ORDER OF THE DAY

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2009

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 177 (S.C.R. No. 40):

Senator Sakamoto moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 177 and S.C.R. No. 40 be adopted, seconded by Senator Slom.

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition to the measure and stated:

"The U.S. Supreme Court is going to take up the matter of ceded lands on Wednesday; our Attorney General is already there. Several hours ago, the United States Supreme Court ruled on a motion by the Obama administration to allow the acting Solicitor General to intervene and to provide comments to that argument. So, I find it very difficult to ascertain why we in the Legislature would adopt a resolution to call for the withdrawal of the Governor, the Attorney General, particularly since all the previous governors going back to Governor Waihe'e, Governor Cayetano, have supported the state's right to buy, sell or transfer lands.

"Other states—more than two dozen other states—have joined in this action, and, really, it's a states' rights issue and it will be decided on Wednesday. It does not, however, require that the state do anything. It just reestablishes the powers of the state and particularly when we're talking about trust lands or ceded lands.

"We also have an interesting situation here with our Hawai'i Supreme Court and its ruling: taking an apology resolution and making it into the force of law. Again, this goes beyond anything that the last three administrations have stood for, and so I think we should wait and see what the arguments are and what the decision of the nation's highest court is next Wednesday. Thank you."

Senator Hee rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"With response to the previous speaker, these resolutions are appropriate. It is an expression of the elected representatives of the State of Hawai'i. It dovetails the expression of the majority that shall be voted upon on this floor, if it should be passed, to be consistent with the Hawai'i Supreme Court. It is an expression that represents and recognizes the limited land resource of ceded lands. It acknowledges that the state has and will continue in all likelihood to transfer remnant pieces as they have done since statehood. And perhaps most importantly, it will demonstrate that two branches of government, the legislative branch and the judicial branch of government, stand united as one when it comes to the disposition of what was formerly crown and government lands which were taken without the consent or compensation of a peaceful kingdom by a colonial power. I rise in strong support. Thank you."

Senator Hemmings rose to speak in opposition to the measure and stated:

“Understanding the sensitivity of the prior speaker’s position on this issue, we certainly can go back to the events of 1893 and what really happened. But I would submit that never before, prior to 1893, did the individual Hawaiian citizen, regardless of ancestry, have sovereignty over the land. Sovereignty was obviously vested in the sovereign. So, the evolution of land can be debated in many ways. Nevertheless we come to this time in our history when we discuss—we, the sovereign people of Hawai‘i, regardless of our race—making decisions on how to use land. And I would submit that the bill we’re looking at today is a good bill. It will follow the resolutions, but these resolutions do not dovetail with that.

“To ask the Supreme Court to take away states’ individual rights to sell land if they deem appropriate does not make sense for the people—the sovereign people of the State of Hawai‘i, or the sovereign people of any state. Obviously the Founding Fathers created a federal system because they felt that states’ rights reign supreme in all things with the exception of the mutual protection of our nation through defense and interstate commerce. That principle, Madam President, is well articulated in, I believe, the 42nd paper by James Madison in the Federalist Papers. You probably know it well, being the Constitution scholar that you are. States should and must have the right to manage their resources and not allow the federal government to come in and make unilateral decisions. So I think our Governor and the Attorney General’s position, as articulated by the good Senator from Hawai‘i Kai, is wholly consistent with this concept.

“Passing this resolution does something much more insidious when it comes to judicial proceedings, as the previous speaker stated. And that is simply, we are not part of the judicial branch of government, and not meant to override errant decisions by our State Supreme Court. And that is the way it should be. We are separate but equal branches of government. They interpret the law, but we make it. And if we have to remake a law to address the best interests of the people who elected us, so be it. They are not elected. We are. One of the most important things we do regarding the state budget is controlling assets. Therefore the control of the land should be vested by law in the Legislature, not in the judicial branch of government. So, I’m urging my colleagues to vote ‘no’ on this bill for the simple reason that in doing so we’re protecting state rights and the rights of the Legislature, to deem what is appropriate in managing the assets of this state. And quite frankly, with their history, I don’t trust the State Supreme Court. I think we can do a better job. So let’s do so by voting ‘no’ on these resolutions. Thank you, Madam President.”

