FINAL READING

S.B. No. 2129, S.D. 2, H.D. 1:

Senator Chun Oakland moved that S.B. No. 2129, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Taniguchi.

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition to the measure and stated:

“Madam President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

“The premise of the bill is that people on the advisory council—particularly for elder affairs and part of the Department of Health—are being silenced or not allowed to speak their mind. That’s the inference. And it says that the Legislature has been advised—I don’t know; I haven’t been advised of that. But maybe certain people of the Legislature have.

“I know a little about elder activities and I know a little bit more about boards and their advisory capacity. And in fact, that’s what we’re talking about. We’re talking about an advisory board. The board is advisory to the executive. And in this bill it talks about allegations that the department have altered, edited or withheld recommendations of the board in cases where those recommendations may be inconsistent with the recommendations of the executive. Anyone who’s ever worked with a board—particularly an advisory board—knows that that board, a part of their responsibility is to come up with different ideas, to have discussion, to have healthy debates and all that. But in the end, it is the executive or the executive committee that is charged with the responsibility for adopting and making the final recommendations because they’re the ones, they’re going to be called on the carpet if something is wrong with that recommendation—not the board.

“So I have problems with this. Certainly people should be free to speak their mind, and I think we should encourage that. But I think we keep running over the line between executive and legislative responsibility. And when you’re talking about executive, you’re talking about whoever that director, that chairman of a board or a commission or a department is, and you find ultimate responsibility. And I think that this lessens and blurs that responsibility rather than protects individual members of an advisory commission. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2129, S.D. 2, and S.B. No. 2129, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELDER AFFAIRS,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 19. Noes, 2 (Slom, Trimble). Excused, 4 (English, Espero, Kim, Menor).

At 12:01 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:07 p.m.

S.B. No. 2153, S.D. 1, H.D. 1:

Senator Fukunaga moved that S.B. No. 2153, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition as follows:

“Madam President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

“This is not an honest attempt to meet the requirements of the State Constitution, and in fact, the Senate bill we replaced the material with the contents. This bill would give $1 to every resident taxpayer, if in fact it survives a conference. Giving $1 to our residents is like going to a restaurant and showing your disdain for the lack of service and leaving a penny as a tip. Giving $1 also shows that we’re not really serious about helping the slowing of our economy and helping it with specifically our residents, allowing them to have more money, and more discretion, and more choices. What we’re saying is, yeah, we’ll give you a dollar, but we’ll still continue to spend and we’ll make the decisions as to where your money, the bulk of it, will go.

“I think it’s unfortunate. I think we could do better than this. I think we should do better than this. Thank you.”

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Madam President, I rise in support of this measure.

“Madam President, your Committee on Ways and Means would have loved to be able to recommend a bill that’s larger than this. However, since the time that Ways and Means considered the first version of this measure, we’ve had a lowering of the council on revenues projections. We’ve had some other indications that our economy is in trouble. And we’ve had to contract the amount of money that we are able to recommend that the executive spend to do a variety of things, on needs important in our community. We’re looking at using as an economic stimulus some of the other bills that are out there as well as our public works projects.

“I know this is not what the good Senator from Hawai‘i Kai wants to hear because it doesn’t square with his philosophy. But I think this measure is prudent. It meets our constitutional obligation and I urge my members to support it. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2153, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 2153, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDIT,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 18. Noes, 3 (Slom, Trimble, Whalen). Excused, 4 (English, Espero, Kim, Menor).

S.B. No. 2569, H.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Fukunaga, seconded by Senator Nishihara and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2569, and S.B. No. 2569, H.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE MUSEUM OF HAWAIIAN MUSIC AND DANCE,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, none. Excused, 4 (English, Espero, Kim, Menor).

No. 2782, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO METAL,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 20. Noes, 1 (Whalen). Excused, 4 (English, Espero, Kim, Menor).

