ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 624 (Gov. Msg. No. 3):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 624 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Kawamoto then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RUSSELL SAITO as Comptroller of the Department of Accounting and General Services, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Hogue rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise as a point to confirm the nomination of Comptroller of the Department of Accounting and General Services gubernatorial nominee Russ Saito.

"As you know, in the past we have often called DAGS the great black hole, and we are hopeful, through Mr. Saito's guidance, that it will brighten up and that we will finally, in some cases, see the bottom of that bottomless pit.

"I have seen him to be very open. I have seen him to be open for much needed change in the procurement process and he has given us hope through his great leadership in this transition period. So I stand in support of gubernatorial nominee Russ Saito as head of DAGS – no longer the black hole.

"Thank you."

Senator Kawamoto rose in support of the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations, to which was referred Gov. Msg. No. 3, submitting for study and consideration the nomination of Russ Saito, gubernatorial nominee as Comptroller of the Department of Accounting and General Services for a term to expire December 4, 2006 begs leave to report as follows:

"Your Committee received testimony from 46 individuals in support of Mr. Saito's nomination. There was no testimony submitted in opposition. Among those who testified in support of the nomination were a representative of the Office of the Governor, 18 current employees of the Department of Accounting and General Services, and many individuals from the private sector.

"Your Committee finds that the nominee has years of experience as an engineer, manager, and director responsible for engineering, construction, planning, service staff, operations, and product development. Every testifier highlighted the nominee's skills and dedication in each of these areas.

"Your Committee finds that the nominee will work diligently to improve DAGS in two important areas: restoring trust in government, and making our government work more efficiently. Importantly, your Committee notes that the State Procurement Office operates under DAGS, and hopes that the nominee can improve state procurement procedures.

"Upon review of the statements submitted by the nominee, your Committee finds that the nominee will work with compassion and commitment in heading DAGS. In his previous professional experience, the nominee demonstrated the ability to lead and to carry out the responsibilities of his position. Your Committee finds that the nominee has been appointed based upon his credentials, integrity, and a desire to make Hawaii better through his participation as Comptroller.

"As affirmed by the record of votes of the members of your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations that is attached to this report, your Committee, after full consideration of the background, character, experience, and qualifications of the nominee, has found the nominee to be qualified for the position to which nominated and recommends that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination.

"I urge all colleagues to vote 'aye' on this nomination. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Kawamoto introduced Mr. Saito to the members of the Senate.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 625 (Gov. Msg. No. 8):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 625 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Kawamoto then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of BRIGADIER GENERAL ROBERT G.F. LEE as Adjutant General and Director of Civil Defense, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Kawamoto rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations, to which was referred Gov. Msg. No. 8, submitting for study and consideration the nomination of Robert G.F. Lee, gubernatorial nominee as Adjutant General/Director of Civil Defense for a term to expire December 4, 2006, begs leave to report as follows:

"The Office of Veterans Services, Oahu Civil Defense Agency, Chief of Staff of the Hawaii Army National Guard, Judge Advocate General, The Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, and seven individuals testified in support of the nominee.

"Mr. Robert G.F. Lee holds the rank of Brigadier General in the United States Army Reserve. As Commanding General of the 9th Regional Support Command, General Lee is responsible for all Army Reserve forces in the Pacific region, which consists of over 3,000 soldiers in Alaska, Hawaii, American Samoa, Guam, Saipan, Japan, and Korea.

"General Lee received his commission through the University of Hawaii ROTC program in 1971. Upon completion of the Air Defense Artillery Basic Course, he was assigned to the Army Reserve and served successive assignments as platoon leader in the 411th Engineer Battalion and the 322nd Civil Affairs Group.

"In 1972, General Lee was assigned to the 100th Battalion, 442nd Infantry, and served as mortar platoon leader, company executive officer, company commander, assistant battalion operations officer, and battalion operations officer.

