RE-REFERRAL OF A SENATE BILL

The Chair re-referred the following Senate bill that was introduced:

Senate Bill	Referred to:
No. 2190	Jointly to the Committee on Labor and the Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Hee rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“It’s reported on the Web today and will be reported tomorrow, members, that the UH regents have suspended the presidential search and they will engage in a negotiation with President McClain to be considered as the next president. Members, by doing so, the taskforce on the Board of Regents would make this recommendation to the full board for action.

“Let me say at the outset, this is, in my view, inexplicable and is not in the best interest of the residents of Hawaii and in particular the students of the University of Hawaii campus, the ten-campus system.

“It’s unfathomable to me why the taskforce, regardless of the explanation on the Web would choose to suspend the opportunity for this great state to curtail its search for a president. Among the reasons outlined by the taskforce making the recommendation is, quote, ‘Your chances of finding another system president who would rate, quote, “outstanding,” end quote, are less than 50 percent.’ Quote, ‘Someone who has been doing the job extremely well for almost two years should not have to participate in a cattle call to keep the job. The Board of Regents should just appoint him,’ end quote. Quote, ‘If I were in your shoes, I would not proceed with a search until I knew the door was absolutely nailed shut for David McClain,’ end quote. And finally, quote, ‘No matter who tells you what, you have to do what is best for your university system and follow your instincts,’ end quote.

“Each of those reasons to stop the search is a reason to continue the search. If in fact the chances of finding another system president who would rate outstanding are less than 50 percent, let us go forward and find those other 50 percenters. If someone who has been doing the job extremely well for almost two years should not participate in the cattle call to keep that job, since when should the Board of Regents and this state capitulate without doing the people’s work and find in fact if he is the best person?

“No matter who tells you what to do, you have to do what is best for the university system and follow your instincts. I’m not sure what instincts one needs to follow to move forward with a transparent system, to move forward with a process that is open, to move forward with a system that seeks out the best and the brightest in this state, in this nation, and in this world.

“The brief remarks in today’s Advertiser on the Web says that ‘Board Chair Kitty Lagareta reported this morning that the search firm had recommended they suspend a nationwide search and offer interim President McClain the job. The regents expect to meet in March to pursue the issue.’ McClain announced in late November that he would not be a candidate for the presidency. In fact, he said on November 29th, ‘A full term as our university’s president involves at least a seven-year commitment. That’s the time normally required to fully shape a new course in this large and complex organization serving 80,000 students with a budget today of $1.1 billion. My predecessor’s contract was for seven years, extendable to ten. The three presidents before him each served between seven and ten years. In my view,’ said McClain, ‘this university needs a president who can commit to serving for that length of time. If I were chosen to be the UH president,’ he continued, ‘it’s likely that I’d serve only until 2009 and then the university would have to search again for a president. As a consequence, I do not intend to actively pursue the UH presidency.’

“Members, it’s clear to me that McClain and the University Board of Regents have a cozy relationship as it is clear to me that surely there are others who would be interested in a job that pays $350,000, that has a full-time maid, that has a full-time yard person, that in fact lives in a mansion called ‘College Hill.’ It is clear to me that David McClain, as he said on November 29th, if he wishes to be president, he should be willing to participate in a cattle call. And if he’s not willing to participate in the cattle call, he ought to do right by the students of the University of Hawaii and decline the capitulation by the Board of Regents to suspend a search to get the best and the brightest. Anything less, under a Democrat governor, would be criticized as the ‘old boy network’ going about their business behind closed doors to ensure one of their own to be the next president.

“Thank you.”

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

“Mr. President, I, too, rise on a point of personal privilege.

“I wasn’t planning to say anything today, but I think that the remarks made by my distinguished colleague from Kahaluu needs some balance – fair and balanced.

“First of all, I did not see the Web story so I’m not familiar with that. However, I did hear that in fact an offer may be made to Mr. McClain.

"I think it's a little sad that the remarks that were just made were basically made of a personal nature rather than pointing out specific issues. If we have issues of disagreement, that's one thing and we bring those issues forward, but I think we should keep a number of things in mind.