S.B. No. 2816, S.D. 1, H.D. 2:

On motion by Senator Gabbard, seconded by Senator Fukunaga and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2816, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 2816, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTRA-COUNTY FERRY SERVICE,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21. Noes, none. Excused, 4 (English, Espero, Kim, Menor).

S.B. No. 2828, S.D. 2, H.D. 2:

Senator Taniguchi moved that S.B. No. 2828, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Inouye.

Senator Hemmings rose to speak in opposition to the measure and said:

“Madam President, I rise to speak against this legislation.

“Thank you, Madam President. I think it’s important for us to ask ourselves occasionally what our deeds mean and what effect they have on the people that we've sworn to assist to the lawmaking process of this Legislature.

"Who does this bill help? I can have a few ideas who it helps but I'm not sure who it helps in the public's domain. Who does this bill hurt? This bill takes away the Governor's emergency declaration powers in certain areas and will restrict her ability to assist those people, oftentimes whose circumstances are beyond their control, who need our assistance. For the record, it's important to remember who some of those people are.

"Under the Governor's emergency declaration, the State opened three homeless shelters. On Oahu, one in Kaka'ako was made ready in just six short days. In Kalaehoa, one was constructed in three months. And another in Wai'anae took four months to build. Without the emergency declaration, it is likely that these projects, thanks to government, would still be in the planning, designing and the permitting stages. And what that would mean in real terms is that about 2,100 people would still be on the beaches or in the parks, living in emergency and dire circumstances. It's important to also note that these shelters have helped more than 900 people to get housing. They made the transition from homeless to housing.

"What are we doing here, and why? Well, I might have an answer 'why' in the 2006 survey of candidates for election. One of the surveys flat out asked about supporting homeless by having the Governor's emergency declaration abilities stay in place. The question was: 'Do you support the issuance of an emergency declaration by the office of the Governor in order to address Hawai'i's homeless issue?' Seventeen Majority party members running for office said they would. Fourteen, including three on this floor, reversed their votes.

"So in doing our voting today, you once again ask yourselves 'why?' Who are we helping and who are we hurting? I would suggest, especially you three who voted, or in survey said you would support the Governor's initiatives—consider it, please. Passing this legislation helps no one, but it certainly will hurt. And maybe hurt people that really need our help. So I would ask the Majority party, please reconsider this legislation and vote 'no,' and do what's humane and best for our people, rather than what it appears to be—'gotcha' politics with the executive branch of government. Thank you, Madam President."

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure and said:

"Madam President, I rise to speak in favor of this measure.

"Madam President, colleagues, S.B. No. 2828 makes it clear what the parameters are surrounding the governor's use of disaster relief or emergency powers. It makes it clear that the executive shall not abuse its powers to circumvent existing laws and the constitutional authority vested to the Legislature by the people of the state of Hawai'i. It points out very clearly that, whether it's abandoned cars or homelessness or any other long term societal ill, these are not the kind of issues to be addressed with declarations of emergency power waiving a variety of laws on the books.

"Contrary to the assertions of some members of the administration, this measure continues to provide the governor with all the powers necessary to provide relief from damages that may be caused by natural disasters—such as fires, floods, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, pandemic illnesses, and other natural causes—as well as manmade disasters—such as massive oil spills, nuclear accidents, airplane crashes, civil disturbances, and acts of war or terrorism. This measure does not stop the State from taking preventative actions when it is threatened by a major or manmade disaster or acts of war or terrorism, nor does it adversely affect ongoing emergency projects that are being undertaken to mitigate flood, erosion, wind, earthquake or other damages caused by natural disasters. The Committee was very sensitive when the administration came to testify when the measure was before us and adjusted the language accordingly.

"Madam President, I'd like to put on the record the genesis for this measure—the governor's abuse of her disaster relief powers. In the past, recent past, the governor issued at least four emergency proclamations to authorize the expedited construction of homeless structures on the Leeward coast of Oahu after she had done something similar for abandoned cars on Maui, and extended the terms of the emergency proclamations for the homeless structures during periods when the Legislature was not in session. But prior to that, we had been in session and there were adequate times to collaborate with the Legislature. These emergency proclamations and their extensions while the Legislature was not in session prevented the Legislature from ensuring that public funds were being properly expended by the governor and preventing the appropriate exercise of the Legislative authority.

