ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2005

On motion by Senator Menor, seconded by Senator Baker and carried, S.B. No. 117, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (Hee, Ihara, Sakamoto).

S.B. No. 797, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Menor, seconded by Senator Baker and carried, S.B. No. 797, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF HAWAII," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (Hee, Ihara, Sakamoto).

S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1:

Senator Menor moved that S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, passed Third Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Menor rose to speak in favor of the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of S.B. No. 70, S.D. 1.

"Mr. President, I drafted the measure before you to impose a health insurance rate freeze on health insurers that maintain reserves in excess of 30 percent of their annual expenses. This freeze on rates would remain in effect until they have spent down their reserves to an amount that represents 30 percent of annual expenses.

"Mr. President, both the insurance commissioner and I agree that legislative action is needed to reduce the reserves of health insurers which exceed the 30 percent threshold to more reasonable levels. The insurance division has undertaken an actuarial analysis and concluded that a reserve level of 30 percent of expenses is, quote, 'sufficient to protect the insured against insolvency,' unquote.

"In his testimony, the insurance commissioner noted that the insurance division during its history has not seen net losses or claims anywhere near 30 percent of expenses. For example, an analysis of underwriting losses suffered by HMSA, Kaiser, HMAA and University Health Alliance from 1993-2003 showed that they averaged less than 3.6 percent of expenses and have never risen above 9.5 percent. According to testimony received by your Consumer Protection Committee and Health Committee, even 30 percent is far in excess of what is needed and much more than the maximum considered necessary in other states.

"In fact, according to a recent news report, the reserves of our state's largest health insurer, HMSA, have grown from $516 million at the end of the third quarter of last year to $541 million by the end of the fourth quarter. It should also be emphasized that our largest health insurer is only one of two health insurers in the state that is above the 30 percent reserve level. By contrast, Kaiser, by all accounts a well-managed company, has a total reserve level of about 15 percent of annual expenses during that same period.

"Now, while the insurance commissioner and I agree that this problem in the health insurance market needs to be addressed, we differ on the best solution. The approach proposed by the insurance commissioner and the administration was contained in the original version of this bill, which would have required a health insurer, like HMSA, that exceeds the 30 percent threshold level to give rebates to its subscribers in order to reduce its reserves to 30 percent of annual expenses.

"I believe that the approach that's taken in the Senate draft that's before you is a better approach than the administration proposal for several reasons. First of all, the insurance commissioner's proposal would require additional administrative expenses by the health insurer to implement the rebate program, as well as new costs to the state to be able to monitor that rebate program. Moreover, the administration's approach was unveiled at a time when it would have resulted only in giving each subscriber of health insurance an inconsequential rebate of about $100 per subscriber.

"On the other hand, S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1, would deliver relief where it is badly needed – to businesses, especially small businesses that are being crushed by the drastic rise in health insurance premiums. The Senate draft would offer substantial and immediate relief to small businesses struggling to cope with rising health insurance costs.

“As you know, our largest health insurer recently announced it will be seeking a 4.9 percent rate increase for small businesses. The insurance division has estimated that if this rate increase request is approved, Hawaii’s small businesses would have to pay an additional $20 million in health insurance costs. Because this bill would prevent all rate increases, including HMSA’s proposed 4.9 percent rate increase until it spends down its reserves, the passage of the Senate bill could save small businesses up to $20 million in the near term, and in the long term these businesses could experience even greater savings.

“For example, HMSA’s reserves are more than $68 million above the proposed 30 percent threshold. If this Senate bill is passed, the state’s largest health insurer would have to spend down this excess amount before it can submit a rate increase request to the insurance division. The enactment of this bill could therefore spare Hawaii’s businesses millions of additional dollars over a period of time.

“There’s also a question of fairness. At a time when it is sitting on $541 million in reserves, I believe that it is unconscionable that our largest health insurer is requesting a $20 million rate increase, an amount the insurer clearly doesn’t need to avoid insolvency or pay catastrophic claims. This unacceptable and ill-timed decision by the health insurer, in my mind, justifies this bill moving forward.

“In addition, the proposed rate fees would not only help Hawaii’s small businesses but would also help their employees by holding down their contributions. Equally important, the rate fees will contribute to our state’s economic wellbeing and a healthier business climate by allowing businesses to put their earnings to better use by purchasing goods and services, making capital investments, or hiring more employees.

