"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

April 16, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1672

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1672, entitled 'A Bill for an Act Relating to Legislative Service Agencies.'

This bill increases the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) from 87% to 92% of the pay of the Directors of these three organizations.

This will raise the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau from $90,514 to $97,631 on July 1, 2007. This is the second significant pay increase for legislative attached agency personnel in two years.

This bill is objectionable because it increases the inequity in compensation levels for these three legislative agencies as compared to other positions in State government.

Under this bill, the Legislative Branch second-in-command positions will be allowed to earn more than the Directors of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL), the Department of Public Safety (PSD), the Department of Human Resources Development (DHRD), and the Chairperson of the Department of Agriculture (DOA). These Directors are responsible for millions of dollars of public funds; hundreds and, in some cases, thousands of employees spread across the State; the stewardship for hundreds of thousands of acres of land held in trust for the native Hawaiian people; the survival of our agricultural sector; and the management of our prison system, which includes multiple facilities on four islands. Yet they are compensated less than a First Assistant in the Ombudsman's Office that supervises eight investigators, a First Assistant in the Legislative Reference Bureau that supervises nine individuals, and the Deputy Auditor responsible for fifteen personnel.

If the 2007 recommendations of the Commission on Salaries are adopted, this bill will raise the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) from $90,514 to $100,508 on July 1, 2007. The four Directors listed above would earn several thousand dollars less.

It should also be pointed out that a number of key positions in the Executive Branch with significant managerial and public policy responsibilities have not had compensation adjustments that allow the Administration to attract and retain personnel. These include, but are not limited to, the Public Utilities Commissioners ($77,390), Executive Director of the Hawaii Public Housing Authority ($79,590), Executive Director of the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation ($79,590), and the Vice Director of the Civil Defense ($81,463). A full list of these positions is attached to this Statement of Objections.

These positions have significant responsibilities, such as managing almost 6,000 public housing units, coordinating statewide responses to natural disasters, and setting tariffs and rate in complex utility cases.

This Administration introduced bills this year, House Bill No. 1367 and Senate Bill No. 1453, to de-link the salary levels for Executive Branch senior staff members who were adversely affected by Act 226 SLH 2005. Despite the inequity that existed prior to this legislative session due to Acts 226 and Acts 225 of 2005, the Legislature failed to pass the Administration's proposal that would have brought parity in pay for Executive Branch employees and recognized the importance of treating all State employees fairly and equitably.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1672 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Linda Lingle
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawai'i,"

was placed on file.
