why get penalized when you're doing a good job, costing us less money than the average public school.

"I have stood on this floor and said, if we need money in our general fund, then tax every student across the state, every school student that can afford to pay, either 200, 400, 500, whatever you need. But you're not going to make shortfalls on one little school with 300 and some odd students. It just doesn't make sense. It's not the way to go if you're looking for dollars. I heard one person across the hall who told me that only the elite go to that school. Another said only haoles go to that school. I think the people better look at what the student body is made up of. It's all nationalities and all economic backgrounds of people across the state. It's not just the high and mighty and the rich. And that's the problem. I know a lot of people that went to that school, but all of a sudden now that they're gone, they don't much care if the school gets closed.

"I had my mo'opuna who went to Kamehameha Schools from kindergarten to the 6th grade, and then he went to the University Lab for two years. I would have loved to have had him stay, but he decided to go back to Kamehameha to graduate. That's how I happen to know about the lab school and I was concerned because the children are more or less guinea pigs. You take teachers that have not yet been certified and they teach the type of programs that are needed. They do books that they can sell to other schools and across the nation. So we want to penalize them for doing a good job. They get over $300,000 for the teacher grant in federal grants. They use 200-and-some-odd-thousand and the rest goes into the general fund -- but we're going to penalize them.

"These are some of the concerns that I have, Mr. President. If we want to put money into the general fund, then charge every student that can afford to pay, and those that cannot afford, we take care of. That's our job. That's the safety net.

"Thank you very much for listening to me, Mr. President and my colleagues."

Senator Fukunaga, for the Committee on Ways and Means, requested a waiver of the 48-hour Notice of a Public Hearing on H.B. No. 1701, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Taniguchi, for the Committee on Economic Development, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing, pursuant to Senate Rule 20, on H.B. No. 1575 as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to request a waiver of the 72-hour notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 20.

"The reason for this request is to allow your Committee on Economic Development to hold a public hearing on H.B. No. 1575, entitled, 'Relating to Milk.' We had initially heard the companion Senate bill and decided to hold that bill. However, during the past two weeks there has been some activity in the milk industry, and we'd like to at least review a bill this afternoon, if possible, to hopefully keep a vehicle alive in case we need to act to help the milk industry."

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, something happened yesterday that shocked me, and you know that I'm not easily shocked, Mr. President. We're used to problems all around the world in Bosnia and Zaire, but, Mr. President, across the courtyard in the House of Representatives where the Minority Leader was forcibly restrained and then ejected for exercising free speech, Mr. President, I was saddened all evening.

"I was trying to think of two things. First of all, I wanted to thank the President and my colleagues here who have not yet forcibly tried to restrain me from speaking. (Laughter.) And secondly, I was trying to think how could we overcome the prejudice and the difficulties across the way. The only thing I could think of, Mr. President, I did understand that there is an election coming up next year and possibly if some of my colleagues here could find it in their hearts to move aside to allow more of the minority members to come possibly into this body and make room for them, I think it would be a good gesture.

"Thank you, Mr. President." (Laughter.)

Senator Anderson then added:

"I would just like to clarify what he's saying. I think it's called 'kokua.'"

THIRD READING

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1400 (H.B. No. 1138, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1400 was adopted and H.B. No. 1138, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR EDUCATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 4 (Baker, Chumbley, Ige, D., Matsunaga).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1403 (H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1403 be adopted and H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to this bill.

"While the idea and the concept of this bill is good in terms of giving inmates both the opportunity to work and also the opportunity to pay back for both their incarceration and for victims, I think that in recent years what we've seen is a direction of this program that competes in the community, particularly with small businesses, particularly in certain industries like the printing industry. I think the bill should be tightened up and we should be making it very clear that people are in prisons, first of all, for punishment; secondly, to repay their debt to society, but not to further complicate the business climate. So, I'll be voting 'no' on the bill.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to have the Minority Floor Leader's words put in the Journal as though they were my own, and I'd like to add that I'm going on a W/R and not on a 'no.'

"The bill also says that you could hire up to 60 temporary exempt positions in any fiscal year. I don't think that this is a responsible way to be handling the hiring of new people, so I do have my reservations on that. Thank you very much."

Senator Kanno rose and said:

"Mr. President, with reservations."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Fernandes Salling spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, by way of explanation, of course I think members are aware that we are not necessarily enthusiastic about providing for exempt positions, but in this case what we were faced with and why we had to provide for these exempt positions -- and if I might add, this is an exception to the rule in Ways and Means -- were basically because of the physicians and the medical that needed to be provided. And it was felt that in those instances, with respect to those positions, we needed to give the flexibility in light of the previous problems that they have had in hiring according to the Civil Service, if many of you have read, previous accounts in other years. And that is why we provided for the director to hire with respect to those types of positions, primarily those positions, to make them exempt."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the motion.

"As a point of clarification, members, I think it's important that everyone understand that these are revolving fund positions. These are not general funded permanent employees. The money that pays for these positions comes from the work that we believe all incarcerated inmates should do. Therefore, the money comes from the revolving fund, and not the general fund.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1403 was adopted and H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONAL INDUSTRIES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

H.B. No. 1756, H.D. 1:

Senator Kawamoto moved that H.B. No. 1756, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Sakamoto.

Senator Slom, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I spoke against the Senate bill a month ago. This is a minor matter. It seems that 17 years ago there was, in a redraft of a bill, a provision that was left out of the law. And since that period of time, there's been no problem created, as testified to by the State Department of Transportation. There's no problem now, and businesses and commercial vendors are subject to ten chapters of business law regulations. So if there's no problem, if there is no offense and if there was an inadvertent error 17 years ago, I don't think we should compound it today. I don't think any additional law or additional verbiage is necessary.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kawamoto rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I speak for the bill.

"Mr. President, this measure seeks to restore the authority to impose penalties on illegal commercial activities at the public airports and allows the Department of Transportation to impose such penalties. It is needed and this is to keep the airports running smoothly.

"Therefore, Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill. Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I had thought that perhaps the chairs of TIA would address this, but the problem that I have with this bill is that it should deal with safety, security, instances where planes or other people may be driving on to the runways and instead what this bill goes on to say is that they are now going to license and regulate and deal with within this whole chapter, commercial activities at public airports and make them subject to this misdemeanor. I've opposed this in the past. I'm opposing it now. I think it's bad to include that provision in this bill. I think the previous problem should be addressed, and yes, it has been, but to add commercial activities, to regulate them, and if the Airports Division finds that it's in violation of their rules, to subject them to a misdemeanor is not a good position for us to take."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1756, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Fernandes Salling, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1415 (H.B. No. 1860, H.D. 3, S.D. 1):

Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1415 be adopted and H.B. No. 1860, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Levin rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill with reservations.

"And very briefly, I made similar comments when we passed the Senate companion bill. My hope is that we can come up with a formulation that will allow us to do away with diploma mills which we all are opposed to, and yet not interfere with legitimate institutions of higher education which grant degrees but which are not accredited. That formula has not yet been arrived at. I understand that the chairs of the appropriate committee are working to look for appropriate language, and I thank them for their efforts and hope that the final product out of conference will be something that we all can live with.

"Thank you."

Senator Metcalf also rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak in favor of this bill, but with reservations, and ask that Senator Levin's remarks be included in the Journal as my own."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Slom rose to speak in favor of the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak in favor, with reservations.

"And I would just add that the reason that we've had three House drafts and one Senate draft is that while everybody was complaining that we had a problem of diploma mills in this state, the actual data was in short supply in terms of testimony. But what was in long supply was the fact that this bill, as currently drafted, would represent yet one more barrier to entry to those new colleges and universities. Also, it does not take cognizance of colleges without walls and electronic colleges, and the future of education. And particularly hard hit would be trade and professional educational institutions. So with those reservations, I cast my vote, Mr. President. Thank you."

Senator Anderson added:

"Mr. President, would you have the former speaker's words put in the Journal as though they were my own."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator McCartney rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of this bill with some reservations, but I'd like to thank the chairs for working on the bill.

"I had the privilege of working on this issue before and I think it's a challenging one, so I'd like the remarks of the two Senators from the Big Island inserted in the Journal as my own."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1415 was adopted and H.B. No. 1860, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEGREE-GRANTING INSTITUTIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1420 (H.B. No. 1243, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1420 be adopted and H.B. No. 1243, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I think we all want air quality, the finest air quality. If we can find some way of putting out the volcano on the Big Island, I think we'd be in better shape. Until then I think we need to know if we're going to have bills like this, how many positions we're talking about; what is the total cost going to be for those positions. And when we talk about the environmental response fund paying for this, we see that there have been efforts to increase the contributions or the taxation of that fund. So I rise against the bill.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1420 was adopted and H.B. No. 1243, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1421 (H.B. No. 1388, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1421 be adopted and H.B. No. 1388, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Anderson rose to speak on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting with reservations on this particular bill.

"The bill allows the courts to collect interest penalties based upon a graduated scale for outstanding traffic citations. And it's my understanding that the traffic courts are behind a couple of million dollars of sending out these traffic citations, and now we're going to be penalized even more. I believe the fines have gone up for everything. Some people can't afford to pay what they do have in the first place, and now we're going to add additional fees. So it's a lot of incompetence, maybe, or poor administration, plus, people not having the money and I just can't see another penalty. Thank you."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the measure.

"This measure will simply allow the courts to impose on all outstanding traffic citations and judgments an additional penalty. Colleagues, the outstanding balance is $25 million. Think how far that would go back in the general fund to provide for education; to provide for human services and other services. These are law violators. The courts should be allowed to go after these individuals.

"In addition, any additional interest penalty imposed as provided for in this section may be waived by the courts for good cause. So in the circumstances as the previous speaker had expressed concerns about, we have created an opportunity for those fees and additional penalties to be waived.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1421 was adopted and H.B. No. 1388, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRAFFIC INFRACTIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1454 (H.B. No. 1840, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1454 be adopted and H.B. No. 1840, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"We have so many bills that we keep talking about an emergency and a crisis. And any reasonable person could have anticipated, should have anticipated, did anticipate what the problems were going to be in terms of funding, particularly with the State's Community Hospitals. And the simple fact of the matter is that the state should not be in the hospital business, that we should be moving toward privatization of these facilities and other activities, as well. And until that time, the original bill sought $21 million. Our version provides $8 million. I don't think that there is any crisis or any emergency that can't be solved by the people that are directly involved.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1454 was adopted and H.B. No. 1840, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION FOR THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

H.B. No. 1806, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Chun Oakland moved that H.B. No. 1806, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling.

Senator Iwase rose to speak on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm going to be voting for this bill with reservations.

"The bill amended the House bill by inserting the contents of S.B. No. 257, S.D. 2, and while it's an improvement over the House bill by rejecting the double trigger mechanism, my reservation is based on the fact that it did not adopt the S.D. 1 version of S.B. No. 257. At the hearing there was testimony by both ERS and Budget and Finance who agreed that the S.D. 1 version was far superior. It was a good bill. Various organizations testified in support of the S.D. 1 -- the HSTA, for example, the retirees, the Oahu Retired Teachers.

"Senate Draft 1 does provide about $126 million over the next two years, dealing with the short term problem we have. And by the year 2007, if it plays out and the projections hold for investment returns, we would not have to contribute as an employer, and save $300 to $400 million. However, we unfortunately did not adopt that bill and I hope that in conference that we will reflect upon it and have a change of heart and adopt S.D. 1.

"Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto also rose to speak on the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to also express my reservations on this bill.

"I agree with the previous speaker's remarks. And yes, by 2007 the fund would have been fully funded, and the current bill puts a two-year limit on this. Although a good compromise has been reached, why can't we let our retirees, current employees, really rest assure that the fund is safe and sound on a permanent basis for that matter. That's why I have reservations, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon rose and said:

"Mr. President, please note a W/R for me. Thank you."

The Chair so ordered:

Senators Tanaka, Slom, Bunda and Anderson also requested their votes be cast "aye, with reservations," and the Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1806, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PENSION AND RETIREMENT SYSTEMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1456 (H.B. No. 258, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1456 was adopted and H.B. No. 258, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVENTION CENTER," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Aki, Iwase, Solomon).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1460 (H.B. No. 1863, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1460 be adopted and H.B. No. 1863, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Sakamoto spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise and express my reservations on this bill, as well.

"First of all, I'd like to commend the Committee on Ways and Means for really doing hard work, looking at ways to save money, encourage self-sufficiency and, in general, run the state government like a business. Unfortunately, my reservations are in the charging for publications, typically -- pamphlets, brochures. The Department of Consumer Affairs deals with issues such as the landlord-tenant code, liens. People come in, consumers and businesses alike, to get information to solve their problems. They need information to solve problems and possibly for the lack of a $5 charge, not get the information they want. And later on that escalates to $500, $5,000, $50,000 in lawyer fees and damages. We want to conduct business, but let's protect our consumers, protect businesses and let them have the information they want.

"I guess there are solutions like the Worldwide Web where the government has access, has current addresses where some of this information can be placed with little or no charge. So I encourage that as well, but again, that's why I have reservations, Mr. President."

Senators Solomon, Iwase, Slom and Anderson then requested that their "aye" votes be cast "with reservations," and the Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1460 was adopted and H.B. No. 1863, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER AND BUSINESS EDUCATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1462 (H.B. No. 1654, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1462 was adopted and H.B. No. 1654, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUPERVISION OF ACCOUNTS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1464 (H.B. No. 1664, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1464 be adopted and H.B. No. 1664, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator M. Ige, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, this is not an easy vote for me, but I just do not believe that with our fiscal constraints that we are faced with today, that we are able to fund this particular appropriation. For that reason I will be going 'no.'

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill, also.

"For some of the same reasons that Senator Ige spoke of, we have to prioritize and we have to look at direct educational programs. And I think that we can get more bang for our buck in direct education with other programs.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1464 was adopted and H.B. No. 1664, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE WESTERN GOVERNORS UNIVERSITY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Ige, M., Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1466 (H.B. No. 1797, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1466 was adopted and H.B. No. 1797, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOUSING FINANCE AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1471 (H.B. No. 140, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1471 be adopted and H.B. No. 140, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Bunda rose and said:

"Mr. President, would you have the Clerk cast my vote with reservations."

Senator Anderson added:

"Mr. President, with reservations for me, also."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1471 was adopted and H.B. No. 140, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1472 (H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1472 be adopted and H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Tam rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I oppose this bill, Relating to Salaries in the Judiciary.

"Mr. President and fellow colleagues, the timing is bad for raises to executives at this time. I'm not opposed to raises for judges in concept, but again, not at this time.

"Our first priority is to properly fund the basic foundation for education within our public schools. Classroom and student needs are more important at this time.

"Thank you."

Senator Iwase then requested a ruling from the Chair as follows:

"Mr. President, I request a ruling on a conflict. I have a family relation who is a judge and would benefit by this bill."

The Chair ruled that Senator Iwase was not in conflict.

Senator Anderson rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I will be going 'with reservations' on this particular bill.

"I've said before, I don't believe that we should be giving across the board raises to everyone. If you had a study that said, in fact, some of these people are losing money because they're with the state and had they been in private business they would have been way ahead, maybe I could go along with it with no reservations at all. But there is no merit to any of the type of raises that these people are going to be getting. There are no studies that have been done. When I asked, they said the studies were done in the very top attorneys' offices and not in the average. So we don't know if they're losing money and they deserve this raise or just what the merits are. So I have reservations.

"Thank you."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the motion.

"Unlike the previous speaker, I do feel there is merit to this issue, Mr. President. In fact, another of the previous speakers said that our judges should not be paid if we cannot fund education. These judges have gone in excess of seven years without a pay adjustment. If those members who closely read the bill would realize that this is a retention pay and not an across-the-board pay, which the Judiciary Committee originally proposed and the Ways and Means, in their wisdom, reduced it, the original proposal would have only cost about $350,000. It is not an across-the-board pay raise right now. It will have a limited effect and it is for retention only.

"I believe, Mr. President, that our judges in the State of Hawaii deserve a pay raise. Thank you."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"A lot has been said about if we don't raise the pay of the judges that many more of them will leave the state. In the case of those judges that did such a great disservice to the taxpayers, families and individuals in this state on the two most recent Supreme Court rulings, Konno v. County of Hawaii and also the constitutional convention, I will offer to drive them to the airport, Mr. President.

"In terms of people leaving this state, we have people leaving everyday because they are forced out of this state because of the taxation, the regulations, and all of negative things that we have done in this state to provide disincentives. So I think it would be a good lesson for the judges to find out how the rest of the people live, and I oppose the salary increase.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1472 was adopted and H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SALARIES IN THE JUDICIARY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 3 (Aki, Slom, Tam). Excused, 1 (Fernandes Salling).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1473 (H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1473 be adopted and H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Anderson rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I will be going 'no' on this particular measure.

"When we had the topic in Ways and Means, it was my understanding that the identification certificate was costing us a hundred and some odd thousand dollars a year for that particular program. They were bringing in over $200,000, but because they think they want to keep their department going and there are changes or they may need more money in the general fund, they're now going to make the ID cards expire in six years. I don't think that I've changed that much in six years and I told them I'd look and I tried. I couldn't find any of my ID cards that really changed so I didn't want to make a real big deal about it.

"But the special funds that they're looking at are for new cameras and the whole bit, also. If, in fact, they've been able to give you an ID, Mr. President, and you could use it for a lifetime, I see no reason why if that program has money and it is self-sufficient, that we have to raise it.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1473 was adopted and H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF IDENTIFICATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1475 (H.B. No. 1610, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1475 was adopted and H.B. No. 1610, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INDEMNIFICATION OF THE UNITED STATES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1476 (H.B. No. 480, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1476 be adopted and H.B. No. 480, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"The bill, as drafted, adds a new section that exempts Hawaii from the part of the federal welfare reforms that denies cash assistance and food stamps to anyone with a felony conviction and anyone that has an element of drug possession, use or distribution of controlled substances. We keep sending out mixed messages. If we are truly opposed to drugs, then we should not reward or compensate people for them and the money keeps increasing that we pay for all people. Let's have a priority for those people that do not use drugs.

"Thank you."

Senator Levin rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"I just want to make sure that it's clear that this bill does not allow for assistance to go to all persons who have been convicted of a felony. It is only for those who are complying with treatment programs. I think that is an important distinction and one that we appropriately are putting into law.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1476 was adopted and H.B. No. 480, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC ASSISTANCE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Ige, M., Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1477 (H.B. No. 1714, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1477 be adopted and H.B. No. 1714, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"Well, here we go again, Mr. President, another emergency appropriation here to set up an electronic funds transfer to make it easier to get food stamps. We're talking about $1.6 million of state funds and additional federal funds, as well. I think we can better spend our money and I think that if we privatize and contract out these services, we can all save money and do a better job.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Tam rose to speak in favor of the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President and fellow colleagues, this bill puts funds forward so that we can have an electronic system in relation to food stamps. We have a lot of corruption out there in the community whereby people who have food stamps are selling their food stamps for 50 cents out of the dollar. This would make the amendment to that deceitfulness in terms of use of food stamps out there by having like a charge card effect.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1477 was adopted and H.B. No. 1714, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION FOR AN ELECTRONIC BENEFIT TRANSFER SYSTEM," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Slom). Excused, 1 (Bunda).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1478 (H.B. No. 1805, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1478 was adopted and H.B. No. 1805, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Bunda).

H.B. No. 1575, S.D. 1:

Senator Tanaka moved that H.B. No. 1575, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Taniguchi.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"We drink a lot of milk. Milk is extremely important. We have shown that by government manipulation and price controls and distribution controls, we have not helped our local dairies. We have not helped our local consumers. All we've done is interfere with the market process, so I vote against the bill.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting against this particular measure, primarily because, as I said earlier, when we had a bill some years ago to have the different stores bring in their own milk from the Mainland, I said at that time we'd be ruining our milk industry and what we should do is have them open a processing plant. That particular store that came here was Safeway and they had a processing plant on the Mainland. It would have helped our industry, but no, we went ahead and passed it and I was the only descending vote at the time in the House.

"Now, those same people are being able to get their feed a lot cheaper than our people. They're able to ship in their milk and still be able to run our people out of business because by the time they ship in the feed, pay their employees (the land here is a lot more expensive), naturally our local milk is going to be higher.

"So just giving them a break to sell their milk at a little more, I don't think the governor is doing them a real service. I think we have to find out how we're going to bring in their feed a lot cheaper; how are we going to be able to stimulate their industry rather than just say, 'Go ahead and raise the cost. If the consumer can't afford it, you'll go out of business, anyway.' For that reason I'll be going 'no.'

"Thank you very much."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1575, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MILK," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1504 (H.B. No. 1837, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1504 was adopted and H.B. No. 1837, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1508 (H.B. No. 147, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1508 was adopted and H.B. No. 147, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LONG-TERM CARE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1511 (H.B. No. 1706, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1511 be adopted and H.B. No. 1706, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"When this act was passed six years ago over the objections of every business organization, every individual, the Department of Labor assessed an additional taxation on every employer to provide for training, and yet, in fact, there was no training in place. The supporters of the bill tried to make the legislation more palatable by building in a five-year sunset provision. The bill and the act was supposed to sunset last year, and in fact it did not. The 1996 Legislature extended it.

"This is a two-year moratorium and as we found out, we really don't come to grips with issues. The issue is that we don't need additional taxation, that this money has been wasted. Over 50 percent of it has gone for administration, and therefore, I think the right thing to do is to kill the fund as was intended.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1511 was adopted and H.B. No. 1706, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING FUND," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1515 (H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1515 be adopted and H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Matsunaga requested a conflict ruling from the Chair as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to disclose a potential conflict of interest. My law firm represents one of the claimants in this measure."

The Chair ruled that Senator Matsunaga was not in conflict.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1515 was adopted and H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RELIEF OF CERTAIN PERSONS' CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE AND PROVIDING APPROPRIATIONS THEREFOR," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1517 (H.B. No. 417, H.D. 3, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1517 be adopted and H.B. No. 417, H.D. 3, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Anderson rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll be going 'no' on this particular measure, also.

"I don't want anyone to think that I'm against the environment and trails, but a few years ago we did set aside money for the recreational boats because they said that they paid a portion of the fuel tax and they thought it should go toward recreational boats. Now we're saying we should put money aside from the gasoline tax so that it can go into a special fund for the trail access program. And they look at that as a possible $250,000.

"I think we're setting a precedent. We're taking money and saying that each individual user can form a little hui and then they're going to need the dollars. So for that reason I'll be going against the measure.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom also rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, will be voting 'no' on the measure.

"What troubles me is that we had a tax of $2 a day per car rental that was established a number of years ago. The purpose for that tax was the maintenance, operation, construction, and beautification of the highways. Now, we're seeing an attempt to loot that money and put it into the general fund. We have the same possibility with other special funds where the money is being diverted and transferred from the original purpose.

"The other thing is that if we're going to continue to take portions of the fuel tax for whatever purposes that may seem good, we're going to get a bill from the State Department of Transportation next year who have already hinted that they're going to try to raise our fuel tax. So I will vote against this bill also, while still trying to preserve the environment."

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

At 12:09 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:15 o'clock p.m.

H.B. No. 1640, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

By unanimous consent, action on H.B. No. 1640, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, was deferred to the end of the calendar.

H.B. No. 1804, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1804, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Iwase spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill with reservations.

"Mr. President, this bill sets up a repair and maintenance fund into which is transferred 1 percent of all the GO bonds funding appropriations. Under the bill, the R & M monies can be expended for 'state facilities.' Inasmuch as education is our No. 1 priority, it is my hope that all, or a portion, of the 1 percent would be designated for R & M for our schools and are not to be spent on facilities that may not require the kind of repairs that are needed in many of our public schools. So, for that reason I'm going to go 'with reservations.'

"Thank you."

Senator Kawamoto also rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak with reservations.

"Again, as I discussed in committee the concern I have is because of the windfall of the CIP -- $1 billion in the governor's package, the $800 million in the House package and the $550 million for the Senate package. Whatever it is, the 1 percent for the arts is going to be a windfall, and it's going to be an increase of what they normally would have throughout the next biennium.

"I find it very difficult to have the arts community have a windfall and to say that they weren't going to spend the money; they're going to save the money. I find it very hard to believe that an agency would be able to save money when we see other agencies that are biting the dust and are losing good programs because of the budget cuts. I'm concerned that with this kind of activity, we lose good programs like the Youth Challenger Program that the National Guard has. They will need some money. They need $300,000, and another agency is going to be able to save $1 million to $6 million for a rainy day. I just cannot believe we're doing that.

"Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"I'd like to reassure Senator Iwase and others who may be wondering what is the intent of the Ways and Means Committee with respect to the repair and maintenance account that is set up in this bill, and that is to provide for these monies primarily to take care of school repairs and maintenance, not necessarily the other facilities. That was our priority -- the school repairs and maintenance."

Senator Sakamoto added:

"Mr. President, I'd like to also express my reservations. Yes, repair and maintenance is very good but perhaps on the arts portion that was in the previous draft, maybe a cap can be put on that portion, so it doesn't become a windfall just by tagging along, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senators Slom, Solomon, Tanaka and Anderson then requested that their votes be cast "aye, with reservations," and the Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1804, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Bunda).

H.B. No. 1650, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

By unanimous consent, action on H.B. No. 1650, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, was deferred to the end of the calendar.

H.B. No. 1623, S.D. 1:

Senator Kanno moved that H.B. No. 1623, S.D. 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Human Resources, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

At this time, Senator Kanno remarked on the action taken on H.B. No. 1623, S.D. 1, as follows:

"Mr. President, there needs to be further work on the language in this bill."

Senator Kawamoto then added:

"Mr. President, the bottom line for me on this recommittal ... I'd like to thank both chairs for allowing me to take the bill as far as I did on this effort. The bottom line is that I have about five bus-loads of hotel workers that go to Waikiki everyday, early in the morning, to do their diligent work on many of service jobs which we enjoy and the visitor industry to enjoys.

"My concern is employment security. In the old days when we had the plantations, the plantation owners and the employees used to come and work together, create arbitration and collaboration. We've been working on this for three years. Hopefully, this year our atmosphere was for collaboration and arbitration and we thought maybe we could get this bill through. But the concern we have, again, is that many of our hotels, many of our large businesses, the ownership is away from our islands, in foreign countries or on the Mainland, the arbitration and collaboration sometimes is difficult. The aloha for our employees is sometimes difficult. Again, we hope that we can keep the doors open and look at this situation that we have here in Hawaii Nei.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1623, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT SECURITY APPEALS," was recommitted to the Committee on Human Resources.

H.B. No. 582, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Baker moved that H.B. No. 582, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"Mr. President, how could anybody stand up and speak against this bill? How could anybody not be against violence, intentional serious injury or bodily harm and extreme violence?"

Well, that's not what the sport or what the activity actually does. Those of us in the committee listened to testimony.

"What the bill does, first of all, I think is erroneous in its title -- Relating to Combat -- I generally think of combat in terms of military situations. Secondly, when it talks about no rules combat as an entertainment event, we heard testimony that showed that in fact there were rules, that there are national and international associations. Thirdly, there were no statistics to indicate that there had been serious injury or death in contrast to existing sports that we all like to go to and attend. And fourthly, we keep getting this reputation in Hawaii that whenever somebody doesn't like something, we ban it. And we fine and punish people that pay their money to go see it or to promote it.

"I think that we're disregarding the testimony that was made. And besides that, I think there's a conflict here in the Senate, Mr. President, because I truly believe that some of the Senators are holding out until we have no rules combat in the Senate against the House. And I think that some of the Senate colleagues have already been in training. So, for these and other reasons, Mr. President, I will vote against this measure."

Senator Baker rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this measure.

"Mr. President, H.B. No. 582, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, prohibits holding, promoting and participation as a contestant in a 'no rules combat' or so-called extreme or ultimate fighting contest.

"These events which promote excessive violence and are inherently dangerous, have been banned in New York, Missouri, Kansas, Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Illinois, Florida, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and Louisiana. The states of Mississippi and New Jersey heavily regulate this activity. Additionally, many other states have allowed specific counties to enact their own regulations. In all, 45 states have some kind of law that recognizes the inappropriate brutality of these so-called sporting events. Notably absent from this list is the State of Hawai'i.

"To give you an idea of what happens at these events, a recent 'Ultimate Fight Championship,' under the so-called rules that were presented to the committee, was held in Alabama on February 8. The Montgomery Advertiser reported on the event as follows: 'One bout was halted after a contestant had been repeatedly kneeed in the face,' that's supposed to be against the rules. They stopped the fight 'to clean blood from the downed fighter's face. Incredibly, the bout was allowed to continue, where upon the injured contestant was knocked unconscious, having his head slammed between the floor and his opponent's knee.' (End of quote from the paper.) Those activities are allowed under the rules we were shown at the committee level. So I ask you, does this sound like a legitimate sport to you?

"Mr. President, this legislature continues to enact legislation to curb violence in our homes, our schools and our community. We recently paused for a moment of silence in honor of the man who dedicated his life to nonviolence because we recognized that our society has become all too violent. So it puzzles me how we can pass bills that make it illegal for two individuals to assault each other senseless on a city street, and yet we allow the very same activity to occur in a ring, just because it is presented under the guise of 'sport.'

"Mr. President, this bill will not nor is it intended to ban legitimate sports such as boxing, wrestling or traditional martial arts that have structured rules, real rules -- real federations with names, addresses and phone numbers -- that protect those participants in those activities. Nor is it intended to set a precedent of banning other athletic activities because of their possible risk of injury. Rather, Mr. President, it is aimed at those activities whose objective, solely, is to inflict serious injury and harm to its participants.

"Mr. President, these activities clearly have no place in our community. I urge all my colleagues to join me in voting 'aye' on this measure and allow our state to follow the example of the rest of our country.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 582, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMBAT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1524 (H.B. No. 777, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1524 be adopted and H.B. No. 777, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Kanno then remarked:

"Mr. President, with reservations."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1524 was adopted and H.B. No. 777, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PLANNED COMMUNITY ASSOCIATIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

H.B. No. 1451, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Baker moved that H.B. No. 1451, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Solomon rose and spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting for this bill with reservations.

"I'd like to bring my colleagues' attention to page 14 of the bill, lines 5 to 18. I feel that the major flaw in this measure lies in the attempt to put a cap on the rents, and unlike most rental agreements we are familiar with which places a large percentage against base rent, this proposal places the percentage on top of the base. It further establishes a rent payable on taxes.

"I would like to suggest that once this bill moves to conference, that we could either remove the sections on page 14, lines 4 to 18, or rewrite the section to help the dealers it was intended to help. This can be easily done with the lease rental of 15 percent, excluding tax.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kawamoto also rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise with reservations, and put the previous speaker's remarks in the Journal for me.

"I'd like to also say that the 'mom and pop' stores, the concerns we have are that the 'mom and pop' service station owners, many of these we've seen a decline of. I request that the two chairs that go into conference again consider the 'mom and pop' stores because some day we're going to have gas stations versus service stations. The service is going to be out, and all we're going to have to do is buy gas.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Iwase then requested a ruling from the Chair as follows:

"Mr. President, a ruling on a conflict. The law firm of which I am associated with represents what's designated a manufacturer under the bill."

The Chair ruled that Senator Iwase was not in conflict.

Senator Iwase then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President, then with reservations."

Senator M. Ige then added:

"Mr. President, I, too, would like to express my reservations and would like to have Senator Kawamoto's words inserted into the Journal as though they were my own.

"I also would like to thank both chairs during caucus yesterday for taking into consideration and doing whatever they can to protect our independent dealers in the community. I encourage them to please proceed ahead thinking of our people out there in the community. Thank you."

Senator Baker rose in support of the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure. I appreciate the words of the previous speakers and want to assure them that we will take their concerns and considerations into account.

"Colleagues, the measure before us, unfortunately, is a familiar one. Over the years, the legislature has attempted to address concerns about the petroleum industry and pricing, about competition and about dealers' concerns in relation to jobbers and manufacturers. Unfortunately, the solutions that we approved in the past were only temporary, delaying the inevitable task of revisiting this contentious, complicated problem again. And, here we are.

"For a short hand description, we've lumped all these issues together and called them 'divorcement' because that was one approach advocated from time to time. We are approaching the end of a six-year moratorium that was supposed to have addressed all of these problems or, at least, allowed for a permanent solution to emerge.

"Unfortunately, the moratorium did not protect lessee dealers. Stations continued to close down during the period of the moratorium. We've seen new rent structures proposed. Some dealers still feel squeezed. And our marketplace remains as inelastic as ever, lacking true market forces for maximum competition.

"Your committee seeks, still, to find a long term solution, a viable solution to the concerns we've heard. A beginning step, we believe a good one, is embodied in this bill before us. We made a concerted effort to obtain as much information as possible so we could make an informed decision. We held an informational briefing to gather data and perspectives from all parties, from the public and private sector. Following that, we held a public hearing on variety of bills, continued the dialogue with dealers and the industry, and sought specific comments on a proposed S.D. 1 before your committee took action. We even made amendments subsequent to those comments. So the measure before us is the result of our collaborative effort, albeit with some shortcomings, to address the concerns around the sale and distribution of petroleum products in our state.

"Under our proposal, the committee sought to address the dealers' concerns, in light of market realities, and ensure that consumers have adequate access to petroleum products and automotive services. We also wanted to foster competition in the marketplace. Your committee has made a concerted effort to provide a balanced resolution to these issues. We know not everyone is happy with every item or wording in this bill. We are continuing to work on improvements. Most of the stakeholders, I believe, including most of the dealers, can live with the concepts in this measure. The devil, of course, is in the details and that, Mr. President, is what your committee will continue to hammer out in conference.

"Some will argue that government should take a hands off position and allow the market to dictate its own course. While this is sage advice in a highly competitive market, Hawai'i's unique dependence on petroleum products and the limited number of players on the supply side make it necessary for us to maintain some level of control.

"As this measure moves forward into conference, both co-chairs will continue to refine this measure to craft a long-term solution that is in the best interest of Hawaii's consumers.

"I urge all members to vote 'aye.' Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Slom added his remarks on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting 'aye' with reservations on this bill in hopes that we can get an even better bill in conference.

"I think, though, that the testimony has shown a number of things that a six-year moratorium has not helped the small independent dealers. They have been reduced in numbers by 50 percent every couple of years. That divorcement is not the answer. That even though we don't believe in no rules combat, we seem to have no rules when it comes to investigating one particular industry over and over and over again, even though there were never any charges or indictments. And I think that what has come out of the testimony and what we know in the business community, that our problems stem from high taxes, high regulations, infractions of the law that place right now and particularly environmental laws that make it extremely unprofitable for businesses to operate. So we're going to have to take these things into consideration in conference, so I will vote with reservations.

"Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling spoke with reservations on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise to speak in favor of the measure, with reservations.

"For the 'mom and pops' I think their major concern is the lease rents, and I am concerned that this measure may be found to be defective with respect to what the committee has done with the lease rent provisions. We may be preempted by the federal government. I do think that the major oil company that is the party here may challenge it and I would like to see a solution that deals with this lease rent issue that is critical to the 'mom and pop' surviving in such a way that it is not going to be subject to a challenge by either that major oil company or by the federal government."

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations because of the concerns of the 'moms and pops' issue.

"The petroleum companies, the larger companies, are insisting on some of the smaller ones that there are going to be improvements. They'll be putting in convenience stores. They're saying that they need all of these improvements because they want it. That drives up the cost. Consequently, the dealer will not be able to pay it and the company takes over. If some way or another we could make sure that in some of our areas that these concerns of the dealers are that the people are coming, they need the full service that we're giving, they don't want the convenience store because there's one close by, maybe then we could keep the cost down.

"What we've got to look at, as far as the petroleum people when I talk to them they say that when they open up a new service station in an area like Kapolei, by the time they put in the infrastructure the cost is high. I can understand that. They cannot find someone who can afford that. But for the small ones that are in place now, when they force them out of business, that's where we're having problems, and that's where my reservations are, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1451, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1529 (H.B. No. 1579, H.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator D. Ige and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1529 was adopted and H.B. No. 1579, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Baker moved that H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"The purpose of the bill is to conform state law with the newly adopted federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. Unfortunately, it doesn't really do that and seeks to exempt Hawaii from certain provisions of the federal law. They would lessen coverage for currently mandated individuals in the state.

"More importantly, from my perspective, two other things that the bill does not do -- it does not adopt all of the language in the federal bill relating to medical savings accounts, which I think would be very beneficial to all of our residents. The original House version offered an opportunity for us to make changes and reform to the 1974 prepaid health care act, which was meant originally to be a partnership between employer and employees which now is almost totally paid for by employers and does not leave, because of the ERISA exemption, any room for reform.

"So for these and other reasons, Mr. President, I will be voting 'no.' Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'm also forced to support this bill with some reservations.

"The bill purports to be a housekeeping measure. However, my concern is with the definition of the term 'employee,' and what it states, "'Employee' means an employee who works on a full-time basis with a normal work week of twenty hours or more; provided that the term may also include, at the employer's sole discretion, an employee who works on a full-time basis with a normal work week between seventeen and one-half hours and less than twenty hours.' And while I do recognize that the federal language may require this, I nevertheless feel that this is sort of a subtle and dangerous precedent that can affect various categories of benefits.

"In Hawaii, such a precedent can further damage the business climate and it can have a negative impact on the job market. Instead of helping workers, it possibly could ultimately harm workers, so I'm voting with reservations, Mr. President."

Senator Baker rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Colleagues, on August 21, 1996, President Clinton signed into law the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, HIPAA, for short, or as it is commonly referred to, the Kennedy-Kassebaum Healthcare Reform Bill. This legislation is one of the most significant health care initiatives to come out of the federal government in many years. It becomes effective July 1 of this year.

"HIPAA amends three existing federal laws -- ERISA, the Public Health Service Act and the Internal Revenue Code. Congress enacted this measure to address health care issues such as availability, health insurance fraud and abuse, electronic transmission of health care data, long term care insurance medical savings accounts and other related matters.

"As dictated by federal law, if a state has not enacted legislation to implement HIPAA by January of 1998, the state would lose jurisdiction over certain group and individual health insurance enforcement issues to the federal government. Your committee realizes it is important for the state to retain its jurisdiction over insurance policies written in the state and used this bill as a vehicle to address this issue.

"By way of chronology, on April 1, 1997, the state notified the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services of our intent to retain jurisdiction in health care matters and the language contained in H.B. No. 1899, S.D. 1, fulfills this notification requirement. The impending January 1998 deadline requires us to move this legislation forward this session if we are to continue to be able to administer our much-envied health care system.

"Through enactment of H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, we will conform our state insurance statute to this new federal directive so that the state will, in fact, retain its jurisdiction and maintain the level of benefits currently available to citizens of our state. Our prepaid health care act moves us far beyond much of what is contemplated by HIPAA and is mandated to other states. We certainly don't want to go backward with health care in our state.

"Our state's health care systems are among the best in the nation -- the envy of many. While HIPAA provisions are revolutionary in the context of reforming health care on the national level, Hawai'i's laws often times provide even greater benefits to our citizens. As such, we have included a provision in this bill that the requirements of HIPAA apply so long as it is not less -- not less -- than what is currently allowed by state laws, and allows the insurance commissioner to adopt rules necessary to implement HIPAA. The bill also requires the insurance commissioner to convene a task force of stakeholders in this area to review the requirements and implementations of HIPAA. The task force will make its recommendations to the legislature for our consideration next year.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this very important bill. Especially because it will allow us to address individual insurance plans which are required under this measure but which we were unable to undertake this session.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1899, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INSURANCE CODE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Slom). Excused, 1 (Metcalf).

H.B. No. 432, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Chumbley moved that H.B. No. 432, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'm going to vote 'aye' with reservations on the bill.

"Just like the Clerk missed something, I think the Judiciary Committee missed something too, and that was the intent of the bill. The intent of the bill was to make sure that people that run in a particular district live and vote in that district. Of course, they use as a rationale that they want to take that out because our supreme court would have ruled against that and our attorney general would rule against that. Looking at the past performance of both the supreme court and our attorney general, I think they should have left it in.

"I don't want to miss it. I will vote 'with reservations,' Mr. President. Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 432, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Anderson). Excused, 1 (Metcalf).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1540 (H.B. No. 1012, S.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1540 be adopted and H.B. No. 1012, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator M. Ige rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I have some words against this measure.

"Mr. President, the statutes presently read that if any child is found to be in possession of any kind of illegal drugs, a knife, or any type of, I guess, dangerous weapons, the superintendent must step in and approve that suspension. This bill expands that authority to his deputy, or the assistant superintendent. Mr. President, the buck stops with the superintendent. I do not believe we need to do this measure. The buck stops there and we should keep it that way.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1540 was adopted and H.B. No. 1012, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCHOOL DISCIPLINE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Ige, M.). Excused, 1 (Metcalf).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1552 (H.B. No. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1552 be adopted and H.B. No. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Slom, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"Last month, what we did was pass a bill that defeated the purpose previously to allow taxpayers to receive any excess taxes. Now what we're doing after we've taken that away from the taxpayers, we're saying we're going to deposit even more money for a rainy day fund. I think, Mr. President, it's been raining for quite some time now. We should take care of existing taxpayers.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll also be voting against the measure and for more or less the same reasons.

"For many years we've been saying, when we had money, that we should have put some money aside. We never did that and we were pouring. And now we're going to start a stabilization fund and I've been against it and I've been voicing my opinion for quite a number of years now in opposition to this one, so I'm going to go 'no.'

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1552 was adopted and H.B. No. 145, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN EMERGENCY AND BUDGET STABILIZATION FUND," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

H.B. No. 1539, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Chumbley, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling and carried, H.B. No. 1539, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1572 (H.B. No. 1841, H.D. 3, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1572 was adopted and H.B. No. 1841, H.D. 3, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH PLANNING," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1573 (H.B. No. 1618, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1573 be adopted and H.B. No. 1618, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Sakamoto rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

"I'm in opposition because this directly undermines the stated goals of creating efficient government and supporting the merit principle. Yes, our constitution mandates that civil service must be governed by the merit principle which requires fairness and equity in all aspects of personnel administration.

"Mr. President, negotiating, pricing and repricing violates the basic principles of the merit system. The current system has 4,734 classes of employees in this state -- 4,734, Mr. President. I support the portion of this bill that seeks to streamline, modernize and professionalize the classifying of employees. However, records show that the system for pricing and repricing has been efficient. For the two-year period of appeals ending January 1996, only 37 appeals were filed, of which 10 were granted. For the period ending January 1994, there were 63 appeals filed, three of which were deemed valid and granted.

"The proposed repricing generated a 4-page letter from our Human Services director James Takushi. He has stated that negotiated pricing will make it impossible for him to adhere to the merit principle. Mr. President, I think he's pulled out hairs over this and he can't afford to lose much more, Mr. President. (Laughter.)

"So, let's say, Mr. President, that you had a very good, experienced clerk and assume that he or she was covered under the collective bargaining. That's fine, and Senator Tam had a clerk and he or she was also covered with this negotiated repricing. Now, Mr. President, your clerk, my clerk, Senator Tam's clerk all do the same duties. Merit, in this case, is not how good that individual does, Mr. President. Merit relates to what they do, not how well they do it. So it's a little of a misnomer when we talk about the merit system.

"But what happens in the merit system when one clerk gets priced higher, Mr. President, our merit system forces all of the clerks to be priced higher. And that is not the goal that we need to achieve. So it's not ... maybe it becomes. Is it the merit system or collective bargaining? To pass this bill would be a dangerous hybrid of the two. We already have a hybrid, but this would make it impossible. Maybe we need to choose between the two.

"This bill creates more problems. Maybe we need to choose between the merit system or collective bargaining. For that reason, I vote 'no' on this bill, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak against the bill, although I will not refer to anyone's hair or physical conditions.

"I think that the real problem here is not that we need a methodology or a new way of classifying employees. What we need is more take-home pay and less taxation for existing employees.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1573 was adopted and H.B. No. 1618, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Sakamoto, Slom).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1575 (H.B. No. 1721, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1575 was adopted and H.B. No. 1721, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELIGIBILITY FOR PAYMENT PROGRAMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

H.B. No. 979, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 979, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I do not smoke. I do not use tobacco products. I do not think that they are healthful or beneficial in any way, but I will speak against any and all tax increases this session, and particularly when our state and other governments try to use the tax system to try to change social policy. We would have been better off trying to change our own policies within our limits of government.

"The other possibility is that people feel that we can continue to tax one particular industry or activity with abandon and disregard of what happens. If we tax at a rate that is too much and we lose that particular revenue source, then we're going to be looking to our residents to be taxing in other areas in general excise tax in food and clothing and so forth.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson also rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, will be voting 'no.'

"And as stated, I don't smoke and haven't for many, many years. However, it is a tax. I said before that the federal government subsidizes the tobacco industry and just this morning on the news it said that there are numerous states who have millions and millions of dollars from retirement systems and others in stocks within the cigarette industry. So I think that's being a little ridiculous to keep saying that we want to tax the very people and then we buy their stocks. We turn around, we subsidized them with federal dollars and then we say that what we're trying to do is stop smoking for our children and others. For this reason, I'll be voting 'no' because it is an additional tax and it's not going to help anyone.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 979, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIGARETTES AND TOBACCO TAX," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Anderson, Slom, Solomon).

H.B. No. 1648, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, H.B. No. 1648, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REMITTANCES TO THE DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1582 (H.B. No. 351, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1582 was adopted and H.B. No. 351, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Kawamoto rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, coming from God's country with its six ethnic groups, many of which receive financial assistance from this Project Hope, I rise with reservations and wonder what will happen to these ethnic groups without the Project Graduation.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1584 was adopted and H.B. No. 1656, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1587 (H.B. No. 1188, H.D. 1, S.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1587 be adopted and H.B. No. 1188, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I don't think we have to appropriate any state funds whatsoever to have a crime symposium. All we have to do is walk down Waikiki or go to any of the shopping centers and we get all the education we need.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson then added:

"Mr. President, I had reservations in committee and would you please put the words of the former speaker into the Journal as though they were my own."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1587 was adopted and H.B. No. 1188, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A SYMPOSIUM ON CRIME IN HAWAII," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Chumbley moved that H.B. No. 113, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Slom spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to vote 'aye' with reservations on this bill.

"I notice that we keep expanding the listing of controlled substances, and particularly in Hawaii with our culture with those people that practice herbal medicine -- native Hawaiians, Chinese and others. I think what we're doing is putting an unfair burden on them with this definition. I think we should all be against hard drug use and I think we should be very clear on what we're defining. So I have reservations.

"Thank you."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Mr. President, I want to make it clear to our colleagues that the Judiciary Committee did reject -- it did reject -- the Department of Public Safety Narcotics Division recommendation to include ephedra and ephedrin, which is the Ma Huang natural herb. That is not included in this measure in any way whatsoever.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 113, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Bunda rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak with reservations on this measure.

"Mr. President, on February 28, 1997 the Hawaii Supreme Court issued the decision in Konno v. County of Hawaii. This decision was handed down at a time when we have many other pressing matters before us to resolve. The Courts, once again, have chosen to legislate rather than to interpret the law. Once again, such a decision puts a strain on all of us because, if left unresolved, it divides us here in the Legislature, as well as in our communities. At the time it was issued, few of us understood the ramifications of this decision. We have all since heard urgent pleas for help in testimonies describing the devastating effects it will have on the lives of our citizens and on the efficient operation of state and county governments. At the urging of the mayors of all four counties, together with the input from the administration, from the construction industry, social service agencies and private citizens, your Committee on Government Operations and Housing amended H.B. No. 1686 to address this issue directly and affirmatively. Your Committee proposed certain remedies for the far-reaching impact of the Konno decision. I believe the courts took too broad an approach in resolving the landfill issue. This decision would now force state and county governments to maintain, in perpetuity, jobs which were traditionally and customarily held by civil servants. Such a decision cannot be allowed to go unanswered or ignored by this Legislature.

"While we are mindful of the need to protect the integrity of our civil service laws, we simply cannot afford government to expand. We cannot and should not ignore public sentiment against further expansion of government.

"I urge you, my colleagues, to carefully consider your actions today on H.B. No. 1798. This bill calling for a moratorium has really no teeth.

"It avoids the question this Legislature is being pressed to answer. According to this bill 'the moratorium will be in effect for one year to afford all parties an opportunity to review whether existing statutes are adequate or inadequate to cover public contracts which may violate chapters 6 and 77, HRS.' Mr. President, this Legislature must resolve this issue for the good of the public and not put it off for another year. During this Session, the Legislature is being asked to consider many forms of privatization to reduce the cost of government.

"The House is considering privatizing prisons. And this body, led by you, Mr. President, is considering privatizing the convention center operations. If this is the desire of the Legislature, we must then resolve the problems raised by the Konno decision now or all of this discussion is really meaningless!

"Furthermore, Mr. President, it is my belief that this issue has major budgetary considerations which, if we do not address will make our budget projections really worthless! If private services are no longer allowed and more civil servants must be hired, then we must re-examine the possible impact it will have on the proposed Senate budget.

"Mr. President, we must act to restore the ability of government to make cost effective decisions -- an option the government had prior to Konno. When deciding issues or cases, according to Chief Justice Ronald Moon in his State of the Judiciary Address to the Legislature, he said, 'judges often apply... statutory law to new facts and circumstances.' Justice Moon admits that the courts do not intend or did not intend to usurp the Legislative function and if the courts stray beyond Judicial interpretation of the law, then 'the Legislature has the ability to cure the trespass.'

"Mr. President, this body has the authority as well as the responsibility to address this jurisdictional question now! The counties have pleaded for help. They have asked this Legislature to do the right thing - for the right reasons - right now! Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator M. Ige rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak in support of this measure.

"Mr. President, back in March the Mayor of Maui was in my office expressing the grave concerns over the Konno decision and how it would adversely impact the citizens of Maui. As a result of our discussions, the Committee on Government Operations and Housing worked with the counties to develop language that would address their concerns. Unfortunately, by focussing on counties' concerns the concerns of other affected parties were not fully understood or realized.

"Seeking to devise a bill that would address additional concerns, language was circulated for discussion purposes. Because of the lack of time, we were not able to find language that would provide the counties with the flexibility that they desired, while addressing the legitimate concerns of the parties that were affected. As a result, the measure before us proposes a one-year moratorium, hoping that this would give us the time between now and the end of session to find language that would accomplish what needs to be done today without creating any unintended problems. Our goal is simple -- to draft a thoughtful, well-considered bill that we can all be very proud of.

"Mr. President, I am confident that during the days remaining, we will have the courage to find the balanced statutory language necessary to address the concerns of all parties involved. Our citizens of this state, I urge you and my colleagues to please support this measure.

"Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to speak against the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to the measure.

"In its present form, the bill attempts to deal with the Hawaii Supreme Court's ruling in Konno v. County of Hawaii by providing a one-year moratorium. The previous speaker asked, well, maybe we'll work it out in the next few weeks -- maybe, but the bill doesn't say that.

"Mr. President, I'm an engineer. I believe in thorough reviews. Minor details to some can be essential to me. Now, Mr. President, if a building is falling down I don't say, well let's wait one year to study it. If something's wrong, it needs an immediate response because it's the right thing to do and because I have business sense and I know that my liability will increase every day that something is not done.

"Mr. President, can we really afford to chance increased liability and legal exposure for our state and our counties? An overwhelming number of testifiers have been mentioned, including the county mayors, their corporation counsels, council members, state and county department heads. Even the state judiciary said, in effect, the building is falling down.

"We have asked for a bill to allow them to continue operating under the status quo and protect them from liability. This bill does not do that. We have stated that changing from the existing private contracts to providing the same level of service with civil servants will cost them three times as much. Many examples, three times as much, Mr. President. That's what the testimony stated.

"There are no more dollars to allocate. We all know that. So this bill give us two choices -- risk increased liability by continuing to operate in the same way or simply suspend services because we cannot afford the higher costs. So the court, in rendering a decision, called for legislative action. How can we in good conscience answer, 'Oh, okay, please wait one year while we study the problem.' Mr. President, we need a solution immediately.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1610 was adopted and H.B. No. 1798, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC EMPLOYEES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 3 (Anderson, Sakamoto, Slom). Excused, 1 (Levin).

H.B. No. 1799, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1799, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"As I mentioned earlier, there's been a conscious effort during this legislative session to take monies from pre-existing special funds and divert them into general funds and leaving less money in the original fund and creating situations where we're going to be calling for tax increases. This is particularly true in the Department of Transportation highway funds, which this bill seeks to do.

