

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY

Friday, April 29, 2005

The Senate of the Twenty-Third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2005, convened at 6:39 o'clock p.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Pastor Richard "Rick" Ribuca, Jesus Christ of Nazareth Gospel Church, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Whalen who was excused.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following messages from the Governor (Gov. Msg. Nos. 851 to 854) were read by the Clerk and were placed on file:

Gov. Msg. No. 851, informing the Senate that on April 28, 2005, she permitted the following measure to become law without her signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 1305 as Act 35, entitled: "RELATING TO EQUAL PAY."

"Dear Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am allowing the following measure to become law on April 28, 2005, without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

HB 1305, HD1 A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EQUAL PAY. (ACT 35)

As my Administration has pointed out, this bill is unnecessary. It simply reiterates policies in current federal laws including the Federal Equal Pay Act of 1963, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, the Pregnancy Discrimination Act of 1978, and the Civil Rights Act of 1991.

Furthermore, Hawaii law currently addresses waged-based discrimination under our Wage and Hour statutes and the Hawaii Discriminatory Practice Law. The Hawaii Civil Rights Commission is already responsible for handling cases brought under these statutes.

This bill establishes a task force on this topic, but fails to appropriate funds or staff for the task force. Additionally the scope of the task force's responsibilities is ambiguous and subject to various interpretations.

On balance, the bill does no good, but does no real harm. It is only a symbolic gesture by the Legislature. As such I will allow this measure to go into law without my signature.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linda Lingle
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 852, informing the Senate that on April 29, 2005, she signed into law Senate Bill No. 1864 as Act 36, entitled: "MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION OUT OF THE JUDICIARY COMPUTER SYSTEM SPECIAL FUND."

Gov. Msg. No. 853, informing the Senate that on April 29, 2005, she signed into law Senate Bill No. 1713 as Act 37, entitled: "RELATING TO KALAUPAPA."

Gov. Msg. No. 854, informing the Senate that on April 29, 2005, she signed into law Senate Bill No. 1140 as Act 38, entitled: "RELATING TO FINANCIAL SERVICE LOAN COMPANIES."

At 6:57 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 7:10 o'clock p.m.

Senator Hee rose at this time and said:

"Evidently, colleagues, the vote sheet was incorrect. On the motion not to advise and consent on student nominee Dylan Nonaka, the Vice Chair, in taking the vote, incorrectly registered a 'with reservation' for Senator Trimble and the vote should have been 'no.' To the extent that the Vice Chair made an error, I apologize for the inadvertent error and would like to correct the record to reflect that Senator Gordon Trimble on the motion not to advise and consent voted 'no.'"

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Hogue then rose and said:

"Mr. President, thank you very much for noting that the committee report was incorrect and that we have corrected that particular error. I'm going to ask, colleagues, if you don't mind, for a very brief recess and I'll tell you the reason why – the nominee whose confirmation we're going to debate in the next few minutes is on his way here. He has flown in from the Big Island and I believe that in deference to him, he deserves to hear those who are going to vote for him and those who are going to vote against him.

"I understand that he is literally just a few minutes away from the State Capitol, and I am asking either that this gets moved to the end of the calendar or that we recess for just a few minutes. Literally, I understand it will be just a few minutes for him to arrive.

"Thank you."

At 7:12 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 7:13 o'clock p.m.

"Colleagues, this is the perfect example why HCDCH needs to be reviewed with regard to its procedures. This is the perfect example why HCDCH, without notice to the Waiahole-Waikane Community Association, engaged with the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to make an effort to change the culture and resident and complexion of Waiahole Valley.

"Anybody who has been here since the 70s should know that of the valleys on Oahu, Waiahole Valley is an area that has undergone tremendous upheaval in 1973 and its members remain vigilant to the stewardship of the valley. To the extent that the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands and HCDCH never once conferred with the WWCA or its residents should never again occur so that they turn to the Legislature for relief. But for the leadership of the Water, Land, and Agriculture Chair and the Community of Waiahole Valley Association, this would have been rammed down the throats of the residents of Waiahole Valley.

"Thank you."

“Mr. President, I rise in support of the nomination for the Board of Regents, Dylan Nonaka.