“Now, despite the obvious benefits of this measure, the insurance commissioner has raised several objections, and I’d like to briefly respond to these if I might because I believe that they’re without merit. First of all, the insurance commissioner says that requiring HMSA to hold down its rates would create an unlevel playing field with respect to our largest health insurer and other players in the health insurance market. I disagree, and here’s why – after years of allowing our state’s largest health insurer to charge the subscribers high rates, our health insurance market has become even less competitive as our largest health insurer has grown to the point where it now controls about 70 percent of the market. Contrary to the insurance commissioner’s assertions, I contend that the enactment of the Senate draft will in fact contribute to a more level playing field by ensuring greater parity in the level of reserves that health insurers can retain. This would enable all players in the health insurance market to compete on a more equitable financial footing.

“In fact, others in the industry agree on that position. For example, I recently receive a letter from a representative of another health insurance provider which is one of the few companies that is providing any competition in this health insurance market. In the letter they indicated that without a huge advantage in reserves, the largest health insurer won’t be able to utilize their reserve to engage in predatory pricing to drive out any competition that threatens their profitability. This industry professional noted that HMSA has used these excessive reserves to bully competition out of the marketplace. I’ll read one paragraph from the letter. It says, ‘We applaud you and the Committee for this bold and akamai approach. S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1, not only gives small business the kind of relief that it needs, it also ensures a competitive and level playing field Hawaii’s healthcare industry.’ So in that regard I think that this letter demonstrates that our bill would foster competition and not stifle it.

“The insurance commissioner has also stated his opposition to the bill by citing several cases in which rate freezes were challenged in court on the mainland. However, I would note that all of these cases cited referred to for-profit companies who were challenging the rate freezes or rate regulations on the basis that it amounted to a government taking of profits under the Fifth Amendment. Of course in this case, when we’re talking about our state’s largest health insurer, we’re talking about an entity that is a nonprofit mutual benefit society with a tax-exempt status, so these cases clearly don’t apply.

“Finally, I’d like to emphasize that I think that this bill is necessary because, in my mind, I don’t think that the insurance division has been doing its job in holding the line on rates. Although during the insurance commissioner’s tenure our largest health insurer has maintained reserves which the commissioner has described as, quote, ‘excessively large,’ he has approved several rate hikes. Frankly, this rate fee should have been implemented much sooner by the insurance division on its own volition without the Legislature having to force the issue.

“For all of these reasons, I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1.”

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

“You know, for many years before I became a part of the Legislature, I came before the Legislature begging for relief for small businesses for premiums which we pay in an inordinately high amount, and the Legislature was prone to do nothing about that. The sponsor of this legislation and I have one thing in common that we absolutely agree on, and that is the need for competition. This bill will not bring about competition.

“By the way, I think the title is inaccurate, Mr. President. The correct title of this bill should be ‘Get HMSA and Stomp Them in the Ground,’ because it’s not about health insurance; it’s about getting HMSA.

“I don’t have any personal either investment or particular regard for some of the practices of HMSA, but it’s not their fault, because we created the prepaid healthcare act – the only act of its kind in the United States. We did it 31 years ago. We said that it was progressive legislation. Everybody was going to follow our lead. And in 31 years, not one state has followed our lead. What has happened is a dozen years ago we had about a dozen healthcare providers, and now we have basically four, maybe four-and-a half.

“We’ve stifled competition by allowing for this legislative mandate, which now enjoys a federal ERISA exemption rendering things that we do at the state level impotent with our own legislation – we can’t change it. Well, let me correct myself. We can change it by constantly adding benefits, constantly giving to those that receive the benefits, but not doing anything to change the 31-year-old financial relationship between the employer and the employee.

“Thirty-one years ago, we said that an employer . . . well, first of all when we said that we were going to pass this legislation, we said it was going to be an equal 50/50 percent partnership between employer and employee. And that’s what got the legislation passed. It sounded good, but it was never true. At best, it was a 65/35 percent relationship with business paying 65 percent of the premium costs. But nobody really cared that much and didn't make that much of an issue about it 31 years ago because when we look at the premiums that we were paying, we were paying $20, $30, $40, $50 a month. Now we're paying several hundred dollars a month for a single individual, and most employers, and particularly small business employers, pay 100 percent of that amount.

"So what we've done categorically, year after year we've added benefits, we've added people that have been treated, and in so doing we've increased the cost of utilization. And that's the magic word in the medical insurance and provider industry – utilization. The more people utilize the services, the more the costs are going to go up and they're going to be borne by someone.