"In addition to that, what it also does is provide that the rental car or rental vehicle and tour vehicle tax that I mentioned earlier is going to be increased. The tax will be increased, but it's an undetermined amount. That, too, would go into the general fund.

"So, for these and other reasons, Mr. President, I oppose this bill. Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto also rose in opposition and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise in opposition to this bill.

"In the hopes that this body can see its way clear to take care of some of the flaws, Mr. President. The flaw, to me, is that by taking monies that are currently in special and revolving funds and putting them into the general fund, we're breaking promises to our constituents. Some of these funds were willingly supported because the contributors believed that it would help them either individually or collectively. Others were mandated by the state for specific impacts or goals.

"For example, the employment training fund which we dealt with earlier in H.B. No. 1706, we acknowledged that the $8 million balance was sufficient. That was a mandated fund to go to good cause and for much of small business, as was mentioned earlier, contributors questioned it, questioned it. Now, although additional contributions are put on moratorium, what will happen to the $8 million, Mr. President? This bill seemingly sweeps this $8 million into the general fund. This and other funds, not just this one. So, small businesses, big businesses, alike, have contributed. All the good thoughts about training, etc. washed into the general fund -- in essence, another tax.

"So many times we save things, Mr. President. You know, when your boy was growing up you probably asked him to save his allowance, put it in the bank account. Many of you have children and talk about savings, and then when dad needs to pay the mortgage, does he sweep these savings into his pocket, Mr. President? I think we need to look at who saved, for what, and really be very careful about what we sweep into the general fund.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kawamoto added his remarks as follows:

"Mr. President, I just want to rise and say that I have some concerns but I want to go 'aye.' I don't want to go 'reservations' because I'd like to be on the conference committee on this thing here.

"This is the Department of Transportation and where I am, so I'm going to go 'aye,' but I do have some concerns."

Senator Fernandes Salling rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill and I will just address my comments to the highway fund.

"I invite Senator Slom to visit with me so that I can explain to him the intent of this Senate which has been not just this year alone but in prior years which was to prevent a large increase in the gas tax. The measure that you have within the bill, addressing the transfers, would do just that. We are trying and we have been trying for previous years and the intent was always to prevent a large increase in the gas tax. And that is why the Ways and Means Committee recommended that we do as we proposed in this raid bill, which is to avoid that large increase which we felt we would see if we adopted the administration's proposal.

"So, if you will note, yes we did, in fact, transfer the surcharge to the general fund, but we also took back from the general fund and replaced these funds into the highway fund the GET on gasoline sales, which is something that traditionally belonged in the highway fund. And with that we have indeed gained an additional $9 million in the highway fund.

"We also, in this bill, in order to protect the highway fund from being raided by the administration, provided that in order for the administration to transfer any funds from the highway fund to the general fund that they would have to insure that there was a 150 percent guarantee for these projects for three years, not one year as is presently stated. The whole purpose was, from the Senate's point of view not just this year, but to protect this position from prior years, was to prevent anyone from increasing the gas tax to a much higher level than what is normally seen, what is normally done over the course of the years.

"And I encourage you again to meet with me. I'll be more than happy to explain this. It is complicated, I know, and therefore you might be a little confused about it, so feel free, Senator Slom, to call me anytime and I will be more than happy to brief you on the history of this."

Senator Slom then inquired:

"Mr. President, would the co-chair of the Ways and Means Committee yield to a question?"

The Chair posed the question and Senator Fernandes Salling having answered in the affirmative, Senator Slom continued:

"Thank you, Co-Chair, for the education and certainly it would be my great pleasure at anytime to come up and see you sometime and to learn from you."

Senator Fernandes Salling remarked:

"I'm right down the way from your office, Senator."

Senator Slom continued:

"You're right. It was a little confusing because were you saying we're going to get a tax increase from fuel taxes or we are not going to get a fuel tax increase?"

Senator Fernandes Salling replied:

"Traditionally we have always had to increase the fuel tax, but by a modest amount and this was to take care of the needs of the maintenance and for the projects that we have to fund. But, what we were trying to prevent and have always stood firm in this body was to increase the fuel to allow for an increase in the fuel tax to an unconscionable amount, which is what we feared would happen with these proposals that were being proposed by the administration and therefore we proposed in the bill to do those three things, which we hope will plug the loophole, so to speak, and not allow for that kind of unconscionable increase in the gas tax."

Senator Slom then responded:

"I thank my distinguished colleague from the beautiful Garden Island for that explanation and it makes me feel much better, Mr. President, because now I know the whole idea is to cook us like frogs, slowly in the water, raising the gas tax a little bit at a time, rather than at one time so that we might jump out and save ourselves.

"Thank you very much, Senator." (Laughter.)

Senator Anderson rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll speak in favor of the bill.

"When I see some of the concerns of my fellow colleagues is that when we impose a tax on any one segment of our community, such as we did with the car rental people, we told them that they were using the roads and the highways, they had to pay a surcharge of $2 per. It ran into the millions of dollars, and then they took that out of a special fund saying that it was no longer needed there. What we were looking at, hopefully, I think, even though I'm speaking on behalf of the bill, is that we would have cut those taxes from that group, and not say, 'Well, yes, you can take it into the general fund, even though you don't need it from the car rental people we do need your taxes.' And I think that's what my colleagues are very upset about and I don't quite blame them. But like my fellow colleague over here, I'd certainly like to be on that committee.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1799, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC FUNDS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Sakamoto, Slom).

H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

By unanimous consent, action on H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, was deferred to the end of the calendar.

H.B. No. 472, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, H.B. No. 472, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE BONDS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At 1:56 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 2:00 o'clock p.m.

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

THIRD READING

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1602 (H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2):

Senator Fukunaga moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1602 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Solomon and carried.

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senators Solomon and Iwase offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 1 - See EXHIBIT "A") to H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2.

Senator Solomon then moved that Floor Amendment No. 1 be withdrawn, seconded by Senator Iwase and carried.

Senators Fukunaga and Fernandes Salling then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 2 - See EXHIBIT "B") to H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2.

Senator Fukunaga then moved that Floor Amendment No. 2 be withdrawn, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling and carried.

At this time, Senator McCartney requested a waiver of Rule 53 of the Rules of the Senate for the purpose of offering an amendment to H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2.

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senators Fukunaga and Solomon then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 3 - See EXHIBIT "C") to H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2.

Senator Fukunaga moved that the amendment be adopted, seconded by Senator Solomon.

Senator Fukunaga rose to speak on the Floor Amendment as follows:

"Mr. President, Floor Amendment No. 3, which has been distributed to the members, deletes Sections 1, 2 and 3 of the existing bill so that there is no longer any reference to the University of Hawaii Lab School.

"The amendment also requests that the auditor review the recommendations of the University of Hawaii Curriculum Research and Development Group and report and submit its findings 20 days prior to the convening of the 1998 Legislature."

Senator Anderson then rose and said:

"Mr. President, after listening to that and getting a description and the whole bit on the audit, may I ask for a short recess so that I can have the Sergeant-at-Arms pass out some information that I think is beneficial to some of my statements and I think it will be very helpful to each and every Senator. May I ask for that request, please."

At 2:03 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 2:07 o'clock p.m.

"Mr. President, to go on, I finally found out what the amendments were and it's just that the auditor shall conduct a review and recommendations of the curriculum, and I can buy that. What I wanted to pass out so that everybody makes sure that we did have the attorney general's decision as to the constitutionality of the original bill, plus that because of the statements that have been going back and forth as to the makeup of the school, I wanted to pass that out so that you'd see the family backgrounds on the students, the ethnic backgrounds on the students, and the learning performances. And I thought that was interesting because for the last few days we've been debating that, Mr. President.

"So, with the new language I have no problem at all. But I would hope that if we do anything over the next few years, that we, (1) look at all schools; and (2) that we make sure that there is a study done and that the AG comes out with a look at the Constitution to see what we have to do.

"So those are my recommendations as things that I've looked at and I do thank the two chairs and the other people that were involved in this. I think that everybody can live with the amendments, and I thank you very much.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Iwase rose to support the Floor Amendment as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of the amendment.

"Mr. President, the best point of this amendment is that Sections 1, 2 and 3 of the bill are deleted, and for those who are here in the audience, those are the sections dealing with the Lab School and the issue of tuition and they will no longer be part of the bill. They will not be considered by this body, and it will not pass at all this session. There will be no tuition imposition on the University Lab School by any bill before us this session.

"As we move forward, Mr. President, and look at this bill or issue, I would hope that we would pause and consider an attorney general opinion which is 33 years old -- in fact, so old, but valid, that the writer's daughter is now the director of the City's Department of Land Utilization (Mr. Takayama). But the opinion still stands. It is 33 years old and it concluded that the University of Hawaii Lab School is a public school and that an imposition of tuition or tuition fees is inconsistent with public policy -- that we provide free public education to all of our children -- and that it is illegal. It is a position which, again, is valid. We must adhere to that and hopefully matters like this will not come before us again.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Slom also rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise in support of the amendment.

"What it does is validate what we did in this body several weeks ago when we honored and recognized the University Lab School for its outstanding achievements both in Hawaii and nationally and internationally. And I think it's a real credit to the parents, the teachers and the students that have been here participating in the democratic process and have been so patient for so long. So let's pass this bill.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Solomon rose to support the Floor Amendment and stated:

"Mr. President, I, too, speak in support of Floor Amendment No. 3, and I would like to thank my colleague, who is the co-chairwoman of the Ways and Means Committee, who worked out a compromise which I feel is a very positive one on this issue.

"Thank you very much."

Senator McCartney, also supporting the motion, then said:

"Mr. President, I, too, would like to follow the remarks of the previous speaker and thank the chairs of the Ways and Means Committee, and also thank the Senator from Mililani for making the good suggestions on Amendment No. 3.

"Also, Mr. President, I'd like to have inserted into the Journal the Executive Summary, not the entire report but the Executive Summary of the Curriculum Research and Development Group (CRDG) Task Force report that was done, dated April 1, and it's about six pages.

"And also for the record, just to let our colleagues know that their work has gone on and on and on, and maybe sometimes they're guilty of not tooting their own horn, but what we're looking at is in the area of science programs. There's over 80,000 books in our schools right now. In Hawaiian Studies, there are over 10,000 books. In other programs like music, there's 80,000 books there, and there's a lot of good work that has gone there.

"I think today's discussion was very good for the students and for all of us. The intention is how do we preserve and protect the Lab School, and that's what the authors and everybody have been talking about. I think we've come up with a good compromise and we need to work on making sure that the Laboratory School stays a viable entity of this university and the State of Hawaii. I think a lot of good is done there and today's discussion and debate and democracy, I think, was very healthy for this body and also for the students who were here.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator McCartney's request to insert the Executive Summary of the Curriculum Research and Development Group (CRDG) Task Force report is identified as ATTACHMENT "I" to the Journal of this day.

Senator Baker then added:

"Mr. President, I don't know whether, in Senator Anderson's remarks, he asked for his handouts to be included into the Journal, but I would make that request because I believe it adds an additional historical perspective and some much needed information for those who will come after us and want to understand our actions today. Thus, these documents, including the prevailing attorney general's opinion, will be a part of the official record of the Senate."

The Chair so ordered and identified Senator Anderson's handout as ATTACHMENT "II" to the Journal of this day.

The motion to adopt the amendment was put by the Chair and carried.

By unanimous consent, H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, April 10, 1997.

H.B. No. 1640, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1640, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Sakamoto rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this bill but feel that I need to express a few concerns.

"Mr. President, the Committee on Ways and Means should be really commended on this bill as well, in forwarding a lot of good things to stimulate the economy. And I kind of would like to use an analogy -- you go to the market, sometimes you buy a bunch of grapes (like I saw in Senator Solomon's office this morning), but in the bunch of grapes, sometimes you need to pick out the brown ones or the smashed ones and in this parcel of grapes, good grapes, there is a lot of small business caucus recommendations -- things that really will help business -- like related to decreasing the pyramiding on general excise tax for lease property transactions, deferring general excise taxes for some certain businesses, other general excise tax deductions for certain wholesale services. However, in that bunch of good grapes I'm a little disappointed on the one that gives substantial investment exemptions for new capital and it only provides exemptions for newly created businesses.

"And with this it would ignore Hawaii's existing businesses in this section. And these businesses have really toughed it out these last seven years -- down-sizing, delaying growth, trying to hang on to their employees. And if we're going to encourage capital formation we should look at companies and businesses that have really struggled through these hard times. And they should have an equal footing with these new businesses for benefits from any new sources of capital.

"That's my remarks. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Iwase then said:

"Mr. President, with the exception of the grapes analogy, I wanted to incorporate the comments of the previous speaker with my reservation vote. Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling rose and spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I won't talk about the grapes, but I do want to state with respect to what Senator Sakamoto raised, what he considers problems with respect to not, perhaps, addressing the needs of the businesses in Hawaii.

"In developing the tax package for the Ways and Means Committee and moving forward to the House, we needed to provide some balance and I believe that we did try to accommodate with respect to tax relief for our struggling businesses, as you will see in the next four bills. So with that in mind, your committee felt strongly that we also should, on balance, provide for a measure to attract new businesses to Hawaii. And I might add that the administration was also interested in providing some sort of GET exemption for the film industry. So, one could look at that and think that perhaps we are in concert with respect to that measure. But we have looked at how we can provide relief for our struggling businesses -- the businesses that exist here in Hawaii -- and as I said before, to balance it with an incentive such as this.

"I would like to, because members felt that we should discuss the tax package which is key to also developing and down-sizing the budget. That's one other part of what we were trying to do. Down-sizing government was to provide for tax relief and incentives for our businesses to stimulate the economy. Let me read and highlight some of the measures that are being provided in this bill and that is, of course, many of you know the pyramiding to try to address that with respect to not just commercial leases, but wholesale services. This has been a problem, as many of you know, and I think that we're trying to move in different directions. It's going to take a while for us to see some relief, but we have to begin now. That is one that we are proposing for the House to consider. The second, of course, is the new businesses that was mentioned. The third is incorporating in the bill the moratorium for those islands that have experienced high unemployment and this is the deferral of the GET. And of course, I want to point out that it's optional. There is no revenue loss; it's a wash.

"So those are the measures that are incorporated in this bill as part of our Senate tax package that goes hand in hand with what we are trying to accomplish with respect to the Senate's state budget. Thank you."

Senator Slom then added:

"Mr. President, reservations, please."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1640, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL EXCISE TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

H.B. No. 1650, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1650, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I spoke against the bill, the Senate version, a month ago. It gives an income tax credit for the installation of residential burglar alarms. It does not say what the credit is going to be and only picks this one particular item. Again, if we're looking at fairness and equity for our taxpayers, we need to reduce our tax burden in one fell swoop rather than looking at individual piece meal credits.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson then added:

"Will you please note a reservation for me on that."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1650, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDITS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

H.B. No. 1031, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1031, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Fernandes Salling rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, again this is part of the Senate Ways and Means tax package.

"Essentially what we are providing for is a tax credit exemption for computer software companies. The tax revenue loss to the state is nominal, a modest amount.

"What we have also incorporated in this bill, which I think is important to highlight, is in addition to trying to help our struggling businesses and to turn our economy around, we felt it was important to also provide some tax relief for our residents. Therefore we have allowed for, in this bill, a decrease in the standard deduction and personal exemption. We've also allowed for conforming with the income tax automatic extension treatment in the IRS ... I'm sorry, I apologize ... that was not part of our measure to help the economy, but the next one is, which is to increase the standard deduction and that is to provide relief for our residents.

"And also dealing with the intermediary services, again with respect to the pyramiding, to try to address it in such a way that will hopefully turn the direction of the state in such a manner that we will pursue more structural changes that is very badly needed with respect to improving and helping our economy."

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, unfortunately I have to rise to speak against this bill, as well.

"While it has many good parts to it, it also has a couple of parts that we cannot accept. One, for example, provides a GE tax exemption for certain software companies -- not all software companies, but certain companies -- and those software companies in Hawaii will not benefit from that. Secondly, it does impose a 4 percent use tax on services and a 1/2 percent tax on intermediary services.

"We only wish that all of the good positive things would have found its way into a single bill, including the standard deduction. But because of these negatives, I am forced to vote 'no.'

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1031, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

H.B. No. 1320, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 1320, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Fernandes Salling spoke in favor of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, the final bill that deals with our Senate tax package incorporates three different bills. One is to address the concern that was raised earlier with respect to increasing the deduction from 50 to 80 percent for business meals and entertainment expenses because we realized that we have many, many restaurants and small business restaurants going under. Part of the RIP, rest in peace, obituaries.

"The second measure deals with providing GE tax exemptions for, I think what many of you have heard in the last few days, the maintenance and servicing of aircraft by Continental who wishes to establish here in Hawaii.

"And the third ... now I'm sure that Senator Slom will probably have to, to be consistent, rise and oppose this bill. The third measure is dealing with a tax and that tax is to look at the TAT, more popularly known as the transient accommodations tax. We would like to pursue it further, take it to the House, discuss whether or not this is a measure that both bodies can support.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, not to disappoint the kind co-chair, I rise to be consistent.

"I am forced once again to vote 'no' on this bill precisely for what the co-chair said because it does propose a new tax on time share ownership which has constitutional and other implications. And I would like to volunteer in the future, Mr. President. I'd be very happy to have the co-chair 'come up and see me sometime' and we can discuss how we can put all good items in one single bill and vote on that together. (Laughter.)

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Fernandes Salling responded:

"Mr. President, in response, if you will allow me, to the previous speaker, I didn't realize that you were on a higher floor than we were." (Laughter.)

Senator Iwase then added:

"Well, I think sometimes he thinks he is. (More laughter.)

"Mr. President, a ruling on a conflict. My law firm represents a time-share industry participant."

The Chair ruled that Senator Iwase was not in conflict.

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I don't have a law firm that's in any conflict, but I did have some concerns about the last part of it, so I do have some reservations. I brought it out in committee. I think the first two items are great. I'm very happy that we're trying to help get a new airline here. I think it's great that we are doing something for the small business people in the restaurant business, but it bothers me that they were losing $2,800,000 (so the tax director said) and so they turned around and put another tax on time-sharing. And that kind of bothered me when they did that with that particular bill. So those are my reservations.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1320, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Fernandes Salling rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the state budget. It's been a long morning and afternoon for me, so, bear with me, members.

"I'd like to begin, Mr. President, by going back to when we first began our work in Ways and Means and that was in November, if I recall. And of course, it was obvious to us at that point that our economy was suffering and we needed to do something to stimulate it, to provide jobs, to help look at how we could help the struggling businesses. And so, we began by considering measures that would address and hopefully help in those areas. We met with the Tax Review Commission and a lot of good suggestions were proposed. We then, in December, many of them we incorporated into bills and introduced them when session began.

"In December we got the first Council of Revenue projections which, of course, meant a loss of $50 million, and then it followed up in ... at that point, I should say, having to deal with that, we looked at, of course, down-sizing government which was, I might add, always also a priority with the committee in addition to the tax measures to help our economy. So we began our work with the review of the executive budget, keeping in mind that perhaps in March when the Council of Revenues would again release their projections, that we would see something as we did experience, which was a $260 million loss in revenues.

"When this occurred, having experienced both the loss in December and in March, your committee, acting on your instructions, requested of the departments their recommendations for an 8 percent cut, knowing that was in the neighborhood of what we would need to realize in order to balance the budget. I'd like to say that the departments were very cooperative and they did appear before us within three days, in fact, and identified areas where they could take the 8 percent cut. Your committee, at that point, reviewed not once, not twice, four times their recommendations, and then we went further to verify their figures not once, not twice, but many times with a lot of information being shared from the departments and being reviewed and verified by our competent staff, who are sitting up there in the audience. On behalf of the co-chairs, we do want to say you did an outstanding job and we're very lucky, by the way, to also have some experienced people on board.

"But anyway, we had to assess their recommendations very carefully to determine whether or not we could take their recommended cuts. And in some cases we did not. In addition to looking at and verifying their figures, the committee felt that we needed to establish policies so that we could look at and assess the recommended cuts across the board to take out as much subjectivity from this process as we could. And with that, we did meet with and brief our members, with respect to these policy decisions, essentially, that we would take all vacant positions, except for teachers and shortage categories, that we would cut in areas that did not affect direct services, that we would look to the bureaucracy at the top to see if there was any fat and to cut there. We did this in most cases at the top using a formula so we could again say that we were not looking at personalities, of course, but doing it by formula and taking most of the subjectivity out of this decision-making -- being objective.

"We determined that with respect to services that again were direct, such as purchase of services, that we would recommend and provide and agree that those purchase of services that were recommended for approval by the departments would be part of our budget.

"These were some of the policy decisions that the committee arrived at in order for us to do as fair an assessment of the recommended cuts by the departments, as suggested by the departments.

"With that in mind we then ... I would just like to highlight the subject matter areas and the decisions that were made. Within economic development, that area, we provided for, many of you know, the $10 million emergency funding for tourism promotion. We had a lot of discussion about HVCB's accountability and therefore we also stated in the budget that in order for them to be accountable for those funds, which is absolutely necessary in the short run to help our economy while we are waiting for the economic package to kick in, which will take a while and for some of the recommended CIP projects to also show some relief in our economy, we determined that we needed to cut out the second year funding. That was the only way that we could hold them accountable.

"Moving on to transportation, this was one area where, unlike other departments, it is totally funded by user fees and it was the only department that could provide for jobs in our economy. Therefore, we restored positions throughout the state that had been cut in the last two years by the administration -- needed positions. And in addition to that, we also provided for about $4 million for make-work programs on islands that were identified as experiencing high unemployment. Again I must stress that this is an area that is funded by user fees and not monies out of the general fund. And, in fact, this is transportation. Indeed, if one were to say, do we have a rainy day fund? this is it, in my opinion ... this department. But with the cooperation of the department, we were able to provide for jobs in this area.

"Social Services. Of course I know this has been of major concern to most people, taking care of those in need. Essentially, how we approached it is very logical, cut and dry, if you may. The cuts were made based on actual caseload, not projections. We found that the department's projections were far off from the actual caseload. The caseload is being determined, not 96 or 95, but they need to keep up-to-date and so we had a pretty good idea of what the current caseload was, so we determined the cuts on that basis.

"We also realized that, again, there are people in need and although the federal government did cut out funding for legal immigrants, we felt that we should provide those funds for the first year, allowing for the legal immigrants to have additional time to try to become naturalized. And we have programs in place to help them do this. So in a sense it is providing for the first year, encouraging them to do this, to become naturalized.

There's always an opportunity for us to come back next year to see what the situation is.

"Education was also a major area, and as many of you know, statements were made and we held firm on this that there are no 'sacred cows' and education was one area that we needed to look at. The Department of Education came in and did recommend cuts to arrive at their 8 percent, which is what we requested of all departments. We reviewed those recommendations and found in most cases that we could not accept their cuts. Many of them, as perhaps you know already from what you've read in the press, dealt with cutting out kindergartens. In a sense they're doing it as a half-day rather than a whole-day kindergarten, and more importantly, cutting programs from K through 3, which is critical for these children. These are the formative years of a child and this is where more emphasis should be placed rather than cutting, so we did not agree with that.

"I think one of the major, major areas of concern that the department recommended cutting was what they identified as their supplementary cuts. This amounted to about $24 million, and if you review those (and we've provided members a list of that), we're looking at cutting out Special Olympics, athletics, the whole range of needed and extracurricular that balances out with the instructional, and we did not accept those cuts. And I'd like to make that clear because I keep hearing that we did cut, for example, Special Olympics. We did not accept those cuts. So we had to look elsewhere in order to meet or try to meet the 8 percent. So, one of the policy decisions was to cut the unemployment insurance and work comp and to say to the Department of Education and also the University of Hawaii that they had to be accountable and to find internal savings to deal with those claims. That was one of the policy decisions that the committee did decide upon.

"We did not cut the request for the Felix funding. However, we did say, because we were running into problems identifying the numbers, that the second year funding would be cut in order for the committee to get a handle on, with the department, the number of kids that needed to be provided for with respect to services under Felix.

"Higher Education. Essentially, the highlight was, again as I mentioned, the work comp and unemployment. We took those funds and we told the University, with respect to the claims, to find those monies within internal savings. I should mention that in Education we took the vacancies across the board, but, again, we did not take vacancies in shortage categories and also teacher vacancies. And in this area, especially, we found that there is a lot of bureaucratic 'fat higher levels' so to speak and so those positions were identified again by formula. And what we did was we reallocated those positions down to the school level.

"The emphasis here in education was to insure that we took care of the school instruction. That was the priority for the department in this area.

"Public Safety. Part of what we felt that needed to be addressed was the fact that we needed to provide for more bed space and if we were going to say that we were adopting (I always have a mental block against this) the 'truth-in-sentencing,' which many people felt strongly that those that were convicted should remain in prison for the length of their terms with no exceptions, we needed to address the problem of how to accommodate them. So rather than looking at temporary expansion of facilities, what we did was we provided for more money, $5 million in the first year, $10 million in 1998-1999 to send 600 more inmates to Texas, which by the way, they enjoy Texas. The reports have come back. They really like it there because there's a lot of programs, unlike here. That will allow us time to look at finding, agreeing on an area that we can build a 1500 bed complex, medium security complex, which is needed to meet the consent decree and accommodate all of these prisoners.

"CIP, of course, goes hand in hand with our economic development package. CIP is very important for our construction industry, for economy, for providing jobs. If you would bear with me, I think that I should read what we identified as the major points for the CIP projects.

"Our intention was 'to cautiously proceed in authorizing select types of projects, recognizing the delicate balance between providing needed construction work and preserving our bond rating, which is so vital to future financing.' As many of you know, we did drop two levels with one bond rating company.

"Your Committee fully recognizes the need to stimulate the local economy through an influx of capital improvement projects.... However, due to the recent lowering of the State's bond rating by the major bond raters and the State's proposal to issue $500 million of bonds per year for the next two years,' it created a problem and concern for the committee. 'Therefore your Committee, reflecting a more fiscally prudent approach, authorized a total of $550 million in projects over the biennium' rather than accepting $1 billion proposed by the administration. 'This will require' (the $550 million) 'only $350 million of bonds to be issued in the first year and only $200 million issued in the second year ....' And I must point out that the state traditionally has issued $200 million every year, so we wanted to bring it back to that level because that was also a concern of the bond companies that perhaps the state would not come back down to that level from the $500 million that the administration was proposing.

"We looked at the projects and again identified, set up a criteria for funding the capital improvement projects. And the criteria that we identified were: construction projects that were ready to proceed immediately; the needed health and safety projects; and, again, repair and renovation projects that extend the useful life of the facility. Here we're talking about using GO bonds to take care of the priority, which was our school repairs, and by allowing for language that would extend the useful life of the facility. We felt that we could convert the GO bonds for use in the repair and maintenance of our schools. We looked at infrastructure and water development projects, sewer projects. We looked at the smaller projects that local contractors could compete for, and also projects that had matching funds -- all in the effort of trying to get the biggest 'bang for our buck.'

"The new projects will add to future operating costs. New projects that would have added to future operating costs, such as the staffing and the current expenses, were deferred. Many projects that were requested in the second year of the biennium were also deferred, but they should be reconsidered during the next legislative session, at which time the economic impact of the newly appropriated projects as well as the financial condition of the state can be better assessed.

"In effect, by being carefully selective as to the types of projects authorized, your committee strongly believes that the initiation of these projects would have the same economic impact as the state's initial $1 billion request.

"The committee provided an additional $35 million for public school repair and renovation projects. We also believe that these projects will be designed and constructed much more expeditiously than a typically new construction project. It is the committee's intention that we afford more local design consultants and smaller contractors a greater opportunity to compete for these projects. We also provided design funds for various projects that can be constructed in fiscal year 1999 through an additional bond authorization after a year's review of the construction program and its effects on the economy.

"Let me conclude by saying that in addition ... well, I should add before I conclude, with respect to the CIP and how we arrived at the policy with CIP, that in addition to the GO bonds,

I would like to point out that we also have on the books authorized projects, special funded projects, totalling in the first fiscal biennium, $480 million; in the second fiscal biennium, $486 million. These essentially are projects within the Department of Transportation. So members, when you think of the reduction that we took, down-sizing the CIP to 350, keep in mind that we have this kind of money on the books, these kinds of appropriations in projects that we should all get behind the Department of Transportation to release, to start construction. When we add that up, that's a huge amount of CIP. In fact it exceeds the administration's fiscal year's totals.

"In conclusion, we did not need to raise taxes which is something the Senate felt strongly about, and the committee preserved the current level of funding for the needed services by focussing its efforts on restructuring departments from the top down, while preserving resources that provide direct services to the people. The committee also believes that this budget, coupled with the proposed tax relief package and the economic development measures that I mentioned earlier when we were going over the bills, will drive the economy forward. The committee has answered the challenge to make government leaner and more efficient.

"Through collaborative efforts on the part of the Senate members, your Ways and Means Committee, Mr. President, submits this balanced budget to you."

Senator Tam also rose in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of the budget bill, in particular in terms of the education budget.

"First of all, I'd like to thank the Ways and Means staff and the co-chairs for their hard work and long hours. Being a former staff member of Ways and Means years ago, I know it's like 20 hours a day or more and I appreciate it. After this month the WAM staff can go to sleep. Thank you very much.

"Mr. President and fellow colleagues, the education budget is in good shape this year, for the following reasons: (I have eleven reasons)

1. The repair and maintenance money for the Department of Education, $35 million in operating funds, and $17 million in capital improvement project money in repairs and maintenance.
2. We eliminated the executive fat or waste in Department of Education management.
3. The clerical positions in Department of Education upper management was moved down to the schools to directly service our students.
4. We retained the Department of Education's basic classroom needs for our public school students.
5. We added more dollars for textbooks and supplies.
6. We funded full-time school registrars in every intermediate public school.
7. We also funded all the public high schools' athletic health specialist positions on a full-time basis.
8. We moved all the dollars of vacant positions within the Department of Education.
9. We retained the classroom supplemental programs such as the after-school improvement program.
10. We retained full-day kindergartens and, as also mentioned by the previous speaker, the Department of Education did recommend half-day kindergartens which we refused. And in fact, it would violate one of the main goals of education, one of the first goals of education for the State of Hawaii, that is to prepare our young ones for the first grade.

11. We retained the A+ program. We add that the Department of Education recommended the elimination of the program itself.

"In closing, Mr. President, I asked the House of Representatives to adopt the Senate's position in funding our state's education system at the classroom level and for our students. The education budget has improvements in terms of more dollars that directly impact our public school students.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson added his remarks on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, very briefly I did sign the committee report with reservations, and my reservations are very ... I'll do it very fast.

"In yesterday's Star-Bulletin, Hawaii ranks near the bottom in how we spend highway funds. And we're cutting back, supposedly, and being more prudent in government, and yet what we're looking at is restoring 234 various jobs. In the paper it states that in cost-effectiveness and funding state highways, we rank very, very low, one of the lowest. In fact, Hawaii ranked among the worst five in overall performance for several years. We were the 47th in 1995, the latest year of the study. The ranking was an improvement over 1993 and at that time we ranked No. 50. That's quite a ways down.

"Also, another thing that worries me a little is the cost of our administration in the Department of Transportation. Right now it's costing, according to the news media, 14.3 percent of total expenditures. That bothers me, Mr. President. And I'm not sure where these 234 various jobs are. I wish they were in some areas that ... if they were going out to the private sector, because the highway fund is made up of user fee generated revenues. And I would hope that would have gone to help small businesses and businesses that could use the employees in that type of business. And that's why I have reservations.

"I thank you so very much, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto then added his comments as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to commend the Ways and Means staff and committee, as well, for all their good things in there and the good grapes, not all the grapes, but on whole, very good. Kind of opposing to what you did with some of the wine that was stored up that was for special purpose. You took it to your wine cellar, but so be that.

"But in response to Senator Anderson, thank you for those concerns, and our Transportation Committee can keep a watchful eye and hope that, to good end, the previous transportation chair is familiar with some of the issues and we can be mindful of your concerns and hopefully not have highway robbery, but really do good for our citizens, Mr. Anderson. Thank you for the comments."

Senator Anderson rose again and said:

"I didn't want to omit thanking the two chairs and all of their staff for working so very hard. I do appreciate them. They have been available whenever we have needed them -- all of them. And I do thank them very, very much."

Senator Fukunaga rose to support the measure as follows:

"One final set of comments, Mr. President.

"What we wanted to do was focus on partnership and collaboration this time around. I think the things that you see before you are the products of working together. It is instructive to note that by working together with the subject matter chairs, the members of Ways and Means, and you, Mr. President, and your staff, and our very hard working Ways and Means staff, we were able to trim the governor's original request by over $250 million. We therefore go forward, reinforcing the notion that we can do well, we can preserve services at the community level, and we can make government work better for all our people.

"Thank you."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

RE-REFERRAL OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Chair re-referred the following Senate concurrent resolution that was offered:

Senate Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
------------------------------------	--------------

No. 246	Jointly to the Committee on Human Resources and the Committee on Ways and Means
---------	---

Senator Kanno, for the Committee on Human Resources, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing on S.R. No. 80 and S.R. No. 74, and the Chair granted the waiver.

At 3:10 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 3:11 o'clock p.m.

Senator Fukunaga, for the Committee on Ways and Means, also requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing on S.C.R. No. 142, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I'm a little concerned about my colleague, Senator Kawamoto, about that $6,000. I just want to make sure that it's not being transferred from the fuel tax fund into the Food Bank fund.

"And I did want to say I wanted to add my thanks too, to all the hard work of my colleagues and to their staff and committees, but in this era of collaboration I am a little disappointed, Mr. President, because a month ago when we did this, everybody said that because I spoke so long we were going to meet in the Majority caucus room and indulge ourselves in ice cream. Now obviously, I did not speak long enough and did not vote 'no' on enough bills today to warrant further collaboration and ice cream, so I'll try to do better next time, Mr. President.

"Thank you." (Laughter.)

The Chair then commented:

"The Chair would like to thank all the members for their participation this morning and this afternoon. Thank you very much to you and your staff for all the hard work."

ADJOURNMENT

At 3:15 o'clock p.m., on motion by Senator Ihara, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 4:00 o'clock p.m., Thursday, April 10, 1997.

"PART [II] I

SECTION [4.] 1. The legislature finds that only through community and parent involvement in our schools can students realize their full potential and contribute to a better Hawaii. The school/community-based management initiative facilitates this end and the legislature will continue to support this program.

The legislature also finds that educators at the school level, while given the responsibility for the success of our children, are hindered in the management of their school's resources. To many, the budget remains a mystery, and the schools are unable to effectively use the fiscal tools provided.

This part will provide schools a firm voice in the management of their resources. The legislature has confidence in the educators who work closely with our children, and this part is a demonstration of this confidence.

"~~[[§37-34.5]]~~ Department of education; allotment and expenditure plan; updates. The department of education shall submit an annual allotment and expenditure plan to the governor for each fiscal year[.] that specifically identifies the amount the department will allocate for school lump sum funding. The governor may require the department of education to submit an update of the expenditure plan based on changing economic conditions."

SECTION [7.] 4. Section 302A-1004, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

- [(2)] (3) Summaries of school improvement plans;
- [(3)] (4) Summary descriptions of the demographic makeup of the schools, with indications of the range of these conditions among schools within Hawaii;
- [(4)] (5) Comparisons of conditions affecting Hawaii's schools with the conditions of schools in other states; and
- [(5)] (6) Other such assessments as may be deemed appropriate by the board."

SECTION [8.] 5. Over the years, the department of education has been mandated to provide a number of programmatic functions in the schools. While the mandates often endure, the funding for such mandates does not increase with enrollment, and per school shares of funding often fall to levels which render the original intent moot. In addition to the loss of original intent, the mandates often run counter to the philosophy that the school level is often the best arbiter of how educational resources are used.

Currently there are over $100,000,000 in funds in the school-based budgeting program (EDN 100) that carry strict provisions for expenditure. When funds for personnel are excluded, this amount exceeds the amount over which schools can currently exercise lump sum flexibility.

So that more resources may become available for direct control by the schools, the auditor, with the assistance of the department, shall conduct a review of all programs within the school-based budgeting program, and shall submit recommendations to the legislature as to which programs should be eliminated or maintained. The funds from programs eliminated shall be allocated to the level IV program of the school-based budgeting program entitled "regular instruction" for use by the schools.

During the remaining 1997-1999 biennium, all funds allocated to schools participating in the school-based budgeting program that have accompanying expenditure provisions shall be subject to review by the auditor.

The auditor shall initiate its review as of July 1, 1997, and complete its review of all programs no later than December 30, 1999.

PART [III] II

SECTION [9.] 6. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION [10.] 7. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 1997."

TO: H.B. No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 3

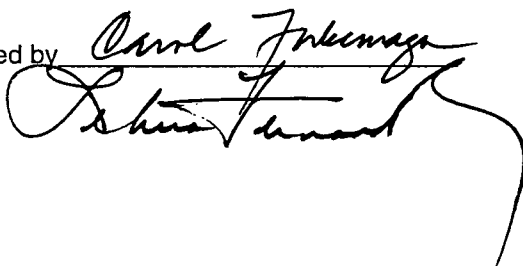

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 1433, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, is amended as follows:

1. By deleting Sections 1, 2, and 3:

["SECTION 1. Chapter 304, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to part I to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

3. By renumbering the remaining sections as follows:

resources. To many, the budget remains a mystery, and the schools are unable to effectively use the fiscal tools provided.

SECTION [5.] 3. Chapter 302A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"S302A- School-by-school budgeting. (a) For the purposes of this section, "school-by-school budgeting" means a process in which schools are given maximum flexibility in the preparation and execution of their budget.

(b) Participation in school-by-school budgeting shall be voluntary and initially limited to schools operating under either school/community-based management or student-centered school systems. Beginning with the budget preparation for the 1999-2000 school year, the eligible schools participating in school-by-school budgeting shall prepare their school's budget with the assistance of the department. The schools shall be allowed full discretion over the funds designated as school lump sum. The schools shall also be informed of the degree of discretion

(c) The department, through either the state or district offices, shall provide appropriate training and technical assistance to schools in budget preparation and execution, and ensure that school budgets are in compliance with federal and state law, and the statewide education policy as set forth by the board.

(d) The department shall provide reports from the state and district offices to the schools. Reports relevant to budget preparation shall be provided no later than three weeks prior to the required date for a school's budget submission. Reports relevant to budget execution shall be provided no later than two months subsequent to the start of each new fiscal year. Reports for budget preparation shall include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Statewide legislative, executive, and board actions on the education budget;
- (2) A summary of guidelines provided by the governor in the preparation of the budget;
- (3) Guidelines established by the department and the board for school budget preparation;

  - (3) Funds carried over from the prior fiscal year by allocation type and means of financing;
  - (4) Areas of budget shortfall and surplus; and
  - (5) Other information that provides an understanding of school level budget actions.

provide adequate notification to administrators, teachers, parents, and other school level personnel that these reports are available for review."

SECTION [6.] 4. Section 37-34.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"~~[[§37-34.5]]~~ Department of education; allotment and expenditure plan; updates. The department of education shall submit an annual allotment and expenditure plan to the governor for each fiscal year[.] that specifically identifies the amount the department will allocate for school lump sum funding. The governor may require the department of education to submit an update of the expenditure plan based on changing economic conditions."

SECTION [7.] 5. Section 302A-1004, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) The department shall submit to the legislature and to the governor, at least twenty days prior to the convening of each regular legislative session, an educational status report that includes but is not limited to the following:

models as may be developed by the commission on performance standards and adopted by the board;

(2) Summaries of school-by-school lump sum allotments and department allocated sums with accompanying expenditure requirements;

[(2)] (3) Summaries of school improvement plans;

[(3)] (4) Summary descriptions of the demographic makeup of the schools, with indications of the range of these conditions among schools within Hawaii;

[(4)] (5) Comparisons of conditions affecting Hawaii's schools with the conditions of schools in other states; and

[(5)] (6) Other such assessments as may be deemed appropriate by the board."

SECTION [8.] 6. Over the years, the department of education has been mandated to provide a number of programmatic functions in the schools. While the mandates often endure, the funding for such mandates does not increase with enrollment, and per school shares of funding often fall to levels which render the original intent moot. In addition to the loss of original intent, the mandates often run counter to the philosophy that the school level is often the best arbiter of how educational resources are used.

Currently there are over $100,000,000 in funds in the school-based budgeting program (EDN 100) that carry strict provisions for expenditure. When funds for personnel are excluded, this amount exceeds the amount over which schools can currently exercise lump sum flexibility.

So that more resources may become available for direct control by the schools, the auditor, with the assistance of the department, shall conduct a review of all programs within the school-based budgeting program, and shall submit recommendations to the legislature as to which programs should be eliminated or maintained. The funds from programs eliminated shall be allocated to the level IV program of the school-based budgeting program entitled "regular instruction" for use by the schools.

During the remaining 1997-1999 biennium, all funds allocated to schools participating in the school-based budgeting program that have accompanying expenditure provisions shall be subject to review by the auditor.

The auditor shall initiate its review as of July 1, 1997, and complete its review of all programs no later than December 30, 1999.

REPORT OF THE CURRICULUM RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT GROUP (CRDG)
TASK FORCE
Executive Summary

Section I: Charge and Methodology of the Task Force

The Task Force to investigate the Curriculum Research & Development Group (CRDG) of the University of Hawai'i, Manoa was formed on September 5, 1996, by the Senior Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate Division, Dean Smith and charged to provide answers to six questions.

1. Is the early and continuing programmatic approach set by the initiating Legislative Report ("Stiles Report") of 1966 still appropriate?
2. Is a University-controlled and supported Laboratory School necessary?
3. If so, are there reasonable alternatives to the present form and source of support to the Laboratory School?
4. Does the CRDG generate the optimal amount of non-general fund income from grants, contracts, sales of materials and services, and gifts?
5. Does the CRDG maintain the optimal balance of services to Hawaiian, Pacific Island, U.S. mainland, and foreign schools, given the financial and professional conditions for providing service?
6. Do the CRDG and the Laboratory School provide optimum (necessary?) service to the Department of Education?

The Task Force formed separate subcommittees to investigate each of these questions. It interviewed individuals who once exercised administrative judgment over the CRDG, worked with it, were students or parents of students, or who had publicly taken strong positions concerning the CRDG or the Laboratory School. Data and documents relevant to the inquiry were collected and analyzed. Appendices A1 and A 2 list Task Force members and those interviewed.

The Task Force met weekly from September 25, through December 13, 1997, and six times during 1997. In addition to local members, Charles Read, Dean of the School of Education, University of Wisconsin, Madison, participated providing an external perspective of the process. Dean Read worked with the Task Force during the week of January 27, 1997, and contributed substantively to this final report.

Section II: History and Mission Statements.

The Laboratory School was originally part of the Territorial Normal and Training School. Act 213 of the 1931 Legislature transferred the school to the University and established the Teachers College, now known as the College of Education. As a result of the legislatively mandated report, Preparation of Teachers and Other Educational Personnel in Hawai'i (January 17, 1966), the so-called "Stiles Report," the University Laboratory School was converted from teacher training to a center for curriculum research, development, and experimentation. Over a two-year period the teacher training-mission was phased out, and the Laboratory School was integrated into the newly created Curriculum Research & Development Group (CRDG).

The primary mission of the CRDG is to function as an organized research unit of the University of Hawai'i to create, evaluate, disseminate, and support quality educational programs for all students and teachers, preschool through grade 12, and to participate in the instruction and research programs of the College of Education and other branches of the University.

The CRDG fulfills the University's land grant mission of preparing a highly educated citizenry, bringing University expertise to bear on societal problems and providing service programs through outreach.

Section III: Context and Environment of CRDG Operations

The CRDG operates within a complex environment of educational influences that affect the choices it makes in curriculum development. These include changes in local needs, shifting levels of governmental support, and market developments. The task of the CRDG has been to respond within its mission to these influences.

Historically these contextual influences are

- Changes in national models, trends, and financial inducements of the federal government.
- The steady State funding for curriculum development when federal moneys waned in the 1970s.
- Shifts in national curriculum priorities from disciplinary knowledge in the 1960s, to "back to basics," health, and environmental studies in the 1970s, to mathematics, science, and technology in the 1980s, to the current emphasis on congressionally mandated standards or state equivalents to be operational in the year 2000.
- The Federal Department of Education's new emphasis in the 1970s on in-service training of teachers focused on specific curricular programs.
- The National Science Foundation's initiative in the mid-1980s for development of inquiry curricula .
- The impact of computers and telecommunication on curriculum.
- The evolution of the textbook industry into a "big market" phenomenon.
- The continued needs of Hawai'i for curricular specificity.
- Changing relationships with the College of Education (COE) and Department of Education (DOE).
- Development of markets for CRDG materials on the U.S. mainland, in the Pacific region, and international sites outside the Pacific.

Section IIIA: Response to Task Force Questions

1. The appropriateness of the Stiles Report: Review of the activities of the CRDG and the Laboratory School and the curricular environment impinging on them indicates that the assumptions of the Stiles Report remain valid. This is seen when considering the role of the Laboratory School as the beta- test site for CRDG-developed materials, the need for unique Hawai'i specific curricular materials, and the requirement to stay current with changing national curricular demands.

2. and 3. The continued necessity for a University-controlled and supported Laboratory School. The Task Force review concluded that curriculum development for grades K–12 requires relatively permanent teams of committed individuals with various academic back grounds and time and resources to develop new tested curriculum materials. The Laboratory School is an appropriate site for these activities. No alternative explored by the Task Force appeared superior or equal to the present structure.
4. Non-general fund income from grants, contracts, sales of materials, and gifts. The Task Force review found that externally generated funds provided 55 percent of the total CRDG funding, thereby meeting the University-developed performance criteria for organized research units. A complete audit of CRDG funding and expenditures was performed. Income to the CRDG contributes substantially to the State of Hawai'i in terms of providing employment and purchase of services and material.
5. Service to Hawaiian, Pacific Island, U.S. mainland, and foreign schools. The Task Force concluded that the CRDG service in all four areas is extensive and that no imbalance exists with respect to this blend of service. The CRDG curricula are developed from the root base of Hawai'i 's needs for materials and teacher in-service. In a sense, service outside Hawai'i is a derived, rather than a primary driving force.
6. Service to the Department of Education. The Task Force review found that the service to the DOE was extensive, but that perceptions concerning that service differed widely, depending on the familiarity with the work. The Task Force concluded that the services provided were adequate, but that improvements could be made in how the CRDG and the DOE interact with respect to the development of curriculum activities and their dissemination within the DOE.

Section III B: New Issues

As a result of Task Force interviews, nine new issues emerged that we chose to address.

1. The CRDG is often criticized for failing to perform activities that lie outside its mission. This is especially true in discussion of the current teacher shortage that is both a national and a State problem. The Task Force finding is that the CRDG performs acceptably within its mission —responsibility for in-service training.
2. Are Professional Development Schools a viable alternative to the CRDG?
Professional Development Schools (PDS) have been proposed by some within the DOE and COE as alternatives to the activities performed by the CRDG. In the Task Force view, these are complementary activities, not competitive activities. PDS are designed essentially to enrich pre-service teacher training; they are not focused on curriculum development, a task that would remain even if PDS were developed in the state.
3. Do the demographic characteristics of the Laboratory School fail to serve the State need for representativeness? The claim is sometimes made that the Laboratory School population may be representative of the state as a whole, but this fails to meet State needs because it does not replicate the demographic characteristics of any particular school or district. In the Task Force view this critique misses the point of the demographic representative needs for a curriculum testing site. The more relevant point is that all groups present in any single DOE school are represented within the population of the Laboratory School and are sampled in the testing process.

4. The CRDG as an emergent educational industry. The CRDG curriculum development efforts are contributing to emergent educational industry in Hawai'i. This is consistent with the aspirations of State leaders to increase commercial production and marketing of intellectual products.
5. The CRDG and the Laboratory School are an example of a multi-cultural school environment that works. The Task Force found strong support in its interviews and examination of school practices to suggest that its successes might be a model for other schools. Model features are a clear philosophy of learning; the existence of a positive learning environment; the existence of student-based cooperative, active, and exploratory learning; high standards of performance; enrichment through the breadth and depth of instruction; and the existence of socially and culturally heterogeneous learning groups.
6. The CRDG and Laboratory School can serve as a center for educational technology transfer to other schools. After the model of the UH Innovation Center, the CRDG and the Laboratory School can be viewed as a State resource for the development and diffusion of new educational technology. Existing successes within DOE can be built upon and expanded.
7. Communication Issues. Communication between the CRDG and Laboratory School and the COE and DOE can be improved. In the Task Force view communication between the CRDG and COE can be improved with a commitment by the leadership to make it so. Similarly, communication between CRDG and DOE can be enhanced by a revitalization of the Teacher Education Coordinating Committee. Joint research appointments between the CRDG, COE, and DOE would also serve to improve communication between the three units.
8. The CRDG specialization. The CRDG has better resources available for the development of curriculum than can be the case with DOE classroom teachers. Curriculum development within CRDG is a dedicated activity that provides it with appropriate personnel, time, resources, testing, and follow-through. These elements cannot be expected to be added on to the burdens of the existing DOE classroom teacher. The CRDG can become better integrated within the processes by which the varied curriculum needs of the DOE are developed and expressed.
9. Administrative placement of the CRDG. Until 1996 CRDG served two administrative masters, the Dean of the College of Education and the Vice President for Research. In July 1996 the CRDG was placed administratively solely within the structure for organized research, overseen by the Senior Vice President for Research. Recently, suggestions have emerged, including a legislative proposal, that the Laboratory School be relocated to the COE. It is the Task Force view that the burden of the CRDG is in organized research in the field of curriculum design, development, and testing and that the Laboratory School is an integral part of that research. Administration of the CRDG and the Laboratory School should remain with the Vice President for Research. The interests of the College of Education in gaining cooperation in matters of in-service training of teachers in curriculum can be met through a variety of cooperative arrangements.

III C: Common Perceptions

The Task Force discovered in many of its interviews a set of common perceptions about the CRDG and the Laboratory School—mainly about the Laboratory School—that color and give context to how these units are perceived in the community at large. The very persuasiveness of these perceptions led the Task Force to list the more prominent ones and provide responses dictated by its analysis. Further, many of these views figure in the repeated recommendations of some public figures that the Laboratory School be closed—this makes their address central to the mission of the Task Force.

1. The Laboratory School is an elitist institution. It seeks to take only those students who will do well. Admissions are biased toward producing this elitist student body. Further, admissions are open to manipulation, especially by those who occupy political office.

The Task Force conducted a full review of admissions procedures for the Laboratory School and found a contrary case. Admission to the school is dependent first on recommendation by a public school principal. Applicants are then screened into predetermined categories to provide necessary representativeness. Those who pass this level of screening are then interviewed and a final choice made. The Task Force concludes that the process promotes a level of egalitarian choice rather than elitism. It is also the Task Force view that much of this continued perception of elitism is because admission to the Laboratory School results in only a few students out of the many applicants being selected. Disappointment on the part of those not selected may—deliberately or nondeliberately—engender and keep alive a certain amount of misconception about the School's admission processes.

2. The CRDG does little for local students. Most of its research and scholarly energies are directed at developing curricula for those outside Hawai'i. Evidence cited in support of this view is the sale of the CRDG textbooks abroad, including in Russia.

The Task Force found in its analysis that while much the CRDG curriculum product is sold either on the U.S. mainland or abroad, these marketed products were derived from materials first designed for and used to meet Hawai'i's curricular needs.

3. The CRDG is unconcerned with the mission of the Department of Education and gives little attention to its curricular needs. Cooperation between the CRDG and the DOE is poor. The Laboratory School makes an insufficient contribution to the considerable problems of the DOE, including remedying the teacher shortage, providing instruction to ethnically impacted schools, and improving test scores.

There is some truth to a pattern of mixed communication between the CRDG and DOE, but Task Force found in interviews that the pattern of DOE appreciation of CRDG efforts is a) cyclical, b) differs by leadership level within the department, and c) is more constant at the operational levels of the department. Some critique arises from a misperception of CRDG's mission.

4. The primary mission of the CRDG and the Laboratory School is teacher training.

This view of the Laboratory School persists, but is simply misunderstood. It has not been true since action was taken in response to the Stiles Report.

