"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. No. 1077, H.D. 1, S.D. 1.

"I want to offer my congratulations and admiration for your leadership and the leadership of the Democrats, the Majority Party in the State Senate, for seeing the wisdom in giving the Office of the Governor, the executive branch of government, the necessary basic funding to do their job on behalf of all the people of Hawaii. I especially want to recognize that the Senate was able to put aside what could have been a partisan issue and did what's best for the people of this State, and for that, I commend you.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kawamoto also rose in favor of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the bill.

"Mr. President, first of all I'd like to thank the Senate leadership who gave the concept of the bill and the numbers to put in the bill so we were able to pass it out. So, I'd like to give credit where credit is due and it's the Senate leadership.

"Thank you."

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILL

The Chair re-referred the following House bill that was received:

House Bill Referred to:

No. 500, H.D. 1 Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Chun Oakland, Chair of the Committee on Human Services, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.B. No. 1272.

Senator Chun Oakland noted:

“Mr. President, this bill provides legal assistance and funding for certain children with special needs, disabled children, and the elderly. Your Committee held a hearing on this bill on March 12 and would like to hold decision making in order to meet today’s lateral deadline.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Hogue rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise to speak on a point of personal privilege.

“Today, colleagues, out in the rotunda there is a rally being held to talk about support for what is being called the three strikes law and I’m sure that many of you have seen the story in the news recently. I would like to speak just briefly about why we should enact the three strikes law here in Hawaii.

“By enacting the three strikes law we would be making a policy choice to protect the public from individuals who, time after time, engage in serious or violent criminal activity.

“I’m sure all of you were deeply saddened by the recent murder of police officer Glen Gaspar. I attended his burial ceremony in Kaneohe and it was a very, very touching ceremony. I was also saddened not just because of the heinous nature of the offense, but because Officer Gaspar’s alleged assailant has a lengthy criminal history that includes over 60 charges against him and 14 prior convictions, including four felonies, and our justice system was still not effective in protecting our police officers from him. Unfortunately, Officer Gaspar’s death was only one example of heinous crimes committed by career criminals. We need to send a message to those who are career criminals . . . criminals who are obviously not deterred by our current sentencing laws.

“The infestation of crime and drug addiction is eating away at our islands. Hawaii is now facing epidemic ice use, and along with the ice we may see increases in crime on a level that has never occurred in our islands before. Among adults arrested in Honolulu, more than 40 percent test positive for ice. In addition, the U.S. Sentencing Commission found that federal drug traffic convictions in Hawaii far exceeded those on the mainland. On the mainland, it’s just 14 percent, which is still pretty high – in Hawaii, 51 percent. The bottom line is – our state is facing increasing drug related violence and violent crimes in general, and we need to do something about it!

“A California Department of Justice study showed that, after enacting the three strikes law, recidivism dropped 25 percent in four years. The three strikes law holds great promise for our State.

“The three strikes amendment that I would have presented today would allow us to obtain an immediate term of life imprisonment, or at least 25 years, in cases involving habitual criminal offenders. As you may have already heard, a recent study in California showed that nearly 60 percent of the crimes in the state were committed by about 6 percent of criminal offenders – those 6 percent are the criminal offenders we need to get out of our communities.

“It has been said that the three strikes law has the potential for injustice because of some disproportionately harsh sentences for relatively minor crimes, and I’m sure you’ve seen those on the news. However, a three strikes bill can be written which would allow for discretion in its implementation. The prosecutors would be able to exercise discretion to assure proportionality and consistency.

“Finally, colleagues, it is time that Hawaii seriously considers the three strikes law. We need to come down hard on career criminals and I urge all of my colleagues to support a resolution, which I understand is going forward, to stand behind the three strikes law.

“Thank you very much, Mr. President.”

Senator Hanabusa rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“Mr. President, I’d like to thank my good colleague from Kaneohe for plugging the resolution that is going through. It is S.C.R. No. 86 or S.R. No. 60, and that is the convening of a task force to determine whether Hawaii should enact a three strikes law.

“Mr. President, this is a serious issue and one that we must give full debate to and have the public participate in. That is why as Chair of your Judiciary Committee, it was decided that we could not rush into a three strikes law.

“Mr. President, as I reviewed, for example, what was placed on our desks this morning, one possible violent crime is an assault against a police officer. Mr. President, it is this year that this body, the Senate, has actually passed over a bill for the House consideration to make that not a misdemeanor but, in fact, a class C felony. It is not even a felony today. We have to look at all of the various crimes, whether we call them violent or otherwise.

“As my good colleague from Kaneohe says, we must look at violent crimes. And the question is – What are violent crimes? We have already in the statutes that a killing of a police officer is first degree murder. Mr. President, that is life in prison without the parole. And it is not only for police officers, it is also for judges and it is also for prosecutors who are acting in their ‘line of duty.’ In addition, if someone is determined to be a habitual type of criminal or a murder for hire type of person, that person also can be convicted of murder in the first degree.

“In addition, we have enhanced sentencing already on the books. Enhanced sentencing so that, for example, if someone were to do three class C felonies . . . and class C felonies that we have identified, this Legislature have identified, includes, for example, the theft of livestock. If you do that three times, the fourth time you are going to go to jail for no less than five years – for theft of livestock. More importantly than that, Mr. President, it is also the attempt to do it that will put you in the same category. That’s how our laws are written. The attempt carries the same penalty as the crime itself – the attempt.

“We have also made decisions as a legislative body about drugs – whether as a society we will look upon drugs as an incarcerated event or whether we will look at it upon treatment. If we define drugs as something that will mandatorily require sentencing in prison, then Mr. President, we’ve got to build prisons.

“Recidivism is an interesting concept, and it’s one that we all look to. But if we are throwing people into prisons, then logically, the recidivism rates will not increase because they’re behind bars. And maybe that is what society wants. That is what we should hear from our communities – how they want us to look on this issue of recidivism, of three strikes, but let’s get detailed, well thought out with people who are experts in the area advising us.

“So I thank my colleague from Kaneohe for saying that we should get behind the Senate resolutions because that will give us the information we need. Let’s hear from the U.S. Attorney; let’s hear from the police chiefs; let’s hear from the public defenders; let’s hear from the judiciary; let’s hear from the bar members – because they know this area way better than we do and they can tell us, if we’re going to do three strikes, what is it that should rise to the level of violent crimes.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”