"In 1982, General Lee was reassigned as ground liaison officer, corps operations staff, with the IX Corps (Reinforcement). In 1988, he returned to the 100th Battalion, 442nd Infantry as its commanding officer. In 1991, he served as assistant chief of staff for operations and training (G-3), IX Corps (Reinforcement)/9th Army Reserve Command. General Lee was appointed Chief of Staff of the 9th Army Reserve Command/9th Regional Support Command in 1996.

"General Lee holds a Bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering and a Master's degree in business administration from the University of Hawaii and is licensed in mechanical and nuclear engineering. He is a graduate of the Army War College, the Command and General Staff Officer Course, the Infantry Officer Advanced Course, and the Air Force Air Ground Operations School. General Lee's awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, and Army Achievement Medal.

“Prior to his nomination, General Lee was employed by Perot Systems Government Services as its General Manager of Pacific Operations. He has more than 25 years of experience in the maintenance and testing of nuclear systems and associated support systems for the United States Navy.

“As affirmed by the record of votes of the members of your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations that is attached to this report, your Committee, after full consideration of the background, character, experience, and qualifications of the nominee, has found the nominee to be qualified for the position to which nominated and recommends that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination.”

Senator Hemmings rose to speak in favor of the nomination as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of Gov. Msg. No. 8.

“I think it’s really important for all of us to consider the context in which this nomination is coming to us. In times of peace, this particular division of government probably was not as important as it is now. We are living in the shadow of a terrible threat. We have homeland defense now, a brand new department in the federal government. That’s why I’m especially pleased to stand up and speak laudably and proudly of General Robert G.F. Lee.

“To summarize, he has a resume, which the good Senator from the promised land or God’s country mentioned, that makes him eminently qualified for this position. He’s been a professional soldier his entire life and devoted his life to defending our country and our people in this State. He’s also demonstrated, via the testimony heard, that he is a leader – a leader willing to lead in good times, but more importantly, a leader qualified to lead in difficult times, which these are.

“Therefore, I am very proud to endorse and support Gov. Msg. No. 8 nominating Brigadier General Robert G.F. Lee.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Kawamoto then introduced General Lee, who was seated in the gallery, to the members of the Senate.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 626 (Gov. Msg. No. 102):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 626 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Kawamoto then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RODNEY HARAGA as Director of the Department of Transportation, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Hogue rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

“Mr. President, I rise for confirmation as Director of the Department of Transportation, gubernatorial nominee Rodney Haraga.

“I rise in support because, as you know, the DOT, the Department of Transportation, has long been at odds with the community, oftentimes not getting out into the community to answer the much needed questions about its policies and its procedures. Immediately upon taking over the job as the appointed director of DOT, Rodney Haraga did just exactly what the community wanted him to do – and that is to get out and talk with them at neighborhood boards to answer their questions and really interact with them.

“This is truly a new beginning and one that we need, and therefore I hope that this body unanimously supports Rodney Haraga as the Director of the Department of Transportation.

“Thank you very much, Mr. President.”

Senator Kawamoto rose to speak in support of the nomination and stated:

“Mr. President, your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations, to which was referred Gov. Msg. No. 102, submitting for study and consideration the nomination of Rodney Haraga, gubernatorial nominee as Director of the Department of Transportation for a term to expire December 4, 2006, begs leave to report as follows:

“Your Committee received testimony from 37 individuals in support of Mr. Haraga’s nomination. There was no testimony submitted in opposition. Among those who testified in support of the nomination were many representatives of agencies at both the state and county levels, and many individuals from the private sector.

Your Committee finds that the nominee is a civil and structural engineer licensed in California and Hawaii who has decades of experience working in the public sector on transportation issues, primarily with the Department of Public Works, Bureau of Engineering for the City of Los Angeles. Although the nominee spent most of his professional life away from the islands, your Committee finds that he can quickly familiarize himself with local transportation issues.

“Many testifiers highlighted the nominee’s skill in interacting with people, and his tireless approach to problem solving. Your Committee finds that this can-do attitude will be very important as Director of Transportation, as so many critical state issues are under the purview of the Department of Transportation.