5. The Laboratory School is a public school in name alone. It is in reality a private school in disguise.

This characterization probably arises from the view that the Laboratory School is exempt from most administrative requirements of the DOE and from the School's ability to select its student body. Both are true. However, private schools normally select student bodies to maximize various attributes within their student populations whereas the Laboratory School selects to be representative of the overall public school student population. This misperception may be compounded by the participation of the University Laboratory School in an athletic conference made up of private schools. Unlike private schools, the Laboratory School is prohibited from charging tuition.

6. The Laboratory School is excessively expensive and thus a drain on the tax payers of Hawai'i. Were the school abolished, much needed moneys could be returned to the DOE and University.

An analysis of the CRDG and Laboratory School income and expenditures indicates that the Laboratory School has a smaller per-student cost than the public schools at large. Closing the Laboratory School would provide no budgetary windfall to either the State or the University as these students would need to be supported within the overall public school population, and the legislative appropriation to the University for the Laboratory School would be terminated.

7. The functions of the CRDG and the Laboratory School are easily interchangeable with the Department of Education.

Task Force analysis of CRDG functions fails to support this view. Neither Professional Development Schools nor individual classroom teacher initiative can supplant the beta-testing function of the Laboratory School in the curriculum design process.

Section IV: Recommendation

The Task force offers six recommendations.

- One, improve coordination between the College of Education, Department of Education, and CRDG by
- working together to model successful CRDG practices and implement them in the schools.

- reviving the Teacher Education Coordinating Committee.
- linking the COE, DOE and CRDG by using contemporary technology.
- developing an inventory of all CRDG and DOE joint curriculum activity.
- continuing to explore new ways for the CRDG to test curriculum within the public schools.
- intensifying efforts to support teacher training of the CRDG curricula in use.
- increasing CRDG and COE cooperative activity.

Two, broaden the consultative mechanisms between the CRDG and the wider public to ensure the latter voice in CRDG research priorities.

Three, continue expansion of the CRDG's Asia-Pacific focus.

Four, broaden the role of the Laboratory School as a demonstration facility and enhance its training capacity.

Five, the CRDG should remain administratively placed within the University's structure of organized research units.

Six, initiate a concentrated effort by the University and the CRDG to publicize the CRDG activity within the community.

Seven, the CRDG should continually re-evaluate its internal structure to accommodate changing funding dynamics, challenges of "curriculum as technology," and personnel changes.

Section V: Conclusion

The Task Force reaches five broad conclusions:

One, we find no basis for either of two proposals: abolish the Laboratory School or separate it from the CRDG. None of our evidence support these proposals.

Two, the CRDG's future and value to Hawai'i is tied to changes occurring within the textbook industry. Mergers in that industry are marginalizing Hawai'i as a commercial textbook market. As far as Hawai'i's particular needs are concerned, the market will not provide. Restricting or abolishing the CRDG would deny Hawai'i access to curricular materials designed to meet its particular needs.

Three, Task Force interviews suggest that the growing number of SCBM schools will increase State requirements for locally based curriculum materials.

Four, the CRDG and Laboratory School provide a strong net economic benefit to the University and the State. To restrict their successes would impose the costs of foregoing these benefits.

Five, the CRDG fulfills its mission and that mission is appropriate for its activity. The State has a continued need for the activities of the CRDG and its Laboratory School.

Enrollment Data

The University Laboratory School (ULS) is part of the Curriculum Research & Development Group (CRDG) at the University of Hawai'i - Manoa. The lab school is crucial to CRDG's work because it is where the staff test and refine new courses and materials until they are ready for Hawai'i's public schools.

To accomplish this work effectively, the lab school maintains a mixed body of regular students who reflect the statewide school population in family financial status, ethnicity, and learning performance.

In the 1996-97 school year, the student body of 360 breaks down like this:

Family financial status	Percentage
Welfare, unemployed, low-income	5

STATE OF HAWAII
DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
HONOLULU, HAWAII 96813

December 4, 1964

Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton
President
University of Hawaii
1809 University Avenue
Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

Dear Dr. Hamilton:

By letter dated September 15, 1964, you requested our opinion relative to the laboratory school operated by the University of Hawaii. Your questions and our answers thereto are set forth below.

I. WHAT IS THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE LABORATORY SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII?

The University laboratory school is operated by the College of Education of the University of Hawaii and is under the jurisdiction and management of the Board of Regents of the University.

It was originally established and operated by the Territorial Normal and Training Schools, which was under the control of the Territorial Department of Public Instruction. The main function of the Territorial Normal and Training Schools was to train future teachers. In order to accomplish this goal, it established a laboratory school to provide students in training an opportunity to learn teaching skills and methods in an actual classroom situation.

In 1931 by Act 213<sup>1/</sup> the legislature transferred the Territorial Normal and Training Schools to the University of Hawaii and established Teachers College, now known as the College of Education. Since then, the University has continued to operate and manage the laboratory school for the same purpose, and additional purposes, such as that of serving as an experimental base for the development of teaching techniques and methods and to conduct research related to education.

We are of the opinion that the Board of Regents of the University may legally continue to operate the University laboratory school under the broad powers granted it by the State Constitution and statutes,<sup>2/</sup> provided the school is actually operated as a "laboratory school."

II. CAN THE BOARD OF REGENTS CHARGE TUITION OR OTHER SIMILAR FEES TO PUPILS ATTENDING THE UNIVERSITY LABORATORY SCHOOL?

We reply in the negative, for the reason that the legislature has not delegated to the Board of Regents the power to assess fees which are in the nature of a tax and for the further reason that charging of such tuition and fees militates against the public policy of the State of free public education.

"Teachers college. The teachers college formerly known as the territorial normal and training school, shall be affiliated with the university and shall be under the jurisdiction and management of the university board of regents. . . ."

<sup>2/</sup> State Constitution, Article IX, section 5; sections 44-3 and 44-1.5(f), R.L.H. 1955, as amended.

The taxing power is an attribute of sovereignty and is reserved to the State. (84 C.J.S., Taxation, § 4.) Unless this power has been duly delegated by law, a political subdivision or other agency of government, other than the State, does not have this power. (84 C.J.S., Taxation, §8; 9 McQuillin, Municipal Corporations, § 26.22; see also Art. VII, § 1 of the State Constitution.)

A careful search of our laws fails to reveal any delegation of the taxing power, expressly or impliedly, to the Board of Regents. Consequently, we are of the opinion that the Board does not have such power. (See 9 McQuillin, id., §§ 26.15 and 26.29.)

A tax has been defined as:

"...An enforced contribution, exacted pursuant to legislative authority, in the exercise of the taxing power, the contribution being of a proportionate character, payable in money, and imposed, levied, and collected for the purpose of raising revenue, to be used for public or governmental purposes, and not as payment for some special privilege granted or services rendered." (84 C.J.S., Taxation, p. 32.)

For example, in State v. Gorman, 49 N.W. 158, the Minnesota Supreme Court held that moneys collected by imposing a fee for the settlement of an estate and deposited in the county treasury as part of the general county funds were public in nature and that such exactions were in the nature of taxes.

In the instant situation, we understand that all the moneys collected as "tuition fees" are deposited in the State treasury as general fund realizations to be used for general State uses. We further understand that the legislature has already appropriated moneys for the operation of the University laboratory school. Thus it seems that the "tuition fee" exacted is in the nature of a revenue-raising measure rather than a fee for services rendered, and is therefore in legal effect a tax.

The fact that the exaction is called a "tuition fee" is not material, if it is in fact a tax:

As stated in 84 C.J.S., Taxation, § 34:

"The question of whether a particular contribution, charge, or burden is to be regarded as a tax depends upon its real nature, and if it is in its nature a tax, it is not material that it may be called by a different name. . . ." (Emphasis added.)

To summarize, we are of the opinion that the tuition fee being assessed against students attending the University laboratory school is in the nature of a tax.<sup>3/</sup> The Board of Regents, not having been delegated the power to tax, is without authority to impose such fee.

In addition to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the imposition of tuition and other fees at the University laboratory school militates against the public policy of the State of free public education.<sup>4/</sup>

Initially, we must determine whether the University laboratory school is a "private" or "public" school, In 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 606-609, a "private school" is defined as a school which is ordinarily owned and controlled by private persons or by private eleemosynary corporations. A "public school" is defined as a school which is established and maintained at public expense, primarily from moneys raised by general taxation and one that is controlled and administered by the State or its agencies.

3/ Section 44-3, R.L.H. 1955, as amended, expressly authorizes the Board of Regents to charge a tuition fee of not more than $170 a year per student. We think that this section relates only to collegiate students attending the University and not to school-age children attending the laboratory school.

4/ In Bd. of Education of City of Lawrence v. Dick, 78 Pac. 812 (Kan. 1904), the court stated that the words "common schools" are synonymous with "public schools," and as used in the State Constitution, are interpreted to mean "free schools" so that the act of the legislature in attempting to authorize the board of education to collect tuition fees from resident pupils was void.

The University laboratory school is under the control and management of the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii, a State agency. The land upon which the school is situated is public land which is held in fee by the University. Its buildings were constructed with public moneys and, since its inception, the legislature has continuously appropriated public moneys for the operation of the school.

We are of the opinion therefore, that the University laboratory school is a public school.

The public policy of the State against assessment of fees may be gleaned from actions of the legislature.

For example, in section 40-5, Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, the legislature has specifically provided that:

"... No equipment, material or other fees shall be assessed against any pupil in any elementary school."

While it may be stated that said section would apply only to public schools under the control of the Department of Education, the legislative policy of free public schooling is clear.

With respect to imposition of fees above the elementary grades, we note that in 1937, by Act 201, the legislature repealed the statute authorizing an annual fee of $10 for students in the ninth through twelfth grades. Since then no such fees have been imposed against public school pupils. This grant and subsequent withdrawal of authority to levy and collect fees evince a legislative intent to operate a public school system free of charges.

And finally, the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention relating to public education in general indicate general acceptance of the concept of free public education.<sup>5/</sup>

For the above-stated reasons we are of the opinion that such fees may not be charged.

"HEEN: I'd like to find out from the chairman of the committee what was intended when the word 'free' was inserted in this sentence -- free of charge or free from non-sectarian control, or what?"

"WIST: I'd like to answer that. I think that this word 'free' has become sort of standardized; we're thinking of free public schooling for our children. However, since public education has been extending itself into the level of adulthood, perhaps we could resolve this, and I would like to suggest that we do resolve it by stating 'The State shall provide for the establishment, support and control of a state-wide system of public schools free from sectarian control.'

"HEEN: Well, of course, that means free from that type of control, but still it's not free of charge so far as the children are concerned.

"WIST: ... What I was trying to say was that the concept of education free of charge to children at the support of taxpayers has become so universally accepted that I don't think it's a serious issue.

"HEEN: Then if the language is changed as suggested by the last speaker, then it would leave it up to the legislature to say whether or not there shall be any charge, tuition fees, book fees, and so forth and so on. Is that correct?"

"WIST: That is correct. It's inconceivable to me, however, that a legislature would ever charge tuition of children attending public school." (Emphasis added.)

III. MAY THE BOARD OF REGENTS ESTABLISH REASONABLE REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO THE ADMISSION OF PUPILS TO THE UNIVERSITY LABORATORY SCHOOL?

We answer this question in the affirmative.

"The right or privilege to attend the public school is subject to such regulations, in respect of the admission and classification of pupils, as the legislature may from time to time see fit to make.

"The classification and assignment of pupils are purely administrative functions inherent in local school authorities, and the board or officers having control and supervision of the admission of pupils as a general rule have a discretionary power to establish reasonable rules and regulations for their admission. . . ." 79 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 350. (Emphasis added.)

We have not found any statutory requirements relative to admission of pupils to our public schools, except the minimum and maximum age requirements<sup>6/</sup> under the compulsory school attendance law and the anti-segregation provision in the State Constitution.<sup>7/</sup> Since the Board of Regents exercises control over the University laboratory school by virtue of the broad powers delegated to it,<sup>8/</sup> the Board has the power to establish admission regulations. These regulations, however, must be reasonable and non-discriminatory. (79 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 350.)

A review of the admission standards at the University laboratory school indicates that they are based on such factors as social and emotional maturity, mental maturity, physical maturity, ethnic distribution, sex ratio, socio-economic background and size of groups.

We understand that these standards are necessary in order to achieve more meaningful and useful results for research and laboratory purposes and that the application of such standards would create classes composed of students broadly representative of the population of the State, so that any new teaching methods or tests devised and applied successfully at the University laboratory school, could be more effectively used by public schools generally.

We are of the opinion that, if the foregoing standards are used in this limited context to achieve the stated purpose, we see no objection thereto.

IV. CAN THE BOARD OF REGENTS OPERATE A SCHOOL CAFETERIA AT THE UNIVERSITY LABORATORY SCHOOL?

We answer this question in the affirmative.

The Board of Regents has broad powers to exercise control over and manage the affairs of the University of Hawaii (Sections 44-1.5 and 44-3, R.L.H. 1955, as amended). It also has broad administrative powers which extend to all matters affecting the welfare of the University. (78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 906.)

In Gregg v. United States, 22 F.Supp. 802 (1938), the court held that it was within the authority of the school district to establish and operate cafeterias in its public high schools.

<sup>8/</sup> Section 44-3, R.L.H. 1955, as amended, provides that the Board of Regents shall have general management and control of the affairs of the University.

We are of the opinion that the operation of a school cafeteria is reasonably incident to the operation of the University laboratory school; therefore, although there is no law expressly authorizing it, we think that it is within the scope of the broad powers conferred upon the Board of Regents.

V. CAN THE BOARD OF REGENTS OPERATE A COMPULSORY SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM IN THE ELEMENTARY AND HIGH SCHOOL LEVELS AT THE UNIVERSITY LABORATORY SCHOOL?

We reply in the negative.

Although the Board of Regents is vested with broad, discretionary powers, its powers are not unlimited. Its actions must not be unreasonable or arbitrary. (79 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 350.)

We understand that the prime reason for instituting a compulsory school lunch program at the elementary and high school levels is to make the school cafeteria self-supporting financially. It has been reported that the school cafeteria has sustained a deficit over the years.

In State v. Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin, 11 N.W. 472 (1882), the court stated that the Board of Regents had no power, in the absence of legislative grant, and by mere usage, custom, convenience or necessity, growing out of a depleted treasury, to exact charges from those in attendance as students.

Similarly, the Board of Regents in the instant case cannot mandate students at the University elementary and high school levels to eat in the school cafeteria merely to make it self-supporting financially.

Furthermore, there has been no evidence to indicate that lunches brought by students from home are inadequate or unhealthful, or that the present system of permitting students the option of purchasing school lunches or bringing their own lunches, has in any way been detrimental to an effective school administration.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the evidence is not sufficient to warrant the institution of a compulsory school lunch program at the elementary and high school levels.

Very truly yours,

Senator Anderson rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, recently, there was a problem with a colleague -- and I don't want to mention any names -- but nothing happened. Had it been a minority, we would have brought it up on the floor. If it had been a majority member that got in trouble, we would have brought that up. What bothers me is that we have been receiving letters. I have not done anything; neither has anybody else. As far as I know, I've heard nothing. And I'd like to know that when we have people here at the Capitol, we insist on a particular type of decorum for everybody. We expected that from the Hawaiians. We expected it yesterday from the children when they came here. And I would hope that we write some type of policy or something within the Senate whereby we have to follow certain rules and regs and we know what's happening.

"So I do thank you for your time and if you would let me receive a letter, or the rest of us, as to what we're going to do, I'd appreciate that.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Bunda, Fernandes Salling).

Senator Sakamoto rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I'm extremely concerned that the House and Senate conferees have not yet come to an agreement on H.B. No. 117. And I know that many in Hawaii are likewise anxious. Our constituents are not asking us to decide this issue. They want and expect this body to give them a clean, clear, valid question that they can vote on.

"I am a member of this body today because my constituents or the constituents in my district were very disappointed at the actions, or inactions, of this body last year. During this election many of you expressed support for traditional marriage to your constituents. Now is the time to show that support. It is now the time to meet our commitment to those who elected us. The public does not perceive this to be a difficult issue. It is not a difficult task. It would not take five minutes on the street to find someone capable of writing a ballot question. Yet, this auspicious body, after more than four years of due diligence, cannot formulate acceptable language to allow the public to vote.

"Mr. President, fellow colleagues, the people of Hawaii have spoken. Their message is clear, and they will express their will by vote in the ballot booth next election. If a clean and clear choice on marriage is not on the ballot, they will express their disappointment and anger by vote. This is called government for the people, by the people, of the people.

"Is there anyone here who does not want to resolve this issue? I think not. Do we truly lack the capability? I think not. We can and need to act now, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon then said:

"Mr. President, I would like to stand in support of the remarks made by the previous speaker and I would like his words to be incorporated into the Journal as though they were my own.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Iwase rose and said:

"Mr. President, I would like the words of the Senator from Moanalua to be incorporated also. Thank you."

Senator M. Ige added:

"Mr. President, myself as well, please."

Senator Aki remarked:

"Mr. President, likewise for me."

Senator Baker then noted:

"Mr. President, I would note for all of my colleagues that we placed on your desks a list of the bills for agreement, the subject matter therefore, and the reason for agreeing. Additionally, all bills have been legal checked.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon then rose and said:

The Chair posed the question, and Senator Baker having answered in the affirmative, Senator Solomon inquired:

"I'd like to thank the chairmen very much for the information that they did present to us. But for the record, are these just mostly technical kinds of changes or are they substantive? I haven't had the opportunity to really look through every single bill that has been mentioned."

Senator Solomon rose on a point of information as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of information. I'd like to ask questions of our Majority Leaders.

"Mr. President, I'm very concerned, being that we will be moving into conferences and I was wondering as to whether or not the leadership has established some kind of policy on how conferees will be appointed for those committees. Mr. President, this is the first time that the Senate in a new reorganization has co-chairmen. The question that I have is that many of the bills have several referrals to two or three different subject matter committees. Another point, if the Majority Leaders could answer, is that many bills had House companions and when they came back to the Senate they were referred to different committees than the Senate companions were referred to. I'm hoping the Majority Leaders can enlighten us on this. I was very surprised that many of the bills that came out of the Finance Committee were bills that were merged together from more than one Senate bill and I was wondering how that would be handled. Also, Mr. President, as these bills were merged, were all committees notified? Also, was there written prior concurrence as far as our Rule 17 goes.

"With all of these questions, I'm hoping the Majority Leaders could enlighten me as to what will be our procedure as we move into our final days of the Legislature.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair interjected:

"I may be able to answer that for the Majority Leaders.

"I do have the responsibility of appointing conference committees and will be submitting the list of bills that are in disagreement with the House. And along with those particular bills will be a short instructional sheet accompanying the bills that are in disagreement. So you will be getting that very shortly."

Senator Solomon then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. If I may, Mr. President, since you have taken it upon yourself to answer these questions, if I may ask a question of you, Mr. President. (Chair: Sure.) Thank you.

"In the past, Mr. President, the Senate has always had an unwritten policy where different members, as long as they had voted free and clear on an issue, could request to be on the conference committee. Are we still adhering to that policy, or how are we going to be making those decisions?"

The President answered:

"Recommendations can be made by the chairs and I would take that into consideration in formulating the conference bills."

Senator Solomon continued to query:

"Mr. President, if I may. Now with our new reorganization I know that a lot of communication has to be done through memos. Do we as committee members have to write a memo of request to the chairmen of the respective committees, or do we work directly with your office or with the Majority Leaders?"

The Chair replied:

"There will be a standard form that we have been used to using. And so we'll have communication, a vote verbally in this particular matter."

Senator Solomon then said:

"Thank you very much."

Senator Iwase then rose and said:

"Mr. President, just following up on the question posed by the Senator from the Big Island.

"Is it the policy that if there are joint referrals or several referrals -- as in the past, the chairs of every committee were on the conference -- would that policy remain the same or would it be changed under the new arrangement?"

The President answered:

"We are looking at the subject matter in detail to see what purview in terms of the committee jurisdiction and looking at it in terms of members of the conference committee based on responsibility and subject matter of that particular bill."

Senator Iwase continued:

"If I recall, Mr. President, in the past if there were two committees, the chairs of the first and second committees were automatically members of the Conference Committee. Now, when we have two or three or four committees, which result in eight conferees, and if the Republicans are added and if they were on both committees or some of the committees, ten conferees -- are we adhering to the philosophy that we have adhered to in the past that the chairs of all subject matter committees on that bill will be members of the Conference Committee."

President Mizuguchi responded:

"We'll try to accommodate all of the chairs, but in some instances where there have been some changes, we may deviate from that policy."

Senator Iwase further inquired:

"And if the change did not include a prior written concurrence, how would that kind of decisions be made?"

The Chair answered:

"I think that will be done by communication with the chairs involved."

Senator Iwase asked: "That will be done shortly?"

The Chair responded: "Case by case. That's right."

Senator Iwase continued:

"We will have criteria presented to us so that we can review?"

The Chair replied: "There will be some criteria. Yes."

Senator Iwase then said: "Thank you."

At 12:08 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:10 o'clock p.m.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I've been reading and hearing that the governor has proposed that public employees have a 35-hour work week. Mr. President, I believe that this is probably in line with what many of us have said for years -- that we have too many public employees. We've been over-staffed. Conversely, why stop at 35 hours per week? Why not reduce it to 30 hours a week or 25?"

"I'm just wondering if maybe we could transmit to the governor a provision so that we could reduce the average work week for the small businesswoman or businessman owner to 85 hours per week, Mr. President.

"Thank you very much."

"Thank you. Mr. President, distinguished Senators, members of the gallery, it's certainly an honor for me to be here. I've had the great fortune of spending 20 of my last 22 years in the Pacific -- all the way from Japan to California. As you all know, we're about -- if not already there -- to invoke on the Pacific Century and you will play a great deal to do with that and the economic success that we all have will depend a lot on what happens in the Pacific throughout the next 20 years. With that, we in the military hopefully will do our part to maintain the stability in this region so economics can thrive. And we try to do that very well.

"The people we have in the military today are the finest there is throughout all of society. We also like to be very good citizens and we like to share with you and to work to solve the mutual issues that we have to deal with. So, speaking on behalf of sailors and marines, men and women, officer and enlisted, of the United States Naval Service, I'm very happy to be here. We're happy to be in Hawaii and we're happy to work with you to deal with the issues in this very important area of the world.

ORDER OF THE DAY

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The Chair re-referred the following House concurrent resolutions that were received:

House Concurrent Resolution	Referred to:
No. 49	Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Information Technology
No. 165	Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Information Technology

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATION

Misc. Com. No. 4, from Celia C.U. Suzuki, Administrative Assistant to the Governor, dated April 8, 1997, transmitting a letter correcting the terms of expiration for the nominations to the Kaneohe Bay Regional Council (Gov. Msg. Nos. 153 and 269), was read by the Clerk and was placed on file. In accordance with Act 317, Section 7, SLH 1993, the terms of the nominations listed under Gov. Msg. Nos. 153 and 269 shall expire on July 1, 1998.

Senator Baker rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, some weeks ago this body unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon the governor of our state to withdraw a nomination before your Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Information Technology because the nomination was impaired. Recently, Mr. President, you and I received a communication relative to that and I would like permission to read it into the Journal.

'Dear Senators Mizuguchi and Baker:

I will not be able to nominate a successor for Greg Pai prior to the end of this legislative session.

I've received many nominations and applications from labor unions, business and private citizens. I welcome nominations from the senators as well.

Greg Pai will resign on the last day of the session. I am advised by the Attorney General that his participation in PUC decisions up to that date is legal and proper.

I will be leaving for Japan on April 15th and return on April 19th. Please direct your inquiries to Charles Toguchi during my absence.

Aloha,

/s/ Benjamin J. Cayetano
BENJAMIN J. CAYETANO'

"Mr. President, unfortunately, this leaves us in a position of not having a clear, formal withdrawal as the unanimously adopted resolution requested. I do understand that you have taken the initiative to remind the governor of the procedure the Senate needs to follow so that we do not have to have an unnecessary decision making and rejection of the nominee before us. Mr. President, I appreciate your initiative and await further communications from the governor.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson also rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, over the last weekend there's been some headlines that really concerned me. We'll start from Sunday which says, 'Large vessels banned from Kaneohe Bay.' Then on Tuesday it says, 'Boat owner sues over ban,' and this morning, Mr. President, 'Tour boat limited attack.'

"Mr. President, the reason that these things concern me is because the daily newspapers have told us in the last week how our state economy hangs on the balance between regulations and the marketplace. Taxes and regulations will ultimately be the demise of the future of our state. I wish to explain, Mr. President.

"The Minority Floor Leader has been telling you recently about the small businesses that have gone bankrupt greatly because of government interferences and unnecessary burdens. Here are some of the headlines: 'Business Foreclosures Up, Jobs Decline in Hawaii' or 'Hawaii, a New Tax Hell,' and finally 'Welfare Cases in Isles Grow by 20 percent.'

"Mr. President, if we don't do something now, unemployment and welfare will continue to rise because more and more businesses are going to be out of business. We are doing very little to help keep what we have afloat. And we are also failing to further promote new enterprises. These businesses are, and will be, an essential part of this state's livelihood. Yet, we continue to choke and stifle the growth of business by way of taxes and regulations.

"Mr. President, I wish to cite an example of this disregard for business from the recent actions of just one department -- DLNR and their Ocean Recreation Division. In 1992, Mr. President, when I was in the House, we started the Kaneohe Bay Task Force. No rules and regs were issued at that time by DLNR to further clarify this law. In the absence of such rules, permits were issued to various boats owners for mooring in Kaneohe Bay. DLNR issued permits and required fees and taxes were paid by these boating companies. DLNR issued permits which established that these companies would be allowed to conduct their businesses in the Bay. These businesses understood that these permits licensed their business, and subsequently invested their money and energy in a venture they believed was legally sound.

"Then early this year, Mr. President, in response to some complaints, the attorney general issued an opinion which said that these permits had been issued illegally and were not valid. Following this opinion, the boat owners were told by Mr. Parson of DLNR's Ocean Recreation Division that they would be allowed a transition period before the opinion would be enforced. However, on April 9, Mr. President, Mr. Parsons apparently changed his mind and wrote to the head of DLNR, Mr. Mike Wilson, that the attorney general's opinion had not been properly interpreted. Now, under the correct interpretation, no transition period would be allowed and the affected boats would have to immediately leave the Kaneohe Bay.

"Mr. President, my understanding of the purpose of the two bills that we have, S.B. No. 741 and H.B. No. 967, H.D. 2, was to make the changes that Mr. Parson and the department had failed to do. However, the bills died, and so a new interpretation of the attorney general opinion was put forth. Once again our bumbling bureaucrats bumped business in its okole.

"And what bothers me, Mr. President, is I got involved in this after being appointed by the governor. We found out that the Department of Land and Natural Resources was going to auction off permits on recreational facilities so that they could go ahead and make money for the department. This is where the problem started to come. And it's not just Kaneohe Bay that's being affected. There are 30 other businesses. It just so happens that this is the first, and the permits on the other businesses are going to rise 600 percent. So we're going to be in more trouble than we realize.

"We cannot hope to attract investors with new capital to our state until we have a government climate and attitude which will help, not hinder, business. I wish to end this morning, Mr. President, with a quote in this morning's paper from Mr. Gabriel Siu, 'This anti-business atmosphere from the state has to stop.' Mr. President, it must stop or the proverbial obituary of the businesses list will continue to grow.

"I hope my colleagues and yourself, Mr. President, realize that we're in 'deep kim chee.' We have to look at what we're doing. We're in a hell of a shape. You're going to have welfare continue to grow because you're putting businesses out of business and you're making sure that the people are not having jobs, and you will not create any new jobs. Yes, we need tax relief and we need a lot of things, but we have to make sure that there is employment for our people -- not to kill businesses so that there's going to be more unemployment.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Taniguchi, for the Committee on Economic Development, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing on H.C.R. Nos. 66, 93, 166, 241, 251, 262, 278, 279 and 281, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Solomon, for the Committee on Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing, pursuant to Senate Rule 20, on H.C.R. Nos. 147, 186, 215, 258 and 259, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom then rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I received a copy of a press release this morning, Mr. President, from the leadership explaining why the Human Resources Committee will not be holding a hearing on the worker's compensation bill this year. Actually the press release is erroneous. It says it's holding off adoption of a coordinated care bill this year as proposed by the House.

"Mr. President, colleagues, I find this action ill-advised, inconceivable, inexcusable and outrageous. For four years now, the people in the business community have sought to have a public hearing, an airing, on this very important issue. No one has claimed to have a panacea whether it be coordinated care or anything else. All they wanted was a hearing and yet again, Mr. President and colleagues, it seems that one individual is able to stop this process even though we are told, day after day, that everyone is committed to helping business, that everybody is working together in collaboration. Everybody has some nice sounding words, Mr. President, even in the press release, and yet what does the press release say that the Senate Committee wants to do -- study the issue some more; have more input; reach a consensus.

"And they have pointed to other issues, Mr. President, such as no-fault insurance, high-three, same-sex marriage, and it is true that these are all very contentious issues. We do not have any agreement or any consensus and yet people have been unafraid to have hearings, to let the public speak, to let individuals involved make their statements, and yet for some reason this committee on this issue, and this bill refuses to hold a public hearing, refuses to take the bill into conference. I think it is unconscionable.

"What has been proposed? What has been proposed is that we have alternative dispute resolutions. That may be fine for the majority party when they go out to Barbers Point, but I don't think the business public needs alternative dispute resolutions. What they need is action and resolution on an issue which has been festering not for the last four years, but for the last 15 to 20 years.

"Mr. President, on this press release it said, 'Please feel free to address any questions to us or the subject matter co-chairs.' Mr. President, will the co-chair of the Human Resources Committee yield to a question?"

The Chair posed the question and Senator Kanno having answered in the affirmative, Senator Slom continued:

"Mr. Co-Chair, will you in fact hold a hearing, allow this bill to be discussed so that reasonable people can come up with reasonable alternatives to the problems facing the business community?"

Senator Kanno responded:

"I have a statement I'd like to read.

"We are committed to lowering workers' compensation medical costs without diminishing the quality of care for injured workers. At the same time, we want to create a system to lower the rate of job-related injuries, thus increasing job productivity.

"We firmly believe that before a coordinated care organization law can be enacted, we must address concerns about limiting access to physicians, financial solvency, utilization/treatment caps, and the quality of care.

"We will focus our attention on this very important matter during the interim. The Senate Committee on Human Resources will ask subject-matter experts for information and their input, and will solicit the active participation of all stakeholders involved in a coordinated care program for injured workers. To facilitate the process we are going to use the services of Elizabeth Kent, director of The Judiciary's Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution. The goal is to develop a greater consensus among employers, employees, and health-care providers so that we can move forward together on a coordinated care system that supports all parties. We are making a commitment to take action and bring resolution to this.

"We did have a public informational briefing in the Senate Committee on Human Resources on the issue of coordinated care for workers' compensation. A number of concerns were raised that need to be addressed prior to passing a CCO bill.

"First, questions continue about sacrificing the quality and access of medical care in exchange for lowering costs. President Clinton cited this concern three weeks ago when he created the Advisory Commission on Consumer Protection and Quality in the Health Care Industry, to be co-chaired by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Labor.

"The commission is charged with developing a consumer bill of rights so that patients get the information and care they need, when they need it. The Commission will also be investigating inappropriate financial incentives to limit care. Their first report is due at the end of the year and their final report in one year, March 1998.

"In Hawaii, questions continue about the quality of care furnished through the Quest managed care plans.

"At the informational briefing on coordinated care, there were concerns raised about limiting access to physicians, the utilization caps, the quality of care and financial solvency. During the interim, the Senate will examine these.

"Given the ever-changing nature of the health care industry, passing a CCO bill could make it obsolete before it's even implemented. Extensive work needs to be done with the stakeholders to share information, discuss upcoming changes in the industry and address unresolved concerns.

"Because of the recent financial trouble with PGMA, Insurance Commissioner Rey Grauly believes solvency concerns need to be addressed prior to passing a CCO bill to protect injured workers, employers, medical providers and the public. Labor Director Lorraine Akiba also agrees that a CCO bill this session would be premature.

"Parts of the 1995 and 1996 reforms of the workers' compensation law are being implemented this year. HEMIC (the Hawaii Employers' Mutual Insurance Company), which is designed to help employers in the assigned risk pool and is creating competition in the workers' compensation insurance industry, is expected to begin writing policies this summer. The workers' compensation benefits facilitator, an ombudsman, set up to assist injured workers find appropriate medical care and return quickly to work, is also being implemented this summer.

"The 1995 provision allowing unions to negotiate workers' compensation benefits is also being initiated this year. Some of these collective bargaining agreements will include coordinated care organizations.

"I am deeply concerned about changes to the law that would increase costs to employers. The current CCO proposal would remove the cap on the medical fee schedule for workers' compensation. The 1995 Legislature set the cap at 110 percent of Medicare to address the largest cost-driver of the system. A key part of the recent 27 percent reduction to our workers' compensation premiums was the cap on the medical fee schedule. To remove the cap now, would increase costs and premiums.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose again and said:

"May I again ask the chair if he intends to hold a hearing. As you mentioned, there was an informational briefing held. There has been no hearing. There's a demand for a hearing, and while I appreciate the kind words of the co-chair and his deep concern about costs for businesses, if that concern is really deep then we will have a hearing, let people come to the table openly and in front of the public, discuss these issues and then reach a consensus as we do with every other issue in every other committee.

"Will you hold a hearing, sir?"

Senator Kanno responded:

"As I stated, we are going to be doing interim work to look at the number of issues raised and we will not be taking this issue to conference."

Senator Slom interjected:

"May I have a yes or no, sir. Will you hold a hearing?"

Senator Kanno replied:

"The answer is no."

Senator Slom then stated:

"You will not hold a hearing. Then, Mr. President, I have a real problem with all of this collaboration and all this commitment that we talk about. It was supposed to be more open. It was supposed to be a vehicle to allow the public to be able to discuss any and every issue, and I find it abominable that we allow this process to be thwarted.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair then made the following observation:

"We have a two-year session here at the Legislature, Mr. Minority Floor Leader, and I believe that the co-chair of Human Resources Committee has given all of us a commitment that this issue will be looked at during the interim."

Senator Slom responded:

"Mr. President, excuse me, but how many more businesses will not be here during that two-year period? How many businesses that are struggling now to meet their payroll? How many businesses that want to hire individuals including welfare recipients, but cannot do so because of this issue, will not be able to do that because of our failure to take action, Mr. President?"

"Thank you, sir."

Senator Sakamoto then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"On a similar issue, Mr. President, I'm glad to hear a facilitator might happen, according to the Director of Labor, but it hasn't happened yet and this bill has passed.

"Let me just read (I'm sorry I haven't given everybody, all the members, what I'm going to read), Act 234 which this body passed, Mr. President.

'The director of labor and industrial relations and the insurance commissioner shall conduct a comprehensive feasibility study of coordinated health care delivery systems for consideration by the legislature as potential alternatives to the current system of providing medical care, services, and supplies and the medical care component of the workers' compensation system. The study shall include but not be limited to identification of various alternatives, applicable actuarial studies, medical benefits, and insurance premium cost comparisons, and any recommended legislation if applicable. The study, along with findings and recommendations, shall be submitted to the legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of the regular session of 1996.'

"The next paragraph:

'No later than July 1, 1996, the director of labor and industrial relations shall adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 91, for optional coordinated health care delivery systems under the workers' compensation system. The rules for optional coordinated health care delivery systems shall be submitted to the legislature no later than December 1, 1995. The legislature may disapprove the rules by concurrent resolution during the regular session of 1996.'

And so on and so forth.

"Mr. President, we defer enacting -- we have enacted ... we have enacted. We have a responsibility. There's executive, which the Department of Labor and the former commissioner were part of and the current commissioner, but we are legislative and we have enacted this legislation. And why wasn't it complied with? Did one person decide we don't need to comply with something?"

"I think we have a problem and I don't believe that it's the Department of Labor's problem or the Insurance Commissioner's problem. I believe we have a duty to carry out what we passed. We have a duty not to wait. Studies have been done -- numerous studies have been done. So this is not about waiting. This is not about studying. This is about doing, Mr. President, and I really don't want this to be a battle that cannot be solved quickly and I think it's a matter of not letting one person stand in the way of doing what we already said we're going to do. And this isn't about fee schedules. This is about providing what we said -- optional, coordinated care decisions, and if dollars are involved, let businesses decide if they want to get into a system. If a provider says 125 percent of fee schedule and the business says we don't want it, let that happen. But let there be tools for us to do what we need to do. Let there be processes that work, Mr. President.

"Businesses are asking for action, not studies. Thank you."

Senator McCartney also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, I'd like to respond to some of the previous speaker's remarks on the issue of coordinated care.

"Mr. President, first of all, I'd like to set the record straight that this process is about doing. It may not be on the time line that some people want, but it is a process that we need to address critical questions like limiting access to doctors, financial solvency, utilization caps, the quality of care, and workers' rights. All those different perspectives and positions have different views and perspectives that need to be looked at and examined as a total comprehensive package, and the process that we designed to move forward will allow us to do that, Mr. President.

"Mr. President, another troubling thing that I think we all need to look at, and that the Senator from Moanalua alluded to, is that we passed that law in 1995. And in 1995 we said there should be a study; the study was done. We also said that rules shall be adopted -- very similar to another bill like Kaneohe Bay -- rules should be adopted. The department failed to enact rules.

"I think the other thing that we need to do in the meantime is find out why the department hasn't enacted those rules for coordinated care. And it specifically said that if the Legislature does not agree with those rules, by concurrent resolution it can disapprove the rules, which meant that the Legislature specifically intended for those rules to be put into place and asked the department to do it.

"Secondly, when you talk to the Department of Labor, they are saying right now on the record that you can already do coordinated care and that is the opinion of the Director of Labor. I think the troubling thing that we need to wrestle with, is how much regulation should we put out there with business. Do we want more regulation or do we want less regulation? The department's view is less regulation is better. I think some of the concerns on the business side are saying that if we don't have regulations, we don't know where to go. What the department is saying is let the marketplace happen, and they're saying it's legal to do a coordinated care organization right now.

"These are the kinds of issues that I think need to be discussed, need to be talked about. And I think that's what the co-chairs are doing and I think, Mr. President, we can move forward to put together a good bill and enact it in time before this Legislature ends next session.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson, again rising on a point of personal privilege, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege in response to some of the Majority Leader's comments.

"I may have been in this Senate a very short time but I've been in the Legislature for 17 years and we've been studying, for 17 years, the same problems over and over again for businesses and for everything that is needed in this state -- we have studied to death! When it came to the Kaneohe Bay Task Force (as I said, I was in the House in '92 when we set it up) the chairman for my Finance Committee happened to be Mr. Peter Nottage who was the head of the task force. And when we found out just last year or the year before that the department started selling permits for recreational boating in small harbors, which was very regulated, we regulated it because people were concerned about what was going on.

"The department has caused a hell of a lot of problems for us, and it's a domino effect. And Kaneohe Bay is just one of them. And you're right -- they did not write rules and regs, but they gave out permits, and they allowed businesses to grow. Now, if you're going to stop something, what you do is 'grandfather' everybody in. You don't go back and say, 'Hey, I made a mistake. You shouldn't have had a 200-ft. boat. You should have had a 100-ft. boat.' So consequently you lose your investment, and you tell the bankers you can't pay them and see how much you're liked as a businessman.

"I think, Mr. President, that we have studied things to death! Business community in the State of Hawaii has become a minority -- like I am. There's only two of us left. Businesses are going down the tubes. There are far less today than there were 17 years ago and I'd like you to address that, if you would, Mr. Majority Leader."

The Chair interjected:

"Senator McCartney, one last rebuttal."

Senator McCartney responded to the previous speaker as follows:

"Mr. President, since the good Minority Leader brought up Kaneohe Bay, I'd like to comment on Kaneohe Bay.

"Yes, Kaneohe Bay has been studied and the master plan was put together by the commercial operators and everybody in the community, and we shook hands on that deal. We set caps at 150 and the very people that you allege are out of business today, violated that agreement. That agreement was put together by the community and those operators in a collaborative effort called the Kaneohe Bay Master Plan.

"Secondly, Mr. President, Kaneohe Bay is a treasured natural resource that belongs to the people of the State of Hawaii. And if you are going to use that resource to make money from and have permits sold off of, you don't own that property -- it belongs to the people! So when you use the bay, it belongs to the public and it's a privilege to be on the bay. Act 208 and all the bills that relate to Kaneohe Bay state that it's a privilege to operate a commercial activity out there.

"Also, the bill specifically says that if you are going to replace existing equipment, it has to be of like nature and of like quality. The individuals that you're talking about, Mr. President, came in and they expanded. Their boats were twice the size of what was out there. How many people are we going to allow in Kaneohe Bay before the local people are choked out? How many people are we going to allow to participate in commercial/recreational activities when people cannot take their families out to the sandbar anymore because there's a commercial operation out there?

"What the master plan says is there's a balance. There is a place for business; there is a place for business to operate in the bay, and there is a place to protect and preserve the bay and they can coexist. But when one side takes advantage of the other and does not follow the rules, the law, there's a problem, and that's where we are at in Kaneohe Bay.

"And mind you, the Kaneohe Bay bill was not heard either. This Senator requested a hearing on Kaneohe Bay and I would like a hearing on that bill. The bill was never heard! And there are other bills that aren't heard in this body too, and coordinated care is one bill. There are many things that we still need to work on in business and take care of business. Let the process work. Maybe it doesn't fit your needs the way you want to get it done, but I guarantee you that we will come up with something that I think everybody can be proud of and things can happen. It may not happen the way some people want it to happen, but that's the process. It's a give and take process. This body has 76 people from 76 different districts, personalities and backgrounds and we've got to decide what's good for the people of Hawaii, and compromise is what takes place. And that's what's going to happen on this bill and it's going to happen on Kaneohe Bay and other bills. That's what the legislative process was designed for.

"Mr. President, that's my response to my colleague from the windward side who is the Minority Leader. Thank you."

Senator Anderson then rose:

"Mr. President, ...

The Chair interjected:

"We will be moving on, Senator Anderson. You had an opportunity to speak. I gave the Majority Leader an opportunity to rebut. Let us move on to the order of business."

Senator Anderson responded:

"Then I'll write him a nasty letter. And thank you very much."

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

Thursday, April 17, 1997

The Senate of the Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1997, convened at 11:38 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Mr. Bruce Dusseault, The National Baha'i Center, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Matsunaga who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fifty-Second Day.

Senator Taniguchi, in celebration of Outrigger Hotels and Resorts' 50th Anniversary, introduced Jean Rolles, Pat Kelley, Bitsy Kelley, Colleen Heyer, Perry Sorenson, Barry Wallace, Mildred Courtney and Tony Del Piano.

Senator Kawamoto then introduced and congratulated Lieutenant General William M. Steele and welcomed him as the Pacific's new Commanding General of the United States Army. Accompanying General Steele was his wife, Pamela.

At this time, President Mizuguchi invited General Steele to address the members of the Senate and the audience and appointed Senators Kawamoto and Sakamoto to escort him to the rostrum.

General Steele addressed the members of the Senate and their guests as follows:

"Senate President Mizuguchi, Senator Kawamoto, other distinguished Senators of the Hawaii State Senate, it's really our privilege to be here with you today. I thank you for the recognition of my family and of the United States Army, but more important, I thank you for the warm welcome that you have extended to us in the 'Spirit of Aloha' and in the 'Spirit of Ohana.'

"We are very, very happy to be in Hawaii. We feel that we are honored to have a chance to live in your great state. Pam and I have moved 25 times in 30 years. We've been in many different places around the world and Pam, I think, has coined it best and said it best when she said that when we arrived in Hawaii late last year she finally, finally, has found the place where she was born to live. And I agree with her. It is a wonderful place. We are really privileged to live in your great state.

"I also have the honor of representing the 70,000 army family members that live in this great state. They are active duty soldiers; they are reserve component soldiers; they are national guard soldiers; all serving in the State of Hawaii, and they bring with them family members. They bring with them concern for the community, the same concern for the community that you have, and the same concern for this state that you have. We also have a large retirement community that lives here in Hawaii -- all started and served their time in the United States Army, all tolled about 70,000.

"We think that 70,000 members of the United States Army community in Hawaii are good members of the community and certainly the active component part of that community tries to be good neighbors and also good members of your community and state. It's been that way for almost 100 years since the United States Army has been in Hawaii. And I can pledge to you that during my tenure and the tenure of my successors that we are committed to being good members of this state and good neighbors in the local community where our children and our families live, where they go to school, where they attend church services, and where they work and labor in the communities.

"So, thank you again for your welcome. Thank you again for your aloha. And we are privileged again to be able to speak to you today and be in these chambers. Aloha and mahalo."

At 11:53 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:00 o'clock noon.

No. 250, H.D. 1 Committee on Health and Environment

No. 257, H.D. 2 Committee on Economic Development

Senator Sakamoto rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"I rise on a point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

"I have two points. Firstly, I'm extremely relieved that the House and Senate conferees reached an agreement on H.B. Nos. 117 and 118, and I'd like to commend the Senate conferees and House conferees for their hard work in reaching these agreements.

"And our courts have created this mess by their reckless, judicial activism and the issue of same-sex marriage has been a divisive issue, divided this body, divided this community. For four years the Legislature has struggled with the issue of same-sex marriage, but at last an agreement has been reached and we have something we can give the voters to decide on. So with this constitutional amendment I believe we have taken a small step towards restoring people's faith in our government.

"On the second point, Mr. President, on the issue I raised yesterday on coordinated care, Act 234, where this body had passed legislation and the study was made but no rules came forward. I'd like to ask leadership to address that issue in the upcoming conference committee -- the issue of changing the date so that we have dates that are in the future, not in the past, and for certain we can act on something, and create some sort of framework so that in the community, the people who have been involved with this issue have, for certain, something that insures that in the future there will be action by this body, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I just would like to speak in support of the previous speaker. I, likewise, was very happy to read in the newspaper of the resolution of the same-sex marriage issue. However, I think I'm going to reserve my comments until I see the bill in its formal draft. I'm very happy that we were able to come to some agreement.

"I, too, Mr. President, in regards to the previous speaker's remarks on the second point, feel that the leadership should look at the statute. I was a part of that negotiation, Mr. President, and at that time Senator Milton Holt was the shepherd for the Senate. And, as you know, Mr. President, this has been a burning issue in this Legislature for over ten-plus years. I think that the compromises, especially when it came to the dates, was a very critical, critical point to the legislation because that's where we were able to give people some kind of relief. But unfortunately, the dates as stated in the statute, in the act, have been disregarded. I don't know by whom, whether it's the DLIR, the insurance commissioner, I don't know who it is, but whoever is responsible, Mr. President, I feel that at least the dates should be repealed and appropriate dates put into the act so that we can send a very strong message to the small businesses and to those who are affected by this legislation to tell them that, yes, we are serious in resolving this problem; yes, we are committed to come up with alternative recommendations; and yes, we are serious in promulgating rules. And I feel, Mr. President, that is a very appropriate request.

"Thank you very much."

Senator McCartney rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to thank the Senator from Moanalua and the Senator from Kohala for those statements and I think that those are very valid concerns that they are bringing up. I think we need to take that under advisement and work with them and with the co-chairs. I think they are important points and raise some questions that are really unanswered yet that the two Senators brought up. And I thank them for those comments and we will be taking those under advisement."

Senator Slom, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"It was very nice to honor all the good folks at Outrigger and the Outrigger ohana today, and I know that we all share in their success and we're very happy with the contributions they made to our community over the past 50 years.

"Unfortunately, Mr. President, again it is my duty to rise and speak about those businesses that we have lost again and these are just within the last two weeks since I gave you my last obituary report because for them it's too late. They won't be honored here at the Senate; they won't get any leis; they won't get any certificates; so let me read the list to you, Mr. President:

Victoria Enterprises in Wahiawa; Candy Snackshop and Washerette, Wahiawa; B&B Contractor Sales, Inc., Kahului, Maui; Hawaiian Pacific Design, Wahiawa; Brown Bookkeeping Service, Kaneohe; Lahaina Pool Service, Maui; Latitude Design Group, Honolulu; Excellent Desktop Publishing & Purple Palm Textile Arts, Kailua Kona on the Big Island; Lani's Upholstery in Kapaa, Kauai; Super Screen Hawaii and More or Less Beachware in Kahuku; R & J Paper Products in Kealahou; Pacific Vegetarian Cafe in Honolulu; Encore Consignment Boutique in Lahaina; and D Media in Honolulu.

"Notice, Mr. President, in just two weeks another 15 bankruptcies in our state and they affect every island; they affect everyone's pocketbook; they affect every family and employment. But add to the bankruptcy total, also, the following: Queens Medical Center is cutting out hundreds of vacant positions and letting almost one hundred warm bodies go. The local office of Price Waterhouse, one of the 'big six' accounting firms in the United States is closing its Hawaii office due to bad economic conditions, or, as I would say, bad political conditions. And note, Mr. President, that Hawaii will now be the only state in the Union that will not have all of the 'big six' accounting firms represented in the state. Also, another 'mom and pop,' The Gift Box in downtown Honolulu is closing and the proprietor said it just doesn't make any sense anymore to try and make ends meet because of the taxes and the high cost.

"Mr. President, another two weeks, another 15 names ... I think it's rally time. We've got till April 29. There are still things that we can do. We've gotten past the hurdle for same-sex marriage, but let's do what we were sent here to do. Let's improve our economy! Let's improve our business climate! Let's provide more take-home pay! Let's make Hawaii work again!

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Baker moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1506, S.D. 1, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Baker explained:

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATION

Misc. Com. No. 5, from Patricia Mau-Shimizu, Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, dated April 17, 1997, transmitting the written notice given to the governor of the final form of H.B. No. 117, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "PROPOSING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," in accordance with the provisions of Article XVII, Section 3 of the Hawaii State Constitution, was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I just want to give some recognition to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs for organizing the vigil that the Hawaiian people will be participating in. I want to thank them very much because any time we can encourage groups to come to the Legislature to participate in the democratic process would be a big plus for all of us.

"However, Mr. President, I just want to mention to OHA and my fellow colleagues that my co-chairman and I did have an opportunity to visit with the governor and we relayed the message to him that the Public Land Trust belongs to the Legislature. It was given to us by the constitution and it is this body that has to make the final decisions on anything pertaining to the Public Land Trust which includes the ceded lands.

"I reminded the governor that it's commendable that the chairman of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs is negotiating and talking with the executive, but the bottom line is, before anything can be ratified it has to be sanctioned by us. So it would behoove the Office of Hawaiian Affairs to understand the process and to realize that they do need a bill for whatever they envision as a possible settlement for the Hawaiian people, and of course, for the people of Hawaii.

"So with that, Mr. President, thank you very much."

Senator Taniguchi, for the Committee on Economic Development, requested a waiver of the 72-hour Notice of a Public Hearing, pursuant to Senate Rule 20, on H.C.R. No. 153, and the Chair granted the waiver.

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:24 o'clock p.m.

Senator Anderson then rose and said

"Mr. President, the reason I stood is I wanted to go along with what Senator Malama had originally said. I sat in on that committee, but yesterday in the Housing Committee we had a resolution for the Waimanalo groups to originally be able to buy their land. However, the land is ceded, and yet the argument from the department was that the AG had some concerns with the resolution allowing the people to stay there right now and, in fact, they were in court over the ceded lands. There are a lot of problems and yet they wanted to go ahead and demolish the homes, displace those people, and bring them back later. The people that are on the land, as far as we felt, were going to be able to sit there and I agree with the AG -- they are in court. These lands are encumbered. The only way the federal government can get involved is on unencumbered lands. And they said things had more or less changed now. Thirty years ago they were unencumbered. Well, those are trust lands and we are the ones to make that decision -- it is not the federal government -- we have to sit down and make decisions. It does go to court. You cannot sell. You cannot go ahead and do anything.

"And I quite agree with the Senator and those are the problems that we are having with the administration. We're having it with the Department of Hawaii Housing because they don't agree with us. And I just wanted to bring it forth that I agree with you wholeheartedly, Senator Solomon.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Matsunaga rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, April 13 through 19 is the National Crime Victims' Rights Week, and this year's theme is Let Victims' Rights Ring Across America. I know we in the Senate are very much concerned about crime victims' rights. We passed out a constitutional amendment giving victims rights, including the right to restitution, and I do hope the House considers that bill next session.