“Mr. President, colleagues, I want to describe to you what I got out of the confirmation hearing. The first point I’d like to note is that during a previous confirmation hearing, the answers to the questions weren’t particularly liked, so when the Committee made their vote, they made their vote apparently solely on the answers to the questions and not the many letters in support of that nominee.

“In this particular case, the members of the Committee, as far as I could tell, verbally expressed satisfaction with the answers that were given by Dylan Nonaka, and yet in the committee report they cited the fact that there were many e-mails and faxes in opposition.

“If you went to the hearing itself, which was held in the auditorium, which is probably a pretty awesome place to have a confirmation hearing, there were about 10 people that testified – 8 in support, 2 opposed. If you look at the documentation that was sent in opposition, there were 109 Xeroxed copies from students that oppose tuition increases and they were all faxed from the same number in Hilo, I presume, which was 974-7791. During the hearing I commented that I found it strange that all would be faxed from the same number, and I said it might be interesting to find out where that fax number belongs. To date, I have not received confirmation from where it was sent.

“I also noted that many of the e-mails appeared identical, so there weren’t different expressions of opinion but the same opinion expressed over and over again. I’ve made a habit in previous times of trying to respond to e-mail, and on more than one occasion when I got a mass mailing, I got e-mails back saying they had not sent me that e-mail. So, I find it curious that the Committee in its report relied overwhelmingly not on the responses from Dylan Nonaka to the questions, but on mimeographed sheets of paper and identical e-mails.

“I find the vote of the Committee curious. I do not know what prompted it. Is it because of his last name? I don’t know. Is it because he is a student at the University of Hawaii at Hilo and that my colleagues do not think that one of the students from the University of Hawaii at Hilo could be a fitting board member, a fitting trustee for a world-class university? Perhaps. Is it because he was a Marine that served our country in harms way? That is also likely.

“I do not find it curious that, number one, so much testimony was presented against him, and in today’s newspaper there was a large picture and an article describing a protest at the University at Manoa dealing with the proposal for an affiliated research facility at the University of Hawaii. It is more likely that the two have something in common.

“Perhaps, colleagues, the other thing that was a factor was that perhaps many of you received the same e-mail that I did. It is from somebody that is called Caren, C-A-R-E-N, and it read in part, ‘I’m writing to express extreme opposition to the appointment of Dylan Nonaka. If you support this appointment, we will mobilize against all of your seats in the next election. This is not an angry threat but an expression of how serious we are about stopping this. We have allies on all the islands that can target all of the seats that you hold.’ Now, I did not get from this why Caren opposed the nomination. Perhaps Caren is a candidate for a course in anger management, but I do not know why, colleagues, you voted the way you do. And until I know that, I will continue to suspect that this might have played a part in your vote.

“When I think about the answers to the questions, I think that Dylan Nonaka would make an outstanding regent. And from my sense, what you want as a student representative is somebody that’s able to fill in the generation gap, the generation divide between the typical age of the older regents and the student. I do not expect that the student regent would parrot all the views that were held by the student body. If that were the case, we would have an election of a student regent. We do not have that. The other alternative is that we would poll all the students at the various campuses and then tell the board that. And in that case, this Body would not have to confirm a student regent.

“What we want on the Board of Regents are people that are willing to articulate reasonable positions and act independently. I believe Dylan Nonaka will do that. So, I urge you, colleagues, consider carefully your vote and, Mr. President, when the vote comes, please have a Roll Call vote.

“Thank you.”

The Chair so ordered.

Senator Hemmings rose in support of the nominee and said:

The President replied: “I agree.”

“Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the nominee.

“It seems that Senators this year unbelievably sunk into a quagmire of questionable ethics, misrepresentation, and petty politics. I want to focus in on one thing . . . it’s been quite an amount of time going over what has been done in the lynching of this fine young man by the Senate Higher Education Committee, but I want to focus in on one thing. As the previous speaker so clearly pointed out, it seems that the opposition is very well organized and, as the committee report says, over 200 individuals provided testimony in opposition, and we get it all the time. The truth is that we do get boilerplate responses to issues both pro and con that are organized by groups and sent in, but what separates this particular testimony is that some of it, maybe not all of it, but some of it, was gained under false circumstances.