“Upon review of the statements submitted by the nominee, your Committee finds that the nominee will work with compassion and commitment in heading the DOT. In his previous professional experience, the nominee demonstrated the ability to lead and to carry out the responsibilities of his position. Your Committee finds that the nominee has been appointed based upon his credentials, integrity, and a desire to make Hawaii better through his participation as Director of Transportation.

As affirmed by the record of votes of the members of your Committee on Transportation, Military Affairs and Government Operations that is attached to this report, your Committee, after full consideration of the background, character, experience, and qualifications of the nominee, has found the nominee to be qualified for the position to which nominated and recommends that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Kanno).

Senator Kawamoto introduced Mr. Haraga to the members of the Senate.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 627 (Gov. Msg. No. 1):

Senator Hanabusa moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 627 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland and carried.

Senator Hanabusa then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of MARK J. BENNETT as Attorney General of the State of Hawai'i, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Hanabusa rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of Gov. Msg. No. 1, the confirmation of Mark Bennett as Attorney General of the State of Hawaii.

"Mr. President, I'm in a unique position. I have had the honor, I don't know if you'd call it a privilege, of being an adversary to the nominee. And it is even with that experience that I am here to speak in high praise of him.

"Mr. Bennett has expertise like no other Attorney General. He has both the criminal and the civil law background. In his hearing, US Attorney Dan Bent and fellow colleagues all came to say and to express what a very unusual, talented, and unique individual we have in Mark Bennett.

"His academic credentials are beyond reproach. He has his Juris Doctorate from Cornell Law School, Magna Cum Laude; his undergraduate degree from Union College, Summa Cum Laude. Unequivocally, Mr. President, I believe he is probably the brightest, the most skilled, the most competent Attorney General that we have ever seen. And with it comes integrity, honesty and a high level of ethics.

"Lorraine Akiba, his former partner, said it well when she said she can attest to his 'impeccable personal integrity and his adherence to the highest standard of legal conduct and professional ethics.' She believes that his 'professionalism will further improve the quality of the administration of the Office of the Attorney General.' She did not forget to also point out that though they are politically and philosophically different, she says that without any hesitation.

"This opinion of Mr. Bennett is shared by many, and many were his adversaries like I was: Jeffrey Ono of the Galihier Law Firm, we all know them for tobacco and gas; Spencer Hosie, the lead attorney from San Francisco, also took time to submit testimony in favor of his adversary, Mr. Bennett; Rick Fried of Cronin Fried. Members, Mr. President, these are all plaintiff attorneys, his adversaries. Warren Price and Robert Marks, former Attorney Generals, all came out to testify on his behalf.

"The high praise for Mr. Bennett did not come from us lawyers but actually came from a very unusual person, Russell Okata of the HGEA. Mr. Okata said 'We have not always agreed,' pointing of course to the privatization lawsuit and the ERS lawsuit, but he also says, 'Mr. Bennett is very committed to forging a cooperative relationship with the employees and their unions Very importantly,' he says, 'he will help public employees do a better job. For too long, public employees go home worrying unnecessarily if their employers will represent them.' Mr. Okata said, 'Mr. Bennett knows that public employees will operate more effectively as long as they are not afraid to make decisions.'

"Mr. President and members, we have come up time and time again in the Felix context of how the Department of Education wants special attorney generals because they have fear – fear that the Attorney General's Office will not represent them. And now their union leader says he has full confidence in Mr. Bennett.

"My only concern, and I expressed this to Mr. Bennett, is why? Why? You're talented, smart. Why do you want to do this? (Laughter.) His friend, Susan Grochos said it best. She said, after 9/11 her friend Mark Bennett wanted to leave private practice for a public service job. Mr. Bennett told her, as he did to me, this may sound very trite – and you've got to experience Mr. Bennett to know how he would say this – but I feel a compulsion to refocus and find a better way to serve my country.

"We are fortunate, Mr. President, that he will serve this State.

