

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

Friday, March 22, 2002

The Senate of the Twenty-First Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2002, convened at 11:46 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Reverend Napoleon Andres, MS, St. Anthony's Church, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators English, Ige, Ihara, Inouye and Menor who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Seventh Day.

Senator Kawamoto introduced and welcomed Rear Admiral Ralph D. Utley, who assumed duties as Commander of the 14th Coast Guard District in Honolulu on June 22, 2001.

At this time, President Bunda invited Admiral Utley to the podium to address the members of the Senate.

Admiral Utley addressed the Senate as follows:

"Thank you for the warm welcome. I certainly do appreciate it. It's beautiful to be here in your lovely State, and my wife and I certainly appreciate the hospitality.

"The Coast Guard and the State of Hawaii have a long history of working together, a lot better, perhaps, than almost any other state in the Union. Unlike my counterparts on the mainland who were exchanging business cards on the 11th of September, we already – we, I'm referring to the State of Hawaii, the Coast Guard and other federal agencies – had been use to working together for a long time. We convened meetings of councils that we already had in place precisely for these things, and a lot of credit goes to General Correa, who is at my side at almost every one of these meetings.

"Basically, the particular committee that I'm talking about is the Hawaiian Emergency Preparedness Executive Committee. That was already in place thanks to the forethought of my predecessor and General Correa to take care of just such instances. So we were already in place, ready to take action after the 11th of September.

"In addition to that, there are a number of other partnerships that we have. We participate fully, as do other federal agencies, in the hurricane preparedness drill that's going to happen from the 10th to the 17th of May. We, along with members of the Honolulu Police Department, Fire Department, and other state and local agencies participate in an incident command system training so that when there is some sort of disaster, whether it be manmade or natural, that we know how to work together. We've already trained; this will not be a surprise and we'll be able to do this.

"As far as homeland security is concerned, I'd just like to tell you that we've been very active here to maintain the security of the people of this great State of Hawaii, along with partnerships with the other services and the police department and fire department. As an example, we've expended 6,275 vessel hours in port security right here in the Hawaiian Islands; 529 aircraft hours; and we have inspected over 507 containers here in the port of Honolulu.

"I just want to let all of you know that it's a pleasure being a public servant in paradise. Thank you very much."

At 11:55 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:58 o'clock a.m.
