We heard a similar SCR.

“H.C.R. No. 222, H.D. 1, requests the Department of Health to review and strengthen its water quality standards and practices.

“Mr. President, as I indicated, some of these we’ve heard before and others are new, but due to the time constraints of needing to file them for final action and wanting to amend some of these, the waivers were necessary.”

The Chair then granted the waiver.

Senator Hee rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“Mr. President and colleagues, there is a report on the internet and it has come to my attention that leading up to a fundraiser to pay off a campaign debt on my behalf, regents and proposed regents were solicited.

“Let me state right now that I was unaware of this, and this should not have happened. I take and accept full responsibility for the activities performed on behalf of my volunteers in their zeal to make the event a success. They have been admonished for this behavior and it will not happen again. Moreover, I’ve instructed my committee to return any donation which may have been made by any regent forthwith.

“Mr. President and colleagues, any inference that the sale or lack thereof of a $25 donation in any way impacted this week’s decisions by the Higher Education Committee regarding pending Board of Regent nominees is without merit and an insult to those committee members and their staffs who have spent so much time and effort in giving not one but two hearings, which is an unprecedented action indeed allotted by my colleagues across the aisle and to the current nominees.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Baker, Chair of the Committee on Health, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.C.R. No. 100.

Senator Baker noted:

Senator Fukunaga noted:

“Mr. President, H.C.R. 107, requests a study on the feasibility of installing a wireless fidelity internet network system in the state capitol

“The purpose of this resolution is comparable to one that was previously heard by the two Committees in the Senate and we wanted to give it a chance to move on to the next Committee.”

The Chair then granted the waiver.

At 11:58 o’clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:00 o’clock noon.

Senator English noted:

“Mr. President, H.C.R. No. 195, H.D. 1, adopts the United Nations Declaration on the rights of indigenous people. The reason for the waiver, Mr. President, is that we simply ran out of time to hear the measure and it is important to the House.

“Thank you.”

H.C.R. No. 195, H.D. 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION ON THE RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES."

Senator Hogue rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Colleagues, yesterday we had a very nice hearing on some governors messages in what we call and what is affectionately known as the MATS Committee: Media, Arts, Technology and Science. There were three members that were going forward on advise and consent. I bring this up because two of the three came forward and they frankly stated that they had fears, they were fearful. And we kind of joked about it and tried to allay those fears. Apparently they had watched a hearing on advise and consent the day before on television.

"And so it made me think about what we do here, about the fact that our sacred duty is that we have a very tough job and we have to ask some very tough questions. That's part of our job. But part of our job in asking those tough questions is not crossing the line of what, frankly, is just common human decency. At what point do we sometimes cross the line where we aren't asking tough questions but we are badgering? At what point are we crossing the line and we are bullying? At what point do we think we're just asking tough questions but the perception is that we are badgering or bullying?"

"I think we need to remember that when we conduct these kinds of hearings and when we ask these tough questions, how we look and how we are perceived reflects upon us all. And I would hope that we think about that as we go forward in this process and that we treat everyone with kindness and respect and full rights of courtesy, because sometimes in our zeal we go over the line.

"Thank you, Mr. President."