"I would like to end by sharing with you a little event that Mr. Bennett shared with me, and he probably thought nothing of it, but members and Mr. President, I believe this should put anyone's mind to rest. Two nights ago, this nominee was in his office till almost midnight. What was he doing? He was helping a deputy write and finalize a Supreme Court brief that was due. Everyone else was gone. He rolled up his sleeves, Mr. President, went on the computer, helped her do research, helped her edit, helped her proofread, and helped her write. I think he even went out and mailed the brief too. For us lawyers, 12 o'clock is very significant to get things mailed out. Why did he do this? Because she needed help, and that's the kind of person he is. Not only is he tough and smart, but he's also very compassionate.

"Mr. Bennett said to me, 'It's wonderful being the Attorney General. I go into work everyday with a smile on my face and I leave everyday with a smile on my face.' Mr. President, what a deal! The State gets his smarts and he gets to smile. You can't refuse that.

"Mr. President and colleagues, I ask that you advise and consent to the Governor's nominee for Attorney General of the State of Hawaii, Mark Jeremy Bennett."

Senator Hogue rose to add his remarks in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of gubernatorial nominee, Mark Bennett for Attorney General.

"It's going to be tough to top that, indeed. It almost sounds like he's a nominee for one of these reality TV shows. The way we're going about here, we could nominate him for sainthood. He is a terrific, terrific guy.

"Not only is Mark Bennett an outstanding attorney, but speaking for someone who is not an attorney, I also find him refreshingly non-intimidating. That means that I can go and I can ask him questions, me just a lowly sportscaster, and get some answers that even I understand. I really appreciate that.

"His openness, his accessibility, and his very quick answers to our questions is much needed in the Attorney General's Office. His opinions have been consistent with the law and the constitution and he's not worried about politics. They've been concise; they've been thorough. He is a tremendous guy and maybe he should be a saint after he's the Attorney General.

"But in any case, I hope you give him your unanimous support – Mark Bennett for Attorney General. Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Slom rose to support the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, colleagues, I rise, too, in support of the Governor's nominee, number one, Mark Bennett for Attorney General.

"In the past, I haven't had too many nice things to say about attorneys. And I must admit, in attending the confirmation hearing with a standing room only, overflowing room of attorneys of every shape, size, color and stripe, it was awesome and perhaps humbling. The accolades that the Judiciary Chairman said took place that day from adversaries, I think, is significant. The fact that we can agree to disagree on issues but still understand that it is integrity and personal commitment that really makes things happen in our community and around the nation, that's what's really important.

"Mr. Bennett said that his chief concern is rooting out and ending fraud against government – no matter who causes it, no matter what source.

"Those of us that know him, or know of him, know that we are getting a cerebral candidate. We are getting the hardest working candidate, and as long as he doesn't injure his back by carrying the tons of material that he always has around with him, perhaps maybe a backpack would help, we know that we're getting someone that is extremely dedicated and does not look at the clock and does not look at billable hours.

"We are extremely fortunate because many people have wanted this individual over the years and currently for all kinds of projects. We are fortunate that we have him as our Attorney General. It also shows the tremendous persuasive powers of our Governor.

"And so I'm very happy to support the confirmation of the man who will be in charge of the running the largest law firm in the State. He'll run it well. He'll improve efficiency and responsiveness. We'll keep his feet to the fire, however. We'll be watching him, but we know that finally Hawaii is going to have an Attorney General that will represent all the people of our State.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Hanabusa introduced Mr. Bennett and his family to the members of the Senate.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 628 (Gov. Msg. No. 5):

Senator Hanabusa moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 628 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland and carried.

Senator Hanabusa then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of MICAH A. KANE as Chairman of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Hanabusa rose to speak in support of the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of Gov. Msg. No. 5, the confirmation of Micah Alike Kane as Chairman of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands.

"Mr. President, as you may recall, when I first served this body, it was in 1999 and I Chaired Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs. It was during my tenure that Rice v. Cayetano was decided, the first Akaka bill introduced, and the federal court challenges began based upon the 14th amendment of Hawaiian entitlements.