“I, too, have letters from good young people and I’m going to take the time to read where they’re from and some of the things said because it completely invalidates the credibility of this committee report and the statement that 200 individuals provided testimony in opposition. This one is from the student newspaper assistant editor, ‘I’m a freshman here at the university and the assistant editor of the student newspaper, and on the morning of Tuesday, April 26, 2005, I was deceitfully coaxed into signing a so-called letter in opposition to Mr. Nonaka. I was given false information that portrayed Mr. Nonaka in a negative light.’ So that’s one.

“Here is another one from the student activities council business manager. These are students that are involved in the University at Hilo and young people who are not only going to school but are actually involved in the campus. ‘Upon returning to our office at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 27th, I was made aware that my name was announced via local television broadcast as being one of 217 individuals who were opposed to Mr. Dylan Nonaka’s position as the student member of the Board of Regents. I was flabbergasted not only because my name was among the questionable legitimate opposition, but primarily because I would never in my right mind be one who opposes Dylan’s position on the Board of Regents.’ This isn’t a boilerplate letter, it goes on and on and on.

“This is from the Senator-Elect to the Hawaii Community College, a student, ‘It has come to my attention that the student may have improperly and dishonorably collected signatures on a petition regarding the appointment of Dylan Nonaka to the Board of Regents. I humbly request that the UHNSA body take all measures available to investigate the allegations of unfair, immoral, and dishonorable petition gathering.’

“Here’s one from a young lady who is a student, she is a senior, a Bachelor of Arts in chemistry candidate. Chemistry is a hard subject, and I don’t think she’s getting through college doing basket weaving. She gives her full support to Dylan and has reasons why.

“Here’s a series of others all in one, but let me read a couple, ‘Unfortunately, many students were not aware of what they were signing when presented with the petition form circulated by one of our students. The students were not aware of all the facts and were therefore totally unaware of what they were signing.’

The President interjected:

“Senator Hemmings, I hope you don’t have a hundred of those things. Could you please move on, please.”

Senator Hemmings then said:

“Mr. President, out of respect for you and some of the members of your Majority Party, I will, out of respect for time, but this young man’s good reputation has been besmirched by a lynching, and a dishonest one to boot. How dare the people who did this! And they’re going to stand up and hopefully hide behind someone’s skirt and tell us, well, it was a mistake and some petitions people will stand by. And you know what? I’m sure there are people who are going to stand by the petition, Mr. President, but the point is there are many who are not because they were duped and cajoled into signing something under false pretenses.

“This was a lynching, and quite frankly, I think the people that did it – and it’s not the Legislature that did it, it’s certain people in the Majority Party – should be ashamed of it.

“I received 45 just in the last hour, boilerplate letters, I’ll admit, but they’re all in support of this gentleman.

“What’s being done tonight, if it goes through like I think it will because the wagons have been circled, is just rotten politics, Mr. President, and I won't be a part of it. This young man is a good young man that was lynched under false circumstances, and if the Majority Party has any integrity at all, they'll vote him in as a member of the Board of Regents rather than taking him down under false pretenses.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Slom rose to speak in support of the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise in support of the nominee, Dylan Nonaka.

"I'm a little surprised, however, that we have the sounds of silence here – kind of like the termites that work behind the scenes and you don't see what's going on until the building falls down. I would think that those who oppose Mr. Nonaka would have the guts to stand up and tell us why, to explain why this young man is not qualified, as the Standing Committee Report says – does not have the necessary qualifications. Based on what, members? How could you possibly vote? How do you know what those lack of qualifications are?"

"Certainly Mr. Nonaka probably does have a lack of qualifications, let's see: he's a decorated combat veteran who served his country; he is presently employed in gainful employment, which means he pays taxes; he is a student; he was an elected and is an elected official; and in addition to that, he answered every question, every trick and turn that was presented to him the other day. How do I know? Because I was there, just as I was there at the hearings for the two gentlemen that were approved earlier tonight, and I was there for the gentleman that was not approved last week. I was there when the other gentleman from Hilo was not approved. Gee whiz, Mr. President, let me say a prayer now. Thank God I'm not from the Big Island and from Hilo because this is 0 for 3 – 0 for 3!

