And at this time I’d like to ask Mr. Bhagowalia to stand and be recognized. Congratulations! And if we could also ask Odetta Fujimori and Beverly Lee also in the gallery—they are among the nominees that we have also just confirmed—if they could also stand to be recognized. Thank you.”

It allows communication service providers to provide information to law enforcement personnel in the case of life and death situations or where there may be possible serious injury to a person. The House did make some technical amendments, and they did put a small provision that would strengthen the language in terms of written certification. Thank you."

Senator Slom rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I think this is a remarkable session, now winding its way to the end. I had mentioned before that we had more gut-and-replace bills, and earlier than ever before; and I can't remember, Mr. President, ever having the Senate so agreeable to House action for bills that we had prior to conference. And hopefully, this is a good omen that not only will we have a good conference session, but that we will pass good legislation for the people of Hawai'i. One can only hope, Mr. President. Thank you."

Senator Tokuda rose on a point of personal privilege to wish, with great humor and enthusiasm, Senator Slom a happy birthday. Together with Senators Kidani and Kouchi, they presented him with lei and gifts, and welcomed his family and friends who were seated in the gallery. Senator Tokuda then proceeded to read aloud the names of 71 special funds in honor of Senator Slom.

Senator Slom rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I want to thank all my colleagues; I will treasure all of these things as I've treasured the memories of having the privilege of working and being with you all these years. And I'm just really glad that it was Senator Tokuda that read off that list rather than Senator Hee, otherwise we'd be here until about 4:15. Colleagues, I treasure my experiences in the State Senate, the debates that we've had, the issues that we have discussed; and whether we've agreed or disagreed. Well let's see, you always disagree with me, 24 to 1, but you've always been respectful; you've been kind and generous to me. I think I've outlasted four presidents in this Senate to date. And I remember making a speech one time in the Senate declaring that I had now become the oldest living member of the State Senate, and a former member of the State Senate from the Big Island jumped up and she said, 'No you're not; I'm older than you.' And I was just amazed that a woman, first of all, would give her real age; and secondly, claim to be the oldest in the body. This body is very special to me—each and every one of you are very special—and hopefully we will continue working together for the betterment of all people in Hawai'i. Thank you very much. I'm humbled by this. Thank you."

Senator Hee rose to inform the members about the dunking booth to raise funds for the Hawai'i Foodbank, and humorously invited them to participate.

Senator Kim rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I don't know if I want to follow Senator Tokuda after reading all of that. It's scary that we probably voted or supported all those special funds at some point in time. But Mr. President, I rise because as you all know, the Committee on Accountability held their hearings on the overpayments and overtime. I'm very pleased, if members don't already know this, but the last administration, we found out in these hearings, actually sent out a directive that clearly flew in the face of the statute that allowed us to collect certain amounts in a timely manner to recover any payments that were overpaid. Our current governor wasted no time in sending out a directive on March 30 of this past month. He sent out Directive No. 12-03, salary and wage overpayments, in which he states that all the departments of the State of Hawai'i shall use their best efforts to minimize salary overpayments of employees and actively pursue all remedies available to recover any salary overpayments. Then on April 2, he sent out Directive No. 12-04, and this is the authorization overtime work policy statement, and also states that department heads are responsible for properly administering overtime work within their particular organizations, and goes on to talk about how this has affected our budget. But I just wanted to send kudos to our governor that he acted timely and that these directives supersede all other directives that have been on this matter. And so, to that, Mr. President, thank you very much, and Hau'oli lā Hānau to our minority leader. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair made the following announcements:

"First, referrals and re-referrals are made in accordance with the Supplemental Order of the Day that may be distributed to your offices later this afternoon.

"Secondly, the Chair appoints the following conferees for H.B. No. 2012, S.D. 1, Relating to the State Budget: Senator Ige as Chair, Senators Kidani, Chun Oakland, Dela Cruz, English, Espero, Fukunaga, Kahele, Kim, Kouchi, Ryan, Tokuda, and Wakai as members.

"Finally, all 2011 Senate conferees have been discharged in accordance with the action sheets that will be distributed to your offices later this afternoon."