"While I, too, believe that sheltering the homeless is an appropriate exercise of governmental authority and resources, I do not believe that the approach taken by the governor to provide such shelter and such services is appropriate, particularly when the governor had ample opportunity to collaborate with this Legislature on these important societal matters. And I believe had she collaborated with us, we would have been forthcoming with the resources required. As noted by your Committee on Ways and Means when this measure was before it, the homeless issue is one that falls under the category of periodic societal inequity or circumstance that is most appropriately addressed through initiatives proposed by the governor or others and approved by the Legislature through the normal course of the legislative process—or if necessary, can call us back in to deal with it, as was done after 9/11. It certainly does not rise to the level of a natural disaster or manmade disaster which the governor used as justification for circumventing state laws and county ordinances.

"Finally, Madam President, regarding the bill's requirement that disaster relief cannot extend beyond the adjournment of the next regular session of the Legislature without legislative approval, some in the administration have complained that emergency relief might take four to six years to complete. Thus, they say, they say that requiring legislative approval for extension of such disaster relief is too much of a burden on the administration. We've been engaged to extend flood relief and hurricane relief in the past—that's real disaster emergency relief. However, as accurately noted in an editorial by one of Honolulu's dailies, if addressing the problem takes that long, then 'it no longer is an emergency and legislative oversight is warranted.'

"Madam President, I urge all my colleagues to join me in voting in favor of this measure. Mahalo."

Senator Hemmings rose in rebuttal and stated:

"Madam President, I rise in rebuttal to the previous speaker's remarks and further want to illuminate the position of justification with my colleagues to vote 'no' against this manmade disaster of legislation.

"I want to congratulate the good Senator from Maui and the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee for a well-prepared presentation. Some of the points she made are worthy of thought.

"I think we can all admit that there is no law, provision, to address manmade disasters. This is a manmade disaster—the homeless problem we have in Hawai'i. And I would submit that, like many of the problems we face in society, the homeless—like some other institutions of the human experience—are as old as history itself. It's not whether or not that we have it or not; it's to what extent it is plaguing us. And the homeless situation in Hawai'i is, hardly could be, termed now as periodic.

"In your district, Madam President, it is acute. Literally thousands of people have been moved out of their homes and out to the beach. Is it a disaster? I don't want to argue semantics. But certainly it is a disaster of epic proportions for the people living on the beach. There are some in this Chamber that pride themselves for compassion. I'd like to ask where it is—for the children living on the beach, for the unsanitary conditions they're living in, and a lack of access to just normal day-to-day niceties, such as a bed to sleep in or a flushing toilet. Some would say, well, that's not a disaster. Well, to the thousands living on the beach, I would submit otherwise.

"What's most interesting is I definitely say a lot of it is manmade. Granted some of the people in the situations have deteriorated their own lives through their own vices. But others aren't there for any other reason than the disaster we have created in Hawaiian economy. Certainly it's a disaster for the children there.

"Regarding abusing the emergency disaster declaration process, I can't believe that helping people the way the Governor has is abuse. The fact that close to 3,000 people got moved off beaches into shelters, the fact that 900 of them—close to a third of them—were able to transition into homes of their own, the fact that those people were no longer in harm's way is hardly abuse of power.

"I'm sorry about the two-party system in this state where the dominant party refuses to collaborate with the executive branch of government, spends six of the last eight, these last six years uncollaborating—excuse the play on words—the ability of the executive branch of government to do many things to benefit the people of Hawai'i simply because that Governor has a different political label. And then to stand here on the Floor of the Senate and say this Governor doesn't want to collaborate seems rather thin.

"Before you vote again, I'll ask you again and I want to ask hopefully the Majority party members who are advocates of this legislation, who are you helping? Who do you think you're really helping? Thank you, Madam President."