"Now, let's see if we can review because I'm confused about what the Senate standards are. The first nominee from the Big Island, let's see, he was turned down because he didn't have the right temperament and Lord knows my colleagues have the right temperament in this Body and particularly behind the scenes where they do a lot of their work. There were a few people that disagreed with him, and they had honest disagreements and that was fine. But overwhelmingly, he had the support of the community on the Big Island. He certainly had the qualifications – as an attorney, as a chief negotiator, and so forth – but that wasn't good enough either for this elitist Body.

"Okay, then we move on to the second gentleman from the Big Island a couple of weeks ago and we were told he didn't have the knowledge. One of our members said he didn't even have a bachelor's degree, he only had an associate's degree. Oh my God that's a horrible thing, let's see, particularly when you're supporting the community college system. As I recall, Mr. President, he didn't have one, not one negative comment, letter, e-mail, anonymous phone call, or anything against him, but that wasn't good enough.

"And so, now we move on to Mr. Nonaka – overwhelming opposition from the same fax number, overwhelming opposition by the people that, thank God, they represent themselves.

"This committee report talks a lot about 'the primary function of the student member of the Board of Regents is to represent the students.' And then it goes on to say, 'The students have one voice to represent their concerns on the Board of Regents.'

"All of us have been elected, Mr. President, to represent the people that vote for us and even those that vote against us. Can any person in this Body say that they represent all the people in their constituency, that they all have one single voice? I don't think so or otherwise we wouldn't have disagreements on different issues, different bills, and different individuals. On one hand, this Body loves diversity, but apparently not when it comes to the speech and the ideas of individuals if it differs from those in power in this Body.

"The nominee already said, when he gave a tremendous performance the other day . . . performance I say because this is high drama; this is all well orchestrated. This is not to have a debate or debate the issues or the individual, it's to get the nominee, to get the people of Hilo, to get the Governor, to get the Minority Party. That's what this is all about, because how else can you explain turning down a qualified individual like Dylan Nonaka, and obviously nobody is trying to explain it; they don't want to explain it. They just want to have the vote and go on, and then mark up another one – one, two, three victories – completely disregarding what the people of the area think, completely disregarding the fact that there are thousands upon thousands of students in the university system. And we heard from one group that have one point of view and apparently that is the prevailing point of view and that point of view is we are anti-military, apparently we're anti-private work, and certainly we are anti-diversification on views.

"Did Mr. Nonaka hide anything? Did he try to change anything? No, although he did explain quite carefully that his comments were taken out of context and were not reported accurately in the newspaper.

"I remember the good Senator from Waikiki asked the only two people that came and testified against him if they had met him. One said, no, he hadn't had a chance yet to meet him. The other one said he thought he had met him on a couple of occasions. The good Senator from Waikiki asked them, did they engage Mr. Nonaka on any other issue, any question other than the question of tuition? Again, one didn't know and the other one said he didn't have time yet. So, it came down to one issue, which was not accurately reported, and for which the nominee said he's just keeping his options open. Isn't that what we're suppose to do? When an issue comes up here, are we supposed to say right away, my mind is made up but we haven't had any public hearing or we don't need it and I don't need anymore information? Or are we supposed to say, let's have the hearing, let's have the thoughts of different voices.

"I can't believe that somebody would really, really believe this – that we want one voice, because who is going to choose that one voice. If we're talking about representation, representation means that you are here, that you answer the questions, that you take the jerk, that you vote for something, and you explain what your vote is all about. And nobody is explaining anything this evening, not at all.

"As a graduate of the University of Hawaii, as a sustaining, supporting, money-giving contributor to the University of Hawaii, I resent what has gone on.

"If we have disagreement with an individual's qualifications, that's one thing and we can point them out and we can discuss them, but why this fear of standing up and telling us what the real reason is or challenging the qualifications of this young man. We talk about witch-hunts. We talk about this and that. We talk about guilt by association, and yet there's nothing that has been put on the record here, not at all.

