S.B. No. 195	Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection, then to the Committee on Ways and Means	S.B. No. 707	Jointly to the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection and the Committee on Judiciary and Government Operations
S.B. No. 198	Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection, then to the Committee on Ways and Means		Senator Hee rose on a point of personal privilege and said:
S.B. No. 218	Jointly to the Committee on Water, Land, Agriculture and Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Public Safety and Military Affairs, then to the Committee on Judiciary and Government Operations		“Members, I wanted to, on behalf of all of you, extend our congratulations to our President for signing as an amicus in the ceded lands case before the United States Supreme Court. I wish she had invited us to join her, but she has her reasons. But we join you in spirit.
S.B. No. 237	Jointly to the Committee on Energy and Environment and the Committee on Water, Land, Agriculture and Hawaiian Affairs, then to the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection		“I also wanted to recognize that Governor Waihe‘e and C.J. Richardson, as well as Princess Abigail Kawananakoa also signed as amicus curiae. But John Waihe‘e, in particular, because he and I have had a lot of discussions because in 1994 when I was Chairman of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, we brought the lawsuit, and he was governor at the time. I guess he did not appreciate that what was being characterized as an affordable housing development essentially was a developer’s development, which included market homes on the ridge line, golf courses, shopping centers, and then some affordable housing. And that was the danger of the development, that in fact, the State was engaging to become a developer under Joe Conan at the time.
S.B. No. 238	Jointly to the Committee on Energy and Environment and the Committee on Water, Land, Agriculture and Hawaiian Affairs, then to the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection		“As all of you know, we will be engaging discussion on this issue. The Committee on Water, Land, Agriculture and Hawaiian Affairs intends to hold hearings on all the bills that are submitted, and during that course, the Committee will make clear that reconciliation with native Hawaiians is not new—in fact, has been done with the Indians of the lower 48, native Alaskans, the AJA that were interned during the war, and, presently, reconciliation is ongoing with the Filipinos who fought for the U.S. in World War II.
S.B. No. 245	Committee on Energy and Environment, then jointly to the Committee on Judiciary and Government Operations and the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection		“There’s a missing piece in the discussion, and that is the Kamehameha Schools, of which I am a graduate of. Kamehameha Schools evidently forgot to sign on as an amicus curiae and they should be held accountable for that. Kamehameha Schools, after all, has its very core in the lands of Princess Pauahi, who received those lands from her cousin, Princess Ruth Ke‘elikōlani.
S.B. No. 246	Jointly to the Committee on Energy and Environment and the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection, then to the Committee on Ways and Means		“It is regrettable that Kamehameha is not an amicus curiae, and they owe, not only the Hawaiian people, but all those who may be married to Hawaiian people, all those who may have children who are Hawaiian, all those who have friends or family that are Hawaiian, and all those like President Obama, who may
S.B. No. 263	Committee on Energy and Environment, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

S.B. No. 271	Committee on Tourism, then to the Committee on Ways and Means not be Hawaiian, but are keiki hānau o ka 'āina. They were born here.

“Kamehameha owes an explanation because when John Doe prevailed at every step, they wasted no time in calling—guess who?—the supporters of their lands to rally with Kamehameha Schools. And some of you may have been there. I was there.

“Kamehameha Schools should be held accountable, and it is with this discussion that the expectation is Kamehameha Schools will be an active participant in all of the hearings. After all, the difference between the lands of Pauahi and the lands of the crown, which were taken and then ceded back, are the same.

“So, it is with that discussion that we look forward to the Kamehameha Schools. Thank you.”