"I would like to insert some remarks into the Journal, Mr. President."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Matsunaga's remarks follow:

"TRIBUTE TO VICTIMS AND SURVIVORS OF CRIME
'LET VICTIMS' RIGHTS RING ACROSS AMERICA'
KEYNOTE ADDRESS
SENATOR MATT MATSUNAGA

"As you know, we are now in the middle of National Crime Victims' Rights Week. This is a special time to recognize and honor the memory of victims of crimes. It is a time to recognize their families and friends. It is also a time to recognize the countless professionals and volunteers who believe victims' rights are worth fighting for, such as the victim advocates, concerned justice officials, clergy, medical and mental health workers, educators, policymakers, family, friends, and others who are dedicated to the cause of promoting victims' rights.

"I have worked hard on this issue not only because of my belief that it is important to the people and because of my duties as a legislator, but also because I feel it is important to my family. I have two very young children and they have helped me become more acutely aware of how important it is to protect the well being of the next generation. Let's make this world a better place and spare our children from violent crime. My family is in the fight against crime, and I have always been sympathetic to victims because my wife is a prosecutor. My father was also a prosecutor before he became a Congressman.

"And we are not alone in our belief that this issue is very important. President Clinton spoke strongly in favor of constitutional rights for crime victims, stating that victims 'should be at the center of the criminal justice process, not on the outside looking in.' He also said that criminals have protected rights, and the press has protected rights, but there has never really been much thought given to victims' rights. Until now. Now, the work and voice of the many organizations dedicated to victims' rights has been noticed, and both the executive branch and the legislative branch of our federal government are working to establish rights for victims. This is great, but the effort to help crime victims should not be limited to federal law. There is much that each of us can do to help crime victims. You can volunteer to help victims. They need help and you can provide it.

"If you know someone who has been touched by crime, offer them your support, an ear to listen, a shoulder for comfort. If you offer to ease their pain, your concern can be a lifeline of hope.

"If you hear or see or read about injustice, write a letter to the editor and let your voice be heard. A community's silence about justice for victims contributes to an injustice that affects us all. Let's not be quiet about this issue. Support for victims needs to be heard.

"One of the great symbols of justice and fairness in our nation is the Liberty Bell. We all know that it is a treasured relic of the early days of American independence, rung to announce the adoption of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. It is so important a symbol that in downtown Honolulu alone, there are two replicas. One is right here and the other is near the Father Damien statue in front of the State Capitol.

"The inscription on the bell, 'Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof,' comes from the Bible and the relevance of this message still rings true today. Liberty and justice for all means justice for crime victims too.

"It is not widely known that the original name of the bell was the 'Old State House Bell.' The name 'Liberty Bell' came about when abolitionists began referring to it that way in 1839. The name Liberty Bell was created because people wanted the bell itself to stand for doing the right thing so that we can be stronger as a nation, a community, and even as individuals.

"You may have seen on the news how the crime problem has recently been worsening across the world. In Poland and Japan the news is that crime is on the upswing, and juvenile gangs are growing everywhere. Hawaii can set the example by providing victims' rights. Hawaii has been a leader in the past. For example, we were the first to add an Equal Rights Amendment to our constitution. We can set the example again by providing victims' rights. I believe in the philosophy 'think globally and act locally.' We need to do all that we can because when one member of our community is victimized, we all suffer.

"So as you consider this, and your gaze turns to the Liberty Bell, resolve to symbolically ring it; resolve to send a message. Continue to spread the word so that change can occur. More people need to know about the fight for crime victims. People don't currently know enough because they are unaware. Previously there had been only one sad way to learn about the lack of justice for victims: become a victim. But a great coalition of victims' service organizations have provided other ways to learn. I commend these organizations for their efforts to care for the victims and to get out the message to the public at large that we need to organize to promote change. The Domestic Violence Legal Hotline, Mothers against Drunk Driving, The League of Women Voters, Parents of Murdered Children, are just a few of the many service organizations that have worked so hard. We can all do our part in caring and helping others get involved.

"Together we have made great progress in the fight against crime. And we can keep the momentum going. While lesser issues receive more attention in the media and elsewhere, we were able to push significant legislation in the Senate. We were able to focus on keeping criminals off the streets, providing a constitutional amendment establishing rights for victims, and addressing drug, theft, domestic violence and other crimes. And this focus is urgently needed. In Hawaii there is one murder every 7 days. There is a rape or arson every day. There is a robbery or aggravated assault every 6 hours, and there is a burglary every half hour. There is some kind of theft every 8 minutes.

"Public outcry for criminal justice reform and concerns for public safety has compelled us to consider sentencing reforms to provide certainty of consequences for serious criminal behavior and repeat felony offenders. The Senate Judiciary Committee supports conforming Hawaii sentencing provisions with federal law that requires felons to serve at least 85 percent of their sentences.

"But what we really need is more compassion for the victims. That is why I have worked to establish rights for victims. Too often, the interests of justice have been heavily weighted on concern for the offenders' rights. The rights of victims must also be acknowledged and protected during their participation in what has become an increasingly complex criminal justice process.

"I was proud to introduce an amendment to the Hawaii State Constitution to embody rights into the Constitution itself. The Constitution would then ensure that victims or surviving family members shall have the rights to:

- 1) courtesy, fairness, respect, dignity, and privacy;

- 2) be protected from the accused;
- 3) be notified of court and paroling authority proceedings;
- 4) be notified of final dispositions of court cases;
- 5) be present at court proceedings;
- 6) be heard at sentencing proceedings;
- 7) be consulted about plea agreements; and
- 8) be awarded restitution from the offender.

"In support of the provisions of the constitutional amendment, I have also authored a measure which will ensure that crime victims receive restitution, by establishing a system of restitution fines to be used for compensation payments. Many crime victims and their families suffer economic loss as a result of the defendant's conduct. Restitution should include payment for stolen or damaged property, medical expenses, wages or profit loss, and funeral and burial expenses.

"I believe that all convicted offenders in the state should pay a restitution fine, however nominal. Among other things, this measure will require that restitution fines be ordered regardless of the defendant's present ability to pay. This movement towards holding offenders accountable and requiring them to repay their debt not just to society, but to the victim is consistent with the original legislative intent of restitution established in our Hawaii penal code.

"I also believe that criminal and penal code legislation is often drafted only from the perspective of the defendant or the prosecutor. We often forget or are ignorant of the needs and the perspective of the victim. As Senate Judiciary Co-Chair, I am committed to ensuring that the criminal bills drafted and supported by the Committee focus on the victim or the innocent party.

"For example, a number of the domestic violence bills I have authored create more legal protections for battered women and children, rather than focusing solely on increasing penalties for batterers. One such measure will allow a victim of domestic violence to obtain a restraining order for an indefinite period of time, rather than for a time specific. Another measure will create a period of safety for the person protected by a restraining order, a time in which law enforcement will ensure that there is no contact between the victim and the batterer.

"In addition to establishing victims' rights we are trying to cut down on the number of victims. One of the major causes of all crime is drugs. Violence and theft stem from drug trafficking. Although the manufacture and distribution of illegal drugs such as 'ice' has reached epidemic proportions in Hawaii, law enforcement officials lack powerful sanctions under current law. The manufacture of 'ice' in clandestine laboratories pose a significant public safety hazard not only because of the increasing numbers of these labs being discovered by law enforcement, but also due to the potential for injury-causing explosions which may harm innocent people. I am committed to establishing an aggressive policy for penalizing the manufacture, sale, and distribution of dangerous drugs by making the manufacturing a dangerous drug as a class A felony and imposing stiffer mandatory sentences for the distribution of 'ice' to minors.

"Hawaii ranks third highest in the nation per capita for property crime. The dramatic increase of personal property and automobile thefts against residents and tourists has caused alarming concern for public safety as well as the viability of the tourism industry.

"To send a clear message to the public that repeat offenders will be taken seriously, I proposed that habitual theft be categorized as a felony.

"Unfortunately, crimes against tourists are increasingly violent in nature as evidenced by the recent beating of a tourist/police officer during a robbery. In such a situation, prosecutors must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant intended to inflict serious bodily injury in order to be convicted of first degree robbery. To assist prosecutorial efforts in convicting violent robbers, I support law which clarifies what intent is necessary to prove robbery and auto theft.

"To best protect victims of abuse, we need to consider the repetitive and retaliatory nature of domestic violence and strengthening existing laws by making restraining orders easier to obtain. I support tracking incidents of abuse by prohibiting a person convicted of physically abusing a family or household member from having records of such abuse expunged after five years. I want to allow evidence of prior acts committed by the same person against the same victim in domestic abuse prosecutions to be used in the court of law. Finally, I want to provide grants-in-aid to each county for domestic violence prosecution units.

"Sexual assault offenses, particularly those involving physical violence, violence against children, and repeat offenses, are an extreme threat to the public. Given the repetitive nature of sex offenders, public safety demands that convicts register with law enforcement by providing residential and employment addresses and telephone numbers. And in accord with federal requirements, we should allow the release of relevant information concerning the presence of sex offenders in the community.

"Some of these efforts were passed only in the Senate, and were not even considered by the House of Representatives. But the more that people know about these efforts, the more we can accomplish in the future.

"In conclusion, let me just say again that National Crime Victims' Rights Week is a time to recognize our many successes in serving crime victims. It is a time to honor victims, to remember their pain, and to memorialize their losses. To let victims' rights ring, we must share our knowledge about the devastating impact of crime and we must urge others to join in the fight.

"Thank you very much."

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2 (H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2 be adopted and H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Matsunaga rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"This measure represents a commitment to the provision of substantially similar governmental rights and benefits to those couples who are barred by law from marriage. The conferees agreed that while the traditional concept of marriage may be reserved as per current law, permanent commitments which bear the same burdens and share the same aspirations as married couples, should, as a matter of fundamental fairness, be afforded the economic benefits provided by the State of Hawaii to married couples.

"And Mr. President, I have additional remarks I would like inserted into the Journal. Thank you."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Matsunaga's remarks read as follows:

"The proposed C.D. 1 incorporates the form and substance of the bill as received from the House. Adult couples who are prohibited by law from marriage and who are not already married will be able to register as 'reciprocal beneficiaries' with the Department of Health. Upon doing so they will qualify for certain governmental benefits that are expressly provided for in our laws.

"In identifying the governmental benefits to be included, we used as our starting point the original House draft of the bill and S.B. No. 98, Relating to Economic Benefits, a measure co-introduced by 10 of our Senate colleagues, Senators Iwase, Ige, Tanaka, Kawamoto, Aki, Sakamoto, Tam, Bunda, Solomon, and Anderson. The Senate bill proposes a model similar to H.B. No. 118, C.D. 1, except that the triggering mechanism is an unregistered 'Affidavit of Shared Necessities of Life'.

"Specific areas of inclusion initiated by S.B. No. 98 and H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, include:

1. State Government Retirement System Benefits. S.B. No. 98 would have permitted the health benefits and death benefits of public employees to accrue to their identified life partner. The proposed CD includes these benefits and, in the absence of any reason to the contrary, all other similar rights and benefits accruing to government employees.
2. Wrongful Death Actions. Both the House bill and S.B. No. 98 provided for wrongful death standing. The conference draft incorporates the principle of providing equivalent standing and inheritance in the case of death and serious injury to other areas. These include: workers compensation benefits, anatomical gifts and corpse disposition rights, criminal victims rights, and inheritance of public leases.
3. Hospital Visitation and Health Care Decisions. The most striking acknowledgement of the real needs of living partners in the House bill is its inclusion of hospital visitation and health care decisions. Accordingly, the House appears to acknowledge that matters of health are certainly among the most significant in any life partnership. The proposed draft incorporates this principle by including rights relating to insurance (including pre-paid medical insurance), family leave, and mental health notifications and authority.
4. Tenancy in the Entirety. H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, in including tenancy in the entirety privileges, appears to acknowledge that the legitimate pooling of resources is deserving of appropriate protection. In accordance with this principle, the conference draft includes relevant statutory provisions acknowledging the shared interest in resources. These include certain criminal and collection defenses, partnership exemptions, and tort standing. As a corollary to these rights, the draft also includes reciprocal beneficiaries as among those who may be subject to criminal enforcement or notification under our domestic violence and youthful offender statutes.

"Despite the conference draft's breadth, it does not include all rights and benefits, nor does it impose all burdens. This is because it is the committee's view that the extension of such rights and burdens can and should be limited when a substantial government interest would be injured by such an extension.

"Accordingly, the conference draft does not include the marital rights and benefits which arguably conflict with other substantial governmental interests. [[Included among such arguable interests and consequent exclusions are:

1. The State's interest in preserving the traditional family. As manifested in both H.B. No. 117 and the committee's proposed C.D. 1, the citizens of our state may choose to limit marriage to couples of the opposite sex. If they do so, we would be logically obliged to limit benefits and burdens that explicitly relate to the institution of marriage to such couples.

Thus, the proposed conference draft does not include any rights, benefits or burdens imposed or granted by our laws explicitly relating to marriage (Ch. 572, 576D-D), divorce (Ch. 580), parentage and adoption (Chs. 578, 584, 571 pts. IV-V), premarital agreements (Ch. 572), mutual support and community property (572-3, 575-2, Ch. 51), dower and curtesy (Ch. 533), evidentiary spousal privileges (Ch. 626) and wiretap exceptions (803-46). Additionally, the proposed draft excludes certain very specific family use exceptions. These include: harbor fishing (188-34); Kaneohe Bay recreation permits (200-39); nehu and iao fishing (188-45); and agriculture regulation exceptions (Chs. 141-168).

2. The State's interest in avoiding federal and interstate conflicts. With the passage of the federal Defense of Marriage Act, the federal government seems to have signaled an unwillingness to support or acknowledge the extension of marital benefits to couples other than those in traditional marriages. Similarly, a number of other states have statutorily indicated some discomfort with potential extension of marital benefits. It is a legitimate and substantial state interest to avoid conflict with other states and to acknowledge the power of the federal government within their proper jurisdiction.

Thus, the proposed draft excludes those programs which are substantially funded or regulated by the federal government including social service benefits (Ch. 346), government housing programs (Ch. 359), airport and urban redevelopment and relocation (Chs. 111, 261), veterans burial benefits (Ch. 363), certain resident military benefits (e.g. 288-107(g)), state health family assistance (Ch. 321), unemployment insurance definitions (Ch. 383), certain banking exceptions (Chs. 412-417) and Hawaiian homelands inheritance (HHCA 209). Additionally, we have excluded relevant interstate compacts so as not to imply or impose an express burden of recognition on other states. Relevant compacts include those relating to probation and parole (353-81), mental health (Ch. 335), adoption assistance (Ch. 350C), and reciprocal enforcement of support (Ch. 576).]]

"Mr. President, we feel that the contents of this bill represents a reasonable, fair and balanced approach. We urge its passage."

Senator Iwase also rose to support the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill.

"Mr. President, this bill, H.B. No. 118, brings us nearer to the end of a journey that we started back in 1994 when we enacted a law and reaffirmed that law in 1995. It dealt with the same-sex marriage issue. And let me quote from the 1995 law. We created a commission which was to provide to the Legislature recommendations. They were supposed to 'examine the major, legal and economic benefits extended to married opposite-sex couples, but not to same-sex couples; examine the substantial public policy reasons to extend or not to extend such benefits ... and recommend appropriate action which may be taken by the legislature to extend such benefits to same-sex couples.'

"We were looking, three years ago and two years ago, to enact a measure which would provide economic benefits. One of the positive aspects of this bill is that it is not limited to the issue of sexual orientation but extends benefits to couples who are not necessarily involved with same-sex relationships. It could be an aunt and a niece or nephew, a grandparent and a grandchild, a brother and a sister, a 'hanai' parent and a 'hanai' child. It is an experiment in aloha. It is an experiment which we can review in two years to determine the economic benefits to the State of Hawaii or the economic burdens to the State of Hawaii and will give us an opportunity to again act.

"But the journey is not at an end. Before this session ends, we must act on H.B. No. 117 which is a constitutional amendment. I hope that we achieve the two-thirds vote that we must achieve in order to place that important constitutional amendment on the ballot.

"Finally, Mr. President, at the beginning of this session, ten Senators introduced a bill which is part of a package to address this issue, a bill on hate crimes, S.B. No. 99. It is a bill that we still need, and it was emphasized yesterday, when a sick individual or individuals defaced national cemeteries and other cemeteries in this state with the sick words of hate. Senate Bill 99 would apply to gender, to religion, to national origin, to sexual orientation and to race. And if a crime is committed because of hate, a judge would be allowed to enhance the penalties.

"What happened yesterday is a cancer in our society. It's an insult to the core values we hold in this state. We pride ourselves as being the 'Aloha State' and it is my hope that the Judiciary Committee and other members of this body will act next year on a hate crime bill to complete the journey which we have travelled now for four years and which will hopefully soon come to an end.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Levin supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill with enthusiasm.

"I want to simply thank and congratulate the conferees and the chairs who got us to this point. I think they did an extraordinary job under extraordinary conditions. I think they deserve the appreciation and gratitude of all who are interested in civil rights.

"When you deal with a difficult issue and you wind up with a compromise measure, there is often a tendency to feel something of a let-down. But I believe that this bill will prove to be a major and very positive landmark on the road to equal justice for all.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"Mr. President, I think that this bill represents just another example of us trying to put the cart before the horse. We've heard many times in this body that this issue that has dragged on for three years at the expense of our economic and income issues is not a civil rights matter, but then we keep hearing about civil rights. Mr. President, I don't think it has to do with civil rights, either. I think it has to do with contractual rights and benefits and I think it is an interference by the government into private contractual rights.

"In addition to that, Mr. President, I think that before we pass this or any other bill, we should always look and review and analyze very carefully the cost before we pass the bill. I don't think it's good enough to pass the bill and say, 'Let's wait and see what the costs are going to be.' That's why the State of Hawaii is in debt right now and doesn't have any money, and that's why our people are struggling day by day.

"In addition to that, Mr. President, we've already heard from the attorneys in our community who are looking at this bill with a great deal of enthusiasm because they are anticipating how they will get involved to an even greater extent, if that's possible.

"And finally, Mr. President, I look at this, if we're talking about discrimination and extending rights to everyone, then what we have to do is look at the single people within our community who for many years have been subsidizing other people as well. As we look around our community and find more and more people that are widowed or in an individual status, they themselves do not enjoy and will not enjoy the kinds of rights and benefits that we are now going to forcibly bestow upon a certain select group of people.

"So, for these and other reasons, Mr. President, I am going to vote 'no.' Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to speak on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to speak with some reservations on this bill.

"And yes, as the previous speaker mentioned regarding cost of some of these individual measures, we spend the whole session addressing one of the specific components, so I have concerns about costs. On the other hand, with Hawaii's cost of living, some of these provisions will benefit people who cannot get married but can see some relief in some of these provisions.

"On a positive note, Mr. President, I think this body is taking the right step in taking things back from the court and not letting the court kick us around, but letting us take action. And part of it is we've been kicked around by the court on some of these decisions that forced this predicament that embroiled us for so long. But as we take positive action and hopefully spend the time to clearly bring out the financial impacts, moral impacts, societal impacts, we can be a pro-active body as we go forward. So I'd like to vote with reservations, Mr. President."

Senator Bunda then rose to say:

"Mr. President, could you have the Clerk cast my vote with reservations."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator M. Ige then rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this measure, as well.

"Simply put -- I believe it's the wrong issue, the wrong time. And I just do not believe that I can go along and support this measure as it's written. Thank you."

Senator McCartney rose to speak in favor of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this measure.

"First, Mr. President, I'd like to thank our co-chairs from Palolo and from Maui and the member from Hilo. It was a rough and tough conference and I think in the end we did what we had to do and we did the right thing. And I think today on the floor everybody is going to vote their conscience and do what they believe is right for the people of Hawaii.

"I'd like the remarks of the Senator from Palolo to be inserted into the Journal as my own. And I think, Mr. President, much has been said, much has been learned, and much more needs to be done so that all our people are treated with fairness, dignity, and respect under the law.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Chun Oakland also rose to support the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd also like to speak in support of this measure and would the Clerk please insert the remarks of the Senator from Kau as if it were my own. Thank you."

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Chumbley, rising in support of the measure, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"This bill has been subject to a great deal of misrepresentation and unfair criticism, and I would like to take an opportunity to address, just briefly, a couple of concerns. I do have quite lengthy remarks I'd like to have inserted into the Journal with supporting documentation, but I'd like to address the issue of the economic impacts and costs -- the private sector costs, in particular.

"The largest red herring attack upon the bill is that it will impose costs upon the private sector. Simply, there is no evidence to support any such concern. The bulk of the so-called debate centers around the pre-paid health insurance. The bill, indeed, requires that reciprocal beneficiary coverage be made available on an equal basis with family coverage, but nowhere -- but nowhere -- in our law is it required that employers provide family coverage. This bill does not do so. So, no private employer will be required to provide reciprocal beneficiary coverage.

"Some employers voluntarily pay for family coverage. This bill would permit them to do so for reciprocal beneficiaries, but this will be a matter of employer choice. And if they do provide such coverage, evidence from the 100-plus private employers, 49 colleges, 62 state or local governments, and 22 unions that provide some form of domestic partnership benefits have yet to report a single case of significant adverse impact. In fact, according to a recent study by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans provided to us by HMSA, it concludes that while the concern with increased costs have been raised, what experience has borne out does not support these fears. In general, there is no evidence to indicate that the average health care cost of a domestic partner, either same-sex or opposite sex, will be significantly higher than that of a spouse.

"I have attached to my remarks a copy of the study for inclusion in the record and we will provide for the record and any member's request all the details backing that up.

"I urge all my colleagues to support this measure.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair so ordered and identified the attachment of Senator Chumbley's remarks and supporting documentation as EXHIBITS "A" to "E."

Senator Metcalf rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I have some written remarks in support of the measure that I would request be inserted into the Journal."

The Chair so ordered and Senator Metcalf's remarks follow:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1.

"This measure together with a proposed ballot question in the form of a constitutional amendment that we will be taking up later this session seek to deal with issues flowing from the decision in Baehr v. Lewin. In this case the court has ruled that absent a compelling state interest, same sex couples cannot be denied the right to marry. Beyond the arguments and the passions expressed in the debate that now surrounds the court's decision, are fundamental questions regarding the effective parameters of the legislature and the courts to act.

"Most Hawaii citizens favor extending rights, benefits and burdens associated with marriage to same sex couples. Yet it is clear they wish at this time to reserve to themselves the question of whether the legislature shall have power to determine whether marriage shall be limited to opposite sex couples only.

"As legislators we have the responsibility to choose correctly irrespective of whether those choices flow with or are contrary to the passions of the moment. This is an essential element of the public trust. At the same time this responsibility cannot be translated into fiat to ignore that which manifestly reflects the public will. To act otherwise is to substitute autocracy for democracy. Far too much has been invested in our democracy to justify a lurch in that direction.

"The courts have a special and unique role in our system of government key among which is the principle that any citizen can be heard and have their case determined impartially independent of their popularity, wealth, power or status. The only criteria to be applied by the court in determining cases and causes are law and equity.

"In drafting this measure and the constitutional amendment later to be voted on, your Senate conferees have been mindful of the need to enact legislation regarding rights, benefits and burdens to be extended to reciprocal beneficiaries and to advance the public discussion on the question of a constitutional amendment. This approach has been taken in recognition of the constraints of what can be accomplished without weakening the legislature's position as that instrument of government designed especially to respond to the public will.

"Within the parameters of the legislature's effective abilities to act, H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, advances the simple reverence for life philosophy espoused by the late Albert Schweitzer. It is an approach to life guided by a respect for the individual, out of which can be deduced a demand for the greatest possible freedom for the individual to live as he or she sees fit on the one hand, and the demand for social justice in the form of equal rights and equal possibilities for all on the other.

"House Bill 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, will promote social justice in advancing equal rights and possibilities for all law abiding members of our community while the proposed constitutional amendment later to be considered will allow for the discussion and expression of the public's voice with respect to whom a marriage license shall be issued."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2 was adopted and H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UNMARRIED COUPLES," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Ige, M., Kawamoto, Slom).

At 12:10 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:16 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No.

Therefore we agree with the amendments."

Senator M. Ige rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, on Friday I asked you, regarding S.B. No. 1472, privatization, if the conferees had been named. And you said that it would be done soon. My problem is, since then, we've gotten a flyer from one of the labor unions and over the radio station there's another group that's asking people to call their legislators regarding this issue. And I guess what concerned me the most was that either on Saturday or Sunday at one of the conferences on one of our conference bills, the House threw language regarding privatization on the table. I think they gave the public the impression that the Senate was doing nothing so they're going to take the initiative. And I'm concerned about that because I think this bill affects everybody in the state, not just certain communities.

"So Mr. President, when do you feel you will allow the conferees to prepare ourselves so that we can come to a consensus on language early, rather than waiting to the very last minute and possibly we might just lose this measure?"

The Chair answered:

"Conferees will be named today."

Senator M. Ige further inquired:

"Do you know around what time?"

The President replied:

"They will be placed on the status sheets later today."

Senator M. Ige then asked:

"Later this afternoon?"

The Chair responded: "Yes."

Senator M. Ige continued:

"Mr. President, in that instance, when the conferees are named and the chairmen are like co-chairmen, if one of the chairmen disagrees, does that kill the measure?"

The President answered:

"There will be collaboration, but I don't think it will kill the measure."

Senator M. Ige then said: "Thank you."

At 12:30 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:33 o'clock p.m.

Senator Bunda rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, following up with what the Senator from Kaneohe was talking about in reference to the privatization issue, I'd like to know if, before naming the conferees, the people you are considering naming could we somehow conference together before you actually come out with the list? Would that be possible?"

The Chair responded:

"That is possible."

Senator Bunda then said:

"Thank you, Mr. President."

STATEMENT OF
SENATOR AVERY B. CHUMBLEY
REGARDING H.B. NO. 118 CD1
RELATING TO UNMARRIED COUPLES

Mr. President,

I rise to speak in favor of this bill. This bill has been subject to a great deal of misrepresentation and unfair criticism. I would like to take this opportunity to address some of the expressed concerns.

1. Effective Date. The measure will take effect on July 1, 1997. Earlier versions of the measure would have made it effective upon ratification of the Constitutional Amendment proposed in H.B. No. 117 C.D. 1. Critics of the July 1 date argue that waiting would have been preferable because the rights contained in this bill would be unnecessary and potentially conflicting if same gender marriage is approved by the court or the electorate.

This does not establish a reason for delay. First, the Attorney General has advised that a conditioned effective date may raise Constitutional questions. Since such concerns may serve as grounds for a Governor's veto, a date certain is preferable.

Second, H.B. No. 118 extends rights to more than same gender couples. All adult couples who are prohibited by law from marriage can become reciprocal beneficiaries under the bill. The rights of these citizens should not be held hostage to the Constitutional Amendment, and even if same gender marriage is legalized the bill would not be redundant since RB status would remain available to these couples.

And Third, to delay for eighteen months may hasten a ruling by the Supreme Court. The Court has not issued a final judgement on Baehr v. Miike and by the passage of this bill we will mitigate most of the actual damages suffered by the plaintiffs in that case. By providing timely access to actual relief we make it less necessary for the Court to rule and send a message that conflict and confrontation can be avoided. To delay access to these benefits will only encourage immediate judicial action.

Finally, delay would be unfair. If we agree, as we should, that at least these rights should be extended to nontraditional couples, we should do so now. It should offend our sense of justice to defer equal access to governmental benefits for no good reason -- It should offend our understanding of fairness to condition this, or any, rights package.

2. Private Sector Costs. The largest red herring attack on the bill is that it will impose costs upon the private sector. Simply there is no evidence to support any such concern.

The bulk of the so-called debate centers around prepaid health insurance. The bill indeed requires that reciprocal beneficiary coverage be made available on an equal basis with family coverage. But nowhere in our law is it required that employers provide family coverage. This bill does not do so. So no private employer will be required to provide reciprocal beneficiary coverage.

Some employers voluntarily pay for family coverage. This bill would permit them to do so for reciprocal beneficiaries. But this will be a matter of employer choice. And if they do provide such coverage, evidence from the 100 private employers, 49 colleges, 62 state or local governments, and 22 unions that provide some form domestic partner benefit have yet to report a single case of significant adverse impact.

In fact, according to a recent study by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, provided to us by HMSA, concludes that while a concern with increased costs have been raised, "What experience has borne out, does not support these fears. ... In general, there is no evidence to indicate that the average health care cost of domestic partner (same sex and/or opposite sex) will be significantly higher than that of a spouse." I have attached to my remarks a copy of the study for inclusion in the record..

3. Public Sector Costs. The only cost element that has been identified has been public sector health insurance participation. The State and County governments are required by law to pay sixty percent of family coverage. They will be similarly required to contribute to reciprocal beneficiary plans.

Cost figures as high as $13,000,000 have been bandied about. We have met with the Executive Director of the State Health Fund to determine the foundation for such estimates. In fact, they are based upon someone's arbitrary guesses as to participation rates.

Participation by 10% of eligible single-coverage employees and retirees could yield such a cost. But available evidence indicates that such a figure is probably between ten and 100 times too high. In response to an inquiry initiated by our Committee, the Spectrum Institute examined participation rates in various programs with a total of 35,000 employees (There are 48,000 government employees are covered in Hawaii.). The programs included Apple Computer, MCA/Universal, Viacom International, the Boston Globe and the Seattle Times. Participation rate was one-third of one percent. Even the City of San Francisco, the boogey man for homophobes, had a participation rate of .9% from among its 33,000 employees. I will include in the record the referenced communication and will be more than happy to make it available to any of my colleagues.

In fact, we can anticipate the participation may be even lower in Hawaii because we have almost achieved our State's goal of universal Health Insurance. Since employed single individuals are already covered by their employer, there is no reason to join the government program. So we are in all likelihood only talking about potential participation from among Reciprocal Beneficiary couples if one partner is unemployed or self-employed while the other is a government employee. Since approximately 90 percent of our citizens are covered by health insurance this should substantially reduce the pool.

Finally, though some costs may be incurred by government, the principle behind this bill requires that it be borne. Our State has a made a promise to pursue universal health insurance; our State has made a promise to participate in the funding of insurance for the loved ones of its government employees; and our State has promised not to discriminate on the basis of sex or invade the privacy of its citizens. We have not put a price on keeping these promises. Exaggeration and fear should not let us do so.

I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this bill.

Dear Senator Metcalf:

You inquired whether the Insurance Division anticipated any impact on mandated health benefits in the event the legislature passes a domestic partnership bill.

While a domestic partnership bill may result in two individuals being afforded the right to purchase family coverage (individual plus dependents), appropriate premiums will be charged for the family coverage. As such, the cost for services on mandated health benefits should not be impacted by redistribution of health premiums from individual only coverage to family coverage, if family coverage is afforded to domestic partners.

We hope this letter is responsive to your inquiry.

Very truly yours,

RE: H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1 (Relating to Unmarried Couples)

Dear Senators,

I am writing to you regarding the impact of the above referenced bill, on revenue and the Department of Taxation's (Department) operations. Under this proposal, a new status of reciprocal beneficiaries is created for people who are not eligible for marriage under chapter 572, Hawaii Revised Statutes. Certain requirements must be met before a reciprocal beneficiary relationship can be established, including a minimum age of 18 years of age and a minimum one year residency in Hawaii by each party. Enumerated benefits such as health care and tax benefits are extended to reciprocal beneficiaries.

To measure the impact on individual income tax revenue, we assumed the following hypothetical facts:

- 1% of the resident single and head-of-household returns, or 3,390, filed for tax year 1994 may be eligible to claim the new status.
- Using the 1993 and 1994 median adjusted gross income (AGI) for the single/head-of-household taxpayer, each eligible person claimed:
  - one personal exemption,
  - the standard deduction of $1,500,
  - the low-income renter's tax credit,
  - the excise tax credit, and
  - the food tax credit.

Under this hypothetical, if all individuals representing that 1% group established a reciprocal beneficiary relationship and filed income tax jointly, additional revenue to the state may approximate $400,000. In addition, if the taxpayers did not individually claim the renter's tax credit, an estimated $200,000 in revenues may accrue to the state general fund.

As single-status taxpayers, each is eligible for the standard deduction of $1,500 and the food, excise, and renter's tax credits. As joint filers, the allowable standard deduction declines from $3,000 ( $$1,500 \times 2$ ) to $1,900, a decrease of $1,100 per reciprocal beneficiary couple. Also, when taxpayers combine incomes resulting in AGI above $29,999, they are no longer eligible for the low-income renter's tax credit. Their average tax liability, as a result, would exceed the amounts they would have paid as single taxpayers.

The Department expects that there will be no negative impact on the administration of the tax laws as each reciprocal beneficiary couple will file either jointly or separately as married couples currently do.

Thank you for this opportunity to comment on this bill. For your convenience, we have attached a list of all tax provisions mentioned in this proposal. If you have any questions, please call me at 587-1510 or your staff may call Johnson Lau at 587-1562. Thank you.

Re: Expected Costs to Employer in Offering Health Coverage to Same-Sex Couples

Dear Senators:

You asked my opinion regarding any increase in costs to employers if they were required to offer health coverage to same-sex partners of employees.

Based on several studies, excerpts of which I have faxed to you, such employers could expect a negligible increase in health care costs.

Spectrum Institute's recent analysis of employers providing domestic partner health coverage to same-sex and opposite-sex couples shows that even with such broad coverage only about 1% of the workforce signs up. Costs are the same as or less than for spouses. Since employers have reported that less than 30% of these domestic partners are same-sex couples, it would appear that employers offering such coverage only to same-sex couples should expect an increase in health benefits premiums of about .3% -- that is, one-third of one percent.

Another barometer is the sign-up rate at employers offering domestic partnership health benefits to same-sex couples only. Taking the average of the 35,810 workers at the following employers offering only same-sex coverage, about .3% signed up. Again, the result is the same, costs increase by only one-third of one percent.

Apple Computer:	4,700 employees, 42 signed up = .9%
Montefiore Medical Center:	9,000 employees, 36 signed up = .4%
MCA/Universal:	15,000 employees, 15 signed up = .1%
Viacom International:	5,000 employees, 18 signed up = .4%
Boston Globe:	260 employees, 1 signed up = .4%
Seattle Times:	1,850 employees, 5 signed up = .3%

Obviously, there will be some price associated with adding same-sex partners onto a group health plan. No health care provider adds people without charging the employer any fee whatsoever. However, from all available data, the increase in cost -- one-third of one percent -- is negligible.

Furthermore, from the various studies I have reviewed, and from interviews with benefits managers at many employers, there have been no adverse financial consequences from adding domestic partnership health or dental benefits. Claims experiences have been very good, with the claims of same-sex partners being significantly less than the claims filed by married couples, mostly due to the fact that married couples sometimes have high costs associated with complicated pregnancies (a premature baby can cost hundreds of thousands of dollars).

Hewitt Associates, one of the world's most prestigious employee benefits consulting firms, has reported: "Experience thus far indicates employers are at no more risk when adding domestic partners than when adding spouses. In fact, experience indicates the cost of domestic partner benefits is lower than was anticipated."

The International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans has reported: "A related cost concern frequently expressed by employers is that an employee will falsely portray a domestic partnership to obtain health insurance coverage for a sick friend. This type of abuse, however, has not been reported among employers providing the benefit." The Foundation also has reported that employers have found that "domestic partnership coverage is the same as or less than spousal or other dependent coverage" when it comes to cost.

Your request for information was quite timely. This week I have been busy preparing a presentation about domestic partnership employment benefits for two business groups that are meeting in Indianapolis later this month. I will also be speaking to a large group of employers, insurers, and risk managers in Atlanta on the same subject this September.

If there is any other information that we can provide to the Legislature as it attempts to reach a decision on benefits for "reciprocal beneficiaries," please do not hesitate to call on us.

Very truly yours,

IV. Employers' Experience With Benefits For Domestic PartnersA. Government Employers<sup>1</sup>

1. California:

Berkeley

The City of Berkeley offers health and dental insurance, leave benefits (sick and bereavement), and hospitalization for domestic partners of city employees. These benefits were added various employee unions, in an effort to eliminate discrimination. The city hoped to achieve this goal by equalizing employee benefits between married and unmarried employees, treating employees fairly and with respect, and providing security with employees' choice of lifestyle. Overall, Berkeley's impression of health benefits for domestic partners is that it is, ". . .absolutely doable, absolutely fair . . .it DOES work."<sup>2</sup> In order to enroll a partner in the city's benefits plan, the employee and his or her partner must sign and file a standard affidavit of domestic partnership.<sup>3</sup> Although the couple must have lived together for at least six months prior to obtaining benefits, the city does not require proof of cohabitation, since it is not required of married couples.

Oakland

The City of Oakland extended its vision and dental benefits plans, as well as sick and bereavement leave to domestic partners of non-sworn city employees on February 1, 1993.<sup>4</sup> Benefits are available to partners regardless of gender, and enrollment requires a standard Declaration of Domestic Partnership form.<sup>5</sup> The waiting period between successive partnerships is one year.

As of August 1993, 49 couples have enrolled, 70 percent of which are opposite-sex. The city has encountered no opposition, fraud or other problems associated with domestic partnership benefits.<sup>6</sup>

Santa Cruz

Santa Cruz offers medical, dental, vision and hospitalization insurance, and sick and bereavement leave to all city, county, and transit district employees who have domestic partners. These benefits were first offered on May 1, 1986, as the result of bargaining between the city and the Service Employees International Union (SEIU).<sup>7</sup> By 1988 two other unions had negotiated these benefits in their contracts.

The city employs 675 people, 23 of whom have enrolled their domestic partners in the benefits plan. Of these, 3 are same-sex and 20 are opposite sex couples. While there have been up to 30 partners enrolled in the past, the drop is attributed to the IRS letter ruling to Seattle declaring that domestic partner health benefits are taxable income.<sup>8</sup>

Santa Cruz is primarily self-insured, but is re-insured by Lexington Insurance of Boston. Lexington agreed to add domestic partners to the group plan without requiring a surcharge.

The premiums for health insurance benefits for domestic partners are paid entirely by the city, for employees represented by SEIU. Employees represented by either of the other two unions must pay a portion of the premium for spousal and domestic partner coverage. As of September 1993, there have been no AIDS or other fraudulent claims filed by domestic partners, and there has been no additional cost associated with extended health benefits.<sup>9</sup> In order to enroll, the employee and his or her partner must file an affidavit, and provide proof that they have lived together for at least one year.

West Hollywood

West Hollywood offers, health, dental and vision insurance, sick, bereavement and unpaid leave for city employees' domestic partners.<sup>10</sup> After being turned down by 16 carriers, the city decided to self-insure health coverage for domestic partners in 1989. For the first half of 1989, costs to the city for health coverage dropped to $35,000, from the estimated $100,000 the city would have had to pay a commercial carrier.<sup>11</sup> There is a $20,000 cap per year on domestic partner claims. Although West Hollywood has tried repeatedly to get its HMO, Kaiser South, to recognize domestic partners, the city has had no success.

From July 1991 to July 1992, domestic partners filed a total of $7,112.72 in health claims, none of which were AIDS related. This figure represents less than two percent of the total health claims of $450,000 filed during that period. Currently there are five enrolled partners out of 135 benefits-eligible employees. Of these, two are same-sex male, one is same-sex female, and two are opposite sex couples.

The City has also offered general registration for domestic partners since 1985. As of October 1993, 395 partnerships have been filed, and 70 have been terminated. At least 15 of the terminations were due to the death or one of the partners. 336 of these have been same-sex male, 82 same-sex female, and 77 have been opposite sex couples. Many of these registered partnerships have lasted over ten years, and some twenty years or more. Landlord-tenant rights, jail and hospital visitation rights are afforded to those who register their partnerships with city hall. Unlike many cities, West Hollywood does not require that partners be romantically involved in order to register as a domestic partnership. Thus, senior citizens or others who have budget constraints may use domestic partnership to ease the cost of living.

Laguna Beach

Laguna Beach has offered medical, dental and sick leave to domestic partners of city employees since October 1990,<sup>12</sup> and general registration to city residents since April 1992.<sup>13</sup> Currently 6 of 226 employees have enrolled domestic partners in the health plan. One of these is homosexual, and the remaining five are heterosexual partnerships. Domestic partner health insurance is self-funded by Laguna Beach up to $50,000 per person per year, and reinsured by Hartford Life. Premiums are the same for domestic partners and spouses.

12 "Health Plan Coverage for Domestic Partners of City Employees," memorandum by Robert Gentry, Council Member.

13 City Council of the city of Laguna Beach, Ordinance No. 1230, "An Ordinance of the city council of the City of Laguna Beach adding Chapter 1.12 to the Laguna Beach Municipal Code relating to domestic partnerships," April 21, 1992.

The city reports that costs for domestic partner coverage are no higher than spousal coverage. Claims filed by domestic partners have been negligible, and there have been no fraudulent or AIDS-related claims.

General registration was also made available in July 1992. So far, 42 couples have registered, 95 percent of which are homosexual. General registration affords partners visitation rights in jails and hospitals, as well as durable power of attorney health care and other authorized purposes.

Santa Cruz County

Santa Cruz offer medical, dental and hospital insurance, and visitation, sick and bereavement leave to county employees.<sup>14</sup> The premiums for domestic partner medical coverage must be paid entirely by employees. The health plan is self-funded, with 35 partners out of two thousand employees currently enrolled. Santa Cruz has had no AIDS claims filed by domestic partners, and has experienced no other unusual costs associated with the extended coverage.<sup>15</sup>

San Matteo County

In 1990, San Matteo added two new groups of dependents to its self-funded dental and Employee Assistance Programs by replacing the term "traditional family" with "extended family. The first group is "Young Adult Dependents" (YAD's), employees up to age 30, and the second is domestic partners. A domestic partner is defined as an unrelated adult who resides in the household of the employee, and who meets all of the criteria listed in the "Affidavit of Domestic Partnership."<sup>16</sup>

With the addition of these new categories of dependents, the county began offering sick and bereavement leave for partnere4d employees. As of September 1993, 65 employees have enrolled domestic partners for purposes of these leave benefits. Eighty percent (80 percent) of these relationships are heterosexual.

In August 1992, all medical, dental and vision insurance was made available to domestic partners and "YAD's." As of September 1993, 139 domestic partners have enrolled in the county's various health coverages (103 medical, 123 dental, 123 vision).<sup>17</sup>

Health coverage for domestic partners is provided by Kaiser and Bay Pacific, the county's two HMO's. Kaiser added a surcharge of less than one dollar per month per partner, to be in effect for three years, in spite of opposition from county officials.

Conversely, Bay Pacific, now AETNA, decided to add a surcharge only if a year's experience proved unusually high utilization. Since the first year proved no such additional utilization, AETNA has renewed its contract with the county with no added charge for domestic partner coverage.

The county has encountered no fraudulent or AIDS related claims among domestic partners of its employees.

2. Connecticut:

Hartford

As of July 1, 1993, gay or unmarried couples from anywhere in Connecticut will be able to register their relationships with City Hall.<sup>18</sup> On the first day that registration was available, five couples (three female, two male) obtained the official recognition of their relationships.

3. Ben & Jerry's Homemade

Ben & Jerry's Homemade, Inc. has recognized domestic partnerships since October 1989. Employees may enroll their domestic partners in the company's health and dental plans. Neither Ben & Jerry's nor its carrier, Consumers United, has experienced any increase in cost as the result of offering coverage to domestic partners.

Ben & Jerry's pays the entire premium for salaried employees, and part of the premium for domestic partners. Of a total employee pool of 498, approximately 25 have signed up for coverage.<sup>19</sup> Stanford University reports that "most" of the enrolled partnerships are heterosexual.<sup>20</sup> Ben & Jerry's has encountered no arguments against domestic partnership recognition.

In order to qualify for benefits, the couple must fill out a declaration of domestic partnership which states that they have lived together for at least three months, and that neither has had another domestic partner during that time.

Children of the domestic partner may also be covered, as long as they have lived with the employee for at least 3 months, are not related, and rely on the employee for their general care and welfare.

4. Levi Strauss

Levi Strauss began offering medical coverage to domestic partners on June 1, 1992, in response to employee suggestion.<sup>21</sup> Although this coverage is generally the same as that which is offered to spouses, there are some medical underwriting provisions for the first year, which limit the benefits available to domestic partners during that time.

Levi's is largely self-insured, and pays 88% of the health premiums for domestic partners. Employees who elect domestic partner coverage must pay the remaining 12% of the cost, and the value of the benefit is considered taxable income to the employee.<sup>22</sup>

During Levi's open enrollment period for its "front office" employees (located in the Bay Area or in managerial positions in other locations), only 5% of 3,300 employees requested information, and only 1% actually signed up for health coverage. Levi Strauss employs more than 23,000 people. Approximately 60% of enrollees are opposite-sex, another 35% are same-sex male, and a trace are same-sex female.

Levi's has had a, ". . .very favorable experience (with domestic partner benefits). We were expecting to see a cost, and we were all surprised that 15% of employee contribution has exceeded claims, representing a profit."<sup>23</sup> In addition, support

Domestic partner benefits on the upswing

The number of employers extending health benefits to domestic partners is on the rise as fears of increased AIDS claims begin to dissipate

AT A TIME WHEN MOST EMPLOYERS are trying to cut health care costs wherever possible, a small but growing number of employers are extending medical benefits to employees' domestic partners.

The latest to join the fold is Silicon Graphics, Inc., the nation's leading maker of visual computing systems, which on October 1 extended employee benefits to same-sex partners. Silicon Graphics, of Mountain View, Cal., joins Lotus Development Corp., Levi Strauss & Co., Ben & Jerry's Homemade, the American Psychological Association, Greenpeace, the American Civil Liberties Union, and the cities of Berkeley and Santa Cruz, Calif., Madison, Wis., and Seattle, as entities that have extended benefits to domestic partners.

Fear of AIDS claims. The employers that have adopted domestic partners' benefits so far have done so largely as a result of strong employee demand, a desire to gain an advantage in the competition for employees, or a belief that it is the right thing to do. A critical concern of many of these employers, almost all of whom are self-insured, was the possibility that such benefits would raise the number of AIDS-related cases and thus the cost of providing health care. But what little information is currently available suggests that the fear may be unfounded.

Seattle, for example, reports that its claims experience for domestic partners has been the same as for married or single employees. Berkeley has found essentially the same thing, and dropped the 1.5% surcharge it initially charged on medical premiums for domestic partners. And for insurers, the cost of AIDS claims is not as severe as originally thought, according to a survey by the St. Louis office of Milliman & Robertson, Inc. More than 72% of the insurers said that AIDS claims made up less than 1% of total claims paid.

Legal problems raised. The decision to extend partners' benefits, however, raises other problems that employers need to consider before they follow suit, according to Thomas Coleman, executive director of the Family Diversity Project in Los Angeles, a nonprofit group that fights marital status discrimination.

For example, in extending the benefit to domestic partners, some companies only extend the benefit to same-sex partners on the theory that they are the only ones who are for-bidden by law to marry. If the employer is in a state or a locality with a law prohibiting sexual orientation discrimination, the decision may engender lawsuits from heterosexual unmarried employees on the basis that the company is guilty of a type of reverse sexual orientation discrimination, he says.

Employers also need to consider the ramifications of their decision to ask same-sex employees to sign a "spousal equivalency" affidavit that has not been common among employers that have extended the benefit to domestic partners. Coleman warns that the affidavit could create property or status rights in some states. If so, employers may subject themselves to charges that they failed to adequately advise employees of the implications of signing the affidavit, he says. □

Most insurers say AIDS claims make up less than 1% of total claims paid.

Employer Experience and Costs

"What will it cost"? This question tops the list of employer concerns when discussion turns to offering domestic partner benefits. With health costs rising, employers tread lightly when expanding coverage and exposing themselves to additional risks. Generally speaking, and contrary to warnings and predictions by insurers and others, extending coverage to domestic partners has not resulted in statistically significant differences in cost. Adverse selection has not been a problem.

Experience thus far indicates employers are at no more risk when adding domestic partners than when adding spouses. In fact, experience indicates the cost of domestic partner benefits is lower than was anticipated. Part of the lower cost can be attributed to the fact that eligible employees tend to be younger and, as a result, healthier. Enrollment rates among domestic partners have been lower than predicted, probably because many domestic partners are already covered by their own employers' plans. Also, any increased risk of AIDS among male same-sex couples appears to be offset by a decreased risk among female same-sex partners. And same-sex domestic partners have a near-zero risk of pregnancy.

Typically, only up to 2% to 3% or less of all employees elect domestic partner coverage at organizations offering the benefit. In planning for domestic partner coverage, many employers had assumed or anticipated enrollment rates of around 10%. For example, fourteen Lotus employees initially signed up for domestic partner coverage, for a 0.45% sign-up rate. Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx, NY reported a 0.29% enrollment rate (20 out of 7,000 employees). Apple Computer reported a 0.9% initial enrollment figure, or 42 employees out of approximately 4,700 eligible employees. Levi Strauss had 230 out of 25,000 employees enroll their domestic partners for a 1.0% sign-up rate. Public sector employers experienced somewhat higher enrollment rates: 5.6% for West Hollywood, CA; 2.3% for Seattle, WA; and 1.4% for Berkeley, CA. However, it should be noted that all three public employers extend coverage to both same-sex and opposite-sex domestic partners. Only Levi Strauss does so among the private employers mentioned above.

Overall, approximately 67% of the couples electing domestic partner coverage are opposite-sex couples. In Berkeley, CA, 80% of the couples were opposite-sex couples; in Seattle, WA, 70% were opposite-sex; and at Levi Strauss, 60% were opposite-sex couples. This enrollment pattern lowers the risk of catastrophic claims from AIDS victims. Proponents of domestic partner coverage also point out that, according to the most recent Federal AIDS Cost and Utilization Survey, the average lifetime medical cost of HIV treatment is $119,000 per patient. By way of comparison, the cost of a kidney transplant can be as high as $200,000 and the cost of premature infant care can run anywhere from $50,000 to $1,000,000.

Insurance company attitudes have not changed much over the last few years as some experience data becomes available. Many of the large, well-known insurers still refuse to cover domestic partners, although some (including Aetna Life & Casualty, CIGNA, and Prudential) have now started offering the coverage in at least some parts of the country.

Self-insured employers have an advantage when it comes to covering domestic partner health benefits. A self-insured employer can generally expand coverage without regard to any limitations that may be imposed by an insurance company, HMO, etc.

Senator Anderson rose to speak on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this particular measure, primarily because we've had so many problems with DLNR and here again we're allowing them to go ahead and exempt certain commercial marine dealers from having to report monthly; increased time commercial marine dealers are required to keep receipts; allow DLNR to require license from persons to export any marine life taken in the state for commercial purposes. And it then authorizes DLNR any terms or conditions of licenses through rules and adoptions of such.

"And these are the problems that we've had in the past with DLNR. It's a continuing problem that's going to, I think, not go away. They've caused a lot of businesses a lot of heartaches. A lot of business people are going to have to go out of business because their permits have escalated in cost because they didn't like the way we wrote our bills. And for these reasons I have a lot of concerns in giving them all of these authorized exemptions that they have full regulations over.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1599, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 1599, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A COMMERCIAL MARINE DEALER LICENSE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Slom). Excused, 1 (Fernandes Salling).

Senator Bunda rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, on the 16th of April I had written you a memo regarding the assignment of conferees on the privatization issue. I asked that the Committee on Government Operations and Housing would have lead standing on the conference, citing Senate Rule 13(4). Today, Mr. President, I received that response and it was denying the request. Although it was written after the conferees were named, at least I got the response, and for that I thank you, Mr. President.

"However, Mr. President, the last statement of your response sort of troubles me because I believe it is pure conjecture on your part. Your statement reads and I quote: 'As an aside, your vote with reservations on the Senate position on the privatization issue does not by itself preclude your serving as a conference committee co-chair. However, when coupled with your public support of the House's position, your ability to defend the Senate's position on this important issue is doubtful.'

"Mr. President, I believe you are referring to a Star-Bulletin article on April 21 which stated 'The Senate Government Operations and Housing Chair Robert Bunda appeared pleased by the House's ploy because the House mirrors his position.' Mr. President, this was the reporter's impression, not my statement. What I expressed then was my concern over leadership's failure to name conferees for the negotiations.