"I'm sorry I'm boring the Chairman of the Higher Education Committee. He keeps yawning. I'm really sorry about that. But I think that we all owe the public and this nominee an explanation for why you're about to diss him. When we ask people to come forward and volunteer, when we ask them to undergo the scrutiny of examination, it is to provide the public with information. And if certain things are found – either qualifications, or character, or integrity, or anything else – that's fair game. But no one has attacked Mr. Nonaka's integrity. No one has attacked Mr. Nonaka's character. No one has attacked the basic things that he has done. Why? Because you can't, they are a matter of record.

"And so, Mr. President, I find it very strange that we have the sounds of silence now. And maybe, just maybe we'll have some kind of explanation, because we owe it not only to Mr. Nonaka, not only to the University of Hawaii, not only to the Big Island and the people of Hilo, but to the public at large. They want to know what we do here besides raise our own salaries, raise our allowances, and give us more perks and exempt us from the laws that we pass. They want to know, Mr. President. They have a right to know.

"So, I call on those that do not support Mr. Nonaka to stand up and explain to us why he is not qualified. Thank you."

Senator Hogue rose at this time and said:

"Mr. President, in light of the fact that the integrity of the evidence has been called into question, I want to cite Rule 63. I move that we postpone this matter indefinitely."

At 7:54 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 8:09 o'clock p.m.

Senator Hogue rose and said:

"Mr. President, in the sports business we have a term that we use – 'after further review.' And after further review, I will withdraw my motion and I hope that we can continue this debate on this particular nominee.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."

Senator Hemmings rose again and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to take a second time just to add one particular comment regarding this debate.

"I'm truly sorry that certain individuals who orchestrated this – what I consider political lynching in the Majority Party – don't have the integrity or the courage to defend this and their vote.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Hogue rose to inquire as follows:

"Mr. President, I really don't like a one-sided debate here. I'm trying to be nice about it and that's what I'm trying to do right now. Can I ask the Higher Education Chair a question? Would that be appropriate?"

The President posed the question, and Senator Hee answered:

"No, Mr. President."

Senator Chun Oakland rose in opposition to the nomination and said:

"Mr. President, may I submit my comments in opposition to this nomination into the record."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chun Oakland's remarks read as follows:

"I stand in opposition to this nomination for the following reasons: First, the Committee received overwhelming testimony from students of the university system in opposition to Dylan Nonaka's nomination to be the student representative on the Board of Regents. It is clear that there was an overwhelming outcry of no confidence in this nominee to represent them well. To have mobilized such a showing in a matter of a few days, impressed upon me how concerned the student body was about the nominee.

"The student caucuses of the 10 campuses of the University of Hawaii have been working for several years to look at the university's spending patterns and analyzed the programs that are offered to determine where costs could be cut and efficiencies gained. The student caucuses have worked diligently to understand the UH's tuition rate and have compared the tuition of peer institutions – those that offer similar programs and services – and have found that the University of Hawaii's tuition is above the average tuition of other peer institutions. Often, people state that the UH tuition is lower than that of other universities. That is true. But when comparing UH's tuition to its peer institutions, UH's tuition is higher.

"The students felt that the nominee's public statements regarding the issue of tuition increase demonstrated no understanding of the work that the students of the 10 campuses have done. The students are doing their homework to positively impact their university. They expect the same of their student representative on the Board of Regents."

Senator Hee rose to speak against the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against the confirmation of the nominee.

"Let me say, first of all, that I found the nominee to be a very nice man. We had an interview and I thought it was very nice. But, Mr. President and colleagues, it's very unusual for any nomination to receive testimony in opposition to any nominee. It's highly unusual to receive 10 comments in writing against the nominee. On judicial nominees this year, I can't think of a single one in writing.

"This particular nomination was very different, because as the previous speakers have indicated there were over 200 that actually took the time in various forms to affix their signature in opposition. And it was quite remarkable for me because it wasn't 10, it wasn't 20, it wasn't 30, it was in excess of 200. During the deliberations to prepare for the confirmation, one of the items I asked my clerk to retrieve was the actual floor speech held on the 60th Day of the Session on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 16, H.B. No. 1006, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, and the speech was given by Representative Mark Takai who introduced the bill. And he said in part, quote:

"The purpose of this bill is to give a voice to students on the UH Board of Regents by adding a member to the board who is a student at the University of Hawaii.

