Senator Baker rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“On behalf of my neighbor island colleagues, I wanted to call the members’ attention something that’s recently happened that’s quite historic. Starting with the opening day ceremony and continuing last Friday and on Saturday, some of the important hearings of this Legislature are now being broadcast live to the neighbor islands. Live broadcasts of legislative proceedings has taken many years and lots and lots of collaboration to accomplish.

“I wanted to call this historic achievement to everyone’s attention because for those of us from neighbor islands, we have heard from our constituents time and again how difficult it is to engage government in a meaningful fashion. Real time legislative broadcasts are an important first step.

“So I wanted to take the time to acknowledge the University of Hawaii, especially David Lasner, for their help, Senators Ihara and Ige for all of their work behind the scenes for many, many years to bring this forward, and to the folks from Capitol TV, especially Glenn Booth.

“This is a very important milestone. I know that my neighbor island constituents as well as those of my colleagues appreciate the effort and will be feeling more and more engaged with their government as a result.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”
