Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Dela Cruz, Taniguchi).

At this time, Senator Ruderman rose to invite the members to participate in his office's dessert sale to benefit the Hawaii Foodbank.

Senator Galuteria rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Madam President, colleagues, as you know, I'm the area legislator for one of the hotpots of Hawai'i: the vibrant growth that's going on with Kaka'ako these days. And we're very, very proud of what we've done and what we plan to do in the future for the urban core: one of the most important growth processes Hawai'i will see in the near future – in the far future, as well. There are a few very important bills that are advancing; one, in particular, is 1866. We've managed to meet with many of the stakeholders about the growth of the Kaka'ako area and, of course, HCDA, being the authority that governs this area and He'eia area – part of He'eia and part of the Kalaeloa area. We took great pains to convene meetings in my office, I might add, of the stakeholders. We knew the concerns of our community;

we knew the concerns of the developers, the labor area, the HCDA themselves, and the governor's office. And for the past month, we have been meeting to recalibrate the processes of the Hawaii Community Development Authority, and we crafted what we consider a bill worthy of your consideration.

"Now, having said that, part of the growth of Kaka'ako will be the ownership of the lands on the makai. Makai of what? Shall we move the makai to Ilalo Street? And so everything mauka can grow? Or shall we take the makai and shall we grow the makai? So, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, in a bill that has been advancing – that passed, by the way, 41 to 10 in the House – to ask for residential on the makai is now at a juncture where the crossroads is either put up or shut up. Now, are we going to ask the Hawaiians to wait a little bit more? Well, that's up to the Legislature.

"So, the bill passes the body on the other side of this grand building 41 to 10 – headed to conference. And in the midst of all of this 'legislative process,' shall we say, my colleague on the other side of the building expounds on the fact that this bill is dead on arrival. 'We already have irreconcilable differences with the Senate.' What would that be? They agreed to our bill. So, is it a forewarned conclusion that the House is going to kill something that they just agreed on? Is that how we do business here in this house? Is that how we do business here in the Legislature? I don't think so.

"Furthermore, since I'm on the topic of OHA on the makai, let's talk about the fallacies that have been expounded by those who oppose development on the makai. Shoreline development: what does that mean? The last time I looked, shoreline development was on the shoreline; in this particular case, it's almost half a mile from the shore. That's shoreline development? More than 2,000 feet from the shoreline? Okay. 'I won't be able to get to where I've recreated for years.' There's five streets that take you to the shoreline! Okay. Those are but two of the fallacies that have been expounded by opponents of the bill.

"In addition to that, colleagues, within the bill – and we know it because we voted for it – we have put fees for everyone who lives in that area so that the park will be secure and the park will be taken care of. It is almost a self-sufficient process that we're trying to allow OHA to do; and then the bottom line is that OHA still has to ask HCDA for the ability to build residential on the makai.

"Now, this is what I do not appreciate. I don't appreciate anybody standing up in the public forum and saying that if we go to conference, we don't need to talk about anything because it's done. Is that the way to do business with the Senate? Is that why we're the upper house? Because we don't do business like that? Well, I've got news for anybody who does business like that: you've got something coming. When we go to conference, we intend to talk the bill. We intend to take every opportunity to vet the bill; and at the end of the day, if the conference committee decides that it's dead on arrival, then we will decide that — certainly not half the House, certainly not half this Capitol. I wanted to share that with you because I was incensed by the comment by the Majority Leader of the House, saying that 'we go to conference, the bill is done,' even before we hit the table.

"So, I hope my words are ringing somewhere and it's just not empty because we intend to go to conference and talk it out. Let's not send our messages over there that our foregone conclusion is that we pass something, but our words – basically, our votes – are empty because that's essentially what we read and what we learned.

"I want to thank the Senate President for the opportunity to share this and, of course, the merits of the bill. It wasn't intended to share the merits of the bill, but, I think, the fallacies I certainly wanted to expound on. Thank you, Madam President."

Senator Shimabukuro rose to echo the comments of the previous speaker and thank him for his remarks, as well as to remind the members of her office's upcoming lunch plate sale to benefit the Hawaii Foodbank.

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:53 p.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Friday, April 11, 2014.