"My constituent base is the largest percentage of Native Hawaiians, whether you define them with a large 'N' or a small 'n.' The primary indicia for me, Mr. President and colleagues, when it comes to the Chairman of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, is the sentiments of the beneficiaries of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. After all, it is to them that the Chairman owes his fiduciary obligation.

"Let me state very clearly at the outset, Micah Kane is qualified to serve as the Chairman. He is a Kamehameha School graduate. He graduated Cum Laude with a business degree from Menlo College and then a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Hawaii.

"When you look at the purpose of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, Mr. Kane also has very unique experience. He was part of the Building Industry Association, and that is why he had testimony from both contractors and unions alike, all in support.

"But what I believe is critical is what was stated by my constituent Kamaki Kanahale when he came to testify on his behalf. Kamaki, of course, first reminded me that Micah is one of us. He grew up on First Road in Nanakuli. So he said, 'You know, sista, he's like us.' But he said Mr. Kane has the book knowledge and is very capable but what matters is his spiritual sense, or as they would say, his Na`ao.

"Mr. Kane is committed to the goal of fulfilling this State's obligation to the beneficiaries in five years. He's committed to federal recognition. But foremost, he is committed to fulfill his fiduciary obligation.

"Mr. Kane selected as his first deputy, Ben Henderson. This showed a great sensitivity to the beneficiaries, especially in this time of uncertainty. Ben said of Mr. Kane that:

He is passionate in his desire to serve the Hawaiian people;
He is a good listener and open to new ideas;
Ohana is very important to him;
He has genuine concerns for the employees of DHHL;
He has courage and he's not afraid to make tough decisions;
He has integrity and his word is good.

Mr. Henderson spoke in support of this person with the backing of 123 DHHL employees.

"The beneficiaries, through their State Council of Hawaiian Homestead Association and their President Anthony Sang, spoke in favor, as did other representatives who went out of their way to come here – Perry Artatis from Kula, Maui; from Anahola; from Kalawahine through Richard Soo; from Waianae Valley, Auntie Pikake came; and of course, from Nanakuli, Kamaki – all singing his praise.

"The Hawaiian Civic Clubs were represented, as was OHA, and of course, Dr. McCubbin had to come forward to speak in support of his Kamehameha graduate.

"One testimony that comes to mind is that of Mahealani Kamauu. We know her as the Executive Director of the Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation. She said she was impressed in that he has such a no nonsense approach to problem solving.

"But what was impressive to me was when she defended Mr. Kane when he came under some criticism of the action he took on Keaukaha. What Keaukaha did was to show everyone the courage that Micah Kane has. He could have waited. He could have avoided it until after his confirmation, but no, he did it the week before because it was something that had to be done. Mahealani spoke in favor of him, and remember, it is her entity that defended these six families.

"The most touching testimony was that by Ray Soon. We all know Ray. He was not only the former Chair, but he has had a long career with the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. He said he found Mr. Kane to be bright, but above all else, he is totally committed to the mission of the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust and to the people. Mr. Soon said, and these were very touching words, 'Mr. Kane will fight for their causes and cry with their pain. And in the end, he will always take the right course.' That is very high praise.

"Mr. Soon, by the way if you don't know, is on the waiting list. He is also a beneficiary, someone who Mr. Kane will owe his fiduciary duty to.

"I'd like to share what Russell Okata said in support of Mr. Kane, and he said so on behalf of his 42,449 members, he said 'Mr. Kane represents the future. He will work tirelessly to do whatever it takes to ensure that government will protect the best interest of his daughters and our community.' Again, it is the ohana that matters to him.

"His uncle, Shad Kane, testified that the family is that which will guide Micah Kane.

"Mr. President, colleagues, I ask that you join me and advise and consent to the Governor's nominee for Chairman of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, a good Nanakuli boy, Micah Alika Kane."

Senator Hemmings rose to speak in favor of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of Gov. Msg. No. 5, nominating gubernatorial nominee Micah A. Kane.