"Mr. President, if you would have only sat down with me and discussed this matter, you would have found that my position is very clear. We really need to solve this matter this session. Whether the solution be a moratorium with parameters or to go back to pre-Konno status, these are Senate positions, and I could support these positions. But to write with conjecture on your part, Mr. President, without collaboration, which is your theme, causes this organization to operate on a personal level rather than basing our decisions on what is best for the public.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. It is related to the previous speaker and this morning's paper which states, 'Maui may cancel contracts.' There was also a statement that leaders of two unions charge that Lingle may be 'overreacting,' 'last-minute scare tactic,' etc.

"It sort of puzzled me in wondering who can sue or who can take action on this issue. Is it only a union leader? So I posed that question to our Attorney General's Office in asking who can take legal action. Can any public employee take legal action? In essence, the answer is any civil service employee or applicant for a civil service position who can establish that they were adversely affected or aggrieved can take some action on a privatization issue. In the past suit there was an employee who concurrently filed with the Civil Service Commission and with the court. So it isn't only one person, or a leader, who can say we can take action, but any civil servant or potential civil servant.

"But also, I'd like to read this last paragraph which, you know, we can say yeah, common sense, civil servant who's displaced, maybe not being promoted, but this paragraph 'based on the foregoing, we conclude that the union is not the only party who can maintain an action to challenge the public employee's action. Furthermore, in light of Hawaii court's somewhat expansive view of taxpayers' standing to sue, it is likely that any taxpayer could maintain a suit if they could show that the cost of government would be increased by a decision either to privatize or not to privatize the government function.'

"So Mr. President, some people think a moratorium works; some people take light of the court's decision. The court said we need to take action -- we, meaning this legislature. And I believe and many others believe it's not by a moratorium and it's not letting the existing law work because the existing law doesn't work. Clearly, if anybody can sue, even though one person or another person might say well I'll only pick on one or two people or one or two instances, being that possibly anyone can sue, we need to take action decisively and clear this up this session, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I agree with the previous speakers, both of them, but I also stand because I was reading the editorial this morning in the Honolulu Advertiser and it states, 'State budget talks must confront reality.' It has the ring of truth to it and long past time that conferences on the budget get down to business and make long-term economic policies.

"But the media is to blame also, Mr. President. I've stood here. My colleagues have stood here. We've made comments about how the economy is failing. You don't read that too much in the newspapers unless they want to write in editorials. We read about same-sex marriages; we read about our high-three; we read about the automobile insurance; but we don't read about all of the economy and how it's going down the tube, and how we have to be very realistic about this.

"Also, in our finance committee hearings when one of the chairmen will say that we'll have to look at the economy and be realistic about it, the cameras go off. And I've watched them say, 'Cut, don't go ahead and do that.' You have a responsibility as the media business to make sure that the public knows what's going on around here. Otherwise, we're talking to ourselves and the people in the gallery. We're really not getting out to what is really happening in our state. And I think that they have held our feet to the fire so that we can go ahead and finish the people's business, rather than play power plays.

"And the administration is wrong because they've given no guidance to us. They have come down with really no facts except to take every special fund that we have and utilize it. I was asked the other day by a Representative in the House that said, 'Why didn't you folks pass my resolution?' It asked for an audit of a special fund that should be looked at and it was the training fund that we took away. Why audit a fund that's not there? Why go ahead and have short term plans so that we can go ahead and say, 'Here's the budget'? And it's not going to go anywhere; it's not going to help our economy. We need long term planning.

"And yes, I've looked at all of the figures that we have in the budget. And it's very true, we are looking at the first year and there is money for '99, but that's where the big cuts are and that's if the economy goes up. And that's what we should do is stimulate this economy so it does go up. And DLNR is not doing their job. DCCA is not doing their job.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I think that we have to finish the power plays around here; finish the work that we have, and go home. But we most certainly don't have to rush it and I don't think we need an extension. If we're going to do anything, take one day's recess or two. But let's not play games around here. Let's finish what we're supposed to do. And the media -- do your job, instead of playing games and saying all we're worried about is certain things and the public doesn't even know what's going on.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

At 12:06 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:11 o'clock p.m.

The Senate version would have made the ten-year mandatory minimum also applicable to the distribution of drugs to minors. Unfortunately, the House was very stubborn, and we hope that the House will revisit that position next session.

We agree with the language which allows the DOE to promulgate its own rules regulating after-school, weekend, and summer recess programs. "Mr. President, I'm sorry for raising this issue at this late date, but I stand on a point of personal privilege, as well.

"Mr. President, Senator Bunda raised an issue regarding Senate Rule 13(4) regarding committee chairmen in terms of Standing Committees during conference. Mr. President, you know when you referred the names, when you appointed the members to the Conference Committee regarding privatization, you had the co-chairs of WAM as the lead, I guess, co-chairs, and the members of Government Operations and, I guess, Human Resources as being only members. Is that basically a violation ... not a violation, but is that ... are you not ignoring the Rule 13(4) on that issue?"

The Chair responded:

"In my opinion, I am not, because if you look at those two bills that have the amendments relating to privatization, that bill really has financial impact. The bill deals with the convention center funding and also the Health Fund funding. So it is my opinion that the bill rightfully belongs in Ways and Means."

Senator M. Ige interjected:

"The only problem with that, Mr. President, and I wrestled with that same argument last evening, is that in your Rules you specifically state that subject matter -- the subject matter that had the subject matter -- it doesn't mention bill or anything of that nature, but basically subject matter shall have jurisdiction over that measure during conference."

The Chair stated:

"It is going on a case by case basis and I have ruled that there is fiscal impact. A majority of that bill has fiscal impact so I have given the co-chairs of WAM primary responsibility."

Senator M. Ige then said:

"I guess, Mr. President, one of the points I'd like to make is that I was hoping that you could make all of us co-chairs, as in the memo that Senator Bunda gave to you, only because just this morning alone Mayor Lingle said that she'll be cancelling, basically, contracts for 200 people and the fact that Chairman Say is asking for an extension.

"You know, we were here on Saturday. I left here at 2:30 in the morning. Last evening I left at midnight. And I just hope that we have the time to collaborate and the chairs would give sufficient time to address this issue because it affects the entire state. And at this point, you know, I'm glad that Chair Fukunaga asked for a waiver of the notice requirement but there's really no time set. And it's my understanding that these fiscal bills need to be decked by midnight Friday. And you know, the Government Operations and Housing Committee had extensive hearings. We had informational briefings and still we're far apart on finding some compromise to this issue.

"And you know, I was going to do a vigil here to force you to assign me as one of the co-chairs, but if I did, knowing you, you would turn off the light and lock the doors and I'd have no water and food, so rather than do a vigil, you know, I just want to appeal to your conscience to say ... well basically, I'm begging you to allow the co-chairs to serve as co-chairs and not just as conferees so that we can take this measure into conference. Give us the sufficient amount of time necessary to work out this very sensitive issue. And I ask that of you in good spirit and I hope you will seriously consider my request.

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 11 and S.C.R. No. 11, H.D. 1, be finally adopted, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator Solomon explained:

"The House generally has agreed with the Senate. They made no amendments to the resolution and we would like to recommend that we agree."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 11 and S.C.R. No. 11, H.D. 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A TASK FORCE ON NATIVE HAWAIIAN CULTURAL FOOD RESOURCES," was finally adopted.

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'm very pleased to report that your Committee on Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs was able to come up with what I feel is a very reasonable package as it pertains to the Hawaiian issues. Mr. President, it was a very, very difficult conference being that we were dealing with the House who had refused to move on the native claims. As of two o'clock this afternoon they were still unwilling to move. The House had very, very strong mana'o and positions that were within the ceded land bill. As to the retroactivity of the Heely decision, we've been able to get the House to move off of that position.

"Mr. President, I'd like to report to my colleagues that we cannot satisfy all of the Hawaiian groups, but I did make a comment to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs chairman, Trustee Hee, who was a fellow colleague of ours here in the Senate, that OHA has resources that they can rally on their own and if they are very dissatisfied with what the bill intends and does, they can act accordingly as to how they can benefit the Hawaiians.

"But I was more concerned, Mr. President, with the native claims which involved 165 kupuna who've been waiting on the Hawaiian Homes list -- some of them for over 50 years, those that were disenfranchised, those that had no real strong advocate on their behalf. I felt it imperative that the Senate package those two bills so that we could kokua those that needed our help most.

"And the reason for that, Mr. President, is that it's really our generation which can do something about it. We saw our parents and our grandparents being kicked out of Kalama Valley, we saw them getting kicked out of Sand Island, we've seen them being displaced off the Hawaiian Homes' waiting list, some of them dying in the process. For me, Mr. President, this is a very emotional issue. I cannot divorce my emotions because we have been deliberating on these issues for the past 20 years in this body.

"I get very, very distressed, Mr. President, when I read in the newspaper that now they're blaming the bond rating of this state on the Hawaiian issue. I cannot accept that. It's not just the Hawaiian issues and the uncertainties by the Judiciary in their interpretations, Mr. President. What about the economy? What about the bankruptcies that we're seeing everyday in the State of Hawaii? And to have the newspapers and some people out there blaming the Hawaiians for the poor bond rating in the State of Hawaii because the Hawaiians only want justice and what they rightfully deserve, I find that totally unacceptable!

"And I'm hoping, Mr. President, that as we bring this Legislature to a close, that I can convince each and every one of my colleagues sitting here as to how ridiculous -- how ridiculous -- that kind of thinking can be. And if I cannot, Mr. President, heaven help this state; heaven help the Democrat Party which struggled, struggled so hard for so many years to help those who are disenfranchised, to help those who have not received justice, to help those who have been unfairly treated, to help lift people up, to give them hope, and to give them guidance. And we in the Senate can come up with just that, Mr. President, in our Hawaiian package. We are creating the process. We've agreed to a land inventory, agreed to a process that would bring these issues to a closure.

"And it disturbs me, Mr. President, when I see many of the law firms downtown getting involved in this issue! When we see the law firms trying to put their mana'o into the bill about the land fees. When we have the law firms downtown, Mr. President, advocating the position that it's the Hawaiians and the uncertainty they created that are causing the problem. That really disturbs me greatly! I thought we had come away from that kind of thinking. That was the kind of mana'o we had 150 years ago when we were dominated by the Big Five, when we were dominated by the plantations, when we were dominated by the missionary influence in this state. We, as all racial groups in this state, have risen above all of that, Mr. President, and how we treat the Hawaiians is how we treat ourselves.

"Yes, I am emotional and I have every right to be so, because in my political tenure I've seen the Hawaiians give up a lot so that we can remain part of this process. We believed in negotiation. Mr. President, we had a kingdom with treaties with 15 foreign nations. We had our own postal service. We had a public education system. We understood what it means to be part of a legislative process. This is why we're not in a situation like Bosnia or Ireland where people are bearing arms to settle their disputes. People have faith in us, faith in the process, faith in democracy, to bring about justice and resolve. This is what Hawaii is all about. This is what makes us great in the world. This is what the Spirit of Aloha is.

"And, Mr. President, I am counting on you and the Senate leadership to guide us through these turbulent times, to bring justice to the Hawaiian people that is the basis of this state, the culture of which has made tourism No. 1 in our economy. The Hawaiians have sacrificed and gave up their primary recreational areas so that we could push and drive our economy forward. I'm counting on you, Mr. President, and the leadership in the House to be sure that when these issues are decided, that we are going to be able to stand firm and 'onipa'a behind what is right.

"Thank you very much."

"Mr. President, I'd like to speak in opposition to Gov. Msg. No. 308, gubernatorial nominee Gary L. Smith.

"I personally do not know the nominee but I was in the committee. We received testimony in opposition by two people. We then deferred this and on about the third day we received a lot of papers in favor of the nominee. However, the opposition that was given was because the person did not have the compassion for the position of the Independent Living Council. He did not understand fully, evidently, the needs of these people that he would be serving. The people that sent in all of the recommendations on his behalf were from that particular council and it was on his administrative ability. I don't think that's what we were looking at. When you're dealing with people you have to be compassionate, understand their needs, and consequently I don't believe that was the case with Mr. Smith's nomination. So I am voting 'no' for that particular nominee.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Solomon also rose in opposition and said:

"Mr. President, I also will be voting 'no' on the same person as mentioned by the previous speaker, Gary L. Smith, in Gov. Msg. No. 308."

"Mr. President, could you cast a 'no' vote for me also."

Senator Slom also stated:

"Mr. President, cast a 'no' vote for me, please."

Senator Sakamoto rose in opposition and said:

"Mr. President, similarly, I also sit on the committee and in reviewing nominees, I think there are many opportunities for these people to serve, but on this type of council I think people need to work together and I would prefer a nominee who would be more harmonious in that cooperative spirit, Mr. President. So I vote 'no,' as well."

Senator Kawamoto noted:

"'No' vote, also, Mr. President."

Senator Bunda rose and stated:

"A 'no' vote also."

Senator Iwase remarked:

"A 'no' vote. Thank you."

Senator Aki added:

"Mr. President, cast a 'no' vote for me also."

Senator M. Ige then said:

"Mr. President, I haven't voted 'no' on a ... well it's my second 'no' vote on a nominee, but could the words of Senator Sakamoto be inserted into the Journal as though they were my own. Thank you."

The Chair so ordered.

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 160 (H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 160 be adopted and H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, regretfully I rise to speak against the budget bill.

"I know that there were an awful lot of hours and hard work put into this bill, but unfortunately I'm looking at the budgets that every single mom, every family, and every small business owner has had to contend with. And unfortunately, Mr. President, this budget does not reflect the economic hardships that are faced by the people of Hawaii. It has some items in it that should not be here and we're generally faced with a situation of taking the lesser of several evils or taking the good along with the bad.

"But for those people who have already lost their jobs, people who have lost their homes to foreclosures and are going to, and those people who have lost their businesses to bankruptcies and are going to, I think we owe them a greater service and to provide a budget that is not going to take more of their income, more of their take-home pay. Unfortunately, Mr. President, despite the hard work, this budget would not provide any more income, no financial choices for our citizens, be they individuals or businesses. Therefore, I cast a 'no' vote.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise supporting the measure but I feel I must express my concerns.

"We're clearly supporting the tourist industry -- appropriating $26 million for marketing in fiscal 1997-98; $24 million for 1998-99; plus $10 million of emergency marketing funds already appropriated. We're supporting the construction industry with the governor's $1 billion CIP budget. We support the airline industry with the aircraft maintenance tax credit, hotel industry with the remodeling tax credit. We even have a tax credit for motion pictures and a tax credit for a non-existing stock exchange, but, Mr. President, where is the support for Hawaii's 29,000 small businesses? They are the life blood of our state's economy.

"In the original Senate budget, Senator Fernandes Salling presented a diversified economic stimulus tax package that would have supported many small businesses and improved our local business economy. This body supported that a few weeks ago, yet today small businesses are begging leadership for its support, continually communicating its needs to you. We offered them little relief, little support.

"Mr. President, leadership has said no, to requests for coordinated care; no, to the clear privatization message; no, to a major portion of the small business package. Leadership did not even deliver the job reference liability bill. That bill would have helped both employers and employees applying for jobs. And Mr. President, in this budget you're saying no ... you forgot them again.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Iwase rose to support the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I'm rising to speak in support of the budget, but I would like to incorporate the comments of the Senator from Moanalua as if they were my own, and I would like to emphasize them very strongly.

"I am somewhat disappointed that a lot of the job measures are not supporting jobs and the creation of business has been deleted. I do know how hard, as the Senator from Moanalua pointed out, how hard the co-chair from Kauai sought to have a tax revenue enhancement package. It's not here.

"I think this is a budget that, at least, emphasizes education, but I think we leave short the emphasis that we need to have on job creation and on business and I would hope that leadership would pursue these next year.

"Thank you."

Senator Fukunaga rose in support of the measure and said:

"In response to some of the prior remarks, Mr. President, I believe the Ways and Means Committee very definitely wanted to provide as much relief to small businesses as we could. However, I would like to point out that among the measures we agreed to is S.B. No. 147, Relating to Taxation, in which we did address the pyramiding of leases.

"We also had a small business loan guaranty measure which we have agreed upon, and while we have not been able to pass as many of the tax exemptions as the Senator from Moanalua would like, it's important to note that we have held down the growth of government as much as possible -- such that general fund growth in this biennium budget is 0.7 percent.

"For all of those reasons, Mr. President, I would urge my colleagues to vote in support of this bill. Thank you."

Senator Solomon also supported the measure as follows:

"I am also rising, Mr. President, in support of the budget bill and I would like to incorporate both Senator's remarks, the Senators from Moanalua and Mililani, as though they were my own.

"Mr. President, I also would like to commend the co-chairwoman from Kauai for her courageous tax package that, in fact, would have helped to diversify our economy, would have helped small business, and it's just unfortunate that the leadership in this State Senate could not see its way clear to maybe hold the line a little firmer to at least get our Senate positions more incorporated into the budget.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Chun Oakland rose to speak in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I would also like to speak in favor of H.B. No. 350.

"With regard to the budget area relating to human services, I do want to thank the co-chairs and members of the Ways and Means Committee, as well as the entire Legislature, for supporting the restoration of funds in the areas of general assistance, in particular, to the point of $27 million per year. I would also like to point out that the funding for assistance to families with dependent children, as well as immigrants, are in the budget this year, and I very much appreciate that on behalf of our committee and the families that will be affected very positively.

"Thank you."

Senator Tam, also rising in support of the bill, then stated:

"Mr. President, I wish to speak in favor of H.B. No. 350, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, relating to the state budget.

"Before speaking on H.B. No. 350, C.D. 1, I wish to thank my colleagues on the Senate Ways and Means Committee, especially the co-chairpersons. A special thanks goes to the staff of the Senate Ways and Means Committee staff for their dedication in the formation of a people's budget. Thank you for working 20 hours a day (I speak from experience).

"Mr. President, fellow colleagues, and the citizens of the State of Hawaii, I speak in favor of the state budget for public education. The education budget is a progressive and quality budget for Hawaii's public school students. Personally, as a parent of a public school student, I am pleased with this legislature's education budget. The budget maintains a firm education funding for classroom needs in a period of economic sluggish times and even adds more dollars to classroom needs. The highlights of the education budget are as follows:

1. It maintains the student-teacher ratio of 20 to 1 students in kindergarten to third grades.
2. $2,500,000 additional dollars for instructional materials (textbooks, workbooks, computer programs, etc.).
3. Full funding for special education needs according to federal and state laws.
4. Full funding for full-time school registrar positions at all intermediate schools statewide, whereby $296,322 for FY 1997-98 and $355,524 for FY 1998-99.
5. $35,000,000 in general funds and an additional $17,000,000 in CIP (Capital Improvement Project) for school repair and maintenance.
6. Full-time Athletic Care Specialists (Athletic Trainers) in every public high school at a cost of $296,322 for FY 1997-98 and $355,524 for FY 1998-99.
7. Expansion of the Hawaiian Language Immersion Program for kindergarten to 12th grade. $25,000 for FY 1997-98.
8. Additional $25,000 for the statewide Annual Conference of Secondary School Students to include grades 7-12, where students actively contribute to plans towards quality education.

"In closing, Mr. President and fellow colleagues, and for the record, I request Governor Cayetano to utilize the federal impact aid money, about $20,000,000 to be given to the state of Hawaii in October 1997 to supplement the state general fund budgets for A+ and the After-School Remedial Program. In doing so, our public school students will not have to pay increased fees. The purpose of the federal impact aid money is to supplement the educational financial program needs that the State general fund budget is unable to. Thank you."

Senator Anderson rose to speak on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this bill. I did have some on its first go-around. I stood up and told the rest of my colleagues that I was very proud to be a Senator and I thought that we were keeping in tune with the Council of Revenues. Since then we have gone way overboard, Mr. President, and it bothers me that not only are there increases but the increase in the CIP is even over and above what the governor originally intended. It's something in the tune of providing $1.3 billion for fiscal year 1998, an increase of 76 percent over '97; a $1.14 billion for fiscal year 1999, an increase of 52.1 percent.

"Now, I want to make sure that we help our businesses as much as anybody else, but I most certainly don't want to stand here as a Senator and a minority and give the governor the option to give whatever jobs he feels he should be giving or hold back what he wants to. If we're going to do this because next year is going to be an election year ... and he can call us irresponsible, because he would. He can go ahead and pass whatever he wants to and say I'm going to hold back because these people were irresponsible, passing out a budget that is exceeding what we can afford. And that's exactly what we've allowed him to do and we played the game.

"I also have concerns because we did not pass tax incentives for the businesses. Both Senator Slom and Senator Sakamoto are absolutely right. We did nothing for business. What happened to the 80 percent that businesses could write off if they took people out? We didn't pass that. But read your paper, ladies and gentlemen -- restaurants and businesses are going down the tube, and yet we sit here and we say, 'Well, we've done well. We gave the HVB $10 million plus the other money that we're going to give them.' We give them money every year

"We did a great job because we gave money to diversified ag. We do that every year. Don't talk about what we do every year -- talk about what we're not doing. We're not cutting government. We're over-spending. We're taking special funds and using them. The teachers ... God, I want to give them a raise as much as anybody else, but then we do a payroll lag and they get to pay for some of their own raises that they're going to get.

"Why don't we look at this realistically and try to do the job that we're elected for. And if we're doing a bad job, hell, let them kick us out. But no, everybody is worried. They say, I have to get reelected so I can do a better job. You're not even doing the job that you're elected for, in the first place.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President. That's why I have some reservations."

Senator Tam rose again and stated:

"Mr. President and fellow colleagues, I failed to mention one other part in the budget which I'm very pleased to announce and that is $250,000 for additional library books within our budget for each year. The reason I bring this up is because, remember we had this issue of the Baker & Taylor contract which, unfortunately, is causing us great pain throughout the whole State of Hawaii and the public has spoken out that they wish to cancel this contract because it does not do any public service need, and therefore, what we have done is to give the Board of Education the option to cancel the contract. And in order to cover for the selection process to purchase additional library books, we included in each fiscal year, $250,000. So now it's in the hands of the Board of Education to cancel the contract as their option.

"Thank you."

Senator McCartney supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the budget.

"Mr. President, I'd just like to thank the two co-chairs for their hard work. It was a very challenging session -- a time when declining revenues are still facing us and many needs are on the table. If you look at the budget, I think they were faced with multiple needs and limited resources, and balancing the budget is a challenge, especially in conference. And I think that we realize that government can't be all things to all people and some tough decisions and tough choices need to be made.

"This budget reflects the reality of today's economy and is designed to stimulate it, and therefore, Mr. President, I support it.

"Thank you."

Senator Levin spoke in support of the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to reiterate the comments made by the Majority Leader. I definitely share his sentiments and I rise in favor of the bill.

"In particular, I want to praise both the co-chairs and the staff. It wasn't very long ago, but perhaps we need to be reminded, that we were dropped a $270 million bombshell. That was just a few weeks ago, and the staff and the co-chairs took on the task of balancing the budget in spite of that. They did the job calmly, efficiently. We have managed to fund the collective bargaining agreements, the other programs that are needed. We have managed to balance the budget within the parameters set forth for us, and it was a tremendous accomplishment. And I think they deserve a lot of credit and support.

"Thank you."

FINAL READING

S.B. No. 26, H.D. 1:

Senator Tam moved that S.B. No. 26, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Kawamoto rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise in support of this bill.

"The purpose of this bill is to clarify the responsibility of parents and guardians for minors' compliance with the Student Code of Conduct adopted by the Board of Education. This bill also clarifies that destruction of school property by a student is reason to subject parents and guardians to proceedings under Chapter 302A, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"The principals of the Leeward District would like to have this to administer their programs in their schools. So I urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 26, H.D. 1, and S.B. No. 26, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PARENT AND GUARDIAN RESPONSIBILITY FOR MINOR," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 3 (Chumbley, Ige, D., Matsunaga). Excused, 1 (Taniguchi).

MATTER DEFERRED FROM FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1997

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1 (H.B. No. 117, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1 be adopted and H.B. No. 117, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Matsunaga supported the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. President, this measure proposes an amendment to our constitution which would provide simply that 'The legislature shall have the power to reserve marriage to opposite-sex couples.'

"Last session, a majority of this body opposed any constitutional amendment which addressed the issue of same gender marriage. This opposition was based on the belief that the provision of equal rights through the provision of domestic partnership status would moot the Supreme Court's ruling in Baehr v. Lewin and thereby retain marriage's opposite gender reservation while ensuring equal access to government benefits for all of Hawaii's citizens. The House of Representatives, on the other hand, sought to resolve the issue by simply barring same gender marriage in a way that we felt smacked of animus and potentially perverted our constitution.

"This year we have made a commitment to put to rest the public furor over this issue. In an effort to reach agreement with the House, we proposed a constitutional amendment to allow the voters of this state to decide the issue. However, as we began this process, we made three commitments in the framing of any amendment. These commitments were:

1. We would not permit our state's commitment to due process and equal protection to be conditioned or diminished;
2. We would not permit nontraditional couples to be deprived of substantial economic marital rights; and
3. We would not permit any hint of 'animus' in the language of our constitution.

"The measure we vote on today satisfies these commitments. Essentially, it accomplishes what we sought to achieve last year. That is, marriage licenses will be limited to opposite sex couples, but coupled with the passage of H.B. No. 118, C.D. 1, nontraditional couples will be provided access to substantially similar economic marital rights and benefits.

"Mr. President, I have additional remarks I would like inserted into the Journal. Thank you."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Matsunaga's additional remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, the language of the amendment, as a legislative compromise, is necessarily somewhat ambiguous regarding impact and intent. But we have tried, in the purpose clause, to make certain that our intended effect is clear. That is, the only substantive expression of intent in the purpose clause is to address the issue of the issuance of marriage licenses. Our intent is to thus limit the scope of the amendment to the ministerial act of issuing licenses. Other constitutional rights regarding attendant rights and benefits are not to be affected.

"The language of the amendment raises an arguable conflict with our Constitution's Equal Protection Clause, as interpreted by our Supreme Court. The resolution of any such conflict will be left to the courts. As the latest expression on the subject, we expect that the express language of this amendment will control. However, we acknowledge that the courts are also bound by rules for the interpretation of statutes in pari materia (on the same subject) and that there may be an arguable hierarchy among constitutional provisions when conflicts arise. We do not, and cannot, pretend to have spoken definitively on such interpretation. It is the role and duty of the courts to interpret the constitution. And it is the right of prospective plaintiffs to frame these issues.

"These avenues for interpretation do not diminish the import of what we do today. The people of Hawaii will have an opportunity to definitively express their will on the issuance of marriage licenses. As legislators we are bound to acknowledge their power and abide by their will. We think that this amendment does so -- but does no harm to our commitment to equal rights in the process."

Senator Sakamoto rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the measure.

"Mr. President, I support this because it gives the voters what they wanted and what they have been asking for, and yes, for years, to decide for themselves what marriage means in Hawaii. I support this bill because it gives voters a clean, clear choice on whether or not the Hawaii Constitution should be amended and because the bill is easily understandable for the voters and will be fair to all.

"Passage of this measure will empower the Legislature, who are the elected representatives of the people, to take action, and not appointed judges to decide who can get married.

"Finally, Mr. President, I support this bill because it hopefully brings closure to the long-standing controversy that has taken up so much time, closure that this body can finally come to, and hopefully can now focus on strengthening the job creation and our economy so that we can have a better Hawaii, Mr. President.

"Thank you. I'll be voting in favor."

Senator Kanno rose and stated:

"Mr. President, please register my 'aye' vote with reservations."

Senator Baker added:

"Likewise, Mr. President."

Senator Taniguchi then stated:

"Likewise for me, Mr. President."

Senator Chun Oakland spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, 'aye' with reservation, and I'd like to insert comments, as well."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chun Oakland's remarks are as follows:

"This measure will allow the people of this state to vote on a subject that has evoked strong emotions and raised many questions about human relationships. The bill authorizes the state to place on the ballot, in 1998, a constitutional question, that, if approved by the majority of voters who cast their votes, will allow the State Legislature to reserve marriage to two people of the opposite sex.

"If the constitutional question is approved, this change should in no way be viewed as prohibiting those churches from performing marriage ceremonies for same gender couples as they have done for many years. This is ensured in our nation's constitution respecting the separation of church and state.

"The issuance of marriage licenses which is within the purview of government is what in essence will be affected and the state's ability to perform civil marriage ceremonies. I, along with Representative Terrance Tom, attended every hearing and briefing held on the subject of same-sex marriage, three years ago, as members of the House Committee on Judiciary. We got to hear first hand, statewide, the supporters' and opponents' of same gender marriage views on the issue. I learned a lot from both sides and saw the extremes in people -- one of humanity, compassion and inner peace as well as the uglier side of mankind, full of conflict, hate and divisiveness. To those on both sides of the issue who spoke and demonstrated through acts of compassion and love, I thank you. To agree and disagree in a sensitive, civil and respectful manner helped the Legislature deliberate on this matter.

"I want to acknowledge and thank the co-chairs of the Committee on Judiciary and conference committee members for their time, sense of fairness, and compassion. I also want to thank their families for dealing with the immense pressure and often times insensitive and inhumane actions this issue has brought out in people. Your positive attitude and earnest efforts, I very much appreciate."

Senator Metcalf rose and said:

"Mr. President, I have written comments I ask to be inserted into the Journal in support of the measure."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Metcalf's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. No. 117, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1.

"This measure, a proposed ballot question in the form of a constitutional amendment, along with H.B. No. 118, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, that we earlier voted on, seeks to deal with issues flowing from the decision in Baehr v. Lewin. In this case the court has ruled that, absent a compelling state interest, same-sex couples cannot be denied the right to marry. Beyond the arguments and the passions expressed in the debate that has followed the court's decision, are fundamental questions regarding the effective parameters of the legislature and the courts to act.

"Most Hawaii citizens favor extending rights, benefits and burdens associated with marriage to same-sex couples. Yet it is clear they wish at this time to reserve to themselves the question of whether the legislature shall have the power to determine whether the rite of marriage shall be limited to opposite sex couples only.

"As Legislators, we have the responsibility to choose correctly irrespective of whether those choices flow with or contrary to the passions of the moment. This is an essential element of the public trust. At the same time, this responsibility cannot be translated into fiat to ignore that which manifestly reflects the public will. To act otherwise is to substitute autocracy for democracy. Far too much has been invested in our democracy to justify a lurch in that direction.

"The courts have a special and unique role in our system of government key among which is the principle that any citizen can be heard and have their case determined impartially independent of their popularity, wealth, power or status. The only criteria to be applied by the court, in determining cases and causes, are the law and principles which flow logically and equitably from the law.

"In drafting the proposed constitutional amendment, your Senate conferees have been mindful of the need to advance public discussion on this question. This approach has been taken in recognition of the constraints of what can be accomplished without weakening the legislature's position as that instrument of government designed specially to best reflect the public will. We also have been mindful that the courts not be foreclosed from exercising their special mandate to adjudicate the cases and causes of those who may otherwise not be counted among the popular majority.

"House Bill No. 117, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, the proposed constitutional amendment, will allow for the discussion and expression of the public's voice with respect to whom a marriage license shall be issued. Former UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld once observed that "everyone in his own eyes has a good case, and there must be some element in his case that must be regarded as right." It is in this spirit that I support this proposed constitutional amendment."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of the measure.

"I support this proposed constitutional amendment, Mr. President, because I support and believe in the right of the citizens of Hawaii to define their own constitution. I also trust that, upon full and fair debate, our citizens, over time, will do the right thing.

"The preamble to the Hawaii State Constitution vests in 'the people' the power to 'control our destiny, to nurture the integrity of our people and culture, and to preserve the quality of life that we desire.' And it is in the name of the 'people of Hawaii' that our State Constitution was drafted and adopted. And because the current controversy is a product of language that is unique to the State Constitution, we have a duty to permit the people to effect its interpretation.

"In framing this amendment, we have been careful to respect the structure of our government and the rights of all our citizens. We do not believe that the people of Hawaii want their constitution infected by inferences of prejudice or bigotry, nor do we believe that our people favor jurisdiction stripping or discrimination on the basis of sex. Other versions of this measure would have manifested these prejudices. They were unacceptable and we accordingly rejected them.

"The amendment before us today is as finely tailored as we could accomplish. The people will decide on the simple issue of whether marriage should be limited to couples of the opposite sex -- the courts are not insulted, equal protection is not conditioned, and no religious or social dogma is adopted. Instead, an affirmative expression of our understanding of marriage is incorporated in the supreme law of our land.

"Some of us in this body may prefer to pass no constitutional amendment at all. Our inaction would permit non-traditional marriage to become law in Hawaii. It may be that our open and loving culture will someday evolve to accommodate the formal recognition of such unions. But if this is to happen, it should be as an affirmative expression of our commitment to equality; and not a result of legislative inaction.

"Through the passage of this measure, and the rights package of H.B. No. 118 (which, incidentally, colleagues, just passed the House a little while ago by 41 votes in the affirmative), we hope to make a positive statement to reaffirm the right of the people over their constitution; we express our trust in the judgment of the people; and we manifest our commitment to equal rights.

"This issue has simply divided our community and consumed the legislature for far too long. With or without a constitutional amendment, our community will continue to evolve, our understanding and manifestation of fairness and equality will continue to grow, and our role as a model for multicultural equality will be cemented in history.

"The way in which we at the legislature, and now the people of Hawaii handle this issue will serve as a message to the nation. I trust and believe that this message will be one of responsible openness. This amendment is a step in that direction.

"I have some additional remarks I would like to have inserted into the Journal. Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chumbley's additional remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, as a Legislator, I took an oath to uphold the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, a document which I hold dear as a lawmaker and as a citizen. The preamble to our constitution states, 'We reaffirm our belief in a government of the people, by the people and for the people, and with an understanding and compassionate heart toward all the peoples of the earth, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution of the State of Hawaii.' Guided by these words, I feel reaffirmed in my belief that as legislators, we must represent all of the people.

"Apart from the constitution itself, I believe that America's commitment to fairness and equality is best captured in the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, 'I have a dream,' he said, 'that someday my children will be judged not by the color of their skin but rather by the content of their character.' And as legislators, it is a daily challenge that we make real this dream and to ensure that distinctions imposed by the law are based on genuine and substantial governmental interests and not based on fear, ignorance, or prejudice.

"Over the past five years that I have served as a member of the Hawaii Legislature, and most recently as co-chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, I have spent countless hours of soul searching regarding the issue of same-sex marriage. On Wednesday, I agreed to support a constitutional amendment which would reserve marriage to opposite sex couples. I also agreed to support establishing reciprocal beneficiary relationships with certain governmental rights and benefits. I would like to take this opportunity to explain why I supported these measures.

"First, I believe that as a society, we can only gain by supporting committed relationships between people who love each other and want to provide mutual support for each other. Our governmental structure extends hundreds of benefits to married couples because we believe that our society and our state benefit from relationships based on mutual care and the pooling of resources. Therefore, I was encouraged by the Supreme Court's ruling that as a state we should extend government recognition of rights and benefits to all persons equally.

"A second key belief that I hold is tolerance for differences, something that is a part of our daily life in Hawaii. Because of our multi-cultural community, our people appreciate the fact that everyone in our state is a member of a minority group. We understand that we must respect our differences, because our strength is rooted in our diversity; it supports rather than divides us. I must admit that because I have been guided by a more tolerant personal philosophy, perhaps I underestimated the adverse response to our proposal to provide similar governmental rights and benefits to committed relationships between persons who are not lawfully allowed to marry.

"Most of the opposition to same-sex marriage and reciprocal benefits came from persons who stated that they were so motivated by strong religious beliefs. I understand that religious beliefs compel some people to oppose same-sex marriage because these relationships involve what some consider aberrant and deviant sexual behavior. I struggled in talking with these persons who were sometimes ill-informed and, unfortunately, responding from fear rather than from a place of tolerance and understanding. I was especially disturbed by the negative reaction from persons living outside of Hawaii who are obviously not very tolerant nor appreciative of differences between people. What upsets me the most, was their view of people who were different as less than human and less deserving than the 'majority'. I wonder if they realize that most of Hawaii's citizens are different from the mainland 'majority'?"

"In the end, I am willing to acknowledge that political pressure was brought and bought by persons both within and outside of Hawaii, which allowed for the 'majority' to be able to overrule the minority. However, I am also painfully aware that my Senate colleagues and I agreed to a compromise that will forever change the course of history in Hawaii. Ultimately, it is my hope that the opportunity to vote on this issue will allow the people of Hawaii to reaffirm their belief in our constitution and our government 'with an understanding and compassionate heart' and recognize that all of Hawaii's people should be treated with dignity, respect, and fairness."

Senator McCartney supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor and support of the amendment.

"First of all, Mr. President, I'd like to thank the conferees on both the House and Senate side. This has been a long journey, a long four years, and today I hope we can bring closure to it and move on to many of the important issues that the people of Hawaii face.

"While I believe that Hawaii's citizens are uncomfortable with changing the definition of marriage, I also believe that we are compassionate and tolerant of minorities. The solution lies in finding this balance.

"Both bodies have agreed to a balanced approach; a constitutional amendment which gives the Legislature the authority to acknowledge the preservation of traditional marriage and a reciprocal beneficiaries package, which grants similar rights to those who cannot get married under the law.

"So that the record is clear, granting similar rights and benefits does not mean granting same sex marriage as some have alluded to in an effort to confuse the public. Our compromise package simply gives us the legal and constitutional abilities to limit marriage to man and woman and ensures that those who cannot be married under the law are afforded certain rights and benefits. This will, in turn, resolve the issue before us.

"During this debate much was said, much was learned, and I believe much more needs to be done so that all people will be treated with fairness, dignity and respect under the law.

"As 1998 approaches and we vote on the constitutional amendment in November, I hope we remember that we are all minorities in Hawaii. Our state has a tradition of respecting and tolerating differences among all of its people. Somehow, we have always managed to find a way to live together as one community. I believe Hawaii has been a global leader in honoring and embracing diversity among its people without discrimination. All of us are entitled to choose personal values, principles, and morals by which to live our lives. We should not let hate, anger and intolerance be a driving force when we vote on the constitutional amendment. I believe Hawaii will vote on this amendment with dignity.

"Therefore, Mr. President, I support the constitutional amendment and putting it on the ballot. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1 was adopted and H.B. No. 117, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT RELATING TO MARRIAGE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 5 (H.B. No. 214, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Sakamoto moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 5 be adopted and H.B. No. 214, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kawamoto.

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this particular measure as I did in the very beginning and I'll be very brief.

"I believe that this bill should have gone to Finance. We did not hear from the Department of Economic Development, but any map or any piece of written stationery or anything that has Keahole Airport will have to be changed back to Kona Airport as it was when I was in the House. It is going to be a cost factor and I believe that if we ever do anything again with changing a name that has to do with the travel industry that it would go to Finance and we would find out the implications as far as the cost factor.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 5 was adopted and H.B. No. 214, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KEAHOLE AIRPORT," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 9 (H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Matsunaga moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 9 be adopted and H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Chumbley.

Senator Slom spoke against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"While I think the intent of the correctional programs activity is a laudable one, I think there are a number of very serious flaws with the program. First of all, the private sector is placed at a great disadvantage since the equipment, the rent, the utilities and other functions are provided by the state, and prison labor costs less than the wages private employers must pay. In addition to that, the bill allows for the hiring of an additional 45 employees in any fiscal year. And finally, Mr. President, the actual activities which continue to expand at the prison are given preferential treatment in terms of awarding of government contracts, again, at the expense of the local small businesses.

"So, for these and other reasons, I will vote 'no.' Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 9 was adopted and H.B. No. 1638, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONAL INDUSTRIES," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom).

Com. Rep. No. 10 (H.B. No. 1706, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Kanno moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 10 be adopted and H.B. No. 1706, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"For nearly six years every business and every business organization testified at this Legislature in opposition to an employee payroll and training tax. There, in fact, was no training fund that was established. It was an additional tax on employers. When the bill finally was passed, there was a five-year sunset provision. The act was supposed to expire the additional tax last year. It did not. It was slipped in at the last minute. And now we're talking about a moratorium, an 18-month moratorium, after which there will be a report made to the 1999 Legislature, but the tax will resume again in January 1, 1999, before the report is made to the Legislature.

"This tax should never have been enacted. It should have been sunsetted. It should be repealed now. I'm voting 'no,' Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of the measure.

"I agree with some of the previous speaker's remarks. However, this bill will slightly help small businesses in Hawaii by authorizing this 18-month moratorium on assessments to the Employment and Training Fund. However, this fund has amassed more than $8 million that's now sitting un-utilized. So, relief could have been implemented sooner and possibly the fund monies used sooner to really help the jobs that we so much need.

"And this is, yes, one of the few surviving bills that will help small business and, yes, mentioned earlier the 7-year plan to alleviate problems with the pyramiding of the general excise tax on lease and sub-lease transactions. But these are only really band-aids, Mr. President. We have suffered through seven long years of decline. How many more jobs will be lost in the next seven years?

"This morning's Advertiser, 'Income growth for state last in U.S.' Should we be surprised? These are only tiny measures and they won't save most businesses or most jobs that are currently in jeopardy. They don't help cover the gaping wounds. Our economy is hemorrhaging, Mr. President, bleeding profusely for seven long years. So we need to do more to save small business, create jobs, Mr. President. But I'm in support of this measure.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this particular bill and I agree with the Minority Floor Leader.

"The thing that bothers me is the first time that we used the training fund, it happened to be for the Island of Lanai. It was not for small business, as far as I was concerned. It was for big business, for one individual, and that kind of bothered me at the time and I made a floor speech on that.

"Also, this year we were taking that money and putting it in a special fund that was going into the general fund. We've been playing with the unemployment training fund. I believe it should be used strictly for business. And if it's not going to be used for the small business people and the people who are really the ones that generating it, then we should discontinue.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Tam requested a ruling from the Chair as follows:

"Mr. President, I wish to declare a possible conflict of interest. I sell life insurance."

The Chair ruled that Senator Tam was not in conflict and said:

"No conflict. You may vote."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"In order to be consistent, I was against the bill before and I'm still against the bill today. I haven't seen changes that have been made that require a ban and require this much activity and this much emphasis, particularly when we're allowing the business community to slowly die without any rules whatsoever. So I will be voting against this bill."

Senator Baker rose in support and said:

"Mr. President, I have some remarks in support of this measure I would like inserted into the Journal, please."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks follow:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Mr. President and colleagues, with passage of this bill, Hawai'i will join 45 other states throughout the country to enact legislation to ban or regulate the extreme or ultimate fighting contests that have gained recent notoriety. The Conference Committee on this bill recognized the inappropriate brutality and violence of these activities and unanimously agreed that these contests have no place in our community.

"I am compelled to reiterate that this bill is not intended to ban legitimate sports such as boxing, wrestling or traditional martial arts that have structured rules and protective measures in their activities. Nor is it intended to set a precedent of banning other athletic activities because of their inherent risk of injury. It is important to note that while injuries occur in such sports as football, baseball and soccer, those injuries are incidental to the sport, and is not the sole objective as is often the case with extreme or ultimate fighting.

"I urge my colleagues to be consistent in our stand against violence in our community and vote 'aye' on this measure."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 21 was adopted and H.B. No. 582, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMBAT," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 24 (H.B. No. 1762, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Sakamoto moved that Conf. Com. Rep. 24 be adopted and H.B. No. 1762, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kawamoto.

Senator Kanno rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this measure.

"Mr. President, my concern about this measure is the provision that allows for the disposal of impounded vessels through a negotiated sale that could occur behind closed doors. We feel strongly that these kinds of arrangements should be done through a public auction in full view of the public with full access to all interested parties. Mr. President, this concern was addressed previously in the S.D. 1, however, in conference the word 'negotiation' was reinserted into the bill and we're very much opposed. We are very concerned that at the public hearing it was voiced by the public that there is a perception of impropriety that this bill allows through negotiating sales secretly.

"For those reasons, we are opposed to this measure. Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to support the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I speak in support of the measure.

"This bill was requested by our Department of Transportation to deal with a process that's costing them too much money, taking too much time.

"This bill relates to impounded vessels that are moored in our commercial harbors as opposed to private harbors. This bill takes effect when someone doesn't pay their moorage fees or other fees for a vessel, then the Department of Transportation sends a notice of impoundment to the owner. After such notice, the owner has the opportunity to ask for a hearing, or they can pay what is owed -- what is owed our state government, what's owed the Department of Transportation, what's owed our harbor. They have an opportunity to pay up. A hearing is held. They have an opportunity to explain the circumstances. They have an opportunity to pay.

"Having not paid, and the vessel being impounded, if the vessel costs or is appraised at less than $5,000, Mr. President -- so this is not for all boats, not for all vessels -- or, if the cost of the vessel is less than $125 a foot for small vessels. For small boats, this measure doesn't affect everything.

"We heard a lot of opposition. We amended the bill to reduce it to commercial harbors. So we're talking about fishermen, people in business. We amended the measure to allow the boat owners to send in their own appraisal so that if there is any cause of impropriety about under-valuing a boat, an appraisal can be presented by the owner.

"The case at present is inefficiency, Mr. President. Our state has to expend money to advertise, expend money to store the vessel, to bring some of these vessels that are, in essence, abandoned by their owners, to auction after the time, after expense, after inefficiency. This bill proposes to help our government be more efficient. And I believe that we, here, as Legislators our job is to help our government be more efficient as well as understanding concerns of the citizens.

"The aggrieved party can pay what's due any time, any time. It does not prevent anybody from paying what's due. However, having not paid what's due, Mr. President, they do lose the ownership of their vessel. And what does the state do with it -- they can donate it to a non-profit entity; they can give it to another government body; they can dispose of it, or yes, they can negotiate for disposal, sale or whatever. That's the right of our government to do this after the parties have not made the payment and they've had their hearing. The process has gone forward, Mr. President.

"At this point, some people have reservations. We've tried to address those reservations. I feel this bill adequately addresses the reservations and wrongly addresses the DOT for some problems that are not theirs and I believe I'd like to support and ask the Senators to support efficiency in our government, and let's go forward with the process.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kanno then added:

"Mr. President, may I make additional comments in opposition to the measure.

"Notwithstanding the comments made by the previous speaker, a public auction affords the right of anyone from the general public to participate in the bidding process. The auction is not being set up for the former owner of the vessel to buy back his boat after paying his fines. The public auction is a public proceeding where any individual, in all fairness and equity, can come forward and bid openly to purchase that impounded vessel. That is the issue that we are concerned about.

"The other issue that we're very concerned about is the precedent that this bill would set. Should this bill go forward, and the negotiation be allowed to sell these vessels behind closed doors, this could be used as a precedent for similar kinds of sales in other government agencies. And we want to assure the right of the public to a fair and open public auction process.

"Thank you."

Senator Kawamoto rose to support the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to speak for the bill.

"I'd like to have the remarks of the Senator from Moanalua to reflect those of my own.

"I'd also like to say that during the hearings we had some concerns and these concerns were based on bad experience of previous activities and primarily on the DLNR side of the house. We're asking for government efficiency for the Department of Transportation and they requested the bill and this provides them that efficiency.

"I ask all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill. Thank you."

Senator Tam spoke against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak against this bill.

"I speak against this bill because I look for a better type of legislation. The area we're talking about is basically in my district which is the Downtown area, the Honolulu Harbor area. And having been a Senator for the area, now, for my second year, I've seen a lot of misuse of management within the area. And quite frankly, no offense to anyone, but I don't think this legislation will help.

"What we need is an overhaul of the management within administration, basically. I can see in terms of possible ways whereby things are being done behind doors and currently they are being done behind doors. I hope that we can come up with legislation to take care of these behind door cover-ups in terms of confiscating boats and in some of them behind doors.

"For that reason, I'm voting 'no' on this legislation, and no offense to anyone.

"Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose again and said:

"Mr. President, just in response about the 'behind closed doors.'

"I thought I heard the previous speaker say about confiscation behind closed doors. By no means does the impoundment happen behind closed doors. Notice is given and there's opportunity to respond in a public hearing -- opportunity to hear the issues.

"In regard to the disposal or negotiation, at this point, Mr. President, the owner has had all the opportunity to do what he needs to do. And the objections are from the previous owners that DLNR and other people have responded to. The objectives from the DOT for letting this process go on is, many times nobody comes to the auctions because these boats are abandoned and derelict. And really we need to be efficient and we need to support and work with our departments to be efficient, not work against them.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and Conf. Com. Rep. No. 24 was received and placed on file and H.B. No. 1762, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DISPOSAL OF IMPOUNDED VESSELS," having been read throughout, and Roll Call vote having been requested, failed to pass Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 11. Noes, 14 (Baker, Chumbley, Chun Oakland, Fernandes Salling, Fukunaga, Ige, D., Kanno, Levin, Matsunaga, McCartney, Metcalf, Slom, Tam, Taniguchi).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 28 (H.B. No. 111, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 28 be adopted and H.B. No. 111, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill but with reservations.

"I'm confounded by the bill and perhaps some of the people who are directly involved can explain to me why not only does the bill seem to be a little liberal in many areas, but it specifically says that the class A felony will occur if a person living with or having recurring access to a minor under the age of 14 engages in three or more sex acts with the minor. What's wrong with one or two? Why do we have three? Can someone answer that question for me, Mr. President?"

Senator Matsunaga, rising in response to the previous speaker and in support of the measure, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"In response to the prior speaker's question, this simply provides for enhanced penalties and enhanced sentencing for those people who commit this continuous sexual abuse act against a minor. A sexual abuse act against a minor is already punishable under current law. This is for continuous sexual abuse. Thank you."

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 29 (H.B. No. 581, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Chumbley, seconded by Senator Matsunaga and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 29 was adopted and H.B. No. 581, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORT LIABILITY," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 31 (H.B. No. 20, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 31 be adopted and H.B. No. 20, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Sakamoto.

Senator Kawamoto rose to support the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I speak for the bill.

"Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is to establish a 90-day holding period an individual must hold a learner's permit before that individual can be eligible to take the driver's examination for a driver's license. This bill also requires that individuals with a learner's permit must be accompanied by an individual over the age of 18 when operating a vehicle. This bill also calls for the Department of Transportation and the examiner of drivers to reevaluate the current drivers' licensing process to update our current antiquated driver's licensing process.

"This is nothing more than an issue of safety and to protect our young people. As you all know, statistics show that our teenagers are killed in motor vehicles more than double that of the older drivers.

"So, Mr. President, I ask all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 31 was adopted and H.B. No. 20, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE DRIVER LICENSING," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Taniguchi).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 32 (H.B. No. 116, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Sakamoto moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 32 be adopted and H.B. No. 116, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Chumbley.

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this particular measure.

"The bill states that for anyone under the age of 21, it's a zero tolerance. I had reservations when it went over originally and said that any young person under 21 who may have a beer and goes out and gets into an accident that may not be his or her fault is still going to be charged with a DUI. And it doesn't say anything about anybody 21 and over; it only goes 21 and under. So it's all right for you to go out and have a couple of beers and get into an accident and they can charge you just for an accident, but you would not be charged with a DUI because you're not under that zero tolerance. It's only for a young person, 21 and under. And that really bothers me that we're going to look at the younger people who have a beer and gets in an accident, and are not really the ones that are responsible for it.

"For those reasons I have reservations.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto rose to speak in favor of the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this measure.

"The purpose is to provide zero tolerance of drinking and driving for persons under the age of 21, and as the previous speaker remarked, yes, under the age of 21 because, Mr. President, alcohol, especially with driving, is an insidious drug.

"In a 1987 Weekly Reader poll, one-third of 4th graders felt a lot of peer pressure to use alcohol. The pressure to use alcohol remained the nearly the same for grades 4 to 6, then showed a steady increase through the grades, increasing to 76 percent for grades 7 to 12. Mr. President, these are alarming statistics.

"Unfortunately, alcohol today is the No. 1 drug of choice by teenagers and easily attainable and relatively cheap. Mr. President, even though the law says drinking alcohol before age 21 is illegal, alcohol substantially contributed to the deaths and injuries of many of our young people. Between 1986 and 1993, 67 drivers under the age of 21 died in our state. This zero tolerance bill is important because we have to enact a law by October 1, 1998 or risk losing federal funds, but, more importantly, the effects of the zero tolerance bill in 12 other states have shown approximately a 20 percent reduction in the proportion of fatal crashes among drivers under the age of 21.