"And by the way, Mr. President, I'm standing here because I'm a graduate of the University of Hawaii, Manoa. That's my alma mater. So I take a particular interest in what's happening, and I take issue with the statement that it's a cozy relationship and it's part of the 'old boy network.' We all knew what the 'old boy network' was.

"I think it's interesting that here is a gentleman who took over the university at a time of crisis, and where did that crisis come from? This crisis came because after a national search, after everybody fell over and fawned over the candidate, we found out not only was he not capable of fairly and adequately administering the university, we found out that he didn't tell the truth. We found out that he came before this Body and made grandiose promises of financial assistance on projects which he never followed through with. We found out in fact that he looted the University of Hawaii and the people of this State and that the gentleman is lucky that he's not in jail right now, instead he's got a high paying position in Massachusetts. I understand in Massachusetts they look favorably upon people who have been felons or near felons.

"In any event, McClain took over. He didn't seek the job. He wasn't campaigning for the job, and over the last two years we've had stability restored to the university. We've moved to additional issues and we can agree or disagree on some of those issues. To say that it's a closed, 'old boy,' cozy network, however, belies the facts. And the facts are – interim President McClain actually allowed student and faculty protestors to take over his office for a number of days; he bent over backwards in making sure that all of the discussions were free and open, including his own chancellor who happened to recommend another position in the UARC issue.

"So, to say that this man really was basically plotting or scheming with the Governor or the Board of Regents I think does a great deal of injustice to the man. And yes, those quotes were accurate that the good Senator from Kahaluu read back in November because he was being honest and saying he wasn't looking for that long-term commitment. He wanted to spend time with his family. He made that very clear. But it was also very clear that there was a lot of support within the community to have temporary President McClain made permanent President McClain.

"And while I certainly agree that a search is a valuable thing to do, when you have somebody not only on the job but doing the job and doing it well, someone who has been fair and evenhanded, someone who has brought back respect to the University of Hawaii, someone who has removed the clouds left by the last nationally secured president of this university, then I think unless we have serious and grievous concerns about specific issues, that we should welcome the attempt to get him to do this. And it's not a done deal, from what I understand, not what I read from the Advertiser on the Web. But as the Senator said, there will be a subject brought up in the March meeting of the Board of Regents. We believe there will be an offer made, and I personally hope that that offer will be accepted. Because we've found out in the past – we found out from the superintendent of education who was also highly recruited. Of course we learned he got the job primarily because he was the only one that wore an aloha shirt instead of a suit, which I think is a tremendous, you know, vote of confidence for experience and background.

"We certainly should watch the university. We certainly should watch where the money goes. We certainly should question budgets and figures and issues that are taken, but not the personal attack on an individual who is very quiet, very behind the scenes, again, unlike his predecessor, who has done and is doing the job.

"So, from that standpoint, I think we should be pleased that at least he may be willing to accept that. We certainly will want to look at all of the requirements or all of the offers that are made, including the salary. Of course, I remind the good Senator from across the way that the football coach earns more than the President of the University of Hawaii. That's another issue that we might talk about. But I'm just suggesting that if we want to debate this issue, then let's in fact debate the issues and not slander the man.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Hee rose in rebuttal and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in rebuttal. Let me be clear. My criticism is not to McClain. My criticism is to the process. My criticism is to the Board of Regents, the taskforce. The criticism for McClain will wait until the day that the regents, if we happen to be in Session, hire the man.

"But like the previous speaker, I have three degrees from UH Manoa. But unlike the previous speaker who evidently embraces the phrase 'do as I say, not as I do,' the criticism wasn't at McClain. It was at the process. It was at the Board of Regents. The reference to the cozy relationship was made in the context that if this were under a different regime, these are the comments that would be leveled.

"I don't know if there's any plotting or scheming going on. That will come to light on another day. But the criticism should be brought to bear right where it belongs – and that's at the feet of the Board of Regents, not the nominee or the individual who is being courted absent of a search. Why would you not do a search? McClain himself said it's in the best interest of the university to do a nationwide search. It's in the best interest of the students to have everyone considered. Why would you not do a search?

"So any capitulation to those words, it's not aimed at the individual who's being courted but at the courtiers, the Board of Regents.

"Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT
