She couldn’t be with us, but her parents were in the audience, and our staff treated her so kindly and so well – her and her husband – that she wrote a short note to me to express that appreciation, and because it reflects well on our staff, I wanted to take just a couple of minutes to share it with you. She said, ‘We’d also like to acknowledge with much appreciation the manner in which the Sergeant-at-Arms folks took such great care of Uncle Hartwell, Leianne’s dad, with his limited mobility. One person in particular was very attentive to our dad’s needs. Please let them know – and everyone else know – how great you folks are. Aloha, Kupuna Hartwell and Lei Lee Loy.’ I just wanted to share that and say thank you to all of our Sergeant-at-Arms, who do so well in representing us with our visitors here in the chambers. Mahalo.”
