

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

Wednesday, February 25, 2015

The Senate of the Twenty-Eighth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2015, convened at 11:34 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that she had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-First Day.

Senator Galuteria recognized front-line workers representing the Local 5 UNITE HERE hospitality and healthcare union, including James Bartolome, Gloria Salinas, and Evelyn Tubay from the Hyatt; Audrey Gecain and Victor Gonazales from The Modern; Evelyn Peralta and Divina Sabado from Marriott; Arnold Tabuso and Cynthia Uy from the Kahala; Junior Bosey and Ima Afituk from Honolulu Community College; Lydia Agustin and Nerissa Diego from the Moana Surfrider; Nathaniel Felicitas and Manuel Sagun from the Sheraton Waikiki; Gemma Conn from the Princess Kaiulani; Milegros Dollopac and Mike McGurn from the Hilton; and Faustino Sabro, Lorena Elpedio, and Berna Rivera from the Aston.

Senator Ruderman commended and congratulated the Pāhoa High School varsity boys basketball team, and presented the following remarks:

"Thank you, Madam President. Today it's my honor to introduce some members of the Pāhoa boys basketball team, who are here for a tournament this week, and their first game is tomorrow night.

"A couple years ago, I introduced some of the members of this team and their coaches. But this year, it's actually an even bigger deal; this year, they just won the Big Island Division II tournament. We can see them on the front page of the sports section here – it's a really big deal in our community.

"It's a bigger deal than it would be for an average small town because this year, the Pāhoa High School student body got divided in half when the lava flow was threatening. They actually forced half the kids to move to our rival school, Kea'au, nearby. So we lost some of our team, and some of our team had to make special arrangements to stay in Pāhoa; it required a lot of inconvenience and they faced a lot of adversity, and I cannot explain to you the stress of what the lava flow did. You can imagine having your school body torn in half quite suddenly and quite unexpectedly.

"I was honored to watch a couple of games last week – they played with such heart. And we're all so proud of them; not just myself and the school, but the entire community. They constantly face taller opponents with a deeper bench. You know, for some of the members, this is their first time here in Honolulu, and I do want to invite any of you who want to join to watch them play tomorrow night at 5:00 p.m. at Farrington High; they'll be playing Kalani High School. And by the way, on Saturday, they did beat the number one ranked team, which was Kohala High School – my apologies to Senator Inouye, but we won. We're very proud of them.

"In the gallery, we have freshmen Kallen Cardines, Noa Kaleiwahea, Joseph Ramos, and Kobe Anguay. We have sophomores Keali'i Luis and William Stinnett. We have juniors Keinan Agonias, Joel Rosario Jr., Kili Oliveira, and Angelo Williams. And here on the floor for our presentation, we have seniors Tolby Tad Saito and Torrell Thomas along with Coach Marc Saito and Assistant Coach John Byrd, Jr. At the appropriate time, Madam President, I hope we can have a recess to greet our guests, and I hope you'll give them all a warm welcome here."

Senator Gabbard, on behalf of Senate President Kim, honored Kiniokahokulua "Kini" Zamora, and presented the following remarks:

"Madam President, colleagues: On behalf of you, Madam President, it's a pleasure to welcome to the Senate chambers Mr. Kiniokahokulua 'Kini' Zamora, one of Hawai'i's most promising designers and fashion entrepreneurs. Also with Kini are his parents, Duke and Valerie Zamora.

"Kini is a local boy who grew up in Liliha. He recalls learning the fashion ropes as a child when his aunt Delilah Patoc gave sewing lessons to the children. Kini was the only one who maintained a keen interest in clothing and the only one to decide that fashion might be a career goal worth pursuing. Following graduation from McKinley High School, he earned a degree from Honolulu Community College – their fashion technology program – and then furthered his studies at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City. Following his schooling, he returned to Honolulu and was a sales manager for fashion retailers in town.

"Eyeing the popular television series Project Runway as an opportunity to spread his wings and showcase his talents, Kini auditioned for several years before being selected as a contestant from among thousands of candidates on his sixth try. He spent six weeks of his summer in New York City, where the show was taping season 13, and he soon became a viewer favorite. And one of those viewers was our very own Senate President Kim. He finished the series in third place, a very strong showing.

"Kini has since been capitalizing on that recognition and success. He and design partner Dean 'Dinko' Satta have opened a fashion company named KINIandDINKO, with their spring collection expected to be unveiled soon. He's also created his own clothing lines: the first called KZ Hawaii that features casual aloha wear, and the second named Kini Zamora that will highlight his ready-to-wear and couture collection for women.

"From very humble beginnings, Kini has dared to dream big. Supported by his parents, Duke and Valerie, he honed his skills and pursued his goals with a can-do spirit and a desire to make the most of every opportunity given him. Kini Zamora stands as an example and an inspiration to those who will follow in his footsteps.

"We commend and congratulate you, Kiniokahokulua 'Kini' Zamora, on your exceptional achievements, and we extend our very best wishes for continued fulfillment and success in your personal and professional endeavors. Please give him a warm hand.

"Also in the gallery, we have some family members, some guests, starting with – these are all for the Patoc family – Delilah, Brandy, Kristina, Sabrina, Anuhea, Kahealani, Leilani, and Sonny Patoc. Also Bernadette James, Desiree Zamora, Malae Liua, and Tiare Awong. Please give them a warm welcome. Mahalo."