"The main goal for the university community is to have a student on the board working across the table at the same level as the other board members, and most important, participating as equals.

'Some issues that affect students at the university and are heard by the University Board of Regents do not necessarily include student input. Presently, although the students may voice their concerns to the board, they cannot reinforce what they say with a vote.'

'I strongly feel that a voting student member on the Board of Regents would help to insure that students' concerns are heard and acted upon. By allowing a student member to vote as a bona fide board member, we would be ensuring that students have a direct voice and participation in the process that ultimately revolves around the students in the university system.'

'Such a student member would allow access to the wealth of information on the ramifications of the board decisions on students and would provide an essential element not presently available.'

'Mr. President and members, during the past 24 hours or so there has been many, many e-mails that have been sent by some members of the community who have been saying that their names were improperly used. That may be. I don't know, but it may be. This much I do know - I received today by e-mail the following: 'Dear Senators Hee and Inouye, my name is Ryan Deluccio and I am a Senator elect at Hawaii Community College. I am the person most responsible for the petition that was sent up via fax to your offices. I faxed them to your office. These petitions were entered in as testimony against Dylan Nonaka's confirmation as a student regent. We work hard, day and night, to organize resistance to his nomination and to educate others on the issue. We stand by our petition with absolute faith in its integrity and we would not have sent them otherwise.'

'Mr. President and members, many of those who submitted testimony in opposition were letters that reflected a lot of time and effort. I would like to read excerpts of two to share as an example of the effort. 'Aloha mai. As the student government President of the Associated Students of the University of Hawaii at Hawaii Community College, it is my responsibility to stimulate students to engage in purposeful co-curricular and extracurricular activities to promote and promulgate goodwill and above all to make positive contributions to the college and the community at large. I commend Dylan for his four years of service in the United States Marine Corps and his decision to pursue a higher education. As an undergraduate from the Big Island, it is an honor to be nominated as a student Board of Regent. However, most recently, Dylan has made it evident to the student community that he will take a stand as a student representative on an important issue such as the tuition increase without any consensus from the student body he serves. Dylan claims to have the desire to serve others and contribute to the greater good. However, his actions speak loudly in the opposite direction.'

'I will read one other. This is from Jennifer Yoshioka, the chair and treasurer of the ASMCC, which I believe is the Associated Students of Maui Community College Student Governance, Chair of the Board of Student Publications, 'Aloha, I am speaking on behalf of myself, as my fellow students of Maui Community College have not had the opportunity to either meet nor have ample time to receive any information about Mr. Dylan Nonaka. Upon meeting him at the last Board of Regents meeting at Windward Community College on April 21, Mr. Nonaka has shown me in more ways than one that he is not qualified for such an important position as a student representative. I believe Mr. Nonaka to be an inarticulate, incognizant, and a self-seeking individual. With the majority of the campuses within the University of Hawaii system being against the tuition increase, he was the only individual for the tuition increase. If appointed student representative on the Board of Regents, I believe that he will not listen nor take heed the wants or needs of his fellow students on all ten University of Hawaii campuses. If he is appointed, I believe that he will not live up to the title of student representative, as he does not truly represent the students.'

'Mr. President and members, this issue, to me, has gotten out of control. Yesterday, many of you, like me, received a memo dated April 29th faxed from UHH Student Association in Hilo, 933-0445, and it says, 'We are writing to you in hopes to clarify a conflict of what may be a misunderstanding on both our parts and the party involved in corraling signatures in opposition of Mr. Dylan Nonaka. When approached by a fellow student, Kanekoa Crabbe and friends Justin Avery, and Randy Rambo, we were initially asked if we were in opposition to the recent proposal on a tuition hike. Upon agreeing to the opposition of the hike, we were asked to sign a petition that will then be sent to our State Legislators and the current Board of Regents showing student opposition to the proposal. Upon hearing from another student that both our names were called off from a petition this past Wednesday at a testimony for Mr. Dylan Nonaka, nomination to the Board of Regents, in opposition to the seat, we were confused and misunderstood by the reasons of why our names were mentioned. We were falsely informed. And because of what seemed to have been a harmless push to stop an increase in tuition, another student, his efforts, his colleagues, his teachers, and most importantly his family will heed the burden of something someone with no piko, na'au, and soul has guiltlessly comprised with the intent to misinform other students. We are ashamed and disappointed in this matter and are withdrawing our names from this false petition. We will also be taking lawful action to this matter. Please withdraw our names from the petition and help save us from the embarrassment we have caused our families in the process. Mahalo, Ray Santos, La'akea Trask Batty.'

