

THIRTEENTH DAY

Monday, February 5, 2001

The Senate of the Twenty-First Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2001, convened at 11:38 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Edward Robinson, Central Union Church, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Chumbley, Ige, Matsuura and Sakamoto who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twelfth Day.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Gov. Msg. No. 120, informing the Senate that on February 2, 2001, he signed into law Senate Bill No. 890 as Act 1, entitled: "MAKING APPROPRIATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE LEGISLATIVE AUDITOR, THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, AND THE OMBUDSMAN," was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

Senator Kanno, Chair of the Committee on Judiciary, requested a waiver of the 72-hour notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 20 for the following Senate Bills:

- S.B. No. 989;
- S.B. No. 1544;
- S.B. No. 1599;
- S.B. No. 1606; and
- S.B. No. 1620,

and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"You know, in business, it's location, location, location. In life, it's timing. And I think in both situations – the announcement by the Governor and the forwarding of an administration bill to raise the salaries of cabinet level officials substantially – at a time when the teachers are marching and ready to go out on strike, at a time when the Governor professes a greater love for firemen than he does for University Professors; at a time when we keep talking about the importance of education and the compensation of those who are engaged in the education process, I think the timing was particularly poor. Some of these individuals may or may not deserve salary increases, but that's a separate issue. The real impact here is timing.

"I didn't know that the Governor was part of my lost tribe and believes in chutzpah, because this is an excellent example of that at this time.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:46 o'clock a.m., on motion by Senator English, seconded by Senator Hemmings and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 o'clock a.m., Tuesday, February 6, 2001.