"So it's from experience that the younger drivers are less experienced and apparently take greater risks, apparently use not as good judgment. So, Mr. President, I would have wished that this measure were in effect long ago. Now it's set for December 1, 1997. Mr. President, time and tide wait for no one and in a little over a month we'll be having graduation and graduation parties. Thousands of young people will be out there and our only prayer is that they heed this caution at this time and not just wait for a bill to be enacted.

"The bottom line message -- drinking and driving don't mix, Mr. President. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 32 was adopted and H.B. No. 116, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF INTOXICATING LIQUOR," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Taniguchi).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 38 (H.B. No. 1451, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Baker moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 38 be adopted and H.B. No. 1451, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Slom spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill with reservations.

"I think this version of the bill is better than our previous attempt, but I'm still very disturbed and very cautious about the provision that establishes lease rent caps within the bill and interferes with both the private contractual arrangements and the free market.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Baker then said:

"Mr. President, I have some remarks in support of this measure I'd like inserted into the Journal."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks in support of the measure read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"The purpose of the bill before us is to bring closure to an issue that has persisted at the Legislature for quite some time. Specifically, this bill attempts to address concerns about the sale, distribution and pricing of petroleum products, and the tenuous relationship between gasoline dealers, jobbers and manufacturers.

"To say that this issue is 'complicated' is a gross understatement. Your Conference Committee was not tempted to seek a short term solution, but accepted the challenge of crafting a long term solution that brings a balanced play field and fosters competition.

"Under this measure, we have addressed the concerns of dealers who feared that they would be forced out of the market due to the potential predatory actions of manufacturers. We also provided provisions to allow jobbers and manufacturers to compete on the retail level. Specifically, this bill features the following provisions:

- No conversion of existing lessee dealers;
- Grandfathered in company-owned stations legally in existence prior to July 31, 1997;
- No new company-operated station may open up within 1/8 mile of a dealer-operated retail service station in an urban area, and within 1/4 mile in other areas;
- Provided for a three-year lease rent cap and a formula by which lease rents may be calculated;

- Required DBEDT to gather, analyze and interpret information about the petroleum industry and provide the Legislature with an annual report on its findings and recommendations; and

- Established a volunteer petroleum advisory council of dealers, jobbers, manufacturers, refiners and DBEDT representatives to advise DBEDT on the state of the industry and recommend any actions that may be necessary to ensure the highest level of competition and consumer benefit.

"Currently there are no rules regulating the operation of cranes in the State of Hawaii. At this time any individual, no matter how incompetent, can operate a heavy crane if that individual passes a physical examination.

"We need to start taking a hard look at unsafe practices in the State of Hawaii because the operation of heavy machinery presents a dangerous hazard to employees and pedestrians alike.

"This again is an issue of safety, therefore I ask my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this measure. Thank you."

Senator Slom opposed the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I think it's a laudable purpose for the bill, unfortunately, trying to require tax exempt cigarettes to be identified in prohibition of their sale is going to require an amazing effort on the part of the state that already says that it's already understaffed and under-paid. I think that we had testimony in support from the Tax Foundation and other organizations to show that while this may sound good and feel good, it's not going to be accomplished. So for those reasons I vote against the bill."

"Well, I've spoken against the bill before. Again, I love electricity and I like electric vehicles. I pass our electric vehicle in the garage every day to make sure it's still pumping out electricity at taxpayers' expense. But I don't think that this particular vehicle or any specific industry should be given exemptions at the expense of other individuals and other industries. For those reasons, I oppose the bill.

"Thank you."

"These individuals who brought this bill before me to introduce want nothing more than to be able to enjoy their vehicles that they have to put a lot of money, time and effort into restoring them. Therefore, Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill.

"Thank you."

"As I have said before and shared with my colleagues, I certainly think the Department of Transportation should have flexibility with HOV lanes and while I certainly share the concern of my friends in Central Oahu about the problems of stopping people that are violating HOV lanes, nonetheless I think that our civil liberties and freedom are important enough to require that the police actually stop individuals and cite them if, in fact, there are infractions. And so the repeal of Act 224, Session Laws of 1993, which is embodied in this bill, I think is inappropriate and I vote 'no.'"

"Mr. President, the two years prior to this year we spent a lot of time and effort working on the re-codification of the education statutes. One of our primary focuses was to create legislation that was enabling, not legislation that was mandatory. This bill sets up a process where the Board of Education shall establish guidelines to foster community volunteer relationships between the school and private service providers.

"Mr. President, if the schools want to adopt volunteer programs, let the schools and let the SCBM councils. Let's not have the Legislature get involved in telling the schools to volunteer.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

"The bill will increase fees in this area. I think in many ways that while the attempt is good, it is a shortsighted bill. "Thank you."

"Mr. President, I just want to respond. I want to thank you for your assistance and for the others' assistance in answering my question about whether or not the bills had been properly and legally decked before the deadline, and I am happy to hear that they had been. And I was also happy to learn that the committee reports are really not as important as we thought they were, that the intent must be in the bill and not in the committee report. So I know that will probably save us a great deal of time in the future because we won't have to spend so much time on committee reports.

"So, Thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 99 was adopted and S.B. No. 208, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

"We talked about privatization. We've been talking about privatization in many different areas and particularly in small boat harbors and yet all that we wind up with is yet another task force and another study, rather than actually having a pilot program. I think that we have an abundance of studies and an abundance of task forces so I will be voting 'no.'

"Thank you."

Senator Baker rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President, I'd like to thank the conferees for their assistance in moving this bill forward. This measure presents the best possibility available to the residents of the Valley Island and the Friendly Island to ferry service re-established between Molokai and Lanai. This can be accomplished by virtue of this bill and without a cash subsidy from the state.

"A water link between the tri-islands of Maui County is vitally important to all of our citizens. The Maui-Lanai run is very popular and very economical. It's an important link both for our visitors and our residents. Unfortunately, the link between Molokai and Maui has been severed because it's much longer, more costly, but it's just as important, just as vital to the economy and to our citizens and our visitors.

"So I appreciate very much the hard work of the conferees and I ask I all my colleagues to vote 'aye.' Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 107 was adopted and H.B. No. 1547, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SMALL BOAT HARBORS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Solomon rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of the bill.

"Mr. President, I would like my colleagues to refer to page 3 of the bill, and I would like to read into the record why this bill was very important and why we were so enlightened that the House saw their way clear to adopt the Senate's position. And for the record, Mr. President, I read from the document that was submitted to your Committee on Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs dated March 31 from the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands in which the report states:

'The approach taken by the consultants is premised on the assumption that if trust lands had not been set aside by executive action for public uses; if CIP appropriations had been maintained at a higher level; if CIP appropriations had not been lapsed; if higher land rentals had been obtained; if interest earnings had been higher; if sugar lands had been leased at higher rentals;' and so forth, 'the trust would have received an additional $196.6 million in 1988.'

"It's because of all these 'ifs', Mr. President, that your Committee on Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs was very compelled to address the whole purpose of this act, asking the Attorney General, the Director of Finance, the Chairperson of Hawaiian Homes Commission, and the Chairperson of the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust Individual Claims Panel to review the formula that was used in determining, in determining, how these claims were to be resolved.

"Mr. President, I also would like to refer to an article that appeared in this morning's Advertiser, 'Homestead payments appear doomed.' Mr. President, for the record, I would like to support my co-chairman's remarks:

'Sen. Randall Iwase, co-chairman of the Senate Water, Land & Hawaiian Affairs Committee, said he agreed to the bill only because it would extend the review process until 1999, allowing the remaining 3,516 claims to be heard.

"If the Senate did not compromise," Iwase said yesterday, "the 165 claims would vanish and the process for the 3,000 and some claims would also be gone."

Mr. President, that was the bottom line when we had negotiated these bills. This bill, in fact, was a compromise. It was a package with another of our bills that we will be considering later.

"Mr. President, for your information, I was very surprised to hear that after we had discussed with you, and I think it was Thursday evening, as to whether or not the state budget was still open for consideration, and you had informed both my co-chair and myself that, in fact, the budget was closed. It disturbed me greatly, Mr. President, when I heard from the press and others roaming the building that, in fact, our budget was not closed. Our budget did not close until Friday.

"Mr. President, on a point of information, could you verify as to what day our budget was finally closed here in the Senate."

The Chair responded:

"As far as I was concerned, when I talked to you, my agreement with the Speaker was that the budget was closed at that time."

Senator Solomon continued:

"Thank you. So with that information, Mr. President, it just reaffirms your co-chair's position in that we, in our original bill that we did send to the Ways and Means Committee we did ask for a $2 million monetary cap. We did not receive that. We did try again to get the House to move. The House was reluctant until the very last hour. As of last Thursday, 2:00 p.m. they wouldn't move. We finally were able to get them to move because of a compromise in which we had to package both of the bills together.

"So with that, Mr. President, I'm hoping that this position will be reiterated to the Hawaiians, especially those people and those families that are greatly affected by this bill, so they, in fact, know that if it were not for the Senate they would be left with nothing.

"Thank you, Mr. President"

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 115 was adopted and H.B. Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 125 be adopted and S.B. No. 1421, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Anderson spoke against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting against this. I voted against it before.

"I do not believe that this is the way we should have done it. If in fact you wanted to cut government, then you cut government. You don't say that you're going to take care of the situation. Hope the world is going to change and the economy is going to get better, if in fact you've done nothing for that economy. So I am opposed to that payroll lag. I don't believe that the state employees should be paying for their own raises anyway. So for that reason I will be going 'no.'

"Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 125 was adopted and S.B. No. 1421, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PAYROLL PERIODS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Anderson, Kanno, Slom).

Senator Anderson spoke on the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I have some reservations on this particular measure.

"I am in favor of the King Kamehameha celebration. I know that we put some money in there for the administrative part of it, but the rest of it says that we are taking public donations and that some businesses are helping us.

"If in fact, the Kamehameha Day Celebration is not putting money into the general fund then I believe that we should start from Magic Island, end at the King Kamehameha Statue, honor our King, then we would get into Iolani Palace, walk across, pay homage to our Queen, and that's the end of our celebration. If in fact the people in Waikiki are not making money, the HVB is not promoting it, that we're not putting tax dollars into it, then let's change the routing. Let's not go into Waikiki.

"I believe that we have been supporting the state for a good number of years now with a cultural parade, one that has been of benefit to this state. And if we're not going to pay for it, ladies and gentlemen, then we'll take the cultural part of it and I believe that as a Hawaiian that we honor those people here, we'll end here, and that's it. We don't honor them in the beginning and then end up in Waikiki, honoring all the tourists and others so that we can make a few dollars.

"Thank you very much. Those are my concerns."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 149 was adopted and H.B. No. 1688, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KING KAMEHAMEHA CELEBRATION COMMISSION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

By unanimous consent, action on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 164 and H.B. No. 1292, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, was deferred to the end of the calendar.

At 3:40 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 3:49 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 167 (H.B. No. 1798, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 167 be adopted and H.B. No. 1798, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Iwase rose on a point of inquiry as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of inquiry, briefly, asking the Chair a few questions.

"On this bill, has the bill been recommitted in the House?"

The Chair answered:

"The bill, I believe, has been recommitted in the House."

Senator Iwase further inquired:

"And we are being asked to vote on this or are you recommitting the bill?"

The Chair responded:

"We are being asked to vote. As you know, our next actions after we complete the Order of the Day is to go into an extension. The House has that opportunity to reconsider it's action on this bill, so I have asked the Senate to vote on this bill."

Senator Iwase continued to question:

"Mr. President, have you spoken with the Speaker to see if they will, in fact, be reconsidering action on the recommitment?"

The Chair replied:

"Certainly, we have 48 hours. In that process I will be speaking to him."

Senator Iwase then asked:

"And Mr. President, as a matter of history, has there ever been a time, in your recollection, that the House has recommitted a bill and the Senate has refused to do so, in recent memory or in distant memory?"

The President responded as follows:

"I think that the House has to act accordingly. We have no control over their body, and so to answer your question, there has been instances where one house has recommitted a bill and the other house has passed a specific bill."

Senator Iwase inquired:

"Can you give me just one example in the last two years?"

The Chair replied:

"I cannot give you an example."

Senator Iwase then stated:

"I don't recall any, Mr. President, and I don't believe there has been. And so, Mr. President, I find this to be rather curious to demand that this body now vote on a bill which has been recommitted by the House of Representatives."

"And for the record then, Mr. President, since you are asking us to vote on this bill, for the record I wanted to say that I would have voted 'aye with reservations' on this bill, but this bill and this action no longer relates to the merits or demerits of this bill but on the way in which leadership interprets and applies rules and procedures in a meandering and inconsistent manner."

"Mr. President, there was a movie 'And Justice For All' -- Al Pacino is before the judge and the jury and he says to the judge and the jury, 'Something is terribly wrong here!' And there is, Mr. President -- there certainly is. And I will vote 'no' to this kind of gamesmanship and to this unusual departure from how the Senate acts when the House recommit a bill. I'm casting a 'no' vote for that reason."

"Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"If I may inform the previous speaker, I have conferred with the two co-chairs and the managers of the Conference Committee and they have agreed to move the bill forward for a vote."

Senator Iwase responded:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I have given my statement. I think this is inconsistent with history. It is inconsistent with precedence and I would ask the co-chairs if they could come up with one example where the House has recommitted a bill and the Senate has refused to recognize and honor that recommitment. And I don't believe the Speaker is going to play games unless over the past one week the Speaker has been so strategy-minded that he has out-flanked us at every point. And I don't think that has happened."

"Thank you."

Senator Solomon rose to oppose the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'd like to note for the record that I, too, will be voting 'no' for the various reasons that were brought up by the previous speaker, and if that may be so noted in the Journal. Thank you."

Senator Slom also rose in opposition and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill."

"Mr. President, I do note the presence of the 26th Senator up in the gallery. I saw him down earlier on the floor before. This was a bill that was crafted by the 26th Senator, not by this body."

"This bill does nothing to correct the problem that the Supreme Court decision rendered. In fact, all it says is to make sure that we implement that court decision even though it takes away all choices and fiscal options from the state government and from the counties. This is going to have a tremendously adverse effect already on a tremendously adversely affected economy."

"We keep talking about the economic crisis, Mr. President. It is not an economic crisis. It is a crisis of leadership. It is a crisis of the inability to solve our problems or to stand up to issues and to individuals that exert their political power within this state. Those areas that are not covered in this bill include the following: the landfill operations on the Big Island; the landfill operations on Kauai; the refuse collection on the Island of Maui; the operations that provide cover materials and transportation services on the Big Island; the pharmaceutical services at the Hawaii State Hospital; services for repair and maintenance of the ambulance fleet on the Island of Oahu, the City and County of Honolulu; repair and maintenance of water wells and related services on the Island of Maui; the ground maintenance and custodial services on the Island of Maui; services of audio-visual technicians and automated systems within the state library system; and the child and adolescent mental health services on the island of Hawaii by the state to various private contractors. And this, I might add, Mr. President, appears to be in conflict with the Felix/Waihee mandate since these services will come to a halt under this bill."

"What are we supposed to do without the services being provided and not covered by the moratorium? What we should have done a long time ago and that is to act. We are showing the community that we do not have the courage nor the leadership to be responsible for our own destiny. And this we must do."

"I cast a 'no' vote and urge my colleagues to do the same."

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Sakamoto, rising in opposition, then said:

"Mr. President, I also rise in opposition to this measure."

"The recent Konno decision by the State Supreme Court has thrown into question many services contracted out by the state and counties -- counties of Hawaii, Maui, Kauai. They are very concerned by the ramifications of that decision. They've sent their officials here to meet this body, asking us to clear this up. There are real concerns, Mr. President, and this bill as it's written still is very distressing."

"The Attorney General's office has issued a memorandum stating that virtually anyone could initiate a lawsuit against the state, against the counties. This has a very chilling effect on government services in Hawaii.

"I'm sure everybody has seen the numbers showing potential costs if the state and counties no longer contract out services. In some instances three times as much, three times as much, for the same services. So we're talking about millions of dollars none of us can afford. And it will be the public who suffers if we're forced to cancel or cut back these services, Mr. President.

"Mr. President, I'm very disappointed that the language that stands before us -- this language that the Conference Committee has come up with -- does not address the underlying problem. In fact, it makes it worse. The Supreme Court made it clear in the Konno decision that privatization was an area where, quote: 'clear guidance from the Legislature is indispensable.' So where is the guidance from leadership in this measure? We provide no new guidelines to determine appropriate contracts. We maintain a cumbersome system of exemptions that has already failed court challenge. Current contracts were created with the understanding that they met legal requirements or were granted exemptions. The judiciary, for example, with the narrowest interpretation, 80 of their contracts are in jeopardy. Under a broader examination, maybe 800 contracts are in jeopardy.

"This measure, our bill, takes away some of the clouds, but it doesn't address really going forward. New contracts, there's a cloud over what happens on new contracts, Mr. President. This bill requests the governor, governor, to do something, the legislative auditor to do something with the attorney general's office, but the Legislature was requested to do something. So leadership does not even make that intent clear, so where is that leadership, Mr. President?

"I'm an engineer. When there is a problem you fix it immediately, especially a serious problem. You don't shove it off to someone else for someone else's responsibility. The answer lies here in the Legislature. We have the power to fix this mess. What is needed is leadership. Resolving this crisis will require leadership combined with the determination to make tough choices -- choices that will benefit the public. We're here to serve the public. We're here to serve the public, not the public servants. But let me say of the public servants, there are many good, dedicated workers. I'm not speaking against the public servants, but we're here to serve the public.

"We need to be fiscally responsible. We need to be able to protect what government does and be more efficient at the same time. Contracting out these services will meet the needs of our people and make our tax dollars go further, and it will keep jobs for civil servants with existing tax revenues. It will provide that we can fund current increases, future increases. It will not take away services we have if we correctly clear up this measure, Mr. President.

"Our Senate Majority package supported job creation, supported government efficiency. This bill threatens many existing jobs and makes government efficiency nearly impossible. Taxpayers do not deserve this bill, Mr. President. They deserve better.

"So, Mr. President and my fellow colleagues, a vote for this measure would make a bad situation even worse, so I urge you to vote 'no.'

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Fukunaga rose in support of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this measure.

"In response to the prior speaker's remarks, during the discussions that the Conference Committee had on this measure, there were many discussions on how best to preserve counties' and state agencies' existing operations, as well as to allow for future privatization actions to be examined free of the cloud that the Konno decision supposedly places upon them. To deal with such concerns, the bill, as amended, creates a two-year blanket exemption from the civil service laws for all existing contracts and contracts executed subsequently by the state or counties prior to July 1, 1999. In this way, the state and the counties are free to enter into private contracts, fully exempt from any civil service law restrictions and free from the cloud created by the Konno decision.

"Moreover, the language in this bill includes a section to provide that the power of the courts to preserve health and safety of the public is not restricted. So, with respect to those instances in which there are already pending lawsuits, the bill does make clear that the courts are the appropriate area for resolution of issues dealing with public health and safety.

"To preserve the integrity of the merit principles under civil service law, the bill further prevents the state and counties from using the blanket exemption to enter into any new contracts that are intended to eliminate jobs or to discharge, lay off, or displace public employees.

"During the one-year period in which the task force is to examine the best means of going forward, all parties that are meaningfully included in this process -- public sector agencies, public sector employee representatives, state, counties, and the service providers commonly known as 'Chapter 42 providers' -- are to work together to craft a new process which will allow us to examine privatization in a meaningful going-forward manner. In this way, the bill seeks to achieve the balance which the Konno decision may have thrown into disarray.

"For these reasons, I urge all of my colleagues to vote in support of this bill. Thank you."

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I'll be going 'no' on this measure.

"Originally, when the Minority Floor Leader asked for a recess, I had some problems with the bill as far as procedure. I did not believe that it went through the proper procedure so that we would be voting on it today. I had asked if we could go ahead and make sure that this, plus some other bills that we have problems with, would go through with the automobile insurance bill. And I was going with reservations.

"I thoroughly agree with all of the comments by the previous three speakers, but after listening to Senator Iwase saying not only is the bill dead on the other side, in all the years that I can remember here, never has a bill as controversial as this that is killed in one house or the other ever had been brought to the floor by the other body. Everybody says we will not expose our people to that. So consequently, I will be asking for a roll call vote. If in fact we're going to vote, then I want everybody here to make sure that you vote up or down because that's the procedure. If everybody wants to know where you are, even if it's dead on the other side, I want to make sure where you are just as well as anybody else.

"So, Mr. President, I will ask for a roll call vote. Thank you very much."

Senator Bunda rose in opposition to the bill and said:

"Mr. President, with your present ruling of voting when we have a recommittal in the other house I now believe that this negates the discussion of the merits or demerits of this particular bill. I have some remarks that I want inserted in the Journal against the measure.

"Mr. President, I really thought we were through with jungle rules here in the Senate when we first started reorganization. And Mr. President, I'm voting 'no' on this bill."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Bunda's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak with reservations on this measure.

"Mr. President, earlier last week I stated that we needed to solve the issue of privatization this session. I said I could support a moratorium with certain parameters or simply a measure that would protect the status quo. I believe the co-chairs and all of the conferees gave it their best shot. However, I'm very disappointed in the outcome of our negotiations.

"Philosophically, I believe we were all trying to accomplish the same thing -- and that is to restore the state and county governments ability to contract out services without any loss of jobs for public workers.

"In spite of the best efforts of the conferees, I believe the compromise makes the situation worse, not better. We have not met our original intentions. The counties are still seeking relief ... relief they need, especially in these tough economic times.

"Specifically, Mr. President, of major concern to me are sections 5 and 6 of the bill. On the surface, it seems that all contracts would now be allowed to continue. However, section 6 specifically prohibits the displacement of any worker. This, in effect, negates the allowance.

"Mr. President, this bill would have a chilling effect on any manager or government official who attempts to foster efficiency and cost effectiveness in government. Such an official would be wary of entering into contracts for the fear of a law suit or fines for 'displacing' workers.

"Just what is 'displacement,' Mr. President? It is not defined anywhere in the bill and it could be interpreted to mean anything. This additional word expands the impact of the Konno ruling, not define it.

"Before Konno, an exemption was possible if one could prove there was no violation of any merit principles. However, section 6 of the bill could be interpreted to mean that even under the current Civil Service Laws, the contract would be void if it 'displaces' a public employee.

"Because of our lagging economy, I'm concerned for our construction industry. Advocates of the moratorium tried to assure me that there would be language in the bill to address my concerns regarding construction projects.

"However, Mr. President, after reviewing this bill numerous times, I find the language to be very vague regarding existing and new contracts for the construction industry.

"I would like to ask Co-chair Fukunaga a question. Will this bill negatively impact the construction industry? Yes or No?

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Chumbley rose in support of the measure and said:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of the bill with reservations.

"Many people have said this bill will work; many people said it won't work. That's yet to be determined. I think there is some value in this bill. However, I do have some serious concerns about it. One of the concerns is that it lacks a committee report. Where can we show legislative intent if it's not clear in the law. It's the committee report, and I would hope that as this measure goes forward that both the House and the Senate will consider the attachment of the committee report, which I believe can be done through our rules.

"I also have concern about how this bill is going to affect many of the private contractors, the small guys on Maui, in the real rural areas, and how it will affect them. Ka Lima O Maui may be shut down. Now maybe our mayor doesn't need to make that decision under this bill. I think she's making that decision for fear of lawsuits."

Senator Anderson interjected:

"Point of information.

"Mr. President, when I asked about the bill that there was a flaw, I was told that the ..."

Senator Ihara interjected:

"Point of order, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson continued:

"One moment."

Senator Ihara again interjected:

"Point of order, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson continued:

"He's supposed to be speaking to the bill and not to the committee report as far as our attorney from the Majority ..."

Senator Chumbley asserted:

"Mr. President, I am speaking on the bill. If the Minority Leader could be seated and let me finish my statements, please."

The Chair recognized Senator Chumbley and the Senator continued as follows:

"I do have concerns about how this bill will affect some of the smaller organizations on Maui that are not truly a threat to civil service. And I do have some concerns about Section 6 of the bill. Mr. President, I understand that if the House has recommitted the bill, there still is a possibility for reconsideration in that body based on any action that we take. And I would hope that this measure can be amended so that everyone's concerns are addressed and that we do end up with a good bill.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson rose on a point of information as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of information, please.

"Was it not our understanding when we talked to the majority attorney that it's the bill that you speak on. The committee report, it doesn't make any difference if that's not on our desk. So to refer to the committee report with all the good things and the intent is not anything that we can go by. And that was one of the things that I brought forth. We received a bill with no committee report.

"And I have been taught over the years that if in fact you do not want a department to back-door us, what you normally do is put it down in the committee report so that when it goes to the courts, if need be, the committee's intent is what is there. And they're saying no, that it is the bill. So I told them from now on I will put everything in the damn bill, as far as the intent. I would vote against anything unless a chairman allows us to put it into the bill and not say we will put into the committee report because that will be substantially taken care of. When it goes to court we could use that.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Slom, rising to speak against the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I notice that the bill is for the 'Virtual University' and appropriates $100,000 of taxpayer money. While I have nothing against the Western Governor's University, this is for the 'Virtual University' so if we're going to use taxpayer funds I'd rather appropriate virtual funds for this, and I vote 'no.'

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"Again, as I spoke earlier about this bill, very previously I should say, it takes money from the Hawaii fuel tax fund to provide for the trails, and I'm afraid that what's going to happen is what we've seen during this legislative session, we put money into one special fund and then later on take it and put it in the general fund. So I think that the two are unrelated here and I'm voting 'no.'

"Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to speak in support.

"The amount given to the trail and access program (Na Ala Hele program) is an estimate of the of the road fuel that's used or consumed off the road and this is a very good program and this amount goes to a very good cause, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting 'no' also. I have been. We've set a precedent before. We've allowed the recreational boats to use it. Now, we're saying for the trails. Later on we'll have another group. We've already set that precedent. We're using the fuel tax and I don't believe that's what we really should be doing.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Slom rose to speak against the bill and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"The bill is for increasing fees, recording fees, in probably the department that is known as the slowest and hardest to work with, the Bureau of Conveyances, for equipment modernization. Correct me if I'm wrong, Mr. President, but just a couple of years ago fees were raised substantially for equipment modernization. I don't know how much more modern we can become at that department but I do know that the money the last time around was used for personnel costs and not for equipment. I don't want to see that again. I'd like to see the department audited. I'm voting 'no.'

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 106 was adopted and H.B. No. 1732, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RECORDATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Slom).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 111 (H.B. No. 147, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Chun Oakland moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 111 be adopted and H.B. No. 147, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kanno.

Senator Sakamoto supported the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"This bill establishes a joint legislative committee to develop a sound financial plan to address the long-term care needs of the people of Hawaii.

"Statistics have shown that we are currently unable to meet the existing long-term and elderly care needs of Hawaii's families. Those demands will continue to grow in overwhelming proportions. If we do not develop a comprehensive plan, we have a problem. We currently have a problem but hopefully this will help resolve some of the problems.

"With many of our young people forced to live on the mainland due to lack of job opportunities here in Hawaii, who will take care of the old folks? Who'll drive grandma to the market? Who will take Apo to the doctor? Who will live with 'oba-chan' and talk story, just be there? Who will feed 'tutu' when she is no longer able to feed herself? This bill is the first step in developing a variety of programs and services that can be designed to enhance the quality of life for our elderly, while reducing the cost for their families in this state.

"So I am please to support this measure and hope to be part of the solution, Mr. President.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 111 was adopted and H.B. No. 147, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LONG-TERM CARE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Fukunaga).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 114 (H.B. No. 1781, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Fernandes Salling, seconded by Senator McCartney and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 114 was adopted and H.B. No. 1781, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING COST ITEMS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Fukunaga).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 116 (H.B. No. 2207, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Iwase moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 116 be adopted and H.B. No. 2207, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Solomon.

Senator Solomon rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I'm rising to speak in support of the bill.

"Mr. President, after numerous Conference Committee meetings and several drafts, the final version of this significant measure moves us forward in the quest for a fair and reasonable resolution of this issue that will affect Hawaiians for generations to come. This bill provides a comprehensive inventory of all lands currently subject to section 5(f) of the Admission Act. For the first time, Mr. President, we will all know where these lands are and how they are being used.

"This bill also provides an open process to study and make recommendations on issues relating to the public land trust, including whether land should be transferred to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs in partial or full satisfaction of obligations under Article 12, Section 6, of the Hawaii Constitution. This act helps to stabilize the Office of Hawaiian Affairs' revenues from its pro rata portion of the public land trust for the interim period, fiscal year 1997-1998, fiscal year 1998-1999, at $15.1 million for each fiscal year. Also Mr. President, this bill preserves portions of Chapter 10, HRS, which were enacted in 1990 with Act 304.

"Although, of course, Mr. President, we all remain concerned about the unresolved issues of landing fees held in escrow by the state and the interlock filed by the state against Judge Daniel Heely's decision regarding the ceded lands revenues, I'm hoping that we all will support this bill.

"Mr. President, I also rise on a point of personal privilege to express concerns that I have. And this is, Mr. President, on how leadership handled this important piece of legislation during the period that we were negotiating these bills. Mr. President, in all my years serving in the State Senate -- in '98 I'll be up for reelection and I will have served in this body for 16 years -- I was so grieved when I felt that the leadership, Mr.

President, was back-dooring your committee chairmen who really were given the lead on this piece of legislation. I'm hoping, Mr. President, that these kinds of critical matters will be taken seriously by you and those who are in our Majority leadership to try to rectify the kinds of concerns that were expressed today on the floor not only in conjunction with this bill, Mr. President, but in other previous legislation that we had discussed.

"It grieves me so when I hear the Minority Leader reiterate several times, questioning you as our President, as to whether or not a committee report is valid, whether or not a committee report is necessary, when in fact, Mr. President, it's the committee report of this piece of legislation that expresses the legislative intent. It's the committee report that stated the compromise that was the focal point of our negotiations. And Mr. President, I've never ever heard once, I may be wrong here, where a committee report doesn't matter.

"These are the kinds of things, Mr. President, that I find very troubling. I feel that leadership should get their act together. I feel that both of our Majority Leaders should start communicating with each other and with the Minority, and they should have a clear understanding of their plan of action when it comes to these kinds of critical negotiations.

"And with that, Mr. President, I'm asking again for all of my colleagues to see their way clear to support this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 116 was adopted and H.B. No. 2207, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC LAND TRUST," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Fukunaga, Ige, D.).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 121 (S.B. No. 1618, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Sakamoto, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 121 was adopted and S.B. No. 1618, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSPORTATION IMPROVEMENT SPECIAL FUND," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Fukunaga).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 123 (S.B. No. 1919, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Fukunaga moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 123 be adopted and S.B. No. 1919, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fernandes Salling.

Senator Iwase rose in opposition and said:

"Mr. President, as I have been in the past on this bill I will be voting 'no' because it includes .... I do not object to the fact that, in fact I would encourage that the legislative body open ourselves up to public scrutiny with public access. But this is a $1.5 million appropriation for the Legislature for its computers, and I don't think we need those. There are places elsewhere in this state that need money for computers or other kinds of equipment. This comes out of general funds. So I will be voting 'no,' again, Mr. President.

"In the Beatles' White album there is a song in there that is the anthem for this bill for the Legislature.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom also rose to speak against the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I also will be voting 'no' for reasons just given by the gentleman from Mililani, but also because of this question of public access.

"Now, I know, Mr. President, that we are very ecumenical and very sensitive here in the Senate body, as have been demonstrated many times, but I understand that over in that body across the hallway there that they actually throw people off the floor and they deny them public access in the public access, publicly supported, taxpayer paid for legislative broadcast. So I'm scared, Mr. President. I don't want to see that money used if we're not going to be ecumenical on both sides of the aisle.

"So thank you very much."

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll be voting 'no.'

"I can agree with the others but reports that we've got ... a lot of it is more on the dollars that we're spending -- appropriating $75,000 in general funds, for instance, in 1997-98 for providing neighbor island community access stations, another $175,000 general funds, 1997-98 for legislative broadcasting programs, and appropriating $1,500,000 in general funds in 1997-98 for replacing the existing legislative information system. That's a lot of money that we're putting out for things that could go elsewhere since we're cutting back so much.

"But if in fact this is a public service or it's going to be something that is good for the legislators, I believe it's for a legislative wrap-up, it would be used more for the party with chairmen rather than any from the Minority. We don't have the ability to be chairmen. We do a hell of a lot of wrap-ups, but I don't think that we would be able to use the public access for that.

"So for those reasons, the cost, and for the reasons of utilizing the services, I will be voting 'no,' Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 123 was adopted and S.B. No. 1919, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE LEGISLATURE," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 17. Noes, 8 (Aki, Anderson, Ige, M., Iwase, Sakamoto, Slom, Solomon, Tanaka).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143 (H.B. No. 1829, H.D. 3, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Metcalf, seconded by Senator Levin and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143 was adopted and H.B. No. 1829, H.D. 3, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FEES COLLECTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Fernandes Salling, Levin)

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 147 (H.B. No. 1701, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 147 be adopted and H.B. No. 1701, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Tanaka.

Senator Kanno rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of this measure with reservations.

"I'd like to begin by expressing my sincere appreciation to the Senate chairs who have worked on this measure.

"Three years ago when the federal government identified the Barbers Point Naval Air Station for closure as part of the Base Realignment and Closure Act, there was considerable concern in the community. In the federal legislation, the BRAC law, the role of the community is key in the future redevelopment of these bases that are being closed across the country.

"Over the past three years there have been ongoing meetings of the Barbers Point Reuse Committee and later the Barbers Point Redevelopment Commission. At the last meeting of the Barbers Point Redevelopment Commission, there was a vote as to how the future discussions should proceed. This bill creates a local reuse authority to take over management of the base when it closes in 1999. The vote at the last Barbers Point Redevelopment Commission was a unanimous vote in support of a balanced approach, balancing the interest of the state, the City and County of Honolulu and the community.

"I express my appreciation to the chairs because they were especially sensitive to requests from community members who've asked for consideration of amendments and the chairs have included in this C.D. 1 a considerable role for the community in the upcoming discussions. I especially appreciate that the chairs have included here before us language that says that the appointing bodies, the governor, the mayor, the city council, shall take into account the experience and the resource represented by the individuals who have served over the past three years, many of them volunteering their time to learn about the issue to express the needs and concerns of the community as the discussions go forward.

"The chairs have also included in the C.D. 1 a requirement for an annual report to the Legislature and they specifically expressed the desire that this report shall include specific mention of the role to which the community has been involved in the discussions.

"There is one concern and this is the reason that I'm voting with reservations. There is language in here that may be inadvertent, but the language in the bill excludes from the commission's jurisdiction lands that shall be used for the airport complex and the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. After some discussion with a number of the parties, there is a willingness expressed to look at this issue over the coming year and quite possibly next session revisit the issue. We will at that time have in our hands a report from this entity and will be able to take further action in the 1998 session.

"I'd like to once again express my appreciation to the chairs for their support and I will be voting with reservations.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom then sat:

"With reservations, please, Mr. President."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 147 was adopted and H.B. No. 1701, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE REDEVELOPMENT OF BARBERS POINT NAVAL AIR STATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Levin).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 153 (H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 153 be adopted and H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Slom rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"While there are several legitimate claims that the state pays every year, I think that many times we are looked at as 'deep pockets' and a 'patsy,' and for those people who don't have the time to go to Las Vegas they find that this is an easy way of getting payment. We're spending $6.2 million in claims and many of these claims are unjustified. I think that what we should do is remember that the money is not ours. The money is the taxpayers, and we should be much more vigilant with it.

Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 153 was adopted and H.B. No. 1582, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RELIEF OF CERTAIN PERSONS' CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE AND PROVIDING APPROPRIATIONS THEREFOR," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, 2 (Anderson, Slom). Excused, 2 (Ihara, Levin).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 (H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 be adopted and H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom spoke against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I do so with a heavy heart. Some of my best friends are attorneys and some of them grow up to be judges. And I made statements earlier at a previous session that I would be very happy to drive to the airport those justices that are not getting paid enough in our state. I note that they are going to get a 4 percent increase for three years; that's 12 percent. That's 12 percent more than most private employees have gotten. It's also more than a number of public employees have gotten.

"In addition to that I don't do this lightly, Mr. President, because I have been threatened. I hate to mention this, but I have been threatened that if I vote 'no' against this again I will not get any Democratic ice cream at the end of this session. (Laughter.) So it is really tough, but I'm still going to cast a 'no' vote. I think that the public deserves better and I think that if everybody is going to tighten their belts that means our justices too.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Tam rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I wish to register a 'no' vote on this bill.

"As previously stated in previous votes I'm voting 'no' because it's an inappropriate time when we have a sluggish economy right now. We should take care of direct services funding, our first priority for the people of the State of Hawaii. No executives should be receiving raises at this time, whether it be in terms of the Legislature, administration or judges, the third branch of government.

"Thank you."

Senator Iwase requested a conflict ruling as follows:

"Mr. President, the last time you had ruled 'no conflict.' Would that ruling continue?"

The Chair ruled that Senator Iwase was not in conflict.

Senator Anderson then said:

"Would you put me down with reservations on this particular measure."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 was adopted and H.B. No. 1393, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SALARIES IN THE JUDICIARY," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 2 (Slom, Tam). Excused, 1 (Levin).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 157 (H.B. No. 1539, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Chumbley, seconded by Senator Matsunaga and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 157 was adopted and H.B. No. 1539, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Levin).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 158 (H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Chumbley moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 158 be adopted and H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Very briefly, Mr. President, and I'll be going 'no' on this measure.

"As stated before, this particular program is self-sufficient. It's costing them $150,000 a year. They're taking in over $200,000. All of a sudden they are going to require every six years that we get a new state ID and also they might need some new cameras. Consequently, if a program is efficient, running well, I don't believe that we should go ahead and allow them to charge more so that they can go ahead and get a new state identification card.

"Thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 158 was adopted and H.B. No. 1587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF IDENTIFICATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Anderson). Excused, 1 (Levin).

At 4:35 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 5:31 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Senator Metcalf rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, on a point of personal privilege.

"I've learned that there are inherent risks in calling for a brief recess in the Senate (laughter), and for that I deeply apologize to the members. Thank you." (More laughter.)

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 165 (H.B. No. 1837, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Levin, seconded by Senator Metcalf and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 165 was adopted and H.B. Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Bunda).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 166 (H.B. No. 1243, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Levin, seconded by Senator Metcalf and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 166 was adopted and H.B. No. 1243, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Kanno). Excused, 1 (Bunda).

THIRD READING

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1806 (H.B. No. 816, H.D. 2):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1806 be adopted and H.B. No. 816, H.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Kawamoto, supporting the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this bill.

"Mr. President, this bill is to 'grandfather' military veterans who entered the state retirement system in anticipation of being vested after 8 years could get military credit. Last year we made a mistake. We forgot about the military veterans and repealed this benefit. This bill attempts to rectify this make and putting to ease some of the concerns and fears our honored military veterans experienced over the last year.

"Therefore, Mr. President, I urge all to vote 'aye' on this bill."

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1806 was adopted and H.B. No. 816, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1807 be adopted and H.B. No. 1463, H.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Kawamoto spoke in favor of the bill as follows:

"Mr. President, as a person from God's country who has over half of the care homes in the state, these people have not received an increase in payment since 1989. And I hope that they will still be there when I, maybe, have to go to one of these care homes. So I urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill.

"Thank you very much." (Laughter.)

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1807 was adopted and H.B. No. 1463, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADULT RESIDENTIAL CARE HOMES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 88 (S.B. No. 870, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 88 be adopted and S.B. No. 870, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Matsunaga.

Senator Kawamoto rose to support the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of this bill.

"Mr. President, this bill is 13 years in the making. They are now celebrating in the House. What this bill is ... and the issue is safety and saving young people's lives. This bill calls for the prohibition of people under the age of 13 from riding in the back of a pickup truck.

"The back of the pickup truck is meant for hauling cargo and not people. We are in the midst of a situation where some of our neighbor island colleagues feel as though they have to back up their residents, but let me remind them that we did not have any testimony against this bill during the process of this bill in full hearings. In fact, we had many testimonies from Kona and Lahaina and fax and petitions in support of this bill.

"So again, I'd like to thank the leadership for helping us come to the table and have a conference draft whereby we all can live with. Therefore, this is a good starting point. We hope that this bill will be an education to all the people that ride in pickup trucks that riding in the back of pickup trucks is unsafe. And we hope that by prohibiting children 12 and under from riding the pickup trucks that this process will proceed.

"I urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this bill. Thank you."

Senator Baker spoke against the bill as follows:

"Mr. President I rise to speak against this measure.

"Mr. President, in an ideal world I would agree that the back of a pickup truck is not the place for someone to ride. It is, in fact, for hauling cargo. But we don't live in an ideal world and there are a lot of folks on Molokai, Lanai and Maui that have only one vehicle and that vehicle is a pickup truck. They have families. They have no way to move their families from point A to point B without utilizing the only vehicle at their disposal. We don't have public busses on those islands. Our residents have no options. It is for those reasons that I am compelled to vote 'no' on this measure.

"Thank you."

Senator Chumbley opposed the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to the measure.

"In rising in opposition to this measure, it is not in disregard to the issue of the safety of our children throughout the state. It is in the concerns of the thousands of families throughout the neighbor islands and the rural areas of Oahu who will be made criminals under this measure.

"Mr. President, where is the enforcement of the existing laws by the police departments throughout our state. No operator of any pickup truck shall operate the vehicle with the passenger seated in the bed or the load carrying area of the vehicle unless there is no seating available in the cab.

"Where is the obligation and where is the responsibility of the parents for their own child's safety? How will this measure be enforced? Will all minors be required to wear name badges that show their age, similar to the time share people now?

"I and many of the neighbor island legislators would have supported this measure, and I did as it passed out of the Judiciary Committee originally. But we would have supported this measure if it would have allowed the counties the opportunity to opt in. By opting in, the counties could have chosen stricter regulations than just 12 years old. I realize that the measure will pass both the Senate and the House, but these concerns must be brought forward.

"Although the bill may keep children under 12 somewhat safer, it will harm families who can least afford it. And as the distinguished Senator from Waipahu said earlier in the day, Mr. President, this is a 'feel good' bill that will not result in the actions that we want for the safety of our children.

"Thank you."

Senator Sakamoto rose to support the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of the measure.

"I understand some of the concerns from the Senators from Maui and some of the concerns are valid. In testimony, several testifiers did mention, though, that in inclement weather or rainy weather they didn't see anybody in the back of pickup trucks, so people do have alternate means.

"And it is not just a 'feel good' measure. This is a safety measure that makes a lot of sense. If you look at it, nobody could put a baby who's less than 1 year old in the back, and certainly you wouldn't put someone less than 2 years old in the back. And there's a point where it's safety for the individuals as well as planning ahead and let's hope that families with one vehicle can make accommodations in the meantime, and groups when they need to transport students or ball teams can plan ahead and get there safely.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 88 was adopted and S.B. No. 870, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PICKUP TRUCKS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 19. Noes, 6 (Baker, Chumbley, Fernandes Salling, Levin, Solomon, Tanaka).

Com. Rep. No. 100 (S.B. No. 927, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Fernandes Salling moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 100 be adopted and S.B. No. 927, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Slom, rising in opposition to the measure, then said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to the bill.

"While I'm not a smoker and don't condone smoking, I also don't condone continuous tax increases. They will harm the general public and unfortunately it will harm some of our Senate members who will have to pay more for their cigarettes, so I'm voting 'no.'"

Senator Anderson also rose to oppose the bill as follows:

"I, too, will be voting 'no,' but I'd also like to just say another thing that everybody more or less states that this is going to help prevent children from smoking. We found nothing that prevents them to do so in the bill.

"When it came into conference they also spoke about getting more tax dollars and then they said that they were trying to make sure that they got people to quit smoking. So either we're trying to get tax dollars, trying to get children to stop smoking, or what are we really trying to do with this particular bill. And the only thing that I can think of is more taxes. So consequently, I will also be voting 'no.'"

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 100 was adopted and S.B. No. 927, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 17. Noes, 8 (Aki, Anderson, Bunda, Kawamoto, Slom, Solomon, Tam, Tanaka).

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 128 (S.B. No. 1891, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 128 and S.B. No. 1891, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Senator Tanaka.

Senator Taniguchi then noted:

"Mr. President, Senator Tanaka and I are requesting recommitment of this bill because concerns have been raised about the application of the language in section 2. If this bill is passed in its current form, there will be over-reliance on the rules of other jurisdictions to draft the rules for community use.

"Mention of drafting rules applicable to the specifics of our own convention center was also inadvertently left out of the bill. I believe a recommitment is appropriate because we can address this matter over the interim and come up with something better next year."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 128 and S.B. No. 1891, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVENTION CENTER," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 164 (H.B. No. 1292, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

By unanimous consent, action on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 164 and H.B. No. 1292, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, was deferred to later in the calendar.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137 (H.B. No. 258, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

On motion by Senator Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Tanaka and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137 was adopted and H.B. No. 258, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVENTION CENTER," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Anderson, Iwase, Solomon).

At 5:45 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 5:52 o'clock p.m.

Senator Levin rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I want to apologize to my colleagues and incorporate the remarks of the Senator from Hilo as if they were my own. Thank you." (Laughter.)

Senate Concurrent Resolution

No. 279 "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION DECLARING APRIL 30, 1997, A RECESS DAY OF THE NINETEENTH LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII, REGULAR SESSION OF 1997."

Offered by: Senators McCartney, Ihara.

On motion by Senator McCartney, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, S.C.R. No. 279 was adopted.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Senator Baker, for the Committee on Conference on the disagreeing vote of the House to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, presented a report (Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171) recommending that H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, as amended in C.D. 1, pass Final Reading.

In accordance with Article III, Section 15, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, action on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171 and H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE," was deferred for a period of 48 hours.

Senator Anderson rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, on the extension, I've been opposed to it. I think we could have done it within our own time, and we failed.

"I think, also, since this was going to be our last day, I'd like to point out that we did not pass 'Truth in Sentencing.' I believe that to be very important. When we ran for reelection, crime was No. 1, and yet when we went into conference we had to fight in 'Truth in Sentencing' which would have made it 85 percent of the time of their sentencing that they would have to stay in prison. I think this is very, very important.

"If in fact, you're married and had your wife pregnant and you lived in a one-bedroom cottage and you happen to have triplets, you couldn't say we weren't prepared for this so consequently we're going to send them back. You would have to provide. So to say that you do not have prison space does not make that right. You have to make the pressure on us. So 'Truth in Sentencing' should have never gone down just because we did not have enough prison space.

"I don't believe that committee voting in public has been advantageous to us. It's been a hindrance. And the reason it has been is because when you do not pass a piece of legislation because you do not have a quorum, the bills pile up because you need a quorum in order to pass anything. Consequently, we have lots of bills on a chairman's desk and we don't know what's in those amendments. And when I vote 'w/r' everybody laughs, but one piece of legislation everybody says, oh, I haven't had time to really look at this; I haven't had time to digest. So the public really is not being served when we say we have to go ahead and vote in public in committee.

"I'm from the old school. I like to read something, and I understand that's the problem, that they didn't trust the chairman before. They said they could twist arms. Well let me tell you, if you're that weak, then you should not be here because if you have a document and you disagree with it, then you vote 'no.' If you have some slight reservations with it, you vote your conscience and go 'with reservations.'

"And last but not least, Mr. President, the dual chairmanship -- I don't think has worked. It has been cumbersome for us, for the lobbyists. I don't think that it's something that we should continue with. I read in the paper where everybody said it's going to work, but since this was supposed to be our last day I thought I would throw those comments out to everybody. And there goes one of the dual chairmen.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Matsunaga rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I ask my colleagues to please bear with me. This is a very important subject. I think it will address some of the Minority Leader's remarks and also I think I'm the only Senator that hasn't asked for a short recess, yet.

"Mr. President, according to a recent Hawaii Poll, crime was the most frequently mentioned issue of concern to Hawaii voters. We are all aware that the alarmingly high property crime rate and steadily rising violent crime rate threaten the public safety and welfare of our Island State. And we are all aware that our first responsibility of government is law and order. Hawaii's citizens deserve a criminal justice system in which criminals are caught, the guilty are convicted, and the convicted serve their time. Obviously, the best way to fight crime is to prevent it. That is why this body has always supported drug education and gang prevention programs in our schools and other youth programs to provide young people with a safe and healthy alternative to hanging out on the streets.

"This year, the Senate Judiciary Committee has put much effort in crafting a comprehensive crime package which addresses the many issues identified by the Senate Majority at the beginning of this session as those which are critical to public safety. As co-chair of the Judiciary Committee, I would like to thank my colleagues and especially my Judiciary co-chair for supporting the package, which contained some thirty bills.

"In fact, I am pleased to report that 99 percent of the Senate's package was sent over to the House. Crucial issues such as Meagan's law, domestic violence and sexual assault, juvenile justice, drug manufacturing and abuse, driving under the influence, property crimes, crimes against tourists, and kidnapping were all addressed through measures which established sound policy regarding criminal sanctions.

"We are particularly proud of the measures relating to sex offender registration, the manufacture of ice, date rape drugs, implied consent and driving under the influence, all of which survived conference committee with much of the Senate language intact. We are also satisfied with the juvenile waiver and records measures which included all, and most of the Senate language, respectively. Nothing we do to fight crime is more important than fighting crime and violence that threatens our children. We have to protect them from criminals who prey on them -- and we have to teach them good values and give them something to say yes to. At the same time, when young people commit crimes, they should be prosecuted; when they commit serious violent crimes, they should be prosecuted and treated like adults.

"Mr. President, unfortunately, only a fraction of the Senate crime package survived conference committee. For example, while the Senate's comprehensive eight-measure package on domestic violence and sexual assault focused on holding perpetrators more accountable for their abusive acts by not allowing the expungement of records or informal adjustment, etc., only three of these bills were approved by the House. We hope that the House believes as we do ... that nothing is a more dangerous threat to the safety of our families than domestic violence, because it is a threat from within. Mr. President, we also hope that the House agrees that domestic violence is a crime to be punished, not a family secret to be concealed.

"Perhaps, our biggest disappointment, however, is the fact that our flagship bill on criminal sentencing reform was not agreed upon in conference. As many of you know, the Senate's 'Truth-in-Sentencing' bill, which would have required felons to serve at least 85 percent of their sentences before being considered for parole, was amended by the House in a manner that simply was not acceptable.

"While we would have loved to agree with the House version, we could not in good conscience support a draft which provides enhanced sentencing for only a very limited number of offenses and that does so in a very, very arbitrary manner. The House version would have excluded violent crimes such as sexual assault in the second degree, an offense which includes statutory rape. It would have also excluded many other serious and potentially violent felonies such as arson, kidnapping, and incest. Further, statistics provided from the Paroling Authority revealed that offenders of these aforementioned crimes, served an average of less than 50 percent of their sentences.

"Mr. President, just to give you an example of how inconsistent the House version was on truth-in-sentencing -- if someone were to walk up to your car and reach inside your car and steal a purse or something from that car, they would have been subject to the House's truth-in-sentencing; at the same time, if somebody walked up to your car and kidnapped your daughter and raped her, they would not have been subject to truth-in-sentencing under the House's version. Mr. President, if somebody came up to your house and stole your car, they would have been subject to the House's truth-in-sentencing; if someone came up to your house and fire bombed your house, they would not have been subject to the truth-in-sentencing under the House's version.

"In addition, the House version provided for a 'phase-in' application of truth-in-sentencing to certain property crimes in the year 2000. While the House defended their position as a 'methodical' approach to sentencing reform, the Senate could not support a provision which did not include property crimes such as larceny-theft, an offense which comprises 75 percent of all property crimes in our state. This piecemeal attempt by the House failed to address the community's greatest concerns and thereby does nothing to garner public confidence in our criminal justice system.

"The Senate and the House did agree that the issue of prison space was a key factor in determining how sentencing reform could be accomplished. Yet even Keith Kaneshiro testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee that public safety policy should not be crafted based on available bed space. Further, it must be made clear that the Senate Judiciary Committee provided the House with a compromise position which would have utilized a majority of the House draft provisions, and which would have also addressed the House's concerns. The Senate based its proposed conference draft on the projections made by the Department of Public Safety which concluded that even the original Senate version -- even the original Senate version -- could be accommodated if the Department received its request for adequate prison bed space, which it did. The proposed C.D. 1 also contained language from H.B. No. 1087, regarding the sentencing of misdemeanants and petty misdemeanants, a bill for which the House advocated strongly.

