S.B. No. 2882 Committee on Judiciary and Labor, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

At this time, Senator Ihara rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Senators, as you know, Senator Ruderman's family had a new addition this Saturday: a baby girl. Her name is Aviva Rose. And Senator Ruderman, his wife, and baby remain in the hospital for a sixth day to address some complications, expected to be okay, but he's sleeping there, and not here. So, he asked that we continue to understand his being excused from being here while he addresses his family situation, and please join with me in sending him and his family best wishes. Thank you."

The Chair then made the following announcement:

"Yesterday, we said goodbye to our beloved colleague, Senator Kahele. I want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of the members of the Senate, and the staff members in your offices, that helped with all of the arrangements – the ceremony and the events that we had to put together over the last two weeks; all of our support staff, for their support and efforts; the governor and lieutenant governor and the administration, for their assistance; and all of the private sector people who came forward to assist us in our expression of mourning for the loss of Senator Kahele. No matter how big or small your contribution was, we could not have honored him in such a tasteful way without the contributions of each and every one of you. So, I want to express my thanks for that."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:41 a.m., on motion by Senator Green, seconded by Senator Slom and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Thursday, February 11, 2016.