"It's somewhat difficult to stand up after the eloquent words of the good Senator from Waianae.

"I've known Micah for a number of years now and he has a difficult task. We do have a beleaguered people amongst our midst and the challenges are great. And we have, as we've had with many government programs, a beleaguered department, and the challenges of that department are great. But I think, as the previous speaker so accurately and eloquently pointed out, we have in Micah Kane a son of Hawaii who will respond to the call.

"In closing, I'd like to say be proud and abiding, sons and daughters of Hawaii, you have a leader.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Hanabusa then introduced Mr. Kane and his family to the members of the Senate.

At this time, Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President and colleagues, I recall shortly after last year's election, I recall with amusement that personages in the media and in the political arena were saying, 'Well, now that you've got a new Governor, how will she ever find capable people and experienced people to serve in the cabinet?' We don't know of anybody. It's been 40 years since this Party took over."

"There was a diligent and very detailed search to try to find the very best candidates in our community. You know the good news? They had hundreds of well experienced, qualified individuals who were willing and able to serve the people of Hawaii. The five people that we have just consented to and confirmed today represent the very beginning of all of these wonderful people.

"But it is a reflection on the people and on the new administration that she reached not for Republicans or Democrats or Independents or those that claimed no political affiliation. She reached for people that had the qualifications and the desire, above financial return or personal benefit, to serve the people of Hawaii. And we can all take pride in these confirmations today, the ones that will come, and others that are waiting to help make the new beginning a reality.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

At 12:26 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:37 o'clock p.m.

Senator Baker, Chair of the Committee on Health, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for S.B. No. 1356.

Senator Baker noted:

"Mr. President, the Committee on Health heard this bill yesterday and acted on it. However, we need to reconsider our action in light of new information that was presented to us subsequent to the decision making yesterday afternoon in a joint House and Senate Health Committee informational briefing on compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) of 1996."

The Chair then granted the waiver.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Senator Kawamoto moved that the Senate authorize the adoption of standing committee reports recommending that Senate bills pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Senator Hogue.

Senator Ihara rose and said:

"Mr. President, I'm not sure if this is being taken up as a request or an amendment to the motion. I'll be voting 'no' on this motion.

"I'd like to find out if I can have my 'no' vote cast on S.B. No. 1532. That was a bill that was heard by the Water, Land Committee on February 5. It was passed unamended and it should be decked today and pass Second Reading while we're in recess. And if that should happen, I'd like to have my vote be registered as a 'no' vote as well as any other bills that I may choose to vote 'no' on. I ask that my vote be cast as 'no.'"

At 12:40 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:42 o'clock p.m.

Senator Ihara rose again and said:

"Mr. President, I think in consulting with you and the Clerk that the best way to handle this is that I'll be speaking in opposition to this motion and noting that the reason I'm voting 'no' is that this motion does not allow me to cast a 'no' vote for bills that we have not yet received.

"I know one particular bill I know the contents of, S.B. No. 1532, I am opposed to that bill and would like to hereby register it in the Journal as such, as well as other bills that I have not read because it's not in front of us and I may want to vote 'no' on these bills. But not having them in front of me, I object to this motion because there may be some of these bills that I may want to vote 'no' and I wish I had the opportunity to vote 'no' on such bills.

"I should note that this is a constitutionally required vote on all the Second Reading votes. Two weeks ago on first lateral there were 213 bills that we unanimously, or at least the quorum here at the time, passed on Second Reading. The Journal reflects that all of these bills . . . actually, in the Journal it's interesting. It lists every single bill and on every single bill it says (I only have last year's Journal) on motion by Senator English, seconded by Senator Hemmings and carried, the Committee on whatever certain committee, adopted a particular bill on Second Reading. And it actually didn't happen. What we actually did was we passed a motion that authorized unknown bills to pass Second Reading and I have a problem with that and that's why I'm voting 'no' on this motion.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate authorized the adoption of standing committee reports recommending that Senate bills pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading. The Clerk was further authorized to receive standing committee reports recommending that Senate bills be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.