Senator Hooser rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Madam President, I rise in support.

"Madam President, this bill is very simple. It merely clarifies the Governor's powers, emergency powers to deal with real emergencies. And I think that I believe if Governor was interested in collaborating, she would bring these issues up during the session. On a true emergency she can call a special session. And we have done special sessions for special circumstances. But to use these powers—so this is not about helping the homeless—this is about using the powers appropriately.

"As we all know, Madam President, we have many issues and many challenges. If you have a loved one in prison, if you yourself are in prison, I'm sure you would say, you would say the prison system deserves emergency powers. If you have a loved one or a friend who has mental health issues, I'm sure you would say the mental health situation, and our public hospitals deserve emergency powers. If you're stuck in traffic, if your children go to schools that are falling apart, I'm sure you would say they deserve special emergency powers. But this is not what it's about.

"The Governor has used her powers to bypass environmental laws, health laws, to get rid of junk cars on Maui. There was no reason except in a bona fide emergency to bypass procurement laws, bypass fair wages laws, bypass environmental laws, bypass health laws and a whole number of other issues. And this bill before us merely says an emergency is an emergency, and those powers are granted and appropriate. Thank you."

Senator Inouye requested her vote be cast "aye, with reservations," and the Chair so ordered.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2828, S.D. 2, and S.B. No. 2828, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISASTER RELIEF," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Tokuda moved that S.B. No. 2956, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Slom rose to speak in favor of the measure with reservations as follows:

"Madam President, I rise in support with strong reservations on this bill.

"We have seen over the last couple of years attempts by the Legislature to save the beef industry, the pork industry, the egg industry, the dairy industry. We're down to two dairies right now. We're not going to save them by raising the prices on consumers. The problems that we have created in terms of taxes and mandates and regulations really have been an emergency provision, but we don't deal with those kinds of emergencies. And raising the prices in this bill here will keep the dairies alive maybe a little bit longer, but we have not looked at the business climate. We've not looked at the producers. We've not looked at the real world in terms of market and competition. And so the inevitability of what's going to happen to this industry as it has to others and as it will happen to others in the future is very clear.

"This Legislature spends a great deal of time jousting with the executive branch and talking about things that really are not germane to keeping our economic infrastructure and our business climate. And if we continue to do that, we will continue to mourn the death of industries. Thank you."

Senator Hemmings rose to speak in opposition as follows:

"I rise to speak against this legislation.

"Thank you, Madam President. It shows how sometimes legislators work. Originally I thought this bill was just another effort to save another industry worthy of consideration. But words spoken by the previous speaker ring so true—that we oftentimes create the very problems that we spend taxpayers' moneys trying to solve.

"I don't know what form of economics there is that says in its wisdom that politicians can make more informed decisions than consumers. The consumers speak through their pocketbooks and the wealth of their collective knowledge in buying goods and services—it's called free enterprise. It seems to me Hawai'i needs to be liberated from a system much like you could see in another island called Cuba, where politicians and centralized planning rule the economy, and the result is shortages, lack of affordability and diversity in the economic marketplace—economic stagnation at the worst.

"Yes, at first, bless this bill seems like a laudable effort to save an industry like we've desperately tried to save so many. But in passing these bills, we never ask why do businesses leave the Hawaiian marketplace? Why do doctors leave the Hawaiian marketplace? Why do airlines fail? The answers are obvious.

"I don't think this bill is going to do as the previous speaker said what it's supposed to do when the underlying problems addressing the Hawaiian economy continue to plague every industry—and worse yet, plague the pocketbooks of the poor consumers that have to pay for the poor decisions made on this Floor of the Legislature. Such poor decisions, that a lot of the consumers end up homeless and living on the beaches. Thank you, Madam President."

Senator Hee rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Madam President, I rise in support.

"We have an emergency, Madam President. This bill was introduced by the governor, and I will support this bill, emergency notwithstanding. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2956, S.D. 1, and S.B.