Senator Hooser rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I’ll keep my remarks brief. I’d like to, first of all, just echo and support the remarks—the very thoughtful and eloquent remarks—given by the Chairman of the Water, Land, Agriculture, and Hawaiian Affairs Committee. I’m in full support of that. And just to simply say this is the right thing to do and the right time to do it. Thank you.”

Senator Galuteria rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Madam President and colleagues, I had hoped that my first time to speak to you on the floor would have been about another matter, but I find it right and certainly appropriate that I appeal to you in strong support of these resolutions and for all, what I consider to be, the right reasons. Obviously the word ‘pono’ is tossed out in various ways and various manners in this day and age and ‘pono for the Hawaiian people.’ But as a freshman senator, I’d like to appeal to you in another way, and that is to respect the various branches of government.

“The argument towards reconciliation of the Hawaiian question will always come into play. The Hawaiian community must indeed organize. But in this particular case, I feel as if the executive branch is not fully respecting the wishes of the other branches of government. So in that regard, I simply ask for you to look at it as a means by which the Legislature, our branch of government, strongly supports the resolution that is before us—urging the Governor to withdraw her appeal—simply because the judiciary has already said what they need to say and I certainly feel as if we should adhere to their decision.

“The concept of home rule is very important. The concept of keeping our decisions within the State of Hawai‘i is very important because of what it will do for the future generations, it will mean that if we don’t get the right decision, we’ll just go elsewhere to find that right decision to execute what we need to execute. So in that regard, let me close by asking the body to please support this measure, support the resolutions and support the following bill. Thank you, Madam President.”

Senator Hee rose in rebuttal and said:

“I would like to offer a few remarks to clarify these resos. Evidently there are some on the floor who believe the state cannot sell ceded lands. And that is not true.

“The Hawai‘i Supreme Court decision related to the 5(f) lands only. Members, there’s a bill that was moved out of the Committee on Water, Land, Agriculture and Hawaiian Affairs earlier this week that proposes to sell 5(a) ceded lands located on Sand Island. So, any misunderstanding of the state’s rights to sell ceded lands is inaccurate. The right to sell 5(f) lands, the crown and government lands which were taken—1.8 million acres in 1893—is at question. Those are the ceded lands upon which the Hawai‘i Supreme Court made its ruling, not the 5(a) lands. The state has every right, even though the Governor has said in the media she has no intention to sell ceded lands.

“So, I hope that as we move forward in this discussion, that certain members get their facts accurate with the disposition of ceded lands because we’re just beginning the debate on this journey through the session, which frankly I look forward to. Thank you.”

Senator Slom rose in rebuttal and said:

“I notice that several of the speakers tried to mix metaphors and tried to mix in these resolutions with the bill coming up next and with other bills and other issues.

“I don’t think that there’s any confusion. I think everybody knows what we’re talking about here, and what we’re talking about is whether or not the state has the right to sell or transfer these lands, including the ceded lands. I don’t think there’s any confusion with OHA because they spent several thousands of dollars of state money, taxpayer money, for this ad today for rallies and everything else against these resolutions.

“There’s no confusion because the other states understand what is at stake. And what is at stake is: there is an attack on states’ rights. Every one of us in this room took an oath to uphold the United States Constitution and the Constitution of Hawai‘i. For twenty-two consecutive years now, the executive branch has taken the position that the state has the ability to do these things. Only now are we questioning what can be done, and only now do we look at the State Supreme Court, which again has taken a congressional resolution and tried to raise it into the force of law which it cannot do. And if we talk about respect, then in fact, we should not have selective respect. We should respect all branches of government.

“So I urge my colleagues to consider what these resolutions do apart from the next bill and other bills in this session. Thank you, Madam President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 40, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE GOVERNOR AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO WITHDRAW THE APPEAL TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT OF THE HAWAII STATE SUPREME COURT DECISION, OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS V. HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF HAWAII, 117 HAWAII 174 (2008)," was adopted with Senators Hemmings and Slom voting "No".