"We in small business have paid, as I've said, an inordinate amount of premium increases and we came before the Legislature to try to modify the prepaid healthcare act year, after year, after year, after year as we had 10, 15, 20, 25 percent increases. But the Legislature didn't do anything about it.

"Now what I see in this bill is an attempt just to go after one company, not to increase competition, because you can't do that by freezing rates. That's why all the other companies testified against this bill. That's why if we pass this bill we're not going to encourage or allow or provide initiatives for any other companies to come into this market. And that's exactly what we need. If you want to talk about a level playing field, you need to talk about people being able to come in here and do business and offer real competition. And in 31 years, I've talked to all of the major producers on the mainland and here, and they all say with the same voice, the reason they don't want to offer the insurance or the reason they can't compete, sure HMSA is the big dog on the block, sure HMSA has got big reserves, but the real problem is the tax structure and the prepaid healthcare act.

"The tax structure – we had a bill here floating around for a couple of years that would have exempted the 4 percent tax from for-profit medical providers. And in fact, one medical provider was waiting on the sidelines for a year-and-a-half – that's Summerlin Health and Life Insurance. They thought that the 4 percent was going to be eliminated because they thought in fact we wanted a level playing field. And this Same Legislature that talks about leveling the playing field killed that measure. That measure would have allowed competitors to HMSA and the others that are nonprofits and are not taxed now, but we didn't do that.

"Also, we are passing bills and we passed bills in the last couple of days in Ways and Means that will raise general excise taxes on small businesses. So I find it ironic when we have people that are supporting more legislative socialistic reforms, as they call them, to help small business on one hand, when on the other hand they're doing everything possible to raise the cost of doing business for small business.

"Do small businesses want and need lower rates? Absolutely. But by doing it this way, by getting the Legislature more and more involved in price-fixing, because that's what it is, and more and more involved in business activities and taking more and more of the responsibilities away from the insurance commissioner, we're not leveling the playing field and we're not doing anything to encourage other people to come. What we are really looking at is the symptom rather than the cause of our problems. And certainly there may be a slight rate reduction or a freeze for one year, but eventually somebody's got to pay the piper because of the way medical insurance is structured and the utilization process.

"We saw it in automobile insurance. We saw it in worker's compensation insurance, which is a much better example because the medical fee schedule there was forcibly reduced by the Legislature and there were premium reductions for a year or two and then after that the rates skyrocketed and we had providers that would not even provide worker's compensation insurance.

"What does business, what does small business need? They need a competitive and healthy business environment where you have people bidding for their health insurance needs. And we also need group coverage for sole proprietors and independent contractors, a growing number within our workforce community. This bill doesn't do anything for that. It doesn't require that we offer group insurance. Instead, it puts a temporary freeze and basically is aimed at one company. And just as before when we had the anti-Chevron bill, I think it's bad legislation when we pick out one company or one part of one industry and try to legislate because we don't like them, rather than facing up to the truth and working on the real causes of why our health insurance is high and why we have little competition.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kim rose in support of the measure and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support.

"Mr. President, this is an administration bill. Mr. President, this is the bill that the administration brought before us focusing on one company, focusing on the ceiling of the reserves that was already there. It's the administration that said that we should refund the money, yet at the same time they're contemplating giving them an increase in rates. So, we can sit here all day or stand here all day and talk about healthcare and talk about the prepaid healthcare, but basically we're talking about this bill that was brought down to us, and I commend the CPH Chair for how he amended this bill.

"Thank you."

Senator Baker rose to speak in support as follows:

"Mr. President, I have remarks in support of this measure I'd like inserted into the Journal."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. No. 760, S.D. 1.

"This is a very important measure that will provide relief to thousands of small businesses who pay the bulk of the health insurance premiums for their employees. Thanks to fortuitous investing and approved rate increases, our state's largest health plan provider has amassed reserves far in excess of prudent requirements. This measure will freeze rates and require the reserves to be used to reduce rates for plan members until reserves are brought into line with the 30 percent requirement. This measure caps reserves at 30 percent rather than 50 percent in current law.

"Mr. President and colleagues, this is a prudent approach to ensure that employers and individual plan owners do not have to pay increases for their health insurance at the same time the plan has more than sufficient reserves in its portfolio. I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this measure."

Senator Hogue rose in opposition to the measure and stated:

“Mr. President, I rise in opposition.

“I also, like the Senator from Hawaii Kai, am against any kind of rate freezes, wage and price controls, gas caps, or caps that try to go after specific businesses. Because of that, I want to stay consistent with my voting pattern and I will be voting ‘no.’

“Thank you.”