Senator English welcomed students from Pōmare IV High School in Tahiti who were present in the gallery with Principal Rodney Livine, physical education instructor and former Olympian Gordon Barff, and trip organizer Hironui Johnston. Senator English noted that the private school, founded in 1948, is part of the Protestant educational system that was brought to Tahiti from Hawai'i 150 years ago by Reverend James Kekelaokalani.

Senator Kidani recognized former State Senator Pohai Ryan, who was present in the gallery.

At 11:46 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:55 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 528 (Gov. Msg. No. 519):

Senator Tokuda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 528 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kouchi and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of WESLEY MACHIDA as Director of the Department of Budget and Finance, term to expire December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Kouchi.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Thank you, Madam President. I rise to speak in support of Governor's Messages 519, 520, and 521. Colleagues, these three individuals represent the financial backbone and fiscal conscience of the Ige administration. And while they are all familiar faces to us, these roles represent new opportunities for them to apply their skills in service to the people of our state.

"Director Machida was previously the executive director of the ERS, serving during some of our most turbulent years, and ending his tenure by leading efforts that have put our state on a path to restrain pension costs and liability and resulted in the Legislature and administration making solid and continued commitments to our annual required contributions. With over 30 years of financial experience in both the public and private sectors and having been a CPA, Director Machida has the confidence and trust of both his colleagues and the public employees who have been the ERS's beneficiaries, and it is clear that he is approaching this new position with the same humility, perseverance, and – dare I say – grace that he has his previous roles.

"Colleagues, I ask for your support in confirming all three of these outstanding nominees and thank them for their continued service to the State of Hawai'i. Thank you, Madam President."

At 12:00 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:01 p.m.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 529 (Gov. Msg. No. 520):

Senator Tokuda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 529 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kouchi and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RODERICK BECKER as Deputy Director of the Department of Budget and Finance, term to expire December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Kouchi.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Thank you, Madam President. I rise to speak in support of Governor’s Messages 519, 520, and 521. Colleagues, these three individuals represent the financial backbone and fiscal conscience of the Ige administration. And while they are all familiar faces to us, these roles represent new opportunities for them to apply their skills in service to the people of our state.

“Now, I know that when you see Deputy Director Becker up there, you’re going to assume that we’re decking the budget. But he may look a little different to you: For one thing, he’s wearing a suit. I think that’s the only one he owns right now, and as our WAM chief mentioned, now he can get married, since he owns one. But we’re actually all here on a very auspicious occasion: voting in one of our own and advising and consenting on the very first deputy director in State of Hawai‘i history.

“Deputy Director Becker has served as the Ways and Means budget chief from 2008 to 2014, and for many years prior to that as a budget analyst. He has been a professional and diligent worker and was an invaluable asset to the Legislature as past chairs – such as our President – were forced to navigate their way through the Great Recession and utilized his skills and knowledge and experience to craft budgets that were both fiscally prudent and socially responsible. We are confident that Deputy Director Becker will represent the Senate well in his new capacity, wielding the lessons he learned in WAM masterfully.

“Colleagues, I ask for your support in confirming all three of these outstanding nominees and thank them for their continued service to the State of Hawai‘i. Thank you, Madam President.”

Senator Taniguchi rose to request that remarks in support of the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Taniguchi’s remarks read as follows:

“I rise to strongly support Roderick Becker as the Deputy Director of Budget and Finance.

“I have known Rod for a number of years. He served on my staff for the six years that I chaired the Ways and Means Committee.

“I have always found him to be diligent and hard working. I am confident he will take his talents to the Budget and Finance Department and make many contributions there.

“I ask my colleagues to support this appointment.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 530 (Gov. Msg. No. 521):

Senator Tokuda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 530 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kouchi and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of MARIA ZIELINSKI as Director of the Department of Taxation, term to expire December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Kouchi.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Thank you, Madam President. I rise to speak in support of Governor’s Messages 519, 520, and 521. Colleagues, these three individuals represent the financial backbone and fiscal conscience of the Ige administration. And while they are all familiar faces to us, these roles represent new opportunities for them to apply their skills in service to the people of our state.

“Director Zielinski is a certified public accountant with over 25 years in senior financial management positions in both the public and private sectors. In leading the Department of Taxation, you want someone who will get things done and get them done well and right. She proved she could do that in spades when most recently, as deputy comptroller of the state, she led the effort to produce the CAFR on time, something that had not been done in over 10 years. On Maui, as the accounting systems administrator, she did this as well, a feat that had not been accomplished in over 30 years.

“Director Zielinski has also assured your committee that she is committed to implementing the tax modernization system with fidelity while motivating her team and creating a department that is responsive to the needs of those they serve. If anyone can do all of this, it’s her.

“Colleagues, I ask for your support in confirming all three of these outstanding nominees and thank them for their continued service to the State of Hawai‘i. Thank you, Madam President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Tokuda introduced supporters of the newly confirmed directors and deputy director who were present in the gallery, including: Karen Machida, wife of Wesley Machida; June, mother of Roderick Becker; Department of Taxation staff members; and Governor David Y. Ige’s Chief of Staff Mike McCartney.

At 12:04 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:12 p.m.