'Mr. President and members, I have a letter from La'akea Trask Batty. Mr. President and members, he is seated there. That is La'akea Trask Batty. Aloha, Senator Hee and members of the Senate, my name is La'akea Trask Batty. I am writing to express my deep concern over fraudulent e-mails and a fax that you received today which misappropriates my name and opinion regarding Dylan Nonaka's nomination as student regent. They are complete frauds and I am concerned that the democratic process is being manipulated and abused. I did not write the e-mails or the fax. The signature on the fax, which came from UHH student association is not my signature. I did not consent to any of these false communications. I do not agree with the e-mails and the fax. I did send an e-mail on Wednesday, April 27, 2005 to Senator Hee. My position remains the same. The e-mail states, quote, 'My name is La'akea Trask Batty and I am a student at the University of Hawaii, Manoa. As a Native Hawaiian college student, I urge you not to support Dylan Nonaka for the position of student regent. His support for tuition increases is a view I, as well as many, many other students do not share. He is not an accurate and respectable voice for the students of the university and he is not someone I want representing me. As my e-mail states, I am currently a student at the University of Hawaii, Manoa. I have been at school and studying for final exams in Manoa all day. It is very troubling for me to learn that some people are misappropriating my name and opinion to the Senate and deceiving its members regarding Dylan Nonaka's nomination as the student regent. I hope you take the truth into account when voting on his nomination tonight.'

'Thank you, Mr. President.'

At 8:27 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 8:42 o'clock p.m.

Senator Trimble rose in rebuttal as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in brief rebuttal.

"There are three points I wish to make. First, the Chairman of Higher Ed talked about the tuition issue. When I was at the hearing, it was my impression that Dylan Nonaka gave a very clear explanation about how he was misquoted and what he believed in terms of tuition increases. And if I remember more or less, the Chairman of Higher Ed had sympathy for Dylan, for apparently sometime in his past, he also has been misquoted.

"Point number two, I asked earlier about a phone number, and in the previous speech by the Chairman of Higher Ed, he read a letter from a student, I believe, at Hawaii Community College. So, if we check the fax number, the fax number 974-7791 should be from Hawaii Community College. I would like verification on that sooner or later.

"The third item is the 109 sheets of mimeographed paper that were all faxed. The Chairman of Higher Ed commented that it is unusual to have so many different people submitting testimony in opposition. The inference was that this was grassroots opposition. I suggest to you, colleagues, that this is not grassroots – this is Astroturf.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Slom then rose and said:

"Mr. President, I want to thank the Education Chair for his comments.

"A couple things though, I absolutely agree with him when he said this thing is out of control. It certainly is out of control. It's gone beyond the issue of a Board of Regent appointment. It's gone beyond the individual, who is a living, breathing person who appeared before the Committee, who answered all the questions, who is here again tonight.

"I, too, have a copy of the e-mail letter that the good Senator was reading from initially and he neglected to read one part and that part, and I'm quoting, it's the third to the last paragraph, quote, 'We would like to take this time to point out that no specific names are being challenged by Mr. Nonaka and his supporters, and Mr. Nonaka and his supporters have circulated a form letter today that vaguely eludes to the real issue while casting unsubstantiated doubt on our petition. They cannot produce a single instance of impropriety because there is none,' unquote. I recall just a very short hour and 15 minutes ago, the Minority Leader standing up and starting to read letters until he was cut off and not allowed to continue. So, that statement is not true.

"As to the gentleman that's up in the gallery, the student from the University of Hawaii at Manoa, I congratulate him. I thank him for coming, and since several of us in the past have been the victims of people using our names or even our signatures, I have no reason to quarrel with what he said and I think we should investigate as to who did these things allegedly and who did the kinds of petitions that fooled individual students and all of that. So, I think there's much more here below the surface.

