Committee on Ways and Means

At this time, Senator Gabbard rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, colleagues: I have to apologize. I was remiss in announcing the results of the Capitol Idol 4 – in short, second place. But I would like to thank Senators Kahele, Galuteria, Ruderman, and yours truly; we tried our best, but we had to relinquish the team koa bowl to the House, as well as we lost the individual trophy. So, thank you for your participation, and for those of you who could not attend, thank you for your monetary contributions. We were able to – with the House – raise $1,164, so, thank you, and so we’ll see you again next year. Mahalo.”

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“I just wanted to let everybody know that the senator from Kapolei was visibly experiencing great distress in having to hand over those two bowls to the House, so please give him your condolences.”

The Chair extended additional congratulations and thanks to the participants of the talent show, including the “Kahele posse,” which included talented Senate staff members.