"The Senate's position was to establish a policy which dealt with felons comprehensively, without making a statement to offenders that only certain types of crimes were serious enough to warrant 85 percent sentencing. The Senate had the support of the Department of Public Safety, the agency that is responsible for housing these convicts. Equally important, the entire law enforcement coalition, which includes the Department of the Attorney General, the four County Chiefs of Police and the four County Prosecutors, wholeheartedly supported the original Senate version of the measure (I would like to insert the coalition's testimony supporting our version of the measure into the Journal). Most importantly, the Senate had the support of the many community watch and neighborhood boards which testified vigorously for a comprehensive truth-in-sentencing measure.

"In conference, however, the House curiously seemed to withdraw from its original position. The House Judiciary's original conference position was that philosophically they agreed with the Senate that truth-in-sentencing was a necessary measure and that if the Senate could prove that DPS would receive the bed space money, they would support our version. Representatives from DPS provided the projections which the Senate accepted wholeheartedly, given that the Department has been studying the potential correctional impact of truth-in-sentencing for the last six months, it made a lot of sense.

"Yet the House not only rejected these figures, but proposed their own conference draft which merely provided that DPS conduct a study on truth-in-sentencing and on the possibility of privatization of a prison on the Big Island. While the House continued to criticize the Senate for being financially irresponsible, ironically nowhere in these conference discussions did they explain how the study would be funded.

"Mr. President, we hope that the House will reconsider its position with respect to this and the many other crucial crime measures which can and should be passed next session. During the interim, we will continue to research and craft legislation which addresses the need for sound policy regarding: juvenile justice reform, the distribution and possession of dangerous drugs, crimes against tourists and other issues which remain a priority for the Senate Judiciary Committee.

"On behalf of the Senate Judiciary, I would like to thank my colleagues for your commitment to public safety, and I would especially like to thank the other Senate committees with which we collaborated regarding the crime package, in particular, the Ways and Means, Transportation and Intergovernmental Affairs, and Health and Environment Committees.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair having so ordered, the attachment of the law enforcement coalition's testimony is identified as ATTACHMENT "I".

Senator Chumbley also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'd like to also commend my co-chair for all the effort and guidance that he gave me this year and all the committee members on the Judiciary and to all the members of the Senate. I think we can be very proud of the crime package that we passed. And Mr. President, if you could please order the Clerk to insert the words of the distinguished Senator from Palolo into the Journal as if they were my own. (The Chair so ordered.)

"And one last announcement, Mr. President. During the interim I've been studying my Black's Law Dictionary and I will be taking the bar exam.

"Thank you." (Laughter.)

Senator Anderson rose again and stated:

"Mr. President, just for a point of clarification. The reason that I brought up that particular bill is because, as you well heard, you did hear everybody in a very attorney-like fashion. The arguments that went back and forth with the House was strictly on details on how and why we cannot do certain things. I think common sense has got to come to the Legislature.

"To sit there and argue on fine points of law when crime is up and then to have the House committee turn around and say, well we have to study this because we don't have bed space. And then they're trying to argue on what's a felony, what's a misdemeanor. I don't really care as an individual. I believe that if a person goes to jail for rape or for whatever charges, they should serve 85 percent of their time. That was the reason for that bill. And to come out with all the technicalities on why we cannot pass it and then to say bed-space and another study, does not satisfy the people in the community. It's 'shibai' to sit here and say we tried everything.

"I don't know the reason why we cannot have an attorney that we hire to come in and say, hey, this is what we need. We need more people fighting for what the community is looking for, not to sit down and say, well, the courts can take care of this; we're going to leave that for later on; we don't need this right now. I'm not an attorney and when I do need one, I don't mind going to get one because they do have the expertise. But if I want to get around a law, I'll ask them: 'This is what the book says; how do we get around that so we can accomplish what we need to do?'

"And that's what my two colleagues in the Senate ... and I really appreciate what you've done. But when I went to the Conference Committee to hear the arguments on the other side and we had to cave in, it really bothered me and disturbed me as well as the rest of the taxpayers, I'm sure.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Chun Oakland, rising on a point of personal privilege, then said:

"Mr. President, may I rise on a point of personal privilege?"

"The 1997 Legislature made some significant efforts to improve the quality of life for children, seniors, and families in our state that are worth mentioning. I know there is much more to achieve, but I do want to highlight some of the good legislation and work accomplished this year.

"We have upgraded payments to adult residential care home operators who provide 24-hour care to our seniors and disabled in the community. This increase is long overdue. We expanded the number of home and community-based waivers which will allow more people in nursing care facilities to live in quality, more affordable community settings.

"We lifted the 24 month time limit on persons who are disabled and in need of general assistance and restored the funding level to the original executive budget request for this program.

"We have established special and trust funds to increase financial support from the federal government and private sector, in addition to our state funds, for early intervention services for children living in high-risk environments or born with disabilities. These funds will be used for programs, like the nationally recognized Healthy Start Program and Zero-to-Three Project. This will help reduce the increasing demand for more costly care by children in their later years who do not get early intervention services.

"We have provided greater immunity to schools that allow youth programs to take place on their campuses during non-school hours increasing the opportunities that provide wholesome and challenging alternatives for our youth before and after school.

"We have supported welfare-to-work opportunities through the creation of grant diversion programs, microenterprise initiatives and community work programs for families with dependent children.

"We have taken steps to strengthen child support enforcement efforts that will better insure financial support for our keikis.

"We have approved a public/private partnership, called the Good Beginnings Alliance, that will focus on creating a very comprehensive early childhood education and care system in our state.

"We have increased the repair and maintenance funds for schools and other state facilities from $70 million to over $100 million for the next two years, which will help address the large backlog of repair and maintenance requests by schools to improve their facilities. This infusion of funds will also provide increased opportunities for our small businesses to competitively bid for these projects.

"We are able to fund the collective bargaining agreements reached this year to support our public employees and their diligent efforts to provide much needed services to the people of this state.

"We have also passed a measure that will allow the Employees' Retirement System fund to keep its excess earnings and responsibly begin to address the $1.6 billion unfunded liability concern that we have had for many years. This measure will begin to address the increasing costs of government by allowing the ERS to become self-sufficient over time.

"We have put forth legislation to address the public's requests regarding legislators' high-three pension, motor vehicle insurance and same gender marriage.

"There is much more work to be done. During the legislative interim, effort will be put into issues including long-term care, workers' compensation, welfare reform, early childhood education and care, youth programs, Health Quest and other areas that affect thousands of people in our state.

"Thank you, Mr. President, my fellow colleagues in the Senate, my co-chair Senator Kanno and our Human Resources Committee, House members, staff and the community at large for working together on these very important issues."

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTIONS TAKEN

S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, H.D. 1:

Senator Tam moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 10 1997, in disagreeing to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, seconded by Senator Aki and carried.

Senator Tam moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Tam noted:

"Mr. President, S.B. No. 538 is in reference to the unfavorable outsourcing in the selection of library books in the Hawaii's Public Libraries. The Senate and the House of Representatives mutually agree upon the intent of the Legislature which is to request the Board of Education to terminate the Baker & Taylor library book contract, and return the selection of library books back to the librarians upon termination of the existing outsourcing of its contract. This is the first step towards banning outsourcing on the selection of library books.

"Also, I have a note here. Representative Stegmaier, chairperson for the House Education Committee, personally called me this morning and promised me that next year's legislation will be strong on one to ban future outsourcing on the selection of library books and all selection of library books in future will be done by librarians.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Tam then moved that S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Tam rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, fellow colleagues, I rise to speak in favor of S.B. No. 538, Relating to Public Libraries.

"This bill specifically refers to the problem of providing quality, productive and efficient public service on the selection of library books contracted with Baker & Taylor through Bart Kane, the state librarian for the Hawaii Library System. The librarians, statewide, and the library users, also statewide, are dissatisfied with Baker & Taylor's services. The contract is not in the public interest as determined by the Education Committees in the Senate and the House of Representatives.

"In addressing the problem the Education Committees give due respect to the Board of Education for the first opportunity to resolve the problem by terminating the Baker & Taylor contract and whereby our legislation is to restore the rights and legal duties of the public librarians in the selection of library books, the Board of Education wants the first opportunity to resolve the problem. Thus far, we are giving them that opportunity.

"For the record, Mr. Bart Kane and Mr. John Penebacker, assistant to the state librarian, have walked the Capitol halls to kill the legislation. One can only question why are they protecting an anti-public interest outsourcing library book contract and how one would benefit at the expense of the public.

"I sincerely hope that the Board of Education responds to the public's desire to terminate the Baker & Taylor contract in the public's interest. If the Board of Education does not terminate the contract, I will personally request Governor Cayetano to restrict the budgeted funds to pay for the book contract in accordance to the governor's constitutional prowess.

"Fellow Senators, for your information, in H.B. No. 350, the state budget we passed earlier this afternoon, there is appropriated $250,000 per year of the biennium budget to purchase library books selected through librarians if the Board of Education terminates the Baker & Taylor contract.

"This legislation is a strong message to the Board of Education to address their in-house problems. Otherwise the Legislature or the governor would do it for them as their 'big daddy.'

"The Legislature, next year, will introduce legislation to ban future outsourcing on the selection of library books and all selection of library books in the future to be done by librarians.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, and S.B. No. 538, S.D. 3, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LIBRARIES," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 18. Noes, none. Excused, 7 (Bunda, Fernandes Salling, Ige, M., Iwase, Metcalf, Solomon, Tanaka).

S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, H.D. 2:

Senator Tam moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 10 1997, in disagreeing to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, seconded by Senator Aki and carried.

Senator Tam moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Baker rose on a point of information and stated:

"Mr. President, point of information.

"Will the chairman please tell us what S.B. No. 1628 is about."

Senator Tam then said:

"I'm sorry, my apologies. It's been a long day for all of us.

"Senate Bill No. 1628 is in reference to rehiring retired teachers in the Department of Education and specifically what it does is permits the Department of Education to rehire retired teachers on a temporary full-time basis to teach in declared shortage areas. It also specifically specifies that the rehired retired teachers shall not earn retired service credit and contribute to the Retirement System or gain additional retirement System benefits if the rehired teacher continues to receive entitled normal retirement benefits without penalty."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Tam then moved that S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Aki.

Senator Anderson rose to speak against the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I'll be against the particular bill.

"If I remember correctly, when we allowed the teachers to go out with 25 years of service we didn't say that they had to be of a particular age. I thought it was wrong at that time, then we found out that we had made a mistake and that we were going to have a shortage of teachers. Now, they're coming back and yes they may not get into the Retirement System for any more than they have. And they will not be able to do certain things, but they will be taking up those jobs and they will be receiving their retirement. I think this is wrong.

"We've been trying to get out there to make sure that we provide jobs for people. That was one of the reasons that when they went out I had stated that they were too young. They may have had 25 years in service but they could have been 45 or 50. And I just don't think that it's right that they come back, draw a salary and draw their retirement. This is not what we intended in the first place.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President"

Senator Kanno then said:

"Mr. President, please register my 'aye' vote with reservations."

The Chair so ordered.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, and S.B. No. 1628, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REHIRING RETIRED TEACHERS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 13. Noes, 5 (Anderson, Chumbley, Fukunaga, Ige, D., Slom). Excused, 7 (Bunda, Fernandes Salling, Ige, M., Iwase, Metcalf, Solomon, Tanaka).

S.B. No. 147, S.D. 1, H.D. 1:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"This session we had a bill in regards to the library system whereby Mr. Bart Kane and Mr. John Penebacker introduced legislation for the Legislature to allocate money or allow them to collect fines. And basically, we kept the bill in house. The bill has died at this time. There's a rumor John Penebacker is going out and saying that the bill is still alive. I just want to make the announcement that the bill is dead. The bill is S.B. No. 1625, H.D. 2, Relating to the State Library System.

"What happened is this. The state librarian has made a contract with a collection agency in terms of a certain fee amount. He in turn after signing the contract came to us with legislation asking that we allow him the permission to collect library fines in addition to the collection fee contract. We found it was undue justice in terms of the public who are paying for their past-due books and also to, if I may, we don't want to re-incur another Baker & Taylor contract whereby after the fact we come out with legislation. We find that Mr. Bart Kane should deal with everything on the table, upright, rather than behind the scenes, and then try to create problems for us in the Legislature.

"So in essence, this bill is dead. I'm glad it's dead. So, Mr. Bart Kane and Mr. John Penebacker, your attempt to fool us is dead.

"Thank you."

ATTACHMENT "I"

TESTIMONY OF THE STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND PROSECUTORS AND POLICE CHIEFS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU, AND THE COUNTIES OF HAWAII, KAUAI, AND MAUI

H.B. NO. 1604, H.D. 1

RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF CONVICTED DEFENDANTS

The Honorable Chairpersons and Members:

The Law Enforcement Coalition, which consists of the Attorney General, and the four county police chiefs and prosecutors, strongly supports the Senate version of this bill (S.B. No. 286, S.D. 2). Although we support certain portions of this bill, we recommend the bill be changed back to the original language proposed by the Law Enforcement Coalition.

The purpose of this bill as originally drafted was to provide for all prisoners to serve at least 85% of their felony prison sentences before becoming eligible for parole. The original bill would also have allowed judges more discretion in setting maximum sentences. However, as revised, the bill's purpose appears to be to enhance penalties for only a very small number of enumerated crimes.

We respectfully disagree with the changes made by the House to the Law Enforcement Coalition's version of the bill (H.B. No. 1604). Unlike the Senate version, the House version (H.B. No. 1604, H.D. 1) would make "truth in sentencing" applicable only to murder, manslaughter, assault, robbery and Sexual Assault in the First Degree (not Sexual Assault II or III). Therefore we urge this committee to replace the contents of this bill with the contents of S.B. No. 286, S.D. 2, because the Law Enforcement Coalition unanimously supports the Senate version which applies to all crimes. The Law Enforcement Coalition unanimously opposes the changes made to H.B. No. 1604.

While we appreciate the work done by the House to address sentencing issues in H.B. No. 1604, H.D. 1, some of the changes made to the enhanced sentencing provisions of the original bill appear to have been done in haste. For example, under the House version, if a judge sentences a rapist to 20 years, the rapist would have to serve at least 17 years. But if the victim was disabled, the rapist would have to be released after 11 years, one month instead of 17 years!

The Senate version deals with crime more comprehensively and leaves it to the judge to give appropriately harsh sentences in the case of violent criminals. Under current law, the sentencing judge decides only whether the defendant will be granted probation or sent to prison. If the decision is to send the defendant to prison, the sentencing judge must sentence the defendant to 20 years in prison for class A felonies, 10 years in prison for class B felonies, or 5 years in prison for class C felonies. What is generally not known by the public is that these figures bear very little relation to the time the prisoner will actually spend in prison.

For instance, from 1991 until 1995, the average amount of time actually spent in prison by those who were sentenced to a 20 year prison sentence was approximately 5 and one-half years. The huge disparity between the number of years to which a defendant is sentenced and the number of years the defendant actually serves outrages victims and causes a general lack of respect for the criminal justice system. The Senate version of this bill would require all those sentenced to prison in Hawaii to serve at least 85% of their sentence before becoming eligible for parole. The House version, as previously stated would be limited to a very narrow category of crimes, leaving the vast majority of crimes to be sentenced in the same inadequate way as they are currently sentenced.

The original version of this bill was to make sure that those defendants who deserve prison sentences are not released before they should be, and to provide the public with more accurate information on how long a prisoner will actually be incarcerated. As amended by the House, however, this bill would only accomplish that goal for a fraction of the felonies committed in Hawaii. It would actually reduce penalties for the vast majority of felons in Hawaii. It would also give property criminals and drug criminals the benefit of reduced sentences without giving the victim (and society) the benefit of knowing that those criminals sentenced for crimes serious enough to justify prison sentences will serve 85% of the sentence given. Hawaii has one of the highest property crime rates in the country. Taking it easy on property criminals, drug criminals, and rapists convicted of class B and class C felony sexual assaults fails to address the greatest problems that we face.

We respectfully request your support for the original version of H.B. 1604, a joint proposal by the Law Enforcement Coalition and the Department of the Attorney General. Every chief of police in Hawaii, every prosecutor in Hawaii, and the Attorney General request that you amend this bill to its original form. Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of this bill.

ORDER OF THE DAY

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171 (H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Baker moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171 be adopted and H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator D. Ige.

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Mr. President, when we began this session we laid out an agenda to address the major issues that our constituents deemed critical to the success of our work. This session we were able to meet those challenges and the bill before us completes this agenda. Prior to this measure we had dealt with high-three reform; we had put to rest an issue that had divided not only our state but had distracted us (same-sex marriage); we provided a balanced budget (a difficult task because of the economic times we're faced with, yet we came up with a budget that was balanced, fair, and provided some economic stimulus for our state); and we also began to tackle some of the difficult issues regarding settlements of Native Hawaiian claims and ceded lands. And now we have an auto insurance reform bill before us. House Bill 100, C.D. 1, does in fact complete the agenda that we set for ourselves when we convened back in January.

"Mr. President, today we are poised to do what no Legislature has been able to do for the past four years, and that is -- to enact meaningful auto insurance reform legislation and provide relief to Hawaii's consumers. Putting this proposal together, I can guarantee you, was no small feat. Your conferees made a concerted effort to involve all parties in the decision-making process and worked very hard to strike a balance of fairness to attorneys, insurers, but most importantly for consumers. No side was unduly influential in this process. And in the end, I believe that we achieved a bill that strikes that delicate balance. And perhaps the fact that neither insurers nor plaintiffs' attorneys love this measure is testament to the balance struck by this bill.

"Mr. President, I feel it is important to note that unlike previous years and previous legislation in this area, we relied on our state actuary to assist us in developing this bill. After all, Mr. President, it is the actuary who is the designated expert on our state's insurance matters and he is our only source of unbiased expert opinion. It is our actuary, Mr. Simons, who has given us his stamp of approval on the bill before us and he is confident that the provisions contained in this measure will, in fact, produce savings of between 20 and 35 percent. In fact, I have letters from Mr. Simons confirming his analysis and I would like to enter his remarks into the Journal as further indication of how the bill will work, and its savings.

"Specifically, Mr. President and colleagues, this measure accomplishes the following:

The bill does not cost shift to employers or to the prepaid health care plans, but it takes advantage of the best of the plans by defining benefits as prepaid health define those benefits.

We addressed the cost drivers in the system and have enacted specific measures to control those costs. One of the things that Mr. Simons noted in his analysis was that claims padding has been the single major cost driver under the current systems. Claims have been padded by extra, unnecessary treatments in order for claimants to reach the medical rehabilitative threshold -- the monetary threshold -- in order to sue. We have repealed the monetary threshold. He also pointed out that the C.D. 1 adequately addresses that cost driver. He also noted that we have addressed the misuse of chiropractic and alternative care providers, which were a factor in padding claims so that individuals could get up to the $13,900 and then get into the tort system. By narrowing personal injury protection benefits to those of prepaid health, eliminating the ability to pad claims, repealing the monetary threshold, and requiring a covered loss deductible from tort awards, we have, in fact, addressed the major cost drivers in the system.

We've made many of the costly mandatory coverages required under our current law optional. This is pro consumer and it produces savings. It now puts the consumer in the driver's seat to select the kind of automobile coverage the consumer needs. It's not mandated by the state that we carry all of these coverages if in fact we do not need them. Wage loss, death benefits, alternative care providers are examples of coverage that is now optional.

This bill establishes stringent fraud provisions to ensure that accident victims and their legal counsel do not make fraudulent claims and unnecessarily run up costs.

We've enacted a covered loss deductible concept whereby all tort recoveries are reduced by a minimum of $5,000 or a maximum of a person's personal injury protection coverage up to the max of $10,000, whichever is greater. This novel approach is designed to discourage frivolous law suits and yet at the same time set a reasonable standard for litigation on legitimate claims. In fact, Mr. President, we've taken the best features of no-fault because we still have first party personal injury protection coverage and the best features of a tort system because we provide adequate access to the tort system for injured motorists, but at the same time discourage frivolous law suits.

We've set a reasonable standard for litigation on legitimate claims. We've retained the verbal threshold so that one does not have to have lots of medical expenses, but yet might have a serious injury, and still be able to sue.

"This measure empowers the insurance commissioner to adjust rates in the future. That provision will provide for future savings. And more importantly, this bill will produce savings for consumers. One of our goals was to provide for a mandatory 20 to 35 percent rate reduction that was actuarially supportable. Our actuary supports the reduction called for in the C.D. 1. (The item that I've asked to be inserted into the Journal, I'll make it available to all of the Senators because it goes through Mr. Simons' analysis to show just where and how the reductions will be accomplished.)

"I acknowledge that there are concerns expressed by the insurance industry and others who are skeptical that this bill can produce the requisite savings. However, after having sat through countless hours of hearings and innumerable conversations with folks on both sides and working closely with the actuary, I believe that this bill can produce the expected savings. Colleagues, we have a measure that will make our system easier to administer and will produce significant savings for the consumers of this state. And, Mr.

President, in the final analysis this is what our charge was -- to bring rates down for our consumers.

"I encourage all of my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this measure. Thank you."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's insertion of the state actuary's letters are identified as ATTACHMENTS "I" and "II" to the Journal of this day.

Senator D. Ige also rose in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to just offer a couple of other brief comments in support of this measure.

"What has been missing in a lot of the discussions in the press on this is we have made a significant move toward our goal of 24-hour coverage for all of our people. By defining the medical portions of our auto insurance, we now move, if you will, to a 16-hour coverage where all of our people can be expected to get their health care taken care of. By defining the medical benefits in the same definition as prepaid health, we are able to get all of the cost savings by reduced administrative costs. At the same time, we get to benefit from all of the restructuring that has occurred in health care over the last five years. We get to take advantage of all of the cost saving measures -- the deductibles, the preferred provider organizations, the managed care organizations that have delivered tremendous savings for businesses throughout the state, and all of our auto consumers will now be able to get those same benefits and see that in reduced premiums. And most importantly, Mr. President, it adds a new gate keeper to the system of access to medical care and insures that care on behalf of the injured accident victims is both warranted and necessary to recover from those injuries.

"One other feature that we do have in this measure is we really do provide a cafeteria plan for all of our consumers. They can choose to tailor the coverage that they buy in their auto insurance policy to meet their specific needs. We provide options for wage loss. We provide options for death benefits. We allow consumers to choose to participate in managed care arrangements. We provide for alternative care, if they so desire. We do believe that this measure before us provides the best of all worlds for our consumers.

"And I think we would be remiss if we did not spend at least a bit of our time to thank all of those involved. Thomas Jefferson once said that ... actually I think it's Edison, but my quotations are kind of flimsy at this time. (Laughter.) A wise person once said that 'Genius is 1 percent inspiration and 99 percent perspiration.' And I did want to thank my co-chair and partner, Senator Baker, for her inspiration and perspiration in achieving this measure that we have before us.

"I would also like to thank the Majority staff office. I lost track of all the drafts we went through in arriving at this bill before us today. We had numerous drafts on our Senate proposal. We had numerous drafts in conference and they were always willing and able to not only do the research but do all of the technical, manipulative work to insure that we had the drafts and supporting information ready to go.

"And last but not least, we definitely would both like to thank our staffs for all of their commitment to helping us achieve what we have achieved this session. I think the committee had a tremendous workload before us and I think we responded to the challenge.

"We would also like to thank the insurance commissioner, past, and the insurance commissioner, present, as well as Mr. Martin Simons. This truly was a collaborative effort. The solution before us did not appear miraculously, but was created out of our desire to take the best of both proposals and create a workable proposal that can save consumers money and can be supported.

"In closing, Mr. President, I would just like to say that there are critics and there will always be critics whenever the Legislature deals with tough issues. But we are confident that this proposal before us is the best for all the people of Hawaii. It addresses all of the cost drivers in the system. It delivers savings for the people of Hawaii, and most importantly, Mr. President, it provides a solid foundation for a new partnership of attorneys and insurers and legislators and consumers so we can address the few remaining issues in our auto insurance system that continues to plague us -- uninsured motorist, to name one.

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote in support of this measure. Thank you."

Senator Iwase rose to oppose the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in opposition to the bill.

"Before going on, I do want to thank the co-chairs. I know this has been a tough issue. We have dealt with the no-fault issue longer than we've dealt with the same-sex marriage issue, so our vote yesterday on the same-sex marriage was a journey ... and it was. This was a trip to Pluto and we finally, perhaps, will land someplace but I hope that it's a safe place.

"Mr. President, first of all, I think we ought to, when we're looking at this bill -- and we should have been doing this all along -- this is not about attorneys. This is not about insurance companies. This is not about bad-mouthing either one. This is about the consumer. This is about their bills, the struggles that they go through.

"Yesterday, I was painting graffiti at a park and a city employee came up to me. He happened to be cleaning the bathroom and he said, 'Hey, bra, what you guys doing up there with the no-fault stuff?' I said, 'Well, we're going to vote tomorrow. We're going to vote tomorrow.' He said, 'All right, eh, do something, eh.' And that's what it's about -- it's about him; it's about people like him.

"Lawyers are not ambulance chasers with Pavlovian reactions to sirens, nor are they representatives of the American Red Cross. And insurance companies are not representatives of the worse in capitalism and corporate greed, nor are they non-profit charitable organizations. They're businesses and they run for profit. They operate off of that. And in those businesses you run the gamut of character and ethical traits, good and bad. So you'll see abuses and there'll be fraud, but there will be also good attempts to serve the client. So let's get away from this attempt to sidetrack ourselves from what it's really all about.

"And it's about the consumer. It's about premium reduction. But just as important, which has been missing all of these years as we talked about no-fault, they demand honesty from us. When we look at the plans that were before us, what are you getting? What are you losing? We've never told them what they're going to lose. We've always talked about the premiums. It's not enough for us to leave this place saying, 'We passed auto reform.' They demand more than that from us.

"It is wrong for us to hold out false promises of reduction and dangle it before them, because they need these reductions, figures which may be inflated but which may come at the cost of reduced benefits. In this regard I want to address a point about Mr. Simons. Mr. President, four years ago we passed a very strong verbal threshold bill. We mandated a mere 15 percent rate reduction. We could not get support from the Insurance Division, and I assume its actuary, for 15 percent. And so the insurance commissioner told us when we passed that bill, 'We're not going to enforce the mandate,' because of a federal lawsuit, I believe, out of Arizona. But today, today, with a weaker reform package, Mr. Simons says we can support a 20 percent rate reduction. And I have questions about that. I have problems about that because he was not there, and the Insurance Division was not there four years ago when we could have achieved real savings.

"To be honest with the consumer, Mr. President, I assume you have a letter, which we all should have, from State Farm Insurance Company. It's addressed to all of us. I want to quote from this letter in case people in here haven't gotten it ... real brief.

"We have been asked for our reaction for the pricing information relating to House Bill 100, C.D. 1. Our actuarial department estimates that those who currently carry the minimum amount of coverage required by law and who continue to do so under the new system will see an average 13 percent cost reduction. This is significantly less than the 20-35 percent mandated by the bill.

"Furthermore, it is important to note that although there are some cost-saving features in this bill, most of the savings are due to a reduction' -- reduction -- 'in mandated minimum coverage. This means individuals who carry higher limits and desire the same amount of coverage as they have today will see little savings' -- little savings -- 'under the new system. In fact, some could even see price increases.'

"By the way, I am going to quote from an example (I didn't come up with this example, it was somebody else), 'Previously we were requested to price an example of a policy holder with a 1993 Honda Accord DX living in Mililani and working in Downtown Honolulu.' We had this example last year -- it wasn't me. Using this same example, if the policy holder carries $100,000 BI, $50,000 property damage, $50,000 PIP, $100,000 UM/UIM and comprehensive and collision coverage with a $250 deductible, our actuary estimates the person could see anywhere from a 7 percent reduction -- 7 percent only -- to a 3 percent increase, depending on the PIP option selected. If a person desires to continue with the $50,000 PIP coverage with options similar to today, the person will see a 3 percent increase. If the person reduces the PIP coverage to a minimum $10,000, which is what's in the bill, without selecting the optional wage loss and death benefits, we estimate a 7 percent reduction. Why is there a lack of cost savings? Because the cost of BI liability will go up under the new system. In other words we anticipate more BI claims and more lawsuits. The dollar threshold is reduced from $13,900 to $5,000, thus allowing lawsuits for more serious injuries.

"Mr. President, in the example, the hypothetical posed in the letter, we can talk about 20 to 25 percent off the basic minimum coverage. How many people in here have the basic minimum coverage only? How many in here, just among you, have purchased more? I have. I brought my policy. I have a $100,000 BI coverage because I want to be protected from a lawsuit. I come from a community which is a middle class community. We own homes, and if we are sued, we don't want to lose the home.

"This bill will take out wage loss coverage. How can a middle class person afford to buy back or leave alone wage loss coverage? So when we talk to the consumer out there about what we gained by this bill, think about what policy you have today, what effect that's going to have on the consumer.

"This bill before us achieves some reduction but at the cost of reduced benefits of the basic policy. It reduces your medical coverage from $20,000 to $10,000 but keeps in place the protection you have for lawsuits. Where is the emphasis, then, in the bill? On the insured's injury or a plaintiff's injury? It eliminates wage loss coverage, funeral expenses, death benefits -- it is now going to be an option.

"If you are wealthy, wealthy, or if you are poor, you have no problem with this bill ... no problem whatsoever. But if you are among the vast middle class -- those are people in our districts -- struggling to make ends meet, this bill will not help you.

You will not see a 20 percent reduction -- let's be honest about that! You may even see an increase -- let's be honest about that! If you are middle class, you own a home, both adults working to make ends meet, you probably already purchased, as I did, more than the basic coverage. You purchased higher BI's. You need wage loss coverage. This bill will not bring a reduction in premium. It may even bring a premium increase if you purchase back -- just purchase back -- what you've got today. Wage loss -- who's going to tell the consumer in your district don't purchase wage loss coverage. You know what they're going through if they own a home, if they're both working, if they're latch-key families. Funeral expenses and death benefits ... well, perhaps, given what the ramifications of this bill are, it might be good to be buried, who knows.

"We had before us, Mr. President, a number of good bills which would have brought real rate reductions off the basic policy -- basic policy -- and therefore off the broader policy if you buy back the options. For example, the pure no-fault bill that we passed two years ago -- vetoed by the governor -- 40 percent reduction; the O'Connell choice bill, 45 percent reduction if you opted into the no-fault selection system; Senate Bill 1812, S.D. 1 -- the original version we had -- 40 percent reduction of the basic coverage. All these bills had their strengths and weaknesses, yet the positives outweighed the negatives: much greater premium reductions off the basic; good reduction of premiums even if you purchased back the optional coverage; no threat of premium increase when you purchase optional coverage. It retained, if not strengthened, the underlying philosophy of the present no-fault system, unless we've changed it in this bill, to reduce lawsuits -- eliminate 90 percent. Have we changed it? I don't know. If we have -- major policy shift -- there ought to be an explanation about why.

"We must be candid. We must be sincere. We must be honest with the public, with our consumers. We have this solemn duty and obligation. We must tell the public the truth. Yes, there will be a rate reduction off the basic coverage. Yes, there will be a loss of present benefits such as wage loss and funeral benefits. And yes, to purchase back the optional coverage you now have, your premium reduction may be only a single digit and definitely not 20 percent, or you'll see an increase.

"I say all of this, Mr. President, to the constituents in my district. I hope all of the rest of you do that. Like them, I purchase and will continue to purchase optional coverages and for me, like them, this is the reality. This policy I read from -- $1,436 a year for a 1986 Chevy Astro van -- my premium, if I buy back my optional coverage and maintain what I have, will go up to $1,479 a year. If I accept the reduced benefits -- elimination of wage loss and funeral expenses, reduced PIP -- my premium will drop a mere 7 percent. I will save $100 a year. I'm not going to my consumers, my constituents, and tell them that's all you're going to get when they expect a 20, 25 or 35 percent reduction -- because that's not true!

"Because this bill leaves the vast middle class with poor choices, Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to vote 'no.'"

Senator Solomon rose in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I also will be voting 'no' on this bill and I'd like to speak in support of the remarks made by the previous speaker.

"Mr. President, I am tired, tired of standing on this floor and listening to the co-chairmen say to me that we have to complete the agenda. I never ever thought, Mr. President and fellow colleagues, that I would be standing here speaking in support of the insurance council. Is it true, what a letter to our legislators said about the auto insurance? Is it true, Mr. President, that this bill reveals some critical short and long-term effects on Hawaii's auto system? Most of the cost drivers were not adequately addressed. Is it true, Mr. President, that we feel a responsibility to inform you and all Hawaii's drivers that this bill may not provide the level of rate reductions promised by this Legislature?

"Mr. President, I have great concerns about this. My district has the highest unemployment rate and it seems that I am forcing my people, Mr. President, to violate the law, to become criminals because they cannot afford the insurance policy that is being demanded of them because it simply is mandated by law. I am sick and tired of all of this 'shibai,' all of this nonsense. And who is suffering? The consumer. Who is suffering? Mom and dad. Who is suffering? Our kupuna. Who is suffering? Our children.

"Yes, Mr. President, I'm emotional about this. Why not? I've been in this body since 1982 when we first debated this. And to have our co-chairs stand on this floor and use the rationale -- to complete our agenda -- that we support this legislation, does absolutely nothing, nothing for the people of this state. I am angry, very angry.

"We had a bill, Mr. President. We had a bill that mandated a 45 percent roll-back. But what happened, Mr. President? The governor vetoed it. Mr. President, why don't we rename this bill ... a lobbyist jokingly told me, you know bills are just titles ... so why don't we rename this bill, Mr. President, 'The Lawyer Enactment Act,' 'The Lawyers Employment Act'? So for the next few years they're guaranteed jobs in this state. They tried to do it to the Hawaiians by blaming the low municipal bond rating on us. So why not? Why don't we stand up and be counted and say, this is who we're taking care of. We're taking care of the lawyers in the State of Hawaii. Why don't they do what the chiropractors did? Move to another state if they can't do business here.

"Mr. President, I'm asking you this. The Speaker has announced that he is contemplating a special session. He mentions privatization. He makes no mention of a matter that should be of primary concern at this time -- auto insurance -- because we mandate our citizens to buy that. Mr. President, I request that this body go on record today, go on record today that if there would be an extension of our legislative activity that certainly auto insurance be on our agenda during that period. Our citizens want and deserve decisive action in this field."

At 10:44 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:46 o'clock a.m.

Senator Bunda rose to inquire:

"Mr. President, in reference to the previous speaker's remarks, would there be any reconsideration in terms of recommitment?"

The Chair responded:

"There is no consideration for recommitment. We'll be voting on this measure today."

Senator Bunda then said:

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Slom rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the bill.

"I do so with great feeling because I attended every informational briefing, every public hearing, every meeting, and every conference meeting that was open to either the public or to the Minority. And first I want to say that the co-chairs worked extremely hard, honestly, diligently, openly. I think the problem is, however, that we had good bills and we had good positions and watched those positions evaporate as everybody was concerned about passing something.

"Now, my personal position which I said on several occasions and in several different bodies was, No. 1, that automobile insurance in the State of Hawaii should not be mandatory. It should be voluntary like other forms of insurance. And my secondary position was, if we couldn't have that, then people should have a choice, and we should have a dual system. And those people who wanted tort should have tort. And those people that wanted no-fault should have no-fault. Knowing full well the consequences and the responsibilities for their choice. And that didn't get anywhere either.

"And my third position was that if we absolutely, positively had to have any kind of mandate, it should be a minimum cost mandate with a cafeteria style approach -- as much options as possible -- guaranteeing, however, that there would be real and meaningful rate reduction because, after all, that's what's held us up for three years and that's what we all discussed. That's what we wanted.

"It was also imperative from the beginning that there would be no cost shift from the auto insurance to an employers' prepaid health care. And we maintained that position and the co-chairs are to be congratulated because they said it over and over and over again until we got to the final stage -- the final conference which, by the way, was the ninth conference draft or the ninth draft of the bill. And while there isn't mention in the conference report, the committee report that mentions no cost shift, as I learned on this floor just two days ago, committee reports don't mean anything. The intent of any legislation is found in the body of the bill and there is nothing in the body of the bill that says specifically no cost shifting.

"Now a lot has been said about the importance of our South Carolina actuary as if one individual is infallible. And it's interesting to note that he is just a man -- he is a good man, I'm sure -- but just because he makes a pronouncement from South Carolina does not make it so.

"Also, the voter-rejected, governor-appointed current insurance commissioner, who was busy getting up to speed during all of these hearings and learning the insurance business, has also given us promise that everything would be okay.

"But one of the reasons that we allow bills to sit for 48 hours is to give us the time to carefully and dispassionately and objectively examine what is actually going to occur ... not what we would like to occur ... not what we would want to make us feel better with ... but what will actually occur. From my past business experience and my economic background, I have analyzed every portion of this bill. And while we said initially that if we could guarantee a $20,000 limit, then we could guarantee no cost shifting. We saw that $20,000 go down to $15,000, the $15,000 go down to $10,000, and I do not have the confidence that we are going to have those rate reductions. And more so, I am concerned that we are going to have greater problems.

"Now, I am neither an apologist for the insurance industry nor for the lawyers. And as a matter of fact, with all this talk about partnerships I would rather see the marketplace -- not a partnership between lawyers, insurance executives and certain legislators -- decide what's best for the consumers. I would rather let the marketplace decide that. But if you're going to listen, at all, to the insurance people, they're the ones that are telling us that these figures do not do what this bill says it will do. And from that standpoint I think that we are offering false promises.

"Too many of us here are quick to pat ourselves on the back. We want to say that we've accomplished everything, but what have we really accomplished? It is the substance, not the intent, that is extremely important. And I think that we can see now that what's going to happen is that if, in fact, we have basic coverage only, we will realize a savings less than what we was promised, less than what the Senate position had been right up until the end of the session. But if we are like 99 percent of all of us, we will have options. The coverages that we want or feel that we need will either mitigate the savings entirely or increase our cost.

"We must be honest to the consumers. We always talk about the children. We talk about the consumers. We talk about these people as if they don't have the ability to read between the lines. Well, our constituents do. They've asked us hard questions and that's forced us to look at every line and every dot in this bill. And this bill does not do what we wanted it to do because we compromised too far. We should all be willing to compromise to a point, not our principles, Mr. President. And I'm afraid that's what this final version has done. And in that respect, we should all take more time and pass out a well reasoned, good bill than just to pass something out that we say will do what in fact most of us know in our hearts will not be achieved.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kawamoto, rising to speak against the measure, then stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

"Mr. President, as we walk through our communities listening to the concerns of the community and our constituents, besides same-sex marriage, the issue of automobile reform and lower premiums were in the forefront. Many of us have provided an opportunity for a choice bill. In fact, my choice bill was submitted after talking to you, Mr. President, and I'd like to give you credit for the idea of the cafeteria type insurance bill. As we have gone through the session I read it with reservation as the bill passed through the Senate, hoping that that bill could be the best it can be.

"Well, Mr. President, as we stand today, that bill today is not what it could have been. It could have been for the consumers, not anyone, the insurers or the lawyers, but the consumers who pay the premiums. And I have a community that may be lower in stature from the Mililani area, but we also provide and ask for options -- options to protect our homes, options to protect ourselves, the family, and options to protect our way of life.

"Therefore, Mr. President, I urge all my fellow colleagues to vote 'no' on this bill, hoping that we can get out a bill that is addressing the consumers and the people that pay the bill to pay for these premiums.

"Thank you very much."

Senator Sakamoto also rose to speak against the bill and said:

"Mr. President, I also rise in opposition and I'd like to reiterate all the points that were made and I agree with most of them.

"Mr. President, firstly, I'd like to thank, yes, the inspiration and perspiration of the committee. They did a good job studying the issues and we had a good bill. Yes, we had a good bill, good savings. But I believe, just as in workers' compensation reform, Mr. President, the major cost driver, the major cost driver in this system is litigation -- litigation. And the $13,900 limit is lowered. Your committee report says, 'For example, a $9,000 recovery that includes covered personal injury protection benefits of $7,200 and $1,800, down to $5000 people can sue. Mr. President, I believe people buy insurance for protection, not for lawsuits. We need to get rid of the lawsuits.

"I kind of take offense at this clause in your committee report that says, 'Create a fair and equitable system which meets the needs of all parties concerned, including drivers, insurers, and attorneys.' I believe it should be 'for drivers,' not 'including drivers.' This is the system for the drivers, not insurers and attorneys, Mr. President -- it's there to help the drivers. In this system we create more lawsuits. There are no real savings in that regard.

"If this bill were to fail, Mr. President, I believe the consumers can still benefit. This body passed revisions to the medical fee schedule. One insurance company already said that means 9-plus percent reduction. Other insurance companies were holding off, waiting for what would happen in this session. So I believe should this bill fail, which I hope it does, there will be in the neighborhood of 10 percent just on the medical fee schedule alone. Chiropractic services in the medical fee schedule are more limited than what this bill proposes. This bill proposes to give chiropractors more opportunity, not less. Where are we going? We need to address the true cost driver, Mr. President.

"In our Transportation Committee with the Senator from God's country and other members with the help of the Judiciary Committee, we passed safety measures -- graduated driver's licenses to take care of teens or young drivers with little driving experience, implied consent, zero tolerance, issues like that, Mr. President. Pickup truck limits -- those are safety issues. Those will reduce premiums. Those will help consumers, overall -- safety measures. Just as in workers' comp, you have safety measures. But we need to address litigation, the main remaining factor that is the cost driver, not to give more litigation. We need less, Mr. President.

"And yes, Mr. Simons in workers' comp, and I'm familiar with Mr. Simons coming before our committees and saying, 'I don't know the cost. We don't have the data.' I object to him saying now, 'Oh, we're the first in the nation to do a creative system and I have this marvelous data.' That is not consistent and that is not the job of our state actuary to come up with a new system. His job is to price based on the past! That's what actuaries' jobs are! They need to do their job all the way along and give adequate pricing, not at the end claiming to be an expert, Mr. President.

"I vote 'no,' and I say if this bill goes down there'll still be savings, savings that the voters can live with, that the constituents can live with, that the drivers can live with, based on the medical savings that are already in place from the workers' comp reform medical fee schedule reform and let's take care of litigation. And yes, let's have reform. Let's not have this, we did it and have the voters, the public and everybody say what happened, Mr. President. Let's be accountable."

Senator Tam rose in opposition as follows:

"Mr. President, I stand before us on this difficult issue to stand in opposition to this bill.

"Everyone gave their various reasons for why 'yes' or 'no' on this bill, and we all want, in terms of a consumer oriented bill, the cost savings for the consumers in auto insurance. Let me give you another point of view.

"First of all, let me say this, in the bill it says that there are several facts: (1) it lessens the medical benefits and other benefits which we are all used to and which is a given, quite frankly, in today's society to protect one's self; (2) it offers a cafeteria plan which will cost more to protect one's self (otherwise called 'riders'). For example, the loss of pay due to a car accident when you're out of work. Everybody needs something to live on when they're in the hospital or recuperating; (3) supposedly a 25 to 35 percent reduction of the basic coverage. Now, I say basic coverage. Keep in mind that there is a bill that proposes to lessen the coverage that we all are used to. So you have a basic coverage like the welfare recipients have and I know for a fact, when I got hit by a driver who was on welfare, their welfare coverage is real basic. Imagine we're going to have this basic coverage for everyone, no matter what kind of assets you have; and (4) it opens the door for more litigation.

"Let me give you an example in terms of what can happen from a sales point of view. I'm addressing this from the sales point of view in terms of how it can cost the consumer more. We all are used to going to a car dealer to buy a brand new car or a second-hand car. Take a brand new car -- you go to a car lot and you look at the car, and you say I want that car and it costs $15,000. And I believe one of the dealers does this. He says, this is your basic cost of the car. Now if you want other things, you have to add it on. The other things like, for example, air conditioning, the color of the car, the window tint, safety locks for children, quality tires rather than just poor tires, and of course the all famous tax and license. So what do you come up with basically? Instead of paying $15,000, because the salesman did a good job in terms of selling you more of these riders, your cost of the car will come up to maybe $25,000, which is not really what you wanted to do. You wanted to spend only $15,000 or maybe a little bit more, but not $25,000.

"As one in sales, if I may, I can see that happening to our consumers. The salesperson out there will approach a consumer and say to the consumer, well, this is your basic coverage, but keep in mind you have a home, you have children, you have a job; you need these other riders because otherwise when you get into a car accident, you're not well, what are you going to do? How are you going to survive? So what happens is that the salesperson presents a scare tactic in order for the consumer to buy more insurance coverage. And I can see this happening, quite frankly. And if I may, being a salesman myself, it leaves the door open for a salesperson to do that. Do we really want that to happen? I don't think so.

"I'm really worried about this bill, to be honest with you. We say 25 to 35 percent reduction in terms of the cost of the insurance, but I'm going to be asked by the consumers in my district and I know by other consumers out there in the community statewide, can we guarantee? And quite frankly I'm going to say, no, I cannot guarantee. They'll say, why did you vote on this bill, then? I want a guarantee. And I'll say I'm sorry. And they're going to say, well, if you can't guarantee why did you do it? It's going to go around in circles, to be honest with you.

"If I may conclude, this bill in essence, when you think about it, is an insurance bill -- an insurance company bill. Why? Because it generates more money. What the insurance companies would do, basically, is offer this basic plan and have these riders. Now, instead of paying for loss of wages, maybe about $50 more in premiums, as an example, you're going to pay three times that amount, $150. Now, insurance companies are no fools. They're going to make up their losses. Because we're going to mandate basic coverage, they're going to make up their losses in riders. This happens even with medical plans at HMSA, Kaiser, and so forth. I can see that happening to our auto insurance.

"It's also an attorney oriented bill. And I have friends who are in insurance, business or attorneys, and they are going to get upset with me. But the truth is that this is also an attorney oriented bill because it opens up the litigation. Attorneys are crying right now for jobs and the only leverage that they have out there is to say, I'm going to sue the other party. Everybody wants money. This is a greedy world we live in right now. The economy is down. People say, I want money in my pocket, so they're willing to sue everybody.

"The consumers want a guarantee to lower savings in auto insurance. And I cannot offer that guarantee, personally, nor as a Senator in the State Senate. We need a formula for the insurance cafeteria plan or the riders plan. Why not put a formula together whereby the insurance companies cannot charge these outrageous prices for riders. We never thought about it, I guess, but maybe we should re-look at it.

"Thank you very much."

At 11:07 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:12 o'clock a.m.

Senator Anderson rose to oppose the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'll try to be very brief. I, too, will be going 'no' Mr. President, and I'll try to give some other reasons than some of my colleagues. I agree with everything and I'm very proud of Senator Sakamoto. I thought only the Portuguese got angry, or Hawaiians, but he made us all proud. He got a little 'habut' there.

"But let me say, Mr. President, the other evening I ran into a lady that said, with all the reservations that you had against the budget, yet you voted 'aye.' On that particular measure there was a lot in there for our constituents. I'm voting 'no' on his particular measure, Mr. President, because I don't believe there's enough there for the constituents.

"I can remember that the lieutenant governor, when we fought this issue a few years ago, said that by lowering the threshold we may be in court more often, but we should be able to save. And I don't think that's true. What we have not discussed is that the other day in settlements against the state, 85 percent are settled out of court. If in fact we lower that threshold, how many of these people are going to be sued? But they're going to be settled out of court so we won't know too much, but their insurance could go up. Now, my understanding when we met with the two chairmen, and I give them a lot of credit, I know they've worked hard, but my understanding is that there is a cap that we can work on with the insurance companies. But there's nothing for the attorneys. There's no way that we can find out how many times they're taking us to court, how many times they're settling out of court, what kinds of pressures they're putting on the insurance companies to be a cost driver. We won't know that and I'm worried about that factor.

"Also, Mr. President, I understand that when we were supposed to have the roll-back some years ago, I don't think that when we mandated 20 percent that there was a lot of new policies written. And a lot of people did not get any roll-back. This year, I understand with what we have there might be a constitutional problem, and that, too, worries me.

"I think Senator Malama was right when she said that the Speaker had already, on television, said that there is a possibility we'll have to be called back to session because of privatization. Then why don't we just go ahead and not do this bill because it's not going to help our consumers and we mandate that they take insurance, and we'll come back. Give us a date. Extend this one, go back June 1 or whatever.

"In closing, Mr. President, I'd like to say that for my people that elect me in the windward side, Waimanalo and Kailua, and also your families and friends that I represent in that district, I will be voting 'no.' But also because I'm a State President -- State Senator, excuse me (laughter). You think I wanted your job there for a minute. Nah, I wouldn't want to be in your position, Sir (more laughter) -- but as my responsibility as a State Senator, I will also make sure that my friends and family that live in your districts will know that I am also voting 'no' for them because I don't believe that this particular bill is going to help them in any way.

"Thank you very, very much, Mr. President."

Senator McCartney rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"Mr. President, our current no-fault system is a system that has lost its way. It is sick and not well. The bill before us puts it back on track. It's the surgery needed to bring it back to health. Mr. President, there's no magic wand to solve the problems and the forces that prevail on this issue in our society.

"I believe, Mr. President, that our co-chairs worked hard, diligently and they did their best to come up with a bill that isn't a bill for attorneys, isn't a bill for insurance companies -- it is a bill for consumers and the public. This bill provides the reform that our present system needs, and I urge all our members to support the bill.

"Thank you."

Senator Metcalf rose to support the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I ask that the Majority Leader's remarks be included in the Journal as my own, and in addition I have some fairly extensive remarks in support of the measure that I'd like also to be inserted in the Journal.

"Thank you."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Metcalf's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. No. 100, C.D. 1. I wish to commend co-chairs Baker and Ige for their hard work in achieving significant reform of our automobile insurance system, based upon actuarially sound principles.

"This reform measure reduces insurance premiums for all consumers, gives greater choices to consumers, places significant limitations on litigation, provides insurance fraud laws that insurance companies have requested, and allows the Insurance Commissioner power to adjust rates when carriers realize excessive profits.

"Insurance companies have started an expensive media campaign to undermine this reform proposal, which would end the excessive profits currently enjoyed by insurers. Some companies claim that this reform measure will not result in lower premiums for consumers, but will increase premiums for many consumers. This is a tactic which has been used before. When the Legislature passed workers' compensation reform in 1995, the state actuary projected rate reductions of more than 25 percent. The insurance industry claimed that the workers' compensation reforms could not achieve those savings. In fact, those workers' compensation reforms resulted in a 27 percent rate reduction and three new companies entered the Hawaii market. Further reductions from the 1995 legislation are predicted for the next few years.

"In 1992, insurers agreed to changes in the no-fault law calling for a 15 percent rate reduction. The state actuary was not consulted and did not have the chance to analyze the rate reductions that might be realized from that proposal. As it turned out, the insurers were wrong again and the 1992 amendments produced virtually no rate reductions for most consumers.

"The lesson to be learned from the 1992 and 1995 experiences is that there is no substitute for sound actuarial analysis by the independent state actuary. Promises or representations by insurance companies, or any other special interest, cannot serve as the basis for mandatory rate reductions, unless verified by the independent state actuary.

"The state actuary has reviewed claims made by insurance companies that this reform measure will not produce the anticipated savings and has determined that these claims are not accurate. The state actuary remains confident that the rate reductions required in this reform measure are defensible and can be enforced.

"It is critical to have mandated rate reductions which are actuarially sound in order to achieve reduced rates which are fair to both consumers and insurance companies. Insurance companies have enjoyed record and excessive profits for several years now, but with few exceptions have made little effort to voluntarily reduce rates to reasonable levels. Insurance companies in Hawaii make twice the profit as the national average, with only Rhode Island enjoying profits as high as Hawaii. Insurance companies in Hawaii have the best loss ratio, paying out less of the premium dollars collected for claims than any other state in the nation. Yet Hawaii has the second highest premiums in the nation.

"Some insurance companies have criticized this reform measure as requiring a reduction in benefits to consumers. Nothing could be further from the truth. This reform measure makes certain coverages, such as wage loss, optional. Drivers who don't need wage loss, such as retirees, students, those with personal disability coverage, or those with sufficient employer provided TDI, sick leave and vacation benefits will no longer be forced to buy coverage they do not want nor need. Thus the claim that this bill reduces consumer rights is wrong. It in fact increases consumer choices so consumers do not have to buy duplicate coverages and can thereby lower their insurance premiums.

"Finally, insurance company calculations on the savings provided in this reform measure are based upon their present rates. These rates, of course, are already inflated to produce excessive profits. Therefore the savings projected by the insurance companies must be increased to account for those excessive profits which will no longer be allowed under this reform measure.

"Mr. President, this is a sound and fair measure. In hearing the objections voiced by some amateur actuaries on the floor and special interests, against it, I am reminded of Shakespeare's quote in MacBeth, Act 5, Scene 5, which reads in part 'Full of sound and fury, signifying nothing.'"

Senator Kanno rose to support the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I'm rising to speak in favor of the measure.

"Five years ago, my wife was in a serious accident. She was at a traffic intersection in Waipahu. When the light turned green she proceeded across the intersection. This other driver did not see the red light and hit her broadside at full speed. She had serious injuries and to this day has sharp pains in her neck that she struggles with. Was the insurance company there to help and support my wife? No, they were not. She was an innocent victim.

"Through the help and support of an attorney she was able to get a settlement out of the insurance company. I am not an attorney, but I think that attorneys play a vital role in our society to fight for the rights of our residents. If insurance companies are against this bill, Mr. President, I fully support this measure.

"Thank you."

Senator Iwase rose in response as follows:

"Mr. President, in response to the previous speaker, I appreciate his comments.

"The injury to someone in an auto accident is something that we all are concerned about. I'm concerned about it, as well. Everyone here is. But with respect to this specific example that he cited, or the kinds of examples he cited, presently the no-fault law has unlimited BI. So if there is an auto accident involving multiple parties, there could be decent, fair recovery. This bill caps it at $40,000 per accident. If there are multiple parties involved in an accident, your recovery is lower. Your recovery is not fair. Your recovery may not be enough.

"So, with respect to the lawsuit issue, study that portion of that bill because there is not fair recovery for an injured victim.

"Thank you."

Senator Fernandes Salling rose in opposition to the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this bill.

"I'd like to acknowledge the hard work done by both the co-chairs of the committee. But I'm not willing to go home after the many years that we have been fighting here on the floor and tell people on Kauai that yes, I really do believe you're going to see the kind of rate reduction that's being promised by this Legislature. I can't say that in all honesty to them.

"We have seen in the past what the insurance companies have done when we have said we are going to mandate a reduction. We've not been guaranteed any such sort reduction. We've not seen any kinds of reductions along those lines, and until such time that we can say to our people in all honesty that that is what in fact they will be getting from us, from the Legislature, through our attempts for auto reform, I cannot support this measure."

Senator Baker rose again in support and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise for a few additional remarks in support of this measure.

"I know that this measure does not please everyone. The nature of this issue will not allow that outcome. One cannot have a Lexus if one's budget can only support a stripped down Ford. This measure was designed to help bring the cost of automobile insurance down for basic coverage so that adequate coverage was available to most people at a reasonable, affordable price. That is what we have done.

"Yes, we have reduced some of the minimum mandatory coverages. They're still greater than a lot of the minimum mandates in other states. They need to be because we have a higher cost of living here. Unfortunately because of that, insurance for us will always be higher than much of the continental 48 states. This measure provides some very important features. It does provide a disincentive to sue. Under the current law, if you manage to pad your claim and reach up to $13,901 you could sue for every dollar of the $13,901. Under this new law, you may not sue from dollar one. You will not be able to recover the deductible amount and that is a disincentive to sue. Talk to any attorney. They will tell you that.

"We have eliminated the ability to pad claims -- a major cost driver under the present system. The definition of personal injury protection benefits are medical benefits as defined in pre-paid health. We've made alternative care optional. We've put a box around the utilization of chiropractic care. Those were the two major ways to pad claims under the current system. We've eliminated substitute services from PIP coverage -- another cost driver. We've eliminated mandatory wage loss coverage. Lots of folks don't need those features now because they're covered in other plans. By eliminating the ability to pad claims we'll be able to keep payouts low and that will help to reduce costs in the system.

"The committee was charged with a couple of goals when we undertook this assignment this year. The first was not to cost-shift to employers -- we don't. The average medical payout under the current system is only $4,700. We have personal injury protection (medical coverage) of $10,000. We believe and our actuary confirms that's adequate to prevent a cost shift to prepaid health plans. This measure does not cost-shift to small business or other employers.

"Secondly, we had to reduce the cost in the system. We've addressed the major cost drivers. We've put a box around litigation. We've put a box around the chiropractic care abuses, and we've eliminated alternative care as part of the basic coverage. We've eliminated claim padding. And we believe, based on an actuarial analysis of the C.D. 1, that we have a defensible savings of between 20-35 percent off basic rates that were in effect July 1, 1996.

"And I would just call everybody's attention to the process that we went through when we lowered workers' compensation rates. Lots of folks said, can't happen; you're not going to get it down. We were able to mandate a 27 percent reduction by the legislation that we passed. It was defended by the commissioner's office. It was defended by DLIR. Not only did small businesses save as a result, but we had additional carriers come into the state. The parallel's with auto insurance reform are apparent. It's logical to assume that we're going to see the same reductions here.

"I think the situation in 1997 is far different than it was in 1992. This is a defensible bill and I urge my colleagues to vote 'yes.'

"Thank you."

Senator Levin rose to support the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"A couple of years ago congress was debating a very broad health care insurance reform proposed by President Clinton. That legislation was eventually defeated by a coalition of those who wanted more and those who wanted less. The phrase that came out of that was that 'It's a terrible thing to have the perfect be the enemy of the good.' That situation comes to mind as I hear the sentiments that are being voiced on this floor today with respect to opposition to this bill.

"No one, including the chairs of the Consumer Protection Committee who worked so hard on this bill, is claiming that this is a perfect bill. But, does it move us forward? I certainly think it does.

"I share the sentiments voiced by my colleague from Kauai and I share the sentiments voiced by my colleague from God's country. I even share the sentiments, dare I say, of those expressed by the Minority Floor Leader. I have been a strong advocate of choice. I probably would support pay-at-the-pump, and if this bill doesn't work we can revisit those issues. We can look at additional ways to help the consumer. But does anybody really want to go home, go back to their constituents and tell them that no-fault still lives -- that the existing law is going to continue in place. I think that is the worst of all worlds. If we're going to look for a perfect bill, the question is going to rise, what can we agree on that might be perfect.

"There are a handful of us on this floor, and presumably we have colleagues in the House, as well, who do think that choice is the way to go. But do we really believe that if we had a Special Session that we would come out with a choice bill? I think not.

"I think that we have fought this struggle for years and that we have come up with something that does move us forward and it is worthy of our support.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson rose again and stated:

"Mr. President, may I have a few words to, I guess you could say, rebut what my colleague from Hilo has said.

"I think Senator Iwase mentioned earlier, we've had three previous bills -- one that went up to the governor that he refused to sign; one that we believe, as Senators, was a very good bill. Last year we sat and did not pass anything because we were looking at a 45 percent reduction for everybody. And that was a good bill.

"We're not here just to pass bills. To work hard is what we're elected for. But just to pass something to be passing something is not what the game is all about. The game is about trying to do the best that you can for the people that elect you and want you to represent them properly.

"We had a good Senate bill. I was proud to stand on this floor and be a Senator and say, hey, I will back the Senate position such as I did with the budget. But when we crumble in and give everything and end up with something that we're not proud of, I would rather go back with nothing. And I can go ahead and explain that to my constituents. I have no problem with that. And as I said earlier, I have lots of friends and family on your island that you represent, my friends and family. I would rather you tell them that you cannot go ahead and buy this bill because it doesn't give them anything.

"Thank you, Senator."

Senator M. Ige opposed the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak against this measure.

"Mr. President, I was expecting to say anything until the Senate Vice President stood and mentioned the perfect bill that we're all trying to work towards. But, Mr. President, I will go home. I'll vote 'no' and go home and tell my constituents and face the criticism on this measure, Senator Levin. I believe it is more important that we live up to the spirit of the Senate President in his opening day speech that we all work together to provide a measure that we all can agree to.

"Let me just read from the Senate Journal on the First Day: 'The lesson we have learned is that there is strength in cooperation. Working together, we can overcome all obstacles, yet sustain Hawaii as a very special place, our island home, where impossible dreams are possible.' And that was said by our Senate President.

"Senator Levin, my feeling is yes, we can come to consensus if there is an extension, like the Speaker is contemplating, that we should not throw in the towel, that we should continue to work together as a team to make our community a better place.

"With that, Mr. President, I would like to say I will vote 'no' and I will go home and face the music of my community.

"Thank you."

Senator Chun Oakland then requested that her remarks in support of the measure be inserted into the Journal and the Chair having so ordered, Senator Chun Oakland's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I sat through numerous hearings for the past four years on motor vehicle insurance reform. The overwhelming concerns voiced at these hearings by consumers on various proposals on this issue were: (1) insurance companies denying legitimate claims they made to their insurance company; (2) the unreasonable length and process of the peer review element of the present system; (3) the cost of insurance premiums being unaffordable; and (4) the need to have a greater ability to control their own destinies when they do get injured.

"My family has only basic insurance coverage. That is all we can afford. I'm probably the only legislator who has basic minimum coverage. I know I am typical of many people who drive. I believe this measure is a step forward and very much appreciate our co-chairs of CPI and their committee in working extremely hard on this product. I thank the consumers, providers and others for all their help."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171 was adopted and H.B. No. 100, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE," having been read throughout, and Roll Call vote having been requested, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 13. Noes, 12 (Aki, Anderson, Bunda, Fernandes Salling, Ige, M., Iwase, Kawamoto, Sakamoto, Slom, Solomon, Tam, Tanaka).

At 11:31 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:34 o'clock a.m.

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, just on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I would like to thank all my colleagues for all of their tolerance and indulgence. I think no matter what, we had a great session, and at least now I think we have come to the understanding that we can all agree to disagree. I always tried to be as persuasive as I possibly could. (Laughter.)

"Thank you very much, Mr. President. Thank you all for this wonderful session. Aloha."

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Thank you, Mr. President, and I thank my colleague from the Big Island. I just want to thank all my colleagues for all of their help and support and assistance in this my first session. It was interesting because people kept asking me, are you having fun; are you having fun. And I'd say, well, this is a wonderful group. They're a fun-loving bunch of men and women, and of course we always have fun.

"But we weren't sent here to have fun. We were sent here to make change. We were sent here to improve the lot of every one of our citizens. We were sent here to improve our business climate which still ranks 50th in the nation. We were sent here to give people more take-home pay. We were sent here to improve workers' compensation and to have full and open hearings on everything that we do and we discuss. We were sent here to create opportunities and choices and provide incentives. We were sent here to stop the brain-drain and to stop the bankruptcies and stop the foreclosures, and to give sovereignty to each and every one of us and without economic sovereignty there can be no true individual sovereignty or freedom. We were sent here to do a job and to remember also that if we are to settle anytime on any issue for the lesser of two evils, that we are always still settling for evil.

"We have made a great many accomplishments. We have gotten a lot of things out of the way. And we'll be back; we'll be back to focus more closely and more carefully on those problems that affect each and every one of us. And I'll still be here to read the obituary list but I hope that we can do something to stop that reading, to make that list much smaller.

"And so I again thank you for all of your help even though I did not get ice cream after my last vote. And I did count, Mr. President, that since the beginning of this session the word collaboration was used 594 times. The Clerk may check to see if my mathematics is accurate. And so what I would like to leave my colleagues is the Webster's definition of that word that you all use so frequently and so openly. I will hand out a copy to you but, of course, the No. 1 definition is, 'to work together, especially in a joint intellectual effort,' and I know there was a great deal of intellectualizing that went on here day by day. However, the second primary definition of collaborate is, 'to cooperate treasonably, as with an enemy occupying one's country.' I would just make sure that we're all using the first definition (laughter) and that we can tell the difference so that we do not have further instances of government occupying every individual's way of life, way of thinking, way of making a living.

"So, again to you, Mr. President, and to my colleagues, thank you and mahalo. Aloha."

Senate President Mizuguchi then delivered his closing remarks as follows:

"Members of the Senate, I will use the K-I-S-S technique -- Keep It Short and Sweet -- because I'm sure you don't want a long-winded speech right now.

"Three and one-half months ago we set out on a journey to take care of some unfinished business. We heard the public's message loud and clear and worked tirelessly to settle that unfinished business.

"I was heartened to see that collaboration seemed to be the watchword for this session. Partnering efforts and greater interaction between members of the Senate and their committees instilled a spirit of cooperation.

"It's very easy for critics to sit on the sidelines and judge our legislative process -- what we've done and how we've done it. In the face of these same critics who said that our co-chair system would not work, you proved them wrong. The result is a legislative package that we all can be proud of.

"Your Herculean efforts took care of unfinished business and I'm very grateful as your Senate President.

"Amidst changing federal policies and mandates, larger-than-expected revenue shortfalls, and painful budget cuts, people expected -- and demanded -- that their needs be met. That was our challenge during this legislative session. In spite of tremendous outside forces beyond our control, I believe we met that challenge. As best we could, we provided for the people ... first and foremost. But our work is not yet done. People will continue to ask: 'What will you do for me tomorrow?' We will need to face that challenge by defining a new Hawaii.

"Although as an island state we have physical and resource limitations, I believe that bold, creative revenue-enhancing initiatives can help re-define Hawaii. I look forward to working with all of you to develop them.

"The public, special-interest groups, the media, and others will critique and grade our work this session. We might not receive rave reviews but no matter what the critics say, you can go home today knowing that you did your best to support the public's interest.

"I thank you Senators, both majority and minority, and all of your staff for your commitment and hard work on behalf of the people of this great State of Hawaii. My compliments for a job well done. Aloha and mahalo."

ADJOURNMENT

Senator Ihara moved that the Senate of the Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1997, adjourn Sine Die, seconded by Senator Slom and carried.

At 11:45 o'clock a.m., the President rapped his gavel and declared the Senate of the Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1997, adjourned Sine Die.

FROM: Martin M. Simons

Subject: Hawaii's New Automobile Insurance Law.

Hawaii's new automobile insurance law gives Hawaii's drivers a greater choice in providing for their automobile insurance needs. This legislation continues to control the legal costs associated with minor injuries and eliminates the duplicate payment of claims that are already covered through other forms of insurance, thereby saving the Hawaii consumer millions of dollars in annual automobile insurance premiums while continuing to provide the much needed coverages associated with driving an automobile.

There are savings included in the new law for every purchaser of insurance in the State. The legislature has addressed those issues that have been the major contributors in driving up the cost of insurance in Hawaii. While automobile insurance rates will always be driven by the higher than average cost of products and services in the State, this law will provide for substantial reductions in the price of Hawaii's automobile insurance. Additional savings are available to those insurance buyers who elect not to purchase certain coverage that they decide they do not need. Hawaii insurance purchasers can expect to see savings of as much as twenty to thirty-five percent from last year's rates as the new rates and premiums are adjusted for the effects of this law. By deciding upon his or her own insurance needs, each citizen is in a position to determine the amount of coverage needed, and to directly impact upon his or her individual insurance cost savings.

In addition, the law provides for increased powers on the part of state officials in investigating and punishing those who are found guilty of fraud in association with virtually all parts of the insurance process. Activities that have provided costly delays in the automobile insurance process have been discontinued and the abilities of state officials to prevent costly excesses have been improved.

Automobile insurance legislation is a complex and intricate issue. Contributions to this much needed insurance reform have come from all sectors involved in the automobile insurance process including consumers, medical providers, insurers and public officials.

SUBJECT HB100 HD1 SD1 CD1
(1997-2599 HB100 CD1 SMA-9)

I have reviewed the language in the captioned Bill which was faxed to me late in the evening on April 28, 1997 Hawaii time.

The provisions in this Bill will provide for savings in the premiums charged for basic insurance (i.e., mandated coverages) of between 20 percent and 35 percent from the rates that were in effect on July 1, 1996.

May 1, 1997

TO: Commissioner Rey Grauly

FROM: Martin M. Simons

SUBJECT: HB100 CD1

The legislature has received letters from State Farm, The Hawaii Insurers' Council and the National Association of Independent Insurers. This letter is intended to provide additional information relative to those letters and the issues raised by those parties.

State Farm has reduced its estimate of expected savings from those provided previously, asserting that the reduction is due to an increase in medical coverage and an increase in the liability limits from those which were included in the prior versions. They fail to mention that the deductible has been increased through the use of the "covered loss deductible" concept. In prior analyses, State Farm has estimated that the savings will increase by from 6% to 7% on the basic policy by moving the deductible from $5,000 to $10,000. That means that a 13% savings under a $5,000 deductible will increase to 19%-20% with a $10,000 deductible. The covered loss deductible will produce a result quite similar to that for a $10,000 deductible, and the resulting difference in pricing will also be similar. They also contend that the mandated rate reductions in each of the drafts has not changed when the lower end of the range of reductions has, in fact, been revised from 25% in previous proposals down to 20% in this Bill.

State Farm has provided the legislature with estimates based upon their current rate levels. The reductions in HB100 CD1 however, relate to reductions from the rates that were in effect on July 1, 1996. Since State Farm had reductions in the rates for the basic policy mandated coverages since July 1, 1996, these reductions should be added to those contained in their April 10, 1997 letter to the Senate President. Taking the above issues into account, it appears that State Farm is in agreement with the savings as they are stated in the Bill.

Absent from any of the industry responses and pricing analyses are the extremely favorable recent trends in clam frequency and average claim costs for automobile insurance in Hawaii. Following 1995 experience, which produced the lowest personal automobile loss ratios in the country, claim frequency and severity trends showed substantial additional improvements in 1996. The source of this information is the fast track data through the end of 1996 that is presented by the insurance industry to The National Association of Insurance Commissioners. In spite of the fact that the loss ratios have dropped dramatically, and insurer profits have risen accordingly, there has only been a modicum of rate reductions filed with the Insurance Division that incorporate much or even any of these improvements. As insurers file for rates under the new system in order to assure that those rates are not excessive or inadequate, these favorable trends will have to be taken into consideration. HB100 CD1 gives the insurance commissioner the power, and in fact the duty, to do so.

In State Farm's analysis of the family that purchases higher than minimum limits, this family has purchased and continues to purchase $50,000 of PIP coverage. This includes medical as well as wage loss coverage in excess of the minimum. Medical coverage in excess of $10,000 is costly. The added benefit to many already protected Hawaii consumers is questionable. HB100 CD1 allows this family to purchase additional wage loss coverage up to their desired level without purchasing medical coverage in excess of the minimum. If the insurance industry expended the same amount of effort in educating this policyholder of the true benefits or lack thereof of purchasing high limits of medical coverage as they have in convincing the legislature of the shortcomings of HB100 CD1 perhaps this family would see a greater savings.

The insurance industry continues to contend that the savings in HB100 CD1 are due strictly from reductions in mandated coverages. Ignored in such a statement are criteria such as the following:

- 1) There has been a great deal of discussion through these proceedings as well as all of the automobile insurance discussions over the past years relating to the effect upon rates of the "padding" of claims. Claims padding occurs when claimants seek additional treatments and incur other additional economic losses in order to reach a threshold or in this case a deductible and thereby gain the ability to litigate against a negligent party to an automobile insurance case. Claim padding has been the single major cost driver under the monetary threshold, causing the threshold to become a moving target in order to keep a specific percentage of claims out of the litigation process. Insurers have alleged that the $5,000 deductible contained in HB100 CD1 will increase the amount of claim padding since the $5,000 level is substantially below the current monetary threshold of $13,900.

Actually, HB100 CD1 addresses the claim padding problem in several ways, and a comparison of the $5,000 to $10,000 deductible level with the current $13,900 monetary threshold is meaningless unless all of the issues are considered. HB100 CD1 does not permit the use of wage losses in attaining the deductible level while wage losses were used extensively to meet the monetary threshold. In addition, chiropractic and other alternative care provisions were used extensively to meet the monetary threshold. HB100 CD1 makes it virtually impossible to use alternative care expenses to pad claims in order to reach the deductible. Most important, once the monetary threshold was pierced, claimants were able to sue for every dollar of economic loss, including all those expenses that were "padded" to reach the threshold. The deductible reduces each claim that reaches litigation by an amount between $5,000 and $10,000 depending upon the medical expenses incurred since those are the only expenses that are used in deriving the ability to sue and the deductions are commensurate with coverage that is provided elsewhere in the policy. This process directly addresses and substantially reduces the abuse that was inherent under the monetary threshold. Comparisons between a $13,900 monetary threshold and a $5,000 to $10,000 covered loss deductible without taking these very significant differences into account are misleading at best.

2) HB 100 CD1 directly addresses the Legislature's concerns relative to the high average bodily injury liability claim cost in Hawaii. Each Bodily Injury Claim will be reduced under HB100 CD1 from their levels under the current monetary threshold. Claims are reduced by the deductible that previously included first dollar coverage due to the monetary threshold concept, providing for a direct reduction in the average claim cost. Even if claim expenses are padded to the same extent as they have been under the current system (which is unlikely under the restrictions included in the Bill), there will be a reduction in the average bodily injury claim cost that will impact upon the experience and the rates for all policyholders whether they purchase minimum limits or greater than minimum limits.

3) The limitations placed upon chiropractic visits will impact upon the experience for all of Hawaii's automobile insurance purchasers by reducing the amount of claim dollars paid for these providers. In addition, the family referred to in State Farm's analysis who purchase more than the minimum coverages, will now have the option to purchase alternative care protection or not. It is now the purchaser rather than the State who will make those decisions. If families wish to save additional money by eliminating alternative care providers and by accepting limited chiropractic coverage, they may now do so.

4) Under the current system, insurance purchasers are required to purchase coverage for wage losses regardless of whether they are wage earners or not and regardless of whether they have wage loss coverage elsewhere or not. This includes retired people as well as those with wage loss coverage through a program provided by their employer. HB100 CD1 provides the opportunity for people to save money by not having to purchase coverage for funds they will never collect or for losses that are covered elsewhere. These are real savings provided for automobile insurance policyholders whether they purchase minimum limits or higher limits of coverage.

5) HB100 CD1 gives the Hawaii automobile insurance purchaser several other options that were not available in the past, including the ability to purchase wage loss coverage without having to purchase commensurate medical coverage.

6) As has been stated several times, the reductions stated in the Bill are from rates that were in effect on July 1, 1996. The reductions include the impact of the revised medical fee schedules that are further revised in HB100 CD1. It is the language of HB100 CD1 that gives the commissioner the power to reduce rates for the impact of these prior revisions. These decreases should have been taken immediately by all insurers, but it has been found necessary to include language such as that which is contained in HB100 CD1 to get those reductions to a substantial number of Hawaii's automobile insurance purchasers, regardless of the levels of insurance purchased.

7) The replacement of the current unlimited Bodily Injury liability limits with limits that are specific and definable will impact upon the rates paid by all Hawaii policyholders, regardless of the limits purchased.

8) The significant and substantial reductions in claim frequency and average claim cost that have been all but ignored by much of the insurance industry will impact upon the calculation of rates for all Hawaii policyholders, regardless of the limits purchased. These improvements have continued throughout 1996. HB100 CD1 gives the Commissioner the ability, given this highly profitable situation, to provide savings for all policyholders in the State, and will provide savings regardless of the limits purchased.

9) While the effects of the increased fraud provisions are not necessarily definable at this time, the fraud sections of HB100 CD1 will produce savings for all Hawaii policyholders, regardless of the limits purchased. These savings will take place over the next few years.

10) The effect of the elimination of peer review will similarly take some time to find its way into the rates. If the elimination of peer review does provide for less delays and faster claim payments, and if those faster claim payment processes do, in fact, save money, as many believe will occur, then the experience will allow for additional rate reductions for all Hawaii policyholders over the next few years, regardless of the limits purchased.

I have refrained from giving specifics of the rate reductions since these reductions will vary between insurers and each of the individual savings are interrelated. A change in one item will impact upon others, and the misuse of these estimates could be detrimental to the process. Keeping this in mind, I request that these numbers be viewed as guides to areas within the Bill that provide for savings and the amount of estimated savings derived from each item. The actual savings will be determined from individual insurer filings, the actual statistical information included in those filings and, if required, the discovery material obtained in the rate hearing process. Please refrain from adding or otherwise combining these estimates (either the minimums or maximums) as this will produce erroneous expectations. The following numbers are meant to provide an estimate of what is expected to be found within the rate filings submitted to the commissioner given the information available to us at this time. If I sound overly cautious, it's because of a fear that these estimates may be misused, and that such misuse will result in our inability to adequately defend the reductions in court. These are some of the reasons for a wide range of expected reductions such as that which is included in HB100 CD1. The resulting rate reductions that are expected to be derived from HB100 CD1 are between 20% and 35% for mandated coverages from the rates that were in effect on July 1, 1996, derived in light of the following:

PIP revision from $20,000 PIP to $10,000 medical with limited chiropractic coverage, no other alternative care coverage and no wage loss coverage = approximate savings of 12% to 17%.

BI revision from 25/unlimited with monetary threshold to 24/40 BI liability with covered loss deductible = approximate savings of 4% to 8%.

Reduction from previous med fee schedule change =

approximate savings of 5% to 8%.

Reductions to be effected due to Commissioner's ability within HB100 CD1 to reduce rates based upon favorable experience = approximate savings of 7% to 15%.

Additional future reductions due to fraud provisions are not defined or included.

Additional future reductions due to peer review elimination are not defined or included.

*****

I sincerely hope that this additional information will assist the legislature in making their decision. It is unfortunate that there doesn't seem to be a magical solution; one that will please all the parties involved in providing and purchasing automobile insurance in Hawaii. Throughout this process, I have attempted to assist you in responding to requests presented by the legislature for information and clarification of individual issues, concerns and proposals and to aid the decision makers in arriving at a workable solution to Hawaii's automobile insurance problems. As is now obvious to all, the process of amending automobile insurance legislation is a technical and extremely complex and difficult one.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 426

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 426, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Culture.'

The purposes of Senate Bill No. 426 are: (1) to establish a 'culture and the arts revolving fund' which shall be administered by the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, which shall receive revenues generated from the sale of goods and services, and which shall have expenditures limited to $50,000 annually; and (2) to require the Department of Land and Natural Resources to consult with the kahuna nui of the Mo'okini Heiau on all physical alterations and cultural matters relating to the historical sites within the Kohala Historical Sites State Monument.

While this bill provides increased support for cultural and commemorative events, it is not necessary. The State Foundation on Culture and the Arts already administers a trust fund and a works of art special fund. Moreover, the 'culture and the arts revolving fund' established by this bill does not comply with the Legislative Auditor's criteria for special funds (i.e., a clear link between the source of the fund and its intended beneficiaries and the ability to be self-sustaining). Finally, since the Department of Land and Natural Resources already consults with the kahuna nui of the Mo'okini Heiau on projects impacting the Kohala Historical Sites State Monument, it is unnecessary to include such a requirement in a statute.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 426 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Benjamin J. Cayetano
BENJAMIN J. CAYETANO
Governor of Hawaii"

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 426, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Culture,' passed by the Legislature, was presented to the Governor within the aforementioned period; and

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 843

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 843, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Small Business Taxation.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 843 is to provide a state income tax credit limited to $4,000 to qualified small businesses. The credit would equal the amount of the guaranty fee paid to the United States Small Business Administration (SBA).

The state small business tax credit would only go into effect after Congress enacts a similar federal tax credit, also based on the SBA guaranty fee. According to the local SBA office, Congress is not considering such a credit; therefore, this bill will not take effect within the near future and may never take effect.

If this bill does eventually take effect, it unfairly benefits a small group of businesses that have already benefited from access to loan funds. Moreover, the administrative costs to implement this bill would outweigh the potential benefits and there appears to be no need to provide a state tax credit to support a federal program.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 843 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1032

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1032, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating Marriage and Family Therapists.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 1032 is to regulate the profession of marriage and family therapists by specifying the education, experience, and examination requirements for licensure.

However, State regulation of marriage and family therapists is not warranted because: (1) there is limited evidence of actual abuse or harm by, and no recorded consumer complaints against, marriage and family therapists in the State; (2) the licensing fees that marriage and family therapists are required to pay are substantially greater than the average fees for the other professions; and (3) most marriage and family therapists in the State are members of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy and this association investigates allegations and imposes disciplinary sanctions against its members who violate a code of ethics.

Thus, the benefits of licensing marriage and family therapists are questionable and the imposition of new licensing requirements is contrary to the State's overall efforts to streamline government.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1032 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1082

Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1082, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the Environment.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 1082 is to require the Department of Health to evaluate the costs and fee structures of that department's water quality programs, develop a proposal to supplement revenues for those programs by fees and other means and submit recommendations to the Legislature.

While the Legislature's concern for adequate funding of state water quality programs is commendable, the bill is unnecessary. The Department of Health must already evaluate its costs and revenues and propose improvements as part of the budget review process used in preparing the executive budget that is submitted for legislative consideration. The department also did a specific costs and fees evaluation for environmental programs several years ago and will update it as needed to meet the intent of the bill. Furthermore, a legislative resolution would have been an ample expression of concern and more in keeping with past practice.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1082 without my approval.

Gov. Msg. No. 347, dated June 16, 1997, transmitting his statements of objection to House Bill Nos. 728, 1640, 1869 and 2234 which he has returned to the House of Representatives without his approval and which reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

June 16, 1997

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 728

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 728, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the Conveyance Tax.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 728 is to amend the conveyance tax law to exempt those transfers of real property in which the conveyance merely reflects a change in the form of ownership of the property without changing its beneficial ownership. These transfers include those that: (1) convey real property from an individual transferor to a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership that is wholly owned by that individual transferor; by the individual transferor and the transferor's spouse; or by the individual transferor, the transferor's spouse, and the transferor's children; and (2) convey real property from a limited liability company to an individual transferee who is the sole member of the limited liability company.

House Bill No. 728, however, contains a serious tax loophole that allows taxpayers, otherwise subject to the conveyance tax, to circumvent the tax by using a limited liability company as a vehicle to transfer real property to a third party. For example, an individual could transfer real property to a limited liability company, then sell the interest in the limited liability company to a third party. Because the sale of the interest in the limited liability company is not considered a transfer of real property, the conveyance tax would not apply. The third party, as the new owner and sole member of the limited liability company, could then convey the real property to himself or herself. This transfer would be exempt under House Bill No. 728. Therefore, House Bill No. 728 allows a taxpayer to use a limited liability company as a vehicle to transfer real property to a third party and improperly avoid the imposition of the conveyance tax.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 728 without my approval.

Respectfully,

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1640

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1640, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to General Excise Tax.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 1640 is to provide relief to certain businesses economically dislocated because of downsizing and to taxpayers adversely affected by natural disaster in counties with populations less than one hundred thousand or counties with an unemployment rate of ten percent or higher.

This bill, however, will result in reduced revenue collections, will defer needed excise tax payments, will ambiguously define 'economic dislocation' and 'industrial downsizing' to potentially cover a broad array of businesses, resulting in reduced state revenue collections, and may require additional appropriations for staff to implement.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1640 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1869, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Motor Vehicle Insurance.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 1869 is to amend section 431:10C-115.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, concerning the No-fault Administration Revolving Fund, to allow the Insurance Commissioner to hire personnel to meet the requirements of the section without regard to the civil service and compensation laws, chapters 76 and 77, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

However, a similar amendment of section 431:10C-115.5 to authorize additional personnel is also made in House Bill No. 100, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Motor Vehicle Insurance," which also passed during the regular session of 1997. STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2234

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2234, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the University of Hawaii.'

The purposes of House Bill No. 2234 are (1) to prohibit the Governor and the Director of Finance from reducing any budget request or allotment to the University of Hawaii below amounts appropriated by the Legislature, unless the University requests a reduction, and (2) to defer the implementation of the University of Hawaii 'budget formula' set forth in section 304-7.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, from fiscal year 1997-1998 to fiscal year 1999-2000.

This bill seriously compromises the Governor's fiduciary responsibility to control the rate of expenditures of general funds relative to general fund revenues. Under this bill adjustments cannot be made to the University's budget and allocation regardless of the financial condition of the State. If reductions must be made, the University would be totally protected from reductions while other state departments would suffer larger reductions.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 2234 without my approval.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1018

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill 1018, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Tax.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 1018 is to extend the period for claiming the energy conservation income tax credit provided for the installation of solar energy systems, wind energy systems, heat pump systems, and ice storage systems for an additional ten years, from January 1, 1999, to January 1, 2009.

For over twenty years, the State has been subsidizing the energy conservation industry by providing income tax credits for the installation of various energy saving systems. The purpose of this tax credit was to provide tax relief for the then fledgling alternative energy conservation industry.

The state tax credit was patterned after the federal tax credit which Congress repealed in 1986.

The alternative energy conservation industry is now a mature industry. Extending the tax credit another ten years amounts to a thirty year subsidy borne by Hawaii's taxpayers.

The revenue loss caused by this bill will be between $1,000,000 to $3,000,000 annually, a loss the State can ill afford.

The existing tax credit does not expire until December, 1998. There is ample time to consider alternative ways to promote the use of alternate energy systems.

If the Legislature is serious about promoting alternative energy uses by the public, it must enact policies which will mandate alternative energy use under appropriate conditions. My administration will work with the industry and the Legislature to develop more effective strategies to promote the installation of energy saving systems.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1018 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 817, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Education.'

Senate Bill No. 817 requires the Board of Education to establish guidelines to foster volunteer relationships between public school students and service providers.

This bill is unclear and ambiguous with regard to the definition of service providers and the volunteer relationships that would be developed between students and service providers in the volunteer service program. Moreover, since section 302A-1101, Hawaii Revised Statutes, already authorizes the Board of Education to establish policies and guidelines for educational programs, this bill is unnecessary.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 817 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1385, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to State War Memorials and Veterans' Cemeteries.'

The purpose of Senate Bill No. 1385 is to amend section 363-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to require the Office of Veterans Services to inspect state war memorials and veterans' cemeteries and report all repair and maintenance problems every three years instead of on an annual basis.

Section 14 of Article III of the Hawaii Constitution provides that '[e]ach law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title.' The title of Senate Bill No. 1385, however, appears to contain two subjects, 'war memorials' and 'veterans' cemeteries.' Consequently, this bill may be subject to question because of its title.

That question may be avoided and the same purpose achieved by the enactment of House Bill No. 1707, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to the Office of Veterans' Services.' House Bill No. 1707 has the same purpose and was also passed by the Legislature. Since I intend to approve House Bill No. 1707, the enactment of this bill is unnecessary.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1385 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO.
1874

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1874, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Welfare to Work Transition Assistance.'

The purpose of this bill is to facilitate the transition of public assistance recipients from welfare to work. however, this bill duplicates efforts already being pursued by the State.

Throughout the past year, the State has been actively involved in efforts to bring the State into compliance with the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act of 1996, which replaced the Aid to Families with Dependent Children entitlement program with a transitional aid program called the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program. The federal act requires recipients who are able to work to secure employment as soon as possible, and states must meet strict work participation requirements in order to qualify for federal funds.

This bill mandates the Department of Human Services (DHS) to eliminate obstacles to work and promote new job opportunities for public assistance recipients. The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (DLIR) and the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism (DBEDT) must assist DHS in creating job opportunities for recipients. However, this bill is unnecessary. The mandates are already being aptly addressed by the DHS. For example, DHS is ready to implement by July 1, 1997, child care payment restructuring to accommodate persons attending work transition programs, and has secured work initiative programs with nonprofit agencies. The DHS has also already organized an Interagency Task Force on Welfare to Work, comprised of a multidisciplinary group from the federal and state departments and agencies as well as the Legal Aid Society of Hawaii. DLIR and DBEDT have actively participated in this task force. I have every confidence in the DHS to continue with efforts in addition to those listed to assist the transition for public assistance recipients.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1874 without my approval.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1393

Honorable Members
Nineteenth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill 1393, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Salaries in the Judiciary.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 1393 is to increase the salaries of supreme court justices and of intermediate appellate court, circuit court, and district court judges.

While I recognize that the justices and judges have not had a pay raise in the last seen years, in times of budgetary constraints, I must be circumspect with the funds available. Simply increasing salaries without concomitant adjustments to the pension entitlements does nothing but perpetuate the 'High Three' pension for which this legislature was criticized. When the Legislature finally took remedial action to address the 'High Three' problem, it did not alter the Judiciary's right to three and a half percent or its right to retire without consideration of an age limit.

Increasing salaries across the board without adjusting retirement benefits will not result in keeping our qualified judges on the bench. Indeed, it will only provide them with a greater incentive to leave.

A more balanced incentive measure is the appropriate response to encourage public service as opposed to simply raising salaries across the board.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1393 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1804, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Repairs and Maintenance.'

The purpose of House Bill No. 1804 is to assure that adequate funds are available to maintain and repair state facilities by creating a repair and maintenance special fund into which shall be transferred one percent of all state general obligation bond fund appropriations for capital improvements designated as the construction cost element.

Although the purpose of this bill clearly has merit, this bill requires that twenty-five percent of the amount transferred into the fund be used for repair and maintenance for the Judiciary. The designation of twenty-five percent of the amounts transferred into the fund to be used for the Judiciary is inappropriate, because the Judiciary represents only one and one-half percent of state facilities and capital improvement construction appropriations.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1804 without my approval.

Rule 40. Order of Business: Committee Reports and Gubernatorial Messages

Reports from Conference or Joint Committees, and from the Leadership Committee on Legislative Management, shall be in order at all times after the second order of business, and, upon motion, messages from the Governor or from the House of Representatives may be received at any time. Rule 41. Order of Business: Order of the Day

After the first seven orders of business set forth in Rule 38, it shall be in order, pending consideration thereof, to move that the Senate proceed to dispose of the unfinished business or to the Order of the Day. PART V. BILLS; RESOLUTIONS

Rule 44. Bills: Introduction

Any bill may be introduced on the report of the committee or by any member, except appropriation bills subject to the next paragraph and except short form bills which may only be introduced by the majority party leader or the minority party leader after appropriate consultation with committee chairs and other members of the Senate.

The Executive Budget, Judiciary Budget, Legislative Budget, General Appropriations Bill, Supplemental Appropriations Bill, Office of Hawaiian Affairs Budget, and bills for criminal injuries compensation, for claims against the State and for funding of collective bargaining agreements may be introduced only by the President. Each member may introduce only one bill appropriating money for capital improvements projects in the member's district. The majority party leader and the minority party leader shall develop a policy governing introduction by individual members of bills intended to appropriate money or to authorize the issuance of state bonds.

All bills shall be introduced under the order of resolutions.

Bills which shall carry over from a regular session in an odd-numbered year to the next regular session shall retain the numbers assigned to them. The Clerk shall keep a record of the status of all bills in possession of the Senate at the end of the odd-numbered year session and shall publish the record of the status of all such bills prior to the convening of the next regular session.

Every bill introduced or reported out of any committee, which amends an existing section or subsection of the Hawaii Revised Statutes or Session Laws of Hawaii, shall set forth the section or subsection in full, and the matter to be deleted shall be enclosed in brackets and any new matter added to the section or subsection shall be underscored. However, a Supplemental Appropriations Bill need not conform to this rule, nor an amending bill where the intent and effect of the amending bill can be clearly identified and understood without repeating the entire section or subsection, in which case only the paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses or items to be amended need be set forth as the President may allow. The President may allow additional exceptions to this rule.

Rule 45. Bills: Referral to Committee

(1) Upon introduction all bills shall be numbered by the Clerk in numerical sequence, shall bear an identification as a Senate Bill, and shall pass first reading.

(2) Each such bill shall be referred by the President to one or more appropriate Leadership or Standing Committees for consideration.

(3) Any referral may be reconsidered by the President upon written request of any chair who is aggrieved by the referral made within forty-eight hours of the referral. The President shall decide the request for reconsideration within a reasonable time. The President's decision on a request for reconsideration may be appealed by any chair aggrieved by that decision to the Leadership Committee. No request for reconsideration or appeal shall be considered if the timing of the request would have the effect of killing a bill or resolution.

(4) Each Leadership and Standing Committee shall consider the bills referred to it as expeditiously as may be possible.

Rule 46. Bills: Required Readings

No bill shall pass the Senate unless it shall have passed three readings in the Senate on separate days. The President shall give notice in each instance whether it be the first, second or third reading.

Rule 47. Bills: First Reading

(1) The first reading of a bill shall be for information. If opposition be made to it, the question shall be: "Shall this bill be rejected?" which question may be debated. But no one shall speak more than once upon such question, except the introducer of the bill, who may close the debate.

(2) If the question to reject be negative, the bill shall go to its second reading without question.

Rule 48. Bills: Second Reading

A bill upon its second reading may be read by its title only. It then shall be subject to a motion to commit. If it is not referred to a Leadership Committee, Standing Committee, or Special Committee, but is ordered to be considered in Committee of the Whole, a day for such consideration shall be determined by the chair of such committee. When the bill is reported from committee it shall take its place in the order of business for future consideration.

Rule 49. Bills: Third Reading

(1) No bill shall pass third or final reading in the Senate unless printed copies of the bill in the form to be passed have been made available to the members of the Senate for at least 48 hours. Form to be passed means the form in which a bill is to be (a) passed on third reading in the Senate, (b) concurred to by the Senate after amendments have been made by the House, or (c) passed by the Senate after a Conference Committee has agreed upon it.

(2) A bill on its third or final reading may be read by its title only, and the President then shall ask the Senate: "Shall this bill pass its third reading?" or "Shall this bill pass its final reading?" as the case may be. Upon the final passage of any bill, the Ayes and Noes shall be called. Such passage shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the Senate and the Ayes and Noes shall be entered on the Journal.

Rule 50. Bills: Property of Senate

All bills introduced in the Senate shall be deemed the property of the Senate and under its control unless they shall become law, subject however to the right of the House of Representatives to amend or to refuse to agree with the bills.

Any bill pending at the final adjournment of a regular session in an odd-numbered year shall carry over with the same status to the next regular session; provided that if such bill shall have passed third reading in the Senate in an odd-numbered session, it shall pass at least one reading in the Senate in the next regular session upon its return to the Senate from the House.

Rule 51. Bills: Recall from Committee

Twenty days after a bill has been referred to a committee, the same may be recalled from such committee by the affirmative vote of one-third of the members of the Senate.

Rule 52. Matters Tabled

When a bill or resolution or other matter has been laid upon the table, it shall not thereafter be taken from the table and be considered or restored to a place upon the calendar of the Senate without the consent of a majority.

Rule 53. Bills: Amendments

(1) All amendments proposed to any bill shall be in writing, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and shall be sent to the Clerk's desk to be filed with the bill.

(2) No floor amendment to a bill shall be voted upon unless a copy of the amendment, together with a copy of the complete bill in a form that incorporates the floor amendment, shall have been presented to the Clerk no later than 9:00 o'clock a.m. on the day of the session at which the amendment is to be offered. The Clerk shall prepare and distribute copies of the floor amendment to each member of the Senate present.

(3) A floor amendment shall be deemed pending only after its proponent has been recognized by the President and its adoption has been properly moved and seconded.

(4) A floor amendment that relates to a different subject, is intended to accomplish a different purpose, incorporates any other bill pending before the Senate, or would alter the nature of the bill as reported, is not germane and shall not be considered by the Senate.

(5) An amendment to a floor amendment that is not germane to both the floor amendment and the bill as reported shall not be considered by the Senate.

Rule 54. Bills: Certification

When a bill is passed it shall be certified by the Clerk who shall note the day of its passage at the bottom of the last page of the bill.

Rule 55. Bills: Received from House of Representatives

Whenever a bill which has finally passed the House of Representatives shall be certified to the Senate for its action, such bill shall be read three times before final passage, in accordance with the provision of the rules for the passage of bills introduced in the Senate.

Rule 56. Bills: Transmittal to House of Representatives

When a bill originating in the Senate shall have passed its third reading, or when a bill originating in the House which has been received from the House shall have been amended, or when a carry-over bill from an odd-numbered year originating in the House passes its third reading in the Senate in an even-numbered year session, such bill or such amended bill shall immediately be certified by the President and Clerk and sent to the House of Representatives for its consideration.

Rule 57. Bills: Correction of Errors

When a bill has passed both the Senate and the House of Representatives and an error in it is discovered prior to its having received the approval of the Governor, the bill may be returned by Concurrent Resolution to the house last considering the bill for proper correction.

Rule 58. Bills: Order of Consideration

(1) The Clerk shall send bills that have passed first reading to be printed immediately. When they have been printed and circulated to the members of the Senate, the President shall refer them to the various committees. When the committees have considered them and reported on them, the committees shall return them to the Clerk, and the Clerk shall place them in the Second Reading File. The Senate shall consider them in the order in which they appear in the Second Reading File.

(2) The Clerk shall arrange bills that have passed second reading in the order of their passage on second reading, regardless of the date of their reference to committee or the date of the committee report on them. The Clerk shall place them on the Third Reading File in the order in which they passed second reading and the Senate shall consider them on third reading in that same order. However, if the third reading of a bill is set for some particular date, that bill shall be removed from the Third Reading File.

Rule 59. Bills: Special Order of Consideration

All bills and other matters set for consideration on particular dates, shall be arranged in the order of the several votes making such assignments. A list shall be made of such special orders, and when the time for consideration arrives, such bills and other matters shall be considered in the order of assignment. If an adjournment shall be had before all of such special orders are disposed of, the remainder shall go over and come under the head of unfinished business on the following day, unless otherwise ordered.

PART VI. RESOLUTIONS; MOTIONS

Rule 60. Resolutions and Motions: Form

All resolutions shall be typewritten, dated and signed by the introducer, otherwise they shall not be considered. The Senate shall not introduce any congratulatory, commemorative or memorial resolution but shall express the sentiment contained in such resolutions by means of a suitable certificate. Motions and amendments may be verbal but shall be reduced to writing if requested by the President, and shall be read from the desk if so ordered.

Rule 61. Motions: Second Required

No motion shall be received and considered by the Senate until the motion is seconded.

Rule 62. Motions: Disposition

After a motion is stated or read by the President, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Senate, and shall be disposed of by vote of the Senate; however, it may be withdrawn by the movant at any time before an amendment has been adopted or before the decision on the motion if not amended.

Rule 63. Motions Applicable to Pending Matters

Whenever any bill or resolution or other matter shall be under discussion, the only motions relative thereto shall be:

- (1) To lay upon the table,
- (2) To postpone to a certain time,
- (3) To postpone indefinitely,
- (4) To commit, and
- (5) To amend,

which motions shall have precedence in the order named.

The first two motions shall be decided without debate and shall be put as soon as made.

When any of the motions shall be decided in the negative, they shall not be revived the same day relative to the main question under discussion. If all are negative as aforesaid, the only remaining question shall be as to the adoption of the bill, resolution or other main question.

Rule 64. Matters Postponed Indefinitely

When a question is postponed indefinitely, the question shall not be acted upon again during the session in which it was introduced.

Rule 65. Motion for Previous Question

The object of the motion for the previous question is to cut off debate. It shall always be in order. It shall require a three-fifths vote to carry it.

Whenever the motion shall be carried, the author of the resolution or introducer of the bill under discussion shall be permitted to close the debate, after which the main question, subject to Rule 63, shall be put. The author or introducer may delegate to another such right to close.

Rule 66. Motion for Reconsideration

(1) When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted in the minority to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted with the majority may move to reconsider it on the same or the succeeding day of session, or, with the consent of the Senate, on any subsequent day and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

(2) When a motion for reconsideration has been decided by vote, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

(3) When a bill or resolution or other matter upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, and shall have been transmitted to the House of Representatives, a motion to reconsider shall be deemed to include a request to the House to return the same. If not complied with by the House, then the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be set aside. If such motion shall pass, the Clerk shall promptly communicate to the House the request for return of the matter to be reconsidered.

PART VII. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS*Rule 67. Petitions, Memorials, and Miscellaneous Communications

(1) Any person may petition the Senate. Petitions and other memorials, except as provided in Rule 60, shall be in writing, signed by the petitioners.

(3) A brief statement of the contents of such petitions, memorials or other papers shall be made orally by the Clerk.

(5) No such petition, memorial or other paper shall be debated on the day it is presented, except with the consent of the Senate.

PART VIII. ORDER; DEBATE; VOTING

Rule 68. Questions of Order

(1) A question of order may be raised at any stage of the proceedings, except during the calling of the roll when the Ayes and Noes are called for. Unless submitted to the Senate, such questions shall be decided without debate by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the Senate. Laying such appeal on the table shall be held as sustaining the ruling of the presiding officer.

(2) Any question of order may be submitted to the Senate for its decision.

Rule 69. Debate: General Limitation

No member shall speak more than twice, unless such member be the movant of the matter pending, in which case such member shall not be permitted to speak in reply until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 70. Voting: Methods

There shall be five methods of ascertaining the decision of the Senate upon any matter.

(1) First, by voice or raising of hands; Second, by rising; Third, by ballot; Fourth, by call of the roll of the members and a record of the Clerk of the vote of each; and Fifth, by unanimous consent.

(2) Whenever the Senate is ready to vote on any question, the President shall rise, and after stating the question, shall request all those in favor of the affirmative of the question to vote "Aye." The President then shall call upon all voting in the negative of the question to vote "No." The President then shall announce the result to the Senate.

(3) If any member shall doubt the result, as announced, the President again shall state the question and call upon the members to vote by rising in their places, and they shall remain standing until counted, and the result again shall be announced.

(4) The method of voting by ballot shall be as customary. The President shall appoint one or more tellers, or direct the Messengers to collect the ballots, which shall be counted by the Clerk. On motion, the Senate may vote upon any question by ballot.

(5) Whenever one-fifth of the members present shall request, the Clerk shall call the roll of the members of the Senate. Each member, when called, shall vote in a clear loud voice, "Aye," if voting in the affirmative, or "No," if voting in the negative. The Clerk shall record each vote and such record shall become a part of the Journal of the Senate. The President shall announce the results as above set forth.

(6) With the unanimous consent of the Senate, the President may direct the Clerk to record an "Aye" vote for each member of the Senate. If there is no objection, the Clerk shall so record the vote. If there is objection, the President shall ask for the names of the members voting "No" and order the Clerk to record no votes for them.

Rule 71. Voting: Rights of Members

(1) No member, on any account, shall refrain from voting unless excused by the President. A member may vote "Kanalua" the first time the member's name is called by the Clerk on any vote, but if the member votes "Kanalua" on the next call of the member's name, the member's vote shall be recorded as "Aye."

(2) The President may excuse a member who has a monetary interest in the question, or whose right to a seat in the Senate will be affected by the question, or whose official conduct is involved in the question. If a member thinks there may be a personal interest in the question, the member shall rise and disclose the interest to the President. The President then shall rule whether the member has a conflict of interest. If so, the member shall be excused from voting.

(3) Whenever the Ayes and Noes are called, no one, without unanimous consent, shall be permitted to explain a vote.

(4) After the announcement by the President of the result, no one shall be allowed to vote or to change a vote.

PART IX. DECORUM; DISCLOSURES;
PEER REVIEW; PUNISHMENT*Rule 72. Misconduct; Procedure; Peer Review

Upon receipt of the charge, the President shall attempt to resolve the matter in an administrative proceeding between the person making the charge or through whom the charge is being made and the member being charged. If the matter cannot be resolved administratively, the President may appoint a Special Committee to be chaired by the Vice-President or such other member as the President may designate to investigate, hear and report upon the conduct of the member charged for misconduct, disorderly behavior or neglect of duty. Any member so charged shall be informed in writing of the specific charge or charges made against the member and have opportunity to present evidence and be heard in the member's own defense before the Special Committee. Following its investigation and hearing, the Special Committee shall file its report with the President setting forth its findings and recommendations.

If the committee recommends dismissal of the charge or charges, the President may dismiss the charges without further hearing, or the President may present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges against the member without a hearing.

If there is no dismissal of the charge or charges, or if the committee recommends censure, suspension or expulsion, the President shall present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration and decision. The member who is charged, shall be informed in writing of the presentation of the charge or charges of the committee report to the Senate and be given an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges without a hearing, or with notice and an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense, censure a member or, upon a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Senate, suspend or expel a member.

At any stage of the charge against a member, the member shall have a right to be represented by a person or persons of the member's own choosing.

Rule 73. Decorum: Transgression of Rules

If any member transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President, or any member, may call such member to order, and, when so called to order, the member immediately shall sit down. The President then shall decide the question of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Senate.

The President may call for the sense of the Senate on any question of order.

Rule 74. Decorum: Address

When any member is about to speak, such member shall rise from the member's seat and address all remarks to the President.
