"Mr. President and members, I think today it's appropriate to note something about history, and given the fact we have so many students with us today, I think that this issue is noteworthy.

"March 18, 1959 is an important day. Forty years ago today, President Eisenhower signed the Statehood Bill and made the State of Hawaii the 50th State in the nation. So, for all the students, please remember that. That's an important date, March 18, 1959 -- Hawaii became the 50th State in the nation.

"Thank you, Mr. President."