"But I also want to get to a point that the good Senator, the head of the Higher Education Committee, mentioned because he was reading the original statement, as he mentioned, the last speech of a previous Session by State Representative K. Mark Takai who I believe is also a member of the military. And he said that he gave reasons for why there should be an elected voting student member of the Board of Regents and for myself and those of us who have always enthusiastically supported this, we're not denying it now. We're saying absolutely. We should have a student who is representing the student body, who is a student and all of that.

"So, in all of the discussion, again I'm waiting to hear what are the reasons that impugn the qualifications, the background, the experience and the character of Mr. Nonaka. And I've heard nothing. All I hear is a lot of people that wrote these petitions or signed these petitions don't want a tuition increase. I remember when I was a student at the University of Hawaii, Manoa, I didn't want a tuition increase either and I signed petitions and I would do it again today, but that's a separate issue. No one has given us a solid reason for why this individual is not qualified, and then to make the statement that he is inarticulate, quote, unquote, 'inarticulate?' Dylan Nonaka? Did you hear him the other day? Did you see him? Did you hear him speak? Inarticulate? Come on! Come on, let's talk truth if we're going to tonight!

"And the other point about how Mr. Nonaka never sought the consensus of the student body and he doesn't listen to them, obviously he does or there'd be no support whatsoever. What these people and these e-mails and these faxes are saying is they don't listen to us, which is the whole point of the students that at this very moment are occupying the office of the President of the University of Hawaii. Even though he said he hadn't made up his mind on the issue that they are unhappy about, but would keep his options open and discuss it, but that was not good enough. Instead, we want to mug the people that don't agree with us in our speech. If we're going to do that then let's say that we really don't believe in free speech and we don't believe in diversity of expression and differences of opinions, because that's the only thing I can hear here tonight.

"If I'm wrong or if I've left something out, then please, please any member of the Committee that voted 'no,' any member of the Senate Majority Party that wants to vote 'no' please stand up and tell me where I'm wrong – why this young man does not fit the really high standards that we in the Senate have set for certain individuals.

"I support the nomination, and the appointment, and advisory and consent of Mr. Nonaka. Thank you."

Senator Hemmings rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"I rise on a point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

"Mr. President and colleagues, in order to . . ."

Senator Baker interjected:

"Point of order, Mr. President."

Senator Hemmings continued:

"Mr. President, I'm submitting, from the Governor, a letter withdrawing the nomination of Dylan W.J. Nonaka, Gov. Msg. No. 826."

At 8:53 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 9:27 o'clock p.m.

Senator Hemmings rose and stated:

"Mr. President, I do want to acknowledge that when we were gavelled into the short recess I did have the Floor and I wish to continue to make my point so it's clearly understood by the Majority Party. I've submitted to the Clerk of the Senate and to you, Mr. President, a letter withdrawing the name of the nomination of Dylan Nonaka."

Senator Hanabusa rose on a point of order and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

"Mr. President, the point of order to which I rise is, is the point of personal privilege proper under the Senate Rules when we are in debate, especially by a speaker who has already spoken twice on the matter?"

The Chair answered: "No."

Senator Tsutsui then rose and said:

"Mr. President, I move the previous question."

Senator Hee stated:

"Mr. President, I second the motion."

Senator Hogue interjected:

"Mr. President. Mr. President, there is no . . ."

The motion for the previous question was then put by the Chair and carried by not less than three-fifths vote of all the members to which the Senate is entitled.

Senator Hogue continued:

"Mr. President, this motion is illegal! This is illegal!"

President Bunda interjected:

"Senator Hogue, you are out of order."

Senator Hogue stated:

"You know it is illegal. We are not party to this vote!"

The President then said:

"Mr. Sergeant-at-Arms, please escort Senator Hogue off the Floor."

At this time, the remaining Senators of the Minority Party left the Senate Floor.

The President then stated:

"The motion has been carried, Roll Call vote has been requested. Mr. Clerk, call the Roll."

Senator Baker rose and said:

"Mr. President, short recess."

At 9:29 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 9:29 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put by the Chair and, Roll Call vote having been requested, failed to carry on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:
